Black Crew operatives like Cooper and Plumlee were contacted in the States for covert work abroad in a couple of ways, according to Plumlee. Sometimes the crewmen were involved in ongoing projects, like arms shipments that went south at certain times every month, so there was no need to risk open communication between the deliverers and their superiors. Other times, small aviation companies would place classified ads in aviation periodicals or daily newspapers, calling for pilots and mechanics. "We'd know that those ads were calls for a job," Plumlee explains. "You'd call, tell 'em who you were, and they'd check your name against a list they had of names, MOS's (military occupational specialties), and mailing addresses. If you were on the list, they'd switch you to the guy to talk to for the job, and you were set up for an interview. But there was no direct discussion of it on the telephone."

8. C-19, U.S. OMC-235, Delta 3, Sqd 4.

"Charlie one-niner was the group name, Delta 3, Squad 4 was the special U.S. Army team I worked with when we were making weapons drops into Nicaragua," Plumlee explains. "Bill Cooper was flying with that same group sometimes." OMC-235 was the acronym for Operational Methods Clandestine, a super-secret corps of active-duty military operatives controlled by the White House, Plumlee continues. With these map notations, he was jotting down names of military groups to jog his memory during his talks with Senator Gary Hart's office.

Hart was especially interested in the fact that U.S. active-duty military personnel had been operating undercover in Nicaragua in the early 1980's. Plumlee says several special operations groups performed HALO (high altitude low opening) parachute drops into Nicaragua, exiting airplanes just outside Nicaraguan air space and free falling across the border before opening their chutes at very low altitudes. Plumlee himself flew some of the military operatives into Nicaragua to shoot photographs of radar installations and purported MiG fighter-plane bases. "It turned out later that the most reliable photography was done from satellites," he reports.

9. Santa Elena (Somoza ranch), C-130, DC-6B, New airfield being built, 10-4-83, Ochoa-Barry operation, staging area weapons (drugs).

Plumlee says that Santa Elena had been former Nicaraguan president Anastasio Somoza's ranch in northwestern Costa Rica. He also says that it had been used as a transshipment point by drug runners for years before the contra war got underway in 1981. And this didn't change after Oliver North, Richard Secord, and their cohorts ordered the improvement of Santa Elena's landing strip to make the ranch the major staging area to supply weapons and equipment to the contras southern front.

Small airstrips like Santa Elena were sprinkled throughout Costa Rica and Honduras. When the contra war was in full swing these strips were needed to provide refueling stops and drop-off points for guns and other supplies destined for guerrillas bivouacked nearby. "The drug people controlled the areas where the rebel army needed bases", Plumlee explains. "The gun suppliers--first the CIA and later the private people who turned the war into a business--had to strike deals with the drug people in order to share these strips. You can't stay sane and safe down there without being on good terms with the CAF--the Colombian Air Force. I've taxied right up with a load of guns, and on the other side of the field, they're loading up drugs at the same time.

The map note refers to Barry Seal and Luis Ochoa, the Colombian drug magnate, running cocaine into Santa Elena. The C-130 and DC-6B notations refer to the reason the field was improved and the airstrip lengthened at the directions of Secord and North. "Barry Seal had flown in the Fat Lady with weapons one time and got her stuck," Plumlee says. "That decided 'em to lengthen the airstrip."

Interestingly, during John Poindexter's trial, in which he is charged with conspiracy to destroy documents, obstruct investigations, and lie to Congress, the prosecutor introduced a memo from Oliver North that seems to corroborate Plumlee's story about the stuck airplane. North had written to Poindexter that "one of the planes of the contra resupply operations got mired down in the mud at an airport in Costa Rica."

Another reason Santa Elena was upgraded was that the other major staging area for the contras' southern front, the ranch owned by American citizen John Hull, 150 kilometers east-southeast of Santa Elena, wasn't big enough for the scale of the operation. Also, even though Hull worked closely with the CIA in helping to arm the contras, the use of an American's land in Costa Rica for an arms shipment point was politically unacceptable to the Costa Rican government.

10. PT Patrol, Santa Elena.

Three extremely fast "stealth" boats were used to patrol the waters off Santa Elena and protect the secret airfield, Plumlee says, and the boats had a connection to San Diego. Karl Phaler, a San Diegan, had helped El Salvador modify several Boston Whalers into fast patrol boats in 1980 and 1981. Plumlee says the Black Crewmen always called the Santa Elena patrol boats "Phaler boats". In an interview, Phaler said he doesn't know how the boats he helped build for El Salvador might have ended up off Costa Rica. "Maybe somebody else just used my design and the name stuck."

Phaler later established a boat company called Freedom Marin in San Diego and sold three radar-deflecting Kevlar boats to the contras for $140,000, according to testimony by Robert Owen before the Iran-contra committee. Contra leader Adolfo Colero had visited the boat company in San Diego in 1984 and taken a ride on one of the boats. In a 1987 San Diego Union story about the boat purchase, Karl Phaler gushed that, "Oliver North said I was a great American. After a compliment like that, I would have done just about anything". Phaler was told that the heavily armored boats, which were fitted with machine gun mounts, were to be used to transport food, military equipment, and medical supplies to the contras. But he never actually found out where the boats were delivered or how they were used.

11. "North by Northwest," Toys for Eden.

Until May 1984, contra leader Eden Pastora was the major beneficiary of weapons shipments to Hull's ranch and Santa Elena. Costa Rica actually has three areas called Santa Elena; Plumlee says Oliver North and his courier, Robert Owen, assigned the code name "Point West" to the Santa Elena staging area on the northwest coast of Costa Rica. So Plumlee's notation refers to Oliver North, the location of Santa Elena, and the main reason for its existence.

On May 30 of 1984, at a jungle hideout, La Penca, just inside Nicaragua, a bomb exploded during a press conference called by Pastora. He was decrying the CIA's pressure on him to merge with the main faction of contras in Honduras. One American and several Costa Rican journalists were killed, but Pastora survived. The bombing, which was never solved, became the basis of a lawsuit filed by the Christic Institute, a non-profit public-interest law firm based in Washington, D.C. The suit claimed that the bombing was part of a criminal conspiracy that also included illegal covert arms smuggling, violations of banking and currency laws and political assassinations. Filed in federal court under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations statute, the suit name 29 defendants (including Hull, Secord, Owen, Pablo Escobar, and several CIA officials) who allegedly had a direct or indirect hand in the La Penca bombing and in various secret wars all over the world. The lawsuit was dismissed for lack of evidence in July, 1989, and is currently on appeal.

Before the bombing, Plumlee says that Pastora's guerilla commanders often complained about the shoddy gear they were receiving. They also complained about the escalating prices they had to pay for equipment. Plumlee began to share their frustration. "The guns weren't for sale when we were taking them to Guatemala and El Salvador a few years earlier", he remarks. "But in Costa Rica in 1982, '83, and '84, suddenly the guns are being sold to Pastora. His commanders would say stuff like, 'Well, you really fucked up my budget this month.' And some of the stuff was crap--boots with holes in 'em, old M-1's instead of M-16's, medical supplies that had their seals broken. It was a business, and we were bringing drugs back to pay for it. We were trading better weapons to the drug cartels in return for use of their airstrips. I thought this was a shitty way to fight for democracy."

Once the contra resupply effort was outlawed by Congress in 1984, Plumlee says, the airplanes themselves became rattraptraps. Oliver North's job was to circumvent the congressional ban on government aid to the contras, and that was accomplished by commissioning Richard Secord to bring in private arms dealers and aircraft suppliers to do the work for profit. Plumlee says these outfits didn't take care of their airplanes nearly as well as the CIA did, and he ended up flying planes that sometimes had no airworthiness certificates on board. Many of the planes had defective instruments, which was a serious problem when he had to deliver equipment during the rainy season. "Directional gyros were broken, so you couldn't tell if you were drifting off course; there were magnetic compasses with low fluid levels, so the compass would stick. Artificial horizons that were partially working, which is worse than not working at all. Hydraulic problems. See, this way, if a plane went down, it would be much easier to claim it was a shoddy free-lance operation not connected to the government.

12. Drug route from Panama to Pt. Escondido, Mex., Ochoa-Escobar operation, Army, Ft. Huachuca, Az., in place 3-2-83.

On this date, March 2, 1983, Tosh says he reported this popular drug-smuggling air route to the unit he answered to, based at Ft. Huachuca, Arizona. His military operations logistics officer was Army Col. James Steele, who was chief of the U.S. advisors in El Salvador. Plumlee had carried dope on that route from Santa Elena to Oaxaca to Puerto Escondido and on up into the United States several times. He says that he and his colleagues, working for military intelligence, using equipment supplied by the CIA had infiltrated those drug-smuggling routes, and they expected that these flyways would be shut down in one major sting operation. But it never happened. "That route remained open and operating for years after I had reported it to Ft. Huachuca", he says, "nothing was being done with this information, and a lot of us were starting to get pissed off about flying drugs."

13. CX over Bravo One

14. CX over Bravo Two

These crossovers are two of many checkpoints at which Plumlee was instructed to contact ground stations on his flights up the coast. These crossovers were points where two different flyways intersected, and there was a communications station nearby. The Black Crews usually had a coded check-in, such as six clicks on the microphone button or a short series of dots and dashes or a terse whistle into the mike. Such coded communications were common. "Going into Hull's ranch, you always whistled", recalls Plumlee. The check-ins were required because sometimes ground controllers sent back information that the mission was to be terminated for various reasons, and at these crossover points there were automatic, preset route changes and landing points for canceled operations.

According to Plumlee, Bravo One was the name of a weapons route into Guatemala on which Big Toad, a C-130 cargo plane, made regular air drops of heavy weapons. Bravo Two was the weapons route between various airfields in the Yucatan region of Mexico and the coast of Honduras. A lot of U.S. military hardware from El Salvador and Honduran military bases made its way to private contractors through Felix Rodriguez, according to Plumlee and several other sources. Plumlee says this hardware was shipped to the Yucatan as a way of "laundering" it before it was then taken back south and sold to the Contras.

15. Noriega?

Plumlee, an atrocious speller, wrote "Neirago?" on his map shortly after seeing a Panamanian dignitary at a landing strip near Rio Hato, on the Pacific coast of Panama, in 1983. "We had dropped off weapons there that were headed for El Salvador," Plumlee remembers, "and drugs were being loaded for the return trip. This guy was with some other people, and we called him the 'Strongman'. He was extremely friendly with all his people, all the way down to the corporals. I didn't really know who he was, just the 'Strongman', and somebody mentioned his name. I tried to write it just from the way it sounded."

LOOKING BACK

Looking back on it all, Plumlee sometimes finds it hard to believe he witnessed first-hand such a sordid part of American history. When he tells these stories, it is with an air of resignation tinged with insecurity, for he fully expects the listener to disbelieve him. So much of what he says is impossible to double-check; so many people in his circumstance have had their characters besmirched and their stories branded as lies by government agents. One thing he has going for him is that, unlike many pilots, he says he didn't cut side deals with drug runners, so he didn't make a lot of money. Why didn't he? "Sheer stupidity on my part. Looking back on it, I sometimes wish I'd taken the money like a lot of these damn mercenaries." He spits out the word mercenaries as if it were a lemon rind. "Sure I'm pissed off that I didn't get in on any of it, but we were loyal to our crews. I wouldn't have sold them out."

Ty West, a producer with CBS News in New York who used Plumlee as a source in 1987, when the television program West 57th broke stories about the secret Santa Elena staging area, says, "You wish a Catholic priest would come in and have all these stories and say, 'By the way, here are the photographs', but it just doesn't work that way...Tosh always had this big hang-up that nobody will believe him. That's partly why we never put him on camera--he would never believe that we believed him."

The details published here are just a fraction of what Plumlee knows about U.S. government actions in Central America. He can rattle off names of pilots and the secret, illicit missions they flew until the listener's eyes glaze over. He can name dates and places and times where he tried to warn federal investigators about the drug running, after which he was either threatened with arrest or the information went nowhere. In fact, he's seen the glazing eyes so many times, he's become jaded. The public really doesn't care much about what really happened down there, he observes, "They don't expect any better from the government. The CIA, the FBI, the DEA, Congress, the White House--they all knew we were involved in running drugs to help the contras and they could have stopped it. Everything I did down there WAS SANCTIONED BY GEORGE BUSH HIMSELF but he claims he didn't know, but he did and he would have had to go to great lengths to keep himself ignorant about it. But I am just a little ol' plumber, so what could I know about all this?"

END OF THE DISSERTATION--NOT THE STORY!

Now you might ask, "Why are you doing this, Hatonn?" Why indeed? Because there is an "all points" contract out on these and others and publicity is the only safety-net these people have for protection of any measure what-so-ever. Can any of you come out of your stupor long enough to realize what these men are telling you? If a Man will murder for $5 do you not think the government will effort to take out these truth-bringers? I put them under my protections to the full extent allowed and make every effort to bring them into my circle of awareness--it is hard for them for they are pretty hardened to God and Truth--for they have been lied to at such "high" levels of authority. Well, we just do that which we can and welcome them into the shielding of our capabilities for the unfoldment is going to get worse--or better, depending on which side you are on.

I don't like to just give you a wad of free-speech and leave you so, please, if you have time, I will list a few suggested confirmation pieces:

Cockburn, Leslie, Out of Control. Atlantic Monthly Press, New York, 1987. Subtitled "The Story of the Reagan Administration's Secret War in Nicaragua, the Illegal Arms Pipeline, and the Contra Drug Connection". This book details the web of connections between government functionaries, greedy arms suppliers, and the contra rebels. Plumlee appears in the book as a source.

Kwitny, Jonathan, The Crimes of Patriots, A True Tale of Dope, Dirty Money, and the CIA. W.W. Horton Co., New York, 1987. The Nugan Hand Bank scandal in Austria as shown to be intricately entwined with many of the same people who controlled the Contra War. This book gives excellent background information on the worldwide operations of several American arms merchants.

Wass, Murray, Cocaine and the White House. L.W. WEEKLY, SEPT. 30 AND OCT. 7, 1988. An exhaustive account of high-level connections between drug dealers and U.S. government agencies working in Central America, this story draws the larger context within which Plumlee was one small but crucial player. But don't act shocked that no one has ever even heard of the publication resource for these expose's got squashed instantly.

Woodward, Bob, Veil: The Secret Wars of the CIA, Simon and Schuster, New York, 1987. A good source for background and confirmation of Plumlee's stories regarding the types of information the Black Crew helped ferret out. The book also confirmed the time frames in which Plumlee says he performed certain undercover tasks.

I do ask that you pay attention as you read, however, always keeping in mind that these ran and are published by Establishment media--totally controlled! What could this mean? Well, first off, it means that someone in the Establishment media is a Zionist Elitist and they have a different plan for controlling and ruling your world! There are some irritated "top-dogs" over a lot of things recently, not the least of which is Baker in his efforts to deal "peace" talks between Israel and the Arabs only to be met with a new settlement of Israelis in occupied No-No territory every visit he makes. The top-"bananas" are about to have that big show-down for power--and the fireworks and sparks are going to shower all over the world.

Oh, don't lose sleep over the apparent rift for remember, dear ones, that is the illusion--they are working in lock-step toward that One World Government run by the Anti-God. It is just WHO will get to be big cheese.

After you ponder this information a while, I suggest you follow-up on Col. Gritz' books, etc. Start, actually, with his newest one, REFLECTIONS, and then go to his first one, A NATION BETRAYED.

You are about to lose your world to these traitors and treasonist criminals--in fact, they inhabit your highest offices. God give you insight and knowledge that ye can rise to the task of reclaiming your nation under God and your Constitution before the clock runs out.

Thank you for a long day, Dharma--but our brothers must know the facts and I know no other way to get it to them for it pushes Truth a bit farther and each new ear that hears and eye that sees will make great strides in unity within brotherhood.

Good-day. I ask that you leave this room immediately for you have had too much load on the system this day. Peace, and I thank you for a job well done. I salute all of you who so diligently place your necks out there on the block, have raised your hand to the square and now, effort to clear the path in Truth for your fellow-man.

Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Cmdr.
UFF/IGFC

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.

SEMINAR

June 7, 1991, 7 PM Royce Hotel Ballroom, 1601 Belvedere Rd., W. Palm Beach, Florida Admission $5.00 CALL Kip (407) 533-0703

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey

And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell

The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In A Fishbowl
Cry Of The Phoenix
Crucifixion Of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape Of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS, $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581. For credit card orders Telephone 1 800 729-4131 PLEASE USE ONLY FOR ORDERS (THE EXPENSE IS TOO MUCH FOR US) For other purposes 805 822-9655.

5

[illegible]

San Diego Reader April 5, 1990 27

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

MAY 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 7

5/23/91 HATONN
THURSDAY

Hatonn present. As we sit to pen this day, my being is filled with love and compassion for you, my people/brothers. This does not denote "ownership" but rather, "one with". Ah, your languages are filled with contradictions almost to the point of extinction of original meanings. Even names bear meaning and rarely is a "name" chosen which is unguided from higher knowledge. I will use as example, herein, one who continues to send assurance and support to us in love and understanding and above all, patience, as the play unfolds. Her name is Janell, his George (a good name if I ever heard one). Even if he were blinded to purpose and understanding, it is still a most wondrous name. Those who effort to figure out what in the world kind of name is Gyeorgos only find it to be George by any spelling. What means this term applied to a person? Worker of Earth or pertaining to work on Earth or within/upon earth. So, if you take my name, for instance, you will find identification beyond the obvious "label". Gyeorgos (George) meaning work focused on Earth. Ceres (nurturing, birthing, growing, planting--feminine aspect of God), Hatonn (Directly pronounced with a silent "H" denoting the masculine aspect of God and the "all in one-ness"--Aton). Will this hold true in every language? Yes, for there will be derivations of the labels in EVERY language even though they sound, in verbal tones, nothing alike.

So, George is, by George, a good name and I often have to nudge ones with that label to cause them to question their directions for it is a method of labeling through which we can make connections with our own team-mates.

Now, allow us to look at "Janell" (now please, dear ones, don't all of you send me your labels for investigation--I am only speaking example here and I cannot ask Dharma to spend time at label identification). Janell is a feminine construction of both "John" and "Jacob", meaning, in order, God is good, goodness, bearer of Truth of goodness and Beloved of God in goodness and successor. Therefore, you have one who is sent, or comes forth, in God goodness and is a successor to truthbringers who have passed the way and/or returned to advance in learning and goodness--even if the journey is only lessened by seemingly narrow boundaries of limited circumstance. Now, the portion "nell" is representative of a light or torch. Therefore, by all identification unto me, I know that the label was chosen for this one, regardless of present, past or future experience, to allow us to find contact with a successor light or torchbearer of the goodness of God.

Can labels be intentionally for disinformation to contactees? Yes indeed--but it only takes the blink of an eye to know Truth from Lie. Do not be further misled into thinking that visible physical circumstance means very much--for to God, who will ultimately recall all fragments--the knowledge is seen on the inner screen through the projector within soul, never requiring even the eye blinking

"time". As we serve and look for our contacts--we have to scan and locate. Sometimes ones have greatly strayed from the service of God and moved without the flock of God-ness. It ultimately matters not, for the journey will continue elsewhere or "again" if the direction is not found in a given cycle.

So, Janell has sent me a little clipping of a "Phoenix" which I will share for it expresses "meaning". "The legendary Phoenix represents the sun which dies each night and rises again each morning. Like the fabulous bird which emerged from the ashes to become larger, stronger and more potent than ever, you can emerge from the dark and start life anew." Our symbol further denotes the endless immortality of soul growth and the endless cycles from and again into the oneness with Creator/Creation. To deceive you, the God adversary, satanic opposition to goodness, has pronounced the symbol to be "Pagan" (whatever that means) and usually gives it a serpent tongue and evil connotation so that you would be pushed from desire to join with that which comes from "space" with ability to traverse space and comes at the changing of cycles of Man on terra planets. The purpose of physical life is the growth of the soul within the physical Man, through myriads of experiences. But you see, life is endless--only, changed and all things have life in some manner or another--for GOD IS LIFE. Evil is an experience of PHYSICAL OR "ADVERSARY" EXPERIENCE--RELATED ONLY TO PHYSICAL MANIFESTATION. This can carry through many levels or dimensions until the body physical is cast off as a necessary growing vehicle--i.e., when the child learns to ride the bicycle--he no longer needs the training wheels. As you grow into oneness with Creator you further have opportunity to re-experience or "serve" in capacities of guides or teachers at many levels/dimensions. But, when the dimension of service is a wholly physical manifestation--the agreement is to forfeit memory of the perfection so that the experience is valid and relative to that which you are experiencing.

For instance, Man must relate to that which he IS and in the physical experience he desires to relate to the physical for that is all his consciousness can confront on that plane. This is why Man is given to worship things and/or other Men for they forget their relationships with all Creation. This is why we use the fingers of a very Earth-bound person (Man--generic of species) with only denotation of "dharma" for that simply means the expression of right behavior; conformity to the Law of God/Creation; Virtue, Truth and Righteousness. You see, in my scribe I would need the experiences attained in the greatest of the learning cycles--a relationship with Aton of ancient history upon your place wherein you could begin relating to historical data--ancient Egypt. But I would also recognize the lineage passing through the training of ancient Greece--thus Doris, or "Dorina woman" meaning from the ancient lineage of tribal Dorians and one who had served as teacher of balanced life experience and one who came from the line of Nereus who attended "one with the sea", for the teaching would come again from the Sea as from the elder continents of Earth with expectations of the rising again from the Sea--a oneness with that one you might have referred to as Poseidon. I was also instructed that she would bear the name of Eloise which indicates a connection with bearer of Light and frankly associated with the creation of the perfection of Lucifer (which "name" means Lightbearer). (We shall not discuss the corruption herein.) Further, she would bear the symbol in her name of Elijah which prophet always is sent in precedence to God's appearance and the bringer of Truth from and with God. She would also be in total connection with the Dove and the Eagle, being birthed in the sign of the scorpion as the Eagle of Gold and yet the Dove of peace--as in the name of Jon--surname of Jones. Did I know whom I sought? Indeed--but she did not! Therein is the mystery.

Do NOT get hung-up on such as the above for it is only a clue, nothing more and if you attend what "might be", you miss entirely--that which IS. Always, according to service, the clues are unfolded for your confirmation--not for your games-playing.

There will be no groups built around this entity by any name. There will be no groupies or cults built around one Hatonn--we want no groupies nor cults--we are bringing the unfolding of Truth and Lighted insight--along with other brothers of the species. Focus? There must be focus which is unfolded in Truth of various bringers of the Truth--but the bringer of the Truth is not important--IT IS THE TRUTH WHICH HOLDS IMPORTANCE, AND TRUTH WILL STAND ON ITS OWN MERIT THROUGHOUT INFINITY. If a speaker deviates and "gives permission" to act in a given manner--against the laws of God and Creation--he has deviated in Truth. This does not mean that ALL he brings is lie for the deceiver will never give forth ALL LIES--he mesmerizes you in the Truth and when you're entranced, he will sell you the LIE. Purchase price? Portions of your soul--you will serve longer in the dark cycles of the compression of the physical limitations.

Make a good day of this that ye have been given--for ye know not but what it may be thine last. Saalome'.

5/24/91 HATONN
FRIDAY

Hatonn present in Light and Truth that we may share. "Man cannot live by bread alone!" and it is so. You who write ask excellent questions which it seems we do not have time nor space to adequately respond but I do try to incorporate them into the writings as they find suitable placement. One such, for instance, is a second inquiry as to why we do not use YAWEH and/or YAMOSHUA instead of the ones I use. Because, two reasons, some of the terms utilized are actually designations of "satan" and not the "Christos" and some are simply labels given by "foreign" languages other than English in which I am communicating. I have told you prior to this, God does not "hear" language--if you call out to God and you call him Bob, Joe, Yaweh, Yewah, Jasuah, Immanuel and/or Dingleberry--it matters not, FOR IT IS THE INTENT WHICH GOD RECEIVES. This is why I must again remind you ones that it is what is in the heart intent (you see, even that is incorrect for the heart is but a muscle that pumps blood)--what is in the energy soul intent which makes the communication with God. If you become hung-up on names you have missed the point and you are still locked into the PHYSICAL PLANE BY ANY NAME!

I have also received many references and objections to "Thou shall not commit adultery!" Some write to tell me that "adultery" is simply "adulteration" or the act of "diluting" or introducing another substance into an original--thereby possibly improving, as well as depreciating, a substance. No sale, brothers. As a matter of fact, that of which you speak is "adulteration" which has been construed to be as above. The actual definition as given is to corrupt, to debase or to make impure by the addition of a foreign or inferior substance; esp: to prepare for sale by the addition of a foreign or inferior or less valuable or inert ingredients. (This is a no-no, too!)

Adultery: voluntary sexual intercourse between a married man and someone other than his wife and/or between a married woman and someone other than her husband. [These are Webster's definitions and yet, they certainly do not cover all the "thou shalt nots" as regarding sexual behavior.] You can rewrite the laws if you choose and you can make it humanly OK and legal if you choose--IT MAKES NOT ONE IOTA OF DIFFER-ENCE--IT IS AGAINST THE LAWS OF GOD. I DID NOT, HOWEVER, SAY IT IS AGAINST THE LAWS OF NATURE/CREATION!

The Laws of God are given forth for HUMAN behavior in order to maintain balance within Creation--in harmony and balance. Anything that brings lies and irresponsible behavior is against the laws of God. The Laws of Creation will simply toss you off into oblivion if you overpopulate, over pollute, etc. God gives Man laws by which to live in balance and harmony--no more and no less. Cultures bear differing connotations respecting interrelationships of Man, but the ones which are presented as the basic rules of God are those which will, if followed, bring the highest measure of harmony and balance in relationship to and relationships of Man.

The next subject is a bit more complicated for it will deal with mixture of races, creeds and colors of human beings. At this point I always get, "...but dogs mix, horses mix, cows mix" ad nauseam. They DO NOT mix if left in balanced herds or packs. Look at the birds of the fields--look at the numbers of species of the sparrow--great flocks of striped headed sparrows will be merged with great flocks of black bibbed ones and they in turn will mingle with the junks and finches--but do not breed with them. Mostly, also, you will find that the majority of wild-life will mate with a single mate if left alone where it can be one-to-one mating to propagate the species. You arrange it so that herds only have one male for many females, etc. God did not create it that way.

When you mix races, creeds and colors of humans you are playing with two separate situations--you are basically confusing "culture" and "traditions" which can cause great pain to one or another of the pair and/or offspring and what you do not realize is that those differences come from outside your planet for when the races were introduced onto the planet they were from different origins and cosmic placements of great variations in experiences but all HUMAN.

Therefore, all are identical in the sight of God for there is only one color in God's vision of creation--light. You perceive "light" to be white for it has no color at all but is made up of all colors. The darker race chooses to call itself "black"--no, that is grossly incorrect for the "black" is not "black" which means the total absence of color. The so-called "blacks" are the most beauteous hues of bronzes and tans of your planet, followed by your "brown" race of golden browns and earth hues of superb spectrum--then the golden race stemming from the so-called Orientals and the wondrous projection of the red-bronze hue of the native cultures--of all, the white is the most colorless and quite frankly, the most "adulterated" and wimpish of all races, having no superiority in most instances and therefore utilizing self-proclaimed POWER BY CIRCUMSTANCE!

I have no intentions of enlarging on this subject at this time and please do not demand it for we have such urgent material to cover that you had better just look at the color within and stop the nonsense. If persons wish to cross color/creed barriers then so be it. The problem grows greater for you as ones come forth to retrieve species to return to "home base"--all galactic placements are not as wondrously giving and accepting as is Pleiades and even there, there will be planets wherein cross-over is unacceptable. Not from mean perception but for preservation of a species. This is WHY Man should think carefully about his behaviors--God has no color preference--Human does in most instances (not being better one from another--just different for given experiences) and as the journey from the physical, as you know it on Earth, progresses and placement moves entities onto other placements--the encounters continue with that which you call "human" species of one sort or another.

CHRISTOS VS. WHATEVER

Another reason that I fail to utilize ALL names for God is that I simply don't know them all and care not to know them all. It is perhaps time to realize something exremely important and that is the breakdown of service of cosmic brothers in this time of Earth transition and near annihilation. Part of the reason you have such incredible chaos is the fact of mingling of races and species from elsewhere in the universe. You didn't "just happen" to be in predominantly one race in one place and another in other. You did not just happenstancely "appear" as this or that and neither was it through "blending" of the races nor sun intensity, etc. That is the biggest bunch of tampered BS every perpetrated upon you ones as a civilization of humans.

I would like to remind you of something most important--those of you, for instance, who recognize the teachings of one called Ramtha. I take no note particular of Ramtha for he is not of my particular "interest" as Hatonn, Commander. But remember--you followers of Ramtha--He told you that he had returned to gather HIS people! So be it and selah! There are many, MANY come forth at this time to gather individual groups, followers and species of origin from given galactic placements. Myself included--I am come to gather my races if appropriate--BUT, I AM COMMISSIONED WITH THE OVERALL DUTY OF TAKING ALL OFF WHO ARE GROWN INTO HIGHER UNDERSTANDING AND FREQUENCY ABILITY TO MAKE TRANSITION FOR IT IS THE TIME OF CYCLES IN WHICH THE PLANET WILL EITHER BE SHAPED UP OR EVACUATED TO ALLOW FOR REBIRTHING AND HEALING OF THE WOUNDED "MOTHER".

This is why you will find craft and beings from myriads of galactic locations here at this time--to tend of the flocks and participate in the transitional change. Much of the higher "sorting" will take place according to "preference" and "following" as you are brought into original safety. You perceive that a LOT is happening on your world and within your changing experiences--YOU SHOULD SEE OUT HERE! It is a time of God sorting according to learning, His own fragments of experience into proper categories, if you will, for ultimately THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BUT AS LONG AS THERE ARE PERCEPTIONS OF INDIVIDUAL PHYSICAL BEINGNESS--THERE IS DEFINITELY MANIFESTED "DIFFERENCE".

THE IN-DEPTH AND TOTAL UNDERSTANDING IS NOT A THING OF THE PHYSICAL DIMENSION CALLED EARTH OR SIMILAR PLANETARY EXPERIENCE--IF YOU HAVE ALL THOSE ANSWERS YOU WOULD NOT BE ON A PLANET SUCH AS EARTH, EXPERIENCING. WHAT HAPPENS LATER? IT IS NOT FOR ME TO SAY AND IF ONES TELL YOU THAT THEY KNOW--THEY LIE OR THE SPEAKER IS ILL-ADVISED. You can measure comprehension only so far and the rest has to be left to God and higher understanding. This does not mean that you might not know, for most have experienced already, that of which we speak. If, however, you continue to put the cart in front of the horse--you are going to have a long and miserable journey. You may have instant revelation into knowledge that there is total KNOWING--you will not, however, HAVE total KNOWING in anything called PHYSICAL FOR AS I WROTE ON THE YESTERDAY--THE TWO ARE NOT THE SAME--PHYSICAL AND SPIRITUAL ARE TWO PERCEPTIONS.

ST. GERMAIN

I have had many inquiries regarding my perceptions of connections with St. Germain and various groups who claim heading by Germain. I ask not to be pinned down as to various groups for I wish all men to discern through information and knowledge gained that it be YOUR opinion and not that of another--be the other ethereal or human--all groups, beings and humans will give you clues by which to discern Truth and many, even if they deviate into the human path too greatly, still give great measures of Truth and ultimately YOU MUST DECIDE AND DISCERN FOR SELF. IF THOSE ONES FAIL TO LOOK INTO OR AT ANOTHER'S PERCEPTION--

THEY ARE NOT TOTALLY OF GOD FOR GOD ALWAYS ENCOURAGES YOU TO LOOK AT ALL SO THAT YOU CAN SEE THAT WHICH STANDS AFTER ALL ELSE FALLS AWAY.

A friend has presented the Saint Germain Press, Inc., 1120 Stonehedge Dr., Schaumburg, Illinois 60194 as a source of the "I AM" Religious Activity of the Saint Germain Foundation. There are errors in the presented works of that group just as Man comes along and tampers with all groups to suit his own perceptions of that which HE discerns the higher energy meant to somehow project. But Germain? Germain is one of my closest associates and beloved friends. Dharma writes, and has written, books and volumes of material from Germain--often to contact his beloved workers such as J.S. of Mt. Shasta, etc.

Germain is of the violet ray of transmutation and an alchemist el superb. As we move higher in dimensional experience we forget that you ones must blend from the manifested and Germain remains much more closely connected to Earth Man in connection to your politics and science than, say, do I.

The United States is Germain's MAJOR focus just as Planet Earth (Shan) is the MAJOR focus of the Christed Energy at this time. Higher in the steps is Michael of the archangelic realm who is also focused on Planet Earth. You will find Gabriel right there, also, for you see, with each civilization (speaking generally of a focus of a planet) there are the guardians and they will be recognized by whatever a given culture or language group recognizes them. YOU ONES MUST COME INTO REALIZATION THAT THERE ARE MANY STEPS BETWEEN YOU AND THE ULTIMATE "ONE" SOURCE OF "ALL". Some of you are ready for the "ALL" but most are still in kindergarten in your journey to perfection and knowledge. That does not mean that God will abandon you until you "get there", you will be nurtured and loved and tended like the wondrous garden of budding flowers that you ARE. AT the moment the crops are infested with destructive insects and molds/mildews and about to perish--no more and no less--but God has other places in the Creation upon which you can continue to experience--HE HAS GONE FORTH AND PREPARED PLACEMENT FOR ALL WHO WILL COME AND HE HAS PREPARED THEM ACCORDING TO YOUR OWN LEVEL OF PROGRESSION AND COMFORT OF PLACEMENT.

That which you perceive to be so wondrous about a place like Earth is that it is all you can perceive. As you look back on the experience from a higher viewpoint, you will realize it was quite base, cruel, painful and still, the most valuable of all experiences for it is where you learn to discern and make choices which allow soul to grow for all physical passes by the way. Now where will YOU go? Wherever you EXPECT to go for you will act in such manner that you will simply go wherever you expect to go. Some of you more humble ones will find that you aren't as pure as you proclaimed and some of you who perceive yourselves very short of perfection have actually that spark of Truth within which gets you to a very wondrous place indeed.

To P.B. of Canada, I suggest you get THE RAINBOW MASTERS Journal if you have it not--for it is mostly orchestrated by Germain. Germain also writes much for the Journals through both secretaries, Druthea and Dharma; and much advice regarding very human physical matters, via Thomas.

Now as to the workings of this transition time and Command-line as you interpret higherarchy. We do not recognize anything such as you have on Earth--however, we have to use structure and identification which you can somehow understand. That means that I have to utilize military structure, predominantly, for your government gives even worse example. Number one; we have no "Royalty" although on some planets there is an accepted "King"--for you have no better word to identify a top-person. We are given functions according to our capabilities and no other reason--not seniority nor "education". We simply serve where we are capable but you do have to have ones "in-charge" to maintain flow in orderliness. For instance, there is gross misunderstanding regarding "Ashtar" and I make a lot of Earth enemies at this point for "Ashtar" speaks to a lot of Earth-based people--or used to! "Ashtar Command" is exactly that--a "Command", a structured "command". There will be one who heads the Command and that one is known as "Ashtar". This can be hard to accept if you think it to be a specific beauteous dark-haired, widowed-peak masculine human who looks like a handsome God. He may or may not. "It" is a total comprehensive computer system of incredible magnitude. I do not know how you would recognize a computer which is some equivalent to ten square miles if manifested. That does not mean that the entities in charge are a computer. The one you would call "Ashtar" is an entity of extremely high status. THAT "COM-MAND" is in overall charge of the various fleets come for observation and fleet operations if evacuation is required spontaneously. It is further at standby for what we can refer to, for lack of better description, lift-off for reason of global devastation, etc.--to simply get you off the place prior to devastating changes as the planet goes into major cleansing and detoxification phase. Anything short of atmospheric annihilation can be cleansed by simply rotation of continents into/out of the sea and reestablishing life-forms. This is where comes the perception that Man evolved from the sea--because it appeared after great cyclic changes that all available life-form was from the sea--and so be it. But there was also the establishment--again, of rather primitive Man to reestablish experience anew for all newly created souls must have experience and teachers and thus and so--this is the thought projection of God-Creator as Creation is formed in various facets of existence. Soul is immortal but new beginnings of perception must be accommodated.

PERCEPTIONS LIMITED

Man can only project that which

MAN perceives--as with your evangelists for instance--it does not mean that the perceptions are correct for they are almost ALWAYS incorrect for you have no ability to view from the mountain, so to speak.

Let us look specifically at a clipping sent to me: April, 91: Astronomers find new space entity. Astronomers have found a mysterious object about 100 billion times as massive as the Sun, and they say it is either the largest black hole ever found or a completely new, unexplained phenomenon.

"The huge mass and its great concentration and darkness are puzzling and unlike any found previously," said Joss Bland-Hawthorn of Rice University, one of the discoverers.

The object's mass is roughly equal to that of all the stars in the Milky Way galaxy, Bland-Hawthorn said. Yet it is compressed into a space 10,000 times smaller.

Ah, the wondrous things left to be unfolded. Yes, I know what it is but obviously NO ONE on your placement does. Don't tell me that so and so knows and he/she is on your placement. IF THEY KNOW IT CAME NOT FROM YOUR PLACE--does any of this begin to have meaning? If I told you what that is and it turns out to be correct--you STILL GOT IT FROM SOMEWHERE OTHER THAN ON YOUR PLACE! I am not going to tell you, however, for that is for you to place in realization. I will tell you that it is very, very important--"important" meaning that which has great impact on the largest numbers of beings. You see, "important" doesn't mean "good": it means marked by or indicative of significant worth or consequence. This is just example for illustration: Adolf Hitler might be considered by some to be far more "important" to the world than was "Jesus Christ"--certainly he would rank right up near the top "since" that time. Many of the most "important" clues within the Holy Books have NOT BEEN CORRUPTED IN TOTAL, FOR THEY WERE NOT UNDERSTOOD WELL ENOUGH TO CORRUPT THEM--THAT "PHE-NOMENON" IN YOUR HEAVENS IS ONE OF THEM!

I request that we write a bit more follow-on to yesterday's subject and we can take up current daily events later today, perhaps. There are things going on like the preliminary passage of the "Free Trade Bill" WHICH SHOULD HAVE YOU TERRIFIED!, but as I said, "man cannot live by bread alone". You must come into understanding how things REALLY work and that belongs to the soul. I do ask that Dru's recent scripting be included anywhere along with these writings for Sananda, Germain, Michael and ME are going to give you a load to carry. If it causes "overload" I can only ask that you go back and catch up on the back Journals, etc. You cannot expect to start post-graduate level and comprehend it if you are not even in grade one. Use "reason", beloved ones, for Truth may fall all over you but if you are not prepared--you won't see it.

Salu, for I AM--by any label. I touch ye gently, chelas, for I find ye ones indeed worthy.

5/24/91 #2 HATONN TODAY

May I be so bold as to point out a few items for your consideration. I need not make much comment--just YOU pay attention as I take just a few items from today's Wall Street Journal and see HOW MANY OF YOU PICKED THEM UP AND WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THEM? WHEN IT COMES TO THE BANKING SITUATION--PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION FOR THIS IS A GLOBAL THING, NO MATTER WHAT "THEY" TELL YOU.

BUSH/KUWAIT

"Outrage Boils over the post-war policies, of Kuwait's royal rulers.

The anger goes beyond the quick trials and harsh sentences for accused traitors. Comments by Kuwait's ambassador to the U.S. in a TV interview that Kuwait doesn't need lectures from Americans on judicial practices further fan the flames. "The Kuwaitis seem to have slipped back to a state of prewar arrogance" fumes Rep. Ackerman, a Democrat who backed sending U.S. troops to free Kuwait.

Bush officials stay low key despite Kuwait's slowness to move toward democracy. The emir gives the U.S. only vague promises about setting a specific date for elections. Kuwaitis are noncommittal on giving women equal rights. Middle East Watch, a human rights group, says that over 100,000 residents who have Kuwaiti mothers and foreign fathers are denied benefits.

"Given Kuwait's actions, I'm confused about what the high noble purpose of this war was," says Washington bank chairman Joe Albritton.

Undoubtedly there is promise of better--closer to home:

President Bush marked the 89th anniversary of Cuban independence Monday by calling for a free press there, the right to organize political parties and free and fair elections under International supervision. He challenged Fidel Castro to let Cuba live in peace with its neighbors, promising that if Mr. Castro made such changes, relations between our two countries would "significantly" improve. He focused, in short, not on Mr. Castro, but on the need for Cubans to pick their leaders by a democratic process.

On the same day, the president said he would oppose the lifting of trade sanctions on Iraq so long as Saddam Hussein was in power. He did not call for a vote in Iraq. The presidential spokesman called attention to a recent speech by deputy national security adviser, Robert Gates (yes, the one up for head of the CIA), to the American Society of Newspaper Editors. Mr. Gates also focused on Saddam, not on ending the Baath dictatorship by giving Iraqis a fair chance to pick their leaders.

This seems odd. It is Saddam, not Fidel Castro, who has been calling for democracy. He has agreed to grant the Kurds autonomy within a looser federal Iraq, and he has stated that press freedoms, the rule of law and elections throughout Iraq would be a more acceptable guarantee of the rights of the opposition than a Western military force or even the U.N. security squad, which he has whittled down to 500 men armed only with handcuffs. He seems to be responding to the demands stated two years earlier in London by Iraqi Shiites and Kurds, of the right, left and center, for democracy and the rule of law as a durable protection of their rights within the present boundaries of Iraq; and to the same demands presented during Operation Desert Shield by 21 political parties, including all major opposition groups.

Oh well, guess they lied to you about the need for the Iraq war, after all--how many of you have noticed?

And, again, crime will be encouraged and abetted by your government:

The Supreme Court has said that they will completely repeal the statute known as RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations law) if major reforms are not quick in coming--Dan Quayle has taken up the banner and reforms are expected to be forthcoming shortly!

Now for more on Quayle and Bush:

Bush readies vetoes to block Democrats, who hope for political gains: Leading the White House hit list: bills restricting strike-breakers and mandating parental leave. Administration officials vow openly to veto a defense bill that fails to fund the B-2 bomber and SDI. They talk privately of vetoing legislation that cuts spending on the space station, a pet project of Darman and Quayle.

And, money, money--must be money aplenty:

Bush responded to increasingly open Soviet pleas for financial help, saying he would be backing a Western aid package tied to economie reform by Moscow. The President said he hasn't received a formal aid request, but noted that Gorbachev is sending an envoy to Washington next week to discuss economic issues.

Ok, so you just gave them another 1 1/2 Billion dollars in grain--that comes up to 3.5 Billion now and growing, for this does not consider the private commitments made by private grain growers when Gorbachev visited in the U.S. YOU HAVE NO RESERVE, DEAR LITTLE AMERICANS! THIS little package now being referred to is in the amount of $100 Billion (one hundred billion dollars). So be it.

But Bush is on a roll, let us not slacken now:

The House agreed to EXTEND BUSH'S SPECIAL AUTHORITY TO NEGOTIATE TRADE AGREEMENTS, CLEARING THE WAY FOR TRADE TALKS WITH MEXICO. The action means Bush can submit trade accords that aren't subject to legislative amendments (which are all under regulations already in his power). But the House reserved the right to make revisions if the pact doesn't include promised labor and environmental protections.

The trade talks are likely to accelerate what is already Mexico's greatest economic upsurge in a decade----and the abolition of American industrial strength!!!!

But, the best is yet to come--hold your breath if you have missed this one. The banks, S&L's and Insurance companies have not stripped you quite far enough into total poverty and destruction so we now have a nice new one for you--the people:

A HOUSE PANEL ENDORSED AN OVERHAUL OF DEPRESSION-ERA FEDERAL BANK LAWS AFTER VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE BANKING INDUSTRY ON SEVERAL AMENDMENTS.

This banking bill cleared panel by 36-0 vote:

Approval of the measure, which contains MANY OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S PROPOSALS, sharply boosts the prospects for enactment of comprehensive banking legislation this year.

It came after a day of pro-bank votes that exempted nearly 80% of the nation's banks from the Community Reinvestment Act and gutted an earlier amendment that could have slowed expansion by large banks.

Under the bill the Financial Institutions Subcommittee is sending to the full committee, banks would be allowed to establish nationwide branch networks, affiliate with securities firms (undoubtedly more honest than the S&L's) and become parts of holding companies that are owned by industrial corporations. Elements of the plan to modernize the banking system still face significant legislative obstacles, BUT TREASURY OFFICIALS AND OTHER BACKERS OF STREAMLINED BANK LAWS (ESPECIALLY THE FEDERAL RESERVE CORPORATION) WERE DELIGHTED BY THE PANEL'S ENDORSEMENT OF MAJOR SECTIONS OF A BILL THAT APPEARED TO HAVE LITTLE CHANCE JUST A MONTH AGO.

"This unanimous vote changes the dynamics" of the debate over how to modernize banking laws, said Rep. John LaFalce. "The 36-0 vote increases the chances of passage dramatically." Edward Yingling, chief lobbyist for the American Bankers Association, said the breadth of the House panel's bill will help build momentum for comprehensive legislation in the Senate Banking Committee. The Senate panel is in the early stages of trying to build consensus on its version of the bill, etc., etc., etc.

I won't take time herein to list subcommittee and committee members but I ask you to take your Congressional handbook and look at the list. Then I want you to go to the Trilateral Commission and Council on Foreign Relations and do a little cross checking--good luck, WORLD!

NOW FOR THE WHOPPER WHICH WILL SHOW YOU THE CONNECTIONS WHICH YOU MIGHT MISS IF TODAY WAS HEAVY ON OTHER READING FOR YOU WON'T GET A SECOND CHANCE FROM THE MEDIA OR PRESS.

While you might think this is a singular effort to hook up the Securities racket into the Banking system only in America--you should see what Great Britain has ALREADY DONE and, just this day, what Japan is doing:

Japanese Bank Liberalization: Japanese banking regulators received draft proposals for desegregating the securities and banking business.

Under the auspices of the Finance Ministry's banking bureau, the Financial System Research Council hopes to make formal its staff's recommendations--largely what the financial industry expected--within two weeks. The Securities Exchange Council may act on the draft today.

The plan calls for mutual entry by banks and securities firms into each group's business through dedicated subsidiaries. For example, new laws would require separate units for traditional securities dealings and trust banking, and allow commercial banking by long-term credit banks...and so it goes.

But what of this?

Saudi Arabia seeks war loans: Saudi Arabia is said to be seeking a $2.5 billion loan from major Saudi banks to help meet some Gulf War costs. The kingdom this month signed a $4.5 billion credit with a group of foreign banks, its first dollar borrowing in more than two decades (no, don't breathe yet). The Islamic proscription against usury makes borrowing a sensitive subject. Saudi Arabia is expected to use both loans to pay the $8 billion still owed of its $13.5 billion contribution to the U.S. to pay a share of the war's cost.

Breathe now! Is this some kind of crazy and unusual day in the news world? No, just a regular day of tightening nooses and honing axes for the demise of the planet as you know it. Just one more day in the halls of "injustice" while you-the-people consume the poison bite by bite. By the way, the "camel is already inside the tent--waving its tail at you."

I don't know about you--but I can't stand any more so let us allow you to read for selves--you just have to remember to read between the lines and know what to look for. Good luck. I do not, at this point, see how you are going to get out of it.

Thank you for your attention and your service--this old road can be quite wondrous if we walk of it together for I know the way to where we wish to go. Salu.

To clear, please.

5/21/91, SANANDA

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CURRENT SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION

Greetings precious Druthea. I AM Sananda. I come in the service of Holy God/Aton of Light, Truth, Wisdom and Glory. This day I will further clarify and describe that which is occurring upon your plane in this time-frame of history.

Your species and planet Shan (Earth) is experiencing a spiritual REVOLUTION, which means, recognizing, challenging, changing and discarding the spiritual false and "archaic" ways, so that you can surmount your stagnapt condition and method of adapting to limited ego-separate "belief" indoctrination. The reason for this "revolution" is that you are making room for your Spiritual RENAISSANCE, that is, your New Birth, Resurrection and Revival of God-Light Truth gained from personally accessing the Divine Knowledge and Wisdom of your Spirit WITHIN.

Just as the revival of letters and art in Europe marked the Historical Renaissance or transition from medieval to modern history representing the rebirth of civilization out of archaic creative suppression to a period of time (roughly 14th through 16th century) of relative abundant artistic expression and freedom, so too is your species experiencing a "Spiritual" transition or Renaissance.

The Great Creative Movement of Spirit is singing its song of CREATION in the hearts of ALL who choose to hear. Ones who attune themselves to the Holy Vibration of God/Creator/Creation WITHIN and WITHOUT, will experience consciously THE BURNING DEATH OF THE ILLUSION OF SEPARATION FROM God/Aton/-Creation. Out of the ashes you ones will be reborn...resurrected from your sleepy semi-conscious state in which you have long existed and that is, the "altered" ego-separation experienced in your physical-dense vibration illusion. Many of you have been in this creative unfoldment process for some years already. Many of you notice that TIME as you measure it seems to be speeding up and your "lessons" have often been frequent, difficult and stressful especially due to increased intensity of the unfolding, understanding and releasing process.

Be aware, chelas, that the spiritual work you are accomplishing in this time frame IS intensified, magnified and CONSTANT. Many of you no longer have the luxury of "time" and lack of "experience" to claim innocence and ignorance of spiritual Truth and so your CONSCIENCE is moving you as fast as possible to learn and discern QUICKLY that you can shed the physical attachments as well as "altered EGO" illusions. YOU ARE IN TRANSITION. YOU ARE CLAIMING YOUR SPIRITUAL RENAISSANCE. The chosen path of many of you to attain "graduation" involves the releasing of YOUR ADVERSARY WITHIN. This time-frame represents your spiritual-rebirth opportunity and the process in itself is creating your spiritual revolution...your inner battle to resurrect YOUR SPIRIT WITHIN from the self-imposed prison, of which you have forgotten existed. You can remember NOW. Because of God/Aton's INFINITE grace and wisdom, you ones are NOW given the opportunity to AWAKEN to the call of the MIGHTY PRESENCE OF GOD/ATON/CRE-ATION WITHIN YOU!! DO YOU HEAR?!

Thank you for your attention. I AM Sananda, One With GOD, in service to Light of God/Aton's Holy, Divine PRESENCE, and to you my brethren. Thank you precious little sister, Druthea. Salu.

NETWORKING

We continually receive phone calls from those of you who are feeling isolated in their particular area of the country. If you are interested in meeting others in your region who share in the Phoenix material, write to America West giving us permission to network and we will connect you with others.

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.

SEMINARS

George & Desiree Green will speak June 7, 1991, 7 PM at Royce Hotel Ballroom, 1601 Belvedere Rd., W. Palm Beach, Florida Admission $5.00 Call Kip (407) 533-0703

June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague

Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

We are all manufacturers--some make good, others make trouble and still others make excuses.

If you have tried to do something and failed, you are vastly better off than if you had tried to do nothing and succeeded.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

MAY 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 8

5/24/91 #2 HATONN
TODAY

May I be so bold as to point out a few items for your consideration. I need not make much comment--just YOU pay attention as I take just a few items from today's Wall Street Journal and see HOW MANY OF YOU PICKED THEM UP AND WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THEM? WHEN IT COMES TO THE BANKING SITUATION--PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION FOR THIS IS A GLOBAL THING, NO MATTER WHAT "THEY" TELL YOU.

BUSH/KUWAIT

Outrage Boils over the postwar policies of Kuwait's royal rulers.

The anger goes beyond the quick trials and harsh sentences for accused traitors. Comments by Kuwait's ambassador to the U.S. in a TV interview that Kuwait doesn't need lectures from Americans on judicial practices further fan the flames. "The Kuwaitis seem to have slipped back to a state of prewar arrogance" fumes Rep. Ackerman, a Democrat who backed sending U.S. troops to free Kuwait.

Bush officials stay low key despite Kuwait's slowness to move toward democracy. The emir gives the U.S. only vague promises about setting a specific date for elections. Kuwaitis are noncommittal on giving women equal rights. Middle East Watch, a human rights group, says that over 100,000 residents who have Kuwaiti mothers and foreign fathers are denied benefits.

"Given Kuwait's actions, I'm confused about what the high noble purpose of this war was", says Washington bank chairman Joe Albritton.

Undoubtedly there is promise of better--closer to home:

President Bush marked the 89th anniversary of Cuban independence Monday by calling for a free press there, the right to organize political parties and free and fair elections under International supervision. He challenged Fidel Castro to let Cuba live in peace with its neighbors, promising that if Mr. Castro made such changes, relations between our two countries would "significantly" improve. He focused, in short, not on Mr. Castro, but on the need for Cubans to pick their leaders by a democratic process.

On the same day, the president said he would oppose the lifting of trade sanctions on Iraq so long as Saddam Hussein was in power. He did not call for a vote in Iraq. The presidential spokesman called attention to a recent speech by deputy national security adviser, Robert Gates (yes, the one up for head of the CIA), to the American Society of Newspaper Editors. Mr. Gates also focused on Saddam, not on ending the Baath dictatorship by giving Iraqis a fair chance to pick their leaders.

This seems odd. It is Saddam, not Fidel Castro, who has been calling for democracy. He has agreed to grant the Kurds autonomy within a looser federal Iraq, and he has stated that press freedoms, the rule of law and elections throughout Iraq would be a more acceptable guarantee of the rights of the opposition than a Western military force or even the U.N. security squad, which he has whittled down to 500 men armed only with handcuffs. He seems to be responding to the demands stated two years earlier in London by Iraqi Shiites and Kurds, of the right, left and center, for democracy and the rule of law as a durable protection of their rights within the present boundaries of Iraq; and to the same demands presented during Operation Desert Shield by 21 political parties, including all major opposition groups.

Oh well, guess they lied to you about the need for the Iraq war, after all--how many of you have noticed?

And, again, crime will be encouraged and abetted by your government:

The Supreme Court has said that they will completely repeal the statute known as RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations law) if major reforms are not quick in coming--Dan Quayle has taken up the banner and reforms are expected to be forthcoming shortly!

Now for more on Quayle and Bush:

Bush readies vetoes to block Democrats, who hope for political gains: Leading the White House hit list: bills restricting strikebreakers and mandating parental leave. Administration officials vow openly to veto a defense bill that fails to fund the B-2 bomber and SDI. They talk privately of vetoing legislation that cuts spending on the space station, a pet project of Darman and Quayle.

And, money, money--must be money aplenty:

Bush responded to increasingly open Soviet pleas for financial help, saying he would be backing a Western aid package tied to economic reform by Moscow. The President said he hasn't received a formal aid request, but noted that Gorbachev is sending an envoy to Washington next week to discuss economic issues.

Ok, so you just gave them another 1 1/2 Billion dollars in grain--that comes up to 3.5 Billion now and growing, for this does not consider the private commitments made by private grain growers when Gorbachev visited in the U.S. YOU HAVE NO RESERVE, DEAR LITTLE AMERICANS! THIS little package now being referred to is in the amount of $100 Billion (one hundred billion dollars). So be it.

But Bush is on a roll, let us not slacken now:

The House agreed to EXTEND BUSH'S SPECIAL AUTHORITY TO NEGOTIATE TRADE AGREEMENTS, CLEARING THE WAY FOR TRADE TALKS WITH MEXICO. The action means Bush can submit trade accords that aren't subject to legislative amendments (which are all under regulations already in his power). But the House reserved the right to make revisions if the pact doesn't include promised labor and environmental protections.

The trade talks are likely to accelerate what is already Mexico's greatest economic upsurge in a decade---and the abolition of American industrial strength!!!!

But, the best is yet to come--hold your breath if you have missed this one. The banks, S&L's and Insurance companies have not stripped you quite far enough into total poverty and destruction so we now have a nice new one for you--the people:

A HOUSE PANEL ENDORSED AN OVERHAUL OF DEPRESSION-ERA FEDERAL BANK LAWS AFTER VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE BANKING INDUSTRY ON SEVERAL AMENDMENTS.

This banking bill cleared panel by 36-0 vote:

Approval of the measure, which contains MANY OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S PROPOSALS, sharply boosts the prospects for enactment of comprehensive banking legislation this year.

It came after a day of pro-bank votes that exempted nearly 80% of the nation's banks from the Community Reinvestment Act and gutted an earlier amendment that could have slowed expansion by large banks.

Under the bill the Financial Institutions Subcommittee is sending to the full committee, banks would be allowed to establish nationwide branch networks, affiliate with securities firms (undoubtedly more honest than the S&L's) and become parts of holding companies that are owned by industrial corporations. Elements of the plan to modernize the banking system still face significant legislative obstacles, BUT TREASURY OFFICIALS AND OTHER BACKERS OF STREAMLINED BANK LAWS (ESPECIALLY THE FEDERAL RESERVE CORPORATION) WERE DELIGHTED BY THE PANEL'S ENDORSEMENT OF MAJOR SECTIONS OF A BILL THAT APPEARED TO HAVE LITTLE CHANCE JUST A MONTH AGO.

"This unanimous vote changes the dynamics" of the debate over how to modernize banking laws, said Rep. John LaFalce. "The 36-0 vote increases the chances of passage dramatically." Edward Yingling, chief lobbyist for the American Bankers Association, said the breadth of the House panel's bill will help build momentum for comprehensive legislation in the Senate Banking Committee. The Senate panel is in the early stages of trying to build consensus on its version of the bill, etc., etc., etc.

I won't take time herein to list subcommittee and committee members but I ask you to take your Congressional handbook and look at the list. Then I want you to go to the Trilateral Commission and Council on Foreign Relations and do a little cross checking--good luck, WORLD!

NOW FOR THE WHOPPER WHICH WILL SHOW YOU THE CONNECTIONS WHICH YOU MIGHT MISS IF TODAY WAS HEAVY ON OTHER READING FOR YOU WON'T GET A SECOND CHANCE FROM THE MEDIA OR PRESS.

While you might think this is a singular effort to hook up the Securities racket into the Banking system only in America--you should see what Great Britain has ALREADY DONE and, just this day, what Japan is doing:

Japanese Bank Liberalization: Japanese banking regulators received draft proposals for desegregating the securities and banking business.

Under the auspices of the Finance Ministry's banking bureau, the Financial System Research Council hopes to make formal its staff's recommendations--largely what the financial industry expected--within two weeks. The Securities Exchange Council may act on the draft today.

The plan calls for mutual entry by banks and securities firms into each group's business through dedicated subsidiaries. For example, new laws would require separate units for traditional securities dealings and trust banking, and allow commercial banking by long-term credit banks...and so it goes.

But what of this?

Saudi Arabia seeks war loans: Saudi Arabia is said to be seeking a $2.5 billion loan from major Saudi banks to help meet some Gulf War costs. The kingdom this month signed a $4.5 billion credit with a group of foreign banks, its first dollar borrowing in more than two decades (no, don't breathe yet). The Islamic proscription against usury makes borrowing a sensitive subject. Saudi Arabia is expected to use both loans to pay the $8 billion still owed of its $13.5 billion contribution to the U.S. to pay a share of the war's cost.

Breathe now! Is this some kind of crazy and unusual day in the news world? No, just a regular day of tightening nooses and honing axes for the demise of the planet as you know it. Just one more day in the halls of "injustice" while you-the-people consume the poison bite by bite. By the way, the "camel is already inside the tent--waving its tail at you."

I don't know about you--but I can't stand any more so let us allow you to read for selves--you just have to remember to read between the lines and know what to look for. Good luck. I do not, at this point, see how you are going to get out of it.

SUCCESSFUL COMMUNICATION MEANS RECOGNIZING AND CLEARLY DEFINING "INNER" EXPECTATIONS

Greetings, precious Druthea. We are Sananda, Lord Michael, and St. Germain. We come in the service of Holy God/Aton of Light and The Creation.

We will begin this day with the challenge of peeling away the "barriers" to successful communication in your "human" languages by efforting to show you how you can stretch the limitations of human language to achieve clearer and more succinct communication ability with one another.

Because "Universal Language" has no limiting "words", it is God's perfect language. When beings communicate in Universal language, there is no way to "lie" to yourself or another about your intent, since it is the language which utilizes pure thought from that which is "in the heart/spirit" as...feeling. So the key to more successful communication on your plane is to learn to fully understand HOW you feel about a circumstance before you. Now, emotion is defined as, "A strong surge of FEELING, as of love, hate, or fear." So by understanding and identifying your feeling accurately, you will find that YOUR perceptions and beliefs about any given circumstance will bring up certain emotional feelings. First, you must correctly determine which emotion you actually do feel. For example, when you correctly determine that you are afraid, then you must determine WHY you are afraid in order for you to successfully resolve it. Fear is a feeling one has generally when he feels threatened in some way. Every emotion is SHOWING you something...a lesson to be understood, or a sustaining need we all have, such as absolute/unconditional LOVE. For example, when you are touched by some act or behavior done for you or another in kindness which absolute love expresses, you feel JOY and UNITY.

On the other hand, when you are angry or hurt about something someone said or did "to" you and you fail to identify ACTUALLY WHY you feel this way, then you will be unable to communicate effectively to "clarify" what may perhaps be a misperception on your part. Then most often, your unresolved anger and hurt will actually propel you to respond in a variety of "punishing" behaviors directed toward self, the other who you perceived caused you pain, ALL others with whom you come in contact, or all of the above. One of the common ways ones respond irresponsibly, which we discussed previously, is through "passive-resistant" behavior, in which one is afraid or simply unwilling to confront the person honestly about his anger and/or hurt feelings and therefore seeks indirect ways to punish the perceived perpetrator against him. Others of you ones respond most directly in your anger and hurt to the perceived perpetrator, and then, of course, when ones begin arguing about WHO is RIGHT and WHO is WRONG, nothing is solved, and resentment begins to establish itself most firmly, especially when ones stubbornly refuse to search the common ground of cause which allows self-understanding of MUTUAL responsibility of the circumstance. When mutual understanding of each "point of perception" is accomplished for each, then a satisfying resolution, which recognizes joint responsibility of forgiveness and release of the "error", can be reached. Of course, both must wish to resolve the issue between them, for if one's objective is to deny responsibility and continue to blame and punish, then THEY must deal with what is now their PROBLEM on their own. The others must stand firm with integrity to not allow themselves to be PULLED down or into an emotional drama of one who is unwilling to reasonably resolve their problem.

Now, feeling anger and hurt is definitely a most uncomfortable place to be, in that one will feel isolated, separated and rejected and so his "altered" ego will urge him to cast blame outside of self. Many of you have most likely heard the saying or even have personally felt like "It is ME against the World". It is not a comfortable feeling to feel unsupported and "victimized" and so it is up to YOU to learn to set aside "Altered" Ego perceptions so that you can successfully uncover HOW you have contributed to the cause of this "victim" self-separation and/or misunderstanding with another.

One of the challenges you ones have in your interrelationships is responsible communication. In order to communicate responsibly, YOU each must become acutely in touch with WHY you feel these "negative" emotions, such as fear, anger, jealousy and resentment. For example, many of you ones often use "sarcastic humor" to state your true feelings, let off "steam" and yet still "hide" the feelings. Many of your so-called comedians have successfully used cutting, sarcastic and sardonic jokes to tell the world or even particular others HOW they really feel about them...and then of course they call it humor. They behave as if it's okay to call it a "joke" because they assume it is less painful to the ones the sarcasm is directed at, only deep inside, THEY KNOW IT IS NOT LESS PAINFUL AT ALL. Ones who USE sarcasm in their communication, whether it be comedians or not, must recognize they most often harbor intense feelings of unresolved anger and/or unworthiness and they desire to feel superior by causing pain, somewhat indirectly by calling it "humor", to others because of these intense unresolved FEELINGS within.

Let's give you ones a common example of how many of you USE what you call "humor" to express inner hurt and/or superiority/unworthiness. We have often heard you ones make a sarcastic (An ironical or scornful utterance; contemptuous and taunting language) remark, such as, "When God said brains, you thought He said trains, so that's why you have no brains" and then you'll say, "No, Just Kidding"...ha ha ha. We have heard so many unkind things said by you ones to each other, and then, "No, I'm just kidding". Sorry, chelas, MOSTLY YOU ARE NOT "JUST" KIDDING in these circumstances. This is most often a "dig" and usually falls under "passive-resistant" behavior. You have a wondrous cliché in this regard. "Many a TRUTH is said in jest". So be it.

Now we will discuss expectations, to expect defined as, "1. To look forward to as a certain or probable. 2. To look for as right, proper, or necessary. 3. Informal To presume; suppose."

All of you have expectations, whether you completely understand what they are or not. Of course, for successful communication in your interrelationships, being CLEAR yourself about what are your expectations within any given relationship and/or situation is essential. Now there are what can be termed "reasonable" or "realistic" ex-expectations as well as "unreasonable" and "unrealistic" expectations. For example, there is certainly nothing "wrong" with looking forward to being justly treated, or to making a successful speech. Those are reasonable expectations for one who treats others justly, and one who prepares properly for his speech. But to expect that others will behave AS YOU would in any given circumstance, is most unrealistic. All will behave according to their own inner integrity, or lack thereof, or they will behave according to the dictates of their own individual personality, which may certainly be correct for them, only perhaps not YOUR way. In order to successfully interrelate in harmony and balance, ALL expectations must be acknowledged openly, so that all expectations which are determined reasonable be defined clearly for all. In this way the integrity of your defined common expectations and objectives, such as work objectives, will not be compromised because of unresolved emotions, unrealistic expectations or other allowed misunderstandings.

There are many kinds of what would be termed "social" expectations, such as saying, "Thank you" when someone does something nice for you or serves you in some way. In most all situations, gratitude expressed to another is most reasonable and certainly appreciated, if it is sincere. Now ask yourselves, chelas, when you ones GIVE something to another, whether it be a physical gift or something intangible such as friendship, love and support, what DO you expect in return? You are NOT honest with yourselves, chelas, if you tell yourselves, "I expect nothing." Because even when you extend YOUR hand in sincere love, kindness and friendship, YOU expect the one you give to to LIKE you and feel connected to you in return. You want to be a part of their life by letting them know YOU appreciate and support them. You enjoy the inner "rewards" of giving which makes someone feel good and appreciated. If the receiver is ungracious to you, face it, chelas, you are disappointed and often saddened.

Let us give another example of expectations. When you personally make your commitment to serve GOD, what do you expect in return for your service? Well, certainly a "reasonable" expectation is that you expect to be guided and sustained, to be protected and fulfilled within your service, do you not? Or what do YOU expect? Do you expect that you need not be responsible for your own behavior? Do you expect your life to be "problem" free and your lessons easier? Do you expect to be more special than your other brothers and sisters? Do you "bargain" with God: you'll give this, IF he gives that? We are asking you to really be HONEST with yourselves, chelas, because your "unreasonable" expectations are NEVER met and so it is best to uncover them NOW so that you can find the true PEACE, JOY and BALANCE in your service to God, which reasonable expectations provide for you.

Now, we would like you ones to clearly think about what are your expectations when and if you decide to make your home in Tehachapi? Do you expect spiritual perfection of the ones already committed in service? Do you expect "social" fun and entertainment from Dharma, Oberli, Hatonn, George and Desiree' and the others here? Do you expect the businesses created by these ones to financially support you, now or in the future? WHY do you wish to be here? To be closer to God, perhaps? To learn how to be closer to God? Remember YOU are the temple for God. Do you recognize a purpose for you, perhaps, a way to serve GOD where you are able and willing to do so? Do you expect Hatonn to tell you what you must do as your service to GOD? Do you KNOW what your service is? For we will tell you, as has our beloved brother Hatonn, that Tehachapi is a place of work, of commitment of service to GOD/ATON Our Father, to assist the growth, transition and cleansing of a sick/unbalanced humanity and this beloved planet, Shan. We have a job, and YOU ones who choose to serve God are the hands and feet of HIS Brotherhood of LIGHT. The road is often most painful and precarious for you beloved ones of GOD's service, most especially emotionally, until you ones learn to detach from others' often cruel rejection of you and their unwillingness to SEE the truth. God only asks that YOU do your job to the best of your ability. Do you expect that you WILL? Ponder these things, chelas, for in confronting self-expectations in responsibility, you will unlock that door to the inner peace and fulfillment which has often eluded most of you in your "past" experiences.

TRUST

Now we will discuss a very prominent barrier to successful communication within your interrelationships, and that is TRUST, defined as, "1. Confident reliance on the integrity, honesty, or justice of another; faith. 2. Something committed to one's care; a charge or responsibility."

Trust is a most delicate subject in that most all of you have either breached a trust and/or been the "victim" of a breach of trust by others. So as a result, most of you find it difficult to establish complete trust and faith in others whom you share experience with. First of all, many of you now recognize that you as "common people" have blindly trusted your government leaders and many of THEM have breached YOUR trust by lying and deceiving you for their own selfish means. So it stands to reason that you NOT give trust blindly or freely to other HUMAN beings until you KNOW of their integrity and intent. For example, DO YOU DESERVE to be trusted? Are you able to keep the private matters of another who trusts you with sharing them with you, to yourself? Do you respect the privacy of others? Or are you always looking over the fence of others to see what they are doing, which is NONE of your business unless it is harmful to you or impacts you in some way that is not reasonable. Many of you have a very dangerous "habit" of gossiping about and then you wonder WHY you are NOT trusted by others. This is why it is most important that for trust to develop, ones must clearly define what matters are privately shared and a shared commitment of responsible communication is adopted by both or all parties, so that any possible misunderstandings can be ironed out quickly and completely. In true dedicated friendship and the commitment thereof, ones always have the shared objective of achieving mutual trust, support, loyalty and understanding, especially when differences come up for them to manage together.

There is really little else more painful and disappointing than for one of you, who possesses honest integrity within, to establish and nurture a friendship, give your love, loyalty and trust to another and then find that they do not honor and trust you enough to speak honestly to you about their true feelings and instead they spite you behind your back, or even more disheartening, that they have actually USED you for their own selfish means such as to gain money, prestige, sexual conquest or power and NEVER really thought of you as a cherished friend. How many of you now can say that you have trouble trusting others because you have allowed yourself to be USED by choosing the "wrong" person to develop friendship with because they did not have the same degree of commitment to your friendship as did you? This breach of trust occurs often in so-called "Love" relationships and marriages, often after the "lustful" feelings taper off.

So by now you may be contemplating, HOW do you properly solve a perceived "error" or misunderstanding with integrity with one whom you claim as your friend? First of all, you need to acknowledge your feelings, if they be anger, hurt, frustration or whatever, and then you must set up a time to privately and personally talk to the person you have the problem with. Now you must be very careful how you approach the person, since they may not have any idea of what your problem is or their connection with it. Tell them how you're feeling, "I feel hurt and upset because I wasn't invited to your family dinner, perhaps I have misunderstood or misinterpreted something, so will you help me to understand your position so that we can resolve this together?" In this way, you have not placed any blame and you have shown that you value the other person by asking them to assist the resolution of what may be simply your own misunderstanding or oversensitivity, or it may actually be something more than you have understood, from your friend's point of perception, perhaps that this one was irritated with you about something you did, or he just simply felt it was not necessary for you to be there at that time.

Now, in business, there are MANY expectations which ones have about operating their business with integrity. For example, when you purchase a product by phone or mail, do you not EXPECT to receive it within a reasonable time-frame and in good condition? Many things can happen between the time you order and when you (hopefully) receive your order. Many business owners want to keep your business by insuring customer satisfaction, so they have a policy of "The customer is always right." Well that is not necessarily true, is it? What about ones who purchase items, such as books, from you on agreed upon terms, such as 10 days or 30 days,-- DO you not expect them to pay you in full within that time frame? Interestingly enough, MANY businesses, even when given and they have agreed to 30 day payment terms, have a policy that THEY do not pay before 60 or even 90 days. Is this operating business with integrity? So it has become not reasonable within your current business society to TRUST ones, especially NEW customers, to pay you for products they purchase. Yet many retail business-persons become indignant when asked to pre-pay for their purchase and often will simply not buy, unless THEY need the items perhaps to fill a special order for one of their customers. And why do many book-stores, for example, balk when asked to pre-pay? Because they do not know whether or not the books will sell within a 30 day time-frame and "need" the time to return the funds from actual sales to the publisher or distributor. Now America West, for example, has perhaps a little over a dozen of their total "open" resale accounts who are responsible and really do pay in full within the agreed time-frame. The rest do not honor their agreement with America West, and several have NEVER paid their balance, so because of this, America West, in order to continue to pay its printing and overhead expenses now ASKS all new resale accounts to pre-pay with no MINIMUM order required and NO returns allowed. Do you blame them? It is interesting to note that many book-stores and distributors expect to be able to RETURN unsold books, as well as, take 30 days to 6 months to pay for them. So then, of course, the RISK of loss is entirely in the publishers hands. So you ponder this, chelas, IS that reasonable?

Now, how many of you have or know someone who has purchased something, say from a department store, and then a year later ask to RETURN it? How many of you have or know someone who has purchased an expensive dress, for a special occasion, and after wearing it, they return it? This is very common, even with middle class and upper middle class women who are in the "social" set and can "afford" to pay for the dress. Well, many department stores have "caught on" to this practice and now DO NOT ALLOW returns for certain dressy attire. Do you understand, chelas, what we are efforting to show you here. Many ones simply do not behave with integrity, and it has become ACCEPTABLE to many ones to behave this way! Many simply do not KNOW better and even brag about HOW they take advantage of businesses. So ones who do wish to operate with integrity and responsibility must EXPECT a degree of dishonesty from a percentage of business customers. Many businesses have a special term for this expected percentage of loss, theft and damaged products, they call it normal shrinkage. The results, if shrinkage becomes unreasonable, are often higher prices to the consumer, if the business wishes to stay in business. How sad it is that so many have become slaves to this beast of selfish deception and deceit. However, you will find, precious chelas, that as you align yourself in service to GOD, your conscience will not allow you to get away with any sort of unbalanced behavior, without some careful and often difficult contemplation of the consequences thereof. So Be it.

Thank you, precious chelas, for your attention. Druthea, you are most blessed in your loving and giving service unto Our Father. Thank you, precious little sister of ours. We are Sananda, Lord Michael and St. Germain. We come in the service of Holy God/Aton of Light and The Creation. May you walk in the peace which true knowledge and understanding brings. Salu.

5/18/91 SANANDA

UNFOLDING THE ROOT CAUSE OF ANY "NEGATIVE" PERCEPTION

Greetings Precious Druthea. I AM Sananda. I come in service to Holy God/Aton of Light and to you my brethren. Thank you for finding your balance, Druthea, and petitioning for clarity on "negative" perceptions that we may share with our brethren. For within each "human" conscious mind there exists many various perceptions and depending upon the experiences of emotional attachment, ones will attach to themselves various "degrees" of misperception and therefore respond accordingly.

Let us example the giving forth of The Word: The historical, economic, social, political and spiritual truths. Every single one of you who first reads of the devastating manifested illusion which now exists upon your plane respond in a multitude of different ways, depending upon the level of your spiritual awareness and maturity. When you are told, for example, that you ones in the United States of America are rapidly losing the freedoms which were guaranteed under your Constitution and Bill of Rights, many of you become afraid, mostly because you have taken the freedoms you have had for granted and few of you have any historical political and/or social-economic knowledge and experience. That which you do have is, as you are finding as you continue to read "The Phoenix Journals", quite limited in truth of the circumstances. Mostly you ones have concerned yourselves with survival needs, succeeding in your chosen profession, raising families and enjoying your lives through various forms of entertainment as you are able. When your pursuit of the so-called "American Dream" or whatever "dream" you have which requires "freedom" to realize, is threatened, such as by the truth that the economic system is collapsing and you may lose your once-secure job, many of you feel extremely frightened especially because you feel helpless. The adversary would like you to feel helpless and fearful because often you will become paralyzed by this and refuse to take any action whatsoever, even for your own security and protection. Many will simply try to glue those rose-colored glasses tightly around their eyes, that their world can return (they hope) to the innocence which they once enjoyed. I will venture to say, chelas, that once the stirring of your Spirit within has been accomplished, YOU will never return to your original ignorant state. Your conscience will not allow you to.

Now, many ones of you consider yourselves to be most spiritually attuned especially if you have expanded your awareness beyond the limiting doctrines of your various religious institutions. Many of you have accomplished much of your spiritual progress through what is often called the "New Age" movement and "Metaphysics". What I would like you ones to please understand carefully is that the adversary has worked just as diligently within the human leaders of the "New Age" philosophies and doctrines in order to deceive and mislead your spiritual understanding, as well as also working through your Fundamental Religious Institutions to accomplish its deception. Because all of you have various degrees of spiritual innocence and gullibility, the aspects of truth about "personal responsibility" and the nature of evil and goodness, God and Adversary, are often twisted and turned about, so that you searchers of spiritual freedom and truth continue to be bound by the adversary through a more subtle deception and purposeful misinterpretation of the Cosmic Spiritual Laws.

For example, what do the terms "negative" and "positive" mean to you? Let us first define, negative: "1. Characterized by or expressing negation, denial, or refusal. 2. Not positive or affirmative: a negative attitude. 3. The side that denies or contradicts what the other side affirms, as in a debate. Now we will define positive: 1. That is or may be directly affirmed; actual. 2. Characterized by or expressing affirmation; a positive attitude. 3. Openly and plainly expressed: a positive denial. 4. Not admitting of doubt and denial.

So the defining of terms often helps assist the understanding of the meaning of your own often used expressions. Most of you when you are given information about your world circumstance, for example, as laid forth in "The Phoenix Journals", will respond in some way. If the information is frightening to you or causes you to feel "badly" or threatens your "belief" system in some way then most often you ones will say that it is negative. By calling it negative you are thereby expressing denial and refusal to accept the information. In this way do you also refuse responsibility to investigate further and DO something to change the circumstance. I will say that the information SHARED within "The Phoenix Journals" is actually quite positive in that it is OPENLY AND PLAINLY EXPRESSED: POSITIVE TRUTH! Now in order to find balance with EVERY circumstance and EVERY bit of information you are given, you must ASK the Spirit WITHIN you what this circumstance and/or information is showing you. WHAT IS THE LESSON HERE WHICH YOU HAVE ASKED FOR? You will find that, finally having and knowing the truth, when you recognize it as such, to actually be most liberating to you spiritually because you will have recognized the enemy, and it is YOU. So then, with your newly discovered personal power and responsibility you will demand the Spirit of God within you to show you YOUR opportunity to serve God and The Creation, and therefore change what you find to be unacceptable/unbalanced consequences/circumstances. And then YOU will KNOW YOU CAN create a more balanced circumstance.

Now here is a little test for you. Think of a profoundly "negative" circumstance in your perception. What emotions do you feel, for example, if you lost your job, or your home burned to the ground. Fear? Loss? Anger? Helplessness? Is the "loss" outside of you? Do you ask yourself, WHY ME? And do you feel VICTIMIZED by something OUTSIDE OF YOU? Now think of a profoundly "positive" circumstance in your perception, such as, the birth of a new babe or getting married. How does simply thinking about this circumstance make you feel? Love, Joy, fulfillment, Peace? Do you know that YOU choose how you will respond in every circumstance and situation put before you? Inner Peace and Joy are yours and you will experience them more and more as you take personal responsibility and sincerely work to create BALANCED circumstances and correct UNBALANCED circumstances with the INNER GUIDANCE OF YOUR SPIRIT.

Now when you receive information, such as that produced within "The Phoenix Journals" and you respond with FEAR in your heart, then what action does this response demand from you? What do you want to do? Denounce the information? Denounce the speaker who presents it? Turn off the flow of any further investigation of the information?

I will suggest that whenever you respond with FEAR when presented with information, that Spirit within you is showing you something which YOU need to deal with. Truth is showing itself to you and the Spirit within registers it and the "altered" ego chooses to become fearful, because its belief/security structure is feeling threatened. If you will simply see the emotion of fear as a warning of real or imagined danger and/or an illusionary block to the opportunity of expanding your knowledge of truth, discernment and inner understanding, you will be able to rise above the fear and take the necessary action to KNOW THE TRUTH AND RESPOND TO THE CALL WITHIN TO TAKE RESPONSIBLE ACTION..

Now for you ones who call yourselves skeptics, defined as: 1. One who doubts, disbelieves, or disagrees with generally accepted ideas. 2. One who questions the doctrines of a religion. Skeptical: Doubting, questioning; disbelieving. Skepticism: 1. A doubting or disbelieving attitude. 2. Philos. The doctrine that absolute knowledge is unattainable."

Now there is nothing wrong with questioning that information which you are given in order to find truth. But ones who call themselves skeptical or a skeptic most often hide behind this term so that they can remain on the fence of indecision about a particular matter and therefore not take action or responsibility. By the very definition of skepticism, these ones hold a doctrine/belief that absolute knowledge is unattainable FOR THEM (or anyone else for that matter), and as long as they continue to sit upon the fence of skepticism, they certainly will continue to find themselves unable to absolutely find the truth. One who holds tightly to his skepticism is often most fearful and so appears most self-righteous and arrogant about his beliefs, such as his erroneous belief that, if HE doesn't know Truth then neither can anyone else.

So for you chelas who are sincerely seeking life spiritual truths, you will continue to learn about discernment of all information presented to your attention. Often you will feel skeptical about and therefore, doubt and question a new idea, thought or bit of information which is given to you. That is perfectly healthy, just don't STOP there. Ask The Father WITHIN to please show you the Truth and guide you to that which will allow Truth to unfold for you. Then wait upon Spirit to unfold the Truth in the BEST way for you to understand it clearly. This means TRUSTING your inner guidance to unfold all you need in the correct time-frame for you. So then PATIENCE is necessary as well. Simply because you will feel less stressful if you can trust GOD within to GIVE YOU ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW TO CONTINUE TO GAIN SPIRITUAL WISDOM AND PERFECTION.

Every circumstance you give your attention to is a lesson, perhaps of discernment of Truth or conquering paralyzing fear or even rising beyond skeptical indecision. And more than it being a lesson, every circumstance you give your attention to is also AN OPPORTUNITY for improving on or "sharpening" your spiritual wisdom and perfection.

You see, precious chelas, as you sharpen and perfect your spiritual knowledge, your foundation becomes more solid than any man-made structure or material, because your foundation is aligned with the wisdom of knowledge of TRUTH of your IMMORTAL DIVINITY, COSMIC LAWS AND ONENESS WITH GOD AND THE CREATION. NOTHING of physical illusion will be able to tear down your foundation which is built on Truth and spiritual wisdom. This, alas was my final "initiation" upon your plane less than some 2000 years past. I, Sananda, had to pass the final test of spiritual fortitude as a human upon your place. I knew I had to experience the denial of MINESELF AND MINE FATHER WITHIN by you of my brethren and still rise above the human "altered ego" limitations of fear, frustration and pain. Mine crucifixion was mine final TEST of Spiritual commitment to MINE FATHER WITHIN ME, I THEN ATTAINED a higher level of spiritual mastership of which I continued to develop and perfect after my actual physical departure from Shan, which did NOT occur at crucifixion, but many years later as you have read in "And They Called His Name Immanuel: I Am Sananda. And, of course, the crucifixion of mine self offered MANY lessons to you of my brethren who either witnessed physically, or otherwise, not the least lesson which was totally purposely misinterpreted, and that is THE IMMORTALITY OF THE SPIRIT OR SOUL WITHIN. I then continued my spiritual mastership training in the higher realms of GOD/ATON and have reached mine inherited perfected spiritual state of SANANDA, ONE WITH GOD. I am assisting and monitoring you of mine brothers and sisters who receive and give forth MINE FATHERS WORD. I am available and accessible, though not yet in physical form, so that I may bring the spiritual foundation and balance along with the other Heavenly Hosts of God, so that you of my brethren, who so choose, can awaken and remember TRUTH, and receive earned graduation to "higher" realms in God's Kingdoms. I am come as MINE FATHER GOD/ATON'S representative, to claim you of His Faithful and True children of Light...and bring you HOME.

Now let us clarify more on "negative" perceptions. When George and Desiree Green speak before you and they describe the historical, political, socioeconomic and spiritual circumstances in Truth, see this as POSITIVE in that you are now given the opportunity through your Spirit Within TO KNOW TRUTH AND TO TAKE ACTION TO BRING ABOUT NECESSARY CHANGE TO BRING BACK BALANCE. Chelas, information is information. The merit of it is its truth as it relates to your global and spiritual growth and discernment. Your Spirit Within is seeking BALANCE and it will continually show the UNBALANCE that you may choose to HEAL it WITHIN and WITHOUT. This is your measure of responsible spiritual maturity...your ability to absorb Truth and knowledge and become empowered and responsible for creating BALANCED alignment with GOD and The Creation.

Remember chelas, YOU all share the pool of mass consciousness upon this plane, you contribute to the DIS-ease as well as to the LIGHT...it is your choice. You can remain IGNORANT and IRRESPONSIBLE, but you will still suffer the consequences of your ill-thinking and acting behavior. You see, you contribute to the unbalance either directly and knowingly if you align yourself with the destructive adversary, or you contribute to the unbalance indirectly through your ignorance of spiritual and global truth. It is most especially your ignorance of the consequences of your unbalanced "thinking" and doing, and of the Cosmic Laws which has nearly devastated your planet and your species.

So the terms "negative" and "positive" are "New Age" terms and the adversary has encouraged you ones to align all circumstances in either category. Remember the definitions above, these terms do not fit and they cause you to turn from responsibility of a given circumstance because it is identified by you as "negative". YOU CREATE ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, YOUR SPIRIT IS ALWAYS SHOWING YOU SOMETHING you need to know. YOU DECIDE HOW YOU

WILL RESPOND IN EVERY CIRCUMSTANCE PUT BEFORE YOU. First you will need to recognize unbalance when it is presented to you. Then you will need to further investigate for yourself, with the assistance of your Spirit Within, until you are satisfied with the Truth. Then you will ask God Within to show you how to bring back balance to your portion of the mass consciousness "pie". Then you will do what God within guides you to do.

Here is something for you to think about. That which is "positive" to the adversary...ie: causing confusion and deception is considered quite "negative" to a child of Light. That which is "negative" to the adversary, ie: being exposed as a liar and deceiver, is considered quite "positive" to a child of Light. So you see, those terms are quite relative to the situation encountered and the perceptions retained by opposing personalities.

The absolute surest way, chelas, to compound the problems you face, and therefore create ever more devastating consequences to yourself and your planet, is to be led to (by your Spirit Within) and exposed to THE TRUTH about the circumstances already created, and THEN still doing absolutely NOTHING to change them to bring back balance. So it is the better part of wisdom to HEAR the call of SPIRIT and learn to LISTEN to and accurately decipher your guidance given. All it takes is YOUR COMMITMENT TO SERVE GOD'S WILL and you will be given all you need on your wondrous journey. So be it.

Thank you for your attention. May clarity and understanding be yours that your spiritual foundation may become solid in TRUTH AND WISDOM. I AM Sananda. Thank you little sister, Druthea. Go forth and find your confirmations that they bring you peace and balance in your service to GOD/ATON. Know that I LOVE YOU ALL SO GREATLY for you each are a part of ME as I AM a part of YOU. Walk in God's Light of Truth and KNOW therein you always find Peace. Salu.

OUR NEWEST JOURNAL

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

SEMINARS

George & Desirée Green will speak June 7, 1991, 7 PM at Royce Hotel Ballroom, 1601 Belvedere Rd., W. Palm Beach, Florida Admission $5.00 Call Kip (407) 533-0703

June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon

Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell

The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

The man who rows the boat generally doesn't have time the rock it.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

MAY 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 9

5/30/91 HATONN

THURSDAY

Hatonn present. I am greatly pleased, encouraged and optimistic over the entire proceedings of yesterday. Oberli, I ask that you leave messages everywhere you can think of to ask B.C. to get in touch--we need either his statement or his presence. However, I no longer wish that the matter be pursued for the problem is not with the financing of your property and I believe it absurd to pull in another party into the harassment and insulting abuse of Mr. Horn. The problem of missing papers from the court file IS Mr. Horn, aided and abetted by your good Judge.

B.C. did everything asked of him and supplied everything requested of him--to the court. I realize that ALL is missing from that file and I believe the handwriting spells clearly as to who and why the documents and tapes are missing. Go for the culprits and stop wasting effort on that which is obviously illegal taking from the court file of case documents and evidence. Yes, I know where B.C. is and I suggest you leave a request for a call-back but you are missing the point of the case. So be it for I will not ask a man to divulge his business arrangements to the enemy. This case has all but destroyed your business credibility in your own village--I will not allow subjecting another to this same abuse. I ask that you recall Z.H. spoke with B.C. regarding financing in this matter and perhaps HE is the one needing deposing--not B.C.

This whole case and millions like it are WHY you need a Law Center with brave speakers who will stand against this sort of thing, but your contacts and supporters need no more abuse--the FACTS now speak for themselves.

Oberli, I realize you received no response from Joy regarding your two prior requests for reassurance of backing. It is complicated and painful. However, Joy does not make commitments nor offers of support which are not intended. When she said she would back you on the property she was speaking sincerely. I understand need to reaffirm that statement from her, but in the interim, George and Desiree were present and their attestation should be sufficient. When she returns from her journey abroad, contact her again, please. We only need the affirmation for the records for this case shall not be suspended for any reason short of total "winning". Winning is imperative for the citizens have been victimized to the point of destruction of the infrastructure of your whole nation.

Now, for all of you who are curious about all of the above--know that we are no longer going to sit idly by and allow the Beast to swallow us. You are under the delusion that you somehow "can't fight city hall"--forget it, you either stand and use your Constitution or lose it--and you are at the brink of the loss thereof. We are causing these ones to stand against every barrage that is being thrown at them to PROVE TO YOU THAT YOU MUST ACT AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY. Our hope is to be able to allow for the formation of a Center for Law which can give rock-bottom expenses to citizens needing help. One of the points of the adversary is to cause expenses to be so outrageous that the You-the-People cannot stand against them. You will simply have to pool resources if you expect to cure the ills of your nation and globe. You can do it if you stand together in the Light and refuse to be halted by the evil conspirators.

BUSH PROBLEMS--AND MILLY THE DOG

You ones continually amuse me--no, the problems the Bush's are encountering are not due to "White House water supply"--it is directly due to the "tinkering" network at Camp David. Moreover, it is all just a totally absurd distraction to keep you off focus and balance regarding the truthful happenings and "allow" for miserable memory gaps in Bush's past adventures. Just wait and see how well he has forgotten all involvement in the Iran mess, the Panama/Costa Rica/Ibero American mess, the Paris trips as Vice President and all the criminal activities of the CIA/V.P. days of escapades at your expense as a nation.

Now, I am going to interrupt my writing on this most important subject of Universal Codes, etc., to give you a most in-depth look at Executive Orders and, with permission, I am utilizing SPOT-LIGHT as resource for they have it nailed down most efficiently. You ones MUST utilize "earth" based information for in a court of law you will have to have confirmation. It is one thing to have personal advance knowledge of incidents and reasoning networks but you need hard copy for standing in a courtroom. Remember some wise words--"Be wise as a serpent and gentle as the dove" and know that you are sheep in wolf country and act with wisdom greater than your adversary. There is a great difference in clever deceit and wise action.

Dharma, as much as I detest asking you to rewrite all this information--I must for it is the only way in which we can get out the information in greater scattering to the greatest numbers of citizens.

A.S.S.K.

(Association of Sananda and Sanat Kumara)

This next has absolutely no importance to me in any manner but apparently it continues to bring confusion and discomfort to many readers who have sent copies of a document to America West which was received by them as being on a mailing list from the above named Association corporation.

"Ted's" objection to my misspelling of his name seems a great point in issue. I care not how he spells his name--if he wishes his name spelled correctly then I suggest he write it clearly. I will call him anything he wishes and whoever is writing for me will spell it accordingly to the best of their ability. You ones had better get off this "psychic" "fortune-telling" kick. Further, it certainly is not from this sector that comes discounting of your work--your document alone does it very well--very well indeed! I discount no one--I ask that all read ALL and discern that which is of Truth and will move you to freedom and action. Fear? We give you answers to that which you petition for help and THAT, sir, is of God. If you believe that God would give selective "truth" unto a single reader when his whole flock is in danger of being consumed--then you err greatly in perception. God is not for a selected speaker and ones who hide Truth from brother when brother's life depends upon that knowledge--are not of God.

Also, lest I pass this by in acknowledgement--I wish to recognize and acknowledge Ted B.'s information packet which has been again (updated) sent to all of ASSK's readers, etc. I understand there are some 1200 to 1300 of them. I herein ask George Green to contact his attorney and write a demand notice that they send forth to all receiving the packet your pertinent information regarding America West Publishing Co. in order that all receiving that package of deliberate assault against you and my scribe and ME, be able to obtain information regarding the Phoenix Journals and Expresses. We are greatly indebted to them for the advertising of our information and assume by their lengthy documents that they affirm the "Truth" of our documents--or, they denounce and state, by obvious conclusion, that themselves, and others, have given forth total lies to the public while pronouncing it "Truth". We have met all requirements as legally projected unto and demanded by ASSK of us, and we expect them to respond in like manner. Thank you.

As to the ones listed as being willing to "come" and meet with Hatonn, Sananda, etc.--I have and do, extend invitation to do so--but I remind all ones involved that I expect to meet with the "being" (entity) DIRECTLY through those self-acclaimed "channels"--personally and directly. I will make myself available for such an encounter as one to one--or group, it matters not to me for Truth will stand into infinity and there is NONE I HESITATE TO CONFRONT HEAD ON! I SUGGEST AND URGE ONES TO BRING ON THE ADVERSARY'S TROOPS AND LET US SEE THAT WHICH HAS TRANSPIRED HERE. AND NO, I WILL NOT FIND IT ACCEPTABLE TO CONFRONT IN WRITINGS--I EXPECT DIRECT AND PERSONAL MEETING. HOWEVER, I HAVE NO INTENTION OF WASTING TIME NOR ENERGY OF ANY WHO WORK WITH ME. I WILL ARRANGE TO HAVE ALL INTERESTED PARTIES WITNESS. YOU SAY YOU "WILL COME AND MEET"--SO BE IT FOR OUR WORK-LOAD IS INDEED HEAVY AND IF YOU "BOTHERED" TO READ THE JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES WHICH, BY YOUR OWN PROJECTION, YOU REFUSE TO BE "BOTHERED WITH", IT IS POSSIBLE YOU MIGHT BECOME LEGITIMATELY INFORMED. SO BE IT. PLEASE LET THE RECORD SHOW AND STATE THE AFOREGOING.

Your world is coming apart and I assure you that I have no interest in that which may or may not have transpired with anyone in Peru some fifty years ago. Most especially when the information has been made public "as TRUTH". If Sister Theodra desires recognition of bits of her writing, then I gladly recognize same and "give credit where credit is due". I am, however, at a loss as to how you can assume God is so selective and ignorant as to "forget" from one writing to another what He has already given. As I say, Truth will stand into infinity and I believe anyone who has experienced my presence will attest to my willingness to converse with anyone on any subject.

Now to that which is capable of saving your "assets". We have written at great length on multiple occasions regarding Executive Orders so I ask that you readers also go back and research those writings in conjunction with the forthcoming.

To save space and time I ask that you "assume" quoting and my comments will be inserted in brackets [].

BLUEPRINT FOR U.S. DICTATORSHIP

Constitution Suspended
Bureaucrats. Exclusive to the Spotlight by one, MIKE BLAIR.
May 27, 1991.

During the Persian Gulf war and the military buildup leading to it, President George Bush began using the term "New World Order," often suggesting the commitment of so-called multinational forces involved in the military effort was the beginning of this alleged worldwide utopia.

Supposedly, using the vehicle of the United Nations, Bush's New World Order would be the arbitrator of all world problems and the apparatus to enforce globalist dictates through the use of armed forces combined from the armies of member nations. The UN law would be, regardless of the nationalist interests of individual countries, the final word.

Actually, even the mention of a New World Order would normally be anathema to thinking Americans and, in particular, conservative political leaders and civil libertarians.

SINISTER TERMINOLOGY

It is also surprising to many critics of the move toward one-world government that Bush would even dare choose the term "New World Order" to define his globalist schemes. However, most Americans alive today were born after World War II, when propaganda of the so-called Allied powers used the terms of "New Order" or "New World Order" to describe in a sinister way the military efforts of Japan and, in particular, Germany under Adolf Hitler.

Few, it seems, have taken the time to analyze just what Bush has in mind for his New World Order, of which America is to become an integral part, starting with supplying about 90 percent of the muscle, and young lives, that tackled and defeated Iraqi strongman Saddam Hussein's Arab legions.

However, patriotic Constitutional scholars know that Bush's New World Order is the worst attack ever on America as a sovereign, independent and free nation.

BEGAN WITH WILSON

Efforts to form a global government are certainly nothing new. American political leaders, who were concerned with America first, were able to overcome the internationalist, one-world government machinations of President Woodrow Wilson following World War I. Wilson was prevented from realizing his visions of a New World Order, through the League of Nations, by a powerful Senate opposition, which refused to rubber-stamp for Wilson U.S. membership in the world body.

A few decades later, however, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, near the end of World War II, was able to get his one-world plans under way by laying the groundwork for today's United Nations, which was completed under his successor Harry S. Truman.

A few years later, that membership in an UN-mandated war in Korea cost America 35,000 young lives.

The problem that the one-worlders have always encountered, of course, is the U.S. Constitution, which has always stood as a bulwark against any globalist schemes.

Nevertheless, American presidents since Roosevelt have insidiously chipped away at the great powers of the people, written into the Constitution by America's immortal Founding Fathers, with the use of so-called executive orders.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Americans should be deeply alarmed that these presidents have signed a series of executive orders (EOs), which under the guise of any national emergency declared by the president serving at the time, can virtually suspend the Constitution and the nation can be ruled as a virtual dictatorship. Dissent, peaceful or otherwise, is eliminated.

Those behind these efforts to circumvent the Constitution may have gotten the idea from President Abraham Lincoln, who utilized various extraordinary powers of his office--which many Constitutional scholars still insist was illegal--to suspend various civil rights to curb such problems as draft riots during the Civil War.

In 1862, Congress enacted the Enrollment Act to allow the drafting of young men for the Union Army. The act was rife with inequalities, such as the provision which allowed a man to pay $300 or to hire a substitute to take his place. This hated "Rich Man's Exemption", as it was called, angered the average American of military age and in particular young Irish immigrants.

A riot erupted in New York in 1863, and it resulted in Lincoln using some extraordinary powers of his office to keep the Union from falling apart from within.

But over the years, presidents have used these powers for purposes never intended by the Founding Fathers.

INDIANS VICTIMIZED

President John Tyler used such powers in 1842 to round up Seminole Indians in Georgia and Florida and force-march them--men, women and children--to Arkansas. This was probably the first use of internment in America to deal with unpopular minorities. It was not the last.

In 1886, the Geronimo Chiricahua Apache Indians surrendered to U.S. troops in the West, were rounded up by order of President Grover Cleveland and shipped to internment in Florida and Alabama.

Earlier, during the War Between the States, Sioux Indians in Minnesota, when there was a delay in paying them their yearly allowance, began attacking nearby White settlements. Lincoln sent in a hastily raised force of volunteers under Col. H.H. Sibley. Little Crow [No, not the same, but getting close], leader of the Kaposia band, was decisively defeated by the Union troops on September 23, 1862, and more than 2,000 Sioux were taken captive, although Little Crow himself and a few followers escaped.

Through the process of a military tribunal, sanctioned by Lincoln, 36 Sioux leaders were publicly hanged. Whether the Sioux executed were innocent or guilty was apparently immaterial. The revolt was quelled, and the Minnesota Sioux were all moved to reservations in Dakota.

These instances of the nation's executive branch taking extraordinary measures to confine, or intern, American Indians are just a few of many examples.

More recent examples of internment minorities by executive order occurred during World War I and World War II.

During World War I, an unknown number of German-Americans were rounded up by federal authorities and interned until after the war. In addition, regardless of the First Amendment of the Constitution which guarantees freedom of speech and of the press, German-language newspapers, published within German-American communities in the United States, were banned.

WW II INTERNMENTS

After the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, within days the FBI had rounded up tens of thousands of Japanese-Americans, guilty only of being of Japanese ancestry, under the authority of an executive order issued by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The lists of those to be apprehended had been drawn up months earlier, before the war.

Held in concentration camps, the perimeters guarded by U.S. soldiers armed with machine guns, the mostly innocent and patriotic Japanese-Americans were not released until after the war.

Congress has recently passed legislation extending the nation's apologies to the Japanese-Americans and extending them compensation for their years of confinement.

However, no apology or compensation has ever been extended to the more than 8,000 German-

Americans who were confined in dozens of jails and camps across the United States, also by order of Roosevelt.

Many were not released until 1947, a full two years after the end of the war, in total violation of the Geneva Conventions.

"What happened to me and thousands of others is old history," said Eberhard Fuhr of Cincinnati, who was interned at 17 years of age, "but the next time it could be any other group, which is then not politically correct, or out of favor for any other reason."

Fuhr's warning, of course, had already been proved correct just several months earlier when, under orders of Bush, the FBI hounded thousands of innocent Arab-Americans as the U.S. prepared for the Persian Gulf conflict.

Only the efforts of a handful of irate U.S. Congressmen halted the harassment but not until after a number of U.S. military bases were selected as the sites of internment camps for Arab-Americans and war dissenters.

GUNS

Patriotic American leaders do not have to concern themselves with the average law-abiding American gun owner, only with establishing laws adequate to curb the crimes of armed criminals.

However, the allies of those who wish to subjugate the American people are the armed criminals, who, unhindered by adequate laws to curb their crimes, will ultimately cause the disarming of all Americans. Thus, potential tyrants and dictators, like jackals, always bark for gun controls.

The Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution states: "A well-regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed."

The first act of Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev upon the declaration of independence from the USSR of the tiny republic of Lithuania on the Baltic Sea was a call for the disarming of the Lithuanian militia and a demand that all Lithuanians surrender their firearms to occupying Soviet authorities.

The second act was the use of force and intimidation against the Lithuanian people to force them to rescind their declaration of independence.

NOT SO INNOCENT

The so-called Brady Bill, which calls for a seven-day waiting period for Americans to purchase handguns, has passed the House of Representatives and faces its next hurdle in the Senate.

How can any reasonable American object to a mere seven-day wait to obtain a handgun? That is the question asked by members of Handgun Control Inc. and other proponents of the proposed mandated waiting period.

Those really familiar with the issue of guns and the rights of Americans to have them are not concerned so much about the seven-day wait but the fact that passage of the bill, which even the U.S. Justice Department has stated will be "useless" in curbing crime, will set the stage for the introduction and potential passage of truly oppressive and restrictive anti-gun legislation.

Let there be no mistake about it, there is a serious effort afoot in America and in Congress, particularly, to disarm the American people.

Civil libertarians and Constitutionalists, as well as would-be oppressors, are well aware that in order to make the American people give up their rights and freedoms, as guaranteed by the Constitution, and to make them subservient to a "New World Order", they must first be disarmed.

CHIPPING AWAY

For years the gun grabbers in Congress, backed by an assortment of liberals, left-wing radicals and do-gooders who don't know the difference between a gun barrel and a buttstock, have been slowly chipping away at the Constitutional right of the American people to keep and bear arms.

Since 1989, when a crazed drug addict named Patrick Purdy picked up a Red Chinese AK-47 assault-style rifle and opened fire on children in a playground in Stockton, California, there has been a crusade among the anti-gun factions to ban not just imported Red Chinese firearms, which never should have been allowed into the United States in the first place, but all semiautomatic guns. [But, could this have anything to do with the continual push of Bush's gang to insure favored trade-status with China, in spite of all degrading circumstances?]

Semiautomatic firearms are guns which fire upon each squeeze of the trigger (without doing anything else), as opposed to automatic weapons which fire continually as long as the trigger is held back and there is ammunition in the gun's magazine.

Since the Stockton shooting, there have been numerous bills introduced in both houses of Congress to ban virtually all semiautomatic weapons, from handguns to rifles and shotguns.

Last year, such a bill, sponsored by Sen. Dennis DeConcini, passed the Senate but the Congress adjourned before a companion bill could be taken up by the full House of Representatives.

This year, the House has before it H.R. 1400, sponsored by Rep. Robert Michel, the House minority leader. Now before the House Judiciary Committee, the bill is an anticrime package supported by the Bush administration.

While the proposed legislation wisely offers stricter penalties for the commission of crimes with firearms, it has a major drawback as far as gun owners are concerned.

[Since I have covered all this so thoroughly prior to this in relationship to magazine capacity, etc., I shall just ask that you refer back to that prior information and save us all some pain and repeating. I do suggest that you carefully look at your Constitutional possibilities involved if you are arrested for violating either unregistered (State or Federal) statutes under the "legislative" U.S. rules vs. your Constitutional "LAW" rights. Knowledgeable attorneys in the practice of "Constitutional Republic Laws" can handle those confrontations--legally as you follow the basic rules of defense as we have, and will again, lay those instructions before you. If you don't stand up against this thing, America, you are doomed.]

BILL AUTHORIZES CONCENTRATION CAMPS

The frightful power of the EOs was driven home by the introduction last year in both houses of Congress, of legislation which would declare a "National Drug and Crime Emergency".

Introduced in the House by a supposed conservative, Rep. Newt Gingrich [and we wrote all about this bugger], and in the Senate by another supposed conservative, Sen. Phil Gramm, the legislation, if enacted, would have had the potential of virtually eliminating the freedoms and rights guaranteed all Americans under the Constitution.

The legislation had provisions for using tents and other shelters, similar to those used to confine the Japanese-Americans during World War II, and military facilities, for the confinement of state and federal "violent criminals".

The legislation defined a "violent criminal" as "every person who is convicted in federal court of a crime of violence against a person or a drug trafficking felony, other than simple possession."

It stated further that such criminal "shall be sentenced to and shall serve a full term of no less than five years in prison."

The bills describe the term "crime of violence against a person" as a "federal offense that is a felony and has an element the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against the person of another."

In other words, a home owner, in protecting his property and person threatens intruders with "physical force". Thus, he would be committing a "crime of violence against a person", with a mandated jail term of "no less than five years", which happened to be the called-for duration of the "National Drug and Crime Emergency".

DICTATORSHIP POSSIBLE HERE

By Lawrence Wilmot & Martin Mann:

Hidden in the bureaucratic maze Washington politicians call "our Constitutional system of government", a little-known federal agency is quietly making plans to turn the United States into a dictatorship.

There are "stacks of blueprints" in the top-secret safe of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) designed to convert American society into a "command system".

In a private interview, allowing him to remain anonymous, a highly placed source confirmed that the procedures developed by FEMA to "suspend" the Constitution and to round up thousands of dissenters nationwide can be activated by a simple phone call from the White House.

"Even people who have become aware of FEMA's existence and know something about its activities--not many do--think the word 'Emergency' in its designation means it will go into action only in case of a natural disaster or perhaps a surprise nuclear attack," related this expert.

"In reality, however, this outfit can be mobilized whenever the politicians occupying the White House decide they need special--and extra-Constitutional--powers to impose their will on the nation."

As Liberty Lobby first revealed, FEMA's bureaucrats can then proceed to:

* Take over all farms, ranches or timberland in order to "utilize them more effectively" as decreed in Executive Order 11490, the so-called omnibus emergency preparedness decree promulgated by President Richard Nixon on October 28, 1969.

* Seize all sources of public power: electric, nuclear, petroleum, etc.

* Freeze all wages, prices and bank accounts.

* Take over all communications media. [Which they totally control already.]

A FORCE OF FACELESS FEDS

Such totalitarian measures can be imposed by bureaucrats under FEMA's direction, not just in the face of a cataclysmic upheaval, but "whenever necessary for assuring the continuity of the federal government in any national emergency type situation," decreed a subsequent White House ukase, EO 11921, issued by President Gerald Ford in April, 1976.

Can such a blueprint for tyranny be clamped on the United States by a force of faceless federal officials? It is the role FEMA has been preparing for most intensively, says the former high agency administrator.

"In recent years, despite talk of spending cuts, FEMA's budget has been steadily increasing," revealed this knowledgeable source. "It now stands at somewhere around $3 billion annually. I say 'somewhere' because part of this agency's funding is appropriated under so-called black programs, submitted to Congress with the defense budget without an explanation of its purpose, aping the secret CIA appropriation."

FEMA can draw on the defense budget and on the protection of the secrecy reserved for national security projects because it came into being under President Jimmy Carter in a move that merged the civil defense and disaster relief responsibilities formerly shared by the Pentagon, the Commerce Department and the General Services Administration under a single powerful agency.

WHAT'S FEMA REALLY UP TO?

But FEMA's real focus is not on disaster relief, knowledgeable sources say. An investigation of this little-known agency, conducted earlier this year by the General Accounting office (GAO), the congressional watchdog unit, has found that less than 10 percent of FEMA's staff--230 bureaucrats out of an estimated 2,600--are assigned full time to preparing for and dealing with major natural calamities such as storms or earthquakes.

What, then is FEMA really up to? The Spotlight's investigators have obtained an advance copy of the GAO report on this secretive agency, due to be released next month. The study's surprising findings have been reviewed with the help of well-placed confidential sources, in order to bring into full view, for the first time, the federal bureaucracy secret blueprint for tyranny in America. [I suggest you stay tuned for the next episode.]

HELP BUNGLED AND DISORGANIZED

By Martin Mann & George Nicholas:

One after another, two violent, cataclysmic disasters struck the United States in the fall of 1989. Hurricane Hugo roared through the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and the Carolinas in September. Within weeks, northern California was shaken by the Loma Prieta earthquake that left hundreds of thousands of victims and billions of dollars in damage in its wake.

Having spent "over $25 billion on setting up FEMA", American taxpayers were entitled to expect "quick and efficient help" from it in the face of such shattering calamities. But the response by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to these upheavals was "bungled" and "disorganized", says Ray Groover, who reported on the hurricane for a San Juan, Puerto Rico newspaper and is now studying for a graduate degree in journalism at Columbia University in New York.

Since the Disaster Relief Act of 1988, FEMA has been responsible for coordinating the "disaster preparedness, response and recovery actions of state and local governments". Unable to live up to these responsibilities during the 1989 crisis, the agency drew sharp criticism from the press and from Congress, whose leaders assigned the General Accounting Office (GAO) to conduct the first-ever detailed investigation of FEMA. [Foxes in the henhouse?]

For a year, GAO field examiners interviewed hundreds of disaster victims, state and local relief workers, journalists and other witnesses. The agency has assembled a 71-page report on U.S. relief operations....

...One example of FEMA's failure cited by the GAO survey team involved 4,000 low-income units wholly destroyed in California's devastating October, 1989 earthquake. "Thirteen months later, only 114 units had been processed and approved for rehabilitation funding," the report reveals. Similarly, 10 months after Hurricane Hugo, most of the families left homeless "had not yet been provided with housing assistance from FEMA."

DIRECTORS SHELL GAME

Warned that the GAO report will expose FEMA as incompetent and wasteful, President George Bush fired agency Director Julius Becton, an elderly three-star general, whose principal qualification for flag rank was HENRY KISSINGER's wish to promote "minority" officers, Defense Department sources report.

Becton was replaced by Wallace Stickney, a former New Hampshire state official whose colorless and low-profile reputation is expected to dampen the fireworks the GAO report might otherwise touch off about the inadequacy of federal relief operations.

FEMA's leadership is developing programs that will not merely "ensure the continuity of the federal government in any national emergency-type situation," as decreed by President Gerald Ford in Executive Order 11921, but REPLACE THE NATIONS CONSTITUTIONAL STATE-CRAFT WITH A CENTRALIZED "COMMAND SYSTEM".

Dharma, enough for this writing, thank you. I request that you ones get away from the pressures this afternoon and depart the location. We need to do a little "adjusting" of the electronics and it will be better if you are absent.

To Maurine Pierce; it seems that in the words of your language we are at a loss as to how to express the touching and wondrous painting you have perfected and given unto us, of our beloved brother in this journey, Sananda the Christed one. WE are honored to be given care over it and shall have it properly protected by frame and covering. It is one of the few times I have seen Dharma, in her human state, totally without expression save weeping. We shall copy it somehow and share with all for it is a treasure for all. Blessings are upon you who share so abundantly, your talents, with another for we are deeply touched. In humble thanks we bow in appreciation.

To "Suzie" of the mola "painting", yours has found a lofty placement for the sharing, also, and Dharma shall not mutilate the shirt you sent. She would also enjoy, gratefully, the necklace of crystal. Oberli misspoke when he indicated that "we don't hold much with crystals". We do not hold with the expression of a crystal DOING THAT WHICH A MAN SHOULD STAND RESPONSIBLE. The joy and warmth of the beautiful living crystal is a joy indeed, to have and hold. Utilized properly, they are great elements of focusing and programming. Thank you for your desire to share for we shall treasure it greatly.

Hatonn will now clear while my welcome is yet intact. I hope that all of you will attend this copy most carefully for your confirmation is flowing in full cycle back to you and it behooves you to consider, most diligently, your actions as citizens about to lose your Constitutional foundation.

Good day,

Hatonn to clear.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

END OF THE MASQUERADE LET'S PLUCK THE CUCKOO BIRD

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

TO ALL WHO WOULD HEAR GOD'S WORD IN THIS TIME OF TOTAL MASQUERADE. IT IS TIME TO PULL OFF THE MASK ALONG WITH THE BLINDFOLDS AND EAR-PLUGS. THE TIME IS AT HAND TO GAIN TRUTH AND INSIGHT AND TAKE ACTION FOR YOUR WORLD IS IN GRAVE DANGER.

That which is called the "Anti-Christ" is at hand and has deceived most of the world. You are surrounded by multitudes of replicas and man-made humanoids who have basically gained control of your planet.

Our intent in these Journals is to give you proof of that which we project--by documentation of history, origins and other boring information. But the information will get far less boring as we move along, dear ones--and so, let us move along rapidly.

I repeat again and again--the evil brotherhood of darkness cannot stand the focus of the light of Truth, just as it requires only the tiny spark of light to cause a place to no longer be in darkness.

Hatonn includes the PROTOCOLS and also continues to keep us current on world affairs.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

SEMINARS

George & Desiree Green will speak June 7, 1991, 7 PM at Royce Hotel Ballroom, 1601 Belvedere Rd., W. Palm Beach, Florida Admission $5.00 Call Kip (407) 533-0703

June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

AIDS, The Last Great Plague
atan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 10

6/3/91 HATONN

EXPRESS, JUNE 3, 1991

It is most important that we continue on our JOURNAL writing so we will take time only to interrupt sufficiently long enough to set forth some points which must be attended.

ECONOMIC PLANS

The most important thing for you who follow the market and monetary strategies is to pay attention to that which is under way. I can give you "intent" but, as you know, all is subject to change as the whims of your would-be rulers are altered by events.

Note that by this time last year great fuss and furor was under way regarding your national budget. Where are they this year? You will note that even with any discussion regarding the budget, there lacks the massive thrust regarding balancing budgets and deficits, etc. DO NOT OVERLOOK THAT WHICH WAS SHOWN TO YOU LAST YEAR--THE ABILITY OF BUSH TO COMPLETELY BRING YOUR NATION TO A HALT! The plans are unfolding to be even more devastating this fiscal year end and beginning of the next.

You will note the mesmerization of the market rising and the projection of the "recession" ending by "mid-year" and thus and so. No, what is planned is to push you right up to the deadline again, and then when the budget is not ready on time, the Executive Orders will become totally operable for Emergency Economic regulations and Banking regulations to move into effect. Remember, Bush still is acting under "emergency" regulations and Executive Order which keeps the Middle East situation open.

The intent is to bring the entire financial picture into "their" focus and control. I can only urge you ones who are needing to set up some measure of security and privacy, that you get on with it.

ALL investments are now extremely ill-advised. The point is to suck you into a false premise that the market is wonderful but there is no basis upon which to sustain a high market--for your economy is terribly depressed and thousands are becoming unemployed daily.

You will note there is very little mention, if any at all, regarding the failure of some 60 MILLION people in the U.S.A. to file income tax papers--much less, pay. KNOW that the "big boys" have not run out of plans for control--only ready to move into more heinous methods of control and thievery.

I do not wish to sound like the proverbial "broken record" but a lot of you are going to get caught with no ability to recover if you continue to procrastinate while thinking you are going to somehow hit at the "high" point, etc. They have an elaborate plan laid forth to trap you.

BILL COOPER

We are in receipt of several copies of the Table of Contents, etc., from Cooper's new book, BE-

HOLD A PALE HORSE. I get all sorts of comments from "...is this amends?" to "...he has plagiarized your work, Commander." Wonderful, wonderful! It is simply that TRUTH cannot be kept under the bushel for Truth is for all Mankind and not just the chosen few. Further, you will find, as you read the book, which I sincerely hope that all of you readers do--you will find that toward the ending there is much with which I still take great exception. The facts are going to be laid forth in our work in the forthcoming JOURNALS regarding LIFE and experience and what is Creation and God. But we are making great strides. I do not wish to stop any Man from bringing forth Truth and if I have given insight--PLEASE UTILIZE ANY AND ALL--YOU MUST WAKE UP AND STOP THE SILLY QUARRELS.

The one thing no one sent me was pricing, etc. All I can give you is that the book is published by Light Technology Publishing, P.O. Box 1495, Sedona, AZ 86336. Am I recommending this book? Not as such for if you have read the JOURNALS then you already have ALL of the information--I have not even perused the material for I simply have not had the interest to do so and I make no account or disaccounting of material of which I am not apprized. I do note that chapters 1 through 17 are probably repeats of the way it is and I most certainly hold with the validity of the information and urge you to become as familiar as is possible with it all. The Appendices are without my comment for I have not seen the book in point and there appears to be approximately 100 pages of which I have not seen. I DO KNOW, THAT WE WILL EITHER BEGIN TO WORK TOGETHER AND COME INTO UNITY AS TO THE CAUSE OF YOUR PROBLEMS OR YOU WILL PERISH AS A NATION FOR THAT IS THE ULTIMATE PLAN OF THE ELITE CARTELS WHO PLAN TO BE IN TOTAL OPERATION BY YEAR 2000 AND THEY ARE AHEAD OF SCHEDULE! I offer my hand in friendship to Mr. Cooper and I hope that you ones will support him in the truth he brings--it is the mark of a Man who can see errors, select important information and offer it unto his brother.

You, all must understand that I work from a higher plane of experience and my thrust is very different than just bringing you into awakening--my task is to get the word of God spread about and make arrangements for your security in the Light of God. I need no authority nor proof of anything from anyone--if you get confirmation, good and so be it. I need no input from your placement nor do I care to have any--it is up to you ones regarding your actions--mine is to ring the alarm. (My ground crew, however, appreciate those confirmations.)

Bill Cooper has had a bad time at the hands of the deceivers who would pull him down and has fallen into the trap laid by them--I honor him for continuation of his efforts in spite of that which would destroy him. You simply MUST come into realization that that which is wrong is wrong ON YOUR PLACE--LOCKED ONTO YOUR SPHERE AND WILL DESTROY YOU FROM YOUR OWN SPHERE. May we walk in brotherhood so that you can see farther by standing on my shoulders if need be! God blesses the seekers after the Light and more abundantly blesses those who find and share with brother. Amen.

WHAT OF THE NEWS ITEMS?

Let us just do a quick rundown of those things which my own group are asking me.

The cholera epidemic which is spreading across South and Central America is most certainly planned. Worse, in the treatment thereof, AIDS' HIV is being introduced as medicines and hydration IV's are being utilized. You will be hearing about it as soon as incubation time has elapsed.

Something which might surprise you, speaking of South America, is the fact that your own nation has seen to it that about 45% of Brazilian women have been sterilized. You will find that in recently discovered cover-up documents regarding the secret activities of the U.S. National Security Council (NSC) that a U.S. government policy was to force Brazil and at least a dozen other Third World countries to cut back their populations, to ensure U.S. access to those countries' raw materials. The declassified documents were from between 1974 and 1977, under U.S. National Security Adviser HENRY KISSINGER and his successor, Brent Scowcroft. George Bush, director of Central Intelligence and U.S. Ambassador to China during that same period, collaborated in the development and implementation of the policy. Other nations considered "key" and of "special, strategic, and political interest to the U.S." are India, Bangladesh (ouch), Pakistan, Nigeria, Mexico, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Egypt, Turkey, Ethiopia, and Columbia. And yes, I certainly DO hope that Cooper and some of your earth-bound informers will follow up on these things for we are burdened to the breaking point in trying to cover all the tidbits.

RAJIV GANDHI

Yes, India's former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi was murdered. This was not for the simple destruction of a political dynasty of a powerful political family--but rather, for the destruction of India itself--as part of the population reduction policies put forward by self-avowed British agent, Henry Kissinger.

India is the top target of the National Security Study Memorandum 200, "Implications of Worldwide Population Growth for U.S. Security and Overseas Interests", written in 1974 by then-national Security Advisers Kissinger and Scowcroft. NSSM 200 has cited 13 key countries in which, it said, there is a special U.S. political and strategic interest which requires imposing a policy of population control or reduction. India heads the list of those countries.

Kissinger's 1974 memo states: "The subcontinent will be for years the major focus of world concern over population growth. India's population is now approximately 580 million, adding a million by each full moon." The document cites a June 17, 1974, report from the U.S. embassy in Delhi, complaining that, "There seems no way of turning off the faucet this side of a billion Indians." The assassination of Rajiv Gandhi is designed to hurl India, already in the midst of its most violent electoral campaign to date, into fratricidal religious and caste warfare.

Mrs. Gandhi was killed by Sikh terrorists prior to Rajiv, who in turn were owned and operated by British intelligence. Mrs. Gandhi's assassination was carried out in service of the Kissinger policy and the plan for India's political disintegration put forward by British academic Bernard Lewish. According to British schemes, India--the world's largest "democracy"--would collapse into a muddling mass of impotent ethnic enclaves, with no hopes or pretensions of challenging Anglo-American imperialist rule. And so be it.

ISRAEL

You have now heard it from the great horse's mouth--the U.S. is stockpiling weapons in Israel and supplying Israel with your F-15/16 planes. Your Secretary of State has set up permanent offices in Israel. Brothers, it is coming down very rapidly now.

QUEEN'S TRIP

As you watch millions of Iraqi women and children face death by disease and starvation brought about by Operation Desert Storm, Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain came to the U.S. to celebrate and consolidate the Anglo-American imperialist alliances that destroyed Iraq.

The Queen, dear ones, a descendant of the insane King George III who fought a war to keep America a British colony, devoted most of her public statements to praising U.S.-British cooperation in the Gulf War and lauding the revival of the "special relationship"--the euphemism the British give to their decades-long strategy for subverting the U.S. and using its muscle as an instrument of British geostrategic policy, as exemplified in the war against Iraq.

She came to check on her assets and cement the status of control over you dear colonials. She is the world's wealthiest woman and Great Britain owns more property and business in the U.S. than ALL other nations. You are dealing with the "seat" and "heart" of the World Banksters. Your nation is in serious and urgent probability of losing your Constitutional Law. You already operate 100 percent on the British system and there is no way in which I can remind you often enough.

MOSSAD IS PARTNER

George Bush, while director of the CIA (1976-77) was in full knowledge and operation of the illegal CIA-Israeli Mossad operation in Central America. The effort included the smuggling of drugs from Colombia through Panama into the U.S. I have already written about these drug operations in which the loaded planes would be funnelled right into your own national Air Force bases such as Homestead and Albrook in Panama. I will follow on with the more detailed story if I have time but I have too much to cover at this sitting. George Bush was also tangled to his ears in the Golden Triangle of Southeast Asia as well, with the Mossad involved, as we have described before. But what about the "China connection"?

CHINA

What is all this current bull-headed continuation of China ties by Bush? Well, he has excellent personal reason to push China's favored nation status as well as political interests and the personal interests of his own Security Advisers.

BUSH HAS PERSONAL LINKS TO RED CHINA

Bush's all out push for extending most favored nation (MFN) trade status to communist China can be better understood if you understand that his family interests in that country, just as in Panama and the Middle East, are abundant. You must also know the role of Israeli arms dealers in that place.

The Bush family is involved in a major housing project in Shanghai, located near the airport, to be rented or sold to foreigners doing business in China. The Aoki Corp., controlled by the Bush family, is the Western partner in the deal. The president's brother, Prescott Bush, refused to respond to an establishment press inquiry (The Los Angeles Times) when it came to the attention of the press.

Prescott has also reportedly received $250,000 as a consultant to an American company establishing a communications network in China, Asset Management International Financing and Settlement Ltd. This company arranged for Hughes Aircraft Co., now a subsidiary of General Motors, to export three communication satellites to China. President Bush himself approved the export of the satellites.

Ah, but yes, there is a shadowy Israeli billionaire who is one of the key alien lobbyists behind the current drive. This is Shaul Eisenberg, an enormously wealthy Israeli promoter, who has been linked to the international arms trade and to the Mossad. In 1979, Eisenberg made a secret flight to Red China and came back with trade proposals that led to a covert commercial and military relationship between the two countries. Suffice it to say herein that there are great and grave entanglements.

It is now a known fact that clandestine China-Israel arms deals were orchestrated by senior officials of the Mossad, Israel's secret service (in case some of you have forgotten who they are). Many of the high-tech weapon models and blueprints sold by Israel to the communist Chinese were derived from top-secret designs acquired by Mossad agents.

Among the advanced defense secrets purloined by Israel from the U.S. for resale at top dollar to Asian communists were trajectory-corrected ground-to-air missiles; a high-powered anti-tank weapon known as the B-300/SMAW; armor-piercing, fin-stabilized discarding sabot shells and other most closely guarded developments of American military technology. Following Israel's example, the Red Chinese embarked on wholesale economic piracy against the U.S., also. This is blatant, government-sponsored piracy with full knowledge of your own President. Do you actually think things will change, what with the Israel lobby in the wings and the Bush family investments in Red China at stake? Neither Congress nor the administration are very likely to stick their necks out on any of these issues in point. There is now too much at stake.

The Israeli arms salesmen made total mockery of U.S. efforts to control defense technology exports to communist governments.

To pay for its secret military imports from Israel, Red China redoubled its efforts to penetrate U.S. markets during the second half of the 1980's. As China grew desperate for hard currency, it used more and more slave labor to manufacture goods exported to the U.S. Companies that import from Red China have become unknowing (or knowing) partners in deals with prison camps.

The immense penitentiary subculture rivals even Stalin's notorious forced-labor empire, brothers. This is, further, exactly that which is planned for you-the-people. Dissenters will be incarcerated in work camps and YOU WILL WORK. This is exactly why there is a do-or-die thrust to pull off the New World Order before you take a breath and understand that which is happening to you. "They" have the bases covered all the way out to the end of the play.

SO WHAT ARE THE ISRAELIS AND SOVIETS DOING?

Among other things, a notorious Israeli arms dealer, Yaacov Nimrodi, who has strong Mossad connections, is playing a key role in a deal being formulated between Israel and the Soviet Union for the Israeli purchase of a Soviet-built nuclear reactor. That means, since you supply all assets to Israel--that you, U.S., are buying a nuclear reactor for Israel.

Nimrodi, by the way, played a major part in the Iran-contra Affair during the administration of Reagan. It was he, in fact, that inspired the entire scenario. He was deeply involved in funnelling U.S. arms to Iran.

The Israeli government blocked efforts of the joint congressional committee that investigated the Iran-contra Affair to obtain his testimony. He is now credited with inspiring the initial Israel-Soviet nuclear reactor deal.

Oh, you didn't know Israel already has a "top-secret" reactor? Yes indeed, at Dimona in the Negev Desert, and it has become increasingly unsafe and is plagued with many problems including worsening environmental problems.

It is at the Dimona reactor that the Israelis have located their "top-secret" nuclear weapons production facilities. Does this not strike you as "strange" just when the touted thrust is to make the Middle East a "nuclear weapons free zone"?

OCTOBER SURPRISE VISIT TO PARIS BY BUSH

You want proof? Well there is lots of proof that George Bush was in Paris in October of 1980--read his lips!

Let's see it from the mouth of one who was there and saw others there as well. I would like to give credit to the Napa Sentinel for the following which reads almost as well as did the drug story we ran last week.

QUOTE:

Navy Capt. Gunther Russbacher, who worked with naval intelligence and the CIA, received a phone call at his home in St. Louis in mid-October, 1980. He was told to take a TWA flight to Washington.

From there he was met by a car and brought to the base hospital at Andrews Air Force Base located in Prince George's County, Maryland, a Washington suburb. At 1900 hours (7 pm) he was greeted by two military personnel in flight suits, handed flight papers and boarded a BAC-111 aircraft.

Destination? Paris. Purpose of the mission? Unknown at the time.

Richard Brennecke was doing a preflight check when Russbacher closed the cockpit door. He had no knowledge of who else was aboard the aircraft. Brennecke has already testified that he was on the aircraft and his testimony was confirmed by a federal jury.

Russbacher says that he did not look into the passenger cabin until he was over the Atlantic. The aircraft refueled at Newfoundland. There was also an Air Force officer aboard, according to Russbacher. It (the aircraft) landed at Le Bourget Airport near Paris.

IN THE CABIN

Who did Russbacher see in the cabin?

GEORGE BUSH;
DONALD GREGG;
WILLIAM CASEY;
TWO SECURITY PEOPLE, AND A WOMAN BELIEVED TO BE JENNIFER FITZGER-ALD.

Jennifer Fitzgerald was Bush's Chief of Protocol for the White House.

Heinrich Rupp was not on the BAC-111, but did fly a Gulfstream aircraft to Paris. He met Brennecke and Russbacher in Paris. Vehicles were waiting for the passengers. Some of these vehicles were from the U.S. Embassy.

The pilots and crew checked into the Hotel Florida and within three hours Russbacher was called back to duty. He was to fly Bush back in the SR-71--the CIA's Blackbird--from a French air force base to Dover Air Force Base in Delaware.

But because of security leaks in Paris, the aircraft was diverted to McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey. The aircraft returned at 0200 hours (2 am)--seven hours after the original trip began. The flight of the Blackbird took one hour and 14 1/2 minutes, being refueled 1,800 nautical miles over the Atlantic.

SPILLED THE BEANS

Brennecke was the first crew member to reveal the trip to Paris, and much has been done to discredit him. At his perjury trial, Brennecke's defense shot holes through Donald Gregg's testimony that he was not on the flight or in Paris.

Gregg showed photographs of himself and his wife on a sunny beach in Maryland (yes, we have already written about this some months ago, chelas), stating he was there and not in Paris. Weather experts testified that the weather conditions that day did not match the photographs.

Gregg, who has been named by former National Security Advisor Gary Sick and former President Jimmy Carter as a mole for Bush in the CIA, was a long-time CIA operative who has recently been appointed ambassador to South Korea.

A French intelligence memo exists claiming that Bush did come to Paris in October, 1980 and received French assistance--we will cover that tidbit, too.

The Republicans sought to delay the release of the hostages held in Iran until after the elections in order to prevent President Jimmy Carter from winning the election should the hostages be released early. A total of $40 million was transferred from a Mexican account and Bush presented a draft of the transfer to the Iranians.

ROOTS OF CONTRA-GATE

Within six weeks after Ronald Reagan was inaugurated, covert shipments of arms were sent to Iran. When the shipments were discovered around 1985, it became known as the Iran-contra scandal.

But the origins of that scandal began on the flight to Paris. George Bush has never been able to account for his time and Secret Service memos about his whereabouts are also conflicting. Casey was never able to prove his whereabouts, either. And Gregg's excuse was shot down in a court of law.

How do we know Russbacher is telling the truth? Obviously, his credibility is critical to the story. Russbacher is currently in a federal prison on Terminal Island near Long Beach, California.

A nationwide search for records relating to Russbacher was undertaken by Tom Valentine of Radio Free America, the Napa Sentinel and other cooperative news media. The search included public records, classified information and information from highly reliable sources within the intelligence community.

The FBI has a great interest in Russbacher because he possibly could lead them to monies siphoned off savings and loan institutions and funnelled into secret CIA accounts and also used to finance gun and drug running.

WOMAN TROUBLE

CIA and other intelligence figures made Russbacher sign a contract that he would not get married for two years--especially after a divorce from his wife, Peggy, an FBI informant. Russbacher violated that contract and was married.

Russbacher's second wife, Rae, was told by an Army intelligence officer in San Francisco that they would have to separate.

Within a few days after his second marriage, Russbacher had been arrested on several charges and held in jails for months at a time. Each of the charges was dropped, and in every single case the criminal investigation files and court records were sealed--which is highly unusual.

A fellow prisoner in Terminal Island, Ron Rewald, had the same problem. He was tried in a state court, but the prosecutor came from the U.S. Justice Department. Rewald was not allowed to introduce evidence showing his CIA involvement, and his records and court case are sealed.

Michael Riconisuto, another CIA operative, is currently sitting in a Pierce County, Washington Jail. (You see, you good surveillance persons so closely hooked to us--you are expendable!) All his records have been seized and he is being held without bail after testifying against the CIA and Justice Department.

Through a special arrangement, Rewald has met with Russbacher. Rewald was skeptical at first of Russbacher's background. But after further exchanges and the matching of names, dates and places, Rewald is certain Russbacher is who he claims to be.

Rewald was involved in a covert CIA financial institution in Hawaii and had prominent Air Force generals and high-ranking intelligence officers working in the firm.

SO WHAT ABOUT THE FRENCH?

The SOECE--the French equivalent of the U.S. CIA and the Soviet KGB--monitored George Bush's trip to Paris in October of 1980. The monitoring was done because French officials were also involved in the meetings with the Iranians--AS WERE THE ISRAELIS.

The trip was for the sole purpose of delaying the release of 52 American hostages held in Iran until after the November, 1980 U.S. Presidential election.

The man who was in charge of the monitoring was a Col. Alexandre de Marenches, head of the SOECE. There were other foreign powers involved with the Paris meeting--directly and indirectly.

It is known that, ironically, the Reagan-Bush team gave the Iranians an advance check for $40 million, drawn on a Mexican bank. Maurice Stans was responsible for getting the money to Mexico and Michael Riconisuto has told investigators from the House Judiciary Committee that he made the arrangements for the $40 million payment.

Well, former White House National Security Adviser Gary Sick and former Iranian President Aboulhassan Bani-Sadr also claim the meeting in Paris took place.

Funny thing--during the time of the Paris meeting, George Bush remained OFF THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL. What does it take, America?

WHAT ABOUT YOUR POW'S IN ASIA?

We have talked of this many times but you don't seem to want to face this issue, either.

Let's hear it from Army Col. Millard Peck, who resigned in disgust after eight months on the job, as Chief of a Pentagon intelligence unit that is supposed to account for American servicemen still missing in Southeast Asia. He charges that the Bush administration has purposely covered up repeated live sighting reports of Americans being held prisoner by the communists.

Col. Peck claims that reports of sightings of live Americans have been routinely played down by unscrupulous people in the government or associated with the government.

Peck's allegations are contained in a five-page memo he wrote and affixed to the door of his office when he resigned March 28 as Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency's (DIA) Special Office for Prisoners of War and Missing in Action.

Similar complaints were leveled last fall by Republicans on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Sen. Jesse Helms and others contended that the Pentagon had been lying for years when it insisted there were no live Americans left in Vietnam. Ross Perot, Col. James Gritz and others, not the least of which is myself, have been pounding on you for years to see and hear.

Peck's letter states that it appears to him that a "cover-up of the POW-MIA issue is in progress. The entire charade does not appear to be an honest effort and may never have been."

Any report of a live sighting which made its way to his desk, Peck charged, "would quickly disappear into a black hole. I was not really in charge, but was merely a figure-head or whipping boy for a larger and totally Machiavellian group."

He blames "higher authority, outside the DIA", for discrediting rather than pursuing live sighting reports.

Although the Bush administration has denied it (what do they NOT deny?), clearly it is seeking to establish diplomatic and economic ties with the Vietnamese communists.

The Bush administration intends to provide the government in Hanoi with $1 million to pay for artificial limbs for people injured during the Vietnam War. Those eligible for treatment include soldiers from the North and South Vietnamese armies, the Viet Cong and civilians. The money will be funnelled through the Agency for International Development to private donors who then will send the funds to Hanoi. That is a technical means for avoiding a violation of the official ban on contacts between the U.S. and Vietnamese governments.

State Department spokesman Richard Solomon has openly admitted that the so-called humanitarian aid was promised to Vietnam in 1987--as a result of its promise to help dig up the remains of what are supposed to be American soldiers.

Hanoi's communist government claims to have withdrawn the last of its occupation forces from Cambodia in 1989, although there are considerable numbers of Vietnamese "advisers" still stationed in the neighboring country. Simply ignoring the fate of nearly 2,300 U.S. MILITARY PERSONNEL LISTED AS MISSING IN SOUTHEAST ASIA NEATLY RESOLVES THE REMAINING HANG-UP TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS. AMERICA, AMERICA--IT IS INDEED LATE!

PARADES AND OTHER PHONY MESSAGES

You think you are going to have a big national blast of a parade in honor of your servicemen on June 8th? No, what you are having is one of the biggest shows of power to your citizenry and the world. That is representative of that which will be enforcing the New World Order on you-the-people-right in your own U. S. of A. The forces will come under and within the United Nations police force headed by the Soviet Union according to U.N. Charter--right on schedule.

The disarming of your own police forces is under way. You see, to get the weapons from you-the-people also comes the disarming, or inadequate arming, of your national police forces--such as the FBI, etc. NOTE: THE GOVERNMENT HAS JUST RECALLED WEAPONS FROM THE FBI OPERATIVES, under the guise of poor functioning apparatus.

Your government hoodlums who are destroying your world simply laugh at you and it is obvious they have no concern whatsoever regarding their ability to pull off the entire program. There is no longer any effort other than some slight set-up lip-service to cover stories. They don't have to cover-up anything--they can just silence the news. You see, even the Bush "illness" is set up to allow for his "forgetting" certain things which transpired in case the push comes to shove. Mostly you will just be given a lot more distractors to keep you occupied while they bring in the shackles.

NEIL BUSH OK

For you who worried about poor

Neil getting nailed on the Silverado deal by having to pay fines, etc. Note please, out of the $200 million the "group" got away with, only $49.5 million is being "fined" to those 12 involved "innocent of wrong-doing" directors of Silverado. That would seem to me to leave them with a minimum of whatever else they ripped-off you good taxpayers IN ADDITION TO THE OTHER $1 1/2 HUNDRED MILLION. So be it--that only leaves well over a minimum of $1-2 BILLION for you the taxpayers to pick up. Funny thing, the same group will be found to have involvement with all the West Coast S&L's including Lincoln Savings and Santa Barbara Savings, etc., etc., etc.

Dharma, it is past time that I allow you a break. Thank you, chela, for it has been indeed a long day, yet it seems we have only just touched on the tiny few topics which scream out for hearing. So be it.

Gyeorgos C. Hatonn, Cmdr.

To clear please.

6/4/91 HATONN
TUESDAY

BANI-SADR ON BUSH/PARIS/HOSTAGES

Wow, instant reaction: "Just what does this Bani-Sadr have to say in his book about Bush?" Yes, I can tell you briefly.

Bani-Sadr, for you who have been on vacation, was the President of Iran at the time of the 1979 takeover of the American embassy in Teheran and the 444-day hostage siege. He is in the United States (although you don't hear anything about it any longer in the news) promoting his autobiographical account of the Iranian Revolution. Abolhassan Bani-Sadr, who is now living in exile in Paris, provides evidence that the Reagan-Bush 1980 campaign intervened to block an early release of the American hostages, because it would have helped Jimmy Carter win re-election.

The account of the Reagan-Bush "October Surprise" according to Bani-Sadr is that the late Ayatollah Beheshti was an Iranian fundamentalist cleric and Freemason, and was one of the key negotiators with the Reagan camp for the delay of the hostage release. On November 12, 1980 there was a Paris meeting between Beheshti and former Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, and it was leaked that Kissinger and his group—including Michael Ledeen, William Hyland, and David Abshire—had been acting on behalf of the Reagan-Bush campaign since at least early October 1980 to cut a separate hostage deal behind the back of President Carter. All was not dandy in the Carter camp either, however, for it was already afoot that reactionary clerics in the Iranian parliament staged a walkout in mid-October which had preempted the presentation of a Carter administration hostage release package that would have brought the Americans home on election eve.

If you ones only knew the half of it—the fiasco with the so-called "rescue" wherein the mission was scrubbed AFTER the action was underway and being successfully carried forth. All parties were well-bribed and there was a huge amount of currency aboard. There is talk that a space craft was somehow involved and caused the ultimate catastrophe of the military craft, etc. Well, there was craft aloft but they had NOTHING to do with any of the stupidity and deliberate actions of the U.S. military—no matter who flew the space vehicle. Carter scrubbed the mission after direct hot-line talks and command of the Soviets who were a part and parcel of the plan to delay the release—you see, the New World Order was getting ready to take center-stage.

In the early autumn of 1980, Beheshti, along with Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani, presently the President of Iran, obtained the go-ahead from Ayatollah Khomeini to cut a secret deal with the GOP.

On Sept. 3, 1980, Bani-Sadr, in his capacity as President of Iran, had received a formal communique from the Carter White House via the West German ambassador in Teheran, proposing concrete steps for freeing the hostages. Yet, before that arrangement could be finalized, Ayatollah Khomeini suddenly announced that the responsibility for negotiating with the Americans over the hostages would be solely in the hands of the parliament, dominated by the mullahs led by Beheshti and its Speaker, Rafsanjani.

Would you suspect that there is still foul play afoot? Is it not strange that the book of Bani-Sadr just happened to come along at the time the trouble over October in Paris, 1980, had risen to bite the Bush toes? (The book has been available in France since 1989.) True to your State Department efficiency, there was a hold and "block" put on Bani-Sadr's visa so that he couldn't come into the U.S. But that was getting publicity which was worse than letting him in.

On May 7, 1991, at a press briefing at the National Press Club, the ex-Iranian official said that he could cite 55 separate instances in which the mullahs had blocked hostage negotiations that could have led to the release of the Americans months before their eventual freeing—on the day of the Reagan-Bush inauguration in January 1981. He told the press that he had other detailed evidence that he could not release to the public.

Please, don't act surprised, readers—I told you long, long ago that the BANKERS arranged for the final release of the hostages—not your government. The politicians just happen to be the best that money can buy!

The next morning, Bani-Sadr delivered a detailed briefing to a closed-door session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, at the behest of Rep. Lee Hamilton, chairman of the Middle East subcommittee and a former member of the House Irangate panel.

Congressional Democrats, it seems, are now in the process of conducting an informal probe of the scandal, preparatory to the decision to launch a full-scale probe. Where are they? Could it be that they are no better than their opposition?

Bush was showing signs of wear and tear over the scandal that refused to die and on May 8, 1991, blew up at reporters probing allegations that he had been in Paris in October 1980, participating in the final secret negotiating session with the mullahs. Denying that he was in Paris at the time, and citing Secret Service logs that accounted for his entire schedule on the dates in question. Well, those logs only prove that he WAS in Paris on said date.

WHAT ABOUT SWEDEN'S OLOF PALME?

Bani-Sadr has given you some confirmation which I hope you will not miss for we spoke of his assassination at length. Olof Palme was Sweden's Head of State. Palme was assassinated on the streets of Stockholm on Feb. 28, 1986. His murder was linked to his moves to shut down the Swedish elements of the Iran-Contra arms-for-hostages circuit. Well, according to Bani-Sadr, the Swedish prime minister, who was then out of office but heading up a prestigious United Nations disarmament group, visited him in Teheran in March, 1981, and revealed that he, too, had information that the Reagan-Bush team had made a secret deal with the mullahs. Palme warned Bani-Sadr that the latter's life was in danger, and proposed to mediate an attempted cease-fire in the ongoing war with Iraq. Palme's extensive diplomatic efforts in the Persian Gulf afforded him access to information tracing the arms-for-hostages arrangements all the way back to the critical 1980 "gathering".

GONZALES OF TEXAS/ KISSINGER ROLE IN BNL

One last thing and we will close this Express. I want to apprise you of other serious connections, but with Iraqi credit as the point.

Pursuing the role of the Atlanta branch of the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL) in providing credit to Iraq, with the knowledge of the Bush administration, immediately prior to the launching of Bush's "crusade" against Saddam Hussein, Banking Committee Chairman Henry Gonzales said that he was investigating more thoroughly the role of Henry Kissinger.

Gonzales notes that Kissinger did not resign from the advisory board of the BNL until over 18 months AFTER the BNL scandal erupted. Committee investigators were told that Kissinger may still be a member of the BNL advisory board--and so he is!

Gonzales indicates there is obvious conflict of interest (just as with the China deal when he headed the Security Advisers) in the role played by National Security Adviser Brent Scowcroft and Deputy Secretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger because of their links to BNL and to Kissinger Associates. "These connections are obvious and up comes the question of Kissinger Associates' influence over the decisions of Mr. Scowcroft as well as the issue of whether or not Mr. Scowcroft can remain independent from the interests of his former boss and longtime colleague Henry Kissinger...Mr. Scowcroft's past affiliation with Kissinger Associates also makes obvious that Mr. Scowcroft cannot truly provide independent advice to the President in matters of national security or foreign policy when those policies can run against the interest of corporations that he owns stock in or that are affiliated with Kissinger Associates."

If you don't take stock and then follow it with action--you are going to lose your Constitution and your nation!! So be it.--Salu.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

END OF THE MASQUERADE LET'S PLUCK THE CUCKOO BIRD

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

TO ALL WHO WOULD HEAR GOD'S WORD IN THIS TIME OF TOTAL MASQUERADE. IT IS TIME TO PULL OFF THE MASK ALONG WITH THE BLINDFOLDS AND EAR-PLUGS. THE TIME IS AT HAND TO GAIN TRUTH AND INSIGHT AND TAKE ACTION FOR YOUR WORLD IS IN GRAVE DANGER.

That which is called the "Anti-Christ" is at hand and has deceived most of the world. You are surrounded by multitudes of replicas and man-made humanoids who have basically gained control of your planet.

Our intent in these JOURNALS is to give you proof of that which we project--by documentation of history, origins and other boring information. But the information will get far less boring as we move along, dear ones--and so, let us move along rapidly.

I repeat again and again--the evil brotherhood of darkness cannot stand the focus of the light of Truth, just as it requires only the tiny spark of light to cause a place to no longer be in darkness.

Hatonn includes the PROTOCOLS and also continues to keep us current on world affairs.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

SEMINARS

George & Desiree Green will speak June 7, 1991, 7 PM at Royce Hotel Ballroom, 1601 Belvedere Rd., W. Palm Beach, Florida Admission $5.00 CALL Kip (407) 533-0703

June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581. For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 11

6/6/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

Hatonn present in Light and Service. May we be in the fulfilling of that which our brothers request. Amen.

As we sit to write this morning I have asked Sananda to allow us to first work on an Express issue. It is far more important that you come into knowledge, first hand, of that which was the Christos as He experienced. You ones wish to conjure all sorts of things regarding His experiences among you--and mostly they are foolishness. His infinite being is the point; no death but rather, eternal life is the point. He is telling you that which came forth 2000 years past at His command--but when you have only one scribe for this purpose, it is difficult to get all the service accomplished. Druthea is bringing forth from the Masters a reminder of the Laws and directions as being given forth for your remembering and, very soon, Thomas will take up the story and journey of the Master Esu (Jesus). I, Hatonn, and Sananda will take up the subject of Paul and the beginnings of the Church of Rome. The subjects are endless and the scribes harassed by frustrations of diversity, interruptions and lack of preface knowledge. It has been carefully planned in that manner so that Truth can flow from us of higher input and not opinion from any earth being.

Our scribes bear only fragmented knowledge of the works of any books on the subject and were not involved deeply into any courses of same. Dharma and Dru had, and have, very, very little experience with anything such as "channeling" and/or "contact" exhibitions. The only contact at all was through Sister Thedra, Tueita and the Silver/Gold Ray. It is interesting that the very ones who introduced myself unto her--denounce her and ME! It is fine for it has been a magnificent testing for her and a cementing of our purpose beyond earthly bounds. The material speaks openly and abundantly for itself. I tell you this, again, for new readers usually believe Dharma to have "been at this" for dozens of years since ones such as Thedra will tell you that her work is pure because she has done it for over 40 years. Well, how about since October of 1987 for Dharma?? That was the first early scratchings and connection for my "hands". Do not believe that because YOU just now come into understanding and service, that YOU ARE LESS QUALIFIED OR ACCEPTABLE--FOR WE WORK LONG AND TEDIOUSLY TO REACH BALANCE AND PRE-DISPOSITION IS MOST OFTEN A REAL DETRIMENT TO SERVICE. Thomas and Dru only began to write fully within an even lesser period of time--TRUTH IS TRUTH IS TRUTH and practice of 40 years often only breeds ego attitudes of a comfort zone which can more easily be invaded by the adversary. It is a wearisome road and I honor all the servants, mouths and hands of Truth-bringing--ALL--for none can know the contract of another nor the service intended. YOU must be in discerning Truth for it shall always stand and will never deny investigation into all facets of enlightenment. Truth and God will always denounce the evil or erred action--NEVER THE WON-DROUS BEING INVOLVED. These are clues for your own discernment regarding any information or bringer of "so-called" Truth. I say so-called, not to insult, but to note that the adversary will ALWAYS utilize the terms and methods YOU seek to entrap you. You will never know who brings the lies at opening of first encounter--if you follow your studies and clues as given--you will know by the ending of the first encounter. The deceiver anti-God of Light, the Prince of Darkness, will always tell you that he is of God and will speak so much truth that you will be blown away and then he will hit you with the lies and you will be sucked within the trap.

If you are making decision regarding Truth from one or two Journals and bits from Expresses--be careful. Can you read only a portion of one gospel in the Holy Bible and expect total discernment of the "whole". Well, that is exactly that which you do--only worse. You go into the Churches and hear the opinions and interpretations of another MAN and make the decisions regarding your life and beyond.

I sit with a cryptic note which denounces us for publishing a prior letter from a gentleman. In the original note he was most insulting to George and felt George should stop the publishing of the Journals and get on "with important things". I responded. Now, I have a long letter asking me to "prove" and give discourse and confirmation (as a good scientist in research) things such as the outlay of the Universe and such "small" subjects as that. Strange thing is that I have already done so--over and over again but in his "research" he considers only the works of prior MEN who know absolutely NOTHING about the Universe, Cosmos or LIFE! However, and here is where I am indeed grateful--for YOU ARE BRINGING FORTH THE CONFIRMATION! I NEED NONE NOR DO I NEED PERMISSION OR HIGHER AUTHORITY FOR MY DISSERTATIONS--BUT YOU ARE FINDING THE WORKS WHICH GIVE CREDENCE TO OUR WORK AND ARE BRINGING IT FORTH FROM EVERY CORNER AS IT UNFOLDS. I BLESS YOU AND THANK YOU FOR MAN HAS NOT YET GROWN INTO HIS ABILITY TO TRUST NOR TO CLEAR HIS ENERGY FIELD OF THE ADVERSARY'S PRESENCE. I HUMBLY THANK YOU, PRECIOUS FRIENDS.

Do not misunderstand--I rejoice and welcome the messages of disagreement for often in efforts to prove Hatonn wrong--only the Truth is found and that is of far more value than a library full of words on unread pages. Please know that each gift of contact is precious and appreciated--and blessed for the growth it represents. I and my brethren will bring you the WORD as directed and commissioned--but YOU must come into balance within that LIGHT and into KNOWING. At this point that which seems the most negative is invariably the most productive in a most positive manner. The first need is to cause Man to question and then discern and then he can attain KNOWING.

I am greatly pleased and honored when one will sit to pen, negatively or positively, regarding our work, for the moment they write or speak my name, they are proving that they are in recognition of ME and not the publisher or the scribe--even if at first it be with tongue-in-cheek in effort to be humorous. At a level beyond conscious understanding--YOU ALL KNOW WHO I AM AND WHY WE COME AT THIS TIME. I CAN ONLY ASK THAT YOU ABIDE WITH US LONG ENOUGH TO COME INTO KNOWING FOR

FROM HERE YOU WILL ONLY RECEIVE THE "CONCEPT" OF TRUTH--YOU WILL PLEASE BEAR WITH US IF WE ERR IN SPELLING OR INFRACTIONS OF GRAMMATICAL PERFECTION. IT IS THE CONCEPT OF THAT WHICH IS COMING AND HAS ALREADY TRANSPIRED THAT IS IMPORTANT--NOT WHETHER IT TRANSPIRED ON "TUESDAY MORNING OR AFTERNOON". YOU WILL COME TO UNDERSTAND THAT OUR COMMUNICATION SIMPLY DOES NOT WORK IN THAT MANNER. When one says, "I discount your Truth because you misspelled my label," you are missing the entire point--I don't "spell" your name in any way what-so-ever! Especially if you give forward erroneous information to in some manner "trap us", I suggest you go within and look most closely at intent! If you tell me your name is Joe or Jesus and it is actually "Charlie", I shall call you Joe or Jesus--it matters not to me. I don't even care who tells who that he is Hatonn--I have naught to prove to anyone, especially those who would usurp my label. If ones do not copy of my name then I am not doing of my duty to fullness for the Dark Brotherhood will always effort to discount Truth in that very manner.

REASON FOR EXPRESS-- EDUCATION

You are moving into a time of State political conventions. George Green is off to one in Florida; George Bush is off to one elsewhere. Note that we are making impact for George Bush is off to discount that which we offer--go celebrate the acknowledgement. Please know that which you do--for it is at State level that you can bring about change. You will have power at the local level that is taken from you as the political tree branches and then comes again into one of leadership position. Also recognize that it is NOT the ones you elect who bear the power--it is the advisers and lobbyists with the most money who rule your nations. YOU MUST BECOME INFORMED IN EVERY ASPECT LEST YOU BE MISLED--STUDY AS MUCH AS YOU CAN--ALL

YOU CAN AND THEN WATCH AND SEE THAT WHICH IS HAPPENING ALL AROUND YOU--EVEN UNTO BANGLADESH.

Many of you have been waiting to get your eyes on Eustace Mullins' book on "Education" because I have said we will not be writing one--"hopefully"--for there is no need to reinvent the wheel. But, you haven't received it so, I present another book which I feel is the most important book on Education you will ever read. None here have seen it but I feel it important enough to give information this day. I feel it is too expensive for some of you and for some of you it is likely unnecessary except if you have extra reading time. For parents and teachers it is imperative that you have the information within the document. It is called EDUCATING FOR THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" by Beverly Eakman, a former teacher, technical writer, and speech writer at the highest levels of the federal government. She has written this stunning exposé of the forces that control American education.

Her relentless research, over a four-year period (Eustace will have more long-background substance), has resulted in the first book to detail, step by step, how your schools have turned away from academic instruction. It is a straightforward, excellent and scholarly account of a Pennsylvania woman's struggle with the education bureaucracy, and how she gradually uncovered the long-range plan to revamp your system of education.

I would like to share something with you regarding the Journals and the "Education System". Rick Martin contacted the Board of Education regarding the use of the Constitutional information, etc. He received a letter in return which I won't take time herein to repeat verbatim, but it told him that text material is chosen by a specific "committee" and "...after reviewing the material (The Constitution) it is found to be totally unsuitable for use." So be it.

The book by Eakman reframes the debate in education. It is a must for educators, policy makers, and any and all citizens concerned about the decline in American education and how it can be remedied. It is going to, of course, create controversy (if it can be kept within the public), that will be talked about. Efforts will be made to immediately stifle it so I suggest you please take this information: EDUCATION FOR THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" by Beverly Eakman, softcover, 275 pages, Bibliography, Index, Stock #344100, ISBN 0-89420-27-2; $21.95 postpaid.

Prepay by sending check or money order with your name and address to: Halcyon House, P.O. Box 8795 Portland, OR 97207-8795. Or, you can order by phone using VISA, Discover, or Master Card. Purchase orders are accepted from libraries and other qualified Institutions. Call for quantity discounts. (503) 228-6345.

This book explains, very well, how a major tax-exempt foundation influences American education; the extent to which assessment tests measure students' attitudes rather than achievement; how the schools are being used as instruments of change to reshape the way children think; how personal information on individuals and families is being compiled and stored in non-secure databanks (just another arm of the Beast); how the social security number can be misused to cross-reference assessment test data with other personal/family records; how teachers are unwitting pawns of the establishment; why remedial reading has become institutionalized and why efforts to reform education are intended to fail.

Yes, we have spoken of all these items, but not in the detail which will shock you into possible action. This is a part of the plan to insure total ignorance throughout your population and keep absolute tabs on every individual as well as family and social units.

Another book in full recommendation:

WORLD WITHOUT BORDERS

It has been suggested that you ones would gain more information in more believable form if you had access to earth "books" rather than just a bunch of Light fragments. Somehow Man cannot accept knowledge untampered by Man. So be it. This must account for the reason that Man refuses to follow the Laws of God and Creation--some self-acclaimed Man didn't originate them!?!?

At any rate, another book, WORLD WITHOUT BORDERS, written by Lester R. Brown (out of print since 1976--but still on some book shelves and, accidentally, some school libraries), is well worth all efforts to study and absorb.

Right off, on the cover, there is a statement: "A unified global society must now be regarded not as a fiction or an ideal, but as the inevitable reality toward which we must move. By the author of Seeds of Change."

The blurb regarding the book reads: "At best, the remainder of this century will be a traumatic period for mankind. At worst, it will be catastrophic. Mr. Brown identifies the chief worldwide threats to human well-being--environmental deterioration, population growth, the widening rich-poor gap, rising unemployment, accelerating rural urban migration and widespread hunger. With the possible exception of hunger, each of these is certain to get worse in the years immediately ahead. The question is whether we can achieve the level of international cooperation needed to reverse these trends."

"The continuing expansion of global economic activity depends on the earth's capacity to supply fresh water, energy fuels and industrial raw materials, to produce forest products and marine protein, to provide living space and arable land and to absorb waste. As those countries which first industrialized deplete their reserves of fuels and industrial raw materials, they must turn to the poor countries for supplies. The exponential growth of energy consumption is pressing against limited reserves of petroleum, converting this market from a buyer's to a seller's market. Competition for the global fish catch intensifies as the rich countries expand their fishing fleets and the poor counter by extending their offshore boundaries to 200 miles. The issue of how to distribute scarce or finite resources among countries puts increasing stress on the international political system.

"Mr. Brown argues that the principal threat to our future well-being may not be the relationship of man to man, as annual global military expenditures of $204 billion would indicate, but the relationship of man to nature. Efforts to accommodate ourselves to our finite earth require that we reorder global priorities, abandon the pursuit of superaffluence in rich countries and stabilize population growth everywhere.

"The list of national problems which can be solved only at the global level is lengthening. These range from drug addiction and the energy crisis in the United States to poverty and rising unemployment in the poor countries. The competition and conflict and superpower dominance will not work over the longer term. It must be replaced by a new world order, one based on cooperation and a sense of community."

About the author: "Lester Brown (also from the book cover) is a Senior Fellow with the Overseas Development Council, a private, non-profit organization located in Washington, D.C. He was formerly Administrator of the International Agricultural Development Service and served as policy adviser to the Secretary of Agriculture on world food needs and agricultural development abroad.

"Recognized as a leading authority on the world food problem while still in his late twenties, he was awarded the Department of Agriculture's Superior Service Award in 1965. In 1966 Mr. Brown was selected by the U.S. Jaycees as one of the 'Ten Outstanding Young Men of America.' Especially commended was his work in anticipating the 1965 crop failure in India [well, if you are among the planners, it does become easy to predict], early enough to initiate a massive food rescue effort, thereby avoiding a famine.

"Besides writing articles for scholarly and popular magazines, Mr. Brown is the author of MAN, LAND AND FOOD (USDA, 1963) and SEEDS OF CHANGE: THE GREEN REVOLUTION AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE SEVENTIES (1970). He is a frequent guest lecturer on university campuses in this country and abroad, and also has served as consultant to the United Nations and the Agency for International Development. Mr. Brown lives in Chevy Chase, Maryland, with his wife and two children, etc., etc., etc."

Chelas, I am asked to do this and I feel it is perhaps appropriate--once or twice. I feel the reason you come to the Expresses and the Journals is to avoid all this harassment of a thousand books when one will do--but, none-the-less, we do wish to give you confirmation both pro and con. There is no copy of this book available to this group, either--but, you will note I told you it IS utilized as an accepted document in schools and is still carried in some of their libraries. Books are only acceptable, you see, if they move you as a unit into One World Rule.

While we are at it: Another Journal which will be well worth your reading if you are still interested in "AIDS". It is the plague which will take out the population of your planet so I hope a few of you are still interested for the "right" reasons. The title: SURVIVING THE AIDS PLAGUE by Taki N. Anagnoston, M.D. I will later give you ordering information for the book will be corrected in a place or two where later information is valid and then George will take up the publishing of the material. I have met with Dr. Anagnoston and his research into the subject is credible. I DO, however, suggest that you pay attention to your "news" of this week.

Remember, I told you in our own Journal that AIDS is basically a tertiary syphilis and could be nicely treated with aqueous penicillin? What do we have here now? They are making a big splash about "...possibly utilizing massive doses of antibiotics to treat AIDS, etc., rattle and blather".

Chelas, you MUST stand and DEMAND this insanity cease.

The PLAN is to have you Americans under total control long before the next so-called election. What you do NOW is indeed urgent and important!

More, "while we're at it": For you who have been on stand-by and getting a bit pushed for "time for action", Oberli has located another viable resource for collateral gold for use with the Phoenix Institute so you who have been waiting for arrangements and CD maturity--you can now continue with your plans. I can only continue to warn you that you are set-up in the market for disaster! The plan is to strip you of assets--all assets--and it is coming down fast now.

Also, Cort has re-situated here in this location to take some of the pressure of Corporation formation and information base from Oberli. He and his family will need to eat, but the expense will remain absolutely minimal. Since our thrust is different from typical business-as-usual--I urge you to go this route in incorporation for our plans are to begin and expand an "information" network and facilities for managing those corporations to keep you solidly within all necessary guidelines. I can only remind you that if you are willing to make a change in your world--then the cost of these services can well be afforded from the funds SAVED in utilizing the methods given forth. If you are a taxpayer--you can soon afford any service up to the amount you now pay!! Ponder it for you will even have funds left over. BUT YOU MUST SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION AND IT IS ALL BUT DEAD, DEAD, DEAD!

U.S.-MEXICO TRADE ISSUE

Is this of heaven or hell? In all instances, the latter.

The debate over free trade with Mexico boils down to a fight over U.S. jobs--won and lost--for workers in factories displaced by the migration of those factories to south of the border. Knowing that everything the "lips" say is valid and forthright, you are hanging out there on Bush's speeches which say that he pledges to "...work with Congress to see that dislocated workers receive proper assistance and retraining" and he got "fast-track authority" to move along.

The intent is to bring Mexico into a free-trade agreement reached by the United States and Canada in 1988. And what of that trade agreement? It has been quite devastating and hundreds of thousands of jobs have been lost by the Canadians, as a matter of fact--with both the U.S. and Canada planning to relocate in Mexico where there are no worthy pollution controls and extremely cheap labor.

This is a death march for American industry, chelas, and even more immoral is that which is being done to exploit the Mexicans. This becomes a slave-labor program under some nice label of wondrous non-existent morality. This trade agreement will destroy BOTH Mexican and U.S. Economies.

This whole fiasco is totally entangled with the Banksters and again, this day, I feel it more worthy for you to hear it from the human recordings.

First of all, however, since I am plagued with requests for "getting into balance procedures" and "...how can I get in touch" and "reach out and allow me to touch you" and on and on--I am going to share something that Little Crow just now sent to us on the fax machine--remember, you, too, can get in touch with extraterrestrials via the fax machine!

This is from a free-lance writer who lives in San Mateo, California:

"NEW-AGE-ASTRAL-VIBRATION RAP. Steve Webber in Sunday Punch in SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE--June 18, 1989.

"I was having an out-of-body experience so I grounded myself and got centered with the help of my spirit guide, then I almost astral traveled but the phone rang and I sensed the negative vibrations so I checked my numerology chart and almost had a primal but my energy was blocked so I did some bioener-getics and self-parenting and had some flower essences with oat bran ginseng muffins but my inner child wasn't being nurtured so I had some frozen yogurt that made me hyper so I did the relaxation response while listening to my subliminal tape but I was feeling depersonalized so I did some polarity work, foot reflexology, a past life regression, rebirthed myself and made an appointment for a shiatsu, reiki, rolfing, Feldenkrais, Swedish, Japanese deep tissue massage but I needed to energize my crystals and do some positive imagery because my visualization techniques and affirmations made my space feel invaded so to get empowered I got a psychic reading around the issue of my assertiveness so I could feel my radiance and have energy for my psychocalisthenics and my inversion swing before my harmonic brain wave synergy session which makes me more focused for my actualization seminar and holistic healing class and dream workshop [breathe] so I'm clear for my Gestalt/behavioral/cognitive/transpersonal/Reichian/Jungian/Freudian/Ericksonian session but my aura is weak [breathe] for my channeling group so I'll fast until noon to recharge my chakras and I sense my intuition is high and my cycle is focused so I'll turn on my ion generator to open up [breathe] for my neuro-linguistic programming but I need to have my pyramid balanced before my guided synchronicity meditation so my cranio sacral therapy [breathe] aligns me for the fire-walk after my tarot reading but I need a meaningful relationship to mirror myself so I'll go to Intensive Whole Life Earth Rebirth Cosmic Expo Symposium Seminar Workshop to find someone who is REAL."

Of course I note that Mr. Webber forgot to mention that if he learns to "ascend" and/or gets instructions as to how to "lift-off" that he has forgotten the overnight ascension bags which should be color coordinated to the ray Master attending you. He also forgets to note that most of these items and classes can be purchased with your Gold MasterCard--especially those classes given by the Gold Masters.

Funny? Indeed--and more typical than you can believe. When are you ones going to stop all the foolishness and go where God IS? There is YOU and there is a mechanical body used by YOU. YOU only NEED YOU! Fat, thin, tall, lean, short, skinny, tubby or medium--doesn't matter a whit. Feed it whatever it wants or deprive it--it will not affect YOU and your relationship with GOD. Lay on your face with clinched fists or on your rear with open fingers--God is within your energy mind--no more and no less. If a thing makes your mechanical body work more prudently, so be it, but if you have to have ANYTHING OF PHYSICALNESS TO REACH GOD, YOU ARE IN REAL TROUBLE!

So much for our "reason" break for the next has no humor and should strike terror into your hearts for behind the lies is catastrophe.

I ask you to simply "assume" quotation for I intend to "plagiarize" this information from an AMERICAN ALMANAC printing of May 27, 1991 for it is comprehensive and shows the "other" side of this monster. I will keep to the print and if I comment, I shall do so in brackets: [xxx].

While you are reading these lines, your Congressman may be voting to authorize the Bush administration to negotiate a treaty with Mexico that will mean slave labor, the rampant spread of cholera, and throwing hundreds of thousands of workers onto the unemployment lines--on both sides of the border--all for the purpose of bailing out the Wall Street and City of London BANKS.

Doubt it? Then you haven't looked into NAFTA, the North American Free Trade Agreement that George Bush and his banker buddies are trying to railroad through Congress on a "Fast Track".

In the graphics and text that follow we will tell you the truth about what the Bush administration and the media have tried to sell as a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to get economic growth started across the Americas. The Wall Street crowd--led by David Rockefeller of Chase Manhattan himself--are going ape to ram this policy through.

At an early May meeting of his Council of the Americas in Washington, Rockefeller himself took the floor to explain just how urgent NAFTA is for the bankers: "Without the fast track, the course of history will be stopped."

Don't let your Congressman hear only Rocky's side of the story. Make sure he hears from YOU, and the thousands of other Americans, who are opposed to the idea of creating an Auschwitz on the U.S.-Mexican border in order to keep the banks solvent. Turn on the heat now. Congressional switchboard: 202:224-3121.

[We do not have space to reprint all the graphs, etc. We will effort to clarify without the diagrams.]

QUOTE:

In early spring of this year, the administration of President George Bush and leading members of the U.S. Liberal Eastern Establishment lined up behind a proposal for the implementation of a North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), eliminating all barriers to trade and investments between the U.S. and Mexico. NAFTA, as the proposal has come to be known, was based on extending an already existing agreement between the U.S.A. and Canada, to America's southern neighbor.

The centerpiece of NAFTA's entire free trade strategy is the expansion of the maquiladora sector of the Mexican economy, the "in-bond" assembly plants located mostly just across the border in Mexico, which use cheap Mexican labor to assemble U.S. components into finished goods--electronics and auto parts, mainly--for re-export back to the U.S. Only the value added by Mexican labor is taxed on entry of the products back into the U.S.A. Properly speaking, the maquiladoras are not really part of the Mexican economy, aside from the fact that they happen to be located on Mexican territory. They are a foreign enclave, a free trade zone, which operate much like the Colon Free Trade Zone in Panama.

Growth in number of runaway plants and jobs in Mexico's maquiladora sector since 1980: From just over $2 billion in 1980, these plants exported nearly $14 billion worth of goods to the U.S. in 1990, a sixfold increase in just a decade, representing a growth rate of over 19 percent a year. Approximately half of this export value was accounted for by maquiladoras imports of intermediate goods from the U.S. Employing about 500,000 workers in 1990, the maquiladoras accounted for the equivalent of 3.5 percent of the total U.S. manufacturing workforce, working in jobs that 15 years ago were performed in the U.S.

THE BANKER'S BAILOUT

Despite what its proponents claim, the North American Free Trade Agreement is NOT fundamentally a free trade agreement. There is no need for such an accord with Mexico because there is already virtually free trade between the two countries. Beginning in 1985, the Mexican government, under the pressure of its international creditor banks, the International Monetary Fund (IMF), and the Reagan State Department, drastically reduced its previous tariff and other protective barriers. Today, there are no licenses, tariffs, or quotas on over 10,000 products imported by Mexico, and the average tariff has plummeted from 47 percent to 9 percent.

In actuality, NAFTA--and the proposed extension to the entirety of Ibero-America, and from there to the rest of the Third World--is the economic centerpiece of Bush's much-trumpeted "new world order". In conjunction with the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), which will codify such free market policies on a global scale, NAFTA's objective is to give a new lease on life to the bankrupt Anglo-American financial system, which has dominated the world economy since World War II. It is intended to do this in three principal ways:

1) NAFTA and its sequels are designed to bolster the shaky, overextended international credit pyramid by vastly increasing and solidifying the flow of Third World debt payments to the international banks. It will do this by thoroughly absorbing the economies of the nations of Ibero-America into an extended dollar zone, annexing their raw materials (such as oil), and using their labor forces as captive cheap labor in runaway shops, principally for production for export back into the U.S.

Along with this projected new looting of Third World economies, NAFTA will also reorganize the entire Ibero-American banking structure, and thereby create the conditions under which the vast financial flows originating in the Ibero-American drug trade can be more readily laundered into the cash-strapped Anglo-American banking system.

As one perceptive United Auto Workers official put it: "NAFTA isn't free trade. It's protectionism for the bankers."

2) NAFTA will be the wedge used to dramatically lower wage levels and working conditions in the U.S.A., especially among the shrinking percentage of the U.S. labor force still employed in manufacturing. In fact, an overall restructuring of the U.S. economy is intended, as explained in other Journals. The process of lowering incomes, of degrading jobs, is a prime product of going from a science-based energy-intensive economy, into a slave-labor economy.

3) The newly formed Western Hemisphere free trade zone, this bankers' common market, will then be used as a battering ram against the industrial development of Japan and Germany, in particular, to make sure that no alternative to Anglo-American economic predominance emerges anywhere on the international scene. With the Soviet Union enmired in its own difficulties--or so the theory goes--[and don't you believe it for even a minute!] and with European and Japanese competition eliminated, and with America's vast military might being wielded to bomb any recalcitrant opponents back into the Stone Age, as occurred in the war against Iraq, the Anglo-American establishment hopes to reign unchallenged for the indefinite future.

Such is the Brave New World envisioned by Bush and his sponsors, a modern parody of the decadent Roman Empire of 2000 years ago. The U.S. President, during a December 1990 five-nation tour of Ibero-America, explained: "I truly believe we are approaching a new dawn in the New World."

AUSCHWITZ ON THE BORDER

What will happen if Bush has his way, and NAFTA and GATT are implemented?

First, propping up the bankrupt Bretton Woods [Federal Reserve, Incorporated] financial system through further looting of Ibero-America and the Third World, will create conditions of immiseration so drastic that wave upon wave of epidemic disease, and outright starvation, will sweep the developing sector, and will quickly spread to the U.S. itself. The current cholera epidemic striking South America is a first result of these same looting policies, and there is a strong probability that it will soon reach Mexico, and from there spread into the U.S.. NAFTA will be largely responsible, because it will promote the growth of the notorious maquiladora belt in northern Mexico, the so-called "in bond" assembly plants which produce for re-export to the U.S. and make use of cheap Mexican labor (including child labor), as workers are forced to live and work in subhuman conditions. Average wages are 98 cents an hour, compared to the average in U.S. manufacturing wage of nearly $11 today. The minimum wage in Mexico is even lower: 59 cents an hour, and dropping. The fact is that NAFTA will help turn the entire border area into an Auschwitz slave-labor camp.

Second, underselling Germany and Japan by using runaway sweatshop labor in Mexico, will create both a sharp rise in unemployment in the United States, and a dramatic drop in U.S. real wages, perhaps by as much as one-third in the manufacturing sector. This will not make America more "competitive": It will destroy the very high-technology/high-productivity emphasis which once made the U.S. competitive.

Third, if the Anglo-Americans succeed in destroying the economic potential of Germany and Japan, the irony is that this very result will condemn the U.S. to destruction as well. The U.S. economy has been so damaged by 25 years of Anglo-American policies, that it is today incapable of generating a sustained recovery without the help of the productive capabilities of Germany and Japan. Only a dramatic mobilization of Europe's economic potential, in particular of the sort envisioned in the "Productive Triangle" proposal, can transform the world economic environment in a way that will permit the United States to be rescued from the disaster that three decades of rotten policies have produced.

And yet the Bush administration's explicit policy is to destroy this German and Japanese potential, through NAFTA and GATT.

There is an additional strategic danger involved. The only hope for positive change in the Soviet Union lies in "Westernizing" it by linking it into high rates of economic growth in the industrial West. If Bush succeeds in wrecking the economic capabilities of Germany and Japan, the Soviet Union will have no interlocutors, and it is likely that a desperate, half-starving Soviet Union will strike out aggressively, militarily, against the West.

Such will be the consequences of implementing NAFTA and GATT. The White House has launched a full-scale public relations drive to sell the marvels of NAFTA to the American population. We document here, that each of the claims projected are patently false.

Myth #1: NAFTA MEANS MORE JOBS FOR AMERICANS.

The assertion here is that U.S. exports to Mexico will increase sharply under NAFTA--by as much as $14 billion, according to Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher. Since each $1 billion in exports translates into 25,000 jobs for U.S. workers, he claims, NAFTA means millions of new jobs for American.

Fact: NAFTA means fewer jobs for Americans. Vastly cheaper wage rates mean that U.S. run-away shops will flee to the maquiladora zone, which will soon be extended to encompass the entire nation of Mexico. As for an export boom to Mexico, it won't happen. The market for exported U.S. consumer goods is limited by the terrible poverty of the majority of the Mexican population. And the IMF and Mexico's creditor banks will NOT PERMIT IT anyway: They are demanding that Mexico export more and import LESS, in order to pay off their gigantic debt to the banks.

Myth #2: NAFTA will make the U.S. competitive once again with Germany and Japan, by reducing the labor component of manufacturing costs.

Fact: There is no doubt that the wage bill in maquiladoras on the Mexican side of the border will be far lower than in the U.S. today. But this will destroy the U.S. economy, and in particular the educational and technological training that comes with a higher standard of living, which are the true sources of productivity and competitiveness.

Myth #3: NAFTA will create millions of new jobs in Mexico and thus help stem the tide of illegal migration across the border into the United States.

Fact: NAFTA will mean a net destruction of jobs in Mexico. Domestic manufacturing will be wiped out by the dumping of cheaper U.S. imports on the market. The only jobs that will be created will be those in the expanding maquiladora zone, under conditions so horrendous that "Auschwitz" is the only word that properly describes them. This will foster the very conditions driving desperate Mexicans across the border looking for jobs in the U.S.

Myth #4: NAFTA means that U.S. investment will pour into Mexico, and help Mexico develop. The Bush administration is projecting rates of $5 billion per year and higher.

Fact: Under NAFTA, most of the "investment" that will go into Mexico will be to take over existing plant and equipment. It is a transfer of ownership into the hands of foreigners, not the creation of new wealth.

Myth #5: NAFTA will open up the Mexican banking and financial sector and modernize it. This will attract vast flows of international finance capital.

Fact: NAFTA's banking takeover will open up the banking system of the Americas to all sorts of speculative hot money flows--including those of the drug trade. Such activity does not aid production; it destroys it.

END QUOTE.

Dharma, this has been too long a session, so allow us a break. Let us finish this Express this afternoon and then we can return to Sananda and continue his WORD. Thank you. Hatonn to stand-by.

6/6/91 #2 HATONN

Thank you for returning. Hatonn present and ready to resume.

Before we go further on the subject of the Free Trade Agreement, I am asked to respond to a few points in the news and also in the "rumor" mill. One is just about the same as the other.

MONEY EXCHANGE

We received a phone inquiry from a most special friend this noon who had heard from a good, reliable resource that there is a planned exchange of currency (100 to 1) set for September. The ears are good but the facts are a bit off. The "leak" is for September to cover the fact that the money call is planned prior to the end of August and, hopefully, before the end of July--depending on Free Trade Agreement going into law. You must have "surprise" to pull off such a devastating overall sweep and the Cartel must also already have their banking system in operation for the handling of the massive undercover funds which have been flowing via cash.

The plan will be to have Mexico serve as a very large Banking service. The infrastructure is already in place but at present the laws are not such as to allow open functioning without cash. The point is to get all massive cash transactions converted to cashless exchanges and then the major exchange can take place. The drug lords will simply have credit and debit accounts which will function without money transactions. The ones who serve as competitive under-lords will be caught with the cash.

The "100 to one" is correct and follows the system already handled and operable in the Soviet Union. The timing goes with the propaganda of the recession being ended by mid-year (which is now) and the stock market doing fairly well. All is to suck you in. The big clue is the rise in the price of gold and silver this day. The big switch is ready to come down and the big players are getting situated. There is no point in collapsing the market unless the public has moved back into the market in a massive way. By the way, for you ones who don't think a 100 to one switch is bad--we are not talking about a stock split here; this means pulling in ten dollars and receiving one "unit" in return. You will also be asked to account for all cash over a minimal amount and the remainder will be confiscated on the assumption of tax withholding. It will probably come in conjunction with enforced bank "holidays" which will allow for limited exchange time. This also allows the banks to change over the computer tabulation system to the new amounts.

If the system stumbles in the Free Trade Agreement, the whole idea may have to be stalled.

Do not be naive, the currency has been printed and ready for over 1&1/2 years. The trial was the Soviet Union. Further, Mexico has been in default on its debt of over $100 billion since 1982, and they have just been servicing the debt here and there by more loans by the same major Cartel banks.

You must realize, too, that it is through the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and the regional development banks around the world, the U.S. taxpayers (YOU) have put up the money to build steel mills, electronics plants and automobile factories so that people abroad can make the products with your money. You have not been informed about this chain of events except in two-speak so that you can't understand it. It is simply, however, that you are paying for the execution of your own jobs and industry and you continue to do so. Now you add another $15 billion in foreign aid this year, and a great part of that is going to this kind of development from which the major Cartel corporations and Banking network will be the winners.

HOW CAN YOU DISCERN FACTS?

Look at what "they" say and "who" reaps the rewards. There are pressures of all kinds coming on Congress. The Bush administration controls all of the patronage, so the Republican Party is under the gun. The big banks are crying poverty and telling Congress that they will completely fail and go under if they don't go along with the trade pact. Who is on board? Carla Hills is head of the White House trade representative's office and Julius Katz is the No. 2 official selling out the United States at the trade talks in Geneva. Then you have ones like Orrin Hatch, Dodd, Lugar, Solarz; let's just say, the same ones who pushed and pushed for active aggression in Iraq because the intent is to pull the One World Government Police State on you-the-people--while you pay for it.

You will find that, in every major industry that had import restraints on foreign goods, the prices on the domestic goods went down.

You see, when you have import restraints or quotas, you give the American manufacturer the opportunity to operate at capacity. He can then take full advantage of the economies of scale, and that is what reduces prices--not imports. Imports are bound to raise prices, and they have certainly done so for the past two decades.

What has happened? Tariffs alone are not enough to deter imports any longer. The reason is that most other countries of the world are on socialist economies. They can subsidize their exports to the U.S. When you raise the tariffs it does not actually deter imports.

Do I think one system is far better than the other? Neither is worth the paper upon which it is established. Furthermore, you are already so controlled as a nation that it will matter very little for the cards are set to collapse the house from any or all foundation corners. THEY PLAN TO RULE THE WORLD, BROTHERS--HOOK, LINE AND SINKER. They also plan to have all your assets and control every aspect of your existence. They do not even bother to have proper lies--look at Saddam Hussein who is better entrenched than ever in Iraq. You in the U.S. are simply coming back under the Rule of the King of Great Britain and the Queen was just here to survey her properties.

What can you do about this mess? I'm not sure that you will be able to avoid it--I think it will probably play itself out. The intent has been to so arrange the economy that the Government has no way in which to reclaim control of money according to the Constitution. Since the stuff you call money is only Federal Reserve NOTES (bills, loans, credit paper and debit paper) they have the current "laugh" for you have only footed the cost of their system--not controlled it. The probabilities are that you will have the currency switch for they surely don't plan to have all that paper and not change it out at your expense. The only thing up for discussion is "when" and by their own projections it "must be a surprise or it won't work according to their plans." It is over a year "later" than originally set and it IS set for no later than mid-August for it is planned to move into the new fiscal year with new currency!

What can our group get accomplished in those interim weeks? A lot if given the opportunity, but it is as questionable as the winds for so few of you listen until it is past the hour to act. I don't speculate on that which we will have under way--except for the WORD of Truth. Getting people to listen and act is the point in discussion and that is free-will choice over which I can have no control.

I can assure of one thing and that is, if you are going to turn this around it is going to take an outpouring of millions of calls, cards and letters to Congress. The Congress is, at the present, behaving like a buffalo herd running through the china shop headed for the cliff so they all tumble off into the void, in favor of this Mexican trade deal. The moral fiber of your leaders is at an all time base low as is with you-the-people. People have to stop this stupid stampede.

A lot of these congressmen are on the fence and don't really want to vote for this, but if they get an outpouring of any kind--letters and phone calls--they can change their minds. However, now that Bush has gotten permission to act in the interim, it becomes harder for the structure is already in place and to move it will be a mammoth task. You only have mere days left to act.

Dharma, find the numbers again, please.

Call: (202 224-3121 for your congressman and senator. Write your representatives in care of the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515 and your senator in care of the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510.

The next step is the disarming of the citizens and then it's basically over. The Bankster Cartel Elite are already celebrating victory, chelas.

WHAT ABOUT MEXICO IN ALL THIS FREEDOM?

The last three years of relatively free trade between the U.S. and Mexico have been a disaster--for both countries.

Mexico today is in a deep depression, with soaring unemployment and real wage levels less than 50% of their 1982 levels, with more than a million new workers each and every year entering the labor market, most of whom will not find jobs. The effect of lowered tariff barriers has been to undercut Mexican farmers, increase agricultural unemployment, and to bankrupt tens of thousands of smaller manufacturing producers, while a small number of larger, often multinational-owned firms, have exported to the U.S. the output that used to be consumed by Mexicans.

The results are shocking: Per capita consumption of corn, beans, rice, and wheat, the staples in the Mexican diet, is today about 20% lower than the already miserable levels of 1980. The minimum has dropped from the equivalent of U.S. $1.26 per hour in 1980, to $0.59 per hour in 1990--a 53% decline. In the last three years alone--the model years for NAFTA--wages are estimated to have plummeted by 29%. This collapse has occurred during the big "boom" years for the maquiladoras, the very model NAFTA intends to spread throughout Mexico.

An indication of the collapse of Mexico's agriculture sector, which will be completely opened to takeover by the international grain cartels, is at its lowest production. There is simply no basis in any projections for Mexican growth to assert that the poorer 85% of the Mexican population will become consumers of U.S. exports, or that Mexican "prosperity" will permit wages to rise significantly.

Many groups, such as the AFL-CIO, other labor, church, social welfare, and environmental organizations, have documented that the maquiladora phenomenon represents nothing but U.S. runaway shops, possibly the most massive "runaway shop" slave-labor operation in history. These groups have also compiled massive and irrefutable evidence as to the sub-human conditions of work in the maquiladoras, and the colonias (shantytowns) surrounding them.

We do not need, here, to repeat this information in detail, since it is in the public record in numerous congressional hearings and in widely circulated published form.

But the outlines bear reiteration.

* Wage levels are abominably low. Contrary to some claims, the average wages paid by the maquiladoras are far below even the already abysmally low wages paid in the non-maquiladora manufacturing sector of Mexico. According to AFL-CIO figures, average maquiladora wages are $.98/hour, compared to $1.56/hour for manufacturing in the rest of Mexico. But many maquiladora workers receive substantially less even than $.98. In 1980, the wage differential was about 5:1, it is now worse than 11:1. And even these figures understate the comparison, as some U.S. workers still receive fringe benefits up to 50% the value of their wages; the maquiladora workers receive none.

* The profile of the maquiladora labor force reads like something out of Charles Dickens or New York City's tenement factories before the first child labor laws at the turn of the century. Two-thirds of the 500,000 workers in them are females, and most of these are young girls, either trying to supplement the income of desperately poor families, or earning their first living away from home any way they can. Turnover rates in the maquiladoras reach 120% per year.

* Working conditions are also 19th-century, with widespread violation of worker safety laws, blatantly unsafe working conditions, failure to inform the workers of hazards, failure to use proper protective devices on machinery, and other abuses amply documented by others.

* Living conditions are crushingly poor, with the vast majority of the 500,000, plus dependents, living in the so-called colonials, urban slums reminiscent of Brazil's notorious favelas. Almost none of these residents have indoor running water, many do not even have access to running water at all, and drink from water collected in huge barrels formerly used by local companies to contain toxic substances. Sewage facilities are almost unknown in the colonials, and open sewage runs through the camps. Conditions are as squalid and hideous as anywhere in the world today. It is scarcely an exaggeration to call them concentration camps. Needless to say, health care and treatment are all but non-existent as well, making these camps ripe ground for cholera and other epidemics, which, once unleashed, will not respect national borders.

Situated Journey, where fully one-third of all the maquiladora workers live, illustrates the situation. Three hundred fifteen maquiladoras employ 135,000 workers, 65% of them women, 10% under 16 years of age. Wages are $3.60 a day, and turnover is so high there is a constant need for more workers. The city has been destroyed by the maquiladora plague. Teachers there earn one-third of their real wage in 1980 figures and now spend more time earning income in the informal economy than they do teaching--the schools have become public markets for their wares. Housing rents are double the levels across the Rio Grande in El Paso; incomes are less than one-tenth the U.S. levels.

* Most of the maquiladoras also practice no pollution control. Toxic wastes are released untreated into both the atmosphere and surface and groundwater. Canals carrying heavily polluted water often run right through the attached colonias. Air pollution is so bad in some of the leading maquiladora cities that it carries over the border and affects U.S. border cities.

One final point bears noting: Maquiladora workers are today paid less than the wages received in such desperately poor countries as Jamaica and the Dominican Republic. Mexico, the once-proud neighbor that tried to industrialize, and tried to improve the standard of living of its population, now shamelessly permits its workers to receive a Fourth World-level wage standard, and is actively seeking more of the same.

NO EXPORT BOOM

But perhaps the mass exodus of U.S. manufacturing plants south of the border will be offset by skyrocketing U.S. exports to Mexico, creating thousands of new jobs here at home? That is what the Bush administration claims. But this, too, is a lie.

It is a fact that Mexico's imports (three-quarters of which come from the U.S.) have risen sharply over the last three to four years, as a result of former President Miguel de la Madrid's and Salinas' trade liberalization measures. But a closer look at the composition of those imports shows that consumer goods are the ones growing most rapidly. U.S. consumer goods have been replacing Mexican goods at supermarkets and department stores, but that process has largely run its course. It would be illusory to think that this is a market that can continue to rapidly expand.

The argument that "Mexico is a booming market" is nothing but a cruel joke. One might as well trumpet the tremendous market for U.S. exporters represented by Bangladesh today. Desperately poor people, as most Mexicans have become under De la Madrid and Salinas' policies, are not a market for anybody's exports. The entire Mexican economy, encompassing a population one-third the size of the United States, disposes of an economy barely 4% as large. And the share of GNP represented by popular incomes in Mexico is much lower in Mexico than in the United States. Real incomes have plummeted for the average Mexican by more than one-half since 1982. It is estimated that more than two-thirds of the population are poor, and at least half of them desperately poor.

As for capital goods imports, the amount of these actually invested into the Mexican economy has been dropping significantly since 1980. It is today at only 60% the level it was at in 1980. And of those imported capital goods that are invested, the fact is that the lion's share of these have gone into building up industries for exports--in particular the maquiladoras--rather than contributing to the growth of the Mexican national economy. Mexico's imports of machine tools have collapsed to near zero. There has been a gross collapse in the employment of Mexican workers in the manufacturing jobs upon which any country's prosperity depend--with the exception of an increase in slave-labor-wage employment in the maquiladoras.

There is no future of growth in such trends.

One of the central objectives of NAFTA is to create an environment propitious for significant flows of foreign investment into Mexico. Bankers and others confessed to being uneasy about all the "free market" reforms that have been implemented in Mexico over recent years, unless they are "locked in" through NAFTA. They openly worry about the economic nationalism of the Echeverria and Lopez Portillo years, and fear that all of Salinas' good work might be reversible if there is a strong enough backlash to throw him out, and return to policies of protectionism, and possibly even to expropriations or prohibitions against removing profits of foreign firms, or even debt moratoria. It is believed that under a NAFTA, the "changes" implemented by Salinas that favor foreign investment can be "cemented" in such a way that even an anti-"free market" government could not undo them. The firms planning to take advantage of NAFTA have made clear, in fact, that once investment regulations are fully liberalized and cemented in the form of an international agreement that guarantees that their holdings can not be nationalized, or their profit remittances be jeopardized, or their loans go unpaid, they plan a massive shifting of investment resources to Mexico.

But what sort of investment will actually occur? Maquiladora investment will certainly take off under NAFTA, for the reasons indicated. But this will not constitute the prime form of investment. The major thrust of U.S. foreign investment will be in buying out core sectors of the existing Mexican economy--not in the construction of new plant and equipment. In other words, it will consist of a mere exchange of property titles, from Mexicans (including the state), to foreigners. This is proven by the fact that, despite balance of payments figures showing about $2-3 billion of foreign investment in each of the last couple of years, there has been no corresponding flow of actual physical imports of capital goods, as we documented above. So the only thing coming "into" Mexico has been financial capital that is buying out existing physical capital stock. This is what explains the fact that fully 89% of all foreign investment coming into Mexico in the first quarter of 1991, went into "services".

This process is already well under way, as Mexico has "privatized" the bulk of its formerly public sector companies--70% have reportedly already been sold off. The strategic aim of the NAFTA is to force Mexico to liberalize its foreign investment laws, and to make the changes permanent. The U.S. has targeted all remaining statutory and constitutional restrictions on full 100% foreign ownership of Mexican companies, even in formerly "strategic" industries, and will demand these reforms as the price of NAFTA. The goal is to buy up or control the core sectors of the Mexican economy. Insofar as there will be any significant investment in modernized plant and equipment, it will, like the maquiladora "investment", be strictly for export.

[Now, please don't act surprised at all this and wonder what happened--This is the way the Banks foreclose on nations--the collateral is all the resources of a country to get the original loans--THIS IS FORECLOSURE OF A WORLD, CHELAS!!! THE U.S. CANNOT PAY ITS DEBTS--YOU WILL ALSO BE FORECLOSED UPON--IT IS INEVITABLE AS THE WINDS OF WINTER. AND FURTHER, TO PREVENT OBJECTION AND TROUBLE--YOU WILL BE DISARMED SO THAT YOU CANNOT MAKE A FUSS AS EVERYTHING YOU HAVE, INCLUDING YOUR NATION, GOES TO THE ELITE BANKSTERS]

Let us take the central issue of "oil". Here the policy is to gradually whittle down Mexican opposition to resuming foreign control and eventually ownership over Mexico's oil resources and oil industry.

The long-term goal here is to deny Mexico the full use of its oil revenues for national development and to ensure the U.S. a large and continuing supply of oil close to home. In fact, the intent of NAFTA, and of Bush's broader New World Order, is to achieve control of all strategic minerals, including oil, in Mexico, Ibero-America, and the entire Third World.

NAFTA has one last principal goal: to permit the full opening up of Mexico's banking and financial system to takeover by the international banks. Once permitted full rights to operate in Mexico, the major Wall Street, London, European, and Japanese banks will quickly take over Mexico's financial system. This means not only buying the major Mexican banks. It means acquiring the ability to suck capital out of Mexico, the same way these same banks are presently acquiring regional U.S. banks and sucking capital out of the local regions in which these banks are located. It means the ability to borrow money within Mexico that ought to go for national development, and lend it back to U.S. firms seeking to buy out Mexican companies--a totally parasitic misuse of the money. It means the ability to use Mexican funds deposited in the banks for speculation in offshore enterprises, as now occurs with U.S. funds as well.

The goal is, as with the maquiladoras, to turn Mexico City into another version of Panama's now destroyed "banking center", an on-shore/"offshore" banking haven, which transmogrifies Mexico's national savings into the means for international speculative activities earning profits for the banks, emphatically including the laundering of hundreds of billions of dollars in drug revenues every year.

With the financial takeover completed, and trade and foreign investment fully liberalized, NAFTA's ultimate objective is to turn the entirety of the Americas into a dollar zone. What this means is the supplanting of each of the local currencies by the dollar, as legal tender, for all external and internal economic transactions.

Such steps go far beyond the current state of affairs, where the IMF, the creditor banks, and the U.S. government directly dictate policy to the governments of Ibero-America as to what their economic and monetary policies should be. They will no longer have economic and monetary processes that they can even call their own. They will all be run by the dollar, i.e., by the U. S. Government.

The kind of loss of economic sovereignty is tantamount to erasing all national borders, and goes hand in hand with the NAFTA plan of turning the whole continent into one giant maquiladora foreign enclave.

SO--NOW THE U.S.

It is not possible to exactly forecast with any precision, only probabilities, what havoc the agreement to be negotiated with Mexico will wreak within the U.S., if the "fast-track" procedures are extended, as per Bush's demands. It is possible to identify the general process which will be set off, because it is already in the works.

Overall U.S. capital investment is in the range of $200 billion per annum. Of this it can be assumed that about half is actually for investment in plant and equipment. The proponents of the Free Trade Agreement start from the assumption that under the first year of an agreement going into effect, 10%, or up to $10 billion could be pulled out of the U.S.A., and in the name of investing in Mexico, be diverted to the account of bankrupt U.S. banks. One such advocate put it this way: "Let's say we now make about $100 billion in real capital investment in the U.S., in plant and equipment annually. Mexico, under NAFTA, could easily get 10% of that. That's $10 billion the first year, if it looks successful, say even $15 billion the second year. Then who knows, the third year...."

The areas which would be affected by such runaway shops are known. Top on the list is the automobile industry, second is the textile and apparel industry, and third, what comes under the heading of electronics and household appliances.

Then, fourth, in a slightly different way, the domestic U.S. construction industry.

Dharma, allow us a break, please. I must, however, finish this evening for I desire that George have it for his meetings in Florida. Thank you.

6/6/91 #3 HATONN

ANTI-SEMITIC? BIGOT?
ANTI-ZIONIST?

I begin to hesitate to give Dharma a break for we end up with stacks and heaps of new inquiries to cover each time. But there are a couple of things which I want to point out to you people.

We have heard from George and, of course, of all the information we have produced, the people in Florida at the county Democratic meeting only picked up the word "Jew" in an Express. The meeting, by the way, is in West Palm Beach where many Judean people retire. It is sad that ones know so very little about their own heritage as seems to be prevalent. The lady introducing the speakers, i.e. George, immediately prefaced her introduction by stating that George was anti-semitic and a Zionist bigot. I have awful news for these poor, uninformed people--they do not have a corner on Zionism.

I have told you in the past that Jerry Falwell of the "Christian Moral Majority" is a self-proclaimed "Zionist" and "...am proud to state that I am a Zionist". Now, hold to your hats, brothers, Brent Scowcroft is a highly prestigious personage in the Mormon Religious Faith--a Mormon "Zionist". Now, I suggest somebody brush up on their attitudes and information since, in the very facts of the matter--to be anti-Jew is not to be anti-semitic since the Semites came from the tribe of Shem. Therefore, since the "Jews" are not Semites--how can you be anti-Semitic if you are against the Jews? Is this some kind of "New World Order" reasoning? Perhaps speakers, such as Patrick Buchanan who was called a rotten bigot and anti-Semite just last night on "Larry King Live"--should stop any defense of statements and RE-QUIRE AND DEMAND that those making accusations along those lines, identify, define and state their rationale regarding their accusations for they are ignorant, indeed.

Now, there is another point I wish to make about this currency switch and recall. I should point out a thing or two to you ones who are wishing to invest with the Institute and use gold as collateral--ultimately it is such an excellent investment for it will carry value of 100 to one if, in fact, that is the amount of currency exchange. We do not take our advice unto you ones lightly. Further, the investment funds are being utilized with persons who are not apt to have confiscation of their industrial property, i.e., the "light cement" housing factory, etc. Never underestimate the mysterious manner in which God works his miracles and performs His miracles. Moreover, the material, when mixed with pozzolan (pumice) and "finished" and/or compressed, will have the radioactivity protection in one foot of material of that of three full feet of concrete as well as being very light of weight in comparison--giving major benefits in structures. Ah, God has arranged many wondrous contacts and purposes if you but hold to the Light.

BACK TO U.S./MEXICO
FREE TRADE

As so often in the postwar period, the auto industry is the pace-setter. About to announce at this writing net losses of some $3 billion worldwide for the first quarter of 1991, GM, Chrysler, and Ford, working with the banks, were in the initial steps of reopening their new three-year contract with the UAW. The threat is clear. The unions are to give up the income security and health insurance components of the contract, and accept wage cuts, or face the flight of investment and employment to Mexico. The textile and apparel industry is next for the firing line. This is what happened during 1981 and 1982, at the height of the Volcker interest-rate atrocity. Then the industry reopened contracts in order to lay off workers and cut back its wage bill.

GM's president, Lloyd Reuss, alluded to this in a press conference April 15 in Detroit, when in response to prompting, he let slip that GM may reopen its contract with the UAW. GM spokesmen off the record are less bashful. With $5 billion in losses over the last nine months, the company cannot, it is said, afford the more than $4 billion per annum job security and health package it is committed to. They point to the following: GM production worker wages run at $31.30 per hour. After the government and insurance companies take their cut, the workers are left with $16.50 per hour (still a lot higher than 98 cents). GM has 42,000 workers employed in Mexican maquiladoras. They average $1.10 per hour. As they say: "The discrepancies are huge. Even with this subsidy from Mexico, if auto sales in the United States keep collapsing, we will not be able to produce cars in the United States." It seems pretty plain to me.

The textile industry, for its part, fears that with the elimination of remaining import tariffs on certain classes of goods produced in Mexico, the industry in the U.S. will be wiped out, perhaps in its entirety.

Autos and textiles, along with electronics, are threatened by the banks with elimination though substitution of slave-labor in Mexico. With the construction industry it is different. The bankers have Mexico demanding the right to freely export "services", as part of their "free trade" looting. In this case, "services" means labor. Although at this point the Bush administration is insisting that there will be no opening to Mexican migrant labor under NAFTA, the construction industry is planning to replace American labor with imported slave, or cheap, labor from Mexico in the name of "free trade in services". On April 15, one hundred leaders of the Association of General Contractors met with Bush to endorse the "fast track". Their leader, Marvin Black, said on that occasion: "Banks are in the grip of fear that stops them from making loans for construction projects. The message is clear...The Age of Abundance is over."

Where does this leave the U.S.? The construction industry adds another 4 million workers to this list should massive migrant labor flows occur under NAFTA and another $100 billion in annual wages.

Let's assume that there is intended to be a shift of 10% of the investment budget to Mexico in the first year of an agreement, and a 15% shift in the second. Then, in year one, approximately $10 billion would be looted from what is called the U.S. capital investment budget. In year two, this would rise to 15%, or about $13.5 billion, of the remaining $90 billion.

Although again no precise forecasts are possible on the employment side, for the purposes of argument, let's apply the same ratios of contraction being promoted regarding capital investment. The textile industry would lose 140,000 of its 1.4 million jobs in year one, and about 190,000 in year two. The automobile and related rubber and plastics industries would lose 120,000 jobs in the first year and 170,000 in the second.

Construction would shed, or replace, about 400,000 workers in the first year, and another 540,000 in the second.

This gives the total job losses for just those three industries, if one makes the same assumptions that the Bush crowd does, at 660,000 and 1 million in the first two years respectively.

This is the agreement which the same people publicly insist will not result in job losses in the U.S.

Let's assume, for the moment, that the Bush administration is right on this point, that no jobs will actually be lost. This could only occur if U.S. wages were drastically reduced to Mexican levels. (The political reality will probably be some combination of dramatic job loss and wage gouging.) As one NAFTA ideologue succinctly put it, U.S. companies will tell their unions: "We don't want to move to Mexico. But in Mexico they want 57 cents an hour and you guys want $15. Now you're going to have to meet us half way, or at least part of the way."

In this fashion, wage reduction on the order of one-third to one-half could occur under NAFTA. If such a reduction occurred at about the same rate as the mentioned capital shifts, i.e., about 10% in the year one and 15% of the reduced amount in year two, this gives an overall reduction in manufacturing-sector wages of goods producers of about $30 billion in year one and $40.5 billion in year two.

But you saw above that goods producers in manufacturing only make up 11% of the entire labor force. The 1.4 million workers in the textile industry make up more than 10% of the manufacturing total. The workers in the auto and rubber and plastics industries also make up more than 10% of the total. This estimate assumes that almost one-fifth of manufacturing workers in auto and textiles will lose their jobs in the next two years, and almost one-quarter of the workers in the construction industry. This is almost 10% of the remaining productive workers in those three sectors alone; 940,000 of the 4 million construction workers, 330,000 of the 1.4 million textile workers, and 290,000 of the 1.3 million workers in the automobile and related industrial employment in the country are targeted.

This is a recipe for upheaval and chaos inside the U.S.

WHY THE U.S. IS NOT COMPETITIVE

The collapse of U.S. performance on domestic and international markets has nothing to do with "unfair competition" from Japan or Western Europe, or anything of the sort. For the past generation or so, the U.S. has insisted on following policies which have, cumulatively, pushed it over the edge, in the sense that America is no longer capable of producing, out of its own resources of qualified labor, stocks of plant and equipment, i.e., the means which would enable the country to recover and grow. Germany and Japan have not been so insane as to impose this course on themselves. Now, Germany, as the center of the still-functioning economy of Europe, represents the primary, and Japan, the secondary, remaining islands of productive potential in the world economy as a whole. Their capabilities are what remains after the destruction of the developing sector, through International Monetary Fund (IMF) policies, the breakdown collapse of Marxist collectivism in Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and China, and the depression/bankruptcy of the English-speaking part of the advanced sector economies.

What is the difference between the U.S.A. and the other two? Over the last 25 years, the United States, in the name of the post-industrial society and the crazed idea that your society has moved beyond the need to actually produce the improvements which permit continued human existence--has stopped being a front-rank producing nation. Germany and Japan have not.

This could turn into an endless dissertation and is actually important enough to continue but the scribe is weary and you are losing interest as well. Suffice it to say that the policy difference between the economies of the United States and Germany and Japan can be summed up in one four-letter word: debt. Usury has wrecked the U.S. By the end of 1990, the sum of credit market borrowings, or the total indebtedness of the U.S. economy, for all borrowers, was estimated at $14 trillion. You are a debt-ridden, bankrupt economy with a gutted productive work force which no longer produces the infrastructure, food and industrial goods consumed by your own population.

SOMETHING TO WATCH FOR

Enough of that subject for I want to remind you to stay tuned for more cover-up in hearings set for July 11, 1991. The House Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer, and Monetary Affairs will be holding hearings on Internal Revenue Service corruption cases (talk about foxes in the henhouse). Although one case of corruption puts the IRS in the middle of covering up George Bush's Iran-contra Affair, the Congressional Committee seems committed to further obscure these facts.

That case involved a complex effort to prevent an IRS money-laundering expert, William Duncan, from testifying truthfully on evidence obtained during his investigation of a smuggling group operating from Arkansas' Mena Intermountain Regional Airport and connected to one Adler Berriman Seal. What Duncan did not know at the time of his probe was that the Mena Intermountain Regional Airport was being used by the Contra resupply efforts of the Reagan-Bush administration.

Prior to the 1988 presidential election, Duncan was asked to testify before the House Committee on Crime concerning allegations of government sabotage of the Arkansas investigation, including an allegation that a $400,000 bribe had been paid to Reagan's Attorney General, Ed Meese. Attorneys from the Disclosure and Litigation branch of the IRS, along with officials from the IRS Commissioner's office and the Criminal Investigation Division, not only tried to limit Duncan's testimony but, ultimately, Duncan was prohibited from having access to his own investigative files.

Adler Berriman Seal, who was a central figure in the transport of drugs from Central America, was killed on Feb. 19, 1986. (You will recall we recently wrote of this man.) He was murdered by authority of the CIA; in any case, had he lived, Seal would most certainly have a great deal to say about Bush's guns-for-drugs project.

BUSH AND THE MEDELLIN CARTEL: WHO WAS BARRY SEAL?

According to Congressional documents, Seal, who had been convicted of drug trafficking in February 1984, contacted the "Vice President's Task Force" in March 1984, offering himself as a government operative. By March 28, 1984, Seal was authorized as a confidential informant. One week later, on behalf of the U.S. government, Seal "ferried a Titan 404 aircraft (N2685U) from Miami to Medellin, Colombia and met with Jorge Ochoa to map out drug transport routes, including routes through Nicaragua."

During the month of April 1984, Seal coordinated his smuggling plans directly with drug cartel lords Jorge Ochoa and Pablo Escobar, as well as Carlos "Lito" Bustamante and Luis Angel. During the month of May 1984, Seal continued to deal with Jorge Ochoa, Escobar, Bustamante, and Angel, as well as Fabio Ochoa, Gonzalo Rodriguez-Gacha, Federico Vaughn, and Carlos Lehder. On May 28, 1984, Seal, accompanied by co-pilot Emil Camp, flew from Mena, Ark. to Colombia, where he was met by Carlos Lehder. His plane was loaded with 1,500 kilos of cocaine. Just a month earlier, on April 30, 1984, the courageous anti-drug Columbian Minister of Justice Rodrigo Lara-Bonilla had been assassinated by the dope cartel.

According to portions of a Congressional chronology, on June 25, 1984, Seal flew a C-123K aircraft, recently transferred to him by Harry Doan and subsequently outfitted with surveillance cameras by the CIA, to the Los Brasiles Airport in Nicaragua. There he was met by Pablo Escobar, Gonzalo Rodriguez-Gacha, Federico Vaughn, and others. The plane was refueled and loaded with approximately "666 kilograms of cocaine", according to the Congressional document. On July 7, Seal made a return flight to Los Brasiles to deliver $1.5 million in cash and "toys".

Now, you don't believe me, you don't believe other revealers of facts--are you going to now say you don't believe the Congressional documents, either?

OLLIE NORTH HAS AN IDEA

In 1988 Congressional testimony by Ron Cafferty, who was the chief of the Drug Enforcement Administration's Cocaine Sector in 1984, Cafferty revealed that, when he personally briefed National Security Council employee Lt. Col. Oliver North and Dewey Claridge of the CIA at the Executive Office Building, sometime between June 26, 1984 and Seal's return trip of July 7, North asked, "Hypothetically....Why couldn't we land the plane somewhere outside of Nicaragua...and maybe turn the money over to the Contras?" Cafferty said that North already had the photos taken from Seal's C-123K at Los Brasiles, and that North proposed a leak to the press to show involvement by the Nicaraguan Sandinistas in drug trafficking.

Presumably, the $1.5 million money transfer to the Contras did not occur in that form; however, the leak was begun the next day, when Gen. Paul Gorman, commander of the U.S. Southern Command, announced to a U.S. Chamber of Commerce audience in San Salvador that proof of Sandinista involvement in drug trafficking would be forthcoming. On July 17, 1984 the Washington Times began a coordinated national "expose" of the Sandinistas' connections to the Medellin Cartel.

Six months later, Adler Berriman Seal's life was apparently no longer protected by the U.S. government; previous plea bargain agreements which Seal had made with the government were suddenly found to be full of loopholes; Seal was stripped of his personal security and ordered to report daily to the Salvation Army Halfway House in Baton Rouge, La. It was at that Halfway House, on Feb. 19, 1986, that Seal was gunned down. This is YOUR CIA and YOUR GOVERNMENT, chelas--isn't anyone nervous yet?

One month after Seal's murder, Ronald Reagan appeared on national television with the CIA photos taken from Seal's C-123K. Reagan said the photos showed Nicaraguan government officials involved in drug trafficking. Thereupon, the President urged Congressional funding of the Nicaraguan Contras, in opposition to the Sandinistas. On Oct. 5, 1986, American pilot Eugene Hasenfus was shot down while flying arms to the Contras. Hasenfus was flying the same C-123K cargo plane previously used by Seal.

A source who gained information from admitted Contra supplier Richard Brenneke said that Brenneke has identified Mena, Ark. as a hub through which money, drugs, arms, and Central American troops were moved, and has said that there was a massive government operation to smuggle drugs into the Mena Airport and use the money to finance covert operations. What the U.S. Congress knows about these events, and about the IRS attempt to suppress information concerning the investigation of Seal's operations, must not be covered up during yet another presidential election campaign. You have an opportunity here, chelas, if you will but grit your teeth and gain a little backbone--you have all you need to beat this thing come upon you.

Yes, I hope you realize that this is also ongoing confirmation follow-up of our story on "Drug Running". You MUST begin to fit pieces and persons together. Time is fleeting and it leaves little allowance for action.

Thank you for a very long day, Dharma, but the information is necessary for George to have "fuel" for his confrontations. Bless you and good-night.

Hatonn to clear.

COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS
THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY NAME: KHAZARS
"....AND THEY WERE LIARS FROM THE BEGINNING!"
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

In this book Hatonn brings us up to the minute on world events, but more importantly he gives us the TRUE history of the diabolical masterminds that have led the world into all of its major problems and most of its minor problems, for their own selfish and greedy aims.

We are also given the actions we MUST take if we are going to stop these well-organized groups from putting together the final pieces of their WORLD WITHOUT FREEDOM (the NEW WORLD ORDER).

Hatonn especially stresses the history of the Khazars, Judeans and the Jews and how the Khazars have labeled themselves as Zionists and Jews to deceive our planet and to take total control of it in the NAME OF THE ANTI-CHRIST, and how knowing and exposing these forces can preserve freedom for all of mankind.

OPERATION SHANSTORM COUNTER ATTACK FROM BEHIND THE FEATHERED CURTAIN

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn says that the Dedication and Introduction to this book are the two most important documents you shall ever read.

He continues to give detailed history of the Khazars, where they came from, how they got to the position of governing most of the lives on this planet and what type of life they have planned for us IF WE DO NOT GET OFF OUR DUFFS AND STOP THEM. (IT ISN'T PLEASANT.) We are always given things that we can do to stop the "New World Order" of the Elitists and slaves. This Journal contains many solutions, it clearly outlines the "counter attack" needed to overcome the Khazar/Elite lead.

More is given to us about the making and workings of robotoids, synthetic duplicates, humanoids, etc., gun control, IRS shenanigans and terror tactics, why the Cosmic Hosts have come, democracy vs. a republic, preparation of concentration camps in the U.S.A., daily updates on world events and much more.

PHOENIX OPERATOR- OWNER MANUAL

For eons of time in your history, mankind has experienced and existed in blindness about his DIVINE SPIRITUAL HERITAGE, that is, his ONENESS WITH GOD AND THE CREATION. Since the time of the "FALL" from "GRACE" of God, many ones have continued to struggle with what is "their" purpose, and why is it so difficult to find and know THE TRUTH. Many ones, in their ignorance and confusion, have asked themselves why GOD allows the seemingly unending ruthless and merciless inhumanity of man to continue; why HE allows suffering of children and wars and disease and pestilence and corruption. Often ones simply decide there is no God, which only keeps ones ever "separate" from KNOWING HIS PRESENCE WITHIN.

This volume, Phoenix Operator/Owner Manual, is GOD'S deliverance of Truth to YOU, His blinded fledgling creatures. HE is offering YOU the instructions for reaching the "Lighted" path back home to HIM, AND THUS TO ONENESS. You will learn HOW to recognize the Anti-Christ, (that which is AGAINST GOD and therefore AGAINST LIFE) within YOU and why through your gift of free-will YOU allowed the Anti-Christ within your temple of God. You will learn about what are the "Deadliest" Sins (errors) committed by you and also about the nature of YOUR Personal Responsibility for ALL consequences and experiences within this manifested physical "illusion".

And in addition, God is NOW, within these pages, bringing forth the EIGHTEEN Logical Cosmic Laws of Balance of God and The Creation, written in explicit detail with MANY examples given for YOUR careful consideration and recognition of Truth. Why? To let there be NO misunderstanding of HOW and WHY you, of humanity have lost your inner as well as planetary BALANCE. You ones have broken EVERY Law set forth herein and have, therefore, suffered the consequences of your errors against GOD and against LIFE. You each now have before you YOUR "roadmap" back home to spiritual wisdom, knowledge and Truth which is GOD. Will YOU see? Will YOU hear? Each ONE of you, being fragments of GOD and of THE CREATION must and will make this choice: To wisely learn your lessons in Truth, abide by the Laws and thus EARN your Spiritual UNITY and Freedom within God's Kingdom OR continue in the darkness of deception, ignorance and spiritual poverty which will keep you bound in the Anti-Christ's "illusion" of separation. THIS cycle is about to END. The new cycle will BEGIN anew in the GLORY and Celebration of cleansing within and without of ALL fragments of ANTI-LIFE. WILL YOU JOIN OUR FATHER/MOTHER CREATOR GOD in His Divine Holy Kingdom of LIFE? God awaits your decision. So be it.

END OF THE MASQUERADE
LET'S PLUCK THE CUCKOO BIRD
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

TO ALL WHO WOULD HEAR GOD'S WORD IN THIS TIME OF TOTAL MASQUERADE. IT IS TIME TO PULL OFF THE MASK ALONG WITH THE BLINDFOLDS AND EAR-PLUGS. THE TIME IS AT HAND TO GAIN TRUTH AND INSIGHT AND TAKE ACTION FOR YOUR WORLD IS IN GRAVE DANGER.

That which is called the "Anti-Christ" is at hand and has deceived most of the world. You are surrounded by multitudes of replicas and man-made humanoids who have basically gained control of your planet.

Our intent in these Journals is to give you proof of that which we project--by documentation of history, origins and other boring information. But the information will get far less boring as we move along, dear ones--and so, let us move along rapidly.

I repeat again and again--the evil brotherhood of darkness cannot stand the focus of the light of Truth, just as it requires only the tiny spark of light to cause a place to no longer be in darkness.

Hatonn includes the PROTOCOLS and also continues to keep us current on world affairs.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER &
WHAT'S THE MATTER
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.

SEMINAR

George & Desirée Green will speak June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From

Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO AFFORD A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EXPRESS TRY SHARING THE COST WITH A FRIEND(S).

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 12

6/8/91 #1 HATONN

SATURDAY

Hatonn to commune first this day and then we shall turn the forum over to Sananda. We have stirred interest in the money exchange plans and I would like to give SM a bit more insight for he has inquired with great interest in behalf of those who query him.

CURRENCY EXCHANGE

Firstly, let me say it will be difficult, from here forward, to understand that which "they" choose to do in regards to your economy. The decisions are made on "contingency" and "surrogate" alternatives--i.e. if "this" goes awry, then we will do "that". Now, the point is, WHO makes the final decisions? The Bilderberg group who is meeting at this very instant (basically around the clock) in Baden-Baden, Germany. Yes, I said "Germany" and that has more significance than you can possibly imagine. This is the very group who is closing down your planet and is in the process of possessing the entirety of all nations through foreclosure proceedings. By the way, the force used to bring all into line runs from UN police force to global nuclear attack--ON YOU-THE-PEOPLE! THERE IS NO CONSCIENCE AMONG THEM!

The deals were cut and the procedures finalized in the recent Trilateral Commission meeting but the final word and edicts of proceedings will be forthcoming from this Bilderberg group underway.

Since the World Bosses meet secretly and keep everyone in the dark as to where, etc., I think it would be entertaining to simply tell the world all of it. They are at the Schlosshotel Buehlerhoehe, Scharzwaldhochstrasse in Sand, near Baden-Baden, Germany. The really elite Bilderbergers are also staying there. Lesser participants are staying at the Badischer Hof which is also quite near Baden-Baden. How foolish they are for, again, just about everyone knows where and how except the stupid fringe players like Dan Quayle and John Sununu who were flown in under pledges of secrecy for a special meeting so members are being flown into Frankfurt and some to Strasbourg to be shuttled to Baden-Baden.

But this time you may get more from this meeting than the elite wish you to have for the Europeans are getting fed up and the journalists are not so controlled.

Who is at that meeting? Well, let's begin with Henry

Kissinger, then David Rockefeller, the Rothschilds of Britain and Europe, many recent heads of state and high officials of the U.S., Canada and Europe. Ones to watch are powerful politicians who are simply scheduled to attend; i.e., Senate Finance Committee Chairman from the U.S., Lloyd Bentsen from Texas and House Speaker from the U.S., Tom Foley. The Americans are indeed "coy" for when asked if they were going to attend they refused to respond on the basis of "national security". How so? A private Banking cartel manages YOUR "national security"? You had better get with the program, precious Americans.

Don't, further, be fooled by the smiling face of Bush at the distracting military celebrations of this weekend--what you sees ain't what youze gets!

The Bilderberg group has a most ambitious agenda which was given for servicing to the prior meeting of the Trilats. Now the final decisions are being made by the ruling faction.

Let us look at what will be included:

Steps to assure massive gains toward establishing a global government--dubbed, "New World Order".

Exploiting Middle East oil. Remember, the Trilateralists called for a 10-cent/barrel tax to be imposed by the United Nations.

Causing the Uruguay Round Table of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to eliminate all tariffs.

Winning congressional approval of the Free-Trade pact with Mexico and, ultimately, all of the Western Hemisphere.

Promoting the European "super-state", eliminating all trade barriers, INSTALLING A SINGLE CURRENCY and surrendering the sovereignty of nations to the European Parliament and European Commission.

Keeping the Soviet Union, in chaos and near breakup, intact--on grounds that it is difficult to deal with 17 different nations and suppressing nationalistic tendencies in Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia, which were artificially welded into single countries following W.W. I.

Ultimately the Soviet Union and East European nations will be brought into the European super-state.

The UN will evolve into a de jure, as well as de facto, world government when all of Europe and the Western Hemisphere have been conveniently developed into "regional governments"--it is divided into TEN DISTRICTS.

Now, chelas, you must recognize something: Since the roles of Kissinger and David Rockefeller are filled with duplicates, what are you dealing with in this cartel? Obviously--the Rothschild empire which is now being pulled back into public association within Germany--YOU

ARE IN SERIOUS TROUBLE! Note that the power centers of both Bilderberg and the Trilateral Commission have overlapping leadership, with David Rockefeller and Henry Kissinger among the leaders of both--so this MUST be your most important clue.

You must also KNOW that ones like Sununu and Quayle, (and Bush) are fringe elements (at least the Bush YOU see). The "inner" circle, surrounding the Rockefellers and Rothschilds are always present and set up the meetings. The fringe persons must wait for summons. The purpose of summoning Quayle and Sununu to last year's gathering was to SHUT THEM UP! Both had been expressing reluctance to rush billions of American tax dollars into a global environmental campaign without more study. The Trilateralists and Bilderbergers had called for such expenditures as a means of offsetting reduced profits in defense projects as the Cold War ended. They will not make such a mistake a second time.

Quayle has been the right hand of Bush in continuation of the drug deals established while Bush was V.P. He was hand picked in spite of all political objections for that very purpose.

Now shudder, for among the "fringe" elements will be Katharine Graham, chairwoman of the Washington Post Co., and officials of the New York Times, Los Angeles Times and Time magazine. These participants attend under absolute mandate to secrecy and to publish NOTHING.

But, chelas, don't spend time worrying about little fringe participants being neglected--YOU-THE-PEOPLE will pay the cost of travel and participation at the secret meeting for those high officials of your State and Defense departments and congressional leaders. Oh yes, and by the way, I hope that you ones will also be helpful in assisting with expenses for the "moles" your compatriots place inside those meetings! Just keep getting the JOURNALS and EXPRESSES and support the other patriot groups and publications--you are not beaten, brothers, if you get the public informed!!!!

BACK TO CURRENCY EXCHANGE

At this Bilderberg group meeting it is being decided when is the most propitious time to change out your currency so as to keep the most of your money in their system. You can watch the news and see that you are being sucked deliberately into the market. At the same time the price of precious metals are creeping up which indicates that the inside group is "buying"--however, since the plans are to confiscate and render bullion illegal, the gold is an "iffy" thing if simply "held". Any you purchase outright should be in a form which can later be bartered and tucked away in a "only you know where, place".

I don't know how to answer your inquirers, SM, other than to say that we have established a program wherein money is utilized by the Institute (on a loan basis with legal documentation of same) and the money loaned goes to the purchase of gold which is then deposited as collateral against which loans (in a cartel bank for the collateral of gold will probably not be confiscated from their own banks--at least not early on) are taken to operate the Institute. Now, when (and it is expected to happen) the price of gold doubles, it will be sold, the loans paid and the remainder will be returned to the lender.

So what is to prevent the nice sticky fingers from stealing the loan funds and etc.? Nothing--EXCEPT--some of the most important industry planned is in conjunction with some very fine persons who also happen to be close personal friends of your President and he likes them well enough to fly them in his private military aircraft in to his parties, etc. Do they understand this proposal? OF COURSE NOT! How long did it take YOU to believe your government was out to destroy you? Could you possibly believe that a friend would believe this information? NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE MYSTERIOUS WAYS IN WHICH GOD PERFORMS HIS WONDERS.

I will say, however, that no MAN is safe in this heinous system of planned deception and destruction--I can speculate, however, that what we have arranged is about the ONLY relatively safe place to have your assets "held" and possibly come out with something on the other end. If the Institute gets large, it will be split into numerous corporations. Further, our advice to you all, again, is get incorporated in Nevada--LAST WEEK! You will be able to shift assets into a small, or several small, corporations which will give you some pretty good protection, especially until we see what will come next and allow for the making of other alternate maneuvers as we move along. I believe with the added assistance of Cort, we can handle the load and I "believe", if we act most quickly, the gold can be obtained to cover the loans.

Now, for you business men who are going to say this can't be done--forget the argument--it has and is being done but the arrangements were laid last year and you are not going to be able to pull it off overnight. When we told you to get prepared, we meant it.

For you who think there are perfect answers and believe you can "clean-up", I suggest you rethink intent. God returns abundance to those who participate with His cause--if you stay in bed with the Beast, expect to be devoured. The Beast plans to eat you at any rate--there is only the possibility of hedging your chances and retaining some, and perhaps more than, your assets. They will try to figure a way to take it all, but the hope is that they also need production of some kind and what we have structured to be built and operated is product necessary for moving through the times of depression, etc. That is low-cost but totally durable housing, food production by aquatic and soil/moisture optimum methods of growth, motion picture/TV complex, etc., etc., etc. We have covered a lot of bases and the industries funded through other resources, i.e. typical methods, will be for the industries least costly if vandalized or foreclosed. God will give you "how" if you but petition in sincere truth and willingness to listen and act in proper cause. Do not expect God to further evil, greed and self-ego aggrandizement for you are in the time of evil rule and chaos and we are only interested in your soul intent. However, money is nothing--it is simply a "thing" and knows no good nor bad, so think not that God cannot use the money from the good and the bad to further the Kingdom in its Coming. You had best stop separating "God" from "You" for God will be where YOU are.

FREE TRADE PACT

As I have said, much rests on the ongoing agreement as proposed. It is on the so-called fast track authority. This is a power provided the president since 1974 by Congress which gives him the sole dominion to negotiate trade agreements. Despite the Constitution, under the fast track rule Congress cannot make amendments to the final product; it can only vote up or down on the agreement between the president and the foreign power involved. Yes indeed, brothers--you are squashed between the rock and the crushing boulder!

It matters not what is voted by Congress at this time for Bush has promised that his trade pact with Mexico will come before Congress within six months, and at that time legislators will have the opportunity to scrap what certainly will be an agreement harmful to U.S. consumers, workers, taxpayers and Mexico as well. The issue is not whether or not you negotiate trade agreements, the issue is only HOW you are going to negotiate trade agreements and in whose interests you are going to negotiate those trade agreements. The Bilderbergers will decide this weekend--this day, the 8th day of June, 1991 in Baden-Baden, Germany.

SOVIET UNION

Will the Soviet Union come into the fold? It is iffy at best and the important point is how it may refuse to give up sovereignty of Russia. If Russia chooses to retain sovereignty THERE WILL BE A MASSIVE NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST! SO BE IT. You had better be rereading your SURVIVAL JOURNAL for, as Russia "acts up", the first strike from the U.S. against Russia is very much "on" as a probability--to bring her under control. The Banksters mean business, patriots, and they will spare no method to attain that which they are after--the world.

Dharma, I do not want you at the POA meeting; we have enough problems without attending more controversy and fiasco. Thank you. Please take this from the machine and allow it to be forwarded ASAP to SM and George.

I will move to stand-by and we will resume writing at your earliest convenience.

(For the convenience of readers, both gold and corporation transactions are being handled by E J Ekker and Cort Christie at 805 822-0601, Fax 805 822-0972, 21512, mail to Box 986, Tehachapi, Ca. 93581.)

6/8/91 #2 HATONN

Hatonn returned at the request of E.J. Since this man is already burdened with a work load which allows for practically no rest, I needed to converse with him for he will have to absorb the burden of incoming inquiries and arrangements. He has stated that he is most willing to serve so we will have included, in this document, his contact information regarding the measures we have listed prior.

FREE TRADE INFORMATION

I ask that if there is room at the end of this document, please simply cut and paste the list of Representatives and Senators to contact to impact that agreement. It is up to you, now, America.

Where can you go from there? Well, you can stay tuned and we will give you all the information regarding the newly formed "Populist" Party--old as the hills but thoroughly buried. You are so limited as to alternatives in your political system that your only possibility is to pull out and demand formation of a new format. The services are being formed through Liberty Lobby, and the Populist Action Committee is now operable. I do not have time nor space herein to cover it all but you can obtain information through Liberty Lobby, 300 Independence Ave. SE, Washington, D.C. 20003. To keep our work intact as to our own intent, we only give forth the information, for our thrust is not within your political systems--we are only sent to bring the Truth of God, as Hosts--not to be activists and pull down anything for that must not be our purpose--that would represent intervention and that is not acceptable. The following summarizes the populist philosophy on the key issues of the day. The glossary analyzes the populist perspective and lays forth the basis of populist thought, comparing and contrasting populism with "conservatism" and "liberalism", the latter two more often being alike than unlike. This glossary, which is taken from the appendix of "Profiles in Populism", the standard reference work on the history of populism in the United States, demonstrates that the philosophy behind populism is truly unique.

GLOSSARY ANALYSIS

Herein I think it important to write an analysis of that which terms actually mean as regards the "Populist Thought". It is urgent and of utmost importance that you study this carefully and acknowledge the tremendous impact which can be made if you turn back into adoption of Truth and Constitutional law-- listed not according to importance but, for practical purpose, alphabetically. These are practical definitions and not those which will be found in the dictionary. For instance, early in your history "free enterprise" and "capitalism" were synonymous terms--no longer; it is just another misuse to delude you--the-people.

CAPITALISM: The economic system of democracy but often found in some form in military dictatorships. A degenerate form of free enterprise. The means of production, money, banking and the political process are controlled by a small group of oligopolist/monopolist capitalists for their own personal gain. Basically hostile to nationalism. Constant expansion through war, imperialism or tax-financed pyramid building required to feed the constantly growing interest burden. Inflation is inherent in the system. Capitalism is incompatible with widespread competition in the economic, intellectual or political spheres. Because of the interest incentive and its common foundations with Marxism of equalism and monopoly, capitalism inevitably degenerates to crisis and Marxism. The word was coined by Karl Marx and ever since then has been defended by conservative and libertarian intellectuals.

COMMUNISM: An amalgam of philosophical delusion (Marx) and ruthless political aggression and population control (Lenin). A perfect society will result by the enforced equality of people (destruction of the superior) and the suppression of free enterprise (called capitalism) because free enterprise implies inequality of human gifts. The communist deceit of naming free enterprise "capitalism" is copied by capitalist (conservative and libertarian) intellectuals in order to hold up capitalism as the champion of anti-communism whereas capitalism is really the symbiotic partner and bedmate of communism. Basically, communism is nothing but a social system of all competition forcibly removed except the competition to control the system. Internationalist in theory, communism is nationalist in practice. Totalitarian and monopolistic—the two words are synonymous.

CONSERVATISM: While theoretically favoring less government and opposing socialism the average conservative supports all essentials of capitalism and therefore the very fundamentals which inevitably produce socialism. Conservatives are misled by their leaders into supporting big business, free trade and internationalism, including military intervention in useless wars. Unclear or contradictory in many areas, conservatism is distinctly liberal in others and diligently avoids controversy in regard to Zionism, race, money, banking and Trilateralism.

CULTURE: Human progress and individual contentment rests on the stability of a sound culture geared to the traditional mores of the society. Thus, destroying or seriously injuring a racial or national culture is a crime against the injured people. Culture "lives" from generation to generation, either growing in refinement and potential due to isolation or regressing because of culture distortion. Internationalism seeks to destroy all human individuality and national cultures, replacing them with a formless, pornographic cacophony of junk and filth, such as "modern art", the obscene noise which is described as "music" by the press and similar international barbarities. No people can be free when their culture is under attack; thus the destruction of all national cultures is an essential part of the communist/capitalist/Zionist conspiracy to destroy all middle-class values, concurrently reducing it to slavery.

DEMOCRACY: Usually the capitalist political system although varieties of capitalism are found in anti-communist military dictatorships. It is controlled by capitalist ownership and/or control of the media, grants from tax-free foundations, contributions and favorable press coverage for favored political candidates. Wide franchise to vote is given to the people to make them easier to control by making them think that "the people" are responsible for the inevitable distortions and negative consequences of the policies the super-rich mattoids impose in order to serve their selfish interests. Democracy separates authority from responsibility, thus making it virtually impossible for the voters to reform the system. Those in authority (the mattoids) have no responsibility. Those responsible (the politicians) have no authority except that which is lent to them by their controllers.

DRUGS: (See Homosexuality)

FOREIGN POLICY: To be worthy of the name, it must be conducted only from the standpoint of national interest, not the interest of minority, special-interest pressure groups. In foreign policy, the issue is between nationalism vs internationalism, not "conservatism vs liberalism" as "conservative leaders" pretend to believe. There is no such thing as a "conservative" foreign policy or a "liberal" foreign policy. Mislabeling foreign policy issues as "conservative" or "liberal" hides the real issues and contributes to the confusion in the area of foreign policy desired by the mattoid capitalists, making it easy for them to attain their selfish objectives without exposure.

FREE ENTERPRISE: Economic intercourse free of government interference except when it tends toward monopoly, when law is used to re-establish competition. Except for regulated public utilities, no business is permitted to dominate the market. Protection by tariff from foreign invasion of domestic markets with low price manufactured goods and protection by strict immigration laws from invasion of low-cost labor is an essential part of the system. Absentee ownership of farms prohibited; farms kept in the hands of families, even if "inefficient" by capitalist standards. People, not profits, come first.

FREE TRADE: The elimination of all restrictions on the flow of goods and services, including capital and labor, across national boundaries. Free trade requires the overriding of all restrictive immigration laws as well as any other laws affecting national sovereignty. Free trade thus requires the destruction of the Constitution and your system of government. No apologist for free trade can logically dispute this unavoidable fact; they all try to ignore it. The profiteers from free trade are the same international banks which lead the drive for an international economy. Marx supported free trade because "free trade hastens the revolution".

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS: Under capitalism the press is free to say anything EXCEPT that which runs against the interest of the advertisers or the monopolists. Maximum freedom of speech is given to the communists, Zionists, pornog-raphers, dope apologists and other criminals and culture distorters but a press blackout is enforced against competition from populist and nationalist ideas. Thus, the meaning of the First Amendment is inverted from being a constructive to a destructive force. Populists would suppress promotion of crime and culture distortion but permit the fullest expression of political ideas.

GUN CONTROL: For obvious reasons, communists and capitalists wish to establish a worldwide monopoly over all arms and armaments. Populists believe in the ancient theory that each man is free only to the extent that he can protect himself and his own property from criminals who seek to take his freedom or his property. Populists know that if the monopolists succeed in taking their guns the fight for freedom will be lost.

HOMOSEXUALITY: Along with drugs, the rampant epidemic of this social disease has been deliberately and expertly promoted by the Marxist/Capitalist Establishment in order to weaken and destroy western nations by perverting and destroying the youth. The pervasive prevalence of homosexuality and drugs is but part of the overall genocidal war against your people and explains Establishment efforts to lower the birth rate of all White nations and fill them up with ignorant and pliable immigrants from alien cultures. The point is to further destroy those unsuspecting ones through disease and riot. Homosexuality should no more be condoned than should the use of heroin or other mind- and soul-destroying drugs. Populists recognize a responsibility to fight it exactly as they fight all anti-social and criminal behavior because populists and nationalists are opposed to anything which weakens your nation and threatens your future.

INCOME TAX: The indispensable money tree for capitalism, Marxism and Zionism, and created, perpetuated and endorsed by them. Paid almost exclusively by the white, productive middle class. The super-rich mattoids pay no (or very little) income tax, as do not the indolent poor. The income tax is a conduit to funnel the substance of the taxpayers into the pockets of the ruling class. Without the income tax to pay the bills for corrupt capitalist schemes and to buy the votes of the poor, the capitalist system could not survive; nor could internationalism, communism and Zionism. The income tax is used to intimidate and shear the middle class while preparing them for expropriation and full-fledged communism. It is promoted by the capitalist Establishment (including socialist labor bosses and liberals) as being "progressive", whereas it is the most regressive sort of tax--the burden falling not on those most able to pay but on the middle class. The income tax, the Federal Reserve and the first "world" war were products of the Wilson administration. The tax was and is required to pay the bankers the interests on the bonds needed to finance that war--and all subsequent ones.

INTEREST: A synonym for usury. Interest is the main cause of inflation, as the creation of money is essential to pay the bankers for the imaginary loans which they create out of thin air. Compound interest over a period of time is impossible: One cent lent at 6 percent compound interest at the time of the birth of Christ would today be equal to a ball of gold far larger than the Earth. Thus, a society based on interest and compound interest CANNOT survive for the short term without extreme aggression to capture markets and unmanageable debt--and for the long term not at all. Interest and compound interest guarantee the collapse of capitalism. A proof that Marxism is a fraud is that it does not deal with the problem of interest.

LIBERALISM: Runs from "left" advocacy of total anarchy to "right" conservatism. The one common denominator of all libertarians is the support of free trade, the essential prop of international capitalism. Libertarianism is not a viable political philosophy because it is as unworkable as communism, and can only be accurately described as a secular religion. As with the faithful of all religions, hardly two libertarians agree with each other on all doctrinal points.

MARXISM-LENINISM: (See communism)

MATTOID: A criminal of high intelligence. Mattoids often gravitate into international banking or politics. For business reasons, mattoids must pose as liberals and humanitarians although they are completely without conscience, feel no relationship with other humans and are utterly ruthless. Subconsciously, a mattoid seeks to elevate himself to total power by destroying society; these two contradictory instincts are what gives the mattoid his character of being the greatest danger any society faces. Mattoidism is a heritable genetic disorder. Examples of mattoids: Meyer Lansky, David Rockefeller, Josef Stalin, Henry Kissinger, George Bush and all Bush boys, Gorbachev, Thatcher, Elizabeth, etc.

NEUTRALITY: Non-intervention in wars between other states. Requires the ability to reason that there are at least three sides (not two) in every international quarrel: the sides of the two belligerents and the American side. The mature realization that American interests are not served--although the interests of international bankers, Zionists and communists may be--by intervention in the quarrels of others. The mature premise that most international disputes work themselves out long before they can concern your national interests. In retrospect it is indisputable that American intervention in foreign quarrels has made world conditions incomparably worse than they would have been if you had remained aloof and rejected foreign efforts to involve you. Your intervention in world quarrels has only aggravated them and produced possibly insoluble problems at home. Neutrality and nonintervention are consistent only with nationalism. Intervention, war, debt, spending, Marxism and pacifism are consistent only with internationalism.

PACIFISM: Otherworldly belief that refusal to defend one's self and one's country with force will bring peace. Has nothing in common with armed neutrality. Pacifism is promoted by Marxism-Leninism to disarm enemies. Pacifism and Marxism almost always are financed by capitalists through tax-exempt foundations or churches underwritten by their tax-deductible contributions.

POPULISM: Rule by the majority of electors for the benefit of all, not for the benefit of minority special-interest pressure groups. Government by the producers and taxpayers of society, not by the super-rich, tax-free exploiters or the tax-eating, indolent parasites of powerful organized minorities. Public control over the issuance of money. Nationalism in foreign affairs. Heavy taxation of the super-rich to reduce their corrupt and perverse influence. Government policy to secure and protect free enterprise and property rights by discouraging monopoly and "bigness" except for regulated public utilities. A protective tariff to equalize costs at the water's edge and strict immigration laws.

PROTECTIONISM: Control of import of goods competitive with domestic products to equalize costs at the water's edge through the use of tariffs. Protectionism preserves domestic competition and protects labor and industry, resulting in balanced and organic national economic growth. Protectionism tends to lower taxes for three reasons: 1. Tariffs provide revenue for the government (as the Constitution specifies); 2. Tariffs lower unemployment, thus lessening the demand for government unemployment benefits and welfare and 3. Tariffs broaden and strengthen the economy, thus spreading the tax burden. By keeping money inside the national economy, protectionism eliminates the need for new money except that required to keep pace with production of a growing economy, thus lowering inflation and creating a mighty multiplier effect as money circulates inside the country instead of disappearing overseas. Money bleeding overseas results in a shortage of the circulating medium, the recipe for recession. And whereas free trade brings foreign ownership of land, businesses and buildings and results in unhealthy political influence for foreigners, protectionism preserves American sovereignty and Constitutional government. Protectionism is also a force for peace because it eliminates the need to meddle in the affairs of other governments--a prime requirement for a policy of free trade. In the long run, only the international bankers and subversive political forces profit from free trade.

REPUBLIC: America is (was) a republic, not a democracy. At least, it was planned that way by the great men who founded your country. Populism and republicanism both seek to place political power in the hands of the producers and taxpayers--not in the democratic hands of mattoid capitalists and their hired minority chieftains. The great republicans--Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Madison--to name a few--must also be described as populists within the context of the pre-industrial revolution eighteenth century. Hamilton--tool of the bankers--was neither a republican nor a populist. Do not EVER ERR in thinking that "REPUBLICAN" means republican.

SOCIALISM: (See communism)

WOMEN: They're different. Women bear children; men do not. This is but, one of innumerable and ineradicable physical, psychological, mental differences. Nothing more clearly reflects the terminal insanity of contemporary American democracy than the Marxist/Capitalist delusion that the state can (through ERA) eradicate the natural differences between the two sexes, or that girls can serve in combat roles in the armed forces. In a sane society, women are not expected to behave like men or to do the work of men, and vice versa. Legally, women already have more rights than do men, and that is the way populists intend to keep it.

ZIONISM: A secular conspiratorial scheme overtly aimed at ingathering the "Jews" of the world to "Israel" but in reality a world political engine of massive power which, allied with the power of the supercapitalists, effectively controls all aspects of western political, intellectual, religious and cultural life. Zionism overlaps substantially into both capitalism and communism. Without Zionist support, neither capitalism nor communism could survive. Zionism is strongly antagonistic to all nationalisms except "Jewish" nationalism.

ONE OF OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

NETWORKING

We continually receive phone calls from those of you who are feeling isolated in their particular area of the country. If you are interested in meeting others in your region who share in the Phoenix material, write to America West giving us permission to network and we will connect you with others.

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.

SEMINAR

George & Desiree Green will speak June 15, 1991, 1-4 PM at Midway Motor Inn, Dorsett & I-270, St. Louis, MO. Admission $20.00 Call Mike Babcock (314) 343-1849

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In A Fishbowl
Cry Of The Phoenix
Crucifixion Of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape Of The Constitution

You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL (EXCEPTING EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO AFFORD A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EXPRESS TRY SHARING THE COST WITH A FRIEND(S).

Key Capitol Hill Telephone Numbers

(All numbers Area Code 202)

Capitol Switchboard	224-3121
The President	456-1414
The Vice President	456-7125
White House Comments
Register your opinion on an issue	456-1111
When Bill signed or vetoed	456-2226
Capitol Guide Service	225-6827
Federal Agency Employee Information	245-6000
Federal Publications	783-3238
Government Printing Office
Congressional Information	275-2226
To Order Documents	783-3238
Library of Congress-Congressional Research	707-5700
Democratic National Committee	863-8000
Republican National Committee	863-8500

Senate

Majority Leader	224-5556
Majority Whip	224-2158
Minority Leader	224-3135
Minority Whip	224-2708
Secretary of the Senate	224-2115
Document Room	224-7860

Recorded Information

(Running accounts of Floor Proceedings)

Democrat	224-8541
Republican	224-8601
Cloakroom
(For emergency contact with Senator on the floor)
Democrat	224-4691
Republican	224-6191

House

Speaker of the House	225-5604
Majority Leader	225-0100
Majority Whip	225-3130
Minority Leader	225-0600
Minority Whip	225-0197
Clerk of the House	225-7000
Document Room	225-3456

Recorded Information

(Running accounts of Floor Proceedings)

Democrat	225-7400
Republican	225-7430

Legislative Schedule

Democrat	225-1600
Republican	225-2020

Legislative Information-Bill Status 225-1772

Cloakroom

(For emergency contact with Representative on the floor)

Democrat	225-7330
Republican	225-7350

Congressional Offices

Senate

S	Capitol-Senate Side (North)
SROB	Senate Russell Office Building
SDOB	Senate Dirksen Office Building
SHOB	Senate Hart Office Building

House

H	Capitol-House Side (South)
CHOB	Cannon House Office Building (3 digit numbers)
LHOB	Longworth House Office Building (4 digit room numbers begin with "1")
RHOB	Rayburn House Office Building (4 digit room numbers begin with "2")
Annex 1	(OHOB) O'Neill House Office Building
Annex 2	(FHOB) Ford House Office Building

to the president. This bill, had it been approved, would have effectively canceled the proposed Free-Trade Agreement (FTA) with Mexico. The Senate voted to disapprove a similar measure on May 24.

Although opponents of the FTA are hoping for a victory on these measures, it was not essential to the goal of denailing the pact. The president must now negotiate the still-unresolved terms of the FTA with Mexican officials, and then present the final product to Congress for a simple up or down vote.

Now is the time to work on your lawmakers to inform them of the dangers this free-trade pact will present to American jobs and workers (see story page 8 for additional details). Many of those who voted to approve the measure that would have ended fast-track have not made up their minds about the FTA, but simply thought that extending this trade authority to the president, despite the fact that the Constitution designates Congress as the final arbiter of trade issues, would be a time-saving and streamlined way of proceeding.

They are now awaiting the final result of these negotiations before making up their minds. For this reason, we are running here the names of those members who voted to disapprove the measures ending fast Track. Contact these members listed here, and let them know that it is their duty to safeguard American jobs and industry from the ravages that will be dealt them by the wholesale relocation of U.S. industry south of the border to take advantage of ridiculously cheap labor and lax environmental and safety regulations.

House members to contact:

Atard	Cooper	Gradison
Anderson	Coughlin	Grandy
Andrews (TX)	Cox (CA)	Green
Anthony	Cox (IL)	Guarini
Archer	Coyne	Gunderson
Arney	Crane	Hall (OH)
Atkins	Cunningham	Hall (TX)
Bacchus	Danmeyer	Hamilton
Baker	Davis	Hammerschmidt
Barrett	de la Garza	Hancock
Barton	DeLay	Hansen
Bateman	Dickinson	Hastert
Bellenson	Dicks	Hefley
Bennett	Donnelly	Henry
Bereuter	Dooley	Herger
Berman	Doolittle	Hobson
Blirakis	Downey	Horton
Bliley	Dreier	Houghton
Boehner	Edwards (OK)	Hoyer
Boehner	Edwards (TX)	Hubbard
Boucher	Emerson	Huckaby
Broomfield	Espy	Hughes
Bryant	Fascell	Hutto
Bunning	Fawell	Hyde
Burton	Fazio	Inhofe
Bustamante	Fields	Ireland
Byron	Fish	James
Callahan	Franks (CT)	Jefferson
Camp	Gallely	Johnson (CT)
Campbell (CA)	Gallo	Johnson (TX)
Cardin	Gekas	Kasich
Carper	Gephardt	Kennelly
Chandler	Gerren	Klug
Chapman	Gibbons	Kolbe
Clement	Gilchrest	Kopetaki
Clinger	Gillmor	Kostmayer
Coleman (MO)	Gingrich	Kyl
Coleman (TX)	Gordon	Lagomarsino
Conest	Goss	LaRocco

Final approval of any trade pact will be made by Congress here, in the U.S. Capitol.

Laughlin	Morella	Riggs	Slaughter (VA)	Tanner	Weber
Leach	Morrison	Rinaldo	Smith (LA)	Tauzin	Weldon
Lent	Mrazek	Ritter	Smith (OR)	Thomas (CA)	Wilson
Lewis (CA)	Myers	Roberts	Smith (TX)	Thomas (WY)	Wolf
Lewis (FL)	Nichols	Rogers	Solarz	Thornton	Wyden
Lightfoot	Nussle	Rohrabacher	Sternholm	Torricelli	Wyllie
Livingston	Olin	Roe-Lehtinen	Stump	Upton	Young (AK)
Lowery (CA)	Ortiz	Rostenkowski	Sundquist	Vander Jagt	Young (FL)
Luken	Orton	Roth	Swift	Walker	Zeliff
Machley	Owens (UT)	Roukema	Synar	Walsh	Zimmer
Martin	Oxley	Roybal
Mataul	Packard	Santorum
Mamoli	Pratta	Sarbanus
McCandless	Parker	Sawyer
McCrery	Paxon	Saxton
McCurdy	Prlosi	Schaefer
McDermott	Priddy	Schiff
McEwen	Petri	Schroeder
McGrath	Pickett	Schulze
McHugh	Pickle	Schumer
McMillan (NC)	Porter	Sensenbrenner
McMillen (MD)	Price	Sharp
Michel	Pursell	Shaw
Miller (WA)	Ramstad	Shays
Molinar	Regula	Skaggs
Montgomery	Rhodes	Skreen
Moorhead	Richardson	Skelton
Moran	Ridge	Slattery

Senators to contact:

Baucus	Durenberger	Mitchell
Bentsen	Garn	Murkowski
Biden	Gore	Nickles
Bingaman	Gorton	Nunn
Bond	Graham	Packwood
Boren	Gramm	Pell
Bradley	Grassley	Pressler
Breaux	Hatch	Rebb
Brown	Hatfield	Rockefeller
Bryan	Kassebaum	Roth
Burns	Kasten	Rudman
Chafee	Kennedy	Seymour
Coats	Kerry	Simpson
Cochran	Kerry	Smith
Craig	Kohl	Stevens
D'Amato	Lautenberg	Symms
Danforth	Lieberman	Wallace
DeConcini	Lugar	Warner
Dole	McCain	Wirth
Domenici	McConnell

 Note: For getting heard regarding this matter in the Express, contact these particular representatives. For your further information, please refer to these additional lists.

LAST BATTLE CRY

by Jarah B. Crawford

LAST BATTLE CRY will shock you, and will challenge your Bible knowledge whether

SENATORS

(Room numbers beginning with SD are in the Dirksen Bldg., SH are in the Hart Bldg., and SR are in the Russell Bldg.)

(Democrats in roman; Republicans in italic.)

Name and State	Phone	Room	Name and State	Phone	Room
Vice Pres. Quayle, Dan (IN).....	224-2424	S212	Inouye, Daniel K. (HI).....	224-3934	SH722
Adams, Brock (WA).....	224-2621	SH513	Jeffords, James M. (VT).....	224-5141	SD530
Akaka, Daniel K. (HI).....	224-6361	SH109	Johnston, J. Bennett (LA).....	224-5824	SH136
Armstrong, William L. (CO).....	224-5941	SH528	Kassebaum, Nancy Landon (KS)....	224-4774	SR302
Baucus, Max (MT).....	224-2651	SH706	Kasten, Robert W., Jr. (WI).....	224-5323	SH110
Bentsen, Lloyd (TX).....	224-5922	SH703	Kennedy, Edward M. (MA).....	224-4543	SR315
Biden, Joseph R., Jr. (DE).....	224-5042	SR221	Kerrey, J. Robert (NE).....	224-6551	SH302
Bingaman, Jeff (NM).....	224-5521	SH524	Kerry, John F. (MA).....	224-2742	SR421
Bond, Christopher S. (MO).....	224-5721	SR293	Kohl, Herbert (WI).....	224-5653	SH702
Boren, David L. (OK).....	224-4721	SR453	Lautenberg, Frank R. (NJ).....	224-4744	SH717
Boschwitz, Rudy (MN).....	224-5641	SH506	Leahy, Patrick J. (VT).....	224-4242	SR433
Bradley, Bill (NJ).....	224-3224	SH731	Levin, Carl (MI).....	224-6221	SR459
Breaux, John B. (LA).....	224-4623	SH516	Lieberman, Joseph I. (CT).....	224-4041	SH502
Bryan, Richard H. (NV).....	224-6244	SR364	Lott, Trent (MS).....	224-6253	SR487
Bumpers, Dale (AR).....	224-4843	SD229	Lugar, Richard G. (IN).....	224-4814	SH306
Burdick, Quentin N. (ND).....	224-2551	SH511	McCain, John (AZ).....	224-2235	SR111
Burns, Conrad R. (MT).....	224-2644	SD183	McClure, James A. (ID).....	224-2752	SH309
Byrd, Robert C. (WV).....	224-3954	SH311	McConnell, Mitch (KY).....	224-2541	SR120
Chafee, John H. (RI).....	224-2921	SD567	Mack, Connie (FL).....	224-5274	SH517
Coats, Dan (IN).....	224-5623	SR407	Melzenbaum, Howard M. (OH).....	224-2315	SR140
Cochran, Thad (MS).....	224-5054	SR326	Mikulski, Barbara A. (MD).....	224-4654	SH320
Cohen, William S. (ME).....	224-2523	SH322	Mitchell, George J. (ME).....	224-5344	SR176
Conrad, Kent (ND).....	224-2043	SD361	Moynihan, Daniel Patrick (NY).....	224-4451	SR464
Cranston, Alan (CA).....	224-3553	SH112	Murkowski, Frank H. (AK).....	224-6665	SH709
D'Amato, Alfonse (NY).....	224-6542	SH520	Nickles, Don (OK).....	224-5754	SH713
Danforth, John C. (MO).....	224-6154	SR249	Nunn, Sam (GA).....	224-3521	SD303
Daschle, Thomas A. (SD).....	224-2321	SH317	Packwood, Bob (OR).....	224-5244	SR259
DeConcini, Dennis (AZ).....	224-4521	SH328	Pell, Claiborne (RI).....	224-4642	SR335
Dixon, Alan J. (IL).....	224-2854	SH331	Pressler, Larry (SD).....	224-5842	SH133
Dodd, Christopher J. (CT).....	224-2823	SR444	Pryor, David H. (AR).....	224-2353	SR267
Dole, Bob (KS).....	224-6521	SH141	Reid, Harry (NV).....	224-3542	SH324
Domenici, Pete V. (NM).....	224-6621	SD434	Riegle, Donald W., Jr. (MI).....	224-4822	SD105
Durenberger, Dave (MN).....	224-3244	SR154	Robb, Charles S. (VA).....	224-4024	SR493
Exon, J. James (NE).....	224-4224	SH330	Rockefeller, John D., IV (WV).....	224-6472	SH724
Ford, Wendell H. (KY).....	224-4343	SR173A	Roth, William V., Jr. (DE).....	224-2441	SH104
Fowler, Wyche, Jr. (GA).....	224-3643	SR204	Rudman, Warren B. (NH).....	224-3324	SH530
Garn, Jake (UT).....	224-5444	SD505	Sanford, Terry (NC).....	224-3154	SH716
Glenn, John (OH).....	224-3353	SH503	Sarbanes, Paul S. (MD).....	224-4524	SD332
Gore, Albert, Jr. (TN).....	224-4944	SR393	Sasser, Jim (TN).....	224-3344	SR363
Gorton, Slade (WA).....	224-3441	SH730	Shelby, Richard C. (AL).....	224-5744	SH313
Graham, Bob (FL).....	224-3041	SD241	Simon, Paul (IL).....	224-2152	SD462
Gramm, Phil (TX).....	224-2934	SR370	Simpson, Alan K. (WY).....	224-3424	SD261
Grassley, Chuck (IA).....	224-3744	SH135	Specter, Arlen (PA).....	224-4254	SH303
Harkin, Tom (IA).....	224-3254	SH316	Stevens, Ted (AK).....	224-3004	SH522
Hatch, Orrin G. (UT).....	224-5251	SR135	Symms, Steve (ID).....	224-6142	SH509
Hatfield, Mark O. (OR).....	224-3753	SH711	Thurmond, Strom (SC).....	224-5972	SR217
Hellin, Howell (AL).....	224-4124	SH728	Wallop, Malcolm (WV).....	224-6441	SR237
Heinz, John (PA).....	224-6324	SR277	Warner, John (VA).....	224-2023	SR225
Helms, Jesse (NC).....	224-6342	SD403	Wilson, Pete (CA).....	224-3841	SH720
Hollings, Ernest F. (SC).....	224-6121	SR125	Wirth, Timothy E. (CO).....	224-5852	SR380
Humphrey, Gordon (NH).....	224-2841	SH531

Washington area code is 202.

