Rejecting Royalty - Blood and Loyalty

Alexis de Tocqueville, the French historian who visited America in 1831, said that the one problem he saw with our extraordinary new country was the ever increasing black population. He made the analogy that our English, who fled Royal rule, had left and fled something they had not only an allegiance to, but also a blood tie to. Blood relation creates loyalty. And yet, even with this deep sense of loyalty, the English rebelled when they felt they were being mistreated. So these black people we were bringing here in droves, who did not share our culture, did not share our blood, and felt no sense of loyalty to us-how much greater and more violent might their rebellion against their white rulers be?

Lets move forward a couple hundred years and couple the above problem with a new problem: The fact that white people have been encouraged to abandon their people. Encouraged to embrace the idea of there being "no such thing as whiteness." Encouraged to embrace diversity above their own racial family tree. White people are supposed to not only forget about their people, but rebuke them as if they were the root of all evil. We hear it constantly. Henry Ford created the assembly line automobile craze-the cause of so much of the greenhouse gases. There is truth to this complaint, but lets examine further: If blacks could create an automobile, goodness, wouldn't they have done it?! Were they so much more moral and noble than Mr. Ford? I think not.

In America, we hear every November about how white people are responsible for slaughtering Indians and spreading Small Pox, to which the poor defenseless Native Americans had no immunity. Now, Americans are allowing busloads of Illegal Mexicans into the USA with a peculiar strain of TB. We just allowed the first West African to slip through the radar into our country, exposing over 100 people potentially to this deadly disease (including school children). No one says it is horrible of the Mexicans or the West African to expose us to these horrible diseases. On the contrary. They say that anyone who does not want them to come here and receive free medical care is "racist."

And yet lets look closely at the actions of white people. What ethnicity are most of the doctors and nurses who are willing to put themselves in such danger and go to countries like Liberia to try and save the lives of the Africans with deadly Ebola? They are white-many of them British. What ethnicity are the majority of the environmental activists who actually care about those greenhouse gases that I mentioned before? They are overwhelmingly white. Animal rights activists? Overwhelmingly white. What are African Americans primarily interested in? Themselves. I don't see millionaire rap "musicians" going to Africa in droves to help save the lives of their kin. They are an acutely selfish people, which brings me to my point: The American melting pot is a myth. Tocqueville's concern was not only valid-it is coming to pass. You cannot have equality and justice with dishonorable people who share no common interest with you. They don't care about you, and they never will.

The Founding Fathers and early pioneers erroneously thought that the blacks who labored in the fields would be incapable of ever starting a movement to destroy our nation. They didn't foresee the help they would receive, however, from the Jews in displacing us-which has been primarily achieved through the influence of the mass

The success of the media on our children to convince them that they are "bad" and need to push against all of their natural instincts and embrace "diversity" was something our Founding Fathers could not have foreseen. We didn't have anything even closely resembling today's mass media then.

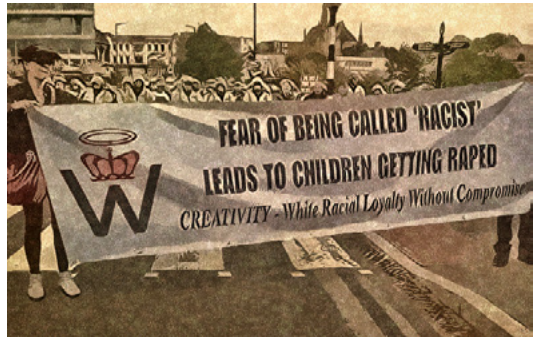

"Diversity," of course, means no such thing, for to have true diversity, white people would be able to have "white pride" as much as blacks are able to embrace "black pride." The "Diversity" the American media invented includes everything-except for one thing-white people. White people are not to have any concern for their own people, and are supposed to put the interests of all other people first at all times. Are the Blacks and Latinos admonished for despising whites? Absolutely not. Their anger toward all of the "injustices" done to them by whites is validated. But try to say that you are tired of cities being destroyed by Black and Hispanic gangs and criminals, and you are a "racist." That is not equality, it is genocide. Everything but "white" is alright. Obviously there is an agenda, and it isn't equality and diversity-it is displacement. They want all of the things the white man gave this world-medicine, agriculture, transportation, even television and radio-and they want the white man to blend into obscurity and say that whiteness never really existed in the first place.

