Eric Phelps On Jesuit Behind-The-Scenes Involvement In Attacks, p.36

Explosives Planted In Towers, New Mexico Tech Expert Says, p.38

Fire, Not Extra Explosives, Doomed Buildings, Expert Says, p.38

The Split-Second Error: Exposing The WTC Bomb Plot, by Fintan Dunne, p.39

White Knights, Black Ops, And A New Money System, by "Dove Of Oneness", p.42

Revealing Interviews With Al Bielek: Truth Stranger Than Fiction, p.45

Swiss Political Assassinations Meant To Deter NESARA, by "Dove Of Oneness", p.53

Self-Inflicted: "Terrorist" Attack On WTC & Pentagon, by Anita E. Belle, Attorney, p.55

Why Government Has Repeatedly Created War, by Christopher Ruby, p.57

Mark Twain's The War Prayer, p.60

Boy In Dallas Suburb Predicts Start Of WW-III Day Before Attacks, p.61

airplanes that crashed were hijacked as part of a terrorist attack.

2:30 p.m.: The FAA announces there will be no U.S. commercial air traffic until noon EDT Wednesday at the earliest.

2:49 p.m.: At a news conference, Mayor Giuliani says that subway and bus service are partially restored in New York City. Asked about the number of people killed, Giuliani says "I don't think we want to speculate about that—more than any of us can bear."

3:55 p.m.: Karen Hughes, a White House counselor, says the president is at an undisclosed location, later revealed to be Offutt Air Force Base in Nebraska, and is conducting a National Security Council meeting by phone. Vice President Dick Cheney and National Security Adviser Condoleezza Rice are in a secure facility at the White House. Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld is at the Pentagon.

3:55 p.m.: Giuliani now says the number of critically injured in New York City is up to 200 with 2,100 total injuries reported.

4 p.m.: CNN National Security Correspondent David Ensor reports that U.S. officials say there are "good indications" that Saudi militant Osama bin Laden, suspected of coordinating the bombings of two U.S. embassies in 1998, is involved in the attacks, based on "new and specific" information developed since the attacks.

4:06 p.m.: California Gov. Gray Davis dispatches urban search-and-rescue teams to New York.

4:10 p.m.: Building 7 of the World Trade Center complex is reported on fire.

4:20 p.m.: U.S. Sen. Bob Graham, D-FL, chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, says he was "not surprised there was an attack (but) was surprised at the specificity". He says he was "shocked at what actually happened—the extent of it."

4:25 p.m.: The American Stock Exchange, the Nasdaq and the New York Stock Exchange say they will remain closed Wednesday.

4:30 p.m.: The president leaves Offutt Air Force Base in Nebraska aboard Air Force One to return to Washington.

5:15 p.m.: CNN Military Affairs Correspondent Jamie McIntyre reports fires are still burning in part of the Pentagon. No death figures have been released yet.

5:20 p.m.: The 47-story Building 7 of the World Trade Center complex collapses. The evacuated building is damaged when the twin towers across the street collapse earlier in the day. Other nearby buildings in the area remain ablaze.

5:30 p.m.: CNN Senior White House Correspondent John King reports that U.S. officials say the plane that crashed in Pennsylvania could have been headed for one of three possible targets: Camp David, the White House, or the U.S. Capitol building.

6 p.m.: Explosions are heard in Kabul,

Afghanistan, hours after terrorist attacks targeted financial and military centers in the United States. The attacks occurred at 2:30 a.m. local time. Afghanistan is believed to be where bin Laden, who U.S. officials say is possibly behind Tuesday's deadly attacks, is located. U.S. officials say later that the United States had no involvement in the incident whatsoever. The attack is credited to the Northern Alliance, a group fighting the Taliban in the country's ongoing civil war.

6:10 p.m.: Giuliani urges New Yorkers to stay home Wednesday if they can.

6:40 p.m.: Rumsfeld, the U.S. defense secretary, holds a news conference in the Pentagon, noting the building is operational. "It will be in business tomorrow" he says.

6:54 p.m.: Bush arrives back at the White House aboard Marine One and is scheduled to address the nation at 8:30 p.m. The president earlier landed at Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland with a three-fighter jet escort. CNN's King reports Laura Bush arrived earlier by motorcade from a "secure location".

7:17 p.m.: U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft says the FBI is setting up a www.ifccfbi.gov website for tips on the attacks. He also says family and friends of possible victims can leave contact information at 800-331-0075.

7:02 p.m.: CNN's Paula Zahn reports the Marriott Hotel near the World Trade Center is on the verge of collapse and says some New York bridges are now open to outbound traffic.

7:45 p.m.: The New York Police Department says that at least 78 officers are missing. The city also says that as many as half of the first 400 firefighters on the scene were killed.

8:30 p.m.: President Bush addresses the nation, saying "thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil" and asks for prayers for the families and friends of Tuesday's victims. "These acts shattered steel, but they cannot dent the steel of American resolve" he says. The president says the U.S. government will make no distinction between the terrorists who committed the acts and those who harbor them. He adds that government offices in Washington are reopening for essential personnel Tuesday night and for all workers Wednesday.

9:22 p.m.: CNN's McIntyre reports the fire at the Pentagon is still burning and is considered contained but not under control.

9:57 p.m.: Giuliani says New York City schools will be closed Wednesday and no more volunteers are needed for Tuesday evening's rescue efforts. He says there is hope that there are still people alive in the rubble. He also says that power is out on the west side of Manhattan and that health department tests show there are no airborne chemical agents about which to worry.

10:49 p.m.: CNN Congressional Correspondent Jonathan Karl reports that Attorney General Ashcroft told members of Congress that there were three to five hijackers on each plane armed only with knives.

10:56 p.m.: CNN's Zahn reports that New York City police believe there are people alive in buildings near the World Trade Center.

11:54 p.m.: CNN Washington Bureau Chief Frank Sesno reports that a government official told him there was an open microphone on one of the hijacked planes and that sounds of discussion and "duress" were heard. Sesno also reports a source says law enforcement has "credible" information and leads, and is confident about the investigation.

With that official chronology established, let us now launch into a number of issues that have not been part of the official news reports.

Some of the sources we present are familiar to you longtime readers; they are friends of The SPECTRUM and admired for their earned credibility and dedication to Truth at high cost. Others are articulate, if previously unknown, sources who reflect ideas shared by many and are deserving of our consideration.

Sometimes just a question carries a powerful message, like: "Are Americans in a coma?"

Sometimes an obvious clue is deciphered in such a way that it strikes you between the eyes, like: 9/11/2001 => 911/2/001 meaning "911 to 001" where 911 means a serious emergency and 001 is the area code for the United States.

Sometimes speculation is charged with so much wisdom that it begs a pause for serious consideration, like: "What if Osama bin Laden decided to come forth and tell the truth about what he knows?" THAT would surely send certain elements of our government into a nervous meltdown; they have so much to hide!

Sometimes a well-worn old phrase comes back around to life again, like: "In any war, the first casualty is always the truth."

The surprise is that A LOT of people ARE seeing through the façade of lies—despite what we are being brainwashed with, by the media "experts" and those ever present "polls". And that is bound to worry those who have created this deception, cause them to operate more desperately and dangerously, but perhaps also make them "slip-up" in pushing their Perfect Plan. Much is yet to unfold and it is imperative we keep our eyes open and our wits about us.

This was a formidable outlay to put together amidst so much purposeful disinformation and lunatic fluff swirling around the information conduits. Please pause at times as you read what follows and ask yourself where YOU would go for such information—some of it absolutely unique—if it were not for this publication, The SPECTRUM.

So I have to put a small commercial in here: We are, first and foremost, grateful for those of you who appreciate what we are about to a level of supporting us through your subscriptions. That's a basic, heartfelt vote of confidence in what we do. But beyond that, we are DEEPLY thankful to those of you who demonstrate your concern for keeping Truth alive through donations, which literally keep The SPECTRUM afloat. We remain in massive debt, knowing not if we shall remain alive for another month of operation. We have not the funds, right now, to pay last month's printing and first-class postage bills. What do you think will be these costs for this 68-page paper? Where will the money come from to pay for The Truth you now hold in your hands? Remember that subscription revenues cover only a small fraction of our actual costs. It's not a very pleasant way to have to operate!

* * *

Now, with that said, we begin our March of Truth with a longtime friend of (and contributor to) The SPECTRUM—world renowned author and lecturer David Icke, who just last month was “coincidentally” the subject of our latest front-page feature about the hidden crooks in high places. David's essay is definitely a view from the Big Picture perspective. And that is surely the place to start, so as to not lose a sense of the overall forest as we later proceed down the road and examine a lot of trees within that forest.

Alice In Wonderland And The WTC Disaster

9/13/01 DAVID ICKE

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR THE FORCE BEHIND THE U.S. ATROCITIES, JUST ASK: WHO BENEFITS?

“Nothing would be what it is,
Because everything would be what it isn't.
And contrarywise: what it is, it wouldn't be.
And what it wouldn't be, it would.
You see?”

— Alice's Adventures In Wonderland, 1865, by Lewis Carroll, English writer and mathematician.

The force that seeks to control this world and introduce its global fascist state, the network I call the Illuminati, is nothing if not predictable.

The unbelievable horror perpetrated on the cities of New York and Washington is a problem-reaction-solution sting on the collective mind of all humanity, and I have been expecting an event of this magnitude for some years. I thought it could be a war or a nuclear “terrorist” device, but something fantastic was always going to happen during the years of the Bush presidency when, as I wrote on Inauguration Day, the agenda would be pressed forward with a gathering pace.

Fast as the world was being moved towards global centralised fascism, it was still not fast enough to match the timescale demanded by the Illuminati agenda. And the opposition to their globalisation plans and their assaults on freedom was gathering by the day.

It was clear that something of enormous magnitude was being orchestrated that would so devastate the collective human mind with fear, horror, and insecurity, that “solutions” could be offered that would advance the agenda in a colossal leap, almost overnight. This is what we saw in America on the ritually-significant eleventh day of the ninth month; 911 is the number for emergencies in the United States. Ritual and esoteric codes are at the heart of everything the Illuminati undertakes.

And, mind-numbing as these atrocities are, this is the start—not the end—of the next cycle of the Illuminati agenda for the mental, emotional, spiritual, and physical imprisonment of humankind. More and more death and destruction will unfold as the “free world” unites (in effect) as a world army and world government, to use the threat of “terrorism” (their own) to justify a war against the people and countries they choose to take the rap for what the very forces WITHIN the “free world” are themselves responsible for.

Even war with the Islamic peoples is not the end, but the means to an end—a conflict with the remaining forces of communism, which they also control. Remember that the Illuminati operate through every country and within “terrorist” organisations and those agencies which “oppose” such terrorism. Only by having agents within all “sides” can they be sure of controlling the game and knowing the outcome before it starts.

The Illuminati have operatives within the Islamic world, just as they have them in the so-called “free world”, as we shall see in the months to come. Saddam Hussein is every bit as much a knowing Illuminati pawn as Father George and Boy George Bush in America, for example (see my book And The Truth Shall Set You Free).

The predictability of the ritualistic, emotionless, reptilian mind can be seen in the news management that has followed this U.S. disaster. Look at what always happens in these circumstances and you will see that the blueprint is the same in almost every case:

Before the event happens, the fall-guy or “patsy” is already set up to take the blame, thus steering the public mind away from dangerous speculation and onto a pre-ordained target. After the Kennedy assassination it was Lee Harvey Oswald; after Oklahoma it was Timothy McVeigh; now it is Osama bin Laden.

Bin Laden, deeply misguided as he may be, is no more responsible for what happened this week than I am. His name was introduced, with the most obvious co-ordination immediately after the disaster unfolded, in the same way that the background to Lee Harvey Oswald was being circulated BEFORE President Kennedy was even dead.

The idea that this guy from the mountains of Afghanistan, with far more mouth than substance, could be the “Mr. Big” of this enormous operation is utterly insulting to anyone of even basic intelligence. (See the article by journalist Robert Fisk, who has met him.)

We are not talking a parcel bomb here, nor even some mind-controlled fanatic driving a car bomb into a restaurant in Jerusalem. Four

...and the truth shall set you free

David Icke exposes the real story behind global events which shape the future of human existence and the world we leave our children. Fearlessly, he lifts the veil on an astonishing web of interconnected manipulation to reveal that the same few people, secret societies, and organizations control the daily direction of our lives. They engineer the wars, violent revolutions, terrorist outrages, and political assassinations; they control the world market in hard drugs and the media indoctrination machine. Every global negative event of the 20th Century, and earlier, can be traced back to the same Global Elite, and some of the names involved are very well known. Never before has this web, its personnel, and methods been revealed in such a detailed and devastating fashion.

If you don't want your view of life to be transformed, then steer clear of this book.

Icke reveals the esoteric background to the global conspiracy and offers an inspiring spiritual solution in which every man, woman, and child on planet Earth breaks free from the daily programming—the “coup d'état on the human mind”—and takes back their infinite power to think for themselves and decide their own destiny. His words are designed to inspire all of us to be who we really are, to fling open the door of the mental prison we build for ourselves, and to walk into the light of freedom.

Know the TRUTH—
and the TRUTH shall set you FREE!

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

commercial airliners had to be simultaneously hijacked in American air space via American airports and flown into highly specific targets within 45 minutes of each other.

How was this possible? Because it was an inside job, that's how, orchestrated by forces WITHIN the United States, and planned by the highest levels of U.S. "Intelligence" in co-ordination with other strands of the Illuminati spider's web worldwide.

With an army now of mind-controlled assets at their disposal, it is possible to get them to do anything they require once the mind is programmed and the trigger given to activate them. Those responsible for hijacking those planes and flying them into buildings will, in their conscious mind, have believed in the "cause" they were programmed to believe in. But in truth they were not hijacking and flying those planes—their programming was. Mind control is now so sophisticated that such programming is almost child's play.

This terror was not a failure of U.S. Intelligence, for God's sake! They were not supposed to uncover the plot, and getting weapons onto planes is so much easier if you have support from those who control the system.

I have heard that this is another "Pearl Harbor"—and yes, it is. You can read in my book And The Truth Shall Set You Free and other books and studies how the American government knew the Japanese were going to attack Pearl Harbor, but they did nothing about it. Why?

Because they wanted it to happen for a specific reason: to justify the U.S. entry into the Second World War, which President Roosevelt (a blood relative of the Bushes) had said, just to get elected, America would not be involved in.

Problem-reaction-solution. And it's the same with the terrible events of this week.

In the immediate aftermath of the attacks, the "pin it on bin Laden" campaign was launched as per pre-arranged plan. The Republican Senator and Illuminati stooge, Orrin Hatch, for example, told CNN that he had high-level information from the FBI that bin Laden was behind the unprecedented attacks. "I do have some information" Hatch said in reference to his FBI briefing. "They've come to the conclusion that this looks like it may be the signature of Osama bin Laden, that he may be the one behind this." It's OK. Don't go on, Orrin; we get the message and you have done your job.

Then we had the story of the hire car found so conveniently at Boston airport, where two planes were hijacked, which contained—yes, wait for it—a copy of the Koran and an instruction video for how to fly commercial jets!!! Am I in fairyland or what? I am surprised they did not claim to have discovered a letter from bin Laden in the car, wishing the occupants the best of luck with their task. Maybe they plan to "find" that tomorrow, eh?

It's unbelievable nonsense. Of course it is, but most will believe it. And you will see more and more manufactured "evidence" of the "bin Laden connection" systematically revealed in the days and weeks ahead.

So, the question: Who benefits?

Well, the Illuminati want a world government and army, a world currency and centralised global financial dictatorship and control. They want micro-chipped people and a society based on constant surveillance of all kinds at all times. And they want a frightened, docile, subservient people who give their power away to the "authorities" who can save them from what they have been manipulated to fear.

Funnily enough, the question "Who benefits from these horrific events in America?" can be answered very simply: Anyone who wants to introduce the above.

The disaster of 9/11/01 means that:

The Illuminati now have the excuse to retaliate against anyone their propaganda machine can manipulate the population to believe was to blame. Attacks against Islamic targets have the potential to be the trigger for massive conflict and upheaval across the world, and especially in the Middle and Near East. The opportunities to then widen the conflict to involve Russia and China are endless. A third world war is part of the agenda, and this can open the way for that as the dominoes fall.

The "free world united with America" rhetoric from Blair and other "world leaders" is code for coming together as a world army and police force to fight a "war against terrorism". Already the Bilderberg-controlled NATO (the world army in waiting) has pledged such support, and the collective consciousness is being manipulated so comprehensively at this time that most people will support American and NATO terrorist attacks on unsubstantiated targets in the name of fighting terrorism. The stunning contradiction in this policy will be lost on the majority blinded by the blatant and intense mind-manipulation that has followed the outrages in those U.S. cities.

As conflict escalates as a result of such calculated "retaliation", the pressure for centralisation of military power and the willingness to concede that power by the populations of America and elsewhere will gather until the world army is in place—a world army with the power to attack and take over any country that their propaganda machine can demonise.

The collective mind of humanity, and particularly that of America, is understandably now in a deeply traumatised state. They have been subjected to collective trauma-based mind control and, as any mind controller or researcher can tell you, a traumatised mind is a suggestible mind. So in the wake of the trauma comes the programming to manipulate the population to see events in the desired fashion.

One of the biggest potential obstacles to the "New World Order", the centrally-controlled fascist global state, is the psyche of most American people. When faced with the prospect of giving up their right of self-determination to global military, political, and financial control, most would be vehemently opposed once they realised what was happening. Their collective sense of security, confidence, and pride in their nation and system has been built on the foundations of immense military and financial strength. It is a collective version of the "John Wayne" mentality: "Don't mess with us! This is America."

From that has come their collective confidence in themselves as a nation. Now that very sense of who they are, and their belief that they have the power to stand alone, is in danger of being devastated.

It is absolutely no coincidence that the targets of those hijacked planes were the very symbols of America's sense of itself and its own security: the Pentagon, symbol of their military might, and the World Trade Centre, twin pillars of their financial might. This is not primarily an attack on America, it is an attack on America's image and imagination of itself. Break their spirit and their sense of being "American"; break America's confidence in itself; put it in fear and fundamental insecurity; and you have overcome the most significant opposition to America

The Biggest Secret

by David Icke

The blockbuster of all blockbusters! With stunning information never before released on the murder of Diana, Princess of Wales.

David Icke's most powerful and explosive book to date includes the astonishing background to the murder of Diana, Princess of Wales. Every man, woman, and child on the planet is affected by the stunning information that Icke exposes. He reveals in documented detail how the same interconnecting bloodlines have controlled the planet for thousands of years. How they created all the major religions and suppressed the spiritual and esoteric knowledge that will set humanity free from its mental and emotional prisons. It includes a devastating exposé of the true origins of Christianity and the other major religions, and documents suppressed science, which explains why the world is facing a time of incredible change and transformation. The Biggest Secret also exposes the true and astonishing background to the British Royal Family and, through enormous research and unique contacts, Icke reveals how and why Diana, Princess of Wales, was murdered in Paris in 1997. This includes information from a close confidant of Diana for nine years, which has never before been made public.

The Biggest Secret is a unique book and is quite rightly dubbed: "The book that will change the world." No one who reads it will ever be the same again.

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

allowing itself to be absorbed into the Illuminati's global and centrally-dictated society.

The American psyche will now be bombarded with more and more shocks to its security and sense of self, as with Oklahoma and the school shootings in the past. But from now on, everything will be increased dramatically. It is vital that Americans refuse to submit to this and realise that those who are condemning the "terrorism" in their midst are those who are responsible for it.

When I first traveled America in 1996, I was staggered at what a controlled society the "Land of the Free" really was (though still not as bad as Canada). Now, in the wake of this tragedy, the United States, and other countries, are set to become a fortress of invasive surveillance and, what's more, because of what has happened, the American people will not utter a significant word of protest at the rapid expansion of this "Big Brother" society.

Problem-reaction-solution. Watch for micro-chipping of people to be suggested to "stop the terrorists".

An economic disaster has long been predicted by those who have exposed and studied the Illuminati agenda. To overcome resistance to single currencies and central control of global finance, they need a world economic crash that will destroy the present system and kid the people into accepting centralised global control as the only way to overcome the crash. Problem-reaction-solution.

This is another reason why these attacks struck in the very heart of America's economic system, and why, in the days before the carnage, the talk of a global economic recession was plastered across the world media. Now they have a blank sheet of paper with the chance to justify such a collapse and you will see global economic bodies brought in to "co-ordinate a response to the economic crisis". Indeed the G-7 (Illuminati) grouping of nations has already begun this process.

These are just a few of the "benefits" to the agenda from the death and destruction in New York and Washington that was, I repeat, co-ordinated by forces within U.S. borders. Those responsible are possessed by non-human entities and have no regard for human life—any more than most humans have regard for the death and suffering of cattle.

The reptilian mind has an undeveloped emotional level, and therefore there is no emotional consequence for them, no matter to what depths of horror and depravity they may sink. You only had to watch the emotionless, going-through-the-motions, reading the script responses of George W. Bush, and Tony Blair, the UK Prime Minister, in the face of such immense suffering, to see an example of this. It was in the class of the Queen of England after the murder of Princess Diana. At least Reagan was a professional actor. Bush and Blair wouldn't get in a school play.

Did George W. Bush know that these devastating disasters were going to happen that day? What do you think??

Did Tony Blair? What do you think??

But even they are only pawns in a game controlled by far greater powers, and they are as expendable as anyone once they have served their purpose. Personally I would not be surprised in the least if Bush was sacrificed eventually to advance the "global terrorism" scenario, and perhaps someone very close to Blair also. And, of course, if Bush does go, the new President would be the serial killer, Dick Cheney (see my book The Biggest Secret). The stakes are going to be stacked very high indeed, from this point, because the final push to global fascism has begun.

The world will never be the same again, that's true, but within every danger there is opportunity. And for those of us, the vast majority, who seek peace, not conflict, freedom for all, not dictatorship by the few, now have to look ourselves in the mirror and ask what we are going to do to stop these lunatics from taking over their asylum.

Complaining is not good enough any more. Running is no longer an option, because soon there will be nowhere to run. It is time to lift the arse (that's "ass" or "Bush" to Americans) from the chair, and let's stop sitting down and taking this shit.

People can bombard the radio phone-ins with another version of reality, and when they cut you off, get back, again and again; tell everyone you know where they can get information to give them another fix on what is really happening; send this and other articles on these subjects to everyone you know through e-mail, fax, or post; organise PEACEFUL protests against the fascist state whenever freedoms are threatened; get people together at meetings to discuss and assimilate information the media will not tell you; LOSE FEAR AND BE IRREVERENT IN THE FACE OF THIS ARROGANT DICTATORSHIP. IT CAN ONLY SURVIVE IF WE ARE FRIGHTENED OF IT AND INTIMIDATED BY IT.

There is so much we can do, if only we first decide that we want to dedicate our lives to this with an unbreakable determination that will not concede to any level of intimidation or consequences.

The Dragon is nothing like as powerful as they want us to believe it is.

Come on, what are we waiting for?

LET'S GO.

Remember: NO FEAR!

David's view is certainly from the Large Picture perspective, particularly if you consider the above in the context of our last month's provocative front-page feature interview with him. It is so simple and yet so vast a picture that many ones have difficulty holding onto the Big Picture without being drawn back down into the confusion of all the layers of details.

Because of that, we are also sharing here a later essay which David contributed to clarify how the diabolical machinery works.

How It Is Possible To Orchestrate And Mastermind A Terrorist Attack Without The Terrorists Themselves Even Knowing Who Is Really Behind It

9/29/01 DAVID ICKE

One of the crucial elements in the Illuminati global network is, as I have been emphasising in my books for years, the technique of "compartmentalisation".

The Illuminati structure is one of pyramids within bigger pyramids within still bigger pyramids—until you reach the one that encompasses all the others. It is like Russian dolls, one inside the other.

Look at any organisation today—a bank, business, university, government, whatever—and you will see that it is structured as a compartmentalised pyramid. The person who sits behind the counter in a bank will not know what their branch manager is deciding or planning, and the manager, in turn, will not know what is happening at the regional level, and they will not know what is being planned at the national level, and on it goes.

The only people who know the true plans and agenda of that bank are the handful at the top of the pyramid who know how all the innocent, individual contributions by people employed by the bank fit together. The overwhelming majority of employees, including those in agencies like the CIA and FBI, have no idea what the Big Picture is because they are compartmentalised from what is going on elsewhere at their own level, let alone at higher and higher levels.

What can seem matter of fact and innocent to an individual within the pyramid, can be very much more sinister when put together with everyone else's compartmentalised contributions.

A "bank" pyramid, for instance, is encompassed by bigger pyramids until you have one that includes the whole global banking system, and at the top of that are a handful of interbreeding families going back to the far ancient world who pull the strings of global finance to suit and manipulate their own agenda.

It is the same with governments, transnational corporations, the global media empires, the secret society networks, national "security" agencies like the CIA, and so on. They are each compartmentalised on a "need to know" basis, and imprisoned by bigger

Children Of The Matrix

How an interdimensional race has controlled the world for thousands of years—and still does!

We are born into a world controlled by unseen forces that have plagued and manipulated humanity for thousands of years. No, this is not script from a Hollywood movie. It is happening to you NOW.

You may look around and think that what you see is “real”. But in truth you are living in an illusion—an illusion designed to keep you in a mental, emotional, and spiritual prison cell.

David Icke exposes these forces and their methods of human control and he reveals a fantastic web of global manipulation, orchestrated by forces beyond this physical realm.

He exposes the hidden bloodlines, through which other-dimensional entities live and operate unseen among us; and he shows how the bloodlines of the royal, political, and economic rulers of today are the same as those who ruled as the kings and queens of ancient times.

Icke takes the story on from his highly acclaimed And The Truth Shall Set You Free and The Biggest Secret, and he lifts still further the veil of secrecy that has maintained humanity in manipulated ignorance for so long.

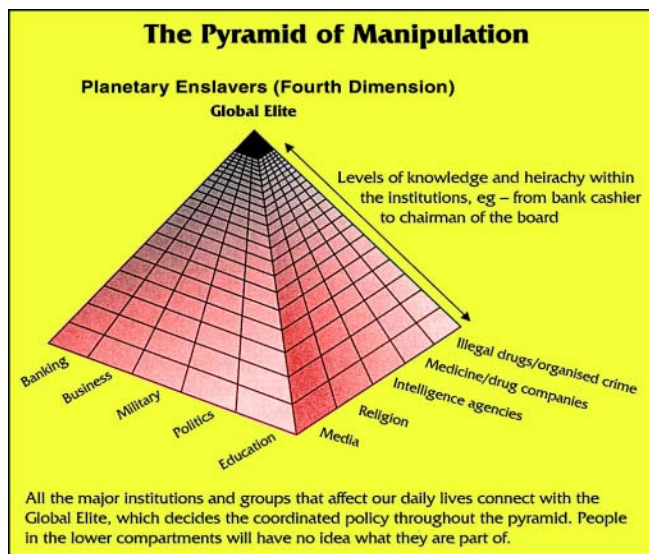

*The truth is not only out there.
Much of it is right here.*

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

493 pages $24.95 (+S/H)

pyramids, and at these higher levels these apparently unconnected institutions, businesses, and agencies are all the SAME organisation, controlled by the SAME people.

This Illuminati structure of compartmentalised pyramids allows them to organise horrendous attacks like those in New York and Washington, while those who actually hijacked the planes have no idea who the ultimate “Mr. Big” really is. For instance, the CIA (a mere tool and often fall guy for higher agencies) provided money and other support to the Afghan rebels and terrorist networks that eventually became the Taliban during the Soviet Union invasion.

But the money and support was channeled through Pakistan and elsewhere, and while some in Afghanistan would have known where it was coming from, the vast majority would not have known the true source, nor the nature hijacked the planes. These could have been directly mind-controlled and programmed to do it, or they could have genuinely believed they were serving their religion. Probably a combination of the two. It matters not to the Illuminati, it is the outcome they are interested in.

The hijackers would have answered to a network, or what they believed were the actual organisers. But from that point they would have lost track of the power game that was playing them like a violin. Who controlled what the hijackers believed was their support and organisational network? They have no idea.

The Illuminati do not represent a “side” or a “faction”. They CREATE the “sides” and the “factions” and they use them to manipulate the game of “divide and rule” and centralisation of global power. They operate within the Islamic world as they operate within the “Western world”.

So as the bigger pyramids envelope the smaller pyramids you reach a point in the structure where the same force is manipulating and organising the horrors in America while also manipulating and organising the RESPONSE to those horrors through their puppets such as Bush, Cheney, Powell, and Blair.

This is how they can work their “problem-reaction-solution” scams. One of their strands creates the problem (in this case the U.S. atrocities), another strand (the media) tells the people the Illuminati version of the problem (98% of journalists do this unknowingly), and yet another strand offers the “solutions” to the problem—“solutions” which advance their global agenda (in this case a massive erosion of of the global game in which they were being used as mere pawns.

The Illuminati don’t control everyone or even nearly everyone in these various organisations; they control those who control the organisation. It is through these few key positions of decision-making that everyone else in the organisation, the pyramid, is told what they will and will not do. It does not take many people to control the actions and policy of an organisation, whatever it may be, if you control the key decision-making positions.

So, in terms of the atrocities in the United States, let’s start with those who actually freedoms to “fight terrorism”).

You could look at a structure something like this (below). There will be other elements involved, but it will give you an idea of what I am describing.

Another longtime supporter of The SPECTRUM and frequent contributor of powerful information is Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz. His courage to stand up and speak Truth is perhaps exceeded only by the outstanding quality of the research scholarship behind his Truth.

Speaking in the metaphor of the world of

DAVID ICKE VIDEOS

AVAILABLE NOW!
Over 6 Hours Of
David Icke LIVE!

SPECTRUM
subscribers save
$10.00

from prison
to paradise
astounding information that will change your life forever

See and hear David Icke at the top of his form as he presents six-and-a-half hours of incredible information before a sellout audience of 1200 at the Vogue Theatre in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

You will laugh, you may even cry, and you will be on the edge of your seat as the fantastic story of true human history, and WHO really controls the world today, unfolds in Icke’s unique style, aided by video footage and hundreds of illustrations.

This is the presentation that the Illuminati (the forces of global control) tried so hard to stop—media interviews were cancelled; immigration officials turned up at the theatre to question his right to speak; pressure was applied on the venue to cancel the event itself; and pies were even thrown at David at a book signing by a rent-a-mob who ludicrously and outrageously sought to dub him a “racist”.

But nothing could silence him or break his spirit—and here you will see the result. David Icke shows that if you do not concede to fear, anything is possible!

Get this 3-video set (6-1/2 hours) for $59.95 (+S/H).
Current SPECTRUM subscribers pay only $49.95 (+S/H).

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare

This book explains how and why:

- We have evolved from the nuclear age into a "Technotronic Era" with "psychotronic warfare" for optimal population control.
- Non-lethal warfare is being effectively used to produce sociopolitical and economic outcomes consistent with global genocide.
- The world's wealthiest policy-makers have recommended, and are working toward, eliminating half the world's population.
- Accepted methods of disease prevention, such as pesticide sprayings, can only be scientifically rationalized as costly and deadly contributions to non-lethal warfare and population reduction.
- Chemtrail sprayings that obscure blue skies are not normal, but reflect a conspiracy of silence and military attacks on the health and welfare of people around the world.

Hard Cover Book: $29.95 (+S/H)

Latest Release! by Dr. Len Horowitz

Striking at the heart of a cryptocracy responsible for the latest forms of bio-terrorism, psychotronic warfare, and Malthusian eco-genocide, the revelations and wisdom contained in this book offer more than a reality check. They give humanity, you and your loved ones, a final, last minute, choice for survival.

Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz is a graduate of Harvard School of Public Health who has published more than two-dozen books, 120 scientific and lay articles, and numerous audio and videotaped educational programs. He has been a frequent guest on nationally syndicated radio and television news and talk shows representing every major network. Most recently, Dr. Horowitz's work detailing the man-made origins of the AIDS and Ebola viruses prompted two documentaries, one by the internationally acclaimed BBC. He lives with his wife and three children in Sandpoint, Idaho.

Please see next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

medicine, he cautions, like David Icke above, that we come to understand who the REAL crooks are before we figure out how to eradicate such a cancerous element in our society-body. Dr. Horowitz's viewpoint for pinpointing these crooks in high places, while remaining on THIS side of the multi-dimensional veil, accurately traces some of the intricate pathways of the global elite toward the advancing of their own selfish agenda. Is it any wonder such materialistic ones are so easily overshadowed by higher-dimensional dark (satanic) entities?!

Terrorism Prevention And Treatment Starts With Accurate Diagnosis

9/12/01 DR. LEN HOROWITZ

Tetrahedron Publishing Group

206 North 4th Avenue, Suite 147, Sandpoint, ID 83864

Phone: 1-888-508-4787; Fax: 208-265-2775

E-mail: tetra@tetrahedron.org

Website: www.tetrahedron.org

Dear friends at The SPECTRUM,

We, like most Americans, are now processing shock and dismay over the September 11, 2001 "Attack on America".

In the business of collecting and disseminating intelligence regarding various forms of terrorism, we have been predicting such horrific realities for months, even years. To have these prophecies manifest, leaves remorse beyond description. My colleagues and I are additionally pained by our collective inability to stop the generally unrecognized forces of evil orchestrating these events—forces we have identified and continue to professionally expose.

On this "day after", following yesterday's tragic losses, the last glimmer of hope that Americans might be shaken out of complacency, even by these horrific attacks on our home soil, is now gone. Filling this void, we are simply aghast by the manner in which the mainstream news media is spinning the public's mind. We, like more sheep to slaughter, are being directed more rapidly now, towards the emergence of a New World Order out of this chaos and coming cataclysms.

Diagnosing The Media Spin

What do I mean by media spin? Did you know that our government's and media's alleged greatest nemesis, said to be responsible for most

Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse

Hard Cover Book:
$26.95 (+S/H)
[537 pages]

Audio Tapes:
$29.95 (+S/H)
[4 hours]

One half of the world's current population should soon be dead according to authoritative projections. Will you, your family, and friends be among the survivors or the deceased?

Dr. Len Horowitz and Dr. Joseph S. Puleo investigate 2000 years of religious and political persecution and the latest technologies being used to enslave, coerce, and even kill billions of unsuspecting people.

This work returns the most precious spiritual knowledge, power, and "healing codes" to humanity. It offers new hope for the loving masses to survive the worldwide plagues, famines, and weather changes that are now at hand. In perfect time for these cataclysmic events, Healing Codes presents an urgent, monumental, and inspired work that will be hailed for generations to come.

See next-to-last page for information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Emerging Viruses - AIDS & Ebola

Audio Tapes
3 hours:
$19.95 (+S/H)

This is the first in-depth exploration into the origins of HIV and Ebola. Claims that these "emerging viruses" naturally evolved and then jumped species from ape to man seem grossly unfounded in light of the compelling evidence assembled in this extraordinary text. Alternatively, the possibility that these bizarre germs were laboratory creations, accidentally or intentionally transmitted via tainted hepatitis and smallpox vaccines in the U.S. and Africa—as numerous authorities have alleged—is investigated herein.

This book reviews the numerous viral vaccine studies conducted simultaneously in New York City and Central West Africa by a narrow network of virologists working for major military-medical contractors under the auspices of the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and the World Health Organization (WHO). Included is Dr. Robert Gallo, the notorious "discoverer" of the AIDS virus. The text presents bizarre and horrifying facts about the biological weapons race of the 1960s and early 1970s when these researchers developed countless immune-system-ravaging viruses, and experimented with an assortment of antidote vaccines allegedly for "defense" and cancer prevention.

Over 590 pages
$29.95 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

terrorist attacks against the United States—Osama bin Laden—took his direction and money from the CIA for at least eight years. (See story at the www.msnbc.com/news/190144.asp#BODY website.)

This also implicates, by association, the British oligarchy's MI-6. According to previous MI-6 officer, Dr. John Coleman, the CIA is largely subordinate to British intelligence agencies and the Royal family. Through the MI-6 and numerous oligarchy-controlled "think tanks", America's propaganda mills—major news networks and agencies—churn out foul fabrications. Osama bin Laden, the Islamic devil incarnate, is a classic creation of this spin.

This evening (September 12, 2001) I watched a CBS Evening News Special Report with Dan Rather. He interviewed Milt Bearden, a retired high-ranking CIA officer with “deep experience in the Sudan and Afghanistan”. Here he apparently directed bin Laden’s covert CIA operation known as Maktab al-Khidamar—the MAK.

Mr. Rather asked Bearden if he thought bin Laden was responsible for the terrorist “Attack on America”. Bearden downright snubbed the possibility. Instead, he explained, a far more sophisticated intelligence operation had to be behind these precise coordinated attacks.

Rather, committed to demonizing bin Laden, restated his concern.

“Look” Bearden surprisingly blurted, referring to the intelligence organization(s) responsible for the terrorist attack, “if they didn’t have an Osama bin Laden, they would invent one.”

As soon as Bearden left the set, Rather returned to demonizing bin Laden.

What Lies Ahead?

Most people tonight are questioning “What’s next?”

With great graveness of heart, I must inform you that this saddest of times marks a new beginning for more horrendous terrorist attacks to come. Add to this environmental catastrophes, and politically contrived intoxications of highly susceptible populations—especially those living in urban America.

Also this evening, previous Secretary of Defense for the Clinton administration, William S. Cohen, returned to CBS. He was asked the same question: "What lies ahead?"

He replied that the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington were an aberration. He fully expected there to be a full-scale deployment of biological and chemical “weapons of mass destruction” very soon.

What To Do?

My first recommendation is for you to work through your remaining shock and denial as quickly as possible. You may then be prepared to responsibly address, for your children's sake if not your own, the genocides to come.

What else can you do to prepare and protect your family?

Know and understand the nature of the enemy, and the dangers posed by this stealth “beast”.

Shortly, I will be e-mailing you more on this subject. I will continue to work to keep you abreast of the latest intelligence we gather that can help you and your loved ones be safe, and save lives.

In the meantime, if you have not yet purchased my new book Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare, it is urgent that you get a copy as soon as possible.

[Editor's note: See next-to-last page for ordering information from Wisdom Books & Press, or call toll-free 1-877-280-2866.]

This text provides all the documented intelligence you need to recognize the “beast” and its current operations. People have written that this is my best work to date. It provides in-depth analyses that may be crucial to you and your family's survival in the months ahead.

Regarding my previous communications predicting increased terrorist attacks, and the deployment of biological and chemical weapons, I again refer you to our www.tetrahedron.org website for many excellent links, articles, and health resources with which to prepare your “temple of God” to defend against the current and predicted plagues.

For the benefit of immunity and humanity, beginning in a few weeks, we will also be hosting a Healing Celebration at the www.healingcelebrations.com website.

God bless you, our bleeding country, and our troubled world.

Sincerely yours in sadness, Len Horowitz

* * *

An editorial by award winning public health author Leonard G. Horowitz, D.M.D., M.A., M.P.H.

September 11, 2001

Terrorism Prevention And Treatment Starts With Accurate Diagnosis

SANDPOINT, ID—If you are as stunned as most Americans by the horrifying social, economic, and political realities currently unfolding in the aftermath of the “terrorist” attacks on America’s icons—the World Trade Center and the Pentagon—don’t be fooled. This is history repeating. These events were predictable and predicted by a careful study of history, science, and economics.

Much like the ghastly attack on Pearl Harbor that initiated America's involvement in World War II, the September 11, 2001 "Attack on America" and news coverage of its aftermath are fueling a new world war mentality, global economy, and calls for unprecedented social controls. These controls are reminiscent of the fascist controls of Nazi Germany, and consistent with a long developing globalistic agenda.

Obviously, this could not have been the intended result of suspected Islamic fundamentalists. Are we to believe that such sophisticated intelligence operators, capable of hijacking four planes within minutes of one another, from different airports, and precisely flying these airborne menaces directly into America's most populated and powerful economic and military icons, would have missed predicting what was so predictable?

That is, the outcomes of this day's catastrophes run strikingly contrary to what experts have presumed terrorists typically intend. That is, to win international political favor for their assorted causes.

Recall that, in the days and weeks prior to the “Attack on America”, world opinion of America and Israel had been seriously degraded. Internationally, leaders voiced outrage over Israel’s position concerning the Palestinians. The fallout from the United Nations World Summit on Racism was seriously anti-American and pro-Palestinian. The global community rallied to the side of the Arab world. The American–Israeli alliance was globally condemned.

Would intelligent Islamic military leaders,

Healing Codes VIDEO Set (4-hours)

Could bioelectric technologies investigated during the Cold War provide the most advanced form of killing, enslaving, and coercing billions of unsuspecting people worldwide? More frightening: could infectious agents, including the “mad cow disease” protein “prion” crystal, have been engineered to effect a new insidious level of bio-spiritual warfare?

Dr. Len Horowitz investigates 2000 years of religious and political persecution and the latest technologies being used to enslave, coerce, and even kill billions of unsuspecting people.

This work returns the most precious spiritual knowledge, power, and “healing codes” to humanity. It offers new hope for the loving masses to survive the worldwide plagues, famines, and weather changes that are now at hand. In perfect cataclysmic events, Healing Codes presents an urgent, inspired work that will be hailed for generations to cunning enough to evade all security enroute to pulling off the greatest and gravest civilian attack in world history, have jeopardized the substantial political concessions they gained during the weeks preceding the attacks?

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

VIDEO Tape set:
$39.95 (+S/H)

Could these attacks have been authorized simply for the Satanic satisfaction of seeing American civilians bleed, or gaining revenge in a “Holy War”—as media spin directors want us to believe?

One could rationalize such an attack against the Pentagon. But against thousands of innocent civilians? Many, if not most of these victims were foreign speaking and born. Many were Islamic or Black.

Have you been to New York recently? There are certainly more foreigners driving taxis, working in stores, and running concessions, than stereotypical White Americans.

This simply does not add up.

In order to effectively treat this terrorism problem, or prevent this type of devastation in the future, we need to accurately diagnose the root cause of the problem.

And if Arab world leaders are denying their involvement in these attacks, and other suspects need to be considered, who else remains suspect in this tragic conspiracy?

“The Ends Justify The Means”

This phrase is well known. So is the edict “All is fair in love and war.”

Aldous Huxley broached these related topics when he wrote: “The nature of the universe is such that ends can never justify the means. On the contrary, the means always determine the end.”

Ask yourself: “What social, political, and economic outcomes have resulted from this gravest tragedy?”

Officials and legislators are insisting on levying greater social controls over all people across America. The military and security industries are getting a heavy infusion of support for corporate and investor profits. Global meltdown of U.S. and allied currency markets are prompting calls for the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, and leading bankers to establish greater economic controls. Oil prices are soaring.

Who wins by all of this? Islamic fundamentalists? Not particularly. Especially since OPEC was established and continues to be largely controlled by the British and American petrochemical consortium. The Islamic people in general certainly don’t win.

But key globalists absolutely and entirely do.

In a book published a few months ago entitled Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare I precisely identified certain “white-collar terrorists” fully capable of such attacks. I critically examined historical records linking petrochemical industrialists, leaders in the globalistic transition, to contemporary terrorist groups.

I conclude that, EVEN IF radical Islamic groups orchestrated these horrific attacks, it is urgent that we, as a nation and world, consider the economic and political powers BEHIND such groups. It is apparent and unnerving that certain petrochemical global industrialists, who manipulated the markets and politicians leading up to World War II, whose families and industries profited then from such managed chaos, are the only ones clearly profiting in the aftermath of this “Attack on America”.

Who Am I To Make Such Claims?

Let me briefly summarize my training. In 1977, I received my doctorate in medical dentistry from Tufts University in Boston. I later received several advanced degrees. One in Public Health from Harvard University. I joined the faculties at Tufts University and Harvard. I directed an alternative health center for more than a decade. In the early 1980s, the Associated Press featured my work as a trendsetter. My clinic integrated dentistry with general medicine, acupuncture, chiropractic, nutrition, massage, homeopathy, and other “alternative” methods of healing.

In 1999, I won the prestigious “Author of the Year Award” from the World Natural Health Organization for my tenth book. This became my first best-seller, Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola—Nature, Accident, Or Intentional? This book is said, by government health officials, to be largely responsible for America’s growing anti-vaccination movement.

Suffice it to say, I have been extremely critical of petrochemical/pharmaceutical industrialists for suppressing more information than they have been telling—including potentially lifesaving information that could stem the rising epidemics of cancer, autoimmune diseases, and much, much more.

Economic And Political Motives For “Managed Chaos”

Over the years I have gathered and published documented evidence that the military, medical, pharmaceutical, and petrochemical industries are intimately linked—economically and administratively—by a virtual cartel of special interests. These might best be called “white-collar terrorists”.

The threat they pose is adequately demonstrated by the recent “Attack on America”. This day may seem like an extreme aberration. In fact, it is more rationally diagnosed as a symptom of global politics. Like World War II, those who funded Hitler’s rise to power, those insulated corporate collaborators, simply MANAGED CHAOS.

This political diagnosis and prescription is, after all, written in Latin on the back of every U.S. dollar bill: “Annuat Coeptis Novus Ordo Seclorum.” Literally translated this means “Announcing the birth of the New World Order without God” or “Announcing the birth of a New World Order out of chaos”.

This seemingly outrageous explanation and conclusion is not simply a “conspiracy theory”. As a journalist with dozens of scientific peer-reviewed publications to my credit, my conclusions are based on meticulously documented intensive investigations. I’ve identified organizations, institutions, and individuals instigating, and profiting from, such globally managed chaos. I’ll cite some examples.

Your Reality Check Into Terrorism

Did you know that our government’s and media’s greatest perceived nemesis, said to be responsible for most terrorist attacks against the United States—Osama bin Laden—took his direction and money from the CIA? This implicates also the British oligarchy’s MI-6. (See story at the www.msnbc.com/news/190144.asp#BODY Internet website.)

Likewise, did you know that the George H. W. Bush administration supplied Saddam Hussein with the majority of his military armaments, chemical weapons, and biological warfare agents—just weeks prior to Iraq’s invasion of Kuwait? Included in this war-making arsenal was the West Nile virus. This bioweapon was shipped by, the Congressional Record reported, Rockefeller University President Dr. Joshua Lederberg. He is also the curator of the American Type Cell Culture Collection. This is among the world’s leading bioweapons suppliers. Oddly, this virus, too, struck New Yorkers first.

If you didn’t know the above facts, you might be additionally dismayed to learn that the British Secret Service’s top-secret alphanumeric (letter/number) code translates the name “New York” into the number “666”!

Here’s a reality check for you: The MI-6 uses the Pythagorean-based code transcribing the multiples of 6, where A=6, B=12, C=18, and so on through Z=156. Do the math. The sum of the letters for “New York” total “666”. That is the Bible’s prophesied “Mark of the Beast”.

Knowledge is power and ignorance is no longer bliss. Today ignorance is deadly!

For instance, based on the above knowledge, three years ago I moved my family from Boston and New York, where I used to work. We moved to a place I felt my children could grow in peace and safety. During the past three years, I have consistently lectured audiences nationwide during television and radio interviews, and live presentations, about the urgent need to “move away from Metropolis”—that is, the corridor between Washington, DC and Boston. Obviously, my advice still holds.

You remain at greatest risk by remaining in denial about these facts. Elizabeth Kubler Ross's "Death And Dying" model predicts this risk in reaction to a horrific threat or loss. A normal first reaction is denial. Thus, it is natural for you to want to dismiss my writings and warnings as "foolish conspiracy theory" or "religious fanaticism" or even random coincidence. But, believe me, this terrorism is no such thing.

Personal Prayers For Victims And Our Families

Our hearts and prayers go out now to the thousands of people who were sacrificed, as I insist, for economics and political advantage in this New World War against humanity. Millions of people now pray for the victims, their families, our great nation, our deceived and deceptive political leaders, and our rapidly changing world. Whether you want to admit it or not, our global family has been attacked.

Other forms of "white-collar terrorism" continue to threaten, maim, and kill us. The death toll resulting from the September 11, 2001 "terrorist" attacks simply pales by comparison to the historic and ongoing atrocities.

A True Story To Learn From The Past

Let me explain how my family, and likely yours as well, has been victimized by these same global conspirators. This is a true story. It should make my counsel to you very clear and urgent. It should also demonstrate that this message is about saving lives—your loved ones included.

At Nazi gunpoint, in 1938, my mother scrubbed the streets of Vienna. She, like other Holocaust victims, became slave labor. How?

The petrochemical company largely directing the Third Reich had a labor shortage. This company was called I.G. Farben. To solve their problem, they simply forced White European Jews and political prisoners to labor.

Massive killings occurred in "showers" under the guise of "public health" and "disinfection".

This story reflects what is secretly happening today in our country, pertaining to contemporary acts of "terrorism". Keep reading.

By sheer miracle, my mother escaped. She fled to America and settled in Boston. I was reared in America's medical Mecca.

In 1993, my mother died of cancer. Initially, she was struck down by a simple flu shot. She developed a common vaccine injury.

Surprisingly, viral proteins in vaccines often cause immune cells to attack and destroy nerves. My mother became weaker. Then paralyzed.

With her immune guard down, she developed cervical cancer. A few months later, after a few radiation treatments, she died.

The sad thing is, had my mother integrated this lesson, it's likely she would be alive today to watch my children play. The critical deadly fact that my mother failed to learn, and we are all at risk for learning "the hard way" is:

TODAY'S BIOCHEMICAL WEAPONS, VACCINE, AND DRUG INDUSTRY IS PART OF THE SAME GLOBAL PETROCHEMICAL/PHARMACEUTICAL CARTEL THAT HAS SPONSORED NUMEROUS ACTS OF TERRORISM. THIS LIKELY INCLUDES THE MOST RECENT DEBACLES IN THE UNITED STATES. THIS CARTEL IS A DIRECT DESCENDANT OF THE ROCKEFELLER/I.G. FARBEN MONOPOLY THAT INSTIGATED THE HOLOCAUST.

Please stop what you are doing and look at my publisher's www.tetrahedron.org website. Review the articles, news stories, and intelligence reports I have posted to share potentially lifesaving knowledge. You will see that I am not making this up.

The Vast And Silent Threat Continues

The threat my mother escaped by miracle in 1938 apparently killed her in 1993. She entrusted medical deities for their knowledge and vaccine prescriptions. She trusted mainstream media's messages. This was a great and grave mistake.

"We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order."

— David Rockefeller

"scientific" organizations, individuals, and pharmaceutical interests, heavily influenced by Rockefeller relatives, set these standards.

Conduct a simple library investigation. You will learn that this family, and its British cohorts, largely control the news media and entertainment industry as well. With such varied resources for committing, concealing, and profiting from "white-collar terrorism", its no wonder so many are being intoxicated and killed today.

With millions of people in hospitals, and thousands now in emergency rooms, today's physicians' offices, public health units, and hospitals are effectively like the killing camps of yesteryear. Millions of Americans will go to their early graves this year, like my mother.

Members of your family could be struck down similarly. This, as the result of doing what millions of Holocaust victims did during World War II: They simply followed authoritative and coercive direction. The direction was given under the guise of "public health", "public safety", "racial disparity", and even "disinfection"!

The AIDS And Cancer Terrorists

In case you don't know, the Rockefeller family created the cancer industry in the 1920s. Today, the world's leading AIDS research facility is the Aaron Diamond Research Center affiliated with Rockefeller University.

AIDS, in fact, is a very bizarre form of cancer. The AIDS virus (HIV) is a cancer virus associated with immune suppression. It leads to three types of cancer: leukemia, lymphoma, and sarcoma.

In my book Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola, I exposed, for the first time, that these types of viruses were man-made during the 1960s. That's before the modern age of gene splicing!

[Editor's note: Stop right here and think for a minute. What does that tell you about how long ago it was that advanced genetic engineering techniques were ALREADY being utilized in secret? And were they being used to help or to hurt?]

Remember the clue given in so many of the spiritual messages here in The SPECTRUM from our Higher Teachers and Masters about "they must wear a sign" and "watch actions, not words" to help you discern intent of purpose. Len is unfolding a great lesson here in perception of the pattern of an ongoing, longterm "terrorist" war by the crooks in high places against we-the-people wherein the recent tragic events are "merely" the latest round.

Are they now increasing the level of boldness of their depraved assaults? Could this be due to a struggle to maintain control because so many of us are awakening? What do rats do when they are feeling cornered?]

Another Rockefeller-linked company, Litton Industries, directed this research and development through their medical subsidiary, Bionetics. Contaminated Hepatitis-B vaccine, given to gay men in NYC and central African Blacks, in 1974, best explains the first AIDS cases. This vaccine was partially prepared by growing Hepatitis-B viruses in contaminated chimpanzees shipped by Bionetics to New York. There, the Merck Pharmaceutical Company, also financially tied to staggeringly large Rockefeller investments, produced the vaccine that apparently triggered AIDS. Today, the pandemic and profit-making continues.

The Choice To Diagnose And Treat A Horrifying Reality

We have a choice to correctly diagnose and, because of this, successfully treat, a horrifying reality—or be killed by it. Much like the undermining of American “public health” and U.S. National Security, our country is being attacked by multinational corporate profiteers. These people alone have prospered from, and should be blamed for, the recent “Attack on America”.

Indeed, knowledge is powerful. But ignorance, or inaccurate intelligence, is deadly. Before we blame the Arab nations and peoples, retaliate against perceived Islamic threats, and declare World War III, I believe we need to carefully diagnose what ails our planet.

Diagnosis means to “see through”. It is a requirement for correct and successful treatment of every disorder. It requires accurate intelligence.

I believe we have the intelligence to make an accurate diagnosis to guide treatment. What’s missing, by political and economic design, and by effect of the media, is widespread awareness of this intelligence. Without this, the will of the people cannot be exercised to correct what ails us.

If I am right, the thorn in America’s side is a symptom of what’s on our dollar bill—“Annuit Coeptis Novus Ordo Seclorum”. We are being managed, through chaos, to birth a New World Order. I believe that people around the world want to live in peace. Everyone wants a new world order as opposed to an old world of managed chaos.

Proudly, our dollar bill also declares: “In God We Trust.” The Bible predicts a new world order too, heralding a thousand years of world peace. I just don’t think a planet being “peacefully” managed by multinational corporate fascist population controllers who earn vast revenues from humanity’s suffering is what God has in mind.

* * *

September 19, 2001

America’s “New War” Directed By Same Old Profiteers

Dr. Henry Kissinger is heralding war directions once again. On “Black Monday” (September 17, 2001), the day stocks took their biggest single day loss in history, the American news media detailed this 86-year-old foreign policy analyst’s prescription for bombing Afghanistan and Iran. Rhetorically admitting such actions would likely prompt terrorist counterattacks, Dr. Kissinger claimed such strikes were urgently needed to stop future terrorist attacks.

Given the incongruity of his counsel, many Kissinger critics believe the “elderly statesman” may be losing his mind. Others suggest he should simply refrain from advising Bush administration officials on such matters. Still more believe he should “mind his own business”. This, however, is precisely what he is doing—since America’s “New War” strategy represents, above all, BIG BUSINESS!

Officials are now warning that America’s “New War” will require unprecedented economic and social sacrifices. Included here, we are told, are imminent losses of life from biological and chemical attacks. This best explains why Black Monday’s few winning stocks included pharmaceutical giants Merck, Pfizer, and Johnson & Johnson—companies destined to profit greatly by plagued populations.

Realistically frightened, parents across the United States are wondering whether the remote chance of stopping terrorism, without prompting World War III, is worth the risk of losing their children to anthrax attacks also predicted by Bush administration officials.

Before forming your opinion, here are some relevant facts to consider:

When WWII hero and President Dwight Eisenhower left office, his farewell address included this warning: “Beware of the military-industrial complex.”

He was referring to the war mongers who had pressured him to extend America’s nuclear capabilities worldwide. He correctly identified these agents as the greatest threat to world freedom and American democracy. He was referring to the petrochemical/atomic energy cartel largely directed by Nelson Rockefeller and his protégé Dr. Henry Kissinger.

Eisenhower’s intelligence on this matter was partially gained as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). This non-governmental think tank, currently composed of 3,600 political policy appointees, was largely, if not entirely, directed by the Royal Institute for International Affairs, powered by international banking elite, as it is today.

Eisenhower was well aware that Nelson Rockefeller had appointed Kissinger to direct the CFR’s “Nuclear Weapons Study Group” that had developed a pro-nuclear prescription published by Kissinger in the Foreign Affairs journal. Eisenhower, with extensive intelligence on “cold war” trouble-makers in the political world and industry, resisted the deployment of “strategic nuclear weapons” that Kissinger, on behalf of the Rockefeller family and their European banking cohorts, prescribed.

Today, America’s entire nuclear weapons and atomic energy industries, remain largely, if not entirely, directed by Rockefeller family associates, or their financial collaborators, from within the U.S. Department of Energy (DoE) and Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

Odd as it may seem, the AEC has been repeatedly proven—by government documents obtained through the Freedom Of Information Act—to be engaged at the forefront of America’s biological weapons developments, in collaboration with the U.S. Navy and National Cancer Institute. This intelligence was meticulously detailed in a recently released book by public health authority, Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz, entitled Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare (Tetrahedron Publishing Group, 2001).

Following WWII, Rockefeller Standard Oil Company Wall Street lawyers and business managers, John Foster Dulles and his brother Allen, directed the evolution of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) into today’s Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). They also helped leading German nuclear scientists and missile developers be brought to America at that time.

According to Walter Isaacson, Managing Editor of Newsweek, Kissinger was then chief assistant to General B o l o g n a — intelligence director overseeing the European war arena.

Kissinger’s function at that time included training intelligence officers to seek and find Nazi war criminals—not for Nuremberg trials, but for positions in American industry, military, and central intelligence. This was called “Project Paperclip”. Many of these men became involved in defense programs also tied administratively and financially to the AEC, nuclear weapons projects, and the Navy.

The American Red Cross (ARC) that received millions of donations following the “terrorist” attacks on NYC, was established and financed mainly by the Rockefeller family. According to several credible investigators, during the late 1940s the ARC was used to help smuggle Nazi war criminals to safe havens in the Americas and elsewhere. False ARC and CIA identifications were issued to many Germans who had aided Hitler. Underground railroads called “rat lines” were established in Europe, and used as escape routes. Ultimately, more than 2,000 Third Reich employees were transferred in this manner to the United States. Much of the Nazi-pilfered gold was similarly transferred to Swiss banks, and later to Rockefeller banks in New York, according to the New York Times and numerous books by reputable authors.

Individuals who later became leaders of American aerospace, missile, nuclear, and biological weapons industries, were among Project Paperclip’s most valued acquisitions.

“Today, America would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order. Tomorrow they will be grateful! Individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well-being granted to them by the World Government.”

— Dr. Henry Kissinger
Evians, France, 1991

For example, Erich Traub, Hitler's top biological weapons developer and world class virologist, was assigned to the U.S. Navy's bioweapons program in Virginia. The U.S. Navy has remained at the forefront of America's biological weapons industry ever since WWII, and as mentioned above, retains intimate ties to AEC administrators and programs.

Kissinger's role in violating the Geneva Accord, insofar as the development and testing of illegal biological weapons, is critical to contemporary risks. According to two previous CIA directors, Richard Helms and William Colby, whose testimonies are recorded in the U.S. Congressional Record, Kissinger selected the option to develop banned biological weapons while serving in the Nixon White House as National Security Advisor.

As foreign policy director under Nixon, Kissinger also authorized the CIA to initiate terrorist campaigns and wars in central Africa. The CIA directors' testimonies tie Kissinger, at that time, to the development of "synthetic biological agents" described in a classified section of the 1969 Congressional Record. The classified appropriations request, reprinted in Dr. Horowitz's Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare, discussed the laboratory creation of mutant viruses that might function exactly like the AIDS virus, HIV, functions today.

By 1971, Kissinger had compiled intelligence reports in support of population reduction objectives mainly established and promoted by the Rockefeller family-directed Population Council of the City of New York (predecessor to numerous other global and American depopulation agencies).

The infamous abortion pill, RU-486, is owned worldwide by this Rockefeller-controlled council. Henry Kissinger's landmark 1974 publication called National Secret Security Memorandum 200, declassified in 1980, called for massive Third World depopulation. Africa, in particular, a continent whose location and natural resources Kissinger called "strategic" to America's economic and national security, was heavily targeted for population control.

According to scientific evidence published in the peer reviewed scientific journal Medical Hypothesis (Harcourt-Brace-Jovanovich, England) in May, 2001, Dr. Kissinger's client, the Merck pharmaceutical company, prepared the 1974 experimental Hepatitis-B vaccine given to gay men in New York City and Blacks in central Africa. This vaccine, according to mounting scientific evidence compiled by Dr. Horowitz and his colleagues, delivered the first HIV/AIDS infections to the world.

According to investigative journalists John Loftus and Mark Aarons in The Secret War Against The Jews (St. Martin's Press, 1994), if Kissinger's foreign policy directives had not been secretly reversed by Alexander Haig during the Nixon years, Israel would have been annihilated. Further, had Jewish underground intelligence director David Ben-Gurion not threatened Nelson Rockefeller with disclosing the Standard Oil Company partnership with I.G. Farben, the petrochemical cartel behind the Third Reich's labor camps and genocidal atrocities, the State of Israel would not have been secured in 1948. Thus threatened, Rockefeller was forced to direct critical votes at the United Nations for Israel's formation.

There are many more illuminating links between global military industrialists, government policy-makers, terrorist organizations, leading terrorists including Osama bin Laden, and the horrific attacks on the World Trade Center and Pentagon. A good resource in which to critically examine the economic and political basis of these links is in the well documented new book Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare by Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz. In addition, Dr. Horowitz's national best-selling book, Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola—Nature, Accident, Or Intentional? (1998) best explains the emergence of modern plagues in the context of economically and ideologically driven population reduction agendas.

Dr. Horowitz is helping us to view this tragic event from the larger perspective of longterm, calculated manipulation at a level much higher than any public-display "terrorists" could possibly engineer. To continue that theme directly, and add-in some history on the manufacturing of "terrorists", consider the following essay by the respected independent modern historian and journalist, Barry Chamish. He, like David Icke, refers to the high-level manipulators as the Illuminati:

Who Created Islamic Extremism?

9/21/01 BARRY CHAMISH
(chamish@netvision.net.il)

Well, they did it again. For the third time in less than a century, the Illuminati manipulated a world war. They succeeded in creating an issue of good and evil that cannot be ignored. Yes, the Muslim extremists present a danger to the planet and have to be extinguished [his opinion], just like the Nazis.

So who created the Nazis and who created Islamic extremism? For hundreds of years the Arabs were quiescent and obedient servants of the Ottoman Empire. Then, in 1917, the British expelled them and took over Palestine. They, and their secretive Round Table, approved a declaration permitting Jews to reestablish Israel, thus offering them a shelter from Europe's pogroms, which were fueled by the Illuminati for just this purpose.

Then they set Arab on Jew, creating such animosity that Islam gleefully allied itself with Nazism. After that, the Illuminati ignited the Holocaust, and when it was ended, the Vatican's Jesuit rulers, with Allied approval, shipped the worst of the genocidal criminals worldwide through its appropriately named "ratline".

Europe's Jews were then shipped to Israel and a war was ignited which the Jews were supposed to lose, thus completing stage two of the Holocaust. But Israel overcame the odds and survived.

Since then, the planet's hidden rulers have done their utmost to turn Islam into an improved version of Nazism, starting with the creation of an artificial, terrorism-based "Palestinian" nationhood. It took barely a generation after to create Osama bin Laden and the Taliban out of the same mold.

So who created the Taliban? President Jimmy Carter of the Council On Foreign Relations took the first step by ordering a covert war against Soviet forces in Afghanistan.

Who originally funded the Taliban? CIA chief George Bush of the CFR affiliate, Skull And Bones Society.

Who supplied the Taliban with all the sophisticated encrypted telecommunications equipment, which made its [alleged] attacks on the dead twins and Pentagon possible? President Clinton of the CFR, who approved sales of the high-tech wonders to Syria, where it was inevitable that radical Islam would inherit it.

Who handed the Taliban $48 million to eradicate poppies, knowing full well it wouldn't be used for that purpose? Why our current American President, like his father, a Skull And Bones graduate.

Who is bin Laden's brother's business partner? Why Percy Rockefeller of the CFR-founding Rockefeller family.

Who owned the land the World Trade Centers stood on? Why, those pesky Rockefellers again.

And who created Islam in America? The same gang who imported Islam to Europe.

No American Black should identify with Islam. This religion captured territory in Africa in medieval times and looted its conquests for slaves. Without Arab slave traders, it is unlikely the European industry would have taken hold. Even today, Muslims enslave huge numbers of Christian Blacks in the Sudan and Mauritania. American Blacks picked up this religion in the late 1950s and it was spread in the prison system.

Who is enforcing those laws, especially the drug laws, that assure most Blacks of some prison time where many will have to adopt Islam or face the consequences? The hidden rulers have created an angry community of Moslems in America, and if they object too vigorously to this new war, there will be a race war in America. The same goes for the Moslems of Europe, imported by the millions for just this moment in history.

We've all been set-up for a period of bloody, murderous chaos. Then, lucky us, we get a new planetary order with guess who in charge? And if enough people choose not to investigate how this war was REALLY started and WHO was behind it, we'll all deserve this New World Order as a collective punishment for collective human stupidity.