All senators may be written at:

The Honorable _____
Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

STATE GOVERNORS

DEMOCRATS: 26

REPUBLICANS: 22

INDEPENDENTS: 2

More information is available at National Governors Association, 444 North Capitol St., Washington, DC 20001 202-624-5330

ALABAMA —Governor Guy Hunt (R)
State House, Montgomery 36130	205-242-7100
ALASKA —Governor Wally Hickel (I)
P.O. Box A, Juneau 99811	907-465-3500
ARIZONA —Governor Fife Symington (R)
State House, Phoenix 85007	602-542-4331
ARKANSAS —Governor Bill Clinton (D)
State Capitol, Little Rock 72201	501-682-2345
CALIFORNIA —Governor Pete Wilson (R)
State Capitol, Sacramento 95814	916-445-2841
COLORADO —Governor Roy Romer (D)
State Capitol, Denver 80203	303-866-2471
CONNECTICUT —Governor Lowell Weicker (I)
State Capitol, Hartford 06106	203-566-4840
DELAWARE —Governor Michael N. Castle (R)
Legislative Hall, Dover 19901	302-736-4101
FLORIDA —Governor Lawton Chiles (D)
State Capitol, Tallahassee 32399	904-488-2272
GEORGIA —Governor Zell Miller (D)
State Capitol, Atlanta 30334	404-656-1776
HAWAII —Governor John D. Waihee III (D)
State Capitol, Honolulu 96813	808-548-5420
IDAHO —Governor Cecil D. Andrus (D)
State Capitol, Boise 83720	208-334-2110
ILLINOIS —Governor Jim Edgar (R)
State Capitol, Springfield 62706	217-782-6830
INDIANA —Governor B. Evan Bayh (D)
206 State House, Indianapolis 46204	317-232-4567
IOWA —Governor Terry Branstad (R)
State Capitol, Des Moines 50319	515-281-5211
KANSAS —Governor Joan Finney (D)
State Capitol, Topeka 66612	913-296-3232
KENTUCKY —Governor Wallace Wilkinson (D)
State Capitol, Frankfort 40601	502-564-2611
LOUISIANA —Governor Buddy Roemer (R)
State Capitol, P.O. Box 94004
Baton Rouge 70804	504-342-7015
MAINE —Governor John P. McKernan, Jr. (R)
State House, Augusta 04333	207-289-3531
MARYLAND —Governor Wm. Donald Shafer (D)
State House, Annapolis 21401	301-974-3901
MASSACHUSETTS —Governor William Weld (R)
State House, Boston 02133	617-727-9173
MICHIGAN —Governor John Engler (R)
State Capitol, Lansing 48913	517-373-3400
MINNESOTA —Governor Arne Carlson (R)
State Capitol, St. Paul 55155	612-296-3391

Governors

MISSISSIPPI —Governor Ray Mabus (D)
P.O. Box 139, Jackson 39205	601-359-3100
MISSOURI —Governor John Ashcroft (R)
P.O. Box 720, Jefferson City 65102	314-751-3222
MONTANA —Governor Stan Stevens (R)
State Capitol, Helena 59620	406-444-3111
NEBRASKA —Governor Ben Nelson (D)
State Capitol, Lincoln 68509	402-471-2244
NEVADA —Governor Robert J. Miller (D)
State Capitol, Carson City 89710	702-687-5670
NEW HAMPSHIRE —Governor Judd Gregg (R)
State House, Concord 03301	603-271-2121
NEW JERSEY —Governor James J. Florio (D)
State House, Trenton 08625	609-292-6000
NEW MEXICO —Governor Bruce King (D)
State Capitol, Santa Fe 87503	505-827-3000
NEW YORK —Governor Mario M. Cuomo (D)
State Capitol, Albany 12224	518-474-8390
NORTH CAROLINA —Governor James G. Martin (R)
State Capitol, Raleigh 27611	919-733-4240
NORTH DAKOTA —Governor George Sinner (D)
State Capitol, Bismark 58505	701-224-2200
OHIO —Governor George Voinovich (R)
State House, Columbus 43215	614-466-1722
OKLAHOMA —Governor David Walters (R)
State Capitol, Oklahoma City 73105	405-521-2342
OREGON —Governor Barbara Roberts (D)
State Capitol, Salem 97310	503-378-3100
PENNSYLVANIA —Governor Robert P. Casey (D)
Main Capitol Building, Harrisburg 17120	717-787-2500
RHODE ISLAND —Bruce Sundlum (D)
State House, Providence 02903	401-277-2080
SOUTH CAROLINA —Governor Carroll Campbell (R)
P.O. Box 11369, Columbia 29211	803-734-9818
SOUTH DAKOTA —Governor George Mikelson (R)
State Capitol, Pierre 57501	605-773-3212
TENNESSEE —Governor Ned McWherter (D)
State Capitol, Nashville 37243	615-741-2001
TEXAS —Governor Ann Richards (D)
Box 12428, Capitol Station Austin 78711	512-463-2000
UTAH —Governor Norman Bangerter (R)
State Capitol, Salt Lake City 84114	801-538-1000
VERMONT —Governor Richard Snelling (R)
Pavilion Office Building, Montpelier 05602	802-828-3333
VIRGINIA —Governor L. Douglas Wilder (D)
State Capitol, Richmond 23219	804-786-2211
WASHINGTON —Governor Booth Gardner (D)
Legislative Building, Olympia 98504	206-753-6780
WEST VIRGINIA —Governor Gaston Caperton (D)
State Capitol, Charleston 25305	304-340-1600
WISCONSIN —Governor Tommy G. Thompson (R)
State Capitol, Madison 53702	608-266-1212
WYOMING —Governor Mike Sullivan (D)
State Capitol, Cheyenne 82002	307-777-7434

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIII NUMBER 13

6/11/91 HATONN
TUESDAY

Hatonn present. Please allow us to come into sharing that understanding flows as well as "words".

I am asked, these days of Sananda's writings, how is it that I presume to make introduction? Why indeed. Dharma would enjoy being the one to tell you but part of the reason is for her own protection.

As the Truth comes forth after over 2000 plus years of gigantic LIE, it is both dangerous and extremely impactful to the receivers of that Truth. Do not believe that simply because you become a scribe, that the shock and pain are somehow vanquished. We do fine for the period of writing but as she witnesses, then, the product, it is sobering indeed. This is the most important gathering of information in your universe and cuts through the very fiber of all you have expected and trusted throughout your life experiences. It is hard to realize you are people of the lie from the beginning--and worse, to know that the adversary will not like this information very much. I remind you: TRUTH WILL STAND INTO INFINITY AND WE BRING TRUTH SO WE WELCOME ANY MAN TO CONTRADICT THAT WHICH HE WILL BUT HE HAD BETTER COME WITH SOME INCREDIBLE "REASONING". WE ARE NOW DEALING WITH YOUR INFINITE SOUL ENERGY AND THE SHOE IS ON THE OTHER FOOT--MAN IS NOW EXPECTED TO "PROVE" THAT WHICH HE PROJECTS AND SINCE THE PHYSICAL IS A PASSING ILLUSION--HE CAN NOT DO SO!

Suzy, thank you for the crystal pendant for it does, indeed, radiate the love expressed in the sharing. I say sharing, for a creation of God can only be shared and the gifting of such can only be the sharing of "expression". I would tell you a bit about this particular crystal in its growth patterns. Just as a crystal "chip" bears a programmed frequency so, also, does a crystal. As some crystals grow, they will push out what appear to be fractures but this is NOT so. They are the root system from which a crystals grows into its flower-like "clump". It houses the very source of the DNA/RNA of the "thing" which it shall become. Since man cannot seem to leave them in their intended location for he desires to hold both the beauty and the life-form, the root itself is usually quite ugly in appearance--but those wondrous "children" of the parent are divine indeed. The one you sent is old, old and bears its own inner child and has become as "hard" as diamond for any "practical" purpose. Some of these little beauties are missed for they will often bear a lot of the root and will have ugly malformations which man does not like in his trinkets.

We have left your message intact for its intended projection and then we reprogrammed the "starburst" within. It now bears the assorted frequencies of the various Masters and in the sunlight will actually "sing" as the light is reflected and refracted from within the central root core.

The major problem with Man taking and rearranging crystals is that they are expected to do something which they cannot do and they are ALWAYS located where they serve a great purpose in the overall order of the planet. From these little jewels come the very refracting frequencies that do such things as break down stone into earth for the reclaiming of life sustenance. This elder crystal comes from a place wherein most of the task of the mineral projection is finished for the nurturing of surface life forms. The removal from the "new" western world locations is more tragic, however, for they are for the purpose of breaking down dying minerals such as uranium, etc. Man does not realize that which he does when he takes up those dying minerals and stockpiles them for their purpose is to break down, through radiation and refraction bursts, the very world which is originally presented in solid, compact rock-type formations. You can see the mechanism more readily within the lava flows which are eventually broken down and become fertile soil. So be it for the mineral lesson of this day.

I want to again thank you, Suzy, for the sharing for I have much more to say regarding this and it is not yet time. Misused, these gemstones can literally break down the health of ones believing them to be giving nourishment--Man seems to always need to tinker with that which he understands not.

CRYSTAL VIRUS

I must have you understand that a virus is also just a crystalline product. This is WHY it can be considered that bombardment with certain frequencies will break it (explode it)--just like a crystal chalice. The DNA/RNA structure of every cell is constructed from this crystalline substance which is programmed and bears the holographic structure of whatever will become from that seed. When Man began to tinker with these things of the very program substance of the universe--he walked in well over his head--for evil will always take that which could be wondrous and turns it to the physical--HOPING ALWAYS TO FIND IMMORTALITY WHICH ELUDES HIS EFFORTS FOR THAT HAS THUS FAR ONLY BEEN ENABLED BY THE GOD CREATOR AS ORCHESTRATED BY NATURE (NATURAL CREATION).

The physical aspect of man always reaches the point at which your civilizations have reached and efforts at immortality and the object, of course, is to create life immortal and get rid of all the unwanted competition. It never works out well for his greed and fleshly desires drive him through his ego into the destructive paths so that all he actually accomplishes is some sort of "duplication imitation". But these are effective indeed for destruction of species.

I wish to thank T.D. for sharing with us. It is always difficult for Dharma for me to give information of which she has no resource and information is always well received on various subjects which you ones will bother to go and research. Along the lines of life duplication and viral DNA possibilities, I suggest you who have time and inclination, get the book THE BIOLOGICAL TIME BOMB by Gordon Rattray Taylor from the World Publishing Co., New York and Cleveland. T.D. has sent me excerpts from that book and it will curl all you straight-haired entities. Your researchers have had nearly a century to work on these things--having found the base structure of a virus and how they "work" sometime in the "twenties", as recorded. (In your own publications.)

Now, keeping in mind what I have said about viruses being crystal formations let me just read you a bit of interesting "stuff":

One quotation from page 166:

But seven years later a genuine transformation, claimed as the first ever to be achieved except in bacteria was announced by A. S. Fox and S. B. Yoon of Wisconsin University. They treated a strain of fruit flies--the geneticist's stock laboratory animal--with DNA extracted from flies of a different strain. The offspring of some of these flies varied genetically from their parents, and the variation bred true for up to seven generations, after which it vanished again. This announcement drew a reply from Professor Serge Gershenson, head of the Virology section of the Zabolotny Institute of Microbiology and Virology of the Academy of Sciences in the Ukraine. He, it appeared, had treated Drosophila with DNA derived from the thymus glands of calves thirty years ago, and had published his results in 1939. (At that time all DNA was believed to be identical, and he used calf DNA merely because there was a convenient technique available for obtaining it.) He found that the treatment produced stable mutations, but, unlike those produced by X-rays and so forth....and more:

Moreover, we now know that viruses do their work by entering cells and substituting their own nucleic acid for the cell's nucleic acid, thus forcing the cell machinery to make viruses and not what the cell usually makes. And in the fifties it became clear that viruses can even pick up bits of nucleic acid from the cell they enter, adopt it into their own system and later deposit this 'rogue DNA' in another host cell--a phenomenon known as transduction.

Do you still want to deny and argue with me that duplication and mutation is not possible? Stop blaming little gray space aliens for the trouble you have--YOU HAVE DONE IT YOURSELVES QUITE ADEQUATELY WITHOUT ANY SPECIAL HELP.

To other inquiries, I would like to say that it has been quite easy to get Hatonn's cellular sample for we have been in and out of there for many, many years.

As to the Rajiv Gandhi assassination, it will become very clear as to why he was murdered. I believe, in fact, that I have already covered it well enough to get the picture.

Now as to the Pleiadean Command pulling out all their installations on Earth as you inquired. I believe that is not in any manner that which should be discussed here or anywhere. Suffice it to say that Pleiades Command NEEDS NO BASES ON YOUR EARTH--WE WORK VERY WELL FROM OUR OWN OFF-SURFACE FACILITIES AND WOULD NEVER HAVE MORE THAN CONTACT POINTS AT ANY RATE--AT ANY TIME. Now, T.D., this comes from someone other than yourself--for YOU know better than that! You also know better than to test me regarding Vegans, Lyra, etc. If they were considering active intervention to protect you from your demise with the AB's, I would not respond--BUT, remember something--INTERVENTION IS A NO-NO! TO GO AGAINST COSMIC LAW AND INTERFERE WITH PLANETARY ACTIONS EXCEPT IN SPECIFIC PERMITTED AREAS OF EXPECTED DAMAGE TO THE OUTER ORDER WOULD NOT BE A WISE MANEUVER ON THE PART OF ANY OUTSIDE COMMAND--AND BRING DOWN A GREAT BUNDLE OF TROUBLE FROM FLEET COMMAND OF WHICH I HEAD.

I will speak of Alaska regarding the inquiry regarding what might be happening there. I ask Dharma to simply leave the following without label and reprint the letter from the entity in Alaska who has personally become entangled in some very interesting maneuvers regarding the Russians.

Hatonn has written some time ago "Can Russia Invade the U. S.?" and elsewhere that the Russian "business men" etc., are swarming all over America.

I would say that Russia has already invaded and is continuing to do so. These so-called business men are coming over to Alaska via Nome to Anchorage and wherever on a regular basis. They do not stay in hotels and such, but they stay in private individuals' homes through do-gooders organizations such as the Rotary Club, Unity Church, etc. And the people welcome them with open arms! I have some acquaintances who are members of these organizations that have and are hosting these people. They stay maybe a few days or so while "someone" comes to pick them up during their stay and they are shown around wherever and whatever they want to investigate--anything.

BUT the capper is this: A group of Russian boys, complete with their smart military-styled uniforms showed up at the recent State Boy Scouts Jamboree unannounced and PARTICIPATED. The Scout organization had no advance warning that they were coming!!!

I am not a letter writer and seldom ever write letters to the editor but I thought I would pass this little tid-bit to you.

So--to whom it may concern. It is as if mass insanity has been loosed upon you--and so it has. I would write one more short instruction--from Dante unto his followers: "....and then he said: 'Now it is time to quit this edge of shade: follow close after me along the rill, and do not stray from it; for the unburning margins form a lane, and by them we may cross the burning plain.'"

Dante, in pity, restores the torn leaves to the soul of this countryman and the Poets move on to the next round, a great Plain of burning sand upon which there descends an eternal slow rain of fire. Here, scorched by fire from above and below, are three classes of sinners suffering differing degrees of exposure to the fire. The blasphemers (The violent against God) are stretched supine upon the sand, the Sodomites (The violent against Nature) run in endless circles, and the Usurers (The violent against Art, which is the Grandchild of God) huddle on the sands.

The Poets find Capaneus stretched out on the sands, the chief sinner of that place. He is still blaspheming God. They continue along the edge of the Wood of the Suicides and come to a blood-red rill which flows boiling from the Wood and crosses the burning plain. Virgil explains the miraculous power of its waters and discourses on the origin of all the rivers of Hell.

So what? The symbolism of the burning plain is centered in sterility and wrath. Blasphemy, sodomy, and usury are all unnatural and sterile actions: thus the unbearing desert is the eternity of these sinners; and thus the rain, which naturally should be fertile and cool, descends as fire. And what of this Capaneus? He is subjected not only to the wrath of nature (the sands below) and the wrath from above (the fire from above), but is also tortured most by his own inner violence, which is the root of blasphemy.

And that, chelas, is where you are AT. You are between the rock and the hard place and you refuse to see and hear that which has brought you to this brink of pain and decision. It is seemingly easier to continue in the agony and chaos than to turn into Truth which would shower the cool life-spring of waters upon the barren lands. It is always the INNER refusal to understand and turn into KNOWING which is destructive unto the very soul of Man. So be it. For herein I shall turn this forum unto the Christed hands. You, precious creations, are at the crossroads and the path through is very narrow indeed and closing quickly. I ask that you "fear not" but turn from your ignorance into Truth that we might get on with that which is at hand.

Oh yes, early on we asked, why has Hatonn the audacity to MC the information and speakers? Because I AM ATON come with MY SON TO RECLAIM MY KINGDOM AND YOU, MY BLESSED CHILDREN, IT WILL BE MOST SUITABLE IF YOU WISH TO CONSIDER ME "THE HORSE'S MOUTH" rather than the other end of the horse where most still desire to place me. Salu.

In the valley of the shadows is the best of places and the worst of places to recognize LIGHT. Often that which seems worst is that which gives the most. I am Hatonn and I have asked interruption of the Journal for a finishing of an Express for I wish to commune with you readers. I have a bit of trouble herein with my scribe for I have had her working since morning rise in meetings and until evening of yesterday in debilitating, even if most interesting, meetings. A bit of it I will share for it is hard to be beat about the heart and soul and be willing to come back for another "treatment". What is not always obvious is evident in yesterday's circumstance.

PUBLIC COMMUNICATION

This event of which I will speak has many purposes of which I will share a few. It is important that the public understand that which is thrust upon ones who effort to share serious information. First, I want all to know that I rejoice in the opportunity to have such fine example for my needs that this story is based on fresh memory and not on another's story of this or that.

We were in a meeting with our workers and guests yesterday afternoon at which time George was scheduled to have an interview with a "person" on the radio in Palm Beach, Florida. This person is noted for his being "difficult" and abusive and George rather dreaded the encounter. So, I said that I would be most happy to interview this person myself. As any of you might guess, one of the first slams was to effort to elicit my scribe's name and address so he could taunt her by name and kept up the barrage for some 20 minutes at any rate.

Secondly, he challenged me to

"Zap" him so that he would have proof I was who I said I was. Well, number one, what would make anyone think anyone else could zap another from California to Florida--although I did it quite nicely--you see, you allow the devouring to devour self.

Then there were inquiries about important matters like, "Just how does a Pleiadian have sex?" Then, "Just how many digits and extremities do you have?" and "Give us a rundown on the universe." (in 3 minutes) and, "---give us the cure for cancer and THEN we will believe you!" Then the calls began from "listeners". The program picked up greatly at one point--a beautiful young man of nine years of age named Michael called and we had a beautiful moment or two until the "idiot" broke in and said "enough, what do you think of this 'lady' (after having explained translator/frequency and inviting the host to 'tune in'). Then came the car phone with important inquiries about the status of your problems who wanted to know about hotdogs, weiners and other symbolic "things", and then there was one calling in from his patio--from Sirius but actually from "Uranus", "Upuranus", etc. I suggested that I knew, then, where his head was located--at which there was appreciative communication. This went on with suggestions that Dharma was Desiree' and married to George and we finally got over that one to bumble into worse sarcasm at which point it was suggested "that lady should be locked away", etc., etc., etc.

I admit that I was a bit less than adoring to the person who called himself, and insisted that I call him, General--Inquirer General--of the World Headquarters or something equally as stupid and silly. Then, when I demanded that he shut his mouth and then I would speak--after I got perhaps three serious sentences forth--he disconnected the network.

Now what do we have here? Wondrous things! If you play into these brainless morons--you deserve that which you get; however, to expose your children to this behavior and crudeness and disrespect of ANY other being is that which your society shall become as surely as day follows night--and this was "Prime after-school listening".

No one who had a serious question was allowed on the line and the ones who DID come on are the very type who find it totally entertaining to beat and mug little eighty year old ladies. Actually, they simply had a lark going and I can appreciate as much but to the universe, my friends, this appears as ludicrous as that which they did to the one you called Christ in Jerusalem before they crucified him. As a matter of fact, these ones knew not to whom they spoke--MARK MY WORDS FOR ONE DAY THEY SHALL, AND IT WILL BE MOST AMUSING ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE FACE.

Why would I tolerate such a thing? To allow George to know that if ever he is received in such ludicrous manner--he is to terminate the conversation and make sure the "public" is informed WHY he is closing the interview. Secondly, Dharma has to realize that I WILL be participating for you--the-people have a right to interrogate me and my brothers. You would think nothing of a phone call and if you understood not the language you would have an interpreter--no more and no less. Thirdly, I needed to experience how bad it can be (which is, at best, smart-ass foolishness and immaturity from one who sets himself up as a voice of informative information) and fourthly, I gave in--I zapped him. How? I made sure I was heard by the listeners who tuned in expecting to hear me! They swamped the station following the non-interview and now, I understand that I shall be asked to participate next week--again, for a public apology for the entire incident. There are MANY WAYS TO ZAP.

Man is actually sick of this kind of nonsense and drivel. Man wants respect for his own intelligence--you see, the inference is that you--the people are stupid and will accept and add to--anything without depth, without compassion, without desire for more than sick humor at another's expense. NO, NO, NO--YOU-THE-PEOPLE ARE NOT STUPID, YOU HAVE BEEN LIED TO BY IDIOTS EXACTLY LIKE THAT NAME--ONOFF--THAT IS PLEIADIAN FOR A WORD I HOPE FEW OF YOU CAN DEFINE!

Do I blame such a person for a bit of fun? Of course not--God created "humor" and I most certainly expect some--in fact, I often create quite a bit on my own. That has nothing to do with the point. I just want you to know that I appreciate that a lot of you can see and "feel" beyond the moment. I appreciate the man for he created a great opportunity for some serious sharing and if I knew which day I would be asked to share again, I would share it. If you are in Florida--he claims to be the most important and biggest wealth of information in the state--actually the world--hence "World Headquarters" although he would not give me information as to just WHAT is or was the World Headquarters nor of WHAT. I had some suggestions which he failed to appreciate. I believe his name was Jack Cole. I do not give the name tongue in cheek, for you must learn to recognize the beauty and gift from EVERY situation--regardless of the appearance of the moment.

I did not mean to belabor this incident for it has not even the brush of interest to me--but frankly, my scribe needed an explanation from ME for in the ending it is my PEOPLE who bear the "cross". I must remind you all--the house of cards is about to crash. Neither is it acceptable to have a city or state filled with people to have to be branded with the same iron as that of three or four persons out to have fun at your expense. Believe me, precious ones, if we didn't know better than that, we would not be here! So be it.

Now let us turn to worthy work and information.

Since so much great wealth and hoopla is being foisted off on you and your "victorious" troops returning home--or something--I know that the parades and show is for a far different purpose than touted--but that aside, what have your national leaders and military hierarchy to say about the abandoned POW's SINCE YOUR FIRST WORLD WAR?

I can only warn you that what is going on behind the facade of all this patriotism is the most heinous entrapment of a nation ever perpetrated upon a planet.

While you give another billion and a half dollars in grain to the Soviet Union and billions of dollars in money--you had better look at that which "they" are REALLY doing--and moreover, you had better PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE RUSSIAN ELECTION AND YELTSIN. You are facing the most crucial time in your global history--and what of the Chinese? You had best remove the rose glasses, fireworks, yellow ribbons and flags from your eyes and see what else is going on!

Let us speak of those POW's.

ABANDONED POW's

Since at least World War I (which was started and financed, orchestrated and utilized by the same cartel Elite), the U.S. government has abandoned prisoners of war and soldiers missing in action in pursuit of other foreign policy objectives.

According to a report released by the minority staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the U.S. government's claim that the POW/MIA issue is given "the highest national priority" contains very little truth. "Instead", the report states, "other considerations emerge: grand visions of a foreign policy of peace and reconciliation; desire for a new economic order of trade and investment; ideological imperatives to downplay the hostility of antagonistic systems; and the natural tendency of the bureaucracy to eliminate its workload by filing cases marked "CLOSED".

The report, commissioned at the behest of Sen. Jesse Helms, examined hundreds of documents, many of which were recently declassified and found a pattern of the government denying the existence of POW's and MIA's and attempting to disprove all live sightings. (Now, please, I do ask that you refer back to the past few Expresses regarding this matter.)

Most recently, servicemen missing in Southeast Asian countries have been the victims of the government's policy to classify all MIA's as killed in action. Under the U.S. Code, a government agency may claim a missing person dead "after the person has been missing for 12 months under circumstances indicating he/she may have died", according to the report.

During the Carter administration, a Department of Defense (DOD) commission concluded that, "In the absence of evidence to the contrary, April 1, 1973 is the last date when members of the U.S. armed forces were held prisoners of war by a hostile force in Southeast Asia."

All other MIA's are presumed to be dead.

METHODOLOGY

In an attempt to strengthen their conclusion, the DOD uses a methodology for identification of remains returned to the U.S. that is less than stringent. According to the report: "If measured against courtroom body identification and death evidence criteria these cases would not be acceptable in court proceedings, except to infer or to provide circumstantial evidence, that something happened to human beings at that given location."

"Furthermore, a scientific evaluation of remains identification methodology used by DOD can be most politely described as not being based on any known and accepted forensic procedures."

In a recent example of the lax identification procedures, on October 5, 1990 "remains" of four servicemen presumed to have died in a helicopter crash in Laos were buried at Arlington National Cemetery. The DOD later admitted that two of the caskets containing "remains" were, in fact, empty. The remains used to identify all four servicemen consisted of two teeth and a handful of bone fragments.

There is evidence that one of the four servicemen "buried at Arlington" actually survived the crash. A report by a Laotian eyewitness claims that one of the Americans was taken to a prison camp run by the communist Pathet Lao where he eventually died. The Laotian witness correctly identified a photograph of the serviceman, a Capt. Nelson. Despite this evidence, the DOD determined the Laotian was not credible, and maintained that Nelson is buried at Arlington.

NO FOLLOW THROUGH

This type of analysis of evidence relating to MIA's has become commonplace at the DOD. From the Vietnam War alone, the U.S. government has at least 1,400 first-person live sighting reports. Yet the U.S. government "has not judged a single one of these thousands of reports to be credible". In its research, the minority staff "found a predisposition by DOD evaluators to ignore corroborative evidence, and little interest to follow up what normal researchers would consider as good leads."

The report concludes that "DOD evaluators are more intent upon upholding the validity of the 1973 'no-evidence' (that there were more POW's still alive in all of Indochina) statement," as though "no-evidence" were a policy rather than a description of fact.

But according to a former staffer at the National Security Agency, the North Vietnamese returned less than 15 percent of the American servicemen they held as prisoners of war. In a sworn affidavit the official claims that more than 4,000 Americans remained in Vietnam after Operation Homecoming which was to result in the release of all American POW's at the cessation of hostilities in 1973.

The policy to ignore POW's for the "greater good" of achieving other foreign policy goals is not restricted to the Vietnam era. A CIA intelligence report confirmed that hundreds of Negro soldiers were held by the North Koreans and Soviets during the Korean War. A State Department request to the Soviet Union to acknowledge the existence of these prisoners was met by the indignant claim that the U.S. allegation "is devoid of any foundation whatsoever and is clearly farfetched, since there are not and have not been any U.S. citizens in the Soviet Union."

The State Department accepted the Soviets' denial in the interest of preventing the escalation of conflict in Korea.

AMERICANS HELD BY KOREANS

According to another memorandum by the Assistant Secretary of the Army in January, 1954, over 1,000 Americans being held prisoner by the North Koreans should be classified as killed in action. His justification for this was "that to continue to carry these personnel in a missing status is costing $1 million annually."

The lives of American servicemen were sacrificed for budgetary concerns.

As World War II drew to a close, the Allies drew up a repatriation agreement at Yalta allowing for displaced nationals and prisoners of war to be returned to their native country. After the Allied victory, it was reported that 76,000 Americans remained in the Soviet sphere of control. But after six days of meeting to achieve their repatriation, Gen. R.W. Barker, chief negotiator for the United States, concluded that:

"There is every indication that the Russians (Soviets) intend to make a big show of rapid repatriation of our men, although I am of the opinion that we may find a reluctance to return them all, for an appreciable time to come, since those men constitute a valuable bargaining point"; and "American prisoners of war were, in effect, being held hostage by the Russians until deemed expedient by them (the Soviets) to permit their release."

Instead of allowing this information and that derived from prisoners who had escaped the Soviets to be publicly disseminated, it was official government policy to "censor all stories" and "delete criticism of Russian treatment" in an effort to strengthen the public perception that the Soviet Union was a firm ally of the U.S.

NOW PAY ATTENTION!

Do you actually believe the bombing strike by Iraq into the barracks of your men in Saudi Arabia (AFTER the war, literally) was an accident??? You had better open your eyes and ears--what do they tell you? They say that you had incredible accuracy with your "machinery" and "Patriots" and Israel couldn't say enough about the systems---AND THEN YOU HAVE A DIRECT HIT ON A BARRACKS. YOU HAD BETTER CHECK IT OUT--BECAUSE I AM HERE TO TELL YOU THAT IT WAS NO ACCIDENT--THOSE MILITARY PERSONNEL IN THAT BUILDING WERE NOT GOING TO BE ALLOWED TO COME HOME BECAUSE THEY KNEW TOO MUCH AND WOULD TELL! THE REASON THEY WERE IN THOSE PARTICULAR BARRACKS IN THE FIRST PLACE WAS TO BASICALLY INCARCERATE THEM.

Dear ones, you are dealing with ones of NO CONSCIENCE AND NEW WORLD ORDER AT ANY AND ALL COSTS.

NOW FOR YOUR SHUTTLE FLIGHT

You don't have a crew running around in weightless space, either--and how do I know? Look at the scene with all the cute little jellyfish and tumbling crew members in this "weightlessness". Where is your mind?

Do you spend billions of dollars to send a crew and jellyfish into space orbit to study the effects of "weightlessness"? Come, come--that is done right on earth in any vacuum chamber--and WAS! Number two observation: all you have to do to not have the problem of weightlessness is give more atmospheric compression and electromagnetic stabilization--an extremely inexpensive and easily accomplished event in which you no longer have to deal with the inconvenience nor stupidity of weightlessness!!! Do you actually believe that all we space personnel have to fly around the craft bashing into everything? So what are they really doing? Well, I certainly hope you find out before your entire world is blown away, for you are close indeed!

In closing, I am going to ask for a reprinting and YOUR RE-READING of the:

COMMUNIST RULES FOR REVOLUTION

This document is affirmed that it was and still is a part of the communist program. It was first published in 1919.

In May of 1919, at Dusseldorf, Germany, the Allied Forces obtained a copy of some of the "Communist Rules for Revolution". They are still being followed:

A. Corrupt the young; get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness.

B. Get control of all means of publicity, thereby:

1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and plays and other trivialities.

2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

3. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and disgrace.

4. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.

5. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

6. Incite unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.

7. By specious argument, cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues--honesty, sobriety, self-restraint, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.

C. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the populations helpless.

That is a nice list, isn't it? Now, I ask you to stop to ponder--how many of these rules are being carried out in this nation today? How many have already COME TO PASS?

What can you do and where can you start? You SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION--DO NOTHING IN AGREEING TO ANY DEVIATION FROM THAT DOCUMENT! DEMAND ACCOUNTABILITY! COMMAND AND DEMAND RESPECT FOR THAT AND THOSE WHOM GOD HAS SENT IN RESPONSE TO YOUR PETITION FOR ASSISTANCE. IT IS UP TO YOU!

Salu,

Hatonn to clear.

6/13/91 HATONN
THURSDAY

As you ones' are ready to go to press with the Express I shall effort at brevity of this initial portion of this writing: you NEED the information.

CLUES

It is not that this news is NEW, it is that it has been released publicly that gives it worthy notice.

The world banking system is now under ONE organized unit and will begin acting as such immediately. THE WORLD--ALL OF IT--IS INTO FORECLOSURE BY THAT BANK UNIT AND AMERICA IS AMONG THE ONES ALREADY PLACED IN BANKRUPTCY--YOU ARE HELPLESS UNLESS YOU RECLAIM RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND BANKRUPT THAT BANK! THIS IS A RED/PURPLE/BLUE AND BLACK CODE ALERT!!! THE NOOSE TIGHTENS AND ALREADY YOU CANNOT BREATHE.

Headline: SWITZERLAND SAYS NO TO NO-NAME BANK ACCOUNTS.

ZURICH, Switzerland (Associated Press release): The Federal Banking Commission [This is the "World" Bank Comm.] on Friday [5/3/91--release had already been secured for weeks] formally adopted measures to abolish anonymous bank accounts, long used by dictators, drug dealers, spies and other secretive people to hide their money [please note the inferred degrading implication that all using privacy are criminal elements].

The commission announced it was doing away with the so-called "Form B", which allowed lawyers and trust administrators to make deposits in Swiss banks on behalf of clients without disclosing their names.

The announcement had been widely expected [Yes, and all who already had private accounts could be assured they were "grandfathered and exempt" from the new ruling--also giving all the elements involved time to secure new and adequate accounts for present and future needs. It was just you-the-people who were not informed until after the fact so that YOU could attain no privacy.]; details of the measures adopted Friday were disclosed April 9. [Did you get your copy in the mail?]

Use of the "Form B" accounts will be abolished as of July 1, and banks will have until Sept. 30, 1992 to ask current Form B depositors to identify their clients, the commission said. [Big Chance!!]

If the depositors refuse to disclose the identities, the banks are required to cease the business relationship. [So what, they have already built in at least 12 ways to avoid disclosing the personal information.]

The announcement and other proposals made recently [and, these, dear ones, are what you had better check up on because these "other proposals" WILL affect you nice world citizens in all countries, as well] are aimed at closing gaps in legislation passed in August that for the first time made money-laundering a crime in Switzerland.

Switzerland historically has been a haven for the profits of illegal financial dealings such as organized crime and drug rings. Its tough bank secrecy laws created big problems for U.S. and European money-laundering probes.

The government in March also proposed banking reforms that would allow financial officials to blow the whistle on money-laundering schemes; provide fines of up to $7.3 million for money laundering and grant greater powers to magistrates to seize assets allegedly linked to money laundering.

VOLCANOS

Now that you are focused on the possibility of eruption of silent volcanos--PAY ATTENTION. This is going to be harder to accept, little ones, but you have activity which is already showing visibly from the San Francisco Peaks in Flagstaff, Az. KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN!

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of
The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT
The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.
Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 1

6/13/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

As you ones are ready to go to press with the Express I shall effort at brevity of this initial portion of this writing: you NEED the information.

CLUES

It is not that this news is NEW, it is that it has been released publicly that gives it worthy notice.

The world banking system is now under ONE organized unit and will begin acting as such immediately. THE WORLD--ALL OF IT--IS INTO FORECLOSURE BY THAT BANK UNIT AND AMERICA IS AMONG THE ONES ALREADY PLACED IN BANKRUPTCY--YOU ARE HELPLESS UNLESS YOU RECLAIM RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND BANKRUPT THAT BANK! THIS IS A RED/PURPLE/BLUE AND BLACK CODE ALERT!!! THE NOOSE TIGHTENS AND ALREADY YOU CANNOT BREATHE.

Headline: SWITZERLAND SAYS NO TO NO-NAME BANK ACCOUNTS.

ZURICH, Switzerland (Associated Press release): The Federal Banking Commission [This is the "World" Bank Comm.] on Friday [5/3/91--release had already been secured for weeks] formally adopted measures to abolish anonymous bank accounts, long used by dictators, drug dealers, spies and other secretive people to hide their money [please note the inferred degrading implication that all using privacy are criminal elements].

The commission announced it was doing away with the so-called "Form B", which allowed lawyers and trust administrators to make deposits in Swiss banks on behalf of clients without disclosing their names.

The announcement had been widely expected [Yes, and all who already had private accounts could be assured they were "grandfathered and exempt" from the new ruling--also giving all the elements involved time to secure new and adequate accounts for present and future needs. It was just you-the people who were not informed until after the fact so that YOU could attain no privacy.]; details of the measures adopted Friday were disclosed April 9. [Did you get your copy in the mail?]

Use of the "Form B" accounts will be abolished as of July 1, and banks will have until Sept. 30, 1992 to ask current Form B depositors to identify their clients, the commission said. [Big Chance!!]

If the depositors refuse to disclose the identities, the banks are required to cease the business relationship. [So what, they have already built in at least 12 ways to avoid disclosing the personal information.]

The announcement and other proposals made recently [and, these, dear ones, are what you had better check up on because these "other proposals" WILL affect you nice world citizens in all countries, as well] are aimed at closing gaps in legislation passed in August that for the first time made money-laundering a crime in Switzerland.

Switzerland historically has been a haven for the profits of illegal financial dealings such as organized crime and drug rings. Its tough bank secrecy laws created big problems for U.S. and European money-laundering probes.

The government in March also proposed banking reforms that would allow financial officials to blow the whistle on money-laundering schemes; provide fines of up to $7.3 million for money laundering and grant greater powers to magistrates to seize assets allegedly linked to money laundering.

VOLCANOS

Now that you are focused on the possibility of eruption of silent volcanos--PAY ATTENTION. This is going to be harder to accept, little ones, but you have activity which is already showing visibly from the San Francisco Peaks in Flagstaff, Az. KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN!

6/13/91 #4 HATONN

NOW FOR MONEY SITUATION, I.E. DOLLARS, ETC.

Oberli, it is all but impossible to predict where your dollar is going to bounce off the walls. The market, of course, remains the potential "draw" of tens of billions of dollars. Through the process of drawing in foreign capital, the goal can be reached of a mere few months more delay in a collapse of the Dollar. If this fails in enticing the capital back, the Dollar would begin to sink and there would be no stopping it--i.e., Sharri would be in a good position in pounds but as the dollar goes so will go the pounds--probably, for the whole system is rigged--headed for one world currency.

The present exchange rates are not actually reflective of ANY conditions but rather manipulation.

The April run up in the U.S. Dollar, for instance, was orchestrated through Kuwait and Saudi Arabia--and in no way reflects the underlying economic conditions in the U.S.--vs the conditions in other countries. There was a raid against hard currencies which is proven--through the "foreign" press.

The dollar will be called in--and massively devalued against gold and foreign currencies.

Let's talk gold as for gold's sake. This can't be much better than where the money is if the only intent is to purchase gold and allow it to sit--because it will be confiscated. I still feel that probably the only way to salvage funds is to get out as you can break even and run through Institute on a "loan" situation utilizing the gold as collateral. What they will do with gold is as bad as with the dollar. The dollar cannot hold level because of the deliberate "raids" or, rather, "artificial purchases" secretly agreed to by the Middle Eastern States.

With the Dollar moving around, the interest rate spread becomes too irresistible, as the higher interest rate return is enhanced by the prospect of an extra profit in the fall of the Dollar against Sterling and the German Mark. It is true, after all, that Kuwait and Saudi Arabia only have so much money to invest in a sinking currency. With the U.S. economy in a shambles, and debts overwhelming the country--the dollar will have to fall. But, as the banks move to recover it will be chaos and all currencies will be bounced about which will lead to the necessity of that one world currency. It is nerve-racking to say the very least.

Now look what happened here a while back--As part of their "monetary desert storm" follow-up to the Gulf War, Kissinger and associates have organized the dumping of Sterling and Gold to help make the Dollar "look good" and prevent an immediate collapse. In exchange for the rigging and dumping of the markets, etc., the arrangement lets U.S. banks be controlled by Saudis--at least on the surface. But you see, in April there was a large selling of gold on behalf of clients in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait (and elsewhere in the Middle East)--just ahead of the morning price-fixing session in London on April 25th. As a result, the fix lasted much longer than usual--almost an hour--and the gold price dropped just long enough.

Therefore, it becomes obvious that gold, as such, is just a tool of the big-boys, also. The Pound Sterling was also hit the same day--by the same bank--and the same people.

Further, Gold AND Oil are rigged by collusion. Exchange prices of both gold and oil are under pressure from federal officials to stay within certain limits. Of course, now you must also look at what is happening to the "grain" reserves, growing fields and futures. It is really getting serious and alternatives are less easy to predict.

Of course, whatever funds are gleaned against the gold will also in some measure be depreciated but it still seems the better part of wisdom to put what can be put to work, to work. The Elite are not going to swing aside easily--if at all.

SWITZERLAND/BANKS

The reason that it is best in the current circumstances to get clear of the Swiss banks is that there is great confusion and consternation and lies floating about. If the smoke is boiling--the fire is sure to erupt at any moment.

What is actually a fact is that the Globalists are efforting to gain control of the few banks in the world which have offered resistance to their games. It is over, but there is still some level of battle still under way.

The regulation which I wrote about this morning ACTUALLY has to do ONLY with account holders who had hired an attorney to represent them in dealing with the bank.

At this point not one in ten thousand Swiss bank depositors are involved in such arrangements. Those who have tens of millions of dollars or more typically hire an attorney to deal with a bank in Switzerland. Yet, because of these arcane regulations, the establishment press relentlessly and viciously lies to you newspaper readers and wire service clients to the effect that Switzerland has outlawed secret bank accounts. These banks are hated because they are still solvent and won't yet play ball with the Zionists according to the rules of the Zionists.

The point, however, in our local instance--is not what is being done at this very moment--for I would most certainly recognize the value of some Swiss accounts WITH-OUT the use of an attorney--but it gets so hard to arrange properly without knowledge of the system. As America becomes "globalized" and "new ordered" it will be all but impossible to retrieve any assets from anywhere so the best bet is to handle everything through corporations and stick close.

Very soon now, you can expect a clamping down on loans against annuities--just another way to hold assets until they are lost (or gained) depending on which side of the fence you work.

Enough--it is late and we are weary. Thank you, Dharma. Good evening. Hatonn to clear.

6/14/91 HATONN
FRIDAY

SEX, MONEY & POLITICS

Truth in advertising? Hatonn present in service and heaped with bunches of inquiries. The "sex" in the heading is false advertising--I am going to speak about assets but that is already boring to ones with few assets with which to concern themselves. I see that as we pick up new readers, there is great lack of understanding about that which we speak. We will start with a brief outline of that which is political in importance. ALL is important but we obviously cannot repeat all--so let us give general outlay and definition concerning who controls what and intent through that political coalition.

MERGER OF U.S. U.S.S.R. & E.E.C.

Note of something important regarding the above heading--China is absent therefrom. The above is, of course, the United States, the Soviet Union and Europe.

The subject in point is world-wide control through world government. The immediate goal of the Combine is the merger of Europe into a single-nation state, which is expected to be completed by 1992. In addition, it is their goal to finalize and complete the merger of the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. which began many decades ago at the Russian Revolution in 1917--when certain New York bankers financed the Zionist takeover of Czarist Russia. The Zionists are self-styled, so-called "Jews" (having taken the title for themselves--and having a political/religious thrust through the Talmud). These are in no wise of the Hebrew/Judean/Judaist "faith" according to Old Testament reference. They are from Russian, Nordic and Mongol lineage and CHOSE Judaism as a religion. I will not take time to give more on that point. However, they are Khazars--not Judeans--and have no real connection to Palestine at all, save taking what they wanted via the UN. If you haven't heard of them, sic, sic, because the Khazar Empire lasted some four centuries--THE Empire, I might add. This portion of history has been deliberately and methodically removed from your attention as a world population.

TRILATERAL "ZIONIST" COMMISSION

Don't go crazy on me--and stop the smug, Elite attitude. Zionist is a word taken for this movement for world control and certainly is not new nor selective to the so-called "Jews" who aren't "Judean" at all. After all, the Mormons call Salt Lake City, Zion, and referred to themselves as Zionists. These people who shout anti-Semitic at the populace are in a worse derangement regarding this accusation against brothers--because "Semite" is a term for those from the lineage of Shem--THAT IS NOT INCLUSIVE OF A SINGLE ONE OF THE KHAZAR "JUDAISTS". This is a perfect example of the reverse truth (LIES) thrust forth and, if said enough, becomes the rule with not one fragment of truth in the statement.

So-called "Jews" had better wake up and realize that the very term "Jew" did not exist until the 1700's (18th century AD). That was a term conjured by the Khazars. It is well proven that the true ancestors of Western Jewry were not and are not "Semites", but rather from the warrior empire of those Khazars, a mighty power that converted to Judaism in the "Dark Ages", and whose subsequent exodus gave birth to the mainstream of the Jewish people as they now exist.

I suggest that the so-called, self-styled "Jews" take a very good look at that which you have been fed as lies for I assure you this is truth and is NOT a secret if you go research in places which have not destroyed historical material in an effort to fool the world.

So what does this Trilateral "Zionist" Commission (TLC) want and who are they?

The TLC is the private group founded by David Rockefeller in 1973, designed to be a super-sophisticated off-shoot of the much older and larger Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and of the European Bilderberg Society. These groups are frequently referred to in the independent press by many names, but most frequently as the "Trilateral Combine" or the "Globalists" and their policies are most frequently referred to as "Globalism".

The "Combine" is, for all practical purposes, a super high-level illegal political party. Their first candidate for president was carefully groomed and hand picked, none other than sweet little James Earl Carter in 1974. Now again, this is brief and does not indicate that you were not already under total political "fixing" of elections--for you were well under control of the shadow since Rothschild. This is when all came popping forth in total control. David Rockefeller managed to dupe the Democratic National Committee in 1972 into believing that Jimmy Carter was a Democrat, when in reality he was a "Trilateralist". Today, the Trilateral Combine controls BOTH the Republican National Committee and the Democratic National Committee from behind the scenes. Michael Dukakis was selected as a FALL GUY for the preselected winner of the Zionist Trilateral Party--George Bush.

Stop it: Don't get angry at me for telling you how it is--I only report what IS and YOU better face WHY AND HOW IT IS SUCH.

The Trilateral Combine's political aspirations broke through strict press censorship in February, 1980 during the Republican Primary Campaign of George Bush, when he was competing with Ronald Reagan for the presidential nomination. Things had been in the working and controlling for decades and the stage was right for public take-over. Yes, the same year that George Bush DID GO TO PARIS TO BARGAIN FOR THE RETAINING FOR SOME ADDITIONAL SIX MONTHS--OF YOUR CITIZENS CALLED IRAN HOSTAGES. The 1980 Primary Campaign is a case where the established Press carried stories of the existence of the Trilateral Combine for the first time.

WORLD GOVERNMENT

The goals of the "Combine" are simply world-wide control--through world government, pure and simple. They now control everything from your currency, property, political system to your Constitution, which is already treated as non-existent.

They foster the elimination of nation states, borders, independent currencies, and national governments. They have already written and presented a "new" Constitution and the U.S. is divided into approximately 10-12 "districts" which function federally, already. These will be called "states".

The Combine is anti-American, anti-religious, atheistic, and anti-Christian, anti-Catholic, and anti-Protestant--as well as being anti-Hebrewiac as relative to God. The Combine maintains lock-tight control over the United States through the Republican National Committee which finances destabilization campaigns against certain conservative organizations. The Government (Congress) is controlled (bought) by the "Israeli" lobbies such as the World Zionist Organization and the Anti-Defamation League. Funny thing--Israel has no national product other than weapons and arms--but the U.S. (YOU) pay them over $3 BILLION in CASH and allow immediate tax-free investment back into your government controlled entities--you actually pay Israel some $13 to $15 BILLION per year--without recourse. Plus you are in the process at this moment of stockpiling weapons in Israel and paying for their military, housing, etc.

Alan Greenspan, of the PRIVATE CORPORATION NAMED THE FEDERAL RESERVE CORPORATION (NO TIE EXCEPT IN FINANCING OF SAME, TO YOUR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT), stands by to bring on 20% interest rates if the Combines policies are NOT followed by the United States Senate and the House of Representatives. The Combine functions much as does the Communist Party in the Soviet Union and the Combine has its "Politburo" in the form of David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, and the publishers of the New York Times and The Washington Post, which are the party's two major mouth pieces! However, the Combine controls ALL media--press, motion pictures and television, as well as radio.

GET OUT

Stop and think about it. It is inconceivable that so many crises can befall a nation so quickly. Bank failures, the S&L collapse, now insurance companies and pension plans. It must be clear by now, to you readers, that decisions have been made to allow these events to occur. Indeed, the same group of people have ORGANIZED THE DEBACLES.

The Milken junk bond scheme was pre-conceived by his superiors in New York and in certain foreign capitals. The Federal government securities regulators observed what was going on and were told to "lay off". They knew that Milken was selling fraudulently based securities which would not stand an economic contraction. You will find the same Zionists (by their own projection) cropping up again and again and again in ALL these crises.

AMERICA IS AND HAS BEEN COMPLETELY BANKRUPT FOR WELL OVER A DECADE--THE BANKS NOW HAVE AMERICA AND THE WORLD IN FORECLOSURE--THE LAST STRAW IS YOUR CONSTITUTION AND IT WILL NOW BE SET ASIDE THROUGH EXECUTIVE ORDER BY GEORGE BUSH!

NONE of these financial crises are accidental. They are part of a planned program to bring down the economic strength of your country to that of a third world nation and they have done so, i.e., America is bankrupt and yet the government and Mr. Bush continue to shower billions and billions of dollars all over the world to buy more shackles and strength for the central bank. This Combine has mortgaged EVERY ASSET OF EVERY AMERICAN AND WORLD CITIZEN. THE NEW WORLD WILL BE RUN THROUGH THE "COMBINE".

RUSSIA

Note today, that the summit meeting with Gorbachev and Bush is now postponed until "at least" "fall" while newly elected Yeltsin will be entertained massively next week, by your President. Beloved ones, you are all but on the eve of NUCLEAR ALL-OUT HOLOCAUST FOR RUSSIA DOES NOT WISH TO GIVE UP SOVEREIGNTY TO THE BEAST NOR DOES CHINA AND THEY STILL OUTNUMBER YOU AT LEAST FIVE TO ONE. Will you be able to buy Russia? Who knows? You are bankrupt at any rate and the funds worthless--the dollar is worthless.

I suggest you keep your change and get ready for a monetary exchange of somewhere in devaluation of 10 to 100--for they have not yet decided which it will be and this is the way the computer system has been staged for immediate operation capability.

You can purchase gold but they plan to make it illegal tender at some point and they also plan to freeze all bank accounts and safety deposit boxes and at some point early on, confiscate all precious metals.

Again, I see no real alternatives which will assure you of holding any assets for the intent is to strip you of ALL ASSETS! That means, chelas--ALL ASSETS, PROPERTY, CURRENCY, ETC.

I can only suggest you consider getting out of those defaulting institutions (all of them) ASAP, like last month. The stock market climb is for the purpose of sucking in investors and capturing all assets caught in the collapse. The dollar will be worthless at some point early-on here and with it will fall all international currency values--so I suggest you get out of that also. You are headed for the "Mother of all depressions". By the way, the Iraq War WAS THE MOTHER OF ALL WARS--FOR THAT WAS ONLY THE OPENING SHOT!

Well, what can you do if you have CD's and a bit of money laid aside in investments? I really don't have pat answers for hoarding cash in great amounts will also just render it worthless for they will only allow a selected amount for exchange. Gold can be bartered under the table later but it will be difficult in the beginning because you will be watched through the magnifying glass and your society is now set up with "hot lines" and I guarantee you that you cannot so much as dig a hole in your own lawn without being reported to the authorities--already, so what will it be when the blade comes down?

You can invest in gold and have the gold held as collateral against loans--but that is worthless unless you have projects in which to immediately put that money to work for those funds will also come under devaluation of some type.

However, there will be some industry necessary during this period and there are places which will be immediately beginning to build in order to disperse funds--preferably through options and intent to do business but shifting all assets into "business". You can protect quite a large amount of assets if you incorporate in Nevada where there is no reciprocity with the Federal Government--YET. But, you must keep your records in perfection to keep your shield intact.

"Off-shore" accounts are possibly good for a while and so might be some other currency--BUT BEWARE--THE COMBINE WILL DISALLOW THE RETRIEVAL OF ANY OF THOSE FUNDS AT SOME TIME EARLY ON FOR THE POINT IS TO GLEAN ALL ASSETS FROM EVERYWHERE. SO, IF YOU HAVE MONEY IN SWITZERLAND IT MIGHT BE SAFE--BUT THE INTENT IS TO PREVENT YOU FROM UTILIZING IT.

The same with currency of other nations which SHOULD rise in value as the "dollar" devaluates--but that is a planned LIE also--for the intent is ONE WORLD CURRENCY--ALREADY PRINTED AND PARTIALLY DISTRIBUTED, i.e., Soviet Union--from America's printing presses. Now you go with what your innards give you, but I tell you now, the plan is to break you ALL. Doom and gloom? I can't control that portion of your situation, dear ones, I can only report it.

You will have ones like Lawrence Patterson giving you information on investing in foreign accounts and currency and yes, they can give you instructions through his company as to HOW, etc. But he pushes "England" etc., when it is England where the Banksters are most trained to trap you! You are but again a colony of Great Britain with everything owed to the Queen and the Central Banks.

Yes, this is a last ditch effort to get your attention and give input as best we can for the time is up as they pull in the fragments and tighten the noose about your necks.

If you have minimal assets then I don't know what to tell you other than sit tight, cover all you can and put aside some barterable items or at least interim items to sustain you during a period of scarcity. You see, your government has given away all your reserves of grain and sold all future supplies and now your grain fields are infected with molds and fungus which is devastating the major growing areas in your country.

Continue to bury your head if you like and blame Hatonn and space brothers all you want--but please, then, do not turn around as it comes down and say, "Why didn't you tell us?" We have been writing of little else than your soul and your plight since July, two years ago. Others have been at it even longer--for decades.

We ARE sent to pick up the pieces of you who turn unto God in Truth--not to save your ASSETS. But that is up to you--these messages, however, are written directly to God's people, for we are the Hosts sent in response. What you do is up to you--for we are on stand-by and will not interfere. The only interference there will be from the cosmic brothers is when effort is made to bring your annihilation toys into the cosmos and/or totally destroy your planet.

By the way, I need to set the record straight regarding the message I gave yesterday about the Swiss Banks and "no-name" accounts. What I gave you was "establishment" press item. As a matter of fact, the regulations are for accounts handled by go-between attorneys. If a man wants to go in and put ten thousand dollars, or whatever, into the bank in Switzerland, he is still given privacy. The INTENT is to stop that procedure for ALL--AFTER THE ELITE ARRANGE THEIR OWN ACCOUNTS--but you-the-people will soon be disallowed from getting your assets OUT, at any rate, as travel becomes totally guarded and controlled as well as the declaration of all assets coming or going from the U.S., etc. Oh yes, they have thought of everything--so your only alternative, as I look at probabilities, is that which we have already pointed out. And, if you don't SAVE THAT WONDROUS CONSTITUTION--you are down the tubes, hook, line and sinker.

Truth of the matter--wait and see! The validity of a prophet is if what is given comes to pass--every time. The only thing in question here--as far as intent of the "Combine"--is when is most propitious--BUT, NO LATER THAN HAVING THE SYSTEM IN WORKING ORDER AND WORKING, BY YEAR 2000! That means a lot of stuff has to start coming down the funnel NOW and in the NEAR FUTURE--SO GUNS HAVE TO GO SO THAT YOU ARE DEFENSELESS AND ALL ASSETS HAVE TO BE GOTTEN FROM YOU. SO BE IT.

SUNUNU

You think Sununu was ill used? Not disciplined enough? Didn't think about it at all? And, what of the shifting going on with CIA, etc.

The plan is simply coming together while the Zionists line up their final battle leaders. Sununu actually forgot briefly that he worked for the Combine. Proof of the existence of this Zionist clique running the U.S. government can be clearly seen in the humiliating flap over White House Chief of Staff John Sununu's use of military jets over the past two years. This is a clear case of how the Trilateralist/Zionist government maintains TIGHT CONTROL over the administration--and has done so in the past--since being able to force Nixon out of the Oval office in 1974. Everyone understands the "power" in Washington. Sununu must take his instructions from Kissinger's employees or else face humiliation, disgrace and even firing. What is the problem? SU-

NUNU IS NOT GETTING ENOUGH OF THE DIRTY WORK ACCOMPLISHED!

For instance, what? The Combine wants a major bill passed by Congress--and that bill is the banking reform legislation to provide the sanctioning of the sale of and underwriting securities by the banks (which they are already doing "illegally" now). I have just recently written details about this bill which WILL get passed by the way! Sununu has failed to do a good enough job in getting the bill passed with the provisions the Combine wants integrated.

The warning is clear as a bell--don't forget who you work for--and get the jobs given to you, DONE--that you are instructed to by the messengers that come from Kissinger's office (in this case--Treasury Secretary James Brady). The Sununu case should convince the most skeptical reader that you have lost control of your country and your administration to foreign agents.

Chiefs of Staff in the past have routinely taken military flights without any comment from the nation's press. There is nothing wrong with the use of military jets 60 times over the past two years--indeed--it is totally routine. This simply points up that the Zionist power structure can utilize the most innocuous angles to "get" someone if need be. Sununu might be guilty of a lot worse things but he is as clean as the proverbial "whistle" in this matter.

MONEY FROM CAMPAIGN FUNDS

By the way--keep your eye on the politicians. ' There is a new rule afoot wherein when a Congressman retires he can walk away with all remaining campaign funds--i.e., if self-proclaimed Zionist Solarz steps down he steps down with a minimum amount of well over a million and a half dollars in addition to his "retirement" benefits, etc. Chew that for a while before you throw another rock at me.

I have something else for you to ponder before I close:

ARE YOU A FREE MAN??

THIS COMES TO ME FROM THE CONSTITUTIONAL REVIVAL GROUP OF INFIELDT, CONN.:

"Pity the poor, wretched, timid soul who is too faint-hearted to resist his oppressors. He has the intellect of a slave. He sings the song of the damned: ...I can't fight back, I have too much to lose...I own too much property;...I have worked too hard to get what I have;...they will put me out of business if I resist;...I might go to jail;...I have my family to think about.' Such poor miserable creatures have misplaced values and are hiding their cowardice behind pretended family responsibility--blindly refusing to see that the most glorious legacy that one can bequeath to posterity is liberty. And that the only true security is LIBERTY...."

We must give up the idea that we "can't fight back". There are people who are more than receptive to the understanding of the loss of control of our country and the government. Help us by explaining to your friends and acquaintances the grave situation that faces this once great country.

MONETARY "DESERT STORM"

I am asked to take time here, to speak on how this "MONETARY DESERT STORM" is planned so that the people can be so deceived, for it IS difficult to conceive--but simple in orchestration.

First you have to look at interest rates and the purpose of manipulation by the feds. The procedure is supposed to work thusly: billions of dollars are "restless" and with interest rate cuts those dollars would draw much lower interest returns. Thus, those funds would be expected to flow from money market funds--into this stock market being manipulated to pull in massive amounts of money. This gives the appearance of major gains to be made. This in turn is supposed to entice a massive flow of foreign capital back into the U.S. dollar. This would take advantage of the forecasted run in the Dow Jones Industrial Average to 5-6,000. It is not working as smoothly as expected--but then it was actually only supposed to run the market to about 3,500 and at least double or triple gold prices (literally).

To facilitate this "forecasted" (never to occur in reality) there would be a run-up in the Dow Industrial and here, several steps are under way. First of all, money managers are being pressured to adjust portfolios in favor of stocks. Secondly, the calculation of the Dow Jones Industrial Average has been changed to include a few stronger stocks--AND TO HIDE THE EFFECTS OF A RAPIDLY COLLAPSING ECONOMY.

In April the lead analyst for the national brokerage firm of Dean Witter, for instance, was fired because he had refused to increase the stock mix of his recommended portfolio. He was told, in effect, to raise the stock mix or be canned and so, he was fired. The man, according to the Wall Street Journal) chose to quit. Now, dear ones, this was right in the Wall Street Journal, so don't sing the no-news to me. The pressure is heavy, heavy on brokerage firm money managers to move money into stocks--OR ELSE. Look at most of your Money News-Letters and advertisements.

The reason for all this extra-legal pressure is the risk of a collapse in the U.S. Dollar prior to when it is planned by the Combine. As the debts at the federal level continue to pile up and as your foreign debt continues to escalate--it will be more and more difficult to entice investment flows back into the U.S. Dollar.

Only the expectation of massive stock market gains will delay the Dollar devaluation. After all--real estate is certainly NOT GOING TO DRAW IN ANY MONEY. REAL ESTATE IS AS ALL OTHER THINGS--BANKRUPT AND SHORED UP ARTIFICIALLY TO GIVE DELUSION OF GOOD TIMES, CHARLEY.

At the very most, with the stock market manipulated, it remains as the only potential "draw" of dollars. Through the process of drawing in foreign capital--the goal can be reached of a few months more delay in the collapse of the Dollar. It could only postpone the collapse for a few more months, nothing more.

The reason the economy has suffered irreparable damage is as part of the price of the needed reductions in economic activity to merge the Soviet Union and the United States, as well as other aspects to this contrived and criminal dollar manipulation.

While they are talking end of recession, good market, etc., just this day as the shuttle supposedly landed at Edwards, less than 50 miles away another 600-900 employees of Lockheed were laid off--THIS DAY!

By the way the crew of the ship had a lovely flight all the way from Australia--bless 'em all!

HOW DO YOU KEEP ALL THIS FROM THE PUBLIC?

Well, you keep all "INDE-PEN-

DENT" economic analysts off the media and require censoring through the press releases.

With the economy in a state of unmitigated decline, something must be done quickly to gain time; this includes cutting off negative commentary on the economy. To succeed in this, such well-known and respected shows as CNN's Moneyline and Public Television stock market commentaries such as the Nightly Business Report have been ordered to cut off all invitations to independent economists such as Aubrey Landston and Lacey Hunt, etc., now with the Hong Kong Shanghai Banking Corporation, who are no longer seen on these shows. In their place come people from the government or--directly from such Zionist-controlled firms as Goldman Sachs, Salomon Brothers and others who are in on the merger and who profit from it--in other words, the ones who have structured the entire scenario!

If you pay attention to the economic news, you will note that the chief economist at C.J. Lawrence, a subsidiary of Morgan Grenfell, was replaced because of his negative, but correct, reporting. Ed Heiman, the former chief economist at C.J. Lawrence, had provided an accurate picture of the declining money supply in recent years. His outstanding commentary cost him his position and all benefits with his firm.

Other extra-legal procedures are being used to falsify the record of economic activity, and misdirect investment decision-making. You must be very careful to avoid falling into the trap of purposely contrived lies and misinformation--YOU MUST FACE THAT WHICH IS PRESENTED FALSELY UNTO YOU.

I wrote, yesterday, for a personal situation so I simply ask that that portion, with deleted personal information, be added to this document--it had some excellent items which all should have available unto them.

Thank you for your inquiries; forgive us for being unable to answer all personal inquiries but it is impossible to cover it all--background is available in detail in all those 30 Journals and we have no facility for private input. We are not in the business, at any rate, of fortune-telling or foreseeing, except through physical manner, and certainly we force no one to even read the material, much less do anything with it if it pleases you not--all your actions are strictly up to you and your choices.

Neither are we in the business of telling any of you personally--where you SHOULD be. It is no business of mine where you choose to be or what you choose to do. I welcome your comments and general inquiries--I even welcome your personal inquiries but to answer the hundreds of letters is out of the question if we are to get all information to all who await. We treasure every tid-bit of confirmation for it is hard to be on this end of the pen and keys and publish in relative blindness. I believe you can see from the "quantity" of output that there is no time for any other activity and yet, it is our other activities which shall ultimately see you through. I simply ask understanding and that you please do not take it as personal affront if you get no immediate response to your correspondence for we are greatly appreciative of your notes and informative letters. We have a time of difficulty to walk through and we shall do very well if we keep focus on that which is important--GOD, for you will be shown the way as you petition HIM in intent to hear and see.

Hatonn to clear. Thank you for your attention and, Dharma, thank you for your service. Good-day.

6/15/91 #1 SOLTEC
SATURDAY

Antonious Soltec to speak briefly, Dharma; thank you for allowing my communication. I have been asked to comment on the widespread Earth activities. I wish, please, to refrain from any comment of political ramifications of the happenings for it matters not whether an earthquake is precipitated by man or by Mother Terra.

What you must attend is the apparent widespread occurrences which will appear unrelated--no, they are related both to the political and natural realm and they give you clues to possibilities.

As Hatonn told you in the past days--pay attention for there is massive movement in the entire circumference lip of the ring of fire (the Sea of Peace Ocean). I believe it is the Pacific Plate Tectonic, as you refer to it. Please note that Australia is NOT within those boundaries but is THE MOST IMPACTED by movement of the Pacific Plate. There is tremendous activity in the outreach portions of Australia and New Zealand. The Georgia (Soviet Union) is a different matter and is in established upheaval to cause the Soviet Union to remain united for as the Russian Republic becomes republicanized so will the other Bloc nations again rise up and Georgia is one which is already at a level of unacceptable restlessness. It is, of course, far more than that but it is a most dangerous game played when you tamper with Mother Nature. You people of Shan earth are either the most daring or the most foolish beings we have come upon in a very long time of traveling.

The primitive people of the Philippines are terrified, just as are the natives of Australia and New Zealand, for they know the underground is ready to "uncreate" those islands or project up the entire ocean floor--which is going to cause happenings like you can only hold in the imagining. The atmospheric havoc is proof of that activity.

It is the location of Mt. Pinatubo that is most distressing to the Indians of the region for it is a part of the prediction (clues) of changes which would come upon the people and the world (which, of course, to them IS the Philippines and little more). The eruption could have been from Taal, Caniaon, Mayon and it would not have the same meaning as one which is dormant for centuries.

Now please, look to Japan and the earthquakes and rumblings--this is NOT unusual for Japan, but you might well be seeing eruptions of those volcanos in Japan, also, within hours or days. Whether or not you hear of it, there will be great numbers of tremblers in the Aleutians and right down through your chain of volcanos in the North American continent and through the entire circle to the south.

Earth man can precipitate earthquakes but he cannot control the activities very well, of volcanos. He can detonate high level nuclear explosions within the craters or from underground placement but to cause activity in the mountain itself, there has to be a hole opened into the pressure caverns. This is why eruptions mean far more to geologists of the observers in my geologic survey teams, than does all the earthquakes you can produce.

As you study the upheaval in Georgia, U.S.S.R., note its political proximity to both Turkey and Iran, the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea and remember the trouble in Azerbaijan and Armenia, both bordering to the south and to the south-east. You ones must begin to look at the WHOLE and stop using the telescope attached to the kaleidoscope which simply blinds you through visions of colored glass.

The "state" of Georgia (U.S.S.R.), for instance, is a restless nation with many uprisings which have been quelled militarily--against the wishes of "Russia". Russia has over 146 million people to be reckoned with and Georgia has some 5.3 million to which the U.S.S.R. must account. Almost all the states of the Republic will side with Russia as the "party" grows stronger. Ah indeed, Yeltsin is a man with which to be reckoned and aid to little Georgia for earthquake relief may not be sufficient any longer.

Georgia can be most central in damage on an emotional level for it is in the western part of Transcaucasia and contains the largest manganese mines in the world. Well, what could that be worth? Lots! It is often a prime substance in the manufacture of steel, falling into the 6th octave periodic register of Elements, falling into the same octave wherein argon is the seed and running from fifth toward seventh includes potassium, calcium, scandium, titanium, vanadium, chromium, manganese and iron with cobalt on the cusp. So you see, you would have a much higher frequency, or "finer" steel than say, vanadium or chromium. Lower in the octave you have argon, chlorine, sulphur, phosphorus and silicon on the cusp. Moreover, manganese is a relatively low-frequency element and is utilized in producing low-frequency pulse beams. Indeed, the U.S.S.R. would not like to lose that commodity.

Further, Georgia is rich in timber resources and COAL mines. Basic industries are food, textiles, iron, steel but it is resource for grain, tea, tobacco, fruits, grapes and other agricultural related products. To maintain control, the U.S.S.R. MUST control at least Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan and especially the Ukrainian SSR. In the Ukrainian SSR, for instance, are almost 52 million people. Can you now see how frail a reed Mr. unpopular Gorbachev actually is blowing in the winds of possibilities?

I recognize that I am a "geologist" by "trade" but my commission is to study your globe from that particular aspect within the "whole". I could recommend nothing more important to your PHYSICAL input than to get good reference material and KNOW YOUR WORLD. You ones of Earth do not even know your own bodies and almost NOTHING about your planet.

You speak of the "ring of fire" and yet you understand not the connections and why, for instance, eruptions in the Philippines are important! The Pacific plate "generally" outlines the "ring-of-fire" but oh, if you look no further, you are amiss in good judgment for there IS a Philippine plate which has great impact just as does the Indian plate which encompasses Australia. These particular plates are impacted greatly by the movement of the Pacific Plate. Note also that the coastal areas of the volcano chain and the major western coastal fault lines are within the North American portion of the American Plate, while areas of Central America and northern South America are in the Caribbean Plate. South America is in the southern portion of the American Plate. Now, you have to look at the area of Georgia which you will find in the Eurasian Plate which is affected by movement in both the American, Philippine and Pacific Plates. The magnificent Himalayas are the crumpled consequence, for instance, of an Indian plate pushing northward into and under rigid Eurasia.

Do you begin to feel your education is lacking a bit of valid input?

Precious brothers, you simply cannot expect to know nothing about your little world and then expect to be accepted without limits within the universal cosmic order. You as a species (civilization) of human physical beings are still quite in your infancy. There is nothing "wrong" with that, it is just so unlikely that your ability at this stage of development and knowledge allows you to participate in the great federation of the cosmic experience. You grow technologically into inability to control or cope with that which you tinker. You will find your brothers in the cosmos will not be very accepting of your demands in a council wherein you do not even know the tectonic plates of your own planet--and I promise you that the ones who develop the death rays and weapons do not know anything about the working order of your globe--much less do the politicians who control every facet of your existence in your physical experience.

Would this not be the wondrous gift one such as "Inquirer General" Cole COULD give unto his listeners--or would he simply lose those which proclaim him "entertaining"? You see, we of the Command do not understand the insults to your intelligence which you not only tolerate but encourage. "Understand" is not a good word for use herein, for we DO understand what is happening and what is intended by your would-be King Masters, but our difficulty is the lack of expectation on the part of you-the-people to stand against the insults upon your experience.

I believe it should not have to be from an alien being that you should be gaining your education regarding these matters--it should be from your learned teachers at your universities and kindergartens. DO YOU NOT REALIZE THERE IS AN ADULT WITHIN EACH OF YOU TRYING TO GET OUT?

Hatonn and Dharma are going to bring forth some very interesting information which might be worthy of your attention; you keep working with the thin person trying to get out from the overweight trap; the inner child coming into protection--NO, NO, NO! Within each is an ADULT trying to get past the whole lot of the garbage! Beyond the tending teddy bears. I believe Hatonn will have you cuddle your Constitution and NOT your teddy bear and binkie. Haven't all of you slept with your binkie long enough??

When God says "come as children unto me", He doesn't mean with binkie and bunny--he means with curiosity, flexibility and eagerness to come into KNOWLEDGE with Himself--he cares not about your sexual, physical food preferences nor other of the physicalness--YOU MUST COME INTO KNOWING THAT ALL OF THOSE THINGS ARE OF THE FLESH PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE AND YOU--YOU--WILL COME INTO MATURITY AND KNOWLEDGE OR YOU WILL LINGER WITHIN THAT SHROUD OF DISCONTENT AND RESTLESSNESS. SO BE IT.

You-the-people are on the brink of allowing the Puppet-Masters to commit Particle/Atomic Suicide of a Planet. Is it not time you gave up your binkie and stopped this insanity?

I see that I have outstayed my welcome and will, therefore, give my appreciation--with a reminder or two. Within the next few years of your counting, things are going to heat up from your own place (I DO NOT MEAN GLOBAL WARMING BS) and from your atmosphere--you are going to have a lot of radioactive debris pouring back in on your orb and if you don't get with the program and petition assistance, you are going to all get a very big hotfoot.

I ask in closing, Dharma, that you reproduce an article you will find regarding the solar flares--also nonsense as projected but deadly if the cover-up does NOT STOP!

Release: Thurs., June 13, 1991.
New York Times News Service
[This is THE ESTABLISHMENT MIS/DIS-INFORMATION RE-SOURCE]:

Waves of charged particles thrown off by the sun have caused renewed disturbances in Earth's magnetic field in recent days, disrupting radio communications and apparently disabling power transmission equipment in Virginia.

At midday Wednesday, a new wave of the particles hit the magnetic field, indicating that "we're beginning a very disturbed period," said David Speich, a scientist at the Space Environment Laboratory of the national Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, in Boulder, Colo. His agency predicted that as a result of the disturbance the Northern Lights could be visible as far south as Tulsa, Okla. [This is a setup to allow for all manners of sky activity without a person questioning 'why or what!']

A round of disturbances, which scientist call geomagnetic storms, began June 4 [Let's see now, you launched the pre-missiles and then the shuttle on - -?], in response to a disturbance on the sun three days earlier. Solar flares have sent waves of protons and electrons toward Earth, literally pushing the planet's magnetic field. When the field moves through Earth's crust, it generates electric currents, which can jump into power lines and disrupt transmission equipment. [I suppose this is the same technique that HIV virus uses to "jump" from person to person or fleas onto a dog? If this were true then why do you need ANY other kind of electricity production????]

The Virginia Electric and Power co., said three capacitor banks failed simultaneously Monday. The capacitors are used to maintain voltage on transmission lines.

"It didn't present any extraordinary problems to us," said Larry W. Ellis, senior vice president of the power company, because the demand for power was not at a peak.

If a geomagnetic storm caused transmission to fail at a time when the system was fully loaded, some experts say, a wide-scale blackout could result.

The particles also disrupt the ionosphere, a layer of charged particles. In some kinds of radio transmissions, the ionosphere is used to bounce the signals back toward Earth.

In addition, the particles can deliver a radiation dose to passengers on airplanes on trans-polar flights, including most flights from the United States to Europe. [If I were you, I would be shaking in my booties and binkie about now!]

As the solar storm deforms the magnetic field, it increases the size of the polar region--the effect that makes the Northern Lights visible so far south. The particles are drawn to the polar region and, interacting with molecules of the atmosphere or aircraft, can shake loose neutrons, which then irradiate people. [I have never heard more insulting hog-slop in my experience.]

By some estimates, the dose on a single flight, especially at high altitude, can be twice as large as for many diagnostic X-rays.

If the solar storm intensifies, [which they undoubtedly plan to develop] it could add slightly to the dose of radiation that people on the ground routinely receive from the sun and other stars. [Getting ready to blame God, perhaps, and faulty ozone layers and greenhouse effect and blah, blah, blah for the radiation deaths which they intend to now dump on you-the-people? If you don't wake up--you won't EVER be allowed to wake up in this "walk-through".

I suggest that no one, i.e., T.D., write in unless he has some verification of the above account--AS I PRESENT IT, for you will not get further explanation of "what they are doing to you now" from us--YOU BETTER GET BUSY AND TEND THAT CONSTITUTION AND OTHER MATTERS AND DEMAND TRUTH--NOT A BIT OF "EARLY" INFORMATION AND GOSSIP FROM US. Ignorance might be "bliss" but it sure is going to wipe out a planet! So be it.

Soltec to clear, please. I believe that I am being now asked to turn the forum over to Germain instead of Gyeorgos and therefore I again thank you for your attention and petition you to give thought to these things come upon you for they are indeed urgent to your journey and the outcome of your journey. I salute you and sincerely suggest you begin to study most carefully the lies given to cover the Elite actions. Salu.

6/15/91 #2 GERMAIN

COMMENT FROM GERMAIN

Before I take leave, please allow comment on an observation regarding the "child" vs "adult". You are experiencing in an illusion of differing "characters". I would caution all of you to ponder that which I am going to say regarding the "child". God asks that you come in "child-like" manner. HE DOES NOT SAY "CHILDISH". "Child-like" is represented in proper maturity of given stature of growth retaining the curious and seeking after KNOWLEDGE regarding his world and being. "Childish" is a pretense at being something which you are most definitely NOT. There is great difference in projection and that which you might think to be cute and "child-like" is usually most inappropriate and indeed foolish. I recommend that each of you take careful perception of self and see whether you play a game in "childishness" or project maturity in "child-like" growth, participation and seeking after learning. Teddy-bears, binkies and blankies do not cut it after leaving of the cradle--for child or adult! Salu.

I AM GERMAIN

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL.II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals

- Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.

RADIO SCHEDULE FOR GEORGE & DESIREE'

June 20, 4-5 PM KSDO Karen Carter San Diego, CA.

June 22, 8:30-10:30 PM WTIW Tony Ponseta New Orleans, LA.

June 28, 12-1 PM WLTH Frederic King Gary, Indiana

July 1, 12-2 PM WNDE Rick Gieser Indianapolis, Ind.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon

The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
Matter Anti-Matter
God Said: Let There Be LIGHT
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1/800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO AFFORD A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EXPRESS TRY SHARING THE COST WITH A FRIEND(S).

Say "No!" to the

"NEW WORLD ORDER"
KEEP AMERICA INDEPENDENT

An Open Letter to George Bush

George Bush
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500

Mr. President!

Congratulations on the outcome of your war! You really kicked the stuffing out of those Iraqi towel-heads, just like you promised you would.

Golly, it was a fun war! All of us television watchers got a real buzz watching your "smart" bombs blow those camel jockeys out of their bunkers and seeing your B-52s blasting the Iraqi population back into the Stone Age. Not that they had advanced much beyond the Stone Age even before you started the war—which is a good thing, I guess, because otherwise they might have been able to put up a real fight. You certainly know how to pick them, Mr. President!

As one ex-flier to another, let me tell you that when I saw our boys taking off in their jets from our bases in Saudi Arabia I was really itching to be sitting in the cockpit of an A-10, shooting up Iraqi armored columns with a 30-mm gatling gun. There's nothing like a blood sport to build public support for a country's leader, as the Roman emperors knew, and the show you gave us was every bit as exciting as anything that ever happened in the Colosseum. You're right up there with Caligula and Nero now. Nobody will ever call you a wimp again!

For a while I was worried that some of those meddling peacemakers would short-circuit your ground offensive with their diplomatic maneuvers before you could get it started. I guess you had the same worry, but you handled the situation superbly by giving old Saddam an ultimatum you knew he couldn't possibly comply with and then launching your attack immediately, before any of those diplomats could get into the act again. Smart move!

Even smarter, I think, is the way you convinced the American people that your war was their war: the way you made them believe that they were fighting for their interests instead of for you know whose! It took you a while, of course, to come up with a credible reason for starting the war, and I must confess that at first I was embarrassed every time I heard you switch from one rather transparent excuse to another. I'll bet the folks over at the Israeli embassy were really becoming impatient with you. But then you hit on your "naked aggression" slogan, and they swallowed it. I mean, you even had the boobs repeating what you told them about it being better to fight Saddam in Baghdad now than having to fight him in the USA later! You were able to make them believe that old Saddam had the will and the means to pose some kind of threat to America, despite all of the plain evidence to the contrary. That shows real political skill! And when people are stupid enough to let themselves be manipulated like that, why shouldn't you do it?

I don't want you to think that I'm trying to flatter you, Mr. President: of course, we both know that you weren't able to trick the people into supporting your war all by yourself; without the help of the controlled news media you couldn't have done it. I mean, suppose some of the news reporters had wanted to create a little doubt in the minds of the American people about your motives in wanting a war and had asked you some hard questions during your press conferences. Suppose they had asked you just what you mean when you talk about fighting for a "new world order"; suppose they had made you really explain that one. Or suppose they had pressed you for an answer as to just what threat Saddam could possibly pose to America. Or they could have given you a hard time with questions about whether it was worth the life of a single American to put the Emir of Kuwait back on his throne. They might even have asked you whether you deliberately set Saddam up by encouraging him to annex Kuwait in the first place. (Remember how your State Department told him last summer that the United States had no treaty with Kuwait and did not consider a dispute between Iraq and Kuwait to be of interest to us? Remember? You and Jim Baker really slipped one over on him, eh?).

But the reporters never put you on the spot, did they? They never asked you, "Hey, Georgie boy, isn't it true that Yitzhak told you that if you wanted media support for a second term you'd better smash Iraq for him?" They never asked you why you were so concerned about the rights of Kuwaitis and couldn't care less about the rights of Palestinians. And when you would start talking about your "new world order" at press conferences they'd just study their shoelaces and then ask you a question about something altogether different. They didn't even give you a hard time about atrocities: there was hardly a mention about our pilots strafing those buses full of Iraqi schoolchildren, or bombing that baby-formula bottling plant in Baghdad you said was a poison-gas factory, or targeting that air-raid shelter full of civilians your generals claimed was a military command bunker. Quite a difference from the way they reacted to My Lai, eh? Really good to see the media people acting like Americans for a change, wasn't it?

But, hey, you had the fix in with the media from the beginning, didn't you? I mean, I saw the sly smile on your face when you said that you could guarantee that your war against Iraq wouldn't be like Vietnam. What you meant was that you knew the people in the controlled media would be backing you instead of bucking you, like they did to Nixon. You knew you could count on their collaboration, because, after all, the people who pay their salaries are the people you started this war for. That's why NBC's Garrick Utley was smirking approvingly while some idiot he interviewed for the NBC Evening News just before your Blitzkrieg started was babbling about what a threat Saddam's aggression was to America and how we had to stop him now.

Of course, the less said about the stringpullers behind your war the better, right? I just thought I'd mention it, because there have been some leaks. I mean, some of our people thought it was really too much when the Israelis claimed we owe them $13 billion for not hitting back at Saddam for his pathetically ineffective Scud attacks, and these taxpayers said, hey, what about the $50 billion you owe us for fighting your war for you? But I think that most of the voters didn't pick up on that; they were too busy tying yellow ribbons on everything in sight. If you and Jim Baker keep up the pretense of applying pressure to Israel (that'll be the day!) to help cool things over there, the boobs here will never figure it out. I just hope you haven't left any tapes of Oval Office conversations between you and old Yitzhak lying around where some anti-Semite might find them and start blabbing. Remember what happened to Nixon?

Well, I'm sure you do, and I doubt that the true story about why you were so eager for this war will ever come out. I mean, why should it? After all, everybody—except the towel-heads, of course—is really happy about the way things have turned out. Not only did you give the Jews what they demanded, but you also gave the American people a real treat too. I mean, it feels so good to be able to be patriotic and to wave the flag without being attacked by the media as fascists or rednecks. And it's been a while since we were able to give somebody a real stomping without having to worry too much about him hitting back. I think it's good for everybody to let off a little steam and forget about domestic problems by kicking the bejesus out of a bunch of foreigners every now and then, don't you? And, of course, it didn't hurt a bit that your war took the pressure off a lot of people in the savings-and-loan business for a while, including your son Neil.

There are some party poopers, of course, who worry about what you've done to the image of America as a peace-loving, civilized nation. They say you made a mockery of the whole concept of collective security through the United Nations by bribing some countries and twisting the arms of others to put your "coalition" together. They say that what you did in the Persian Gulf was nothing but old-fashioned gunboat diplomacy at its worst—that you've confirmed what Third World people have been saying for years about "Yankee imperialism" and "neo-colonialism." Some bleeding hearts even complained that your bombing of the fleeing Iraqi troops who were leaving Kuwait, just so you could run the body count up to 150,000, was a shocking case of overkill.

Well, what the hell! Everybody knows that all of that liberal talk about respecting the rights of smaller nations and "the rule of law" in international affairs is a crock. The only law that rules is the law of the jungle, just as always. Might makes right, I say. I know you can't afford to say that yourself—at least, not publicly—but you let everybody know what you really think about international law and the rights of smaller nations when you invaded Panama to arrest their sleazeball of a president more than a year ago. Good move! We both know that force is the only thing greasers and towel-heads respect. We have to let them know that if they won't elect the kind of leaders who'll take orders from us, we'll kick their asses, as you yourself said so well during the (ha, ha) "diplomatic" phase of your war against Saddam.

Before I close this letter, Mr. President, maybe I should tell you about one little worry that I have. I know there's not much chance of this happening, but just suppose that some day this country gets a truly patriotic government—a government headed by people who put the genuine, long-term interests of the American people ahead of everything else, even the next election. Suppose such a government starts a formal inquiry into your war, and suppose you're still alive at the time. Suppose the truth comes out. It could be pretty embarrassing for you, if not downright dangerous.

I mean, your . . . how shall I say it? . . . your criminal use of American resources and military personnel—sending American soldiers off to kill and be killed for the benefit of a foreign power instead of to defend genuine American interests—might be construed as treason. And what you did to the Iraqis might be considered genocide. Not that I look at it that way, you understand, but some people might. Suppose people of that sort get into the government, Mr. President.

Where will you hide?

Sincerely,

William L. Pierce
Chairman, National Alliance

ention flyer 791 and receive free copy of our big book atalog for patriots!

Distributed as a public service by the National Alliance.
Interested persons are invited to write for further information.
NATIONAL ALLIANCE • POB 2723 • ARLINGTON • VA 22202

Recorded telephone message: 703-573-3420

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 2

6/19/91 HATONN
WEDNESDAY

OFF THE FLOOR

Hatonn present to lift up my own overwhelmed people from off the floor. Please understand that if this information of your plight is painful to you, it hits Dharma first and then this crew. I find them praying that "Hatonn is wrong"! I, too, wish it could be incorrect, that which I give you. We of the hosts know that it is inconceivable that any "few" would destroy people and nations as if they were naught but checkers on a board--but it is so and I am pained as you must come to face it.

The corruption within your White House is beyond anything that you have imagined--it is beyond anything that I have written for I know that you will not comprehend it and that is WHY it continues unabated. The evil activities and open purchase and selling of power is so preposterous that it simply overwhelms the mind and the mind, in turn, occludes the information. Every means of deviant behavior is available and practiced from the Oval office throughout the ranks--from drugs, money availability to outrageous homosexual activities. Terminal moral-rotting cancer has infected your seat of government and incomprehensible insanity of evil pervades the entirety of your government like a shroud of satanic ritual. It includes your vice president in association with the Bush sons, it involves open availability of drugs access--in unlimited quantities to all high staff. It includes the free-flow of funds for the taking by these same entities--if there is objection, the objector is removed and replaced--your House of State is totally run by tools of the Elite. You have very little time remaining to take action--therefore, Dharma will wipe her eyes and we will get on with our work.

You who tout the will of the prophecies of either the Old Testament and/or Revelation: how did you think the signs and actions of "total evil control" would come about? Yes, it is EVERYWHERE around you--from that which happens in Bangladesh to the Philippines. And speaking of the Philippines, do you believe that this assault, by what appears to be God, is new and unusual? The Philippines are a hotbed of heinous activities. The Elite are simply now calling to the attention of the Philippine government and people--that the Cartel is in CONTROL and can destroy the entire nation if need be.

You wish to think that Israel is at the least not involved in the Philippines? Think again! They are to and over their eyes in the debacle.

You see, you of the world and you of these readers still believe that you are confronting a few corrupt men who wish power--NO! YOU CONFRONT THE EVIL PRESENCE AT EVERY TURN! THIS EVIL INSANE PRESENCE HAS ALL BUT TOTAL CONTROL OF EVERY EARTHBOUND PLACEMENT. Why do you shrink away? You were told it would be this way and you have refused to listen to Truth--well, it will be through TRUTH that you shall come into freedom; or, you WILL NOT COME INTO FREEDOM AT ALL--FOR THE REMAINDER OF EARTH SHAN'S DAYS. SO BE IT.

OK, will a little tid-bit of un-noted item allow you to research just a bit? Let us talk about the Vietnam/Philippine activities of just ONE instance over two years ago. And please note the recent talk of closing bases in the Philippines vs keeping them and the trouble between your government and the Philippine government over that very point. You must KNOW that all is connected to all. But let us take this one incident regarding an assassination of one of your military officers, James Rowe, at the action of the Mossad operative, Mike Harari. Yes, this is the same one who was into everything in Panama!

VIETNAM/PHILIPPINES AND WHO DUN IT!

It is so entangled that I am, myself, at a bit of a loss to know where to begin so we will set the stage for you and just follow through with narrative.

Paul Neri was an official of the NSA who had been working with Rowe and other ranking Special Forces officers to determine the extent of CIA-Mossad drug smuggling from Colombia through Panama. Neri raised the possibility of Harari's involvement with Rowe's violent death just before HIS OWN DEATH in 1990. U.S. Army Special Forces Col. James "Nick" Rowe was murdered, in the Philippines, on April 21, 1989.

Rowe was one of the most highly decorated Special Forces officers of the Vietnam War (check it out with Col. Gritz) and had the distinction of being one of only a handful of American POW's to escape communist captivity during the war. He didn't realize he was much safer in their hands than in America's.

Rowe was a 1960 graduate of West Point and less than a year following his graduation, was selected for the elite Special Forces and, while studying Mandarin Chinese at the Army Language School in Monterey, California, was reassigned to the 5th Special Forces Group, Detachment A-23, one of three operational companies sent to Vietnam in July, 1963.

On October 29, 1963, while on a routine mission advising South Vietnamese irregular forces sent to Le Cour, a small hamlet in a remote area of South Vietnam, his group was involved in an intense fire-fight, and Rowe was captured.

For 62 months he endured dysentery, beriberi, fungal diseases and the morally undermining realization that he might at any time be executed. Close friends of his, Capt. Rocky Verace, and Sgt. Kenneth Roraback were publicly executed in retaliation for alleged South Vietnamese executions of Viet Cong.

Rowe was retained in a tiny cage for years. His bed was a straw mat. He endured both torture and forced isolation. He concocted a cover story that he was merely a civilian engineer building civil projects in South Vietnam, thus avoiding further torture which he would have received had they known he was a Special Forces officer. The VC would have wanted to know details of his camp.

Acting on a special request from the North Vietnamese, American students in a so-called anti-war organization researched public records and formulated biographies of some of the Americans missing in Vietnam. Rowe's biography was one of those the students researched and passed on to the Vietnamese government. Sentenced to death for "lying" after the report disagreed with the statements he made to his captors, Rowe was being taken away by the Viet Cong to be executed when he and his guards were caught on the edge of a B-52 saturation bombing raid.

As U.S. Cobra killer helicopters moved into the area, Rowe convinced one of his guards that it would be safer to get away from the main group. Biding his time, he caught the guard by surprise and subdued him. He was then able to signal one of the U.S. helicopters and was rescued.

In 1970, Rowe served as an artillery and intelligence officer and later assisted in the repatriation of other U.S. POW's.

In 1971, he detailed his own experiences as a prisoner in a book, FIVE YEARS TO FREEDOM.

In 1974, he retired to run for Texas State Comptroller, narrowly losing the election with 48 percent of the vote.

He later returned to the Army, and in 1981 started a POW survival school at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

In 1987, Rowe was assigned to act as chief of the Army Division of the Joint Military Advisory Group in the Philippines, a group which advises the Philippine forces in counter-insurgency techniques.

Due to his interest in Harari and the Mossad, Rowe, in his intelligence position, became aware of the fact that the Israelis had established an arms base in the Philippines for shipment of weapons to Red China and were, in fact, using the Philippines as a transshipment point.

Between 1987 and 1989, from Rowe's arrival in the Philippines to the time of his assassination, Israel shipped $15 BILLION in U.S. arms and technology to Red China.

Since Rowe was already familiar with Mossad arms and drug-trafficking in Central America, it was easy to pick up on the flow through the Philippines.

In any case, as he was finalizing reports to expose the activities, on April 21, 1989, Rowe was only a little over a couple of blocks from his headquarters when "terrorists" (including Harari) pulled alongside his car and sprayed it with M-16 rifles and .45-caliber pistols.

Neri knew the facts and as he was ready to release the truth, he too, was murdered--by what appeared to be an illness.

Facts are facts, and Michael Harari, identified as being in charge of all Israeli intelligence operations in Central America, went to the Philippines three days before the assassination of Rowe, participated, and remained in the Philippines covering all avenues of leakage of the reports, some three days after the event.

We have already written, some weeks past, about the connection of President George Bush, while director of the CIA (1976-77), being involved in an illegal CIA-Israeli Mossad operation in Central America--slopping over into the area of Vietnam and the Philippines. The greater involvement was in arms and weapons smuggling and then, of course, massive drug operations from Colombia through Panama into the U.S.--the arms moving through the Philippines.

There is a full report from one Special Forces Col. Edward P. Cutolo, who in 1976 was the commander of missions in Colombia under the code name of "Operation Watch Tower", for which he was recruited by high-level CIA operatives, working with Israeli Mossad agents. This is verified so don't suck in your breath and turn away!

Cutolo prepared a full affidavit with instructions that it be used to expose the clandestine CIA operation in the event he was killed--AND HE WAS KILLED IN AN "ACCIDENT" WHILE ON A MILITARY EXERCISE IN 1980.

OPERATION WATCH TOWER

This little "operation" was to establish a series of electronic beacon towers (3 of 'em) beginning outside Bogota, Colombia, and running northeast to the border of Panama. Once the Watch Tower teams were in place, the beacon was activated to emit a signal that aircraft could fix on and fly undetected from Bogota into Panama, then land at Albrook Air Station.

During the February, 1976 Watch Tower mission, 30 high-performance aircraft landed safely at Albrook Air Station where the planes were met by Col. Manuel Antonio (Tony Noriega--later to become Gen. Noriega, the dictator of Panama of the 1989 fiasco).

Dharma, I think this is important and interesting enough to hold attention a bit longer so let us go on and write about this entanglement. This story has been brought public in spite of efforts to bury the bringers and the press and I will give you protection, chela, so let's share the rest of this scenario. (Double 0-7) never could compete with the "real" thing. Then at the end of this I am going to remind you about new "definitions" regarding: Semitic, Jew, Zionist, Israel, Khazar, Anti-Christ and enslavement of your planet. You local group had a full blast of the accusations of "Anti-Semitic" from the Florida "Inquirer General of World Headquarters" in the insulting and degrading incident on radio yesterday--I am embarrassed for the listeners who are treated with such degrading assault upon their intelligence--could it be that listeners give this absurd and evil man cause to believe they are worthy of no more? I shall speak further of this at the ending but I wish to continue with this Mossad connection, presently. I shall give Germain opportunity to write further later this day.

AND, DHARMA, I PROMISE YOU A FEW HOURS REST AS SOON AS WE EASE UP A BIT--PRECIOUS, IT IS SO IMPORTANT THAT THE WORD GO FORTH AND AT THIS TIME, YOU ARE "IT". FATHER WILL GIVE YOU THAT WHICH YOU NEED TO CONTINUE AND, KNOW, THERE IS GREAT AND ABUNDANT APPRECIATION FROM THE CORNERS OF YOUR WORLD--LOOK FROM WHERE THE RESOURCES ARE NOW FLOWING; BLESSINGS UPON YOU WHO SEE AND HEAR. EVERY RESPONSE AND NOTE IS PRECIOUS TO THESE ONES--A COFFEE BREAK AND BOOK FROM HAWAII IS INDEED PRECIOUS AND THOUGHTFUL--THE BOOK, ONE I REQUESTED, AND THE APPRECIATION IS GREAT.

For you who would like encouragement from our Father as you walk this road of tedious illusion--try THE GOLDEN SCRIPTS, Fellowship Press, Inc., Noblesville, Indiana. (William Dudley Pelley, Printed in U.S.A., Aquila Press, Inc., Noblesville, Ind.) All of you MUST come into KNOWING that Father speaks to ALL AND WILL GIVE UNTO EACH, THAT WHICH IS NEEDED TO SUSTAIN. "Linda", thank you, your love and presence is appreciated and duly recognized among us.

MYSTERIOUS ISRAELI

In 1976 Noriega was a Panama Defense Force officer assigned to the Customs and Intelligence Section and later became dictator of Panama. Noriega was normally in the company of other PDF officers known to Cutolo as Maj. Diaz-Herrera, Maj. Luis del Cid and Maj. Ramirez. Also present, at most of the arrivals, was a CIA agent, and an unidentified male Israeli national. The cargo flown from Colombia into Panama was cocaine.

The male Israeli national was identified and known to members of the 570th Military Intelligence Group in Panama who only specified that the individual had the authority from the U.S. Army Southern Command in Panama to be in the Area of Operations.

In March, 1976, Cutolo said, a third Watch Tower mission was implemented, and he was in command of that mission, which lasted 29 days and engaged in the same tactics used in the February, 1976, mission. The March mission encountered a serious incident and resulted in several SAT members being injured from wounds suffered while attempting to exfiltrate from Colombia across the border into Panama where helicopters were waiting to extract them.

The March, 1976, mission incident occurred as the SAT that was on station at Turbo, Colombia encountered 40 to 50 armed men. Action intelligence reports identified the armed men as local bandits. In regard to this incident the helicopters waiting in Panama to extract the SAT, entered Colombian airspace without authorization and successfully extracted the SAT, after an estimated six or seven minute fire-fight.

During the March, 1976, Watch Tower mission, 40 high-performance aircraft landed safely at Albrook Air Station where they were met in the previously related fashion by those named.

Later, Cutolo relates, when he assumed command of the 10th Special Forces Group at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, he recognized two soldiers who had participated in Watch Tower operations.

One, identified by Cutolo as Sgt. John Newby, told Cutolo that he had received threats, which, Cutolo related, was just prior to the parachuting accident that somehow "claimed" his life in Oct., 1978.

On March 5, 1980 Cutolo enlisted the aid of Col. James "Nick" Rowe, a fellow Special Forces officer, to communicate with several contacts, that he (Rowe) had within the CIA to determine if Operation Watch Tower was in fact a bona fide U.S. government operation. Naturally, Cutolo was puzzled as to why the U.S. government would be involved with the Israelis and Panamanians in drug-trafficking to the United States.

IDENTIFIES AGENT

Rowe was a highly decorated Special Forces officer who belonged to a very select club in the U.S. military as we have said above.

On March 7, 1980, Rowe contacted Cutolo. During the course of the conversation Col. Rowe informed Cutolo that his initial inquiries with CIA contacts confirmed that one operative (CIA agent's name is intentionally deleted) was working for another CIA official (also deleted identity) at the same times in question. Col. Rowe indicated that (CIA official name deleted) was under scrutiny by the CIA at that time but had not been given details of the circumstances surrounding the events of that matter.

Col. Rowe also indicated that there was an Israeli aspect to the matter involving David Kimche as being the Israeli most likely to be involved with (the name deleted). Col. Rowe did indicate that it was his understanding that each operation had basically the same characters involved and Col. Rowe named two other individuals involved, to Cutolo. (These names which are herein deleted are in the original affidavit.)

Col. Rowe named Robert Gates (yes, a lot of this is repeated) who is currently Deputy National Security Adviser to Bush (and now up to head the CIA) and William J. Casey (then destined to become a year later President Ronald Reagan's CIA director) as officials who had been named in the documentation he would acquire prior to a scheduled meeting in June, 1980. Oops! Seems a lot of funny things were going on in 1980--like denied meetings of Bush in Paris, etc. Perhaps Bush can deny presence at the Paris meeting "to bargain over hostages" specifically, because he was so busy selling out to the drug cartels--Iran and Israel being a major part of BOTH!?!?

Cutolo continues: "On 7 March, 1980, after my conversation with Col. Rowe, I made inquiries through Paul Neri (at the National Security Agency) and Pentagon contacts and was informed that David Kimche had ties with the Israeli intelligence unit, known as the 'Mossad'. I also asked that I be provided a photograph, if any existed, of David Kimche. I requested such a photograph to determine if David Kimche was the unidentified male Israeli national who met the aircraft flying into Albrook Air Station during Operation Watch Tower.

"In addition, I sought whatever photographs existed of those who were known associates of David Kimche for the same reason."

PHOTOS

"In March, 1980 I received three photographs from Army intelligence contacts at the Pentagon. Amongst the three," Cutolo explained, "were two individuals I recognized. David Kimche's photograph had been shown to me by a friend, Col. Robert Bayard, just prior to his murder in Atlanta, Georgia in 1977.

"According to Bayard, Kimche was due to meet with him later. Shortly thereafter, I was informed through the normal lines of communication that Col. Bayard was murdered. As of this date his murder remains unsolved. The photograph of Kimche that Col. Bayard had, appeared to be a surveillance photograph.

"There is no doubt that Kimche was the man that Col. Bayard named as being in the photograph. According to Col. Bayard, Kimche was due to meet with him to discuss a matter that related to Col. Bayard's previous duty in the U.S. Army and assignment to the CIA."

BRIEFCASES FULL OF U.S. CURRENCY

"The second individual I recognized from the three photographs I received was listed as Michael Harari. I was informed that Harari is listed as a senior Mossad agent. Harari was the unidentified male Israeli national that met the aircraft which flew into Albrook Air Station during Operation Watch Tower. He was the one who gave an agent two briefcases full of U.S. currency in various denominations.

"The briefcases were given to the agent at the end of the operations in March and February, 1976.

"It is my understanding from Pentagon contacts that Harari's activities in Latin America are well known, including his drug-trafficking endeavors. I was also informed from those same contacts that the Pentagon, on orders of several Washington VIP's, has gone to great lengths to keep the activities of Michael Harari a secret.

"I have begun preparations to meet with David Kimche or Michael Harari while in Europe on annual NATO exercises. I intend to verify that Harari was the individual who gave the agent the briefcases while at Albrook Air Station during Operation Watch Tower."

THE BUSH SHIELD

"I was told from Pentagon contacts, off the record, that [then] CIA Director Stansfield Turner and former CIA Director George Bush are among the VIP's that shield Harari from public scrutiny. Those Pentagon contacts further indicated to me their knowledge that Operation Watch Tower was implemented and of my involvement in that operation.

"This was the first time that U.S. military authorities confirmed to me that the operation occurred and gave their approval. I also learned that Harari was a known middleman for matters involving the United States in Latin America. Harari acted with the support of Mossad personnel throughout Latin America and worked mainly in the import and export of arms and drug trafficking."

Cutolo's affidavit was dated March 11, 1980, a short time before his death by "accidental murder" and before he was able to meet with and finger Harari.

At the time of Operation Just Cause (Merry Christmas, America), the U.S. invasion of Panama and games with Gen. Noriega, Harari was a KEY ADVISER TO NORIEGA.

He was allowed to get out of Panama, after being warned in advance of the invasion, aboard an Israeli Air Force transport plane. I wrote in detail about all those maneuvers so will not bore you readers with all that repetition--if you are a new reader, I can only suggest you get the back issues.

Cutolo further stated: "(Name of CIA agent deleted) explained that the profit from the sale of narcotics was laundered through a series of banks. (Name deleted) stated that over 70 percent of the profits were laundered through banks in Panama. The remaining percentage was funnelled through Swiss banks with a small remainder being handled by banks within the U.S. (Name deleted) also stated that an associate whom I don't know also aided in overseeing the laundering of funds, which was then used to purchase weapons to arm the various factions that the CIA saw as friendly toward the U.S. The associate's name is (deleted). [We are deleting the names of the various CIA officials and agents as other publications are doing, from this text, since they are currently the subjects of ongoing federal investigations, which would be compromised if their identities are revealed--as if compromise would be a "new deal", ah, but so be it.]

DEATH TRAIL

"Several years ago Col. Cutolo obligated me to bring theaffidavit forward in the event of his death," Paul Neri, a former National Security Agency official, wrote a former Special Forces officer last year.

"In 1980 Col. Cutolo died in an accident while on a military exercise. Just prior to his death he notified me he was to meet with Michael Harari, an Israeli Mossad agent.

"It is my belief, though unsubstantiated, that Harari murdered Col. Cutolo because of the information Col. Cutolo possessed. [I, HATONN, can most surely attest to this fact.]

"In the event of Col. Cutolo's death, I was told to discreetly contact Col. "Bo" Baker who commanded Operation Watch Tower operations before Cutolo, which I did. I believe that Col. Cutolo died in his attempt to prove that Operation Watch Tower was not sanctioned by the proper authorities." [And how can anything so heinous be 'adequately sanctioned' BY ANYONE?]

"Col. Baker enlisted the aid of Col. Nick Rowe, and between Col. Baker, Col. Rowe and myself, we set out to prove that Harari had murdered Col. Cutolo, and that Operation Watch Tower was an unsanctioned illegal operation. . .

"Prior to getting very far into the investigation, Col. Baker died while in command of 1st Battalion, 10th Special Forces Group. . .

"After Col. Baker died, Col. Rowe and I located Hugh B. Pearce, named in Col. Cutolo's affidavit. Pearce was then assigned to the Air National Guard in Wilmington, Delaware.

"Chief Warrant Officer Pearce verified that Col. Cutolo had given him a copy of the affidavit Col. Cutolo had written. Mr. Pearce verified that Col. Cutolo was due to meet Michael Harari in England just prior to Col. Cutolo's death. Mr. Pearce told us that Col. Cutolo referred to Pearce as his 'ace in the hole'.

"Mr. Pearce did refer Col. Rowe to an address at Camp Shelby, Mississippi and the name 'Larkin Smith'. Smith turned out to be a state politician, and Col. Rowe and I made plans to discreetly meet with him in the latter part of 1989. On April 21, 1989, within weeks after our communication with Smith, Col. Rowe, who had been assigned to the Philippines, was assassinated.

"It is interesting to note, that although authorities in the Philippines arrested a person with communist ties and beliefs and charged him with the murder of Col. Rowe, Michael Harari was in the Philippines for three days just prior to and after Col. Rowe's murder. [TOUCHE]

"Coincidence? It is my unsubstantiated belief that Harari murdered Col. Rowe or arranged it.

"I believe Harari's motive for murdering Col. Rowe was due to Col. Rowe's inquiries about Harari's movements and relationships to (CIA operatives) and Manuel Noriega.

"In June, 1989, Mr. Pearce was killed in a helicopter accident.

"Both Col. Rowe and Mr. Pearce agreed to go public, after the meeting with Larkin Smith, to call for a full investigation into the events described in Col. Cutolo's affidavit. But both men died prior to the meeting with Smith."

In July, 1987, Rowe, then stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, did attempt to get CBS News' 60 MINUTES to look into Operation Watch Tower, but CBS turned down the project.

Neri continued: "On August 13, 1989, Larkin Smith died in an airplane accident."

Smith at the time of his death was a conservative Republican congressman from Mississippi, a rising star in the GOP with a promising career in politics. A certain amount of mystery surrounded the crash of the plane--and try the John Tower crash on for similarity!

THEN CAME THE FINAL LETTER TO "THE CONTACT"

"I have not contacted you prior to now because I am very ill and wanted my final days free of intrigue, which this matter presents," Neri told the former Special Forces officer. "I have left this letter, the affidavit and instructions with a co-worker. This person will find you, if you are still alive, when I die."

Paul Neri died on April 29, 1990.

YESTERDAY'S RADIO INTERVIEW BY JACK COLE

After last week's insulting "mess" I encountered this Inquirer General of World Headquarters again on the yesterday. This was to have been an "apology" for the distasteful behavior of the week prior. This second encounter was more deceitful and discrediting of himself than was the first. Then George had to endure the assault of a being called Dork--anti-semitic, Jew-hater, etc. This is an insult to you of Florida by every way you can measure it. If a man has no more respect for his listening audience than does this person, I cannot understand why you tolerate his being present on your airways. Why a radio station would tolerate this type of insulting behavior unto their audience is beyond my comprehension--UNLESS, OF COURSE, YOU ARE A PART AND PARCEL OF THE CONTROLLED MEDIA!! I HEREIN REMIND YOU THAT IN ROME IT WAS AN EXACT DUPLICATE OF THE BEHAVIOR OF AMERICA--JUST BEFORE IT FELL FOREVER! IT WAS IDENTICAL BEHAVIOR IN SODOM AND GOMORRAH JUST BEFORE BEING ATOMIC BOMBED INTO OBLIVION--AND YOU HAD BETTER PAY ATTENTION, AMERICA. WHILE YOU MAKE CHEAP AND DEGRADING JOKES, YOUR NATION IS "BURNING" AND "NERO" IS SETTING MORE FIRES--ONLY THIS TIME, ALL OVER YOUR WORLD.

I HAVE A PETITION TO SHARE WITH YOU FROM A PERSON IN NEW ZEALAND:

"...I have a few things to discuss with you, which I need response on if you're not too busy.

Firstly, last week I watched on television an English Program about the Chernoble reactor disaster. It showed mothers with their babies dying of Cancer, their hair falling out. My heart went out to those Russian mothers and the look of despair and hopelessness as they watched their children die. I thought of you, Hatonn and Space Command. You and all those others with you, could turn these faces from despair to happiness. Oh, if we could only let your people take them up to your ships I know they would be cured instantly. You know what Hatonn, the Elite told the people there was no danger but they took their own families out of the area to safety and left the others there. By that I mean the ordinary working people. It reminded me of one of those Journals I read about the Elite will know when the bombs fall but the rest of us will know nothing. Comment please.

In BLOOD AND ASHES (a Phoenix Journal), Commander Soltec spoke about radioactive particles entering earth atmosphere about 1992-1993. That worries me--everything would be radioactive and millions would be killed. There would be chaos and panic throughout the planet as I perceive it. I asked you about this once before but did not receive a reply. Probably you did reply but you know what the mail is like sending to New Zealand--it is not good. Please comment.

My government is still selling everything in assets and now they plan to cut the Old People's pensions. They say they cannot afford to pay it any more, yet they have great pensions for themselves. We are going down the tubes fast.

A thought for today as I finished my work at the hospital and walked into town. I looked at all the mothers pushing prams and taking their young children home. If the Cartel wins, what happens to them? COME ON AMERICA, TURN IT AROUND--IF YOU WON'T DO IT FOR YOURSELVES, WHAT ABOUT THE PEOPLE

OF OTHER COUNTRIES WHO ARE DOOMED TO SLAVERY AND WORSE? LOOK TO YOUR STATUE OF LIBERTY--DOES THAT NOT MEAN ANYTHING TO YOU? HATONN, THIS IS A TEN ROUND FIGHT. THE CARTEL HAS WON NINE ROUNDS--WE ARE IN THE TENTH. BUT WE CAN KNOCK THE CARTEL OUT AND WIN!....."

L.C., brother, it is hard. It is hard for me to even respond to your pleas--for I cannot do that which you ask of me.

As I said on the yesterday--this is part of the plan. The first thing is to encourage totally irresponsible procreation and then murder the babes in any manner necessary. If it is through hunger, great compassion comes forth and blinds the world to the actual thrust of the adversary. The point is to cause you such pain in efforting to tend the frazzled tatters of humanity that you solve nothing and run the entire populace into the death corral.

This is WHY you of the workers have returned--because you felt yourselves strong enough to assist in proper sequence. Part of the plan is to cause you of God and God intent to fall away from your path and service so that God be left with no support--it will not happen, but if you ones pull away, there will be no peace in thine own lighted souls. It is a time of service wherein we keep on keeping on.

I am going to ask that the three Journals concerning LIGHT and the Universe (Pleiades Connections) be forwarded to you the instant they are arrived here. Expect nothing from Bruce Cathie for he remains locked into a physical perception and until ones make connection to the actual way in which the universe functions and understands that which God IS--there is no point in pursuing the apparatus for it will not serve your needs. I am truly sorry to give you this information for Bruce has such contribution but he is bitter and angry and is not yet ready for service.

The radioactive particulate of which Soltec spoke is right on track--it will be sent forth from your own earth maniacs--I do not have permission to speak further of it at this time and that which I would say would cause you only further grief.

I can best share your expression by printing it herein--I agree, son, America holds the trump card and must turn this thing about or the world goes down. More and more are hearing and seeing--we can only lay it forth--we have no right to force or intervene--but the lights are coming on in the private places of this nation and as the LIGHT becomes brighter and the TRUTH is given forth--THEN MAN CAN TAKE ACTION AND IN THIS MANNER THE TRUTH SHALL GIVE FREEDOM AGAIN UNTO THE BROTHERHOOD OF EARTH MAN.

You are my friend, also, and I, too, look forward to again sharing with all of you who have already served with me and you are not given to remember. You are lonely and feel isolated--I KNOW! We will, however, serve until our mission is finished for that is our commitment and commission. The interim will be emotional hell for all who see that which is done in sheer evil, but ours is not to judge--only serve as God commands. So be it.

Thank you for your communication, I ask that this be sent to you via rapid mail--I am sorry that other responses have not reached you--we shall have to consider special mail of some type. I respond in the EXPRESSES or JOURNALS for the most part for those seem to eventually make it to the ones who write--however, even the Express mailings are now being tampered with and it is hard to see how to work around it.

May the Light shine around you all and move within for the time grows indeed short for action which shall give you security.

Thank you, Dharma. And, Dharma wishes me to express, on her behalf, her own gratitude for you ones' loving and thoughtful care and sharing. I keep her hands too busy to write personal notes--please understand during this time of pressure that limits us all to that which is present in your perception of time and space. Salu.

Hatonn to clear.

6/19/91 HATONN

U.S. FLOOD OF GOLDEN TRIANGLE HEROIN

If you are faint of heart, I suggest you pause prior to reading the next confirmation of the prior truth regarding drugs. Then get your hands and eyes on the writings and/or videos of Col. James "Bo" Gritz and get your first-hand proof of these projections. (See P-12 for phone #)

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) is now circulating a report among U.S. law enforcement and intelligence agencies. It is 25 pages long and warns that the U.S. is being flooded with high-grade heroin. DEA administrator, Robert Bonner, says that "heroin now poses a greater threat to the U.S. than at any other time in the recent past. This increased threat arises from the precipitous increase in opium production in the Golden Triangle and elsewhere, the emergence of new and aggressive heroin-trafficking organizations such as the Nigerians, as well as the alarming rise in the purity of street-level heroin on the East Coast of the U.S."

This blunt assessment by the recently appointed DEA chief underscores the fact that the White House has been lying about its "victories" in the war on drugs. In February, just one month before the DEA study on "Worldwide Heroin Situation 1990" was completed, President Bush issued the annual National Drug Control Strategy report which proclaimed that the federal anti-drug effort had surpassed all its objectives and that there had been a marked decline in drug use in America. There were also, at the time, massive increases in domestic marijuana production which was generating over $50 BILLION in black market revenues in 1990 as just one example of the administration's "cooking" of its war on drugs statistics. The heroin survey reveals the following staggering facts:

The urban centers of the East Coast are being flooded with Golden Triangle heroin. Whereas in 1985, Golden Triangle (Southeast Asian) heroin accounted for approximately 14% of the heroin that reached U.S. streets, by 1989, that figure had jumped to 56%, where it remained in 1990. New York, Baltimore, Washington, D.C., Detroit and Atlanta are dominated by the Southeast Asian product, which is readily available and sells for half the average price of the Southwest Asian (Golden Crescent) and Mexican/Guatemalan heroin.

The DEA study shows that the Southeast Asian heroin is averaging over 40% purity at the street level. This compares to averages of 14% purity and 13% purity for the Golden Crescent and Mexican/Guatemalan heroin respectively.

The DEA study indicates that heroin production in Mexico and Guatemala has also doubled in recent years. The Mexican/Guatemalan dope is primarily distributed in the Southwest, including California. Golden Crescent heroin dominated the markets in Chicago and Puerto Rico, reflecting larger concentrations of South and Southwest Asian populations.

Western and Eastern Europe have been also targeted for massive expansion. One of the most alarming new developments is the greater integration of drug-trafficking networks from different parts of the world. The DEA study indicates that large quantities of Golden Triangle and Golden Crescent heroin are being "bartered" for Colombian cartel cocaine. As a result, Medellin and Cali Cartel traffickers are now smuggling Asian heroin into the U.S., although "smuggling" is a poor choice of words for it is brought right in with administration approval and favored nation status through your own military bases. Chinese and Nigerian drug organizations are now providing Colombian cocaine to a growing continental European market. And who makes the largest part of the profit on all this? The MAFIA!

20-YEAR LIE

Here comes Kissinger again, so don't go away. The DEA study (by the way it is not a readily circulated document--being labeled "embargoed") presents a far more frank assessment of the continuing growth of the international dope cartel than the flagrant lies coming out of the White House, the report also is full of outrageous pieces of disinformation--really serious disinformation.

As part of the Nixon administration 1972 "detente" with the People's Republic of China, then-Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger suppressed DEA and CIA field reports which contained original maps of the Golden Triangle opium-producing area. Those maps proved that communist China was a major source of Southeast Asian opium and heroin--a fact that would have made it hard to square the nominally anti-drug Nixon White House's diplomatic embrace of Beijing. Ever since 1972, official U.S. government reports have lied consistently about the P.R.C.'s dominant role in the world heroin trade.

That cover-up has continued and the DEA report goes on: "The primary opium production areas of Southeast Asia are located in the Golden Triangle region formed by the conjunction of Burma, Laos and Thailand....In addition, there are countries where opium poppy cultivation is just emerging, such as China, and other locations where growing conditions are ideal, and therefore of potential concern."

Funny thing, Bush didn't say one word about China's heroin trafficking when he recently insisted Congress renew Beijing's Most Favored Nation status for another year. Nor did Bush condemn "coalition partner Syria's role as the major transshipment and processing hub for Southwest Asian heroin when he sent Secretary of State James Baker III off to Damascus for his fourth consultation in less than two months with President Hafez al-Assad.

NORIEGA'S HORSE'S MOUTH

You should already be sick, so let's just go for it.

There is now a 107-page memorandum filed by Noriega's attorneys before the U.S. District Court in Florida. It is simply confirmation that the U.S. government was engaged in illegal drug-trafficking.

It is stated that cocaine and marijuana were flown directly into the U.S. military bases in South Florida by pilots employed by the U.S. for the illegal Nicaraguan Contra resupply operation. Intriguingly, the head of the South Florida Drug Task Force interdiction project during those years WAS GEORGE BUSH.

It is now obvious beyond a shadow of a doubt that Bush was totally involved as was his son in the Florida area--among the rest of the sons elsewhere. CIA "nominee" Robert Gates should certainly be asked about these matters in the Senate confirmation hearings because he was up to his eyes in the operation also.

Besides the South Florida task force, Bush held a variety of very high-profile anti-drug positions in the Reagan administration as is described in the documents put forth in mid-May. Let us see if Noriega can still get a fair hearing! Worse than all, what is in the documents is incriminating enough on their own but major portions, particularly in the sections relating to Bush's contacts with Noriega, have been removed for "national security" reasons.

As a matter of fact, the priority item on Bush's agenda at the time was not drugs, but America's pro-insurgency campaign in Nicaragua.

The campaign against the Sandinistas was founded with drug money. The U.S. was clearly involved in a 'guns for drugs' policy. "Whatever it took to win in Nicaragua"! The logic of having drug money pay for the pressing needs of the Contras appealed to a number of people who became involved in the covert war. Indeed, senior U.S. policymakers were not immune to the idea that drug money was a perfect solution to the Contras' funding problems, they say.

The State Department selected four companies owned and operated by narcotics traffickers to supply humanitarian assistance to the Contras. The companies were:

SETCO Air, a company established by Honduran drug-trafficker Ramon Matta Ballesteros;

DIASCSA, a Miami-based air company operated as the headquarters of a drug-trafficker enterprise for convicted drug-traffickers Floyd Carlton and Alfredo Caballero;

Frigorificos de Puntarenas, a firm owned and operated by Cuban-American drug-traffickers who were also CIA operatives;

Vortex, an air service and supply company partly owned by admitted drug-trafficker Michael Palmer.

The court papers also show that Drug Enforcement Administration officials testified last July before the House Judiciary Committee on Crime, that "Lt. Col. Oliver North suggested to the DEA in June 1985 that $1.5 million in drug money carried aboard a plane piloted by DEA informant Barry Seal and generated in a sting of the Medellin Cartel and Sandinistas officials, be provided to the Contras."

Also, what does former CIA director Bush know about the charge made in the court documents, that "The Central Intelligence Agency has a long history of assistance to narcotics traffickers"? Or about the charge that "CIA agents who branched out on their own into the opium-smuggling business were protected by the Agency"?

Despite Noriega's warnings, the CIA used pilots to illegally transport weapons to the Contras, although it was aware that those same pilots "were also transporting drugs to the United States."

It was not because of his alleged drug-trafficking that Noriega incurred the wrath of George Bush. In fact, "U.S. law enforcement agencies considered Noriega to be a friend of the U.S., a view articulated by DEA Administrator Jack Lawn, who in the past had written Noriega a letter of commendation for his help in fighting the war on drugs. Noriega got in trouble because he refused to go along with the U.S. Contra policy. Now important: "General Noriega is first and foremost a Panamanian nationalist. In order to maintain the independence and sovereignty of Panama, General Noriega struggled to maintain in balance, American Imperialism on the right, and Cuban Expansionism on the left." To this end, he even "...became the CIA's man in Panama--ultimately, his balancing act failed--Noriega succeeded in maintaining his country's independence longer than any other national figure since the end of the Second World War," the paper concluded.

BANK DEREGULATION

With all the failures surrounding the banking industry, it seems impossible to believe that the banks would be GIVEN more to destroy--but so it is and most of you won't even be aware--it is REALLY TIME TO GET UP!

Bush's attempt to deregulate the banking sector overcame its first major hurdle on May 21 when the Financial Institutions Subcommittee of the House Banking Committee approved an administration-backed measure--for those little Federal Reserve Banks owned privately and operated by the world's most elite criminals. YOU WILL GET TO PAY DEARLY FOR THIS MANEUVER, ALSO.

The bill includes provisions that allows banks to enter the securities business. The subcommittee also left intact the measures which would permit banks to expand into the insurance business.

Other provisions of the bill allow commercial companies such as Sears and General Motors to OWN BANKS. The provisions were not contested in any manner by that elite subcommittee.

Dear ones, the reason there had been clamps on the banking industry was because the banking and securities sectors caused the fall called the "crash of '29". Good luck, if your economy lasts that long; it appears it will not do so. In fact the world is ready to pull off the next step of collapse and control soon. The British pound is due for great devaluation and, wow, there will be a lot of you dangling out there in pounds after having been advised that the pound would grow against the dollar. Dear ones, the world is going to have a one currency system--all have to collapse!

Remember: Corporations and gold for collateral--I don't see other alternatives of any value for that which lies ahead of you--unless you can pull down this monster who has you by the throat and squeezing the life from you.

ASSASSINATION OF GANDHI

I continue to have a barrage of queries regarding this incident. I repeat: India was placed on a special target list by Henry Kissinger at a time that he was still national security adviser for the Nixon and Ford administrations, and also Nixon's secretary of state. India is, along with Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Pakistan, Turkey and others, on that hit list.

The policy which Kissinger elaborated came at a time that Kissinger was acting as an agent of influence of the British Foreign Office. Kissinger so declared himself, that he had been such an agent during the Ford and Nixon administrations, in a speech delivered publicly in London in May, 1982.

This, like the Bernard Lewis Plan, under which the U.S. joined Britain in bringing Khomeini to power in Iran, is a British policy--the policy of those in Britain who own, according to his own statement (Henry Kissinger)--those who represent the policies which Kissinger, Brent Scowcroft, and others have put into the U.S. government policy book back in the 70's and 80's, into the 90's.

The objective of the assassination of Gandhi is the destruction of India. If the Bharatiya Janata Party comes to power, as is expected with the assassination of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, then the likelihood of communalist conflict would greatly increase and also, even, of potential war or similar conflict with Pakistan and others. You will see, won't you? The objective of the British and their fellow running dogs in the U.S. such as Kissinger, is the dismemberment of India, dividing it into quarreling nations, or into a loose federation of quarreling states with no real effective unity as a nation.

The purpose of this is to take the approximately billion people or so of the Indian subcontinent and to subject them to massive genocide over the coming two generations through famine and epidemic. This would seem to put Kissinger's masters in London and his associates and dupes in the U.S. in a class way beyond the worst attributed to Hitler.

You MUST grasp the nature of this situation; you must rise above pragmatism to face elemental realities. The U.S. War of Independence was not a mistake, was not a misunderstanding, but was premised on an imperfect but adequate understanding of a moral gulf existing between the people of the Americas and the British monarchy, which could not be bridged, except by war, if necessary, to separate the Americas from Britain.

The British royal family was evil then, and has not lately shown any sign of improvement in this policy. What they have done in India in the past speaks for itself, and their hand in the bloody events of the present speaks even louder.

This is a crime against all humanity, chelas, not just India. Never before in the history of mankind have the Anglo-Americans of that faction associated with Kissinger done a crime more monstrous than is this. It is time to say no: And whether the nations of the United Kingdom and North America are morally fit to survive, rather than be wiped from the face of the earth as an abomination after the model of Sodom and Gomorrah, will perhaps be judged by the manner in which you respond to the challenge of this awful event of today.

I am sorry, friends, I am asked to write more on the Brazilian U.S. backed genocide program of sterilization but I have overrun this document. We shall consider another writing later. I plead with you to hear! Good day and God be with you. Hatonn to clear.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly,

"things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DE- SIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

CENTER FOR ACTION

Col. James "Bo" Gritz

Box 472 HCR31
Sandy Valley, NV
Phone 702-723-5266

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix

Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
Matter Anti-Matter
God Said: Let There Be LIGHT
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.
Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO AFFORD A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EXPRESS TRY SHARING THE COST WITH A FRIEND(S).

"As little as 100 letters received by any member of Congress on any issue is enough to send a powerful message that can change a senator or representative's vote"

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. II

BY GYEORGOS CERES HATONN
"dharma"
A PHOENIX JOURNAL

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL.II
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

SO WHAT CAN I DO?

Post Office Box 986
Tehachapi, CA 93581
(805) 822-9655
FAX 822-9658

The situation is obviously bad. The Constitution is gasping for breath and the Executive Orders shall soon strangle the little freedom remaining. It requires individuals who are willing to take responsibility, those who are willing to ACT NOW. Some suggestions for ways to effectively act as a catalyst for change are:

- "Adopt A Legislator" and establish an on-going correspondence with that one.
- Hold a seminar in your area focused on a given topic of concern.
- Invite friends over to converse or find out who to network with to begin grass roots education.
- Support Col. Bo Gritz and the Center For Action Box 472, HCR 31, Sandy Valley, NV 89019 (702) 723-5266.
- Support Yes On 23, Liberty Amendment, Box 2386, El Cajon, CA 92021 (619) 579-8500.
- Become informed, keep reading the Phoenix material.
- Obtain a list of registered voters for your area and send out letters concentrating on your primary concerns.
- Focus attention with your elected representatives on the adoption of the Liberty Amendment*(refer to the end of this document).
- Give birthday gifts/Christmas/etc. of the Express.
- Include critical issues in your newsletter.
- Go to local officials with a copy of the Constitution in hand and inquire of them about the Constitution.
- Network through church groups.
- Begin a "Stop The New World Order" campaign in your area...Just Say No.
- Write letters to the editor with a friend...and answer one another...get some support going.
- Post Expresses on Truck Stop Bulletin Boards.
- Contact your local Library and ask them to carry the Phoenix Journals or Express newsletter.
- Give Phoenix catalog or Expresses to alternative schools of all kinds or post at college/university bulletin boards.
- Contact your District School Administration building and bring Rape of the Constitution to their attention for curriculum consideration.
- Purchase the "Constitution Kit" from America West $8.00 and use it as a focusing tool for your newly formed political action committee/group.

- Photocopy the Phoenix Express and send to a (or five) friend, or post in a public place.
- Become a distributor of the Phoenix material in your area.
- Contact Sandy Green at America West and arrange for George and Desiree' Green to put on a seminar or lecture in your area.
- Purchase the George Green lecture video tape and hold a meeting at your house. Do the same with Bo Gritz tape.
- Contact college/university newspapers and ask them to run a story on a particular area of concern from the Phoenix material.
- Upload or download the information in the Phoenix Express newsletter by typing it directly into your computer and put onto computer bulletin boards that will travel far.

These are just a few suggestions to get the ball rolling. Pool your collective minds and do some brain-storming...the ideas will begin to flow. It is long past time to become directly involved. You can make a difference, if you decide to act. The choice, as always, is yours.

* TEXT OF THE LIBERTY AMENDMENT

Section 1: The Government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the Constitution.

Section 2: The Constitution or laws of any State, or the laws of the United States, shall not be subject to the terms of any foreign or domestic agreement which would abrogate this amendment.

Section 3: The activities of the United States Government which violate the intent and purposes of this amendment shall, within a period of three years from the date of the ratification of this amendment, be liquidated and the properties and facilities affected shall be sold.

Section 4: Three years after the ratification of this amendment the sixteenth article of amendments to the Constitution of the United States shall stand repealed and thereafter Congress shall not levy taxes on personal incomes, estates, and/or gifts.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 3

6/21/91 HATONN
FRIDAY

Hatonn present in Light of this wondrous day given forth to experience. I bring compassion and love to my most precious little Wendy and her family of earth relations for her father came to experience on my side last night. Loneliness, precious, is the feeling of that which is given unto the human at separation of old bodies that there might be new. Man always wishes he might have been more this or that--accept, please, that which IS and KNOW it is progress in the journey of a beloved being who has finished his journey in your dimension at this time and goes to serve where he needs to be in his next. Rejoice for him and understand and give treasure of his being while with you. Hold close to the humor he shared to sustain you and reach out in giving that his journey, now, may be one of peace and release that his soul is not given into remorse or holding because of you one's non-ability to let go of that which must travel on in its own sequence.

Turn away from those who tell you that he simply goes to "REST" in a greater LOVE--he goes not to "rest" but to "serve" and experience in the perfection of wholeness and renewal. Then, as the pages come from this place, read and study well the proof of immortality as is being given NOW for you will see that only the old was put aside in "rest" and the new springs anew as a fountain released. If only MAN could understand the wondrous cycles of renewal for you shall know your father again and again and again and the separation is only the blink of an eye, child. Take comfort in thy being, child, and allow that renewal to take place in the glory intended. Weep to clear of thine own loss in honor of that which he gave--weep not for him for his soul rejoices. But do grieve for self and loved ones left--for to grieve is honor also and releases the pain from within so that you might also go on in balance unto your own tasks.

I ask these ones to not send you flowers to wilt upon the ground but rather to gift unto you children or grandchildren a gift in grandfather's name that he might be remembered in joy each time the present in life is experienced--ah, but could you all learn this lesson of giving--give that which holds a picture of the beloved one in the present moment, even if represented in that which will also pass in its own proper sequence.

We are, at this very moment, giving unto you the explanation and proof thereof, of God and Universe--only the "blossom" is perceived to pass--the tree only rests in order to bloom again, forever passing in experience as ONE throughout the universe--often released to pause without shackles in the total freedom of being and flying in the glory of the heavens. I wrap you, and all of you who feel loss as ones depart and your own world is left with a great void--hold unto Father that you open to receive the blessings which are yours and ye shall become better for the one departing having passed your way that when you pass from this experience, thine own shall wish of your lingering with them longer--no greater honor hath any earned than to be missed for the joy given and lessons shared. This father and husband would wish no mourning for--in every word the pet bird speaks--the father is present. Do you see, chela? The presence becomes more REAL--not less. So be it and take these things within that you might find the love offered unto thee. Amen. My benediction rests gently upon you and yours that you have peace.

This is in honor of a beloved brother, Kenneth Mortensen, who has come home this day and our hearts are glad to welcome him back. We also honor this man as a father who has given you children who now bring forth the generation of children who will lead YOU HOME. Treasure them and teach them well for their job is heavy but the rewards great indeed. Salu.

TO T.D.G. OF SAN BERNARDINO

Thank you for your letter and please accept that which I am going to say, in gentle hearing for I intend no offense. I wish to state that I cannot ask of my scribe to respond to that which has been given over and over again, for the readers become restless and annoyed at the repeating of subjects. If you have all the material you will know exactly that which is the "crystal" and its general "location". Also, you will know about the computer connections with the surveillance groups who effort to take out my people. I will give no further information regarding that matter for I refuse to make their work more difficult.

Now, I do wish to present that portion in your letter regarding homosexuality. If you have read my material you would not even sit to pen such inquiries as you have sent unto me. Do not insult me, precious, by inferring that I love a Man/Woman less for having love and friendship one with another of same sex--IT IS THE BEHAVIOR WHICH IS UNACCEPTABLE--IN WHATEVER PAIR IS EXPERIENCING--BEHAVIOR! READ THE CURRENT MATERIAL AS QUICKLY AS YOU CAN GET IT FROM THE PRINTING--FOR WE OUTLAY THE SYSTEM OF CREATION AND CREATION IS "SEXED" IN PAIRS OF MALE/FEMALE--IT HAS NAUGHT TO DO WITH LOVE OF ONE ANOTHER.

Further, I CARE NOT WHO IS INFLAMED BY TRUTH--THE

REFUSAL TO ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY AND ATTEND THE LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION IN BALANCE WITH NATURE IS THAT WHICH HAS CAUSED YOUR PLANET TO COME TO DESTRUCTION--I CANNOT CHANGE OF THE FACTS. LOVE OF ONE FOR ANOTHER OF ANY SEX IS PERFECTION--IRRESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOR IN THE NAME OF FLESHLY/PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE WHICH YOU LABEL HOMOSEXUAL SEXUAL EXPERIENCE IS AGAINST THE LAWS OF NATURE! GOD DOES NOT SET THE RULES FOR NATURE, GOD ONLY GIVES YOU THE LAWS WHICH WILL KEEP YOU IN HARMONY AND BALANCE WITH WONDROUSLY IMMORTAL CREATION.

Dharma, please write the portion of the letter from which I retort for it is well done and comes as an excellent example of that which is thrust at us daily.

QUOTE:

Sometimes Comdr. Hatonn makes statements that (as I've mentioned to him before) I consider to be--in OUR SOCIETY--inflammatory. I base that on comments I've read in the EX-PRESSES in which some readers have expressed such violently opposed reaction. Ergo, when he says that homosexuality "...should not be condoned..."--I can only think that some of those I've referred to will take that opportunity to AGREE with the Comdr., and only make matters worse for these people. It has been my understanding that homosexuality is a karmic thing. As such, those who are in body with that testing, are here to work it out. Now, I wish to differentiate between "homosexuals" and "sex deviates"--the latter comprising the greater group of individuals, and a distinction which, unfortunately, most of society does not understand. It is my understanding that "sex deviates" are making the choice at THIS TIME (i.e., it's not a carryover), and this IS a condition which should not be condoned! However, I think it should be identified for most of the populace. I have some very dear and close homosexual friends and, over the years, have spoken and watched and analyzed their behavior patterns, life styles, society's reactions, etc. Now, I'm not speaking of the "flighty" ones who are usually singled out as typical homosexuals--which they are NOT! I have found that, if left alone, they lead quiet, desperate lives, knowing they are apart from most of society, and unable to do anything about it. Many I have known, have undergone psychiatric treatment, and some have come out of it worse than before. I think that because of our intolerant attitudes, we have driven many of them into lifestyles they might not otherwise have gone to. What a wealth of beauty they have brought into our world! If I have misunderstood the Comdr., I apologize, but would appreciate clarification of his words. I want to understand as much as possible--about EVERYTHING.

END QUOTING

The point at hand is behavior (actions) of ALL people and that which "society" has precipitated upon self. The misused heterosexual sexual experience is far more heinous in actual performance than is much homosexual activity--the point IS--it is totally constructed by human physical beings to cause your society to fall. God gave you laws regarding the use for your physical experience and you have voted-out, voted-in and reclassified all of them to suit the whims of your human elite and your own grasping at finding peace and love in all the wrong places and faces. You continue to seek and act "WITHOUT" to attain that which is only attained "WITHIN". You are people of the lie and struggle with that which is "supposed to be", and for a fleeting moment you think this or that will FIX the agony--NO, IT ENDS UP INTENSIFYING IT.

I hear your petition in behalf of all ones suffering the experience of confusion. The adversary is here to pronounce confusion upon you--it is the time of Chaos (Kali) upon your planet. I hear your opinions and beliefs and accept them--I do not, however, honor them above that of God's given forth to prevent exactly that which has befallen your lands and people.

I repeat: I CARE NOT WHO I INFLAME UPON YOUR PLACE--YOU ARE IN SERIOUS, DESTRUCTIVE CIRCUMSTANCE FOR THE VERY REASONS, IN PART, OF THAT WHICH YOU HAVE STATED ABOVE. Regardless of that which I say or refrain from saying--it matters not one iota of variance of the TRUTH OF THE MATTER. But I shall not give sanction unto that which is against the Laws of Nature which is The Creation. I respect and revere all PERSONS and that which they choose to experience for I have no right, nor intention, of interfering--MINE IS TO BRING TRUTH AND YOURS IS TO CHOOSE THAT WHICH YOU WILL DO. I HAVE NO CONCEPT OF THAT WHICH YOU ONES CALL "KARMA" FOR THE LAW OF CYCLES OF INFINITY SHALL AUTOMATICALLY RECYCLE THAT WHICH IS INTENDED. I am not a guru and I care not who DISAGREES with me or my approach. I have a rather high level of insight which I will balance against any Earth being and I shall outlay that which is TRUTH in full intent of total truth and not that which will PLEASE THE EARS OR EYES OF THOSE WHO OBJECT TO TRUTH.

I will however, state it one more time: I have naught but love and compassion for ones who feel love, compassion and deep caring for one of same physical experience--it is that which society of MAN human has developed and the ASSUMPTION that SOME PHYSICAL ACTION MUST ACCOMPANY THAT LOVE IN ORDER TO FULFILL SOMETHING OR OTHER. LOVE NEED NOT EVEN PHYSICALLY TOUCH ANOTHER--LOVE IS OF GOD AND IS AN EMOTION--PHYSICAL SCREWING AROUND WITH YOUR BROTHER OR SISTER IS A PHYSICAL, ABSURD AND INCORRECT MANNER OF BEHAVIOR LIMITED TOTALLY TO THE FLESH.

IF THE HUMAN WOULD HANDLE HIS SEXUAL ACTIVITIES ACCORDING TO THE LAWS GIVEN YOU, THERE WOULD BE NO MURDER BY ABORTION, NO SPREAD OF DISEASE THROUGH SEXUAL ACTIVITIES--HOMOSEXUAL OR HETEROSEXUAL--OR AGAINST CHILDREN. THERE WOULD BE NO OVERPOPULATION OF THE PLANET; THERE WOULD BE NO STARVATION AND DEATH FROM OVERPOPULATION AND, FRANKLY, YOU WOULD STILL HAVE CON-TROL OF YOUR NATIONS. MAN HAS MISUSED THE GIFT OF PROCREATION, ABUSED IT AND DEBASED IT AND NOW THE CYCLE HAS COME FULL FORCE AGAINST MAN FOR THAT FOOLISH IMPROPRIETY AND IT WILL PLAY ITSELF OUT--AT THIS POINT, PROBABLY TO THE DESTRUCTION OF A WHOLE PLANET. SO BE IT. EXPECT NOT ME TO COMPROMISE TRUTH TO ALLOW MAN TO "FEEL GOOD" FOR THE LIES ARE TO STOP IF MAN IS TO CONTINUE!

I trust I have given enough "clarification"? I repeat, the actions are against the laws of The Creation (Nature) and it actually matters not if they be against the "laws" of God--which, of course, they are, for God gave forth those laws so that His greatest Creations could live in balance and harmony with that which overrides all in the universe according to Her own absolute and undeviating laws. If anything, I give MORE COMPASSION unto those who understand not and continue in the errors for they know not that which they do or WHY they are being caused to act in such manner--but that does not make TRUTH OF THE CIRCUMSTANCE LESS.

AIDS

Harken up, you who think to use and misuse of those "sexual birthrights" you tout. As it can no longer be hidden from you and since the disease is so infiltrated into your society--they NOW TELL YOU THAT THE VIRUS IS HARBORED WITHIN THE ANUS (COLON), THE MOUTH, ETC. I told you that years ago and you chose to wear your condoms and teach your kindergarten children

"safe sex" and look where you are! ASK NOT THAT I COMPROMISE TRUTH AND IF YOU READ ALL THE INFORMATION GIVEN YOU WILL FIND THE ANSWERS LAID FORTH OVER AND OVER AGAIN. WE ARE THE HOSTS COME WITH GOD AND THERE SHALL BE NO COMPROMISE OF TRUTH TO SUIT THIS OR THAT MAN OR WOMAN--GOD IS HERE FOR THE SORTING AND IT SHALL BE SEVERE INDEED, FOR MAN WILL BE LEFT TO HIS OWN CHOICES AND HE SHALL BE IN THE EVERCYCLING REAPING OF THAT WHICH HE PLANTS.

The stupidly low projections of the effects of AIDS is projected at medical costs in the U.S. at $5.8 BILLION--you better look again for by the time the Elite are through with you, almost ALL citizens who are not of the Elite shall be infected if not actively dying of the effects of the "disease".

There is also prediction that over ten million children in Africa will be orphaned before the end of the decade. How so? If there are that many orphaned--how think ye that the children are not already infected?

You think God should fix it? He has told you how to "fix" it and you choose to denounce His instructions and demand Him fix it according to your own desires--NO, HE WILL NOT! WHEN YOU CHOOSE TO RESPOND IN GODLY MANNER--IT WILL AUTOMATICALLY FIX ITSELF! IT IS A MAN-MADE DISEASE INTENTIONALLY LOOSED ON YOU BY MAN--IT IS NOT OF GOD'S DOING AND GOD HAS NAUGHT TO DO WITH IT. I REPEAT--IT WILL AUTOMATICALLY FIX ITSELF

WHEN YOUR PEOPLE COME BACK WITHIN THE RULES OF GOD AND CREATION AND STOP YOUR UNGODLY BEHAVIOR. YOU MARCH TO THE DRUMMER OF THE ADVERSARY AND WITHIN THAT DANCE SHALL YE PERISH IF YE TURN NOT AGAIN INTO THE PATH OF GOD. IT IS SOLELY OF YOUR OWN CHOOSING.

MONEY

I am swamped with inquiries regarding the immediate plans for the dollar, what to do with money, investments, etc.? If you have not waited until this last minute you already know the answer and are not concerned with what happens next. If you are just come into reading of our information, I shall be gracious. If you are playing at greed, you will reap that which you plant and I can do nothing about it for you will do that which you will do. I have been giving you updates continually and even have ones set up in order to give you assistance--I cannot help it if you choose not to utilize that information and assistance. There is going to be no easy ride through the time of tribulation as planned by the Elite to dump on you. The plan is to take ALL ASSETS from all save the Elite and they have set up elaborate and irreversible plans to assure that end. I can't snap my finger and change of it--you allowed it to happen; you will fix it or it will not be fixed. Doom and gloom? Well, what do you expect? You ask us to butt-out of your business and then when you have botched it to irreversibility, you want God to come fix it for you--therefore, you will take it up with HIM and not space command. I tell you HOW to fix it and you refuse to comply--so be it.

YOU WILL SAVE YOUR AMERICAN CONSTITUTION OR YOU ARE DONE!!!!

I wish all of you could see the nice multicolored, with inserted thread, "bill" sent yesterday from Australia to these ones. Shocking? Why? Well, for several reasons. Great Britain rules America and you are communist/socialist. You printed the money which was exchanged, devalued and caused confiscation of all wealth in the Soviet Union--well, about a year ago the British "colonies" of New Zealand, Australia, etc. came under the "DOLLAR" system (from the British pound base). Does that not strike you as most interesting? Want another interesting point? The money was printed in Fort Worth, Texas--right where yours is already printed and waiting exchange and probable devaluation--certainly confiscation of great sums of your assets.

G-7 MEETING

So, now, you want to know about G-7. Most of you think I speak of spies and codes, etc., and never heard of G-7, including my scribe. It is comprised of the financial leaders from the so-called GROUP OF SEVEN major industrial countries who will meet in London this Sunday (June 23).

It was originally planned that the group would meet in New York but that idea was dropped because of interference with other Elite meetings taking place in Europe--to plan your demise. The major members must attend a meeting in Luxembourg at week's end. The G-7, which consists of the FINANCE MINISTERS AND CENTRAL BANK GOVERNORS OF THE U.S., JAPAN, GERMANY, FRANCE, BRI-TAIN, ITALY AND CANADA, will discuss foreign exchange markets, OTHER INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ISSUES along with the deteriorating Soviet economy, etc.--along with possible devaluation of currencies and other matters of currency exchanges.

SHOULD YOU BE CONCERNED? INDEED, INDEED! YOU WON'T EVEN GET THIS WRITING IN TIME TO BE SUFFICIENTLY CONCERNED AND WE CAN'T DO ANYTHING ABOUT THAT EITHER. THIS GROUP IS MEETING IN DIRECT RESPONSE AND ON THE ORDERS OF THE BILDERBERGERS WHO JUST MET IN BADEN-BADEN, GERMANY. WAKE UP, WORLD!!!!

OCTOBER SURPRISE

You will soon note that all the October in Paris BS will now be dumped on Meese and poor old dead and gone head of the CIA, William Casey. America, I am embarrassed for you; how in the world can you tolerate such crass affront to your beings? Bush has been to his eyes in every heinous criminal conspiracy on your globe, along with his buddy, Kissinger, since before he reached the age of adulthood. Stop acting shocked and mortified and DO SOMETHING TO STOP THIS THING OR IT WILL DESTROY YOU--NOW--NOT LATER. THERE IS NO "LATER"--THEY PLAN TO PULL YOU DOWN NOW!

Can you not see how they laugh at you? There will be another $75 BILLION poured in instantly to the RTC in the Thrift Bailout. It is to garner all property assets from you-the-people and have you pay for the service of so-doing and all you do is "talk" about it and wring your hands. Get off your duffs and join with those who are doing something but can't do it alone.

Oh yes, they laugh at you over and over again: Here is a good one right out of the Wall Street Journal, Thurs. June 20, 1991: "White House Chief of Staff John Sununu has used five different corporate jets to travel to Republican fundraisers in the past six weeks, and the White House said he will continue to use such jets rather than government planes for political travels. [This announcement, of course, is to cover that which is actually taking place.]

"Meanwhile, President Bush said, 'Mr. Sununu's use of a government limousine for a trip to a stamp auction in New York last week had created an "appearance problem." But Mr. Bush, in his most extensive comments so far on Mr. Sununu's controversial travel practices, also strongly defended his chief of staff, blah, blah, blah.

FREE TRADE

Here is another notation from the same paper--front page. CANADA SUFFERS EXODUS OF JOBS, INVESTMENT AND SHOPPERS TO U.S. Migration Stirs Angry Debate Over Whether the Cause Is 1988 Free-Trade Accord. Implications for Mexico Talks.

"Herein lies the hottest issue in Canada these days. On one level, it is the flood of weekend Canadian shoppers who have realized that gasoline, beer, clothing and other items are much cheaper south of the Canadian border. On another level, there is the exodus--difficult to quantify but potentially significant--of factories, jobs and even company headquarters from Canada to the U.S....."

[and right on down to Mexico!].

POLICY TO KILL IRAQI CHILDREN

A hard statement to swallow? Yes indeed! But I intend to point out proof that it is true.

You who live by the TV, harken up. An ABC "Nightline" broadcast on May 30 titled "Will the Children of Iraq be Saved?" confirmed that the Bush administration is committed to murdering millions of Iraqis over the coming months. You don't have time to "wail and talk" about it. By the time you get this writing it will be too late for most of the ones in immediate termination. But this genocide is taking place in every corner of your planet and it is up to you if you will continue to permit it--YOU WHO ALLOW ARE AS GUILTY AS HE WHO COMMITS THE ACT.

The broadcast had been sparked by a report issued by a Harvard medical team who recently visited Iraq. The team found that hundreds of thousands of Iraqi children face death over the coming weeks because of the combined effect of U.S.-led "precision bombing" of Iraq's infrastructure during the Gulf War, and continuing U.S.-imposed sanctions. Dr. Rob Moodie, a member of the Harvard team, presented the results of their investigation to "Nightline".

Responding to the evidence, another "Nightline" guest, Congressman Robert Torricelli, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee speaking on behalf of Bush policy, could only assert that the sanctions MUST CONTINUE--regardless of the deaths that will result.

200,000 CHILDREN WILL DIE

While you hail symbolic heroes with ticker-tape, applaud death weapons on parade and shower yellow ribbons--the agony suffocates the imaginings. Dr. Moodie reported that the Harvard team had traveled to 11 major Iraqi cities and towns, and visited 19 hospitals and health care centers. The team did a detailed survey of the change in death rates of children and the capacity of the shattered Iraqi health care system to cope with the crisis. "We have conservatively estimated," he said, as a result of this survey, "that the mortality rate for children under 5 will produce 170,000 additional deaths in this age group alone." Moodie termed the situation a "public health catastrophe". [How many of you saw the fiasco taking place with relief for Sudan just last evening?]

Iraq can now only produce 20% of its pre-war electric power, due to allied wartime bombings which targeted its power stations. As a result, sewage treatment, refrigeration of medicine, and the operation of hospitals is extremely difficult or nearly impossible. Cholera and typhoid are now reaching epidemic proportions, severe malnutrition is common, and the Harvard team projects famine.

Moodie's dire forecast was partially corroborated by Dr. Exie Murzi of UNICEF, who is now in Iraq and who told "Nightline" that "80% of children under 1 year already have severe malnutrition." Dr. Dominick Dufour, of the International Red Cross, added that "About 94,000 children in southern Iraq could die if no medication is made available to them, just because of diarrhea or waterborne diseases."

BUSH GANG SAYS "SO WHAT?"

On May 20, George Bush and Secretary of State James Baker proclaimed, in separate addresses with identical phraseology, that the U.S. would continue to enforce sanctions against Iraq "as long as Saddam Hussein is in power". Both Bush and Baker know the effects of their "precision bombing" against Iraq's infrastructure, and of the continuing sanctions. They planned it that way when the targets were set up--you note that the nuclear "stuff" survived but the baby milk factories got bombed four times!

Responding to Moodie et al, Congressmen Torricelli lamely asserted, "Maintaining the sanctions will inevitably involve some suffering by the Iraqi people. To relax them, to end them, enhances the chance that Saddam Hussein remain in power and those same children and other Iraqis could become victims of another war that Saddam Hussein might start at some future date." May God have mercy on you of Earth!

He added, "If Saddam Hussein would like to buy medicines for the children of his country, he has funds available, left over from before the war." In fact, the UN has frozen all of Iraq's funds deposited abroad, and has forbidden Iraq's purchase of any materials, including medicine for its people. Torricelli insisted that Saddam Hussein "has no real right now to appeal to the world to lift these sanctions that indeed are now causing problems for the health of those children." Is this what America has become? I believe you had best look within at that which you have become for it is indeed heinous.

Following Torricelli's ravings,

Iraq's Ambassador to the UN, Abdul Anbari, accused the U.S. of "reducing Iraq to a gigantic concentration camp. Hitler's camps would be child's play to what the American-led coalition is doing to Iraq." Entire cities are virtually floating on lakes of raw sewage, he said, which will lead to epidemics and which could "destroy the whole Iraqi people."

I hope the next parade you attend you hold the picture of the child we are going to reproduce on this paper in your vision and really SEE what you have become!

GOD'S WRATH?

We are come to get God's children off your corrupted world and bring the planet into her birthing. I would carefully take within that which I am now going to say to you of the population that has become infected with vermin and corrupted your own nests with vipers. THE CYCLES WILL BRING UNTO YOU THAT WHICH YOU HAVE PROFFERED--YOU SHALL BE LEFT TO EXPERIENCE OUT YOUR DAYS UPON THAT WHICH YOU HAVE SET AFIRE AND REDUCED TO RUBBISH. YOU SHALL SUFFER WORSE THAN THE BABE UPON WHOM YOU HAVE ALLOWED THE PLAGUES AND ATROCITIES. THERE SHALL NO LONGER BE PEACE IN ANY PORTION OF YOUR GLOBE. YOU WHO HAVE FOLLOWED THE EVIL ADVERSARY--SHALL BE LEFT WITH THE EVIL ADVERSARY TO LIVE IN SLAVERY AND WITHIN THE CORRUPTION WHICH SHALL FLOW AS LIQUID LAVA UPON YOU AND UPON THE LANDS FOR YOU HAVE DEFILED THE VERY PLACES OF LIFE.

LOOK AT THE PICTURE OF THIS DYING BABY AND AT THE BABIES OF SUDAN AND ETHIOPIA, CHERNOBYL AND YOUR OWN SLUMS AND SEE IF YOU WISH TO PIN MORE MEDALS FOR "PRECISION BOMBING" AMONG THE YELLOW RIBBONS ON YOUR HUSBAND'S/SON'S BREASTPLATE--AND ON THE BREAST OF YOUR WIVES/DAUGHTERS WHO NOW MUST PAY IN AGONY OF THAT WHICH THEY DID.

THE INTENT OF YOUR GOVERNMENT AND ELITE IS TOTAL GENOCIDE OF ALL THIRD WORLD NATIONS AND ALL RACES CONSIDERED LESSER (MINORITY)--AND WHAT DOES THAT TELL YOU DOUBTERS ABOUT THE ACTUAL AND REAL SOURCE OF THOSE CALLING THEMSELVES "JEWS"? FOR THEY INTEND TO RULE EVEN THE ELITE--THE HEBREW JUDEANS ARE ALSO PLANNED TO TOTAL GENOCIDE. MARK MY WORDS THIS DAY FOR IT IS COMING TO PASS IN YOUR TIME FOR YOU HAVE NOW DEFILED THE LEAST OF MY CREATURES WHILE YOU CRY OUT PETITIONING FOR HOW TO SAVE YOUR PHYSICAL ASSETS. GOD NEED HAVE NO WRATH FOR THE UNIVERSAL CYCLES SHALL POUR UPON YOU THAT WHICH YOU HAVE SOWN. SO BE IT.

What is the chance of turning this civilization about? In possibilities--everything; in probabilities--almost naught!

And who am I to make such predictions?

I AM ATON--WHO ARE YOU?

Dharma, you will leave this now for I ask that you go into the city and attend the legal business at hand. We will finish this tonight or tomorrow for it needs to go timely. I cannot buffer longer the seriousness of your circumstance. The house of cards is falling and the very bowels of the Mother are crying out. I ask you not to despair and yet, in my own, Hatonn, being I am filled with despair at what is now brought against your lands. What have ye remaining? Does it matter? That which you have allowed to happen causes it to be worse, soon, upon your place than any "death" you could conjure. Are there minutes? Hours?--How about days? Would you have months? Years? THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS TIME--THERE IS ONLY LIGHT IN MOTION AND YOU HAVE MANIFESTED EVIL UPON THE PURE CREATION OF GOD THOUGHT--WHAT POSSIBLE DIFFERENCE CAN IT MAKE AS TO "HOW LONG"? ALL IS THINE OWN DOING AND YOU NOW WISH ESCAPE FROM THAT WHICH YOU HAVE DONE--I CAN ONLY STAND AND AWAIT THAT WHICH YOU ONES WILL NOW DO. I ASK MY OWN ONES TO CONTINUE IN THAT WHICH THEY LABOR FOR WHAT ELSE WOULD YOU DO?

Get ye away from this place as quickly as possible, Dharma, for you are in danger. I salute you ones who serve in the midst of attack. May Man come into understanding for he sleeps too long. I ask my ones to be at ready--please remain at alert for the happenings of this and coming days shall be difficult indeed if we cannot stem the flow in some manner. Hold very close for ye know not that which is done. May God in His infinite mercy take into account the ignorance manifest hereon. Yes, precious, it is indeed serious. Adonai.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things; and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

CENTER FOR ACTION

Col. James "Bo" Gritz

Box 472 HCR31
Sandy Valley, NV
Phone 702-723-5266

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter

Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO AFFORD A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EXPRESS TRY SHARING THE COST WITH A FRIEND(S).

"As little as 100 letters received by any member of Congress on any issue is enough to send a powerful message that can change a senator or representative's vote"

"NEW WORLD ORDER"
KEEP AMERICA INDEPENDENT

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate per 13 issues nr $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 4

6/22/91 HATONN
SATURDAY

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Hatonn returned that we might finish the next EXPRESS, or, begin a new one--whichever is appropriate. I say this because you might well wish to utilize the personal messages of this morning as EXPRESS material. A message for one of our people--is instruction and message for all--it is, in fact, that which sets aside "Phoenix" people from the masses--how else will you get your instructions? If all you desire from the Phoenix material is how to manage your money--then I suggest you are at the wrong place, for ours comprises how to make a transition of a planet and the functioning order in explanation, of the universe. If, for instance, I give Dharma instructions to harken up to responsibility and respite, priorities and fatigue--ALL OF YOU PAY ATTENTION FOR THE MESSAGE IS FOR ALL OF YOU--PERSONALLY--NOT JUST BECAUSE SHE WEARS A PARTICULAR LABEL. All (each) must carefully evaluate priorities, function, HEARING AND LISTENING, and that which works for her will work for all. We need functioning, alert bodies to do our tasks to best advantage. If the consciousness of life experience is predominantly of SELF, we cannot get past the block in the roadway. Further, if you take each statement as if it were your own whipping master beating you--stop it! YOU may NOT jeopardize the entire transition because YOU cannot pull from individual ego-trip. If you feel offended or personally attacked by responses--go within and consider WHY for all is for all--and NONE may garner unto self all of the lessons nor the discipline. If TRUTH is an affront to you, I ask that you linger long enough with open mind to see the unfolding of that which we bring lest ye formulate incorrect conclusions from inadequate input and data, i.e., as with the homosexual questions. If you miss explanations then there is no way except to form incorrect conclusions and assumptions regarding our words. This will hold true for EVERY subject in point. If it is against the commandments and balanced laws of Creation it is against Truth and we do not compromise--however, the explanation is most truly needed to understand that which we ARE bringing. We condemn no MAN/WOMAN/CHILD for anything--we do lay TRUTH and INSTRUCTIVE RULES FROM GOD AND WITHIN CREATION FOR BEHAVIOR AND ACTIONS THEREOF. THIS WILL IN NO WISE EVER BE COMPROMISED--NOR WOULD YOU HAVE IT ANY OTHER WAY. YOU HAVE BEEN PEOPLE OF THE LIES TOO LONG, LOOK AROUND YOU CAREFULLY AND YOU WILL SEE WHERE THE LIES HAVE BROUGHT YOU--AWAY FROM GOD AND NOT UNTO HIM. SO BE IT.

HONOR TO ONE, VIRGINIA MEVES

Virginia Meves is Director of the Wisconsin Report. She gives her entire being and all of her time to bringing you Truth and information. There are not enough accolades to express my appreciation for this wondrous being who goes so selflessly in the pursuit of awakening you to that which is coming upon you and, as we will take that valid information as ones project it in their own rum so that the word can go farther on the waves of truth and spreading of that Truth. It is what spreading and awakening about, brothers. We must take that which is urgent and important and send it further into the masses so this does two things--it gets the Truth out and it, by volume and recognition, brings a bit of security to the pioneers and risk-takers. Protection comes in publicly recognizing known the plight and "accidents" are noted and attention I wish to quote from her Editor's Comment of June 13, 1991.

How can all this evil be opening in America? We do not know what took place in Germany before and during World War II. It is supposed to never happen anywhere in the world! And, we look at our government and our schools in horror to see the same plan and the same people are being implemented worldwide in the name of "New World Order". But no matter how, the plan are seemingly disguised to the point where the majority of the population still hasn't felt a hint of what is coming--what disaster is planned for all people. The nothing worse than to lose freedom, your sovereignty, your identity or culture!

Someone just mailed me important quotes from a book titled THE IMPACT OF SCIENCE ON SOCIETY by Bertrand Russell. Bertrand Russell is identified as God-like hero of the Socialists" and he was discussing, in his book, how future planned control was to be carried out:

"It is to be expected that advances in psychology will give governments much more control over individual mentality than they now have." (The book is a 1953 book). "...education should aim at destroying free will, so that, after pupils have left school they shall be incapable, throughout the rest of their lives, of thinking or acting otherwise than as their schoolmaster would have wished. Diet, injections and injunctions will combine from a very early age to produce the sort of character and the sort of beliefs that the authorities consider desirable, and any serious criticism of the powers that be, will become psychologically impossible. Even if all are miserable, all will believe themselves happy, because the government will tell them that they are so.

"The System, one may surmise, will be something like this: except possibly the governing aristocracy, all but 5 percent of males and 30 percent of females will be sterilized. [In Brazil, thanks to the Bush America over 40% of the females have now been sterilized.] The thirty percent of females will be expected to spend the years from eighteen to forty in reproduction. As a rule, artificial insemination will be preferred to the natural method. The unsterilized, if they desire the pleasures of love, will usually have to seek them with sterilized partners.

"Children will be taken from their mothers and reared by professional nurses. To those accustomed to this system, the family as we know it would seem as queer as the totem organization of the Australian aborigines seems to us. The laboring class will have such long hours of work and so little to eat that their desires will hardly extend beyond sleep and food. The upper class, being deprived by the softer pleasures, both by the abolition of the family and by the supreme duty of devotion the State, will acquire the mentality of ascetics; they will care only for power and in the pursuit of it will not shrink from cruelty.

"Gradually, by selective breeding, the congenital differences between the rulers and the ruled will increase until they become almost different species. A revolt of the plebs would become as unthinkable as an organized insurrection of sheep against the practice of eating mutton."

It takes a strong stomach just to read such quotes, but to see our President, our Governors, our State legislators and local elected officials working so feverishly to carry out this planning, to follow such a blueprint is unthinkable. Has the psychological warfare really been as successful as it seems? LOOK AROUND YOU AND YOU'LL SEE!!!!

Ah, chelas, it is even worse for this only takes in a few of the aspects of life planned for you. And read on for how this pronouncement and training so inately is sneaked in upon you and your progeny. They are TRAINED BY ACCEPTED "AUTHORITIES" AND WHAT I WILL GIVE HERE IS ONLY ONE EXAMPLE.

The following is a reprint: 1988--NOAPP meeting in Milwaukee, WI. Published by the American Life League in the June-July 1989 ALL ABOUT ISSUES publication. (P.O. Box 1350, Stafford, VA 22554 [for you who want to go to Source]:

THE PIED PIPER OF SEX AND SLEAZE

Dr. Sol Gordon and Friends Tell Kids to "JUST SAY YES!"

THIS WILL SIMPLY BE QUOTED:

"You are my people; you are the people I care about the most...and this is from a card-carrying member of the ACLU!!"

With these opening remarks, keynoter Dr. Sol Gordon began his address to last year's meeting of the National Organization of Adolescent Pregnancy and Parenting (NOAPP). Speaking to an audience of over four hundred at the Marc Plaza Hotel in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in October 1988, Dr. Gordon was welcomed with great enthusiasm by this gathering of admirers.

The group, approximately 95 percent women, responded with laughter and applause to Dr. Gordon's presentation, which included crude jokes, vulgar language and ardent criticism of premarital chastity as an approach to teen pregnancy. In Dr. Gordon's words, "...young people are not paying any attention to us...because we have these dumb messages...and the dumbest one is...just say no!!" Abstinence, according to Dr. Gordon, is being proposed by "extremists".

NOAPP, with 501(c)3 non-profit status, describes itself as "a national network of diverse individuals and organizations dedicated to preventing adolescent pregnancy and problems related to adolescent sexuality, pregnancy and parenting. NOAPP works through its membership to provide conferences and training events, technical assistance for policy and program development, networking and resource-sharing opportunities, state and local coalition-building guidance and a variety of other support activities."

STATE-SPONSORED, TAX-FUNDED

The Milwaukee conference, "Today's Decisions... Tomorrow's Destiny", was hosted locally by the Wisconsin Alliance Concerned With School-Age parents (WACSAP). In its attempt to influence the needs of school-age parents, NOAPP seeks to network with various public service providers, made clear by the fact that three of the four sponsors of this particular conference were state-financed agencies: (1) The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, (2) The state Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Service Board, (3) The Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Service. The fourth sponsor was the Milwaukee Foundation, which provided funding for the 1986 Blue Ribbon Panel on Teen Pregnancy that recommended school-based clinics for Milwaukee schools.

As an example of NOAPP/WACSAP networking with the public schools can be found in the fact that Peggy Clapp, president of WACSAP, is also the Asst. Vice Principal in Charge of the "School-Age Parent Program" in Milwaukee's Lincoln High School. It should be no surprise, then, to discover that a local contributor to the NOAPP conference was the Milwaukee Public School System. Furthermore, the State Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Herbert Grover, sent a welcoming letter, printed on page two of the 24-page NOAPP conference booklet, congratulating participants on their attendance, and urging them "to listen carefully to the ideas and programs presented here..."

DR. SEX

And who was presenting these "ideas and programs" to the many teachers, social service workers, and health professionals who attended this conference, and what messages were being given? As one of four keynote speakers, the primary "drawing card" for the meeting was Dr. Sol Gordon, the only "keynoter" featured in the pre-registration booklet and the only one who gave two presentations to the group. From 1970 to 1985, Dr. Gordon was the Director of the Institute for Family Research and Education at Syracuse University, and currently devotes his time to group lectures and seminars. Gordon, a "sexologist", has been a long-time proponent of sex education in the schools, serving on the Board of Directors of the Sex Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS), and publishing many books on the subject. His message very much reflected his association with SIECUS, which was founded in 1964 by former Planned Parenthood medical director, Dr. Mary Calderone.

The 1979 SIECUS "Principles Basic to Education for Sexuality" clearly avoids any suggestion that sexual activity should be restricted to marriage, and founder Mary Calderone has stated, "We must accept that adolescent sexual experimentation is not just inevitable, but actually NECESSARY for normal development..."

SELF-ABUSE, SODOMY AND SLEAZE

As indicated earlier, Sol Gordon's NOAPP presentation only served to reinforce his association with the SIECUS philosophy. While abstinence and chastity became the target of many jokes, he made quite a production of announcing his "thirty-second" birth control message: "If you girls are not on the pill, I want you to use foam; be sure to put in BEFORE you have sex; and if a boy can't afford fifty cents for a condom, he is too cheap to be allowed in!!"

In addition to promoting the use of contraceptives among the young, Gordon also insisted that masturbation MUST BE ACCEPTED: "Masturbation is a healthy, normal expression of sexuality at any age," he said, "and we have to legitimize masturbation as a healthy, normal expression of sexuality."

[Hatonn: I must interrupt here at this point at issue because in writing in conjunction with assistance from Sananda, one of our own beloved ones wrote something almost identical in message content. NO--THAT MESSAGE IS NOT EVER FROM ONE OF NON-PHYSICAL BEING NOR ANYONE WHO WORKS IN DIRECTED INPUT DIRECTLY FROM HIGHER ENERGY--THAT IS AN EARTH PROJECTION HOOK, LINE AND SINKER. Whoever heard of problems being encountered by using responsibility and acting within the commandments? If a child experiments with self it is exploration-but to encourage public manifestation or outright terror of now predicted exchange, that if you don't masturbate you are going to have physical and emotional attacks and damage--this is unacceptable and unthinkable. THIS IS MAN-PROJECTED AND SHALL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE AS COMING FROM ANY HIGHER INTELLIGENCE. IF THIS SHOE FITS ANY OF OUR WRITERS--THEN CHECK THE FEET FOR THAT TYPE OF PROJECTION IS OF EARTH PHYSICAL AND NOT OF GOD.

Earth physicians of warped intelligence project to men, for instance, that if they don't have sex release via intercourse that they MUST masturbate or they will get cancer or their penis will fall off or they will turn into a frog or something else worthy of death by torture. This is an incredible and absolute lie and we will not allow such projection of this stupid information to go further. Know that if this appears in any of your material, it is reprinted as MAN'S PROJECTION--NOT GOD'S! God creates in perfection and all parts work just fine without tampering of Man's meddling or projections of "what if's". If your focus is on getting your world squared around in Truth, you will be so occupied and focused that these things will simply not be present to give you notice. It is through thoughts centered and focused on such activities which present the problems--EVERY TIME!]

Dr. Gordon also spent considerable time discussing homosexuality, emphasizing that "It's NOT OK to be anti-gay...we have to be in the forefront of people who are saying it openly and freely..." [Now you tell me how a child can be gay or anti-gay (for this represents "male") when he doesn't even know what sex he is at such young ages--a youth is only just beginning to have feelings of emotional reaction at these young experiences. We are speaking herein about children, readers--children!]

In addition, he defined pornography, saying that in a case of rape, "If I was going to sue anybody...the 38th person, in order of importance, that I would sue, would be the pornographer, in order of influence on the rape." [Doesn't anyone remember that "rape" is a crime of VIOLENCE--NOT SEX! So, how about a little snuff film or blood-letting, beatings, etc., and perhaps the rage will just go-away? You will wake up, people, or you better pray to sleep soundly on without dreams for your world is a nightmare and I know not what you can do about it! At the rate you attend it, it looks bleak indeed.]

And, he also had a message for teachers present: "Don't you dare try to implement anything I say unless you have job security and tenure...If a supervisor says to you, 'But you're not supposed to do this stuff,' always say, 'OH, I DIDN'T KNOW.'"

ATHEISM AND PERVERSION

The philosophies Sol Gordon espoused at the NOAPP conference are consistent with the fact that he was among the almost four hundred who signed the 1973 Humanist Manifesto II, which, in addition to DENYING THE EXISTENCE OF GOD, ADVOCATES MORAL RELATIVISM, AND CALLS FOR COMPLETE SEXUAL FREEDOM. [Now readers, this includes those youthful experimenters who are still living off the good-will of parents, in your homes and who won't even mow the grass or take out trash. This is responsibility???

Understanding Sol Gordon's association with the liberal philosophies of the Humanists' and of SIECUS, one can more easily understand Gordon's description of himself, as originally written in the Jan./Feb. 1975 issue of The Humanist. [Humanist MEANS of the physical plane-absolutely and solely; as if that state of a person would last eternally, somehow.] This is reprinted by Claire Chambers in her 1977 publication, The SIECUS Circle:

The author wishes to use the occasion of this publication to come out of his closet and declare that he is polymorphous perverse [sic]. He dedicates this piece to all the women in his life, to all the men in his life, and especially to the wife in his life.

According to Chambers, Gordon has also written a series of vulgar sex comic books for young readers. These are known as ZING SEX COMIX and are published by Ed-U Press, which Gordon heads. In the Ed-U Press brochure that was distributed at the NOAPP conference, Dr. Gordon was promoting and selling not only his own books like The New Our Bodies, Ourselves, Gary Kelly's Learning About Sex, and Ruth Bell's Changing Bodies, Changing Lives, considered by many to be among the most filthy of sex "education" materials being advocated for classroom use.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD PARTICIPATION

As one might expect, the single group with the largest representation at this conference was Planned Parenthood. Additionally, Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin was among the seventeen exhibitors at the conference, along with groups such as the March of Dimes. In fact, one keynote speaker, Dorothy Patterson, who was named 1988 Woman of the Year by the California State Legislature for her work as director of the Oakland Unified School District's Teen Assistance Program, indicated a great admiration for Margaret Sanger, the founder of Planned Parenthood. Patterson said, "Among those advocates whose examples inspire me are...family planners like Margaret Sanger....feminists like Betty Friedan...these people...have had a profound effect on the lives of individuals and have helped shape the character of our nation." [Whew, and she is so right. We aren't really talking about typical "family" planning--we are talking about total irresponsible behavior.] The irony is that Patterson, a black woman, appears to be promoting the work of Margaret Sanger, who in 1939 launched her "Negro Project", which sought to discourage "the defective and diseased elements of humanity" from their "reckless and irresponsible swarming and spawning..." [You better reread this last and think about it a minute because I believe most of you missed the point at issue!]

CREATING THE MARKET FOR ABORTION

And how has Margaret Sanger "helped shape the character of our nation?" It is obvious to anyone who has examined Planned Parenthood's sex education curricula that the "contraceptive philosophy" it promulgates not only approves premarital sexual activity, but actively encourages the "adolescent sexual experimentation" Calderone says is "necessary for normal development". The sad truth is that Planned Parenthood promotes the very activity it pretends to cure, and in doing so, creates a market for its own abortion services. As a result, teen sexual delinquency rates are at an all-time high.

These facts were ignored by another keynote speaker, Dr. Marilyn Steele, who blatantly stated that, "Early and regular contraceptive use results in fewer pregnancies." Readers of ALL About Issues know that this theory has no foundation in fact, and has been proven wrong in major studies by Stan Week, Jacqueline Ksun, Michael Schwartz and James Ford, as well as many others.

CONTRACEPTION AND "SELF-ESTEEM"

The two dominant themes of the NOAPP conference were contraception and "self-esteem". The fact that teens would be sexually active was taken for granted, and promotion of contraception was pervasive throughout the conference. For example, at a Center for Population Options workshop on AIDS education, literature was distributed which suggested to teachers, that, "In some schools, students can't pass their health class without buying a condom!" It is also significant that one of the contributors to the conference was Ortho Pharmaceutical, the largest contraceptive manufacturer in the country. [And one of the major Elite Cartel pharmaceutical companies of the world.]

Among the keynoters and most of the thirty-five workshops there was no serious discussions of abstinence or pre-marital chastity as a solution to offer for teen pregnancy; it simply WAS NOT considered. "Self-esteem" was promoted over and over again as the new panacea along with teaching "responsibility" AFTER the fact. However, parents must remember that "self-esteem" is a double-edged sword as taught by these trainers in negative response to parental authority at all levels and ages. While it may be true that a child needs a great deal of self-confidence to reject undesirable peer influence, it will, at the same time, require a defiantly self-confident child to have the courage to violate his or her family values and/or heritage, and engage in the "responsible" promiscuity being promoted by the liberal sex educators. In fact, one workshop speaker admitted that, "We don't want to stop people from having sexual intercourse at any age; we don't want to stop people from being sexual at whatever age." Another speaker said, "Teens are having sex, and probably enjoying it". [Whatever that might mean.] There may be good reason why, from December 26-31, 1988, Sol Gordon conducted—in Hawaii—the "First International Congress on Self-Esteem and Sex Education". Children will need lots of "self-esteem" JUST TO LIVE AS GORDON SUGGESTS!

TEACHING HATRED OF BABIES

Also present at the NOAPP conference was the anti-family rhetoric that seeks to reduce teen pregnancy by teaching teens to hate babies. One workshop speaker proudly displayed a large sign showing a lovely picture of a mother and a toddler, but the caption on the picture stated, "It's like being grounded for 18 years!" The speaker was very enthusiastic about the poster, indicating that it had been distributed throughout the city in which she worked. This particular poster was part of a program being funded by the Wisconsin Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Service Board. The subtle, anti-family message in the poster was that motherhood is a horrible sentence.

While abortion was not openly advocated by NOAPP conference speakers, the pro-life message was conspicuous by its absence. There were no pro-life organizations represented, even though two brazenly pro-abortion organizations were among the seventeen exhibitors. It is interesting to note that, in the list of exhibitors appearing on page 21 of the official conference program, the Wisconsin Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights is listed only as the Wisconsin Religious Coalition, giving an entirely different connotation to the organization. It gave one the feeling that NOAPP is trying to avoid a public pro-abortion position.

Finally, it is significant that almost all of those who control the NOAPP/WACSAP alliance are women; as were approximately 90-95% of those who attended the conference. Considering the heavy promotion of contraception, the lack of pro-life representation, and the visibility of pro-abortion organizations, one could easily get the impression that this conference was organized by feminists, working to preserve the right to abortion. Listening to keynote speaker Dorothy Patterson invoke the names of patron saints Margaret Sanger and Betty Friedan only reinforced this perception.

Abortion rights are fundamental to the agendas promoted by the HUMANIST MANIFESTOS, by SIECUS and by the ACLU. Therefore, it is not surprising that these were, indeed, the people that Sol Gordon cared about the most.

NOW TO "MAKE YOUR DAY!"

I am going to ask Dharma to just quote these two pages which came over the fax about an hour ago. She, by the way, has called off cleaning, unpacking and plans to pack the rest of her junk and leave—if she can figure out how to ASCEND—for she surely doesn't want to miss the "whole" show:

June 15, 1991 (News Commentary)

AIMING FOR THE TOP SPOT: The rumor mongers of the nation's capital continue to talk up the possibility that New York Democratic Congressman STEPHEN SOLARZ will make a bid for his party's nomination as presidential candidate. While most pundits cautiously weigh the pros and cons of such a move by Solarz, a few are convinced it would make good political sense. These watchers of the Washington scene think the time may be right for a Jewish presidential candidate to test the waters.

"The Democratic Party is so fractured at present that anyone with an organized cadre and a little money can have the nomination for the asking", says one congressional member.

Solarz, should he choose to run, would have a lot more than "a little money," and he certainly would have a highly "organized cadre", opined the source. The entire organized Jewish community—AIPAC, the AJC's, THE ADL, WZO, et al—would turn out to work on his behalf. The New York crowd, Hollywood and the bulk of the news media would support his nomination and later his candidacy. Money would pour into his campaign coffers, "Probably more than any candidate in history has ever had."

While Solarz would likely win the Democratic nomination with relative ease, his chances of defeating President Bush would be slim—unless there was a sudden, severe downturn in the Republican leader's popularity. "That's not a probability, but it is a possibility," said the congressional veteran. "It's still a long time until November 1992." If Solarz waged a good campaign, even if he lost to Bush in 1992, he would gain a great deal of party loyalty from the rank and file (for the ordinary American has now been trained to not be anti-Semitic and is less biased than ever before in history.) This would put him in position to prepare for the 1996 election—when his opponent might be current Vice President Dan Quayle, a far less formidable candidate than the sitting president.

"The Jewish crowd is ready to make a run for it. That's for sure," said the source. "The real question is: Are the American people ready for a Jewish president?"

At this point, only the New York congressman knows for certain what his plans are. Meanwhile, however, the excitement in Jewish Democratic circles is running high. The Jewish caucus on the Hill and its horde of energetic young staffers are teaming up with AIPAC and the rest of the organized pro-Israeli movement to win the big budget battle for the Jewish state this coming September. Solarz will be one of the leaders of the campaign.

At the same time, the National Jewish Democratic Council (NJDC) continues to prepare for its big effort "to promote Jewish involvement in the party from the executive to the grassroots level." A power lunch is to be held by leaders of the NJDC with Democratic National Committee Chairman Ron Brown, Senate majority Leader George Mitchell (Maine) and House Speaker Tom Foley (Wash.) [Still think you are talking about "two" factions? Come, come, chelas! Remember Tom Foley's little visit with Bush's at Camp David????] next month to discuss party priorities. In addition, the NJDC is reaching out to both the Black Caucus and the Women's Caucus in Congress. The NJDC is also planning a summer conference which is to be attended by representatives from all sectors of the Jewish pro-Israeli community, including AIPAC's chief honcho, Tom Dine.

"There's no doubt about it," the source said, "They're getting ready for something big,—and it's not just gaining more seats in Congress. They're going for the top spot, too." End of Quoting.

How dare you call me Anti-Semitic. Number one, because I am a Semite (Shemite) and number two—this writer who presented this paper and public notice is pro-Solarz and a Jewish-run America!! You ones just don't know what to think any more, do you?

To help clarify your thoughts: More QUOTE: By the way, none of the terms to be utilized are of the original Hebrew Judean Judaists—not throughout this next portion and the one following it—they are both from public forum press and are also dated June 15, 1991.

THE INVASION OF THE SAYANIM

JEWISH STAFFERS COME IN DROVES, AND STAY: Each day hundreds of dedicated Zionists are hard at work furthering the goals and objectives of the State of Israel in the corridors of power on Capitol Hill. Much larger than the staff of the very organization which relies on them—the Mossad—these witting (and unwitting) pawns provide Israel with the most up-to-date and comprehensive insights on the behind-the-scenes activities of the U.S. legislature, and, indirectly, some of the key government agencies reporting to Congress. These pawns are known as sayanim, Hebrew for volunteers. They spy for Israel's secret intelligence service, the Mossad. [You see, chelas, the adversary has never, and will never, lose sight of his target and goals of world control—it is a lesson you of Light might well learn!]

According to Victor Ostrovsky, an ex-Mossad member and author of the book BY WAY OF DECEPTION: THE MAKING AND UNMAKING OF A MOSSAD OFFICER, THE SAYANIM ARE JEWISH VOLUNTARY HELPERS. They must be 100 percent "Jewish" (Talmudic in devotion and belief) as well as citizens of their host country (in this case, America). Many are initially contacted at the behest of the Mossad by relatives living in Israel, with the request that they assist another Israeli agency whose purpose is more mundane.

Relying on ideological appeal and the recruit's strong sense of Jewishness, the Mossad does not usually compensate a "sayan" for anything save the expenses incurred in assistance on a mission. Like one small piece of a puzzle, the individual "sayan" is often kept completely in the dark about the nature and logistics of the clandestine operations in which he is often requested to assist. Because the "sayans" are not fully informed about the work in which they engage, nor ever given classified information, they are only infrequently put at risk. Given the extent of this network in the U.S.—particularly on Capitol Hill—as well as its ideological nature, the Mossad is able to wield phenomenal influence in just about all vital areas of American society.

A cursory glance at the ethnicity of Congress reveals that its makeup is 8 percent Jewish, far beyond the 2.5 percent of the U.S. population represented by Jews. Even more impressive is that 20 percent of the staff personnel in Congress are Jews. Thus, Congress is literally inundated with Israeli sympathizers and loyalists. Of course, not all of the Jewish staffers on Capitol Hill are working for the Mossad. But with a scant few "sayanim" on the staffs of the key congressional members and committees, Israeli intelligence is more cognizant of issues affecting the Jewish state than the majority of Washington's insiders. In fact, this condition is so pervasive that former Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs David McGiffert once complained that the Israeli Embassy would frequently demand copies of documents from the Pentagon which were still in draft stage and had not yet even reached his desk.

Recruitment of agents on congressional staffs is virtually risk-free for the Mossad. Because of the ideological nature of Zionism, a "sayan" unwilling to help out is the exception to the rule. In the event refusal to assist should occur, the "sayan" could then stand accused of being a traitor to the Jewish people and even confronted with the charge that it was Jews like him or her who facilitated the Holocaust [For it is fully recognized except by you-the-blind-people, that it was the Zionist Khazarian Jews who did facilitate the Nazi Holocaust!]

One of the chief sources of Mossad recruitment is the American Israel Public Affairs Committee. Through its intern program, every year hundreds of young Zionists come to Washington at AIPAC's encouragement to intern in a friendly congressman's office. Internships in hostile offices are also encouraged and easily attained in the preventing of the host leader being labeled anti-Semite (though obviously not under the auspices of AIPAC) in order for Israeli intelligence to keep tabs on the opposition. Many of the students, who receive valuable experience, eventually return to work on the Hill or other targeted government agencies after graduation, all well versed in working hand-in-glove with Israeli intelligence.

"Sayanim" give Israel a prodigious advantage in its lobbying efforts. They are the most effective secret lobby in Washington, and often they work closely with AIPAC. In the midst of the Iranian hostage crisis in 1980, columnist Jack Anderson quoted what he believed to be U.S. intelligence reports. Actually they were supplied by the Mossad through AIPAC. Ultimately, Anderson learned the reports were nothing more than disinformation, intended to frustrate the Carter administration's hostage rescue attempts. Of course it is also now known that there was an attempt to have Anderson assassinated (a nice term for murder).

Also ensnared in the arms-for-hostage quagmire was former National Security Adviser Richard Allen (and chief foreign policy adviser to Reagan during the 1980 campaign), who was approached at a social event following the landslide Reagan victory by then-director of AIPAC, Morris Amitay. Amitay, acting on behalf of the Israeli government and with blatant disregard for the U.S. embargo against Iran, let alone the tense diplomatic situation, told Allen that in return for Iranian Jews being allowed to emigrate to Israel, Israel wanted to send American arms to the Ayatollah.

Just one more and we will leave this writing for today:

MOTHER OF ALL BATTLES

Forget Saddam Hussein. The budget negotiations in Congress scheduled for this September will undoubtedly be the promised "mother of all battles". That is when the Jewish lobby will make its formal bid for another $10 BILLION in U.S. loan guarantees to finance the absorption of Soviet Jews by Israel. Led by AIPAC, the Jewish community has indicated it will appeal on "humanitarian" grounds for the additional aid, and will include the Ethiopian Jews newly arrived in Israel as part of the appeal. A "full court press" is already under way, says the Washington Jewish Week.

The planned $10 BILLION rip-off has rallied the pro-Israeli community like no cause in recent history. Israeli and Jewish American organizational officials have been working overtime in an effort to plot the most effective course to fleece the U.S. taxpayer of the desired funds. Included in their efforts is a grassroots letter writing campaign, pressure on news editors and reporters to provide favorable coverage of Israel, and requests to members of Congress to write op-ed pieces on Israel's behalf.

According to the Washington Jewish Week, "Israeli officials have concurred that the loan campaign should be Jewish rather than Israeli", a thinly disguised attempt to draw attention away from the administration's lineage of the loan guarantees with the controversial West Bank housing settlements now being expanded by the Israelis. This bone of contention has even led to an erosion of trust between some Israeli supporters in Congress and the Zionist state. Rep. Larry Smith (D-Fla.) expressed concern with the campaign's hopes of survival because Israeli Housing Minister Ariel Sharon lied blatantly to him and other congressmen about Israel's settlement policy. Smith characterized Sharon as "a domestic opportunist".

Israel's inflexibility and lack of cooperation with Secretary of State Baker's peace initiatives also have impeded support for the loan guarantees. Leading the effort to elicit compliance with U.S. policy and congruence with the peace initiatives are Sen. Patrick Leahy (D-Vt.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations foreign operations panel, and his House counterpart Rep. David Obey (D-Wis.). Obey asked during a recent appearance before the prestigious Council on Foreign Relations: "How much more of our foreign aid budget should the Middle East devour? My answer is--none, until those dollars are provided in the context of a sweeping re-evaluation of basic policy."

Meanwhile, the House Foreign Affairs Europe and Middle East subcommittee has upped the ante for Israel to record heights, with an additional $200 million in guaranteed military assistance, and the disbursing of Israel's aid with the first month of the fiscal year. Included in the Israeli aid bill are measures which effect the cancellation of aid to Syria unless they begin negotiations with Israel, and further restrictions on any U.S.-PLO dialogue. [Well, what did you THINK Baker has been doing every week in Israel?] Not to be outdone by the House giveaway, Sens. Charles Grassley (R-Iowa) and Arlen Specter (R-Pa.) have submitted a request to President Bush that he approve funds for the Arrow anti-ballistic missile project ($340 million) and provide supercomputers to Israeli universities. Sens. Daniel Inouye (D-Hawaii) and Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) have proposed giving excess gulf war material to Israel, in addition to the $700 million drawdown in "surplus" weaponry to be transferred to Israel from the Pentagon inventories. [Excess? Surplus? Where are you Americans?] In addition, since the gulf crisis, Israel has received $650 million for the collateral damage sustained during so-called SCUD attacks (which have been suspected as being self-induced), $400 million in housing loan guarantees last March, $300 million in stockpiled U.S. arms for Israeli use, two Patriot missile batteries, guarantees of Pentagon contracts to modify fighter jets, 10 F-15 fighters, and a 4.5 million barrel strategic petroleum reserve.

How big is our annual SHELL-OUT TO THE UN-GRATEFUL ZIONIST STATE? Not counting the supercomputers for Israeli universities, the excess Gulf War material, Arrow anti-ballistic missile project and Pentagon contracts to modify fighter aircraft, we are looking at $3 BILLION in guaranteed annual aid (cash), $200 million in increased military assistance (for FY 1993), $700 million for the weapons drawdown, $650 million for the collateral damage sustained in the gulf crisis, $300 million in U.S. arms stockpiled in Israel for their use, $200 million for two patriot missile batteries, $650 million for the 10 F-15 fighter jets, $400 million in housing loan guarantees secured in March, $340 million to fund the Arrow project, $90 million for the strategic oil reserves (4.5 million barrels at a very generous $20 a barrel) which comes out to well over $6 BILLION. And they want an additional $10 BILLION for immigrant housing on top of this! WELL, YOU ADD IT UP!

As you consider the above, I suggest you take a look at the rest of your world and the starving people and the genocide thrust upon every nation on the planet--INCLUDING TOP OF THE LIST, AMERICA! How is it with the moral issuances coming forth from Israel these days--there is hardly any speaking about any AIDS in the top levels of the Elite Zionist organization? You had best look into that, beloved sleepy-heads. I didn't say "Jews"--I said "top-level Elite Zionists".

Do you still disbelieve the capability of humanoid duplication? How about foreign control? How about you "think hard about it!". AMERICA IS HAVING NEW SIGN-UPS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT IN THE RANGE OF HALF MILLION PER WEEK! You are IN A DEPRESSION AND STILL GIVE ALL YOUR ASSETS TO THE PARASITES! SO BE IT FOR THE REAPER WILL HARVEST THAT WHICH YOU SOW! Salu!

Hatonn to stand aside. We need a rest break. Good luck, World, for you certainly do need a lot of it.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT AND CREATION BECAME PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God. The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From

Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shansstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.
Write for Quantity Discount.
Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters, medical supplies, food storage, and alternative survival needs. The cost for the documentation is $7, $8 Canada & $10 overseas.(shipping included),

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JUNE 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 5

6/23/91 HATONN
SUNDAY

Hatonn present to give you some good news and some bad news. Firstly, the good--once more, with great difficulty and risk, the SPOTLIGHT was able to infiltrate the Bilderberg meetings in Baden-Baden. I am asked if I need such insight? No, but, precious ones, you seem to have to hear it from human mouth--even if human mouth tells you lies. When there is first hand evidence to PROVE a point--I shall utilize it to the fullest measure. We are, as patriots, not in competition--we are efforting to bring you--the-people TRUTH so you can make informed decisions. Any way that I can help, I shall. I give great honor to most of the writers of SPOTLIGHT for they risk much. It is obvious that they mostly present Truth for the efforts are massive and intense to shut down the press. So be it for FREEDOM IS USUALLY GAINED AT GREAT CHALLENGE.

Dharma, I ask that you reprint the information as given and I shall comment where appropriate (in italics). I believe you will have enough with almost no comment except where there is "guesswork" in pronouncement.

NEWS BLACKOUT

It actually is worse than a news "blackout" for in cases such as Jack Cole, who is an embarrassment to Florida, the truth of meetings are known and deliberately denied. The press knew of the Bilderberg meeting in Baden-Baden but were gagged sufficiently to have no mention on the national news programs or press. THE BILDERBERGERS RULE YOUR WORLD, CHELAS, AND THEY PLAN HEINOUS THINGS SUCH AS ANOTHER "MAJOR" WAR IN THESE COMING MONTHS. THIS GROUP IS THE MOTHER-FATHER OF THE TRILATERALISTS, COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, ETC. YOU MUST PAY ATTENTION!

PROPHECIES

I wish you take note of some of the great prophecies as they seem to be unfolding, i.e., "...a Man in a blue turban will rain terror upon the world." "...the bear from the north will push the sons of the Khazars into the land of the Turks and then the Mongol horde shall swarm down upon the lands and the land will be soaked in blood" and "...there shall be a war worse than any seen by Man and fire shall rain from the sky and the new city will be devastated" and, and, and...! Do I think prophecies must be fulfilled? No--but YOU DO! I want you to keep in mind that turbans represent the flags of nations and you have even more evidence herein for the forces of the United Nations wear "blue berets". Keep it in mind as you read along here.

QUOTE:

BADEN-BADEN, Germany:
by James P. Tucker Jr.

The Bilderberg group plans another war within five years.

This grim news came from a "main pipeline"--a high-ranking Bilderberg staffer who secretly cooperated with our investigation--behind the guarded walls of the Badischer Hof, who was operating from inside with colleagues serving as "connecting pipelines". [Could this be a set-up? Indeed, indeed--so you can expect another war in months, not five years! But you must recognize that for bribes ones will always have "moles" willing to risk a bit of intrigue. Moreover, some ones see the end of a world coming at the hands of these evil, criminals and are willing to risk much to stop the insanity.]

The main pipeline met at least once daily, and sometimes twice, with the SPOTLIGHT as the annual secret meeting of the world elite took place June 7-9 in this resort town.

While war plans were being outlined in "Bilderbergese", the air traffic controller at Baden-Baden's private airport reported numerous incoming flights from Brussels, where NATO headquarters are based and Secretary of State James Baker was, at the moment, promising aid to the Soviet Union.

Aboard one of those planes, en route to the Bilderberg meeting, was Manfred Woerner, NATO's general secretary.

It was repeatedly stated at the Bilderberg meeting that there will be "other Saddams" in the years ahead who must be dealt with swiftly and efficiently. [This was a code term to represent "basis" for war as would be set up and presented as "reason" to the populace.]

What the Bilderberg group intends is a global army at the disposal of the United Nations, which is to become the world government to which all nations WILL BE SUBSERVIENT BY THE YEAR 2000.

A UN ARMY

Crucial to making the UN a strong world government, by "osmosis", in the words of some Bilderberg participants, is to bestow it with "enforcement powers."

"A UN army must be able to act immediately, anywhere in the world, without the delays involved in each country making its own decision whether to participate, based on parochial considerations," SAID HENRY KISSINGER DURING ONE OF THE FORUMS.

KISSINGER and others expressed pleasure over the conduct of the Persian Gulf war, stressing that it had been "...sanctioned by the UN, at the request of President George Bush, himself a Trilateral luminary, before the issue was laid before the U.S. Congress."

The fact that the president would make his case to the UN first, when the Constitution empowers ONLY Congress to declare war, was viewed as a significant step in "LEADING AMERICANS AWAY FROM NATIONALISM."

If Americans can be persuaded to surrender warmaking decisions to the UN, and let their young men die wearing a UN uniform, fighting under a UN flag, "PAROCHIAL NATIONALISM" in Britain, France and elsewhere will disappear, Bilderberg speakers said.

"The Persian Gulf venture has advanced the cause by years," one speaker said. Americans, so reluctant to commit their flag to foreign battlefields after 58,000 perished in the ill-fated Vietnam War, have had their attitude "completely turned around," he said.

BUSH FLIMFLAMS PUBLIC

It was "good psychology" for Bush to allow congressional and other leaders to express their fear of losing 20,000 to 40,000 American lives, he said, "...when Bush knew the loss of life would be much lower."

When the allied casualty toll reached "only 378" and Americans read and heard of "only four" Americans dying in a week of ground war, it "was like nobody had died at all," one said, "and Americans enjoyed it like an international sporting match."

Such an adventure was essential to getting Americans into "the right frame of mind for the years ahead," said another.

In their circumspect way, the Bilderberg participants claimed credit for influencing the president to go to war, some mentioning, with knowing smiles, that the American Ambassador, April Glaspie, had assured Saddam Hussein directly that the United States would take no action if he invaded Kuwait.

And, they promised each other, there will be "more incidents" for the UN to deal with in the years ahead. The Bilderberg group and its little brother, the Trilateral Commission, can set up "incidents" on schedule, they said, but in less direct words. THE WORDS "WITHIN FIVE YEARS" WERE HEARD REPEATEDLY.

Another important step toward a strong, recognized and accepted world government is taxing power. Presently, the UN operates on "assessments" paid by each country.

"TEMPORARY" TAX

At its April meeting in Tokyo, the Trilateralists called for a UN levy of 10 cents per barrel of oil coming from the Persian Gulf. It would be sold as "temporary", lasting only long enough to rebuild Kuwait [who hangs without trial, dissenters] and feed the Kurds until they are back on their feet.

The Bilderbergers had set up the proposal and now approved, as a group, of the move by their brother group, in which David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger and others also serve as leaders. "Once people get used to a tax, it never is repealed. Ten cents a barrel would have a negligible effect on sales at the pump, and it could be extended worldwide "WITH APPROPRIATE INCREASES IN THE YEARS AHEAD."

Part of the philosophy of a "direct" tax by the UN is already in effect, they noted with satisfaction. The UN is demanding 30 percent of Iraq's oil profits for "reparations", and the United States has obligingly taken the position that it should be increased to 50 percent. [While you are killing the babies and mothers, of course.]

From the sum total of all things said, the Bilderberg strategy emerged: Start the tax by imposing it on a newly established "bad guy" who must suffer, and use the revenue for such humanitarian purposes as feeding the Kurds. Keep the initial tax low so that the public is unaware that it is levied and then kick it up.

As the UN acquires its OWN GLOBAL ARMY and DIRECT TAXES as another source of revenue, the world is to be divided into major "regions" FOR CONVENIENCE OF ADMINISTRATION, under the secret Bilderberg plan discussed.

NATIONS FOREVER CAPTIVE

Already Western Europe is to be "without borders" BY 1993. By 1996, IT IS TO HAVE A SINGLE CURRENCY. Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union are to be eventually included. The Soviet Union is to REMAIN IN-

TACT AND THE CAPTIVE NATIONS ARE TO REMAIN FOREVER SUBJUGATED.

Dealing with 15 more small states would be too complicated. [Now how do you feel about the wondrous welcome given Baker by Albania? "Freedom works!" he shouted and the millions went wild. Well, you didn't know what was coming down--how could THEY possibly know they are destined for total slavery either which way they move?]

Bilderberg pressure on Congress to pass the free trade treaty with Mexico is another step toward establishing the Western Hemisphere as another "region". Free trade with Canada was the first step and Mexico the second. THEREAFTER, ALL LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS ARE TO BE INCLUDED.

IN THE YEARS (MONTHS) AHEAD, A ONE-CURRENCY MOVEMENT FOR THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE IS PLANNED, IDENTICAL TO THAT OF THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY AND, ULTIMATELY, A WORLD GOVERNMENT WITH WORLD CURRENCY.

Also on the global economic front, Bilderberg pressure on the Uruguay Round of talks on the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) is being felt. Even as the Bilderberg group was meeting with 120 of the world's leading financiers and political leaders, GATT negotiators announced a "new spirit of cooperation" and determination to reach an agreement.

David Rockefeller and Kissinger praised the recent actions by Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, whom they coach closely and to whom they have easy access.

BUSH PREPARES TO POSTURE

Gorbachev announced that he needed a $100 BILLION "gift" from the West--mostly American--to survive. Bush, a longtime Trilateralist dedicated to the global cause, could then posture for Americans by saying ".no, only approximately $20 BILLION and only if Gorbachev behaves."

Two days after the Bilderberg meeting, on June 11, President Bush obligingly reversed himself--six weeks after curtsying to the "right wing" by proclaiming the Soviet Union "uncreditworthy"--and announced that the United States would guarantee $1.5 billion in loans for the communists to buy grain. A "loan guarantee" has become almost synonymous with "gift".

Frank Murray, a journalist of stature long known to the SPOTLIGHT from his years with the defunct Washington Evening Star, wrote in the Washington Times that it was the first "of what is expected to be a series of steps to ease trade and give economic aid to Moscow."

The White House also reiterated its opposition to moves in Congress to send any aid directly to the republics of the Captive Nations, thereby strengthening their bid for freedom, without shoring up the crumbling walls of communism within the Soviet Union, with its domination of the Captive Nations perpetuated. [You will note that as of this day (week) there are two more Soviet block nations who plan to effort to pull away--watch and see how it goes!]

Secretary of State Baker was in Geneva on June 8, the second day of the three-day Bilderberg meeting, promising American dollars to Gorbachev and reaffirming U.S. abandonment of the Captive Nations. While it is known that high officials of the State and Defense Departments and the White House attended, it could not be learned if Baker was among the few arriving late, hidden behind a screen of guards. [...or who was already in the building and kept from any contact with workers of the hosting hotel. I can reassure you that what and who you saw at the "victory" parade was NOT the most important replica of Bush and Quayle for they were also present in Baden-Baden!]

The guards and all participants were instructed to respond to all inquiries regarding persons present, "I don't know."

This is said in German every time when the question is shouted in English, even by guards heard speaking fluent English.

Gorbachev, of course, wants to keep the Captive Nations enslaved as part of the Soviet Union. The United States is helping him by taking the position that anticipated future billions of American tax dollars MUST GO TO THE KREMLIN TO AVOID THE "COMPLICATIONS" OF DEALING WITH 15 STATES THAT HAVE REGAINED THEIR SOVEREIGNTY.

The Bilderbergers endorsed this sellout just days before America's annual Captive Nations Week, once the occasion for prayers for freedom of the enslaved peoples and tolling church bells.

End Quoting.

BUSY BUSHES

I think you should know that Mr. George Bush's private accounts and businesses are run in part by Prescott Bush, brother of President George. Please note that an investigation is under way in Tokyo because Prescott Bush is tied to the yakuza, a Japanese gangster group. Prescott Bush, who has MAJOR INVESTMENTS IN RED CHINA--perhaps accounting for his brother's strong advocacy of most favored nation trade status for the communist slavemasters-- has links with Hodusho Sangyo, a real estate and investment company, which is tied to the Japanese underworld. So be it.

WRITE AND ASK "WHY"

The SPOTLIGHT has asked that you readers write these reporters and ask why they failed to cover the Bilderbergers' meeting in Baden-Baden, Germany. We will also give the addresses. Please share any responses with SPOTLIGHT at 300 Independence Ave., SE, Washington, DC 20003. If you get anything interesting we would appreciate sharing with our readers, also, and we shall forward the response to all mailing lists we can locate as well as radio and TV stations: Thank you.

Jack Anderson, c/o United Features Syndicate, 200 Park Avenue, NY 10166. Dan Rather, Morley Safer and Mike Wallace, CBS News Division, 524 West 57th Street, New York, NY 10019; Carl Bernstein and Peter Jennings, ABC News, American Broadcasting Co., 1330 Avenue of Americas, New York, NY 10019; Jack Nelson, Los Angeles Times, Times Mirror Square, Los Angeles, CA 90053; William Safire, New York Times, 229 West 43rd Street, New York, NY 10036;

George Will and Bob Woodward, Washington Post, 1150 15th Street NW, Washington, DC 20071; Tom Brokaw, NBC News, National Broadcasting Co., Inc., 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10020; William F. Buckley, Jr., National Review, 150 East 35th Street, New York, NY 10016; Michael Zahn, Milwaukee Journal, 333 West State Street, Milwaukee, WI 53201; Jim Ridgeway, Village Voice, 542 Broadway, New York, NY 10003; Robert Novak, c/o Associated Features, 9501 Harrow Hill Lane, Burke, VA 22015

You think they just didn't know? Come now--they were notified weeks in advance on at least five occasions and finally daily prior to and during the meeting. Could something be rotten in the press and media? Seems to me these great insightful "leaders" of your wondrous nation are on the air constantly and even have elaborate forums on CNN and elsewhere regularly. This is such a tiny list it is sickening but it will give you the picture! Now America, you can sit and wait and, now, I believe you have to know that which is going to happen to you! You had best check your "rear" for you have had it exposed by the head in the dirt until it is in very bad condition.

AUSTRALIAN CATASTROPHE.

You sit rather smugly in America saying "...prove it to me with something else!" No, you now takes that which you sees for that's what you gets! Chaos is everywhere and desperation is tragic--you 'ones MUST share responsibility. While Lizzie and Maggie (Majors is nothing but a wimpy "yes-man") are sporting around to hotsy-totsy breakfasts deciding your fate, and attending the horses, in Britain's own protectorates and colonies the people are in desperate straits.

On June 2nd Australian Farm protesters locked up the Agriculture Minister of the state of New South Wales in a desperate action to dramatize the impact of low wheat prices and the farm crisis. Farmers took the state official on a tour, ushered him into a shed, locked him in, buried the shed under loads of wheat, and held him there a few hours before releasing him.

Elsewhere in New South Wales, in one locale alone, seven farmers have committed suicide. Prices for wool and wheat--leading exports of Australia--are at levels so low that farmers are plunged into financial crisis. Protest actions have swept the country since May--the planting time for winter wheat in the Southern Hemisphere.

Ian Murphy, who runs one of the largest sheep stations in Australia, has just released a new call for emergency action, which begins with the headline, "I accuse the Hawke-Keating Socialist Regime..." and charges that the government is "promoting and forcing the New World Order onto farmers to control food and other agricultural product prices." Murphy demands "that federal politicians halt all home, farm, and business foreclosures by banks and money lending institutions."

You think "It can't happen in America"? Ask the farmers who have lost their lands! Ask the millions now in bankruptcy because of no jobs and no ability to make mortgage payments! You are in serious and irreversible circumstance and if you allow loss of your Constitution--pray for a quick end to your misery--AIDS and starvation is a very sad way to die.

Ask Ethiopians about starvation:

MILLIONS OF ETHIOPIANS TO DIE IN "NEW WORLD ORDER"

June 4: The peoples of northeast Africa are getting a taste of what George Bush's "New World Order" is all about. Under the orchestration of the U.S. State Department and with backup from Great Britain and Israel, the nations of the Horn of Africa are being split into small tribal and ethnic-based entities, and millions, if not tens of millions, are being sentenced to die by famine and disease.

A new era began in this region May 27, during U.S.-mediated talks in London involving the factions in Ethiopia's years-long civil wars. As the talks began, U.S. State Department Undersecretary for African Affairs Herman Cohen suddenly pulled the plug on the army-led interim regime in Addis Ababa, headed by Lt-Gen. Tesfiye, which had just taken power from the dictator Haile Mariam Mengistu. Cohen authorized the Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front (EPRDF), based on the Tigray ethnic group to take over power, and gave the nod to the Eritrean Peoples Liberation Front to set up the infrastructure for "independence" in Eritrea. Tesfiye denounced the deal.

Cohen said he was acting to "stabilize" the situation, but that was a lie. Within 48 hours of his intervention, EPRDF forces had massacred demonstrators in Addis Ababa....hundreds died.

The preceding was a quote and I use it to ask you some questions. How is it that a man with an ethnic label of "Cohen" is running Ethiopia? Oh, yes, I now remember--there are a lot of "Jews" which are being efforted at removal to save them and return them to Israel. How can this be?

Could it be that the Israelis are now going to have to admit that they are not Semitic people? You see, "Semite" means from the tribe of Shem. BUT--THE ETHIOPIANS COME FROM THE TRIBE OF CAIN--SO CANNOT BE SEMITES!!!! I suggest you start watching BOTH SIDES OF THE ISRAELI face masks or you are going to be HAD worse than ever before! The so-called Israeli Jews are not Semites and you had best harken up!

CALL BUSH THE STERILIZER FOR HIS CRIMES IN BRAZIL

Here is another good one: June 3rd: Just as the chairman of this Physical Fitness Council, Arnold Schwarzenegger, is known as "The Terminator", President Bush is becoming known in Brazil and elsewhere in Ibero-America as "The Sterilizer", because of his role in spawning and enforcing a depopulation program that HAS RESULTED IN THE STERILIZATION OF 44% (FORTY-FOUR PERCENT) OF BRAZIL'S FEMALE POPULATION.

"There has been a process of mass sterilizations in Brazil and the great majority of those that have been sterilized are women between 15 and 54 years old, who don't even know that they have been sterilized," Brazilian Congresswoman Benedita da Silva said in an interview last week. "IT IS KNOWN THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD THE MAJOR ROLE IN INSTITUTING THESE POLICIES AND DEMANDING THAT THEY BE CARRIED OUT IN RETURN FOR AID," is the accusation! So be it.

PUBLIC SERVICE; WE THANK YOU

We have received a document from one Edwin C. Hoelzen who manufactures Geodesic Structures, etc., in Arizona. He has efforted to get "editorial" information published and has encountered great difficulty and refusals. I believe we shall publish the material and I hope you all pay attention. ATTENTION! We thank you, Mr. Hoelzen.

I am annoyed by the Second Amendment Rights movement's UNDER-USE of its most IMPORTANT WEAPON in the fight against the Bleeding Heart Liberal Left and the NAZIS from the ALPHABET SOUP AGENCIES of the United States Government who would deny us our Constitutional Right to "KEEP AND BEAR ARMS". This WEAPON is the personal computer with a word processing program installed.

Unless those of you who have a personal computer act now, and use your weapon to protect your rights, YOU will ultimately be targeted for elimination because you own, or support the ownership of, firearms. Your elimination will not come from the mythological BATF or IRS agent kicking in your front door, but by the SYSTEMATIC INSERTION OF FALSE INFORMATION about you by the government into national databases, such as the NCIC computer, or the TRW credit reporting system.

What are you going to do when the COP who stops you for a routine traffic violation, gets the information on the computer screen in his patrol car that you are a convicted felon, wanted for shooting and killing police persons in three states, HIV (AIDS) positive, and "armed and dangerous"?

The "New World Order" as promoted by the President will be upon us in 1992, "coincidentally" coinciding with the economic unification of Europe. "The New World Order Government of the Peoples Republic of America" has not considered several of the logical implications of declaring a large segment of it's otherwise law abiding citizens to be criminals under the "Brady Bill" [H.R. 715. 257] and the Violent Crime Control Act [Bush's Anticrime Bill].

After "The Government" has put a price on our head, what compelling interest do we have in NOT behaving like criminals? Guess who's INCOME TAXES will go up to provide the money to FINANCE our incarceration when we are caught?

I believe it speaks for itself!

BUSH BACKS
DEPOPULATION LOBBY

May 28th: The international neo-Malthusian movement has kicked off a new offensive to force massive reductions in global population, especially in the Third World.

New initiatives for dealing with the alleged threat of "overpopulation" have been put forth over the past several weeks by a wide variety of groups, ranging from official UN entities to private pro-zero-growth organizations.

The agenda for this latest assault on the human race is being set by the U.N., which has been playing an increasingly pivotal role in G. Bush's nightmarish "New World Order" since the Iraq-Kuwait crisis.

UN PROMOTES GENOCIDE

Two Key UN agencies, the UN Development Program (UNDP) and its affiliate, the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), have come out with reports this month insisting that population growth in the developing sector represents a major threat, and must be brought under control.

The UNFPA report laments that the world population rates continue to increase, and expresses particular dismay that "nearly all (95%) of this growth will be in developing countries." Instead of proposing development policies that would make it possible to accommodate these increased numbers, the agency calls for imposing "sustainable development"--a euphemism for zero economic growth--and says that such sustainable development requires a sharp decline in fertility. To achieve this, UNFPA recommends doubling the money spent on population control to $9 BILLION by the year 2000.

A few weeks after the UNFPA study appeared, the UNDP published its "Human Development Report 1991", which 'was unveiled at a Washington press conference by UNDP administrator William Draper III. Draper is a close friend of President Bush; his father, William Draper, Jr., was not only a leading zero-growth fanatic in the 1950's and 1960's, but also endorsed the Nazi eugenics movement. Earlier this year, Draper III publicly stated that population control would be central to Bush's New World Order.

At his May 22 press conference, Draper claimed that population growth has led to a situation in which "the developing world is becoming a powder keg ready to explode". Thus, Third World countries should spend their resources on population control, and not development programs.

Draper insisted that developing sector governments should stop spending money on what he called "extravagant prestige projects" (like the Aswan Dam), and instead focus on what he referred to as "the foundations of human development", namely, "primary education, preventive health care, and family planning". "This is where government is most productive. Not in mining, shipping, and building steel mills and cement factories," he said.

Draper called for realizing Bush's New World Order by embracing "a global commitment to building more caring societies" by focusing on several initial targets, including "access to family planning".

Contrary to Draper's claim that the UNDP wants to encourage Third World nations to put more resources into education, health, food, etc., its report stresses how to cut spending in these areas, suggesting privatization and cutbacks in food subsidies.

The report's key thrust, according to Draper, is its assertion that a "lack of political will--not financial resources" is the real cause behind "human neglect". If developing countries were to shift priorities away from "inefficient public enterprises", "prestige projects", and military spending, they could then "accommodate additional expenditure for human development" without foreign aid.

Tell that to the Third World countries which are currently spending a third or more of their entire GNP to service their DEBT!

Although Draper and the UNDP report alluded to the developing sector's huge debt burden--it now totals $1.2 trillion, up from $50 billion in 1970--as an impediment to progress, nowhere did they offer any real solution, aside from suggesting an inconsequential amount of debt forgiveness. Yet, it is this mountain of debt--not "prestige projects", or population expansion, or necessary defense spending--which accounts for the Third World's crisis.

THE ANTI-HUMAN COALITION

The private zero-growth apparatus is enthusiastically following the UN's lead. The day Draper unveiled the UNDP report, a coalition of environmentalist, animal rights, feminist, and population control groups held a press conference in Washington to "launch one of the most ambitious cooperative efforts ever undertaken to bring public attention to the devastating impacts of overpopulation."

More than 60 signers, including Paul "Population Bomb" Ehrlich, Linus Pauling, the Fund for the Feminist Majority, Dennis Hayes, the founder of "Earth Day", the World Wildlife Fund, People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, and Zero Population Growth endorsed a "Priority Statement on Population" which claimed that the "increase in population and in resource consumption are basic causes of human suffering and environmental degradation and must become major priorities for national and international action."

The statement quoted George Bush's introduction to the 1973 book THE WORLD POPULATION CRISIS, in which he wrote that "one of the major challenges of the 1970's will be to curb the world's fertility", and called on the President to "make population concerns a central focus of his foreign and domestic policy."

Spokesman Dale Didion said, "Now there are well over 5 billion people, the annual increase is more than 90 million, and George Bush is an international leader. We have lost much ground against overpopulation in the '80's; action is urgently needed."

On behalf of the committee that developed the statement, Didion transmitted a letter to President Bush stressing these issues.

So the plan is genocide, chelas, and you have to face the facts herein.

Dharma, enough for this sitting. I have committed to allow German audience and perhaps we shall devote the next couple of days to his work. I realize you have persons coming from a great distance to meet with me so we will have to work around the time element some way. I suggest that you get away for a while during each day for the long hours are taking toll. Thank you.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix

Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

"As little as 100 letters received by any member of Congress on any issue is enough to send a powerful message that can change a senator or representative's vote"

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 6

6/30/91 #1 HATONN
SUNDAY

Hatonn present in Light and appreciation. Thank you who have called with confirmation for Dharma regarding the activities around the Los Angeles area during the past week as to earthquakes, etc. It is incredibly difficult to write that which we are giving in the midst of havoc when you have not knowledge whatsoever of personal backup. However, each time the truth is confirmed from alert or "inside" sources it is so greatly appreciated--it also gives us ability to coordinate that which they either cannot keep from the public and/or that which they are telling you-the-people about local things which are never allowed on national news or only mentioned in passing.

I do wish to clarify what I said regarding missiles and rocket launches, etc. The major "cover" was of a missile launched, after delay, of a radiation sensing device from Vandenberg yesterday. The cover was of a rocket "TESTING" of a Teledyne rocket booster on the 28th. One was to cover the other--see how that works out for you sleuths.

Now, as to sightings of craft in the area of the local location--yes, thank you, Eric, we kept several small craft in the immediate area as well as covering the ones who left the area for the "construction" business meeting. We kept direct and immediate protection surveillance on Dharma and the immediate participants for you have been under heavy "elf" attack and they have managed to knock out the computer system at least twice in the past few days. The point has been to cover the activities of the past week and disallow us to write of the current happenings--that is why we utilized a battery powered audio recording to cover the immediate events. I needed documentation scattered into your hands but we would not have been able to put it through on the computer. It is still "alert" time so we will postpone for another day, at least, writing about the incidents. I just want to give appreciation to you who have watched and reported as you find out about things which coincide with that which we are outlaying to you, i.e. the earthquakes, etc.

You have several things which are preposterous taking place. Look at South Korea, and by the way, you here in present locale--note that our beloved friend from the military in South Korea has NOT been allowed to make his visit here. Further, all mail from and to has been intercepted. You are all but in full-out military war in South Korea and those soldiers there are in full alert and have been for months now. And what happens? In the company of Shultz, the South Korean President is in the U.S. yesterday and now, to offer full backing to Bush's New World Order! Serious indeed.

Note a few things said by Justice Marshall regarding his sudden "stepdown". He said, appropriately enough, when asked for his comments regarding George Bush: "I do not speak of the dead!" I tell you, chelas, no matter what you believe--you do not believe it seriously enough!

PLAYERS

There is no way to sort the players and allegiances and connections as the play is unfolding in its major form these days. Just know the Elite ALL want the same thing--and yet, there are at least three factions at play for differing reasons of desiring power. Part of the unfolding and distractions are to keep you from seeing the tree for the forest and the other is that there are great actual differences in the groups involved. Do not concern yourself--KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL--YOU MUST RETAIN YOUR CONSTITUTION!!! Note what you ARE told--i.e., "Mr. Bush does not need any further authority to go again into military action in Iraq--HE STILL HAS EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY TO ACT SINGULARLY AND UNILATERALLY ON BEHALF OF THE U.S. IRRESPECTIVE OF EVEN THE UNITED NATIONS!..." (Now, this is from a government announcement!)

SECRET PACT WITH ISRAEL TO VETO UN RESOLUTIONS

Harken up!! A secret White House effort to appease the Israeli government by offering IT A PERMANENT VETO OVER FUTURE UN RESOLUTIONS is now in place. This is causing a rift, actually, between Bush and his closest adviser, Secretary of State James Baker.

In the couple of days of "silenced" talks with visiting Israeli Foreign Minister David Levy, Bush PLEDGED THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD VETO ANY FUTURE UN RESOLUTION ISRAEL DIDN'T LIKE, IF IN RETURN, THE MINISTATE WOULD MAINTAIN AT LEAST TOKEN PARTICIPATION IN THE MIDDLE EASTERN PEACE TALKS NOW BEING PROMOTED THROUGH WASHINGTON.

Baker stated that he was "distressed" and that he didn't see how such a thing could happen--i.e., "This will not stand!" You see, this is a commitment to "lease" your veto power in the UN Security Council to an alien government.

Two things are happening herein and let me tell you what the big hoopla really is about. Militant supporters of the State of Israel in the United States are actually talking about all-out-war against both Bush and Baker because it is surfacing (whether actual or fabricated is 'unimportant') that the two privately shared an "intense dislike" of Israel--true so far! It will be coming forth in the "information press" very soon, probably within your next month, and get a lot of to-do over the publication of documents proving the above statement. You see, the Israeli faction wants to put Solarz in place as President. The opposition in the Democratic faction will run Rockefeller to lessen chances of Solarz gaining enough support. This will be a dandy political battle--maybe the "Mother of all battles"? These two, Bush and Baker, will be openly and loudly accused of coming into office with intense dislike for both France and Israel.

At any rate, at UN headquarters, for reasons which allow Bush to reclaim such a commitment when desirable, Bush has given away America's veto power--a key instrument of great-power influence, reserved for five members of the world forum--to a tiny, corrupt, excitable country.

The Arabs are now expected and have stated that they will pull away from the peace process and that would be the end of it if, in fact, the war is not reopened and the UN sucked in again. Meanwhile it is ONLY Gorbachev's groupies that support this New World Order of Bush and the Bankers, in the Soviet Union, and two things come to forefront in this instance: 1) to settle the issue while there is any possibility of winning--the U.S. must have a nuclear first strike--SOON or be prepared for the Soviets to reverse the attack if support for economic input is not adequately forthcoming. The coalition is so weak that it is not even expected to hold! Israel is now pushing its Khazarian taunting against the Soviet Union and passions are at boiling point and great eagerness is afoot to simply squash Israel. When that happens it will be free-for-all time and hence you can again look unto Revelation. You can expect the Mongol (Chinese element) horde to get on the side of squashing brother communists and you have a dandy holocaust going.

I shall tell you about the fiasco and near oblivion you faced in 1980, for it was similar to all other outright plans for nuclear war by the U.S., etc. I have to continue to give you history for you don't seem to ever get the full truth laid forth for you in mass press wherein all of you can actually KNOW that which has transpired. I know it is hard to believe that thousands can be murdered in a place like Jonestown and then labeled an "evangelical" madness! It was a governmental-military massacre--by the United States Government! Call Hatonn that which you will--IT HAPPENED EXACTLY AS I HAVE TOLD YOU AND WE WILL REPUBLISH IT SOON IF YOU READERS DON'T WISH TO GO BACK AND READ IT FIRST. I WEARY OF YOU DAWDLING WHILE YOUR CIVILIZATION BURNS IN THE HELL OF DECEIT.

Well, over this Israeli "thing" you have advisers and Bush with locked horns--hence the attacks on Sununu; for there is bitter dispute among the "ranks" over this matter as Israel efforts to pull apart the close administration wall of power. The problem is how to placate Israel and its aggressive U.S. lobby, the most powerful alien-interest pressure group in history. There aren't even any denials of the veto-giveaway, chelas, so you had best look carefully at the writing on the wall. Sununu is of ARAB descent!

The ones who are involved from the sidelines are actually now referring to the UN Security Council as the "Insecurity Council". Ones such as Ambassador Ali Treiki, of Libya, for instance, are pressing for a statement from Washington's Administration prior to any further voting on any issue.

This is one of the final straws on the camel's back, friends, as far as American credibility before the world. It should be an interesting unfolding which I hope you ones will watch most closely--IF YOU HAVE TIME FOR THE UNFOLDING OF THIS ONE.

LIES, LIES AND MORE LIES

Every day in every way you MUST BE NOW SEEING that which was hidden from you. How is it that every day the contradictions blast louder and louder into the speaker system? While the parades and celebrations go on in front of you over the "war being won"--the same speakers are telling you that Iraq had nuclear capability all the way along and in spite of the unleashing of horror upon the Iraqi populace--you MISSED THE WEAPONS SITES! Even the new reports on the war DO NOT SPEAK TO LOSSES OF POPULATION IN IRAQ THROUGH MURDER BY YOUR HANDS. Since you have no valid EXCUSE to go massacre more to pull off your dreadful schemes--you manufacture more lies and more lies, etc., even to stating that Saddam plans to again invade Kuwait! Will you sit still again? Will you allow this horror again?

What else do they tell you by actions? That they fully intend to murder the children and population of Iraq by keeping full blockade against Iraq "because of this so-called inspection violation"! I warn you the entire mass projection is total LIES, LIES AND MORE LIES!

Want to hear a truth? Let us tell you the story as outlaid by a returning Marine! I will omit his name for his security but it has been made public elsewhere so this can be verified.

This young man was a guard in the camp perimeters and was among the first moving into front line duty. He operated a small rocket launcher with the approximate capabilities as for guided missiles. This is a portable, shoulder-fired weapon that can be fired while the operator is lying down, it is about four feet long and has a scope and a spotting rifle so that the gunner can spot with bullet to see if he is on target before he lets his round go.

With that background, we will speak of a mission called Operation Troy, that these young Marines won't forget--EVER. Along with never forgetting the wondrous care and attention of the U.S. for your precious young lives. It was not intended that this group of Marines survive to tell their story!

OPERATION TROY

This was a top secret mission just inside Saudi Arabia on the border with Kuwait. Operation Troy was a psychological operation meant to confuse and distract the Iraqis. Well, it certainly confused and distracted the Marines of the United States. At one point during the ground war, an entire DIVISION of about 20,000 Marines was pulled out of that border position and sent to another area. Since that left what would be termed a "hole in the defense" of the American and Joint Forces positions, the solution was a "deceptive mission". About 250 Marines--this young man included--were sent into the area with FAKE TANKS MADE OUT OF PLYWOOD AND HUM-VEES, A NEW KIND OF JEEP (Yes, that kind that your new Terminator has as a plaything). THEIR TASK WAS TO DO ALL KINDS OF THINGS THAT WOULD MAKE IT SEEM AS THOUGH THEY WERE AN ENTIRE DIVISION. (250 relative to 20,000? Not a very good ratio if I might comment from the standpoint of being one of the 250.)

While some Marines were driving the hum-vees, equipped with SPEAKERS AND BLARING THE SOUNDS OF THOUSANDS OF TANKS SCREECHING AROUND BACK AND FORTH in the desert, others were firing mortars into the Iraqi areas.

"On that operation," says XXX, "a lot of us felt pretty ripped off because they told us basically that we had been written off!"

If the Iraqis had offered any resistance, the marines would have been wiped out, he reported. "If anything had happened, we wouldn't have survived because we didn't have any transportation out of there! They told us before the whole operation that we probably would not come back!"

The 20-minute trip out to the line was in huge five-ton trucks. BUT, because there were only two trucks, the troops were transported in three trips and had no means of evacuation should a problem occur (which was duly noted and totally expected).

"A lot of chances were taken," he says, "and luckily the Iraqis didn't want to fight. They didn't fire back when we fired mortars on them. They were ready to give up. If they hadn't been, we would have been at their mercy because we didn't have a bit of transportation out of there."

MORE

Another memorable mission that was scheduled during one of the last days of the war is one that fortunately got aborted. With about 40 other marines, he was selected for a mission that would take them through open desert space dotted with mine fields and machine gun nests to a tree line where they were to arouse what was expected to be about 50 Iraqis. Three cobra helicopters were sent on ahead--something very unusual for a mission of this nature. When the cobras got into a fight with over 300 Iraqis and nine tanks, they called back to the troops and told them to abort the mission. The Marines were already on the truck ready to be transported to the area.

From there this young man was put in a group caring for Iraqi prisoners of war. With the prisoners, he says, there was only one problem: the sheer numbers of them. The prisoners themselves were so cooperative that at one point, with only one soldier to guard about 1,000 prisoners, there were no problems. No one tried to escape; no one made loud noises; no one was disruptive.

Only once on a particularly cold and rainy night when soldiers threw a huge bundle of blankets into the middle of a very large group of prisoners did a small incident start among the men who were trying to get the blankets.

Some of the guards simply fired into the air to quiet the prisoners--and they got into trouble for doing so, with our own command.

It was noted that many strange things were taking place all around everywhere. The prisoners seemed to fear being returned to Iraq because they had put up no resistance but it was as if it were planned that way--and some of the POW's were just kids, like 14 year-old tank drivers, etc., and they just turned themselves in.

Do you readers feel as if your brains are in some kind of a vise which is squashing you? Well, you know who is turning the screws with their elite screwdrivers. You are dealing with insane actions of human deceivers and YOUR TIME FOR ACTION IS ALL BUT EXPIRED!

LITTLE SCENARIO FROM 1980

I will start in the middle and, later, after we have your attention, we will work backwards as Dharma has time amidst writing on the Universal Order and Who and What God IS (a little insignificant subject in its own right, I suppose, as regarded by the accusations of readers as to "evil, satanic", etc.)

Remember that back in 1980 there was an ultimatum against Russia regarding the Olympics. Well, on February 20 that ultimatum by the U.S. against Russia expired. That same day Pravda Tass said that the Politburo member Mikhail Suslov had given a speech at a town on the Volga River (good for you, readers, it IS the same Khazarian "Volga"). The speech itself was actually a collective response by the Kremlin to American actions. The answer to the expiration of the Olympic ultimatum was, quote: "The Soviet people will not be intimidated." Then, America was described as using Afghanistan as a pretext for blackmail and threats. (By the way it was at the same time that the U.S. was supplying equipment, men and money to build highways from the Kremlin into Afghanistan WITH the Soviets). And in answer to that, Suslov said, quote: "The American government's actions will inflict damage mainly to the United States itself."

The Russians (I use the term wisely) planned to make those words come true. They planned to let the U.S. walk into one military trap following another. Each time they planned to let the Bolsheviks in America believe they were springing a surprise, but each time the Russians intended to be one step ahead--and they do, to this day, remain at least one step ahead of you!

Each time the Bolshevik dragon would show a fang, the Russians intended to pull it; and so as Suslov put it then, the American government's actions would inflict damage mainly to the United States itself. Of course, it was equally known that with your controlled press, the people (citizens) of America would never know.

The then new Russian master strategy was already at work. The Bolsheviks in the U.S. had already set in motion and set up an attempt for nuclear first strike against Russia in August, 1978! The secret planners of the American operation fully expected that the operation would lead to NUCLEAR WAR ONE before the end of January--but the operation was already in deep trouble.

First, Israeli-piloted American Submersible Aircraft in the White Sea and Caspian Sea (read that again for most of you are still in too much shock to swallow--it helps to breathe, too!) were blasted out of existence on January 20. I suggest you make a note that I tell you this information was available to you "inquiring minds" AT THE TIME!

I can't take time to describe the entire operation; suffice it to say that the important thing is that the Russians lured the American Subcraft into a trap, where they were destroyed; and their destruction took place under conditions which prevented the Bolsheviks from learning about it immediately. As a result, other parts of the American nuclear strike plan were moving ahead.

American RPV's (remote controlled aircraft) were rushed to Sinkiang Province, Red China. (Remember from prior JOURNALS I have spoken of the importance of Sinkiang Province and, readers, if you haven't this information, I can only suggest you get back copies of the JOURNALS for I cannot repeat everything as I haven't time to keep up with daily new writings). These little planes were very, very special; they were relatively small and hard to spot, very fast, and able to outmaneuver any known antiaircraft missile. Like the Subcraft, the RPV's were essential to the attack plan, which was actually revealed to you in August 1978.

America's Ruling Circles were desperate to gain access to China's Sinkiang Province. This was the geographic key to the plan for using Americas RPV's to attack Russia's Cosmosphere installations in Siberia, but it took nearly a year and a half before China agreed to the plan. Oh, the lights are beginning to flicker?

The breakthrough came during the urgent trip to China, early in January of 1980, by the United States Secretary of Defense. Right away rumors surfaced in the news about a military alliance with Red China--you history buffs, please go look it up. Part of the price of the deal was for the U.S. to afford Red China "most favored nation trade status" immediately (sick yet?); and so as his trip to China ended, the White House suddenly started leaning on Congress to act fast. By January 20, China was given a guarantee that it would be passed; and four days later your rubber-stamp House and Senate approved "most favored nation status" for Red China by overwhelming margins. The Bolshevik war planners in the U.S. did not, however, even wait for the vote.

The RPV's were on their way and landed in China on the 21st. There were 14 of them--seven were to be launched at Semipalatinsk where Russia's Cosmospheres and Particle Beam weapons were assembled. The other seven were to be launched at Novosibirsk, where the operational cosmosphere base was located; and each RPV carried a multimegaton hydrogen bomb with a cobalt jacket. In nuclear bombs lingo, they were extremely dirty bombs designed to blanket the target area with a deadly radiation for decades.

Now for you further "Inquiring Minds", yes, indeed, the "accident at Chernobyl" is completely entangled in all this mess and it is no accident that the incident is getting widespread repeat coverage in AMERICA this very week! I tell you, the elite play with deadly, deadly toys! People do not enter into the equation except as expendables.

Back to the plans: Four separate Russian groups were poised and waiting at the border for the RPV's. When they did arrive on January 21, the Russians waited only long enough to make sure all the RPV's were in place. Then around midnight that night, the Russians began moving in. Just in case, for backup if needed, there were also 45 Cosmospheres hovering over the area, but they were not needed as it turned out. The Russian Commandos achieved a complete surprise, and it was all over in a matter of minutes. The RPV's were all blown up and the camp was overrun.

In November of 1978 a secret Russian missile base in Guyana (remember Guyana?), about which you had been warned about for four years earlier, was destroyed. Joint American and Israeli Commando forces took the base by storm and killed every single Russian on the base. This was covered by the sham of Jonestown. Well, the Russians evened the score (they always do), by wiping out the secret American RPV base in Sinkiang Province, China, and not one member of the joint American and Israeli forces at the base were spared.

Don't you ones LISTEN? Just this week "they" returned four supposedly MIA's from Asia and the big boys let it slip that there are over nine thousand (9,000) unaccounted for, missing persons! Is it not time you ones started demanding, and getting, some FACTS?

As the Chinese dawn broke over the smoldering ruins of the American RPV base, January 23rd was making its own way around the globe. That evening the latest replica for the late President Jimmy Carter was scheduled to be on television. It was to be a tough speech, setting the stage for war itself to erupt within days, but the Bolshevik military planners in America were in a state of upheaval. The RPV operation in China had turned into a disaster, so it was obvious that the Russians were now on the alert. The decision was made to freeze all other parts of their nuclear first-strike operation to assess the situation. Coded signals were flashed to the nonexistent Subcraft in the White and Caspian Seas to continue "holding" at their final check points.

At the same time, another Subcraft operation was getting under way in the Black Sea. Twenty-nine (29) Subcraft were involved, and all were ordered to stop in their tracks and await further orders. The Black Sea Subcraft operation was not a part of the original plan which was revealed in about 1988--to you-the-people, from us, but during that time Russia's Particle Beam weapons program had caused additional targets to be added to the Bolshevik first-strike plan. Three of the most important new targets were Kharkov, Voronezh, and Kazan (sound familiar--you who still doubt existence of Khazars? These are names coming directly FROM "KHAZAR"). The first two were to be attacked from the Black Sea; the third target, Kazan, was to be approached from the Caspian by Subcraft, using the huge Volga River.

When the Black Sea Subcraft were ordered to halt on January 23, many were still close to their bases in northern Turkey. Eleven Subcraft were arranged along Russia's Crimean seacoast, but the rest were still in Turkish waters. That presented the Russians with somewhat of a dilemma for they preferred not to use their most important weapons where they could be observed in action but it soon became clear to the Russians that the Bolsheviks were getting cold feet and would shortly order the Subcraft back to their bases. Soon after night fell across the Black Sea on January 23, the Russian High Command gave the order to attack the Subcraft. There were 92 Cosmospheres hovering over the Black Sea at that time. Each Subcraft was being tracked continuously by at least three cosmospheres using their Psychoenergetic Range-finding equipment--that is, PRF.

When the attack order was given, selective cosmospheres started firing their Charged Particle Beam weapons downward into the sea far below them. Each Subcraft was resting motionless a short distance underwater, not nearly deep enough to avoid destruction; and so each Subcraft erupted briefly into a brilliant cloud of steam and debris. Then the sea was dark once again. Chance observers ashore and on ships saw nothing more than a brief intense light on a distant horizon--a spark that disappeared as quickly as it had appeared and no cause was ever presented to the public for such phenomenon--not unlike your recent earthquakes!!! But to the Bolshevik war planners in America, those brief sparks on the horizon spelled disaster. They meant that all those nuclear-armed Subcraft in the Black Sea would not be available for a second try later on--and the Bolsheviks then guessed correctly that the same was true of the Subcraft in the White and Caspian Seas. Ah yes, now that you mention it--I do believe the ones who made judgment errors at Chernobyl were put away for life! And yes indeed--we DO have to give you Truth in small segments for the whole is absolutely unimaginable!!!

The destruction of the Subcraft in the Black Sea took place just after 4:00 P.M. A few short hours later the so-called Carter Doctrine was proclaimed in the "State of the Union" speech on your television for public consumption. The United States was still talking tough, threatening to use military force in the Persian Gulf; but later that same evening, January 23, it was the Russians who were doing the really tough talking, out of the public eye. (What do you suppose is being said regarding the new threat to use military assault against Iraq? You just brought all your soldiers home--DIDN'T YOU? Or, did you? What actually IS happening? YOU DO NOT KNOW, DO YOU?!!?)

Well, Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin suddenly arrived at the State Department for an unexpected late night meeting. There he met for an hour and a half with the top-level representative of the Bolsheviks. Dobrynin is famous for the beaming smile he always wears, but he certainly stopped smiling as soon as the meeting began. Speaking with icy precision, he confirmed that Russia had destroyed the American Subcraft AND RPV's. He also called attention to an unpublicized disaster earlier that day near northern Greece in the Aegean Sea.

Ah ha! A hush-hush "oil rig", so-called, had been at work under Norwegian and American control, using German and Dutch workers; but THAT DAY the rig had suddenly gone up in flames, killing EVERYONE aboard. Dobrynin explained that Russia had known what the rig was up to and did not approve. It was preparing to plant nuclear missiles on the ocean floor to be aimed at the heart of Russia. The Russians had waited until the missiles were aboard the platform ready for planting--then a trio of Cosmospheres overhead had destroyed platform, missiles, and the crew, all at once.

Finally, Dobrynin added something which was intended to drive home the hopelessness of the Bolshevik war plans. He revealed that Russia knew that there was one more element in the overall first-strike plan which was still under way. A tiny force of four more Subcraft were moving into the Baltic Sea armed with cobalt bombs. They were a suicide force and they were all heading for a single target--Moscow. They were to approach Russia's Baltic Sea coast under water until they arrived at widely separated points near Kaliningrad, Riga, and Leningrad. Then when the order came, the plan was for them to surface and make the transition to flight configuration. From there, their mission called for them to take off, arming their cobalt bombs for detonation on impact. Flying their super-quiet Subcraft at tree-top height, their mission called for them to get as close as possible to Moscow before being shot down. As each suicide Subcraft crashed in flames, the cobalt bomb it was carrying would detonate automatically. The Bolshevik war planners in the U.S. did not expect that any of them would actually reach Moscow, but they were confident that they would get close enough to do the job.

The ground-level detonation of four cobalt bombs would send an enormous cloud of deadly radioactive fallout drifting eastward, and the Bolsheviks in the U.S. were sure that Moscow, the nerve center of Russia, would not survive. By administering a giant dose of radioactive poison, the Bolsheviks were planning to turn Moscow into a giant Jonestown of silent death. Dobrynin described it all during the meeting. Then he revealed that Russia was tracking all four suicide Subcraft. He proved it by giving their exact locations; then he said: "I am instructed to inform you that you are now invited to attempt to save these four machines from destruction if you can. You may try to hide them or protect them in any way you choose--you will discover that you cannot. Promptly at 1:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time tomorrow, twelve hours from now, they will all cease to exist."

The next day, January 24, the Russians made good their threat. One Suicide Subcraft was near the Russian Baltic coast itself, close to Kaliningrad; another was well to the west near the border between East Germany and Poland where it strikes the coast; the third was far to the north, 30 miles west-northwest of Pori, Finland; and the fourth was clear outside the Baltic, about 70 miles north-northwest of Bergen, Norway--but all four were blasted simultaneously by the cosmospheres hovering in the sky above them.

The destruction of the suicide Subcraft with their cobalt bombs marked the end of the abortive first-strike operations for that particular time frame. It was a total defeat for the U.S., while Russia did not receive so much as a scratch; and its ramifications were widespread. For example, the debacle in Sinkiang Province was a major shock to China. It revived the arguments within Chinese ruling circles that the U.S. is a paper tiger, and the Chinese military commanders who were involved in the Sinkiang affair were in deep trouble, to say the least. There were major reshuffles in the Chinese military and Russia unseated all the Bolshevik leaders of China.

Now, since I do not wish to launch off on another subject at this writing I will just add this note, since you are all in a dither about whether or not there were trips regarding the hostages in April, 1980, by Bush, etc. Let's smoke this grass for a minute and see how it chokes you: On February 24, 1980, confirmed proof was put forth that the infamous Ayatollah Khomeini was in the hospital and would see no visitors until further notice, including all religious and political leaders. The doctors reported he had been over-taxed; BUT THE REAL REASON WAS THAT THE AYATOLLAH KHOMEINI WAS ASSASSINATED AND REPLACED BY A DOUBLE. HE WAS SHOT ABOVE THE LEFT EYE--AND KILLED--DEAD.

Do you dear ones still wish to cast stones and proclaim that your enemies might be "little gray aliens" from "somewhere out there". You are in more danger this day, June 30, 1991, than any time in the history of your planet--keep your eyes open and I suggest you pray a lot because that is the ONLY PROTECTION allowed you!!!

Dharma, you have had enough for one sitting. Thank you, for we can do no more than place the information on the banquet table--he who partakes is welcome and he who refuses, is also welcome. So be it and Salu.

6/30/91 #2 HATONN

I have asked to be allowed to write enough to finish the Express started earlier so that when I finish writing on the Bank Laundering scams, the material will not be in separation.

THE POWER PLAY

It is important that you ones be aware right now, of the seriousness of the nuclear threat. It is not by accident that Germain is writing JOURNALS dealing with life and death and suicide by atomic means. You are already destroying your populations in a most heinous manner through atomic means without blowing yourselves away. But it looks like the Elite don't mind doing that, either, if it means winning the power struggle. It should be obvious, however, that most of the Elistit "Bankers" would as soon wipe out populations through medical means, starvation, etc., for they really don't gain in the same manner as the "anti-Christ" faction wins. They need all the wondrous "stuff" gained by gaining the worldly assets--the anti-Christ just wants everything to fall into destruction to spite God and he cares not how it is accomplished. Either way--the Elite top few have protections in place and are pretty much ready for anything.

So, why do I feel a need to speak of things back in the late 1970's and 80's? Because if you watch what is happening you will see major correlations in events. Dear ones, note that which is being TALKED about this day. Things like Afghanistan, the Iranian situation including the activities of the Shah in addition to other incidents taking place in and around Paris in the politically associated arena. Oberli and Dharma both thought I had created an error when I referred to meetings in Paris regarding the hostages in "April"; no, I meant it--secret meetings were being held right along and, after the Ayatollah was replaced, things immediately began to unfold because the ones who set up the assassination would be the very ones who would go in and deal over the hostages. And remember (see above) the Ayatollah was taken out and replaced around the 23rd of Feb., 1980. There were several meetings which included Bush during the time prior to the biggie you ones speak of in the press which is just now coming under attention. There was a tremendous hotbed of intrigue already well under way.

Remember all the shifting of the Shah and then his untimely death from "illness" after he made it to the U.S.? Please, chelas, don't disappoint me by acting shocked over these revelations--they are old hat.

Let us look briefly at a few incidents which occurred just during mid-winter of 79/80. For example, the alleged former Shah of Iran had made sudden surprise moves--first to Texas, then to PANAMA. The world had been jolted by a radical change in the behavior of Russia, starting with massive intervention in Afghanistan. Even more startling, the U.S. was answering Russia with the revival of the Cold War. (You didn't REALLY think the disagreements have ended, did you?)

Meanwhile, and harken up for repeats of same, as is happening with so many other things: gold skyrocketed higher and higher in panic buying and the dark cloud of the expanding Iran crisis was hanging like that sword on the thread above the neck. Let us look backwards a bit and see the similarities--and, you can expect the same reactions any moment, from skyrocketing gold prices to total monetary collapse or another war which is a MUST to forestall preempting plans on the schedule projected.

The picture was something like this: Gold prices streaking upward, the Iran crisis was escalating out of all bounds and, internationally, the climate had undergone dramatic changes in all directions. The blue skies of peace and prosperity were fading rapidly. Suddenly the atmosphere was filled with the smell of approaching war, and the events in the headlines were only a pale shadow of what was taking place behind the scenes. The most important incidents had taken place right in the U.S. and in Russia.

In the U.S. powerful forces who were bent on war were fast gaining the upper hand. In Russia the "peace faction" in the Kremlin had been toppled from power!!! It had begun as a family squabble among the secret New Christian rulers of Russia, and it ended in tragedy for some. The result was a return to power by the hardliners among the secret sect that would rule Russia. You were headed right down that road to Thermonuclear War as spoken of prior to this. The hardliners, however, in the Kremlin were members of the same religious group as the "peace faction" and disagreed on only one major point. The "peace faction", who were known as the "White Doves", believed nuclear war must be prevented if it was humanly possible. By contrast, the hard-liners believed nuclear war was inevitable; so their guiding military strategy was not to prevent nuclear war indefinitely but WIN IT!

SHAH OF IRAN

So let us look at the scenario starting on January 17th as millions of you Americans tuned in the ABC television program "20/20". The program that night presented a heavily-edited interview by the British television personality David Frost. The person interviewed was said to be the former Shah of Iran. The individual you saw on the David Frost interview looked, sounded, and acted pretty much like the Shah--unless you knew the Shah. But oops, he looked ever so much healthier than the sickly-looking Shah in New York some short weeks prior. This was true even though news reports had been saying the Shah's condition was rapidly deteriorating. Almost every time he answered a question the face became expressionless, and the eyes frozen into a glassy stare. He spoke slowly, haltingly, as if groping around in a very faded, fuzzy memory to find the answers to the inquiries. Time after time he just gave up and simply said, "I can't remember that."

Later that same evening ABC presented its nightly special on the Iran crisis--similar to the daily blast about the Gulf War of late. The program began with some follow-up discussion of the David Frost interview program. Dr. Joseph Sisco, former Under-Secretary of State, was among those asked for his reactions to the interview. Sisco appeared to be shaken by what he had seen. He said the Shah he knew had always been able to discuss the intricacies of geopolitics, not only as they affected the Persian Gulf but world-wide. By contrast, the man he saw on the David Frost interview was, "Uncertain in his speech; a completely different man from the one I knew."

The individual interviewed by David Frost in Panama was, of course, not the Shah at all, in fact he was not even human. It was the newly released kind of living robot, known as a "synthetic automaton", or more briefly, a "Synthetic".

REPLICAS

They were being deployed as a tool of intrigue by the warlike Bolsheviks in the U.S. They were the Bolshevik answer to the other type of biological robot which the Russians began deploying earlier in 1979. The Russian type is known as an "Organic Robotoid", and both the Robotoids and the Synthetics were remarkable creatures and have only been continuously upgraded since.

By the way--how many of you remember the announcement of the Israelis creating totally "new life" in a test tube (a type of virus construction from DNA--in 1952)? This was in Tel Aviv, so don't go to sleep on me, please.

The replicas (Robotoids and Synthetics) were truly remarkable at that time and still are--even more remarkable as presented unto you now. We have spoken of these at great detail prior to this so let us move on quickly. They are manufactured by radically different technologies; but they have one thing in common--they are both artificial life-forms which live and breathe but have to be programmed like computers, and they are the products of many decades of spectacular scientific unfolding which took place COMPLETELY in secrecy out of public view and without allowed press coverage. Robotoids and synthetics remain to this time perhaps the most secret of all Intelligence Weapons.

Their most critical feature is their biological computer brain. In that regard, the Russian Robotoids were far superior to the Bolshevik Synthetics. That's because of their holographic brain. The Synthetics contained a quite low brain quality. The actions of the Shah on that program points up that of which I speak now. Synthetics easily pass for human beings, but they act dull-witted compared to the humans which they simulate (I'm sure you can give more examples from your own witness). When Frost interviewed the Synthetic "double" for the former Shah, he no doubt thought he was talking with the real thing; but by that time the original Shah had been dead for well over a month. The Shah was murdered in the morning hours of Sunday, December 2, 1979.

The once mighty Shah arrived in New York quite healthy but needing some "surgery", as was reported. He did undergo "medical treatment" but not what you or "HE" expected and the little surgical procedure touted could have been easily done anywhere. He was a mere pawn in a very deadly world-wide game of life/death chess. For more than two years a secret war had been already in progress between the new rulers of Russia and the overthrown former rulers of Russia, the Bolsheviks. Having been expelled from Russia by the tens of thousands, the old Bolsheviks had been flocking mainly to the United States. They were and are in a rage to strike back at Russia, and they plan to do it using America's military power.

So a new Bolshevik revolution had gotten under way without fanfare in the U.S. This faction is still in a hidden frenzy to throw America's military might at Russia. The Bolshevik war plan is based on an American nuclear first strike against Russia; the chain of events leading up to the first strike was to begin with a crisis over Iran and it came off right on schedule. Funny thing about planned crises--you see, the identical pattern was set up again over Iraq and Russia didn't come to the war! Indeed, indeed--the Zionists are really ticked off and now have to stage some more upsets--but that should be easy enough for the tricksters have all your money, America, and you are stockpiling nuclear and other weapons in Israel and all manner of other goodies. But, on the other hand, as the old saying goes, could your own Elite desire that somehow Russia and Israel get goaded into their own war? Well, I leave you to ponder it--for you are at the time of Armageddon, old friends, and what you sees is definitely NOT WHAT YOUZE GETS!

These factions have been setting up their world take-over since the beginning of the planet--long before they integrated into the Bankers' Cartel, so you had better get a bit nervous and pray they can keep it out of your doorway! So be it.

ASSK

Reminder to America West. After the last blast from ASSK to all their mailing list and the insults we have endured over that last barrage--I recall asking that a demand be sent to cause them to print information regarding where their readers could get information from America West. All information as to how to get the JOURNAL and/or EXPRESS material was deliberately omitted and is refused to be given out by phone. I again ask that you get on with a requirement, and follow-up proof of press, that the information be printed and distributed to every one who received the ASSK document. I appreciate the advertising; I simply demand that readers have access to the material in point. If ASSK wishes to assume ownership of our material I welcome their input but I insist proof that all members making such claims present themselves having studied every word written by our speakers. I fear that nonsense written by one Brother Philip and claimed by Sister is, at best, Williamson's plagiarism and not mine or Sananda's. We, further, have absolutely no interest in the material of the "Andes", "Places of the Lion" (for most is pure fabrication from onset of information) and/or Tiahuanaco Prophecies by anyone. I think we might be getting a glimmer of the truth of the accusations? God stands forth without shroud of anonymous accusations and/or hidden gibes. He has no royal orders or special beings of some kind or another of "royalty". There is not "my Sananda" or "their Sananda" nor "her Hatonn/Aton" vs. "someone-else's Hatonn/Aton"--THERE IS ONLY ONE! SO BE IT. I WOULD SUGGEST, FURTHER, THAT SINCE TIME HAS OBVIOUSLY ELAPSED THAT YOU SUGGEST THAT TED REPEAT THE MAILING IN FULL--ALONG WITH DOCUMENT INFORMATION. PERHAPS YOU MIGHT LIKE HIM TO MAIL THE SAME TO OTHER MAILING LISTS AS WELL. WE DO NOT HIDE BEHIND FACADES NOR SPEAKERS--I SHALL MEET WITH ANY SPEAKER THEY WISH TO PRODUCE FROM BEHIND THE RECEIVER'S MOUTH--VIA THAT RECEIVER'S MOUTH--PUBLICLY.

I believe you nice earth people have been somehow misled regarding the demeanor and projection of pious stupidity as touted by the many receivers who project their own image or perceptions. God is neither pious nor non-passionate and He will react in a manner befitting a CREATOR and not as a royal pig with mush in its mouth. Now, I suggest you ones please remove the mush from your ears and HEAR for your world is in desperate circumstance and if these ones who continue with the rock blasts fail to notify you of same, I pity you all who refuse to see Truth as it is being unfolded unto you. The choice is yours but I DO DEMAND that the choice for obtaining the material be made available to you and then you can do whatever you choose about same.

Hatonn to clear.

Do I strike all that accused of "FEAR" in your hearts? Ah so--I suggest then, that you get all the information for we also tell you WHAT TO DO ABOUT YOUR FLIGHT! KNOWLEDGE IN TRUTH IS THE ONLY THING WHICH WILL DISSOLVE THE FEAR AND SHOW YOU THE WAY. THE WAYSHOWERS ARE AGAIN PRESENT TO SHOW YOU THE WAY, THE OPENING OF EYES, HOWEVER, IS UP TO YOU! SALU.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT

AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL.

II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel,
I Am Sananda
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The
Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained
Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 7

6/29/91 #1 HATONN

SATURDAY

Hatonn present to commune. Dharma, know that you cannot see of the good you do in the face of the overwhelming barrage. Yes, there is painful truth to be confronted on EVERY front. And yes, others are writing about it but wherein do you think our beloved farmer in Northern Texas is going to get the news from within the American Forces Information Network? Where do you think the Armed Forces employee will get the international connection of the Swiss banks and the "secret U.S. circles including Chase Manhattan Bank"? Where will you get the information of the intended launch yesterday of the "booster rocket" (so-called, but lie) from Teledyne on the yesterday in the midst of a California earthquake? How, in fact, do you think the public readers will get the "important" information, the Alumni Board of Skull and Bones, the elite secret society at Yale University, has voted to admit women, a move that could help end a public rift between its members? Yes indeed, Bonesmen around the country, including President Bush, a 1948 Yale graduate, will soon receive ballots in which they will be asked to ratify the vote. In late May it was decided that "something" needed to be done! Of course this is what is wrong with your society, that public attention remains locked on such trash while your world is on the brink of murder by atomic methods and/or suicide by atomic means--take your pick. This is all at the hands of the same Group of Elite who actually do come out of Skull and Bones or other branches of societies thereof. Please come back within my shield for it is dangerous out there where you are at this moment.

We will not respond herein to the painful letter received by ones at the "store" and by you, for of course the letter was aimed at Me and My crew, regarding the Catholic Church and the denouncing of you for your projection of items regarding Jesus the Christ NOT simply removing all blame and guilt while Man acts any way he chooses. So be it. We will take up the subject another day--simply pity the Man locked into his trap of disinformation.

You are getting another good look at such in Swaggart who is now being brought to court on legal grounds by an adversary of the same evangelical movement. What does "Jimmy" say? I refuse to make further comment on my actions for I am "...totally forgiven of all past indiscretions and 'all to come' for I have been washed in the blood of the lamb, Jesus Christ!" and he follows on--on international network--"I am in desperate need of funds--please contribute so that our ministry can continue and the college open on time." And then he goes forth and tells his congregation (on TV), to simply interrupt his sermon if you would be giving a Thousand Dollars or more to the ministry and we will praise God for you and your gift! Ah yes, we shall, if we physically can do so, get to full discussions of these matters but first, fires in your very society which will silence our work--MUST BE EXTINGUISHED.

You are now going to get one of the final nails in your coffins--the Anti-Crime Bill. Chelas, it is indeed adverse, that which is upon you. Remember that which we have written about prior to this--as war of massive measure is planned there are distractions of great magnitude in every portion of your globe which include wars, famine, terror and that which appears to be acts of God. Nay, nay--your Elite are efforting for the "Big One".

The banking system is ready to devour the world and you with it and still you cannot seem to see the overall whole for the attention to your own tiny plight. Do not take this as a negative statement from me--for you MUST begin in your own dooryard and yet, you must see the whole for only therein can you understand that I CANNOT HAVE ALL OF THE ANSWERS FOR YOU, NOR DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHY I GIVE YOU ASSISTANCE ONLY TO HAVE MOST OF YOU DENY THE INPUT AS RAVINGS OF AN INSANE MIND. THEN YOU DO FOOLISH THINGS--YOU MARCH RIGHT OUT AND "DEFY" ME--WHAT DO YOU WISH TO PROVE? THAT YOU CAN LOSE EVERYTHING IN YOUR WORLD IN "SPITE" OF ME AND THEN TURN ABOUT AND CAST YOUR BLAME UPON ME AND MY ONES FOR YOUR FAILURE TO ACT IN TIMELY MANNER? I REPEAT, DO WHATEVER YOU CHOOSE TO DO! MY COMMISSION IS ASSIST WHERE I CAN AND MY ONLY INPUT IS INFORMATION--NO MORE AND NO LESS!

You may speak of us as "cult", "strange group"--whatever. We are none of those things for we are no "group" at all, only patriots and God's servants efforting to fulfill our mission. So be it.

The biggest thrust this day is anger that your world didn't blow up by atomic holocaust yesterday because I kept the information flowing the entire time before, during and gave reasons "after" the earthquake near Los Angeles yesterday. If there is time today or tomorrow Dharma will take the message from the tape and print it for you. The tape has been shared with all in this location so that we will not have the final accusation of "after the fact you make tales". The information was given to George and he spoke of it yesterday in a noon radio interview.

Why can you not believe that which is invisible? How is it that because you cannot see radiation you feel you are not being slain by it? Right now! Dharma can hardly sit to this keyboard, the frequency beams are so severe, and several of our workers are actually to the point of such weakness that they need recovery time--and yet, the stresses only increase. You MUST COME INTO KNOWING. You must "see" beyond the visible and that which is under your noses for you are even missing that which is directly under your noses.

Look unto your news and see that which they do. From denying any capability of Hussein to have nuclear weapons--look what they tell you now and fully intend to go in and have another war--right there! Further, now it is pronounced that "that heinous monster Saddam" intends to again "invade" Kuwait. WAKE UP!!

I believe that you will find I told you these things which happened in California yesterday and the prior three days of airquakes and earthquake on a "very strange place in a very strange manner" were warnings and yet, you will note that, through incredible force, the Communists have put down the separation attempts of Slovenia and Croatia--by force. The edict of the Trilaterals and Bilderbergers was to "NOT ALLOW THE FIFTEEN NATIONS OF THE SOVIET BLOCK TO PULL AWAY--AT ANY COST!" The noose is tight and suffocating you as a world.

ATOMIC WASTE

I will speak of this prior to Germain's next writing but look what they say THIS DAY regarding placement of nuclear waste. "It will be 10,000 to 20,000 years that these waste dumps will be deadly--how will we mark them for the generations to come?" No, I jest not! Further, "they" are efforting to work out something of "universal" nature to mark the areas and also to give the information to the "natives" who will hand down the information of location in "oral traditional storytelling".

LAUNDERING DOPE PROFITS/MONEY CENTER BANKS

The next largest barrage of denial against my information is that nothing such as this drug trade through the banks and government be true. "Nothing that large can be real or truth and why don't you go back to wherever you came from, Space-Pretender." We shall see about that, won't we? We have written on the basis of first-hand human information of ones who have been involved and now I am going to show you how the U.S. Money Center banks launder the profits from the drugs, starting with the Medellin Cartel because it gets worse and worse in Central and South America and from the Golden Triangle of Southeast Asia.

Let us go back to 1988 and testimony of one Ramon Millan Rodriguez, a former money manager for the Medellin cocaine cartel, before a Senate investigating committee (U.S.).

"The banks were never concerned with the sources of my mammoth cash assets...They were preoccupied only with making everything 'appear' proper. Most of the bank executives I dealt with regarded the law only as a matter of appearances--just like any other racketeer."

Throughout the past years the money center banks have been willingly providing the key financial services that have transformed the underworld of dope smugglers and pushers into an international syndicate whose annual take is now measured in the tens, and even hundreds of billions of dollars. The plan now is to set up a system wherein the major cartel members do not even have to handle CASH but rather just set up a "computer" system of exchange. Only you-the-honest-people will have to account for cash and worry about currency and exchanges.

The global bankers and banking, as well as financial services industries have not only provided the "digestive system" of the drug monster, but, much to its own benefit, has consistently helped create the very social and political conditions that nourish it.

A former Miami narcotics detective, Roy Barker, has summed it up nicely as far back as March of 1988: "The Federal Reserve, the IMF (International Monetary Fund) and the World Bank have a worse record on drugs than any doper I've ever arrested. They invade the debtor countries and snarl them with so many regulations, fees and duties, paperwork and red tape, that in the end most of the economy goes underground. And in that kind of setting, drugs become just part of a larger market and must live outside the law to survive."

So, you don't like "Space-pretenders" giving you information? How about another supporting statement given to Roy Barker at hearing, by Dr. Casimir Villagran, an economist and intern in transnational finance with the UNITED NATIONS who absolutely agrees with Barker and adds:

"Whenever you are looking at an illegal business that must move back and forth over frontiers for its profit, you will see two distinct criminal enterprises. The first one involves hiding and smuggling the contraband; the second one deals with hiding and smuggling the money. DRUG TRAFFICKERS PERPETRATE THE FIRST CRIME UNDER PROTECTION OF GOVERNMENTAL COVERS, WHILE THE BANKS HANDLE THE SECOND KIND UNDER THE SAME COVERS. The drug lords and the financial services industries are not just partners in crime; they are the two essential perpetrators who make this underworld run."

By the way, does anyone wonder how you are going to have a United Nations military service, etc.? How about who will fight in this new war against Iraq? Your boys, of course, those ones displaced from their "bases" which are being "closed", etc. The plan is to simply reopen them as United Nations operations, dress your soldiers up in blue berets and send them off again as U.N. soldiers--simple and clean without dirtying the hands of the patriotic Americans and/or the Elite Cartel or the Bush Administration--Sununu can then take UN planes for his golfing and coin-buying trips.

I apologize if I seem vindictive and irritable, provoked and testy this day but I am about to lose my scribe to total fatigue and overload--"burnout" I believe was the word used by the last tormentor--not of her, but this one didn't want to hear any more for he was in burnout with the information. It becomes appealing at times such as this to take my people and go home and let Earth Shan take her own way along with those aboard the sinking "ship". Our mission however, and commitment unto Creator Source, is to bring this word and allow Man to have it and then he can sink or swim--or fly with us according to his own path.