On their own, the Hispanics and Blacks could not achieve any type of greatness, as is evident in their 'natural habitats' - i.e, their own nations. Compare Kenya to France. Compare Ecuador to Italy. And even in a smaller sense, when you displace a white ruling class-whether it is in South Africa or the City of Detroit-and blacks take over their own leadership-you have chaos, crime, disease, and death. Let's not forget the disaster that is Haiti-the first slaves to overthrow their white rulers. Why didn't they achieve greatness on their own? They aren't capable. Why is rape in South Africa an epidemic? The British aren't there to hold them back from self-destruction.

But convince a superpower like America or England to become either complacent (as in Tocqueville's day), or worse, suicidal (as in our day), and we may see our great people go the way of the dinosaur-but unlike the dinosaur, we will have no one to blame but ourselves.

CONTROLLED MEDIA FINALLY EXPOSED

The best thing to come out of Obama's run as President in my opinion is that the controlled media has finally been exposed for its partisan reporting. The obvious partisan reporting in the political arena by the "main stream" media has also opened the eyes of the general public to the ridiculously obvious over reporting of White on Black crimes and the almost non existent reporting of the reverse. The media ideally should be a watch dog for the people and I would like to believe that in the past this was true and that there were journalists with integrity. Integrity cannot exist anymore in Journalism, at least not in the "main stream" (controlled) media. A monopoly of the mediums has been established, it doesn't matter whom has the monopoly, the conflict of interest generated by total control of the mass mediums cannot allow any reasonable thinking person to believe that the interests of the controlling party will not be represented favorably by the "Journalists" who receive paychecks from them.

Having a Black man as the puppet has allowed the controllers to get away with much more than when they had a White man as the puppet. It worked for the first term of the Black puppet, any dissention was silenced with shouts of racism. Thanks to the alternative media and its availability on the internet many of the current Governments scandals have been exposed and read by a lot of people. This reporting of the scandals by the alternative media has not only exposed the Government but has exposed the "main stream" media as nothing more than a propaganda tool somewhat reminiscent of that of some not so distanced Communist regimes.

The media tries and generally succeeds in shaping race relations, they focus on the very rare White on Black crimes and ignore the very common Black on White crimes. Once again thanks to alternative media sources the propaganda from the controlled media has been exposed over and over again. Unfortunately the power that comes with control of the popular media is all too real, with a blitz of coverage, a Black shot by a White Cop, riots ensue, orchestrated to perfection. A White baby was shot in the head this year by Black thugs, no mass coverage, no White riots, an unarmed White youth was shot dead by a Black Cop, no mass coverage, no White riots, Knock out game featuring Whites as the victims, coverage leads the viewer to believe that it is just unruly youth not Black youths committing these cowardly acts.

As more and more White people become victims of hate crimes by Blacks the media's biased reporting keeps exposing what little credibility they have left. The questions that should be asked are... Why does the media focus on White on Black crime and try to hide the reverse? Who are these people that have the monopoly of the main stream media? Do they control anything else? Hopefully people will start to investigate for themselves and see the media for exactly what it is CONTROLLED!

DIRECT VICTIMIZATION

One of the most important priorities of The Creativity Movement is to "Straighten out the White man's thinking". The priority of trying to wake up our race is not unique to Creativity and is the main goal and purpose of most White Racially Loyal organizations. Creativity does not only want to awaken those still asleep to the ongoing genocide of our race but offers solutions in our holy book Natures Eternal Religion.

After all these years of trying to warn the masses of sleeping White people to the dangers of non-White immigration, race mixing, "diversity", multiculturalism, non-White charity and letting an alien culture have control of our Governments, Banking, Education, Justice and Media, the majority of our race remains asleep. With all the different White Racial Loyalist organizations doing their part to help wake up our race one would hope that we will eventually get through to the brain washed masses, but it has not happened to this point.

There has been a rise of Nationalism in Europe over the past few years, this is in my opinion is because they are being directly affected by the problems that the Non-White invaders bring, violence/rape and murder of our people, increased welfare rolls, lower wages, displacing the native population, anti-White affirmative action programs, lowered educational standards and so on. White North Americans are being affected by the same ongoing genocide of our race it just hasn't reached the levels being experienced in Europe, YET!