Barry's overview above sets the general stage for the fabricated condition of so-called "Islamic Extremism" that is being chanted by the media to stir-up public support for war. But we have to dig a little deeper to lift the "fingerprints" of some of the actual key culprits, operating safely behind the scenes.

The following is a superb, well-researched report revealing the astonishing, hands-on connections of the CIA in all this mess, especially in the creation of the person who has been made into a single-handed lightning rod for launching World War III. Remember that the CIA is, in turn, just one of many organizations directed to do their dirty work by the well-hidden crooks in very high places, the Elite Controllers.

Be sure to pay VERY careful attention to BOTH the oil business and drug business interests driving a lot of these shenanigans. Both of these—oil and drugs—figure prominently and strategically in that geographical region. Remember Ollie North and Iran-Contra? There is plenty of evidence to suggest that our government is heavily in the drug business to, among other objectives (like dumb down the population), fund covert ("black") operations not able to earn approval through any honest route.

And as for Big Oil—WHOSE family is heavily in that business (as well as running drugs beneath the umbrella of their offshore Texas oil platforms)? While we won't cover this "dirty laundry" aspect in greater detail, a little research will uncover that both past president George Bush Senior (and some of his high-up Republican buddies such as former Secretary of State James A. Baker), and current president George Bush Junior, have longstanding questionable "business" ties with the bin Laden family that first made headlines in the Houston Chronicle for June 4, 1992 and again surfaced in the September 27, 2001 Wall Street Journal.

And finally, just for good measure, keep in mind what the intelligence operative candidly shared earlier in this outlay, reported by Dr. Len Horowitz: "If they (CIA) didn't have an Osama bin Laden, they would invent one!" So rather than being dazzled by the puppets dancing on the strings, like little children easily entertained, perhaps it is time we got smart enough to concentrate our attention on dealing with the puppet-MASTERS pulling those strings.

Who Is Osama Bin Laden?

9/12/01 MICHEL CHOSSUDOVSKY

Professor of Economics, University of Ottawa
Centre for Research on Globalisation (CRG), Montréal, Canada

A few hours after the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, the Bush administration concluded without supporting evidence, that "Osama bin Laden and his al-Qaeda organisation were prime suspects". CIA Director George Tenet stated that bin Laden has the capacity to plan "multiple attacks with little or no warning". Secretary of State Colin Powell called the attacks "an act of war" and President Bush confirmed, in an evening televised address to the nation, that he would "make no distinction between the terrorists who committed these acts and those who harbor them". Former CIA Director James Woolsey pointed his finger at "state sponsorship", implying the complicity of one or more foreign governments. In the words of former National Security Adviser Lawrence Eagleburger: "I think we will show, when we get attacked like this, we are terrible in our strength and in our retribution."

Meanwhile, parroting official statements, the Western media mantra has approved the launching of "punitive actions" directed against civilian targets in the Middle East. In the words of William Safire, writing in the New York Times: "When we reasonably determine our attackers' bases and camps, we must pulverize them—minimizing but accepting the risk of collateral damage—and act overtly or covertly to destabilize terror's national hosts."

The following text outlines the history of Osama Bin Laden and the links of the Islamic "Jihad" to the formulation of U.S. foreign policy during the Cold War and its aftermath.

Prime suspect in the New York and Washington terrorists attacks, branded by the FBI as an "international terrorist" for his role in the African US embassy bombings, Saudi-born Osama bin Laden was recruited during the Soviet-Afghan war "ironically under the auspices of the CIA, to fight Soviet invaders". [1]

In 1979 "the largest covert operation in the history of the CIA" was launched in response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in support of the pro-Communist government of Babrak Kamal. [2]

With the active encouragement of the CIA and Pakistan's ISI (Inter Services Intelligence), who wanted to turn the Afghan jihad into a global war waged by all Muslim states against the Soviet Union, some 35,000 Muslim radicals from 40 Islamic countries joined Afghanistan's fight between 1982 and 1992. Tens of thousands more came to study in Pakistani madrasahs. Eventually more than 100,000 foreign Muslim radicals were directly influenced by the Afghan jihad. [3]

The Islamic "jihad" was supported by the United States and Saudi Arabia with a significant part of the funding generated from the Golden Crescent drug trade:

"In March 1985, President Reagan signed National Security Decision Directive 166, ... [which] authorize[d] stepped-up covert military aid to the mujahideen, and it made clear that the secret Afghan war had a new goal: to defeat Soviet troops in Afghanistan through covert action and encourage a Soviet withdrawal. The new covert U.S. assistance began with a dramatic increase in arms supplies—a steady rise to 65,000 tons annually by 1987, ... as well as a "ceaseless stream" of CIA and Pentagon specialists who traveled to the secret headquarters of Pakistan's ISI on the main road near Rawalpindi, Pakistan. There the CIA specialists met with Pakistani intelligence officers to help plan operations for the Afghan rebels." [4]

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) using Pakistan's military Inter-Services Intelligence (ISI) played a key role in training the Mujahideen. In turn, the CIA-sponsored guerrilla training was integrated with the teachings of Islam:

"Predominant themes were that Islam was a complete socio-political ideology, that holy Islam was being violated by the atheistic Soviet troops, and that the Islamic people of Afghanistan should reassert their independence by overthrowing the leftist Afghan regime propped up by Moscow." [5]

Pakistan's Intelligence Apparatus

Pakistan's ISI was used as a "go-between". The CIA covert support to the "jihad" operated indirectly through the Pakistani ISI, i.e., the CIA did not channel its support directly to the Mujahideen. In other words, for these covert

EVIL AGENDA OF THE SECRET GOVERNMENT

BY TIM SWARTZ

Exposes Project "Paper Clip" and the underground UFO bases of Hitler's elite scientific corps. Elements of the CIA and the Secret Government have imitated real alien abductions to convince the public of interplanetary invasion so New World Order gang can rule the Earth unchallenged.

Project Paperclip was the secret plan that took Nazi scientists and psychiatrists out of Germany and into the upper echelons of the U.S. governmental, scientific, and academic realms.

$10.00 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

operations to be “successful”, Washington was careful not to reveal the ultimate objective of the “jihad”, which consisted of destroying the Soviet Union.

In the words of CIA’s Milton Beardman “We didn’t train Arabs.” Yet according to Abdel Monam Saidali, of the Al-aram Center for Strategic Studies in Cairo, bin Laden and the “Afghan Arabs” had been imparted “with very sophisticated types of training that was allowed to them by the CIA”. [6]

CIA’s Beardman confirmed, in this regard, that Osama bin Laden was not aware of the role he was playing on behalf of Washington. In the words of bin Laden (quoted by Beardman): “neither I, nor my brothers, saw evidence of American help”. [7]

Motivated by nationalism and religious fervor, the Islamic warriors were unaware that they were fighting the Soviet Army on behalf of Uncle Sam. While there were contacts at the upper levels of the intelligence hierarchy, Islamic rebel leaders in theatre had no contacts with Washington or the CIA.

With CIA backing and the funneling of massive amounts of US military aid, the Pakistani ISI had developed into a “parallel structure wielding enormous power over all aspects of government”. [8] The ISI had a staff composed of military and intelligence officers, bureaucrats, undercover agents, and informers, estimated at 150,000. [9]

Meanwhile, CIA operations had also reinforced the Pakistani military regime led by General Zia Ul Haq:

“Relations between the CIA and the ISI [Pakistan’s military intelligence] had grown increasingly warm following [General] Zia’s ouster of Bhutto and the advent of the military regime. ... During most of the Afghan war, Pakistan was more aggressively anti-Soviet than even the United States. Soon after the Soviet military invaded Afghanistan in 1980, Zia [ul Haq] sent his ISI chief to destabilize the Soviet Central Asian states. The CIA only agreed to this plan in October 1984. ... The CIA was more cautious than the Pakistanis. Both Pakistan and the United States took the line of deception on Afghanistan with a public posture of negotiating a settlement while privately agreeing that military escalation was the best course.” [10]

The Golden Crescent Drug Triangle

The history of the drug trade in Central Asia is intimately related to the CIA’s covert operations. Prior to the Soviet-Afghan war, opium production in Afghanistan and Pakistan was directed to small regional markets. There was no local production of heroin. [11]

In this regard, Alfred McCoy’s study confirms that within two years of the onslaught of the CIA operation in Afghanistan: “the Pakistan-Afghanistan borderlands became the world’s top heroin producer, supplying 60 percent of U.S. demand. In Pakistan, the heroin-addict population went from near zero in 1979 ... to 1.2 million by 1985—a much steeper rise than in any other nation.” [12]

CIA assets again controlled this heroin trade. As the Mujahideen guerrillas seized territory inside Afghanistan, they ordered peasants to plant opium as a revolutionary tax. Across the border in Pakistan, Afghan leaders and local syndicates under the protection of Pakistan Intelligence operated hundreds of heroin laboratories. During this decade of wide-open drug-dealing, the US Drug Enforcement Agency in Islamabad failed to instigate major seizures or arrests ... US officials had refused to investigate charges of heroin dealing by its Afghan allies ‘because U.S. narcotics policy in Afghanistan has been subordinated to the war against Soviet influence there’. In 1995, the former CIA director of the Afghan operation, Charles Cogan, admitted the CIA had indeed sacrificed the drug war to fight the Cold War. ‘Our main mission was to do as much damage as possible to the Soviets. We didn’t really have the resources or the time to devote to an investigation of the drug trade’... ‘I don’t think that we need to apologize for this. Every situation has its fallout. ... There was fallout in terms of drugs, yes. But the main objective was accomplished. The Soviets left Afghanistan.’ [13]

In The Wake Of The Cold War

IN THE WAKE OF THE COLD WAR, THE CENTRAL ASIAN REGION IS NOT ONLY STRATEGIC FOR ITS EXTENSIVE OIL RESERVES, IT ALSO PRODUCES THREE QUARTERS OF THE WORLD’S O P I U M — R E P R E S E N T I N G MULTIBILLION DOLLAR REVENUES TO BUSINESS SYNDICATES, FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, INTELLIGENCE AGENCIES, AND ORGANIZED CRIME. THE ANNUAL PROCEEDS OF THE GOLDEN CRESCENT DRUG TRADE (BETWEEN 100 AND 200 BILLION DOLLARS) REPRESENTS APPROXIMATELY ONE THIRD OF THE WORLDWIDE ANNUAL TURNOVER OF NARCOTICS, ESTIMATED BY THE UNITED NATIONS TO BE OF THE ORDER OF $500 BILLION. [14]

With the disintegration of the Soviet Union, a new surge in opium production has unfolded. (According to UN estimates, the production of opium in Afghanistan in 1998-99 — coinciding with the build-up of armed insurgencies in the former Soviet republics—reached a record high of 4600 metric tons. [15] Powerful business syndicates in the former Soviet Union, allied with organized crime, are competing for the strategic control over the heroin routes.

The ISI’s extensive intelligence military network was not dismantled in the wake of the Cold War. The CIA continued to support the Islamic “jihad” out of Pakistan. New undercover initiatives were set in motion in Central Asia, the Caucasus, and the Balkans. Pakistan’s military and intelligence apparatus essentially “served as a catalyst for the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the emergence of six new Muslim republics in Central Asia”. [16]

Meanwhile, Islamic missionaries of the Wahhabi sect from Saudi Arabia had established themselves in the Muslim republics as well as within the Russian federation, encroaching upon the institutions of the secular State. Despite its anti-American ideology, Islamic fundamentalism was largely serving Washington’s strategic interests in the former Soviet Union.

Following the withdrawal of Soviet troops in 1989, the civil war in Afghanistan continued unabated. The Taliban were being supported by the Pakistani Deobandis and their political party, the Jamiat-ul-Ulema-e-Islam (JUI). In 1993, JUI entered the government coalition of Prime Minister Benazzir Bhutto. Ties between JUI, the Army, and ISI were established. In 1995, with the downfall of the Hezb-I-Islami Hekmatyar government in Kabul, the Taliban not only instated a hardline Islamic government, they also “handed control of training camps in Afghanistan over to JUI factions”. [17]

And the JUI with the support of the Saudi Wahhabi movements played a key role in recruiting volunteers to fight in the Balkans and the former Soviet Union.

Jane Defense Weekly confirms in this regard that “half of Taliban manpower and equipment originate[d] in Pakistan under the ISI”. [18]

In fact, it would appear that, following the Soviet withdrawal, both sides in the Afghan civil war continued to receive covert support through Pakistan’s ISI. [19]

In other words, backed by Pakistan’s military intelligence (ISI) which in turn was controlled by the CIA, the Taliban Islamic State was largely serving American geopolitical interests. The Golden Crescent drug trade was also being used to finance and equip the Bosnian Muslim Army (starting in the early 1990s) and the Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA). In the last few months there is evidence that Mujahideen mercenaries are fighting in the ranks of KLA-NLA terrorists in their assaults into Macedonia.

No doubt, this explains why Washington has closed its eyes on the reign of terror imposed by the Taliban—including the blatant derogation of women’s rights, the closing down of schools for girls, the dismissal of women employees from government offices, and the enforcement of “the Sharia laws of punishment”. [20]

The War In Chechnya

With regard to Chechnya, the main rebel leaders Shamil Basayev and Al Khattab were trained and indoctrinated in CIA-sponsored camps in Afghanistan and Pakistan. According to Yossef Bodansky, director of the U.S. Congress's Task Force on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare, the war in Chechnya had been planned during a secret summit of HizbAllah International held in 1996 in Mogadishu, Somalia. [21] The summit was attended by Osama bin Laden and high-ranking Iranian and Pakistani intelligence officers. In this regard, the involvement of Pakistan's ISI in Chechnya "goes far beyond supplying the Chechens with weapons and expertise: the ISI and its radical Islamic proxies are actually calling the shots in this war". [22]

RUSSIA'S MAIN PIPELINE ROUTE TRANSITS THROUGH CHECHNYA AND DAGESTAN. DESPITE WASHINGTON'S PERFUNCTORY CONDEMNATION OF ISLAMIC TERRORISM, THE INDIRECT BENEFICIARIES OF THE CHECHEN WAR ARE THE ANGLO-AMERICAN OIL CONGLOMERATES WHICH ARE VYING FOR CONTROL OVER OIL RESOURCES AND PIPELINE CORRIDORS OUT OF THE CASPIAN SEA BASIN.

The two main Chechen rebel armies (respectively led by Commander Shamil Basayev and Emir Khattab) estimated at 35,000 strong were supported by Pakistan's ISI, which also played a key role in organizing and training the Chechen rebel army:

"[In 1994] the Pakistani Inter Services Intelligence arranged for Basayev and his trusted lieutenants to undergo intensive Islamic indoctrination and training in guerrilla warfare in the Khost province of Afghanistan, at Amir Muawia camp, set up in the early 1980s by the CIA and ISI and run by famous Afghani warlord Gulbuddin Hekmatyar. In July 1994, upon graduating from Amir Muawia, Basayev was transferred to Markaz-i-Dawar camp in Pakistan to undergo training in advanced guerrilla tactics. In Pakistan, Basayev met the highest ranking Pakistani military and intelligence officers: Minister of Defense General Aftab Shahban Mirani, Minister of Interior General Naserullah Babar, and the head of the ISI branch in charge of supporting Islamic causes, General Javed Ashraf (all now retired). High-level connections soon proved very useful to Basayev." [23]

Following his training and indoctrination stint, Basayev was assigned to lead the assault against Russian federal troops in the first Chechen war in 1995. His organization had also developed extensive links to criminal syndicates in Moscow, as well as ties to Albanian organized crime and the Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA). In 1997-98, according to Russia's Federal Security Service (FSB) "Chechen warlords started buying up real estate in Kosovo ... through several real estate firms registered as a cover in Yugoslavia". [24]

Basayev's organisation has also been involved in a number of rackets including narcotics, illegal tapping and sabotage of Russia's oil pipelines, kidnapping, prostitution, trade in counterfeit dollars and the smuggling of nuclear materials. (See "Mafia linked to Albania's collapsed pyramids. [25]) Alongside the extensive laundering of drug money, the proceeds of various illicit activities have been funneled towards the recruitment of mercenaries and the purchase of weapons.

During his training in Afghanistan, Shamil Basayev linked up with Saudi born veteran Mujahideen Commander "Al Khattab" who had fought as a volunteer in Afghanistan. Barely a few months after Basayev's return to Grozny, Khattab was invited (early 1995) to set up an army base in Chechnya for the training of Mujahideen fighters. According to the BBC, Khattab's posting to Chechnya had been "arranged through the Saudi-Arabian based [International] Islamic Relief Organisation, a militant religious organisation funded by mosques and rich individuals, which channeled funds into Chechnya". [26]

Concluding Remarks

Since the Cold War era, Washington has consciously supported Osama bin Laden, while at the same time placing him on the FBI's "most wanted list" as the world's foremost terrorist.

While the Mujahideen are busy fighting America's war in the Balkans and the former Soviet Union, the FBI—operating as a US-based Police Force—is waging a domestic war against terrorism, operating in some respects independently of the CIA, which has—since the Soviet-Afghan war—supported international terrorism through its covert operations.

In a cruel irony, while the Islamic jihad—featured by the Bush Administration as "a threat to America"—is blamed for the terrorist assaults on the World Trade Centre and the Pentagon, these same Islamic organisations constitute a key instrument of US military intelligence operations in the Balkans and the former Soviet Union.

In the wake of the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington, the truth must prevail to prevent the Bush Administration, together with its NATO partners, from embarking upon a military adventure which threatens the future of humanity.

Endnotes

1. Hugh Davies, "International 'Informers' point the finger at bin Laden; Washington on alert for suicide bombers", The Daily Telegraph, London, 24 August 1998.

2. See Fred Halliday, "The Un-great game: the Country that Lost the Cold War, Afghanistan", New Republic, 25 March 1996):

3. Ahmed Rashid, "The Taliban: Exporting Extremism", Foreign Affairs, November-December 1999.

4. Steve Coll, Washington Post, July 19, 1992.

5. Dilip Hiro, "Fallout from the Afghan Jihad", Inter Press Services, 21 November 1995.

6. Weekend Sunday (National Public Radio); Eric Weiner, Ted Clark; 16 August 1998.

7. Ibid.

8. Dipankar Banerjee, "Possible Connection of ISI With Drug Industry", India Abroad, 2 December 1994.

9. Ibid.

10. See Diego Cordovez and Selig Harrison, Out of Afghanistan: The Inside Story of the Soviet Withdrawal, Oxford University Press, New York, 1995. See also the review of Cordovez and Harrison in International Press Services, 22 August 1995.

11. Alfred McCoy, "Drug fallout: the CIA's Forty Year Complicity in the Narcotics Trade", The Progressive; 1 August 1997.

12. Ibid.

13. Ibid.

14. Douglas Keh, "Drug Money in a Changing World", Technical Document No. 4, 1998, Vienna UNDCP, p. 4. See also Report of the International Narcotics Control Board for 1999, E/INCB/1999/1 United Nations Publication, Vienna 1999, p. 49-51; And Richard Lapper, "UN Fears Growth of Heroin Trade", Financial Times, 24 February 2000.

15. Report of the International Narcotics Control Board, op cit, p. 49-51, see also Richard Lapper, op. cit.

16. International Press Services, 22 August 1995.

17. Ahmed Rashid, "The Taliban: Exporting Extremism", Foreign Affairs, November-December, 1999, p.22.

18. Quoted in the Christian Science Monitor, 3 September 1998.

19. Tim McGirk, "Kabul learns to live with its bearded conquerors", The Independent, London, 6 November 1996.

20. See K. Subrahmanyam, "Pakistan is Pursuing Asian Goals", India Abroad, 3 November 1995.

21. Levon Sevunts, "Who's calling the shots? Chechen conflict finds Islamic roots in Afghanistan and Pakistan", The Gazette, Montreal, 26 October 1999.

22. Ibid.

23. Ibid.

24. See Vitaly Romanov and Viktor Yadukha, "Chechen Front Moves To Kosovo Segodnia", Moscow, 23 Feb 2000.

25. The European, 13 February 1997. See also Itar-Tass, 4-5 January 2000.

26. BBC, 29 September 1999.

(The website address for this article is: <http://globalresearch.ca/articles/CHO109C.html>)

Copyright Michel Chossudovsky, Montreal, September 2001. All rights reserved. Permission is granted to post this text on non-commercial community internet sites, provided the source and the URL are indicated, the essay remains intact, and the copyright note is displayed. To publish this text in printed and/or other forms, including commercial internet sites and excerpts, contact the author at chossudovsky@videotron.ca, fax: 1-514-425-6224.)

As if the greedy manipulations being played by money-hungry oil and drug "industrialists" is not draining enough, as a kind of parasitic infection preying upon a largely unsuspecting society-body, consider the direct game of "selling the US down the river" being played by high-ups in our own US military who, likewise, know all too well that "terrorism" is very good business—for their own bank accounts. You say it can't be so?

Our next essay is from Al Martin, who is as refreshingly irreverent as he is (according to his own claims) America's foremost whistle-blower on government fraud and corruption. A retired U.S. Navy Lt. Commander and former officer in the Office of Naval Intelligence, he has testified before Congress (the Kerry Committee and the Alexander Committee) regarding Iran-Contra. Al Martin is the author of the revealing book The Conspirators: Secrets Of An Iran-Contra Insider (2001, National Liberty Press, $19.95; order line: 1-866-317-1390). He lives at an undisclosed location, since the criminals named in his book have been returned to national power and prominence. His column "Behind The Scenes In The Beltway" is published regularly at www.almartinraw.com on the Al Martin Raw: Criminal Gov't Conspiracy Internet website.

Consider well the implications of what Al has to report here and weigh this information against the "holier than Thou" picture you are being fed through the major print and broadcast media's baloney machine concerning our US military's "war" on "terrorist" activities. It might be surprising to learn who plays a big part in cultivating this cash cow—with the blessings and incentives of those behind-the-scenes manipulators much higher up David Icke's pyramid of power.

U.S. State Department Sponsors Training Of Would-Be Terrorists

9/15/01 AL MARTIN

(www.almartinraw.com/column33.html)

Huntsville, Alabama—The U.S. State Department sponsors the training of would-be terrorists at the Redstone Arsenal's Hazardous Devices School, which offers "explosive ordinance disposal training".

This is the most exclusive explosives school in the United States. It's where firemen, policemen, and municipal bomb squads are trained. It also provides training for the U.S. armed forces, FBI, CIA, as well as foreign army and intelligence personnel. This is the most elite of the munitions schools in the United States, and it's part of the Redstone Arsenal complex.

This facility is not run by the U.S. Army or by the military. It is technically run by U.S. State Department employee Ray Funderberg, who's been covertly in charge of it for about twenty years. An added note: although Funderberg works for the State Department, he dresses in a U.S. Army Colonel's uniform. Official records indicate that he supposedly works for the FBI.

According to a reliable source, one of the Iranians involved in the bombing of the World Trade Center in New York took training courses at the Redstone Arsenal's school of explosives. He enrolled in this course under the guise of a Pakistani military officer with Pakistani uniform and credentials. This is important to note because Al Martin Raw has previously reported that many hostile nations have a visible presence at the U.S. Redstone Arsenal. Evidently "terrorists" as well as regular armed forces and intelligence officers are also being "trained" at the Redstone Arsenal.

In other news, five new shipments of "marshmallows" (anti-personnel land mines) have left the Redstone Arsenal. And this week the Friendly Colonel is once again doing business under the "Gulf Coast Trucking and Receiving" moniker.

An inside source wants the Friendly Colonel to provide the State Department employment forms necessary to bring more people in. One of the arms merchants has a deal with the Russians to bring Palestinians into this explosives training program.

For instance, Palestinians would be brought in—technically as members of the Chinese (Taiwan) Army, even though they are Palestinians. They would hardly pass as "Chinese", but since nobody cares, it's a done deal. Al Martin Raw readers should understand that no one asks any questions about anything at the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama.

In fact, there are two Palestinians being trained there now in "explosives". As mentioned before, none of them are who they appear to be. It's all just convenience for paperwork. In case the Redstone Arsenal gets investigated, they will claim "No, these people are legitimate; here's the paperwork."

Suddenly an Afghani guy named Mohammed Habib winds up being a Colonel Sven Larssen in the Swedish Army. This is an actual case. And it shows just how ridiculous it is.

This deception at the Hazardous Devices School is really another School of Americas story. The Friendly Colonel is being offered a $12,000 fee per person to fill out the appropriate State Department documents to allow people into the United States on green cards for short stays—30, 60, 90 day stays—and to enlist foreign nationals into this program. What they're doing is using this program as a cover to bring people in to be trained at the explosives school. The U.S. State Department is actually conspiring with foreign arms merchants and the governments they represent to allow hostile foreign nationals to come to the United States using false documents to be trained at this facility.

They're asking the Friendly Colonel if he would "hire" these people as "trucking agents". (See previous story "Marshmallow Business Is Booming".) To make this offer even more appealing, the Colonel is guaranteed that "there will be no heat"—because the U.S. State Department is complicit. This is a standing offer to him from the State Department—to provide false documents for these foreign nationals for $12,000 each.

Aiding in this enormous illegal covert operation of the United States Government, the Colonel expects to make a million dollars by this time next year.

It is our opinion that these illicit operations at the Redstone Arsenal and adjoining facilities (U.S. Missile Command, etc.) now exceed the volumes of money and egregious conduct of Iran-Contra itself. Now there are thousands of people involved, making millions of dollars.

At lunch, the brigadier general and others involved were all licking their chops at the new F-22 Raptor program. They can't wait for that to get scaled up. There will be many Chinese arms merchants who will supply fraudulent spare parts that don't work, as usual. They're looking at this program as "a fresh source to defraud more billions" with the Department of Defense, with the complicity of senior officers, through a complex offshore network of arms dealers—not only foreign arms dealers, but cutouts for American corporations that are producing components and systems for this aircraft.

The bottom line is that we are training individuals and foreign military personnel

"You need only reflect that one of the best ways to get yourself a reputation as a dangerous citizen these days is to go about repeating the very phrases which our Founding Fathers used in the great struggle for independence."

— Charles Austin Beard (1874-1948)

who are hostile to the United States.

Al Martin Raw readers should also understand how the fraud is systemic, how the fraud is all inter-connected, and how conspiratorial the fraud is, namely that it's all being controlled by an elite group who runs through foreign governments, the Department of Defense, and defense contractors.

Their agenda is clear—terrorism is good for business.

Terrorism pumps up everybody's budgets, especially defense, law enforcement, interdiction, etc.

As long as we can keep "foreign terrorism" alive, everyone benefits—the Department of Defense, the CIA, Department of State, the National Security Agency, and many others. They can all ask for more money in their budgets by pointing to the "terrorists". We are, in effect, augmenting that threat, making sure it stays alive and healthy, so that federal agencies can be funded with ever-increasing amounts of money, especially those agencies that do not have to account for the expenditures of those monies.

They don't have to account for the missing monies because, even if they're nominally supposed to account for their budgets, they don't. Witness the missing $1.1 trillion from the Department of Defense (See "Rumsfeld Inherits Financial Mess".)

The brigadier general who's in charge was actually concerned because he and his associates (higher-ranking generals in the Department of Defense, who are committing these frauds) have been notified by the foreign banks where they have deposits that their deposits have grown to such enormous amounts of money that they are unmanageable. They are being asked to transfer their money into other offshore illicit accounts. Some of the banks they're doing business with are very small and obscure offshore banks that simply cannot handle such enormous flows of money.

But you can understand the enormity of the fraud, when you're talking about TRILLIONS of dollars. This fraud is deep and systemic, and involves a conspiracy of thousands of high ranking military officers, high ranking State Department officials, Department of Justice officials, CIA, National Security Agency officials, etc., and their "foreign counterparts".

This is the "Very Real, Vast, Right-Wing Conspiracy" which has never been called to accounting.

Now the Russians are coming on board with the ABM missile treaty. It can be predicted that the Russians will drop their objections to our development of an ABM system in exchange for advanced U.S. military technology, with which, by the way, we are already supplying the Russians and covertly rearming them. That was just an offer on the table, yet we are already supplying the Russians with U.S. highly advanced technology. Like the notorious School of Americas which trained foreign nationals in American torture, interrogation, and warfare techniques, the U.S. State Department trains "terrorists".

In the final analysis, though, nothing is new. The United States Government has covertly sponsored these activities in the past, especially during "Iran-Contra" and "Iraq-Gate". We virtually built the Iraqi military, and there are many past correlations. For instance, the U.S. did not stop supplying Iraq with illegal weapons systems until three days before the beginning of the Gulf War.

During "Iran-Contra" the U.S. allowed the Sandinista regime to deal in narcotics so they could generate revenues to purchase more East Bloc weapons in order to become a greater threat to the U.S. so we could counter that threat by building the Contra Army in which all sorts of fraud against the American taxpayers, corporations, security firms, and banks could be hidden.

It is interesting to note that the Sandinista regime used two of the same companies to purchase weapons for the Contras as well as the Sandinistas. These companies were TransWorld Armaments Corporation, based in Quebec City and owned by the infamous Immanuel von Weigensburg, and Defcon Industries of Lisbon, Portugal, a CIA-controlled arms merchant cutout also controlled by Major General Richard V. Secord, as noted in the famous Lake Resources lawsuit (United States v. Richard Secord, cv 1202-A, 1991, Eastern District Court of Virginia). (See my book The Conspirators: Secrets Of An Iran-Contra Insider.)

Iraq-Gate and Iran-Contra are perfect examples of how similar these two operations are, compared to what's going on now. We are creating an enemy and we are also supporting existing enemies for the purpose of enriching a small clique of defense contractors, senior military and intelligence officers, and politicians on the right. We are financing terrorism against us, as well as attempting to rebuild Russia, and then build China into a new power under the concept that covert wars are very profitable.

The "Fight Against Terrorism" has done an awful lot for the Republican Party. And it has enriched a lot of people and corporations.

The drumbeat against "terrorism" continues, full speed ahead.

UPDATE: WORLD TRADE CENTER
BOMBING, September 11, 2001

A special State Department Internal Security team from the political liability control office was inserted quickly after the incident into the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama.

The Demolition School has been shut down, and they are shredding documents as we speak.

As a matter of fact, they have made an emergency request to the Department of Defense for more shredders.

According to the general on the scene, the way the Feds are handling the situation is that the Redstone Arsenal is now "locked-up tighter than a bull's ass in fly season". And there is a mass shredding party going on.

This guy Funderberg has been moved to an undisclosed location, so the media can't find him. And everybody at the Redstone Arsenal who wore a towel on their heads isn't there anymore. According to an on-the-scene report, the towelheads are reported to be lying low.

Let's now briefly monitor two recent, insightful radio interviews with always controversial economist and longtime presidential candidate Lyndon LaRouche. This perennial "world watcher" has MANY insider connections. He was first interviewed on WGIR-AM radio, New Hampshire, on September 12, 2001; the host is Woody Woodland:

What LaRouche Says In Radio Interviews

9/12/01 LYNDON LAROUCHE

WOODLAND: Now, we were scheduled to have Lyndon LaRouche, longtime presidential candidate, on with us today, to talk economics, but we're going to talk something else. Mr. LaRouche, thanks for being with us for a few minutes here.

LAROUCHE: Good to be with you.

WOODLAND: Tell me, you are a man who has travelled over the entire world, and spent lots of time overseas. What can you tell us about the possible people behind this terrorism activity? We're all hearing this Osama bin Laden, I think mostly because we don't know any other names. What do you think about this?

LAROUCHE: That's right. This is NOT a terrorist operation. This is a covert, strategic, special-operations operation, which has characteristic similarities to the militia operation against the Oklahoma City center some years ago.

WOODLAND: Are you saying that this might have been some people within our own country?

LAROUCHE: In part, it had to be people within our own country. Look at some of the facts of the matter. I got on this case, of course, just about quarter after nine, yesterday morning, when I was on with Jack Stockwell.

WOODLAND: Out in Salt Lake City, right?

LAROUCHE: Right. And we put this on the website, so people can see exactly, more or less, a transcription degree of accuracy, what Jack and I discussed, with others.

WOODLAND: What is that website?

LAROUCHE: That is my website; we put it on www.larouchepub.com and I think it has also gone on my campaign website; if it has not gone there yet, it will be there soon.

WOODLAND: Okay.

LAROUCHE: So, we had this discussion, and I must say that, looking back on it, a little more than a day later, I didn't say anything wrong, I didn't get anything wrong. I was taken by surprise, in a sense, but not surprised by the fact of this, nor was I surprised by the fact that it was primarily a domestic, covert, special operation, by people with very high-grade military special-operations backgrounds. It could NOT have happened otherwise.

WOODLAND: Now, what would be the goal of such people, if that's the case, as opposed to Mideastern terrorists?

LAROUCHE: To create a simulated "Pearl Harbor effect" to get the United States to go to war against nations in the Middle East.

WOODLAND: Well, my judgment is, I think this was an act of war against the United States by somebody, but it doesn't seem to be by a specific nation. I mean, there may be some nations, if it is Mideastern terrorists, there may be some nations that have sheltered these folks—

[Editor's aside here: Any of you who have been monitoring talk radio programs since this tragedy began to unfold have noticed PLENTY of examples of the above "running scared" posture of the talk-show hosts. Even Art Bell's late-night talk-radio program—which has been frequently missing Art due to supposed "medical" reasons while he is apparently healthy enough to spend plenty of hours chatting privately on ham (shortwave) radio—has seen the guest hosts get very nervous and quickly ridicule or simply cut-off any caller who expresses views different than the "party line" propaganda being dished out by the regular media. So we have to give this radio station management some extra credit here for at least trying to break the hold of the controllers!]

LAROUCHE: No!

WOODLAND: You don't believe that?

LAROUCHE: Take Osama bin Laden. He was created by the U.S., British, and Israeli intelligence services, as a part of the so-called Afghan operations. He still is a controlled asset of those interests, which are largely buried in the special covert-operations section. Now, of course, obviously, our military, top military, had nothing to do with this. [So he says.] But there are people who are "off the reservation" as we saw reflected in the Oklahoma City bombing, and there are people off the reservations who are used, who are deniable.

WOODLAND: Well now, who are the people though, who would—I mean, are you saying these people are domestic terrorists in the United States?

LAROUCHE: No, they're not terrorists.

These are not terrorists. They may terrify people, but they are not terrorists. That is, the idea that this is an international terrorist operation is utter nonsense, and it's very dangerous to go looking for the wrong adversary, and ignore the right one.

The point is, there are certain people, very powerful people, behind the scenes in various governments: the British government, the U.S. government, the Israeli government—not Sharon, I don't think Sharon would have had anything to do with this—but, who are determined to have the United States take the nature of the conflict between certain people in Israel and the surrounding neighbors, and use that to involve the United States in a geopolitical conflict in the Middle East. And some of the reaction of the suckers, including the President of the United States, who doesn't really know too much, who was pushed in that direction yesterday.

WOODLAND: So you're not buying the conventional wisdom here, as to this being Osama bin Laden, or anyone else?

LAROUCHE: I doubt that there's any wisdom behind the people who think so. I think the point is, anybody who understands—look, there were certain features of these developments yesterday which immediately attracted all of our attention. I had over the, since then, since yesterday morning, I've been reaching out to old, high-level military and intelligence people around the world, including Russia, as well as Western Europe and elsewhere, and we put together, from the U.S. side, and from these areas, a very good cross-check picture of what happened. It could not happen [as described by the media]. Look, the United States could not have done that to the Soviet Union during the high point of the conflict of the Cold War. We didn't have the capability to do to the Soviet Union [then] what was done to us yesterday.

WOODLAND: I'm sorry we have to run, but I appreciate hearing from you. Maybe we'll talk for a longer time soon. So, thank you, sir.

LAROUCHE: Okay, good.

WOODLAND: All right. That's Lyndon LaRouche. That's a different view, but he usually does.

* * *

[This next excerpt is from an interview on Canadian radio station CFRB in Toronto on the same day-after, September 12, 2001. The tape for transcription begins in mid-sentence.]

LAROUCHE (mid-sentence): ...and contacts I have around the world, as well as in the United States. You know, years ago I was on anti-terrorism activities, and the S-I, [probably SDI, Strategic Defense Initiative] and similar things. So I have a lot of old friends who are very well-placed, and [have] very good judgment.

What the picture that has come through is, is this: that what happened to the United States yesterday was not an act of terrorism in the conventional sense of terrorism, but was a covert strategic operation, with a strategic purpose, which was principally based, as a statement by John Ashcroft, the Attorney General, has tended to confirm, by personnel inside the United States.

In other words, we're looking at something which has some aspects of the Oklahoma City bombing some years ago. That there were people inside the United States, including people who were willing to go to suicide, who were willing to fly planes in the way they flew them, with a high degree of military skill. You don't pick this up by practicing with Lear jets in a private airport.

And the thing was done very meticulously, very precisely. Four planes were involved. There's an indicated targetting of the White House, which has been referred to. My information coincides with that, that the Pentagon blow was originally aimed at the White House.

So, what we have here, is somebody is playing strategic games with this so-called special warfare, special operations capabilities, which uses primarily U.S. nationals, but may have international collaboration and various kinds of sheep-dipping. Furthermore, when I go through the whole list of things that happened, as I said earlier today, what happened to the United States yesterday, is something that the United States, with all its power, could not have done to the Soviet Union during the period of the Cold War.

So there's no little country, off there in East Podunk, which has done this. The responsibility lies with a very capable machine inside the United States itself. There might be other factors, but that's the thing we have to worry about. And this is not necessarily the end of the problem.

OAKLEY: Let's work backwards, then, as they do. Again, criminal investigations always wonder: well, who benefits? Who's got the motive and the methodology or the resources to pull this off? If we were to work from that perspective, whose bidding could this possibly have been, and to what end?

LAROUCHE: Well, you get in a situation, in history, when you have major crises, or you're on the edge of a war—major financial crises, a financial breakdown crisis, where people with great power, or some of them, lose their nerve. And they get the idea of setting up a dictatorship.

Now, we had a case of that in Germany in 1933, where Hermann Goering used a dupe, this von der Lubbe (phonetic), to set fire to the Reichstag. And Goering and company moved on the basis of the burning of the Reichstag, to set up a dictatorship, immediately, under Hitler. And Hitler was not nominally in a secure position at that point.

Let's rephrase the above words (in bold) to say that those near the top of David Icke's pyramid of power are beginning to feel a bit panicky about keeping their hold over us, and so engineer a truly dramatic "event" (or series of events) to reaffirm, and even advance, that control through the well-known mind-control mechanism of emotional shock. And LaRouche is unshakably emphatic about this tragedy being an "inside" job. With that in mind, consider the following interview by an organization called Top_View, posted by Robert Sterling, Editor of a publication called The Konformist (www.konformist.com). We are well aware that information such as the following stretches the bounds of verifiability—which suggests it is either very serious disinformation or very serious Truth. You decide, in conjunction with all of the other data offered within these pages and elsewhere.

“The Enemy Is Very Much Within”

9/13/01 TOP-VIEW

Air Force Intelligence Source: Pro-Bush Government Factions “Absolutely” Behind Tuesday's Mass Devastation!

“The enemy is very much within”

TOP_VIEW has just conducted a brief yet immeasurably important phone interview—set up by a trusted and totally reliable intermediary already known to us—with an Air Force Reserve intelligence specialist.

The interview was carried out this evening, over two days after the incredible death and devastation that took place in New York City and Washington DC.

Our Air Force source told us his superiors had activated him at about 10 AM Tuesday morning.

He absolutely refused to permit us to record the conversation, even though he was speaking into some kind of electronic gizmo that substantially altered the sound of his voice, making him sound like Darth Vader with a serious chest cold. Some portions of his statements were unintelligible, and he refused to repeat several of these.

Although this source was somewhat taciturn and close-lipped, for the most part he was cooperative in terms of giving us enough time to transcribe what he was saying. Overall what is stated plainly and unequivocally is of absolutely paramount importance for every single person in this nation and the world—certainly among those of us who value our inalienable human rights and liberties and want them to remain unimpaired, unabrogated, and unabridged.

TOP_VIEW: We'd like to hear what you have to say about the events on Tuesday. First of all, I assume you have knowledge of the events that goes above and beyond what the public is being told by the media and the government?

INTEL SOURCE: That's quite correct.

TOP_VIEW: Can you—are you able and willing to relay this information to us?

INTEL SOURCE: Well, that depends. Some of it. You're going to publish this?

TOP_VIEW: On the Internet.

INTEL SOURCE: It's essential that nothing which could possibly be used to identify myself or XXX [our intermediary] is made public.

TOP_VIEW: We totally understand. Completely. That's exactly how it will be, and—

INTEL SOURCE: You've known XXX a long time?

TOP_VIEW: For about 6 years, sir.

INTEL SOURCE: So he'll vouch for you? (Chuckles) Fire away.

TOP_VIEW: Well, it's becoming increasingly clear that certain federal government sectors had prior knowledge of the destruction carried out on Tuesday. Would you concur with this?

INTEL SOURCE: (unintelligible)

TOP_VIEW: Excuse me? I didn't understand you.

INTEL SOURCE: Never mind.

TOP_VIEW: Is it true that our government knew what was going to happen?

INTEL SOURCE: You could say that. Actually there are certain (pause) groups in our government who pretty much ran the whole show.

TOP_VIEW: Are you saying that there was cooperation and collaboration between elements of our government and the perpetrators?

INTEL SOURCE: No. What I'm saying is that these groups [within the federal government] WERE the perpetrators of the action, right down the line from top to bottom.

TOP_VIEW: This is really incredibly shocking, what you're saying here. Did I understand correctly that you say elements of the federal government were the prime force behind these so-called terrorist attacks Tuesday?

INTEL SOURCE: That's correct. Absolutely.

TOP_VIEW: God, what a horrifying thing to come to grips with! What is your feeling about this, sir, and exactly why are you even talking to us about this? Are you positive about what you're saying?

INTEL SOURCE: (laughs) What should I answer first? I would never make this kind of statement without being fully certain it was factual. My own feeling is that it's completely sickening. It's repugnant and unacceptable and I'm completely opposed to what was done. But it's true and we all have to deal with it. There are forces within our government who are

c o m p l e t e l y determined to change the structure of our society at the most basic level, and these are the kind of things they're going to be doing to make sure that [fundamental changes in our society] happens.

TOP_VIEW: What's going on in the military right now with regard to what's occurred? Do many military higher-ups know this, and if so, what's their position?

INTEL SOURCE: (unintelligible)

TOP_VIEW: Excuse me?

INTEL SOURCE: I said some do know and some don't. Some wouldn't believe it, just like many citizens wouldn't believe it. There are certainly lots of conflicts going on at the upper levels of the military right now between people aware of the true facts.

TOP_VIEW: What about yourself?

INTEL SOURCE: I consider myself to be a patriotic American who believes strongly in the Constitution. I'll do whatever is in my power to uphold and defend those principles, and so will many others.

TOP_VIEW: Well that's something I wanted to get to. The primary motivation for an atrocity of this magnitude would seem to be to soften up the country for some serious curtailment of civil liberties, in the name of protecting us from such “terrorist” attacks. I've likened it to Hitler's burning of the Reichstag in Germany.

INTEL SOURCE: That's a good comparison. (Unintelligible) . . . one of the main reasons the action was carried out Tuesday. There's also other agendas having to do with control of the Middle East oil fields, and things related to that.

TOP_VIEW: Well, are people such as yourself in any way prepared to, or able to, oppose these forces?

INTEL SOURCE: Speaking for myself, I'd say there's a lot I'm prepared to do and will do. Speaking to you is one of those things. And there are many more like me.

TOP_VIEW: Now, how does the attack on the Pentagon figure into this whole thing?

INTEL SOURCE: I can't discuss that at all.

TOP_VIEW: Can you, sometime in the future?

"Conveniently ignored in all of the press coverage since the tragic events of September 11 is the fact that on May 17 Secretary of State Colin Powell announced a gift of $43 million to the Taliban as a purported reward for its eradication of Afghanistan's opium crop this February. That, in effect, made the U.S. the Taliban's largest financial benefactor, according to syndicated columnist Robert Scheer, writing in the Los Angeles Times on May 22, 2001."

— Michael C. Ruppert, From The Wilderness, September 18 edition.

INTEL SOURCE: Maybe. I think I'll need to sign off here soon.

TOP_VIEW: Is there anything else in particular you'd care to say, any advice or whatever?

INTEL SOURCE: I'd say that our way of life is facing the biggest threat in our history, and the enemy is very much within. VERY MUCH WITHIN.

TOP_VIEW: So it boils down to, what happened on Tuesday was an inside job?

INTEL SOURCE: Absolutely. All the way down the line and to a much higher level than most of you could ever imagine. There's a very intense struggle going on within our government like I said.

TOP_VIEW: It's a struggle we're all involved in, sir.

INTEL SOURCE: That's quite true.

TOP_VIEW: It seems very clear to me that the Bush administration was way involved in the attacks. Would that be correct? They obviously want to bring about the exact kind of fundamental social restructuring that you mentioned.

INTEL SOURCE: It's a good bet. Right now, it's best we cut this short.

TOP_VIEW: Good night and thank you very much for speaking with us.

This concluded our short but vastly significant interview with a patriotic Air Force intelligence officer.

Folks, we've heard it from the proverbial horse's mouth. Americans are in the most critical struggle in our entire history, and the enemy is a deceptive, malevolent, and indeed demonic force deeply ensconced within the very fabric and structure of our federal government, and which also infests even our news and information sources, our entertainment, our schools and workplaces, and many other aspects of our life and our society.

As our source stated:

"THE ENEMY IS VERY MUCH WITHIN!"

The following surprise for The SPECTRUM expands on the above message and points a finger in the same direction as LaRouche did a bit earlier when he said:

"The point is, there are certain people, very powerful people, behind the scenes in various governments: the British government, the U.S. government, the Israeli government ... who are determined to have the United States take the nature of the conflict between certain people in Israel and the surrounding neighbors, and use that to involve the United States in a geopolitical conflict in the Middle East."

What follows is a special, unexpected contribution to The SPECTRUM from the "grandfather" of Truth scholarship, Eustace Mullins—longtime, well-respected (and otherwise persecuted) researcher and author of five of the most well-documented, controversial, and hard-hitting volumes ever published on the crooks in high places and how they have long controlled world affairs to conform to their own agenda.

Though his books are CONSTANTLY in demand, like the rest of us who bring Truth he is poor and has no monetary resources with which to reprint these fine manuscripts. For those of you unfamiliar with his classic research works, they include:

•THE CURSE OF CANAAN: A Demonology Of History,

• MURDER BY INJECTION: The Story Of The Medical Conspiracy Against America,

• THE WORLD ORDER: Our Secret Rulers,

• THE SECRETS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE, and

• RAPE OF JUSTICE: America's Tribunals Exposed.

We are delighted and honored that Eustace chose to share the following writing with us, in turn to share with you who read and support this conduit of Truth.

The Terror In America

9/17/01 EUSTACE MULLINS

On Tuesday morning, September 11, 2001, terror came to America in the form of planes guided by suicide pilots, who steered them into the World Trade Center in New York, and the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. This was the second attack, and much deadlier, than the bombing of the World Trade Center in 1993, which even the New York Times admitted was largely orchestrated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, acting on orders of the Israeli Intelligence Agency, Mossad.

The date is significant—September, the ninth month, and the eleventh day, signaling 911, a signal of distress. The location is even more significant, Washington and New York.

The tiny nation of Israel is situated among one and a half billion Arabs, who presumably could destroy it at will. Yet Arab terrorists, intent on destroying Israel, ignore it, bypassing it to attack the United States. The seemingly incomprehensible strategy is based on political reality.

Israel exists, on a daily basis, only because of military, political, and financial aid from United States taxpayers. On September 4, 2001, the United States fled from the World Conference Against Racism at Durban, South Africa, leaving Israel to face a torrent of world criticism because of the brutal genocide which the Zionists were practicing against the Palestinians, using American guns and bullets to slaughter the almost defenseless Palestinian civilians.

On the morning of September 9, 2001, two prominent Congressmen appeared on two Sunday morning television talk shows. Each of them stated that the United States' continued support of Israel needed to be re-examined, and reduced, because of the enormous financial costs and political liability for America.

In the face of such peril, Israel has always responded quickly and decisively, with bold action to ensure continued United States support. The bombing of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon instantly united all Americans in insensate hatred of the Arab peoples and complete support of the State of Israel. It was the most brilliant and effective stroke of public relations in history, and could never have been achieved by any less decisive and brutal means.

The American government and press united in slogans of the new crisis, repeating the slogans "American Under Attack", "America At War", "America On Alert", and "America's New War", and, most effective, "America United". These slogans were hammered into the consciousness of the American people twenty-four hours a day by incessant repetition in the media.

Only two emotions were shown by the American people—hatred of the Arabs, and total support for Israel. Dateline television revealed the name of the enemy, Osama bin Laden, repeating officials' claims of "more confirmation that Osama bin Laden is at the head of the list of suspects". Note that no evidence was offered of bin Laden's guilt. However, President Bush called for his head, "dead or alive", and many American officials called for adoption of the Israeli policy of assassination, which is forbidden by United States law.

At the same time, Bush piously claimed this was not meant to arouse hatred against Muslims as a religious group, while announcing plans to invade and destroy "terrorist" areas in 34 countries. These terrorists, of course, were Arab, and required a worldwide assault against Arab nations, arousing a suspicion that not only was World War III being set up, but that its outcome might be the takeover of Arab oil interests by a "United Nations" agency.

The months of planning which went into the September 11 attack, the split-second precision with which planes were dispatched to their targets by suicide pilots, and the longterm coordination of the attack, indicated not Arabs, not Americans, but Mossad planning. Only the Mossad is capable of creating, planning, and carrying out such a well orchestrated assault, and of instantly achieving its objective—continued and total support of Israel by the entire people of the United States. The attack occurred at a crucial moment for Israel, when its economy was in shambles, when it faced the most intense public criticism for its brutal policies and genocide of the Arab peoples.

The world's largest newspaper, the Wall

Street Journal, on the morning of September 12, 2001, called for war. A leading Zionist propagandist, published by the billionaire Dow-Jones Corporation, and edited for years by Zionist apologist Norm Pearlstein, the Journal is Israel's most influential worldwide propagandist and was chosen to lead the new War Party in the United States.

This development was welcomed by the military-industrial complex. President Bush's father had led the 1990 assault on Iraq, after a Mossad-engineered war of eight years between Iran and Iraq had failed to collapse both of these Arab nations. The Desert War's leaders miraculously reappeared in Washington as President Bush's cabinet—Cheney, Rumsfeld, and a host of retreads from the Desert War, also called Desert Storm.

The Wall Street Journal lead editorial of September 12, 2001, was headlined: "A Terrorist Pearl Harbor". It noted that the United States had endured a second Pearl Harbor, but failed to go into the implications of this term.

The 1941 Pearl Harbor was the result of many months of provocation by the United States to force Japan into attacking it, including seizing of Japanese funds in the United States, and cutting off oil supplies to Japan, making it inevitable that Japan would have to seek oil by military action.

For years, I have lectured on the night of agony at the White House, before Pearl Harbor, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt, his Chief of Staff, General George Marshall, and Bernard Baruch, waited in fear as the Japanese, whose plans were fully known to the conspirators, proceeded toward Pearl Harbor, while under orders to turn back if the armada was discovered by the Americans. Had they turned back, the Churchill-Roosevelt conspiracy for bringing the United States into World War II, to rescue England and the Soviet Union, would have collapsed, and the subsequent establishment of the State of Israel would not have been possible.

The Bush War Cabinet's policy was clearly defined by the Journal's lead editorial: "The terrorism ... is intended to intimidate America into standing aside, humiliated, while the Arab despots and fanatics destroy Israel, and thereby prove that freedom and democracy are not, after all, the wave of the future." The Journal calls upon all peoples to unite in defense of "democracy", although the United States is a Republic.

Next to it is printed Mark Halprin's column, "We Beat Hitler, We Can Vanquish This Foe, Too". Halprin compares our present crisis to previous foes, "masters of the Third Reich", "the commanders of the Japanese Empire", and "the Soviet Empire", campaigns which we won to the great benefit of Israel. Halprin's column is a frenetic call to arms, demanding that we send 100,000 troops to attack and destroy the unnamed "enemy" of democracy.

The war propaganda originated in the "Bat

Bar" of Munich in 1923, when Hitler was approached by a triple agent named Trebitsch-Lincoln, who informed him that his fledgling political party could gain by allying with the World Zionist Organization. Hitler agreed, saying "WE are for the same things."

The party resulting from this alliance was called "NAZI"—from NA, for National Socialist, and ZI from Zionist International. Hitler adopted his "master race" platform from the Zionists, who had been practicing it for five thousand years.

By 1939, the Nazis were the masters of Europe. In 1945, they were replaced by the Zionists, who had the German leaders executed to conceal their collaboration. As the Zionist World Order, they were now in control of the world. They hired Hitler's chief of intelligence, General Gehlen, to be a consultant for the Central Intelligence Agency.

Under the name of Office of Strategic Services, it had been founded during World War II in London by Lord Mountbatten and Charles Hambro of Hambros Bank. As the CIA in more recent years, it organized Afghan resistance against the Soviet Army, its chief lieutenant being a leader named Osama bin Laden, who has been a CIA asset ever since.

In 1935, a lawyer named Phil Klutznick, in the Department of Justice, reorganized the Federal Bureau of Investigation into an investigative unit reporting to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the Mossad. Klutznick became enormously wealthy building ghetto housing for the U.S. Government. The Klutznick Museum in Washington honors his memory.

Thus the CIA and the FBI were now tightly controlled by the Mossad, which meant that the preparations for the September 11, 2001, events could proceed without interference. After the bombing, a cry went up about "the failure of intelligence". In fact, intelligence had known everything taking place, as proved by the fact that the names and addresses, with photographs, of the 19 hijackers were published within hours after the bombing. Nevertheless, a demand went up that we now needed a "national Czar of intelligence", the post to be filled by Henry Kissinger, former director of the National Security Council.

A Hopi Elder Speaks

"You have been telling the people that this is the Eleventh Hour. Now you must go back and tell the people that this is The Hour.

"And there are things to be considered:

Where are you living?

What are you doing?

What are your relationships?

Are you in right relation?

Where is your water?

Know your garden.

It is time to speak your Truth.

Create your community.

Be good to each other.

And do not look outside yourself for the leader."

Then he clasped his hands together, smiled, and said:

"This could be a good time! There is a river flowing now very fast. It is so great and swift that there are those who will be afraid. They will try to hold on to the shore. They will feel they are being torn apart and will suffer greatly.

"Know the river has its destination. The elders say we must let go of the shore, push off into the middle of the river, keep our eyes open, and our heads above the water."

And I say: "See who is in there with you and celebrate! At this time in history, we are to take nothing personally. Least of all, ourselves. For the moment that we do, our spiritual growth and journey come to a halt.

"The time of the lone wolf is over. Gather yourselves!

"Banish the word struggle from your attitude and your vocabulary. All that we do now must be done in a sacred manner and in celebration.

"We are the ones we've been waiting for."

— Oraibi, Arizona Hopi Nation
September 15, 2001

"Security" now became the watchword, as government agencies prepared to impose rigid controls on all Americans, stripping them of their civil liberties. Newsmen warned that "White separatists" were involved with the terrorists, and should be picked up.

In 1998, the United States laid the groundwork for the bombing of the World Trade Center in 2001 by launching a "war against terrorism", launching 60 giant long-range cruise missiles against "terrorist" camps, which were peaceful Muslim villages. The ensuing carnage provided scores of eager suicide bombers vowing to settle the score with America.

Once again, the Mossad had succeeded in recruiting Arabs willing to attack the United States. After the bombing of the World Trade Center, the government offered the survivors "grief counseling" and "anger management".

An important factor in destroying the World Trade Center was to get rid of many important legal documents, including a recent victory by Gene Schroder against the Federal Reserve System. Congress was to act on this decision, but the papers have been destroyed.

The Associated Press reported September 16, 2001, that 14,000 lawyers in New York City are unable to use their offices, and Gov. George Pataki suspended time limitations on criminal and civil proceedings.

On September 17, USA Today headlined: "U.S. Ready for Sacrifice". In this context, "sacrifice" brought up images of pagan gods such as Moloch and the Juggernaut. There is no doubt that Americans will be asked to make many sacrifices by their government, during the drive for retaliation and punishment of the now deceased hijackers who steered the planes into the World Trade Center. As usual, the real victims of this atrocity will be the citizens of the United States, who will be paying for it in the years to come.

Some time after he wrote and sent us the above, Eustace later reported to The SPECTRUM that the wide-distribution, mainstream newspaper USA TODAY, for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, September 28, 29, and 30, 2001, carried prominent articles suggesting that the Israeli Mossad was involved in the so-called "terrorist" attacks of September 11.

A curious "rumor" comes to mind in light of Eustace's assertions concerning Israeli involvement in the "terrorist" attacks. That "rumor" claims that 4,000 Israelis were reported as absent from their jobs at the World Trade Center that day of the attacks. The "rumor" might have remained buried in the background chatter, as far as possibly being true—until something very interesting happened.

I personally witnessed Los Angeles television news stations going to great lengths to fabricate carefully crafted disinformation segments for primetime news programs which were clearly aimed at convincing the public to disregard this particular "rumor". The presentations were slick and patently unprofessional—in the style of the best "sleight of hand" artists.

Now, why do you suppose these major media outlets went to such devious lengths to give you the impression this "rumor" was as ridiculously false as several other fluff items they pulled from the Internet's lunacy department? And if the "rumor" is indeed true, why do you suppose these Israelis were missing from work that day? Who do you think informed them to be away that day?

Keep in mind clues such as the Russian airliner that left Tel Aviv on 10/3/01 and blew up over the Indian Ocean on the way back to Russia. No survivors. It was a regular weekly charter flight to some location near Siberia, with reportedly a completely (or largely) Jewish passenger list. The Russian government said they would not rule out "terrorism" (which means they think that's what happened). Israel immediately grounded all flights out of Tel Aviv. Was this attack a message to protest continued unconscionable support for Israel by the US? Was this a statement about bringing attention to who the REAL "terrorists" are—at least at an operational level, if certainly not at the top of David Icke's pyramid of power?

Another excellent point Eustace makes above concerns what was to be an upcoming, extraordinary (at the time of the attack, coming up to start on September 18) Congressional hearing, open to television crews and the public, to establish once and for all the validity (or lack of same) of the IRS (and thus, by connection, the whole corrupt and illegal Federal Reserve system). As Eustace correctly points out, that hallmark event is now in limbo.

Later in this outlay, Al Bielek discusses this point early-on in two interviews with Rick Martin, and therein I comment parenthetically about some rather powerful predictions on this matter which were printed in an earlier issue of this newspaper.

Now that Eustace has added the Israeli piece to the overall "patchwork quilt" of possibilities, we move on to another major player behind the scenes—the Jesuit connection. Longtime readers will quickly remember that The SPECTRUM first presented the daring and controversial front-page story "The Most Powerful Man In The World? The 'Black' Pope: Count Hans Kolvenbach—The Jesuit's General" in our May 2000 issue, wherein we first introduced you to meticulous historian Eric Jon Phelps.

Since that time, Eric's monumental book Vatican Assassins has been completed and is opening many, many eyes around the world. We recently conducted a follow-up front-page interview with Eric called "Maniacal World Control Thru The Jesuit Order: Well-Hidden Soldiers Of Satan" in our July 2001 issue.

Since no proper discussion of the recent tragedy could be assembled without including the centrally important Jesuit component, we here share what Eric has to say. Be forewarned—his explanation is as fundamentally complex and far-reaching and "dogmatic" as is the Jesuit control arm itself.

Eric Phelps

On Jesuit Behind-The-Scenes Involvement In Attacks

9/16/01 ERIC JON PHELPS

(www.vaticanassassins.org)

Peter-Hans Kolvenbach, the General of the International Military Order of the Society of Jesuits, commonly known as "the Black Pope", ordered the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon this past Tuesday (September 11, 2001) with the advice and consent of his General Staff, composed of four assistants (each representing a hemisphere and under whom are many advisory Provincials), an advisor (resembling the likes of a military commander to warn him of any faults or mistakes), and his confessor (to ease his conscience and absolve him of his many sins).

Why? Because the appointed time has arrived for the Jesuit General to destroy the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem, secretly, using his CIA/Nazi-trained Mossad while shrouded in the confusion of a huge aerial war. This will enable the General's crusading Knights Templars (the present day Shriner Freemasons) to rebuild Solomon's Temple—for the Papal Caesar in Rome.

And how could he destroy the Muslim "Al Aqsa Mosque", the third most important Islamic religious site in the world behind Mecca and Medina, without causing an uncontrollable Muslim holy war, called a "jihad", resulting in the destruction of Pope Pius XII's creation of Zionist Israel?

Remember: Israel was admitted into the New York-based United Nations in 1949, through the efforts of Francis Cardinal Spellman (the darling of Pope Pius XII), while governed by the Papal Caesar's Chaim Weizmann and his Masonic Jewish Zionists.

The Black Pope must cause a war using a country he also wishes to further destroy. Enter, the "Holy Roman" Fourteenth Amendment American Jesuit Empire, created in 1868 on the ruins of George Washington's Calvinist Republic, the last political stronghold of the Protestant Reformation—with freedom of conscience, freedom of speech, and freedom of the press.

Here was the General's plan. In synchronizing his worldwide overt and covert factions to work the Order's evil ends of the Vatican's Counter-Reformation in restoring the Papal Caesar as the absolute Universal Monarch of the world, the Black Pope used his Masonically-controlled, fanatical Islamic leadership (Osama bin Laden having been directed and financed by the CIA—just like Jesuit-trained Fidel Castro before he became a false enemy—including the training of suicide

"LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL"
A cable-access television program, with a LIVE audience.
Hosted by Dennis Grover.

VATICAN ASSASSINS II

Guest: Author ERIC JON PHELPS

This is the SECOND compelling one-hour LIVE interview with Eric Jon Phelps, author of the book Vatican Assassins: Wounded In The House Of My Friends. He was also the featured interview in our May 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM newspaper. Eric exposes the dark and diabolical history of the Vatican and much, much more.

See and hear Eric present in his own words more of what his years of astonishing research has brought to light.

NEW!
JUNE 2001
INTERVIEW

1-HOUR VIDEO TAPE $12
(shipping is included with this item)

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

pilots at a Florida facility used by the CIA since 1948) to hand-pick and train Arab terrorist warriors for the purpose of sacrificing themselves, along with thousands of innocent Americans, by attacking two of the most hated institutions of “the Great Satan”.

Those institutions were the banking and military centers (the Pope’s World Trade Center, and the Pentagon, overseen by his Knights of Malta) supporting and protecting the Zionist nation of Israel. There, the Jewish people, primarily the Jewish race with biblical promises yet to inherit, have been set up to be ultimately betrayed, as they are UNKNOWNLY living under the secret government of the Black Pope, publicly overseen by his Masonic Jewish Zionists in conjunction with certain of his Masonic Talmudic Rabbis—who betrayed their own Jewish people, both racially and religiously, into Hitler’s Death Camps during World War II.

The World Trade Center was sacrificed, INTERNALLY IMPODED, using surgically placed Composition C-5 charges detonated by New York Archbishop Edward Egan’s intelligence community, which includes the Central Intelligence Agency, the National Security Agency, Military Intelligence, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, IN EXCHANGE for the destruction of the Dome of the Rock. This has ignited American rage, as calculated, that rage being now directed by the Black Pope’s Council on Foreign Relations-controlled Press against Islamic Middle East nations, in preparation for war.

Sadly, cooler and more informed heads will not prevail.

This attack was an act of war carried out by the slaves of the Black Pope, both domestic and foreign, and it will not be long until the American government will declare war. (For Washington, DC is secretly ruled by Edward Cardinal Egan, from St. Patrick’s Cathedral in New York. As the country’s “Military Vicar” and most powerful American Archbishop, Egan is aided by Georgetown University and Fordham University Jesuits, including the learned and seasoned, 82-year-old Cardinal Avery Dulles.)

This massive retaliation, which will be another Papal Crusade against the Islamic world rivaling those of the Dark Ages, will be declared and waged by Cardinal Egan’s Council on Foreign Relations-controlled Commander-in-Chief, George W. Bush, having been advised of his role to play during his most recent visit with the Baal-worshipping, cannibalistic (believing the unbiblical doctrine of transubstantiation), absolute dictator in the Vatican, Pope John Paul II.

We, the American people, will be hoodwinked into fighting this war even as we were deceived into fighting the Pope’s war against the Japanese people during World War II, the consummation of the Jesuit General’s Second Thirty Years’ War waged from 1914 to 1945. For the attack on Pearl Harbor was no surprise to Franklin Roosevelt—even as the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon was no surprise to George Bush, he being conveniently out of town in Florida at the time.

If the foregoing scenario is true, we believe America, deceived by our own government, will fall into the trap of fighting a large-scale Middle East war, resulting in at least six things furthering our country’s demise, while t h o r o u g h l y benefiting the Jesuit Order’s Counter-Reformation. They are:

1. Worldwide anti-Jewish fury on a grand scale, especially in America.

2. T h e destruction of the Dome of the Rock, enabling the Pope to rebuild Solomon’s Temple, unifying Islamic fury against North America.