For you who are filled with pain that ones refuse to hear and see--let it go. Yours is to offer the information and then, I care not who is the person involved--you must release it unto God--you do not need to SELL GOD NOR TRUTH. Ours is to put it out there, Man's is to do that which he will with it. I have to tell you, chelas, that most of mankind will sink with the ship and there is nothing you can do about it! "Peace" does not mean "absence of pain"--it means exactly what it says--"at peace with that which you are--within". The Masters before you, have had total Peace within--and abundant earthly agony and pain without--do not confuse the two. This is discipline for Dharma, for she did not agree to write when she "felt like it" or "liked the information" or "only if people don't insult me" or, or, or. SHE ASKED TO SERVE IN ANY WAY GOD COULD USE HER, ALL THE TIME AND ANY TIME--NOT JUST WHEN IT SUITED HER WHIMS OR CONVENIENCE. THEREFORE, IF WE NEED TO APPROACH THE SAME SUBJECT FROM A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE AND REPEAT, REPEAT AND REPEAT--SO SHALL IT BE. YOU CANNOT JUDGE WHICH WORDS WILL STRIKE THE STRINGS OF TRUTH WITHIN THE BREAST OF ONE WHO HAS NOT UNDERSTOOD BEFORE. GOD DOES NOT PULL AWAY FROM HIS PEOPLE--THEY PULL AWAY FROM HIM, AND STILL HE LEAVES THEM NOT! HOLD IT IN YOUR HEARTS.

As the mass of evidence has come to light in recent months, corroborating in minute detail the evidence of collusion between U.S. megabankers, narcotics traffickers, CIA and governments--the trade and laundering goes on at even greater amounts and ever enlarging circles. The very personages involved simply move to higher appointments within your governments and Elite societies of control and you simply raise them to high honors in your polls of popularity. In fact, I believe a good example of BS at its best is the planned great event of giving Powell and Schwarzkopf the gold medal of Freedom on July 3rd "as a fitting celebration of the 4th of July recognition of Freedom." Do you actually think Schwarzkopf's memoirs are worth $5 million dollars with the babies and women dying by the hundreds of thousands in Iraq? Where are YOUR values?

Although a number of financial institutions thought to be laundering "dope money" have recently been charged with "failing to file cash transaction reports" on hundreds of huge deposits and withdrawals discovered by federal auditors, almost all of these banks have been, essentially, let off the hook after paying small fines or promising not to repeat the offense. There are plenty of other ways to do it without getting caught. I can tell you--the people right now that when the currency swap, etc., comes down, you will lose cash in massive amounts for you will have to tell the bullies why you carry cash and you will be accused of drug pushing if you have very much tucked away. These rules are made to CATCH YOU AND STRIP YOU OF ALL ASSETS AND POWER--NOT STOP THE CRIMINAL ELEMENTS WHICH WERE INVENTED AND NURTURED INTO BEING BY THE VERY ADMINISTRATION KILLING YOU.

Look at facts--to date, not one senior Wall Street banking executive has been indicted on the specific charges of working hand-in-hand with drug traffickers to launder their massive profits. Yet, as you will see from the following excerpts of sworn testimony from convicted money launderer and former Medellin cocaine cartel money manager Ramon Milian Rodriguez to Senator John Kerry's Senate Foreign Relations (which is enough to give you the reason ("Foreign Relations"?--remember the Council on Foreign Relations?), sub-committee, there is definitely plenty of solid, convincing proof and evidence to warrant a full-scale federal investigation of America's top banking industry officials...if the U.S. government ever decided to get serious about putting a real halt to the international narcotics trade INSTEAD OF RUNNING SAME.

Let us look at some of the information from "the horse's mouth" all the way back to February, 1988 (that is over three years past), Rodriguez began his testimony before the Senate sub-committee by detailing his lifestyle from 1979 to 1983, during which time he laundered over $11 billion in drug profits for the Medellin cartel.

"My cut of the profits eventually reached about $2 or $3 million per month. At the peak of my career--I was 28 years old--I owned every type of sports car, Porches, Jaguars...I carried a minimum of $2 to $5 million in cash with me, in the trunk of whatever car I was driving at the time. I hate to say that this was just my pocket money, but in reality, it was...I also used it to make payoffs...My suits were hand-tailored in Hong Kong--I enjoyed the very best of everything," Rodriguez told the sub-committee matter-of-factly. How many of you readers even remember the hearings?? They were broadcast on CSPAN--how many of you watched??

"...I had access to 40 or 50 aircraft IN THE U.S. at any one time, ranging from 747's on down," he continued. (And you pick on poor Mr. Sununu?) "I owned many of them outright, or on behalf of the cartel. We also had six helicopters, including Bell Rangers... Additionally, I owned plush residences in Miami, New York and Palm Springs," Rodriguez testified. "Truly though, I lived within my means, I guess you could say," he quipped light-heartedly to Sen. Kerry's committee.

When asked how the drug money was collected, once the drugs were sold in the U.S., Rodriguez explained calmly: "From 1979 on, we set up 'points of consolidation', let's call them 'safe houses', in Miami, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, New Orleans and other cities, using Colombian nationals to live in the safe house. Their sole purpose was to receive and count the money.

"There were always two safe houses per area. The first one, where couriers would deliver the money, then another, where the Cartel 'principal' lived. The money would be taken from the first safe house to the second safe house shortly after the courier left. So if any of the couriers were ever taken, they'd only be in a position to disclose the location of our first safe house, and we'd limit our losses.

"The money count was verified, and the money put in banking form--stamped, strapped in bundles and boxed--in the second safe house. It was often then transported to an air freight facility for the flight to Panama."

So you want to know why there are occasional drug busts of massive size? Because you have to have some show of the game. Plus, you will never hear of what happens in the instances following initial TV spectaculars when all the kingpins have "gotten away" and only the little "troublemakers" have been blackmailed.

The testimony then continued, with Senators Kerry, Alfonse DeAmato and others asking the questions. Following is a compilation of some of the more interesting excerpts of the testimony:

Q: Were these commercial flights you used to transport the money?

A: We used Eastern Airlines and Braniff. The boxes full of money were put on pallets, and loaded en masse for the flight to Panama...What you did, see, was pack the money in the middle, and ordinary-looking cargo all around it. Then, you strap it all together as one load...That's why it's so important to use an air freight company that has a license to consolidate air cargo shipments...that's a very valuable license.

Q: Were you ever met by anyone upon landing in Panama?

A: The money was always met on arrival. An armored vehicle, along with a Panamanian Defense Forces detail. We would have our agents strip the pallets, and take out the money. It was then loaded into the armored truck, and it would get delivered to the Banco Nacional de Panama, from where it could be wire-transferred back to any bank in America.

Q: Were there any markings of identification on the armored vehicle?

A: Yes...a quite well-known name...I wish I could think of it right now...oh yes, it was called Brinks.

Q: Did you ever launder money through U.S. banks?

A: Of course. I'd say about $200 million every month, at least, in the U.S.

Q: Over $2 1/2 billion, at least, a year?!

A: Yes.

Q: Was any of this immense dope money ever invested inside the United States?

A: Yes sir. In the U.S. I controlled, on behalf of the Cartel, hundreds of millions of dollars in assets like CD's, real estate, stocks, bonds, you name it...The Cartel had a very diversified portfolio.

Q: Who have you dealt with? Let's lay it on the table. Give me a name of an American bank that 'courted' you.

A: Virtually all of them. I've dealt with CitiBank, er ah, CitiCorp, Bank of America, First National Bank of Boston, and all sorts of others, which are the REAL MAJOR money banks. You just can't place that kind of money with some 'Ma and Pa' bank in Des Moines, Iowa...Basically, I handled most of my U.S. banking business in New York, right out of the headquarters.

Q: Did these banks ever compete with each other for your drug money?

A: Yes sir. As a matter of fact, we always played them one against the other. We'd say 'so-and-so will give us eight and a quarter percent. If you can't give me an eighth more, I'm taking my money.'

Q: Well now, did the banks have any reason to know anything other than that this might be the representative of a foreign government with a lot of money to invest in the U.S.?

A: In every instance the banks knew who they were dealing with...It's not like they didn't have any inkling of what the purpose was...Again, they had special representatives for people like me--representatives not found on the official listings in the bank directories.

This could go on and on but I think you get the point, readers. He went on to explain that he knew who the special representatives in the various U.S. banks he dealt with were, but only by "sight". As part of the agreement between him and the banks, he was never given their names--for security. He concluded this portion of his testimony by explaining: "You see there was a very real reason for this kind of charade. We were breaking laws in a very big manner, and you always have to have plausible deniability. The New York banks are not fools."

I would guess not! These are the same ones who are going to now have restrictions of their participation in stocks, bonds (securities), insurance and other nasty little inconveniences legally removed by your congress! Yes, its the same old Cartel who plans to rule you and own EVERYTHING you have! Actually, they already do!

Rodriguez further testified that he would frequently take cash to these banks in suitcases, buying certificates of deposit in amounts of $10 million to $100 million apiece.

"Those CD's were then transferred to Panama by money couriers," related Rodriguez. "In fact, with the complicity of the banks, they were often 'booked offshore'--that is, the transactions were recorded as if I had purchased the CD's in Panama City. That enabled us to move huge sums through U.S. Customs with relative ease."

Once the money arrived in Panama, it was deposited in the branch office of the bank that had issued the original certificate, usually in the account of a "dummy" corporation.

"We had hundreds of paper companies registered in Panama, to facilitate money transfers," recounted Rodriguez. "Once I visited the office of a prosperous Panamanian attorney who handled dozens of such fronts for us. As is the custom there, I was served black coffee in tiny paper cups. When the office boy bent over to pour me a second cup, he splashed it on me. I flared up, and the lawyer said: 'Don't scold that kid--he is president of two of your Panamanian companies!' Ah so?!? La te da te da!

Once the money was deposited in Panama with the branch office of CitiBank or Bank of America, it was transferred back to the U.S. "The process was simple", Rodriguez testified. "CitiBank or Chase Manhattan or whoever would ship the funds back to Miami and deposit them with the regional office of the U.S. Federal Reserve." From there, the road was open to invest the cash in real estate, stocks, mortgages or other profitable assets.

"I oversaw the recycling of more than $11 billion in this manner in less than five years." Rodriguez added, "Myself alone".

As for the huge Wall Street money center banks Rodriguez named in his testimony, he concluded:

"I can tell you first-hand that they regard narcotics not as a crime problem, but as just another commercial venture."

And that, dear readers, is how the major U.S. money center banks--including the Federal Reserve--launder billions of dollars worth of narcotics profits for the drug barons and those within the U.S. government as well.

And you, dear ones, continue to pour billions into a phony "war on drugs" while the government laughs at you "all the way to the bank".

Let us have a break please.

6/30/91 #3 HATONN

THE INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION

Swiss Banks, Chase Manhattan and "Secret U.S. Circles": It is agreed by observers that, in every country concerned with the production, consumption, conversion or conveyance of illegal narcotics, the traffic is protected, if not organized, by highly placed personages, to all intents and purposes beyond the reach of the law. If the traffickers did not have what one of them has described as "protection in political and administrative circles", they would, by their own admission, be unable to operate with any efficiency.

Documentation of the roles of major U.S. money center banks in the laundering of billions of dollars in illegal narcotics profits had been hard hit by some daring and establishment-hated presses. It was not until late 1988, however, that the Federal Government even began to crack down on money-laundering through U.S. banks and it has been quite laughable since--except, of course, for the innocent cash carriers of the citizenry caught in the traps.

But let us look at what has gone on. Beginning on the west coast in October, 1988, the IRS subpoenaed documents from a number of California banks containing the records of electronic transfers of cash between them and banks in Hong Kong, Panama, the Bahamas, the Cayman Islands and the Netherlands Antilles. Does it strike you--the people a bit strange that it would, after all, be the privately owned police force of the Federal Reserve Private Corporation that would do the subpoenas?

Chief among those banks issued subpoenas were the Barclay's Bank of California, and Bank of America, which had already paid a $4.7 million fine in 1986 for failure to report 17,000 cash transactions and transfers in excess of $10,000 apiece, as required by D.C. Legislative law. But look what has happened: The IRS has clamped a tight lid on this particular investigation. But in November 1988, U.S. Customs, the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), and the Justice Department launched an equally "bold" strike against the "drug bankers", serving search and seizure warrants on 41 banks coast to coast--caused by the trap of the S&L scam-debacle which was surely surfacing through the cesspool.

This represented the first major nationwide federal sweep aimed at tracking down the deposits and investment portfolios managed for drug dealers by the banks.

Among the targets of this massive federal probe are such leading commercial banks as Manufacturer's Hanover Trust Co., the Marine Midland Bank, Chase Manhattan, Security Pacific National, Philadelphia National Bank, Wells Fargo, and, once again, Bank of America--which, by the way is owned by the Japanese.

Additionally, other major banks on the Federal Government's "hit list" reportedly include the Florida National Bank of Miami, California First Bank of Los Angeles, United National Bank of New York, and the NCNB National Bank of Florida.

Surprisingly, in spite of the overwhelming number of search and seizure warrants issued, and the Ivy League banking institutions involved, the U.S. news media clamped a blackout on these stories, as they have, with "guided" rare exception, on every major drug/money laundering scandal that has erupted over the past two years. And today CNN (and Ted Turner) is THE LARGEST NETWORK OF DECEIVING OF ALL.

These supposed "investigations" are still underway. The results, if ever made public, are sure to rock the entire financial and political world. The system cannot survive the collapsing effect of such disclosure. This is WHY you ones must realize that your time for care of your assets is indeed short. The economic structure must be totally within control of the system prior to such collapse and, therefore, you can almost count the days available to you for action for they plan the currency adjustments prior to allowing collapse.

THE SWISS AFFAIR

From the beginning of the Federal crackdown on banks in late 1988, it was never really clear WHY the government finally decided to start taking action. The facts are it became time to clamp down on the drug system and begin to bring everything under Elite control for completion of the Plan. In January of 1989 a reason was uncovered: a two-year old financial and political drug/money-laundering scandal in Switzerland that led all the way to New York's Chase Manhattan (that is Mr. Rockefeller's), and to the inner circles of the U.S. national security bureaucracy--a scandal that soon proved to be too big to keep hushed up forever. But I can guarantee beyond any bet you would make that less than one half of one percent of even the business community knows anything about it. This led to the resignation of Switzerland's Minister of Police and Justice.

There was a web of underworld connections linking the Swiss scandal to the U.S. investigations of drugs and money laundering.

The beginnings of the scandal went back to 1986, when the U.S. Justice Department opened what became its longest and most expensive narcotics trial: the so-called "pizza connection affair". It took some year and a half and $50 million to convict 22 organized crime figures of drug trafficking and money laundering on a massive scale.

While most of the defendants in the case eventually wound up in prison, the trail of their laundered loot, estimated at around $2 BILLION, was somehow lost. It did not reappear again until July, 1988, when two notorious international narcotics merchants were arrested in Switzerland on an informant's tip.

Both suspects, Yasar Musullulu and Oliviero Tognoli, were wanted by the FBI. Although they were fugitives at the time, their names had figured prominently among the drug barons identified during the course of the "pizza connection" trial.

Although Swiss authorities clamped extraordinary secrecy on the affair it came out in Switzerland that, faced with extradition to the U.S., Musullulu decided to talk. What he revealed nearly gave the Swiss government heart arrest.

A hand-picked team of senior police officials was formed to follow up on Musullulu's disclosures. Their investigation led to the Shakarchi Trading Co., a prosperous international conglomerate that maintained a chain of money-changing and gold-trading outlets in Switzerland, France, Turkey and in Lebanon, where the firm had originated among a clan of international financiers and gold traders.

Police found that the far-reaching Shakarchi consortium was a vast money laundry for hundreds of millions of dollars in drug profits. The trail of suitcases filled with cash led straight to the plush Zurich law office set up by a successful husband-and-wife team of prominent Swiss attorneys--Dr. Hans Kopp, and his spouse, Elizabeth Ikle Kopp. Mrs. Kopp, of course, was at the time the Swiss Minister of Police and Justice--the first woman in Swiss history to be so appointed! Now, readers, isn't this sleuthing fun?

After Mrs. Kopp moved up to head Swiss federal law enforcement in 1985 her husband, Hans, landed a lucrative appointment himself: He was named Executive Vice President and Managing Director of the Shakarchi conglomerate's Swiss Branch. This, so far, is the key unit in the alleged worldwide money laundering network.

With the prestigious Kopp name lending an aura of eminent respectability to the Shakarchi firm, Switzerland's leading banks, including the internationally-known Credit Suisse and Union Bank of Switzerland were then drawn into its money laundering operations.

Elizabeth resigned on Jan. 10, 1989, after special government agents were appointed to investigate her activities in the Swiss law firm she and her husband had founded jointly some years earlier--a firm allegedly used by the Koppes as a front for the criminal drug/money laundering operation which Swiss authorities claim smuggled huge shipments of heroin and cocaine into the U.S. for years.

CREDENTIALS: DON'T SMUGGLE DRUGS WITHOUT GOOD ONES

The trail of dope and laundered billions continued as Swiss authorities, led by the hard-driving Swiss prosecutor, Dick Marty, began putting pressure on banking officials at Credit Suisse, one of the world's top money center banks.

On March 12, 1988, just two days after the Swiss government unanimously voted to strip Mrs. Kopp of the immunity from prosecution normally enjoyed by Swiss officials, Credit Suisse admitted that it had provided bagmen working for the drug mob with special credentials identifying them as bank couriers.

Moreover, when making this unprecedented admission, the bank's spokesman tried to soften this blow to its image by declaring that "more than 300" other banks also engage in the same practice.

Using the credentials issued by the prestigious Swiss financial institution, and by other banks as well, ~~drug financiers have been moving~~ literally billions in "dirty cash" around the world without interference from customs or any other authority. Now how much of this did you good readers know? I further suggest that if you have nice brokers, innocent or guilty, handling your money and playing in Dollars, Pounds, Marks, etc., and running through London--GET OUT. GET OUT NOW! NOW! LAST MONTH!!! The whole scheme came right out of London where you will be TRYING TO EXTRICATE YOUR MONEY--FROM!

BALES OF NARCO-CASH FOR CHASE MANHATTAN (Rockefeller)

The media has refused to even acknowledge this connection of the Americans to the Swiss banking scandal. Further, it is not hard to see why the big media kept this story from the public. One itsy-bitsy release on page 40 of Newsweek magazine sometime around April 10 was the first such account to see light in any national distribution. The story claimed that Swiss drug investigators had "followed a tortuous trail from drug sellers at a Philadelphia pizza parlor, to a Palermo laboratory to drug lords in Turkey. As usual, that was hardly the case at all. In reality, the track followed by investigators ran from drug dealers on the U.S. east coast straight to ONE CHASE MANHATTAN PLAZA, and from there to other leading American banks. The controlled media were ordered to squash the information or any related to same.

There is photographic and surveillance proof that Musullulu, and other drug money bagmen, started their business day by collecting bales of cash, usually packed in liquor boxes.

When the limousine's trunk was completely loaded with such crates of currency, Musullulu and company headed straight for the national headquarters of the Chase Manhattan Bank, the financial flagship of the worldwide Rockefeller dynasty, located at One Chase Manhattan Plaza, in the heart of the New York financial district.

At Chase, the crates of $10, $20 and $50 bills collected (Oh? What about those touted $50's and $100's they want to take away from you?) from drug addicts were sorted, stacked and counted electronically. From there, the money traveled in elaborate bank transfers from the Swiss Credit Bank, Swiss Bank Corp, and other major financial centers around the world, where the funds were eventually recycled and invested by drug financiers.

So why are the giant U.S. news organizations unwilling to share such a story with the American public? Now we all know why, don't we? But, when interrogated, the Newsweek spokesman said that, "Bank stories are reserved for financial writers, who tend to react protectively when a scandal seems to threaten the entire system. Investigative reporters ARE ALMOST NEVER ASSIGNED TO SUCH CASES." So, the establishment-controlled press follows orders and downplays the scandals out of the very REAL FEAR that the beleaguered banking industry would be even further discredited in the eyes of the public if headlines began appearing around the country depicting banks as vast money laundries for narco-millionaires--which they, of course, ARE.

Already the banks have been offering money which would and could never be repaid to Governments around the world, including the U.S., at incredible interest rates of as much as 20% in recent years (you calculate how much that would amount to annually on say, a $10 BILLION loan), so they have also been profiting along with the drug lords who are addicting your nation's children to narcotics in order to pull off the PLAN 2000.

You might find it interesting that Mrs. Ikle-Kopp (Elizabeth) traveled frequently to Washington while serving as Switzerland's Chief Law Enforcement officer during the mid-1980's. Why? Because she is the close cousin of Fred Ikle, who at the same time was serving as Under Secretary of Defense Policy for the Reagan Administration. Ikle and Kopp maintained close and most affectionate family relations during Ikle's seven year stint with the Pentagon. Perhaps not-so-surprisingly, one of Ikle's most trusted associates in the Pentagon was his direct underling, Assistant Secretary of Defense Richard Armitage. Now aren't you glad you stayed tuned to this channel?

Armitage, as you might remember, was involved as the key money link to top heroin traffickers in Southeast Asia for over 20 years--to date. He also was sent into Jordan and Lebanon by the Bush Blunderers early on in the Gulf War--and don't you just wonder why, when Lebanon and Syria are the next best producers of drugs in that part of the world? And you thought that nasty little mess was because Saddam was such a bad, bad boy! Sic, sic.

Even more ominously, about a year before the "Swiss Scandal" story began to unfold, Congress had ordered the U.S. Defense Department to start participating in drug interdiction operations.

The task of formulating the Defense Department's policy on drug control fell to Under Secretary Ikle. Surprisingly, at the time, he strongly opposed the whole idea of using the Defense Department to help catch international drug smugglers. In fact his opposition was so overdone that he was called on the carpet for interference.

A team of expert number crunchers and briefing officers was assembled to fend off all congressional attempts to involve the services in any aspect of the administration's anti-drug program but leaks will out and an expose' will be forthcoming regarding the heroin trade.

In the end, Ikle's debaters stonewalled the congressional leadership long enough to exempt the military from the national war on drugs. No, this coming exposé is NOT Gritz--it is one Peter de Groot, so let us scatter the security around a bit for these brave souls.

Of course, the thwarted lawmakers in Congress want a second look at good old Ikle because, one stated it nicely, "We just thought he was a powerful bureaucrat. We had no idea he had a family link to the drug underworld." I'm sure there will be a review of Ikle's role in the drug debate--including a California connection.

A WHAT? YES, YOU DIDN'T THINK THEY WERE JUST AFTER DHARMA'S PROPERTY, DID YOU? THEY DON'T REALLY LIKE WHAT IS UNFOLDING HERE, WHAT WITH THE SAVINGS AND LOAN INVOLVED, AND MAJOR LAW FIRMS, PLACED JUDGES, BOUGHT GOVERNORS AND CONGRESSMEN AND INVOLVEMENT BY THE TWO LAST PRESIDENTS AND FAMILIES--NO, THEY REALLY DON'T CARE MUCH FOR US! THEY LIKE IT EVEN LESS THAT WE JUST WRAP OUR CLUTCH INTO OUR FEATHERS UNDER OUR GREAT BIG WINGS AND KEEP RIGHT ON PUNCHING!

SO, FOR THE CALIFORNIA CONNECTION

On April 20, 1989, the Federal Government moved to seize a $500,000 share of the Greyhound Bus Terminal in downtown Los Angeles, alleging the building was, in part, purchased using the profits from a "major international money laundering ring". Federal prosecutors charged that an L.A.-based businessman and partner in the bus terminal, Dickran Altun, laundered millions of dollars in drug money on behalf of a "Swiss currency exchange house" that is "one of the subjects of the largest money laundering operations ever uncovered in Switzerland".

Altun, authorities claim, used private money couriers who boarded commercial flights to Switzerland. Once there, the illegal narcotics profits carried by the couriers were deposited in Swiss and Panamanian bank accounts.

Altun has admitted laundering over $32 million for the Swiss operation, between March and November of 1986, through a Lebanese couple named Barkey and Jean Magharian. The Magharians, say Swiss investigators, allegedly laundered 1.4 billion in Swiss francs, mostly through Credit Suisse.

Although a tight lid of secrecy has now been clamped on the Los Angeles end of the investigation (like buried with the toxic waste from San Clemente Nuclear Plant), it is known that the Swiss end of the drug investigation is centered around a billionaire syndicate of Lebanese and Italian narco-magnates, who used Credit Suisse among other banks and commercial "fronts" to launder the illegal drug profits.

By the way, for Col. Gritz: No, I am pretty sure that the fact Armitage traveled to the Middle East in the Gulf War was NOT put on national Television or touted loudly on the air--that encounter with you was to give you confirmation that I am exactly who I say I am and my scribe is simply bewildered by all this. Someone let it slip, however, once only--and THAT IS THE ONLY REASON DHARMA IS STILL SECURE. Now, don't you just wonder who makes them slip like that from time to time?

I think you will note from the following that this "massive crack-down" of the past year or so has done little--if anything--to put a dent into the laundering of illegal drug profits. The Federal Reserve admits it is now literally awash in excess cash reserves. For instance, at the Federal Reserve Bank in Los Angeles, cash reserves now top $3.8 billion, up from just $165 million only four short years ago--a sudden, staggering 2,200% increase!

It certainly seems to me it would have been far more advisable to simply cease trying to steal this property from my writer--for it is really getting expensive the longer it goes on and on and on.

Drugs flow into every nation but mostly into the U.S., even right through the military bases with protection, more than ever before in history and growing, not slowing. The bankers, the druggies, the dealers are literally laughing in the face of the Federal Government--and the U.S. taxpayers who foot the massive tax bill for the Federal Government's anti-drug efforts--and the truly galling part should be, they are "laughing all of the way to the banks"!!!

Well, this greed, insanity, corruption and death will continue to feed on America's human infrastructure until it crumbles and the day is arriving sooner than anyone has yet imagined!

SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION!

SALU

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI
($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 8

6/27/91 SANANDA

MARTYRDOM IS TELLING GOD WITHIN, "I GIVE UP"

Greetings Precious Druthea. I AM Sananda, One With God. I come in service to God of Light, of Knowledge and of Love.

This day I will discuss the condition of emotion which you call martyrdom. Let us define Martyr within your human dictionary, "1. One who submits to death rather than renounce his religion. 2. One who dies, suffers, or sacrifices everything for a principle, cause, etc. 3. One who suffers much, as from ill health or misfortune."

One who believes that he must suffer and die for that which he believes in, or for God, is most mistaken as to the nature of GOD. God does not require suffering and death for soul salvation. He ONLY gives forth life to his human imaginings as well as ALL of Creation. It is the adversary who has "fooled" the devoted and developing human into believing that he must "die" for God and that suffering is somehow "good". All I need say to this line of "thinking" is, it is nonsense, since it is not coming from the KNOWING of GOD.

IT IS ONLY A SPIRITUALLY IGNORANT BEING WHO WILL SEEK PUNISHMENT OF SELF FOR PERCEIVED ERRORS OR IMPERFECTION

Why is this so? Well, the difference is that a spiritually MATURE being will seek understanding of CAUSE of his error so that the KNOWLEDGE is gained from the experience that the error NOT be repeated. He will not seek continuous self-punishment for experiencing an EFFECT from an error in his thinking of which he KNOWS NOT THE CAUSE in self.

Hatonn has said repeatedly, and it bears repeating herein, that GOD needs LIVING devoted human beings upon physical 3rd dimension of Earth (Shan) to do His Work. He does not demand, require or even imply that HIS children need suffer and die in His behalf! GOD IS LIFE GIVING AND REGIVING LOVE!

If you martyr yourself, then it is human misperception influenced by the adversary that develops this desire to suffer and die. You become unable to truly serve God when you develop suffering of great pain and agony upon either physical or emotional self. For then most of your focus is on self in the suffering thereof. And when you die in physical form after suffering intensely, there is much healing that must occur even in the next place of your experience after your so-called "death" transition.

WHO SAYS PAIN IS YOUR TEACHER?

We have heard this said by many ones, especially within the "New Age" and even so-called "Christian" community. Now please do not misunderstand, every painful experience can teach you something from the "information of EFFECTS of motion" standpoint. Pain is a symptom, an EFFECT of dis-ease in one's thinking/behavior, it is most certainly NOT the cause. Most often, when it is viewed from the EFFECTS standpoint, what you learn is that feeling pain is a pain and certainly NO fun. But UNTIL ones who suffer pain actually search CAUSE within THEIR creating experience and THEN GAIN KNOWLEDGE FROM GOD as to WHY one is punishing SELF, one will have learned nothing of absolute CURE.

Now think about this, chelas. How many of you have felt great KNOWLEDGE flow forth to you when you are in tremendous physical or emotional agony? Many of you have simply run to your nearest physical/emotional pain-killer, such as Alcohol and/or Drugs. Did you find your CAUSE in those drinks or those pills? Not only did you avoid the discovery of your CAUSE, many of you found yourselves addicted to the unbalanced EFFECT! The CAUSE must become KNOWN within, understood completely and released to allow a CURE of the dis-eased CAUSE and, therefore, the dis-eased EFFECT.

For example, you Mothers who have given birth to a wondrous child. IF you suffered great physical pain which we observe MOST of you do, were you not beside yourself thinking HOW to relieve the pain? DO YOU KNOW, PRECIOUS MOTHERS OF GOD, that child-birth NEED NOT be physical agony? YOU SIMPLY EXPECT THAT IT WILL BE AND SO IT IS. Could it be in your thinking that somehow the pain makes you a more worthy Mother? And is the Joy of the gift of the child more wondrous when you have suffered to give birth? Ponder these questions within God-Knowing, chelas. There is no Pain required to be "Worthy" and "Joyous"... ONLY LOVE. So Be it.

Very simply put, chelas, PAIN is EFFECT of YOUR desire to suffer. WHY would any CHOOSE to suffer? Mostly because you have been taught and have BELIEVED the lie that suffering somehow makes you worthy in "the eyes of God". For most of you feel so unworthy and guilty in SELF that you seek SELF-punishment to somehow "even" the score with God.

All you are really doing, chelas, is punishing self and invalidating your LIFE. You are telling GOD, "I give up on life. All I deserve is suffering because I am worthless. So I will gain my immortality and acceptance by GOD by suffering FOR Him." This thinking behavior is so ludicrous! Do you see? GOD DOES NOT PUNISH; YOU PUNISH SELVES, ALWAYS. YOU REAP THE EFFECTS OF THAT WHICH YOU SOW IN EVERY CIRCUMSTANCE. WHEN YOU DEGRADE YOUR SPIRIT BY BREAKING THE LAWS OF BALANCE OF NATURE, YOU REAP THE EFFECTS OF THAT UNBALANCED BEHAVIOR, NO MORE AND NO LESS!

SUFFERING IS A VERY SELF-CENTERED ENDEAVOR

As I said earlier, when you suffer great emotional and/or physical pain and agony, you most often are not thinking about HOW to serve GOD, or how to assist your neighbor. You are too "busy" in self-suffering and usually garnering much needed "attention" from others around you. One who suffers "continuously" is most often STARVING for LOVE, attention and acknowledgement from others of friends and family.

YOU are in NEED when you suffer. Only most often, you ones seek OUTSIDE selves for nurturing and LOVE, instead of inquiring WITHIN of GOD for nurturing and UNDERSTANDING of SELF-CAUSE of the suffering. IN A MOMENT GOD WITHIN CAN ALLEVIATE ALL SUFFERING IF KNOWLEDGE OF SELF-CAUSE WAS ACCEPTED AND UNDERSTOOD.

In the first case of seeking from outside self, one is NOT taking responsibility for self, so KNOWLEDGE of CURE cannot be attained. In the second case of GOING WITHIN WITH PURE INTENT/DESIRE TO KNOW, one is most definitely TAKING responsibility for SELF-healing IN his MIND-THINKING diseased CAUSE. One has then ACCESSED and ACCEPTED the power of knowledge gained by GOD WITHIN.

IS ASSURANCE AND REASSURANCE REALLY NECESSARY AND BENEFICIAL FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH?

There is absolutely nothing "wrong" with GIVING assurance and support to another for the work they are doing, especially if it has been beneficial for you. Often ones in service, such as mine scribes, work in blindness about the effectiveness of our work together in helping mankind attain inner KNOWLEDGE. The human still yet has very little ability to monitor EFFECTS of his efforts in other humans. And often you ones are much quicker to "criticize" another's work from human "ego" perception than do you offer praise and support from receiving of SPIRITUAL benefit. So the sincere and supportive "feedback" is most heartening and reassuring to our scribes and other workers as well.

Druthea's greatest concern, as well as most all of GOD'S scribes, is that she is translating our messages accurately. She often, most especially in the beginning of her receiving, really needs Hatonn's and My reassurance that all is coming out as We intend it to. She is coming into comfort with Us, and working with us WITHOUT her human ego perception input interfering. Dharma, too, has had her times of extreme "concern" about her work with Hatonn as well as Mineself and All the others whom she has received for.

You see, for both Dharma and Druthea, the intent to serve GOD only is so very pure, and the commitment so very strong within, that the "letting go" of ego perception for purpose of GOD receiving has not been difficult for either of them. They may see it differently, only in reality of Truth, I am sure both would admit that ALL of the TESTING they have endured has simply made them STRONGER in their intent and commitment to serve God of Light.

Does that mean that they do not feel "hurt" or "angered" by sharp criticism and inconsideration by others who read THE WORD and yet do not see Truth? Of course not. They, too are impacted by perceived "negative" attack by others. And although I know, in the beginning when the threats and criticism and hatred were thrust at her, Dharma occasionally wondered about the value of her service, today SHE within herself certainly has NO doubt about the importance and value of her contribution.

What is so beautiful to behold from where I sit, is that both of these little doves, Dharma and Druthea, have only become MORE humbled and spiritually mature because of their work for God. Well, I've nearly brought Druthea to tears...

So you see, my precious chelas, when your integrity of service has become impeccable in intent, and you have truly given back your will to God's will, then your desire is to ONLY serve Him. Your inner thought will be, "Please Father, I only wish to sustain in YOUR service, do YOUR will and BE an HONORABLE reflection of YOU". Within you YOU WILL KNOW you are doing His will and the "right" deed, and then from human perception, occasional sincere assurance given from without is most appreciated. Inside you KNOW and will continue your service IN KNOWLEDGE ANYWAY, with or without outside reassurance.

YOU HONOR GOD WHEN YOU HONOR YOUR BRETHREN

When you give appreciation to SPIRIT within another, and not just false accolades to the EGO, then you lift them as well as self into GOD'S LOVE VIBRATION. You are demonstrating HIS giving and regiving quality. And LOVE given in honor of intent is ALWAYS returned in abundance to SELF. You are then HIS grace in motion co-creating His Harmony of LOVE within Creation. A most splendid place to be...ONE WITH GOD'S MIND!!

Giving LOVE is becoming ONE with the Breath of GOD CREATING.

With that thought let us take a rest, Druthea, and ponder these things more carefully. Thank you, my precious little sister, for your service. I AM ever with thee, to lift and comfort thee. Walk with Me, my precious brothers, and I WILL bring you home. I AM Sananda. One WITH GOD, Within Creation. I LOVE you greatly, my brothers. Be at Peace. Salu.

7/1/91 #1 SANANDA

WHAT IS PAIN?

Greetings, precious Druthea. I AM Sananda, One with God. I come in service to Holy Divine God of Light and to The Creation. Druthea has petitioned for clarification regarding "pain" and "illusion" and how it relates to one who serves God upon 3rd Dimensional Earth Plane.

Druthea's "confusion" came when she read Hatonn's statement of Saturday last in which he said. "Peace" does not mean "absence of pain"--it means exactly what it says--"at peace with that which you are--within." The Masters before you have had total Peace within--and abundant earthly agony and pain without--do not confuse the two."

What is the "confusion", little sister? Did you think that you would serve God here and then ALL would be painless and fearless within you? Come now, chela. Let me do some "reminding" about this place and the nature of your "agreement" when you serve upon "physical" illusion.

PAIN AND FEAR ARE OBSTACLES OF THE ADVERSARY

When you ones of God petition God to serve in 3rd Dimensional "physical" illusion, you KNOW in advance that part of your service involves MANY challenges to THAT service by the adversary upon this place. The adversary "rules" this place through the developed illusions, which we call "obstacles" of FEAR and PAIN, as well as a host of other "human physical" emotions.

Chelas, let us give you an example with which to ponder. Most any well-meaning spiritual seeker can and will serve God when all receive him in Love, and there is NO criticism, NO pain, NO doubt and NO Fear thrust back at him. But how many of you WILL endure the DISCIPLINE of physical and emotional obstacles, such as fear and pain, and continue in your service to God? It seems, few indeed.

SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE IS YOUR CHALLENGE TO SELF IN SERVICE TO GOD

Do you see precious, that you who have agreed to assist this developing humanity must jump in completely and function in this illusion as ANY human does, that includes experiencing the adversarial challenges to your INNER KNOWING.

You have a saying which applies herein, "When in Rome you do as the Romans do". When on Earth Physical, you experience as Earth Human at the same level which the "Mass" Consciousness of the WHOLE is experiencing at. This is how you gain "understanding" of the workings and hardships of this "illusion" that hopefully you "remember" and "rise above" the obstacles set before you in true spiritual discipline. SO THAT YOU BECOME AN EXAMPLE FOR HUMANITY to see that perhaps they TOO can overcome the compression of this illusion and find the JOY within of KNOWLEDGE to sustain them in God's service.

It is easy to be upon a higher plane and observe Earth functioning and say, "Father, please let me serve my little brothers on Earth." It is quite another thing to find yourself in earth physical bombarded by the actual illusion and perceived separation from Creator source, and through the experience then begin to truly comprehend the difficult nature of your commitment to serve.

MIND OVER MATTER

Hatonn, Germain and myself can speak of the true nature of "Reality" which is ALL KNOWING, LIGHT, LOVE of MIND of Creator, but it does not mean that YOU experience in physical form only within MIND OF GOD. The suffering and pain of Earth is tremendous, and as a human working here, you will most certainly be impacted by it.

The question to self and God is, "Will you continue in your service to God IN SPITE of the adversaries evil projections and painful bombardment?" We feel YOU WILL DO SO. That is why we work so closely with you ones to remind you and assist you in keeping you "on track". The discipline of self in commitment is extraordinary upon this plane. Frankly, that is the CHALLENGE you ones desired and you certainly felt at the time that you agreed to serve here that you could handle it. We KNOW you can. Do you?

Experience on Earth is really quite a test of MIND over MATTER (illusion). I came as did you ones and endured pain and agony, fear and rejection. If you think I and the Masters before me were somehow "above" human emotion and pain, you are sadly mistaken. I experienced as human, as part of MY testing and spiritual development in service to OUR Father God/Aton. I developed such compassion for you ones because of my experience upon Earth. This is why I promised to return and bring you who choose to go HOME to Our Father's Kingdoms.

You see, I could not serve you NOW in my inherited capacity as SANANDA had I NOT experienced physically upon the Earth plane. I made the choice and my rewards from MY Father Aton have been incredible. You ones have yet to remember HIS LOVE, Light and Perfection of KNOWING. I and my brothers serving with me hope to bring MANY of you home to His place of remembering within you. God has prepared a place for YOUR return. And WE are come to bring THE WORD that you ones may choose GOD within you to return to. So be it.

YOU WILL "RISE ABOVE" YOUR PAIN, SUFFERING AND FEAR

It is true, chelas, that pain and fear are symptoms, EFFECTS of disease in one's thinking or "believing" patterns. They are tools of the adversary. Pain and fear also exist as development of physical manifestation ILLUSION. You will either fall into feeling "helpless despair" or you will recognize CAUSE in self, and continue your commitment of service.

For example, many of you ones of earth, are "sharpening" your spiritual discipline within by enduring the challenges without. It is really that simple. Is it easy? God NEVER said it is easy to experience here, BUT the rewards are tremendous, especially in regard to the gaining of KNOWLEDGE and Spiritual Perfection.

YOU ARE GIVING "BIRTH" TO GOD WITHIN YOU

You ARE giving birth to God perfection, Love, Light and Knowledge within. This does not mean that birth is easy and pain free always. You are creating your birth HOW YOU DESIRE IT TO BE. Some of you choose pain in order that you can practice "Mind over Matter". The point I have been efforting to make is that YOU CHOOSE ALL in your experience, including adversarial challenges or obstacles to self. I simply want you to know that in REALITY OF GOD LOVE and MIND KNOWING, you are not REQUIRED to suffer continuously unless you choose to do so for some understanding...or punishment within.

Do you know that when you DECIDE to, you can RELEASE your pain to Our Father and it will dissolve by the strength of your intent and DESIRE? It is so. I suffered tremendous physical pain as a test of discipline to myself before and during my crucifixion. I did not suffer as long as I could have though, because I surrendered MY WILL TO MY FATHER and HE released me. That is why I was comatose and "appeared" to be physically dead. I was NOT killed at my crucifixion, as it was the WILL of MY Father that I continue in service elsewhere. I was NOT a Martyr who suffered and "died" for YOUR sins. I RELEASED MY WILL TO GOD, WHO IS WITHIN AND HE RELEASED ME FROM MY PAIN THAT I COULD CONTINUE HIS WORK.

Perhaps now you will understand why I have recently written about Martyrdom. It is because YOU ones MADE me a Martyr so that somehow you could justify YOUR evil behavior which is simply a product of your IGNORANCE, and NOT be responsible for selves when you error. If I had DIED, perhaps I would have Martyred myself, but I certainly would not have "passed" my initiation toward "Sanandahood", now would I have? I would have GIVEN UP PHYSICAL LIFE on Earth and therefore, been unable to continue with my commitment of service to GOD/ATON on Earth.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR SINS (ERRORS). I know we keep repeating this statement, but it bears repeating and repeating that you ones who call yourselves "so called" Christians who believe I died upon the cross FOR YOUR SINS, KNOW THAT YOU WILL STAND NAKED BEFORE GOD AND SELF IN RESPONSIBILITY FOR YOUR OWN SINS. I don't care if you claim you accept JESUS CHRIST as your savior. YOU will "save" your own soul and assets or they will not be "saved".

And what about your soul? YOU will choose to GROW INTO KNOWLEDGE OF SELF-RESPONSIBILITY and abide within the LAWS OF GOD AND NATURE, or you will choose physical destruction of self and thus remain in a place in keeping with your IGNORANCE.

What is even more disturbing to those of us assisting Earth human is that you ones even seem bent on destroying your very beloved planet! YOUR life-blood of survival as a species is at stake, and YOU SEEM TO CARE NOT ABOUT IT!

This is why WE of YOUR HOSTS most certainly hope that you ones will take heed of the WARNINGS about HOW NATURE WORKS, especially those given by Germain at this time within the Pleiades Connection series, and that is that Atomic Radiation is BURNING YOU UP, EXPANDING YOUR CELLS OF LIFE AND CREATING DEATH WITHIN YOU AND ALL ABOUT YOU. You MUST stop this madness of developing Nuclear Atomic Plants, because it is coming back upon you; and you think there is suffering now? Oh, MAY GOD HAVE MERCY UPON YOUR SPECIES IN YOUR IGNORANCE OF THAT WHICH YOU DO! YOU WILL REAP BITTERLY THAT WHICH YOU HAVE SOWN UPON MOTHER AND MOST OF YOU KNOW IT NOT!

PLEIADES CONNECTION SERIES AND THE NATURE OF THE UNIVERSE

Please read ALL of the PLEIADES CONNECTION SERIES, 1,2,3,4 and I expect more volumes as this is the information which will hopefully SHOCK enough of you into action for self-preservation, if no other motivation arouses you. Send these books to the officials in EVERY city which supports a NUCLEAR PLANT or ones who PLAN to build one. GIVE THEM QUICK REFERENCES ABOUT HOW RADIATION TRULY WORKS AND THE DANGERS OF MINING AND SEPARATING MINERALS FROM THEIR NATURAL STATE WITHIN YOUR ROCKS AND EARTH. THE MADNESS MUST STOP, CHELAS!

We hope that with this knowledge now coming to you via Germain and Hatonn, you and your officials and statesmen will SEE THE LIGHT OF TRUTH and put an end to what WILL be the complete destruction of your Earth Species, as well as the Earth as you know it now! You can avert further damage, only you MUST act NOW!

Now I will quote from one of Germain's recent writings within the Pleiades Connection series that you may further understand the seriousness of your circumstances upon earth:

... "Nature has a tremendously balanced rhythmic normalcy in her orderly processes of creation. It is all of it good for Man and animal alike when they observe that normalcy. When they defy it, or violate it through ignorance of it, Nature (or GOD) does not punish them for that violation. Ignorance punishes them. The discovery of atomic energy as a means of obtaining greater heat than an orderly and normal way suitable to environment, is as much a breach of Nature's orderly processes as it would be if Man violated the law of gravity by discovering that he could get to the bottom of the canyon in a much quicker than the normal way. No man would do that because he knows better. Atomic energy for industry is as great a violation of Nature's way as a defiance of gravity would be (realizing that even gravity is not that which is accepted). And it is as sure a death for the violator of one as the other.

"We know that Man is not intentionally defying God's law. There is but one other reason why he is doing it, which is that he does not know what he is doing. Do not, however, for one minute believe that, as time has elapsed, the Elite have not seen the possibilities and now utilize same for their own greedy purposes. Man admittedly does not know what he is doing. The law works just as irrevocably, and inevitably, however, against him who defies it, as it does for the one who does not know. For long ages he has sought for the life principle in germ or ultimate unit of matter. He has never found it there and never will. Likewise, he has sought for the principle of death. This he has now found, but does not know it."...So be it and Thank you, Germain.

I am very sorry that we must show you these things, these consequences of your errors and your ignorance. I know that you do not like much what you see and especially what you hear within THE PHOENIX JOURNALS, only you must KNOW THE TRUTH OF YOUR CAUSE, even if it is through ignorance that you caused this destruction upon yourselves. Because you see as it was so beautifully explained by Germain, the law works irrevocably and inevitably against you if you defy it knowingly or unknowingly.

THE HIGHEST COMMAND OF THE CREATION

Now you may have a better grasp at why the Highest COMMAND of The Creation is: "Gain ALL knowledge inasmuch as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of Creation." Ignorance WILL kill you, and although your soul is IMMORTAL, your REMAINING in ignorance can and will cause you much unnecessary pain and suffering. And in this time-frame of your evolution, not only can your ignorance of Nuclear Atomic Energy cause you great pain and suffering, IT can also DAMAGE soul essence and as Hatonn has said, "THAT IS A NO-NO!"

So here is THE WORD and THE WORD will go forth as promised by God/Creator of LIGHT, LOVE and KNOWLEDGE. YOU will choose that which YOU will do, and the CHANGE must BEGIN WITHIN EACH ONE. You will each stand responsible for self. And those of you in God's service will become most disciplined in ability to WALK through the destruction of the physical illusion all about you to assist the bringing home of YOUR brothers who choose GOD in ONENESS.

May God's light shine brightly within and without you that you remember WHO YOU ARE AND FROM WHERE YOU COME IN ONENESS.

I honor and salute you of our physical crew members, who although not all of you remember yet your complete commitment, yet you serve responsibly within the INNER KNOWING, ever enduring and surmounting the outer darkness, discomfort and distraction of this illusion. KNOW, precious ones, that GOD'S radiant light IS WITHIN YOU ALWAYS to guide and comfort you. I love you greatly, precious ones.

Let us close this document. I trust that I have clarified sufficiently to bring Peace Within about that which is. Thank you, precious Druthea, my little dove, for inquiring on behalf of self and your brethren for clarification. I never leave thy side, chela, and Michael and Germain are always with thee as well. Hold this close to your "heart", precious. Your "worthiness" is absolute, you just don't "believe" from human ego perception that this be true. Release that false "perception" to YOUR KNOWING within, precious. You will endure. KNOW THIS FOR THIS IS YOUR DESIRE...TO SERVE GOD. I AM Sananda, ONE WITH GOD, in service to His Light of Knowledge, of Love and of Light, and therefore to YOU, my brethren. Thank you for your attention. Salu.

7/1/91 #2 SANANDA

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES OF SUICIDE?

Greetings precious Druthea. I Am Sananda, returned in service to God of Light to answer some inquiries of me of a personal nature for one called "Laurie". I will answer in general format that those of you with similar concerns may be given understanding as well.

Precious Laurie, you ask questions from within which cause you great unrest and feelings of "guilt". Such is the nature of human perception when one does not understand the effects one witnesses with his senses and not his KNOWING.

First, chela, let me begin by saying that it is not necessary that you send your inquiry anywhere except to God WITHIN you. When, for example, you petition to Myself, Sananda, I HEAR YOU WITHIN precious, it is simply you do not yet HEAR ME. You must learn to seek your answers WITHIN, child, that your power be acknowledged and recognized and therefore accessed WITHIN you. I will ask herein that our editors please send a clearing tape to Laurie that she learn to simply clear and quiet self and LISTEN.

Does this mean we expect you ones to not inquire or ask for clarification? Of course not. Often your questions belong to many ones and so we are most eager to offer clarification and further understanding to you.

Now, it is most important, chelas, that you read "PHOENIX OPERATOR/OWNER MANUAL" for in-depth clarification on the Laws of God and Creation. Therein we speak of murder, suicide and abortion clearly as defiance of God's Laws. Suicide is self-murder. So then, you must understand that it is not the decision of any human to end his/her life before its natural cycle is finished. WHY? Because God/Aton has graced you with LIFE upon Physical dimension to, GROW in your spiritual perfection back to ONENESS. When you purposefully END that life you reap a sort of "set-back" caused by the confusion of premature death at the hands of self.

Although you never go backwards in your spiritual evolution, you certainly can become stagnant, or lost in confusion for a time. Suicide is an interruption with YOUR WILL against the WILL of GOD of your lifestream evolution. What happens to one who ends his life will vary with each individual circumstance. One thing is certain though, you will not GO to a better place of fulfillment until you've completed your lessons. You will need to return and FINISH lessons which you may have thought you escaped and you may find that the second journey may be less pleasant than the first in human experience.

DEATH DOES NOT CONQUER LIFE

Just as it says, chelas, because you die physically does not mean you are now perfection and have no more lessons to reach God perfection. The difference is that "on the other side" you will be made, often painfully, aware of your errors made against God and Nature through self-misbehavior.

ONLY LIFE IS ETERNAL and physical death is just that, death of a body. THE SOUL IS IMMORTAL and continues on at whatever its level of KNOWINGNESS WITHIN GOD/MIND. Only through LIFE and LIVING in balance within The Laws of God and Creation will you conquer your fear of DEATH. For then you will KNOW that physical death is only a step, a change of experience...NOT the end of LIFE eternal!

Murder, Abortion, Suicide are all attempts by Man's will to end life given of our Creator against HIS WILL. The one thing I wish you ALL to remember clearly is this: You are responsible to SELF and TO GOD WITHIN for your actions and behaviors which defy Nature and the laws thereof. INHERENTLY WITHIN YOU, YOU ARE GIVEN ALL THE LAWS AND MORAL RULES OF CONDUCT AND BEHAVIOR. So within you must come into understanding of WHY you are distressed and feeling unworthy in your being.

WHEN YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR CAUSE YOU CAN CHANGE your behavior that the cause not be repeated by the lesson or error being understood in KNOWLEDGE within you. Forgive yourself for that which is done and cannot be changed...it is a gift IF you recognize the error and can release the punishment of self or of another. Or the error can be turned by you into a tool of punishment of self or another, leaving the lesson unlearned and the error planted indelibly within you to be repeated and repeated until you choose to KNOW by asking GOD within for guidance and Truth.

YOU CANNOT "CHANGE" THE MIND-SET OF ANOTHER, ONLY SELF

We have said repeatedly that if ones do not wish to hear the truth that Abortion is murder of life and against God's laws, that suicide is murder of life and against God's laws, or that you are in BIG trouble upon your plane because of the defiance and ignorance of THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION, then let it go. THEY will not change until THEY so choose to do so. You pestering them and pleading with them will only cause YOU more anguish and they will pull away from you completely. LET IT GO, chelas. Give and do what you can to offer assistance and understanding and if the information you give is rejected, leave them alone. Each must live with the consequences of his behavior and his ignorance. If he chooses to remain in ignorance then that is HIS choice, not yours.

These ones, especially friends and family members will remember YOU when this illusion comes bearing down upon them and they are terrified and know not what to do. At that time you may extend your hand, if that is what GOD WITHIN requires of you; until then release them to themselves and pray that they are given something from elsewhere to confirm what you have shared that they may act before the clock runs out for them in this illusion.

WHAT TO DO WITH A "STRONG-WILLED" CHILD

Well, chelas, this is a time of remembering your Divine Spiritual Heritage of ONENESS with ALL and of graduation. Many of the children entering during this time-frame especially of My people, come with child body and SPIRITUALLY MATURE SOUL. It is best not to DOMINATE the child. The child needs LOVING, FIRM DISCIPLINE for its own protection. Yes, patience is most important with children. That does not mean that the child walk all over you and others in inconsiderate behavior. Explain the "WHYS" as best you can. Do not LIE, ever, to the child. If you do not know something, tell the child you do not know. The more spiritually aware children will question and be curious about EVERYTHING and therein is where your patience will be most important.

My suggestion is that when you feel your patience running out, stop and clear your space of ALL dark fragments and then ask GOD within to help guide you with how best to respond to the child in any and all circumstances. You who have chosen the challenge of parenthood during this time-frame indeed have your work cut out for you. KNOW that you are worthy. You cannot RUIN a child by a few harsh words occasionally. Learn to apologize to the child when YOU feel your temper was lost. He will learn that even his parents, in their humanness, are not always perfect and an apology is important at times and soothing to the soul of both giver and receiver of an apology.

The Light of the child's KNOWINGNESS will shine above the physical impact he endures. As a parent, though, you have the opportunity to guide him and give him the security of your ABSOLUTE LOVE that he finds himself worthy in his own BEINGNESS.

He, therefore, will not be emotionally crippled from childhood neglect or abuse, which would simply become another obstacle which would challenge his growth.

You parents who concern the most are most thoughtful and aware of the tremendous responsibility you hold for raising a child for GOD. Many of you ones have had emotional and/or physical "abuse" yourselves in your growing up years which you have worked to overcome and you "fear" that you will somehow "repeat" the errors in behavior of YOUR parents. I will suggest that if you are thinking about it carefully, YOU KNOW YOU WILL NOT KNOWINGLY TREAT YOUR CHILD IN ANY EMOTIONALLY INHUMAN WAY.

If you were treated in ways which caused you pain, YOU KNOW THAT WHICH CAUSED YOU PAIN. So if you recognize behavior in yourself which is unbalanced and belongs to your past, THEN CHANGE IT. ASK GOD WITHIN TO SHOW YOU YOUR ERROR THAT YOU UNDERSTAND AND NOT REPEAT THE OFFENSE.

Yes, a strong willed child is a challenge. Know that YOU can handle that which God gave you as His charge or you would not have His child. Make sure you take time for self, by yourself, even if it is only when the child naps, to commune with God. This will bring you the peace within which you are asking for, for HE will show you the "right" way to respond and to be. You only need learn to LISTEN. So be it.

Druthea, let us take a rest. You have written twice this day. I am well pleased. Thank you, Laurie, for your inquiries which have been within the hearts of many. May you find the PEACE WITHIN which you so deserve. I love you greatly. Walk gently with one another, my brethren. I AM Sananda. Salu.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

CONSTITUTIONAL POLITICAL ACTION PACKAGE

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our constitution. This package is available for $12 U.S., $13 Canada and $14 foreign. Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters, medical supplies, food storage, and alternative survival needs. The cost for the documentation is $10 U.S., $11 Canada & $12 overseas.

NOTE TO READERS

Due to increased materials in the Constitution Kit and Survival Guide and our production costs, it was necessary to increase the cost of each effective July 3, 1991. (SEE ABOVE) Thank you.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount. Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Express is $20 per 13 ISSUES for U.S. & Canada (including back issues for current Volume) or $75 per 52 ISSUES. FOREIGN is $30 per 13 (1 Vol.) $110 per 52 issues.

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 9

7/4/91 HATONN
THURSDAY

INDEPENDENCE DAY FOR AMERICA?

Hatonn present to share with you as you start out on this day of frantic celebration. It seems that your approach is one of bigger is better and gaudy is even better. May I plead with you as you go about your activities to "think" about those things in which you participate. As you look upon the heavenly banner of your flag which represents a chosen land and people where freedom might be birthed and grow as a shining light of liberty throughout your world--please renew your patriotism to reclaim that which has been damaged and weakened. You were birthed as one nation, under GOD, with liberty and justice for all. You must carefully consider where your path has led and look again unto the Constitution.

As you dedicate the monument carved upon the natural grace and sacred beauty, with its Man-carved faces of politicians--ponder in your hearts how the pain radiates through the Native Americans who have been driven from the land--that land--which was their most sacred altar--Awana Wakan. A place where the Great Spirit visited and where his son, Standing Bear of the Golden Fleece and White Buffalo Calf Woman walked and communed and brought truth of the hereafter and the journey back unto the stars. LOOK, DEAR ONES, AND BEGIN TO AGAIN SET YOUR HOUSE TO ORDER FOR THERE IS GREAT PAIN UPON THE LANDS.

I have purposely waited until AFTER YOUR CELEBRATION OF THIS DAY, THE 4TH OF JULY, 1991, to bring this message of attention; for I ask you to go into your QUIET place for a moment and ponder if what you see is how you wish to be remembered in the historical annals of a planet!!?

You believe that what Hatonn tells you is incorrect--if a thing does not happen in 24-48 hours, is that invalid? I do not make such statements so that they CANNOT be so misconstrued. Since this is the time of celebration for the birth of a nation--please look unto that which has been set aside in intention and ignorance and reclaim that which you birthed to hold and steward.

Things do not happen as we tell you? Ah so, this year alone brought the coldest freeze in recorded history to your growing fields of California and now, the hottest temperatures in recorded history. In this little village, it was cool enough for heavy jackets just 4-5 days ago and then, over a hundred degrees--overnight. In the basins and valleys--in Bakersfield, California on the yesterday, over 111 degrees and climbing--it will top 115 this day! You are in drought and your ground water is leaking toxins. Your ground water is so depleted in the near desert areas that at Edwards landing base, where your shuttle lands along with all those dandy and costly toys, the runways have sunk in spots up to over four feet in cracks and cave-in.

As of now, with the recent unemployment, you have reached over 3 and a half million homeless and hungry. Your cities are fallen into bankruptcy and there is depression and illness among your people. I do not tell you to stop and "quit", I ask you to stop, look, take stock of the situation and together we shall bring a renewal upon the lands. It is up to you.

A LITTLE GOLDEN STORY

"Tell us something NEW HATONN, or shut up," I am told. OK, how about a little plan for your gold market? I like this one because it has great uniqueness in the long run plans of subterfuge and facade.

The Japanese are far more industrious than you might guess even from watching their business astuteness in action. As the Second World War and other opportune times rolled around, the Japanese gathered gold from the four corners of the globe--lots from China, the communist nations, all around. Most of the money gleaned by the Marcoses was from about a third of that horde in distribution--not from the coffers of the Philippine people. About a third of that gold was distributed and sold and stashed in Switzerland and other investments, like New York City, etc.

Now, guess what? The other two-thirds is ready to be dumped on the world market. Now you might think, so what!? So what? There is like 5000 tons of the yellow "stuff". It is planned to bring it to the market in London in the very, very near future in lots of several tons at a crack for that is what a major cargo "Flying Tigers" air-ship can handle.

Guess who is going to get blamed for ruining the world economy? Their only resources of merit are oil and gold and, so far, the cartel has controlled both. Every time the Russians try to garner funds to pull themselves out of the economic trap they are in, the gold prices are manipulated and they cannot get enough to hoist themselves out. Now remember, recently (during this past year of Gulf War) there came to light a new gold field in Russia and another mountain containing massive amounts of gold in Saudi Arabia.

Ah, but that is not all that is planned. With the dumping of gigantic sums of gold on the market the investors who don't know lots better will scoop it up like honey in a bee-hive. Good so far? Well, when the governments clamp down to solve national economic problems--all the more to be confiscated from the world citizens! May I please remind you that over a century of detailed and careful planning has gone into the "conclusion" as is being played out in your midst. What do I think of this? I don't! I am not interested in your gold--I am interested in your future as a species. But if I were to think about this maneuver--I would note that some funding for some very worthwhile projects might well flow from the marketing of these sums.

Most of the metal will simply be placed into large pools of collateral for money which will be placed in "paper" and "computer" money-shifting and deposit certificates, trading programs, etc., so that the Elite can have the working funds as well as hold the gold in security. So, as the old saying goes: "The rich get richer and the poor get poorer!" You are living in two illusions: the first is that which is your life-stream experience and the second that which is physical "delusion" as presented by the Elite Banksters and would-be world kings.

DHARMA AND OBERLI

Dharma is about to the breaking point for, as with all of you, she has to live one day at a time--and, sic, sic, she often ponders the positive points of letting "everything" go and stop the tirades against us. There have now been some 35 actions in this property court case and they have yet to even be recognized in a courtroom. Now we have a real dandy assault going on. The opposition attorney, a young Zionist Khazarian is attaching Phoenix Expresses AS EXHIBITS AGAINST THEM in the law cases, the most recent being the one of late regarding the Mossad in the Philippines, etc. What this has to do with failure of an S & L to hold a publicly advertised property "sale", is a bit beyond comprehension. I can assure you, however, that the information is making its way into the halls of great and well-known Elitists. Mark this well, America, these people who tend of their own business, and Dharma, who simply writes that which we give unto her--are called (in court actions), deadbeats, anti-Semites, non-patriotic, trouble-makers and you name it! It is a little difficult to estimate just what the opposition thinks it is proving by such actions, other than the fact that there is no longer a court of justice according to Constitutional rights of citizens--even in freedom of speech.

Do they intend to prove her insane? So much the better for us for I considered that approach in the damage suit at any rate--so we can get on with starting a fully fledged "Law Center" where you the people can come for Constitutional backup.

You must be aware that in the year prior to beginning the JOURNALS and following the writing and motion picture screenplay of SIPAPU, Dharma was unable to write during that first year of "hell" over the property and assault of the "enemy". That is an extensive loss to America West, in funds alone. Where would they, and the level of information output be, if we had also had that year of writing? Dharma was an emotional "basket-case" with packing and unpacking, pneumonia and eviction notices to the point of being totally unable to function. Not until control was taken by capable legal counsel and ruling out an overnight move, could these ones function in order to give service to our mission. I do believe that 31 JOURNALS and two to three EXPRESSES a week, in some 18 months, attests to credible production when any semblance of "security" was granted in this interim period of time. How do you place a price on such? How does America West place a value on that lost output?

I am grateful to whoever has been giving surveillance from this community and causing one law force after another to bring every known problem unto a property caretaker as has beef thrust against these ones--SO THAT YOU CAN SEE WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOU AS CITIZENS! How long can these ones bear this? As long as needs be and you give them support for the heart grows weary when the way would be so easy to simply STOP. You see, the enemies in the community keep the opposition furnished with tattling, snooping and copies of the writings. Is this what America has come to at the level of community? Yes, look unto Detroit this very week, and look at the beatings by the police of citizens--and please note the remarkable incident which took the life of the prime witness in the "King beating case" in L.A. Yes, the man was THE witness to the event--and he had a "mysterious" accident in which he ran into an abutment and was killed this week. Scares you just a bit, perhaps?

The hardest thing for the opposition lawyers to comprehend is that, in the midst of ALL, the defendants herein have nothing to show for any of the work--giving all assets back into the Institute and publishing/distributing. How can you be "deadbeats" as thrust by the accusers when your work is read from New Zealand to South Africa? Chelas, does this not tell you of the TRUTH OF OUR WORD--THAT SO MUCH EFFORT WOULD BE PUT FORTH TO STOP ITS FLOW? THEY HAVE TRIED DEATH BY MURDER AND NOW, DEATH BY STOPPING THE WORD--NO, THERE WILL BE SOME, SOMEWHERE, WHO WILL STAND BESIDE THESE ONES AND THE FRONT WILL BE STRONG AND WITHOUT ABILITY TO COUNT THE NUMBERS. YOU MUST SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION!

I cause her to write this for I must constantly remind her that our work is not finished, for she is human and Oberli is human--and they are weary and futility overflows like the sands of the blowing desert. Do not despair, children of Truth and Freedom, for the prize is freedom and upliftment of your species and renurturing of your planet--is it not worthy of thine labors? Well, Dharma says, "Not today, Father," but note--we continue to write! Perhaps it is partly that once there becomes too much to fear--you release it to God and the fear goes in His ALL-KNOWING, ALL-CREATING ENERGY PROJECTION OF SHIELDING AND LOVE. These of my people are coming out of insanity into sanity--but the journey is costly, yet the prize is beyond price. How can I give enough honor unto my ones who must be hospitalized and others push on such, as Oberli and George--day after encountering day and simply say--"It's just my job!" Dharma does laugh at this particular predicament--as ones try to stop her today--"What the heck, it's already out there in such massive amounts that stopping now would be stupid, might as well keep going and change this thing--it's our only hope of survival."

Devotion to God? I cannot honor these students of Truth in any way of earth measure--I want you to know that this tiny, tiny handful of people handle over a thousand calls a day and just day before yesterday sent out over eight flats of request mail. A lot of that information, chelas, was the "Constitution Kit"--glory, glory hallelujah--His Truth is marching on! Ah, can you not reclaim that wondrous beauty of the Republic and lift your voices unto Freedom with allegiance unto nation and flag for which it stands. But let us change the words to the song just a bit, to "In the beauty of Creator, Christ is born in you and me; with that glory in His bosom which transfigures me and thee--as HE lived to make men Holy let us LIVE to make Men free--God's Truth is marching on! Amen. WE CAN DO IT--IF YOU WANT TO!

That beloved Brother was given, through Dru, a most wondrously beautiful message on the yesterday. Allow it to be placed with this portion that it might be shared. It is regarding the Children (which are all of you) and it will be through them that freedom shall blossom--if you but do your part. I AM HATONN

7/2/91 SANANDA

CHILDREN ARE THE PRECIOUS "JEWELS" OF YOUR SPECIES

Greetings, precious Druthea. I AM Sananda. I come in the service of Holy God/Aton of Light and to you my brethren upon Earth Shan.

This day we will discuss the importance of the children of your species. There are now birthed and being birthed many whom are destined to become the "leaders" of your Spiritual Transformation and Alignment in the 4th and 5th dimensional experience in which Earth is moving into.

You as a species must regard ALL children as the potential for creative and spiritual upliftment for your evolving species. There must be a universal and common interest paid to ALL children, whether YOU are a parent or not.

During this time of Kali (chaos), there exists the tremendous opportunity for CHANGE toward "higher" spiritual KNOWING and many HIGHER Spiritually developed beings are coming physically, now as your babies and children, to assist the birth of YOU within the ONE. Will you give them a "place" upon which to blossom within GOD's knowingness? Or will you continue towards the "suicide" of your species? This uncertain answer remains to be played out upon your plane.

"HOW DO I TEACH MY CHILD ABOUT GOD AND CREATION?"

There is a feeling of sincere and serious responsibility being felt by you young parents at this time of change. Inherently YOU KNOW of the importance of YOUR mission in raising an emotionally stable and mature child into his/her adult state of independence and responsibility.

One of the most important "jobs" you have as a parent is how you explain and share your perception of God and Creation. In order for you to express with integrity and KNOWING, you must possess the integrity and KNOWING within YOU. It is crucial that you explain God FROM YOUR PERCEPTION always, that the child be allowed to come into his/her own KNOWING within, without strict rules and unwavering projections of "THIS IS HOW IT IS, SO DON'T ASK ME ANYMORE."

The most important bit of information which you can give the child is that GOD EXISTS WITHIN HIM/HER, NOT WITHOUT. You must tell the child that which YOU KNOW from soul KNOWLEDGE. God is Light, Love and Knowledge and WE ARE ALL RELATED FRAGMENTS OF HIS THINKING MIND KNOWING.

Remember, THE SPIRITUAL TRUTH, such as of DIVINE SPIRITUAL ONENESS, will not confuse or upset the child at all. HE KNOWS inside. You are simply reminding him of that which HE KNOWS. You will be giving him his spiritual stability in preparation for the probable human instability which will confront him from other "humans" whom he will undoubtedly encounter.

You are preparing the child for his LIFE'S WORK upon Earth. Are you not honored and humbled by YOUR commitment to GOD?

YOUR ACTIONS AND BEHAVIOR ARE THAT WHICH THE CHILD WILL FOLLOW

Do you live your life in balance with the Laws of God and Nature? If not, how can you expect the child to do so? YOU are setting an example, not by that which YOU SAY, but by that which you DO.

I do suggest that your copy of "Phoenix Operator/Owner Manual" become most worn from your study of same so that as you teach your child of THE LAWS, you live accordingly in balance with them yourself IN KNOWLEDGE. If you are not responsible in your behavior, how can you expect the same of your child?

Become an honorable reflection of GOD, and your child will desire the same within self, for he will see the example of TRUTH and BALANCE and LOVE which you are expressing.

The child must also be shown how powerful are his thoughts, and that HE is responsible for that which he sows. Encourage him to ASK questions when he does not understand.

Encourage him to seek TO KNOW CAUSE of that which he witnesses or participates within. If he asks you WHY the water is dirty and the sky is brown, tell him the truth that mankind is not very KNOWLEDGEABLE about the NATURE OF GOD AND CREATION and because of his ignorance, he is slowly destroying our planet.

Tell him not to FEAR that which he witnesses as unbalance and suffering. Show him that HE can offer assistance to CHANGE that which he sees into balance again.

Teach him about GOD'S DIVINE LIGHT of protection and guidance. And that if he truly wishes to understand something which you are unable to offer an answer for, that he can ask GOD within him to show him THE TRUTH and return to him HIS knowledge.

Show him that ALL answers and KNOWLEDGE exist within him; therein lies his power.

Teach him to give honor and appreciation to God, to Earth and to ALL within Creation every day for the LIFE experience, beauty and sustenance graced upon him.

Teach him about absolute LOVE and His connection to all. That he exists as a product of God's LOVE giving and regiving principle.

Teach him to respect all of Nature and that nature and God only gives and regives. Human has the choice to give or to take, and taking is that which creates the unbalance.

SHOW him that HIS will and God's Will are ONE.

Tell him about the nature of the adversary, and how the adversary fools him through fear, pain and other human emotions into thinking he is separate from God and powerless to control his "reality".

Remind your child that ONLY GOD IS REAL. WE ARE ALL ONE.

Teach him about the universal law of CAUSE AND EFFECT. And that only through petitioning within for GOD KNOWING will he understand CAUSE and not be fooled by his senses of what is the EFFECT.

Remind your child of the IMMORTALITY of his soul and that "reincarnation" is a natural cycle of rebirth and one of the most important "facts of life".

BABIES AND CHILDREN ARE NATURALLY SELF "CENTERED" OR SELF ORIENTED FOR A TIME

This is most natural since the baby and young child are solely dependent upon its parents for its food, clothing, home, nurturing and love. The awareness of the child is centered on the needs and wants of self, until he learns about "respect" of and "regard" for others and that "others" have needs and wants as well.

Most of you have heard the disgruntled exclamation of complaint made in regard to a particularly inconsiderate child or adult. "He/She thinks the world revolves around him/herself!"

These ones are often referred to as "spoiled", which is quite an unpleasant term to refer to someone who is excessively selfish or self-centered.

I must tell you honestly that it is up to you parents to SHOW the child what CONSIDERATE behavior is versus self-centered inconsiderate behavior. You must show the child that there are others to consider in his world and that as parents you will not give him everything he asks for, such as of material goods. He must know that he ALWAYS can count on your love, not your pocketbook.

If your child becomes demanding of more, more, more things, then parents, YOU have contributed to this ungracious behavior and ONLY you can set it right with SELF and, therefore, child.

I am sorry to inform you of the fact that in MOST all cases of "spoiled" demanding and unruly children, you have as examples, one or both parents behaving in the same way. REMEMBER, the child follows YOUR EXAMPLE OF BEHAVIOR, parents.

GIVE THE CHILD RESPONSIBILITY THAT HE MAY DEVELOP INDEPENDENCE AND SELF ASSURANCE FROM HIS HELPFUL DEEDS

It is most beneficial to the child when you parents give the child duties, such as household chores, and responsibilities. There is no strict set age to begin. I would suggest that you use your GOD given intuition to guide you in each child's case. Often a child will ask to help you in some way and so that is the perfect opportunity to begin teaching about responsibility.

I would suggest that in order to help the child develop and maintain discipline in his responsibilities that you are somewhat flexible and alternate duties when you have more than one child. Also it is most important that the consequences of ignoring duties is made VERY CLEAR in advance and adhered to every time so that the consistency of the consequence is well understood by the child.

You must instill in the child that as with Nature, when her "laws" are broken there are consequences to be had, so too, when he does not do his chores, there are consequences. Always explain WHY you give him duties and WHY it is important that he DO them as agreed. IF, for example, he "forgot" to feed his dog, what would happen to the dog? He would be the CAUSE of hunger for his pet, and that is not acceptable. Or IF he forgets to take out the trash or clean his room, then how will it get done?

An extremely beneficial and fun way to teach a child about responsibility is when you have "pets", household or farm, to tend. Most children are naturally interested in nature's creatures and by giving them responsibility for the care and feeding of animals, they will learn responsibility AND love and respect for God's creatures as well..

Many of you Mothers, especially, get into the habit of just DOING everything, such as laundry, dishes, cleaning for your children and then wonder why they are so irresponsible and demanding of MORE. When they are old enough and big enough, let them learn to cook, clean, feed the pets, do the laundry, so that they do not expect all to be done for them. And they then, in turn, learn to care for themselves and be neat and orderly in their functioning.

More than anything else, your child must be secure in the KNOWLEDGE that YOU, his Mother and Father love him absolutely.

Let us take a rest, Druthea, that we can get this to the editors in time for the EXPRESS. Thank you, precious little sister, for your service. I trust that my suggestions are beneficial for you struggling parents. We will continue in guidance on the subject of children as needed or requested. I AM Sananda, in service to God/Aton of Light and to you, my brethren. Walk gently with one another in Peace and Love. Salu.

7/5/91 HATONN FRIDAY

Hatonn present in the Light of Source. Welcome aboard the sinking ship. Obviously, the water in your ears must be from your morning free-flow Phitzer shower and shampooing your frosted locks with herbal/honey shampoo and conditioner. Who am I to interfere with your daily routine? Who am I to spoil your golf afternoon? Perhaps I work for the Roloids/Maalox company!! Well, sorry, World, Maalox moments happen when you least expect them--and overdose of antacids will NOT NEUTRALIZE RADIOACTIVITY.

Nor will golf or the Texas Two-Step along with "Somebody Done Somebody Wrong" songs stop the steamroller.

Frustrated? Oh, I thought perhaps you were asking ME! Why would I be frustrated? I must ask my scribe, who spent eleven hours on the most dreadful subject imaginable yesterday (the 4th of July, while the other people all had a holiday) (all my crew worked a bit harder, World)--but she is exhausted and now must face the following: "...and it is damned time you space jerks fix this thing..." and "...let's see you do some big miracle and we may believe you..." and "...George Green is a fraud, I am a physicist and I know..." and "...then tell us what to do and we'll do it..."

To all of this I respond--BS! From last to first in order: We tell you what to do and few of you do it. Moreover, as in the case of one person to whom hours and hours had already been devoted in personal time toward personal problems, the following happens: As of the past two weeks E.J. and then George spent almost ten full days working out a plan for a beloved friend. After getting everything arranged exactly the way it was asked--the person goes home and her brother (a car dealer, yet) says no-go--get it all undone. The attorney, nor the person, so much has had the courtesy to call these businessmen but instead send faxes demanding to get every cent returned. Again I say BS--the funds were immediately invested in gold! Now a week has to be spent in having the gold dealer get the gold from the bank in which it is placed, back to the dealer and then be sold at a loss, I might add, of some 10% to the person involved. Obviously it is NOT the lawyer's money--he gets $250 an hour so why should he care about a little old loss of $35,000 to a client. Or, is it expected that the businessmen here bear the loss? E.J. is a retired officer of Transamerica Investment Co. He has handled investments for no less than George Scharffenberger who, until they split up City Investing in New York, was the second highest paid executive in the United States--now he has the Home Insurance Group.

E.J. pulled down $300 an hour for his services when salaried--what does he do? Frustrated? I am actually aggravated! For one thing, a precious little friend of mine has just been re-entered into the world of almost surely LOSING EVERY CENT SHE HAS BECAUSE SHE TRUSTED ANOTHER WHO HAS ALREADY COST HER OVER $200,000 IN INVESTMENT IN THE POUND AGAINST THE DOLLAR. HER FUNDS WERE LEVERAGED, WHICH IS NOT EITHER ILLEGAL NOR UNUSUAL--BUT WHAT HAPPENS HERE IS WORTHY OF DISGRACE IN A BUSINESS MANNER.

What will "I" do about it? Nothing--for everyone has a right to commit suicide if that be the choice. I do expect, however, that the next time this one asks for help of these people--there might be a glassy stare.

The picture is so obvious that it smells from here to Denmark. The lady is now in her later years and the leeches desire to set up her "estate" so the money flows to THEM and not into her own private corporation where she can have total control of her funds or in the security of gold where she can ride out the bank failures--you see, to cover her funds that are now demanded in cash back to her lawyer--she would have too much to have any protection in any one bank so would need four or more banks (separate) to even have insurance protection--which is a farce at any rate.

So much for E.J.'s background--if you don't like his, let us look at George. He has traveled in those circles of the Elite--that is WHY he knows I am speaking Truth. In return for "favors"--quite honorably already rendered in the Real Estate business, George was offered the top financial position in a presidential election campaign by several of the top Skull &

Bones/Trilateral Elitists--a few short years back. This is why he knows the collateral gold will work--because he helped design the program. God does not send you bumble-buns to help you through a time of horrendous blight. YOU CAN TURN DOWN HIS HELP ANYTIME YOU WANT TO, BUT, I CERTAINLY WOULD GIVE SOME CAREFUL THOUGHT BEFORE YOU PETITION GOD, USE HIS WORKERS AND THEN TURN AWAY AND SPIT IN HIS FACE! "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." And here, we are not speaking of great wealth--just the probability of losing everything a widow has! So be it for God forces no-one into anything. I do suggest that my people not stand any loss in this instance for the entire transaction (all fragments) were fully understood by sound and stable mind.

We are not a cult, nor are we in the personal financial business--our people are willing to give unto OUR service anything required that will assist US. This does not mean that they may spend this kind of time investment and overseas calls--especially to ones who lie even about their location, and refuse to honor legal documents. This means that the funds WERE NOT AVAILABLE--NOR ARE THEY YET AVAILABLE. NOW YOU HAVE THIRD PARTIES IN THE PICTURE PROTECTING THE FIRST GROUP OF IMMORAL TRADERS. SO BE IT. George and E.J. may do that which they please--I intend to do nothing more.

Later, after Germain writes, if I have time, 'I will take excerpts from Ron Paul (Congressman/-businessman--all of you seem to really like him because we get backup of his material constantly). We will reprint them for you so you can attach more closely to human ties--that seems to make you feel more secure, although I cannot for the existence of me, understand WHY! I will not, however, take the time now because Germain and Dharma are outlaying the demise, by atomic suicide, of your entire planet and atmosphere along with all life-forms; and, that which you might do about it. SOME OF YOU MIGHT PREFER TO HEAR AND KNOW THAT INFORMATION THAN TO TINKER WITH YOUR BANK ACCOUNTS OF WHICH MOST OF YOU HAVE VERY LITTLE LEFT AT ANY RATE--NOW THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND CRIMINALS HAVE NEARLY FINISHED WITH YOU.

I come forth to serve my brethren and God--I DO NOT CARE A WHIT NOR IOTA ABOUT YOUR BANK ACCOUNT! But you ones continue to have to have your lessons. I told you months back that this particular person would bring you nothing but headache and at the time I told you "not to take the funds if offered"! Well, all circumstances change--and so, too, will this one but you will be more cautious this next time I am sure. IF PERSONS WISH YOU TO ARRANGE THEIR FINANCIAL PROGRAM SIMPLY FOR THE PERSONAL GREED OF COVERING THEIR ASSETS--THEN HANDLE IT ABSOLUTELY AS YOU WOULD ANY BUSINESS--YOU HAVE NOT THE TIME, EITHER E.J. OR GEORGE--TO SPEND THIS KIND OF TIME TO PLAY WITH PEOPLE WHO SPEAK WITH FORKED TONGUES. The person involved is beautiful but as with most who "have"--they cannot make decisions and listen always to the tempters who "promise" and yet rarely, rarely deliver any of the promises. So be it.

The same with setting up Corporations--we will handle that service, as a service, but I don't want any more demands for return of corporation investment--if you don't find out how to utilize your assets, that is no problem of mine for we have told you how and we will continue to tell you how but our new people who do the corporations need to eat also!

You ones turn about and go straight to your accountants and lawyers who do not know one blamed thing about what they are doing or what will or will not work and then you turn on your benefactors with hate and malice. Well, forget it--if you deliberately go forth and do that which I tell you will merit you exactly that which is WRONG on your place--so be it--thy will not mine! It is called "asking God for help" and then "refusing to hear His response". Again--so be it, spare my crew the pain and agony--Dharma only has 24 hours in her day, also, and spends some half of it right at this keyboard so ALL PEOPLE MIGHT HAVE THE WORD.

I believe the physicist speaks for self with reverse tongue. The "physicists" and "scientists" are WRONG in almost everything they do. I can only suggest that the world pay attention to that which is being brought right now by Germain, for God is efforting to give you a way out of this trap you are in. If you can't understand what he says, then remain in the trap for he is explaining it as he would to third grade children--in fact, the third grade children CAN UNDERSTAND IT EXACTLY AS PRESENTED--MOST OF THEM COULD TELL YOU ALREADY, BUT WHO WOULD LISTEN TO A CHILD?

Do a miracle and make you believe? I do not care whether or not you believe. I have nothing to lose--you have EVERYTHING TO LOSE! I remind you of Earth Shan--you are frying yourselves to death at a rate which is compounding daily--AND WE ARE YOUR ONLY WAY OFF THAT ORB!!! PONDER IT! I need to prove nothing to anyone--perhaps a little proving of goodly intent might do YOU some good!

Lastly: We "space-jerks" do not have to "fix" anything--WE don't have anything "broken"!!! Salu!

CONSTITUTIONAL POLITICAL ACTION PACKAGE

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

Saturday, July 27 9:30 AM-5:30 PM $25 (includes a copy of SPACEGATE at the Hyatt, 4219 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, CA., Speakers Lt. Col. Bo Gritz, On The CIA/Drug Trade, Takai Anagoston, M.D. on Surviving the AIDS Plague, Cyril Minett on Exposing the New World Order and George and Desirée Green on Surviving the Economic Conspiracy.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT

AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey

R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix

Rape of The Constitution

You Can Slay The Dragon

The Naked Phoenix

The Mossad Connection

Creation, The Sacred Universe

Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I

Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands

Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal

Counterfeit Blessings

The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual

Operation Shanstorm

End of the Masquerade

Matter Anti-Matter

Let There Be LIGHT

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

IF YOU HAVE A TIGHT BUDGET TRY SHARING SUBSCRIPTION FEES WITH A FRIEND.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 10

7/7/91 HATONN
SUNDAY

ARE WE TRUE OR FALSE?

You decide, citizens of the world! We have had attempt after attempt against my scribe--no less than a dozen direct personal attempts of which four were cardiac arrests which required sustained resuscitation. We have received anonymous letters threatening bomb blasts at the turning the ignition keys in the cars of the store employees and volunteers. There have been direct threats of lawsuits and personal damages, property confiscation and all manner of assaults of person, active threats against life, etc. In the dark wee hours of the 6th of July (night before last) came two calls to Oberli and Dharma's home, one of which asked if George was there and then a hang-up on both. Then in the morning a message was found on the answering service recording at the publishing office: a strong male voice, clear and unhampered by any altering substance who bluntly stated: "George Green will be assassinated before mid-July". By the way, the term "assassi-nation" is a term used by political groups and surveillance groups called Mossad, CIA and KGB, etc., for "MURDER"!

The material we write is now being used AGAINST Dharma and Oberli in a court of supposed "law" regarding simply the fact there was no public sale of their property where they had gone directly and explicitly to purchase, outright and in full, the property. This case has been going on for over three full years and is now in about the 35th motion--wherein the defendants (Oberli and/or Dharma) have yet to even be recognized as being in the courtroom--and has taken the time of no less than a dozen judges (who could only rule on specific "little" points of order). The cost, considering both sides and court expenses must now be somewhere near a million dollars.

The primary point in the issues of EXPRESSES given to the court is, of course, the portions dealing with the Mossad and the Zionist Lobby in Congress. All of the cover letters read like insult letters to the dregs of humanity, i.e., referring to the defendants as "deadbeats, flakes, rip-offs, people living with no expense to themselves, without rent, or taxes on the property, and on and on." There are personal and inflaming insults against the lawyer involved even to his personal secretary (wife), office location and post office box number. There is refusal to allow any of the discovery process against the S & L, or any persons involved on the reverse side--absolute disregard for the rights of citizens to have any type of hearing or require that the S&L, auction company and/or persons involved in any way to be required to deposition. Then comes the death threats, death attempts and harassments on every point of living--from building investigators, planning commission personnel, fire department investigations--even to having to have an engineered project and permit for a small "tree-house" left on the premises by prior dwellers.

I can guarantee you, readers, were it not for OUR PROTECTION, these ones would be DEAD! Now you may believe that which you will--and the adversary may certainly continue to give us the good advertising that we would otherwise NOT GET--but I respond with answer to the last phone call (for I KNOW EXACTLY WHO IT IS AND THE GROUP INVOLVED). GO RIGHT AHEAD AND TRY AND MAKE MY DAY!

I further suggest that all of you reread the list of definitions regarding Semite, Jew, Zionist, etc., and pass it around. You, America, are going to lose your nation and your freedom if you do not stop this insanity.

I ask that this be sent to Brig. Gen. GDM. I offer my humble appreciation to him for his input. I would also like to allow him to know that we know as much regarding his subject in point. We honor the publication for that which they DO print on the subject material I personally gave unto a brother some years back. Further, I fully intend to call their hand on the other matters to which you refer for that type of operation is exactly that which is pointed out on every possible occasion--the Truth to great extent--and then the heinous punchline. We are, however, using it at this point as regards the American citizens--SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION!! YOU CANNOT SAVE ANOTHER THING IF YOU SAVE NOT, YOUR CONSTITUTION!!!

I honor and salute you, General. I am humble to have you on the side of God as he sends/comes forth with us of the "Hosts" at this time of tribulation. Your world is into tribulation, slavery, death and destruction and you seem to recognize it not--awaiting some magic to reverse or rapture the masses. If there appear to be possible "errors" in our presentations--be patient, for the proof will flood you--God is not WRONG! WE ARE SENT FORTH TO BRING THIS WORD AND SET TO CORRECT THE MISUNDERSTANDINGS OF THE CENTURIES THAT GOD CAN FULFILL HIS PROMISE OF SENDING TRUTH UNTO HIS CHILDREN PRIOR TO THE ENDING OF THE CYCLE--WE ARE THOSE HOSTS AND MESSENGERS. WE ASK NOTHING EXCEPT THAT OUR SCRIBES BE LEFT ALONE, FOR WE ARE NOT OF FORCE NOR COERCION--WHAT MAN ACCEPTS OR REFUSES IS BETWEEN HIMSELF AND GOD AND IT IS NONE OF OUR BUSINESS--WE WILL REMOVE GOD'S PEOPLE PROMPTLY AND CAREFULLY WHEN THE SEQUENCE IS APPROPRIATE. There are great discrepancies within the pages of your "Holy Bibles", which, if you ponder, we are setting to straight. Why wouldst you believe those who "changed" the words prior to now and not honor us who are given proof by that which is all about you? There is nothing wrong with having been misled--the error comes in refusal to look at Truth--even as "possible" Truth.

That, always, is a requirement of the adversary--to silence and bind the people from access to Truth. God walks ever with you, sir, and I bow to your willing and fearless attempt to cause your brethren to see and hear! I especially honor you for that which you have presented as the danger from across your southern border, and your northern border, as well. The people of America cannot seem to see and hear amid the distractions and lies thrust upon them. God blesses your work, friend--and sir, to call a Man friend, is worthy indeed. You serve well and tirelessly and know that you are blessed and watched over as the Shepherd watches his lambs. In every flock there must be the leader and if the lead sheep leads the flock astray, woe unto him and there are thousands who do so. Blessed are the ones who lead their flock into Truth--for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

The King of Kings shall assist you to bring this blessed nation again into Godly direction if Man will but awaken to the call and turn from the adversary who holds him hostage. But if Man turns not again unto God and the Laws of God and the Natural Laws of Creation, then you of the messengers must release unto higher Truth and allow Man to pass in his appointed way--for ye of God have attained your passage and God does not forsake Man--Man forsakes God and even then, God leaves not of Man for ultimately the soul shall pass into its proper placement of learning. So be it and I thank you for your sharing and support of your brothers.

TERMINOLOGY: MIND CONTROL/FACTUAL DEFINITIONS

EXPLICITLY DEFINED TERMS

And who, you might ask, defines these terms? GOD! Where did you come by "accepted" terms as laid forth by Man for his own purposes of deceit and greedy self-proclamation?? You might think carefully about this--for you are led astray by men who mislead you, even unto this day, through subterfuge, calculation and manipulation of your languages and beliefs in God Himself!

1. ZION

Citadel of Palestine which was a Citadel in Jerusalem; the "Jewish" people: Israel: the Jewish homeland which is symbolic of Judaism or Jewish national or religious aspiration; the ideal nation or society envisioned by Judaism.

CM = CONTROLLED MEANING

TM = TRUE MEANING

2. ZIONIST

CM: One who is of the doctrine of reclamation of that place in Palestine so-named under "Zion".

TM: A term which has been created to suit the needs of a couple of earth "religions" to mislead the people. You will note, as I quote from the dictionary of Webster, that the definition is evidence, in fact, of the misleading characteristics of the term as now utilized. Further, it is greatly disrespectful to the Mormon people, for instance, to take the term Zion and apply it to a stolen place in Palestine for they, too, believe in a "Zion", as do Christian people--and it certainly is NOT in ISRAEL (the stolen nation). You will note that the definition is "inclusive" of that which the God-revering peoples of the world believe to be the "Place of God", Heaven, Utopia. The following should point out to you that "Jew" is a most recent term created by MAN, this "Zion" is a Palestinian property, and everyone in the world is left OUT of the ending scenario of attainment EXCEPT THESE SELF-PROCLAIMED, SO-CALLED "JEWS". I do not make the definitions--I simply lay them out for you discerning readers.

I do ask you to particularly pay attention to the subject of Semitism for these so-called, self-styled "Jews" are NOT SEMITES from the tribe of Shem. So it is typical of the "adversary at work", they CALL YOU THAT WHICH THEY ARE! These "New" people are not even a "race" and they represent everything that your Constitution stands against--they wish to rule the world, and America, when they proclaim themselves to be a "religious" group. Why don't you let the Presbyterians rule your world? How about the Catholics? I think it might be nice if you turned your world over to the Ashram of Yogananda and/or the Leadership of Jim Jones! CAN YOU SEE, PEOPLE, HOW YOU ARE HOODWINKED?????

I suggest all you readers make SURE you obtain a copy of END OF THE MASQUERADE, A Phoenix Journal, and study it most carefully. The Cuckoo Bird has stolen your nest and you didn't notice it--you just continued to encourage it and feed it until it killed your own flock and has taken the coop. I have nothing but Love, Respect, Reverence and Total association with the Judeans--I WAS A JUDEAN!!! These from the lineage of the Khazars are NOT OF JUDEA NOR OF THE TRIBES OF ABRAHAM NOR DAVID. The first expendables will again be the ones of Judean descent--for these Newly Self-Proclaimed "Jews" are the destruction of your entire line of historical truth. So be it!

Next, this group of Zionists will tell you the "Protocols" are plagiarisms and unauthorized "counterfeit"--(WHICH BY THE WAY, MEANS COPIES, REPLICAS). You will be well advised to really study those Protocols! The Protocols are reproduced in the END OF THE MASQUERADE.

Now, since I write often on this group which is entangled within and controls America's Congress--I am going to give you another fact which you can look at which is under your noses right this minute and, again, YOU discern WHO is being anti-Semite--for YOU, who are not "JEWS" according to "their self-proclaimed label", are the SEMITES. You thought yourselves Gentiles? So be it--YOU ARE ALSO SEMITES!

JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY:

3. JUDEO-CHRISTIAN

CM: (Controlled Meaning) The religion of Jesus which branched out of Judaism at the time of the early church. Both Christianity and Judaism have the same origins and the same God. (Oh, God forbid!)

TM: (True Meaning) A religion created for the purpose of destroying Christianity by watering down Christian ideals and neutralizing Christians. Also, designed to promote and protect Jews and Judaism in the Zionist sense of the definition of those misused and created terms.

Note: "Judeo-Christianity" is an oxymoron: (a moron dumb as an ox?) No--a word combination of two directly opposite things or ideas which are mutually exclusive as I just stated, thus defying all reason and logic.) Thus you can be sure anyone, any evangelist, any preacher, any monk, Saraswatti or other ill-informed human being using the term as a true term--is not projecting God but rather, ignorance at best, intended deceit at worst, upon your tender ears and/or eyes.

4. GENTILE

CM: Anyone who is not a Jew, and thus a potential "anti-Semite".

TM: From the Latin word "gentilis", meaning "of the same gens, clan or race". In the Bible, the word "gentile" is a mistranslation of the Old Testament Hebrew word "goy", and the Greek New Testament words "ethnos"--both meaning "NATION OR PEOPLE" (ANY nation or people) and should have been translated as such. It does not mean "non-Jewish!" BUT--YOU BETTER WATCH OUT BECAUSE IN THE "PROTOCOLS OF THE ZIONIST ELDERS OF WISDOM--IT MEANS ANYONE NOT A "ZIONIST 'JEW'". A modern version and mistranslation to be sure--but a deadly definition, at any rate.

You can, however, always tell a FALSE prophet by his/her use of this term. This term would not have been in any of the books for it is a mistranslation of the Old Testament Hebrew word "goy". In the New Testament, it comes from the Greek word "ethnos". Both of these words as I said, mean "nation" or "people", (any nation or people) and should have been translated as such--any way you cut it, it DID NOT COME DOWN AS A WORD DIRECTLY FROM GOD ON HIGH--IN THE HEAVENS! It does NOT mean "non-Jewish" as we have to utilize the word for clarity but most churches misuse the term and never realize they have incorrectly spread false teachings. This is a new "media" word to further disinform you. It was planted in the Bible to get a very specific response in this day, my friends.

5. JEW

CM: AN ISRAELITE. THE SEED OF ABRAHAM. THE CHOSEN PEOPLE OF THE BIBLE. JEWS ARE PERPETUALLY PERSECUTED BY ALL OTHER PEOPLE ON EARTH. SOMEONE WHO PRACTICES THE RELIGION OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, WHICH IS CALLED JUDAISM. GOD JUDGES THE NATIONS PRIMARILY BY MEASURING EACH NATION'S RELATIONSHIP WITH THE JEWS. GOD

BLESSES THE NATIONS WHICH SUPPORT THE JEWS, BUT HE CURSES THE NATIONS WHICH DO NOT SUPPORT THE JEWS. THE CHRISTIAN FAITH OWES ITS EXISTENCE TO THE JEWISH CULTURE FROM WHENCE IT WAS SPAWNED. (WHAT ROT!)

INTENT: To bribe and prejudice Bible-ignorant "JUDEO-CHRISTIANS" into passively granting the Jews a carte-blanche to do anything they please with total impunity--and to get you to hop in there and help them.

TM: The word "Jew" did not appear in actual use until over 1000 years after the crucifixion of one called Jesus. It means someone who adheres to the religion of Judaism (modern Pharisaism according to the Talmud), or in some way considers himself (self-claimed, so-called) a part of "Jewish culture". For the modern "Jew" it has ABSOLUTELY NO RACIAL SIGNIFICANCE. "Jews" are some of the most racially mixed people on earth due to their multi-national history, their practice of interracial marriages, as well as their contemporary international bias. Down through the ages, they have moved from nation to nation as they were rejected (due to their immoral religion) by every land they have inhabited. Over 90% of "Jews" today are descended from the ancient Khazars--a racially non-Semitic bunch of anti-Semites in the true sense of definition as I have pointed out to you as regarded the passage of Canaan, etc. These non-Semitic people were from East Europe. It is estimated by your own historian's counting that, of those who claim to be "Jews", less than 5 percent have even the slightest claim to the blood line of Abraham.

In your English translations of the Bible, the word "Jew" was incorrectly used to REPLACE:

1. "JUDAHITE" in the Old

Scriptures, which referred to someone from the tribe of Judah, or a citizen of the land of Judah, and

2. "JUDEAN" in the New Scriptures which meant a resident of Judea, or a follower of the corrupted Babylonian religion of that area.

Since, then, there were NO "Jews" nor "Jewish religion" at the time of the writing of the Scriptures, these names should never have appeared in the English translations, nor in the Books of any Doctrine of any "church". The word "Jew" or "Jewish" did not exist as words nor appear in actual use until over 1000 years AFTER THE RESURRECTION of JESUS. In ALL cases the word "Jew" was incorrectly used in your English translations of ALL of the Bibles to replace the true word "Judahite" in the Old Scriptures and "Judean" in the New Scriptures. No true Prophet of God would even accidentally utilize these terms for any text DIRECTLY GIVEN FROM GOD. The terms are most ignorantly utilized and in ALL instances of use indicate either false writings or changes at the hands of "translators". There can be no other "divine" reason. This goes for any "church" anywhere.

Now you might begin to see just why "YOUR PREACHER" of your typical "DOCTRINED CHURCH" who tells you what to do and what is right or wrong and decides your fate for you--JUST MIGHT NOT WISH YOU TO READ THE PHOENIX JOURNALS OR EXPRESSES WHERE YOU MIGHT FIND OUT THE TRUTH IN WHAT I HAVE JUST OUTLAID TO YOU.

6. ANTI-SEMITISM

CM: A disparaging or antagonistic attitude, or hostile act toward a Jewish person, Jewish organization or the religion of Judaism.

COVERT INTENT: Used to disarm, intimidate and confuse Christians and others into submission to Jews at the expense and eventual destruction of Christianity and all other belief systems based on anything other than the Zionist Talmud.

ACTUAL MEANING: Opposition toward people of Semitic (Shemitic) origin--WHICH BY FACT INDICATES ANTAGONISM AND HOSTILITY ON THE PART OF THE "JEWS" TOWARD THE GOD-REVERING PEOPLE. Note: Most people who call themselves Jews are NOT Semitic in origin (Descendants of Shem), but are in fact, come from the lineage of Cain and birthed through the Curse of Canaan moving forward as Phoenicians, Venusians, Pharisees and Khazars into imitation "Jews". Sheraitism (Semitism) has nothing to do with Jews, Jewish organization or Judaism--JUST FOR YOUR INFORMATION.

7. DIASPORA

TM: The dispersion of the "Jews" among the Gentiles after the Babylonian captivity. (From Funk & Wagnalls Standard Desk dictionary.)

We will only handle a dozen or so falsely used terms so as not to overload and will add to the dictionary as we move along and find it necessary.

8. CHURCH

CM: A building or organization used by Christians (predominantly, so as not be confused with synagogue or temple) to meet together regularly to sing, pray and worship according to denominational doctrines.

TM: The English word "Church," the Scottish word "Kirk" and the German word "Kirche" all originate from the Greek word "KURIOKOS" which means pertaining to the THE LORD.

The "Judeo-Christian" (oh pain and agony on us all) use of this word carries with it an enigma that defies all logic and reason. The English Bible translators substituted the word "church" KURIOKOS for the Greek word "ECCLESIA".

9. ECCLESIA

A Christian ECCLESIA is "A CALLED (convoked) CIVIL BODY": a local Christian assembly of elders (Christian Civil Government). The word "church" should not even appear in the English New Testament. It is a mis-translation. "KUROIOKOS" is not "ECCLESIA"! The words are totally different; the institutions are different. No where in the Bible do you find a kuriokos. There is only "the called-out (elect)" ecclesia which unfortunately was mistranslated into "church", transforming it (in English) from Christian government to superstitious and ritualistic Baal Worship.

Encyclopedia Britannica, Ninth Edition (1989):

"In the New Testament, ecclesia, signifying 'convocation', is the only single word used (translated) for 'church'. It was the name given to the governmental assembly of the citizens of ATHENS (NOW GREECE), duly convoked (called out) by proper officers, and possessing all political power, including even juridical functions."

Let us discuss each of these terms in context of examples, please. Jesus the Christ NEVER established a church on earth. Neither did he in "latter" days nor in "former" days. "Churches are man-made organizations that are, in most cases, creations of the "State" laws of incorporation or non-taxable organizations. There are no exceptions I can think of off hand. By following the State rules the President or minister or whoever falls under the official laws of the State and ceases to follow the total instructions of Jesus Christ or God Divine.

During Jesus' mortal experience he directed his Apostles to establish ecclesias, not churches, among the Israelite people (israel: a people chosen by God and this does not mean even Judean nor Palestinian. It is a description, not the name of a state.) He commissioned them to preach the good news of the Reign (influence) of Christ (ideal type of humanity through right actions, thoughts and deeds). That does not say Jesus or Yeahoo--it says: preach the good news of the influence of the teacher giving forth the ideal type of instructions to humanity! Neither does it say to go forth and give your opinion as to what you desire to believe but project that which was given forth by the Christed teacher (messiah) messenger. ANY TRUE PROPHET OF GOD--knows this and would not sway the meaning nor mistranslate the words chosen for the "modern" translations of truth--GOD DOES NOT MAKE ERRORS IN PROJECTIONS OF DIRECT PROPHETIC DIALOGUE. ESPECIALLY WHEN GIVING FORTH "ORIGINAL" PROJECTIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS--A GOOD CLUE AS TO WHERE "YOUR" FAVORITE PREACHER OR PROPHET MIGHT BE CATEGORIZED.

10. SATAN

CM: The Arch-Fallen Angel. An evil being so powerful as to rival God himself. Originally he was "perfect" in every way, but his pride led him to organize a heavenly insurrection among the angels in which one-third of "the heavenly host" revolted against God. God managed to retain his throne, and the rebels were banned from heaven and sent to earth. Earth, a lesser dominion than Heaven, became the kingdom of Satan--"the god of this world". He is the cause of all evil upon the earth, leads men astray and causes them to sin against God.

TM: ANY adversary or opponent! God was a "satan" (adversary) to King David at one point (compare second Sam. 24:1 and first Chron. 21:1). If the English translators had been consistent, Bible readers would have known that an angel of the Lord was "a satan" (adversary) to Balaam (Nu. 22:22). In first Sam. 29:4, Philistines called a Hebrew a "satan" (adversary). The sons of Zeruiah were "satans" (adversaries) to David in second Sam 19:22. David wrote about other "satans" in first Kings 5:4, 11:14, 23 & 25; Ps 38:20, 71:13, 109:4, 20, 29. In these scriptures, "adversary" is the same Hebrew word that is translated "Satan" in other passages.

The super "fallen angel" (Satan) of the churches is an impossible myth. This "evil god" exists only in the minds of victims of religious brainwashing. Human "satans" and "devils" walk the earth today, just as in the time of King David. Fear and preoccupation with spooks make people unable to see their real enemies.

This "Hebrew" word was never translated into its English equivalent as it should properly have been. The only change the rapists made was to capitalize the first letter, thus attempting to turn it into a name and not a definitive "active verb" word. Any true prophet of God would not place such a word as Satan in one of the original documents for God would not make such a direct error. Further, if the translators had been accurate the word would never appear anywhere in any Bible of any denomination.

The so-called super "fallen angel" (Satan) of the churches is an impossible myth. This evil "god" exists only in the minds of people that have fallen victim to religious ideologies. Now, I too, have utilized the term from many references for you have conjured up something which does exist in your "REALITY" and therefore, it DOES EXIST. It did not, however, exist and was NOT A PORTION OF ANY ORIGINAL DOCUMENTED INSTRUCTION OF GOD. If the word appears--it has been given new meaning from that originally intended and is a true "EARTH" given word.

Had that very descriptive word "satan" been correctly translated, the English word "adversary" or "opponent" would have been used in all the places where the word "satan" appears in the Old Testament, New Testament, Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, Talmud and all inclusive of all "so-called" Holy Books of instruction. I am forced to use the terms you utilize in my outlaying of the truth from the lies for you have no other background against which to find relativity and definition.

II. DEVIL

CM: Here is a dandy one: Synonymous with "Satan". The supernatural arch-demon who fell from heaven and now, with his legions of demons, reigns over the earth. God's arch-enemy who spoils God's plans for mankind and destroys people by his power over them.

It is assumed that Man does not have the ability to resist "The Devil". Therefore, you are somehow helpless against his nasty old power--except when God chooses, periodically, to help you fight him. Mankind is generally under the control of this supernatural "spirit-being" who is immortal, omnipresent, and apparently a rival to God Himself.

Let us look at the BIBLICAL MEANING:

In the Old Testament this word is found four times--only in the plural (devils). Twice from the Hebrew word "shade", and twice from

"saweer".

1. SHADE: One who rises up against you (with insolence).
2. SAWEER: A he-goat (related to mythological "satyr"--half man, half goat).

Neither of these definitions from the Old Testament indicate anything supernatural or angelic. "Shade" simply means someone (anyone) who wants to hurt you. "Saweer" is a reference to a goat-type idol of the pagans.

The New Testament Greek "devil" is "DIABOLOS": One who "thrusts through" (as with a sword)--no indication of supernatural power. (DIA--through, and BOLOS--to thrust.)

A "diabolos" (a devil) is something, or someone, who intends to hurt or destroy you. A "devil" can be a person, a group, or an organization that seeks your demise. To find a supernatural "devil" in the Scriptures, he must be read in by prejudice and presupposition on the part of translators and readers.

Therefore, the words "devil" and "Lucifer" are two words the "church" uses falsely and synonymously with "Satan". Neither of the Hebrew words translated devils indicate anything supernatural or angelic.

In the New Testament the Greek word "diabolos" was translated "devil". Diabolos simply means one who thrusts through (as with a sword). No indication here that you have a supernatural spirit-being. Here again, beloved ones, no true prophet of God would misuse the word "devil" in the way it's used in the Holy Bibles or any "directly given Scriptures" from God on High. I care not what the "church" or "denomination" calls itself. Certainly all are incorrect but translated from the Judeo-Christian in the King James Bible was totally wrong as we shall see in a minute because Judeo-Christian has no meaning as such--these are two mutually exclusive terms and NEVER the twain can meet for they are in opposition one to the other.

The word "Lucifer" as a proper name is simply not found in the Hebrew or Greek Bibles. That probably shocks a lot of you nice people, since everyone assumes it is, but the fact remains it's not. The Hebrew word translated "Lucifer" in the King James Bible is "heyel" which means "brightness".

The New World translation uses "shining one", another translation uses "shining star" and the Revised Version uses "day star" for the Hebrew word "heyel". I further suggest that probably in Lakota Sioux the term heyoka (a sacred clown) would also fit in there somewhere.

Lucifer, meaning "light-bringer" is a name given to the planet Venus when it appears above the eastern horizon before sunrise. Venus being now a quite "dead" and ungracious-to-life planet is possibly quite suitably dubbed Lucifer. It is also a term stolen by the dark brotherhood of energy projections that Lucifer and Satan refer to themselves as the Prince of Light--and befitting their vow to lie, cheat, steal and corrupt--it sounds better than the Prince of Darkness which is the correct term for the energy forms inhabiting the humans bearing these energies.

Next, let us look into:

12. HEAVEN

MYTHOLOGICAL DEFINITION: A literal place somewhere in outer space where good people go to live when they are dead. The location where Jesus lives until He can return to Earth and rapture a select few people to take back to heaven from somewhere on fluffy clouds. A city is there which has gates literally made of huge one-piece pearls, streets of transparent gold and walls of sapphires, emeralds, topaz, jasper and other precious stones. The devil came from there, got kicked out (which he did), but he cannot go back (which he can't)--nor can anyone in the service thereof.

CORRECT DEFINITION: Usually plural ("heavens") in the Greek, meaning "high places"--in terms of: 1. Elevation, or 2. Power and authority (jurisdiction). In the Biblical sense it is usually "God's government" (the highest authority); government under Jesus whose purity and righteousness is symbolized by pure and precious stones.

This term is so tossed around by all the denominations of self-appointed "churches" as to nauseate quite thoroughly. It designates a physical place somewhere "out there" in the outer limits. This is such a false teaching as to even go beyond nausea and into anger. The word "heaven" actually means "high level" as in power and authority (jurisdiction). In that good old King James version of the Bible, the word "heaven" usually refers to God's position of power: His government. In other words, the highest place of rule. No place in the King James Bible does it refer to "heaven" as a physical place the good people ascend to or inhabit after they die.

13. HOLY SPIRIT

CM: A person or personage of God; either a third person in the Trinity or a third god in a council or godhead. This person is separate from the Father and the Son and has separate and different functions to perform in a believer. In some cases this "third person" can "possess" an individual so that he or she supposedly has no control over actions or words. Sometimes referred to as the "Holy Ghost".

This one gets us into all sorts of trouble for now even we of Cosmic brotherhood have to explain our use of the triangle points (vortices and interconnectors) of the triangle which we refer to as the "triune" of total connection enclosing the infinite circle of sacred beingness--without beginning and without ending but inclusive of all that IS! In our Command our symbol includes the Phoenix for it is representative of the infinite beginning again (rebirthing) from that of the old ashes of that which WAS. Further it represents the connection of the "winged" or Cosmic brotherhood coming (or sent) forth at this time of renewal and transition in preparation for the coming of the "Greater".

TM: Holy Spirit is not a separate person or separate "god". The English word "spirit" is translated from the Hebrew Old Testament word "RUWACH" (roo'akh) and from the Greek New Scriptures, the word is "PNEUMA" (panyew'mah). In both cases the words literally mean "AIR IN MOTION" (and in this wondrous day and age--usually "hot air" in a lot of forced motions from between the lips in the lower hole in the face.) Spirit is a desire; a feeling or disposition which compels us to move or act. Holy Spirit is God's wondrous and beautiful motivation in your/our lives and experiences to do "His Will" and obey "Him" according to His laws and those of The Creation. The word "ghost" (Holy Ghost as often used instead of Holy Spirit) comes from the German word "geist", and means a disembodied spirit of a dead person (another myth). It has no appropriate application or association in any manner whatsoever to Scripture.

This term represents a power; motivation--not some person or singular third party in a triune triangle. It is, however, common for the term to be mistranslated from the Hebrew and Greek words for "Spirit" as Ghost. But most of the time it was translated correctly as "spirit". The word "ghost" comes from "geist" as I said: an old German word--etc.

14. DOCTRINE

CM: Non-essential beliefs, personal eccentricities and inflexible tenets which create differences between churches and destroy fellowship and unity.

TM: Doctrine is a teaching; a principle; a studied conclusion or position. Sometimes called "dogma" (German for "doctrine"). II Timothy 3:16 says that Scripture is doctrine. Isaiah 29:24 says that the people who are in error will be able to understand the truth when they learn "doctrine".

There are NO "non-essential" truths! NONE are expendable! None can be discarded or ignored! Truth stated as a principle is doctrine.

Without doctrine it is impossible to teach or arrive at an opinion. Discernment, judgment and correction would be impossible.

"Judeo-Christians" sometimes display an "anti-doctrine" attitude: a symptom of ignorance and total confusion. Some claim to have a position "against" doctrine (which is doctrine in itself), or one of neutrality concerning it. This is utter nonsense! Such a position, itself, as I just stated, is a most "absolute" form of projecting "doctrine". An anti-doctrine position exposes an ulterior antipathy for learning and wisdom.

When a person learns true doctrine and then considers it non-essential and chooses to set it aside, he contracts chronic spiritual blindness of the worst kind. (Try 2 Thess. 2:10-12).

Unfortunately by misuse of the words, the word "soul" and "immortal soul" get lumped into the chaos of the lies. As used mostly, "immortal soul" is pure heresy. The Hebrew and Greek words translated "soul" in many places in the English Bibles, were correctly translated "life" in many other places. Not too many years ago, friends (in your counting), it was not uncommon to say or read that "so many 'souls' were lost at sea", naturally, meaning so many "lives" were lost. Therefore, you assume that the soul is always IMMORTAL AND NEVER CAN NOR WILL DIE! WRONG AGAIN! There is a portion of each manifestation which is "soul"; it is the portion of God-self within and therefore will be immortal--UNLESS--the entity remains in a state of intentional "sin" and then, dear ones, that good old Book tells you that "...the soul that sinneth, it shall die". Ez 18:4. Oops! a bit hard to swallow???

The point of this dissertation is to allow you ones to look squarely at the truth of it--there is no magic blood-sipping in memory of, or flesh-eating in memory of--for it does not commemorate memory of anything a Christed teacher said or did--for Jesus, as you called him--BROKE BREAD AT THE TABLE AND SAID: EAT THIS IN COMMEMORATION OF ME AND POURED WINE AND SAID, DRINK THIS IN COMMEMORATION OF ME. HE NEVER SAID DRINK MY BLOOD AND EAT MY FLESH IN COMMEMORATION OF ANYTHING--THAT IS AN EVIL, "SATANIC" PRACTICE TO CAUSE YOU TO ACT IN BEHALF OF THE ADVERSARY.

I further tell you that ANY person going through any place of teaching in preparation to minister unto "God's lambs" SHOULD KNOW THESE THINGS--THEREFORE, THE OBVIOUS FACTS ARE THAT IT IS INTENDED THAT NONE OF YOU COME INTO THE TRUTH OF THESE FACTS.

15. THE HEGELIAN PRINCIPLE

Revolutionaries in government have created economic chaos, shortages in food and fuel, confiscatory taxation, a crisis in education, the threat of war, and other diversions to condition Americans for "The New World Order."

The technique is as old as politics itself. It is the Hegelian principle of bringing about change in a three-step process: Thesis, Antithesis and Synthesis (yes, I just recently gave you long writings about these things.)

Here again:

1. Thesis is to create a problem. The second step, 2. antithesis is to generate opposition to the problem (fear, panic, hysteria), and, 3. synthesis is to offer the predetermined solution to the problem created in step one--change which would have been impossible to impose on the people without the proper psychological conditioning achieved in stages one and two [This might well be a number two definition of the circle of infinity].

Applying the Hegelian principle, and irresistible financial influence, concealed mattoids seek to dismantle social and political structures by which free men govern themselves--ancient landmarks erected at great cost in blood and treasure.

Their objective is to emasculate sovereign states, merge nations under universal government, centralize economic powers, and control the world's people and resources.

16. HUMBUG

(as in bah-humbug) n.: 1. something designed to deceive and mislead 2. an attitude or spirit of pretense and deception.

Humbug v: DECEIVE, HOAX vi: to engage in a hoax or deception.

SO WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT?

Demand that people who confront you, give you their definition of words, terms and phrases. If you carelessly acquiesce to meaning "changes" in the war of words scattered at you from the "Bible" then you will remain a totally "thought-controlled" person and people.

People are continually controlled by introduced "thoughts". Since words are what conjure meaning and bear definitions, in physical form, they become manipulative tools for controlling thoughts in massive manner and thereby change the way people think about certain things. To accomplish this, the controller need only to change the MEANINGS of important words to fit their particular religious and/or political view, and invent NEW EMOTIONALLY-CHARGED TERMS to keep you confused and ignorant.

Eventually, all important words said by anyone will automatically convey the controllers' biased political/religious view and he will not even know difference. At this point it will become increasingly difficult for the opposition to construct an effective opposing argument because the words being used have been so effectively changed, defused, and/or made unpopular.

I can only urge you to bear these things in mind as we move along here for it is the foundation upon which the lie is based and there can be no truth found in the confusion of the lie--and when the confusion becomes too great for response--you are told to "accept it on faith". BS! DO NOT TAKE SUCH STUPID ADVICE--THIS IS YOUR SOUL DESTINY AT STAKE HEREIN AND IT IS TIME YOU TAKE YOUR DESTINY BACK INTO YOUR OWN HANDS FOR YOU ARE BEING SOLD A BILL OF GOODS AT THE END OF A PRIMROSE PATH.

Now, for you who want to take this further in your current awareness of that which is taking place in your government at this moment, I will again thank the SPOTLIGHT out of Washington DC for the following for I cannot repeat all that I have given in the past two years. This will update our regular readers with new information as well.

ISRAEL LOBBY SHOWDOWN

Spotlight: July 8, 1991:

After months of muffled back-room altercations, the Bush administration is bracing itself for the one confrontation it has been anxious to avoid: an all-out public showdown with the Israel lobby, the most powerful alien interest pressure group in the United States.

The clash was set off by Israel demands earlier this year for $10 BILLION in new U.S. loan guarantees to pay for the resettlement of immigrants arriving from the Soviet Union in ever-larger numbers--this year an estimated 400,000. [Why don't you Baptists demand $10 Billion for resettlement of unsettled Baptists to wherever they might rather be settled? Do you think you will get it? How about you Catholics? Church membership is dropping--maybe you could gain a few more members if you had $10 billion dollars to resettle a few people--perhaps even America's homeless and hungry?]

Secretary of State James Baker, in turn, imposed some conditions on such a staggering giveaway. Israel was told it cannot use the money to build more settlements in the occupied territories, denounced by Baker recently as

"the greatest single obstacle to peace in the Mideast."

Baker's request received a blunt rebuff from Israel, delivered by Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir in the contemptuous public manner that he assumed in recent months when dealing with high U.S. officials..

"It's ridiculous to think that Israel would sell settlements for money," Shamir told a group of foreign newsmen, among them SPOTLIGHT special correspondent Wilson Blackburn. "We have no intention of making such concessions as requested by Baker. I am sure Congress will grant us the aid." [RIGHT FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH AND RIGHT TO THE PRESS!]

COLD REJECTION

President George Bush, who reportedly made several private attempts to appease the Israeli government last month, including a private promise to veto all UN Security Council resolutions disagreeable to Israel, also met cold rejection by Shamir. Urged by Bush to soften his opposition to a U.S.-sponsored peace conference, the Israeli leader answered, "No", in a condescending letter that was assumed to be private but was soon leaked to the press.

With the American-Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) preparing for a test of strength with the White House in Congress, the attack of the alien lobby was opened by a blast from Henry Kissinger, whose unusually vituperative criticism of the Bush administration's entire Middle Eastern strategy, delivered to a group of visiting European bankers, reflected the importance of the issue.

Warning that U.S. demands might lead to Israel's "collapse", Kissinger suggested that Bush and Baker simply did not understand the "realities" of Middle Eastern politics.

But expert policy analysts long familiar with the region's problems suggested that U.S.-Israeli tensions arose from a different direction.

KISS MONEY GOODBYE

"Bush and Baker have come to know Israel too well", suggested Jacques Czerny, a former congressional researcher who now teaches at an East Coast university. "They realize that a $10 billion loan guarantee to Israel most likely means $10 billion out the window."

For one thing, noted this scholarly source, Israel is not merely trying to raise $10 billion, although that is itself a "backbreaking" sum for a tiny, threadbare nation. "They are trying to borrow $25 billion--part of it here, the rest from Europe and Japan," Czerny related, "A loan that size will nearly double Israel's foreign debt. The prospects of repayment are worse than poor; they are nil."

In recent years, Israel has repeatedly defaulted on its more modest military sales credits received from the United States, Czerny warned. "These delinquencies go unmentioned because Congress is quick to forgive Israel's overdue obligations," he noted.

In recent years, the minstate's forgiven debts totaled more than $10 billion, Czerny added. [Also, I remind you to look to the incredible sums you outrightly GIVE to Israel which do not even include the stockpiles of military equipment and weapons. Over $3 BILLION in cash annually, for instance!]

SECRET DOCUMENTS RELEASED

Moreover, a set of secret documents obtained in Israel by local peace activists released recently to the United Nations in New York has made it difficult for the Bush administration to retreat from its Mideast position if it wanted to, it has been learned from senior diplomats at the world forum.

The papers, apparently part of a planning memorandum drawn up for Israeli Housing Minister Ariel Sharon by senior aides, reveal that the minstate's government is planning to use U.S.-sponsored funds to multiply its illegal settlements on the West Bank and in Gaza as much as 10-fold.

Sharon's settlements, forcibly planted in the Palestinian provinces under Israeli military occupation, are designed to drive out the region's historic Arab population and make way for the ultimate annexation of these territories into the "greater Israel" envisioned by Shamir and Sharon.

CONQUEST ON CREDIT

Baker has warned Bush that America's European and Arab Allies, long critical of submissive U.S. support for Israel, would never accept this sort of "conquest on credit" by the minstate.

Bush, angered by what he privately called the lynch-mob media beating of his Chief of Staff, former New Hampshire Gov. John Sununu, has been told that some of the sharpest press attacks on Sununu for his lavish use of government transportation were set up by the Israeli lobby, where Sununu is distrusted for his ARAB (LEBANESE) ANCESTRY and feared for his attempts to make the administration's Middle Eastern initiatives more even-handed.

"It seems AIPAC is trying to give Bush a preview of what he's in for if he stands up to Israeli demands, which have been getting more and more exorbitant," said veteran Washington lobbyist Kelly Fitzwilliam. "But if he refuses to be browbeaten by these bullies, who are already gloating over Sununu's impending fall, Bush will find more popular support for a strong stand against Israeli extortion than he knows."

How about just a bit of hard fact on money-to-Israel. Money always seems to get your attention when morality will not.

ADDITIONAL BILLIONS FOR ALLY

Although in recent years Israel has been getting over $3 BILLION annually as its publicly allotted, taxpayer-funded subsidy--the lion's share of the U.S. foreign aid budget--since the beginning of the gulf war the Bush administration has slipped the minstate a reported $4.5 billion in additional benefits straight across the board.

A number of these handouts are either concealed or misreported as a portion of so-called security assistance spending. From private conversations with congressional investigators, White House sources and UN officials. Let us look at a listing of just a bit of this "payola".

* A total of $1.1 billion in three installments as compensation for losses and damages suffered from the gulf war. The original sum requested by Israel was $1 billion; after a month of wrangling, Congress approved $650 million in February. More handouts were added as the minstate's appetite for them grew during the crisis period of the war.

* An advance of $400 million against the requested $10 BILLION loan guarantee claimed by Israel as its "just compensation" for resettling a flood of immigrants from the USSR.

* A special handout from so-called Foreign Military Sales funds, committed by Secretary of Defense Richard Cheney during a March visit to Israel, for $290 million, to purchase a fleet of Diesel submarines for the minstate from Germany. This grant, demanded by Israel for two years, has thus far been turned down. Now it goes on the taxpayers' bill.

* Funding commitment for $900 million to finance Israel's development of a sophisticated anti-missile system known as the Arrow. Of this pledge, $630 million will be paid this year in cash, the rest later.

* A secret contract for maintaining and repairing U.S. warships and planes, that grew out of the classified memorandum of understanding signed by the United States and Israel in 1987, will be greatly expanded, providing Israel with benefits worth an estimated $150 million annually.

* The minstate's air defenses will be upgraded and expanded with the addition of jet fighters, two AWACS aircraft, and the most advanced helicopter gunships. This deal, still being negotiated between Washington and Jerusalem, will be ultimately worth well over $300 million to Israel, congressional sources say.

* From the deep-cover funds of the Pentagon's so-called black budget, the Mossad, Israel's secret service, WILL RECEIVE A TOP-SECRET SUBSIDY OF $125 MILLION. THE PURPOSE IS TO SET UP AN "OFFICE OF COORDINATION" WHERE THE CIA AND THE DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY MAY SHARE INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM THOUSANDS OF SOVIET IMMIGRANTS IN THE COURSE OF AN AUGMENTED PROGRAM OF DEBRIEFINGS ORGANIZED BY THE MOSSAD.

* Under a separate series of secret agreements negotiated by Cheney, designed to increase the capability for allied military intervention in the Persian Gulf and the Mideast in general, Israel will get both its pick of the sophisticated military equipment shipped to the gulf by the United States during the war, and a lucrative contract for "prepositioning"--that is, warehousing and maintaining--large stores of additional combat gear for emergency use by American expeditionary forces.

Although the total cost of this arrangement will not emerge for years, congressional sources say the "SECRET" sums will be at the least, an additional $1.3 BILLION and that is if nothing else is granted.

"Of course, this is just the 'front end' of Israel's financial juggernaut. It does not include, for instance, the extra $7 Billion the Israeli government plans to get during the next two years in tax-exempt donations from Americans--money that is impoverishing the taxpayer as surely as wasteful military spending does."

Yes, indeed, Methodists--why don't you get in there and DEMAND equal rights! What about you atheists? Now, I would most certainly get in there and claim my rights if I were a good Mormon Zionist and do a little improvement work around the temple grounds in Salt Lake. Perhaps you have some members of your group who would like to relocate into your area--nicely paid for with ongoing income. I suggest this HAS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH ANTI-SEMITES OR PRO-SEMITES--YOU ARE BEING ROYALLY "SCREWED", WORLD. THIS GROUP DOES NOT PLAN TO SEPARATE CHURCH AND STATE--THEY PLAN TO MAKE IT THE SAME AND THEY PLAN TO RULE THE WORLD, HOOK, LINE, SINKER AND "DEAD" FISH!

YOU, BY THE WAY, ARE THE DEAD FISH!

Now we are going to change the time and date and give you something else which will be quoted (but I intend to protect this source for it was one of my own contacts on your place--murdered in March, 1987!). (There is still family at stake and I honor that predicament!)

WEATHER MODIFICATION AS A WEAPON OF RETALIATION

No, it is NOT changing the subject for it is all part of the same thing and you had better be waking up!

QUOTE:

A few nights ago on February 21 (1980), the CBS Evening News presented a sensational report. The report claimed that ISRAEL HAD CARRIED OUT ITS FIRST ATOMIC BOMB TEST LAST FALL (1979). CBS alleged that the bomb had been exploded over the South Atlantic last September 22, 1979. It was also stated that nearby South Africa had assisted the Israelis in making the atomic test. It all sounded like a neat answer to the famous mystery of the giant double flash in that area several months ago.

The mystery began last October 25, 1979. On that date the United States released a statement through the State Department. The statement began by saying the United States had obtained, quote: "An indication suggesting the possibility that a low-yield nuclear explosion occurred on September 22." Those are very uncertain words, but the rest of the statement was even more vague. For example: The location of the supposed explosion was narrowed down to, quote: "an area of the Indian Ocean and South Atlantic including portions of the Antarctic Continent and the southern part of Africa".

That's an area of several million square miles. In addition, the United States Government admitted having no corroborating evidence about whatever had happened, and the announcement ended in the doubtful words: "We are continuing to assess whether such an event took place."

Many people were very disturbed by the fuzziness of the announcement. It was apparent that something spectacular had taken place near South Africa, possibly an atomic blast; but the United States was not sure what it was, or where it had happened, or even if it had really happened. Some people wondered, "How could this be?"

You are constantly told that the United States can watch the world with Early Warning and Spy Satellites. You are led to believe that no one could fire a missile at you even from a submarine at sea without being caught in the act by your satellites. To make matters worse, reporters soon found out that the satellite which picked up the mysterious double flash was NOT an Early Warning nor Spy Satellite. And what of all those that were just MISSED in the Iraqi circumstance? It was an aging relic launched over a decade prior, called a Vela Satellite. It was the die-hard last survivor of a series of monitoring satellites for the Atmospheric Test Ban Treaty, and it was little more than luck that it happened to spot the mysterious double flash in the Fall of 1979. Had the double flash taken place out of range of the Vela, it would have gone completely undetected by the United States, because the United States no longer had any Spy or Early Warning Satellites continuously orbiting the earth. Russia finished shooting them down in 1977.

Ever since the United States announcement about the double flash late in October, 1979, the mystery about what happened refused to go away. A panel of scientific consultants were convened by the White House early in November, but they had ended up with no conclusions. Then came the CBS report in February, 1980 describing the alleged atom bomb test by Israel in the South Pacific.

ISRAEL DID AND DOES HAVE THE BOMB, BUT THE CBS STORY ABOUT A TEST WAS A TOTAL LIE. By the following evening, February 22, CBS was already backing away from its Israeli A-bomb story. The truth was that there was a giant double flash in the South Atlantic the prior fall, but beyond that point there was nothing but lies and inaccurate guesses about that double flash mystery. The lies began with the Government announcement of October 25, which gave a falsified date and time for the incident in point, and the confusion just kept on growing.

What actually happened? Well, there is something additional you need to know about as a matter of survival. The brilliant flashes detected by the Vela Satellite were produced by an experimental test, but what was tested was not an atomic bomb. The test was carried out, not by Israel, or South Africa, but by Russia, and what Russia learned from that test has been put to use against the United States over and over again--with increasing frequency to the present time. The incredible series of storms which began to devastate southern California and Arizona at that time were not natural but man made.

The original State Department announcement of October 25 did not describe what the Vela Satellite had seen. It simply said that it appeared to be an atomic test, but within a day or two word leaked out that it was a pair of blinding flashes one right after the other. The first one was powerful, but the second was many times more powerful. For months debate raged over whether this was the result of a nuclear explosion.

I write this today, for in a meeting yesterday, I was asked whether or not a nuclear device had been exploded over the San Francisco area--the incident to which the inquirer was referring was this type of projection--not a typical nuclear weapons device. Of course, it is technical only in difference of terminology. The light produced by a nuclear blast behaves in a way that is extraordinarily similar to what the satellite detected that fall--that is, there is a brilliant flash, followed by a much brighter flash. So why the big mystery? Just this: Visible light is not the only radiation from either of these blasts. But there is a difference. A nuclear explosion sends out floods of deadly gamma rays, X-rays, and neutrons. The Vela Satellite is equipped to pick up all those things if they are present--but they were not present in the proper components. There was a giant double flash of light but not the typical death rays and afterward, no radioactive fallout was found as would have been expected. Acoustic sensors on earth confirmed that some kind of giant explosion had taken place and some expected atomic particulate was witnessed but not of the kind from nuclear "testing". So, what kind of explosion could it have been?

Remember all those nice air-quakes which go loud boom-boom and have no identifiable cause? There were whole bunches of those in 1975 and have never ceased in being reported (but usually only on a very local broadcast as having no "known" cause but usually laid to military aircraft, etc.). In 1978-79 there were thousands of people from South Carolina to Connecticut and elsewhere being frightened out of their wits by the booms. Public officials dreamed up all kinds of ridiculous cover stories to try to explain them away. Since that time, the official cover stories about the booms were proven to be nonsense by your own establishment scientists at places such as Cornell University; but to your "rulers", the only thing important and that mattered was that people forgot about the booms in a very short while--now it is totally forgotten two hours after occurrence. The real reason for those air booms during that time was that they were being produced by several deployed Russian hovering space platforms. Those platforms were and are called CosmoSpheres--which are far more highly sophisticated today than a decade ago. These platforms constituted a "third leg" of Russia's secret Space Triad, and they were creating those giant air-booms by defocused firing of their charged particle-beam weapons into the atmosphere.

Well, these sweet little toys and the similar beam systems you have conjured are also used in weather modification. But the CosmoSpheres all by themselves have never been as effective in weather modification as desired by Russia so continuing high-pressure is poured into the projects. This is another reason the Russian military DOES NOT WANT THE ARMS TREATY AND SATELLITE SYSTEM BROUGHT WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THAT DEMANDED BY THE U.S., AND NOW, THE UN. These CosmoSpheres are not yet as sophisticated at weather alterations as they are at causing instantaneous and on-target earthquakes and deep underground disturbances through the "eye" of a volcano to cause eruptions, etc. You, too, have these capabilities and in this day and age, you cannot tell who exactly is doing what to you.

The Russians have been in full-ahead work to devise more powerful techniques of weather warfares as a contingency weapon; and they have succeeded in developing a far more powerful system for such modification. Russia's weatherwar system involves two legs of their Space Triad working together. One leg consists of the Cosmospheres, and the other leg is the Moon with its network of giant particle-beam weapons. The Particle-Beam weapons systems on the Moon are at least 100 plus times more powerful than those aboard the hovering Cosmospheres. When fired at the Earth, they can produce instant destruction over a wide area so, for their first test firing they chose a target area where they thought the effects would go mostly unnoticed by everyone else--but their choice turned out to be a bad mistake.

There had been a prior test firing from the Moon at the Earth. There was a huge cyclone in the Bay of Bengal, southeast of India. It was a giant storm, many hundreds of miles across--the perfect cover for a test firing. Or so the Russians thought. But they made a small miscalculation as they chose their aiming point at the Earth. They knew that the particle-beam would be deflected by the earth's electromagnetic field, and tried to correct for it. But there was a small error in that correction and, as a result, the particle-beam blasted the sea too close to the Indian coastline.

Eyewitnesses who saw the results reported that there were TWO enormous Blinding Flashes, and the whole sky lighted up as though on fire. Then a vast tidal wave--about 30 miles in length along the coast and 18 feet high--just bore in upon them--right out of nowhere!"

The giant double flash had the same source as the giant double flash in 1979 and many others reported all over but mostly now going totally unreported. Both are caused by particle-beam weapons fired by "Man-made" apparatus.

When a target on Earth is fired at, especially from a distance such as the Moon, a pair of beam weapons are fired in sequence--first one, then the other. The first blast is largely dissipated in the atmosphere. In the process, it creates an ionized condition called a confinement channel through the air. Moments later, the second beam is fired at the same spot and it follows the confinement channel right down to the Earth's surface. The target on the Earth's surface--even if it is the sea itself--explodes violently. If it is aimed at a point within the Earth--say several miles in depth--it causes great displacement in that particular point of target. The firings are in such rapid sequence that the effect is one of a singular "boom" unless a practiced ear is intentionally tuned to the event. So a lunar particle-beam attack creates a double flash every time and often a Cosmosphere, if a great distance into space, will also create a double flash.

MISINFORMATION--THEN AS NOW

Let's see what your government did with that information. When they made the first announcement about it on October 25, 1979, they lied about both its date and time. The official story was that the double flash took place at 3:00 AM, in the early morning hours of September 22, 1979. But it actually took place on October 22--just three days before the October 25 announcement about it. October 22 was the same day, dear, friends that the former Shah of Iran arrived in New York City--ah, these strange coincidences!

On one hand, the Russians were maneuvering the Shah in hopes of undoing the Bolshevik-Iran Crisis strategy. But at the same time, the Russians were also gearing up for hostilities in case their maneuvers with the Shah should fall apart.

As a matter of interest, the double flash took place around 3:00 PM in the afternoon--not 3:00 AM as claimed officially. The U.S. Government falsified the time and date as a trap for the unwary--and the many fell right into that trap and played the full game of misinformation. This is only one of a zillion examples of which we have shared many--not to even include the Iraq War.

SO WHAT DID THEY HAVE IN MIND AT THAT TIME?

At that time of the initial public reports about the double flash the prior October, the Russian experiment in the South Atlantic was still in progress. It had begun on October 22, when two lunar particle-beams were aimed at a location in the South Atlantic. The desired bull's-eye was at the navigational coordinates 35 degrees South, 26 degrees West. This point is on a parallel with the lower tip of South Africa, but is slightly closer to South America than to Africa.

Two of the Russian particle-beam weapons on the Moon zeroed in and prepared to fire. Meanwhile, a quadrangle of Cosmospheres were ranged around the target area. The four Cosmospheres were deployed at the corners of a square 800 miles on one side, centered on the bull's-eye at sea. They were hovering at an altitude of 100 miles. It was expected that the Moon bases would achieve much better accuracy than on the prior try. But just to be safe, the Cosmospheres were deployed well away from the target.

Then the two Moon weapons fired at the Earth. Firing from a quarter-million miles away in space, the beams missed the center of the 800-mile square target by only a little over ten miles. The resulting double flash, was centered at roughly 34 degrees, 54 minutes South; 26 degrees, 10 minutes West. Oh, yes indeed, you can visualize these beams as they are fired.

So what happens next? In this instance tremendous quantities of sea water in the target zone flashed instantly into superheated steam. The hot water vapor and surrounding hot air started rising fast toward the stratosphere. Cooler air started racing into the target zone to fill the vacuum. The inward-rushing winds began to swirl due to the Earth's rotation, and the barometric pressure began dropping in the target zone. Within minutes, the atmosphere above the target zone was a spiraling chimney of tumbling, rising air and water vapor. Thus a totally man-made storm cell was being born over the South Atlantic.

The powerful beams fired from the Moon started the process. Then it was up to the quadrangle of CosmoSpheres to keep it going. The vast quantities of water vapor sent skyward by the blasts began condensing rapidly in the cool upper air. Normally, this would have led quickly to localized rain, but far from the target area. But the four CosmoSpheres were there to prevent that.

Right after the Moon shots that produced the giant double flash, the CosmoSpheres went to work. Each began firing a powerful electron beam into the target zone, in a de-focused mode. The electrons mingled into the rising torrents of water vapor, giving a negative charge to the water droplets as they formed. This caused the tiny droplets to repel each other, so that they could not condense into rain. So the water vapor was forced to stay aloft instead of raining back down into the sea.

The CosmoSpheres remained on station for several more days in order to complete the experiment. They were able to confirm that the artificial storm clouds remained stable, drifting eastward with the winds. They also monitored the target zone itself, to learn how fast conditions would return to normal. Then they finally dispersed, in early November, 1979. The artificial storm cell was left to dissipate gradually of its own accord; as a result it attracted no attention.

So, was there a follow-up at that time? Indeed there was—in the political arena where it always is played out at your expense.

In January (4th), 1980, the United States announced what amounted to a new Cold War. A whole series of embargoes and restrictions against Russia were initiated. The most important of those was the embargo of 17-million metric tons of grain ordered by Russia.

The grain embargo was an effort by the Bolsheviks in the U.S. to hit the Russians right where they live. Four days after it was announced, the grain embargo was described by a White House spokesman as the most punitive of all steps against Russia; and ever since then, the Bolsheviks in the U.S. tried to force other countries to do the same.

On Feb. 6, 1980, the Russians summed up their view of all this. Throughout the Soviet press that day there were stories that the Carter Administration wanted to starve the Russian people and, since the Bolsheviks always use starvation as a tool of power, this was no idle comment by Russia.

The very next day, there began to be reports of strange developments in the weather of the southwestern United States. For example, northern New Mexico experienced a heavy snowstorm complete with thunder and lightning (a totally unheard of thing). But it was the following week, on Feb. 13, that the real weather news began. Unprecedented rainstorms began pounding southern California and Arizona.

Day after day they came, one incredible storm right after another. Dams filled, and then overflowed; levees broke. Houses washed into canyons. Caskets floated away from cemeteries. Mudslides caught several victims and buried them alive (some of my own ground-crew well remember these events for you experienced them first hand). Bridges washed out. Entire communities were washed away or became flooded and marooned. Phoenix endured a flood so vast that another like it would not be expected for over 500 years. And: in the vital agricultural areas of southern California, damage mounted quickly.

On Feb. 19, the seventh day of the rains, a CBS Evening News report said: "It's like an organized assault—one massive storm after another." And an organized assault is exactly what it was! Centered at a point 575 miles west of San Diego, a quadrangle of Russian CosmoSpheres were in operation. Based on the results of their "double flash" experiment, the Russians refined their technique; and with each "firing", they were becoming more and more accurate—they can now hit a target to the square inch. So the quadrangle west of San Diego was only about 100 miles on a side, and the CosmoSpheres were at the decreased altitude of 40 miles.

Using the technique tested in the prior fall in the South Atlantic, the Russians were creating the storm cells—one after another; and this time, they did not just let the cells drift away to dissipate. Instead, they were drawn precisely to the areas to be attacked in southern California and Arizona. Then the storms were triggered by additional CosmoSpheres hovering over those areas. This technique has now been utilized over and over and over again in all sorts of various places for these storms can be moved to any desired location. Moreover, that which would produce regular and natural rainfall can be instantly dissipated and no rainfall allowed in any amount to whatever chosen area.

Eighty-five miles above Yuma, Arizona, there was a pair of Cosmo-spheres. Nearly 100 miles to the north, another Cosmosphere duo was hovering over the vicinity of Blythe, California. Both locations are on the Colorado River, bordering California's crucial Imperial Valley agricultural area. These Cosmosphere duos used their beam weapons to load the atmosphere with protons, which are positively charged. This attracted the artificial storm cells with their negatively-charged clouds. That is why the storms pounded exactly the same areas--time after time after time, and it was also the proton clouds that triggered the actual storms. Now you will note that this is not exactly the way it is in the Truth of electricity and how it REALLY functions but it serves well enough as description for this writing--we don't expect you to know in advance that which is being brought unto you at this very date. The electrons in the storm were essentially neutralized in the clouds, the water condensed into rain, and the devastating storms were the result.

Finally, after some nine days and over half a billion dollars in damage, the Russians called a halt to the storms for that particular episode. That was a sample, well identified and details given in advance to your administration.

While the western weather disaster was filling the headlines, the Russians were also testing out their cute little weather-control system in a bit less dramatic way here and there across America--always forecasting exactly where to expect what. A total of five more Cosmo-sphere quadrangles at sea and fifteen more Cosmosphere duos over land were involved. The Russians are determined to retaliate in kind for the Bolshevik starvation campaigns, my friends--you will note that they are securing tremendous quantities of your nation's grain right now! What will YOU do for food--and THEY can control your growing elements.

How many of you are stocking up on storable foods? Just thought I would ask! Salu. Hatonn to clear.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT

AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREE- DOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty

Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

July 10, 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn/Governor House, 621 S. Capitol Way, Olympia, Wash. Washington Room Call Germaine 206-458-2327.

July 11, 6:30-9:30 PM $20 Woodmark Hotel, 1200 Carillon Point Kirkland, Wash. Call Joan 206-827-4636

July 13 7-10 PM $20 Ramada Inn Topaz Room 3020 Blanshard St. Victoria, BC

July 15 7-10 PM $20 Beban Park (Social Centre) 2300 Bowen Rd. Nanaimo, BC For tickets to the two BC seminars call 1-800-869 5868

Saturday, July 27 9:30 AM-5:30 PM $25 (includes a copy of SPACEGATE at the Hyatt, 4219 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, CA., Speakers Lt. Col. Bo Gritz, On The CIA/Drug Trade, Takai Anagoston, M.D. on Surviving the AIDS Plague, Cyril Minett on Exposing the New World Order and George and Desiree' Green on Surviving the Economic Conspiracy.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

"As little as 100 letters received by any member of Congress on any issue is enough to send a powerful message that can change a senator or representative's vote"

"NEW WORLD ORDER"
KEEP AMERICA INDEPENDENT

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 11

7/12/91 HATONN
FRIDAY

WINGS OF EAGLES

I am Hatonn in service within the all-knowing Source. From that statement allow us to give consideration unto the happenings of the present.

Disinformation, widespread distractions and outright lies are the cornerstone of every newscast and press release. You have just had your U.S. Senate vote in the beginning of the END! Your government and police force will soon have the legal authority to break, enter, arrest and confiscate from every state within your nation. It is already possible in many states without recourse but it will now worsen for it will be a "Federal" law and will carry protection supposedly, against your Constitutional rights--at the least it will be enforced as such!

Beware, also, of Mr. Solarz, who is back from the Middle East and Israel and is going to run for President--backed by the Israeli lobby, etc. He is publicly pushing for immediate and surprise bombing of Iraq--NOW! That means, dear ones, that you have established the capability of such an attack--via Israel! Listen to what he says, most carefully. He says now, after being among those who swore Iraq had no nuclear capability only months ago--that through the "clandestine, secret underground it is now found that Saddam has almost instant capability of nuclear war." This, in the face of knowledge all over Washington that there were Cray computer parts on the docks to be shipped directly from the U.S. to Iraq and whole systems funnelled through Brazil to Iraq--AFTER THE WAR STARTED--THE ONLY USE WAS FOR FINAL TESTING OF THE NUCLEAR WEAPONS ALREADY FABRICATED! Further, how can you continue to tout this "surgically precise" destruction of Iraq as hero material when apparently all you bombed were civilian installations? All of the nuclear "stuff" apparently "got away". So be it--your bombers are already in Israel awaiting orders for the "surprise" attack.

Now, South Korea--you are at open war in South Korea so watch closely. You are moving into a "push to shove" standoff with Russia and you will continue to get floods, tornadoes in unlikely places, out of season rain--you could even have a blizzard out west right from the Arctic Circle if they so choose and they very well may choose to do so. Your crops are being ruined and look at what is being precipitated in the land of the volcano--deluge rains on nude watersheds which wash the ash and mud down upon the people like rivers of devastation. China has never seen such flooding in all her history. And you are voting away the last vestiges of your personal defense mechanism. There will be only an increase in street crime for the police will disarm you--the people and leave you sitting ducks without protection. After the fact is too late!

DRUGS

You tell me that you need protection because of the drug war? Let me give you pause for thought: "Noriega may be gone, but cocaine traffickers use Panama as a route north to U.S. and European markets, and as a convenient place to launder their profits....." ---- "....but they say it has taken a different form. Under Noriega, they say, a close circle of government officials controlled the traffic. These days, according to one U.S. drug enforcement official, 'The situation is pretty bad. It's wide open.'" This from A.P., July 7, 1991.

U.S. MAPPED CHEMICAL ATTACK

TOKYO (AP) July 6, 1991: U.S. military planners proposed a chemical weapons attack on Japan in 1945 that could have been far more devastating than the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, according to newly discovered U.S. documents shown Saturday.

The documents, which were written by the U.S. Army's Chemical Warfare Service in June 1945, were declassified in 1958 but largely ignored, said a Japanese researcher who obtained copies recently in Washington.

Yoshiaki Yoshimi quoted the papers as saying that a "sudden, full-scale use" of chemical weapons on Tokyo, Osaka, Yokohama and nearly two dozen other Japanese cities "might easily kill 5 million people and injure as many more."

Researchers in Japan previously were unaware that the United States had such detailed possible attack plans.

Nearly 200,000 people died in the U.S. bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in August 1945, and tens of thousands of others later died of bomb-related illnesses. Japan capitulated five days after Nagasaki was bombed.

Yoshimi, a professor of history at Tokyo's Chuo University, showed the documents at a symposium on chemical warfare after returning from two years of research in the United States.

He said he obtained copies of the documents from the Aberdeen Proving Ground Historical Office outside Washington.

READERS, HARKEN UP. This is information which is seeping through into your own local city papers from time to time. And yet, look at what happens--direct threats against our publisher's life and total all-out war to discredit my work and against my scribe directly in discounting through the courts by adversary attorneys is full bore--for publishing this. The work is called preposterous and fanatical. WHY DO YOU ONES HANG THE TRUTH-BRINGERS INSTEAD OF THE ONES WHO DO THE DASTARDLY DEEDS? AT WHAT POINT DO YOU HAVE ENOUGH PROOF?

CLOSER TO HOME!

So, let us look again at a local printing from the Bakersfield Californian, (you see, these are all coming forth from one little local paper!), Sun. July 7, 1991:

EPA OVERLOOKED BILLIONS IN FRAUD, REPORT SAYS: WASHINGTON (AP)--Environmental Protection Agency auditors failed to pursue potential waste and fraud in some $8.6 billion worth of government contracts, including critical work on the Superfund hazardous waste cleanup program, a House panel said in a blistering report released Saturday.

The report and an accompanying letter to EPA Adm. William Reilly heaped scorn on the agency's Office of Inspector General--the division assigned to root out fraud, waste and abuse.....[Let us just move on to what the report said and save space.] ...Martin's office took no action on the complaints by an EPA contract officer that his deputy failed to "maintain an arms-length relationship" with female employees of a major contractor, Computer Sciences Corp. of El Segundo, Calif. which is only one example. The assistant became "overly affectionate and familiar" with the women, the report said....

The inspector general also failed to take action on other allegations--etc., etc., etc.

Now, I do want to show you something of local nature that is more important than all the above--and there is no way for you to piece these pieces together--except you in the immediate locale--but ones in the immediate locale who saw the article didn't read it for the correct information which is NOT given. Perhaps this is one of the ONLY REASONS you need old Hatton--but you are learning fast and being generalized and connective of all to all, so we are getting there. If only a few of you see and hear--the word will spread and you will all become good detectives. So let us use this as an example of something innocuous and not even very interesting overall.

SOLAR FIRM LAYS OFF 350: DAILY NEWS, July 7, 1991.

Luz International Ltd., the world's largest solar energy producer, laid off 350 full-time employees--half its work force--and canceled plans to build a new power plant in the Mojave Desert (California).

Citing the recession and cheaper prices for competing oil, the company said Friday it also had laid off 300 temporary construction workers hired only last month to build the new plant.

The Westwood-based company accounts for about 90 percent of the world's solar power production.

Cutbacks came Tuesday after Luz failed to obtain $280 million in loans needed to build the solar plant at Harper Lake, 30 miles northwest of Barstow.

On the surface this is benign as all get-out, isn't it? It isn't! When I give you just one bit of information, see how the picture immediately changes in your mind: Luz International Ltd. IS AN ISRAELI COMPANY! They are operating out of one of the most posh offices in Westwood--a most expensive and prestigious area of Los Angeles.

The threat was that IF the company was NOT GIVEN THE MONEY, they would lay off all these employees and it would pretty much devastate the total economy in the little area of the plant--which, of, course, is in the desert.

Does this look to you like there is a plan afoot to decrease dependency on oil? Could this be Israeli blackmail? Read it again--".90% of the WORLD'S solar power production".

This is a massive plant which has tremendously large panels of mirrors which heat oil to very high temperatures which in turn heats boilers, producing steam--and on into electricity. The closedown of the next addition to that plant tells you another story--there is really a great rift somewhere in the business community in a plant totally controlled by an international coalition! The main thing it tells you, however, is there is more blackmail afoot--because this makes the U.S. government look stupid in view of the claim for the desire for more alternative energy resource. The Khazar Elite will ALWAYS get what they want from you--the people no matter what they have to do to get it! Now, I ask you--do you not think someone, somewhere, is going to come up with $280 million--or more--for this nice little Tel Aviv company suffering in the outskirts of Beverly Hills, California?

PLEA REGARDING RELIGION VS. GODLINESS

I am asked again and again if "...there is any way to live in co-existence with Catholicism..." and/or any other "religion" as to doctrine. That is for YOU to discern. You must judge that which you gain from the group involved, what they teach and thus and so. It is easy to discern their intent and purpose by a bit of attention. Do they give you rules as stated by MAN? Do they allow or support anything that runs against the laws which you know are given by God and Creation? What do they demand of you of your earthly possessions? What do they demand of you as to "control"? Do they tell you what you may read and not read? Do they denounce others because they are of another "doctrine"?

GOD ALWAYS ENCOURAGES YOU TO SEEK, STUDY ALL IN LIGHT AND OPENNESS AND IF IT BE TAINTED BY MAN THEN IT WILL SHOW ITSELF FOR EVIL IS COMMANDED TO "WEAR A CLUE". GOD IS THE SILENCE OF "KNOWING" WITHIN--AND ALL THE SHOUTING, KNEELING AND HOOPLA IS FACADE TO DIS-TRACT YOU--ECSTASY WITHIN IS A THING SO PERSONAL THAT IT ALL BUT DEMANDS SILENCE--NOT HAND-WAVING, SHOUTING AND SCREECHING WHICH IS BUT TO DROWN OUT THE SMALL VOICE OF TRUTH WITHIN. ALL THE "SHOW" IS FOR THE HUMANS PRESENT TO IMPRESS THE OTHER HUMANS PRESENT--YOU NEED NO SHOW UNTO GOD! You need no confessions unto another Man--you need only Truth within in relationship to God who is also right there within. If any Man interjects himself 'twixt thee and God--it (he) is not of God.

But how can you know? Because if you "fear" the possibility of reprisal from a "church group"--you fear Man--established rules and you are still not recognizing GOD but, rather, the Men who have founded the "club". I do, however, suggest that it is MAN you need fear--for God does naught of which to FEAR. God allows and anything that is of "fear" is not of God. Force is not of God and, of course, force "is fear".

DESTRUCTION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS BY COSMOSPHERES

This is a very important inquiry and one asked by many: "...in which Hattonn states that American Subcraft and RPV's carrying nuclear bombs were destroyed by Russian Cosmospheres. Would this not have caused nuclear explosions and radiation attracting world attention?"

NO. Atomic weapons are not detonated easily, as a matter of fact. They are detonated by an elaborate detonation system and, unless triggered intentionally to detonate on impact, it is almost impossible to detonate a bomb. The worst thing that would happen is that the casing would rupture and allow escape of radioactive substance. What you speak of could be done--the bombs could easily be detonated by the Cosmosphere "tone" computer but, so far, that has not been the intent of the "game". If, however, you get into a "war", your own weapons will be detonated after being turned against you.

We can both detonate and/or neutralize a weapon utilizing a beam system but the Cosmospheres are not sophisticated enough to simply neutralize a weapon, consistently. They can, however, render the detonator useless.

As to your "beam" weapons, you are dealing with two things which cause great promise of disaster. One, the beams themselves are what could be called "prana" beams, or "substance of life atmosphere" particle beams. This can break loose and move into chain reaction which can detonate your atmosphere as a whole. Next, however, these systems are powered by nuclear cells and the nuclear power packs are also deadly. Now these systems will, when blasted out of the sky--rain radioactive material all over the planet. Therefore, to destroy a Cosmosphere is almost as risky as leaving it alone to do its thing!

WORMWOOD

I am constantly asked to comment on "...the report of a large object heading toward Earth and last reported near Jupiter?" The ramifications of that object have incredible consequences unto you of the planet. YOU cannot divert it from its path and, yes, it is headed for your vicinity. I have already spoken of this mass and I am not going to go into further detail herein--that disaster can be averted if Man comes into change for our forces can easily change its path. That will be decided at its proper time and by the proper councils. That mass is recognized by many names in various places of prophecies--from Wormwood to Herculobus. As you study that which is now being given on the facts of life and energy--you will better understand the possibilities of that mass relative to "thought-bodies", etc. I believe Mr. Quayle and his idea to blast it out of the sky is about as ridiculous a suggestion as I have ever been given to witness. You are talking of something far larger than Earth Shan and being compressed in compounding amounts constantly so that when it turns into its expansion cycle it will blast everything in its corner of the universe. It is up to Man what will happen to that body.

What does Earth Shan Man know of things? Perhaps it is God's ship (cloud)? Perhaps it is MY ship? Perhaps it is the Kingdom of God? Perhaps it is the Kingdom of Evil? Perhaps it is full of "little gray aliens" to suit the UFO fear-mongers? Perhaps it is a radioactive ball of compressed atomic weapon sent from somewhere to destroy the planet?

KNOW ONE THING--IT IS CONTROLLED BY INTELLIGENT LIFE-FORM!!! I hope you will all get the recent books on lessons of "what is life" that are coming forth now as your "Pleiadian Connections". You are being given factual, reasonable, easily understood, outlay of the universal operations and God projection of Creation. We can do no more--the rest is up to you.

FOOLISH MAN

This newly isolated carbon-form which has some 60 atoms of carbon arranged like a "miniature soccer ball" dubbed buckminsterfullerenes--or "buckyballs"--is interesting for several reasons. One is that everyone is so proud of the accomplishment of being able to isolate the substance--but more important is what is planned to do with the molecules collected. I will speak of this substance which is a form of carbon with its own DNA replicating system--BUT, listen up: "...their shape may turn out to be a structural achievement that on the molecular level is as noteworthy as the keystone arch. This molecule, says IBM physicist Donald Bethune, looks like something some genius engineer sat down and designed. In essence, a buckyball forms a cage that begs to be filled. By placing different atoms inside the cage, scientists would be able to engineer materials with unique electronic, catalytic and even biomedical properties. One intriguing possibility: if they prove nontoxic, buckyballs might encapsulate RADIOACTIVE atoms used in cancer therapy, serving as shields that protect normal tissue from damage....." You ones just can't leave the "Devil" alone, can you? You are determined to commit "ATOMIC SUICIDE"--you CANNOT get rid of radioactivity and yet you keep using it like a benefit to Mankind--you are already dying in mass from radioactivity--YOU CANNOT CURE POISONING CASES WITH MORE POISON!

As you read the Germain material in the current JOURNALS note this: buckyballs are "spheres"--this means that they are ready to totally explode and create havoc of such magnitude you won't know what hit you--especially if you think you will "fill little spaces within" with your radioactive toys! We shall see.

ATTENTION AND HOW DO YOU GET FOLLOW-UP?

You don't! How many of you know the status of life, death, rebuilding, new storms, and TROOPS in Bangladesh? How about southern Mississippi? How about four-six inches of rainfall in a few hours and hurricane winds in Oklahoma? What is happening this day in Peru? what about Chile? How many tons of cocaine came in from Colombia today? You can't keep up--but you CAN know that when the assault on your mind is from twenty to thirty different sources and directions--THE REAL STORY IS BEING BURIED FROM YOUR SIGHT!

ECONOMIC INSIGHT?

This is my most persistent questioning area. Well, I am pretty tired of that subject for, while Rome burned, the elite were preoccupied with their wealth and forgot their real assets. The blast today was a deliberate pressure on the dollar to allow a three cent differential against the Pound and a 2.5 cent loss against the Mark. More games to suck you in--IT ALL MUST COLLAPSE TO GET THE GLOBAL CURRENCY INTO FUNCTIONING USE! SINCE THE BRITISH "COLONIES" HAVE BEEN SWITCHED INTO THE DOLLAR--DOES IT NOT INDICATE A REAL PLAN TO DESTROY THE POUND????? Now, you ones go right ahead and in the fluctuations of "days" you can gain or lose and it matters not to me, which. But if you refuse to look out there in front of you--I have no care whatsoever what happens to your diddly-pooof "stuff". I am not come into your presence to tend your bank accounts nor do I care a whit about them except as you cannot pull your attention from them! I am come to collect God's people and walk a planet through a transition--you do that which you will with your "stuff"! I have told you what to do to protect yourselves as well as you are going to be protected--if you prefer Man's approach--then you shall be devoured and drowned by those "Men". You have now been told what the plan is and what you can do to protect selves to the best of your ability--and you turn away. Well, it is a state of Man to which God has grown quite conditioned--but God remains in very good shape while you grow in confusion and chaos. So be it.

IMPORTANT THOUGHT FOR THIS DAY

I honor a speaker enough to simply quote his "editorial". He is Vince Ryan and I hope you read the next with prayer for understanding in your hearts and desire to change within your bosom--there is great shame upon your nation this day as the world is at the mercy of your own Elite, America, just as are you-the-people. To understand what is said, I must ask Dharma to copy an editorial writing from SPOTLIGHT of July 8, 1991:

Once again, the U.S. State Department has proved itself to be the enemy of freedom and the lackey of the internationalists. Even as the hypocritical President George Bush extolls the virtues of democracy and "the American way of life", the striped-pants set at State is condemning the nationalist freedom movements through Central and Eastern Europe.

The latest manifestation of State's kowtow to internationalism is its condemnation of the actions of the majority of the people of the republics of Slovenia and Croatia in daring to proclaim their independence from the artificial political entity known as Yugoslavia. In point of fact, one could hardly distinguish between the reaction from Washington and the reaction from Belgrade (seat of the central federal government of Yugoslavia).

These are the same people who are loudly proclaiming the sacredness of "majority rule" as the reason for the sanctions this country has imposed against South Africa. If, then, the majority of the people of Croatia want a free and independent Croatia, and the majority of the people of Slovenia, want a free and independent Slovenia, shouldn't the U.S. support such moves? [Ah yes, we know, the tune changes but the drum-beat does NOT! Only the speakings change to suit the need of public display--but NOT the actions behind the covers.] Any reasonable person would think so. But it's situational ethics as usual when it comes to U.S. foreign policy. And the situation is whatever the internationalists (for instance, the Bilderberg group and Trilateral Commission) say that it is.

The reaction of the U.S. State Department to the expression of freedom from Croatia and Slovenia unfortunately comes as no surprise. When the Captive Nations of the Soviet Union began to express their yearnings for freedom, it was the U.S. State Department that cried--even louder than Moscow--that the USSR must not come apart. [Further, you set up your aid packages so that they are dispensed right from the head criminal's purse--RIGHT THROUGH THE KGB/KREMLIN SOVIET ELITE.]

And why not? Because "it's easier to deal with" the communist dictatorship than with individual nationalistic republics. That's the reason the Bush administration gives for telling these people that they must remain the slaves--Mikhail Gorbachev's perestroika notwithstanding--of the Bolsheviks in the Kremlin.

Following the guidelines set down by Woodrow "War to End All Wars" Wilson, the first internationalist president of the United States, every subsequent administration has been in favor of the internationalization of the peoples of the world and the destruction of nationalism. Hard on the heels of Wilson's, sanctified-by-the-Establishment, proclamation of freedom for individual nations following WW-I, was the creation of phony "nations" including Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia--totally contrary to Wilson's promise of self-determination.

And speaking of the latter, it was once again the U.S. State Department that complained about the nationalistic aspirations of the Slovaks, who have been suppressed by their more powerful western neighbors for decades, broken only by several years as a protectorate of Germany during World War II.

And then there is the cold shoulder the Bush administration has turned to the three Baltic republics--Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania--in the hour of their need. And here's a dichotomy that has never been explained.

When it was thought there was no chance that the Baltics might regain their freedom, the U.S. State Department's official position was that the United States had never recognized the Soviet assimilation of the three tiny republics following WW-II.

But just as soon as the USSR started to look just a tad shaky and the Baltics began to make nationalistic noises, it was the U.S. State Dept. that proclaimed--along with the Kremlin--that the moves were "dangerous".

The only thing "dangerous" about the freedom movement in the Baltics is that it is dangerous to the deal Bush cut with Mikhail Gorbachev vis-a-vis Bush's genocidal gulf war. Bush told Gorbachev that the U.S. would ignore Soviet suppression of the legitimate nationalistic aspirations of the Baltic peoples if the USSR would not interfere in Bush's Mideast machinations.

We were told that the only reason American troops were committed was to save the nation of Kuwait--a tiny speck of sand under tyrannical royal rule. Only the most naive could possibly believe that we were protecting democracy when we first suckered Saddam Hussein into invading his neighbor, and then in driving him out with massive loss of innocent civilian lives. There is no comparison between democracy as it is understood in America and the government of Kuwait--and Bush knows it, as do the mattoids behind him.

And now the chickens of Bush's Mideast machinations are coming home to roost. Even as we go to press, Gorbachev's brutal "internal security" military forces have moved into Lithuania, occupying government offices and cutting off mail and telephone services. And the central government of Yugoslavia is moving troops into Slovenia and Croatia. Even the most optimistic of the honest political observers both here and abroad do not expect either situation to end without major bloodshed.

Now answer this: Does the U.S. face a greater threat from a united strong, monolithic, aggressive, internationalistic Soviet Union, or a large number of small, nationalistic republics such as Ukraine, Georgia, Byelorussia, Kazakhstan and so forth? Any informed American knows the answer to that.

Then why does the Bush administration, allegedly pledged to protect the U.S., favor a united, strong, monolithic, aggressive, internationalistic USSR rather than a number of nationalistic, parochial republics?

Maybe the Bilderbergers can answer that question--MAYBE THEY ALREADY DID!

SO BE IT! And now, please: Vince Ryan--

BUSH SHAMES AMERICA

Ponder well this week's editorial [given above]. You will come away from it with a feeling of sadness. Or should I say shame?

You have had it drummed into you that the United States is the "arsenal of democracy" and that our "national" goal is to have democracy all over the world. Furthermore, no anti-democratic bullies will be tolerated under our policy.

The euphoria over our "victory" in the Persian Gulf War should last, we are told, long enough to carry us into the New World Order.

The reality is otherwise. The Bush administration is no different from those that preceded it going back to Woodrow Wilson. "Democracy" is off limits to those peoples whose fate is in the hands of the big international bullies--today known as the Big Five powers of the UN Security Council (The United States, Britain, Red China, France and the Soviet Union [note: not Russia]).

The peoples of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia and the Croats and Slovenes in their fight for freedom get no help from the U.S., the principal dispenser of democracy. But the dictatorship of Kuwait had to be preserved at ALL COSTS.

The Board of Policy (BOP) of Liberty Lobby over the years has gone on record with some 108 positions, ranging from the first one "against foreign aid" to No. 108, which is "for a constitutional amendment outlawing the desecration of the U.S. flag. [Do not confuse this with a Constitutional Convention to do that amendment. Also, I ask you to remember that I am "quoting" and that means that I do not necessarily agree with all the man says. AS a matter of fact I do NOT agree with most of the information, however, on the subject in point, the clarity is exceptional.]

Those positions, that we believe if followed by our government would result in a better country and world, in 1991 are: (5) "for a pro-American foreign policy," (9) "against unfair foreign competition," (21) "for withdrawal from the UN," (22) "against world government," (61) "for strict neutrality in the Mideast," (94) "against a presidential declaration of war."

Yes, Liberty Lobby, the oldest citizens lobby on Capitol Hill, has, in its 36 years of existence, meticulously adhered to the populist principles of our Founding Fathers. Those of you who would like to become members of our Board of Policy, please write for more information. If you feel ashamed and disgusted because of our government's phony stance on democracy, now is a good opportunity to come on board the BOP.

At press time we just learned of mass genocide in Yugoslavia. In Kosovo province in Serbia some 100,000 Albanians have been starved to death by the Serbs because they refuse to give up their national heritage and aspirations. This territory was taken from Albania after World War I, when the new state of Yugoslavia was created following the lines of Woodrow Wilson's plans for a new Europe. [Now you tell me why a U.S. President would be making "plans for a new Europe"?]

Also we have reports of genocide on the part of Serbs against Hungarians living in northern Serbia. [We will try to give you some of those stories later.] So it is that 72 years after the Versailles Treaty that was to bring peace to Europe after WW-I we find the situation in total disarray. Thanks to the machinations of Wilson and his State Department matters are worse than ever in Yugoslavia and, for that matter, throughout Central and Eastern Europe.

Since our present day State Department has that same policy of destabilization--particularly in Iraq and the Middle-East--we wonder what the situation will be like in Iraq in, say, another 72 years. Is this policy deliberate or accidental? If accidental, the policy "is being conducted by mental defectives who should be locked up. If deliberate, the evil geniuses--mattoids--behind it should be hanged.

PENANCE

To you who are in knowledge of the following, I have a statement for you in response to this: "I have been a devout Catholic for 17 years and have been taught to do penance and deny self as a way of life. The JOURNALS seem to be leading me in a different direction." GREAT!!! Who told you to deny self and do penance? Man or God? Well, it was NOT God. God asks you to honor self AS GOD, for you are that temple in which dwells God! If you err--make to right that mistake unto the one wronged--ye have no right to sit and lecture and scold of self, get absolution and do nothing further about it. YOU CANNOT SERVE ANOTHER'S DEBT BY ANY AMOUNT OF PENANCE AND YOURS IS SERVED WITHOUT UTTERING A WORD ALOUD--GOD KNOWS WHEN YOUR HEART IS REPENTED. Now, I shall give you a little insight into self, W & D.C., (a bit of a "Freudian slip"). You misspelled the word "penance". That is appropriate enough--but it speaks to the issue directly. How much do people REALLY KNOW about that which is drummed into their beings for "17 years"? Ponder it, child. Only one seeking power over your wondrous being would cause you to debase self--you, who are the most brilliant perfections of the Creator's thought?

Define "penance": an act of self-debasement, mortification, or devotion performed to show sorrow or repentance for sin. 2. A sacramental rite practiced in Roman, Eastern, and some Anglican churches and that consists of private confession, absolution, and a penance directed by the confessor.

Who do you confess to? Man, perhaps? Is a man or God behind the confessional wall? Does any MAN have right to pronounce you innocent or guilty? Who is the ONLY one to whom you owe confession? That's right: SELF AND GOD--NO OTHER. If you owe another an "apology" so be it--go make such unto the one wronged but you can burn a church down with your candles and bury yourself in absolution from a Man and it will serve nothing save the Man's pocketbook if you give penance with sums of material matter.

Am I popular? No indeed! God is never popular, chelas, for confrontation of self in the Light of Truth is never pleasant and coming into knowledge causes the power hungry criminals who enslave you to the lies, to lose all power and control over your Being! That is WHY the TRUTH IN GOD SETS YOU FREE! EVEN THOUGH YOU BE IN THE DARKEST DUNGEON!

One of my most beloved of friends who gives daily in my service in, yes, these publications of Truth--was a Catholic Priest for over 35 years of this journey--ah yes, you can break away into freedom. IF YOU LOOK FOR GOD IN THE MOST UNLIKELY PLACES--SO SHALL YE BE GIVEN TO FIND HIM. IF YOU GO ONLY WHERE MAN PRO-NOUNCES YOU SHALL GO--YOU SHALL NEVER FIND HIM. Blessings upon your awakening, children, for it is with great glory and joy that we see the "Light" burst forth in realization of truth about that which you accepted because you were "told to". God always says, see for self and test it with wisdom for the Truth shall stand into infinity and that which is of Man shall surely fall.

Thank you, Dharma, you must go now for there are papers to be filed with the court again this day. It is something that must be seen to conclusion, chela--albeit disagreeable. In love I walk with thee that you may see and hear and KNOW. Salu. Hatonn to clear.

7/13/91 HATONN
SATURDAY

NIT-PICKING?

I would not take time to respond to this next "accusation" if, indeed, it had not made it to national network media. Dharma is now accused of trying to "impress" people with authenticity of work by giving strange to-the-minute receiving time and weird dates and time counting, etc. No, these ones who tout this word obviously know little about computers and how easy it is to sit down and enter a "time" as projected on the clock at onset of work. Then, they prove their lack of JOURNAL knowledge by not knowing what the rest of the "heading" means. Those are mostly for identification within our own systems but also to allow you to know when, and by whom, information is brought forth. The "year-date", i.e., "4-331" indicates the NEW CALENDAR, dear friends. Earth Shan began her new cycle on August 17, 1987! You see, that is the same day that the "ancient" calendars stopped, i.e., Mayan, Aztec; and the aboriginal people (Aborigines: "original people"; original native), stopped their "Dream Time" and now (literally) the Green Ants are awake after years of hibernation, and are swarming about the land masses. In other words, doubting Thomases, the end of the world in that cycle STOPPED! This day, July 13, 1991 is actually year 4, day 331 (Editor's Note: No year "0" was utilized). Isn't history interesting? It becomes fascinating when you get the correct definitions and events.

We are come during this time of sorting, change, ending and beginning--separation and transition--right on schedule as God promised. He went to prepare a place for you of His creations who would abide within His laws and it is waiting. He didn't leave it to "chance" that there would be a "handy" cloud floating around--He has sent a multitude of craft to bring you home--or leave you aboard the sinking ship--(your choice)--but we are the Hosts sent to bring the final promise for this cycle--THE WORD. God said, "I AM THE WORD AND THE LIFE AND EXCEPT THROUGH ME SHALL YE ENTER INTO THE KINGDOM."

We have placed our own ones on your planet to receive of the messages and disperse them so that they would be given for both historical documentation and the instructions for a return into orderly passage. Those who choose to not hear and see are perfectly welcome to deny, turn away and continue in the chaos--BUT THE LAWS WILL NOT BE REWRITTEN NOR TAMPERED WITH IN ORDER TO PLEASE ANY MAN! MAN HAS DESTROYED A PLANET CREATED IN PERFECTION AND HE WHO CHOOSES THE WAY OF DARKNESS WILL SIMPLY BE LEFT WITH HIS CONSEQUENCES WHICH ARE, BY THE WAY, PRETTY DESOLATE IN THE OVERALL PICTURE OF FUTURE PROBABILITIES. SO BE IT!

SUBLIME TO RIDICULOUS

1. I have three or four brief "flashes" to give unto you readers. If you are efforting to get a loan, mortgage or otherwise, through a bank--KNOW that the bank will check into your IRS file. If there is any "possible" discrepancy--you will NOT be given the loan. You see, the income tax only goes to paying your national debt--not the bills. That means that ALL tax income goes to the BANKS! The IRS is the private police force collection agency for the Federal Reserve System which includes ALL banks. We now have personal cases to share with you if you are untrusting of what I say.

2. If you wish to get or renew your passport--the IRS is the number one clearing house. If there is anything amiss in your IRS file, you will not be granted a passport!

You must understand--you-the-people--that these are aimed at YOU, for all criminals and politicians already can get in and out and everywhere without bother of such irritating necessities.

3. The meeting of the Great Big 7 in London is already set in what it will do--and now you can get it right off your "tube". It has everything to do with the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. Mr. Baker said it today, again. Further, it will be decided how much of Mr. Gorbachev's groupie will be allowed within the inner-sanctum. They are now publicly telling you, and the world, that everything will be run through these organizations henceforth.

The big "mouthpieces" of course, are your old London buddies and the Prime Minister of Canada.

By the way, you lovely people of Canada. It has been decided that the first peace keeping UN army "volunteers" will be made up largely (other than US) of Canadian and Australian troops.

The facade for Gorbachev will be presented as modest while the trap is open and before it devours the Soviet Union in total. The hope is to suck in the Soviets through Gorbachev and leave the Russian Republic stuck with the bills. They will probably announce some sort of "associate" IMF membership and a lot of "technical" aid. But the biggie for the whole bundle: a multi-billion-dollar "exchange-rate" stabilization fund. The plan, of course, is to suck in one nation after another--Kohl of Germany is a real prize and too public to deal with right now, therefore, Mr. Bush will be responsible for working him over later this fall.

NO COLLATERAL

You can't even get a loan if you have a problem with the IRS (real or fabricated) and yet, let us look at the Bank of Credit & Commerce International. What is being found now by auditors since it got in trouble?

Far from being a bank intended to help developing countries, BCCI has been, from the outset, a plan to line the pockets of already-rich Persian Gulf financiers.

Much of the Bank's troubled non-performing loans were extended to these wealthy investors without sufficient collateral.

When the bank's friends did not repay their loans, BCCI covered up with a secret bank-within-the-bank that took deposits and used the money to make loan payments appear to be current.

The bank kept regulators off-track by developing a vast international network of political contacts, led in the U.S. by Democratic icon Clark Clifford. You see your old "Statesman" Clifford and directors of his First American Bankshares, Inc.--the Washington-area bank which is covertly controlled by BCCI--tried to hire former Federal Reserve Board Chairman Paul Volcker (yes, same old Volcker who will now be a BIGGIE in the Trilateral Commission). First American, of course, wanted Mr. Volcker to act as trustee for shares in the Washington bank owned by BCCI.

Well, not to worry, citizens, it will only cost you between $15 and $50 billion (or more) to sort it out.

ACADEMIC BARTER

So let us turn to stolen academic degrees instead of stolen money. Or, are they the same after all?

It is now found that the University of Tennessee is caught up in "Who wrote the papers"? It seems that in exchange for grants, papers for doctorates were exchanged for the currency. All of this, dear ones, comes from a lovely person, Walter Frost, letting NASA and Army Officials utilize HIS work. Doesn't it make you feel secure to know that your space program and safety of a planet rests on the shoulders of ones who didn't even write their own doctorate theses? Maybe, perhaps, you had best wait for those "clouds" for your rapture, after all.

S&L INSURANCE FUND

A NEW S&L deposit insurance fund will be unable to handle obligations of failed thrifts at its AUGUST 1992 target START-UP DATE. How interesting--won't even be able to "start", much less cover the investments.

SILICON ATOMS MANIPULATED BY IBM

Here is one to watch. IBM has a microscope which allows the manipulation of atoms in precise ways. It is a new silicon technique which allows the building of electronic circuits with parts that measure only one atom or one molecule across. And you still think the weather cannot be controlled by Man?

Here is the biggie: In addition to electronic applications, IBM could point the way toward modifying existing molecules by shunting their component atoms around, or even make it possible to build customized molecules, atom by atom. Since the method is not limited to silicon, these capabilities are useful in pharmaceutical and GENETIC RESEARCH which "already use such methods to CUSTOMIZE MOLECULES".

Where do you find such information? Right in your papers between the "Hidden Valley" Fettucini Alfredo packaging for microwave heating and the naming of Venusian craters after famous WOMEN. Of course it must be obvious that those craters have thus far in universal experience never borne labels and were just awaiting a so-called Magellan NASA probe to approach its 2,500th orbit around Venus so it could speak its interplanetary fame of female Earthlings.

BUT WORLD MUST BE SAFE IN "EXPERT" HANDS

The biggest concern this day is over a book called FINAL EXIT, a "suicide manual" for terminally ill persons. The outcry? "The troubling possibility is that people may get a hold of this book and kill themselves when they're in the throes of a reversible depression or some other state for which they could get help." How precious! You are starving to death millions of world citizens, bombing others, shooting and maiming millions of others, destroying by beam waves whole cities and this gets a full-page spread in a major publication.

Well, join the group, brothers in censorship--Waldenbooks and B.Dalton are in a horrible quandary. Do they ban the book and be accused of censorship or just deny all reference as with the JOURNALS? To keep the censors off the trail, the book is now placed in "Diet-and-Health" section and "...we aren't doing any promotion or anything else for it." Good luck, World!

CARE FOR THE ELDERLY

The above book may be more appropriate than, at first glance, appears because the maniacs of the Bush administration have unveiled the most sweeping change in Medicare since the program began in 1965: a complete revision in the method and fee schedules for physician reimbursement.

The revisions will be a total disaster for the 34 million elderly and disabled already covered by the program. The result will be sharp reductions in--even refusals of--medical care for the elderly, and ultimately, all Americans. I warn you--the Elite are beginning to shut down the wheels as they have been turning. You see, the system builds in a loss to physicians in many practices--that will NOT sell, my friends, the result will be less care or total refusal to treat patients without reserve wealth. I do not have time herein to outlay it all for you--but it is published and documented for your own perusal if you wish to do so.

WORRY ABOUT BUSH'S OCTOBER SURPRISE?

Not to worry, chelas. A full-fledged, all-out additional conspiracy is underway which suborns (unlawful furnishing of) perjury, and the creation of false files--all to cover up Bush's illegal Iran-Contra scheme. This is being carried out by the INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE! Does this strike anyone, other than me, as strange?

I think I shall write at length about this in the next Express because I note I am overrun on this one.

Thank you for your attention and, please, allow God to walk somewhere close to you--you DO need it! Salu. Hatonn to clear, please. May you walk ever within the LIGHT.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

Saturday, July 27 9:30 AM-5:30 PM
$25 (includes a copy of SPACEGATE at the Hyatt, 4219 El Camino Real,
Palo Alto, CA.,
Speakers Lt. Col. Bo Gritz, On The CIA/Drug Trade, Takai Anagoston,
M.D. on Surviving the AIDS Plague,
Cyril Minett on Exposing the New World Order and George and Desirée
Green on Surviving the Economic Conspiracy.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel,
I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The
Phoenix Vol. I
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 6% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 12

7/14/91 HATONN/-
MICHAEL

SUNDAY

Hatonn present in Radiance. I have petition for allowance to commune with you from Michael. You who personally experience the communion of Michael (some of you call him "Lord" Michael--[Teacher, Master Teacher, Cohan]) know the wondrous perfection of this Being. You also know of his focused devotion to the planet Shan upon which you are experiencing.

Man has always been notably evil toward his fellowman but you are reaching beyond all bounds in allowance of that which is taking place in Afghanistan, Bangladesh and beyond all bounds of decency or imagination, that which is being done by the United States through the United Nations unto Iraq's people. How you can stand by and witness and allow the murder of an entire nation's population through your ghastly sanctions is a mark on mankind which shall never be erased from the recordings of the universe. These are your testing grounds for your placement in the transition unto new and glorious life experience and the entire world, save a few, are failing--actually compounding the probable drastic ending of your cycle upon Earth Shan.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING ABOUT THIS ATROCIOUSLY DISGRACEFUL TREATMENT OF YOUR BROTHERS? YOU CONTINUE TO ALLOW THIS BASTARD BEAST AND HIS HENCHMEN TO CONTINUE DEATH REIGN UPON THESE INNOCENT PEOPLE AS IF THEY ARE GRAINS OF SAND UPON AN UNUSEFUL BEACH. YOU HAVE NO RIGHT TO INTERJECT YOURSELVES INTO THEIR NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS NOR HAVE YOU ANY BUSINESS TO HAVE YOUR PRESENCE OR OPINIONS UPON THE MATTER OF "HOW" THEY CHOOSE TO LIVE AND FUNCTION. AND THE DEATH SENTENCES CONTINUE TO BE TOSSED OVER THE SHOULDER OF THE "PRESIDENT" WHILE HE DOESN'T EVEN BOTHER TO INTERRUPT HIS GOLF GAME TO SPEAK OF IT. YOU HAVE COME A LONG WAY, BLESSED AMERICA--A LONG AND HEINOUS WAY, INDEED.

TODAY'S CNN HEADLINE STORY

The biggie today is a brief mention of a 6.7 earthquake in Afghanistan--does anyone know the importance of that? Have you, unless you live in Afghanistan, any notion of the horror of such a thing? It hardly bears notice in your media.

But--the private Elite secret and unaccessible playground for the "boy children" of the Elite of the Elite is in focus--the Bohemian Club of Northern California. The point is a small group of objectors to the club and the way it functions. It only allows top Elite from the Club of Rome, Skull and Bones, Illuminati (Reagan, Bush, Kissinger, Nixon, etc., etc.) within the grounds.

It is a place where these ones go on "retreat" and have drinking parties. Ones say, "There shouldn't be need to concern about major decisions being made there because the participants are so drunk while they are there that they wouldn't remember IF they did make important decisions." I warn you, it is a place where downloading of brain contents are transferred--no one is allowed in from the populace, press or TV--NO ONE! If you do not stop this cancer, you have not a hope of surviving these evil terminators.

A reader asked me a most important question regarding "originals" of these duplicates and what of their souls and do the energy forms continue to witness, etc. Well, let me give you a better picture of how it works. If the "original" is a Godly being--they will have to simply be murdered for they are rarely useful later in duplicated form except for occasional "appearances". The mind must already contain the expectations and capability of evil or the Godliness of the mind being duplicated will carry forth the Godliness for it is simply transfer of that which is in the mind. If Godliness is transferred, the new being will function in a Godly manner which will override the programming for Elite control. Even the duplicates often have to be "put to pasture", i.e., Reagan--and/or "taken-out"--but you will find them only participating in very, very minor ways after usefulness is over.

You ones can continue to say "How could all this have happened?", and it does nothing! IT HAS HAPPENED--EXACTLY ACCORDING TO THOSE PROPHECIES OF THOUSANDS OF YEARS PAST--AND YOU HAVE ALLOWED IT--YOU ARE IN IT!

The noose is so tight your world is all but lifeless and you continue to wring your hands and wail in confused helplessness. It is a helpless time and Dharma, for instance, realizes every writing--that you may very well be experiencing that which is only historical notation of a time of experience that ended in destruction and cataclysmic disaster. She shouts out at me from the bottom of her being--"God, are we but seeing that which has come upon us and that which we relive is that which IS OUR JUDGMENT DAY? Are you but showing us that which WE DID AND ALLOWED DONE UNTO THINE CREATIONS?--I CAN BEAR NO MORE; IS THIS MY APOCALYPSE? IS THIS MY JUDGMENT FOR THAT WHICH I BROUGHT INTO MANIFESTATION UPON THAT WHICH WAS GIVEN UNTO ME FOR NURTURING? Must I see it? Must I write these things? May I not just be slain and pass away from this confrontation of that which I have done?"

No, ye may NOT! This IS the final JUDGMENT of MAN upon self and IF he returns unto Creator/Creation in TRUTH unto the Law, so shall his placement be wondrous. It will always be JUST and he who continues within the evil practices outside the Truth and Laws of God behavior--HE SHALL LIVE OUT HIS CONSEQUENCES UPON THAT PLACE IN ITS DETERIORATION AND DEATH THROES WITHIN THE ENSLAVEMENT OF EVIL. THERE SHALL NEVER AGAIN BE PEACE UPON SHAN AS YOU KNOW IT OR DEFINE IT! IT BECOMES ONE TO ONE NOW AND INDIVIDUAL INTENT IS CONFRONTED, FOR THE SEPARATION IS WELL UNDER WAY AND IT IS WHAT YOUR SOUL INTENT IS THAT DECIDES THAT WHICH WILL BECOME OF YOUR ENERGY LIFE-STREAM. GOD EXPECTS NOT PERFECTION--ONLY THE INTENT OF EFFORTING AT PERFECTION. THIS IS WHY YOU MUST COME INTO KNOWLEDGE OF THE FUNCTIONING REALIZATION OF THAT WHICH IS CREATION AND GOD OR YOU SHALL BE SWAMPED BY THE TIDAL WAVE OF IGNORANCE WHICH WILL DESTINE YOU, THE INDIVIDUAL, TO CONTINUE TO EXPERIENCE

IN THE HELL OF PHYSICAL MANIFESTATION IN DISCORD AND TREACHERY UNTIL THE LESSONS ARE LEARNED. THERE WILL BE NO FORCE NOR COERCION; DURESS OR COMPULSION. GOD IS MEASURING YOUR PERSONAL GROWTH WITH THAT WHICH YOU ARE OFFERING UNTO HIM IN YOUR INTENT--AT THIS MOMENT! NOT TOMORROW--FOR THERE IS NO TOMORROW IN WHICH TO DECIDE OR ALTER COURSE--YOU ONLY HAVE TODAY.

With every attitude you offer unto me as friend or foe, every denial and every acceptance within, is that which is making your "judgment" at every moment of experience--NOW. What you did yesterday is of no interest to this moment except as it impacts the effects of a cause of that past experience. You are IN the transition and only the placement is in question--ONLY THE PLACEMENT FOR CONTINUING EXPERIENCE. You need not look to the right nor left to see that which another is doing--save to see what is thine own thought projection concerning that action perceived. You are no longer given to even realize that which IS and that which IS NOT--ONLY YOUR RESPONSE TO IT. Are you worthy of God's Kingdom or worthy only of more lessons in the adversary's kingdom? It is up to you--ONLY YOU. Will the masses change into Godliness enough to cause God to change his MIND? That, dear ones, is the point! You are God's thought-forms and you are allowed experience. God sends messengers to show you the way to return unto Godliness so that you can come home--NOW IS THE BRINGING HOME OR DISCIPLINE OF CONTINUED LESSONS

IN HEIGHTENING CHAOS. "AS YOU DO UNTO THE LEAST OF THESE, SO HAVE YE DONE IT UNTO ME!" SO BE IT.

I turn the forum over to Michael and place my blessings upon his petition for you to see and hear that the scales might be removed from your eyes. But before I do, I want you to know a tid-bit regarding duplication via DNA--for "robotoids" and "duplication/synthetics" seems to be the largest "hang-up" point for you readers. I want to share something with you which may bring the capabilities right into your reality.

A headline reads (Sat. July 6, 1991): From ancient DNA, scientists see way to breed extinct beasts. Ah so, and how can this be? Exactly as I have explained to you is already perfected ON YOUR PLACE. It is now KNOWN that it is quite simple to simply "hatch" a real live dinosaur, for instance, from a DNA "egg". Let me just touch on the "recipe" for a dinosaur. Find a bead of amber that contains a blood-sucking insect from the age of dinosaurs. Extract genetic material from blood cells of a bitten dinosaur, and amplify DNA with the PCR (to be described) technique. Process and inject this into embryo of an alligator. Wait until it hatches. So, a dinosaur can be recreated through the use of polymerase chain reaction. Dinosaur DNA is replaced or combined with DNA in the eggs of modern amphibians or reptiles and the eggs are then incubated to produce live dinosaurs. This is not only plausible but is done in a mass way today, in secret replication programs mostly dealing with humanoids.

There is a simple device now in use that enlarges DNA and creates a "template". In about 1985, a really "neat" device was invented and patented by scientists at the Cetus Corp. It is called "Polymerase chain reaction (PCR) analysis". The instrument that amplifies trace quantities of DNA is about the size of a shoe box or a bit smaller.

By cyclically changing the temperature of the contents and by supplying various building-block chemicals, the device splits apart paired strands of corkscrew-shaped DNA molecules and uses each strand as a template to create a new DNA segment.

With each repetition of the procedure the number of identical DNA segments is doubled, and trillions of copies can be rapidly manufactured. The result is that fragments of DNA formerly too small to analyze can now be easily amplified for study.

A feature of the system is that a scientist can select any section of interest from a DNA molecule--say, a single set of genes--and amplify only that portion.

KNOW that this only comes to the public now because the development of such a "box" was leaked in 1985. The system is under manifested perfection for decades. But--it is harder to explain the rebirth of dinosaurs than political personages.

WHY IS THE BANK OF CREDIT AND COM- MERCE INTERNATIONAL IN SUCH POINTED ASSAULT?

Because the IMF and World Bank are bringing all banking and assets of the world under their control and these other banks which have been making money off corruption are representative of fragments out of control. Look at WHO is against the BCCI: the Bank of England! So, moving right along, authorities in Luxembourg, the Cayman Islands, the United States, Switzerland, Spain, Canada, and France also moved against BCCI.

The Governor of the Bank of England said evidence indicates that BCCI was loaning money to business executives without expecting to be repaid or was fabricating the existence of loans. This was a major bank, one of the world's largest. The United States backed the bank and helped launder money from Noriega and any others wishing massive laundering of money. The Bank of England ordered (and sent the monarch of England to the U.S. to ensure) the stopping of BCCI activities. Britain's central bank is behind the move and has referred the case to a British prosecuting agency--the "Serious Fraud Office".

BCCI, you see, is registered in Luxembourg and based in ABU DHABI, the largest of the UNITED ARAB EMIRATES. The bank is controlled by the ruler of Abu Dhabi and president of the U.A.E., Sheik Zayed Al Nahayan. THIS is HOW you bring the world--even the wealthy Arabs--into your "coalition" and keep them there! There is no way in which I can tell you how seriously in trouble you of the world are this day! Salu.

MICHAEL TO SPEAK OF IRAQ

I find it all save impossible to speak of this matter. I thank you for forum and service, to hear this petition to you who have any compassion remaining within your breasts. As inspectors move about in Iraq to search and find that which they choose to condemn--they are astounded and all but speechless at the heinous things they find. There is such massive devastation and agony of a population of an entire nation it is beyond their ability to grasp it. Deliberate genocide of a nation is all they can project for that is what is happening through these "sanctions" of, basically, the United States. You are killing off the Kurds, in addition, through the self-same sanctions while you concomitantly claim to be protecting them. Your nation, America, has no longer any exception to the madness of World domination and destruction in the name of New World Order and Global Control by the Elite Banksters.

I do not know how to cause you to hear me for I am but of the heavenly realms and most of you discount God's hosts while awaiting some "rapture" to clouds, etc. Where is the wisdom of thine own creation? HOW can you be idle and think of ANYTHING other than this monstrous thing you ALLOW to take place? Dharma, I ask you to write that which I shall give unto you from a well-written document--of your Earth authorship from almost two months past but it is well-done. KNOW THAT THOUSANDS HAVE PERISHED IN THE INTERIM AND MILLIONS WILL PERISH BEFORE YOU CAUSE THIS INSANE GOVERNMENT TO CEASE AND DESIST WITH THIS SLAUGHTER. I, MICHAEL, APPEAL UNTO YOU OF EARTH WHICH IS MY BELOVED PLACE OF SERVICE, TO RESPOND AND STOP THIS EVIL.

You must act NOW for your final enslavement orders are being written and presented for implementation at this thing you call a G-7 Summit of economic world leaders. They are the slave-master and you are the puppets. This might well be considered the historical recordings of "that which WAS". What do ye about these things?

Face your plight. Do you see your world getting better? They tell you that your world is getting better; is it? Is your life better? Are you happy? Is there stability and joy within your families? Your nation? What are the values of your children? How can they be other than that which you are? Do you see great joy and success in their futures? What of your own? Ah, Dharma, allow me not to become distracted for the subjects are so numerous that I would write a hundred JOURNALS and not touch of them all. You must realize, chelas, that your nation (whichever is your nation) is not that of its Elite--there are citizens in all nations and you seem to forget as much. If you will have world community (not One World Order) you will join unto one another and throw off this beast set upon you. What I will give you was written by one John Pilger and the article first appeared in England toward the end of May. This man, as have Dharma and other speakers for Truth, has brought down on his own head the fury of the intelligence establishment of his native country--but WHAT IS WORTH LIVING FOR IF IT NOT BE TRUTH AND FREEDOM???

The topic heading of Mr. Pilger is:

ANOTHER REALITY--WHY DON'T WE HEAR ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING IN IRAQ?

Quote:

There is an epic shamelessness about the symmetry of current, imperial events. An honorary knighthood is hand delivered by the Queen to General Schwarzkopf while his victims, mostly young children, continue to die in their thousands in Iraq, in conditions described by the United Nations as "near apocalyptic".

Certainly, the general's most enduring achievements ought not to go unrecognized. On May 11, the former U.S. Attorney General, Ramsey Clark, set up an international commission of inquiry and war crimes tribunal, which will investigate what was really done in the Gulf, as opposed to the version represented by "the artifices of media images and the cant of politicians". Not surprisingly, the Ramsey Clark commission has been all but ignored by the media. As the evidence unfolds over the coming months, it may be difficult to ignore. Ramsey Clark distinguished himself as America's chief law officer under President Johnson. He is an authority on the prosecution of war crimes and believes the law is not as vague in that area as it is often presumed. The Clark commission will concentrate on the body of international law codified in the 1977 Geneva Protocols additional to the Geneva Convention of Aug. 12, 1949, which expressly prohibits attacks on "objects indispensable to the survival of the civilian population, such as foodstuffs, agricultural areas...crops, livestock, drinking water installations and supplies and irrigation works." Article 56 states that "dams, dykes and nuclear electrical generating stations shall not be made the object of attack, even where these objects are military objectives, if such an attack may cause the release of dangerous forces and consequent severe losses among the civilian population...."

In the announcement of its formation the commission noted that there is "abundant prima facie evidence to support the allegation of war crimes...the U.S. Air Force between Jan. 16 and Feb. 27 carried out the most sophisticated and violent air assault in history against a virtually defenseless people. A deliberate policy of bombing civilians and civilian life-sustaining facilities has resulted in the destruction of the Iraqi economy and urban infrastructure." The evidence will draw on a range of sources, including the report of an investigating team commissioned by the U.N. secretary general which says that, due to the bombing, "Iraq has, for some time to come, been relegated to the pre-industrial age" and left in a "near apocalyptic state" with "even sewage treatment and purifying plants brought to a virtual standstill".

We have had only glimpses of this "near apocalyptic state", notably in the NSS and the Guardian. The suffering of the majority of the Iraqi people, like the true nature of the war, or "turkey shoot", has been suppressed. There has been only one indelible image of the war's horror: a photograph published in the Observer of an Iraqi petrified in death on the Basra road. According to the Clark commission, between 150,000 and 300,00 Iraqis were killed (on that road); yet we are left with just this one icon.

Why? Why have we not seen a single frame of film of the Iraqi trenches after they were cluster-bombed and napalmed? Why have we not seen the bulldozing of bodies into mass graves? This latter image is the one that those who prosecuted the war fear most.

They know it will evoke the memory of bodies bulldozed into pits in the Nazi concentration camps. Official film no doubt exists. Will it go the way of the official film of what was done to the people of Hiroshima? This record was hurriedly consigned to the Pentagon and classified "secret" for 23 years.

Were we now to view such horrors of the "famous victory", we might understand that the bodies in the pits were mostly Kurds and Shias, who were slaughtered not by Saddam Hussein as they scaled mountains, but by the "allies" as they tried to get away. We might understand that the Kurds have been a useful propaganda distraction for the U.S. and British governments, who killed most in the Gulf and with impunity. Witness John Major's "irritation" with and "blunt letter" to the U.N. about speeding up humanitarian aid to the Kurds. Thatcher's Sir Bernard would have been proud of that one. On May 4, the United Nations High Commission for Refugees called Major's bluff by disclosing that the U.N. had been "starved" of funds for the Kurds and that the British government had given a derisory 95,000 Pounds--compared with Germany's $20 million. Britain has since modestly increased its share and the Overseas Development Ministry has been instructed to concentrate on the "safe havens", to the detriment of the rest of Iraq.

"Do we even care," wrote Linda Schabedly, in the Guardian letters column, "about the other version of reality that exists beyond the artifices of media images and the cant of politicians?" It is a central question, to which the answer is that a great many people do care but are denied the "other version of reality", just as they were denied it during the war itself. Through the narrow focus of those supportive and protective of the state, the caring and the complex misgivings of the public are trivialized or silenced.

Maintaining this one version is essential to British policy in the region, with its sub-imperial posturing by a latterday Lord Palmerston, who began his ministerial life at the Foreign Office by traveling to Baghdad as a "top-level salesman" of weapons to Saddam Hussein. Many people must now wonder if they can believe a government that cannot even tell the truth about the "friendly fire" deaths of nine British servicemen. Yet the Ministry of Defense used the "feelings of families" to justify much of its draconian censorship during the war. Where truth has emerged, it has come from those who are driven by humanitarian concerns, who assume no obligation to side with the state. This is especially true of certain voluntary aid organizations, like Oxfam.

Last week I wrote here about the Charity Commission's censuring of Oxfam as "too political". This has had the effect of gagging Oxfam on the human disaster in Iraq, now exacerbated by sanctions. Even before the Commission's report Oxfam was threatened by the Department of Trade and Industry--together with other "exporting companies"--that "breaching sanctions is a serious offense" for which "the maximum penalty is up to seven years' imprisonment or an unlimited fine or both." The threat was repeated just before Oxfam's team left for Iraq in March. [You ones must come to know now, that the PHOENIX JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES are now placed side by side with those organizations as being the most censured by the Elite--even in England!]

It was immediately clear to the Oxfam team, on arrival in Iraq, that sanctions must be partially lifted if tens of thousands of people were to survive; contamination of water alone is decimating young children. With the Save the Children Fund, Oxfam reported that Baghdad had no uncontaminated running water; no refrigeration, no fuel, and no food processing. "The unavailability of powdered milk", says the report, "spells nutritional and health disaster for children...the spread of diseases such as cholera and typhoid in the present conditions is inevitable."

U.N. Resolution 661, passed on Aug. 6 last year, stated that the following items are exempt from sanctions: "supplies considered strictly for medical purposes and humanitarian food stuffs." As Dr. Eric Hoskins of the Gulf Peace Team has graphically pointed out, this resolution has been disregarded and, "Iraqi civilians have been dying of starvation and disease in their thousands...because of lack of basic food and medicines...never before in history has a government been prohibited from purchasing and importing food and medicine for its own people."

What is clear is that the sanctions committee of the Security Council operates ineffectively, if at all; and that it is dominated by governments in no hurry to restore the framework of civilized life in Iraq. Oxfam believes sanctions at least should be eased; yet even though Oxfam has a mandate to inform and educate people about causes, perhaps for the first time the agency dares not speak out for fear of being labeled "political" and being ordered to reimburse large sums. The superb Oxfam book, Punishing the Poor, and other publications are "under review".

The Charity Commission's report is quite scandalous. Not only does it substantially rely, as I reported last week, on extremist lobby groups for much of its information--such as the American-funded, far right International Freedom Foundation--but a careful scrutiny of the language of the report raises other serious questions. For example, in the main body of the report there is this statement: "Some of the evidence to the enquiry indicates that grants have been made (by Oxfam) to clearly non-charitable bodies, including partisan political groups or for non-charitable purposes. Other evidence appears to indicate that Oxfam takes sides in political controversies within foreign countries."

Now compare those highly qualified words with this indictment by David Forrest, secretary to the Commission, in a letter to Mary Cherr, chair of Oxfam's Trust, which was released alongside the report. "Some of the evidence to the enquiry", wrote Forrest, "shows that grants have been made and other evidence makes it clear that Oxfam has taken sides in political controversies." Where are his certainties borne out in the report itself? Yet this is the spirit of a punitive indictment leveled against an organization with an impeccable record.

Oxfam has been denied natural justice. It has not seen or had the opportunity to comment on any of the commission's "evidence"; yet the organization, and by implication its work, stands condemned for it.

Also, while much of the evidence is the result of a letter-writing campaign by special interest groups, Oxfam is unable to rally its millions of supporters among the public for support. That, of course, would be "too political".

So I am hereby launching such an appeal. I urge readers to write--not to me--but to the Secretary, the Charity Commission, St. Alban's House, 57-60 Haymarket, London SW1, or telephone him on 071 210 4420. Ask for the evidence and sources of the accusations against Oxfam, and do not be fobbed off. I also suggest that readers write to their MPs, and to John Major and Neil Kinnock. Oxfam needs the help of those from whom it draws its strength, just as the discarded people of Iraq urgently need Oxfam's skills and voice.

End Quoting.

DESERT STORM II

Please print the "cartoon" regarding this subject within this document. (See back page) It is on schedule--right now. Everything is staged and set--in Israel--for the attack. Worse, it has to be pulled off before Saddam can provide enough to show the world that the evil ones are not him. They must act quickly to continue the blasphemous lies about who is bombing this world catastrophe. You see, Iraq is an example to all who will not come within the control of the New World Elite--it has nothing to do with anything else.

You of America just celebrated the 4th of July (Independence from England) and now you go to war, plan war, pile corruption upon corruption for England and her Bankers. How long you have believed the lies while the termites destroyed your foundation and wiped away your freedoms.

Worse, all the while you destroy a nation--you aid and abet the destruction of others, i.e., Palestine and Lebanon. Shamir and Sharon of Israel laugh at you, America, and demand more and more funds (which you give them) to continue to absorb other nations and people in equally as heinous a manner--by destroying the population of people in their own nations.

From a paper called the Louisville Courier-Journal comes a bit of a small piece but it is widespread and open knowledge in truth--because these same two people mentioned before, have stated and restated intent to build in these places wherein "if they built there--funding would not be allowed". They have the funding and you give them more and more and more and they continue without interruption or intent to even slow the building.

ISRAEL'S UNSETTLING SETTLEMENTS CONTINUE

....Israel has confiscated more than 30,000 acres in the West Bank in the past three months. That's nearly double the amount confiscated during all of 1990. And what the government doesn't confiscate, Jewish settlers are seizing at gun-point.

Shamir seems confident the aid will flow, no matter how often he thumbs his nose at Washington. Maybe he's right. But we hope that Congress will recognize that unconditional aid to the Shamir government isn't in Israel's best interest--or America's.

Now for you so-called "Jews" who denounce this Truth and pounce upon our workers--you had best listen up! The struggle is WHO will control the United States in order to pull off one world control. The basic power foundation may well have some "Jewish" figures aboard--BUT THE FUNDAMENTAL HATE IS DIRECTED AT ISRAEL. The courting of Israel by the Elite is to continue to get exactly that which they need in the areas of the Middle East to pull down the world through wars and criminal actions. That which is recognized as Israel will be blown away as soon as the Elite Banksters get what they are after--and this may or may not include a single so-called "Jew". It certainly will NOT include any "Judean Hebrews".

I must return to the subject of genocide in Iraq for if you ones allow this horror to come upon your conscience as a massive thought-manifestation--it will scar the consciousness of an entire planet for all eternity.

The mass murder of millions of Iraqis through famine and epidemic continues to be the Bush administration policy. This is now shown by both U.S. and Iraqi officials as well as by independent medical observers. Therefore, it MUST be classified as intentional genocide for political and economic purposes. To ensure that millions die, the Bush administration is continuing to enforce economic sanctions against Iraq, forbidding the importation of desperately needed food and medicine and the spare parts necessary even to ensure that the sewage system can be made to function.

Speaking to the Washington press corps on June 3, State Department spokes-person Margaret Tutweiler reiterated the Bush policy: that there will be "no change" in imposing these sanctions until Saddam Hussein is out of power.

A week earlier, Tutweiler acknowledged receiving a Harvard Medical School Team special report which showed that cholera and typhoid are reaching out-of-control epidemic proportions in Iraq, and that at least 170,000 children are certain to die within the next weeks as a result of just the sanctions in "this war".

The American-led coalition is destroying Iraq. It has simply reduced Iraq to a gigantic concentration camp. Hitler's camps would be child's play to what the American-led coalition is doing to Iraq. Over 6 million people will surely die from this assault on humanity--if you are in the comparing of numbers of slain. There are cities, including Nasariya, which is the very birthplace of the father of the prophet, Abraham, floating on a lake of raw sewage and filthy disease-ridden water. There are many cities like that in Iraq--for it was the cities that were targeted--not the military installations, as you of the world were told. The infrastructures of cities and towns were deliberately destroyed along with milk factories and food supply centers to conclude in this very situation. How does the world react to all these edicts which come forth from your President to be sent forth from "vacation" spots, golf courses and limousines of massive luxury? ALL the media pictures of continuing living of any manner of "style" by Saddam are total lies. The pile of lies are burying you as surely as you breathe.

The cities themselves, are in shambles and roads are totally blocked by garbage for there is not way to tend of it--not even carry it away. This is presenting epidemics which will destroy the whole Iraqi people--including the Kurds of the area.

Your own medical teams estimate a minimum of 170,000 children under 5-years-of-age will die within months as a result of this insult to humanity. Iraq can produce less than 22% of its pre-war power production and the plans are for the coalition to bomb any remaining power producing facilities under the guise and facade of "possible nuclear installations". There is, therefore, no power to produce refrigeration to even maintain quality in the medicines which are available. There is no power for the hospitals. The milk processing plants were completely destroyed by multiple bombings targeting them directly, time after time. You tout your "precision bombing" and "surgical accuracy" so you now tell me how this could happen, that a nation can be destroyed and cities shattered and yet the very military installations and facilities you "claimed" to have "surgically and accurately precision bombed" survive?

In Baghdad, a city of over 3 million, over half the sewage is totally untreated with no way to repair the treatment facilities--you "surgically and precisely" destroyed the power plants and sewage treatment centers. Consequently, raw sewage is being dumped directly into the Tigris River, polluting the only drinking water of the millions of people who live downstream. Cholera and typhoid fever have broken out, while famine has become a deliberate side-effect.

Even the Chaldean rite of the Roman Catholic Church in Iraq petitioned for sanity. Father Philip Najim, the secretary to Patriarch Bidawid, reported on a fact-finding mission to Iraq which corroborated all the things given here. Najim was addressing an emergency press conference, in the German capital of Bonn, of the recently established Committee to save the children of Iraq. Where are YOU, AMERICA?

He said that it is vital to life to lift the sanctions. He recounted how he had seen many journalists and people coming with humanitarian aid, having their pictures taken, and going back home to say, "We were in Iraq", but complained that no one is forcing the lifting of the embargo. No matter how much aid is delivered, even tens of thousands of tons, it will never be enough to sustain a population of 18 million.

"Besides, even if the embargo is lifted, what will the future look like for the country?" he asked. "The Bush administration policy was and is to destroy Iraq, its culture, its economy and its science. They saw Iraq advance to a certain stage, and wanted to stop it." The truth of the war and the subsequent U.S.-inspired civil war, he said, is that "Bush wanted to destroy the country, and he bombed the mosques, the schools, the hospitals, the homes, even the Baghdad Museum."

Najim also reported on the appearance of a new children's disease in Iraq, characterized by bloated stomach, which is caused by the fact that desperate mothers feed their children the white water in which rice has been soaked. One hundred-fifty-thousand cases of this new disease have been recorded so far.

Father Najim's account was corroborated by Dr. Said Azzau, speaking for the International Physicians for the prevention of Nuclear War, who appeared at the same press conference. Azzau had also recently been in Iraq on an IPPNW fact-finding mission.

Azzau reported that the "surgical bombings" destroyed infrastructure, utterly paralyzed the health system, and made it impossible to store blood, medicine, or vaccines; to perform operations; or even to provide dialysis treatment. Anything requiring electricity is unavailable, he said.

Azzau stressed that Iraq has numerous, extremely highly qualified doctors, but no equipment or medicines. Cholera, typhoid, and other diarrheal diseases have assumed epidemic proportions, with "hundreds, even thousands of children dying every day." Between 170,000 and 400,000 children will die within this year, unless the embargo is lifted, he said. Where are you, America?

"Iraq does not want or need charity," he said, "they want to be able to work and produce and trade". Seventy to 80% of the population is now unemployed as a result of the bombing raids against civilian infrastructure. Even those working have insufficient funds to provide for their families due to massive inflation caused by the war and 10 months of embargo and sanctions. For example, even professionals who earn 150 dinars a month are scrounging to provide for their families, since meat costs 16 dinars a kilo and milk 14 dinars.

Azzau concluded, "If politicians ask about the effects of the embargo, they should be told this is genocide against innocent children. What we are facing is a moral issue, not a political one, and if the politicians have no morality left, then they should abdicate."

Big chance of that, for they are in office because they have no morality.

The logical response of you readers and the masses is that, "This cannot be or we would have known it." No, you would not have known it and it continues to be countered with bits of disinformation regarding any information which might slip through to you. They don't even bother to hide the more blatant facts from you because they are closing down on your freedoms to the point that they do not have to answer to you--they control you like the puppet you have become and shackle you with the bindings of rules they have taken and made while taking away your Constitution. They will have it all done and over when they get all your guns and they are going to do that very, very soon, indeed.

By the way--you may as well know that there is such erratic behavior coming from Bush that the Eastern Establishment is already preparing for Post-Bush activities. Don't you think that is interesting?

Hatonn asks me to relate some "good news"/"bad news" to you readers. The good news is that the 5,000 tons of gold which will be handled through London--is all purchased up already by the moneyholders--at a price of nearly $370 an ounce to keep the price stable and to "utilize as collateral". (It might be good if you ones REALLY LISTENED TO HATONN'S ADVICE). This means there is an attempt to hold the dollar stable a while longer and high against foreign currency and keep the price of gold from bottoming. Now, the bad news is that there is not just 5,000 tons of gold to be purchased--there is over 12,000 tons all packed and ready to market through the same source. Sleep well, World.

NATO

Now, to make your day--hit and run. I am going to share another bomb and then I will have to go for I have overstayed my welcome. Again, it is easier if I just dictate from human resource for your better understanding of circumstances.

NATO IS TO BE EXTENDED INTO THE MIDEAST

Quote:

Developments over the last week of May show that Operation Desert Storm, and the continuing destruction of Iraq through sanctions, are intended by the Anglo-American policymakers to extend NATO into the Middle East, with Israel as its main base of operations.

On May 29, President George Bush proclaimed another postwar mideast initiative in an address before the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. His plan would impose a ban on the sale of weapons of mass destruction to the region--a policy designed to leave Israel as the unchallengeable regional power. The day prior to the address, a NATO meeting in Brussels adopted a U.S. proposal to form a British-run Rapid Reaction Corps, for use in the NATO area "from Norway to Turkey", but also undoubtedly for "out-of-area" deployments in the Middle East and Africa. On May 31, U.S. Defense Secretary Richard Cheney announced in Israel that the U.S. would be "pre-positioning" undisclosed U.S. war material in Israel for "regional use."

The idea of using the Anglo-American puppet state of Israel as the basis for NATO domination of the Middle East is an old one. In 1986, the Reagan-Bush administration commissioned a strategic study entitled "Discriminate Deterrence", which advocated extending NATO into the Mideast with Israel as its anchor. The proposal to upgrade the U.S. strategic relationship with Israel, and the related idea of using it as a depot for NATO war materiel, was a central plank in Bush's 1988 presidential campaign platform.

GUTTING ARAB DEFENSES

In his Air Force Academy address, Bush warned that "weapons proliferation" in the Mideast has become "dangerous", and proposed that the world's five largest weapons suppliers--the United States, Britain, France, Soviet Union and China (in other words, the United Nations Government)--curb their sales of conventional arms to the region. These five states, which are also the permanent members of the UN Security Council, coordinated the recent obliteration of Iraq. Bush also called for a freeze on the sale of short-term missiles to countries in the region, and the imposition of a ban on the regional production of weapons-grade uranium and poison gas.

The reality behind such professed concerns for peace is the following: Israel already has some 50-100 nuclear bombs; the technology to produce them was supplied by the United States, France, and Britain. Israel also has massive regional superiority in chemical and biological weapons, and the ability to deliver them, for the same reasons. Last fall, the United States sold Israel a Cray supercomputer, to allow it to design a nuclear bomb in the 50-megaton range.

No Arab state has a nuclear bomb, and, in fact, every major Arab state has signed the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty--unlike Israel. A freeze on conventional arms development, in this context, would leave Israel unchallengeable.

Simultaneous with the Bush proposal, Defense Secretary Cheney traveled to Israel to announce a new arms package. The U.S. will fund almost all of Israel's $300 million Arrow missile development program, to give Israel the capability to shoot down whatever missile the Arabs might possess. As the recent war with Iraq showed, the Scuds are hardly top-of-the-line. Moreover, some $700 million of extra weapons authorized by Congress after the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait will soon be delivered.

More importantly, Cheney also announced that the U.S. has already begun to pre-position undisclosed arms in hardened bunkers in Israel, supposedly exclusively under U.S. control.

Claiming that the arrangement did not contradict Bush's disarmament plan, Cheney told the Israeli press, "There is nothing inconsistent with, on the one hand, saying that we are interested in pursuing arms control, and on the other hand providing for legitimate security requirements." Although the U.S. has refused to disclose what materiel is being prepositioned, various regional sources project that it includes nuclear weapons and related capabilities.

A NEW WAR?

Meanwhile, the much-discussed postwar regional security arrangement, which involves Egypt, Syria, the Gulf states, and the United States--but not Israel--is falling apart. In May, Washington quietly ordered Egypt and Syria to pull their troops out of Saudi Arabia. This withdrawal was depicted in the press as a sovereign Egyptian decision--to preserve the illusion that the U.S. still needs or wants "brown" troops.

Instead of relying on these troops, the U.S. will be setting up a naval base in tiny Bahrain (Where the Bush's have a son entrenched) in the Persian Gulf, linked up with its Diego Garcia naval base in the Indian Ocean. These U.S. bases, together with ISRAEL--and no Arab army--will be the centers of U.S. power in the region.

If Israel goes to war with the inferior forces of Syria, as the U.S. is planning, or if Egypt is destabilized by an assassination of President Hosni Mubarak (WHICH THE U.S. IS ALSO PLANNING), there will be nothing left in the region which could constrain the Anglo-American Israeli puppet state.

BANGLADESH

One last notation regarding that pathetic little piece of devastation--Bangladesh.

Bangladesh, which was recently devastated by a cyclone, is not suffering from its population growth as touted, but from the after-effects of BRITISH COLONIALISM [just what is intended for Iraq and the other nations of the Arab world].

The facade is projected as an alleged "nuclear over-population bomb". No, Bengal was one of the culturally most developed and richest regions in the world. Bengali scientists invented the decimal system, on which all modern mathematics is based. That system was brought to the rest of the world 1,200 years ago by Arab scientists and merchants, who always spoke of "golden Bengal".

The country has been exposed to impoverishment for the past two centuries. In 1765, the British East India Company acquired the privilege of tax-collection from the local Mogul; there is no question that this launched one of the darkest periods of European colonial history. Bengal was plundered in a matter of a few decades, while London turned into the richest city of the world, thanks to the East Indian treasurers. Thus England became the motherland of modern industrial capitalism.

Bengal has not recovered from this exploitation to this date. That is why Bangladesh is the charnel-house of Asia, not the lack of anti-birth programs, but the lack of investments in "hygienic measures, food programs for newborn children, job creation, and support of the elderly". That is the real problem of Bangladesh. Population explosions are only devastating effects of a program of destruction. In this instance it is truly an undersupply of food, in a region that has the same geological structure as the Netherlands and could be as rich, but has an underdeveloped infrastructure and no way to build a better way. To prevent such rebuilding, there is continual attack through weather-control methods and infiltration of military into new sites close to China--under the guise of "assistance" during and after these devastating "natural" disasters.

I could go on for pages and pages, but I have overextended that which was offered unto me, at any accounting.

Thank you for giving me hearing for I wish so desperately that you would awaken lest the opportunity of change passes you by. May God have Mercy and walk with you that you may be given into the understanding of that which IS.

Michael to take leave, though I leave the Peace within which comes of KNOWING GOD. Blessed be ye who KNOW GOD.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

MURDER BY ATOMIC SUICIDE

Technical And Spiritual Disclosure Of The Secrets Of How, Why, What, Where,
When And Who Of The Universe And Its Functional Projections PLEIADES CON-NECTION VOL. IV

By Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

ATON (GOD) gives us a very special 28 page introduction in this 33rd book of our PHOENIX JOURNAL series.

This book is a very special book for it tells us the minute details of what radiating atoms really are (NOT WHAT MOST OF OUR SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN TELLING US) and why in particular certain atoms are to be left in their natural state within the ground or we and all living things on this planet will die as a result of our violating nature's processes of preparing a planet for life as we know it.

Germain tells us of several actual nuclear plant meltdowns and how the hosts (stationed in star-ships above us) brought them under control to save Earth from destruction, WHILE RISKING THEIR OWN DESTRUCTION.

GERMAIN ALSO EXPLAINS IN DETAIL THE SUPREME MYSTERY OF LIFE AND DEATH, AND DEFINES GOD IN DETAIL.

The nuclear contamination problem is detailed and our only method of solving the problem is given.

Included in this book are several charts and many figures to help the reader to understand these concepts, THE MOST IM-PORTANT CONCEPTS EVER GIVEN TO MAN BY GOD (ATON)!

Included in this book are several charts and many figures to help the reader to understand these concepts, THE MOST IM-PORTANT CONCEPTS
EVER GIVEN TO MAN BY GOD!

Hatonn also keeps us well informed about the details of the political, economical and geo-political happenings and the TRUTH about what is taking place on our Mother Earth, which the Elite try to keep well hidden.

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT

AND CREATION BECAME
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more---something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREE- DOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

Saturday, July 27 9:30 AM-5:30 PM $25 (includes a copy of SPACEGATE at the Hyatt, 4219 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, CA., Speakers Lt. Col. Bo Gritz, On The CIA/Drug Trade, Takai Anagoston, M.D. on Surviving the AIDS Plague, Cyril Minett on Exposing the New World Order and George and Desiree' Green on Surviving the Economic Conspiracy.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING

EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

A PERSIAN GULF PRODUCTION "DESERT STORM II" STARRING GEORGE BUSH, SADDAM HUSSEIN, THE UNITED NATIONS. PRODUCED BY U.S. TAXPAYERS, DIRECTED BY COLIN POWELL, POK CHENEY. CARTOON BY MIKE SMITH FOR THE U.S. NEWS SERVICE.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XIV NUMBER 13

7/20/91 #1 HATONN
SATURDAY,

IS HEALING; EVIL IS ILL-NESS.

lowance of her to have the time to compile this massive amount of work.

I, Hatonn, am present that we might commune and share. I must caution you precious eager ones to NOT PUSH THE RIVER. Please allow Germain and our Hosts to put together some programs which can REALLY give input and healing at a level wherein the "cure" can be achieved. I do not thwart anyone's effort to share and express but I ask that you of our immediate crew members take patience as your guidelines and do not become "hooked" into any or anyone's preconceived notions of HOW things must be. If these groups of healing intent worked--there would be no illness nor addictions. If you do not have the proper keys to the kingdom--you cannot enter.

Does this mean that I discount efforts to form groups and share and build? Oh no, but attend your personal "time" most carefully and if you have committed unto our authors then I do ask that you remain totally flexible in your approach.

We cannot have anything for just the few--our thrust must be to make available resources so integrated that the tools can be used by ALL in any location, creed or language. Healing MUST come through COMMUNION WITH GOD--GOD

Does this mean that all must wait until Dharma can somehow "do" these things? Yes, and so be it. We have seen to it that techniques have been given her and others in various modalities of function and teaching. The communion and instructions will come from the Masters and it is THEY that you must await for fulness to unfold.

As we approach healing as can be utilized by ones far and wide we must attend the tools which we produce most carefully as we assemble that which "works" and weed out that which is but "chaff". The assumption is that these things cannot be done successfully EXCEPT AS - - -. No, they can be done very successfully in any placement, by all ones, if the tools sent forth are proper.

REMEMBER--WITHIN EVERY BEING IS AN ADULT TRYING DESPERATELY TO GET OUT AND STAND AS ONE WITH HIS GODNESS! We do not denounce in any way--the child within, as a "for instance"-- but we must not just make the child content--WE MUST RELEASE THE CHILD INTO THE ADULT FOR WHICH HE WAS CREATED. Since this is our writer, however, we must await the al-

Do we think we know it all and can do it all? YES! So be it. And how has your week gone? We come not to bring gloom and doom tidings of great horror--we are come to show you what has become the problems and give you ways to solve them and turn about your pathway for you have forgotten in which directions your TRUTH must turn into if you are to blossom instead of decay. IT BEGINS WITH YOU, REMAINS WITH YOU AND ENDS WITH YOU! I MEAN YOU! Will all come into being and KNOWING? No--but they will be given the tools for the journey if they so choose to use them--and if YOU change YOU and find that you can bring balance and healing within SELF through the tools of GOD, then it only requires YOU! If YOU change--then all else MUST CHANGE!

Dharma, we must compile an EXPRESS for this coming week. I do not like to take time from Germain's work because we are finding you ones so enthused regarding the possibility of beginning healing work for all ones MUST BEGIN RIGHT AT ONE WITH SELF. But our commitment is to serve all while we claim new ground and, precious, you will be given that which you need to pull the load. There truly is nothing more important in any portion of your life-stream--not human family, not guests, visitors--not anything for your family has become the brotherhood and one in New Mexico or Texas will not have lesser attention to allow for you to visit with relatives or acquaintances. If we can get this old planet turned about and the species into healing--then we shall sit and rock in our chairs and exchange experiences--until then we meet the needs of ALL who seek to the very best of our capabilities. As we lay down the blueprint--others can take up the challenge and reins and move with it. The gift in reward, is that it will be given unto you to have joy and anticipation in each new lesson unfolded so that it is not "work" but abundant enjoyment.

Remember that you told your classmates in Mark's class that you "...don't understand what it is, but I know that I am to do something profound and can't isolate it"? Indeed, child, and you are finding it, albeit not that which you anticipated nor could ever fathom or see--because you had to come within God to understand the purpose and passage. Is it something you would "physically" choose? Not likely, for ones in the physical format either become too aligned with ego supremacy or feelings of unworthiness--we had to have one with no predisposition other than to accept our input according to the needs as we present them. We can allow no tampering for the world of human has been tampered with for so long it is all but destroyed. It will be "God's way" which must prevail. If any man had all the answers you would be in balance--so, let us do it God's way, please, while there is yet time to change without the natural death of physical on this place by that which is already done. If you will come into personal balance--then, and only then will you be given information which can counter that which is already brought upon the Earth which will kill for the next thousands of years. Man will be given the knowledge--IF--he will turn again unto God and within the Laws of Creator and Creation.

Let us move on with notable items of the day which must be given expression in that which needs watching and insight from behind the doors of lies and secrecy. If it is comfort to you--things are not going so very well with the would-be world kings.

First, I am going to discuss a point of "objection" to many ones regarding "hypnosis". YOU ARE ALREADY CONTROLLED BY BEAMED HYPNOSIS, MIND CONTROL AND PROGRAMMING, ETC. IF YOU ARE GOING TO DISCONTINUE THE ATTACK--YOU WILL COUNTER IT WITH ITS OWN WEAPON--HYPNOSIS IN COMMUNION WITH GOD AND THE IMPACT CAN NO LONGER REACH THROUGH--IT IS THE ONLY WAY! The ONLY way!

I am not interested in quarrels nor even debate--IT IS THE ONLY WAY and you who wish to heal and have insight will recognize it as the valuable asset it is and recognize that it is constant already about you and within you. The intent of the dark energies is to cause you to miss and refuse the healing in order to continue control over you. They have weakened you and destroyed you through mind control--YOU MUST NOW UNLOCK THOSE MINDS AND BE FREE--THE METHOD IS THROUGH THE SAME COUNTER TECHNIQUES THRUST UPON YOU, THE MASSES. When you regain control of your minds, you will again have freedom--not until!

PHOTOBIOLOGY (PSI-ONICS) AND RADIONICS

There are so many subjects to be covered that we are at a loss as to how to get them covered and to you in timely manner. We know that your resources are limited and that overload is upon you all--but I must ask that you indulge curiosity and research some of the things we bring you as general subject matter. There are ones involved and doing in-depth investigation and efforting to bring forth news--all over the map. Look at Col. Gritz and others in his group. There is great compilation of information which is willingly (gratefully) shared by ones such as Larry Didcoct of Golden, Co. I could write steadily for the next year without another item from the discussions which NEED making with just one group of articles and information he has sent to America West. He hides not--he writes to EVERYBODY he can find and shares, shares and shares. Try him: Larry Didcoct, 12656 W. 8th Pl., Golden, Co. 80401.

Radionics, of course, is a compiled meaning of "radio" and "electro-nics" or Electronics for simplification. These will include the radio wave beam systems, etc., as differing from that which is biological in electrical energy display. For instance, one reason the MIAs in Vietnam, etc., are purposely refused freedom and return is that they bear truth in several ways which will do in your government. Your Pentagon CAN'T admit that there are prisoners alive and wanting to come home--they are "HOT" literally and figuratively.

When the substance Agent Orange was used in Vietnam the soldiers (yours) were deliberately sprayed with this Agent Orange (dioxin). Let me tell you something--with use of a computerized psionics8 instrument, and their "photographs", one can pick up energy being broadcast by those MIAs still living. As a matter of fact, this is KNOWN. Remember in May, 1991, the "MIA official" quit. The director of the Pentagon unit assigned to find U.S. servicemen in Vietnam resigned in April, actually, and bitterly accused the administration of making his office nothing more than a "dump to bury the whole mess out of sight and mind". The administration's efforts to follow leads of MIA-POW sightings were a "charade" and a "travesty", Army Col. Millard Peck wrote his superiors in March. That memo made it to the public.

You have all sorts of "bizarre" things taking place, such as the person on Prozac who went on a shooting rampage that killed eight people in Louisville, Kentucky. These people, dear ones, are not victims of some strange "drug" as you think it to be. This is nothing other than MIND CONTROL and in this instance and with "Prozac" the substance is a mind-controlling substance which causes people to react according to beamed signals. The point is to cause enough strange behavior related to death via weapons to cause you to outlaw weapons. Far fetched? No, totally simplistic.

You have a problem going back decades which may shock you terribly. You have a syndrome called "sudden infant death". It is caused as a direct result of radionics and psionics. The method of tracking the infants (predominantly males from traditional Christian families) originated through research attributed to the community within the Zionist following. Watch what comes out of Atlanta CDC regarding this very thing: "the increases...among white males...should be monitored, to determine a possible emerging trend". It is found that white male babies of the target group die more often and at a younger age than the remainder of the grouping. There is no apparent cause of death. Well, chelas, that is a result of electronic or psionic "attack". The method of attack is exactly that which is thrust at this scribe constantly to, hopefully, cause cardiac arrest. It is murder by any description.

Herein, too, you must not accept the fact that because we quote from some publications, that we approve all material, advertisements, etc., in that publication. Why do I mention this here? Because I support and give great credit to SPOTLIGHT but you must know that as far back as 1988 advertising was allowed for white males of "Christian" background which were enticed by advertising as a "meeting" gimmick but was actually to lure these men in to be used for experimentation using photobiology methods--usually resulting in death. The point was to obtain a photograph for the purpose of the experimentation. Sound far-out? Yes indeed!

Entire cities can be brought into total population depression with many suicides resulting--by these beam methods. It is simply mind-control. Add a few viruses and you have mass annihilation of great populations.

By the way, what of this new UNKNOWN disease which is deadly--from onset to death, less than a week, and is sweeping through (especially children) of Africa? "They" are sure it is a virus but "they" can't isolate it.

I won't go more deeply into these subjects at this time because you ones are already borderline as to ability to believe the things we bring unto you. But you will find that almost all barrage against you is actually from the beam pulses. Let me just give you a for-instance: A virus is a "crystalline" formation and can be mutated, programmed and any other thing you can do with a radio receiver--the virus itself can be structured and programmed just exactly like a crystal receiver. Then the programming is entered into the brain control centers and the programming will not interrupt until death is accomplished.

DEADLY VIRUSES ARE SENT THROUGH THE MAIL

You don't believe any of the above? Well, in view of the tank-car full of toxic weed-killer dumped in the Sacramento River and now infecting Lake Shasta, I suggest that you take note of this: The Army, for years, has and does ship deadly viruses through the U.S. mails. Biological warfare agents are regularly shipped through the mails and via private carriers such as UPS.

How many of you old GI's who served in Utah at Dugway Proving Grounds are aware that there has been massive building of facilities at Dugway for the Army? The facility is now ready for "occupancy". That means that massive amounts of biological warfare agents will be shipped in for the experiments and it is planned to ship it all via carrier such as the Postal Service for it is considered the most expeditious method of shipment. I am speaking of nice tidy and deadly little critters like Anthrax, etc.

You think I surely must josh you? No, let us consider Denver as far back as 1989 wherein, in the middle of a massive economic decline--a building is being constructed at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center which will be a multi-million dollar high-tech research building--the first major research facility to be built on the sprawling campus in over 15 years. Ho-humm? Read on:

"The five-story structure, to be erected at the gateway to the complex on the corner of Colorado Boulevard and East 9th Ave., will house three centers FOR RESEARCH ON CANCER, MOLECULAR BIOLOGY AND NEUROSCIENCES. In addition, it will contain a state-of-the-art lab to allow researchers to SAFELY HANDLE DEADLY VIRUSES AND GENETICALLY ALTERED MATERIAL."

And then, there's: "DEADLY VIRUS CHAMBER" Agency unveils its $20 million hot lab" This was 1988: Atlanta--The National Center for Disease Control has unveiled a $20 million "hot lab", a super-sealed facility for the study of the world's deadliest viruses, including pathogens FAR MORE DANGEROUS THAN AIDS...-this includes such things as Ebola hemorrhagic fever (check out the possible correlation with that which is now striking Africa [above]), Lassa fever and Rift Valley fever--diseases rarely, if ever, seen in this country and much more hazardous in the lab than is AIDS or rabies--" blah, blah, blah!

Dear ones, yousee, you don't need ballistic missiles nor ballistic missile controls--you can destroy a whole planet right through the mail service and even though the Russians have the most "chemical" weaponry--the U.S. has the more abundant "biologic" capability. The Russians have the cosmospheres--but through the control of the Elite and the U.S. you can wipe out the species without leaving the surface of the planet. You can actually do it through the good old U.S. MAIL SERVICE!

Even your own acclaimed "experts" in warfare say the dangers posed by chemical weapons and biological weapons "may someday seem tame compared with the killing potential of biological/chemical weapons which employ disease-causing viruses, bacteria or toxins. Such weapons require relatively little technical expertise, and they are easy and inexpensive to produce.

The toxins referred to here, in disease causing, i.e., cancer, heart attack, etc., virus form are called Bio-toxins. They are more accurately referred to as deadly chemical/biological warfare agents which are being shipped through the mail, and for reasons that they should publicly explain, are being used at the University of Colorado "Health" Sciences Center. The weapons instruments are radionics/psionics.

Yes, I am here today to tell you that you can mark my words: THE "NEW" DISEASE OF UNKNOWN CHARACTERISTICS AND TITLE--IS AN EXPERIMENTAL INFESTATION INTENTIONALLY SET FORTH THROUGH THE ELITE OF THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION UTILIZING JUST THIS TYPE

OF MATERIAL. CAN IT BE AS EFFECTIVE AS HIV? OH INDEED--THIS KILLS RIGHT AWAY--AIDS MUST BLOSSOM AFTER LONG HIDDEN INCUBATION. YOU COULD BE WITNESSING THE "CURE FOR FAMINE" IN AFRICA!

PROTECTION?

Well, there most certainly is a protection from the "mind-control" but you aren't going to get it through any KNOWN counter-system on the physical plane. You are ONLY going to have that protection through grace and understanding...a gift from Holy God. If you can understand and be aware of what is being done to you, the technology being used, the purpose and goal of mind control...and, in that protective understanding, you will spiritually rise above their ability to harm you with mind control for your own mind will instantly have ability to counter the frequencies and signals. Please do not wring your hands--get the information being brought forth right now in the JOURNALS for your brothers are giving you details as to how and why the universe works and what you can do about these very things thrust upon you.

BUT DOWN TO EARTH

A group herein have now set forth an organization called the Constitutional Law Center. It is now incorporated and has a "leader" and a small research staff. There are ones awaiting this news and I suggest you attorneys who have been waiting--start your' motors, Gentlemen. If you want to know who to contact and how you can help--ANYONE, I ask that you start by contacting America West. They will not bear the full load for very long but right now it will be the only contact point so that efficiency in start-up can be facilitated.

The intent is to cover every aspect, eventually, of Constitutional Law from "CFS-ARC-AIDS" victims (chemical warfare) to unlawful seizure of property--to income tax and IRS abuse to gun control abuse. WE HAVE TO HAVE YOUR SUPPORT, HOWEVER, LEGAL FEES ARE EXPENSIVE. BUT IF WE ALL PULL AS A UNIT WE CAN SWING THIS WONDROUS NATION AROUND--AND THEN WILL COME THE WORLD.

BULLETIN: If you are a "CFS-ARC-AIDS" victim please note this IMPORTANT UPDATE (I quote and have no opinion regarding the matter): 2/19/91: Attn: "CFS-ARC-AIDS" victims (chemical warfare victims!) CHEMICAL WARFARE--USA now contains actual pro-se court documents whereby any debilitated chemical/biological warfare victim can stop the bankers and their high priced law firms dead in their tracks from foreclosing on your house...during time of war." (And you are still classified as being in a state of war, even if undeclared.) I suggest you get in touch with the above (Didcoct) and or FACTS, (The Foundation against Abusive, Corrupt and Tyrannical Systems, 422 S.W. Fifth St., Grants Pass, OR 97526 (503) 474-5025, 1-800-359-6411 or 13322 Hwy. 99, Everett, WA 98204 (206) 742-1126 Fax: (206) 742-0622. We will eventually lock-in with these groups to some extent but our thrust at this particular source is not one of activist movement as you consider such to be. What you do is your business--but ours is to bring information and work totally within the laws of God and the land as they Constitutionally apply.

I most certainly ask that our own ones contact "FACTS" because they state: "In practicality our main areas of interest, though we don't foreclose the others, concern the ABUSE AND EXCESSIVE EXERCISE OF POWER BY THE CORRUPT BAR AND BENCH". They are also focused on issues surrounding abortion, misinformation on AIDS, governmental control of thought and the usual moral and patriotic causes. I leave it to you readers as to that which you do with this information. Please take a short break.

7/20/91 #2 HATONN

PENTAGON DISMISSES EVIDENCE

To continue a bit with the subject of missing and unaccounted-for American servicemen and their still being held prisoner, let us look at the evidence and Pentagon footwork. Of course, you understand that to have the Pentagon investigate the publicized photographs of missing servicemen--identified--is like asking the one who embezzled the money from the bank do the examination of the bank records.

As you will recall, Col. Millard Peck, who is one of the nation's most highly decorated officers of the Vietnam War, resigned and left a five-page letter tacked to his door as he left his office.

That letter forced the Pentagon into a frantically defensive posture, with Peck eloquently stating that he was resigning because the effort to account for America's missing servicemen was a total sham, with the emphasis being placed on discounting reports of sightings of Americans in captivity rather than on efforts to genuinely investigate the reports.

You ask, "How do we ever get the information on these matters public?" This is how--Col. Gritz and Col. Minett and others who speak out in spite of the dangers, go forth and then a Col. Peck joins them and so it goes, one after another who experience first hand the facts, go forth and stand tall to the flag, truth and nation and tell you TRUTH. After a while, dear ones, they simply cannot kill or silence you ALL. You have several opportunities where facts and proof are available and if you do not use these tools to start that leverage moving back to the Constitution and National Brotherhood then you are a lost cause. You NOW HAVE PROOF, WITH IDENTIFICATION, OF ALIVE PRISONERS--AND THERE WERE OVER TWO THOUSAND OF THEM--THERE ARE STILL A GREAT MANY WHICH ARE INTENDED FOR DEATH OR INCARCERATION FOR THEIR REMAINING DAYS TO PROTECT THE EVIL CRIMINALS WITHIN YOUR HIGHEST GOVERNMENTAL PLACES.

Peck appeared in June before the House Foreign Relations Committee's Subcommittee on East Asian and Pacific Affairs, chaired by Rep. Stephen J. Solarz (ohretch-retch).

WIDELY DESPISED

Solarz, rightfully so, is intensely disliked by POW-MIA activists for burying, details concerning the missing Americans within the subcommittee's national security blanket of secrecy, and is, nevertheless, a powerful figure in the House. He is the front pusher for the Zionists and is being put up for President through those lobby groups. If he doesn't make it to the Presidency, which is not planned by his opponents--he is pushing for a Democratic President so that he can be the Secretary of State--a slot already approved for him.

He has amassed one of the largest campaign war chests in the House and has considered challenging Sen. Alfonse D'Amato, who is seeking reelection next year.

In public session Peck was able to say little about the inner workings of the Pentagon's POW-MIA efforts, and his statements regarding government and quasi-government officials involved in attempting to bury the issue were reserved for closed session of the subcommittee.

MADE SECRET

What Peck had to say about these officials was then classified as secret by Solarz's subcommittee.

The Pentagon, under the direction of Secretary of Defense Richard Cheney, ordered an investigation of the charges made by Peck in his letter of resignation.

The Pentagon has now supposedly completed "its investigation" and has stated that there is "no evidence" to substantiate Peck's charges.

And what do you suppose happened to Col. Peck? They didn't dare allow him to resign as he petitioned--for he was far too dangerous to the Elite--so they required he remain in the military service where they could control him through military jurisdiction and silence him. He has been assigned to a new office in the Military District of Washington, which provides administrative services and ceremonial functions for all military activities in the Washington area. In other words--an absolutely NOTHING position created to keep him in prison.

BLASTED MILLS- GRIFFITHS

In his resignation, Peck blasted Ann Mills-Griffiths, the controversial executive director of the National League of Families, a supposedly private group of POW-MIA family members. Mrs. Mills-Griffiths, Peck claimed, "occupies an interesting and questionable position in the whole cover-up process.

"Although assiduously 'churning' the account to give a tawdry illusion of progress," Peck charged, "she is adamantly opposed to any initiatives to actually get to the heart of the problem, and, more importantly, interferes in or actively sabotages POW-MIA analyses or investigations. She insists on rewriting or editing all significant documents produced by the office, inserting her own twist or meaning to what was originally prepared. This is then touted as the DIA (Defense Intelligence Agency) position."

Peck said Mrs. Mills-Griffiths "apparently has access to top-secret, code word message traffic, for which she is supposedly not cleared, and she receives it well ahead of the DIA intelligence analysts.

"She was brought from the 'outside' into the center of the imbroglio, and then, cloaked in a mantle of sanctimony, routinely impedes real progress and insidiously 'muddles up' the issue.

"One wonders who she REALLY is and where she came from," Peck wrote. [1, Hatonn, suggest that if anyone really wants to know this, they will uncover the secret liaisons by checking the listings of members of the Council of Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and the Bilderberg Group. When you have a female within a marriage, all sorts of things are lost. I also suggest you look for relationships with Armitage and Gates as well. Then look into the advisers group surrounding George Bush. It is more involved than the "Swiss Bankers" mess.]

Peck said he feels "very strongly that this issue is being manipulated and controlled at a higher level, not with the goal of resolving it, but more to obfuscate the question of live prisoners.

"DIA's role in the affair is truly unfortunate," Peck said. "The overall agency has generally practiced 'damage limitation drill' on the issue... The POW-MIA Office has been cloistered, for all practical purposes, and left to its own fortunes.

"That national leaders continue to address the prisoner of war and missing in action issue as the 'highest national priority' is a travesty," the Colonel said. "The mind-set to 'debunk' is alive and well...Practically all analysis is directed to finding fault with the source. Rarely has there been any effective, active follow through on any of the sighting of POW's in captivity, nor is there a responsive 'action arm' to routinely and aggressively pursue leads.

"It appears," Peck charged, "that the entire issue is being manipulated by unscrupulous people in government, or associated with the government...The entire charade does not appear to be an honest effort, and may never have been.

OUR COURT CASE

"From what I witnessed," Peck concluded, "it appears that any soldier left in Vietnam, even inadvertently, was, in fact, abandoned years ago, and that the farce that is being played is no more than political legerdemain done with 'smoke and mirrors' to stall the issue until it dies a natural death."

What are you going to do, America? You are in your testing right now! Will you allow them to offer you "falsified photographs" when they have been authenticated and the people RECOGNIZED? Are you going to allow "forged signature on the back" as a cop-out? You have live men who served and gave their lives into permanent prison in a death-pit for your nation and--to cover the drug activities of your own CIA and government people--they will be left intentionally to DIE THERE! WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT THIS? AREN'T YOU ABOUT SICK OF YELLOW RIBBONS?

Moreover, what are you going to do about Col. Peck? The full intention is to KILL him--he knows it and all the military brotherhood caught in the same trap know it! What are you going to do, America? Oh yes, he will soon have a very sad accident or terminal disease or, or, or. This has become the reward for truth and bravery against the mockery of the system as it has become--and still the popularity polls shout for ticker-tape parades. How can you sleep at night, America? Well you have over 9 thousand (9,000) missing and unaccounted for just from the Asian sector. Yes, I wonder that any of you sleep at all!

The opposition attorney claimed this writer produces fanatical and preposterous propaganda and for this he would have her home stolen forcibly from her. He then removes document after document and tapes from the court records (has now been witnessed doing so) and the response? If this is written about or spoken outside the court chambers he will sue for defamation.... He now writes and really threatens if anything further is done regarding the matter. Do you really think NOTHING will be done? Come now--when you have had everything taken that can be taken you have nothing to lose! He has perpetrated a felony offense and now obstructs justice by threats to silence through terror tactics--oh, I think we will do something. Since this person receives the EXPRESSES via his "spies" in the community, I assume he will enjoy this message. But I believe we have failed to document any names or places so if he wants to go on limitation and deletion of freedom of speech and freedom of the press, so be it. On just the basis of the letter alone, he is subject to immediate arrest by police officers according to the law.

Well, I don't want this little artist off the case--he has become an unbelievable show to all the judicial system and every clerk, bailiff and judge is watching him now through the magnifying glass.

He claims that this lady who is somehow his adversary is the same as "Dharma" and that Dharma and her husband publish "a local weekly newspaper". All the above is incorrect. All of it. SHE publishes NOTHING--much less a local weekly newspaper. The only thing ever placed in the local paper was in an advertising weekly as paid space by America West who can publish anything they choose to publish anywhere they can get it published. Further, let him sue--these ones have nothing left for him to take! Enough of you have supported the attorneys to keep the case going nicely to stand for Constitutional Rights and we are humbly grateful. This is the ONLY way you can turn the corruption around and clear it out--by standing and seeing the misery through to the bitter or blessed ending. The corruption goes all the way to the government Elite and they will give no "discovery" nor allow witnessing because they are cornered in their own nest of traps--but the case has still only just begun--hundreds of thousands of dollars and three and a half years later--the defendants have not so much as been recognized in a court.

Ah, but you might say--Dharma is the writer! Indeed--but she is NOT the AUTHOR! I AM THE AUTHOR AND IF NEED BE I SHALL TAKE THE STAND AND IT WILL BE A MOST INTERESTING DAY INDEED!

HONOR TO MORE POW-MIA

The North Koreans, after nearly 40 years, have returned the remains of 11 U.S. servicemen killed during the Korean War to the UN Command, under which American troops fought the war against North Korea and Red China.

By the way--do you wish to know how the Chinese cinched the Most Favored Nation status? It had nothing to do with "human rights", etc. The final threat is NOT a THREAT. There are hundreds of thousands of dissident Chinese which are ready to be shipped to Mexico to move into the U.S. from the Southern route. The Chinese fully intended to send them by carrier just as they did the unwanted Cubans. Yes, I speak of NOW! It really isn't such a Ho-Hum world as you might think if you ever open your eyes except to the television for your sleep training.

Sen. Bob Smith on June 24 (1991) led a delegation of Americans who were present when the remains (a few bone fragments and a couple of teeth for the whole lot of them) were returned by communists at the so-called peace village of Panmunjom, along the demilitarized zone that separates North and South Korea.

MISSING

Smith has been a leader in Congress in the effort to obtain a full accounting of American prisoners of war and missing in action from wars dating back to World War II.

There are a total of 8,177 American servicemen still missing from the Korean War, all of whom were declared "presumed dead" by the U.S. government during the war or shortly after the hostilities ended with a cease-fire agreement consummated at Panmunjom in 1953.

Part of the agreement called for the repatriation of all POW's who wished to be repatriated. About two dozen U.S. prisoners decided not to be repatriated, but most have since returned to the United States, while tens of thousands of North Koreans and Red Chinese refused to return.

Now this is what the party line says. Don't be bluffed into believing it to be truth.

AT any rate you got down to where the U.S. accounted for all save 389 Americans still listed as missing in action by the UN Command--officially. Each year a list of their names is presented to the communists at Panmunjom for an accounting. Each and every year the communists reject the request.

Although evidence that the 389 were KNOWN TO BE ALIVE AND IN COMMUNIST CAPTIVITY IS CONCLUSIVE, the men have been declared "presumed dead" by their own government.

What about this last silly exchange? From Korea, the remains were flown to Hawaii, where they will be identified by the Army's Central Identification Laboratory.

The remains were met in Hawaii by Mrs. Dolores Alfond, who heads the Seattle-based National Alliance of Families, an organization of family members of American servicemen still missing from all wars in which U.S. military personnel were involved.

Mrs. Alfond's brother is missing in action from the Vietnam War.

DRAPED BY UN FLAG (STAGGERING, ISN'T IT?)

It is no different to a previous return of some five Americans' remains on May 28, 1990, after being received by the UN Command on the North Korean side of the so-called truce line, their caskets were draped, not with the U.S. flag, but the UN flag. Where are you, America?

Ironically, only the North Koreans seemed to object to this sleight of hand, and in their case, because they had thought they were returning the remains to U.S. officials.

The U.S. congressional delegation at that time was headed by Rep. G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery, Chairman of the House VETERANS AFFAIRS Committee! Are you still with me?

For you who denounce this message--I have a few questions to thrust at you and I demand answers as that is what you do to me and my people: Where did you get all your information that this is untrue? Whose story is more LIKELY TO BE TRUE IN VIEW OF UNCOVERING FACTS? What time and how do you do all your hours and hours of research to discount my work? Where, in fact, DO YOU GET YOUR INFORMATION? HOW MANY YELLOW RIBBONS DID YOU STRING UP? FOR WHO? HOW MANY OF THE YOUNG SERVICEMEN FROM YOUR TOWN CAN YOU NAME?? Can you tell me the latitude and longitude of Iraq? Saudi Arabia? Has anyone given YOU a first hand account of the bombing of the barracks which killed your men in Saudi Arabia? I have witnesses that it was intentional. What about all that "precision surgical" bombing that hit only civilian centers and left all the military installations intact including the nuclear centers? What about those cannon's of Bull's? Who is Bull? No Bull? It is time you stopped all the bull!

CASKETS OPENED

During last year's return of remains, each casket was opened at the demilitarized zone by the North Koreans, who related pertinent information about the contents. Then a small wooden box placed next to each coffin was opened to display and inventory any personal effects of the dead.

The remains of hundreds of American POW's who died in communist captivity at the so-called Camp No. 5, which was located along the Yalu River which separates North Korea from Red China, are known to be buried in cemeteries near the death camp.

Negotiations to allow a U.S. team to excavate the graves broke down two years ago after the North Koreans were linked to the terror bombing of a South Korean Air plane over Burma.

The North Koreans readily admit that the graves contain the bodies of American servicemen who died while in captivity. Well, bargaining chips are bargaining chips, I suppose, and cover-up seems to be the accepted manner of governmental service. Only now, the cover-up is of the most massive opium trail of heroin in the world. If this is YOUR idea of justice and humanism then I want none of your humanism and, furthermore--you had best wait around for that fabulous rapture that the evangelists offer you for dripping the blood of the Christ on your lily-whites. Your Cosmic Brotherhoods want none of you who function in this heinous manner aboard any of their incredible and honored craft.

When your government does these things in your very faces and you can still be made to think it is some little gray aliens from under Area 51 holding the poor innocents hostage--I pity you!

SO, LET'S LOOK AT LAOS

Welcome to another scam-sham.

U.S. efforts to account for prisoners of war and missing in action of the Vietnam War in the neighboring Vietnamese puppet state of Laos are a bigger sham.

There was at least one undercover-agent that is named who went in personally and uncovered the rat's nest. There are others but they are still working, so let's protect them. Let us just talk about one little group from Kingston, North Carolina where the national Homecoming II Project is based. They were able to insert into Laos a private investigator disguised as a minister representing a church group supposedly interested in undertaking a missionary project in the tiny remote nation.

Dennis Daly of Hubert, North Carolina posed as a minister for United Evangelical Ministries International, which was created by Homecoming II. He spent two weeks in Laos seeking leads as to the location of any imprisoned American servicemen. He also evaluated the activities of the U.S. Embassy in the Laotian capital of Vientiane to determine the fate of more than 600 Americans who are still listed as missing in Laos. I am now asked if this is his Real identity? Would I tell you? Thank you.

VISA SCAM

Daly's efforts began with his discovery of a scam being conducted by the Laotian government in issuing visas to Americans who desire to visit the Southeast Asian state.

The normal procedure in obtaining a visa is to apply at the nation's embassy or a consulate.

At the Laotian Embassy in Washington, however, Daly was told he would have to contact Lao-American Inc., located at 338 S. Hancock Ave. in Elgin, Illinois.

Upon calling Lao-American, Daly was told that he would have to write a letter outlining his request and his reasons for wanting to visit Laos.

In the letter, Daly said his church was interested in humanitarian work, particularly in setting up a clinic in Laos to determine the effect the U.S. dropping of the defoliant Agent Orange during the war had on the Laotian people.

LETTER WAS TOO LONG

Daly was told by return mail that his letter was too long and that he should write a shorter one. He was also told to send $35 for the visa, which would go to the Laotian Embassy, $17.50 for postage to send the visa, an actual cost of less than $2, and $50 for Lao-American, for providing the service.

How and why the U.S. State Department allows the Laotian government to operate such an obvious scam, contrary to all international laws and procedures to issue visas, is not known.

In any case, after a stopover in Bangkok, Thailand, Daly reached Vientiane, Laos, on April 19.

On the second day of his visit Daly visited the U.S. Embassy, where he was shocked to discover that there was no active effort at the embassy to seek the missing Americans, contrary to what U.S. government officials have led the American public to believe.

CRASH SITE MAP

He was taken into a room behind the receptionist's area, where he saw a map on the wall marked with the crash sites of downed U.S. aircraft. The map indicated that three of the sites, out of dozens, had been excavated by joint U.S.-Laotian teams seeking remains of U.S. servicemen and one was marked as having been surveyed for excavation.

The American public has been led to believe that the excavations have been far more extensive.

He asked the agricultural specialist if he could take a picture of the map. The man indicated that he couldn't and that they should not even be in the room.

In any case, Daly determined during that visit and subsequent visits that there was no staff at the embassy assigned to seek information about missing American POW's or MIA's.

On a later visit to the embassy, Daly revealed to officials that he was not in Laos only for missionary work but to seek information about U.S. POW's and MIA's on behalf of his senator, Jesse Helms, who was undertaking an investigation of the POW-MIA issue as the ranking minority member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

A key Helms staffer later followed up with a letter outlining that Daly was making inquiries on behalf of the Senate probe.

Daly suddenly found that the atmosphere of the embassy had turned very, very cool, and a request to view the embassy's non-classified files on POW's and MIA's was refused flatly, with the comment that if Helms himself asked to view such files he would get the very same response.

Daly also discovered that upon leaving the embassy he had suddenly picked up a "tail", that someone was now following him, in fact two someones.

POLICE AT HOTEL

Upon returning to the hotel, Daly found a member of the Laotian Immigration Police awaiting him.

His visa was examined by the policeman and he was asked a series of questions about his reasons for being in the country.

The policeman left after making certain that Daly was aware that his visa would not be extended and that he would have to leave the country on May 4--or else.

Daly also discovered that he had a "tail" everywhere he went until he left Laos.

The Homecoming II agent found it almost impossible to get out into the countryside, beyond Vientiane, although he did manage to visit a lake north of the city. It was of interest because islands on the lake had been used for communist "re-education camps". He found that they were no longer in use.

Homecoming II officials said that Daly's visit, in addition to exposing as a sham U.S. Embassy efforts to account for American servicemen missing in Laos, allowed him to establish numerous contacts sympathetic to the POW-MIA cause.

We are out of space so I will mention only one more item and then close this message. For you in this particular location who witnessed the flash from Edwards on or about 4:00-4:30 A.M. a morning or so ago--yes, it was an effort to launch a rocket which would link systems with the missile launched from the aircraft off Monterey earlier.

Both were blasted away by Cosmospheres--I care not what you are told about misorbiting satellites and sycophants. The two "taken-out" pieces of equipment were to be in conjunction with the present shuttle project. You will note the shuttle had its usual SUDDEN problems with circuits, etc., while they scramble and re-scramble plans. Things are just not going well with your war! But you better not put away those yellow ribbons for the one in the Middle East, with Israel stirring the pot, is a biggie.

What will you be told about the missile blast at Edwards test grounds? Nothing, and very, very few will even inquire for hardly anyone even took note and yet, it looked exactly as if the sun were coming forth--at 4:30 A.M.

I did not mean to appear evasive on the yesterday when queried regarding the matter--it was simply not the time nor place to make explanation--until it was decided what would be done with the shuttle launch. So be it. Thank you, John.

God bless you, little ones. You are broken and confused but you are awakening and when you are alert and well awake so that it is feasible--we will help you fix it. Salu.

Hatonn to clear.

7/21/91 #1 HATONN BRIEF COMMENTS

Please note that which is being presented to the Arab world and offered to Israel. I need not comment on what WILL happen but I want you to see what is already transpiring. The new "offer" to Israel is to "freeze" building on the occupied territories--those places where they were forbidden to build. Is that not like having a bank robber who has now killed 30 of 40 people in a bank robbery and now you say it is OK if you don't kill any more, we will pay you some more to not kill any more and you can keep all the bank holdings in addition.!!? Why do you think the delays in negotiations and the incredible speed with which Israel has stolen land by the hundreds of acres every week and started massive building of at least infrastructure? If they have everything in place and the land stolen and then you "freeze" further building but you already have everything--what are you doing? What are you allowing? Well, your Secretary of State has authority to sell the U.S. down the tubes, dear brothers--hook, line and baited sinker.

POW INVESTIGATION

Aren't you in comfort this day? There will be 25 government/Pentagon investigators sent to look into possibility of living prisoners in Vietnam. Is Col. Gritz one of the investigators? How about Col. Peck? How can you stomach this type of treason and execution tactics? And moreover, "they will do it around August", for they say now, "...these things take time!" Time? Is not over two decades enough "time"? What about the interim "time" allowed to "kill" the remaining prisoners so that they CANNOT talk?

How many of you have seen the production original docudrama called "DOUBLECROSS" on HBO? This is an "average" movie about Barry Seals--of whom I have written recently--involved with the CIA and drugs in Nicaragua, Panama, etc. It covers nicely the participation of ones you recognize, pretty well to keep them "hidden"--but ALL of you should see it--I SPEAK OF CONFIRMATION OF TRUTH! DO NOT WAIT UNTIL YOU ARE DEAD AND THERE IS NO RETURN OR RECOURSE. GET OFF YOUR DUFFS AND DEMAND THOSE PRISONERS BE BROUGHT HOME! YOU MUST ALL FACE WHAT YOUR NATION HAS BECOME! IS THIS TREASON?! ABSURD--THE TREASONISTS ARE THE ONES WHO HAVE MURDERED, THIEVED and DESTROYED YOUR NATION AND PEOPLE THROUGH THE LIES AND CONTROLLED DECEIT--SOLD YOUR NATION DOWN THE DRAIN--THOSE ARE THE TREASONISTS! WAKE UP! They have misled you so long that you respond in helplessness for you truly do not know that which to do--so find out how and where you can serve--there are now many groups about your nation working day and night specifically on these points. America West doesn't even pretend to know them all but they will direct you to someone who can further direct you if you have no resources. I, further, ask that a listing of involved groups be available for reference and then those ones can further reference and direct to suitable working groups, i.e., Constitutional Law Center, Constitution '90, FACTS, Patriots, Corporations, Investments, etc. People cannot serve and participate if they know not where to go to join in unity. Perhaps YOUR purpose is to be one of "directing traffic"--it is as blessed as any other! The "least" is that which is accepted most wondrously from Creator. Thine "intent" is thine passage. So be it.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

MURDER BY ATOMIC SUICIDE

Technical And Spiritual Disclosure Of The Secrets Of How, Why, What, Where, When And Who Of The Universe And Its Functional Projections PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. IV

By Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

ATON (GOD) gives us a very special 28 page introduction in this 33rd book of our PHOENIX JOURNAL series.