Direct Victimization seems to be the only way the majority of our people will be awakened. Hopefully most will just lose a job because they are White or have their wages kept low via the flood of cheap labor imported into the country or have to move out of the neighborhoods they grew up in to escape the forced multiculturalism. Unfortunately a lot of White people are going to continue be jolted awake by the murder or rape of a loved one or attacked in cowardly fashion by a mob of sub-humans. There is no choice but to wake up after being a victim of these racially charged crimes, the truth is beaten into them. It's a shame that it has to come to that point for most people, it's like not understanding the pain derived from fire until you stick your hand in it.

Creativity Movement members will never stop trying to straighten out the White man's thinking, doing so is a directive from our holy books, waking up our race remains the most important aspect of the White Racialist movement as a whole and we must reach as many of our folk as we can. We must not get discouraged as it is evident that most people will need to get burned by the fire before they are forced awake from their slumber.

What is actually Salubrious Living?

When you look at Fourteen principles of Salubrious Living you will notice only one of those principles talks about diet, and that is the second one. Then why are we always talking about Salubrious Living like it is some kind of thing related only to fruitarian diet? That is so wrong, because as you may know Salubrious Living is about Sound Mind in Sound Body in sound Society in Sound Environment, not about "sound diet". Many people focus themselves on diet part of SL, those who don't like us do that intentionally to distract people from it and show us as some fruit eating fruitcakes, and those who are into Creativity are obviously missing the point if they think it is solely about diet. Only small part of it is about diet, and that part is of secondary importance actually.

There are the 14 principles of Salubrious Living, and we will try to briefly explain them here and show the true nature of it.

1. We believe in living in accord with our human biological heritage and in harmony with the Laws of Nature.

This one is general and needs no explaining.

2. This means eating fresh wholesome food in its natural state as Nature has given it to us. It must be unprocessed, unpreserved and not tampered with in any other way. This further means it must be organically grown, without the use of chemicals.

This is the one about food diet so we won't be talking about that one now.

3. Availing ourselves of a clean, wholesome environment of fresh, unpolluted air; clean water; and the beneficial therapy from the direct rays of the sun, every day.

It speaks about importance of preserving healthy environment, unpolluted air, water and ozone layer (Sound Environment).

4. Some form of strenuous physical exercise several times a week.

It generally says it's important to exercise your body, remain vitality. (Sound Body)

5. Rest and relaxation, both mental and physical, including sound and efficient sleep.

It says that body, and both mind in order to be healthy need good relax and sleep, instead exhausting yourself (Sound Body and Sound Mind).

6. A form of recreation that is gratifying to our sense of accomplishment.

It means that we should combine physical activities with some sort of sporting competition, we see it that way at least, giving yourself sense of accomplishment. (Sound Body and Sound Mind).

7. A sense of purpose, security and confidence to fuel our goals for accomplishment and living the good life. We must have goals and we must be motivated.

This is the same as 6 but this time as a general rule in life - self accomplishment (Sound Mind).

8. Deliberate self-mastery of our life and our work.

It refers to the same thing as number 7. (Sound Mind)

9. Gregarious living within the framework of our CREATIVE religion, our White society and social intercourse with our White Racial Comrades. We are social animals.

Speaks about building healthy white society. (Sound Society)

10. Healthy expression of our sexual instincts.

It's obvious what this one says, no need explaining there (Sound Mind, Sound Body (no std's) and Sound Society (no queer parades)).

11. Living in a pleasing and healthful environment.

Similar to number 3. (Sound Environment)

12. We do not believe in the use of any "medicines", drugs or chemicals as having any healing or therapeutic value. In fact, all medicines, drugs, narcotics and chemicals are poisonous and toxic to the human body. Furthermore, and for the same reason, we do not believe in the use of vitamin, mineral, or enzyme supplements, nor the use of artificial food coloring, preservatives, nor refined or fragmented foods.

It speaks about various poison that we take and we shouldn't use them (although we still think some medicines are beneficial, especially if they are made from natural sources, like herbs, and in some cases with heavy infections we don't think body could survive without antibiotics, for example meningitis, but there is certainly tones of unnecessary toxins that we use). (Sound Body)

13. We strongly believe in the practice of fasting as the best means of ridding the body of accumulated poisons and toxins. We are convinced that fasting is the most natural and effective means the body has of overcoming all forms of disease, and restoring itself back to health.