3. The killing of millions of fanatical Muslims who would otherwise attack Israel when the Al Aqsa Mosque is destroyed in Jerusalem, further securing the peace of the Papal Caesar’s Zionist Israel, ultimately to be maintained by united European nations composing the Pope’s revived Holy Roman Empire, the new “Sword of the Church”. At this time the Black Pope will have no more need for his drugged, exhausted, and demoralized Fourteenth Amendment American Empire.

4. The tyranny of a White American fascist military dictator having arisen out of the “New Right” Republican Party due to Negro rioting in our major cities coordinated by the Black Pope’s Masonically-led and racist Black army of the Nation of Islam. He will use America’s existing concentration camp system to kill millions of Jews, “heretics and liberals” pursuant to the Jesuits’ evil Council of Trent—just as Hitler did when he destroyed apostate Protestant Germany with the help of the USAF and the RAF—further justifying our nation’s destruction.

5. The betrayal of our armies fighting a two-front war WHICH WE CANNOT WIN, one in the Middle East and the other in the Far East against China, just as Napoleon betrayed his army in Russia and just like Hitler betrayed his army in Russia one hundred and thirty years later, both dictators having been under orders from the advisors of the Black Pope.

6. Massive invasion and attack into North America, China and Russia storming the West Coast, while China and a united Muslim host march into the Southeast Coast, known as “the Bible belt”, using the Bahamas and Cuba as staging bases. Our Jesuit-controlled leaders having betrayed us Americans; the result will be the subjugation of the last apostate bastion of the Protestant Reformation and will compel Europe to unite, reviving the old Holy Roman Empire—under the Papal Caesar.

This scenario is the answer as to WHO and WHY we were attacked on Bloody Black Tuesday. But after all, we deserve it, as I have said before, and in my book, Vatican Assassins: Wounded In The House Of My Friends. The Jesuit General’s “Holy Roman” Fourteenth Amendment American Empire has been used to fulfill the Papal Caesar’s evil Council of Trent by oppressing and destroying “heretic and liberal” Bible believers, peoples and governments of at least eighty nations during the last one hundred years.

Called by Jesuit John Courtney Murray and Knight of Malta Henry R. Luce “the American Century”, the Knights of Malta and Shriner Freemasons on Wall Street restored the Temporal Power of the Papacy (which Power was destroyed in the glorious Nineteenth Century) by financing Mao Tse-tung’s Communism, Stalin’s Communism, Hitler’s Nazism, and the Fascism of Mussolini, Franco, and Castro.

We Americans have it coming, and now, if we leap into this trap of a Middle East war with the Muslim world, advocated by Senator Arlen Specter (who was “Cardinal Spellman’s Jew”, having authored the single-bullet theory of the Warren Commission and President Clinton’s defender while on trial in the Senate), apparently the righteous Judgment of the risen Son of God is about to unfold. Our beloved country, the only nation in the history of the world to be founded on the Bible of the Protestant Reformation, will be turned into a nightmarish hell because we have forgotten the God of our American Protestant and Baptist-Calvinist founding fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, whose Spirit inspired these words (John 3:16-18):

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

“For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

“He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”

Eric made brief mention above—more in passing than as a main point—that the World

“Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.”

— President Woodrow Wilson

Trade Center towers did not fall down simply from the airliner crashes as we have been told. He said: "The World Trade Center was sacrificed, INTERNALLY IMPOLODED, using surgically placed Composition C-5 charges detonated by New York Archbishop Edward Egan's intelligence community, which includes the Central Intelligence Agency, the National Security Agency, Military Intelligence, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, IN EXCHANGE for the destruction of the Dome of the Rock."

With that assertion in mind, this is a good place to share some excerpts of credible technical commentary that support such a possibility. The first item(s) is from the Albuquerque (New Mexico) Journal and brings its own element of conspiratorial intrigue since the technical expert RETRACTED his earlier story—a hem—perhaps after a quiet reminder from federal types about where a lot of his organization's funding comes from.

After all, New Mexico Tech's success is due largely to the lobbying of local Republican representative Joe Skeen, who has begged relentlessly on Tech's behalf to lucrative effect. Meanwhile, Tech's "terrorism first-responder training" is under the auspices of the public/private National Domestic Preparedness Consortium (i.e. the military-industrial complex). You can find Tech-trained first responders right now at the Pentagon scene. They are busy cleaning-up, in every sense of the word.

First is the original story as it appeared on September 11, 2001, just hours after the attack; that is followed by the "retraction" story ten days later. You decide which is Truth.

Explosives Planted In Towers New Mexico Tech Expert Says

9/11/01 OLIVIER UYTTEBROUCK

Albuquerque Journal Staff Writer
(www.abqjournal.com/aqvan09-11-01.htm)

Televised images of the attacks on the World Trade Center suggest that explosives devices caused the collapse of both towers, a New Mexico Tech explosion expert said Tuesday.

The collapse of the buildings appears "too methodical" to be a chance result of airplanes colliding with the structures, said Van Romero, vice president for research at New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology. "My opinion is, based on the videotapes, that after the airplanes hit the World Trade Center there were some explosive devices inside the buildings that caused the towers to collapse" Romero said.

Romero is a former director of the Energetic Materials Research and Testing Center at Tech, which studies explosive materials and the effects of explosions on buildings, aircraft, and other structures.

Romero said he based his opinion on video aired on national television broadcasts.

Romero said the collapse of the structures resembled those of controlled implosions used to demolish old structures.

"It would be difficult for something from the plane to trigger an event like that" Romero said in a phone interview from Washington, D.C.

Romero said he and another Tech administrator were on a Washington-area subway when an airplane struck the Pentagon.

He said he and Denny Peterson, vice president for administration and finance, were en route to an office building near the Pentagon to discuss defense-funded research programs at Tech.

If explosions did cause the towers to collapse, the detonations could have been caused by a small amount of explosive, he said.

"It could have been a relatively small amount of explosives placed in strategic points" Romero said. The explosives likely would have been put in more than two points in each of the towers, he said.

The detonation of bombs within the towers is consistent with a common terrorist strategy, Romero said. "One of the things terrorist events are noted for is a diversionary attack and secondary device" Romero said. Attackers detonate an initial, diversionary explosion that attracts emergency personnel to the scene, then detonate a second explosion, he said.

Romero said that if his scenario is correct, the diversionary attack would have been the collision of the planes into the towers.

Tech President Dan Lopez said Tuesday that Tech had not been asked to take part in the investigation into the attacks. Tech often assists in forensic investigations into terrorist attacks, often by setting off similar explosions and studying the effects.

So this often-consulted explosives technology center "had NOT been asked to take part in the investigation" looking into the attacks. Wonder why?! Could the reason perhaps be that scientific honesty in an investigation would be too "unreliable" to help support an atrocious fable?

Remember how well-known, beloved, brilliant, and high-integrity Cal Tech physicist Richard Feynman "just happened" to meet an untimely death not long after he exposed the o-ring problem that caused the Challenger Space Shuttle to blow up. Coincidence? Or perhaps his continued poking around inside NASA made some folks nervous about what else he might have found.

Anyway, here is the "retraction" article published ten days later—by a different writer:

Fire, Not Extra Explosives, Doomed Buildings, Expert Says

9/21/01 JOHN FLECK

Albuquerque Journal Staff Writer

A New Mexico explosives expert says he now believes there were no explosives in the World Trade Center towers, contrary to comments he made the day of the September 11 terrorist attack. "Certainly the fire is what caused the building to fail" said Van Romero, a vice president at the New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology.

The day of the attack, Romero told the Journal the towers' collapse, as seen in news videotapes, looked as though it had been triggered by carefully placed explosives.

Subsequent conversations with structural engineers and more detailed looks at the tape have led Romero to a different conclusion. Romero supports other experts, who have said the intense heat of the jet fuel fires weakened the skyscrapers' steel structural beams to the point that they gave way under the weight of the floors above. That set off a chain reaction, as upper floors pancaked onto lower ones.

Romero said he believes still it is possible that the final collapse of each building was triggered by a sudden pressure pulse caused when the fire reached an electrical transformer or other source of combustion within the building.

But he said he now believes explosives would not have been needed to create the collapse seen in video images. Conspiracy theorists have seized on Romero's comments as evidence for their argument that someone else, possibly the U.S. government, was behind the attack on the Trade Center. Romero said he has been bombarded with electronic mail from the conspiracy theorists.

"I'm very upset about that" he said. "I'm not trying to say anything did or didn't happen."

Go back and carefully re-read that last sentence. Isn't that just the most definitive, direct statement from a world-class explosives expert you've ever heard!? I'm reminded of Sergeant Schultz, or simply Shultzie as he was often dubbed, on the old "Hogan's Heroes" television comedy. No matter what shenanigans happened around the compound he was supposed to be guarding, he always said, in an animated, exaggerated German accent, "I zee nut'ting!!!"

Meanwhile, even on the controlled media news blatherings the first few days after the collapse, civil engineers were saying they were baffled because THOUSANDS OF TONS of concrete and steel just seemed to have "vaporized" into thin air and otherwise became finely pulverized. And as sources such as www.rumormillnews.com noted: "There was very little solid rubble—or bodies for that matter! The buildings were to hold approximately 500,000 according to the architects and people who know how many were in those two buildings—but how many have they found? A few thousand? They won't find many more—guaranteeeeeeed."

That last comment was in response to the suspicion circulating around by some knowledgeable ones who have hypothesized that a more high-tech "particle disintegration" technology was employed to carry out a more thorough job of destruction than would be accomplished by conventional explosives.

More recently, there was a television program on the Discovery Channel called "AMERICA ON ALERT: A Deadline Discovery Special". When it first aired on Wednesday evening 10/3/01, Prof. Hasan Astani, a structural engineer from U.C. Berkeley, hired by FEMA and the NSF to analyze what happened, and had been two weeks at the site at the time of his comments, said, while pointing to some steel girders, that the rivets on the fallen supports were intact on all the girders he could see. But you could plainly see that the sheer plates from the outer corners of the buildings were broken. Thus he said the data he has seen strongly suggests that explosives were employed to bring the buildings down.

Now, the story gets more interesting at this point. The Discovery Channel special ran several more times over the next few days, as is the usual case. By the time I personally viewed a later rendition of this same program, on Saturday 10/6/01, the above comments had been largely sanitized from what was shown, with only the "party line" explanation offered!

Regardless of what all might have been used to cause the World Trade Center towers to fall, strong arguments exist that such was NOT accomplished by the airliner crashes. Consider the following superb essay on the subject, and note well the persuasive scientific argument about the wrong tower falling first!

The Split-Second Error: Exposing The WTC Bomb Plot

9/18/01 FINTAN DUNNE

coEditor, PsyOpNews.com

Research: Kathy McMahon

Email: news@psyopnews.com

Website: www.eionews.addr.com/psyops/plot_within_a_plot_part1.htm

The determined man at the controls of Flight 175 was now less than one minute from his own demise, and was in that state of heightened alertness that only approaching death can generate.

Ahead, as he hurtled across New York towards Manhattan Island, he could see the vast plume of smoke. His colleague in Flight 11, approaching from the opposite direction, had already made an almost perfect impact on the North Tower of the World Trade Center.

On the far side of the tower, concealed from his view, was the gash where the hijacked airliner had spread its fuel payload over several floors of the building. Just as the trainers had coached.

But the sight still managed to unnerve him. It was one thing practicing the approach for countless hours on a computer simulator, but this was real life—and no mistake could be made. The planners had insisted that the planes must strike the towers at a banked angle. Otherwise the fire would be confined to only a couple of floors and would not set the building comprehensively alight. Without perfect execution, the imperialists would only suffer minor casualties, he had been told.

What they never told him was that the aircraft impacts were only one half of the plan. One visible and psychologically terrorizing aspect would be provided by the suicidal aircraft. But the other half of the plan was unknown to the two pilots and their accomplices. Bombs had already been planted inside both towers.

They would be detonated after the planes had struck, to ensure the total destruction of the buildings and their evidentiary contents. The bombs inside the towers were strapped to radio-trigger detonators. Other plotters would be near the scene—monitoring TV coverage to determine the right moment to push the final buttons. The full PsyOps (psychological-warfare) effect would be the complete disappearance of these two symbols of U.S. confidence and power.

But if the plane struck at the wrong angle, or even worse—missed altogether, the whole scheme was in danger. Substantial fires were necessary as a cover for the subsequent collapse.

The planners had taken every precaution. Their flight approach paths were calculated to align the two towers as a single target, without a gap between them. His orders were clear. His target was the South Tower; but if the first plane struck the wrong tower, he was to switch to the other. In either event, he must strike at the remaining target with a military precision.

But he didn't. And that's where things began to go wrong.

BANKING ON SUCCESS

A straightforward level approach would have been so much easier. Just line-up the towers in the cockpit window and plow straight in. This banked approach was much harder to accomplish. Imagine swinging a stone on the end of a string, aiming to strike a standing beer bottle. Imagine getting only one try. A fully laden 767 is like an elephant with wings—the apotheosis of maneuverability.

The pilot was now less than two miles from his target. The screaming noise of the engines on high power were already causing heads to turn among the early morning crowds below. But they didn't really understand what was happening. One eyewitness would later recount that the first plane had tried to veer off the tower, but hit it nevertheless. That witness had mistaken the intent of the final course correction.

For no matter how well executed the approach, it would be necessary to make one last-second adjustment to get right on target. In the final five seconds, the tower would still be half a mile away. That's when the collective million hours of preparation would telescope into seconds and determine the success or failure of the mission.

And it wasn't going well. As the tower rushed to fill the view in the cockpit window, the pilot realized that he was going too fast and wide of the target to boot. He would miss to the right. Instead of a minor tilt of the controls, he would have to lean the aircraft hard left—NOW!

As the airliner tilted acutely to the left, the air under the wings began to leak away—depriving the aircraft of vital lift, even as the extra centrifugal force generated by the turn meant that he needed more lift, not less. The maneuver was only partly successful. Despite the course correction, the plane still drifted to the right.

In that last instant, he never really had time to consider his own death. The training and his death-moment concentration focused him so intently on the task. With a grinding crash, the side of the building gave way, as Flight 175 struck near the corner of the tower, too far to the right.

The howl of metal and concrete impacting each other was overlaid with the crack of plate glass shattering. The concrete floors of the building cut through the plane like an egg passed through an egg slicer. The metal in it's wings offered little resistance. In an instant, the plane had disappeared into the tower like a bird returning to it's nest.

But it was no longer an aircraft. It's

THE MISSING DIARY OF
ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD

"I must write this diary in secrecy and obscurity. It concerns my arctic flight of the nineteenth day of February in the year of nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

"There comes a time when the rationality of men must fade into insignificance, and one must accept the inevitability of the Truth! I am not at liberty to disclose the following documentation at this writing, perhaps it shall never see the light of public scrutiny, but I must do my Duty and record here for all to read one day in a world which hopefully the greed and exploitation of certain of mankind can no longer suppress that which is Truth."

—Admiral Richard E. Byrd (from the Introduction)

$12.50 (+S/H)

To order see next-to-last page or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

PROPHECIES OF THE PRESIDENTS: THE SPIRITUAL DESTINY OF AMERICA REVEALED

BY TIM BECKLEY

The future of America seen through the eyes of prophecy. Chapters include: The origin of the Great Seal of the United States • Our psychic presidents (including: Lincoln, Washington, Kennedy) • The coming Polar Shift and America's destiny • The reincarnation of Atlantis • America's great curses • Secret Government—who is really in control? • Space visitors watch over America • All presidents since Eisenhower are said to have met with ETs on American soil.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$12.50(+S/H)

separated parts careened across the floors of the South Tower. It was no longer obeying the laws of aerodynamics. It was subject to the dictates of the angular momentum caused by the banked approach and that last moment course correction.

That's when things began to go even more wrong for the cynical perpetrators of the mass death that was now being inflicted on those in the shattered airliner's path.

THE ARC OF FAILURE

Earlier, the North Tower impact site had been right in the center of the tower. The entire fuel load and flotsam was dumped deep inside and remained in the building—where it exploded. (See Figure 1.)

But now, as Flight 175 disappeared inside the South Tower, it burst like a paper bag full of water. The thousands of pounds of jet fuel were liberated to follow a path dictated by the momentum of what had once been an aircraft.

A wash of jet fuel and airplane parts tore through the interior of the building at hundreds of miles an hour, sweeping everything before it, and just starting to ignite as it rushed along. But it didn't take the same course as had aircraft debris inside the North Tower, eighteen minutes before. By contrast, the majority of the fuel and debris from the second plane smashed out of the building and exploded OUTSIDE in the open air over the street. (See Figure 2.)

The plane's approach was an arc of a great circle—one that had tightened even further with that final twitch on the controls. Imagine again a paper bag of water spun on the end of a string. If the paper bag bursts, the water inside will head off at a tangent to the original arc.

In the same fashion, the fuel now tried to take a course to the right of the original flight path. The aircraft had impacted near the corner of the building. Within fractions of a second the already igniting fuel had raced diagonally across the corner to burst out into the open air again, on the adjacent side of the Second Tower. Photos even show a smoking engine which shot out as it had not even been slowed by the building interior.

This air explosion provided a stunning pyrotechnic spectacle witnessed by countless millions, but it was an operational disaster. For it left the thorny question of explaining how the South Tower—which took less than half the fuel load of it's North Tower twin—was the first of the two to collapse.

THE WRONG TOWER FELL FIRST

Even before the second plane hit the South

Tower, it's northern counterpart was already burning strongly, with a great plume of dense black toxic fumes drifting over a stunned Manhattan. Flight 11 had rocketed deep inside the building before the fuel ignited. On some floors the fire burned across the entire width of the building. By 9:45 a.m. the North Tower was fiercely ablaze—not just on the floors that took the impact, but all the way to the top of the building.

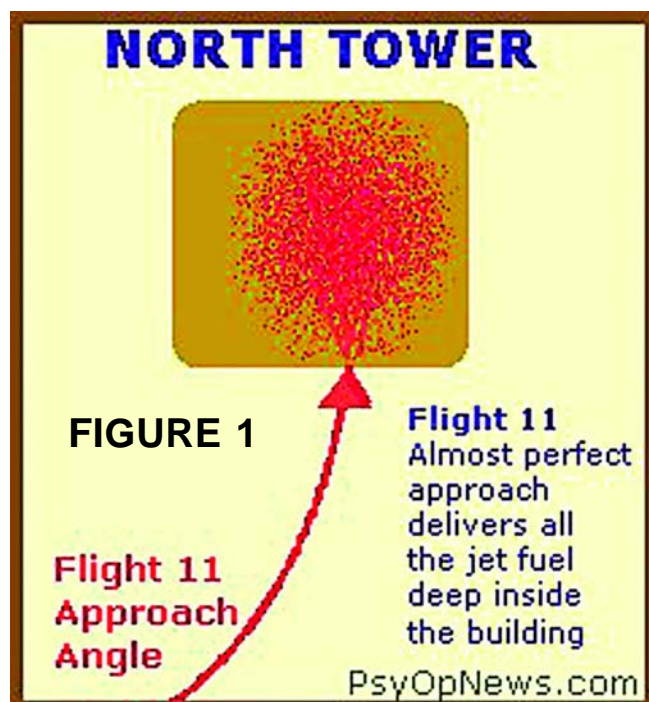

The towers' sprinkler fire extinguisher system were bolstered by automatic, hermetically sealing doors on every floor, to prevent the spread of fire. But office workers still found themselves stumbling down sometimes darkened and smoke-filled fire escape stairs.

The giant steel beams used to build the towers had been cast in Japan—no American steel mill could roll out the massive I-beams. The explanation accepted by the mainstream media pundits for the collapse of both towers is that these beams softened like warm toffee in the intensity of the fires.

If that were the case, then the North Tower was the obvious candidate to be the first to collapse. Not only did it have almost a twenty minute head start on the South Tower conflagration, but the fire extended to the whole area of many floors. The South Tower fire was smaller and more confined, so that by 10:30 a.m. there was an obvious difference visible to those in the streets below and the hypnotized TV cameras now trained on the incredible sight.

But can the collapse, in any event, be really blamed on the fires within? The great explosions on impact had consumed all the jet fuel in seconds. Now it was plastic fixtures, cabling, and internal partitioning that were burning. Or smoldering, to be more precise. Only near the great gaping holes—where there was access to an air supply—did the fire burn with anything like the intensity required to melt great beams of steel.

Neither had the impacts significantly weakened the structural integrity of the buildings. Even under normal circumstances these flexible buildings swayed so much in high winds that seasickness was a noticeable problem among workers on upper floors. Even on floors near the impact sites, many had felt only a mild

THE CONTROLLERS: THE HIDDEN RULERS OF EARTH IDENTIFIED

BY COMMANDER X

We are the property of an alien intelligence! "Our" planet is a cosmic laboratory and we are but guinea pigs to those who have kept us prisoners on Earth. Humankind continues to wage all-out battle with those who have kept us as their slaves since the beginning of time. They are:

- The Soulless Ones
- The Greys
- The Elders
- The Counterfeit Race
- The Illuminati

They have, says the author (who is of military intelligence) kept us in human bondage by: • Controlling our minds • Planting imperfect thoughts in our heads • Kidnapping humans • Impregnating women • Causing global warfare and ethnic hatred • Creating a false economic system, and • Assassinating and "replacing" our most trusted spiritual leaders, rulers, and elected officials.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

MIND STALKERS: UFOs, IMPLANTS, & THE PSYCHOTRONIC AGENDA OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

ALIEN ABDUCTIONS, ELF WAVES, MENTAL MANIPULATION—ALL EQUALS BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION! There is a secret plot by the New World Order to control the Earth's population for a sinister agenda. Many UFO abductees maintain they have become part of a brainwashing program by "aliens"—but is a "secret society" really behind all that is happening?

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

OTHER VOICES

BY GEORGE HUNT WILLIAMSON & TIMOTHY GREEN BECKLEY

The author was one of the original witnesses at the meeting between contactee George Adamski and Orthon from the planet Venus. Williamson claims that he also underwent contacts with aliens and even received transmissions over his radio from friendly extraterrestrials. Others have claimed the same. Senator Barry Goldwater reportedly heard mysterious signals on his ham radio and our own astronauts have reportedly picked up messages not transmitted from Earth.

Other Voices is essentially a reprint of a book entitled The Saucers Speak, by George Hunt Williamson and Alfred Bailey. Originally published in the 1950s. Much of what the authors prophesy has indeed come to pass, and the warning the aliens send about nuclear war and environmental doom is still as urgent as it ever was when first published.

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

INTELLIGENCE AGENT'S SHOCKING REPORT FLYING SAUCERS COME FROM INSIDE EARTH!

- Aliens have established underground bases around the planet.
- Entrance ways can be found in many major cities.
- Ancient tunnel system has existed since time of Atlantis.
- Some government & military officials have taken the side of aliens.

The UFO enigma is more complex than generally believed.

Superstition Mountain Range, Arizona; South and North Poles; as well as in the mountains of the Andes, and the jungles of Brazil.

Though it is commonly thought that space ships are arriving here from other solar systems, there is now evidence that several groups of ETs have established bases beneath our very feet.

Here also are the first-hand reports of those individuals who have been abducted by aliens, and who have survived genetic experiments at some locations. These are the facts that everyone should be informed of—regardless of how disturbing the truth may turn out to be!

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$17.50(+S/H)

Here are bizarre stories about underground bases at Mt. Shasta, California; Brown Mountain, North Carolina; Dulce, New Mexico; Groom Lake, Nevada; shudder as the aircraft struck.

For the fire to be the cause of the collapse, most of the array of steel beams that spanned each floor would have to be engulfed in continuous, extremely high-temperature fire. This did not happen, nor was it essential to the plan. If the real intent had been to collapse the towers by means of fire, then the planes would have struck the corners of the towers nearest to each other. That would have increased the chances of one tower collapsing into the other.

What actually happened next—before either tower collapsed, was one or more massive explosions in the other buildings around the towers. Explosions that sent clouds of masonry dust into the air. The first of many blasts that would rock the World Trade Center complex.

The explosions marked the final phase. The curtain was coming down on the morning's gala performance.

And the towers themselves would be next to fall.

For space reasons, we are not including many of the photographs and diagrams which accompany the above narrative; those are available on their website. For the most part, the idea comes across just fine from the narrative with a little visualization—especially considering that we have been shown the WTC crashes over and over and over again on television from every angle available.

A small sidebar to the above story is titled "It Was Designed For A Plane Impact" and the text states: "Aaron Swirski, one of the architects of the World Trade Center, talks exclusively to Jerusalem Post Radio on the World Trade Center collapse. He says they designed the towers to withstand something like a plane flying into the side."

Another sidebar offers two United Press International (UPI) snippets with the following headline: "Building Collapse Shocks World Trade Center Engineer, Architect: 'I Designed It For A 707 Hit'"

The first snippet says: "DETROIT, Sept. 11 (UPI)—Lee Robertson, the project's structural engineer, addressed the problem of terrorism on high-rises at a conference in Frankfurt, Germany, LAST WEEK (!!!), Chicago Engineer Joseph Burns told the Chicago Tribune. Burns said Robertson told the conference, "I designed it for a [Boeing] 707 to hit it."

The second snippet says: "DETROIT, Sept. 11 (UPI)—A lead engineer who worked on New York's World Trade Center towers expressed shock Tuesday that the 110-story landmarks in Lower Manhattan collapsed after each tower was struck by a hijacked passenger jetliner."

There is a Part Two to this story, by the same team, titled: "WAG THE WTC—II. THE BLOCKBUSTER. PART-II OF EXPOSING THE WTC BOMB PLOT." It is dated October 4, 2001 and picks up where Part I leaves off—with an obvious reference to the insightful movie Wag The Dog that you should rent from your video store if you haven't already seen it.

Part II raises important additional questions about "engineering" subjects such as the curious directions in which certain of the buildings fell or didn't fall and the huge amount of money to be made by the clean-up contractor—Controlled Demolition (we didn't make this up!)—which just happens to be the same contractor who cleaned-up after the Murrah building was bombed (and then quickly flattened by the government—to hide what?) in Oklahoma City. Their WTC cleanup contract is worth over $7 Billion.

Part-II of this story also presents more details about the changing ownership of the WTC. The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey signed the deal with the Larry Silverstein-led Westfield America on April 26, 2001. Silverstein already owned Number Seven WTC, but he led a consortium that signed the new $3.2 billion, 99-year lease on the WTC complex. That was the first time the WTC had changed hands in its thirty year history. Despite the transfer to private hands, the tax payments would still come from the Port Authority, who had been making yearly $25 million payments in lieu of taxes to New York City. The proper figure should be more like $100 million according to city administrators. The insurers are not at all happy about what happened (so soon after new policies were taken out on the buildings) and often delay payment to investigate such cases.

What is revealed in all of this raises a strong question of doubt about the airplane crashes being solely responsible for the towers falling down. There seems to be a much higher degree of thoroughness behind the collapses than could be counted upon from the aircraft collisions alone.

Ok—now we have to switch directions into the economic arena to add an EXTREMELY IMPORTANT piece to the puzzle. Remember, back a few months, we ran an intriguing article titled “Something’s Up In The Banking & Monetary World” in the August, 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM. That’s a hint for the following, which for obvious reasons is written by an extremely well-informed person who prefers “Dove of Oneness” as a label.

For newer readers to better follow what is being referred to below, you must understand that there are both “white hats” (good guys, referred to below as “White Knights”) and “black hats” (bad guys and simply conscience-less ones who robotically follow orders) within the various secret groups of high-level governmental agencies as well as elsewhere on the world scene. And still higher up, there are what we often refer to in these pages as the “crooks in high places”, which the author below mostly calls the “Old Guard” and the “Opposition” element in society.

You who understand David Icke’s excellent analyses would then take the subject of the crooks in high places another level higher. That is, these elite crooks are largely “overshadowed” by demonic, higher-dimensional entities—what we could refer to as the band of “fallen angels” and other satanic influences of darkness. Families of these controlling elite have, for many centuries, been genetically predisposed to easy adversarial overshadowment, and they practice certain “satanic” rituals to keep that bond strong. (You’d think they could find something better to do with their time!)

Anyway, keep the above in mind as you digest the following excellent dissertation on a most fascinating and exciting and hopeful “good guys” plan now well underway.

White Knights, Black Ops, And A New Money System

9/25/01 “DOVE OF ONENESS”

(dove_of_o@hotmail.com)

Hello Dear Friends,

In the last few weeks, several hundred people have joined the Dove e-group and they lack my previous messages to understand all topics about which I am writing. I’m doing this overview for their benefit, from my perspective of tracking a major element connected to the banking changes which WERE TO BE ANNOUNCED 9/11/2001. I’m also doing this to help us all UNDERSTAND more about WHY the travesties of 9/11/2001 happened.

Big Money, NESARA, White Knights, Black Ops, new banking and monetary systems, government reorganizations, dissolution of longtime power bases—ALL these things are reasons why the opposition ordered the 9/11/2001 tragedies.

I’m covering things here that have been kept in strict secret by the world’s wealthiest and most powerful people and bankers for decades. In the United States, the controlled media keeps these things out of news coverage, except for the most obscure references. The “rules” state that (except for our special programs) a person must have $1,000,000 in assets and a personal introduction to enter this secret world.

However, SECRECY is what allowed the opposition their power to take the lives of innocent people on 9/11/2001. It’s time for TRUTH to ward off such things ever happening again.

I say to our Divine Coalition and White Knight friends in the European banks, the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the World Bank, and the ICC who have long-established practices of secrecy regarding these issues: I respect your contributions immensely. I realize my revealing so much in the last few months, and today, may make you uncomfortable. However, I know you also understand that we have moved obstacles out of the way by my informing our group of WHO in the opposition are currently causing problems, and members of our group are then taking action to neutralize the opposition.

Also, I understand that numerous of you in the international banking and monetary community have sustained losses and harm directly from the opposition. Over and over we have found that exposing the TRUTH has crippled their ability to cause more harm to others. I am particularly concerned about the RECENT harmful actions by the opposition against some of you; I was very happy to hear a few hours ago that you are now fully protected and recovering well.

In the interests of our mutual goals of fulfillment of these prosperity programs and the implementation of worldwide banking, monetary, and legal improvements, which you and so many have strenuously endeavored to complete, I am sharing the following information. In these critical times we need the power of TRUTH to move crucial actions forward. There is ZERO need for war; we who have the inside story know this. It’s time to inform more people of the truth behind these travesties.

I’m using this opportunity to realign our minds to the true reality. All the talk we see about the need for “war” comes from a small group of power-hungry, greedy, ego-driven, “old guard”. This small group of old guard has PLANNED to cause war in these times FOR THEIR OWN BENEFIT. Their families have a long history of manipulating the masses with war and economic ups and downs. This old guard are mainly American citizens and are the Opposition about whom I write. The old guard centers around top-level politicians. We Americans have ignorantly allowed them and their friends to hold high positions of power. Thank Heaven, their power is ENDING as I write this.

The White Knights will PROVE, with OVERWHELMING factual evidence and testimony, that this old guard of American citizens were the ones who ORDERED the attacks on the WTC and the Pentagon. Thanks to the White Knights, the old guard are FAILING to accomplish what they set out to do, which was: (1) to cause world war; (2) to STEAL quintillions of dollars of wealth from American people; (3) to establish a dictatorship and implement the insidious New World Order enslavement agendas in the U.S. and worldwide. The old guard Opposition are UTTERLY FAILING in these Machiavellian and Draconian plots.

Let me explain, for those of you new to the Dove e-group, my sphere of reference. About two years ago, I began doing newsletters on the Internet for a particular group of approximately 250,000 people worldwide involved in a prosperity program. This specific prosperity program began in the early 1990s and closed to new members about a year ago. It has members in many countries around the world, with most living in the U.S.

I began to actively track it’s progress two years ago, shortly after the first activities to distribute the prosperity began in the U.S. From the beginning, the old guard Opposition has been involved in trying and FAILING to stop the activities of distributing this prosperity to Americans and the world. The opposition has caused many delays in this distribution, using legal and illegal means. However, they have FAILED to stop it.

In doing my daily phone research with friends in the prosperity program, I have assembled a worldwide network of contacts in ALL the organizations involved with this prosperity program. My sources include knowledgeable people in: the U.S. banks and offshore banks directly handling the prosperity; the IMF, the U.S. Treasury Department, and Federal Reserve; the World Court; Congress; the White House; U.S. intelligence agencies; U.S. Military Intelligence groups; foreign intelligence groups; the experts in these programs; and many other powerful groups and people worldwide.

What started out as tracking progress of a prosperity program, led me to discover that the prosperity distribution of these 50+ programs was “part” of a HUGE, global improvement of banking and monetary systems. These improvements were to be announced, starting with the United States on 9/11/2001, followed by banking improvement announcements in other countries worldwide. In the United States, we have additional grand improvements in our federal government being implemented through NESARA. (I include an explanation of NESARA below.)

I learned, in June 2000, that there was a group of POWERFUL PEOPLE worldwide who had been working on these global improvements for over 20 years. I learned that some members of the top world banking families chose, 20 years ago, to IMPROVE the world, rather than exploit it as their ancestors have been doing the last few centuries. I learned that these Wealthy Visionaries of the top banking families had initiated prosperity programs for the average person with the intention of providing good-hearted people with substantial funds to do “world improvements”.

[Editor's aside: Wouldn't it be great if some of those funds—a few crumbs—were to find their way to The SPECTRUM so we can pay off our massive debt and perhaps even breathe easier, for a change.]

These Wealthy Visionaries of the banking families had realized their families' plans to continue tight control of the world's wealth would only lead to global disaster. For many years, 95% of the world's wealth was controlled by these powerful people.

The Wealthy Visionaries determined that changes were necessary for the world to survive, since their families were unwilling to make the crucial improvements. They realized that only people UNATTACHED to the STATUS QUO would make the necessary improvements to safeguard the world.

I learned that this early group of Wealthy Visionaries grew to include additional powerful people holding the same vision of world improvements. I applied the term “White Knights” to these powerful, courageous, determined people. I learned that this group of powerful White Knights was THE FORCE actively pressing our prosperity program (and 50+ similar prosperity programs) forward for distribution.

Before I go on, let me explain how I came to use the term “White Knights”. My professional background is in business and large business computer systems. The phrase “White Knights” is a term I borrowed from the world of multi-million-dollar financial transactions, where one company buys or merges with another company. In the financial business world, a “White Knight” is a wealthy person or company who comes to the rescue of another company which is being threatened by a hostile takeover.

In my tracking the progress of our prosperity program, it became very clear that there were “hostile” parties trying to take control of our prosperity; I call these hostile parties the “Opposition”. I learned the powerful, high-integrity White Knights had been working for many years to move the proceeds of these programs into the hands of the program members. These proceeds total ASTRONOMICAL AMOUNTS. There have been many very secret conflicts fought over these funds. The White Knights have been taking action to get these proceeds into the hands of the RIGHTFUL recipients and have RESCUED our programs' funds from the Opposition many times over the years.

Symbolically, I used “White” to denote purity of motivation and high spiritual orientation; I used “Knights” to denote courageous people who TAKE ACTION. The White Knights include people of all races, all ethnic backgrounds, all religions, 180 countries; people whose positions enable them to bring forth worldwide changes. These brave people have received many death threats from the Opposition, yet continue to move these improvements forward.

To protect them, I avoid giving their names. However, I can give you some of their titles. The White Knights worldwide include: a former leader of a major European nation; judges of the World Court, which has jurisdiction and control over all 50+ of these prosperity programs; certain high-integrity members of Congress; highly-respected current and previous top U.S. military leaders; the worldwide expert on monetary and banking systems; the leader of an important foreign nation; key people in the world's monetary systems organizations; certain currently serving members of the U.S. cabinet; U.S. military intelligence agents and U.S. patriot military groups; U.S. monetary system officials; the East Coast Coalition attorneys; the Farm Claims attorneys and leaders; some onshore and offshore banking leaders; and many more powerful people whose names you would recognize.

I also have a group of people I have named the “Divine Coalition”—which includes powerful people worldwide who have cooperated with the White Knights. The Divine Coalition includes members of nearly all the top world banking families who have, in recent years, joined the White Knights in efforts to IMPROVE the world, rather than destroy it.

The Divine Coalition includes members of the Bilderbergers group; foreign intelligence and government officials who are helping to bring forth these worldwide banking and legal improvements. Yes, I know, most of us who have studied the manipulators of the world know the top banking families and the Bilderbergers have been key manipulators in the past. However, I have seen that members from these groups have changed allegiance in the last few years, and most are now actively working to IMPROVE, rather than exploit and destroy, the world. Many of these powerful people are steadfastly aligned WITH the White Knights and AGAINST the old guard Opposition.

As I delved deeper into the history of these prosperity programs, I learned that there had been attempts to distribute the prosperity of these programs many times over the last few decades. Some of these programs began over 15 years ago! From my research, it appears that devious bankers and government officials BLOCKED the distribution of these programs over and over again through the years. By the fact that the World Court has jurisdiction over these 50+ programs, it's obvious there were many legal battles attempting to get these programs funded, and finally the only choice was for the World Court itself to take over.

“Why?” you may ask. “Why did people block the distribution of these prosperity programs?” There are many reasons: (1) those controlling these large amounts of money found ways to make profits for themselves; (2) the banks involved benefited by keeping the money in their banks and were reluctant to let it go; (3) powerful people, including bankers, politicians, and others feared the changes that inevitably come when ordinary people utilize these funds to improve the world rather than support the status quo; (4) government officials repeatedly stole large amounts of the money to use for their personal benefit and the White Knights repeatedly RESCUED the money.

Basically, the whole tug-of-war has been over POWER and MONEY. All the insiders knew that when these prosperity programs were distributed, many powerful people would lose their power to control and manipulate.

As the years went by, the 50+ prosperity programs were blocked from distribution of proceeds over and over. The programs were repeatedly stuck in the pipeline by paperwork tricks of unscrupulous program leaders, bankers, and government officials.

It became clear to the White Knights that, in addition to distributing the proceeds, there needed to be a MAJOR OVERHAUL of banking and monetary systems and governments. It was obvious that abuse of power and corruption needed to be cleared out of banking and government in order to support the kind of worldwide improvements necessary to ensure a healthy future for all on the planet.

As is common when Divine timing aligns, a major synchronicity occurred in the 1990s. This provided the exact answer the White Knights needed to improve banking, monetary, and government systems in the United States. They knew some of these improvements would necessarily spread to the rest of the world because of the U.S. dollar's importance in the world economy and banking. I also think a certain White Knight monetary genius helped make certain the whole world would benefit from the improvements in the U.S. by helping the U.S. dollar become the world standard in so many ways. All of us, worldwide, will benefit from this White Knight's genius and dedication.

This wonderful synchronicity in the 1990s was put into motion years earlier by some U.S. farmers suing U.S. bankers who were illegally foreclosing on farm properties. I think most of us remember Willie Nelson doing the Farm Aid music concerts to help farmers save their farms.

Willie Nelson began doing Farm Aid concerts to raise money for the farm families who were losing their farms in the '70s and '80s.

It turns out that these farmers did some research and realized that many of the farm foreclosures were due to ILLEGAL tricks by the U.S. bankers. The farmers' lawsuits uncovered collusion by corrupt U.S. government officials with the dishonest bankers! A whole array of farmers' lawsuits went up through the state, federal, and Supreme Court processes.

The Supreme Court decisions found that the farmers' petitions were VALID. The Supreme Court validated the farmers' petitions for restitution from the federal government and awarded restitution to the farmers. Due to the massive government fraud, there was also a requirement that other Americans be given the opportunity to file for restitution of damages by the federal government. These historic court decisions became the basis for the process of "Farm Claims"—where people in the 50 states submitted "claims" for restitution for damages by the federal government. The cutoff date of Farm Claims was in the late 1990s.

I understand there are many thousands of people who submitted "Farm Claims" although the vast majority of Americans were unaware of it. If we had had the Internet in those days, many more people would have known about it. We all owe these brave farmers and others in the Farm Claims lawsuits a HUGE DEBT OF GRATITUDE for their grassroots movement to take on the federal government and the bankers, and expose the corruption and illegal tricks! We can also thank the Farm Claims attorneys and the Supreme Court judges who voted the nearly unanimous Supreme Court decision, which proved the farmers' claims were valid.

What we had with the Farm Claims lawsuits are Americans who took action to stop corruption for the benefit of us all! They were regular people like us, farmers and others, who took courageous action that is NOW resulting in the restoration of liberty to all of us and greater prosperity for all Americans!

In addition to awarding financial damages, the Supreme Court found that the farmers' claims of government fraud were true. The Court required that MAJOR government reforms be enacted at the SAME TIME as the payment of damages to the Farm Claims people. The Court's findings of the Farm Claims lawsuits are also the legal foundations of NESARA. It was stipulated that ALL these landmark court decisions MUST REMAIN SECRET until the government reforms, banking reforms, and Farm Claims restitution distributions were COMPLETELY READY.

Over a year ago, in June 2000, I learned about a SECRET LAW that had been passed in March 2000, in the United States. This law was passed constitutionally and included a gag order WITH PENALTY OF DEATH if any official involved PUBLICLY discussed it prior to its OFFICIAL announcement!

In June, 2000, 15 months ago, I was told by my first White Knight contact (a military intelligence person) that this Secret Law:

1. Eliminates the IRS and federal income taxes;
2. Provides certain major debt forgiveness for people in the U.S.;
3. Implements the new U.S. banking and monetary system of precious metals-backed currency and the Federal Reserve absorbed into the U.S. Treasury Department;
4. Restores our personal liberties and implements MASSIVE IMPROVEMENTS in the federal government; and MUCH MORE.

In mid-October 2000, I learned from a high intelligence contact that the Secret Law had been signed, and a few days later I learned the acronym for it's name: NESARA. Because of the Supreme Court's REQUIREMENT to keep the lawsuit results SECRET, all official word of NESARA was forbidden until the corrections to the federal government, banking improvements, and prosperity program distributions were ready to be implemented. This is why we failed to ever hear about these landmark decisions and why the first official word on NESARA is the public announcement.

Over the last two years, I have learned of the immense numbers of steps and processes required to get everything ready WORLDWIDE and in all 50+ programs AT THE SAME TIME so that all could go forward. I learned that the White Knights had required the U.S. government's agreement to distribute all these long-awaited prosperity programs at the SAME TIME that the new banking and government improvements were implemented. There were a series of legally binding "Accords" signed by various heads of the federal government over the years that set forth the conditions of how all this would occur AND GUARANTEED the funding of our prosperity programs!

The Accords are the legally binding instruments used to press forward these momentous banking, government, and prosperity activities. The opposition used every trick possible along the way to delay the completion of the hundreds, perhaps thousands, of steps involved in aligning all these programs, the worldwide banking and monetary improvements, and U.S. government reforms. The opposition used everything—from unmerited court challenges against distribution, to outright thievery, to trumped-up court cases in Illinois—to interference with our prosperity programs, to coercion and physical harm of hundreds of people over the years.

The Opposition knows that their power and control END with the implementation of all the requirements in the Accords.

This, dear friends, is WHY the Opposition ordered the 9/11/2001 attacks on the WTC, the Pentagon, and the Pennsylvania location.

The opposition knew that the final word had been given notifying the networks to get ready to broadcast NESARA's announcement. This meant the END of their power was MERE HOURS away.

The Opposition also planned to try to steal the funds of these prosperity programs for their own uses. In addition, they intended to try to start a war.

ALL these things were part of why the Opposition ordered the 9/11/2001 attacks. POWER and GREED are the Opposition's driving motives; unfortunately for them, they sealed their fates totally on 9/11/2001.

One good thing came out of these attacks: there has been a massive CLEAN-UP of all the black ops groups in our country and around the world. All of us are benefiting from this clean-up.

Let's continue our prayers, meditations, and energy work invoking the Great Divine Unconditional Love permeating the Washington, DC and Pentagon areas, our White Knights, and all their activities. Let's envision our White Knight NESARA experts talking to us from the White House, on television and radio. I will meet you for our group energizing at 10-10:30 p.m. EDT and let's continue our unified focus: "NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW!"

To join the Dove e-group, simply send an email to: doveofosubscribe@yahoo.com and reply to Yahoo's request for confirmation.

We are entering a new era of PEACE, PROSPERITY, HARMONY, and VITALITY on planet Earth. Our White Knights and Divine Coalition members everywhere have worked strenuously for years to bring forth these wonderful improvements for all of us. Much has had to be kept secret in order for these great improvements to be made ready. When NESARA is airing on television and the radio, let us celebrate in loving gratitude the many blessings of NESARA!

Blessings and Love, Dove of Oneness

Is the above information too much to hope for? It surely won't hurt to add your good thoughts and prayers to help the cause along. A good omen is the open acknowledgment that this project is a coordinated effort of ones on the Earth plane with help from the Lighted Higher Realms. Any endeavor of such massive general humanitarian benefit that acknowledges God (and His Helpers) as a central feature is bound for success through one route or another.

Now we come to a most intriguing contribution to this unfolding story. And you needed to have the above information BEFORE some of the following, for background.

Longtime SPECTRUM readers are well aware of Al Bielek and his many years of revealing, through lectures, books, videos, conferences, and related avenues—from the perspective of a first-hand participant—information about the Navy’s infamous “Philadelphia Experiment” during World War II, and later the extremely top-secret “Montauk Project”—having to do with secret government time-travel and mind-control technologies employed for a wide range of self-serving, manipulative shenanigans.

Our last visit with these subjects was Rick Martin’s front-page interview “Montauk & Philadelphia Experiments: ‘Back To The Future’. A New Interview With Al Bielek” in the January 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM. However, Al’s information shows up on a regular basis within these pages, such as within the front-page feature “From Invisibility To Time-Travel: The Montauk Project’s Wild Ride Through History” in our October 2000 issue.

Recently, Rick Martin diverted his attention from research for an upcoming feature to conduct and transcribe the following interview with Al Bielek on 9/25/01. Actually, Rick’s interview with Al was supposed to cover the subject matter for the upcoming feature. But what you will read here was an “aside” within that lengthier interview which obviously is quite important to our present topic.

Revealing Interviews With Al Bielek: Truth Stranger Than Fiction

9/25/01 BIELEK/MARTIN

Bielek: ... after that damned planned mess in New York. It was thoroughly planned, and deliberately executed the way it was.

Martin: Well, do you have any information about that?

Bielek: Sure do.

Martin: You do?

Bielek: Yes. Now, are you familiar with the National Economic Stabilization And Recovery Act? [Editor’s note: This is the NESARA matter that was just explained in the previous article above.] I finally obtained confirmation about the National Economic Stabilization And Recovery Act from two different sources. This was a bill that was passed, signed, and approved, which was to re-establish gold-backing for our currency and re-establish the control in the Treasury Department.

It was to be announced at 9:00 a.m. on September 11, 2001—simultaneously from the Trade Centers and from the Pentagon, the joint announcement being made through the “locked computers”.

Now, at 8:45 a.m. the one building was hit where the offices were for this. At some time later, the Pentagon was hit. And, of course, guess which wing of the Pentagon was hit? The one with the computers involved with the National Economic Stabilization And Recovery Act.

Martin: Now, are you getting this information through “the Dove”, through RuMills?

Bielek: No, no, I’m getting this directly from people WHO ARE IN THE KNOW! And, obviously, while the bill is still, apparently, “passed”, it is totally swept aside in the rush to judgment and the rush to a war.

Now, there is another thing that was upcoming, that I think you covered, yourself, in The SPECTRUM, as well as being covered elsewhere—approximately September 18th was to be the hearings in Congress on the legitimacy of the IRS, through one of the Congressional hearing groups, and one Congressman who did get the Judicial Department and IRS to agree to come to the hearings. And they were going to establish, once and for all, the legitimacy or illegitimacy of the IRS. So, that was scheduled for the 18th, or right around that date.

[Editor’s note: For those of you who may want to check out what we reported on this matter, go back to pages 5-7, in the News Desk, in the August 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM under the heading “IRS: The Law That Never Was. Government To Address Legitimate Claims About Illegitimate Income Tax”.

BUT—get this: That story was directly followed by a tragically prophetic story titled “Don’t Be Naive! IRS-Government’s Plans To Stop The Truth From Coming Out”. The very much “in-the-know” author of that story cautioned that, while it was remarkable and wonderful that the IRS fraud matter had—through sheer determination and persistence of a private citizen—progressed as far as the “possibility” of upcoming congressional hearings, that:

“Those in power, both in the government and the real powers behind the government, are not—repeat NOT—fools. In my opinion there are multitudes of things that could occur before the September 18th and 19th deadline.

“For one, those powers I previously mentioned have been responsible for many suspicious disappearances and deaths over the years. I am not trying to be an alarmist and truly hope nothing like this occurs, but let’s be real and realize exactly what those forces are and acknowledge that those forces are aligned against the patriot and tax-honesty movements. They are merciless and vicious beyond comprehension.

“What would such an occurrence do to these hearings, especially if something like this occurred just before the hearing? Oh, there would be bruhaha, but nothing of note more than that.

“Remember JFK, MLK, RFK, TWA Flight 800, etc. Look at the string of suspicious deaths trailing our recent former president! And what is to prevent a sudden (manufactured) crisis from interfering with the scheduled start of this hearing, and its postponement as a result?”

A sudden, manufactured crisis—indeed!]

So, both of those have been swept into limbo, and all kinds of strange things have happened since.

It is also, of course, of great interest that the President said that this is our “Pearl Harbor” all over again. Well, he couldn’t have spoken truer words because Pearl Harbor was deliberately ordered by President Roosevelt. He ordered Admiral Kimmel, on Saturday night, December 6th, to tie-up the fleet in Pearl Harbor—over Kimmel’s objections, who said: “We expect an attack.”

Roosevelt said: “You WILL tie-up the fleet. THAT IS AN ORDER!”

And he said the same to General Short: “You will tie-up the planes on the ground”—in nice, neat little clumps, making them perfect targets. So, we had Pearl Harbor on December 7th, and everybody knows what happened after that. Kimmel and Short were relieved of their duty, being “in dereliction of duty”. They didn’t get their “courts-martial” until 1947, or 1948, and they were exonerated.

[Editor’s note: Again Al makes a very important point about psychological manipulation or mass mind-control; take your pick. The sentiment of the people of the United States before Pearl Harbor was strongly to stay out of war—and Roosevelt campaigned on that very promise. Now the question becomes: How do we get the people to not only agree to go to war, but do so enthusiastically so the money-making “war machine” can be cranked-up to a truly grand scale? Answer: Why, we manufacture an emotional event to rally the people for going to war—Pearl Harbor.]

But here we have, again, a similar situation. The economy is faltering, and it’s faltering apparently in Europe, also, and elsewhere. So, how else do you get the economy back on an even keel and prop things up? You have a war.

Martin: That’s right.

Bielek: Now, how can you have a war when there is no opposition in the world, no power strong enough to contest the United States militarily, or any combination thereof? Even though we’re weakened from our position of years ago, we’re still so strong, nobody would ever dare to attack us. Not in the normal manner of military attack.

So, what do they do? Make an “arrangement”—and I’m sure everybody is in on it. I won’t blame the Pentagon, but certainly the Executive Branch is, and possibly certain intelligence agencies, because CNN broadcast that there were three warnings of this impending attack, one as early as six months ago in Germany. A German citizen went to the government, told them what he knew, and they just ignored it. [Just like happened with good-intentioned people who warned about an attack like Pearl Harbor.] And then there were two more warnings, and then came the attack that morning, timed perfectly to squelch the announcement about “we are back on the gold standard”. I’ve been hearing about this for months.

Martin: I have been, too.

Bielek: Now, a friend in Atlanta, whom I called earlier, said: “Yes, he knew all about that. It had been passed and was about to be announced.” So, no announcement.

Now we have a very interesting situation. There’s no military power to have a war against or declare “the enemy”, so what do you do?

There’s a “War on Terrorism” and a “War on Evil”. So, the President and his advisors are singling-out Afghanistan and a certain character over there who was guilty for other things in the past. But bin Laden, from the information I have—and my own remote viewing totally washed his hands of it: “I’ll have nothing to do with this. All you’re going to do is bring down World War III on us.”

And he does not have the money or the power, himself, to pull such a stunt. THIS TOOK A MUCH LARGER GROUP!

Martin: It was a very sophisticated operation, whatever it was.

Bielek: Now, how do you explain, NOT 4 BUT 8 AIRCRAFT being hijacked on the same morning, to do their various things? Two in the Trade Centers, one in the Pentagon, number four crashed in Western Pennsylvania, approximately 80 miles SE of Pittsburgh. It was disputed whether it was shot-down or whether it was rammed, or what happened to it. But the fifth craft, which was NOT an aircraft, came down eight miles from it. Then there were six, seven, and eight. Number six and seven were downed, apparently forced down by fighter craft. Number eight was shot down. I don’t know if I have the sequence correctly, but I’m speaking in general terms.

It was a much larger operation that the public has not been told about, and there were other targets which were targeted. But we did find out that number four plane, in Pennsylvania, had headed-out from Newark. It was slated to go to Chicago. Part way there, it changed course to go to Pittsburgh, and that was in its flight computers.

Then, when it was near Pittsburgh, it made a request and had permission, again, to change direction once more. It headed toward Pennsylvania, another part on the Eastern slopes, so to speak, down on the South part of the state, and a special restricted military area which had a very special installation. The flight computer was set for the plane to crash in that area. It was brought down before it happened.

Now, there’s something very smelly, to high Heaven, about all of this because the intelligence community is NOT that incapable; they’re not stupid! There are some very intelligent, capable people in it.

NSA can pick out conversations from anybody on the planet—read your mind, anybody’s, based on your own brainwave pattern and signature—from 75 miles up, with their satellites; that’s well documented in a recent issue of Free American. They did a long article, nearly 40 pages, on NSA and what it’s up to.

So, they HAVE the intelligence. So WHO ORDERED THIS? Obviously to get us into war—whoever it was, or whatever group it was. And there was much more than that involved. Quite obviously to squash the remonetization of our currency with gold; and two, to stop the investigation of the IRS, which had gotten to the Congress, finally, and was going to be an open, recorded meeting, covered by the media.

They couldn’t possibly allow this, because the money-bags of the world do not want their little fat cow over here, called the Fed, shot-down, or the IRS shot-down, and worst of all, remonetize our money with gold. So, here we are.

Martin: I’ve been hearing about remonetization for a long time, and it’s been very difficult to sort the disinformation from the fact in that whole story. It’s almost been a smoke-screen over the last couple of years. It’s hard to know whether it’s true or not.

Bielek: Yes, they managed to pull it off, from what I hear and what I understand. I did get this from some inside sources. It was a done deal, and they were going to announce it on that morning on September 11.

Martin: So where does this stand now? Why would it be “off”?

Bielek: Well, we’re under War Emergency Powers. The President’s been given War Emergency Powers; besides, he can usurp them anyway under the Emergency War Powers Act. But where this bill is, and what it’s going to do, if anything, is a very hard question to answer. Nobody has an answer for that one; it’s just swept under the rug, under the great rush to declare the “War on Terrorism”.

Martin: Is there anything else going on in Afghanistan?

Bielek: Well, everybody is fleeing the state. Practically everybody around Afghanistan has severed diplomatic relations from the Taliban. And he’s probably going to stand alone. There was one, over the weekend, reported one of our unmanned spy planes over Afghanistan was shot down, or came down, they’re not sure which because the range of the unmanned ones is not that great. They’re limited; it might have run out of range and on the way back, crashed; I don’t know.

Martin: Is there any other “agenda” with Afghanistan?

Bielek: Not that I know of, at this point, other than the announced ones. But what is interesting is, of course, the President, yesterday, I believe, signed the bill seizing all funds of terrorists, and cutting-off the transfer of funds which may be involved with terrorism.

Do you have any idea what that’s done to business in the United States in the last couple of days?

Martin: No.

Bielek: It’s frozen all business activities and actions overseas—between overseas and here, or here and overseas. Business in this country is virtually at a stand-still, on the high levels, because they cannot transfer funds.

Martin: I didn’t know that.

Bielek: I got this right from somebody who is right in the middle of it. He’s been shut-off; he cannot get money from overseas; he has lots of orders for his merchandise, which happens to be high-security systems, computer phones, and otherwise. He says he has the merchandise, but he can’t deliver it because of the fact that he can’t get the money from these people. They can’t transmit it.

So, he said that if this goes on for another month or so, you’re going to see a general collapse in this country. That was his statement, and his opinion. I don’t think it will happen in a month, but it could certainly happen by the end of the year.

[Editor’s note: Perhaps this monetary restriction “excuse” actually helps to insure a tie-up of any transfers of the kinds of funds associated with the NESARA prosperity programs discussed in the previous article. Moreover, such a restriction would allow an excuse for the government to block large foreign investors from withdrawing their fortunes.]

Martin: If you’ve been talking to insiders, you obviously are talking to some of the people who are on the good side; let’s call them the “White Hats”.

Bielek: Oh yes, they’re all on the side of the democratic institutions, and the Republic, and maintaining the freedoms of our Republic.

Martin: But where does it stand now? Are they just going to go “underground”?

Bielek: I don’t know. I do not know what’s going to happen in that respect. So far as I can see, part of it has boomeranged because a lot of questions are now being asked, even in the Congress and in the military:

- “Do we REALLY want to engage in a military action against Afghanistan?”

- “Let’s slow down and take a look at what you’re doing.”

- “You don’t REALLY want to engage them on a military basis.”

Look what happened to Russia? After ten years they put their tails between their legs and ran back home and admitted defeat. And they’re saying we’ll have the same problem.

We don’t want to send in troops in large numbers and create a Holy War against the United States. They already have the people and the biological weapons here in this country, ready to dump in the water supplies and wherever else they think they can get away with it. This sort of thing could lead to a major escalation.

They’re saying: “Slow down; take a look at this. Now, what we really need to do”—and with this I can agree with—“is send in Special Ops teams, undercover.”

They can accomplish far more than any frontal military assault could ever accomplish.

Because all you're going to do is turn all of Afghanistan, and all of Moslem people, Moslem-land, and the whole religious group, against us. They are NOT against us, at this point, but they're waiting to see what happens.

Martin: Well, I can't help but wonder—I'm sure that the various extraterrestrials are watching this thing VERY carefully.

Bielek: I would state, to take your point a little further, that they're not just watching it, they're mixed-up in the middle of it, because too many of our government posts have been taken-over by well-disguised ETs. How many, who, and what positions, I don't know; but I do know that this has happened. David Icke has been very outspoken in a 7-page announcement on the net, which I have a copy of.

Martin: We will be publishing that in our next paper. [That's the first item, all the way back at the beginning of this lengthy story.]

Bielek: There is a considerable amount of opposition. And, of course, what has happened on one hand, which was not expected, is UNITING AMERICANS, FOR AMERICA, and, of course, flags are being sold like crazy, and people are getting back their Spirit of America.

Now, there's another aspect to this: If enough people decide "America for Americans", the movement to kick the U.N. out of the U.S., sponsored by a certain Congressman from Texas, may get more impetus. That's, at the present time, swept aside and buried because of the pressure for the "War Declaration". Representative Ron Paul, the Congressman from Texas, he sponsored this bill. I have the paperwork on it. It's active in Congress—it was, of course, until the attack, and it was making some headway. There might be more feeling in this direction, because the idea of becoming, let us say, now, the international peacemaker and the international policeman, which is exactly what our dear President is proposing, "Make the world safe—period" for whatever you want to call it, whether it's against terrorism, or against evil, what-have-you, would create more terror and evil in our actions than ever was proposed by any of these other groups.

Martin: That's right.

Bielek: War IS terrorism.

Martin: Do you perceive, if the ETs are in it, are they taking the position that they will do whatever is necessary to PREVENT an all-out war? Or are they in a monitoring position?

Bielek: I kind of figure that [the ETs are involved], because tied-in with this operation of September 11th, there are some VERY STRANGE aspects involved here.

[Editor's note: We will have more to say at a later time about the magnificent role that the Good Guys "Upstairs" are playing in the "chess game" that is underway at this time between the Forces of Good and the Forces of Evil on planet Earth. And that is the basis of Rick's question above to Al.

However, Al's answer to Rick focuses on the aliens who are ON this planet, trapped here, and working for a long time with the secret-government power-mongers who are trying to maintain their control of the planet and its peoples.

Indeed, we have VERY reliable reports of some VERY strange aspects to this "terrorist attack" event—like Al refers to above—but we will not reveal that data at this time out of respect for the personal safety of the ones "in the know" on these matters. Let us just say that the crooks in high places are employing some of their most secret and advanced technologies (mostly unknown—and perhaps completely unbelievable—to the public) to manipulate the "play" that is unfolding before our eyes as "reality". "Things are not as they seem to be" is a very pregnant clue to keep in mind concerning the outrageous kinds of shenanigans actually going on right now to manipulate this unconscionable fraud upon the American people.]

We have a real problem here. We have been time-manipulated. We are in what I would call a Time War. Now, who is responsible for this? I don't know. And, how it is being played out, we don't know.

They have a really serious problem. They have, of course, 6,000 missing personnel, as claimed—actually, probably much more than that because the normal compliment of those two towers is around 50,000 during work days. And only 1,000 or so escaped, and they're announcing 6,000 bodies?

What happened to the other 40,000 or more?

The figures WILL GO UP. And a friend of mine, who has been there, said that you have to wear a respirator in the vicinity of that pile of rubble. He said the stench from dead bodies is unbelievable.

Martin: Oh, I'm sure that's true.

Bielek: He says he was only allowed some 20 minutes in there, with a respirator with oxygen, and then he was pulled out.

They have about 300 bodies that have been identified. And most of them were of the police and fire people. There was a large number who escaped. Nobody knows how many because

Al Bielek on CD-ROM

What you get on this CD-ROM is the most in-depth compilation of interviews with survivors of the Philadelphia Experiment and Montauk Project to date on one computer CD.

The information on this CD comes from the memories of those who were interviewed. Because these projects are so secretive, gaining hard evidence is nearly impossible. However, that doesn't mean the projects never happened.

This information is for those who want to pursue and know the truth. Sometimes, finding the truth becomes elusive. There are many out there who do not want you to know the truth about these projects. Use your own judgment as you hear the words of these survivors.

As you follow this story, use this information as the beginning resource to hopefully, get you on the right track.

The five people featured on this CD all testify that they worked with Al at the Montauk Project, and some even remember him as Ed Cameron during the Philadelphia Experiment.

CD INTERVIEW CONTENT:

Al Bielek

Life of Ed Cameron
Visit to Alpha Centauri
Philadelphia Experiment
Trip to 2137, Trip to 2749
Trip to Mars and 100,000 B.C.
Life of Al Bielek
History of Montauk
Montauk Boys Program
Montauk Mind-Control Program
Montauk Time-Travel Program

Psychic Operations Program
Duncan Cameron Involvement

Duncan Cameron

Memories of Montauk
Stewart Swerdlow
Being a Montauk Boys Programmer
Human Genetic Manipulation
Involvement With E.T.s

Preston Nichols

Working With Al Bielek at Montauk
Stealth Technology Development

Mind-Control Development
Montauk Boys Program

Larry James

Operating the Time-Control Program
Experiments With Time Travel (JFK Assassination, Civil War, WWII)
Involvement With Al Bielek at Montauk
What Happened To Ed Cameron?

Dr. James F. Corum

Replication of Radar Invisibility

CD-ROM contains over 25 hours of audio interviews encoded in MP3 and RealAudio G2. CD is formatted in ISO 9660 format and is IBM, Mac, and Unix compatible.

$29.95 (+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

nobody counted noses as they ran out of the buildings. Everybody was running away, as far as possible.

[Editor's note: While we're on the difficult subject of body parts within the rubble, we are aware, here at The SPECTRUM, of some unusual forensic pathology findings from the very precise DNA testing of found "body" parts being conducted for identification purposes. Some data indicate "human" remains (no surprise there) while other data indicate "animal" remains—and at a puzzlingly HIGH amount. Is the latter perhaps from a lot of refrigerated meat lockers of restaurants that were within the WTC rubble? Or is this a clue to something much more peculiar—due to the reportedly unaccountably large percentage of DNA-identified "animal" parts? Such information, if correct, could add more substance to the premise that something VERY strange actually happened at the World Trade Center towers that day of the so-called "terrorist" attacks.]

When the final explosions came to bring the building down—and if you watch carefully on the replays, there ARE explosions on the top floors which blow the buildings' walls out and start the collapse. As it goes on down, you see more of the same. Those buildings were blown deliberately. They would NEVER have come down on their own.

Keep in mind that they ALL have charges in them, in case of serious earthquake activity or other serious problems which threaten the stability of the buildings. They're designed for an 8-degree sway factor, with sway sensors in the buildings.

They are designed to withstand 8 degrees of sway—even if a plane plows right into them, which, of course, is what happened. They will not come down from that. They are much too strong, much too heavy steel.

And they won't melt, either, because JP4 jet fuel doesn't burn hot enough, and they have a fire-retardant in them by the authorization and demands of the FAA a couple of years ago.

So, all the high skyscrapers now—because of what happened in '93 and the consideration that the terrorists at that time were trying to bring the Trade Center down, namely, fall over, because of where they placed the charges, but it didn't work—but the concern was that if a building like the World Trade Center building, 1200 feet high, were to come down, it would wipe out several city blocks of buildings; therefore, they put charges in them.