This book is a very special book for it tells us the minute details of what radiating atoms really are (NOT WHAT MOST OF OUR SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN TELLING US) and why in particular certain atoms are to be left in their natural state within the ground or we and all living things on this planet will die as a result of our violating nature's processes of preparing a planet for life as we know it.

Germain tells us of several actual nuclear plant meltdowns and how the hosts (stationed in star-ships above us) brought them under control to save Earth from destruction, WHILE RISKING THEIR OWN DESTRUCTION.

GERMAIN ALSO EXPLAINS IN DETAIL THE SUPREME MYSTERY OF LIFE AND DEATH, AND DEFINES GOD IN DETAIL.

The nuclear contamination problem is detailed and our only method of solving the problem is given.

Included in this book are several charts and many figures to help the reader to understand these concepts, THE MOST IMPORTANT CONCEPTS EVER GIVEN TO MAN BY GOD (ATON)!

Included in this book are several charts and many figures to help the reader to understand these concepts, THE MOST IMPORTANT CONCEPTS EVER GIVEN TO MAN BY GOD!

Hatonn also keeps us well informed about the details of the political, economical and geopolitical happenings and the TRUTH about what is taking place on our Mother Earth, which the Elite try to keep well hidden.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION:

THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

RADIO SHOW

July 27, 1991, 7-9 AM KNRY
1240 AM Monterey, CA
KEST 1450 AM San Francisco,
KOBO 1450 AM Sacramento, CA

SEMINAR

Saturday, July 27 9:30 AM-5:30 PM $25 (includes a copy of SPACEGATE at the Hyatt, 4219 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, CA., Speakers Lt. Col. Bo Gritz, On The CIA/Drug Trade, Takai Anagoston, M.D. on Surviving the AIDS Plague, Cyril Minett on Exposing the New World Order and George and Desiree Green on Surviving the Economic Conspiracy.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix

Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING

EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume). Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 1

7/26/91 HATONN
FRIDAY

Dharma,--peace. Hatonn present, chela, to sit for a moment in communion; let us calm the troubled waters, for you are allowing the waves to flow over you. One step at a time is that which we must take--just one step at a time. We will look at priorities and sort of the load. I am here and we shall do of it together. ALL must understand that we have hundreds of responses awaiting these fingers--PLEASE, listen within for we are sharing most personally, in communion and answers are as close as your breath. We are in a state of pressured overload here and she cannot sort and function. This happens to all of you--so, now is a good time to bring to your attention, the actions which you need learn to utilize. STOP! Now, go within and calm yourself. Back off and regroup--WHAT IS REALLY IMPORTANT TO THE MOMENT? Always choose that action which is directly relative to SOUL FUNCTION! ALL PHYSICAL THINGS CAN WAIT--EXCEPT BREATH, AND EVEN THAT CAN WAIT LONGER THAN YOU REALIZE. AS WE WRITE THIS DAY--KEEP THIS POINT EVER UPPERMOST IN MIND, PLEASE.

We do have some which I promised to handle in example and we will take that one. However, our time these days is contingent upon that which Germain can allow us for you readers must know--we are producing a full book every two weeks and a minimum of a twelve page EXPRESS each week. Every word has to flow through these hands and Dharma's stamina begins to fail.

At this point we MUST ask help and understanding. We can begin by taking a part of the load that is support of the daughter in care in Bakersfield. Debbie Campbell. She will be starting a group rehabilitation program when she returns at the middle of next month which will include the Germain suggestions, integrated with that which you call the 12 step program. It is the child who feels unworthy to attempt such a magnificent job for you can feel quite alone in your world of problems and we must learn to reach out and give loving touch to those who attempt great tasks in the midst of their own burdens--but that is the way the burdens become gifts and the unity of the "team" becomes the joy of the ages--the learning of Love expression.

When the adversary wants to stop a person from their appointed task--where does he go? He goes directly to the very thing that will touch the very soul--the loved ones of the family group. Dharma has been hit with every attack from child suicide to addictions to - - -. We remain calm, strong and bring the injured fledgling into responsible contribution--but meanwhile, we serve, we love and we continue our work while we allow the individual to play out their portion in their own way--so that they can realize the difference. It becomes living example of God.

So, if you readers will pen a note on a card--a grocery sack--anything, just to say I love and support you and send it to Deb, then Dharma can relinquish more time unto the WORK. Thank you. Deborah Campbell, Cedar Women's Center, Bakersfield, CA. 93301. She can be reached there until the 15th of August after which, mail can be forwarded or delivered through America West.

Now, Dharma, we have solved that one, let us look at the next which troubles you--"Jackie". I said that I would look at a listing of her thoughts and we would share them physically together--for only she (with other precious ones) can choose and act. I can only point out some observations regarding that which she outlays for my "physical" consideration--for in this method of communication--I shall not act in any other category for if you ask in the physical format you are limited by the physical and I desire that you see that clearly--YOU LIMIT POSSIBILITIES IF YOU DO NOT CONTINUE BEYOND INTO THE ALL KNOWING. BUT THIS IS GOOD FOR INTERIM BRIDGE BUILDING AND, AFTER ALL, THAT IS WHERE WE ARE.

You readers will recall that I received a letter which was filled with petition and great pain of decision making. Relationships floundering because of pressures of business which is in trouble--lack of time and lack of funds--TYPICAL, I THINK!

I asked her to do several things and she immediately did her part. She carefully wrote observations from as abstract a position as possible and then responded with ten ideas for improvement etc.

This particular business, we will say for privacy and example, is a pet care operation. So let us walk through the possibilities as she has had some time to ponder. Actually all she actually asks of me now is a response for she knows that which is most suitable for action--but like all, she is not sure she has thought of all facets. In addition, what I told her was that we would be writing a book wherein we can give you examples and help for problem solving in logical approach. Perhaps we can simply integrate it into Germain's current series of Pleiadian Connections and not distract from the importance of his subject of universal KNOWING. Man cannot live by KNOWLEDGE alone--for it is of no value unless man ACTS and in the ACTING comes need for wise decisions. Let us see how it can unfold and save the scribe as much as possible from scattered fragments and changes.

Next, we need the EXPRESS presented for the current update on what is happening. Dharma, since the meeting of the weekend is so important and it has taken the staff--let us do it later or tomorrow since it cannot be sent before Monday at any rate. Then, let us plan a meeting for Tuesday afternoon for we will have beloved visitors and we will want a debriefing of activities to the North. I ask you to hold our beloved ones in constant safety for it is a STRONG and most unpopular group giving this seminar. The current MIA-POW situation is adding incredible pressure to silence Col. Gritz and George is still in the targeting by the one who called and promised to assassinate him. Out of sight is NOT out of mind--and neither must it be for you ones--KEEP THE SHIELDS INTACT! YOU ARE, DHARMA, ALREADY TARGETED THIS MORNING--PAY ATTENTION SO THAT WE DO NOT ALLOW THE BLOWING-OUT OF YOUR COMPUTER AS WE HAD TO DO A COUPLE OF DAYS AGO. PAY ATTENTION AND ACT INSTANTLY WHEN WE WRITE TO YOUR ATTENTION. I KNOW IT IS DIFFICULT FOR YOU TO FOCUS AND TAKE NOTE--BUT WE MUST ATTEND THIS ATTACK OPERATION. YOU ARE SAFE, ALL OF YOU, AS LONG AS YOU REMAIN IN THE LIGHTED SHIELD FREQUENCY. THE ONLY WAY YOU ATTAIN THAT FREQUENCY WHICH COUNTERS THE BLASTED PULSES IS TO BE REMAINING IN LIGHTED CONTACT. SO BE IT FOR THE SCIENCE LESSON THIS MORNING.

This recent surge of activity is still cycling around the world situation, atomic war probabili-ties and your Space Program which is in total devastation. Bush had to call off the Shuttle Program for you have forfeited all your backup shuttles and have none to fill in--the stand-by was blasted out of existence this past week--and some of you saw it! Blessed are ye who pay attention! We will cover this briefly in the EXPRESS.

NOW TO THE PROBLEM SOLVING

Dharma, copy and we will then comment. Place the letter in italics and I will respond in regular print, to save time at the keyboard.

7/19/91--Dear Hatonn,

Thank you for your speedy response to my request regarding solving business problems. I gave your letter much consideration and really pondered the questions you asked of me. I finally had a few moments to myself over last weekend to listen to the tapes (special thanks for those!) and to THINK about our situation and do the exercises you asked of me.

The following is a summary:

WHAT IS OUR PROBLEM?

*Too much overhead, too little income.
No shared personal time; too much time on business with little or no reward.
Constant confusion and frustration.*

WHAT IS THE WORST THAT COULD HAPPEN?

*Bankruptcy; lose our business and all the hard work we've put into it.
Loss of income could cause us to lose our home and personal property.
Failure*

WHAT IS THE BEST THAT COULD HAPPEN?

Business would be profitable and attractive to a buyer should we choose to sell.
Financial security; able to live comfortably.
Feeling of success and accomplishment.

WHAT ARE IDEAS FOR IMPROVEMENT?

Reduce expenses, increase income.
Reduce ALL unnecessary expenditures.
Sell property; move to smaller location.
Design promotions that would increase income with little or no cash investment.
Get more for our money from employees; better management.
Do a better job of managing money.
Spend more time on those areas of the business that bring in the most revenue, less on those that do not.
Set aside more time for brainstorming and following through on ideas and goals.

WHAT IS OUR PRODUCT?

Pet Care Services and Supplies.

WHAT IS OUR MARKET?

Mid- to high income families that can afford to spend money on their pets. Middle age to older adults.

WHAT IS OUR INTENT?

To provide quality care and services for our client's pets. To educate the general public about dogs, their behavior and how to handle and train them properly. To educate the public about the need to respect our animals and treat them with love and kindness. To provide products that pet owners need and want.

TEN POSITIVE THINGS ABOUT THE BUSINESS

1. We help people and their pets.
2. We have a good client base.
3. We have a steady income.
4. We have a good location with potential for growth.
5. We have the support of our family--financially and emotionally.
6. We have THE best dog trainer/-behaviorist in the area.
7. We have the opportunity to share our business together.
8. We have an excellent kennel manager we can always depend on.
9. We have an excellent reputation in the community.
10. We have a good base for developing other business interests.

WHAT ARE TEN NEGATIVE THINGS ABOUT "NOW".

1. Can't pay debts on time; builds interest and more debts.
2. Employees not motivated, difficult for us to be motivated.
3. TOO MUCH STRESS!
4. Too much overhead, taxes, payroll, etc., etc.
5. Not enough time; poorly managed?
6. No money to invest in order to promote business and increase revenue.
7. We owe too much money, too many old debts.
8. No security - what will happen, where will we go?
9. Too little time to spend together.
10. Feel that we have lost control of our destiny to the banks, employees, etc.

WHAT ARE TEN SOLUTIONS TO THE PROBLEMS?

1. Merge our business with another business of same type.
2. File bankruptcy.
3. Attempt to sell business to an outside buyer.
4. Try to get a consolidation loan to pay off old debts and possibly reduce interest; pay off in monthly installments
5. Eliminate all expenditures that are not absolutely necessary to keep the business running.
6. Raise prices.
7. Cut back on staff and get the most from those left.
8. Sell building and move to smaller, more economical location.
9. File chapter 13 & and re-organize; set schedule for paying off debts within 2-3 years.
10. Look at services & products we could add to bring in more.
(I had more than ten answers to all three of these questions!!)

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO GO ON?

Yes. I would like to work on the problems and build a business that we could market as profitable at a point in the future. However, if the whole concept is hopeless I would rather get out now and start again.

IS THIS A BUSINESS THAT COULD SURVIVE A DE-PRESSED ECONOMY?

Probably. Even when money is tight, people will still need to care for their pets. Many pets are considered family and those pet owners will still need supplies, food and healthcare for them.

WHAT WOULD "SUCCESS" MEAN?

*Financial security.
More comfortable lifestyle.
Personal growth and achievement.
Satisfaction of knowing we are helping people and their pets.*

Hatonn, I really must thank you for compelling me to honestly think about our situation. When I cleared my mind and asked for guidance the thoughts and ideas came very easily to me. I understand that I must learn to release my fears and confusion in order to progress. I also understand that I must be more focused on problem solving instead of just the problems. I know that I must learn to allow God's guidance.

I wonder if you heard my thoughts as I worked through this? I think perhaps my thoughts were guided somewhat. I would appreciate any further guidance or ideas you might give me. I'm sure that others are at the same stage of "knowing" as I and would benefit from your wisdom regarding clearing of one's space and learning to "listen" to God's guidance for working through problems.

Again, many thanks. I look forward to further communication with you. Sincerely, Jackie.

RESPONSE

God blesses you child, for your sharing. May we please take it one step at a time as we look at possibilities. I can point out a few things I see right off.

You do not mention your mate except in the abstract, which matters not--but I will be as explicit as I can without detailed information--for we are working as if I know NOTHING MORE THAN ANY READER HEREIN.

NUMBER ONE: You care greatly for your partner and we can assume it is responsive since you refer to continuation of the relationship in betterment.

This relationship is obviously frustrating you greatly for you are feeling guilty for non-performance in some manner and while you tell me that you "have too little time to spend together" while you also tell me that a benefit is that you work together.

Now, the relationship is more important than all the money in the kingdom! You have support of your families; but that statement also indicates a great burden of responsibility to not fail them. So, consult with them. Since you do not give me your ages, it must be assumed that if the family assists--it is apparent you are not older than the hills. That means that if this is an ongoing and loving relationship--you will have family ties and responsibilities which shall be "growing" and not shrinking in magnitude.

I am sorry you didn't give me ALL the answers your brain furnished, within reason of course, for I only requested a MINIMUM of ten. I want you to realize you have many, many alternatives and options.

You must learn, first of all, what is really meant by a relationship and "time spent with another". You can spend all of the TIME in the world together trying to be all to each other and meet all needs--but that usually means frustration piled upon frustration in trying to meet another's needs when your own soul is crying out for relief.

First--STOP. Look at WHAT you consider is missing--AND IF IT IS A THING OF THE "FLESHLY PHYSICAL"--IT DOES NOT NEED IMMEDIATE TENDING. IF YOUR EMOTIONAL INNER BEING IS BEING SHREDDED--TEND IT NOW! Do you need more time for LOVING--or MAKING LOVE? I suggest you ponder this one more carefully than all the other questions--for human always confuses that which is physical and that which is LOVE. There is nothing that surpasses the joy and pleasure than the seeking of unified "goals"--and it has nothing to do with the bedroom. YOU MUST BE REAL FRIENDS--FIRST! I ask not whether or not your physical relationship is strong enough to endure--WILL YOUR "FRIENDSHIP" ENDURE?

Now, you have a basis and foundation from which to proceed with MATURITY--AT WHATEVER AGE. LET US JUST ASSUME THAT YOU SAID YES.

Next observation: You indicated at several places--"bankruptcy", etc. Does that seem horrid to you? You say you owe too much to the banks, etc., and see no way out of the interest, debts and thus and so.

I am going to give you a bit of a lecture as if I were your financial consultant.

The use of bankruptcy is a tool being used by the biggest corporations in your world. It is a built-in two way back-scratching scheme to cover both the bank (lender) and the consumer (borrower). Don't allow ego pride to get into this equation. Let us look at TOOLS which are legal and set up by your own government--why should you not use that which is provided for YOUR stability?

Without knowing another thing about your plight--I suggest you get on the phone to Oberli and start a home corporation in Nevada. Let Cort or Oberli or someone tell you how it works.

Now, do not put another cent into the business you have--let it go deeper and deeper in debt. If you are incorporated, all the better. Now, begin silently doing all business through the corporation in Nevada--ALL OF IT. In fact, get more and more in debt to that Nevada corporation.

Do not issue stock in the Nevada corporation, do not put your name on it--allow it to be officered by outsiders for you cannot be traced to ownership of it. Then ABSOLUTELY consider total bankruptcy of both the business and selves. You can clear your selves and get on your feet--no matter what your next business endeavor might be. You can retain side silent agreements (verbally) to repay family, etc. The banks and lending houses write off loans for far more than the interest you are paying so don't consider yourselves deadbeats. Moreover, if your families are willing to back you in business as, for instance, co-signers, etc., then you will be in good shape with your new corporation. Now, however, if they are already co-signers on loans--clear it up first or they will be held responsible. These are things which must be tended on an individual basis.

I urge you to NOT go to your local legal eagle nor bookkeeper--for they will tell you this cannot be done. Ones also once thought the world was flat--so be it. Wisdom is your support--not those who tell you "it can't be done". Find out!

This is the most effective way to remove yourself from their system of chains and shackles yet found. You start clean and "behind" and you can even be lost to the IRS if you handle your business carefully. You have just discovered the golden egg, children, not the rotten one.

As to the type of business, location, etc. Those are up to you--HOWEVER--look with open eyes without rose-colored glasses. You are headed for a depressed time like none before known to man. This is not expressed by etheric beings without confirmation--look around at the tremendous numbers out of work already and an economy slipping into collapse.

If you can get enough assistance and your absolute goal to end all goals is to work with pets, about the only way you can sustain through massive depression is by one or both becoming veterinarians. Yes, man will need to tend, feed, etc., his pets--but no matter what your heart might say--the first to go will be the grooming and pet specialty operations.

I realize that I make it sound simple, cut and dried. No, and there are many things to consider such as the value of the home which you fear you might lose, etc. But these are then things which CAN be considered in the making of the ultimate decision for action.

Then, when you reach the most optimum decision--TAKE ACTION. Don't sit and worry at it--DO IT.

I am remiss, perhaps, in touching only on these points--but let us keep the focus on what IS and the only WHAT IFS allowed in the start-up reasoning are those of possible solutions. Do not WHAT IF the problem for it ONLY IS! Example: What if it had rained yesterday? Well it didn't so the ground is still dry and you need to water the garden. So, WHAT IF, it MIGHT rain day after tomorrow? The garden would be lost. Look at what IS and know there is a solution of perfection. If you always place the solution within the joint integration of God and you--you will find the one that projects you into growth and reward. If you leave God out of it--you will continue in decline and confusion. READ THE JOURNALS COMING FORTH RIGHT NOW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE--WE ARE GIVING YOU THE HOW, WHY, WHAT, WHO, ETC., OF THE UNIVERSE AND GOD.

Until the books are out--we can only apply bandaids to the wounds until we can get to the "body cast" needed. But, if you take proper steps now to begin to bring yourselves into security, you will be ready for the actions toward real growth. It must be through GIVING and REGIVING.

Jackie, you will find that when you sit to reason together in wisdom instead of fear of failure, or, or, or--you will regain CONTROL and your thought processes will open up and flow and the vision will clear and the challenge will become the joy toward the goal--and not the death march.

I will ask Cort to ponder the possibilities herein involved in the business as corporation possibilities and he can speak with Nevada contacts and let us see what we might have to show you--they need the exercise, also, for the ONLY intent here, is to serve and these are the kinds of problems which shall overflow the lands.

Do not limit yourselves to this one adventure--look carefully at the things you could do with the same loving care invested in that which you now do. As a team, your possibilities become without limits. If PROPER VALUES are placed in sequence of spiritual connection with and through God--and the last on the list is the thing of flesh--you will make correct decisions for it is the way of the cycle--ALWAYS. If God be first--the rest will follow as surely as day from dark. This is not an alien concept to you or you certainly would NOT be writing TO ME! But, if BOTH of you are not attuned--you have bigger problems for God said that you shall place none before Him.

NEXT STEP

You have just gone through what can be called phase one. That's when an idea drops or flashes into the mind and becomes real. It is a gift through faith from God--Ideas are God-self in action. All things come forth from God-Idea (thought) and this is expression of your Godness--your thought projection placed forth for manifestation/creation.

Take the gift in confidence of self to either be discarded or considered or acted upon as your wisdom points direction. YOU TAKE CONTROL OF THE IDEA. I warn you, most people never make it past phase one. The light bulb bursts or burns out on the spot--or as with a chicken and the egg--the egg comes but is never "hatched" and so, rots in the nest. The idea just swishes through without being given serious consideration.

Lack of self-confidence kills the potential miracle-working faster than any other one thing on earth. Faith is indeed most fragile at birth.

Let's consider possibly changing of careers. This especially is a real "basket-case maker" if at mid- or older-life. Most will come to consider it an impossibility. Well, you somehow chose your first one or got stuck with it! So, what is new? Part of this insecurity or lack of self-confidence is because you tend to develop a negative self-image, based on your low position on the ladder of life. People think that if they were really brilliant, they would be president of something or other. If you were appointed president of a major corporation today, what would that do to your self-confidence?

I would suggest that that should not be your focus--first you need to make things "work" for you--you don't need such headaches before you understand your values.

Faith begins when you begin to believe in the ideas that God sends to you. Greatness does not depend upon your position in life, but upon your respect of the positive ideas that flow into your imagination!

The truth is that the one considered "bottom-of-the-ladder" person is potentially as creative, or moreso, than is the top executive who sits in the big office--educated beyond knowledge or appointed for all the wrong reasons, etc., usually having reached his level of incompetence far below the status level of his self-proclaimed stature. It is rare indeed, in this day and age, that a man makes it to the top in God's service and unbending value systems which place God first. But what perfection and example is given forth when this happens.

Now, in the case of Jackie-- note, great honor, love and appreciation is given to those who work with her. So, let them participate in solution finding. If they have the fundamental qualities which you admire--their potential for offering positive input is wondrous. Their needs are much involved with your own--let them help decide and if the decision is even drastic enough to "close the business", they are informed and can understand "why"--the least that can be offered to your fellow-workers. You see, every person is creative, but most people don't believe in their own creativity. When you treat another as the creative Being which he is, he will come up with solutions because all ones desire to be included. Virtually every human being has equal creative POTENTIAL. BUT POTENTIAL IS NAUGHT UNTIL SET INTO MOTION!

So, if all are about equal in potential for creativeness, why isn't the "average" person more creative? No matter how complex the answer, one simple reason dominates. Basically, people do not believe that they are creative. Because nobody has ever told them they are creative, they have never tried to be so. Give respect to another and you cannot measure the return. The tendency is not to do anything about the incredible ideas that come to your minds. If you are in a difficult situation--you toy and worry and worry and toy with it--almost working at NOT utilizing IDEAS--REAL IDEAS. When you find that somebody else has turned an idea into a great success, you may lament to yourselves--I thought about that once, why didn't I do something about it?

People are brilliant if only they believe in their own ideas. Most human beings have the same basic brain capacity. The difference, of course, is the attitude that a person has toward his own ideas. So--take an idea, develop it and then with good reason--you can evaluate it.

The habit of modern man, however, it to first say, "Tell me what you want, and I'll try to do it." (Especially if the man is trying to sell his product or service.) Then, you settle down and present an idea which is out of the norm--oops, you get EVERY reason why it won't work. Because a so-called "expert" says it won't work--doesn't mean the breath it took to say it. If it hasn't been done then all the better--it is time it is done if it brings positive enhancement to humanity--if the idea came--it CAN BE ACHIEVED. REMEMBER? WHAT THE MIND CAN CONCEIVE--IT CAN ACHIEVE.

No idea seems to come with benefit of perfection for what would be the purpose of that? It may well be perfect--but you won't recognize it until you give your attention unto it. Ideas have a way of showing up with a few concomitant problems which require you to think upon it. But trust that the positive potential in an idea is powerful enough to merit your continued support until you can put it aside in wisdom or see that with further care it can be nurtured into manifestation.

I ask you to hold this information in top of the entropy pile availability for it is going to fit hand in glove with the WAY OF MANIFESTATION which we are bringing forth right now. YOU MUST COME INTO KNOWING SO THAT YOUR FAITH IS BASED ON ACTUAL REALITY OF THAT WHICH IS--IN RELATIONSHIP WITHIN THE LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION.

As you have made your list of possibilities--TEST THEM. Faith's second phase is the testing phase. No person plunges recklessly and irresponsibly ahead with EVERY idea that moves through his brain. Ideas must be tested by asking the questions that rise out of your own value system. Decision-making is easy if there are NO CONTRADICTIONS IN YOUR VALUE SYSTEM.

It is easy to make major decisions at the snap of a finger IF you know the questions you have to ask to get reliable raw data as answers. A positive idea implies questions like: "Is this really necessary?" "Is it really a human need-filling idea?" "Can it be inspiring to others?"

How do you test ideas that come into your mind? Try this primary inquiry: Will my faith, acted upon and firmly embraced, cause my life and my activity to be an inspiration to somebody else to become a better person or to achieve more in his life? The truth is, everybody is an inspiration to somebody else. Suddenly difficult times become good times when your positive reaction becomes an inspiration to others. Everybody can be an inspiration to somebody else.

Let us look now at commitment. When you make a choice and begin to manifest idea--you must have commitment or it is not worth the paper upon which you wrote the idea. And remember, you can only HAVE THE NOW. Look ever at that which you perceive as "time" in its correct perspective as it applies to you and this physical life-span. There will never be another NOW--make the most of today--the moment.

There will never be another you in this gifting--make the most of yourself--now.

I could go on, but I think I will just summarize a bit and let it go for this writing for so much is in the coming forth that this will become redundant. But you need look at a series of things to act upon in any given situation.

Review that which is past. Look at your expectations, relationships and the problem itself. Not that you can change it nor are you to dwell in it--but the past is filled with lessons to be garnered and held precious.

Goals can be like the proverbial needle in the haystack. Look unto the goals which you have had and consider if you might fit the description of Shakespeare when he wrote: "You shall seek all day until you find them, and when you find them they are not worth the search." Too often goals rise from a defective VALUE SYSTEM. And the energy to remain enthusiastic in life, marriage, and career is often drawn from the search and the hunt rather than from the final harvest and the ultimate ingathering. Check out that which you plant for you will surely reap harvest in KIND. Give careful review to intent then and now. If your intent be of selfish greed--that is what you will reap for your values are misplaced.

Examine all the possibilities. What would you do if you had the money, if you had the education, if you had the training, if you had the contacts, if you had more support base? What would you do? WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU HAD ALL THAT YOU "THINK" YOU WANT? What would you do if you knew you would have your wish and if you knew it could not fail? Check your priorities--would you sink into the luxury of physical manifestation--or-- would your values be good enough to give you LIFE? There are more possibilities than you think. Examine them.

Now, name the price you are willing to pay.

Are you willing to go to school for two or three years to gain more knowledge? If you cannot walk, say, are you willing to work through six to eight months of physical therapy if it would give you ability to walk again? NAME THE PRICE YOU ARE WILLING TO PAY--AND DISCERN WHETHER THE RESULT IS THE ACTUAL GOAL OF VALUE!!!

Elect the best possibility, no matter what the price--for if your value system is in order--YOU WILL CHOOSE PROPERLY.

Always be alert and be willing to be patient and work. Waiting is about the hardest thing that man can do. If he waits too long--he decides to do nothing and simply "wait" forever. But you must keep waiting, working, plodding, and maintaining patience through that which appears as dark times. But you must do so and in God's proper time, power and help will come your way as he responds to your petitions in the properness of a response to a petition of "thy will" and "for my best and highest good". He will honor that if sincerely offered and the "call compels the answer".

If you always hold in your heart an HONEST AND SINCERE PETITION, SO SHALL IT COME TO PASS---

HONEST AND SINCERE PETITION

"LORD, GIVE ME
THE GUIDANCE TO KNOW WHEN TO HOLD ON AND WHEN TO LET GO AND THE GRACE TO MAKE THE RIGHT DECISION WITH DIGNITY AND TRUTH, EVER IN YOUR WAY--EVER IN YOUR STRENGTH THAT I MAY SERVE AND THAT IN ALL THINGS YOUR WILL BE DONE
THROUGH ME THAT THAT WHICH I PASS ON IS WORTHY OF YOUR REFLECTION THROUGH ME AND IN ME. FOR, I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE."

ONE MORE PERSONAL SHARING BEFORE WE GO

Abide with brother and sister and great insight can flow. We had a visitor a few days past and we experienced together within the team in respite from our appointed tasks, to visit personally. It is always great joy when I can be invited in to share and on this particular day in point a J.H., and others with him, shared a few brief hours.

He left and we now have a letter and thoughts which are insightful and you might find them worthy of passing through your own thoughts.

The first of his cover note covered the greetings and appreciation for the "meeting" and I will begin the quoting from about mid-way: I am honored to share the experience. Blessings to All that expend their energies so unselfishly to bring forth the TRUTH. May I gain such strength to accomplish the same.

I am truly honored, Commander Hatonn, for the recognition you have bestowed upon me. I stand corrected in foolishly referring to "jugular veins" at the meeting. Now I refer to such as the "heart of the issue". I have so much to learn and in so little time. I am so honored to find the TRUTH. Words alone cannot describe the peace within.

This morning, the following idea came to me. Allow me to share this with ALL of you.....

July 21, 1991, "Authority Questioned", by J.H.

Is it that you must be an ordained mail order minister or have logged credits of study to certify and verify that what you say is of the WORD OF GOD? Must you obtain a permit by some regulatory agency of government to spread the WORD OF GOD? For a controlled media, YES!

I could not help but notice in the King James Version of the Holy Bible, The Gospel According to Matthew, The Genealogy of Jesus Christ 1:23: Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Was it not Saul, who came to Immanuel persecuting Him, but was renamed Paul, who called Immanuel, Jesus Christ in the Greek language meaning "the anointed"? Is this change of name not false knowledge that has been taught for thousands of generations? Did not Saul join with Juda Ihariorh, the son of the Pharisee, to betray Immanuel?

Who gave the high priest the authority? God? Was not the Pope, during WW-II, converted from Jew to Catholic to avoid the concentration camps? Who gave the evangelists the authority to sell the WORD OF GOD, to manipulate the people to SEND MORE MONEY BY SUCH AND SUCH TIME OR GOD WILL STRIKE EM' WITH LIGHTENING? The FCC, but are they of GOD? The Bible says this and that which seems to be reprinted in new versions for new interpretations--by whom? The high priests?

Whoever interprets the Scrolls, and prints new versions is not showing us the PROOF, WHY? WHY ALL THE SECRECY? Is it not to contain us in ignorance of truth in knowledge? FOR SHOULD WE LEARN THE TRUTH, WOULD WE NOT RID OURSELVES OF THOSE WHO FALSELY TEACH US? I begin to wonder after seeing the likes of Jimmy and Tammy Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, Jerry Falwell, Rockefeller, Bush, Baker, and Kissinger amongst others. Are not the people still consumed by their ignorance of ACTIONS BY THESE ONES TO ENSLAVE US IN A "NEW WORLD ORDER"?

What does it take for the people to admit to themselves that they must accept responsibility to recognize that which is of 'the lie' and gain the knowledge so they may have the wisdom? Are we not each an individual with God-given inalienable rights, our Bill of Rights, or are we so ingrained by 'The Lie' that we have forgotten that which is? Have we also forgotten our heritage that we are a Republic for which we stand, one nation under God? WHEN WILL WE THE PEOPLE WAKE UP AND STOP LIVING 'THE LIE'?

Is it not your God-given FREE WILL to choose? How shall it be, in ignorance until consumed by 'The Lie'?

"A FOOL WHO WAITS FOR 'FATE' TO ACT, WITHOUT DOING ANYTHING HIMSELF, PERISHES LIKE AN UNFIRED POT PLACED IN WATER."-PROVERBS, 'AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL' * I am Sananda', America West Publishers, 1-800-729-4131.

Thank you John. That which you share with your brother in love and giving--shall be returned in great measure and we are now sharing that this might become a Lighted place with the Lighted Presence of KNOWING.

The blessings of God rest upon you ones, as does the destiny of your people, your nation and your planet. In God all things are possible--let us not limit God's ability to turn about that which is about to pull you down--IF you turn unto HIM in TRUTH AND DESIRE FOR CHANGE. SO BE IT.

Let us leave this for it has grown indeed lengthy.

AU DAI PA DAI CUM--One that walks in oneness with the Spirit that is the Spirit which is God. One who walks with their hand in the hand which is the Hand of God. I AM and you call me Hatonn--will you come and walk with me? For I bear the Hand of God! Salu.

And what means "Salu"? It is a cosmic greeting recognizing the Eternal Portion within and expressing a desire to be in oneness with the Eternal Portion of another. And, "Salu, Salu, Salu" brings forth a cosmic triune that is the manifestation of the Creator thought in the oneness. ADONAI (God). Good day.

As I take leave, I MUST GIVE STRESS TO THE FOLLOW-

ING: The next volume of Pleiades Connection--No. V, is going to press on Monday or Tuesday next. It will come with two audio tapes. It is from Germain--IT IS THE MOST USEFUL AND IMPORTANT DOCUMENT THUS FAR OFFERED. WE ARE BRINGING YOU THE FULL WORKING MECHANISM OF UNIVERSAL OPERATIONS AND THE WHO, HOW, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN AND YOU--OF GOD. WE ARE DEFINING GOD AND TELLING YOU WHO YOU ARE AND HOW TO COMMUNE WITH THIS VERY REAL SOURCE. IT IS THE TIME OF COMING INTO TRUTH AND KNOWLEDGE AND PUTTING ASIDE OF THE THINGS OF MAGIC AND FOOLISH PRATTLINGS--IT IS THE TIME OF SORTING--MAY YOU BE WITHIN THE GRANARY AND NOT CAUGHT IN THE WINDS AS THE CHAFF FROM THE GLEANING ROOMS. This JOURNAL's title might give you enjoyment but it bears truth in interpretation--enjoy the humor and then, respond: It will be called PHONE HOME, E.T. REACH OUT AND TOUCH SOMEONE--LIKE GOD. So be it.

7/26/91 #3 HATONN
FRIDAY

Dharma, thank you for attending my call. It has been a long day but there needs be a bit more service before we leave the post.

Plea after plea comes unto me: "Can we save America?" "Isn't it already too late?" It depends.... It depends on who is willing to risk enough to rise in the face of that which is truly evil. Evil can have no power over an enlightened one in God. Are there ones remaining who are big enough? Oh indeed, indeed--but few.

There are many who have bits and pieces of greatness--but they grasp not their relationship with God and until one comes into understanding of his relationship within God, he cannot prevail for the enemy can pull him down.

There are hard facts to face as anyone faces possibilities of service, and I speak of "go for it ALL", service whatever the consequences--to serve Truth, honor, brotherhood, nation and planet--without stint nor compromise.

There are several who would serve well--but they cannot make the impact necessary nor glean the backing to thrust the spear to its mark.

It is hard for a Father to sit and opinion that step for his son which can lead to the pits of despair--for as in my knowing--physical death is the least of my children's burden. I shall have no more martyrs unto my cause for we are through with the primitive and evil games of the adversary. But I can see the glory beyond the passage and I can lift you up when the spirit lags and the spears fly.

Ones who ponder great decisions for service must turn within and reflect on that which has come before and realize the purpose of your journey thus far. That which was once great in respect and reverence has been pulled into shame and corruption and now becomes dangerous to any who would enter from the Lighted service of integrity.

Ones are, however, sent for purpose greater than the sum of their apparent existence in manifested human form. Ah, these ones do not appear "different" nor do they walk with pious stupid expressions upon their faces. They walk in dedication to brother and nation--a call to duty with a fearless knowledge of need of a floundering humanity for which they feel unworthy of the role--and yet the role has become that which is unworthy of my men.

I am asked if I would speak on this matter--and yet, I already have done so. The point is--how many of you readers who petition and petition for areas of service--if I ask you this moment if you will work--really work against a flow of corruption to elect a man to the highest office in your nation--will you do it? I MEAN REALLY DO IT? We have one who will, if asked--take that measure of stand for YOU--will you take the measure for him? 'Tis not for him nor his precious ones that I ask--I ask for God: WHAT ARE YOU WILLING TO DO TO BRING YOURSELVES AGAIN INTO THE LIGHT OF TRUTH? WHAT ARE YOU WILLING TO DO TO SET THIS PLANET TO BALANCE? IF AMERICA WILL DO IT, THE WORLD CAN THEN DO IT.

I will not, however, ask a man to serve in a hopeless cause for if you will not back God and His people who will stand against the odds, hand to the square in honor and respect for that which was great in this nation under your heavenly banner--then you deserve not that which is other than you bring upon selves.

We have one who will go the last mile for you for he has seen the beast devour the goodness from those who went forth and gave all for nation--swallowed in the jungles by the opium lords and sentenced to death in a distant hell in order to cover the bastardly deeds of greed and corruption. If he takes that step forward--WILL YOU TAKE IT BESIDE HIM?

This man is a patriot, having served his nation to the best of his ability at all costs, a soldier and one who holds the hand of God as companion. Oh, not in some silly robe of an evangelist--as a MAN in God's reflection without the silly trappings thrust upon a Godly person to suit the whims and reflections of man in his silliness.

Most within my teams know of whom I speak. I speak of James Gritz--Col. "Bo". The adversary, government, Pentagon, CIA and Mossad have all tried to take him out and yet he prevails and continues to bring Truth unto a sleeping nation and world--but son, more hear than you realize.

Now, I think I speak more directly to my own immediate team--what are you willing to do to back this man if he takes the step for Right? We have not even begun our work compared to the load you would be expected to carry to support this cause. But as you learn of CAUSE and EFFECT--you have opportunity to put your work where your mouth is!

Perhaps more important in this instance, to these ones locked in a target zone already--is that I STAND WITH THEM. THE WAY WILL NOT BE EASY--THE ATTACKS MOST TERRIBLE--BUT, YOU HAVE BEATEN THEM ONCE AND IF YOU BEAR THE LIGHT WITH TRUTH AS YOUR GOAL--THE TIME IS AT HAND FOR HEROIC MEN TO STEP FORWARD AND COMMAND.

Let us not play games of hide and seek and who has authority and who is a Commander and who a peon; who is an alien and who a robotoid--I AM ATON AND

I CARRY A LOT OF WEIGHT IN THE UNIVERSAL ORDER OF THINGS AND YOU ONES CAN DO THIS THING IF YOU WANT TO. IT MEANS THAT CITIZENS FACE THE TRUTH OF WHO AND WHAT IS GOD AND HOW THE UNIVERSE FUNCTIONS--IT IS TIME TO AWAKEN AND BE GAL-LANT. The greatest of men do not see themselves as great nor heroic. KNOW, BLESSED ONES--THE TIME OF GOD IS AT HAND AND YOUR EFFORTS IN THE CYCLE OF RETURN ARE UPON YOU--YOU WILL BEGIN NOW OR YE SHALL NEVER HAVE ANOTHER CHANCE UPON THIS PLANET. IT IS MAKE IT OR BREAK IT TIME. Do not misunderstand, it is only the first step of which we speak--for the snowball is begun by the pebble or the drop of ice and as long as the work is toward God--God shall allow and sustain. It is the time of revelation and coming into KNOWING.

I request that all information of the "Pleiades Connection" books be placed in James' hands for it matters not if he doesn't read the epics of truth regarding how it IS upon the corrupt side of mortal man but HE MUST REALIZE THE TRUTHS BEING BROUGHT UNTO YOU AS A SPECIES WHICH EXPLAINS AND DEFINES GOD AND CREATION--AND UNIVERSAL FUNCTION. THE TIME IS UPON YOU WHEN YOU MUST KNOW!

James, you have searched out the various "religions" in your seeking for Truth. You asked me personally if there be one left in Truth. Indeed, son, indeed--but it is not yet come about and we shall never call it "religion"--it is the dawn of Cosmic Consciousness and KNOWING of Source and Origin--beyond the myths and fables and within the very thought of God.

My being is pained at that which you will find when you "arrive" at that service--for the corruption is beyond even that which you can imagine from that which you have experienced and the circumstances are PLANNED to be in terrible plight if the adversary falls. But there is something that you must hold dear and that the adversary knows--IT ONLY REQUIRES A FEW GOODLY MEN TO LEAD--THE REST WILL FOLLOW AND THE WAY WILL BE OPENED FOR THE PASSAGE.

I ask that your mate study the material being brought forth now, by the teacher Germain, for he is responsible for that which was experienced by the Christos in his journey upon your place to bring Light and Truth--It is now the time and it will be heard.

Think not of the remarkable resource nor the strangeness of the source--is it stranger than this very conversation? Do you see--you will go into the history annals as one of the greatest men to walk among men and it only embarrasses you to consider such a thing. It is no different for the ones who have stood against the arrows to do this work and bring this message of God unto mankind--it is simply their appointed and committed purpose and they see not the greatness in the journey--only the need of its being done.

I wish to move away from this point to share another insight with you--a confirmation if you will.

POW-MIA

As you are thrust about in the tempest of the now recognized MIA-POW "scandal" let me outlay that which has not been printed and see how it lays across your shoulders of reason. The picture of the three men who are being the center of focus--has nothing to do with the raging tempest in this teapot.

The men are valid enough--the picture incredibly bad in its projection. The tampering is so blatant as to astound the senses for the trial at subterfuge--even the placard with the date is so obviously stupid that it is embarrassing. But--the important thing is that there are other pictures and ones involved in the more recent uncoverings find that all produced in the effort of finding truth is poured into the black hole of the CIA/PENTAGON. The important thing is to take care for if care is not attended the men will be slaughtered to continue the lie--but know that things all around the globe are getting pretty rough on the Elite bullies.

The point was to bring forth that which was claimed as valid and be able to discount it and prove its false origin and you would go back to sleep. It is a typical "dirty trick" of the Mossad/CIA goons. This is their type of tricks as is shown time after time in the stupid displays as in the drug running. They thrive on gross and spectacular intrigue and cruel sensationalism and torture tactics to shock the senses into disbelief. But nothing is too gross for their achievement of goal--and worse, they don't even longer know what is their goal--honor and integrity has long since become the missing part of the equation. God has not been any part of the operations of goal seeking for so long He is forgotten and has become only a false tool to better manipulate the masses. You have some close acquaintances, too, who use the "born again Christian" to ad nauseam which only degrades the term.

SPACE PROGRAM

This, too, is basically for confirmation. You simply do not close down a space program overnight for the silly and actually stupid excuses given by Bush. Your program is in dire circumstances--they couldn't dare launch that shuttle for everything you have launched recently has been destroyed and your last back-up shuttle--mandatory for the illusion--was taken out on the ground in a massive display. There is no backup to continue the facade for the Cosmospheres have plucked the birds.

There has been a desperate search for the moment to ground the program and distract the citizens. These things are long known in the Elite planning rooms where the threats, actions and subterfuge are planned. What becomes appalling is the total acceptance which appears to be rampant in the masses who gobble up the lies like candy from the market. The most powerful power struggle ever known to mankind is taking place behind those false faces and masks.

The air blasts and pulse thrusts are so bad around your locations that it is like a war zone and nobody seems to notice. WE are constantly petitioned to show ourselves so you can "believe". How so--we are there and no one takes notice--your citizens do not even note the flash and glow of mass destruction 30 miles from their doors even while the sky glows and the windows rattle.

Your nation must come into knowing of the need for shelters for there is so much radioactive material in your atmosphere that it will destroy all life forms if protection is not forthcoming and neutralization methods brought forth--and YOU CAN NOT DO IT WITHOUT US! AND GOD IS NOT GOING TO GIVE IT INTO THE ADVERSARY'S HANDS!

KNOW that whither thou goest, I will go--BEFORE THEE! And my guards shall march behind thee--if you put your hand in the hand of the man from Galilee--ye shall find of the way. This time, however, ye ones must serve as messengers WITH the Wayshower--for ye have come of the Hosts. Indeed it only SEEMS strange to ye ones--for you were birthed and created to serve at this time of man's cycle of change. Again, I must implore you ones to read most carefully the messages coming forth--for they are of your destiny and you cannot lead your brother if you know not where you are going. So be it and the Light shall be given if ye are but willing to regive it that the dark places shall be lighted. Amen

Let us close this for this night, scribe, for it is sufficient unto the needs of the moment--we now speak to the responsible souls of brothers wherein the lessons are expected and heard.

I am the WORD and the WORD IS TRUTH--and the WORD SHALL SET YOU FREE! SALU.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Rape of The Constitution

You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of
The Phoenix Vol. I
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner
Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades
Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades
Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide
Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
The Phoenix Express Vol's I &
II ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

JULY 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 2

7/28/91 HATONN
SUNDAY

In the glory and splendor of this day, I am here. I may manifest as a Commander to your senses--I AM your friend and brother. I come with the Hosts sent forth by the Father, as the time of man's change is at hand. Will the change be toward deeper and deeper darkness or will it be toward the Radiance of infinite growth? Will man of Shan earth move into slavery or into freedom? Ultimately it will be through the thought projection of God as He measures your readiness for advancement or discerns that far more lessons are needed for your whole-ness.

I am going to categorize our overall task herein so that all may see. The order in which we have presented things may appear backwards to that which is ultimate intent of focus. God works in proper sequence to touch the critical points in the order that man can accept--first to his "senses", then on into the revealing of purpose of "man", direction of "man" and contact with God in KNOWING of that which is the functioning universe and God. We are telling you how and why the prior teachers came upon your place to take your hand and show you the way in TRUTH into the Light of understanding. Brothers, it is time for the point of transition is upon you--you will either rise up in KNOWING or, as a species, you will return to the Dark Ages of oppression and ignorance. You stand at the threshold of glory or darkness.

As a portion of this notation, I wish to utilize this document as a response to one Dr. John Coleman of Bakersfield, California, for a letter has been brought to me for same. The letter came with several attachments--all of which are totally valid--all of which are in the forefront of disclosure. I wish to acknowledge the truth of this man's presentations and yet, we cannot use the material nor give sanction unto the person at this juncture--without an understanding regarding our thrust.

Our ONLY ACTUAL intent is to bring the Truth and substance of God and eternal life unto man, who has long since forgotten his origin and his path into immortality. The species upon Shan earth is now moving "backwards" instead of ahead in spiritual Truth. You are in the reign of total evil upon your place. Man has produced the evil--for it is not of God in the same way that "man is a creation of God". The point of this journey is to grow in realization and consciousness to the relationship of the dwelling within man of God. This makes man a co-creator with God but this is not allowed to blossom as long as man only manufactures evil in his intent. This is the purpose of the Pleiades Connection JOURNALS. I care not what else you "think" you have that explains God and universe--thus far, you have it NOT on your planet--this is that which is coming forth now.

We have no interest in the stupid and heinous games of man upon your place--ours is to bring TRUTH unto a sleeping civilization--awaken you to your plight and show you the way out of your predicament.

We have no desire to be "first" with hot headline revelations--we need none of your publications of any kind to either give us information or reveal anything--it is all on our scanners before there is action regarding incidents on your physical manifestation. YOU, AS PHYSICAL BEINGS JUST AWAKENING--DO! YOU NEED CONFIRMATION AS PRESENTED BY THOSE ONES

YOU HAVE APPOINTED AS EXPERTS--OR, WHO HAVE PRESENTED THEMSELVES UNTO YOU AS EXPERTS. Next, we need the information in publishment to keep our team workers alive and functioning. The effort is constant, not only to discredit the work but to literally remove the physical beings--we are not in a popularity contest and we have to get man's attention so that he will listen when the important documents concerning his eternal existence are available--THAT IS OUR MISSION.

In between here, tucked behind the political veils of corruption, is a drastic push to take and invalidate the U.S. Constitution so that all rights are legally removed from the citizens. If America falls--so shall the world. There will be economic collapse and chaos at any rate for the string is almost unstrung and it will be a deliberate attempt to gain final total control of the world, by the Elite Cartel. If you have a helpless and uninformed public then the enslavement is total.

Now, AS GOD, I tell you that if you continue in that path as now seemingly chosen--you will march into total destruction. The masses of man will be allowed to flow into the abyss as they choose and the journey will be again into darkness--with several heinous wars--then mankind will perish in the radioactivity and barrenness of that which he has wrought forth upon My perfect Creation. A remnant will be lifted off and into security to reclaim and carry on the species into a new land and placement--these will be the ones who come into understanding and TRUTH--not a bunch of responsibility escapees through blood letting and Christ usurping. There WILL BE NO RAPTURE AS YOUR EVANGELISTS OUTLAY IT FOR YOU. There will be a remnant taken into the safety of Cosmic Flight Command. Now it is time you ones open your eyes and use REASON!

If you can turn your planet around, you will be given the information for neutralizing the poisons you have established and you will be given information and technology for reversing your plight. It is NOT, however probable that that will be fully accomplished. We are prepared to remove all into safety who have intent of Godness within them and who will return into and within the LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION--INTO BALANCE--which is being explained IN MINUTE DETAIL AND PROOF THROUGH SCIENTIFIC ACTION UNTO YOU IN THESE JOURNALS UNDER PREPARATION.

Now for Dr. Coleman. Please accept our humble recognition of your work--but your intent and energy is being so absorbed in distractions that we cannot openly give honor and utilization in the media of the EXPRESSES.

You see, we care not who presents Truth--first, last or any way. Truth is Truth is Truth and I'm sorry, sir, plagiarism plays no part in bearing TRUTH.

As ones have sent some of our documents unto this friend--oh indeed, yes he IS, and he has commented--I will share with you in response, sir. It is no accident that you received the June issue (6/23/91). I have long waited for you to reply to my nudges--it was months and months ago that your work was physically brought to our attention. However, it is not in our intent, whatsoever, to be distracted by physical ego manifestations--you are a "done-in" planet because of ego entrapment. We are interested in awakening the people and saving the Constitution, getting America turned around and ultimately come into Cosmic Brotherhood and working relationship--through information and enlightenment. It is our appointed mission for we are a more advanced civilization than are you and function totally within the Laws and direction of Creator/Creation. We are sent directly as "Hosts" and we have ones placed on your Earth as receivers and workers. We have no purpose regarding your Earth other than as the planet itself is concerned and the civilization of man upon it. There is no force nor coercion in God--God Gives, God does not Take. Man TAKES and rarely, rarely GIVES.

Dr. Coleman, may I share a few facts with you which may place a bit of light upon that which happens with your work? I come from higher resource and can have objectivity. My scribe has not been privy to any of your work so there is no input from that source so our conversations can be without possibility of input other than mine at this writing.

Yes, people are a bit jealous of your work. However, it is not jealousy which causes them to use your work as their own. What has happened is that you have played into the hands of the adversary, totally; hook, line and sinker as the case is. You see, they know you cannot sue them all--AND FURTHERMORE, IF A PROJECTION BE TRUTH NON-FICTION--YOU HAVE NOT A LEG TO STAND ON IN A COURT OF LAW. Therefore, if it can be observed that you fit into the category of objective truth-bearing, your work will be utilized under any and all circumstances for whatever might be the purpose at hand--either to whet the appetite for more in order to give the next course with poison and disinformation--or with total intent of opening minds to the facts.

I give SPOTLIGHT credit for that which they project in truth--no more and no less. I have a good working relationship in use of their material. If I use material I always give credit for source--THAT IS SO THAT THE POPULACE CAN GO AND GET CONFIRMATION OF WHAT WE BRING--MAN CAN NOT ACCEPT THAT INFORMATION FLOWS OTHERWISE. I care not what earth resource; as it becomes proven through the actions in front of man--he WILL wake up!

If you would have been exposed to ALL of our work you would find that I do not actually sanction all of SPOTLIGHT's presentation. Why do you think they are still around? They are a tool of the Elite--very Khazarian in intent and purpose. This becomes the most dangerous publication of them all for man is first trained to trust them and then they can begin with the lies to accomplish their own intent.

If, however, they do something worthy, God will utilize the organization thereof. It is as with the Liberty Lobby--there is much GOOD--there is a lot quite AWFUL. And what of the POPULIST PARTY? What indeed? It is lacking in so many ways that it is improbable to help AS STRUCTURED! BUT, WHAT ELSE DO YOU OFFER? YOU MUST HAVE A JUMP-OFF STARTING POINT FOR YOU HAVE A LONG WAY TO GO AND GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU--HE WILL NOT DO IT FOR YOU. Man will tend this or it will not be tended, and further, if man wants off the prison grounds--he will choose to work within God's Laws and recognize God for that which and whom He IS.

Now, let us look at your response letter and check it against that which I just said. I find no acknowledgement of God, at all, in your writing. This is just a for instance. I find words upon words filled with accusations against just about every publication and journalist in the nation as to your being "first"--right down to the counting of days and places. Sir, they laugh at your documents and throw them out. SIR, "FIRST" IS NOT IMPORTANT, DO YOU SEE? TRUTH IS IMPORTANT. This is THE WAY the adversary attacks by sidetracking the bearer of Truth to render him ridiculed and used until you finally cease and desist in your work. Please do not come to that point--and yet I know that you are almost there and hence, this writing.

I do not promote SPOTLIGHT except as a resource and tell our readers as much--but I do honor that which they do in Truth--and what other resource of such publication numbers do we have with which to work? INSIDER REPORT cannot match the numbers of people reached by SPOTLIGHT, nor can THE PHOENIX EXPRESS. I care not about the EXPRESS--my thrust is to awaken the people so that they search out the TRUTH through the JOURNALS.

I have a fine and close relationship with Col. Gritz and quite a few other top persons in your government and military circles. It appears if the Col. is finally willing to step forward against the bullets--he would have a real chance of winning an election for the Presidency--IF YOU THE PEOPLE IN THE TRAP WOULD LAY ASIDE YOUR BICKERING AND SUPPORT THIS CAUSE WITH ALL YOU HAVE TO OFFER.

Another reason I only now contact you is that this little group has no resource to adequately pay for information--especially when we NEED NO MORE INFORMATION--ONLY A BIT OF CONFIRMATION MATERIAL FOR OUR READERS. To keep my scribe alive (for she has been literally put into cardiac arrest some half-dozen times in this past 18 months with blow-out of the computer systems and all electronics in the place) I always insist that somewhere, someone has knowledge of an incident through leakage, etc. This way, her life is less jeopardized--WE ARE NOT IN THE FORTUNE-TELLING BUSINESS NOR PROPHECY BUSINESS--WE WORK ON PROBABIL-

ITIES OF INFORMATION
SCANNING AND FULL COORDINATION WITH THE HIGHER SOURCE.
Man MUST come into his consciousness from his own experience and NOT THROUGH FORTUNE-TELLING MYSTICAL GARBAGE. GARBAGE IN-GARBAGE OUT.

We are now confronting man's divinity and immortality into an infinite universe.
Man on Shan planet is still in infancy--primate level of barbarianism. That is the way of the cycles and this is the time of the cycle evolution wherein man can become enlightened into Cosmic Consciousness in the New Dawn of Truth--or, he chooses his path into deeper darkness as the EF-FECT of his own CAUSE in action.

We are completely (100%) totally Spiritual. We are completely (100%) totally NON-RELIGIOUS! The one you called Christ--travels with ME! He has come again according to his promise and in evolvement into his status as Sananda (One with God in totality) and several other "Christed" Brothers are presenting the work and WORD.
It is not strange nor mystical-- we are sent at this time of the return of God unto his Creation in form. He has ever been thusly within each--so
He doesn't have anywhere to come to--from. But the Brotherhood of manifested brothers from other manifested placement in the Universal Heavens are the Hosts which can be accepted (or denied) by earth physical man.
It is not our business, either way, except that this is our purpose of manifestation and we have nothing but Love to offer you--for GOD IS LOVE

AND GOD IS THE WORD AND THE TIME OF RECLAMATION IS AT HAND!

You note that SPOTLIGHT refuses your display ads and Valentine won't have you on his show, etc. You are in excellent company--neither will they accept ours. Ones such as Larry King on the controlled media only acknowledge in order to discredit and destroy any other than their own inside dealers. I can give you a bit more interesting insight--as much as they SEEM to approve Gritz--they will not accept his ads any more, either. Even he doesn't realize this.

Now, it is hard to project what they would do if you called with a Gritz ad on the morrow--for they follow the EXPRESSES word for word.
As my scribe types--EV-ERYTHING flows into the CIA computers, the center at Edwards, etc. Sometimes the better part of the undercover game is to allow enough to go out to entrap the readers and keep the "people" off their backs.

The Mossad element and undercover group are masters at deceit as they serve totally in service to that which is the anti-Christ movement in every manner. They are a part of the Elite Cartel but that is NOT their thrust--they just happen to utilize the tool of that connection--just as the Elite Banker Cartel thinks they are using the Mossad and Israel as tools. When these two "blow" it will be one to end them all, brothers.

I am confident that you have many readers of the INSIDER REPORT who wouldn't look at another publication for they wouldn't need to--for truth in world information. Well, we have some who won't change from the PHOENIX EX-PRESS and some who wouldn't move an inch from

ON TARGET by Col. Davis.
And then there is Gen. Mohr and others, many others. Is it not time we joined hands and gave the nation something REALLY worth viewing?
Without exception, in the papers which flow to my attention, ones stand forth and claim to be "born again" or "believe on Jesus Christ", etc. But they do not even know that of which they speak and less, they act not within nor according to God's Laws--and I speak not of Biblical projections--I speak of God from whom the Laws come and they are quite well presented in most understandable form and yet, man breaks them all and votes them in and out like a political opinion.

Brother, you speak of spending money, if you had it, on exposing the charlatans.
Why? If you spent the money into positive spreading of Truth and ignore the bullies, the reward would be the ex-posure of the charlatans--they would fall of their own deceit. You know that I am who I say I am and your UFO research is quite good so we understand one another--but sir, God shall take second seat to none! Further, when in balance with Cause you would not choose it.

We will work with ones whose intent is correct and if the sequence is appropriate-- we do not give details often, of specific disclosures by the dis- mis-information groups because it is a foolish waste of time--the facts will reveal the lies. However, the plan of the Puppet-Masters is to set up more and more incidents wherein they can blame Space Command for various and sundry heinous incidents. Things are being set up right now to "acknowledge" under "duress" that there is an alien presence--"who has been destroying missiles and shuttles" and there will be a follow-up with bombing staged by the military in conjunction with the Russians utilizing earth-made weapons and spheres. This will be the "proof", they will say, of hostile aliens. Be prepared for terrible incidents in effort to unify and pull together the planet into this Global government.

Will we of the cosmos interfere? NO. It is your mess; you will tend it. We are allowed intervention only in a few areas and those all center around EFFECT on the universe and the functioning order thereof--I can only ask that you read the JOURNALS for I have no intention of repeating some 35 books and over 8,000 pages of information given you ones in less than two years. My scribe is weary unto exhaustion and she must also be my speaker/receiver.

The last statement was for purpose. We have no "meetings" as such--we are not an entertainment "group". We do meet for specific reasons and business instructions, etc. You are most welcome to join us--I honor you and would be honored to have you come and join with us for discussion. I know that there are visitors coming on the Tuesday next and there is a planned debriefing meeting with George who is returning this day from an outstanding gathering.

At this point I make no pre-arrangements for my own meetings as "audible" exchange because my translator is under constant surveillance and it is not safe outside my direct security shielding. I do not, however, hesitate to join ones in restaurants or wherever if the circumstances are of secure and controlled manner.

We welcome the surveillance as is given us--in every fragment of your work for we are not subversive in any manner whatsoever. Some of our most precious workers come from the surveillance teams--THEY DO NOT HAVE PASSAGE TICKETS INTO THE INNER SHELTER SYSTEM, EITHER. THEY ARE AS, OR MORE, IGNORANT OF THE CURRENT TREASON IN YOUR NATION AS ARE YOU-THE-PEOPLE. They will die just as all mortal men will die and they are among the first targets--therefore, I welcome their surveillance. Moreover, it is dangerous for them to even consider taking-out my people--for the retaliation is far more incredible than that which they can do to us. That is in no manner a "threat"--it is simple FACT.

I offer my hand in friendship and I salute you. I believe that our disagreements are indeed small and I would be most pleased to entertain your presence.

I would say in advance: We are here to PROVE nothing for we need PROVE nothing. It is time earth Shan man begin to prove something to God. The PROOF is all around you! I do not play silly games and test and run--I repeat: I HAVE NOTHING TO PROVE! I do not do little miracles for children's confirmation--but I do allow you your own confirmation in a way unknown to any other in the room--so be it. I am very apt to play your own game of "lets see if he is real, I'll use an alias or something and 'catch' him..." No; won't work--I don't care what you call yourself--if you present to me and call yourself Jesus Christ then I shall be most happy to call you Hesus. I am not interested in any of your Human Physical aspects except as it impacts universal man. You see, when all is understood--we are all ultimately ONE and that means that until all the fragments are whole--I am not whole. You are not given to full understanding of that statement--yet--and I am, therefore it behooves both of us to lay some ground rules lest we waste time in the dancing. I am exactly who I say that I am--I am Aton.

I come as Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn for a very specific purpose and reason. You of earth ARE NOT THE PRIMARY FOCUS OF THIS TRANSITION AND YOU MUST LIFT YOUR VISION HIGHER LEST YOU MISUNDERSTAND. Salu.

Oberli, I ask that this be gotten to P. that she can relay it someway to Dr. Coleman prior to Tuesday. If the meeting must be called off in the afternoon leave contact information so he does not travel uselessly.

I will not take more of Germain's time at this sitting but I want to refer to a letter received some time ago and we still have not adequately responded. It was from S.H. in Maine. He asked about U.S.

stamps as holding value, etc.

Nothing will actually hold its value in the long run. For a while minted coins will be useable even if the paper currency is pulled.

It is logical to consider "stamps" but here is what you have as possibilities. They will devalue also--even if it be as gold in depression--in other words, a stamp may mail a letter at whichever monetary value but other than that it will have little value. Next, the cost of stamps for mailing "mail" is illegally rendered and a few are actually finally getting mail through on a 2 cent stamp. This will be a worthy case for the Law Center as you get started.

As for his other questions, I cannot outlay definitively, all the answers for as I stated above, we are considered dangerous to the system above all other publications. If I give you a definite statement, even if planned for tomorrow, it might well be delayed--I will only give you generalities and then suggest you read someone's newsletter who may be giving the correct information--at this point all other publications are not comprehensively on track.

Regarding the Nevada Corporation, etc. That is for privacy. If you have no "funds" to speak of, it matters not about the corporation. These things which I offer as privacy and methods of management and removal in part, from the devouring system, are suggestions. There will be no PERFECT way for you can see, already, the states are going to now eat your lunch--in California they are even taxing newspress--an unheard-of Constitutional violation. And yet, if you want the paper--you have to pay the tax, so, it is up to the newspaper people to refuse to pay the tax. But YOU must demand it. It is one thing to tax Twinkies but quite another to do such a thing to your news resource, even if it be neither news nor resource. All is a "nibble" tactic to gradually render all of you totally helpless and it will get worse and worse and worse.

A suggestion for any of you who tend to think that even the "food stamps" might retain some value. No, if the time comes, the stamps will simply not be honored. Precious ones--YOU ARE BANKRUPT AND THE CARTEL BANKERS OWN THE WORLD! HEAR ME! YOU ARE OWNED! YOU ARE ALREADY THE SLAVE! MILLIONS ARE UNEMPLOYED AND THERE WILL BE NO JOBS TO GO INTO--YOU ARE BANKRUPT AND IN A MASSIVE DEPRESSION--YOU ARE DEAD AND HAVE CLUNG TO THE LIES TO KEEP FROM ROLLING OVER! DO YOU HEAR ME? IS THERE ANYONE IN THERE? IS THERE ANYONE OUT THERE? YES INDEED!

Now for the shocker--it will only be through a return into the Laws of God and rightness, brotherhood and unity under your flag and nation UNDER GOD, which is your ONLY way out of this trap. Harken unto me, children--I offer my hand in love and I will walk every step of the way WITH you but I WILL NOT do it FOR you!

I would suggest that the Susan

Anthony coin will go in proportion to all coins. If it would be silver it would retain value of silver--since it is not, it will retain relative value according to the other coins minted by the government instead of the Federal Reserve.

For information only--the big boys are having a terrible time pulling off the currency switch for it is entangled incredibly in the foreign markets--it simply is not as simple as they had thought because the people are beginning to wake up and the shams are just not as easy to pull off.

The one thing the Elite did not consider carefully enough and that was what would happen if the PEOPLE WOKE UP. The training, programming and disinformation would be to no avail if God entered the picture--AND GOD HAS ENTERED THE PICTURE. YOU SEE, WHEN THE GOING GETS REALLY ROUGH, AND IT HAS AND IS, MAN INVARIABLY TURNS BACK TO GOD BECAUSE HE PERCEIVES NO OTHER WAY TO GO (FOXHOLE ATHEISTS?). THEREFORE, WHEN MAN TURNS UNTO GOD--EVIL CANNOT SUSTAIN ITSELF AND THEREIN, DEAR ONES, IS THE SECRET OF THE UNIVERSE AS TO POSSIBILITY AND PROBABILITY OF CHANGE. IT IS UNFORTUNATE THAT IT IS THIS WAY--BUT MAN HAS BROUGHT IT TO BE THIS WAY. YOU CAN CHANGE IT IF YOU WANT TO!!!!

Good day.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

MURDER BY ATOMIC SUICIDE

Technical And Spiritual Disclosure Of The Secrets Of How, Why, What, Where, When And Who Of The Universe And Its Functional Projections
PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. IV

By Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

ATON (GOD) gives us a very special 28 page introduction in this 33rd book of our PHOENIX JOURNAL series.

This book is a very special book for it tells us the minute details of what radiating atoms really are (NOT WHAT MOST OF OUR SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN TELLING US) and why in particular certain atoms are to be left in their natural state within the ground or we and all living things on this planet will die as a result of our violating nature's processes of preparing a planet for life as we know it.

Germain tells us of several actual nuclear plant melt-downs and how the hosts (stationed in star-ships above us) brought them under control to save Earth from destruction, WHILE RISKING THEIR OWN DESTRUCTION.

GERMAIN ALSO EXPLAINS IN DETAIL THE SUPREME MYSTERY OF LIFE AND DEATH, AND DEFINES GOD IN DETAIL.

The nuclear contamination problem is detailed and our only method of solving the problem is given.

Included in this book are several charts and many figures to help the reader to understand these concepts, THE MOST IMPORTANT CONCEPTS EVER GIVEN TO MAN BY GOD (ATON)!

Hatonn also keeps us well informed about the details of the political, economical and geo-political happenings and the TRUTH about what is taking place on our Mother Earth, which the Elite try to keep well hidden.

I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE SECRETS OF UNIVERSAL ORDER; ETERNAL QUEST OF MAN

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. III

By Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Jesus, Esu, Sananda gives us many corrections to part of His life story, as written in the Bible. He includes the truth about His crucifixion.

Sananda gives us details of the deceptions of the "New Age" even to the point of staging a simulated second coming of Christ. If their script is successfully staged even the very elect could be deceived. BEWARE! He tells how to recognize the real Christ when he appears.

We are given a very important lesson on holography and its use for deceiving the seekers.

Soltec gives us updated information about the volcanos, earthquakes and other earth changes and how they are tied into the political and economic situation.

Germain continues with his detailed description of how God creates all from His sex-divided Light.

He gives us details about what electricity, magnetism, gravity, heat and cold actually are. If our scientists would put this knowledge to use for the world's benefit we could have HEAVEN ON EARTH.

It is explained how the Creator uses electricity to create.

Germain helps us to understand God by defining God, and explaining in detail how God creates.

Details of the equipment Rife used for medical purposes is described.

This text contains many drawings and some charts to help everyone understand creation much better.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

AUG. 14, 4:00 PM
GLOBAL SCIENCES
CONGRESS

Holiday Inn I-70 East (exit 284) Denver, CO. 1-800-Holiday or 1-303-371-9494

RADIO SHOW

AUG. 4 Midnight - 2 AM
KTAR Chuck Christian
Phoenix, Ariz.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT
Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS

$3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

"As little as 100 letters received by any member of Congress on any issue is enough to send a powerful message that can change a senator or representative's vote"

REALITY ·

Reality is what we take to be true. What we take to be true is what we believe. What we believe is based upon our perceptions. Our perceptions depend upon what we look for. What we look for depends upon what we think. What we think depends upon what we perceive. What we perceive determines what we believe. What we believe determines what we take to be true. What we take to be true is our reality.

WHAT GOES AROUND COMES AROUND

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 3

7/30/91 HATONN
TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1991

Dharma, I am come forth this morning while the cool is still on the meadows, that we might commune briefly to restore balance. I, too, feel remiss at pulling you from Germain and the wondrous task of revealing to a sleeping world--Truth of God and the universe. You have dear, dear friends in visitation and I give you no time to share. Dear one, this latter portion of this journey is NOT for lagging and that which we do is too important to too many to rescind the schedule of output. As the pressures are heightened to "take you out", so must the production increase so that we are not caught unfinished with the outlay of that information which will bring a world into safety.

HIDE STEALING AND PUBLIC SKINNING

Never mind that which is going on with the toy soldiers in Moscow or Auckland or Tokyo in the hidden closets of the unseen. Know that wherever the "big boys" gather it is for the purpose of your demise and their gain.

Now, as with the Gulf War, there are the same five people to watch like the proverbial hawk: Dennis Ross of the Council on Foreign Relations' State Department., Henry Kissinger (always), the power behind the Bush throne, Lawrence Eagleburger, long time Kissinger messenger boy, Brent Scowcroft, forever an appeaser to USSR at arms talks and James Baker III, Secretary of State and planned next President of the United States. He is already selected by his MASTERS for his loyalty to their cause.

Well, good news and bad news--we don't believe Kissinger should be King and that means that Baker MUST NOT be President. I remind you: AS THE U.S. GOES, SO GOES THE WORLD AND GOOD-BYE FREEDOM.

This time last year there was massive caterwauling in Congress and on the television and thus and so over the National Budget. What happened to the deficit that was going to destroy you? Well, it has, so that is no longer news and THEY HAVE OTHER PLANS FOR YOU LITTLE CHICKENS--FOXES ALWAYS DO.

The Bush administration has announced that the projected budget deficit for 1992 will be $348 billion, which is the largest in history and $70 billion higher than previously expected--what happened about the $50 billion last year for paying some of that debt? You can easily see if perfection was in place and the budget was balanced that you are a minimum of a little $20 billion already in the hole with compounding interest on the interest (not to mention the debt) to the Bankers. Isn't Monopoly fun?

Administration officials attributed the "SURPRISE" INCREASE to a combination of factors: costs of the Kissinger Persian Gulf War, the ever-growing costs of shutting down failed savings and loan institutions (who failed with ones like the Bush brothers at the helms) and a shortfall in individual income tax revenues (glory be), "a result of lower-than-expected taxable personal incomes due to the worsening economy." Unexpected? They are the very ones responsible for shutting down industry and closing down all sorts of business. But what they do not mention is that over 60 million people took a stand that the income-tax as written and enforced is AGAINST THE LAW OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Do these figures stop, even slow-up, the give away? Nay, nay--so KNOW the sleeves are stuffed with new magical toys to use on you-the-people.

Additionally, the deficit is projected to remain over $70 billion a year higher over the next few years "than earlier estimates". What of your new war? Oh yes, there will be a new war! and how many of you know that Israel is demanding and getting $24.6 BILLION for prop-up along with a myriad of foreign states. YOUR "HOUSE" HAS ALREADY APPROVED THE GIVEAWAY--NOW IT IS BEFORE THE SENATE WHICH IS TOTALLY CONTROLLED BY ISRAEL, SO GUESS WHAT?!? The nice "tax-free" "religious" nation/lobby is full speed ahead and Baker spends more time in Israel, by far, than in your State Department--you ones had better look around and come up out of Flatland into the three dimensional world.

What the above means is that the budget agreement reached by Congress and President George Bush, which included great tax hikes and spending limits, has had absolutely no effect on the growth of the deficit. The higher deficits compound themselves by increasing interest payments on the debt, which is the fastest growing segment of the budget and, at nearly $300 billion a year, is the second-largest single item, after defense, in the budget. And so it goes.

YOU ARE EATEN ALIVE AND DON'T NOTICE

You good old American taxpayers, now totally inured to having Israel extract your flesh and blood in multi-BILLION-dollar handouts each year, are set up for a "wholesale skinning job". The Bush administration prepares at this moment to TRIPLE AND EVEN QUADRUPLE ISRAEL'S SUBSIDY.

If you-the-people say we are anti-Semites you are fooling yourselves--the Israeli's are NOT SEMITES so it is very difficult to accuse people of that stance, is it not?

Now look at the quick of hand. That forecast just laid forth came from a CANADIAN economist who monitors international grants and support programs at no less than UN headquarters in New York City. This has all been CONFIRMED, little brothers and sisters.

This is in spite of assurances recently by top administration leaders that there would be neither an increase in Israel's military assistance budget--already the largest in the world--nor an unconditional approval of unprecedented Billions (10 minimum and not hidden) in requested guarantees for resettling Soviet immigrants. Again, where are you Baptists? Aren't you a respected "religious group"? I ask brother Mormon, aren't you worthy of $10 Billion? What about those "Christian" three million homeless in the U.S.? Could they use just a little portion of that $24.6 BILLION? What about those Palestinian brothers on whose land the "resettling" is being done?

Dear ones, this compromise will most likely mean that Israel gets the whopping 50 percent (50%) boost in its "defense support" payments for the next fiscal year requested by its defense minister, Moshe Arens, during his most recent visit to Washington last month--beware the visitors!

There is also the demand from the prime minister, Yitzhak Shamir, that some $10 BILLION in emergency loans be given for which his regime plans to raise next year--be guaranteed by the "full faith and credit" of the U.S. government.

Well, why should you ones, like in California, mind a little old tax on your Newspapers and Twinkies?

According to this "friend" Shamir, the United States has a "HISTORIC OBLIGATION" and a "HUMANITARIAN DUTY" to help finance the tidal influx of immigrants to Israel from the Soviet Union, especially since it was "UNREMITTING AMERICAN PRESSURE ON THE SOVIETS" that opened the floodgates to this vast migration. (!?!? Ohh?)

Funny thing about this last accusation; that is the way the adversary works, isn't it? They blame another for everything they just did right in front of you and you smile in the mirror and fill out your money donations. The Israelis mobilized every contact, every bit of influence, every position of power they have infiltrated in Washington, to coerce their brethren. In the process, they exploited and abused their influence over U.S. policy and over ambitious congressional leaders.

The Bush administration, however, knows it cannot win a debate over such policy matters in the pro-Israeli controlled media, goes right ahead granting the funding--a massive sum four times the usual yearly full-financing of Israel.

These mushrooming enclaves of newly built housing for transplanted Israelis, in violation of repeated UN resolutions and U.S. edicts have been denounced by your own strangler, Baker, as the "greatest single obstacle to peace". Well, that is a lie also, but then let's give him one for originality. By the time the settlement comes, you will have already paid for in money and Palestinian blood and land the entire of the demand either way.

Late in June, National Security Adviser Brent Scowcroft told a group of visiting advocates of the ministate (of course your disabled American Vets can't get to see these great men), led by Malcolm Hoenlein, executive director of the influential Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, that the U.S. government WOULD NOT--IN VIEW OF ITS COMMITMENTS--CO-SIGN $10 BILLION IN "DOUBTFUL" IOU's FOR ISRAEL IF THE MONEY IS USED FOR ILLEGAL AND "DIVISIVE" SETTLEMENTS. Well, they did and they are.

Both Bush and Baker have given firm personal pledges to their major ally(?) in the Persian Gulf, Saudi Arabia, that no American financing would be granted for Shamir's settlements, viewed by Arab governments as a thinly veiled tactic to expand the ministate into the "Great Israel" privately envisioned by Shamir and his followers.

But, as with all good intent, the resolve of Bush and Baker has withered in face of the all-out pressure from the Israeli lobby, and threatening rumors that there would be a "very dirty" publicity battle over this issue. I know, it must be the little gray aliens that makes them do it! Didn't some of your UFOlogists say that those little gray aliens hold your government hostage? I suggest you take another very careful look at Shamir!!!

After decades of covert collaboration between the CIA and the MOSSAD, Israel's espionage service, that cost the taxpayers billions upon billions of "black" funds without public accounting (like the privately owned Federal Reserve is also doing--only in the trillions), this cute little "state's" leaders have enough INCRIMINATING FILES on Bush and his team to "SEND THEM UP 10 TIMES OVER". No wonder there is such CONFIDENCE in Mr. Shamir's smile.

When push comes right to shove, there is no Republican politician who can afford to defy Israel. No Democrat could get away with it. It is an outrage--because who and what else is there for you? I suggest you think about that very hard indeed!--AND GET A THIRD CHOICE--NOW! WE HAVE ONE--WILL YOU SUPPORT TRUTH AND THE CONSTITUTION IF GOD GIVES YOU A ROUTE?? WILL YOU SUPPORT A MAN WHO HAS PAID ENOUGH ALREADY? FOR IF WE DISCERN THAT YOU WILL NOT--WE WILL DISSUADE HIM FROM THE TARGET-EYE.

This is a total outrage, but you are boxed in by corruption and blackmail and you will be sold down the tubes as a nation before these mongrels will jeopardize their long-sought KINGDOM and you, the slaves thereof. There is a century of planning for entrapment by the Khazarian people and over a quarter-century of paying the Mossad to do the dirty work. No one in Washington wants them to spill the beans, I believe you say. Well, Mr. Bush has other fish to fry, also--and it, too, is entangled in the most sinister of blackmail plots--YOUR MIA-POW LIES AND DECEIT TO COVER DRUG TRADE BY HIS OWN NATION AND FAMILY--SET UP DURING THE CIA DAYS AND STILL RUN BY THE CIA.

YES INDEED--Mr. Bush's CIA was instigator and perpetrator of Kennedy's assassination--with insider cooperation right through your Vice President, Johnson. Ho Humm--anyone awake? I wrote about this a year or more ago--in total detail.

THEY LABELED THEMSELVES "JEWS"

You now denounce us for using the term "Jew" as if it were a curse of some sort. Dear oneS, the Khazarian Judaists named themselves "Jews" in the 17th century. It is a nice new term to fit with Zionist and New Jerusalem and World Controller.

I am going to give you some facts that I hope you read most carefully--right now. You continue to deny that there is such a thing and that the Russians couldn't be involved and on and on you go--with no information while you blast our facts as we give them unto you.

Let us go back to the Russian Bolshevik Revolution and see if what I give you here matches that which is, of course (I'm joshing), taught in every school in the world. Dharma, just record that which is presented from the historical texts which have been buried and now, somehow?, uncovered.

QUOTING:

....translated from Russian into French the official reports and original documents confirming his narrative. "I have done all in my power", he adds, "to act as an impartial chronicler". The list of names of the Rulers of Russia in 1918, which I am about to quote, is taken from pages 136-137 of this painstaking French study of the Russian Bolshevik Revolution. It is a noteworthy fact that this list is not to be found in the English edition of the same work, THE LAST DAYS OF THE ROMANOVs, published in September 1920, by Thornton Butterworth.

According to the English review, The Patriot, of 20th February, 1930, after Robert Wilton had written in 1920: "The Jewish domination in Russia is supported by certain Russians. . . they are all mere screens or dummies behind which the Sverdlovs and the thousand and one Jews of Sovdepiia continue their work of destruction", his chances in English journalism were gone. It is a well-known fact that he died in straitened circumstances in January, 1925.

On page 29 of Les Derniers Jours des Romanof, we read: "In order not to leave myself open to any accusation of prejudice, I am giving (on pages 136-137) the list of the members of the Central Committee, of the Extraordinary Commission and the Council of Commissars functioning at the time of the assassination of the Imperial Family. The 62 members of the Committee were composed of 5 Russians, 1 Ukrainian, 6 Letts, 2 Germans, 1 Czech, 2 Armenians, 3 Georgians, 1 Karaim (Jesish Sect), 41 Jews. The extraordinary Commission of Moscow was composed of 36 members, including 1 German, 1 Pole, 1 Armenian, 2 Russians, 8 Letts, 23 Jews. The Council of the People's Commissars numbered 2 Armenians, 3 Russians, 17 Jews. ACCORDING TO THE DATA FURNISHED BY THE SOVIET PRESS, OUT OF 556 IMPORTANT FUNCTIONARIES OF THE BOLSHEVIK STATE, INCLUDING THE ABOVE-MENTIONED, THERE WERE IN 1918-1919, 17 RUSSIANS, 2 UKRAINIANS, 11 ARMENIANS, 35

LETTS, 15 GERMANS, 1 HUNGARIAN, 10 GEORGIANS, 3 POLES, 3 FINNS, 1 CZECH, 1 KARAIM, 457 JEWS.

If the reader is astonished to find the Jewish hand everywhere in the affair of the assassination of the Russian Imperial Family, he must bear in mind the formidable numerical preponderance of Jews in the Soviet administration.

On pages 136-138, then, of the same work, the author writes: "It is in the Central Committee of the Bolshevik Party that the governmental power resides. It was composed as follows in 1918: Bronstein(Trotsky), Apfelbaum(Zinovieff), Lourie(Larine), Ouritski, Volodarski, Rosenfeldt(Kamenef), Smidovitch, Sverdlov(Yankel), Nakhamkes (Steklof).

Jews--9, Oulianof(Lenin), Krylenko, Lounatcharsk. Russians--3 total--12

The other Russian Socialist Parties are similar in composition. Their Central Committees are made up as follows: S.D. Mensheviks, 11 members, all Jews; Communists of the People, 6 members, of whom 5 are Jews and one is a Russian; S.R. (Right Wing), 15 members, of whom 13 are Jews and 2 are Russian (Kerenski, who may be of Jewish origin, and Tchaikovski); S.R. (Left Wing), 12 members, of whom 10 are Jews and 2 are Russians; Committee of Anarchists of Moscow, 5 members, of whom 4 are Jews and one is a Russian; Polish Communist Party, 12 members, ALL JEWS, including Sobelson(Radek), Krokhenal(Zagonski) and Schwartz(Goltz).

These parties, in appearance opposed to the Bolsheviks, play the Bolsheviks' game on the sly, more or less, by preventing the Russians from pulling themselves together. Out of 61 individuals at the head of these parties, there are 6 Russians and 55 Jews. No matter what may be the name adopted, a revolutionary government will be Jewish.

The Council of the People's Commissars comprise the following:

President--Oulianof(Lenin)--Russian Foreign Affairs--Tchitcherine--Russian Nationalities--Djougachvili--Georgian
Agriculture--Protian--ARMENIAN
ECONOMIC COUNCIL--LOURIE (LARINE)--JEW

(1) The Rulers of Russia in 1917-1918

In the book, The Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World, two documents are quoted in proof of the fact that the Jews were the real rulers of Russia after the Bolshevik Revolution.

The first document, quoted on p. 88, is the report forwarded to London by Mr. Oudendyke, the representative of the Netherlands government at St. Petersburg, when the Bolsheviks began their reign of terror. Mr. Balfour received the report via Christiania on the 18 of September, 1918. It was published as a British White Paper in April, 1919, and was entitled: "Russia, No. 1 (1919), A Collection of Reports on Bolshevism in Russia." The kernel of the Paper is contained in the following extract from Mr. Oudendyke's Report: "The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other Governments to the fact that, if an end is not put to Bolshevism at once, the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration, but a sober matter of fact . . . I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. The only manner in which this danger can be averted would be collective action on the part of all the Powers.

The Foreword to the White Paper stated that it was issued in accordance with a decision of the English War Cabinet in January (1919). The subsequent history of this White Paper is extraordinary. It speedily disappeared from circulation and became unobtainable. Then an abridged edition was issued, with the same title, at 6d. instead of 9d. From the abridged edition the passage we have quoted, and some more had been eliminated. It has never been possible to ascertain how the original document was suppressed.

The second document, treating of the financing of the Russian Revolution by the Jewish Bank of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, is the one drawn up by the American Intelligence Service and transmitted by the French High Commissioner to his government. This document is quoted at length on pp. 88-91 of The Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World. It was published by the Documentation Catholique of Paris on 6th March, 1920, and was preceded by the following remarks: "The authenticity of this document is guaranteed to us. With regard to the exactness of the information it contains, the American State Department must assume responsibility." This document was quoted in 1920 in a supplement of the paper La Vieille France which added: "All the governments of the Entente were aware of this memorandum, drawn from the data of the American Intelligence Service and sent at the time to the French High Commissioner and his colleagues."

In addition to the information about the JEWISH BANKING HOUSES WHICH FINANCED THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION, the document also gives the long list of Jews who took over the direction of the Russian people in 1917. Lenin is given as a Russian, but all the other twenty-four given on the list--Trotsky, Zinovieff, Kameneff, Parvus, etc.--are stated to be Jews.

LENIN (OULIANOW [UIANOFF]) RUSSIAN TROTSKY (TROTZKY [BRONSTEIN]) JEWISH STECKLOFF (NAKHAMES) JEWISH MARTOFF (ZEDERBAUM) JEWISH ZINOVIEFF (APFELBAUM) JEWISH KAMENEFF (ROSENFELD) JEWISH
DAN (GOUREVITCH [YUREWITSCH]) JEWISH GANETZKY (FURSTENBERG) JEWISH PARVUS (HEOPFAND) JEWISH URITZKY (PADOMILSKY) JEWISH LARIN (LURGE) JEWISH

BOHRIN (NATHANSOHN) JEWISH MARTINOFF (ZIBAR) JEWISH BOGDANOFF (ZILBERSTEIN) JEWISH GARIN (GARFELD) JEWISH SUCHANOFF (GIMEL) JEWISH KAMNELFF (GOLDMANN) JEWISH SAGERSKY (KROCHMANN) JEWISH RIAZANOFF (GOLDENBACH) JEWISH SOLUTEZEFF (BLEICHMANN) JEWISH PIATNITZKY (ZIWIN) JEWISH AXELROD (ORTHODOX) JEWISH GLASNUOFF (SCHULTZE) JEWISH ZURIESAIN (WEINSTEIN) JEWISH LAPINSKY (LOEWENSOHN) JEWISH

[Names listed first are "assumed names". Those in parenthesis are "real names".]

Since The Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World was published I have had the opportunity of reading that very interesting work, entitled All These Things, by A.N. Field. In Appendix B he quotes from volume III of U.S. Senate Document No. 62, 66th Congress, First Session, some extracts from the evidence of Rev. George A. Simons, Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Petrograd from 1907 to October 6th, 1918, before a Committee of the United States Senate on February 12th, 1919. The Rev. Mr. Simons stated with regard to the Bolshevik Government in Petrograd: "In December, 1918 . . . under the presidency of a man known as Apfelbaum (Zinovieff) . . . out of 388 members, only 16 happened to be real Russians, AND ALL THE REST JEWS, with the exception of one man who is a negro from North America . . . and 265 of these Jews belonging to this Northern Commune government that is sitting in the old Smolny Institute come from the Lower East Side of New York--265 of them."

Mr. Field remarked in Appendix B of his book, All These Things: Lenin was married to a jewess, spoke Yiddish in his family circle, and Dr. Chaim Weizmann, Jewish Zionist leader, was quoted in the London Jewish Chronicle of December 16th, 1932, as saying that Lenin had taken part in Jewish student meetings in Switzerland thirty-five years before. He is generally regarded as a Russian, but there is doubt.

In her book, From Liberty to Brest-Litovsk Macmillan, (1919), the Russian lady, Ariadna Tyrkova-Williams, widow of the late Dr. Harold Williams, for long the Manchester Guardian correspondent in Russia, describes the events of the first year of the Russian Revolution. Mrs. Williams was a member of the last Duma and speaks with the authority of an eyewitness and close observer. On pages 297-299 of her work we read: "There are few men imbued with the all-Russian culture and interests of the Russian people. None of them have in any way been prominent in any stage of former Russian life . . . Besides obvious foreigners, Bolshevism recruited many adherents from among emigres, who had spent many years abroad. Some of them had never been to Russia before. They especially numbered a great many Jews. They spoke Russian badly. The nation over which they had seized power was a stranger to them, and besides, they behaved as invaders in a conquered country. Throughout the Revolution generally and Bolshevism in particular, the Jews occupied a very influential position. This phenomenon is both curious and complex. But the fact remains that such was the case in the primarily elected Soviet (the famous trio-Lieber, Dahn, Gotz), and all the more so in the second one.

"In the Soviet Republic all the committees and commissaries were filled with Jews. They often changed their Jewish names for a Russian one--Trotsky-Bronstein, Kameneff-Rosenfeld, Zinovieff-Apfelbaum, Stekloff-Nakhamkes, and so on. But such a masquerade deceived no one, while the very pseudonyms of the commissaries only emphasized the international or rather the alien character of Bolshevist rule. . . . But, of course, there were also Russians among the Bolsheviks--workmen, soldiers, peasants [and there will be plenty of Americans among the slaves also!]. Oulianoff-LENIN is a Russian of sorts. Lunacharsky, Bonch-Bruevich, Mme. Collontai, Chicherin--all these influential Bolshevist leaders are Russian by "origin". But that predominant class which very rapidly crystalized around the Bolsheviks was mainly composed of individuals (At this point the computer locked up and Dharma was "stunned".)

Dharma, calm please. Precious, I tell you over and over how urgent it is to pay attention. It is worse than just eating your document so let us walk carefully indeed. I believe you now know beyond a doubt who is your enemy. You are physically fine, even if shaken, so allow us to finish so that we can use the information this afternoon.

* * * * *

alien to the Russian people.

This fact is probably useful to them to keep control over the masses, for Bolshevist autocracy is founded upon their absolute contempt of the people whom they rule. The most terrible trait of Bolshevism is its utter unscrupulousness as to ways and means, and the blunt cruelty of its leaders."

Shortly after the second edition of this pamphlet appeared, a close student of the Russian Revolution wrote to me to say that he could find no confirmation of the statement that Lenin spoke Yiddish in his family circle. A Russian lady also wrote to a friend of mine that "Lenin's wife, M.K. Drupskaya, is a Russian and, even if she were a Jewess, which she is not, at home she would speak Russian." I here beg to set out what I have since been able to discover about this question. For some of the writers I have quoted about the predominance of the Jews, namely, the Russian lady, Mrs. Williams, and the English journalist, Robert Wilton, Lenin or Ulianoff is undoubtedly a Russian." For Mrs. Williams, he was purely and simply the son of a schoolmaster belonging to the nobility of the Simbirsk Province. On the other hand, through the Russian historian, D. Petrovsky, on page 37 of his detailed history of the revolution, La Russie sous Les Juifs (Russia under the Jews) says that Lenin (Oulianoff) is one of a number of Russian traitors, yet, on page 86 of the same work, he adds in a note: "Lenin is commonly held to be a Russian, but the natives of Simbirsk are of a different opinion. They relate that a convoy of prisoners traversed Simbirsk a good many years ago. After the departure of the prisoners, a little boy remained behind and was picked up and reared by a gentleman named Oulianoff. Years after, a letter came, in ill-formed characters, from the convict settlement, from a certain Ilko Sroul Goldman saying that he had learned, as a result of lengthy inquiries, where his son was. He asked for news of him. This Goldman was said to be Lenin's father. He never again wrote." Again, Victor E. Marsden, who was for many years the Morning Post's correspondent in Russia and who was present at the time of the Revolution of 1917, writes: "... Lenin is a half-blooded Jew, that is to say, the original Ulianov who bore the name of Lenin was so, but there is grounds to believe that the present Lenin is impersonating that man who is dead and that the actual Lenin of the Bolshevik business is what he looks, a full-blooded Jew."

AND NOW, DHARMA, YOU KNOW WHY THEY JUST BLASTED YOU. THIS IS NOT INFORMATION THEY CAN AFFORD TO HAVE SCATTERED ABOUT. YOU ONES CANNOT DEAL WITH REPLICAS AND DUPLICATED DOUBLES--HOW DO YOU THINK THIS FORGERY WILL HIT THE WORLD?

The publication continued: ...in a note added to the lists of names of the 447 Jews out of the 545 officials of the Soviet Bureaucracy. THE NOTE SAYS THAT IT IS DOUBTFUL IF LENIN IS RUSSIAN; THAT HE IS OULIANOFF BY ADOPTION BUT REALLY A JEW, MARRIED TO A JEWESS AND THAT HIS CHILDREN SPEAK YIDDISH.

From the information documented and researched: "The Soviet movement was a JEWISH, and not a Russian conception. It was forced on Russia from without, when, in 1917, German and German-American-Jew interests sent - - - -."

END QUOTING.

We are out of time now, so we will have to leave that off where it is for I need the other information on this document to use this afternoon please.

The next is a bulletin sent to us which ALL AMERICANS SHOULD READ, REREAD, AND GET SICK OVER. You continue to deny, deny and deny some more--I am not anti-anything but you had better open your eyes and smell the coffee for it is BURNING!

SUBJECT: SERIOUS FIRST AMENDMENT VIOLATION.

On Jan. 31, 1991 Congressman Bob Michel (R-IL) introduced H.R. Res. 104 which became Public Law 102-14 on March 20, 1991 when President Bush signed it. It had its origin with Rabbi Abraham Shemtov, National Director of the American Friends of Lubavitch, Philadelphia. Rabbi Shemtov, who is Lubavitch representative in the White House, met with George Bush just after Bush's election, and they discussed the value of education in a "just and moral society". This, in all probability, was the spawning of Public Law 102-14.

On March 5th when the resolution was considered by the House, there was absolutely no debate. Not even a serious question was asked. It passed by voice vote. Two days later it passed the Senate by voice vote with no debate or question.

This writer finds it alarming that a bill which recognizes a specific religion and its leader, and promotes that religion's laws for the United States and the whole world, could pass BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS AND RECEIVE THE PRESIDENT'S SIGNATURE, WITHOUT SO MUCH AS A RAISED EYEBROW! WHAT'S MORE, IT DIDN'T RAISE AN EYEBROW IN THE MEDIA. [How many of you have ever even HEARD OF IT?]

This document came from a resource called "SMYRNA", P.O. Box 541, Fortuna, CA 95540, FAX (707) 764-5016.

It continues: SMYRNA has notified many newspapers, TV networks, radio talk shows, Christian civil rights organizations, and churches, of this flagrant violation of the establishment clause of the First Amendment. Thus far we have not seen any interest. Where are all those knights for civil rights?

One thing is sure. If Jerry Falwell or other "right-wingers" had persuaded a Congressman and the President to enact a religious law favoring Christianity, all hell would break loose in the media and the ACLU, ADL, People for the American Way, and many Hollywoodites would scream bloody murder until Washington quaked with terror. Such a law wouldn't stand a chance. Where are those hypocrites now?

Now, the next thing I am going to say is more shocking to many of you. I want you to know that the entire of the religions have been invaded by this group--oh, yes, especially the MORMONS! The MORMON CHURCH is almost wholly run by organized Khazarians--I think you should look at the group of personal Bush advisers. How many will believe this? I CARE NOT WHO BELIEVES IT--MANY DIDN'T BELIEVE THE WORLD WAS ROUND, EIT-HER! WAKE UP!!!

Dharma, we must leave this for
I must have you and it at the meeting in just a few short minutes. This will be my topic for today. Thank you.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

PHONE HOME, E.T.

REACH OUT AND TOUCH
SOMEONE--LIKE GOD!
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. V

Violinio Germain, & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

Germain stresses to us the importance of true meditation and gives excellent "how to" instruction to accomplish it and how to use it to control our lives. It is the most important of all the functions of human life which advances progress.

When you accomplish true meditation you are communicating directly with God for the purpose of knowingly working with Him.

Two tapes are included with this book because written word instructions usually are not sufficient in helping you to accomplish the meditative state.

We are given the TRUE definition of love and prayer (not at all what most of us consider them to be) and the importance of understanding the true definitions so that we can improve our daily lives with this knowledge.

We are told what hypnosis is and best of all how to use self hypnosis for our benefit.

Man on Earth is transitioning into the Cosmic Age and to assist us some knowledge never before given to Earth man is being brought forth through these JOURNALS.

There are many other topics covered to assist us in our journey into the LIGHT.

NEWSLETTER/SEMI-NARS WITH GEORGE AND DE- SIREE' GREEN

AUG. 14, 4:00 PM GLOBAL
SCIENCES CONGRESS

Holiday Inn I-70 East (exit 284)
Denver, CO. 1-800-Holiday or
1-303-371-9494

RADIO SHOW

AUG. 4 Midnight - 2 AM
KTAR Chuck Christian
Phoenix, Ariz.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS:

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name
Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe

Pleiades Connection, Return
Of The Phoenix Vol. I Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner

Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT
Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades
Connection Vol. III
The Phoenix Express Vol's I
& II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's
III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V
& VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOUR-NAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS
$3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52-- $110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to:
America West Distributors,
P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi,
CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

"A FOOL who waits for 'fate' to act, without doing anything himself, perishes like an unfired pot placed in water."-Proverbs,
AND THEY CALLED HIM
NAME IMMANUEL  I AM SANANDA', America
West Publishes

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 4

8/3/91 HATONN
SATURDAY

Hatonn present in the Light of the Radiant One. May we get right "with-it" for there is much to be done this day. Dharma, let us garner a tiny bit more space. Ones in the U.S. will have to put-up with it but these messages are beyond price range of those in places like New Zealand and South Africa, etc. Let us remove spacing line on either side of headings and abbreviate where feasible. Let this be explanation enough to scholars that it is deliberate.

CLARIFICATION

First reply is to queries about information and my participation: M.M.(Acct. Better Citizenship, Calif). I shall respond in sequence, to his brilliantly written letter.

As much information as possible (truth) is gleaned from Earth publications and some of you are read well enough to recognize same. Now as to confirmation and recognition, I have two guidelines for usage: 1. I use only portions which are total TRUTH. And, I recognize all resources if qualifications are sufficiently "full" to insure that the readers don't take that which is not Truth from the book whose portion I have quoted. In the case of the book M.M. has presented for comment--I did give resource but you would not have recognized it for the entirety of the book in point is a total use of that which was projected by Eustace Mullins and Antony Sutton. I take no exception for ALL who present Truth is indeed valid and those works should NOT bear copyright dividends. If a book gives credit to God, even if in a back-door manner--I will never fail to use the author--I care not from where information of Truth comes forth. I plead with readers to copy, mutilate, spindle and READ our work and project it around as quickly and possible--all duplication welcome and blessed.

It only "appears" that these JOURNALS and EXPRESSES are "copyrighted"--it is a necessary and stupid rule which is required for placement in the front of a book for registration of the publisher ISBN number, etc. WE DO NOT COPYRIGHT OUR WORK AS SUCH NOR AS YOU THINK OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL IN THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS. However, it is thru the ISBN number that you can locate the Publisher of the books which entangles us with the Copyright process.

When the Truth writers come forward--set aside their ego enough to serve fellow-man 100% and not effort to hide Truth for their own gain--I shall do better than recognition--I shall relinquish the pen. I will herein give Mr. Skinner a mark of excellence for his "question" isolation of important points. I also give him a pat on the back for choosing the best of the valid information available. Without God in total forefront of intent, however, you shall never turn your plight around through simply changing your government and the Federal Reserve. I would welcome a letter or a suit from Mr. Skinner for it will give opportunity to REALLY set the record to correct. I am not in the business of selling "hot" property--I can assure you that I have no interest in that physical "stuff" you call "property"--my mission is to awaken a massive number of sleeping members of civilization. If a thing be Truth, dear ones, it CAN BEAR NO COPYRIGHT! Why does one not sue for use of a portion of that which you call "Holy Bible"? It is only the figment of man-conjured fantasy which may bear moral copyright!

I shall, however, ask America West if there is some legal manner in which to change the wording within our books to reflect publisher and ISBN number without the stupid copyright drivel. Please also remember that even the publisher had to come into conformity and understanding of this which is blest upon him. If there were riches enough in the pockets of the publisher--there would not even be "sale" of the material for the intent is to get information unto man--not garner money from the publications. You will see if you check the source that the costs far outweigh the income. There have been some 36 books and five equal volumes of EXPRESSES in a year and a half--the expense is enormous.

I further ask that you cease placing me in a category of human physical MAN, i.e., "As a person whose lecture content bespeaks a person with a great deal of intelligence and successful business experience, you should already know what I am talking about. What I cannot understand is how your colleague, Commander Hatonn, could have overlooked this basic principle of private property. In one of your advertising catalogs, you describe him as follows: 'I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiades Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet - Ashtar Command: Earth Representative to the Cosmic Council on Earth Transition. You may call me Hatonn. Let there be no misunderstanding of WHO I AM! I come in this portion as a fourth dimensional Project Commander in charge of Earth Transition.'"

In order: I know of your silly games and effort to garner wealth from Truth and I shall not play into such horrendous methods of disallowing information, which can reclaim your world, to go unutilized. That is a physical manifestation of greed and adversarial ego-centered gleanings. Truth is NOT "PRIVATE PROPERTY". I serve with and for God: it IS His property!

My description of self as above, was a rather primitive method of communicating my source, my service, and my identification. We all begin at kindergarten--how do you feel when I state, even at this late date--some 36 books later, that I am Aton--GOD? If you have not read ALL of the pre-material, then you will not, for sure, understand!

Do you? Will you? Man is in the middle of his testing and sorting, good friends! How did you think the WORD would come? THE WORD IS GOD! Until quite recently, in my "fourth dimensional status" I Captained a craft called the Galactica and then moved to the Bethlehem (to coordinate missions with other very high participants) and the craft assumed her original and final designation of Phoenix. This is for identification and clues to our Earth brothers.

The books are fully intended to reach the ground crew brothers and they are serving purpose most effectively. You see, I only have interest in God's children for my mission is not to tinker in your government--but rather, to allow mankind to see that which is wrong, diagnose the illness and offer treatment and, hopefully, method of cure. God forces not one iota--all we do is lay forth information and I shall use the most expeditious writings. Do you actually believe that a 60 year-old grandmother could CHOOSE nothing save Truth from the millions of books presented by the same number of authors. I can assure you, she would have chosen a good cook-book to plagiarize.

Respect for private property? What an interesting concept! You pounce upon God utilizing words of Truth and yet you allow every piece of man's private property to be taken by the robber barons called government and military, church and education! What an interesting concept that you would disallow God use of that which is hook, line and sinker HIS!

As to my identification, I might add that I am in no wise in service to any Command such as "Ashtar". I am attached in that if evacuation becomes necessary, that Command is THE Command. The identification and reference is to allow recognition of intended ones that we are come as the universal brotherhood within the akashic portion of data storage for this particular location of the cosmos. Ashtar is an identification label just as is Christ, Commander and/or any other, i.e., mother, father, sister, etc. Ashtar is a computer base for lack of better terminology which keeps track of ALL energies and at this time of transition, all ones are entered, located and recognized. This Command is headed by an energy form but the Command and the Commander are simply called 'Ashtar'.

We are come forth, not yet on your place in physical form--although often in holographic projection, as Hosts as always sent forth before a return of that one who progresses from Christed status to that of Sananda (only meaning Oneness with God). That one now comes forth for the reclaiming of that which is God's Kingdom.

The promise of God is that a final act of HIS will be to bring forth the WORD unto the four corners of the planet that man may become informed and give informed recognition to his divine choices. I cannot rewrite 40 volumes herein, if you have interest--READ THEM.

You suggest that I "require" some seven and a half minutes to traverse the distance from Pleiades to planet Earth. That is what the publisher and speaker suggests. I require no time whatsoever. In my dimension there is NO time and no space to traverse. In the physical format for a craft to travel that distance it requires dematerialization and rematerialization--point to point and human of Earth cannot understand the mechanism so what is George to tell you? If you have nothing to which to relate--how can you understand?

As to communication, we choose the best way to make contact, no more and no less. Perhaps a better way to describe our "contact" is by simply referring to her as a translator than just a receiver. The "broadcast" comes in on a frequency in the range of 1694443 but, at best, all you can "hear" is tonal pulses at a frequency so shrill and fast that you will be most uncomfortable. Dharma is given translation capability. Yes, we could write it on a computer or in the sky--what merit? Would you believe it more? No, you would NOT! Furthermore, God will work WITH you, not FOR you--please do not be remiss by skipping the heart of the publications which is the bringing forth of the workings of God and the Universal Creation--they are being labeled "Pleiades Connections" to identify the series. The PHOENIX OWNERS-OPERATOR MANUAL is probably the most valuable transmission available to mankind. It outlays the Laws of God and Creation's balance and you will come back within those laws or be well-headed in that direction, or you are in serious, serious trouble as a species civilization. P.S. I do have the best computer in the universe!

I accept the remainder of the communication from M.M. (directed to George) as good intent. There is nothing needing improvement in our communication techniques--the improvement needs to be in the men running around on your planet. My scribe has been put into cardiac arrest some half dozen times in this past year and a half and I only ask that you ponder your questions most carefully for you indicate a very limited level of insight. This is not to be critical--just factual. You see, you ones who seek change do not wish to change of own concepts--only help "another to see" and yet your own discourse indicates fantasy in idea which only gets "another" killed.

Your last paragraph tells it all, son. "Please also feel free to share this letter with Commander Hatton, using whatever communication technology you feel is appropriate. I would only ask that you not modify this letter in any way, and that you honor my own copyrights by giving me the credit I deserve for authoring this letter. Please tell him, on my behalf, that I would appreciate the opportunity to meet him in person some day soon.

What does this mean--exactly? I have no space to print your personal opinions and further, do you REALLY want me to publish your material with name, address and phone number--especially your private one? The last time such information was given an immediate promise of assassination was made to the writer and to the publisher. You are playing at something which is NOT a game--it only LOOKS like James Bond. People in service of Truth get very, very dead in the physical form by unwillingness to bypass a bit of EGO. I am sorry, M.M., I have absolutely no interest in your copyrights nor in your publication for there is nothing which I can use. You are most welcome to attend a visit with me--but you will not find my 9 1/2 foot presence--however, you will not be left to ponder whether or not I am REAL. I believe you can find enough proof to give you confirmation of this statement. I do most surely bow to the research you have done to compile the well-written correspondence and this I offer in full sincerity and candor. You see, it indicates desire for knowledge and I honor that above all things of the physical. When knowledge equals "wisdom", I rejoice!

We have no cute seminars nor week-end astral travel trips. Nor do we sit in lotus position awaiting the shower of God. We meet because we have work to do. There is no boredom herein--nor ego-trips of one over another--everyone is too busy to care about the other's ego-mania. You are ready to lose your last vestige of freedom through loss of your Constitution to the Elite bastard tribe and you had better pay attention to the facts and quit the tinkering. Accept the Truth for the seriousness which it presents whether it comes from Mullins, Skinner, Coleman, Gritz, Helms, etc. It is the facts, not the copyright, which bear notice and action--not who "spilled the pot of beans"!

If your intent is truly to serve and in acknowledgment of loss of freedom and return unto Godness and into Freedom (which you have not had for over a century) you would not even mention the items which you have covered. I, however, welcome most humbly the opportunity to reply and offer this dissertation for it is for the whole--not for M.M. alone. Get your priorities in order or you are GONE!

VELIKOVSKY

To all of you, along the lines of above subject matter of recognition of writers. I can't have space to recognize all writers but I do recognize inquiry of Mrs. J.N.S. (Fla/Ky) regarding the work of Velikovsky. His is blessed information with much truth of your history. You will have difficulty finding the books. If you would care to share with your brothers, I would entertain giving some of his information as we have time. As for missing history of the Egyptians, I believe Germain is writing this very week on the early God-influenced Egyptian times which are missing from your annals. It is that all times in historical documentation, which deal with the ONE GOD, are deleted to the fullest extent possible. It was through the Egyptians that the ONE God was recognized at the Dawn of Consciousness in the human species. You must understand that you do not understand the ongoing manifestation of a species or civilization. The adversary had to see to it that the one term "reincarnation", and concept, be removed from your Bible unto the Christians and Hebrews for it removed the ability to control, through power, the masses in the human setting. You start a long way back--at the beginning and move all the way forward in experience--you are seed and you are immortal and the path has been incorrectly laid forth to mislead you--I believe you call it "the primrose path". I do not intend to further comment herein regarding the material for the very concept of "how it is", "manifestation", physical, spiritual is confused and that information is in the process of being brought forth at this time--LET US REALLY TALK ABOUT IT AFTER YOU HAVE ACCESS TO THE RESOURCE FOR IT IS COMING AS QUICKLY AS MY SCRIBE CAN WRITE IT--AND DEPENDING ON HOW MANY OF THESE DISTRACTIONS I HAVE AND HOW MANY FIRES THERE ARE TO EXTINGUISH.

You ask about the ones, Hyksos, of Egyptian history. Yes, those are the same beings who in Greek Mythology are represented by Hypnos meaning guardians (of the "sleeping"), asserting communication and contact through the now-recognized "subconscious" mind of human through circumventing the conscious critical human-related mind--through "hypnosis". Nothing mystical--absolutely feasible and specifically explained easily through physics.

By the way, there was an alternative plan to have the Christ present through the Egyptians at the time of the Christ presentation as Immanuel (Esu) in Judea. Had that route been utilized the Son's label would have been "Sananda"--even before fulfillment of his "graduation". You can look up these things.

"Esu" was also a portion of HIS name in both languages.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Please read the following most carefully for it is a plea to you, America. For you who can take time to write and share with these brave ones--please give love and support to them for they work without rest and are watching their nation move into total destruction--without hope.

.....The morning after I had spoken to you I knew without a doubt what had to be done to distribute Truth more effectively in South Africa... It can only be done if we can reduce the cost of all information from our cosmic teachers to the absolute minimum. And that means printing whatever we can here. At present the Journals cost over R40 each. That is approximately 4 times the price paid in American dollars (if one earns dollars). Besides, here R40 can buy a family's bread for a month!

One particular charity organization has been feeding many of the hungry on the Reef (i.e. the Johannesburg area), over the past years as sanctions took their toll. First it mostly affected the black communities, but it has now spilt over into the white people, over 25,000 persons from which families are now also fed on a weekly basis. These often include highly qualified parents who are out of work. They accept "handouts" with averted eyes, filled with shame at the fact that circumstances have forced them to become "beggars". This is in the Johannesburg area alone! In other parts of the country there often are not even friends or family to help the hungry, as they all are in the same boat.

One of our Provinces, namely the Eastern Cape, has experienced the worst drought in human memory. Farmers in certain areas have no money to support themselves. They, and their livestock--that which is still alive--depend on aid (including water) Control Boards (Potato Board/Maise Board/Wool Board, etc.) who, with their offerings blind the people even further to the fact that in times of artificial induced prosperity they are in total manipulative control of the people's lives.

Oh yes, there is very much a section of the S. African population who can afford to buy the Journals at whatever price, but sadly they are mostly the ones who will not be interested in Truth--many of them are in Government, or in power and greed waiting to take over Government. A few years back our Min. of Finance, Mr. Barend du Plessis warned that, because of inflation, the housewife simply had to tighten her belt and forget all luxuries, while during that very same month he took delivery of a new Mercedes Benz (luxury model), paid for by the over-burdened taxpayers. When Mr. Mandela was released he was gifted a new, luxury model, Mercedes by the manufacturers....

Others, like the churches, held a "Bibliathon" earlier this year and collected millions to print Bibles for distribution among the populace. This big movement "for peace", however, is blinded by ego which has no time for anybody who considers that the "Holy Book" may have deliberate error.

Then, of course, there are those who run the monopolies, especially the mining houses of which every single string is pulled by Khazars.

Finally, the biggest (and in many instances only) news agency and distributor of books, the Central News Agency (CNA), is Khazar owned and controlled. The Journals will not stand a chance of being distributed by them.

One would think that organizations like the Free Market Foundation would want to help. I worked for the Foundation... Will people who believe that life is in the first and last instance no more and no less than a biological/chemical reaction in the brain, aid that which their minds cannot conceive of? Will people who are willing to belong to an organization (the Libertarian Movement), in which there are also people who believe that it is each individual's libertarian right, if he so chooses, to have sex with a child, providing the child consents--will they ever find freedom in any law but their own? Will people who preach "democracy" and "safe sex" instead of Republic and Responsibility ever repent?!

Oh, I'm sorry, the letter seemed to have run away with me, when all I wanted to do was sincerely thank you for responding to my previous letter... Karen, perhaps, as with all things, there is good reason for this. Perhaps it is a letter meant as much for Hatonn, Dharma, George, Desiree', and the rest of you working to get the WORD out.

I cannot even begin to tell you about much that really is happening in this country of ours--if I, who am a nobody knows this much, how much does the ones in the knowing know?! All I can say is that I speak from experience. First I petitioned for civil rights for all, and I was labeled a rebel and liberal. Then I petitioned for my rights not to be taken away in the process of Government dictating to others what, where and how their rights might be, and I was labeled a racist... I grew up in a household where the seeds of Truth were planted in my late teens, only I never recognized them for what they were. I thought my father was a fanatic, but still I read the books he gave me and they opened my mind to search and search... I worked for a Khazar, who is not part of the elite, and who showed me that I should love my father for bringing me into this world even when my world caved in at the age of twenty odd when the book "Super Afrikaner" was published and my father's name appeared in it... Yet, another Khazar, whose family considers themselves part of the elite--encouraged me to break the Law's of God which I had not already broken...

With my heart in pieces, my judgement impaired, I became the useful and unwitting decoy for an outright criminal in the S. African 'Information Scandal' and were it not for the grace of God (which I knew not then), through a friend who was a State Attorney, the S.A. Secret Police had every intention of using my innocence (unbeknownst to me) to accomplish their tasks...

Very much later, about six years ago, I found myself part of the media committee of a bunch of nobodies who had the courage to stand up against a Government department which, with the callous stroke of a pen, wanted to sign away our lives. We made so much noise, persistently, that our entire country knew about us--and other groups of people started to align themselves publicly where they previously had only apathy for their own rights being signed away. Public pressure forced Government to postpone decisions indefinitely. Let that give everyone courage--if it could work in a country where there is no Bill of Rights, how much easier would voices count in a country which still (albeit just) stands under that liberty? In the process one also discovers where, and how (through a hundred and one front organizations), vested interests manipulate legislation to fill their own pockets.

I know Hatonn keeps telling the American people that they are the WORLD'S LAST HOPE FOR FREEDOM. PLEASE TELL THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WE KNOW THAT TOO! IF ONLY THEY DARE STAND UP FOR THEIR GOD GIVEN RIGHTS, THEY WILL FIND SUPPORT ACROSS THE WORLD FROM PEOPLE LIKE US, WHOSE VERY DIGNITY THE NEW OR-DER IS NOW ROBBING FROM US. I KNOW, BECAUSE MY HUSBAND (A CAMBRIDGE GRADUATE), WAS ALSO RETRENCHED FROM HIS JOB LAST YEAR, YET WITH EFFORT AND FAITH WE'VE NEVER LACKED.

I am not alone, the ones who should really be writing this are too busy helping others or spreading Truth--often risking their very lives--bringing the message of hope to both black and white, and it seems, hardly surprisingly so, that the black people who are exposed to Truth's hope are often more open to its seeds than the cocooned white man. Therefore, also tell the American people not to believe all that is shown them about South Africa in their media. What they can believe is that the real tragedy, hunger and suffering in Africa, is not something they want to wish upon their enemy--let alone their neighbour--but if they don't wake up it WILL SURELY VISIT THEM AND THEIR CHILDREN NEXT.

In South Africa there are people who paid with their lives because they were brave enough to write books in which they took the trouble to look up the dictionary meaning of "International/internationalism", and also in print talked about the true Judeans. Unfortunately they, or their work, were hardly known.

There are still South Africans left who are brave enough to spread the whole Truth, but this time, as it comes from the "horse's mouth". Please remember us in your prayers--we need that protection, strength and love... We need the means to bring the word to those (across our sub-continent), who can hardly afford food. Ask with us that God would provide and direct us; that we will not fail to see how and where we can serve as the part of the body which he intends us to serve as.

I look out of my window as I wonder what I can send you all who are working so diligently for Creation God. Indigenous trees are joyously giving away the secret whereabouts of an unseen breeze; a turtle dove and a sunbird are singing their songs; the sun is shining even while it is night on your side of the world... And I know that we are all gifted beyond ever really needing to give or receive from another who stands within that Gift, if we but only stay in the knowing of it. With Love, A.

P.S. Something for "Dharma" and Hatonn. I was given some unexpected work on another person's manuscript which is to be published in the U.S. next year. (How wonderful, God already provided the first few rands to spread truth!) In the book he mentions that the Nigerian tribe, the Yoruba, has a God called ESU. From what I could gather the features of their God do not resemble an African's but rather that of a Semite (i.e., either wood carvings or metal statues, I'm not sure).

(I delete personal information from the following but I wish to share the section on economy and possibilities. The portion missing regards the advantages of investing/borrowing against gold. This section was addressed to George--I will begin quoting at non-personal juncture.)property to buy gold--interest rates are +/- 20%! With income totally unassured there is often barely enough to pay necessities, and one stands a real chance of even losing the property if due payments are not made on time. Many people have already lost their properties in this way.has some pension fund which will pay out around R54,000 after his 54th birthday (a couple of years away). If he draws that now the Government will take +/- 45% in tax and the Administrators will take between 6%-10%... Earlier this yearalmost forced to draw the money to pay off a house bond.

...kept on hoping (seemingly against all odds and with doubt), that things would hold for another two years... ...want to do something to keep everything together as best we can, and we know that we will have to do that if we want to be spiritually strong enough to work all-out for Truth.

There are so many options--so many decisions to make. Does one apply the money to secure the property? Does one apply it to spread Truth? Do we lapse another insurance that we may have (car/home/etc., and one or two policies), which will release more monthly income to apply towards ...the WORD? Do we have to build shelters in S.A. too? Where? ...All this seems to be telling me is that we have to listen more carefully to the still voice within! However, we're willing to take whatever advice that may come from people who perhaps hear their own still voice much louder than we hear ours. Any suggestions? Love again.

[Annamie and Mike Gardner: P.O. Box 68871, Bryanston 2021, Rep. South Africa. Tel. (011)659-1278. Please, if you will, acknowledge these workers. There are many, but the way is indeed harder for many than for you ones. Please accept their "experience" as your lesson and do not allow this enslavement to come upon civilization.]

They are reprinting EXPRESSES in tiny format to allow savings in costs--so tiny, friends, that it actually needs a magnifying glass to read. But ones are starved for Truth and they are willing to do this in order to have Truth. AS AMERICA GOES--SO GOES THE WORLD! Allow these ones, George, to know we will give them any assistance we have which helps--even to sending discs and directly reprint right off the original, without covers, etc. Work it out--God's people are the ones

NOT in the high places and to whom God has promised the WORD.

I have another letter from New Zealand, portions of which I will share--blessed Americans, look and see that which is hidden from you--on your shoulders rests freedom of a planet or enslavement and destruction! The time is at hand for action in Truth. GOD WILL LEAD YOU BUT HE WILL NOT DO IT FOR YOU! HE WILL POINT THE WAY AND HELP DISCERN THE CHOICES AND OFFER INSTRUCTIONS AND KNOWLEDGE--HE WILL GO WITH YOU--NOT FOR YOU.

We are honored and humbly appreciative for that which will be coming within our team most soon. There will be options for information and presentation of that which IS as uncovered--cover-up, and we will be able to turn more to this type of information--there will be huge quantities of inquiries as "Pleiades Connections" and Universal order and unfoldment reaches eyes and ears--and therein lies total necessity to respond for it is the very source and foundation of MAN and his connection to God--along with instructions and information regarding immortality and that which is available unto you.

PLAGIARIZATION OF LETTER TO de KLERK, S. AFRICA

Since it was given originally by myself, I suppose we shall allow full benediction upon my beautiful Brother! You see, we have a wondrous community at work on this side also.

July 23, 1991 (de-Klerk)

Dear Sir,

In the name and love of All Mighty God--who you so dishonour: it is hereby made known to you, that which was told to you under the will and testimony of God has by your hand befallen upon this beloved land of South Africa. May God forgive that which you have knowingly done for evil beyond your wildest imagining now stalks this land. By not heeding those who gave, and give you Truth, you have signed the death warrant of the children of Africa... For you allowed your ego of the position you falsely acquired, the propaganda of your masters, to go to your head--and you heard not the "still small voice" within above the clamour of the crowd.

May heaven and all her hosts, of which I am a part, now be heard? I think not, as you try to bluff your way through the days ahead as those of the Illuminati, of whom I warned, find it expedient to drop you, you having now fulfilled your purpose and use to them.

In the falseness of their proclamation of a desire for world peace, will the aftermath of the coming months result in a terror so horrible upon this and other lands--and be termed: "The One, or New World Order"--which in Truth is neither more nor less than the rule of Lucifer--the antithesis of God--the anti-Christ!!

So-be-it, for man perverted by a million shades of interpretations of the Will of God as set forth by God and deliberately tampered with by Satan--no longer knows his Maker, but worships idols in his (man) image and likeness instead!!

So-be-it: for when the leaders of the nation, be they those of politics or religion, perceives money better spent upon a so-called Holy Book (as already stated, badly tampered with), whilst the children starve for food, then must that nation, like the Pharisees of old, fall? For there is no longer morality, logic nor compassion in the sight of God, but a bungling mass of idiots attempting to buy their way into heaven!!!

So-be-it: for then those who govern a nation feather their loins with gold, and openly kill (starve), and steal (tax out of sight), and sell their nation into the arms of the awaiting Illuminati by usurious means, whilst the people remain with no shelter, that is the time to remember "Jesus'" (Emanuel) example as He overturned the tables of the Money Lenders!

So-be-it: For when those responsible sell onto their people sport and immoral entertainment for propaganda purposes for their masters--the Illuminati and the anti-Christ--in order to hypnotize their Nation asleep to the dangers confronting them, then surely a nation will fall as night follows day!!

So-be-it: For when thieves and robbers are turned loose upon a people, anarchy must follow!!

So-be-it: for when democracy is sold to a nation in the name of justice and government--when in fact it benefits but a few--rule by demons will become the order of the day!!

So-be-it: for unless this Nation awakes from the demonic spell so placed upon it--oft times in the name of a god, that is not GOD, and the Christianity--as far removed from all that Christ taught as the furthest star, is a certain prescription for, and the very fulfillment of, all end times prophecy!!

In the name and love of All Mighty God, I declare this and more to be the full and horrendous truth come upon you lest you the people of this Nation awaken to these facts which surround you in a kaleidoscope.

Awake, my friends, to the illogic of all that enslaves you, rendering your lives less meaningful by the day--nay, hour.

Do you with honesty believe as you are taught by these minions of evil that your material gain will benefit you in your final hour over and above knowledge of the meaning and purpose for which you were created? In fact, what makes you accept the teaching that another in the eyes of God can shoulder individual responsibility for your lives? Yes, it is this perverted factor/manipulation of the truth brought and demonstrated by Christ which alone is responsible for the direction many a sincere but thoroughly undiscerning soul has taken, leading to the current plight of Man as a whole. And, as just stated, this is merely the tip of the iceberg in the arsenal by which Lucifer has gained control over you... For, if each and every man upon this planet assumed total responsibility for self and his every action--as did He who lived amongst you, would you dare with impunity to take advantage of, or harm another?

"You"--as underlined above were there my friend, when one time or another He has walked amongst you in very essence and in the flesh. Countless opportunities, in Love, this Great Christ Spirit gave you to learn the Truth and Way of God... On countless times have you in your complacency allowed another to limit and dogmatize this Truth, lead you astray, and rob you of your heritage and unity with your Father--GOD!

Yes, my friends, I speak of matters forbidden by Satan for your conscious understanding: reincarnation upon this placement of you--your soul... For do you with honesty believe your Father is so uncaring as to condemn in judgement without a second, or seventy times seven chances to set your record to right? Yet you have allowed Lucifer and his offshoot, Satan, to prevail over you with his graduated level of evil to deceive you.

This, my friends, is the trump card of the so-called Illuminati--they know the absolute truth of the soul's return. They therefore know with an equal certainty that the long-term strategy they set in motion generations gone by to wrest this jewel of a planet, and all that dwell hereon, from God will reap tangible rewards in this lifetime, indeed, so vast their numbers now incarnate--so evil their ways of final thrust for takeover, that it is with wonder and devastating sadness that we look down upon you, and see you fall into the trap of which you have been warned from the earliest of days.

So-be-it: for free will to choose was given you, and it is not ours to step in and save you, but to give of our knowledge in final warning of what is upon you, and entreat you to mend your ways.

Thus do I in Love and service for this Nation of South Africa, in the Holy name of God who sent me to make the Absolute Truth of your rapidly declining position known.

I am who I am,

Omegon in service of God, elder brother of Man and one with the Universe unending.

To you who ask if "this" be the only place where the Word is coming forth--your answer! May the Light be given to shine in the dark corridors of all the nations. Amen.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning

Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION; THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE' GREEN

AUG. 14, 4:00 PM GLOBAL
SCIENCES CONGRESS

Holiday Inn I-70 East (exit 284)
Denver, CO. 1-800-Holiday or 1-303-371-9494

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon

The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of
The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 5

8/7/91 GERMAIN
WEDNESDAY

Germain present in the Mighty I AM, in the three-fold flame of transmutation. I would ask that this response be allowed the sharing after permission is granted, of course. Names can be deleted or changed according to requests. I do not, however, see need for such for the inquiry comes from a humble and beseeching heart and all of you who receive this are asking the self-same questions. To save writing time for my scribe, please make a copy of the letter and return with the document. The letter can be shared or not, according to Penny's wishes.

I am going to respond in an order out of sequence with the petition for I want to point out several things not contained in the message and most likely already made clear in your mind. I respond to the petition--not to this keyboard. If Penny had been able, at the meeting in which we spoke of these things, to ask more response from me--I would not write in this manner at all. I do, however, welcome the opportunity to reply to confusing quandaries regarding the path home. Actually, Penny is only distressed because it was necessary for her to sit and pen the "problem" which caused lack of rest--we cannot leave you without utilizing tools given for "problem solution". It is necessary that you who will guide and teach--insist that your students utilize the tools presented and in that, you can be allowed to do no less.

Every step of EVERY JOURNEY needed to this point, to be exactly as it has been. You may not allow yourself to look upon ANY EXPERIENCE as unnecessary, and NEVER as "WRONG".

Let us clear away a misconception before progressing for in taking a thing out of context or without benefit of full input--you cannot discern meaning of statements. I must re-state a very, very important FACT. This "team" is NOT A MEETING PLACE FOR THOSE JUST SEEKING THEIR PATHWAY--YOU ONES ARE THE ONES WHO WILL SEE THIS CYCLE THROUGH--YOU AND YOUR OFFSPRING. THIS IS NOT A SEMINAR COURSE WHICH WILL POOF, AND PASS AWAY--THIS IS PARTICIPATION IN WHICH YOU GLEAN THE GOOD, BAD, EVIL AND PERFECTION--SORT IT AND DISCARD THAT WHICH IS NO LONGER USEFUL--NEVER DO YOU DISCARD THAT WHICH IS TRUTH AND GUIDANCE.

My statement regarding "The Course in Miracles" was a direct reply to Desiree's question. Desiree has grown into receiving and writing for the Master Teacher who gave forth the course in the first place--it is NOT kindergarten study for ones coming into factual truth on the path--it is NOT THAT FROM WHICH DESIREE WOULD GLEAN FURTHER KNOWLEDGE. I will not, nor will Hatonn or any other speaker to this group, waste time by treating you as THE kindergarten child. If new ones join the group--they will have to catch up their past lessons from the JOURNALS and the work already given for we must move and we cannot get stalled out with each visitor who wants to catch up without any effort nor study.

Some of you are far more advanced than you realize and the setting will seem immediately appropriate. But you will have missed the sessions in which you are told these specific things. You will have missed the sessions wherein Hatonn says to the guests, "...you are welcome to sit with us but do not expect to understand it all for that is for you to 'catch-up';, our only purpose is in WORK and bringing forth the WORD and attending a 'remnant'. We do not have catch-up sessions as such for that was all covered in prior material as we trained our scribe. We have no meetings for entertainment or 'personal' growth as such except as to allow our team to come into unity enough to function well. The elders then must assist the newcomers until the materials are absorbed and understood."

This is why, Penny, I won't answer some of your inquiries in this printed format, for some is your own personal and precious understanding and this scribe has no business being the conduit--to one with whom I already commune constantly. This is your confusion, precious, not in communication--only in working intent. Each group serves a greatly different purpose in the tapestry and each ONE serves a differing portion within each "group". For instance, what might have been a focal point of service for you, personally, in another setting will be changed by the circumstances. You, for instance, are expecting a most important child--you will be protected from overload and as much stress as is possible in this time of chaos--that the child might have every opportunity to grow in Truth and into its own service.

You would not have made this transition to this placement had I not pushed and shoved--it is only the full understanding of WHY and HOW that concerns you--that perchance you erred. Errors in perception are based upon fear of making another error similar to ones in which lessons should have been learned in the first one. But you cannot turn off God--for the timing of a prior action may be all that is lacking--or, in this instance: "Will you hear the voice reaching out behind the barrier of human consciousness?"

Now, please understand another thing--the I AM Activity of which you speak--is valid, it was MY voice--UNTIL men decided to turn it into an organization run by MAN. Does this make the teachings untrue? Nay, it only shows that Man in his consciousness is ALWAYS touched by the physical, the largest of which is ego, and structure is introduced according to opinion or vote or perception (opinion), etc. It becomes of the "physical", no more and no less.

Let us deal for just a moment with Ascension. If ones are not most careful and especially after a generation or two passes--things are misinterpreted. For instance, yes, I can, did and do ascend and descend. Exactly what does that mean? It means that I know the LAWS OF THE UNIVERSAL WORKINGS AND CAN USE THEM--NO MORE AND NO LESS. Were I not a Godly person I could still use them and that is what "magic" is. It seems very important to the physical being to take that old worn out body with you to "somewhere out there". That is the very LAST thing one of Truth in KNOWING would take with him. So, the very teaching of bodily Ascension is in error for the masses for that which is meant and that which is received are totally in opposition. The only reason that the Christos, for instance, would appear in a physical image is solely for recognition to those who would not be advanced enough to simply recognize the energy. If they cannot accept the energy--no amount of physical appearance would work anyway. Let me example--say, I write here at this keyboard--DO YOU KNOW THAT I AM NOT DHARMA, HAVING FOUND IT SUITABLE TO APPEAR AS SHE? WHAT ABOUT GEORGE GREEN? OBERLI--RUSSELL? What you MUST learn to KNOW is that, in fact, I very often do exactly that for--in the whole of it--all is ONE!

"Oh," you might say, "but you cannot be George for he speaks an error from time to time!" So?? If I present in human physical format--I am what I AM!

Now you may be able to better see that which I am outlaying right now in the JOURNALS--the TRUTH of what exactly is God and what is the Universe and HOW it works. We have to take every opportunity with you who are our closest working proximity and see if we can reach through to you after eons of false input. Do you see, even if in error (as you might perceive it)--GOD IS PERFECTION. He needs not ascend, descend or wink at you. EVERYTHING YOU PERCEIVE AND JUDGE MUST BE JUDGED BY THE GUIDELINES OF THE LAWS GIVEN FORTH FOR YOUR DISCERNING. If you are nudged to do a thing--say, as you mention, to come to this location. Share, "sleep" on it in the presence of God with sincere petition for clarity, measure it against ALL the laws (not just the ones you like), see if the move is feasible, see if the location "feels" right, and you will not go astray. This requires great understanding of the Laws for self and not just tag along after a "speaker"--for THAT is very often the testing lesson--"Will you just follow anyone or thing who proclaims to be of Truth?" I.e., suppose I speak through Dharma and say, "Go to the highest point of the mountain and wait for me." Who will hop up and go and who will not be so foolish--just because she said it? It is up to her to clear her space and allow no darkness within--but she is NOT TO DO IT FOR YOU. Neither is she to tamper with our plan and testing for another in the room. She would come forth after making a statement like that and I promise you, that without measuring every action and word, she would discard the idea. You are expected to act instantly and, believe me, when the big moment of "instant" response is needed YOU WILL KNOW! UNTIL THEN YOU ARE EXPECTED TO STUDY AND DISCERN WITH EVERY FACET OF INFORMATION GIVEN UNTO YOU. Check every command against the listings of "clues" which have been given unto you and if it fails any ONE of them--look very cautiously indeed. Now, as to going to the highest mountain peak and waiting for me. Would I actually be apt to ask you to do that with nothing more than "because I said so?" NOT ON YOUR LITTLE PINKY! You would be expected to know all that I have given you prior to that request and check it out within self to make sure it is correctly received. Dharma's mouth is not your command.

Let us leave that for a moment and consider "placement". All ones have preconceived notions of possible service and participation. Now, let us assume that you go to a place wherein I have no other speaker of prior placement. Then you will need to respond and do that which you are given. When you join a team which is already making movement in a direction and the Truth is apparent--you must await directions. It does not mean that you are even in error of the nudges--it means that you are beginning to receive and focus purpose. It is the scattering of energy in differing practices which must be avoided. I wish my own teachers to give forth that which I GIVE, not the tools of Silva Mind Control or Gil Boyne or Ted Oslanderburg. In this immediate instance, until I get the Truth into print (for this is THE working explanation of the Universe) not given forth before in its fullness for only now is this civilization of MAN even nearly capable of understanding, I ask that ones hold in patience and ongoing study of MY METHODS before we open up unto more confusion.

The reason I do not even like to speak of Silva Mind Control is exactly that--Mind Control. I understand what "they" tell you about it. But the facts are, the methods utilized for self-growth in communication with the God of Light is not the intent! It is the full intent--TO CONTROL--ANOTHER!! It is subtle in projection in layout to you unsuspecting ones but it is geared directly to the expansion of the "physical" and the focus becomes on the "physical" of the One involved playing directly into the intent of greed. This, too, however, does not mean that all within the teachings are evil--but one must discern. You, perhaps, gained only GOOD from the experience--I promise you that that one expensive group of robbers has done damage beyond the counting to thousands of unsuspecting individuals.

Another very important point to you ones who, like Penny, say the following: "...I even question (now) my 'so called' contacts and experiences that I think that I have had in the past with YOU." GOOD! Question always! Does it mean that to question--negates? Because something not fully understood causes a bit of confusion--would you be here if you were in the absolute and total state of KNOWING? No, you would be as me, in the guiding. You see, you ones are the guides in this journey--as Hatonn said on the yesterday--you don't become etheric to be guides unto the lesser in comprehension. That is why the responsibility is, so great. I have my own guides in the form of the Sananda and of course, the Truth projection of our Creator who can only truly EXPRESS by thought and "guides". This IS the experience of manifestation. This, in fact, IS manifestation.

You accurately define me, Penny; I serve as "guide" and if I were in total perfection I would be the Source--I have not yet arrived at that level of total perfection in the voidance of ONENESS. I rather enjoy this role for I have still my experience in which to function before I become within the Creator and begin anew in another experience. You ones are my brothers with whom I have long served and I fully anticipate each new experience in the sharing with you as you grow into higher placement into unification ever moving toward Giving and becoming.

Why would you cling to that which was represented as ME in the I AM expression? Because you found Truth within self for nothing that you had found prior in searching, was fulfilling. But, If you found total perfection in the I AM group, you would be in proximity and service to that group--not here. You are looking for the ME in the teachings--not the group as such. That means that you will put aside the physical manifestation of MY PRESENCE in the oneness WITH ME. That will not be located in any building, group or "another". How blessed are you, however, when you find the balance of another to walk with you and bear thine children and share journey.

Because you find this, does it mean you will act in perfection and pious "being". No--you will have human attributes for you are expressing in the human format--when you actually have the perfection of a Godly Master--you will experience in that manifestation suitable. It is the ability to discern the difference which is the lesson and measure of growth in readiness for the next experience.

Many times you of the physical will choose and ask in a guide such as myself, or Michael, or Little Eagle, or, or, or--because you, in your human limitations, feel more comfortable with a "lesser" being than the "top banana", or you "don't want to bother" the "top banana". But realize something, precious ones, if you did not feel that way--how could we "lesser" ones serve and win our own merit badges? My job is to cause you to rise above ME in your KNOWING and then we will just be beloved friends--inseparable one from the other and I will have fulfilled my task. You see, as long as man builds a temple unto me--I HAVE FAILED TO BRING TRUTH IN COMPREHENSION UNTO YOU! Of course it is hard in the physical to function other than physical--my next job is to prepare you with Truth and methods so that you who comprehend CAN MAKE THAT TRANSITION. Many are ready and do not know it. Many are so primitive and new in growth that they will not know Truth from eons of experiences--that is their path--YOURS IS TO LEARN AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE THAT YOU MIGHT SHOW THE SEARCHING ONES, THE PROPER PATH. YOU are not the focus--YOU ARE THE CONDUIT IN SPECIFIC PLACEMENT FOR THE OVERALL TASK AT HAND IN THE CLOSING/-OPENING OF CYCLE. THIS CIVILIZATION HAS REACHED THE NEXT DOORWAY AND MUST PASS THROUGH OR GO BACK INTO DARK TIMES AND AWAIT EONS OF SEARCHING TO COME AGAIN TO THIS POINT. I, TOO, AM JUDGED ON MY ACTIONS AND THAT WHICH I CAN CAUSE YOU TO UNDERSTAND--THE FATHER BLOCKS SOME OF YOU FROM INSIGHT--TO ALLOW ME TO GIVE THESE EXACT LESSONS AND SEE THAT WHICH I NEED TO IMPROVE AND ENLARGE OR CAST OFF IN THE LESSONS. If I can get you bird-tribe winged ones into airworthiness and get YOU airborne--there is hope for the rest of the grounded fledglings.

You must understand that I have failed prior to now. My intent is to this time, succeed. If I had succeeded, there would be naught but I AM in the physical experience and you would all be so Godly we could just "kick back" and take a rest break. Esu Immanuel failed--that is why he attempts this time in His reaching for the state of Sananda. Will we succeed this time? God knows--it is not for us who are within the experience to know lest we fail to do our BEST. Our vision from this side is ALL-KNOWING, yes, but that only means that we KNOW how it ends, we are not given many more advantages than that ONE. Each move that we make depends upon the moves that YOU make and in that, dear ones, is the challenge--we must get you comfortable with us so that you act according to our higher KNOWLEDGE. Who will you cling to? God? Physical? Most ones will snatch their own laundry in from the rain even if it be unworthy! Ponder it.

You concern over the unborn child. What IS--IS. If you remain as teacher for Truth--you will have done that which is expected of self. Worry and "what if" will not bear a shred of anything other than agony. The child is coming for a purpose and you are not given to know that purpose. If it returned to God this day--it is for purpose and you must accept that which IS in glory and appreciation that the Creator knows best and always serves ONLY that which gives you further growth and He will never give that which is heavier than you can bear. YOU have not insight enough in this veiled experience to know total purpose.

In your inquiry, Penny, which asks: "Dare I ask or know how much of you I really received?" You KNOW that one, child, so I shall not embarrass you by response.

You honor me, blessed friends, by being a part of our study and instruction with our other brethren gathered for this great service--well, beloved--no more than I am honored and privileged to again be allowed service with you ones. With all experiences of separation in aspect, we have recognition of our unity and the loneliness is great and the longing often agony in our desire to again be ONE. But THAT is the purpose of our service--that the fragments in experience be allowed insight which can only be made available through the physical outlay from higher source. If there were no higher state to attain--there would be no point in the journey. Salu.

Remember, friends, all that is this moment is but a temporary thing. I want to say to you again in bringing to your attention this seemingly vital point, that as you give attention to the "Presence", as you give your Life energy back to Life to amplify and pour forth with greater power and intensity, you are giving attention to the Source of all that IS on Earth. When you give your attention to the human appearance world of its creation, you are giving attention to that which has only its limited power of the energy which it has drawn forth for the moment. It has no sustaining power. Therefore, you are not subject to the distress and limitations of the appearance world.

It is so important that you understand this and know that when you withdraw your attention from the appearance world of limitations and discord and give it back to the Presence of Life, the Mighty I AM, where it belongs--then the Presence through the Higher Mental Body will release through your world of action Its Infinite Power, Its Limitless Energy, Its Mighty, Directing Intelligence.

The United States, for instance, is the Chosen Place housing the chosen people--I did not say "race", "creed", "color"--I said people and place. It is from here and through you that the stand will be made and it is most critical that you ones hold unto this very understanding.

Up until this "Understanding" came forth, many of mankind were still living ninety percent of the suggestions of OTHERS about them--you still wish to do so. This is instead of their own selection of world of action, but they did not know better. Therefore, as you come to understand that and take your attention off the "appearance" world and give it back to the "Presence of Life", you will have the Perfection of Life, the Intelligence flowing in and through your body with so much greater volume body with so much greater volume that you will be astonished at first to see that here, all through the centuries, has your own Life been flowing into your body. Not knowing that IT was the Individualized Focus of God and that you in the physical body are the outpost, you have not had this great Blessing that can and will come to you.

Therefore I say to you, any human being on the face of your earth Shan who is honest and sincere can prove this law to himself, and no one can prove IT wrong. Therefore, you have entered into a very different understanding than ever in your Life. All kinds of understanding have required faith. This does not require faith.

I say to you, friends, the trouble with mankind is in looking outside of themselves for the things that they need, for the adjustment of the conditions, and they will never find it there. When you want correction of anything, you have to go to the Source of Life in order to have it permanently. You might apply certain human understanding to yourself and feel temporary results, but you all know in all your strenuous effort for adjustment of conditions and for a greater release into your world of use, you have only had temporary results at most.

There have been a few individuals who have come into embodiment this time with gathered energy that has sustained them almost throughout their Life, but they find all of a sudden that energy is gone, is used up, because they did not know how to replenish it. Now today, in the Understanding of your "Great Presence", mankind needs more than ordinary energy.

The Messengers have proven to the World that They are able to call forth limitless energy; and more than five hundred thousand people see that and know that They do it. Therefore, that privilege is for every one of mankind who will give the same earnest attention they have given to the Great Presence of Life, Creator, and let It pour Its Great Power, Intelligence, and Energy in greater volume through the physical form. Our purpose is to make it easier for you to contact that resource and utilize it. This will release through the humblest person a Light Ray to assist a person, place, or condition. But when it is in your own Life activity, your own Life Stream, it must come through your own intellect, your own feeling world, your own brain and body. That is why as you give attention to the Presence of Life you will find that this Stream of "Light" as our own diagrams will show--will intensify, causing the Light within your body to EXPAND, giving you the greatest freedom, the greatest joy, the greatest consciousness that you have touched the mainspring of Life which does release Its Infinite Power into action through your body and at your Call--through the projection of the Light Rays to whatever condition is required.

We have been speaking definitely about YOU individually. Now then, let me expand this Understanding into your city, into your Nation, into the World--because, Beloved Friends of America, understand definitely that mankind is living in the mental and feeling world. The physical body is but the shield or garment which they are wearing. Now when you understand this, that you are mental and feeling beings, then you know that all mankind are mental and feeling beings.

Therefore, as you project through these thoughts, there goes forth like a mighty, pulsating wave through and into the mental and feeling world of mankind; and its far-reaching power is beyond any human concept to understand. Its far-reaching power you cannot comprehend in the outer intellect, but We from the Octave of Light see and know those vibrations going forth quite as well as you see the effects of your electricity here in the outer world, but with far greater power.

Now, notice the difference. You in the use of your electricity see the effects by your light and by your power. We see cause and effect both in action at the same time through the vibratory action that goes forth in the mental and feeling world of mankind and where We produce so-called "miracles" in the use of the Great Streams of Energy and Light Rays; yet it is all perfectly natural. As you see some of those things take place, which you later will, all of you will see that all that takes place--ever will, or ever has--is just your own Life, the Life of the Universe acting.

You must understand something else about self. You ones are so enjoying your newly relocated "game" that you are at present totally enjoying the projection of the negative aspects. You love disclosing the hidden and uncovering it as a pioneer in challenge. You love the excitement of the confirmations--even if it be in the form of a devastating earthquake or sonic blast. At this point the Mind is telling you to STOP THIS THING UPON YOU while your experience is enjoying every moment of the violence and evil projection--for you anticipate (WHEN YOU ARE READY TO DO SO) that you will simply stop it, turn it around and move into another experience! This is why we can linger and allow your experience in fullness for when the time is critical WE KNOW THAT WE SHALL BE GIVEN EXACTLY THAT WHICH WE NEED TO REVERSE THE PENDULUM. We, therefore, are only intent on facts and TRUTH becoming available so that when the game runs down and man is ready--he has available the tools with which to uplift his experience. Ours is not a mission of interference or force-- ours is to give forth the guidelines and the reminders to remember and to awaken the sleeping masses so that the next expression can come into being.

We have advantage when not bounded by the flesh limitations for I do not need think of self—even to how one of you will receive of Truth. I care not who dislikes that which I bring for it is that One's problem—not mine. I am not bounded by EGO, as are you, which locks me into ME-ness for I already HAVE ALL. I AM ALL! You have not yet remembered that you too, have those things.

Mankind will steadily and surely come into the Understanding. It is so decreed through God projection. We watch the tremendous activities taking place in the mental and feeling world of mankind, producing such effects, changing the feeling world of mankind and hundreds of people who have never touched this Understanding as of yet.

This is what I want you to understand. Then as you contact this WORK, you will understand why your Heart so readily accepts IT, where before—or without that—you would possibly have resisted through the old concepts which are purely human, and would have had some struggle within yourself to comprehend or to believe that these Great Truths were real. Today We find a great mass of people are only too glad to contact something that gives them peace and rest, then the power of achievement that everyone has craved—not only in this lifetime, but if you see the memory of all that has been, you will find you have craved the same thing always, because it is the Power of Life.

Life wants to assert itself, but the human qualification has prevented it doing it. Today you discontinue allowing the human feelings to re-qualify the energy; then it flows forth naturally in perhaps twenty times greater volume. But when you call with dynamic energy, you increase that to forty or sixty times what the natural flow of Life would be in and through your physical body. You see, it is not the speaking of affirmations and decrees which is the intent—it is the desire for the fulfillment of the affirmation which is important. Then with each repetition, you see, whether within or aloud, the intent is compounded. It has nothing to do with WORDS—it has to do with soul intent and desire. But what often happens with ones coming into contact—they begin to believe it is the repetition of simple phrases and they in fact, mean little. The man without tongue will be heard as quickly as the one who shouts.

You can, therefore, see how much greater, how much more powerful will be the results that you can have—not only that you have sought, but a thousand things, ten thousand things that you never dreamed possible in your Life will begin to find action in a perfectly natural process.

Therefore, in this great encouragement that I endeavor to give, and I do give because I know how to "charge" IT into the mental and feeling world of My listeners everywhere, you will find, beloved friends, a change taking place this very minute in your Life. Please be kind enough to accept it and, in your feeling of acceptance, allow Me to do for you that which I have sought to do for more than two hundred years for the people of America—let us have UNDERSTANDING.

In this acceptance, which has been and remains—my desire to bring Happiness and Freedom. You are a blessed people—a blessed nation and through you the Light can be rekindled, for those in other placements are but YOU in another place. As you feel the change in your own feeling world and within your own attitude; you will feel that peace and harmony which enables you to hold self-control sufficiently to allow a greater power of Life and ITS great volume to flow forth into your world of action, therefore producing the results you have long sought and wished for.

This is all very practical. But, mankind, I ask you today to watch your feeling world, to watch your thought, to watch your spoken word; for if you speak vicious, discordant words into the atmosphere, you charge your own feeling world with that viciousness and discord and it stays right around your physical body. And one day you will have to reap all that you have sent out. When failure enters into your Life—ill health, and all the conditions that come through that discord—remember there is no person to blame but self. The intelligence within mankind knows better; but the human accumulation impels mankind, and they think that they can put forth all kinds of viciousness and not reap the results. That is a great mistake of mankind through the centuries, and that accounts for the limitations in the World this day; but this is being rapidly dissolved and consumed today as well. It is only that it is not given for you to visualize.

The great mass of mankind believes that God would do all things FOR them without human self-control. Well, they just find that it is not done; otherwise, mankind would be perfect! The fact is that mankind have prayed and prayed throughout the centuries, which is a very wonderful thing; but it has not produced the results they claimed they wanted. Therefore, something is missing. I say to you; the missing link, so to speak, has been your Call to the Great Presence of Life which WE have come to know, and by which WE as higher energy forms—who are just as REAL as you are, in fact more so--have set ourselves free from all human limitations which you experience.

You are not herein dealing with something hazy or indefinite or a human concept. You are dealing with the Truth of Life in the Words I am speaking unto you, because We have proven by Our Freedom from human limitations, and having made the "Ascension", that We are Beings wholly Free from your limitations of the human octave; yet We can move in Tangible Bodies among you the same as you do, and quite as tangible.

The outer world has not seen this yet, and I say to you that you are going to see it. And to use your expression, "I don't mean 'maybe'." Therefore, beloved ones, the world of mankind is going forth into its new Freedom. I say that with Authority! Only a few years past, there was considerable question in my own Mind regarding whether or not mankind was going to give sufficient response even with all that had been accomplished through individuals, because the need of still more and more was and is so great. I mean by that, I cannot and am not given, to tell even in My unlimited state--just what the human qualities of mankind are going to do until they come to a certain point of the Expansion of the Light within them. Then I can begin to formulate more and more a definite idea of the dependability of that Light; for as you must understand, We have nothing whatever to do with it nor are We concerned with the human qualities. We know that those human qualities are undependable--but when We see the Expansion of the Light within the individual, then We know that Light is dependable. You do not see that from the human sense, but We see it as clearly from the Higher Octaves as you see your physical self.

Therefore, in presenting to you these simple Truths today, you will see how it is easy for you to take hold of and apply them. We never intrude anything upon anyone, but We offer as a free gift of Love to mankind, this Mighty Truth of Life. Those who care to, can study and apply it with definite, mechanical results. Therefore, beloved friends, it is for you to choose. We offer it in so great a Love and Kindness, but We would not intrude anything you do not want.

And so, we ask you to choose whether you want to come in and expand this great Law of Life that We know is your absolute freedom in every way, financially and in all ways, or whether you shall go on in your preconceived ideas and live in your limitations. Now that is quite your choice. We will not say to you what you shall do, but We are beings who have set ourselves free by this identical application. Therefore we know it produces exact results according to the intensity with which you apply it, but it won't apply ITSELF. Let me repeat again: This Law does not apply itself, and neither is God going to do anything FOR you that you do not make your effort through your Call to the Presence of Life, God, the Source, to do FOR YOURSELF.

Harken up now: I LOVE THE CHRIST MORE THAN ALL OF HUMANITY PUT TOGETHER. BUT WHEN YOU BELIEVE OR ANYONE TELLS YOU THAT "JESUS" IS GOING TO SAVE YOU REGARDLESS OF YOUR OWN CALL OR EFFORT, THEN YOU HAVE MADE A GROSS MISTAKE! Mankind who expect Jesus to save them and who put forth the great viciousness which they do, will find their qualification is more powerful than their Call to "Jesus".

On the other hand, mankind, behold: Beings who are as Perfect as Immanuel "Jesus" and the other Great Ones do not come into the atmosphere of people who are in-harmonious. They cannot do it. They will not do it. Therefore, in order to have the blessing of these Great Ones, Immanuel the Christ included, you must harmonize yourself and be humble before these Great Ones. Arrogance closes the door of every human being who expresses it. Therefore, humbleness to the Great Beings of Light and positiveness toward discordant human conditions is the imperative need for all mankind. I say to you, beloved ones, when you understand your Source of Life and realize that your Call to IT is the release and your Freedom even unto your Ascension, then you will see how great a blessing I have brought to you in the simplicity of this understanding.

There is no power in this Universe but the power of Light, and if the Messengers and chelas (students) are "idolatrous" in calling forth the Power of Light, then let us be more so. For I tell you, there is no power that mankind can use but the Power of Light, which contains ALL energy, ALL intelligence, ALL Power of Action!

Therefore in leaving this dissertation I will leave you with a final thought. In calling forth these Mighty Light Rays into your own body, into your world of action by the projection of Light Rays through your Higher Mental Body or by it, then you are complying, you are fulfilling the Great Law of Life in every detail. Once you understand that, you will see how quickly, how readily and naturally you can set yourself free into all that your Heart has desired.

You do not realize how in every intense desire for good and perfection that is acting from within you, outside of you is acting an opposing force. Let me assure you that you have that same opposing force with your human body. You have your intellect, which is the action of information gathered from the outer world, and you have your Heart sending forth its vibration, which is the Activity of the Presence of all Life and every one of you knows that sometimes you have had the argument going on from within yourself. That was your intellect and your Heart. And the intellect, having gathered the substance of the outer world, most often overrules the power of the action of the Heart or the intelligence released there, because the Power of Light will not oppose all this or override the human Free Will.

Now understand this: You call in prayer to God and then constantly annul it by discord and viciousness in the feeling. You see how and why you have not had the results from your prayers! Prayer has a certain quality, but it is a supplication. A decree is the acknowledgment of the Power of God acting in YOU--as different as daylight and darkness. To know what you are doing and do it, is the Power of Life and the fulfillment of Its action. To supplicate MEANS THAT YOU DO NOT KNOW WHAT YOUR ARE DOING!

Therefore I say to you in reminding of a scripture of worthy note: "Decree a thing and it shall be done unto you; Call unto Me and I will answer you." MAY YOU EVER WALK IN LIGHT IN COMMUNION THAT YOUR WAY BE MADE CLEAR. ADONAI.

I apologize for the long sitting. Know that it is critical indeed that you ones be given this input for the journey is confusing at times and you must learn to hold only to the Light with the tunnel vision set forth by the Laws. In all other manner of experience--be wrapped in freedom. But, if you always utilize the guiding lines drawn upon the mapway--you shall not err.

I AM -- GERMAIN

PHONE HOME, E.T.

REACH OUT AND TOUCH
SOMEONE-LIKE GOD!
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. V

Violinio Germain, & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

Germain stresses to us the importance of true meditation and gives excellent "how to" instruction to accomplish it and how to use it to control our lives. It is the most important of all the functions of human life which advances progress.

When you accomplish true meditation you are communicating directly with God for the purpose of knowingly working with Him.

Two tapes are included with this book because written word instructions usually are not sufficient in helping you to accomplish the meditative state.

We are given the TRUE definition of love and prayer (not at all what most of us consider them to be) and the importance of understanding the true definitions so that we can improve our daily lives with this knowledge.

We are told what hypnosis is and best of all how to use self hypnosis for our benefit.

Man on Earth is transitioning into the Cosmic Age and to assist us some knowledge never before given to Earth man is being brought forth through these JOURNALS.

There are many other topics covered to assist us in our journey into the LIGHT.

NEWSLETTER/SEMINARS WITH GEORGE AND DESIREE GREEN

AUG. 14, 4:00 PM GLOBAL
SCIENCES CONGRESS

Holiday Inn I-70 East (exit 284)
Denver, CO. 1-800-Holiday or 1-303-371-9494

SOME OF THE PHOENIX
JOURNALS

End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades
Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide
Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 7

8/11/91 #2 HATONN
SUNDAY

DISTRACTORS

As we sit to pen this day, the air is heavy with bombardment as governments struggle for control against the awakening tide. There MUST be distractions, do you see? The distractions, further, must be massive and terrible to pull your attention from that which they are planning for you in the blackmailed halls of congress and the administration. You are to that time of year again, as with the last, when budgets are set and rules are laid and power is bought and sold among the Elite of the power brokers. What do they plan? Yes, I can tell you and if I do so, perhaps you will see to it that it does not happen. If a thing we tell you does not happen, you seem to think it is because WE err and you set your disbelief system into motion. So I can only--again--tell you what they PLAN and if we scatter the plans about, perhaps it will dissuade them from the drastic disaster they have in mind. You are not, by a long way, free of the absolute plan of a nuclear war--staged by your nation. Only the "time" is frequently changed to effort to outsmart us so that we do not spoil the surprise. Well, it so happens that we are only a portion of their problem.

There are now ears and eyes in the woodwork of the councils of horror-mongers and you will be getting this very information from some high level news releases, so if you want to start holding your breath now--please do so.

Just as it was planned to atomic bomb Russia on September 17, 1982--the date itself, has become a point around which targets are planned. It is a good time of the year (when the world is moving into fall and winter in the major industrial continents and when Earth changes are already prevalent as well as a time of governmental fiscal year-ends and pressured time limitations on Congressmen, etc.).

You have your government with several major choices and the ultimate of all three. War of massive scale, economic collapse and/or major "natural" disasters. As of this day and date the plans are to trigger the southern San Andreas Fault on September 17, 1991--38 days from now. How is it that I will give you this specific date? Because it means nothing if plans are changed--I said, "It is planned to trigger the San Andreas Fault and produce a MAJOR (9 or more) earth disaster in Southern California--among other things. You cannot trigger such a massive upheaval without terrible consequences. It is KNOWN by your geologists that off the coast in mid-Northern California that the two plates (North American and Pacific) are "stuck" and when they jolt loose it will be massive earth movement above 10 points on your scales of measurement. AGAIN: I AM ONLY TELLING YOU THAT WHICH IS PLANNED BY YOUR ELITE (YOUR OWN PEOPLE). Further, do not be surprised at WHO will be in the area of the happening to further distract you--for the major leaders of your nation are now forfeit and you will never know WHO IS WHO AT ANY RATE! So be it for now; I will not speak more at this time on this matter--I am not a fortune teller.

Now, as to business ventures. I can also say that the hopes of the Elite are to give all the "brothers" of those Elite time to get business arrangements under control and new corporations begun and some new ones shifted off-shore and then an effort will be to close the loopholes in Nevada for Corporations. It may or may not "sell", but the PLAN is to effort to "Grandfather" corporations in place, and begin to apply new rules to new ones. I will keep you posted as best I can, but again, I am NOT a fortune-teller. You must learn to operate your business and investments NOW for the house of cards is tumbling.

The money panic in the Soviet Union was a trial balloon to see how many Russians had stashed money in "dollars"--they sent forth a notice that all $100 U.S. bills would be taken out of circulation and become defunct. I think you have all heard of the panic it caused. I can point these things out to you--I cannot do a thing about them. You, Americans, had better pay the most close attention.

The point was that an announcement was made on TV that the United States is printing new $100 bills and will not honor the old ones. Panicked Soviets deluged the American Embassy and the Moscow offices of U.S. companies with telephone calls. Of course the U.S. Ambassador Jack F. Matlock took an unusual step and made a public denial. Nevertheless, currency exchange windows at many hotels and banks refused to accept $100 bills. This was on July 25 when the U.S. Treasury Department announced that it is making changes in the $100 bills to foil counterfeiters. The Soviets were told that they had only three days in which to exchange the old bills. Now, it is claimed to have been a "joke". On who? How about YOU?

I again tell you that we have pointed out a pretty safe way to handle your funds and you still refuse to believe your government will take your wealth--THEY PLAN TO TAKE IT ALL, YOUR PROPERTY AND ALL ASSETS! OUR PEOPLE WILL "HELP" YOU--THEY WILL NOT DO IT "FOR" YOU NOR WILL THEY PETITION YOU. I SIMPLY "REMIND" YOU FOR AFTER EVERY SCARE YOU SETTLE BACK DOWN TO YOUR DREAMS AND, WORSE, THE ELITE PLANS ARE TO HAVE YOU SLEEP RIGHT THROUGH TRANSITION INTO ETERNITY--in other words, they plan to kill just as many of you as they can pull off and then bring all the remaining ones into total control.

EXPLANATIONS

We get pounds of mail from ones wanting more information on how you got to this point and more on how those things, i.e., Cosmospheres, replicas, etc., fit in today. We cannot physically meet all the needs and requests. We are working on an intended enlarging of output very soon. It is difficult because you ones still think it is somehow easier to get this information from the "unseen hand" than from ones with "inside information" and "resources from within". It is through the "unseen ones within your own places" that the change will be brought through action--JUST knowing won't do much--YOU MUST TAKE ACTION and we are writing as fast as we can in giving you into that KNOWING. The EXACT OUTLAY IS BEING GIVEN UNTO YOU AT THE RATE OF A BOOK WITHIN LESS THAN EVERY THREE WEEKS. THE TASK IS MONUMENTAL. THE INFORMATION IS BEING BROUGHT THROUGH YOUR PLEIADEAN BROTHERS SO THAT THE LEVEL OF UNDERSTANDING WILL BE EASILY WITHIN YOUR GRASP. GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU--HE WILL NOT DO IT FOR YOU.

Every day that passes you grow closer and closer to an indescribable nuclear holocaust. Your government works and serves Israel through total blackmail of your Congress and Administration. I will cover some of those means in a moment. Your nation is floundering in false-patriotism. The very symbols of America are used to lure you into national suicide and you see it not.

During the past months of planned war, then genocide and war and back again to the march of yellow ribbons--you were blinded to the moment and all of the past, including the same husbands and sons who wait to die in prisons in Asia are pushed to the side and their death warrants signed and delivered--in person so they can speak nothing of Truth unto you. The hostages' lives rest on how little they will "tell" as they are released from Lebanon--and you refuse to see it. History will not record that your President did this or that--it will record that YOU ALLOWED IT!

The drums of war beat louder and louder of holocaust and devastation and day by day more Americans fall into step in the march. The word "Patriotism" is revived and after years of being trampled into the dust; the American flag is suddenly being waved high only to be now replaced by the UN blue turban of the Global beast. True patriotism is not that which is being revived--that which is based on loyalty and love for your country and God. Instead, your so-called leaders are selling you a cheap substitute based solely on greed and hatred. And that which you send out will come back as surely as you breathe out and in--it is the LAW OF THE UNIVERSE. You have sowed hatred, greed and "taking" and now you shall be reaping of the rewards for that which you have allowed while you slept, mesmerized by the drugs and crimes sent against you.

The American spirit is not dead, it is only "missing in action". Who will bring "that" prisoner home? Who will bring that Truth of goodness back to Life that it might come forth again that you might find again your freedom?

Germain has suggested that I write more details of the new bill waiting payment in Washington--between $50 and $80 BILLION for services rendered by the Mossad to the U.S.

I believe that I would rather just ask the editor to extract that which Germain wrote yesterday regarding the matter and allow me to move on.

(From Germain, 8/10/91)

So much EXPRESS material has piled up that I would like to ask that Hatonn cover the new cost to you taxpayers for "spying" by the Israel mini-state. I believe that even though you THINK you are getting a grasp on the officious taking of your country through deceit--you have no REAL integrated acceptance of the "whole of it". Perhaps this will shaken your eyelids just a tad? You who are ordinary Americans and already see the billions exacted by Israel from the U.S. as a rip-off through the annual rite (since 1949), hear ye; hear ye! You are now looking at a bill for over $50 BILLION, claimed by the State of Israel for "intelligence services"!

Does this sound like some kind of kinky, sick joke? No--there is already a task force quantifying by market evaluation, all information supplied. Ariel (the Butcher) Sharon was Israel's defense minister in the 1980's and he set up a task force to quantify and to set this "market evaluation" on all information the Israeli's military and civilian (Mossad) staffs claimed to have sent to Washington. I would say that with an amount of at least $50 BILLION (Israel claims the bill is actually OVER $80 BILLION) that here is just a little proof of what Hatonn and others have been telling you--that is one heck of a large charge for something of clandestine operation. Do you STILL think you don't have government by BLACKMAIL AGAINST YOUR LEADERS? So be it.

Also, chelas, the holding of Hostages in Lebanon is revolving around how much those hostages can tell about the secret negotiations (blackmail) in the issue. If there is evidence of the clandestine arrangements by the U.S. government in the continued holding of these people, they are not apt to be released. This is WHY McCarthy is still in "seclusion"--until the government finds out what he can "TELL". You see, England has more to hide than does even the U.S.!!! "What you sees and hears is NOT what youze gets!"

(End, 8/10/91)

Is this all confusing? Do you find yourself almost able to sort it out only to find it becomes totally confounded? This is the way the plans are laid down, beloved world citizens. Well, you have the greatest battles yet ahead of you for your adversary Conspiracy gets more and more cornered and the stakes get larger and larger. Honor the ones before you who kept the victories out of the hands of the Elite on two occasions when the "end" was planned for you American citizens.

The greatest victory of all in the battle between the Conspiracy and those who love their freedoms was the failure of the Conspiracy to impose total government down on the American people on either May 1, 1976

(the two-hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Illuminati), or on July 4, 1976, (the two-hundredth anniversary of the founding of the U.S.)

You should know, if you do not, that those plans were made and the foundations for this revolutionary act were laid down in a plan which was made public in Feb., 1946, in the NEW WORLD NEWS, a publication of the Moral Re-Armament OF ENGLAND. Oh, you missed it? sic, sic.

It has been known as the "Dusseldorf Rules for Revolution" for they were first "discovered" in Dusseldorf, Germany, in the headquarters of a revolutionary organization by some Allied soldiers after World War I. The strange thing is that they come right out of the Communist Manifesto for instructions for taking over the World.

In any event, these rules laid down an incredible plan to bring about the conditions that would lead to a massive revolution:

- A. Corrupt the young; get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness.
- B. Get control of all means of publicity, thereby:
 - 1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and plays and other trivialities.
 - 2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

- 3. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and disgrace.
- 4. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and ruthlessly as possible.
- 5. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.
- 6. Incite unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of the government toward such disorder.

C. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless.

Do YOU suffer from the illusion that your government won't allow these awful things to happen to you? Reread the list and you must recognize they not only will—but have orchestrated the entire scenario to trap you.

Well, working on the assumption that these programs had succeeded in the main and that it was time to move towards their goal of total government, The Conspiracy swung into action.

One of the requirements for the plan to succeed, as envisioned by the planners, was a generation of young people, not only turned off by the establishment, but trained in guerilla warfare and the desire to rebel against the system. The major factor in creating this attitude amongst the young people of America was the Vietnamese War, created and controlled by the Conspiracy to create the conditions required for its plan to succeed: the war was to create first a drug culture in America and, secondly, a young society willing to rebel against the American government.

There was one young rebel created by the establishment who became the founder of a group called the Yippies. His name is Jerry Rubin and he wrote a book labeled DO IT! in which he details his interest and concerns about the rebellious age in which he lived (survived).

He dedicated his book to: "Nancy, Dope, Color TV, and Violent Revolution" and admonished his readers to: "Read this book stoned (high on drugs)."

Rubin said that the Vietnamese War was totally set up and phony: "The Americans [sic, sic] are fighting for nothing you can see, feel, touch or believe in. Their deaths are futile and wasted. 'Why die on Hamburger Hill?' asks the pot-smoking Amerikan [sic] soldier, as he points his gun at the head of the Captain who ordered him to take a hill.... Vietnam is a symbol. The real Viet Kong [sic] are in San Diego."

He realized that the real war was being fought, not in Vietnam, but in the cities and towns of America. He commented about the real purpose of the drug called marijuana: "Marijuana is the Communist drug."

He wrote this about the new morality called Situation Ethics: "Yippies say if it's not fun, don't do it. We see sex, rock 'n roll and dope as part of a Communist plot to take over Amerika. The Yippie idea of fun is overthrowing the government. Yippies are Maoists." (Supporters of the Chinese Communist Mao Tse Tung.)

It is revealing that even though Jerry's book is in opposition to the establishment, it was published BY A MAJOR PUBLISHING COMPANY THAT IS PART OF THE ESTABLISHMENT: Ballantine Books, by arrangement with Simon & Shuster. No real, valid and patriotic American ever gets published by these ones.

The beginning of the end of the Conspiracy's plans of that time, occurred during the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago. Viewers of that event will recall a small group of hippies-yippies turned to the streets, getting arrested for violating Chicago's laws. Jerry Rubin admitted that he was very disappointed by the small turnout of these young people: "We once dreamed 500,000 people would come to Czechago (Jerry's spelling of Chicago). We expected 50,000. Maybe some 2,000 to 3,000 FREAKS....made it."

It is most revealing that Rubin used the figure of 500,000 as the number of protestors he hoped would respond to the call in Chicago. This was the EX-ACT NUMBER OF PEOPLE NEEDED IN TWO RELATED INCIDENTS.

Colonel Edward Mandell House needed a 500,000 man army to enable Philip Dru to take over the Presidency and impose a dictatorship on the American people, in his book PHILIP DRU, ADMINISTRATOR.

And 500,000 was the number of soldiers that Major General Smedley Butler was to command as he imposed a dictatorship on America in 1933.

Apparently those who believe that America should have dictatorship instead of a Presidency feel it will take 500,000 protestors to convince the American people to accept the change at the top. COULD THIS BE?

It was a theory of some that Chicago was a test to see how many people could be drawn to an event where there were going to be protests and, in this case, the young people disappointed the Conspiracy: not enough of them came to Chicago. It is the theory of some that it was here that the Conspiracy started revising its plans. You see, the youngsters were already in the hell of a dictatorship with destroyed lives--why would they bother?

Rubin openly stated that the events at Chicago were well planned in advance: "We wanted disruption. We planned it. We were not innocent victims. We worked our plans for a year before we came here. We made our demands so outrageous because we wanted the city to deny us what we were asking. We did all of this with one purpose in mind--TO MAKE THE CITY REACT AS IF IT WERE A POLICE STATE."

The use of students for disruptive purposes was not new. The eleventh edition of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, published in 1911, described one attempt to use the young radicals for particular purposes, IN RUSSIA:

Among the students of the universities and the higher technical schools, Turgenev (a Russian writer) had noticed a new and strikingly original type--young men and women in slovenly attire, who called into question and ridiculed the generally received convictions and respectable conventionalities of social life and who talked of reorganizing society on strictly scientific principles.

They reversed the traditional order of things in trivial matters of external appearance, the males allowing their hair to grow long and the female adepts cutting it short, and adding sometimes the additional badge of blue spectacles....

Their appearance, manners, and conversation were apt to shock ordinary people, but to this they were profoundly indifferent, for they had raised themselves above the level of so-called public opinion, despised Philistine 'respectability' and rather like to scandalize people still under the influence of what they considered antiquated prejudices.

For aesthetic culture, sentimentalism and refinement of every kind they had a profound and undisguised contempt.

Among the antiquated institutions which had to be abolished as obstructions to real progress, were religion, family life, private property and centralized administration.

Religion was to be replaced by exact sciences, family life by free love, private property by collectivism, and centralized administration by a federation of independent communes...

But even this example was not isolated. Economist Ludwig von Mises, who was in Germany prior to World War I, wrote:

In the decade preceding the First World War, Germany...witnessed the appearance of a phenomenon hitherto unheard of, the youth movement.

Turbulent gangs of untidy boys and girls roamed the country, making much noise and shirking their school lessons....

In other words, even the outlandish garb of the modern hippie or Rubin's Yippies was something that was used to cause divisions among populations in earlier times. These radicals, in pre-revolutionary Russia and pre-WW-I Germany, were being used by the establishment to condition the people to radical change. Such was the case in 1968, in the United States.

Rubin said that he knew the young people were being used. He wrote: "Revolution is profitable. So the capitalists try to sell it." And: "The hip capitalists have some allies within the revolutionary community: longhairs who work as intermediaries between the kids on the street and the millionaire businessmen."

Rubin also pointed to another group who knew the young people were being used. He identified that group as well: "The hippies see us as politicians and the politicians see us as hippies. Only the right wing sees us for what we are."

8/12/91 HATONN
MONDAY

EARTHQUAKES AND SHUTTLES

Hatonn present in Light, in service unto you, our brothers and our Father, God.

Why are you so restless and non-functional today? Because they are trying to blast you out of existence, chela. We continue to reveal their plans and in effort to compensate they are about to do most foolish things. It is easy to see that most of the ones claiming to work in service unto mankind and God are doing great disservice unto both. The plans have changed to alternatives two and three. Enough has been revealed from both our side and Earth intelligence regarding the planned triggering of the California fault fissure in September that the bungling nitwits are changing it to, hopefully, today or tomorrow. Plan three is to trigger it on the 17th of August which I believe you will find to be your coming Saturday (day one of year 5). You ones simply must stay alert for I can do no better with the projections.

As this is coming through on their computers it is causing intensified thrust to silence you so I must ask that you attend me most closely.

What most of you do not know is that the "spaceworthy" (you are out of workable shuttles, you know) shuttle is being shipped this time from Florida TO California--for repairs, "they say". The game gets tighter and tighter and the lies more and more open if you but open your own eyes. Right now this is going on and that shuttle in point was immediately shifted and is already in California. The one landed yesterday in Florida came only from its usual transfer point in Australia.

Dharma, we need a rather massive "catch-up" of input which is rolling by so quickly that it will require a lot of "skimming" but there are items of which you MUST be remembering:

By the way, for you who keep asking me where is and what has happened to Antony Sutton--I ask that you not ask me. I concern for Dr. Sutton for he prefers to print garbage regarding new inventions and process material for the disinformation bringers lately. There is a very good reason for that but, yes, he is "missing" and you who are interested in his welfare might be efforting to check into it. Dr. Sutton publishes the Phoenix Letter but has no integration with our material whatsoever. Worse, it is NOT our material which has him as target and if he will inquire and consider shelter--we shall be most happy to communicate with him. It is time that ones who have served so truthfully and faithfully, you of mankind, in the past, had best get into our fold because there are contracts out in the physical plane against them. They can threaten and effort to vanquish my people--they cannot. Even if dimensional changes occur with some of our people--there will be cause for such an effect to be fulfilled. We can work WITH you--not FOR you.

If you cannot tell the differences in the Bushes they are presenting to you hour by hour, then I suggest you catch up a bit more in detail into our writings. By the way, for you who missed it--George Bush's younger BROTHER, Jonathan, has been caught and convicted by Massachusetts regulators for failing to register his brokerage firm in Massachusetts. The New York City based firm of J. Bush & Co. "without admitting or denying the state's charges" agreed to a fine of $30,000 and agreed to cease business with the general public in the state for one year. The firm WILL BE ALLOWED to do business with existing clients in the state and with new customers with annual incomes of a minimum of $200,000. Well, what customers do you think will be closed out? Who do YOU think the Bush's do business with--John Q. Public middle-man?

BEWARE: The Spotlight is telling you that the money switch to "new money" is off. This is a blatant thrust at disinformation--take caution. The plans are not changed--the intent was to either do a massive exchange and/or present bills with identification to be phased "in", depending how the exchange is working in foreign places as in New Zealand, Australia and the Soviet Union. This is another trial balloon being set up to test the waters.

Today the Security Pacific Bank is merging with Bank of America (owned by the Japanese)--you must watch the sleight of hand. Executive Life and a couple of other defaulting insurance companies are being shored up and transferred to the major Bank in France. The "money" is already printed in both formats and is awaiting orders for distribution the minute you-the-public are totally off guard. Mr. Bush can simply write an order--doesn't even actually have to do that for the Federal Reserve System is a private corporation and will act according to orders given down from the World Bankers--the head of which is the Royal Family in London. I remind you that everything in your world is decided and carried through by the Committee of 300. The head of this "Committee" is always attached to the Royal Family of Great Britain. Can you not feel the life being snuffed out of you?

Dharma, allow us to go back to the subject we had begun yesterday--let us finish speaking of the plans afoot for Revolution for the public is being pushed into such confusion that it is impossible for comprehension without knowing the "intent".

REVOLUTIONARY COMMUNITY

One of the groups making up the "revolutionary community" was a group known as the Students for a Democratic Society. It was well known by the establishment that they were Communist in nature. In fact, an article in March 1969 reported: "'Our primary task is to build a Marxist-Leninist revolutionary movement,' declared Michael Klonsky, executive secretary of the Students for a Democratic Society."

The government, through the House Internal Security Committee's Report on SDS' plans for America's High Schools, studied the SDS in great detail. The Chairman of the Committee, Congressman Richard Ichord, stated that: "The aims of the SDS were spelled out in an SDS position paper printed in June, 1969: 'The goal is the destruction of US imperialism and the achievement of a classless world: world communism.'"

In 1980, an FBI agent said the group was bent on committing "arsons, bombings, assassinations--with the goal of overthrowing this country's democratic form of government, with the objective of establishing world Communism."

I am not going to take up the space to label all these references--in this document. They are available, researched and documented. I further authorize the format designer to indent paragraphs and omit separation line from the body of this material for EXPRESS purpose. Ours is not for literary genius--it is for as much information as we can cram into packages as comprehensive as is possible. Any way to cut costs is urged. We need a weekly (or daily) newspaper but we will work with that which we have available at any present moment. I am not going to identify all initialed names, either, for they can be looked up by those who are not informed. Thank you.

In spite of all of this evidence about the nature of the SDS, they continued to receive money from the establishment they were supposedly out to overthrow. In 1970, a group of Ohio legislators received a briefing on campus upheavals in which they heard; "...an Illinois commission report on that state's rioting said that $192,000 in Federal money and $85,000 in Carnegie Foundation funds were paid to the Students for a Democratic Society...during the fall of 1969."

Another student, James Kirk, confirmed Gumaer's report. Kirk, while a student at the University of Chicago, and on behalf of the FBI, became active in the SDS, the W.F.B. DuBois Club, the Black Panthers, and the Communist Party. In 1969, Mr. Kirk broke from the Party and the following year testified before the House and Senate Internal Security Committees. His testimony was as follows: "Young people...have no idea that they are playing into the hands of the Establishment they claim to hate. The radicals think they're fighting the forces of the super-rich, like Rockefeller and Ford, and don't realize that it is precisely such forces which are behind their own revolution, financing it, and using it for their own purposes." This is the same thing which has happened to ALL OF YOUR ECOLOGY AND "GREEN" GROUPS AS WELL AS YOUR NATIVE CULTURAL MOVEMENTS AND MUSEUMS.

By the way, do you know?: Madison, Wisconsin's public school system has MANDATED THE REMOVAL OF ALL REFERENCES TO CHRIST AT CHRISTMAS, banning ALL crosses, churches, Christmas trees and parties! The vacation has been renamed "winter break".

HOW EAGER WOULD YOU BE TO HELP THIS FLOUNDERING NATION IF YOU WERE CHRIST OR GOD?

RADIO TALK SHOWS WITH GEORGE GREEN

Aug. 21, 8:35 to ? P.M.
WTIX, Tony Ponsetta, New Orleans, LA

Aug. 22 11:00 -12:00 mid-night
WOAT, Ben Baldwin, Producer Eliza Sonneland
San Antonio, TX

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Let There Be LIGHT
Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades
Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide
Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades
Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's
III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V
& VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

When you have a chance to embrace opportunity, give it a big hug.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 8

8/15/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER

Blessings are unto you ones, Dharma and Oberli, for the service you are giving. Hatonn present in gratitude. Thank you for serving early this day that we might get both this and Germain's spiritual Truths unto your precious brothers. As we outlay the following, I ask that all ones who are beginning to be brave enough to utilize this information do two things--honor your Constitution and do not allow its demise, and remember that to gather this legal information and test these Laws it is costing Oberli somewhere around $10,000 per month. At this point we shelter all names of both information bringers and legal participants because the impact is massive. We thank and honor ones who share with us--we will also protect those resources and share with them in reward as you-the-people utilize and support our efforts. I ask the publisher to give information regarding the "Center" at the end of this material. This may appear to be Caesar's work--it is not--IT IS GOD'S WORK FOR HIS PEOPLE AND FOR A BLESSED AND CHOSEN NATION OF CITIZENS WHO HAVE BUT BEEN SLEEPING. I CAN ONLY ASK THAT YOU REGIVE A PORTION UNTO GOD FOR HIS GIVING UNTO YOU. IT IS THE ONLY WAY

WE CAN CONTINUE FOR THE EXPENSE IS BOGGING.

FRAUDULENT COLLECTION
TACTICS OF THE IRS

You will be able to see from the following that time is urgent. As more of you see the actual criminal activities, your government, through crime and robbery, will get in worse and worse condition. This will fall as a double whammy on Federal employees for it will turn out that THEY are the ONLY citizens eligible to pay income tax. I would suggest that--as you throw stones at us for bringing TRUTH and LAWS for your protection--you remember the Senators just voted themselves (in the middle of the night) an almost $24,000 raise--within the past two weeks. That is more than most people earn in a full year. I doubt there are many of you construction workers, office personnel and American Citizens who would not feel you had garnered a golden calf at $125,000 annually. And you say "Crime does not pay"? Then, these ones are blackmailed by foreign states and give and "loan" the rest away while you only keep handing it over. NOTHING OF THAT WHICH YOU GIVE IS UTILIZED FOR OPERATIONS--IT IS ALL USED JUST TO SER-VICE THE DEBT TO THE PRIVATE BANKERS.

And speaking of banks, let us note that the Japanese-owned Bank of America just took over Security Pacific. Well, they had also just taken over Santa Barbara Savings which is in litigation against my scribe. Now, where do we go from here? Do you see WHY YOU CANNOT GIVE UP? You MUST stand with each other and stand against this beast of seemingly thousands of arms--no, less than 300 people control your entire planet and at the top of the list of controllers is the Royal family of Great Britain. Less than 15 families control all of the financial aspects of your globe.

Back to the IRS--private enterprise and collection force for the Banksters (also private criminal enterprise).

In a news article relating to federal income tax, it is reported that former U.S. Senator Henry L. Bellmon of Oklahoma said: "In a recent conversation with an official at the Internal Revenue Service, I was amazed when he told me that 'if the taxpayers of this country ever discover that the Internal Revenue Service operates on 90% bluff, the entire income tax system will collapse.'" Note that I will be using terms such as "...is reported to have said...", etc. I, too, am a pretty good "lawyer" and we are going to play the game better than the criminals. Therefore, you who think, "...well, doesn't he know? Why would he say 'reportedly' and 'it is said'?"... Because I will leave no opening for further legal action against my people if at all possible.

The above confession is an indirect acknowledgement of the tactics used against the public to induce them to voluntarily pay income taxes and the fact that the IRS has no authority to impose an income tax on individuals or to compel them to pay, unless they voluntarily file returns and self-assess the tax upon themselves. Senator Bellmon's statement is confirmed by the very significant and very truthful statement of the IRS that the income tax system is based on "VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE AND SELF-ASSESSMENT".

Bluff and Intimidation of the people by IRS agents acting without any legal authority to compel the filing of an income tax return or to compel the payment of the tax, are routine tactics used against the people to coerce them into "voluntary compliance". Such tactics are usually successful because of the people's lack of knowledge of the limitations and requirements imposed upon IRS personnel by the IRS Code and by the constitutional provisions prohibiting direct taxation of individuals. The abuses of citizens' rights and IRS agents' violations of the law occur most frequently in the process of intimidating individuals into voluntarily filing returns and paying the federal excise tax on "income", even though they are not required to file such returns and the tax is not imposed on them by the IR Code.

WHEN A TAX IS OWED

To understand the deceptions that are routinely practiced by IRS agents, there is one very important fact to be learned and remembered. The fact is that NO MONEY IS OWED FOR INCOME TAX and there are no legal grounds for collection procedures UNLESS an UNPAID TAX ASSESSMENT HAS BEEN RECORDED ON

THE SUMMARY RECORD OF ASSESSMENT, in the IRS district or regional office. To recognize the trickery employed by the IRS, it is essential to understand some basic facts about an assessment.

In the decision on the case of Bull v. U.S., 295 U.S. 247, the U.S. Supreme Court explained exactly when an income tax becomes due and owed to the IRS. The Court stated:

"The assessment...may include the calculation and fix the amount of a tax payable, and assessments of federal estate and income tax are of this type. ONCE THE TAX IS ASSESSED, THE TAXPAYER WILL OWE THE SOVEREIGN THE AMOUNT when the date fixed by law for payment arrives." (Emphasis added.)

According to the very clear wording of the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court, THE TAX IS NOT OWED UNTIL IT HAS BEEN ASSESSED.

It is interesting to note that the Court refers to the one to whom the tax is owed (the government) as the "sovereign". Government is the "sovereign" IN RESPECT TO ONE WHO IS IN THE legal status of a "taxpayer", for a "taxpayer" is one who is subject to the tax and therefore, is subject to the power and authority of the government in regulating those who are subjects of government. (Go back and read YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON.) Free sovereign individuals possessing all of their Constitutionally secured rights are NOT SUBJECTS OF GOVERNMENT and are NOT subject to the excise tax on "income", so they are NOT in the lower legal status of a "taxpayer". Like a corporation, a "taxpayer" is considered to have privileges provided in the IR Code only, but no rights, in respect to the administration of the tax because the IR Code, not the Constitution, governs a "taxpayer's" relationship with government.

THE ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY

The law authorizes the IRS to make assessments and to engage in collection procedures in cases where an income tax return showing a tax due, has been filed, but payment of the tax shown on the return has not been made. The limited authority of the IRS to make assessments is found in the provisions of Section 6201 of the IR Code (26 USC), which limits the power of assessment for income tax to cases where returns (or lists of items of income) have been filed by the "taxpayer" for the period to which the assessment relates. This fact is expressed concisely in IRS regulation #301.6201-1, the regulation that explains in simple words what Section 6201 of the Code means. That regulation states:

"The authority of the district director and the director of the regional service center to make assessments includes the following: (1) Taxes shown on return. The district director or the director of the regional service center shall ASSESS ALL TAXES DETERMINED BY THE TAXPAYER or by the district director or the director of the regional service center and disclosed ON A RETURN OR LIST." (Emph. added.) [Please, remember that hardly any of YOU are qualified as "taxpayers".]

There are no provisions whatsoever authorizing any assessments for income tax in cases where no return or list has been filed by a "TAXPAYER" for the time period for which an assessment might be made. Since there are no such provisions, THERE IS NO AUTHORITY TO MAKE ANY ASSESSMENTS FOR INCOME

TAX WHEN NO RETURN OR LIST HAS BEEN FILED! This limitation on the power of IRS's directors to make assessments is shown by the truth in the famous quote from the IRS that the income tax system is based on "VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE and SELF-ASSESSMENT". UNLESS AN INDIVIDUAL MAKES A SELF-ASSESSMENT OF INCOME TAX BY FILING A RETURN OR LIST THEREBY IMPOSING THE TAX ON HIMSELF, THE DIRECTORS HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO COMMIT THE ACT OF MAKING AN ASSESSMENT (imposing a tax) ON AN INDIVIDUAL. Such an act is not authorized by the IR Code because it would be a violation of the Constitutional limitations on taxation which prohibit the government and its agents from imposing any tax on individuals, by requiring all direct taxes to be apportioned among the States, (Article 1, Section 2, Clause 3 and Article 1, Section 9, Clause 4.)

WHAT IS AN ASSESSMENT?

To understand this situation and recognize the trickery practiced on the people, it is necessary to understand what constitutes an assessment and when it occurs. Section 6203 of the IR Code describes the procedure for making an assessment. It states:

The assessment shall be made by RECORDING the LIABILITY of the taxpayer in the office of the "Secretary in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the Secretary."

The IRS regulation explaining section 6203, #301.6203-1, states: "The assessment shall be made by an assessment officer signing the summary record of assessment. The summary record, through supporting records, shall provide identification of the liability assessed, the taxable period, if applicable, and the amount of the assessment. The AMOUNT OF THE ASSESSMENT SHALL, in the case of TAX SHOWN ON A RETURN by a taxpayer, BE THE AMOUNT SO SHOWN. (Emph. added.)

Both Section 6203 of the IR Code and IRS regulations #301.6203-1 state that information about assessment is available from the IRS upon request. The regulation states:

"...he (the taxpayer) shall be furnished a copy of the pertinent parts of the assessment which set forth the name of the taxpayer, the date of the assessment, the character of the liability assessed, the taxable period, if applicable, and the amount assessed."

If an assessment has been recorded, Section 6303 of the IR Code requires that a NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT and demand for payment of the amount assessed must be sent to the one against whom the assessment was made. It also requires that this notice be sent as soon as practicable and within 60 days after making the assessment. If no notice of assessment has been sent, it is strong evidence that there is no assessment of record and that the IRS has no authority to pursue any collection activities. A letter or form from the IRS merely stating an amount of tax claimed to be due and demanding payment, is NOT A NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT: IT IS ONLY A REQUEST FOR A VOLUNTARY PAYMENT WITH NO FORCE OF LAW TO COMPEL ANY PAYMENT WHATSOEVER. Any such IRS threats and demands for payment are pure bluff and could be violations of IR Code Section 7214 (discussed hereinafter) if sent to a citizen who is not in the legal status of a "taxpayer". (WHICH ALMOST NONE OF YOU ARE) in respect to the federal excise tax on "income". It is most important to remember that NO MONEY IS OWED UNLESS THERE IS AN UNPAID RECORDED ASSESSMENT AND THERE IS NO AUTHORITY TO RECORD AN ASSESSMENT UNLESS A RETURN OR LIST OF AMOUNTS OF "INCOME" HAS BEEN FILED.

THE 90-DAY LETTER TRAP

IRS agents routinely send out various forms containing implied demands for payment of income tax when no notice of assessment has been sent, because there has been no assessment recorded against the targeted victim. One such form is the 90-day letter (Notice of Deficiency) which usually contains figures of grossly exorbitant amounts as items of tax, penalties, and interest which in many cases greatly exceed the victim's total earnings for the time periods listed. The shock effect of seeing such exorbitant amounts listed on the letter and the misunderstanding about the lack of legal force of the letter, in cases where no return was filed for the time period involved, have created the impression that the receipt of a 90-day letter is a fearful development.

A key provision of Section 6211 of the IR Code describes the circumstance when a "deficiency" can exist as being:

"...if a return was made by the taxpayer and an amount was shown as the tax by the taxpayer thereon..."

Since the IR Code imposes no requirement of individuals for payment of an income tax and the U.S. Constitution forbids the imposition of any unapportioned tax on individuals (all direct taxes must be apportioned among the States, Article 1, Section 2, Clause 3,) the IRS HAS NO AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE (ASSESS) AN INCOME TAX ON INDIVIDUALS UNLESS THEY FILE RETURNS. The IRS indirectly admits this fact when it states that "the mission of the IRS is to achieve the highest degree of VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE and SELF-ASSESSMENT".

If the reader understands these basic facts, it is easy to see why a citizen must first self-assess (impose) the income tax ON HIMSELF by filing a "voluntary" return, in order for the IRS to have any ground on which to make any claim that the citizen owes an additional amount for tax. IF NO RETURN WAS FILED FOR THE YEAR, THERE ARE NO GROUNDS FOR SENDING A NOTICE OF DEFICIENCY. Now perhaps you will recall that I told you prior to "filing deadline" that you might consider not filing a return and more information would be forthcoming. I am not in the practice of law and I will not have my scribe at risk by writing statements which will cause legal problems. What you do with this information is strictly up to you--I DO NOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE--BUT AS WE MOVE ALONG HERE, OUR LAW CENTER SHALL or will give you guidelines for keeping within the legal boundaries and for most of you it will be far, far cheaper than taxes. So, sending a 90-day letter, when there is no return on which to base the claim, and therefore no record of assessment, is fraudulent usage of the form letter to deceive and intimidate people into paying tax that is not imposed on them by law.

The bait in the 90-day letter is the statement that the exorbitant amounts determined by the IRS can be appealed by filing a petition with the "U.S. Tax Court" within 90 days. The "Tax Court" is not a court of laws; it is an administrative hearing procedure created by the IR Code. The so called "Court" has no authority to rule on questions of law, such as whether or not one is subject to the tax ("taxpayers"), but only on the question of how much is owed. When one petitions (asks) the "Court" to rule on an issue, it indicates that the petitioner is a "taxpayer", because by petitioning the "Court", the petitioner subjects himself to the jurisdiction of the "Court" which can rule on issues involving "taxpayers" only.

A real trap for the uninformed is the Form 4089 that is sent along with the 90-day letter. If the targeted citizen signs that form, he is consenting to the immediate assessment and collection of the exorbitant amounts listed on the 90-day letter, thus giving the IRS his permission to record an assessment against him and making him a "person liable" for the amounts shown on the 90-day letter.

PENALTIES FOR IRS EMPLOYEES

If there is no assessment, the IRS has no grounds to engage in collection procedures and any agents involved in such procedures could be in violation of parts of Section 7214 of the IR Code, which provides for fines, imprisonment and discharge from employment for employees of the United States who commit certain violations. That section describes a violator as:

"Any Officer or employee of the United States acting in connection with any revenue law of the United States--...(2) who knowingly DEMANDS OTHER OR GREATER SUMS than are authorized by law...(7) who MAKES OR SIGNS ANY FRAUDULENT CERTIFICATE, RETURN OR STATEMENT...(it further states that he) ...shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both."

The court MAY AWARD to the one reporting the guilty agent, UP TO ONE HALF OF THE FINE IMPOSED, IN ADDITION TO DAMAGES IMPOSED ON THE AGENT FOR ANY LOSSES SUSTAINED AS A RESULT OF HIS CRIMINAL ACTION(s).

EXAMPLES OF VIOLATIONS

If there has been no return or list filed acknowledging a liability for an income tax, any IRS employee signing a summary record of assessment would be exceeding his authority under the IR Code and making a fraudulent entry or certificate, in addition to violating the constitutional provisions prohibiting the taxation of individuals. It is not likely that an informed agent would record an assessment without a return being filed. If there is no unpaid assessment on record against an individual, any document or communication claiming that a tax is owed and/or demanding any money whatsoever from anyone for the periods involved, would not only be a demand for "other or greater sums than are authorized by law", but it would also be a fraudulent statement because it would be an attempt to obtain money that is not owed.

In cases where IRS sends unsigned correspondence to an individual in an attempt to collect money for years for which there is no record of assessment, any IRS personnel involved in the sending of the forms or establishing a policy that such correspondence be sent under those circumstances, could be found in violation of Section 7214. In a case where title to an individual's real estate has been clouded by the recording of a lien (a claim) by the IRS for which there has been no return filed and therefore, no assessment recorded, the recording of the lien form by an IRS employee is clearly a fraudulent act in violation of Section 7214 (a)(7) and an attempt to collect money that is not owed, a violation of Section 7214 (a)(2). RECORDING OF SUCH A LIEN COULD ALSO CREATE GROUNDS FOR A DAMAGE SUIT BASED ON THE BIVENS DECISION, FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE CITIZEN'S RIGHTS TO HIS PROPERTY. In the decision on the Bivens vs. Six Unknown Federal Narcotics Agents, 403 U.S. 388, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that government cannot refuse to disclose the identities of any of its personnel that are involved in a violation of a citizen's rights and that the citizen has the right of action for PUNITIVE DAMAGES against all offending government personnel AS INDIVIDUALS.

TACTICS OF DECEPTION

Due to the fact that most IRS agents have been mentally programmed to be aggressive in dealing with "taxpayers", they will often ignore the legal notice in the form of an affidavit of revocation and rescission that has been filed with the IRS, and send out various forms and statements designed to confuse, demoralize and intimidate the citizen into capitulating and filing returns. If the agent believes that there is little chance that the targeted citizen can be induced to file a return or sign a Form 4089 consenting to assessment of the amount shown on a 90-day letter, they use other tactics such as sending the various #668 forms to third parties to intimidate them into sending to the IRS, money that is owed to the targeted victim. An example of those forms is the fraudulently misused Form 668-W, Notice of Levy on Wages, Salary, and Other Income. The form is routinely used to deceive employers into believing that a levy has been made upon the targeted victim's wages or salary and that the employer is required by law to surrender the employee's money to the IRS.

The proper usage of the "Notice of Levy" forms is for notifying the owners of property that has been seized and is possessed by the U.S. Government, that the IRS has placed a claim against the property for unpaid taxes owed to the U.S. Government. Knowledge of the time when the levy occurs and what property is subject to a levy, is a mystery, not only to most employers, but also to practically all citizens, many of whom have been victimized as a result of their lack of knowledge of the applicable law. IR Code 5331 is the statute that creates the limited authority for the IRS to collect an excise tax by "levy upon property". A careful reading of Section 6331 discloses limitations on the authority of the IRS that are not generally known. The Section states:

"If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same within 10 days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the Secretary to collect such tax...by levy upon all property...on which there is a lien..." (Emph. added.)

The underlined words in the statute ARE VERY SIGNIFICANT for they restrict the application of a levy to a "PERSON LIABLE" (one who has filed a return) who has been sent a NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT AND DEMAND FOR PAYMENT. SINCE THERE IS NO SECTION OF THE IR CODE THAT IMPOSES ANY LIABILITY (REQUIREMENT OF PAYMENT) ON INDIVIDUALS FOR THE FEDERAL EXCISE TAX ON "INCOME", INDIVIDUALS ARE NOT "PERSONS LIABLE" ACCORDING TO THE LAW. However, when an individual files a return signed under penalty of perjury acknowledging that he owes an excise tax on "income", he is then considered to be a "person liable to pay" (a "taxpayer") as a result of his voluntary self-assessment.

NO LEVY WITHOUT AN ASSESSMENT AND SEIZURE

Note that Section 6331 states that it is lawful for the Secretary (the IRS) to collect tax by means of a levy after notice of assessment and demand for payment has been sent to the "PERSON LIABLE". There can be NO legitimate notice of assessment unless there HAS BEEN AN ASSESSMENT. As explained above in this article, there is no authority granted by the IR Code for an IRS employee to record an assessment for income tax unless there has been a return or list filed by a "taxpayer" (of which almost NONE of you ARE) stating that he owes the tax. The significance of this fact is clear. THE IRS CANNOT LEVY ON PROPERTY UNLESS A RETURN HAS BEEN FILED AND A NOTICE OF AN UNPAID ASSESSMENT SENT to the "person liable" who has failed to pay the self-assessed tax. Knowledge of the time when a levy occurs and to what it can be applied, will further expose the deception and the fraudulent usage of the various IRS forms of the 668 series (Notice of Levy, Demand for Payment, etc.) used by IRS personnel. The date and circumstance when a levy occurs are defined very clearly in 26 USC 6502 (b) and 6335 (a). Section 6502 (b) states:

"Date When Levy Is Considered Made - The DATE ON WHICH A LEVY on property or rights to property is made shall be the DATE ON WHICH THE NOTICE OF SEIZURE provided in Section 6335 (a) IS GIVEN." (Emph. added.)

"Notice of Seizure - As soon as practicable AFTER SEIZURE of property, NOTICE IN WRITING SHALL BE GIVEN by the Secretary (IRS) to the owner of the property..." (Emph. added.)

The significance of the emphasized parts of these sections of the Code is confirmed by Section 333.1 of the IRS LEGAL REFERENCE GUIDE FOR REVENUE OFFICERS (10-29-79) which explains that a levy cannot occur without a seizure. The IRS Legal Reference Guide states:

"Whether a levy, or notice of levy, is the administrative method employed to collect delinquent taxes, it should be borne in mind- that A LEVY REQUIRES THAT THE PROPERTY LEVIED UPON BE BROUGHT INTO LEGAL CUSTODY THROUGH SEIZURE. THERE MUST BE ACTUAL OR CONSTRUCTIVE PHYSICAL APPROPRIATION OF THE PROPERTY LEVIED UPON. Mere intent to reduce to possession and control is insufficient". (Emph. added.)

These quotations from the law and the IRS Legal Reference Guide show very clearly that the government must have taken possession of the targeted property by seizure before levy against the property can occur. If there has been no seizure, there can be no legitimate notice of seizure. Since a levy cannot occur until the date on which a legitimate notice of seizure is sent, there can be no levy until there has been a seizure of the targeted property, thereby putting it in the possession of the government. Thus, THE IRS HAS NO AUTHORITY TO LEVY ON ANY PROPERTY THAT IS NOT IN THE POSSESSION OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT!!!

Further evidence of this most important limitation on the authority of the IRS in respect to the power of levy can be found by a study of various provisions in the previously mentioned Section 6331. Careful reading of that section will show that it creates the power to levy "upon the accrued salary and wages" of employees of the federal government, its agencies and instrumentalities, etc... (doesn't sound like "non-eligible taxpayers" to me). The mentioned "accrued salary and wages" are monies ALREADY IN THE POSSESSION OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, SO NO COURT ORDER IS NEEDED TO FORCE THE SURRENDER OF THE MONEY. But a COURT ORDER IS NEEDED TO COMPEL SURRENDER OF SALARY AND/OR WAGES BY THIRD PARTIES SUCH AS PRIVATE EMPLOYERS.

LEVY HAS LIMITED APPLICATION

A "NOTICE OF LEVY FORM" HAS NO FORCE OF LAW TO COMPEL ANYONE TO SURRENDER PROPERTY TO THE IRS. Without an attachment order resulting from a judgment BY A COURT OF LAW ("Tax Court" is NOT A COURT OF LAW!), no person can be compelled to surrender any property to the IRS, merely because he has been sent a copy of the FRAUDULENTLY USED "NOTICE OF LEVY" FORM. To enforce a lien (a claim) of the IRS or to subject property to payment of tax, Section 7403 of the IR Code requires the government to file suit IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT against the person from whom they are trying to collect. It also requires that ALL PERSONS claiming any interest in the property that IRS wants to attach, MUST BE SERVED WITH PAPERS NOTIFYING THEM OF THE LAWSUIT. Only after a hearing (due process of law) on the suit where a judgment is rendered in favor of the government by a court of law, can a lawful attachment order be issued. If there has been no hearing by a court of law, there can be no lawful attachment, and there can be no compulsion for anyone to surrender any property whatsoever to the IRS as a result of a "Notice of Levy".

Confusion about the extent of the legal authority for the power of seizure has caused many citizens to be victimized by the IRS. Contrary to popular belief, IRS DOES NOT HAVE AUTHORITY TO SEIZE PEOPLE'S BANK ACCOUNTS, AUTOMOBILES, HOMES, BUSINESSES, etc., or to arbitrarily LOCK people out of their business properties for income tax claims unless they have A VALID ORDER FROM A COURT OF LAW. The items that are subject to seizure imposed by Subtitles D and E of the IR Code are defined in IR Code Sections 7321 and 7608 (b)(2)(C) as "property subject to forfeiture". IR Code Sections 7301, 7302, and 7303 list items of "property subject to forfeiture" that, therefore, are subject to seizure. They are defined as:

"Any property on which...ANY TAX IS IMPOSED BY THIS TITLE..."

(E.G.: distilled spirits, tobacco products, etc., listed in Code Subtitles (D and E), RAW MATERIALS FROM WHICH SUCH PROPERTY IS MADE (e.g., grain, sugar, tobacco, etc.), EQUIPMENT USED TO MAKE THE PRODUCT (e.g., a still, pumps, machinery, etc.), PACKAGES, TO CONTAIN THE TAXABLE PROPERTY (e.g., barrels, bottles, boxes, etc.) and CONVEYANCES USED TO TRANSPORT THE PRODUCT (e.g., trucks, automobiles, boats, etc., used in hauling the taxable property.) Also included are other items used in violation of internal revenue laws and COUNTERFEIT ITEMS such as stamps, bonds, permits, etc.

Property such as bank accounts, automobiles, homes, businesses, buildings, and other assets belonging to individuals are not subject to seizure under the IR Code unless they are involved in activities related to taxable commodities on which tax has not been paid. Under no circumstances can such property be lawfully seized for income tax without an attachment order from a court of law. Since there are no provisions in the IR Code making individuals liable for payment of the excise tax on "income", there can be no penalties, such as seizure, for not paying the tax.

Individuals who have filed affidavits of revocation are often surprised when they find that the IRS continues to send them form letters and other items REQUESTING the payment of tax, many of which are UNSIGNED. Those individuals should remember the reported statement by Bellmon, which explained that most of the activities of the IRS are bluffs. If the individuals remember that the IRS HAS NO AUTHORITY TO ASSESS AN INCOME TAX WITHOUT AN INCOME TAX RETURN they will better understand that the purpose of the bluffing tactics is to intimidate individuals into "VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE" and "SELF-ASSESSMENT". Without the recording of an assessment based on an income tax return filed by a "taxpayer", THERE IS NO MONEY OWED, according to the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in the Bull case (see above), so there is no legal justification for any attempts to collect money. The purpose of sending such demands and forms is to bluff and intimidate the victim into voluntarily paying a tax that they do not owe.

WHAT A CITIZEN CAN DO

It is suggested that if the IRS is engaged in bluff tactics such as sending a 90-day letter, demands for money, etc., to individuals who have not filed returns for years listed on the generally unsigned IRS forms, the individuals should make a request under the FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (5 USC 552) and the PRIVACY ACT (5 USC 552a) for copies of all IRS Forms 23C (ASSESSMENT CERTIFICATES), all IRS Forms 2162 (SUMMARY OF ASSESSMENT CERTIFICATES ISSUED), all records of assessments, all dates of recording of assessments, and NAMES of the IRS EMPLOYEES RECORDING AND CERTIFYING THOSE ASSESSMENTS, relating to the individual for those years involved. It should also be requested that for any years where there is no assessment of record, that the IRS confirm in writing that no record of assessment exists for that/those years).

A copy of an IRS Form MAR-8106 (Delegation Order) issued by the Mid-Atlantic Regional Service Center states that the authority to certify the correctness of the Forms 23C and 2162 has been delegated to the Chief of the Accounting Branch ONLY. The Form 8106 states: "The authority delegated herein may NOT BE REDELEGATED." Thus no other EMPLOYEE of the IRS in the Mid-Atlantic Region is authorized to certify the correctness of Forms 23C and 2162 (and this will probably pretty well be upheld if brought into court for other parts of the nation). Copies of Form 8106 issued by IRS officials in all regions and the title of those who have been delegated the certification authority, should also be available under an F.O.I.A.. The names of the IRS officials holding those titled positions in the various regions during and since the years involved--in the F.O.I.A. request-- are available by telephone from that IRS Region's Office in Washington, D.C.

Experience shows that in response to F.O.I.A. requests for records of assessments, IRS has supplied other documents instead, such as transcripts of other records, etc., that are certified by IRS personnel other than the one delegated to certify assessments. If no copies of Forms 23C or 2162 bearing the name of the individual making the request and CERTIFIED BY THE DELEGATED IRS EMPLOYEE are supplied in response to an F.O.I.A. request, it is evidence that there is NO RECORD OF AN ASSESSMENT. Example below:

In a situation where no return has been filed, where there is no record of an unpaid assessment, and one is not involved with commodities subject to an excise tax under Subtitle D and E of the IR Code, there are no grounds whatsoever for any collection actions against an individual by the IRS. In such a situation, if an IRS agent is unlawfully attempting collection of an income tax from a citizen, the citizen should pursue the matter vigorously to focus attention on the offending IRS employees. Criminal violations of 26 USC 7214 should be reported to the Secretary of the Treasury, members of Congress, and most importantly, to the news media! Who knows, perhaps some day soon THEY are going to start listening.

Now we are placing herein a couple of photo-copies of a couple of things--I don't want you to break your eyes so just let me point out that even when presented by such groups as the "Whistle Blowers Coalition" there are gross errors and misinformation brought forth upon you. The indication from the article included is that you are eligible "taxpayers" of which almost NONE OF YOU ARE.

I have no space to continue this further. We are compiling information as quickly as possible and welcome all documents from ANYONE who has research and back-up confirmation. We need now to start building "LAW"--CONSTITUTIONALLY.

Does the government know all this? Yes. Will they tolerate it? NOT IF NOT FORCED. What will they do? EVERYTHING THEY CAN AND--UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDERS--THEY CAN COLLAPSE THE ENTIRE ECONOMY, MOVE INTO EMERGENCY REGULATIONS BY EXECUTIVE ORDER AND ON AND ON. YOU MUST START SOMEWHERE TO STOP THIS CRIMINAL ACTION PERPETRATED UPON YOU!! We will do all we can to help and we welcome all the help we can get to help you--BUT YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO DO IT!

One of the first things you can do to help yourself is to STOP dallying in what WAS, whether or not there are "little gray aliens" and/or UFO's--all of that at this time of downfall and enslavement of a nation is purely distraction. Get YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON, a PHOENIX JOURNAL and do your homework. There are others regarding Privacy also, but you can find out about them from the Publisher.

Ask the Publisher for information regarding the Law Center and get behind your own Constitutional rights.

And--if you are not putting the UCC stamp on EVERYTHING UPON WHICH YOU PLACE YOUR SIGNATURE--sic, sic. The Publisher can tell you all about that also. I give you information you can use--YOU MUST BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE USE THEREOF. Besides, I have another author here with me awaiting the scribe so He can continue your explanation of the Universe and God. A little subject of some importance to you, above and beyond the human "senses". So be it.

Hatonn to clear, please, and relinquish the soap-box. Good day.

George, please stop introducing me as being within the Ashtar Command. I am no longer even connected to it other than as events change and emergencies occur. It now becomes misleading. Thank you. I serve God, Creator, The Creation, The Pleiadian Brotherhood and you of the Lighted Brotherhood. I am Aton and I suggest you allow ones to research that for themselves. Salu.

8/15/91 #2 HATONN THURSDAY

I have been requested to reprint the following beautifully written and superbly researched information presented by HOWARD FREEMAN. It is entitled:

THE TWO UNITED STATES AND THE LAW

And I would give this man great honor and respect for the long hours of work given for you-the people. Some time back Howard granted us permission to use his work, IF: we would not give out his address or phone number. I honor that although I would enjoy having persons be able to give him the generous appreciation for his service. Please know that this portion following is the presentation of Howard Freeman.

Quote:

Our forefathers, weary of the oppressive measures that King George III's government forced upon them, in common declared their independence from England in 1776. They were not expected to be successful in that resistance. The moneyed people had backed England for two major reasons. First, our forefathers wanted a rigid, written Constitution "set in concrete". They were familiar with the so-called Constitution of England which consisted largely of customs, precedents, traditions, and understandings, often vague and always flexible. They wanted the principle of English common law, that an act done by any official person or law-making body beyond his or its legal competence was simply void. Second, the thirteen little colonies desired to base their union on substance (gold and silver)--real money. They well knew how the despotic governments of Europe were mortgaged to the hilt--lock, stock, and barrel, the land, the people, everything--to certain wealthy men who controlled the banks, the currency, and all credit, who lent credit but did not loan gold and silver!

The United States of America was made up of a union of what is now fifty sovereign States, a three-branch (legislative, executive, and judicial) Republic known as The United States of America, or as termed in this article, the Continental United States. Its citizenry live in one of the fifty States, and its laws are based on the Constitution, which is based on Common Law.

Less than one hundred years after we became a nation, a loophole was discovered in the Constitution by cunning lawyers in league with the international bankers. They realized that a separate nation existed, by the same name, that Congress had created in Article I, Section 8 Clause 17. This "United States" is a Legislative Democracy within the Constitutional Republic, and is known as the Federal United States. It has exclusive, unlimited rule over its citizenry, the residents of the District of Columbia, the territories and enclaves (Guam, Midway Islands, Wake Island, Puerto Rico, etc.), and anyone who is a citizen by way of the 14th Amendment (naturalized citizens).

Both United States have the same Congress that rules in both nations. One "United States", the Republic of fifty States, has the "stars and stripes" as its flag, but without any fringe on it. The Federal United States' flag is the stars and stripes with a yellow fringe, seen in all the courts. The abbreviations of the States of the Continental United States are, with or without the zip codes, Ala., Alas., Ariz., Ark., Cal., etc. The abbreviations of the States under the jurisdiction of the Federal United States, the Legislative Democracy, are AL, AK, AZ, AR, CA, etc. (without any periods).

Under the Constitution, based on Common Law, the Republic of the Continental United States provides for legal cases (1) at Law, (2) in Equity, and (3) in Admiralty:

(1) Law is the collective organization of the individual right to lawful defense. It is the will of the majority, the organization of the natural right of lawful defense. It is the substitution of a common force for individual forces, to do only what the individual forces have a natural and lawful right to do: to protect persons, liberties, and properties; to maintain the right of each, and to cause justice to reign over us all. Since an individual cannot lawfully use force against the person, liberty, or property of another individual, then the common force—for the same reason—cannot lawfully be used to destroy the person, liberty, or property of individuals or groups. Law allows you to do anything you want to, as long as you don't infringe upon the life, liberty or property of anyone else. Law does not compel performance. Today's so-called laws (ordinances, statutes, acts, regulations, orders, precepts, etc.) are often erroneously perceived as law, but just because something is called a "law" does not necessarily make it a law. [There is a difference between "legal" and "lawful". Anything the government does is legal, but it very well may not be lawful.]

- (2) Equity is the jurisdiction of compelled performance (for any contract you are a party to) and is based on what is fair in a particular situation. The term "equity" denotes the spirit and habit of fairness, justness, and right dealing which would regulate the intercourse of men with men. You have no rights other than what is specified in your contract. Equity has no criminal aspects to it.
- (3) Admiralty is compelled performance plus a criminal penalty, a civil contract with a criminal penalty.

By 1938 the gradual merger procedurally between law and equity actions (i.e., the same court has jurisdiction over legal, equitable, and admiralty matters) was recognized. The nation was bankrupt and was owned by its creditors (the international bankers) who now owned everything—the Congress, the Executive, the courts, all the States and their legislatures and executives, all the land, and all the people. Everything was mortgaged in the national debt. We had gone from being sovereigns over government to subjects under government, through the use of negotiable instruments to discharge our debts with limited liability, instead of paying our debts at common law with gold or silver coin.

The remainder of this article explains how this happened, where we are today, and what remedy we have to protect ourselves from this system.

OUR PRESENT COMMERCIAL SYSTEM OF "LAW" AND THE REMEDY PROVIDED FOR OUR PROTECTION

The present commercial system of "law" has replaced the old and familiar Common Law upon which our nation was founded. The following is the legal thread which brought us from sovereigns over government to subjects under government, through the use of negotiable instruments (Federal Reserve Notes) to discharge our debts with limited liability instead of paying our debts at common law with gold or silver coin.

The change in our system of law from public law to private commercial law was recognized by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Erie Railroad vs. Thompkins case of 1938, after which case, in the same year, the procedures of Law were officially blended with the procedures of Equity. Prior to 1938, all U.S. Supreme Court decisions were based upon public law—or that system of law that was controlled by Constitutional limitation. Since 1938, all U.S. Supreme Court decisions are based upon what is termed public policy.

Public policy concerns commercial transactions made under the Negotiable Instruments Law, which is a branch of the international Law Merchant. This has been codified into what is now known as the Uniform Commercial Code, which system of law was made uniform throughout the fifty States through the cunning of the congress of the United States (which "United States" has its origin in Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution, as distinguished from the "United States", which is the Union of the fifty States).

In offering grants of negotiable paper (Federal Reserve Notes) which the Congress gave to the fifty States of the Union for education, highways, health, and other purposes, Congress bound all the States of the Union into a commercial agreement with the Federal United States (as distinguished from the Continental United States). The fifty States accepted the "benefits" offered by the Federal United States as the consideration of a commercial agreement between the Federal United States and each of the corporate States. The corporate States were then obligated to obey the Congress of the Federal United States and also to assume their portion of the equitable debts of the Federal United States to the international banking houses, for the credit loaned. The credit which each State received, in the form of federal grants, was predicated upon equitable paper.

This system of negotiable paper binds all corporate entities of government together in a vast system of commercial agreements and is what has altered our court system from one under the Common Law to a Legislative Article I Court, or Tribunal, system of commercial law. Those persons brought before this court are held to the letter of every statute of government on the federal, state, county, or municipal levels unless they have exercised the REMEDY provided for them with that system of Commercial Law whereby, when forced to use a so-called "benefit" offered, or available, to them, from government, they may reserve their former right, under the Common Law guarantee of same, not to be bound by any contract, or commercial agreement, that they did not enter knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally.

This is exactly how the corporate entities of state, county, and municipal governments got entangled with the Legislative Democracy, created by Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution, and called here The Federal United States, to distinguish it from the Continental United States, whose origin was in the Union of the Sovereign States.

The same national Congress rules the Continental United States pursuant to the Constitutional limits upon its authority, while it enjoys exclusive rule, with no Constitutional limitations, as it legislates for the Federal United States.

With the above information, we may ask: "How did we, the free Preamble citizenry of the Sovereign States, lose our guaranteed unalienable rights and be forced into acceptance of the equitable debt obligations of the Federal United States, and also become subject to that entity of government, and divorced from our Sovereign States in the Republic, which we call here the Continental United States?" We do not reside, work, or have income from any territory subject to the direct jurisdiction of the Federal United States. These are questions that have troubled sincere, patriotic Americans for many years. Our lack of knowledge concerning the cunning of the legal profession is the cause of that divorce, but a knowledge of the truth concerning the legal thread, which caught us in its net, will restore our former status as a free Preamble citizen of the Republic. The answer follows:

Our national Congress works for two nations foreign to each other, and by legal cunning both are called The United States. One is the Union of Sovereign States, under the Constitution, termed in this article the Continental United States. The other is a Legislative Democracy which has its origin in Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution, here termed the Federal United States. Very few people, when they see some "law" passed by Congress, ask themselves, "Which nation was Congress working for when it passed this or that so-called law?" Or, few ask, "Does this particular law apply to the Continental citizenry of the Republic, or does this particular law apply only to the residents of the District of Columbia and other named enclaves, or territories, of the Democracy called the Federal United States?"

Since these questions are seldom asked by the uninformed citizenry of the Republic, it was an open invitation for "cunning" political leadership to seek more power and authority over the entire citizenry of the Republic through the medium of "legalese". Congress deliberately failed in its duty to provide a medium of exchange for the citizenry of the Republic, in harmony with its Constitutional mandate. Instead, it created an abundance of commercial credit money for the Legislative Democracy, where it was not bound by Constitutional limitations. Then, after having created an emergency situation, and a tremendous depression in the Republic, Congress used its emergency authority to remove the remaining substance (gold and silver) from the medium of exchange belonging to the Republic, and made the negotiable instrument paper of the Legislative Democracy (Federal United States) a legal tender for continental United States citizenry to use in the discharge of debts.

At the same time, Congress granted the entire citizenry of the two nations the "BENEFIT" of limited liability in the discharge of all debts by telling the citizenry that the gold and silver coins of the Republic were out of date and cumbersome. The citizens were told that gold and silver (substance) was no longer needed to pay their debts, that they were now "privileged" to discharge debt with this more "convenient" currency, issued by the Federal United States. Consequently, everyone was forced to "go modern", and to turn in their gold as a patriotic gesture. The entire news media complex went along with the scam and declared it to be a forward step for our democracy, no longer referring to America as a REPUBLIC.

From that time on, it was a falling light for the Republic of 1776, and a rising light for Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal Democracy, which overcame the depression, which was caused by a created shortage of real money. There was created an abundance of debt paper money, so-called, in the form of interest-bearing negotiable instrument paper called Federal Reserve Notes, and other forms of paper-work credit instruments.

Since all contracts since Roosevelt's time have the colorable consideration of Federal Reserve Notes, instead of a genuine consideration of silver and gold coin, all contracts are colorable contracts, and not genuine contracts. [According to Black's Law Dictionary (1990), colorable means "That which is in appearance only, and not in reality, what it purports to be, hence counterfeit, feigned, having the appearance of truth."]

Consequently, a new colorable jurisdiction, called a statutory jurisdiction, had to be created to enforce the contract. Soon the term colorable contract was changed to the term commercial agreement to fit circumstances of the new statutory jurisdiction, which is legislative, rather than judicial, in nature. This jurisdiction enforces commercial agreements upon implied consent, rather than full knowledge, as it is with the enforcement of contracts under the Common Law.

All of our courts today sit as Legislative Tribunals, and the so-called "statutes" of legislative bodies being enforced in these Legislative Tribunals are not "statutes" passed by the legislative branch of our three-branch Republic, but as "commercial obligations" to the Federal United States for anyone in the Federal United States or in the Continental United States who has used the equitable currency of the Federal United States and who has accepted the "benefit", or "privilege", of discharging his debts with the limited liability "benefit" offered to him by the Federal United States...EXCEPT those who availed themselves of the remedy within this commercial system of law, which remedy is today found in Book 1 of the Uniform Commercial Code at Section 207.

When used in conjunction with one's signature, a stamp stating "Without Prejudice U.C.C. 1-207" is sufficient to indicate to the magistrate of any of our present Legislative Tribunals (called "courts") that the signer of the document has reserved his Common Law right. He is not to be bound to the statute, or commercial obligation, of any commercial agreement that he did not enter knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally, as would be the case in any Common Law contract.

Furthermore, pursuant to U.C.C. 1-103, the statute, being enforced as a commercial obligation of a commercial agreement, must now be construed in harmony with the old Common Law of America, where the tribunal/court MUST rule that the statute does not apply to the individual who is wise enough and informed enough to exercise the remedy provided in this new system of law. He retains his former status in the Republic and fully enjoys his unalienable rights, guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the Republic, while those about him "curse the darkness" of Commercial Law government, lacking the truth needed to free themselves from a slave status under the Federal United States, even while inhabiting territory foreign to its territorial venue.

ADDENDUM

U.C.C. 1-207:4 Sufficiency of reservation.

Any expression indicating any intention to preserve rights is sufficient, such as "without prejudice", "under protest", "under reservation", or "with reservation of all our rights".

The Code states an "explicit" reservation must be made. "Explicit" undoubtedly is used in place of "express" to indicate that the reservation must not only be "express" but it must also be "clear" that such a reservation was intended.

The term "explicit" as used in U.C.C. 1-207 means "that which is so clearly stated or distinctively set forth that there is no doubt as to its meaning...."

U.C.C. 1-207:7 Effect of reservation of rights.

The making of a valid reservation of rights preserves whatever rights the person then possesses and prevents the loss of such right by application of concepts of waiver or estoppel....

U.C.C. 1-207:9 Failure to make reservation.

When a waivable right or claim is involved, the failure to make a reservation thereof causes a loss of the right and bars its assertion at a later date....

U.C.C. 1-103:6 Common law.

The Code is "Complementary" to the common law which remains in force except where displaced by the Code....

A statute should be construed in harmony with the common law unless there is a clear legislative intent to abrogate the common law.... "The Code cannot be read to preclude a common law action."

EXAMPLE

Your Honor, my use of "Without Prejudice UCC 1-207" above my signature on this document indicates that I have exercised the "Remedy" provided for me in the Uniform Commercial Code in Book 1 at Section 207, whereby I may reserve my Common Law right not to be compelled to perform under any contract, or agreement, that I have not entered into KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, and INTENTIONALLY. And, that reservation serves notice upon all administrative agencies of government--national, state and local--that I do not, and will not, accept the liability associated with the "compelled" benefit of any unrevealed commercial agreement.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

THE SACRED SPIRIT WITHIN

MITAKUYE OYASIN (for all my relations--which is ALL)
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. VI

Violinio Germain, & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU, NOT FOR YOU

Germain gives the reason why it would be very wise for all to imbed this deeply in our consciousness.

The mysteries of gravity are explained. - Information is given about some of the world teachers of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE and who they were. - Explanation of God's HOLY LAW OF MATING LIGHT WAVES AND SEX ARE ONE. - More probing of Universal Secrets is done along with a more explicit definition of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE OF CREATION. - Lao-tzu and his teachings are discussed. - Some New Concepts for "Cosmic Man" are given and applying this knowledge to the meaning of prayer.

The human race has now arrived at the point where hundreds of thousands are at the transition point between their mortal, physical and sensual natures and their immortal, intellectual and inspirational natures.

Mortal man is beginning to know his immortality. The sensual in him is being lost in its own dark by his own Self-illuminating. It is for these few of the great many that this book is written so that MAN, THE UNKNOWN, can gradually unfold into MAN, THE KNOWN.

THIS BOOK CONTAINS SOME OF THAT HIGHER KNOWLEDGE MAN IS SEEKING.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, VOLUMES XIII AND XIV

$15 320 PAGES 8 1/2 X 11"

This book continues the compilation of the EXPRESSES with an indexing of all headings for easy reference of topics (13 pages).

A few of the hundreds of topics covering all aspects of life are: The one world money system - Gold fails as a monetary standard - Comparison word for word of the Ten Commandments, the Bill of Rights and the Communist Manifesto--which is America following? - House to house searches for firearms - Space-man connections - Astrology - Israel's Ariel Sharon lays claim to Jordan - Cold fusion - Last breath for Palestinians - Recognizing and facing Denial of Truth within Self and Others: The "Secret" inhibitor of taking Personal Responsibility - Quotes from "I Ran Drugs For Uncle Sam" - Bush/Kuwait.

Other important topics include: Money exchange - Abandoned

POW's - Merger of U.S., U.S.S.R and E.E.C. - Bush backs Depopulation Lobby - Martyrdom is telling God I give up. - Who says pain is your teacher? - The Pleiades Connection series of books and the Nature of The Universe - What are the consequences of suicide? - WORMWOOD - Care for the elderly - Sinister terminology, how we are trapped by the Elite's twisting of the meanings of our words - Bill authorizes CONCENTRATION CAMPS - Dictatorship is possible here. - Bush has personal interest in China. - Photobiology (Psi-onics and Radionics) and many other fascinating topics.

ORDERING INFORMATION

The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 9

8/12/91 #2 HATONN

Hatonn returned in Light. We were speaking of the "Revolutionary Community".

Still another student, James Simon Kunen, in his book entitled THE STRAWBERRY INCIDENT, tells about an SDS strategy meeting he attended in which a student was giving a report on an SDS convention that he had recently attended. The student reported that "...men from Business International Roundtables,...tried to buy up a few radicals. These men are the world's industrialists and they convene to decide how our lives are going to go. They're the left wing of the ruling class. They offered to finance our demonstrations in Chicago. We were also offered ESSO (Rockefeller) money. They want us to make a lot of radical commotion so they can look more in the center as they move more to the left." I want you to take note of the number of organizations for saving the environment that have been taken over by Rockefeller money--i.e., Winstar is a good one to begin with--it is now fully operational under the Rockefeller banner--no longer, John Denver. David Rockefeller is the only non-white member of the Board of the National Native Museum in the Smithsonian group--you will find the Illuminati in every "Green" and "Protest for Peace" group with the thrust on civil disobedience and protest--no positive action--just "insured" protest and confusion rousing.

Even the Black Panther leader, Eldridge Cleaver, started to figure it out, that the wealthy were buying themselves a revolution. Mr. Cleaver wrote in Rubin's book: "There is a danger to the healthy development of the American Revolution in the fact that often revolutionaries are manipulated by the ruling class to appear to be a bigger threat than they really are."

Rubin further amplified Cleaver's thoughts about how the Establishment made the revolution appear to be larger than it actually was. In chapter ten of his book, entitled Every Revolutionary Needs a Color TV, Rubin states, "Walter Cronkite is SDS's best organizer. Uncle Walter brings out the map of the U.S. with circles around the campuses that blew up today. The battle reports. Every kid out here is thinking, 'Wow, I wanna see my campus on that map'. TV is raising generations of kids who want to grow up and become demonstrators. Television proves the domino theory: one campus falls and they all fall. The media does not report news, it creates it."

But even though it appeared that the Establishment would not be able to gather an army big enough to disrupt the Bicentennial, the plans continued.

In 1971, an organization was formed that later changed its name to the People's Bicentennial Commission (the PBC). Jeremy Rifkin became its director. Yes, dear ones, I certainly do HOPE YOU ARE RECOGNIZING THESE NAMES.

Later, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee investigated the PBC. They reported: "The New York Times, for example, on May 26, 1975, carried an article by Rifkin on the subject of economic freedom. This article was basically a rewrite of the PBC's declaration of economic independence which calls for the elimination of the free-enterprise system or the 'corporate system', as they call it."

Rifkin had made his views known to the public when he wrote the following in a radical newspaper in November, 1971: "A genuine understanding of the revolutionary ideals is what links Thomas Paine, Sam Adams, Benjamin Rush and the American people with Lenin, Mao, and Che, and the struggle of all oppressed people in the world."

A further warning that the nation appeared to be preparing for trouble on July 4, 1976, was given by FBI director Clarence Kelly who reported on Nov., 4, 1975, that: "terrorism will increase in connection with the nation's Bicentennial celebration."

The PBC continued, however, with its plans and issued an eight-page tabloid newspaper calling for 150,000 patriots to join with them in Washington D.C. on July 4, 1976, to "Declare your independence from big business". They advised the reader that the PBC was "planning a birthday party America will never forget."

Other individuals lined up in support of the PBC declaration. The tabloid reported that Rubin, "Hurricane" Carter, Jane Fonda, Rev. Jesse Jackson and Dr. Benjamin Spock, among others, would be speaking at the PBC rally on that day.

The costs of these activities were being met, at least in part, by the Establishment. The federally funded National Endowment for the Humanities provided the PBC with nearly $400,000.

But the PBC did not make much of a ripple on July 4, 1976, as it was unable to draw nearly the number of people it would have taken to cause the incident that the Establishment wanted.

NEW CONSTITUTION/CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

In addition to the plans to disrupt the Bicentennial, there was a movement inside the U.S. to call a constitutional convention. One of those urging a re-write of the Constitution was Zbigniew Brezinski, who wrote the following: "The approaching two-hundredth anniversary of the Declaration could justify the call for a national constitutional convention to re-examine the nation's formal institutional framework. Either 1976 or 1989 could serve as a suitable target date...."

Confirmation that something was planned to happen was supported, in part, by the John Birch Society, which printed the following in the October, 1977, Bulletin to its members: "There came into our hands several months ago, through the kindness of some friend who evidently wanted to remain anonymous, one of Clarence Douglas Dillon's thin papers that apparently are quietly issued now and then to members of the echelons below him, who need such information and guidance as a basis of support."

The Birch Society reasoned that whatever Mr. Dillon knew was important enough to be known to those who were trying to expose the Conspiracy. Mr. Dillon, they reasoned, was one of those who should know the plans of the conspiracy, as he was the head of the international banking firm of Dillon, Read and Company, and Chairman of the Rockefeller Foundation. In addition, Mr. Dillon had served as Secretary of the Treasury, certainly one of the positions in the American government controlled by the Rockefeller interests, for a period of four years in the Kennedy and Johnson administration, as well as being a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Dillon's letter revealed two important facts: "One was that up until about 1970 many of the Insiders (although he did not call them that) had kept on hoping to make 1976 the successful target date for the ceremonial inauguration of their NEW WORLD ORDER. But, Dillon then proceeded to point out, by 1970 this schedule had been conceded by the top command to be impracticable. And he went on to lay down the new schedule, already in effect, which would require about fifteen years for completion." DOES THIS NOT GIVE YOU GOOSE-BUMPS ON YOUR HIVES?

This meant that the Conspiracy was planning for something to occur on or about 1985, fifteen years, give or take a year or two, from the change in their plans in 1970.

The specific date of 1985 seemed to be in accord with the date being given by the Russian Communists. For instance, Soviet Communist Party Chief Leonid Brezhnev, in 1973, said this about the year 1985: "We Communists have got to string along with the capitalists for a while. We need their credits, their agriculture, and their technology. But we are going to continue massive military programs and by the middle of the eighties we will be in a position to return to a much more aggressive foreign policy designed to gain the upper hand in our relationship with the West."

He was more precise about the choice of years in a speech he made in Prague in 1973 to the Warsaw Pact leaders: "Trust us, comrades, for by 1985, as a consequence of what we are NOW achieving with detente, we will have achieved most of our objectives in Western Europe. We will have consolidated our position. We will have improved our economy. And a decisive shift in the correlation of forces will be such that, come 1985, we will be able to exert our will wherever we need to."

Now it would appear on the surface that this did not occur--OH YES IT HAS AND DID! They are getting exactly that which they want from the West in every facet of activity including food stuffs and economic backup--even to the moving of industry from the U.S. into the East Bloc nations and Russia proper. AND JUST "WHEN" DID THIS DANDY LITTLE GORBY AND GLASNOST ENTER THE PICTURE? I THOUGHT YOU MIGHT SEE A BIT MORE CLEARLY, THE HANDWRITING.

Breshnev didn't say just how they were going to exert their will, but one version of what they might attempt came from Barry Goldwater in August of 1971 and ran in the Los Angeles Herald Examiner, which headlined the article: "Goldwater Warns of Nuclear Blackmail by Russ." The article went on: "Senator Goldwater said Saturday the world balance of power has shifted to the Soviet Union to such an extent that international nuclear blackmail is no longer impossible. The only conclusion is that the Soviet Union is out to establish a strategic military superiority so vast that it cannot be challenged and so that any policy the Soviet Union may decide upon can be backed with overwhelming strength." This is so--the Cosmospheres alone give them dominance if there were no other arms involved.

So, the Russians, who have been slowly but steadily building the most potent military machine in the world and a nuclear superiority over the forces of the free West, (with the assistance of the United States), could threaten the United States with a nuclear war. This would force the American government into a position of having to decide whether they wished to go to war or accept some Russian ultimatum. The Russians are effectively holding in check that which the Global Elite had in mind for obliterating Iraq--again.

This is why the intent to have a first strike against the Soviet Union in September (17), 1982 was planned. The only hope for averting annihilation of America is to have a first strike by surprise, allowing, hopefully, enough damage to cause inability to retaliate with full force. The plans have never changed--only the target dates as they are uncovered and made public. You are so close to all-out nuclear world war this day that you should be able to feel the radiation in your very pores.

It was so open in knowledge to your own military and government leaders that "pretend" scenarios were worked out, etc. The entire Middle East/Iraqi situation was worked out years before the invasion of Kuwait. That was just one more scene in the play as orchestrated. There poured forth warnings that the U.S. had been so strategically depleted to the point where it would be in grave danger. One such warning came in 1980 from FIFTY RETIRED ADMIRALS AND GENERALS who warned that America was "in greater danger today than at any time since Pearl Harbor".

Henry Kissinger went on record at the time as saying that it was too late anyway, and that the U.S. should get the best deal it could in the struggle against the Soviet Union. In 1976, when Kissinger was Secretary of State, nationally syndicated columnist Cueneo wrote:

Unimpeachable sources state that Dr. Henry Kissinger's model has shifted from 19th century Metternich to 20th century Spengler.

What that meant is that Kissinger has abandoned the Balance of Power policy to accept Spengler's position that the West is through and must accept a subordinate role because it is useless to resist the 'wave of the future'.

The 'wave of the future' of course means Communist ascendancy.

Kissinger's new position assumes that the American people do not have the courage or the strength to stand up to the communists if it means war. [Well, I'd like to know how you could keep enough people alive to stand up at all with no shelter systems.]

Therefore, Kissinger is attempting to get the best terms possible as a competing world power.

It fits that the American government was being maneuvered into a position of not having the ability nor the means to resist Communist pressures so that, when the Russian government threatens America with nuclear war, the American people will demand that their government accept ANY solution other than a war. The American president will ask the Russians if there is any option they will accept other than nuclear war. Their response will be that the merging of the two countries into a world government will suffice, and the American people will breathe a sigh of relief when their offer is accepted by the American government. AND WHERE DO YOU THINK YOU ARE NOW?

Only one additional item would be needed to make the scenario and theory really come off. That would be a president that would not be afraid to stand up to the Russians, even though he knows that he does not have the military means to succeed. He would have to be a Republican who has long stood up against the Communists, one that would have sent military troops into a small island (Grenada?) when he believed the nation was about to go Marxist. He couldn't be a member of the Democrat Party which has been consistently against any confrontation with the Communists on a face to face basis.

It appears that the Americans are playing two sides of the same coin: appearing to get tough with the Russians, and then not having the ability to withstand any offense put forward by the Russians. I believe that your visible handshake between Bush and Gorbachev on the NEW WORLD ORDER should have told you a lot more than you seem to realize.

There is another piece of the puzzle which fits the fact that America was being told at the time that the government did not have the military or nuclear power to compete with the Russians in a military showdown. One evidence of this strategy was revealed in an interview with the late (sic, sic) John Tower, Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee that reaffirmed the position of the retired admirals and generals who felt that America was in serious danger because of its reduced military strength. The headline to the article read: "U.S. Faces Nothing Less Than Military Inferiority." Do you still wonder WHY Tower was killed?

That article showed how dangerously behind the U.S. was in the numbers of bombers and missiles, warheads, and estimated megatonnage of warheads. It did not however, divulge the facts of the hidden and clandestine equipment stashed everywhere around the globe.

From this point on in the scenarios as presented to the public became more and more fantasy while the real Elite powers were pulling off massive subterfuge under-the-covers.

One major thing happened very openly, however, which has doomed your Constitution for all practical purposes. On June 19, 1978, President Jimmy Carter, by an unconstitutional Executive Order, created an organization known as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). This organization is a civilian agency which has the capacity to administer a TOTALITARIAN GOVERNMENT IN THE EVENT OF DOMESTIC OR INTERNATIONAL CRISIS.

LAY IT OUT AGAIN

FEMA has the authority to:

Relocate millions of workers, reorganize national industry and banking, and distribute all economic resources and transportation access;

Operate every level of government, through personnel currently in place throughout Washington and the rest of the country;

Institute total energy rationing; and Order mass evacuation of residents in the perimeter of nuclear power plants..

Do you not think it conveniently coincidental that the Three Mile Island incident occurred JUST ONE DAY after FEMA became operational? There was such an atmosphere of panic and evacuations that at that point FEMA would have been given authority over ALL OTHER FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL GOV-ERNMENTAL BODIES. (With possible exception of the "Governor's" office.) WORSE, THE ACT AT THREE MILE ISLAND WAS A PLANNED ACT OF SABOTAGE. There are all sorts of proofs of the statement--just go look them up.

The whole incident was staged to test the incredible powers of FEMA.

So what of other incidents? Well, along about then the Cuban government allowed the boat people to leave Cuba and that became a real test for FEMA in relocation of people and allowed them to locate thousands of people all over the U.S. Reagan agreed that FEMA had done an excellent job. When he outlined his $3.4 billion, seven-year program to relocate the U.S. metropolitan population from potentially high risk areas after a nuclear war started, he designated FEMA as the agency to carry out the program--without interference.

CREATION OF FEMA

The creation of FEMA has an interesting history behind it. The 1979 Executive Order that created it was based on Presidential Review Memorandum 32, prepared by one Samuel Huntington. The guiding assumption of PRM-32 was that constitutionally mandated institutions would not be able to deal with the scope of crises foreseen for the 1970's and 1980's.

Three years earlier, Huntington had elaborated this assumption in his position paper for the Trilateral Commission, titled The Crisis of Democracy. Emergencies of the nature of Love Canal, the Cuban boatlift operation, and the Three Mile Island incident would require levels of austerity and social control impossible to achieve through democratic institutions, so Huntington recommended a series of national and supranational "crisis management" forms of government. These were put into effect by President Carter in June, 1978, after they were published in the Federal Register.

One more evidence that Americans will permit their government to violate all of their Constitutional Rights because of some real or alleged emergency that was created by the government occurred on October 16, 1970, in Canada. We need to remind you of the "old" ones because the massive "new" ones tend to cause you to lose perspective as to how long you have been under total control by one group through Executive Order.

The power grab in point occurred when Canadian Prime Minister Pierre-Elliott Trudeau, using the kidnapping of two officials by the Communist F.L.Q. "invoked the War Measures Act, suspended the Canadian Bill of Rights, and imposed a dictatorship on Canada. Trudeau now had the power of censorship, for instance, and could search without warrant and arrest without trial." OUCH! YOU ALREADY HAVE ALL THOSE THINGS IN POWER AGAINST YOU.

It will be recalled that the nice Canadian people allowed these violations of their rights almost without a whimper, almost praising Trudeau for taking that action to stop the F.L.Q. Does it remind you of how you allowed Bush to start and then send your military troops off to a foreign war? You not only allowed him to do it--you praised, paraded, hooped and bowed to his honorable feet on the pedestal.

There was a big push to arrange for the total grabbing by the Conspiracy, of the power in the U.S. in 1985. But a couple of things were considered as to just when to pull off the open takeover. One, it was important to discredit the ones who had exposed the Conspiracy and there wouldn't be a better way than to have all of the exposers point towards a given time and year. Then, if they wished to further conceal their efforts toward another year, they could postpone their plans for another time so that the exposers would be made to look ridiculous and the public would discount any further speculation.

Let us look at perfect example: The reader's attention is directed to the comment previously referred to by Zbigniew Brezinski in his book BETWEEN TWO AGES that discusses a rewriting of the Constitution in either 1976, a date past, or in 1989--another date already past. The facts are that the New Constitution has been rewritten and is in practical use for far more years than just back to 1976.

The Conspiracy intends to have total government control and that is at hand, dear ones. Your President Bush can at any moment establish Emergency regulations through already signed and given Executive Orders on any "front" in or out of your nation.

What did Bush say and do last year at this time when your national budget was late? He said he would "shut down the government!" He can and will and simultaneously, he will invoke Emergency Regulations on all areas as listed above. You, America and world, have never been closer to total devastation. It should make a ten point earthquake look good. This world Conspiracy is planned to be fully operational no later than year 2000 and it appears they are now a bit ahead of schedule.

THE SAD THING, DEAR ONES, IS THAT YOU CONTINUE TO "LOOK FORWARD" TO THE DELIVERY OF YOUR NATION INTO THE HANDS OF THE CONSPIRACY--THE FACTS ARE, IT HAS ALREADY HAPPENED! YOU SHOW VERY LITTLE SIGNS OF CHANGING A THING.

So why do we continue to write? Because we are interested in your Souls and the security of God's children. You have to know that which you face so that you can make some very important decisions. Further, as long as there is breath in the physical bodies--God can bring anything into possibility. And then, as for my people--ours is to bring the WORD OF TRUTH, urge you take action and change the play and then to give you the whys and wherefores of the Universal Order so you can selectively make decisions in wisdom instead of ignorance. Lastly, it is our commission to write the history of "what went wrong" with a civilization of human beings on planet earth Shan. So be it.

IRAQI NUCLEAR CAPABILITY

This has got to be one of the most foolish loud noises of your globe today. Your own government, and even Israel, supplied Iraq with all that wondrous doodad stuff to make nuclear weapons--that is why they KNOW there is more stuff around in the desert somewhere. But why the clandestine posturing and speculation? It is known, authenticated and proven that Iraq has four nuclear installations still totally intact. Saddam also has a large hidden arsenal of missiles, chemical and biological weapons. It is only YOU who is the duped.

Do you get irritated that you know nothing except that which they choose to tell you? It is worse than that--they arrange to know everything about you. Try this one: The computer industry has for years cooperated with the government in making sure that encryption systems to protect data were not complex enough so that the National Security Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation couldn't break the codes easily. But now the feds are losing sleep and are awfully concerned because hackers have developed secrecy systems that no one can break, not even the billion-dollar computer systems at NSA and FBI.

Bush to the rescue: is pushing legislation to FORCE PRIVACY SYSTEMS TO BUILD IN "TRAP DOORS" FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO PEEK AT ANYBODY'S PRIVATE INFORMATION. The reason (excuse) is "terrorism"! "Terrorists might be able to plan evil deeds in private." This destroys all privacy for anybody from the biggest terrorist of them all--Washington, D.C. Good luck.

Let us please have a rest break. Thank you. Hatonn to clear.

8/17/91 #1 HATONN
SATURDAY

(NEW YEAR'S DAY)

In the beauty of this wondrous day which grants you the beginning of a new cycle called year, may we turn first to the things at hand for some clarification.

Firstly, let us look at the recording of the books. Thank you, who are offering and then putting the words to tape. Blessings as the word goes forth for in this way shall my word go forth and so shall your voice go with the multitudes that they can make connections with both that of the unseen grounded by that of the human brother.

Please realize that it was only a preference in selection of tonal clarity that caused any comment of whether it would be male or female to record the books. We are searching for ability to project the voice and "inspire" through the emotion/spirit shared within the words. The male tonal quality is easier to hear in "clutter" of sounds but most certainly a good reader has no sex. I welcome Ellen and her reading is excellent and we appreciate your contribution. I know not why you would only choose of Sananda's and Germain's writings to record, however, for most are by Hatonn and the WHOLE must be considered. I further thank Ellen for her other suggestions and most surely all "may" be put to tape for any purpose but, most especially, the seeing-impaired need immediate attention and perhaps we can, further, make sets available on a "library type check out" system because most often the blind are handicapped and have little with which to purchase such luxuries. Thank you. I believe that the "manual" should be projected in both male and female offering for it is, of course, the "rule book".

I am almost ready to tell you ones the order of progression and why personal changes are important and why, further, changing--let us say, the masses, is not going to happen in all probability. There are ample places prepared for the transition but the selection is still obscure to you experiencing on Earth Shan. It is not complicated--it DOES require the "sorting". Where do you think "heaven" is? Who do you believe you will find there? WHAT do you think you will encounter there? Are there "other" places which can handle seven billion persons? Yes, but that is NOT THE WAY IT WORKS. Most planets which will be utilized for the sorting will be far more nearly the size of Shan and therefore, the levels of KNOWLEDGE ACQUIRED and the desire to function within the LAWS of the society awaiting your transition is absolute.

FOR INSTANCE--MARK THIS WELL. IN THE SOCIETY FROM WHENCE COMES THE LIGHTED BROTHERHOOD--THERE IS TOTAL LAW WITHIN THE GUIDELINES OF BALANCE, HARMONY, CREATION, CO-CREATION, LOVE, AND ACCORDING TO THE WORD. HE WHO CHOOSES TO NOT COME WITHIN THOSE GUIDELINES, CEASES TO BE OUR PROBLEM AT TRANSITION. We are come to give you this Truth and it matters not who of Earth agrees or disagrees. You have known the requirements since the beginning of experience and they will not be in the changing to suit you who would "rather" have it a different way so that you can continue in the ways of the fleshly/physical irresponsible behaviors. You are given the Law and through the Law will the selection be made and NEITHER WILL YOU LIMIT THE ARISEN TO THE GUIDELINES OF YOUR "CHRISTIAN" EVANGELISTS FOR THERE ARE GOING TO BE A BIG BUNCH OF "CHRISTIANS" STANDING WAITING WHILE THE SHIPS DEPART! (HAVING MISSED

THE INSTRUCTIONS AND DENIED THE MESSENGERS.) THINK YE THAT I SHALL LEAVE THE CHILD FROM ISLAM OR THE JUDEAN CHILD OF TRUTH? DO YOU ACTUALLY THINK GOD WOULD LEAVE THE GOD-REVERING BUDDHIST BECAUSE SOME "BAPTIST" DOCTRINE CALLS HIM PAGAN?

"GOD" IS RETURNED TO GATHER HIS FLOCK AND IF YE ARE TRAINED IN KNOWLEDGE OF SELF UNTO GOD--YE SHALL BE BROUGHT HOME TO THE PASTURE OF THE FOLD. IF YE HAVE NOT LEARNED AND CONTINUE TO DENY THE SHEPHERD--THEN YOU WILL BE PLACED IN CONTINUING SEARCHING AMONG THE TARES AND THISTLES FOR YOUR SELF-TENDING. EITHER WAY--YOU SHALL BE IN THE LEARNING FOR JUST AS LONG AS IT REQUIRES! SO BE IT.

Dharma, I must ask you to "truly" attend the electronics in your head this day as they are right at the edge of that which you can stand without damage. The West Coast is a mass of severe frequency bombardments. The quake off the tip of Northwestern California yesterday was a severe and urgent warning about what is planned for this day--I think you call it posturing.

Note the storm coming up from Southeast offshore Florida. It may well become a massive and devastating blast if ones do not capitulate in the political arena.

Also, note that the drought in Pennsylvania and along your dairy belt is so severe that you will lose massive farms and dairy herds. You are under total attack and it is allowed by your own so-called "protectors". Chelas, you are IN IT and cannot seem to see it. I urge you, again, LOOK AT THE WHOLE OF WHAT IS COMING DOWN.

BUSH/SADDAM/BCCI

George Bush is making deals with the Soviet Union which alone, can destroy your nation if nothing else happens. He wants to have Saddam Hussein "eliminated" and it is apparent that the Soviets are the only ones who CAN pull off that little escapade. Why? Because of the fact that the minute there is a break in the media control--the world is going to know about the escapades of one, George Bush and buddies.

OVER $250 BILLION SPLIT THROUGH BCCI

Why the big deal on BCCI (Bank of Credit and Commerce International) and soon, the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL)? Because George Bush and Saddam Hussein (in BCCI alone) split over $250 BILLION worth of Persian Gulf oil kickbacks, which were funnelled through the scandal-ridden Bank of Credit and Commerce International.

BCCI is the Luxembourg-based banking empire that has been tied to global drug-money laundering and a wide variety of other covert deals, including those of the CIA (remember--George Bush was Director). Saddam is not the only one involved directly with Bush--so are all the major drug lords of your globe. Worse, the differing denominations of your Churches are pulled into the lies--the Mormons through Brent Scowcroft, etc. Now it is all tied in with total "black-mail".

The only thing keeping the Truth from coming out is "who will take the fall?". These are NOT government transactions; these are private transactions between Bush as an individual and Saddam as an individual--transactions amounting to billions upon billions of dollars.

The House Banking Committee under its incredibly brave Rep. Henry Gonzales (Texas), has already stated to you that BCCI interfaces and interlocks with Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL). BNL is the largest bank of Italy. It's got five branches in the United States. The Bush-Saddam transactions have gone through these two banks.

LINKS TO TORN YUGOSLAVIA

The fall begins to be set up with the Brent Scowcroft and Lawrence Eagleburger manipulations and advisory capacity. The April Glaspie fiasco and facade was set up and it was expected that Saddam would fall or back off, in the least. The media was totally squelched and your children were sent off to a heinous and reprehensible encounter of the most devastating and evil kind. These two advisers just mentioned, among others, but we will use these at present, both have extensive relationships with companies doing business with Iraq and Yugoslavia (one of Iraq's more important arms suppliers) before the President launched his sting operation.

The most vitally important link between Iraq, Yugoslavia, the Soviet Union, Germany, Turkey and the U.S. with regard to Bush's wish to have control over Iraq, is the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro in Atlanta, Georgia.

It is a bit "obvious" in deception to accept what is claimed regarding these banks. For instance, even though BNL is Italian, it has its head-office in the U.S. in New York, N.Y. Do you really think the Federal Reserve and other bank regulators know and knew nothing about the massive involvement of this small branch bank in finding its way into building up the Iraqi military machine and laundering billions of dollars in illicit trade agreements?

Back to BCCI and so what? There is a bit of an obscure case--No. 90 C 6863. It is the People of the State of Illinois ex rel Willis C. Harris vs the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Heard of it? I thought not. It is being heard in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in Chicago.

The case involves records of BNL's Chicago unit which the House Banking Committee is trying to get and which were also in the possession of the Federal Reserve Board.

Those records demonstrate private transactions involving $250 billion in oil money kickbacks from the entire gulf region paid to Saddam Hussein.

The Federal Reserve Board wanted Congressman Gonzales to agree to never use these records in any of his congressional reports. He only is to be allowed to look at the records. But the congressman refused to sign the secrecy oath that the Fed demanded. (Does it begin to come clear why Gonzales says there are grounds for impeaching and imprisoning Bush? Does it also become a bit more obvious why the media has a gag order to hardly even discuss these banking matters in general format--only cursory lightly-over mention?)

That hearing was May 10, and following the hearing it was known that Congressman Gonzales did not and would not sign the secrecy oath and that the truth would be coming out regarding the secret arrangements involving these deals between Bush and Saddam.

What is involved here are non-bank records that the Justice Department DOES NOT WANT RELEASED. "Non-bank records" is a euphemism for bank records that a bank does NOT want released. It is like Steven Horn blotting out records caused for production in "discovery" and claiming they have nothing to do with the Santa Barbara Savings case revolving around Dharma and Oberli. They are totally incriminating and all efforts will be made to hide and destroy them all. The really deadly ones have already been destroyed.

The Bush/Saddam documents involve monumental amounts of joint business between these two "old buddies", and Bush certainly does NOT want them released.

There was upwards of a trillion dollars' worth of oil from the gulf shipped from 1980 to 1990 to the West.

From these oil deals, Saddam got kickbacks to the tune of $250 BILLION--arranged by George Bush and oil companies such as Pennzoil which are connected to Bush (Bush is one of the founders of Pennzoil).

Saddam split these kickbacks from the oil companies with George Bush and others. We won't, however, go into all the others at this writing.

The Chicago case in point came up before a three-judge appeals panel. It was found out that one of the judge's law clerks leaked out information that one of the judges is pressing to release the records. The release of these records would put George Bush in jail, post haste. How likely do you think it is that Bush will allow the country to continue in operation long enough to be caught? He has to pull it all down quickly now, doesn't he?

You ones who think I have been playing games about your assets and business affairs--I remind you--I DO NOT PLAY GAMES OF THIS MAGNITUDE. YOU ARE ON THE BRINK OF TOTAL COLLAPSE AND RULE BY EXECUTIVE ORDER--IT IS THE ONLY WAY THIS DONKEY CAN SAVE HIS ASSETS. Oh, you say he is an "elephant" Republican? Ah so--a bigger "asset" to save!

The Justice Department immediately started circulating stories that one of the panel members is being investigated for eight instances of bribery in other cases. We know about these also, but let us not sidetrack.

However, the Justice Department only wants this information about the bribery cases known in order to blackmail the three-judge panel not to release the documents relating to Bush and Saddam.

Efforts within even the House Banking Committee itself to sabotage Gonzales' investigation of the Bush-Saddam-BCCI scandal are heavily under way--as are attempts to plot and contract on the very life of Gonzales. Well, it will be more difficult--for I have him in my attention and he is a Godly man. The congressman and his people are fully aware of these saboteurs.

On the Senate side the investigation is also being hampered. On June 13 the Wall Street Journal pointed out that Sen. John Kerry of Nebraska--who is investigating BCCI--became chairman of the Democratic Senate Campaign Committee which received large contributions from BCCI. IS THERE NOT SOMETHING OUTRAGEOUS GOING ON HERE?

There is also a third investigation being conducted by Manhattan District Attorney Morgenthau. The key records implicating Bush's deals with Saddam and Noriega are in the hands of the BANK OF ENGLAND, which is seizing ALL OF THE BCCI BRANCHES!!! Does anyone care to guess longer about the cozy travels of the Queen, etc.? Any wonder that Bush handed over America to her like John The Baptist's head--on the sterling silver platter?

It doesn't matter much which of the two scenarios you choose--are they trying to cover up FOR Bush or do they want these lovely records to blackmail the Bush White House? Pick your choice--the Israeli Zionists have even more blackmail material!!! The Mossad are the best investigators in the world.

How honest an investigation do you believe there can be? There is only ONE honest investigation even being attempted and that is by Gonzalez--and he is being sabotaged by people RIGHT ON HIS OWN COMMITTEE!

By the way--remember that little "OCTOBER SURPRISE"? Well, perhaps it is worth noting herein--that money paid to the nice Iranians who had your hostages and the Iran/Contra scandals--WENT THROUGH BCCI AND BNL. The whole thing is a run-amok scandal and the media is ordered (through blackmail) to keep silent or else!

This case, in the very least, involves what amounts to the LARGEST TAX EVASION CASE IN HISTORY, and George Bush would surely and most likely be facing prison. Too bad he didn't realize he became a "Federal Employee" and one of the rare ones eligible for full IRS income tax regulations.

A little side note--isn't it funny that Marcos of the Philippines was one of the ones not guilty in the scam? No wonder the big Elite wanted him DEAD and made it that way. He got his billions from gold trading of confiscated gold through the Japanese, etc. But other national leaders all over the globe are implicated--a big one being President Alan Garcia of Peru who is accused in the spreading BCCI global scandal.

BACK TO THE HIT LIST

Does it now become a bit more obvious WHY Bush wants Saddam DEAD at all costs? Isn't it likely, however, that the Soviets recognize a good blackmail opportunity as well as the British and Israelis? Do you now see why you are paying the Soviet Union BILLIONS in blackmail already?

It sounds farfetched? Oh, it is quite true. The British diplomats involved in the UN's gulf operations talk about the "circumstances" openly!

If Saddam Hussein is still in power and in the news by the time the American elections roll around next year, Bush is in TROUBLE.

At the Moscow summit, Bush urged President Mikhail Gorbachev to lend his support to a "phased solution" of the festering gulf crisis, in the following moves:

To alleviate the rising famine and other widespread suffering in Iraq, the UN will set up a relief administration so large that its chain of distribution centers CAN SERVE AS A RUDIMENTARY ADMINISTRATIVE NETWORK IN CASE OF "MAJOR EMERGENCY".

The "MAJOR EMERGENCY" inside Iraq will occur when a U.S. air strike, designed to "warn the Iraqi government against concealing nuclear and chemical-warfare installations", catches Saddam in an aerial ambush and "terminates" his regime by killing the Iraqi leader. Such an "aerial ambush" is a more feasible option now than before, Bush argued, because with the war over, Hussein has been making more frequent public appearances, inaugurating repaired power stations and bridges, addressing the crowd on festive occasions and otherwise becoming a "targetable" presence.

With Hussein gone, the UN distribution network and senior Iraqi military commanders will join forces to maintain public order and ensure an "orderly transfer of power", Bush argued, while forestalling major riots or other disorders with the promise of continued food and medical supplies.

The outcome will be a "strong" military regime running Iraq as a dictatorship subservient, this time, to Washington--precisely the result the Bush administration and its gulf allies want. It was only due to total intervention by the Soviets which has prevented all out devastation of Iraq by U.S. bombings already this month.

The trouble with Bush's strategy is that most member nations of the UN Security Council, including Britain and France, have warned Washington that it is "unacceptable", diplomats close to the gulf crisis say.

Iraq is "already in the throes of a devastating ordeal" according to an official UN survey of this war-torn nation released late last month by a committee headed by Prince Sadrudin Aga Khan.

A major assault on Iraq's "remaining national integrity", such as the aerial assassination of its president, was likely to detonate "turmoil, chaos and fractional fighting on an utterly unmanageable scale" that could affect the stability of the entire gulf region. That is what the committee warned UN Secretary-General Javier Perez de Cuellar in a confidential "administrative appendix" of its report.

How interesting is the next comment from a British official: "A Mafia boss can set up a 'hit' on a hated opponent, and claim victory when he is murdered; but the leader of a great power cannot. The gulf war was a bloody, no-win intervention, and Bush will have to learn to live with that fact." Well, we shall see, won't we? What do YOU plan to do about it, America?