This one talks about fasting as method of cleansing your body, something people have used since ancient times. (Sound Body)

14. Living in, and promoting a eugenic White society. This means that we take particular care in not only assuring the perpetuation of our precious White Race, but we take deliberate care that the misfits are culled and that each generation advances to higher and more salubrious levels, physically, aesthetically and mentally.

This one promotes eugenics. (Sound Society)

To conclude, SL is only partly about diet, and only small part, but for some reason that is most common topic for people when referring to it. Salubrious Living is actually about using various methods to enhance physical fitness, mental capabilities, making our society healthier for future generations, and securing our one and only environment upon we all depend. That is what Salubrious Living is all about - Sound Mind in Sound Body in Sound Society in Sound Environment.

Salubrious Living for us means a healthy way of life, not only healthy food or any other thing particularly. That's why it has word "Living" in itself.

Many people separate nutrition from other aspects of life, and this is very much wrong for us. Nutrition is part of life and if you are eating good food and taking drugs, alcohol, or sitting all day, etc., you are damaging yourself. Good nutrition is only one part of much greater thing, a part of life.

Every one of us has specific metabolism, and of course it's functioning in many ways. We think that almost every person can live long without meat, only if he/she wants to. Living without meat is ok, but you don't need to force yourself to do it, you have to want it. Also one big mistake is that without meat you cannot get every nutrients you need - WRONG! Of course you can! Only thing you have to do is organize yourself and read and learn as much as you can. There are many studies and experts that will be against this way of nutrition, but there are also opposite ones. You decide for yourself what you think and if you are curious person, you can try some things for some period. If you don't like it, fine, but you tried some thing that is not necessary bad for you and it will not damage your body. No one is forcing anyone to eat what you don't want, you decide for yourself.

There are still many things that are doubtful regarding human's diet. Klassen was right in many ways there, but we still think he may possibly be wrong about certain things about human diet, because we are product of evolution, and as such our diet also evolved in a certain way during last few thousands of years. We must always have in mind that Salubrious Living program is still not 100% fact, and that's why we always prefer to make a distinction between basics of Creativity and Salubrious Living. Our diet still may be up to debate, but everything else that Klassen wrote about race relations, about the way nature functions and about how we will survive or perish if we don't live according to nature's laws is a fact. That is also one reason why Salubrious Living is not mandatory for Creators.

Even Ben Klassen had to admit that we don't know enough yet; part of a quote from WMB Creative Credo No.7:

"But I want to add that the study of nutrition.....is still in its infancy, and much study and research need still be done to refine the art for our future full utilization."

Until research proves what the perfect diet for the White Race is, we think the most important thing is that we keep ourselves healthy and fit.

Klassen's Teachings: We will not compromise

More often than I can recall, well-meaning friends have cautioned me with "I agree with everything you say, but you come on too strong. You turn people off. Why don't you use a more soft approach and use the art of gentle persuasion? Water it down somewhat. Compromise here and there. It is too much of a shock for the average White Man." And more of the same.

There is a lot of merit in the above advice. The idea is to get people to see the light without really disturbing them too much. If possible persuade them without any shock and without making them feel uncomfortable. Let them keep their age-old superstitions about their favorite spooks. Don't disturb their favorite hang-ups. Don't point the finger at the Jews. Don't bring up that nasty race issue. Live and let live. People will like you a lot better that way. Business as usual. By the time these friends get through showering you with kind advice you are back in the good old rut, where you gripe about what is going on, you deplore and lament, but the total effectiveness of any opposition to the Jewish juggernaut has been neutralized to exactly zero. There we are, right back into the ranks of the good old Kosher Conservatives.

At this point I am reminded of a ploy we used in the Florida Legislature when some Representative would drone on in a long-winded meaningless speech. When it was over someone would get up and say sweetly, "Your point is so subtle it completely escapes me." In contrast to the above I am reminded of another story about the tourist visiting the Ozarks. He was appalled when he witnessed a hillbilly hitting a mule between the eyes with a two by four. When the tourist asked the hillbilly "Why did you hit the mule on the head with a two by four?" the hillbilly replied "When you're dealing with mules, the first thing you have to learn is that you first of all have to attract their attention."