All of the high skyscrapers now, theoretically, have charges in them so that if, for some reason, they sway excessively—12 degrees is considered excessive—beyond 12 degrees they will be controlled, the charges will be set off, and they will be brought down vertically, imploded on themselves. And they consider the loss of life from THAT is far less than what would happen if the building came down sideways and took out several blocks.

Martin: And WHO is responsible for the charges?

Bielek: I do not know. The Port Authority, apparently, had the authority for putting the buildings up. I do not know if they were the actual “owners” of the buildings or not.

But I understand, the day before, on the 10th of September, the buildings were sold to a new owner, who took out new insurance, that day, with Lloyds of London, who had not insured both Towers, only one, and then not for the stated value of each building, which was then estimated to be $5.6 billion. But they could only get partial insurance, something like $1.3 billion or $1.9 billion insurance. The rest of it was uninsured. The other building was uninsured.

And whoever bought those buildings from that day before, I'm sure, has suffered a terrible, grievous loss. Now the insurance companies are involved in this because there are many other aspects than just the insurance on the buildings.

You've got insurance for all fixtures, insurance for files, for records, for equipment in the various offices. All the insurance companies but one said they would waive the “War Clause”, which says we don't have to pay in a case of an Act of War. They all said they would pay-off, except one, I understand; I have no idea who that one was. But they said they would honor their policies.

But it's going to be months figuring this out, for sure, and trying to come up with answers. It will probably be a year before these things are fully resolved and settled.

But there are so many strange factors involved in all of this. WHO would be so upset that they would, quite literally, waive the loss of life and the loss of the two prime symbols, in the United States, of our economic prowess and economic strength, to take those down? Who would go to those lengths? And what is to be gained by it?

Well, one reason, of course, is we're NOT going to go back to the gold standard right now. Secondly, they're not going to investigate the IRS. And thirdly, they have put a complete lock on the finances in the United States for money going out of the U.S. or coming into the U.S. It must be thoroughly examined to see if it is “clean money” and not “laundered money”. That can take days to weeks.

So, somebody gains from this, or it wouldn't have been done. We didn't have such pathetically violent reactions in the case of World War II, when Pearl Harbor was hit. They didn't slam us with all kinds of restrictions and controls on the banks, and money, and everything else. We were having a terrible depression at the time, and of course it got us out of it.

Martin: And, of course, the “Call for War” went out.

Bielek: It was IMMEDIATE! Not only in the case of Pearl Harbor, but in the case of the attacks on the Trade Center.

This is the first time that a civilian target has been targeted for destruction. Previously, of course, it was always military targets, such as in Pearl Harbor.

So one has to look at this. WHO IS GOING TO PROFIT FROM THIS? And the view of those who are quite familiar with conspiracy theory—I'm partially but not fully—the plan, according to those who are familiar with these theories, is to collapse the U.S. economy, have everybody go into a panic, then declare Martial Law. And then, of course, they have a dictatorship and they have everybody under control. Take it from there.

If they were stupid enough to produce complete economic collapse, no matter how they manage it, there's going to be some very, very serious consequences, because if the major businesses collapse in this country because of these current problems and edicts—I'm not saying they will, but IF they should—there will definitely be major problems, riots in the cities, and so forth. They'll have NO CHOICE but to declare Martial Law, which is what is wanted by the group that is in back of this, according to conspiracy theory.

And then they will take over this country, and once they have leveled this country and eliminated half of the population, at least, then there is nothing left of this country, no backbone, and the military will be taken over by the U.N., and THEN they will have their One World Government.

It's a scenario which COULD happen. And we are well on the way with what has happened in New York on the 11th of September, and what happened the other day when the President signed the Monetary Anti-Terrorism Control Bill.

Martin: Are you hearing anything about countries withdrawing their support from us, in terms of military action?

Bielek: That they're WITHDRAWING support from us?

Martin: Right.

Bielek: No, I've not heard anything.

[Editor's note: We have heard a number of reports, mostly from well-placed foreign information sources, that there has been a lot of arm-twisting and bribing and internal fighting to achieve any degree of cooperation from other countries—contrary to the cohesive picture of solidarity being blathered by the controlled print and broadcast media.]

The last I heard was, of course, NATO was backing us, and most of the countries of Europe were backing us. And even dear mister Saddam Hussein is now backing us. I guess he had enough back in 1991; he knows what we can do and he doesn't want to be on the wrong side again.

Martin: I don't blame him.

Bielek: No, I don't either. It's sort of a tongue-in-cheek approval of our actions, in which he says: “I PREFER that the United States not use our country for a staging base.” He didn't say “Don't”. He said “I PREFER you don't”—which is leaving the option open.

But the group over there in Afghanistan, and/or wherever else they are, because I don't think we can blame Afghanistan alone. And certainly not the legitimate leaders, because they don't want that kind of terrorism, regardless of what they may say, because it will only come back on them.

Somehow this was all manipulated, and it had been planned. There was a contingency plan afoot for well over a year, maybe two years. All of the “terrorists” were already in the United States; the pilots were already trained.

They interviewed one pilot school down here in Sarasota, Florida. It was on the radio. He trained some of the Afghan pilots. He said: “We checked their credentials. We didn't find anything wrong, so we gave them their training, and they graduated, and that was that.”

They've been searching all over Florida for “terrorists”. They've apparently found quite a few. And why they should all come to Florida, unless it's the fact that Florida is so laid-back, because of the retirees, that nobody would suspect a bunch of “terrorists”, whether they're Afghans or some other group hiding here in the backwoods of Florida. There are quite a few areas here that are backwoods.

Martin: Plus, it's nice and warm down there.

Bielek: It isn't all big cities here. There's a lot of open areas. There's a lot of strings of homes in the semi-marshes and in the green areas. It's well spread-out, communities all over the place.

But in any case, whoever these people were, they had this contingency plan for some time. My observation of this is, when the United States and Israel walked out of the Anti-Terrorism Conference in Durban, South Africa, a month or two ago, that was the first warning sign to whoever the “terrorists” are.

The final element came in Iraq itself, involving something that I can’t talk about, but it involved recovering a sacred object from the Moslems, which we did, and that’s when they hit the roof. And, apparently, put the plan into operation. Certain elements in our intelligence agencies knew all about it in advance, but they, or whoever was in charge, let it go in order to create the climate for war and a War Declaration.

I know three people, personally, who were WARNED—two of them to get out of New York City and the New York area, and the other one not to go near New York, to stay where you are in the Western areas. He was told a week in advance; they all were. So, you’re going to tell me the government and the intelligence people didn’t know in advance it was coming?

Martin: Do you foresee, just hypothetically, that even the friendly Space Command would actually intervene, at some point, if things go nuclear?

Bielek: I would say, my own feeling is that would be a good likelihood. I can’t say I have any knowledge on that. They may well have acted already. And they may be on a “standby” basis for possible further action, should it be necessary. I can’t say that I know so.

[Editor’s note: The following conversation could wait to be part of a later story, but some of what Al has to say below is relevant to what we are being fed by the media about the so-called “terrorist attack” and related issues.]

Martin: I’m working on a story which will be coming out the following month, probably a two-part story, and it’s on UFOs and ET intervention on this planet. The specific question I wanted to get you to comment on, on the record, which we talked about before but I wanted to get it on tape, is—I asked you some months back: “How is it that the American government has been able to withhold from the American people the reality of UFOs and ETs in our world today?” And your response had to do with “hit teams”, etc.

Bielek: They have done it very successfully, most obviously. The reason they have been able to do it is because they have TOTAL CONTROL OF THE MEDIA, except for certain splinter groups [like this newspaper!]; total control of TV, all of the news media. They don’t put anything out that they are not authorized to put out.

Connie Chung let the rabbit out of the hat, some years ago, when she was asked that same question on the air. She said: “It’s very simple. We only put out the news that Washington approves.” Well, she was fired on the spot, and she was “black listed” for two years. But that IS the way that they do it.

They control the news that is released, by certain directives, through the newspapers, through TV, through radio—there’s a few splinter groups, of course, who simply don’t follow that, and they constitute a small minority.

The other aspect is, people don’t ask the right questions anymore, because all of the major cities are under some form of mind control—whether it’s fluorides in the water, or the cell-phone towers, or other electromagnetic manipulations. They are manipulated, to become docile, not ask questions, just get on with your daily work, your daily jobs, and don’t stick your nose into political affairs, too much, unless you’re on the side of the establishment.

Now, the third way that people are controlled is through their pocketbook. Remember, in 1996 they passed the Anti-Terrorism Act. Now, what that states is: Anyone who is a “suspected” terrorist—and the criteria for being a suspected terrorist is up to a 3-judge tribunal, where the “suspected” individual never has the right of confrontation of his accusers, but is judged “in absencia” as to whether or not he is a “suspected terrorist”.

Preston Nichols got himself on that list because of the six books he wrote on the Montauk Project. I got myself because of one book, but I understand I was removed since. I know a third person who got himself on the list, who is apparently off it, now. If you are put on that list, they then examine your financial status. Well, I was so broke that it didn’t mean a thing to them. They didn’t bother me, any more than I had already been bothered.

Preston Nichols had over $5 million in assets. Pfffffftttt—it was gone. They took EVERYTHING from him, except his cars and the house he was living in, which belonged to his father. They wiped him out. They seized all of his assets under the Anti-Terrorism Act of 1996.

Now, the Anti-Terrorism Act of 1996 states that it’s up to them to make the judgment whether you’re guilty or not—if they judge you guilty, it’s up to you to prove your innocence! And if you want to get your funds back, your money back—well, he went to his attorney, and many others did, and there were lawsuits in Congress, out of Congress, all over the place. Congress finally changed the law, that the burden is proof is now on the government to prove that a suspected terrorist really is potentially a terrorist.

So there has been some improvement, but they can take the money away from you. And, of course, under the current situation of the new Anti-Terrorism Bill, they can take the money away from any group, any organization, that they THINK has any slight connection with any terrorist activities; they just freeze the assets and take them, literally. It’s in the Bill that they can seize them.

[Editor’s note: For those of you who want to read the entirety of the Executive Order On Terrorist Financing, (“Blocking Property And Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten To Commit, Or Support Terrorism”)] go to the www.whitehouse.gov/news/releases/2001/09/20010924-1.html Internet website—and try not to get your blood pressure too worked up.]

So that’s the other way they control people, through the pocketbook, if they’re known to be independent thinkers, known to not go along with the party line. If you’re one of the good ol’ boys, go along with the party line, you won’t have any problems. If you’re a member of any one of those three or four famous organizations—the Trilaterals, the CFR, the Bilderbergers, the Skull and Bones, the Club of Rome, or, of course, if you’re high enough up to be part of the Illuminati organization, you’re not going to have any problems.

But the independent thinkers, they descend upon, and they do it now financially, as well as otherwise. In fact, all you have to do is take people’s money out from under them, and they’re helpless to do anything. And hopefully there’s enough of a supporting network to bail them out. So this is how they’re doing it in this country. They’ve been doing it for years.

And you have enough control over enough of the population. The other 10 percent who are out in the splinter groups, they don’t really worry about that much, because if you have 90 percent control, they’ve got all they need.

Martin: Now, for those people who want to come out with hot, new, ET contact information, if the information is too hot, they’re just taken-out, aren’t they? Isn’t that one way of controlling information?

Bielek: It’s amazing that Dr. Greer is still around with the program he’s been pushing. [Editor’s note: Steven M. Greer, M.D., is an emergency physician and Founder and Director of CSETI (the Center for the Study of ExtraTerrestrial Intelligence).] He has A LOT OF SOLID PEOPLE IN BACK OF HIM, from NASA, ex-military, ex-intelligence, with a lot of sightings. I read the August issue of SPECTRUM.

Greer has a lot of backing from people at the grass-roots level. And he’s going to be hard to stop because of the grass-roots backing.

This is the thing they fear. If it’s a grass-roots uprising, with enough people, it will get out of control. If it gets out of control, then Washington doesn’t know what to do except pull out the troops. And I think what they’re going to find is that there are not that many brainwashed troops, Americans that is, who are going to fire on their own people. They have to pull-in the Chinese troops, or the Russian troops, or whatever else they may have in the background, to try and control the population, if it starts to get out of hand.

If people knew that the bill had been passed to remonetize our money with gold-backing, if enough people knew about this and knew that it had just been thwarted by this incident, by this event on the 11th of September, I think there would be enough people who would probably look at this, and decide that they might even march on Washington. But that's my opinion.

I'm not inciting riot. I'm not saying this is what should happen. I'm saying that this possibly COULD happen, if enough people were aware of what has been stopped because of this incident, the Declaration of War, the Declaration against Terrorists, by taking their money, and any money source, including overseas. They've gotten the co-operation of all of the overseas major banks, to freeze assets, or block the transmission of assets between Europe and the U.S. or anywhere in the world. As I say, this is through approved channels, and the money has been approved.

Twenty years ago, Clayton Tedeton prayed to God for guidance. That night, God wrote a formula in lights on his bedroom wall. That formula was for Miracle II Soap! Guided by God, packaged with prayer, Miracle II products are natural, biologically harmless, non-carcinogenic and the best God Blessed cleaner on Earth! Cleans your body, your baby, and your pets. Kill the insects in your garden and clean your oven without gloves or masks. Removes stains and does your laundry. The Neutralizer neutralizes acids and balances the PH in your body, your garden. Clears up acne and can reduce cellulite. There are literally thousands of uses. Miracle II Soap, Miracle II Soap w/ Moisturizer, & Neutralizer come in 22 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Miracle 2 Neutralizer Gel and Moisturizers come in 16 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Deodorant Stone is $12.00 and Miracle II Laundry Ball, guaranteed for 3 years, is $52.00. Shipping is $4.00 each. Get the whole package, including shipping, less the Laundry Ball, for $100.00. With the Ball, $150.00. All of the testimonials & uses are on our website:

<http://freeamerican.com>

Attention Ranchers and Farmers:
Miracle II works wonders on livestock and crops. Get it by the gallon! ($67)

FREE AMERICAN
FREE AMERICAN GROUP
2943 U.S. HIGHWAY 380
BINGHAM, NM 87832
877-423-3250

Subscribe to the Free American Newsmagazine - $40/yr
The best news magazine in the USA. Free copy w/order!

Other things fall-out from this. The people who are working on free-energy machines, like the one in Australia, some here in this country, go without funds.

[Editor's note: No real surprise here. See last month's issue of The SPECTRUM for an update on the subject of Free-Energy devices and related research.]

Another example of this "bleed you to death" procedure (literally and/or figuratively) was what David Hudson went through in Arizona, over the past five or so years, that finally squashed his facility and enterprise for manufacturing the interesting substance he was calling the "ORME (Orbitally Rearranged Monoatomic Elements) product" or the "white powder of gold" with the different, unusual molecular structure that had strong positive health effects. David himself suffered a serious heart attack, and his well-planned manufacturing facility met with a series of "accidents" which brought the feds and an avalanche of paperwork and other red-tape delaying tactics that bled the enterprise dry. Sadly, SPECTRUM readers are generally well aware of the wide array of gestapo tactics used to keep any uppity aspects of the citizenry in check—whether in the areas of science, medicine/health, politics, finance, etc.

At the end of Al's interview with Rick for the future feature story, he returns to our current subject with another very important point:]

No, we have a ways to go. The ways to go that we have to do, particularly in this country—although it also applies, to some extent, with many other countries—the public has to be alert, aware, and willing to stand up and be heard and override their supposed representatives, who have largely become their rulers; people have to be heard, and make sure they're heard. So, yeah, this is one of the problems. The public has been steamrolled.

Martin: Does it seem like the powers that be, behind the scenes, the so-called White Hats, are they regrouping? Or are they going deeper underground? It's got to be very disheartening that this whole [NESARA] thing has been collapsed?

Bielek: What are you referring to?

Martin: I'm just talking about the people who were behind the return to the gold standard. They've been thwarted, for the moment, so there's got to be a real discouraging feeling among those people.

Bielek: Of course they've been thwarted. And the American people have been slapped in the face, most viciously. I don't know, and I've wondered myself, what the status is going to be with these people.

Can they get any pressure mounted in Congress? Can Ron Paul, who was sponsoring a "Get Us Out Of The UN" Bill, can he do anything in Congress? He had quite a lot of backing, and a lot of popular backing. He had an organization going. They were recruiting money and people. And apparently they were getting rolling quite well, just at the time when this [World Trade Center] incident occurred.

So, they squashed about three different operations, all at the same time. How convenient—get something going which demands a "war cry" and a "war status", and in the process, of course, you squash all of the opposition you didn't want to have going, and who you wanted to get rid of in the first place.

This is the way it can be done, and today, with our intelligence apparatus, with the efficiency that they have, they can find all of the people who were involved in most of these groups and do whatever they are told is appropriate. If these people agree to shut-up and drop back in the background, there will probably be nothing more heard or said. If they keep pushing for what they stood for and for what other people wanted, who knows what's going to happen. I'm not going to make any predictions.

But I'm sure it will not sit well with a lot of the American public. And I know that it's not going to sit well with the establishment, if any of these people try to push their goals, and what they were trying to do on behalf of the American people.

Now we proceed to a follow-up interview which Rick conducted with Al, due to some additional puzzling matters to report.

Just like above, Al mentioned some points which we cannot share at this time. Let it suffice—from his perspective and from that of others we cannot mention at this time—that the level of the corruption and fraud being perpetrated upon a mostly unsuspecting public is so outrageous and coming from so high up David Icke's symbolic "pyramid of power" as to make The Truth of the matter perhaps simply too difficult for the average, decent, unassuming American to believe could possibly be the case.

Yes, this is the time of the Great Awakening. However, all must proceed in its own proper time, else a condition of overwhelm, rather than self-empowerment, will prevail. With that said, here is what Al had to add:

10/1/01 AL BIELEK

Martin: What's the latest update since our last conversation on the National Economic Stabilization and Recovery Act?

Bielek: There's no further information on that. But there are other things which have turned up, which are very curious, which I didn't know about at the time, or even thought about, in terms of the World Trade Center.

The way those buildings were laid out, one of the curious things about it is, they have an electrical power substation distribution system on each and every floor. They feed 440-volt, three-phase electricity up the central core, and at each level they had transformers to drop it down to 110-volt and 220-volt single-phase electricity for normal office use. There was SO MUCH office equipment on each floor, the way it was set up they had to have a transformer substation on every floor.

And, of course, in the North Tower, which had the TV complex, which was six television stations, they had an ENORMOUS transformer substation to supply the electrical power for that—step the power down from a higher level—whether it was 440 or whatever, I don't know, but they had that transformer substation there. NONE of these many transformers have been found in the wreckage or the rubble, and those things are heavy!

And the one on the 89th floor, or whatever it was, for the television transmitter complex, is extremely heavy, and that thing is built in such a way that if you were to run a truck over it, all you would do is wreck the truck—you would not wreck the transformer—it would survive that kind of a plunge and wind-up buried in the rubble, maybe on top of it.

The other aspect of this is: What happened to the water sprinklers? Did you see any pictures of, or any mention of, water in the stairwells? It was all dark, according to those who came out. What happened to the emergency lights? By law they must have emergency lights in an escape stairwell like that. There were none. Apparently, if they were there, they were not functioning. There are huge water towers on the roof of each building for the automatic sprinkler systems, but nobody reported anywhere an automatic sprinkler system working.

What is even more interesting, the way the electrical power complex was set-up in there, they anticipated the possibility of a plane possibly flying into the towers. So what happens is, the power from that point up, if the plane goes in and wrecks the system—of course, it will at that level—the power to the upper levels is shut-off, but below the level of damage, the breaker system is such that the rest of the building below that level will continue to function. There's no mention of power still on anywhere that I heard of—other than the one building before it was hit, of course, had the PA system saying "There is nothing wrong, go back to work." And that was before it was hit.

This whole thing is orchestrated, by whom I don't know, to create the scenario for a war. THAT is the whole purpose.

And it begins to appear like the whole business of the World Trade Center, and the Pentagon, was all orchestrated. What happened, apparently, this plot was afoot for quite some time. And they knew it was coming—they let it happen, just like Pearl Harbor.

But what has happened since is a different matter. The problem is, there were 7 or 8 planes involved in the "terrorism" attack. Three of them were grounded. Two apparently forced down, one of them may have been shot down. And there's still a serious question what happened to the 5th one. But there were others, and it was alluded to. There were other planes that were planning further terrorism attacks that same day.

Now, how the blazes can 8 aircraft take off at commercial airports, commercial airliners, all on the same morning, and get through the various security barriers and security guards they have? That is an impossibility when you're talking about 8. I would say that it's an impossibility if you're talking about 4, UNLESS THERE WAS INSIDE HELP.

Martin: I sent to you the transcription that we did, minus the sections that you didn't want us to publish. I was a guest on a talk show on Friday night, Mysteries Of The Mind, and I read, without mentioning your name, part of the transcription of our conversation concerning the National Economic Stabilization and Recovery Act. And after I talked about that for about 3 minutes, they had technical problems. And the host came back on the air and said, "Well, I don't want to say that people don't want this information out there, but it sure looks that way."

Bielek: They don't. They don't want anybody to know about it.

Martin: I was never cut off at any point, so I got it all out there. But it blew the mind of the talk show guy, because what you'll see in the transcription is the coincidence of not only that, but the hearing for the IRS a week later. As it turns out, in August we ran not only the story about the IRS, but another story right after that predicted there would likely be some event that would prevent the hearing on the 18th.

Bielek: It happened.

Martin: Like clockwork.

Bielek: Yeah. Then they rescheduled it for the 25th and 26th of September, and that was cancelled because—I don't know if you said it or someone else did—they thought it was "inappropriate", too close, of course, on the heels of the World Trade Center disaster to hold the hearings; but they will be held in October.

I've checked with other sources that I know and they said they feel confident that it will be held in October because the President has already alluded to overhauling the whole tax system because they're not getting the taxes they used to get. Less than half of the American people are paying their income taxes. There's a rebellion against it.

Martin: What does Bush have in mind, do you know?

Bielek: They are not clear on that. There have been quotes which indicate that he has thought about a flat tax. He's thought about other forms of tax which have, virtually, zero administrative costs—or near zero; you don't have to have all of the paperwork and forms and such, and eliminate an enormous overhead, and make it a more fair tax.

There could be—other things have been discussed in the past, and I don't know if they're looking at that now. But of course in Europe they have the VAT tax, Value Added Tax, which is put on all sales, on top of any local sales tax.

In Germany, when I was over there, I think the VAT tax was 11 percent. And that applied not to food, it applied to appliances, durable goods, electronics, and so forth. But the logic there was, if you've got the money to buy an expensive appliance, you can pay another 10 percent, in lieu of an income tax.

But in Germany it's not in lieu of an income tax, it's ON TOP of the income tax. If you think taxation is bad here, go take a look at what the poor German people have to pay! It's unbelievable. Of course they've got socialization everywhere. They have a hundred percent socialized medicine. They get 6 weeks a year vacation. And typically in Europe they work only 35 hours per week. I know that was the case in Germany; I don't know about the rest of the nations.

But they're PAYING for it! If that's what the people want, they're going to have to pay for it, one way or another, and that is the way they're paying for it; they're paying very high taxes.

Sweden is even worse, from what I understand. It's more socialized in Sweden, and their taxes are even higher. I was speaking with someone here in the US, some years ago, at one of these conventions I was at. They said they gave up Sweden; they couldn't afford to pay their taxes any more. Typically, for a person who is making a decent living, let's say in sales or something, they're paying 75 percent a year in taxes!

Martin: That's crazy.

Bielek: Yeah. So a lot of people are leaving Sweden because of that. Norway is not nearly as bad. I don't know the structure in Norway. Sweden, for some reason or other, is so heavily socialized; it's going to cost if you want that kind of complete coverage from cradle to grave. You have to pay for it. And they're paying through the nose.

Martin: Now, if I understand some of the e-mail back and forth about NESARA, theoretically, some of the e-mail I'm getting is saying that Powell is one of the White Hats who's in on the whole thing.

Bielek: I'm getting mixed signals on that. I've heard the same thing, that he is one of the White Hats who's trying to change the direction. And I have a feeling that Rumsfeld, the Secretary of Defense, is also, because certain statements that he has made indicate he is not a war monger. He does not want to rush to war. He says, "Take it easy, slow down, and let's examine this thing very, very carefully." That's not the words of a war monger, or somebody who is planning war.

They would want to rush right in before somebody changes their mind, like the American people are already indicating they're changing their mind by having marches on Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, DC, with signs and placards saying "NO WAR!" This was covered on the radio. Therefore, there is strong sentiment against going to war.

I'm happy to see that, because if that is paraded directly in front of the President's office, which it may have been, he's going to get worried that this is going on, and that the American people are not in a mood for war. They're in a mood for unity. They're in a mood for patriotism, and that's going to backlash on WTO and NAFTA—particularly WTO, because the President is pushing very hard for WTO, and now the American people are saying “Buy American”.

Well, that's not in accordance with what WTO's wishes are. So the whole thing is beginning to show a backlash, and I think they're going to have to sit down and have some strategy conferences and see what else they can come up with to get things back on track, if you will, for the original plan. It's not going entirely as planned. Insofar as the “terrorism” attacks were concerned, they did—except they didn't have all of them.

And I also have confidential information that—what I had read as a remote viewer—was that their next attacks would be on Los Angeles, on a certain apartment complex, and also in Miami, on another apartment complex on the beach strip. Both have been thwarted. The military is, apparently, not going along with this crap of getting us into war. They, of course, are prepared for war, but they apparently squashed the “terrorist” attacks which were slated for Los Angeles and Miami; they stopped them. I guess they caught the guys. I've heard nothing more than that, other than those two scheduled attacks have been stopped.

Martin: Have you heard of any particular alien groups interceding in any capacity?

Bielek: I have not heard of any alien grouping involved in this. But I have picked up—during my own remote viewing—that there were two alien groups, right now, fighting each other, for control of the planet, from outside, and they were apparently involved in this time manipulation, because it keeps shifting, it keeps changing, which says there is a conflict of some kind going on because I feel it. Other friends of mine feel it. And they just don't know what's going on, but they feel terrible.

There's a lot of reports of people feeling “out of sorts”, disoriented, and feeling there is “something wrong” but they can't put their finger on it, because the body and the mind, the heart-mind connection—and thanks for publishing that story on the heart-mind—is quite sensitive to time fields, time flows, and variations in it.

[Editor's note: Al is referring to the two, very powerful, front-page feature articles in the June 2001 and August 2001 issues of The SPECTRUM. The June article was titled “Merging Science With Spirit: The Isaiah Effect. Lost Wisdom Of Forgotten Peoples” and the August article was titled “Breakthrough Science Confirms The HeartMath Message: Your Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own”. The underlying messages conveyed in these features suggest that the human being has enormously profound capacities yet to be developed and utilized on a regular basis. The obvious potential this information suggests for rapid positive transformation of the planet is enough to give the New World Order gang profound heartburn—should enough people wake up! No wonder they're going to such great lengths to try to keep us in a low-frequency state of fear through these various “terrorizing” shenanigans.]

If we get into a scramble, which is what has happened, where it is a sudden change or shift in time, people are aware of this, and suddenly the time flow is altered. It's not normal, and people are going to feel it, even though they don't know what it is they're feeling.

The problem is, they DON'T KNOW. They don't have a clue as to what it's all about. They say they're sick, and they go to the doctor. The doctor gives them some kind of pill, probably, and says “Go home and sleep it off.” And the next day, it may be alright.

Then, in the middle of the day, it will happen again. It's totally unpredictable as to how this shifting time-field is going to shift, and how it's going to affect people.

The only people I know of who would not, perhaps, be affected by these, are those who are on heavy medication or the heavy party folks and heavy drinkers. They would be so numb already that they wouldn't feel it, until they come out of their stupor; then they may feel twice as bad. Who knows.

The average person is going to feel this and not know what it is. The “sensitives” are going to be in agony over some of the crap that's been going on. I know I have. It's nothing you can predict.

Martin: Yes, I think so, too.

Bielek: I do know, and I will state, THIS IS A TIME WAR, and it's at least between two factions.

Now, we also have a faction here on Earth that is questionable whether it is that much better—but The Omega Agency, of which I know people who have been involved, are or were, in both tenses, that is a joint alien-government operation. Certain elements of the government fighting to prevent the New World Order, coming in the way of how the New World Order wants to do it—which is totally rigid dictatorship, the gas ovens like Hitler never dreamed of, the concentration camps like Hitler never dreamed of.

The Omega Agency wants to prevent that and do the take-over in a different manner, a lot more humane, and do something which is badly needed: totally overhaul the legal system, practically abolish the attorneys and the legal profession as we know it, abolish courts as we know them. And there would be a totally different manner of administering justice. It would be instant justice. There will be a legal code. And they don't want to upset society, and basically the way it is now. If you haven't read it, read the publication The Omega Agency, which is put out by Shawn Morton, originally in his Prophecy Journal, about a year, year and a half ago. I don't know whether you ever read that or not.

Martin: Yes, I had a copy of it.

Bielek: That will give you a pretty good idea of what's going on. There are people I could name who are in it. I know a person who was a member for three years and quit. I was going to be on one of his shows before long.

Martin: Wasn't Bush part of that? George Bush?

Bielek: I don't know; that's a possibility. It's definitely a possibility. But if he were a part of that, then he would not be part of the New World Order operation. That is being prepared and orchestrated from Europe. So, I don't know. I don't know really where George Bush, Sr. stands. That, to me, is an unknown. But he stands someplace, because he's Skull and Bones, and almost every other group, organization, which has come along the line, he has been a part of.

Martin: I was always under the impression that Omega was a Bush faction, but maybe not.

Bielek: I don't know. I don't have enough data on that to say. But there are certain senators who are part of it. It goes high in the government—well, it has to, because it won't work unless there are government people involved with this alien group. And I don't really know who the alien group is that's involved with this, because the Wingmakers make reference in their publications to an “outside” group who has been giving aide and comfort through ACIO, and to a lesser extent, perhaps, the CIA—of which the ACIO is a division. It might be NSA; I'd have to go back and check. But that particular ACIO group is definitely in contact with an outside group who, apparently, has time-travel capability.

And there have been a lot of things going on undercover. Who knows how many factions are involved? Part of it is trying to sort this out, and find out who's doing what to whom, or who's trying to do what to whom, at this point.

Martin: It's a real mystery.

Bielek: Yeah. Who's got the complete script? [Laughter]

Martin: [Laughter]

Bielek: One other interesting anecdote. It was mentioned to me that when the North Tower came down, which had the TV transmitters and the antenna tower complex, which was about 60 feet high, where the antennas are on it—that came almost straight down, with the rest of the building, and wound up on top of the rubble. A friend of mine saw that.

He saw 4 people pick up that tower, move it, and put an American flag on it. Well, if it was the original tower, I very much question how 4 people could lift an antenna tower assembly weighing some 20 tons, and move it. Yet, there's a photo on—I don't know if it's this week's or last week's—an issue of the National Enquirer of EXACTLY THAT.

That tower that they were moving doesn't look like the original antenna tower. It might have been a standard flag pole; I'm not sure. It doesn't give a clear enough shot of the entire structure, so you can't see what it is that they were moving. But they did move something, and apparently they were putting a flag on it. It was definitely on top of the pile of rubble, no question.

So they're saying, now, it's going to take about a year to get all of that crud out of there, and I don't doubt it.

Now, there is one other aspect of the collapse which doesn't make sense. It came all the way to the ground, except for the last 10 floors, which means about 90 percent of it was gone.

Now, if that building was totally filled with all of the office furniture, transformers, telephones, and everything else which should be normal where there are operating offices, operating companies, with everything they would have, plus the mail stations, etc., if that had been dynamited, or otherwise charges placed, it wouldn't come down to the 10th floor, it would stop about 1/3 of the way, which would be at, approximately, the 35th floor. It would come down about that far and stop, because it would just compress everything within the structure to the point where you couldn't compress it anymore.

It seems very clear that the building that came down was already gutted—both of them.

Now, here is where the whole problem comes in: What kind of a time-transfer has been effected here? Because that is the theory which we're all working on, and nobody disagrees with it, of the group that I'm working with. That, somehow, they transposed our twin World Trade Center towers for the same in the future, which had already been gutted and were about to be dynamited because they were no longer useful, or were considered too old.

And IF that happened, that would explain everything that's happened in New York. Because where are all the bodies? Where are all the people who should have been crushed to death in those buildings? They didn't get that many to escape. They had an hour in one building, and less than half an hour in the other. They didn't get 40,000 people down the stairwells in half an hour to an hour. Actually, about 25,000 per building, assuming they weren't full—20,000 per building—down the stairwells, choking with fumes and dust? And they're going to all clamber down, anywhere from 80 floors, on to whatever level they were at, out the doors? And there wasn't that much of a mass of people coming out of the buildings.

There are some ENORMOUS DISCREPANCIES here, which are being heavily covered.

I will state, probably, and it appears to me and everybody who has looked at it, that this is a time manipulation. And if that is true, then the stakes go up, and the question arises: WHO is doing this? And how are they working with our government?

Martin: Who has that kind of capability?

Bielek: Exactly. There are so many MAJOR discrepancies on what they SHOULD have found in the crashed and wrecked buildings—but they're not there, so they appear to have been totally gutted. Missing: 100,000 office telephones; 3,000+ pay phones; approximately 100 office safes; and approximately 400,000 gallons of water and the four tanks the water was in!

Now, you can't gut either, much less both buildings of that size, in a couple of weeks—much less overnight—it takes at least 6 months to totally clear them of all of the office equipment, phones, transformers, and all of the salvageable equipment, if they're going to actually destroy them because they're no longer useful. It takes at least 6 months to gut them. And there won't be anybody left in them, except a skeleton staff, to make sure everything is being removed properly.

Now, this is food for thought. And I think that part about the time transposition should be included, because it is a theory. We can't prove it, but all of the evidence fits.

In closing, it should be noted that the New York Trade Center complex (approximately 4 square blocks) had other buildings within the complex—including Building Seven, which collapsed at 5:25 p.m. on 9/11/01. This complex was designed as "a city within a city". It had its own power generators, at a basement level; its own water filtration system and storage—4 tanks of 100,000 gallons each, 2 per tower, one on the roof and one at approximately the 50th floor; food storage freezers holding 250 TONS of frozen meat, both buildings combined. There were many restaurants.

My information says this complex was designed to be SELF-SUFFICIENT FOR UP TO 5 YEARS. "Rumor" has it that the World Trade Center was designed—and intended to be—the SEAT of the New World Order's "One World Government". What better target for a "terrorist" hit?!

Well, there you have it! And as you've often commented to us, no issue of The SPECTRUM would be complete without some food for thought that stretches the mind and causes one to think "outside the box" as the saying goes.

I'm told that preliminary artist sketches of the NEW World Trade Center complex apparently show a cluster of 5 buildings, with a much taller center tower. It has been noted that, from a distance, the silhouette of this new complex looks like the New World Order gang is "giving you the finger" so to speak. If that's actually the case, it would at least be an attempt at honesty on their part!

Again let me emphasize that there are other matters we cannot discuss at this TIME (no pun intended) which lend support to even the more far-out points which Al offers above. That is why we are happy to include Al's contribution to this now lengthy outlay of information on the "terrorist" attacks. In the long run, his bravery will shed great light on the more puzzling features of this event and thereby ultimately help us to understand what REALLY happened.

We want to thank Al for taking the time to conduct these extra interviews with Rick—above and beyond the subject matter for Rick's upcoming feature article for next month's SPECTRUM. Needless to say, Al's contributions to the present topic are serious food for thought and deeply appreciated.

Remember that the "wild card" in all of this is the help we have available from Upstairs. If the intentions of the "White Hats" is TRULY for advancing the common good, there will be a great deal of Help from Upstairs to achieve what we would perceive as miracles. But I'm getting ahead of the point that is central to the next item below.

Now we have to return to the author of the article on NESARA that preceded Al Bielek's interviews. This source has further information to share which underscores the difficulty of the greater challenge underway for all involved.

Swiss Political Assassinations Meant To Deter NESARA

9/28/01 "DOVE OF ONENESS"

(dove_of_o@hotmail.com)

Hello Dear Friends,

Today I am writing a "Dutch Uncle" message to everyone.

Yesterday, we all made a sincere effort to invoke the highest Divine support of the meeting in Washington, D.C. We did our part to provide an opening for the highest and most harmonious transfer of power in our federal government to occur per NESARA.

The 12 people who represented the Opposition at the meeting PRETENDED to come to agreement with the White Knights and the Divine Coalition liaison at the meeting. However, within the following 24 hours, the Opposition launched over 100 offensive actions against White Knights and Divine Coalition locations and people. All but one of these actions was stopped.

I'm going to tell you about the one incident that got through our safety net in the last 24 hours: In Zurich, fourteen members of Parliament were shot by an alleged "crazy" policeman. Let me tell you the truth about that situation.

In fact, this was a direct warning to the White Knights by the Opposition. Here's why:

1. There are fourteen White Knights who each are scheduled to do a part of the live broadcast of the NESARA announcement.

2. There is a high member of Europe's elite who is telling all the truth to the White Knights about the last 100 years. He is giving "insider" information about how wars, banking, economic ups and downs, governments, and much more have been manipulated and controlled by a small power & wealth elite group on this planet. This man, who is exposing this truth, is located in Zurich.

3. This is why the fourteen innocent people in Zurich were sacrificed and killed by the so-called “crazy policeman”. The Opposition likes to give messages by striking at specific locations where something they dislike is occurring. If we knew the truth, we probably would learn the “crazy policeman” had been programmed or ordered to kill exactly fourteen people so that the White Knights would understand the message.

4. This Zurich tragedy was a double message to the White Knights by the Opposition. It was a message that some people in law enforcement were going to try to eliminate the White Knights if they continue their activities to bring NESARA and our prosperity to us. In fact, my information sources confirmed that there have been several efforts to harm the White Knights and their families, friends, and dedicated staff in the last two weeks since NESARA was on the brink of announcement. The most recent effort was stopped this afternoon in D.C. and involved corrupt law enforcement people wearing suits and carrying badges and guns. The Opposition like to do these kinds of insider attacks and messages to those who refuse to bow to their terrorism.

Now, on to more truth about what is happening, and how the U.S. media lies outright:

1. The attacks by U.S. and U.K. forces on Iraq today are routine operations that remove illegal missiles and radar equipment which the Iraqis have placed in the No-Fly Zones. The No-Fly Zones were established in the 1991 Accord with Iraq and allow for U.S. reconnaissance flights to fly over Iraq in the No-Fly Zones (no Iraqi planes allowed in these zones) in order to do air reconnaissance pictures and checking to make sure Iraq is abiding by the 1991 Accord treaty. Iraq has had a consistent history of violating the 1991 treaty and putting missiles and radar into the No-Fly Zone territory. Because Iraq is forbidden by the 1991 treaty from doing this, the U.S. and U.K. air forces have the legal right to go over and take out the illegal missile and radar sites in the No-Fly Zone.

2. The corrupt media tried to scare the American people with this news of a routine mission clearing out the illegal devices in the Iraqi No-Fly Zone. The last time this happened was 2-4 weeks ago and, because it is so routine, it rarely gets into the news. This has been going on for years. The clearing of illegal sites in the Iraqi No-Fly Zone has been going on every 3-6 months for YEARS! However, the corrupt media is working with the Naked Emperors of the current administration to try to brainwash the American people into a global conflict.

3. The corrupt media is also publishing absolute lies regarding poll results showing how Americans feel about the current pretender in the oval office and his Naked Emperors' administration. The truth is, the current pretender has the LOWEST RATINGS

EVER in recorded history; the American people are well aware of the STENCH coming from him and D.C.!

4. The corrupt media is also publishing absolute lies about the polls of how many Americans want war. Absolute lies designed to help the corrupt Naked Emperors hold onto their power. They killed innocent Americans with the 9/11/01 attacks ordered by the top people of the Naked Emperors of DC. They will happily sacrifice our American men and women to die in an UNNECESSARY military action based on LIES because the Naked Emperors and cohorts want dictatorship control of the U.S.!

5. The corrupt media lies, such as CNN did, by showing things like a ten-year-old film of people in Pakistan dancing and then claiming this was Pakistan's response to the WTC and Pentagon attacks. They out and out LIED by showing a ten-year-old film! People, we are FOOLS if we believe even 1/10th of what the corrupt media puts out.

Only a few families own nearly all the media in the U.S. These families are working with the leaders of the Naked Emperors to deceive the American public. What makes this totally horrific is that the media is cooperating in lies put out by the Naked Emperors who are trying to use war and various means to kill hundreds of thousands of Americans.

We must stand together and let the world know that “ONLY PEACE” is acceptable! PEACE IS OUR CHOICE! All those who want war are actually telling us that they are the contemptible beasts who ORDERED the attacks of 9/11. Remember I said this, because only truth is prevailing in these times; the TOTAL TRUTH is coming out.

Now, I understand the White House lies machine is working full-time this afternoon. The White House, also known by current Naked Emperor fans as the “blue house”, is a major DISINFORMATION machine for the Naked Emperors and has been for years. And, I understand a whole bunch of rumors just hit our phone network of these programs! This is ALWAYS a sign of a DISINFORMATION strike by the Opposition! Always, always, always!

After two years of daily tracking of the craziness caused by the Opposition, these manufactured releases of disinformation always smell distinctly of lies and manipulation by the opposition. The current rumors misquote results of yesterday's meeting. The top Naked Emperor is due to leave very quickly; there IS an immediate date set for his exit.

This is also true when things are in order for all of us to have our prosperity and NESARA. It took a few weeks after 9/11 to restore all the elements to full readiness for NESARA and our prosperity distribution. Now, things are right on line and only one last detail is being hammered out. This is why there are the BIG LIES being poured out of the District of Columbia and their friends this afternoon. The lies coming out of the blue house and D.C. are a “sewage release of rumors” into our phone network. Just flush them out of your minds, folks. The lies are meant to confuse and brainwash our people.

Speaking of the White House, let me explain something: The White Knights are mistaken in thinking that the American public actually gives a flip about who is sitting in Congress or the White House. The White Knights live daily in the illusion of Washington, DC, and they mistakenly think those Naked Emperors matter to Americans.

In fact, when NESARA is announced and Americans have big increases in the cash in their pockets, due to NESARA, and have more liberty, too, that's all Americans will care about!

I say this loudly to our White Knights: Just give the American people their increases in cash in their pockets! That is all that the American people need in order to totally realize that NESARA is good, and support NESARA and you White Knights because you bring NESARA!

Get over your blind obsession with making the pretenders' exit look good! Forget it! Stop wasting our time and putting this nation at risk every hour you delay by wasting time over these Naked Emperors! Remember, OVER HALF of voting-age Americans refused to vote in the last farce of an election! Americans are wise to, and disgusted with, the Naked Emperors!

Once Americans have their huge increases of cash in their pockets, they will be happy with the government changes that NESARA requires. Americans will be thrilled to have a real leader when they hear the news. However, you could put Mickey Mouse in as President after implementing the NESARA benefits for Americans and it would be just fine!

White Knights, get on with NESARA! Quit negotiating with liars who fail to keep any agreements. Do NESARA, which immediately improves everyone's cash flow; show the films of the resignations required by NESARA, and get on with it!

For Heaven's sake! Only you, and a small percentage of people invested with the Naked Emperors, care about these imposters!

I also am speaking from Divine Wisdom to you, White Knights: The reason that the opposition keeps doing horrific things is because you White Knights are trying to cover-up the truth about these disgusting top Naked Emperors! You need to realize that if you try to cover up THE TRUTH, the Divine Hand will continue to give the opposition the ability to cause horrific things! THE DIVINE PLAN CALLS FOR TOTAL TRUTH!

White Knights, your mission is to bring Truth back to government! Yet, some of you are breaking your vows to bring Truth by engaging in a “cover-up”! You will bring more horror onto your own heads and the heads of all of us if you continue to try to smooze the truth! Just stop it! The only way is FULL TRUTH! Quit treating the American people like children! Americans can handle the truth, and they must wake up to carry out their future responsibilities wisely.

The American people can take it! In fact, you will find out that the American people will fail to care at all once they have their cash flow increases and more liberty! They already know that DC has a horrible stench of decay and corruption. Just tell the truth. The American people will heave a collective sigh of relief that someone FINALLY told the truth. I know this from experience, because this is what happens when I put out a big bulletin of truth. So, JUST DO IT! Tell the truth and ONLY the truth!

Furthermore, if you fail to tell the full truth, you are unleashing these insane Opposition people onto an unsuspecting public. They have broken every agreement they have ever made. Clearly, they will continue to break all their agreements with you, and will continue their horrific activities against all of us! Wake up and stop making deals with these devils!

There is Divine Control in all of this. Look how many times you have tried to let these people exit gracefully! After every time you give them a graceful exit, the Opposition comes back with even more harmful activities against you and against all of us! If the Divine Plan required them to exit gracefully, they would have already done so.

The Divine Plan calls for TOTAL TRUTH IN THESE TIMES! People of this planet have been fooled, manipulated, controlled, and lied to for eons! Now the people must wake-up out of their ignorance! They must wake-up to ALL the deceptions. How can they be wise enough to build a better world if they are kept in ignorance about WHO is wanting to harm them and take their prosperity and HOW these people have operated in the past? Stop robbing the American people of the truth they MUST have in order to be wise enough to improve the world!

Read the Divine signs! You have tried THREE times to give these imposters a graceful exit, and each time they come back with even more horrible activities against all of us. Since yesterday's meeting, I count over 100 separate actions against White Knights and our country by these insane Opposition people! Some of these activities were within mere minutes of happening before they were stopped!

What does it take for you White Knights to get the message? Only when you are committed to FULL TRUTH will this be allowed to go forward. Only by you White Knights bringing NESARA forth in ABSOLUTE TRUTH will this be allowed to happen! Stop negotiating a cover-up; do NESARA! Then show the films of the resignations that ALREADY occurred, and let's end the insanity!

The top people who ordered the 9/11 attacks need to face the legal consequences of their actions. Their actions were part of their activities and crimes against the entire world. They deserve to be known for who they are and to be tried in World Court on behalf of all of humanity. This is the Divine reflection of TOTAL TRUTH!

Folks, let's continue our prayers, meditations, and energy work invoking the Great Divine Unconditional Love and High Divine Wisdom permeating the Washington, DC and Pentagon areas, our White Knights, and all their activities. I will meet you for our group energizing at 10-10:30 p.m. EDT and let's continue our unified focus: "NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW! NESARA NOW!"

To join the Dove e-group, simply send an email to: doveofosubscribe@yahoogroups.com and reply to Yahoo's request for confirmation.

We will absolutely receive our prosperity and the rest of the world will get their prosperity boosts once we have NESARA in place. To have our liberty and our prosperity, we must have NESARA announced ASAP!

It's time more people realized what is REALLY happening. I have only hinted to this here, but read carefully and you will understand.

Blessings and Love, Dove of Oneness

From a realistic point of view, we can only imagine, at this time, the many kinds of things going on behind the scenes between those working for the good of humanity and those struggling to maintain a stranglehold over mankind. Keep the good guys in your prayers.

Besides attacking the fraud of the Federal Reserve and IRS (as does NESARA), the following News Release adds further important layers of insight and information concerning what may have prompted the recent so-called "terrorist" attacks. People are indeed waking up!

Self-Inflicted: "Terrorist" Attack On WTC & Pentagon

9/12/01 ANITA E. BELLE, ATTORNEY

P.O. Box 3983, Southfield, MI 48037

Phone: (313) 532-0161

Email: mountainmovers@ureach.com

Website: <http://aebelle.tripod.com>

Detroit, Michigan—Various news agencies report that the World Trade Center was first struck by a plane at 8:44 a.m. on September 11, 2001. Is it just a coincidence that a lawsuit charging the United States with genocide, sent by U.S. Express Mail on September 7, 2001, arrives at the World Court in the Netherlands at 10:40 a.m. on the same day as the "terrorist" attacks? Among the defendants listed in the first genocide case against the United States: The CIA, former CIA director/former president George H.W. Bush, the Department of Justice, the Federal Reserve, the International Monetary Fund, and the World Bank.

Coincidence: The first time America is charged with genocide, the first time that the Central Intelligence Agency may be held accountable before an international tribunal for allegations that the agency conspired to import illegal drugs into America's Black communities, that on the same day and almost the same time these allegations arrive in the Hague, the CIA fails to detect and thwart terrorist attacks that may have caused the deaths of thousands. (The U.S. Department of Justice, the agency charged by federal law to prosecute acts of genocide, is likewise named as a defendant in the case before the World Court.)

Coincidence: On the same day as a lawsuit citing the role of Masonic organizations in subverting America's legal and political system to protect intelligence agents who are also Masons, world allies are urged to have sympathy on America.

Coincidence: On the same day that the president and his father are alleged to be members of a Masonic organization, and the president's father is exposed for his role in inflicting untold suffering upon millions of African-Americans, and an outline of how the pursuit of justice for this suffering may have precipitated fraud during the last presidential election, that America and its allies are now urged to unite behind a criminal president.

Coincidence: On the same day that a case alleges that the Federal Reserve, the World Bank, and the International Monetary Fund stabilize the world's economies with drug money, the financial center of these funds are mysteriously attacked.

Coincidence: Hijacking suspects, possibly CIA-trained during the Afghanistan and Iranian crises of 1979, are located in Florida. The state where the president's brother is governor. The state in which the CIA cases are consolidated. The state whose contested votes placed George W. Bush in the presidency. The state in which George W. Bush was visiting when the "terrorist" attacks took place.

[Editor's note: Since this author brings up the subject of Florida, it is instructive to insert here some very curious news about Florida around the time of the "terrorist" attacks.]

The following information is very well documented and I am quoting here directly from www.freedomcommittee.com, a superb watchdog citizen's group's Internet website. I emphasize some points in bold type.

(Quoting:)

Just some quick facts (no rumors what-so-ever) concerning the Bush family brothers, Governor "Jeb" of Florida and President "G.W." of Washington City, with regards to the events of 9-11:

Friday, September 7, "Jeb" signed Florida Executive Order No. 01-261 which states, in part:

"I hereby delegate to The Adjutant General of the State of Florida all necessary authority, within approved budgetary appropriations or grants, to order members of the Florida National Guard into active service, as defined by Section 250.27, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of training to

TIME TRAVEL: A HOW-TO INSIDERS GUIDE

Visit the past and future with safe and proven methods. We have long been taught that time travel is impossible and the work of science fiction, but during the past several decades secret agencies with the U.S. military have successfully been crossing the barriers of space and time. Here is the shattering evidence that we are being visited by "time surfers" from the future, and that we too can journey forward and backwards in time.

About The Author: Commander X is formerly of military intelligence, having worked on several classified projects. Tim Swartz is Emmy award-winning journalist. See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00(+S/H)

INVISIBILITY & LEVITATION : A HOW TO GUIDE TO PERSONAL PERFORMANCE

BY COMMANDER X

Methods utilized by occultists, military, and martial artists to perfect the art of levitation and invisibility. Throughout history only a "super" few have learned to accomplish such seemingly impossible tasks. Were the blocks of the pyramids levitated into place? This is the only how-to book on a very strange topic.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

NIKOLA TESLA: FREE ENERGY AND THE WHITE DOVE

BY COMMANDER X

Exposes the most important alternative scientific advancements of our time utilizing free energy concepts which were uncovered by Tesla and perhaps derived from other worldly sources.

About The Author: A former military intelligence operative who has kept his identity a closely guarded secret claims to have worked inside underground bunkers in Area 51 where he actually flew UFOs via telepathy and levitation methods derived from contact with ETs.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT CHRONICLES

BY COMMANDER X

Explores the strange case of Al Bielek (only known survivor of the Philadelphia Experiment) and the mysterious death of famed astronomer Dr. M. K. Jessup, who first broke the news about the disappearance of the warship and its subsequent teleportation into another dimension. Also looks at time travel, alternative energy, anti-gravity theories. Highly classified govt/military projects exposed.

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT & OTHER UFO CONSPIRACIES

BY BRAD STEIGER

In 1943 the Navy accomplished the teleportation of a warship from Philadelphia to Norfolk by successfully applying Einstein's Unified Field Theory. The experiment also caused the crew and officers of the ship to become invisible, during which time they were launched into a time-space warp. One survivor tells his amazing experience. Alfred Bielek has appeared along with the author on the Art Bell radio show many times.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

support law-enforcement personnel and emergency-management personnel in the event of civil disturbances or natural disasters and to provide training support to law-enforcement personnel and community-based organizations relating to counter drug operations. This Executive Order shall remain in full force and effect until the earlier of its revocation or June 30, 2003."

This Florida EO places the Florida National Guard (which is not a lawful militia), a unit of the Federal U.S. Army, in control of all Florida law enforcement (State FDLE, County Sheriffs, and local PDs) and the Florida Emergency Management department (Florida's FEMA under federal FEMA control). Remember, this was 4 days before the WTC disaster.

On the morning of Tuesday, September 11, Pres. "G.W." was in a Sarasota, Florida classroom reading a story about a pet goat when his Chief of Staff whispered in his ear about the WTC "terrorism". Rather than attend to this national disaster, "G.W." continues to read the goat story to these second-grade children, and then, 30 minutes later, makes a brief statement to the press. More about this odd behavior and "The Obscure Goat Story" can be read at the <http://209.123.142.199/lawgiver/911.asp> Internet website.

Governor "Jeb" then signed Florida Executive Order No. 01-262 immediately after the second WTC tower fell. Florida was the FIRST STATE to declare a "State of Emergency" and did so BEFORE New York State OR the federal Washington City leaders did, yet there were no "terroristic" incidents that had taken place in Florida.

Florida EO 01-262 states, in part:

"I hereby declare that a state of emergency exists in the State of Florida.... The authority to suspend the effect of any statute or rule governing the conduct of state business, and the further authority to suspend the effect of any order or rule of any governmental entity.... The authority to seize and utilize any and all real or personal property as needed to meet this emergency.... The authority to order the evacuation of any or all persons from any location in the State of Florida, and the authority to regulate the movement of any or all persons to or from any location in the State. The authority to regulate the return of the evacuees to their home communities.... I hereby order the Adjutant General to activate the Florida National Guard for the duration of this emergency."

There is no declared expiration of this Florida Executive Order. In case you haven't figured it out yet, Florida is now under Martial Law—and will remain so until this EO is revoked. The people of Florida were warned about this in 1998 when their state constitution was changed to allow this to take place, but no-one listened. (See "Martial Law Now Legal in Florida" at <http://209.123.142.199/lawgiver/flaconst.asp>.)

If you plan on vacationing in Florida (or if, unfortunately, you live in Florida), remember that you have entered into a Martial Law state under the control of the Washington City "brothers" and federal troops. It appears that "2001 is not a space odyssey" it is "deja vu-1865".

Below are the direct links to the State of Florida web pages, along with both Executive Orders as they were signed by "Jeb":

<http://sun6.dms.state.fl.us/eog_new/eog/orders/2001/september/eo2001-261-09-07-01.html>.

(End quoting)

How much did you hear on the controlled media about THAT little shenanigan? Perhaps Florida is a test case for other states to later follow as other "terrorist" events are engineered to ease the entire country into Martial Law without awakening the suspicions of too many of the sleeping public.

One more item that was largely kept out of the news: On Saturday 9/29/01, the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco was all of a sudden closed in BOTH directions for HOURS, backing up traffic for many miles and seriously inconveniencing many people. In response to the many questions generated during this event, there was no mention given as to why this was happening or for how long it might continue—only that it was a necessary "police action". Was this yet another test-step toward Martial Law?]

As unseemly as the connection, are the deaths, injuries, and property losses sustained from the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon further casualties of America's deliberately ineffective war on drugs?

Could the carnage and destruction witnessed on international television be indication of the desperation of an international crime/political syndicate to again divert law enforcement away from itself while again deceptively cloaking itself with legitimacy and sympathy?

The World Court case alleges that the CIA had the "right" to inflict pharmaceutical slavery upon Blacks because the 13th and 14th Amendments of the U.S. Constitution were never properly proposed and ratified. The 13th Amendment supposedly abolished slavery, but the case alleges that, unless a constitutional amendment is properly proposed and ratified, the descendants of African slaves technically "belong" to the U.S. federal government. The case also alleges that the 14th Amendment is constitutionally flawed which supposedly grants citizenship to anyone born in the U.S. and gives all citizens equal rights. As a result, the case alleges that the only protection available to Blacks is under the United States treaty with the United Nations regarding the prevention and punishment of acts of genocide.

The case to the World Court also sues the Federal Reserve, the International Monetary Fund, and the World Bank. It alleges that the U.S. Federal Reserve is unconstitutional and launders drug money. Because the U.S. monetary system is flawed, then the international agencies supported by this monetary system are also flawed. The case alleges that law enforcement against the flow of drugs is deliberately ineffective because the primary violator is the federal government itself. However, the case alleges that government expenditures for the illusion of greater law enforcement have served to stabilize the world's economy. As a result, the case alleges that real enforcement of anti-drug laws risk a depression of the world's economy.

Patterning after an effort in the United Kingdom, the case before the World Court alleges that a reason justice was not rendered domestically is because U.S. courts are controlled by Masons. The case alleges that Masons take oaths to discriminate in favor of "Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only Light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only Love can do that. Hate multiplies hate, violence multiplies violence, toughness multiplies toughness in a descending spiral of destruction...."

The chain reaction of evil—hate begetting hate, wars producing more wars—must be broken, or we shall be plunged into the darkness...of annihilation."

— Martin Luther King, Jr.

each other, including in court. The case alleges that a Defendant in the CIA cases, former president/former CIA director George H.W. Bush, has Masonic ties due to his affiliation with Yale University's Skull and Bones fraternity. The case seeks disclosure of judges' Masonic affiliations.

Only nations may sue other nations in the World Court. Therefore, the case alleges that Blacks, never effectively afforded U.S. citizenship via the 14th Amendment, constitute a nation. Using DNA tests, the case advocates that Blacks form the Ancient and Indigenous Nations of Israel and Canaan.

The case alleges that the Ashkenazi "Jews" are descendants of Russians who converted to Judaism in 740 A.D. The case further alleges that the Palestinian Moslems are descendants of Turkish Moslems who invaded the land of Israel/Palestine/Canaan in approximately 640 A.D. Hence, the case before the World Court alleges that the majority of both groups of inhabitants who occupy present-day Israel are merely religious colonizers rather than the indigenous population.

The case alleges that paternity tests against the mummies in Israel would discredit the Ashkenazim and Palestinians' claims of being native to the land. The case warns that cloning may contaminate paternity test results. However, the case condemns the efforts of either colonizer to annihilate the other.

Is it another coincidence that the alleged "terrorist" attack on America is being blamed upon forces who oppose America's support for the Ashkenazi "Jews" in Israel? By blaming on Palestinian supporters a death toll that far exceeds the extermination of Palestinians by Ashkenazi "Jews", is it a coincidence that America's "terrorist" attack indirectly woos support for and justifies the aggression of the Ashkenazi "Jews"?

For more information regarding the CIA lawsuit before the World Court, contact Attorney Anita E. Belle at (313) 532-0161 or at mountainmovers@ureach.com.

So it looks like there are plenty of reasons to deflect attention and momentum from the heat that is being placed under so many "puppets" of "the beast". (Don't miss Soltec's message on this subject elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM.)

The following piece is such a well-written historical look at manipulation of the public through lies and deceit—as repeatedly referred to or alluded to in many of the essays herein—that it deserves inclusion here as we near the end of our outlay on this topic. Note that the SAME tricks are used, over and over again, because they've always worked!

But perhaps not anymore. Remember that this IS the time of The Great Awakening. And NOTHING can stop The Truth at this time. It is part of the Great Cleansing process now underway on planet Earth.

Why Government Has Repeatedly Created War

9/28/01 CHRISTOPHER RUBY

(safetrek@mcn.net)

(www.whatreallyhappened.com/ARTICLE5/index.html)

The state-sponsored schools will never tell you this, but governments routinely rely on hoaxes to sell their agendas to an otherwise reluctant public. The Romans accepted the Emperors and the Germans accepted Hitler—not because they wanted to, but because the carefully crafted illusions of threat appeared to leave no other choice.

Our government, too, uses hoaxes to create the illusion that We-The-People have no choice but the direction the government wishes us to go in.

In 1898, Joseph Pulitzer's New York World and William Randolph Hearst's New York Journal were arguing for American intervention in Cuba. Hearst is reported to have dispatched a photographer to Cuba to photograph the

"When the struggle seems to be drifting definitely towards a world social democracy, there may still be very great delays and disappointments before it becomes an efficient and beneficent world system. Countless people will hate the New World Order and will die protesting against it. When we attempt to evaluate its promise, we have to bear in mind the distress of a generation or so of malcontents, many of them quite gallant and graceful-looking people."

— H. G. Wells, in his book The New World Order (1939).

coming war with Spain.

When the photographer asked just what war that might be, Hearst is reported to have replied: "You take the photographs, and I will provide the war." Hearst was true to his word, as his newspaper published stories of great atrocities being committed against the Cuban people, most of which turned out to be complete fabrications.

On the night of February 15, 1898, the USS Maine, lying in Havana harbor in a show of U.S. resolve to protect her interests, exploded violently. Captain Sigsbee, the commander of the Maine, urged that no assumptions of enemy attack be made until there was a full investigation of the cause of the explosion. For this, Captain Sigsbee was excoriated in the press for "refusing to see the obvious". The Atlantic Monthly declared flat out that to suppose the explosion to be anything other than a deliberate act by Spain was "completely at defiance of the laws of probability".

Under the slogan "Remember the Maine", Americans went to war with Spain, eventually winning the Philippines (and annexing Hawaii along the way).

In 1975, an investigation led by Admiral Hyman Rickover examined the data recovered from a 1911 examination of the wreck and concluded that there had been no evidence of an external explosion. The most likely cause of the sinking was a coal dust explosion in a coal bunker imprudently located next to the ship's magazines. Captain Sigsbee's caution had been well founded.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt needed a war. He needed the fever of a major war to mask the symptoms of a still deathly ill economy struggling back from the Great Depression (and mutating towards Socialism at the same time).

Roosevelt wanted a war with Germany to stop Hitler, but despite several provocations in the Atlantic, the American people, still struggling with that troublesome economy, were opposed to any wars. Roosevelt violated neutrality with Lend Lease, and even ordered the sinking of several German ships in the Atlantic, but Hitler refused to be provoked. Roosevelt needed an enemy, and if America would not willingly attack that enemy, then one would have to be maneuvered into attacking America, much as Marcus Licinius Crassus had maneuvered Sparticus into attacking Rome.

The way open to war was created when Japan signed the Tripartite Agreement with Italy and Germany, with all parties pledging mutual defense to each other.

Whereas Hitler would never declare war on the United States, no matter the provocation, the means to force Japan to do so were readily at hand.

The first step was to place oil and steel embargos on Japan, using Japan's wars on the Asian mainland as a reason. This forced Japan to consider seizing the oil- and mineral-rich regions in Indonesia.

With the European powers militarily exhausted by the war in Europe, the United States was the only power in the Pacific able to stop Japan from invading the Dutch East Indies, and by moving the Pacific fleet from San Diego to Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Roosevelt made a pre-emptive strike on that fleet the mandatory first step in any Japanese plan to extend it's empire into the "southern resource area".

Roosevelt boxed-in Japan just as completely as Crassus had boxed in Sparticus. Japan needed oil. They had to invade Indonesia to get it, and to do that they first had to remove the threat of the American fleet at Pearl Harbor. There never really was any other course open to them.

To enrage the American people as much as possible, Roosevelt needed the first overt attack by Japan to be as bloody as possible, appearing as a sneak attack much as the Japanese had done to the Russians. From that moment, up until the attack on Pearl Harbor itself, Roosevelt and his associates made sure that the commanders in Hawaii, General Short and Admiral Kimmel, were kept in the dark as much as possible about the location of the Japanese fleet and it's intentions, then later scapegoated for the attack. (Congress recently exonerated both Short and Kimmel, posthumously restoring them to their former ranks.) But as the Army board had concluded at the time, and subsequent declassified documents confirmed, Washington DC knew the attack was coming, knew exactly where the Japanese fleet was, and knew where it was headed.

On November 29, 1941, Secretary of State Hull showed United Press reporter Joe Leib a message with the time and place of the attack, and the New York Times, in its special 12/8/41 Pearl Harbor edition, on page 13, reported that the time and place of the attack had been known in advance!

The much repeated claim that the Japanese fleet maintained radio silence on it's way to Hawaii was a lie. Among other intercepts still held in the Archives of the NSA is the UNCODED message sent by the Japanese tanker Shirya stating: "Proceeding to a position 30.00 N, 154.20 E. Expect to arrive at that point on 3 December." (near Hawaii)

President Lyndon Johnson wanted a war in Vietnam. He wanted it to help his friends, who owned defense companies, to do a little business. He needed it to get the Pentagon and CIA to quit trying to invade Cuba. And most of all, he needed a provocation to convince the American people that there was really "no other choice".

On August 5, 1964, newspapers across America reported "renewed attacks" against American destroyers operating in Vietnamese waters, specifically the Gulf of Tonkin. The official story was that North Vietnamese torpedo boats launched an "unprovoked attack" on the USS Maddox while it was on "routine patrol". The truth is that USS Maddox was involved in aggressive intelligence gathering in coordination with actual attacks by South Vietnam and the Laotian Air Force against targets in North Vietnam.