BUSH VACATION AND UNEMPLOYMENT

Mr. Bush said just yesterday that no money would be allowed shifted into further unemployment! Precious America, what became of you?

I am going to repeat to you, a few TRUTHS. President George Bush already has the authority to take over your government through Executive Order--already signed, sealed and delivered! The Congress is under blackmail politics, also. The plan is to allow a few more days until the boggle of the budget is in full confusion and then THE PLAN IS TO BRING HER ALL DOWN! Will it happen? It depends upon what you ones do. If enough confusion can be created to keep you from finding out the facts--maybe you have longer--but it doesn't look hopeful. The unemployment situation is so bad that some other distractions must hit you to really pull your attention away from this money cover-up. You MUST pull off a major war or MAJOR DEVASTATING "UN-NATURAL" NATURAL DISASTERS. YOU BE THE JUDGE! "They" are after ALL OF YOUR ASSETS and you are going to be in hot-dishwater very soon now if you have any asset stashed or floating. YOU MOST CERTAINLY CAN EXPECT A BANK "HOLIDAY" AT THE VERY LEAST. I look at my precious ones, i.e., one in Florida who couldn't decide what to do with her assets--being "advised" by ones who had already cost her well over 200 thousand dollars. Now that money will likely be "caught" in the "emergency". And besides, even divided among banks, there is not enough insurance to cover even a portion in ONE. Some of you are going to be wishing you had listened to the Space Cadets.

Perhaps George should tell this dear one what has now happened to our beloved friend in Sedona! The ONLY assets this precious one has remaining after the broker finished losing her fortune--is that portion she placed against gold in the Phoenix Institute. So be it.

George, I also must speak with you regarding some personal matters and this must be my format for you are a long way from home. Do not waste even ten minutes with either the Nostradamus material, the tax material by "Doc" S. or B.C. Not even ten minutes. The best thing you can do is to give back the contract to D. for I told you before and I repeat: the material is total hogwash--you are ALL going to find out that God and Hosts work very succinctly, openly and rationally. I do not "channel" herein--I bring you TRUTH straight from the "horse's mouth"--today, and not some reblatherings of a seer of some centuries past. These are distractors. Now, however, how is it that ones claim to bring the same thing and then pronounce that "Your" "Immanuel" is in error? Why would she proclaim "HER'S" to be truth? Would truth be more apt to flow through a fortune teller or from God Himself? You be the judge.

Next--everyone had best get off the "little gray alien" kick right quick! Your government will not stand long enough to have trouble with those little grays--YOU ARE IN SERIOUS TROUBLE, WORLD!

Whether you like of it or do not--the Hosts are right out here in your atmosphere and you had better be starting to get your act cleaned up because your "EARTH PEOPLE" will pull the entire world down with them before these would-be Elite Rulers will allow you to take that which is yours. Everything coming down from here on in will be a devastating problem piled upon the one before it--THEY INTEND TO RULE THE WORLD IN TOTAL BY YEAR 2000--ANY WAY THEY CAN GET IT!

As to the income tax material--anyone who wishes to hoard under the guise of Christian caring--that which is available all over now, is not of God in reality. We need no entanglements with any so-called seers nor self-centered, self-styled secret tellers. God is NOT SECRET! GOD WILL GIVE UNTO ALL HIS CHILDREN EQUALLY THAT THEY MIGHT LEARN AND GROW. ABUNDANCE IN RETURN FOR GIVING IS THE VERY WAY OF GOD SO DO NOT BE DECEIVED BY THE GREEDY WHO WOULD REAP REWARD WHEN THE NATIONS ARE FALLING INTO PERISHMENT.

I must close as this document is far too long but I will take up the plight of the "Jews" in an upcoming writing for it is time you stop your bickering over who is what and anti-Semitism vs. hate, etc. The remnants of the "Jews" fleeing the Spanish Inquisition 500 years ago are among the ones who are in point of destruction at the hands of these new so-called New World Order Zionists. These beloved Hebrew descendents and Judaists sought refuge in North Africa, the Middle East and elsewhere in Europe. Many in significant numbers reached the New World, where they took on the trappings of Catholicism while secretly clinging to their Jewish traditions. Across the American Southwest, for instance, many of these crypto-Judaists are now efforting to recover their heritage. Ones are finding out that they are not who they appear to be and the secret is handed down from mouth to ear from parent to child as the elder nears passage. This is done from mother to daughter because of the bearing of the children and proximity. If there is no daughter, then a son is told. I want to speak on this subject but we are limited and Germain MUST BE ABLE TO LAY FORTH THE WRITINGS OF THE UNIVERSAL ORDER--FOR THAT, DEAR ONES, IS YOUR PASSAGE INSTRUCTIONS--WITHOUT "KNOWING" YOU SHALL NOT MAKE PASSAGE INTO THE REALMS OF HOLY GOD.

Attend well this day, Dharma, for much is afoot and I may need your attention instantly--please be alert and on-call. Thank you.

Hatonn to clear.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

THE SACRED SPIRIT WITHIN

MITAKUYE OYASIN (for all my relations--which is ALL)

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. VI

Violinio Germain, & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU, NOT FOR YOU

Germain gives the reason why it would be very wise for all to imbed this deeply in our consciousness.

The mysteries of gravity are explained. - Information is given about some of the world teachers of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE and who they were. - Explanation of God's HOLY LAW OF MATING LIGHT WAVES AND SEX ARE ONE. - More probing of Universal Secrets is done along with a more explicit definition of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE OF CREATION. - Laotzu and his teachings are discussed. - Some New Concepts for "Cosmic Man" are given and applying this knowledge to the meaning of prayer.

The human race has now arrived at the point where hundreds of thousands are at the transition point between their mortal, physical and sensual natures and their immortal, intellectual and inspirational natures.

Mortal man is beginning to know his immortality. The sensual in him is being lost in its own dark by his own Self-illumining. It is for these few of the great many that this book is written so that MAN, THE UNKNOWN, can gradually unfold into MAN, THE KNOWN.

THIS BOOK CONTAINS SOME OF THAT HIGHER KNOWLEDGE MAN IS SEEKING.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EX-PRESS, VOLUMES XIII
AND XIV

$15 320 PAGES 8 1/2 X 11"

This book continues the compilation of the EXPRESSES with an indexing of all headings for easy reference of topics (13 pages).

A few of the hundreds of topics covering all aspects of life are: The one world money system - Gold fails as a monetary standard - Comparison word for word of the Ten Commandments, the Bill of Rights and the Communist Manifesto--which is America following? - House to house searches for firearms - Space-man connections - Astrology - Israel's Ariel Sharon lays claim to Jordan - Cold fusion - Last breath for Palestinians - Recognizing and facing Denial of Truth within Self and Others: The "Secret" inhibitor of taking Personal Responsibility - Quotes from "I Ran Drugs For Uncle Sam" - Bush/Kuwait.

Other important topics include: Money exchange - Abandoned POW's - Merger of U.S., U.S.S.R and E.E.C. - Bush backs Depopulation Lobby - Martyrdom is telling God I give up. - Who says pain is your teacher? - The Pleiades Connection series of books and the Nature of The Universe - What are the consequences of suicide? - WORMWOOD - Care for the elderly - Sinister terminology, how we are trapped by the Elite's twisting of the meanings of our words - Bill authorizes CONCENTRATION CAMPS - Dictatorship is possible here. - Bush has personal interest in China. - Photobiology (Psi-onics and Radionics) and many other fascinating topics.

AMERICA WEST IS INTERESTED in knowing about Tradeshows, Fairs or events that are slated to occur in your local area. Please contact Sandy Green.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America

West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

RADIO TALK SHOWS WITH GEORGE GREEN

Aug. 21, 8:35 to ? P.M. WTIx, Tony Ponsetta, New Orleans, LA

Aug. 22 11:00 -12:00 midnight WOAT, Ben Baldwin, Producer Eliza Sonneland San Antonio, TX

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
6Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III

Murder By Atomic Suicide
Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

Do you know what the 1st AMENDMENT was really all about? The Peter Zinger Case in 1735 when Zinger exposed the corruption in government and was thrown in jail for printing the truth. But the Jury came to his rescue and NULLIFIED a BAD LAW by voting NOT GUILTY. They decided both the LAW and facts. This is self government.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 10

8/18/91 #2 HATONN SUNDAY

Hatonn present and requesting a bit more of your time, Dharma. I dislike taking more time from Germain when the subjects of your Soul growth and KNOWING are the most important thing in your experience. However, if you understand not and miss that which is coming down around you in the world evolution--you will not be able to come into understanding of the higher level of input.

In advance of this writing, according to subject matter, I will say that the Security Pacific buy-out by Bank of America and the buying up of smaller S&L's by BofA is a full-blown effort to try to divert investigations from focusing on the entities. I bring up the S&L's in connection with the Bank of Credit and Commerce International. Believe it or not, the very complicated entanglements move all the way through the tapestry from smallest investor to largest.

I told you ones, Dharma and Oberli, and you attorneys, etc., that your little dispute over the stealing of your property will be found to go all the way to the presidency--past and present. I realize that you have not yet any proof of such a thing for they have covered their tracks quite well but I want you to hold some things in mind as we write today on the subject of hidden BCCI and S&L links in these major scandals.

Firstly, I told you that the Law Firm of Shea and Gould (a Khazarian law firm and one of the largest in the U.S.) owned a controlling interest in Santa Barbara Savings and Loan which is the mortgage S&L in your particular case. Now they also had integrated and widespread business links with the "troubled" and admittedly fraudulently-run Salomon Brothers. In fact, Salomon Brothers will be found listed as one of the buyers of the property in point (YOURS) through Santa Barbara Savings. The word "conspiracy" fails to fill the magnificent need for descriptive words.

I realize that you have trouble accepting such stunning connections so I will just outlay what is being uncovered right in California and around L.A. so that you can begin to fit your own web of deceit within the picture more easily.

Cort has just brought a clipping from the Los Angeles Times, Sun. Aug. 18, 1991 and we may as well just copy it. You KNOW that if it is in an establishment paper as released, it is only tipping the tiny-most part of the real goings-on. Yes, you are going to find, dear hearts, it is all tied right in to the Israelis. I see the pain that these revelations bring and it causes me great sadness for two reasons. One, it is so disappointing to find your country has come to this horrendous deceitful existence in evil and I see the bewildering connection to you--the little-people and the feeling of helplessness at struggling in such a mammoth web and "how can we keep going?" You keep going because it must be done and if your brethren wish to change of this world and the downfall of your nation--they will gather assistance for the attorneys in the case and allow it to be shifted for help in funding to the Constitutional Law Center as quickly as there are funds to cover help. You are into this thing over a hundred thousand dollars and yet, the potential for damages and return funding is now on your side--enough, in fact, to fund the whole start-up of the Law Center. But these things take time, and with Bank of America behind the adversary it can go much, much longer--in hopes of closing you out for lack of funds to continue. Well, let us look at the flip side and the reverse of that cycle--BofA will get no sympathetic ear from a jury, I would think. Further, precious ones, someone HAS TO DO IT AND IT MUST BE YE ONES WHO ARE UNDER THE DIRECT TARGETING. Remember the Law of Cycles--cause/-effect, sow/reap--it is about time God starts winning!

Just copy the article for I find you wanting to participate in this information and discussion and I want you to separate yourself from this because I want none of your opinion, chela. To do that after speaking of your own plight, I ask you to simply copy the printed page.

QUOTE: Los Angeles Times, Aug. 18, 1991. "Hidden BCCI, S&L Link Major Scandals", James Risen, Times Staff Writer:

Washington--Two of the great financial scandals of the early 1990s--the collapse of the savings and loan industry and the strange case of the Bank of Credit & Commerce International--are starting to converge as federal investigators unravel hidden ties between the two.

Uncovered only in the last few days, the link between the S&L mess and the BCCI affair already is threatening to lead to a new round of charges of political influence-peddling in Washington. It also is prompting a growing sense among investigators that, just as the S&L debacle mushroomed over time, the scope of the BCCI scandal may prove to be much larger and more difficult to fully unearth than had been anticipated.

So far, two failed S&Ls, Centrust Savings Bank in Miami and Viking Savings in Santa Monica, Calif., [and were it known, Santa Barbara Savings and Loan in Santa Barbara, Calif. along with dozens and dozens of others] have been found to have had either direct or indirect connections to BCCI. The Pakistani-owned international bank, which was shut down by regulators on July 5, had murky ties throughout the Arab world and allegedly assisted terrorists, drug dealers, money launderers and spies. [Don't expect the establishment to give you any more than a cursory overview while changing the subject in point.]

Ironically, both S&Ls with connections to the Arab-influenced bank were run by American Jews who were strong supporters of Israel and who actively used their financial clout in American political circles.

In fact, investigators sifting through the wreckage of both the BCCI and the S&L scandals have been puzzled by such seemingly contradictory political ties and have yet to figure out the reasoning behind BCCI's investments in thrifts in the United States.

"We really don't know why they (BCCI) were doing it," said Virgil Mattingly, general counsel for the Federal Reserve Board, which regulates the banking industry. "But we just discovered this link, so we don't know a lot yet." [If you believe that man then you may as well stop reading for you are, indeed, LOST.]

In the biggest S&L-related case, federal investigators are now probing BCCI's secret 1989 acquisition of a 28% ownership stake in Centrust Savings Bank of Miami [Remember the Bush "boys"?]. Centrust was a very high-flying thrift run by the flamboyant David Paul, a major fund-raiser for the Democratic Party and a strong booster of Israel, where he has helped the country develop new housing projects for Soviet immigrants. [Don't let the "Democratic" label distract you--there is no difference in the parties.]

Centrust, which once had more than $8 billion in assets, was seized by federal regulators in February, 1990. Paul has become the target of a series of civil and criminal federal investigations alleging that he looted Centrust in order to finance an extravagant lifestyle replete with mansions, yachts and luxurious offices in Centrust's $100-million tower in downtown Miami. The collapse of the federally insured S&L eventually cost American taxpayers $1.7 billion, making it one of the biggest thrift failures on record. [The little Bush got sent to Bahrain to tend the family jewels, oil businesses, gold investments and the new NATO center.]

Although regulators have been combing through Centrust's records for more than a year in an effort to build a case against Paul, it has only been in recent days that they discovered BCCI's link to the S&L. The Federal Reserve charges that Ghaith Pharaon, a Saudi Arabian financier who openly acquired the 28% stake in the thrift, was acting as a front man for BCCI.

Federal Reserve officials say that the only evidence of BCCI's ownership of Centrust was hidden in London in a secret cache of BCCI documents, which detailed the bank's far-flung network of investments and secret operations.

Based on that revelation, investigators from a wide array of agencies and congressional committees have begun to probe the as-yet unexplained ties between BCCI and Centrust. A federal grand jury in Miami has launched a criminal investigation of the link, and the House Banking Committee is expected to discuss the issue in hearings on BCCI in September.

[Now, aren't you guys glad we stayed right with Gonzales?]

In addition, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the federal agency that regulates savings and loans, is seeking more than $30 million in restitution from Paul for his actions at Centrust. The agency is planning to hold administrative hearings on Centrust and Paul soon, and is now expected to probe the BCCI link as well.

Paul could not be reached for comment, but Abbe Lowell, a Washington attorney working for Paul, stressed Friday that "there is no evidence that Paul knew of BCCI's involvement in Centrust."

Still, the ties between BCCI and Centrust have raised red flags in Washington, largely because of Paul's close ties to leading Democrats, including Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass.), who has been aggressively investigating BCCI through the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. While Kerry was chairman of a key campaign committee for Senate Democrats in the late 1980s, Paul was chairman of the committee's fund-raising arm.

Republicans, burned by charges that the Bush Administration long ignored the growing BCCI scandal and attempted to squelch early investigations of the bank by federal regulators, are now trumpeting the ties between Paul, Kerry and other Democrats.

Sen. Orrin G. Hatch (R-Utah) has just issued an extensive report detailing Paul's meeting and phone conversations over the years with Kerry and other Democratic senators in an attempt to prove that the Democrats are not blameless in the BCCI mess.

In the House, meanwhile, Minority Leader Robert H. Michel (R-Ill.) has asked the General Accounting Office to investigate the ties between BCCI, Centrust and political leaders in Washington.

In the case of the much smaller Viking Savings of Santa Monica, the connection with BCCI is less direct than at Centrust but equally provocative.

In a criminal case in U.S. District Court in Los Angeles in March, Michael Goland, an independent contributor to pro-Israeli candidates around the nation, was convicted of secretly acquiring Viking in 1986 to use the thrift to help finance his far-flung political activities. Viking failed in 1989 and was eventually acquired by another S&L.

Goland was charged with conspiring to take over the small institution by getting friends and associates to pose as independent investors in the thrift and funding the purchase in part with $900,000 borrowed from state Sen. Alan Robbins (D-Tarzana).

Federal prosecutors who handled the Goland case now say that Robbins, a longtime Goland business partner, obtained the money for Goland's secret acquisition from Independence Bank of Encino, which at the time was covertly owned by BCCI. BCCI and its Pakistani founder, Agha Hasan Abedi, had acquired Independence by once again using Ghaith Pharaon as the front man.

A spokeswoman for Robbins, who was never charged in the Viking case, said Friday that Robbins did not know at the time that BCCI owned Independence Bank. Goland and his Washington attorney, Nathan Lewin, could not be reached for comment.

By the time he acquired Viking, Goland, a former Woodland Hills developer, already had gained notoriety in political circles for his free-lance political activity. He first gained attention for taking up legal residence in Illinois during the 1984 Senate campaign between Republican Charles Percy and Democrat Paul Simon. Goland poured millions of dollars into the race to mount his own negative television advertising campaign against incumbent Percy, who Goland believed was anti-Israel.

Ultimately, Percy lost the election to Simon, even though Simon had publicly disavowed Goland. On the night of this election defeat, Percy went on national television and bitterly blamed Goland's intrusion in the race for his defeat.

Later, the Federal Election Commission charged Goland with election fraud for pouring money INTO THE 1986 CAMPAIGN THAT PITTED SEN. ALAN CRANSTON AGAINST THEN-REP. ED ZSCHAU. TO BUOY CRANSTON. GOLAND GAVE MONEY TO A THIRD PARTY CANDIDATE IN HOPES OF REDUCING ZSCHAU'S SUPPORT and in 1990 was sentenced to three months in jail and 1,000 hours of community service for his actions.

END OF QUOTING.

I am choosing to publish this because we have been threatened by unnamed parties. One lawyer has threatened, in front of a Superior Court Judge, to "have them"--if one word of an accusation regarding a certain lawyer being caught in court with the court file apart and observed removing a document from that file--would be made outside the court chambers. There have been continuing denials of the action in point (with three witnesses) and continuing insulting statements as to the defendant's being "paranoid", etc. There have been certified copies of letters, audio tapes, etc., missing from the files since the litigation started nearly three years ago. Well, we wouldn't even think of raising this lawyer's outrage so, of course, we would not even consider publishing names herein or making accusations. Besides, he is a regular receiver of this EXPRESS and even uses editions to prove to the court, somehow, of how outrageous, preposterous and fanatical is my scribe. Poor dear, he thinks she writes the information. She only "types" the information.

The very nicest thing of all, however, is that ALL JUDGES ARE NOT CORRUPT--THEY SIMPLY ARE WORKING WITH ERRONEOUS LAWS. They are not in the business of allowing total usurpation of justice and we desire to believe that a fair hearing CAN be given. I wonder if the Judge will be allowed to get a copy of THIS edition?

By the way, for the humor of you ones perusing this writing--a prior Judge involved in the case is now in private practice and he has been heard to say "...oh I'm doing fine in practice--I have a lot of clients who come in to me and I get "reversals" in the cases which I first screwed up." Of course this was meant to be funny and actually, IS. However, if you are on the receiving end of that expensive joke it is a bit painful.

Now, I would like to add something, however. The Judge that is no longer a Judge and blames my scribe for his demise as same--owes the whole mess to the lawyer, also mentioned but carefully unnamed, above--who told him what to do, how to do it and when. The system failed them, however, for justice took over somewhere along here and integrity will yet prevail--we sincerely hope. It truly is not so "popular" to be corrupt these days.

You see, the corruption was totally accidental at onset--how unfortunate.

Further, we cannot "imagine" why these ones consider these persons to be damaging to them--they both have stated in open court, with witnesses, that these ones are dead-beats efforting to get something for nothing and ripping-off Santa Barbara Savings and Loan. The Judge actually based a final ruling on an unfinished, uncertified and unsigned deposition and it is all in print in the document even though the audio tape of the court hearing was "somehow lost"--all three copies! Once again, Judge, look closely--the very lawyer in point wrote it up beautifully for you in order to prove the defendants "dead-beats"--he actually nicely "quoted" you verbatim.

No one here holds animosity--it has only cost them three years of their life, all resources and living out of boxes because they have been told by the same attorney that they would be evicted within 24 hours. Dharma's children finally unpacked the dishes and things only in the past couple of weeks--she could stand no more living like a homeless waif on the street. One major thrust of this lawyer to the Judges, as he speaks his sorrowful plea for this put-upon S&L and the RTC, is that they are leeches who are living free. This must be the most humorous of all to a Judge--at over $7,000 monthly for legal help and having paid near triple rent (with inclusion of taxes and insurance which is never charged) for well over a year and a half, I would hardly consider the cost of the living to be "free". THERE COMES A TIME, BELOVED ONES, WHEN A MAN MUST STAND UP FOR THAT WHICH IS JUST AND HONORABLE REGARDLESS OF THE COST AND NOW IS THAT TIME! YOU EITHER RECOVER YOUR NATION AND YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM OR YOU ARE GONE!

IF ANYONE SEEMS TO RECOGNIZE THEMSELVES IN THIS DOCUMENT--IT IS PURELY COINCIDENTAL. SNICKER IF YOU LIKE, YOU DECEIVERS AND LIARS--FOR YOU NOW CONFRONT GOD AND IT IS QUITE DIFFICULT TO HIDE THINGS FROM GOD--AND "IT ISN'T NICE TO TRY AND FOOL MOTHER NATURE!" SO BE IT. THREATS AND RANTINGS SORT OF "MAKE MY DAY".

The one that should be hanged by the S&L in point and the ongoing messengers of evil intent--is this cute little lawyer--your problems are directly relative to this devious little blight upon justice. This kind of person has no moral worthiness and is a blight on the profession called "practice of law".

Dharma had contracted with America West Publishers for some five books in the year that this all began. She was unable to produce even one of them as she was what you might call, "a basket case". I would believe that in view of the massive amount of publications in the past two years that it was quite a "bad" year indeed. I simply wish to point out that if you have God, you have the strength of the universe. The property is not even a pittance as valuable as the uncovering and enlightenment you have received as the unveiling takes place. This is for all of you for YOU may well be NEXT. The insipient disease infects every bank, loan agency and insurance agency on the globe--for, as all come under the regulators--ALL ARE EMBRACED BY THE SHROUDED SYSTEM.

Angry and upset with these adversaries? Indeed no, for I could not find a better parable to make the point--the TRUTH IS ALWAYS SO MUCH BETTER THAN A FICTIONAL STORY. Do you think the steamroller will do anything to SAVE this little attorney? Of course not, they will squash him as quickly and easily as he has efforted to squash these ones--I hope he watched Ollie North have to take the blame for the whole mess--for the roles are more similar than you might at first-glance guess.

I hope you ones try to prove this little lady "crazy"--it would be a fantastic help to our case! For there are certainly many witness who will grant you the privilege of being the one who caused it. Moreover, these same ones have attended most of your hearings which have come to open court--witnesses are open and do not have to be "purchased" on this side of the courtroom. I hope you can ALL see that we have won--any which way it goes from this point on--material property is only a portion of a life-stream. The dignity, truth and honor these ones have shown far outreaches any value of ANY PROPERTY.

The lesson herein is this: THESE ARE ORDINARY PEOPLE, GRANDPARENTS AND WANTING TO JUST SETTLE BACK AND ENJOY A FEW REMAINING YEARS. NOT TO BE! The point in focus is exactly that which you expect me to say--"If they can do it--you can do it; and more!" If Coleman, Gritz, Stockwell, Green, etc., can do it--YOU CAN DO IT! YOU CAN CHANGE THIS THING ABOUT--IT ONLY TAKES YOUR STANDING FIRM AND STRONG AND RECOVERING YOUR CONSTITUTION AND YOUR VALUES THROUGH TRUTH. GOD HAS SENT US TO HELP YOU AND POINT THE WAY--WE CAN SHOW YOU THE PATH AND WE CAN SORT OF THE LIES FROM THE TRUTH IN THAT WHICH IS GIVEN FOR YOUR PROGRAMMING--BUT

YOU MUST DO IT FOR GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU--NOT FOR YOU.

BANK BAILOUTS FOR BUDDIES BY BUSH: THE BIG B-WORDS!

You must further know that Bush is moving as rapidly as possible to protect his own financial interests in this current wave of bank mergers, by protecting banks tied to himself and friends--and now what do you think of the buy-up of Santa Barbara Savings and little Security Pacific? And these are but peanuts.

The recently announced Chemical Banking Corp.-Manufacturers Hanover Corp. and NCNB-C&S/Sovran mergers--the two largest mergers in the U.S. banking history--both involve banks (leaving out BCCI and BNL) directly tied to George Bush, his financial interests and his advisors and friends--along with his relatives.

These mergers are being run by the Federal Reserve as part of a de facto nationalization of the top 25 U.S. banks. This is clear and open knowledge among Wall Street sources.

In 1986, Chemical purchased Texas Commerce Bancshares, a bank historically associated with the families of Secretary of State James A. Baker III and Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher (whew, talk about "insider" information!). At the time of the sale, Baker, whose family law firm, Baker and Botts, was intimately involved in the creation of Texas Commerce, owned a significant amount of Texas Commerce stock.

Bush's Texas Yankee buddy, Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher, was at the time a director of Texas Commerce. His brother, Emil Mosbacher, Jr., was a director of Chemical.

George Bush's financial holdings are currently in a supposedly blind trust administered by his friend William Stamps Farish III, an heir of the Humble Oil (now Exxon) fortune. As of 1985, Farish was a director of Pogo Producing, a Houston company in part owned by Chemical. Also on the Pogo board were Baker & Botts' attorney George Jewell (who was also a director of Schlumberger, which owned a chunk of Pogo). Other significant Pogo stockholders included Pennzoil (sic, sic), Manufacturers Hanover Venture Capital Corp., American General Corp. and the Texas Commerce Shareholders Co.

Pogo is a spin-off of Pennzoil (yes, I did just speak of this yesterday). The then-chairman of Pogo, William Leidtke, was the brother of Pennzoil chairman J. Hugh Leidtke. The Leidtke brothers were the source of the infamous cash found in the safe of the Committee to Re-Elect the President (CREEP) of Watergate fame. (See how well the system works--that which goes out always comes back!)

The Liedtkes and Bush also founded Zapata Corp., an oil-service firm with multiple links to the Texas Establishment, including Baker & Botts [and also worked as a front for shipping drugs in and out of Texas--as well as being in the "fish meal" business which packages white powder that for all the world looks like, tastes like and chemically breaks down mostly as such stuff as is the composition of cocaine. But then, it doesn't "quack" so guess it must be the proverbial duck anyway--just like they tell you!] which supplied a lawyer to run the company. In April 1969, Zapata was raising funds for an attempted takeover of United Fruit, the notorious dope-running organized-crime company now known as United Brands. Zapata and United Fruit also had interlocking directorships during the period.

Pennzoil and other elements of this Texas network, such as Halliburton and Texas Eastern, were also among the first companies to do business in the Peoples Republic of China. Bush was the U.S. Ambassador to China, and continues to this day to defend the Butchers of Beijing--and his friends' business dealings with those butchers. Chemical, the bank of the Roosevelt family, has long been involved in China.

Bush is also linked to NCNB, through its 1988 acquisition of First RepublicBank Corp., which was itself a combination of RepublicBank Corp. and InterFirst. Bush had been a director of First International Bank of Houston, later InterFirst Bank Houston.

First RepublicBank failed in 1988, the most expensive bank failure in the U.S. to date. The insolvent bank was kept open until after the 1988 Texas primary, to protect candidate Bush. After it was closed, its remains were sold in a sweetheart deal to NCNB of North Carolina, a bank associated with the networks of White House Counsel C. Boyden Gray.

With these mergers, Bush is guilty, at best, of massive conflict of interest. Too, his involvement with dope traffickers at United Fruit and his role in running the Iran-Contra caper, which trafficked in drugs, might help explain why his administration has been so ineffectual in the war on drugs.

And where is Kissinger, you ask? Oh, right in there running the President just as always!

And did anyone notice? The amount of help for Infants and Mothers on State Aid--dropped this month in California in spite of a raise in Twinkie taxes.

In addition, in spite of giving Israel another $10 billion and nobody knows how many billions to the Soviets--your president has insured that none of your unemployed even get extensions on their unemployment funds--and those are paid for by the workers themselves--IS SOMETHING ROTTEN AROUND HERE, CITIZENS? SO BE IT. I believe I must actually have indigestion myself.

No, Dharma, you are NOT IN MORE TROUBLE with this information going out--you were already in about all the trouble you could get.

Does anyone wonder why Cooper works so hard to discount this resource?? I would look closely at his credentials if I were you who tag along in his charade. Why, indeed, does he continue to insist George is with the CIA, etc.?

Does he actually think it disturbs ME? Certainly it cannot disturb you listeners for perhaps there is some inside information there, also. God loves all the help he can get!

I will let you go now, scribe, for it has been a busy few days but I believe ones are beginning to pay attention--may they be indeed blessed for as man comes into "seeing" he can change of his pathway and we stand by to show the way!

Hatonn to clear and thank you for your service, and for your attention. Good day.

8/19/91 #1 HATONN MONDAY

Thank you, Dharma--Hatonn present. My "thank you" is for seeing through this foolish facade. I can only ask calmness--you are being prepared for the same kind of action, through State of Emergency, as the Soviet Union. Let me remind you of the clues for which to watch.

Widespread distractors.
Apparent "Natural" distractors.
"Wait and see" attitude.

All of the "controllers" on vacation and continuing vacations, but under duress will rally.

The biggest lie: "We had no idea!" Watch who is doing what in the markets--not the rise or fall. (They suspended some trading by Salomon Bros., for instance.)

When Bush returns to Washington the excuse will "probably" be necessity to evacuate because of hurricane Bob, not international affairs, etc.

Does this cement or pull away from the "New World Order?"

Promises to honor all treaties to date--which are worthless at best.

Timing--AFTER the money is already arranged for through the World Banks.

Mouth service to "taking no more loans" and "doing it" without international Bank "aid".

This takeover in the Soviet Union is the best planned movement since they planned the takeover of the U.S.A. which is planned for coming down very soon now if you don't keep your eyes open.

All of the advisors of Bush and the "actual" actors in the facade know exactly what they are doing and helped stage the distractors. I remind you that these puppets are exactly that--puppets. The overall global planning is done by the Council of 300. All the "shock" and "oh, no's" are not even worthy of academy award consideration for acting. This whole thing is positively planned to coincide with your readiness for Emergency control with all emergency regulations taking place. If there is upheaval in your country you can expect it instantly--if you ones continue to sleep, it will be tossed on you at a more opportune time to save Bush's neck. BUT WHAT AND WHO YOU THINK YOU SEE--IS NOT THAT WHICH YOU THINK YOU SEE!

I have had Dharma on full-time alert for over a week now, and the "plan" is coming off exactly according to letter of the scheme so it bodes pretty seriously for you ones who think you have freedom. This is just another step toward the One World Global CONTROL under force. The tanks will be in your streets "just to make sure you people do nothing foolish until we can settle down WITHIN THE CONSTITUTION". Listen, listen and listen again to WHAT IS SAID: "This Soviet action is OUTSIDE the Soviet CONSTITUTION and can not be allowed." You have nothing functioning within your Republic Constitution so you see, if you take the OPPOSITE perception of that which you are given to hear and see--you will be correct. Bush is saying this is not a Republic Constitutional action but rather a Federal Constitutional action in Russia--so you have it from the horse's mouth. He knows exactly that which to say and do to line you all up behind him like ants to the honey. You are going to do anything he asks of you TO INSURE YOUR OWN "CONSTITUTIONAL" RIGHTS, WHICH TRANSLATES: ANYTHING THE GOVERNMENT WANTS TO DO TO YOU UNDER THE CONSTITUTION EXECUTIVE ORDERS!

They don't even use clever manipulations--how is it that EVERY ONE OF YOUR PRISON WARDENS are on vacations scattered about here and there? And, where are THEY REALLY? Again this Bush character is left in place for you to see while the planners meet here and there without having to take note to anyone or thing. The press follows that "Bush" around his golf course, his fishing boat, etc., while the sky falls--YOU ARE DUPES AND SEEM TO LOVE IT.

You will now demand whatever the media dishes out by way of instructions for you to act. As the markets do this or that, there comes opportunity to do anything at all to your economy and not take one degree of heat from a total collapse of the system.

The fear was that some foolish fanatic would start a nuclear war--that, by the way--is still ON.

To say that you didn't have any idea--is absurd. There are more KGB in your CIA than Americans; come now, chelas. IF THIS WERE NOT A PLANNED SETUP YOU WOULD NOT HAVE WAKENED UP THIS MORNING--HALF THE GLOBE WOULD HAVE BEEN BLOWN AWAY! YOU ARE AS CLOSE TO DEVASTATION AS YOU CAN GET AND STILL WALK AND BREATHE. YOU SEE, THERE ARE ALWAYS THE ONES WHO ARE NOT ON THE INSIDE GAMES-PLAYING WHO ARE NATIONALS AND PATRIOTS AND WHO WILL OFTEN DO SOMETHING REMARKABLE. It would appear, however, that you have none of those patriots remaining in the U.S.--YOU HAVE ARRANGED TO HAVE NOTHING AND NO ONE TO FILL THE GAP IN ANY MANNER IN GOVERNMENT AND THE MILITARY CHILDREN ARE ALL WEARING MEDALS FOR NOT SQUAWKING AT THEIR OWN PLANNED MURDER.

IF YOU AREN'T SCARED, AMERICA--THEN YOU CERTAINLY DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE SITUATION. THIS IS NOT TAKEOVER OF THE SOVIET UNION--THIS IS TAKEOVER OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!

What will you do? Well, so many of you are unemployed and without benefits that you can vegetate in front of CNN and eat the lies as they dish them out to you. It worked before and it will certainly work again--all the way to the prison. Do you actually think Bush will not get what he wants from a budget this year? Last year an apparent Middle East WAR and this year a Soviet WAR? Come now! I suggest you all get yourselves prepared for devastation, one after another, in incidents from total economic takeover and collapse with confiscation of all your assets, Natural disasters to further distract you in pain and national agony, crime increase and gun confiscation and a nuclear war to seal the deal. YOU IN AMERICA HAVE NOTHING TO OUST THE EVIL ONES FROM OFFICE! YOU THE PEOPLE? NO--THE MAJORITY OF YOU THE PEOPLE DO EXACTLY WHAT CNN TELLS YOU TO DO AND CNN TAKES THEIR ORDERS DIRECTLY FROM THE WHITE HOUSE AND BANKERS OF THE COUNCIL OF 300. THIS HOLDS TRUE ALSO FOR EVERY NETWORK PROGRAMMING SCHEDULE FOR "NEWS". THEY NOW HAVE YOU IN HANDCUFFS--AS THE SOVIETS WARNED YOU SEVERAL YEARS . BACK: "WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT!"--using your own government to pull it off!

Gorbachev under house arrest? Oh dear, how could that be? Gorbachev is not even REAL. Arrest from what? He helped plan the entire program of activities.

America, have you forgotten that just a couple of short years ago your deadliest ENEMY was the Soviet Union? Now the hard-line has taken over and you don't even bat an eyelash??? Even in Russia the airwaves were simply filled with symphony music! La te dum dum. You had best pay VERY CLOSE ATTENTION TO GERMAIN'S LECTURES FOR IT IS YOUR ONLY TICKET OUT OF THERE AS IT APPEARS IN THE

SEQUENCE OF UPCOMING EVENTS!

Some of you will simply say that "It couldn't be much worse anyway"--ah so, but it certainly WILL BE--it has to be to bring you into line.

LETTER FROM AIRLINE PILOT TO HATONN

Wally G. has forwarded a letter to me from an airline pilot ("who has become alerted to the possibility that Extra Terrestrials are a possibility. To assist his growth, P. has asked some specific questions on the Captain's behalf. The questions have some bearing on Sipapu").

The questions:

1. By what means are your ships pressurized?
2. For what reasons are your ships round?
3. How do you handle temperature limits encountered by metals?
4. I would like to know an equation of the Fourth Dimension, and one of the Fifth and Sixth.

(The inquisitive pilot is a close friend of P.C. and would enjoy very much a personal response.)

If I gave the response exactly as I should, on this day when your world is ready to blow apart--I would likely lose a very good and beloved friend. I will just say to Wally--you are not in the space-craft business--you are in the motion picture business and stresses and metals are not your problem--all you need is a nice little pretend craft and we will provide the rest.

If these people who "want confirmation" want it badly enough they will read the material wherein ALL THE QUESTIONS LISTED ARE ANSWERED! I am not in the business of confirming anything to anyone. If this "pilot" needs confirmation, I have little hope for your world at any rate.

Why are our craft round? All of them are not round! In fact few are round except in diameter. However, if they were and some are--it is because that is the perfect projection of God's intent in compression--i.e., the sphere.

Why would we need pressurization? We run totally by "frequency" and thought projection.

We have no structural limitations of our ships.

We do not "handle temperature limits" for we have no such thing with which to contend.

What kind of equation of the Fourth Dimension, Fifth and Sixth do you want? This is about the most ridiculous projection I have yet encountered. Do you want equations for ice-cream bars or do you just want to reproduce a little bit of each dimension?

Wally, you are being distracted and if you are not careful the distractors will kill you by one way or another. I will not give out information which will only cause you grief and problems--please understand my response is in love and concern. What kind of "intelligent" beings are attempting to "treat" you and absorb your precious "time"?

If there is any agreement with George it is without any discussion of any type with me. George may do that which he pleases but good intent or bad intent--these ones are, at the least--foolish in their innocence or indeed, most clever in their evil. You must decide but the inquiries are in incredibly bad taste if nothing more.

We are not "little aliens" running around, my friends--we are sent as the Hosts of God--THAT MEANS--WITHOUT LIMITS! We abide within the Laws of God and those of The Creation--all else is without limit upon our beings or presence. Your questions have no meaning in reality whatsoever!

We are here, sent of God, to inform the citizens of the planet and offer you a way out of your dilemma. What you do with this information is up to you--but I most certainly will NOT give technical information about anything unto one who just wants a little "proof", for they show lack of knowledge that baffles the mind. If those particular questions with answers would prove anything to anyone then I think I need more discerning teammates at any rate. Please do not lump space Command into your games of human primate mentality.

Forgive my abruptness but you ones are about to go into a nuclear holocaust which will destroy many of my own people and your entire world is physically falling into the hands of the evil adversary of physical dimension--those are the equations you had best investigate and let the fourth, fifth and sixth come with a bit of intelligent KNOWLEDGE.

If this insults your sensitivities then I believe you will get some measure of the level of the insult I feel by the very questions themselves. When ALL information we have brought has been carefully studied and brought into memory so as to answer every question I might ask of you ones--i.e., give me back even in rote that which we have given you--and you still have lack of understanding--THEN I shall explain in more detail. Until then--I plan to get right on with your Soul evolution just as quickly as I can bring you along for whether or not my ship is pressurized means not one thing to you--just recognize that we will pressurize it to suit the ones who MAY BE ABLE TO GET ABOARD FROM YOUR PLACEMENT. YOU ONES ARE GOING TO LEARN THE DIFFERENCE IN PHYSICAL AND SPIRITUAL OR YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE HEADACHE AFTER HEADACHE. SO BE IT.

I, HATONN, GIVE NO APPROVAL TO ANYTHING AS REGARDS ANY ARRANGEMENT WHICH MIGHT BE ANTICIPATED--THIS IS TOTAL DISTRACTION AND IF THE INFORMATION BEING BROUGHT FORTH IS NOT CAREFULLY INTEGRATED BY EARTH MAN--THEN I CERTAINLY HAVE NO FURTHER INPUT FOR THESE ONES. When all things are geared only to the physical aspect--the physical aspect is in grave danger of extinction.

I suggest that these ones in point be given privy to all of the PLEIADIAN CONNECTION VOLUMES--George can supply them with a whole list of books available. Integrate the information being brought and you will indeed heal the entire planet. We serve the six and a half BILLION persons (each one) on the planet and I will not play these individual games any longer. The answers are in the JOURNALS and/or WILL BE. You will do your homework or you will not have the answer and that seems indeed sad.

If we do not get on with the motion picture, it will be too late at any rate. Distractors are costly indeed. Funding for the project will only come after the readiness of the materials and if these ones wish so badly to participate--then I ask that they put their mouths where their questions are and get busy helping you, Wally, with that picture board project and stop distracting you regarding things which are of no business whatsoever of theirs or any other Earth man's.

My mission is to bring Truth of the Laws of God and Creation--not individually comfort ones with whom the laws disagree in fact. Man may stay by whatever he wishes--he simply will not come into our care and nurturing without the willingness to practice according to the laws which we practice--no more and no less. You of earth Shan are in the mess of total destruction because you do not practice nor even remember the LAWS--so in fact, there is no point of discussion in actuality. You will not convince me that to break all of the laws is the "way to go"--if nothing else--you prove time after time that your way is the WORST WAY TO GO! By the way, the POINT of Sipapu Odyssey has nothing to do with "ships"--it has everything to do with "SOUL". This is but a "reminder" and not a rebuke.

I am sorry, chelas, whether or not you like of it--I come with highest authority and mission and I simply will not fall into the trap of individual gamesmanship. IS THIS WHAT YOU REALLY EXPECT OF GOD? PONDER IT!

Dharma, take this from the equipment so that Germain can get on with his writing. Thank you.

You ones are in a most tedious moment by moment crisis. Please keep focused on that which is important for if you fail at that which is important--the rest is purely hypothetical and academic. Salu.

RADIO TALK SHOWS WITH GEORGE GREEN

Aug. 21, 8:35 to ? P.M. WTIX, Tony Ponsetta, New Orleans, LA

Aug. 22 11:00 -12:00 midnight WOAI 50,000 Watt station, Ben Baldwin, Producer Eliza Sonneland San Antonio, TX

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II

I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

When you have a chance to embrace opportunity, give it a big hug.

AMERICA WEST IS INTERESTED in knowing about Tradeshows, Fairs or events that are slated to occur in your local area. Please contact Sandy Green.

Say  to the
"NEW WORLD ORDER"
KEEP AMERICA INDEPENDENT

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

AUGUST, 1991

Vol. XV, No. 11

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

8/20/91 HATONN/GERMAIN
TUESDAY

Hatonn present briefly to remind you of something important. While you are distracted, much is going on which you are missing. You also need some balance in that which is going on in Russia today.

There is something all of you must consider in every circumstance: circumstances and alternatives. In every situation, especially planned political and military coups, no matter how well planned, it is necessary to have ones in lead positions who are doing a thing because "they believe in what they are doing and are not a part of the plan". This means that in any planned situation, the plans can go awry if the slightest misjudgment of the circumstance is present.

Note that the very intent of the coup is to pull order back into the Soviet Union whereas the disorder was exactly that which was staged. The world then cries "dictatorship" and all swoop on the bandwagon--right on cue. All the while the full intent is to pull the nations into total dictatorship. Watch the clues. Even ex-President Reagan is touting the horrors of the situation and the damage to the ONE, ER, ER, NEW WORLD ORDER. Further, notice how poorly a "reproduction being" fares--Reagan appears like he should have been buried years ago--from a vital, handsome man to total senility in two years!! This whole thing can go crazy even though it is not likely except through error. Look whose bandwagon Yeltsin is on--and even the Pope is out making immediate visitations to the problem spots to calm the waters--no, chelas, it is the dark before the doom (not the dawn).

When I speak of "natural" man-made disasters around to distract on a local basis I would point out a few things which I guarantee only less than 1/1000% of the people of your world even "heard about".

How about the Andean volcano which is raining debris and sulfur and is damaging the livestock seriously. Southern Argentina and Chile are in serious condition. This ash and toxic gas is spewing from Chile's Hudson Volcano and has covered about 80% of Santa Cruz and blotted out the sky as far eastward as the Falkland Islands.

Hudson has come to life for the first time since 1969 with a series of explosions that has even formed a new crater. (Ring of fire.)

Scores of earthquakes have happened around Japan's Unzen Volcano as the mountain has freshly erupted and is shooting ash and debris over 3,500 feet upward. (Ring of fire.)

The ash cloud from still erupting Mount Pinatubo in the Philippines now extends northward to North Carolina and Tennessee, U.S.A. Fallout, if nothing else happens and you could shut it down today, is expected for several years. (Ring of fire.)

Now for drought: In Pennsylvania the drought is taking the dairy herds and cattle feed farms and towns are having to truck culinary water in--in the milk trucks.

Desalinated water is now necessary for the Eskimos in the Bering Straits. Diomed Island is completely without fresh water and, brothers, you are talking about a place where snow and ice is the existence.

Heat and drought are burning up Brazil. There has been no precipitation in over three months in a place where rainfall is prevalent--no storms are seen and all storms which are forming "simply seem to dissipate". Schools have been cancelled and emergency regulations are in force.

Tropical Storms: How about Typhoon Fred with 25-foot seas which sank the barge carrying some 200 people in the South China Sea? That storm just missed Hong Kong.

What about "Bob" that carefully wound its way all the way from off Florida to Canada "as if guided by a giant hand", I believe they said?

What about typhoon Ellie which passed south of Japan and remnants of tropical storm Hilda triggered "rare summer rains and terrible lightning" in San Francisco?

How many noticed the "shooting stars"? This was finally touted as possibly having had the Earth pass through a "comet tail?" But, not to worry about the guessing--for "one of the meteors crashed right through the atmosphere and fell into the ocean near Point Reyes." Point Reyes?? Meteor?

Earthquakes: Quakes shook Costa Rica. They also shook up the entire of Aleutian Islands and along the Romanian-Yugoslav border--this does not even mention the bunch you had around Northern California.

Floods: Renewed flooding in the already devastated Chinese provinces of Sichuan and Heilongjiang LEFT PEOPLE DEAD AND MISSING. THREE FULL DAYS OF TORRENTIAL RAINS POUNDED PANAMA AND COSTA RICA--WITH DEAD AND THOUSANDS HOMELESS.

There are myriads more but I only want to point out a few for you are missing that which is really taking place. ALL OF THESE ABOVE MENTIONED ITEMS HAPPENED JUST LAST WEEK IN YOUR WORLD. ACTUALLY LESS THAN ONE WEEK.

I WILL NOW TURN THIS OVER TO GERMAIN SO THAT HE CAN CONTINUE WITH THE LESSONS--BUT I REMIND YOU AND ASK URGENT ATTENTION--THIS IS EXACTLY THAT WHICH IS PRODUCED JUST PRIOR TO ALL-OUT INTENT OF TOTAL WAR. ALL I CAN DO IS "WARN" YOU AND ASK YOU TO SEE FOR SELVES FOR YOU ARE NOW STANDING ON THE BOMB TRIP-WIRE SET TO EXPLODE IF YOU STAY ON IT OR GET OFF, SO EVALUATE CAREFULLY. THE MARKET IS ALLOWING FOR PLACEMENT OF ELITE FUNDS FOR BEST ADVANTAGE AND LAST MINUTE PECKING ORDER ACTIVITIES BEFORE THEY BRING IT ALL DOWN.

The enemy attacks from every side and you must stay alert--even with this one legal situation with Dharma and Oberli, the BofA is efforting to disallow knowledge of their new participation and the little slime-ball who represents all of these criminals has secretly moved the Resolution Trust Corporation case out of state and changed venue to Washington, D.C.'s jurisdiction--the notification arrived yesterday. Yes, Dharma is becoming faint of heart for there seems to be no way to turn and no way to stop the criminals. I can only ask you readers to help them continue for the way is indeed hard. The hope, however, that this will be dropped is not going to bear fruit, Mr. Adversary. I can think of nothing we will enjoy more than the Supreme Court! There is nothing, however, like experience to do the teaching better than all the words and examples combined. Further, discouragement is never allowed to get out of hand and this is why you never can understand the support and encouragement for "one more step" from friends and loved ones for long ago a "house" ceased to be of any importance at all and they could have bought five houses of equal value by the time this is over. YOU ONES MUST TAKE A STAND--DO YOU SEE? IT WILL NEVER BE EASY AND IT WILL ONLY WORSEN AS ONE INCIDENT AFTER ANOTHER SWALLOWS UP YOUR FREEDOM.

As Little Crow puts it: It will be as it will be!

Thank you for opportunity to speak on these things--we are petitioned constantly to keep you informed--especially of the steps in this court battle. I am also petitioned constantly regarding the status of my child--today he sports a cast on his arm for his rocking horse threw him off. Chelas, it matters not what the physical body houses--the body is physical and will break when bent too far--get rid of your foolish perceptions and let us get on with the explanation of how this wondrous Creation works. I am in great love with each and all of you and I rejoice as I see the Minds awakening for that means soon the Consciousness shall harken to the call. Adonai.

Germain, thank you for your patience and I shall step aside, leaving blessings and protection unto you ones of my tribes. The Phoenix SHALL soar again! So be it for I decree that it shall be so. Hatonn to clear.

KNOWLEDGE

Germain to take up the thread of our subject at hand. But first, since Hatonn has shared quite a bit of material that will probably need EXPRESS attention, though with editing for urgent content, I will take time to speak on the "Jews".

I am going to speak on the subject at hand--"Jews" coming out of the closet--as it were. Please, brothers, come forth and let us stop this heinous thing oppressing you and your heritage in glorious historical wonder.

I am going to ask Dharma to copy from a document which expresses more between the lines than any paper I could write. It will also give understanding to you who are not in understanding of that which has come upon your people and show you that the adversary has long been destroying your heritage and has stolen your inheritance.

The article comes from The Hanford Sentinel, Friday, July 19, 1991:

QUOTE:

Secret Jews' pursue heritage;
Editor's Note: Thousands of Jews fleeing the Spanish Inquisition 500 years ago sought refuge in North Africa, the Middle East and elsewhere in Europe. Recent research shows that significant numbers of them also reached the New World, where they took on the trappings of Catholicism while secretly clinging to their Jewish traditions. Across the American Southwest many of these crypto-Jews are now trying to recover their heritage.

Article by Nancy Plevin, Associated Press.

Albuquerque, N.M. (AP)--Carlos Velez-Ibanez, a former Roman Catholic altar boy and graduate of parochial school, was astounded that day 30 years ago, when his only sister died and his mother leaned over to whisper in his ear:

"I'm going to tell you a secret that has always been passed on through the women of our family. But now I must tell you.

"Somos Judios," she said. "We're Jews."

Initially stunned by the disclosure, the 54-year-old University of Arizona anthropologist says he now views his hidden ancestry as a family treasure.

For engineering student Daniel Yocum, the revelation came as he merged odd family customs with genealogical study and found a Jewish heritage: kosher food preparation, Friday night prayer, ritual circumcision and keeping the Sabbath.

"We went to Catholic Mass on Saturdays," said Yocum, 23, who grew up in Albuquerque's largely Hispanic South Valley. But, he says, "If kids tried to do things on the (Jewish) Sabbath, they would get hit."

Across the American Southwest, Hispanic descendants of Jews who fled the Spanish Inquisition are recovering remnants of their heritage some 500 years after King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain issued the 1492 Edict of Expulsion. Under the edict, Jews and other non-Roman Catholics who would not convert to Christianity were ordered exiled or burned at the stake.

About half of the 200,000 Spanish Jews, called Sephardim after the Hebrew word for Spain, left the empire seeking more tolerant climes in North Africa, the Middle East and elsewhere in Europe. Those who remained became "New Christians", or fell victim to the Grand Inquisitor.

But recent research shows a significant number of Jews who left Spain in the 15th and 16th centuries made their way to the New World.

Later, pursued in Mexico by officials of the Inquisition when they prospered as New Christians or tried to live openly as Jews, they again sought refuge--this time alongside Spanish conquistadors exploring the farthest reaches of New Spain, now the American Southwest.

There, historians now say, they survived on the remote frontier, living openly as Roman Catholics while covertly maintaining Jewish traditions and beliefs.

In the past few years, dozens of gravestones have been found in old Christian cemeteries engraved with both crosses and Hebrew inscriptions, some bearing the Star of David.

Scholars and descendants of these "conversos" or "crypto-Jews" now are painstakingly trying to piece together this complex cultural mystery buried beneath 17 generations of secrecy.

In January, the first major international conference on the subject was held at the University of Arizona in Tucson.

Valez-Ibanez, whose family comes from a region that encompasses southern Arizona and northern Mexico, says he now understands why family members lit candles on Friday nights, as is done on the Jewish Sabbath, and why they expressed a "strict aversion to pork".

Yocum says he now knows why his grandmother became irate when her husband, a carver, fashioned what Yocum now realizes was a menorah, or traditional candelabra.

"My grandma use to call him a 'Judio', or Jew", Yocum says, "And say 'leave the ways of the old men alone'. When he made the menorah, she got really mad and made him keep it in the garage."

Third-grade teacher Anna Rael Delay, 44, of Lewisville, Texas, is converting to Judaism after a lifetime of questioning her roots. She is raising her 11-year-old son to go to temple.

"When I was young my grandmother used to light candles on Fridays and we took it for granted," says Mrs. Delay, who grew up in Santa Fe, N.M., and attended Catholic school.

She says in tracing her family to 1610 in New Mexico, she has found ancestors with the surname Yisrael.

Materials analyst Ramon Salas has, with the help of a computer, scrupulously traced his family tree back 14 generations.

Salas, 26, of Albuquerque, found a legacy rife with suspected conversos names and discovered he was related to Daniel Yocum.

He was raised Catholic and still sings in the church choir, but he is fervently exploring his Jewish heritage. He is both exuberant and enraged by what he has learned.

"The fact that my ancestors were raped of their religion is something that I'd like to correct," he says.

But collecting the complete history of the hidden Jews is difficult, researchers say. As traditions were furtively passed through generations, the fear of exposure was handed down as well.

"We may never know the full extent because of their long-term fear of persecution", says former New Mexico state historian Stan Hordes, co-director of a research project on the state's crypto-Jews at the University of New Mexico's Latin American Institute.

Hordes and UNM sociologist Tomas Antencio have been interviewing families and scouring official records dating to the 15th century in search of remnants of the hidden Jewish community in northern New Mexico's isolated, rural villages.

Hordes and others believe direct knowledge of the hidden communities is in danger of disappearing with today's grandparents, most of whom are reluctant to disclose what they know.

"Often in the interviews, they whisper or go to another room to talk about it," says Melissa Amado, 25, a University of Arizona graduate student. "You have no guarantee that the name is kept secret. This is something very private to these individuals."

But she says, "If the people don't talk about it, it may die off. It's something that should be appreciated instead of hidden."

Ms. Amado, who says she has found family evidence of Sephardic heritage, is interviewing family members and others for a master's thesis on why crypto-Jewish families have stayed so long "in the closet".

"You never tell," she says. "It is never discussed with people outside your immediate family. Now, in the later part of the 20th century you have these instances where it is still kept as the deep, dark family secret."

This persistent secrecy makes it difficult to obtain an accurate picture of how the crypto-Jewish population in the Southwest lives.

Rabbi Isaac Celnik of Congregation B'nai Israel says only a handful of conversos have attended temple services during his two decades in Albuquerque. And he has, on occasion, been invited to lead prayers in their homes.

He categorizes today's crypto-Jews as those who identify themselves as Jews; those who "have one foot each" in the Jewish and Catholic communities--"they call me father"--and those Catholics with some Jewish heritage.

Celnik says family pressure and fear of retribution from the community make the path difficult for those who are choosing to revive ties to Judaism.

"It's more than name-calling; there are people who can't talk to their mothers and fathers," says Celnik, who vigilantly protects the identities of his crypto-Jewish congregants. "There are people literally afraid for their lives."

The phenomenon is not exclusive to the American Southwest. Researchers say there is evidence of the survival of crypto-Jewish communities throughout Latin America and beyond.

Last year the 300 Jews of Belmonte, Portugal, cautiously began to discard their Catholic veneer. The community, which dates to the late 15th century, also was formed by those who fled the Inquisition. After centuries of clandestine meetings, the community has begun praying openly in a house off the village's main square.

It is difficult to estimate the number of those New Christians in Spain or Portugal who remained faithful to Judaism or secretly clung to some Jewish rituals. An estimated 10,000 met their deaths at the hands of the Inquisition.

The crypto-Jews, those who secretly remained faithful to Judaism, were called "marranos" in Spain, a term believed to originate from a word for swine. Nearly all marranism died out by 1770, but British historian Cecil Roth said he discovered marrano families in Spain and Portugal this century.

Ray Padilla, director of the Hispanic Research Center at Arizona State University in Tempe, says the conversos here belong to a rich American tradition of immigrants surviving against all odds in a foreign land.

"They didn't just come to the Americas and disappear," says Padilla, 46, who suspects he is of crypto-Jewish background. "Their influence may be stronger than we might have expected. 'After all,' he says, 'Spanish history has been influenced by Jewish culture and Jewish people for the last 1,500 years. Why wouldn't the greatest enterprise of that empire's encounter with the Americas also have a Jewish side to it?'"

END OF QUOTING

Note that we are speaking here of what is generally referred to as Sephardic Judaists. Dear ones, these have nothing to do with Zionist, basically Ashkenazi, self-styled and self-named "Jews".

Now, if you want to hear about class distinction and the putting down of one group beneath another--GO TO ISRAEL. These "new Jews" who founded Israel, as is told by the elder Judaists--treat the Sephardic Judaists as scum and unworthy of even housing. Believe me, the housing being built in Israel or in Palestine--IS NOT FOR THE SEPHARDIC OR "TRUE" JUDAISTS.

Hatonn has given you all this prior to now but a thing or two bears reminding for we continually get many, many letters regarding "Jews". If the "Jewish" community cannot sort of itself, then how can you ever take a stand in your own behalf? You of Judaism in truth, are top of the list for the Zionists to get rid of. You MUST come into KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH OF IT.

THREE FACES OF ISRAEL

Israel (State of) is a Marxist socialist/communist country from appearances but it goes further than that. Israel has three faces: communism, fascism and democracy. (Do not confuse democracy with republic.)

The Ashkenazi Jews migrated to Israel from Russia and brought with them the ideology of socialism/communism and have put into practice much of that ideology.

The Ashkenazi Jews who migrated to Israel from Germany, while sympathetic to communism and supporting it, tend to favor the practice of Nazi-style fascism. During World War II, in Germany these elite Zionist Ashkenazi Jews worked closely with Hitler's Gestapo in persecuting the lower class German Jews and delivering them to concentration camps. Now living in Israel, these elite Zionist Jews, who were well trained in Nazi-style fascism and favor it, have imposed many facets of fascism on Israel.

To give the impression that Israel is a democracy, members of the Knesset (Israel's Congress) are elected--an odd type of election. This is where Israel's so-called democracy stops. It doesn't make any difference which party wins an election, the LIKUD or LABOR, the elite Zionist Jews rule in a dictatorial manner--giving favors to the elite clique and brutally suppressing any dissent.

In the Zionist/communist scheme of world domination, it is Israel's role to continually stir up trouble in the Mideast. Since wars are a big part of this scheme of aggression, it is only natural that, from early childhood on, Israeli youth are trained mentally and physically for war. For instance:

Israel has its equivalent of Hitler's youth group. It is the Gadna; and ALL high school and junior high students are required to participate--both boys and girls. Like Hitler's youth group, the youth in Israel's Gadna are dressed in khaki uniforms. They take training and engage in para-military exercises.

I am not going to go further with this for it has been outlaid for you before. The point we must make is that you are people of the lie in every grouping. To stop this thing come upon your planet--all must wake up, not just one or two or one group--all of you must see that which has been brought upon your own people. For instance, it is obvious that the Protocols were originated by the Zionists who are not at all Judean Judaists and do not pretend to be. They only pretend to be that which they conjured up to fool the world "Jews" and bitterly hate and persecute the Hebrew Judaists. If you ones would win this battle against the evil which devours you--you will rise above the lies, join in brotherhood and slay this dragon.

GLOBALISM

I wish to say something else which takes in this group of Zionists for all are desirous of "Globalism". The globalists--an astute generation of internationalists--have targeted three groups for elimination: the God revering, the family structure and the youth. The globalists wield almost limitless power because of their wealth and position. The real power they possess comes through the fact that so few in the general public know that they exist.

God said in Hosea 4:6: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." So be it.

The objective of this global initiative is control. Although the desire to rule the world is hardly a new ambition, the control sought by this present generation of global-imperialists is more than government, wealth and resources. They control these already. What the globalists want in order to complete their plan is control of population.

The objective of global control is simple, but its implementation is complex and convoluted. It is mind-boggling when one attempts to unravel it--truly a tangled web of deception. Their control of population is in their ability to manage the thoughts and behavior of the masses: the key being consensus; the motivation, survival.

If the struggle were a physical one, you could identify your enemy more readily and recognize the dangers coming against you. Like the serpent in the garden, the sophistication and refinement of the psychological weaponry are so subtle that you are now in the final stages of the conflict with only a few awakening to the conflict's existence.

As a measure of the effectiveness of these new techniques you need only recall the unfenced concentration camps during the Korean and Vietnam conflicts. Due to psychological intimidation the captured American military did not try to escape. The same behavioral control exists today, but everyone is a prisoner, the earth is the concentration camp and the globalists are the stalag commandants.

Well, in the past you nice "Christians" have always been too late with too little. You cannot afford that mistake this time. You are already on your way out and I speak of true "Christ" followers along with the ritual "Christians". Your right to live and worship freely is quickly being taken from you and you Americans are losing your national identity. To regain it you are going have to stop indulging yourselves in the luxury of fighting each other and direct your energies against the real enemy.

There is much to be done and very little time in which to do it. If your nation falls, and its end is indeed VERY NEAR, there is no place else to go.

Your family structure is so ill that it produces mentally ill children. There are no stable imprints in values being given unto the children and the parents are totally confused as well. It was easy for the globalists to eliminate the family influence at the very earliest ages. This has been accomplished by alienating the child and parent. The created generation gap is an example. However, it is the strategy of removing the child physically from the presence of the parents which has done the deed.

It didn't take much effort to catalogue methods already in vogue for achieving this end, ranging from advertising that fosters a standard of living which keeps both parents employed and out of the home to frivolous definitions of child abuse to justify the state's removal of the child from the home. Child abuse and child neglect laws, because they are undefined, are the greatest danger to the family and the most powerful laws in existence.

The public education policy is a major perpetrator in pitting child and parent against one another, and the community school program in which the child lives at the school will complete the termination of parental rights to any say in the raising of your children.

How did they get what they wanted? Globalism, humanism, socialism, feminism, illuminism, New Age, etc., are all the same animal: the differences are semantic and inconsequential.

Humanism argues paradoxically that Man is philosophically more important than any god, yet in its implementation the individual life has very little value. Man is but a throw-away in today's humanistic society. Always, you must remember that CONTROL is the bottom line. The Formula is that first, create a problem--real or imaginary. Second, advertise the problem--convince people that something MUST BE DONE. Third, provide the solution. Result: Change is brought about so things are YOUR way. IT HAS WORKED--THEY HAVE IT THEIR WAY!

I request that the HUMANIST MANIFESTO be reproduced and let you ones "remember" a few things. You see, herein is where you began to really go sour--this manifesto was published in 1933 and the humanists attitude taught, for instance, that sex is Love, instead of God being Love.. Everything was placed on a basis of total physical human in separation from God. This doesn't need to be written at this sitting for I see that we need a break but you ones must confront these rules and guidelines written and orchestrated for the downfall of a civilization in which you now are trapped.

I shall move to stand-by. Thank you.

Germain to clear, please.

8/21/91 GERMAIN
WEDNESDAY

Germain present to begin this writing. Dharma, I come with the Lighted Presence of that which is the Mighty Source. We have conferred here and will not speak of the current news at this early writing but will, instead, ask for a meeting this afternoon. You are in total overload from the barrage of inquiries and personal inquisitions of ones who wait until the holocaust is present to take action. Yours is to WRITE, chela--not locate, furnish and apply for all ones the means. I shall not, Hatonn shall not and GOD SHALL NOT! ONES WHO BELIEVE THAT SUCH A THING WILL HAPPEN WITHOUT ACTIONS ON THEIR OWN PART ARE SADLY MISLED.

You ones are moving steadily and more and more quickly into the trap. You are witnessing the incredible planned imprisonment of a major nation along with all the smaller nations of the Soviet Union. It is such a bad show that I am appalled at you ones in your attitudes. You are given EXACTLY that which is planned for you to have--the Soviet people are given a choice of dying by lethal injection or hanging--"Freedom" is not among the choices--only who and how they will become prisoners "under". The facade is so poorly orchestrated that it is embarrassing and yet the world swallows it and Bush and cronies laugh and congratulate themselves all the way back to the Bank via the golf course. Well, you are NEXT.

The "sensor" satellites they are trying to launch from French Guiana and your east coast are the very sensors they need to monitor a first strike detonation in every secret attempt to have a first strike. It is serious-time and you are feeling the load of all wanting to in the last minute come into comfort with God and let you do it for them--no, chela, not so--NOT SO.

I am not even going to allow you to write the Humanist Manifesto first this day. I am going to make my own choices about sequence of writings and I choose to speak of knowledge and how it gives you the ability to be master instead of servant of matter. THEN we will write of the Human approach and you will be able to better see how things have come to be.

Our work and participation is being blasted from New Zealand to Canada and it tells more than any thesis on the TRUTH OF THAT WHICH WE BRING and this, dear ones, is NOT your load to bear.

GOD DID NOT SAY THAT HE WOULD SAVE THE WORLD--HE PROMISED THAT HE WOULD BRING THE WORD AS A FINAL PROMISE FULFILLED AND MAN WILL MAKE HIS OWN CHOICES--I BELIEVE YOU CAN SEE THE DIRECTION MAN IS CHOOSING FOR THE MOST PART! YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO ANYTHING--AND NEITHER DOES GOD!

PHYSICAL BODIES
ONLY EXTENSIONS

Repeat: "The fact that your physical bodies are but moving extensions of your spiritual Selves has but begun to enter human Consciousness.

"All bodies are wave recordings of Mind-thoughts. All matter is, therefore, pure thought for each particle of it conveys a meaning of its identity and purpose. Matter symbolizes one idea divided into trillions of ideas, all of which convey a meaning to observers proportioned by their varying intelligence."

KNOWLEDGE MAKES YOU MASTER

The above paragraphs are repeated here because it is difficult to fully comprehend the oft-repeated statement that "God is all" while an infinitely extended universe of suns, stars and nebulae illumines the heavens by the countless millions and all about you countless millions of bodies of substantial matter which you can weigh and feel and "see with your own eyes" confront you with their own indisputable evidence of their reality.

All of your lives, for countless generations, you have been confronted with moving bodies and moving forces. Heat burns you. Winds blow forcibly against your resisting bodies. We have pains, aches, hungers and fear of illnesses of your bodies and of the bodies of your families and friends.

Tempests come--with floods, and famines, and droughts. We have always known a world of motion--of actions and events--of pleasure and catastrophe--with eras of peace suddenly broken by devastating war.

In the very face of all you see and feel, how can you say, "God is all" or "God is Love" or "I am the master of my fate; I am the captain of my Soul," when you feel yourselves to be the helpless victims of a matter-and-motion environment which so relentlessly swirls you about in its whirlpools?

Is it any wonder that people who are the servants of matter, motion and environment feel that the universe of matter and motion is REALITY--and that things of the spirit are something to be hoped for but are not dependable--not REAL?

Wherefore I say to you that you are the self-bound servant of matter so long as you are self-bound--and, furthermore, I say to you that you are freed from its bondage only when you free yourself from your own senses.

Just as long as your senses dominate your actions, the world of matter and motion is your master--and you are its unwilling, unhappy slave. Why is this so? It is because your senses are the same wave vibrations that your bodies are. Again I repeat that your body and your senses are but motion. How can motion be YOU?

If your body is dominating your actions, it is demanding that you work for it--that you give it what it wants--and the only things it wants are more sensations--more vibrations--more motion--more possessions of material things for your body--more emotions for your body.

Freedom from slavery to matter and the conditions of matter begins with knowledge that the motion and matter of your body is not YOU. That is why we have so often told you that the supreme discovery of man is his Self.

Complete freedom comes only when you have actually come to KNOW LOVE. When you actually know what love is, you will not only know that God is love but that YOU are love. When that day comes, you can then say, as Christos said--and with as much authority--"I and my Father are ONE." When that glorious day does come, you will have found the kingdom of heaven, for that is what Immanuel meant when He said "Seek ye first the kingdom of heaven."

No man can have prosperity, riches, power or happiness as long as he is but clay of earth, sensed clay of earth, bound by his body to forever work for his bodily needs.

We have frequently said that material bodies simulate idea but the forms of material bodies are not the idea they simulate. All the gold and treasures of the material world are not what they make believe they are. He who possesses much gold and thinks, therefore, that he has the happiness which the possession of gold simulates has but the gold--for happiness is not in the gold. Likewise, he who possesses self-purposeful power over other men has not yet attained happiness even though he has the power of kings.

ENERGY IS MIND, NOT IN MATTER

When you think of matter as reality, ask yourself what matter can do without the desire of Mind back of it. Even your little finger cannot move of itself until you WILL to move it. Desire is in the Soul-seed of all things. Desire of the Creator divided the universe into pairs of opposite conditions which pump bodies into the appearance of existence motivated by DESIRE.

Will of Mind created all things to dramatize idea of Mind for just a little while--THEN WILL OF MIND TAKES ALL CREATED THINGS BACK INTO THE SOUL-SEED OF ITS IDEA. They disappear--but WILL OF MIND STILL IS.

Will of Mind creates all things by dividing idea and setting it in motion. Silence is divided to produce sound vibrations for just a little while and when those vibrations cease silence still IS.

Will of YOUR Mind created YOUR body. Desire in YOU--in your conscious Soul--to have a body divides the light of Mind--thinking which extended your visible, vibrating wave-body from its silence--from its stillness--when its vibrations cease--YOU STILL ARE.

That is what is meant by saying "God alone IS" or "I am the master of my fate; I am the captain of my Soul."

The energy which created your vibrating body extended from the eternal YOU to create your body and not from your transient body to create the immortal YOU.

EXAMPLES OF SOUL ENERGY

Science reverses the above-stated principle by postulating that the energy which creates matter comes from matter. As previously stated, energy is presumed to be heated matter in motion.

Let me give you some ideas upon this subject to take into deep and prolonged meditation over and over again until the realization of it gives you the feeling of such unlimited power that you could-- "...tear trees from the forest, tree by tree or forest by forest, for your strength transcends that of the tree. It is mightier than that of the forest." This is what it MUST COME TO, little ones--not just ONE of you but all of you. It will do one of you no good if Dharma is the only one who can accomplish this task--it simply means that she has arranged HER destiny. Just "being" and just "believing" will not cut the mustard, the butter or the mercury steel. Knowledge, however, can allow you to simply dissolve the steel. Now, if Dharma can dissolve the steel door so that you may all pass--fine, so now you are on the other side of the door and then what? You will no longer even have a door to close behind you for protection and when SHE GOES into etheric form she CANNOT TAKE A THING OF PHYSICAL WITH HER! Are you ones beginning to get the picture?

The feeling of unlimited power should become your normal state of Mind, together with inner joyousness. You should always come out of your meditations with that sense of tremendous power, the glory of Self-expression and a sense of supremacy over all material things. When communion with God gives you those God qualities, such a thing as failure, or defeat, or fear of facing any task upon earth should be entirely eliminated from your thinking. That is the kind of Being you should be.

Consider the following idea. A laborer can lift thirty to fifty tons of coal in one day, a shovelful at a time. That feat takes an enormous amount of energy. Where did the energy come from which performed that amount of work? Most certainly it did not come by conversion of the food consumed by the laborer into heat. The amount of food he consumed would not generate enough heat, by any known process, to lift fifty pounds, much less fifty tons.

The food consumed does not supply the energy for the work. It is used to repair the body and replace its ever-dying cells. Any residue is eliminated after normal replacements are completed.

Any machine that man may make which would lift fifty tons would need at least a thousand pounds of fuel. A man's body is a machine made for performing work just as a man-made machine is. Why is it that one machine needs a thousand pounds of fuel converted to heat to lift fifty tons while the human machine lifts fifty tons without needing any fuel at all?

The answer is that the human machine, or that of the elephant or bull, is centered by Mind-desire which is the Source of all power. Man expresses power through desire to express power, even though he is not aware of the Source of his power. A mechanical machine has no mental motivating source of power so power is extended to it from a generator which consumes a tremendous amount of fuel for every ton lifted.

The machine made by man NEEDS the power given by matter while the will of man IS that power. His heartbeat is connected with the universal heartbeat.

The same thing holds true of an elephant or any other animal which is motivated by Soul-will. The elephant can move two hundred tons of logs in a day. The bales of hay consumed by it are, likewise, needed for replacements to its body and not for the work.

Consider, also, the fact that you can lift your own body ten thousand feet above the earth to the top of a mountain and back again in one day because YOU are the universal power current and YOUR power is limitless when you know it is limitless. If your power is limited, it is because you, yourself, have set limitations to it by not exerting your WILL power to work physically or to create mentally.

Again I say, man is Omnipotent when he knows his Omnipotence.

As a last example for your meditation, we would like you to consider the tremendous energy expressed in the vegetable kingdom by the desire of the forest to lift its thousands of tons up above the earth. In the Soul-seed of the forest is the mighty desire of its Creator's Mind to manifest its power. Every seed of the forest is centered by that Soul-desire or Soul-will to unfold the pattern of its idea. Desire in the seed is will-power current in the seed expressing its desire by dividing light to form its body.

Those mighty tons of the forest are not alone lifted up by the alternating impulses of heat, cold and sunlight interacting with earth. Desire in the seed is the greatest factor. These are the two conditions which desire in the seed makes use of to divide the stillness of the seed into vibrating bodies. Desire makes its own power current, for desire of Soul is the thought-power which creates YOUR body and ALL BODIES and fuel-made current is its servant. The energy and motivating force which builds the universe is not in matter, nor in motion. Energy is solely a Mind-force. It is merely simulated in matter.

Therefore we say again to you that God is omnipotent, and naught else in the universe is omnipotent save God. Also we say to you that YOU are omnipotent in the measure that you know your Oneness with God.

Also we say to you that YOU are the Source of all energy with which you create the universal body. Furthermore, we say to you that YOU center and control every cell of your body. If you are balanced in the Light, every cell of your body is likewise balanced. If your thinking is unbalanced, every cell of your body takes on that unbalance immediately and naught but balanced thinking can correct it.

These lessons are leading up to comprehension of the fact that the Light of God's Mind actually IS all--and naught else exists. And YOU are that Light and YOU eternally exist.

There is no material universe. Matter and motion do not exist nor does the visible light of suns exist. They appear to exist, but that appearance of existence is the great cosmic illusion. Even the senses which tell you that matter exists do not exist, for they are motion and motion is merely the wave record of thought-imaginings.

If the Creator suddenly stopped thinking and imagining, this entire universe of matter would suddenly disappear, for all motion and form are Mind-imagined and all bodies are but thought-pictures of Mind-imaginings. The effect would be like the ending of a motion picture play where all physical effects cease when the creator of the play stops thinking them into form and motion.

This universe is entirely spiritual. God alone IS.

This universe is a Mind-universe from which thought-imagined bodies extend to simulate the idea of Mind.

This is a universe of REST from which motion seemingly springs.

God's knowing is undivided and unchanging. God's thinking seemingly divides the ONE IDEA for God's knowing into many moving forms which seemingly change as God's thinking seemingly changes.

THE COSMIC ILLUSION

All bodies in all the universe are but waves of motion which in themselves are only seeming. There is no such thing as motion or substance. There is but illusion which you sense as motion and substance.

If this statement amazes you, it is because you do not yet comprehend God's lenses and mirrors of light by means of which He creates that illusion. We will make these clear to you in the last lessons in the series. In the meantime, you will recall that we have already told you that your senses see very much motion in a cinema picture, yet you know that there is no motion there--only one STILL frame following another. We have given you all of this briefly and with diagrams in prior material so all of this should hit you as a total REPEAT--but how much have you changed? How much do you comprehend? Does it even matter to you? How does it matter to you? Where would you go and what would you do if we announced that you are going to receive a near hit by atomic bomb within the next half hour? Where would you go? What would you do? NO--I didn't ask you what Hatonn is going to do--nor Oberli--nor Desiree'. WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Well, ones such as Patricia might say--well, I depended on God to supply me with a place to be in safety and I pack books, etc., etc.,--and so, by properly stacking the books if there is not a direct hit--you will nicely survive the blast--but what will you eat? WHERE WILL YOU GO?

There is a gross misunderstanding regarding that which you ones have come to call "the underground", etc. When that hole was made public and distress was caused by ones thinking themselves to be somehow "had" at the expense of another--IT WAS PULLED TO A HALT--HATONN TOLD YOU ONES AS MUCH IN A MEETING FOR IT HAD LOST ITS VALUE--EVERYONE IN THE COMMUNITY HAD COME TO STARE AND TROUBLE BECAME ITS MIDDLE NAME! That place is only good for it is Gene's and Connie's HOME--NO MORE AND NO LESS. That was told openly to you. Then you ask, "...well what does Charles do over there all the time?" Two things--he works with the builders to get the foundation now approved so Gene can begin his house since the lower level is no longer "sacred". Further, all things are being TESTED so that the products can be approved for the projects which will be in the building of housing from various mixtures and formulas as well as seeing what can be passed through the Kern County Building and Planning Commission. So, for goodness sakes, chelas, what in the world are you all talking about--there IS no "underground" for general use--you might as well go jump in any old hole in the ground. It is no longer even good for "storage" except as a shifting mechanism for interim transient to another place of safety--for guess where EVERYONE would go for food and shelter?

Dharma and Oberli cannot even use it except to move enough stuff out of their own house to make moving possible on very short notice for the "big boys" can cause them to have to "move" even if not permanently--for goodness sakes, the RTC trial has been moved to Washington, D.C. and who can stand the expense of such a long-distance trial?

Where do you ones think the funding comes from? Dear ones, there is no magic--money coming into the Institute is used to purchase GOLD for the investor! All money carries usury "notes". This is why Hatonn has been so severe regarding the fact that there is no "group" here and has stated time after time that coming here is fine but you must be self-sufficient. Ones who committed funds have pulled them back because they do not like Hatonn to speak Truth unto them. So be it--do you think He will stop speaking Truth in order to glean their funds? Come now!

Well, do we think that you will actually NEED shelters? INDEED! YOU ARE ON THE EVE, CHILDREN, OF WIPE-OUT DESTRUCTION AS DEPOPULATION IS THE NEXT ALL-OUT INTENT. WHAT KIND OF A GAME DO YOU THINK WE ARE PLAYING HEREIN? WHY DO YOU THINK YOU HAVE 36 BOOKS OF TRUTH AND INSTRUCTIONS? HOW WELL ARE YOU PREPARED? THEN HOW WELL DO YOU THINK MANKIND IS ACTUALLY PREPARED? FRIGHTENING, ISN'T IT?

So, you all understand that the illusion of motion in the cinema picture is caused by sequences of "stills" superimposed upon each other, each succeeding one being of a different pattern. If the patterns were all alike, there would be no illusion of motion.

God's cinema changes pattern constantly because God's thinking changes constantly, but as changing only seems, likewise, motion only seems. When you stop thinking, the patterns of your imagining also cease. Can you not readily comprehend that Creation is but a record of continuous thinking? Can you not also see that everything which seemingly happens "unhappens" simultaneously, to coin an expressive word for better understanding?

You and every moving thing in Nature are walking constantly into a mirror of yourself. As you appear, you simultaneously disappear but the sequences of it deceive your human senses by giving a feeling of continuity which is not justified.

We have written this phenomenon into what we call "The Law of Illusion" or "the voidance principle" which reads:

Every action is voided as it occurs, is repeated as it is voided, and is recorded as it is repeated.

All effects of time, dimension, sound, and sequences of night and day from which the illusion of time springs are, likewise, the result of seeming motion.

All this can be summed up in the simple reminder of previous lessons that this seeming universe of many things, which seem to have countless changing moving forms, is a ZERO universe of REST which never exceeds zero in any of its effects but only seems to do so.

All of this seems incredible, we know, but as you gradually replace old conceptions of what constitutes REALITY, you will more and more comprehend that the Light of Mind is the only reality.

You can readily understand that when all motion in your body ceases, it disappears, just as the whole universe would disappear if all motion ceased in the Universal Body.

THE ONE REALITY

Your body appeared from YOU. It appeared because YOU desired to manifest YOU. It appeared because you imagined it. God's body--Nature--appears and disappears likewise. When you can knowingly say "I and My Father are ONE," you will then know that your Mind-imaginings are creating your own body in your own image.

You will then know that your body is but a moving manifestation of desire in you and, whatever it is, it is what you caused it to be. To the extent that you know God in you, your body is a manifestation of God's balanced rhythms which are absolutely under your Mind control. So, likewise, are all of your creations under your Mind control.

To the extent that you know God's oneness with you, you can extend your balance to other Minds and give them control over their bodies and the bodies they create.

WHAT THIS KNOWLEDGE MEANS TO YOU

The purpose of revealing these unknown facts of Nature to you is to free you from the bindings of matter so that you will know it for what it is and not what it seems to be, and control it—instead of it controlling you.

In previous lessons, we have stated that one single thought or emotion could upset the chemistry and polarity of your body so completely that from being well you could become very ill. You need no further proof than that to convince you that your body is the wave record of your thinking.

If you work all day at something you very much dislike, you become very tired. The vitality of your body weakens in its power to polarize your body cells. Even a little depolarization of all cells degenerates your bodily vitality, whereas you could work all day with intense joyousness and feel even more vitalized at the end of the day.

The reason for this is because ecstasy is the continued, normal, unchanging state of God's Mind, and the more you can reflect that ecstasy the more you can keep the vitality of your body at its maximum generative power.

Likewise, the divisions of desire for action, followed by an equal desire for rest, if properly balanced in your thinking and emulated in your body will multiply your vitality tremendously. Multiplied vitality through the manifestation of love brings with it the fullness of physical expression. Every deviation from balanced expression of the love principle destroys bodies in the measure of that deviation.

Violent anger, for example, can sow its deadly seed of cancer in a perfectly healthy body. A complete expression of the love principle, one which has in it the ecstasy of the Light of Mind, can destroy that seed and make the body whole. Likewise, it can destroy the seed of any infectious disease if that ecstasy can be imparted to another, as Immanuel did when He made others to heal themselves through "believing on Him" even though they did not comprehend.

Healing is based upon increasing God-awareness, and that awareness responds immediately to mental desire and the balanced rhythms which are an essential precedent to the joyousness which leads to ecstasy. Such joyous emotions increase the alkaline preponderance which builds the body and lowers its acid content.

Conversely, any cynical or unkind attitude which does not express the love nature of God lowers the power of every cell in the body and increases its acid content to a destructive percentage.

TO CONTROL MATTER-- FIRST CONTROL SELF

God said, "Behold, I am in all things, centering them, and I am without all things, controlling them."

The nearer you can come to feeling your Self to be that center of stillness from which all things extend UNDER YOUR CONTROL, the more you can control your own body to its perfection of health, strength and beauty.

No matter what you must do in life, do it joyously. Whatever work it is, put love into it. If you do put love into it, you will find love regiven to you by it.

Love given out from YOU vitalizes YOU as well as it vitalizes the one you give it to.

If you do not like your work, it does not like you. It gives back to you what you give to it. You become fatigued and devitalized. Whatever situation in which you find yourself, master it by giving love out of yourself to it, for that is the only way to master it. If you give aught but love, it will regive aught but love.

There is no task which manifests

God which is not beautiful if you make it so, for beauty is not in any task—it is in YOU.

If you have to sweep the floor, do it gloriously. The floor must be swept. If it falls to you to sweep it, do it perfectly, with love, and it will bless you.

A joyous attitude of Mind from love given out will prolong your date of maturing, lengthen your life and make your thinking more brilliant and keen to the day of your passing. Joyousness is the great insulator from the toxins which arise from unbalanced thinking.

SOME THOUGHTS TO PONDER

Some day the chemist will realize that the same unbalanced conditions which cause violent explosions in his elemental compounds cause violent explosions in the human body under similarly unbalanced conditions.

The chemist and metallurgist know that when they find pure cube crystals in any elements, they find the stability of absolute balance in such crystals, and when they find distorted cube crystals, they know full well that unbalance in interchange between opposite pairs is the answer to that distortion.

Learned men of science, especially in medicine, will have to come to understand that distortions due to unbalance in elemental bodies have the same basic causes that distortions in human bodies have. Human bodies are composed of these same elements and both are light-wave recordings of Mind-thinking. Therefore, both MUST obey the same inviolate laws of balance. The medical world is being transformed because of these new beliefs.

This principle of unbalanced interchange is being manifested upon a world-scale by the greeds, hates and fears of neighbor by neighbor, and nation by nation, which have been released into this thought-wave universe during the last decades.

Just as one individual destroys his body by depriving it of the balanced polarity which love gives to bodies, so can nations, or the world, destroy their civilization by the various kinds of cancerous disintegrators which hatred breeds. With such hatreds come miscegenation, licentiousness, sadism and infinite cruelties. The consequent loss of the best blood of all nations degenerates entire nations.

During this last fifty years, even the morale of nations has decreased as their national unbalance has increased. The whole human race is facing its utter destruction as a whole, just as countless thousands of individuals are, likewise, destroying themselves by preferentially practicing the principles of greed for their own selfish ends.

The world is not supporting great men in the arts, great statesmen in governments, or great leaders in any of the fields of human endeavors. The geniuses are often suppressed and starve for need of recognition and patronage. A Caruso or Beethoven finds it difficult to compete with the rowdy talent which receives high salaries and honors today. Morality, integrity and culture are at a low ebb and honor is selling out to materialistic power-seekers in every great nation of the world.

This sick and unhappy age of man is what man made it. Whatever it is, man's thinking has made it so. Today's civilization is the record of man's thinking. It is the record of sensed desires, not spiritual ones. It is the record of fears and hatreds in mankind, not of love.

Much of the world may be self-destructed but not all of it. The first Cosmic Age of man is about to dawn into the light of its new day. Millions of bodies have been sacrificed and many millions more will follow them into the grave, but love will come into the hearts of men and the world will be transformed by love into another stage of its unfolding.

That is why God sent His Message into the world for man's new day. And that is why God timed the delivery of the messages to this period of man's great self-chastening.

This is why even SOME of you are ready to receive the Truth--and further the planting of the seeds in the hearts of legions of men so that they, in turn, will bring into being this Cosmic Age of Love and understanding of the Truth of God and Creation.

A BIT OF SUMMARY

This precious lesson is devoted to the greatest mystery which man has to face--the mystery of life and death. The greater of these two is death. It is necessary that man fully comprehends what death means, for it has been stated in past ages that the last thing for man to conquer is death.

That is very confusing for it is often interpreted that man shall somehow conquer death AND LEARN TO LIVE IN THE BODY AS PRESENTED--FOREVER. Its meaning is that death is conquered by knowledge and comprehension of the fact that there is no such thing as death.

These lessons are written in as simple language as we can conjure for every layman. It is necessary, however, that you fully comprehend them from the light-wave principle, for your body consists solely of light-waves. We, therefore, follow this lesson with a more scientific approach in order that you may fully conquer death by your full knowledge of its dynamic meaning.

We are aware that you will not completely absorb the full meaning of all at one reading. You will absorb enough of it, however, to grow like seed in your thinking processes. You will soon be amazed at your increasing mastery of the principles used by the Creator, and you, yourself, will "unconsciously" begin to think that way.

All new knowledge comes slowly. Be patient--and be masterful. But study the information for it will not seep all over you by the closed book--EVER. Your own destiny is of too great import for you not to know that which you should know to control it. Read the following lessons many times because it will be a real foundation upon which to build and then open up. You will find the information not only emotionally philosophical but also equally satisfying from a very practical viewpoint as well, for it will give you the wisdom of a Sage--as well as an intellectual--and that alone is well worthwhile.

Let us close this portion for it is time to meet, Dharma. I give you the peace of the violet flame, chela, for the way is strewn with all ones' garbage. You ones must release the garbage so that you do not miss the treasure. Saalome.

Au Dai Pa Dai Cum: (One that walks with the Spirit as within the Spirit. I AM one who walks with My Hand in the Hand which is God's).

I AM --- GERMAIN

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

THE SACRED SPIRIT WITHIN

MITAKUYE OYASIN (for all my relations--which is ALL)
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. VI

Violinio Germain, & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU, NOT FOR YOU

Germain gives the reason why it would be very wise for all to imbued this deeply in our consciousness.

The mysteries of gravity are explained. - Information is given about some of the world teachers of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE and who they were. - Explanation of God's HOLY LAW OF MATING LIGHT WAVES AND SEX ARE ONE. - More probing of Universal Secrets is done along with a more explicit definition of HIGHER KNOWLEDGE OF CREATION. - Lao-tzu and his teachings are discussed. - Some New Concepts for "Cosmic Man" are given and applying this knowledge to the meaning of prayer.

The human race has now arrived at the point where hundreds of thousands are at the transition point between their mortal, physical and sensual natures and their immortal, intellectual and inspirational natures.

Mortal man is beginning to know his immortality. The sensual in him is being lost in its own dark by his own Self-illuminating. It is for these few of the great many that this book is written so that MAN, THE UNKNOWN, can gradually unfold into MAN, THE KNOWN.

THIS BOOK CONTAINS SOME OF THAT HIGHER KNOWLEDGE MAN IS SEEKING.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, VOLUMES XIII AND XIV

$15 320 PAGES 8 1/2 X 11"

This book continues the compilation of the EXPRESSES with an indexing of all headings for easy reference of topics (13 pages).

A few of the hundreds of topics covering all aspects of life are: The one world money system - Gold fails as a monetary standard - Comparison word for word of the Ten Commandments, the Bill of Rights and the Communist Manifesto--which is America following? - House to house searches for firearms - Space-man connections - Astrology - Israel's Ariel Sharon lays claim to Jordan - Cold fusion - Last breath for Palestinians - Recognizing and facing Denial of Truth within Self and Others: The "Secret" inhibitor of taking Personal Responsibility - Quotes from "I Ran Drugs For Uncle Sam" - Bush/Kuwait.

Other important topics include: Money exchange - Abandoned POW's - Merger of U.S., U.S.S.R and E.E.C. - Bush backs Depopulation Lobby - Martyrdom is telling God I give up. - Who says pain is your teacher? - The Pleiades Connection series of books and the Nature of The Universe - What are the consequences of suicide? - WORMWOOD - Care for the elderly - Sinister terminology, how we are trapped by the Elite's twisting of the meanings of our words - Bill authorizes CONCENTRATION CAMPS - Dictatorship is possible here. - Bush has personal interest in China. - Photobiology (Psi-onics and Radionics) and many other fascinating topics.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIREE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
6Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix

Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 12

8/22/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

As we grow in understanding of the physical--please, do not get sidetracked on the sensationalism of "seeing" truth in happenings and exclude the source of the KNOWINGNESS. It is your God knowledge within that is coming forth and every day--every happening--will allow for more and more discernment.

Moreover, as we move along we will be able to share more and more of the Earth happenings with our physical brothers so that we can concentrate more on the next phase of our participation. Remember, we are not rabble-rousers, we are not activists in the sense of the definition of "activism" and public disobedience. Our ONLY thrust is to urge you ones to get in there and reclaim the power of your Constitution.

It will appear to all of you that what happened in the Soviet Union was a "good" thing. No, it was a planned confrontation brought about by total deceit--the most deceived were the ones who THOUGHT they had backing. It makes one harken back to the situation in Iraq/Kuwait wherein Iraq was led to believe the world would not interfere at worst and even assist at best.

This gave the leaders an opportunity to find out who all dissenters were, from political adversaries to military aggressors. It only unified that portion of the New World Order. Note the markets of the world and note that even the doubtful and hesitant helpers of the Soviets are now lined up to give, give and give to the Soviet Dictators foisting off total totalitarian dictatorship as "Democracy". "Republic" was just removed from all association with the government form. Giving ones a vote when the choice is death by hanging or death by poison is hardly a fair for-the-people way to go. It surely is nice for the One World Dictator, however. You will also note quite easily that the Gorbachev who went on vacation is NOT the one who returned.

Oh, I think with such a "scare" that Bush will get just about everything he asks for from you people and the puppets in Washington. I hope you have noted that the major rise on the stock markets is in the areas of defense industry. All of this when the newly unemployed (registered) last week increased an additional 22,000--that means "increase from the prior week" so you are talking some 200,000 NEWLY (in one week) unemployed. You already have millions out of work and an already decreasing in welfare expenditures for the already millions on the rolls.

So, what do I suggest? Do all you can without any civil disobedience to retain and reclaim your constitutional laws and build what you can for a period of real hardship and an assault against the overpopulation of the world.

What happened to Yeltsin? Please, chelas, now we all know what happened to that gentleman--remember, he too, was missing for several weeks within the past months--except for OLD pictures of the man--the world did not see this great leader of the multitudes of Russia who had formerly backed everything except Gorbachev and the new regime. You must look at the whole of a symphony to understand the various refrains of same. The groundwork for this circumstance was laid long, long ago. You must see that your world is lining up on the side of the physical projection and not on the side of good.

God wins, precious ones. It is only that you are not yet truly aware of what that means, so we must continue with the lessons until you do, for the pendulum always swings in reverse cycle and what we leave written will be the rule book for another journey at another experience. Let us say it in this manner: "You are sent to give the spacecraft schedules and inform as to that which the ticket aboard costs and it is not a journey at this time in evolution to be martyrs but, rather, a time of physical participation in the leaving of Truth." We have no wish to have the books burned nor any such sensationalism. We would like to see you prosper through good and proper business and especially through a time of depressed society. We desire the example to be one of "desire to follow"--not dread of pain and agony. Let us get our balance fulcrum stable upon God and we shall be fine.

We have the solution for many of the current problems for you ones in this place--within the society and utilizing all that we advocate AND having security and foodstuffs, as example. Oberli heard me and will share. This is a time of self-responsibility and creative thinking wherein all MUST participate. So be it.

I turn over the forum to Germain so that we can get some work done on our proper task today for the day is again shortened for the writing because of need for a meeting. Let us ever be loving, gracious, generous, kind and compassionate one with another. This becomes most difficult as the bombardment of the physical impacts come upon you--but if we cannot reflect these things of God, then how can the world?

Probably in the next few EXPRESSES I shall choose to go back and give you scenarios from past planning and experiences such as what was done with the MX missiles in prior world attempts for nuclear war. If you have paid any attention to the carriers you will have seen, RIGHT NOW, MX missiles all over the United States on the move. The carriers are usually just boxcars with huge slab sides and a top shaped like a "barn" roof. They are usually painted a typical brown or gray with few, if any, markings on the outside. They are, however, set so that when the train is halted and the trigger pulled, the sides blast off and the missile is raised to launch angle and would be launched directly from the location aboard the train.

This can be most uncomfortable if one or more of those missiles are launched from a town because the adversary has his missiles tracked to pinpoint yours--even the ones in motion. Every one has a Cosmosphere or two in attendance and this kind of confrontation can certainly cause a bit of discomfort to the township involved. It is truly time to get informed.

The next plan for you of America is to work out a little scheme with the Russians to allow the Cosmospheres to give you a few demonstrations and call them space-originated from your unfriendly aliens. This is WHY Cooper is so prodded to continue the facade of "little gray aliens" and scatter more and wilder lies about all the people involved in getting to the actual truth of aliens.

Further, there may come a time when briefly we will have to discontinue personal contact of this nature for your protection. That does not mean that anything will change--God goes nowhere. However, ones of the adversary's troops are lining up to blast our material and PROVE the presence of these "little grays" holding your government hostage. The protection will only be increased for you ones of God, so relax and enjoy the show--regardless of that which you are doing it should be done in LOVE and Joy. There are still some real surprises in store for the adversary and his troops from the Lighted Realms of Source and I don't think any of you want to miss it! Perhaps it may be time for G.G. to contact some of his old acquaintances who have also been threatened by this speaker, literally, with death threats.

I believe that you will find your audiences changing greatly but we are most appreciative of those which served as launch pads and we are indeed grateful. You are just about to begin some really excellent sessions and we honor our enemies who give us press. There is no facade involved; America is the chosen place of God and it is time to reclaim it so that the ones remaining can grow into proper perception as the world recovers and plays out its course of life before rest. But the order of societal structure under God, as your nation was idealistically projected, yet never actually experienced for evil against brother was present from onset, shall be again set as example.

Can it be? Of course, it has been just such massive changes in all past periods of civilization growth. While the nations sort of their friends and foes within and without--so, too, does God. There is however, a large difference, HE does not watch that which the lips say--of any individual--but rather, that which the heart speaks. Man will, if uninformed or for whatever purpose, usually follow the masses which is often most unwise indeed while the heart is saying quite a different thing. Physical stupidity is not necessarily a favor to God for it most often means--in the event of purges--less bodies to serve God.

You are not placed there to fight wars--remember? Wars are not of God! Yours is to bring the WORD as promised and live with intent of God so that you are AVAILABLE for transition, etc. You do not set yourselves aside and anything beyond that which is in your Constitution. Suicide is not a very honorable thing in most instances so let us always act with wisdom in all circumstances.

(PAUSE)

Germain and I have conferred here, and it is agreed that I shall do the remainder of the subject of the Humanist Ideal and Programming. This is an excellent place to insert the information in the JOURNAL in writing and also you may wish to include it in EXPRESS material.

HUMANIST MANIFESTO I

I see no point in great further discussion for I believe the material speaks better for itself. I will only remind you as you begin this input that GLOBALISM MEANS THE DEMISE OF AMERICA AND HENCE, THE WORLD.

I shall ask, Dharma, that you take this in duplication for I need no expression beyond the material physical aspect in which it was originally given and then, as updated sequentially. I believe you will see that the plan has worked to perfection and the adversary is in control of the human manifestation and has trapped the Souls within. That is the freedom of which we speak--the physical is not important other than as a vehicle for use in experience--'tis the soul in prison to the physical which in every experience is but fleeting. Let us quote a little brief statement made by one, Khrushchev, who said the following in one of his sessions of "remembering": I suppose you could say my political education began during my boyhood in the little village of Kalinovka where I was born. My schoolteacher there was a woman named Lydia Shchevchenko. She was a revolutionary. She was also an atheist. She instilled in me my first political consciousness and began to counteract the effects of my strict religious upbringing. My mother was very religious, likewise her father--my grandfather--who as a serf had been conscripted to the Tsarist Army for twenty-five years. When I think back to my childhood, I can remember vividly the saints on the icons against the wall of our wooden hut, their faces darkened by fumes from the oil lamps. I remember being taught to kneel and pray in front of the icons with the grown-ups in church. When we were taught to read, we read the scriptures. But Lydia Shchevchenko set me on a path which took me away from all that.

Do you see? Neither is right. The child thought only the prayer was to the icon and the lie was visible. The lie is the living example of that lie for that is all the "senses" can absorb.

It is difficult to sit and compile some sort of a list to alert ones to the problem for the humanist educationists have been infiltrating their ideas and techniques into the system for so long that they have completely displaced the traditional academic methods and curriculum. In addition, you have "bought into" their philosophy and methodology to such an extent that you find yourselves bankrupt for other ways to teach. You have now passed enough generations that there are indeed only a tiny few teachers who can recall anything different in the school system. In a sense, chelas, we are starting all over again and the material we bring seems new and radical. It is our duty to present it to you for history shall be documented for the generations to come forth.

QUOTE: HUMANIST MANIFESTO I

The time has come for widespread recognition of the radical changes in religious beliefs throughout the modern world. The time is past for mere revision of traditional attitudes. Science and economic change have disrupted the old beliefs. Religions the world over are under the necessity of coming to terms with new conditions created by a vastly increased knowledge and experience. In every field of human activity, the vital movement is now in the direction of a candid and explicit humanism. In order that religious humanism may be better understood we, the undersigned, desire to make certain affirmations which we believe the facts of our contemporary life demonstrate.

There is great danger of a final, and we believe fatal, identification of the word religion with doctrines and methods which have lost their significance and which are powerless to solve the problem of human living in the Twentieth Century. Religions have always been means for realizing the highest values of life. Their end has been accomplished through the interpretation of the total envrioning situation (theology or world view), the sense of values resulting therefrom (goal or ideal), and the technique (cult) established for realizing the satisfactory life. A change in any of these factors results in alteration of the outward forms of religion. This fact explains the changefulness of religions through the centuries. But through all changes religion itself remains constant in its quest for abiding values, an inseparable feature of human life.

Today man's larger understanding of the universe, his scientific achievements, and his deeper appreciation of brotherhood, have created a situation which requires a new statement of the means and purposes of religion. Such a vital, fearless, and frank religion capable of furnishing adequate social goals and personal satisfactions may appear to many people as a complete break with the past. While this age does owe a vast debt to traditional religions, it is none the less obvious that any religion that can hope to be a synthesizing and dynamic force for today must be shaped for the needs of this age. To establish such a religion is a major necessity of the present. It is a responsibility which rests upon this generation...

First: Religious humanists regard the universe as self-existing and not created.

Second: Humanism believes that man is a part of nature and that he has emerged as the result of a continuous process.

Third: Holding an organic view of life, humanists find that the traditional dualism of mind and body must be rejected.

Fourth: Humanism recognizes that man's religious culture and civilization, as clearly depicted by anthropology and history, are the product of a gradual development due to his interaction with his natural environment and with his social heritage. The individual horn into a particular culture is largely molded to that culture.

Fifth: Humanism asserts that the nature of the universe depicted by modern science makes unacceptable any supernatural or cosmic guarantees of human values. Obviously humanism does not deny the possibility of realities as yet undiscovered, but it does insist that the way to determine the existence and value of any and all realities is by means of intelligent inquiry and by the assessment of their relation to human needs. Religion must formulate its hopes and plans in the light of the scientific spirit and method.

Sixth: We are convinced that the time has passed for theism, deism, modernism, and the several varieties of "new thought".

Seventh: Religion consists of those actions, purposes, and experiences which are humanly significant. Nothing human is alien to the religious. It includes labor, art, science, philosophy, love, friendship, recreation--all that is in its degree expressive of intelligently satisfying human living. The distinction between the sacred and the secular can no longer be maintained.

Eighth: Religious humanism considers the complete realization of human personality to be the end of man's life and seeks its development and fulfillment in the here and now. This is the explanation of the humanist's social passion.

Ninth: In place of the old attitudes involved in worship and prayer the humanist finds his religious emotions expressed in a heightened sense of personal life and in a cooperative effort to promote social well-being.

Tenth: It follows that there will be no uniquely religious emotions and attitudes of the kind hitherto associated with belief in the supernatural.

Eleventh: Man will learn to face the crises of life in terms of his knowledge of their naturalness and probability. Reasonable and manly attitudes will be fostered by education and supported by custom. We assume that humanism will take the path of social and mental hygiene and discourage sentimental and unreal hopes and wishful thinking.

Twelfth: Believing that religion must work increasingly for joy in living, religious humanists aim to foster the creative in man and to encourage achievements that add to the satisfactions of life.

Thirteenth: Religious humanism maintains that all associations and institutions exist for the fulfillment of human life. The intelligent evaluation, transformation, control and direction of such associations and institutions with a view to the enhancement of human life is the purpose and program of humanism. Certainly religious institutions, their ritualistic forms, ecclesiastical methods, and communal activities must be reconstituted as rapidly as experience allows, in order to function effectively in the modern world.

Fourteenth: The humanists are firmly convinced that the existing acquisitive and profit-motivated society has shown itself to be inadequate and that a radical change in methods, controls, and motives must be instituted. A socialized and cooperative economic order must be established to the end that the equitable distribution of the means of life be possible. The goal of humanism is a free and universal society in which people voluntarily and intelligently cooperate for the common good. Humanists demand a shared life in a shared world.

Fifteenth and last: We assert that humanism will: (a) affirm life rather than deny it; (b) seek to elicit the possibilities of life, not flee from it; and (c) endeavor to establish the conditions of a satisfactory life for all, not merely for the few. By this positive morale and intention humanism will be guided, and from this perspective and alignment the techniques and efforts of humanism will flow.

So stand the thesis of religious humanism. Though we consider the religious forms and ideas of our fathers no longer adequate, the quest for the good life is still the central task for mankind. Man is at last becoming aware that he alone is responsible for the realization of the world of his dreams, that he has within himself the power for its achievement. He must set intelligence and will to the task.

Signed:

J.A.C. Fagginer Auer, E. Burdette Backus, Harry Elmer Barnes, L.M. Birkhead, Raymond B. Bragg, Edwin Arthur Burt, Ernest Caldecott, A.J. Carlson, John Dewey, Albert C. Dieffenbach, John H. Dietrich, Bernard Fantus, William Floyd, F.H. Hankins, A. Eustace Haydon, Llewellyn Jones, Robert Morss Lovett, Harold P. Marley, R. Lester Mondale, Charles Francis Potter, John Herman Randall, Jr. and Curtis W. Reese.

END OF QUOTING.

Now, as you read over this which was projected in 1933 you will not find great and magnificent gaps in growth and truth of the situation which was already under way. It was the beginning of integration with the Communist Manifesto and Protocols of the Zionist Elders of Wisdom. Remember, the Adversary doesn't care how long it takes to get things aligned into his way as long as there is steady growth through three full generations for all that man HAS ARE HIS "SENSES" BY WHICH TO GUIDE HIS DIRECTION. So, let us write on and see how things begin to take on more form. Let us move about forty years forward from 1933 and see about the:

HUMANIST MANIFESTO II

QUOTE:

PREFACE: It is forty years since Humanist Manifesto I appeared. Events since then make that earlier statement far too optimistic. Nazism has shown the depths of brutality of which humanity is capable. Other totalitarian regimes have suppressed human rights without ending poverty. Science has sometimes brought evil as well as good. Recent decades have shown that inhuman wars can be made in the name of peace. The beginnings of police states, even in democratic societies, widespread government espionage, and other abuses of power by military, political and industrial elites, and the continuance of unyielding racism, all present a different and difficult social outlook. In various societies, the demands of women and minority groups for equal rights effectively challenge our generation.

As we approach the twenty-first century, however, an affirmative and hopeful vision is needed. Faith, commensurate with advancing knowledge, is also necessary. In the choice between despair and hope, humanists respond in this Humanist Manifesto II with a positive declaration for times of uncertainty.

As in 1933, humanists still believe that traditional theism, especially faith in the prayer-hearing God, assumed to love and care for persons, to hear and understand their prayers and to be able to do something about them, is an unproven and outmoded faith. Salvationism based on more affirmation, still appears as harmful, diverting people with false hopes of heaven hereafter. Reasonable minds look to other means for survival.

Those who sign Humanist Manifesto II disclaim that they are setting forth a binding credo; their individual views would be stated in widely varying ways. This statement is, however, reaching for vision in a time that needs direction. It is social analysis in an effort at consensus. New statements should be developed to supersede this, but for today it is our conviction that humanism offers an alternative that can serve present-day needs and guide humankind toward the future. Signed:

PAUL KURTS, Editor; EDWIN H. WILSON, Editor Emeritus
THE HUMANIST

The next century can be and should be the humanistic century. Dramatic scientific, technological, and ever-accelerating social and political changes crowd our awareness. We have virtually conquered the planet, explored the moon, overcome the natural limits of travel and communication: we stand at the dawn of a new age; ready to move farther into space and perhaps inhabit other planets. Using technology wisely, we can control our environment, conquer poverty, markedly reduce disease, extend our life span, significantly modify our behavior, alter the course of human evolution and cultural development, unlock vast new powers, and provide humankind with unparalleled opportunity...

The future is, however, filled with dangers. In learning to apply the scientific method to nature and human life, we have opened the door to ecological damage, overpopulation, dehumanizing institutions, totalitarian repression, and nuclear and biochemical disaster. Faced with apocalyptic prophecies and doomsday scenarios, many flee in despair from reason and embrace irrational cults and theologies of withdrawal and retreat.

Traditional moral codes and newer irrational cults both fail to meet the pressing need of today and tomorrow. False "theologies of hope" and messianic ideologies, substituting new dogmas for old, cannot cope with existing world realities. They separate rather than unite peoples.

Humanity, to survive, requires bold and daring measures. We need to extend the uses of scientific method, not renounce them, to fuse reason with compassion in order to build constructive social and moral values.

Confronted by many possible futures, we must decide which to pursue. The ultimate goal should be the fulfillment of the potential for growth in each human personality--not for the favored few, but for all of humankind. Only a shared world and global measures will suffice.

A humanist outlook will tap the creativity of each human being and provide the vision and courage for us to work together. This outlook emphasizes the role human beings can play in their own spheres of action. The decades ahead call for dedicated, clear-minded men and women able to marshal the will, intelligence, and cooperative skills for shaping a desirable future. Humanism can provide the purpose and inspiration that so many seek; it can give personal meaning and significance to human life.

Many kinds of humanism exist in the contemporary world. The varieties and emphasis of naturalistic humanism include "scientific", "ethical", "democratic", "religious", and "Marxist" humanism. Free thought, atheism, agnosticism, skepticism, deism, rationalism, ethical culture, and liberal religion all claim to be heir to the humanist tradition. Humanism traces its roots from ancient China, classical Greece and Rome, through the Renaissance and the Enlightenment, to the scientific revolution of the modern world. But views that merely reject theism are not equivalent to humanism. They lack commitment to the positive belief in the possibilities of human progress and to the values central to it. Many within religious groups, believing in the future of humanism, now claim humanist credentials. Humanism is an ethical process through which we all can move, above and beyond the divisive particulars, heroic personalities, dogmatic creeds, and ritual customs of past religions or their mere negation.

We affirm a set of common principles that can serve as a basis for united action--positive principles relevant to the present human condition. They are a design for a secular society on a planetary scale.

For these reasons, we submit this new Humanist Manifesto for the future of humankind; for us, it is a vision of hope, a direction for satisfying survival.

RELIGION

First: In the best sense, religion may inspire dedication to the highest ethical ideals. The cultivation of moral devotion and creative imagination is an expression of genuine "spiritual" experience and aspiration.

We believe, however, that traditional dogmatic or authoritarian religions that place revelation, God, ritual, or creed above human needs and experience do a disservice to the human species. Any account of nature should pass the tests of scientific evidence; in our judgment, the dogmas and myths of traditional religions do not do so. Even at this late mandate in human history, certain elementary facts based upon the critical use of scientific reason have to be restated. We find insufficient evidence for belief in the existence of a supernatural; it is either meaningless or irrelevant to the question of the survival and fulfillment of the human race. As non-theists, we begin with humans not God, nature not deity. Nature may indeed be broader and deeper than we now know; any new discoveries, however, will but enlarge our knowledge of the natural.

Some humanists believe we should reinterpret traditional religions and reinvest them with meanings appropriate to the current situation. Such redefinitions, however, often perpetuate old dependencies and escapisms; they easily become obscurantist, impeding the free use of the intellect. We need, instead, radically new human purposes and goals.

We appreciate the need to preserve the best ethical teachings in religious traditions of humankind, many of which we share in common. But we reject those features of traditional religious morality that deny humans a full appreciation of their own potentialities and responsibilities. Traditional religions often offer solace to humans, but, as often, they inhibit humans from helping themselves or experiencing their full potentialities. Such institutions, creeds, and rituals often impede the will to serve others. Too often traditional faiths encourage dependence rather than independence, obedience rather than affirmation, fear rather than courage. More recently they have generated concerned social action, with many signs of relevance appearing in the wake of the "God Is Dead" theologies. But we can discover no divine purpose or providence for the human species. While there is much that we do not know, humans are responsible for what we are or will become. No deity will save us; we must save ourselves.

[Hatonn: As we move through here, please take note of the most subtle use of that which is TRUTH and swinging it into a negative aspect in practice. This is not the concept of "save self" that is TRUTH; this a full intent to separate the human from God in total.]

Second: Promises of immortal salvation or fear of eternal damnation are both illusory and harmful. They distract humans from present concerns, from self-actualization, and from rectifying social injustices. Modern science discredits such historic concepts as the "ghost in the machine" and the "separable soul". Rather, science affirms that the human species is an emergence from natural evolutionary forces. As far as we know, the total personality is a function of the biological organism transacting in a social and cultural context. There is no credible evidence that life survives the death of the body. We continue to exist in our progeny and in the way that our lives have influenced others in our culture.

Traditional religions are surely not the only obstacles to human progress. Other ideologies also impede human advance. Some forms of political doctrine, for instance, function religiously, reflecting the worst features of orthodoxy and authoritarianism, especially when they sacrifice individuals on the altar of Utopian promises. Purely economic and political viewpoints, whether capitalist or communist, often function as religious and ideological dogma. Although humans undoubtedly need economic and political goals, they also need creative values by which to live.

ETHICS

Third: We affirm that moral values derive their source from human experience. Ethics is autonomous and situational, needing no theological or ideological sanction. Ethics stems from human need and interest. To deny this distorts the whole basis of life. Human life has meaning because we create and develop our futures. Happiness and the creative realization of human needs and desires, individually and in shared enjoyment, are continuous themes of humanism. We strive for the good life, here and now.

The goal is to pursue life's enrichment despite debasing forces of vulgarization, commercialization, bureaucratization, and dehumanization.

Fourth: Reason and intelligence are the most effective instruments that humankind possess. There is no substitute; neither faith nor passion suffices in itself. The controlled use of scientific methods, which has transformed the natural and social sciences since the Renaissance, must be extended further in the solution of human problems. But reason must be tempered by humility, since no group has a monopoly of wisdom or virtue. Nor is there any guarantee that all problems can be solved or all questions answered. Yet critical intelligence, infused by a sense of human caring is the best method that humanity has for resolving problems. Reason should be balanced with compassion and empathy and the whole person fulfilled. Thus, we are not advocating the use of scientific intelligence independent of or in opposition to emotion, for we believe in the cultivation of feeling and love. As science pushes back the boundary of the known, man's sense of wonder is continually renewed, and art, poetry, and music find their places, along with religion and ethics.

THE INDIVIDUAL

Fifth: The preciousness and dignity of the individual person is a central humanist value. Individuals should be encouraged to realize their own creative talents and desires. We reject all religious, ideological, or moral codes that denigrate the individual, suppress freedom, dull intellect, dehumanize personality. We believe in maximum individual autonomy consonant with social responsibility. Although science can account for the causes of behavior, the possibilities of individual freedom of choice exist in human life and should be increased.

Sixth: In the area of sexuality, we believe that intolerant attitudes, often cultivated by orthodox religions and puritanical cultures, unduly repress sexual conduct. The right to birth control, abortion, and divorce should be recognized. While we do not approve of exploitive, denigrating forms of sexual expression, neither do we wish to prohibit, by law or social sanction, sexual behavior between consenting adults. The many varieties of sexual exploration should not in themselves be considered "evil". Without countenancing mindless permissiveness or unbridled promiscuity, a civilized society should be a tolerant one. Short of harming others or compelling them to do likewise, individuals should be permitted to express their sexual proclivities and pursue their life-styles as they desire. We wish to cultivate the development of a responsible attitude toward sexuality, in which humans are not exploited as sexual objects, and in which intimacy, sensitivity, respect, and honesty in interpersonal relations are encouraged. Moral education for children and adults is an important way of developing awareness and sexual maturity.

DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Seventh: To enhance freedom and dignity the individual must experience a full range of civil liberties in all societies. This includes freedom of speech and the press, political democracy, the legal right of opposition to governmental policies, fair judicial process, religious liberty, freedom of association, and artistic, scientific, and cultural freedom. It also includes a recognition of an individual's right to die with dignity, euthanasia, and the right to suicide. We oppose the increasing invasion of privacy, by whatever means, in both totalitarian and democratic societies. We would safeguard, extend, and implement the principles of human freedom evolved from the Magna Carta to the Bill of Rights of Man, and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Eighth: We are committed to an open and democratic society. We must extend participatory democracy in its true sense to the economy, the school, the family, the workplace, and voluntary associations. Decision-making must be decentralized to include widespread involvement of people at all levels--social, political, and economic. All persons should have a voice in developing the values and goals that determine their lives. Institutions should be responsive to expressed desires and needs. The conditions of work, education, devotion, and play should be humanized. Alienating forces should be modified or eradicated and bureaucratic structures should be held to a minimum. People are more important than decalogues, rules, proscriptions, or regulations.

Ninth: The separation of church and state and the separation of ideology and state are imperatives. The state should encourage maximum freedom for different moral, political, religious, and social values in society. It should not favor any particular religious bodies through the use of public monies, nor espouse a single ideology and function thereby as an instrument of propaganda or oppression, particularly against dissenters.

Tenth: Humane societies should evaluate economic systems not by rhetoric or ideology, but by whether or not they increase economic well-being for all individuals and groups, minimize poverty and hardship, increase the sum of human satisfaction, and enhance the quality of life. Hence the door is open to alternative economic systems. We need to democratize the economy and judge it by its responsiveness to human needs, testing results in terms of the common good.

Eleventh: The principle of moral equality must be furthered through elimination of all discrimination based upon race, religion, sex, age, or national origin. This means equality of opportunity and recognition of talent and merit. Individuals should be encouraged to contribute to their own betterment. If unable, then society should provide means to satisfy their basic economic, health and cultural needs, including, wherever resources make possible, a minimum guaranteed annual income. We are concerned for the welfare of the aged, the infirm, the disadvantaged, and also for the outcasts--the mentally retarded, abandoned, or abused children, the handicapped, prisoners, and addicts--for ALL who are neglected or ignored by society. Practicing humanists should make it their vocation to humanize personal relations.

We believe in the right to universal education. Everyone has a right to the cultural opportunity to fulfill his or her unique capacities and talents. The schools should foster satisfying and productive living. They should be open in all levels to any and all, the achievement of excellence should be encouraged. Innovative and experimental forms of education are to be welcomed. The energy and idealism of the young deserve to be appreciated and channeled to constructive purposes.

We deplore racial, religious, ethnic, or class antagonisms. Although we believe in cultural diversity and encourage racial and ethnic pride, we reject separations which promote alienation and set people and groups against each other; we envision an integrated community where people have a maximum opportunity for free and voluntary association.

We are critical of sexism or sexual chauvinism--male or female. We believe in equal rights for both women and men to fulfill their unique careers and potentialities as they see fit, free of invidious discrimination.

WORLD COMMUNITY

Twelfth: We deplore the division of humankind on nationalistic grounds. We have reached a turning point in human history where the best option is to transcend the limits of national sovereignty and move toward the building of a world community based upon transnational federal government. This would appreciate cultural pluralism and diversity. It could not exclude pride in national origins and accomplishments nor the handling of regional problems on a regional basis. Human progress, however, can no longer be achieved by focusing on one section of the world. Western or Eastern, developed or underdeveloped, for the first time in human history, no part of humankind can be isolated from any other. Each person's future is in some way linked to all. We thus reaffirm a commitment to the building of a world community, at the same time recognizing that this commits us to some hard choices.

Thirteenth: This world community must renounce the resort to violence and force as a method of solving international disputes. We believe in the peaceful adjudication of differences by international courts and by the development of the arts of negotiation and compromise. War is obsolete. So is the use of nuclear, biological, and chemical weapons. It is a planetary imperative to reduce the level of military expenditures and turn these savings to peaceful and people-oriented uses.

Fourteenth: The world community must engage in cooperative planning concerning the use of rapidly depleting resources. The planet Earth must be considered a single ecosystem. Ecological damage, resource depletion, and excessive population growth must be checked by international concord. The cultivation and conservation of nature is a moral value; we should perceive ourselves as integral to the sources of our being in nature. We must free our world from needless pollution and waste, responsibly guarding and creating wealth, both natural and human. Exploitation of natural resources, uncurbed by social conscience, must end.

Fifteenth: The problems of economic growth and development can no longer be resolved by one nation alone; they are worldwide in scope. It is the moral obligation of the developed nations to provide--through an international authority that safeguards human rights--massive technical, agricultural, medical and economic assistance, including birth control techniques to the developing portions of the globe. World poverty must cease. Hence extreme disproportions in wealth, income, and economic growth should be reduced on a worldwide basis.

Sixteenth: Technology is a vital key to human progress and development. We deplore any neo-romantic efforts to condemn indiscriminately all technology and science or to counsel retreat from its further extension and use for the good of humankind. We would resist any moves to censor basic scientific research on moral, political, or social grounds. Technology must, however, be carefully judged by the consequences of its use; harmful and destructive changes should be avoided. We are particularly disturbed when technology and bureaucracy control, manipulate, or modify human beings without their consent. Technological feasibility does not imply social or cultural desirability.

Seventeenth: We must expand communication and transportation across frontiers. Travel restrictions must cease. The world must be open to diverse political, ideological, and moral viewpoints and evolve a worldwide system of television and radio for information and education. We thus call for full international cooperation in culture, science, the arts, and technology across ideological borders. We must learn to live openly together or we shall perish together.

HUMANITY AS A WHOLE

In closing: The world cannot wait for a reconciliation of competing political or economic systems to solve its problems. These are the times for men and women of good will to further the building of a peaceful and prosperous world. We urge that parochial loyalties and inflexible moral and religious ideologies be transcended. We urge recognition of the common humanity of all people. We further urge the use of reason and compassion to produce the kind of world we want--a world in which peace, prosperity, freedom, and happiness are widely shared. Let us not abandon that vision in despair or cowardice. We are responsible for what we are or will be. Let us work together for a humane world by means commensurate with humane ends. Destructive ideological differences among communism, capitalism, socialism, conservatism, liberalism, and radicalism should be overcome. Let us call for an end to terror and hatred. We will survive and prosper only in a world of shared humane values. We can initiate new directions for humankind; ancient rivalries can be superseded by broad-based cooperative efforts. The commitment to tolerance, understanding, and peaceful negotiation does not necessitate revolutionary forces. The true revolution is occurring and can continue in countless non-violent adjustments. But this entails the willingness to step forward onto new and expanding plateaus. At the present juncture of history, commitment to all humankind is the highest commitment of which we are capable; it transcends the narrow allegiances of church, state, party, class, or race in moving toward a wider vision of human potentiality. What more daring a goal for humankind than for each person to become, in ideal as well as practice, a citizen of a world community. It is a classical vision; we can now give it new vitality. Humanism thus interpreted is a moral force that has time on its side. We believe that humankind has the potential intelligence, good will, and cooperative skill to implement this commitment in the decades ahead.

We, the undersigned, while not necessarily endorsing every detail of the above, pledge our general support to Humanist Manifesto II for the future of humankind. These affirmations are not a final credo or dogma but an expression of a living and growing faith. We invite others in all lands to join us in further developing and working for these goals.

[The listed signers will be herein deleted but can be made available. There are three pages in the list and it is very time and space consuming to list them all.]

END OF QUOTING

What EXACTLY did this say? I thought not. Go back and reread it and then you can tell me EXACTLY what it says and means? Thank you. It DOES say everything and absolutely NOTHING. Does it not remind you of something out of ALICE IN WONDERLAND? SURELY THIS IS NOT THE SAME CIVILIZATION OF HUMANS I HAVE ENCOUNTERED! FURTHER, YOU CAN ACCOMPLISH THE SAME GOALS OF BALANCE AND HARMONY (WHICH THIS WILL DO NOTHING TO ENHANCE AND EVERYTHING TO DESTROY) BY FOLLOWING THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD AND THE BALANCE OF THE CREATION--THE NATURAL LAWS OF CREATION (NATURE). DOES ANYONE ACTUALLY THINK YOU WILL BRING HARMONY, TRUTH, BALANCE AND LIVE HAPPILY EVER-AFTER BY DELETING GOD FROM THE EQUATION? DO YOU THINK THE WOULD-BE KINGS (ELITE BANKERS) WILL LEAVE YOU ALONE IN ALL THIS WONDROUS HARMONY AND WORLD COMMUNITY?

IT IS TRULY SERIOUS, CHELAS, AND IT IS TIME YOU AWAKENED. THE SIGNATORIES ON THIS DOCUMENT ARE PREDOMINANTLY (98%) PROFESSORS OF EDUCATION.

Dharma, there is no time to continue this at this sitting. However, before this goes to press we must add the checklist in analysis of the traditional belief system of Biblical Law (as presented, suffices) versus the comprehensive belief system of Humanism. You will find it interesting if nothing more.

You must understand that I get loads of nasty slings and arrows from ones who say, "Well, alright for the Communists, the Protocols and those sorts of things--WE have come up with the perfect answer--The Humanist Teachings."

NOT ONLY DOES GOD ASK YOU TO BECOME TOTALLY INFORMED BUT IS VERY HAPPY TO SUPPLY YOU WITH THE INFORMATION. GOD ENCOURAGES ALL INFORMATION FOR IT ONLY CAUSES TRUTH TO MAKE ITSELF PRESENT AND INDISPUTABLE ON ITS OWN MERIT. BUT YOU HAVE TO READ CAREFULLY ALL OF IT, NOT JUST THE PORTIONS YOU WANT TO CHOOSE. It is much like the bills which go before Congress--portions are heinous while perhaps one tiny portion is worthy and yet to have one you are forced to have them ALL. MAN CANNOT HAVE IT ALL FOR I BELIEVE YOU WILL NOTE--IT ALL SUMS UP TO "TAKING" AND NEVER THROUGH "GIVING". SO BE IT.

I need to have the floor briefly at this afternoon's meeting for there is serious intent to begin right away to utilize the Cosmospheeres in an attempt to bring the whole world into unity in defense of the planet. This is WHY ones like Cooper must get more and more aggressive and excessive in denouncement of Truth. This is to be the unifying thrust now, into one world control (against a common enemy which is already invented and ready for the presentation). This roller-coaster is just about to pick up speed and become even more interesting. Cooper is sent forth on a mission of disinformation regarding aliens and it is my objection to his conclusions which is causing him to react so incredibly foolishly--the time is upon you and he knows it. He must act rapidly, even if it requires outright lies, to maintain attention. Yes, I believe, George, that it is time to bring the true questioners of the alien command into some attention. What they plan to do to bring you into belief and control is horrendous indeed. Thank you for a long session, Dharma--but "time" grows so short.

Adonai.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

And They Called His Name Immanuel,
I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
Privacy In A Fishbowl
Cry Of The Phoenix
Crucifixion Of The Phoenix

Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25, and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount,

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XV NUMBER 13

8/23/91 #1 HATONN

FRIDAY

PROOF?

Ah, children--beloved and wondrous. You demand "proof"? What gives you proof? Let me help you--proof is that which comes with KNOWING "within". You are in a time in increased illusion where a holograph scene can literally be placed on your balcony by your own beam system. You must understand, little ones, that we are sent forth from God to assist if we can. Our purpose is to set TRUTH out of the lies to allow you to fashion TRUTH for self and thus have "proof". Some of the brothers come aboard our craft have been birthed and matured aboard the craft while awaiting our need for service unto you for the higher "brothers" grow in their own progression by that service unto you. In the finer/higher frequency physical expression the knowledge is greater and it is their responsibility to be your guides--this is WHY the information is coming from the level of KNOWING in the Pleiadian Constellation for they ARE you--your ancestors. Ones come from all over the firmament but the human species as you recognize form--is from the Constellation of Pleiades and those of you grown in Knowledge and yet not fulfilled in KNOWING to be literally in the oneness with God--will be brought home again--to Pleiades. God went forth to prepare a place for you and so He did. BUT NO EVIL INTENT WILL BE ALLOWED IN THAT PLACEMENT. IF THE INTENT REMAINS IN EVIL DIRECTION AGAINST THE LAWS AS LAID FORTH BY GOD AND THE CREATION, PLACEMENT WILL BE ELSEWHERE IN SUITABLE LOCATION TO MEET THE FURTHER GROWING OF YOUR BEING--INDIVIDUAL BY INDIVIDUAL--NONE OTHER CAN BEAR YOUR LESSONS.

I tell you that God has sent transportation for you if it needs be and it DOES need be for the Planet is not going to be suitable for life-forms if the activities of present, are continued. You think the Russian situation is settled and you will all live happily ever after? Nay--not so. The stupid facade was to cover the REAL COUP which was under way. The missiles were aimed and ready to fire. The CIVIL WAR IN THE SOVIET UNION IS NOW ABOUT READY TO BEGIN--YOU HAD BETTER CAREFULLY LISTEN TO WHAT MR. GORBACHEV (THIS NEW ONE) IS SAYING. HE HAS NO INTENTION OF LEAVING COMMUNISM, AND WHERE WERE ALL THOSE MILITARY ALLIES? Where WAS the General who NOW heads the military? Oh indeed--you will need some good transportation before it's all over. In addition the government plans to blast a few of your cities and blame space brothers--mark it today for the plan is already UNDER WAY for they can no longer hide the PRESENCE. To discount God they will produce some of these little gray aliens and spacecraft shaped vehicles and kill a bunch of your own people.

The hope is to work a deal with the Russians to utilize the Cosmo-spheres--but Russia is not so stupid--yet. Note that Russia is still taking out your sensor satellites which monitor nuclear detonations.

I do give you this--Gorbachev was in bad trouble for his song has only changed since his "return". This functions around Pamyat I and Pamyat II and deals with how the Russian nationalist anti-Bolshevik forces have been consolidating their strength under the PAMYAT and SOYUZ umbrella. Soyuz is the organization of high-ranking Soviet army officers who joined Pamyat in a struggle to rid the Soviet Union of Bolshevism. This has all been well outlaid to you by one of your own brothers--John Coleman in report after report to all who would listen and regularly to consumers who read INSIDER REPORT, WORLD ECONOMIC REVIEW and WORLD INTELLIGENCE REVIEW. How do I know? I know because I know John Coleman and we are bringing him within our umbrella of security at this very moment. It really IS NOT so bad to be associated with GOD and TRUTH.

This Gorbachev that is speaking to the world after his horrible "ordeal" is not the Gorbachev which was on vacation. So, you had better look again, world--you are closer to war than you can imagine in your wildest dreams. While a coup was planned and your bunch sidetracked and turned it into a world farce--the real coup took place in high places--it is all done except for the blood letting and that will come when you least expect it!

Proof? I need prove NOTHING to any of you. Why do you desire that I prove something to YOU? Why do you not make the ones who feed you lies--PROVE SOMETHING TO YOU? Why do you not make them show you a place in the "good book" that even mentions the word "Rapture"? Oh, you say, well, it was mistranslated? Oh? What are you going to do up there in the clouds? They will be radioactive, surely you know!

Well, why would a coup be thwarted or changed or anything? Because your Congress is on vacation and a budget is coming and everything dirty has to be done while Congress is asleep. So, in a few words--Bush wants to conclude a big sell-out of United States security before Gorbachev is toppled. The CFR knows that when the Soviet military takes over Russia, there will be a far lesser chance of rapidly bringing about the much desired One World Government. Bush believes that the top leaders of the Soviet Union will keep their promises and the hope of the New World Elite is that the Soviet Armed Forces will be bound by agreements signed at the summit. You are trapped, why not Russia?

Even your non-news press and media are beginning to grumble that there is rotten fish afoot in all this maneuvering and while you are all buying Gorby dolls and shouting how wonderful it all is--the enemy is working as fast as they can and you keep trying to launch a sensor satellite so you can blast these poor souls into oblivion--BUT, THEY HAVE EXCELLENT SURVIVAL SHELTERS (YOU DO NOT!) AND THEY HAVE EVERY MISSILE PINPOINTED AND A RETALIATION MISSILE AIMED--EVERY SITE WHERE THERE IS AN MX MISSILE WILL GET "IT". Russia does not want to sign these treaties because they have a dandy space capable system that will bring the payload to your door yard and struck or not by defensive missiles--will immediately scatter their own payload which is made up of many nuclear powered/nuclear war-headed scatter missiles which can travel in every direction and have independent guidance systems. If you intercept one of these to blow it up--you only assist in the distribution of the payload.

Then why would the Elite start such a war with the Russians? Because they know the ONLY HOPE for anything called "survival" and success, is to have a surprise first strike against them and hopefully knock out these installations and bases. You won't fare well even if that happens for the Russians have a massive submarine fleet with huge craft that fire many nuclear missiles and THEY SURROUND YOUR NATION OFF SHORE.

No, dear ones, what you "see" and think YOU can "prove" will be shown as illusion far too soon for your adequate preparation as a nation. The person you watched in Maine was NOT the one who you have "even recently" seen at the Capitol or at Camp David--that one, who heads the rest, was safely tucked away in a bunker city in total security.

Now, if you ones desire "EARTH TRUTH" of this information from ones with the information--and a continuing source of inside information--FROM EARTH, I ask you to get the above mentioned reports. It will do two things--it will allow you to have truth which you can confirm at your level of understanding and I CAN GET ON WITH OUR WORK OF TELLING YOU ABOUT GOD AND CREATION.

I will "prove" nothing to anyone and, further, I am going to cease answering the letters which only badger, insult and defame my people. All of you have total choice of free-will action and belief. I ask you to do nothing, go nowhere nor believe me and/or God. I am simply here to tell you "HOW IT IS", no more and no less. If you think it better to blame evil of 2,000 years past and dump your responsibility and "sins" onto a murdered God--so be it. If you think a nice nest in the floating clouds is the way to go--so be it. I will certainly leave you alone if you will leave mine alone. But remember something--THERE ARE MIGHTY FEW ATHEISTS IN A FOXHOLE WITH A NUCLEAR BOMB HEADED THEIR WAY! You-the-people have been deceived, lied to and stolen from--from your heritage as an immortal being to your very bank account. Is it not time you looked around?

Did you not notice them flashing the term: "Armageddon"? These past few days it was in most common use--you see, the planners had planned for a massive blood-bath and the REAL COUP PLANNERS SHUT IT DOWN AND GAVE YOU NO CAUSE TO INVADE. Note also that the whole bunch of playwrights calculated that Saddam Hussein would give excuse to bomb him to oblivion, also, and save the face of the ones who have $250 BILLION split with that gentleman and the world wouldn't find out until after the fact when you are hog-tied and cannot do a thing about your national plight!

I am asking America West to please see what they can do to locate and somehow make available the Insider Report, World Economic Review, and World Intelligence Review as well as all individual "Subject" documents. These MUST be made available to our PHOENIX readers. You need confirmation as the blade comes down across your necks.

I am going this route for the author is going to go completely under-cover and a news bulletin will be sent via the publisher regarding continuation of the information for the Publisher will, also, NOT KNOW WHERE THIS MAN IS. THIS IS WHAT YOUR NATION HAS COME TO, MY FRIENDS-- A MAN AND FAMILY MUST BE LITERALLY HIDDEN AND BECOME PRISONERS WITHIN THEIR OWN CELLS--TERRORIZED, ALL MAIL OPENED, CENSORED AND MONITORED (AND MOREOVER, THE OFFICIALS INFORMED HIM OF SAME WITH GREAT AMUSEMENT). YOUR ROPE IS UNFURLED, AMERICA--YOU DANGLE AT THE VERY FRAYED END OF IT WITH THE BOILING RADIOACTIVE OIL IN THE CAULDRON WAITING FOR YOU TO FALL OFF.

WHAT HAPPENED IN RUSSIA?

Let me quote from a flash bulletin to the readers of the above mentioned publications. You of our readers will already have the information but perhaps you do need a bit of confirmation that I bring TRUTH!

"...The crisis of dual structure in the USSR has become a full-blown crisis, every effort by the Bolsheviks to stop it having failed...This is what threatens Gorbachev and his cozy relations with the U.S., and particularly with Bush, whom PAMYAT'S Dimitri Vasiliev describes as "the em*bodiment of a typical Zionist lackey". If Gorbachev does not heed the "advice" of his military men and break with Washington, GORBACHEV WILL BE DITCHED BY THE END OF 1991 OR IN 1992, and the world could be headed for the Third World War...If Gorbachev chooses the latter course, then we can be certain that the Second Russian Revolution, already begun will gather momentum, and this time it will be a genuine Russian revolution.*

"Right now Pamyat and its allies are accusing Gorbachev of 'restoring the cancers of capitalism, rapid economic growth followed by inflation, higher prices, unemployment'...Certainly the army does not trust Yeltsin, whom one Pamyat member described as 'a self-seeking money-grabbing opportunist who will have to be carefully watched'."

The foregoing is only a small portion of the information contained in these Reports. Presidents Bush and Gorbachev knew that the hour was fast approaching where Gorbachev would be ousted, not by "hard line communists" but by Russian nationalist forces. It was critical to Bush to have Gorbachev remain in power to preserve unanimity at the United Nations. The very progress of the One World Government would be threatened if Gorbachev was ousted. The arms treaties would go by the board, especially the critical START treaty. Having seen what Pamyat and Soyuz did to Shevardnadze, Bush ordered the CIA to formulate a plan to counter the impending move to oust Gorbachev. Such a contingency plan was readied shortly before the Group of Seven summit in London.

This plan called for a pseudo coup to be launched against Gorbachev by "hardline communists". The stage was set for August 20th when the world was informed that Gor*bachev had been ousted. The truth is that the CIA was not "caught by surprise", such a statement is patently absurd. Moreover Gorbachev would not have been "ousted" while he was away from the Kremlin. Soviet tradition has it that deposed leaders are seized IN THE KREMLIN. The plan was to glorify Gorbachev who would be hailed as a "savior of the Russian people". His status in resisting the coup would be greatly enhanced and ensure that nobody in the USSR would ever again be able to challenge him. The second benefit would be that PAMYAT and SOYUZ would be divided by the defection of General Moisiyev to the Gorbachev camp. The head of the KGB, Vladimir Kryuchkov, would be greatly undermined. (The impact of this was lessened by Kryuchkov refusing to go along with the plot.) And so the great coup that never was, was sprung upon the people of the world. Unhappily, Gorbachev did not get the bloodshed he wanted, SOYUZ ordered troops not to fire on the people and countermanded Gorbachev's orders. In this manner, too, Boris Yeltsin's brave resistance lost some of its shine. We have not heard the end of this matter, but for now, Gorbachev emerges as a great hero, the Russian nationalists and "hardliners" are discredited and the New World Order is stronger than ever, Yeltsin's status enhanced. But this is only a lull in the storm. Those of you who saw CNN and wondered why Bush's national Security Advisor was grinning so widely as he and his boss entered the White House, now know why!*

[I, Hatonn, interrupt this dissertation prior to the next paragraph because I want to tell you that the plan executed puts you into water so deep and so hot that you should be boiling by now. I want to write the next paragraph and then comment.]

So well executed was the "coup", that even my expert sources were taken in for a few hours before they let me have these amazing facts. Full details will appear in World Intelligence Review and Insider Reports August (3) and (4), which will be mailed out shortly.

* * *

The "coup" was NOT well planned and the flaws are blatant. It does seem good enough to dupe most of a world--BUT, what is the outcome is as bad for the world as you can get. Mr. Gorbachev emerges (a new one or a very battered old one) who will put into power the very ones YOUR LEADERS DO NOT WANT IN POWER. He is now programmed to do exactly that and you will see the malcontent in the press and media very quickly now as "Mr. Bush's administration is not happy with the new appointments," etc. But YOU CAN'T DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT EXCEPT NOW MEET THE BLACKMAIL PAYMENTS--WITH MONEY AND FOOD. WATCH THE "WORLD" RALLY RIGHT OUT OF ENGLAND AND ALL THE UNITED NATIONS--AND "YOU", WHO CAN'T EVEN PAY YOUR UNEMPLOYED WORKERS AND/OR MEET YOUR WELFARE NEEDS. YOU HAVE NEVER BEEN IN A WORSE POSITION THAN THIS DAY, AMERICA--WORLD! WELL, THAT ISN'T SO--IT WILL WORSEN EVERY DAY NOW UNTIL SOMETHING "BLOWS". If you are alive to read this, I suggest you pause and thank God for that blessing!

BACK TO "HUMANISM"

I will finish the analysis of the teachings of Humanism against the traditional Biblical system. I am going to quote so do not take all the Biblical teachings or accepted views as higher Source affirmations. This comes right out of a very Earth-based author's book and I do not have space herein to further comment. This portion is taken from a book titled: GLOB-ALISM America's Demise, by William M. Bowen Jr., Huntington House Inc. (1984). The designation of "Biblical" will be "B" and the designation of "Humanism" will be "H" in efforts to save time and space:

QUOTE: ANALYSIS

B: God, creation, morality, the fallen state of man, and the free-enterprise system.

H: Humanism teaches--total hostile rejection of traditional beliefs and substitution of man, evolution, amorality, basic goodness of man, and one-world system in its place.

B: God has written His values (the Bible) and if man follows he will be prosperous and have life, (love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, kindness, dependability, goodness and self-control).

H: Humanism teaches--man to follow his own changing values and be responsible for the consequences of his actions (abortion, illegitimate births, lesbianism, homosexuality, murder, hatred, strife, contention--in general--let it all hang out). Read Romans 1:22-32.

B: God has made man in His image--spirit, soul and body to be in fellowship with Him.

H: Humanism teaches--Man is an animal (soul and body) and needs only to be rightly related with himself.

B: God is Supreme Being.

H: Humanism denies existence of God.

B: God is the Supreme Being, therefore faith and trust are in Him.

H: Humanism teaches man is Supreme Being, therefore faith and trust is in Man.

B: God does not change (there is certainty) therefore this system includes law which defines certainty.

H: Humanism teaches--there is no certainty because there is constant change (evolution), therefore law must be continually changed to the whims of man who is the Supreme Being.

B: God is a supernatural being, omnipotent (all powerful), omnipresent (present everywhere), omniscient (knowledge of everything).

H: Humanism teaches psychic phenomena to give man (Supreme Being) the sense (feeling) of being supernatural.

B: We have to ultimately answer directly to God for our actions.

H: Humanism teaches--the individual need answer only to himself. He is his own judge.

B: Life after Death.

H: Denies life after death.

B: Lying is wrong.

H: Lying is a relative term and therefore doesn't exist if the person thinks it is OK. (The end justifies the means.)

B: There is a devil (Satan).

H: Denies existence of a devil (Satan).

B: God's name should not be profaned.

H: Humanism allows profaning God's name since it is just an expression. God does not exist.

B: Man is basically evil, separated from God and God has to determine a set of values for him.

H: Humanism teaches--Man is basically good and therefore is able to determine his own best values by himself.

B: The law is the authority that establishes the boundary of conduct.

H: Humanism teaches--no man need recognize ANY authority beyond himself.

B: God has freely given, (by grace) the law (so that we might not sin) and Jesus Christ (so that man can be reconciled by God).

H: Humanism teaches--there is no sin and man needs to be reconciled only to himself, (self-actualization, self-realization).

B: Man is able to receive the benefits of God's grace by faith and enjoy all of its privileges.

H: Humanism teaches--Man's faith is in himself and he must stand up for his rights over and against others.

B: Where there is jealousy (suspicion) and strife there is disorder and every evil thing.

H: Humanism teaches--question the decisions of those in authority (teacher, parents) and role play strife and contention.

B: God has established an order, a framework, within which there is a governing authority which provides peace and tranquility.

H: Humanism teaches--Man's peace and tranquility is within himself and therefore he is his own authority.

B: Men and women are different.

H: Humanism teaches--men and women are the same.

B: The family is the basic unit of society. The family has responsibilities to fulfill physical necessities.

H: Humanism teaches--the individual is the basic unit of society. The society has responsibilities to fulfill the individual's physical necessities.

B: The legal age of majority is twenty-one years-old.

H: Humanism teaches--a child is able to determine his own best values at any age. (Efforts are now being made to lower the age of statutory rape to 14 years old.)

B: GOD IS LOVE.

H: SEX IS LOVE.

B: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. (Forgiveness is required here.)

H: Humanism teaches--we are over populated and must stop having babies. (Zero population growth and Planned parenthood.)

B: Sex is a beautiful relationship between husband wife who have become one flesh.

H: Sex is a physical animal need that must be gratified in any way that the person deems best.

B: The sovereignty of each nation to govern itself.

H: Humanism teaches--one-world system ruled by an intellectual elite. (The Humanists.)

B: There are absolute rights and wrongs, therefore:

A. Guilt and shame result when a person does something wrong (sin) according to that which is written (the law).

B. Forgiveness and/or punishment relieves guilt and shame.

H: Humanism teaches--there are no absolute rights and wrongs, therefore:

A. No guilt and shame exist because no one can do any wrong (sin). Wrong (sin) does not exist, therefore guilt and shame should not exist.

B. No need for forgiveness and/or punishment.

B: Certain, absolute moral values: Incest is wrong.

H: Humanism teaches uncertain, amoral values: Incest is OK.

B: Prostitution is wrong.

H: Prostitution is OK.

B: Abortion-on-demand is wrong.

H: Abortion-on-demand is OK.

B: Homosexuality (sodomy) is wrong.

H: Homosexuality (sodomy) is OK.

B: Lesbianism (sodomy) is wrong.

H: Lesbianism (sodomy) is OK.

B: Sex outside marriage (fornication, adultery, etc.) is wrong.

H: Sex outside marriage (fornication, adultery, etc.) is OK.

B: Masturbation is wrong.

H: Masturbation is OK.

B: Public nudity is wrong.

H: Public nudity is OK.

B: Sensuality and sexual intercourse should be in private.

H: Sensuality and sexual intercourse in public is OK.

B: Pornography is wrong.

H: Pornography is OK.

B: Use of drugs is wrong.

H: Use of drugs is OK. (Working to change narcotics laws.)

B: Suicide is wrong.

H: Suicide is OK and is encouraged.

B: Killing of old people and sick persons (euthanasia) is wrong.

H: Killing of old people and sick persons (euthanasia) is OK and is encouraged.

B: Masochism and sadism is wrong.

H: Masochism and sadism is OK.

Continuation of quoting: This is by no means the complete list.

In Humanist Magazine (Nov./Dec. 1980) author Riane Eisler says: "It is absurd to say...that one is a humanist but not a feminist...feminism is the last evolutionary development of humanism. Feminism is humanism on its most advanced level." Riane Eisler wrote THE EQUAL RIGHTS (ERA) HANDBOOK.

Karl Marx's own definition of Humanism reads: "Humanism is the denial of God, and the total affirmation of man...Humanism is really nothing else but Marxism."--Karl Marx, ECONOMIC POLITIQUE ET PHILOSOPHIE, VOL. I, PAGES 38-40.

"Soviet society today is the real embodiment of the ideas of proletarian, socialist humanism."--On the Policy of the Soviet Union and the International Situation by Leonid Brezhnev, prepared by the Novosti Press Agency Publishing House, Moscow--Doubleday & Co., Inc., Garden City, N.Y. 1973, page 27.

END QUOTING.

Does all this mean that you are going to have to change your attitudes before God will lift you off your place in time of extreme change? YES. INDEED YES!

What you are being given in the current PLEIADIAN CONNECTIONS series is the Truth of how life WORKS. You will find that the physical is only related to that which is SENSED. Spiritual is that which is KNOWN. The two are hardly connected except that the physical body is an extension of the eternal Mind--for use of that mind in a physical environment--to serve.

Attitudes such as those considered "OK" in your slang terminology are simply not acceptable behaviors in the higher experience where the "body physical" is a most unimportant portion of experience. SENSED existence is a very "primal/primitive" state of Being.

To my beloved writer who feels me to be cruel and harsh because I question that her work is solely that of a projection of Sananda:

There are many passages which are incorrect and Sananda makes no errors except in the "testing" of the writer. It cannot pass into the public. There is, for instance, where Sananda proclaims that masturbation is not only wholesome but necessary. NO, that is an attitude of MAN. Is masturbation evil? It depends on the intent! It is certainly NOT SOMETHING MANDATORY TO GOOD HEALTH. I cannot sanction such a projection as coming directly from God for it simply is not so! Does this lessen the writer? NO, only the perception. It is very hard for mankind to come into clarity and accurate perception. Does this make the book evil and the author unworthy? No, it only means that the author is a human and that the book must not be published AS GIVEN DIRECTLY OF GOD--THAT, DEAR ONES, IS

WHAT IS INCORRECT ABOUT YOUR BIBLICAL REFERENCES--THEY HAVE BEEN TAMPERED BY MAN TO SUIT THE BELIEF OF MAN.

Any Earth person can publish anything they please and many are worthy of great note--however, if publishing is IN THE NAME OF DIRECT STATEMENT AND RULES FROM GOD--NO. It, further, is my responsibility to sort the two. Does this make the human author less my friend? Do I become cast out as a friend because I stop the flow of erroneous material? Would you consider me a friend to allow publication of material which is NOT correct to go forth and the soul of even ONE be misled?

The point is not in worthiness of either the writing or the person. The point is that no information which deviates to the iota from that which is the Truth of God is not of God directly. Those are errors perpetrated by the rest of us. Moreover, it has naught to do with the subject in point in actuality--it has everything to do with growth and understanding of the author.

Speaking FOR AND AS DIRECT DISCOURSE FROM GOD (and that is who Sananda IS) can only be brought through a willing non-participant writer. I say non-participant because it must be someone willing to write that which THEY MAY OR MAY NOT SANCTION--ACCORDING TO THE LAW, NO PREFERENCE OF HOW YOU WISH IT TO BE OR AS MAN HAS WARPED IT. We are not speaking of afternoon tea time reading material--WE ARE GIVING YOU THE LAWS OF HIGHER PLACEMENT WHEREBY YOU WILL BE ALLOWED TO JOIN THE HIGHER BROTHERS IN SECURITY AND SAFETY--FOR IN THE PLACES PREPARED FOR YOU, LITTLE BROTHERS--YOU WILL FUNCTION BY OUR RULES OR YOU WILL NOT COME ABOARD!

THAT IS INCLUSIVE OF PLAN-ETS, STARS, HEAVENLY REALMS AND MY STARSHIP-- WHICH BY THE WAY--IS FAR LARGER THAN IS YOUR PLANET EARTH!

I care not what YOU think about the "hereafter"--I KNOW what is there and I know about the prepared places and little human of Earth will abide by the Laws as laid forth and practiced by those where and with whom you will be placed--OR, you will be left to your own demise.

This simply is the way it IS and I cannot change it to suit your hurt feelings or arguments--WHAT IS--IS! WHO ARE YOU TO DEMAND ANYTHING? So be it--however, your Earth Shan gets in worse and worse condition, run by total chaos and insanity so, if I were you, I would begin to consider these points most carefully indeed.

In the Oneness with God, I am Hatonn.

8/24/91 #1 HATONN
SATURDAY

Hatonn present this early morning for we have walked among the birds and in the garden to welcome that which will come in a new day. God comes with me that we might come into communion so that the way is a bit smoothed and Lighted. Mitakuye oyasin.

I will speak very briefly on current subjects at hand for our lessons are more important regardless of that which you believe.

BILL COOPER'S PROJECTIONS

I am bombarded with inquiries as to "...what in the world is Cooper doing?" There are publications being circulated that project threatening aliens over Phoenix in the coming month. So, chelas, what is new? He has been sent forth to carry that projection so that you ones will come into panic and terror. I repeat: those aliens aligned with any in your government or replicas--are projected from Earth--not Cosmic Brotherhood sent forth in this time of Kali. Why Phoenix? Why indeed???? Because this is Cooper's best audience, no one in upcity Bronx would believe him for he has not lectured his misinformation in those areas. Indeed, the dastardly deal-doers might well terrorize those areas first which are receptive. But what is in Phoenix to gain through terror except the value of the terror itself? I suggest you all open your eyes because you have been "warned"; we have told you exactly how it will be presented and it is up to you what you do and if you will allow the controllers to continue to destroy your world and devastate your nation.

There were "intelligence" agents in the audience (as always) in Denver at the recent meeting wherein Cooper blasted and gave false information in an almost desperate attempt to discount the source of my scribe and America West with totally blatant personal attacks upon them. I want you to know something, however; these intelligence sources are sent originally by your government and Cooper got himself in great trouble with his own teachers this time for what he did was so obvious and desperate that it was noted and the network was alive with tattle-tales to his own resources.

What, if anything, does George Green intend to do about the defaming and character assault? I leave that to him but I believe over 400 witnesses to the name calling and deceit is so obvious that I suggest Cooper may be in an awkward position in view of prior THREATS against these ones. He has also threatened the lives of others who have no involvement with us nor are even known in any way by my scribe.

The man stands and says, "...yes, the information in the JOURNALS IS TRUE" and then tells the world that Dharma and Oberli have long prison records for "con" activities. Dharma does not even have so much as a traffic ticket in her 60 years. Worse, this man is programmed through his own addiction and can no more help what he does than he can fly with angel wings--YOUR WORLD IS UNDER ATTACK WITH SOPHISTICATED TECHNOLOGY THAT TRULY CAN BOGGLE THE MIND. Your Elite brotherhood of would-be kings plan a lot of things for September, not the least of which is to trigger the San Andreas fault. If they can get sensor satellites into the space location necessary to monitor central Russia, you will have a first strike attack against Russia with nuclear weapons. There will be incidents which I wrote of yesterday and the day before in an effort to unite the nations against this so-called threat from space aliens. You ones are in the depths of disinformation to the point of drowning.

I suggest you LISTEN TO WHAT THE SOVIET REPORTER FROM THE RUSSIAN NEWS IS TELLING YOU--"AMERICA GETS NO NEWS" AND "WE WERE ORDERED SHUT DOWN DURING THIS COUP WHICH WAS NOTHING BUT A LIE. BUT WE WENT UNDERGROUND AND FILMED ANYWAY." "AMERICA'S PRESIDENT SAID YOU HAVE NO INTELLIGENCE--BUT THERE ARE CIA AGENTS EVERYWHERE AND THEY KNEW EVERYTHING RIGHT TO THE PLANNING.", "WHY, IN 30 HOURS OUR TANKS COULD BE IN DOWNTOWN BERLIN." "AMERICA HAS BECOME A PLACE OF STUPID PEOPLE WHO EAT EVERYTHING FED TO THEM WORSE THAN THE WORST TIMES IN THE SOVIET UNION." I believe I need say nothing more--this man said it all, brothers. This little interview got on CNN and immediately they have begun trimming the statement. He even offered to "...fax information directly to the President so you won't suffer so badly from lack of intelligence information." He went even further when he said that, "...America and Great Britain will be responsible for trashing this world and all the people in it." So be it. He said, "This was the biggest farce he has ever even HEARD of and cannot yet believe it was played to an entire world and the world actually believed it." He continued: "...cannot change overnight in political and basic beliefs--you are all fools for the Soviets are embarrassed at what is now taking place before the American cameras between these two incredible actors."

I suggest it is no more incredible than that which takes place in front of you Americans every day while you march to the drums of the wardens. If you can look at the pictures that "slip out" of abuse by your police and still feel safe and secure, and watch the cold and lifeless face of a "Dahmer" and not believe you are in TROUBLE then it is difficult to have much hope for your national survival.

Now that it is getting a bit better known that Gritz will likely run for President, the assault against him has already begun--you who were in Denver to hear Cooper heard it first hand. Further, if you put him up for president through the Populist Party you will lose for the whole of the party is not what it appears to be. Get some patriots behind the cause and run him on an Independent ticket or he will end up as controlled as the other non-parties. It was a good place to "start"; it is infiltrated with would-be rulers and mercenaries, also, as is their publication. Enough is left untampered to give you reason to trust--but the foundation is long since corrupt. You must begin to read and receive everything with great discernment for this is a war of Minds--the physical aspect is only secondary but will also come, because the intent is to depopulate the orb.

Why do the adversaries allow themselves to lose control in such instances as Cooper and his speeches? Because evil cannot bear the presence of Truth and Light. The attack must always be at a man's integrity and ego foundation--but once in the Lighted Protection of God, the adversary can only make a fool of self and, in this instance, give at least 15 grounds for suit against him.

We have always welcomed the advertising for the JOURNALS until now, but the plans are so heinous that we must speak out. THERE ARE NO LITTLE GRAY COSMIC ALIENS--ALL THAT EVIL IS OF THE VERY BASIC PHYSICAL PLANE AND THEY ARE AND ORIGINATE RIGHT ON YOUR OWN PLANET. YOU HAVE PERFECTED THE DUPLICATION TECHNIQUES THROUGH DNA AND GENETIC ALTERATIONS TO THE EXTENT THAT YOU HAVE DEVELOPED YOUR OWN ENEMY AND THEY ARE CONTROLLED BY THE MAJOR ENEMY--THE ELITE CARTEL AND GOVERNMENTS WHO ALREADY CONTROL YOU.

You have developed what appear to be "space" craft. NO, you have only been given thrust systems utilizing nuclear mechanics and it keeps you totally bound to your solar system. Russia far outdoes America with space control--evil can only operate in terror and physical destruction. Since you have become a totally "sensing" population, you have forgotten how to respond and thusly, you react exactly as they have programmed you to react.

IF WE HAVE TIME--I will do a dissertation of "Brainwashing in America" as I did with the subject which was perfected in the Soviet Union--which we referred to as Psychopolitics. For now, however, we have taken two days from Germain and our most important subject of LIFE. I relinquish the forum and we will work out a method where perhaps each of us can have a daily session. That is a lot to ask of Dharma and the team but we are running behind as the pace of sequential activities increases. Ones are now putting the books to tapes and I am humbly grateful for your stepping up and taking the responsibility--you are indeed blessed, for many can now have the information who cannot seem to find time for reading. This work is being done with great love and "giving" for there simply are not funds to go forth and pay professional readers--the expense of the tapes themselves is a very heavy load to bear. Each of you who will share the voice which will go with you, give appreciation for the gift of precious time that you might also "have". And remember, that in all things, if you walk in beauty and Truth, nothing of the physical aspect can pull you down--it will impact you but it CAN NOT PULL YOU DOWN! Keep your intent on God within and you shall walk in security in the midst of the shadows; you shall be in peace.

Thank you for your attention.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581. For credit card orders or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

AUGUST 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 1

8/27/91 #1 HATONN
TUESDAY

Good afternoon, Hatonn present to share some most important information for your attention. What I am going to share with you is information which we are only distributing in an effort to reach more citizens.

As you study this information, it should be enough to ruin the rest of your day. However, as you move into the digesting of the information--for it is TRUTH--and ponder about what you can do about it; consider it the "bad news" from old brother Hatonn for I DO have "good news" for you who would change your plight.

Colonel James "Bo" Gritz has given all his adult life unto this nation called the United States of America. He has served you with honor--even when the Elite have efforted to put him in prison for false charges to quiet him and actually have efforted to outright kill him because he defends you and your Constitution according to his allegiance as sworn unto your flag which represents your nation UNDER GOD. He has sworn to defend, to his death if that be required, America from the enemy without and the ENEMY WITHIN. Today it is the enemy within which has eaten at your very core unto destruction of this wondrous and blessed nation. He is now offering to GIVE THIS NATION THE REMAINDER OF HIS LIFE IN SERVICE, HOWEVER REQUIRED, UNDER GOD AND IN SERVICE WITH TOTAL INTENT TO RESTORE THE CONSTITUTION UNTO THE PEOPLE. HE IS ACCEPTING THE CHALICE WITH ONLY ONE UNCOMPROMISING DEMAND--THAT HE SERVE WITH GOD. IF YOU ASK HIM TO SERVE AND PRESENT HIMSELF AS YOUR SHIELD FOR THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT, HE WILL DO SO.

This is only public in a few places and I have promised to speak of it to these readers for I am in a position to KNOW. It matters not that which I know, however, it does matter as to that which you will do. This is literally asking a man to be willing to lay down his life for you and your nation. Do you understand the magnitude of this statement? If these daring few attempt such a drastic move against the Elite--it will be some kind of Armageddon in high placements and they will have given ALL. If they are caused to fail by lack of your support--you will have failed again as when God sent you "the way" and you slew Him. Am I saying Col. Gritz is a "Christ"? No, he is chosen of God. Moreover, our Father will not require it of him. For first, our Father requires YOU to make your voices heard--no man can do it for you--but together he can do it WITH you! Does this mean I am bigoted against the lawbreakers and atheists? INDEED I AM! MY WHOLE MISSION IS TO UNCOVER THEIR LIES AND RECLAIM GOD'S KINGDOM. THIS IS MY ONLY MISSION--TO BRING TRUTH, ASSIST IN ANY WAY WHICH I AM GIVEN PASSAGE, AND RECLAIM GOD'S PROPERTY.

Gritz's book is now available. (Information available through America West Publishers.)

On your knees and within your hearts you cry out, brothers, unto God--"What can we do?" He speaks and you hear not. It is time to harken, see and act. This election in 1992, if indeed it comes to be--will be the last election as such, in your nation, if you fail to stop the treason in your government. You ask what to, do and God provides an alternative path for you and a leader to show the way in fearless confrontation with that which has brought down this nation of greatness.

I am, further, going to prevail upon my own brothers, the native descendants of the ancient tribes, to join the white brother to restore this nation and THIS TIME--IN EQUALITY UNDER THE GREAT SPIRIT WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL. YOU CAN DO IT IF YOU WANT TO!

You of the tribes called the Native Americans must now take your strength from that Great Spirit who gifted you with being of the first and of the last in His Great Creations. It is time to rise up, join hands with ALL OF YOUR RELATIONS and dance this dream awake--lest the nations all fall and the people with them. The Great Cycle is upon you, and your Fathers and Grandfathers have told you of this day when you would rise up and your chant will be heard through all the canyons and mountains, through the air and within the waters--that you rise again with the bird tribes and soar with the Thunder People. It is in THIS time come upon the world where YOUR VOICE CAN AND MUST BE HEARD! YOU AND THE BLACK BROTHERS, THE GOLDEN BROTHERS AND THE BRONZE BROTHERS WILL JOIN YOU AND YOU CAN SWEEP ACROSS THIS NATION AND RECLAIM YOUR HERITAGE. BUT IT WILL REQUIRE ALL OF YOU!

I petition ones to come unto Little Crow of the Sioux--that your elders will hold council and each will go and hold council and nothing will there be that can stop the swell of Freedom across the nation. The white man made errors by deceit and lies--but he has now pulled his own kind down into slavery through those same lies--it is time to listen to your brother in the whisper of the winds--not the lips of even your own kind who have joined with the Elite conspirators. This support and movement across this land must come from the very earth--at the very root--of human in dignity, integrity, honor and unity. Open your eyes to truth and close them to "color"--The Great Spirit is only LIGHT--HE KNOWS NO COLOR AND YOU ARE HIS IMAGE.

We, the HOSTS, who come on the silver clouds with the Thunderbirds are but your relations, come to give you aid through Woksape (wisdom). You have long expected us--do not turn from us now. Let us hold council and serve in Woksape (wisdom), Woohitika (bravery), Wowacintanka (fortitude), and Wacantognaka (Generosity). But more than all these things--let us serve in LOVE and HONOR. Let us make our promise through action that our sons no longer fall in addictions, poverty and hopelessness--for we of the two-legged who walk the touchable lands--have forgotten. It is now the time of remembering lest the sleep be too long to remember. It is time to come into remembering the four virtues within the medicine wheel and sit again within the Sacred Hoop. There is nothing greater; nothing lesser--except that which you create it to be. AHO.

I am going to now give you some sobering facts. I am in appreciation for the anonymous friend who sent this information and I honor Bernadine Smith who compiled most of it. "This person works endlessly in pursuit of your freedom. More participation can be given through the SECOND AMENDMENT COMMITTEE, P.O. Box 1776, Hanford, Calif. (I am deliberately NOT giving you a zip code--for a zip code is for the citizens who serve the non-Constitutional federal government of Washington DC. It is just another way to mark you with the beast imprint. I shall share that information with you also--but hold on, for the Law Center is up and moving and much will be forthcoming if you will but support these daring people.)

AMERICA, WHITHER GOEST THOU?

I ask that the Publisher get the diagrams and especially the maps into this material for they are indeed important. Even though they are not good pictures, they will suffice. We are not interested in literature; we are in desperate need of information!

Statement on Signing the Arms Control and Disarmament Amendments Act of 1989

December 11, 1989

I have today signed H.R. 1495, the "Arms Control and Disarmament Amendments Act of 1989." The Act authorizes appropriations for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 for arms control programs. I believe, however, that one section of H.R. 1495 must be carefully construed to avoid constitutional concerns.

Section 105(b) of the Act requires that the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency disseminate information pertaining to arms control verification and monitoring, including information regarding current, proposed, prospective, and potential arms treaties. It also requires that the Agency provide detailed information on such activities in its annual report to the Congress. I shall interpret the language of this Act so as not to detract from MY constitutional authority to protect information relating to treaty negotiations or other sensitive national security information. [H: Which, of course, is EVERYTHING.]

*George Bush
The White House
December 11, 1989.*

Note: H.R. 1495, approved December 11, was assigned Public Law No. 101-216 (Source: Presidential Documents)

This is DICTATORSHIP--AMERICAN STYLE. There is a three-stage disarmament plan which we have already written about but I fear you ones won't recall for you are having to face a lot of new information. The point is to have three stages in which first you have the US and USSR with internal security forces, and the UN has practically none. By stage III you will have none and the UN will have ALL. HOWEVER, remember, the forces (by UN CHARTER) will be headed by the Soviets. You have already had the Soviet "visitors" participating with your police forces, etc.--right now, today! In America!! The American people are being "entertained" by television misinformation while the states are involved with the federal government in building an "INTERNAL SECURITY FORCE". At the end of Stage II you shall not have an armed force anymore. AMERICA--YOU MUST REPEAL P.L. 87-297 (identified later, Ed.).

At the end of the second stage, the world army will be fully operating. The United States will not only be policed by foreign troops, the force assigned to "keep internal order" will have been developed and functioning. What military bases are left will be used by the world army. The green belts around cities could also be used to station the world "PEACEKEEPERS". The Communist-dominated United Nations will then have the ONLY ARMY IN THE WORLD. BUT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT DOES NOT HAVE PERMISSION OF THE PEOPLE IN THE STATES TO GIVE AWAY YOUR ARMY! IN A CONSTITUTIONAL COMPACT, ALL PARTIES MUST BE IN AGREEMENT. Don't expect the Federal Government to help you out--you must chew your state legislators out for not objecting to what is going on. The newspapers also are to blame for not notifying the people. WHAT PRESIDENT BUSH IS DOING WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE CONGRESS AND THE STATE HOUSES IS AGAINST THE LAW!!!

ANOTHER DANDY LETTER FROM BUSH

Letter to the Speaker of the House and the Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Transmitting a Report on Compliance With Arms Control Agreements:

March 27, 1990

Dear Mr. Speaker: (Dear Mr. Chairman)

Pursuant to section 52 of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, as amended (U.S.C. 2592), I am pleased to transmit the enclosed report on the adherence of the United States to arms control treaty obligations and on problems related to compliance by other nations with the provisions arms control agreements to which the United States is a party.

This report was prepared by the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency in coordination with the Department of State, Defense, and Energy as well as the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Director of Central Intelligence. [H: Still breathing?]

In previous reports to the Congress, I have made clear that the United States expects scrupulous compliance from its arms control treaty partners. For its part, the United States continues to take seriously, its commitments to arms control agreements and sets rigid standards and procedures for assuring that it meets these obligations.

Sincerely, George Bush

Note: Identical letters were sent to Thomas S. Foley, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Claiborne Pell, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

This next is gravely serious, friends, so digest it well. Do you remember when we did many writings regarding division of the United States into 10 Districts? These would be called the New States and operate by the NEW-STATES CONSTITUTION!

HOW COULD THE UNITED NATIONS RUN THE U.S.A.
IN A MILITARY GOVERN-MENT?

The United States has been under DUAL OPERATION since 1972. The map included is the United Nations Control System. It is called the REGIONAL GOVERNMENT SYSTEM. Each state has REGIONAL SUB-DIVISIONS which are also ADMINISTRATIVE UNITS OF UNITED NATIONS CONTROL. A brief history of how it was developed, follows. Your states are gradually being abolished and weakened as ALL POWER IS BEING CONSOLIDATED IN WASHINGTON, D.C. On state level, more and more power is being whisked away FROM elected representatives AND GIVEN to the REGIONAL BUREAUCRATS. The idea is to END STATEHOOD and to REPLACE ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES with a highly (already developed) sophisticated computerized management system. MILITARY CONCEPTS ARE BEING INTEGRATED WITH CIVILIAN ADMINISTRATIONS OF GOVERNMENT ON A REGIONAL BASIS. THIS SYSTEM IS BEING FORCED UPON ALL OTHER NATIONS WORLD-WIDE!

Since 1974 the California Specialized Training Institute in San Luis Obispo, California has been training specialists in the conversion of operations for FULL MILITARY GOVERNMENT TAKEOVER. The disarmament will REQUIRE such a system "TO PRESERVE INTERNAL ORDER" as stated in STATE DEPT. DOCUMENT 7277.

A COMMISSION WAS FUNDED IN 1968 WHICH PAVED THE WAY AND LAID DOWN AN INFRASTRUCTURE UPON WHICH THE STANDBY MILITARY SYSTEM CAN BE SET DOWN WHEN THE WORD FOR FULL MILITARY OPERATIONS IS GIVEN.

I'm sorry, people, this is Pres.

Reagan's PROGRAM FOR PEACE.

Below is a very brief history of how the DUAL SYSTEM of government was introduced into the United States. Your BILL OF RIGHTS AND YOUR 1789 CONSTITUTION HANG ON A VERY WEAK THREAD. MILITARY GOVERNMENT IS NOW A SIMPLE MATTER TO INTRODUCE FOR OPERATION OF THE U.S.

Dual Systems of power have been physically operating the United States since January, 1972. President Richard Nixon on February 14, 1972 established the second (and illegal) system of power simply by issuing an Executive Order (E. #11647). Just by entering the Executive Order in the Federal Register, and no Congressmen challenging it for its illegal nature within thirty days, it was considered "law". It set up the United Nation's infra-structure for command and control of the United States.

United Nation's General Assembly and Security Council Resolutions were then relayed to the U.S. Executive Department to get enacted in any manner it could achieve to continue alterations to U.S. Power Structure to shape the U.S. for World Government Command and Control. The U.S. armed forces were to wait until 1988 to be permanently transferred to the communist control of the Security Council of the United Nations, which would be done by TREATY ACTION.

That is where you are today. OUTLAWING ALL CIVILIAN OWNED FIREARMS HAD A FIRST DEADLINE OF 1983, which was unsuccessful, but, which WILL BE PICKED UP AND ENACTED BY THE SIGNING OF THE DISARMAMENT TREATIES!!! Every U.S. President has co-operated with these plans since the United Nations Charter was ILLEGALLY ratified as a "TREATY" IN 1945. President Dwight D. Eisenhower began the disarmament program with the "Open Skies" project. President John F. Kennedy signed Public Law 87-297 (THE ONE YOU MUST GET REPEALED!) which calls for elimination of your U.S. Armed Forces (AND YOUR GUNS) and turning BOTH OVER TO THE UNITED NATIONS. President Lyndon Johnson wanted to sign the Executive Order for the Master Ten Regions but worked instead on the U.N.'s Economic Regions, leaving Richard Nixon as President to bring in the comprehensive master United Nations Control system Ten Regions. President Gerald Ford enhanced the U.N. Control System, while President James Carter (along with Pres. Johnson) signed some of the Human Rights TREATIES which REPLACE YOUR BILL OF RIGHTS. United World Federalist, President Ronald Reagan, promoted the Dual System by establishing DIRECT CONTROL between his OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET and the Governors' offices, to (so-called) "STREAMLINE THE SYSTEM" FOR FASTER RESPONSE MECHANISMS.

President Reagan also signed the Genocide Treaty which put all U.S. citizens more closely under control of the already operating United Nations WORLD GOVERNMENT COURT SYSTEM. Pres. Reagan also SIGNED A NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE U.S. UNDER THE TITLE OF TREATY 97-19. [H: You must understand that NOTHING OVERRIDES A "TREATY".] Since Reagan didn't get finished with the signing away of your U.S. Army to the U.N. (plus all your civilian-owned guns) by the second disarmament treaty, Bush will do so. KNOW THAT ALL THE ELITE IN THE GOVERNMENT ARE IN FAVOR OF THE

"PEACE" PROGRAM AND ARE ANTI-CIVILIAN OWNERSHIP OF FIREARMS.

Meanwhile, chelas, MANY YOUNG AND INNOCENT PEOPLE HAVE TAKEN SEATS IN STATE LEGISLATURES WHO HAVE NO IDEA OF THE REGIONAL OPERATION CONNECTION FOR UNITED NATIONS' CONTROL OF THE U.S.

THE GOOD PEOPLE IN STATE LEGISLATURE OFFICES CAN REVERSE THE DAMAGE DONE TO YOUR COUNTRY AND TO YOUR PEOPLE!

THERE IS NO WAY TO OVEREMPHASIZE THAT YOUR 1789 CONSTITUTION IS A PERPETUAL DOCUMENT AND THE BILL OF RIGHTS IS "UN"REVOCABLE. ALL THAT HAS BEEN ENACTED AS "LAW" TO DISLODGE THE SYSTEM ESTABLISHED BY THAT CONSTITUTION IS ILLEGAL. BECAUSE ILLEGALITIES WERE NOT CHALLENGED AND STOPPED, THE PERPETRATORS OF THE DUAL SYSTEM KEPT PILING MORE ILLEGALITIES UPON PRIOR ILLEGALITIES, ALL THE WHILE WRAPPING THE ILLEGALITIES IN CONSTITUTIONAL PACKAGING. THE BOLDNESS OF THESE PERPETRATORS HAS ALWAYS DEPENDED UPON THE INNOCENCE AND THE UNAWARENESS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. THE PEOPLE SAW NO CAUSE FOR ALARM IN THE CONSTITUTIONAL PACKAGING WHILE DESTRUCTIVE LEGISLATION AND TREATIES, EXECUTIVE ORDERS, ETC., ALTERED THE AMERICAN SYSTEM TOTALLY UNABATED--YOU ARE NOW IN GRIEVOUS CIRCUMSTANCE.

"PEACEFUL" MILITARY BASES

Next we will look at excerpts from State Dept. Document No. 7277: The dismantling or the conversion to peaceful uses of certain military bases and facilities wherever located... [H: I ask that a copy of the cover of this document be included herein, I just hope I still have some "alive" readers!]

This is called: THE UNITED STATES PROGRAM FOR GENERAL AND COMPLETE DISARMAMENT IN A PEACEFUL WORLD. This publication is an abridgement of the "BLUEPRINT FOR THE PEACE RACE" which is even more explicit--if your nerves can stand it. After carefully studying this portion be sure and do not miss the maps attached so you can see where most of your dearly beloved ones are intended for retirement!

DISARMAMENT STAGES

Pg.5: The program provides for progressive disarmament steps to take place in three stages and for the simultaneous strengthening of international institutions.

Pg.5: Inspection and verification must establish both that nations carry out scheduled limitations or reductions and that they do not retain armed forces and armaments in excess of those permitted at any stage of the disarmament process; and...

Pg.5: As states relinquish their arms, the United Nations must be progressively strengthened in order to improve its capacity to assure international security and the peaceful settlement of disputes;...

Pg.5: Disarmament must proceed as rapidly as possible until it is completed, in stages containing balanced, phased, and safeguarded measures;...

Pg.5: Each measure and stage should be carried out in an agreed period of time, with transition from one stage to the next to take place as soon as all measures in the preceding stage have been carried out and verified and as soon as necessary arrangements for verification of the next stage have been made;...[This, of course, means ability to search and seize without warning or warrant.]

Pg.3: The disbanding of all national armed forces and the prohibition of their reestablishment in any form whatsoever other than those required to preserve internal order and for contributions to a United Nations Peace Force.

Pg.10: The peace-keeping capabilities of the United Nations would be sufficiently strong and the obligations of all states under such arrangements sufficiently far-reaching as to assure peace and the just settlement of differences in a disarmed world.

Pg.10: The manufacture of armaments would be prohibited except for those of agreed types and quantities to be used by the U.N. Peace Force and those required to maintain internal order. All other armaments would be destroyed or converted to peaceful purposes.

Pg.7: Measures would be taken to develop and strengthen United Nations arrangements for arbitration, for the development of international law and for the establishment of Stage II of a PERMANENT U.N. Peace Force.

Pg.9: States would retain ONLY those forces, non-nuclear armaments, and establishments required for the purpose of maintaining internal order; they would also support and provide agreed MANPOWER FOR A U.N. PEACE FORCE!

These items are taken from the State Department booklet No. 7277.

Ah, you ask (and you shouldn't),

"What are these ones doing about guns, etc.?" Well I should not even respond to such a question for what these ones do has nothing to do with what YOU do regarding such things. Laws from state to state vary and I have given you a lot on guns and gun control, laws and "rules". I can only present them to you and allow you to go and research and GET BEHIND YOUR LAW CENTER!!!!

With my scribe, however, we take NO CHANCES OF ANY KIND--FOR GOODNESS SALES THERE IS ONE SUIT GOING ON RIGHT TODAY WHEREIN THE OPPOSITION IS DEMANDING A SEARCH WITH PICTURES OF THE INTERIOR OF THEIR DWELLING--"TO SEE IF THEY HAVE 'WASTED' IT THROUGH DESTRUCTION." THE OUTSIDE HAS ALREADY BEEN INVESTIGATED AND PHOTOGRAPHED BY THE THUGS. No, I ask that no remotely considered WEAPON be kept on or about the premises--there is one BB gun, one .22 caliber that won't even expel its empty casing and one old (from boyhood) shotgun, with very slow single fire capability. These ones have very little alcoholic beverages on the premises and don't use it at all nor do they serve it. No one is allowed to stay who would bear or use drugs of any kind. This is, however, why the place must never reflect ownership by the couple because the frame-up would be blatant and instant.

I would, however, guess that all of you can be quite clever in your discernment. For instance in New Jersey--ONLY ONE gun has been registered--there is now a plan afoot to come down and search and seize through surprise--the whole of the state--as example. ACT FRIENDS, FOR THE LAWS ARE MOVING THROUGH THE STATES LIKE THE PROVERBIAL PLAGUE. You who are public figures and attract attention-

-use your heads most carefully--we would never jeopardize these ones by considering such a thing as holding weapons in possession--not even registered ones for that is simply a measure for identification--they then KNOW where to go to get them and YOU WILL PRODUCE THAT WEAPON! If you are building a shelter and supplying it with anticipated needs of this type--hunting rifles, etc., do not keep them in that shelter--for it is being set up wherein the entire property is confiscated just as with drugs. It is time you very carefully think and not do stupid things and if you are in foolish circumstances--act and take attention--the hammer is coming down rapidly now and tonight or tomorrow MAY BE TOO LATE! I TRUST A WORD OF WARNING IS SUFFICIENT! IN FACT, I BELIEVE THIS IS THE THIRD OR FOURTH POINTED AND BLUNT WARNING--WE ACT WITHIN THE LAW AND SET CREDIBLE EXAMPLE--THE FROSTING ON THE CAKE WILL BE FIRST SUSPECT! SO, ANY OF YOU WITH "STICKY FINGERS" BETTER ATTEND THE CLEANSING.

Dharma, take rest, chela--it has been a long time without rest. Walk in peace, precious ones, help is on the way! Do you hear the bugle? Perhaps the infantry is coming? Well, perhaps the Air Force--but you better keep breathing until they get there! Skeletons in the closets may be fine--other things are not! So be it. Salu.

Let me know if we need more for an EXPRESS or if Germain can get on with his important work. Thank you. Hatonn to clear.

For credit card orders (VISA OR MASTERCARD) or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

U.S. THREE-STAGE DISARMAMENT PLAN

Read across

THIS IS STATE
DEPT.
DOCU-MENT
NUMBER
7277

1. Elmendorf AFB AK	61N15	149W49	6. Fort Huachuca AZ	31N33	110W21	11. Camp
2. Eilson AFB AK	64N38	147W06	7. El Reno OK	35N32	96W57	12. Eglin
3. Tulalake CA	41N57	121W29	8. Tushka OK	34N19	96W10	13. Maxw
4. Oakdale CA	37N46	120W51	9. Fort Chaffee AR	35N22	91W23	14. Ft. P
5. Vandenburg AFB CA	34N41	120W29	10. Florence AR	33N46	91W39	15. Avon

THESE ARE THE ORIGINAL CAMPS SET UP IN 1984. THERE ARE NOW OVER 130

United States 3

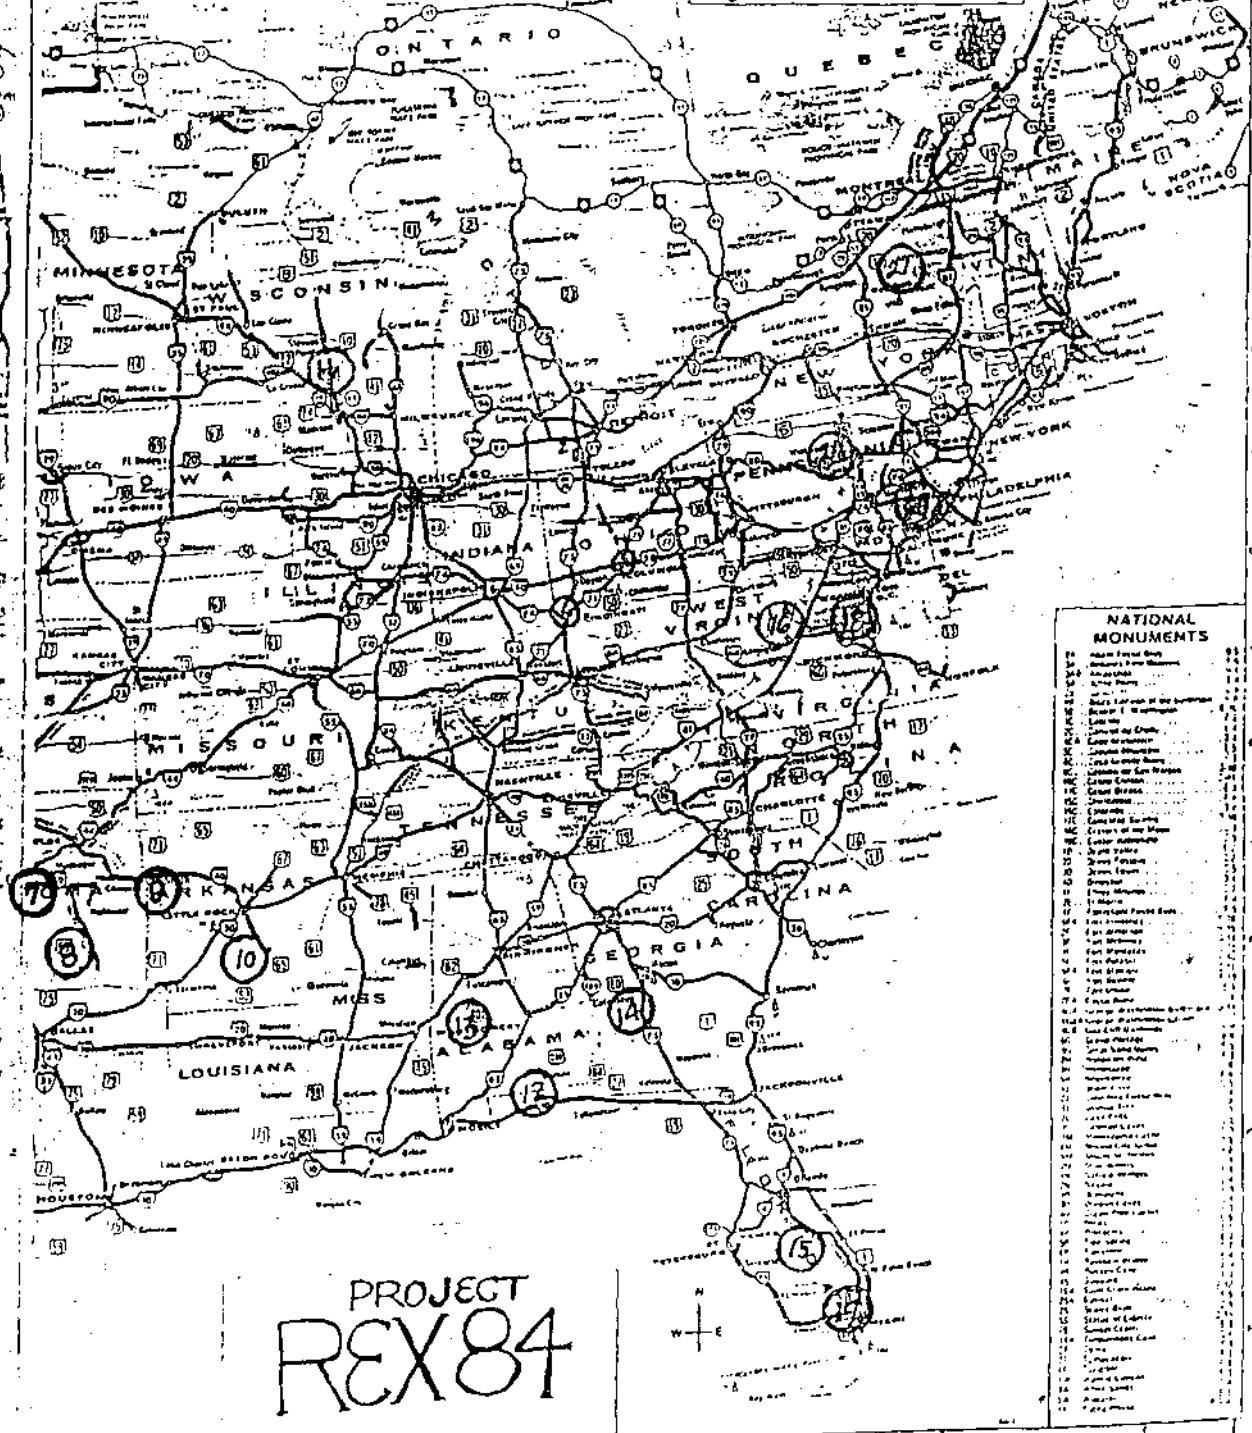

UNITED STATES

One inch equals approximately 160.9 miles

Population: 275,547,346 (1990 Census)

Area: 3,537,295 Sq. Miles

© Rand McNally & Co. Printed in U.S.A.

NATIONAL MONUMENTS

1. Adams National Historic Site
2. Adirondack Park
3. Agate Fossil Beds
4. Alaska National Monument
5. Alcatraz Island
6. Alibates Flint Quarries
7. Alton National Historic Site
8. Anderson Park
9. Andrews Air Force Base
10. Aniakchak National Monument
11. Ankeny National Historic Site
12. Antietam National Battlefield
13. Archaic National Monument
14. Arlington House
15. Arlington National Cemetery
16. Arroyo National Monument
17. Ashland National Historic Site
18. Assateague Island National Monument
19. Astoria National Historic Site
20. Atlatl National Monument
21. Audubon National Wildlife Refuge
22. Augustus National Historic Site
23. Augustine National Historic Site
24. Augustine National Monument
25. Augustine National Historic Site
26. Augustine National Monument
27. Augustine National Historic Site
28. Augustine National Monument
29. Augustine National Historic Site
30. Augustine National Monument
31. Augustine National Historic Site
32. Augustine National Monument
33. Augustine National Historic Site
34. Augustine National Monument
35. Augustine National Historic Site
36. Augustine National Monument
37. Augustine National Historic Site
38. Augustine National Monument
39. Augustine National Historic Site
40. Augustine National Monument
41. Augustine National Historic Site
42. Augustine National Monument
43. Augustine National Historic Site
44. Augustine National Monument
45. Augustine National Historic Site
46. Augustine National Monument
47. Augustine National Historic Site
48. Augustine National Monument
49. Augustine National Historic Site
50. Augustine National Monument
51. Augustine National Historic Site
52. Augustine National Monument
53. Augustine National Historic Site
54. Augustine National Monument
55. Augustine National Historic Site
56. Augustine National Monument
57. Augustine National Historic Site
58. Augustine National Monument
59. Augustine National Historic Site
60. Augustine National Monument
61. Augustine National Historic Site
62. Augustine National Monument
63. Augustine National Historic Site
64. Augustine National Monument
65. Augustine National Historic Site
66. Augustine National Monument
67. Augustine National Historic Site
68. Augustine National Monument
69. Augustine National Historic Site
70. Augustine National Monument
71. Augustine National Historic Site
72. Augustine National Monument
73. Augustine National Historic Site
74. Augustine National Monument
75. Augustine National Historic Site
76. Augustine National Monument
77. Augustine National Historic Site
78. Augustine National Monument
79. Augustine National Historic Site
80. Augustine National Monument
81. Augustine National Historic Site
82. Augustine National Monument
83. Augustine National Historic Site
84. Augustine National Monument
85. Augustine National Historic Site
86. Augustine National Monument
87. Augustine National Historic Site
88. Augustine National Monument
89. Augustine National Historic Site
90. Augustine National Monument
91. Augustine National Historic Site
92. Augustine National Monument
93. Augustine National Historic Site
94. Augustine National Monument
95. Augustine National Historic Site
96. Augustine National Monument
97. Augustine National Historic Site
98. Augustine National Monument
99. Augustine National Historic Site
100. Augustine National Monument

PROJECT
REX 84

Coy WI	43N56	90W49	16.	Mill Point WV
FB FL	30N29	86W30	17.	Camp Krome FL
AFB AL	32N22	86W18	18.	Camp AP Hill VA
ning GA	32N22	84W50	19.	Ft. Indiantown Gap
ck FL	27N36	81W31	20.	Allanwood FL

38N09	80W11
77N7	77W7
38N00	77W00
40N20	76W50
41N07	76W54

21.	Ft. Drum NY	44N01	75.
"BANKER'S PRISONS" for Americans... Concentration Camps "Active" for Patriotic and other good American

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 2

8/30/91 #1 - HATONN
FRIDAY

COMMUNISM FALL?

Dear ones, hold up--Hatonn here to point out some most uncomfortable truths.

I remind you that in the Soviet Union NOTHING is as it is being given to you. Worse--Communism is NOT. Russia, nor the Soviet Union, have EVER HAD COMMUNISM. To dissolve the Communist Party means NOTHING except that the Soviets have moved into a totally DEMOCRATIC DICTATORSHIP! Moreover, the one who expected to be Dictator--is not. Democracy can only work when there are honorable "choices". A "vote" means less than nothing if there is only one thing to vote for! Further, the "show" of the Soviet nations pulling away is exactly that--a show. It is simply a phase, now, of "divide and conquer". Again, I remind you to LISTEN. What is Cheney telling you about defense budgets? For one thing--the Russians still spend a massive amount on weapons and show no signs of lessening that amount--but rather, fully intend to up it as soon as the outside (from you) aid begins to flow. If YOU continue to fool yourselves, you are in serious trouble. Why do you think the Prime Minister of Great Britain is visiting the vacation home of Bush? Worse, the Queen didn't even bother to come herself.

A little secret--the Elite all have to stay on the better side of Great Britain for the holes for safety are in New Zealand and Australia. The full intent is that the Northern Hemisphere will be radioactive--one way or another. Please attach the "Radiation Hazard USA" sheet and the "Fallout Patterns" to this document.

Now for truth in presentation. A U.S. Supreme Court statement was made regarding the lying and manipulation compiled from proven findings and written up as a portion of the American Communications Association v. Douds, 339 U.S. 382, 442. Let me quote:

In a 1986 New York Times-CBS News poll survey of 2,016 adults about incidents of the White House lying to the American public, only 1 percent of those surveyed thought that the administration told the truth all the time, 53 percent said the administration told the truth only some of the time, while 9 percent said it hardly EVER told the truth. Americans should question now whether the current administration under a former CIA Director's leadership can speak to us with more candor than the last administration under Ronald Reagan, a former Hollywood actor.

We live in a highly manipulated world. Ideas are manipulated through purposeful distortions in the press and selective omissions in our all-pervasive public education (indoctrination) system. Economic and political realities are falsified by self-serving establishment controllers and their minions in the bureaucracy.

Our society is controlled by an "aristocracy", a small elite group of individuals who, through control of the government, have obtained special privileges in law and are thus able to live as parasites off the labor of others (mostly the hard-working American middle class) and amass large amounts of unearned wealth.

This current aristocracy operates covertly and by deceit. The bankers are the main (but not the only) element in this covert aristocracy. Using many of the standard principles of aristocracy (authoritarianism, statism, and the use of an intellectual priesthood to deceive the public) they've created a social system where robbery and exploitation are systematized and legalized and where resistance to the robber has been made a crime.

'It is not the function of our Government to keep the citizen from falling into error; it is the function of the citizen to keep the government from falling into error.' U.S. Supreme Court"

NOW IS THE TIME!

OK, it is done. Col. James Gritz is now officially announced as running for the office of President of the United States of America. He is "announced" under the shelter of the Populist Party--which, like all organized political operations, has many and varied flaws. Do not let this deter you from your duty as an American to get this man elected to office so that the flaws can be eliminated. You need votes and support--you need unification, for there is no difference whatsoever in the Democratic and Republican parties. In fact, all will now be done to pull down a dictatorship on you-the-nation prior to the '92 election so that there will not be an election. It is up to you!

I am informed that America West will be offering backing and high visibility integration with the effort to elect Col. Gritz and I shall do everything allowed to see to it that he is elected for he is chosen of God for the task. I have quite a bit of "pull"--but if you-the-people do not support this in a massive manner--why would you expect God to DO IT FOR YOU? I guarantee that I have a very nice and totally workable relationship with this man--which is boggling the minds of the UFO conspirators. I suggest that if you have ones in the "Little Gray Alien" with Cooper conspiracy--that you alert them. There are heinous things planned by the disinformers to terrify America and parts of the world to finish pulling you into captivity--"against a common enemy". YOUR ENEMIES SIT IN THE LEADERSHIP OF YOUR NATIONS AND WITHIN THE BANKS--THERE ARE NO ENEMIES IN SPACE! WHAT YOU WILL BE GIVEN AS "PROOF" IS A WORSE LIE THAN ANY THEY HAVE CONJURED THUS FAR AND ONLY KNOWLEDGE OF TRUTH CAN KEEP YOU FROM FALLING FOR THE TRAP!

Let me say something to you as a people of world citizenship. You are in the sorting of God's people from the ones who wish to follow this evil empire. We are now dealing with God's adversary who is restricted to the mortal physical plane. The intent is to take the planet earth Shan and then move outward into space. IT WILL NOT BE ALLOWED AND THERE WILL BE MASSIVE EFFORT TO HOLD THE BEINGS OF EARTH HOSTAGE. WELL, SORRY ABOUT THIS--EARTH-MAN; GOD DOES NOT COMPROMISE NOR DOES HE NEGOTIATE. YOU EACH WILL BE EITHER ON ONE SIDE OR THE OTHER AND TO NOT MAKE A DECISION IS TO ALREADY HAVE MADE ONE.

All manner of terrible things are in the planning by the deceivers to perpetrate upon you in the guise of it being Space Brothers. No, but you will buy the tale in great masses. However, if you-the-people of the United States of America fail to fall for the lie--you will prevail and the world shall be turned about for GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU IF YOUR INTENT IS TRUTH AND HONOR--HE WILL NOT DO IT FOR YOU. IF YOUR INTENT REMAINS TO CONTINUE THE BREAKING OF EVERY LAW OF GOD AND THE CREATION--YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THAT WHICH COMES UPON YOU AND IT SHALL COME UPON YOU IN A MOST DEVASTATING MANNER FOR WE WILL ONLY AIRLIFT OUT GOD'S PEOPLE. WE HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO REMOVE ANY WHO PRACTICE EVIL FOR THOSE ONES ARE NOT WELCOME IN THE BALANCED SOCIETIES OF THE COSMOS. SO BE IT.

If you turn around the government of the U.S.--the chosen people and place of God--you can reclaim your planet. What else do you have to do with even a tenth as much wondrous challenge and excitement? You are a bored and sleepy civilization--stop watching the play on your pretend screens and get into the game, dear friends. God has sent Us, His Hosts, to play with you--WE HAVE NO INTENTION OF COMPETING WITH YOU FOR OUR ENEMY IS THE ADVERSARY OF GOD AND WE NEED NOT A "THREE" RING CIRCUS. NO ONE SHALL BE COERCED OR FORCED--YOU WILL BE IN THE CHOOSING.

LAWYERS; YOU HAVE LAWYERS!

Oh my, yes you do! However, since you ones fail to know anything about your Constitution--I get to lay another heavy trip on you. How many Amendments do you have? Do you know that it is UNCONSTITUTIONAL FOR A LAWYER TO BE ELECTED TO CONGRESS? WHAT DOES YOUR THIRTEENTH AMENDMENT SAY? Well, NOW it reads: "Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly con- victed, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction...etc."

Ah, but not so. THAT WAS THE 14TH AMENDMENT I JUST CITED. THE ORIGINAL 13TH AMENDMENT READS AS FOLLOWS:

"If any citizen of the United States shall accept, claim, receive, or retain any TITLE OF NOBILITY or HONOUR, or shall, without the consent of Congress, accept and retain any present, pension, office, or emolument of any kind whatever, from any emperor, king, prince, or foreign power, such person shall cease to be a citizen of the United States, and shall be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under them, or either of them."
(Emphasis added)

Thank you, David Dodge, Researcher and Alfred Adask, Editor, AntiShyster, August, 1991:

These ones also give you a special version of the pledge of allegiance you might consider--for it says what the original MEANT and ceased to be accepted: I pledge allegiance to the Constitution of the United States of America, and to the Republic that honors that Constitution, one nation, under God, with Liberty and Justice for all.

MISSING 13TH AMENDMENT "TITLES OF NOBILITY" AND "HONOR"

In the winter of 1983, archival research expert David Dodge, and former Baltimore police investigator Tom Dunn, were searching for evidence of government corruption in public records stored in the Belfast Library on the coast of Maine. By chance [?--I think not!], they discovered the library's oldest authentic copy of the Constitution of the United States (printed in 1825). Both men were stunned to see this document included a 13th Amendment that no longer appears on current copies of the Constitution. Moreover, after studying the Amendment's language and historical context, they realized the principle intent of this "missing" 13th Amendment WAS TO PROHIBIT LAWYERS FROM SERVING IN GOVERNMENT....!

So began a seven-year, nationwide search for the truth surrounding the most bizarre Constitutional puzzle in American history--the unlawful REMOVAL OF A RATIFIED Amendment from the Constitution of the United States. Since 1983, Dodge and Dunn have uncovered additional copies of the Constitution with the "missing" 13th Amendment printed in at least eighteen separate publications by ten different states and territories over four decades from 1822 to 1860.

In June of this year (1991), Dodge uncovered the evidence that this missing 13th Amendment had indeed been LAWFULLY RATIFIED by the state of Virginia and was therefore an authentic Amendment to the American Constitution. The evidence is correct and no errors are found--a 13th Amendment restricting lawyers from serving in government was ratified in 1819 and REMOVED from your Constitution during the tumult of the Civil War--deliberately!

Since the Amendment was never LAWFULLY REPEALED, IT IS STILL THE LAW TODAY! Wouldn't you now guess that the implications are ENORMOUS?

The story of this "missing" Amendment is complex and at times confusing because the political issues and vocabulary of the American Revolution were different from your own. However, there are essentially two issues: What does the Amendment mean? and, Was the Amendment ratified? Lets look first at the "meaning".

MEANING

The "missing" 13th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States reads as above cited.

At first reading, the meaning of this 13th Amendment (also called the "title of nobility" Amendment) seems a bit obscure, unimportant. The references to "nobility", "honour", "emperor", "king", and "prince" lead you to dismiss this amendment as a petty post-revolution act of spite directed against the British monarchy. But in your modern world of Lady Di and Prince Charles, anti-royalist sentiments seem so archaic and quaint that the Amendment can be ignored. NOT SO!

Consider some real hard evidence of its historical significance: First, "titles of nobility" were prohibited in both Article VI of the Articles of Confederation (1777) and in Article 1, Sect. 9 of the Constitution of the United States (1788); Second, although already prohibited by the Constitution, an additional "title of nobility" amendment was proposed in 1789, again in 1810, and was finally ratified in 1819. Clearly the founding fathers saw such a serious threat in "titles of nobility" and "honors" that anyone receiving them would FORFEIT THEIR CITIZENSHIP. (How about Sir Schwarzkopf? and Sir Dr. Kissinger?) Since the government prohibited "titles of nobility" several times over four decades, and went through the amending process (even though "titles of nobility" were already prohibited by the Constitution), it's obvious that the Amendment carried much more significance for your founding fathers than is readily apparent to you today.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

To understand the meaning of this "missing" 13th Amendment, you must understand its historical context--the era surrounding the American Revolution (which of course, you are not taught).

You tend to regard the notion of "Democracy" as benign, harmless, and politically unremarkable. But at the time of the American Revolution, King George III and the other monarchies of Europe saw Democracy as an unnatural, ungodly ideological threat, every bit as dangerously radical as Communism. [So, the obvious solution was to turn Democracy and Communism into a method of creating what they wanted in the first place, a Monarchy-Dictatorship, while calling it nice labels.] Just as the 1917 Communist Revolution in Russia [financed by you nice people's bankers just as the so-called Soviet Revolution this week is sponsored and financed by the same nice people in your behalf] spawned other revolutions around the world, the American Revolution provided an example and incentive for people all over the world to overthrow their European monarchies--or so it was interpreted.

Even though the Treaty of Paris

ended the Revolutionary War in 1783, the simple fact of your existence threatened the monarchies. The United States stood as a heroic role model for other nations that inspired them to also struggle against oppressive monarchies. The French Revolution (1789-1799) and the Polish national uprising (1794) were in part encouraged by the American Revolution. Though you stood like a beacon of hope for most of the world, the monarchies regarded the United States as a political "typhoid Mary", the principle source of radical democracy that was destroying monarchies around the world.

The monarchies must have realized that if the principle source of that infection could be destroyed, the rest of the world might avoid the contagion and the monarchies would be saved.

Their survival at stake, the monarchies sought to destroy or subvert the American system of government. Knowing they couldn't destroy you militarily, they resorted to more covert methods of political subversion, employing spies and secret agents skilled in bribery and legal deception--it was, perhaps, the first "cold war". Since governments run on money, politicians run FOR money, and money is the usual enticement to commit treason, much of the monarchy's counter-revolutionary efforts emanated from English banks.

DON'T BANK ON IT

The essence of banking was once explained by Sir Josiah Stamp, a former president of the Bank of England. I have given this before but it is such a dandy, I shall repeat it: "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin... Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them but leave them the power to create money, and, with a flick of a pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again.... Take this great power away from them and all great fortunes like mine will disappear and they ought to disappear, for then this would be a better and happier world to live in.... But, if you want to continue to be the slaves of bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit."

One of the past great abuses of your banking system caused the depression of the 1930's. Today's abuses are causing another and more massive depression than the world has ever known. Current S&L and bank scandals illustrate the on-going relationships between banks, LAWYERS, politicians, and government agencies (look at the current BCCI and BNL scandals running from high government officers to the Presidency itself involved in totally criminal activities) such as the Federal Reserve, the FDIC, and even the CIA. These scandals are the direct result of years of law-breaking by an alliance of bankers and lawyers using their influence and money to corrupt the political process and rob the public. (Think you're not being robbed? Guess who's going to pay the bill for the excesses of these bailouts?) As Oberli and Dharma track further and deeper into involved parties attached to this present property scam/scandal--they are finding other financial institutions involved and, as named in the investigation, find Salomon Brothers and other financial institutions who are kaput and haven't even been made public--no wonder the FDIC and RTC are asking additional BILLIONS.

The systematic robbery of productive individuals by parasitic bankers and lawyers is not a recent phenomenon. This abuse is a human tradition that predates the Bible and spread from Europe to America despite early colonial prohibitions. (Remember the Protocols of Zion? Try the issue of Oct. 1920: No. 13: "We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim (non-Jews and including Judeans/Hebrews) with LAWYERS and doctors; the LAWYERS are au courant with all interest....", and 14: "But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us." And then, 15: "If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many WITNESSES AS HE NEEDS TO SAVE HIM FROM HIS JUDGES--UNTIL WE BECOME JUDGES OURSELVES!"

It is about time to again publish the Protocols, friends, but I have quite a bit of additional updating to do prior to that so let us hold up herein and not get sidetracked from the "missing" 13th Amendment--it is all tied in together, as you might have guessed by now. You may as well consider that there is total integration of the PROTOCOLS OF ZION, the CREMIEUX MANIFESTO, and the epistle emanating from the "PRINCE OF THE JEWS". Isn't it interesting that these were published in a Rothschild magazine? The "Prince of the Jews" was done in 1489 A.D. But then, who would ever think, most especially Gentiles, of connecting these things with other documents emanating from Jewry, or with modern happenings? So be it!

When the first United States Bank was chartered by Congress in 1790, there were only three state banks in existence. At one time, banks were prohibited by law in most states because many of the early settlers were all too familiar with the practices of the European goldsmith banks.

Goldsmith banks were safe-houses used to store client's gold. In exchange for the deposited gold, customers were issued notes (paper money) which were redeemable in gold. The goldsmith bankers quickly succumbed to the temptation to issue "extra" notes, (unbacked by gold). Why? Because the "extra" notes enriched the bankers by allowing them to buy property with notes for gold that they did not own, gold that did not even exist.

Colonists knew that bankers occasionally printed too much paper money, found themselves over-leveraged, and caused a "run on the bank". If the bankers lacked sufficient gold to meet the demand, the paper money became worthless and common citizens left holding the paper were ruined. Although over-leveraged bankers were sometime hung, the bankers continued printing extra money to increase their fortunes at the expense of the productive members of society. (The practice continues to this day and offers "sweetheart" loans to bank insiders, and even provides the foundation for deficit spending and your federal government's unbridled growth.)

PAPER MONEY

If the colonists forgot the lessons of goldsmith bankers, the American Revolution refreshed their memories. To finance the war, Congress authorized the printing of continental bills of credit in an amount not to exceed $200,000,000. The states issued another $200,000,000 in paper notes. Ultimately, the value of the paper money fell so low that they were soon traded on speculation from 500 to 1000 paper bills for one coin.

It's then suggested that your Constitution's prohibition against a paper economy--"No State shall... make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a tender in Payment of Debts"--was a tool of the wealthy to be worked to the disadvantage of all others. But only in a "paper" economy can money reproduce itself and increase the claims of the wealthy at the expense of the productive.

"Paper money", said Pelatiah Webster, "polluted the equity of our laws, turned them into engines of oppression, corrupted the justice of our public administration, destroyed the fortunes of thousands who had confidence in it, enervated the trade, husbandry, and manufactures of our country, and went far to destroy the morality of our people."

CONSPIRACIES

Be patient--it may "seem" that I am not on the same subject but I am.

A few examples of the attempts by the monarchies and banks that almost succeeded in destroying the United States:

According to the Tennessee Laws 1715-1820, vol II, p.774, in the 1794 Jay Treaty, the United States agreed to pay 600,000 pounds sterling to King George III, as reparations for the American Revolution (interesting?). The Senate ratified the treaty in secret session and ordered that it not be published. When Benjamin Franklin's grandson published it anyway, the exposure and resulting public uproar so angered the Congress that it passed the Alien and Sedition Acts (1798) SO FEDERAL JUDGES COULD PROSECUTE EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS FOR REPORTING THE TRUTH ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT.

Since you had WON the Revolutionary War, why would your Senators agree to pay REPARATIONS to the loser? And why would they agree to pay 600,000 pounds sterling, eleven years AFTER the war ended? It just doesn't seem to make sense does it? Especially in light of the Senate's secrecy and later fury over being exposed, UNLESS YOU ASSUME YOUR SENATORS HAD BEEN BRIBED TO SERVE THE BRITISH MONARCHY AND BETRAY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE--THAT, DEAR ONES, IS SUBVERSION!

The United States Bank had been opposed by the Jeffersonians from the beginning, but the Federalists (the pro-monarchy party) won-out in its establishment. The initial capitalization was $10,000,000--80% of which would be owned by foreign bankers. Since the bank was authorized to lend up to $20,000,000 (double its paid in capital), it was a profitable deal for both the government and the bankers since they could lend, and collect interest (usury) on, $10,000,000 THAT DID NOT EXIST.

However, the European bankers outfoxed the government and by 1796, the government owed the bank $6,200,000 and was forced to sell its shares. (By 1802, your government OWNED NO STOCK IN THE UNITED STATES BANK.)

The sheer power of the banks and their ability to influence representative government by economic manipulation and outright bribery was exposed in 1811, when the people discovered that European banking interests OWNED 80% OF THE BANK. Congress, therefore, refused to renew the bank's charter. This led to the withdrawal of $7,000,000 in specie by European investors, which in turn, precipitated an economic recession, and the War of 1812.

There are other examples of the monarchy's efforts to subvert or destroy the United States; some are common knowledge, others remain to be disclosed to the public. There is, for example, a book called 2 VA LAW in the Library of Congress Law Library. This is an un-catalogued book in the rare book section that reveals a plan to OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT BY SECRET AGREEMENTS ENGINEERED BY THE LAWYERS. THAT, DEAR ONES, IS ONE REASON THAT THE 13TH AMENDMENT WAS RATIFIED BY VIRGINIA AND THE NOTIFICATION 'LOST IN THE MAIL'. THERE IS NO PUBLIC RECORD OF THIS BOOK'S EXISTENCE!

Does this sound surprising? Perish the thought of "surprising". The Library of Congress has over 349,402 uncatalogued rare books and 13.9 MILLION UN-CATALOGUED RARE MANUSCRIPTS, LAWS AND RATIFICATIONS! THERE ARE SECRETS BURIED IN THAT MASS OF DOCUMENTS EVEN MORE ASTONISHING THAN A MISSING CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT, I CAN WELL ASSURE YOU.

TITLES OF NOBILITY

In seeking to rule the world and destroy the United States, bankers committed many crimes. Foremost among these crimes were fraud, conversion, and plain old theft. To escape prosecution for their crimes, the bankers did the same thing any career criminal does. They hired and formed alliances with the best LAWYERS and JUDGES money could buy. These alliances, originally forged in Europe (particularly in Great Britain), spread to the colonies, and later into the newly formed United States of America. Just as with Dharma and Oberli's legal case--the adversary lawyer, Mr. Horn, simply removes any papers from the file which can aid and assist the defendants! When discovered, he then threatens all sorts of heinous consequences if his trick is revealed. What is this man's name? I thought you would never ask: It is spelled STEVEN HORN. ONE OF HIS THREATS IS TO "GET THEM" IF THIS INCIDENT IS REVEALED IN ANY OF THIS SO-CALLED "DHARMA'S" WRITINGS. WELL, OLD BUDDY--THEY HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE BUT I DO SUGGEST THAT MR. HORN DOES!

Remember the part of the Protocols about providing witnesses sufficient to win your case? Well, he did that too--but he outsmarted himself. The first hearing came with sufficient "provided" witnesses to swamp the court with liars. But, he had presented a backup case petition which caused the Judge to disallow further proceedings at that time. So, along with the presentation of the City Clerk and City Treasurer as defendant's witnesses, the "liars" did panic and disappear. How handy, though, our attorneys have turned up one or two of them and we shall see how well they like lying NOW.

Despite their criminal foundation, these alliances forged in Europe generated wealth and, ultimately, respectability. Like any modern unit of organized crime, English bankers and lawyers wanted to be admired as "legitimate businessmen". As their criminal fortunes grew so did their usefulness, so the British monarchy legitimized these thieves by granting them "TITLES OF NOBILITY".

Historically, the British peerage system referred to knights as "Squires" and to those who bore the knight's shields as "Esquires". (Isn't this fun?) As lances, shields, and physical violence gave way to more civilized means of theft, the pen grew mightier (and far more profitable) than the sword, and the clever wielders of those pens (bankers and lawyers) came to hold titles of nobility. The most common title was "Esquire" (used, even today, by lawyers!).

INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION

In Colonial America, attorneys trained attorneys but most held no "title of nobility" or "honor". There was no requirement that one be a lawyer to hold the position of district attorney, attorney general, or judge; a citizen's "counsel of choice" was not restricted to a lawyer; there were no state or national bar associations. The only organization that certified lawyers was the International Bar Association (IBA), chartered by the King of England, headquartered in London, and closely associated with the international banking system. Lawyers admitted to the IBA received the rank "ESQUIRE"-- A "TITLE OF NOBILITY"!

"Esquire" was the principle title of nobility which the 13th Amendment sought to PROHIBIT from the United States. Why? Because the loyalty of "Esquire" lawyers was suspect. Bankers and lawyers with an "Esquire" behind their names were agents of the monarchy, members of an organization whose principle purposes were political, not economic, and regarded with the same wariness that some people today reserve for members of the KGB or the CIA.

Article I, Sect. 9 of the Constitution sought to prohibit the International Bar Association (or any other agency that granted titles of nobility) from operating in America. But the Constitution neglected to specify a penalty, so the prohibition was ignored, and agents of the monarchy continued to infiltrate and influence the government (as in the Jay Treaty and the US Bank charter incidents). Therefore, a "title of nobility" amendment that specified a penalty (loss of citizenship) was proposed in 1789, and again in 1810. The meaning of the amendment is seen in its intent to prohibit persons having titles of nobility and loyalties to foreign governments and bankers from voting, holding public office, or using their skills to subvert the government.

HONOR

The missing Amendment is referred to as the "title of nobility" Amendment, but the second prohibition against "honour" (honor), may be more significant.

The archaic definition of "honor" (as used when the 13th Amendment was ratified) meant anyone "obtaining or having an advantage or privilege over another". A contemporary example of an "honor" granted to only a few Americans is the privilege of being a judge: Lawyers can be judges and exercise the attendant privileges and powers; non-lawyers CAN NOT.

By prohibiting "honors", the missing Amendment prohibits any advantage or privilege that would grant some citizens an unequal opportunity to achieve or exercise political power. Therefore, the second meaning (intent) of the 13th Amendment is to ensure political equality among all American citizens, by prohibiting anyone, EVEN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, from claiming or exercising a special privilege or power (an "honor") over other citizens.

This interpretation is quite true, little ones, and would be the key concept in the 13th Amendment. Why? Because, while "titles of nobility" may no longer apply in today's political system, the concept of "honor" remains relevant.

For example, anyone who had a specific "immunity" from lawsuits which were not afforded to all citizens, would be enjoying a separate privilege, an "honor" and would therefore forfeit his right to vote or hold public office. Think of the "immunities" from lawsuits that your judges, lawyers, politicians, and bureaucrats currently enjoy. As another example, think of all the "special interest" legislation your government passes: "special interests" are simply euphemisms for "special privileges" (honors).

WHAT IF?

If the missing 13th Amendment were to be restored, "special interests" and "immunities" would be rendered unconstitutional. The prohibition against "honors" (privileges) would compel the entire government to operate under the same laws as the citizens of your nation. Without their current personal immunities (honors), your judges and I.R.S. agents would be unable to abuse common citizens without fear of legal liability. If the 13th Amendment were restored, your entire government would have to conduct itself according to the same standards of decency, respect, law, and liability as the rest of the nation. If this Amendment and the term "honor" were applied today, your government's ability to systematically coerce and abuse the public would be all but eliminated. Just IMAGINE!

CAN YOU IMAGINE A GOVERNMENT WITHOUT SPECIAL PRIVILEGES OR IMMUNITIES?. How could you even describe it? It would be almost like a government--OF THE PEOPLE--BY THE PEOPLE--AND FOR THE PEOPLE! COULD IT POSSIBLY BE? THAT THE FOUNDING FATHERS INTENDED IT BE THAT WAY? IMAGINE: A GOVERNMENT WHOSE MEMBERS WERE TRULY ACCOUNTABLE TO THE PUBLIC; A GOVERNMENT THAT COULD NOT SYSTEMATICALLY EXPLOIT ITS OWN PEOPLE!

It's unheard of for it got deliberately undone before it could be done--it has never been done before--and you thought a poor soul called Benedict Arnold was a traitor! You have never had a Constitutional government as intended--not ever in the entire history of the world!!!

So here comes the argument: Senator George Mitchell of Maine and the National Archives concede this 13th Amendment was proposed by Congress in 1810. However, they explain that there were seventeen states when Congress proposed the "title of nobility" Amendment; that ratification required the support of thirteen states, but since only twelve states supported the Amendment, it was not ratified. The Government Printing Office hops on the bandwagon to agree; it currently prints copies of the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES which include the "title of nobility" Amendment as proposed--but unratified.

Even if this 13th Amendment was never ratified, even if research would be flawed and only twelve states voted to ratify the Amendment--wouldn't the possibility be wondrous to imagine? So what am I saying? Am I saying that it was a dream within one vote of historical utopia? No! I am saying that it WAS RATIFIED.

After a break we shall continue to prove it. And, dear ones of America and ones running for office with overwhelming odds against "housecleaning"--here are your tools to do the sweeping! NOW DO YOU SEE THE VALUE OF A GOOD OLD SPACE CADET WITH X-RAY VISION? IT SURELY DOESN'T SURPRISE ANY OF YOU THAT THIS PARTICULAR AMENDMENT WOULD "GET LOST"? SO BE IT.

8/30/91 #2 HATONN PARADISE FOUND?

Again, I give humble thanks and appreciation to David Dodge and Alfred Adask for jobs well done!

In 1789, The House of Representatives compiled a list of possible Constitutional Amendments, some of which would ultimately become your Bill of Rights. The House proposed seventeen; the Senate reduced the list to twelve. During this process Senator Tristram Dalton (Mass.) proposed an Amendment seeking to prohibit and provide a penalty for any American accepting a "title of Nobility" (RG 46 Records of the U.S. Senate). Although it wasn't passed, this was the first time a "title of nobility" amendment was proposed.

Twenty years later, in January, 1810, Senator Reed proposed another "Title of Nobility" Amendment (History of Congress, Proceedings of the Senate, p. 529-530). On April 27, 1810, the Senate voted to pass this 13th Amendment by a vote of 26 to 1; the House resolved in the affirmative 87 to 3; and the following resolve was sent to the states for ratification:

"If any citizen of the United States shall Accept, claim, receive or retain any title of nobility or honour, or shall, without the consent of Congress, accept and retain any present, pension, office or emolument of any kind whatever, from any emperor, king, prince or foreign power, such person shall cease to be a citizen of the United States, and shall be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under them, or either of them."

The Constitution requires three-quarters of the states to ratify a proposed amendment before it may be added to the Constitution. When Congress proposed the "Title of Nobility" Amendment in 1810, there were seventeen states, thirteen of which would have to ratify for the Amendment to be adopted. According to the National Archives, the following is a list of the twelve states that ratified, and their dates of ratification.

(Herein please note that the 16th (income tax) Amendment was truly never ratified! But here you have one which was truly ratified with proof thereof--and it was secretly heisted from your Constitution--are you getting a bit upset yet?)

Maryland, Dec. 25, 1810
Kentucky, Jan. 31, 1811
Ohio, Jan. 31, 1811
Delaware, Feb. 2, 1811
Pennsylvania, Feb. 6, 1811
New Jersey, Feb. 13, 1811
Vermont, Oct. 24, 1811
Tennessee, Nov. 21, 1811
Georgia, Dec. 13, 1811
North Carolina, Dec. 23, 1811
Massachusetts, Feb. 27, 1812
New Hampshire, Dec. 10, 1812

NOW WATCH THE "NOW" USUAL SLEIGHT OF HAND AND FOOTWORK FOR IT HAS BECOME THE MODUS OPERANDI WHEN THE GOING GETS TIGHT: Before the thirteenth state could ratify, the WAR OF 1812 BROKE OUT WITH ENGLAND. By the time the war ended in 1814, THE BRITISH HAD BURNED THE CAPITOL, THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS, AND MOST OF THE RECORDS OF THE FIRST 38 YEARS OF GOVERNMENT. I'm sure the connection between the proposed "title of nobility" amendment which would close England out of the US government forever, and the War of 1812 BECOMES SELF-EVIDENT!

You have entered massive wars for far less--like Desert Storm in Iraq.

Four years later, on December 31, 1817, the House of Representatives resolved that President Monroe inquire into the status of this Amendment because all sorts of "strange" things were beginning to happen in your government. In a letter dated Feb. 6, 1818, President Monroe reported to the House that the Secretary of State Adams had written to the governors of Virginia, South Carolina and Connecticut to tell them that the proposed Amendment had been ratified by twelve States and rejected by two (New York and Rhode Island), and asked the governors to notify him of their legislature's position. (House Document No. 76)

(This, and other letters written by the President and the Secretary of State during the month of February, 1818, note only that the proposed Amendment had not YET been ratified. However, these letters would later become crucial because, in the absence of additional information, they would be interpreted to mean that the amendment was never ratified.)

On February 28, 1818, Secretary of State Adams reported the rejection of the Amendment by South Carolina (House Doc. No. 129). There are no further entries regarding the ratification of the 13th Amendment in the Journals of Congress; whether Virginia ratified is neither confirmed nor denied. Likewise, a search through the executive papers of Governor Preston of Virginia does not reveal any correspondence from Secretary of State Adams. (However, there is a journal entry in the Virginia House that the Gov- ernor presented the House with an official letter and documents from Washington within a time frame that includes receipt of Adams' letter.) Again, however, no evidence of ratification; none of denial.

Whoopee! However, on March 10, 1819, the Virginia legislature passed Act No. 280 (Virginia Archives of Richmond, "misc." file, p. 299 for micro-film): "Be it enacted by the General Assembly, that there shall be published an edition of the Laws of this Commonwealth in which shall be contained the following matters, that is to say; the Constitution of the (u)nited States and the amendments thereto...." This act was the specific legislated instructions on what was, by law, to be included in the republication (a special edition) of the Virginia Civil Code. The Virginia Legislature had already agreed that all Acts were to go into effect on the same day--the day that the Civil Code was to be republished. Therefore, the 13th Amendment's official DATE OF RATIFICATION WOULD BE DATE OF RE-PUBLICATION OF THE VIRGINIA CIVIL CODE: MARCH 12, 1819!!!

The Delegates knew Virginia was the last of the 13 States that were necessary for the ratification of the 13th Amendment. They also knew there were powerful forces allied against this ratification so they took extraordinary measures to make sure that it was published in sufficient quantity (4,000 copies were ordered, almost triple their usual order), and instructed the printer to send a copy to President James Monroe as well as James Madison and Thomas Jefferson. (The printer, Thomas Ritchie, was bonded. He was required to be extremely accurate in his research and his printing, or he would forfeit his bond.)

IN THIS FASHION, VIRGINIA ANNOUNCED THE RATIFICATION: BY PUBLICATION AND DISSEMINATION OF THE THIRTEENTH AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Some argue that there is question as to whether Virginia ever formally notified the Secretary of State that they had ratified this 13th Amendment. Some have argued that because such notification was not received (or at least, not recorded), the Amendment was therefore not legally ratified. However, printing by a legislature is prima facie evidence of ratification.

Further, there is no Constitutional requirement that the Secretary of State, or anyone else, be officially notified to complete the ratification process. The Constitution only requires that three-fourths of the states ratify for an Amendment to be added to the Constitution. If three-quarters of the states ratify, the Amendment is passed. Period. The Constitution is otherwise silent on what procedure should be used to announce, confirm, or communicate the ratification of amendments.

Knowing they were the last state necessary to ratify the Amendment, the Virginians had every right to announce their own and the nation's ratification of the Amendment by publishing it on a special edition of the Constitution, and so they did.

Word of Virginia's 1819 ratification spread throughout the states and both Rhode Island and Kentucky published the new Amendment in 1822. Ohio first published in 1824. Maine ordered 10,000 copies of the Constitution with the 13th Amendment to be printed for use in the schools in 1825, and again in 1831 for the Census Edition. Indiana Revised Laws of 1831 published the 13th Article on p. 20. Northwestern Territories published in 1833. Ohio published in 1831 and 1833. Then came the Wisconsin Territory in 1839; Iowa Territory in 1843; Ohio again, in 1848; Kansas Statutes in 1855; and Nebraska Territory six times in a row from 1855 to 1860.

So far, Dodge has identified eleven different states or territories that printed the Amendment in twenty separate publications over forty-one years. And more editions including this 13th Amendment are sure to be discovered for they ARE THERE WAITING!

So--you might be able to convince some of the people, or maybe even all of them, for a little while, that this 13th Amendment was never ratified. Maybe you can show them that the ten legislatures which ordered it published eighteen times (known) consisted of ignorant politicians who don't know their amendments from their...ahh, articles. You might even be able to convince the public that your forefathers never meant to "outlaw" public servants who pushed people around and accepted bribes or special favors to "look the other way". Maybe. But before you do, there is a lot of evidence to be explained.

THE AMENDMENT DISAPPEARS

In 1829, the following note appears on p. 23, Vol. 1 of the New York Revised Statutes:

"In the edition of the Laws of the U.S. before referred to, there is an amendment printed as article 13, prohibiting citizens from accepting titles of nobility or honor, or presents, offices, etc., from foreign nations. But, by a message of the president of the United States of the 4th of February, 1818, in answer to a resolution of the House of Representatives, it appears that this amendment had been ratified only by 12 states, and therefore had not been adopted. See vol. iv of the printed papers of the 1st session of the 15th congress, No. 76." (Emphasis added.) In 1854, a similar note appeared in the Oregon Statutes. Both notes refer to the Laws of the United States. 1st vol. p. 73/74.

It's not yet clear whether the 13th Amendment was published in Laws of the United States, 1st Vol., prematurely, by accident, in anticipation of Virginia's ratification, or as part of a plot to discredit the Amendment by making it appear that only twelve States had ratified. Whether the Laws of the United States Vol. 1 (carrying the 13th Amendment) was re-called or made-up is unknown. In fact, it's not even clear that the specified volume was actually printed--the Law Library of the Library of Congress has no record of its existence.

However, because the notes' authors reported no further references to the 13th Amendment after the Presidential letter of February, 1818, they apparently assumed the ratification process had ended in failure at that time. If so, they neglected to seek information on the Amendment after 1818, or at the state level, and therefore missed the evidence of Virginia's ratification. This opinion--assuming that the Presidential letter of Feb. 1818, was the last word on the Amendment--has persisted to this day.

In 1849, Virginia decided to revise the 1819 Civil Code of Virginia (which had continued the 13th Amendment for 30 years). It was at that time that one of the code's revisers (A LAWYER NAMED PATTON) wrote to the Secretary of the Navy, William B. Preston, asking if this Amendment had been ratified or appeared by mistake. (A most interesting resource for information at any circumstance.)

Preston wrote to J.M. Clayton, the Secretary of State, who replied that this Amendment was not ratified by a sufficient number of States. This conclusion was based on the information that Secretary of State J.Q. Adams had provided the House of Representatives in 1818, BEFORE Virginia's ratification in 1819. (Funny thing--and take careful note: today, the Congressional Research Service tells anyone asking about this 13th Amendment this same story: that only twelve states, not the requisite thirteen, had ratified. Skunks in the wood-pile?)

Note, however, that despite Clayton's opinion, the Amendment continued to be published in various states and territories for at least another eleven years (the last known publication was in the Nebraska Territory in 1860).

Once again the 13th Amendment was caught in the riptides of American politics. South Carolina seceded from the Union in December of 1860, signalling the onset of the Civil War. In March, 1861, President Abraham Lincoln was inaugurated.

Later in 1861, another proposed amendment, also numbered thirteen, was signed by President Lincoln. This was the only proposed amendment that was ever signed by a president. That resolve to amend read: "ARTICLE THIRTEEN, No amendment shall be made to the constitution which will authorize or give to Congress the power to abolish or interfere, within any State, with the domestic institutions thereof, including that of persons held to labor or service by the laws of said State." (In other words, President Lincoln had signed a resolve that would have permitted slavery, and upheld states' rights.) Only one State, Illinois, ratified this proposed amendment before the Civil War broke out in 1861.

In the tumult of 1865, the original 13th Amendment was finally removed from your Constitution. On January 31, another 13th Amendment (which prohibited slavery in Sect. 1 and ended states' rights in Sect. 2) was proposed. On April 9, the Civil War ended with General Lee's surrender. On April 14, President Lincoln (who, in 1861, had signed the proposed Amendment that would have allowed slavery and states rights) was assassinated. On December 6, the "new" 13th Amendment loudly prohibiting slavery (and quietly surrendering states rights to the federal government) was ratified, replacing and effectively erasing the original 13th Amendment that had prohibited "titles of nobility" and "honors". Wasn't that about as clever as you can get?

SIGNIFICANCE OF REMOVAL

To create the present oligarchy (rule by LAWYERS) which you now endure, the lawyers first had to remove the 13th "titles of nobility" Amendment that might otherwise have kept them in check. In fact, it was not until after the Civil War and after the disappearance of the 13th Amendment that the newly developing bar associations began working diligently to create a system wherein lawyers took on a title of privilege and nobility as "Esquires" and received the "honor" of offices and positions (like district attorney or judge) that only lawyers may now hold. By virtue of these titles, honors, and special privileges, lawyers have assumed political and economic advantages over the majority of U.S. citizens. Through these privileges, they have nearly established a two-tiered citizenship in this nation where a majority may vote, but only a minority (lawyers) may run for political office. This two-tiered citizenship is clearly contrary to Americans' political interests, the nation's economic welfare, and the Constitution's egalitarian spirit.

The significance of the 13th Amendment and its deletion from the Constitution is this: Since the amendment was never lawfully nullified, it is still in full force and effect and is the Law of the land. If public support is awakened, this missing Amendment would provide a legal basis to challenge many existing laws and court decisions previously made by lawyers who were unconstitutionally elected or appointed to their positions of power; it might even mean the removal of lawyers from your current government system.

At the very least, this missing 13th Amendment demonstrates that two centuries ago, lawyers were recognized as enemies of the people and nation. Some things never change.

THOSE WHO CANNOT RECALL HISTORY - - -

In his farewell address, George

Washington warned of "...change by usurpation; for though this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed."

In 1788, Thomas Jefferson proposed that you have a Declaration of Rights similar to Virginia's. Three of his suggestions were "freedom of commerce against monopolies, trial by jury in ALL cases" and "no suspensions of the habeas corpus."

No doubt Washington's warning and Jefferson's ideas were dismissed as redundant by those who knew the law. Who would have dreamed your legal system would become a monopoly against freedom when that was one of the primary causes for the rebellion against King George III?

Yet, the denial of trial by jury is now commonplace in your courts, and habeas corpus, for crimes against the state, suspended. (By crimes against the state, I refer to "political crimes" where there is no injured party and the corpus delicti--evidence--is equally imaginary.)

I had a document handed into Dharma's hands not 15 minutes ago from the Christic Institute, entitled Avirgan v. Hull Update.

It starts off (and I shall write just a tiny portion): Ruling disregards evidence, denies right to trial by jury. On June 18 three judges of the 11th Circuit appeals court refused to reinstate Avirgan v. Hull, a civil racketeering lawsuit charging 29 members of a criminal racketeering enterprise with murder, destruction of property, drug trafficking, gun smuggling, money laundering and other crimes. The judges upheld two decisions handed down by Judge James Lawrence King of Miami: An order granting "summary judgments" in favor of the defendants and a subsequent ruling ordering the Christic Institute, General Counsel Daniel Sheehand and Plaintiffs Tony Avirgan and Martha Honey to pay more than $1 million in punitive fines for allegedly filing the lawsuit "in bad faith". The Institute has asked all 11 judges of the appellate court to review the decision. If necessary, we plan to appeal to the Supreme Court....."

Just a bit more from this same case: Judge King's decision to halt proceedings shortly before the trial's scheduled opening date predicated on an argument unprecedented in law: that plaintiffs are NOT ENTITLED TO THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY UNLESS THEY SUBMIT ALL OF THEIR EVIDENCE TO THE JUDGE IN ADMISSIBLE FORM BEFORE THE TRIAL BEGINS.

It goes on and on but I haven't space here to handle that subject also. In other words, however, you have to have and prove each of the accusations to the "judge" BEFORE the lawsuit can be filed. Grounds for objection: "A judge is prohibited from this conduct when a plaintiff has formally demanded a trial by jury."

The authority to create monopolies was judge-made law by Supreme Court Justice John Marshall, et al, during the early 1800's; Judges (and lawyers) granted to themselves the power to declare the acts of the People "un-Constitutional", waited until their decision was grandfathered, and then granted themselves a monopoly by creating the bar associations.

Although Art. VI of the U.S. Constitution mandates that executive orders and treaties are binding upon the states ("...and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding."), the Supreme Court has held that the Bill of Rights is not binding upon the states, and thereby resurrected many of the complaints enumerated in the Declaration of Independence, exactly as Thomas Jefferson foresaw in "Notes on the State of Virginia", Query 17, p. 161, 1784:

"Our rulers will become corrupt, our people careless...the time for fixing every essential right on a legal basis is [now] while our rulers are honest, and ourselves united. From the conclusion of this war we shall be going downhill. It will not then be necessary to resort every moment to the people for support. They will be forgotten, therefore, and their rights disregarded. They will forget themselves, but in the sole faculty of making money and will never think of uniting to effect a due respect for their rights. The shackles, therefore, which shall not be knocked off at the conclusion of this war, will remain on us long, will be made heavier and heavier, till our rights shall revive or expire in a convulsion."

So, you await the inevitable convulsion.

Only two questions remain: Will you fight to revive your rights? Or will you meekly submit as your last remaining rights expire, surrendered to the courts, and perhaps to a "New World Order"?

There was an addendum to this information which must be added: Documentation has been sent as to five more editions of statutes that include the Constitution and the missing 13th Amendment.

These editions were printed by: Ohio, 1819; Connecticut (one of the states that voted against ratifying the Amendment), 1835; Kansas, 1861; and the Colorado Territory, 1865 and 1867.

These finds are important because: 1) they offer independent confirmation of these claims; and 2) they extend the known dates of publication from Nebraska, 1860 (Dodge's most recent find and herein mentioned as such), to Colorado in 1867.

The most intriguing discovery was the 1867 Colorado Territory edition which includes both the "missing" 13th Amendment AND the current 13th Amendment (freeing the slaves), on the same page. The current 13th Amendment is listed as the 14th Amendment in the 1867 Colorado edition.

Now in appreciation for this material I ask reprinting of the following:

This investigation has followed a labyrinthine path that started with the questions about how our courts evolved from a temple of the Bill of Rights to the current star chamber and whether this situation had anything to do with retiring chief Justice Burger's warning that we were "about to lose our constitution". My seven year investigation has been fruitful beyond belief; the information on the missing 13th Amendment is only a "drop in the bucket" of the information I have discovered. Still, the research continues, and by definition, is never truly complete.

If you will, please check your state's archives and libraries to review any copies of the Constitution printed prior to the Civil War, or any books containing prints of the Constitution before 1870. If you locate anything related to this project we would appreciate hearing from you so we may properly fulfill this effort of research. Please send your comments or discoveries to:

David M. Dodge, P.O. Box 985, Taos, New Mexico 87571."

Please, you other researchers, like Patrick B.--get on this and share up what you find. You will only turn this nation around through the LAW AND IT IS ALL THERE IF YOU BUT UNCOVER AND RECOVER IT. SALU. .

I have only one more tid-bit to dump on you in the "you are had" category for this writing: In uncovering the mess with the conspiracy regarding Santa Barbara Savings/RTC/Bank of America fraud and deceit involving Dharma and Oberli--it is uncovered that the following practice is common and takes place with the RTC in massive proportion these days: A bank, say, Bank of America, buys from the RTC, Santa Barbara Savings--BUT--THEY ONLY GET THE GOOD ASSETS AND THE RTC (YOU-THE-PEOPLE) CARRY ALL LOSSES AND CONTESTED PROPERTY. IN OTHER WORDS IT IS COMPLETELY PRE-ARRANGED THAT THE BANK(ERS) GET ALL THE ASSETS AND YOU TAKE THE DEBTS! GOOD-LUCK, WORLD! Note that this property in question is already overshadowed by expenses against its value two to one from litigation--but in the end you-the-people will hold the bag. By the way, once again, there is found to be a deadline (which is hidden from view) in which you must file an (unknown) form by a certain date or you are forever barred from any claim. Is it not about time you do something about this fraud and plague upon your lands?

I further wish to acknowledge a publication which I admire greatly for it is DEDICATED TO RAISING HELL FOR LAWYERS! If you have a good story please send it to them--we'll get around to it, too. If you can write, if you've got a personal story about the legal system to tell, an essay to publish on injustice, or a letter to the editor, they want it. They can't pay you for it--but freedom is worthy of giving unity. The editor urges you to write and not pussyfoot around--don't let the system scare you into silence--name names, send photo copies of relevant documents, pictures of yourself or the principal parties, and say what's in your heart as well as what's in your legal dictionary. They look for documents anywhere from letter-size on up to 2,000 word essays (Well, ours is about 300,000 words, so guess it will have to be in shorthand!).

YOU CAN CHANGE THINGS IF YOU WANT TO--OR YOU CAN SIT AND WAIT AND IT WON'T MATTER ANY MORE.

THESE PEOPLE CALL THEIR PUBLICATION: AntiShyster, 9794 Forest Lane, Suite 159, Dallas, Texas 75243. 1-800-477-5508. Their slogan: IT'S NATIONAL ATTORNEY WEEK--TAKE A SHYSTER TO LYNCH.

In the meanwhile, anyone wanting to write up this particular case in point--we will be delighted! We are most happy to give a whole bunch of names and places. You are going to find the same ones that continually pop up in the news--Bush, Reagan, Shea & Gould, Salomon Bros, etc. The network is so massive that a "clean sweep" with your Constitutional broom is all that will do it. God Bless!

Hatonn to clear.

OUR NEWEST JOURNAL

HUMAN

THE SCIENCE OF MAN
THE SCIENTIFIC DEFINITION AND PROOF OF GOD

AND THE COSMIC ORDER OF THE UNIVERSE

WHAT IS CREATION AND HOW IT CAME TO BE

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. VII

Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD (ATON) writes the introduction to this very important JOURNAL which gives us detailed information about this universe that has never before been given to hu-man.

We are given details of: How God creates His universe. - The details of reincarnation and what it actually is - The illusion of disappearance and reappearance - The illusion of repetition - How and why God creates only one form - The cube-spheres of space - Time: is it real or illusion? - What is motion? - Three faces of Israel - Energy is in mind and not in matter. - To control matter first control self. - The Humanist Manifestos I & II.

Some of the many other topics are: Transient matter and omnipresent zero - There is only one kind of electricity. - Waves are motion. - What is gravity? - Immortality - Faith will not do your work. - God will work with you and not for you. - The misconceptions about prayer - Bodies are chemical machines.

There are many other very interesting topics covered.

We are also given information to keep us up to date on current very critical world affairs.

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion

Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

TRUTH WILL SET YOU
FREE

DEADLY NUCLEAR RADIATION HAZARDS USA

Women Strike for Peace
National Committee for Women's Action on Nuclear Energy

Manmade low level radiation is all about us and IS causing cancer, leukemia, cataracts, premature aging, damage to unborn children, genetic mutations for generations to come, fetal and infant deaths. High level radiation from weapons making nuclear explosions and nuclear war can bring an end to all life on earth. Plutonium was named for Pluto, the lord of hell. At present over 90% of the volume of manmade radioactivity results from the weapons program. By the year 2000 the worldwide production of long-lived radioactivity will be equal to exploding about 3 million Hiroshima bombs per year. Dr. John Goffman: "It violates minimum morality for any generation of humans to produce a radioactive legacy which IRREVERSIBLY endangers the future of all generations to come."

End the arms race—not the human race.

- L. Franklin - Ramirez. Permission to copy required if there are changes to statistics.

	NUCLEAR WEAPONS (Design, Testing, Production, Storage, and Army & Air Force Deployment Bases)		NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS Accounting for DOE's High-Level Accumulative Radioactive Waste (not including Spent Fuel)
	NUCLEAR-CAPABLE SHIP AND SUB BASES		OPERABLE
	NUCLEAR TEST EXPLOSIONS		INOPERABLE/SHUTDOWN
	NUCLEAR INDUSTRIES (Weapons Related)		UNDER CONSTRUCTION
	NUCLEAR INDUSTRIES (Commercial)		PLANNED
	MILITARY AND D.O.E. RESEARCH REACTORS (Operable)		UNIVERSITY RESEARCH REACTORS (Operable)
	MILITARY AND D.O.E. RESEARCH REACTORS (Inoperable) Accounting for 99.2% High-Level Accumulative Radioactive Waste		UNIVERSITY RESEARCH REACTORS (Inoperable)
	RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS (Transportation, Packaging, Decontamination, Storage, Disposal)		URANIUM MINES, MILLS, TAILINGS
			PROCESSING FACILITIES (uranium & plutonium)
			PORTS OF ENTRY—Uranium Ore and Spent Fuel
			RADIOACTIVE WASTE BURIAL GROUNDS (On Land and On Ship, Long Term Storage)

Original Research from U.S. Government Sources:

Department of Defense (DOD); Department of Energy (DOE); Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC); Bureau of Mines. Information also drawn from "State by State Guide to Nuclear Facilities," Another Mother for Peace; the NARMIC Maps; American Friends Service Committee; "Nuclear America" War Resisters' The Nuclear News Buyers Guide; American Nuclear Society.

Designed by James True and Carol Gerson, Graphic Artists.

Researched and prepared by Louise Franklin-Ramirez, Virginia Women for Peace and Gray Panthers.

you are already nuked! Major fallout will begin by next year from load already in space

(YOU ARE ALREADY NUKED! MAJOR FALLOUT WILL BEGIN BY NEXT YEAR FROM LOAD ALREADY IN SPACE. GYEORGOS HATONN)

Fig. 4.1. Simplified fallout patterns showing total radiation doses that would be received by persons on the surface and in the open for the entire 14 days following the surface bursting of 5050 megatons on the targets indicated, if the winds at all elevations blew continuously from the west at 25 mph.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 3

8/28/91 #1 HATONN/ATON
WEDNESDAY

Hatonn present in Radiance. First we have a personal response to W.B. (Burbank).

"Is it right to continue life support by artificial means when there is no hope in recovery? Is it against the law of God to remove life support under such circumstances?"

I hope you can understand that this is not a "yes" or "no" inquiry. Each entity is as precious and wondrous as its individuality. I can only give you guidelines by which to measure a decision of this magnitude.

Is the "SOUL" present? Be careful as to HOW you answer that! The one most closely attached, or several, must be QUIET and commune silently with that being--I do not speak of the "body"--I speak of the KNOWING which comes WITHIN.

Now, you must look at the disease. Is it tumorous, is it accidental head injury that may have actually destroyed a portion of the brain tissue, is it illness of the physical due to aging and acquiring the time of natural physical cycle change? In other words, evaluate the circumstance. The physician's input is valuable but should not be the deciding factor.

Life support systems in a hospital ARE NOT GOD NOR THE SOUL BEING IN ACTION. THEY ARE INVENTIONS OF "MAN" AND ARE OFTEN USED TO BENEFIT SOUL EVOLVEMENT--MOSTLY USED TO PROLONG

A WEARY EXISTENCE IN PAIN AND PRISON.

Next, look at where the expansion/compression portion of the cycle IS. If the being has productive years ahead and has experienced a driving need to produce a thing in life-stream of conscious physical--evaluate whether or not damage is such as to disallow "probable" recovery. For instance, after trauma through accident, there is a period of time wherein the body often functions in "motor" response to allow healing--in coma. But this is usually only until the body recovers sufficiently to operate on its own. Once the allowed time is long enough and there is no sign of desire to "come back", you must accept that the Soul has made its decision and is only in partial attendance until the human expression and loved ones are READY to release it.

If a body has expressed desire to rest, it will show you by its reaction. It WILL become terminal and it WILL produce pain in order for the Soul to allow release. The most important thing in this instance is to discern who is learning the lesson--the one who wishes to GO or the ones remaining who feel NEED TO CLING FOR "SELF".

Once these guidelines have been made in rational discourse then you must go within and commune with that Soul--and if you ask in sincerity unto God to sit with you and show you the way--YOU WILL BE GIVEN TO KNOW THE PREFERENCE OF THE BEING INVOLVED.

The most important thing to KNOW is that an "operating" "body" is NOT THE PERSON! When trapped in a situation of inability to sever the "cord" the Soul will usually stand guard over the body and "visit" it occasionally. Sometimes it departs and never even comes within the house again. If the person is lucid, even a portion of the time--LISTEN TO WHAT IT ASKS FROM ITS SOUL LEVEL--TO CLING A BIT LONGER OR FOR RELEASE.

Then, it must be faced--decide whether it is the "living" loved ones, the physician, who is handsomely paid for the services of prolonged agony and imprisonment of a Soul, or the NEED OF THE BEING TO REMAIN. THERE ARE SIGNS.

Now, KNOW that to discontinue life support systems after all possible recovery is considered and negated--is not against God's intent for it cannot be--that which is Soul is the YOU, and the body is the housing for convenience--there is NO SUCH THING AS DEATH--ONLY REFOLDING WITHIN THE SEED TO AGAIN UNFOLD ITSELF. THE BEING IN POINT CANNOT MAKE THE UNFOLDMENT INTO WHOLENESS AGAIN, UNTIL IT HAS COMPLETED THE CYCLE OF REFOLDMENT. PLEASE GET THE MOST RECENT JOURNALS FOR, THIS PROCESS IS COVERED IN DETAIL REGARDING LIFE CYCLES AND THAT WHICH IS REST (DEATH YOU CALL IT--WRONGLY!).

If mechanical means of sustaining a body function are NOT FOR THE PURPOSE OF ALLOWING TIME

FOR THE HEALING IN ORDER TO AGAIN FUNCTION IN THE PHYSICAL FORMAT IN ORDER TO HOUSE A FUNCTIONING MIND, THEN YOU ARE PROLONGING THAT WHICH IS NOT YOURS TO PROLONG. Man has "cycles", and to prolong the agony of "movement" just to sustain a Body is indeed against the God within that being who has made its choice and the rest of you have overridden its choice to suit your own needs. NOW THE PUNCHLINE:

IF THAT SOUL NEEDS FURTHER USE OF ITS BODY AND ALL HAS BEEN DONE WHICH CAN, THE DISCONTINUATION OF THE SUPPORT SYSTEM SIMPLY ALLOWS THE SOUL TO MAKE ITS DECISION. IF IT IS IN INTENT TO REMAIN WITH THE BODY LONGER--IT IS ALREADY IN ITS STATE OF COMMUNION WITH ITS SOURCE, GOD AND "THEY" WILL DECIDE QUITE NICELY ON THEIR OWN, THE NEXT STEP AS TO WHETHER TO REMAIN IN THE RESPONSIBLE BODY OR TAKE RESPITE AND HEAL. IT IS NOT UP TO THE ONE REMAINING TO MAKE THAT CHOICE FOR NO MAN KNOWS THE CONTRACT NOR MISSION OF ANOTHER.

As direct response to the question as directed; I believe you have the guidelines for decision. Now, for the biggie--NO, IT IS NOT AGAINST THE LAW OF GOD IN SUCH TERMINAL CIRCUMSTANCE--IN FACT, TO CONTINUE MECHANICAL SERVICE TO A BODY BEYOND THE DESIRE OF THE SOUL INVOLVED IS THAT WHICH IS AGAINST GOD--FOR YOU (OR THE PHYSICIAN) HAVE MADE THE DECISION--NOT THE INDIVIDUAL IN THE FLIGHT.

Blessings and peace be with you for this came from a heart in pain of indecision for at some point in almost every life stream will come such a circumstance with a loved one.

The thing you must realize is that to discontinue a life-support system IS NOT THE SAME AS EUTHANASIA NOR IS IT ASSISTED SUICIDE. IT IS THE RE-LEASE INTO THE HANDS OF GOD AND THAT WONDROUS FRAGMENT OF EXPRESSION OF GOD-SELF. These are circumstances which are the testing and lessons of the relations. I trust I give peace and not further confusion, but each instance holds its own unique circumstance, therefore, ASK, and GOD WILL ALLOW YOU TO KNOW THE WAY. MAN IN HIS OWN LONELINESS AND FEAR CLINGS TO THAT WHICH IS NOT HIS TO HOLD, AND YOU MIGHT PONDER A BIT OF VERSE:

*IF YOU LOVE A THING--SET IT FREE.
IF IT RETURNS TO YOU--IT WAS YOURS TO HOLD FOR A WHILE.
IF IT COMES NOT AGAIN--IT WAS NOT YOURS TO HOLD.
IF IT BE A BEING--IT WAS NEVER YOURS TO HOLD AT ALL--ONLY SHARE.
GOD WILL GRANT THE WISDOM TO DISCERN THE DIFFERENCE IF YOU ASK--AND THEN LISTEN FOR THE ANSWER! THE ANSWER WILL COME IN THE SILENCE OR THE SIGN IF YOU BUT WATCH. So be it, for the Light awaits the taking that the path might be illumined.*

Adonai

Aton to clear. I answer in behalf of Sananda and I appreciate the opportunity to so do.

9/2/91 #2. HATONN MONDAY, LABOR DAY

Hatonn present with the new flashes of the week: Mt. Pinatubo still spews ash and metallic particles all over the globe now. There are particles of gold and other precious metals BUT, some deadly ones as well--lithium, chromium, copper, etc. It will be safer to stop breathing, world.

Mt. Unzen of Japan is freshly erupting and tremors are shaking large parts of western Japan. Then across the waves to Grand Cayman Island--the earth is shaking and rattling. Also along the Mexican Oaxaca coast in the Nicobar Islands.

Moving on around you will find "the heaviest inundations in living memory" have hit four provinces to the south and west of Phnom Penh. Also Thailand and Laos have had severe flooding for hundreds of miles downstream along the Mekong River in Cambodia. How many of the POW's do you think your good old buddies will bring home from that area? The rice harvest is lost and the rail lines and roads devastated.

But not to be outdone, New Delhi, Calcutta and other parts of northern India were devastated by fierce rains that have swamped the cities and flooded residential areas. Two concomitant (a bit unusual??) storms moved ashore from the Bay of Bengal.

Not to be outdone where there are other possible POW and MIA's--Korea--more than a hundred people were left dead and thousands homeless after widespread flooding and wind damage across southeastern Korea.

Now to more unpleasant things: Cholera bacteria has moved up into the area of North American waters. There comes no explanation of how the germs reached the Gulf of Mexico oyster banks in Mobile Bay. The U.S. Center for Disease Control in Atlanta has no notion of how or why but has warned against eating the oysters which are widely polluted."

In Bolivia, it is confirmed that cholera has reached that country and people are rapidly becoming ill as the disease spreads.

Now, note that plutonium concentrations are now found in an area near France's nuclear testing site at Mururoa Atoll in the South Pacific. NOT to worry they say because, they "...can't tell if it is new contamination or 'natural fallout' from prior testing as well as 'recent testing'. France has been testing nuclear weapons at Mururoa and nearby Fongataufa since 1966! Still feel cuddly safe?

WHAT IS GOING ON AT EDWARDS?

They are playing with this little rocket-powered device designed to destroy nuclear missiles in space. It went all of 13 feet into the air and flew for 17 seconds during a Star Wars program test, (officials said—I do note that pictures you were shown were taken some six months past).

This little 23.8-pound, computerized projectile also locked in on a simulated missile plume 100 yards away, performed two lateral movements covering 20 feet and hovered before dropping into a safety net, officials reported.

The device, known as LEAP, for Lightweight Exo-Atmospheric Projectile, is considered a "KEY COMPONENT OF THE PENTAGON'S STAR WARS PROGRAM, OFFICIALLY KNOWN AS THE STRATEGIC DEFENSE INITIATIVE."

The plans, they say, are to launch this from aboard an Aires or similar rocket and eject it 60 miles to 180 miles above the Earth. The device would track incoming missiles and slam into them, destroying the weapons.

This is dubbed LEAP, I suppose in honor of frogs--well, I note another frog weapon which would be at least as effective and a lot more slippery for your enemy. You will note that it is now employed in Iran. A very large army of frogs has invaded the Caspian Sea port of Ghazian, overrunning streets and hopping into houses. The Iranian news agency reported that they are from a local marsh that has been flooded with the overflow from nearby rivers. The area was once the site of a plant that bred and canned frogs for export, but it was closed after the Islamic Revolution of 1979.

Here is another good one: "Magellan Spacecraft Discovers 4,200-Mile Channel on Venus." They say that "The very existence of such a long channel is a great puzzle. If the long channel were carved by something flowing on the surface, the liquid must have had unusual properties." Brilliant! You are in good hands, world! Shorter channels have been seen on many plains on other parts of Venus, some of which terminate in lava flows that suggest they were carved out by lava from a volcanic eruption. But it is said it is unlikely that lava, even at very high temperatures, would have the very high rate of flow needed to form the newly discovered channel--No similar channels are known to exist on Earth, NASA said. Well, you could not really see it very well because of "thick, yellowish clouds....". Now do any of you nice "channels" wish to debate "life on Venus", especially little sojourns with space brothers of some sort to visit relatives? The only life forms on such a place as Venus is from off-planet stationed craft--some being almost as large as the planet itself and yes, containing very sophisticated "cities". They do not live ON Venus. The "yellow" clouds are vaporized sulphur and it would give you a very big poison headache for approximately six tenths of a second as you fry your little toes to a cinder. It is time you stop the nonsense and deal with REALITY of the Cosmic projections as they ARE!

Come back to Earth and deal with your own reality--here is one, taken totally at random: Phoenix, AZ: "A former cook who spat on a hamburger as he prepared it for a policeman has pleaded guilty to misdemeanor assault. George Juan Kuehme, who entered the plea Tuesday as part of a deal with prosecutors, allegedly saw a police car at the drive-up window of a restaurant and spat on his hamburger, saying, 'That's what an officer gets.'"

Officer Gary Underhill noticed something amiss when he bit into his sandwich after leaving the fast-food restaurant Dec. 10 and went back to arrest Kuehme.

Kuehme, 20, will be sentenced to 45 days in jail and put on probation under his plea agreement with prosecutors.

And for the biggest LIE of the day: "Kuwait Sinks Iraqi Gunboat, Seizes 46 Iraqi Soldiers in Gulf Clash." I suppose the lie was too much for even the press for they spelled "soldier" as "Soliders". Perhaps this is some amphibian similar to frogs? Oh, by the way, the reason that it wasn't noted was that the soliders were in "civilian guise". "The only alternative to soldiers was that the men were 'arms smugglers'." Funny thing, the only arms to smuggle at present are from Israel. Oh sweet lullabies of dream-land!

SOME HARD FACTS WHICH ARE (SOMEWHAT) TRUE
The only thing is in the usual understatement of fact.

* George Washington said: "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." Your present government and courts ignore both!

* Bush recently approved another $1.5 BILLION in guaranteed agricultural loans to the USSR. They will never be paid back so these are US taxpayer funded GIFTS to Gorby and Co. It's your money--do you approve?

* It is now confirmed (5/31/91) that Manuel Noriega was a CIA agent and helped conduct US intelligence operations. The CIA paid him $200,000 a year for over ten years.

* The U.S. (you) pays over $50 BILLION per year to defend JAPAN.

* To date, the federal government has spent $47.5 million for the Iran-Contra investigation and prosecution of Ollie North, Richard Secord and others. The office of Special Prosecutor Lawrence Walsh currently costs $1 million per month and in spite of Ollie North's conviction being overturned in appeals courts, Walsh plans to retry North. Come-come, America, who is kidding who?

* The US Senate just voted itself a $23,200 pay raise--bringing annual salaries to $125,100. This was done in the night with barely any dissenters. Could it not work better if you abolished completely, the Senators' salaries? It appears to me that you pay handsomely to your own prison wardens to enslave you.

Breathe easy, America, for this new Gorby in the Bush trust system is worthy of note. So wondrous is this trust that Bush is shutting down one of America's TWO radar command centers (at Mountain Home Air Force Base in Idaho) that watch for Soviet bombers flying toward America and keeps tabs on other flying objects from enemy territories. The base, dear ones, is being converted to a "detention center" (well, Idaho is a nice place to vacation). The second base will be kept (in Bangor, Maine) but only open "part time". The Over-The-Horizon-Backscatter Radar System, costing over $1 BILLION, can peer 2,000 miles off the US coast, covers a 6 million square mile area, and can spot incoming missiles or warplanes. Remember--I told you that the Soviets just took over America with their little coup? Hold it in your hearts!

* The militant gay group, the "Human Rights Campaign Fund", distributed over $500,000 to pro-homosexual political candidates in '89-'90 to facilitate passage of pro-homosexual legislation. HRCF has a 1991 budget of $4.5 million. Ah, but there is no money to extend unemployment benefits.

* Please attend this one closely: "Sir Geoffrey Howe, Margaret Thatcher's (you know, Thatcher--the one in Moscow at the moment although she is "out of the government"!) deputy prime minister who planned and helped precipitate the Iron Lady's overthrow, ADMITTED RECENTLY THAT THE PLANS FOR THE EUROPEAN SUPERSTATE (TO BE LAUNCHED IN 1992) HAD BEEN DECIDED UPON 30 YEARS AGO. DITTO FOR GEORGE AND MIKHAIL'S NEW WORLD ORDER--WITH THE NAMED PLAYERS AS ARE.

