For Our Heritage and Freedom

Issue No. 105 - Uncensored Commentary by former Representative David Duke, PhD, and Dr. Edward Fields

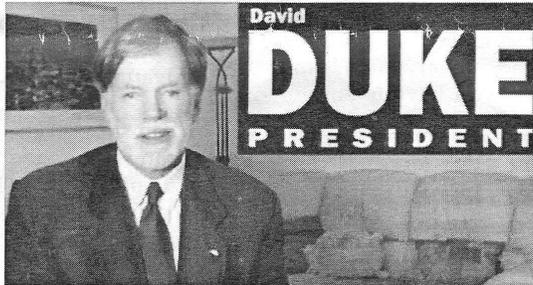

David Duke for President in 2012?

I am considering a dramatic move that could be a very powerful step toward saving America.

We can launch a national effort to inspire the American people with a dynamic campaign for President of the United States. It could well be the beginning of a true national movement that can mobilize millions through the most honest campaign for President since the time of our Founding Fathers.

This is the "crunch time" in the history of America.

America is in crisis. Our economy is in shambles. Our boys are dying or being maimed overseas by the tens of thousands. And all this while our borders are being overrun in an invasion that, unless halted, will change our nation forever.

The people and heritage that created our great American Republic are being reduced to a small minority in the nation our own forefathers built.

In many parts of our nation, we already walk as strangers in our own land and on our own streets because our government won't even enforce our immigration laws.

Robber international banks are stealing trillions and their own criminal bosses, such as the crooks at Goldman Sachs, control American fiscal policy.

The New York and Hollywood media continues to poison the soul of America with endless degenerate and destructive media.

Slavery, Jews, and White Guilt

Other than war, no institution of recorded history has violated more human rights, caused more deaths than did slavery. Although slavery still exists in parts of Africa and some other remote parts of the globe, the last great trafficking in human slaves occurred in bringing Africans to the New World beginning in the early 16th Century and flourishing up until the middle years of the 19th century.

The most egregious, cruel and murderous aspect of this period was the transatlantic slave trade often called the middle passage. Scholarly studies of the loss of life during the transportation of slaves to the Americas suggest that between 7 and 10 million Africans suffered indescribable cruelty and perished in the middle passage.

The human suffering and death from the African slave trade is the cornerstone of White guilt both in

DUKE FOR PRESIDENT? —

Our foreign policy is under the complete control of a foreign country, the Zionist State of Israel.

The middle class is being driven to extinction, squeezed by a rapacious super-rich ruling class and growing mass of welfarite slackers and illegal aliens sucking on the public teat, sucking the earnings of the working and productive Americans, and impoverishing many of America's elderly who have worked hard and sacrificed all their lives.

Instead of reducing the costs for health insurance for the great mass of working and self-employed Americans, now the government is going to make the outrageous health insurance rates of the giant insurance companies mandatory! All this while the American taxpayer and working Americans must pay the medical bills of illegal aliens and others who have never paid a penny in taxes. The government is also mandating that no matter how clean and healthy a lifestyle you live, you have to suffer sky high insurance rates because your insurance rates have to subsidize the premiums of those who have lifestyles that result in diseases like AIDS which can bankrupt any health system.

We are in the ultimate crisis.

In 1992 I ran in a series of Republican primaries for president and received double digit percentages in some of them, despite the fact that Pat Buchanan got a fast start in New Hampshire and received the lion's share of publicity.

I think it is time that the American people have a real choice for President of the United States in 2012.

I am not entering the race yet, and won't do soUNLESS I receive the support necessary to keep my work going and UNLESS the level of your support indicates that we can raise the funds necessary to have a serious campaign for the presidency and the potential to receive matching funds.

If I become an official candidate for President, at that point we can also purchase media time at the very lowest advertising rates. And the meetings, speeches, debates, and TV spots can really wake up the American people and launch a mass movement that can take America back!.

So. David Duke for President? ... It's completely up to you.