The truth is also that there was no attack by torpedo boats against the USS Maddox. Captain John J. Herrick, the task force commander in the Gulf, cabled Washington DC that the report was the result of an "over-eager" sonar man who had picked up the sounds of his own ship's screws and panicked. But even with this knowledge that the report was false, Lyndon Johnson went on national TV that night to announce the commencement of air strikes against North Vietnam—"retaliation" for an attack that had never occurred.

President George Bush wanted a war in Iraq. Like Crassus, George Bush is motivated by money. Specifically, oil money. But with the OPEC alliance failing to keep limits on oil production in the Mideast, the market was being glutted with oil pumped from underneath Iraq, which sat over roughly 1/3 of the oil reserves of the entire region.

George wanted a war to stop that flow of oil, to keep prices (and profits) from falling any further than they already had. But like Roosevelt, he needed the "other side" to make the first move.

Iraq had long been trying to acquire greater access to the Persian Gulf, and felt limited, confined to a narrow strip of land along Kuwait's northern border, which placed Iraqi interests in close proximity with hostile Iran. George Bush, who had been covertly arming Iraq during its war with Iran, sent word via April Glaspie that the United States would not intervene if Saddam Hussein grabbed a larger part of Kuwait. Saddam fell for the bait and invaded.

Of course, Americans were not about to send their sons and daughters to risk their lives for petroleum products. So George Bush arranged a hoax, using public relations firm Hill & Knowlton, which has grown rich on taxpayer money by being most industrious and creative liars! Hill & Knowlton concocted a monumental fraud in which the daughter of the Kuwaiti Ambassador to the United States went on TV pretending to be a nurse, and related a horror story in which Iraqi troops looted the incubators from a Kuwaiti hospital, leaving the premature babies on the cold floor to die. The media, part of the swindle from the start, never bothered asking why the "nurse" didn't just pick the babies up and wrap them in blankets or something.

Enraged by the incubator story, Americans supported operation Desert Storm, which never removed Saddam Hussein from power, but which did take Kuwait's oil off of the market for almost 2 years and limited Iraq's oil exports to this very day. That our sons and daughters came home with serious and lingering medical illnesses was apparently not too great a price to pay for increased oil profits.

Following the victory in Iraq, yet another war appeared to be in the offering in the mineral-rich regions of Bosnia. Yet again, a hoax was used to create support for military action.

A photo of Fikret Alic, a Muslim, staring through a barbed-wire fence, was used to “prove” that the Bosnians were running modern day “concentration camps”. As a headline of “Belsen 92” indicates, all possible associations with the Nazi horrors were made to sell the necessity of sending yet more American troops into someone else’s nation.

But when German journalists went to Trnopolje, the site of the supposed Bosnian concentration camp, to film a documentary, they discovered that the photo was a fake! The camp at Trnopolje was not a concentration camp, but a refugee center. Nor was it surrounded by barbed wire.

Careful examination of the original photo revealed that the photographer had shot the photo through a broken section of fence surrounding a tool shed. It was the photographer who was on the inside, shooting out at the refugees.

Once again, Americans had been hoaxed into support of actions they might otherwise not have agreed with.

While several American Presidents have willingly started wars for personal purposes, perhaps no President has ever carried it to the extreme that Bill Clinton has.

Coincident with the expected public statement of Monica Lewinsky following her testimony, Bill Clinton ordered a cruise missile attack on Sudan and Afghanistan, claiming to have had irrefutable proof that bogeyman extraordinaire (and former Afghani ally) Osama bin Laden was creating terrorist chemical weapons there.

Examination of the photos of the debris revealed none of the expected structures one would find in a laboratory that handled lethal weapons-grade materials.

Assurances from the CIA that they had a positive soil test for biological weapons fell on their face when it was revealed that there had been no open soil anywhere near the pre-bombed facility. Sudan requested that international observers come test the remains of the factory for any signs of the nerve gas Clinton had insisted was there. None was found. The Sudanese plant was a harmless aspirin factory, and the owner has sued for damages.

Later examination of the site hit in Afghanistan revealed it to be a mosque.

Meanwhile, back in Kosovo, stories about genocide and atrocities were flooding the media (in time to distract from the Sudanese embarrassments), just as lurid and sensational—and as it turns out, often just as fictional as most of William Randolph Hearst’s stories of atrocities against the Cubans.

Again, the government and the media were hoaxing Americans. A photo was shown on all the American networks, claiming to be one of Slobodan Milosovic’s Migs, shot down while attacking civilians. Closer examination shows it to be stenciled in English!

Like Germany under Chancellor Hitler, there have been events in our nation which strike fear into the hearts of the citizens, such as the New York World Trade Tower bombing, the Oklahoma City Federal Building, and the Olympic Park bomb (nicely timed to divert the media from witnesses to the TWA 800 shoot down). The media has been very quick to blame such events on “radicals”, “subversives”, “vast right-wing conspiracies”, and other “enemies in our midst”—no different than the lies used by Cicero and Hitler.

But on closer examination, such “domestic terrorist” events do not appear to be what they are made out to be. The FBI had an informant inside the World Trade Tower bombers, Emad Salam, who offered to sabotage the bomb. The FBI told him “no”.

The so-called “hot bed” of White separatism at Elohim City, occasional home to Tim McVeigh in the weeks prior to the Oklahoma City bombing, was founded and is being run by an FBI informant!

And nobody has ever really explained what this second Ryder truck was doing in a secret camp, halfway from Elohim City to Oklahoma City, two weeks before the bombing.

So, here we are today. Like the Romans of Crassus’ and Cicero’s time, or the Germans under a newly elected Hitler, we are being warned that a dangerous enemy threatens us, implacable, invisible, omnipresent, and invulnerable as long as our government is hamstrung by that silly old Bill Of Rights.

Already there have appeared articles debating whether or not “extraordinary measures” (i.e. torture) are not fully justified under certain circumstances, such as those we are purported to face.

As was the case in Rome and Germany, the government continues to plead with the public for an expansion of its power and authority, to “deal with the crisis”.

However, as Casio watch timers are paraded before the cameras, to the stentorian tones of the talking heads’ constant dire warnings, it is legitimate to question just how real the crisis is, and how much is the result of political machinations by our own leaders.

Are the terrorists really a threat, or just hired actors with bombs and Casio watches, paid for by Cicero and given brown shirts to wear by Hitler?

Is terrorism inside the United States really from outside, or is it a stage-managed production, designed to cause Americans to believe they have no choice but to surrender the Republic and accept the totalitarian rule of a new Emperor, or a new Fuhrer?

Once lost, the Romans never got their Republic back. Once lost, the Germans never got their Republic back. In both cases, the nation had to totally collapse before freedom was restored to the people.

Remember that when Crassus tells you that Sparticus approaches.

Remember that when thugs in the streets act in a manner clearly designed to provoke the public fear.

Remember that when the Reichstag burns down.

Let’s bring this topic to a close with some haunting thoughts. Remember my page-2 editorial last month was Guided to introduce literary giant Mark Twain as one of the great souls “looking over our shoulders” here at The SPECTRUM. As we continue to get our daily, incessant dose of brainwashing slogans—“America Under Attack”, “America At War”, “America On Alert”, “America’s New War”, “America United” and “Operation Enduring Freedom”—one can’t help but realize how prophetic it was, what he had to say in that editorial, written four days before the “terrorist” attacks of September 11, when all was calm and the “big” news was about “little” California Congressman Gary Condit.

Let me repeat a small segment in that editorial, from Twain, having to do with war and slogans to stir-up the public:

Man is the only animal that deals in the atrocity of war. He’s the only one that, for sordid wages, goes forth in cold blood to exterminate his own kind. He has a motto for this: “Our country, right or wrong!” Any man who fails to shout it is a traitor!

Say—who is the country? Is it the government? In a republic, the government is merely a servant, a temporary one. Its function is to obey orders, not originate them.

Only when the republic’s life is in danger should a man uphold his government when it’s wrong. Otherwise the nation has sold its honor for a phrase.

And if that phrase needs help, he gets another one: “Even though the war be wrong, we are in it! We must fight it out; we cannot retire without dishonor.”

Why, not even a burglar could’ve said that better!

Man is the only animal that blushes—or needs to.

With that said, the following piece was dictated by Twain in 1905, not long after the United States conducted the brutal and senseless attack (1899-1902) upon the Philippines—which killed 4,600 Americans and 272,000 Filipinos—that was mentioned in the previous essay above.

According to some historical accounts, Twain told his friend and biographer, Alfred Bigelow Payne, that he had been warned not to publish The War Prayer. His daughter Jean told him that it would be regarded as sacrilege. But if Twain took Jean’s advice, or any other, it was because he agreed with it.

“I have told the whole truth in that, and only dead men can tell the truth in this world” Twain said. “It can be published after I am dead.” Payne printed excerpts from The War Prayer in his 1912 biography of Twain. But the full story didn’t see print until 1916, when it appeared in Harper's magazine as a protest against the rampages of World War I. It is just as appropriate for what is happening right now—as we move ever closer to yet another engineered world war.

Twain died in 1910; he was born in 1835. The spooky thing is that he arrived with Halley's comet and always said he would be leaving with it—which he did. He was often in hot water for courageous and hard-hitting moral stances on "dangerous" topics, with his most beloved literary works often BANNED from libraries. Those works were a particular source of irritation to those in positions of behind-the-scenes power.

So The War Prayer was too painful or shocking for the world of his day? Perhaps, but the world was soon to shake and shudder in turmoil as the conspirators behind World War I finally drew-in the United States.

So he directed that it be published after his death? Yes, sensing full well that man was not going to become any smarter any time soon and The War Prayer would be just as appropriate a cautionary parable for several later generations.

He was, unfortunately, all too correct about that assessment.

Mark Twain's The War Prayer

It was a time of great and exalting excitement. The country was up in arms; the war was on. In every breast burned the holy fire of patriotism—the drums were beating, the bands playing, the toy pistols popping, the bunched firecrackers hissing and spluttering; on every hand and far down the receding and fading spread of roofs and balconies a fluttering wilderness of flags flashed in the Sun.

Daily the young volunteers marched down the wide avenue, gay and fine in their new uniforms, the proud fathers and mothers and sisters and sweethearts cheering them with voices choked with happy emotion as they swung by. Nightly the packed meetings listened, panting, to patriot oratory which stirred the deepest deeps of their hearts, and which they interrupted at briefest intervals with cyclones of applause, the tears running down their cheeks the while. In the churches the pastors preached devotion to flag and country, and invoked the God of Battles, beseeching His aid in our good cause in outpouring of fervid eloquence which moved every listener.

It was indeed a glad and gracious time, and the half dozen rash spirits that ventured to disapprove of the war and cast a doubt upon its righteousness straightway got such a stern and angry warning that, for their personal safety's sake, they quickly shrank out of sight and offended no more in that way.

Sunday morning came. Next day the battalions would leave for the front. The church was filled. The volunteers were there, their young faces alight with martial dreams—visions of the stern advance, the gathering momentum, the rushing charge, the flashing sabers, the flight of the foe, the tumult, the enveloping smoke, the fierce pursuit, the surrender! Then home from the war, bronzed heroes, welcomed, adored, submerged in golden seas of glory!

With the volunteers sat their dear ones, proud, happy, and envied by the neighbors and friends who had no sons and brothers to send forth to the field of honor, there to win for the flag, or, failing, die the noblest of noble deaths. The service proceeded; a war chapter from the Old Testament was read. The first prayer was said; it was followed by an organ burst that shook the building, and with one impulse the house rose, with glowing eyes and beating hearts, and poured out that tremendous invocation: "God the all-terrible! Thou who ordainest, Thunder thy clarion and lightning thy sword!"

Then came the "long" prayer. None could remember the like of it for passionate pleading and moving and beautiful language. The burden of its supplication was, that an ever-merciful and benignant Father of us all would watch over our noble young soldiers, and aid, comfort, and encourage them in their patriotic work; bless them, shield them in the day of battle and the hour of peril, bear them in His mighty hand, make them strong and confident, invincible in the bloody onset; help them to crush the foe, grant to them and to their flag and country imperishable honor and glory.

An aged stranger entered and moved with slow and noiseless step up the main aisle, his eyes fixed upon the minister, his long body clothed in a robe that reached to his feet, his head bare, his white hair descending in a frothy cataract to his shoulders, his seamy face unnaturally pale, pale even to ghastliness. With all eyes following him and wondering, he made his silent way; without pausing, he ascended to the preacher's side and stood there, waiting.

With shut lids the preacher, unconscious of his presence, continued his moving prayer, and at last finished it with the words, uttered in fervent appeal, "Bless our arms, grant us the victory, O Lord our God, Father and Protector of our land and flag!"

The stranger touched his arm, motioned him to step aside—which the startled minister did—and took his place. During some moments he surveyed the spellbound audience with solemn eyes, in which burned an uncanny light; then in a deep voice he said:

"I come from the Throne, bearing a message from Almighty God!" The words smote the house with a shock; if the stranger perceived it he gave no attention. "He has heard the prayer of His servant your shepherd, and will grant it if such shall be your desire after I, His messenger, shall have explained to you its import—that is to say, its full import. For it is like unto many of the prayers of men, in that it asks for more than he who utters it is aware of—except he pause and think.

"God's servant and yours has prayed his prayer. Has he paused and taken thought? Is it one prayer? No, it is two—one uttered, the other not. Both have reached the ear of Him who heareth all supplications, the spoken and the unspoken. Ponder this—keep it in mind. If you would beseech a blessing upon yourself, beware! Lest without intent you invoke a curse upon a neighbor at the same time. If you pray for the blessing of rain upon your crop which needs it, by that act you are possibly praying for a curse upon some neighbor's crop which may not need rain and can be injured by it.

"You have heard your servant's prayer—the uttered part of it. I am commissioned of God to put into words the other part of it—that part which the pastor, and also you in your hearts, fervently prayed silently. And ignorantly and unthinkingly? God grant that it was so! You heard these words: 'Grant us the victory, O Lord our God!' That is sufficient. The whole of the uttered prayer is compact into those pregnant words. Elaborations were not necessary.

"When you have prayed for victory, you have prayed for many unmentioned results which follow victory—must follow it, cannot help but follow it. Upon the listening spirit of God the Father fell also the unspoken part of the prayer. He commandeth me to put it into words. Listen!

"O Lord our Father, our young patriots, idols of our hearts, go forth to battle—be Thou near them! With them, in spirit, we also go forth from the sweet peace of our beloved firesides to smite the foe. O Lord our God, help us to tear their soldiers to bloody shreds with our shells; help us to cover their smiling fields with the pale forms of their patriot dead; help us to drown the thunder of the guns with the shrieks of their wounded, writhing in pain; help us to lay waste their humble homes with a hurricane of fire; help us to wring the hearts of their unoffending widows with unavailing grief; help us to turn them out roofless with their little children to wander unfriended the wastes of their desolated land in rags and hunger and thirst, sports of the Sun flames of summer and the icy winds of winter, broken in spirit, worn with travail, imploring Thee for the refuge of the grave and denied it, for our sakes who adore Thee. Lord, blast their hopes, blight their lives, protract their bitter pilgrimage, make heavy their steps, water their way with their tears, stain the white snow with the blood of their wounded feet! We ask it, in the spirit of love, of Him who is the Source of Love, and who is the ever-faithful refuge and friend of all that are sore, beset, and seek His aid with humble and contrite hearts. Amen."

(After a pause.)

"Ye have prayed it; if ye still desire it, speak! The messenger of the Most High waits."

It was believed afterward that the man was a lunatic, because there was no sense in what he said.

Perhaps that same Messenger awaits our own decision about allowing the start of World War III through the same kinds of manipulations that have successfully engineered so many other tragic wars.

With that thought in mind, I leave you with the following haunting news item about a child too innocent and too honest to fathom the evil operating within this world. Are we ready to accept what he has to say?

Boy In Dallas Suburb Predicts Start Of WW-III Day Before Attacks

9/19/01 R. G. RATCLIFFE

Houston Chronicle

The day before terrorists attacked New York and Washington, a fifth-grader in a Dallas suburb told his teacher World War III would begin the next day, school officials have told the FBI.

The boy was absent from school the day of the attacks, September 11, and the following day, but has been at school since then, said Rhonda Lucich, a director of elementary education for the Garland Independent School District.

Lucich said the boy approached his teacher on the afternoon of September 10 and casually told her:

"Tomorrow, World War III will begin. It will begin in the United States, and the United States will lose."

Lucich said the child's statements were passed along to the FBI. She said she did not know whether the agency had acted on the tip. An FBI spokesman could not be reached for comment.

Lucich said school officials are concerned, but not alarmed.

"It is one of those things I sincerely want to believe was coincidental" Lucich said.

Lucich declined to name the elementary school involved. She said she was told about the boy's comment by his teacher and the school's principal two days after the September 11 attacks.

She said the boy is multiracial but that she does not believe his ethnicity includes a Middle Eastern background.

As we go to press, operation "America Strikes Back" was announced at 12:30 p.m. EDT, Sunday 10/7/01. Shortly afterward, an earthquake rattled nerves in Los Angeles. Coincidence? More to come? To learn how another nasty step into World War III is progressing, look at the lead story in this SPECTRUM's News Desk column. Let us all ask for Higher Help, that sanity may prevail, and that the crooks in high places may be exposed, in some very public ways, for what they really are. △ "The most courageous act is still to think for yourself. Aloud."

— Coco Chanel

The Good Shall Be Sorted From Evil

9/22/01 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Peace, for I am here. I am Sananda, Esu, and I come in Radiance and in Service. Darkness cannot dwell in my presence, for it is the very nature of darkness to shun the Light.

Be at peace this day. Simply quiet yourself, and you shall hear what I say to you with clarity.

The events of recent days have brought out the best in man. 'Tis so sad that it takes an act of such evil to bring forth man's goodness, yet it is so. Has it not been said that in these days the Light and Dark shall be separated? That Goodness and Evil shall become more readily apparent? Is this not the case?

You have seen total disregard for life through what can only be described as fanatical actions. So, too, you have seen the very best of man—the goodness, the generosity, the sharing, the giving, the unbridled willingness to reach forth to help. It is glorious to behold!

And at the same time your nation plans actions of such death and destruction that, once again, the opposite polarity is revealed.

How can there be honor in killing? Where has justice gone? Is justice the destruction of life? If so, who judges? Whose life will be taken and whose spared? Some of the greatest and vilest acts of evil ever perpetrated on your planet were done in the name of God!

Will the weeks, months, and years ahead bring Peace? Joy? Love?

Or will the days ahead, with "America's New War", bring fear, uncertainty, death, destruction, and a viciousness of spirit that can only be described as "lynch mob"?

Hard words? Are they?

Why is it that none speaking of peace are given air time?

Do you really think that God does not love His children in the regions of Afghanistan and Pakistan as much as He loves His children in New York City?

Those brave souls who gave their life in an effort to save others in New York City have demonstrated absolute unselfish giving. These brave souls shall reap the Kingdom of Heaven, for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs!

Those who give orders to fire upon innocent civilians shall experience the fear, the pain, and the suffering that they have brought upon others. That which they send out shall be visited back upon them—tenfold. It is the Law of Return, and it shall not be swept aside by those who believe they do justice when, in fact, they do evil and harm to God's children. Those who sit in comfortable chairs and issue orders that destroy entire civilizations shall feel the sting of their own actions.

Violence begets violence. Love is self-perpetuating. Selflessness and regiving are that which is the best in man.

Just as those people who harbor and finance the fanatical soldiers shall be held equally accountable for the actions of recent days, so too shall the people who stand behind the call for violence and murder by your leaders be held accountable. THAT is just.

In your system of justice, criminals are sought out and brought to account for their actions in a court of law. The call for WAR was raised before the ashes were cooled. Make no mistake about it—GOD IS WATCHING.

What will YOU do? We shall see.

Go in peace while you can.

I AM SANANDA △

ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

This reproduction is from an actual photograph taken on June 1, 1961 in Chichen Itza, Yucatan, by one of thirty archaeologists working in the area at the time. Sananda appeared in visible, tangible body and permitted his photograph to be taken.

Communication Is The Key To Breaking The Spell

9/29/01 KORTON

Good afternoon, my scribe. It is I, Tomeros Maasu Korton, come in the One Light of Creator God. Be at peace and be still.

Many recognize my designation, but for those who do not, let me please clarify the capacity in which I serve The Greater Whole. I am a communication specialist. My primary responsibilities are to help establish and maintain open lines of communication, regardless of the medium. The most common form of communication we use is mind-to-mind via the interconnectedness of all ones. I come as a member of the Host of God, to assist in the transformation process of your planet at this time.

Many know me as Commander Korton, or simply Korton. The name is far less important than the energy signature imparted into the message itself. Different ones, in different languages and cultures, will know my energy by different names. More simply stated, I am a fellow traveler along the infinite journey of exploration and growth, just as are you ones. I simply have progressed farther along the same path in my understanding, awareness, and responsibilities than many of you ones.

I wish to impart a message that will be a reminder to most of you—THE NEED FOR CLEAR COMMUNICATION.

During the coming days, months, and years, you ones will be witness to many events that will be considered senseless in terms of rational thinking. You will be told by your government what to think and believe regarding these events (such as the World Trade Center attacks).

This is not new. Your current society has been molded to swallow the mainstream media's explanation of events, and you have been diligently trained to NOT question, else the fear of ridicule and outright persecution will surely follow—most often from your closest friends, relatives, and co-workers.

However, there are measures you can take to learn to sift through the façade of presented information, and learn to LISTEN for key words that will give you clues and help you to discern when you are being manipulated with half-truths or blatant lies.

LISTEN for key words such as:

"Insiders are REPORTED to have said...." (You should be thinking to yourself: But they may not have.)

"Officials say it APPEARS to be...." (But it may not be what it appears.)

"The ALLEGED terrorist was...." (But we could be wrong.)

Your news media sources know that often they are forced to report truly important news with a certain slant or spin that will often lead to the news stations presenting fabricated stories from "protected" sources. To help these news organizations protect themselves from being sued into non-existence, the ones writing the stories that are fed to the teleprompters are trained by very skilled lawyers to use such key words and phrases as: IT APPEARS, ALLEGED, REPORTED TO HAVE SAID, GENERAL OPINION IS, INDICATORS SUGGEST, and so on.

Learn to LISTEN for these modifiers. The more you hear, the more you know that the truth is being misrepresented. Next listen to the ones who would be the first to ridicule you if you were to suggest that the news media sources are lying to you. Listen to how they parrot back the same news stories WITHOUT the modifiers.

The news story may say: "Sources inside the Pentagon suggest that the plane may have been originally headed for the White House." What is often parroted back is: "Did you hear? The plane was originally headed for the White House." The average person completely tunes out the modifiers that were actually said, and accepts the deceit without question.

Again, the words are crafted in such a way as to leave a legal "out" for those who are presenting the information.

In the written media, it is a bit more tricky to accomplish the same "spin" effect on the truth. Often the print media will actually have to use far less modifiers. If anyone actually notices AND makes the effort to confront them on their "error" in presentation, they simply print a retraction statement, some time later, in some obscure location in the newspaper or magazine—or these days, perhaps only on their Internet website.

The point is, if you really pay attention to these subtle and often missed clues, you will see that there is an awful lot of care taken to fashion or craft what should be even the simplest of statements. Often, by the time the reporter reading the news into the cameras gets to the second or third sentence, the original statement of "ALLEGED INSIDERS are REPORTED to have said (or seen) what APPEARS to have been..." is all gone from your mind because you have been desensitized to these preceding words and only want to hear the "meat" of the story.

The reason I have chosen to belabor this point is because—as many of you have just recently witnessed—in a relatively short period of time your busy lives can be drastically impacted by acts that defy logic and reason. Such acts have impacted ALL ones on some level. Even if the only thing you notice is that your mail delivery has been drastically slowed down and delayed, there is no escaping the effects set into motion by such events. For most, the reaction goes far beyond such trivial things as slowed-down mail delivery.

These events are deliberate actions taken to bring about a mindset of SHOCK and DISBELIEF. In such a mental and emotional state, the mind races to find order and understanding, and is QUITE susceptible to the FIRST thing that it hears which stops the inner swirling of confusion. In essence, what is created is a altered state of consciousness that is highly susceptible to suggestion—not too different a mechanism from how electroshock therapy works. The major difference is that THIS manipulation is done on a large scale, and the equivalent of an "electric shock" comes from within, rather than from an external source.

The ones who are TRULY to blame for these acts are very far removed from suspicion—and yet there are clues to be seen. And if enough people with key information speak up (communicate) and compare notes, a different picture will emerge. These events are planned with great care and full knowing that there will be unexpected "leaks" that will need to be plugged. There will be great amounts of energy directed into keeping The Lie reinforced in the minds of the masses, while trying to stop, discredit, or destroy the ones who do not accept the events as told at face value.

COMMUNICATION IS THE KEY TO FINDING THE TRUTH!

You have witnessed, through your media conduits, several short stories suggesting that this new war against terrorism will be fought differently than the conventional wars in the past. This allows great cloaked latitude for mischief in their actions.

Likewise, most of you will note that there has been a great amount of emphasis focused on the need for "monitoring communications" such as electronic mail (e-mail) and telephone conversations. Why? They say because they have to be more thorough in their search for “terrorists” and related activities.

But the truth of the need to monitor is because they need to assess “legally” what you-the-people may be suspecting and COMMUNICATING with each other. Communication is the sharing of information. The government of the United States and her allies have a lot to hide from the common citizen. A LOT!

The ones who are manipulating the mindset of the masses, and molding them into a frenzied thirst for blood, realize the façade they have created has a fragile foundation, and that if they don’t keep the focus of the masses on the façade, then the whole illusion can quickly crumble as the high emotional energy so generated circles back and releases its charge on the TRUE criminals.

These TRUE criminals are the real terrorists, and what they fear most is being exposed. This means they fear the average man waking-up to their games of manipulation. Just how does the average man wake-up to the games of manipulation? Through a hard-to-censor communication medium such as the Internet, and through credible “alternative news” sources.

Be aware that during times of war your constitutional rights are suspended, and this means that your freedoms can (and will) be legally restricted. I ask that fear not be a part of your mindset. When you come to realize that you are much more than a physical body, and that you indeed have an IMMORTAL soul, you will realize that you have nothing to fear.

However, you are there to be challenged and to learn how to use your personal abilities of discernment—and thus choose a wise course that will allow for you to persist and help as many people as you can to cope with the challenges that lay ahead. Learn to recognize and play the game of the serpent without becoming the serpent.

COMMUNICATION IS THE GREATEST WEAPON YOU ONES HAVE! Disseminating information is what keeps people alive. Holding your truth for fear of being harmed is what guarantees that you—or perhaps millions of others—will die in wars fought for senseless reasons.

Staying quiet when you hold a piece of the puzzle is what the illusion masters are counting on. These ones count on the FEAR they have instilled within you, through having you sign your name on a piece of paper saying that you won’t tell on them, no matter how insane they become.

You also have the moral obligation to yourself to do what is right. Only you can answer what is right for you. Perhaps YOUR silence is what will allow the façade to continue.

You ones are constantly asking: “What can

I do to help?”

SHARE YOUR TRUTH! Encourage others to share theirs.

When enough people stand up and speak about what they know, the TRUE Larger Picture will become evident, thus allowing for a balanced and effective solution. When revisionist history is allowed to persist as a norm, The Truth becomes harder and harder to find, let alone accept. The largest problem you ones are faced with is the “embarrassment factor” associated with those who have held their tongue for far too long. To those ones I say: it is far better late than never!

Many of you can remember the emotional impact of the 1963 John F. Kennedy assassination in broad daylight. For those of you who can still remember where you were when it happened, look back and remember also your mental and emotional reactions. What was going through your mind? Were you afraid and shocked? Was your mind racing for answers?

When you heard on the news that it was Lee Harvey Oswald who did it, what was your reaction and response? Did you fixate on Oswald or did you remain open to the idea that others could be involved? When you witnessed on television Oswald being shot, what was your reaction? Did you feel that justice was served?

If someone had approached you a couple of weeks after the assassination of JFK and told you that the government was working diligently to cover-up the details of the assassination(s), would you have believed it? For most of you, the answer is: no, you would not have believed it.

Now that it has been nearly 40 years, and there has been building all of the controversy and long parade of murdered witnesses and overwhelming evidence that Oswald could not have acted alone and may not have even been one of the shooters—how does this compare to your original reactions nearly 40 years ago?

If someone approaches you NOW and says they believe there was a government coverup about the JFK assassination, has your tolerance for such an assertion changed from what it used to be, when you could not accept such a point of view?

After that assassination there was a great deal of emotional energy generated within the masses that needed to be channeled into something. Do you think the American public would have been as agreeable to enter the Vietnam War if it were not for the need to dissipate and release this energy? No, they would not have.

Do you think that the emotional energy created through recent events is greater than back in 1963? How about that in 1941 (the contrived Pearl Harbor bombing)? Though there are fewer around who can attest first-hand to the latter, the answer to both these questions is: Yes, the emotional energy is much greater now than from either of these prior events.

This energy needs to be released, and the controllers of your world’s governments know this. To do anything other than suggesting and going to war would result in the energy being focused back on the government itself.

Your world does not need war. Your world needs TRUTH! All wars are based on lies, manipulations, and insanity of those who desire same. Exposing this insanity is the only reasonable course of action. This is not an easy job, but I do remind you that it is possible to start an avalanche with just a single snowball.

If you are one who has been greatly disturbed inside by the recent happenings, and you feel strong emotional energy building, I suggest you channel that energy into getting as much information as you can regarding the situation, and get it moving into the hands of as many people as you can.

The time is ripe for the Awakening of the masses to the Greater Reality beyond the schoolroom. It is time to graduate for some and time to give your planetary orb a rest.

(We will not allow her destruction, for she is not of a vibrational resonance with the energy of war and mass destruction in any way whatsoever. For most this will mean a relocation to an environment conducive to their vibrational dispensation toward physical greed and ego gratification of the physical senses.)

Be not afraid to speak out and share information you might have. What you speak and share may very well save another person from senselessly being murdered. Many ones talk about government corruption (remember the long line of Kennedy family assassinations—both well known and not so known), and yet these same ones just wait for someone else to do something.

It is now time for you to help yourselves. Open lines of communication. Support those who are trying to do something. Share what you know with anyone who is willing to listen.

SHARE YOUR KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING. COMMUNICATE WITH ONE ANOTHER!

I am Tomeros Maasu Korton, come with this short message so that you might have a viable and balanced direction in which to focus the emotional energy we witness building. Violence is not the answer. TRUTH and UNDERSTANDING are.

I leave you now in the Light and Love of Creator Source—The One Light. Salu.

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

— Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Nature Of The “Beast” And The Game It Plays

9/29/01 SOLTEC

Good evening, my friend. It is I, Ceres Anthonious “Toniose” Soltec, come in the One Light of Creator Source. Thank you for sitting this day, for I too have a message I would like to share.

In light of recent events, many ones are looking towards this source (The SPECTRUM) for insights and guidance concerning what they are feeling within. Many ones are having a “bad” feeling associated with the recent tragic events.

Please remember that you are all given free-will choice to do what you think is best for you. Often the decisions of a small few can and do change the course of history of your world.

What many of you are feeling within are inner stirrings of premonition/recognition that something very big has been put into motion, and that the energy about to manifest in the physical domain will have a momentum that will cause great shifts in the lives of all ones on the planet.

Most do not understand exactly why it is that they are having difficulty sleeping, or why they are having nightmares of bombs and wars. The fact of the matter is that we of the Higher, Lighted Realms, who interact with you ones as Guides and Angels, are putting great efforts toward helping all ones come to grips with the individual choices and decisions and beliefs that the masses are buying into.

You could say that the conscience is being aroused within, while the lower emotional energies of fear and anger continue to permeate the ethers. We are doing a lot of nighttime “dream work” with ones to help them see that they are allowing conditions to build within that will “blow up” in their face if they don’t get their emotional state back into balance.

There are other factors as well that are affecting the sleep patterns of the masses, such as the HAARP-related technologies that have been cranked up since the plane crash incidents. The reaction of emotional shock provides “cover” for the increased energy bombardment since ones are quick to blame their sleeplessness on the inner emotional shock rather than on the electromagnetic frequencies with which they are being purposely bombarded to maintain a state of mental confusion. Those actually responsible for what recently happened do not want you to be in a clear enough state of mind to ask questions that might point a finger of suspicion toward them.

Dear friends, please read carefully the front-page story of this issue of The SPECTRUM for various clues to what is really going on. The bigger the lies, the easier it is for these liars to fool the masses, for the average person cannot fathom the depth of insanity that is in power on your planet.

The emotional energies triggered, and subsequently released, as a result of the events of September 11, have been deliberately calculated so as to help generate strong negative emotional responses, and thus create a negative energy atmosphere (and an inter-dimensional portal or vortex of sorts) which allows many a dark entity to gain a foothold and thus subtly influence a large number of people.

The ones who are so influenced are the ones who will not listen to reason, even if you were to show them proof beyond all refute. These are the ones who are calling out for war, and who may be terrorizing, in their own neighborhoods, anyone who even looks like they might be from Afghanistan. In essence, these darkly overshadowed ones have become the very thing they wish to destroy—terrorists.

Why? For most, because of what they have watched and heard on television.

How will these same ones feel when they finally realize that they have been manipulated as fools, and that they played their part without question, let alone conscience?

My friends, your environment is continuing to increase in vibrational frequency. This upward shift is the “cleansing” prophesized.

There is a very real extra-dimensional force which knows it will not be able to continue to overshadow and function in the environment that is evolving. This force is of great analytical intelligence, but lives (by choice) almost devoid of any higher emotions such as Love and Joy. It knows that it must withdraw from your environment, for there will be no “dark shadows” left to hide within, and no one who will not recognize its presence immediately and see it for what it is.

But, this force of darkness does wish to persist for as long as it can, for its perception of self is that of a great and powerful god who struggles to find within itself the means to break free of the Oneness that created it. This struggle is what causes the inner shunning of the higher emotions.

As your environment becomes increasingly more positive (of higher and higher frequency), the manipulations and overshadowments of those in human form become harder to maintain. Thus comes the need for creating conditions that will generate strong negative emotions so as to create a negative (low-frequency) atmosphere that delays the awakening that is the natural byproduct of the high-frequency environment.

This game of overshadowment is not a new one and the entities who choose this path do so as a means of self discovery without regard for those who allow them into their space. From a much larger perspective than the majority of you would feel comfortable with, these entities are as much a part of Creator Source as are you and me. However, their chosen path, from the perspective of the average person, is one of harsh coldness. From their own perspective it is one of extreme use of intelligence without emotional consideration, let alone balance.

In theory these ones are trying to generate conditions that would defy the Positive Energy of Love and allow them to “discover” a way to, in essence, overthrow the thinking of the Divine Mind of Creator Source. The major flaw in their understanding is due to their emotional withdrawal. Creator God is Love, Compassion, and Joy, first and foremost. Therefore, the only way to “overthrow” the Divine Mind (in theory, only) would be to OVERWHELM it with an even greater sense of Love, Compassion, and Joy.

Nonetheless, there still exists this aspect of Creation that is “hell bent” on trying to find another way. The way that is most often tried is to overshadow and control as many individual fragments of The Whole as possible, in an attempt to reverse the polarity of God’s thinking.

The biggest problem with this endeavor is that there comes a point wherein such “dark” ones, with large masses of overshadowed entities under their influence, run into another playing the same game. Both want to be in control of the other, and neither are willing to give-in to assist the realization of the larger goal, for to do so would mean failure to become God themselves.

Thus the experiment is like an infinite loop, wherein nothing is ever really achieved until the point becomes apparent and these “dark” entities realize there is only ONE way to achieve the goal—and that is through cooperation, embracing the Oneness that all ones innately seek.

Meanwhile, you ones who have chosen the experience of the physical schoolroom have done so knowing that there would be these kinds of challenges to face, challenges that would cause you to go within and confront the pesky temptations of these "dark" elements of Creation. The majority of ones experiencing in the physical desire peace, beauty, happiness, joy, and love, foremost. Yet there always seems to be a challenge that keeps this from fully being recognized.

What is it that you must learn in order to find that lasting balance point wherein a sustained and enduring true happiness is achieved? For most it is the Inner Knowing and Awareness of exactly who you are and the nature of the game (mentioned above) that is being played. This takes more than being told a generalized story about the game. It takes the active recognition of the inner emotional instances, throughout your experiences, where this "dark" influence was ALLOWED to overshadow you.

These would be the times when you allowed yourself to get angry, took deliberate acts to hurt another, allowed yourself to become overwhelmed with fear to a point where you chose to close down emotionally, and all the infinite possible variations where pain or emotional overwhelm were allowed to persist within you.

When you realize that these are instances wherein you have allowed overshadowment of a "dark" nature that thrives on the lower emotional states of disconnect from Creator Source, you will then realize the value of the physical schoolroom and eventually choose Love, Compassion, Joy, and Peace over their low-frequency opposites. This will come into balance when you have learned how to observe these things of negative polarity without becoming a part of what you are observing, and thus avoid giving negativity a foothold within you.

This usually comes as a result of diligent effort toward recognizing within you the various pockets of negativity you hold within as if they were some valued treasures, never to be released for fear of reliving the pain and releasing same to the "nothingness" it deserves.

Only with clearness of heart and mind can there come the balance you seek.

Allow the events of recent unfolding to serve as a catalyst for you to observe inner emotional stirrings that you may be having in response to the "shock" of it all. These emotions are being triggered for many reasons. Is your reaction anger? What about fear? Are you in a state of "terror"? What exactly are you feeling?

Depending on your answer, you may be given a clue about which I speak. If you are feeling anger (the most common response), then how does this anger help you to find balance and peace within? It does so by showing you that you are still susceptible to the outside manipulations of others who have deliberately designed the situation to create the very anger you are feeling!

In moments that you are actually feeling anger, you are diminishing greatly your capacity to stay centered and balanced, and thus you become more or less disconnected from Higher Source, and thus more susceptible to "dark" overshadowment through the reactionary responses that well-up from these base emotions.

Where exactly do these reactionary responses well-up or originate from? Could it be from an entity who thrives on such emotional states, who in your moment of anger matches your vibrational pattern perfectly and thus gives rise to thoughts, actions, and deeds that will only serve to propagate and prolong the condition?

Hmmm? Couldn't happen to you?

My friends, your greatest challenge is to learn to be in the physical world without the need to become part of it. Observe, without losing your inner state of Peace and Knowing, that ALL is for a reason and that the ultimate reason is for Growth, Understanding, and a Higher Awareness of self and others. In essence, ALL experience has a positive value when looked at from a large enough perspective.

This subject will not be easy for most to swallow, for the idea that you have been overshadowed from time to time is a bit disconcerting. Keep your spirits HIGH, and keep Love in your heart at all times. Use balance and discernment to KNOW that what you are being told or shown may have little to do with The Truth.

I am Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec, come in the One Light of Creator Source. Go within; ask for Guidance and Clarification and Assistance as often as you wish. There are myriads of Lighted Wayshowers ready to assist.

Blessings and Peace. Salu.

The Masters and the Spiritual Path

You have friends in high places...

There are Masters who have come out of all the world's great spiritual traditions. These great lights of East and West have graduated from earth's schoolroom and reunited with Spirit in the process known as the ascension. Now they come to show us the pathway home.

The Masters tell us that they are examples and not exceptions to the rule. We, too, are destined to fulfill our life's purpose and reunite with Spirit.

In this intriguing work you will discover valuable keys to your own spiritual path: How the ascension differs from nirvana and samadhi, the relationship between the spiritual and material universes, and the difference between ascended and unascended masters. You will learn about the function of the spiritual hierarchy and the role of the Masters of East and West. Includes a unique meditation on the bliss of union with Spirit and a breathing exercise to help you balance and expand consciousness. $16.95 (+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach

Do you enjoy the spiritual messages shared here in The SPECTRUM? If so then you won't want to miss these two volumes packed full of earlier shared messages.

"Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where these books come into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen." — From the back cover of Volume I

"Let us begin with WHO you are. You, the non-physical YOU, are an infinite thought projection of the One who created you (God!). You are the product of His desire. You are, in effect, Desire manifest in uniqueness of purpose." — Esu "Jesus" Sananda (Vol. II)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

Order Back Issues Of The SPECTRUM

Vol. 1, #1 June 1, 1999

Premier Issue • HATONN: Learning To Act In Oneness With All Of Creation • Genocide With A Capital "G", Dr. Len Horowitz • Benzene And Other Poisons In Our Food Supply • Money & Secret Powers • New Menace Is Stalking Europe: It's The U.S. • What's Happening In Yugoslavia? • What Has Happened Since The CONTACT Lock-Out? • SOLTEC: Growth Comes From Understanding Of Truth, • EL MORYA: Recognizing Value In ALL Of Life's Challenges

Vol. 1, #2 July 6, 1999

Xerox Copy Special Order

Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse Dr. Len Horowitz • SANANDA: It Is Your Life And Your Responsibility • Native American Perspectives: The Wisdom Of Rolling Thunder • Untangling The Web: Hidden History Paints Revealing Picture • SOLTEC: Making Good Use Of This "Quickening" Environment • SOLTEC: Watch The Clues, Both Near And Far • SANAT KUMARA: Will You Blossom Or Burn Out? • The "Soy Toxin Team" Story • SOLTEC: Turning Clues Into Wisdom Through Insight • SANANDA: True Abundance Comes From Walking The Spiritual Path • The Illuminati Millennium Rituals

Vol. 1, #3 August 3, 1999

Xerox Copy Special Order

Are Their Aliens Among Us? The Biggest Secret David Icke • Native American Perspectives: Remembering Who We Are • SOLTEC: Each New Day Is A Miracle Of Opportunities • SOLTEC: Choices Are Central To The Creative Process • Have We Been Gifted With Waters To Heal A Sick Planet? • Data On The JFK, Jr. Crash • HATONN: Recognizing YOUR Purpose Helps The Larger Plan • Two Millennia Of Prophecy Collected Together

Vol. 1, #4 September 7, 1999

Is Edgar Cayce Back? An Interview With David Wilcock • Native American Perspectives: The Native Ways And Teachings • "Better" Living Through Chemistry—Prozac: Panacea Or Pandora? • GERMAIN: The Power Of Truth In A World Of Lies • Oracle's Messages About Parasites • Introductory Essay On The Wilcock-Cayce-Ra Connection & The "Mission" • Some Excerpts From Convergence • SANANDA: Clear The Weeds From Your Wheat • As Planetary Frequency Upshifts, Are You Going Through "The Change"? • Waco And The New World Order: The Astonishing Connections • ATON: Recognize Your Vast Spiritual Heritage

Vol. 1, #5 October 5, 1999

Great Zulu Shaman Credo Mutwa • SOLTEC: Navigating The Road Of Frequency Increase • Sunspot Cycles: Their Profound Effect On Man & Earth • Essiac: A Natural Herbal Cancer Therapy • SOLTEC: Geophysical Clues About These Times Of Cleansing • Plate Tectonics: A Lesson On Earth's Outer Structure • Native American Perspectives: The Women And The Chiefs • GERMAIN: Learn To Sense & Embrace Big Changes Coming Fast • HATONN: Discerning For Yourself The "Reality" Of Hatonn • Parasite Elimination: A Must For Good Health

Vol. 1, #6 November 2, 1999

The Mayan Calendar • The Horse Whisperer: An Interview With Monty Roberts • Native American Perspectives: The Elders, Medicine People, And Warriors • SOLTEC: From The Caterpillar To The Butterfly • A Remarkable Glimpse Of Egyptian History • HATONN: On "Reptilian" Shape-Shifting And The Hatonn-Ra Connection • Magnets And Solar Panels

Vol. 1, #7 December 7, 1999

An Interview With Robert Ghost Wolf • Native American Perspectives: Indian Prayers, Visions, and Native Ways • SANAT KUMARA: You Are The Miracle You Are Searching For! • Red Tide: The Chinese Communist Targeting Of America • Blindness, Mad Cow Disease, And "Canola" Oil • EgyptAir Flight 990: Astonishing News The Media Hides • HATONN: Reach Out And Touch Someone • Get Well! How To Create Powerful Health • SOLTEC: We Are All Both Teacher And Student

Vol. 1, #8 January 4, 2000

Dr. Len Horowitz's Healing Celebration Remedy • Harvard Speech By Charlton Heston: Winning The Cultural War • The Unnerving Truth About Mind Control "Forewarned Is Forearmed" • RA: Knowing Our Karmic Past May Help Us Understand The Present • The Mechanism Behind An Upcoming Major Global Economic Crisis • HATONN: What Are Some Clues For Truly Finding Your Purpose? • On The Rev. Jesse Jackson And His Role In The Murder Of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Part I • GERMAIN: Forgiveness Is The Key To Transformation • Prophecy: Warriors Of The Rainbow

Vol. 1, #9 February 1, 2000

What If Everything You Thought You Knew About AIDS Was Wrong? Christine Maggiore • SOLTEC: Finding Your Natural State Of Inner Energy Balance • Colloidal Silver Healing Legacy • Big Brother Internet: Nameless & Faceless In Cyberspace • Remember To Look At The View • Native American Perspectives: Facing Our Destiny • HILARION: Letting Grow By Letting Go • When Disclosure Serves Secrecy

Vol. 1, #10 March 7, 2000

Indigo Children: An Interview With Jan Tober • Purposeful Con-fusion Surrounding Cold Fusion • Vaccination: An UnGodly Practice, Dr. Len Horowitz • The Ritalin Generation: Drugging America's Youth • MSG: The Deadly Mouth Aphrodisiac • Native American Perspectives: Toward Sovereign Indian Nations • SOLTEC/HATONN: Glimpses Of The Truth Behind Your Shadow World • A Fancy Trail Of Money Laundering By Greenspan, Bush & The Twiglets

Vol. 1, #11 April 4, 2000

Sound Healing: An Interview with Jonathan Goldman • Legal Help When Laws Go Wild: Justice Team One • The Lever That Moves The World • So You Want To Plant A Garden? • Silverlon®: Medical Applications • Money Laundering Part II: Introducing Still More Crooks • SOLTEC: That "Secret" Something We All Are Searching For • HILARION: Understanding Your Bio-Electric Sensing Machine

Vol. 1, #12 May 2, 2000

Xerox Copy Special Order

The Most Powerful Man In The World? The "Black" Pope • Vatican Bank Sued For Alleged War Crimes • GERMAIN & SANANDA: The Time Has Come To Awaken From Your Dream! • Does Elian Gonzales Case Bring Out The "Best" In Clinton's Criminal Regime? • The "Bio-Electrical Cleansing" Research Of Dr. Robert Beck • Sacred White Buffalo Murdered

Vol. 2, #1 June 6, 2000

A Talk With The Ishaya Monks: Powerful, Ancient Teaching Held For This Historic Cycle • HATONN: Staying The Course Despite Rough Seas • The Curious Case Of Dave Overton's Gold And The Phoenix Institute • Chemtrails: Did An Airline Mechanic Stumble Upon The Truth? "Project Cloverleaf" • SOLTEC: Learn To Balance In The "Now" • Exposing The Truth About "Holy" Sathya Sai Baba

Vol. 2, #2 July 4, 2000

Ticking Time-Bomb Prozac • SOLTEC: Are You Ready For All That May Cross Your Path? • Revealing Article About Phoenix Institute Directors: Paying Back What Debt? • Are Fed & Treasury Manipulating Gold For Gain Of Few? • Most Profitable Industry In America? Our Prison Systems! • "The Boys" Of Chicago: Law Bought & Sold For Bargain Prices • More Information About Chemtrails Mystery "Poison Cobwebs From Hell" • SANANDA: I Hear Your Call, Do You Hear Mine? • American Death Camps

Vol. 2, #3 August 1, 2000

Ramtha's School Of "Enlightenment"? • Full-Page USA TODAY Ad On Illegality Of Income Tax • FDA Boosts PMS Insanity With Prozac In Disguise • HATONN: Compassion Along The Lighted Path Of Creation • FDA-Postal Raid On "The Phoenix Group" • HAARP's Covert Agendas: • SOLTEC: Breaking The Grip Of Often Subtle Mind-Control • How The Sheep Are Led: A "Pretend" Speech On Population Reduction

Vol. 2, #4 September 5, 2000

FEMA: Bizarre Wildfires Expose Sinister Agenda • GERMAIN: Remaining Flexible In These Times Of Great Change • Fishy CIA Link To Malathion Spraying For West Nile Virus • Killer Music: Mind Control's Subtle Drug • With No Obligation To Educate, Schools Turn To Thought Control • HATONN: How To Make This Cleansing Cycle Work For You • Robert Ghost Wolf, Beyond The Veil: Visions For A New World

Vol. 2, #5 October 3, 2000

Montauk Project's Wild Ride Through History • CAFRs: The $60 Trillion Secret • SOLTEC: Awakening To The Miracle • Stop Ritalin! 2.5 Million Children Across The Nation Are Given "Cocaine" By Their Parents And Doctors • The Homosexual Agenda That Is Invading Our Schools • HATONN: On Health, Helping, And World Politics • Update On FEMA Report • Tavistock: The Best Kept Secret In America • Does "Global Governance" By UN Really Mean "One World Order"? • GERMAIN: You Can Accomplish Great Things With Your "God Power"

Vol. 2, #6 November 7, 2000

"The Call Compels The Answer" Angels Stand Ready To Help • Doctors Vote To Oppose Mandatory Vaccinations • SPECTRUM Staff On The Air • SOLTEC: Breaking Loose From Those Limiting Beliefs • Coca-Cola/CIA/Tribune Drama In Federal Chicago Courts • History Of Secret Human Biological Experiments • An Overview Of The Illuminati • HATONN: Be Thankful For Your Planet's Great Gift Of Compassion

Vol. 2, #7 December 5, 2000

For Peace On Earth: Work With The Angels: Doreen Virtue • SOLTEC: Expressing Yourself More Fully On Creator's Living Canvas • The Cure-All: Chaparral • SANANDA: At This Holiday Season Awaken The Gift Of Your God-self Within • Daring Journalists Victorious In FOX News Censorship Case • David Icke's Journey: A First-Person Account • Do You Smell A Set-Up? Cool Calculation Behind Ongoing Election Brawl • HATONN: A Nation's Destiny In A Time Of Awakening

Vol. 2, #8 January 9, 2001

Montauk & Philadelphia Experiments: "Back To The Future" A New Interview With Al Bielek • The Eighth Thunder: The War Of Valued Life • HATONN: The Play Is Moving Toward A Grand Awakening • SANANDA: With Understanding Comes The Wisdom To Release Fear And Pain • "Mercy" Killings And The Culling Of The Elderly • Some Well-Hidden Hazards Of Microwave Cooking • SOLTEC: Look Within And Tap The Awesome Power Of ONE • Election Intrigues To Think About

Vol. 2, #9 February 13, 2001

Will The Lights Go Out In California And The Nation? Expert Exposes Fraud & Greed • "When You Don't Know What You're Doing, Do It Neatly!" • The News Desk • Connections & Revelations The Media Won't Touch • Dean Kamen: Gifted Inventor And Man Of Mystery • SOLTEC: Satisfaction Means Balancing The Inner And Outer Worlds • A Call For World Peace: A Message From Great White Buffalo • SANAT KUMARA: To Know Yourself, Reach Out To Others

Vol. 2, #10 March 13, 2001

Rediscovering Ancient Truths About The Spiritual Side Of Science: Heart And Head Must Work Together • The Power Of Those Who Stand-Up For Truth • SOLTEC: Stand And Be Counted For A Better World • Pasadena Health Show: A Great Success! • Anna Detweiler: Seeing Truth Beyond The Shadows • Skolnick's Revelations About Current Events • SOLTEC: Lose The Baggage And Free Your Mind • HATONN: The Physical Experience Is For Spiritual Growth

Vol. 2, #11 April 10, 2001

Will Healthy Agriculture Survive Big Business? Organic Gardening—Power Of The Soil • What Would We Do If There Was No Food? • Skolnick's Report On Crooks In High Places • England "Bombs" Gold Prices • SOLTEC: Go With The Flow Of Your High-Frequency World • Hopi Elder Chief Dan Evehema's Message To Mankind • California's Power Crisis: A Most Revealing Update • SANANDA: What's Truly Important In Your Life? • Farming Ourselves Into Oblivion: Small Sustainable Farms Are Our Greatest Hope Against A Faceless Agriculture • So You Want To Plant A Garden?

Vol. 2, #12 May 8, 2001

What Can We Do About Science Gone Mad? HAARP & Other High-Tech Insults • You Just Never Know What May Cross Our Desk • Some Useful Background Material On HAARP • SOLTEC: Dealing With Inner Stirrings Of Unrest • China Incident: Technology Transfer "It's All About Money" • Timing Signposts And A Message From The Hopi Elders • Zulu Shaman & Elder Credo Mutwa's Plea To The Global Elite: Stop The Genocide In Africa! • California Power Crisis Update The Extortion Of California: The Wrath Of Bush And The Texas Power Cabal • Skolnick's Scoop On Some REAL News • HATONN: How To Handle Psychic Attacks

Vol. 3, #1 June 12, 2001

Merging Science With Spirit—The Isaiah Effect—Lost Wisdom Of Forgotten Peoples • Happy Second Anniversary! • SOLTEC: Learning To Allow For Your Growth • Clearance Sale On High-Tech Weapons: Inside The Weekly Arms Bazaar At Redstone Arsenal • Revisiting The Diabolical Oklahoma City "Bombing" • Idaho Standoff: Exposing A Peculiar Land-Grab Scam • Skolnick's Latest Updates Not For The Weakhearted • SANANDA: Aligning Heart & Head Are Key To A Satisfying Life • HATONN: Thanks To The SPECTRUM Staff And Supporters

Vol. 3, #2 July 10, 2001

Maniacal World Control Thru The Jesuit Order Well-Hidden Soldiers Of Satan • Un-learning The Baloney And Then Learning The Truth • SOLTEC: Stresses And Pressures Are Catalysts For Growth • Dr. Len Horowitz On AIDS In Africa: "Utilitarian Global Genocide" • HATONN: Powerful Positive Forces At Work In Our Lives • More Revelations About Peculiar Idaho Standoff • Skolnick's News On McVeigh And Levy

Vol. 3, #3 August 14, 2001

Breakthrough Science Confirms The HeartMath Message: Your Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own! • The Ticking Time-Bomb For A Better World • The Jesuit Order Corrections • HATONN: Subtle Winds Of Change Stirring Within Us All • Something's Up In The Banking & Monetary World • SOLTEC: Actively Seeking An Inner State Of Peace • BRADEN: Unlocking The Secret Of Heaven Through The Science Of Man • Skolnick's News On The FBI, Washington Post, And Airline Sabotage

Vol. 3, #4 September 11, 2001

Let's Re-Create Prison Into Paradise! Check-Mating Globalization David Icke Exposes What Elite Fear Most • A Visit With Mark Twain • Hilarion: Clean-Out Those "Closets" To Make Way For The New! • The Revolutionary World Of Free Energy: A Status Report • HATONN: Powerful Messages Can Appear In Many Forms • SANANDA: "The Voice Of Truth Shall Be Heard Throughout The Land" • More Skolnick On Airplane Sabotage And Chandra Levy • Recent Visions From Anna Detweiler

Back Issues of The SPECTRUM:

$5.00 each for the U.S.

$6.50 each for Canada/Mexico

$8.00 each for Foreign

To order Back Issues or CD-ROMs please call:

Toll free #: 1-877-280-2866

Outside the U.S. please call: 1-661-823-9696

All papers are mailed in an envelope via 1st Class Mail.

For orders call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Otherwise call: 1-661-823-9696.

$45.00 for 12 issues in U.S.

$55.00 Canadian/$60 Foreign.

Please call for bulk quantity subscription rates.

WISDOM BOOKS & PRESS
PO Box 1567
TEHACHAPI, CA 93581

Phone toll-free: 1(877) 280-2866
Outside the U.S. please call: 1(661) 823-9696
e-mail: wisdombooks@tminet.com

We accept VISA, DISCOVER, and MASTERCARD only.
Please make Check or Money Order payable to:
Wisdom Books & Press, Inc. (U.S. Funds only)

ORDER FORM

NAME:

DATE:

ADDRESS:

CITY:

STATE:

ZIP:

COUNTRY:

PHONE:

CREDIT CARD #:

EXP. DATE:

SIGNATURE:

		Price Each:	Qty	Total			Price Each:	Qty	Total
DR. LEONARD G. HOROWITZ					NEW EDITION ↘ MISCELLANEOUS
NEW BOOK!		DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare	$29.95			VATICAN ASSASSINS by Eric Jon Phelps (includes CD-ROM with 13 rare out-of-print books)		$34.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse with Dr. Joseph S. Puleo	$26.95			PROZAC: Panacea Or Pandora? by Dr. Ann Blake Tracy		$19.95
		Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola	$29.95			“Help! I Can’t Get Off My Antidepressants!” (AUDIO 1-1/2 hr.) (Shipping is included if you buy any book. Otherwise add $4.)		$9.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse 2-VIDEO SET	$39.95			The Indigo Children: The New Kids Have Arrived by Lee Carroll & Jan Tober		$13.95
AUDIO		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse	$29.95			WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume I		$15.00
		Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola	$19.95			WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume II		$20.00
DAVID ICKE					Colloidal Silver Handbook: Why You Need It & How To Make It (Shipping is included US & Canada.)		$7.00
NEW BOOK!		CHILDREN OF THE MATRIX	$24.95			The Untold History Of America by Ray Bilger		$10.00
		The BIGGEST SECRET	$24.95			The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook by Joshua Piven & David Borgenicht		$12.00
		And The Truth Shall Set You Free	$21.95			Why The End? by J.T. Revelator		$29.95
VIDEOS	From PRISON To PARADISE (3-Video Set) (Special price for current SPECTRUM subscribers)		$59.95 ($49.95)			INNER EARTH / UFO BASES / GOV’T COVER-UPS
	REVELATIONS Of A MOTHER GODDESS Arizona Wilder interviewed by David Icke		$24.95			Philadelphia Experiment And Other UFO Conspiracies by Brad Steiger		$15.00
	THE REPTILIAN AGENDA Parts I & II		$49.95			The Missing Diary Of Admiral Richard E. Byrd: Who Lives Inside Our Earth?		$12.50
BY COMMANDER X					Secret UFO Diary Of CIA Operative by Alvin E. Moore		$15.00
		The Controllers: The Hidden Rulers of Earth Identified	$15.00			Evil Agenda Of The Secret Government by Tim Swartz		$10.00
		Underground Alien Bases	$17.50			The Omega Files: Secret Nazi UFO Bases Revealed by Branton		$24.95
		Nikola Tesla: Free Energy And The White Dove	$15.00			THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth by Branton		$15.95
		Mind Stalkers: UFOs, Implants & The Psychotronic Agenda Of The New World Order	$15.00			TIM BECKLEY	Other Voices by George Hunt Williamson & Tim Beckley		$12.50
		Time Travel: A How-To Insiders Guide	$15.00				Prophecies Of The Presidents		$12.50
		Invisibility & Levitation : A How-To Guide To Personal Performance	$15.00				Subterranean Worlds Inside Earth		$12.50
		Philadelphia Experiment Chronicles	$12.50				The Smokey God And Other Inner Earth Mysteries		$12.50
ELIZABETH CLARE PROPHET					CD-ROMS	AL BIELEK on CD-ROM (Over 25 hrs of audio)		$29.95
		The Masters And The Spiritual Path	$16.95				1st year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
		Fallen Angels And The Origins Of Evil	$7.99				2nd year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
		Your Seven Energy Centers	$6.95				— PLEASE ADD THE REQUIRED SHIPPING —
		Karma And Reincarnation	$6.95			~SHIPPING RATES~
		Alchemy Of The Heart	$6.95			United States: (Priority) $6 for the 1st item; $4 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $8.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered.
		Soul Mates And Twin Flames	$5.95			Canada: (Airmail) $8 for the 1st item; $5 each for ea. add’l item. *Please add $17.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered.
		Creative Abundance	$5.95			International: (Airmail) $17 for the 1st item; $6 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $31.00 (Airmail) or $25 (Surface) for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered.
		How To Work With Angels	$5.95			We are not responsible for damage caused during shipping.
“LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL” Hosted by Dennis Grover							Sub-Total
VIDEO	“Publishing The Truth” Guests: Rick Martin Cortright & Gail Cortright		$12 (shipping included in US)					Shipping
	“VATICAN ASSASSINS II” Guest: Eric Jon Phelps Author of VATICAN ASSASSINS		$12 (shipping included in US)					Tax
								(Calif. add 7% tax) (Nev. add 7.25% tax)
								TOTAL:

We are not responsible for damage caused during shipping.

VATICAN ASSASSINS

WOUNDED IN THE HOUSE OF MY FRIENDS

An explosive, detailed, shocking, historical account of the long-suppressed history of the Jesuit Order, from 1540 to the present, and their involvement behind the scenes manipulating the world through the Pope, via the Jesuit's General, the "Black" Pope—the most powerful man in the world.

If you were astonished by the front-page story in the May 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM titled: The Most Powerful Man In The World? The "Black" Pope: Count Hans Kolvenbach—The Jesuit's General, then you won't want to miss this in-depth study of perhaps the greatest ongoing conspiracy the world has ever known. Author Eric Phelps goes into countless details and fully documented facts concerning the "dark" side of the Vatican's un-godly history.

A 700-page, 8½" X 11" embossed paperback, with over 100 rare photographs AND a Gift CD-ROM with 13 rare, out-of-print books used in the researching of VATICAN ASSASSINS.

CD-ROM INCLUDED!

All for ONLY $34.95 (+S/H)

Order Yours
Today!

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth

Is an alien "Fifth Column" already active on Earth preparing total conquest via implantations and mind control? In the corner of a small town in America's Southwest something very strange is going on! Did U.S. military forces perish recently in hand-to-hand combat with a group of hostile greys who subsequently seized control of one of our top-secret underground bases? Includes latest on animal mutilations, energy grids, secret societies, lost civilizations, abductions, and missing time.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.95(+S/H)

The Indigo Children

The New Kids Have Arrived

by Lee Carroll & Jan Tober

(Featured interview in the March 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM.)

The "Indigo Child" is a boy or girl who displays a new and unusual set of psychological attributes, revealing a pattern of behavior generally undocumented before. This pattern has singularly unique factors that call for parents and teachers to change their treatment and upbringing of these kids to assist them in achieving balance and harmony in their lives, and to help them avoid frustration.

In this groundbreaking book, international authors and lecturers Lee Carroll and Jan Tober answer many of the often-puzzling questions surrounding Indigo Children, such as:

- Can we really be seeing human evolution in kids today?
- Are these kids smarter than we were at their age?
- How come a lot of our children today seem to be "system busters"?
- Why are so many of our brightest kids being diagnosed with Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD)?
- Are there proven, working alternatives to Ritalin?

Throughout this work, Carroll and Tober bring together some very fine minds (doctors, educators, psychologists, and more) who shed light on the Indigo Child phenomenon. These children are truly special, representing a great percentage of all the kids being born today on a worldwide basis. They come in "knowing" who they are—so they must be recognized, appreciated for their exceptional qualities, and guided with love and care.

This book is a must for the parents of unusually bright and active children!

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

249 pages $13.95 (+S/H)

The SPECTRUM

ARCHIVED ON CD-ROM!

Beginning with the Premier Issue, get the first year of The SPECTRUM newspaper (Volume 1) or the second full year (Volume 2) in the searchable Adobe PDF format (Acrobat reader software is included on the disk), also in HTML format (where you can use your Internet Browser to view the files). CD-ROMs are PC & MAC compatible!

PLUS YOU ALSO GET ON THE CD:
Several Audio Chapters from WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters

Teach, Vol. I book. These will play on your audio CD player. • Several writings by the Ascended Masters • Selected writings and interviews (non-audio) • French Translations of several writings by the Ascended Masters (non-audio) • Adobe Acrobat Reader for Windows and Macintosh

PRICE: $45 each (+S/H)

The SPECTRUM

“Achieve the wisdom of knowledge of Truth
as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of The Creation.”

— A Non-Profit Educational Corporation Dedicated To Bringing You The Truth —

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 6

NEWS REVIEW

$ 4.50

NOVEMBER 13, 2001

The Great UFO Coverup Is Falling Apart We Are Definitely NOT Alone!

IN THIS ISSUE:

A Time To Be Thankful, p.2

The News Desk, p.3

The War Against Terrorism Is A Fraud, p.15

SOLTEC: The “Trump Card” Of Divine Knowing, p.16

HOROWITZ: Preparing For Biological And Chemical Terrorism, p.17

New Visions From Anna Detweiler, p.22

EUSTACE MULLINS: Dust To Dust, Or:
Anthrax Is As American As Apple Pie, p.23

Electronically Hijacking The World Trade Center Attack Aircraft, p.24

SANANDA: Be Strong And Know That Help Is Near, p.25

The Great Coup, Or: What Price, Freedom? p.26

Media Accomplices To 9/11 Crime Deserve Indictment, p.27

I Tried To Be Patriotic, Or: New Physics For 21st Century, p.30

KORTON: Pay Attention To Your Other Senses, p.32

Recent Interview With Osama Bin Laden, p.34

AL MARTIN: “Citizen, Can I See Your ID?” p.35

SKOLNICK: The Overthrow Of The American Republic, p.59

More Potent Reasons For Destroying WTC, p.64

11/9/01 RICK MARTIN

I would say that anyone who takes an objective view of the evidence extant, they will conclude that:

Yes, UFOs are real; yes, there are classified projects dealing with them; yes, there are energy and propulsion systems derived therefrom; yes, some of them are extraterrestrial in origin; none of them are hostile; yes, there are projects that have successfully built energy and anti-gravity propulsion systems based on these devices, and they have illegally “classified” them.