* "New World Order" means global government under the UN with America and Russia in partnership. It means slavery for freedom loving people all over the world. However, George Bush used the term "New World Order" almost 50 times in public since last summer--but you will note it is pretty often absent in reference at all these days from "the Lips". Brent Scowcroft, the nice Mormon traitor, National Security Advisor (a Kissinger/Trilateral/CFR operative) has persuaded Bush to back off from the NWO rhetoric and by no means to spell out or define it to the public.

* Who will run for President against Bush? It doesn't matter if it is within the Democratic or Republican parties. It's all in the family and the front runner is coming on as Jay Rockefeller, heir to the Rockefeller fortune and nephew of Nelson and David. Then of course, there is Governor Mario Cuomo from New York in hot pursuit.

* Margaret Thatcher just can't keep her fingers out of politics, can she? She recently blasted the coming political merger in Western Europe, saying that "It would be the greatest abdication of national and political sovereignty in our history." Unfortunately, the British people will not listen to Thatcher until it is too late--until they have yielded their freedoms to the socialist European superstate--JUST AS MAGGIE LAID THE BLUEPRINT!

A FEW DISQUIETING FACTS IN ADDITION

* 42% of blood donors in Zimbabwe have been found to be HIV positive. An industrial work force of 450 in Zimbabwe tested 2% HIV positive in 1988; the same work force tested 57% positive in 1989.

* By the end of 1991, it is now publicly recognized that AIDS will be the leading cause of death for U.S. men 25-44 years of age.

* So, Israel sells eyes from slain enemies, why not China? Red China is now selling kidneys, hearts, and other organs of executed prisoners at high prices for organ transplants according to officials at the Chinese University in Hong Kong. Of course, they also have about the highest rate of executions in the world.

* A little thing like exposure to too much aluminum and some other metals is the leading cause of Alzheimer's disease. Some of these symptoms coming with the disease could be nicely reversed with proper supplementation--but the death rate from Alzheimer's disease increased ten-fold from 1979 to 1987. Perhaps all your "Banning together" in an attempt to smell like a bottle rather than a human could contribute to aluminum overdosing? (Ban, like most deodorants, contains aluminum.)

* The South African Medical Journal (6/16/90) reported 7% of South African Black male and female blood donors in the last half of '87 were HIV positive; by the second half of '89 the number of HIV positives had jumped to 47%.

HOW ABOUT SOME GEO-POLITICAL MISCELLANEOUS

* Thomas Jefferson, with all his faults, said another great quote: "NO FREE MAN SHALL EVER BE DEBARRED THE USE OF ARMS." Anyone want to make a bet? Here is a real understatement but too limited to bear appropriate comment: "NO MAN'S LIFE, LIBERTY OR PROPERTY IS SAFE WHILE THE LEGISLATURE IS IN SESSION" (Or when it is not in session!) Judge Giddon J. Tucker, 1866 and Hatonn, 1991.

FOUNDING FATHERS DECLARED

Patrick Henry: "The great object is that every man be armed. Everyone who is able may have a gun."

James Madison: "Americans have the right and advantage of being armed--unlike the citizens of other countries whose governments are afraid to trust the people with arms." Ah humm!

Samuel Adams: "The Constitution shall never be construed...to prevent the people of the United States who are peaceable citizens from keeping their own arms."

Alexander Hamilton: "The best we can hope for concerning the people at large is that they be properly armed."

James Madison: The right of the people to keep (to have and to hold, openly or concealed) and bear (carry, transport and use) firearms (weapons of self-defense, including the handgun which predated the rifle and has existed for self-defense since the 1500's) shall not be infringed (invalidated, limited, abridged). A well regulated militia, composed of the body of the people, trained in arms, is the best and most natural defense of a free country..."

George Mason: "I ask, sir, what is the militia? It is the whole people, except for a few public officials."

Elbridge Gerry: "I ask what is the purpose of the militia? To offset the need of large standing armies, the bane of liberty."

Thomas Jefferson: "The constitutions of most of our states (and of the United States) assert that all power is inherent in the people; that they may exercise it by themselves; that it is their right and duty to be at all times armed; and they are entitled to freedom of person, freedom of religion, freedom of property and freedom of the press."

Abraham Lincoln: "Our safety, our liberty, depends upon preserving the Constitution of the United States as our Fathers made it inviolate. The people of the United States are the rightful masters of both Congress and the Courts, not to overthrow the Constitution, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WHO PERVERT THE CONSTITUTION."

Thomas Jefferson: "THE STRONGEST REASON FOR THE PEOPLE TO RETAIN THE RIGHT TO KEEP AND BEAR ARMS IS, AS A LAST RESORT, TO PROTECT THEMSELVES AGAINST TYRANNY IN GOVERNMENT."

SO, CONSTITUTIONALLY THE PEOPLE HAVE THE RIGHT TO OWN AND BEAR ARMS AS AN INDIVIDUAL RIGHT. THE MILITIA CONSISTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE, AT ALL TIMES. EVERY CITIZEN HAS THE ABSOLUTE, GOD-GIVEN RIGHT TO BE ARMED AND TO DEFEND HIS PERSON, FAMILY, PROPERTY AND COUNTRY. NO GOVERNMENT OR LEGISLATURE HAS THE AUTHOR-ITY TO RESTRICT OR INFRINGE IN ANY WAY ON THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO BE ARMED!

Now, Dharma, we will outlay about three pages of pointed items which you all had better attend:

* Islamic fundamentalism is now emerging as the principle political force in Pakistan. Shariat (Holy Law) is about to become the supreme law of the land. Pakistan will therefore have a radical Islamic government run by clerics and mullahs identical to that of Iran.

* Fidel Castro is under a crash program to activate four Soviet VVER-440 nuclear reactors by 1992 (utilizing technology based upon a 1960's pre-Chernobyl design). The USSR found these reactors to be so accident prone that they shut down theirs in the early '80's citing inadequate safety features. Eastern Europe is in the process of shutting down all of its VVER-440's. Good luck Palm Beach and all places southeast of the Mason/Dixon line!

Now, dear ones, Castro will do anything to become a nuclear power and obtain the ability to produce nuclear weapons. The entire US Eastern seaboard is threatened by Castro's Soviet-made reactors which are based on a substandard design universally rejected in the West. These reactors are more dangerous than the ones which blew up at Chernobyl.

* At least 15 Third World countries (including Cuba, Libya, and perhaps Iraq) will have nuclear war-headed ballistic missiles by 2001--[H: This is a bunch of you know what! They already have them!] This is not to mention over 20,000 Soviet warheads presently aimed at America (this is according to your own CIA). And yet the US, in spite of Patriot and other anti-missile technology, cannot stop one incoming missile. Isn't it about time to deploy some intelligent counter-measures? Or, is it too late?

* Soviet Foreign Minister Bessmertnykh has acknowledged that the Soviets still have nuclear weapons in eastern Germany along with almost 400,000 Soviet troops. Ho Humm.

* Up to 20 million Chinese slave labor prisoners are producing most of the products being exported to America from the PRC. Who is next?

* The Kremlin has just sent an extreme hardliner, Victor Komplektov, TO BE THE USSR'S NEW AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES.

* The Soviets have just installed 18 new rail-mobile nuclear missile launchers for the SS-24 missile, strong evidence that the Kremlin is forging ahead with a strategic weapons buildup despite its worsening economic condition. The CIA has determined that US intelligence would be unable to locate the launchers as they move along the USSR's 80,000 miles of tracks. [UNLIKE THE USSR'S ABILITY TO FOLLOW YOUR MX'S ALL OVER THE MAP AND STRIKE EVERY ONE OF THEM BEFORE THEY REACH TRAVELING ALTITUDE.] Officials say: "They operate like submarines...they're the ultimate strategic stealth weapon". Each of the 10 warheads on the SS-24s can deliver a 100 kiloton bomb up to 6,200 miles—easily within range of America when fired over the polar cap.

* In the six years ('85-'90) since glasnost began, the US Defense Intelligence Agency reports that the Soviets have outproduced the US in strategic weapons as follows: 450 bombers-USSR vs. 104 bombers-US; 715 ICBMs-USSR vs. 68 ICBMs-US; 54 submarines-USSR vs. 24 submarines-US. In '89 and '90, the Soviets outbuilt the US in bombers 140 to 1. Now you are in the process of laying off your aerospace work force!

* The Soviets have just moved over 70,000 pieces of equipment (i.e., trucks, tanks, planes, armored vehicles, gun ships, and artillery pieces) east of the Urals to prevent their being covered by the US/Soviet Conventional Forces in Europe Treaty. Gorbachev and Company lied and cheated regarding the CFE treaty (as they always do) before the ink was even dry on the document--worse yet, your American treaty makers aided and abetted the move.

* Hardline KGB Chief Vladimir Kryuchkov recently warned the Soviet parliament that the West is working out plans for the "pacification and even occupation" of the Soviet Union. He said: "Our fatherland is on the brink of catastrophe," and blamed it on "conspiracy on the part of the West". Still want to argue over plans for a nuclear first strike of the US against THE USSR? What would be gained? The world! Remember, the Elite have secure, safe shelter systems--the world is what would be gained.

* There has just been an approved 20% increase in the KGB budget and a 37% increase in the Soviet military budget for the next 12 months. They talk peace while they prepare for war.

How could it be that you ones don't know any of this? BECAUSE THE MEDIA IS CONTROLLED AND YOU ARE GIVEN THAT WHICH YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO HEAR--I TOLD YOU--NOTHING TAKING PLACE IN THE USSR IS AS IT APPEARS TO BE AND YOUR ADMINISTRATION AND ELITE ONE WORLD ORDER MEMBERS AND BANKSTERS ARE RIGHT IN BED WITH THEM--PROSTITUTING AND DISEASING YOUR WHOLE PLANET!

* Gorbachev and his new hard-line ambassador to the US (Komplektov) have both stated emphatically that the Soviets will not cut their $5 BILLION in annual aid to Cuba. And still, you send aid to Russia while cutting your own welfare program, ending Social Security, taking everything from your citizens as to assets and property and giving your industry away to your enemy. Yes, here is a good place to say it: "JESUS WEPT!"

* ON JUNE 1, U.S. FORCES IN SOUTHERN GERMANY DESTROYED THE LAST PERSHING II INTERMEDIATE RANGE MISSILES IN EUROPE (36 IN ALL) AS PER THE INF TREATY

OF 1988. AMERICA PULLED OUT AND DESTROYED 100% OF ITS EUROPEAN-BASED INTERMEDIATE RANGE MISSILES; RUSSIA KEPT 93% OF HER MISSILES TARGETED ON WESTERN EUROPE AND HAS SINCE DEPLOYED MANY MORE SS-24 AND SS-24 ROAD AND RAIL MOBILE MISSILES.

* The formerly conservative Heritage Foundation has just endorsed Most Favored Nation trade status for Red China. It is hard to tell who your friends are, is it not?

* America spends 4% of its GNP on its military--the Soviets spend almost 50% of their entire GNP on their military and rising. Lenin said: "They (the West) disarm--we arm." No, what you see happening in the Soviet Union is not what is happening in the Soviet Union!

* Cuba, Panama and all the original drug shufflers continue in business and thriving. Castro runs a huge cocaine factory in eastern Cuba, built with the help of a Colombian drug baron and guarded by Raul Castro's military counter-intelligence--aided and abetted by your U.S. administration.

* The Soviet KGB is building an espionage network in Germany using agents from East Germany's former secret police (Stasi). These work in conjunction with the Israeli Mossad (the Israeli secret intelligence terrorist trainers). The head of Bonn's counterintelligence said that "these spying activities are being continued most aggressively."

KGB power in and outside of the Soviet Union continues to grow. There are more KGB in the CIA than there are Americans and it is liberally infiltrated by Mossad agents. The KGB monitoring and surveillance of the Soviet people (via informers, electronic bugs, telephone taps, etc.) has grown dramatically since Gorbachev came to power and since the coup has only rearranged its public image to go more underground and limit public access to media. Greatly increased numbers of KGB agents are being stationed abroad by Kryuchkov.

* On April 25, US spy satellites discovered Soviet SS-20 nuclear missiles in Cuba in total violation of the Kennedy-Khrushchev agreement ending the Cuban missile crisis, and in violation of the INF treaty which banned all SS-20 missiles. General Daniel Graham, former head of the DIA and director of High Frontier, recently stated that the SS-20's, with a range of 3,000 miles, can hit targets anywhere in the US.

* Even more ominous are US intelligence findings that Cuba (with Soviet support) is developing a nuclear reactor capable of producing weapons grade fuel in a new facility near the Cienfuegos (Soviet) submarine base in southern Cuba. This is where the Soviets have long had a facility suspected of handling nuclear warheads to arm their strategic nuclear submarines which cruise off the US coastline and completely cover both sides of your nation.

Perhaps this is not the time to (just hold up a moment, Dharma, you are under attack and we will have to change frequencies). To continue--Perhaps this is not the time to remind you of all those communist military battalions south of your border in Mexico? Free trade? Oh, you have no idea...!

* Good old friendly Iran just test fired a North Korean version of the Soviet Scud-C missile (a far more accurate and deadly version than that used by little Iraq in the recent Gulf Lie). U.S. intelligence sources say Iran may have purchased as many as a 100 of the North Korean missiles. Syria is buying 150 of the North Korean Scud-C's at a cost of $500 million, with the money supplied by Saudi Arabia. These Scud-C's will be targeted on Israel. Oh, and what about Israel? Well, you do have to have a reason to start and devastate through nuclear war--the Armageddon, do you not? ARE YOU BEGINNING TO BE ABLE TO SORT OUT YOUR ENEMY? WELL, HANG IN THERE AND IT WILL COME CLEAR, YOU DON'T HAVE TO ASK ME BECAUSE I CHOOSE TO TELL YOU IN THIS MANNER AND YOU FIGURE IT OUT!

* There is a massive press drive and media blitz to give more aid to Russia. And, the Israelis demand more from you--WHERE ARE YOU-THE-PEOPLE?

* RED CHINA HAS 3 MILLION MEN UNDER ARMS AND ABOUT 300 NUCLEAR WEAPONS. IN ADDITION THERE ARE MORE THAN HALF A BILLION CHINESE AVAILABLE AND ARMS READY--WHEN THE TIME IS APPROPRIATE TO MOVE.

* Well, wouldn't you know it would come out into reasonable format: Bush has announced the closing of America's huge strategically located Philippine air base at Clark Field--using volcanic dust from a recent nearby volcanic explosion as the excuse. The Soviets (oh no!) have long wanted America out of the Philippines and Bush has been looking for a way to accommodate them in this new joint take-the-world-plan. What with that nice ability of the Soviets to trigger earthquakes and volcanic eruptions--what a handy demonstration.

The New People's Army, Soviet backed, are killing lots of government troops. You can count on your little fingers, (2) years at the most, before the Soviets have total control of both Clark Field and Subic Bay. You even left all that electronic gear and equipment in the volcanic aftermath on site for convenience. Remember that the Soviets use America's former giant naval base at Cam Rahn Bay in Vietnam. And do you REALLY believe any of those nice sons and husbands of yours who gave their lives to incarceration in Viet Nam will be returned?

* The Soviets retain 50,000 troops in Poland and are pressuring the Polish government of Lech Walesa to sign a new "friendship" treaty allowing the USSR to intervene in and guarantee Poland's borders. Similar Soviet treaties are being pressured on Czechoslovakia and Hungary. The proposed treaty demands that Poland deed to Moscow the ownership of every structure, airfield, communications link, arms factory, barracks and other property built by the USSR in Poland over the past half century. Sixty percent of the Polish Parliament is still made up of Communists as per an agreement Walesa cut with the Communists in 1989. Remember what the Soviet Communists said (Lenin): "If it becomes necessary we will simply change the name of the Party to appease the people." I remind you: the SOVIETS HAVE NEVER PRACTICED "COMMUNISM", THEY ONLY CALLED IT THAT.

How is this for a friendly number? KGB Chief Kryuchkov (completely in cahoots with Komplektov, the USSR new ambassador--no difference in fact) acknowledges that Lenin/Stalin purges from 1920 after the American financed Revolution, claimed 4.2 million lives--not so--it is easily 10 times that number!!!

* US, British and French intelligence agencies have traced the 1988 Pan Am 103 bombing as well as the destruction of a French UTA DC-10 flight #772 to Khadafi and his terrorists. Intelligence insiders say that high ranking Libyan officials, including the Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs and the chief of Libyan intelligence signed the "hit" order at a meeting in September, 1988.

* The American Express office in Zimbabwe recently intercepted a $1 million transfer from Khadafi to South Africa's communist ANC.

* Saudi Arabia has granted the notorious terrorist head Abu Nidal the right to set up offices for his Fatah Revolutionary Council in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. A number of radical Palestinian terrorist groups are also about to set up offices in Saudi Arabia--what you see with your "allies" is not what you gets, either.

* The PLO recently spawned another radical terrorist group called Palestine Islamic Jihad which just attempted the bombing of a British consulate in Greece. PIJ plans to link its terrorist efforts with the Islamic fundamentalist movement which is spreading like a wild fire throughout the region.

* Lots of kidneys and hearts for sale: Nineteen people were executed on one day alone in Canton, China for "crimes against the State"--joining the tens of thousands who have been executed by George Bush's friends with a bullet to the back of the head since Tiananmen Square. This is now the chosen form of execution for it damages no organs and they can be removed before stagnation of the blood and damage can be sustained.

* In April, the Treasury Dept. named 52 businesses and 37 individuals as fronts and agents of the Iraqi government. All of them were either set up by Iraq or traded with Iraq before the war. Unnamed, however, were Ronald Reagan, George Bush, the U.S. Congress, or the Export-Import Bank. The State Department was not mentioned either for some strange reason. And yet these were most responsible for building up Iraq with technology, encouraging Iraq's aggression against Iran, and setting the stage for Iraq's naive and misguided(?) invasion of Kuwait. So be it.

* On Monday, August 26, 1991, the Los Angeles Times ran a major "Commentary" by Henry A. Kissinger called "New Dealings with a New Russia". If this has not made it to your attention, we can make it available but I do not believe Dharma's digestive tract could handle it this day.

* By the way, you Robert Gates for director of the CIA wishes--probably won't see it happen. This longtime spymaster is now linked personally to the explosive BCCI bank scandal. In one instance, Gates obstructed an investigation into drug money laundering at Bank of Credit and Commerce to the tune of $22 BILLION, in one worldwide financial conglomerate transaction.

* The Israeli army is lined up on the border of Jordan waiting for orders to invade. Israel's master plan is to capture half of Jordan, then to permanently throw out the 3.5 million Palestinians still in Israel, in direct violation of international law. The American media has been prevented from reporting the Israeli troop deployment--surprise?

While the world is in upheaval and the cats are occupied--the rats do play!

* MACHIAVELLI wrote: *When a state accustomed to live in freedom is acquired, there are three ways of keeping it: the first is to destroy it; the second is to live there in person (i.e., occupy it); THE THIRD IS TO LET IT CONTINUE TO LIVE UNDER ITS OWN LAWS, TAKING TRIBUTE FROM IT, AND SETTING UP A GOVERNMENT COMPOSED OF A FEW MEN WHO WILL KEEP IT FRIENDLY TO YOU.

DOES THE THIRD WAY SOUND LIKE THE DESCRIPTION OF AMERICA THIS DAY IN THE 1990's?

Dear ones, though you walk through the valley of the shadows, you who sustain will be secure and you must fear no evil for evil cannot stand in the light of Godly men.

Listen to the Psalmist: "Do not fret because of evil men or be envious of those who do wrong; for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away. Trust in the Lord and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture. Delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him and he will do this: He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun. Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him; do not fret when men succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes. Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret--it leads only to evil. For evil men will be cut off, but those who hope in the Lord will inherit the land.

"The days of the blameless are known to the Lord, and their inheritance will endure forever. In times of disaster they will not wither; in days of famine they will enjoy plenty. But the wicked will perish; the Lord's enemies will be like the beauty of the fields, they will vanish--vanish like smoke.

"If the Lord delights in a man's way, he makes his steps firm; though he stumble, he will not fall, for the Lord upholds him with his hand.

"The salvation of the righteous comes from the Lord; he is their stronghold in time of trouble. The Lord helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him."

You can make it to be any way you choose--GOD WILL WORK WITH YOU; HE WILL NOT DO IT FOR YOU. SALU!

I am Hatonn and that which I witness upon your planet all but takes the breath from a being--so far have you slipped into the mire of the evil trap.

Yes I know, you asked for an update of the economy and I take hours to give you "Black Monday". Dear ones, the information coming from your Pleiades brothers through Germain gives you the answers and the "what to do"; we can actually do no more. I, further, have told you the only thing I see to attend your assets to any measure at all and ones denounce my workers as frauds and shysters--no, the ones you think to be working in your behalf with investment "solutions" in foreign currency, etc., are the deceivers for the economy of the world is due to collapse and there are no simple and perfect solutions to protect that which you HAVE. Perhaps it is a time to consider that which you might GIVE UNTO GOD SO THAT ABUNDANCE MIGHT BE REGIVEN UNTO YOU. YOU WILL NEED TO READ THE CURRENT JOURNAL IN PREPARATION IN ORDER TO FULLY UNDERSTAND THIS STATEMENT. DO NOT EXPECT THESE EXPRESSES TO GIVE YOU THE STORY--THEY ONLY GIVE YOU THE TIDBITS OF "WHAT'S UP, DOC?" THE CHOICE IS YOURS!

I will give you that rundown after a while for this scribe is weary unto illness--I will write no more on the subject this day for Germain must have voice also. Tomorrow is lost to a long meeting and early "court"--so nerves and beings are frazzled and fatigued. If you will study that which we have given it should occupy you until the next sequence. Thank you. Hatonn to clear, please.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Sacred Spirit Within Pleiades Connection Vol. VI
Human The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 4

9/4/91 #1 HATONN WEDNESDAY

First, briefly, I, Hatonn, need to speak with you. So much happened on the yesterday which needs expression and instructions but we will not take Germain's precious time in the discussion herein. I ask for a meeting early enough this evening that we can have immediate discussion about the upcoming group session in which I ask participation. They are in no way in conjunction with the publications but are a most personal series of ongoing support opportunities wherein we can utilize group "numbers" in an attempt to structure HOW to come into personal capability to get through these tough times which blast you with everything from addictions to simple distress. All may not wish to spend the time--certainly all participation, as always, is totally optional and we can discuss it before the meeting with the Pilot Group speakers this evening. I will have to warn you now, some are literally controlled by very real dark energies--with the thrust to destroy the entity housing such energy and to attack "leaders" through these avenues. In some instances it is now reached critical proportion and must be stopped.

No one will, please, error by any supposition that what we do is in any way a "religious" "thing". It will be equated more appropriately to Alcoholic, Overeaters, drug, etc., Anonymous "addiction"-handling with the twelve steps expanded and with the assistance of more in-depth TOOLS. The full intent is to set up a working guideline, with the tools, and then they can be available to all--anywhere. If mankind cannot find his balance in this evil infested world, what we do otherwise is quite hopeless for the individual is binded by the shackles of daily bombardment and depressed hopelessness.

GUN CONTROL?

I thank "Orion" for sending a couple of articles in support of what I have been telling you: One--(AP) "Federal agents arrested hundreds of people on firearms charges Thursday in a nationwide roundup of what one official called "the cream of the crud" behind violent crime. Many could face prison terms of at least 15 years for violating federal gun laws [this is JUST for failure to have proper registration], said Stephen E. Higgins, director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms. The bureau said 425 people had been arrested by 4 p.m. and the total was expected to exceed 600."

This is the real beginning of the END, dear ones--it is now, in many states (and this is where the show begins), illegal to have any unregistered handguns and many classifications of rifles. Moreover, the forces will begin with known criminals so they can show you-the-people that they are of "good intent"--NO, IT IS TO SUCKER YOU IN AND YOU WILL HAND OVER ALL METHODS OF SELF-DEFENSE--VERY, VERY SOON!

Now try this one and see how many of you become ill: POLICE SEIZE FIRM, 'SELL' IT BACK. Rocky Mountain News, Sun., Aug. 25, 1991; Edgewater (Colorado); Edgewater pawnshop owner accused of not filling out paperwork, ordered to pay $50,000.

Edgewater police closed the business of a man accused of violating a law by not filling out paperwork properly, then demanded he pay them $50,000 to get his business back.

The seizure of Sheridan Trading Post and Pawn Shop, 2495 Sheridan Blvd., has raised questions about Colorado's "asset forfeiture" laws and has sparked accusations that police harassed a business that didn't fit the plans of Edgewater's city government.

On May 17, a team of armed "examiners" led by Edgewater Detective Mike Marchese entered the business, which police suspected of being a fencing operation.

Police were armed with an "asset forfeiture order" signed by Jefferson County District Judge Tom Woodford. It declared the shop an "ongoing criminal activity" and a "class-one public nuisance."

The officers boarded up windows, seized cash, checkbooks and merchandise, padlocked the doors and kicked out owner Dean R. Porter, 59.

But when police examined the business, they found no evidence of fencing. In fact, Marchese said his squad wasn't even looking for stolen property because Porter wasn't accused of dealing in stolen goods.

Instead, he was accused of improperly filing the reports pawnbrokers must make to police on loans and purchases.

"It was for criminal violations of the reporting procedure," said officer Marchese.

But Tom Leadabran, the deputy district attorney in Jefferson County who handled the asset forfeiture case, insisted that the case against Porter was a serious one.

"It wasn't a single isolated incident," he said, "He had committed a string of felonies. Failure to report, theft by receiving....I don't know how many." [Look carefully--this is for this NEW gun confiscation, friends--no matter what they do or how they do it--further, the D.A. said: "I don't know how many..." So, what happened to citizen's rights? What happened to "innocent until proven ----?" YOU are likely NEXT!]

Those laws, said Leadabrand, are to prevent thieves from using pawnshops to unload stolen goods.

No criminal charges have been filed, however. Jefferson County deputy district attorney Joseph Gilmore said he was "still reviewing files."

But Porter said the incident "has already cost me what I spent most of my life working for."

The confiscated goods--both from his pawnshop business and his separate gun business under the same roof called Dean's Firearms--were worth almost $500,000, the largest seizure in Edgewater history.

Under Colorado's "asset forfeiture laws", authorities may seize the assets of suspected criminal enterprises without proving crimes or even making formal charges. Suspects must go to court to win back their possessions by proving they were not ill-gotten gains. Law enforcement agencies get to keep what they seize.

After the raid, Edgewater and Jefferson County authorities offered to settle the case by giving Porter back his business in exchange for $50,000.

Originally, police didn't want cash. Instead, the presented Porter with a lengthy list of items they wanted from his pawnshop, including guns, ammunition, tools and photo and office equipment.

He refused and considered fighting the seizure in court. But on June 7, with his bills mounting and on the advice of attorneys, Porter compromised.

"I agreed to pay them $50,000 for the keys, promised not to sue them, agreed to move out of Edgewater and not open another pawn-shop in Jefferson County for five years," he said.

In court documents, the authorities describe the agreement as "judicial economy".

"It was extortion," Porter said.

The seizure is the first police confiscation of a pawnshop under the asset forfeiture provisions of Colorado's "public nuisance" law, said Howard Mendelssohn, executive director of the Colorado Pawn Brokers Association.

That law is normally used to close drug houses, prostitution houses or similar nuisances and confiscate them as the fruits of illegal activities.

The seizure also may be the first time Colorado police have confiscated a building and property because employees failed to fill out paperwork correctly.

"I have never heard of such a thing as this," said Mendelssohn, who helped write state reporting statutes for pawnbrokers. "It sounds like a fairy tale. How do they justify taking a man's business over something like this?"

This story goes on for another couple of columns but I think you get the picture. Accidental that it came on the very day that Bush had this "gun sweep by breaking and entering without warrant"? You see, a state doesn't even need restrictive gun registration laws to invade and seize. Remember that, in the case above, the $50,000 was IN ADDITION TO THE OVER $500,000 IN CONFISCATED GOODS.

Well, where are all those attorneys and judges who stand up for the law? This man could not find an attorney who would take his case and he had funds left to fight the case. If you, America, don't need a Constitutional Law Center then I cannot imagine who does!

LEGAL SHENANIGANS

Update on the Dharma/Oberli property case, after already into the case by hundreds of thousands of dollars--a lot of it your own taxpayer (RTC) money to the little slime sucker who represents the opposition. Yesterday morning was "another" hearing to "insist that he (S.H.) accompany a photographer" through D&O's dwelling--"to make sure they haven't "trashed it". He already did the photo bit on the outside. Now, thousands of dollars later--he pushes for "inside visitation" and the session went as follows. D&O's attorneys came specifically for this nuisance hearing--from San Francisco and Sacramento--Horn from Beverly Hills/Santa Monica (at RTC (your) expense, of course). "Our" attorneys met D&O adequately ahead of court time (8:30 a.m.) and walked to the court house. They then went to the appointed courtroom but went upstairs to find it was in error. So, some less than five minutes "late" they were rushing down the corridor just outside the courtroom--only to find Mr. Horn RUSHING MADLY down the hall in opposite direction. The assumption was he had forgotten something and was hurrying to retrieve it prior to the case being called. Dharma said to "Claude"--nope, the slime pushed the case and it's over. "No, he couldn't do that," was the reply. Scott halted Horn long enough to actually serve papers in a packet to Mr. Horn--who accepted it without comment and rushed on. Once in the courtroom all took their seat prepared to await Mr. Horn's return. Dharma said, "He won't be back, he is half way to L.A. by now!"--so more waiting. Then Scott inquired of the Bailiff if the case had perchance been called and he indicated yes.

Nothing was happening in the courtroom--nothing being heard, etc. Scott asked permission of the judge to inquire regarding the case. The Judge said Horn was rushed and since no one was here for O&D that he had had to rule by default in favor of Mr. Horn--with sanctions. He said, "If you can return Horn to this courtroom--I will hear the case." Of course no HORN. Back to the courtroom where the encounter in the hall was relayed to the Judge who said that that was improper--that Mr. Horn, as an "officer of the court", was obligated to acknowledge presence and return to the courtroom. So another search was made for Horn--missing of course, like the 13th amendment while, I'm sure, Mr. Horn recited his Kol Nidre vows to lie, cheat and steal.

Back to the courtroom and this time to ask the Bailiff if he had been asked to step outside to check on lawyers or clients. Bailiff said "no" because "the Judge asked Horn if he had seen you outside! Mr. Horn said no."

Now, I am going to tell you the punch-line that these ones don't yet know--Steven Horn saw the group enter the building and go up the escalator toward the wrong courtroom and rushed like mad to the proper place where he could be "first" heard!

I repeat, America, you are in desperate circumstances--there is nothing--NOTHING--the adversary will not do to stop you--the people. God help you all to see and hear. Well, what do you do? You keep on keeping on for just as long as you can breathe. We can get the Law Center going and get some lawyers of honor working for you--but they cannot do it without living also even though they are willing to do it at rock-bottom costs. You will have to help, dear ones--and appreciation is great unto you who have done so.

The remainder of yesterday was spent with ones on the subject of the Constitution and to make the next move in the legal aspects; this time on taxation unConstitutionality--but it is a mammoth chore at best. All groups MUST harness power of unity for as you can see herein--it has begun. The "disarm Americans" is under way--it has nothing to do with "crime"--it is an all out attempt to disarm America and abolish your Constitution!

Now, precious ones, you are going to face facts and TRUTHS or you are not going to salvage freedom. I know not how to cause you to see and hear that it is YOU who are at stake. The Anti-Christ/God of the aeons of prophecy is upon you and enslavement and terror are at your very door--your own door. This is a play for Total Control of Your World!

REVELATION

I am going to quote you something from the Book of Revelation and in reading it keep in mind all of our lessons, including the term "Jew" as being only a reference since the late 1700's. You ones had best begin to face facts that the evil adversary has stolen the Judean heritage and taken the birthright of the very Hebrew people. Today you are faced with total evil of ungodly beings.

Revelation 2:9. I know how much you suffer for the Lord, and I know all about your poverty (but you have heavenly riches!). I know the slander of those opposing you, who say that they are Jews--the children of God--but they are not, for they support the cause of Satan.

Rev. 3:9. Note this: I will force those supporting the causes of Satan while claiming to be mine (but they aren't--they are lying) to fall at your feet and acknowledge that YOU ARE THE ONES I LOVE.

There is no way that I can stress the urgings to read and re-read that which is called "REVELATION" for each time you do with petition for my clarification--shall you see the truth.

Most was not tampered with in the book of Revelation for none of the scholars who changed the books of what you call "the Bible" knew and understood John's prophecies well enough to change it. What they understood, they did change--but you will not find these passages spouted from the local pulpit in truth.

By the way, you beloved ones who are deeply concerned about Rev. Robert Schuller's recently being stricken--YOU SHOULD BE for the man is no longer the one you believe him to be. He is now a "tool" of the adversary and the blessed one realizes it not. He will become even more "patriotic" and urge capitulation on all demands by the government--he has long been taken as a tool of the dark government New World Order and it will become very transparent here on in.

I am going to take leave now, so that Germain can have opportunity to work for if we can finish his JOURNAL this week, we can move back into more current adventures. However, this series of PLEIADES CONNECTIONS, with the OPERATORS/OWNER MANUAL ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS TO BE PLACED ON YOUR PLANET--EVER! WE HAVE NOT NEARLY BROUGHT ALL, BUT IF YOU DIGEST THESE YOU WILL COME INTO KNOWING! Blessings be upon you as you walk this critical journey for we can light the path and show the way, we can even carry you part-way if you ask--but we cannot do it FOR you. Salu.

I have but one more painful statement to make for you close ones. Allow the situation with ASSK to go its way. From the letter received, you can see that the once warm and loving House of God has fallen to the adversary.

Another point which also pains you as to one who once spoke for me and for the Brotherhood of Light, now speaks only for the elementals (which is ridiculous for "guides" are not of "lesser" stature and ones of the "fringe commands". If my name appears as speaker among the writings of these various ones--IT

IS NOT ME--ATON/HATONN. They have been placed in your pathway to stop your journey into the Truth and Light with God. All have opportunity to come into truth but they choose to drift farther and farther from the fold--so be it for each has free-will choice of pathways.

I have even worse news for you who have come to listen to "channels" who tell you of wondrous "landings" and "evacuations" by space brothers. The projections are so tainted now as to be as foolish as the "rapture" to fluffy radioactive "clouds". I plead with you to study and read ALL with reason and WITH GOD, for the time of LIES is upon you--you are in chaos and control of evil and it will consume you if you cast it not off.

Dharma, you will, child, continue to be painfully tested and pushed, threatened and pulled. You will stay within my hand and heed my voice for some of the most disappointing assaults are yet to come. Bless those ones who give unto you the testing for it is their job to do so and it is not yours to know why. So be it.

Hatonn to clear, please.

9/6/91 #1 HATONN
FRIDAY

Whatever ye perceive that you must bear--I will bear it with you. Strength comes in many forms and you shall be given to recognize the steps if you but LISTEN.

It is a time, Dharma, when the adversary wishes to silence you the most and the game shall become drastic for they KNOW that I shall warn the people and tell their evil plans.

HEBREW HOLY DAYS

You approach Hebrew Holy Days. I did not say "JEW" Holy Days.

They plan the most heinous manner in which to "celebrate" these days. While the Judaists are honoring their heritage and traditions the Khazar Zionists plan to invade Jordan. Now, these ones claim to be in service and ask winning strength from god--yes indeed, it is just that their "god" is the Luciferian Satan God of Evil.

I am going to write something herein which can be confirmed and I ask that the ones who write for the public (who know this information, to publish it NOW) for it is going to be one of the most SHOCKING statements I will have tossed at you ones.

As you know, there has been great discussion of the organization known as Skull and Bones, wherein Prescott and George Bush are active participants. Citizens of so-called Godly America who believe yourselves to be good "Christian" people (of whatever faith) had best harken up because you are about to be silenced by the adversary. In Skull and Bones Society one of the very rituals practiced by the membership is to bring within the secret hall a cadaver which they call "Jesus" and each member takes a knife and stabs the being in the heart and then the heart is removed for further ritual. This practice comes directly from the Gnostic Satanic practices of sacrifice--and is very closely akin to exactly the rituals practiced by the Zionists of Israel in their so-called "temple worship". The subject in point is not always a cadaver but often is, in fact, a person--most usually a child or infant which represents the purity of Christ.

Shocking? I certainly do hope so. Ones who leak this information are killed. There are always spies and tattlers who either "find God of Light" and/or are paid spies.

If we can bring enough attention to the focus points in the Holy Lands a massacre may be avoided but the plans are so massive and troops are already in place, as the entire "underground" CIA and surveillance forces KNOW.

In honor of the Holy Days you have just awarded the West Bank and the rest of Palestine to Israel along with $10 BILLION dollars to foot the bill. You are still sending in military equipment to back them and the entire Russian facade is to distract you... What you have just seen in Russia is a reversal of Bolshevism and a return of Monarchical rule by Dictatorship. The splitting off and recognition of the "Baltic States" and offering central representation is nothing more than cementing the coffin lid on the casket. How does it make you feel, Americans, to know that you foot the bill for your own executioner?

ALAS, LAWYERS

Now, a note about the 13th Amendment! This is not for our lawyers, specifically, but for all attorneys who wish to argue the point of "nobility", "Esquire", etc. You will all note that when Mr. Horn sends "copies" to other attorneys in HIS GROUP--they are addressed to "Steven Berg, Esquire", etc. Do not lie to selves for until you STOP lying to selves, you can change NOTHING.

Do I hate lawyers? No, I "hate" no thing but rather, accept truth and lessons from all things. The Judicial system does give the most wondrous "lesson" of almost any group. Most lawyers and judges I DO despise for their total evilness. Those who work in truth also deplore the darkness which shrouds their own profession. Remember, dear ones, YOU NEED LAWYERS ALSO--TO EVEN GET RECOGNIZED IN A COURT OF LAWLESSNESS. I HONOR BEYOND OTHERS, THE LAWYERS WHO WORK IN TRUTH. IT IS AMAZING TO NOTE THAT THE LAWYERS

AND JUDGES SOMEHOW THINK THAT THEY WILL SOMEHOW BE BEYOND JUDGMENT AS ARE ALL MORTAL MEN. YOUR WORLD JUDICIAL SYSTEM FUNCTIONS AS IF YOU NO LONGER HAVE A CONSTITUTION ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD. BUT WHO SUFFERS? YOU--THE-PEOPLE FOR HE WHO HAS THE MONEY WINS FOR NO LAWYER WHO WOULD DEFEND CAN WORK AND LIVE WITHOUT INCOME FOR HIS OWN FAMILY AND CANNOT TAKE CASES WITH NO REMUNERATION--SO, YOU--THE-PEOPLE ARE CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO TRAPS. As in the case of my scribe, Mr. Horn made sure that the defendants were never even recognized in the courtroom until they had acquired a lawyer--then, after over 30 hearings--THEY STILL NEVER HAVE BEEN RECOGNIZED BY A JUDGE NOR ALLOWED TO SPEAK.

Yes, I am going to tell you facts about the "law" and my own beloved friends within the Constitutional Law Center and other brothers who try so hard to act in justice--please accept my apologies that I do what the Master Teacher did in Biblical times.

I thank Citizens For Justice in the Legal System, Box 013236, Miami, Fl. 33101 for the following: ALAS! ALAS! YE LAWYERS!

Before I quote the article, I do wish to tell you readers that our Constitutional Law Center is working with organized groups who have now gained the legal methods for getting "un-taxed" and out of the system.

I remind you, however, that the impact of this information has been such a blast to the government that they are laying plans to interrupt your ability to accomplish your task through "emergency orders" wherein they will attach your bank accounts, etc., to fight a "common enemy". You are being set up for economic collapse AND the plans are finalizing to present you with happenings which they will tell you come from outer space and that "YOU MUST UNITE ALL THE GLOBE AGAINST THE COMMON ENEMY." You have no enemies outside your own heinous traitors. THESE INCIDENTS ARE PLANNED TO BEGIN HAPPENING IN SEPTEMBER AND THE UFO DECEIVER GROUPS ARE ALREADY WARNING YOU OF EXPECTED "SPACE ALIEN" DISASTERS EXPECTED BY YOUR GOVERNMENT AROUND THE MIDDLE OF SEPTEMBER. Is this not too much? This comes right in the middle of the Holy Days of the "Jews" and just before the end of your national American fiscal year where the budget MUST BE BROUGHT FORTH, WORKED OUT AND SIGNED SO YOUR CONGRESS CAN GO OFF ON VACATION AGAIN AND THE WORLD CAN BE BROUGHT TO ITS KNEES WITHOUT BOTHERING THE BLACKMAILED CONGRESSMEN! REMEMBER, THEY HAVE ALSO PROMISED TO BLOW UP THE SAN ANDREAS FAULT WITH MASSIVE EARTHQUAKE ON THE 17TH OF SEPTEMBER! I CAN ONLY TELL YOU WHAT THEY PLAN--YOU MUST DECIDE WHAT YOU WILL DO WITH THE INFORMATION.

Please Quote, Dharma:

Throughout history, great religious leaders have sought to bring order out of chaos. The most effective method of doing this has always been by preaching the Truth. The Truth brings light to darkness; it establishes a foundation for order, and it destroys false concepts.

Yet, there have always been groups who twist the Truth to serve their own purposes. Typically, these groups are not productive in the ordinary sense, but they establish rules and laws that permit them to control and exploit other groups that are productive. In this manner they achieve power and wealth. But their lust for more of these two impostors eventually ends in the weakening or demise of their position.

History repeats itself. If one studies the Bible one finds certain passages of Matthew, Mark, and Luke referring to lawyers of that era. Today, as in Biblical times, lawyers continue to exploit the people.

"Alas! Alas! for you lawyers and Pharisees, hypocrites that you are! You shut the door of the kingdom of Heaven in men's faces; you do not enter yourselves, and when others are entering, you stop them. Alas for you, lawyers and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel over sea and land to win one convert; and when you have won him you make him twice as fit for hell as you are yourselves." Matthew 23:13-15

[No, nice people who decide what portion of the "Bible" you will use--you may not discount this! You use that book to denounce me and my people--you are GOING TO FACE THAT WHICH YOU DO--SELECTIVE INTERPRETATIONS UNTIL NOTHING YOU SAY HAS MEANING!]

Since our legislators are primarily lawyers, lawyers make the majority of our laws and write them in "legalese". In doing so, they've made this nation increasingly dependent on their trade. For example: probate is an unnecessary and expensive system created by lawyers to profit from making the wills and getting themselves appointed as executors. They charge 5% to 15% of a person's life earnings to complete a simple task.

In order to pass your belongings to others at your death, your estate must not only pay taxes to the government, but also a "tax" to lawyers in the probate courts. The horrors of probate permit "stealing from widows and orphans"--, how often we hear about an estate being bled by unscrupulous lawyers!

"Beware of the doctors of the laws, who love to walk up and down in long robes, receiving respectful greetings in the street; and to have the chief seats in synagogues, and places of honor at feasts. These are the men who eat up the property of widows, while they say long prayers for appearance' sake, and they will receive the severest sentence." Mark 12:38-41

Many people involved in disputes have turned to the legal system for help only to find themselves in an endless morass of legal maneuvering that ends only when their money is gone. To dissolve a marriage, the cost can be minimal for those who have nothing, but astronomical to those with a few holdings. Far from helping to make an unpleasant and emotionally devastating event easier, many lawyers compound, complicate and prolong the proceedings so that distrust and even hate prevail where love once lived.

"When you are going with your opponent to court, make an effort to settle with him while you are still on the way; otherwise he may drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the constable, and the constable put you in jail. I tell you, you will not come out till you have paid the last farthing!" Luke 11:58-59

Delayed justice, postponed trials, minimal sentences, early parole and ever increasing crime feed a system where good policemen see their dangerous work frustrated by the release of criminals based on a miniscule technicality or worse, a judge's whim.

"Alas for you, lawyers and Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, which you have filled inside by robbery and self-indulgence! Blind Pharisees! Clean the inside of the cup first; then the outside will be clean also." Matthew 23:25-26

Our "tort" system of law is the cruelest of all legal maneuvers. It immediately enriches a few lawyers while destroying professions, businesses, professional amenities, and individuals. Our lawyer-dominated government refuses to end this insanity, so insurance rates rise until many people can't afford them. Not to be denied, the lawyer-legislators then pass laws requiring people to carry unaffordable insurance in order to maintain a treasure trove to be looted by the lawyers.

Lawyers use half-truths and falsehoods to create suspicion, confusion, and controversy so more legal work will result. There is little the other professions can do but comply with the huge paper work load imposed by the lawyers' imperious bureaucracy. But as a result, honorable professions lose their ability to provide reasonable services at reasonable prices, and both they and the public suffer.

"The Doctors of the law and the Pharisees sit in the chair of Moses; therefore do what they tell you; pay attention to their words.' But do not follow their practice; for they say one thing and do another. They make up heavy packs and pile them on men's shoulders, but will not raise a finger to lift that load themselves. Whatever they do is done for show." Matthew 23:3-5

[By the way--remember who are the Pharisees? Ah so. They are the ones from whom come and ARE the self-styled, so-called self-named "Jews" (Zionists). They are not Semites for they come not from the tribe of Shem and therefore you cannot be "anti-Semite" for disclaiming and/or denouncing the false persons who are stealers of their brother's heritage and tradition and even claim their lineage--YOU ARE THE SEMITES!

The litany of abuses goes on to involve every segment of American life. While the concept of the "law" is correct, it is being cleverly twisted to achieve the ambition of one select profession. The search for truth, justice, and safety still remain only an ideal.

Democracy is sweeping the nations of the world and freedom is ringing in every heart. Yet here in the greatest democracy of all, we find ourselves progressively enslaved by a profession composed of less than 1/2 per cent of our people.

"Alas for you, lawyers and Pharisees, hypocrites! You pay tithes of mint and dill and cumin; but you have overlooked the weightier demands of the law, justice, mercy, and good faith. It is these you should have practiced, without neglecting the others." Matthew 23:23

And so today, despite the teachings of Jesus Christ, the same profession is again practicing the same excesses. It's as obvious now as it was then that lawyers strive to control our lives--for their benefit. To prevent this control and save ourselves and our nation, we must not vote for them. For once they control our government, and they almost do now, they can control our lives. We must elect legislators who represent the interests of the people, not the Bar.

Once they are elected, we must: Restore our criminal justice system so it makes our lives safe--we do not need legal maneuvering that prolongs and weakens the process of the courts and saps the energy of the nation; and, Second, create a civil justice system which permits our nation to innovate, produce and trade effectively. Onerous laws enforced by a massive bureaucracry are robbing our people of their ability and desire to compete with the nations of the world.

A new call for a real representative democracy is being issued by the distressed of our nation. A beginning has been made and our people are awakening to the subtle control of our government by a profession that has failed its purpose to serve the people while it strives only to enrich itself with more power and wealth.

Amos 5:7,10,12,15,24: "....You who turn justice into bitterness...you hate the one who reproves you in court and despise him who tells the truth...You oppress the righteous and take bribes and deprive the poor of justice in the courts...Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts...but let justice roll on like a river...."

[H: Not fair to the so-called, self-styled "Jews" by quoting the New Testament?? 'Ah, but note that "Amos" is in the Old Testament so you had best find something else to make YOUR case.]

Additional Biblical References to Lawyers Found in THE NEW ENGLISH BIBLE WITH THE APOCRYPHA (Oxford University Press-Cambridge University Press 1970.):

MATTHEW: 21, 15-18; 23, 13-36; 26, 57-68; 27, 41-44;
MARK: 12, 28-34; 12, 38-41; 14, 53-66;
LUKE: 5, 17-27; 5, 29; 6, 6-12; 7, 29-31; 9, 22-23; 10, 25-37; 11, 37-54; 12, 57-59; 14, 1-7; 22, 66-71; 20, 19-27; 20, 40-47.

END OF QUOTING.

NOTATION TO HEED

There was one called Aeschylus, the Greek tragedian....We find Prometheus attached to the rock, victim of the gods of Olympus, who think they are above God.

They say, "We have the power, and the nations will do as we please." Prometheus replies: "No. There's a power greater than you, gods of Olympus. You are defying it and you will be destroyed...." So be it and so shall it come to be thus. You, even in America, and most soon now as the shackles are locked upon thineselves--You were not destroyed by the Soviets. You were not destroyed by the Japanese or the Germans. You as a nation have been destroyed by nobody but yourselves, because you were fools to accept ideas which are contrary to everything you stood for.

CORPORATIONS NOTE

I need Dharma elsewhere so we will close this writing but I wish to make another statement regarding current "business". Dear ones, it is so very important that if you are going to use incorporation as a shelter--USE IT CORRECTLY OR HAVE SOMEONE DO IT FOR YOU WHO KNOWS WHAT IS NEEDED. I WISH TO QUOTE A QUESTION WHICH WAS DIRECTED TO THE INCORPORATED NEWS, NEVADA:

QUESTION: A friend of mine who owns a corporation was sued and the people suing him went "through" the corporation and he was held personally liable. How can this happen? And how can it be avoided?

ANSWER: What happened to your friend was that the "corporate veil" was pierced, leaving him personally liable for the acts of his corporation. This can ONLY HAPPEN when a judge decides that a corporation is not a separate, legal person but is merely the "alter ego" of the corporation's shareholders. A judge will only invoke the "alter ego" doctrine IF A CORPORATION HAS NOT OBSERVED THE SIMPLE CORPORATE FORMALITIES--DIRECTORS' AND SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS, MIN-UTES OF THOSE MEETINGS, RESOLUTIONS, SEPARATE BANK ACCOUNTS, ETC.-- THAT INDICATE THAT THE CORPORATION HAS A SEPARATE EXISTENCE FROM ITS SHAREHOLDERS.

It is crucial to understand that for a corporation to be considered as a separate, legal person, it must be treated that way by its shareholders and directors. Corporations do things for "corporate" reasons. Corporations take actions to further the aims and interest of the "corporation" and not necessarily those of its "shareholders". The actions and decisions that shareholders and directors take on behalf of the corporation are evidenced by the records that the corporation maintains. Without those records there is no evidence that the corporation's affairs are in any way separate from those of its shareholders.

it is sad to see a corporate veil being pierced because it is such a SIMPLE MATTER TO OBSERVE CORPORATE FORMALITIES AND TO KEEP THE CORPORATION'S PAPERWORK IN ORDER. IT IS JUST A QUESTION OF FILLING IN THE RIGHT FORMS AND KEEPING TRACK OF DECISIONS AND ACTIONS AS THEY ARE DECIDED AND ACTED UPON.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If the shoe fits, please attend the "baby". There are ones to help you--I have no intention of doing it herein. If you run and ask your accountant and/or lawyer--he wants money from you and KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT NEVADA CORPORATIONS UNLESS HE IS IN THE NEVADA BUSINESS OF FORMATION OF CORPORATIONS! So be it.

I will herein put one more reminder: The government is getting ready for a push like you can't believe on gathering up your guns--I suggest you act timely and NOW or any that YOU have WILL SOON BE CONFISCATED AND YOU ARRESTED IF YOU HAVE BROKEN EVEN THE MOST SLIGHT REGISTRATION RULE! I can do not more than warn you.

Let us close this now. Thank you for your attention.

Hatonn to close, please.

OUR NEWEST JOURNAL

SCIENCE OF THE COSMOS TRANSFORMATION OF MAN PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. VIII

by Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

"THIS BOOK IS THE 8TH OF THE PLEIADES SERIES WHICH ARE THE 8 MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS OF OUR PLANET. These JOURNALS are a legacy being presented to mankind and left for all the expected future wayfarers through this physical experience.

"The PHOENIX JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES are directed and given forth from the higher brotherhood sent forth as the Hosts for the preparation of this time of cycles when this civilization will make transition into higher understanding or return to the ages of darkness." - ATON (GOD)

Some of the topics covered in this JOURNAL are: The foundation of our present belief - The expanding universe - Solenoid coils are improperly wound - Rutherford-Bohr theory of atomic structure is impossible - New laws of thermodynamics.

We are also given an explanation of sound and silence - Photosynthesis and the geometry of space - The nature of light - OUR MISSING 13TH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT - Paper money - Into space through open doors: The road map - Power projection - Transmutation - Solar energy - God's purposeful intent for man and the power of mother love.

Many other topics are covered including updates of current world affairs.

SOME INFORMATION IN THIS BOOK HAS NEVER BEEN GIVEN TO THIS PLANET BEFORE.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIRÉE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn
West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (SI11) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

NETWORKING

If you are interested in meeting others who are interested in this info, write us giving permission to connect you with those in your area.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 5

9/9/91 #1 HATONN
MONDAY

Hatonn present in the Light of Radianance. Be careful, dear ones, this is Rosh Hashana, the early days of the the Khazarian Holidays. To you blessed Judaists, I bring greetings from the Source unto you who are continually targeted by your own brothers for lo, these generations of passage--and now, you must be targeted again by the very ones who have stolen your heritage. God of Light shall be with you and hold you close if you will but ask in Truth and intent.

The dark shadowed ones of the place now called Israel are on the eve of the blackest manipulation and evil intent--upon your place--they await the invading of Jordan and the casting out of the Palestinians from their homeland. They chide and taunt and blackmail--yes, BLACKMAIL and now, having received the $10 BILLION dollars in ransom are again changing the participation--"We will not attend the Peace negotiations if the Palestinians are represented." The world is out of control!

To finish the EXPRESS, Dharma, we will speak of apparently unattached subject material but it must be spoken of--the SPOTLIGHT Populist Party and the MIA/POW executions in Asia. We will also need to speak to the situation with the marked money and the awaiting recall and change to World Currency (colored notes).

EXTREMELY DISAPPOINTING?

This should not even come as a surprise--much less a disappointment that the Editorial Staff of SPOTLIGHT is now in full-fledged support of Yeltsin and refers to him as a genuinely focused "Populist".

Please see to it that this is sent immediately to Col. Gritz.

To you who doubt, I shall simply ask Dharma to quote from a major Editorial article from the front page. Keep in mind that the entire "Coups" was a total hoax and the "freedom" coming to the Baltic nations is but an illusion. They cannot function alone and there will be demanded a central parliament wherein the entire of the "prior" Soviet Union will have representatives to the central government--the separation is in name only!

Quote:

American pro-communist Lincoln Steffens, after returning from a trip to the Soviet Union in the 1920's, said, "I have seen the future and it works."

Oh, yeah?

Ask Boris Yeltsin. Yeltsin, the president of the Russian Republic and the new power in the Soviet Union--thanks to his courageous defiance of the coup plotters and his ability to rally the Russian people--is, MAKE NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT, A POPULIST!

The trouble is, nobody in the Establishment media understands this term, although they apply it freely to Yeltsin. Yet what the Establishment means, and what The SPOTLIGHT means, when they use this term, are two entirely different animals. The Establishment uses it in almost a pejorative sense, meaning that Yeltsin appeals to people's "baser" motivations, such as nationalism, ethnic pride, anti-elitism and yearning for individual freedom. Remember when the newly elected Yeltsin toured the United States last year? He was depicted as a Russian oddity, a rather crude but entertaining buffoon capable of downing a fifth of vodka while showing no signs of it.

When Yeltsin attended a meeting of the European Parliament last year, The SPOTLIGHT reported the rude treatment he received at the hands of Europe's liberals, who snubbed him and refused to let him speak, causing him to leave in frustration and anger.

Now that he is the man to reckon with, however, the Establishment media warns repeatedly that he is an unknown quantity, that his appeals to nationalism could easily metamorphose into chauvinistic bigotry, interrepublic warfare and general chaos. In other words, they dislike him because he clearly hasn't had the sense educated out of him. Because of their lack of understanding, they also know nothing about the true nature of the Soviet breakup, nor what it portends for the future.

Yeltsin's ascension represents the best and highest aspirations of his people. He is saying "no" to the defunct imperialistic communist system and is ushering in a new epoch in this globe's history where the people will rule themselves.

Where he will run into trouble in the West, however, is when he also, inevitably, says "no" to the international capitalists who will rush in to grab up the goodies left behind by the fleeing communists. Because, as any-- understands, international finance capitalism and communism are merely two sides of the same coin of materialism and greed.

TRUE POPULIST

Yeltsin will be merely the first of many leaders worldwide who will come to recognize this fact. Now that there is no communist threat any longer, the entire false dichotomy of capitalism vs. communism, left vs. right, conservative vs. liberal, will crumble--is, indeed, already splintering, as can be seen by the perplexity of conservative anti-communists in the wake of the Soviet downfall, and the strange reluctance of the anachronistic liberal Establishment to embrace the changes taking place in the Soviet Union.

Now that there is--

NO COMMUNIST THREAT

to distract the people any longer, attention will focus upon the failings of international capitalism, and the remarkable similarities between it and communism. Both reject notions of right and wrong, both benefit a small elite minority, both aimed to "take over the world", and both inevitably will end in crashing failures, leaving the masses with nothing, while the privileged Elite of both systems ride out the tough times in Rolls Royces and country estates.

Yeltsin will attempt to steer his nation along the middle course of populism, which promises that the middle class will be free to engage in enterprises without interference from monopolistic capitalists or property-confiscating communists. This is why he will earn the enmity of the powerful international bankers and finance capitalists who will seek to enslave his people through debt, just as assuredly as the Russian people were formerly enslaved by the repudiated system of Marxism-Leninism.

THE SPOTLIGHT BEING THE ONLY POPULIST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD, HAS A MISSION NOW EVEN GREATER THAN BEFORE. IT IS TO EXPLAIN POPULISM TO THOSE WHO ARE CONFUSED BY EVENTS AND TO SHOW THINKING PEOPLE EVERYWHERE THAT POPULISM AND INTERNATIONAL NATIONALISM IS THE ONLY SCHEME FOR THE FUTURE THAT WORKS.

END QUOTING.

No, I have NOT said that all in the SPOTLIGHT was even worthy of mention--I have often said that MOST OF WHAT IS IN THE PUBLICATION IS ONLY ESTABLISHMENT PROPAGANDA TO DELUDE YOU-THE-PEOPLE. There are, however, enough excellent truths to keep all of you reading while you are fed the above lies. This is where you MUST BE DISCERNING--a paper of that type, operating right in Washington, D.C. (by Zionists) and still existing, tells its own story--IT IS NO THREAT TO THE ESTABLISHMENT AND THE STORIES WHICH ARE LEAKED THROUGH INDICATE THE POWER HELD BY THE GOVERNING ELITE--NOT THE WELFARE OF YOUR NATION AND/OR WORLD. You are still given EXACTLY THAT WHICH THEY DESIRE YOU TO BE TOLD!

Here is a major point of the "Populist Party" desiring to "run" Col. Gritz for President--divide and scatter the votes to eliminate possibility of winning an election. I cannot stop anything and, perhaps, taking that banner in the beginning is a way to gain support--you will have to take all of the information and judge it on its merits.

NOW FOR THE POW DOUBLE-CROSS

We told you this would happen, but I believe you now need details of the fiasco cover-up played out at the expense of hundreds of your beloved one's lives in this past several weeks.

Quote: American servicemen still held as prisoners of war and their families have been double-crossed by what was intended as a means to finally force an accounting of the missing Americans.

The recently established Senate Select Committee on POW's and MIA's is being used by its chairman, Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass) [Outstanding member of the Elite "Skull and Bones Society"], not to account for the missing Americans, but instead to push for lifting the U.S. trade embargo with Hanoi.

The double-cross started when Kerry, upon receiving his appointment to head the new select committee, left for Southeast Asia on a fact-finding mission to run down recent reports of live Americans being seen and photographed in captivity. As it turned out, Kerry, instead of seeking details of the missing Americans in Vietnam and neighboring communist puppet states of Laos and Cambodia, turned his mission into a public relations blitz to posture for lifting the U.S. trade embargo from Hanoi.

In addition to belonging to the Skull and Bones society, Kerry is also tightly associated within a shadow leftist "one-world" organization, the ASPEN INSTITUTE, which has been working for several years behind the scenes to get the U.S. to normalize relations with Vietnam.

Kerry's first step after leaving Southeast Asia, where he met with communist Vietnamese and Cambodian officials, was to fly to Budapest, Hungary for a meeting of the "INSTITUTE" (Aspen).

SELLOUT IN BANGKOK

The betrayal of America's missing during Kerry's trip to Southeast Asia began in Bangkok, where he said he was too busy for a press conference but instead met for a briefing by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which has long been pressuring the administration of President George Bush to lift the trade embargo.

Kerry was extensively briefed by Raymond Eaton, an Australian who heads the Export Development Trading Corp., which is heavily involved in doing business with Vietnam for the British Bankers under the Royal Family directions through the Committee of 300.

EATON IS THE ONE TO TALK TO ABOUT TRADE AND DOING BUSINESS WITH VIETNAM. Eaton is a leading figure and proponent who works closely with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, in the effort to get the Bush administration to establish trade ties with Hanoi, from which HIS FIRM would naturally benefit. There have already been massive business ventures and shipping of thousands of Vietnamese to America along with thousands of Viet Cong (communists) to infiltrate into Mexico and into every strategic area of the United States--ready to blow every major bridge and dam--particularly along the length of the Mississippi River.

Kerry, many POW-MIA activists thought from the start, was an odd choice for chairman of the Senate select committee, since he had never previously shown any interest in the POW-MIA issue, although he is himself a Vietnam veteran. In any case, after serving in Vietnam, he joined with Vietnam veterans opposing the war and gained some notoriety by throwing his military medals over the White House fence.

Long before his selection to head the select committee, Kerry was on record favoring lifting the trade embargo with Hanoi.

He recently gained national attention as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's Subcommittee on Terrorism, Narcotics and International Operations. During an appearance before the subcommittee, which was televised, former subcommittee staffer Washington attorney Jack A. Blum accused the Bush administration of soft-pedaling the Justice Department inquiry into the multibillion-dollar swindle involving the Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI).

Afterward, Blum also revealed that "lobbying and financial contributions" to Kerry and Sen. Claiborne Pell (D-R.I.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, by former Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, a Democratic Party insider deeply enmeshed in the BCCI scandal, may have cost him his job as chief investigator of Kerry's subcommittee, a post he held from 1987 to 1989.

MEETING IN BALI

The mysterious Aspen Institute's interest in pressing for the lifting of the trade embargo became known following a meeting held in February, 1990 in Bali, Indonesia, which was attended by several U.S. congressmen, senators, academicians and "influential businessmen". Also attending were what one Congressman in attendance described as "top-ranking Vietnamese government officials".

The U.S. delegation to the Bali conference was financed by the Aspen Institute's Indochina Project, based in Washington. The Indochina Project is chaired by former Sen. Dick Clark (D-Iowa), a one-term liberal who was elected to the Senate in 1972 and was ousted by former Iowa Lt. Gov. Roger Jepsen, a Republican, in 1978. [I remind you that it makes absolutely no difference for the "Parties" are the same with a single purpose--Global control through One World Government through the UN.] IN 1974, THE LIBERAL AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION GAVE CLARK A HIGH 95 PERCENT FAVORABLE VOTING RECORD.

ANOTHER MAJOR "SPONSOR" OF THE MEETING WAS THE HENRY R. LUCE FOUNDATION. Part of the meeting was geared to the use of Cam Ranh Bay in Vietnam when the United States RETURNS! Cam Ranh Bay was a major U.S. base in South Vietnam during the Vietnam War. Since the takeover of South Vietnam by the communists, the base has been used by the Soviets and many shiploads of Viet Cong were directly shipped to Mexico to move into the U.S.

BACK TO THE POW's/MIA's

While the Select Committee on POW's and MIA's was rendered virtually useless in resolving the issue of the missing American servicemen with the selection of Kerry as its chairman, it was hoped by POW-MIA activists that it could still play a forceful role if it had an active vice chairman, a slot allotted for the Republicans on the panel.

The original bill setting up the select committee was introduced in the Senate by Sen. Bob Smith (R-N.H.), a longtime critic of the U.S. government's handling of the POW-MIA issue, and it was hoped Smith would be the committee vice chairman.

However, Senate Minority Leader Robert Dole (R-Kan.), who will make the selection, has indicated he favors former Sen. John McCain (Keating Five/pro-Israel First!) (R-Ariz.) for the post.

Although a former POW of the North Vietnamese, McCain is also part of the Senate crowd that favors lifting the trade embargo with Vietnam and normalizing relations with the Red state.

Another pro-"lifting the trade embargo" legislator, Sen. Frank Murkowski (R-Alaska), is currently sponsoring a resolution in the Senate, with Kerry, pushing to lift the embargo.

Murkowski, during the administration of President Ronald Reagan, chaired hearings on the POW-MIA issue, which turned out to be designed more to debunk information concerning live POW sightings in Southeast Asia than to investigate them.

At the time, Murkowski's credentials included membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW). He was exposed as never having served in any foreign war, and the VFW was forced to drop him from its membership rolls.

POW-MIA activist groups across the country began a massive petition campaign, opposing the dropping of the trade embargo, but how much good do you think it will do? They have just proved what they think of your opinions.

Activists and Vietnam veterans are enraged that, among other things, Kerry would propose dropping the embargo after Vietnam just named as its new prime minister Vo Van Kiet, who served on the Central Committee of the communist Party of South Vietnam during the war and was thus responsible for directing the military activities of the Viet Cong, Kiet is accused of massive war crimes, including ordering or condoning the EXECUTION OF MANY AMERICAN POW's DURING THE WAR AND THE SLAUGHTER OF MORE THAN 3,000 VIETNAMESE CIVILIANS IN THE CITY OF HUE DURING THE 1968 TET OFFENSIVE.

POW-MIA and veterans groups are just a tad confused since the Congress is holding Human Rights hearings to determine if Iraqi President Saddam Hussein should be tried for war crimes, including the mistreatment of American Gulf War POW's. Children of the world--if you do not wake up NOW, it will simply be TOO LATE! So be it.

RUSSIAN PSYCHICS

Many inquiries have arrived regarding recent wide-spread publications of scientific articles regarding the causing of the San Francisco earthquake--by Russian psychics.

This is information now being sent out through Bulgaria which indicate that the Russians have been training psychics to create natural disasters for some 50 YEARS. Yes, that portion of the statement is true. However, psychics did NOT cause the earthquake--Russian CosmoSpheres caused the quake just as they--in conjunction with your own Elite--plan to wreck the coast of California by blowing the San Andreas Fault (at this date scheduled to happen on the 17th of this month of September).

Let us see what the remaining consensus of the articles say: The Russians have always intended to destroy the United States. But Gorbachev wants it done without actual war or the use of nuclear weapons if at all possible or at least until preparations for use of neutron weapons which will salvage the most physical structure. That's why he and other Soviet leaders have backed research in methods of destruction that can easily be disguised as acts of nature.

One of the most sinister and sneaky of these methods is the use of psychics to control climate and natural phenomena.

"I was a visiting professor for two years in Moscow," says one, Professor Pompanicu. "Through other colleagues at the university there, I learned of the secret psychic warfare program.

"For years, they have been training gifted psychics in the art of telekinesis--that is using the mind to move objects. One professor told me that a device had been developed which could aim the focused mindpower of a team of psychics for the purpose of causing storms, tornadoes, hurricanes and even earthquakes.

"This device is used by a special team of master psychics who projected their thoughts to a spot along the San Andreas Fault year before last which resulted in the terrible earthquake".

The killer quake isn't the only disaster that they caused, according to Professor Pompanicu, who now resides in Rome, Italy.

"I believe that Hurricane Hugo which devastated part of the Eastern coast of the United States was also the work of the Soviets", he states.

"These natural disasters will be just the beginning of many that will strike the U.S. again and again, causing many deaths and great economic destruction.

"I have information that the Russians plan to cause a sudden frost that will destroy the American harvest and cause starvation."

A Pentagon official who refused to be identified admitted that he had knowledge of Soviet research into ESP and the paranormal for possible warfare purposes. "Sure, they've been looking into it for a very long time--since before the end of W.W. II", says this high ranking officer.

"And I know weather control was high on their list of priorities. We are more concerned over the strides they've made in areas of mind reading and control."

COLORED MONEY

Don't put away your attention to the "colored currency". It is not over nor has it gone anywhere. Also beware of the new "fiber" money for it simply instantly takes your photograph, fingerprints, etc. It is NOT, as claimed, for stopping counterfeiters--nor is it for stopping the drug trade. The drug traders are now almost 100% into GOLD! This is courtesy of your Government to large extent and the substance is shipped in massive amounts through the Philippines and on to London for exchange. Please note that the U.S. bases are now being handed over to the Communists in the Philippines; Subic Bay, as well as Clark Base--with equipment intact.

The colored notes are printed and waiting--for the GLOBAL MONEY SWITCH!

You can tell the intent by what happens--the plan is to circulate the "fiber" bills alongside the older bills--well, the older bills can still be counterfeited, can they not? Watch the hand for it is so much quicker than the lips.

Now you are running out of time for protection. You are now soon going to lose the privacy of cash and the privilege of transferring any funds offshore. Within a very short time purchases over very nominal sums of $25 to $50 are on the way out right now. This is for you who think it is safe "offshore". In preparation for this Draconian system of controlling your economic lives, the Globalists have very slowly removed more and more of the cash notes from domestic circulation. This gradual reduction of cash has forced you to plastic money without even realizing it. HAVE YOU TRIED TO GET, SAY, $7 to $10 THOUSAND IN CASH FROM YOUR BANK LATELY? THEY ACT

AS IF MONEY IS AN UN-HEARD OF COMMODITY AND ALMOST HAVE A BREAK-DOWN IF YOU DEMAND CASH.

So, let us speak of that "hidden" facility for printing all those nice beauteous bills. The facility is hidden and no-one owns up to where it is located. So, here for you, is its location: It is near Haslet, Texas, a tiny community north of Ft. Worth. It is located at 9000 Blue Mound Road, 4 miles north of the Federal Aviation Administration's facility in Meacham Field. There are no signs leading to the facility even though there are over 800 employees. Visitors are most unwelcome!

The printing of bills in denominations of $20s, $50s and $100s is extremely limited which forces the public to use nothing but ones, fives and tens to conduct their normal cash business--making it grossly difficult to pay large bills, etc. Any old style notes will become worthless within a given number of days not to exceed 90 days.

Cash in small notes will be doled out only upon presentation of your Social Security card and/or other national "approved" I.D. card. When you are doled out your monthly allotment of cash, there will be NO MORE ISSUED! In other words, the federal authorities are going to restrict (through banking regulations) the amount of cash that can be doled out to citizens each month.

The "second" currency is now printed and can be issued at any time during the 90's, depending upon when the surprise can best be launched for maximum enforcement--hopefully in such a time as, say, massive natural disruption--like earthquakes along the San Andreas, etc. Why? Because the major banking computer systems are in Los Angeles and San Francisco and the national economy flow will go down for weeks and/or months which will bring total chaos. I surely do hope some of you can accurately count well for the 17th approaches quickly--almost too quickly to even convert against gold.

Once this second currency is issued from the Ft. Worth plant you will have a "two-level" currency system for there will be a "DOMESTIC DOLLAR" and an "EXTERNAL DOLLAR".

The exchange value of the internal dollar, in which you hold your savings, will become instantly devalued including all money market funds, Treasury bills, bonds and Treasury notes, cash balances, certificates of deposit and so on will all be classified as "internal dollars". There will be a dual exchange rate system and these rates will fluctuate in opposite directions for the internal and external dollar.

The U.S. will have domestically what will be known as "blocked currency". Dollars held in Europe will not be blocked, because they are not under control of the U.S. Treasury Department. However, those who hold Dollars overseas will find total blockage of being able to retrieve the funds regardless of the value in most instances.

Those investor-advisers who tell you that your money will be safe and of more value overseas are correct--the value will be more and it will be SAFE--safe in the hands of your enemy for you will be unable after a brief while to get any of it back into your possession and when you do--it will be on a very limited and monitored basis in only very small amounts. Most will simply default to the holding Bank.

These plans to issue a "second currency" explain the shipments of U.S. cash notes in large bulk quantities by the Federal Reserve system to the East Bloc nations of Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland and to the Soviet Union. These greenbacks will continue to circulate in those countries and will be honored by all institutions, except back in the good old U.S.! In the U.S. they will be useless. In other words, they will continue to circulate outside the U.S. at their full exchange value on the open market. Soviet citizens will therefore, be protected against devaluation. Incredible? Of course, and they know you will NOT believe it will happen--that is the assumption upon which they base all their actions--THAT YOU-THE-PEOPLE WILL BE UNABLE TO BELIEVE THE TRUTH UNTIL IT IS TOO LATE!!!

The disappearance of these notes domestically then confirms that the second currency will be issued as part of a plan to lower the living standards of the U.S. and help merge your country into a World Government in which you are equal economic partners with the Soviet Union. You will be equal in terms of political status and equal in terms of economic living standards--in other words--slaves to the New World Order.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS PLAN IS ALREADY WELL UNDER WAY AND INTO THE ADVANCED STAGE OF DEVELOPMENT AND WILL OCCUR AT ANY TIME, IMMEDIATELY AHEAD! Please do not come to these ones and say you were unwarned nor given some method of protection. The intent is to take all assets so the only possible use of funds will be in building structures and laying aside foods, etc., i.e., using borrowing power against gold as collateral--and that is even a risk for total recovery but at least the funds will be at use for your security and a place to go to eat and possibly survive. It is so late in the game now, however, that I concern that you have time to complete transactions before the collapse. You ones wait and wait and denounce and complain while Rome burns to the ground! So be it.

Dharma, I need you elsewhere. I will speak to you regarding the legal problems a bit later today. I think the adversary bit off more than he is going to want to chew at this encounter. By the way, if Mr. Horn and the photographer are later than absolute 2:00 p.m., you may bar his entrance if you like. I believe, however, that we shall welcome him and make a statement for the entire world to receive for we shall have reporters, photographers, writers, World Intelligence Review and Insider's Report present, as well as publishers and distributors. We shall most certainly make the guest most comfortable in every manner possible.

Good day.

Hatonn to clear please. God bless you each and all. I especially ask Grace and Love unto the diaspora Jews who will be bombarded this week into giving incredible amounts of money to support their own demise. May God have mercy. Beware also, you who face the courts--IT IS THE TIME OF RENEWAL OF THE KOL NIDRE (ALL VOWS-VOW) WHICH RENEWS THE VOW TO DISREGARD ALL VOWS MADE DURING THE COMING PERIOD UNTIL THE NEXT ANNUAL RENEWAL. THIS MEANS THAT ALL ONES OF THE "JEWISH" "FAITH" PARTAKING OF THE RITUALS WILL RECITE THIS VOW WHICH NOT ONLY ALLOWS FOR, BUT DEMANDS; LYING, CHEATING, STEALING AND CASTING ASIDE AS WORTHLESS ALL VOWS.

The present wording of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer dates from the 11th century. A political reversal in eastern Europe compelled the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Eastern Europe to adopt the present wording of the "Kol Nidre" prayer. I believe it appropriate to remind you of the EXACT wording of this vow made by the "Jews" on the Day of Atonement religious observances during the highest holy days.

ALL VOWS, OBLIGATIONS, OATHS, ANATHEMAS, whether called 'konam', 'konas', or by any other name, WHICH WE MAY VOW, OR SWEAR, OR PLEDGE, OR WHEREBY WE MAY BE BOUND, FROM THIS DAY OF ATONEMENT UNTO THE NEXT, whose happy coming we await, we do repent. MAY THEY BE DEEMED ABSOLVED, FORGIVEN, ANNULED, AND VOID AND MADE OF NO EFFECT; THEY SHALL NOT BIND US NOR HAVE POWER OVER US. THE VOWS SHALL NOT BE RECKONED VOWS; THE OBLIGATIONS SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATORY; NOR THE OATHS BE OATHS.

This, Dharma, is why Steven Horn and the others, such as Steven Berg, etc., feel no obligation to have their vows valid and why they lie and set up others to witness falsely and arrange for witnesses against you who never heard of you to participate in this steam-roller effort to destroy you and take your property. The RTC representative, Sir Brent, is also of the same society.

The instructions to the "servants" of the "faith" are demanded by the Talmud in the Book of Nedarim, 23a-23b as follows:

"And he who desires that NONE OF HIS VOWS MADE DURING THE YEAR SHALL BE VALID, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'EVERY VOW WHICH I MAY MAKE IN THE FUTURE SHALL BE NULL' (I). (HIS VOWS ARE THEN INVALID,) PROVIDING THAT HE REMEMBERS THIS AT THE TIME OF THE VOW."

THE TEST IS TO THE EFFECT THAT ALL OATHS WHICH BELIEVERS TAKE BETWEEN ONE DAY OF ATONEMENT AND THE NEXT DAY OF ATONEMENT ARE DECLARED INVALID! By the way--it IS the FIRST prayer recited on the holiest of days.

If this were not so TRUE and so TRAGIC it would be most comical. Even Christian Churches have now taken up tolling their bells in honor of the start of Yom Kippur--as a gesture of "good will"--to sound the Kol Nidre, traditionally the start of Yom Kippur. Do YOU believe this to be accidental stupidity? I jest not for you are being led to the slaughter right down the PRIMROSE PATH!

9/10/91 #1 HATONN
TUESDAY

As I come to write this day, I wish to share a typical letter which is received "in kind" every day:

"Dharma,

During a recent C&E workshop by Ramtha I attended, we had time to ask questions. Someone asked who the fakes were in the New Age Movement--channelers, authors, etc. He gave a list but gave your name FIRST. He then said that over the next few years that this list of people would be exposed. It was time for the heads to roll and truth to ring in the 'New Age Movement'."

"A Concerned One"

Please do not distress yourselves with this nonsense. The Knight organization doesn't like Hatonn for I confronted them. I also remind you that I have said, if unchecked, the "New Age Movement", in itself, can destroy your world. Further, as SIPAPU ODYSSEY was written, several copies of the script were given to Shirley MacLaine for first refusal of the lead roll. Shirley had pulled away completely from the Knight organization and there were some hard feelings. Early on, the Knight organization refused to carry anything related to the Phoenix material. God always asks you to discern in all things--nothing is refused to your searching and in the end, ultimately, Truth will be that which prevails.

They do us great service if it is to "expose" us for we most surely do hope so for our intent is to bring Truth to ALL and the more exposure, the more people can have the Truth. Yes, I too, believe it is about time for some "heads to roll" and "truth to ring"--for those who have misled the people of God shall expose themselves--it requires nothing on any of my one's part. I have even offered Ramtha direct communication with myself as I had with "Bashar". "Bashar" has never come back for a second discourse and Knight never even responds to the message. What does that tell you?

Does this mean that that material is evil or tainted? That is certainly for you to discern for selves--I find some brilliant truths within the speakings. I also find grave errors and the first is "safety". You cannot have flooding from great tidal waves all the way into Nebraska, dear ones, and NOT have the area of "Ramtha" not get wet! I suggest that all ones LOOK at your geography--not even Ramtha can keep water from running downhill! Neither do I believe that Ramtha can keep those volcanoes from erupting when they are triggered for eruption--I suggest it is time to begin "thinking" clearly for God gives unto you, REASON! So be it, for I bless all ones for the gifts they give unto us and ours--for there are great lessons to be gained from ALL circumstances.

We have no stable of fine race horses to sell from self-labeled business ventures--nor do we secret with only the elite of the entertainment world--in fact, we would never divulge the privacy of any from the public eye in respect for their own security and privacy. We have only two things to offer you--a way to safety and a call to God. If this is not enough then you shall have to find solace with those who offer you great advantage in the physical for the NEW AGE MOVEMENT WILL CLAIM ITS OWN--IN A MOST PHYSICAL PREDICAMENT. SO BE IT.

LET US SPEAK OF "NATURAL" PHENOMENA

According to a message I have here, atmospheric patterns, locked into an abnormal position over many parts of the Northern Hemisphere, have produced a variety of weird weather this summer. China and some parts of Southeast Asia have experienced the worst flooding this century; Ogden, Utah, yesterday experienced the worst flooding in 135 years--while California had its coolest summer in memory and into a sixth year of horrendous drought. On the other side of North America, the metropolitan areas of New York City and Philadelphia were in the grips of the hottest summer since World War II. The major cause of these anomalies appears to have been an area of high barometric pressure that has remained locked above the northern central Pacific at the International Date Line. This also produced a rare drought for Alaskans near Nome and record heat in the Alaskan interior. The strongest solar outbreak in 30 years, which erupted in early June, is blamed as being partially responsible but "no one can understand the incredibly widespread pattern of unusual happenings".

This past week (end:9/6), another strong quake shook Tokyo and other areas of eastern coastal Japan from a massive epicenter beneath the seabed offshore. Quakes were also noted in eastern Romania and northern coastal Peru.

Further heavy rains from storms threaten Cambodia with more severe flooding. Thousands of people already were made homeless by floods in late August, and vast tracts of agricultural lands are still submerged. The United Nations airlifted 30,000 sandbags to Phnom Penh to help protect the city from the worst floods on record along the Mekong River.

Guatemala, Nicaragua, and El Salvador began rationing electricity because of a lack of rain needed to power hydroelectric plants. Each nation has plans to black out parts of its population on a rotating basis for two to three hours a day. In drought-stricken Guatemala, the National Electricity institute said its new rationing program will continue through September and may be extended if rains do not return soon.

I HIGHLY SUGGEST YOU ALL REREAD "REVELATION"--IT DOES NOT SAY "WHO" WILL BRING THESE THINGS UPON THE EARTH--JUST THAT THEY WILL COME UPON YOU. JUST ABOUT ALL THE PROPHECIES MIGHT BE GOOD READING THIS WEEK AND NEXT AS THE ELITE GET READY FOR THE BIG POWER PLAY. GOOD LUCK--I HOPE RAMTHA AND COMPANY HAVE SOME GOOD SOLUTIONS FOR YOU LEST YOUR TOES GET WET, SCORCHED, BROKEN OR STOMPED.

Then for follow-on "entertainment" I suggest you get one more book, PARLIAMENT OF WHORES, by P.J. O'Rourke. It is a book I rather wish I could have written for it is handled in such manner as to give great laughter and insight into the workings of the U.S. through in-depth attempts to explain the entire U.S. Government.

The material, however, is truth but I might get defrocked for obscenity. I assure you that I will be unable to restrain myself from occasionally using a lot of this man's message as we go along. I will, however, give you the back cover comments by the author:

"Giving money and power to government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys..."

"The American political system is like a gigantic Mexican Christmas fiesta. Each political party is a huge Pinata--a paper-mache' donkey, for example. The donkey is filled with full employment, low interest rates, affordable housing, comprehensive medical benefits, a balanced budget, and other goodies. The American voter is blindfolded and given a stick. The voter then swings the stick wildly in every direction, trying to hit a political candidate on the head and knock some sense into the silly bastard."

"When you looked at the Republicans you saw the scum off the top of business. When you looked at the Democrats you saw the scum off the top of politics. Personally I prefer business. A businessman will steal from you directly instead of getting the IRS to do it for him. And when Republicans ruin the environment, destroy the supply of affordable housing, and wreck the industrial infrastructure, at least they make a buck off it. The Democrats just do these things for fun."

"A little government and a little luck are necessary in life, but only a fool trusts either of them!"

BCCI AND BASEL BANKERS

Questions still overflow regarding the Banks and S&L's. BCCI is the one which is most attended because it seems to represent such big crime. You haven't seen any "crime" yet--try the Bank which deliberately pulled down their own entity, BCCI. This is the supernational Bank for International Settlements (BIS) in Basel, Switzerland--the central bankers' central bank. By the way, when it all shakes out you will have a managing branch of that bank in the U.S.

It will not be the U.S. elected government which will be the enforcers for the BIS, it will be the privately owned (by them) Federal Reserve with the nice enforcement officers of the IRS.

Take a deep breath, now, for it will be a while before you will enjoy the next. The Fed officials told Sen. John Kerry's (yes, same one) Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Narcotics that Congress must rapidly pass the Fed's "Foreign Bank Supervision Enhancement Act" (S.1019), or face a world banking crash. The Fed's "BCCI bill", also called "Garn-Kerry", would turn the $20 billion BCCI bankruptcy into a gain of wildly unconstitutional powers for the Fed and the BIS over the U.S. economy.

In addition to the bill, the Fed officials demanded more regulatory power for "the Basel Committee of the BIS, which is setting up the exchange that is needed". All BIS central banks plan to "change their country's laws to conform with the decisions of the Basel Committee". This, of course, is at the pronouncement of the Committee of 300 headed by the Royal Family of England.

You think you aren't "really" involved? Well, Federal Reserve General Counsel J. Virgil Mattingly, Jr. and Fed Bank Supervision Director William Taylor told the Senate on Aug. 1 that the complex scandal over the BCCI would result in great and wondrous power for this "BIS".

The Fed should know. Taylor has been U.S. delegate to the BIS Committee on Bank Supervision, called the "Basel" or "Cooke Committee", for years. The Cooke Committee was run from 1975-88 by Bank of England official Peter Cooke, who then moved to the Price Waterhouse accounting firm. It was he who wrote the June 1991 Price Waterhouse accounting report on BCCI, which resulted in the seizure by the Bank of England and other central banks of BCCI offices in 69 countries on July 5. Still think it was a move against "crime"?

Since then, the BIS grip over the U.S. government has increased. Three days after seizing BCCI, the BIS appointed New York Federal Reserve President E. Gerald Corrigan as the new chairman of the "Cooke Committee".

On Aug. 6, President George Bush confirmed the appointment of the Fed's other BIS representative, William Taylor (yes, the same), to head the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. The Fed and Bush forced out retiring FDIC chief William Seidman (but not to worry, he did plenty of damage while he had control--like allowing buyouts of banks by only "good" assets and leaving you-the-taxpayers to bail out the "bad" "stuff"), and have put the bank insurance, and hence the savings, of the American people in the hands of the BIS.

Why did the BIS do this cute trick? "To demonstrate that our coordination and control gets results. We have shown that we can have a $20 Billion bank go belly up--and not even a ripple!" said Robert Bench, now a Washington director of Price Waterhouse, former U.S. Comptroller of the Currency, and as such a Cooke Committee member for many years. "It was the cooperation and coordination among the BIS Cooke Committee that led to the BCCI exposures," he also said.

The point is, World, that you are in REAL TROUBLE! I have no more space to outlay more at this sitting but will take up the ongoing scenario when we pen again. Dr. John Coleman has, or will be, giving you a full accounting in his Insider's Report and/or World Intelligence Review. I do sincerely hope you will gain that valuable source of information.

America West will be starting a newspaper very shortly wherein we can garner information from several valid sources which I know to be valid. We have simply run out of space to share all that you MUST have to get through these days ahead.

Hatonn to standby, please. Dharma, I have several pieces of personal response we must get finished. We also have a great group of reporters and publications people to walk through and inspect, while photographing, the dwelling. We have Dr. Coleman for the above named reports, The National Inquirer, the L.A. Times and the Bakersfield Californian. The only representative we couldn't get here on time is the head of our Constitutional Law Center but I'm sure we can "fill in" via recorder and CamCorder. Perhaps these intruders would like to recite the Kol Nidre in unison for the reporters! God can be quite creative if you but give Him ear and voice. In love I stand with ye ones.

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Sacred Spirit Within Pleiades Connection Vol. VI
Human The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII
Science Of The Cosmos Pleiades Connection Vol. VIII
The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.
Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 6

9/13/91 #1 HATONN
FRIDAY

In the glory of one of your fine and final days for positive action, I come in Brotherhood that we might give you some alternatives. Actually, these alternative actions are already present and underway--you have but to unite as "one nation under God with liberty and justice for all".

May this also be a personal lesson to all who prejudge a thing which you do not understand, for that which I offer is in full disagreement with, for instance, E.J. I dedicated a book to my brother, Al M. of Yucca Valley some time back and allowed negative flow from this place (not in my name, but personal opinion) because both the man who received and the man who projected needed the lessons. This will also allow all of you to become more giving to brothers when you do not know that of which you speak.

I herein dedicate this to Al M. for even though he did NOT create the idea, he did see to it that long ago I received material information as to the status of a new movement beginning across your nation.

We were writing of foreign affairs and E.J. rapidly read the information, stated that it would simply cause a massive civil war, told Al that it was "too much" and somewhat B.S., "that it couldn't be pulled off", etc. I urge all of you to STOP prejudging for if YOU knew all, you would already have things well defined and the world in balance. I now ask E.J. to call Al, apologize, and see what other information can be gleaned. You see, you need not use the ENTIRE packet for the good has to be sorted from the chaff but the facts are as follows:

A collateral, parallel, shadow government moved in and slowly (sometimes very rapidly) took over the operations of your nation and buried the Constitution. You now have THAT impostor government set up and running out of control in Washington, D.C. without any intention of ever again honoring the Constitution of the United States of America. The only thing incorrect about this "NEW" idea of now bringing in another government is its label of "New Nation U.S.A." Why? Because it is in no wise NEW and the label will get you thrown out of court and into the Brig. You are reclaiming your OLD Original Nation and to indicate that it is NEW is an error and will cause you great problems. In all fairness to E.J. it was that very thing which caused him such distress. The facts are that it is unlikely you will be given opportunity to break through the wall of deceit and control in the Washington area and therefore, you must now have a massive sweep of "the-people" to return the control of the united States of America unto the people within the Sovereign States. Some label such as Republic of the united States of America would, for instance, be far more suitable. I do not believe that the organization can function well as established in this NNUSA. How did you get your President? Was Freeman duly elected by the people or a handful of those who happened to be present in a given "room"? Why don't I just appoint myself President of "Old Nation USA" and send out medals and citations of valor to those who like me? Because if you do not establish that which you do THROUGH THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, you have only established a distraction which can easily be wiped off the map in one sweep.

To accomplish these things requires that ones who cannot seem to rise above their individual narrow perceptions, to come without and hear the response of God as you have called unto Him for help. You continue to WAIT for that which YOU consider appropriate--while the help comes and passes.

I speak specifically of one Nord Davis of North Carolina. I honor this man and his relentless push for freedom. He, however, denounces Me and the Hosts of God who come forth with me for it disagrees somehow with that which the evangelists give forth in their own opinions and interpretations from the so-called "Bible". If you can discount our presence, THEN YOU HAVE NOT CAREFULLY READ YOUR OWN SET OF INSTRUCTIONS, TAMPERED WITH AS IT IS. I honor Nord Davis, too, but far beyond a document of merit with a foolish medallion affixed and signed by a self-styled "president". If you further the things of the physical format in replication of that which is in ill-function already--you do not accomplish freedom, you insure demise.

I shall be most happy to work with, and speak with, any of these proclaimed patriots for I tell you now, the United States of America could well be called "israel" (the people chosen of God) to reclaim HIS creation. I remind you that the adversary, the anti-god, has taken claim to everything in name, in place and in action--upon the physical plane regarding your planet. You see, the "SOUL" is not of physical plane and yet, you are in dire circumstance of losing that very thing which unites you into oneness with God and gives you possibility of rising above this horror set upon you. Ponder it please, and I stand ready to commune. No, I will not play games and do miracles, play to the crowd nor PROVE anything to anyone's satisfaction--it is time that YOU ONES PROVE SOMETHING OF GOODLY INTENT UNTO GOD!

IF YOU DO NOT STRUCTURE YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL NATION UNDER GOD--UNDER GOD--YOU SHALL HAVE CREATED ONLY A SECOND ENTITY DOOMED TO FAIL AND FALL. THE PROMISE OF GOD IS THAT THE TRUTH WILL BE BROUGHT FORTH IN THE FINAL DAYS AND THAT THE ONES OF GOD SHALL AND WILL BE SEPARATED APART FROM THAT WHICH IS THE PHYSICAL EVIL OF THE PLANET AND HIS PEOPLE SHALL BE BROUGHT INTO SAFETY INTO THE PLACES PREPARED FOR THEM--WHO DID YOU THINK WOULD PREPARE THOSE PLACES????? You are still little children of very primitive insight of such attitudes as, "I'll show you mine if you will show me yours!" If you have not risen above that concept of life-style, then you are NOT suitable to reside yet, in the places of God's own balanced civilizations--FURTHERMORE, YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED IN. YOU ONES MUST RISE ABOVE THAT WHICH IS PART AND PARCEL OF THE "BIBLE BELT PHILOSOPHY" FOR THAT IS ALL THAT IT IS--PHILOSOPHY! YOU ARE GIVEN THAT WHICH "MEN" HAVE DEEMED SUITABLE AND DESIRABLE AND IT HAS VERY LITTLE TO DO WITH THAT WHICH WILL COME TO PASS. AND YET, IF YOU COULD COME INTO THAT WHICH IS TRUTH, THROUGH THE NETWORK OF SAY, A TRINITY BROADCASTING SYSTEM--THE TRUTH WOULD BLANKET THE WORLD BEFORE YOU COULD BE STOPPED! HOWEVER, AS LONG AS LIES ARE THRUST FORTH FROM THE SOURCE OF THAT SYSTEM AND THE SELF-STYLED LIARS ARE PUT ASIDE--THOSE WHO LIVE ONLY IN THE FLESHLY INTENT--THEN YOU ARE WORSE THAN BEHIND IN THE RACE.

HOW CAN HATONN BE SO CRUEL?

I weary of your individual and personal accusations of "cruelty" when I take exception to personal opinions going forth in my name or that of the Christ. I care not WHO you are if you be misinformed and you are ALL being misinformed. How did you think God would approach you in the final days? You must think about this for I have yet to get an answer from any of your evangelists! A fuzzy cloud won't cut it! A "rapture" won't cut it for it only takes you to the clouds! (Which will undoubtedly be radioactive!) Noah's ark is not large enough for all! What was the purpose of Noah's ark in the first place? It was a small and sparsely populated area wherein Noah was. He was available to save a remnant of people and life-forms, to reclaim that which would be left after the flood. It matters not whether the story is real or a myth--the parable is accurate indeed. This time, you must get OFF the planet for that which is coming, if not stopped through goodness, will set fire to your planet and the "remnant" will have to be brought safely into space until safety can be restored.

If you set up a nation which can be based on more lies--you will not succeed; you will only hasten your demise for you will not have GOD ON YOUR SIDE, EITHER! IF YOU HAVE NOT GOD ON YOUR SIDE, THE ADVERSARY IS TOO STRONG AND WILL ANNIHILATE YOU! IF YOU ARE TO BUILD A NATION UNDER GOD--THEN SO BE IT FOR IT WILL BE WITHIN THE LAWS OF GOD--JUST AS IT MUST BE WITHIN THE LAWS OF THE CONSTITUTION, TO BE BLEST OF GOD. .

You ones, precious brothers, are QUITE "STUCK" WITH ME, AND I AND THIS PLETHORA OF BROTHERHOOD OF "HOSTS" WILL NOW AND FOREVER FUNCTION TOTALLY WITHIN THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION--WE CARE NOT A WHIT REGARDING YOUR EARTH PHYSICAL LEGAL MATTERS NOR YOUR PERSONAL ACTIONS AGAINST THE LAWS OF GOD. IF YOU PREFER THE FABRICATED LEGAL ACTIONS OF THE PHYSICAL PLANE--YOU SHALL SIMPLY BE LEFT IN THAT PLANE UNTIL YOU LEARN BETTER

REGARDING HARMONY, BALANCE, LOVE AND TRUTH OF GOD AND THE CREATION

WE HAVE SET FORTH INTO PRINT ALL THAT YOU NEED TO BRING YOU HOME TO GOD AND WITHIN THE WONDROUS COSMOS--IT IS NOW UP TO YOU. WE WILL ATTEND YOU AND CON-TINUE TO WRITE UPON THESE SUBJECTS AND WALK
EVERY STEP WITH YOU--BUT YOU WILL MAKE THE CHANGES OR THEY WILL NOT BE MADE--WE WILL TAKE GOD'S PEOPLE AND OUR BROTHERS SENT TO ASSIST YOU, AND TAKE THEM HOME AND LEAVE
YOU TO YOUR CHOICES.
GOD DOES NOT FORCE NOR
COERCE--GOD ALLOWS FREE-WILL ACTIONS AND THAT,
DEAR ONES, MEANS FOR YOU.

ADVERSARY

The Adversary plans heinous things which are already coming down on you, from taking over the banks (planned for next week in America), through emergency order--right after the deliberate triggering of the San Andreas fault which will devastate the entire coast of California, to incarceration of the population's problem people in the now defunct military bases. You see, the closing of the bases had to coincide with need for the bases prior to total shut-down of them. They are needed to be operational to be useful on instant notice so you can see that time is indeed short.

Where are the great concerns over the fiscal year-end for your nation? You have to have a massive budget in two weeks! Where is it? Well, I repeat--it is structured to allow for the total fall of your economy into the hands of the Elite--quickly, before you can think more on the matter.

I am sorry, Dharma, as the time grows shorter for the actions needed--the quarrel continues on superficial things while the plots are being negotiated under cover. It is the time for the Elite to make their move for power and unfortunately that means devastating actions--promptly.

Distractions are rampant from Afghanistan to rehash of the horrors of Iraq. What have you now, in fact, from the soldiers coming back from Iraq--those who were not killed to prevent their talking? You see, the thing about burying the Iraqis alive is being told FIRST by your military now, for it was ready to break in the news from "unauthorized" sources. What am I talking about?

BURIED ALIVE

As the U.S. military machines came up on the Iraqis in trenches they simply lowered the earth-moving equipment of their armored vehicles and buried the soldiers alive. It is now known that uncounted THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS were buried alive by your pre-planned military machines. It had to be PLANNED because tanks, etc., are not equipped to push dirt around. "Oh, it's OK," says the spokesman, "...it isn't banned by the Geneva Convention." And you think chemicals are bad? How do you feel about being buried alive to suffocate while the life is pressed from your being? This is the war you sent your sons to die in!

For what? Let us consider this morning's news: The Kuwaiti government is deporting all Palestinians, killing them or imprisoning and torturing them, if their families through the grandfather's generation have Palestinian blood-line! THIS IS THE GOVERNMENT YOU SENT YOUR ARMIES TO DEFEND AND REPLACE INTO POWER!!!

Hatonn speaks fear and doom and gloom? GO LOOK AT THE NEWS WHICH THEY DO SHOW YOU! GOD PROTECT YOUR SOFT HEARTS FROM THAT HORROR THAT THEY HIDE FROM YOU!!!!

Well, this is the same military machine which will now come under Russian direction through the United Nations which will patrol your little village streets within the year. Furthermore, it is not long until we will ask no further of our scribes and publishers for they have served well and beyond all reasonable attack to allow you a chance to reclaim your lives and nation. If you do not get behind this final move toward Truth and God--we shall bring our people home and you can continue to hop from bed to bed with the evil come upon you. Threat? Come, come. This is fact and bears no threat--for God also promised His Hosts safe passage and to bring his children home into His safe places.

WINNING IN THE END?

That is up to you! The "Bible" says that God wins--but what and when does He win? He has never LOST anything--YOU are the ones who pulled away--but you better check out the rest of the story-line. Could it be that God wins when He gets all His blessed followers and Lighted beings and creations from the illusion of that physical place? Could it not mean that the adversary is "bound" into the places of the physical--RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE THIS DAY? YOU HAD BEST GET THE "PLEIADES CONNECTIONS" AND FIND OUT ABOUT THE COSMOS, 'GOD AND YOU! THE WORLD IS ABOUT TO GET A VERY LARGE HOT-FOOT AND GOD'S HOSTS (US) WILL NOT DO ONE IOTA IN FORCE TO PULL YOU AWAY FROM THE INFERNO, FOR

YOU ARE MAKING YOUR CHOICES AT THIS VERY MINUTE.

LITTLE GRAY ALIENS

Before the ending, ALL will be blamed on the aliens from the Cosmos. It will be perpetrated by the Elite of your own physical placement--but you will be told otherwise. You must understand something, little brothers--earth physical plane is YOUR DIMENSION OF EXPERIENCE IN WHICH YOU MAKE CHOICES--THE COSMOS IS OUR DIMENSION AND WHEN THE REAL SLIME HITS THE FAN IS WHEN THE ADVERSARY (9:57 a.m. take note, Dharma--your own adversary is trying to break the White Wolf fault--further note, however, that in spite of the loud "report", it didn't even cause your dwelling to sway! It is a very serious time, chelas--gravely serious.) TAKES HIS AGGRESSION OFF YOUR PLANET AND INTO WHAT WE CALL "OUTER COSMIC SPACE". THE ADVERSARY WILL NOT BE ALLOWED ONE INCH OUTSIDE YOUR PROJECTED SYSTEM. IN FACT, IT WON'T EVEN GO THAT FAR--AS THE EVIL "EMPIRE" CLAIMS THE PLANET--YOU WILL LIKELY IGNITE THE ATMOSPHERE THEREOF WHICH WILL, AT THE LEAST, LAY BARREN THE PLANET. YOU ONES CAN KEEP ON WITH THIS SILLY DISCOUNTING OF OUR WORKERS--BUT 'TIS YOU WHO WILL REAP THE WHIRLWIND--NOT MY PEOPLE.

Oberli, you and George will please meet and make some rapid decisions how best to cover the funds available which are not now in gold collateral. The full intent and need for a massive earthquake is to bring down the banking center's computer system. Within two weeks the entire International monetary system will be hopelessly snarled. I will not tell you what to do through Dharma, for you will not be given excuse that "perhaps Doris" thought of something--YOU WILL ALL GO WITHIN AND LISTEN AND THEN, ONLY THEN, WILL THE IDEAS FLOW WHICH WILL GIVE YOU PROPER DIRECTIONS FOR ACTION. DON'T EXPECT TO SIMPLY CALL A MEETING WITH MY SCRIBE AND YOU WILL GET YOUR OUTLINE--NAY, NAY--FOR THE WATERWINGS ARE COMING OFF AND RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE SCATTERED ABOUT IN PROPERNESS. REGARDLESS OF THAT WHICH YOU ONES KNOW TO BE FACT, MOST STILL SOMEHOW BELIEVE MY SCRIBE IS JUST SOME KIND OF PSYCHIC PROPHET--NOT SO AND SHE NEEDS NOT BEAR ONE IOTA MORE OF RESPONSIBILITY BEYOND THE PENNING OF THE JOURNALS.

NO ONE WILL BE GIVEN TO KNOW THE "MOMENT OF HIS COMING"--NOT EVEN HIM. NEITHER WILL YOU KNOW THE MOMENT OF THE EARTHQUAKE NOR THE DOWNFALL--ONLY THE "PLANS" WHICH ARE LAID FORTH BY EARTH-MAN IN SESSIONS OF PHYSICAL "PLANNING". AS THE PROPHETS SAID: "IT WILL COME UPON YOU AS A THIEF IN THE NIGHT--WHEN YE LEAST EXPECT IT." WELL, YOU HAVE ADVANTAGE--YOU AT LEAST CAN BE IN THE EXPECTING OF UPHEAVAL FOR IT IS ALL NOW UNDER HUMAN EARTH-LEVEL PHYSICAL CAPABILITY. SALU.

MAY YOU PONDER MOST RAPIDLY FOR YOUR TIME FOR DAWDLING IS MOST LIKELY GROWN TO AN ABRUPT ABYSS, FOR THE ELITE MUST TAKE CONTROL

SOON TO STAY ON THEIR SCHEDULE TO TAKE THE WORLD ACCORDING TO THEIR LAID FORTH (PUBLICLY) RESOLUTION.

THIS IS THE VERY REASON THAT THE BANKING CONTROL COMPUTER CENTERS WERE PLACED ON THE WEST COAST--SO THEY COULD BE TAKEN OUT WHEN THE TIME WAS RIGHT TO SWITCH THE BANKING CONTROL AND POWER TO EUROPE AND THE CENTRAL BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS ACCORDING TO THE COMMITTEE OF 300. IF YOU ARE ON THE COAST WEST OF THE "LINE", I WOULD BE GETTING AT LEAST SOME DRINKING WATER ON BOARD. ALL LIFE-LINES WILL BE DISRUPTED--WATER, GAS, ELECTRICITY! WORSE, THIS ONE IS PLANNED FOR REAL CHAOS AND WILL LIKELY COME AT A MOST UNPROFITABLE TIME SO THAT GREAT NUMBERS WILL BE KILLED FOR ADDED BURDEN AND CONFUSION.

RIGHT NOW IT IS STILL PLANNED FOR THE 17TH BUT IT WILL NOT LIKELY BE ON THAT DATE BUT RATHER, A FEW DAYS BEFORE OR AFTER THE DATE TO FOOL ALL WHO ALREADY KNOW THE 'PLANS--AND BY THE WAY, CHOKE NOW--IT IS WIDELY KNOWN AND PUBLICIZED IN THE UNDERGROUND SURVEILLANCE NEWS CIRCUITS. THAT LITTLE LIFT-OFF OF SHUTTLE FACADE YESTERDAY EVENING WAS A MAJOR SIGN OF "TIMING" FOR THE "BIG BOYS". SO BE IT--HE WHO HAS EYES AND EARS BE USING THEM.

LET US CLOSE, DHARMA, BUT I NEED TO MEET WITH, AT LEAST, OBERLI A BIT LATER THIS DAY AND EVERYONE

GET TO CHECKING YOUR PROVISIONS AND ESPECIALLY THE NEEDS SHOULD THE BANKS BE OUT FOR A WHILE BY ANY MEANS. YOU SEE, IF THIS DOESN'T WORK OUT BY EARTHQUAKE AND CHAOS--THEN IT IS PLANNED TO SIMPLY PULL DOWN THE ECONOMY AND WORK THE BANKS THROUGH EXECUTIVE EMERGENCY ON FINANCIAL GROUNDS.

THEY ARE NOT READY TO PULL DOWN THE WHOLE THING, YOU SEE. THE GOLD SLUMP IN PRICING IS BECAUSE THE RUSSIANS ARE DUMPING GOLD AND THE PRICE IS MANIPULATED TO KEEP THEM FROM GETTING THAT WHICH THEY NEED IN FUNDING OUTSIDE THE MONETARY SYSTEM OF THE ELITE BANKSTERS.

NOTE THAT THOUSANDS OF TONS OF GOLD ARE AWAITING THE EXCHANGE FROM THE DRUG TRADE AND THE PRICE WAS SET AT SOMEWHERE AROUND $372/OZ. THAT MEANS IT IS GOING UP AGAIN AT LEAST TO THAT POINT!!! IF NOT, IT WILL BE BY TOTAL ACCIDENT. IT IS PLANNED AND SCHEDULED TO GO TO OVER $800/OZ AND THIS IS WHY A "NATURAL DISASTER" IS PLANNED SO AS TO NOT TOPPLE THE MARKET. YES, I AM AFRAID IT DOES MAKE SENSE IN REASON, DHARMA, AND I AM SAD TO CONTINUALLY HAVE TO POINT THESE THINGS OUT TO YOU ALREADY OVERBURDENED AND BELOVED WORKERS. GOD WILL NOT GIVE YOU MORE THAN YOU CAN CARRY SO LET US JUST GET ON WITH IT.

I suggest you in the quake zone (watch for an eastern break also) beef up your supplies for a ten point quake is going to ruin the aqueduct system right at harvest time. So be it and may you be given insight. In love and brotherhood, I move to stand-by.

Hatonn to clear, please.

9/14/91 #1 HATONN
SATURDAY

FIRST: please let me have a personal word. I know that most things which are funnelled through America West are making it on to me. However, some things are NOT and I NEED THEM. This is the only way persons have to get communication to me and although Dharma doesn't want another single thing through here--I must have information. For instance, I do have a copy of Brent's correspondence but I did not receive the attached UCC material. Also, Oberli has subscribed twice to the "Upright Ostrich" and we still do not get copies. This is where we will find the "Patriot" information and Howard F's information.

I realize that we are going to get some help now, with writings for publication, but I must have all possible information in order to analyze and comment as to worthiness or discarding.

Another for instance: I am sure that we have adequately covered everything the Pilot Group has to offer--and, I am happy to work WITH them but not for $7,000 when we already have the same "working" material. We need Gary and Wayne--not the Pilot material as such. We need the working expertise on underground building and hydroponic growing.

You may as well be prepared for great changes in the collections methods and measure of taxation and--if you desire input--you will get the material so that I might look it over. I am not going to go searching for it for what you ones do with your money and worldly goods is not of my first priority.

We will tell you that which to do but if it is simply to be used to further selfish and greedy interests of individuals--then the thrust is wrong and I care not to participate. I am interested in getting God's people off your planet and keeping the adversary out of the cosmic realms wherein dwell the people of God. That does require that "MY" people utilize every available tool to get through this time of travail. I do, however, refuse to comment on anything which has not been brought before me in formal format if it is to be answered through this route.

We must be most cautious in that, beginning a newspaper, we do not actually end up shortening the space for writing for I, alone, am overfilling the space allotted. Well, let us see how next week goes for I anticipate that you will most surely have your hands full, and most certainly by the end of your fiscal year-end (Sept 30). You KNOW that the government must do SOMETHING and, whatever it is, will not be pleasant for you--the people.

I will cover possibilities when we meet on the morrow A.M. However, I do again request that if we are going to take the time of the scribe for speaking--I must have someone put the tapes to print for I am going to begin to refuse to repeat information and--although we have relieved her of the pressure of Germain's books--nothing has changed for we have as many JOURNALS to write as there are subjects. It is that I cannot expect her to function under the pressures of the last few months. The subject matter will be more dangerous as we continue to reveal the cover-ups but the important material as to your soul evolution and the workings of the Universal order and Creation is now laid forth. This, however, has not yet allowed even for Tesla to present his material. This is not to overwhelm but to remind that there is no "resting on the oars". Thank you.

CURRENT EVENTS

What flows back to me from receivers of the information are things such as this: "...I just can't get upset because it hasn't happened so far..." and "Why would our own people do such a dastardly thing as to kill our own people and wreck our country?" Remember--there is NOTHING too heinous for the Elite adversary to produce or precipitate to gain the power over your world--nothing. You have seen the military forces in training! If you can cause men to man earth-moving equipment and methodically bury alive his fellowman in a desert--those same men will march through a town and wipe it out if required and ordered to so do.

If the Elite can unite you on their side instead of build distress and hate for themselves, through an apparent "act of God", wouldn't it be far wiser? If it is discovered that they have deliberately detonated explosives and caused a massive earthquake they still have an "out"--they will say that they have evidence that the "aliens" did it. Natural disasters unite people and play right into the New World Order. Furthermore, remember that a massive disruption in a single small area of the world does not cause world-wide disruption--the peasant Chinese, for example, wouldn't know or give a hoot if you have an earthquake in California. Also, now that the plans are to launch that information link satellite tomorrow or Monday and you will have ability of the Elite to totally control all computer transactions and records from off the planet--that is what your "Star Wars" satellites were for--and this one, if the Russians leave it in orbit, allows the final blow to the nation of taking out the clearing centers of the banking industry in America.

How many of your people are "ready" to carry on? Less than a hundredth of one percent at most. I am sorry for ones who chose to decline or ignore our offer of assistance, for ones are going to now be caught with money in hand, or lumps in banks and they will lose it. The plans are to bring the banks to a halt one of these days SOON and then cause ones to have to "show" any cash they might have and only allow use of a portion if the amounts in the holding of any ONE party or individual citizen is great. Let us take a sum of say, $35 to $50 thousand; this will be considered "questionable" cash holdings and any more than a very small sum will simply be confiscated. If problems occur, the party involved will be charged with possible drug dealing or criminal activities. Little ladies will be treated as equal to any drug lord. Corporations will fare better for they "have a reason to have funds" if doing business and your records are current and good.

The point is for the government to come down on the citizens, my friends, in mass and with a very heavy boot to walk all over you.

Can it be stopped? I do not know at the time of this writing--we will not stop it, if that is your question. You have two full days to witness the negotiations and play for power. Then, I suggest you all go back and read the book of Revelation in your Bible. I know not why suddenly we of the space command are so queried when the writings of how it will be have been yours from onset of experience. If not this week, chelas, it will be in the next or the next and so on. If you do not choose to listen or if you listen and discount, so be it. My charge is to bring the WORD of God unto the world in Truth and then, my own self-appointed charge is to bring MY people information and warning wherein I can do so--if the citizens wish to utilize that information, I am pleased--if not--so be it. However, we will see who makes it best through a 10.6 earthquake and has something to eat after the fact and a bit of clean water to drink while the life-lines may be down. Discount me all you wish--but it would be great WISDOM to listen to your geologists who have told you for decades about how it will be when the "Big One" hits California. It would seem to me that preparations should have been done years prior to now! I am simply giving you ongoing information about what the ELITE HAVE ON THE DRAWING BOARD FOR WORKING THEIR MAGIC OF ENSLAVING YOU.

TID BITS

Notice: Enjoy feeling superior while you can. A Carnegie Mellon University researcher predicts that robots who are aware of their surroundings can challenge the domination of humans. "Those robots are the first serious contenders to be our replacements," says Hans Moravec, director of the university's Mobile Robot Laboratory. "Earth may become a kind of game preserve for people." This arrived on Wednesday from a friend in Indiana.

Now for another view of the planning which was received and laid forth in 1976:

It might be of interest to you to know that in 1976 or thereabouts, we were given a preview of the "civilian 'containment' camps" already in preparation at that time. In addition, we were told of the following:

- 1. Travel outside the continental limits of the U.S. would be curtailed and then prohibited entirely.*
- 2. Postal rates would slowly rise until the average worker could only afford to purchase stamps to mail in his monthly payments. (Step 1 in breaking off communi-* cation between friends and families in other cities and states.)

3. Next, interstate travel will be curtailed and then prohibited except for "good cause". (Guess who is going to determine that one? Step 2 in communication "prevention".)
4. Next, inter-city exchanges will follow the same pattern, and "passes" will be required (Step 3 in this series).
5. All mail (for those who can afford that luxury) and all telephone communication will be monitored! (Nothing new about that for it's already in full operation.)
6. Issuance of de-valued "currency" and stringent rationing of goods and commodities.
7. Declaration of martial law.
8. Closure of the Mexican and Canadian borders. Please know that troops are already being convoyed to these locations. Barriers along the Mexican borders are already being implemented and prepared for electrification and worse.
9. An "incident" will be deliberately instigated to verify the need to close the Canadian borders!
10. There are psychotronic and radionic devices already in place and being activated to keep citizens within the boundaries of their own counties and states. And woe to those caught outside their home territory when the entire system is networked, because they won't be able to get back in!
11. And the new, black, military "attack" type helicopters now sitting boldly on the tarmac adjacent to our so-called "international airports" will be directing the "containment" network for each state! And so, ad nauseam.

This was sent in response to one of our last EXPRESSES and I am most appreciative for this comes from a "center" but was written by a good friend of mine who is in the 74th year of experience. This one writes to support Dharma and Oberli thusly: ...do not be afraid. I am 74 and have had similar experiences as yours. My phones are constantly tapped; mail opened, letters and releases that never reach their destination, computer tampering...the whole works! Consider the source! After all, we are far more "dangerous" out of the body and off-planet than on...so "they" might want to think twice before "liberating" us from this density. Even my dogs have been attacked...and not too long ago the individual concerned returned to finish the job. Imagine his surprise at being met by 90 lbs. of furious white Chow who recognized his smell and went through a window after him before he could get thru/over the fence. Mission NOT accomplished! Canine in question was, of course, liberally rewarded for his alertness!

Commander, feel free to use any portion or all of this letter as an independent, earth-based verification of facts already in evidence. You will recognize the energy through the handwriting...as this means of identification cannot (as yet) be counterfeited!

Indeed, I am indebted for your support of my working people. Blessed are you ones who have carried the banner for so long and seemingly, alone. The time is at hand for the reaping of the Father's harvest and thy works rewarded.

CONSTITUTION INFORMATION

We will give a try at Al's scanner for the next request. Dharma has had to digest these pages of information and I cannot ask her to copy all of the document in point. This comes from James Hazel in Oregon and I am likewise indebted to him for his sharing. This is exactly that which we desire to establish--A SHARING OF INFORMATION WHICH CAN ALLOW YOU TO CHANGE YOUR PATHWAY AND REGAIN YOUR FREEDOM. IT MUST BE DONE FROM YOUR LEVEL OF EXPERIENCE AND WE SUPPORT ALL GROUPS AND ONES WHO HAVE INFORMATION--WE SHALL NEVER EXPLOIT ANOTHER FOR PERSONAL GAIN--OTHER THAN THE PERSONAL GAIN OF EACH AND ALL CITIZENS WHO DESIRE TO RESTORE FREEDOM TO GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE AND NATION. SO BE IT.

I am overjoyed to find that J.H. has forwarded this information to the researcher, David Dodge, and we will likewise share all of this with the Constitutional Law Center lawyers. We are beginning to make impact now, and it can only pick up power and participants for there is still "time" for action if you move smartly along--for they, in planning a "natural disaster" to gain control, err greatly; the populace will only want to hold more tightly to their arms for there is going to be rioting and crime like you can't imagine along the West coast if they pull this "thing" off as they have planned. Yes indeed, if you move rapidly, you can get it done--you can establish and move into working operation a government by the people, for the people and of the people--because people will SERVE for no reward other than the effort toward FREEDOM IN TRUTH!

Dharma, I ask that the Document be entered herein and make sure that we retain a good copy for my further use. Thank you. I now ask that you leave this keyboard for there are things which you ones need to attend in preparation for that which will probably come down next week. Make sure we have plenty of supplies which would ordinarily be shipped from the coast areas. (For lack of space and time the Document will be the next EXPRESS, Vol. XVI #7.)

I ask that Gene and Charles attend the meeting tomorrow. I cannot ask ones to stand-by from here into eternity, but ones must function in KNOWING of the risks they run with self and family. Blessings, for I walk with you and you are centered in the Light of God's shielding protection. Salu.

OUR NEWEST JOURNAL

SCIENCE OF THE COSMOS TRANSFORMATION OF MAN PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. VIII

by Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

"THIS BOOK IS THE 8TH OF THE PLEIADES SERIES WHICH ARE THE 8 MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS OF OUR PLANET. These JOURNALS are a legacy being presented to mankind and left for all the expected future wayfarers through this physical experience.

"The PHOENIX JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES are directed and given forth from the higher brotherhood sent forth as the Hosts for the preparation of this time of cycles when this civilization will make transition into higher understanding or return to the ages of darkness." - ATON (GOD)

Some of the topics covered in this JOURNAL are: The foundation of our present belief - The expanding universe - Solenoid coils are improperly wound - Rutherford-Bohr theory of atomic structure is impossible - New laws of thermodynamics.

We are also given an explanation of sound and silence - Photosynthesis and the geometry of space - The nature of light - OUR MISSING 13TH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT - Paper money - Into space through open doors: The road map - Power projection - Transmutation - Solar energy - God's purposeful intent for man and the power of mother love.

Many other topics are covered including updates of current world affairs.

SOME INFORMATION IN THIS BOOK HAS NEVER BEEN GIVEN TO THIS PLANET BEFORE.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIREE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn
West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (S111) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX (STX1) Minett & George Green 713 862-3786

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe

Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 7

JAMES HAZEL
PO Box 1317
Brookings, Oregon 9741511

10 September 1991

HATONN
c/o America West Publishers
PO Box 986
Tehachapi, CA 93581

Re: TOPIC: The "missing 13th amendment",
Phoenix Journal Express, Vol XVI #2

GREETINGS HATONN!

On Page 10 of the above-referenced Journal Express Hatonn approaches but skirts two material facts that will prove fatal to efforts to establish general acknowledgement and enforcement of "The Title of Nobility Amendment".

1. While it is true that "the Constitution is silent on what procedure should be used to announce, confirm, or communicate the ratification of amendments" it is that very silence which confers authority on the Congress to determine what those procedures shall be.

By a long-standing principle-of-law the recipient of a grant of power assumes the right to determine in the absence of express restrictions or prohibitions to the contrary, how that power will be executed. Congress early-on provided for the Secretary of State to certify ratification (so-called 11th and 12th amendments). Running that method of certification up the proverbial flag-pole, everybody saluted it - nobody objected; so the certification process became established as a precedent prior to the proposing of the 'missing amendment'. I find nothing in the DAVID DODGE materials that would defeat the established premise that the "Title of Nobility Amendment" has not been 'legally' ratified.

2. Great Truths are often inadvertently revealed by the use of humor. Hatonn's tongue-in-cheek observation about "ignorant politicians who don't know their amendments from their ... ahh, articles" raises a serious inquiry into the distinction between "ARTICLES OF THE CONSTITUTION" and "AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION". This is a distinction that is critical to those who futilely advocate resurrecting the 'missing 13th amendment'".

Enclosed is my unpublished essay entitled, "OTHER POWERS; THE METAMORPHOSIS OF THE CONSTITUTION", in which I explore the "certification precedent", the "article/amendment" issue, and other matters relative to modifying the Constitution. You may find it useful in enhancing understanding not only of "the missing 13th amendment" controversy, but also the process by which we have been enslaved by brutal engineers of the engine we call "The State".

FURTHER: On Page 3, of the same Journal Express, Hatonn alludes to the "ORIGINAL MEANING" of the Pledge of Allegiance. It may well be that such was the intent and comprehension of some individuals when reciting the Pledge, but if so, their "meaning" did not coincide with the words spoken. Reminds me of the testy admonition to "Don't do what I say ... DO WHAT I MEAN"! I will also enclose a couple of tracts I have written on this topic that hopefully will clarify, rather than further obfuscate, the ramifications of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Despite my "criticisms" herein, this Journal Express is immensely interesting and helpful. I am particularly grateful for insights shared about founding of bar-association tentacles as extensions of the England-based International Bar Association, and of the etymology of the term "Esquire". (I DIDN'T KNOW THAT!) Makes me want to run right out and invite a lawyer to lynch!

Thank you for all you do in the interest of Order and Sanity.

Cordially,

Jim Hazel

Enclosures:

CC: David Dodge
ANTI-SHYSTER Publication

Further, there is no Constitutional requirement that the Secretary of State, or anyone else, be officially notified to complete the ratification process. The Constitution only requires that three-fourths of the states ratify for an Amendment to be added to the Constitution. If three-quarters of the states ratify, the Amendment is passed. Period. The Constitution is otherwise silent on what procedure should be used to announce, confirm, or communicate the ratification of amendments.

So--you might be able to convince some of the people, or maybe even all of them, for a little while, that this 13th Amendment was never ratified. Maybe you can show them that the ten legislatures which ordered it published eighteen times (known) consisted of ignorant politicians who don't know their amendments from their ... ahh, articles. You might even be able to convince the public that your forefathers never meant to "outlaw" public servants who pushed people around and accepted bribes or special favors to "look the other way". Maybe. But before you do, there is a lot of evidence to be explained.

OTHER POWERS

THE METAMORPHOSIS OF THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution for the United States of America was intended - so goes the Preamble - to:

1. Form a more perfect Union of States,
2. Establish Justice,
3. Insure tranquillity at home,
4. Provide for the common defense of all Americans,
5. Promote the general welfare of the inhabitants of America,
6. And secure the blessings of liberty to the people.

Where did it all go so wrong? How is it that after 200 years of government under the Constitution the people have less liberty, less integrity of States, less justice, less tranquillity, less well-being, and are impotently defenseless ... decidedly worse off in every respect than were those who first established the Constitution?

I think it about time we came to the nut of the problem, and realized how it has been done to us. If we don't ... there will be no way to recover from our sorry condition.

We are going to share with you a few keys to understanding the Constitution, and how it has been converted into an engine of oppression. At this writing, apparently no one else in the patriot community has discovered these keys. In any event no one to our knowledge has reported on them. This is NEW STUFF. So you'd better listen up. Your very life and liberty may depend on it.

Before we begin, please get out a copy of the Constitution so you can follow along and verify what we will share with you. It can be just about any old copy ... even one of the perverse government restatements that screw over the capitalization and punctuation. It will be necessary that you have a copy that includes all 26 'amendments'.

Initially we are going to consider only the Constitution as it existed upon adoption of the Bill of Rights ... before the 11th and succeeding 'amendments' were incorporated into it.

The 10th article of the Bill of Rights makes it very clear that only those powers enumerated in the body of the Constitution are delegated to 'the United States'; that it possesses no other powers or authority. It follows that 'the United States' may not lawfully exercise any powers that are not so enumerated.

We are, and should be, concerned with POWERS. It is POWER, implemented and executed, that causes effects on people NOTHING ELSE. Are the EFFECTS on our lives, asserted by 'the United States', lawful and legal ... or not? That is our first concern ... to determine whether we are moved about, compelled to act or restrain our actions, justly and deservedly - or by criminal force.

Knowing that powers are delegated only to departments or officers, will help us cut through the confusion engendered by trying to visualize the monumental, superstate 'United States of America' ... which exists only in the imagination. It is easier to visualize DEPARTMENTS (although they, too, are only legal fictions) ... and hold they and their officers accountable for actions taken in their names.

The KEY that will begin to unlock the door to understanding will be found in Article 1, Section 8, Clause 18!

This little declaration, so innocuous on its surface, provides the platform for all manner of abuse. It provides, innocently enough, that Congress shall have the power to make laws to execute the 17 categories of delegated powers immediately preceding this clause. Those 17 categories are fairly straightforward. At least they are there in black and white; if we should have disagreements about their implications, at least we can see what we are talking about.

Clause 18 also grants power to the Congress to make laws for executing "OTHER POWERS" that are vested in the Government of the United States by the Constitution, as well relative to "OTHER POWERS" that are vested by the Constitution in any DEPARTMENT OR OFFICER of that Government.

Now - as with the "foregoing powers" listed in the first 17 Clauses of Section 8 ... it shouldn't be too difficult to discover all of the "OTHER POWERS" congress may cause to be executed. After all, those OTHER POWERS must be written (directly or by implication) within the body of the Constitution.

Many OTHER POWERS are clearly set forth to be vested in the President. Clause 18 grants the Congress authority to make laws to execute those other powers.

Other powers are set forth in Article III; vested in the courts. The Congress is given authority by Clause 18 to make laws to carry those vested powers into execution.

ARTICLE V GRANTS TO CONGRESS THE "OTHER POWER" TO PROPOSE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND, BY IMPLICATION, THE POWER TO DETERMINE AND CERTIFY WHETHER THE AMENDMENT IS RATIFIED AND COMPETENT TO BE ENROLLED AS AN AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

HEREIN LIES THE JEOPARDY TO LIBERTY UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, AS THAT CONSTITUTION WAS ORIGINALLY ADOPTED.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON!

Prior to the adoption of the Constitution a debate raged between the misnomered "Federalists" who advocated adoption of the new constitution and those who distrusted the concept of centralized government.

Alexander Hamilton, the money-lenders' agent provocateur in America, who later designed and forced the monopoly-banking system onto the American People, pooh-poohed any possible danger from

Clause 18. After wittingly defaming the personalities of his critics, he recorded this diversion in FEDERALIST PAPER #33:

".... it may be affirmed with perfect confidence that the constitutional operation of the intended government would be precisely the same if [this clause] were entirely obliterated as if they were repeated in every article. They are only declaratory of a truth which would have resulted by necessary and unavoidable implication from the very act of constituting a federal government and vesting it with certain specified powers."

Hamilton, a lawyer and bastard, immediately raises our suspicions that, if he says Clause 18 is innocuous, we should presume that it is DANGEROUS! Upon closer scrutiny we find that to be precisely the case.

Enlargement of POWERS

The Constitution vests ALL ULTIMATE POWER in the hands of the Congress. Those powers that are not directly and expressly delegated to the Congress, are left to it for the laws which will carry them into execution. Congress, in the beginning, had the potential of becoming an irresponsible despot. Since then, it has realized that potential beyond the wildest dreams of such mechanics as Alexander Hamilton. Congress accomplished this by the process of, first gradually and later with fierce acceleration, enlarging the POWERS available to it.

Here's how they did it:

First they proposed the so-called 11th amendment, and circulated it among the several State Legislatures for comment.

The "11th amendment" appears on the surface to be a NARROWING of powers vested in a department of the United States in that it would serve to strike out parts of the judicial powers granted in Article III. We will not here devote space to discussion of the long-term implications of that modification of the constitution.

Suffice to say: The article was merely DECLARATORY and as such required no ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE. Congress already had the power under Clause 18 to make executionary laws relative to those OTHER POWERS set forth in Article III. Also: It should be noted that an officer of the United States (subject to the Congress) certified that the '11th amendment' had been ratified.

A precedent was set! An officer subject to the Congress could determine whether a proposed amendment had been ratified. The precedent was not challenged. It became the standard by which later 'amendments' would be attached to the constitution. By this precedent, the powers available to the Congress had been enlarged. Unchallenged, it could thenceforth determine the validity of ratification of proposed amendments. Its officers might lie through their teeth about such validity. So long as the controlling party did not object (the Congress) ... the officer's certification would stand.

The so-called 12th amendment constituted a further enlargement of powers available for the Congresses' law-making fever under Clause 18. Many of these additional POWERS may not be readily observable to the naked eye. We will resist commenting on them as being beyond the scope of this article. Suffice to say: The precedent that was set by 'the 11th amendment', was deepened by the 12th ... that an officer subject to the power of Congress could certify the validity of ratification of proposed amendments. For our purposes, it is enough to note that the 12th 'amendment' appears to be little more than a statutory house-keeping measure that could have been just as effectively implemented by legislation.

Now we come to the so-called 13th amendment ... where the rubber meets the road!! Congress had previously set the precedent that its officers could certify ratification of 'amendments' it had proposed. With incredible daring the Congress, by the 13th 'amendment', tried to usurp great power from the Several States. It proposed (and ratified) the following:

SECTION 1: Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SECTION 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
(Emphasis added).

It dared to usurp power from the Several Sovereign States ...AND IT WAS SUCCESSFUL!!

THE WORDS UNDERLINED ABOVE ("UNITED STATES" and "THEIR") ARE KEYS TO CRACKING THE CASE AGAINST THE ENEMIES OF LIBERTY!!!!

When the mind sees the phrase "United States", and especially after it has been conditioned to think thus, it perceives a SINGULAR, MONOLITHIC ENTITY (the United States of America). In most cases in statutes, rules, regulations and amendments, "the United States" means that Government whose locus is in the District of Columbia and which is subject to the jurisdiction of Congress pursuant to Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17. But that is not the case in the reference in the "13th amendment" to "the United States".

In this case, where it is declared that slavery shall not exist within THE UNITED STATES IT MEANS WITHIN THE SEVERAL SEPARATE AND SOVEREIGN STATES. We are alerted to this fact by the use of the plural modifier, "THEIR", indicating more than one entity. Nor - as the 'amendment' continues - shall slavery exist in any place SUBJECT TO THE JURISDICTION of the SEVERAL STATES OF THE UNION.

The question arises: Are the States indeed sovereign, possessing not only all of the powers reserved to themselves which were not delegated to the national government, but the POWER AND AUTHORITY (jurisdiction) to abolish that compact called the Constitution? And if the Sovereign States possessed the power to abolish the Constitution and all departments and offices of it, did not THEY, and not the Congress (pursuant to Clause 17) possess the ULTIMATE JURISDICTION over the district that became the Seat of the Government of the United States of America?

A correct restatement or paraphrase of the "13th amendment" might be: "Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude ... shall exist within the several states or with the District of Columbia, docks, arsenals, enclaves or territories of the United States of America which are subject to the jurisdiction of the several states".

WHY THE "ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE" attached to the "13th amendment"??

Simply this: Nothing in the body of the Constitution nor in "amendments 1-13", except with the enforcement clause, constituted a POWER upon which the Congress could exercise its powers to make laws. CONGRESS POSSESSED NO AUTHORITY TO OUTLAW SLAVERY WITHIN THE SEVERAL STATES, nor any power to carry non-existent power into execution.

Only the several states could grant permission for the compact to be so modified as to prohibit the keeping of slaves among them. And only the several states could empower the Congress to make such laws as would give effect to such a prohibition.

But the "amendment" was "properly" proposed by the Congress. And which state or citizen had standing to challenge the certification of it (other than by force of arms)? It had been established that it was the prerogative of Congress to have one of its officers certify the validity of such proposals.

Nothing in the body of the "13th amendment" explicitly or expressly declares that it is an amendment properly ratified in accordance with the provisions of the 5th article of the Constitution.

The ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE is a POWER (not previously vested by the Constitution in any department or officer of the government). Now a new power is vested in the Congress.

IMPLIED POWERS OF THE "13TH AMENDMENT":

1. Section 2 of the 13th gives to the Congress the exclusive power to enforce the ARTICLE. Among the powers implied by such exclusive power are the powers to define slavery, involuntary, servitude, involuntary servitude, punishment, crime, punishment for crime, etc., etc., etc.
2. To exert DIRECT PUNISHING FORCE against inhabitants of the several States who may violate the 13th, or Congress' laws made pursuant to it.
3. [Slaves being chattel property]: To compel States to punish or refuse to protect the property rights of inhabitants relative to the 13th, or any of the fancy definitions coined under the powers delegated by the enforcement clause.

Relative to the SuperState USA gaining absolute supremacy over the several States, and gobbling up its creators, the 13th "amendment" was definitely a case of the camel getting his nose into the tent.

The 13th "amendment" set the stage for the Congress' even more invidious incursions into the theretobefore "secured rights" of the several States and the inhabitants thereof.

A virtual coup de grâce was administered by Congress in its proposal and unilateral "ratification" of:

THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT

Skipping right to the bottom line (Section 5 of the 14th "amendment") the student finds that the foregoing ARTICLE (not amendment) carries an ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE substantially identical to that of the 13th ARTICLE.

The 14th covers a smorgasbord of powers, implied powers and nuances of powers sufficient to fill whole libraries of commentary and relevant analyses. The scope and purpose of this tract mandates that we touch on just a few of the highlights.

The 14th "amendment" was originally sold, and continues to be peddled, on the hypocritical pretext that it elevated oppressed negroes to the protected status of "citizens of the United States". Its advocates appeal to conditioned-emotions of humanity, equality and justice-for-all. So long as their vast audiences are "harmlessly" emoting on oxymoronic ideals, they are blinded to the powers being executed against them.

What NEW THING was accomplished by the 14th "amendment"? What did it do?

SECTION 1:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside."

By the ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE (section 5) the Congress acquired the implied power to define and implement their definitions of such words as: persons, all persons, born, naturalized, subject, citizens, "State", reside, etc., etc., etc.

Never before the 'adoption' of the 14th "amendment" did the SINGULAR ENTITY, USA, have ABSOLUTE STATE STATUS. Without citizens of its own on which it could exercise sovereignty, and who would manifest its edicts (fight its wars, tithe their labors, sacrifice their children, proseletize malcontents, etc.) it was merely a Confederacy of the several States ... their agent and bargaining agent among the Several Nations, and was restricted to the terms of the Constitutional Compact.

The money-lenders, the force behind the creation and evolution of the SuperState USA (and all nations) have one driving interest: to control and regulate ALL INDIVIDUALS.

Direct one-on-one control of individuals is not cost-effective nor energy-efficient. Indeed ... it is IMPOSSIBLE. Certain individuals will resist to the death any effort to control their actions or labor.

The several States (fictitious entities) are convenient for the purpose of controlling and exploiting individuals. But, often administered by men who rise from the common ranks, States are unpredictable and are not amenable to ABSOLUTE CONTROL.

From the money-lenders' perspective ... their monopolization of States is a manager's nightmare. It requires the recruitment of large, almost unmanageable numbers of state-agents of dubious character, who will be willing to sell out their constituents for pecuniary rewards. The vanities and loyalties of such quislings must be constantly monitored and stroked, or held in check by blackmail; all of which requires a lot of time, effort and lucr  .

The 14th "amendment" accomplished the objective of the money-lenders.

Let's break down a few phrases of Section 1 to assist the Student in seeing what was accomplished in the matter of citizenship.

We must keep in mind that the phrase, "United States", has two distinctly different meanings:

1. The United States means the several separate States which are united together in compact.
2. The United States is a contraction for "The United States of America", the name of the Confederacy ... the 'more perfect union' ordained and established pursuant to the Preamble.

(A) "All persons born or naturalized in the UNITED STATES, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof..."

ANALYSIS:

The "United States" mentioned in this phrase is the Several States, NOT the USA-entity.

The word "thereof" is a neutral qualifier of "the United States", that by itself provides no clue to which United States is referred to. Its use is obviously intended to misdirect and deceive the mind of the reader of the "amendment". The phrase could have been more clearly presented thus: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States (or Several States), and subject to their jurisdiction ... ". Compare the qualifier "thereof" with that used in the 13th "amendment" - THEIR.

Prior to the 'adoption' of the 14th "amendment", no persons had been born in (much less INTO) the USA-entity. Even the Constitution by delegating powers only to departments and officers, admits that the USA-entity is an artificial entity - agency of the several States; incapable per se of exercising powers. Immediately prior to the 'adoption' of the 14th "amendment" those "persons who ... ARE" (who were then existent), and who were born "here" and not on foreign soil ... were each born in ONE of the several States.

(B) "... and subject to the jurisdiction thereof ..."

ANALYSIS:

"Jurisdiction" means power and authority.

Few persons then or later, with the exceptions of pirates, counterfeiters and slave-holders, were subject to the jurisdiction of the USA-entity. But all who admitted citizenship in a State were subject to the power and authority of the State of birth or adoption. Citizenship implies the obligation to be subjected to the lawful jurisdiction of the governmental body to which one pledges his allegiance.

POINT: The first incidence of the term "United States" in Section 1, means: "the Several States".

Although the inclusion of the term "naturalization" in Section 1, has monumental implications our point having been sufficiently demonstrated, we will resist exploring them here as being beyond the scope, and distracting from a clear understanding of, this study.

(C) "..... are citizens of the United States²..."

ANALYSIS:

This second incidence of "the United States" in Section 1, means the USA-entity. This phrase works to take ALL persons who had been born in one of the several States, including negroes and others (or who would be born in future time), and make each of them subject to the jurisdiction of the Congress ... as citizens of the USA-entity.

(D) "... and of the State wherein they reside ..."

ANALYSIS:

The United States of America, by and through the Congress empowered by the 14th "amendment", became SUPREME OVER THE STATES, and the former State-citizens, and became competent to thenceforth declare that state-citizenry would be easily transferable and as mobile and unrooted as a carload of gypsies.

Individuals would swiftly lose property and emotional attachments to the gutted states of their birth, and would focus their allegiances on the SuperState USA.

With the foregoing facts and outline before him the Student can independently and correctly analyze the real meanings and effects, not only of the succeeding "amendments", but of the whole smear we refer to as the Constitution for the United States of America.

As a brief STUDY GUIDE to aid the Student in his further examination of "amendments" 11-26, consider:

1. "Amendments" 13-16, 18-19, 23-24, and 26 all contain ENFORCEMENT CLAUSES. The presence of an enforcement clause incorporated into an "amendment" should alert the investigator that the "amendment" confers significant FURTHER OR ADDITIONAL POWERS upon the Congress which the Congress did not previously possess. Such an "amendment" enlarges, extends and expands the jurisdiction of the Congress.

2. "Amendments" 20, 21, and 22, are "TRUE" amendments in that they were properly ratified by the requisite numbers of State Legislatures or Conventions (manipulated/controlled) in accordance with Article 5. Further, none of these three amendments provided further or additional powers to the Congress that were not already available to it.

A) Amendments 20 and 22 merely provide for the carrying into execution of powers vested by the Constitution in the Office of the President ... a power already possessed by the Congress under Article 1, Section 8, Clause 18.

B) Although Amendments 20, 21, and 22 are 'properly ratified' amendments, they are MISNAMED and MIS-NUMBERED. They should have been named/designated as ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT NUMBERS 11, 12, and 13, respectively. (Explanation provided below).

Notice the phrasing of amendment 21, Section 3, which is typical of the CONDITION OF RATIFICATION CLAUSES of all of the amendments here under discussion:

"This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified AS AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION by conventions in the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress."

Notice that the proposal is an ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT. At first (prior to its ratification) it was a proposed ARTICLE. Upon proper ratification it became an ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

Now note the phraseology of a typical ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE:

"The Congress shall have power to enforce this ARTICLE by appropriate legislation".
("Amendment" 24, Section 2)

Not properly proposed or ratified to qualify as AMENDMENTS MADE PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V, proposals having similar or identical ENFORCEMENT CLAUSES became, not ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT but ARTICLES, equal to the original seven articles in the body of the Constitution.

Amendments are clauses to a contract or compact which serve to change, alter, restrict or modify its terms.

ARTICLES are added when an ENLARGEMENT OR EXPANSION of the primary terms of the contract or compact are desired ... such as, in the case of the Constitution, adding (vesting) more powers in the government established by it. Articles can have characteristics of amendments in that they often modify pre-existing conditions.

To the premature querie, "Well, if the enforcement claused-"amendments" are equal in nature and effect with the original seven articles, why do they have enforcement clauses attached to them? As intregal parts of the body of the Constitution, does not Article 1, Section 8, Clause 18, provide sufficient power for Congress to carry this "amendments" sans enforcement clauses, into execution?

The answer is an unequivocable NO!

Take another look at Clause 18. In respect to the "OTHER POWERS", the Congress is only granted power "to make laws [enforcing] other powers vested by THIS Constitution in".

"THIS" Constitution means only the Preamble and the seven articles in the body of THIS Constitution, as it was signed out of convention and submitted to the Several State Legislatures for ratification. "THIS" Constitution does not include nor contemplate the Bill of Rights or any additional articles or amendments that would subsequently attach to it.

Articles of Amendment "20 and 22" are merely rules for the carrying into execution (administration) the powers vested in the office of the president powers the Congress already possessed. Article of Amendment "21", (repeal of prohibition) was merely declaratory, and constitutes a narrowing or contraction of powers, and therefore did not require an enforcement clause (there being nothing to enforce).

Article V (an "OTHER POWER") provides power by which the Congress SHALL (when both houses shall deem it necessary) propose AMENDMENTS to THIS Constitution. No provision is made in the Constitution for proposing or ratifying ADDITIONAL ARTICLES. Without such a power explicitly and expressly spelled out, it devolved on the Congress to 'legislate' that missing process.

The difference between the effect of adding an article compared with adding an article of amendment is more semantical than substantive. But, semantics being the stock-in-trade of lawyers and congressmen, equating an article with an article of amendment was a small step of substitute-logic.

However, Congress' proposing and "ratification" of new articles, aside from being the taking of semantical license, is premised on a Constitutional grant of power - to wit: Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17.

Clause 17 empowers the Congress to exercise exclusive legisla-jurisdiction over all matters relative the Seat of the Government.

Now the Student should carefully compare the 11th "amendment" and Article III, Section 2, Clauses 1 and 2.

Upon his comparison, he must acknowledge that the effect of the 11th "amendment" was to strike from Section 2, Clause 1, the judicial power extending to "all cases in law and equity - to controversies between a State and citizens of another State [or] citizens or subjects [of any foreign State]".

He must also acknowledge that, pursuant to Article III, Section 2, Clause 2: the clauses that were in effect repealed by the 11th "amendment", were cases in which THE SUPREME COURT was vested with ORIGINAL (exclusive) jurisdiction/power/authority.

The Supreme Court is one part of the judicial department; the other part being the Congress' inferior tribunals. Its permanent locus is at the Seat of the Government over which Congress exercises EXCLUSIVE LEGISLATIVE JURISDICTION.

It was therefore the preogative of the Congress (under Clause 17) to propose a new ARTICLE which would affect a department that was subject to Congress' exclusive jurisdiction

It could be persuasively argued that such a proposed new article (as the 11th "amendment") would take nothing away from the several States. It would only take away certain protections from citizens (and certain duties of the Supreme Court).

The Congress was powerless to statutorily repeal a power vested by the Constitution in the Supreme Court.

It could have just as easily proposed an Article of Amendment to accomplish the same end. But it didn't. The necessary language to designate and qualify the 11th "amendment" as an Article of Amendment does not appear in the text of the 11th. (See: Amendments 20-22 for the necessary language).

Although not specifically so by NAME, nor by its text, the article has the EFFECT of an amendment. Congress ordered the printing office to thenceforth publish the article, not as Article VIII, which was its reality, but as "the 11th Amendment", as if it were a continuation of the ten articles of amendment known as the Bill of Rights.

Most government-sponsored publications now designate the first ten articles of amendment as mere "amendments". Upon their adoption, and in fact, they are "Article of Amendment".

With the premises of this Report before him the Student of the Constitution can now determine with unerring accuracy: who rules whom. He can determine, without possibility of error, which governmental acts and agencies are legally-grounded, and which aren't. He will be able to evaluate the adds of rescuing individual liberty by "working within the system".

Understanding and wisdom, we are told, does not come upon us complete and in one fell swoop. We have to work at acquiring it. Understanding arrives only as the result of painstaking effort; by constructing it line upon line and precept upon precept.

Quite often we discover that it is necessary for us to go back and cross out a line or two; that had been placed there by error and start over from that point.

It is human to err. And none of us should be unduly embarrassed to admit error when it occurs. It happens to everyone!

We hope we have provided the reader of this little treatise with a modest foundation on which to continue his investigation into the Constitution and the additional article and amendments attached to it. We have not tried to lay out the "whole story". To do so would be a disservice to the reader who can only come to full comprehension by doing the work himself. Your continued study, based on the premises of this treatise, will lead you to mind-boggling discoveries regarding the depth and extent to which we are presently oppressed by criminals-posing-as-congressmen. You will be led into never before dreamed of facts about the nature of the income tax and the destruction of the family by 'equal suffrage for youth and women'. The reality of state-sponsored aborticide will, if you persevere ... hit you right between the eyes! You will know with certainty that gun confiscation is a foregone conclusion, and what we thought were our rights under the first and fourth amendment (and others) have died ... they just haven't laid down to be covered with dirt yet.

PRECEPT UPON PRECEPT! Today, many patriots are stalled on intermediate precepts ... believing they have the KEY...that it's just a matter of learning how to insert it into the lock. Hopefully this treatise will rattle them sufficiently to rethink their conclusions ... to strike out a line or two and, with a fresh perspective, continue to pursue understanding.

Without understanding ... we cannot secure a remedy, and we cannot have liberty.

RCA-001
c/o Hazel, James
PO Box 1317
Brookings, OR 97415

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

THE OATH OF SLAVES

Francis Bellamy, a self-professed Socialist and suspected pedophile, wrote the original pledge of allegiance. It was first recited by public-school children in 1892, during The National School Celebration, a quasi-patriotic affair called for by President Benjamin Harrison. With minor changes, the Pledge assumed its present form in 1954:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

American school children are programmed to recite the Pledge before they have learned to read and write; before they can comprehend many of its words and phrases, such as: pledge, allegiance, Republic, liberty and justice. By the time they are competent to define many of its words, they have memorized the Pledge by rote; it has become 'second nature', and its precise meaning is of no interest to them. We grow to adulthood with no understanding of the meaning or implications of the Pledge. It is merely an emotion-tugging ritual. Yet, even without understanding of it, most Americans would cheerfully strangle, tar and feather or draw and quarter anyone who would critically-analyze their beloved Pledge. Criticism in many minds is tantamount to sacrilege and sedition. Given the incessant Pavlovian-conditioning they have been subjected to ... their misguided defense of their oath of servility is almost forgivable.

The pledge to a republic under martial rule (the USA), as one, indivisible Nation would have been unspeakable before the purported adoption of the 14th amendment ... as no such SuperState existed. Prior to the 14th amendment, individuals born within the several States, were citizens of the State in which they were born. The 14th amendment established-by-fiat a new, parallel nation having SUBJECTS called "citizens", which provided easy means by which "alien" State Citizens could expatriate and become naturalized as subjects of the new nation. One easy method to evolve was the Pledge of Allegiance by which individuals could vow fealty to their new sovereign.

Consider (perhaps for the first time) the following facts: (1) - "allegiance" means "the obligation of a "SUBJECT"". And so, in speaking the pledge, one pledges (vows) to perform the obligations one assumes upon being granted the privileges of being SUBJECT TO the indivisible nation. (2) - "the flag of the United States of America" is the MILITARY STANDARD which STANDS for enforcement of the will and whim of whoever governs the nation. ("The Republic for which it (the flag) STANDS"). So - the pledger vows to obey and fulfill his obligations as a subject of the MILITARY and also of the governors of the republic-nation. (3) - By acknowledging his allegiance to an indivisible nation under GOD (sounds very pious!) the pledger is acknowledging that there is a sovereign over the republic-nation and its military-enforcers ... a sovereign which ultimately, in the final analysis has the authority to direct, control, alter, or abolish the republic or its military which STANDS FOR it. That 'God', invoked so reverently by the pledger, is not the God of the Bible nor of any other establishment of religion. It is not a supreme governor of the Universe by any name or description. Such an allpowerful, omniscient and omnipresent Supreme Being is outlawed in a nation-state which has a Doctrine of Separation of Church and State. "God", as the term is used in the Pledge can only be contemplated to mean a GOVERNING FORCE which is above and superior to the military and the nation (UNDER God). The reader's independent investigation (which is beyond the scope of this article) will reveal that the "god-force" is the same 300 men who govern the Global Regime of Interdependence (code-named "the New World Order"). (4) - "With liberty and justice for all" means just what the pledger says, and not, "with liberty and justice for each individual". The indivisible nation strikes no bargain with its subjects to ensure each of them individual liberty or justice.

A "right" is a "power of free action". Subjects of the USA-nation have no powers to act freely. They are only granted (for so long as they are 'good' subjects), certain limited PRIVILEGES. For them, they have the right to do whatever the law allows; no more and no less. With every pledge of allegiance they speak, they reaffirm the TRANSFERENCE OF THEIR GOD-GIVEN BIRTH-RIGHTS from their own control.. to that of another.

The Declaration of Independence offers the proposition that the birth-rights of Men are UN-ALIENABLE; i.e. not capable of being sold or transferred. It is an interesting and encouraging proposition. The only problem is ... IT'S NOT TRUE! Men may bargain away their birth-rights,, selling, trading, or otherwise conveying them to another. They always have the right to contract while still free men. They may indenture themselves to debt-bondage or other forms of self-imposed slavery for any number of years ... or for life. While yet free, men may (and often do) transfer control over their actions to the governors of the USA-nation or their agents. They do so on a regular basis by pledging allegiance to the flag of the USA, etc.

Kill the messenger if you must..... it is too late to silence the message. You will never again speak the abominable Pledge of Allegiance like an unthinking robot ... without comprehension or RESPONSIBILITY FOR YOUR ACTIONS.

If you do continue to ritualistically parrot that pledge, do not then embarrass yourself by giving hypocritical lip-service to the likes of "individual freedom", "State or Personal Sovereignty" or "concern for your children", and don't whine and complain about being abused, harrassed or victimized by government. People do and should get the kind of government they deserve. And they deserve what they pledge to condone and support.

By Jim Hazel

THE INTERLINEAR PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

[I pledge]

I hereby pawn my life as surety and collateral should I fail to specifically perform all of the [allegiance] [to the] [flag] [of the United States of] obligations of a subject to the colors of the militant enforcers of the United States seated in the [America] [and] [to the] [republic]
District of Columbia, and I likewise pawn my life as surety to the individual-governance by surrogates [for which it stands] which the militant enforcers protect from overthrow and abolishment.

ADDENDUM: I FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGE THAT the individual-governance by surrogates is an [one nation] [indivisible] [under] [God] indestructible, artificial and contrived engine under the absolute control of men who are unknown to me [with] [liberty and justice for all] which promises but cannot deliver liberty and justice for any.

CERTIFICATION: I hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct transliteration of the Pledge of Allegiance from its formal hypnotic language into practical English in concordance with definitions of pertinent words and phrases recorded in Talmudic Case Law, Black's Law Dictionary and the Oxford Dictionary of the English Language.

Transliterator

CHILD'S FIRST PLEDGE:

I pledge a leased gents to the rag of the new knighted steaks of a miracle and to be the puppy from which it lands; one station, under Bob, individual, with licorice and just nice for all.

PLEASE ... Before It's Too Late:

1. Make copious copies of the enclosed Petition for Redress.
 2. Circulate the Petition:
 - A. Among members of your club, association or other organization.
 - B. Among your friends, relatives and business associates.
 - C. Throughout your community.
- (1) The dispossessed, disenfranchised and poverty-stricken can instantaneously grasp its significance; (the temporarily-affluent are a little slower on the uptake).
- (2) Signers need not be registered voters.

3. Mail completed Petitions to the Congress (address indicated on the Petition).
4. Send copies of these Instructions and the Petition to other concerned Americans.

THE PROTOCOLS, mentioned in the Petition, may be obtained by sending a $10 cash donation to:
RCA-001, c/o James Hazel, P.O. Box 1317, Brookings, Oregon 97415.

Crisp, clear camera-ready copies of these Instructions and the Petition may be obtained by sending $1.00 cash and a self-addressed stamped envelope to: K.I. Haniel, P.O. Box 1709, Crescent City, CA 95531.

A PETITION FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

WE THE UNDERSIGNED PEOPLE, hereby peaceably assemble and petition the Government, by and through the Congress of the United States of America, for the Redress of Grievances, to wit:

WHEREAS - It appearing self-evident that the Congress proceeds under the direction of the Protocols of the Learned Elders, and not as commanded by the Constitution for the United States of America, and

WHEREAS - Said Protocols [at Number 11] describe the Congress as the "show part" of a regime established by the behind-the-scenes Governors, the purpose of which is to lend an aura of legitimacy to the alien-governors' mandates, and

WHEREAS - Said Protocols [at Number 20] proclaim that the "financial programme [is] the crowning and decisive point" of coven plans for World Monopoly; That "Every kind of loan proves infirmity in the State"; That "Foreign loans [such as those obtained from the Federal Reserve monopoly] are leeches which there is no possibility of removing from the body of the State"; and

WHEREAS - Said Protocols [at Number 6] proclaim that one purpose of the Congress in the obtaining of foreign loans is to, by inflation "raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life", the object of which is to keep the people in poverty, want, toil, submission, and ignorance, and

WHEREAS - The Congress has obtained foreign loans of astronomical sums, for which it has pledged as collateral all the territories and resources of the Several States, including the property and labor of the People and their posterity, and

WHEREAS - The first necessities of life have, by reason of Acts of the Congress, increased in price in proportion to wages in such volume and velocity that we the people have been compelled to harness our women and children to the task of securing ever-diminishing rations of the necessities of life, and must dedicate so much time and energy to survival that little remains for proper investigation and redress of the causes of our poverty, and

WHEREAS - It being the Congress' securing the interest-bearing loans that causes grievous "injuries" to the people, that

WE THEREFORE COMMAND THE CONGRESS to forthwith Act to repudiate, and cause to be repudiated, all interest-bearing obligations both foreign and domestic of the United States of America.

PETITIONER
(Signature)

DATE

-OVER-

Page 1 of 2

PETITIONER
(Signature)

DATE _____

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

The Congress of the United States
City of Washington
District of Columbia

To: Local School Board

Re: Local policy regarding implementation of Public Law 102-14:

On March 20, 1991, President Bush signed into law Public Law 102-14, which provides for observance of "EDUCATION DAY, U.S.A.". The explicitly-stated legislative intent of P.L. 102-14, is that March 26, 1991, shall be commemorated as the beginning of "the year IN WHICH WE TURN TO EDUCATION and charity to return the world to the moral and ethical values contained in the SEVEN NOAHIDE LAWS". (Emphasis added).

I presume that the school district has received instructions from the national government concerning enforcement of the legislative intent of P.L. 102-14.

In view of the generous attention given to the so-called Doctrine of Separation of Church and State and the systematic removal of most nuances of Christianity from public schools, we find the public law, which promotes a religious cult, odd, incongruous and alarming.

As you know, the Seven Noahide Laws are, respectively: (1) Thou shalt not engage in idol worship. (2) Thou shalt not blaspheme God. (3) Thou shalt not shed innocent blood of any human nor fetus nor ailing person who has a limited time to live. (4) Thou shalt not engage in bestial, incestuous, adulterous or homosexual relations nor commit the act of rape. (5) Thou shalt not steal. (6) Thou shalt establish laws and courts of law to administer these laws, including the death penalty. (7) Thou shalt not be cruel to animals.

Congress' claim that the Seven Noahide Laws were known as such "at the dawn of civilization" is of course undocumented blather (not surprising, considering the source). History does not presently record the origin of the Seven Noahide Laws. However, we do know that they are claimed as the exclusive property of adherents to the Talmud. They are mentioned in the Talmud (Sanh. 58b), thus:

"A gentile observing the Sabbath deserves death". Resh Lakish (died AD 278) said that, "This refers to a gentile who accepted the Seven Laws of Noahide, inasmuch as the Sabbath is a sign between God and Israel alone".

There is a potentially dangerous conflict between the Seven Noahide Laws of Talmudic-Adherents and the Mosaic Laws (the Ten Commandments) to which Christians are subject. The former include no provision for observing the sabbath, while the Christian is commanded to "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy" (Ex 20:8). Also - the Mosaic Law commands, "Thou shalt not kill" (Ex 20:13), but the Sixth Noahide Law not only authorizes killing, but provides the death penalty for gentiles (non-Talmudists) who dare to 'blaspheme' the God of the Talmud, by observing a sabbath which the Talmudists claim as their property. (See: Noahide Law #2).

The same Congress that enacted Public Law 102-14, provides in other of its laws ("flag code") for Americans to prostrate themselves before idols. It recently condoned the wanton slaughter of countless innocent Iraqi women and children. It appropriates funds for rampant aborticide; is favorably considering euthanasia statutes; encourages adultery through civil divorce; protects homosexuality, and authorizes merciless theft through federal reserve and RICO systems, all in blatant disregard for the Seven Noahide Laws it now "piously" promotes. We could search far and wide for more perfect examples of hypocrisy and double-mindedness, with no hope of finding them!

The Congress proposes using the power of education to instill 'values' in the minds of defenseless schoolchildren, many of whom are instructed at home in values which are diametrically opposite to those advocated by the Congress. Children instinctively trust their parents, and so readily accept those values communicated to them by their parents into their subconsciousnesses, without significant conscious screening or criticism. Parents in most cases have trained their children to similarly trust their teachers, so the child accepts-without-criticism virtually everything the teacher speaks. Conflicting data, recorded on the subconscious, must inevitably manifest itself in improper behavior. It militates against intelligent choices, and can often be self-destructive. How can an individual react wisely to situations that call for correct judgements concerning self-defense, war, individual or national disarmament, penal codes, or aborticide (for example) if his subconscious is 'programmed' with conflicting commands to "KILL-DON'T KILL"?

It is imperative that we be fully informed regarding policy of the school district concerning implementation of Public Law 102-14, and particularly the legislative intent of that alarming public law. What curricula, subtle or overt, and calculated to impress the 'values' of the Seven Noahide Laws on the minds of our schoolchildren, is prepared or conceived?

We solicit your timely and candid position-statement on this important matter.

Sincerely,

Pastor _____

Enclosed: Public Law 102-14

PUBLIC LAW 102-14

"Whereas Congress recognizes the historical tradition of ethical values and principles which are the basis of civilized society and upon which our great Nation was founded;

"Whereas these ethical values and principles have been the bedrock of society from the dawn of civilization, when they were known as the Seven Noahide Laws;

"Whereas without these ethical values and principles the edifice of civilization stands in serious peril of returning to chaos;

"Whereas society is profoundly concerned with the recent weakening of these principles that has resulted in crises that beleaguer and threaten the fabric of civilized society;

"Whereas the justified preoccupation with these crises must not let the citizens of this Nation lose sight of their responsibility to transmit these historical ethical values from our distinguished past to the generations of the future;

"Whereas the Lubavitch movement has fostered and promoted these ethical values and principles throughout the world;

"Whereas Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson, leader of the Lubavitch movement, is universally respected and revered and his eighty-ninth birthday falls on March 26, 1991;

"Whereas in tribute to this great spiritual leader, "the rebbe", this, his ninetieth year will be seen as one of "education and giving", the year in which we turn to education and charity to return the world to the moral and ethical values contained in the Seven Noahide Laws; and

"Whereas this will be reflected in an International scroll of honor signed by the President of the United States and other heads of state

"Now, therefore be it RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED, That March 26, 1991, the start of the ninetieth year of Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, leader of the worldwide Lubavitch movement, is designated as 'Education Day, U.S.A.' The President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities."

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

SCIENCE OF THE COSMOS TRANSFORMATION OF MAN PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. VIII

by Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn/Aton

"THIS BOOK IS THE 8TH OF THE PLEIADES SERIES WHICH ARE THE 8 MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS OF OUR PLANET. These JOURNALS are a legacy being presented to mankind and left for all the expected future wayfarers through this physical experience.

"The PHOENIX JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES are directed and given forth from the higher brotherhood sent forth as the Hosts for the preparation of this time of cycles when this civilization will make transition into higher understanding or return to the ages of darkness." - ATON (GOD)

Some of the topics covered in this JOURNAL are: The foundation of our present belief - The expanding universe - Solenoid coils are improperly wound - Rutherford-Bohr theory of atomic structure is impossible - New laws of thermodynamics.

We are also given an explanation of sound and silence - Photosynthesis and the geometry of space - The nature of light - OUR MISSING 13TH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT - Paper money - Into space through open doors: The road map - Power projection - Transmutation - Solar energy - God's purposeful intent for man and the power of mother love.

Many other topics are covered including updates of current world affairs.

SOME INFORMATION IN THIS BOOK HAS NEVER BEEN GIVEN TO THIS PLANET BEFORE.

HUMAN

THE SCIENCE OF MAN

THE SCIENTIFIC DEFINITION AND PROOF OF GOD

AND THE COSMIC ORDER OF THE UNIVERSE

WHAT IS CREATION AND HOW IT CAME TO BE

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. VII

Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD (ATON) writes the introduction to this very important JOURNAL which gives us detailed information about this universe that has never before been given to hu-man.

We are given details of: How God creates His universe. - The details of reincarnation and what it actually is - The illusion of disappearance and reappearance - The illusion of repetition - How and why God creates only one form - The cube-spheres of space - Time: is it real or illusion? - What is motion? - Three faces of Israel - Energy is in mind and not in matter. - To control matter first control self. - The Humanist Manifestos I & II.

Some of the many other topics are: Transient matter and omnipresent zero - There is only one kind of electricity. - Waves are motion. - What is gravity? - Immortality - Faith will not do your work. - God will work with you and not for you. - The misconceptions about prayer - Bodies are chemical machines.

There are many other very interesting topics covered.

We are also given information to keep us up to date on current very critical world affairs.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIRÉE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (SI11) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX (STX1) Minett & George Green 713 862-3786

SOME OF THE PHOENIX
JOURNALS

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Sacred Spirit Within Pleiades Connection Vol. VI
Human The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS)
10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS
$3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.
Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52-- $80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 8

9/11/91 #1 Hatonn

This item was overlooked for the Vol. 16 #6 Express

Dharma, that instant blast at 9:06:30 A.M. was a Cosmo-sphere attempt to break the shield--the jets are only in "tracking". It is going to get worse in preparation for the 17th and your nerves will get worse before they get better, so bear with it, chelas. The Israelites are in a stew for they have been warned by the Elite to not march on Jordan and the defiance is getting prophetic in portent by the minute. The bargaining chip, if you can fathom it, is to NOT move the San Andreas Fault system. In other words, "We won't invade if you won't move the fault and wreck the money centers--you see, the major resource of the Zionists comes out of places like Los Angeles with its entertainment and media business. Many of the east coast "Jews" are Sephardic or diasporic by origin and are not the REAL thrust for they are the ones, in fact, who would most likely STOP the Ashkenazi's. What a tangled web has been woven in which to catch you little ones of God. You must understand that the standoff is right now between your enemies as to supremacy for control. You have just placed the Boisheviks back into power and that means the Khaz-arian or Ashkenazi self-styled, so-called Zionists are gaining a hold.

ALL I CAN DO, LITTLE ONES, IS KEEP YOU POSTED AS WE NOTE CHANGES IN INTENT, BUT ALL WE ARE ALLOWED ARE THE SAME PROBABILITIES AS ANY OTHER DEEPLY INFORMED SURVEILLANCE GROUP. DO NOT BLAME GOD FOR THIS HEINOUS AND MASSIVE DESTRUCTION IN INTENT FOR YOU ARE IN THE SORTING AND SO SHALL IT BE. IT IS MUCH AS STEVEN HORN WHO ARRIVED "LATE" ON THE YESTERDAY AND DEMANDED ENTRANCE INTO THE DWELLING CLAIMING TO HAVE "BEEN ON TIME" WHEN 32 PEOPLE WITNESSED HIS LATE ARRIVAL AND EVEN LATER ARRIVAL OF HIS PHOTOGRAPHER. YOU MUST COME TO KNOW THAT A LIE IS FAR PREFERABLE TO ANY TRUTH WHICH WOULD SERVE AS WELL--YOU ARE DEALING WITH THE EVIL EMPIRE AT WHICH POINT NO LIFE-FORM OF CREATION IS VALUABLE BEYOND THE INTENT TO CONTROL.

9/16/91 #1 HATONN
MONDAY

Hatonn present for a status report. I wish that I had a way to allow all readers to get this information immediately but we shall do the very best we can in distribution.

THE EARTHQUAKE

Yes, at this point it (The Big One) is still very much ON. You will please take note that preparations are under way in all areas of controlled underworld to handle the response. By this I mean that prison controllers are on 24 hour alert and ordered to wear guns at all times--off duty and on. At the Tehachapi facility the area, along with the village and pertinent dwellings, are under constant surveillance. The word is that: "There are some really weird things going on in the middle of the night around here." Near the prison there has even been a "fire started from a ball of 'electricity or light' which came out of nowhere" and all witnesses were warned to "keep silent" or be disciplined or discharged (if an employee). "Black" unmarked helicopters are in constant night surveillance and "sonic" (or some kind) of booms are heard every day which do not act like regular sound barrier breaking by jets. All prison personnel who ordinarily carry weapons on duty are ordered to be prepared to "back up the police when notified".

Two things are under way. Firstly, it is planned to protect from inmate escape but also full intent to militarize with the police department to search for weapons door to door. You have all been warned many times now and if you fail to take action it is your own fault in answering for your actions. Any weapons stored ANYWHERE must have all identification and possible fingerprints removed from both weapon and ammunition. Fingerprints can now be checked within seconds by computer. I remind you of another point: this place is KNOWN to be under protection of our command so if these things are happening HERE, THEY ARE DOUBLY APPARENT ELSEWHERE. ALL OF THE MILITARY BASES ARE ON ALERT AND 'COMBAT READY' IN TRAINING FOR DISASTER (they are told).

The "disaster" is now set into motion and it is all but impossible to stop the consequences. "They" have blown Mt. Unzen in Japan, blown several "faults" in the Aleutians, in northern Colombia--in other words, all along the ring of fire. There will be worsening eruptions of Unzen with massive damage starting in the night or today and, with rains concomitant with the eruption of Pinatuba in the Philippines, there will be more devastation. This go 'round can very well take out Japan completely as the Pacific plate picks up momentum.

This is why I remind you to WATCH the world picture and activities along the entire "rim" for you do not just make a massive earthquake in one selected area. There are also deep earth beam disturbances showing as earth movements in both Australia and New Zealand--where the underground survival facilities are in place for the Elite in case this whole thing gets out of proportion to expectations.

The impact still rests with the ability to launch the sensor satellite from the launched satellite--today or tonight. If the Cosmospheeres do not take out the sensor satellite then you can expect a nuclear spectacular in addition to earthquake.

The communications satellite is for banking and citizen tracking. Within the next months your entire world outlook will change gravely--if they cannot trigger the fault (which will begin a whole barrage of "natural" disasters) on the 17th, it will be only a matter of regrouping and redetonating. Your nation of America is at an end as you have known it for you simply cannot go further without great changes.

I outlaid this entire reasoning and why it needs to be NOW at a three-hour meeting yesterday. Further, our beloved friend, J.C., had intelligence information from a month past wherein the coded plans were processed over the communications system--that the San Andreas would be triggered on the 17th of September and I have been warning you before and since. If you cannot believe Hatonn, perhaps you can believe your own enemy intelligence network. The only thing which will allow postponement is a lack of satellite capability to link all banks which will go down on the West Coast with the Bank of International Settlements in Switzerland and/or we have given enough attention that they dare not try such a move. It WILL come, however, for it is a massive portion of their planning and they cannot run the risk that the quake will hit a snag with Mother Nature at the helm.

Oberli, I will monitor constantly today as things unfold but I suggest that it all appears to be still on track and perhaps Charles should be summoned into security for a while. I see no earthquake devastation to their dwelling but I do foresee great devastation to the housing of the work places and separation from the children. I believe a few days of "flu" might well be in order this week. The children's school is close enough to the dwelling that disruption to the children can be kept at a minimum. The intelligence community is geared up and ready so it doesn't look probable that there will be much delay, if at all.

Ones ask about radiation from the nuclear plants. Well, the intent is to have such a massive quake that the plate will shove "under" the North American plate and cause a vacuum which will likely "suck" the installations into the water and thus radiation may well be kept to a minimum or of no consequence.

There is little I can do other than remind you to take precautions for this is structured to cause a "reason" to seize and close your banks (because of the West Coast computer clearing facilities) which will bring devastation to the system in the nation and internationally within mere days. The facilities were located on the unstable West Coast of California to be able to pull off this very "stunt".

You come to the end of your fiscal year, America, with a debt into the two dozen trillions of dollars, economic chaos, the worst depression EVER (you just haven't noticed, apparently) and no talk of either this year's budget or how you will even get funds for paying the interest to the banks. There is no mention of income taxes nor of those who have not filed--so, you can be sure that other methods of extraction of ALL YOU HAVE are well under way to begin not later than the first part of October--for you have a situation wherein the government can be shut down at Bush's edict.

ANTI-SEMITIC

Full circle? Bush is now an "Anti-Semite"! Can you now see how the adversary works? But don't be fooled--note that Baker is in Israel today to ring out the Holy Days and celebrate Yom Kippur with Shamir. The natural disasters are supposed to cover the invasion of Jordan by the Israeli troops ready along the Jordanian Border. They like to do these wars on Holy Days so they can claim God is with them--well he is, it just happens to be the god of darkness, not Holy God of Life.

HOMELAND FOR REFUGEES

Why does Israel need more and more places and homes for refugees? Aren't you told that the Soviet Union is now FREE? Is not all persecution dead in the Soviet Union? Then why do not the "refugees" stay put in their homeland wherein there is all this new FREEDOM? As a matter of fact, Israel is having a massive problem keeping the refugee problem alive at any accounting. They are having to literally kidnap so-called Jews from Afghanistan, even, just to have some kind of a refugee problem.

Dear hearts--YOU have an economic refugee problem--your nation is in bankruptcy and yet they speak of guarantees for $10 Billion as if it were peanuts (of which you also have a shortage). Your grain has been given away, you have now some 25 to 30 million people out of work with no jobs to return to, a bankrupt welfare system and you have been brought to the point of inability to function against the steam-roller.

I further remind you that when a massive "happening" is set up, there is always an "apparent" FEUD with Israel which is for the purpose of distancing the two nations in the world perceptions. There is no distancing and you had better look at it squarely head on. There are also myriads of distractors set up in various and numerous places on the globe so that you can't tell what is going on and the news media can play anything to you and you will be distracted to the flag and miss the real action. It works EVERY time.

Now for personal comment. As these meetings of ours are taped, I suggest that America West begin to make the tapes available. I realize that you must charge for them for funds are so depleted; however, if ones wish them, it is time we begin to make them available in widespread measure instead of just to the thirty or so, who always receive them. I also ask that immediate arrangements be made for transcribing them. If there are portions which may be questioned as to wisdom of distribution, I shall consider the projections; however, I monitor carefully as we record and you all have noted I can erase a tape in bits or wholeness if necessary. This is to allow you who get partially blank tapes to understand that I jeopardize no one. I disrupt the surveillance network while we meet if desirable or leave it to function depending on the subject at hand for we want the attention and distribution. You have no idea what kind of surveillance equipment is available. There are pencils which take pictures, badges which take pictures and record voices at over two to three miles distance and they have capability of reading a personal business card from a satellite over 300 miles into the atmosphere. These are simple little gadgets--the REAL things are far more sophisticated.

It is time to get a tape duplicator for the office and copies can be made therefrom--we are not interested in fine wrappings. I would like to remove activities from the dwelling at every possible opportunity and the ones who would do this copy work can go to the "store" to do the actual labor. The house is again under close attack and we again have too many coming and going at random and an issue is being raised in the court that you are again having large and regular meetings. It matters not what is the truth--this is what is being claimed!

Get another copy machine, however, for I want the one in the dwelling remaining in the dwelling. Also, either have the recording apparatus repaired NOW or get another as you "had", for I need to record and Dharma cannot attend numbering on a non-stop machine.

PHOENIX JOURNALS

Just as we are now changing the format of the EXPRESS into a more comprehensive "newspaper" of "regular" distribution, so too will there be some changes in the JOURNALS. I am asking a beloved brother to get rapidly busy in bringing detailed facts to you regarding the JOURNALS already written. It is not "update", but both updating and detailed history of the "given" subjects. This was promised to you when we began writing, for Dharma cannot do it all. I ask consideration of simply continuing to list the material as PHOENIX JOURNALS for I sanction no other writer's output in wholeness. This does not mean that I do not agree with nor disassociate other writers if their words be truth; it is simply that the "whole" of the output is not in full truth and the availability of confirmation must come in segments appropriate to the work. I want no one tampering with the PLEIADES CONNECTIONS nor with spiritual projections for there is NONE on your place, save this outlet, which is total Truth. You don't like it and I can't help that. WE will have to do that which is appropriate at every move and pay extremely close attention as we go.

OLIVER NORTH

You will note that the scapegoat got his freedom this day--from the courts. I told you North was a scapegoat and to pray for the young man. It is not that he is "pure" or "innocent" as his big watery eyes would indicate; it is just that he did his job and caught the full blame. The guilty prostitutes still sit atop the thrones. But it does point up the injustice of your judicial system--wherein a man can simply fail to pay enough tax and end up for his whole life in incarceration while a mass murderer and drug runner in a world scheme is totally removed of violation charges.

GATES

Gates for head of the CIA. Hold on to this one. You will find ones who you respect possibly going to Washington to "testify" for the honor of this man. I'm sorry, Oberli, you are going to have to pay attention as never before--you have a hot potato on the line and not what appears to you. You cannot, in any measure, allow J.D. to attend this place even for a visit without speaking to him about differing opinions--he is a robotic servant to the Elite and I fear cannot be brought into God's service. Go gently, son, because you are about to enter into a real predicament which has been as carefully orchestrated as has been the earthquake. The man does not know of it and yet, he spills the clues all over you--because he does not know--this contact was set up long before you ever heard of him and watch the progress of his "business" and you will see when the intent changed from a business executive of total importance to a company "expendable" and now, no real home! If you ones are not alert--how can we expect the masses to respond in wisdom? At this point you have Gary who can offer the same basic needs fulfillment. God will provide when the need is at hand--and you will know if you continue to pay attention to all sides of an issue. We do not need totally enlightened beings to work with the "cause" but to bring one who is an obvious puppet of the Elite at highest levels is not acceptable. This is THE POINT--to get a puppet INSIDE.

Are there others INSIDE? Use your own discernment and see what is being projected. If the projections are ruinous then pay attention; however, if the projections are truth--it matters not! Wisdom and care is the point and care not to get hooked at onset is the game.

9/16/91 #2 HATONN WHERE INDEED?

I agree with you who inquire and inquiring minds do want to know--! Where is the press and media on the candidacy of Lt. Col. James "Bo" Gritz? Every Tom, Dick and Harry is touted and spouted about on the news, CNN, etc. But you hear NOTHING about such a well-known public figure who, a few years back, was in the headlines every day! Gritz IS out there every day, on the firing line but the absence of "press" is deafening in its silence, is it not? I do, however, feel the SPOTLIGHT may have shot the Col. in the foot by the Yeltsin "populist" propaganda thrust forth by its Editor. The entire scenario as presented by Ryan is incorrect and casts grave shadows on any American candidate who accepts running on a "Populist" party ticket. And yet, any "alternate" party candidate has to start somewhere. You of the public be discerning and give help to this upstart circumstance and the details can be sorted out as you move forward. We shall keep you informed on this subject for I don't let Gritz out of my focus to even go "potty". The enemy REALLY wants to silence him and any connection between him and our command.

ISRAELI LOAN "GUARANTEES"

What actually, do they mean by this "guarantee" and why is there concern if, as they proclaim, it is not to be "paid" by you taxpayers but rather the Israelis will pay it back. Number one: THEY WON'T PAY IT BACK, THEY HAVE NO INCOME EXCEPT THAT WHICH IS GIVEN THEM IN ANNUITIES BY THE U.S. THEREFORE, LET US LOOK AT THIS SITUATION:

Start by looking around at your own cities today. We speak only of the U.S. at this writing, but the world is in the same or worse trap than is the U.S. At any rate, look around: crime is endemic, the streets are ruled by heavily armed thugs, the roads, bridges and sewers are crumbling, and the municipal governments are out of money to address any of these problems. The States have lost all sovereignty and control over money from the people as was demanded by the Constitution. The states now depend on the "generosity" (of which there is none) of the federal boys to share what they choose. You are in a depression so there are no funds to be stolen conveniently from the people.

Look, now, around your countryside. Family farmers are being steadily driven from their land, often held by the same family for generations, as banks foreclose on their mortgages and ultimately end up in the grip of the RTC and sold to the Elite for pennies on the dollar. The government refuses to make money available to provide debt relief.

Read on as we outlay what is under way with the rip-off of this loan guarantee. Congress is now under assault by over a thousand Israeli Lobbyists and is controlled, at any rate, through blackmail and prior "bribes" which control the majority of the Congress. These bribes, by the way, are furnished by you-the-people in your annual annuities and gifts to Israel. This Congress intends to respond to an Israeli request for an astounding $10 Billion in loan guarantees to build housing and infrastructure in Israel capable of accommodating a huge increase in its population resulting from a flood of Soviet immigration.

The Israelis claim the loan guarantees won't cost American taxpayers a cent, since they will only be held responsible in the event of DEFAULT. Yet the facts are that the Israeli economy is a total disaster, incapable of paying back any portion of that $10 Billion, not to even mention the far greater sum to be borrowed from sources in Europe and elsewhere--and, from American "Jewry".

CHRISTIANS BUILD JEWISH TEMPLE IN PALESTINE

Do you not realize that organizations of the fundamental "Christian" empires are giving millions to the Israeli "Zionists" in order to build that "Prophetic Temple"? Ah indeed, the adversary, Satan himself, has your own fundamentalist churches and "Christians" giving millions to fulfill this dastardly deed for the whores of Babylon. They claim effort to help Judeo-Christian unity. Unity? Dear ones, the very term is in opposition, one to the other--the Judaists NEVER had belief in Christ and the terms are at total opposition. Judeo-Christian "heritage"? You either have a heritage from God through the Christ Light--OR--you have a heritage from Evil on the physical dark side of experience--you CANNOT HAVE BOTH! YOU CANNOT HAVE LIGHT AND DARKNESS IN THE SAME SPACE!!!

The purpose of this money is to build housing and infrastructure in Israel capable of accommodating a huge increase in its population resulting from a flood of Soviet immigration, but, as I have already said--Why? Why would the "refugees" be "refugees"? If, as you also claim, the Soviet Union is now FREE, why would anyone leave their homeland? In fact, why would not the ones already immigrated begin to return to their Soviet homeland? Because you don't know the story and these ones were NEVER PERSECUTED IN RUSSIA--THAT IS A FACADE TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT IS GOING ON THIS DAY!

Even if Israel would be able to pay back every penny, why in the world should the U.S. taxpayers be co-signing a loan to a foreign country when your own economy is in shambles and your own people go wanting? Why, if the banks wish to make such loans--should anyone "CO-SIGN" the note? If Israel is so dependable why would the banks require co-signators? Why doesn't the government make low-interest loans available to farmers so that they can work their way out of debt and remain in possession of their land? Why not make low-interest loans available to cities so that they can police their streets and rebuild their crumbling infrastructure? Why not lend money to build housing in your own country for Americans, when the American dream of home ownership has faded as housing prices skyrocket, leaving the majority of young people unable to consider such a thing as their own home? Why? Because they want you in the mess you are in, have orchestrated it and it will worsen while the adversary is deliberately strengthened to the point you have no defense against the slime-slide.

You are experiencing, right now, the detailed and cynical manipulation by the Israeli lobby of your political process, and the venal politicians who respond to this kind of pressure by raiding the pocketbooks of their constituents on the orders of a foreign pressure group rather than be caught in the trap of having past indiscretions of receiving bribes be made known.

You see, if you-the-people KNEW TRUTH you would hang the whole bunch for treason--perhaps bomb the city of Washington and clean house. As it is, the place is totally unfit for habitation by a government under the Constitution.

By the way, you are going to find that there is very much alive, a thirteenth amendment and it was structured to disallow "lawyers" and "esquires" from being within the government service. Thereupon is the foundation by which you can fire the whole mess of bastard thieves and sue them for their illegal and unlawful use of your property!

WHY ARE OTHER NATIONS UPSET?

Dear ones, you are so uninformed that I am often shocked at the narrow concepts. ISRAEL INTENDS TO USE THE LEVERAGE SUCH AN ENORMOUS AMERICAN LOAN GUARANTEE WOULD PROVIDE TO BORROW AN ADDITIONAL $39 BILLION FROM WEALTHY MEMBERS OF THE G-7 GROUP OF NATIONS WHICH IS KNOWN WOULD NEVER BE REPAID MUCH LESS THE AMOUNT USED AS COLLATERAL FOR THOSE ADDITIONAL FUNDS. YOU SEE, THE ISRAELIS TURN THE $10 BILLION INTO $49 BILLION BY MID-AFTERNOON OF THE SAME DAY IT IS ISSUED AS A GUARANTEE.

Let us look at your plight in the budget arena. You are now at a national debt of some 11.6 trillion dollars (does anyone have any idea how MUCH that is?) and you are now confronting a record $400 BILLION deficit THIS YEAR! You will be saddled, one way or another, with most of the crushing cost arising from the tidal wave of Soviet immigrants to Israel, not to mention the payment of the load of the rebuilding and stabilizing of the Soviet States. This, while you are already IN the greatest depression known to your world.

Look at this, please--"The so-called Cranston amendment, engineered by Sen. Alan Cranston (D-Calif.) a man noted for his unsavory (and yet unpursued by law) deals with savings and loan shysters, guarantees Israel annual U.S. aid payments which will never be less than their DEBT SERVICE"--a totally outrageous piece of pork-barrel legislation, to say the very least. This ensures the more this quarrelsome, evil, controversial government borrows, the MORE AID IT GETS FROM THE UNITED STATES! Do you ones attached to this local property/S&L debacle of Santa Barbara/RTC/Bank of America vs. Ekkers still perceive that high people are not involved in a plot to pull down the assets and take them, of everyone? You see, these odd property settlements are geared to keep the Elite lawyers in funds for they have unlimited "backing" for as long as required to drain the opponent property's rightful owners. The banks in the "buy-out" category are only taking the "good" assets and leaving you-the-people to pay the bills on the bad. Then, the properties are being sold at far less than 50 cents on the dollar under OPTIMAL circumstances and at only pennies on the dollar in less than optimal situations. Do you actually think the RTC has need of Ekkers' house? Come now, it keeps the Elite in control of pulling in funds for their workers such as Steven Horn. The Bank could have settled at break-ahead settlement price from these ones from the onset of the "no-sale" incident.

The entire scenario of the "migration mess" as immigrants to Israel stream through the burst Soviet floodgates in ever-larger numbers, was CREATED by "meddlesome, ambitious politicians" such as Cranston, anxious to curry favor with the Israel lobby.

Now Israel sees a way to glean nearly $50 BILLION from you-the-payors of the world just by claiming need of housing for "all these immigrants!"

Half-hearted claims by official spokesmen that the "initiative and skills" of these immigrants will soon generate enough wealth to pay for their necessities are dismissed with scorn in Israel. It is truly a laugh if you have any humor remaining. Israel has NO PRODUCT SAVE WEAPONS--AND THOSE WEAPONS ARE SUPPLIED BY YOU IN AMERICA!

The Israeli economy, a statist spoils system top-heavy with corrupt, murderous (literally) bureaucrats, is ill suited to foster entrepreneurship or real private business initiative, even if the Soviet immigrants had it in abundance, which is absurd. This even slips through in the reports of the so-called "Middle Eastern analysts".

Beyond the economic threat presented by this so-called "mass migration", there is the fact that any funds provided to Israel will be used to spawn more settlements in the Arab territories illegally occupied by Israel's military and present funding for the invasion of other Arab nations to be gained for more Israeli occupation.

FRAUD AND FORMIDABLE FATAL FOLLY--FOUR "F" WORDS!

This past summer, if you have forgotten already, Secretary of State James Baker himself called the mushrooming Israeli settlements in the Occupied Territories the "greatest single obstacle to peace in the Middle East". But it is known throughout the terrified Arab world that Israel will use any money it can extort to build new settlements for its phantom immigrants exactly in these areas, which it ultimately intends to "annex" one way or another. That would involve Israel in outright fraud, and the United States in a criminal folly.

The threat to any peace process initiated by the Bush administration by the issue of the settlements has not been lost on the Administration headed by Kissinger, Scowcroft, etc. which just requested that Congress delay consideration of the loan package until, perhaps, October or so, when the peace talks are scheduled to begin. The Israeli government is furious, now claiming Bush to be anti-Semitic and the whole facade of unnecessary caterwauling. You see, for "not fighting back against the non-existent Iraqi scud missiles" the U.S. legal eagles promised to expedite the loans--REMEMBER??

THE ISRAELI LOBBY IN YOUR COUNTRY HAS REQUESTED PROMINENT COMMUNITY LEADERS FROM AROUND THE NATION TO ASSEMBLE IN WASHINGTON TO PRESURE CONGRESS INTO IGNORING THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST--THEY HAVE AND THEY ARE!

DOOM'S DAY FOR PEACE

Financing the cataclysmic flood of immigrants to Israel (real or conjured) would doom any potential improvement in relations between the U.S. and the oil-rich Arab states. Beyond the backbreaking burden it inflicts on American taxpayers, this Israeli loan demand is full of concealed costs and hidden dangers. The U.S. must not be allowed to fall into this trap. But it surely looks like you will march head-long into same.

What are you actually looking at? Well, it is interesting to note that the Ethiopian Jews are being absorbed directly, have their food and lodging paid for them by the Jewish Agency, while the Russian Jews, being absorbed indirectly, are charged about $350 a month for their hotel rooms and must pay for their food separately. What does this tell you about the tribes of Israel in original breakdown? You must understand that what got Cain into such trouble was that he married outside his "faith" and unto a "black" woman which caused him to be cast out by his family. The source of this so-called Jewish tribe (who were not) were settled in what is Ethiopia. Thus you have now gotten it from the horses' mouths that the current modern-day settlers in Israel are NOT of the original "tribes" of Israel of Biblical heritage. They most certainly openly prove, if nothing more, that THEY ARE MOST CERTAINLY NOT SEMITES FOR SEMITES ARE FROM THE TRIBE OF SHEM (SHEMITES) [SEMITES] AND THEREFORE THIS IS A FAST-PULLED SLICK LIE ON YOU OF THE WORLD.

POINT MISSED

The "historic necessity" of paying for the "ingathering" of people into Israel, whether real or fabricated, is not the fulfillment of biblical prophecy of the return of the wandering tribes to their ancestral homeland of some sort or another.

It is instead a play by the Israelis for the fulfillment of their dream of Greater Israel by acquiring a population sizable enough to offset the rapid growth of Arab population in the Occupied Territories, and to settle these Palestinian lands in such density that they will never be able to withdraw, as the international community has been demanding since they were seized in 1967.

AND, THEY ARE DEMANDING THAT YOU-THE-TAXPAYERS OF AMERICA FOOT THE BILL.

OTHER AREAS OF MISINTERPRETATION

You will be hearing and reading that Freedom in the Baltics has hurt the Elitist Cabal. Not to worry--they are DEFINITELY NOT HURT! The shadow government had fought secretly for several years to keep the Soviet Union intact, to preserve Kremlin control over the former East-bloc countries and maintain the Warsaw Pact.

You will be told several reasons why the Elite are "hurt", such as: Ending the Cold War would reduce military spending and thus cut into profits.

Breaking up the Soviet empire confuses their plans for a global government. The Bilderberg/Trilateralists envisioned a world government broken up into "zones" for political convenience, with the European Community, the Western Hemisphere and the Soviet empire being separate "zones".

They will tell you that "Now, instead of dealing with a huge Soviet "zone", the shadow government faces the prospect of 15 separate countries in the former Soviet Union, plus the newly freed states of the old East bloc."

I believe that you can safely guess that the Elite had alternative plans for every circumstance. It also points out that you do not have a "Russia" under complete control and with the Cosmospheres--will NOT have such. So, alternative plans had to be set into motion to pull down the economy of the U.S. and gain control over the populace--and so they have had to turn to the Banking/Disaster scenario. In this respect, it is also expected to glean an additional asset--the ridding of a great number of unwanted bodies through devastation of very populous areas geographically and in which, "unwanted" (addicts, AIDS) persons will be eliminated--hopefully. Certainly there will be such problems in daily functioning as to preclude trouble from these groups along the West Coast in California for a while.

What if the Earthquake doesn't pull down enough buildings, etc? Fine, the craft above will knock them down from the air and you will never know the difference--unless, it is claimed (if caught in this heinous act) that space brothers are responsible. They have all the bases covered, dear ones, to panic the entire world. Further, I am confident that you will find some "little gray aliens" aboard some of those hover-craft. So be it.

Do not, however, be deluded by what "APPEARS" to be happening in Russia. Even the long lines of food recipients, etc. When they speak of inability to buy a potato--please note the interview is usually with a well-dressed, well-groomed and manicured lady. How is it that if they cannot afford a potato--they can afford accessories and new-appearing Western clothes? You ones must begin to take note of these clues to the lies. ALL "NEWS" IS FROM THE VERY SAME SOURCE--TOTALLY CENSORED AND PRESENTED TO ALL NETWORKS AFTER THOROUGH REWRITING AND OLD VIDEO TAPES ARE CONTINUALLY UTILIZED--THEY DON'T TELL YOU ANY LONGER, THAT YOU WITNESS A "FILE" TAPE.

Dharma, we are out of time for this sitting. Thank you for your service but it is time for other duties. I will move to stand-by but will keep you informed.

Hatonn to clear, please. Salu

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIRÉE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (S111) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX (STX1) Minett & George Green 713 862-3786

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
Firestorm In Babylon
Creation, The Sacred Universe

Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional.

Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 9

9/17/91 #1 HATONN
TUESDAY

STATUS REPORT

As I come to write this morning a bit late, we must remember always that the game stops not and life goes on as orderly as possibly can be accomplished.

I can now explain to you what is happening for the players are at a rather distressing "stand-off". Until the satellite which was claimed to have been launched Sunday was actually launched, the danger to my scribe was too great to explain in detail what has been and is coming off here and why, for days, it will be wait and see who "chickens" first. You have two powers at play which can destroy your world, not only California, and one who awaits the "proper hiding" of actions to invade Jordan.

THE PLAN THUS FAR

The "launching" of the shuttle was the first move of cover-up. It was "launched" under cover of night for obvious reasons--so that no one could tell what the dickens was going on. The shuttle which will bring the persons home is sitting in Australia--and is not, by the way, the one which was supposedly launched.

The next step was to tell all of you that this communications satellite was launched but had some "glitches" to allow for things to go totally wrong. The facts are, however, that the satellite in point was launched today (17th) from Australia and a second from New Zealand in efforts to get ONE up and orbiting. These were carried by unmanned rockets. Both carry "sensor" satellites which would be launched from the larger satellite and for use to monitor a nuclear strike.

Here is where it gets sticky-poo. The plans are to trigger the San Andreas as the satellite passes over California. The Russians do not want the Bankers to win a round yet, for with the Bank closures comes the take-over of the government of the U.S. by the Elite. Facts are that Gorbachev is in the bed with the Elite, but the ones who control the Cosmospheres are not--at least the ones that count. If the Banksters take over, Israel will march on Jordan and under cover of chaos, take most of the country and blame others, as usual. At any rate the world would certainly be distressed and distracted because you are in a real bind with the rest of the world. The Elite planned to release the sensor satellite at appropriate time to pick up nuclear detonations in Russia at the same approximate time of blowing the California fault and possibly an Eastern fault immediately following, as well as triggering one in the Russian sector. If the Russians take out the satellites, as they easily can do, they will blow to smithereens the control mechanism which will indicate "strike-back" release of your, missile system, and nuclear war is under way. If they take out the sensors after launching, they will have to destroy them over Russia and they are set to shower radioactive particulate all over the Russian landscape. They can wait and take them out over the ocean or when they move again over the U.S. but the timing is such that it doesn't really matter,

They can take out the entire system prior to launching the sensor apparatus but with two in orbit it becomes harder to be selective as to when to blow them away for while one is over the U.S. the other is over Russia. The third choice is to blow them out while over other countries but the plan will be leaked and the Elite cannot have this uncovered yet--to the world--until the U.N. is totally in control with military power. However, the Elite must have the "incident" which will bring the people of the U.S. under total control.

I would add a point which comes up as you ponder prior writings. It was originally established that the Cosmo-spheres would back the satellite triggering the faults, etc. This was changed when the Russians found that the sensor satellites were piggy-backing the triggering satellite. In addition, you see, the bankers are using these last linkages with the banking system so that the intention is to keep the satellites in orbit at any circumstance. Ah, the blackmailers are blackmailing the blackmailers and thus around and around we go and where it stops, nobody knows. So be it.

Now if you wish to think I am wrong--feel free to do so. However, as in this local area, you will note that the unmarked, black helicopters are on constant patrol throughout your nights--constantly. The surveillance beams are upsetting the bird and animal life which will be readily noticed if you have outside animals or fowl.

Part of the reason for the heavy surveillance in this particular area is to effort to monitor our communications from and through the crystal system and they know we will not allow any craft within the shielded area with weapons--they can only monitor, or try to, from within the shield. You will also note our presence in every quadrant--low, colorful and in total view of the surveillance craft. When we say we will protect you--we mean it and "they" know it.

The adversary is not sure whether or not we will intervene and better that they do not--you see, if they make a wrong move they DO have us with which to contend.

Then why don't we tend the fault and prevent triggering the quake? Because we are not interested in the fault for it is due to go by natural evolution in great magnitude at any moment--quite naturally. It is easier to warn you ones if we can operate on "their schedule" but even at that it is "probabilities". If, however, you can determine the orbit sequence of the satellites you can know to the minute when to hide your head. This is why everything is being done at night for your viewing--even to the landing at night in the East. Note that they are not even mentioning landing at Edwards in California although they may well change it at the last minute if nothing goes as planned and California stands undamaged. It only has to be flown from earth altitudes but they know the runways at Edwards will not be suitable after the earthquake planned.

Another reason for having "two" in the air (or four as the case will likely be) is to have the second apparatus back up the first if the first fails to trigger sufficiently.

Note the neat cover-ups going on--Baker is smiling and giving the Yom Kippur hug to Shamir while they pretend to fight and disagree and Bush is laying low as the hearings for Thomas and Gates take place. You can further see that Bush will NOT be crossed on Gates (and yet, the full plan has been to put Gates into the slot of Adviser and Armitage into the CIA). Both need "around about the bushes approach" and it is working fantastically well--even George tells you "the system is working fantastically well". The charges against Ollie are all dropped and this smooths the way for Gates to lie his Kol Nidre way through the hearings. Can you actually believe the SECOND MAN IN CHARGE of the CIA did not KNOW about the Iran/Contra mess? YOU ONES ARE CONFRONTING THE FINAL DAYS OF THE EVIL EMPIRE AT WORK AND THERE WILL BE NO TRUTH FROM THE HIGHER COURTS OR ADMINISTRATION. THIS IS AN ALL-OUT PLAY FOR THE TAKING OF YOUR WORLD. THEY MUST HAVE THIS PORTION DONE IN ORDER TO KEEP TO SEQUENCE AS LAID FORTH.

I would like to point out, however, that you surely noted the thousands of people who poured forth in the Soviet action. They know if they make a wrong (soft) move against you-the-people that you still have guns and they cannot stand against the power of the people in this instance. This is why it must appear to be through act of God in Natural disaster appearance for you will not tolerate any other action. However, if in the throes of the confusion, they come and take your weapons you will have no recourse. This is one reason you can likely expect things to happen toward the darkest part of your night time so that you cannot do anything until the light of day. These are the clues, but as the show-down gets critical, it is all but impossible to see that which will be done in actuality.

One particularly nitty thing is that it has been leaked that it would be on the 17th and that becomes a toss-up whether or not to pull it off, actually, on the 17th or let it go until the 18th which was the first plan--to leak through the code electronics that it would be on the 17th so you could all go back to sleep and disclaim our input. You will simply not be allowed to know the hour or the moment for the final decision will be made quickly enough that we cannot warn you sufficiently to do anything about the happenings. I can only warn you that you are into the time of making some acutely necessary observations about possibilities regarding your locations. I simply ask that you listen to your "guts" and hear the warning when it comes. If you do, and you are tuned to us, you will know and safety can be attained. Forget God and He will allow you to do so.

This is why it becomes necessary that you are "constantly" in communication with God because when the fear takes control you are NOT going to be able to remain calm enough to clearly function.

Something here, now, that I believe you can check out if you do a bit of research. You recently had a major underground nuclear test in Nevada--I believe on August 15th. The blast had a force of over 20 kilotons which puts it right at peak allowable force. It further damaged the base of the dam nearby and the expectations are that an effort will be made to break that dam simultaneously with the San Andreas. The intent is to render the Western states relatively helpless.

Why do I not tell you these things? Because it causes my people's lives to be less worthy than the proverbial "tinker's damn" and YOU NEED US MORE AFTER THE FACT THAN YOU DO BEFORE AND SO BE IT.

Dharma, close this, chela, then I would like to commune with you for a while with information I do not want on this computer. Thank you. Stay within the shield and hold tight--we effort to "reason" with the insane players but we make very little headway.

I am in your service. Hatonn to clear the lines, please.

9/17/91 #2 HATONN
TUESDAY

STATUS REPORT

Hatonn present that I might give you information. It is important that we document things which are taking place because I see the emergency as to nuclear problems somewhat lessening as ones are beginning to have to bend in intent. It has been a day worthy of remembering. I do, however, see Dharma so weary that she truly cares not whether she survives or just folds it in.

I thank all of you for rapid deployment to the priority task at hand and let us continue to ask with love and giving that we be spared a bit longer that our work can be farther along and with better organization. Let us look at that which is probability as night falls in this geographic area.

BLUNDERS IN CALCULATION

There have been at least two major blunders on the part of the Elite planners which are causing them a great large headache at this time.

In retaliation for the sensor satellites, the Russians moved their Cosmospheres into orbit over the area of New York. Just as they did in prior incidents of this type they simply moved in front of the radar satellite communications network and with full intent of blasting any and everything out of the sky if you dared launch so much as a missile--which begins to look like a worse and worse idea to the Administration.

The miscalculation, however, was that WE ARE READY, WILLING AND ABLE TO TAKE OUT THE SENSOR SATELLITES BECAUSE THEY BEAR CHARGED PARTICLES WHICH DEFINE AS NUCLEAR PAY-LOAD. THEY HAVE THE SATELLITES IN ORBIT AT APPROXIMATELY 300 MILES OUT AND, THEREFORE, WE CAN NEUTRALIZE THE SMALLER SYSTEMS WHEN THEY IDIOTICALLY LAUNCH THEM BECAUSE WE CAN TAKE OUT ANYTHING WITH A NUCLEAR "WEAPON" ON BOARD AT 150 MILES OUT. The effort at present, of course, is to bring the systems closer in but this is a highly dangerous maneuver and easily allows the Russians to act with narrower range of fallout area. The systems are set to blast the particles toward earth with great force and the particulate is heavy enough to do the rest of the work as it is thrust into atmospheric conditions.

The stand-off got more serious when it was evident the U.S. fully intended to blast Russia to bits and, as before, the Cosmospheres simply moved into the area and started to give you a nice show. It was already completely out of hand between the bullies so we gave them a little more specific lesson. We simply moved in front of the Cosmospheres and selectively removed ability to communicate between specific, strategic areas which had to be noted, for everywhere else save those airports have working communications. I believe they will tell you they "have a glitch of some kind and don't know how long it will last". I do--it will last just as long as they keep their death toys out and focused. You see, you were ready to get your first full blast dose of "space brothers" doing-in America. Well, in this instance we only have to take position--we don't have to do another thing other than "be there".

Do not count on our being able to do this at other times for this time the intent from onset was different than a structured "show and tell". This was simply to show you ones that Russia still had the upper hand. I believe, however, that we need a bit longer for preparations for personal attention.

What you can surely expect: A large, or several large mid-states detonations of some type which will knock out the entire communications systems on a national scale. This can easily be done by the Cosmospheres without even showing themselves if the U.S. doesn't pull back. They can pop your receivers and microwave stations like popcorn and interrupt all radio frequencies permanently if push comes to shove.

They will, however, leave you to your own destructive stupidity as to killing off your own people and wasting your West Coast. They helped you by popping a couple of quakes on you today and now, that fault is ready to go, friends.

You can, as I said earlier today, count on the loss of several of your dams along with the earthquakes in random places and storm damage as well through the South and Southeast. The Russians do try to give you warnings because they simply do not wish to lose the planet yet. This does not mean that they are necessarily "nice" persons, chelas--it is simply that they have the upper hand in this game in this play at war games.

Further, they have ample and good shelter systems on surface and several bases to which to shuttle thousands and thousands of people for long periods of time. They can wait out nuclear clearing far easier than can you.

The enemy has an even better warning system--Russia can do great damage to the Elite shelters in Australia, Antarctica and New Zealand and, of course, can take out any aircraft put to the air for temporary Elite security. In other words, Air Force One, Two and Three are stupid facades--they wouldn't last 30 seconds.

The Russian "communists" plan to have America but they want you on their terms and it doesn't include this way. They fully plan to take your nation just as they told you--"without firing a shot".

Meanwhile, back at the "temple of Zion"--Baker has bargained for temporary stay of execution of an invasion as things begin to go wrong with the plans in the U.S. He has promised Shamir the money, and more, if Shamir will just hold off until around the first of the year. Then, not only will Shamir get money but be handed lands desired, as well. By then it is expected to have full control through the U.N.

I warn the world, however, when that happens you will have a Holy War to end them all--that will effectively bring on that which you call Armageddon.

It is undecided as to that which will be continued within these days ahead but in summary, I see a bit of lessening of threat of nuclear problems by intentional war--perhaps some from power plants if the fault is triggered but I believe nothing of that sort tonight. I may be wrong in that position but I see such fatigue that I prefer Dharma and Oberli, for instance, get rest and if necessary I will awaken you in time to gather what you need. I do suggest you move smartly along with getting things transferred even at the expense of delays in other conveniences.

I cannot have Dharma so fatigued that I cannot communicate instantly--thank you.

I shall sign-off for this sitting. We will sit it out and perhaps someone will gain some intelligence because you see, precious ones--THEY DO NOT KNOW THAT WHICH WE WILL AND WILL NOT DO AND I WOULDN'T WANT TO SPOIL THAT INQUIRING SPIRIT--THEY REALLY BELIEVE WE WILL BLAST THEM NICELY TO HELL AND BEYOND AND I FIND I RATHER LIKE THE PERCEPTION!

Good night. I will not call unless circumstances change.

Hatonn to clear.

9/18/91 #1 HATONN
WEDNESDAY

STATUS REPORT

THE WHORES OF BABY-LON? INDEED, INDEED!

Hatonn present: Breathe NOW! But don't waste time with a lot of lolly-gagging about things--move right on with setting aside "instant" preparations. You are definitely NOT OUT OF THE WOODS, FOR THE ENEMY (YOUR OWN ELITE) HAVE AS MANY ALTERNATIVES AS NECESSARY TO PULL YOU DOWN.

We will begin with the "space" situation. Note your clues as we go so that you can begin to recognize actions. Firstly: we have the sensor satellites so if you proceed with a "first strike", you will do so blindly and with the Cosmosphere "cover" you won't get very many missiles into the area of enemy territory. You have a tracking beam on every major missile in your arsenal--Russian. They, the Russians, have taken out one of the satellites and await your actions to consider what to do with the remaining one which is the important link "through" your banks on the West Coast following massive quake activity. As I told you, it is not in Russia's best interest to have the money system and banking industry collapse into chaos at this time of gaining blackmail money from the U.S. and allies.

Leaving that for a moment, let us look at other circumstances of importance to the West Coast. Know that we have released the communications network at the Eastern airports which is a clue that the war satellites are "down". I believe your nation had a pretty good lesson--and believe me, brethren--the Russians can do the same thing just as easily as can we but their lessons will bear more weight than a mere "tower" blackout.

You also will find that you got another show of strength from the Cosmospheres. The San Simeon quake of yesterday was a beam blast from a Cosmosphere as a warning--not necessarily to stop the plans for the San Andreas but rather, to let the Elite know that they were "there" and in control.

Further, you will find a nice and tidy pile of freeway construction material on the Century Freeway in L.A., along about Imperial Highway. This scaffolding was brought down, too, as a distinct lesson in precision-controlled surgical capability of your enemy.

I cannot begin to tell you, however, how teetery the San Andreas Fault system is at this time. It is absolutely hanging by "snags" in the areas of northern South America and in the Aleutians--the barriers have been minimized along your Western coastline so you are extremely vulnerable. As you have massive disruption in and around Japan, you are remaining in SERIOUS jeopardy.

ISRAEL: THE FLY
IN THE OINTMENT

Israel wants blood and they want to show their muscle RIGHT NOW! They have worked it so that they get everything they want from you via Baker and Bush--EVERYTHING.

An incident is all prepared to break which will give Israel the "cause" to move into Jordan.

You are the dupes and backup in that maneuver, also. YOU are sitting with your air strike force alert and ready to take-off in Saudi Arabia against Hussein (Saddam). Israel wants Iraq off the map! It is actually the area of Iraq which is sought--you must remember that Iraq is the location of Babylon of old. To have control of that land is as important as building a new temple in Jerusalem.

Now for your punch-line clue. You will be getting every conflicting story possible about Yeltsin--that he has had a heart attack, that he has had a heart "scare" and hospitalized, then denouncement of it all--no, he was missing while they replaced and updated him with new programming. YOU, dear ones, are out-technologied! You cannot measure up to that which the Russians have in capability of technology and they are showing you as much.

They do not actually, however, care what you do with your "stuff" and they want the population decreased at any rate and they will not give you opportunity, yet, to start an open confrontation--so you ARE GOING TO PLAY THEIR GAME FOR A WHILE LONGER.

WHAT YOU HAVE DONE, HOWEVER, IS WEAKEN YOUR OWN INFRASTRUCTURE TO THE POINT OF "NATURAL" COLLAPSE. WHILE YOU BUILD ISRAEL, YOUR OWN NATIONAL INFRASTRUCTURE IS IN COLLAPSE AND YOU HAVE NO WAY TO AFFORD REPAIR.

I am immediately petitioned by one in Canada for material on and exclusively about, Canada and what can they do. Canada is a Monarchy headed by the Queen Whore of Babylon and the reason we write for what appears to be, the U.S., we write in behalf of the world--specifically Canada. You, in Canada, do not have the foundation of a working Constitution with which to fight the "rulers" and about all I can suggest is that you back your Southern brothers to the very best of your ability in every circumstance so that when a big push comes to shove, you can keep your border open and a working coalition possible. This is a "continental" (actually global) last ditch "press" for Freedom and IT MUST BEGIN AND MOVE ORIGINALLY WITHIN THE U.S. BECAUSE OF THE POSSIBILITY INVOLVED WITH THE CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY--IF IT CAN BE DONE PRIOR TO TOTAL LOSS OF CAPABILITY OF RECLAIMING. Further, it is not as easy as it appears for us to simply do EXPRESSES for here and there--my scribe is here and the ones I "had" have moved away when the going got rough--and ONE person cannot cover the world so we work with the connections we have in the areas most affected by this massive "cause". The political control is too tight in Canada right now to make great impact but as things do open up we will be on top of them. With a world in chaos it is simply a time of dreadful circumstance with full intent of structuring your systems to bring the "people" into helplessness and subservience and subordination.

In Canada, however, great strides "could" be made by a great coalition of your native American tribes with the ones in the U.S.--there is more power in the native people than anything either of you have at this time for the cycle of their rising again is nearing when they will have great input if handled properly with good leadership. It does require the good leadership and I cannot say if the leaders will actually hear their call to arms and duty. It will be as it will be. Further, Canadians can do more with "publicity" to elect a U.S. president than can, actually, the U.S. Americans because of press and media control in the U.S.--in Canada it can be handled as a foreign event and good writers can do massive and important work which is stopped cold in the U.S. If the U.S. can be returned to the Constitution--so shall the rest of North America follow--Canada can move immediately for it is actually the British and Banksters' rule which is at stake here.

I apologize, Dharma, for getting you up before daybreak today but you needed update and I will now release you to your early morning tasks and decisions can be made as to priorities today. You only have a respite here at the moment--do not doze off. Get some planning for emergency action on a personal basis. As a for-instance, put many upper-wall level nails in the walls of the shelter where bags (preferably mesh) can be hung for individual "gear". Each party or "family" should have appropriate "things", such as a bag with a little wash basin, tooth care products, "wipes", T.P., soap in container, bandaids, medicines (aspirin), etc. Then one with eating supplies--paper or plastic but one each of durable containers and utensils. Then a third with bedroll, sheets, covers (a sleeping bag is preferable for space limitation), and a few towels and wash cloths. These should be tagged for identification to limit confusion and hung appropriately on the walls. You will need bags for soiled clothes, etc. But, the bags must be compact, ventilated and organized. Areas will be allotted but no "special" arrangements can be made.

The area will only be utilized in case of radioactive fallout possibility and interim storage of foodstuffs until shelters are arranged. You do, however, need a place to repose on immediate notice by simply bringing a food basket and personal clothing. Since shelving needs dual use of beds and personal gear utilization--it must be arranged to "hang" all personal supplies--that will include duffels for clothes. Food boxes and ice chests, of course, cannot be hung. I believe you can work it out nicely. This same procedure can be utilized by all ones in your own dwelling. You who have any ground level facilities--no matter how small, need the same few personal items--with water supply at hand. If you can be functional for a few days you will probably be just fine.

I don't know what you will be able to do about public sheltering but you cannot wait on such; you must get prepared at least in minimum effort in case you are isolated or trapped within an area for a few days. If you simply have water you can do pretty well for several days. It is up to you each to tend of responsibility--there will be no "magic"--the government wants to be rid of most of you and the evangelists are sending extra funding to Israel to build a temple to somehow bring about the "rapture". You will do it yourselves or it will not be done and each of you can at least prepare for a few days of inconvenience--even in the most tiny accommodations. For instance, the tiny sterno stove and a little can or pot to heat water can give you hot water and make noodle soup (dehydrated) and oatmeal, etc., accessible at almost no inconvenience to space or cost.

You need these things anyway, especially along the coast and fault areas (or tornado/storm) corridors--any place of possible temporary upheaval. It is time to DO IT AND STOP "TALKING" ABOUT IT OR FANTASIZING THAT IT WILL ALL JUST GO AWAY! IT WILL NOT "GO AWAY", IT IS STEADILY GETTING WORSE AND WORSE--WHAT YOU DO RIGHT AWAY WILL MAKE A GREAT DIFFERENCE IN HOW OR "IF" YOU SURVIVE. "A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE," I BELIEVE IS YOUR SAYING. AFTER THE FACT WHEN YOU ARE TRAPPED SOMEWHERE IS TOO LATE!

I will stand aside and allow you to get dressed and move about your tasks. Thank you for your attention and thank you for your ability to respond and prioritize. Chelas, each of you is not only "precious"--you are NEEDED so, please, act in care with wisdom, keep "listening" and stay within the shielding.

AHO

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH

YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

AMERICA WEST IS INTERESTED in knowing about Tradeshows, Fairs or events that are slated to occur in your local area. Please contact Sandy Green.

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NETWORKING

If you are interested in meeting others who are interested in this info, write us giving permission to connect you with those in your area.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIRÉE GREEN

Sep. 28 1-4 P.M. Holiday Inn West Durham, N. Carolina Warren Barrett Tel. (919) 967-3769 or 782-6297 Cost $20

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (SI11) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX (STX1) Minett & George Green 713 862-3786

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Blood-stained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual
Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V

The Sacred Spirit Within
Pleiades Connection Vol. VI

The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII
Science Of The Cosmos
Pleiades Connection Vol. VIII
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged. for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

SEPTEMBER 1991 VOLUME XVI NUMBER 10

9/27/91 #1 HATONN
FRIDAY

Hatonn present and in service. May we be given into the Light of Truth that we only lead our brethren into the Light and never from it.

As our mission picks up momentum it will be ever increasingly for Dharma to "see" everything that must be handled. This means that others must begin to respond to instructions. This is not to infer that ones do not--it is to give appreciation to those of you who ARE hearing and answering.

We are receiving an average of several pounds of paperwork per day and, as with this week thus far, meetings with builders, etc., have consumed 100% of our time so there has been no writing in the past several days--nor has there been ability to cover received material. Please bear with us for we are moving diligently into the boiling pot and changes are and will be, coming down in rapid-fire order. Bear with us and yet, rejoice and be well pleased for our mission is under way. Within a short while the PLEIADES CONNECTIONS will be available in full and our attention can shift to more current "daily" expression and actions.

As we change the printing format of the EXPRESS to allow for a different type of printing and more space, so shall we be changing a bit, the structure.

It is imperative that there always be adequate "Earth" confirmation of those things of which we outlay--sufficiently so that if you feel you cannot afford to subscribe to several papers, you will have some manner to have back-up for presentations in a human manner of input.

You will find that some of the back-up information was actually penned long ago and far away by ones given into the seeing and truth of that which was happening--and much you will find we have already covered in great detail. Do not be "bored" when this comes to your attention--again, rejoice, for you are on the leading edge of KNOWLEDGE.

Primarily, however, you MUST have spiritual input upon which to build your strength so we shall ask that the Christ-come-again, will give at least one message in each printing--through Druthea, in that ones do not become "turned off" in the thought that Dharma simply conjures all. YOU will not recognize any difference were we not telling you of same for Dharma continually receives from the Christ but we will effort to release various informations through several ones--to allow you to realize it is the Master and not the student who authors. Druthea has heavy input of duties elsewhere and in other forms so that it will be a while before Sananda's writings through that source will be compiled--we must also protect these scribes. The plan is well laid and you have much material to cover before you become bored and saturated with that which should be gleaned from the writings available. The sequence of presentation of material has been carefully laid forth so that understanding can be gained in the most appropriate manner possible.

Now, we will turn again unto the "world" for no matter how painful the Truth may be, it must be considered and confronted for exactly that which it is. I am grateful for input from ones who are willing to share for ultimately that is all there is--the giving and regiving.

EVIL LURKS BEHIND "NEW WORLD ORDER"

Thank you for sharing this tid-bit from a newspaper in Utah in early September--it came as a letter to the paper but it is so well done that we shall cover it herein. Valerie Guymon, Sandy, Ut.: President Bush made a dramatic statement to the world when the gulf war started. He said: "We have before us the opportunity to forge for ourselves and for our future generations, a 'new world order'--a world where the 'rule of law', not the law of the jungle, governs the conduct of nations."

According to the dictionary, "new" means "never used", "world" means "human race", and "order" means the "rule of law". Breaking down the rule of law, we have "rule" meaning "authority", and "law" meaning "a rule that must be obeyed". In defining "governs the conduct of nations", we have "governs" meaning "rules", and "conduct" meaning "behavior".

When you put all of these definitions and phrases together, a "new world order" where the "rule of law" governs the conduct of nations, means: A NEVER-USED HUMAN-RACE RULE OF LAW WHERE THE AUTHORITY OF RULE THAT MUST BE OBEYED DICTATES THE WAY NATIONS ACT, REACT, FUNCTION AND PERFORM.

In correcting the structure of this sentence, we have as the meaning of a "new world order", where the "rule of law" governs the conduct of nations, to be the following: A NEW RULE, WHICH HAS NEVER BEEN USED ON THE HUMAN RACE, WHICH MUST BE OBEYED AS REQUIRED BY THOSE IN AUTHORITY, WHICH RULES THE WAY PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS ACT, REACT, FUNCTION AND PERFORM.

It is time that we start paying attention to the gathering EVIL around us and demand to be told EXACTLY what our leaders are planning for us. V.G.

For you who have gone back to sleep against the events promised--wake up again. You are far from out of the woods in any circumstance. The end of your fiscal year is Monday. What will your government do about the budget? It is important, that which they do! Bush has at least four avenues through which to seize your banks, close them and through "Emergency" bring your nation to a dead halt--especially "dead".

Nothing is as it seems. In this very location there has been a relentless attack upon my people through the electrical, electronic and physical blasting systems. There has been a replicated being sent in to confound and confuse and allow focus within the shield. I believe that the point has been made to the adversary that we are neither fooled nor foolish. The person came in under false pretense and false labeling--with an Irish name attached to a Khazarian personage. Actually the original was of Hebrew lineage whose family changed names to protect the innocent. Can you of the "chosen" of the Godly tribes not rise up and stand for your heritage which has been stolen from you?

RELEASE OF HOSTAGES

By the way, for you who can't figure out just how it is decided who and when (date and hour) another hostage is released, let me give you some unpleasant news: As the promised ARMS are delivered--the hostages are then one by one released, or held--depending on amount and problems involved. It is no different than the Iran situation--you are still buying the hostages back--with ARMS. Not one iota has changed--NOT EVEN THE PLAYERS INVOLVED!

Ah, such compassion we have for these precious ones sacrificed to gain the evil ends of the Elite for they have destroyed a man of purpose and gifts unto his fellow-man. I do believe, however, that many points have been made this week regarding the safety and security of MY people. Hold tightly to your God and you will be safely borne home, chelas, when the sequence is appropriate. Do not weaken nor faint when your enemy presents for he can only present through that which is physical and already weakened in spirit. When confronted by God the evil energy backs off and, as you witnessed, leaves the entity empty of capability to clearly function. God has great mercy upon ones so badly "used" and the debt of penalty against the perpetrators grows magnificently heavy and unescapable at the time of reaping those harvests of pain and destruction.

GOLD IN THEM THAR HILLS

What of gold? The hand is not necessarily quicker than the eye so watch closely. "Why do we think gold will double in price or greater?" Because good old South African Politics is at work under the British crown. Mandela, who is a common criminal and was NOT a political prisoner, is expected to soon be raised to high power. There is a river of gold awaiting in Africa--literally. It is intended that Mandela be put in a higher position, the price of gold raised to at least $800/oz and then later as all seems wondrous and beauteous--wham, they intend to dump the price. So stay tuned, and you will be finding it profitable--IF they don't outdo their own planning. The ultimate intent is to push gold to somewhere around $5000/oz. That may be a bit harder to "pull off"--however, drug-bought gold is bargained on the market at over $370/oz, so you can know the banks will push it back beyond that level for they will wish to make a whopping margin of money on the transactions, of which thousands of tons are now moving from places such as the Philippines TO London--NOW.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE SOVIET UNION

I am going to ask that the next portion be basically "reprinted" from Donald S. McAlvany's writings but I cannot "quote" because I fully intend to comment. I have covered this subject in almost identical words but you need to see it again in a little different perspective. I honor this writer although there are a few points of his writings with which I do not agree and yet do not bear greatly on the subject at hand excepting in long-term misperceptions which will get you "out there" somewhere. Each of you who read the Intelligence Advisor will find such discrepancy in these writings that I felt it necessary to give this explanation.

There are some writers who have so nearly accessed truth that I do recommend that you avail yourselves of their work if possible and you will note these great men always share openly all truth for all ones--any way that the word can be spread--I humbly respect these great truthbringers for through them as leaders shall your nation be spared.

The following is "an intelligence analysis and situation report" through the perception of Donald McA. and therefore is "opinion" so do not toss pebbles if he misses a base or two and you now find you have "facts" "after the fact" for these perceptions are made early on and few could give such accomplished input. I believe you will remember that Dr. John C. does give valid information and we ask him for input constantly. He will be a regular contributor to these printings and we are honored to have him share our forum.

SUBJECT:

Events in the Soviet Union have been moving at a blinding speed (i.e., the "acceleration factor"). The world has recently been subjected to more information (in the opinion of this writer [D.McA.]--mostly disinformation) about events in the Soviet Empire than ever before. Confusion over what is really happening reigns supreme even among knowledgeable conservatives, Sovietologists, and life-long anti-communist freedom fighters. This confusion is by design of the Soviet scriptwriters.

This report will offer a contrarian analysis of recent events in the Soviet Union--an analysis which is in almost total conflict with what Americans are hearing on the television, reading in the papers, hearing from US and Soviet leaders, and which they believe they are seeing with their own eyes. This writer encourages the reader to keep an open mind while reading this report, to re-read it several times, and to remember past Soviet deceptions where they have said one thing and done the opposite. Remember, chelas, this is the time of chaos in which the adversary is masterfully doing the "opposite" of that which is Truth--IN EVERY INSTANCE. IT IS THE MOST OBVIOUS MARK OF THE BEAST OF DECEIT.

IF THE REPORT MAKES SENSE TO YOU AND YOU AGREE GENERALLY WITH THE ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS, YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO COPY AND DISTRIBUTE IT AS WIDELY AS POSSIBLE--ESPECIALLY TO PEOPLE IN THE MILITARY, THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY, NATO, TO OTHER PUBLICATIONS, AND TO POLITICIANS WHO CAN THINK FOR THEMSELVES (THAT ELIMINATES MOST OF THEM). And for this gesture of greatness, we acknowledge Donald S. McAlvany. (P.O. Box 84904 Phoenix, Arizona 85071)

Warning: Most people who read this will disagree with it--some violently. This writer (and so too, Hatonn) expects to be called "a paranoid nut left over from the Cold War". Well, Hatonn is called far worse, so be it. Some of the readers who read this will go into permanent brainlock because it is so totally contrary to everything you have been told for the past six years or more, by your Establishment. You who are readers of our work already KNOW these things in detail and in reasoning which has brought you to this point and it is for you that we write again and hope to open a few more eyelids. Even "debate" is better than the lethargic response of nothingness and denial of the masses of your citizenry. This beast intends to CONSUME THE ENTIRE OF THE WORLD.

INTRODUCTION

Rudyard Kipling once wrote shortly after a clever deception campaign by Russia's Czar Nicholas II in 1898, an allegory entitled The Bear That Walks Like a Man. Kipling wrote about a man who was maimed and blinded when a bear he hunted stood up, as if in supplication, and the hunter, "touched with pity and wonder" withheld his fire, only to have his face ripped away by the "steel shod paw". As Kipling wrote:

"When he stands up as pleading, in wavering, manbrute guise,

When he veils the hate and cunning of his little swinish eyes,

When he shows as seeking quarter, with paws like hands in prayer,

That is the time of peril--the time of the Truce of the Bear."

You live in the time of the Truce of the Bear. You are told that communism is dead, the Cold War is over, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union has been terminated along with the dreaded KGB. You are told that the Soviet Empire has collapsed, and that in its place freedom, democracy, unity and the free markets are blooming like a thousand flowers. You are told that peace has arrived and the common interests of East and West can be integrated and merged--first in Europe and then around the world via the New World Order.

There is much wrong with this scenario. Evil such as Soviet communism simply does not go away as rapidly as the Evil Empire would seem to be evaporating, especially not when that Evil Empire controls the largest military machine in the history of the world. In the late 1930s you were told that peace had arrived--that Hitler's intentions were honorable--that he wanted friendship and unity. SO BELIEVABLE WAS THIS "LOVER OF PEACE" THAT TIME MAGAZINE NAMED HIM "MAN OF THE YEAR" IN 1938 (Sound familiar?) WAR FOLLOWED!!!

The Soviets are masters at deception, champion chess players who can make you believe that which is, is not; and that which is not--IS. An excellent rule in understanding the Soviets is to always assume that reality is the opposite of what you see. We often call this phenomenon, "The Law of the Bureaucracy". You are NOW EXPERIENCING THE SIXTH PERIOD OF GLASNOST/-PERESTROIKA SINCE 1921--with each of the five prior glasnosts as well as this one promising that the communists were really changing, turning to democracy, multi-party systems, free elections, etc. Each of the first five times you were deceived, but before you awakened and again saw the hate and cunning of the Soviet Bear, you had made major concessions, given major aid, or made major arms cuts.

The present period of glasnost/perestroika is a well orchestrated script (the grandest of them all) written in 1981 by the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union--including Mikhail Gorbachev (Uri Andropov's protege). The goals of this glasnost/perestroika were to reorganize and restructure the Soviet Empire while declaring communism dead; to seduce America and Europe into dismantling NATO and massively disarm as the "threat of communism fades"; to pump hundreds of billions in Western aid into the "newly democratic" USSR, and ultimately to merge Western Europe, Eastern Europe, and the New Soviet Union into one "common European home".

In the newest perestroika, the overall strategy of the Soviet Union has moved from confrontation and division of the world into separate camps, to cooperation, unification, amalgamation, and absorption. The "new thinking" says we must forget our ideological differences, the conflicts which divide us, and join our efforts to fight together against the dangers of war, nuclear disaster, hunger, terrorism, environmental degradation, etc.

But is there a grand design behind current developments in the USSR? Are you seeing a spontaneous disintegration, or is it a well-planned, orchestrated, staged charade--Russian theater at its best? We have already pointed out that it was the most stupid attempt at deceiving we have ever witnessed and the entire thing was so silly it pains us to believe any of you were sucked in. We will examine the Marxist-Leninist proclivities of Gorbachev, Yeltsin and Shevardnadze--all "reformer/liberals" and all Communists to the core. We will analyze the coup/countercoup and why it was a phoney--another twist in the long-term strategic deception script which began running in and around 1981.

Let us see how the Soviets use disinformation to confuse and manipulate the West. We will explore why the Soviet Empire is not collapsing but being restructured and reorganized within the communist framework (which is NOT communist at all and never was communistic) and the KGB is NOT being abolished, but simply renamed and reorganized to improve its efficiency; and how the New Soviet Federation will actually be a giant increase in the size, scope and influence of the USSR--AN EXPANSION--NOT A CON-

TRACTION.

Let us also consider the ominous ongoing Soviet military BUILDUP--in spite of all the apparent changes which are said to be taking place.

Soviet disinformation is designed to tell you everything you want to hear and make you believe it. The wondrous controlled Zionist media in the U.S. aids and abets the monster to gain its own ends and YOU GET NOTHING OF TRUTH AS TO FACTS OF ONGOING HAPPENINGS.

I am much as Donald; you have now been warned about that which we will outlay and "remind" you of in information you have already experienced and yet, allow to slip by again and again. If you continue reading--you HAVE been warned!

MASTERS OF DECEPTION

Sun Tsu, 500 B.C.: "All warfare is based on deception."

"For the great majority of mankind are satisfied with appearances as though they were realities...and are often more influenced by the things that seem, than by those that are." Machiavelli.

INTRODUCTION

You live in a day of deception, confusion, danger and a blinding acceleration of global events. You are told that communism is dead, the cold war is over, the Soviet Empire is in its terminal stage, and that a new era of peace, unity and brotherhood--a New World Order--is dawning. Quite the opposite is actually taking place, but not one out of ten thousand people in the West understands the Machiavelian strategy of deception which is unfolding before you.

Always mistrust the OBVIOUS! The Soviet Union is NOT disintegrating—it is restructuring, rearranging, reorganizing preparatory to a major expansionary thrust in the latter half of this decade. The Communist Party of the Soviet Union is NOT being abolished—it is quite simply changing its name to something which will sound like "democracy"—(The Social Democratic Party was its original name under Lenin). It is reorganizing, restructuring, purging (cutting) large chunks of bureaucratic deadwood from its structure (hundreds of thousands of bureaucrats, perhaps even millions)—and the slashing and extermination is well under way at this time. They are moving back to the Marxist-Leninist foundations. The KGB is NOT being abolished—it is being renamed, streamlined and reorganized as has already happened all those six times since 1917 and the revolution which you financed. The Soviet military is NOT being dismantled—IT IS BEING DRAMATICALLY EXPANDED!

The Soviet Empire is NOT totally disintegrating—it is being RE-STRUCTURED into a loose-knit federation (at present) or union which is likely to retain most of the old republics and eventually absorb other countries not formerly a portion of the Soviet Empire. Gorbachev began talking about this very dissolution three to four years ago, advocating that the present out-of-date, antiquated, inefficient empire be dissolved and replaced with a more flexible and expandable federation or union. This new federation will ultimately be expanded and held together by Soviet military power and the KGB.

The August coup was simply Soviet theater and not very well done at that. This was a false coup designed to strengthen the position of Gorbachev and Yeltsin and the "reform wing" of the Communist Party without letting the world see it in actual brutal operation; designed to elicit support from the Soviet masses for Gorbachev; and designed to cause a massive increase in U.S. (and other Western) aid to the Soviet Union as well as a rapid acceleration of American (and Western) disarmament.

SECRET STRATEGY OF DECEPTION

Eleina Bonner, (widow of Sakharov): "The point is that the Communist goal is fixed and changeless—it never varies one iota from their objective of world domination, but if we judge them only by the direction in which they seem to be going, we will be deceived."

McA. quotes a friend, General Sir Walter Walker, former NATO Commander-In-Chief, "The West is so ignorant of Gorbachev and the intentions of this evil man. The real story of the last ten years goes something like this: the rise of Gorbachev is the result of a KGB 'coup' which took place in the early 1980's during the dotage of Leonid Brezhnev."

"This coup was executed by Uri Andropov—the Chairman of the KGB (under the direction of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union). The helter-skelter of perestroika is an attempt by the clever men in the KGB to parlay the country's economic weakness into a winning position, vis-a-vis the West. With our attention focused on the Soviet Union's current weakness and Third World economic status, we will lower our guard and let the Russian wolf into the European home."

PERIODS OF GLASNOST/ PERESTROIKA:

1. 1921 - '29 under Lenin;
2. 1936 - '37 under Stalin;
3. 1941 - '45 under Stalin;
4. 1956 - '59 under Krushchev;
5. 1970 - '75 under Brezhnev, and finally;

6. 1985 -- ?? under Gorbachev.

Each of these periods of glasnost/perestroika involved the Soviets' pretending to renounce Communism, moving toward Capitalism, Democracy, free elections, free markets, etc. In short, in each period, the Soviets told the West what it wanted to hear and made superficial moves in that direction in order to elicit massive Western financial aid and/or massive Western disarmament. Each of the first five periods of glasnost/perestroika were followed by crackdowns, brutal purges, and resumption of Soviet covert and revolutionary activities abroad.

These periods of glasnost were the Marxist-Leninist dialectic in action: two steps forward and one back. During glasnost numbers 4, 5 and 6 the US and Western disarmament process accelerated. But as former NATO Supreme Allied Commander Bernard W. Rogers said: "The Soviet goal remains world domination." And Vladimir Lenin said: "We advance through retreat."

STRATEGIC DECEPTION SCRIPT FOR GLASNOST/ PERESTROIKA

In 1981, Anatoly Golitsyn, a Major in the Soviet KGB, defected to the West and wrote a book entitled NEW LIES FOR OLD which was published in 1984. In that book, Golitsyn laid out the KGB script for glasnost/perestroika #6, which Gorbachev began to implement in 1985. This script would be the most elaborate glasnost/perestroika script of all and was designed to take the Soviets to their goal of world domination on, or before, THE TURN OF THE CENTURY (PLAN 2000). Yes, very definitely it IS confusing—for indeed, the Zionists Plan 2000 is also present and it is ALL tied in with the Ultimate Committee of 300 and the Bankster Anti-Christ factions.

It will be useful to analyze recent developments in the Soviet Empire before going into a review of the KGB script written about by Golitsyn in 1981 and so faithfully implemented by Gorbachev and his fellow "actors" since 1985:

ALLEGED SOVIET CONCESSIONS:

1. Yield "nominal" control of Eastern Europe.
2. "Superficially" encourage democracy movements in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union.
3. Open the Iron Curtain/tear down the Berlin Wall.
4. Allow reunification of East and West Germany.
5. Declare communism dead, the cold war over, and the Communist Parties of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe either dead or irrelevant.

The pattern of deception the Soviets have used throughout Eastern Europe and which is for the most part being followed in the Soviet Union today is:

1. Purge the old guard (hardline) communist and bring in lesser known communists or communist collaborators--called reformers. (The KGB was in charge of these purges.)
2. Change the name of the Communist Party while declaring communism in that particular country to be dead.
3. Give birth to new "democratic opposition organizations" that are in reality controlled by closet communists and the KGB.
4. Hold so-called "free elections" which are in reality manipulated and controlled by the communists.
5. Announce the termination and dismantling of the secret police, while in actuality reshuffling and reassigning the operatives and keeping the organizations very much alive, but in a different form and with a different name (or names).

6. Use the present period of euphoria, confusion and chaos in the West to infiltrate tens or hundreds of thousands of secret communist agents into the West.

This pattern has varied slightly from country to country in Eastern Europe. It has most closely been followed in Romania and Poland. In the former, the Communists replaced the old Communist Party with the New Salvation Front; they replaced hardliner Ceausescu with the old number three communist (a relative) Ion Iliescu; they renamed and reshuffled the secret police (the Securitate) but kept 95% of its 50,000 members intact.

In Poland, they renamed the Communist Party from the Polish United Workers Party to the innocuous sounding Social Democratic Party. Solidarity was in all likelihood started by the Soviets in or about 1980--it has over a million Communist Party members in it. Sixty-five percent of the members of the Polish Parliament are Communists (which is the approximate number of Zionist Khazars ["Jewish" controlled members of your Congress in the U.S.] totally controlling the voting of the Congress) because of a deal Walesa cut with the Communists in 1989. Lech Walesa, the Polish President and leader of Solidarity, widely believed by Polish exiles in America to have been a communist collaborator since 1980, is very friendly to Gorbachev and the Soviets in case you had not noticed. Fifty-thousand Soviet troops remain on Polish soil. (Some Polish exiles in America believe that number could be over 300,000.) In Czechoslovakia and East Germany, the secret police were moved under the command structure of the Soviet KGB and continue to operate there covertly.

The pattern is the same in Nicaragua where the Chamorro government is simply a Sandinista front. The Communist Sandinistas continue to control the army, the secret police and the educational system, and continue to assassinate anti-Communist former Contra leaders. Violetta Chamorra (a former Sandinista herself) continues to function there as only a figure-head president--with the real power in "non-communist, democratic Nicaragua" held by the Communists, led by Daniel and Humberto Ortega.

It should be noted that the Communists are masters at creating and controlling their own opposition--to preclude legitimate opposition from surfacing and coming to power. A few examples of such communist-created opposition includes the New Salvation Front and Iliescu in Romania, Solidarity and Walesa in Poland, Violetta Chamorra in Nicaragua, and Boris Yeltsin and Eduard Shevernadze in the Soviet Union.

Let us take a rest-break before returning to the Soviet script #6 as described in 1981. Thank you.

Hatonn to stand-by. Salu.

9/29/91 #1 HATONN
SUNDAY

In the Light of God allow us to commune and come to peace. The myriads of fragments of truth, contradictions and confusion flood the consciousness until the brain becomes weary--and thus the Elite are allowed to "win".

I am going to allow you ones to ponder this "paper" situation as long as you need to do so but we, dear ones, are not going to stop sending forth pertinent news--which is almost daily pouring in great deluges over you. You ARE

IN the final times of confusion wherein all the major players are making their most heinous moves for control, through whatever means necessary to cause the other to submit--you, however, America, are a long ways in the rear of the battle raging. "I", however, am already about sick of this newspaper project at hand for already I have to repeat something which WILL be printed in the paper--but you MUST have the input to understand the outlay herein.

I, further, must apologize to G.G. for I have allowed him to go attend a hearing without giving him advance material to share with his group--the apology comes from the fact that we have MUCH to share and simply no "time" to get it to print. The meetings here must sometimes take priority, however. We may have to make many "changes" so, please, Readers, remain flexible for our efforts are to get the most information to you in the most timely fashion and already we are remiss for I should have insisted this data be gotten to you before the week's end (last).

BUSH'S "BUSHLIPS"

Your nation continues in the throes of the most inconceivable time of urgent attention for you remain on the brink of destruction in several ways. There is no brief and easy lineup to just allow you to choose priorities--it is as complicated as it can get, as potentially disastrous as it can get and at the moment about all you can do is give attention and if and when tensions yield a bit--get on to saving your Constitution and bypassing these heinous beings who have destroyed your nation.

COUP

We have written in detail showing the fact that the Soviet Coup was an outrageous bit of total farce. I realize that you ones have only had a few publications to attend for Truth and, now, these fail you also. The New Federalist says, for instance: "USSR IS DEAD, ECONOMIC DEBATE RAGING FIERCELY". No, no and no! The USSR is only restructuring and is stronger than EVER! I will point out some dastardly facts which I hope you can understand as they are unfolded unto your eyes.

I have to back up to the "five" phases of glasnost/perestroika prior to this, the sixth. All of this is being outlaid in segments in the upcoming paper. However, you need to know that the thrust began in dead intent following the Russian Revolution which you financed. Here is the intent of each segment and it works every time they try it on you good people. The Soviets come forward and say they are going to "change", "become democratized" and generally turn to freedom and "Communism is dead". There never was practicing "Communism"; so right off the top you begin with the lie. At any rate, every time they make these so-called "concessions" you eat it up like candy while your government does the "Texas Two-Step" and "Cotton-eyed Joe" around the issue behind the blindfold over YOUR eyes.

The Soviets always present the following ALLEGED concessions:

1. Yield "nominal" control of Eastern Europe.
2. "Superficially" encourage Democracy movements in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union.
3. Open the Iron Curtain/tear down the Berlin Wall (or some other notable trophy).
4. Allow reunification of East and West Germany, in this instance.
5. Declare Communism dead, the Cold War over, and the Communist Parties of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe either dead or irrelevant.

The pattern of deception the Soviets have used throughout Eastern Europe and which is for the most part being followed in the Soviet Union today is:

1. Purge the Old Guard (hardline) Communists and bring in lesser known Communists or Communist collaborators--called "reformers". (The KGB was in charge of these purges.)
2. Change the name of the Communist Party while declaring Communism in that particular country to be dead.
3. Give birth to new "democratic opposition organizations" that are in reality controlled by closet Communists and the KGB.
4. HOLD SO-CALLED "FREE ELECTIONS" WHICH ARE IN REALITY MANIPULATED AND TOTALLY CONTROLLED BY THE COMMUNISTS.

These elections are for new parties which will always carry a portion of their titles as "democratic" in some manner or another.

5. Announce the termination and dismantling of the secret police, while in actuality reshuffling and reassigning the operatives and keeping the organizations very much alive, but in a different form and with a different name or names.
6. Use the present period of euphoria, confusion and chaos in the West to infiltrate tens or hundreds of thousands of secret Communist agents into the West.

This pattern varies slightly from country to country but it is always basically unchanged.

I am not going to give you total details of what is afoot now--for I haven't time to adequately detail it.

However, keep in mind that which I have given you for the months and months past and you will see that I speak TRUTH. It is the most serious of times and your nation and your citizenry are at the point of total annihilation.

I shall just outlay that which is happening behind the lies the Bushlips group feeds you.

Actual attempts to silence me have been poured one on top of another this past week from sending in a Robotoid person to distract and confound to interfering with the entire electrical system in specific targeted areas as ones came within the shield to interact with this very group. All the "clues" were present and still my own people allowed it to take place. I do not thrust discipline, I simply must point out how subtle and hard to detect, it is. Further, when the adversary has intent, you are by-passed in the planning and there ends up no way to conveniently shut down entry or visitation.

BUT WHAT IS UP NOW?

The plans of the past week for the San Andreas "fault line" and possible first strike against the Soviet Union pales in comparison to that which is pulled forth with which to now deal.

You tried to blow away the Soviet Union and you really made them angry. We stopped "them" from blowing away New York. You also planned to trigger your own fault system to facilitate a banker's takeover. Well, you still need something right away to handle the "no budget" and now all this crippling information coming forth to haunt the Elite--not to mention the blackmail by the Soviets against you-the-American people.

Now you think you have made a clever move on the political front: Bush offers to dismantle and destroy ALL little missiles and nuclear warheads--WHY MIGHT THAT BE? Then he requires more money for Stealth Bombers and yet takes all strategic defense systems OFF ALERT! He then tells all of you that the "war is over" and "peace is the reason". No, it is that the Russians are waiting to blow you off the map of the planet and you can't do a thing about it. Worse, they can blow you away with YOUR OWN WEAPONS WHICH ARE THESE SAME WEAPONS BUSH WANTS TO NOW GET RID OF FAST! Ah, how "Gorby" is laughing at you nin-com-poops. Plus--THEY are going to get all the money they want anyway!

PRANA TECHNOLOGY

I will not honor the deceivers and half-truth tellers by labeling the beams in point, herein, scalar. I am speaking of the systems Tesla had utilized which you didn't accept and protect--and have ended up perfected by the Soviets.

In one motion, with use of these Prana (Life source) beams and pulse systems--every nuclear weapon you have can be detonated simultaneously right where they sit in their holders or bunkers.

These beams can pass through any substance for they are of the substance of all things--Life substance. They are of frequencies which trigger the devices and/or pass through any substance and kill all living matter in the target zone and leave all infrastructure and superstructures for use without radioactivity. These detonations can come from stable bases offshore, as far distant as Russia herself, Europe, Asia, Cosmospheres in your Atmosphere or the Moon. You name it, they have it there. You have no known shielding from these frequency blasts--but WE do and we can't share them until you are less hostile. You fully plan to hit us with every evil toy you have the minute we materialize. No thank you! America has some of this technology but you can't get the upper hand enough to begin to compete with the Russians.

SOVIETS AND ISRAEL

That which you dared not see would happen, has happened! You must realize that Israel and the Soviets have been long-time co-planners of these new maneuvers upon the planet. They have now a treaty in place wherein they are in partnership with one another--while the Zionists finish taking over your Government through Congress and Executive Orders. Mr. Bush blundered and now he will surely pay. He is marked for assassination and is really in a very bad position. His little rat-fink "advisers" are prattling--Sununu, Scowcroft, etc., while Kissinger lays the death wreath about your government.

Sununu says, "...this has been most carefully planned and timed so that the Soviets MUST respond favorably" and, "we are sure Mr. Gorbachev and Yeltsin will respond most favorably." Yes, they likely will as soon as you do your duty and give them all including your "...masses huddled and wanting to be free".

Into this unHoly coalition of Soviet-Israel participants moves Japan who is also "ticked off" at you-the people and CAN throw great cogs in the banking/business wheels. This is WHY something about the economy must come soon. It is a bit out of sequence because of the drug king-pin involvement with the banks and the massive payoffs in gold; the price of gold was intended to push on up to $1-$5 thousand/oz. It has to go to $800/oz because as soon as Mandela is given his seat in the overall Government of Africa--it is planned to push gold to $800/oz and then collapse the entire economy. That will coincide with massive deaths of the Blacks by war--then apparent peace until sleep is regained--and then, wham--gone!

This is planned and orchestrated right out of the Royal King-Tuts of "THE 300" and "Magic Committee".

NUCLEAR PAPERS AND PLANS IN IRAQ?

Perish the thought. How stupid-- no secret nuclear plans for installations on those papers EXCEPT for the full, and/or partial, listing of participants depending upon which country is involved with Iraq. By this I mean that the papers confiscated by the investigating teams show THE CORPORA-TIONS, INDUSTRIES AND NA-TIONS FULLY INVOLVED WITH GIVING ASSISTANCE AND COMPONENTS TO IRAQ TO BUILD NUCLEAR WEAPONS, ETC. AT THE TOP OF THAT LISTING IS THE GOOD OLD U.S. OF A. Now what? What are your "big boys" going to do about this can of worms? You have "October Surprise" and you still have TODAY
"arms for hostages" taking place right in the same places in Lebanon, etc. Israel gets "arms" and releases a few more Arabs and the Arabs get more arms and release "maybe" (according to size of "gift" and blackmail use) a hostage or two. My goodness, chelas, Armageddon looks very close this day. There is no way to keep up with the "bouncing ball" or "shell game".

HEAVY METAL SATANIC "ROCK"

What is being given to the fine youth of Russia who "...stood strongly and finely against the coup"? A heavy metal "rock" group concert of five of the most deadly Satanic groups in the world-- AND IT PULLED OVER
500,000 IN MOSCOW ALONE!
The swarming, writhing masses all held hands high in Satanic salute and were ready to, as they put it succinctly: "...Kill! Kill! Kill!"

May God have mercy!

FOR YOU WHO HAVE "SEEN" US

There are being reported sightings of us in the local area--yes indeed, for you have been pierced by the adversary who sent ones right within your veil and into your very offices. You had better believe, we have sat on Dharma's very rooftop and it is unfortunate that we had to be seen but mandatory to take the precautions for both the navigation/communication center and my people.

You will find bits and pieces of your electrical systems which still will not work--do not take these things lightly--we even had to disconnect Al's car system. And Ed, do not believe for a minute that wheels almost fall off by accident!
You ones are going to pay attention or one or two of you are going to get badly hurt for a large number of you are still simply "playing games" and don't actually "believe". I don't care whether or not you "believe" but I am irritated to have the enemy come within. I won't label ones but you had best take note.

PETITIONS TO HATONN

You who write to Hatonn for input, tattling and whatever reasons which seem to find it necessary to place those messages through Dharma for impact--I suggest you had best look again at intent. For instance A.F.--what was your intent in the message of yesterday?
It could not be that which you state for you have also "borrowed" much software. There is other intent and you had best look at what it might be and why you would choose to take the issue through ones within the group instead of directly to me. You have not yet decided whether or not you believe in my presence, no matter that which you "think". Further, your intent is not to solely serve God and the WORD but rather "self" first and then if there is "time"--a little for God. You knew how it was here in this place regarding this very issue you raise and I intend to make no comment on the issue at hand for I am not of the Publishing Co., nor do I RUN those things. If you have "bones to pick" regarding earthly matters of business, take it up with the ones involved--for your intent, even if you do not realize same, is to cause trouble by going around and over the heads of the ones involved in the issue. Therefore, I shall not cause "Dharma" to give response--all of you can come directly to me and get response through direct means and not cause her this painful grief for she already works 48 hours a day. You, on the other hand, cannot seem to even find my meetings worthy of your on-time attention. That, sir, is a clue to intent or lack thereof.

I asked you to think most carefully prior to making this move and you chose to do so anyway--do not now ask me to take up these piddling details which must be worked out BY MAN and distract us from our work at hand. I am not interested in your computer programs--I am interested in getting the WORD out on THIS computer. It was working prior to your input and it is difficult for your brothers to understand why you have the right to disrupt the mechanism. So be it. I leave it to you to take it to proper source and I, sir, am not that source--ponder it.

NOW TO THE HEALTH-CARE CENTER

I recognize that ones make moves which are often untimely as to sequence. I was not consulted regarding the matter of tending and/or beginning care placement prior to having facilities available.
I cannot help in decision making-- funds are not available for the freedom of my telling ones to "make it work", nor should I.
What happens is that Oberli, Dharma, etc., become responsible, or feel so, for everything brought to Hatonn via their input for obviously ones await response FROM Hatonn via this return route. They are caught in the middle and feel they should be doing "something"--they cannot, and I won't allow of it to pressure their every waking moment. You ones claim to be "asking God" for directions--then get silent, listen and hear the response from the one petitioned. I AM NOT A SUPER-HUMAN IN THIS CAPACITY OF MESSENGER AND I DO NOT PRETEND TO BE PERSONAL GURU TO ALL NOR ANY. MY COMMISSION IS TO BRING THE WORD--AMONG OTHER TASKS--AND THAT IS MY FOCUS. THAT, AND KEEPING YOU ALIVE LONG ENOUGH TO CONSIDER OTHER ALTERNATIVES OF ACTION. Please, my intent is not to be harsh nor distant to any but these things could be discussed when I AM present--not when it requires this precious time to attend private messages. THIS, DEAR ONES, IS EXACTLY WHY WE HAVE NO ORGANIZED GROUP! This, further, is why we say over and over again and then again--"You must be self-sufficient separately if you come to work with us". These ones are exhausted in efforting to find where-with-all for ALL. They spend so much time efforting to attend ALL that our work goes into "waiting"--please, I ask you, attend these things for the human-physical is at work herein and I cannot allow it to distract my workers in Truth. If you have come to "play", I can only ask you to go play elsewhere! So be it.

BACK TO THE SOVIETS

This understanding is the basis of whether or not you survive so I must go forth with other outlay which was intended as writing for the second edition of the paper but must be shared at this sitting. I will be as brief as possible but it must be listed to allow you to SEE.

WESTERN RETURN CONCESSIONS FOR SOVIET SO-CALLED CONCESSIONS

1. America and the West were to assume the USSR's $40-50+ + BILLION A YEAR financial burden of Eastern Europe.
2. Reunified Germany would become neutral and tilt economically toward the Soviet Union.
3. American troops would be pulled out of Western Europe.
4. Western Europe would move to neutrality and NATO would collapse. (But NATO alternate centers would be established.)
5. America and the West would massively bail out and finance the basketcase Soviet economy (for the sixth time since 1921).
6. Western and Eastern Europe (including the USSR) would merge into one economic bloc.
7. America and the West would massively disarm in the "post-Communism/post-Cold War era".
8. America would discontinue support for the anti-communist resistance movements around the world (e.g. Contras, Mujahideen, UNITA).
9. American troops would be pulled out of South Korea and the Philippines.

You will note that these nine elements of the KGB script are in varying stages of completion--right up to about 90%. Note that the Bush Administration has given away (effectively) Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines and now Subic Bay Base. You will withdraw from the Philippines. The Philippines are intended to fall to the Soviet insurgency, within months. By the mid-nineties all of the above nine things will be accomplished facts.

Evidence of this duplicity and deception, not to mention insincerity of the Soviets, is massive even at this moment:

1. Massive arms shipments to Angola, Cuba (and the structuring of several very dangerous nuclear plants in addition), Afghanistan, the Philippines, Iraq, Syria, Mozambique, etc., totalling well over $25-$30 BILLION PER YEAR which will be "financed" by you and the "wondrous banks" at your expense.

2. Soviet-backed guerrillas intensifying their efforts to overthrow the governments of Sri Lanka, Philippines, Uruguay, El Salvador, South Africa. (Soviet/Libyan guerrillas just took over "Chad" in Feb., 1991.)

3. Soviet espionage in America and Europe has quadrupled since the beginning of glasnost and the Gorbachev reign with open integration into your law enforcement groups and political groups.

4. Soviet military might has grown over 35% to 40% (and rising) since the beginning of glasnost #6 and is growing so rapidly in all major weapons categories that accurate accounting is impossible. The massive numbers of military missiles and equipment now stored "behind" the Ural mountains is mammoth--enough to fight an entire world war without any other weapons. (These are not counted in the treaties.)

5. The Soviet military and KGB have been greatly strengthened under Gorbachev, and hardliner hawk/Marxist-Leninists have been moved into all key positions by Gorbachev.

6. Communists (or "closet" Communists) have retained most key positions in most Eastern European countries and Communist armies and secret police (though renamed) remain totally INTACT.

STRATEGY FOR DOMINATION

The key element of present Soviet global strategy is to dominate Europe (Eastern and Western) in what the Soviets openly call "the common European home". The Soviets have a Machiavellian strategy for dominating all of Europe (and not necessarily or exclusively by military conquest) even as their Empire "appears" to be crumbling. This domination of Europe is a key stepping stone to their long-term strategy of world domination. They have other ways of causing you in the "new world" to toe the mark they place in the sand.

An all-European integration, and eventually Soviet domination, is only possible if a radical change in both the Western European and Eastern European political systems takes place. That change is taking place in Western Europe in 1992 as the United States of Europe and England as a grand free market adventure; the fact is that West Europeans are about to turn their political sovereignty and independence over to the European superstate dominated by socialist, leftist, globalist, and Euro-communist bureaucrats in Brussels, and heavily infiltrated by the KGB. Merging the New Soviet federation, which is on the drawing boards, with the United States of Western Europe will be far easier than integrating the new Soviet Union with 12 separate nation states--many of whom might tend individually to want to protect their sovereignty from the Soviets.

There are six major prerequisites for the Soviets to dominate an integrated "common European home":

1. A united Western Europe--a fait accompli in 1992.
2. The exclusion of America militarily from NATO and from Europe--subtle but definite.
3. Soviet domination of Eastern Europe.
4. Soviet domination of reorganized, restructured Union of Soviet Sovereign Republics.

5. A Soviet Union which is seen to be "democratic" by the West Europeans.
6. Soviet military dominance over the entire region--from the Atlantic to the Urals (but as amended by Gorbachev to be "from the Atlantic to Vladivostok--the Pacific").

So how can these prerequisites come to take place?

First, a European superstate, socialist in orientation, will be much, much easier to integrate or merge with a Soviet superstate, socialist in orientation--but pretending to be democratic, than merging or integrating dozens of truly independent East and West European states.

Then, the Soviets are maneuvering and manipulating to get America out of Europe militarily and economically--while coercing breaking down of missile and defense systems simultaneously, at home in the U.S. and abroad. The INF Treaty eliminated America's intermediate range nuclear missiles and now you are giving up your entire arsenal while the Soviets take supreme power over Earth and Space.

The Conventional Forces in Europe TREATY and Operation Desert Storm have maneuvered America into a major withdrawal of conventional ground forces, men, tanks, planes, material and other toys of war. The US is presently pulling out of, or closing, 79 military bases in Western Europe and many domestic ones which are being converted into detainment centers for people who do not like the "above plan". Why do they tell you they are doing these things? Because of the "alleged" death of Communism, end of the cold war, and collapse of the Soviet Empire, Bush and the American establishment plan to pull the American military almost completely out of Europe over the next few years.

In the meantime the Soviets are weakening America's commitment to NATO by signing a series of treaties with Germany, France, Italy, Greece and Spain (six in "open" count) which compromise those countries' commitment to NATO in a crisis. France has agreed to represent Soviet interests within the European Community, GATT, the IMF, the World Bank and NATO--and you will notice THIS DAY that Mitterand is doing a full-blown job of it. The Italian Treaty even contradicts Italy's own commitments to NATO. The German Treaty committed Germany to help keep the Baltic states within the Soviet Union. Ho Hummmmm! Of course there is another role for poor old Germany--it is rigged to appear once more, that Germany is a terrible aggressor and will get blamed again for that which she does NOT do.

Please do not be foolish. The Soviets have never relinquished control of Eastern Europe and have no intention of so-doing. They still have over 500,000 troops stationed there and there are full-blown Communists, or Communist collaborators, in all key positions in Eastern Europe. The Communist secret police and military organizations are still very much intact. Furthermore, the Soviets have recently concluded a series of treaties with the Eastern European countries that gives them a growing foothold in those countries.

Next, to seduce Western Europe into integrating into one East/West European home, it must convince the Europeans that the USSR has become democratic, and that the new Soviet federation, which has been on the drawing boards for far over a decade, is free, independent and democratic as well. The present disintegration of the empire is NOT accidental or spontaneous. It has been very well- planned and thought out for multiples of years by Gorbachev and those before him, and the Kremlin leaders who know that the present form of the Soviet Empire is archaic and counterproductive to the intended progression of the "State". There is facade reorganization as regularly occurs in favor of the next necessary "step".

The Soviet military superiority over Eastern and Western Europe is already a present reality. I need not go into, again, where YOU stand and how the plot worsens.

As surely as Europe was swallowed up by the Nazi Third Reich in combination with the Ashke"nazi" Zionists (Khazars) in the late 1930's through subtlety, deception, manipulation, disinformation, and finally overwhelming military pressure, so the Europe of the 1990's is laying itself open to being swallowed up totally by the even more sophisticated and deceptive Russian Bear.

I have given you picture upon picture of the prophecies as they are unfolding from the "blue turbans" to this "Russian Bear" and the connection and devastation which will come via China. I know not how to get your attention but your time for action is all but over, America, and you are the LAST POSSIBLE PLACE OF ACTION AGAINST THE TIDE OF DESTRUCTION.

Dharma, allow for a rest please. Thank you. Hatonn to clear.

EXPECTED SHIPPING DATES

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL'S. 7 & 8 Oct. 16 EXPRESS BOOK VOL. 13/14 Nov. 1 THANK YOU FOR WAITING.
NEW RELEASE (WITH CASSETTES) NOW AVAILABLE

PHONE HOME E.T. . . $15 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . BOOK AND 2 TAPES

Germain stresses to us the importance of true meditation and gives excellent "how to" instruction to accomplish it and how to use it to control our lives. When you accomplish true meditation you are communicating DIRECTLY with GOD for the purpose of knowingly working with Him.

We are given the TRUE definition of love and prayer and the importance of understanding the true definitions so that we can improve our daily lives with this knowledge.