If you want me to run. It is COMPLETELY UP to YOU!

If you can support the Duke Report to a level that shows I can raise enough money to wage a credible campaign and receive federal matching funds, I promise you the most inspiring political campaign of your life.

Slavery, Jews and White Guilt --

America and around the world and has been tirelessly promoted by both academic and popular media. The film Amistad by Steven Spielberg is the cinematic standard of films about the slave trade and a more recent treatment of the slave trade is the film Amazing Grace.

Amistad carefully portrays the slave trade as a Christian European-American enterprise. It has terribly unflattering portrayals of American leaders, the Queen of Spain, and conspicuously Christian slave traders accompanied by scenes of horrific treatment of Black slaves.

A few years Before Amistad was filmed, in 1992 the Nation of Islam caused tremendous controversy when it published the book, The Secret Relationship between Blacks and Jews. It quoted prominent Jewish historians who boasted that the African slave trade, and indeed the slave trade in the West for the last two thousand years was thoroughly dominated by the Jewish community. Fifteen years before the publication of The Secret Relationship, I appeared on the largest Black talk show in America and for the first time exposed the issue before a national audience. As strange as it might seem, in spite of my politics, I had a major role in setting in motion the rising Black awareness of the issue.

Five years after The Secret Relationship, Amistad was perhaps a remedial effort to put the genie back in the bottle. Amistad was set in a thoroughly Christian New England. The actual center of the American slave trade was in New England at Newport, Rhode Island. It was not a minor coincidence that Newport had America's oldest synagogue and was home of the largest thriving Jewish community in the colonies. Although Spielberg portrayed the horrific slave trade as a thoroughly Christian affair, with not a Jew in sight, here are the words of the major Jewish history of the early Americas called, New World Jewry, 1493 to 1825 by S.B. Liebman of the American Jewish Historical Society. He wrote about those who owned and manned the ships, the perpetrators of this mass human cruelty and murder.

“They came with ships carrying African blacks to be sold as slaves. The traffic in slaves was a royal monopoly, and the Jews were often appointed as agents for the Crown in their sale... [They] were the largest ship chandlers in the entire Caribbean region, where the shipping business was mainly a Jewish enterprise....The ships were not only owned by Jews, but were manned by Jewish crews and sailed under the command of Jewish captains.”

Here’s how I came to discuss the Jewish slave trade on Black Perspectives. In the late 60s I became acquainted with a slave trade researcher by the name of Walter White. He wrote a short booklet called Who Brought the Slaves to America. I contacted him and began doing my own research into the slave trade. I read all the official Jewish histories pertaining to it. I have followed the issue for over 35 years now, scanning official Jewish general histories on the subject, often published by Jewish historical societies.

These were histories written by Jews for Jews. Here are some direct quotes of the leading Jewish historians writing about the African slave trade. You can find all the academic citations in my books My Awakening and Jewish Supremacism.

Prominent Jewish historian, Marc Raphael, in his book Jews and Judaism in the United States: A Documentary History wrote:

“Jewish merchants played a major role in the slave trade. In fact, in all the American colonies, whether French (Martinique), British, or Dutch, Jewish merchants frequently dominated.

This was no less true on the North American mainland, where during the eighteenth century Jews participated in the “triangular trade” that brought slaves from Africa to the West Indies and there exchanged them for molasses, which in turn was taken to New England and converted into rum for sale in Africa.

Isaac Da Costa of Charleston in the 1750s, David Franks of Philadelphia in the 1760s, and Aaron Lopez of Newport in the late 1760s and early 1770s dominated Jewish slave trading on the American continent.”

Jewish historians record old Jewish documents showing how the slave trade was so thoroughly Jewish that slave auctions throughout the Americas had to close on Jewish holidays. Brazil received far more African Slaves than North America. A. Wiznitzer, another official involved in Jewish historical societies, in his book, Jews in Colonial Brazil pages 72 and 73. wrote:

“The buyers who appeared at the auctions were almost always Jews, and because of this lack of competitors they could buy slaves at low prices...If it happened that the date of such an auction fell on a Jewish holiday the auction had to be postponed. This occurred on Friday, October 21, 1644.”