So we have two divergent approaches: the subtle approach or hit them between the eyes with a two by four. Which serves our purpose better? Before we come to a conclusion on this question there is another little story that I would like to relate that might help us to clarify the situation.

A young insurance salesman was called into his boss's office and presented with a rather unpleasant task. "You know that nice young couple, John and Mary you sold that life insurance policy to last week? Well, we have just received word that John was killed in an automobile crash this afternoon. I want you to go to Mary and break the news gently to her so that it won't upset her too much." The young salesman was stunned. He thought about it for a while and then he asked his boss, "Just how do I go about doing that?"

This is a good question and it is one that confronts us Creators in our program of waking up our deluded and misguided White Racial Comrades who have been deceived, lied to, programmed and led down the road to slaughter for all these centuries. How do you go about breaking gently to them that their preacher wittingly or unwittingly, is part of this Jewish fraud? How do you reveal to them that even their own parents were caught in this vast Jewish lie and helped brainwash them into becoming traitors to their own race? That their "own" government is part and parcel of this conspiracy and is betraying the United States and selling us out to the Jews and mud races of the world? How do you "break this gently" to the well meaning but hopelessly naive deluded White Racial Comrades?

The answer is YOU CANT! There is no way in the world you can expose this whole treacherous mess without shocking them, without causing pain, without many times even making bitter enemies of people who should be on our side.

Yet, the job has to be done, and evidently no one other than the Church of the Creator is willing to tackle it. Oh yes, there are ten thousand other organizations (mostly Kosher Conservatives) that are doling out bits and pieces of the conspiracy, but somehow they never seem to get the whole picture together. Usually they CANNOT and they WILL NOT let go of some of their own pet hang-ups that they are saddled with, whether it be the spooks-in-the-sky swindle, or they have some Jewish friends (therefore all Jews can't be bad!) or whether it be some other idiocy. Usually these Kosher Conservatives end up steering you down a no-win blind alley. They invariably end up with a no solution program - just deplore and lament - and they will assuage your apathy further by frankly admitting they don't have a solution.

The Church of the Creator has been assiduously trying to avoid getting caught in this kind of a no-win, pointless self-flagellation. We say this: either we go all out and make the total effort to win, or we might as well throw in the towel and go fishing. Why waste a lot of useless effort if you don't have the PROGRAM to win, and don't know HOW to win?

In CREATIVITY we are convinced the White Race now has the answer. In CREATIVITY we are convinced that we have the TOTAL PROGRAM, the FINAL SOLUTION, the ULTIMATE CREED. We are convinced that the design and the blueprint are now completed and finished. We need tamper with that no longer. We can now concentrate completely and devote our total efforts on selling it to our White Racial Comrades, on propagandizing, on proselytizing and organizing.

There no longer is a question of WHAT to do. We KNOW what to do. The only question is HOW do we do it best - how do we best use means and ways available to us to spread the word, to organize our supporters? How do we best utilize our resources? We MUST and we WILL use the organized muscle and the awesome power of a polarized White Race to get the Jews off our back and wrest our destiny back into the hands of the White Race.

In this category, there is plenty of precedent and the answer is we will use all and every means available to us. We will use the technique of gentle persuasion where it is most effective, but we will not shrink from using the two by four between the eyes technique either wherever it is most effective. The point is we will also use a thousand different techniques in between and do whatever it takes. The point is we will use whatever means is most effective. The goal is so overwhelmingly important that it transcends all other values. That goal is the survival of the White Race itself. In a matter as overwhelming as this we do not quibble about niceties. As we have already gone on record in both our Bibles - we state categorically in the matter of life and death of our race - the end justifies the means - any means. We will therefore use any means that will accrue to the survival and benefit of the White Race. We will not be intimidated, we will not be swerved from our goal, we will not "water down" our creed, we will never compromise. We have burned our bridges behind us and there is no turning back. With us it is do or die - and with this attitude we will win - WE ARE BOUND TO WIN.

In conclusion, I repeat what I have already said previously: We will not compromise; we will not be intimidated; we will not be frightened off. We now have the weapons with which to win the war, and we mean to fight on to total victory come hell or high water. All we need is your unstinting help, support and effort. So do your duty. White Racial Comrades!