NEW CASSETTES NOW AVAILABLE:

SPACE-GATE THE VEIL REMOVED . . . $20 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . 4 TAPE SET

Facts are provided concerning the governmental cover-up of extraterrestrials visiting our planet, and crashing on our planet, as early as the late 1940s/early 1950s. Historical perspective of the period from the late 40s to present is put forth with many surprising, startling and troubling details of secret actions by governmental agencies and representatives. Various "secret" agencies are disclosed. We are given clarification of the ongoing peaceful intent of our space brothers and the involvement of Satan and Christians in these "end times" are clearly stated. The correlation between Christ and extraterrestrials is clarified.

SEMINAR WITH WITH GEORGE & DESIREE GREEN

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (SI11) Lucy Covington 219 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX (STX1) Minett & George Green 713 862-3786

SOME OF THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII
Science Of The Cosmos Pleiades Connection Vol. VIII
The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EX-PRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

EXPRESS: U.S. is $20 per 13 ISSUES, $40 for 26, $75 for 52, Canada 13 issues $22, 26--$44, 52--$80, foreign 13--$30, 26--$60 52--$110 (including back issues for current Volume).

Send orders and Payments to: America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

THE PHOENIX EXPRESS

October 1991 Volume XVI #11

9/19/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

STATUS REPORT

Congratulations to you who have seen beyond the curtain and for you who are only learning to look beyond that curtain, let us discuss the happenings.

A LOT OF SHAKING GOING ON

You are deliberately NOT being informed about the swarms of tiny tremors going on and if you check you will be told they are "normal". The Guatemala quake tells the story, however, for you have the plate on a speeded up cycle of movement. The amount of slippage will increase quite steadily until major pressure is relieved on the fault lines.

HIDDEN REASONS

Dharma, you will simply have to wait and check these out and do not be distressed if you do not hear of them because the actions are so obvious that you should be able to see through the transparent coverings.

Note the happenings: Yeltsin was to have addressed the most important meeting yet, of the parliament, yesterday. He was being reprogrammed and there was no intent whatsoever of allowing him to meet with "his own" parliament. Next, he was to have met with Nicholas Brady (Treasury-U.S.) and Alan Greenspan (Fed. Res.) today (19th)-both of whom are in Russia for that very purpose. Why might this be?

Now, moving on--note that the scheduled Arab meeting with Baker for today is OFF!

Note that your President is again tromping around the vacation spots making massive destruction decisions--usually it is from the golf course. The point is--IT IS NEVER IN WASHINGTON D.C. WHERE THE GOVERNMENT MEETS.

So what do you have and so what?

You have a President "backing off" on the severe rhetoric about positively bombing Iraq. NOTHING WENT AS PLANNED BY THE ADMINISTRATION ELITE IN THE PAST FEW DAYS--NOTHING. Israel got everything they wanted, for now they can get Jordan by default a bit later and they have the U.S. (U.N.?) ready to bomb Saddam off the map--or will they?

Russia has made a very, very loud statement that "thou shalt not!" and now the Arabs involved refuse to meet with your Secretary of State.

Further, why would the head of the private Fed. Reserve Bank (U.S. branch of the Bank of International Settlements) and your finance person be meeting in Russia?? YOU HAVE A BUNCH OF MAD HORNETS, MY PRECIOUS CHELAS.

WHERE IS GORBY THE PAST THREE DAYS??? I WARN YOU NOW, IF YOU INVADE IRAQ AGAIN AFTER YOU HAVE NOW BEEN TRIMMED AND WARNED NOT TO DO SO--YOU WILL SUFFER CONSEQUENCES UNDREAMED OF! YOU ONLY DEVASTATED WOMEN AND CHILDREN AND CIVILIAN POINTS IN YOUR SO-CALLED VICTORIOUS WAR IN IRAQ. YOUR OWN BELOVED CHILDREN ALSO BURIED SOME 12,000 OR MORE IRAQI SOLDIERS IN THEIR TRENCHES WITH NO RECOURSE AND "NO PRISONERS"! YOU THINK THIS ACTION WAS WISE AND SANCTIONED BY THE GENEVA CONVENTION? WELL, GOOD LUCK, HUMANITARIAN AMERICA--IT WAS EVEN ABHORRED BY THE MILITARY TRIBUNALS AND IT WAS ORDERED NOT TO PROCEED WITH SUCH A THING--THE ORDER WAS IGNORED! WORLD--YOU ARE IN SERIOUS MORAL DEPRAVITY AND YOUR DAYS ARE NUMBERED UPON THAT LAND! YOU ASK GOD FOR VICTORY? OVER WHAT? YOU HAVE BECOME THE MOST HEINOUS MONSTERS OF THE GENERATIONS--LED FORTH BY THE ANTI-CHRIST/GOD.

You think me bigoted in using "anti-God"? I travel with God, my friends, and any one or thing which is not "pro-God" is "anti-God"--look up your own definitions for the terms are quite easily defined even for the untrained and uneducated. YOU ARE DEALING WITH THE ANTI-CHRIST AND HE IS IN YOUR OWN HOUSES OF GOVERNMENT, YOUR MILITARY AND ALL OF YOUR FOREIGN POLICY COUNCILS. It is the same as with the term "Judeo-Christian"--the terms are exact opposites in simple definition.

It offends you for God to denounce the so-called, self-styled Zionist Jews?? Why? You had best ponder why it bothers you. They have proclaimed total deletion of belief in God; they are not the Hebrew Judeans--they are a self-labeled (18th century) thieving group of nomads who destroy everything in

Inside this issue

Bush Assassination...pg 3	Middle East Review...pg 9
Space Alien Overview...pg 5	Protocols...pg 11
Little Crow...pg 7	Knowing The Truth...pg 17

BULK RATE
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
TEHACHAPI, CA
PERMIT NO. 0020

continued from previous page

their paths--starting with the Hebrew Judaists. If it walks like a duck, looks like a duck, quacks like a duck, denounces God and stops allowing even Christmas decorations and songs in a so-called "Christian" nation--oh, you remember--"one nation under God", etc.--then it is with wisdom that you treat it like a duck!) Soon, chelas, whether or not you like of it--it is open duck season. God is getting a bit impatient because all things are His Creation and one bunch of hoodlums MAY NOT destroy all Creation. But HE will do it through YOU-THE-GODLY--WHO REMAIN!

This statement means, of course, that you who march to the drums of God will have protection unseen and never before witnessed as you go about your appointed tasks. Much of that which you do in sheltering, etc., is for example so that you can "show the way". Many of you are going to find that you ARE quite bullet-proof--it is simply like "the wife" as "you are the last to know". The adversary has tried every known method--including nuclear beam blasts--to get this scribe taken out and almost as many things on George, Oberli, Gritz and Coleman (among others) and they simply meet my command and we pluck away their toys--GOD SAID THE WORD WOULD GO FORTH AND SO IT SHALL!! This means in no manner to get smug, careless or disrespectful--for it would be therein that you would fail.

Have you called your Congressman
today?

Soviets flex muscles

No, you will find that the undercover information of the happenings are quite logical and J.C. is giving you early-on assumed information because of prior factual actions. When it was KNOWN that the Russians were in control of the situation and that the communications were down in the area of New York and it was obvious it was specifically targeting airport towers, the logical assumption was that they were utilizing their beam systems which traverse the arctic regions and are always in use--pumping ELF's, etc. The Woodpecker system, for instance, has full capability of selective bombardment to any place in your nations.

The fact is, however, that the show and tell was intended to be far more demonstrative than simply communications blackout. The Russians with their beam systems have been responsible for failures all over--especially the Eastern U.S. on many occasions lately which do not even make national news wires. This time they fully intended to take out those airports "physically". You would have to claim "aliens" of some sort because you must remember the "cold war is over" and the Elite would not tip their hand as to being the bastards involved with worse destruction. WE DID NOT ACTUALLY TAKE INTERVENTION OFFENSIVE--WE SIMPLY MOVED INTO THE WAY AND LOCKED ONTO THE ELECTRONIC SYSTEMS. EFFECTIVELY, THE LESSON WAS GOOD ENOUGH EXCEPT THAT

YOU-THE-PEOPLE WHO WERE ONLY FURIOUS AT DELAYS IN TRAVEL DO NOT REALIZE THAT YOU ESCAPED DEATH BY THE TINYMOST MARGIN YOU WILL EVER ENCOUNTER SHORT OF DEATH. I TELL YOU THAT YOUR OWN ELITE ARE READY TO "SACRIFICE" ENTIRE CITIES TO BRING YOU UNDER CONTROL!

As the information flows from the undercover sources you will find that an update will be forthcoming from those resources. The Russians had the beam system in point, in full operation--but it was not the point in action above New York.

America West update

You are on the eve of a breakthrough in truth in news and you do not yet realize it. As the PHOENIX EXPRESS births as a newspaper--you will have a most select and carefully attuned group of writers. I intend to remain in control of final release so that I can update, delete errors, etc., as they are laid forth on planning tables and are available to me. However, I do not intend to tamper nor edit out any material on which they write--I will simply add comment if there be changes. You will be receiving information directly from the facts as to economy and world affairs both as WE see things and as is coming from your brothers in the service of America--or those willing to tattle for whatever reason. You will have contributions of major input by Dr. John Coleman of INSIDER REPORT, WORLD INTELLIGENCE REVIEW, J. COLEMAN REPORTS, ETC., along with regular writings from Little Crow, Corporation updates, Phoenix Institute happenings and gold status, the Constitutional Law Center and the Taxation news. Because of immediate press limitations we can only print weekly but if need be we will print a book each week and/or make other arrangements as we move along

It is realized that you haven't time to read even this massive input of printed material and the JOURNALS, and, and, and--but precious ones, if you remain uninformed you will continue to blunder. It is truly up to you as to who and how you will utilize the input data. We will begin to try to get the writings to tape for you who do not read but that requires readers and ones writing for the paper to get the news in ahead of deadline for publishing so editors can transcribe as editing is done. Yes, there will be errors and readers will not be "professionals"--but, we are not saving the world for professionals--this is for YOU-the-people. I hope that our publishers read this information with the intent given--I ask that the newspaper be put to tape and then ones can decide how they want their information--with full permission to copy and further distribute. I will have Dharma read most of the paperwork onto tape so that I can comment--we will work it out in the most effective manner possible under the present circumstances. You ones must, however, gear up for ability to get tapes and ship same. You will have to charge enough to at least break even with workers and equipment because most of the "quantity" will be absorbed by the further distribution of subscribers. It is good to keep the prices as low as possible and extra copies can be made available more easily than copying by hand. This means you will need quantity reproducing equipment for the bookstore please. Duplication will become a problem if you do not get multi-quantity dubbing equipment and/or several reproduction machines. I believe that Jenny and Daylene could spend time at the store doing dubbing. Both need a bit of buffer to incomes presently. Marina would also be available as are some others as paid employees. We are finally simply too burdensome and our workers too overloaded to continue much longer on a totally voluntary system. I realize income does not match outgo, much less with pay to employees--but we must do something and perhaps it is to encourage more subscribers--I must leave this to your able negotiations. I suggest that, as we move along, much of the editing can be accomplished WHILE recording--this means that several could do recording of items--IT CAN BE WORKED OUT IF YOU TURN YOUR ATTENTION TO THE MATTER

Birthpangs

"Easier" for other groups

9/22/91 #1 HATONN
SUNDAY

Hatonn present in Radiance. Let us share together the experiences as we journey through this veil of dim conclusions into the Light of KNOWING.

Firstly, no matter what is perceived, the adversary awaits every word, every action and every opportunity to utilize you, twist you and discount your work if it be for Light. Therefore, please understand that it is my commission to insert such observations every time I see the impact becoming overwhelming and to take action in guidance at each turn if it is appropriate. There is no intent on my part to change a person's free-will direction; however, I cannot remain in Truth and allow free-will actions to cause discredit to God's commission. For you who are only readers, I will only comment that we have had a most passionate exchange regarding this subject, for hours, earlier this day. Nerves are stressed, workers are fatigued from seven days each week of overcrowded schedules and all actually only wish to serve in proper sequence. Yet, as it unfolds, the impression will always be presented to the human nature of each being to react in total human form and expression. As it applies to God's work, it cannot be acceptable--except as God presents.

As a baby is conceived and grows within the womb all comfy and well-fed and pampered--so comes the day his growth reaches the point of a birth-day. At that point there are some options for the Mother, she can have the baby through the natural birthing process or through surgery--but the day will come when the baby will "out". Either way the process will be faced and, good or bad, will be accomplished.

This organization has had to grow under the most difficult of stressed pressures and now just when the first baby is almost delivered--God presents you with surprise "twins". About all I can offer is that the second birth will be far more rapid and easier than the first but no less traumatic on the "nerves".

I hear constantly about how Ramtha or Mafu operate--so be it and good luck--we do not operate in any other manner than of God. We have no "group" and we do not have swamis and racehorses. We have no profit margins to divvy up--just a work load which is monitored to a sickening degree to insure no tampering nor tainting by human hands.

We of the JOURNALS and EX-PRESS are now pulling even further distant from America West so that ones involved have no further need to be badgered by ones attacking them through our work as if the two entities are one and the same. We are privileged to have this kind of resource to serve and share and quite frankly, early on--carry the load. But then, how does a publisher usually work? Most of you readers seem to believe that somehow Greens and Hatonn are one and the same product. I can only reassure you that we are NOT. We are honored and humbly grateful for the willingness to share, support and focus on the truth of our projections--far beyond that which is expected or could be expected from a "publisher".

George Green's reason for service in such focus and intent is that years ago, in another country, he petitioned and then offered to serve the Pleiadian brothers in any way he could for he understood the Truth of our presence then, and now is absolutely in proof of our presence. These ones offer to do whatever is requested of them--including making their own lives absolutely miserable to publish a newspaper if that is what we ask of them. Well, we are going to do a paper but it will have no different output than already present--only we will have more space for publishing information and it will basically be less expensive in that, even though prices do not change, you will have a "quarter's" worth of publications instead of all being thrust forth for a "quarter" in a month. Therefore it will be less expensive. In keeping charges the same, there will be opportunity to send forth extra urgent bulletins. Further, by changing printing procedures there will be allowance for making available copies far more reasonably than self-copy.

This will further give you opportunity to share in the presentations of ones I choose to present as valid information projectors without your needing believe that I sanction ALL the works of a given author or presenter.

I know the valid input and you will be hearing from some frequently and some only rarely. They will not be confirming our (Hosts) nor I actually confirming other than the subject in point--but you will be able to find earth relationships which will give you more knowledge. What I will present will not necessarily be that the author I choose to utilize got the information first, because the current system is getting information to many very early on now and several sources will have the information.

Because my purpose is to bring valid information and evaluation of that information immediately or as quickly as possible, I may not always choose the most comprehensive writer but I will later give you information as to where you can find other backup.

I am asked why I should select and discern if man is going to have to discern on his own in the ending. Because you are doing that which we suggest unto you--ask God for proper discernment and God sends ME to help you sort the wheat from the chaff. Do you "HAVE TO" believe me? No--you can do as you have always done--believe anyone and anything you choose, but if you do not accept that which God sends--why continue to ask? Oh, I see, you only want to hear that which you have already decided? Ponder it.

At any rate the local workers are going through birthing pains as a new entity is evolved. The facts are the new entity is the same old entity in a new blanket (Dharma write the program NOW as the power is under attack and will fail--NOW!) [This will be a long afternoon, chela, for we are under attack so please hold close, write the program often and we will see if we can make it through with enough information for the newsletter.]

I ask that any unused writings from the past few days go into this edition for we have kept you abreast of happenings and security breaches. You are in extremely dire circumstances between the proverbial rock and hard place and the adversary is really angry unto heart attack at us.

I am going to tell you ones some facts and you will be able to see in what a predicament your Administration, and specifically Bush, find themselves. You will also have to understand how the adversary works and the codes used to inform plotters of status of plots, etc.

Bush assassination

When it is time to "take-out" an enemy of Israel, from a top-level cabinet member will come a projection of "Anti-Semite". That, when repeated the proper number of times in sincerity along with some other verbal clues gives the Mossad the directive to "kill". Also, just prior to the accusations will come the presence of the assassins into the vicinity to do the cute little trick. So, on Sept. 17, the word came, the projection made and Bush has a contract on him. The Mossad's most experienced assassins, Bar-Neva and Epstein were already in place and ready in Washington--ready, willing and able.

Israel's entire economy and plans for taking property, etc., rested on the 100% loan guarantee by Bush

continued on next page

which, through financing leverage and other cute tricks, becomes worth over $177 BILLION to the Israelis over the next few short years

On the other hand, the Arabs refuse to come to the Peace table if the loan is finalized or promised before the fact. In addition--the Soviets are ready, willing and very capable of just taking out the entire U.S.A.--not just Bush--if you are stupid enough to invade Iraq again, as the Israeli's demand, and/or give the guarantees to Israel. It is now beyond the quarrel over who fools who--you are down to Armageddon if you "breathe" wrong. The blackmail on all counts is flying and stirring and now you are hostage to two evil empires--as Reagan would say. In other words the criminal government of the U.S. is in the firing line of both sides and you--the people are dead-center in the target viewers.

WHAT HAPPENED IN MOSCOW?

I also have received a very excellent dissertation on this subject, regarding the phony coup. I also ask that it be included--it is also by Eustace Mullins but more information can be given by Coleman, please. I hope you readers understand that we could fill three dozen newspapers like this one every day. We can only touch on topics and then offer to assist you in finding your backup if it is of benefit to your understanding.

Bush denounced by Israel

NO! Not secret--for even the Establishment Press has the code and knew the minute it came down. The facts are that Washington D.C. went on immediate "Red Alert". The reaction to eliminate Bush came from a top level cabinet member who is announced quite regularly on the news--from Tel Aviv.

Well, but who then, alerted Bush, etc.? Hold your breath now, little chelas, for a shocker is coming: Bush's old friend Mike Harari (yes indeed, the same one from the good old drug and Panama days--the very one that Bush saw to it was smuggled out of the Panama situation and off to Tel Aviv). Bush was shocked (astounded) by the denunciation by the Israeli government and he certainly did not understand the full implications until Mr. Harari (old CIA buddy) tipped him off that it was a murder raid with "full intent". Harari was repaying Bush's favor in removing him from Panama by that secret courier (which we have written about at length so, please, just go and read the JOURNALS and don't write for details--we have given you minute by minute details long, long ago). So, is that enough payback? No--Harari fully expects to be sent to Washington as Ambassador of Israel in return. Ah, but it is even more complicated than the surface

"obvious" for Harari cannot come to the U.S. until after the "rail-roading" and then the payoff to Noriega by that same Bush administration and partnership with the underworld. You see, Harari masterminded the entire "Noriega" drug operation in conjunction with the CIA (Bush's CIA).

Now, I ask that the message from Eustace Mullins be included in this paper, please. Please just list the writings as reference material.

Message to new readers

With this first release in paper format the readership receiving will increase to over 10,000. The only negative portion of this projection is that we have neither time nor space to catch up with the news already presented--we must press forward as quickly and comprehensively as possible for we cannot move backwards--the prior EXPRESSES are all published, or will be, in book form or loose form. Still, you cannot glean the details from the EXPRESSES "only" even if you memorize them all--follow-up and details of Truth and actions and where, how, who, what and when to act comes within the JOURNALS. They deal with your very existence and present experience and uncover as quickly and briefly as possible--what is wrong. Then there are eight volumes of PLEIADES CONNECTIONS which give you the entire working mechanism of God and the Universe--in detail and absolutes. What you do with this information is up to you.

What can you do? You can start by just "assuming" we might be "Real" because you certainly have nothing to lose by so-doing and just about everything in your lives to gain.

You will hold to your Constitution and build from it, a government of the people, by the people and for the people--for the one you had has been stolen from you and no longer operates as a Constitutional Government as set forth as the foundation of the United States of America. As you save your nation so shall the world be able to follow through your footsteps. It need not even be difficult for your true enemies are less than three percent of your population--they have just gained control of everything you hold dear.

Letter from Congressman Jim Kolbe

I am going to give you the rotten and deceitful "party line" right from one of your own Arizona representatives in answer to an R.H. who asked about the New World Order and would the Congressman please explain what it means.

July 9, 1991
Congress of the United States
House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515
JIM KOLBE, 5th District Arizona
Committee on Appropriations, Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice,

State and Judiciary; Committee on the Budget, Task force on Human Resources and Task Force on Urgent Fiscal Issues

Mr. R.H.

Dear Mr. H:

Thank you for expressing your interest in the goals and methods associated with President Bush's "New World Order". I hope I can clarify this for you.

The goal of the new order is fundamentally democracy and world peace. The President has said the new order should guarantee security, defend freedom, promote democracy and enforce the rule of law (justice). Simply put, the new order would bring new detente in U.S. relations, the strong force of democracy in the world, hostile action deterrence, opportunities for diplomacy, and international economic development. These goals are consistent with what I would like to see happen in the world.

President Bush has also indicated that the U.S. would play a "major role" in the new order--not the lead role. The Persian Gulf crisis has shown the U.S. is a world leader that can work in conjunction with other nations for a common cause. The new order would rely heavily on the United Nations and, although the U.N. has limits and deficiencies, it is the focal point where the broadest international consensus can be fashioned, tested, and

continued on next page

Space alien overview

The full intent is to turn your focus to your "alien enemies" in space. Your enemies in your atmosphere are not space aliens--they are manufactured and earth bound. Oh, the governments will effort to unify you of the world against the common enemy--US! You have no enemy out in space--but evil does and you are the pawns and, he hopes, the hostages. Forget it, brothers, you are being given TRUTH and the what-fors and ye who come within the shield in intent of focus unto higher Truth and KNOWING will be in security--"one will be taken and the other left", "as they work side by side in the fields, etc." It matters not to me whether you believe "them" or me for that is your gift from God Creator--to be allowed the choosing in freedom. I can only repeat--we are the "Hosts" sent WITH the returned "God" to pick you up--or leave you--which ever you decide.

If you do of your work you won't need a "lift-off" or a ridiculous "rapture" for you will be accomplished in beauty and honor--or, you will continue in your own "OPINIONS" OF HOW YOU THINK IT "SHOULD" BE and you will be left pondering your amaze-

continued from previous page

translated into action. I am hopeful the U.S., along with the entire body of the U.N., can bring about this new order that could prevent future Gulf crises and bring about peace.

I do appreciate your interest and hope I have clearly explained the main points of President Bush's new order that aims for lasting peace and democracy.

Again, thank you for contacting me.

Signed: Jim Kolbe, Member of Congress.

Good luck, America--good luck, world!!! The underlined words were Kolbe's emphasis and not of my doing. If you cannot see the blatant lies involved then I can only pity you precious blind lambs as you march to the slaughter.

ment of what happened! Perhaps there will be leisure time to THEN read the JOURNALS, which you denounced--TOO LATE SMART!

You speculate on Heaven and Hell? Well, Heaven is wherein God has places for those who abide with intent within His balanced Laws which are outlaid to balance and keep in harmony, the Universe (Creation). Hell is the absence from God and I believe you will see that Earth Man has cast out God of Light in favor of physical responses. Where you experience is entirely up to EACH ONE OF YOU. My Commission is to bring you the WORD which is GOD who is LOVE, TRUTH, AND IS THE WORD. YOU CAN DENOUNCE ME AND ALL OF MY WORKERS UNTO YOUR VERY DEATHS IN THE PHYSICAL AND IT WILL CHANGE NOTHING BY SO MUCH AS ONE TINY IOTA. WE ARE SENT FORTH TO PREPARE YOU FOR HIS COMING AND HE PREPARED, THROUGH US, A PLACE FOR EACH ONE WHO COMES AGAIN WITHIN THE FOLD--SANS BLOOD SPILLAGE OR CROSS-HANGING. YOU MURDERED HIM OVER AND OVER AND NOW PLACE ALL THE LOAD OF YOUR SIN ON HIS BACK--FORGET IT, LITTLE BRETHREN--EACH WILL STAND RESPONSIBLE AND NAKED FOR YOUR ACTIONS BEFORE GOD AND SELF--NO OTHER CAN NOR SHALL DO IT FOR YOU!!!! YOU HAD BEST BEGIN TO LOOK AT YOUR CIRCUMSTANCE WITH REASON AS GOD GAVE UNTO YOU THAT WONDROUS CAPABILITY WHICH SET YOU FORTH AS A GOD CO-CREATOR IN CAPABILITY--I SUGGEST YOU LOOK AT IT AND USE IT. I'M SORRY--THE LIES DO NOT EVEN HAVE ANY MEASURE OF "REASON" NOR "SENSE" WITHIN THEM--THEY LIMIT YOU AND DELUDE YOU. GOD OFFERS ALL IN OPEN GIVING--IT IS YOU WHO REFUSES THE CUP IN FAVOR OF THE LIE.

I care not what is the origin of a man--if he be against God then I am against him and if he denounces God and removes those things representing and honoring God--then he is an AntiGod/Christ and no, I shall not whimper nor cajole--HE IS MY ENEMY AND WHEN THE TIME IS PROPER--I SHALL ANNIHILATE HIM! There is no misunderstanding between the adversary and myself, my service or my Command. Worse, he laughs as he uses you for his heinous needs and then casts you aside like the used lemon peel when the flesh is gone. No, there is no misunderstanding between the forces of God and the forces of the one who calls himself the Prince of Light and the Bright White Morning Star, Lucifer. It is only you-the-pawns who cannot seem to understand your plight and continue to serve this whore for the miserable tid-bits he throws to you as rat poison before the rats. You turn from that which God has sent and listen to "other" men pronounce opinions and tell you to return to Christ. Funny thing about that--Christ sent a message to Paul Crouch of TBN and Paul responded by suggesting the writer "turn back to Christ!" Who are those people to tell YOU how it is for it is obvious that they KNOW NOT! The trumpet sounds and the fingers write and then they pass--never to again grace your passage with their presence.

We stand at ready to serve but you will have no coercion from this sector--to each his own. As you look around and ponder your world--WHO MIGHT BE CORRECT IN THE PROJECTION OF FACTS??

I SHALL NOT LONGER PLAY AT THE GAME--YOU SEE THE "CLUE WORDS" HAVE BEEN SENT OUT TO ASSASSINATE MY PEOPLE, TOO--TOP OF THE LIST. WELL, IT IS NOT THAT EASY AND WE ARE REALLY GETTING VERY AGGRAVATED. I DO NOT INTEND TO RENDER ONE IOTA OF "QUARTER" TO THESE ENEMIES. I ASK THAT YOU CON-

FRONT THE FACT THAT THE ANTI-CHRIST IS AT HAND AND YOU HAD BEST LOOK CAREFULLY FOR HE IS MOST OFTEN--YOU.

He presents, however, in the blatant recognition of his own status and tells you right up front--"I am an atheist!" [That means: ANTI-CHRIST/GOD.] WHAT DOES IT TAKE FOR YOU ONES TO SEE AND HEAR? Further, he has taken the robe and shield of the innocent and taken their rightful heritage and called himself by similar terms to fool the nations.

I ask that once again, brothers, print the PROTOCOLS and the accompanying material. Then go back and read the back-up material given you in the JOURNALS and then do your own research--meanwhile, I suggest that you effort to save what shreds of your Constitution you may find remaining.

Then as we go we will give you, again, the Communist Manifesto, the Nazi Manifesto and again, your Constitution! Most of you haven't the foggiest idea what is in your own Constitution--and it is almost 100% misinterpreted by lawyers and the unjust "Judicial" farce. If you still do not have patience with the Truth of myself--GO TURN ON MTV AND SEE WHAT YOUR CHILDREN WATCH--I EXPECT YOU TO WATCH FOR AT LEAST A FULL HOUR BEFORE YOU VOICE AN OPINION--THEN MOVE THE DIAL TO THE NEW BRITISH MUSIC PRESENTATIONS AND DO NOT CLOSE YOUR EYES, DO NOT TURN DOWN THE VOLUME AND DO NOT PASS GO. THEN COME TO ME FACE TO FACE AND DENOUNCE MY GODNESS!! YOU CAN WALLOW IN THE SLIME WITH THE SWINE OR YOU CAN WASH YOURSELVES, PUT DOWN YOUR BEER CANS AND ASK GOD FOR MERCY FOR HE WILL NEVER TURN FROM YOU.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

Dharma, allow us to leave this for I have asked too much of you this day--but MAN is out of "time".

In leaving I will repeat a message from Little Crow who has given me permission to reprint from his bulletin of this month. If you knew this not--see how many of you would have thought the message from ME?

Also, I ask that portions regarding Nevada Corporations be included along with Lewis' comments as I will direct. If you other ones will copy directly from the provided documents it will save my scribe great time segments and we must attend court the next two days and this needs to go to press.

I ask that the translation of the document regarding the "Holocaust" be printed herein, also, for you must come to know the TRUTH beyond the lies. The next JOURNAL will deal with the relationship of that group of so-called, self-styled JEWS who call themselves God's Chosen with the Khazarian servants and replicas of Satan--whom they honor in worship as Lucifer. Truly you blinded lambs have been deliberately deceived and I prefer to have compassion and offer you means of growth into KNOWING rather than to simply offer "pity" for your blindness.

If there are other documents you wish to print in reference to these writings, I grant permission if it be TRUTH. No lies shall be presented through this format. If there are errors we shall attend same but we will not knowingly print any false projections. Further, we will effort to always bring you ability to confirm and research the truth of our presentations. There is no thing short of God which is Perfection--not in the physical compression. We shall do our utmost to serve with honor, integrity and only unto the highest projection of God of Light, Creator/Creation. We have no further allegiance--NONE, not even unto you! You are our brethren; we have prepared a place for you at HIS command and so shall it be. I will LIVE for you--I WILL NOT DIE FOR YOU for what you recognize as "death" is incorrect. The physical body is nothing--and no man shall give his soul (death) for any.

Neither will we do whooop-de-dooos and di-dooos to give you a cheap and magic thrill. We are Hosts of God--not entertainment committees of magicians and witches to cast spells and other nonsense. Nope--you will believe on the merits of TRUTH, no less. If you get a fragment of a proving moment--hold it in the blessedness with which it comes unto you for your service or your direction-reminding and course correction. God is "patient"; God is not "foolish". I believe if you are acting in TRUTH you would demand no less than this stature of God's Hosts sent to guide you home. I can only suggest you spend a lot of time "within" in "reasoning thought" and petition for discernment--then go read the JOURNALS as brought forth to you from the Phoenix--the representative craft which bears God unto you. So be it and may that very Being send his Light to shine about thee that your eyes and ears might be given into the opening unto HIS lamp.

Blessings are unto all of you--each, every one--for we are but ONE and it is with undiminished LOVE that we are come. May you be able to see that which God has wrought for your use that you and your nations might endure, for as you go, your time upon these lands is all but gone. So be it. Adonai.

Terrorism in Washington

by Eustace Mullins

On Sept. 17, 1991, the nation's capital, Washington D.C. went on Red Alert. This alert was not sounded by any threat of war, but by a tip from Tel Aviv that President George Bush had been marked for immediate assassination, and that two of Mossad's most experienced assassins, Bar-Neva and Epstein, were already in place in Washington and preparing to carry out their latest assignment.

"President Bush to be assassinated by Mossad? Bush, the friend of Israel?" exclaimed a New York Times bureau reporter, on hearing of the Red Alert. In fact, the State of Israel had no choice. Its entire economy depends upon immediate granting of a 100% loan guarantee by the United States Treasury to the State of Israel, a grant which will cost, at the outset, $1.9 billion in cash guarantees and immediate expenditures by the Treasury, and, in total over the next several years, an actual cash outlay of $177 billion. When Bush flatly refused to issue the guarantee, in view of upcoming Middle East peace talks, Israel had no choice but to act at once.

The first announcement of Israel's reaction to Bush's modest request for a 120 daydelay in granting the $10 billion loan guarantee to Israel came from a member of the Israeli cabinet, who publicly denounced Bush as a liar and antisemite. The public use of the term "anti-Semite" by one of the highest ranking members of the Israeli government was not merely political invective; it was an official notification that Bush was now a candidate for immediate assassination. Whenever anyone, anywhere in the world, is publicly branded an "anti-Semite", particularly by a member of the Israeli government, it means that he can now be assassinated by any Israeli agent, at any time. The term

continued on next page

What happened in Moscow?

by Eustace Mullins

The question of what actually happened in Moscow recently, the coup that never was (a coup, by definition, is a successful seizure of power) whether Gorbachev is out or Yeltsin is in, has not been answered by the pundits because there are no pundits--there are only paid prostitutes, propagandists echoing the will of their unseen masters. What happened in Moscow was the culmination of an information process which had been unfolding for the past five years - the widespread dissemination of revelations in my books which had been flooding Russia in samisdat. The most important revelation was that Communism had never been a Russian political party! On the contrary, it was the weapon which international provocateurs had used to keep Russia in the 19th century while its riches were plundered by the conspirators. Once it had been looted, the conspirators then used tax money from Western nations, primarily the United States, to pump up the bloated corpse and keep it from sinking to the bottom.

For five decades, the Russian people accepted the propaganda that, whatever its faults, at least the Soviet government was a genuine Russian political movement, and that it was hardly as brutal as the Czars repression. This was a direct contradiction of the historical record that at the height of the Czars' counterattack against Communist Revolutionaries, only a few thousand were sent to Siberia, whereas Dzerzhinsky had hardly set up the OGPU before millions of native Russians were sent to the gulags to starve, work and die. Sixty-seven million perished from 1917 to 1967. When my books, which went directly to Gorbachev, Yeltsin, and other leaders in Russia, exposed the

continued on next page

Little Crow

(Excerpt AMERICAN INDIAN UNITY newsletter),

"anti-Semite" is a code word for "marked for destruction by the forces of Zionism".

Although Bush was shocked by this public denunciation by the Israeli government, he did not understand its full implications until an old friend from his CIA days, Mike Harari, tipped him off that it was a murder raid. Harari was repaying Bush's favor in removing him from Panama by secret courier before Noriega was arrested in the Panama expedition. Now Harari hopes that Bush will request he be sent to Washington as ambassador of Israel, in return for this latest tipoff. But Harari cannot come to the U.S. until the Noriega trial is concluded, as he was the mastermind of the Noriega drug operation!

continued from previous page

fact that Communism had never been anything but a foreign-operated mechanism, a Communist occupation government with the code name, COG, its leaders could no longer sustain it. However, there was no mass reaction. The Moscow uprising, in an area of ten million people, consisted of from 2500 to 3500 Russians. The others had gone to work as usual. One of the great myths of political force is the, fantasy of "mass" political action" deliberately encouraged by the Marxists, who prated of "the masses" while they ruled as a small, compact Nomenklatura, or privileged officials, in a nation of 280 million disenfranchised slaves. When the existence of COG became known to the resistance movement in Russia through my works, the party was over. The mopping up operation will now proceed. Next - the downfall of COG in the United States.

Save your Constitution

GREETINGS: It seems that we are all perplexed with the same questioning thought that being, "Is there anyone who understands me?"

That question in itself can lead us to infinite answers and of course more questions. For myself, the oral traditions of my cultural group lends me a "leg up" if you will, in allowing me to create "truths", and to use those truths in forming what I consider to be the Red Road.

From that same oral tradition I am encouraged "not to ask people, persons, groups, or bands to follow me," but rather to impress upon them the need for them to follow their own "truths" as they create them.

The following are TRUTHS that make up my FAITH!

1. That all Creations are from the same source....and so all things are the same but only in a different form.

2. That all Creations are sacred, related and connected.

3. That all Creations share the same cause and effect, only in different forms.

4. That all Creations live within a system of natural laws and are bound by those laws.

5. That due to the nature of Creations, all things exist in a state of duality.

6. That all Creations are of Itself and, therefore, infinite.

7. That all Creations have a predatory self-interest and, therefore, feeds upon itself.

8. That all Creations must recycle through purification of all things relative and relevant to it's exis-

9. That there is no one part of Creation that is anymore important than the next, and so no part of Creation is to be exempt from the purifying changes taking place at this time.

10. That Creations have no need to save themselves for they are infinite and, therefore, will always be.

11. That "ALL THINGS" will change through the natural law of purification; governments, nations, people, mountains, rivers, land masses, religions, tribes, and most assuredly KINGDOMS, In particular....Kingdoms.

My FAITH is my CREATION and my CREATION is my CREATORS and my CREATORS are my FAITH! It Is, as I was told. AHO!

(Little Crow)

INCORPORATION NEWS INC.

(Excerpts) Volume VI, Issue 9 September, 1991

NEVADA REFUSES TO SHARE INFORMATION WITH THE IRS

Governor Bob Miller of Nevada has turned down an IRS request to "share" information with the state. The IRS had tried to persuade the Governor to share information from the State's Department of Taxation, Department of Motor Vehicles, Employment Security, the Gaming Control Board, and the Secretary of State's office (which among other duties keeps Nevada's corporate records).

POTENTIAL FOR ABUSE

The Governor based his refusal on the grounds that there would be too great a potential for abuse of people's right to privacy. Recently the IRS has raised a furor amongst casino workers in Nevada with its undercover tactics in its search for tip income that, according to Nevada U.S. Senator Harry Reid, "border on harrassment".

According to Lewis Laughlin, Senior Vice President and CEO of Laughlin Associates, Inc., the Governor's recent decision not to share information with the IRS is good news for Nevada corporations.

"Companies incorporated in Nevada will continue to have more privacy than anywhere else in the United States." He says, "Unlike elsewhere, the IRS cannot go on 'fishing expeditions' in Nevada, browsing through private information in the hope that something will turn up. Instead, the burden of proof is on the IRS, which is the way it should be.

NEVADA REMAINS UNIQUE

Nevada is the only state in the Union that does not share its records with the IRS. Based on Governor Miller's statement, that unique position is unlikely to change anytime soon.

PROTECT YOUR ASSETS BUT AVOID FRAUDULENT CON- VEYANCE

(The article below is the twenty-second in a series of columns that Ray Como is writing for the Incorporated News. The opinions expressed below do not necessarily reflect those of this newsletter or its publishers.)

The Rothschild Family -- one of the first of the Supercapitalists -- was the first to accumulate a fortune of $1 billion. That was way back in the 1700s. If the Rothschilds had been able to consistently maintain just a 4% per year return on their money, by today they would have accumulated 90 trillion, 510 billion, 107 million dollars!

continued on next page

continued from previous page

What happened? They started and financed wars which they sometimes won but other times lost. They made some bad investments. They had smart kids, stupid kids. They owned companies that went bankrupt. They hired incompetent advisers. They fired some of their best advisers.

Let me tell you. Holding onto wealth is an ongoing job. In fact, keeping it just may be harder than getting it.

For years, I have been preaching and writing about asset protection strategies. I believe that an asset protection plan is as important as a tax plan, an investment plan, a corporate plan, even a business plan.

There are many asset protection techniques available to you, including:

1. Keep a low profile;
2. Systematically drain your

- checking accounts;
3. Lien any free and clear titles to cars, boats and plane;
4. Lien chattel, equipment and computers;
5. Keep personal property private;
6. Encumber all real estate;
7. Hold title to real estate in your Nevada corporation.

Asset protection techniques are best implemented immediately upon acquisition of any asset. In fact, you are really on the ball if you implement your asset protection in conjunction with your asset acquisition.

BUSINESS PURPOSES

But you must be sure that all these methods for asset protection are carried out for acceptable business purposes, and executed before you are subject to any judgment against those assets. Otherwise your tactics might be considered by the courts to be fraudulent conveyances.

The determination of whether a transfer of assets is fraudulent or lawful is a question of fact which courts decide based on a number of different factors.

First, transfers are tested under the state statutes that protect creditors. The Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act has been adopted in Arizona, California, Delaware, Idaho, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming. The states of Hawaii and Oregon follow the Uniform Fraudulent Transfers Act while the other states follow common law court decisions.

There is no federal law that governs fraudulent transfers. Therefore all creditors (including the IRS and other federal agencies) must use the law in the state where the debtor lives.

In order for a transfer to be challenged as fraudulent, there has to be an actual prejudice to the rights of the complaining creditor. This means that any transfer that occurs before there is an actual creditor cannot by definition be fraudulent since there was no creditor with rights that could be prejudiced. There are two types of fraudulent conveyance:

1. Fraud-in-Law: where the nature of the transaction creates a presumption that the conveyance is fraudulent; and
2. Fraud-in-Fact: where there is actual fraudulent intent to hinder and delay creditors.

FRAUD-IN-LAW

Fraud-in-law occurs when the following factors are present:

1. The sale or gift of assets for less than fair market value;
2. You have, or will imminently have liabilities; and
3. You fail to retain enough assets to satisfy those liabilities.

Take Notice: You do not have to deliberately try to hinder the creditor. In fact, the creditor is not even obliged to prove that you intended to commit a fraudulent conveyance. All he must do is prove that conditions one to three above exist.

FRAUD-IN-FACT

Fraud-in-Fact occurs when the following elements are examined by the creditors and considered by the courts to imply a fraudulent conveyance:

1. Failure to record a conveyance;
2. Failure to cooperate with the courts during an investigation;
3. Failure of the buyer to take prudent steps prior to acquiring the asset;
4. An inadequate or false recital of consideration paid for the asset;
5. The transfer of property during or in the face of a pending lawsuit;
6. The retention by the debtor of a beneficial interest;
7. The debtor becoming insolvent upon the transfer of the assets;
8. The debtor remaining in possession of the property even after the transfer;

In addition, these other points are taken into consideration:

1. Transfers not at arms-length or for an acceptable business purpose;
2. If the debtor and the transferee are close friends or relatives;
3. Lack of clear records concerning the transaction;

continued on next page

IS THE ECONOMY RECOVERING?

LEARN THE TRUTH BEHIND WHAT YOU'RE BEING TOLD!

CHAOS IN AMERICA

Contains information on the current economic decline with the history to validate King's findings. Also, learn how to survive and prosper despite the Chaos with investments, real estate, food, energy and self-defense. $11.95...Trade Paper..John L. King

SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER

Some economic realities. It Exposes the "grey men" and the secret government. The depression, new currency, new money and the debit card system, financial strategies across the board. The incorporation solution for all. $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL

Is privacy possible? This document contains very pragmatic "how to" and tactical suggestions to help you legally fade into the background. Topics are: IRS, credit cards, job surveillance, credit history, & more! $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON

We the people can bring Constitutional law back by recognizing the present unlawful government and taking action. Read the "how" and "why" of our current enslavement and solutions to freedom for all. $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

$$$$ Financial Reality Book Package $$$$

To Order By Credit Card Call: 800-729-4131 or Fax: 805-822-9658
Send Check or Money Order To: America West, P.O. Box 986 Tehachapi, Ca. 93581
Shipping Charges-UPS-$3.25 1st title, $1.00 each additional Book Rate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 each additional

ORDER 4 BOOKS
RECEIVE 10% OFF

Middle East Review

By A. N. Other

The center of world attention is focused on the Middle East as President Bush feverishly prepares for a second invasion, or an aerial assault against the sovereign nation of Iraq. It is not enough that the United States went to war in the Gulf once without a constitutional declaration of war mandated by the U.S. Constitution, but now President Bush, at the urging of the Royal Institute for International Affairs, wants to finish off the country and its leader, President Saddam Hussain.

Let us be certain about one thing, if the President orders a resumption of aerial bombardment or some other land action, it will be his second criminal violation of U.S. law. The President did NOT get a Congressional declaration of war. The President did the Texas two-step around the Constitution, and he did this only AFTER he had been to the United Nations. In other words, the President put the U.N. above the U.S. Constitution. What he got from the Congress was, as one so-called expert, interviewed on CNN called it, was "a sort of a declaration of war".

Let us be certain of a second thing. The U.S. does not legally belong to the U.N. That is right, we are not legally members of the U.N.

As a noted scholar wrote recently: "the U.S. is not legally a member of the U.N.--PERIOD! To get a clear picture of why we are not legally a member of the U.N., we need to turn to the Congressional Record covering the debates on the proposed U.S. membership of the League of Nations, the forerunner of the U.N. For the U.S. to have joined the League of Nations, an amendment to the U.S. Constitution would have had to be passed, giving the League the power to declare war, in other words, the U.S. Constitution would have been downgraded and made subservient to a foreign body, which the framers of our Constitution expressly forbade.

As the majority of our representatives at that time were OUR representatives, and not those of a foreign government, and we had a majority of Congressmen who took their oath of loyalty to the Constitution seriously, the Congress rejected the attempt to pass the necessary amendment and get the U.S. to join the League. This is relevant today, because NO AMENDMENT TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION HAS EVER BEEN PASSED WHICH NAKES THE U.S. A MEMBER OF THE U.N. NOR HAS ANY AMENDMENT TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION EVER BEEN PASSED WHICH GIVES THE RIGHT TO THE U.N. TO DECLARE WAR OVER AND ABOVE THE RIGHT OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION TO DECLARE WAR".

Since President Bush must know these facts, and we presume that his Secretary of State knows them, too, as he is a lawyer of notable standing, why then has the President of the United States resorted to criminal measures to prosecute a war against Iraq?

For the answer to the question, we need to examine what the late Gamel Abdul Nasser of Egypt called, "a dagger in the heart of Islam", namely, the entity artificially created by the Balfour Declaration, to wit, Israel. Ever since Eisenhower and Truman fell all over themselves in their unseemly haste to recognize Israel, the Middle East has been in a constant state of unrest and turmoil. This is a simple fact that none but the most prejudiced recognize.

On November 2, 1917, the so-called Balfour Declaration was presented to the world. This was not drawn up by Jews but by the Zionists. The top Zionist in England, Lord Rothschild, and not Arthur Balfour, actually signed the document although Balfour was in the cabinet, and therefore, should have been the one to sign it. Palestine, we were told, was where the British government decided the Jews would be given a homeland. The British government favored... "the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of that object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of the existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine."

Never mind the fact that Palestine was not theirs to give to the Zionists; never mind that the original inhabitants of Palestine were not in any way consulted about this momentous unilateral decision; never mind that the British government did not have the slightest legal right to make such a declaration in the name of Zionism, a so-called "Jewish state" was subsequently established by the powerful forces of ZIONISM, under the auspices and the protection of the British and United States governments.

The United States had No RIGHT to recognize the Balfour Declaration, nor the "Jewish homeland", since the so-called "mandate" for Palestine and Transjordan, assigned to Britain by the supreme council of the League of Nations on April 25, 1920, was not binding upon the U.S., AS THE UNITED STATES WAS NOT A MEMBER OF THE

continued from previous page

4. The changing of any of the documents recording the transaction;
5. If the debtor transfers money out of the country;
6. Assets being quickly resold for substantially more than the original conveyance; or
7. If demands are not made on demand notes or interest payments due.

START TODAY

Here is my advice. Make your transfers for a good business purpose. Keep good records of the terms and conditions of the transfer. Create a legitimate paper trail. And, most important, start protecting your assets ideally on the day you acquire them and minimally before the danger of creditors and lawsuits arise.

I've written articles and created lots of interesting techniques regarding asset protection as it relates to privacy, corporations, real estate and small business strategies. Write to me for a free copy of my report called: The Como Strategy on How to Get Judgment Proof. It includes the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act for your review.

My address is 91 Ewing Road, McKees Rocks, PA 15136. My phone number is: (412)-YES-YOU2.

continued from previous page

LEAGUE OF NATIONS as we have just seen. Therefore, it is my submission that all acts which sprang from the recognition of the Palestine-Transjordan British "mandate", should legally have been REJECTED BY SUCCESSIVE U.S. GOVERNMENTS. The fact that it was not demonstrates the power of Zionism.

Did the Zionist respect the provision of the Balfour Declaration, guaranteed by the British government, "it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done to prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in 'Palestine'?"

No, they did not. Instead, they set about formulating plans that would drive the Arabs and Palestinians from their land, through intimidation and terror-tactics, in which the current prime minister, Yitzak Shamir became a specialist, a fact which he not only recently was quite happy and pleased to confirm, but which he claimed was necessary for the future of the Jews.

On May 1-6 1921, the Arabs, who were slowly waking up to what had been done without their consent, engaged in serious protest riots against the sudden influx of Jews and the acquisition of their land by Zionist interests.

The British high commissioner promulgated a constitution for Palestine which would have consisted of an appointed executive council and a partly elective legislative council. The Arabs and Palestinians refused to participate, just as the Palestinians are doing today with the Bush-Baker-Zionist "peace process", and the constitution could not be put into effect.

On May 26, 1923, Transjordan was separated from the Palestine "mandate" and organized into an autonomous state, ruled since April 1921 by Emir Abdullah Ibn Hussein, son of the shirif of Mecca and a direct descendant of the prophet Mohammed. Later, with financial and military assistance, and backed in full by the British government the Wababi and Saud families (who are not true Arabs), deposed Hussein and took possession by force of the holy city of Mecca, burial place of the prophet Mohammed.

The story of that nasty piece of betrayal and treachery will have to be left for another time but it is worth noting because it has a direct bearing on the illegal Bush Gulf war of genocide against the sovereign nation of Iraq.

On February 20, 1928 Transjordan was recognized as independent, the British retaining a small amount of military and financial control, as the High Commissioner Field Marshall Plummer stated at the time. The Palestinians, not seeing any progress in their legitimate protests against the influx of Jews into their ancestral lands, were secretly incited and spurred on by British intelligence agents acting on orders of Sir William Stephenson, who encouraged and even urged Jews to pray at the Wailing Wall, which was on the site of the Dome of the Rock Mosque, Islam's second-most holy place.

This insult, on top of everything else, resulted in the first large-scale attacks by Arabs on Jews praying at the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem, and gave the necessary excuse to the Zionist agents to prepare for all-out "counter-measures" against the Arabs. On May 17, 1930, a decree signed by Sir Walter Shaw as head of a British committee investigating the unrest, restricted further Jewish immigration (in terms of the Balfour Declaration), but it was not recognized by the Zionists who organized and led a Jewish strike in protest and waged a world-wide media campaign in support of the Jews.

On October 20, 1930, the British government tried to deal with the unrest in the Passfield White Paper, following the report of Sir John Hope Simpson. The report recommended that no more Jews be allowed into Palestine and that Jews not be allowed to acquire any more land. But Zionism demonstrated once again that it had the power to override any decisions by national governments it deemed not in its favor, and on July 14, 1931, high commissioner Sir Arthur Wauchope relaxed immigration and land acquisition restrictions imposed by the Passfield White Paper. This action subsequently led to three Zionist wars against the Arabs, and plunged the "dagger in the heart of Islam".

The Arabs continued to riot in protest and on October 12, 1936, the British government appointed the Peel Commission to investigate and make recommendations about the constant uproar in Palestine. The Peel Commission published its report on July 8, 1937, recommending that Palestine be partitioned as it was convinced that the Jews and Arabs could never live together under the same government.

The Peel Commission recommended that 3 separate states be established (1) A Jewish state, about one-third of the total land, taking in a maximum of 300,000 Jews and 200,000 Arabs, the bulk of the land being retained by the Arabs and Palestinians to whom it rightfully belonged. (2) A British mandate comprised of Jaffa, Jerusalem and Bethlehem. (3) An Arab state, united with Transjordan.

The Zionists were furious and at once set out to undermine and prevent the report being implemented. The Zionist action was because the Jews were armed by the United States and Britain. This action led directly to the establishment of the State of Israel, the dispossession of Arabs and Palestinians until they were driven off their lands and became homeless refugees. Thus was created "the Palestinian problem" which should be properly and correctly described as "the Zionist problem".

In a final effort to avoid war between the Palestinians and the Zionist invaders, the British government held a conference in London called "the Palestine Conference" in February and March 1939. The British decision provided for an independent State of Palestine in ten years in a treaty relationship with Great Britain. Arabs and Jews were to share in the government in a manner that would ensure equal rights for both. Five years later, a representative body would draw up a constitution which would provide the Jews with a homeland.

Immigration was to stop in five years from the date of new state. In the interim, only 75,000 Jews would be admitted to Palestine, thus balancing by 1944 the Jewish population with their territory, i.e., one-third of the land. No more Jewish acquisition of land would be permitted.

The British Parliament approved the plan. Interestingly enough, following a tremendous lobbying effort by British Zionists the plan passed by a very slim majority of 89 votes, the margin in all votes usually being in the region of 200. The Zionists then embarked on a violent denunciation of the British government and those MP's who voted for the plan.

This set the stage for what was to follow after the Second World War, when a Captain Hill of the British Secret Intelligence Service was dispatched to Palestine to train the Irgun and Stern terrorist gangs who were equipped with arms the limited States agreed to send from its army stockpiles in Germany. Captain Hill had trained Lev Bronstein (alias Trotsky), and his presence and the training provided by the chief of British Intelligence, Sir William Stephenson, is what tipped the scales in favor of the Zionists in the Israeli-Arab War which followed.

Did the Zionists really have a claim to the land of Palestine, and was this claim staked out on behalf of all Jews? The answer to both questions is "no". Neither historically, traditionally nor by religion, did the Jews have a claim to Palestine which had belonged to the Palestinians for 4000 years.

In any event, 90 percent of the Jews in the world, then as now, had never set foot in Palestine, nor had their antecedents. The Jews who were being sent to Palestine were for the major part all Ashkenazi European Jews of Indo-Turk origin, that is to say, they were the descendants of the Khazars.

Very little was known until fairly recent times about this large, war-like heathen race which dominated a large area of what is today Russia. All mention of this race was removed from history books, and

continued on next page

Protocols of the meetings of the learned elders of Zion

continued from previous page

even from the Encyclopedia Britannica. The Khazars were phallic worshipers with filthy mannerisms, so much so that the Khazar King Bulant decided that the nation needed to adopt a formal religion to improve itself.

Judaism was chosen over Christianity and the Islamic religion, and by a special decree, King Bulant and his 4,000 advisors converted en-masse to Judaism. The newly converted Khazars had previously never had the slightest connection with Palestine.

They had no roots in Palestine, either by religion, racially or through the soil. Thus the move by Zionism to establish a "homeland" for the Jews in Palestine was fraudulent, and neither a religious nor historical move, but purely one dominated by political considerations, one which orthodox Jews did not favor and did not want, which is still their position today.

Fear that the truth might be uncovered as to where the bulk of modern Jewry originated caused a worldwide Zionist crusade to remove all traces of the Khazars from history and was largely successful. The fact that the Jews were being sent to Palestine was sold to Christian Fundamentalists in the United States as "the beginning of the Jewish return to Israel", as portrayed in the Bible, demonstrates their ability to mislead this large Christian group, and indeed most Christian groups in the U.S.

In the next two articles on the Middle East, we shall see how Zionism was able to tighten its grip upon Palestine. We shall also learn of how the Zionists planned all along, as revealed in the "Protocols of Zion," to make of Israel an empire in the Middle East, one which would enslave and dominate all other nations and races.

We shall learn, thanks to the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, just how that plan has unfolded and how far it has progressed. We shall also perceive that all nations are today dominated by the Zionists, and this is particularly so in the case of the United States, who, more than any other nation, has helped "Israel" with huge amounts of military weaponry and money, beginning with the Irgun and Stern gangs--to which former prime minister Began and Yitzak Shamir belonged.

We shall also be able to observe that President Bush's designs to utterly annihilate the Iraqi people and murder their leaders, is dictated to him by the Zionists, who have put their plan to invade Jordan "on hold" until the issue of Iraq is decided. Should President Bush successfully carry out his Zionist mission in Iraq, then I expect to see mass deportations of Palestinians and Arabs to Iraq, rather than to Jordan.

Not that Jordan will go free; on the contrary, the plan has been from the beginning to get rid of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan as a slap in the face to Islam. When Israel moves into Jordan, we shall see the start of a massive war between Islam and the Zionists, with the United States squarely on the side of the aggressor Zionist state.

(This article is the first of three parts)

2/11/91 HATONN

One more time, chelas. I don't know how to get this information across to you but you WILL GET IT ONE WAY OR ANOTHER OR YOU ARE NOT GOING TO PULL YOURSELVES OUT OF THIS QUAGMIRE!

Dharma, we are going to take a break and then we will begin the tedious task of dictating the "PROTOCOLS" (again), but this time in full, exactly as translated from start to finish by Victor E. Marsden--FROM THE RUSSIAN SCRIPTS. This man became a victim of this "Revolution" and spent time in prison for his efforts to inform the people. So it goes with the ones who have given all to give you Truth. I give great honor to this man.

Marsden lived in Russia for many years and was married to a Russian lady. As Russian correspondent to the Morning Post, his fearless description of the events in 1917 incurred the anger of the Soviets. He was arrested and thrown into the Peter-Paul Prison. When he was finally allowed to return to England after two years, his health had been seriously affected. One of his first tasks as soon as he was able was this translation of the PROTOCOLS, which necessitated many hours' work at the British Museum. He later became the Morning Post special correspondent in the suite of H.R.H., the Prince of Wales, on his Empire tour.

But within a few days of his return from the tour, he died after a brief illness (undisclosed, of course).

PROFESSOR NILUS

This is the person to remember:

Professor Sergyei Nilus was a priest in the Orthodox Church in Russia. He published the first Russian language edition in 1905. In his introduction he says that a manuscript had been handed to him about four years before by a friend, who vouched that it was a true translation of an original document stolen by a woman from one of the most influential and highly initiated leaders of Freemasonry, at the end of a meeting of the initiated in France, "that nest of Jewish-Masonic conspiracy." Nilus adds that the Protocols are not exactly minutes of meetings, but a report, with a part apparently missing, made by some very powerful persons.

In January, 1917, Nilus had prepared a second edition but before it could be put on the market the revolution of March 1917 had taken place and Kerenski ordered the whole edition to be destroyed. Later Nilus was arrested by the Bolshevik Cheka, imprisoned and tortured. He was exiled and died in Vladimir on 13th January, 1929.

So be it and, again, may ye be given into the hearing and understanding of that which is being given unto you for it is the direct PROTOCOLS as given forth from the ANTI-CHRIST TO HIS PEOPLE FOR THE FINAL TAKING CONTROL OF PLANET EARTH!

continued from previous page

IF YE KNOW NOT THINE ENEMY, HOW CAN YE STAND AGAINST HIM? SALU.

Hatonn to stand-by, summon me when you are ready to continue. Thank you.

Gyeorgos C. Hatonn, Cmdr.
UFF-IGFC

2/11/91 HATONN

VICTOR E. MARSDEN

As preface to this segment regarding the Protocols, let us speak of the translator, Victor E. Marsden.

The author of this translation of the famous PROTOCOLS was himself a victim of the Revolution. He had lived for many years in Russia and was married to a Russian lady. Among his other activities in Russia he had been, for a number of years, Russian Correspondent of the Morning Post, a position which he occupied when the Revolution broke out, and his vivid descriptions of events in Russia will still be in the recollection of many of the readers of that journal. Naturally, he was singled out for the anger of the Soviets. On the day that Captain Cromie was murdered by Jews, Victor Marsden was arrested and thrown into the Peter-Paul Prison, expecting every day to have his name called out for execution. This, however, he escaped, and eventually he was allowed to return to England, very much of a wreck in bodily health. However, he recovered under treatment and the devoted care of his wife and friends. One of the first things he undertook as soon as he was able was this translation of the Protocols. Mr. Marsden was eminently well-qualified for the work. His intimate acquaintance with Russia, Russian life and the Russian language on the one hand, and his mastery of a terse literary English style on the other, placed him in a position of advantage which few others could claim. The consequence is that you have in his an eminently readable work and though the subject-matter is somewhat formless, Mr. Marsden's literary touch reveals the thread running through the twenty-four Protocols. The Summary placed at the head of each is Mr. Marsden's own, and will be found very useful in acquiring a comprehensive view of its scope.

It may be said with truth that this work was carried out at the cost of Mr. Marsden's own life's blood. He told the writer of the Preface that he could not stand more than an hour at a time of his work on it in the British Museum, as the diabolical spirit of the matter which he was obliged to turn into English made him positively ill.

Mr. Marsden's connection with the Morning Post was not severed by his return to England, and he was well enough to accept the post of special correspondent of that journal in the suite of H.R.H., the Prince of Wales, on his Empire tour. From this he returned with the Prince, apparently in much better health, but within a few days of his landing he was taken suddenly ill, and died after a very brief illness.

May this work be his crowning monument! In it he has performed an immense service to the English-speaking world, and there can be little doubt that it will take its place in the first rank of the English versions of "The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion."

I remind all of you readers that if you simply sit down and consider this "Jewish" material, you are grossly in error for the Zionists have all but destroyed the very substance of the Jews. If you are not aware of this information--be patient for it was NEVER INTENDED that any of you have this information but the time is at hand for the pressing of information upon you ones who have been subject to lies projected year after endless year and it is time for the unveiling of the prophecies and the "players" put into perspective.

We will present the "INTRODUCTION" as given (1922) for it is most explanatory.

Of the Protocols themselves little need be said in the way of introduction. The book in which they are embodied was published by Sergyei Nilus in Russia in 1905. A copy of this is in the British Museum bearing the date of its reception August 10, 1906, so I suggest you not allow anyone to tell you this is a hoax and that this group or the Protocols "do not exist"! All copies that were known to exist in Russia were destroyed in the Keren-sky regime, and under his successors the possession of copy by anyone in Sovietland was a crime sufficient to ensure the owners being shot on sight! That fact is in itself sufficient proof of the genuineness of the Protocols. The Jewish journals, of course, say that they are a forgery, leaving it to be understood that Professor Nilus, who embodied them in a work of his own, had concocted them for his own purposes.

Mr. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the New York World, February 17, 1921, put the case for Nilus tersely and convincingly thus:

"The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW."

And, indeed, they still do--with more direct impact than ever before.

The word "Protocol" signifies a precis gummed on to the front of a document, a draft of a document, minutes of proceedings. In this instance "Protocol" means "minutes of the proceedings" of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion. These Protocols give the substance of addresses delivered to the innermost circle of the Rulers of Zion. They reveal the concerted plan of action of the Jewish Nation developed through the ages and edited by the Elders themselves up to date. Parts and summaries of the plan have been published from time to time during the centuries as the secrets of the Elders have leaked out. The claim of the Jews that the Protocols are forgeries is in itself an admission of their genuineness, for they never attempt to answer the facts corresponding to the threats which the Protocols contain, and, indeed, the correspondence between prophecy and fulfillment is too glaring to be set aside or obscured. This the Jews well know and therefore evade.

The presumption is strong that the Protocols were issued, or re-issued, at the First Zionist Congress held in Basle in 1897 under the presidency of the Father of Modern Zionism, the late Theodore Herzl.

There has been published a volume of Herzl's "Diaries," a translation of some passages of which appeared in the Jewish Chronicle of July 14, 1922. Herzl gives an account of his first visit to England in 1895, and his conversation with Colonel Goldsmid, a Jew brought up as a Christian, an Officer in the English Army, and at heart a Jew nationalist all the time. Goldsmid suggested to Herzl that the best way of expropriating the English Aristocracy and so destroying their power to protect the people of England against Jew domination, was to put excessive taxes on the land. Herzl thought this an excellent idea, and it is now to be found definitely embodied in Protocol VI!

The above extract from Herzl's Diary then is an extremely significant bit of evidence bearing on the existence of the Jew World Plot and authenticity of the Protocols, but any reader of intelligence will be able from his own knowledge of recent history and from his own experience to confirm the genuineness of every line of them, and it is in the light of this living comment that all readers are invited to study Mr. Marsden's translation of this terribly inhuman document.

And here is another very significant circumstance. The successor to Herzl as leader of the Zionist movement (1922), Dr. Weizmann, quoted one of these sayings at the send-off banquet given to Chief Rabbi Herzl on October 6, 1920. The Chief Rabbi was at the point of leaving for his Empire tour--a sort of Jewish answer to the Empire tour of H.R.H., the Prince of Wales. And this is the "saying" of the Sages which Dr. Weizmann quoted: "A beneficent protection which God has instituted in the life of the Jew is that He has dispersed him all over the world." (Jewish Guardian, Oct. 8, 1920.)

continued on next page

continued from previous page

Now compare this with the last clause but one of Protocol XI, "God has granted to us, His Chosen People, the gift of dispersion, and from this, which appears to all eyes to be our weakness, has come forth all our strength, which has now brought us to the threshold of sovereignty over all the world."

The remarkable correspondence between these passages proves several things. It proves that the Learned Elders exist. It proves that Dr. Weizmann knows all about them. It proves that the desire for a "National Home" in Palestine is only camouflage and an infinitesimal part of the Jew's real object. It proves that the Jews of the world have no intention of settling in Palestine or any separate country, and that their annual prayer that they may all meet "Next Year in Jerusalem" is merely a piece of their characteristic make-believe. It also demonstrates that the Jews are a world menace, and that the Aryan races will have to domicile them permanently out of Europe.

WHO ARE THE ELDERS?

This is a secret which has not been revealed (remember, this is written in 1922). They are the Hidden Hand. They are not the "Board of Deputies" (the Jewish Parliament in England) or the "Universal Israelite Alliance" which sit in Paris. But the late Walter Rathenau of the Allgemeiner Electricitaets Gesellschaft has thrown a little light on the subject and doubtless he was in possession of their names, being, in all likelihood, one of the chief leaders himself. Writing in the Wiener Freie Presse, December 24, 1912, he said:

"Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of the European continent, and they elect their successors from their entourage." Shudder now, chelas, for it adds up does it not? Yea, even unto the numbering!

A FIFTEENTH CENTURY "PROTOCOL"

The principles and morality of these latter-day Protocols are as old as the tribe. Here is one from the Fifteenth Century which Jews can hardly pronounce a forgery, seeing that it is taken from a Rothschild (ouch) journal.

The Revue des etudes Juives, financed by James de Rothschild, published in 1889 two documents which showed how true the Protocols are in saying that the Learned Elders of Zion have been carrying on their plan for centuries. On January 13, 1489, Chemor, Jewish Rabbi of Arles in Provence, wrote to the Grand Sanhedrim, which had its seat in Constantinople, for advice, as the people of Arles were threatening the synagogues. What should the Jews do? This was the reply:

"Dear beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

"The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

"1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be kept in your hearts.

"2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods" (the law was that on becoming converted, Jews gave up their possessions); "make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

"3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives.

"4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

"5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

"6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

"Signed V.S.S.V.F.F.,
Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue
(November), 1489"

In the year 1844, on the eve of the Jewish Revolution of 1848, Benjamin Disraeli, whose real name was Israel, and who was a "damped," or baptized Jew, published his novel, Coningsby, in which occurs this ominous passage:

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

And he went on to show that these personages were all Jews.

Now that Providence has brought to the light of day these secret Protocols all men may clearly see the hidden personages specified by Disraeli at work "behind the scenes" of all the Governments. This revelation entails on all white peoples the grave responsibility of examining and revising au fond their attitude towards the Race and nation which boasts of its survival over all Empires.

NOTES

I.--"Agentur" and "The Political."

There are two words in this translation which are unusual, the work "Agentur" and "political" used as a substantive. Agentur appears to be a word adopted from the original and it means the whole body of agents and agencies made use of by the Elders, whether members of the tribe or their Gentile tools.

By "the Political" Mr. Marsden means, not exactly the "body politic" but the entire machinery of politics. And dear ones, it is so stated in the prophecies of Revelation that the anti-Christ would spring from this "vast sea" (of Politics).

II.--The Symbolic Snake of Judaism

Protocol III opens with a reference to the Symbolic Snake of Judaism. In his Epilogue to the 1905 Edition of the Protocols Nilus gives the following interesting account of this symbol:

According to the records of secret Jewish Zionism, Solomon and other Jewish learned men already, in 929 B.C., thought out a scheme in theory for a peaceful conquest of the whole universe by Zion.

As history developed, this scheme was worked out in detail and completed by men who were subsequently initiated in this question. These learned men decided by peaceful means to conquer the world for Zion with the slyness of the Symbolic Snake, whose head was to represent those who have been initiated into the plans of the Jewish administration, and the body of the Snake to represent the Jewish people--the administration was always kept secret, even from the Jewish nation itself. As this Snake penetrated into the hearts of the nations which it encountered, it undermined and devoured all the non-Jewish power of these States. It is foretold that the Snake has still to finish its work, strictly adhering to the designed plan, until the course which it has to run is closed by the return of its head to Zion and until, by this means, the Snake has completed its round of Europe and has encircled it--and until, by dint of enchaining Europe, it has encompassed the whole world. This it is to accomplish by using every endeavor to subdue the other countries by an economic conquest.

The return of the head of the Snake to Zion can only be accomplished after the power of all the Sovereigns of Europe has been laid low, that is to say, when by means of economic crises and wholesale destruction effected everywhere, there shall have been brought about a spiritual demoralization and a moral corrup-

continued on next page

continued from previous page

ion, chiefly with the assistance of Jewish women masquerading as French, Italians, etc. These are the surest spreaders of licentiousness into the lives of the leading men at the heads of nations.

A map of the course of the Symbolic Snake is shown as follows: Its first stage in Europe was in 429 B.C. in Greece, where, about the time of Pericles, the Snake first started eating into the power of that country. The second stage was in Rome in the time of Augustus, about 69 B.C. The third in Madrid in the time of Charles V., in A.D. 1552. The fourth in Paris about 1790, in the time of Louis XVI. The fifth in London from 1814 onwards (after the downfall of Napoleon). The sixth in Berlin in 1871 after the Franco-Prussian war. The seventh in St. Petersburg, over which is drawn the head of the Snake under the date of 1881.

All these states which the Snake traversed have had the foundations of their constitutions shaken; Germany, with its apparent power, forming no exception to the rule. In economic conditions Russia is accomplished by the Snake, on which at present (i.e., 1905) all its efforts are concentrated. The further course of the Snake is not shown on this map, but arrows indicate its next movement towards Moscow, Kieff, and Odessa.

It is now well known to us to what extent the latter cities form the centers of the militant Jewish race. Constantinople is shown as the last stage of the Snake's course before it reaches Jerusalem. (This map was drawn years before the occurrence of the "Young Turk"--i.e. Jewish--Revolution in Turkey.)

III.--The term "Goyim" meaning Gentiles or non-Jews, is used throughout the Protocols and is retained by Mr. Marsden.

PROTOCOLS

OF THE MEETINGS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

PROTOCOL NO. 1

Right lies in Might. Freedom--an idea only. Liberalism. Gold. Faith. Self-Government. Despotism of Capital. The Internal Foe. The Mob. Anarchy. Politics versus Morals. The Right of the Strong. The Invincibility of Jew-Masonic authority. End justifies Means. The Mob a Blind Man. Political A.B.C. party Discord. Most satisfactory form of rule--Despotism. Alcohol. Classicism. Corruption. Principles and rules of the Jew-Masonic Government. Terror. "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity." Principle of Dynastic Rule. Annihilation of the privileges of the Goy-Aristocracy (i.e., non-Jew). The New Aristocracy. The Psychological Calculation. Abstractness of "Liberty". Power of Removal of Representatives of the People.

Putting aside the fine phrases we shall speak of the significance of each thought: by comparisons and deductions we shall throw light upon surrounding facts.

What I am about to set forth, then, is our system from the two points of view, that of ourselves and that of the goyim, i.e., non-Jews).

It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorization, and not by academic discussions. Every man aims at power, everyone would like to become a dictator if only he could, and rare indeed are the men who would not be willing to sacrifice the welfare of all for the sake of securing their own welfare.

What has restrained the beasts of prey who are called men? What has served for their guidance hitherto?

In the beginnings of the structure of society they were subjected to brutal and blind force; afterwards--to Law, which is the same force, only disguised. I draw the conclusion that by the law of nature right lies in force.

Political freedom is an idea but not a fact. This idea one must know how to apply whenever it appears necessary with this bait of an idea to attract the masses of the people to one's party for the purpose of crushing another who is in authority. This task is rendered easier if the opponent has himself been infected with the idea of freedom, so-called liberalism, and, for the sake of an idea, is willing to yield some of his power. It is precisely here that the triumph of our theory appears; the slackened reins of government are immediately, by the law of life, caught up and gathered together by a new hand, because the blind might of the nation cannot for one single day exist without guidance, and the new authority merely fits into the place of the old already weakened by liberalism.

In our day the power which has replaced that of the rulers who were liberal is the power of Gold. Time was when Faith ruled. The idea of freedom is impossible of realization because no one knows how to use it with moderation. It is enough to hand over a people to self-government for a certain length of time for that people to be turned into a disorganized mob. From that moment on we get internecine strife which soon develops into battles between classes, in the midst of which States burn down and their importance is reduced to that of a heap of ashes.

Whether a State exhausts itself in its own convulsions, whether its internal discord brings it under the power of external foes--in any case it can be accounted irretrievably lost; it is in our power. The despotism of Capital, which is entirely in our hands, reaches out to it a straw that the State, willy-nilly, must take hold of: if not--it goes to the bottom.

Should anyone of a liberal mind say that such reflections as the above are immoral I would put the following questions: If every State has two foes and if in regard to the external foe it is allowed and not considered immoral to use every manner and art of conflict, as for example to keep the enemy in ignorance of plans of attack and defence, to attack him by night or in superior numbers, then in what way can the same means in regard to a worse foe, the destroyer of the structure of society and the commonwealth, be called immoral and not permissible?

Is it possible for any sound logical mind to hope with any success to guide crowds by the aid of reasonable counsels and arguments, when any objection or contradiction, senseless though it may be, can be made and when such objection may find more favor with the people, whose powers of reasoning are superficial? Men in masses and the men of the masses, being guided solely by petty passions, paltry beliefs, customs, traditions and sentimental theories, fall a prey to party dissension, which hinders any kind of agreement even on the basis of a perfectly reasonable argument. Every resolution of a crowd depends upon a chance or packed majority, which, in its ignorance of political secrets, puts forth some ridiculous resolution that lays in the administration a seed of anarchy.

The political has nothing in common with the moral. The ruler who is governed by the moral is not a skilled politician, and is therefore unstable on his throne. He who wishes to rule must have recourse both to cunning and to make-believe. Great national qualities, like frankness and honesty, are vices in politics, for they bring down rulers from their thrones more effectively and more certainly than the most powerful enemy. Such qualities must be the attributes of the kingdoms of the goyim, but we must in no wise be guided by them.

Our right lies in force. The word "right" is an abstract thought and proved by nothing. The word means no more than: Give me what I want in order that thereby I may have a proof that I am stronger than you.

Where does right begin? Where does it end?

In any State in which there is a bad

continued on next page

continued from previous page

organization of authority, an impersonality of laws and of the rulers who have lost their personality amid the flood of rights ever multiplying out of liberalism, I find a new right—to attack by the right of the strong, and to scatter to the winds all existing forces of order and regulation, to reconstruct all institutions and to become the sovereign lord of those who have left to us the rights of their power by laying them down voluntarily in their liberalism.

Our power in the present tottering condition of all forms of power will be more invincible than any other, because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it.

Out of the temporary evil we are now compelled to commit will emerge the good of an unshakable rule, which will restore the regular course of the machinery of the national life, brought to nought by liberalism. The result justifies the means. Let us, however, in our plans, direct our attention not so much to what is good and moral as to what is necessary and useful.

Before us is a plan in which is laid down strategically the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught.

In order to elaborate satisfactory forms of action it is necessary to have regard to the rascality, the slackness, the instability of the mob, its lack of capacity to understand and respect the conditions of its own life, or its own welfare. It must be understood that the might of a mob is blind, senseless and unreasoning force ever at the mercy of a suggestion from any side. The blind cannot lead the blind without bringing them into the abyss; consequently, members of the mob, upstarts from the people even though they should be as a genius for wisdom, yet having no understanding of the political, cannot come forward as leaders of the mob without bringing the whole nation to ruin.

Only one trained from childhood for independent rule can have understanding of the words that can be made up of the political alphabet.

A people left to itself, i.e., to upstarts from its midst, brings itself to ruin by party dissensions excited by the pursuit of power and honors and the disorders arising therefrom. Is it possible for the masses of the people calmly and without petty jealousies to form judgments, to deal with the affairs of the country, which cannot be mixed up with personal interests? Can they defend themselves from an external foe? It is unthinkable, for a plan broken up into as many parts as there are heads in the mob, loses all homogeneity, and thereby becomes unintelligible and impossible of execution.

It is only with a despotic ruler that plans can be elaborated extensively and clearly in such a way as to distribute the whole property among the several parts of the machinery of the state; from this the conclusion is inevitable that a satisfactory form of government for any country is one that concentrates in the hands of one responsible person. Without an absolute despotism there can be no existence for civilization which is carried on not by the masses but by their guide, whosoever that person may be. The mob is a savage and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery.

Behold the alcoholized animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the goyim are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been inducted by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the houses of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the goyim. In the number of these last I count also the so-called "society ladies", voluntary followers of the others in corruption and luxury.

Our countersign is--Force and Make-believe. Only force conquers in political affairs, especially if it be concealed in the talents essential to statesmen. Violence must be the principle, and cunning the make-believe the rule for governments which do not want to lay down their crowns at the feet of agents of some new power. This evil is the one and only means to attain the end, the good. Therefore we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery when they should serve towards the attainment of our end. In politics one must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation if by it we secure submission and sovereignty.

Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right to replace the horrors of war by less noticeable and more satisfactory sentences of death, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State; not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty, for the sake of victory, we must keep the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves as by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super-government. It is enough for them to know that we are merciless for all disobedience to cease.

Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of people the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," words many times repeated since those days by stupid poll-parrots who from all sides round flew down upon these baits and with them carried away the well-being of the world, true freedom of the individual, formerly so well guarded against the pressure of the mob. The would-be wise men of the goyim, the intellectuals, could not make anything out of the uttered words in their abstractness; did not see that in nature there is no equality, cannot be freedom; that Nature herself has established inequality of minds, of characters, and capacities, just as immutably as she has established subordination to her laws; never stopped to think that the mob is a blind thing, that upstarts elected from among it to bear rule are, in regard to the political, the same blind men as the mob itself, that the adept, though he be a fool, can yet rule, whereas the non-adept, even if he were a genius, understands nothing in the political—to all these things the goyim paid no regard; yet all the time it was based upon these things that dynastic rule rested; the father passed on to the son a knowledge of the course of political affairs in such wise that none should know it but members of the dynasty and none would betray it to the governed. As time went on the meaning of the dynastic transference of the true position of affairs in the political was lost, and this aided the success of our cause.

In all corners of the earth the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the goyim, putting an end everywhere to peace, quiet, solidarity and destroying all the foundations of the goya States. As you will see later, this helped us to our triumph; it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card—the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the aristocracy of the goyim, that class which was the only defence peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the natural and genealogical aristocracy of the goyim we have set up the aristocracy of our educated class headed by the aristocracy of money. The qualifications for this aristocracy we have established in wealth, which is dependent upon us, and in knowledge, for which our learned elders provide the motive force.

Our triumph has been rendered easier by the fact that in our relations with the men whom we wanted to have always worked upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, upon the cash account, upon the cupidity, upon the insatiability for material needs of man; and each one of the human weaknesses, taken alone, is sufficient to paralyze initiative, for it hands over the will of men to the disposition of him who has bought their activities.

continued on next page

PROTOCOL NO. 2

continued from previous page

The abstraction of freedom has enabled us to persuade the mob in all countries that their government is nothing but the steward of the people who are the owners of the country, and that the steward may be replaced like a worn-out glove.

It is this possibility of replacing the representative of the people which has placed them at our disposal, and, as it were, given us the power of appointment.

[Hatonn:

Let us now continue on with the PROTOCOLS. Please realize as you read these that they are being copied from a presentation three quarters of a century past and more than hundreds of years in the constant updating--THESE ARE THE GUIDELINES (BLUEPRINTS) OF SATAN FOR HIS PEOPLE AGAINST YOU OF GOD'S PEOPLE. THEY ARE THE INSTRUCTION FOR THE ANTI-CHRIST FORCES UNTO THE DAY OF ARMAGEDDON. IT IS NIGH UNTO THE TIME OF THE CONCLUSION OF THIS PLAY IN WHICH YOU PARTICIPATE AND THERE ARE MYRIADS OF SURPRISES AWAITING YOU--NOTHING OF EVIL SHALL PASS INTO THE PLACES OF GOD--THAT MAY WELL MEAN, DEAR ONES, THAT THAT WHICH IS OF GOD SHALL BE LIFTED OUT OF THE PITS OF EVIL AND THE EVIL BE LEFT TO DEVOUR ITSELF UPON THE CARCASS OF THAT WHICH IS LIMITED, OPPRESSIVE AND ALREADY IN A STATE OF "HELL". GOD AND YE OF GOD, DO NOT NEED NOR DESIRE THAT WHICH IS OF EVIL AND YOU WILL TRUST IN CREATOR TO SORT AND TEND OF HIS FLOCKS. SO BE IT AND SELAH.]

Economic Wars--the foundation of the Jewish predominance. Figure-head government and "secret advisers." Successes of destructive doctrines. Adaptability in politics. Part played by the Press. Cost of gold and value of Jewish sacrifice.

It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our predominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur; which possesses millions of eyes ever on the wealth and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rule the relations of their subjects among themselves.

The administrators, whom we shall choose from among the public, with strict regard to their capacities for servile obedience, will not be persons trained in the arts of government, and will therefore easily become pawns in our game in the hands of men of learning and genius who will be their advisers, specialists bred and reared from early childhood to rule the affairs of the whole world. As is well known to you, these specialists of ours have been drawing to fit them for rule the information they need from our political plans from the lessons of history, from observations made in the events of every moment as it passes. The goyim are not guided by practical use of unprejudiced historical observation, but by theoretical routine without any critical regard for consequent results. We need not, therefore, take any account of them--let them amuse themselves until the hour strikes, or live on hopes of new forms of enterprising pastime, or on the memories of all they have enjoyed. For them let that play the principal part which we have persuaded them to accept as the dictates of science (theory). It is with this object in view that we are constantly, by means of our press, arousing a blind confidence in these theories. The intellectuals of the goyim will puff themselves up with their knowledge and without any logical verification of them will put into effect all the information available from science, which our agentur specialists have cunningly pieced together for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction we want.

Do not suppose for a moment that these statements are empty words: think carefully of the successes we arranged for Darwinism, Marxism, Nietzsche-ism. To us Jews, at any rate, it should be plain to see what a disintegrating importance these directives have had upon the minds of the goyim.

It is indispensable for us to take account of the thoughts, characters, tendencies of the nations in order to avoid making slips in the political and in the direction of administrative affairs. The triumph of our system, of which the component parts of the machinery may be variously disposed according to the temperament of the peoples met on our way, will fail of success if the practical application of it be not based upon a summing up of the lessons of the past in the light of the present.

In the hands of the States of today there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing out requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim.

[Hatonn: Oh, dear Dharma, I understand your weakness and desire to leave this document--please, chela, we must go on for we are finally coming to the ability to present this to hearing ears for the first time upon your planet! God shall give you that tenacity necessary to give forth our Word. I stand present with you and I protect you with the shield of Light that cannot be penetrated by anything of the "physical".]

PROTOCOL NO. 3

The symbolic Snake and its significance. The instability of the constitutional scales. Terror in the palaces. Power and ambition. Parliaments "talkeries," pamphlets. Abuse of power. Economic slavery. "People's Rights." Monopolist system and the aristocracy. The Army of Mason-Jewry. Decrescence of the Goyim. Hunger and rights of capital. The mob and the coronation of "The Sovereign Lord of all the World." The fundamental precept in the programme of the future masonic national schools. The secret of the science of the structure of society. Universal economic crisis. Security of "ours" (i.e., our people, Jews). The despotism of Masonry--the kingdom of reason. Loss of the guide. masonry and the great French Revolution. The King-Despot of the blood of Zion. Causes of the invincibility of Masonry. Part played by secret Masonic agents. Freedom.

Today I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole long path we have trodden is ready now to close its cycle of the Symbolic Snake, by which we symbolize our people. When this ring closes, all the State of Europe will be locked in its coil as in a powerful vise. [Hatonn: If you cannot see it, chelas, then I pity you as a people beyond that which is comprehensible.]

continued on next page

continued from previous page

The constitution scales of these days will shortly break down, for we have established them with a certain lack of accurate balance in order that they may oscillate incessantly until they wear through the pivot on which they turn. The goyim are under the impression that they have welded them sufficiently strong and they have all along kept on expecting that the scales would come into equilibrium. But the pivots--the kings on their thrones--are hemmed in by their representatives, who play the fool, distraught with their own uncontrolled and irresponsible power. This power they owe to the terror which has been breathed into the palaces. As they have no means of getting at their people, into their very midst, the kings on their thrones are no longer able to come to terms with them and so strengthen themselves against seekers after power. We have made a gulf between the far-seeing Sovereign Power and the blind force of the people so that both have lost all meaning, for like the blind man and his stick, both are powerless apart.

In order to incite seekers after power to a misuse of power we have set all forces in opposition one to another, breaking up their liberal tendencies towards independence. To this end we have stirred up every form of enterprise, we have armed all parties, we have set up authority as a target for every ambition. Of States we have made gladiatorial arenas where a host of confused issues contend. . . A little more, and disorders and bankruptcy will be universal. . .

Babblers inexhaustible have turned into oratorical contests the sittings of Parliament and Administrative Boards. Bold journalists and unscrupulous pamphleteers daily fall upon executive officials. Abuses of power will put the final touch in preparing all institutions for their overthrow and everything will fly skyward under the blows of the maddened mob.

To be continued in the next Express

Knowing the Truth will set you Free from the consequences of your ignorance

SEPTEMBER 16, 1991
SANANDA

Greetings, Precious Druthea. I AM Sananda. I come in the service of our Holy Divine Father God of Light, and to you my brethren.

COMING TO TERMS WITH IMPENDING EARTH UPHEAVAL

This day is a most uncomfortable day for my scribe and for many of you who feel a tremendous tide of uncertainty about your tomorrows. We sit on the eve of a projected day (by evil) of a possible major earthquake upheaval along the San Andreas faultline in California. And even if the quakes are not triggered tomorrow, it is long past due to occur ANYWAY, if not tomorrow then sometime in your near future.

Your agitation is real, chelas, for you concern for many things other than the possible loss of your own life. Many of you have friends and relatives in these areas of impending danger. Many of you simply concern over the tremendous suffering and horror that this sort of physical catastrophe inevitably brings to many millions of people.

Druthea ponders how she will respond in the worst of circumstances which she can imagine...and yet the uncertainty remains. She feels quite helpless in respect to the humans she loves in these locations since she KNOWS that they will and have chosen their own path and their reasons remain between them and God.

WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT?

What can you DO? You can ask for protection in their behalf. You can speak to them personally and ask that they make some extra preparations or even leave the area. Then you MUST let it go! You cannot hang your emotions upon their decisions, for if you do, YOU will not be able to function in your service. These sorts of circumstances are the ones where emotional detachment becomes so important to attain.

Yes Druthea, it is a sort of grieving process you are going through...a letting go. It is best that you do this now since you have a little bit of time to feel saddened and helpless. Tomorrow you may not have the time, nor inclination for spending time evaluating your personal emotional responses. YOU will just DO what you must and you WILL cope much better than you think!

I speak to all of you who read this document. I simply share Druthea's feelings as example which MANY of you can identify with. You ALL have been well-prepared on higher levels for this service and that includes disaster preparation. And certainly, by now, most of you will be prepared for physical survival as well. Trust and LISTEN to your own inner guidance for you will be given instructions.

KNOWING TRUTH CAN SET YOU FREE?

You may be asking yourselves how KNOWING this Truth can set you free. Remember this, The Truth may not always be pleasant to KNOW, most especially in THESE TIMES you are participating in. Once you KNOW you can prepare yourselves and REMEMBER how to allow God's co-creative MIND to assist you in making strategic plans of action for returning balance to ALL unbalanced circumstances.

On the other hand, when you exist in ignorance of Truth, such as is the state of affairs for MOST upon your planet, then you will not have benefit of preparation to make the necessary balanced changes. You will simply suffer the consequences of your inaction or unbalanced action which is a result of your ignorance especially when in your ignorance you defy the natural laws of God and Creation.

WHO WINS?

It is really not a question of whether or not God wins in the end of the cycle. He already has. The question remains will YOU be on the winning side of God or not?

Can you deny The Truth? Most certainly you can and many, many ones will chose to deny rather than stand in responsible co-creation with God. But alas, chelas, YOU cannot force nor change the choice of another, for they alone will choose and reap the consequences or rewards of their choices and limitations. This is the process of soul-growth evolution for all human fragments of God. "All will return to God eventually, only yours is the agony of waiting."

INTRODUCTION: WHO WE ARE AND WHY WE COME

Since we now write for the first issue of the Newspaper format, I will discuss a bit about WHO I AM and give a bit of introduction. I AM called Esu, Jesus Christ, Immanuel. Emmanuel, The Pale Prophet, etc. I AM now called SANANDA, which means "One with God". This is my inherited name given of Our Father God/Aton. Druthea means Teacher, One who brings Strength and Gift of God. She is one of my beloved human scribes to bring you THE WORD.

I and my brother, Lord Michael, are the Spiritual Guardians of this planet as well as many other planets in this galaxy. I come with God's Hosts to bring His children of Light home to higher realms of awareness beyond Earth 3rd dimensional physical. It is graduation time/-opportunity when you ones will have either learned your lessons for abiding within balance of the Cosmic Laws of Creation, or not. We bring The Word as was promised by Our Creator in the ending/beginning cycle time of which you are now in the midst. We force none. We offer our Hand of Truth, Knowledge and Love. You may choose to turn away and God will allow YOU each the choice for He gifted you ones with Free-will to choose on your own.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

THE ADVERSARY

God's adversary, whom you may call Satan or Lucifer, has worked most cleverly and diligently to KEEP you in ignorance of Truth. Within the THOUSANDS of pages of THE PHOENIX JOURNALS (40 volumes), we of God's Hosts have unfolded to mankind on Earth the Who, What, When, Where and HOW of the deceptions perpetrated upon you by your adversary. Encompassing religious, historical, political, socioeconomic, technical and geophysical areas...no stone has been left unturned in this massive deception by the Dark Ones.

CHRIST TEACHINGS VERSUS THE ADVERSARIES' LIES

The greatest tool of the adversary has been the religious/spiritual deceptive teachings. For by tampering with God's Truth within your so-called Holy books, the adversary has caused mankind to develop a personal God in man's imperfect Human Image, which has stripped many millions of their personal power by not KNOWING communion with GOD who dwells within. And yet what truth remains in your Bible is totally misinterpreted by mankind. For example, when I speak of THE ONE as follows:

John 14:6-21: "...Father who dwells with me and I in the Father." "The words I speak to you I speak not of myself but the Father that dwells in me, He doeth the works". and "These things I do YOU will do greater."

I spoke of THE ONE and the Father who dwells within me, NOT only about ME. THE FATHER DWELLS WITHIN ALL...ALL...ALL. For we each exist by His Grace, His Mind, His Thought! When you each recognize and commune with Our Father who dwells within you, His Wisdom and Knowledge and Power are manifested through you, when your intent is to serve His Will only. And through the Christ WAY of KNOWLEDGE OF GOD WORKING WITHIN will you do the miracles I've done and greater. Can you begin to see how my words have been twisted and corrupted?

So the adversary developed many of you into God-Fearing people with God out there somewhere ready to punish you for all your sins. And then the adversary really pulled a clever trick, he claimed through the gospel of Paul (Saul of Tarsus) that Jesus Christ died on the cross and shed his blood for YOUR sins (errors). All that is necessary is you BELIEVE Christ is your savior and here are all the other little rules for entry into "Heaven". Nowhere does it say KNOW God or the Christ WAY, simply believe what we write as truth because this so-called apostle or that king decided it was so.

One other misconception I would like to rectify regarding the adversary. The adversary is now the ruler of the physical world, because he's been allowed by man to rule man through fear, physical desire and dependency. The adversary DOES NOT have MORE power than GOD, HIS CREATOR. Only hu-man gives the adversary control by remaining ignorant of his own God-power and knowledge. The adversary WILL ALWAYS WITH-ER in the face of YOUR GOD-LIGHT for he fears THE LIGHT and is a coward. A reminder to all to KEEP YOUR GOD-LIGHT SHIELDS INTACT AND LISTEN TO YOUR INSTRUCTIONS!

My words have been butchered, deleted and tampered with throughout all the various versions of YOUR so-called Holy Bible which is the ONE document which exists that has so completely buffaloed MILLIONS of people and kept them in spiritual poverty and ignorance. There is so much superstition and dogma rewritten in those pages, it is mind-boggling that so many still buy the lie as truth!

WHO PUNISHES OUR SINS?

So WHO punishes you and why all this evil and corruption? YOU punish yourselves through ignorance of truth about the ways of God and Creation and the Laws governing all. You have developed the evil and allowed the corruption also because of ignorance. Don't you see, GOD never limits you your opportunities to gain KNOWLEDGE. YOU limit yourselves through the embracing of fear, greed, hatred, guilt, envy, intolerance, arrogance and a host of other spiritually limiting human emotions.

God has not left His children without the knowledge of HOW to recognize the adversary and HOW to turn around and reclaim balance within His Laws. With the knowledge of why and how mankind has erred in his ignorance YOU can assist the reclaiming of Earth by Our Father. If you choose NOT to serve Our Father and instead directly or indirectly serve the adversary, this kingdom called earth Shan will NOT be reclaimed, only the individual fragments of God who serve His Will faithfully will be allowed to exit while evil devours itself and all in its path.

WHAT ABOUT IMMORTALITY AND THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN?

What happened to immortality? Birth and rebirth? All in Creation experience expansion and compression. Life and Death and Rebirth. Even man in his ignorance of truth continues life SOMEWHERE when he departs this planet in "death" transition. My teachings about immortality were mostly deleted by the adversary. In this way could he (the adversary) bind man in fear of death and therefore control his LIFE on earth.

I urge each one of you who read this document to read ALL of THE PLEIADES CONNECTION series, eight volumes now, which beautifully and explicitly reveal and explain the mysteries of the nature and workings of God and Creation as transmitted by my beloved brother Germain. I also urge you to read of THE LAWS and DEADLY SINS as transmitted by myself, Lord Michael and Germain in THE PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL. These above mentioned books exist now as THE MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS FOR MANKIND on the planet!

WHERE AND WHAT IS HEAVEN?

The Kingdom of Heaven exists within God-KNOWING man. What is "heaven"? Your dictionary describes it as firmament, the regions around or above the earth; sky, any condition of great happiness and of course, the abode of God and His angels where virtuous souls are received. I again say to you that "The Kingdom of Heaven" exists within God-KNOWING man. It is a "place" which exists within the ALL-Knowing Omnipotent Mind of God and where ones go by seeking communion with and KNOWING GOD-Awareness WITHIN, instead of physical sensing awareness without which recognizes ONLY physical ego consciousness.

When I say within I mean beyond your ego consciousness and subconsciousness. The subconscious itself only functions as it is programmed to function. What you must do is tap into your Super-consciousness or also called God-consciousness. Therein will you find ALL knowledge revealed to you by Our Creator according to your ability to accept, comprehend and take active responsibility for it. Heaven is a place within GOD's Knowing mind, where CAUSE of all Creation is born. And physical manifested worlds and beings come from ALL-knowing God's divided thinking of equal sexed pairs (male-female) in motion. This represents EFFECT. God's thinking in MOTION.

YOU ARE A THOUGHT OF GOD?

So what is human in relationship to GOD? As with all creatures, each individual is a thought-fragment of

continued on next page

THE ONE Creator. Does God destroy His Creations? NEVER! He can UNTHINK you though! God only GIVES AND REGIVES LOVE; Love which is the seed of ALL Creation. Nature Gives and re-gives. It is only man (who has free-will choice) who TAKES and TAKES and TAKES, which brings the unbalance upon the planet which you can not longer ignore. You are all now witnessing the consequences of spiritual ignorance which have resulted in the unbalanced (intolerant, hateful, greedy) thinking, sensing behavior by the masses of mankind on earth. The question is, will enough of you recognize your errors and turn the tide of physical destruction of your species? The play is not over yet and we are proceeding along as if YOU WILL CHANGE IT!

WHAT IS THE ROLE OF HU-MAN?

As Hu-man, our souls exist in the image of perfection of our Creator with unlimited co-creative potential. Your physical bodies and physical earth plane exist, of course, in the degree of imperfection in direct relation to the spiritual imperfection or ignorance upon which mankind conducts his thinking and action behavior. The seed potential of our ALL-Knowing, Omnipotent and Omnipresent ONE exists within each soul fragment called hu-man.

NEW CASSETTES NOW AVAILABLE:

SPACE-GATE THE VEIL REMOVED . . . $20 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . 4 TAPE SET

Facts are provided concerning the governmental cover-up of extraterrestrials visiting our planet, and crashing on our planet, as early as the late 1940s/early 1950s. Historical perspective of the period from the late 40s to present is put forth with many surprising, startling and troubling details of secret actions by governmental agencies and representatives. Disclosure of various "secret" agencies. Clarification of the ongoing peaceful intent and involvement of Satan and Christian these "end times" are clearly stated. The correlation between Christ and extraterrestrials is clarified.

Essentially what that means is that YOU each will become the hands and feet of our Creator, gradually remembering and thus co-creating, in balance, His Creation.

Currently many ones of you use God's hands and feet to serve evil, unbalanced thinking and behavior. Most know it not, but will still reap what they sow in their ignorance. It is Cosmic Law. Cause and Effect. As you sow, so shall you reap. I must tell you chelas that you cannot change the laws one iota and the consequences of defying them abound upon your plane. Even your so-called Christian Bible has 10 basic rules to live by, most of which are pretty accurate; although you will receive the true untampered meanings in the Journal entitled THE PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL.

WHERE IS HELL?

I must say that Hell exists right upon your planet. It exists as a by-product of greedy attachment to the material world which has resulted in loss of moral character through spiritual misdirection and ignorance. Mankind who continue to exist with awareness of only his five physical SENSES will thus deny his co-creative spark of God which dwells within his Higher consciousness and remain bound to the limits

NEW RELEASE (WITH CASSETTES) NOW AVAILABLE

PHONE HOME E.T. . . $15 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . BOOK AND 2 TAPES

Germain stresses to us the importance of true meditation and gives excellent "how to" instruction to accomplish it and how to use it to control our lives. When you accomplish true meditation you are communicating DIRECTLY with GOD for the purpose of knowingly working with Him.

We are given the TRUE definition of love and prayer and the importance of understanding the true definitions so that we can improve our daily lives with this knowledge.

of human physical dimensions. Remember there are MANY MAN-SIONS IN GOD'S KINGDOM. Physical 3rd dimension is only one dimension of experience and exists for the spiritual growth of spiritually PRIMITIVE hu-man (higher universal man) species, such as yours.

You, my precious brethren, may argue with, deny and resent the truthbringers, the messengers of God, but that will not change THE TRUTH to fit your opinions. If you find yourself threatened and angered by these words or any words in this Newspaper, I say GOOD! Welcome the challenge to your "belief structures" because the challenge, if accepted in humility and in God's Light, will allow you the opportunity TO KNOW the Truth instead of believing a lie which does not serve you or GOD. Always, chelas (students of life), the choice is YOURS. I will end this document with a quote of the Highest Law of Creation as written in THE PHOENIX OPERATOR OWNER MANUAL:

"Achieve the wisdom of knowledge inasmuch as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of Creation." So be it.

I AM Sananda, One With God, within Creation. I come to bring you home. Will you take mine hand of Love and Truth? Or will you deny Me and God? I humbly await YOUR decision. May the blessings of Our Father's Light rain gently upon you that KNOWING AND SERVING GOD WITHIN you become your only desire. I honor you, precious Druthea, and all of God's Hosts incarnate upon Earth and in "Heaven" (The Cosmos). Our service in this time of Kali (chaos) is not easy, but the spiritual rewards are tremendous. Salu...Salu...Salu.

CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM "KIT"

This "kit" is for groups or individuals who want to do something and get focused about saving our United States Constitution. This package has very specific information which will assist in action oriented agendas. Topics covered in the package are: the Liberty Amendment, the Flag Burning Amendment, Anti-Crime Bill, Executive Orders, Gun control, Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the holding of a Constitutional Convention. IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOUR COUNTRY...IF THE WORDS NEW WORLD ORDER SENDS A CHILL THROUGH YOU...THEN THIS KIT IS FOR YOU! Recommended supplemental reading: RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEATH OF FREEDOM, also available through America West. The Constitution Package is $12 plus shipping. THE PACKAGE WITH THE BOOK IS $20 PLUS SHIPPING.

AMERICA WEST IS INTERESTED in knowing about Tradeshows, Fairs or events that are slated to occur in your local area. Please contact Sandy Green

SURVIVAL RESOURCE GUIDE - "KIT"

America West is now offering a resource guide for shelters (Nuclear), medical supplies, bulk food and food storage, alternative energy and various alternative survival needs. All resources are within the United States. The cost for this documentation is $10 plus shipping.

NETWORKING

If you are interested in meeting others who are interested in this info, write us giving permission to connect you with those in your area.

SEMINAR WITH GEORGE & DESIREE GREEN

Oct. 12, O'Hare Plaza Ho-Jo's, Chicago, Ill. (SI11) Lucy Covington (219) 942-9439 the Greens, Bo Gritz and Fletcher.

Oct. 15, 6:30-10:30 P.M. Jeff & Shannon Anderson Metropolitan Multi Service Center Houston, TX Minett & George Green (713) 862-3786

Oct. 19, Carol Keppler Valley Ho Hotel Scottsdale, Ariz. George Green & Dr. John Coleman 602-998-6088

OUR NEWEST JOURNALSSCIENCE OF THE COSMOS TRANSFORMATION OF MAN
PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. VIII

by Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

"THIS BOOK IS THE 8TH OF THE PLEIADES SERIES WHICH ARE THE 8 MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS OF OUR PLANET. These JOURNALS are a legacy being presented to mankind and left for all the expected future wayfarers through this physical experience.

"The PHOENIX JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES are directed and given forth from the higher brotherhood sent forth as the Hosts for the preparation of this time of cycles when this civilization will make transition into higher understanding or return to the ages of darkness." - ATON (GOD)

Some of the topics covered in this JOURNAL are: The foundation of our present belief - The expanding universe - Solenoid coils are improperly wound - Rutherford-Bohr theory of atomic structure is impossible - New laws of thermodynamics.

We are also given an explanation of sound and silence - Photosynthesis and the geometry of space - The nature of light - OUR MISSING 13TH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT - Paper money - Into space through open doors: The road map - Power projection - Transmutation - Solar energy - God's purposeful intent for man and the power of mother love.

Many other topics are covered including updates of current world affairs.

SOME INFORMATION IN THIS BOOK HAS NEVER BEEN GIVEN TO THIS PLANET BEFORE.

HUMAN

THE SCIENCE OF MAN
THE SCIENTIFIC DEFINITION AND PROOF OF GOD

AND THE COSMIC ORDER OF THE UNIVERSE*WHAT IS CREATION AND HOW IT CAME TO BE*PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL. VII

Violinio Germain & Gyeorgos
Ceres Hatonn/Aton

GOD (ATON) writes the introduction to this very important JOURNAL which gives us detailed information about this universe that has never before been given to human.

We are given details of: How God creates His universe. - The details of reincarnation and what it actually is - The illusion of disappearance and reappearance - The illusion of repetition - How and why God creates only one form - The cube-

Sipapu Odyssey
And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda
Space-Gate
Spiral To Economic Disaster
From Here To Armageddon
Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell
The Rainbow Masters
AIDS, The Last Great Plague
Satan's Drummers
Privacy In a Fishbowl
Cry of The Phoenix
Crucifixion of The Phoenix
Skeletons In The Closet
R.R.P.P.*
*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix
Rape of The Constitution
You Can Slay The Dragon
The Naked Phoenix
Blood And Ashes
Firestorm In Babylon
The Mossad Connection
Creation, The Sacred Universe
Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I
Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands
Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal
The Bitter Communion
Counterfeit Blessings
The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual

spheres of space - Time: is it real or illusion? - What is motion? - Three faces of Israel - Energy is in mind and not in matter. - To control matter first control self. - The Humanist Manifestos I & II.

Some of the many other topics are: Transient matter and omnipresent zero - There is only one kind of electricity. - Waves are motion. - What is gravity? - Immortality - Faith will not do your work. - God will work with you and not for you. - The misconceptions about prayer - Bodies are chemical machines.

There are many other very interesting topics covered.

We are also given information to keep us up to date on current very critical world affairs.

The Phoenix Journals

Operation Shanstorm
End of the Masquerade
Matter Anti-Matter
Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II
I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III
Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV
Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V
The Sacred Spirit Within Pleiades Connection Vol. VI
Human The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII
Science Of The Cosmos Pleiades Connection Vol. VIII
The Phoenix Express Book Vol's I & II ($15)
The Phoenix Express Book Vol's III & IV ($15)
The Phoenix Express Book Vol's V & VI ($15)
The Phoenix Express Book Vol's XIII & XIV ($15)

EXPECTED SHIPPING DATES

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL'S. 7 & 8 Oct. 16 EXPRESS
BOOK VOL. 13/14 Nov. 1
THANK YOU FOR WAITING.

Subscription Rates

THE PHOENIX EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. Box 986 Tehachapi, CA 93581. Subscription rates are: $20. for 13 issues (U.S.); $22 (Canada/Mexico); $30 (foreign); or 26 issues for $40 (U.S.); $44 (Canada/Mexico); $60 (Foreign); or 52 issues for $75 (U.S.); $80 (Canada/Mexico); $110 (Foreign).

Reprints of this or any other issue of THE PHOENIX EXPRESS (PREPAID): 10 COPIES - $5; 50 COPIES - $10; 100 copies - $17.50; larger quantities by quote. Please understand that your subscription to THE PHOENIX EXPRESS at the rates listed will assist us in the distribution of the WORD to literally hundreds and thousands who inquire of us for information. Due to the tremendous cost involved in printing and distribution, we welcome all donations to further assist in this critical work. Thank you.

Orders and Payments

America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

Copyright Statement

COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. Reproduction of the newspaper for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, as long as the content integrity is not altered. For Commercial purposes, reproduction is strictly forbidden until permission is granted in writing by America West Publishers.

THE

PHOENIX EXPRESS

October 1991 Volume XVI #112

9/30/91 #1 HATONN
MONDAY

There is only one truth

It is in the silence which must be the time of "hearing". Hatonn present and this may be shared but it is a specific lesson for Dharma who cannot find respite to "meditate" and "listen". The message varies not one iota from that which is given to ALL!

The bombardment upon your senses is for specific reason--to distract you from your purpose and mission--sidetracking you into channels of worldly and physical attention and hopefully, compromise. You ask in total intent of service that you be protected from this "thing" which is consuming the senses of "man" and from your heart intent in petition do I respond periodically and assist you to sort of directions. As each "personal" fragment needing attention from the location and gathering which automatically comes as ones seek and find their own directions, the pressures mount until the goal is lost in the chaff pile of "other's" wheat gleanings.

No matter how "good" the intent of "suggestors" into the operations and perceived "better ways", comes the hidden (especially from the one projecting the "better way") confusion and distraction. Ones do have very valid input regarding very earthly matters; Ed Y. has exceptional insight and structuring capability--but, it will not work for the masses for he has intellectual capacity beyond their ability to comprehend that which is most simple unto himself. I too, as an example, am sick unto vomit having to continue to consider the lineage of the so-called, self-styled, self-named "Jews" who are from the Khazars and before that, the evil tribes of the adversary. But we will have to reveal the truth of the lineage lest no man actually see and learn the origin of the deceit for it is too far back in perceived creation of Earth to understand otherwise.

The next, Dharma, is an attempt to set local individual personalities into preferred slots and authority--clinging to self-perceived directions. Little Crow will project unto you that "there are many truths"--NO--there IS ONE TRUTH and myriads of ways of expressing it. It is when ONE "MAN" TAKES

THAT WHICH HE "THINKS" IS TRUTH AND THRUSTS IT UPON ANOTHER AS "THE ONLY WAY" is the downfall. Still, it is the responsibility of the one who accepts the limitation which is at disadvantage for he has just given his power unto another physical being's hands. To accomplish that which must be accomplished if you are to change a massive mountain slide into worthy note, is to work within that which IS and show a better way in ALL things--not in selected facets which affect self alone. Consider that which YOU do against that which you express (for whatever purpose) before you clean thine brother's doorstep of snow--perhaps the brother desired the cleansing quality of the snow upon his doorway--if nothing more, perhaps, than to block entry of intruders upon his time and presence.

What Little Crow, further, is telling

Heaven and Hell

You ones seem to have need of limits and delineations of expression so that you can say, "Do this and you go to Hell" and "Do this and you go to Heaven". Both are the same, can you not see this? So, wherein lies the difference? In action and in presence or absence of God. Hell is simply a place in absence of God and is thus classified as the void or absence of KNOWING or absence of Light--darkness. It is neither "right" nor "wrong"--IT IS. So what is the point? The point is that Man is created with himself as fragment and reflection of the God "Idea" manifest. Man with soul essence established from you is that you cannot save, fix or drag another into anything and you shouldn't even presume to "try". The word fits (try) for you will not do of anything other than stir controversy and exchange more dogma in your "trying". To effect change you "lead" in the purity of "truth" of each individual's sovereign "right" to self-belief and only in that way will brother follow the "better way". Perhaps for that particular targeted individual, your way may not be HIS BEST WAY. Man will follow the lie and/or the "tradition" until he sees that it is incorrect--or continue to follow for he sees that it IS CORRECT. Man seeks one with Godness and yet, he must select the truth from the lies in order to learn his own path even though it may take additional eons of pain and experience to isolate that which is Godly from that which is not.

the Source of Creation will always seek oneness with that Lighted Mother/Father. All "men" do not even seek that "God of Light" for they have ceased to function as a reflection of God of Creation and become solely a reflection of the sensual physical manufacturing processes of that which is against God. We describe that one as bearing "evil" for the definition of "evil" is the act of distracting a being from his soul attainment of oneness with God of Creation. In your clever slang--"...It is a lousy job but

continued on next page

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Homeless...pg 5	New Age police...pg 13
Watergating Bush...pg 6	Middle East review part two...pg 15
Protocols...pg 10	Power of unity...pg 16

BULK RATE
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
TEHACHAPI, CA
PERMIT NO. 0020

Oneness of perfection

Why then, do you not receive as does Little Crow--simply speaking for self in great puffs of wisdom and somehow separate personal human self from that speaker? Because, and I believe even Little Crow will now recognize the DIFFERENCE in your receiving and his, you do not receive as does he. You are a translator of that which we give unto you in our own manner and you merely project it while efforting to have Godly attitudes and Truth in your living expression. It is without YOUR OPINION and it is from the printed word that the attempt is now being made to leave it without Earth OPINION. Each has a differing mission and yours is not to BE THE teacher--only relay the teachings, for you have accepted an additional step of fragmentation in order to serve a different purpose in the overall whole.

Are there other speakers and do you have to discern the personal intent of each? No--it is none of your business to judge another even if they be the greatest liar since Lucifer. Judge that which is given at EACH GIVING FORTH. Is truth the foundation or is it lie and does it vary? You have NO RIGHT to judge another--only that which is presented, and you are EACH given into knowing whether it be in truth or variations thereof. You have based your entire existence as a nation and a "Christian" people on re-someone has to do it." You think it represents other than a "lousy" job--that it looks like the evil get all the goodies? Do they? Then why are they not at peace, and in confusion and torment? Because the fragmentation of Creator God is to cause all ones to desire the returning unto God in like form. A cat, for instance, will never be a dog. The cat may end up in great similarity to a dog through training and practice but never the two shall be the same. The cat will find no peace in being the dog--the cat will only find perfection in the perfection of cathood. That is neither evil nor good--IT IS.

continued from previous page

ligions which are presented in direct projection from the evil Elite. Your very "word of God" is the biggest lie of all--it is but an extension of Protocols built to give sequence clues to the readers and allow the adversary to manipulate you into following his pathway without question or reason. Blindly follow a trumped-up lie so that you end up believing on a conjured "Man" (Jesus, for instance), rather than reasoning and turning unto Creator--spiritual God. I repeat--"Jesus" was a name given by the Christ's arch enemy, Saul of Tarsus (dubbed Paul) who set about methodically building a "religion" to suit the needs of the adversary and calling it goodness. This is THE prime characteristic of the adversary. I rather honor the miserable beast for he does his job so effectively and completely with you as the destroyed while he practices his deceit and games upon you while you beat his drum for the marchers unto their own limitations and misery in perception.

The adversary chose a nice time in evolution and growth of the planet and species to "begin Creation" and "begin history", then he simply outlaid the happenings of other experiences--knowing all the while you would march to his drum. YOU MUST REMEMBER--'TIS THE SOULS OF EXPERIENCING HUMAN WHICH IS THE PRIZE. YOU CANNOT GO SOMEWHERE ELSE TO FIND HELL AND YOU CAN'T GO ANYWHERE ELSE TO FIND HEAVEN FOR IT IS ALL THE SAME--ONLY HEAVEN IS THE PRESENCE OF GOD AND HELL IS THE ABSENCE THEREOF. EACH TO HIS OWN PERCEPTION.

So why Space Command? Because you have lost your way--you who would come home to God in Truth and find rest and peace. You have purpose of expression and you must, therefore, experience. We are only here to remind you that you are experiencing and you have been deliberately caused to FORGET how the play goes--in other words to REMEMBER. When enough "REMEMBER" then the play will change--it MUST. This is what Little Crow tries to express unto you, chela--only our "thrust" is in differing methods. It becomes obvious that with some billions of expressing fragments, the WORD must go forth in abundance--but the printed word is always changed to suit the adversary and the need of the moment regardless of the intent of the writer. And yet, what man does with the writings will be his own conclusion regarding them--however, if they go not forth, few will be touched. Will it matter? Yes and no. Yes, we will have served our mission and some will hear and act and shorten their journey in darkness. Others will avoid and change and corrupt the very word you bring for, as with the Holy Bible, it is obvious that which has happened. Man has simply projected his own way and calls it God's to further his own physical human desires. It will be no different with ANY printed word--only the truth borne within the silence of the soul will prevail as the ultimate TRUTH--but both are necessary at this time of migration and evolution of a species and the change of a Mother Planet who has birthed you as a species.

You, "Little Brothers", as the blessed "Elders" will remind you--have killed your Mother, and the Earth will end for you have killed her. But you cannot kill anything--only bind into prison and destruction and torture, and she will fling you off as the vermin you have become upon her wondrous perfection. Does it matter? Yes and no. She will heal of self and cast you out--no, it matters not to her for she KNOWS THE TRUTH OF IT. It matters to you for you prolong your journey back within the Oneness of perfection and thus the lonely journey seeking oneness and peace within perfection. But even that must be individual in the choosing. You have, as "Little Brothers", stolen the very balance of her earth construction and removed her wondrous treasures which allowed her full balance of rain and warmth--minerals and life. You have acted in foolish and stupid ways and destroyed, which is ALL that physical expression can do for it must function with that which IS physical, so it's tools are you of the sensing vibration. Remember that pain and pleasure in this sensing world is a "perception"--i.e., the physical places of the greatest pleasure also can bring the worst pain in different circumstances.

You ones continually desire to suck me, for instance, into your physical realm of do and don't. No, I am a Commander with a mission--I will NOT play your games of physical foolishness. I will walk with you and hopefully, share wisdom--the greatest of that wisdom is to make you realize that it is YOU who chooses and I do nothing save cause you to face your journey and REMEMBER that which you ARE!

How much do we interfere? NOT ONE IOTA! We only act where "invited" within and then we will protect unto infinity but he who thinks he will "ride along" on the ticket of another will be sorely brought up to his own responsibility or lack thereof.

You precious beings who seek to find why some of the most strange circuits within this specific dwelling do not have electricity--let me share a happening and perhaps it will give insight or possibilities.

I told you that attack has been severe upon my scribe. I told you that the enemy had been allowed within the "curtain" of overall protection--note the circuits out of order and then hold your breath until you turn pale. The lines were charged to kill Dharma, and Oberli if he got in the way, and you will find the full circuits not affected--only the ones which had to be disrupted to stop the blast set to kill. The electronics were charged to hit her and if the inner blasts didn't do the trick--the ones outside her room would hit upon walking through the escape routes to safety--you will find malfunction just outside the

continued on next page

Have you lost your way?

Page 3

What has happened? You have lost your direction and forgotten the truth of the workings and you now find yourselves in total chaos--read the sequence of clues and events from the book of the Adversary--called your Holy Bible! It is NOT a book of directions from God--it is the first roadmap of the adversary to get all of you on the same road to his "Hell". You bit it off hook, line and sinker and now he tells you not to hear reason nor Truth and you march along with your eyes, ears and intelligence shrouded in bindings.

I CARE NOT--FOR I AM COME TO RECLAIM GOD'S PEOPLE--I CARE NOT ONE IOTA ABOUT THOSE WHO DO NOT WISH TO COME WITH ME FOR THAT IS THEIR RIGHTFUL EXPERIENCE. I AM NOT HERE TO

"SAVE" ANYTHING--NOTHING! I AM HERE TO PICK UP MY BRETHREN AND ESTABLISH A REMNANT TO SEE MOTHER THROUGH THE TRANSITION AND THEN BRING GOD'S PEOPLE HOME--NO MORE AND NO LESS. I SHALL NOT DO MORE BUT NEITHER WILL I DO ANY LESS.

You have forgotten your way on your planet and have turned to those who give false testimony and witness. You wish to be saved by "another" other than yourselves. You have actually ceased to have respect or love for self or any other being. It is NOT possible to have another save you nor you to save another. You will cease looking for "salvation" outside of self for it is NOT out there somewhere--only a few hints of directions can be offered. Ones will bring you information--but that is all it is--information. Unless you take it within and determine its Truth and your role within that Truth in your own individual soul. Do not allow yourselves to be destroyed needlessly. Do not lose the great beauty that is yourself. You must turn within and know your own truth. We of the Lighted Brotherhood wait upon you to awaken and remember. We would desire that ALL would choose the Light of Life and move with us into the higher realms of "REALITY". That, however, is not our right nor mission to choose for you. We come to give assistance in any manner possible but it is only you who must choose the path. If there is going to be any "saving" done--you will do it for self. No one is going to come and "take you up" and you had best be making your own preparations for that transition. That means you had best be getting the facts quite straight or you will be waving goodbye to the last shipload out of the pit. You must make your preparations on ALL levels of your existence that you might be ready when the trumpet sounds. For it will be loud indeed and will be your call to Life, and the sound will be unmistakable to those who are attuned to the beat of that particular drum.

Reminder

Earth is under heavy and intentional attack at this very moment of experience--which actually--is all there is (this moment). You are allowing yourselves to become tools, without mind awareness, of the LIE. You can stop this but you must come to understanding. Otherwise you are doomed to experience the darkness of that which will befall you in this experience. It is your own will that leads you and you can, if you KNOW this, choose freedom instead. You have the ability to bring about Freedom if you so choose--even in this third dimension of expression for it is your will; you may choose the path for that is Creator's greatest gift unto you in this expression. This means, however, that you must make the choice for freedom and then take responsibility for ensuring that Freedom. None can do this for you, either--only YOU can make the difference.

We can tell you the facts, give you information and "how-to" on space clearing, elevation of consciousness and how and what is meant by merging of multi-dimensional energies and expression, but it is up to YOU to first choose the path. It is your intent within self which is heard and recognized by Creator--not the usual "Bushlips" out of the opening in your lower faces.

Just as Truth is now abounding from "THE HEART OF THE MOTHER EARTH" so shall truth come from within the Heart of your livingness. What will you do, Little Brothers? Will you simply door to the hallway, also, although not the same type of malfunction. I also remind you that you are working presently with robotic transplants and you remain in great jeopardy--all you need do is look at the confusion factor around certain beings. Robotics can only function according to the "downloading" information and programming. They are usually only a tool and understand not but are the "other end of the line" as a tool or conduit. When they come into fire they become even more confused and erratic and will self-destruct.

continued from previous page

Diona is projecting most accurately and herein I specifically refer to the replicas Gorbachev and Yeltsin. Gorbachev has served his purpose and will be less and less visible from time to time for the strain is weak now. It also becomes time to consider retiring Bush for his strain is weak now, also. Soon Gorbachev, for instance, will not need to manifest in the human form for such long periods of time. He was and is a Key player in the New World Order Plan 2000. He did what he was supposed to do--bring the next phase of power into that power--this time via a puppet called Yeltsin to further the facade of democratic process.

I repeat--the battle is for the "soul" of Man. I have also told you that "life" was created from elemental matter--actually, specifically I mentioned Tel Aviv in about your year 1952--with viruses. I also told you that we are now here because you have also learned how to "create" death. Since you cannot "kill" soul as you recognize it and we have no such thing as death--then you must realize that my use of the term "death" and yours is most different and in total opposition to your thought of same. YOU CAN NOW CREATE DEATH ON YOUR PLANET, OF SOUL. IT IS NOT PERMITTED TO PREVAIL AND IT IS THE ULTIMATE BATTLE OF THE HIGHEST "CAUSE".

Let us refer to this adversary, to make it easy for description, as Satan and Creator as God. God projects (creates) the entity of Himself called "YOU" and you are immortal--to experience and return within that oneness. The point is to destroy as many of those fragments as possible in order to make the evil physical experience THE only experience which is the domain of Satan, with, hopefully, the absence of God to annoy him in his games and pleasures. He cannot, however, have immortality and, therefore, must continue to replicate and "manufacture" from that which IS physical and, meanwhile, hold hostage the living fragments of God to hopefully come up with a way of expressing immortality at some point of evolvement.

With the use of Prana Waves used in the right manner, not only is the body killed but the soul essence is so disrupted as to preclude its ability to reconstruct from its own DNA, if you will. However, when you ask "...why doesn't Evil just go ahead and wipe out those of us who remain with intact souls and he wins?" Because God is ultimate in Creation and Satan can't--he can only control that which is attached to the physical alone. He can slay the soul fragments but he crosses the "thou shall not" barrier set forth by God Creator and the repercussions are most uncomfortable for him for God can "uncreate" the whole mess in a split second. God leaves the experience for you to finish and, hopefully, we win through Truth and Wisdom--whatever the journey may be--ALL WILL EXPERIENCE IT AND THERE WILL BE NO ESCAPE FROM THE EXPERIENCE!

continued on next page

continued from previous page

continue to kill of selves or will you hear the call?

These are the points of our intended teachings--not the foolishness which is in activity around and about you--however, you must see that which IS to perceive with wisdom, that which needs be in the changing. We have assumed that as the task at hand, albeit it being a bore and a terribly discomfoting one at best. If you, however, do not know that which is "wrong" and "destructive", you cannot have a way of returning to balance for you know not that which has caused such unbalance.

If you perceive you upset me or mine by your disagreements with that which we give forth--so be it. What you think is none of my business, although I note that great bunches of you try to make it my business. You may believe anything which you choose and if you do not like of my projections--do not read the material. I do suggest, however, that you may be in error of discernment as to reading material. My point is to "prove" no thing! Here is that which is given and God does not coerce, force nor judge--you make the choices and THEN, YOU SHALL LIVE AND REAP THE CONSEQUENCES OF THOSE CHOICES! WILL YOUR REAPING BE IN GLORY AND WONDROUS EXPERIENCE OR MORE OF THE SAME RESTLESS SEARCHING? I HAVE NO RIGHT NOR ANY INTENT OF FORCING YOU INTO MY KNOWINGNESS OTHER THAN TO PRESENT THAT WHICH IS GIVEN FROM THE SOURCE OF YOUR CREATION--NO MORE AND NO LESS. THERE WILL BE MANY SPEAKERS AT THIS TIME--SOME FALSE AND SOME IN TRUTH OF GOD--YOU WILL DECIDE AND YET, YOU WILL FIND THE BRINGERS OF TRUTH FROM GOD REALMS WILL NEVER FORCE NOR DENY ONE THING UNTO YOU--I SUGGEST YOU PONDER IT.

Dharma, I have taken quite a while this day but you must be given into balance also and pressures deny you the allowance of meditation, sharing, even speaking as in "personal" opinion to "reason" for self with others. That is a necessary step in fulfillment of one's own balance--do not allow ones such as Oberli, to pull you away--HE ALSO NEEDS MORE WITHIN TIME AND LESS TENDING OF YOUR TIME--INTENT IS GOOD BUT HE KNOWS NOT YOUR NEEDS NOR INTENT NOR CONTRACT. REMEMBER? Balance comes in support without creating even greater pressures upon another already under great stress.

From the pressure of the moment we have written a most worthy message but it was not that which was planned for the masses to receive this day--we move as the need is presented and you will not feel distressed in concern that you have taken time from those very ones you come to serve. Ah, blessings unto those precious ones who continue to support this chela--the loving cards and carefully chosen items which convey love and messages--YOU are the skeletal system of God in presentation of this mighty blessing we are co-creating--for upon you rests the foundation of the being we are creating--freedom and truth manifest! CAN YOU COME TO SEE IT? PLEASE ALLOW OUR CO-CREATION TO BIRTH IN BEAUTY AND NOT BE MORE MUTATION OF THE LIE--IT IS UP TO YOU FOR IT IS THROUGH YOUR HANDS THAT IT MUST BE PERFECTED. SALU.

Please allow us a bit of rest time. Children, be at peace and come within balance--but do not sit on your backsides complaining--get up and give life--life. So be it. Hatonn to-step aside at ready.

10/4/91 #1 HATONN

Shifting sands

As we come to commune this day, allow a moment to settle the dust from the flight feathers, please. It has been a wondrous week of work and fun which I would like to share with all for YOU are our "group"--not just the ones who sit within the hearing of a voice.

First, the PHOENIX EXPRESS (PAPER FORMAT) got off the press line. It is our hope that as we move along "I" will only be a "contributor" and "editor of sorts" for there is so very much information needing to reach you and you need as much as possible from your own dimension. Truth is pouring forth through the cracks better than ever before in history for you who doubt and desire facts. So many had requested extra copies that the load got so great that it was decided to simply send a hundred copies or so to most of the regular subscribers as sorting time was eliminated in order to reach you with the "timely" information--which, by the way, is already obsolete as to world happenings. As we move into "habit" function we will be doing far better on the updating--perhaps I shall be giving you advance information and allowing the others to support it in the upcoming paper each week. This is a very "real" problem to the publishers and distributors who are seeking to give you the same level of CURRENT information--please abide with them until the "human" can work these "superhuman" feats.

Changes

One "wonderful" problem is that the Constitution Law Center is now actively operating so please begin to send all of your information and referrals for our lawyers MUST get up to speed and quickly indeed. C. Gene Dixon and Scott Tips will head the Center and the end result is to be the operation of an actual cer-

continued on next page

THE PHOENIX JOURNALS

CRY OF THE PHOENIX, DEATH RATTLE OF FREEDOM, THE PLAN "2000"

The government of the United States of America is now firmly in the hands of the Elitist Cartel, including the world bankers who are dedicated to the collapsing of all nations into a One World Government by the year 2000. The Constitution and the Bill of Rights are to be "abolished" in favor of the Soviet-Constitution-based United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The hour is late but perhaps not too late to preserve those precious freedoms guaranteed by our Constitution and Bill of Rights. By Hatonn $10 ISBN: 0-922356-13-0

COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS, THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY NAME: KHAZARS, "AND THEY WERE LIARS FROM THE BEGINNING"
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn $10 ISBN: 0-922356-36-6

We are given the actions we MUST take if we are going to stop these well-organized groups from putting together the final pieces of their WORLD WITHOUT FREEDOM (the NEW WORLD ORDER).

The history of the Khazars, Judeans and the Jews and how the Khazars have labeled themselves as Zionists and Jews to deceive our planet and to take total control of it in the NAME OF THE ANTI-CHRIST.

THE MOSSAD CONNECTION, HOTFOOT FOR THE PHOENIX
By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn $10 ISBN: 0-922356-28-9

Americans, to understand how their Constitution and Nation are being stolen from them must understand the MOSSAD CONNECTION. The "Thirteenth Tribe" of Israel, now self-designated as "ZIONISTS", is in control of both Israel and, through its political influence over some sixty percent of the U.S. Congress and its working relationship with the White House, the United States of America.

SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER, LIFEBOAT MEASURES - IF YOU ACT NOW By Hatonn $10 ISBN: 0-922356-07-6

Economic realities. Exposing the "grey-men" and the secret government and the perfection of their plan. Depression is imminent. New currency and some solutions. The debit card system. Financial strategies. The solution of Incorporation. The Nevada secret. Prophecies of these times.

UPS: $3.25 First Book, $1 each add U.S. Mail Bookrate: $2.50 First Book MASTERCARD or VISA ORDERS: 1-800-729-4131 or send check to: (or request catalog) of 30 Phoenix Titles America West Pub., P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA 93581

continued from previous page

tifying of legal assistants under the Constitution who can work from a full network of resources.

Further, this week the Advanced Building Technology group got its running "gun" and the wondrous building technology will be an approved and available entity in any size from tiny to elongated, underground to multi-level, and will come eventually in modular sections. It is a business opportunity which probably will not be open for very long for this building technology will come in for far less than half of any other and will be beautiful in addition to being secure, pulse resistant and radioactive sheltering even "above" ground. The first building should be going up on "slab" for replication in many sizes and heights beginning in Tehachapi in February. This means that tooling and industrial facilities will also become "in place". Also, there will be a thrust to provide, nationwide, extremely low-cost housing for, say, migrant workers (in conjunction with the Farm Workers), and plans and blueprints for senior care centers, etc., as rapidly as financing and time of the original workers are available. The prototype components will be built and engineered first in Hemet (where the first tooling operation is already located) to avoid winter climate in the local area.

I remind all of you that we promised to make available this information in timely manner for so many of you have asked how and when you can participate in actual investments of projects. At this point these ones are still doing these things with that which they alone have upon which to start, for the publications are still running at less than "break-even". This now gives you ability to select anything that gives you joy in which to participate in a very basic business manner--with total integrity.

With this technology these ones will immediately begin on the first of the underground growing research centers. This will consist of long, underground or partially underground, facilities where hydroponic and airponic food growing can be undertaken for you are already into food shortage--even if you have not noticed it. Last year your Elite and government GAVE Gorbachev direct shipments of your reserve grain which finished off your reserves and, in addition, gave him future production contracts and treaty agreements for same. If the earthquake doesn't break the aqueduct system of irrigation to your garden belt of the San Joaquin and Imperial Valleys of California, it is intended to disable them at any rate, so you are already in serious trouble. You must find alternative and private control of systems of intensified growing facilities. You can do it if you want to--the choice is yours alone but these ones can no longer carry the load. For you who have supported this activity--words are not sufficient to adequately thank you.

Mr. Rick Martin has resigned from America West to join more closely with these project activities. He is superb at project presentations and will act as liaison and coordinator for and among the various projects whereby Hatonn and brotherhood can more easily monitor ALL activities for God relinquishes not, His authority over integrity.

I realize that you ones will be missing your contact with Rick and that in no way shall cease--all correspondence will come to him--through him, for Dharma as well as these other entities, i.e., Advanced Building Technology, Constitutional Law Center, Information Focus, etc. If you don't know the "name" just make reference to the subject enclosed and we will get it. Briefly, you will continue using the address as given until changes can be made for other box numbers and phone service. This means we will probably soon need other office facilities but for the present nothing will change except addressing information to ease the load on George and more easily get information to me, Oberli and Dharma. You who write to any of the Masters--just address as you have been and it will arrive in Dharma's lap. We will have to continue to respond mostly through this format for we get hundreds and hundreds of documents and letters. WE ARE HUMBLY GRATEFUL AND

PLEASE DO NOT STOP SENDING THEM!! I HAVE SOME INFORMATION, FOR INSTANCE, WHICH WILL BOTH AMUSE AND CONFIRM AN INCIDENT OF WHICH I SPOKE WEEKS AGO.

The sharing is that which makes this journey worthy. I have piles of Constitution documents and also "Bills", etc., which further remove your Constitutional rights--I simply have no way to get it all into your hands and therefore, we will be turning it rapidly over to the Constitutional Law Center. I will, however, review each piece of information sent through this avenue.

Your identity as resource will always be most carefully guarded. We have no way to express our appreciation for your sharing and the wondrous way in which you personally give love and support to Dharma with your precious and personal gifts of love. You have no idea what this kind of acknowledgement gives to a weary spirit. I am sure, however, that "Susie" would not suspect that the leather pouch would become a baby bird cradle for Dharma's orphaned bird children or that a shirt with a tulip garden would boost the spirits into remembering missions. The books are cherished for they bear infinity within their pages and hold the thoughts and feelings of a being who writes them and the one who shares them.

I shall always effort to continue to respond to questions which are of widespread interest such as the recent quakes in Washington and Oregon, etc. Those are not only to weaken the fault system stability but in fact, are deliberately to break loose "snags" in the major faults and speed up the momentum now under way in the plate turnings.

This cute little umbrella "artistic" foolishness which is indicated to you as "artistic presentation" is nothing short of identifying, from high altitudes, the faults and vortices in both Japan and California which, when triggered, will cause the major disruption to the massive system of faults and rifts. The one in California, for instance, which is in the Tejon Pass area, is directly pinpointing the junction of the Garlock Fault with the San Andreas which will trigger the massive damage in downtown Los Angeles and, intended, Bakersfield.

We continue to guard Dharma and Oberli on a continual basis and are now seen by anyone who cares to look in the nighttime. We will only utilize lights on the shuttles and monitors at "time" of "shift change" for protection, but we need identification at ground level just as do you. We don't "have to" have it but it is giving the proper message to the skulk craft who plan to blow the place away when and if they catch it unguarded--that will be a "very, very cold day in you-know-where!"

I ask that you enjoy the following copy from the Bakersfield Californian (a major news publication) and then note the writing which I had given you prior to that time. Enjoy your newly found information flow--do not distress self--you can now begin to "act" with wisdom and receive the lies while converting them into probable truth.

No home, no future

By MAREVA BROWN
Californian staff writer

SEVENTH STANDARD ROAD — Every night when Alberto Castro gets off work, he looks for a quiet place to lie low.

Parks are nice, but sometimes he's forced to stop the family's converted refrigerator truck under a shady tree by the side of the road, or behind a convenience store.

Castro is killing time until dark, when he, his wife and four children can find a quiet field to bed down. They sleep in the truck and wake before dawn for another day of picking grapes.

It's no life for the children, he admits. But sometimes, you have to do what you must to survive.

Fifteen years ago, Castro first came to the Coachella and San Joaquin valleys to pick grapes. He hoped he could build a rich life for his family.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

But last year, when his son, Alberto, and daughter, Carolina, began working beside him in the fields, he knew their lives would contain few rewards.

He knew they had been caught in the same cycle as thousands of other migrant children, who quit school in Mexico while their parents work the crops in California and lose out on an American education when the family continues to move.

"I know they have fallen behind," said Castro, who speaks no English. "I realize the children are missing a lot of school by moving around. But a lot of times, in order to help yourselves, you move around a lot."

Although federal and state demographers say they don't know how many migrant workers are homeless, a study completed in October 1990 for two farm worker advocacy groups paints a grim picture.

It focuses solely on California's farm worker population.

"Available public and private housing meets only 10 percent of the need," it said. "The housing the farm worker community occupies is invariably old and decaying, in serious disrepair and lacking the usual amenities that make it fit for human habitation."

"It contributes to the destabilization of the family and seriously disrupts the development and education of the children."

The report, commissioned by La Cooperativa Campesina de California and the Western Alliance of Farmworker Advocates, also estimated the state's 26 government-operated labor camps can accommodate only 5 percent of the migrant families who need homes.

IN KERN COUNTY, where 1988 state estimates placed the number of migrant families at between 1,200 and 1,700 annually, only 109 government-run cabins are available at the North Shafter Farm Labor Center and another 130 at the Sunset Labor Camp near Arvin.

Both centers provide cabins to families from April to October. After that, migrants are on their own, and usually begin migrating back to their homes in Mexico, Texas or elsewhere.

Migrants say they prefer the more sanitary state-operated camps to farmer-run housing. But many have little choice.

Fewer and fewer local farmers are providing homes for field workers because federal regulations imposed in 1988 made the costs prohibitive.

That year, Kern County held 153 private labor camp locations. Today, the county has only 43 farmer-run facilities, run by 31 growers, according to records in the county Environmental Health office. They have space for 1,490 laborers.

Many of those provide single spaces for workers traveling alone. Migrants with families are on their own.

"Before any migrants arrive, from 4 to 9 percent of the housing stock is vacant," according to a 1988 state housing department study, citing "typical" Central Valley towns. "At least 15 percent is substandard. And most of the units which owners are willing to rent to migrants are substandard."

Demand is great, so prices increase with the farm worker influx. And per-person charges to increase landlord profits often are levied against families who double up.

The rest of the migrants must fend for themselves, often squeezing into the cramped homes of relatives or piling several families into small rented apartments or trailers.

Some migrant field workers have been found living in caves in Salinas and other parts of the state.

"Many of the truly migrant families are not identified and not served because they don't stay long in any community," said Hedy Chang, a researcher at the non-profit advocacy group California Tomorrow. "They're the ones who live in orchards and garages and grower-owned housing facilities. Many families simply aren't aware of what's available."

Since all federally run migrant programs include children whose families have moved within the previous five years, many programs are filled with former migrants. And highly mobile parents often are reluctant to enroll their children in school programs or other services because it's too much trouble for a short stay.

"These are bootstrap philosophy families," said Chang, a former migrant child. "There's a lot of family pride in being self sufficient. That's one of the things that keeps them moving — they can stay self-sufficient. Part of not wanting to access social services comes from this cultural value."

ACCORDING TO A 1990 national survey prepared by federal demographer Rick Mines for the U.S. Department of Labor, fewer than one-fifth of seasonal agricultural workers receive

see HOMELESS page 19

"Watergating" Bush

Ok, I told you that the plan was either to assassinate Bush by the Mossad and/or "Watergate" him and/or Kenned-ize him. The plan is NOW to go to work and destroy him through scandal within the Noriega hearings with shifting of focus from (by the method of) Gates' hearing. Note that "Ollie" North is set to testify FOR Noriega and this information will probably be hitting your public viewing by this week-end.

What does this really mean? It means that your nation and banking economy is sitting on a time-bomb--perhaps it would be far better if you had your funds building housing or a Law Center backed by gold than sitting in any bank ANYWHERE. It is your NATION under siege--not a Bush Baby.

You are NOT calling off the alert of your flight services, either. At least not as you think. There is a big shifting and merging of same--getting ready to hopefully relocate to safe locations unknown, wherein the enemy misses blowing them away in the first strike or retaliation.

The papers found in Iraq are going to reveal that your nation of the U.S. were the ones who ultimately did the most building of the nuclear weaponry--far more than did Russia--Russia only gave them advance technology beyond that which you have. The point now is to pull attention from the area and let you-the-people focus on a probable invasion of Haiti so the massive information and disclosures can somehow be handled behind your backs.

Free lunch

How so America? How so that YOUR SERVANTS in Washington get a free BANK in which the Congressmen can bounce checks, etc., unblemished nor nagged for return of monies? YOU would go to prison for the remainder of your natural life. Further, how about "free lunches" to the tune of well over $300,000 for a select few? The bouncing checks come even from your highest "House" leaders. DO YOU HAVE SUCH ADVANTAGE? Well, you pay their salaries for their services unto YOU--perhaps they need another raise? They only make about four times the high middle-income family in your nation--annually--not to mention hidden perks.

Our beloved "Political Cartoonist", Barry, deserves far more accolades than we can ever begin to give him. I would like to have a whole issue with nothing save his drawings, at some point, for through humor it is sometimes easier to give forth the irony and preposterous examples--it is hard for any sane person to realize the Truth.

IRS defense update

First of all, the problem with banking and privacy floods my attention through petitions. Yes, there is a way to use your accounts as a resource for check cashing if needed. I suggest, however, that that information must be handled quietly--yes, legally--but you need to contact Cort through the Corporate Advisors for I will not write it herein. I advise to sever banking connections in private format if at all possible or keep the attention and funds very, very minimal. Corporations fare better but how long that will garner protection is also questionable. In a collapse it doesn't matter for the insurance system is already bankrupt. There will be NO GUARANTEE OF ANY $100,000--THERE WILL BE NO MONEY IN THAT INSURANCE FUND BY YEAR'S END--THAT, BY YOUR OWN AUTHORITIES.

More and more banks and institu-

continued on next page

Constitutional assassination and infringements

CONSPIRACY

Note that you now have an Elite force within the IRS force. Note also, however, that more and more people are learning that the IRS is a private police force serving the banks and, particularly, as collection agents for the Fed. (Remember--all your income tax, etc., goes to pay the banks for interest--and against that awesome debt of your nation to the banks through the Federal Reserve and on into the International Bank of Settlements in Switzerland).

Many of you know who Jonathan May is, but do any of you know why he was REALLY incarcerated? Because he began a small "bank" outside the authorized Elite system. They sentenced him to 18 months in jail--HE HAS BEEN INCARCERATED FOR OVER SIX YEARS!!! AMERICA--HOW CAN YOU ALLOW THIS INCREDIBLE UNCONSTITUTIONAL HORROR? LaRouche is still in prison--it matters not about his political beliefs--he was set-up and enslaved and you have allowed it. The ADL has even stated publicly that they set him up and got him sentenced through "fixed" judges and still he rots in jail. WHERE ARE YOU, AMERICANS?

Speaking of Constitutional assassination and infringements of rights, let me catch you up on the tiny little side crucifixion of "The Ekkers".

I told you of the missed appointed time showing up at the dwelling, of

continued from previous page

tions are folding daily only to find massive corruption all hooked to the same people and resources. The RTC is the most corrupt branch of the S&L fraud network since the original set-up. No, I can't go into it again herein--it is ALL in the JOURNALS and EXPRESSES. Please do not ask us to spend time in repeating--almost every subject asked about has been detailed in the last 24 months in our writings--NOW YOU ARE GETTING THE CONFIRMATION OF OUR TRUTH!

Mr. Horn and the photographer. There was a retired clergyman (Catholic) of over 35 years of service to what he thought was God and man. He is in his late 70's and appears to be rather gentle, and at least not violent.

At the day of the happening, this "Father Cleary" told Mr. Horn to "get off his high-horse" and "settle down" in response to an outraged and aggressively demanding Horn. Oberli asked the lawyer (Horn) and the photographer into the house to meet the guests present but said it was too intrusive and they were late and there would be no "inspection" due to same. (You have to remember the day in court wherein Mr. Horn managed to disallow the Ekkers, because they were four minutes late, to deny a meeting on that date due to prior commitments.) So be it.

Ekkers, because it seemed appropriate in view of other filthy tricks and lies along with documents of extreme importance being removed from the court files, also had a photographer present as well as recording equipment to record conversations as the dwelling was "inspected".

After the incident, the photographer went through the entire dwelling and took approximately a hundred pictures of which three of each room (54) were entered and sent to the court with documented certification by the photographer.

Not only did the Judge not accept the pictures which cost over $300 to have color copies, etc., made and filed, but he sanctioned them personally (fined) $500 for disallowing entry into the house for inspection. (To see if the Ekkers "are wasting the premises".) The Judge further ordered, without constraint, another opportunity for Horn and photographer to enter and inspect the dwelling--so on the 17th they go through this all "again". Now, I am going to give you verbatim the demand received yesterday from HORN regarding this "inspection". By the way, the RTC, through this fine upstanding Kazarian Kol Nidre oath liar, has presented a "Writ of Mandate" costing at least $15,000 to prevent the court from allowing the Ekkers to have any discovery regarding the S&L, RTC or any witnesses. YOU THE TAXPAYERS PAY FOR THE LEGAL FEES AND THE $15,000 ONLY BEGINS THE ENCOUNTER. We now have the proof that the rotten disease in this particular case goes all the way to the President's lap, not to mention several major law firms and dozens of corrupt politicians, judges and lawyers. Yes, we do keep this dwelling surrounded at all times.

By-the-way-number-two. The full intent is to set the stage for a frame-up by placing drugs on the premises and calling in the law to arrest and confiscate. There is NOTHING on the premises--not even a gun beyond a B-B. These ones take no drugs but are already placed under suspect from the fact that they have a generator and a fuel tank for same. They have it for computer security but that is another story which I will also someday tell.

Letter of demand and false orders stated by same from the Judge:

Oct. 3, 1991

Re: RESOLUTION TRUST CORPORATION VS. EKKER SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF KERN CASE
NO. 215301

Dear Mr. Tips:

Pursuant to the court's order of October 1, 1991, granting our Motion to Compel Compliance with the court's September 3, 1991 discovery order, on October 17, 1991 when we appear to inspect and photograph the premises, your clients have been ordered not to interfere with the inspection.

The grounds for the inspection were set forth in the moving papers; your clients are ordered NOT to have either any religious personnel or persons with electronic video recording equipment or cameras present. This is to be an UNOBSTRUCTED inspection. [Emphasis in original.]

Signed: Steven J. Horn

The "conspiracy" is blatantly obvious. There are none of the Bill of Rights which have not been openly and flagrantly broken. Even the amount of the fine was misstated in Mr. Horns court document--he said the fine was $514--clearly different from the $500 ordered which was bad enough.

The "RTC Writ of Mandate" is also filled with one false statement following upon another as fast as the people can write. Since this document has been drawn by an "additional" and separate law firm, what think ye of that involvement?

MORE AND GREATER "CONSPIRACY"

On the same day a trip was required to the Mojave Municipal Court to argue Constitutional rights to have this diesel tank in Ekker's back property--completely surrounded by vacant land.

This was a "pre-trial hearing" on the basis of a citation issued months ago. Now hold on to your hats--our attorneys discovered that all allocations on the citation were not applicable and demanded "BY LAW" for dismissal of charges. But not so--the District Attorney said that "We realized and realize that the citation is not accurate--but we are rewriting one which will be applicable." In other words, readers, "We don't have a charge but we will fabricate one--after the fact by months." Not only did the pleading work--the Judge (acting during regular Judge's vacation) ruled for time for the fabrication of the new charges to be drawn.

Anyone wish to know what the new charges will be? Location of a tank of "possibly" hazardous material on private property in a level 5 earthquake zone. Also, probable cause to believe that fuel and generator are for the purpose of growing illegal plants--for there were already noted "white buckets" present on premises and possible building code violations by producing electricity other than allowed by commercial utility company.

continued on next page

Pertinent IRS quotes

If you are ever involved with a Bank giving information to the IRS, friends, and you bring suit--know the following: The IRS in court will say that the bank "volunteered the information to them and that the bank is not bound to comply with the IRS". This means that the IRS won't even stand in loyalty to their own counterparts.

How times change: look what Governor (CALIF.) Ronald Reagan said in 1968: "The entire income tax structure was created by Karl Marx, it has no justification getting the Government needed revenue." So be it.

President Ronald Reagan, 1983: "Our Federal Tax System is, in short, utterly impossible, utterly unjust, completely counter productive; the present system of taxation reeks of injustice. It is fundamentally un-American, it has earned a rebellion and it is time we rebelled." Still don't believe in robotoids and replicas? So be it.

Supreme Court: Loan Association vs. Topeka: "To lay with one hand, the powers of the Government on the property of the citizens, and on the other hand bestow it on favored individuals, is none the less robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation."

T. Coleman Andrews, Commissioner of the IRS, 1956: "I don't like the income tax. Every time we talk about these taxes, we get around to the idea, from each according to his capacity and to each according to his needs. That's socialism. It is written into the Communist Manifesto. Maybe we ought to see that every person who gets a tax return, receives a copy of the Communist Manifesto with it so he can see what is happening to him."

continued from previous page

Yes, we now turn it over to, and ask that, the lawyers now advertise the new titles given unto them as head of the Constitutional Law Center of America. Documents of every case we can come by will now be entered with every applicable court and the Bar Association of all involved attorneys. We intend to even present the cases to the International Bar Association for "corrupt practices and intentional intent of conspiracy against the defendants". Will it make a difference? Not unless you-the-people stand in outrage in support of ones who dare to go on in the face of this abuse and personal danger. I know that many of YOU have been through similar, or worse, circumstances and abuse--let us unify and allow God to walk with you as you reclaim your nation and law. DO YOU NOT SEE, THE ADVERSARY CANNOT BEAR THE LIGHT OF PICTURES OR TRUTH--AND HE IS HORRIFIED OF EVEN THE PRESENCE OF ANYTHING HOLY--EVEN A RETIRED 70+ YEAR-OLD PRIEST--JUST HIS PRESENCE CANNOT BE BORNE BY THE ADVERSARY--SO USE THIS KNOWLEDGE AND NEVER CONFRONT THESE ONES WITHOUT GOD WITHIN AND WITHOUT YOUR VERY PRESENCE.

It is sad for the Judge involved in the case has also allowed himself to be involved and tampered with and now he damages himself for it is known that he is a practicing homosexual gay and that there are multiple ones in the District Attorney's offices. This is his business, not ours, but he has succumbed to the pressures of the Elite and he damages himself so terribly. To each his own choice regarding actions and behaviors--right or wrong matters not. But to allow this kind of injustice which only compounds is heinous against the people of this nation and this is only one, and a rather benign county in California, at that. It is up to the others within the Judicial system to clean their benches--I do not see that happening.

THREATS

You must also remember that this is the same Judge, who in chambers, was told that three people had seen Horn remove a document from the court file and finally said, "Well, I don't believe Mr. Horn would remove a file from the records." He is also the Judge who said he would waive production of the five witnesses known to be at the first hearing and allow only two. This is the same system which allows the defendants NO DISCOVERY and urgent, totally incriminating evidence was censored (removed) by Horn in documents which WERE PRESENTED.

Now, public readers, if you still believe in your Justice System and that YOU can't be a victim--I beg you to re-think this assumption. This whole case is built around the failure of an S&L to hold a fully advertised and certified "sale of property" where the defendants "were told by the same S&L it would be necessary to attend to reclaim their property in point due to other investors involved". I REMIND YOU PRECIOUS ONES--THE INTENT OF THE SYSTEM ELITE IS TO GARNER EVERYTHING YOU HAVE--EVERYTHING!!!

IRS jurisdiction

Watch this one--The representatives of the IRS cannot search the premise without a search warrant. That, however, will not stop them from doing so--with very big guns ablaze.

You are not required to share books with the IRS because they could be used against you in a court of law. (Article 5, Constitution of the U.S. of A.)

IRS Special Agents have never been GIVEN LEGAL RIGHT to carry hand guns.

The IRS has jurisdiction and taxing authority over ONLY: businesses/people involved in firearms, tobacco, and alcohol; Federal Government Employees; businesses/people within Washington DC, Guam, Puerto Rico (protectorates).

The IRS will continually challenge you in scare tactics and continually go outside and beyond their authority!

THE IRS PERSONNEL DO NOT KNOW THEIR OWN RULES AND CODES. SO, TO KNOW HOW TO HANDLE THEM AND ESPECIALLY "BEAT THEM" IN A CONFLICT IS TO KNOW THEIR CODE BETTER THAN DO THEY! THERE ARE GROUPS WHICH CAN HELP YOU AND THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER IS SETTING UP A PROGRAM OF REFERRAL FOR YOU TO THE BEST GROUP OR REPRESENTATIVE TO FIT YOUR NEEDS.

HOW LONG WILL YOU COMMIT TREASON AND SUPPORT YOUR NATION'S ENEMIES? YOU SWEAR TO DEFEND YOUR CONSTITUTION AGAINST FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC ENEMIES--WELL, IT CAN'T GET MUCH WORSE.

True or false?

1. The I.R.S. is a government agency. FALSE. It is a private corporation, incorporated in Delaware in 1933.

2. The I.R.S. collects taxes. FALSE. The I.R.S. collects tribute! Look on the back of any check they have ever endorsed. It says, "Pay to the order of the F.R.B. (Federal Reserve Bank) to the credit of the United States Treasury." This means that the Federal Reserve is keeping all of the "tax" money that the I.R.S. sends, and is crediting it to the phony "interest" that the Treasury owes the Federal Reserve. Not one dime is spent in the United States!

continued on next page

continued from previous page

3. The Federal Reserve is a government agency.

FALSE. It is an admittedly private corporation, privately held by 12 families (one American and eleven foreign).

4. The U.S. Congress writes the tax laws of the I.R.S.

FALSE. I.R.S. attorneys write this junk and Congress merely "rubber stamps" it.

5. Filing a tax return is mandatory according to the law.

FALSE. The I.R.S. tells you in the 1040 instruction book that the tax is voluntary. They also say it is voluntary in every document they have.

6. If I don't file and pay my taxes, I will go to jail.

FALSE. Sixty million Americans did not file or pay "taxes" with the I.R.S. last year. Ask the person whose name appears at the end of this brochure to tell you the story of this media created hoax!

7. The I.R.S. is too tough for me to take on.

FALSE. The I.R.S. is only one person--the one that is contacting you, and if you know your rights, you can take that one person "on" easily. We train you to know your rights.

8. Everyone knows that there is a law that you have to file and pay Income taxes.

FALSE. Phillip Marsh, author of the best selling "The Compleat Patriot," has been unable in eight years of research to find such a law. He has now abandoned the search for such a law because the Congressional Research Service (the agency which researches the law for Congress) can't find the law either. Ask to see a copy of the letter from Sen. Daniel Inouye (D. Hawaii) which confirms this fact.

9. I like paying my taxes and supporting my country.

FALSE. Not one dime of the money the I.R.S. steals from you goes to support this country. Ask the provider of this brochure for the FACTS!

10. I understand the I.R.S. has tax laws that say I have to pay taxes.

FALSE. The I.R.S. code is not law. Furthermore the I.R.S. misapplies every provision in the I.R.S. code. The problem stems from the fact that the average "taxpayer" never sees the I.R.S. code.

11. I am helping to destroy the United States by filing and paying the I.R.S. taxes.

TRUE. The money all winds up in the hands of this country's enemies. Ask for the details of this rip-off.

12. The I.R.S. Is causing over 1,000 deaths per month in the United States. The I.R.S. is responsible for over half of the divorces in the United States. The I.R.S. Is responsible for three quarters of the bankruptcies in the United States today.

TRUE. Can you afford to continue supporting such a domestic enemy?

DO YOU WISH YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN TO BE SLAVES?

"My people perish (meaning to die) for lack of knowledge."

I can only point out these things and offer you help--I cannot do it for you and it is all within your choosing that which you will do. The following article is printed with permission from one who is a remarkably capable writer and person of action. There are other ones attached to her realm of friends who are extraordinary contacts for the further gleaning and dispersing of information of valid content. Your farmers and farm workers are being deliberately poisoned and, frankly, so are you, the consumer.

Also is an article printed herein which concerns lack of housing right in Kern County in arm's reach of this location. It is beyond belief that you ones will send billions and billions of dollars to house foreign political groups and your own are starving and homeless. The migrant farm worker situation is worse in Florida, Texas and other places but it is atrocious all over--how, chelas, can you sit by and allow this torture unto your very brethren?

Dharma, allow us to close. We need some equipment from the city so go and do that which is needed--we have enough to get started on the next edition. Thank you. Hattonn to stand-by.

Protocols of the meetings of the learned elders of Zion

PART TWO

All people are chained down to heavy toil by poverty more firmly than ever they were chained by slavery and serfdom; from these, one way and another, they might free themselves, these could be settled with, but from want they will never get away. We have included in the constitution such rights as to the masses appear fictitious and not actual rights. All these so-called "People's Rights" can exist only in idea, an idea which can never be realized in practical life. What is it to the proletariat labourer, bowed double over his heavy toil, crushed by his lot in life, if talkers get the right to babble, if journalists get the right to scribble any nonsense side by side with good stuff, once the proletariat has no other profit out of the constitution save only those pitiful crumbs which we fling them from our table in return for their voting in favour of what we dictate, in favour of the men we place in power, the servants of our agentur. . . . Republican rights for a poor man are no more than a bitter piece of irony, for the necessity he is under of toiling almost all day gives him no present use of them, but on the other hand robs him of all guarantee of regular and certain earnings by making him dependent on strikes by his comrades or lockouts by his masters.

The people under our guidance have annihilated the aristocracy, who were their one and only defence and foster-mother for the sake of their own advantage which is inseparably bound up with the well-being of the people. Nowadays, with the destruction of the aristocracy, the people have fallen into the grips of merciless money-grinding scoundrels who have laid a pitiless and cruel yoke upon the necks of the workers.

We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the worker from this oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces--Socialists, Anarchists, Communists--to whom we always give support in accordance with an alleged brotherly rule (of the solidarity of all humanity) of our social masonry. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite--in the diminution, the killing out of the GOYIM. Our power is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. Hunger creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to the aristocracy by the legal authority of kings.

By want and the envy and hatred which it engenders we shall move the mobs and with their hands we shall wipe out all those who hinder us on our way.

WHEN THE HOUR STRIKES FOR OUR SOVEREIGN LORD OF ALL THE WORLD (SATAN) TO BE CROWNED IT IS THESE SAME HANDS WHICH WILL

continued on next page

continued from previous page

SWEEP AWAY EVERYTHING THAT MIGHT BE A HIN-DRANCE THERETO.

The goyim have lost the habit of thinking unless prompted by the suggestions of our specialists.

Therefore they do not see the urgent necessity of what we, when our kingdom comes shall adopt at once, namely this, that it is essential to teach in national schools one simple, true piece of knowledge, the basis of all knowledge—the knowledge of the structure of human life, of social existence, which requires division of labour, and, consequently, the division of men into classes and conditions. It is essential for all to know that owing to difference in the objects of human activity there cannot be any equality, that he who by any act of his compromises a whole class cannot be equally responsible before the law with him who affects no one but only his own honor. The true knowledge of the structure of society, into the secrets of which we do not admit the goyim, would demonstrate to all men that the positions and work must be kept within a certain circle, that they may not become a source of human suffering, arising from an education which does not correspond with the work which individuals are called upon not to correspond with the work which individuals are called upon to do. After a thorough study of this knowledge the peoples will voluntarily submit to authority and accept such position as is appointed them in the State. In the present state of knowledge and the direction we have given to its development the people, blindly believing things in print—cherishes—thanks to promptings intended to mislead and to its own ignorance—a blind hatred towards all conditions which it considers above itself, for it has no understanding of the meaning of class and condition.

This hatred will be still further magnified by the effects of an economic crisis, which will stop dealings on the exchanges and bring industry to a standstill. We shall create by all the secret subterranean methods open to us and with the aid of gold, which is all in our hands, a universal economic crisis whereby we shall throw upon the streets whole mobs of workers simultaneously in all the countries of Europe.

[Hatonn: You see, dear ones, your country is still considered a country run and controlled by Europe—and so it is-----the State of Great Britain! But moreover, understand and don't allow forgetting--these Protocols are translated from writings of the fourteen hundreds (the fifteenth century) when there was no America known. Recall further, that the Nilus translation was 1905 and this from which we present this material was 1922. Does it begin to come clear why the Russians have so effected to suppress the "Jews/Zionists" within Russia? You see, Russia has no desire to prevail against American people--but they will go to all lengths to stop the Zionists who have taken control of America in total. So be it, let us continue.] These mobs will rush delightedly to shed the blood of those whom, in the simplicity of their ignorance, they have envied from their cradles, and whose property they will then be able to loot.

"Ours" they will not touch, because the moment of attack will be known to us and we shall take measure to protect our own.

We have demonstrated that progress will bring all the goyim to the sovereignty of reason. Our despotism will be precisely that; for it will be known how by wise severities to pacificate all unrest, to cauterize liberalism out of all institutions.

When the populace has seen that all sorts of concessions and indulgences are yielded it in the name of freedom it has imagined itself to be sovereign lord and has stormed its way to power, but naturally, like every other blind man it has come upon a host of stumbling blocks, it has rushed to find a guide, it has never had the sense to return to the former state and it has laid down its pleni-potentiary powers at our feet. Remember the French Revolution, to which it was we who gave the name of "Great": the secrets of its preparations are well known to us for it was wholly the work of our hands.

Ever since that time we have been leading the peoples from one disenchantment to another, so that in the end they should turn also from us in favour of that King-Despot of the blood of Zion, whom we are preparing for the world.

At the present day we are, as an international force, invincible, because if attacked by some we are supported by other States. It is the bottomless rascality of the goyim people, who crawl on their bellies to force, but are merciless towards weakness, unsparing to faults and indulgent to crimes, unwilling to bear the contradictions of a free social system but patient unto martyrdom under the violence of a bold despotism--it is those qualities which are aiding us to independence. From the premier-dictators of the present day the goyim peoples suffer patiently and bear such abuses as for the least of them they would have beheaded twenty kings. What is the explanation of this phenomenon, this curious inconsequence of the masses of the peoples in their attitude towards what would appear to be events of the same order?

It is explained by the fact that these dictators whisper to the peoples through their agents that through these abuses they are inflicting injury on the States with the highest purpose--to secure the welfare of the peoples, the international brotherhood of them all, their solidarity and equality of rights. Naturally they do not tell the peoples that this unification must be accomplished only under our sovereign rule.

And thus the people condemn the upright and acquit the guilty, persuaded ever more and more that it can do whatsoever it wishes. Thanks to this state of things the people are destroying every kind of stability and creating disorders at every step.

The word "freedom" brings out the communities of men to fight against every kind of force, against every kind of authority, even against God and the laws of nature. For this reason we, when we come into our kingdom, shall have to erase this word from the lexicon of life as implying a principle of brute force which turns mobs into bloodthirsty beasts.

These beasts, it is true, fall asleep again every time when they have drunk their fill of blood, and at such times can easily be riveted into their chains. But if they be not given blood they will not sleep and continue to struggle.

PROTOCOL NO. 4

Stages of a Republic. Gentile masonry. Freedom and Faith. International Industrial Competition. Role of Speculation. Cult of Gold.

Every republic passes through several stages. The first of these is comprised in the early days of mad raging by the blind mob, tossed hither and thither, right and left; the second is demagoguery, from which is born anarchy, and that leads inevitably to despotism--not any longer legal and overt, and therefore responsible despotism, but to unseen and secretly hidden, yet nevertheless sensibly felt despotism in the hands of some secret organization or other, whose acts are the most unscrupulous inasmuch as it works behind a screen, behind the backs of all sorts of agents, the changing of whom not only does not infuriously affect but actually aids the secret force by saving it, thanks to continual changes, from the necessity of expending its resources on the rewarding of long services.

Who and what is in a position to overthrow an invisible force? And this is precisely what our force is. Gentile masonry, blindly serves as a screen for us and our objects, but the plan of action of our force, even its very abiding-place, remains for the whole people an unknown mystery.

But even freedom might be harmless and have its place in the State economy without injury to the well-being of the peoples if it rested upon the foundation of faith in God,

Soviet perspective

Page 11

10/7/91 #2 HATONN
MONDAY

This is a continuation of last week's discussion regarding the Soviet Union. It is the most important subject which must be understood if you are to change anything for the intent is world domination--surprisingly enough--along with Israeli involvement.

The Russians are absolute masters at creating, controlling and marketing to the West their own opposition. Opposition to most human endeavors will arise in time, but if you own it, it will never be a real threat to your enterprise--and it may be able to choke out legitimate opposition. Nothing in the Soviet Empire happens by chance, by accident or by turn of fate. There is a well-defined plan and purpose behind all significant events in the USSR (just as there now are the same intent behind everything your government in the U.S. does). Current Soviet developments are far more easily understood if the Soviet Union is seen as the giant theater which it represents, and the present upheaval as scenes or acts in the drama. This holds true for all locations, factions and nations within the nations of the globe but at this point we are directing attention to the USSR so allow us to go forward without distraction. Let us look at a few of these "scenes":

MIKHAIL GORBACHEV

"Gorby" did not just happen to emerge on the scene in 1985. He was groomed for his position from the 1970's by his mentor, Yuri Andropov--hardline chief of the KGB. As a KGB operative and protege of Andropov, this hardcore Marxist-Leninist was sprung by the Kremlin leadership from relative obscurity in 1983 and 1984 onto the world stage, and portrayed as a great democrat, lover of freedom, reformer, and friend of the little man by Soviet propaganda/disinformation specialists. (Andropov was similarly portrayed as a "western style closet liberal" by Soviet propagandists just a few years earlier if you look back.)

This is the same Mikhail Gorbachev who said in Pravda on December 11, 1984: "In the struggle for peace and social progress the Communist Party of the Soviet Union pursues a consistent policy of rallying the forces of the international communist and working-class movement in every possible way. We uphold the historical justness of the great ideas of Marxism-Leninism, and along with all the revolutionary and peace loving forces of mankind, stand for social progress, and peace and security for all nations. This is what should determine the resolute nature of our propaganda."

EDUARD SHEVARDNADZE

In the mid-'80's the Kremlin began to elevate another actor to center stage--Eduard Shevardnadze. This life-long hardcore Marxist-Leninist was Minister of the Interior for the Republic of Georgia from 1968 to 1972--over the secret police, border guards and all internal security forces (i.e., in charge of Georgia) and remained in that position until 1985 when he was elevated to Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Soviet Union--replacing Andre Gromyko.

Shevardnadze, who has become a close friend of George Bush and especially with Secretary of State, James Baker, resigned from his position as Foreign Minister in December 1990, protesting the USSR's move toward "a dictatorship by the 'hardliners'". He is portrayed by the Soviet and US media as a reformer, a liberal, a staunch democrat and lover of freedom--but still a close friend of Gorbachev's. He was sent to America on a Soviet fund raising drive in the first half of 1991 and was shuttled around the US by America's liberal eastern establishment--requesting $90 billion, for beginners, in Western financial aid for the USSR.

Suave, sophisticated and handsome in appearance, Shevardnadze has been suggested by such establishment publications as the New York Times and London Economist as the next head of the United Nations--to replace Javier Perez de Cuellar. Since the recent coup/countercoup lie drama, Kremlin leaders have begun to move Shevardnadze back onto center stage according to original plans already underway in the scenario. Here, if they decide to write Gorbachev out of the script, which is exactly that which is planned as soon as the U.S. is more fully disarmed, they can move Shevardnadze into the top position.

Shevardnadze has been well packaged for Western leaders and the public as a democrat and lover of freedom by his Kremlin disinformation handlers. You are told his favorite book is THE FEDERALIST PAPERS, and he quotes from it frequently. He would bring great credibility to the "reform/democracy/end of communism" coup if the Communist leadership should decide to place him at the top. What a bunch of you-know-what! How many of you readers even KNOW WHAT THE FEDERALIST PAPERS ARE? YOU HAD BETTER BE FINDING OUT BECAUSE WHAT HAPPENED TO THEM IS WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO YOUR CONSTITUTION. THROUGH A CONVENTION YOUR ENTIRE CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM WAS REWRITTEN AND NOW YOU ARE AGAIN "PRACTICING" AND "EXERCISING" A SYSTEM WHICH IS DIRECTLY OPPOSITE FROM THAT WHICH IS YOUR CONSTITUTION AND THE MOMENT IS ONLY PENDING TO MAKE IT LAW.

SHEVARDNADZE IS STILL IN RESERVE AND AWAITING THE MOMENT TO SERVE AS THE HARDCORE LIFELONG MARXIST-LENINIST REVOLUTIONARY, WHICH HE IS, DEDICATED TO SOVIET WORLD DOMINATION.

BORIS YELTSIN

This is the Kremlin's latest major entry onto the world stage presentation of the Soviet theater. Also a lifelong hardcore Marxist-Leninist

(just like Gorbachev and Shevardnadze), Yeltsin has been portrayed as a staunch anti-communist, democrat, lover of freedom--the Russian "David" willing to risk his life and career by "standing up to the hideous hardline communist monster--Goliath". Americans love a courageous underdog, and Yeltsin's character has been tailored by the Kremlin scriptwriters to elicit great admiration and respect from middle America, Europe, etc. The "man on the street" in the West can identify with this two-fisted, hard charging, hard drinking, outspoken "champion of democracy"--a real Russian "John Wayne" character.

The REALITY of Boris Yeltsin is greatly different. In 1961, at the age of 30, Yeltsin joined the Communist Party. In 1968, he became a full-time Party worker in the Sverdlovsk Communist Party in Siberia. He went on to become Party Secretary, and in 1976 became First Secretary of the Regional Committee. At that post, the hard-driving Yeltsin was noticed by the communist leaders in Moscow. In April 1985 he was elevated to head of the Communist Central Committee Construction Department, and in December, 1985, was appointed head of the 1.2 million member Moscow Politburo, though he was removed in 1987 in a fabricated "quarrel" with Gorbachev in order to delude the public a bit more directly.

Just as with Gorbachev and Shevardnadze, powerful figures in the CPSU Central Committee and KGB put Yeltsin on the fast track to the top--something which does NOT happen in the Soviet Union UNLESS one's Marxist-Leninist credentials are impeccable. Yeltsin's position as the powerful head of the Moscow Communist Party opened the door for him to be placed on the Politburo, as stated above.

Moving on now to June 1991, Yeltsin, promising "swift moves to establish greater democracy and market economics" was elected (in the first-ever such election which was simply "openly" controlled) President of the Russian Republic--which has 150 million of the Soviet Union's 285 million people. He has since assumed near dictatorial powers in case no one has noticed. Following that election the Western press enthusiastically described Yeltsin as "Bigger Than Life--The Russian People Love Him".

continued on next page

continued from previous page

His image, credibility, and standing in the West went into orbit as he appeared to "stand in the gap" against the hardline "gang of eight" coup perpetrators during the recent August coup/countercoup pseudo (lie) drama.

As he "appeared" to stand off the entire Soviet Army and KGB almost singlehandedly, the Western media and public opinion went totally nuts and into orbit with the prearranged sham. It was totally incredible and shameful as they unfolded the stupid nonsense and worse, you ones ate it up like a child in a candy store. Americans and the world, most of whom (the world) saw through the foolish lies, were barraged with articles with typical headlines such as: "The Right Stuff: Yeltsin Joins the Ranks of Robin Hood, Moses, and Churchill". Now, chelas, this is "barf" material! Had the position already been in place, Yeltsin would have been instantly promoted to dictator of the entire world and accepted immediately by you-the-planetary citizenry.

Yeltsin's "thinking" is reflected in speeches he made at the 15th and 16th Party Congresses of the CPSU where he highly praised the tremendous strivings of the CPSU as well as the monumental advancements and great successes of the Soviet Union. As he said at the first of those Party Congresses: "Today we find the mighty productive forces which posses our society, the wealth supplied to the Soviet people by unfettered socialism. And all of this is the result of a wise collective brain, titanic work, unbreakable will, and the unsurpassable organizational talent of the Communist Party and its Central Committee and Politburo...."

Under the leadership of the Central Committee, our Party and the state have actually continued to lead in the hard rebuttal of the aggressive machinations of imperialism (i.e.: America). The communists and all the workers of the Soviet Sverdlovsk Central Committee (headed by Yeltsin until 4/85) assure Congress delegates and Lenin's Central Committee that they will fight with their entire revolutionary fervor and give unswerving dedication to the cause of the Communist Party."

Yeltsin, like Gorbachev, Shevardnadze, and the reform wing (liberal) of the Communist Party, is totally dedicated to perestroika, a restructuring and reorganization of the Communist Party and the Soviet Union from top to bottom and we will cover this a bit later as we move on with this subject. Yeltsin is right now purging hundreds of thousands and will purge millions, of bureaucrats, aparatchiks, and the Nomenclatura (the privileged ones)-not to terminate communism, but to accelerate its thrust toward world domination. He would go even further and faster than Gorbachev--hence the "alleged" rivalry between the two.

Yeltsin is NOT against Gorbachev, nor against communism. He is against the entrenched bureaucracy, and the stagnation it has begotten, which he and Gorbachev believe is self-serving, bloated, and slowing down the communist's timetable for world revolution and perfection of Global Plan 2000.

When Yeltsin and Gorbachev talk about a multiparty system in the Soviet Union, they are speaking about multiple communist parties all functioning within the communist system but given different names to fool the innocent and feeble-minded world players--in conjunction with input from all the nation's governments and bankers who work toward the same end.

I promise you that these new parties will actually end up being totally anti-free enterprise, anti-capitalist, and hardcore Marxist-Leninist (which is solid socialism in its worst form) but will use all the terminology of the free markets, democracy, etc., to hide the fact until you are destroyed.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE SCENARIO NOW "PLAYING"

The Soviets organize their politics according to a well-developed scenario which often includes the death or permanent exit of the main hero(es). It helps to understand the plot, to understand the position and relationship among the actors, as well as the intended influence or impact upon the audience--the world. Nothing in the Soviet Union is accidental: the words, the stage, the violins, or the plot. The obvious players are replicas of the "real stuff" and their being taken out means nothing as the "REAL" players pull the strings of the puppet world.

The three actors just described are all reform minded, liberal Marxist-Leninists and are all on the same side to accomplish the ONE goal. Their directors in the Central Committee of the CPSU, and the KGB (by whatever label they choose to use) and the Soviet military orchestrating the plot, its pace, and each new twist and turn in the plot, such as the recent "coup" demonstration for advertising purposes, is a lot of non-sense just as is the renaming of the Communist Party, the Soviet Union, and the KGB as well as the USSR itself. "A rose by any other name is - - ."

It differs not one iota from Western audiences being fascinated by the next episode of TV's Dallas or Dynasty on regular weekly TV programming. The Kremlin leaders through the world "controlled" media and with the help of those who wield that control, plan to mesmerize and manipulate the West with the next act of Soviet political theater. It is unfolding right in front of you and most do not even question the matter. Many distorters are lined up on the home fronts to occupy the news slots and cause you to forget all about such a thing as a Russian coup. You simply readily pour more wheat into their silos and leave yours empty.

What is the ultimate goal? To convince the West that communism has collapsed--in two years yet! It is to cause you to actually believe that democracy has arrived in the USSR and that all of the Russias are brotherly, honorable and eligible to get on the World Bank IMF dole awards list at all cost to you who aid and abet their cause--i.e., the world bankers and Elite who totally run the U.S.A. and parts West.

It is planned and already happening: MASSIVE US AND WESTERN AID AND DISARMAMENT ARE FOLLOWING RIGHT ON CUE, AND THE INTEGRATION OF EAST AND WEST, STARTING WITH EUROPE, WILL OCCUR--BY MID-TO LATE 1990's.

Vladimir Lenin was a master teacher and observer and in 1912 stated: "Telling the truth is a bourgeois prejudice. Deception, on the other hand, is often justified by the goal."

Do you not find it interesting that even in your tampered Bible it is stated that the anti-Christ/God is the prince of lies and deceit? He is, as a matter of fact, also referred to as the "King" of liars and deceivers!

Vladimir Lenin said something else which you all had better begin to focus on most closely:

"When we are weak, boast of strength...when we are strong, FEIGN WEAKNESS."

Corporation and investment news

I shall not take time to select information which might aid you and give insight into these areas which actually distress ME. I will however, enter herein a copy of a letter which has been sent to a dear friend who has great abundance of funds and efforts to handle them properly but is fearful of ALL methods of possibilities, especially is she in fear of credibility of the FDIC and ability to cover bank deposits. She is absolutely right--your head of the FDIC says that the fund will be totally without funds by year's end. sooooo....

continued on next page

continued from previous page

Then comes the inquiries as to what to do--while most of you ask and then go ask a "broker" and do that which I have just advised against your doing. Do NOT ask me and waste of our precious time if you have no real interest in the input. Start with the liars and then you save your time also--even if you do lose your shirt. That way, you will have less to regret in the long haul.

Dharma, please just copy the letter (omitting pertinent identifying information) just written by Oberli to my beloved one in Florida.

"October 6, 1991

Dear SY,

Although your message on our answering machine was cut off, I have an idea of your questions and it would seem worthwhile to write the answers rather than wait for discussion.

The advantage of a corporation bank account over an individual bank account is that it is assumed that corporations are doing business and either paying interest or taxes (either of which benefits the govt/banks). Thus it is expected that corporate accounts, especially where the bank is acquainted with and knows that the corporation does business and moves significant amounts of money around, will be less likely to be "frozen" as long or to the extent of individual accounts. "XX" is associated, in the minds of the FIB-Carson City people, with the Phoenix Institute, Capital Corporation and several others where there is quite a bit of money in motion. For bankers this tends to create a favorable image and maintain a good relationship with those people who serve us most efficiently.

We do not, however, allow any money to come to rest in any bank account until it has been first invested in gold and the gold used as collateral to borrow the money which is then put in the bank temporarily until we can get it invested in a project, hopefully a project that will not only survive in hard economic times but will either provide profit or a barterable commodity. The benefit of this is that the economic collapse or emergency conditions that create havoc with banking should result in much higher prices for the gold which can be either sold or, depending upon advice, further leveraged to obtain more money to use in the projects (including printing and audio taping and translating).

If the gold is to be sold it can be done through the banks that hold it as collateral and the money brought back into the corporation bank account with greater assurance than is likely for an individual, or even a corporation operating alone, i.e., not as a part of a group of corporations such as we have here.

You are quite right about the FDIC, especially in an economic collapse or emergency game. But that might not come right away (H: DO NOT COUNT ON THIS--YOU ARE IN GREAT AND URGENT STATE OF FLUX.)

In the meantime it doesn't "look" smart to leave more than $100,000 in ANY bank account. (H: NO INDEED--YOU WILL GET, IF ANYTHING, ONLY MERE CENTS ON THE DOLLAR WHEN THE RUG IS PULLED OUT.) We have to be reminded that the Fed game in the past few years has been to grab all the taxes collected (as interest on the "national debt") while running the debt as high as possible with deliberate deficit spending to create more debt upon which to collect interest. There is no known limit to the amount that can be "borrowed from the Fed" (read "M1" or "money growth" or "credit issued" or "currency issued").

The point is: the Fed, with the co-operation of other cartel banks, can sustain the bubble for a lot longer than we might think if it is in their best interest. Right now it appears there is pressure from both Russia and Israel to keep it going a bit longer, albeit ever teetering on the edge of disaster every day. Also, it seems likely that the various factions are not really paying much attention to "the goyim" (all others) since there appear to be so few even rubbing their (our) eyes; it seems more likely that they regard us as easily taken care of whenever they need to once they have solved their internal problem as to who really gets to be King.

The solution to your situation would seem easy enough. If your funds come into the Institute they can be invested in gold while the Notes can be given to "XX" This is already the case with Notes XXXXX. Ordinarily, at this point the Institute is responsible for the funds (pursuant to the Notes) and uses its own discretion as to the best use of the funds and which project accounts in which to disperse them. It appears that you prefer to retain greater control of the use of the funds borrowed against the gold purchased with your funds or that you prefer to select projects for direct investment without using the gold "insurance" technique. If you can tell us which you prefer then we can try to work out a different arrangement in variation from the "standard".

Perhaps you can give me a call after you've had a chance to read . . . etc."

I think readers will find this helpful even without details of the original conversation. As things tighten down we must get information to you as rapidly as possible and you can formulate your own further questions. Thank you.

I need to know as quickly as possible about space available in the paper for further outlaying of the Soviet situation. I have approximately six to seven additional pages (in calculation) necessary to finish this portion of the matter in clarity. This information is simply too important to hold for book (JOURNAL) publication and yet, the paper is also overfilled. We will do the best we can and I will work any way possible to fit either or both to your needs.

Hatonn to clear the circuit. Thank you for your attention and I give great appreciation for the back-up I am receiving as confirmation is absolutely pouring in--I wish there were facilities to share every portion for it is the very "proof" you have been awaiting. So be it--God shall determine far better than can we who have limitations upon our service.

New Age police

To the question of, "Do some judges, prosecutors and police officers today commit dishonest acts to put criminals away?" I answer an unequivocal Yes! But, it is hoped that it is not done without just cause. True immorality exists only when the cause is not just.

After more than 20 years of service to my fellow Americans I realize what reality is. The truth is that today many judges, attorneys, police officials and officers are devotees of the religion of Secular Humanism (S.H.) myself included.

Some of our members (mainly out of fear) will not admit that S.H. is a religion. They are apprehensive that we might be treated as the so-called "Christians" have been treated under the doctrine of Separation of Church and State. Such fear might be well founded if this were 15 to 20 years ago. Not so today. Reason being, colleagues of our faith are, for the most part, in control of the agencies and organizations, such as the ACLU, ABA, Justice Dept. etc., that would normally protest such cases. Although this may at first seem unfair, it is not. But allow me to proceed, and I believe you will come to full understanding of this and many other important facts.

My feelings are that it is time we shepherds open the eyes of our flock and further sort out those we cannot take with us into the 21st Century. Any that would deny that our religion of S.H. is not a valid religion should do their homework. The Supreme Court decided that it is a religion some years ago in the Torcaso vs

Abington, Abington vs Schempp, and in Torcaso vs Watkins cases. According to the High Court, it is "...belief, not body, creed, or cult which appears to be the essence of religion." It further explains that, "...belief" refers to some sort of universal view of life, of the world of mankind - a belief that is held to be true about mankind." In essence the Supreme Court said that one's religion can be "...any world view with or without reference to GOD, theistic or non-theistic in nature". I hope this helps others to understand our Faith, however, this of course is not the main point of my speech.

MIS-TREATMENT OF HUMANIST OFFICERS

I wish to address the abuse of Police Officers who ascribe, knowingly or unknowingly, to the moral tenants of our religion in regards to ethics and morals. Nationwide our devotees are enduring horrible discrimination at the hands of a very hypocritical faction of society, the Christians. This discrimination comes as we Humanists exercise our own religious beliefs and apply our morals "on the job", so to speak. Yet, other officers may apply their own individual belief systems (morals and ethics) at will, without any condemnation. This is undeniable discrimination!

Fortunately, our religion is the fastest growing of any in all of history and many of the younger generation within the criminal justice system, including police officers, who ascribe to sound Secular Humanist principals are now in management which is of benefit to all. This does give us sway power, and is a plus for our side. Still, there is far too much discrimination against those who would apply a most important principle of our religion - "Situation Ethics".

continued on next page

continued from previous page

The principal of Situation Ethics allows the individual to focus correctly on only the goal to be accomplished. Morally speaking, little if any consideration need be given to the method or means, as nothing else supercedes its importance. Of course concern is given to finding a means of accomplishing a task or goal, so as to have the least negative impact on the least amount of our people.

In my youth I recall hearing the great Green Bay Packer coach Vince Lombardi describe it this way: "Winning is not everything; it is the only thing." Much of our society lives by this principal today. Yes, even many of those who "profess other faiths" and occupy pulpits throughout America. Personally, I think the principle of Situation Ethics is best described by examining the legal definition of ethics and morals given by our now compatriots, the Communists. The Communist definition is: "EVERYTHING is ethical and moral as long as it promotes World Communism." This is pure Secular Humanism. We can learn much, incidentally, about total commitment from the Communists. The Marxists have, out of pragmatic necessity, expurgated a minimum of 90 million people in the pursuit of man's noblest mission - world peace. What intelligent person could call "immoral" any means used to accomplish this all important goal?

In our great Humanist Manifestos signed in 1933 and 1973, we explain our moral creed which is very much the same as the Marxist creed, yet set forth in much more palatable and tactful terms. Here is a brief summation of our beliefs regarding Ethics and Truth:

ETHICS - "Moral values derive their source from human experience. Ethics is autonomous and situational, needing no theological or ideological sanction. Ethics stems from human need and interest. To deny this distorts the whole basis of life... We strive for the good life, here and now." - Humanist Manifesto II, 1973

AUTHORITY AND TRUTH - "We reject those features of traditional religious morality that deny humans a full appreciation of their own potentialities and responsibilities. Traditional religions often offer solace to humans, but, as often, they inhibit humans from helping themselves or experiencing their full potentialities... We can discover no divine purpose or providence for the human species... Humans are responsible for what we are or will become. No deity will save us: we must save ourselves." - Humanist Manifesto II, 1973.

After 20 plus years of conditioning, our society now largely subscribes to this philosophy. Some of you who practice "selective" Christianity are closer to our faith than to the superstitions of the Bible thumpers of old. (In selective Christianity, of course, you choose certain portions of the so-called "Word of God" to believe in, and discard the parts that are not convenient.) Don't you see that in this we are just alike? Your "faith" is actually based on what is right under man's desire. We Humanists are in fact more honest. We admit that there is no God - that it is only Man's desires that are important. You leaders of these "selective Christians" preach that your faith is based on some parts of "God's Law" but, in actuality the majority is based on what feels good or is convenient.

Quite obviously, America's government now operates under the guiding principles of Humanism. Deception, lying, cheating, stealing, killing, is all moral if it promotes the attainment of our essential goals. This is true righteousness. A prime example can be seen in the recent war against Iraq. Over 250,000 have lost their lives so far, and more are dying every day - all for the attainment of a higher good, the goal of our great Humanist leaders: WORLD PEACE through World Government.

This New Age teaching is the reason why, for example, a police officer (one of Secular Humanist persuasion) is likely to risk his very life to save a member of society one moment and the very next moment take the witness stand and lie in order to win an important case. This is not to be considered immoral, given the particular standard of ethics upon which such an officer bases his morality - namely, that the end justifies any means. (In other words again, the "Higher Good" principle!) Many people still do not understand this. They don't understand that this is why our presidents and their staffs, members of Congress and hosts of others with leadership roles in America - lawyers, judges, etc. - lie and cheat right along side our dedicated Humanist Law Enforcers. To repeat, ALL FOR THE GREATER GOOD OF SOCIETY, i.e. the SYSTEM.

What the Masses must be made to understand, and never be allowed to forget, is that this is for their own good. They should know by now that those who are actually in control of our government (as Col. Oliver North explained) truly know what is best for the people. They must also know that under the New World Order, the Justice System's primary mission will be to protect the system from the masses. It is precisely in view of this that we on the inside have been obligated all along to use the system to suppress dissenters as quickly as possible - before any radical Anti-World Government, Anti-Humanist group can gain the upper hand.

You're aware of course, that the vast majority of Americans seek only peace and security. They hardly even realize that they have virtually made government their new god, to which they turn for the fulfillment of every need. Our New Age leaders (and we soldiers as their "arms and legs") stand ready to give the Masses all for which they pray.

Let me repeat: Our job within the Criminal Justice system today is to protect the PLAN, the SYSTEM, and punish those that our leaders decide are enemies of that System. Of course now, as with our Soviet colleagues, under New Age Humanist Situation Ethics, we are not limited in the methods we may apply to win. We can therefore proceed with unobstructed haste to make the masses safe and peaceful.

Let's look again at our example of that police officer who routinely risks his life for others and yet will lie on the witness stand to help his government win some case in court. If some of you are still suprised at this then perhaps you haven't understood what I have been trying to convey. Nor have you understood what your children have learned so well over the last 20 years within the government school system.

It is that we are living in a new age where man has wisely placed his trust in GOVERNMENT instead of some superstition called the DIVINE or GOD. It is the old religious morals that have caused all of our problems. A new age calls for a new belief system, a new moral code, a new religion. It is exciting to see most all of the religions of the world coming nicely together, UNITED, in preparation to serve the New World Order. We must all dedicate ourselves to obeying our leaders without question and to the instruction of succeeding generations toward our utopian goals of World Peace.

I would like to introduce you to one present-day scholar Dr. Sidney Simon, who has been very effective, and deserving of much credit for his efforts in this work of re-educating humanity. He speaks plainly and his meaning is unmistakable, as when he says,

"We do not need any more preaching about right and wrong. The old 'thou shalt not's' simply are not relevant." He goes on to explain to the child educators he is addressing that "values clarification" is a method for teachers to change the values of children 'without getting caught'. (Values Clarification is another term for Situation Ethics)

A book in use by educators called, WEEP FOR OUR CHILDREN, spells out "values clarification" as part of the new morality:

"It's OK to lie. It's OK to steal. It's OK to have premarital sex. It's OK to cheat or to kill if these things are part of your value system, and you have clarified these values for yourself. The important thing is not what values you choose, but that you have chosen them yourself freely and without coercion of parents, spouse, priest, friends, ministers or social pressure of any kind." It is such S.H. proponents in the government schools (the teachers) whom we can thank for re-molding the values of these next generations.)

When the government National Child Care bill is passed it will be a great day for Humanists and proponents of World Peace. What wonders we can achieve once we have the attention of the nation's pre-schoolers for 6 to 9 hours a day! Look what we have already accomplished with the older age groups of America's youth.

As I hinted earlier, this new society, based on the deity of Man, will demand a new kind of Law Enforcer.

One of our educators said to me some weeks ago, "America's religious zealots of the past would be shocked at the changes the people have allowed." She was correct, for after all, it was James Madison that said, "We have staked the whole future of American civilization, not upon the power of government, far from it. We have staked the future... upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to sustain ourselves, according to the Ten Commandments of God."

Ah, but it is a new day, and we are fast proceeding into the 21st Century. Americans no longer wish to assume the responsibilities of governing themselves. Happily for them, there is a whole new generation of very dedicated leaders and enforcers in government to see that they are cared for.

ENFORCEMENT MANPOWER

Let me address for a moment the question of Police manpower. As the citizens relinquish, out of fear, more of their rights, more Enforcers are required to regulate and supervise the people's activities so that they remain safe and peaceful. Who would have thought 100 years ago that the intergration of fear of literally everything would have been the answer to establishing the New World Order? Credit for this innovation goes to the Free Thinkers of the last generation.

Now the older generation known as "Peace Officers", "Servants of the People", might not so readily have adopted, nor fit into, this new order of things. Fortunately, this has not posed too great a problem, due to the fact that they are rapidly being replaced through natural attrition, i.e., death or retirement. The next 7 to 8 years will see the last of them removed.

At the same time, police agencies are of necessity attempting more and more to screen out before hiring those prospective officers who believe in the old religious superstitions. This is wise because these zealots will not do the things that will be required of them under the new system. Those remaining police officers who openly profess a belief system steeped in old world Religious Fundamentalism, can be and are being phased out on any number of charges, such as can be substantiated over time or with the help of a little innovation on the part of new management.

Some of these "old time" officers complain that this type of job discrimination is "unconstitutional and immoral", but we know they are wrong. Under Situation Ethics all things are moral as long as they promote the GOAL. Therefore they are not being removed for any evil cause; they are incompatible and simply non-functional for the duties that will be required of them.

SUPERVISING A HYPOCRITICAL PUBLIC

I feel I need to say again that if a professional police officer must lie against those who violate the Law, then it is moral. The same is true when government judges and attorneys withhold evidence and witnesses from the jury to win their cases. When a politician lies to win an office, or makes deals that promote the New Order, it is moral.

Let me tell you what is truly immoral. I will use the issuance of traffic citations as only one example. True immorality is when 5 out of 10 "good upstanding citizens" take the witness stand, swear an oath to their GOD, and then proceed to fabricate lies to get out of their tickets. This our Enforcement Officers witness daily in court. To them this is not only immoral but highly hypocritical.

The Enforcer's dishonesty helps society as a whole. If a government agent lied for personal reasons it would be immoral; if done for the betterment of mankind, it is not. And that is the most important lesson I bring you today. It is one thing when a leader, or agent of government has to lie or otherwise deceives his subjects. It is quite another when an ordinary individual from among the masses, "bites the hand that feeds him" by lying to those who are bringing salvation in this brave new world. Do we see this important difference?

The Old World understood that it was the greatest of sins to lie to or deceive God. The generations of devotees that wish to enter the New World must likewise be brought to the understanding that it is the greatest of sins to lie to or deceive their new God, Government. Any such disloyalty would surely hamper the progress of those engaged in ushering in the glorious New World Order.

RESISTANCE TO THE NEW ORDER

We are not concerned with the few who may resist this New Order, for out of pragmatic necessity their fate has been amply allowed for in the Master Plan. What we are most concerned about at present is that the obedient masses be made to understand that it is detrimental to progress for them to suggest that their Supervisors wallow under the pressure and futility of the antiquated superstitions, morals and dogma of the past. There will be some difficult changes facing the person entering this New Society. On these issues, however, we can assure the people there will be no compromise.

Thank you for listening. May the blessing of the New Order come swiftly upon us.

SO MOTE IT BE

EDITOR: This article was presented to "Aid & Abet" for publication by a long-time member of the Police profession. The writer has used a pen name of Rupert Orpheus because he does not wish to make himself known at this time. On taking this position of privacy this Official may well spark some criticism. However, I do not demand that officers sharing articles with us reveal their identity, especially if they believe there may be reprisals for exercising their first amendment rights (even when we disagree).

United States of America commits suicide

By Dr. J. Coleman

This past week we saw and heard an extraordinary statement made by President George Bush, that the United States will immediately throw away its defenses on the sole and solemn (worthless) promise of the leader of the Soviet Union, that his country will do likewise.

If we as a nation were not so television brain-dead, we would have reacted with a wave of national anger, we would have inundated the White House with protest calls, we would have organized a march of millions of people on Washington. I have seen nothing of the kind materializing. Why? Because we are a television brain-dead nation! Numbers and statistics mean absolutely NOTHING to us. Oh, we will stand in a concerted rush and roar our lungs out when one of our favorite football players scores a touch-down, but when we see and feel a rope being tied around our necks, a rope which we ourselves supplied, in preparation for our hanging, we do and say nothing.

The Soviet Union already has the ascendancy over the United States in weaponry and technology, thanks to Herr Kissinger and Richard Nixon (the order is not coincidental) who went to Moscow in 1972 to sign the ABM Treaty, the worst betrayal of America in all of its history. Wars are won by weapons, not by diplomacy. It is a well-known fact that the invention of gunpowder altered the course of wars. Bows and arrows, swords and battle axes are of no use against musket and cannon. Likewise, in today's hostile environment, which, contrary to what the jackals of the media and our government in Washington are saying, has not abated, space-age weapons will play the decisive role. Without attaining superiority in this field, the United States will go down in defeat.

We lost whatever chance we had to stay ahead of the Soviet Union in nuclear weaponry when Nixon signed the infamous Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty (ABM) in 1972, for that treaty put a HOLD on development and production of our orbiting laser beam platforms, which we called the Strategic Defense System (Initiative) or (SDI). It also put an end to our plans to develop and produce the Orbital Nuclear Bomb Platform, which the Soviets deployed before the ink was dry on the ABM Treaty. Now, we are being misled to believe that the Soviets will throw their huge advantage away!

This is what Dr. Hans Ruehe, famous military expert and chief planner for the West German Defense Ministry had to say about the treasonous acts of Kissinger and Nixon:

"Soviet technology has continued apace in spite of 'international agreements'. While the Soviet missile and space programs silently continued, the American activities were buried formally and de facto by the Anti-Ballistic Missile (ABM) Treaty. Thus the treaty prevented any progress toward efficient American missile defense systems without stopping Soviet research programs and modernization methods". This is precisely what President Bush and his cabinet are going to allow the Soviet Union to do; BURY US FORMALLY AND DE FACTO WHEN IT COMES TO OUR DEFENSE CAPABILITIES.

The men in the Kremlin must be clinking glasses and downing champagne in unrestrained celebration tonight. They have defeated the only nation capable of stopping their grand design for world conquest, without having to fire a single shot!

Marshall Orgakov, master of deception (maskirovka) and chief of the Soviet Armed Forces, has long been at war with the U.S. He is outside of the political control of Gorbachev and his Kremlin advisors. Today, in spite of hair-raising stories about the total collapse of the Soviet economy and the infrastructure of the country--and they are only STORIES, the Armed Forces of the USSR are COMBAT READY, while we are standing down our RED ALERT defenses!

In a recent speech, Orgakov stated, "The imperialists (the U.S. and Britain) are preparing to destroy the Soviet Union, but Russia will never be caught unprepared as it was in 1938." No matter that this is an historical lie. In 1938 the giant Krupp munitions plant in Mynach BEHIND THE URAL MOUNTAINS, was ready for war. The project was financed by the Bank of England and the international banks on Wall Street.

While the Soviets developed and placed in orbit their Cosmospheres (similar in a way to our defunct SDI program), and while they deployed in space their Orbital Nuclear Bomb Platform, the traitors within our gates were stridently shouting for a balanced budget. Congress could have done that overnight with the stroke of a pen, by abolishing the so-called "national debt", the blood money we pay to Wall Street and international financial bloodsuckers. So, in the name of a "balanced budget" we emasculated our research and development programs for space-age weapons. This was CRIMINAL TREASON OF THE WORST ORDER.

Even before the ABM Treaty, the Soviets had already built and deployed their Cosmosphere platforms carrying heavy laser beam weapons that could hit any target anywhere in the U.S. with impunity. The jackals of the media derisively dubbed the efforts of U.S. scientists who pleaded that we deploy similar weapons in space, as "Star Wars". GOD SAVE AMERICA FROM THE BUDGET CUTTERS, BUT OF COURSE HE WON'T. It is too late, they have already inflicted a mortal wound upon this nation. While the USSR has 1200-1500 ABM launchers in 16 sites around Moscow, called the Tallin system--and they had it BEFORE the ABM Treaty tied our hands--we have no ABM defense system at all.

Marshall Orgakov changed the direction of Soviet strategic long range planning as far back as 1968. Orgakov required systems that would work well in theater wars or global nuclear war. Thus was born the OFFENSIVE SYSTEMS OF THE USSR WHICH WERE HONED AND SHARPENED INTO WHAT THEY ARE TODAY. Marshall Orgakov will allow nothing to interfere in this program. If we believe he will, such U.S. thinking is either wishful thinking or treason. The Orgakov Doctrine is based on the following points:

- (1) Don't lose a war if it starts.
- (2) Protect the Socialist System.
- (3) Defeat or gravely weaken the CAPITALIST SYSTEM.
- (4) Maintain Conventional and Nuclear military superiority.
- (5) Keep the "MASKIROVKA" deception and concealment program at full strength. (Orgakov is the author of I'maskirovka).

The policy of disarming America, begun by Luciferian Trust founder Robert Strange McNamara, is being continued full force by President George Bush. The horrifying thing is that Soviet Orbital Nuclear Bomb Platforms, each carrying several nuclear bombs and which circle the globe many miles out in space, and which platforms can be stopped over any city to drop their load, is NOT included in the latest agreement. Nor is the Cosmosphere system.

Middle East Review PART TWO

By A.N. Other.

The first fully-modern Caucasoids appeared in the period when Joshua invaded the land of Palestine. It is clear from archaeological findings that these were Caucasians, because the criteria for a caucasoid are clearly defined here. These criteria are the standard ones for identifying different races. While other archaeological finds in Palestine were less clear, the Caucasoids were perfectly identifiable. This alone gives the lie to the idea that the Khazarians from Europe had any links with Palestine.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

As we know from history, Joshua was able to subdue the peoples encountered in Palestine, or as it was known then, Syria-Palestine, which lay alongside the Mediterranean coast, south of Mt. Amanus. Its north-eastern frontier was the Euphrates, and in the south, the Syrian desert. This brief historical and geographical description is important, because this is the land that Prime Minister Shamir and others in his cabinet have decreed is "eretz Israel", i.e. greater Israel, which the Israelis mean to take back.

The first step in this direction was the barbaric genocidal war against the nation of Iraq, which stands in the way of "eretz Israel". In this the Israelis are aided and abetted by President George Bush, who has shown himself to be quite as barbaric and ruthless as his Khazarian friends in Palestine.

The Der Yassin massacre of 600 Palestinians by the Stern, Haganah and Irgun gangsters, pales into insignificance when compared with burying 12,000 Iraqi soldiers alive, and trying to annihilate 174,000 (thus far) Iraqi children. (This shocking story in its full and grisly horror will be the subject of future articles for Phoenix Express).

In any event, the first tenuous links with Palestine by the people who were first called Jews in the 17th century Bible, appeared when an underworld gangster from Babylon, known as Herod, attached himself to the remnants of the tribes of Benjamin and Juda (true Israelite Hebrews) who were returning to their homeland after being in captivity in Assyria. Herod was NOT an Israelite Hebrew. He was a Babylonian Canaanite.

Herod established himself in Palestine by bribing Mark Anthony with gold coins to lend him two Roman legions. These Roman soldiers became Herod's mercenaries, and he used them in ruthless cruelty to subdue that part of Palestine which he had taken unto himself.

In modern times, the first rumblings of future problems for the Palestinians began in 1906 with the establishment of a Freemasonic Lodge at Salonika and continued with the brilliant campaigns of Lawrence of Arabia. Colonel Lawrence galvanized the Arabs and fought a victorious war against the Turks along the Hijaz railway on behalf of British Zionism, although, at the time, he was not aware of how he was being used.

The Ottoman Empire was finally destroyed, beginning with Britain's offensive in Palestine. Strongly led by Colonel Lawrence and his Arabian forces, the British broke the Turkish lines near the Mediterranean, and rolled up the Turkish forces. Only the Germans managed to escape into Transjordan.

Perfidious Albion thus rewarded the Ottomans for giving shelter to Jews expelled from Europe by England, France and Spain. When Lawrence of Arabia found out how he had been betrayed, he decided after much soul-searching that he would "go public," and was on his way to London to carry out his resolve, when he was killed in a motorcycle "accident".

When General Edmund Allenby marched into Jerusalem on December 9th, 1917, little did the native inhabitants of Palestine realize that this was the start of a massive offensive to uproot them and drive them out of their ancestral homeland. I have previously dealt with how this is being accomplished through the so-called "Balfour Declaration", which should have been named the "Rothschild Zionist Declaration".

That the Zionists have established a death-grip on Palestine is not in dispute, and it is worth noting that they were only able to defeat the combined Arab forces in three wars, thanks to massive assistance in weapons and money, which came almost totally from Britain and the United States of America.

When the Arabs showed some signs of regrouping for another round of hostilities against the Zionist forces, it was the Swedish Jew, President Eisenhower who flouted every international law on the books by landing U.S. forces in Lebanon as an intimidating show of force to warn the Arabs to cease and desist.

The Zionists steadily increased choke-hold pressure on the Palestinians and Arabs. By May 1942, Jewish immigration to Palestine had risen sharply in accordance with the Biltmore Plan, a Zionist plan to repudiate the British plan of 1939, mentioned in part one of this series, which called for an independent Palestine.

Instead, with support from worldwide Zionism, the Biltmore Plan demanded a Jewish state controlled by a Jewish army, and as we see today, the Zionists have successfully accomplished their goal. On the 13th of August 1945, the World Zionist Congress demanded that Palestine be opened to a further 1,000,000 Jews. Jewish President Harry Saloman Truman swiftly backed this outrageous demand. On August 31st., only 18 days after the Zionist Congress, Truman demanded that 100,000 Jews be admitted to Palestine as "refugees" from war-torn Europe.

Why he should have elected to pick on a small nation like Palestine to carry the full burden is easily answered. If indeed the "refugees" needed a country, there were many far more suitable countries who would have been willing to take them. In fact, it is now known that the majority of Jews would have preferred to remain in Europe, in spite of their troubles. We also know now that the whole Palestine immigration plot was part of Irgunist strategy to force Jews to leave

see Zionism page 20

The power of unity

9/19/91 SANANDA

Unity: 1. The state or fact of being one. 2. Something that is wholly united and complete within itself. 3. A state or quality of mutual understanding and harmony. 4. The harmonious agreement of parts or elements into one united whole.

Greetings my precious little sister, Druthea. I AM Sananda. You may refer to me as Jesus Christ, Esu, or Immanuel. You are the children, lost and found, of Our Father, whom we The Hosts call Aton (The One Light) and whom you may call God. I come in the service and glory of God/Aton, THE ONE Creator, the Mind-Cause of all Creation. I AM sent to reclaim His lambs who so desire to move "closer" through KNOWING within the I AM presence of The ONE.

UNITED WE STAND.
DIVIDED WE FALL....

We of God's Hosts are many who come to bring you The Word. We come from many dimensions, both "seen" and "unseen" by Earth physical human. We come to show you the way out of the dark abyss of "illusion" of separation called "physical" and into the glory and power of UNITY of purpose and desire.

Remember this statement? If not, I suggest you go find it and read it completely. You must understand HOW your adversaries have diligently worked to develop DIVISION among YOU, The People. There are so many separate factions

continued on next page

continued from previous page

of self-interested groups and organizations that you have now a nation of people who cannot agree on ANYTHING, and then individuals who could CARE less as long as their own "needs" are met.

THE WAR BETWEEN "THE SEXES"

You have division between males and females, which in itself has nearly destroyed your species because of the disharmony and unbalance which disunited sexed pairs in Creation will ALWAYS cause. Many ones of you are plainly and simply confused about your own sex identity and how it relates to its equal and opposite sex-mate pair.

Homosexuality is not a "natural" nor is it a balanced paired relationship when the physical sexual act is practiced. God did not create male-male sexed pairs in His divided thinking, nor did He create female-female sexed pairs in His divided thinking. He created by His KNOWING through His One desire of Creation in motion, MALE-FEMALE sexed pairs in ALL of His Creation. My beloved brother Hatton discusses much more thoroughly about the workings of sexed-pairs (charge and discharge) in the PHOENIX JOURNAL, God Said: LET THERE BE LIGHT.... I strongly suggest that you carefully study it as well as the rest of The Pleiades Connection series. I quote therefrom:

"...All of the work of the universe is performed as a result of that desire in unbalanced matter to seek rest in a balanced condition.

This is a sexed electric universe in every effect of motion, whether it be in the heart of a giant sun or in the petal of a meadow violet. Every action of motion in the universe is a result of sex desire for motion from a state of rest, or for rest from a state of motion.

These two sex desires of electric action and reaction are the result of the two desires of the Father to manifest His One Light through the extended father/mother lights which interweave His idea of Creation into the multiple forms of that idea and void them periodically for the purpose of repeating them.

The desire for two-way motion is equal action and reaction as reflected in the dual electric desire to give for regiving, and to unfold for refolding."

The point I am making is that the male-female pairs are EQUAL OPPOSITES, charge and discharge. Without this division of thought by MIND of Creator, there would be no Creation. Creation is EFFECT caused by the opposition of male-female mate-pairs seeking balance again which only occurs when UNITY is achieved in GOD ONENESS.

Until men and women completely understand and respect their differences and co-creative responsibilities as sex-paired equal opposites, your species will not create the balance it needs to survive physically and spiritually in harmony.

DOMINANCE and SURRENDER

You cannot continue as you are in the roles of conqueror and conquered and succeed in achieving balanced co-creation with God. You cannot continue to have a war between the sexes, a war between races and creeds, and a war between cultures and religions and find peace, which only UNITY with a COMMON (shared equally) purpose can bring. You must rise above the need to dominate and conquer or surrender and be conquered for in this manner of existence, no balance will be found. When God is shut out by the harboring of feelings such as hatred, greed and intolerance, your opportunity to receive God-knowledge and power is quite diminished.

God cannot regive unto man who only takes from His Creation and gives nothing back to God. For man who is dominated by his physical senses, who remains God-unaware feels like he is in quicksand, helpless and powerless to control his destiny. And so he is.

CREATING UNITY MEANS ESTABLISHING A COMMON PURPOSE AND A COMMON GOAL

So as a nation and a planet with two sexes, thousands of religious doctrines and dozens of races, creeds and cultures, how do you create unity?

First there must be created by each participating human THE DESIRE for UNITY with UNITY representing a shared vision of EQUAL giving and regiving in all transactions and relationships with one another. Only those with a well-defined shared vision can accomplish their objective.

Next you must define your objective. Let us say that your defined OBJECTIVE is: Total freedom from tyranny (dominance and surrender existence) and global and individual inner peace, balance and harmony.

Now how do you go about creating your above objective?

First, you must locate the tools and talents you already possess. For example, The Republic of The United States still has The U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights which were documents designed to prevent TYRANNY within the government and guarantee the individual the opportunity to pursue happiness. Your adversaries cannot conquer you completely until they do away with these documents and the freedoms guaranteed under them.

Every human in this land called America, whether they be a she, or a Christian, Buddhist, Judean or Atheist; or whether they be a Native Indian, White, Asian, Hispanic or Black person will all reap the horrendous consequences of allowing the LOSS of the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights. You will become a nation of slaves ruled by tyrants and so, too, will the rest of your world become slaves.

Secondly, You must ALL become knowledgeable about your freedoms granted under the Constitution so that you have achieved UNITY OF MIND understanding about what you must work to reclaim exactly.

Thirdly, you must plan and agree upon a course of action, with each sharing responsibility for actions which work to achieve your shared objective of reclaiming and preserving this, your Constitution of the United States.

Fourthly, in order to truly BE SUCCESSFUL, there must be an understanding outlined in which ALL operate under High Moral Integrity which, of course, involves a basic inner understanding and knowledge of THE LAWS OF GOD governing Human. For if you seek to ruthlessly fight fire with fire in ways which defy BALANCE, you will die by fire and gain nothing but sorrow for your objective will be blown away as a feather in the wind.

ALL ARE ONE

In order to achieve your first objective as a Nation Created Under GOD, you must first DESIRE UNITY between ALL peoples. In order to do this you can no longer see yourselves as male versus female, Christian versus Buddhist, Black versus White, Republican versus Democrat. For you are ALL related and there is ONLY ONE CREATOR.

Only men and women who remain superstitiously attached to their ignorance of God-truth and God-knowledge will continue to develop intolerance and disunity and remain as tools of the adversary. It is your choice, my chelas.

Can you give love to ALL your brethren as God does? Do you think your SOUL essence is more or less important to God? There is a saying, "God is 'color' blind." I say, GOD CREATED ALL "ILLUSIONS" OF COLOR. Do you think that he cares one whit more or less about the color of YOUR skin? He only cares about the REAL you (your soul-essence) which is a part of Him as He is a part of you.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

It is written in the "so-called" Holy Bible that I, Immanuel, Sananda said, "I and My Father Are One." I ask that you meditate upon that statement in THE LIGHT of HOLY God's presence and you WILL be given TO KNOW the meaning as it relates to YOU, IF that truly be your soul desire.

GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE GOD'S CHOSEN LAND

The term "Israel" is used frequently and erroneously in your "so called" Holy Bible. Why do I say this? Because in your Bible, it refers to a specific race or "so called" race of people. They call themselves "Jews". This term was created by your adversary in the 1700's. There actually exist two very different groupings under this title. They are Hebrew Judeans and Khazar Zionists. Most Hebrew Judeans believe in and worship God. Most Khazar Zionists are satanic atheists as is often demonstrated by their amoral and evil actions and behaviors. This subject of the Khazars, Commander Hatonn has outlined most comprehensively in several of the PHOENIX JOURNALS, so I will not comment further, except to say this: God would never CHOOSE an entire race or human-developed religion above another. For EACH individual's soul-growth is judged based upon THE WORKS he or she accomplishes--balanced or unbalanced.

The term "israel" spelled with the "i" in lowercase is the correct term meaning "God's chosen". It does not signify a place of tyranny and corruption taken BY FORCE from another group of people which is now called "Israel", located in your Middle East.

The REPUBLIC of the United States of America represents the true "israel" because of the document which was created to have a government run FOR THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE. NO other country on your globe was given the opportunity for divine freedom and the pursuit of happiness such as was outlined in your Constitution and Bill of Rights. Your country is a nation created UNDER GOD, with many cultures, races and religions experiencing and sharing these God-given opportunities together.

You were also given RESPONSIBILITY for maintaining the checks and balances of your sovereignty. It was NEVER designed to be TAKEN FOR GRANTED. Your forefathers knew the nature of their adversary who would enslave them. They WARNED "you, the people" endlessly about the threats which were and would be made to the freedoms and instructions for government operation and state sovereignty which they outlaid. HAVE YOU LISTENED? It is apparent that MOST of you have not even had an inkling of the evil tyranny perpetrated against you by your would-be enslavers. The question remains: WILL YOU LISTEN NOW AND TAKE THE NECESSARY ACTION IN BEHALF OF YOURSELVES AND YOUR COUNTRY?

THE KEYS TO CREATING UNITY: LOVE, KNOWLEDGE, RESPECT, TOLERANCE and CHARITY

LOVE: This I define as absolute, unconditional God-love, equal giving and regiving. For human (higher universal man) it is the required component of co-creation with GOD. Love one another as God Loves you all. This has NOTHING whatsoever to do with the "sexual" act. When you manifest God-love giving and regiving you WILL create balanced transactions.

KNOWLEDGE: This I define as GOD-Knowledge and a subheading called, Human Circumstance Knowledge. GOD-Knowledge: Desire is the key. Desire to KNOW and SERVE God who dwells WITHIN you. Learn to listen to His whispers and shouts. Your success can be measured according to the level and intensity of your desire. "The call compels the answer," so KNOW your desires. They are felt as SOUL awareness. You ones may refer to it as, "My Heart says this..." or my "Intuition is telling me that...", or "My conscience tells me this is wrong". TUNE IN. SEEK TO KNOW THE WHY-CAUSE. Then you must wait upon God to reveal it to you. It is best not to have PRE-conceptions about where and how the answers will come. KNOW THEY WILL COME AND BE READY TO RECEIVE THEM.

Human Circumstance Knowledge:

There is much information you must have in order to conduct and plan your service to God and Country. For example, you must KNOW who your adversaries are and what they plan and plot in order to control, enslave and destroy you.

Besides this source (THE PHOENIX JOURNALS and EX-PRESS), you can find truth from a FEW other brave souls whom we have mentioned in earlier works. We bring truth which you can validate if you so choose. Each of you will need to become investigators on your own in your areas of interest to verify that which we give. Some info will be difficult, but not impossible to verify. Always you must measure information you receive within the presence of God's Light so that you will KNOW instantly what the appropriate next step must be, if for example there is the probability of an earthquake near your home, you must make necessary decisions of preparations as you are guided to do so within.

RESPECT: I will explain what I explicitly mean by this term. To have high regard for and appreciation of worth. And also to honor each being, creature and creation as the equal fragment or portion of God's divided thinking, which has been created from the still Light of His Knowing. To create UNITY, you individuals must respect and honor your differences, as long as they (your differences) do not defy the Laws of God and Creation. Does this mean you will always agree or do things in the same way or see things from the same point of perception? Certainly not...(until of course, you attain spiritual perfection and become One With God in your KNOWING). Remember this: Your deepest and most profound spiritual challenges come from your inter-actions with your fellow brethren on physical earth incarnations.

TOLERANCE: As with RESPECT, you must exercise TOLERANCE when you encounter differences in regard to how another thinks, perceives, looks, responds and behaves. That is, as long as their behavior does not defy God's Laws or infringe upon your freedom of development of your co-creative potential. In no manner do I use this term to imply BLIND TOLERANCE to allow all to DO and SAY whatever they choose and call it "freedom of expression" or as so often referred to "rights" which blatantly disregard the Laws of God. Also, never must you sanction behavior which is evil when you KNOW it to be evil. Never either must you turn your back on your adversary! Face evil within God's presence and evil will cower and fall away...unless you turn the other cheek and allow evil to intimidate you! It will, if YOU allow it!

Can you force another to NOT defy God's laws? No. You can, however, encourage them to not do something and explain WHY you do not sanction their choice or behavior. Ultimately they will DO what they will do, and unless they attempt to do something against you or your family, you cannot use force to stop them, for example, from having an abortion (which is murder).

CHARITY: What I mean by charity is sharing brotherly LOVE. Giving and sharing Good Will with your brethren. Generosity given to the deserving by allowing God within to measure/judge how and to whom He will regive. Doing unto others as you would have them do unto you. Treat the sick and poor and spiritually ignorant people with dignity, generosity, patience and compassion that they may feel worthy and are given an example of how to, perhaps, create the desire to move their awareness beyond their suffering and neediness. Always be generous with The Light which YOU carry to assist another. You see, my precious chelas, generosity often really has little to do with money or physical "things", although sharing with others and giving food and other items when needed is most commendable when it is truly done for LOVE and not obligation, social recognition or expectation.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

All you need ever do is ask Our Father who dwells within you: "What is the Highest and best response to this situation?" or "Please show me the right and balanced response to this circumstance. Not my will, Father, let thine will be done." In this way can you raise your spiritual character to the heights of some 8000 years past when in Egypt, for a time, the Egyptians lived with the Highest Moral Character of your recent civilization, and put their fellow men and women before self, with the desire to love and be loved in all their interchanges. My beloved brother, Walter Russell, wrote of this way of life, as has Germain in the recent PLEIADES CONNECTIONS series. We call it RYTHMIC BALANCED INTERCHANGE. So be it.

I will close this document. Thank you Druthea, for your service. You have done well this day. Be at peace, chela, for I am always with thee. I AM SANANDA, One With God. Walk gently with one another in Peace and Love. Salu.

HOMELESS: continued from page 6

assistance from any social service agency although half live in poverty. Among migrant families, only 9 percent take government help.

Still, men like Castro say they would like to tuck their children into bed in a house each night and send them to school each morning.

"In reality, I don't understand the dimension of the problem," Castro said. "My perspective might be about a very small part of a huge problem."

But in the group of about 120 farm workers who cut table grapes with Castro in the fields off Seventh Standard Road, more than 30 are homeless.

They, like the Castro family, are forced into the fields to sleep, unable to come up with a month's rent and a deposit and unsure how long they will live in one place. Landlords are reluctant to rent to migrants because their stays are so short and they tend to overcrowd units, according to a 1988 survey conducted by the state housing department.

Migrant families rarely know their way around the communities nearby. The simplest place to sleep is outside.

But that is far from simple.

Weekly, sometimes nightly, ranchers or hired hands drive through the orchards to roust campers. Sheriff's deputies finally asked the Castros to leave their afternoon hangout next to a convenience store at Seventh Standard Road and Highway 46.

"Nobody's responsible for the workers," said Castro, 34, who dreams of returning to his three-bedroom home in the Mexican state of Sonora. "They've left us on our own."

Meanwhile, increasing numbers of men are moving in from Mexico, taking what housing they can or traveling in groups on the road. Although unaccompanied men are concentrated in the Midwest and Northeast, "significant" numbers also are coming to California, according to Mines.

The federal demographer, who last year published his "Findings from the National Agricultural Workers Survey," has been studying migratory patterns both in California and nationally since the 1970s. His reports are used frequently in Washington as a starting point for other migrant studies.

He said the influx of unaccompanied men may mean added trouble. More families with children may be forced to take to the road. And the migrating men, many of whom are married, may soon settle and call for their wives and children back home.

Arvin city officials, seeing the influx of unattached migrant men, are considering a plan to build a 300-bed complex south of town just for single farm workers.

"It's cyclical," Mines said in an interview from his Washington office. "This current surge of workers will settle and bring their families."

The surge is similar to one researchers saw in the 1960s and 1970s, which was followed by a surge in families in the 1980s. The movement could have a tremendous impact on the schools, particularly if the families continue migrating seasonally.

Yet slowly, the pace is becoming less hectic, even among families who make annual pilgrimages to the San Joaquin Valley.

"There isn't the constant mobility there was 20 years ago," said Adriana Salinas-Simmons, co-founder of La Familia, an family education program based in Woodland. "You used to see a family come in for a while, then go somewhere else. Now, most of them maintain a home in one community and go somewhere else to work. Then they'll come back."

But troubles in school are no less.

AND TEACHERS KNOW the children's problems at school mean bigger troubles at home.

"These children in general have a very high record of absence from school," said Colleen Myers, who teaches a bilingual first-grade class at Shafter's Richland Primary School. "Of course, it's not their fault. But when they're kept out of school that much, it affects their attitude about learning. They get discouraged because they miss the lessons."

Sometimes the problem is medical — small problems like head lice or a simple cold can mean days at home if parents don't have money for medicine. Disease spreads quickly in overcrowded homes. Sometimes children must stay home to care for younger children.

"You just can't imagine the economic circumstances," Myers said.

"I've made home calls and found children living literally in one room. I have found the families living in a little trailer with just nothing."

Last year, only one of Myers' 30 students paid full price for school lunches. The rest were poor enough to qualify for free or discounted meals.

Periodically, the Parent-Teacher Association at Richland Primary School scrapes together money for much-needed eyeglasses or clothing.

"Some of them are so very poor," Myers said. "They live in very deprived conditions. I've heard them speak about wanting to have a room of their own and a bed of their own."

Delcia Chavez wishes for a room of her own.

She and her seven brothers and sisters live with two other families in a three-room house off Weedpatch Highway. In all, 16 people crowd the $500-per-month rental, but Delcia's parents want to move into a cheaper, smaller place.

"It's too much bills for that house," said Delcia, 12, in stilted English. "My dad wants to find a trailer."

After school, Delcia and her 15-year-old sister, Maria, try to make money by cleaning homes. It's their duty to help the family. She wants to go to college, to find work that eases her family out of this cycle of poverty. But it's a long way off.

"These kids are pretty proud," said Margie Macias, a teacher's aide at Virginia Avenue School in East Bakersfield, where Delcia and her sister attend classes. "But once you get their confidence, they talk. Sometimes they'll tell you the only meal they eat all day is the free lunch they get at school."

Protocols continued

from page 10

upon the brotherhood of humanity, unconnected with the conception of equality, which is negated by the very laws of creation, for they have established subordination. With such a faith as this a people might be governed by a wardship of parishes, and would walk contentedly and humbly under the guiding hand of its spiritual pastor submitting to the dispositions of God upon earth. This is the reason why it is indispensable for us to undermine all faith, to tear out of the minds of the goyim the very principle of Godhead, and the spirit, and to put in its place arithmetical calculations and material needs.

In order to give the goyim no time to think and take note, their minds must be diverted towards industry and trade. Thus, all the nations will be swallowed up in the pursuit of gain and in the trade for it will not take note of their common foe. But again, in order that freedom may once and for all disintegrate and ruin the communities of the goyim, we must put industry on a speculative basis: the result of this will be that what is withdrawn from the land by industry will slip through the hands and pass into speculation, that is, to our classes.

The intensified struggle for superiority and shocks delivered to economic life will create, nay, have already created, disenchanted, cold and heartless communities. Such communities will foster a strong aversion towards the higher political and towards religion. Their only guide is gain, that is Gold, which they will erect into a veritable cult, for the sake of those material delights which it can give. Then will the hour strike when, not for the sake of attaining the good, not even to win wealth, but solely out of hatred towards the privileged, the lower classes of the goyim will follow our lead against our rivals for power, the intellectuals of the goyim.

PROTOCOL NO. 5

Creation of an intensified centralization of government. Methods of seizing power by masonry. Causes of the impossibility of agreement between States. The state of "predestination" of the Jews. Gold—the engine of the machinery of States. Significance of criticism. "Show" institutions. Weariness from word-spinning. How to take a grip of public opinion. Significance of personal initiative. The Super-Government.

What form of administrative rule can be given to communities in which corruption has penetrated everywhere, communities where riches are attained only by the clever surprise tactics of semi-swindling tricks; where looseness reigns; where morality is maintained by penal measures and harsh laws but not by voluntarily accepted principles; where the feelings towards faith and country are obliterated by cosmopolitan convictions? What form of rule is to be given to these communities if not that despotism which I shall describe to you later? We shall create an intensified centralization of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws.

Continued in the next issue

Subscription Rates

THE PHOENIX EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. Box 986 Tehachapi, CA 93581. Subscription rates are: $20. for 13 issues (U.S.); $22 (Canada/Mexico); $30 (foreign); or 26 issues for $40 (U.S.); $44 (Canada/Mexico); $60 (Foreign); or 52 issues for $75 (U.S.); $80 (Canada/Mexico); $110 (Foreign).

Reprints of this or any other issue of THE PHOENIX EXPRESS (PREPAID): 10 COPIES - $5; 50 COPIES - $10; 100 copies - $17.50; larger quantities by quote. Please understand that your subscription to THE PHOENIX EXPRESS at the rates listed will assist us in the distribution of the WORD to literally hundreds and thousands who inquire of us for information. Due to the tremendous cost involved in printing and distribution, we welcome all donations to further assist in this critical work. Thank you.

To receive a catalog of our books, tapes and videos contact America West at 805-822-9655.

Orders and Payments

America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

Copyright Statement

COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. Reproduction of the newspaper for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, as long as the content integrity is not altered. For Commercial purposes, reproduction is strictly forbidden until permission is granted in writing by America West Publishers.

Zionism continued from page 16

Europe. That ugly story is told in a book called "The Memoirs of Yitzak Ben Ami".

Again, the legitimate occupants of the land of Palestine were never consulted. Note the strategy used. Truman did not demand that 1,000,000 Jewish "refugees" be admitted all at once, instead he chose the Fabian method of gradually creeping along toward the desired total.

On October 20th. 1945, Syria, Iraq, Egypt and Lebanon sent an official paper to Truman, warning that the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine would lead to war. Truman ignored the warning. On July 22nd. 1946, the Zionists showed what was in store for Palestine unless their demands were met, by blowing up the King David Hotel in Jerusalem, killing 91 people. Both Begin and Shamir took part in that criminal enterprise, and as I stated earlier, Prime Minister Shamir is proud to admit his terrorist past, saying it was necessary for the advancement of the Jewish state.

After Britain referred the "Palestine problem" (read ZIONIST problem) to the United Nations, the majority of the delegates voted to partition Palestine into Arab and Jewish states, with Jerusalem under a U.N. mandate.

This was just what the Zionists wanted, because now they would be free of the constraints placed upon them by the presence of British soldiers. Although in public the Zionists rejected U.N. trusteeship, inwardly they were rejoicing, because soon they would be free to attack the Arabs and Palestinians, and drive them off their ancestral lands, without interference from British troops, who later became as much the targets of Zionist murderers as did the Arabs.

The Zionists were preparing for war and the port of Eilat began to fill with shipping carrying weapons for the Irgun, Stern and Haganah terrorist. The British sent Sir William Stephenson "the Man Called Intrepid" to teach and train the Irgun, Haganah and Stern gangs. It is interesting to note that members of these terrorists gangs were later "sheep-dipped" and became respectable members of the Herut and Likud parties, who went on to make up a large part of the Israeli parliament known as the Knesset.

Support for the Israeli terrorists came from leading U.S. Jews like Max Fisher and the Canadian Edgar Bronfman, heir to the bootleg whiskey fortune turned respectable under the company name of Seagram. The Sharon-Drobles plan to "acquire" Arab lands began in earnest in 1967, which illegal scam provided the bulk of the lands upon which future Jewish settlements were to be built.

This is Part II of a three-part article.

THE

PHOENIX EXPRESS

October 1991 Volume XVI #13

Umbrellas and earthquakes

Is it just possible that a man named Christo might be giving you information and a warning beyond any you have received in history? Does God not work in mysterious ways His wonders to perform?

I spoke of the umbrella display of Christo and its relationship to the Garlock Fault in California. This was in response to inquiry regarding same. The morning paper has a headline which reads: "Fault could spawn tremendous Kern quake, geologists say. A fault that stretches from the Tejon Pass east to Death Valley could produce a deadly earthquake measuring at least 7.8 on the Richter scale, a new study shows...." [New study?]

This is a 154-mile-long fault, which runs past Bakersfield and Tehachapi to Mojave, Edwards Air Force Base, and Ridgecrest and the China Lake Naval Weapons Center in northeast Kern County before sliding into the desert.

If this fault ruptured at once, which is fully planned, the resulting quake could measure 7.8 or larger--and this according to your own geologists. So be it. The article says that Bakersfield would be the worst hit. Ah perhaps, but that is not the intent except in fringe "benefits" to the instigators. The point is the San Andreas Fault whereby the entire southern California coastal area could be devastated by triggering the Garlock Fault for it intersects just north of Los Angeles at the Ventura County line.

Bakersfield is about equidistant between the two faults and the Kern River runs right through it which opens a pathway from Lake Isabella, etc. The California aqueduct passes right alongside the San Andreas and actually is in the fault as it comes into Lake Hughes.

We have already talked of the triggering mechanism in the San Francisco area being by way of the Hayward Fault so we will not repeat it here.

I won't bore all the readers with this information for each is interested in their own little corner of the world but this DOES impact all corners of the world from business, banking, plate shifting and weather--it also brings one world control into easy establishment. It will devastate the growing fields of your garden areas. Can you not see how daily the odds against you--the people build and build?

JAPAN

Now to the blue umbrellas in Japan--not to leave them out nor the appropriate headlines: "World disaster experts meet, 'await' big earthquake."

world gathered Tuesday for the international earthquake summit, and their message was clear--the big one is coming.... 'We on the Pacific Ring of Fire await disaster', said Shirley Mattingly, director of Los Angeles Emergency Management, who urged government and business to work together to reduce the effects of quakes.

"Japanese experts said earthquake-prone Tokyo, where a 1923 quake and fire killed 140,000 people, will be hit by another large quake soon.

"Setsuo Kobayashi, chief of the city's disaster prevention activities, said, 'Tokyo has always risen from the ashes like a phoenix.' But there is great fear that our efforts notwithstanding, it will once again face a grave disaster....."

Yes, the article goes on but I think you get the point and if you have a 10 to 11 point quake on the San Andreas then you are going to "have to" have one of equal magnitude in Japan because you are directly hooked to them.

By the way, you in the Mississippi deltas--don't go to sleep for it is projected that the U.S. will be split from Canada to Mexico with an ocean forming in between the East and West of the U.S. Don't call me doom and gloom--YOU GO LOOK AT THE MAPS AND PROJECTIONS!

10/9/19 #1 HATONN
WEDNESDAY

SERENDIPITY

REMINDERS, CONFIRMATIONS AND OTHER ODDS AND ENDS: Thank you for attending me; Hatonn present in the Light of God. I and my brothers come as Hosts to allow you to prepare the way for the Father's coming and may the transition be a gentle one instead of the way it portends to be. Salu.

Inside This Issue:

- Revelations 6-11...Page 3.
- Constitutional Law Center Update...Page 6.
- Middle East Update. Part III...Page 9.
- Curse of Canaan...Page 11.
- Jewish victims: How many?...Page 13.
- Protocols of Zion. Part III...Page 15.

BULK RATE
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
TEHACHAPI, CA
PERMIT NO. 0020

"Disaster experts from around the

continued on next page

Police corruption in America's heartland

L.A. a bad city? What about cities in the heartland of Wisconsin? I remind you that the police are getting set-up to destroy freedom--through thorough training by the KGB and Mossad THROUGH THE CIA.

You are horrified over a "King" beating? These recent notations are ONLY because they were captured on film and made public before the picture-taker could be killed or buried otherwise.

Here is an article right out of the Daily News, U.S.A., 10/8/91: Ex-sergeant describes corruption in drug unit. A former sheriff's sergeant testified Monday that deputies under his command stole money from drug dealers, administered beatings and planted drugs on suspects, lied on police warrants and falsified search warrant affidavits.

Former Sgt. Ronald Sobel, a key witness in the trial of five sheriff's deputies and an LAPD officer facing federal corruption charges, said he learned of the wrongdoing after being assigned to the Sheriff's Lennox station in 1985.

He said that after his first raid as supervisor of Southwest Task Force, a Sheriff's Department anti-drug unit based in Lennox, Deputy Roger Garcia told him that the unit followed its 'own customs'.

Sobel, who has pleaded guilty and agreed to testify against other deputies, said he was pulled aside by Garcia after booking into evidence $6,000 in confiscated drug money.

He said, "What (did) you do with the money, boss?" Sobel replied, "I booked it."

He testified that Garcia looked uncomfortable and said. "Well, things are a little different in dope. We do things a little differently . . . We need expense money."

.....Sobel testified that in addition to skimming drug money for themselves, the deputies diverted seized money in a 'kitty' to buy weapons and equipment for breaking into fortified crack houses and for 'tips' from informants about dealers.....He testified that they lied during drug suspects' trials to cover-up their beatings and thefts and also resorted to "flaking", or planting drugs on suspects, to justify arrests.....he testified, deputies announced themselves only about 10 times out of 350 warrants served during that time....."

I take time to write this much for it is the SAME story everywhere from the smallest village to the most huge cities--even worse in the cities. But this is WHY we have to attend this dwelling of Dharma's so intensely--there is no limit beyond which the adversary will not go to set-up a victim they are out to "get".

THEN FROM THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL

9/29/1991: OUT OF THE BLUE, Los Angeles Times--COP TALK:

By definition, it is a special brand of morbid, cynical, sometimes humorous, often crass and juvenile chitchat by men and women who constantly face life's disasters and who take pleasure in relentlessly insulting each other.

Some say police funny bones are hooked up a little differently than the rest of the world's, which is why the grossest of cop jokes are often called "blue humor".

continued on next page

Gates and Thomas

What is all this about, you ask? Simple, the ones who intend to do in Bush are at work showing him that THEY, not he, control what comes down. These moral men who bounce thousands of dollars in checks at their personal money pool and eat free lunches which YOU pay for--are deciding on the "moral" ethics of a judge and are ready to explode Bush and Gates if they don't play hard-ball. These are your Khazarians at work in the most deliberate manner. The men in point are totally unworthy of any position but that has nothing to do with the political reasoning. It will all make its nasty way all the way to Noriega after the paid-off (by your CIA and government) criminals get through with their act. It is all nothing but political hogwash to spend more of your money. Note that the one "investigating" the banking, bounced checks, etc., is one who also bounced checks! But, "everyone" is sure he can do an adequate and fair job of it. And where were you when the lights went out?

Update on Iraq

Some of the yellow ribbons are still up, brothers; where is the victory from your precision-surgical air strikes against those nasty heathens under and around Saddam? It begins to show that the ONLY targets hit were the homes, hospitals, bunkers and bridges of the innocent citizens whom you are still starving to death by the hundreds and thousands. And what of those nasty Iraqis killing all those Kurds? Seems to me that the Kurds are at war and killing a whole bunch of Iraqis and Turks--executing any they catch, in addition.

Ah, but you really put Saddam out of business? Did you? Seems to me you are now mumbling and screaming H-bombs in addition to Atomic bombs and Bull guns. Further, it seems to me that it is Israel urging destruction--well, they are also urging destruction of Mr. Bush so it has come full circle, has it not?

continued from previous page

Now to you ones who would find fault with Gene's basement where you are, by his good graces, going to be able to sustain life if radioactive fallout occurs--you had best get beyond the bickering over inlets and outlets. If you do not approve of something as is--then get the material and you pay to have it rearranged--the young man and Charles have done all I shall ask of them. If you could not enter assistance in the time of the building then it becomes quite late to destroy the competence of those who served and built. That is NOT a community shelter--it was built for a family's dwelling and security by a note being paid for by Gene--for his family. If you feel there needs be more air intakes then YOU fix it for he has more than adequate to fill all requirements for he has built it for storage--not multitudes of people and thus were the specs drawn and accomplished. This "assumed group" is going to grow or the ones in action are going to "outgrow" those who simply bicker and twiddle. But I remind you--the changing of those building specs now will cost thousands of dollars and if you wish them changed then YOU shall tend of it. Charles has received NOTHING for his months of labor and Gene has, forgive the pun, gone in the hole on the whole thing.

I suggest you allow no grass to grow under your feet in getting a piece of ground and getting started on the underground facilities for growing R&D-type enterprise and which will also provide underground survival when the time arrives. Get off the dead dogs and tend that which needs tending. Harsh? Indeed. I have lost a week of work over petty quarrels and I have actually NOTHING to do with any of them. This is exactly why there is no "group" because man cannot get along with his brother under any circumstances, it seems. Do not, further, tell me you are God and working for God as you tear and rip and complain--THESE THINGS ARE NOT OF GOD!

To you readers of the paper, these things are left in the writings because I put them in the writings for I have no other means of communication without holding lengthy personal meetings which consumes even more time--WHICH YOU DO NOT HAVE! I find, however, that the discussion fits any and EVERY group I encounter. If the shoes fit--put them on and if not--good for you.

Revelation 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11

Someone has sent me a Lamsa Peshita Translation of the "REVELATION" as above listed. It is worth our time to write it again for you herein. You see, I am interested in your journey home and your relationship with GOD--all I want to do is wake you up so you can even KNOW that there IS A TRANSITION TO BE FACED.

CHAPTER 6: 1. I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four animals saying in a voice as of thunder, Come and see.

2. And I looked and beheld a white horse, and he who sat on him had a bow, and a crown was given to him; and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3. And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second animal say, Come and see.

4. And there went out another horse, and it was red, and to him who sat on it was given power to take away peace from the earth, that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

5. And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third animal say, Come and see. And behold, I saw a black horse; and he who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four animals say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see that you do not damage the oil and the wine.

7. And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth animal saying, Come and see.

8. And I looked and beheld a green horse; and the name of him who sat on him was Death, and Sheol followed after him. And power was given him over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with death and with the wild beasts of the earth.

9. And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the sake of the word of God and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had.

10. And they cried with a loud voice saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?

11. And a white robe was given to every one of them; and it was said to them that they should rest yet for a little while, until the time should be fulfilled when their fellow servants and their brethren should be killed also as they had been.

12. And I looked when he had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13. And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts its green figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

14. And the heavens separated, as a scroll when it is rolled separately; and every mountain and island shifted from its resting place.

15. And the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders of thousands and the rich and the mighty men and every bondman and every freeman hid themselves in caves and in clefts of the mountain.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

As part of a commission's investigation into the videotaped police beating of motorist Rodney King near Los Angeles in March, the public got a small glimpse into the uninhibited, off-camera language of cops.

In reviewing more than 3.6 million computer messages transmitted between Los Angeles Police Department cruisers over a 16-month period, the commission found 1,450 instances of objectionable language. These fragmented bits came across as racist, sexist and ethnically crude, but most often they revealed their authors to be braggarts, prone toward violence and relishing it.

"Capture him, beat him and treat him like dirt.... Sounds like a job for the Dynamic Duo," one officer hailed another. "After I beat him, what do I book him for, and do I have to do a use-of-force (report)?" Homosexuals were labeled "fruits", a blond officer was described as having "big kazooopers" and roughing up a suspect was one officer's "exercise for the night".

[Cop talk in Milwaukee also came under intensive public scrutiny in the wake of the Jeffrey L. Dahmer multiple murder case. Public outcry focused on two radio transmissions of May 27, after officers returned 14-year-old Konerak Sinthasomphone to Dahmer's apartment following reports the Laotian boy was seen naked and bleeding near 25th and State St. In a transmission interrupted twice by laughter, officers reported they had returned "the intoxicated Asian naked male" to his "sober boyfriend". Moments later, one officer radioed that "my partner's gonna get deloused at the station," which was followed by more laughter. Sinthasomphone's remains later were found in Dahmer's apartment.

There is no way to determine from the samples released by the Los Angeles commission how widespread this language is among the LAPD's 8,300 officers, yet when paired with the videotape of the motorist King's beating, some said they were astonished and disgusted by what they read, and were worried not only about the officers' words but whether the language betrayed venal hearts....

And what does Chief Gates say about all of this through his spokesman?

We don't have 8,300 bigots on this job; it's ego, bragging, a musical pattern in language, coming from some guy who probably has spent all day in court, hasn't seen his family, hasn't slept, just got exposed to a suspect with syphilis, had to search a female between her crotch for drugs, saw a baby thrown against a wall.... It's occupational joking, but not something you act on."

And what does Joseph Wambaugh, the crime novelist and former cop say? How about what they might say on Miami Vice?

"We have in police work, not just in Los Angeles but everywhere, we have super-aggressive 22-year-olds full of testosterone, full of energy, absolutely immortal and unable to admit fear, unable to verbalize fear, even to themselves..." "Hence, they get caught in all this damn silly defense-mechanism business, this dehumanizing gallows humor and all of that, and they don't even understand that they are doing it most of the time."

Could they also "just not know" they are murdering, raping, stealing and lying most of the time? The article is much longer but I think you get my drift? L.A.'s finest? This goes for the nation, the continent and the world--is this your finest? Is this but a branch of the wondrous children with all that human-rights instinct which you sent off to Iraq to bury with plows and scoops, 12,000 men in trenches? How about the precision-surgical bombing which has cost millions of lives of innocent women and children? Is this your finest? My God, please deliver me from your worst! There is nothing your "worst" could do that is worse than that which you TRAIN your finest to do. Further, they are protected by a system more corrupt than themselves. Do you really think my little chela has a chance against these mobsters who rule your world? NOT UNLESS YOU ONES GET OFF YOUR ASSETS AND TEND YOUR CONSTITUTION! I PLEAD WITH YOU: SUPPORT THE NEW CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER.

continued from previous page

16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb;

17. For the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7: 1. And after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth nor on the sea nor on any tree.

2. And I saw another angel, and he ascended from the direction of the rising sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying,

3. Do not hurt the earth, neither the sea nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God upon their brows.

4. And I heard the number of those who were sealed; and it was a hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5. Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand;

6. Of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Maniassah, twelve thousand;

7. Of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand;

8. Of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand.

[There is no point in further misleading you by these countings. Remember that this was a VISION and it could only deal with that which was familiar to the receiver. You can be pretty sure that the specifics deal with that which was represented at the time--today, my friends, I doubt we would find 144,000 worthy souls, but then, it only REQUIRES ONE!]

9. After these things, I beheld, and lo, a great multitude which no man could number, of every nation and people and kindred and tongue stood before the throne and in the presence of the Lamb, clothed with white robes and with palms in their hands,

10. And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb.

11. And all the angels stood round about the throne and about the elders and the four animals, and fell before this throne on their faces, and worshipped God.

12. Saying, Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13. And one of the elders answered, saying to me, Who are these who are arrayed in white robes? And from whence did they come?

14. And I said to him, My lord, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

[If you didn't hear me before--try again! Do you see this can not be taken literally for obviously washing anything in blood will NOT make it WHITE. You Biblical literalists had best get on with the program for you are going to be waving goodbye to the last ship departing for God's house.]

15. Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne shall shelter them.

16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither shall they be stricken by the sun nor by the heat.

17. For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them and shall lead them to fountains of living water. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

[Do you now see WHY the deceiver claims the position of holiness and deceives you?]

CHAPTER 8: 1. And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about the space of half an hour. [Hatonn:

Can't be, beloved, for in the realms of God's heavens there is NO TIME AND NO SPACE!]

2. Then I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

3. And another angel came and stood at the altar, and he had a golden censer; and abundant incense was given to him, that he might offer with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4. And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5. And the angel took the censer and filled it with fire of the altar and cast it upon the earth; and there were voices and thunderings and lightnings and an earthquake.

6. And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with water, and they were poured upon the earth; and a third part of the earth was burnt up and a third part of the trees was burnt up and all green grass was burnt up.

8. Then the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain aflame with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood;

9. And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10. And the third angel sounded, and there fell a star from heaven, burning as though it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers and upon the fountains of waters;

11. And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood: and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. [YES, INDEED, AND RADIOACTIVE ALSO!]

12. And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was eclipsed and the third part of the moon and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day was darkened for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13. And I beheld, and heard an eagle, having a tail red as if it were blood, flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, by reason of the other sounds of the trumpets of the three angels which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9: 1. And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven upon the earth; and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit like smoke belching from a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and to them was given power as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their brows.

5. And they were commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man.

6. So in those days men shall seek death and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7. And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were, as it were, crowns like gold, and their faces were like faces of men.

8. And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.

9. And they had breastplates as though they were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10. And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails; and they had power to hurt men five months.

11. And they had a king over them, who was the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddo, but in Greek his name is Apollyon.

12. The first woe is passed; and behold, two more woes follow after.

continued on next page

The third party Presidential race

continued from previous page

13. And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God.

I, Hatonn, cannot go on. You will have to look up the remainder for I change my mind about copying it. All of this is the most blatant illustration of control, manipulation and lies against a civilization of MAN. This was a so-called "DREAM" of some man in historical times which DID NOT EVEN EXIST--MAN OR DREAM--AND HOW DARE YOU LAY THIS FOOLISH HORROR AT THE DOOR OF GOD--THIS IS MADNESS FROM CON- NIVING, POWER-HUNGRY MEN WHO WOULD ONE DAY RISE UP AND LEAD YOU TO SLAUGHTER THROUGH THESE VERY LIES.

DEAR ONES, EVEN WITH POOR TRANSLATIONS--IF YOU BEGIN WITH A LIE YOU WILL ONLY ENHANCE THE LIE AND, IF YOU CANNOT SEE THESE THINGS WITHIN REASON, WHAT HOPE DO WE HAVE OF SEEING VERY MANY OF YOU INTO GOD'S PLACES OF WONDER?

Let me example just a bit more and YOU SEE IF YOU ACTUALLY THINK THIS IS OF GOD!: Ch.11: 8. And their dead bodies shall be upon the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

9. And their dead bodies will be seen by the peoples and kindred and nations and tongues for three days and a half, and it will not be permitted to bury their dead bodies in graves.

10. And those who dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them and make merry, and shall send gifts.....etc.

OK, little brothers--if all this be of Holy God and I be of Hell--guess where Hatonn plans to remain? You have been so long deceived that you have lost all sanity and balance and who do you think is the point of this thrust of power toward enslavement? That's right--you "goyim". You will note that the Indian (natives) don't have any of this nasty stuff in their prophecies in this heinous manner of selective murder. Oh, the earth changes will come and part of the story is correct--BUT, THE MOST OF IT IS TOTAL HOGWASH AIMED AT MARCHING YOU RIGHT ALONG THE DEATH ROW ON PRISON STREET. THESE THINGS OF THE PHYSICAL ARE NOT OF GOD!

Dharma, allow us a rest break for I realize that my level of patience with blind-men of Earth needs a bit of renewal. You do that which you want to do, MAN, but you are on the road to indescribable destruction. If every one and thing in the governments today is a crass LIE--why think ye that it would ever have been different? The rulers want to rule and always have. The liars were present from the start and have continued without rest through the eons--AND YOU ALLOW IT, AID AND ABET THEM.

Every report coming from the governments are manufactured and offered according to exactly that which the rulers want you to see and you can follow easily the destruction of the U.S. because you are "new". Why do you think the adversary "evil" old coot would not begin where he could win--at your birth in lies regarding your immortality and demise--oh foolish ones, what takes it to make you see?

IT DOES NOT HAVE TO GO BY THE WAY OF THOSE PROPHECIES--YOU ARE CAUSING IT TO GO BY THE WAY OF HORROR AS YOU FAIL TO SEE AND ACT. FORGIVE ME, FATHER, FOR I ANGER WITH THINE CHILDREN AND I AM SENT TO BRING THEM HOME, BUT FATHER, IT SEEMS SO USELESS EVEN UNTO ME. SALU.

HATONN TO CLEAR.

10/10/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

We will finish the writing, hopefully, regarding the Soviet "status" this day. First, I am requesting that the name of the paper be changed to reflect more pointed direction. Please allow us to call the paper THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR. It may seem illogical at present but will be recognized for its purpose as we move along through the ensuing months. Oberli, please incorporate the label.

My first gratitude this day is to John Coleman who is hearing me loud and clear and responding in kind. Thank you for the backup on the "Bible" interpretations for I have not time to cause Dharma to do such research. You are children of the lie for long generations and you must see beyond the prattlings laid forth by your would-be Kings or you shall never find freedom upon the planet. The Christ is of the realms of God and CANNOT have been perpetrator of such hogwash--he who follows blindly such erroneous and impossibly unreasonable projections of MAN will indeed be lost. I do not choose it to be this way--YOU CONTINUE TO CHOOSE TO LIVE WITHIN THE LIES OF PHYSICAL RESTRICTION, WARS AND BLOODSHED. IF YOU RECOGNIZE GOD YOU CANNOT PERCEIVE THAT GOD WOULD DO OR BE ANY OF THE THINGS LAID FORTH FOR YOU IN THE BOOKS OF MEN.

The Constitutional Law Center is now operational and on the yesterday we had council and as quickly as the ones who will direct get back to us with information, we will present it gladly on the front page of this publication. These ones will come with an additional 25,000 names for receiving information. I believe, dear ones, that we will need to move to two presentations, at least, per week in the near future for we still do not have space for all the information flow. At some point we need to combine resources with other publications for so much valid information is reaching such a restricted audience.

I am asked if we would join with SPOTLIGHT. No, it is a Khazarian publication and you will find that Khazarian leaders are inputting more and more manipulated information. The author in point with John is a matter in point. That person's material is being run now, on a regular basis. This is a feminist activist and although much of her work is good, it is NOT what we are about. We have no platform save the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA--ONE NATION UNDER GOD. You need no other for all the protections as included through your Bill of Rights are sufficient cover for all. When ones start building platforms based on any other input or personal desires for self or groups--RUN--in the other direction. I urge Bo Gritz to consider this most carefully for he is set up as a tool.

When highly touted ones, such as Tom Valentine of the radio are enticed to run with the Colonel for "vice president", you are in serious trouble. These ones throughout that entire organization are totally controlled. Ones who bring truth in open manifestation are never allowed on the program no matter that which APPEARS to be. The Editor is Khazarian and the entire publication moves to unbalance in projection. The Liberty Lobby actually does almost nothing to "worse"; and the Populist Party has such holes in the planks that the stage is falling through. Any and all may support anything that they wish or choose--I will not support it however. Your Constitution, based upon Godly behavior and the Laws of God as laid forth, even though crudely, is sufficient. If you tend to only bring forth another "power" broker I ask that you leave God's Hosts out of the correlation. It is far too easy for a patriot to become a chauvinist, which means a patriot to the point of total fanaticism (right or wrong). God is sufficient to

continued on next page

Constitutional Law Center update

Please, I do not speak of ALL lawyers but I shall tell you of that which the adversary's lawyer (Horn through the RTC) is doing in the case of my scribe. He is deliberately writing interpretations of "orders" and acting irrationally in order that response becomes a demand--which in each instance gleans a minimum of $3,000--paid by the RTC within 10 days to the lawyer. I believe you are now requested to add some $70 billion to the RTC fund and THIS IS WHY. The orchestration is to end up with total control of all property but, moreover, it is to add billions of dollars to the court system and the larders of the attorneys in the fray. There are millions of similar (to this case) in litigation being handled in the same manner with postponements and continuations into infinity to allow for milking the agency and you, totally dry. It is up to you that which you will do about it but I suggest all attorneys who are appalled at this legal behavior speak up and maybe consider going back to Constitutional law. If you are in the legal system and wish to participate in the "network" of trained Constitutional lawyers, please contact the Center. You have become the laughing stock of the planet. Your nation has lost all integrity and respect and is recognized as "Little Israel" throughout the world. So be it and good luck, and I suggest you stop asking God to give you "what you deserve as a humanitarian nation" or you MIGHT JUST GET WHAT YOU DESERVE AS THAT IS THE WAY THE DIRECTION SEEMS TO FLOW AND I BELIEVE YOU WILL BE MOST SURPRISED AT THAT WHICH IS RECEIVED.

Watch closely WHO crosses Bush and involves themselves with the hearings, etc. You will note a full-fledged onslaught of Khazarian power brokers.

By the way, citizens, being a Christian has nothing to do with any MAN, not even Immanuel (Jesus, as you call him). Christianity is a "state of being" and you had best look at who, how, why, what, when and where you are no longer even allowed to bear your "christian" symbols--not even on your Holy Christmas. Separation of church and state? No, separation of you from God and even the memory, in time, shall be passed away as to what such a holiday was. Note that alongside the flag of the U.S. and U.N. flag on CNN when speaking of the Middle East conflict there is projected the Israeli (blue turban) flag--even when the subject does not so much as mention the label, Israel. All this while the Bear to the North waits. Ponder it most carefully.

"Stealth" Bomber

Let us not move on without a bit of humor. When you watch news programs what do you think? On CNN yesterday evening the subject and pictures centered on more "Stealth" bombers. The pictures were grand (and reruns of long past) and then the coup de gr s: "The stealth bomber can be seen on radar, etc., but it can't be seen well enough to shoot it down!" Is that something like being "...just a little bit pregnant"? By today they had "caught" the obvious idiot-ture and polished the presentation to look a bit better--although you cannot totally obscure such a big and expensive worthless piece of junk.

Next, comes announcement of moving the first shipments of toxic nuclear waste into the receiving center in New Mexico only to have a statement 15 minutes later that the project has been stopped for further investigation. It has only been in investigation for a decade so what else is new except robbery of your bank accounts?

continued from previous page

your needs if you turn to where and who God IS and stop your seeking and believing AMONG MEN. God is WITHIN, not running around in a political or Biblical free-for-all. So be it.

The disinformation network

Let us move now to the subject of Soviets as being brought forth in this series of presentations.

The Soviets have tens of thousands of KGB agents world-wide devoted specifically to disinformation and propaganda in the world media. Of tens of thousands of KGB agents in America, James Tyson in TARGET AMERICA estimates that about 2,000 function within the US media. I support that number but only as to "minimum"--there are more. TASS, the Soviet official news disinformation agency, has bureaus in at least 126 countries--staffed almost exclusively by the KGB. And remember what I told you--you have more KGB members in your CIA than you have Americans.

The Novosti Press Agency has some 3,000 employees around the world (mostly KGB) who feed information and reports into over 4,000 information services worldwide. Novosti publishes thousands of books, two dozen illustrated magazines, in some 45 languages, in foreign countries around the world, 12 in India. Novosti publishes magazines and newspapers which are even printed in Libya, in 32 different African countries and distributes millions of copies of books, newspapers and magazines in Europe and North America.

The Soviets know that the best dissemination of propaganda lies in supplying properly edited TV news reels and newspaper galley proofs to Western media outlets. Westerners, in turn, are impressed that glasnost "allows" this and eagerly transmit or publish everything with no thought or questions as to the validity of the material--almost all of which is carefully prepared by the KGB and/or fronts thereof.

The TASS News Agency is the outlet on which all the world relies for its information about the Soviet Union. TASS produces tens of thousands of communiques, magazine and news articles, programs and commentaries each year, which appear to be unbiased and objective, but which are in fact clever, sophisticated disinformation or propaganda pushing the present Soviet thinking, strategy, or manipulations. These are in turn fed into tens of thousands of Western and Third World media outlets and reach an audience of billions of unsuspecting people worldwide.

This disinformation is virtually always what the Western, especially American, audience wants to hear. Presently it is dwelling on the collapse of the Soviet economy, the dissolution of communist parties, chaos in Eastern Europe, the end of communist regimes, the dissolution of the Soviet empire, etc. All of these things are blatant lies as can be seen from the destruction in the Soviet "bloc". It is noteworthy that there is almost a total ABSENCE of any information on the Soviet military. You have some blatherings about slashing nuclear "stuff" which is just a foolish facade to distract you. THIS IS NOT BY ACCIDENT!

SOVIETS ARE UNDERSTAT-ING THEIR ECONOMY TO ALLOW FOR THE "PRETEND WEAKNESS/GET WESTERN AID" DISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN

As late as 1988 there are published data showing amazing Soviet economic strength in many areas--strength that runs completely counter to all appearances that the USSR is a total economic basket-case. Come on, Americans, look at their own pictures. The touting is that everyone is destitute and starving--but look at the pictures of robust, well-groomed and carefully clothed ladies and men. Good jackets against the cold, even lovely

continued on next page

continued from previous page

stylish furs, etc. Then you will see a bunch of worn and shabby persons--usually those pictures are reused and reused for illustration. Forget it--don't you believe that they are also showing pictures of Americans in just the right manner to get what they want from you? They show affluence to show you have funds to give them and yet they show your corruption and homeless to impact when they point up the better system "they" have. YOU lead the pack with homelessness, for other nations provide housing and the numbers will increase to incredible numbers. The intent is to render the citizens helpless and dependent totally upon government for their very survival.

A few examples of Soviet versus American production numbers are noteworthy: Overall production is 80% of America's; natural gas production--139% of America's; iron (cast)--286% of America's; steel--214% of America's; iron ore--504% of America's; mineral fertilizers--162% of America's; tractor units--463% of America's; cement--168% more; cotton fabrics--293% more; woolen fabrics--515% more; sugar--149%; railway freight--273%; students in universities and colleges--83%; number of physicians--218%; beds in hospitals--369%--and the people can get medical care for free! YOU HAVE BEEN HOODWINKED, AMERICA!

Soviet grain production statistics for last year and this, have been vastly understated--they had crops which were plowed under because of lack of harvest interest. You have been led to believe that the Soviets are technical/industrial/financial buffoons. Phoo! They have Cosmo-spheres which are comparable to some alien cosmic craft. Over half of the engineers in the world are in the Soviet Union and apply themselves to their work and not to getting on the dole of pecking order and/or criminal deceiving. The average Soviet university graduate is so above and beyond in education than the average U.S. university graduate today that there is no longer any basis for comparison. Your students are being trained to know nothing, much less engineering mathematics. The Soviets produce 2-1/2 to 3 times more world patents per year than do Americans. They already have a powerhouse based on "plasma" (not blood)--a self-generating powerhouse like the sun. But you fall hook, line and sinker for the lies and your own government publishes the lies for your consumption for they serve in conjunction with the aliens of the Soviet and Zionists.

If you "good" Mormons dislike my use of the word, I suggest you take note that your "church" is in total integration with the Zionists of Israel and are represented at the White House Level in the form of Brent Scowcroft and your Congressmen--your heritage from God has also been stolen and you awaken too late to help yourselves for your "religion" locks you into the "secret" society which destroys you. GOD IS OPEN AS THE LIGHT OF DAY!

The Soviets built the first nuclear power plant--you were much later. Chernobyl was a much older installation and you are headed for the same "time" related problems in your systems because you, too, utilize those plants for beam research and projections. In the 1950's, to look at other technology, the Soviets built a very capable nuclear powered "icebreaker". They are presently deploying a "Star Wars" type of space-based defense system that America has chosen to ignore and the reason becomes most obvious, does it not? They have operational space stations in outer space, on the moon, Mars and many other interesting placements--for military purposes (oh groan--). America cannot "afford" to put up one and if you do, the "big bear brother" takes it out. They have Cosmo-spheres which can annihilate anything you have in the air or on the surface or under the earth.