Studying the Jewish histories of the New World, I began to learn of a carefully recorded Jewish history that you and I are not permitted to know about. I discovered that many centuries before the transatlantic slave trade, Jews dominated the slave trade in the Western World for the last 2,000 years, even back to Roman times.

Funk and Wagnall’s Jewish Encyclopedia in volume 10 page 460 writes:

“The trade in slaves constituted the main source of livelihood for the Roman Jews....”

The Jewish slave traders were rich enough to seduce Gentile authorities centuries ago just as they do in modern America and around the world. In the 5th century, Pope Gelasius permitted Jews to introduce slaves from Gaul into Italy, on the condition that they were non-Christian. In the 8th century, Charlemagne (King 768

-814) explicitly chartered the Jews to act as the primary agents of the slave trade.

In A History of the Jews: From Babylonian Exile

Newport, RI was the center of the slave trade in the colonies and the home the oldest synagogue in the original colonies and the largest Jewish settlement.

to the End of World War I, published by the Jewish Publications Society of America, the author writes very emphatically on page 312:

"Jews were among the most important slave dealers [in European society]."

Here is a quote from the famous Jewish historian, Jacob Marcus, from an article on Jewish history in the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Marcus casually remarks about the Jewish control of commerce in the Middle Ages.

"In the dark ages the commerce of western Europe was largely in his [the Jew's] hand, in particular the slave trade. . . . Marcus, J. Jews. Encyclopaedia Britannica. Vol. 13. p.57. (1952)

It should also be pointed out that not only were Jews the principal slave traders, they had a markedly higher per capita holding of slaves in the American colonies than did non-Jews.

Jacob Marcus wrote in United States Jewry:

"All through the eighteenth century, into the early nineteenth, Jews in the North were to own black servants...In 1820, over 75 percent of all Jewish families in Charleston, Richmond, and Savannah owned slaves, employed as domestic servants; almost 40 percent of all Jewish householders in the United States owned one slave or more..." United States Jewry, 1776-1985 (Detroit: Wayne State University Press, 1989), p. 586.

The historical fact is that even in the South less than 5 percent of White people owned slaves. Less than 2 percent of Whites owned slaves in all of pre-Civil War America, while 40 percent of Jewish Householders owned slaves. Of course, the Jewish media only ascribed slavery guilt for Whites even though Jews were 2,000 percent more likely to own Black slaves than were Gentiles.

When I broached some of these facts on Black

Perspectives on the News, the host was fascinated. We also discussed White and Black relations in a friendly discussion that helped to enlighten Black people on the true thinking of White Americans on issues concerning them. I simply quoted prominent Jewish historians literally boasting to their fellow Jews about their historic domination of the slave trade. The underlying question is why is there a collective White guilt assigned for the slave trade but no collective Jewish guilt? Why aren't African Americans or anyone else allowed to know who the primary perpetrators of the slave trade were?

After the show was taped, perhaps the most blatant suppression of free speech in the history of broadcasting then occurred.

The Anti-Defamation League and other Jewish organizations discovered that I had documented the dominant Jewish role in the American slave trade. They became desperate to prevent this historical truth reaching a wide audience.

Jewish leaders, Sol Rosen, Harry Bass, and Peter Minchuck filed for an injunction in the Common Pleas Court in Philadelphia, asking the judge to block the program. The Jewish judge, Stanley Greenberg, then ordered that the program not be aired unless he "approved" it.

Never had a national talkshow been blocked by a judge even before it aired!

Luckily, the First Amendment Coalition and attorney David Marion appealed the decision to the State Supreme Court and won.

However, Jewish methods of censorship were by no means exhausted.