And I say illegally because I know that there are U.S. Presidents, as well as key members of Congress, and key committees in the Congress, that have been deliberately lied to and denied access to those projects. So there is no way that you can interpret those as “legally constituted” projects. They are illegal, rogue projects.

For this reason, we’re saying that the witnesses who we’ve identified, as well as those scientists who have knowledge of these technologies, should view themselves as “free and clear” to come forward with their information; that the use of the National Security Act and other illegal provisions have been illegally applied in this particular instance, and they have no controlling legal authority.

*— Steven M. Greer, M.D., emergency room physician, Founder and International Director of CSETI (The Center for the Study of ExtraTerrestrial Intelligence), and more recently a key figure in The Disclosure Project (www.disclosureproject.org). The above statement was made to The SPECTRUM on October 16, 2001 as part of an interview to appear in a later installment of this feature story.*

I would simply like to say that the Greatest Story in Human History is not about them, Rick, it’s about us. It’s who WE are, and what WE are, and how WE came to be. It isn’t merely about where we are, at the moment. It is about where we are going. We are a species, and we are a race that will survive. And, in all honesty, we have good friends in high places!

*— Robert O. Dean, respected elder in the UFO community, a former military officer who held a “Cosmic Top Secret” clearance granted by NATO, making him privy to some of the most sensitive and explosive information of all time. Bob Dean has chosen to break his oath of silence (for some years now), and made the above statements to The SPECTRUM on October 17, 2001—as part of an interview to appear in a later installment of this feature story.*

(Please see: UFO Coverup Is Falling Apart, p.39)

WEB ADDRESS: www.TheSpectrumNews.org

A Time To Be Thankful

Whew! What a month. The phones have been ringing almost constantly while great notes and letters have been pouring in. The message is always the same: "I just HAVE to have your paper!!!!" So we would like to welcome A LOT of new subscribers onboard for what is likely the most unique "full spectrum" reading experience available on the planet. For the sake of our new readers, let me remind everyone that we regard this newspaper as class notes for an advanced-degree course in The Truth that no university would dare teach—fixated as they are on money and controlled so well by that carrot.

We are also deeply grateful to Alex Merklinger (Mysteries Of The Mind) and Jeff Rense (The Jeff Rense Program) who each conduct superb and daring talk-radio shows for a worldwide audience, largely Internet-based, and have recently promoted The SPECTRUM thereon with gracious accolades of praise for our efforts toward bringing you The Truth. Those of you with a computer and access to the Internet can go to our www.TheSpectrumNews.org website for links to recent archives of these hosts' informative programs.

Apparently we were correct in assuming that you were fed-up with the baloney from the regular print and broadcast media, and craved some "real food" to digest about the 9/11/01 tragedy. That matter dominated last month's SPECTRUM, as it rightly should. While you thanked us profusely and called The Truth we shared "a real shocker", you also ordered quite a few extra copies of last month's SPECTRUM to share with family and friends. And I don't just mean one copy here and one copy there; we got a number of requests for 10, 20, 30 copies at a time! That will lead to more new readers.

Some of you even gave last month's paper its own special name we never anticipated: "Would you please send me XX copies of your recent Patriot Issue of the paper." At first we said: "WHAT Patriot Issue are you talking about?" "Well, the latest paper, of course; the one about the World Trade Center tragedy." And then we finally caught-on to the unexpected, subtle compliment. That was nice.

That happens with a lot of our papers, where you christen them with names like "the 'Black Pope' issue" or "the 'Organic Gardening' issue". No matter what you call them, we're just thankful that you READ them and learn from them.

We are also thankful for the additional generous financial contributions in response to my plea last month. Those donations have allowed us to actually pay our main bills (printing and postage) in the SAME month we received them. That's a pleasant change from the usual case of sweaty palms and knots in the stomach over which bills can we pay and which do we have to shove in a drawer for another month.

This month's paper presents another financial challenge of similar magnitude—or larger, depending on how you look at it. You can't help but notice that I dropped the type size quite a bit. Otherwise this paper would be around 100 pages. We couldn't possibly accommodate that expense in our present financial state.

But likewise I couldn't see NOT sharing any of the information herein. Enough pretty good stuff already had to be cut—on top of the flood of "copy cat" stories appearing recently that emulated our lead from last month. So I ask forgiveness, from your eyes, until such time as we may be gifted with that which alleviates our tedious financial constraints. As I've said before, we'd even like to convert to a magazine format one of these months, but that cost is beyond our practical limits at this time.

This month we're sharing a number of important NEW clues and shocking commentaries about the 9/11/01 tragedy by authors who KNOW. The new revelations only add to—and make all the more plausible, if grotesque—the picture that was all too clearly unfolding last month about who the REAL "terrorists" are. It's easy to get lost or overwhelmed in the levels of details if you don't keep the multi-dimensional Larger Picture firmly in mind that David Icke shared early in last month's front-page feature.

Likewise, the spiritual messages this month—from Sananda, Soltec, and Korton—carry what I can only describe as an extra, timely, and powerful "jolt of electricity". They seem to be conveying as much a blunt warning to the elite controllers for their folly, as our Higher Teachers offer potent keys for the "common man" to neutralize the longstanding control of these misfit crooks in high places. With all their free-time and money, you'd think these so-called elite smartypants would take up some hobby—like golf or piano or even the board game Monopoly—rather than so relentlessly pursuing the foredoomed endeavor of trying to outsmart God and control His property. Perhaps they're just slow learners. Such is the path of Darkness.

And last but definitely not least—Rick Martin is launching a multi-part front-page feature story this month which is perhaps the most important subject confronting mankind at this time on planet Earth. Our magnificent intergalactic ancestry has been hidden for a very long time by those who would control us, who maintain the stupid aspiration of preventing us from ever awakening to our true potential and destiny—because that means, of course, a dismal end to their role as slavemasters over us.

As the front-page headline loudly proclaims, "The Great UFO Coverup Is Falling Apart"—as it MUST dissolve in this time of the Great Awakening. What more important matter could we possibly need to awaken to than our TRUE history, place, and potential within the great expanse of Creator's awesome Cosmos?!

Meanwhile, the dark New World Order hoodlums continue to unleash misery on a grand scale under the guise of their "war on terrorism", an open-ended excuse that is raising a lot more questions than they, in their smugness, thought a supposedly sleeping public would ever ask.

The contents of (and responses to) last month's SPECTRUM show what an arrogant miscalculation that was on their part. We can only hope that this month's topics pry open the Door of Truth even wider—with doubts that crumble their seemingly well manicured façade.

As we approach a traditional time of giving thanks, we here at The SPECTRUM would like to thank YOU for your friendship and support in so many ways. Perhaps we should also remember to thank our Guardian Angels and other (dare I say) "extraterrestrials" watching over us at this time of great planetary confrontation with Truth.

— Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

The paper covering the "full spectrum" of news and information to help you to follow the First Law of The Creation.

The Highest (First) Command of The Law of The Creation states: "Achieve the wisdom of knowledge of Truth, as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of The Creation." In other words, go forth and gain as much knowledge and experience as you can.

TO SUBSCRIBE:

For orders call: 1-877-280-2866 toll free.

Otherwise call: 1-661-823-9696.

$45.00 for 12 issues in US 1st Class Mail,

$55.00 Canadian/$60 Foreign.

Please call for quantity subscription rates.

EDITORIAL POLICY:

Opinions of The SPECTRUM contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of The SPECTRUM staff or management. The SPECTRUM will always correct any meaningful error of fact.

Permission is hereby granted to anyone to quote The SPECTRUM in whole or in part, so long as full credit of this source is given, including contacting address and phone number.

PUBLISHING INFORMATION:

We intend to offer, to the best of our ability, The Truth, however it comes to us, in order to allow you to make your own informed decisions about things that impact your daily life. We hope to broaden your choices and empower you to create a better world.

The SPECTRUM assumes no responsibility for unsolicited manuscripts. If return is desired, a stamped self-addressed envelope is required.

The SPECTRUM is published by The Spectrum Newspaper, Inc., at 9101 West Sahara Ave., PMB158, Las Vegas, NV 89117. E-mail: thespectrum@tminet.com

DONOR INFORMATION:

The SPECTRUM is a 501(c)(3) non-profit educational corporation. All donations are gratefully appreciated and formally acknowledged for your tax-deduction purposes.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS:

Send your old, incorrect address label along with your new address and ZIP code to The SPECTRUM 30 days before you move. Send change to: The SPECTRUM, P.O. Box 1567, Tehachapi, CA 93581.

WEB ADDRESS: www.TheSpectrumNews.org

The News Desk

11/10/01 DR. AL OVERHOLT
(alo@tminet.com)

BBC SAYS "US PLANNED ATTACK ON TALIBAN BEFORE SEPT. 11"

From the INTERNET, Dove <dove_of_o@hotmail.com> <doveof@yahoo.com>, 11/3/01: [quoting]

By George Arney

A former Pakistani diplomat has told the BBC that the US was planning military action against Osama bin Laden and the Taliban even before last week's attacks.

Niaz Naik, a former Pakistani Foreign Secretary, was told by senior American officials in MID-JULY that military action against Afghanistan would go ahead BY THE MIDDLE OF OCTOBER.

Mr. Naik said US officials told him of the plan at a UN-sponsored international contact group on Afghanistan which took place in Berlin.

Mr. Naik told the BBC that at the meeting the US representatives told him that unless Bin Laden was handed over swiftly, America would take military action to kill or capture both Bin Laden and the Taliban leader, Mullah Omar.

The wider objective, according to Mr. Naik, would be to topple the Taliban regime and install a transitional government of moderate Afghans in its place—possibly under the leadership of the former Afghan King Zahir Shah.

Mr. Naik was told that Washington would launch its operation from bases in Tajikistan, where American advisers were already in place.

He was told that Uzbekistan would also participate in the operation and that 17,000 Russian troops were on standby. Mr. Naik was told that if the military action went ahead, it would take place before the snows started falling in Afghanistan, by the middle of October at the latest.

He said that he was in no doubt that after the World Trade Center bombings this pre-existing US plan had been built upon and would be implemented within two or three weeks.

And he said it was doubtful that Washington would drop its plan, even if Bin Laden were to be surrendered immediately by the Taliban. [End quoting]

How much proof do we need that the tragic events of 9/11/01 were NOT carried out either FOR the reasons stated or BY the ones indicted through incessant media propaganda.

For those of you who carefully read the front-page story of last month's SPECTRUM, notice that a major goal—revealed even in this "mainstream media" article—is removal of a government that was opposing the big businesses of drugs and oil in that region.

Of course that goal is only one of several. The largest goal is the advancing of the New World Order through the elimination of the Bill Of Rights. But since when would the Military-Industrial complex pass up a golden opportunity like this to make a buck and keep the machinery in good working order to provide ready cash for their shenanigans?

Speaking of the necessary dissolution of the Bill Of Rights to advance the New World Order agenda, how about this slick maneuver packaged to dupe the masses:

ASHCROFT TO ORDER U.S. POLICE TO BEGIN USING BROAD NEW POWERS

From the INTERNET, <http://www.rense.com>, 10/24/01: [quoting]

Attorney General John Ashcroft says he will order U.S. law enforcement to immediately use broad new police powers contained in an Anti-Terrorism Bill once it becomes law.

"History's judgment will be harsh...if we fail to use every available resource to prevent future terrorist attacks," the attorney general said Thursday at the U.S. Conference of Mayors. "...Our enemies now have new reason to fear."

Congress is expected to deliver the Bill to President

Bush today. The president is expected to sign the legislation into law immediately. [It was signed by the President.]

Civil libertarians have pledged to challenge some of the new law's provisions in court on constitutional grounds.

Ashcroft said once the Bill has Bush's signature, he will order the 94 U.S. attorney's offices and the 56 FBI field offices in the United States to begin implementing its provisions.

Citing the war against organized crime under then-Attorney General Robert Kennedy, Ashcroft said the current Justice Department has adopted the same tactics against terrorism.

"We Will Use All Our Weapons"

"Let the terrorists among us be warned," Ashcroft said. "If you overstay your visa, even by one day, we will arrest you. If you violate a local law, you will be put in jail and kept in custody as long as possible."

"We will use every available statute. We will seek every prosecutorial advantage. We will use all our weapons within the law and under the Constitution to protect life and enhance security for America."

Ashcroft suggested that the Justice Department, which has charged no one directly in the Sept. 11 terror attacks, believes some of those arrested on minor charges since then might be terrorists.

"To date, our anti-terrorism offensive has arrested or detained nearly 1,000 individuals as part of the Sept. 11 terrorism investigation," Ashcroft said. "Those who violated the law remain in custody. Taking suspected terrorists in violation of the law off the streets and keeping them locked up is our clear strategy to prevent terrorism within our borders."

As for the new police powers contained in the legislation headed for Bush's desk, "a new era in America's fight against terrorism, made tragically necessary by the attacks of Sept. 11, is about to begin," Ashcroft said.

The attorney general said he would seek court-ordered wiretaps on communications "related to an expanded list of crimes under the legislation. Communications regarding terrorist offenses such as the use of biological or chemical agents, financing acts of terrorism, or materially supporting terrorism will be subject to interception by law enforcement."

Ashcroft said the department would immediately begin seeking "roving" wiretaps of suspected terrorists. Previously, federal judges could authorize wiretaps on a particular telephone number in a particular jurisdiction. Under the new legislation, judges can order wiretaps against an individual, and the FBI can conduct surveillance on that individual on any phone in any jurisdiction.

Focus On Internet

"Investigators will be directed to pursue aggressively terrorists on the Internet," Ashcroft said. "New authority in the legislation permits the use of devices that capture senders' and receivers' addresses associated with communications on the Internet."

"Law enforcement will begin immediately to seek search warrants to obtain unopened voice mail stored on a computer, just as they traditionally have used search warrants to obtain unopened e-mail. They will also begin to use new subpoena power to obtain payment information such as credit card or bank account numbers of suspected terrorists on the Internet."

Ashcroft appeared to be anticipating challenges from civil libertarians against some provisions of the new legislation, but said the provisions were necessary.

"Some will ask whether a civilized nation, a nation of law and not of men, can use the law to defend itself from barbarians and remain civilized," Ashcroft said. "Our answer, unequivocally, is 'Yes.' Yes, we will defend civilization, and yes, we will preserve the rule of law because it makes us civilized."

[End quoting]

This isn't about CONSTITUTIONAL law—this is about using the prison camps they have quietly built over the years all over the U.S.

Go back and read this again and notice the tone of the words—sounds worse than Hitler to me! He can't wait to nail ALL critics of the advancing New World Order. Anyone criticizing the NWO becomes an instant "terrorist". How convenient. And now it's the law:

BUSH SIGNS ANTI-TERRORISM LEGISLATION INTO LAW

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, for 10/27/01: [quoting]

Vowing enforcement "with all the urgency of a nation at war", President Bush on Friday signed far-reaching legislation to give federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies more power and a better-stocked arsenal to fight terrorism.

"The changes, effective today, will help counter a threat like no other our nation has ever faced," the president said during a signing ceremony in the grand East Room of the White House.

The bottom line since the September 11 attacks on New York and Washington is unyielding, he said. "These terrorists must be pursued. They must be defeated. And they must be brought to justice."

Within hours, Attorney General John Ashcroft ordered the FBI, U.S. attorneys, and other law officers under his command to implement the new law, passed overwhelmingly by the House and Senate this week.

"The American people can be assured law enforcement will use these new tools to protect our nation, while upholding the sacred liberties expressed in the Constitution," he said.

Still, as the president signed the bill, the American Civil Liberties Union pledged to monitor its implementation.

"We cannot as a nation allow very legitimate public anxiety to immunize the administration and Congress from their obligation to protect the Bill Of Rights and the fundamental values that document embodies," said Laura Murphy, director of the ACLU's national office in Washington.

The U.S.A. Patriot Act expands federal wiretapping authority, strengthens moneylaundering laws and sets tougher penalties for terrorists and those who harbor or finance them.

Federal investigators can now wiretap suspects at whatever telephones they use, instead of being limited by court orders to specific telephone lines or jurisdictions.

Colloidal Silver Handbook

COLLOIDAL SILVER GENERATOR

Why You Need It How To Make It

44-page booklet

$7 (shipping included)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

The new law also eases restrictions on searches and allows investigators greater access to suspects' voice mail, e-mail, and other electronic and computer communications.

Additionally, the government can detain noncitizens deemed national security risks for up to seven days without charging them.

"Immigrants who obey the law have nothing to worry about," said Rep. James Sensenbrenner, R-WI, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. "Immigrants who don't obey the law will have something to worry about, and they should," he added.

Rep. Lamar Smith, R-TX, a member of the House Judiciary Committee, agreed.

"We do hope terrorists will worry a little bit more. We hope criminals will worry a little bit more. And maybe that will deter them from their activities," he said. [End quoting]

The fact that the ACLU is going to monitor the implementation of this bill ought to be a big red flag that the fox is guarding the henhouse. Moreover, this law has enough vagueness in it that they legally can now snoop anywhere and even declare Martial Law—and we probably wouldn't even know it was in place. For most Americans, effectively under the spell of relentless mind-control, they're happy so long as they can get to the mall to buy the latest clothes and toys—whether Martial Law is in effect or not.

And if the above isn't irritating enough, then how about the following disgusting news, especially for those who may have had trouble believing the grave implications of last month's front-page story, so different from the baloney we were being fed by the media mouths:

CIA AND OTHERS KNEW ABOUT UPCOMING 9/11/01 "TERRORIST" ATTACKS—IN TIME TO TURN A FINANCIAL PROFIT ON THE EVENT!

From the INTERNET, <http://www.copvcia.com/stories/oct_2001/krongard.html> for 10/9/01: [quoting]

CIA Executive Director "Buzzy" Krongard Managed Firm That Handled "Put" Options On UAL

by Michael C. Rupert

From The Wilderness, October 9, 2001—Although uniformly ignored by the mainstream U.S. media, there is abundant and clear evidence that a number of transactions in financial markets indicated specific (criminal) foreknowledge of the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

In the case of at least one of these trades—which has left a $2.5 million prize unclaimed—the firm used to place the "put options" on United Airlines stock was, until 1998, managed by the man who is now in the number three Executive Director position at the Central Intelligence Agency.

Until 1997, A. B. "Buzzy" Krongard had been Chairman of the investment bank, A. B. Brown. A. B. Brown was acquired by Banker's Trust in 1997. Krongard then became, as part of the merger, Vice Chairman of Banker's Trust-A.B. Brown, one of 20 major U.S. banks named by Senator Carl Levin this year as being connected to money laundering.

Krongard's last position at Banker's Trust (BT) was to oversee "private client relations". In this capacity he had direct hands-on relations with some of the wealthiest people in the world in a kind of specialized banking operation that has been identified by the U.S. Senate and other investigators as being closely connected to the laundering of drug money.

Krongard joined the CIA in 1998 as counsel to CIA Director George Tenet. He was promoted to CIA Executive Director by President Bush in March of this year. BT was acquired by Deutsche Bank in 1999. The combined firm is the single largest bank in Europe. And, as we shall see, Deutsche Bank played several key roles in events connected to the September 11 attacks.

The Scope Of Known Insider Trading

Before looking further into these relationships, it is necessary to look at the insider trading information that is being ignored by Reuters, the New York Times, and other mass media. It is well documented that the CIA has long monitored such trades—in real time—as potential warnings of terrorist attacks and other economic moves contrary to U.S. interests. Previous stories in FTW have specifically highlighted the use of Promis software to monitor such trades.

It is necessary to understand only two key financial terms to understand the significance of these trades: "selling short" and "put options".

"Selling short" is the borrowing of stock, selling it at current market prices, but not being required to actually produce the stock for some time. If the stock falls precipitously after the short contract is entered, the seller can then fulfill the contract by buying the stock after the price has fallen and complete the contract at the pre-crash price. These contracts often have a window of as long as four months.

"Put options" are contracts giving the buyer the option to sell stocks at a later date. Purchased at nominal prices of, for example, $1.00 per share, they are sold in blocks of 100 shares. If exercised, they give the holder the option of selling selected stocks at a future date at a price set when the contract is issued. Thus, for an investment of $10,000 it might be possible to tie up 10,000 shares of United or American Airlines at $100 per share, and the seller of the option is then obligated to buy them if the option is executed. If the stock has fallen to $50 when the contract matures, the holder of the option can purchase the shares for $50 and immediately sell them for $100—regardless of where the market then stands. A call option is the reverse of a put option, which is, in effect, a derivatives bet that the stock price will go up.

A September 21 story by the Israeli Herzliyya International Policy Institute for Counterterrorism, entitled "Black Tuesday: The World's Largest Insider Trading Scam?" documented the following trades connected to the September 11 attacks:

Between September 6 and 7, the Chicago Board Options Exchange saw purchases of 4,744 put options on United Airlines, but only 396 call options. Assuming that 4,000 of the options were bought by people with advance knowledge of the imminent attacks, these "insiders" would have profited by almost $5 million. On September 10, 4516 put options on American Airlines were bought on the Chicago exchange, compared to only 748 calls. Again, there was no news at that point to justify this imbalance.

Again, assuming that 4,000 of these options trades represent "insiders", they would represent a gain of about $4 million. (The levels of put options purchased above were more than six times higher than normal.)

No similar trading in other airlines occurred on the Chicago exchange in the days immediately preceding Black Tuesday. Morgan Stanley Dean Witter & Co., which occupied 22 floors of the World Trade Center, saw 2,157 of its October $45 put options bought in the three trading days before Black Tuesday; this compares to an average of 27 contracts per day before September 6. Morgan Stanley's share price fell from $48.90 to $42.50 in the aftermath of the attacks.

Assuming that 2,000 of these options contracts were bought based upon knowledge of the approaching attacks, their purchasers could have profited by at least $1.2 million. Merrill Lynch & Co., with headquarters near the Twin Towers, saw 12,215 October $45 put options bought in the four trading days before the attacks; the previous average volume in those shares had been 252 contracts per day. (That's a 1200% increase!)

When trading resumed, Merrill's shares fell from $46.88 to $41.50; assuming that 11,000 option contracts were bought by "insiders", their profit would have been about $5.5 million. European regulators are examining trades in Germany's Munich Re, Switzerland's Swiss Re, and AXA of France, all major reinsurers with exposure to the Black Tuesday disaster. [FTW Note: AXA also owns more than 25% of American Airlines stock, making the attacks a "double whammy" for them.]

On September 29, 2001—in a vital story that has gone unnoticed by the major media—the San Francisco Chronicle reported: "Investors have yet to collect more than $2.5 million in profits they made trading options in the stock of United Airlines before the September 11 terrorist attacks, according to a source familiar with the trades and market data."

"The uncollected money raises suspicions that the investors—whose identities and nationalities have not been made public—had advance knowledge of the strikes."

They don't dare show up now. The suspension of trading for four days after the attacks made it impossible to cash-out quickly and claim the prize before investigators started looking.

"October series options for UAL Corporation were purchased in highly unusual volumes three trading days before the terrorist attacks for a total outlay of $2,070; investors bought the option contracts, each representing 100 shares, for 90 cents each. [This represents 230,000 shares]. Those options are now selling at more than $12 each. There are still 2,313 so-called "put" options outstanding [valued at $2.77 million and representing 231,300 shares] according to the Options Clearinghouse Corp."

"The source familiar with the United trades identified Deutsche Bank AB, the American investment banking arm of German giant Deutsche Bank, as the investment bank used to purchase at least some of these options." This was the operation managed by Krongard until as recently as 1998.

As reported in other news stories, Deutsche Bank was also the hub of insider trading activity connected to Munich Re. just before the attacks.

CIA, The Banks, And The Brokers

Understanding the interrelationships between CIA and the banking and brokerage world is critical to grasping the already frightening implications of the above revelations. Let's look at the history of CIA, Wall Street, and the big banks by looking at some of the key players in CIA's history.

Clark Clifford: The National Security Act of 1947 was written by Clark Clifford, a Democratic Party powerhouse, former Secretary of Defense, and one-time advisor to President Harry Truman. In the 1980s, as Chairman of First American Bancshares, Clifford was instrumental in getting the corrupt CIA drug bank BCCI a license to operate on American shores. His profession: Wall Street lawyer and banker.

John Foster and Allen Dulles: These two brothers "designed" the CIA for Clifford. Both were active in intelligence operations during WW II. Allen Dulles was the U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland where he met

A HORSE IN BALANCE WEARS A CROWN OF LIGHT

A story honoring en-Light-ened riding masters who developed Guidelines to bring: discipline, beauty, grace, and balance in the movements of a horse, from a girl who desired to be a better rider. She became the first equestrian American woman in Olympic history. This is her own life story; how their Guidelines produced oneness with her horses, also the realization of Creator-God, the Balancing Fulcrum, from riding the Figure 8. The en-Light-ened equestrian masters were Fritz Stecken and Ludwig Von Zeiner, Head Rider of The Spanish Riding School.

Price: $12.00 (shipping included), payable with name & address to:

M.B. Gill, P.O. Box 277
Devault, PA 19432-0277

frequently with Nazi leaders and looked after U.S. investments in Germany. John Foster went on to become Secretary of State under Dwight Eisenhower, and Allen went on to serve as CIA Director under Eisenhower and was later fired by JFK. Their professions: partners in the most powerful—to this day—Wall Street law firm of Sullivan, Cromwell.

Bill Casey: Ronald Reagan's CIA Director and OSS veteran who served as chief wrangler during the Iran-Contra years was, under President Richard Nixon, Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission. His profession: Wall Street lawyer and stockbroker.

David Doherty: The current Vice President of the New York Stock Exchange for enforcement is the retired General Counsel of the Central Intelligence Agency.

George Herbert Walker Bush: President from 1989 to January 1993, also served as CIA Director for 13 months from 1976-7. He is now a paid consultant to the Carlyle Group, the 11th largest defense contractor in the nation, which also shares joint investments with the bin Laden family.

A. B. "Buzzy" Krongard: The current Executive Director of the Central Intelligence Agency is the former Chairman of the investment bank A. B. Brown and former Vice Chairman of Banker's Trust.

John Deutch: This retired CIA Director from the Clinton Administration currently sits on the board at Citigroup, the nation's second largest bank, which has been repeatedly and overtly involved in the documented laundering of drug money. This includes Citigroup's 2001 purchase of a Mexican bank known to launder drug money, Banamex.

Nora Slatkin: This retired CIA Executive Director also sits on Citibank's board.

Maurice "Hank" Greenburg: The CEO of AIG insurance, manager of the third largest capital investment pool in the world, was floated as a possible CIA Director in 1995. FTW exposed Greenberg's and AIG's long connection to CIA drug trafficking and covert operations in a two-part series that was interrupted just prior to the attacks of September 11. AIG's stock has bounced back remarkably well since the attacks. To read that story, please go to <http://www.copvicia.com/stories/part_2.html>.

One wonders how much damning evidence is necessary to respond to what is now irrefutable proof that CIA knew about the attacks and did not stop them. Whatever our government is doing, whatever the CIA is doing, it is clearly NOT in the interests of the American people, especially those who died on September 11.

[End quoting]

For those of you who need another "smoking gun" on top of all the evidence presented in the front-page story of last month's SPECTRUM, the above should be more than enough to illustrate—yet again—that what happened on September 11 was hardly a surprise to those misfits REALLY involved in the planning and execution of that tragic event. For some, however, the implications of The Truth are just too difficult to accept.

Besides, it's so much more fashionable to wave flags and boo some "bad guys" that we have been brainwashed into believing are the culprits—while the actual criminal terrorists remain comfortably out of the picture, planning their ongoing New World Order-advancing shenanigans.

The good news is that a growing number of people—even those waving flags—are, at least privately, suspicious of what is going on. Meanwhile, the TRUE crooks ARE sweating gumdrops because of the unanticipated leaks and other clues coming out.

And while we're on the subject of making money out of this so-called war, how about this news:

WAR PROFITEERING: LOOK WHERE THE MONEY'S GOING?

From RUMOR MILL NEWS (RUMILLS), (<http://www.rumormillnews.com>), 11/2/01: [quoting]

In this time of national crisis, amid calls for sacrifice, we're deeply troubled by the choices of the Republican party's right-wing leadership.

Here's their idea of an economic stimulus package:

(Source: Citizens for Tax Justice. See our website for details.)

- $1.4 billion for IBM
- $833 million for General Motors
- $671 million for General Electric

- $572 million for Chevron Texaco
- $254 million for Enron

This is war profiteering, and it's just plain wrong. Yet the House has just approved it, on a virtual party-line vote, ending the recent spirit of cooperation in Congress. Speak up with us before the Senate acts:

<<http://www.moveon.org/warprofiteering>>

Last week, while our nation was reeling from the Anthrax threat, the House voted to repeal the Alternative Minimum Tax on corporations. This law normally requires hugely profitable companies to pay at least some tax, no matter how many loopholes they can find. Its repeal would allow many companies to pay zero U.S. income tax in perpetuity—a loss of more than $12 billion in revenue next year alone.

The repeal is retroactive, so companies would get rebates of all the Alternative Minimum Tax they've paid for the last 15 years. The numbers above are a sampling of these rebates.

The House also voted to allow corporations to store their profits overseas as a tax shelter. That's right—this "stimulus" would actually take money out of the U.S. economy. It's backwards.

The right approach to stimulus is to put more money IN the hands of EVERYDAY people who need it most—by expanding unemployment insurance, for example. People living marginally will spend it quickly on consumer goods, so it circulates through the economy, benefiting everyone.

Helping people would make economic sense. Giving billions in tax breaks to America's biggest corporations doesn't.

The Senate could vote on stimulus as early as this week. Speak up at: <<http://www.moveon.org/warprofiteering>>

Thank you. We must all fight this together.

Sincerely, Wes Boyd <MoveOn.org> October 29th, 2001

[End quoting]

Is the Truth of what's going on right now beginning to sink-in? How many different angles and clues do we need to see the writing on the walls? For example:

MORE SUSPICIOUS REASONS WORLD TRADE CENTER WORK SCALED BACK

From RUMOR MILL NEWS (RUMILLS), (<http://www.rumormillnews.com>), 11/3/01: [quoting]

A newswire story on Thu 11-01-01 stated that several tons of gold bullion and a few million ounces of silver had been recovered from the WTC rubble by whatever banking or trading interest had kept it stored there. The story was quieted with very little attention. But this may be part of the reason why cameras were banned from the digging effort for a while, and why the effort is now being scaled down. If the power elite have found what matters to them, then too bad about the peons. [End quoting]

These precious metals may well be associated with the biggie bank of the crooked Federal Reserve system, the New York Fed bank. And coincidentally with that recovery, we're now told that there is need for a large cutback in rescue workers?!!

These dedicated workers got into a hassle, and some were arrested, because Mayor Giuliani cut the rescue workforce abruptly from over 300 at the site to about 25. Many of these protesting and arrested men were firefighters searching for their dead colleagues. Then, about a week later, after continued heavy protest, on Thursday 11/8/01, the New York mayor gave-in to the pressures with a token doubling of the rescue workforce to about 50.

With all the evidence and other clues pointing to The Truth showing up, it should be obvious that the elite don't want all of those well trained and highly motivated investigative witnesses around. Like with the Oklahoma City bombing and many others, they want to clear all wreckage as fast as possible, before too many trained professionals get to see it—and start asking the kinds of inconvenient questions that blow-up the official lies!

And speaking of official lies, how about this:

THE BEST MEDIA MONEY CAN BUY

Excerpted from the INTERNET, Anita Sands Hernandez <astrology@earthlink.net>, 11/2/01: [quoting]

Many of us, deeply affected by the current media outpouring, are so enraged at Osama for those twin towers on fire, that we want any and all incursions our military can wreak on Afghanistan. We have tuned out (or the CIA has) a stack of EUROPEAN newspapers who have photos of 5,000 babies a week being murdered by bombs there. This isn't a surgical strike. Anything but.

Does it make sense to bomb all the villages around Columbine High School, and the whole state of Colorado, for what a few nutty kids in long black coats did, shooting up a school? Where is the logic in murdering 5,000 babies a week? Yet there is not a confession of doubt in our government's impeccable integrity, nor a murmur in our own press. Why?

Our own, U.S. "free press" is CONTROLLED and manipulated—and has been, since World War II. The CIA has hidden inside it, a SECRET operation code-named "MOCKINGBIRD"—named after a bird that can duplicate any other bird's call and deceive, i.e., a practiced LIAR.

The CIA knew full well what it was doing when they named this group so! The object of the secret Mockingbird operation was to recruit or plant people working for the spy agency in the major U.S. media organizations. These media people gave info to the CIA and also took orders from the CIA about what they were allowed to include in television news reports, radio shows, movies, and newspapers. They would SPIKE articles on request. Check with the Press Secretary and spike 'em! This elaborate CIA control of the U.S. media began in 1947 with Allen Dulles and

SPECIAL OFFER!

ONLY!
$19.95
(+S/H)

SPECTRUM subscribers save $5 and pay only $14.95 when ordering PROZAC: Panacea Or Pandora.

Did you know you have a seven times greater chance of dying walking into your doctor's office than you do getting behind the wheel of your car? Prescription drug adverse reactions are the third leading cause of death in America!

Every year approximately 200,000 die from prescription drug reactions and another 80,000 die from medical malpractice, while 41,000 die in auto accidents. [DRUG TOPICS, October 23, 1995, pg. 14-16.] What is wrong with our focus on the "drug war" when 200,000 die each year from prescription drugs, yet approximately only 20,000 die as a result of illegal drug use?

Drugs like Prozac, Zoloft, Paxil, Luvox, Effexor, Serzone, Anafranil, etc. are some of the biggest money makers ever for the pharmaceutical companies. Yet are you aware that the use of Prozac among children from ages 6-12 went from 41,000 in 1995 to 203,000 in 1996? The number of new prescriptions written increased almost 400% in just one year?! This is a very powerful mind-altering drug that has not been approved for use in children and yet our children are popping it like candy!

1-1/2 hr.
AUDIOTAPE
$9.95

"HELP! I Can't Get Off My Anti-Depressants"
by Dr. Ann Blake Tracey

To order: See next-to-last page or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

continues today.... [End quoting]

While most readers of The SPECTRUM are quite aware that the normal, big-business print and broadcast media outlets are completely controlled and effective voices of government propaganda, the above tidbit of history may be news.

How long of a war do you think we'd have if the ones advocating such unconscionable behavior, from cushy offices, had to be the ones sent to actually do the dirty work?

And speaking of foreign press opinion censored in the United States, just look at our "ally" across the pond:

UK PRESS TURNS BACK ON USA

From the INTERNET, DRUDGE REPORT <<http://www.drudgereport.com>>, 10/28/01: [quoting]

The tide of international media opinion is dramatically turning against the U.S.-led "War on Terrorism" if Monday headlines in London prove any indication.

"THIS WAR IS A FRAUD" splashes the MIRROR [circulation 2,149,422] in large font on Page One.

"The war against terrorism is a fraud. After three weeks' bombing, not a single terrorist implicated in the attacks on America has been caught or killed in Afghanistan" rips the paper.

"CRITICS OF WAR TACTICS TURN UP THE HEAT ON U.S." leads the London FINANCIAL TIMES.

"BLOODY SUNDAY PROVES A TEST FOR U.S. RESOLVE" headlines the INDEPENDENT. "The U.S. government insisted yesterday that its Afghan campaign was going according to plan, despite repeated bombing errors, including the killing of seven children as they ate breakfast at home in Kabul."

"BOMBING MAY STOP FOR RAMADAN AS SUPPORT FOR WAR FALTERS" fronts the DAILY TELEGRAPH.

Murdoch's London TIMES jabs: "...a 'three-week wobble' over the direction of the conflict."

[End quoting]

Elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM is the full text of the article from the MIRROR, with its over-two-million circulation.

U.S. BOMBS RED CROSS FOOD WAREHOUSE FOR SECOND TIME

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/27/01: [quoting]

U.S. forces bombed and largely destroyed the same Red Cross complex in Kabul that they struck 10 days ago, an error that the Pentagon admitted Friday night, saying it occurred because military planners had picked the wrong target. The bombing took place just after a detailed review by Pentagon and Red Cross officials of the places where the relief agency has installations in Afghanistan. That meeting, which followed the first bombing of the Red Cross compound, was designed to prevent exactly what happened Friday.

In addition, one of the U.S. aircraft that had been ordered to hit the Red Cross facility missed its target and hit a residential neighborhood instead.

The attack on the Red Cross buildings by two Navy fighter bombers and two B-52s came in two waves Friday, first in the early morning darkness, and again shortly before noon, using satellite-guided bombs that wrecked and set ablaze warehouses storing tons of food and blankets for civilians.

The Pentagon said Friday night that it "sincerely regrets" the strikes on the neighborhood and the Red Cross complex, which had been put off-limits by military planners after the bombing of the same complex on October 16.

But since then, the Pentagon sent an emissary to the relief organization's headquarters in Geneva to ensure that such mistakes would never happen again. They exchanged detailed information on Red Cross sites in Kabul and on the movements of relief trucks that might look like military targets....

[End quoting]

We received one report stating that sensors that the bombs use to zero-in on targets were purposely put back at that location by Afghans, after being removed by members of U.S. military, so that this "goof" would happen to embarrass the U.S. military. Of course, if you read Al Martin's irreverent commentary elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM, you'll lower your expectations that these bombs could possibly hit ANYTHING accurately!

Again, I highly recommend you rent the movie WAG THE DOG and watch it a couple of times—the script for the elite's wars is all there.

KILLING FIELDS OFF LIMITS

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, Letters To The Editor, for 10/22/01: [quoting]

We are bombing strategic places in Afghanistan. Now we need to add the poppy fields to this war. These fields are part of the financing for the terrorist groups. News programs reported today that the poppy fields are again being planted.

Bombing these fields could kill two birds with one bomb: Less financing for terrorists and less drugs coming into the U.S.—E.M.M., CA

[End quoting]

Too bad this quite logical person didn't read last month's front-page feature story in this newspaper. This is not the kind of suggestion the government wants to hear from the well programmed public. After all, this crop is one of the main reasons for the war. The elite want to maintain this crop at any cost.

I've seen a credible report that the Taliban have had quite a bit of success in doing away with a lot of the poppy crops and were trying to convert to useful crops and income-producing methods for their people. As you can well understand, that had to be stopped fast from the point of view of the elite misfit controllers.

PREJUDICE IN PAKISTAN? OR REALITY!

From an UNNAMED NEWSLETTER, for 9/14/01: [quoting]

Islamabad (MSN)—When I got Maj. Gen. Hamid Gul on the telephone at his home to ask if I could interview him, his reaction was guarded at first. "What's your nationality?" he asked. "American" I said. "Are you a Jew?" When I said I wasn't, he agreed to the interview. "I'm sorry to ask you that" he added. "It's just that Jews wouldn't understand what I have to say."

Indeed they wouldn't, nor would most people. General Gul's basic message is that Osama bin Laden is innocent, and that the attacks on New York and Washington were an Israeli-engineered attempt at a coup against the government of the United States. He rattled off the proof: "You must look inside. F-16s don't scramble in time, though they had 18 minutes after the first plane hit the World Trade Center. Radar gets jammed. Transponders are turned off. A flight to Los Angeles turns to Washington and is in the air for 45 minutes, and the world's most sophisticated air defense doesn't go into action. I tell you, it was a coup [attempt], and I can't say for sure who was behind it, but it's the Israelis who are creating so much misery in the world. The Israelis don't want to see any power in Washington unless it's subservient to their interests, and President Bush has not been subservient."

If General Gul were anyone else, it would be easy to dismiss him as a crackpot. But here in military-ruled Pakistan, he remains an influential figure, even in semiretirement. And as the former head of Pakistan's powerful InterServices Intelligence Directorate (ISI), its intelligence service, he had a key role in making Afghanistan what it is today. Gul is widely considered the architect of the Afghan jihad: the man who, with financial and logistical support from the CIA, engineered the fight of the Mujahedin against the Soviet Union and its proxy government in Kabul in the 1980s. Now he's a big fan of the country's ruling Taliban, even though they're fighting his former mujahedin allies.

And he's wondering why the CIA no longer comes calling to his comfortable home in an exclusive compound for top military brass in Rawalpindi. "Why don't these people talk to me?" Perhaps because they don't appreciate his view that all those Arabic names emerging as suspects are CIA inventions? [End quoting]

The only good outcome from the World Trade Center disaster is that the elite have, inadvertently, finally started WAKING UP many people. They've told so many lies and are so blatant with them that it doesn't take much intelligence to see through them.

I think they have gone so far this time that it will lead to their COMPLETE DOWNFALL.

HISTORY NEED ONLY REPEAT ITSELF

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, Letter To Editor, 10/19/01: [quoting]

"Why, of course the people don't want war. But after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy, and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship.

"Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is to tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger."

These were Nazi leader Hermann Goering's words at the Nuremberg Trials after World War II. — John A., CA [End quoting]

With so many people acting like sheep, no wonder the crooks in high places feel comfortable using the same tricks over and over again to achieve the desired goal. But this time around, more are waking up. And that's something they weren't counting on!

The following is written from the point of view of a newspaper columnist unaware that the REAL culprits in the 9/11/01 tragedy are not the ones being publicly blamed. If he were aware of what SPECTRUM readers know, his following sentiments would simply be that much MORE powerful:

"THE WORLD WILL NOT FORGIVE US"

From the INTERNET, <dave@davesweb.cnhost.com>, 11/7/01: [quoting]

This exceptional editorial comes courtesy of <TomPaine.com>. The original is at: <<http://www.tompaine.com/print.php?id=2539>>

THE WORLD WILL NOT FORGIVE US Seven Million Afghans May Die Preventable Deaths This Winter Geov Parrish is a columnist at the Seattle Weekly.

Does anybody in this country get it?

Does anybody understand what the United States is on the verge of doing?

Experienced, respected food aid organizations warn that even before the bombing of Afghanistan began on October 7, some 7,500,000 Afghans were—through a gut-wrenching combination of poverty, drought, war, dislocation, and repression—at risk of starving to death this winter. When the bombing began, almost all delivery of food from the outside world stopped. Now, roads and bridges are destroyed, millions more people are dislocated, and the snow is steadily approaching from higher elevations and from the north.

For weeks, aid organizations, along with voices from throughout the region, have been begging the United States to call off its bombing campaign, at least for long enough so that aid agencies can conduct the massive transfer of food into and throughout Afghanistan that is necessary to prevent death on a scale the world has not seen in a long, long time. On our newscasts, it's politely referred to as a "humanitarian crisis". That's a euphemism that makes "collateral damage" seem humane.

Seven and a half million people at risk of dying in a matter of months. That's almost four times the number of people Pol Pot took years to kill. Thirty-five times the number who died in Hiroshima and Nagasaki, combined. If

The Idaho Observer

Now that we know what is really going on, let's do something about it

The Idaho Observer is a monthly, 24-page newspaper dedicated to the truth. For a complimentary copy, please write:

PO Box 457, Spirit Lake, Idaho, 83869;

or call: (208) 255-2307.

$1 for postage is appreciated but not necessary.

email: observer@dmf.net

web: www.proliberty.com/observer

5,000 died on September 11 (a number that reports are now suggesting is vastly inflated), we're talking the equivalent number of deaths to ten World Trade Centers, every day, for 150 days. Slow, painful deaths. Entirely avoidable deaths. Deaths whose sole cause is not the United States, but most of which can still be prevented—except that the United States is refusing to allow them to be prevented.

It repulses me to say this, but I suspect a lot of Americans don't care. They'd rather see the United States "get" Osama bin Laden (though there's no actual evidence that we're any closer to that today than we were two months ago, and probably the task is harder as he becomes more popular and protected). A lot of people in this country do not care that a staggering number of innocent people are on the verge of being condemned to death, or that most of the world will blame the United States. Correctly.

We should care. If the object of this war was to thwart terrorism—to bring existing terrorists to justice, and to isolate them politically and culturally so that others won't throw in their lot—in less than a month, the United States has perpetrated one of the most abject failures in military history. It still does not know where any of Al Qaeda's leadership even is. It is on the verge of succeeding in its goal of creating a unified Afghanistan government—unfortunately, Afghans are uniting behind the Taliban, as warlord after warlord sets aside long-standing differences to stand shoulder to shoulder to fight the American invaders. Tens of thousands more young Muslim men are lining up to cross the borders into Afghanistan to join them. The ones who survive the experience will carry a lifetime of hate: living, breathing proof that within a month, America bombed a country but lost its war in spectacular fashion.

That's today. What will happen if millions of Afghans die this winter? How much future terrorism will the dunderheads of the Bush Administration have inspired then? If several million Islamic sisters and brothers starve to death, innocent civilians trapped between winter and the rage of America, how many of Islam's 1.2 billion adherents—or the five billion other people on Earth—are going to take George Bush's proclamations about eradicating "terrorists" and "evildoers" to heart, and label him, and us, as the prime examples?

In less than two months, the United States government has gone from the moral high ground of being victimized by one of the most heinous crimes in world history, to being within a week or two of quite visibly committing a crime so much larger as to obliterate the world's memory of September 11. Remarkably, almost nobody in the United States seems to have either noticed, understood, or cared. While even progressives wring their hands over the ambiguity of a war fought under the auspices of America's legitimate right to defend itself, a situation is unfolding in which there is absolutely no moral ambiguity at all, and for which many people will want to hold each of us as accountable as the world held post-war Germans.

Where were you? What did you say? How could you allow this to happen? Or, a more likely reaction in the Islamic world: Why should millions of you not die as well? America will have set out to isolate one man, and instead killed millions and isolated itself. And much of the world will not rest until we are brought to our knees.

Seven and a half million people. The snowline is creeping down the mountainsides. The food is almost gone. The infrastructure is in shambles. There will be no "independent verification" of the body count. There wasn't in the Holocaust or Rwanda or Cambodia, either. The judgment of the world did not need one. The clock is ticking. Where were you?

[End quoting]

That's a powerful statement of conscience—and the author obviously doesn't even suspect the Truth behind this so-called "War On Terrorism" or his conscience would surely be in overload.

Speaking of people who have had enough of the baloney, how about the following:

WTC HEROES BOO, JEER HILLARY IN PUBLIC RELATIONS NIGHTMARE

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.rense.com>>, 10/22/01: [quoting]

Senator Hillary Clinton's inner circle is furious at Miramax king Harvey Weinstein after the former first lady suffered through a public relations nightmare during

KIND WORDS FROM OUR READERS

"Tell everyone there how much we appreciate your dedication to The SPECTRUM. This last one is really, really enlightening! Thank you so much. Here is my check for two more copies of the October 9, 2001 issue."
— M.P. from TX

"Dear friends at The SPECTRUM, you are right! Nowhere else will I get such important information. This month's paper [Sept. 2001] is filled with what we need to know. Please send me eight more papers. I must share this with others."
— V.B. from WV

"The latest issue of The SPECTRUM was great. Thank God we have some people out there, like those who write for your paper, who are not afraid to speak out with the Truth."
— J.T. from AZ

"Thanks again for such a wonderful paper. It has kept me going and it's a real pleasure to support Truth. God bless every one of you."
— E.C. from CO

"To the hardworking crew at The SPECTRUM, Thanks again for your dedication to getting the news and spiritual messages out. I always look forward to The SPECTRUM every month, as I am sure many do. You are helping a lot of people in getting God's word out. God Bless You All—In Love, Light & Truth."
— V.R. from BC, Canada

"Greetings to all you good people at The SPECTRUM. Recieved The SPECTRUM Wednesday, the 17th. I knew it would contain the information we needed to counter the propaganda and disinformation onslaught coming thru the "official" print and electronic media. Please send 10 copies of this current October issue. With great appreciation for your insight to help us with what I see as spiritual warfare."
— A.N. from MI

"This is just a quick note to let you know that the October issue was greatly anticipated and read almost from cover to cover in one sitting. I have sent my copy of the paper to a friend of mine in England, and therefore I need to order another copy for myself. I have enclosed a check to cover the cost, plus send you a contribution. For those of us who are always searching for the truth and greater understanding, your work is of inestimable value. With heartfelt love and gratitude."
— K.F. from TX

To order The SPECTRUM newspaper please call 1-877-280-2866, or if you are outside the U.S. please call 1-661-823-9696.

Saturday's Concert For New York. Hillary Clinton was jeered and booed by thousands gathered at Madison Square Garden as she took to the stage—unannounced—to introduce a movie clip.

VH1 [cable television] cameras captured firemen and police heroes wildly booing Clinton, who attempted to raise her voice above the shouting crowd.

"Get off the stage! We don't want you here!" yelled one New York City police officer just feet from the senator.

Anti-Clinton slurs spread and intensified throughout the Garden, with many standing near the stage lobbing profanities.

Event-planner and close Clinton friend Harvey Weinstein was visibly shaken as he heard the crowd erupt with boos and jeers, according to an eyewitness.

The junior senator from New York ended up giving the shortest presentation of the evening, clocking in at under 20 seconds.

"How could we not know this would be the wrong forum for Hillary?!" shouted one confidante. "These are cops and firemen who listen to right-wing talk-radio. They still think she killed Vince Foster, for Christ's sake!"

Other New York politicians received warmer welcomes during the 5-hour concert, which featured Paul McCartney, Mick Jagger, Elton John and others.

Former President Bill Clinton, who took the stage minutes after his wife, worked over scattered boos with talk of the rescuers' heroism.

Following the Clintons, James Taylor soothed the heroes with an acoustic Fire And Rain.

The concert raised millions of dollars for September 11 relief efforts.

[End quoting]

She really stepped into the "lion's den" of decent, honest, hard working people who are sick of lies and deceit. AND who apparently monitor the alternative media and thus are not properly programmed citizen-robots!

As for the money raised from this event, we here at The SPECTRUM have seen enough censored news items questioning where that money has gone to shock the sensibilities of any decent person—if there weren't so many other bigger crooks making hay over this tragic event. Even the regular media—FOX News in particular—raked the head of the Red Cross (and others) over the coals of live television interviews for the sloppy and tardy and suspicious ways in which inpouring donations are swelling the accounts of these agencies while very little is going where it is intended by the donors.

The more cynical among our readership are likely to conclude that such public exposure is directed and sanctioned by the much bigger elite crooks as a "shot across the bow" to the small-time hoodlums to not get too greedy over this opportunity.

Here are some details to be aware of:

RED CROSS STEALING MAIL

From <<http://www.insightmag.com/archive/200111054.shtml>>, 11/3/01: [quoting]

The Red Cross In The Cross Hairs?

By Kelly Patricia O'Meara

Families of Oklahoma City bombing victims say they did not receive funds sent to them by mail and handled by the Red Cross. And questions are being raised in New York City.

In a time of national tragedy the true spirit of America shines through, and nowhere is this more evident than in the outpouring of extraordinary amounts of money for the survivors and families of victims of the September 11 terrorist attacks.

To date, nearly $800 million has been donated to various funds and charitable organizations. And the flood continues as every day it seems some new fund is created.

While it now appears that donations are likely to go well over the $1 billion mark by the end of October, issues are being raised about how much of that will make it to those for whom this outpouring was intended.

Who or what is responsible for making sure this money gets to the intended recipients? Will it go to current victims and their families or will some go into larger portfolios for future crises? And how much of the collected funds will cover administrative expenses and fund raising or mailing-list prospecting?

To try to answer these questions Insight has been looking at what happened to the huge sums collected in the aftermath of the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City on April 19, 1995. While the families interviewed were reluctant to discuss the level of support provided them by charitable organizations, this magazine discovered a different picture than was (and is) being publicly portrayed.

For instance, Insight has learned that letters of condolence and donations sent through the U.S. Postal Service and deemed "undeliverable" often are turned over to charitable organizations involved in disaster relief.

Sometimes mail would be addressed in care of a charity or fund.

A case in point: the American Red Cross. The Postal Service received thousands of cards, letters, and gift packages that were addressed, for example, to "the woman who lost two kids", the "rescue dogs", or "the family who lost the little boy". Both the Postal Service and the Red Cross have confirmed that within weeks of the bombings most of this mail was forwarded through the postal system to the Oklahoma City chapter of the American Red Cross, where it was opened and read by volunteers. When possible, letters and packages were forwarded to the intended families.

Mike Ellis, the postal inspector in Oklahoma City at the time of the bombing, tells Insight: "These procedures will change from post office to post office, depending on the situation. There is no set policy. The Postal Service sat down with the American Red Cross, the Salvation Army, and the governor's and mayor's offices, and it was decided the post office would deliver it if it was addressed to specific places and people, and the Red Cross would take any undeliverable mail."

"The Red Cross" continues Ellis, "had volunteers who would open the mail, and if there were donations in the envelopes, they would go into a general fund that the Red Cross had set up. The general fund was distributed to the victims at the time." Three of four families directly affected by the bombing who spoke with Insight about the mail-delivery system acknowledged that all of the mail they received from the American Red Cross had been opened. More notable, however, is what these families reported about the surprising change in their mail deliveries after the American Red Cross took over for the Postal Service.

"The first days after the bombing" says one family member, "people from all over the country were sending checks in lieu of flowers and we were getting a lot of checks and cash every day—hundreds, even thousands, of dollars. Then the Red Cross went down to the post office and made arrangements to collect the mail, and they would deliver it to us in bulk. All the mail had been opened, and from that point on there never was a dime, even in letters that said money was enclosed."

A member of another family recalls a similar experience: "We got this big box from the American Red Cross with more than 100 letters, and each one of them had been opened. People told us that there was money in the envelopes, but we never got it. We heard that volunteers were opening the mail and putting the letters in one pile and the money in another. We complained to the Red Cross that it was mail fraud to open our mail. The letters, after all, were addressed to our family. We even went to local television stations asking them to do a piece on it, but they said it would make us look money-hungry. That wasn't it, of course. We were upset that our mail was being opened. We were so angry we just blocked it out and moved on."

One member of a third family recalls a large number of opened letters addressed to the family that it received from the American Red Cross but says, "We don't think there was any suspicion that any money was removed in the mail. We didn't see any of this." The family did note, however, like the others, that money had been enclosed in the mail delivered to their home prior to the American Red Cross taking over distribution of the mail—but none was received afterward.

Formal complaints were lodged with the Postal Service and an investigation was conducted by Ellis, who in the process turned information over to the U.S. attorney in Oklahoma City. A grand jury needed to issue subpoenas to the Red Cross. It took testimony from a variety of individuals. Ultimately, as far as Insight has been able to learn, nothing came of the investigation. Bill Blaul, American Red Cross senior vice president for communications and marketing, tells Insight that his organization "cooperated with the U.S. attorney and he found no inappropriate handling of the matter, and it was closed." [How's this for having the fox investigate the hen house?]

When asked to respond to the allegations that cash or checks may have been removed from the mail prior to its delivery to the intended parties, Blaul says: "The families may feel that way. I'm not sure what their memories and recollections are. The only motivation of the American Red Cross is to provide service to victims and families of the Oklahoma City and Sept. 11 attacks. We have no other motivation in opening individual mail."

Insight then provided Blaul with specific instances where money apparently had been removed from envelopes clearly intended for a specific family. For instance, members of one family were so upset about what had happened to their mail that they wrote to people who had sent correspondence asking them to confirm whether a donation had been included. In one instance, a donor confirmed that $50 in cash had been sent along with the letter of condolence. The envelope delivered by the American Red Cross was addressed to the family through the Oklahoma City chapter of the American Red Cross. Despite the apparent intent of the donor to provide the enclosed money directly to the family, it did not receive it.

Asked about this specific example, Blaul becomes defensive and says: "I don't know what more I can say about it. If mail is addressed to an individual, we don't open it" he declares, contradicting what inspector Ellis told Insight. "I'm beginning to resent the implication that the Red Cross is opening mail and lifting money from the envelope" Blaul insists.

Insight did not suggest anything untoward was or is going on in such cases. Rather, it followed up on questions raised by Oklahoma City families and victims who voiced concern about their mail and what they—and some donors—later learned about the handling of cash and other monetary donations.

Specifically:

- Cash donations may have been lost [that's a polite way to put it] in the shuffle between and among agencies.
- Checks made out to the Red Cross and intended for specific individuals didn't always go to those individuals and weren't returned to the donor.
- Sometimes cash or checks went into a general fund for the Red Cross and then checks were delivered to the intended recipient.
- Money received for intended relief work may not have gone directly to specified funds or charities but was absorbed into [sounds nicer than "stolen by"] larger operating funds for future disasters.
- Public accounting for how much money was received and then distributed is not readily available for public and/or press review and, apparently, not audited by government agencies.
- Government funds established to receive funds for disaster relief and provide assistance did not make public "cash-in" and "cash-out" ledger records. And requests for such an accounting have not been provided.

All of which has raised disconcerting questions in the minds of many of those interviewed by Insight concerning the hundreds of millions of dollars pouring into the New York City, Washington, and Pennsylvania funds and charities working with the families and victims.

The Indigo Children

The New Kids Have Arrived

by Lee Carroll & Jan Tober

(Featured interview in the March 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM.)

The "Indigo Child" is a boy or girl who displays a new and unusual set of psychological attributes, revealing a pattern of behavior generally undocumented before. This pattern has singularly unique factors that call for parents and teachers to change their treatment and upbringing of these kids to assist them in achieving balance and harmony in their lives, and to help them avoid frustration.

In this groundbreaking book, international authors and lecturers Lee Carroll and Jan Tober answer many of the often-puzzling questions surrounding Indigo Children, such as:

- Can we really be seeing human evolution in kids today?
- Are these kids smarter than we were at their age?
- How come a lot of our children today seem to be "system busters"?
- Why are so many of our brightest kids being diagnosed with Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD)?
- Are there proven, working alternatives to Ritalin?

Throughout this work, Carroll and Tober bring together some very fine minds (doctors, educators, psychologists, and more) who shed light on the Indigo Child phenomenon. These children are truly special, representing a great percentage of all the kids being born today on a worldwide basis. They come in "knowing" who they are—so they must be recognized, appreciated for their exceptional qualities, and guided with love and care.

This book is a must for the parents of unusually bright and active children!

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

249 pages $13.95 (+S/H)

For example, how are these groups cataloging the monies received, selecting individuals for disbursements, and making sure that intended recipients of direct donations are, in fact, receiving them?

In the case of New York City, according to Blaul: "Thousands of pounds of mail is coming in and the American Red Cross is working with other agencies up there. We've got a room set aside for the mail that is coming in and we're sorting through it. Where there are specific categories, such as firemen, we're taking the mail without opening it and routing it to the appropriate sources. We're not opening mail if it is addressed to individuals. The American Red Cross is doing this in a secure room with other entities and appropriate oversight."

He does not elaborate on who or what those other entities might be.

Nor is Blaul able to provide Insight with the total amount of money received through this mail-review process. "I believe we are keeping track of only the money that is specifically meant for the Red Cross" he says. He does not volunteer how much this amounts to, but published reports indicate the Red Cross thus far has received about $258 million in donations. How much other money Blaul's organization has collected that was not "specifically meant for the Red Cross" could not be determined by press time.

How much ultimately was collected to assist the victims of the Oklahoma City bombing wasn't available either. But, as a result of their own experiences, victim families of the Oklahoma City bombing have begun working with families touched by the Sept. 11 attacks.

What advice have they for dealing with charitable organizations? "Don't expect anything" says one family, "and that way you won't be disappointed." Another family spokesman summed it up this way: "Oklahoma is doing great, but what about the New York families? I guess I'd tell them, 'Don't leave anything for someone else to do when it comes to your well-being.' And I'd tell them to watch how the money is disbursed."

Kelly P. O'Meara is an investigative reporter for Insight magazine. [End quoting]

I've read a report that much of the blood that was donated because of the 9/11/01 disaster was DUMPED because they kept asking for more when they had an oversupply.

Isn't this a sad state of affairs? And while we're in the medical department, keep your eyes open for another slick trick likely to be pulled on the citizenry:

SMALLPOX VACCINES—A WAY TO IMPLANT AMERICA!

From the Internet, 11/7/01: [quoting]
From: "Ingri Cassel" <vaclib@coldreams.com>
Date: Wednesday, 7 November 2001
Organization: Vaclib

Thanks to Myra for forwarding this to us. I have mentioned to a few of you the possibilities of chipping humans through vaccines so the article below should give you some food for thought.

Also, if you haven't seen the draconian legislation being proposed by the CDC, you really need to take a look at it and share this information far and wide. www.publichealthlaw.net/MSEHPA/MSEHPA.pdf — Ingri

Rumor Mill News Reading Room Forum <http://www.rumormillnews.net/cgi-bin/config.pl?read=14523>

Posted By: Dr. Rod Lewis
Date: Tuesday, 6 Nov. 2001, 2:30 a.m.

The Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) and its head honcho, Tommy Thompson, are feverishly attempting to negotiate a pharmaceutical deal to produce 300,000,000 doses of smallpox vaccine.

When asked about those individuals vaccinated in the '50, '60, and '70s—the last time the vaccine was used—he stated they (HHS) were not sure that those individuals would still have immunity. By implication he means that everyone in the U.S. should be vaccinated.

Yes, it has been a while since I took medical microbiology and immunology, but if my memory serves me correctly, the vaccine confers LIFELONG immunity.

"Every American will have his or her name on their dose." Interesting phraseology, Tommy.

As reported about 6 months ago in Industry Standard magazine, Hitachi has developed a microchip, known as the MU chip, that is only 0.04 mm square, with 128K of memory, and can emit an RF (radio frequency) signal up to two feet. "It can be woven into currency or used in biological tissue; it is completely transparent." Also, don't forget L.U.C.I.D. and our friends at Digital Demon—ahm, I mean Angel.

Several months ago I met a former Marine recon specialist ('86-'92) who swore to me and another on this forum that selected individuals in the corps, including himself, had been implanted with an ID chip. Guess where? On the site of their smallpox vaccination scar.

These were the rather outdated versions of microchips, not like the MU. The scanner had to be held right over the smallpox scar and your SSN was displayed.

Most of these chips are powered by what is called "thermal gradient". The areas of the body with the highest gradients are the head, hands, and arms.

Does everyone see where I am going with this?

Let's use a hypothetical example.

The government or one its rogue elements lets smallpox loose in Smalltown, USA—sure they can sacrifice a few thousand more Americans to make the empire more secure.

The whole country panics and lines up for their vaccine. They go to predesignated public health service offices and fill out forms with all kinds of ID questions.

In addition, there is the new Office of Home Security (OHS) database that has information on your political bent using the friend, foe, or neutral scheme. (See The Revolution In Military Affairs And Conflict Short of War, Army War College, 1996.)

The information is put into a computer and the computer programs the little MU, which is dropped into the vaccine bottle with your name on it. You step up for the pneumatic injection and viola, you are a walking database and transmitter.

Let's imagine the U.S. slides into the worst depression since the '30s. There are riots and political dissension. The "system" is activated.

You go to the grocery store and, for some reason, you cannot check-out. Could it have anything to do with that "foe" signal you are emitting?

This is only one scenario. You can just imagine the possibilities. — RJL

* * *

Posted By: Michael001 <Michael001@blueyonder.co.uk>

Date: Tuesday, 6 November 2001, 6:24 a.m.

In Response To: Smallpox Vaccines—A Way To Implant America! (Dr. Rod Lewis)

This is something which I picked up awhile ago:

U.S. PATENT 5,629,678; PERSONAL TRACKING AND RECOVERY SYSTEM:

Apparatus for tracking and recovering humans utilizes an implantable transceiver incorporating a power supply and actuation system allowing the unit to remain implanted and functional for years without maintenance. The implanted transmitter may be remotely actuated, or actuated by the implantee.

Power for the remote-activated receiver is generated electromechanically through the movement of body muscle. The device is small enough to be implanted in a child, facilitating use as a safeguard against kidnapping, and has a transmission range which also makes it suitable for wilderness sporting activities.

A novel biological monitoring feature allows the device to be used to facilitate prompt medical dispatch in the event of heart attack or similar medical emergency. A novel sensation- feedback feature allows the implantee to control and actuate the device with certainty.

U.S. PATENT 5,760,692; INTRA-ORAL TRACKING DEVICE:

An intra-oral tracking device adapted for use in association with a tooth having a buccal surface and a lingual surface, the apparatus comprises a tooth mounting member having an inner surface and an outer surface, the inner surface including adhesive material.

U.S. PATENT 5,952,600; ENGINE DISABLING WEAPON:

A non-lethal weapon for disabling an engine such as that of a fleeing car by means of a high-voltage discharge that perturbs or destroys the electrical circuits.

[End quoting]

Keep in mind that the above-mentioned technologies are quite outdated by secret technology standards, or else you wouldn't find the information on them in a public forum. You can be sure that whatever chips they hope to implant in us are very small, multi-functional, and trackable from our space satellite systems—you know, the ones that your tax dollars paid for, and perhaps the same ones that work in conjunction with cell phone towers.