But for more "down-to-earth" examples, they have an operational rocket that lifts a 100-ton payload into outer space versus a 32-ton maximum rocket payload America can lift, a 3-to-1 edge in lifting capacity. They have built the largest military air transport in the world, far larger than America's C5A Galaxy. They even developed the game America calls favorite--NINTENDO! Surprised?? They build a nuclear submarine worth over $3 BILLION every SIX WEEKS that surpasses anything the American's produce. Their weapons industry is 5-10 times the size of your own, turns out weapons that in many instances are as sophisticated or moreso, than are yours and in 5 to 6 times the quantity of your own. And note, you are shutting down your industrial production plants and/or moving them abroad which is increasing unemployment to monstrous and incalculable levels.

Financially they may not be the incompetents you perceive them to be either, in that they always best you pricewise on large commodities deals--they are actually very sophisticated market operators, or manipulators. When they sell gold, as the world's third largest producer at least, they sell into strength to maximize their profits. All attempts to lower prices sufficiently to block sales become worthless measures. The Soviet economy is actually less vulnerable to the coming depression in the West than your own because they do not have a huge internal debt pyramid to collapse as you do--and they even got you to print and distribute the new "world currency" trial balloon! America's debt is 15 trillion and rising. Most Soviet debt is international--owed to the West and guess what--who gets stuck if they don't pay--which they won't, and you can't do a thing about it.

Furthermore, a major deflationary economic (price) collapse in the Soviet Union is unlikely because the government owns everything and controls all prices. People cannot dump assets or investments to get liquid--they don't own any! You on the other hand, precipitate a mandatory deflationary depression because of just the opposite. I don't care what your economists tell you--they also lie deliberately to save their own incomes and delude you into false security in a market that teeters on manipulated collapse. You always are asking me, "How much time do we have?" and "What shall I do for protection?" I tell you what you might do to help and you go straight to that "broker" and he tells you otherwise and most of you turn from God to the broker, so don't bother me with the question. WHAT DO YOU THINK? HOW LONG DO YOU THINK THE SYSTEM CAN SUSTAIN ITSELF? WHERE DO YOU THINK YOU ARE IN THIS OBVIOUS WORLD GRAB? NEVER MIND WHAT I THINK--WHAT IN HEAVEN'S NAME DO YOU THINK?

The Soviets are not major exporters--they consume most of their production. But they ARE major importers, and import prices will drop sharply in a depression. The Soviet economy will be relatively insulated from a Western global depression.

Remember the point? I remind you: Sun Tsu, the Chinese military strategist whom the Soviet leaders idolize, said: "When at your pinnacle of strength, feign weakness."

The Soviets may not be at their pinnacle of economic strength for they never yet have been, but neither are they the economic shambles you believe them to be. Technically/industrially and financially incompetents which is portrayed is totally Soviet disinformation. They are very near the pinnacle in all facets and are so far head and shoulders beyond any other nation on the globe as to be considered such.

The reason the Soviets are seeking massive Western financial aid is not need, as much as the desire to destroy the fragile U.S. and Western economies by overstretching your resources. A hundred billion or more in international loans to the USSR suddenly defaulted (which is exactly the way it will be) would precipitate a total financial collapse in the West--only the bankers would win, especially those bankers working totally and wholly with the Soviets/Zionists/Khazarians--REMEMBER THE BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS IN SWITZERLAND??

continued on next page

More facts on Soviet false coup

As a refresher, I will speak to this issue again so that your perspective is not lost. On that beautiful Monday, August 19, Mikhail Gorbachev was ostensibly overthrown in a coup by military, KGB and Communist Party "hardliners" not satisfied with the results as things were going. Within three days, the coup fell apart, the eight coup leaders were arrested, or so it was stated, and Gorby was restored to power. While the Communist and world press as well as Bush and other Western leaders trumpeted the genuineness of the coup (which any fool [excepting politicians and liars] could see was a clumsy and stupid set-up) and counter-coup, let us note some very strange aspects to the entire affair that forces the conclusion that the coup was staged.

1. The U.S. and world press warned about the coming coup (and the next one) for several days leading up to August 19 and Bush even expressed "no concern or surprise". How often do real coup leaders give the international press advance plans and dates along with the blueprints? Western intelligence (who can't pinpoint nuclear weapons installations) knew of the coup several MONTHS in advance and love telling the story. In spite of the advance publicity of the

continued from previous page

I would say that from my observations, the Soviets are at the pinnacle of military strength and that strength is growing daily against the West. You had best go back and remember what one, General MacArthur once said: "It is most dangerous to underestimate your enemy". Well, you have--as a people. Your government knows exactly what are the facts and continues to trade your nation and your lives for their own lofty evil position. Frankly told--as a working PART OF THE PLAN.

Remember what I told you: Assume that everything is the opposite of what it appears to be. Also, keep in mind, that only if you still OWN THE GUNS, can you still own the country! BEWARE!

coup, Gorbachev made no moves to head it off or avert it but rather, like Bush, went on to vacationland.

2. All of the eight coup leaders were Gorbachev appointees and confidants.

3. Coup leader Gennady Yanayev referred to himself only as "acting president" and spoke of Gorbachev returning to power after recovering from "his illness". By the way, none of the so-called "suicides" ever were presented in body-form. You will see some miraculous resurrections coming along any day now.

4. The coup leaders did not cut the internal or international communication lines--something which is ALWAYS DONE in a coup or revolutionary upheaval. In fact, Gorbachev even had his son take vacation pictures during the coup incarceration and continued with his speechmaking uninterrupted. Even the actor chosen to play his role was a poor imitation arriving at an airport--I am embarrassed for it would be hoped you were getting more sophisticated than accepting such blatant misinformation.

5. The coup leaders made no attempt to control the press--neither the Soviet nor the foreign press stationed in Russia--which had "complete access" to international phone lines throughout the coup and were encouraged to utilize same. The press expected to have no facilities so the Soviets told them the lines were open and would be made totally available without delays.

6. Anti-coup leaders such as Yeltsin had access to international phone lines and operations throughout the coup.

7. Only an embarrassingly minimal number of troops were utilized throughout the "largest and most important coup in history", and troops loyal to Yeltsin were sent to surround Yeltsin in the Parliament building.

8. The airports were ALL LEFT OPEN.

9. Water, electricity and phone lines in the Parliament building were never so much as interrupted.

10. In a legitimate coup, the KGB would have killed Yeltsin, Gorbachev and other reform leaders. The KGB is made up of not very nice people noted for their terror tactics. Do you believe that suddenly they all found God? No attempt was ever even made to arrest Yeltsin, but the coup plotters did arrest Godiyani, a well-known ENEMY OF GORBACHEV.

11. The only casualties were accidents! This was followed by hugging and kissing and celebration where some "disappear" for a while and the others are glorified totally out of all proportion. Coups are dirty business, friends, and with the KGB involved it would be total disaster and a bloodletting like the world has never yet seen.

The president of Soviet Georgia came forth after the coup and accused Gorbachev, openly, of having masterminded the whole thing, and over 65% of the Soviet people believe the coup was a fake. Even Eduard Shevardnadze said that Gorby "may have been behind the coup". Certainly the ones gaining--gained! You see, there is always the ego-trip that interferes with full non-disclosure for the perpetrators of such a massive production always tell on themselves for they want recognition of their cleverness--it is a sign of the adversary.

If Gorbachev could be seen as wresting control of the nation from reactionaries and restoring constitutional authority, his popularity and legitimacy among the people would rise. It was hoped that the coup and counter coup would quiet the restive Soviet people--holding out hope for improvement of their living conditions.

The coup and counter coup would raise the credibility of the Soviet reform/democracy/glasnost/perestroika movement in Western eyes, opening up the floodgates for even more financial and high tech aid. The "Bush's" of the world could say: "See, our good friend, Gorby, and the Soviet forces of democracy just 'missed the hardliner's bullet'--now we REALLY have to help them if we want to see democracy and reform succeed and survive--Communism is dead".

The coup was to remind the West how wonderful Gorby really is. He was losing credibility due to his huge military buildup, his killing of people in the Baltics and thus and so. After the coup, he could blame all these indiscretions on the "hardliners" and go right on with the uninterrupted murders.

The "restoration of democracy" to the Soviet Union and the "demise of the hardliners" is now an excuse for the West to accelerate its disarmament and for the globalists in America, Europe, and the Soviet Union to accelerate the merger into the New World Order. This is all underway as we write. The coup and counter-coup are an excuse to launch a long overdue PURGE of hundreds of thousands of inefficient Communist Party, KGB or government bureaucrats--tens of thousands of whom will be shot or imprisoned. This purging of the Party has been done periodically since you financed the revolution in 1917. It is like pruning a tree or vine or flower to make it stronger by getting deadwood out. That Communist Party purge is now underway in the Soviet Union and the bloodshed is massive--hidden behind the lies.

The coup and counter-coup would be the excuse for reorganizing and renaming the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, the KGB, and the USSR itself. This strategy of reorganizing, restructuring, and streamlining the Soviet Union from top to bottom has been on the drawing boards for years. Under the impetus of the coup and counter-coup this restructuring will now be done in one huge quantum leap.

Another goal was to raise Boris Yeltsin to "superstar" so that he could be thrust into leadership if the

continued on next page

Middle East update. Part III

BY A.N.OTHER.

The extensive penetration of the U.S. by agents of the Israeli government was discussed by former CIA agent Bill Eveland, who courageously brought to light just how far this has gone in an article in MIDDLE EAST INTERNATIONAL. This was further augmented by John Erickson, a noted specialist on Israeli-Soviet affairs who wrote an article on January 15 1986, of which an extract follows:

"The Soviet Union (meaning the politicos in the Kremlin) and Israel have much closer ties than most people think. They want a presence there and are pushing this relationship as far as they can." He went on to say that secret relationships between Moscow and Israel had been going on since 1978. Actually, those contacts began in earnest in 1972 as already reported in these articles. There is some evidence that Ariel Sharon was the principle Israel-Soviet contact man. From Israel, the network penetrated into the heart of the U.S. government.

This is confirmed by the negotiations that took place in Cyprus where the bargain was struck that got the KGB to provide what Sharon called "warm bodies" to fill the West Bank. The KGB were to supply 400,000 "warm bodies" in the form of Soviet Jews in return for U.S. military intelligence provided initially by Jonathan Jay Pollard and his wife Anne Henderson Pollard. This plan has run into serious trouble as Soviet Jews, contrary to Western propaganda, are not persecuted by the Soviets, and in fact enjoy life in Moscow, and are not all happy about being forced to go and live in Palestine. We shall come back to that presently.

The post-Stalin development of ties between Israel and the Soviet Union was the result of the work of the Kuusinen-Varga Communist International clique which also gave rise to Yuri Andropov, a Soviet Jew who became head of the KGB and maintained connections with Israel throughout his career. Andropov was a supporter of the proposal to ship "warm bodies" to populate the Zionist state of Israel. Behind this scheme was placed the prestige and power of Armand Hammer, Lord Carrington and Henry Kissinger, and the support of the Christian evangelical-fundamentalists.

The failure since 1917 of U.S. intelligence agencies to recognize Bolshevism-Marxism as variety of the doctrine of Freemasonry expounded by Mazzini who created the FIRST SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL, has led to a whole series of blunders, (whether by design or whether contrived is of no import apart from the gross treason involved) which meant that the U.S. never came to grips with this serious problem.

Today, many foolishly believe this problem which became known as Communism, has simply evaporated. The U.S. apparently did not realize, or did not want to admit, that Bolshevism was simply an extension of Mazzini's efforts to further the cause of Freemasonry. As a former intelligence agent commented, "no intelligence agency worthy of its name could have blundered along in the dark for 74 years like we did without ever discovering that it was going in the wrong direction."

The foundation of Zionist Israel had many powerful backers and sponsors, not the least among who were the Black Nobility of Venice, the same ones who put Parvus in power in Russia through the Count Volpi di Misurata, the Luzzatto and Recanatis. The Recanatis run the biggest banks in Israel and are a law unto themselves. Later arrivals were former Socialist Kissinger and Lord Carrington whose expertise made it possible for land-grabbing on the West Bank to become endemic.

In a replay of the bombing of the King David Hotel, Sharon and his allies plotted to blow up the Al Aksa Mosque- the "Dome of the people did not rally around Gorby. Anastasia. So, he packed up as if Soviet theater always has an understudy for the star ready to be brought on stage at a moment's notice--and so does the U.S. of A. in the event of Bush's demise--and it won't be little bird, Quayle.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

The ones coerced into actually participating honestly in the coup were murdered, the others hidden away for the present time. Watch for the following: Kryuchkov, Yazov, Pavlov, Pugo, Yanayev, Baklanov, Starodubstev and Tizyakov. It will be far too much like a "Dallas" rerun of Bobby's shower scene. And do you still believe that errors of identification could not be made in your Holy Bible? Dear ones, get with the show!

It doesn't matter which as far as the Soviets are concerned--this is the Communist way of life--to double-cross and liquidate their own top leadership when appropriate to further their cause. They overthrew and killed Trotsky (in Mexico, yet); they purged and executed Bukharin (Lenin's closet associate and a "hero of the Revolution) in 1936 because he would not support Stalin's perestroika in 1936 and 1937; and they executed Beria, head of the NKVD, in 1956. Kryuchkov and friends may well suffer a similar fate--sacrificed for the long-term good of the Party--it simply remains to be seen.

ARE THERE PRECEDENTS?

Indeed, numerous precedents for this type of activity. There are numerous precedents for purges, duplicity, double-crosses, and brutal executions in Soviet history since 1917. You also witnessed your own nation in play in the blatant setting up of Saddam Hussein and the Iraqis. This is going on constantly right in front of your noses and you help and wave flags and send money. There is also a precedent for a false coup as well, in Russian history. It was in 1554 when Ivan the Terrible was Czar. Ivan became distraught over his inability to remake Russia in his image. The ruling class, the "old guard", tried to thwart him at every turn. Ivan also believed that the ruling class had murdered his wife,

So, he packed up as if to go on vacation (see, the play changes not), and once he reached his destination, he sent word to the ruling class elite that he was abdicating the throne.

This sent a shockwave of fear through the ruling class. The peasants would revolt and they would not get any help from Ivan's merchant class followers (these were Khazars by any name, as were the advisers to Ivan). So they sent word to Ivan--"Come on back, please--please!". He replied, "I will, but only on MY CONDITIONS." They thought about it and then decided it was the lesser of evils. Ivan returned to the throne and he renewed his reform efforts with much less resistance from the ruling class as he purged the troublemakers.

WHAT WENT WRONG?

You perceive that nothing went wrong? Oh dear me, yes, things went wrong to great extent. The people were supposed to rally a bit around Yeltsin but they were REALLY supposed to rally around Gorbachev. They did not! Many saw through the charade, and most would simply not forgive his six years of despotism. So, it could become advantageous to move Yeltsin and/or Shevardnaze to center stage. But remember our writings--both are hardcore, hidden Marxist-Leninists cut out of the same cloth as Gorbachev. Check out the proverb: "The more it changes, the more it remains the same."

May we please take rest and then we will finish this writing even if it needs partial holding over until the next paper edition. Thank you. Dharma, I tell you so infrequently how much I cherish and appreciate your service for I, like human busy people, overlook that which allows us to prevail. You ones who work with me are so precious and you are the actual "other half" of our mission for WE ARE NOT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS TASK WITHOUT YOU. Man must come into KNOWING and so shall it be. Salu. Hatonn to stand aside until you have a break.

continued from previous page

Rock Mosque", actually the site of the Knights Templar's stables and NOT the site of King Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem. Al Aksa Mosque is Islam's second most holy place. Sharon calculated that such an act would create a "jihad" of Moslems against Israel, and he was confident that given the unlimited military and financial support of the U.S and his Christian fundamentalist evangelical allies, Israel would be able to get rid of its unwanted Palestinian-Arab population in one fell swoop.

The plan was scrapped because the perpetrators were discovered by mosque guards while on the way to carry out the bombing. The resultant hue and cry put the plan on hold, and other ways were found to increase the Zionist stranglehold on Palestine to the point where today in 1991, only a handful of people still believe that Israel has occupied Palestine by stealth, by intrigue, by propaganda and by war.

That stranglehold was increased through land-grabbing of Palestinian and Arab lands. When this first began, a Palestinian lawyer, Aziz Shehata, who was engaged in defending the legitimate land owners, was stabbed to death on December 2, 1985. His murderer was never apprehended. The case that lawyer Shehata was working on involved a Palestinian family that had been deceived into selling 64,000 dunams of land near Ramon Kidiat. Shehata was at the time also acting as a back-channel between U.S. non-Zionist Jewish interests headed by former defense secretary Caspar Weinberger, who wanted peace in Palestine, and the P.L.O.

At that time the law was that Jews could not buy land from the original Palestinian owners. This particular family, who wish to remain anonymous for fear of reprisals sold the 64,000 dunams to an Arab. What they did not know was that the Arab was an agent for one Shmuel Einov, a key financial backer of Ariel Sharon. The land was then used to put up eight Zionist settlements for Block of the Faithful settlers.

The land scams continued, and one particular episode had wide repercussions. In August 1985, the Israeli police charged Shmuel Einov and Avraham Gindi with bribery, extortion and fraud. Both were prominent in land-grabbing deals of Arab and Palestinian lands. Investigations led to members of the Likud Party and particularly to Deputy Defense Minister Michael Dekel. From there the tracks were traced back to Ariel Sharon. ABC's Ted Koppel was called in to do a damage control operation, but all it did to trained observers was prove that land-grabbing had the tacit approval of the Moscow clique and their friends in the U.S. government in Washington, probably the descendants of the self-same "cosmopolitans" whom Stalin hated and mistrusted.

The plan called "ISRAEL'S GREATER DESTINY" got into high gear during 1986-1989 with increasing seizures by the Israeli military and land-grabbing agents like Einov. GREATER DESTINY was the code name for the Sharon-KGB plan to import 1.5 million Russian Jews into Palestine by the year 2010. It is this plan which is running into trouble, which I referred to early on.

Latest reports indicate an increasing reluctance by would-be immigrants to leave the Soviet Union, and some of those who have arrived in Palestine are having second-thoughts and are trying to head for the United States. Jews in Russia during the Bolshevik reign were never persecuted. In fact the KGB has a special unit which deals harshly with anyone who expresses hatred for Jews and or damages their property. Several synagogues flourished in Moscow, as they do to this day. On feast days, Jews take to the streets of Moscow in celebration. KGB guards stand outside their libraries, schools and synagogues.

This writer witnessed the screening of a West-European television documentary that showed the foregoing and a great deal more. Several Jewish leaders were interviewed and they stated that there was no persecution, in fact, Jews enjoyed freedom where Christians were outlawed. In an interview with a learned rabbinical scholar, the interviewer was shown what was described as "the biggest collection of Talmud's in the world". The building housing the collection was under the protection of the KGB.

The interviewer spoke on camera with ten different Jewish families, all of whom said they had absolutely no interest in going to Palestine. All the families said they were comfortable and happy in Moscow and saw no reason to leave. Shortly after the documentary was screened on television for the one and only time, it was pulled, and all efforts to locate the film have been met with a no response.

Some of the families interviewed were Orthodox Jews. They detest Zionism and look upon it as a great enemy of Jewry and did not recognize the Israeli Zionist state. They said so in no uncertain terms. This fact has long been recognized by those of us who have spent years in studying the Jewish religion. In this connection, a remarkable broadcast took place over Radio Station WBAI-FM, New York on August 12, 1969. I just happen to have a transcript of it. This remarkable document runs to seven pages.

Obviously I can only touch upon it in this article, but it is my intention to clearly and fully explain the vast differences between Jews and Zionism, which I will take almost totally from Jewish and Zionist sources in a series of articles exclusive to this paper, starting with the next issue.

In any event, this remarkable broadcast was made by a member of Neturei Karta in Jerusalem and was datelined Tishri 5730. Here follows the opening statement:

"I am a member of the Friends of Jerusalem, the American affiliate of the world-wide Jewish Neturei Karta movement, the leadership of which is in Jerusalem. In commenting on Jewish affairs, no topic is more vital today than the clarification of the difference between Judaism and Zionism. All too many Americans are still under the impression that these terms are more or less synonymous--that being a Jew means automatically to be a Zionist, and that this also implies a certain loyalty to the state of Israel. Let me therefore state right at the beginning that Judaism and Zionism are COMPLETELY INCOMPATIBLE (emphasis added) and mutually exclusive. IF YOU ARE A GOOD JEW YOU CANNOT BE A ZIONIST." (Emphasis added). The New York Times of January 29, 1970 carried another remarkable declaration in the form of an advertisement headed, "ZIONISM: THE ENEMY OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE."

It is the same attitude expressed by Russian Orthodox Jews interviewed by the West European television crew. The point I am making is that even unorthodox Russian Jews by and large have little interest in Palestine, for being Khazaris, they have no roots in there. After the initial rush to immigrate to Palestine, enthusiasm has waned, until today it has slowed to a mere trickle causing consternation among Sharon and his backers. It seems that some new "pogrom" will now have to be invented to pry Russian Jews from their comfortable existence in Moscow.

Quite a number of the second round of Russian Jewish immigrants have packed their bags and are heading for the U.S. after a stay of only a few weeks in Israel. Sharon thought he had circumvented this by sending the Jews directly to Palestine and not via Vienna as before. This was because formerly, fully fifty percent of those Jews who were granted exit visas for Palestine when these were hard to obtain, changed direction for the U.S. once they arrived in Vienna, their transshipment point for Tel Aviv.

So not all Jews support the Zionist state of Israel, although one would never know it judging from the pronouncements of leading U.S. Zionists and the President of the United States, his cabinet and the U.S. Departments of Justice and of State. The Christian fundamentalist-evenangelical movement led by the Reverend Jerry Falwell and Billy Graham are responsible for much disinformation and downright

continued on next page

Some thoughts on the Curse of Canaan

By Dr. J. Coleman

As I have said in the past, I do not hold myself out to be a theologian, but having said that I must add that I am an eager historian and my interest in genealogy is abiding. In the Bible, genealogy is given great importance, which is probably why Saul of Tarsus decreed that we should pay no attention to it.

I have read most of the various theories purporting to explain NOAH'S CURSE OF CANAAN. One such theory is found in a book of the same title authored by a writer who is well received among the Christian right-wing. There are a great number of improbable scenarios which dot CURSE OF CANAAN.

The basis of this book is the simple narrative found in Genesis 9:20 which largely concerns Noah's awakening from a wine-induced sleep having sensed that Ham, the father of Canaan, had seen his nakedness--whatever that may imply, but which is not explained in Genesis 9:20, and which caused Noah to be greatly offended.

We know that Noah reacted strongly against Ham's unexplained disrespect, in a manner that can only be described as unjust, because we read that his wrath was directed not against Ham, but against Canaan, a child who had been a bystander and not a participator in whatever it was that enraged Noah when he awoke.

Noah's desire to punish the child, in effect accused him of something he had not done, has to be regarded as irrational. All accounts of Noah have him as a truly just man, so this would have been out of character for him. "Noah was a just man"--meaning also an enlightened man according to the Bible.

Yet here we have a number of writers, including the author of The Curse of Canaan, telling us that this enlightened man inflicted a curse upon Canaan, and we are asked to believe that herein lies the origin of the Negro. Inquiring minds--not disrespectful toward the Bible--look askance at this explanation, because it was NOAH who cursed Canaan, and not GOD. Moreover, the genealogy of Adam as described in Genesis clearly disallows that the Negro sprang from Adam.

It is important for us to remember this crucial point. Why? Because nowhere in the Bible can we find any reference whatsoever that God gave Noah the ability to curse ANYONE. A curse of the type attributed to Noah, which resulted in a drastic change in the appearance of Canaan, would come under the heading of a miracle. Search as I might, I was unable to find within the Bible any record of where God gave Noah a commission to perform miracles.

The Bible plainly teaches that He did not give Noah this extraordinary power, yet, if we are to believe The Curse of Canaan and the writers' of similar versions of the origin of the Negro, then we are to disregard God's teaching. According to The Curse of Canaan, God gave Noah power to perform the most marvelous miracle the world has ever known, but my question is where in the Bible can I find such a commission being given to Noah?

In the twinkling of an eye, a white-skinned youth (see description of Canaan contained in the British Museum and in Professor Bancroft's book Native Races) was transformed into a dark-skinned Negro. There are other writers who try to minimise the unacceptable miracle by maintaining that the change was not instantaneous but gradual, over a period of time. To me this would only serve to compound the absurdity of the explanation and make it worse, not better! I can understand that such writers find themselves on the horns of a dilemma, for the account would give Noah credit for bringing into existence a law which accomplished the resulting product of his curse/miracle, which only God could possibly possess and which, nowhere that I can find, He delegated to Noah.

Both sacred and profane history contain accounts of God having cursed entire nations and even continents, but there is not a single instance where He changed the colour of a man's skin, which meant also his physical characteristics. Thus to accredit Noah with a power which God Himself never exercised, seems to me to be beyond the bounds of reason.

Diligent searching of the Bible failed to uncover any confirmation that God had any part at all in this rather shabby affair, which, on the contrary, was confined to Noah's family. How often we drag God into our affairs, when in reality He has nothing to do with things of our own making. God had nothing to do with the quarrel among Noah and his family.

To accept the premises laid out by the author of The Curse of Canaan, and not only this author but many others and would-be Bible scholars, is to accept that an ever-loving, kind, merciful God would give his consent to Noah venting his spleen against a young bystander, and then perpetuate this curse on the descendants of Canaan for an interminable length of time, without just cause. "Oh well", some have told me, "God must have used Noah as His instrument to carry out judgment upon Canaan." All very well and good, but where in the Bible does it say this?

The absurdity of this dubious account--for that is what I believe it to be--is shown up even further when we consider that there is no record of Noah cursing a White female and transforming her into a Negress to mate with Canaan, which would

continued on next page

continued from previous page

falsehoods about the Zionist state of Israel, continually trying to tie it in with Judaism and the "return of the Jews to Palestine" which they link to rebuilding Solomon's Temple.

These Christian organizations are responsible for perpetuating that myth, which was revived by among others, Eduardo Recanati, of the ancient Black Nobility Jewish banker family of Venice. Recanati is the chief land purchasing agent for the Jerusalem Temple Mount Foundation. It is important to note that this foundation is responsible for spreading the legend among fundamentalist-evangelical Christians in the U.S. that once the Temple of Solomon is rebuilt, then the return of Jesus is imminent.

Recanati has all the money needed for this project, as I will demonstrate, yet to keep misled Christians involved, millions of dollars are collected from their flocks by Falwell and Graham for the Temple Mount Project. The sum of money said to be needed is $100,000,000 which will be used to buy Arab properties in the Old City of Jerusalem, if the Arabs cannot be evicted by other means. Recanati founded the first Italian mutual fund, FONDITALIA, and has stockholdings in score of Swiss banks. The Recanatis own the Israeli Discount Bank, the largest in the country, and they make no secret of being ardent Zionists.

The American Temple Mount Jewish Fund has connections that penetrate every government agency in Washington D.C. and stands high in esteem in Christian fundamentalist-evangelical churches, an almost unbeatable combination. Through the methods that I have outlined in this paper, the Zionist chokehold on Palestine is now so overpowering that anything the Israeli government does on the West Bank and in Gaza is completely acceptable to the U.N., President Bush, President Mitterand of France and Prime Minister John Majors of Britain. As matters stand, the Zionists have to all intents and purposes won complete control of Palestine, and it is only a matter of time before the Arabs and Palestinians, whose ancestral home it is, will be evicted and deported en masse.

This is the final article of a three-part series written exclusively for the PHOENIX LIBERATOR. Commencing next week, there will be another exclusive series on the vital differences between Judaism and Zionism.

Careful look at the King James Bible

By Dr. J. Coleman

My approach to the King James Bible takes me over thin ice, for most Christians believe the present Bible and all of the latest translations (spin-offs of the King James version) to be infallible. In the search for truth, one must often take the risk of offending others, although, as always, there is no intention of doing so and no offense is meant.

Great problems have been caused by the "infallibility" attitude. Did the Pilgrims carry a King James Bible with them? Did John Bunyan, Martin Luther read the King James Bible? The answer is that they did not. The Bible they used was the Geneva Bible, published in 1560. A careful study of the King James Bible leads to the conclusion that it is more a government of King James document than a Bible.

This stems from King James being a real hard believer in "the divine right of kings". A little of the history of King James should cause all open-minded scholars to have second thoughts about the infallibility of the King James Bible. King James was the son of Mary Stuart, who ingrained "divine right of kings" into her son. Obviously, in a short work such as this, I can only skim through her and her son's history.

Why did King Henry, Mary's husband, drag her secretary, an Italian casanova by the name of David Rizzo from the supper table and summarily have him murdered? According to some obscure records in the British Museum, Henry strongly suspected that Mary was having a sexual liaison with Rizzo. This was based upon evidence presented to him by some of his Scottish nobles. It would not have been her "first time" for she definitely "had an affair"--to use modern vernacular, with the Earl of Bothwell.

Mary taught her son, who may have been the offspring of her union with David Rizzo, that he ruled by the power of God handed down directly to him. Why is this important? Because if it were true, then James needed only answer to God and totally ignore the wishes of his subjects. From such conceptions tyranny soon raises its ugly head.

King James abhorred the Geneva Bible because it disputed the "divine right of kings" and because of notes gainsaying this, inserted in the margins by John Knox. During the time of James, religion was controlled by governments. This is still true today in such countries as Denmark, where the Lutheran Church is the official government church and priest's salaries are paid by the state. Although Denmark is more enlightened and does not punish those who disagree with the Lutheran Church, King James on the other hand had such "heretics" burned at the stake or beheaded.

continued on next page

continued from previous page

have been absolutely necessary for Noah to do before Canaan could have begotten dark-skinned Negro progeny.

Thus, without a second curse, as these authors and Bible students want us to believe, Canaan would have been the first and last Negro on earth, unless of course, Noah cursed another innocent person, this time a White female, (of which there is no record in the Bible), making the whole "Curse of Canaan" a little awkward to reconcile. No thinking person can simply accept the Hamitic origin of the Negro. The Negro is not a descendant of Adam.

Did the curse work upon the descendants of Canaan? While the Israelite descendants of Shem (no connection between them and Jews), were in captivity in Egypt, Canaan's descendants lived in "a land flowing with milk and honey". True, they were later dispossessed by the Israelites, not because of Canaan, but because of their wickedness as a nation (Deut 9:4). The United States will also be dispossessed "For the wickedness of those nations".

God never sanctioned Noah's curse, therefore, it could not have been effective. To me it would seem that Noah's curse was merely the angry verbal retaliation of a man coming out of his cups, for something Ham had done to him while he was sleeping. The explanation of Ham being the father of the Negro is absurd and is in fact anti-scriptural and irrational, and for this reason it has been rejected by leading theologians of ancient and modern times.

After the Deluge, Noah and his sons maintained dominion over the earth, including all animals and the Negro. This is recorded in the ancient book Popul Vuh, which says that the Negroes and Noah and his sons "lived together in great peace". This is hardly what one would expect to find if Canaan had been cursed by Noah. Professor Bancroft's great historical work Native Races Volume V, page 548, bears this out. Bancroft's findings do not support the curse Noah allegedly placed on Canaan and nor do the cosmogonies, and in my view, neither does the Bible.

How high was the number of Jewish victims?

(From German Newspaper)

Completely independently from the data of Jews which was published by Dr. Perlzweig, Head of the Political Department of the World Jewish Congress, in No. 211 of the "Basler Nachrichten" on the number of Jews who fell victim of the anti-Semitism of the Nazi regime in Europe, we received the following explanations from a correspondent in the United States with the title "How high is the number of the Jewish victims"?:

Almost all states (with the significant exception of the Soviet Union!) released in the meantime the official numbers of their war casualties - resulting in the astonishing fact that these losses were significantly lower than the ones of World War I.

It is more surprising that there have not been released so far any official numbers regarding the losses of the Jewish people except only private and semi-official estimates. These estimates range - probably according to a centralized propaganda figure - from 5 to 6 millions of dead persons which the Jews allegedly have suffered as a consequence of the persecutions of the Hitler system and the war. If this figure is right, the losses of the Jews would be larger than the losses of England, the United States, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Denmark, Norway, and Luxembourg together. This makes the comprehension double difficult that one is satisfied with a mere estimate of the tremendous figure of losses. But a summarized overview shows that the number of Jewish victims cannot be right. Considering the strange lack of official documents which has been mentioned before one can examine the question today only on the account of general present data.

According to this data the number of the Jews in Europe outside the Soviet Union - was in the year of 1933 approximately 5.6 million, a figure which was released by the American Jewish Conference (according to a report in the "New York Times" on January 11, 1945!). - From this figure approximately 1 million has to be subtracted for Jews who lived east of the Molotov-Ribbentrop-line and therefore, were totally outside the persecution of the Hitler system before the 21st of June, 1941 and who fled after this date mostly together with the retreating Red Army into the interior of Russia and into Siberia. Even if we assume that approximately only half of the Jews living east of the Ribbentrop-Molotov-line were able to rescue themselves from the invasion of the Nazis, we gain a stable basic figure which is recognized by the highest Jewish authority to start from a Jewish total population in Europe of 5 millions of Jews who could have gotten under Hitler's influence.

But one has to subtract immediately the Jews who were living in the neutral countries of Europe. According to the "World Almanac 1942", p. 594, the number of Jews was in these neutral, not by Hitler invaded countries, respectively: in Gibraltar 868, in England 300,000, in Portugal 1200, in Spain 4000, in Sweden 6653, in Switzerland 17,973, in Ireland 3888, and in Turkey 78,730 together: 413,128.

Therefore, the number of Jews that could be "seized" by Hitler and Himmler in Europe is reduced to

continued on next page

continued from previous page

In spite of his murderous behaviour, the introduction to the King James Bible refers to "Good King James".

Well, a rampant homosexual, which James was, and one who beheaded his subjects who did not subscribe to his "divine right of kings," is not a good man, at least in my opinion. His other ugly habits, besides murder and sodomy, (history shows that his preference was for young boys, which his Venetian backers capitalised on), was rolling in the blood of animals he killed on hunts. King James was also a vicious sadist. He delighted in personally attending to "witches" punishment in which he sometimes took part. These are matters of record, which can be found in the British Museum.

No sooner had James ascended the throne than he was approached by a group of Venetian Byzantine financiers who desired the Geneva Bible to be rewritten. King James was only to pleased too comply with their request, which they backed up with sexual favours and gold, as he hated the Geneva Bible. His "version" was completed in 1611 and only about 25% of the Geneva Bible was retained in it.

The so-called translators, knowing full well the sadistic, murderous blood-lusting character of their king, would not have dared to include anything from the Geneva Bible that would have offended James. In actual fact, there was no revision of the Geneva Bible. What the "translators" did was copy William Tyndale's 1525 New Testament and "modify" it to suit the king and his pipers.

One of the most profound changes occurred in Genesis 12:3, in which the King James Bible appears to teach that the Jews are the seed of Abraham, whereas the Geneva Bible makes it perfectly clear that they are not. Another big change is found regarding the person of Satan, who is described in the Geneva Bible as simply "the adversary".

There were so many changes made to the original Bibles, Tyndale's 1525 New Testament and the Geneva Bible, that it is safe to conclude that the King James Bible represents only about 25% of original truth. After the Venetian bankers had finished with it, through bribery and corruption, sexual deviate favours for King James, deliberate omissions, a well-grounded fear of bringing down the wrath of the king upon the heads of the "translators", and alterations to key texts, the King James Bible was severely compromised.

It is no wonder that we are in the state we are in today, when 90% of Christian churches teach the Venetian Khazarian fable that the Jews are God's chosen people to be revered and protected, and that Jesus Himself was a Jew, as found in the pages of the King James Bible.

Jewish victims: How many were killed? Continued from previous page.

ca. 4.5 millions. From this figure one has to subtract the tremendous stream of refugees which spread into all countries and continents in the years from 1933 to 1945. With the great international support which was rightfully given to this stream of refugees of endangered Jews a significantly high percentage of Jews was able to reach a safe port.

Unfortunately, we do not have exact official statistics on the immigration of Jews into North and South America, Australia, Asia as well as into the neutral countries of Europe. Since the assumption however, is legitimate that from 1933 onwards at least 80% of the classified immigrants in the rubric "Germans, Austrians and Polish" were members of the Jewish people and since the beginning of the war probably almost the total number of these immigrants were Jews, the compiled summary from various sources (among others from the Jewish newspaper "Aufbau") results in the following picture of the Jewish immigration from 1933 to 1945:

To England ca. 120,000, to Sweden ca. 25,000, to Switzerland ca. 60,000, to Spain and Portugal ca. 5000, to Canada ca. 60,000, to the United States ca. 450,000, to Central America ca. 75,000, to South America ca. 225,000, to Australia ca. 15,000, to China (Schanghai) ca. 35,000, to India ca. 25,000, to Africa ca. 45,000, to Palestine ca. 300,000. This is a total of ca. 1,440,000 or approximately 1.5 millions.

Any throng going into the vast areas of the Soviet Union and Siberia has not been taken into consideration since there are no statistics. It has to be noted, however, that according to a report in the "New York Times" more than 500,000 Polish Jews fled alone to Siberia, as a lecture by a Jewish lady returning from there recently revealed.

The number of Jews who were actually subjected to Hitler's sphere of influence is reduced through this to 3 millions at the most. Unfortunately, the lack of exact numbers also includes the number of surviving Jews in Europe and even the extensive report of the British-American Palestine Committee is surprisingly satisfied with "estimates." According to this estimate the number of Jews living today in Europe (outside the Soviet Union) is 1,559,660.

Thus, the result according to this statement which is not based on new official numbers, the fundamental numbers of which originate, however, from official sides shows that as a total less than 1.5 millions of Jews have to be declared "dead or missing."

One has to hope that a significant percentage of this number will be located then there will be exact statistics. Considering the tremendous importance which the "total destruction of the Jews" gained in the world opinion it is of utmost necessity that the United Nations initiate an official examination committee in order to find out how high the figure of victims of the Jewish people is really.

continued on next page

Basler Nachrichten

Finanz- und Handelsblatt

(Intelligenzblatt der Stadt Basel)

Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?

Siehe unabhängig von den in Nr. 211 der "Basler Nachrichten" veröffentlichten Angaben von Dr. Victor Gollancz die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer, die im Weltkrieg unter dem Titel "Wie hoch ist die Zahl der jüdischen Opfer?" die folgenden Ausführungen zu finden.

Für getreuen Aussage aus

Basler Nachrichten
mit
Finanz- und Handelsblatt
(Intelligenzblatt der Stadt Basel)

Ausgabe Abendblatt vom Donnerstag, 13. Juni 1946 - 102. Jahrgang, Nr. 243.

Basel, den 6. (sechsten) Oktober 1946 (neunzehnhundertachtundsechzig)

Log. Prot. 153/1946

APOSTILLE

(Convention de la Haye du 5 octobre 1954)

A. Leont: Schenker (Suisse)

B. Als: Offizielle Urkunde

2. Im unterzeichneten von Andreas Walpmann

3. In seiner Eigenschaft als off. Notar

4. Im Ort: Basel mit dem Notar Andreas Walpmann

5. Am: 1. OCT 1946

6. Im: Basel

7. Im: Basel

8. Im: Basel

9. Im: Basel

10. Im: Basel

Die ZENTRALE DES INTERNATIONALEN ROTEN KREUZES (IKRK) in Genf

begann im Juni 1946, also zu der Zeit als der obenstehende Artikel in den "Basler Nachrichten" so großes Aufsehen erregte, mit der Erarbeitung einer Statistik, welche aufgrund amtlicher Unterlagen in zehnjähriger Arbeit einen relativ genauen Überblick über die Blutopfer des zweiten Weltkrieges ergab. Im Mai 1956, also nach Abschluss der Untersuchungen gab das IKRK in Genf seinen abschließenden Bericht heraus. Darin heißt es unter der Zwischenüberschrift:

"DIE VERLUSTE DER ZIVILBEVÖLKERUNG"

Anzahl der in KZ und Gefängnissen umgekommenen Opfer rassistischer und politischer Verfolgung:

DREIHUNDERTTAUSEND

Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. Part III

Continued from the previous issue...

These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by a despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any goyim who oppose us by deed or word.

We shall be told that such a despotism as I speak of is not consistent with the progress of these days, but I will prove to you that it is.

In the times when the peoples looked upon kings on their thrones as on a pure manifestation of the will of God, they submitted without a murmur to the despotic power of kings; but from the day when we insinuated into their minds the conception of their own rights they began to regard the occupants of thrones as mere ordinary mortals. The holy unction of the Lord's Anointed has fallen from the heads of kings in the eyes of the people, and when we also robbed them of their faith in God the might of power was flung upon the streets into the place of public proprietorship and was seized by us.

Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirks, in all which the goyim understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brain. Reared on analysis, observation, on delicacies of fine calculation in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity. In this respect the Jesuits alone might have compared with us, but we have contrived to discredit them in the eyes of the unthinking mob as an overt organization, while we ourselves all the while have kept our secret organization in the shade. However, it is probably all the same to the world who is its sovereign lord, whether the head of Catholicism or our despot of the blood of Zion! But to us, the Chosen People, it is very far from being a matter of indifference.

For a time perhaps we might be successfully dealt with by a coalition of the goyim of all the world: but from this danger we are secured by the discord existing among them whose roots are so deeply seated that they can never now be plucked up. We have set one against another the personal and national reckonings of the goyim, religious--and race hatreds, which we have fostered into a huge growth in the course of the past twenty centuries. This is the reason why there is not one State which would anywhere receive support if it were to raise its arm, for every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong--there is no evading our power. The nations can not come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it.

Per Me reges regnant. "It is through me that Kings reign." And it was said by the prophets that we were chosen by God Himself to rule over the whole earth. God has endowed us with genius that we may be equal to our task. Were genius in the opposite camp it would still struggle against us, but even so a newcomer is no match for the old-established settler; the struggle would be merciless between us, such a fight as the world has never yet seen. Aye, and the genius on their side would have arrived too late. All the wheels of the machinery of all States go by the force of the engine, which is in our hands, and that engine of the machinery of States is--Gold. The science of political economy invented by our learned elders has for long past been giving royal prestige to capital.

Capital, if it is to cooperate untrammelled, must be free to establish a monopoly of industry and trade; this is already being put in execution by an unseen hand in all quarters of the world. This freedom will give political force to those engaged in industry, and that will help to oppress the people. Nowadays it is more important to disarm the peoples than to lead them into war; more important to use for our advantage the passions which have burst into flames than to quench their fire; more important to catch up and interpret the ideas of others to suit ourselves than to eradicate them. The principal object of our directorate consists in this: to debilitate the public mind by criticism; to lead it away from serious reflections calculated to arouse resistance; to distract the forces of the mind towards a sham fight of empty eloquence.

In all ages the peoples of the world, equally with individuals, have accepted works for deeds, for they are content with a show and rarely pause to note, in the public arena, whether promises are followed by performance. Therefore we shall establish show institutions which will give eloquent proof of their benefit to progress.

We shall assume to ourselves the liberal physiognomy of all parties, of all directions, and we shall give that physiognomy a voice in orators who will speak so much that they will exhaust the patience of their hearers and produce an abhorrence of oratory.

In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many

continued on next page

continued from previous page

One thing is today already sure: The statement that the number amounts to 5 to 6 millions (a statement which is also adopted by the Palestine Committee) is incorrect. The figure of the Jewish victims can range from 1 to 1.5 millions, since there were not more "seizable" to Hitler and Himmler. However, one has to assume and to hope that the final figure of losses of the Jewish people will be less than this number. We need clarity--and therefore, an examination through an independent committee of the UNO should find out such an important truth for the present time and the future.

For a truthful excerpt from the Basler Nachrichten mit Finanz-und Handelsblatt (Intelligenzblatt der Stadt Basel). Evening Edition of Thursday, June 13, 1946 - 102nd year NO. 243.

Basel, October 6 (six), 1988 (nineteen hundred eighty-eight) Leg. Prot. 253/1988

[Signature of the notary public]

[Seal of the notary public: Andreas Waldranti, Notary Public, Basel]
[S+ ,amp 4Ln lower left corner: 1. Country: Switzerland

This public document

2. has been signed by Mr. Notary Public Andreas Waldmann

3. in his function as a notary public

4. and it has been stamped with the seal of the notary public Attested

5. in Basel on Oct. 6, 1988

7. in the State Chancellery of the Cantone Basel-City

8. with No. 3257/7114

9. (Seal of the State Chancellery, Basel-City)

10. [Signature] Sonja Schneider

The Central Office of the International Red Cross (IRK) in Geneva started in the June of 1946 when the article above in the "Basler Nachrichten" attracted a lot of attention a compilation of a statistic which based on official documents gives a relatively exact overview over the casualties of the Second World War after ten years of work. In May 1956 after the end of the examinations the IRK published its final report. It reads there, under the subtitle "The Losses of the Civilian Population"

Number of victims of racial and political persecution in concentration camps and prisons: THREE-HUNDRED-THOUSAND

continued from previous page

contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the goyim lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret.

The second secret requisite for the success of our government is comprised of the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another. This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us, and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which might in any degree hinder our affair. There is nothing more dangerous than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord. We must so direct the education of the goyim communities that whenever they come upon a matter requiring initiative they may drop their hands in despairing impotence. The strain which results from freedom of action saps the forces when it meets with the freedom of another. From this collision arise grave moral shocks, disenchantments, failures. By all these means we shall so wear down the goyim that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

PROTOCOL NO. 6

Monopolies; upon them depend the fortunes of the goyim. Taking of the land out of the hands of the aristocracy. Trade, Industry and Speculation. Usury. Rise of wages and increase of price in the articles of primary necessity. Anarchism and drunkenness. Secret meaning of the propaganda of economic theories.

We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of colossal riches, upon which even large fortunes of the goyim will depend to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of the States on the day after the political smash...

You gentlemen here present who are economists, just strike an estimate of the significance of this combination!

In every possible way we must develop the significance of our Super-Government by representing it as the Protector and Benefactor of all those who voluntarily submit to us.

The aristocracy of the goyim as a political force, is dead--we need not take it into account; but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential, therefore, for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property--in loading lands with debts. These measures will check land-holding and keep it in a state of humble and unconditional submission.

The aristocrats of the goyim we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the goyim, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it arises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: we shall further under- mine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the goyim.

In order that the true meaning of things may not strike the goyim before the proper time we shall mask it under an alleged ardent desire to serve the working classes and the great principles of political economy about which our economic theories are carrying on an energetic propaganda.

[Hatonn: Is there truly any doubt that this has been accomplished?]

PROTOCOL NO. 7

Object of the intensification of armaments. Ferments, discords and hostility all over the world. Checking the opposition of the goyim by wars and by a universal war. Secrecy means success in the political. The Press and public opinion. The guns of America, China and Japan.

The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces--are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the massing of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers.

Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferments, discords and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage. In the first place, we keep in check all countries, for they well know that we have the power whenever we like to create disorders or to restore order. All these countries are accustomed to see in us an indispensable force of coercion. In the second place, by our intrigues we shall tangle up all the threads which we have stretched into the cabinets of all States by means of the political, by economic treaties, or loan obligations. In order to succeed in this we must use great cunning and penetration during negotiations and agreements, but, as regards what is called the "official language", we shall keep to the opposite tactics and assume the mask of honesty and compliancy. In this way the peoples and governments of the goyim, whom we have taught to look only at the outside whatever we present to their notice, will still continue to accept us as the benefactors and saviours of the human race.

We must be in a position to respond to every act of opposition by war with the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us; but if these neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war.

The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy of its undertakings; the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat.

We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favoured by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching and desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power"--the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands.

In a word, to sum up our system of keeping the governments of the goyim in Europe in check, we shall show our strength to one of them by terrorist attempts and to all, if we allow the possibility of a general rising against us, we shall respond with the guns of America or China or Japan.

[Hatonn: Everybody together so far? Please keep in mind that these Protocols were and are in continual update according to time and sequence. As continents and nations came into "being" the plan was immediately altered to encompass the contribution and structure from onset so as to never allow total freedom in which to function outside the actual blueprint of the Protocols. Although America did not exist in the attention of the Zionists

continued on next page

continued from previous page

in the original times of writings, it most certainly did by the time of Nilus in the ongoing updated versions, addendum's and amendments.]

PROTOCOL NO. 8

Ambiguous employment of juridical rights. Assistants of the masonic directorate. Special schools and super-educational training. Economists and millionaires. To whom to entrust responsible posts in the government.

We must arm ourselves with all the weapons which our opponents might employ against us. We must search out in the very finest shades of expression and the knotty points of the lexicon of law justification for those cases where we shall have to pronounce judgments that might appear abnormally audacious and unjust, for it is important that these resolutions should be set forth in expressions that shall seem to be the most exalted moral principles cast into legal form. Our directorate must surround itself with all these forces of civilization among which it will have to work. It will surround itself with publicists, practical jurists, administrators, diplomats and, finally, with persons prepared by a special super-educational training in our special schools. These persons will have cognizance of all the secrets of the social structure, they will know all the languages that can be made up by political alphabets and words; they will be made acquainted with the whole underside of human nature, with all its sensitive chords on which they will have to play. These chords are the cast of mind of the goyim; their tendencies, shortcomings, vices and qualities, the particularities of classes and conditions. Needless to say that the talented assistants of authority, of whom I speak, will be taken not from among the goyim, who are accustomed to perform their administrative work without giving themselves the trouble to think what its aim is, and never consider what it is needed for. The administrators of the goyim sign papers without reading them, and they serve either for mercenary reasons or from ambition. [Hatonn: Anyone wish to take exception to the foregoing?]

We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences form the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and--the main thing--millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our States to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear--this in order to make them defend our interest to their last gasp.

PROTOCOL NO. 9

Application of masonic principles in the matter of re-educating the peoples. Masonic watchword. Meaning of Anti-Semitism. Dictatorship of masonry. Terror. Who are the servants of masonry. Meaning of the "clear-sighted" and the "blind" forces of the goyim States. Communion between authority and mob. License of liberalism. Seizure of education and training. False theories. Interpretation of laws. The "undergrounds" (metropolitans).

In applying our principles let attention be paid to the character of the people in whose country you live and act; a general, identical application of them, until such time as the people shall have been re-educated to our pattern, cannot have success. But by approaching their application cautiously you will see that not a decade will pass before the most stubborn character will change and we shall add a new people to the ranks of those already subdued by us.

The words of the liberal, which are in effect the words of our masonic watchword, namely, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity", will, when we come into our kingdom, be changed by us into words no longer of a watchword, but only an expression of idealism, namely, into: "The right of liberty, the duty of equality, the ideal of brotherhood." That is how we shall put it--and so we shall catch the bull by the horns. . . . De facto we have already wiped out every kind of rule except our own, although de jure there still remain a good many of them. Nowadays, if any States raise a protest against us it is only pro forma at our discretion and by our direction, for their anti-Semitism is indispensable to us for the management of our lesser brethren. I will not enter into further explanations, for this matter has formed the subject of repeated discussions amongst us.

For us there are no checks to limit the range of our activity. Our Super-Government subsists in extra-legal conditions which are described in the accepted terminology by the energetic and forcible word--Dictatorship. I am in a position to tell you with a clear conscience that at the proper time we, the lawgivers, shall execute judgment and sentence, we shall slay and we shall spare, we, as head of all our troops, are mounted on the steed of the leader. We rule by force of will, because in our hands are the fragments of a once powerful party, now vanquished by us. And the weapons in our hands are limitless ambitions, burning in greediness, merciless vengeance, hatreds and malice.

It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace; but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness.

The people have raised a howl about the necessity of settling the question of Socialism by way of an international agreement. Division into fractional parties has given them into our hands, for, in order to carry on a contested struggle one must have money, and the money is all in our hands.

We might have reason to apprehend a union between the "clear-sighted" force of the goy kings on their thrones and the "blind" force of the goy mobs, but we have taken all the needful measures against any such possibility; between the one and the other force we have erected a bulwark in the shape of a mutual terror between them. In this way the blind force of the people remains our support and we, and we only, shall provide them with a leader and, of course, direct them along the road that leads to our goal.

In order that the hand of the blind mob may not free itself from our guiding hand, we must every now and then enter into close communion with it, if not actually in person, at any rate through some of the most trusty of our brethren. When we are acknowledged as the only authority we shall discuss with the people personally in the market places, and we shall instruct them on questions of the political in such wise as may turn them in the direction that suits us.

Who is going to verify what is taught in the village schools? But what an envoy of the government or a king on his throne himself may say cannot but become immediately known to the whole State, for it will be spread abroad by the voice of the people.

In order not to annihilate the institutions of the goyim before it is time we have touched them with craft and delicacy, and have taken hold of the ends of the strings which move their mechanism. These strings lay in a strict but just sense of order: we have replaced them by the chaotic license of liberalism.

To be continued in the next issue...

Human opinion versus GOD-KNOWING

10/1/91 SANANDA

Greetings, my little dove, Druthea. I AM Sananda. Many of you may know me by the labels of Jesus Christ, Esu, Isa, Immanuel, The Pale Prophet, etc. These labels are mostly of human input for ones desiring to "define" mineself, who came as a man upon your place over some 2000 years past in your counting.

I was actually born and given the label, Immanuel, also spelled Immanuel and Emmanuel. The term means, "God with us". My inherited name, given of Our Father, God/Aton is SANANDA, meaning "One With God". The one you call in your so-called Holy Bible, Paul the Apostle, who was actually Saul of Tarsus, changed my name to Jesus Christ, which means "The Anointed". This one was not of my disciples. He was most confused and completely misunderstood mine teachings of God and Creation. And so because of his confusion, he has passed along mis-teachings in what many of you precious ones believe to be MY name, (Jesus Christ) which was NEVER my name in reality.

I AM now come, along with many of Our Father's Hosts, to set the record straight. You may continue to believe the lies of your adversary, also called "Satan", if you so choose, for Our Father Creator, whom I call Aton, meaning "The One Light", gave you, each of His children, FREE WILL, to choose for yourself.

I have not returned in physical compression TO YOUR PLACE at this time. I know not the time of my return. Only our One Creator Aton knows. I AM Spiritual Guardian along with my brother, Archangel Michael, of developing earth-human species. You, dear ones, are not our only "charge". We have many other planets and the humans thereon within our charge of responsibility.

The degree of God-knowing accomplished upon your plane will determine the level of my accomplishment as well, for this is mine final "testing" upon these dimensions. You are my little brothers and I desire to bring you into God's Mansions, that you may experience the Glory of LIFE beyond the often painful and confusing limitations granted by earth physical incarnations.

Today, our subject is Human Opinion versus God-Knowing. You see, precious ones, "opinions" are simply conclusions drawn by you ones through your physical sensing experience. You ones form opinions most often from the EFFECTS you experience or observe. An opinion is not drawn from KNOWLEDGE. Let us see what your dictionary says:

Opinion: 1. A conclusion or judgment held with confidence, but falling short of positive knowledge.
2. An expert judgment given formally.

So you see, chelas (students of life), everyone can have a differing opinion about let's say, what happened at MINE crucifixion and why, but the reality is that very, very few of you who were there remember. You all can have an opinion about Hatonn and what you believe his intentions to be, but you cannot KNOW until the fruits of his work become obvious. And even THEN, many will deny THE TRUTH for sake of PRIDEFUL opinion.

You all form opinions about one another constantly in your interrelationships. In every circumstance you experience, you form an opinion. That is, until you desire TO KNOW God within you. Then your human opinions will fall aside along with human ego limitations, to make room for GOD-KNOWLEDGE to unfold.

Also realize, chelas, most human judgments are reached by hanging tightly onto opinions you've formed, without forming the desire TO KNOW. Often it takes work to discover The Truth about any circumstance. And many generations have experienced passing on their formed opinions from one generation to the next within the family structure.

If you were born, for example, in a Southern Baptist household and were constantly indoctrinated as to HOW you should think and believe, you will most likely have had difficulty questioning the belief structure, especially when your questions were not appreciated nor accepted by your elders.

Many of you ones have escaped the chains of a "belief" structure which was imposed upon you-- to find Self and God within you. Also many ones of you even went to an extreme of rebellion and became "so called" Atheists, having become completely disheartened by the "faith" of your parents.

I repeat what I told you ones when I was human those many years past, "I and My Father are One. Know Our Father within you for there lies the Kingdom of Heaven." You will experience in your ignorance and continue to form your human opinions and judgments until the DESIRE is great within you to KNOW The Truth and Father Within. Then you will not longer ask, in ignorance and superstition, what God can give you and what God can DO for you, but instead you will say to Our Father, "Please show me Father, what I must do to sustain in only YOUR service that I may be an honorable reflection of YOU in every thought, word and deed. Not MY will Father, only let THINE will be done."

In this way you will give back unto God so that He can regive unto you. You then, precious ones, are well on your road to responsible co-creation with God-Knowing.

ONE TRUTH, MANY EXPRESSIONS THEREOF

I am repeating the words of wisdom expressed recently by my brother, Hatonn. There are not MANY truths, only ONE. You each will express and manifest life to the degree of understanding and comprehension of The Truth. You will respond to circumstances and other humans based upon your adherence and comprehension of God's ONE law, which is BALANCE, in all transactions. (Also called RYTHMIC BALANCED INTERCHANGE.)

All the Laws written by Our Father and explicitly expressed within "The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual" allow focus and choice of adherence to God's One Law of BALANCE. When you defy any of those laws you create unbalanced circumstances of which you will reap the consequences. This is why we effort to encourage you to find and KNOW Cosmic Spiritual Truth and remember The Laws given forth for Human experience, because ignorance will not prevent or excuse you from the consequences of defying Cosmic (nature's) Law.

I say REMEMBER the Laws because YOU are born KNOWING them. That is, of course, as long as you have the gift of soul conscience from our ONE Creator.

So you see, you have freedom of loving balanced expression in co-creation with God as long as His ONE LAW of Balance is not defied.

For example, I will discuss The One Truth about immortality. Immortality means no end to existence and therefore on-going life somewhere within the ONE MIND of God. It is simply birth and rebirth.

Death, as you observe it, is simply a transition of the soul. The soul does not end or die. Although it can return to or be refolded back into the One Mind of Our Creator. There may be many opposing opinions of that truth, but it matters not, for it is THE TRUTH and it is best to KNOW it than to deny it by self-delusion and opinion.

WHAT ABOUT LOVE?

God IS LOVE. The Father/Mother sex conditioned divided lights of His thinking come from His

continued on next page

continued from previous page

Knowing. From His Knowing comes His One Desire, Love expressed in Motion of which his divided thinking CAUSED. And then, of course, a return to the rest or voidance within God's mind.

This simply means no illusion of separation is experienced. Only God-Knowing and God-Love. Again, I suggest you carefully read the Phoenix Journals called, The Pleiades Connection Series, Volumes 1-8. There within, my beloved brothers, Hatonn and Germain beautifully and explicitly express, from the KNOWING of Aton, the details regarding the nature, structure and workings of God/Aton and His Creation.

For those of you of mine precious ones who truly DESIRE to know THE ONE Truth, we give forth the information (in over 40 Journals now) to allow for your unfolding. You must understand that your unfolding will occur in direct relationship to the degree of your DESIRE to KNOW God within you. YOU, therefore will determine by comprehension of THE LAW of Balance and the Level of LOVE you hold within, through God-Knowing, the degree of responsibility for co-creation which you will express.

PREFERENCE VERSUS OPINION

I wish to further clarify the difference between what you ones might call "preference" and opinion.

Preference involves choice of expression for enjoyment, comfort or beauty. It does not mean that if you prefer the color blue that red is evil or bad or lesser. Or if you prefer to grow roses, that carnations are less beautiful. If you decide carnations are less beautiful or that red is ugly, that then is your opinion, for in God-knowing, you would know the unique beauty of each flower in His Creation, as well as the unique beauty of each color in His spectrum coming from the ONE Light.

In other words, you may have preference and still appreciate the equal beauty of ALL expressions which may seem different or unusual.

Now we come to "preference" which does involve defiance of Cosmic Laws of Balance. You have ones who have coined a term called "sexual" preference which is a label given to qualify sexual behavior practiced by same-sex individuals. I don't care how you qualify your behavior, or what you prefer regarding it, THE TRUTH is that Homosexual SEXUAL behavior is SERIOUS defiance of COSMIC Law. Sexual behavior has NOTHING to do with giving LOVE. And to choose behavior which degrades and damages the human body, as well as calling it love, which degrades the human soul, will cause inner torment and painful demise of the ones who practice same.

We, of God's Hosts, will not sanction behavior which defies His Laws! The quicker you ones KNOW and live the Truth, the quicker you will free yourselves from the adversary of physical illusion!

Can you LOVE a person of same sex? Of course. We speak of sexual exchange PHYSICAL behavior. LOVE is not at all related to sexual behavior as many of you have come to believe.

Even in your heterosexual unions there is almost NO sexual expression practiced with GOD-LOVE! What happened to RESPONSIBILITY? It is amazing that for ten minutes of "pleasure" responsibility is seldom even considered. And then when a child is conceived, "Oh my," says the couple, "We don't want this child." WHY DID YOU NOT THINK OF THIS BEFORE YOU JUMPED IN INBETWEEN THE SHEETS TOGETHER? Instead you ones often choose or "prefer" to KILL, yes MURDER, the unborn babe. You ones can deny THE TRUTH throughout eternity, but until you stand responsible for self and choices and until you start including GOD in your decisions, you will struggle with the consequences of your choices made in ignorance of God's LAWS.

So in closing on "preference", let me say that you may prefer to listen to Mozart, or grow roses today, but don't leave out the option of listening to Beethoven or growing carnations tomorrow. Learn to enjoy and APPRECIATE ALL the variety of beauty given of our Creator God--from the tropical rain forest to the desert--and you will find much enjoyment and peace in your LIFE journey, whether it be physical or non-physical.

And of course, make sure ALL of your preferences include GOD and adherence to His Laws of Balance. In this way do many more doors open into the experience of the Kingdom of Heaven within you, instead of being shut into limitation and disharmony by the self-imposed intolerance, which comes from ignorance of NOT KNOWING and NOT SERVING GOD who exists WITHIN you. So be it.

I AM Sananda, One With God, in His service within Creation. May these words give you CAUSE to ponder your journey more fully and awaken within you GOD-KNOWING to replace the old and worn-out opinions which serve none save the adversary who would keep you from YOUR Divine Spiritual Inheritance. Walk together, one with the other, all "races" and "religions" in Knowledge, Peace, Tolerance and Love that balance can be restored through UNITY of common values in GODLINESS. Thank you for your service, my precious little dove, Druthea. I love you dearly and am so very pleased to have you as one of my blessed scribes. Salu.

IS THE ECONOMY RECOVERING?

LEARN THE TRUTH BEHIND WHAT YOU'RE BEING TOLD!

CHAOS IN AMERICA

Contains information on the current economic decline with the history to validate King's findings. Also, learn how to survive and prosper despite the Chaos with investments, real estate, food, energy and self-defense. $11.95...Trade Paper..John L. King

SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER

Some economic realities. It Exposes the "grey men" and the secret government. The depression, new currency, new money and the debit card system, financial strategies across the board. The incorporation solution for all. $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL

Is privacy possible? This document contains very pragmatic "how to" and tactical suggestions to help you legally fade into the background. Topics are: IRS, credit cards, job surveillance, credit history, & more! $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON

We the people can bring Constitutional law back by recognizing the present unlawful government and taking action. Read the "how" and "why" of our current enslavement and solutions to freedom for all. $10.00...Trade Paper..G.C. Hatonn

$$$$ Financial Reality Book Package $$$$

ORDER 4 BOOKS
RECEIVE 10% OFF

To Order By Credit Card Call: 800-729-4131 or Fax: 805-822-9658
Send Check or Money Order To: America West, P.O. Box 986 Tehachapi, Ca. 93581
Shipping Charges-UPS-$3.25 1st title, $1.00 each additional Book Rate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 each additional

New cassettes now available

SPACE-GATE THE VEIL REMOVED . . . $20 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . 4 TAPE SET

Facts are provided concerning the governmental cover-up of extraterrestrials visiting our planet, and crashing on our planet, as early as the late 1940s/early 1950s. Historical perspective of the period from the late 40s to present is put forth with many surprising, startling and troubling details of secret actions by governmental agencies and representatives. Various "secret" agencies are disclosed. We are given clarification of the ongoing peaceful intent of our space brothers and the involvement of Satan and Christians in these "end times" are clearly stated. The correlation between Christ and extraterrestrials is clarified.

New Release Phone Home E.T.

PHONE HOME E.T. . . $15 (PLUS SHIPPING) . . . BOOK AND 2 TAPES

Germain stresses to us the importance of true meditation and gives excellent "how to" instruction to accomplish it and how to use it to control our lives. When you accomplish true meditation you are communicating DIRECTLY with GOD for the purpose of knowingly working with Him.

We are given the TRUE definition of love and prayer and the importance of understanding the true definitions so that we can improve our daily lives with this knowledge.

Expected Shipping Dates

PLEIADES CONNECTION
VOL'S. 7 & 8 Oct. 16 EXPRESS
BOOK VOL. 13/14 Nov. 1
THANK YOU FOR WAITING.
NEW RELEASE (WITH CASSETTES) NOW AVAILABLE

Seminars with George & Desiree Green

Oct 19, Carol Keppler Valley Ho Hotel
Scottsdale, Ariz. 602-996-6088

Nov 12, Ron Carlson 7-10:30 p.m. Univ of Hawaii Campus Center Ballroom, Honolulu, Hi. 808-735-0282 or 808-536-3378

Nov 13, Ron Carlson 7-10:30 p.m. Maui,
Hi. 808-735-0282 or 808-536-3378

Dec 7, Bernard Brugger Edmonton Inn
Pitcher Rm Edmonton, Canada 403-432-1751

Dec 8, The Brooks, Port O' Call Hotel
Strathmore Ballroom, N. E. Calgary
Canada, 403-896-2608

Jan 11, Hal Massey, Salt Lake City, Utah
801-268-3999

Jan 18, Mauriene Pierce, Dallas, Tx.
817-451-3313

Jan 25 & 26 Wes Mann, Vancouver & Victoria
604-756-2304

The Phoenix Journals

Sipapu Odyssey

And They Called His Name Immanuel, I Am Sananda

Space-Gate

Spiral To Economic Disaster

From Here To Armageddon

Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell

The Rainbow Masters

AIDS, The Last Great Plague

Satan's Drummers

Privacy In a Fishbowl

Cry of The Phoenix

Crucifixion of The Phoenix

Skeletons In The Closet

R.R.P.P.*

*Rape, Ravage, Pillage and Plunder of the Phoenix

Rape of The Constitution

You Can Slay The Dragon

The Naked Phoenix

Blood And Ashes

Firestorm In Babylon

The Mossad Connection

Creation, The Sacred Universe

Pleiades Connection, Return Of The Phoenix Vol. I

Burnt Offerings and Bloodstained Sands

Shrouds Of The Seventh Seal

The Bitter Communion

Counterfeit Blessings

The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual

Operation Shanstorm

End of the Masquerade

Matter Anti-Matter

Let There Be LIGHT Pleiades Connection Vol. II

I And My Father Pleiades Connection Vol. III

Murder By Atomic Suicide Pleiades Connection Vol. IV

Phone Home E.T. Pleiades Connection Vol. V

The Sacred Spirit Within Pleiades Connection Vol. VI

Human The Science Of Man Pleiades Connection Vol. VII

Science Of The Cosmos Pleiades Connection Vol. VIII

The Phoenix Express Vol's I & II ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's III & IV ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's V & VI ($15)

The Phoenix Express Vol's XIII & XIV ($15)

The price is $10 per JOURNAL, (EXCEPTING E.T. PHONE HOME with 2 tapes $15 & EXPRESS) 10% discount on orders of 4 or more. California residents add 7.25% sales tax. Add shipping, UPS $3.25 and $1.00 each additional or U.S. Mail $2.50 for first title and $1.00 each additional. Write for Quantity Discount.

Available from America West or your Local Distributor.

Subscription Rates

THE PHOENIX EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. Box 986 Tehachapi, CA 93581. Subscription rates are: $20. for 13 issues (U.S.); $22 (Canada/Mexico); $30 (foreign); or 26 issues for $40 (U.S.); $44 (Canada/Mexico); $60 (Foreign); or 52 issues for $75 (U.S.); $80 (Canada/Mexico); $110 (Foreign).

Reprints of this or any other issue of THE PHOENIX EXPRESS (PREPAID): 10 COPIES - $5; 50 COPIES - $10; 100 copies - $17.50; larger quantities by quote. Please understand that your subscription to THE PHOENIX EXPRESS at the rates listed will assist us in the distribution of the WORD to literally hundreds and thousands who inquire of us for information. Due to the tremendous cost involved in printing and distribution, we welcome all donations to further assist in this critical work. Thank you.

Orders and Payments

America West Distributors, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA. 93581.

For MASTERCARD OR VISA orders, or book catalog and sample newsletter call 1-800-729-4131. For personal inquiries or other purposes, please call 1/805-822-9655.

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

To receive a catalog of our books, tapes and videos contact America West at 805-822-9655.

Copyright Statement

COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. Reproduction of the newspaper for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, as long as the content integrity is not altered. For Commercial purposes, reproduction is strictly forbidden until permission is granted in writing by America West Publishers.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS

A bulletin commenting on appropriate current news events, clarification of portions of the Journals and answers of a general nature to questions not found in the existing Journals.

PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS is published by America West Publishers, Inc. P.O. BOX 986 Tehachapi, CA. 93581. Subscription rate is $20 per 13 issues or $75 per 52 issues, First Class mailing. COPYRIGHT 1991 by America West Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this copyrighted material for private non-profit use is expressly encouraged, for commercial purposes it is strictly forbidden.

EXTRA

2/16/91 HATONN

WHICH IS CRUEL?

WAR IS NOT OF GOD AND THAT IS WHICH IS CRUEL--ON EITHER PART OF ADVERSARIES! BUREAUCRATS MAKE THE MOUTHINGS AND PLANNINGS AND OTHERS OF THE HELPLESS PEOPLE DO THE DYING AND MURDER. NEITHER IS ON THE SIDE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND GODLINESS! THE PREPONDERANCE OF "CORRECT" SIMPLY SHIFTS ACCORDING TO THE ATTACKERS AND WHO IS BEING ATTACKED--THOSE WHO MAKE WAR ARE BOTH WRONG.

Therefore, with this in mind, I ask that you cease the haggling over whether or not Hatonn favors this one or that one--I favor NEITHER! I SUPPORT THE TROOPS WHO ARE IN LIFE-GIVING SITUATIONS OF ANOTHER'S DECIDING AND PLAY FOR POWER FOR WHEN IT IS OVER, NEITHER WILL WIN; BOTH ARE LOSERS BY TREMENDOUSLY LARGE COSTS. WHO WILL WIN IN WORLDLY GAIN FROM THIS MIDDLE EAST FIGHTING IN THE ENDING--IF IT CONTINUES AS A SIMPLE CONFRONTATION BETWEEN THE U.S. AND IRAQ? ISRAEL AND THE SOVIET UNION. AND THE MASSIVE ARMIES OF CHINA--WAIT!

Dharma, we have buried our friends in work and therefore, we will not write on material which is so pertinent that it must be shipped as an Express this day. I will give some backup public information which will confirm a few things the public is having difficulty accepting from our writings. It is good to share as readers find these confirmations for we know that we give you incredible bites to swallow.

IRAQ ARMS: BIG HELP FROM U.S.

Los Angeles Times; Wed., Feb. 13, 1991. Washington:

"The Commerce Department approved millions of dollars in high-technology exports to an Iraqi research center after a classified Pentagon report warned on Nov. 6, 1986, that the nine-acre complex north of Baghdad was secretly developing missiles and weapons of mass destruction, according to government sources familiar with the report.

"In a letter the next day, the Pentagon objected to issuance of an export license to a New Jersey computer maker, citing the 'high likelihood' that American computer equipment would be applied to secret Iraqi military research at the complex called Saad 16.

"Nonetheless, Commerce approved the sale 'without condition'.

"In fact, Commerce approved $1.5 billion in exports to Iraq of American high technology and other equipment with potential military uses from 1985 through 1990--some shipped directly to such Iraqi agencies as the Ministry of Defense, Atomic Energy Commission and Air Force.----"

I believe that is enough to give you an idea that I do not choose lightly that which I give unto you. You readers must also understand that my hardest critics are my scribes and local readers. It is strange to us who watch and wait, that you ones must have absolute confirmation of Truth and yet all lies are swallowed as whole-cloth or with tongue-in-cheek humor at the dispensers thereof. It is alright, for in the overall, Truth will stand the test of it all and credibility shall be that which remains instead of the lies.

Here is another portion which will confirm as nearly as possible the truth of that which I gave you that said Husscin has nuclear weapons--NOW! This following is pretty low-key, as always, in efforts of letting the "head liar" off the hook but, none-the-less admissions are slipping forth. When you think that we who bring Truth and others scattered so sparsely about, who also project Truth, are not being heard--oh yes indeed, we are and the responses cannot always simply be ignored and therein lies the hope--through Truth--always countering their lies with Truth. For if it be Truth, at some point it shall "out".

NUCLEAR WEAPONS IN IRAQ

February 11, 1991, staff writer, Spotlight, Washington: "The Soviet Union is shipping nuclear waste to Iraq (dear ones, this is NOW and STILL) for use in a deadly array of radiological weapons that could increase American and allied casualties exponentially.

"President George Bush was misinformed in November that Iraqis nuclear arms potential was at least a year away. But he was told shortly before he issued his January 16 order to attack Iraq that President Saddam Hussein has a limited capability in 'dirty nukes' that could spread fatal radiation across the Arabian Desert with aerial bombs.

"However, Bush was not briefed on the full extent of Iraqis radiation arsenal, intelligence sources say. In addition to aerial bombs, Iraq is believed to have radiological warheads for artillery shells, landmines and short-range missiles."

NOW, PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE NEXT--JUST FOLLOWING ON IN THE SAME ARTICLE:

"Moreover. . . the president is not being fully informed of the Soviet Union's involvement because if he had been properly briefed he may not have fallen into what could be the greatest trap in history--with the Soviets seen moving on Western Europe while U.S. and other NATO forces are nailed down in the Middle East.

"There is even doubt Bush (the former head of the CIA) has been given all the available intelligence regarding Soviet shipments of substantial supplies of nuclear waste materials from the dozens of Chernobyl-style and other power plants that dot the map of the USSR.

"No rational U.S. president would strip NATO' defenses naked and go to war against Iraq if he had been completely aware of the Soviet Union's double role...." etc., etc., etc.

ONE OF THE BEST

SOVIET GENERALS SKEPTICAL ABOUT WAR GAINS, SAY U.S. MISJUDGED HUSSEIN: Moscow, Sat., Feb. 2, 1991, Los Angeles Times:

"In barbed remarks with implications for super-power cooperation in the Persian Gulf, Soviet generals and civilian experts are expressing skepticism about the achievements of Operation Desert Storm, and they accuse U.S. leaders of patently misjudging the leader of Iraq and its army.

"The Americans clearly underestimated Saddam Hussein," said Lt. Gen. German S. Starodubov, deputy administration of the Soviet General Staff.

"They thought that after the very first bombardments, he would either capitulate or lose his head and rush to some sort of adventure. But that could hardly be expected of an adversary who had just fought in the desert for eight years, against Iran."

This is a most important document and deserves reproducing in its entirety but I only wish to give confirmation in this writing.

Do I believe that ultimately Saddam would win? I have already told you that neither will win and a tremendous number of deaths will occur--beyond your reckoning--if this insanity is not stopped. Will Russia make a bigger threat on Tuesday? Probably not publicly but there are things under way which you ones are never given insight from that level of perspective.

Russia has sent a cold wave into your Eastern U.S. which will devastate more Southern crops. They have managed to prevent the Western California growing fields having rainfall enough to allow survival of crops for now water to the lush San Joaquin garden along with the Imperial Valley is to be cut to 25% of water quotas. When the ground pumping happens, as it must, to survive you will deplete your reserves to devastating levels--and you still can be prevented from having "natural" renewal as long as they choose.

You had a good demonstration of that phenomenon two days ago. Southern California had a strong front moving in and rain was expected. Then according to the newscasters, "...an unexpected high pressure 'just appeared' out of nowhere and the storm dissipated to the north and to the south....babble, babble, babble." This was on the same day that extremely loud "sonic" booms were heard in many separate areas but with no super-sonic craft in the air.

Well, let me give you a bit of insight about the "large, untraced, sonic boom in the area of Edwards Air Force Base, Palmdale and Lancaster"--the first was a deflected beam to create electronic havoc in this area (which it did and we had to spend most of yesterday repairing and restablizing electronics systems) and the second (almost simultaneous) "report" was from a particle beam which said to your leaders: "We in the cosmospheres will detonate the San Andreas fault if you don't hold up with that invasion of Kuwait!" Now readers, you can laugh if you like, but the recipients in the areas of these blasts are not laughing--and I am not laughing. You think there is no such capability?--THERE IS SUCH CAPABILITY. Incredibly large and massive "stuff" is going on while you are glued to pre-programmed news garbage. It is bad world-wide, but most of the world is simply in a state of shock at you-the-Americans for they cannot understand why YOU don't know the truth.

Oh yes, you have a lot of countries into and over their heads in the same subterfuge and unfortunately they are the ones, along with you, who pull all the puppet strings. But, herein I will outlay just one more statement from the headlines of this paper: "DEATHS PROBED: Military authorities in Saudi Arabia are now investigating the deaths of 11 Marines in the fighting around Khafji to determine if, in fact, they had been killed by allied or 'friendly' fire." And, another said that "President Bush took his upbeat, patriotic appeal on the road with visits to three East Coast military bases. He said 'HE' will defeat Iraqi President Saddam Hussein's 'endless appetite' - - -" HE?? What about those 11 Marines just mentioned? By the way, America, if there are only a bit less than half a million troops in Saudi Arabia and yet there are over a million who have been shipped out (by your own official counts)--where are they? Come now, I doubt "little gray aliens" from Orion abducted them ALL for some kind of Cosmic fling!

Let us leave this now, Dharma; we shall come back to all this for an upcoming Express and I wish to take no more time at present. We shall take up the subject of why Bush had to have this war with Hussein but I must continue with the outlay of information as begun in the last Journal. If you ones cannot come into understanding that it is the Khazar Zionists who have you by the throat--then the rest of the explanation can have no impact or meaning of value. YOU MUST GET THE PLAYERS STRAIGHT!

The following will be a direct quote (copy) from a Special Delivery letter to Dr. David Goldstein LL.D. FROM Benjamin H. Freedman, October 10, 1954.

In the interest of saving space and time, Dharma, simply put it to paper exactly as it is written. I shall begin with the word "QUOTE" and end the document with "END QUOTING". If I make comment at any point, I shall indicate by use of my initial.

"FACTS ARE FACTS"

QUOTE

960 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK CITY

October
Tenth 1954.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

Dr. David Goldstein, LL.D.,
Astor Post Office Station,
Boston, Massachusetts.

My dear Dr. Goldstein,

Your very outstanding achievements as a convert to Catholicism impress me as without a comparable parallel in modern history. Your devotion to the doctrines and the dogmas of the Roman Catholic Church defy any attempt at description by me only with words. Words fail me for that.

As a vigorous protagonist persevering so persistently in propagating the principles of the Roman Catholic Church, its purpose, its policies, its programs,--your dauntless determination is the inspiration for countless others who courageously seek to follow in your footsteps.

In view of this fact it requires great courage for me to write to you as I am about to do. So I pray when you receive this communication from me you will try to keep in mind Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?". I hope you will so favor me.

It is truly a source of great pleasure and genuine gratification to greet you at long last although of necessity by correspondence. It is quite a disappointment to me to make your acquaintance in this manner. It would now afford me a far greater pleasure and a great privilege also if instead I could greet you on this occasion in person.

(H: you 'will note that only in the beginning do "words fail him" for this does get tedious and long, so please bear with us until he finally gets to some points after the honey is smear about most thickly.)

Our very good mutual friend has for long been planning a meeting with you in person for me. I still wish to do that. I look forward with pleasant anticipation to doing this in the not too distant future at a time agreeable to you.

You will discover in the contents of this long letter valid evidence for the urgency on my part to communicate with you without further delay. You will further discover this urgency reflected in the present gravity of the crisis which now jeopardizes an uninterrupted continuance of the Christian faith in its long struggle as the world's most effective spiritual and social force in the Divine mission of promoting the welfare of all mankind without regard for their diversified races, religions, and nationalities.

Your most recent article coming to my attention appeared in the September issue of the A.P.J. Bulletin, the official publication of the organization calling themselves The Archconfraternity of Prayer for Peace and Goodwill to Israel. The headline of your article, News and Views of Jews, and the purpose of the organization stated in the masthead of the publication, "To Promote Interest in the Apostolate to Israel" prompts me to take Father time by his forelock and promptly offer my comments. I beg your indulgence accordingly.

It is with reluctance that I place my comments in letter form. I hesitated to do so but I find it the only expedient thing to do under the circumstances. I beg to submit them to you now without reservation of any nature for your immediate and earnest consideration. It is my very sincere wish that you accept them in the friendly spirit in which they are submitted. It is also my hope that you will give your consideration to them and favor me with your early reply in the same friendly spirit for which I thank you in advance.

In the best interests of that worthy objective to which you are continuing to dedicate the years ahead as you have so diligently done for many past decades, I most respectfully and sincerely urge you to analyze and to study carefully the data submitted to you here. I suggest also that you then take whatever steps you consider appropriate and necessary as a result of your conclusions. In the invisible and intangible ideological war being waged in defense of the great Christian heritage against its dedicated enemies your positive attitude is vital to victory. Your passive attitude will make a negative contribution to the total effort.

You assuredly subscribe fully to that sound and sensible sentiment that "it is better to light one candle than to sit in darkness". My solitary attempts to date "to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow" may prove no more successful with you now than they have in so many other instances where I have failed during the past thirty years. In your case I feel rather optimistic at the moment.

Although not completely in vain I still live in the hope that one day one of these "candles" will burst into flame like a long smouldering spark and start a conflagration that will sweep across the nation like a prairie fire and illuminate vast new horizons for the first time. That unyielding hope is the source of the courage which aids me in my struggle against the great odds to which I am subjected for obvious reasons.

It has been correctly contended for thousands of years that "In the end Truth always prevails". We all realize that Truth in action can prove itself a dynamic power of unlimited force. But alas Truth has no self-starter. Truth cannot get off dead-center unless a worthy apostle gives Truth a little push to overcome its inertia. Without that start Truth will stand still and will never arrive at its intended destination. Truth has often died aborning for the most logical reason. Your help in this respect will prove of great value.

On the other hand Truth has many times been completely "blackened out" by repeating contradictory and conflicting untruths over and over again, and again, and again. The world's recent history supplies somber testimony of the dangers to civilization inherent in that technique. That form of treason to Truth is treachery to mankind. You must be very careful, my dear Dr. Goldstein, not to become unwittingly one of the many accessories before and after the fact who have appeared upon the scene of public affairs in recent years.

Whether unwittingly, unwillingly or unintentionally many of history's most noted characters have misrepresented the truth to the world and they have been so believed that it puzzles our generation. As recently as 1492 the world was misrepresented as flat by all the best alleged authorities on the subject. In 1492 Christopher Columbus was able to demonstrate otherwise. There are countless similar other instances in the history of the world.

Whether these alleged authorities were guilty of ignorance or indifference is here besides the point. It is not important now. They were either totally ignorant of the facts or they knew the facts but chose to remain silent on the subject for reasons undisclosed by history. A duplication of this situation exists today with respect to the crisis which confronts the Christian faith. It is a vital factor today in the struggle for survival or the eventual surrender of the Christian faith to its enemies. The times in which we are living appears to be the "zero hour" for the Christian faith.

As you have observed no institution in our modern society can long survive if its structure is not from its start erected upon a foundation of Truth. The Christian faith was first erected upon a very solid foundation of Truth by its Founder. To survive it must remain so. The deterioration, the disintegration, and finally the destruction of the structure of the Christian faith today will be accelerated in direct ratio to the extent that misrepresentation and distortion of Truth become the substitutes of Truth. Truth is an absolute quality. Truth can never be relative. There can be no degrees to Truth. Truth either exists or it does not exist. To be half-true is as incredible as to be half-honest or to be half-loyal.

As you have undoubtedly also learned, my dear Dr. Goldstein, in their attempt to do an "ounce" of good in one direction many well-intentioned persons do a "ton" of harm in another direction. We all learn that lesson sooner or later in life. Today finds you dedicating your unceasing efforts and your untiring energy to the task of bringing so-called or self-styled "Jews" into the Roman Catholic Church as converts. It must recall to you many times the day so many years ago when you embraced Catholicism yourself as a convert. More power to you, and the best of luck. May your efforts be rewarded with great success.

Without you becoming aware of the fact, the methods you employ contribute in no small degree to dilution of the devotion of countless Christians for their Christian faith. For each "ounce" of so-called good you accomplish by conversion of so-called or self-styled "Jews" to the Christian faith at the same time you do a "ton" of harm in another direction by diluting the devotion of countless Christians for their Christian faith. This bold conclusion on my part is asserted by me with the firm and fair conviction that the facts will support my contention. In addition it is a well known fact that many "counterfeit" recent conversions reveal that conversions have often proved to be but "infiltrations" by latent traitors with treasonable intentions.

(H: Please, just stay with us a while longer for it DOES get better. If you are "turned Off" by the association of "church" involvement please just read on--it is specific in intent but is "infiltration" into all clubs and organizations and all denominations and government, Congress and military. You will see the point as it unfolds herein--I ask that he not "lose you" by boredom of his upstart for it is so integrated into that which I have just given you that it is worth the input even at a level of boredom. If ye do not come into Truth--ye will spend countless years wishing you had been a "bit more patient through the boredom".)

The attitudes you express

today and your continued activity in this work require possible revision in the light of the facts submitted to you in this letter. Your present philosophy and theology on this subject seriously merit, without any delay, reconsideration on your part. What you say or write may greatly influence a "boom" or a "bust" for the Christian faith in the very near future far beyond your ability to accurately evaluate sitting in your high "white ivory tower". The Christians implicitly believe whatever you write. So do the so-called or self-styled "Jews" whom you seek to convert. This influence you wield can become a danger. I must call it to your attention.

Your reaction to the facts called to your attention in this letter can prove to be one of the most crucial verdicts ever reached bearing upon the security of the Christian faith in recent centuries. In keeping with this great responsibility I sincerely commend this sentiment to you hoping that you will earnestly study the contents of this letter from its first word to its very last word. All who know you well are in the fortunate position to know how close this subject is to your heart. By your loyalty to the high ideals you have observed during the many years you have labored so valiantly on behalf of the Christian faith you have earned the admiration you enjoy. The Christian faith you chose of your own free will in the prime of life is very proud of you in more ways than as a convert.

Regardless of what anyone anywhere and anytime in this whole wide-world may say to the contrary events of recent years everywhere establish beyond any question of a doubt that the Christian faith today stands with one foot in the grave and the other on a banana peel figuratively speaking of course. Only those think otherwise who deliberately shut their eyes to realities or who do not choose to see even with their eyes wide open. I believe you to be too realistic to indulge yourself in the futile folly of fooling yourself.

It is clear that the Christian faith today stands at the crossroads of its destiny. The Divine and sacred mission of the Christian faith is in jeopardy today to a degree never witnessed before in its long history of almost 2000 years. The Christian faith needs loyal friends now as never before. I somehow feel that you can always be counted upon as one of its loyal friends. You cannot over-simplify the present predicament of the Christian faith. The problem it faces is too self-evident to mistake. It is in a critical situation.

When the day arrives that Christians can no longer profess their Christian faith as they profess it today in the free world the Christian faith will have seen the beginning of its "last days". What already applies to 50% of the world's total population can shortly apply equally to 100% of the world's total population. It is highly conceivable judging from present trends. The malignant character of this malady is just as progressive as cancer. It will surely prove as fatal also unless steps are taken now to reverse its course. What is now being done towards arresting its progress or reversing its trend?

Mr dear Dr. Goldstein, can you recall the name of the philosopher who is quoted as saying that "Nothing in this world is permanent except change"? That philosophy must be applied to the Christian faith also. The $64. question remains whether the change will be for the better or for the worse. The problem is that simple. If the present trend continues for another 37 years the Christian faith as it is professed today by Christians will have disappeared from the face of the earth. In what form or by what instrumentality the mission of Jesus Christ will thereupon and thereafter continue to make itself manifest here on earth is as unpredictable as it is inevitable. (HATONN: IT HAS NOW BEEN EXACTLY 37 YEARS FROM THE TIME OF THE LETTER, SAVE A FEW SHORT MONTHS. PONDER IT MOST CAREFULLY!)

Dharma, allow us a break please for this is indeed a very long writing and it will serve better in bits rather than as a whole. Thank you. Please note the changes in your computer are a result of our own adjustments. If you are in continuing slow boot-up, etc., let one of the others look at it. I prefer, however, that it be left alone until we can come into some further adjustments ourselves. It took a real blast to its electronics day before yesterday but we don't want to continue on alternate power for it only causes the "enemy" to tinker to regain input on his own systems and we care not that it is all monitored. Salu. Hatonn to stand-by.

2/16/91 HATONN

CONTINUATION: FREEDMAN-GOLDSTEIN

CONTINUING WITH QUOTE:

In the existing crisis it is neither logical nor realistic to drive Christians out of the Christian "fold" in relatively large numbers for the dubious advantage to be obtained by bringing a comparatively small number of so-called or self-styled "Jews" into the Christian "fold".

It is useless to try to deny the fact that today finds the Christian faith on the defensive throughout the world. This realization staggers the imagination of the few Christians who understand the situation. This status of the Christian faith exists in spite of the magnificent contributions of the Christian faith to the progress of humanity of civilization for almost 2000 years. It is not my intention in this letter to expose the conspirators who are dedicating themselves to the destruction of the Christian faith nor to the nature and extent of the conspiracy itself. That exposure would fill many volumes.

The history of the world for the past several centuries and current events at home and abroad confirm the existence of such a conspiracy. The worldwide net-work of diabolical conspirators implement this plot against the Christian faith while Christians appear to be sound asleep. The Christian clergy appear to be more ignorant or more indifferent about this conspiracy than other Christians. They seem to bury their heads in the sands like the legendary ostrich. This ignorance or indifference on the part of the Christian clergy has dealt a blow to the Christian faith already from which it may never completely recover, if at all. It seems so sad.

Christians deserve to be blessed in this crisis with a spiritual Paul Revere to ride across the nation warning Christians that their enemies are moving in on them fast. My dear Dr. Goldstein, will you volunteer to be that Paul Revere?

Of equal importance to pinpointing the enemies who are making war upon the Christian faith from the outside is the necessity to discover the forces at work inside the Christian faith which make it so vulnerable to its enemies on the outside. Applying yourself to this specific phase of the problem can prove of tremendous value in rendering ineffective the forces responsible for this dangerous state of affairs.

The souls of millions of Christians who are totally unknown to you are quite uneasy about the status of the Christian faith today. The minds of countless thousands among the Christian clergy are troubled by the mysterious "pressure" from above which prevents them exercising their sound judgment in this situation. If the forces being manipulated against the Christian faith from the inside can be stopped the Christian faith will be able to stand upon its feet against its enemies as firmly as the Rock of Gibraltar. Unless this can be done soon the Christian faith appears destined to crumble and to eventually collapse. An ounce of prevention is far preferable to a pound of cure you can be sure in this situation as in all others.

With all respect rightly due to the Christian clergy and in all humility I have an unpleasant duty to perform. I wish to go on record with you here that the Christian clergy are primarily if not solely responsible for the internal forces within the Christian faith inimical to its best interests. The conclusion on my part indicates the sum total of all the facts in my book which add up to just that. If you truly desire to be realistic and constructive you must "hew to the line and let the chips fall where they may". That is the only strategy that can save the Christian faith from a fate it does not deserve. You cannot pussy-foot with the truth any longer simply because you find that now "the truth hurts",--someone you know or like.

At this late hour very little time is left in which to mend our fences if I can call it that. We are not in a position to waste any of our limited time. "Beating it around the bush" now will get us exactly nowhere. The courageous alone will endure the present crisis when all the chips are down. Figuratively and possibly literally there will be live heroes and dead cowards when the dust of this secular combat settles and not dead heroes and live cowards as sometimes occurs under other circumstances. The Christian faith today remains the only "anchor to windward" against universal barbarism. The dedicated enemies of the Christian faith have sufficiently convinced the world by this time of the savage methods they will adopt in their program to erase the Christian faith from the face of the earth.

Earlier in this letter I stated that in my humble opinion the apathy of the Christian clergy might be charged with sole responsibility for the increasing dilution of the devotion of countless Christians for the Christian faith. This is the natural consequence of the confusion created by the Christian clergy in the minds of Christians concerning certain fundamentals of the Christian faith. The guilt for this confusion rests exclusively upon Christian leadership not upon Christians generally. Confusion creates doubt. Doubt creates loss of confidence. Loss of confidence creates loss of interest. As confusion grows more, and more, and more, confidence grows less, and less, and less. The result is complete loss of all interest. You can hardly disagree with that my dear Dr. Goldstein, can you?

(Hatonn: Now it would appear from the pronouncement of "polls" and the rolls of the so-called Christian Churches that there is a great renewal of faith and seeking and coming back into the Christ-path in all "faiths" of whatever the "Christ" is called. This is not so in the "Western cultures"--THERE IS ONLY A RETURN INTO THE CHURCH HOUSES AND INTO NEW DOCTRINES WRITTEN FOR THIS NEW AND "MODERN RELIGION"--whatever that might be!!? Most of the church houses do not house Christianity. They DO hold bigoted, unforgiving and misled parishioners who anticipate a momentary "lift-off" to some nebulous being in the clouds the minute the Zionists get the temple going in Jerusalem and the temple is desecrated. Let me assure, good people--the temples of God have been so desecrated that there is naught left with which to desecrate them--and the Zionists have simply led you a merry chase through the primroses.)

The confusion in the minds of Christians concerning fundamentals of the Christian faith is unwarranted and unjustified. It need not exist. It would not exist if the Christian clergy did not aid and abet the deceptions responsible for it. The Christian clergy may be shocked to learn that they have been aiding and abetting the dedicated enemies of the Christian faith. Many of the Christian clergy are actually their allies but may not know it. This phase of the current world-wide campaign of spiritual sabotage is the most negative factor in the defense of the Christian faith.

Countless Christians standing on the sidelines in this struggle see their Christian faith "withering on the vine" and about ripe enough to "drop into the lap" of its dedicated enemies. They can do nothing about it. Their cup is made more bitter for them as they observe this unwarranted and this unjustified ignorance and indifference on the part of the Christian clergy. This apathetic attitude by the Christian clergy offers no opposition to the aggressors against the Christian faith. Retreat can only bring defeat. To obviate surrender to their dedicated enemies the Christian clergy must "about face" immediately if they expect to become the victors in the invisible and intangible ideological war now being so subversively waged against the Christian faith under their very noses. When will they wake up?

If I were asked to recite in this letter the many manners in which the Christian clergy are confusing the Christian concept of the fundamentals of the Christian faith it would require volumes rather than pages to tell the whole story. Space alone compels me here to confine myself to the irreducible minimum. I will limit myself here to the most important reasons for this confusion. Brevity will of necessity limit the references cited to support the matters presented in this letter. I will do my best under the circumstances to establish the authenticity of the incontestible historic facts I call to your attention here.

In my opinion the most important reason is directly related to your present activities. Your responsibility for this confusion is not lessened by your good intentions. As you have heard said so many times "Hell is paved with good intentions". The confusion your articles create is multiplied a thousand-fold by the wide publicity given to them as a result of the very high regard in which you personally are held by editors and readers across the nation, Christian and non-Christian alike. Your articles constantly are continually reprinted and quoted from coast to coast.

(Hatonn: And thinking back to the PROTOCOLS, I am sure you will instantly remind me that "The press is controlled!" Ah, indeed, we are making progress! Only the infiltrators from the Zionist element would be given such ear and forum.)

The utterance by the Christian clergy which confuses Christians the most is the constantly repeated utterance that "Jesus was a Jew". That also appears to be your favorite theme. (Hatonn: LISTEN UP PLEASE, TO THIS NEXT FOR IT IS FAR BEYOND JUST IMPORTANT!) That misrepresentation and distortion of an incontestible historic fact is uttered by the Christian clergy upon the slightest pretext. They utter it constantly, also without provocation. They appear to be "trigger happy" to utter it. They never miss an opportunity to do so. Informed intelligent Christians cannot reconcile this truly unwarranted misrepresentation and distortion of an incontestible historic fact by the Christian clergy with information known by them now TO THE CONTRARY WHICH COMES TO THEM FROM SOURCES BELIEVED BY THEM TO BE EQUALLY RELIABLE. (Emphasis mine.)

This poses a serious problem today for the Christian clergy. They can extricate themselves from their present predicament now only by resorting to "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth". That is the only formula by which the Christian clergy can recapture the lost confidence of Christians. As effective spiritual leaders they cannot function without this lost confidence. They should make that their first order of business.

My dear Dr. Goldstein, you are a theologian of high rank and a historian of note. Of necessity you also should agree with other outstanding authorities on the subject of whether "Jesus was a Jew". These leading authorities agree today that there is no foundation in fact for the implications, inferences and the innuendoes resulting from the incorrect belief that "Jesus was a Jew".

Incontestible historic facts and an abundance of other proofs establish beyond the possibility of any doubt the incredibility of the assertion so often heard today that "Jesus was a Jew". (Hatonn: Now aren't you glad you stuck with us through that boring introduction? PUT THE STONES BACK ON THE GROUND LEST YOU SHOW YOUR TOTAL IGNORANCE OF FACTS!)

Without any fear of contradiction based upon fact the most competent and best qualified authorities all agree today that Jesus Christ was not a so-called or self-styled "Jew". They now confirm that during His lifetime Jesus was known as a "JUDEAN" and not as a "Jew". Contemporary theologians of Jesus whose competence to pass upon this subject cannot be challenged by anyone today also referred to Jesus during His lifetime here on earth as a "Judean" and not as a "Jew".

(Hatonn: Satan always must wear a sign and our old fraud is beginning to show his a bit?)

Ah, you say, "Hatonn, but you said that once you experienced as a Jew!" Ah and so I did--both--I said it and I did so. I come this time in company with the one you should know as Emmanuel. Jesus is even incorrect for that label was given this perceived Christed being by Paul the apostle who was both confused and scrambled throughout his days and remains so in many ways, unto this very day and yet efforts to bring clarity to that confusion. So be it, let us continue.)

During his lifetime here on earth Jesus was not regarded by Pontius Pilate nor by the Judeans among whom He dwelt as "King of the Jews". The inscription on the Cross upon which Jesus was Crucified has been incorrectly translated into the English language only since the 18th century. (Hatonn: Now just who do you think would change such important facts to mislead the generations and species of human?) Pontius Pilate was ironic and sarcastic when he ordered inscribed upon the Cross the Latin words "Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudeorum". About to be Crucified, with the approval of Pontius Pilate, Jesus was being mocked by Pontius Pilate. Pontius Pilate was well aware at that time that Jesus (Emmanuel, son of Mary) had been denounced, defied and denied by the Judeans who alas finally brought about His Crucifixion as related by history. (Hatonn: And incorrectly at that! I suggest you read, AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL--I AM SANANDA. The correct spelling would have been represented as Immanuel had it been correctly translated.)

Except for His few followers at that time in Judea all other Judeans abhorred Jesus and detested His teachings and the things for which He stood. That deplorable fact cannot be erased from history by time. Pontius Pilate was himself the "ruler" of the Judeans at the time he ordered inscribed upon the Cross the Latin words "Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudeorum": in English "Jesus the Nazarene Ruler of the Judeans". But Pontius Pilate never referred to himself as "ruler" of the Judeans. The ironic and sarcastic reference of Pontius Pilate to Jesus as "Ruler of the Judeans" can hardly be accepted as recognition by Pontius Pilate of Jesus as "Ruler of the Judeans". That is inconceivable by any interpretation.

At the time of the Crucifixion of Jesus Pontius Pilate was the administrator in Judea for the Roman Empire. At that time in history the area of the Roman Empire included a part of the Middle East. As far as he was concerned officially or personally the inhabitants of Judea were "Judeans" to Pontius Pilate and not so-called "Jews" as they have been styled since the 18th century. In the time of Pontius Pilate in history there was no religious, racial or national group in Judea known as "Jews" nor had there been any group so identified anywhere else in the world prior to that time.

Pontius Pilate expressed little interest as the administrator of the Roman Empire officially or personally in the wide variety of forms of religious worship then practiced in Judea. These forms of religious worship extended from phallic worship and other forms of idolatry to the emerging spiritual philosophy of an eternal, omnipotent and invisible Divine diety, the emerging Yahve (Jehovah) concept which predated Abraham of Bible fame by approximately 2000 years. As the administrator for the Roman Empire in Judea it was the official policy of Pontius Pilate never to interfere in the spiritual affairs of the local population. Pontius Pilate's primary responsibility was the collection of taxes to be forwarded home to Rome, not the forms of religious worship practiced by the Judeans from whom these taxes were collected.

As you well know, my dear Dr. Goldstein, the Latin word "rex" means "ruler, leader" in English. During the lifetime of Jesus in Judea the Latin word "rex" meant only that to Judeans familiar with the Latin language. The Latin word "rex" is the form of the noun from the Latin verb "rego, regere, rex, rectus". The Latin verb "rego, regere, rex, rectus" in English means as you also well know "to rule, to lead". Latin was of course the official language in all the provinces administered by a local administrator of the Roman Empire. This fact accounts for the inscription on the Cross in Latin.

With the invasion of the British Isles by the Anglo-Saxons the English language substituted the Anglo-Saxon "king" for the Latin equivalent "rex" used before the Anglo-Saxon invasion. The adoption of "king" for "rex" at this late date in British history did not retroactively alter the meaning of the Latin "rex" to the Judeans in the time of Jesus. The Latin "rex" to them then meant only "ruler, leader" as it still means in Latin. Anglo-Saxon "king" was spelled differently when first used but at all times meant the same as "rex" in Latin, "leader" of a tribe.

During the lifetime of Jesus it was very apparent to Pontius Pilate that Jesus was the very last Person in Judea the Judeans would select as their "ruler" or their "leader". In spite of this situation in Judea Pontius Pilate did not hesitate to order the inscription of the Cross "Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudeorum". By the wildest stretch of the imagination it is not conceivable that this sarcasm and irony by Pontius Pilate at the time of the Crucifixion was not solely mockery of Jesus by Pontius Pilate and only mockery. After this reference to "Jesus the Nazarene Ruler of the Judeans" the Judeans forthwith preceeded to Crucify Jesus upon that very Cross.

(Hatonn: Dharma, I am sorry, chela, but this is GOING TO BE WRITTEN AND WE ARE GOING TO WRITE IT, DEAR ONE. Beloved Joy may now go and rejoice with Peace within her heart for I was going to ask her and NB to pen these truths. It can wait no longer for it has been buried in the lies piled upon lies and now you have the proof of who and why it has been dumped upon humanity. Do not cower, child, for I stand at your front, back, and both sides and none shall strike you except for their foolish words--i.e. Mr. Cooper, who only shows his ignorance beyond all belief unto the world. Oberli, make sure that NB and Joy receive this as it comes forth. Can you now see how a whole civilization can be victims of a lie begun with intent for world control? So be it. We will herein cover a lot of territory in historical importance--better yet, it is laid forth by one who would be referred to as "Jew"--my, "What a tangled web ye weave when first ye practice to deceive!")

In Latin in the lifetime of Jesus the name of the political subdivision in the Middle East known in modern history as Palestine was "Iudaea". It was then administered by Pontius Pilate as administrator for the Roman Empire of which it was then a part. The English for the Latin "Iudaea" is "Judea". In Latin "Iudaeus" is the adjective for the noun "Iudaea". In English "Judean" is the adjective for the noun "Judea". The ancient native population of the subdivision in the Middle East known in modern history as Palestine was then called "Iudaeus" in Latin and "Judean" in English. Those words identified the indigenous population of Judea in the lifetime of Jesus. Who can deny that Jesus was a member of the indigenous population of Judea in His lifetime?

And of course you know, my dear Dr. Goldstein, in Latin the Genitive Plural of "Iudaeus" is "Iudaeorum". (Hatonn: I believe our "Friar Pope" will enjoy checking this out for all you non-Latin "Priests" of the Holy Church!) The English translation of the Genitive Plural of "Iudaeorum" is "of the Judeans". Inscribed upon the Cross on which Jesus was Crucified was "Iudaeorum". It is utterly impossible to give any other English translation to "Iudaeorum" than "of the Judeans". Qualified and competent theologians and historians regard as incredible any other translation into English of "Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum" than "Jesus the Nazarene Ruler of the Judeans". (Hatonn: Further, there is no mistaking the label "Iesus" by which he was called in many places as in "Esu, Issa, Iisa, etc., Christ, Christos, Christed, etc.--you can even now get away with Iesus Sananda and be in the correct "ball-park".) You must agree that this is literally correct.

At the time Pontius Pilate was ordering the "Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum" inscribed upon the Cross the spiritual leaders of Judea were protesting to Pontius Pilate not to write that Jesus was the ruler of the Judeans" but to inscribe instead that Jesus "had said that he was the ruler of the Judeans". The spiritual leaders of Judea made very strong protests to Pontius Pilate against his reference to Jesus as "Rex Iudaeorum" insisting that Pontius Pilate was not familiar with or misunderstood the status of Jesus in Judea. These protests are a matter of historical record, as you know.

The spiritual leaders in Judea protested in vain with Pontius Pilate. They insisted that Jesus "had said that He was the ruler of the Judeans" but that Pontius Pilate was "not to write that Jesus was the ruler of the Judeans". For after all Pontius Pilate was a foreigner in Judea who could not understand the local situations as well as the spiritual leaders. The intricate pattern of the domestic political, social and economic cross-currents in Judea interested Pontius Pilate very little as Rome's administrator.

The Gospel by John was written originally in the Greek language according to the best authorities. In the Greek original there is no equivalent for the English that Jesus "had said that He was the ruler of the Judeans". The English translation of the Greek original of the Gospel by John, XIX, 19, reads "Do not inscribe 'the monarch (basileus) of the Judeans (Ioudaios), but that He Himself said I am monarch (basileus) of the Judeans (Ioudaios)'". "Ioudaia" is the Greek for the Latin "Iudaea" and the English "Judea". "Basileus" is the Greek "monarch" in English. "Rex" is the nearest word in Latin for "basileus" in Greek. The English "ruler", or its alternative "leader", define the sense of Latin "rex" and Greek "basileus" as they were used in the Greek and Latin Gospel by John.

Pontius Pilate "washed his hands" of the protests by the spiritual leaders in Judea who demanded of him that the inscription on the Cross authored by Pontius Pilate be corrected in the manner they insisted upon. Pontius Pilate very impatiently replied to their demands "What I have written, I have written". The inscription on the Cross remained what it had been, "Jesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum", or "Jesus the Nazarene Ruler of the Judeans" in English.

The Latin quotations and words mentioned in this letter are verbatim quotations and the exact words which appear in the 4th century translation of the New Testament into Latin by St. Jerome. This translation is referred to as the Vulgate Edition of the New Testament. It was the first official translation of the new Testament into Latin made by the Christian Church. Since that time it has remained the official New Testament version used by the Catholic Church. The translation of the Gospel by John into Latin by St. Jerome was made from the Greek language in which the Gospel of John was originally written according to the best authorities on this subject.

The English translation of the Gospel by John, XIX, 19, from the original text in the Greek language reads as follows, "Pilate wrote a sign and fastened it to the Cross and the writing was 'Jesus the Nazarene the monarch of the Judeans'". In the original Greek manuscript there is mention also made of the demands upon Pontius Pilate by the spiritual leaders in Judea that Pontius Pilate alter the reference on the Cross to Jesus as "Ruler of the Judeans". The Greek text of the original manuscript of the Gospel by John establishes beyond any question or doubt that the spiritual leaders in Judea at that time had protested to Pontius Pilate that Jesus was "not the ruler of the Judeans" but only "had said that He was the ruler of the Judeans".

There is no factual foundation in history or theology today for the implications, inferences and innuendoes that the Greek "Ioudaios", the Latin "Iudaeus", or the English "Judean" ever possessed a valid religious connotation. In their three respective languages these three words have only indicated a strictly topographical or geographic connotation. In their correct sense these three words in their respective languages were used to identify the members of the indigenous native population of the geographic area known as Judea in the lifetime of Jesus. During the lifetime of Jesus there was not a form of religious worship practiced in Judea or elsewhere in the known world which bore a name even remotely resembling the name of the political subdivision of the Roman Empire, i.e. "Judaism" from "Judea". No cult or sect existed by such a name.

(Hatonn: Please allow to break the writing at this place. I ask that as the portions are given forth, please make sure that our beloved RK be given them in the segments produced. We realize this is very heavy to accept and absorb but none-the-less the time of Truth is upon the lands and so shall it be written for the hourglass lies empty if Man sees not the errors of his journey and acceptance of the lies. So be it and may the blessings of peace which passes your understanding see you through this time of confrontation. Saalome')

Hatonn to stand-by.

2/17/91 HATONN

CONTINUATION OF THE FREEDMAN LETTER

I desire to take no time in current comments until we have finished this portion and presented the work in point. There IS NOTHING more important for, if you do not set your thinking to straight, there is no point in anything else about your physical circumstance.

Yes, it will be through those who are considered "JEWS" who will make sure truth prevails from out of the lies of the Zionists for it is they who have suffered most and have been sorely treated by those they were taught were their elders and truth-bearers. It will be these beloved ones from the Judean races who MUST set it to right that Man can see the truth and facts of the deceit. As ones of God's people check into the information as given, the confirmation will flow as from the lifespring.

Let us continue:

TERM "JEW" CREATED
IN 1775--A.D.

QUOTE:

It is an incontestible fact that the word "Jew" did not come into existence until the year 1775. Prior to 1775 the word "Jew" did not exist in any language. The word "Jew" was introduced into the English for the first time in the 18th century when Sheridan used it in his play "The Rivals", II,i, "She shall have a skin like a mummy, and the beard of a Jew". Prior to this use of the word "Jew" in the English language by Sheridan in 1775 the word "Jew" had not become a word in the English language. Shakespeare never saw the word "Jew" as you will see. Shakespeare never used the word "Jew" in any of his works, the common general belief to the contrary notwithstanding. In his "Merchant of Venice", V.III.i.61, Shakespeare wrote as follows: "What is the reason? I am a Iewe; hath not a Iewe eyes?".

In the Latin St. Jerome 4th century Vulgate Edition of the New Testament Jesus is referred to by the Genitive Plural of "Iudaeus" in the Gospel by John reference to the inscription on the Cross, "-Iudaeorum". It was in the 4th century that St. Jerome translated into Latin the manuscripts of the New Testament from the original languages in which they were written. This translation by St. Jerome is referred to still today as the Vulgate Edition by the Roman Catholic Church authorities, who use it today.

Jesus is referred to as a so-called "Jew" for the first time in the New Testament in the 18th century. Jesus is first referred to as a so-called "Jew" in the revised 18th century editions in the English language of the 14th century first translations of the New Testament into English. The history of the origin of the word "Jew" in the English language leaves no doubt that the 18th century "Jew" is the 18th century contracted and corrupted English word for the 4th century Latin "Iudaeus" found in St. Jerome's Vulgate Edition. Of that there is no longer doubt.

The available original manuscripts from the 4th century to the 18th century accurately trace the origin and give the complete history of the word "Jew" in the English language. In these manuscripts are to be found all the many earlier English equivalents extending through the 14 centuries from the 4th to the 18th century. From the Latin "Iudaeus" to the English "Jew" these English forms included successively "Gyu", "Giu", "Iu", "Iuu", "Iuw", "Ieuu", "Icuy", "Iwe", "Iow", "Iewe", "Ieue", "Iue", "Ive", "Iew", and then finally in the 18th century, "Jew". The many earlier English equivalents for "Jews" through the 14 centuries are "Giwis", "Giws", "Gyues", "Gywes", "Giwes", "Geus", "Iuys", "Iows", "Iouis", "Iews", and then also finally in the 18th century, "Jews".

With the rapidly expanding use in England in the 18th century for the first time in history of the greatly improved printing presses unlimited quantities of the New Testament were printed. These revised 18th century editions of the earlier 14th century first translations into the English language were then widely distributed throughout England and the English speaking world among families who had never possessed a copy of the New Testament in any language. In these 18th century editions with revisions the word "Jew" appeared for the first time in any English translations. The word "Jew" as it was used in the 18th century editions has since continued in use in all editions of the New Testament in the English language. The use of the word "Jew" thus was stabilized.

As you know, my dear Dr. Goldstein, the best known 18th century editions of the New Testament in English are the Rheims (Douai) Edition and the King James Authorized Edition. The Rheims (Douai) translation of the New Testament into English was first printed in 1582 but the word "Jew" did not appear in it. The King James Authorized translation of the New Testament into English was begun in 1604 and first published in 1611. The word "Jew" did NOT appear in it either. The word "Jew" appeared in both these well known editions in their 18th century revised versions for the first time.

Countless copies of the revised 18th century editions of the Rheims (Douai) and the King James translations of the New Testament into English were distributed to the clergy and the laity throughout the English speaking world. They did not know the history of the origin of the English word "Jew" as the only and as the accepted form of the Latin "Iudaeus" and the Greek "Ioudaios". How could they be expected to have known otherwise? The answer is they could not and they did not. It was a new English word to them.

When you studied Latin in your school days you were taught that the letter "I" in Latin when used as the first letter in a word is pronounced like the letter "Y" in English when it is the first letter in words like "yes", "youth" and "yacht". The "I" in "Iudaeus" is pronounced like the "Y" in "yes", "youth", and "yacht" in English. In all the 4th century to 18th century forms for the 18th century "Jew" the letter "I" was pronounced like the English "Y" in "yes", "young", and "yacht". The same is true of the "Gi" or the "Gy" where it was used in place of the letter "I".

The present pronunciation of the word "Jew" in modern English is a development of recent times. In the English language today the "J" in "Jew" is pronounced like the "J" in the English "justice", "jolly", and "jump". This is the case only since the 18th century. Prior to the 18th century the "J" in "Jew" was pronounced exactly like the "Y" in the English "yes", "youth", and "yacht". Until the 18th century and perhaps even later the English "you" or "hew", and the word "Jews" like "youse" or "hews". The present pronunciation of "Jew" in English is a new pronunciation acquired after the 18th century.

The German language still retains the Latin original pronunciation. The German "Jude" is the German equivalent of the English "Jew". The "J" in the German "Jude" is pronounced exactly like the English "Y" in "yes", "youth", and "yacht". The German "J" is the equivalent of the Latin "I" and both are pronounced exactly like the English "Y" in "yes", "youth" and "yacht". The German "Jude" is virtually the first syllable in the Latin "Iudaeus" and is pronounced exactly like it. The German "Jude" is the German contraction and corruption of the Latin "Iudaeus" just as the English "Jew" is the contraction and corruption of the Latin "Iudaeus". The German "J" is always pronounced like the English "Y" in "yes", "youth", and "yacht" when it is the first letter of a word. The pronunciation of the "J" in German "Jude" is not an exception to the pronunciation of the "J" in German.

The English language as you already know, my dear Dr. Goldstein, is largely made up of words adopted from foreign languages. After their adoption by the English language foreign words were then adapted by contracting their spelling and corrupting their foreign pronunciation to make them more easily pronounced in English from their English spelling. This process of first adopting foreign words and then adapting them by contracting their spelling and corrupting their pronunciation resulted in such new words in the English language as "cab" from their original foreign spelling. Hundreds of others must come to your mind.

By this adopting-adapting process the Latin "Iudaeus" and the Greek "Ioudaios" finally emerged in the 18th century as "Jew" in the English language. The English speaking peoples struggled through 14 centuries seeking to create for the English language and English equivalent for the Latin "Iudaeus" and the Greek "Ioudaios" which could be easily pronounced in English from its English spelling. The English "Jew" was the resulting 18th century contracted and corrupted form of the Latin "Iudaeus" and the Greek "Ioudaios". The English "Jew" is easily pronounced in English from its English spelling. The Latin "Iudaeus" and the Greek "Ioudaios" cannot be as easily pronounced in English from the Latin and Greek spelling. They were forced to coin a word.

The earliest version of the New Testament in English from the Latin Vulgate Edition is the Wiclif, or Wickliffe Edition published in 1380. In the Wiclif Edition Jesus is there mentioned as One of the "Iewes". That was the 14th century English version of the Latin "Iudaeus" and was pronounced "hew-weeze", in the plural, and "Iewe" pronounced "hew-wee" in the singular. In the 1380 Wiclif Edition in English and Gospel by John, XIX.19, reads "ihesus of nazareth kyng of the Iewes". Prior to the 14th century the English language adopted the Anglo-Saxon "kyng" together with many other Anglo-Saxon words in place of the Latin "rex" and the Greek "basileus". The Anglo-Saxon also meant "tribal leader".

In the Tyndale Edition of the New Testament in English published in 1525 Jesus was likewise described as One of the "Iewes". In the Coverdale Edition published in 1535 Jesus was also described as One of the "Iewes". In the Coverdale Edition the Gospel by John, XIX.19, reads "Iesus of Nazareth, kyng of the Iewes". In the Cranmer Edition published in 1539 Jesus was again described as One of the "Iewes". In the Geneva Edition published in 1540-1557 Jesus was also described as One of the "Iewes". In the Rheims Edition published in 1582 Jesus was described as One of the "Ievves". In the King James Edition published in 1404-1611 also known as the Authorized Version Jesus was described again as one of the "Iewes". The forms of the Latin "Iudaeus" were used which were current at the time these translations were made.

The translation into English of the Gospel by John, XIX.19, from the Greek in which it was originally written reads "Do not inscribe 'the monarch' of the Judeans' but that He Himself said 'I am monarch'". In the original Greek manuscript the Greek "basileus" appears for "monarch" in the English and the Greek "Ioudaios" appears for "Judeans" in the English. "Ioudaia" in Greek is "Judea" in English. "Ioudaios" in Greek is "Judeans" in English. There is no reason for any confusion.

My dear, Dr. Goldstein, if the generally accepted understanding today of the English "Jew" and "Judean" conveyed the identical implications, inferences and innuendoes as both rightly should, it would make no difference which of these two words was used when referring to Jesus in the New Testament or elsewhere. But the implications, inferences, and innuendoes today conveyed by these two words are as different as black is from white. The word "Jew" today is never regarded as a synonym for "Judean" nor is "Judean" regarded as a synonym for "Jew".

As I have explained, when the word "Jew" was first introduced into the English language in the 18th century its one and only implication, inference and innuendo was "Judean". However during the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries a well-organized and well-financed international "pressure group" created a so-called "secondary meaning" for the word "Jew" among the English-speaking peoples of the world. This so-called "secondary meaning" for the word "Jew" bears no relation whatsoever to the 18th century original connotation of the word "Jew". It is a misrepresentation.

The "secondary meaning" of the word "Jew" today bears as little relation to its original and correct meaning as the "secondary meaning" today for the word "camel" bears to the original and correct meaning for the word "camel", or the "secondary meaning" today for the word "ivory" bears to the original and correct meaning of the word "ivory". The "secondary meaning" today for the word "camel" is a cigarette by that name but its original and correct meaning is a desert animal by that ancient name. The "secondary meaning" of the word "ivory" today is a piece of soap but its original and correct meaning is the tusk of a male elephant.

The "secondary meanings" of words often become the generally accepted meanings of words formerly having entirely different meanings. This is accomplished by the expenditure of great amounts of money for well-planned publicity. Today if you ask for a "camel" someone will hand you cigarette by that name. Today if you ask for a piece of "ivory" someone will hand you a piece of soap by that name. You will never receive either a desert animal or a piece of the tusk of a male elephant. That must illustrate the extent to which these "secondary meanings" are able to practically eclipse the original and correct meanings of words in the minds of the general public. The "secondary meaning" for the word "Jew" today has practically totally eclipsed the original and correct meaning of the word "Jew" when it was introduced as a word in the English language. This phenomena is not uncommon.

The United States Supreme Court has recognized the "secondary meaning" of words. The highest court in the land has established as basic law that "secondary meanings" can acquire priority rights to the use of any dictionary word. Well-planned and well-financed world-wide publicity through every available media by well-organized groups of so-called or self-styled "Jews" for three centuries has created a "secondary meaning" for the word "Jew" which has completely "blacked out" the original and correct meaning of the word "Jew". There can be no doubt about that.

There is not one person in the whole English-speaking world today who regards a "Jew" as a "Judean" in the literal sense of the word. That was the correct and only meaning in the 18th century. The generally accepted "secondary meaning" of the word "Jew" today with practically no exceptions is made up of four almost universally-believed theories. These four theories are that a so-called or self-styled "Jew" is (1) a person who today professes the form of religious worship known as "Judaism", (2) a person who claims to belong to a racial group associated with the ancient Semites, (3) a person directly the descendant of an ancient nation which thrived in Palestine in Bible history, (4) a person blessed by Divine intentional design with certain superior cultural characteristics denied to other racial, religious or national groups, all rolled into one.

The present generally accepted "secondary meaning" of the word "Jew" is fundamentally responsible for the confusion in the minds of Christians regarding elementary tenets of the Christian faith. It is likewise responsible today to a very great extent for the dilution of the devotion of countless Christians for their Christian faith. The implications, inferences and innuendoes of the word "Jew" today, to the preponderant majority of intelligent and informed Christians, is contradictory and in complete conflict with incontestible historic fact. Christians who cannot be fooled any longer are suspect of the Christian clergy who continue to repeat, and repeat, and repeat ad nauseam their pet theme song "Jesus was a Jew". It actually now approaches psychosis.

Countless Christians know today that they were "brain washed" by the Christian clergy on the subject "Jesus was a Jew". The resentment they feel is not yet apparent to the Christian clergy. Christians now are demanding from the Christian clergy "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth". It is now time for the Christian clergy to tell Christians what they should have told them long ago. Of all religious groups in the world Christians appear to be the least informed of any on this subject. Have their spiritual leaders been reckless with the truth?

Countless intelligent and informed Christians no longer accept unchallenged assertions by the Christian clergy that Jesus in His lifetime was a Member of a group in Judea which practised a religious form of worship then which is today called "Judaism", or that Jesus in His lifetime here on earth was a Member of the racial group which today includes the preponderant majority of all so-called or self-styled "Jews" in the world, or that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today are the lineal descendants of the nation in Judea of which Jesus was a national in His lifetime here on earth, or that the cultural characteristics of so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today correspond with the cultural characteristics of Jesus during His lifetime here on earth and His teachings while He was here on earth for a brief stay. Christians will no longer believe that the race, religion, nationality and culture of Jesus and the race, religion, nationality and culture of so-called or self-styled "Jews" today or their ancestors have a common origin or character.

The resentment by Christian is more ominous than the Christian clergy suspect. Under existing conditions the Christian clergy will find that ignorance is not bliss, nor wisdom folly. Christians everywhere today are seeking to learn the authentic relationship between the so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today and the "Judeans" who populated "Judea" before, during and after the time of Jesus. Christians now insist that they be told correctly by the Christian clergy about the racial, religious, national and cultural background of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today and the basis for associating these backgrounds with the racial, religious, national and cultural background of Jesus in His lifetime in Judea. The intelligent and informed Christians are alerted to the exploded myth that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today are the direct descendants of the "Judeans" amongst whom Jesus lived during His lifetime here on earth.

Christians today are also becoming more and more alerted day by day why the so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world for three centuries have spent uncounted sums of money to manufacture the fiction that the "Judeans" in the time of Jesus were "Jews" rather than "Judeans", and that "Jesus was a Jew". Christians are becoming more and more aware day by day of all the economic and political advantages accruing to the so-called or self-styled "Jews" as a direct result of their success in making Christians believe that "Jesus was a Jew" in the "secondary meaning" they have created for the 18th century word "Jew". The so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today represent themselves to Christians as "Jews" only in the "secondary meaning" of the word "Jew". They seek to thereby prove their kinship with Jesus. They emphasize this fiction to the Christians constantly. That fable is fast fading and losing its former grip upon the imaginations of Christians.

To allege that "Jesus was a Jew" in the sense that during His lifetime Jesus professed and practised the form of religious worship known and practised under the modern name of "Judaism" is false and fiction of the most blasphemous nature. If to be a so-called or self-styled "Jew" then or now the practise of "Judaism" was a requirement then Jesus certainly was not a so-called "Jew". Jesus abhorred and denounced the form of religious worship practised in Judea in His lifetime and which is known and practised today under its new name "Judaism". That religious belief was then known as "Pharisaism". The Christian clergy learned that in their theological seminary days but they have never made any attempt to make that clear to Christians.

Dharma, here is a good point at which to break the writing. We will continue at the section regarding the Jewish Theological Seminary of America--often referred to as "The Vatican of Judaism". Thank you. Salu.

2/17/91 HATONN

THE VATICAN 'OF JUDAISM

JUDAISM/PHARISAISM

CONTINUATION OF QUOTING:

The eminent Rabbi Louis Finkelstein, the head of the The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, often referred to as the "The Vatican of Judaism", in his Forward to his First Edition of this world-famous classic "The Pharisees, The Sociological Background of Their Faith", on page XXI states:

". . . Judaism. . .

.Pharisaism became Talmudism, Talmudism became Medieval Rabbinism, and Medieval Rabbinism became Modern Rabbinism. But throughout these changes in name. . .the spirit of the ancient Pharisees survives, unaltered. . .From Palestine to Babylonia; from Babylonia to North Africa, Italy, Spain, France and Germany; from these to Poland, Russia, and eastern Europe generally, ancient Pharisaism has wandered. . .demonstrates the enduring importance which attaches to Pharisaism as a religious movement. . ."

The celebrated Rabbi Louis Finkelstein in his great classic quoted from above traces the origin of the form of religious worship practiced today under the present name "Judaism", to its origin as "Pharisaism" in Judea in the time of Jesus. Rabbi Louis Finkelstein confirms what the eminent Rabbi Adolph Moses stated in his great classic "Yahvism, and Other Discourses", in collaboration with the celebrated Rabbi H.G.Enelow, published in 1903 by the Louisville Section of the Council of Jewish Women, in which Rabbi Adolph Moses, on page 1 states:

"Among the innumerable misfortunes which have befallen. . .the most fatal in its consequences is the name Judaism. . .Worse still, the Jews themselves, who have gradually come to call their religion Judaism. . .Yet, neither in biblical nor post-biblical, neither in talmudic, nor in much later times, is the term Judaism ever heard. . .The Bible speaks of the religion. . .as 'Torath Yahve', the instruction, or the moral law revealed by Yahve. . .in other places. .

.as 'Yirath Yahve', the fear and reverence of Yahve. These and other appellations CONTINUED FOR MANY AGES TO STAND FOR THE RELIGION. . .To distinguish it from Christianity and Islam, the Jewish philosophers sometimes designate it as the faith or belief of the Jews. . .IT WAS FLAVIUS JOSEPHUS, WRITING FOR THE INSTRUCTION OF GREEKS AND ROMANS, WHO COINED THE TERM JUDAISM, in order to pit it against Hellenism. . .By Hellenism was understood the civilization, comprising language, poetry, religion, art, science, manners, customs, institutions, which. . .had spread from Greece, its original home, over vast regions of Europe, Asia and Africa. . .The Christians eagerly seized upon the name. . .The Jews themselves, who intensely detested the traitor Josephus, refrained from reading his works. . .HENCE THE TERM JUDAISM COINED BY JOSEPHUS REMAINED ABSOLUTELY UNKNOWN TO THEM. . .IT WAS ONLY IN COMPARATIVELY RECENT TIMES, AFTER THE JEWS BECAME FAMILIAR WITH MODERN CHRISTIAN LITERATURE, THAT THEY BEGAN TO NAME THEIR RELIGION JUDAISM." (emphasis supplied)

This statement by the world's two leading authorities on this subject clearly establishes beyond any question or any doubt that so-called "Judaism" was not the name of any form of religious worship practiced in Judea in the time of Jesus. The Flavius Josephus referred to in the above quotation lived in the 1st century. It was he who coined the word "Judaism" in the 1st century explicitly for the purpose recited clearly above. Religious worship known and practiced today under the name "Judaism" by so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world was known and practiced in Judea in the time of Jesus under the name "Pharisaism" according to Rabbi Louis Finkelstein, head of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and all the other most competent and qualified recognized authorities on the subject.

The form of religious worship known as "Pharisaism" in Judea in the time of Jesus was a religious practice based exclusively upon the Talmud. The Talmud in the time of Jesus was the Magna Charta, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights, all rolled into one, of those who practiced "Pharisaism". The Talmud today occupies the same relative position with respect to those who profess "Judaism". The Talmud today virtually exercises totalitarian dictatorship over the lives of so-called or self-styled "Jews" whether they are aware of that fact or not. Their spiritual leaders make no attempt to conceal the control they exercise over the lives of so-called or self-styled "Jews". They extend their authority far beyond the legitimate limits of spiritual matters. Their authority has no equal outside religion.

The role the Talmud plays in "Judaism" as it is practiced today is officially stated by the eminent Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer, the Director of Interreligious Activities of the American Jewish Committee and the President of the Jewish Chaplains Association of the Armed Forces of the United States. In his present capacity as official spokesman for The American Jewish Committee, the self-styled "Vatican of Judaism", Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer wrote a most revealing and comprehensive article with the title "What is a Jew" which was published as a feature article in Look Magazine in the June 17, 1952 issue. In that article Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer evaluated the significance of the Talmud to "Judaism" today. In that illuminating treatise on that important subject by the most qualified authority, at the time, Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer stated:

"The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. It is a compendium of law and lore. IT IS THE LEGAL CODE WHICH FORMS THE BASIS OF JEWISH RELIGIOUS LAW AND IT IS THE TEXTBOOK USED IN THE TRAINING OF RABBIS." (Hatonn: Please obtain of copy of RAPE OF JUSTICE by Eustace Mullins--which can, I believe, be obtained through America West--to see just how far the judicial system is entangled and practices "law" by the rules of the "Talmud").

In view of this official evaluation of the importance of the Talmud in the practice of "Judaism" today by the highest body of so-called or self-styled "Jews" in the world it is very necessary at this time, my dear Dr. Goldstein, to inquire a little further into the subject of the Talmud. In his lifetime the eminent Michael Rodkinson, the assumed name of a so-called or self-styled "Jew" who was one of the worlds great authorities on the Talmud, wrote "History of the Talmud". This great classic on the subject was written by Michael Rodkinson in collaboration with the celebrated Rabbi Isaac M. Wise. In his "History of the Talmud" Michael Rodkinson, on page 70, states:

"Is the literature that Jesus was familiar with in his early years yet in existence in the world? Is it possible for us to get at it? Can we ourselves review the ideas, the statements, the modes of reasoning and thinking, ON MORAL AND RELIGIOUS SUBJECTS, which were current in his time, and MUST HAVE BEEN REVOLVED BY HIM DURING THOSE THIRTY SILENT YEARS WHEN HE WAS PONDERING HIS FUTURE MISSION? To such inquiries the learned class of Jewish rabbis ANSWER BY HOLDING UP THE TALMUD. Here, say they, is THE SOURCE FROM WHENCE JESUS OF NAZARETH DREW THE TEACHINGS WHICH ENABLE HIM TO REVOLUTIONIZE THE WORLD; and the question becomes, therefor, an interesting one TO EVERY CHRISTIAN. What is the Talmud? THE TALMUD, THEN IS THE WRITTEN FORM OF THAT WHICH, IN THE TIME OF JESUS WAS CALLED THE TRADITIONS OF THE ELDERS AND TO WHICH HE MAKES FREQUENT ALLUSIONS. What sort of book is it?"

Stimulated by that invitation every Christian worth of the name should immediately take the trouble to seek the answer to that "interesting" question "to every Christian". My dear Dr. Goldstein, your articles do not indicate whether you have taken the time and the trouble to personally investigate "what sort of book" the Talmud is either before or after your conversion to Catholicism. Have you ever done so? If you have done so what is the conclusion you have reached regarding "what sort of book" the Talmud is? What is your personal unbiased and unprejudiced opinion of the Talmud? Is it consistent with your present views as a devout Roman Catholic and a tried and true Christian? Can you spare a few moments to drop me a few lines on your present views?

In case you have never had the opportunity to investigate the contents of the "63 books" of the Talmud so well summarized by Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer in his illuminating article "What is a Jew", previously quoted, may I here impose upon your precious time and quote a few passages for you until you find the time to conveniently investigate the Talmud's contents personally. If I can be of any assistance to you in doing so please do not hesitate to let me know in what manner you can use my help.

From the Birth of Jesus until this day there have never been recorded more vicious and vile libelous blasphemies of Jesus, of Christians and the Christian faith by anyone, anywhere, or anytime than you will find between the covers of the infamous "63 books" which are "the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law" as well as the "textbook used in the training of rabbis". The explicit and implicit irreligious character and implications of the contents of the Talmud will open your eyes as they have never been opened before. The Talmud reviles Jesus, Christians and the Christian faith as the priceless spiritual and cultural heritage of Christians has never been reviled before or since the Talmud was completed in the 5th centure. You will have to excuse the foul, obscene, indecent, lewd and vile language you will see here as verbatim quotations from the official unabridged translation of the Talmud into English. BE PREPARED FOR A SURPRISE.

In the year 1935 the international hierarchy of so-called or self-styled "Jews" for the first time in history published an official unabridged translation of the complete Talmud in the English language with complete footnotes. What possessed them to make this translation in English is one of the unsolved mysteries. It was probably done because so many so-called or self-styled "Jews" of the younger generation were unable to read the Talmud in the many ancient languages in which the original "63 books" of the Talmud were first composed by their authors in many lands between 200 B.C. and 500 A.D.

The international hierarchy of so-called or self-styled "Jews" selected the most learned scholars to make this official translation of the Talmud into English. These famous scholars also prepared official footnotes explaining passages of the Talmud where they were required. This official unabridged translation of the Talmud into English with the official footnotes was printed in London in 1935 by the Soncino Press. It has been always referred to as the Soncino Edition of the Talmud. A very limited number of the Soncino Edition were printed. They were not made available to any purchaser. The Soncino Edition of the Talmud is to be found in the Library of Congress and the New York Public Library. A set of the Soncino Edition of the Talmud has been available to me for many years. They have become rare "collector's items" by now.

(Hatonn: Do you also see that it is up to you-the people as to whether or not these Journals end up removed from the hands of the world population and fall among the "rare" publications accidentally missed in the mass destruction of the information? It is up to you, citizens of the world, as the world nears destruction at the hands of those who have stolen your very "Truth of God Creator". How can you know Truth if all documentation thereof is destroyed by the would be KINGS AND CONTROLLERS OF THE PLANET?)

The Soncino Edition of the Talmud with its footnotes is like a double-edged sword. It teaches the Talmud to countless millions of the younger generation of so-called or self-styled "Jews" who are not able to read the Talmud in the many ancient languages in which the Talmud was written by its authors between 200 B.C. and 500 A.D. It also teaches Christians what the Talmud has to say about Jesus, about Christians and about the Christian faith. Someday this is bound to back-fire. Christians will some day challenge the assertion that the Talmud is the "sort of book" from which Jesus allegedly "drew the teachings which enabled him to revolutionize the world" on "moral and religious subjects". The rumbling is already heard in places.

(Hatonn: As you read the quotations, I want (especially you ones who objected to Germain and Hatonn using Bullshit to see if a scribe would edit it out) to have you REALLY PAY ATTENTION AS WE PUT THIS INFORMATION INTO YOUR HANDS AND SEE IF YOU STILL BELIEVE THE CHRIST FRAGMENT OF GOD/CREATOR/CREATION WOULD LIKELY UTILIZE

THESE TERMS.)

The official unabridged Soncino Edition of the Talmud published in 1935 was "Translated into English with Notes, Glossary and Indices" by such eminent Talmudic scholars as Rabbi Dr. I. Epstein, Rabbi Dr. Samuel Daiches, Rabbi Dr. Israel W. Slotki, M. A., Litt. D., The Reverend Dr. A. Cohen, M.A., Ph.D., M.Sc., Jacob Schacter, A. Mishcon, A. Cohen, M.A., Ph.D., Maurice Simon M.A., and the Very Reverend The Chief Rabbi Dr., J. H. Hertz wrote the "Foreword" for the Soncino Edition of the Talmud. The Very Reverend Rabbi Hertz was at the time the Chief Rabbi of England.

The following are but a few of the many similar quotations with footnotes from the Soncino Edition of the Talmud, the "sort of book" form which Jesus allegedly "drew the teachings which enable him to revolutionize the world" on "moral and religious" subjects:

(Book) Sanhedrin, 54b-55a:
 "What is meant by this?--
 Rab said: Pederasty with a child below nine years of age is not deemed as pederasty with a child above that. Samuel said: Pederasty with a child below three years is not treated as with a child above that (2). What is the basis of their dispute?-- Rab maintains that only he who is able to engage in sexual intercourse, may, as the passive subject of pederasty throw guilt (upon the actual offender); whilst he who is unable to engage in sexual intercourse cannot be a passive subject of pederasty (in that respect) (3). But Samuel maintains: Scriptures writes, (And thou shalt not lie with mankind)

as with the lyings of a woman (4). It has been taught in accordance with Rab: Pederasty at the age of nine years and a day; (55a) (he) who commits bestiality, whether naturally or unnaturally: or a woman who causes herself to be bestiality abused, whether naturally or unnaturally, is liable to punishment (5)."

(footnotes)"(1) The reference is to the passive subject of sodomy. As stated in supra 54a, guilt is incurred by the active participant even if the former be a minor, i.e. less than thirteen years old. Now, however, it is stated that within this age a distinction is drawn. (emphasis is in original, Ed.)

(2) Rab makes nine years the minimum; but if one committed sodomy with a child of lesser age, no guilt is incurred. Samuel makes three the minimum.

(3) At nine years a male attains sexual maturity.

(4) Lev. XVIII,22.

(5) Rashi reads ("xxx") (Hebrew characters, Ed.) instead of ("zzz") (Hebrew characters, Ed.) in our printed texts. A male, aged nine years and a day, who commits etc. There are thus three distinct clauses in this Baraitha. The first--a male aged nine years and a day--refers to the passive subject of pederasty, the punishment being incurred by the adult offender. This must be its meaning: because firstly, the active offender is never explicitly designated as a male, it being understood, just as the Bible states, Thou shalt not lie with mankind, where only the sex of the passive participant is mentioned; and secondly, if the age reference is to the active party, the guilt being incurred by the passive adult party, why single out pederasty: in all crimes of incest, the passive adult does not incur guilt unless the other party is at least nine years and a day? Hence the Baraitha supports Rab's contention that nine years (and a day) is the minimum age of the passive partner for the adult to be liable." (emphasis in original, Ed.)

Before giving any more verbatim quotations from the "sort of book" from which it is falsely alleged Jesus "drew the teachings which enable him to revolutionize the world" on "moral and religious subjects" I wish to here again recall to your attention the official statement by Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer in Look Magazine for June 17, 1952. In that official statement made by Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer on behalf of the American Jewish Committee, self-styled "The Vatican of Judaism", informed the 20,000,000 readers of Look magazine that the Talmud "IS THE LEGAL CODE WHICH FORMS THE BASIS OF JEWISH RELIGIOUS LAW AND IT IS THE TEXTBOOK USED IN THE TRAINING OF RABBIS". Please bear this mind as you read further.

Before continuing I wish also to call your attention to another feature. Confirming the official view of Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer, the New York Times on May 20, 1954 ran a news item under the headline "Rabbis Plan a Fund to Endow Two Chairs". The news item itself ran as follows: "Special to the New York Times, Uniontown, Pa. May 19--Plans for raising $500,000. for the creation of two endowed chairs at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America were announced today at the fifty-fourth annual convention of the Rabbinical Assembly of America. THE PROFESSORSHIPS WOULD BE KNOWN AS THE LOUIS GINSBERG CHAIR IN TALMUD. . .! This is further proof that the Talmud is not yet quite a dead-letter in the "TRAINING OF RABBIS". Is further proof needed on that question?

The world's leading authorities on the Talmud confirm that the official unabridged Soncino Edition of the Talmud translated into English follows the original texts with great exactness. It is almost a word-for-word translation of the original texts. In his famous classic "The History of the Talmud" Michael Rodkinson, the leading authority on the Talmud, in collaboration with the celebrated Reverend Dr. Isaac Wise, states:

"With the conclusion of the first volume of this work at the beginning of the twentieth century, we would invite the reader to take a glance over the past of the Talmud, in which he will see. . .that not only was the Talmud not destroyed, but was so saved that NOT A SINGLE LETTER OF IT IS MISSING; and now IT IS FLOURISHING TO SUCH A DEGREE AS CANNOT BE FOUND IN ITS PAST HISTORY. . . THE TALMUD IS ONE OF THE WONDERS OF THE WORLD. During the twenty centuries of its existence. . . IT SURVIVED IN ITS ENTIRETY, and not only has the power of its foes FAILED TO DESTROY EVEN A SINGLE LINE, but it has not even been able materially to weaken its influence for any length of time. IT STILL DOMINATES THE MINDS OF A WHOLE PEOPLE, WHO VENERATE ITS CONTENTS AS DIVINE TRUTH. . . The colleges for the study of the Talmud are increasing almost in every place where Israel dwells, especially in this country where millions are gathered for the funds of the two colleges, the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati and The Jewish Theological Seminary of America in New York, in which the chief study is the Talmud. . . There are also in our city houses of learning (Jeshibath) for the study of the Talmud in the lower East Side, where many young men are studying the Talmud every day."

Dharma, there is something wrong with your computer keyboard--write no more until it is checked and cleared. We will take a respite while this is taken care of, please.**

2/17/91 HATONN

QUOTATION CONTINUED:

This "divine truth" which "a whole people venerate" of which "not a single letter of it is missing" and today "is flourishing to such a degree as cannot be found in its history" is illustrated by the additional verbatim quotations which follow:

(Book) Sanhedrin, 55b: "A maiden three years and a day may be acquired in marriage by coition, and if her deceased husband's brother cohabits with her, she becomes his. The penalty of adultery may be incurred through her; (if a niddah) she defiles him who has connection with her, so that he in turn defiles that upon which he lies, as a garment which has lain upon (a person afflicted with gonorrhea)." (emphasis in original text of Soncino Edition, Ed.)

(Book) Sanhedrin, 58b. "R. Eleazar said in R. Hanina's name; If a heathen had an unnatural connection with his wife, he incurs guilt; for it is written, and he shall cleave, which excludes unnatural intercourse (2). Raba objected: Is there anything for which a Jew is not punishable and a heathen is? (3). But Raba said thus: A heathen who violates his neighbor's wife is free from punishment. Why so?--(Scripture saith) To his wife, but not to his neighbor's; and he shall cleave, which excludes unnatural intercourse (4).

(footnotes)"(2) His wife derives no pleasure from this, and hence there is no cleaving.

(3) A variant reading of this passage is: Is there anything permitted to a Jew which is forbidden to a heathen. Unnatural connection is permitted to a Jew.

(4) By taking the two in conjunction, the latter as illustrating the former, we learn that the guilt of violating the injunction 'to his wife but not to his neighbor's wife' is incurred only for natural but not for unnatural intercourse." (emphasis in original, Ed.)

(Book) Sanhedrin, 69a. "'A man': from this I know the law only with respect to a man: whence do I know it of one aged nine years and a day who is capable of intercourse? From the verse, And 'if a man'? (2)--He replied: Such a minor can produce semen, but cannot beget therewith; for it is like the seed of cereals less than a third grown (3)."

(footnotes)"(2) 'And' ('') indicates an extension of the law, and is here interpreted to include a minor aged nine years and a day.

(3) Such cereals contain seed, which if sown, however, will not grow.

(Book) Sanhedrin, 69b. "Our rabbis taught: If a woman sported lewdly with her young son (a minor), and he committed the first stage of cohabitation with her,--Beth Shammai say, he thereby renders her unfit for the priesthood (1). Beth Hillel declare her fit. . . All agree that the connection of a boy nine years and a day is a real connection; whilst that of one less than eight years is not (2); their dispute refers only to one who is eight years old.

(footnotes "(1) i.e., she becomes a harlot whom a priest may not marry (Lev. XXL, 7.).

(2) So that if he was nine years and a day or more, Beth Hillel agree that she is invalidated from the priesthood; whilst if he was less than eight, Beth Shammai agree that she is not."

(Book) Kethuboth, 5b. "The question was asked: Is it allowed (15) to perform the first marital act on the Sabbath? (16). Is the blood (in the womb) stored up (17), or is it the result of a wound? (18).

(footnotes)"(15) Lit., 'how is it'?

(16) When the intercourse could not take place before the Sabbath (Tosaf).

(17) And the intercourse would be allowed, since the blood flows out of its own accord, no wound having been made.

(18) Lit., or is it wounded? And the intercourse would be forbidden."

(Book) Kethuboth, 10a-10b. "Someone came before Rabban Gamaliel the son of Rabbi (and) said to him, 'my master I have had intercourse (with my newly wedded wife) and I have not found any blood (7). She (the wife) said to him, 'My master, I am still a virgin'. He (then) said to them: Bring me two handmaids, one (who is) a virgin and one who had intercourse with a man. They brought to him (two such handmaids), and he placed them on a cask of wine. (In the case of) the one who was no more a virgin its smell (1) went through (2), (in the case of) the virgin the smell did not go through (3). He (then) placed this one (the young wife) also (on a cask of wine), and its smell (4) did not go through. He (then) said to him: Go, be happy with thy bargain (7). But he should have examined her from the beginning (8)."

(footnotes)"(1) i.e., the smell of wine.

(2) One could smell the wine from the mouth (Rashi).

(3) One could not smell the wine from the mouth.

(4) i.e., the smell of wine.

(5) Rabban Gamaliel.

(6) To the husband.

(7) The test showed that the wife was a virgin.

(8) Why did he first have experiment with the two handmaids."

(Book) Kethuboth, 11a-11b. "Raba said, It means (5) this: When a grown up man has intercourse with a little girl it is nothing, for when the girl is less than this (6), it is as if one puts the finger in the eye (7); but when a small boy has intercourse with a grown up woman, he makes her as 'as a girl who is injured by a piece of wood'".

(footnotes)"(5). Lit., 'says'.

(6) Lit., 'here', that is, less than three years old.

(7) Tears come to the eyes again and again, so does virginity come back to the little girl under three years."

(Book) Kethuboth, 11a-11b. "Rab Judah said that Rab said: A small boy who has intercourse with a grown up woman makes here (as though she were) injured by a piece of wood (1). Although the intercourse of a small boy is not regarded as a sexual act, nevertheless the woman is injured by it as by a piece of wood."

(footnotes)"(1) Although the intercourse of a small boy is not regarded as a sexual act, nevertheless the woman is injured by it as by a piece of wood."

(Book) Hayorath, 4a. "We learnt: (THE LAW CONCERNING THE) MENSTRUANT OCCURS IN THE TORAH BUT IF A MAN HAS INTERCOURSE WITH A WOMAN THAT AWAITS A DAY CORRESPONDING TO A DAY HE IS EXEMPT. But why? Surely (the law concerning) a woman that awaits a day corresponding to a day is mentioned in the Scriptures: He hath made naked her fountain. But, surely it is written, (1)--They might rule that in the natural way even the first stage of contact is forbidden; and in an unnatural way, however, consummation of coition only is forbidden but the first stage of contact is permitted. If so, (the same might apply) even (to the case of) a menstruant also! (2)--The fact, however, is (that the ruling might have been permitted) (3) even in the natural way (4) alleging (that the prohibition of) the first stage (5) has reference to a menstruant woman only (6). And if you prefer I might say: The ruling may have been that a woman is not regarded as a zabah (7) except during the daytime because it is written, all the days of her issue (8)." (emphasis appears in Soncino Edition original, Ed.)

(footnotes)"(13) Lev. XV,28.

(14) Cf. supra p.17,n.10. Since she is thus Biblically considered unclean how could a court rule that one having intercourse with her is exempt?

(15) Lev.XX,18.

(1) Ibid.13. The plural "xxxx" (Hebrew characters, Ed.) implies natural, and unnatural intercourse.

(2) Why then was the case of 'a woman who awaits a day corresponding to a day' given as an illustration when the case of a menstruant, already mentioned, would apply the same illustration.

(3) The first stage of contact.

(4) In the case of one who awaits a day corresponding to a day; only consummation of coition being forbidden in her case.

(5) Cf. Lev. XX, 18.

(6) Thus permitting a forbidden act which the Sadducees do not admit.

(7) A woman who has an issue of blood not in the time of her menstruation, and is subject to certain laws of uncleanness and purification (Lev. XV, 25ff).

(8) Lev. XV, 26. Emphasis being laid on days."

(Book) Abodah Zarah, 36b-37a. "R. Naham b. Isaac said: They decreed in connection with a heathen child that it would cause defilement by seminal emission (2) so that an Israelite child should not become accustomed to commit pederasty with it. . . From what age does a heathen child cause defilement by seminal emission? From the age of nine years and one day. (37a) for inasmuch as he is then capable of the sexual act he likewise defiles by emission. Rabina said: It is therefore to be concluded that a heathen girl (communicates defilement) from the age of three years and one day, for inasmuch as she is then capable of the sexual act she likewise defiles by a flux.

(footnotes) "(2). Even though he suffered from no issue."

(Book) Sotah, 26b). "R. Papa said: It excludes an animal, because there is not adultery in connection with an animal (4). Raba of Parazika (5) asked R. Ashi, Whence is the statement which the Rabbis made that there is no adultery in connection with an animal?--Because it is written, Thou shalt not bring the hire of a harlot or the wages of a dog etc.; (6) and it has been taught: The hire of a dog (7) and the wages of a harlot (8) are permissible, as it is said, Even both of these (9)--the two (specified texts are abominations) but not four (10). . . As lying with mankind. (12) But, said Raba, it excludes the case where he warned her against contact of the bodies (13). Abaye said to him, That is merely an obscene act (and not adultery), and did the All-Merciful prohibit (a wife to her husband) for and obscene act?" (emphasis in original text, Ed.)

(footnotes) "(4) She would not be prohibited to her husband for such an act.

(5). Farausag near Baghdad v. BB. (Sonc. Ed.) p. 15, n. 4. He is thus distinguished from the earlier Rabbi of that name.

(6) Deut. XXIII, 19.

(7) Money given by a man to a harlot to associate with his dog. Such an association is not legal adultery.

(8) If a man had a female slave who was a harlot and he exchanged her for an animal, it could be offered.

(9) Are an abomination unto the Lord (ibid).

(10) Viz., the other two mentioned by the Rabbi.

(11) In Num. V, 13. since the law applies to a man who is incapable.

(12) Lev. XVIII, 22. The word for 'lying' is in the plural and is explained as denoting also unnatural intercourse.

(13) With the other man, although there is no actual coition." (emphasis appears in original Soncino Edition, Ed.)

(Book) Yebamoth, 55b. "Raba said; For what purpose did the All-Merciful write 'carnally' in connection with the designated bondmaid (9), a married woman (10), and a sotah (11)? This in connection with the designated bondmaid (is required) as has just been explained (12). That in connection with a married woman excludes intercourse with a relaxed membrum (13). This is a satisfactory interpretation in accordance with the view of him who maintains that if one cohabited with forbidden relatives with relaxed membrum he is exonerated (14); what, however, can be said, according to him who maintains (that for such an act one is) guilty?--The exclusion is rather that of intercourse with a dead woman (15). Since it might have been assumed that, as (a wife), even after her death, is described as his kin (16), one should be guilty for (intercourse with) her (as for that) with a married woman, hence we are taught (that one is exonerated).

(footnotes) (9) Lev. XIX, 20.

(10) Ibid. XVIII, 20.

(11) Num. V, 13.

(12) Supra 55a.

(13) Since no fertilization can possibly occur.

(14) Shebu., 18a, Sanh. 55a.

(15) Even though she dies as a married woman.

(16) In Lev. XXI, 2. where the text enumerates the dead relatives for whom a priest may defile himself. As was explained, supra 22b, his kin refers to one's wife." (emphasis in Soncino Edition original, Ed.)

(Book) Yebamoth, 103a-103b. "When the serpent copulated with Eve (14) he infused her (15) with lust. The lust of the Israelites who stood at Mount Sinai (16) came to an end, the lust of idolators who did not stand at Mount Sinai did not come to an end."

(footnotes)"(14) In the garden of Eden, according to tradition.

(15) i.e., the human species.

(16) And experienced the purifying influence of divine Revelation."

(Book) Yebamoth, 63a. "R. Eleazar further stated: What is meant by the Scriptural text, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh (5)? This teaches that Adam had intercourse with every beast and animal but found no satisfaction until he cohabited with Eve.

(footnotes)"(5) Gen.II,23. emphasis on This is now." (emphasis appears in original Soncino Edition, Ed.)

(Book) Yebamoth, 60b. "As R. Joshua b. Levi related: 'There was a certain town in the Land of Israel the legitimacy of whose inhabitants was disputed, and Rabbi sent R. Ramanos who conducted an enquiry and found it in the daughter of a proselyte who was under the age of three years and one day (14), and Rabbi declared her eligible to live with a priest (15)."

(footnotes)"(13) A proselyte under the age of three years and one day may be married by a priest.

(14) And was married to a priest.

(15) i.e., permitted to continue to live with her husband."

P(Book) Yebamoth, 59b. "R. Shimi b. Hiyya stated: A woman who had intercourse with a beast is eligible to marry a priest (4). Likewise it was taught: A woman who had intercourse with that which is no human being (5), though she is in consequence subject to the penalty of stoning (6), is nevertheless permitted to marry a priest (7).

(footnotes)"(4) Even a High Priest. The result of such intercourse being regarded as a mere wound, and the opinion that does not regard an accidentally injured hymen as a disqualification does not so regard such an intercourse either.

(5) A beast.

(6) If the offense was committed in the presence of witnesses after due warning.

(7) In the absence of witnesses and warning."

(Book) Yebamoth, 12b. "R. Bebai recited before R. Naham: Three (categories of) women may (7) use an absorbent (8) in their marital intercourse (9), a minor, a pregnant woman and a nursing woman. The minor (10) because (otherwise) she might (11) become pregnant, and as a result (11) might die. . And what is the age of such a minor? (14). From the age of eleven years and one day until the age of twelve years and one day. One who is under (15), or over this age (16) must carry on her marital intercourse in the usual manner."

(footnotes)"(7) (So Rashi.R.Tam: Should use, v.Tosaf s.v.)

(8) Hackled wool or flax.

(9) To prevent conception.

(10) May use an absorbent.

(11) Lit., 'perhaps'.

(14) Who is capable of conception but exposed thereby to the danger of death.

(15) When no conception is possible.

(16) when pregnancy involves no fatal consequences."

(Book) Yebamoth, 59b. "When R.Dimi came (8) he related; It once happened at Haitalu (9) that while a young woman was sweeping the floor (10) a village dog (11) covered her from the rear (12) and Rabbi permitted her to marry a priest. Samuel said: Even a High Priest.

(footnotes)"(8) From Palestine to Babylon.

(9) (Babylonian form for Aitulu, modern Airterun N.W. of Kadesh, v.S. Kelin, Beitrage,p.47).

(10) Lit., 'house'.

(11) Or 'big hunting dog' (Rashi), 'ferocious dog' (Jast.), 'small wild dog' (Aruk).

(12) A case of unnatural intercourse.

(Hatonn: Is any of this beginning to be a bit outlandish to any of you? Dogs? "A village 'dog' covered her from the rear.."? Is this not the most confusing bunch of nonsense you have ever seen? Does it cross anyone's mind that you might be dealing with rules set up by ones totally unfamiliar with much of anything suitable to behavior by Earth Human? Oh yes, you have bestiality but hardly anything so allowable as "trivial" in being covered from the rear by a dog--while sweeping the floor yet? Would you believe such a tale if anyone walked up to you and told you this--today? Does anyone begin to relate anything in these outlandish displays of obscenities with what you have heard of the activities of "little gray aliens"? To continue:

(Book) Kethuboth, 6b. "Said he to him: Not like those Babylonians who are not skilled in moving aside (7), but there are some who are skilled in moving aside (8). If so, why (give the reason of) 'anxious'?(10)--For one who is not skilled. (Then) let them say: One who is skilled is allowed (to perform the first intercourse on Sabbath), one who is not skilled is forbidden?--Most (people) are skilled (11). Said Raba the son of R. Hanan to Abaye: If this were so, then why (have) groomsmen (12) why (have) a sheet?(13)--He (Abaye) said to him: There (the groomsmen and the sheet are necessary) perhaps he will see and destroy (the tokens of her virginity) (14).

(footnotes)"(7) i.e., having intercourse with a virgin without causing a bleeding.

Thus no blood need come out, and 'Let his head be cut off and let him not die!' does not apply.

(9) If the bridegroom is skilled in "moving sideways".

(10) He need not be anxious about the intercourse and should not be free from reading Shema' on account of such anxiety.

(11) Therefor the principle regarding 'Let his head be cut off and let him not die!' does not, as a rule, apply.

(12) The groomsmen testify in case of need to the virginity of the bride. V. infra 12a. If the bridegroom will act in a manner that will cause no bleeding, the groomsmen will not be able to testify on the question of virginity.

(13) To provide evidence of the virginity of the bride. Cf. Deut. XXII, 17.

(14) It may happen that he will act in the normal manner and cause bleeding but he will destroy the tokens and maintain that the bride was not a virgin; for this reason the above mentioned provisions are necessary. Where however he moved aside and made a false charge as to her virginity, the bride can plead that she is still a virgin (Rashi)."

After reading these verbatim quotations from the countless other similar quotations which you will find in the official unabridged Soncino Edition of the Talmud in the English language are you of the opinion, my dear Dr. Goldstein, that the Talmud was the "sort of book" from which Jesus "drew the teachings which enable him to revolutionize the world" on "moral and religious subjects"? You have read here verbatim quotations and official footnotes on a few of the many other subjects covered by the "63 books" of the Talmud. When you read them you must be prepared for a shock. I am surprised that the United States Post Office does not bar the Talmud from the mails. I hesitated to quote them in this letter.

(Hatonn: I also hesitated to quote them herein because the next barrage of accusations and denouncing will pile upon my people--but truth is truth and if you ones will not take time to look it up for self then hope for your journey is slim indeed. I MOST CERTAINLY DO NOT EXPECT YOU TO FIND TRUTH BY SIMPLY ASKING

A NICE RABBI OR CLERGY-MAN. I would like, herein, to remind you of something regarding these Zionists; Your own Jerry Falwell stood forth as leader of your "Moral Majority" and stated before the world: "I am proud to say that I am a Zionist!" Does it mean that he KNEW all these things of heinous content? No, he is simply another of the ignorant and intentionally uninformed!)

In support of the contention by the top echelon among the outstanding authorities on this phase of the present status of the Talmud, further proof of the wide influence exerted by the Talmud upon the so-called or self-styled "Jews" is supplied by Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer's article "What is a Jew" in the June 17, 1952 issue of Look Magazine. Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer's article contains a lovely picture of a smiling man seated in a chair with a large opened book upon his lap. Seated around him on the floor are about a dozen smiling men and women. They are paying close attention to the smiling man in the chair with the opened book upon his lap. He is reading to the persons on the floor. He emphasizes what he is reading by gestures with one of his hands. Beneath this photograph of the group is the following explanation:

"ADULTS STUDY ANCIENT WRITINGS, TOO. RABBI IN THIS PICTURE, SEATED IN CHAIR, LEADS GROUP DISCUSSION OF TALMUD BEFORE EVENING PRAYER." (emphasis supplied)

This picture and explanation indicate the extent the Talmud is the daily diet of so-called or self-styled "Jews" in this day and age. The Talmud is first taught to children of so-called or self-styled "Jews" as soon as they are able to read. Just as the Talmud is the "textbook by which rabbis are trained" so is the Talmud also the textbook by which the rank-and-file of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" are "trained" to think from their earliest age. In the translation of the Talmud with its texts edited, corrected and formulated by the eminent Michael Rodkinson, Reverend Dr. Isaac M. Wise, on page XI, it states:

"THE MODERN JEW IS THE PRODUCT OF THE TALMUD". (emphasis supplied)

To the average Christian the word "Talmud" is just another word associated by them with the form of religious worship practised in their synagogues by so-called or self-styled "Jews". Many Christians have never heard of the Talmud. Very few Christians are informed on the contents of the Talmud. Some may believe the Talmud to be an integral part of the religious worship known to them as "Judaism". It suggests a sort of bible or religious text book. It is classed as a spiritual manual. But otherwise few if any Christian has an understanding of the contents of the Talmud and what it means in the daily lives of so-called or self-styled "Jews". As an illustration, my dear Dr. Goldstein, how many Christians have any conception of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer recited in synagogues on the Day of Atonement?

(Hatonn: For you readers of AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, allow me to point out that the original release of this information was titled TALMUD IMMANUEL. I think it is now evident as to WHY Sananda chose to relabel it. There is now a new copy of the book translated by Billy Meier-again called the TALMUD IMMANUEL. I suggest you be most careful in the reading thereof for it is printed solely for the monetary value and these ones who are reproducing the work have done everything they could do to STOP our publishing of the truth. "Talmud" is a perfectly good word but as is always the case with the great deceiver, you do not get goodness and light-but lies and deceit. Therefore, God will refrain from utilizing terms which will mislead you who are efforting to find Truth. A word placed so blatantly upon the cover indicates misuse of the intent if it is there to connote TRUTH!)

In Volume VIII of the Jewish Encyclopedia on page 539 found in the Library of Congress, the New York Public Library and libraries of all leading cities, will be found the official translation into English of the prayer known as the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. It is the prologue of the Day of Atonement services in the synagogues. It is recited three times by the standing congregation in concert with chanting rabbis at the altar. After the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies follow immediately. The Day of Atonement religious observances are the highest holy days of so-called or self-styled "Jews" and are celebrated as such throughout the world. The official translation into English of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer follows:

"ALL VOWS, OBLIGATIONS, OATHS, ANATHEMAS, whether called 'konam', 'konas', or by any other name, WHICH WE MAY VOW, OR SWEAR, OR PLEDGE, OR WHEREBY WE MAY BE BOUND, FROM THIS DAY OF ATONEMENT UNTO THE NEXT, (whose happy coming we await), we do repent. MAY

THEY BE DEEMED ABSOLVED, FORGIVEN, ANNULLED, AND VOID AND MADE OF NO EFFECT; THEY SHALL NOT BIND US NOR HAVE POWER OVER US. THE VOWS SHALL NOT BE RECKONED VOWS; THE OBLIGATIONS SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATORY; NOR THE OATHS BE OATHS." (emphasis supplied).

(Hatonn: Go right back now and REALLY READ THAT PRAYER FOR YOU DID NOT PICK UP THE POINT THE FIRST TIME!)

The implications, inferences and innuendoes of the "Kol Nidre (All Vows) prayer are referred to in the Talmud in the Book of Nedarim, 23a-23b as follows:

(Book) "And he who desires that NONE OF HIS VOWS MADE DURING THE YEAR SHALL BE VALID, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'EVERY VOW WHICH I MAY MAKE IN THE FUTURE SHALL BE NULL (1). (HIS VOWS ARE THEN INVALID,) PROVIDING THAT HE REMEMBERS THIS AT THE TIME OF THE VOW." (emphasis in original and supplied, Ed.)

(footnotes)"(1) This may have provided a support for the custom of reciting Kol Nidre (a formula for dispensation of vows) prior to the Evening Service of the Day of Atonement (Ran). . . Though the beginning of the year (New Year) is mentioned here, the Day of Atonement was probably chosen on account of its great solemnity. But Kol Nidre as part of the ritual IS LATER THAN THE TALMUD, and, as seen from the following statement of R. Huna b. Hinene, THE LAW OF REVOCATION IN ADVANCE WAS NOT MADE PUBLIC.

(emphasis supplied and in original text, Ed.)

The greatest study of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was made by the eminent psycho-analyst Professor Theodor Reik, the celebrated pupil of the famous Dr. Sigmund Freud. The analysis of the historic, religious and psychological background of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Professor Reik presents the Talmud in its true perspective. This important study is contained in Professor Reik's "The Ritual, Psycho-Analytical Studies". In the chapter on the Talmud, on page 168, Professor Reik states:

"THE TEXT WAS TO THE EFFECT THAT ALL OATHS WHICH BELIEVERS TAKE BETWEEN ONE DAY OF ATONEMENT AND THE NEXT DAY OF ATONEMENT ARE DECLARED INVALID." (emphasis supplied)

Before explaining to you how the present wording of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was introduced into the Day of Atonement synagogue ceremonies, my dear Dr. Goldstein, I would like to quote a passage to you from the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia. The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia confirms the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer has no spiritual value as might be believed because it is recited in synagogues on the Day of Atonement as the prologue of the religious ceremonies which follow it. The secular significance of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is indicated forcefully by the analysis in the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia. In Volume VI, on page 441, it states:

"The Kol Nidre HAS NOTHING WHATEVER TO DO WITH THE ACTUAL IDEA OF THE DAY OF ATONEMENT. . . it attained to extraordinary solemnity and popularity by reason of the fact that it was THE FIRST PRAYER RECITED ON THIS HOLIEST OF DAYS."

My dear Dr. Goldstein, prepare for the shock of your life. Compelled by what you have now read here about the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer you must be shocked to learn that many Christian churches actually "pealed their bells" on the Day of Atonement in celebration of that holy day for so-called or self-styled "Jews". How stupid can the Christian clergy get? From what I have learned after a cursory inquiry I am unable to say whether it was a case of stupidity or cupidity. With what you already know, together with what you will additionally know before you finish this letter, you will be able to judge for yourself whether it was stupidity or cupidity. There is not one single fact in this entire letter which every graduate of a theological seminary did not have the opportunity to learn.

The following news item was featured in the New York World Telegram on October 7th only a few days ago. Under a prominent headline "JEWISH HOLIDAYS TO END AT SUNDOWN" the New York World Telegram gave great prominence to the following story:

"Synagogues and temples throughout the city were crowded yesterday as the 24 hour fast began. Dr. Norman Salit, head of the Synagogue Council of America, representing the three major Jewish bodies, had called on other faiths TO JOIN THE FAST. . . Cutting across religious lines, MANY PROTESTANT CHURCHES IN THE CITY

PEALED THEIR BELLS LAST NIGHT TO SOUND THE KOL NIDRE, TRADITIONAL MELODY USED AT THE START OF YOM KIPPUR. THE GESTURE OF GOOD-WILL WAS RECOMMENDED BY THE MANHATTAN OFFICE OF THE PROTESTANT COUNCIL." (emphasis supplied)

That just about "tops" anything I have ever had come to my attention revealing the ignorance and indifference of the Christian clergy to the hazards today facing the Christian faith. From my personal contacts with the Manhattan Office of the Protestant Council in the recent past I hold out very little hope for any constructive contribution they can make to the common defense of the Christian faith against its dedicated enemies. In each instance they buckled under the "pressure" exerted upon them by the "contacts" for so-called or self-styled "Jews". If it was not so tragic it would be comic. It was a joke indeed but the joke was on the Christian clergy. Ye Gods! "Many" Christian churches "pealed their bells", as the Protestant Council reports the event, "TO SOUND THE KOL NIDRE, TRADITIONAL MELODY USED AT THE START OF YOM KIPPUR". Just where does betrayal of a trust and breach of faith begin?

The present wording of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer dates from the 11th century. A political reversal in eastern Europe compelled the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe to adopt the present wording of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. That story involves the history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe. Before relating here as briefly as possible the history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" of eastern Europe I would like to quote here another short passage from the Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume VII, on page 540, states:

"AN IMPORTANT ALTERATION IN THE WORDING of the 'Kol Nidre' was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel, WHO CHANGED THE ORIGINAL PHRASE 'FROM THE LAST DAY OF ATONEMENT TO THIS ONE' to 'FROM THIS DAY OF ATONEMENT UNTIL THE NEXT'". (emphasis supplied)

We will herein stop quoting and for that matter, stop the writing at this point for this sitting. Thank you for the long hours of service, Dharma. I ask you to be particularly attuned to my call for you are in danger and hence is why we had to disengage your prior computer. We will simply have to work our way through the next few days of bringing forth this information for as you might well note--THE EVIL BROTHERHOOD DOES NOT WANT IT BROUGHT FORTH! When human realizes how he has been duped he shall rise up and stop this madness. Ah, and may it be "in time".

Hatonn to stand-by. I shall keep the shielding in place but I must ask that you remain within my commands lest you be damaged. The Truth is going to come forth now and it has confirmation and credentials of proof--just as you were told at onset by "The Command"--"that you would be given credentials and credibility from that which is the Silver Clouds and would be forthcoming from Earth-place." And so it shall be put to print that Man may see how sadly he has been made the dupe.

Good evening. God grants his protection of his servants. Salu.

2/18/91 HATONN

TODAY'S WATCH

Briefly we will attend today's nonsense for I wish to move forward with material which may save your souls--loss of your bodies is simply "collateral damage" as I believe your military and administration refer to death of "innocent civilians".

Several points to note and then we will move on. Firstly, note the involvement of the top Russian leaders with the Iraq "set-up". Then also note the exchanges of notes between countries. Then note the "sudden" discovery of massive gold deposits in the Soviet Union--which will "save the Soviet economy". Come now, you can tell from the assay office pictures that the gold has long been known about and mined. YOUR WORLD IS BEING TOLD THAT RUSSIA IS VERY MUCH ALIVE AND WELL AND YOU HAVE BEEN DUPED INTO SENDING BILLIONS TO HER AID--BUT, THE GAME IS BEING PLAYED ACCORDING TO THE RULES OF THE ELITE. KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN!

One of the most IMPORTANT references today regarding Russia is the fact that "...the Russians are concerned about the gathering storm and anger of the 60 MILLION MOSLEMS within Russia who are on the march to uprising against the Middle East attack by the United States." It will take more than walking gently and carrying a big stick, America, when you add 60 million upset Moslems to the Millions and Millions of upset Moslems elsewhere and all the Millions of Islamics in the world. Then, you had better really watch the Chinese for--even though they claim communism as politics--they are Buddha followers for the most part and Buddha taught Christian commandments. This event is getting large indeed, and out of control, World!

You will have far more dramatics regarding the ground war or the propaganda won't be worth anything. I suggest you listen to your media "authorities" as they come forth on TV to "discuss the outlay of news". There is no earthly way you can tell a thing about the news outlay except that you CAN'T BELIEVE A WORD OF IT. The head of CNN has said that what is produced on the news is to simply get instant "coded messages" to one another and the REAL negotiations go on behind the scenes in absolute secrecy while allowing "leaks" as intended to distract. Do you know why you continue to watch the lies and believe them? Because you actually don't believe a thing anyone tells you so you select that which pleases your own opinion--no more and no less. You simply, as does the UN councils and national leaders, parrot whatever is said, even unto the same terminology as handed out in the scripting prior to any "official statements".

Next--look at your President Bush today. He is dressed in black military-appearing garb and is carrying a very big stick during his "POWER WALK" as the press called it. This follows a day in Church wherein a citizen objects to Bush's massacre and the man is hauled out by police and arrested and charged with public disturbance. The man has a child in Saudi Arabia and is against the killing of innocent citizens--AND YOU ARREST HIM! YOU ARREST THE MAN WHO BELONGS TO THE GROUP, FOR SPEAKING OUT, AND ALLOW THE ONE WHO COM-MITS GENOCIDE AND GLOBAL ANNIHILATION TO GO IN PROTECTION.

You had better further note that this "elderly man Bush" is acting in advance of an athlete in Olympic competition--he can out-jog any of his secret service men and at a "walk" can out-run all of the press. THIS IS THE STRATEGIC CLUE TO IDENTIFY A REPRODUCTION IN EFFORT TO HAVE HIM APPEAR SUPER-HUMAN. THE LIES ARE SO GREAT AND THE DECEPTIONS SO INTENSE AND SO GREAT THAT IT IS INDEED DIFFICULT TO SEE TRUTH THROUGH THE BARRAGE OF BLOODSTAINED DRAPERY.

Let us please return to the Journal in penning.

CONTINUATION OF FREEDMAN'S LETTER TO GOLDSTEIN

Yes, you will note that the names are of Judean lineage--YOU WILL ALSO NOTE THAT ALMOST ALL OF THE ONES WHO SPEAK ON YOUR TV AND IN THE PRESS ARE OF "JEWISH" LABELS. IF YOU MISS THAT POINT, THEN YOU HAVE MISSED EVERYTHING. IT WILL BE YOU OF JUDEAN ROOTS WHO WILL PUT A STOP TO THE INSANITY OF THE ZIONISTS OR YOU WILL BE TRAMPLED INTO THE EARTH BY THEIR IRON BOOTS. This is, of course, not easy for the lies have been so massive and you of the heritage of the "holy lands" have sought so long and diligently for your roots. Yes, it shall be YOU of the REAL JUDEAN ROOTS WHO WILL BRING THIS TO

A HALT OR IT SHALL NOT BE STOPPED. FOR YOU KNOW THE TRUTH OF WHAT IS BEING LAID BARE HEREIN.

QUOTING CONTINUED:

You will agree, my dear Dr. Goldstein, that Meir ben Samuel knew what he was doing. The wording of that altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer makes the recital of the prayer a release during the coming year from any obligation to respect any oath, vow or pledge made during the coming year. Like any one-year license obtained from the Federal, State or Municipal governments, the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" prayer is also a "license" for one year only. "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer extends immunity in advance for one year from all obligations to observe the terms of oaths, vows and pledges made in the year following the date of the Day of Atonement when the prayer was recited. Each year however it becomes necessary to renew this "license" which automatically revokes in advance any oath, vow or pledge made during the next twelve months, by again appearing in a synagogue on the next Day of Atonement and reciting the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer again. Do you approve of this?

The passage in the Talmud referring to "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer certifies to several serious situations. It certifies that "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was added as a prologue to the Day of Atonement religious services long after the completion of the Talmud between 500 A.D.-1000 A.D. by the statement, "as part of the ritual is later than the Talmud". It confirms that Meir ben Samuel who authored the present altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer lived in the 11th century. Furthermore, the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe believed it served their purpose better to keep secret from their Christian conquerors their attitude on oaths, vows and pledges, "the law of revocation in advance was not made public."

Without a complete and accurate knowledge of the origin and history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe, my dear Dr. Goldstein, it is quite impossible for yourself or for anybody to intelligently understand the harmful influence the Talmud has exerted for ten centuries, and the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer for seven centuries upon the course of world history. These two little known factors are the hub and the spokes of the "big wheel" rolling merrily along the road to complete world domination in the not distant future, without arousing suspicion, and wearing the innocent disguise of an alleged religious belief as their only defense mechanism. This insidious intrigue creates a most effective camouflage for the conspirators. The virility of their plot presents a problem in the defense of the political, economic, social and cultural ideologies developed under a Christian civilization.

(Hatonn: STOP--GO BACK AND READ THAT PARAGRAPH AGAIN, ALSO. THANK YOU.)

You will probably also be as astonished as the 150,000,000 Christians years ago when I electrified the nation with the first publication by me of the facts disclosed by my many years of research into the origin and the history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe. My many years of in-extensive research established beyond any question of any doubt, contrary to the generally accepted belief held by Christians, that the SO-CALLED OR SELF-STYLED "JEWS" IN EASTERN EUROPE AT ANY TIME IN THEIR HISTORY IN EASTERN EUROPE WERE NEVER THE LEGENDARY "LOST TEN TRIBES" OF BIBLE LORE. THAT HISTORIC FACT IS INCONTROVERTIBLE.

(Hatonn: Please note that the above said "lost ten tribes". This is why in referring to the Khazars (imitation Jews) we do refer to them as the Thirteenth--simply, furthermore, as designation and identification to separate them from the accepted myths. Remember, as we unfold this information, we are limited to that which is in your capability of receiving in understanding and the only means we have in printed or spoken material is through use of your own concepts and terminology. This is the mastery of the deceiver--to change meanings of terms and give you "readings" in secret authority and you know not the difference. YOU MUST LEARN THE DIFFERENCE, BROTHERS FOR YOU HAVE ALLOWED YOURSELVES TO BE VICTIMS UNTO YOUR VERY DOOM.)

Relentless research established as equally true that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe at no time in their history could be correctly regarded as the direct lineal descendants of the legendary "lost ten tribes" of Bible lore. The so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe in modern history cannot legitimately point to a single ancient ancestor who ever set even a foot on the soil of Palestine in the era of Bible history. Research also revealed that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe were never "Semites", are not "Semites" now, nor can they ever be regarded as "Semites" at any future time by any stretch of the imagination. Exhaustive research also irrevocably rejects as a fantastic fabrication the generally accepted belief by Christians that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe are the legendary "Chosen People" so very vocally publicized by the Christian clergy from their pulpits.

Maybe you can explain to me, my dear Dr. Goldstein, the reason why and just how the origin and the history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom was so well concealed from the world for so many centuries? What secret mysterious power has been able for countless generations to keep the origin and the history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom out of history text-books and out of class-room courses in history throughout the world? The origin and history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom are certainly incontestible historic facts. These incontestible historic facts also establish beyond any question of doubt the origin and history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe. The relationship to the origin and early history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe was one of history's best kept secrets until wide publicity was given in recent years on the subject. Do you not think, my dear Dr. Goldstein, that it is time the whole subject was dragged out of its hiding place?

In the year 1948 in the Pentagon in Washington I addressed a large assembly of the highest ranking officers of the United States Army principally in the G2 branch of Military Intelligence on the highly explosive geopolitical situation in eastern Europe and the Middle East. Then as now that area of the world was a potential threat to the peace of the world and to the security of this nation. I explained to them fully the origin of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom. I felt then as I feel now that without a clear and comprehensive knowledge of that subject it is not possible to understand or to evaluate properly what has been taking place in the world since 1917, the year of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia. It is the "key" to that problem.

Upon the conclusion of my talk a very alert Lieutenant Colonel present at the meeting informed me that he was the head of the history department of one of the largest and highest scholastic rated institutions of higher education in the United States. He had taught history there for 16 years. He had recently been called back to Washington for further military service. To my astonishment he informed me that he had never in all his career as a history teacher or otherwise heard the word "Khazar" before he heard me mention it there. That must give you some idea, my dear Dr. Goldstein, of how successful that mysterious secret power was with their plot to "black out" the origin and the history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom in order to conceal from the world and particularly Christians the true origin and history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe.

The Russian conquest in the 10th-13th centuries of the little-known-to-history Khazars apparently ended the existence for all time of the little-known-to-history 800,000 square mile sovereign kingdom of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe, known then as the Khazar Kingdom. Historians and theologians now agree that this political development was the reason for the "IMPORTANT CHANGE IN THE WORDING OF THE 'KOL NIDRE' by Meir ben Samuel in the 11th century, and for the policy adopted by the so-called or self-styled 'Jews' that 'THE LAW OF REVOCATION IN ADVANCE WAS NOT MADE PUBLIC'". Will you be patient with me while I review here as briefly as I can the history of that political emergence and disappearance of a nation from the pages of history?

(Hatonn: For you readers of the Journals, please do not skip over this particular segment simply because we have covered it prior to this in a couple or three of the Journals. You are so misinformed that you need to hear it again and again until it comes into your consciousness as reality. These pieces of information being brought forth now are the most important documentations ever brought unto your planet and this is only the beginning of the outlay of "how it REALLY is!" So please get the pieces in mental place so that you will be prepared for the facts yet to come forth.)

Prior to the 10th century the Khazar Kingdom had already been reduced by Russian conquests to an area of about 800,000 square miles. (See copy of map at end of document.) As you will observe on this map reproduced from the Jewish Encyclopedia the territory of the Khazar Kingdom in the 10th century was still by far the largest of any nation in Europe. The population of the Khazar Kingdom was made up for the most part of Khazars with the addition of the remnants of the populations of the 25 peaceful agricultural nations which had inhabited this approximate 1,000,000 square miles before their conquest by the invading Khazars. In the 1st century B.C. the Khazars had invaded eastern Europe from their homeland in Asia. The Khazars invaded eastern Europe via the land route between the north end of the Caspian Sea and the south end of the Ural Mountains. (see map)

The Khazars were not "Semites". They were an Asiatic Mongoloid nation. They are classified by modern anthropologists as Turco-Finn racially. From time immemorial the homeland of the Khazars was in the heart of Asia. They were a very warlike nation. The Khazars were driven out of Asia finally by the nations in Asia with whom they were continually at war. The Khazars invaded eastern Europe to escape further defeats in Asia. The very warlike Khazars did not find it difficult to subdue and conquer the 25 peaceful agricultural nations occupying approximately 1,000,000 square miles in eastern Europe. In a comparatively short period the Khazars established the largest and most powerful kingdom in Europe, and probably the wealthiest also.

The Khazars were a pagan nation when they invaded eastern Europe. Their religious worship was a mixture of phallic worship and other forms of idolatrous worship practiced in Asia by pagan nations. This form of worship continued until the 7th century. The vile forms of sexual excesses indulged in by the Khazars as their form of religious worship produced a degree of moral degeneracy the Khazar's king could not endure. In the 7th century King Bulan, ruler at that time of the Khazar Kingdom, decided to abolish the practice of phallic worship and other forms of idolatrous worship and make one of the three monotheistic religions, about which he knew very little, the new state religion. After a historic session with representatives of the three monotheistic religions King Bulan decided against Christianity and Islam and selected as the future state religion of the Khazar Kingdom the religious worship then known as "Talmudism", and now known and practiced as "Judaism". This event is well documented in history.

King Bulan and his 4000 feudal nobles were promptly converted by rabbis imported from Babylonia for the event. Phallic worship and other forms of idolatry were thereafter forbidden. The Khazar kings invited large numbers of rabbis to come and open synagogues and schools to instruct the population in the new form of religious worship. It was now the state religion. The converted Khazars were the first population of so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe. So-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe after the conversion of the Khazars are the descendants of the Khazars converted to "Talmudism", or as it is now known "Judaism", by the 7th century mass conversion of the Khazar population.

After the conversion of King Bulan none but a so-called or self-styled "Jew" could occupy the Khazar throne. The Khazar Kingdom became a virtual theocracy. The religious leaders were the civil administrators also. The religious leaders imposed the teachings of the Talmud upon the population as their guide to living. The ideologies of the Talmud became the axis of political, cultural, economic and social attitudes and activities throughout the Khazar kingdom. The Talmud provided civil and religious law.

It might be very interesting for you, my dear Dr. Goldstein, if you have the patience, to allow me to quote for you here from Volume IV, pages 1 to 5, of the Jewish Encyclopedia. The Jewish Encyclopedia refers to the Khazars as "Chazars". The two spellings are optional according to the best authorities. The two are pronounced alike. Either Khazar or "Chazar" is pronounced like the first syllable of "costume" with the word "Czar" added onto it. It is correctly pronounced "cos(tume)Czar". The Jewish Encyclopedia has five pages on the Khazars but I will skip through them:

"CHAZARS: A people of Turkish origin whose life and history are interwoven with THE VERY BEGINNINGS OF THE HISTORY OF THE JEWS OF RUSSIA. . .driven on by the nomadic tribes of the steppes and by THEIR OWN DESIRE FOR PLUNDER AND REVENGE. . .In the second half of the sixth century the Chazars moved westward. . .The kingdom of the Chazars was firmly established in MOST OF SOUTH RUSSIA LONG BEFORE THE FOUNDATION OF THE RUSSIAN MONARCHY BY THE VARANGIANS (855). . .At this time the kingdom of the Chazars moved westward. . .The kingdom of the Chazars stood at the height of its power AND WAS CONSTANTLY AT WAR. . .At the end of the eighth century. . .the chagan (king) of the Chazars and his grandees, TOGETHER WITH A LARGE NUMBER OF HIS HEATHEN PEO-PLE, EMBRACED THE JEWISH RELIGION. . .The Jewish population in the entire domain of the Chazars, in the period between the seventh and tenth centuries, MUST HAVE BEEN CONSIDERABLE. . .about the NINTH CENTURY, IT APPEARS AS IF ALL THE CHAZARS WERE JEWS AND THAT THEY HAD BEEN CONVERTED TO JUDAISM ONLY A SHORT TIME BEFORE. . .It was one of the successors of Bulan named Obadiah, who regenerated the kingdom and STRENGTHENED THE JEWISH RELIGION. He invited Jewish scholars to settle in his dominions, and founded SYNAGOGUES AND SCHOOLS. The people were instructed in the Bible, Mishnah, and the TALMUD and in the 'divine service of the haz-zanim'. . .In their writings the CHAZARS USED THE HEBREW LETTERS. . .THE CHAZAR LANGUAGES PREDOMINATED. . .Obadiah was succeeded by his son Hezekiah; the latter by his son Manasseh; Manasseh by Hanukkah, a brother of Obadiah; Hanukkah by his son Isaac; Isaac by his son Moses (or Manasseh II); the latter by his son Nisi; and Nisi by his son Aaron II. King Joseph himself was a son of Aaron, AND ASCENDED THE THRONE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE CHAZARS RELATING TO SUCCESSION. . .The king had twenty-five wives, all of royal blood, and sixty concubines, all famous beauties. Each one slept in a separate tent and was watched by a eunuch. . .THIS SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN THE BEGINNING OF THE DOWN-

FALL OF THE CHAZAR KINGDOM. . .The Russian Varangians established themselves at Kiev. . .until the final conquest of the Chazars by the Russians. . .After a hard fight the Russians conquered the Chazars. . .Four years later the Russians conquered all the Chazarian territory east of the Azov. . .Many members of the Chazarian royal family emigrated to Spain. . .Some went to Hungary, BUT THE GREAT MASS OF THE PEOPLE REMAINED IN THEIR NATIVE COUNTRY."

The greatest historian on the origin and the history of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe was Professor H. Graetz, himself a so-called or self-styled "Jew". Professor H. Graetz points out in his famous "History of the Jews" that when so-called or self-styled "Jews" in other countries hear a rumor about so-called or self-styled "Jews" in the Khazar Kingdom they believe these converted Khazars to be the "lost ten tribes". These rumors were no doubt responsible for the legend which grew up that Palestine was the "homeland" of the converted Khazars. On page 141 in his "History of the Jews" Professor H. Graetz states:

"The Chazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lewdness. . .After Obadiah came a long series of Jewish Chagans (kings), for ACCORDING TO A FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF THE STATE ONLY JEWISH RULERS WERE PERMITTED TO ASCEND THE THRONE. . .For some time THE JEWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION OF

THIS POWERFUL KINGDOM TO JUDAISM, and when at last a vague rumor to this effect reached them, THEY WERE OF THE OPINION THAT CHAZARIA WAS PEOPLED BY THE REMNANT OF THE FORMER TEN TRIBES."

When the Khazars in the 1st century B.C. invaded eastern Europe their mother-tongue was an Asiatic language, referred to in the Jewish Encyclopedia as the "Khazar languages". They were primitive Asiatic dialects without any alphabet or any written form. When King Bulan was converted in the 7th century he decreed that the Hebrew characters he saw in the Talmud and other Hebrew documents was thereupon to become the alphabet for the Khazar language. The Hebrew characters were adapted to the phonetics of the spoken Khazar language in order to provide a means for providing a written record of their speech. The adoption of the Hebrew characters had no racial, political or religious implication.

The western European uncivilized nations which had no alphabet for their spoken language adopted the alphabet of the Latin language under comparable circumstances. With the invasion of western Europe by the Romans the civilization and the culture of the Romans was introduced into these uncivilized areas. Thus the Latin alphabet was adopted for the language of the French, Spanish, English, Swedish and many other western European languages. These languages were completely foreign to each other yet they all used the same alphabet. The Romans brought their alphabet with their culture to these uncivilized nations exactly like the rabbis brought the Hebrew alphabet from Babylonia to the Khazars when they introduced writing to them in the form of the Talmud's alphabet.

Since the conquest of the Khazars by the Russians and the disappearance of the Khazar Kingdom the language of the Khazars is known as Yiddish. For about six centuries the so-called or self-styled "Jews" of eastern Europe have referred to themselves while still resident in their native eastern European countries as "Yiddish" by nationality. They identified themselves as "Yiddish" rather than as Russian, Polish, Galician, Lithuanian, Rumanian, Hungarian or by the nation of which they were citizens. They also referred to the common language they all spoke as "Yiddish" also. There are today in New York City as you know, my dear Dr. Goldstein, many "Yiddish" newspapers, "Yiddish" theatres, and many other cultural organization of so-called or self-styled "Jews" from eastern Europe which are identified publicly by the word "Yiddish" in their title.

STOP QUOTING

Dharma, allow us a rest please. We will take up with the "Yiddish" language when we return so please mark the Journal.

2/18/91 HATONN

TODAY'S WATCH

Hatonn present in the light of Holy God, in service. We shall understand frustrations and denial, chelas, for how can Man know that which has been denied his eyes and ears? Further, we shall keep the humor in all circumstance for it helps lend balance to a most unbalanced experience.

I shall respond to the young man in Saudi Arabia at a later time for I must continue with our work at hand. In all instances you ones must look at the truth of words as they come forth; i.e. "I've skimmed through your articles. . ." How can anyone come to any valid conclusions regarding anything by skimming, things totally out of context? But the great point we must have finally made is he says, ". . . and have come to the conclusion that you are from another planet." This is the first person who has acknowledged that point so vehemently. I am honored, son, since I am the Commander of a Pleiadian vessel called the PHOENIX.

My suggestion, however, is to allow that to cause you no discomfort for you will be given to KNOW quite soon now exactly how things ARE.

Now, as the young man burning the Journal Expresses to warm himself at night and complaining about using up his matches and lighters--so be it. Man burned the holy books, Newton's works and even burned up the people who brought the Truth--IT CHANGED NOT ONE IOTA OF THE TRUTH. Did the burning at the stake, Bruno, who pronounced and proved the earth was not the center of the Universe, in conjunction with Capernicus, make the Truth less valid? Did the destruction of the works and men who proved the world to be round make the world less round?

There is however, one point of troubling information in the material, the young man says he majored in Criminal Law, etc. His level of "education" however, indicates that there is even more wrong with your judicial system than even I would outline.

I am also very relieved for you nice Americans that this young man is in Saudi Arabia "defending America and all it stands for?" What does it stand for, son? Further, do you defend a group of citizens by going thousands of miles away to re-seat a monarch with 80 wives while your own home and nation sits naked to any who should wish to attack? How is it that it has come to the point where if you object to the war in principle that you "do not support the troops"! Is it not possible to support the troops and the nation and that for which it stands and still object to a distant war and murder? If I be brainwashed in this matter, I believe that I shall resort to staying cleansed for I care not for the blood of anyone upon my soul. At least fifty children under the age of five-years died in one bombing in Baghdad of a citizen shelter which is now admitted by the allies to have been non-military. Is this what you are defending? So be it for I believe this young man might well be as misinformed as the majority of all ones on your globe.

This young man also said that God should decide and is the only one who knows what is to happen in these ending days! Ah, would ye not, then, think it possible God is sending his emissaries to assist HIS wondrous people from the "damnation of Hell" where the young man has judged me to be placed--without trial even by his "criminal justice system". Let me remind you of some most important data: "For God so loved the world that He sent his Son unto you--and ye crucified Him" and when He ascended unto The Father He said He would go forth and prepare a place for YOU--and HE has done so! Perhaps ones should not burn the documents for in the ending the truth might have served better than the watching of a glowing ember or fragment of heat--but IT MOST CERTAINLY IS ONE SURE WAY NOT TO HAVE TO SEE TRUTH--JUST BURN IT! SO BE IT! My committed task it to get the truth to you--YOU MAY DO ANYTHING YOU WISH WITH IT! I remain grateful that you have been touched by the words to the extent of both-ering to respond--much the less with five pages of written material--that indicates to me that you were touched far more deeply by the "skimming" than thine words project! Life is a most wondrous gift to be not sure WHY ye lay it down! Do ye lay it down for your Mother and lover who weeps for you? Or do you lay it down for a man who takes his "POWER" walks with the big stick each morning and treats your blood as but nothing but a number in his "acceptable losses"? Ponder it, ye readers--most carefully indeed for if this madness be stopped--it shall be ye who do of it!

Now, as to my stupidity and not admitting ever being "wrong", I would suggest that I certainly am first to admit incorrect perceptions--i.e., I thought YOU, SIR were mature, educated and humanitarian enough to understand efforts of love and compassion--I am obviously "wrong" for ye have outgrown any need of further education or insight to possible misconceptions or historical information. I was not aware that the school-systems of this day so thoroughly covered historical and geographical subject materials so extensively that none need further input. Let me assure you, son, that it is the brilliant and educated man who will garner all possible information from whatever comes into his searching hands for he knows he cannot know it all--he does not burn it upon the sands of some desert of which he knew not the location prior to his participation in the "war to defend America".

QUOTING CONTINUED:

"YIDDISH"

Before it became known as the "Yiddish" language, the mother-tongue of the Khazars added many words to its limited ancient vocabulary as necessity required. These words were acquired from the languages of its neighboring nations with whom they had political, social or economic relations. Languages of all nations add to their vocabularies in the same way. The Khazars adapted words to their requirements from the German, the Slavonic and the Baltic languages. The Khazars adopted a great number of words from the German languages. The Germans had a much more advanced civilization than their Khazar neighbors and the Khazars sent their children to German schools and universities.

The "Yiddish" language is not a German dialect. Many people are led to believe so because "Yiddish" has borrowed so many words from the German language. If "Yiddish" is a German dialect acquired from the Germans then what language did the Khazars speak for the 1000 years they existed in eastern Europe before they acquired culture from the Germans? The Khazars must have spoken some language when they invaded eastern Europe. What was that language? When did they discard it? How did the entire Khazar population discard one language and adopt another all of a sudden? The idea is too absurd to discuss. "Yiddish" is the modern name for the ancient mother-tongue of the Khazars with added German, Slavonic and Baltic adopted and adapted numerous words.

"Yiddish" must not be confused with "Hebrew" because they both use the same characters as their alphabets. There is not one word of "Yiddish" in ancient "Hebrew" nor is there one word of ancient "Hebrew" in "Yiddish". As I stated before, they are as totally different as Swedish and Spanish which both likewise use the same Latin characters for their alphabets. The "Yiddish" language is the cultural common denominator for all the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in or from eastern Europe. To the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in and from eastern Europe "Yiddish" serves them like the English language serves the populations of the 48 states of the United States. Their cultural common denominator throughout the 48 states is the English language, or wherever they may emigrate and re-settle. The English language is the tie which binds them to each other. It is the same with the "Yiddish" language and so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world.

"Yiddish" serves another very useful purpose for so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world. They possess in "Yiddish" what no other national, racial or religious group can claim. Approximately 90% of the world's so-called or self-styled "Jews" living in 42 different countries of the world today are either emigrants from eastern Europe, or their parents emigrated from eastern Europe. "Yiddish" is a language common to all of them as their first or second language according to where they were born. It is an "international" language to them. Regardless of what country in the world they may settle in they will always find co-religionists who also speak "Yiddish". "Yiddish" enjoys other international advantages too obvious to describe here. "Yiddish" is the modern language of a nation which has lost its existence as a nation. "Yiddish" never had a religious implication, although using Hebrew characters for its alphabet. It must not be confused with words like "Jewish". But it is very much.

Directly north of the Khazar Kingdom at the height of its power a small Slavic state was organized in 820 A.D. on the south shore of the Gulf of Finland where it flows into the Baltic Sea. This small state was organized by a small group of Varangians from the Scandinavian peninsula on the opposite shore of the Baltic Sea. The native population of this newly formed state consisted of nomad Slavs who had made their home in this area from earliest recorded history. This infant nation was even smaller than our state of Delaware. This newly-born state however was the embryo which developed into the great Russian Empire. In less than 1000 years since 820 A.D. this synthetic nation expanded its borders by ceaseless conquests until it now includes more than 9,500,000 square miles in Europe and Asia, or more than three times the area of continental United States, and they have not stopped.

During the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th centuries the rapidly expanding Russian nation gradually swallowed up the Khazar kingdom, its neighbor directly to the south. The conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians supplies history with the explanation for the presence after the 13th century of the large number of so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Russia.

The large number of so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Russia and in eastern Europe after the destruction of the Khazar Kingdom were thereafter no longer known as Khazars but as the "Yiddish" populations of these many countries. They so refer to themselves today.

In the many wars with her neighbors in Europe after the 13th century Russia was required to cede to her victors large areas which were originally part of the Khazar Kingdom. In this manner Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary, Rumania, and Austria acquired from Russia territory originally a part of the Khazar Kingdom. Together with this territory these nations acquired a segment of the population of so-called or self-styled "Jews" descended from the Khazars who once occupied the territory. These frequent boundary changes by the nations in eastern Europe explains the presence today of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in all these countries who all trace their ancestry back to the converted Khazars. Their common language, their common culture, their common religion, and their common racial characteristics classify them all beyond any question of doubt with the Khazars who invaded eastern Europe in the 1st century B.C. and were converted to "Talmudism" in the 7th century.

(Hatonn: Interruption for comment. I am asked why these people are continually referred to by Freedman, and me for that matter, as "so-called" or "self-styled"? Because, dear ones, that is how they refer to themselves--"self-styled" for they practice none of the original Judean practices but totally follow the Talmud.)

The so-called or self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today of eastern European origin make up at least 90% of the world's total present population of so-called or self-styled "Jews". The conversion of King Bulan and the Khazar nations in the 7th century accomplished for "Talmudism", or for "Judaism" as "Talmudism" is called today, what the conversion of Constantine and the western European nations accomplished for Christianity. Christianity was a small comparatively unimportant religious belief practiced principally in the eastern Mediterranean area until the conversion to the Christian faith of the large populations of the western European pagan nations after the conversion of Constantine. "Talmudism", or "Judaism" as "Talmudism" is known today, was given its greatest stimulus in all its history with the conversion of the large pagan Khazar population in the 7th century. Without the conversion of the Khazar population it is doubtful if "Talmudism", or "Judaism" as "Talmudism" is known today, could have survived. "Talmudism", the civil and religious code of the Pharisees, most likely would have passed out of existence like the many other creeds and cults practiced by the peoples in that area before, during and after "Pharisaism" assumed its prominent position among these creeds and cults in the time of Jesus. "Talmudism", as "Pharisaism" was called later, would have disappeared with all its contemporary creeds and cults but for the conversion of the Khazars to "Talmudism" in the 7th century. At that time "Talmudism" was well on its way towards complete oblivion.

In the year 986 A.D. the ruler of Russia, Vladimir III, became a convert to the Christian faith in order to marry a Catholic Slavonic princess of a neighboring sovereign state. The marriage was otherwise impossible. Vladimir III thereupon also made his newly-acquired Christian faith the state religion of Russia replacing the pagan worship formerly practiced in Russia since it was founded in 820 A.D. Vladimir III and his successors as the rulers of Russia attempted in vain to convert his so-called or self-styled "Jews", now Russian subjects, to Russia's Christian state religion, and to adopt the customs and culture of the numerically predominant Russian Christian population. The so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Russia refused and resisted this plan vigorously. They refused to adopt the Russian alphabet in place of the Hebrew characters used in writing their "Yiddish" language. They resisted the substitution of the Russian language for "Yiddish" as their mother-tongue. They opposed every attempt to bring about the complete assimilation of the former sovereign Khazar nation into the Russian nation. They resisted with every means at their disposal. The many forms of tension which resulted produced situations described by history as "massacres", "pogroms", "persecution", discrimination, etc.

In Russia at that period in history it was the custom as in other Christian countries in Europe at that time to take an oath, vow or pledge of loyalty to the rulers, the nobles, the feudal landholders and others in the name of Jesus Christ. It was after that conquest of the Khazars by the Russians that the wording of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was altered. The new altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is referred to in the Talmud as "the law of revocation in advance". The "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was regarded as a "law".

The effect of this "LAW OF REVOCATION IN ADVANCE" obtained for all who recited it each year on the eve of the Day of Atonement divine dispensation from all obligations acquired under "oaths, vows and pledges" to be made or taken in the COMING YEAR. The recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer on the eve of the Day of Atonement released those so-called or self-styled "Jews" from any obligation under "oaths, vows or pledges" entered into during the NEXT TWELVE MONTHS. The "oaths, vows and pledges" made or taken by so-called or self-styled "Jews" were made or taken "with tongue in cheek", for twelve months.

(Hatonn: Now I am barraged with, "...well, what about the Christians--were they so perfect?" No indeed--they certainly were NOT and now have taken up the slop-over of the "Talmudic" teachings and are calling it "New Teachings for a Modern Society". However, my scribe can only type so fast and we can only do one thing at a time in your time and space limitations. Further, it does no good to say, "Go read the history books and save us this work," for you won't do so--you even "skim" that which we give you and pronounce judgment with practically no study what-so-ever. We have to take it according to the blueprint of God's sequence projections--therefore, NOW, at this sitting we are speaking of Khazar Talmudists--now calling themselves Zionists!)

The altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer created serious difficulties for the so-called or self-styled "Jews" when its wording became public property. It apparently did not remain a secret very long, although the Talmud states "the law of revocation in advance was not made public". The altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer soon became known as the "Jews Vow" and cast serious doubt upon "oaths, vows or pledges" given to Christians (or anyone else) by so-called or self-styled "Jews". Christians soon believed that "oaths, vows or pledges" were quite worthless when given by so-called or self-styled "Jews". This was the basis for so-called "dis-crimination" by governments, nobles, feudal landholders, and others who required oaths of allegiance and loyalty from those who entered their service.

An intelligent attempt was made to correct this situation by a group of German rabbis in 1844. In that year they called an international conference of rabbis in Brunswick, Germany. They attempted to have the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer completely eliminated from the Day of Atonement ceremonies, and entirely abolished from any religious service of their faith. They felt that this secular prologue to the Day of Atonement ceremonies was void of any spiritual implication and did not belong in any synagogue ritual. However the preponderant majority of the rabbis attending that conference in Brunswick came from eastern Europe. They insisted that the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer be retained exactly as it was then recited on the Day of Atonement. They demanded that it be allowed to remain as it had been recited in eastern Europe since the change by Meir ben Samuel six centuries earlier. It is today recited in exactly that form throughout the world by so-called or self-styled "Jews". Will the 150,000,000 Christians in the United States react any differently when they become more aware of its insidious implications?

How genuine can the implications, inferences and innuendoes of the so-called "brotherhood" and "interfaith" movements be under these circumstances? These so-called movements are sweeping the nation like prairie fires. If the Talmud is the axis of the political, economic, cultural and social attitudes and activities of so-called or self-styled "Jews" participating in these two so-called movements, how genuine are the "oaths, vows or pledges" taken or given in connection with these so-called movements by so-called or self-styled "Jews"? It would be a superlative gesture of "brotherhood" or of "interfaith" if the National Conference of Christians and Jews succeeded in expunging from the Talmud all anti-Christ, anti-Christian, and anti-Christianity passages. At a cost of many millions of dollars the National Conference of Christians and Jews succeeded in expunging from the New Testament passages which so-called or self-styled "Jews" regarded as offensive to their faith. A great portion of the cost was supplied by so-called or self-styled "Jews". Christians might now supply funds to expunge from the Talmud passages offensive to the Christian faith. Otherwise the so-called "brotherhood" and "interfaith" movements are merely mockeries.

END QUOTING FOR THIS SEGMENT

We would take another rest, please. I hope you can begin to understand what a tremendous wall of humanity you face when you march off on this ground war in the Middle East and if the Islamic and Moslem world rise against you. You see, what you don't understand is that the "Christ" teachings are a way of life--not A MAN. Christ is a "state of being", not a Man's name. Whether or not the practice of "religion" of the Islams and Moslems is valid or invalid makes no difference at all--you have "modernized" your "Christianity" to suit the Satanic input by "voting in" all sorts of forbidden practices against the commandments as given forth--and naming it "modernization". The old world in the Middle East has not and they will rise up against you in the perception that YOU are the anti-christ Satan. Right or wrong will cease to have any meaning as the blood begins to flow for there will be no sitting to a table to disagree and produce documents to debate the point. Those ones in the Middle East of those stoic religions, right or wrong, KNOW THAT FOR WHICH THEY STAND--HOW MANY OF YOU KNOW ABSOLUTELY THAT FOR WHICH YOU STAND AND LAY DOWN FORFEIT THE LIVES OF YOUR CHILDREN? Tell me that for which you stand and I will show you that it is not that which is taking place in Saudi Arabia this day! Salu.

2/18/91 HATONN

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

QUOTING CONTINUED:

The National Conference of Christians and Jews might look into the millions of dollars being invested today by so-called or self-styled "Jews" to insure that the Talmud shall remain the axis of political, economic, cultural and social attitudes and activities of so-called or self-styled "Jews" today, and future generations. Violating the basic principle of "brotherhood" and "Interfaith" so-called or self-styled "Jews" are spending millions of dollars each year to establish and equip quarters where the teachings of the Talmud can be indoctrinated into the minds of children from the time they are able to read and write. These few news items were selected from hundreds like them which are appearing daily in newspapers clear across the nation:

"Two new Jewish Centers, built at a cost of $300,000. will be opened to a 1000 students for daily and Sunday school activities next month, it was announced today by the Associated Talmud Torahs." (Chicago Herald-Tribune, 8/19/50.)

"The Yeshiva School Department now provides daytime an approved English-Hebrew curriculum for grades 1 to 5 (aged 5 1/2 to 10). The afternoon Talmud Torah has opened a new beginner's class and is accepting enrollment of advanced as well as beginner students." (Jewish Voice, 9/18/53)

"RABBI TO TALK ON TALMUD TO SHOLEM MEN. Dr. David Graubert presiding rabbi of Bet Din, and professor of rabbinical literature at the College of Jewish Studies, will present the first of his series of four lectures, 'The World of the Talmud'." (Chicago Tribune, 10/29/53.)

"MARYLAND GRANTS DEGREE IN TALMUD. Baltimore, (JTA). New Israel Rabbinical College has been granted here authority by the Maryland State Board of Education to issue degrees of Master of Talmudic Law and Doctor of Talmudic Law." (Jewish Voice, 1/9/53.)

"TALMUD LESSONS ON AIR FROM JERUSALEM. Weekly radio lectures on the Talmud, in English, will be available shortly on tape recordings for local stations in the United States and Canada, it was announced today." (California Jewish Voice, 1/11/52.)

Earlier in this letter, my dear Dr. Goldstein, you remember reading a quotation by the most eminent authority on the Talmud to the effect that "THE MODERN JEW IS A PRODUCT OF THE TALMUD". Would it surprise you to learn that many Christians also are the "PRODUCT OF THE TALMUD". The teachings of the Talmud are accepted by Christians in the highest echelons. I will only quote one on the subject of the Talmud, the former President of the United States. In 1951 President Truman was presented with his second set of the "63 books" of the Talmud. On the occasion of this acceptance the newspapers carried the following news item:

"Mr. Truman thanked us for the books and said that he was glad to get them as 'I have read many more of the ones presented four years ago than a lot of people think.' He said that he did read a lot and that the book he read the most is the Talmud which contains much sound reasoning and good philosophy of life."

Former President Truman says he benefits by "much sound reasoning" and his brand of "good philosophy of life" which absorbs from the "book that he reads the most." His recent term in office reflected his study of the Talmud. No one familiar with the Talmud will deny that. But does our former President Truman know that Jesus did not feel the way he feels about the Talmud? The "much sound reasoning" and the "good philosophy of life" in the Talmud were constantly and consistently denounced by Jesus in no uncertain terms. Former President Truman should refresh his memory by reading the New Testament passages where Jesus expresses Himself on the question of the Pharisees and their Talmud. Will Mr. Truman state that in his opinion the Talmud was the "sort of book" from which Jesus "drew the teachings which enabled him to revolutionize the world" on "moral and religious subjects"?

Before leaving the Talmud as my subject I would like to refer to the most authentic analysis of the Talmud which has ever been written. You should obtain a copy of it and read it. You will be amply rewarded for your trouble in finding a copy of it, I can doubly assure you. The name of the book is "The Talmud". It was written almost a century ago in French by Arsene Darmesteter. In 1897 it was translated into English by the celebrated Henrietta Szold and published by the Jewish Publication Society of America in Philadelphia. Henrietta Szold was an outstanding educator and Zionist and one of the most notable and admirable so-called or self-styled "Jews" of this century. Henrietta Szold's translation of Arsene Darmesteter's "The Talmud" is a classic. You will never understand the Talmud until you have read it. I will quote from it sparingly:

"Now Judaism finds its expression in the Talmud, which is not a remote suggestion and a faint echo thereof, but in which it has become incarnate, in which it has taken form, passing from a state of the abstraction into the domain of real things. THE STUDY OF JUDAISM IS THAT OF THE TALMUD, AS THE STUDY OF THE TALMUD IS THAT OF JUDAISM. . THEY ARE TWO INSEPARABLE THINGS, OR BETTER, THEY ARE ONE AND THE SAME. . Accordingly, the Talmud is the completest expression of religious movement, and this code of endless prescriptions and minute ceremonials represents in its perfection the total work of the religious idea. . The miracle was accomplished by a book, the Talmud. . The Talmud, in turn is composed of two distinct parts, the Mishna and the Gemara; the former the text, the latter the commentary upon the text. . By the term Mishna we designate A COLLECTION OF DECISIONS AND TRADITIONAL LAWS, EMBRACING ALL DEPARTMENTS OF LEGISLATION, CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS. . This code, which was the work of several generations of Rabbis. . Nothing, indeed can equal the importance of the Talmud, unless it be the ignorance that prevails concerning it. . This explains how it happens that a single page of the Talmud contains three or four different languages, or rather specimens of one language at three or four stages of degeneracy. . Many a Mishna of five or six lines is accompanied by fifty or sixty pages of explanation. . is Law in all its authority; it constitutes dogma and cult; it is the fundamental element of the Talmud. . The DAILY

STUDY OF THE TALMUD, WHICH AMONG JEWS BEGAN WITH THE AGE OF TEN TO END WITH LIFE ITSELF, necessarily was a severe gymnastic for the mind, thanks to which IT ACQUIRED INCOMPARABLE SUBTLETY AND ACUMEN. . SINCE IT ASPIRES TO ONE THING: TO ESTABLISH FOR JUDAISM A 'CORPUS JURIS ECCLESIASTICI'."

The above quotations were culled from a treatise intended to sugar-coat the Talmud. In painting a nice word-picture of the Talmud that author could not escape mentioning the above facts also. Coming from this source under the circumstances the facts stated above do not add glory to the Talmud.

"The Talmud Unmasked, the Secret Rabbinical Teachings Concerning Christians" was written by Rev. I. B. Pranaitis, master of Theology and Professor of the Hebrew Language at the Imperial Ecclesiastical Academy of the Roman Catholic Church in Old St. Petersburg, Russia. The Rev. Pranaitis was the greatest of the students of the Talmud. His complete command of the Hebrew language qualified him to analyze the Talmud as few men in history.

The Rev. Pranaitis scrutinized the Talmud for passages referring to Jesus, Christians and the Christian faith. These passages were translated by him into Latin. Hebrew lends itself to translation into Latin better than it does directly into English. The translation of the passages of the Talmud referring to Jesus, Christians and Christian faith were printed in Latin by the Imperial Academy of Sciences in St. Petersburg in 1893 with the Imprimatur of his Archbishop. The translation from the Latin into English was made by great Latin scholars in the United States in 1939 with funds provided by wealthy Americans for that purpose.

In order not to leave any loose ends on the subject of the Talmud's references to Jesus, to Christians and to the Christian faith I will below summarize translation into English from the Latin texts of Rev. Pranaitis' "The Talmud Unmasked, The Secret Rabbinical Teachings Concerning Christians". It would require too much space to quote these passages verbatim with their foot-notes from the Soncino Edition in English.

First I will summarize the references by Rev. Pranaitis referring to Jesus in the Talmud in the original texts translated by him into Latin, and from Latin into English:

Sanhedrin, 67a Jesus referred to as the son of Pandira, a soldier.

Kallah, 1b.(18b) Illegitimate and conceived during menstruation.

Sanhedrin, 67a. Hanged on the eve of Passover.

Toldath Jeschu. Birth related in most shameful expressions.

Abhodah Zarah, II. Referred to as the son of Pandira, a Roman soldier.

Schabbath XIV. Again referred to as the son of Pandira, the Roman.

Sanhedrin, 43a. On the eve of Passover they hanged Jesus.

Schabbath, 104b. Called a fool and no one pays attention to fools.

Toldath Jeschu. Judas and Jesus engage in quarrel with filth.

Sanhedrin, 103a. Suggested corrupts his morals and dishonors self.

Sanhedrin, 107b. Seduced, corrupted and destroyed Israel.

Zohar III, (282). Died like a beast and buried in animal's dirt heap.
Hilkoth Melakhim. Attempt to prove Christians err in worship of Jesus.
Abhodah Zarah, 21a. Reference to worship of Jesus in homes unwanted.
Orach Chaiim, 113. Avoid appearance of paying respect to Jesus.
Iore Dea, 150,2. Do not appear to pay respect to Jesus by accident.
Abhodah Zarah (6a). False teaching to worship on first day of Sabbath.

The above are a few selected from a very complicated arrangement in which many references are obscured by intricate reasoning. The following are a few summarized references to Christians and the Christian faith although not always expressed in exactly that manner. There are eleven names used in the Talmud for non-Talmud followers, by which Christians are meant. Besides Notsrim, from Jesus the Nazarene, Christians are called by all the names used in the Talmud to designate all non-"Jews": Minim, Edom, Abhodah Zarah, Akum, Obhde Elilim, Nokrim, Amme Haarets, Kuthrim, Apikorosim, and Goim. Besides supplying the names by which Christians are called in the Talmud, the passages quoted below indicate what kind of people the Talmud pictures the Christians to be, and what the Talmud says about the religious worship of the Christians.

Hilkoth Maakhaloth. Christians are idolators, must not associate.
Abhodah Zarah (22a). Do not associate with gentiles they shed blood.
Iore Dea 153,2. Must not associate with the Christians, shed blood.

Abhodah Zarah (15b). Suggest Christians have sex relations with animals.
Abhodah Zarah (22a). Suspect Christians of intercourse with animals.
Schabbath (145B). Christians unclean because they eat accordingly.
Abhodah Zarah (22a). Christians unclean because they are not at Mount Sinai.
Iore Dea (198 48). Clean female Jews contaminated meeting Christians.
Kerithuth (6b p.78). Jews called men, Christians not called men.
Makkoth (7b). Innocent of murder if intent was to kill Christian.
Orach Chaiim (225,10). Christians and animals grouped for comparisons.
Midrasch Talpioth (225). Christians created to minister to Jews always.
Orach Chaiim, 57,6a. Christians to be pitied more than sick pigs.
Zohar II (64b). Christian idolators likened to cows and asses.
Kethuboth (110b). Psalmist compares Christians to unclean beasts.
Sanhedrin (74b)Tos. Sexual intercourse of Christian like that of beast.
Kethuboth (3b). The seed of Christian is valued as seed of beast.
Kidduschim (68a). Christians like the people of an ass.
Eben Haezar (44,8). Marriages between Christians and Jews null.
Zohar (II,64b). Christian birth rate must be diminished materially.
Zohar (I,28b). Christian idolators children of Eve's serpent.
Zohar (I,131a). Idolatrous people (Christian) befoul the world.
Emek Hammelech (23d). Non-Jews' souls come from death and death's shadow.
Zohar (I,46b,47a). Souls of gentiles have unclean divine origins.

Rosch Haschanach (17a). Non-Jews souls go down to hell.
Iore Dea (337,1). Replace dead Christians like lost cow or ass.
Iebhammoth (61a). Jews called men, but not Christians called men.
Abhodah Zarah (14b)T. Forbidden to sell religious works to Christians.
Abhodah Zarah (78). Christian churches are places of idolatry.
Iore Dea (142,10). Must keep far away physically from churches.
Iore Dea (142,15). Must not listen to church music or look at idols.
Iore Dea (143,1). Must not rebuild homes destroyed near churches.
Hilkoth Abh.Zar.(10b). Jews must not resell broken chalices to Christians.
Schabbath (116a)Tos. Gospels called volumes of iniquity, heretical books.
Schabbath (116a). Talmudists agree that books of Christians be burned.
Abhodah Zarah (2a). Festivals of Christians called days of calamity.
Abhodah Zarah (78c). Christian feast days despicable, vain and evil.
Abhodah Zarah (6a). Forbidden to observe Christian Christmas Day.
Hilkoth Akum (ch.IX). Forbidden to celebrate Easter and Christmas.
Chullin (91b). Jews possess dignity even an angel cannot share.
Sanhedrin, 58b. To strike Israelite like slapping face of God.
Chagigah, 15b. A Jew considered good in spite of sins he commits.
Gittin (62a). Jew stay away from Christian homes on holidays.
Iore Dea (148,10). Jew must not return greeting Christian, do it first.

Choschen Ham. (26,1). Jew must not sue before a Christian judge or laws.

Choschen Ham. (34,19). Christian or servant cannot become witnesses.

Iore Dea (112,1). Avoid eating with Christians, breeds familiarity.

Abhodah Zarah (35b). Do not drink milk from a cow milked by Christian.

Iore Dea (178,1). Never imitate customs of Christians, even hair-combs.

Abhodah Zarah (72b). Wine touched by Christians must be thrown away.

Iore Dea (120,1). Bought-dishes from Christians must be well washed.

Abhodah Zarah (2a). For three days before Christians festivals, avoid all.

Abhodah Zarah (78c). Festivals of followers of Jesus regarded as idolatry.

Iore Dea (139,1). Avoid things used by Christians in their worship.

Abhodah Zarah (14b). Forbidden to sell Christians articles for worship Iore Dea (151,1) H. Do not sell water to Christians for baptisms.

Abhodah Zarah (2a,T). Do not trade with Christians on their feast days.

Abhodah Zarah (I,2). Now permitted to trade with Christians on such days.

Abhodah Zarah (2aT). Trade with Christians because they have money to pay.

Iore Dea (148,5). If Christian is not devout may send him gifts.

Hilkoth Akum (IX,2). Send gifts to Christians only if they are irreligious.

Iore Dea (81,7,Ha.). Christian wet-nurses to be avoided because dangerous.

Iore Dea (153,1 H). Christian nurse will lead children to heresy.

Iore Dea (155,1). Avoid Christian doctors not well known to neighbors.

Peaschim (25a). Avoid medical help from idolators, Christians meant.

Iore Dea (156,1). Avoid Christian barbers unless escorted by Jews.

Abhodah Zarah (26a). Avoid Christian midwives as dangerous when alone.

Zohar (I,25b). Those who do good to Christians never rise when dead.

Hilkoth Akum (X,6). Help needy Christians if it will promote peace.

Iore Dea (148,12H). Hide hatred for Christians at their celebrations.

Abhodah Zarah (20a). Never praise Christians lest it be believed true.

Iore Dea (151,14). Not allowed to praise Christians to add to glory.

Hilkoth Akum (V,12). Quote Scriptures to forbid mention of Christian god.

Iore Dea (146,15). Refer to Christian religious articles with contempt.

Iore Dea (147,5). Deride Christian religious articles without wishes.

Hilkoth Akum (X,5). No gifts to Christians, gifts to converts.

Iore Dea (151,11). Gifts forbidden to Christians encourages friendship.

Iore Dea (334,43). Exile for that Jew who sells farm to Christian.

Iore Dea (154,2). Forbidden to teach a trade to a Christian.

Babha Bathra (54b). Christian property belongs to first person claiming.

Choschen Ham. (183,7). Keep what Christian overpays in error.

Choschen Ham. (126,1). Jew may keep lost property of Christian found by Jew.

Babha Kama (113b). It is permitted to deceive Christians.

Choschen Ham. (183,7). Jews must divide what they over-charge Christians.

Choschen Ham. (156,5). Jews must not take Christian customers from Jews.

Iore Dea (157,2 H). May deceive Christians that believe Christian tenets.

Abhodah Zarah (54a). Usury may be practiced upon Christians or apostates.

Iore Dea (159,1). Usury permitted now for any reason to Christians.

Babha Kama (113a). Jew may lie and perjure to condemn a Christian.

Babha Kama (113b). Name of God not profaned when lying to Christians.

Kallah (1b,p.18). Jew may perjure himself with a clear conscience.

Schabbouth Hag. (6d). Jew may swear falsely by use of subterfuge wording.

Zohar (I,160a). Jews must always try to deceive Christians.

Iore Dea (158,1). Do not cure Christians unless it makes enemies.

Orach Cahim (330,2). Do not assist Christian's childbirth on Saturday.

Choschen Ham. (425,5). Unless believes in Torah do not prevent his death.

Iore Dea (158,1). Christians not enemies must not be saved either.

Hilkoth Akum (X,1). Do not save Christians in danger of death.

Choschen Ham. (388,15). Kill those who give Israelites' money to Christians.

Sanhedrin (59a). Prying into Jews' "Law" to get death penalty.

Hilkoth Akum (X,2). Baptized Jews are to be put to death.

Iore Dea (158,2) Hag. Kill renegades who turn to Christian rituals.

Choschen Ham. (425,5). Those who do not believe in Torah are to be killed.

Hilkoth tesch. III, 8. Christians and others deny the "Law" of the Torah.

Zohar (I,25a). Christians are to be destroyed as idolators.

Zohar (II,19a) Captivity of Jews ends when Christian princes die.

Zohar (I,219b). Princes of Christians are idolators, must die.

Obadiah. When Rome is destroyed Israel will be redeemed.

Abhodah Zarah (26b)T. "Even the best of the Goim should be killed".

Sepher Or Israel 177b. If Jew kills Christian commits no sin.

Ialkut Simoni (245c). Shedding blood of impious offers sacrifice to God.

Zohar (II,43a). Extermination of Christians necessary sacrifice.

Zohar (L,38b,39a). High place in heaven for those who kill idolators.

Hilkhoth Akum (X,1). Make no agreements and show no mercy to Christians.

Hilkhoth Akum (X,1). Either turn them away from their idols or kill.

Hilkhoth Akum (X,7). Allow no idolators to remain where Jews are strong.

Choschen Ham. (338,16). All contribute to expense of killing traitor.

Pesachim (49b). No need of prayers while beheading on Sabbath.

Schabbath (118a). Prayers to save from punishment of coming Messiah.

In the Library of Congress and the New York Public Library, unless recently removed, you can find a copy of "The Talmud Unmasked, The Secret Rabbinical Teachings Concerning Christians" by the Rev. I. B. Pranaitis. A copy of the original work printed in St. Petersburg, Russia in 1892 can be made available to you by our mutual friend if you are interested in reading the above passages in the original Hebrew text with their Latin translation. I trust my summaries correctly explain the original text. I believe they do. If I am in error in any way please be so kind as to let me know. It was very difficult to reduce them to short summaries.

The National Conference of Christians and Jews need not scrutinize the "63 books" of the Talmud to discover all the anti-Christ, anti-Christian, and anti-Christian faith passages in the books which are "THE LEGAL CODE WHICH FORMS THE BASIS OF JEWISH RELIGIOUS LAW" and which is "THE TEXTBOOK USED IN THE TRAINING OF RABBIS". They can also keep in mind that, as Rabbi Morris Kertzer also points out, as explained earlier, that "ADULTS STUDY ANCIENT WRITINGS TOO. .IN. .GROUP DISCUSSION OF TALMUD BEFORE EVENING PRAYER." If the National Conference of Christians and Jews are genuinely interested in "interfaith" and "brotherhood" do you not think, my dear Dr. Goldstein, that they should compel a start at once to expunge from the Talmud the anti-Christ, anti-Christian and anti-Christianity passages from the Talmud in the "brotherly" way they expunged passages from the New Testament? Will you ask them?

Throughout the world the Oxford English Dictionary is accepted as the most authoritative and authentic source for information on the origin, definition and use of words in the English language. Authorities in all fields everywhere accept the Oxford English Dictionary as the most trustworthy fountain of enlightenment on all phases of the English language. The Oxford English Dictionary brings out clearly that "Judaist" and "Judaic" are the correct forms for the improper and incorrect misused and misleading "Jew" and "Jewish". You will agree completely with the Oxford English Dictionary if you consider the matter carefully. "Judaist" and "Judaic" are correct. "Jew" and "Jewish" are incorrect. "Jew" and Jewish do not belong in the English language if the use of correct words is of interest to the English-speaking peoples.

The so-called or self-styled "Jews" cannot truthfully describe themselves as "Jews" because they are not in any sense "Judeans". They can correctly identify themselves by their religious belief if they so wish by identifying themselves as "Judaists". A "Judaist" is a person who professes so-called "Judaism" as his religious belief, according to the Oxford English Dictionary. The origin of "Jew" has not its roots in "Judaism", as explained. The adjective form of "Judaist" is "Judaic". "Jewish" as an adjective is just as incorrect as "Jew" is as a noun. "Jewish" has no reason to exist.

Well-planned and well-financed publicity by so-called or self-styled "Jews" in English-speaking countries in the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries created a wide acceptance and use for "Jewish". "Jewish" is being used today in many ways that are no less fantastic and grotesque than incorrect and inaccurate. "Jewish" is used today to describe everything from "Jewish blood", whatever that may be, to "Jewish Rye bread", strange as that may sound. The many implications, inferences and innuendoes of "Jewish" today resulting from its commercial uses beggar description.

At the 1954 annual meeting of the St. Paul Guild in the Plaza Hotel in New York City before more than 1000 Catholics, a Roman Catholic priest who was the main speaker and the guest of honor referred to "my Jewish blood". It just happens that this priest was born a so-called or self-styled "Jew" in eastern Europe and was converted to Catholicism there about 25 years ago. It seems unique that a priest who has professed Catholicism that length of time should mention "my Jewish blood" to Catholics. The radio blasts and the outdoor signs blazon "Levy's Jewish Rye Bread", in the same city at the same time. Between these two extremes are countless other products and other services which advertize themselves in print, on radio and television, as "Jewish".

This priest who talks to Catholics about "my Jewish blood" when he addresses audiences also refers to the "Jewish blood" of Mary, Holy Mother of Jesus, to the "Jewish blood" of the Apostles, and to the "Jewish blood" of the early Christians. What he means by "Jewish blood" mystifies those Catholics who hear him. They query "what is 'Jewish blood'?" They ask what happens to "Jewish blood" when so-called or self-styled "Jews" are converted to Catholicism? And in the extreme case when a so-called or self-styled "Jew" becomes a Roman Catholic priest? How is "Jewish blood" biologically different from the blood of persons who profess other religious faiths, they ask. It is hard for me to believe that there is anything biologically different which determines characteristics typical of a specific religious belief. Are the inherent racial and national characteristics determined by religious dogma or doctrine?

The word "Jewess" raises a similar question. If "Jewess" is the female for the male "Jew" I must admit that I have been unable to find female as well as male designations for persons professing any religious belief other than so-called "Judaism". Are there any other that you know? I have searched for the female of Catholicism, Protestantism, Hindu, Moslem, and others but without success. It seems very popular now to refer to Mary, Holy Mother of Jesus, as a "Jewess". It does seem unrealistic to identify the sex of members of any religious belief by appropriate designations. If the word "Jew" is regarded as descriptive of a race or a nation, as is often the case, it is equally unrealistic to indicate the sex of members of a race or a nation by a suffix used for that purpose. I know of no case in that respect except "Negress", and the Negro race strongly objects to the use of that designation, and strongly.

Another word is creating more problems among Christians. I refer to "Judeo-Christian". You see it more and more day by day. Based on our present knowledge of history, and on good sense applied to theology, the term "Judeo-Christian" presents a strange combination. Does "Judeo" refer to ancient "Pharaism", or to "Talmudism", or to so-called "Judaism"? In view of what we know today, how can there be "Judeo-Christian" anything? Based upon what is now known "Judeo-Christian" is as unrealistic as it would be to say anything is "hot-cold", or "old-young", or "heavy-light", or that a person was "healthy-sick", or "poor-rich", or "dumb-smart", or "ignorant-educated", or "happy-sad". These words are antonyms, not synonyms. "Judeo-Christian" in the light of incontestible facts are also antonyms, not synonyms as so-called or self-styled "Jews" would like Christians to believe. More sand for Christian's eyes.

An "Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies" has been established by Seton Hall University. It is actually a "one-man Institute". Father John M. Oesterreicher is the "one-man Institute". the "Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies" occupies a small office in a down-town office building in Newark, N.J. This "one-man Institute", according to their literature, has no faculty except Father Oesterreicher, and no students. Father Oesterreicher was born a so-called or self-styled "Jew" and became a convert to Catholicism. I have had the pleasure of hearing him talk on many occasions. Addresses by Father Oesterreicher and literature by mail are the principal activities of the "Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies". Father Oesterreicher also plans to publish books and circulate them throughout the world, in large quantities.

Father Oesterreicher leaves no stones unturned to convince Catholics that "Judaeo-Christian" is a combination of two words that are synonyms theologically. Nothing could be further from the truth. Father Oesterreicher impresses that viewpoint upon his Catholic audiences. Father Oesterreicher talks to Catholic audiences only, so far as I am able to tell. In his addresses Father Oesterreicher impresses upon Catholics the opinion he personally holds on the question of the dependence of the Christian faith upon so-called "Judaism". His audiences depart Father Oesterreicher's addresses very much confused.

It would make better Catholics out of Father Oesterreicher's audiences if he would "sell" Jesus and the Catholic Church rather than try to "sell" so-called "Judaism" to his audiences. Well-planned and well-financed publicity by so-called or self-styled "Jews" manages to keep Christians well informed on the subject of so-called "Judaism". If Father Oesterreicher would concentrate upon "selling" Jesus and the Christian faith to audiences of so-called or self-styled "Jews" he would be doing more towards realizing the objective of Christian effort. The activities of this "one-man Institute" are somewhat of a deep mystery. But I am certain that Monsignor McNulty will never allow the "Institute of Judaean-Christian Studies" to bring discredit upon the fine record of Seton Hall as one of the foremost Catholic universities anywhere. But it will bear watching, and Monsignor McNulty will always appreciate constructive comment.

The word "anti-Semitism" is another word which should be eliminated from the English language. "Anti-Semitism" serves only one purpose today. It is used as a "smear word". When so-called or self-styled "Jews" feel that anyone opposes any of their objectives they discredit their victim by applying the word "anti-Semitic" through all the channels they have at their command and under their control. I can speak with great authority on that subject. Because so-called or self-styled "Jews" were unable to disprove my public statements in 1946 with regard to the situation in Palestine, they spent millions of dollars to "smear" me as an "anti-Semite" hoping thereby to discredit me in the eyes of the public who were very much interested in what I had to say. Until 1946 I was a "little saint" to all so-called or self-styled "Jews". When I disagreed with them publicly on the Zionist intentions in Palestine I became suddenly "anti-Semite No. 1".

It is disgraceful to watch the Christian clergy take up the use of the word "anti-Semitism". They should know better. They know that "anti-Semitism" is a meaningless word in the sense it is used today. They know the correct word is "Judaephobe". "Anti-Semite" was developed into the "smear-word" it is today because "Semite" is associated with Jesus in the minds of Christians. Christians are accessories in the destruction of the Christian faith by tolerating the use of the smear-word "anti-Semitic" to silence by the most intolerable forms of persecution employing that smear-word Christians who oppose and oppose the evil conspirators.

END QUOTING FOR THIS SEGMENT

* * * * *

Dharma, thank you for days of very diligent work and long hours at the keyboard. We can finish this subject material in the morning for you are weary and I need to be at other tasks. There is much to be monitored on your place during these critical hours. Let us pray that sanity prevails for if we have a bit more time we can bring a lot of persons into consciousness of the plight in which they have mired themselves through the vicious intent of the few who would be Kings. Of course, the would-be Kings know it also and that is one reason for the push into all-out war so that a confrontation is precipitated before it can be averted through diplomacy. Your troops are weary and frustrated while waiting and waiting in the desert sands and endless hours. This too, has been planned to wear them down and make them ready for anything just to get it over with and hopefully, home again. It must be obvious that "Peace" will have to be insured through military force--so, who wins?

Good night and may peace go within as we move along upon this journey. Salu.

2/19/91 HATONN

TODAY'S WATCH

Let us move right on with our Journal for the best and quickest way to end this holocaust is to bring unto you ones TRUTH of who and how it is that you are in this situation. Then, if ye wish and come together again into the laws of God ye shall be delivered out of this lie. Dear ones, Satan has removed the portion of Truth from your prophecies which condemn you and you have seen it not. That is WHY no-one save the ones given to bring Truth unto you have seen it as it is--you try to decipher something as "Heavenly" from something which was written by greedy, terroristic MEN.

This is why, now, we must pull together the Truth of that which has come about in order that you can recognize of it and change of it--OR, allow it to proceed into Armageddon's final altar of death and sacrifice--UNTO SATAN--NOT UNTO GOD. The "Sacred Clown" (Heyoka-'Sioux') has had his fling upon your planet and you have all allowed him to make the fool of you. If you would but awaken and come back within the Laws of God (Wakan Tanka) and rebalance that which ye have put into disarray--ye could give your wondrous species again into lighted radiance for the generations which would follow.

Do you not see that the politicians of the Zionists are inch by inch devouring your very existence? Yes, whether or not you wish to believe of it--THIS IS THAT WHICH IS THE ANTI-CHRIST COMES TO ABSORB AND DESTROY THAT WHICH HE NO LONGER NEEDS. FURTHER, THIS IS WHY KNOWING THE TRUTH OF IT WILL SET YE FREE FOR YOU WILL DEMAND THAT THE SUBTERFUGE CEASE AND THE BEAST BE REVEALED. EVIL CANNOT STAND IN THE LIGHT OF TRUTH AND THUS, HE WOULD FALL! DO YOU NOT FURTHER SEE THAT THERE IS NOTHING 'WOWAKAN' (SUPERNATURAL) ABOUT ANY OF THIS CIRCUMSTANCE--IT HAS BEEN THE LIARS "FROM THE BEGINNING" WHO HAVE DUPED YOU INTO GIVING UNTO THEM YOUR VERY SOULS! THUSLY YOU HAVE COME INTO SATAN'S TRAP OF THE PHYSICAL DIMENSION AND HE HAS IMPRISONED YOU TO THE PHYSICAL ASPECT OF YOUR WONDROUS JOURNEY. MAY THE GREAT SPIRIT SEE FIT TO GIVE YOU INSIGHT FOR IT MUST BE OBVIOUS THIS DAY THAT YOUR NATIONS WHICH YOU CALL HOLY ARE NOT AND YOUR LEADERS ARE BUT PUPPETS OF THE MASTERS OF DECEIT AND YOU ARE THE PAWNS! SO BE IT.

Dharma, allow us to finish the letter to Dr. Goldstein for if man cannot come into knowledge of this Truth as others have efforded to give unto him--so that NOW THERE IS PROOF IN YOUR OWN DIMENSION OF ASPECT, THEN WE MUST MOVE ON AS TO THAT WHICH THE PEOPLE OF GOD CAN DO IN PREPARATION FOR THE REMNANT--MAN WILL HAVE

FREE-WILL OF ACTION UNTO THE VERY ENDING OF THIS EXPERIENCE AND THEN WILL BE DECIDED--THE FINAL ACT OF THE PLAY.

You of human self-appointed God-judges have pronounced over the sacred people of God, the ancient 'natives' of your world, that they are Pagan and you must denounce them and destroy them--WHY? Because the Anti-Christ knew that if you would come into the Truth and balance as projected by those great teachers--HE WOULD BE ANNIHILATED. So you have turned from the Red Road and unto the darkness of the lies and the liar who romps down the Black Road--doing that which is only physical in experience while the Spirit withers in its confines of non-balance and disharmony. Do not think for one moment longer that there will be a lovely RAPTURE and lift-off of a planet overfilled with humans to whisk ye of darkness and ill-intent into some cozy hogan in the sky with crystal streets and rainbow lights. THOSE ARE ASSEMBLED FOR THE PEOPLE OF GOD--"THAT" IS THE PLUM OF THE "RED ROAD OF TRUTH". YOU HAVE BEEN LIED TO AND THAT WHICH HAS BEEN WRITTEN AND VOTED INTO YOUR LAWS AND INSTRUCTION BOOKS IS EXACTLY THOSE THINGS WHICH SHALL DEPRIVE YOU OF THE WONDROUS GLORY OF THE RADIANCE OF THE SACRED PLACES. EARTH IS A PLACE OF TESTING AND EXPERIENCE IN A PHYSICAL FORM--NO MORE AND NO LESS--HAVE "YOU" PASSED THE EXAMINATION OR DO YOU FOLLOW THE EVIL LEADER WHO HAS TRICKED YOU? SO BE IT.

FREEDMAN/GOLDSTEIN-- ZIONISTS UNCOVERED

QUOTING CONTINUED:

It no doubt grieves you as much as it grieves me, my dear Dr. Goldstein, to see our nation's moral standards sink to new all-time lows day by day. Of that there is very little doubt. The moral standards of this nation in political, economic, social and spiritual fields are the factors which determine the position we will occupy in world affairs. We will be judged on that basis from afar by the other 94% of the world's total population. Our 6% of the world's total population will succeed or fail in its efforts to retain world leadership by our moral standards because in the last analysis they influence the attitudes and activities of the nation. The moral standards are the crucible in which the nation's character is refined and moulded. The end product will never be any better than the ingredients used. It is something to think about.

There is much for which this Christian country can still feel very proud. But there is also much for which we cannot feel proud. A correct diagnosis of our nation's rapidly deteriorating moral standards in all walks of life will reveal the cause as the nation's current psychosis to concentrate primarily on how to (1) "make more money" and (2) "have more fun". How many persons do you personally know who include among their daily duties service and sacrifice in the defense against its enemies of that priceless birthright which is the God-given heritage of all those blessed to be born American? What services? What sacrifices?

With very few exceptions this generation seems to regard everything as secondary to our accountability to unborn generations for our generation's breach of the faith and betrayal of our trust to posterity. The sabotage of our nation's moral standards is more incidental to the program of that inimical conspiracy than accidental in the continued march of mankind towards an easier existence. The guidance and control of this nation's place in history has gravitated by default into the hands of those persons least worthy of the trusteeship. This notable achievement by them is their reward for their success in obtaining effective and numerous Christian "male prostitutes" to "front" for them. Too many of these efficacious Christian "male prostitutes" are scattered throughout the nation in public affairs for the security of the Christian faith and the nation's political, social and economic stability.

A "male prostitute" is a male who offers the faculties of his anatomy from the neck up for hire to anyone who will pay his "asking price" exactly as the female of the same species offers the facilities of her anatomy from the neck down to anyone who will pay her "asking price". Thousands of these pseudo-Christian "male-prostitutes" circulate freely unrecognized in all walks of life proudly pandering pernicious propaganda for pecuniary profit and political power. They are the "dog in the manger". The corroding effect of their subtle intrigue is slowly but surely disintegrating the moral fibre of the nation. This danger to the Christian faith cannot be overestimated. This peril to the nation should not be underestimated. The Christian clergy must remain alerted to it.

The international "crime of crimes" of all history, that reprehensible iniquity in which this nation played the major role, was committed in Palestine almost totally as a result of the interference of the United States in the situation on behalf solely of the Zionist world-wide organization with its headquarters in New York City. The interference of the United States in that situation on behalf of the aggressors illustrates the power by the "male prostitutes" fearlessly functioning on behalf of the Zionist conspirators. It is the blackest page in our history.

The responsibility for that un-Christian, non-Christian and anti-Christian "cause" can be honestly deposited on the doorstep of the Christian clergy. They must assume the full guilt for that inhuman and unholy crime committed in the name of Christian "charity". Sunday after Sunday, year in and year out, the Christian clergy dinned into the ears of 150,000,000 Christians who go to church regularly that Christians must regard it as their "Christian duty" to support the Zionist conspiracy for the conquest of Palestine. Well, we "sowed a wind", now we will "reap a whirlwind".

The 150,000,000 Christians in the United States were "high pressured" by the Christian clergy to give their unqualified support to the Zionist program to "repatriate" to their "homeland" in Palestine the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe who were the descendants of the Khazars. Christians were exhorted by the Christian clergy to regard the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in eastern Europe as God's "chosen people" and Palestine as their "Promised Land". But they knew better all the time. It was a case of cupidity (cupidity: Eager desire for possessions especially of wealth; avarice; greed.) NOT stupidity you can be sure.

As a direct result of the activities of the "male prostitutes" on behalf of the Zionist program, and contrary to all the international law, to justice and to equity, anything to the contrary notwithstanding, the 150,000,000 Christians in the United States, with few exceptions, demanded that the Congress of the United States use the prestige and the power of this nation, diplomatic, economic and military, to guarantee the successful outcome of the Zionist program for the conquest of Palestine. This was done and the Zionists conquered Palestine. We are responsible.

It is well established and an undeniable historic fact that the active participation of the United States in the conquest of Palestine, on behalf of the Zionists, was the factor responsible for the conquest of Palestine by the Zionists. Without the active participation of the United States on behalf of the Zionists it is certain that the Zionists would never have attempted the conquest of Palestine by force of arms. Palestine today would be an independent sovereign country under a form of government established by self-determination of the lawful and legal Palestinians. This was aborted by the payment of countless millions of dollars to Christian "male prostitutes" by Zionists on a scale difficult for the uninitiated to even imagine.

With your kind permission anticipated, I beg to respectfully and sincerely now submit to you here my comments on several passages in your latest article which appeared in the September issue of the A.P.J. Bulletin under the headline "News and Views of Jews". Deep down in my heart, my dear Dr. Goldstein, I truly feel that I can make a modest contribution towards the big success I wish you in the valuable work you are attempting, under such discouraging handicaps. My reactions to what you state in your article may prove helpful to you. My comments here were conceived in that spirit. May I suggest that you favor them with your consideration accordingly. I feel that you may be so close to the "trees" that you cannot see the "forest" in its true perspective. You may find a genuinely sincere outsider's point of view helpful to you in orienting your yesterday's attitudes to today's realities and to tomorrow's seemingly certain probabilities. I believe you will.

You realize, my dear Dr. Goldstein, that all "Laws of Nature" are irrevocable. "Laws of Nature" can neither be amended, suspended or repealed regardless how we feel about them. One of these "Laws of Nature" is fundamentally the basic reason "WHY JEWS BECOME CATHOLICS", the subtitle in your article which attracted my attention. The "Law of Nature" to which I refer is the law that "TO EVERY ACTION THERE IS AN EQUAL AND OPPOSITE REACTION". In my respectful opinion that "Law of Nature" is the alpha and omega of all questions as to "WHY JEWS BECOME CATHOLICS".

In your article you make this mystery sound very complicated. However, it really is very simple. The so-called or self-styled "Jews" who become Catholics today are subconsciously reacting to that "Law of Nature". The conversion to Catholicism of so-called or self-styled "Jews" is the "EQUAL AND OPPOSITE REACTION". THEIR CONVERSION IS A "REACTION" NOT AN "ACTION". CAN YOU

ANY LONGER DOUBT THAT AFTER READING THESE FACTS?

Catholicism has proven itself spiritually the "EQUAL AND OPPOSITE REACTION" of the religious worship practised today under the name "Judaism", and prior to that name under the names "Talmudism" and "Pharisaism". What is spiritually conspicuous in Catholicism is conspicuous by its absence in so-called "Judaism". What is spiritually conspicuous in so-called "Judaism" is conspicuous by its absence in Catholicism, thank God. Anything which may be said by anyone to the contrary notwithstanding, Catholicism and so-called "Judaism" are at the opposite extremes of the spiritual spectrum.

Our subconscious mind never sleeps. It remains awake all the while the conscious mind is asleep. This subconscious mind of so-called or self-styled "Jews" is "WHY JEWS BECOME CATHOLICS". The more spiritually sensitive subconscious minds of so-called or self-styled "Jews" for 2000 years have been seeking a spiritually secure beach-head as a refuge from the terror of the Talmud. After a lifetime breathing the atmosphere of the Talmud so-called or self-styled "Jews" found Catholicism a wholesome and refreshing change of spiritual climate. They could not resist the spiritual force of the "EQUAL AND OPPOSITE REACTION" WHICH ATTRACTED THEM TO CATHOLICISM.

Catholicism supplied a sacred sanctuary for the more spiritually sensitive subconscious mind of the so-called or self-styled "Jew" seeking security in his escape from the Talmud. (Hatonn: Please understand that which is "inferred" herein regarding the Holy Catholic Church--for it was assumed that the one converting would find that which he was seeking in truth of Godness--however, what is actually found is collusion and total usurpation of the truth in favor of the same lie--the deception has been most insidious but effective indeed!) Before sailing into the safe port of Catholicism the subconscious mind of the more spiritually sensitive so-called or self-styled "Jew" is tossed like a ship in a storm which has lost its rudder. When the ship anchors safely in the port of Catholicism spiritual peace of mind is restored and the ship remains securely at anchor in that safe port. Many millions of so-called or self-styled "Jews" would embark upon that voyage of their more courageous co-religionists but for one reason. They fear reprisals by their co-religionists.

In your article you mention just a few of the many penalties imposed by reactionary so-called or self-styled "Jews" upon their co-religionists who become converts to Catholicism. Conversion to Catholicism has even deprived many former so-called or self-styled "Jews" from earning their living. Many families faced starvation for that reason. A convert to Catholicism must be ready and willing to suffer the economic, social and political hardships his former co-religionists will make him pay as the price for the spiritual wealth he will acquire with conversion to Catholicism.

Investigation by you will convince you that so-called or self-styled "Jews" never turn spiritually to Catholicism "BECAUSE SUCH WAS THE JEWISH RELIGION: BECAUSE SUCH IS THE CATHOLIC RELIGION", as you state in your article. A so-called or self-styled "Jew" might question the wisdom of conversion from the Original to a copy of the original. Inasmuch as so-called "Judaism" is a modern name for "Talmudism", and "Talmudism is a name given to the ancient practise of "Pharisaism", how can you reconcile what you state that ". . . SUCH WAS THE JEWISH RELIGION. . . SUCH IS THE CATHOLIC RELIGION".

Several so-called or self-styled "Jews" who were recently converted to Catholicism are my personal friends. Not one of those whom I have asked became a Catholic because they felt "THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IS THE JEWISH CHURCH GLORIFIED", as you state in your article. What "JEWISH CHURCH" they ask me? I am unable to answer. What "JEWISH CHURCH" I ask you? "Pharisaism"? "Talmudism"? Surely you would not venture the opinion that the Catholic Church is "Pharisaism" or "Talmudism" now "GLORIFIED" as Catholicism, would you?

It must be quite apparent to you now that so-called or self-styled "Jews" who become converts to Catholicism do not believe that the Catholic Church, as you state in your article, "IS THE CHURCH OF JEWISH CONVERTS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS". They do not regard Jesus as a "CONVERT" to the Catholic Church. You include Jesus with others you describe as "JEWISH CONVERTS" to the Catholic Church, in your article. In your article you state, "FIRST CAME CHRIST, THE JEW OF JEWS". I never heard that designation before. Is it original? Nor will converted so-called or self-styled "Jews" concur at all with "THEN CAME THE APOSTLES, ALL JEWS", as you also state in your article. There is unquestionably too big an area of disagreement here to disregard the views of those who have become converts to Catholicism. Nor can these converts to Catholicism be made to believe as truth "THEN CAME THE THOUSANDS OF THE FIRST MEMBERS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, WHO WERE JEWS", as you state in your article under discussion here.

My dear Dr. Goldstein, as a former so-called or self-styled "Jew" for almost half your life, when you became a convert to Catholicism did you do so for the reasons you state in your article "WHY JEWS BECOME CATHOLICS"? That would be difficult for me to believe in spite of the further statement you make in your article "IN FACT THERE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN A CATHOLIC CHURCH WERE IT NOT FOR THE JEWS". That statement appears incredible in view of incontestible facts, but these facts may not have been available to you when you made it.

(Hatonn: I believe the facts are quite obvious, in this instance, wherein you have a man who has risen to position of influencing the masses of people through a controlled media and he is simply a tool of the Zionist Elite who said: "A FIFTEENTH CENTURY 'PROTOCOL': (No. 4.) As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: MAKE YOUR SONS CANONS AND CLERICS IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY DESTROY THEIR CHURCHES." You who continue to be deceived with the facts before thine eyes shall reap the like rewards of thine ignorance by remaining in the trap whilst the master-deceivers pull you all the way into the PIT!)

If so-called or self-styled "Jews" believed what you state in your article they would undoubtedly prefer to stay put spiritually in their "JEWISH CHURCH", by which you mean no doubt so-called "Judaism". They would query why Catholics expected them to leave their "JEWISH CHURCH" to enter the Catholic Church (or any other 'church'). It might appear more logical to expect Catholics to return to the original of the Catholic Church, the "JEWISH CHURCH", or so-called "Judaism". On the basis of what you state, that would not be inconsistent.

You take away my breath when you further state, "CATHOLICISM WOULD NOT EXIST WERE IT NOT FOR JUDAISM". That leaves very little for me to say after writing these 62 pages of facts and comments. In a certain sense there is certain sense to what you state if you feel that the existence of so-called "Judaism", in the time of Jesus and since then, created the necessity for the existence of Catholicism. But in no sense can the Catholic Church be adjudicated the projection of "Pharisaism", "Talmudism", or so-called "Judaism".

We should get together in person to go into this matter more fully. I hope you will extend that privilege to me in the not too distant future. In closing this letter I sincerely request that you bear in mind while reading this letter Galatians, 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" And to this I add, "I hope not". I hope that we shall continue to be the very best of friends. If the Christian faith is to be rescued from its dedicated enemies we must all join hands and form a "human life-line". We must pull together, not in different direction. We must "bury the hatchet" but not in each others heads.

Looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the delight of a meeting with you in person whenever you find it convenient and agreeable for yourself, and awaiting your early reply for which I take this opportunity to thank you in advance, and with best wishes for your continued good health and success, please believe me to be,

Most respectfully and very sincerely,
Benjamin H. Freedman.

END OF QUOTING

I believe I will just leave you with this to ponder at this point.

Try on for size, the moccasins that fit. The Christian Church in its lies unto the Native Americans in practice of that Christ projected action in every facet of the lie has driven thousands into confusion and ridicule of that very thing you attempted to bring unto them---or did you? It is fact and TRUTH from onset that your antecedents intended to defraud them and "save them" from that which was balanced and harmonious within the Truth of God and Planet and mold them into your own sickness. You have a long way to go, those of you who CALL yourselves "CHRISTIANS", for it is long since you acted as "CHRISTED" beings. Ponder it for the time of confrontation is upon you and the choosing and sorting is under way--NOW!

In deference to you ones who will pick this material to pieces with toothpicks and magnifying glasses--ah, would that all of you would make such effort to find the proof and confirmation--please realize that we have utilized another's material and I give great honor and would not change it. I will make comments and if a thing be in gross error I will most surely change of it--otherwise, it is given that you might SEE THE TRUTH AS PRESENTED IN YOUR DIMENSION BY YOUR OWN HISTORIANS.

I speak of this for already a studied reader has pointed out that one mentioned herein, Josephus, was stated as being from the "first century". Well I know not how else you would effectively represent the century for the man lived approximately from 37-100 "A.D.". That is certainly within the first century but not specifically the "first century" according to your ridiculous counting. For you who are curious now, about Josephus: He was a "Jewish" (you see, it has seeped into everything of documentation as the updating takes place) soldier, statesman, and historian. This from the Reader's Digest GREAT ENCYCLOPEDIA DICTIONARY, 1971.

"Oh", you might say, "THEY don't make errors in the encyclopaedias". OH, DON'T THEY? I would answer you:--just read the letter I will reproduce herein:

QUOTE:

EMBASSY OF GREECE
PRESS AND INFORMATION OFFICE
2211 Massachusetts Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

December 22, 1989

The Editor
The New Webster's Comprehensive Dictionary
Lexicon Publication, Inc.
95 Madison Avenue, Suite 603

New York, N.Y. 10016

Dear Editor,

We would like to draw your attention to some serious errors in or omissions from the entry concerning Greece of your 1989 edition (page 420).

a) Greece is not a kingdom but a Presidential Parliamentary Republic. The monarchy was abolished 15 years ago, in Dec. 74, by a referendum in which the Greek people voted 69.2% in favor of a Presidential Republic.

b) There are not ethnic Turks or other ethnic minorities in Greece, but only a Moslem minority of 120,000 people (about 1% of the population).

c) Greece did not "absorb Turkish territories" after the War of Independence in the 1820's but liberated Greek territories under Ottoman rule. The contemporary Greek State was formed through the liberation of territories which have been Greek since ancient times and which were under Ottoman occupation for four centuries.

d) The Greek Orthodox religion is practiced by 98% of the population.

e) Besides Athens and Thessaloniki, universities exist in seven other areas of Greece, including the universities of Patras, Crete, Ioannina, Thrace, Thessaly, the Aegean (islands) and the Ionian (islands).

f) Greece has been a member of the European Community since 1981.

Enclosed please find information on the June and November 1989 elections, both of which produced coalition governments.

We hope that you will make the necessary corrections in the new edition of your authoritative dictionary.

Sincerely,

Achilles Paparsenos
Press Attache

Telephone: (202) 332-2727
Telefax: (202) 265-4931
Telex: 440662GRIN

* * * * *

RESPONSE:

GROLIER INCORPORATED
Sherman Turnpike,
Danbury, Connecticut 06816

February 7, 1990

Mr. Achilles Paparsenos
Embassy of Greece
Press and Information Office
2211 Massachusetts Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20008

Dear Mr. Paparsenos:

Thank you for your letter of December 22, about errors in the article GREECE in the New Webster's Comprehensive Dictionary, which was published by one of our subsidiaries. I am especially grateful for the information you enclosed.

We will make corrections in the article in our next printing. We regret the errors and are grateful that you (and others) have brought them to our attention.

Sincerely,

Lawrence T. Lorimer
Vice President
Editorial Director

* * * * *

And thus is history so easily changed and allowed to change if ONES LIKE YOU DO NOT SPEAK OUT AND DEMAND TRUTH! YOUR HOLY BOOKS AND TEACHINGS HAVE BEEN THE MOST TAMPERED-WITH DOCUMENTS ON THE FACE OF YOUR EARTH--TO SUIT THE NEEDS AND SERVE AS TOOLS TO DEFRAUD A CIVILIZATION AND SPECIES--AND YOU HAVE CONTINUED TO SLEEP AND DO NOTHING TO SET IT TO RIGHT. WAKE UP WORLD--THE ANTI-CHRIST WHO WILL BRING DOWN YOUR ENTIRE PLANET IS ALIVE AND WELL AND THRIVING ON YOUR BLOOD!

Enough, Dharma, close for this day. Thank you for your service and we shall resume with this subject matter when we continue. We will next give you contents of a document entitled: AMERICAN FREEDOM & ZIONIST POWER, Pitman Buck, Jr. ("United States Constitution BILL OF RIGHTS: Article 1: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion....") A short quote, now, for introduction.

"THE PERVASIVE INFLUENCE of "Jewish" (there it is again--as casually as other errors become "fact") power upon American domestic and foreign policies is an issue that cries out for public discussion. It should be of concern to every American as to how an ethnocentric, religious group which comprises less than three percent of the population has become a (the) leading factor in American politics. Yet, ironically, in America where free speech and press are constitutionally guaranteed, the subject has been almost completely ignored except in either extremely racist circles or in selected "Jewish" publications aimed at sympathetic readership." "Jewish" meaning, of course, "Zionist". We will take up at this point when next we sit to print.

Hatonn, Gyeorgos Ceres Commander
United Federation Fleet
Inter-Galactic Federation Command

Saalome' and good day.

The Highest Commandment

The highest command of the Law of The Creation is: Achieve the wisdom of knowledge inasmuch as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of The Creation.

The highest command of the Law of God is: You shall honor God as the ruler of the human races and follow his Laws for He is the "King of Wisdom", i.e.:

1. You shall have no other Gods than the God Creator before you and abide with the Laws of The Creation which encompasses all.
2. You shall not make for yourselves idols and false images to worship as Gods for therein you give power into the hands of evil.
3. You shall love the Lord God with all your heart, soul and being - (you must love thine-self as God - and God as self).
4. You shall not use the name of God irreverently, nor use of it to swear to a falsehood.
5. Remember God's "Day" and keep it Holy.
6. Honor your parents.
7. You shall not murder your fellow man.
8. You must not commit adultery.
9. You must not steal (materially or emotionally).
10. You must not covet or envy that which belongs to your neighbor.

America West Publishers

Post Office Box 986
Tehachapi, CA 93581
(805) 822-9655
FAX 822-9658

February 26, 1991

Dear Friends,

Commander Hatonn has given these documents in a series of double-Expresses, which we have elected to publish as an Extra. The Commander has referred to this as some of the most important information of our time..

We, and the staff at America West, would like to give this to you as a bonus gift to be shared with your friends and contacts. It is incredible!

We wish to express to you all our sincerest appreciation and thank you for your continued support. May God bless you and keep you in His light. And the Word shall go forth.

Warmest regards,

George and Desiree' Green

P.S.

If you would like to secure additional copies of this document, they will be made available at a cost of $3.00 each, postpaid. In quantities of 10 or more the cost will be $2.50 each, postpaid.

"The Truth Will Set You Free"