Jewish organizations then attempted to suppress the show in each individual PBS affiliate in every city the program was to be broadcast. In a campaign of intimidation, Jews threatened a cutoff of donations and public support if the show aired. Even violence was threatened against the stations.

My office was flooded with non-stop threats saying that I better hope the show wouldn't air because if it did, my family and I would be killed and worse things that I won't even repeat here.

By the time they finished their dirty work, the original program aired on only a fraction of local PBS stations. Furthermore, the stations that did dare to air the original program — immediately were forced to follow it with a special program attacking me. Of course, the program did not refute one fact I had presented, it was just a hate fest concerning my associations not my facts.

I had no power to refute their lies about me and the slave trade. I could only give my side to the fewer than 10,000 people on my mailing list. That was before the days of the Internet. Thank God that because of the Internet you can now hear both sides of every issue.

News travels fast though in the Black community and they quickly heard about what happened, and they resented the Jewish effort to censor the most famous Black television program in America.

Many Black scholars who were interested in slave history began to research this aspect as well. That research culminated in the very scholarly The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews and also in the academic work of African American professor Dr. Tony Martin. Just as I have been demonized by the media, so have Professor Martin, and Minister Farrakhan, and of course anyone who simply quotes Jews themselves about themselves.

I will never forget when, as a young boy, I watched the thoroughly Jewish Paramount Pictures movie called The Ten Commandments starring the handsome Gentile icon, Charlton Heston, playing Moses. Moses stands up and condemns the Pharaoh for slavery.

Moses: "It would take more than a man to free the slaves from bondage, it would take a God, but if I could free them I would."

Pharaoh: "What evil has done this to you?"

Moses: "The evil that men should turn their brothers into beasts of burden, to slave and suffer in dumb anguish...only because they are of another race another creed."

While Jewish Hollywood portrayed the Jews as fighting against the concept of human slavery and for freedom and human dignity, it just didn't happen to mention the fact that according to the book of Exodus the Hebrews, even while still in Egypt, had slaves too.

Here is a quote from Leviticus, in the Old Testament, showing the true Jewish view on slavery proclaiming that Gentile slaves must be a Jewish inheritance forever and that it is permitted to treat them cruelly, but never to treat Jews in such harsh ways:

44 As for your male and female slaves whom you may have: you may buy male and female slaves from among the nations that are round about you...

46 You may bequeath them to your sons after you, to inherit as a possession forever; you may make slaves of them, but over your brethren the people of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

(Leviticus 25:44)

For simply quoting that verse from the Bible, my friend Sam Francis lost his job as editorial editor at the Washington Times.

Thank God, that with the coming of Jesus, the word of God at least for Christians became love and kindness. The only problem is that organized Jewry rejected and hated Jesus and the love and reconciliation that he taught. They practiced the edict in Leviticus all the way until Europeans and Americans outlawed the slave trade in the 19th Century.

Notice again the image presented by the Jewish media is exactly opposite to that of historical reality.

When Amistad came out Time and Newsweek went out of their way to deny the "anti-Semitic lies" about a supposed Jewish role in slave trading. And of course, recently the Jewish media has promoted books by Jewish authors--telling us that Jews actually had only a minor role in the slave trade. Unfortunately, most of Newsweek's readers were not told what prominent Jewish historians themselves wrote about the matter before it became an embarrassing issue. Ironic, isn't it, before it became a shameful issue, Jewish historians were bragging of their control of the lucrative slave trade in their own histories to their own people. But when it became an embarrassment after people like me exposed it, now they say "Oh this is just anti-Semitism."

The Jewish Hollywood depiction of Moses as condemning slavery just because they are of a "different race or creed." Of course, the Pentateuch and the Talmud both advocate slavery and cruelty toward slaves.

While Whites are immersed in collective guilt for Black slavery by the Jewish-controlled media, that same media parcels out not one iota of collective Jewish guilt for the horrific transatlantic slave trade that constituted a true Holocaust that exceeded the most liberal estimates of Jewish lives lost in the Second World War.