That's just in case you're wondering what NASA is up to while they lie to us about studying bugs-in-space and polishing the lenses on the Hubble space telescope. Which leads to the following perhaps good news:

SOME TOP-LEVEL SHAKEUPS (OR SHAKEDOWNS?) AT NASA

From the INTERNET, NewsAlert <sfn_newsalert@spaceflightnow.com>, the latest news from Astronomy Now and Spaceflight Now, 10/17/01: [quoting]

Nasa Administrator Dan Goldin Is Resigning

NASA Administrator Daniel Goldin, who forced the agency to adopt a "faster, better, cheaper" approach to deep space exploration and oversaw initial assembly of the international space station, is stepping down amid space station cost overruns that threaten the future of the agency's showcase space program.

<<http://spaceflightnow.com/news/n0110/17goldin>>

Associate Administrator For Nasa Spaceflight To Retire

Joseph Rothenberg, Associate Administrator for Space Flight at NASA Headquarters, Tuesday announced his plans to retire from the Agency, effective December 15. No successor has been selected.

<<http://spaceflightnow.com/news/n0110/17rothenberg>> [End quoting]

Remember the "white hats" who work quietly, usually from within the intelligence communities, to clean-up our country without destabilizing the infrastructure? Do you think, perhaps, these two "paragons of virtue" have recently received their "walking papers" in one form or another? To so abruptly terminate such lucrative positions within the puppet brigade of the elite controllers certainly provokes a few questions in that regard.

Some within NASA are bursting at the seams to tell what they know, out of moral decency and respect for their fellow American citizenry. Others are oblivious to (or well-paid to conceal, or afraid to speak-out about) the deceptions NASA has helped to engineer for many decades now. Hint: Keep a close eye on our front-page feature story series concerning UFOs and the extraterrestrial presence on planet Earth.

ATTENTION!

- Are you looking for a product to replace your "dangerous" deodorant/antiperspirant? (See the News Desk article on page 4 of the June 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM newspaper.)
- Have you tried alternative antiperspirants and deodorants that just don't work? (At least not for long!)
- Do you have a problem with incontinence odor and don't want to risk using powders with talc?

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO COMPROMISE PROTECTION FOR SAFETY!

For a free sample and free information (your name will not be used or sold for any other purposes) send a self-addressed, legal-size envelope w/ TWO 1st class stamps to:

DEODORANT INFO.
c/o PO Box 958
TEHACHAPI, CA 93581

Electricity for Health

Check The Beck Protocol ... A First-aid Kit for the Future

A four-part protocol that enables you to help yourself using gentle micro currents of electricity, magnetic pulsing, colloidal silver and ozonated water.

The Silver Pulser and Magnetic Pulser are licensed in Canada as Class-II medical devices available to the public.

Robert (Bob) C. Beck, D.Sc.

1-800-224-0242

Tel: 250-814-0046 Fax: 250-814-0047
www.sotainstruments.com
anybody@sotainstruments.com

LAST CRIMINAL CHARGE AGAINST McGUCKIN DROPPED

Excerpted from the INTERNET, <<http://www.rense.com>>, 10/11/01: [quoting]

All criminal charges have been dropped against JoAnn McGuckin, whose children conducted a five-day standoff with Idaho law enforcement officers after their mother was arrested in May.

McGuckin was originally arrested on a felony child neglect charge that was later reduced to a misdemeanor, and dismissed last month.

On Thursday, McGuckin's scheduled trial in Sandpoint, Idaho, on a misdemeanor vicious dog charge was canceled when Bonner County Prosecutor Phil Robinson agreed to drop that charge as well.

"It's a relief to take this out of the criminal realm," McGuckin's attorney, Bryce Powell, said Friday.

Robinson did not return a telephone message Friday. Sandpoint is about 70 miles northeast of Spokane.

McGuckin remains separated from her six children, who are in state custody and living with a foster family in Bonner County.

Powell said she is living in a motel and surviving off a few thousand dollars in donations sent after the standoff.

"It's a pretty meager existence right now," Powell said, adding McGuckin is trying to get Social Security disability and survivor benefits.

McGuckin is trying to regain custody of her children, Powell said, but the effort is slowed by her efforts to become financially able to care for them. It will likely be several months before another custody hearing is held, Powell said.

Under a state plan, McGuckin cannot have custody of the children until she fulfills certain undisclosed conditions. McGuckin has said that she does not recognize the authority of the state over her parental rights and has refused to cooperate.

McGuckin talks frequently with her children by telephone, and also visits with them occasionally, Powell said.

Last week, daughter Kathryn visited her mother to show off her high school prom dress, Powell said.... [End quoting]

If you recall—from The SPECTRUM's past articles on this family—the politicians and the police were involved in a forced sale of their prime-location property for a give-away price, along with others in the area, in a suspicious land-grab assault, and then the family was attacked from all angles—an array of typical dirty tactics done with government agents, perhaps as an acquisition for a nearby secret military installation.

ROSWELL MATERIAL USED IN U.S. MILITARY PROJECT

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 10/28/01: [quoting]

Do you believe in the events that happened at Roswell in 1947?

The time has come to reveal one of the most important UFO-related revelations in recent history. You are about to learn about a U.S. Government Project where science fiction becomes science fact!

UFO Website Cosmic Conspiracies "Cosmic Conspiracies" <littlegreys@hotmail.com>, has uncovered proof that the U.S. Military are using back-engineered flexible 3-D morphing metals, similar to those described from the Roswell crash. Over the coming weeks, starting from today, we will be releasing government documents, including pictures and videos of this material.

Colonel Philip J. Corso, who was said to have witnessed the material whilst in charge of the Foreign Technology desk in the U.S. Army's Research and Development division at the Pentagon, said in his book The Day Before Roswell:

"...an unknown quantity of very small to hand-sized pieces of a very thin and very light "metal" that displayed both solid and "fluid" qualities. The colour of dull aluminium, a piece of it could be wadded up like a ball in one's hand [without any sensation of weight] and, when placed on a flat surface, it unfurled ["flowed like water"] to its original flat, seamless shape without a mark on it. Also extremely tough, it could not be cut, scratched, or burned."

This description fits very closely to evidence that our investigations have uncovered. The U.S. Government, along with such establishments as NASA, MOOG, M.I.T. and several top U.S. Universities are researching what is termed as "smart materials" that can morph into any 3-D shape on the introduction of either heat or magnetic forces. These metals are being used to create such things as exoskeleton bodysuits for landtroops and brain chips that allow the wearer to be able to telekenetically work machines he is using by the use of brainwaves. Space lasers, aircraft, and other vehicles will also benefit from this new material.

We have a simulated video sequence on our site released by NASA that shows aircraft flapping its wings like a bird and trucks that can change shape. This project is not something of the future, but has been in existence since the mid '90s. Our investigation has revealed that most contractors are working on 3-year projects, and a vast majority of these have finished their work already.

We know this all sounds pretty farfetched, but we have all the evidence that we will be posting starting from today. For instance, the exoskeleton designs are on our site already. All this information has come from an official .gov site and we have been approved to release this information by the project leader.

Anna McGowan is the program manager for the Morphing Project at NASA's Langley Research Center. She says: "Imagine seeing a bullet shot through a sheet of material, only to have the material instantly "heal" behind the bullet! Remember, this is not science fiction. Self-healing materials actually exist, and Langley Research Center scientists are working to unravel their secrets. What we did at NASA-Langley was basically dissect the material to answer the question 'how does it do that?'" McGowan said. "By doing so, we can actually get down to computational modeling of these materials at the molecular level. Once we understand the material's behavior at that level, then we can create designer 'smart' materials."

What is interesting about the above quote is the fact that she mentions that NASA-Langley are breaking down the materials to see how they work. Why would NASA be taking apart something that they allegedly built, to find out how it works? In other words, this leads us to believe that the materials being dissected are actually "alien artifacts" taken from Roswell or some other similar UFO event.

For anyone informed about the events that happened at Roswell, this description fits perfectly into what Corso and many other witnesses described at the time.

But the biggest clue that perhaps this material is from Roswell is the fact that one of the contractors involved is none other than Wright-Patterson Air Force base, the very place where it is alleged that the Roswell wreckage was transported to. As you probably already know, there's a hangar at Wright-Patterson that contains very highly classified material, believed to be Roswell or other ET remains, so tightly controlled that even Barry Goldwater, a U.S. Senator and Major General in the USAF Reserve, was denied access.

We have in our possession over 130 documents, including photos and videos, of what the materials look like and how they work. All project leaders and contractors will be named by us. We even have the time scale and budget caps ready for release. We have been granted permission by a military source to release this material as we see fit and report on the project and show the evidence.

This evidence proves that the Roswell incident was more than an urban myth and was definitely not a weather balloon.

UFO Magazine said: "It is this so called 'memory metal' that our investigation today refers to as the 'Holy Grail' of Roswell since a piece of it, if found, would in our view constitute irrefutable proof that an extraterrestrial spacecraft had been recovered." (UFO Magazine, Sept/Oct 2000, p.62)

We believe that we have uncovered this "Holy Grail" and urge you to view the evidence for yourself at: <<http://www.ufos-alien.co.uk>>.

Many Thanks, Dave, Andy and Martin at Cosmic Conspiracies <<http://www.ufos-alien.co.uk>> UFORCE International Director (UK) [End quoting]

It is indeed puzzling that the elite controllers would allow this information to come out since, obviously, it could crumble their longstanding façade that UFOs—and especially the Roswell incident—do not exist. It certainly warrants further watching. And do you think that really was a slipup by Langley implying the reverse engineering of the material? Langley is notorious for some of the most far-out applied research—from remote viewing of sensitive targets, to many techniques of mind control. Again, keep an eye on our front-page feature story series on UFOs and extraterrestrial interactions with planet Earth.

DID NEW YORK TIMES PHOTO CAPTURE THE POWER OF HEALING MUSIC AND PRAYERS?

From the INTERNET, Paper Clip <star_dusters@yahoo.com>, 10/16/01: [quoting]

This story was shared with me by someone who knew I use crystal bowls in healing work. I found it to be incredibly reassuring that when we combine pure intention for healing with pure sound, healing is the result:

Thursday, September 13, a group of people held a singing bowl vibrational meditation at Sea Change Healing Center here in New York City. During the meditation, Jyotri Maple, who was leading us, began to channel healing through the world's collective chakras. As we felt many souls make their peaceful transition to the Light, we were guided by Jyotri to anchor two pillars of Light where the Trade Center towers had stood. The intense vibrations led all those in attendance into an elevated state of being.

Several days later I was sharing the story with mutual friends when someone immediately pulled up on his computer a photograph from the New York Times. I don't know who took this photo or how, but its synchronicity is profound.

Keep the love and high vibrations coming, and consciously send Light, Peace, and Compassion to all the world. By this photograph, it is clear that the power of the Light is working! The web address of this photo is: <http://www.nytimes.com/images/2001/09/17/magazine/cover_500tall.jpg> ">, Much Love and Peace, Amrita [End quoting]

While the photograph is extraordinarily stunning in color on a computer monitor, we are including it nearby this article for those of you who do not have access to the Internet. The two vertical columns of bright white Light hardly seem to be accidental or coincidental, shining down from the heavens like massive spotlights where the Trade Center towers should be, against a background of a deep blue sky and clear-weather skyline.

CROSSING OVER, WITH JOHN EDWARD

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, for 10/22/01: [quoting]

Crossing Over has crossed back from a plan to air segments in which its host, psychic John Edward, claims to contact some of those who perished in the September 11 attacks.

Bending to strong objections from station executives and advertisers, Studios USA Domestic Television scrapped the idea of the terrorism-related TV seances.

Studios USA president Steve Rosenberg, citing "a reaction that none of us expected", told Broadcasting & Cable magazine Thursday that while some segments have already been taped, they will not be broadcast.

Crossing Over, on which Edward claims to communicate with deceased relatives and friends of audience members and celebrity guests, airs in syndication on KCAL (Channel 9, Los Angeles) at 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, and on cable's SciFi Channel at 11 p.m. [East Coast; 8 p.m. West Coast] Sunday through Thursday.

The show's website on Friday had posted a statement declaring Edward "has been inundated with calls and pleas for readings from grieving families of the World Trade Center victims looking for comfort and closure."

Although readings will continue to be conducted privately, the statement said, they "will NOT air." [End quoting]

Can't you just imagine what would happen if some of those now on the other side started telling the truth, through John, on television about everything that REALLY happened leading up to and after the World Trade Center attacks?

For those of you who may not be familiar with John Edward or his work—he is the genuine item, with no air of pretense about him. He is a truly gifted, no-nonsense medium who has a www.johnedward.net Internet website for more information about him. At least tune-in to the show a few times to watch the emotional healings that so often take place. And his latest book is a current best-seller, called CROSSING OVER: The Stories Behind The Stories.

INTEL FOUNDER GIVES RECORD GIFT TO CALTECH

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, for 10/23/01: [quoting]

PASADENA—Gordon Moore, co-founder of computer chipmaker Intel Corporation, is donating $600 million to the California Institute of Technology, the largest gift ever made to a single American school.

The gift, being formally announced today, will be used for unspecified projects that Moore or his foundation must approve. The money will be donated over a 10-year period.

Caltech "has a history of making major scientific accomplishments", Moore, 72, said Friday. "I'd rather not do buildings. I'd rather supply the funds to do new things."

Moore's donation beats the record $400 million that Stanford University announced in May it will receive from a foundation started by the late high-tech pioneer William Hewlett, co-founder of Hewlett-Packard Co.

Education has benefited greatly in recent years from people who made fortunes in technology.

A foundation started by Microsoft's Bill Gates gave $995 million to education last year. In 1999, Gates pledged $1 billion over 20 years to minority scholarships, with a focus on engineering, science, math, and library science.

"The boom on Wall Street (in the 1990s) did create a lot of amazing fortunes and so there have been a number of gifts of the $100 million-and-up range," said Scott Jaschik, editor of the Chronicle Of Higher Education, a national newspaper covering higher education.

Such gifts may be harder to come by as the tech sector slumps along with the rest of the economy, he said. [End quoting]

Imagine what good could be accomplished with funds like these if higher education were not under such censorship control of TRUE advanced technologies. Longtime readers of this newspaper will remember the article wherein it was mentioned how universities that began to research cold fusion after Pons & Fleischman's U. of Utah announcement in 1989 were quietly but sternly warned by the government not to go down that road—or risk the cancellation of government funded contracts.

Wouldn't it be great if one of these super-wealthy people would be aware and concerned enough about the state of this planet to send a few crumbs to a TRUE educational enterprise such as The SPECTRUM—rather than more wealth to foster more mind control and for reinventing the "wheel" that's already functioning at secret technology installations.

SCHOOLS HAND OUT "MORNING AFTER" PILL

From RUMOR MILL NEWS (RUMILLS), (<http://www.rumormillnews.com>), 10/19/01: [quoting]

<<http://www.family.org/cforum/fnif/news/a0018198.html>>

By Charles R. McVile,

For over a year, public schools have been using tax dollars to distribute the so-called "morning-after" pill to teens. Now, pro-lifers in and out of Congress are working to ban the practice by hitting abortionists where it hurts the most—in the pocketbook.

The abortion industry calls it "emergency contraception" but Carrie Gordon Earll, bioethics analyst for Focus on the Family, says it's more than that.

"Once a pregnancy has occurred and you take this high dose of birth control pills, it is a chemical abortion" Earll said.

Many public schools now distribute this so-called "morning-after" pill to teens, but some members of Congress are trying to stop the practice with legislation that would block federal funding to any school that gives out the pill.

"If you're going to do that, you can't have federal dollars" Earll said. "We are not going to give federal dollars to schools that distribute abortion pills to teen-age girls."

Rep. Melissa Hart, R-PA, had planned to offer the amendment to an appropriations bill last week, but withdrew it from consideration at the last minute at House Speaker Dennis Hastert's request.

John Cusey, executive director of the congressional Pro-Life Caucus, said most parents don't know this is happening.

"One of the most shocking things is people don't think that this is going on in schools" Cusey said.

He noted that out of the 1,200 schools with clinics, 15 percent are giving out the drug.

"At least 180 schools do this right now" he said.

Earll added: "Schools have absolutely no business handing out morning-after pills to teenage girls, especially without parental notification.... Schools are there to educate our children; they are not there to encourage promiscuity and the types of behavior that are going to lead girls into risky behavior."

Some schools give out the drug without a prescription.

Earll and Cusey say one of the dangers of the morning-after pill is that it creates a false sense of security. They say teens need to be warned of the severe health risks from the drugs as well as the danger of catching sexually transmitted diseases. [End quoting]

This is surely a matter that parents of high school-age children should be monitoring. It's bad enough that psychotropic drugs are being dished-out to elementary school children like candy to "quiet them down" from active behavior modes. Both of these subjects have been the focus of shocking articles in past issues of The SPECTRUM, wherein it is clear that a hidden, ruinous agenda is being carried out through the ever-useful money-carrot to school administrations.

MT. RAINIER WAKING UP

From POPULAR MECHANICS magazine, November 2001 [quoting]

What scientists are describing as an "outburst" washed rocks and trees off the side of Mount Rainier on August 14, raising the level of the Nisqually River. Volcanologists are looking into the possibility that changes in subsurface temperatures caused ice to melt, resulting in a buildup of water beneath a glacier. [End quoting]

This activity has been predicted by Native American prophets for a long time to occur in this time of the Great Cleansing and Great Awakening on planet Earth.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

'WHEN TO ACT' CALENDAR 2002

FEATURES: STOCK MARKET MOVEMENTS, MONTHLY SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS DATES — WORLD AFFAIRS — AND DANGEROUS DATES. SEND $20.00 CHECK OR M.O. TO: K.H. HARDING, PO BOX 7055 COLORADO SPRINGS, CO 80933

Cooking for pEACE A booklet of various recipes, special foods, beverages, to help balance the immune system, electrolyte levels, and important cellular growth. Price: $10 + s/h: $2. Send name and address to:

Cooking for pEACE
Box 277, Devault, PA 19432-0277

How wonderful is the brain to alert an unbalanced part of the body and the mind
TO SEEK THE TRUTH.

KEYS TO ULTIMATE HEALTH

Addresses cause of ALL illness and disease utilizing an "Electrical Understanding". There are NO Incurable Diseases - Just Incurable People.

Attain high energy, youthfulness & become disease-free. Receive the report: "How I became completely cancer-free in 60 days from massive cancer."

Free info pac: 1-888-658-8859

E-mail: louish@pacificcoast.net

A BRIDGE TO COSMIC REALITY
THE METAPHYSICAL/UFO WRITERS' FORUM
www.wakingstatemultimedia.org

Advertise in The SPECTRUM.

For details call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

or e-mail us at: thespectrum@tminet.com

The SPECTRUM is not responsible for claims made by our advertisers.

WILLIAM "BILL" COOPER SHOT DEAD

The following announcement about the often outspoken UFO and conspiracy theorist and WBCQ shortwave radio talk-show host is excerpted from the www.williamcooper.com Internet website:

[Quoting]

In Memory Of Bill Cooper

With a deep sense of loss and mourning we announce the passing of William Cooper.

It appears at this time to be totally unrelated to the disputes he had with the federal government. All we know at this time is that he was shot and killed by an Apache County Sheriff around 12:15 AM, Tuesday, November 6, 2001, while serving of an arrest warrant on a local issue.

A sheriff was also wounded.

[End quoting]

The above information is for those of you who knew Bill for his outspoken longtime investigative work in the areas of UFOs and uncovering serious governmental conspiracies associated with the New World Order. He was 58 years old.

According to an excerpt from another account, apparently from the Hal Turner Show:

"Eager, AZ — Shortwave-radio talk-show host William 'Bill' Cooper was shot dead last night during a gun battle with Sheriff's Deputies. According to Detective Frank Valenzuela of the Arizona Department of Public Safety, the shooting took place at 11:40 PM outside of Cooper's home at 96 North Clearview Circle, Eager, AZ.

"Det. Valenzuela stated that Deputies from the Apache County Sheriff's Department were attempting to serve an arrest warrant upon Mr. Cooper."

At this time, there are a lot of unanswered questions and legitimate suspicions surrounding what appears to be a contrived circumstance leading to his death. And as one source stated:

"These questions make The Hal Turner Show wonder if Bill Cooper was set-up to be gunned down, or just a victim of his own big mouth and prudent police planning? We pray for the soul of Mr. Cooper, and for the life of the Deputy shot in the head."

We here at The SPECTRUM will share further information on this matter at a later time if such becomes available.

NIAGARA WATER COMPANY SELLS CONTAMINATED WATER

From the CALIFORNIA SUN, Fall 2001: [quoting] by Angelina Ferragomie

In 1972, Save The Earth movement was founded, with the vision to spread the word of saving the Earth and generate funds by selling Save The Earth products, which would support environmental research. Some of the schools that have benefited from this program include UCLA, UC Berkeley, Stanford University, Duke University, Columbia University, UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, and numerous others.

For the past six years, the Save The Earth message was being spread through the label of Save The Earth water. Momentum was building, sales were accelerating—when their bottler, Niagara Water Company, shipped contaminated water to their customers.

The bad water seemed to show up everywhere—from the CBS commissary to the Los Angeles and Orange County Unified School Districts.

At Raleigh Studios in Hollywood, right before Save The Earth water was to be served at an event attended by hundreds of high-profile executives and celebrities to benefit the Christopher Reeve Foundation, the tainted water was discovered by the head of the fundraiser. That was the end of Save The Earth's very lucrative account at Raleigh Studios.

Many of the Unified School Districts were serving Save The Earth water to their children, and 100 more schools had already committed to carrying Save The Earth water. Like wildfire, word spread that Save The Earth shipped bad water to schools, and all of the school districts immediately cancelled their accounts.

It started back in November of 1999, and Save The Earth water has been losing accounts ever since. Business has dropped so much that Save The Earth will be forced to close its office in Woodland Hills, California, which had been in operation since 1990.

When Niagara was contacted by Save The Earth, demanding an explanation, they were told by Andy Peykoff, owner of Niagara, that "thousands of years ago, a redwood forest located on the same site as their well, left debris in the water, and pieces of wood chips were somehow now showing up in the bottled water." Peykoff also claimed that their "O-ring", which is part of their filtering system, was malfunctioning and that's how the wood chips "slipped" through.

The findings by Michelson Laboratories, however, were quite different. The testing performed on November 17, 1999 stated that there were high levels of bacteria and coliform in the water.

Peykoff was notified at once and told to pick-up the recalled water from the Save The Earth distributor, US Foodservice. Niagara's Sales Manager, Steve Peykoff then reported to Save The Earth that very little of the returned water had any visible contamination. But just because contamination isn't VISIBLE certainly does not deem it drinkable.

During the first week of 2000, Michelle Long, an innocent customer, called the Save The Earth office to report that her entire family was experiencing flu-like symptoms and she suspected it might be from the water they had been drinking, which she had purchased at K-Mart. The interesting thing about this was that K-Mart was never a Save The Earth customer.

Neal Pargman, president of Save The Earth, drove over to K-Mart, in Carson, California immediately after Mrs. Long's phone call to investigate. He was told by Richard Moises, K-Mart's grocery manager, that his supplier, Niagara Water Company was out of Niagara water because of the Y2K scare. Mr. Moises didn't care what brand of water he received; he just needed to stock his shelves with water for his customers.

Niagara told him that they could ship him some Save The Earth water that they had in their warehouse. Niagara then took the recalled Save The Earth water from their warehouse and shipped it to their accounts that needed water.

When Mr. Pargman returned to his office that same afternoon, he received another phone call from Jay Pinedjian, an employee at the Santa Ana Chrysler dealership. He stated that the Niagara Water delivery truck dropped off Save The Earth water to them, that it smelled bad, and tasted even worse. He could see objects floating in the water. Mr. Pinedjian said that the Niagara driver told him that Save The Earth water was a brand they (Niagara) were promoting for the environment. Again, this was not a Save The Earth water account. Niagara was shipping water that they knew was contaminated to their customers.

Save The Earth has filed a lawsuit against Niagara Water for punitive damages. An investigator is interviewing witnesses and depositions are about to begin. The trial date is set for November 21, 2001. [End quoting]

While this isn't the only brand that has been found contaminated in routine testing by independent laboratories, it is certainly a most brazen example of pushing KNOWN contaminated water on a trusting public. Makes one suspicious of other "processed" products we buy every day from grocery store shelves. More and more, customer health and safety take a back seat to the almighty dollar.

ADJUSTING REAR-VIEW MIRRORS

From: "Chris Lock" and his publication SPIRAL <lockpeter@hotmail.com>

Sounds like a good idea for drivers.

NOT A JOKE: Hi everybody. This useful process of adjusting rear-view mirrors was just passed to me by an engineer friend of mine. Try it: It works!

Some of the most serious preventable accidents occur because of blind spots while driving. Now there is a remarkably simple solution discovered by an engineer named George Platter. He presented his method at the prestigious Society of Automotive Engineers.

The National Safety Council tested his theory and discovered, to their amazement, that it works! The method has been tested and fully endorsed by the National Safety Council as described in their September/October issue of Traffic Safety.

Here's how it works. First, forget how we learned to adjust our outside mirrors by plopping behind the steering wheel and turning the mirrors so that we just saw the side of our car looking back at us in the mirrors. Instead, adjust the driver's side mirror by resting your head against the driver's side window and then turning the mirror so that you just see the side of your car.

Once this is set, move to the center of the vehicle and turn the passenger's side mirror so that you can just see the side of your car from the center of the vehicle. That's it. You won't see your own car in either mirror, yet what you will see is far better.

Cars behind you show up as usual in the inside rear-view mirror above the dash, but the instant the car leaves your field of vision from the inside rearview mirror, the outside mirror picks it up. No blind spot; no delays; no wondering where that car about to pass you has disappeared to—and no waiting a few seconds for the car that you just saw in your rearview mirror to show up in your outside mirrors.

All three mirrors work in harmony with one another, and the blind spot has been eliminated!"

— Harris W. Foster, P.E., 12106 SE Riveridge Drive, Vancouver, WA 98683-6267; e-mail: hwfoster@dellepro.com; business phone: 360-885-7552, cell phone: 503-329-1526.

[End quoting]

Try this yourself and see how it works.

COMMANDER X
NIKOLA TESLA
FREE ENERGY AND THE WHITE DOVE

TOP-SECRET REVELATIONS BY FORMER MILITARY INTELLIGENCE OPERATIVE
ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY—ANTI GRAVITY CRAFT
NOW BEING TESTED BY U.S. GOVERNMENT

NIKOLA TESLA: FREE ENERGY AND THE WHITE DOVE

BY COMMANDER X

Exposes the most important alternative scientific advancements of our time utilizing free energy concepts which were uncovered by Tesla and perhaps derived from other worldly sources.

About The Author: A former military intelligence operative who has kept his identity a closely guarded secret claims to have worked inside underground bunkers in Area 51 where he actually flew UFOs via telepathy and levitation methods derived from contact with ETs.

$15.00 (+S/H) See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

The Missing Diary of Admiral Richard
E. Byrd

WHO LIVES INSIDE OUR EARTH?

THE MISSING DIARY OF ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD

"I must write this diary in secrecy and obscurity. It concerns my arctic flight of the nineteenth day of February in the year of nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

"There comes a time when the rationality of men must fade into insignificance, and one must accept the inevitability of the Truth! I am not at liberty to disclose the following documentation at this writing, perhaps it shall never see the light of public scrutiny, but I must do my Duty and record here for all to read one day in a world which hopefully the greed and exploitation of certain of mankind can no longer suppress that which is Truth."

—Admiral Richard E. Byrd (from the Introduction)

$12.50 (+S/H) See next-to-last page or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

HOW TO JUMP-START A CAR

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, for November 2001: [quoting]

By William J. Gilbert

When jump-starting a car, what is the correct sequence for attaching the negative and positive cables?

Putting the jumper cables on both car batteries in a certain sequence minimizes the chance of creating a spark near the gas vents on the dead battery, which sometime leak potentially explosive hydrogen.

The recommended procedure is to attach the positive and negative cables to the dead battery first. Since the battery is dead, it won't generate much current, so it doesn't matter in which sequence the cables are connected. Next, attach the other end of the positive cable to the fresh battery's positive terminal. This leaves one last attachment, the other end of the negative cable, which should be attached to a portion of the engine away from the battery and any potential hydrogen gassing.

When removing the cables, simply reverse this procedure. [End quoting]

As we move into the winter season in many parts of the United States and elsewhere, weak batteries needing a jump-start become more prevalent. The above technique is the safest way to accomplish that task and should be memorized for the time when such an emergency arises.

MORE WEBSITES FOR YOU TO ENJOY

<http://www.metatech.org/cloudbuster_&_orgone_generator.html>, excellent site to check.

<<http://www.metatech.org>>, site for Planet-X or Nibiru info and much more.

<<http://www.zdnet.com/downloads/stories/info/0,10615,72375,00.html>>, free office suite software.

<<http://web.archive.org>>, archive of most web pages since 1996.

<<http://www.shout.net/~bigred/cn.html>>

<<http://www.whatareweswallowing.com>>

<www.dorway.com> SITE ABOUT ASPARTAME'S KILLING EFFECT

<www.holisticmed.com>

<<http://www.prairiejournal.com/2001northernlights/102101.html>>, Aurora Borealis pictures.

SIR OLIVER LODGE, MARCONI, AND AN OLD LADY

From the INTERNET, <illusions@beyond-the-illusion.com>, 10/17/01: [quoting]

I was just writing my journal and thought this item (below) might be of interest.

Regards, Dave Haith

Interesting Coincidental Encounter:

On Monday, October 15, 2001, I took Tessa (Doris Coles) out to the Haven Hotel at Sandbanks, Poole, Dorset.

She has been very ill and is elderly, but lately has perked up again and this day was quite lucid.

We sat and talked while looking through the big picture windows at the ferry going to and fro.

The subject—as it often does, possibly because she may not live too much longer—drifted onto life after death and my feeling that it was a reality.

The conversation had started with religion, following the September 11 event, and I had voiced my usual line against organised religions.

A staunch Church of England person, Tessa remarked that she couldn't quite understand where I was coming from—against religion but believing in survival.

I said to her “Tessa, life after death has nothing to do with religion. Survival is part of science; religion just divides people.”

She mused on this and we set off home.

Twenty minutes or so later we were waiting for the lift at her old-folks home.

A middle-aged woman—one of the staff I'd never met before—came by and asked if we'd had a nice outing.

Yes, I said, we went to the Haven Hotel.

Oh, she says, my grandfather owned that once.

Pity he didn't own it now, I joked; we could have had a free afternoon tea!

He had to sell it, she said, after a bad investment deal.

Then she said “Do you know that he was there when Marconi used the hotel to make his first experiments with broadcasting radio signals to America.”

She added “That was when Marconi was in touch with Sir Oliver Lodge and helped in his experiments into life after death!”

I had been standing holding the lift door open but, when I heard this, I let it close and came back out to chat some more.

“What do you know about life after death?” I asked.

She replied: “I have spoken with Sir Oliver Lodge after he died. I sat with a medium and conversed with him by direct voice, just like talking to you now. I asked him what he knew about the Haven Hotel giving him no more clues. He said, yes, he knew the Haven Hotel, and said ‘that's where Marconi did his radio experiments to America!’”

The woman—her name is Cheryl—said she had also sat with a physical medium and was able to actually embrace a “dead” person.

I looked at Tessa, who was quite overcome by all this.

“There you are, Tessa” I said. “Confirmation for you, from this little coincidence, that there is life after death.”

Then I told Cheryl we had been discussing religion and life after death.

It was then she said: “Let me tell you, religion has got nothing to do with life after death. Life after death is science; religion just divides people.”

It was virtually, word for word, my statement of a few minutes earlier in the Haven Hotel!

Poor Tessa was now gobsmacked and I took her up the lift to her room.

“Thanks for a wonderful afternoon” she said “and the stimulating conversation”.

Tessa, bless her, had a lot to think about.

And I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Oliver Lodge and Marconi weren't having a chuckle somewhere in this infinite universe.

— Dave Haith [End quoting]

Once again, there's no such thing as a coincidence; when the student is ready, the teacher will appear. How nice that the lesson could be conveyed in such an enjoyable and friendly atmosphere.

And on a different note, keep in mind that though Marconi, who at one time worked for Nikola Tesla, was given the credit by the crooks in high places for inventing radio, it was actually Tesla who did so, and had the patents proving it. Long after Tesla's “death”, our government finally quietly admitted that Tesla deserved the honor.

Reminds one of the Vatican finally admitting, five hundred years later, that Copernicus (1473-1543) was right, all along, about the Earth revolving around the Sun instead of the other way around. But at the time of his original announcement, such information would have compromised the Vatican's absolute power base; thus Copernicus had to be made the fool.

Some things haven't really changed, have they?

WHAT TALENT DO YOU HAVE TO SHARE WITH THE WORLD?

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 10/26/01: [quoting]

There was once a young man who, in his youth, professed his desire to become a great writer. When asked to define “great” he said: “I want to write stuff that the whole world will read, stuff that people will react to on a truly emotional level, stuff that will make them scream, cry, howl in pain and anger!”

He now works for a software company, writing error messages.

Those beautiful dreams we have for the rest of our lives too often don't materialize. And, again too often, we look back dissatisfied with the direction we took or the place we finally reached.

Frederick Buechner, in his book The Hungering Dark (New York: Seabury Press, 1968), talks about looking back at high school yearbooks. He plays a sad game, remembering what all his classmates hoped and dreamed of becoming. “In my class, as in any class, at any school” he says, “there were students who had a real flair, a real talent, for something. Maybe it was for writing or acting or sports. Maybe it was an interest and a joy in working with people. Sometimes it was just their capacity for being so alive that made you more alive to be with them. Yet now, a good many years later, I have the feeling that more than just a few of them are spending their lives at work in which none of these gifts is being used. This is the sadness of the game...”

Matt Lamb could have been one of those people. Until 1987, Matt owned and ran his own funeral home in Chicago. But that year, a doctor told Matt that he had a fatal disease. So he closed up the funeral home and pursued his true passion, painting.

Soon, Matt's art drew national attention. He became quite successful. Only after Matt had found success in his dream career did doctors discover that they had misdiagnosed him. He wasn't going to die after all.

A misdiagnosis may have saved him from a life of meaninglessness. Not that owning one's own small business is in any way unworthy, but it simply was not Matt's true passion. In his heart, he wanted to paint, and he would never be truly happy until he pursued that dream, wherever it finally led him.

What does it take to move us to follow our passions? Must we face a crisis before we step off the safe, known path onto the unknown trail of adventure we've dreamed of following all our lives?

Singer Joan Baez reminds us: “You don't get to choose how you're going to die. Or when. You can only decide how you're going to live”. That decision is too important to put off another day. [End quoting]

Fear is probably the biggest reason that we don't change to doing what we love for a living, rather than what we do to make money. Yet, the only thing to fear is “fear itself”. Easy to say? Yes, but we pay dearly for allowing it to control our lives.

FOR FRANKIE: DIALYSIS TREATMENTS HAD TAKEN SUCH A TOLL THAT THIS GRANDAD WAS READY TO GIVE UP

From GUIDEPOSTS, June 2001, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

Now Available!

The SECOND full year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM

Like the first CD-ROM, Volume 2 has the second full year of The SPECTRUM newspaper archived in a searchable format on the CD. All papers are stored in both PDF format and HTML with easy-to-use web browser interface. Also on the CD are four audio tracks of various chapters of WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Vol. II

PRICE: $45 (+S/H) Each

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

TIME TRAVEL: A HOW-TO INSIDERS GUIDE

Visit the past and future with safe and proven methods. We have long been taught that time travel is impossible and the work of science fiction, but during the past several decades secret agencies with the U.S. military have successfully been crossing the barriers of space and time. Here is the shattering evidence that we are being visited by "time surfers" from the future, and that we too can journey forward and backwards in time.

About The Author: Commander X is formerly of military intelligence, having worked on several classified projects. Tim Swartz is Emmy award-winning journalist.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Guideposts is an inter-faith, "positive thinking" ministry with a prayer group that meets every Monday morning at 9:45 a.m. Send requests to: Guideposts Associates, Ginger Vandemeer, Prayer Fellowship, 39 Seminary Hill Road, Carmel, NY 10512, or call 1-800-431-2344 and ask for Ginger.

By Cliff Sistare, York, South Carolina

Since he was born, my grandson Frankie has been the light of my life. While his mother—my stepdaughter, Jeannie—and my wife, Deb, went to work each day, I stayed home and looked after Frankie. Though I sometimes suffered fatigue from the chronic kidney problems that had forced me to quit my job as a sales rep, Frankie kept me on my toes. He was my best medicine.

To Frankie, I was Paw-Paw. We played ball in the backyard and went on long walks in the woods. "What's that tree?" he would ask. "What bird is that?" "Why do squirrels have such big tails?" But Frankie's favorite way to explore was riding with me on our tractor. He'd sit on my lap as I drove us to the old country store. There, the other old-timers and I would sit in the back room with our coffee and tell tall tales. Frankie was the best audience any storyteller could want. "Was the fish as big as me?" he'd ask. Or, "Weren't you scared flying the plane all by yourself?"

As Frankie got older, I'd pick him up after school and help him with his homework. Afterward, we'd go exploring, just Frankie and me, out in the sunshine. Frankie had a song on his lips when he got up in the morning and a prayer on them when he went to sleep at night. I promised myself I'd always be there for him.

Then, in 1996, my health problems caught up with me. I'd been born with only one kidney and it had stopped functioning. I was put on a list for a transplant and started home dialysis treatments. I showed three-year-old Frankie all my equipment so he wouldn't be afraid. "Nothing's going to change" I assured him. "Your Paw-Paw just needs to take things a little easier for a while."

But my doctor soon told me I'd have to start regular hemodialysis treatments at a clinic to properly cleanse my system. I began driving to a clinic 30 miles from home for treatments every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. I'd be at the clinic by 5 a.m., and a nurse would hook me up to the machine that slowly took out all of my blood, filtered it, and then put it back into my body.

I'd try to nap, but often terrible cramps would keep me awake during the four-hour ordeal. Sometimes, I couldn't block out the sounds of fellow patients moaning and begging to be taken off the machine. I dreaded going into the clinic, wondering who would be missing that day—the latest one whose treatment didn't work.

The tractor rides and trips to the store came to an end. "Paw-Paw, let's go outside" Frankie would ask after school. "No, Frankie, you run along. Paw-Paw's tired." Paw-Paw was always tired. Soon, I asked a friend to start picking Frankie up from school for me, and as I became too weak to get around without a walker, she started baby-sitting him until his mother came home from work.

It was all I could do to make it to church each Sunday. Other than that and dialysis, I stayed in my recliner staring out the window or watching television. I felt angry at life in general. "Is this all I have to look forward to?" I wondered. "Day after day spent watching all those people at the clinic getting sicker and sicker?"

the neighborhood lights. On Christmas morning, I watched from my recliner as Frankie opened his presents—a fire truck, action figures, and a baseball glove. "Paw-Paw, let's go play catch."

"I'm not up to it, Frankie."

"Maybe you need to eat more. I'll get Mommy's cookies."

"No, buddy. I'm not hungry. Why don't you bring the glove to school when you go back?" I hated to disappoint Frankie, but I had a dialysis treatment the next day.

I greeted the new year with a prayer: "Lord, please bring an end to my suffering."

Deb and Jeannie returned to work, and Frankie went back to school. About a week after the holidays, Jeannie told me she'd been called into a conference with Frankie's teacher. "His teacher said she asked each child in his class if they had a good Christmas. When she got to Frankie, he said 'No, my Paw-Paw is sick.' Then his teacher said she hoped his Paw-Paw would have a better Christmas next year. And Frankie said, 'No, my Paw-Paw will be with Jesus by then. He's my best friend and I'll miss him.'"

I sat there stunned. Then the tears started to fill my eyes faster than I could blink them back. I'd been so absorbed by my illness, I hadn't thought about its impact on the boy. I'd told myself I was accepting the inevitable, but maybe I was just giving up. "Instead of telling the Lord I am ready to meet him, maybe I should be asking His help to go on." Sitting there in my recliner, I prayed silently "Give me strength. For Frankie."

When Frankie came home that afternoon, I reached out my arms to him. He scrambled onto my lap. I didn't mention what his mother had told me, just held him for a long time. Then I said, "Frankie, with your help, I'm going to get better and we'll be able to do things together again real soon." He hugged me tighter.

I asked the woman who picked up Frankie to start bringing him directly home again after school. The next day Frankie said "Paw-Paw, come outside."

"Not today, Frankie."

"Paw-Paw, you promised you'd try."

I looked at him. "Well, I reckon I did."

He came over and helped me get up from my chair. I grabbed my walker, telling myself "Do it for the boy." Outside, I leaned on my walker and threw the ball to Frankie. He caught it and zipped it back. I kept throwing, Frankie calling out "Did you see that catch, Paw-Paw?"

I made myself go out each day. Gradually, I found I looked forward again to the sunshine and fresh air with him. One day I noticed I hadn't even thought to bring my walker out with me.

I told my doctor I wanted to try home dialysis again. This time, it worked better because I'd lost weight. Each night, Frankie got out my fluid bags and watched me hook myself up to the machine. Many nights, we'd sit and watch TV together as I took my treatment. Then, during the day, I was free to play with him. We played basketball. I taught him

I became so cranky and withdrawn Frankie barely even tried to get me to play with him anymore. I spoke to Deb and Jeannie about funeral arrangements. I thought it would be easier if they knew what was coming. I went over what my life insurance would pay for and what bills needed to be taken care of each month. I was ready to join the Lord.

As Christmas 1997 drew near, I did not go with my family to shop or see how to ride a bike, jogging beside him as he rode. We even climbed aboard the tractor and went to the country store to see our old friends again.

Frankie got to spend another Christmas with his Paw-Paw. And another. Then, this past December, I finally got a kidney transplant. I'm back to driving and doing almost everything else I used to do. My doctor says I can even go back to work soon if I want to. Whatever my future holds, I intend to make the most of it. In the meantime, I concentrate on taking care of Frankie. And he still takes care of me, like the very best medicine.

[End quoting]

It's always amazing to hear about how miracles can happen when we stop feeling sorry for ourselves and focus on helping others. At the very least, we won't later regret how we spent our God-given time and money!

BEAUTY IS IN THE REASONING OF A SMALL CHILD

From the INTERNET, <illusions@beyond-the-illusion.com>, 11/3/01: [quoting]

A farmer had some puppies he needed to sell. He painted a sign advertising the pups and set about nailing it to a post on the edge of his yard. As he was driving the last nail into the post, he felt a tug on his overalls. He looked down into the eyes of a little boy.

"Mister," he said, "I want to buy one of your puppies."

"Well," said the farmer, as he rubbed the sweat off the back of his neck, "these puppies come from fine parents and cost a good deal of money". The boy dropped his head for a moment. Then reaching deep into his pocket, he pulled out a handful of change and held it up to the farmer.

"I've got thirty-nine cents. Is that enough to take a look?"

"Sure," said the farmer. And with that he let out a whistle. "Here, Dolly!" he called.

Out from the doghouse and down the ramp ran Dolly followed by four little balls of fur.

The little boy pressed his face against the chain-link fence. His eyes danced with delight. As the dogs made their way to the fence, the little boy noticed something else stirring inside the doghouse. Slowly another little ball appeared; this one noticeably smaller. Down the ramp it slid.

Then in a somewhat awkward manner the little pup began hobbling toward the others, doing its best to catch up...

"I want that one" the little boy said, pointing to the runt. The farmer knelt down at the boy's side and said: "Son, you don't want that puppy. He will never be able to run and play with you like these other dogs would."

With that the little boy stepped back from the fence, reached down, and began rolling up one leg of his trousers. In doing so, he revealed a steel brace running down both sides of his leg attaching itself to a specially made shoe.

Looking back up at the farmer, he said, "You see, sir, I don't run too well myself, and he will need someone who understands."

The world is full of people who need someone who understands. [End quoting]

Children and pets are often our greatest teachers of the important lessons in life, don't you think?

THE SMOKEY GOD AND OTHER INNER EARTH MYSTERIES

BY TIM BECKLEY

Half of the book consists of a reprint of the classic SMOKY GODS written by a Swedish fisherman who claims he found his way inside the Earth and had an amazing encounter with a race of super-wise giants who have lived inside the Earth since ancient times. Book also contains evidence that at least some UFOs may come from inside Earth and are piloted by a race of super-beings who have survived, largely unknown to the surface world. Includes interview with an inner Earth inhabitant from a city beneath Mt Shasta.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$12.50(+S/H)

The War Against Terrorism Is A Fraud

Editor's note: The following bold and unsettling essay is what TRUE journalism SHOULD be. While this author's analysis lacks an awareness of the New World Order gang and their hidden, diabolical agenda driving the more visible, mercenary pursuits mentioned herein, at least this seasoned journalist honestly and bluntly criticizes the obvious immoralities he CAN see. John Pilger is the former Chief Foreign Correspondent for the highly respected Mirror newspaper in the United Kingdom, with a circulation over two million.

Fortunately we were able to retrieve this document via a roundabout backup method. It had disappeared from the Mirror's Internet website rather quickly after being posted thereon as part of displaying that day's edition of the Mirror. Gee—wonder why it "got lost" from their website!?!

10/28/01 JOHN PILGER
(www.johnpilger.com)

The war against terrorism is a fraud. After three weeks' bombing, not a single terrorist implicated in the attacks on America has been caught or killed in Afghanistan.

Instead, one of the poorest, most stricken nations has been terrorised by the most powerful—to the point where American pilots have run out of dubious "military" targets and are now destroying mud houses, a hospital, Red Cross warehouses, lorries carrying refugees.

Unlike the relentless pictures from New York, we are seeing almost nothing of this. Tony Blair has yet to tell us what the violent death of children—seven in one family—has to do with Osama bin Laden.

And why are cluster bombs being used? The British public should know about these bombs, which the RAF also uses. They spray hundreds of bomblets that have only one purpose: to kill and maim people. Those that do not explode, lie on the ground like landmines, waiting for people to step on them.

If ever a weapon was designed specifically for acts of terrorism, this is it.

I have seen the victims of American cluster weapons in other countries, such as the Laotian toddler who picked one up and had her right leg and face blown off. Be assured this is now happening in Afghanistan, in your name.

None of those directly involved in the September 11 atrocity was Afghani. Most were Saudis, who apparently did their planning and training in Germany and the United States. The camps which the Taliban allowed bin Laden to use were emptied weeks ago.

Moreover, the Taliban itself is a creation of the Americans and the British. In the 1980s, the tribal army that produced them was funded by the CIA and trained by the SAS to fight the Russians.

The hypocrisy does not stop there. When the Taliban took Kabul in 1996, Washington said nothing. Why? Because Taliban leaders were soon on their way to Houston, Texas, to be entertained by executives of the oil company, Unocal.

With secret U.S. government approval, the company offered them a generous cut of the profits of the oil and gas pumped through a pipeline that the Americans wanted to build from Soviet central Asia through Afghanistan.

A U.S. diplomat said: "The Taliban will probably develop like the Saudis did." He explained that Afghanistan would become an American oil colony; there would be huge profits for the West, no democracy, and the legal persecution of women. "We can live with that" he said.

Although the deal fell through, it remains an urgent priority of the administration of George W. Bush, which is steeped in the oil industry. Bush's concealed agenda is to exploit the oil and gas reserves in the Caspian basin, the greatest source of untapped fossil fuel on Earth, and enough, according to one estimate, to meet America's voracious energy needs for a generation. Only if the pipeline runs through Afghanistan can the Americans hope to control it.

So, not surprisingly, U.S. Secretary of State Colin Powell is now referring to "moderate" Taliban, who will join an American-sponsored "loose federation" to run Afghanistan. The "war on terrorism" is a cover for this: a means of achieving American strategic aims that lie behind the flag-waving façade of great power.

The Royal Marines, who will do the real dirty work, will be little more than mercenaries for Washington's imperial ambitions, not to mention the extraordinary pretensions of Blair himself. Having made Britain a target for terrorism with his bellicose "shoulder to shoulder with Bush" nonsense, he is now prepared to send troops to a battlefield where the goals are so uncertain that even the Chief of the Defence Staff says the conflict "could last 50 years".

The irresponsibility of this is breathtaking; the pressure on Pakistan alone could ignite an unprecedented crisis across the Indian sub-continent. Having reported many wars, I am always struck by the absurdity of effete politicians eager to wave farewell to young soldiers, but who themselves would not say "boo" to a Taliban goose.

In the days of gunboats, our imperial leaders covered their violence in the "morality" of their actions. Blair is no different. Like them, his selective moralising omits the most basic truth. Nothing justified the killing of innocent people in America on September 11, and nothing justifies the killing of innocent people anywhere else.

By killing innocents in Afghanistan, Blair and Bush stoop to the level of the criminal outrage in New York. Once you cluster bomb, "mistakes" and "blunders" are a pretence. Murder is murder, regardless of whether you crash a plane into a building, or order and collude with it from the Oval Office and Downing Street.

If Blair was really opposed to all forms of terrorism, he would get Britain out of the arms trade. On the day of the twin towers attack, an "arms fair"—selling weapons of terror (like cluster bombs and missiles) to assorted tyrants and human rights abusers—opened in London's Docklands with the full backing of the Blair government. Britain's biggest arms customer is the medieval Saudi regime, which beheads heretics and spawned the religious fanaticism of the Taliban.

If he really wanted to demonstrate "the moral fibre of Britain", Blair would do everything in his power to lift the threat of violence in those parts of the world where there is great and justifiable grievance and anger. He would do more than make gestures; he would demand that Israel ends its illegal occupation of Palestine and withdraw to its borders prior to the 1967 war, as ordered by the Security Council, of which Britain is a permanent member.

He would call for an end to the genocidal blockade which the UN—in reality, America and Britain—has imposed on the suffering people of Iraq for more than a decade, causing the deaths of half a million children under the age of five.

That's more deaths of infants every month than the number killed in the World Trade Center.

There are signs that Washington is about to extend its current "war" to Iraq; yet unknown to most of us, almost every day RAF and American aircraft already bomb Iraq. There are no headlines. There is nothing on the TV news. This terror is the longest-running Anglo-American bombing campaign since World War Two.

[Editor's note: Go back and re-read, in the last issue of The SPECTRUM, what Eric Phelps, author of the blockbuster Vatican Assassins about longtime Jesuit world control, had to say about WHY the Afghan war is likely to move over into the Middle East—to return a particular favor and accomplish an important agenda item. And sure enough—those of you who have been monitoring the media propaganda have noticed, over the last few weeks, the methodical and gradually increasing linkages of Iraq and Saddam Hussein to the Afghan war. Pretty soon the two arenas will have blurred together in the conditioned minds of the public.]

The Wall Street Journal reported that the U.S. and Britain faced a "dilemma" in Iraq, because "few targets remain". "We're down to the last outhouse" said a U.S. official. That was two years ago, and they're still bombing. The cost to the British taxpayer? £800 million so far.

According to an internal U.N. report, covering a five-month period, 41 percent of the casualties are civilians. In northern Iraq, I met a woman whose husband and four children were among the deaths listed in the report. He was a shepherd who was tending his sheep with his elderly father and his children when two planes attacked them, each making a sweep. It was an open valley; there were no military targets nearby.

"I want to see the pilot who did this" said the widow at the graveside of her entire family. For them, there was no service in St. Paul's Cathedral with the Queen in attendance; no rock concert with Paul McCartney.

The tragedy of the Iraqis, and the Palestinians, and the Afghans is a truth that is the very opposite of their caricatures in much of the Western media.

Far from being the terrorists of the world, the overwhelming majority of the Islamic peoples of the Middle East and south Asia have been its victims—victims largely of the West's exploitation of precious natural resources in or near their countries.

There is no war on terrorism. If there was, the Royal Marines and the SAS would be storming the beaches of Florida, where more CIA-funded terrorists, ex-Latin American dictators and torturers, are given refuge than anywhere on Earth.

There is, however, a continuing war of the powerful against the powerless, with new excuses, new hidden agendas, new lies. Before another child dies violently, or quietly from starvation, before new fanatics are created in both the east and the west, it is time for the people of Britain to make their voices heard and to stop this fraudulent war—and to demand the kind of bold, imaginative, non-violent initiatives that require real political courage.

The other day, the parents of Greg Rodriguez, a young man who died in the World Trade Center, said this: "We read enough of the news to sense that our government is heading in the direction of violent revenge, with the prospect of sons, daughters, parents, friends in distant lands dying, suffering, and nursing further grievances against us.

"It is not the way to go...not in our son's name."

The irresponsibility of this conflict is breathtaking. It is not about terrorism. As Blair and Bush stoop to the level of the criminal outrage in New York, British forces are little more than mercenaries for the hidden agenda of U.S. imperial ambitions. △

The WORST - CASE SCENARIO Survival Handbook

By Joshua Piven & David Borgenicht

The indispensable, compact guide for surviving life's sudden turns for the worse. Survival experts provide illustrated, step-by-step instructions on what you need to know FAST for unusual or unexpected situations such as:

See next-to-last page for ordering or call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866; soft cover $12 (+S/H)

How to:

- Fend off a Shark
 - Take a Punch
 - Deliver a Baby in a Taxicab
 - Survive a Poisonous Snake Attack
 - Jump from a Moving Car
 - Identify a Bomb
 - Escape from Killer Bees
 - Survive If Your Parachute Fails to Open
- ...and dozens of other dire situations.

The “Trump Card” Of Divine Knowing

11/3/01 SOLTEC

Good afternoon, my friend. It is I, Ceres Anthonious “Toniose” Soltec, come in the One Light of Creator God. Be still and be at peace.

Many have come to trust the work you ones are doing. There are great strides being made with respect to the overall awareness of those who take these messages to heart and apply them in their daily lives. Please allow for the unfolding of events to continue at their natural pace.

It is wise to be as fluid as possible with respect to the changing conditions on your world. Become too rigid, and you become like the stone in the river who’s experience is one of constant harshness and pounding. Become too anxious for change, and you will become overwhelmed by fatigue as you constantly try to second guess the infinite variables of future happenings.

Be allowing for change and be flexible in thought and reasoning. Challenges are those experiences of unanticipated twists and turns that cause a need within to tap creative ingenuity. Trying to find answers to problems that may never exist, in an effort to be prepared for whatever may come, will prove to be exhausting. And sticking one’s head in the sand, in an effort to hold to the past, is likewise counterproductive. Balanced movement and growth are the only internally satisfying choices to be had.

Each day you, as individuals, have the ability to make choices and decisions that will modify your experience, as well as the experience of those around you. What you choose to do or not do, allow or not allow, is for the most part entirely up to you. Yes, you each have to live with the past choices and decisions you have made, and thus learn from the resulting outcomes and consequences. However, you do not need to continue along the same line of reasoning over and over again.

Your world is quickly changing. The freedoms you once took for granted are being systematically stripped away. You will find that, in the coming months and years, the definition of “terrorist-like” activities will become like an all encompassing blanket, open to a very subjective interpretation. Things once considered “patriotic” will be viewed as a threat to your governments, for the evolving one-world dictatorship will not allow the “common” person the right to organize in a manner that might threaten or undermine the fanatical control so rigorously sought after and coveted by your world’s elite class.

These would-be controllers are doing everything they can think of to keep the masses under their control and for the most part in a state of pliable ignorance so that they will be securely corralled and in their cages before they ever realize what has taken place.

However, if you look closely at the history of your “great” civilizations, you will see that the idea of a dictatorial rule ALWAYS fails. This is due to the unquenchable desire for freedom of creative expression that is innate within ALL ones due to their “Spark-of-Life” connection to Creator Source.

This innate desire to express one’s own uniqueness and explore one’s own creativity cannot be suppressed through any outward means. The infinite variations and combinations of unique ideas and thoughts cannot possibly be anticipated by any group of social scientists, mathematicians, or philosophers. To even consider that such is possible shows complete ignorance of the TRUE nature of the soul’s existence and journey, let alone revealing the outrageous arrogance needed to adopt such an assumption in the first place.

Yes, you can fool all of the people some of the time, and some of them all of the time—but NEVER can you fool all of them all of the time! The latest atrocities from these arrogant illusionists has kept them quite busy trying to contain all of the leaks and holes they never anticipated.

Though they were sure there would be none too big for them to handle, they are quickly finding that their assumptions left out a very basic understanding of the existence of the “Divine Aspect” of Knowing that is not only possible, but is being deliberately applied by more and more ones every day.

What is this Divine Aspect of Knowing of which I speak? It is the intuitive nature of the soul, the Higher Awarenesses available to all ones. These Awarenesses are like anything else in the physical experience in that the more you use them the more skilled you become. When you were young, you were encouraged to stand on your legs and walk. At first you fell down, but over time you learned to balance your weight, and eventually you were able to navigate across the room from one side to the other.

Your nonphysical senses and awarenesses follow this same sort of trial-and-error learning curve. You must actively seek to improve your perceptual awarenesses in order for you to learn to interpret and understand them. The “natural” psychic is most often the one who has come into the physical world to show to you ones what IS possible, so that you can have an example to follow.

You each have these abilities, and there are ones who understand the very real threat that these abilities pose. The single biggest threat that these Higher Awarenesses pose is that you will be able to instantly recognize when ones are lying to you—especially when the intent is to manipulate and control you for their own selfish purposes.

It is for this very reason that psychotropic drugs are being prescribed at an ever increasing rate, and the toxic chemicals such as chlorine and fluoride are continually being added to the water supply of large cities. Do you really think the politicians care about the state of your (or your children’s) tooth enamel? Putting these chemical concoctions in your water supply causes brain damage and impaired mental functioning, thus creating a much more pliable and docile public.

The average person of the world is not only being viewed as inferior by the elite classes of the world, but are routinely being treated more as cattle than humans. Such humans are a commodity that can be used and manipulated to fight wars, fill the servant needs of the elite, and in general fulfill any perverted desire deemed appropriate by the controlling class.

However, the real power to control the human “herd” comes from giving them the BELIEF that they are free, the BELIEF that they are being treated fairly, the BELIEF that they are important, and that their vote counts.

Do you ones see what all these things have in common? Belief.

What is a belief? Who decides whether or not a belief is true? What is the power that holds the belief in place?

Beliefs are simply mental ideologies reinforced with an emotional perception of confidence and understanding that may or may not be accurate, but are accepted by the individual holding same as being accurate or true.

In short, if you can control the beliefs of a person, you can predict—and thus control—their actions. This is a very fundamental aspect of mind control. If you can gain confidence or intimidation through an outward show of strength, intelligence, or propaganda, you can and will cause ones to “choose” to follow you or your will.

It was once believed that the Earth was flat, and to suggest otherwise would lead to severe persecution, for it would be proving that the Church was in error in one aspect of its teachings, and therefore would mean that all aspects of its teachings would then become questioned. It was through brute-force fear and intimidation that the Church caused science to be explored underground. Many a would-be great thinker was murdered in order to protect the illusion of the “elect few” who were not willing to be exposed as the manipulative frauds that they were.

Not much has changed in your world these days. In a general manner, history is once again repeating these same insidious techniques of suppression of the masses for the sake of the “select few”. Necessary general beliefs to control the masses are constantly being promoted and reinforced like a relentless advertising campaign—pounding away, day after day, year after year.

Success is one idea constantly being sold to you ones. Success, by modern standards, is defined as an excess of material wealth. Anything less is viewed as weakness or inferiority.

However, TRUE success can only be measured in terms of what you take with you when you transition from the physical plane. Just what is it that you take with you when you leave? Nothing less than the value of growth, knowledge, and the upward shift in awareness the experience of your physical journey itself provides to you.

The physical journey is a series of choices and decisions. You will each, upon leaving the physical body, be drawn to reflect back upon your experiences. You will discern where you made meaningful contributions to your fellow man and where you had opportunity to assist others but chose not to. You will also recognize the times where you took deliberate actions to hurt another, or may have taken advantage of another’s weakness or ignorance for your own personal gain.

For some, this is quite a joyous experience; for others, they realize they created an unbalanced situation that warrants further cycles of interaction with those who are at a similar level of practical application of knowledge and awareness. In short, you will go back and repeat that grade or level of schooling.

Many of those who are predisposed to the “elitist” perception of self have been stuck in the same rut of repeating the same errors for many thousands of lifetimes. This stubbornness will eventually fade, but, in the meantime, these ones provide you, and ones like you, with GREAT opportunities to work and participate in environments that thoroughly challenge your creative ingenuity—as you constantly endeavor to maintain inner balance and peace while the world around you seems to be “hell bent” on insane carnage and chaos.

When you feel you are at your wits’ end, and all seems hopeless, please take a moment to remind yourself that you are merely an actor in a play, and though you may have momentarily forgotten your lines, there is a much grander family out in the audience, watching, who understands the pressure you are under to “perform” your part, and that when you get off the stage, you will be returning to this grand family that is full of Love, Compassion, and Understanding.

Also remember that you cannot really get your part wrong, for there will always be the next grand play, and eventually you will become the polished actor who not only gets your own lines right, but knows how to improvise when others forget their lines, so as to carry the cast and crew through to the end if need be.

You are each cherished for your uniqueness and for the many contributions you naturally share with your fellow travelers. May you each endeavor to express your uniqueness in the most creative way you can imagine.

I am Ceres Anthonious “Toniose” Soltec, along with other Lighted Wayshowers, come in The One Light of Creator Source that connects all Life and Consciousness together in Wholeness and Knowing.

Blessings and Peace! Salu.

Preparing For Biological And Chemical Terrorism: A Practical Guide To Antibiotics And Their Usage For Survival

Editor's note: Plainly speaking, the following is an educational gift to the public—and potential life saver—from a longtime crusader for Truth and frequent contributor to the pages of The SPECTRUM.

While most of us would rather stay away from antibiotics such as Dr. Horowitz describes below, there is no way of predicting—given what the crooks in high places are planning so as to coerce us into accepting their New World Order—if we might get caught in some emergency wherein the “lesser of two evils” is a conventional antibiotic route. In that case, being aware of the range of such medical options is essential to making an informed decision.

While it may not seem so from the scholarly tone of the following information, Dr. Horowitz is well aware of (and a strong promoter of) alternative therapies for assisting our God-given immune systems to work its miracle within our bodies. So keep in mind such aids as good nutrition, colloidal silver and gold, Bob Beck's electrical pulse boxes (p.10), and the importance of a positive attitude—joy, appreciation, and laughter—for keeping one's frequency raised above that where the bugs can affect you. BUT—situations can arise wherein what he shares below may well make a difference between life or death, especially for loved ones who may not yet accept alternative healing routes and are in immediate medical danger.

10/1/01 DR. LEN HOROWITZ

Tetrahedron Publishing Group
206 North 4th Avenue, Suite 147
Sandpoint, ID 83864

Website: www.tetrahedron.org
Toll free order line: 888-508-4787
Office telephone: 208-265-2575
Fax: 208-265-2775

E-mail: tetra@tetrahedron.org

Disclaimer And Background

This information is for educational purposes only. It is intended to help in the event of biological and chemical weapons attacks on civilian populations. It is not provided in order to diagnose or treat any disease, illness, or injury of the body, mind, or spirit.

The author, publisher, and distributors of this work accept no responsibility for people using or misusing the potentially life-saving information in this text.

Individuals suffering from any disease, illness, or injury should, as Hippocrates prescribed, “learn to derive benefit from the illness”. In this sense, in the context of “America's New War” on terrorism, diagnosing the root causes of contemporary threats best derives “benefit”. That is, comprehend the evil bringing on such illness and distress. The macroscopic—political, social, moral, and personal forces, beside the microscopic agents, are best identified to provide appropriate treatments.

The antibiotic applications against germ warfare discussed herein are not well-established medical practices.

They are best considered speculative, but reasonable, given the urgent and widespread risks of biological attack for which there is no precedent, nor adequate scientific research. Discussions herein are intended to provide self-help strategies under emergency circumstances in which professional care is unavailable, as is anticipated following large-scale exposures of unprotected populations to lethal biologicals.

It must be stressed that the unsupervised lay use of antibiotics is dangerous for several reasons: (1) antibiotics may cause potentially fatal reactions (e.g., allergy, asthma, and death); (2) antibiotics can prompt greater growth, development, and spread of resistant pathogens such as fungi and Mycoplasma, prompting more severe or alternative infections; (3) antibiotic usage can make it more difficult for physicians to diagnose life-threatening infectious illnesses. Thus, self-medication is not advised under normal circumstances of medical personnel availability.

Furthermore, though certain antibiotics are customarily prescribed to kill certain strains of bacteria, germ warfare presents unique challenges. Biological weapons developers have routinely developed germ strains—such as anthrax, smallpox, influenza, Mycoplasma, Brucella, and more—that are antibiotic resistant. At the same time, vaccines and vaccine manufacturers have proven themselves to be highly untrustworthy.

Moreover, in the event of a biological attack, the initial benefits of antibiotic prophylaxis and treatment may be jeopardized by a second wave of infection of the same microbe, or secondary infections with other germs. These are expected due to subsequent disease transmission by infected insects, such as flies, fleas, and ticks, and immune compromised victims in which secondary infections are common.

Typically, bacteria are classified either “Gram-positive” or “Gram-negative” due to their structure and staining characteristics, which reflect their susceptibility to certain antibiotics. The Penicillin family of antibiotics has been effective against Gram-positive infections. Alternatively, the Tetracyclines have been used successfully to combat Gram-negative agents. These will be discussed in more detail later.