It is also important to note that Slavery existed on the African continent from the beginning of time. It is true that many Whites as well as African Blacks engaged in the slave trade. That is a scar on the history of both peoples. But it is also true that it was the European people themselves who ended not only the slavery and slave trade of Blacks by Whites and Jews, but also stopped most of the slavery existing among African blacks—a cruel institution that existed since the dawn of history. British and American Gentiles who courageously and unselfishly fought to end the slave trade had to go against Jewish financial power and political influence that fought tooth and nail to preserve their nefarious enterprise in human flesh and suffering.

It should be a badge of honor on Europeans in both England and America that they moved to outlaw the slave trade in spite of Jewish pressure and power. As I have shown, it is not only Blacks who have suffered from the brutal, Jewish-dominated slave trade. Blacks suffered for about 350 years of Jewish dominated slave trading. Tens of millions of European Whites and others have suffered greatly from the Jewish slave trade for at least 2000 years.

But, the Jewish-dominated media, from Hollywood to the New York Review of books, to CNN and the largest media conglomerates seek to flood the nation and the world with White guilt for slavery while washing away any collective guilt of the people who hold the world records for slavery since at least the time of the Romans.

Why do they seek to instill guilt in us you might ask?

The answer is clear. The Jewish tribe sought to replace the ruling class of America and other European nations and replace it with their own people. They understood that anything they could do to introduce guilt or shame upon their enemies, anything that would lessen their sense of loyalty and love of their own heritage, would weaken their resistance to Jewish domination.

And of course, the Jewish supremacists did succeed in replacing the old ruling class. They are the new ruling class of America, of Britain, of France and through their Fed and World Bank and IMF and globalist media and their political bribery in groups such as AIPAC and others, they have become more powerful than in their wildest dreams.

European peoples did engage in slavery as have all other peoples on earth. But we should understand that at times tens of millions of our own were victimized by slavery. But Europeans are saddled by the Jewish media with unique guilt and self-hate for slavery. The truth is that the Europeans at least not only acted to end slavery in their own nations but fought to eradicate it all over the Earth. Although all nations engaged in slavery, only the Europeans, on their own, ended the practice and have endeavored to rescue millions of other peoples from its accursed grip. That is unique among almost all peoples and should be a source of pride for Europeans rather than guilt.

In sharp contrast to this European record, for the people who have been the biggest champions of this repugnant trade in human suffering for the last two thousand years, not a trace of guilt is permitted. No, they must always appear as the victims and never the perpetrators.

But times have changed, and slowly the world learns the truth. And with this new knowledge about the slave trade, they soon discover that this is just the tip of the iceberg of Jewish domination in many areas of human exploitation. I could go into the facts of the historic and modern White slave trade of tens of millions of Eastern European women who have become the modern victims of the same old tribal malevolence. And again, I could quote leading Jewish historians on the matter. But that will have to wait for another article and documentary film. It is not just the Palestinians who face the evils of Jewish supremacism.

Nor has it been only the Africans who suffered under the Jewish run African slave trade. Millions of Europeans have suffered as well.

I talk about these issues, not because I hate or want to harm Jews. I oppose human suppression or exploitation of any kind against anyone. I ask the decent people among the Jewish people to end this hypocrisy and to clean up their act. Too long has the Jewish establishment of power sheltered and facilitated the worst perpetrators of human exploitation. Modern Israel is the modern expression of the types of human oppression and exploitation, torture, murder and ethnic cleansing practiced in their slave trade. Unfortunately, only some courageous Jews such as Gilad Atzmon, Israel Shamir and a few others are taking a principled stand. I salute them.

And I salute those of you who can still think for yourselves rather than letting the controlled media do your thinking for you.

The truth is growing exponentially. What can you do to help? You can help spread the truth, help change the consensus. We are the future. Together we will prevail.