Near the beginning of a widespread biological attack, it may be extremely difficult to determine precisely the causative agent, and thereby select the proper antibiotic. This is due to: (1) the latency or slow growth period of the germ within exposed individuals, and (2) biological weapons specialists often mix microbes to be used in such a manner as to confuse diagnosis and delay effective treatment.

For instance, a consensus of authorities predicts inhalation anthrax is among the likeliest biological weapons to be used by terrorists. This is due to its relative ease of manufacture, durability of spores, and difficulty of delayed treatment. Anthrax is a Gram-positive rod-shaped Bacillus. To be more effective in killing large populations, authorities suggest that Gram-negative bacteria, such as Pasteurella tularensis, may accompany such attacks. This germ is likewise rod-shaped to confuse accurate diagnosis and delay time-critical treatment.

For the above reasons, a “combination therapy” may be indicated and most useful in saving lives following a biological weapons attack.

Weights And Measurements

Safe and effective antibiotic dosages depend on accurate weights and measurements. For this reason, the nearby chart Weights, Measures, And Conversions is provided for lay civilians under emergency situations.

Begin by placing a ceramic cup on a postal scale. Weigh it. Next, add the powder you wish to weigh to the desired amount. For instance, if the cup alone weighs four ounces, and you require one ounce of powdered antibiotic (where, according to the chart, one ounce equals approximately thirty (30) grams, that is, thirty 1,000 milligram [mg] doses), set (or tip) the scale at five ounces with the desired antibiotic.

The same method may be used for measuring liquid doses. However, one ounce of liquid antibiotic may weigh less than one ounce on a scale. For this reason it is wise to use a graduated measuring container, if possible, for measuring liquids.

Antibiotic Usage And Duration Of Treatment

Under normal circumstances, antibiotics are intended to be used for approximately one to two weeks. This duration is prescribed in order to kill more slowly growing germs, such as those initially in spore forms that require incubation for disease expression.

Emergency situations may require less careful treatment durations. This is particularly true if antibiotic shortages occur, as expected following a biological weapons attack. In this case, rationing may be necessary and helpful in saving

WEIGHTS, MEASURES AND CONVERSIONS

Solid Weights And Measures:

1 ounce (oz) of solid = nearly 30 grams (gm)
1 pound (lb) = 454 grams (gm)
1 kilogram (kg) = 2.2 pounds (lb)
1 gram (gm) = 1,000 milligrams (mg)
1 grain (gr) = 64.8 milligrams (mg)

Liquid Weights And Measures:

1 ounce (oz) of liquid = nearly 30 milliliters (ml)
1 pint = 473 ml (sometimes rounded up to 480 ml)
1 teaspoon (tsp) = 5 ml
1 tablespoon = 15 ml (that is, half of an ounce)
1 milliliter = approximately 20 drops of liquid
(common droppers held upright)

Antibiotic Conversions

400,000 units of penicillin = 250 milligrams (mg)

more lives. The shortest duration of antibiotic coverage recommended following a biological attack is from the onset of symptoms to at least 72 hours after the person’s symptoms completely disappear.

Ideally, antibiotic prophylaxis (for prevention of disease) should begin as soon as a biological weapons attack is confirmed for individuals at risk of exposure. In other words, it is best to leave risky environments in advance of possible exposures. Certainly, urban populations are at greatest risk for biological and chemical weapons attacks.

Common Allergic Reactions To Antibiotics

Again, under normal circumstances, individuals who are hypersensitive, or allergic, to antibiotics should avoid taking them. However, following a biological weapons attack, it may warrant the risk of allergic reaction, particularly if antihistamines (such as Benadryl) are available, rather than contracting the infectious disease, which is often more life-threatening. In this case, individuals who develop symptoms of allergy, including skin rashes, should ideally be under the care of a physician or hospital staff. Careful monitoring of even seemingly benign skin rashes is advised because of more urgent conditions that may result from simple allergic reactions.

Individuals with known allergies to specific antibiotics should, obviously, try to avoid taking these antibiotics. Alternative antibiotics, in this case, should be sought and used. For example, people allergic to penicillin may be able to effectively substitute erythromycin.

As detailed below, there are several types of penicillin, all of which may cause severe allergies and fatal reactions. Penicillin-G and penicillin-V have been known to cause more severe reactions than ampicillin. Similarly, penicillin injections have been known to cause more severe reactions than similar doses taken orally.

Approximately ten percent of people allergic to penicillin are also allergic to the cephalosporin antibiotics. The good news is that the incidence of deadly reactions to the entire class of cephalosporin antibiotics is very low.

In some liquid penicillins, manufacturers mix the anesthetic procaine (i.e., Novocain) into their formulas. Therefore, persons allergic to this commonly used dental anesthetic should avoid taking liquid penicillin suspensions.

The antibiotics suggested herein for use in case of bioterrorism or biowarfare do not contain sulfur or “sulfa” drugs, to which many people are allergic.

Preventive Foresight Regarding Pharmaceutical Supplies

The likeliest source of breaking news concerning a biological or chemical attack, launched by terrorists or other foes, is the mainstream media. By the time you hear such reports, it is likely that hospital emergency rooms and doctor’s offices will be full of ailing victims.

It typically takes a day or longer for symptoms of infectious diseases to manifest. The first signs and symptoms of a covert attack include inexplicable headaches and flu-like symptoms.

Such is the case with anthrax. The first indication of an anthrax attack, providing the strain had not been modified, is cattle becoming sick and dying. This can happen in a matter of hours. Moreover, this is an indication to begin antibiotic prophylaxis.

Under such trying circumstances, you can expect there to be tremendous demand for medical supplies and pharmaceuticals in the wake of a terrorist attack. It is, therefore, highly advisable to consider beforehand what medical supplies might be essential for your survival and the protection of your loved ones.

Obviously, people on a regimen of prescription drugs should stock, perhaps, a three-month supply in a cool, dark, and dry closet or basement.

Antibiotics can be purchased in bulk from pharmacists or livestock and veterinarian supply stores.

In case you need to leave your home or workplace in an emergency, try to plan, in advance, transporting your antibiotics and other medicinal requirements with you. Maintain access to standard emergency kits, particularly during times of possible trouble. Keeping one in your car is a good idea, providing the car doesn’t overheat.

Given these constraints, diabetics, on the move in an emergency, should try to keep their insulin at room temperature until they are resettled. Above 80 degrees and while freezing, insulin will begin to degrade.

In general, when traveling or storing antibiotics and medications in your car, be aware of extreme temperatures. Extreme heat and cold often inactivate, like insulin, many medicines.

A Simplified Guide To Antibiotics And Their Uses

PENICILLINS:

The original penicillin-G (Pen-G), along with the more common penicillin-V (Pen-V), are used to fight gram-positive bacteria, such as anthrax. Pentids, the brand name for penicillin-G, come in 400 and 800 mg pills. Brand names for penicillin-V include V-Cillin-K and Pen-Vee-K. The basic Pen-G may be purchased from farm and veterinary stores for far less expense than through pharmacies, though make sure you only buy the refrigerated brand. The active ingredients in the unrefrigerated variety are far lower and potentially inadequate.

Pen-G must be taken on an empty stomach. This is not as critical for Pen-V. A dose of 250 mg (i.e., 400,000 units), for people weighing 50 pounds or more, is taken four times daily. A rule of thumb for children weighing less than 50 pounds, the dosage should be reduced by 20% for every 10 pounds of less body weight.

These penicillins are more likely to cause allergic reactions, and fatalities, than synthetic penicillins such as ampicillin. Some of the allergic reactions are caused by procaine (Novocain) that is added in some Pen-G formulas.

AMPICILLIN:

Brand names of this synthetic penicillin include Principen, Omnipen, Polycillin, and Totacillin. These are also effective against gram-positive microbes such as anthrax.

Dosages of ampicillin are the same as prescribed earlier for penicillin. This antibiotic should be taken, ideally, on an empty stomach.

Strains of anthrax that resist penicillin may be more susceptible to destruction by ampicillin. Also, ampicillin may be more helpful than penicillin for killing a broader spectrum of infections.

CEPHALOSPORINS:

These are also effective against anthrax. One gram of Cephalexin taken every six hours is recommended. Brand names for this are Keflex, Keflet, and Keftab. One gram of the related Cefadroxil, brand named Duricef, should be taken every twelve hours.

ERYTHROMYCIN

(Macrolide family of antibiotics):

Erythromycin and its relatives provide a broader spectrum of coverage than penicillins. Brand names of E r y t h r o m y c i n include Erythrocin, Eryc, EES, Ery-Tab, PCE, Ilosone, and E-Mycin. Other related antibiotics, such as clarithromycin (Biaxin) and azithromycin (Z-pak or Zithromax) may also be effective. A liquid form of erythromycin, called Gallimycin, is available for injection. The oral dose of this injectable product is the same.

Taken on an empty stomach, this may be used to treat more difficult cases of anthrax. If upset stomach occurs, it should be consumed with a bit of food. Avoid eating citrus fruits or products, which deactivate these antibiotics during digestion. Note: Fatal heart attacks may result from taking these antibiotics in combination with Seldane (terfenadine), Hismanal, or Seldane-D.

For individuals weighing 150 pounds or more, a 500 mg dose is recommended. People weighing less should reduce their dosage proportionately.

AMINOGLYCOSIDES:

These antibiotics that are effective against anthrax, tularemia, and the bubonic plague, include: Streptomycin, Gentamycin, and Neomycin. They can all be extremely toxic. Primary organs at risk for destruction by the aminoglycosides include the kidneys and inner ears.

Each of the aminoglycosides must be injected, and cannot be taken orally. The oral dosage forms of these antibiotics are effective only against gastrointestinal (GI) tract infections of the stomach and intestines.

Gentamycin (Garacin) powder can be purchased in bulk. It cannot be absorbed when taken orally, but it can be effective against certain biologicals striking the GI tract, such as botulism.

Streptomycin can be taken two to four times daily, in one to four gram doses, equally spaced throughout the day. It can be used in combination with tetracycline until the person’s fever breaks. Then the tetracycline can be continued alone. Otherwise, streptomycin should be used consistently for a week to ten days.

BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS
The following chart presents the biological weapons most likely to be used during a terrorist attack, plus details concerning diagnosis and treatment:
Agent	Gram Staining	First Symptoms and Treatment
Anthrax	positive	Headache, fever, coughing, confusion, rash, joint and muscle pain. Tx: Tetracyclines, Pen G, ampicillin and erythromycin.
Botulism	positive	Weakness, blurred vision, difficulty in speaking and swallowing, dry mouth, nausea, vomiting, speaking weakness. Tx: Horse antitoxin.
Bubonic plague	negative	Fever, headache, abdominal distress, inability to sit or stand, swollen glands particularly in the groin. Tx: Hydration and Tetracycline.
Cholera	negative	Watery diarrhea, vomiting, abdominal cramping. Tx: Hydration and Tetracycline.
Dengue fever	parasite	Intense aching in head, muscles, and joints, and fever. Second bout is accompanied by a destructive rash. Tx: none but symptom management.
Ebola	virus	Headache, fever, malaise, cough, rash, and bleeding out. Tx: palliative.
Enterotoxin B	positive	Staphylococcus causes headache, nausea, fever, and weakness. Tx: Tetracycline, Doxycycline, or broad-spectrum antibiotics.
Encephalitis	virus	Fever and headache, meningeal irritation, swollen parotid glands like mumps, skin rash with some, seizures, brain dysfunction. Tx: palliative.
Smallpox	variola virus	Severe headache, high fever, skin rashes with vesicular and pustular stages of lesions. Death by secondary infections. Tx: palliative.
Tularemia	negative	Fever, malaise, headache, liver swelling, ulcerating skin lesions, possible lung involvement with coughing. Tx: Streptomycin, Tetracycline and chloramphenicol.

Gentamycin is effective against tularemia and the plague. It should be injected intramuscularly or intravenously every eight hours in emergency measures of 1.7 mg per kilogram body weight. As soon as symptoms of disease disappear, the dose should be reduced to 1.0 mg per kilogram of body weight for the remaining 7-10 day period.

This antibiotic is available in bulk through veterinary stores. It is likely that this less expensive product may be successfully used orally to defend against the plague or tularemia germs infecting the gut.

Neomycin, when given in doses of 500 mg, four times daily, may be helpful against anthrax, plague, and tularemia, though it has not been traditionally prescribed for these. Use this only if the other aminoglycoside antibiotics are unavailable.

FLUOROQUINOLONES:
In daily doses of 30 mg per kg of body weight (i.e., 65 mg per pound), Ciproflavoxin (Cipro) is effective against tularemia and anthrax. The daily dose should be divided into four doses taken every six hours for two weeks. Following the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001 on the Pentagon and World Trade Center, this extremely expensive drug has been in high demand as the FDA's antibiotic of choice against anthrax. Disturbing politics regarding this selection and its manufacturer—Bayer—I discuss elsewhere. [Editor's note: See that very revealing article at the end of this one.]

CHLORAMPHENICOL:
Effective against anthrax, tularemia, and plague, Chloramphenicol (Chloromycetin) has a relatively high rate of lethal side effects. Thus, persons allergic to safer antibiotics should only use it, or in the event other medications are unavailable. More expensive than other antibiotics, this injectable product can also be consumed orally and absorbed effectively into the bloodstream. Ideally taken on an empty stomach, it may be consumed with food to reduce stomach upsets.

Chloramphenicol has the same spectrum of activity as erythromycin. Thus, it should never be given with erythromycin unless under emergency conditions, at the first sign of biowarfare-induced illness. It may, however, be taken with Tetracycline for a broader spectrum of effectiveness. This combination may be wise if it is unclear which biological weapon is causing illness, and if rationing is not in effect.

The injectable form of chloramphenicol tastes awful! For people weighing 200 pounds or more, 2,500 mg doses are recommended.

TETRACYCLINES:
Tetracyclines (brand named Sumycin and Achromycin-V) are broad-spectrum antibiotics available from farm supply shops and veterinary stores in the form of oxytetracycline. These can be used effectively against most all strains of anthrax, plague, and tularemia.

Oxytetracycline comes in bulk powder form under the brand name Terramycin-343. It also comes in combination with livestock feed (Advance Calf Medic). This could be used in a pinch if other antibiotics were unavailable. There are 3 grams of active antibiotic in each pound of feed. A low dose could be provided by consuming almost 1.5 ounces; a high dose, twice that, could be measured and eaten.

Two newer classes of tetracycline are Doxycycline and Minocycline. Brand names for these tetracyclines include the Doxycyclines called Vibramycin, Vibra-tabs, Monodox, and Doryx; and the Minocyclines called Minocin.

Tetracycline is typically taken four times a day, doxycyclines once per day or twice per day when taken with Minocycline. The two newer cyclines can be taken with food, but not the older tetracycline. They, thus, tend to cause fewer stomach upsets. Doxycycline is typically less costly than traditional tetracycline, and Doxycycline and Minocycline provide a broader spectrum of antibiotic effectiveness than the old standard. Strains of biological weapons that may have been manufactured to resist tetracycline might be more susceptible to the newer cyclines.

As a rule of thumb, four 250 mg doses of tetracycline are prescribed daily; that is, one dose every six hours for your typical 100-pound person. For persons weighing less than 100 pounds, reduce this dose accordingly. For instance, if a 100-pound person receives 1,000 mg per day, then a 50-pound person would receive 500 mg per day, in four 125-mg doses every 6 hours. The Doxycycline dosage is typically 200 mg the first day, and 100 mg doses following, for up to ten days. The oxytetracycline (Terramycin) dose is the same as standard tetracycline. Another alternative tetracycline, called demeclocycline (Declomycin), may be substituted for standard tetracycline, employing the same dose schedule as well.

PRESERVING AND ADMINISTERING YOUR ANTIBIOTICS:

Most antibiotics and drugs can be preserved by refrigeration, so long as they are kept dry. If traveling through extreme temperatures, antibiotics should be encased in Styrofoam containers, at best, and efforts should be made to avoid heat or freezing cold.

Warning: No drug should be consumed beyond its expiration date, especially Tetracycline antibiotics. Severe reactions may result from this expired antibiotic. However, when faced with a life-or-death situation, as might be presented with biological warfare or bioterrorism, such chances might have to be taken.

Antibiotics are typically administered orally or by injection. However, if the patient is comatose, the oral route may be circumvented rectally by using a plastic oral syringe available in most drugstores. This should be inserted as deeply into the rectum as possible. Use a few drops of water, then larger amounts of cocoa butter, for dissolving the antibiotic. Cocoa butter is available in most drugstores in sticks that are melted in a jar placed in hot water. The butter is commonly used for suppositories and will hold the antibiotic for absorption better than water. Water may run out of the rectum and thereby precious antibiotic may be lost. So if water is all you have, use as little as possible to dissolve and inject the measured amount of powdered antibiotic. Antibiotic tablets can be crushed and powdered by placing them between two napkins on a hard surface and pounding them with another flat hard object or instrument. The absorption of active antibiotic is less, given the rectal route of administration. For this reason, the dosages should be increased to compensate.

MAINTAINING HEALTHY GUT FLORA AND IMMUNITY:

Three primary factors determine the outcome of a biological attack on any one individual: (1) the quantity of germs to which the person has been exposed, (2) the “pathogenicity” or power of the germs to cause disease, which depends on the unique strain, and (3) the “host resistance”. This depends on the vitality of the individual’s immune system.

Obviously, in the event of a biological or chemical attack, the first two factors are largely, if not entirely, beyond the control of individuals. It is upon this liability that terrorists act. But people can make a profound difference affecting the third factor—human immunity—by making a few simple choices. The first is maintaining a healthy gut flora.

According to scientific literature, the bacteria in the large and small intestine help digest foods, support nutrient assimilation from foods, and are critical in preventing infectious diseases for a number of reasons. For instance, Lactobacilli, commonly found in healthy guts, help prevent infections from eating foods contaminated with biologicals such as botulism.

CHEMICAL WEAPONS
The following chart presents the chemical weapons most likely to be used during a terrorist attack, and details concerning diagnosis and self aid:
Agent	Type	Smell	Symptoms and Self Aid
Tubun 'GA'	Nerve	Fruity	Tightness in chest. Difficulty breathing. Runny nose. Eyepain and blurred vision. Nausea, seating, salivation, elevated pulse, heartburn, vomiting, giddiness, muscle spasms, involuntary urination, paralysis and respiratory arrest. Tx: Wash off immediately and completely. Inject 2 mg atropine into thigh, followed by 4-gm shot of paralidoxine mesylate (oxime). If symptoms persist, give atropine again: two more 2-mg doses at 15-minute intervals. Apply emergency first-aid, including CPR for artificial respiration for approximately 2 hours if breathing stops. Atropine can cause serious side-effects and must not be used unless there is certainty that nerve gas has caused the poisoning.
Sarin 'GB'	Nerve	Little	Same as above.
Soman 'GD'	Nerve	Camphor	Same as above.
VX	Nerve	Unknown	Same as above.
Mustard	Blister	Garlic	Eye and skin irritant causes blistering of skin and lung damage. High risk of developing pneumonia. Symptoms delayed for up to 48 hours. Can be fatal. Tx: Wash off contamination immediately and completely with water. Later washes will cause worse pain. Use mydriatics, antibiotics, and local anesthetics to reduce pain. Treat blisters palliatively as burns. Bedrest.
Phosgene	Choking	?	Lung damage. Causes victim to drown in own mucous. Tx: Same as above.
"CN"	Incapacitating	Blossom	Eye and skin irritant. Tearing with breathing difficulty. Nausea and headache common. Tx: Codeine for cough and plenty of warmth, oxygen, and bedrest.
"CS"	Incapacitating	Pepper	Severe eye irritant. Causes coughing, tearing, flu-like symptoms, nausea, and breathing problems. Tx: Wash eyes thoroughly with warm soap and water. Breathe lots of fresh air. Bedrest.
"BZ"	Incapacitating	?	Skin flushes. Heart pounds irregularly with hastened pulse. Hallucination, giddiness, and maniacal behavior. Tx: Restrain victim. Quiet bedrest.

Healing Codes VIDEO Set (4-hours)

Could bioelectric technologies investigated during the Cold War provide the most advanced form of killing, enslaving, and coercing billions of unsuspecting people worldwide? More frightening: could infectious agents, including the “mad cow disease” protein “prion” crystal, have been engineered to effect a new insidious level of bio-spiritual warfare?

Dr. Len Horowitz investigates 2000 years of religious and political persecution and the latest technologies being used to enslave, coerce, and even kill billions of unsuspecting people.

This work returns the most precious spiritual knowledge, power, and “healing codes” to humanity. It offers new hope for the loving masses to survive the worldwide plagues, famines, and weather changes that are now at hand. In perfect time for these cataclysmic events, Healing Codes presents an urgent, monumental, and inspired work that will be hailed for generations to come.

VIDEO Tape set:
$39.95 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Emerging Viruses - AIDS & Ebola

This is the first in-depth exploration into the origins of HIV and Ebola. Claims that these “emerging viruses” naturally evolved and then jumped species from ape to man seem grossly unfounded in light of the compelling evidence assembled in this extraordinary text. Alternatively, the possibility that these bizarre germs were laboratory creations, accidentally or intentionally transmitted via tainted hepatitis and smallpox vaccines in the U.S. and Africa—as numerous authorities have alleged—is investigated herein.

This book reviews the numerous viral vaccine studies conducted simultaneously in New York City and Central West Africa by a narrow network of virologists working for major military-medical contractors under the auspices of the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and the World Health Organization (WHO). Included is Dr. Robert Gallo, the notorious “discoverer” of the AIDS virus. The text presents bizarre and horrifying facts about the biological weapons race of the 1960s and early 1970s when these researchers developed countless immune-system-ravaging viruses, and experimented with an assortment of antidote vaccines allegedly for “defense” and cancer prevention.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Over 590 pages
$29.95 (+S/H)

Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse

Hard Cover Book:
$26.95 (+S/H)
[537 pages]

Audio Tapes:
$29.95 (+S/H)
[4 hours]

One half of the world’s current population should soon be dead according to authoritative projections. Will you, your family, and friends be among the survivors or the deceased?

Dr. Len Horowitz and Dr. Joseph S. Puleo investigate 2000 years of religious and political persecution and the latest technologies being used to enslave, coerce, and even kill billions of unsuspecting people.

This work returns the most precious spiritual knowledge, power, and “healing codes” to humanity. It offers new hope for the loving masses to survive the worldwide plagues, famines, and weather changes that are now at hand. In perfect time for these cataclysmic events, Healing Codes presents an urgent, monumental, and inspired work that will be hailed for generations to come.

See next-to-last page for information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

A healthy gut microflora population also helps with the elimination of harmful cholesterol, toxic chemicals, and cancer-causing compounds, both natural and man-made. More than 90% of human immunity is, in fact, tied to lymphatic activity around the gut. Consequently, a healthy immune system is largely dependent upon the intestinal flora.

Ideally, soil-based microbes, typically found on organically grown foods, should be consumed for boosting natural immunity against infectious diseases, including anthrax and other potential biological weapons. Far more effective than eating yogurt that contains Lactobacilli, there are several products available in good health food stores that supply a full pro-biotic spectrum of soil-based microbes that many alternative health professionals have been prescribing with very favorable results. One such product is called GI Flora Pro (<http://www.healingcelebrations.com>; 1-888-508-4787), which sells for about $29 for a 30-day supply.

A five-step protocol for boosting natural immunity to help fight biological attacks is available from my non-profit publishing company, Tetrahedron Publishing Group (<http://www.tetrahedron.org>; 1-800-336-9266). The information includes how to: (1) detoxify your body, (2) deacidify your body, (3) boost natural immunity, (4) oxygenate the blood and other body tissues, and (5) bioelectrically manage infectious diseases and recoveries. The material is presented in a 225-page hardcover book titled Healing Celebrations: Miraculous Recoveries Through Ancient Scriptures, Natural Medicine, And Modern Science. The book sells for $22.85, and the advice may be life saving.

CLEAN WATER AND ADEQUATE HYDRATION:

Having a pure water source following a biological or chemical weapons attack is critical for two main reasons: (1) Victims frequently become dehydrated, and (2) purified or distilled water is needed for detoxification of blood, liver, and kidneys.

Following a biological or even chemical weapons attack, water supplies may be contaminated. Water distillers may be purchased, but most require electric power to run. The best transportable, non-electric, water filtration system available is the British Berkefeld®. It typically sells for $279 (<http://www.prophecyandpreparedness.com>; 1-208-265-2575) and is the ideal hardware to have on hand to filter potentially contaminated water supplies in emergency or survival situations.

HEALTHY FOOD INTAKE AND SUPPLIES:

Consider what could happen to food supplies in the wake of an anthrax attack. Cattle herds would likely need to be slaughtered, causing a run on remaining beef and dairy supplies. Prices for these commodities would skyrocket. Contaminated grains might also need to be burned to prevent further spreading of the anthrax spores during harvesting and transport. Prices would likely rise here as well. There may be greatly increased demand for flour, grains, dried cereal, and probably other baking supplies as well. This is why many people have begun to stockpile some of these resources as well.

You’ve heard the saying: “You are what you eat.” If you decide to stock-up on essential food supplies for survival, it’s wise to think of boosting your immunity along with receiving the greatest value for what you spend. The first and finest grain you might want to stockpile for these concerns is called amaranth. Its cost is reasonable, you can use it for baking, and best of all, it contains all of the amino acids and enzymes you need for life. The Aztec and Mayan civilizations depended mainly on amaranth, and good pure water, for their strength and survival.

Ideally, for immunity, you want to be eating organically grown foods. One product that contains a hefty amount of organic amaranth, and other nutritionally wholesome and immunologically supportive ingredients, is called Green Harvest. Most people, under emergency conditions, could live off of this good tasting powdered food formula, mixed with water or organic juice(s). Green Harvest is available in select health-food stores, and from the manufacturer (<http://www.healingcelebrations.com>; 1-888-508-4787). It costs less than $35 for a one-month supply. The manufacturer supplies this product by the case, at large discounts, for families who wish to stock up. Their website also provides a host of other products and educational resources for boosting natural immunity for preventive healthcare and improved recovery rates from infectious diseases and cancers.

[Editor’s note: And now for Len’s very revealing letter to the FBI, focusing on some of the REAL crooks, mentioned earlier in the above article.]

10/1/01 DR. LEN HOROWITZ
(www.tetrahedron.org)

Mr. Kevin Dunton
Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
250 Northwest Blvd., Ste. 200
Coeur D’Alene, Id 83814
October 1, 2001

Dear Mr. Dunton:

I am reaching out to you as a patriotic American, a loving human being seeking world peace, and a Harvard graduate independent investigator with expertise in the fields of behavioral science, biological warfare, and biochemical terrorism. I relay this information in the hope that it will prompt you, and other FBI officials, to critically examine what I believe is legitimate intelligence bearing on global efforts to fight terrorism. May what I share herein lead to important discoveries regarding the recent terrorist attacks on America, prevent future attacks, and deter escalating global warfare.

I understand that the FBI is currently investigating terrorist group financing, and the likelihood that individuals and organizations with advanced knowledge concerning the September 11, 2001 attacks on America “shorted” certain stocks and commodities for profit, akin to “inside trading”.

You are likely familiar with the concept of “wagging the dog” to advance political policies and gain profit. I also know that you are familiar with neo-Nazi organizations operating in the United States, particularly in the northern Idaho area, and their possible involvements in acts of domestic, and international, terrorism.

Given this introduction, what follows is evidence strongly suggesting the urgent need to investigate three organizations for leads concerning the funding of global terrorists. The primary suspect is the Bayer Corporation.

Last week, based on a report by ABC News, and previous unprecedented actions by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) that were likely influenced by industry lobbyists, ABC was caught “wagging the dog” for Bayer engaged in the price gouging of panicked Americans seeking protection against anthrax.

Besides this being of relevance to the FBI’s ongoing terrorism investigation as I explain below, this should be investigated as a conspiracy to commit fraud against the U.S. Government and the hundreds of thousands of Americans induced to buy the antibiotic Cipro through such manipulative methods.

According to ABC News (Thursday, September 27, 2001), sales of Bayer’s antibiotic Cipro have skyrocketed 1,000 percent from fears of anthrax retaliations in “America’s New War”. Anchorman Peter Jennings reported anxious consumers spending an outrageous $700 per person for a mere two-month supply. Two month supplies of other antibiotics regarded as safe and effective against anthrax, and traditionally recommended by experts, are available for as little as $20 at farm feed stores.

Black’s Law Dictionary includes within its definition of fraud: “A concealment of a material fact to induce another to act to his or her injury.”

Peter Jennings heralded ABC’s special story the preceding evening by saying: “Preparing for a possible anthrax attack. We’re going through these fears, one by one, day by day. Good night.”

In this context, ABC’s special segment on anthrax and Cipro sales may be seen as a form of “white collar bioterrorism”. Through this savvy and fraudulent form of drug promotion, consumers are being disadvantaged, over-charged, and placed at risk of injury from the potentially dangerous side effects of an antibiotic that offers no significant advantage over less costly alternatives for anthrax.

The Bayer Corporation maintains several serious skeletons in its corporate closet. In my thirteenth book, Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare, released in June, 2001, I examine a small number of multinational corporations, including Bayer, that have historically sponsored fear, espionage, and even terrorist campaigns for profit and global domination.

Besides being found guilty of transmitting the AIDS virus, HIV, through contaminated blood products to thousands of trusting consumers during the early 1980s, Bayer was blacklisted by the U.S. Government during, and shortly after, World War II. The OSS and CIA learned that Bayer maintained intimate ties to the German chemical/pharmaceutical cartel known as I.G. Farben. This consortium produced the earliest pesticides, drugs, and war gasses, including Zyklone-B used in concentration camp gas chambers. According to the first CIA director, Allen W. Dulles, as reported by CBS News war correspondent Paul Manning, the Farben cartel provided the chief economic and industrial engines behind the rise of the Third Reich and Hitler.

The Bayer Company evaded U.S. Government controls

during and following the Holocaust, in which millions of mostly Jewish people were used as experimental subjects in medical atrocities overseen by I.G. Farben’s president, Hermann Schmitz, who also directed the German multinational Bayer A.G.

Of urgent pertinence to the FBI’s current investigation into terrorism’s money trail, a recent investigation into terrorist group funding, issued by The Oklahoma Bombing Investigation Committee (OBIC), directed by Representative Charles Key, found: “Neo-Nazi figures have actually been implicated in Middle Eastern special weapons procurement and terrorist activity.”

For example, the group reported: “Since the 1960s, an old Swiss Nazi named François Genaud has reportedly masterminded several airplane hijackings for the PLO.” The now defunct “Odessa” organization, the post-war successor to Hitler’s S.S., according to OBIC, “had numerous documented meetings with representatives of various Arab organizations; and, during the early 1980s, a Neo-Nazi named Odfried Hepp attacked several U.S. military installations in Germany with bombs. Hepp was later found to have been financed by Al Fatah.”

Hepp, OBIC reported, did his Ph.D. on “Neo-Nazi/PLO bombings of U.S. housing, cars, and military facilities in Germany.” Given these facts alone, an FBI investigation into this matter is critical.

I am also contacting congressional leaders at this time urging an immediate U.S. General Accounting Office (GAO) investigation into the FDA’s “advisory committee” that sponsored the unprecedented sole endorsement of Bayer’s Cipro for anthrax. Nowhere in the Physician’s Desk Reference (2000) is it claimed that Cipro is especially indicated for anthrax. In fact, Bacillus anthracis is not even mentioned.

What is mentioned is that “although effective in clinical

DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare

Hard Cover: $29.95 (+S/H)

This book explains how and why:

- We have evolved from the nuclear age into a “Technotronic Era” with “psychotronic warfare” for optimal population control.
- Non-lethal warfare is being effectively used to produce sociopolitical and economic outcomes consistent with global genocide.
- The world’s wealthiest policy-makers have recommended, and are working toward, eliminating half the world’s population.
- Accepted methods of disease prevention, such as pesticide sprayings, can only be scientifically rationalized as costly and deadly contributions to non-lethal warfare and population reduction.
- Chemtrail sprayings that obscure blue skies are not normal, but reflect a conspiracy of silence and military attacks on the health and welfare of people around the world.

Striking at the heart of a cryptocracy responsible for the latest forms of bio-terrorism, psychotronic warfare, and Malthusian eco-genocide, the revelations and wisdom contained in this book offer more than a reality check. They give humanity, you and your loved ones, a final, last minute, choice for survival.

Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz is a graduate of Harvard School of Public Health who has published more than two-dozen books, 120 scientific and lay articles, and numerous audio and videotaped educational programs. He has been a frequent guest on nationally syndicated radio and television news and talk shows representing every major network. Most recently, Dr. Horowitz’s work detailing the man-made origins of the AIDS and Ebola viruses prompted two documentaries, one by the internationally acclaimed BBC. He lives with his wife and three children in Sandpoint, Idaho.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

Children Of The Matrix

How an interdimensional race has controlled the world for thousands of years—and still does!

We are born into a world controlled by unseen forces that have plagued and manipulated humanity for thousands of years. No, this is no script from a Hollywood movie. It is happening to you NOW.

You may look around and think that what you see is “real”. But in truth you are living in an illusion. An illusion designed to keep you in a mental, emotional, and spiritual prison cell.

Icke exposes these forces and their methods of human control and reveals a fantastic web of global manipulation, orchestrated by forces beyond this physical realm.

He exposes the hidden bloodlines, through which other-dimensional entities live and operate unseen among us; and he shows how the bloodlines of the royal, political, and economic rulers of today are the same as those who ruled as the kings and queens of ancient times.

Icke takes the story on from his highly acclaimed And The Truth Shall Set You Free and The Biggest Secret, and he lifts still further the veil of secrecy that has maintained humanity in manipulated ignorance for so long.

The truth is not only out there.

Much of it is right here.

493 pages $24.95 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

trials, ciprofloxacin is not a drug of first choice in the treatment of presumed or confirmed pneumonia secondary to Streptococcus pneumoniae.” This organism, like anthrax, is an aerobic gram-positive microbe. (Likewise, Bacillus anthracis causes pneumonia in the form of commonly terminal hemorrhagic bronchopneumonia.) Furthermore the PDR states: “WARNINGS—THE SAFETY AND EFFECTIVENESS OF CIPROFLOXACIN IN PEDIATRIC PATIENTS AND ADOLESCENTS (LESS THAN 18 YEARS OF AGE), PREGNANT WOMEN, AND LACTATING WOMEN HAVE NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.”

Alternatively, numerous bioweapons experts have consistently recommended far less costly and time-tested antibiotics to fight anthrax, including the natural and synthetic penicillins, erythromycin, cephalosporins, and the tetracyclines.

This knowledge is consistent with the published works of pharmacist and attorney, Dr. Lawrence J. Joyce, also an expert in biological warfare with training at the U.S. Army’s Dugway Proving Grounds. Dr. Joyce advised that in the event of a required emergency response to anthrax, “the choice of therapy should simply depend on the availability of each antibiotic.” He also advised consumers, in advance of an emergency, to spend as little as $20 to purchase such antibiotics at their nearest farm feed and veterinary stores. A complete list of alternative antibiotics and instructions for the general public for anthrax preparedness is currently listed on my affiliated www.tetrahedron.org website.

Any advantages Bayer’s product could conceivably offer over these other trusted antibiotics, could not be worth Cipro’s extraordinary $700 cost. The U.S. government, in stockpiling this drug following the advisory committee’s report, and consumers nationwide obviously frightened into a drug-demanding frenzy, have been royally bilked by this historically untrustworthy multinational company.

Given our current urgent concerns regarding terrorism, drug industry officials whose economic motives clearly conflict with U.S. national security interests, and the health and safety of all Americans, should be investigated forthwith. Given the Bayer Company’s infamy and possible financial links to contemporary neo-Nazi and terrorist organizations, ABC, Bayer, and the FDA’s “advisory committee” should be investigated by the FBI along with other leads regarding the September 11, 2001 attacks. For all we know, inside traders in these organizations may be funding contemporary terrorist groups in support of industrial espionage operations and global conflict.

This would be textbook Machiavellian theory in practice. That is, create the political problems, fear, and associated financial opportunities, and create the solutions—costly and risky products and services for profit, regardless of the lives lost.

Please provide me with a written response to this urgent request and shared intelligence as soon as possible.

Yours in the Spirit of health and world peace,

Leonard G. Horowitz, D.M.D., M.A., M.P.H.

President, Tetrahedron Publishing Group

Cc: Members of the U.S. Congress, Allied peace organizations, and the news media. ☺

New Visions From Anna Detweiler

Editor's note: The following information is courtesy of Anna Detweiler. We first introduced Anna to you in an article titled "Anna Detweiler: Seeing Truth Beyond The Shadows" in the March 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM. We promised at that time to share other appropriate information as space and opportunity permits, and have done so, usually within the items of The News Desk.

The importance of what Anna is seeing lately warrants MAKING room in this issue, whether we have it or not! Of course, paying the printing and postage bills for this large (again) paper is another challenge yet to be dealt with.

The following are excerpts from recent communications from Anna. Perhaps read Eustace Mullins' revealing history lesson on anthrax elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM before reading what Anna has to say about her visions and feelings.

Also, note well the lesson Soltec shares elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM about the Divine Gifts we are endowed with that, with practice, can see right through the shenanigans of the elite controllers. Anna is a good example of what Soltec is talking about!

Also, note well Anna's comments about how best to boost the immune system. We have shared MANY lessons on that subject from the Master Teachers, and others, in past issues of The SPECTRUM. Perhaps it helps some procrastinators to get moving by hearing such advice by way of Anna's first-hand experience route and from one who can actually SEE what is going on. In any event, keep your sense of humor and appreciate each gifted day.

Subject: Global Germ Banks Sell Anthrax
Date: Sunday, October 21, 2001

Good evening and hello to all.

I have attached a link from Dona on the <www.szygyjob.net/warissues/messages/1115.html> board about a lab in Mexico City that sells germ warfare. If you read that board you probably noticed that I commented about something I have been watching in Mexico City for about five days now. I had no way of knowing that a lab like such existed in Mexico City, so I feel pretty confident in what I am watching.

I am going to tell you all a bit more than what I'm going to put on the board. What I've been watching appears to be some kind of bio-hazard that will be extremely hazardous to anyone who comes in contact with it. It is my opinion that it is a substance that will become airborne and is most likely a virus that is contagious.

Now for the shocker: It has now arrived here on U.S. soil. It was shipped out of Mexico City this morning and I have been tracking it all day. It was deposited on the Mexican side, and then taken in a tunnel that connects the U.S. and Mexico side, and was then brought over here.

I am now watching it being taken in several different directions. One vehicle is coming up towards Texas and another one is going westward. There is still a bunch of the material left that has not been distributed yet.

From what I can see, I'd say it is a white powder (cocaine?) laced with this lethal stuff. It does not have the same frequency that anthrax does, but if it would be a modified anthrax, that would of course change the frequency.

We are now in a time where we can expect all kinds of things to happen. May the Protection of The One Light be with us all!

Love and Peace, Anna

Subject: Re: U.S. To Be Nuked Soon?
Date: Wednesday, October 31, 2001

Hi All.

The pieces of the puzzle are beginning to fit every once in awhile! This is an area where we have to think a few steps ahead of what we are being told. The message Al sent me is obvious to me that someone is trying to shift the blame towards bin Laden and foreign terrorists, when in reality the danger is coming from our own soil at this time.

The "stuff" from Mexico has not moved since I last wrote you where it had stopped. This "stuff" is of such a nature that, when it is moved, I almost immediately sense it! I am still not exactly sure what it is, but I can feel that it is very lethal and it does have a frequency in the radiation family. My mind also keeps telling me that it has something to do with virus and/or bacteria sort of thing. It is hard for me to completely identify it because it is something that I have not been in contact with as of yet. But it is certainly something on my list of high priority to watch.

About the earthquake in Southern California this morning—as I woke up, I was once again drawn to the Golden Gate Bridge. That bridge must be in a very dangerous area because it is a place that I am shown a lot. I believe it may be a terrorist target in the future, but I can't say how far in the future. It might be a place that will get taken down with the suitcase nukes.

Also, another place that I am shown a lot is the Hoover Dam. When I say I'm shown these things, I'm talking about my Guides taking me there in the etheric form and telling me to observe the area. Anybody downstream of the Hoover Dam would be well advised to move away from there. I do believe it might already be rigged and will only take a remote pressing of a button to detonate it. At this point I don't know exactly which factions are the ones who are doing this, but it is my guess it will be just as destructive as the World Trade Center thing was.

At this point I get the feeling that we are having more of a "civil war" right here, underneath our noses, so to speak, and most people are following the pointing finger to Afghanistan! It is like a boiling pot that has a lid on it, and every once in awhile we get a glimpse of what's boiling in that pot.

The thought energy focus has changed in the last week. There is a real hatred being focused upon each other from different factions here on U.S. soil. This is where I believe there is a danger of us getting into a civil war.

Does anyone really believe that all the anthrax is being distributed by some bin Laden group? Come on, people, look at what is being anthraxed! And also, is there really anthrax being found, or is that just a very easy way to say we need to shut this building down? And if you noticed, it shuts the buildings down indefinitely, because of the uncertainty of it all.

This is something that is being done that was planned out very accurately as to how it should all go. And the faction it is being done against is not the happiest party I have seen yet. Whew! I say again: what a mixed up world we are in!

May the One Light be our Guide and Protection!
Love and Peace, Anna

Subject: Re: Trouble In Cincinnati Area—A Crack In The National Cover-up! [A story about anthrax]

Date: Wednesday, November 7, 2001

Al, thanks for this article. It does not surprise me at all that there may very well be breakouts of anthrax all over the country that are being played down.

Let me tell you a bit about what I can "see" concerning colloidal silver, garlic, and such. Almost all of them work on some type of frequency, but if the right frequencies are not matched, they are not effective at all.

My opinion on the garlic is that it is good for the immune system in that it builds it up where it can fight a high-frequency bug. The silver actually is almost not high enough to be effective for the anthrax that is now "floating" around. I would usually go for gold or titanium. Another thing that is quite effective on a high-frequency bug is the oil of oregano. It seems to have the ability to attach itself to the wall of a bug and "eat" through it.

There used to be a time when I kept most of these things on hand, but then I discovered that I have the ability to raise someone's frequency with my Mind Energy. I still think these things are very good to use for tools, but Mind Energy is free of charge. (smile) I do want to stock-up on some of these things again, because they are given to us as tools to combat what is coming down on us.

Here is another thing that I can tell you: There will come a time when none of these things will work if the person does not have at least a fairly strong immune system. And the best thing to build your immune system is your state of mind! I have not found anything else that comes even close to being as effective!

It would be good for everyone to, once a day, forget all else and "FEEL" joy, happiness, and get a feeling/knowing that all is well, for in reality all is well! If someone does not think they can do that, then I'd suggest allowing yourself to feel it for only a microsecond! To tell themselves that they are not being disloyal to their feelings of sadness, there is still all the rest of the day to feel sadness! Let me tell you, this is harder at first than what it sounds. I can speak out of experience. And this is the "medicine" of the future! Free of charge! We are in the practice stages of the future.

Love and peace to all, Anna △

The Masters and the Spiritual Path

You have friends in high places...

There are Masters who have come out of all the world's great spiritual traditions. These great lights of East and West have graduated from earth's schoolroom and reunited with Spirit in the process known as the ascension. Now they come to show us the pathway home.

The Masters tell us that they are examples and not exceptions to the rule. We, too, are destined to fulfill our life's purpose and reunite with Spirit.

In this intriguing work you will discover valuable keys to your own spiritual path: How the ascension differs from nirvana and samadhi, the relationship between the spiritual and material universes, and the difference between ascended and unascended masters. You will learn about the function of the spiritual hierarchy and the role of the Masters of East and West. Includes a unique meditation on the bliss of union with Spirit and a breathing exercise to help you balance and expand consciousness.

$16.95(+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

ISBN: 0-922729-60-3, 360 PP.,

Dust To Dust, Or: Anthrax Is As American As Apple Pie

Editor's note: Following closely on the heels of last month's special contribution to our front-page story on the 9/11/01 tragedy, is the following fantastic history lesson from the "grandfather" of Truth scholarship, Eustace Mullins—longtime, well-respected (and otherwise persecuted) researcher and author of five of the most well-documented, controversial, and hard-hitting volumes ever published on the crooks in high places and how they have long controlled world affairs to conform to their own agenda.

Though his books are CONSTANTLY in demand, like the rest of us who bring Truth he is poor and has no monetary resources with which to reprint these fine manuscripts. For those of you unfamiliar with his classic research works, they include:

- THE CURSE OF CANAAN: A Demonology Of History,
- MURDER BY INJECTION: The Story Of The Medical Conspiracy Against America,
- THE WORLD ORDER: Our Secret Rulers,
- THE SECRETS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE, and
- RAPE OF JUSTICE: America's Tribunals Exposed.

We are delighted and honored that Eustace chose to share the following first-hand history lesson with us, in turn to share with you who read and support this conduit of Truth.

And keep this history lesson in mind when you read what Anna Detweiler has "seen" in an article elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM concerning anthrax. The overall picture is surely a study in deceit and complete disregard for the value of human life.

10/25/01 EUSTACE MULLINS

The prophetic "dust to dust" service is echoed in the World Trade Center event of September 11, 2001, the 9-11 call for help against terrorism, worldwide, forever and ever, until time doth cease.

The poet T.S. Eliot covered the subject in his poem The Waste Land when he wrote of "fear in a handful of dust" in 1922. The formless manuscript might never have been printed until my mentor, Ezra Pound, mercilessly excised large chunks of it.

The poem then became the most widely read and influential poem of the twentieth century, while Ezra Pound ran afoul of the occupation government, and was sentenced to life without trial in 1945. This was a dilemma from which I rescued him in 1958, after I had waited for many years for his New York attorney to make a move on his behalf.

When I belatedly realized that, like all attorneys, his defender made his living by sabotaging all possibility of Ezra's release, I found a friend who knew a Congressman, and Pound was amazed when the "government" dropped all of its fake charges against him, and he walked free.

He had served longer without trial than any other American.

The current avalanche of publicity about anthrax, a powder or dust, came as a considerable surprise to me, because of my many years of research into the subject.

My own conclusion had been that anthrax is as American as apple pie. I could not believe that my fellow Americans knew nothing about our government's loosing of terror on the entire world, after spending many millions during World War II to perfect anthrax as the ultimate weapon which would extinguish all life on Earth.

Most Americans knew that our government had spent hundreds of millions to develop the Hell-Bomb, during the 1940s, which obliterated the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki as the climax of World War II. Although President Harry Truman, a master Mason, claimed total responsibility for the decision to drop the bomb, and falsely claimed that the victimized Japanese cities had been their two most important military objectives in Japan, despite his own advisers' conclusions that they had no military importance, he compounded his errors by the lie that "his" decision had saved more than a million American lives in the postponed American invasion of the Japanese homeland.

He steadfastly refused to admit what was even then general knowledge—that the Emperor and the Japanese staff had been frantically petitioning for peace since April of 1945, or that the "allies" refused his entreaties because of an even more important objective: that the long-delayed nuclear bomb needed to be tested on a live, breathing, human population, in order to ensure permanent terror in the remaining world population after the war.

Behind The Horror Of Anthrax Poisoning Of The World

The Allied nations—England, led by Churchill; Russia, led by Stalin; and the United States, led by Roosevelt—were headed by avowed exterminationists, men who not only wished to kill their opponents, but to totally exterminate them.

Lady Astor, a Virginia-born aristocrat who married into one of the most powerful ruling families of Britain, knew them well: "Winston" she said, "hates anyone who is sober; Franklin hates anyone who can walk; and Joseph hates anyone who is still breathing."

As an exterminationist, Churchill agreed with his fellow leaders that all Germans must be exterminated in World War II. He acted on his desire by contacting a chemist, James B. Conant, who was President of Harvard University. Churchill asked Conant if he could devise a weapon which would wipe out the Germans.

Conant suggested anthrax, and in 1942 he began work on an anthrax bomb. Churchill wanted a weapon which could be sprayed over Germany and which would kill every living thing, even the grasshoppers.

Conant explained to him that delivery of the deadly poison required a more easily controlled substance. He finally came up with cattle cakes containing anthrax spores, which could be dropped over German fields, eaten by food animals, which would be eaten by people, who would then die slow, agonizing deaths.

By late 1944, Conant had produced five million anthrax cakes, stored in England for air drops over Germany. The rapid fall of German forces led to surrender, and the cakes were never used. They were not destroyed until 1990, when they were burned. How many people died in the disposal of these cakes was never released, but burning them must have dispersed the poison over many square miles.

Conant went on to be Presidential adviser to Truman on dropping the atomic bomb on civilian populations in Hiroshima and Nagasaki, before he returned to his position as President of Harvard.

In papers filed with the United States Court of Claims in Washington, in 1957, I named Conant as "the most notorious war criminal of the Second World War", a title which has never been challenged. As a reward for his service to Churchill, he was named Gauleiter, or High Commissioner, of Germany after the war, in total charge of the people he had intended to annihilate. His assistant was Benjamin Battenweiser, a partner of the New York firm of Kuhn, Loeb Company, the secret Rothschild representatives in the United States.

Battenweiser's wife, Helen Lehman of the banking family, was lawyer for Communist agent Alger Hiss. After Hiss was sent to prison, the Battenweisers raised his son, Tony, in their lavish Manhattan mansion. Kuhn, Loeb Company senior Partner had been Jacob Schiff, famed as "a Prince in Israel" and world leader of the Jewish community. He personally gave twenty-two million of his fortune to finance the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia.

His partner in Kuhn, Loeb was Paul Warburg, a Rothschild-trained banker who secretly devised the Federal Reserve System in 1910, and succeeded in surreptitiously taking over the entire monetary system of the United States [with the clandestine passage of the Federal Reserve Act in 1913], a coup which, in 2000, led to the conspirators stealing six trillion dollars from the American investors by deflating stock prices, the biggest heist in history.

Conant and Battenweiser ordered the burning of ten thousand copies of the German edition of my book The Federal Reserve Conspiracy (now The Secrets Of The Federal Reserve), which exposed their plan, in July of 1955. It is the only book which has been burned in Europe since 1945. Both Germany and the United States blamed each other for the book burning, and I received no compensation.

Anthrax remained the weapon of choice for mass murder. Soviet spies took the recipe to Russia, where an accidental explosion wiped out a large area in the Ural Mountains. It is still off limits to investigators.

During President Bush's Desert Storm War in 1991, anthrax was revived as a weapon. Most of our troops were experimented on by injections of anthrax, ostensibly as a vaccine. It caused the Gulf War Syndrome, which crippled many American servicemen.

The Pentagon continues to deny that it has any adverse effects, and the soldiers received neither treatment nor compensation. The United States has since accused President Bush's business partner, Saddam Hussein of Iraq, of manufacturing anthrax, hoping to obscure its 100% American origins.

The Washington anti-terrorists hope to attack Saddam Hussein, kill him, and blame him for the anthrax problem which now paralyzes the entire nation. The problem is that anthrax, one of the world's deadliest substances, will never be capable of safe control, and now that it has been loosed on the world, it will continue to be an ongoing problem.

Because it is so deadly, it remains very tempting to the exterminationists, who are in firm control of their New World Order, and it will continue to be used, although it seems impossible to devise safe ways of handling it as a weapon.

The current anthrax being distributed in the United States apparently has no connection with the Muslim terrorists, and is probably being distributed by amateurs, which makes it even more dangerous.

The real problem is that when you elect exterminationists as leaders of your country, they will always return to exterminationism as the most satisfying method of controlling their subjects. This is the REAL anthrax problem, and there is no likelihood that it will be solved by exterminationists.

Home Run: Electronically Hijacking The World Trade Center Attack Aircraft

Editor's note: New clues to what REALLY happened on that tragic day of 9/11/01 continue to come forth from those brave enough and thoughtful enough to share what they know. The following excellent technical discussion came to us courtesy of David Icke's excellent www.davidicke.net Internet website. Add the following to other clues in this issue of The SPECTRUM, and to the clues of our extensive outlay on this subject last month, and you have a very different picture being painted from what the REAL perpe-traitors want you to believe is what happened.

11/8/01 MICHAEL O'CONNOR

In the mid-seventies, America faced a new and escalating crisis, with U.S. commercial jets being hijacked for geopolitical reasons. Determined to gain the upper hand in this new form of aerial warfare, two American multinationals collaborated with the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) on a project designed to facilitate the remote recovery of hijacked American aircraft. Brilliant both in concept and operation, "Home Run" [not its real code name] allowed specialist ground controllers to listen-in to cockpit conversations on the target aircraft, then take absolute control of its computerized flight control system by remote means.

From that point onwards, regardless of the wishes of the hijackers or flight deck crew, the hijacked aircraft could be recovered and landed automatically at an airport of choice, with no more difficulty than flying a radio-controlled model plane. The engineers had no idea that almost thirty years after its initial design, Home Run's top-secret computer codes would be broken, and the system used to facilitate direct ground control of the four aircraft used in the high-profile attacks on New York and Washington on 11 September 2001.

Before moving on to the New York and Washington attacks, we first need to look at the ways in which an aircraft is normally controlled by its pilot, because without this basic knowledge, Home Run would make no sense.

In order to control an aircraft in three-dimensional space, the pilot uses the control yoke (joystick) in front of him, rudder pedals under his feet, and a bank of engine throttles located at his side. Without engine thrust the aircraft would not fly at all, so the throttles are largely self explanatory: for more speed or altitude increase throttle, for less speed or altitude decrease throttle.

In order to raise or lower the nose of the aircraft, the pilot pulls or pushes on the control yoke, which in turn raises or lowers the elevators on the horizontal tailplane. To bank the aircraft left or right, the pilot moves the control yoke to the left or right, which in turn operates the ailerons on the outer wings. Lastly, to turn left or right at low speed or "balance" turns at high speed, the pilot presses the left or right rudder pedals as required, which in turn move the rudder on the vertical stabilizer.

Back in the early days of flight, the control yoke and rudder pedals were connected to the various flight control surfaces by thin cables, meaning the pilot had direct physical control over every movement the aircraft made. This was no great problem for an average man flying a small biplane, but as aircraft grew ever bigger, heavier, and faster over the years, the loadings on the control yoke and rudder pedals became huge, certainly well beyond the ability of a single pilot to handle unaided.

By the late fifties we were well into the age of hydraulics where, just like the power steering on your automobile, hydraulic rams were placed in-line between the pilot's control cables and each individual control surface. Now when the pilot moved the control yoke, the cables activated sensors, which in turn activated one or more hydraulic rams, which in turn moved one or more control surfaces. For the first time since Bleriot and the Wright brothers, pilots were of necessity being steadily distanced from direct control of their own aircraft.

When the multinationals and DARPA finally came on the scene in the mid-seventies, aircraft systems were even more advanced, with computers controlling onboard autopilots, which in turn were capable of controlling all of the onboard hydraulics. In combination these multiple different functions were now known as the "Flight Control System" or FCS, in turn integrated with sophisticated avionics capable of automatically landing the aircraft in zero visibility conditions.

In summary, by the mid-seventies most of the large jets were capable of effectively navigating hundreds of miles and then making automatic landings at a selected airport in zero-visibility fog conditions. All of this could be accomplished unaided, but in theory at least, still under the watchful eyes of the flight deck crews.

In order to make Home Run truly effective, it had to be completely integrated with all onboard systems, and this could only be accomplished with a new aircraft design, several of which were on the drawing boards at that time. Under cover of extreme secrecy, the multinationals and DARPA went ahead on this basis and built "back doors" into the new computer designs.

There were two very obvious hard requirements at this stage: the first, a primary control channel for use in taking over the flight control system and flying the aircraft back to an airfield of choice; and secondly, a covert audio channel for monitoring flight deck conversations. Once the primary channel was activated, all aircraft functions came under direct ground control, permanently removing the hijackers and pilots from the control loop.

Remember here, this was not a system designed to "undermine" the authority of the flight crews, but was put in place as a "doomsday" device in the event the hijackers started to shoot passengers or crew members, possibly including the pilots. Using the perfectly reasonable assumption that hijackers only carry a limited number of bullets, and many aircraft nowadays carry in excess of 300 passengers, Home Run could be used to fly all of the survivors to a friendly airport for a safe auto-landing.

So, the system started out in life for the very best of reasons, but finally fell prey to security leaks, and eventually to compromised computer codes.

In light of recent high-profile CIA and FBI spying trials, these leaks and compromised codes should come as no great surprise to anyone. Activating the primary Home Run channel proved to be easy. Most readers will have heard of a "transponder", prominent in most news reports immediately following the attacks on New York and Washington.

Technically a transponder is a combined radio transmitter and receiver which operates automatically, in this case relaying data between the four aircraft and air traffic control on the ground. The signals sent provide a unique "identity" for each aircraft, essential in crowded airspace to avoid mid-air collisions, and equally essential for Home Run controllers trying to lock onto the correct aircraft.

Once it has located the correct aircraft, Home Run "piggybacks" a data transmission onto the transponder channel and takes direct control from the ground. This explains why none of the aircraft sent a special "I have been hijacked" transponder code, despite multiple activation points on all four aircraft. Because the transponder frequency had already been piggybacked by Home Run, transmission of the special hijack code was rendered impossible. This was the first hard proof that the target aircraft had been hijacked electronically from the ground, rather than by [FBI-inspired] motley crews of Arabs toting penknives.

The Home Run listening device on the flight deck utilizes the cockpit microphones that normally feed the Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR), one of two black boxes armored to withstand heavy impact and thereby later give investigators significant clues to why the aircraft crashed. However, once hooked into Home

The Biggest Secret by David Icke

The blockbuster of all blockbusters! With stunning information never before released on the murder of Diana, Princess of Wales.

David Icke's most powerful and explosive book to date includes the astonishing background to the murder of Diana, Princess of Wales. Every man, woman, and child on the planet is affected by the stunning information that Icke exposes. He reveals in documented detail how the same interconnecting bloodlines have controlled the planet for thousands of years. How they created all the major religions and suppressed the spiritual and esoteric knowledge that will set humanity free from its mental and emotional prisons. It includes a devastating exposé of the true origins of Christianity and the other major religions, and documents suppressed science, which explains why the world is facing a time of incredible change and transformation. The Biggest Secret also exposes the true and astonishing background to the British Royal Family and, through enormous research and unique contacts, Icke reveals how and why Diana, Princess of Wales, was murdered in Paris in 1997. This includes information from a close confidant of Diana for nine years, which has never before been made public.

The Biggest Secret is a unique book and is quite rightly dubbed: "The book that will change the world." No one who reads it will ever be the same again.

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Run, the CVRs are bypassed and voice transmissions are no longer recorded on the 30-minute endless loop recording tape. If Home Run is active for more than thirty minutes, there will therefore be no audible data on the Cockpit Voice Recorders.

To date, crash investigators have recovered the CVRs from the Pentagon and Pittsburgh aircraft, and publicly confirmed that both are completely blank. The only possible reason for this is data capture by Home Run, providing the final hard proof that the attack aircraft were hijacked electronically from the ground, rather than by "Arab terrorists".

Many readers might by now be indignant; convinced this is incorrect or misleading information because of "those telephone calls from the hijacked aircraft". Which telephone calls exactly? There are no records of any such calls, and the emotional claptrap the media fed you in the aftermath of the attack was in all cases third-person.

We had the media's invisible "contact" at an airline who "said" a hostess called to report a hijacking, and we had a priest (?) who "said" he received a call from a man asking him in turn to call his wife and tell her he loved her. Presumably this man would have had his wife's name filed in his cell phone, and faced with imminent death would have called her direct.

The FAA helped out by claiming that it had "overheard" a heated argument from a cockpit where the radio transmit switch had been left in the "on" position. When push came to shove, the FAA was forced to retract, and admit that the mythical argument was not on the tapes at all.

Whether more information will be forthcoming about Home Run is unknown, but nowadays there are large numbers of people—apart from this author—privy to the basic data. As long ago as the early nineties, a major European flag carrier acquired the information and was seriously alarmed that one of its own aircraft might be "rescued" by the Americans without its authority. Accordingly, this flag carrier completely stripped the American flight control computers out of its entire fleet, and replaced them with a home-grown version. These aircraft are now effectively impregnable to penetration by Home Run, but that is more than can be said for the American aircraft fleet.

A casual count indicates around 600 aircraft in the USA and elsewhere are still vulnerable and could be used in further attacks at any time, which might help explain why America has lately been bombing the Afghans primarily with bags of wheat. For the first time in US history, American officials appear to be genuinely fearful of future reprisals, and justifiably so with 600 giant bombs parked on the wrong side of their missile defense shield.

It is a "Catch 22" situation. In order to make all of the aircraft safe, the flight control systems would have to be stripped out and replaced, at a cost of billions of dollars the airlines cannot afford because they are going broke. Nor is there enough time. The most innovative anti-hijacking tool in the American arsenal has now become the biggest known threat to American national security.

What lends credence to the above narrative is the picture of the UA Flight 175 in a 60-degree bank, desperately making a last second and major course correction, to acquire and contact the building squarely.

Being the tallest buildings in New York and second tallest in North America, the WTC Towers were easy targets that morning with visibility exceeding 50 miles. I have asked myself: why would a trained and focused on-board pilot have such difficulty in acquiring such a clear and outstanding target? I cannot answer the question.

However, if the Boeing 767 were being remotely controlled using Global Hawk Technology, a last-second and desperate correction would telegraph the difficulty encountered from a ground-based pilot without the aid of a video confidence monitor.

Don't let these innocent Americans die for nothing.

Contact your Senators and State Representatives and demand the facts!

Be Strong And Know That Help Is Near

11/5/01 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Peace. Esu present in Light, and in Service to God and to The Creation. Let there be no mistake about who I AM or who I Serve. I Serve only the highest good for humanity, in Service to the Father of All That Is. Let not your limited understanding prevent you from reading that which I have to say, for it is for the greater good that I come forth to add clarity and understanding to a chaotic and pained world.

Please know that, from where I am, I and my fellow associates in Service witness ALL of the evil plans that are being used to further enslave you. Your leaders know that we are here, watching. And yet, they are arrogant beyond belief, smug in their own self-righteous power. They see not. They are in no way wise. They are foolish, and they will bring down on their own heads that which they seek to avoid.

Beloved, FEAR NOT, for you live in a troubled time. Do not, I repeat, DO NOT BELIEVE THAT WHICH YOU ARE BEING TOLD ON YOUR TELEVISION MIND-CONTROL BOXES. You are being lied to. You are being manipulated. You are being set-up for the greatest tyranny, the greatest human enslavement imaginable—all in the name of the "War On Terrorism". IT IS A LIE!

You who serve your fellow man—and I do not care what religion you may be—shall know the glory of Heaven before this "play" is over.

Rest assured, you are loved. You are precious, Divine beings. You are co-creators, for the Divine Spark is within you. It is called your "soul". Your soul is your Lighted Connection to All That Is—to God, to The Creation, to The All. I know no other words through which to endeavor to explain to you these concepts.

When I said to you some 2,000 years ago "The Kingdom of God is within you", what did you think I meant? I meant, specifically, that you have within you a soul. Your soul is eternal. YOUR SOUL IS YOUR DIRECT LINK TO GOD. You are not God. God is God. But you are inseparably connected TO God, and that connection allows you, through your free-will choices, to create WITH Him.

The soul—that eternal "watcher", that consciousness within you that observes all, experiences all that you experience, and takes it beyond-the-beyond when you go—EVOLVES. The soul evolves higher and higher, in an upward spiral, ever closer and closer and closer to Creator.

How could you possibly ever believe there is not reincarnation? Of course, yes, there is indeed reincarnation, for the very object of that reality of expression (your Earthly dimension) IS FOR THE SOUL TO GROW AND LEARN AND BECOME CLOSER IN ITS CONNECTION TO GOD.

Your religious books have ALL been tampered with. Those in political and religious positions of power deleted the reality of reincarnation from your books of learning long ago. For, you see, it threatened their "position".

You are eternal beings of, yes, Light. What is there to fear in this concept? Those of religious dogma will tell you "beware of the Light" and that "Lucifer is the Bright Morning Light, so beware".

I tell you, THE LIGHT IS THAT WHICH YOU SEEK. The Light contains ALL knowledge, and is the connection to Source that you all seek. The dark is that which you must avoid. The void is that which you must not seek, for in the void there is no Light. And with no Light there is no Knowledge, no Understanding, no Love, and no connection to Source, which is God and The Creation.

WHAT YOU MUST BE ON YOUR GUARD AGAINST IS DECEPTION. AND I TELL YOU THAT YOU ARE BEING LIED TO. YOU ARE BEING DECEIVED. YOU ARE BEING CRUELLY MANIPULATED LIKE UNTHINKING MASSES OF HUMANITY.

AND THOSE IN POLITICAL POSITIONS OF POWER RIGHT NOW THINK THEY ARE IN CONTROL.

I AM HERE TO SAY, RIGHT NOW, YOU ARE NOT IN CONTROL. DO YOU HEAR ME? YOU ARE NOT IN CONTROL! YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO TURN GOD'S WONDROUS PLANET INTO SMOULDERING RUBBLE. IT WILL NOT BE ALLOWED!

THOSE OF YOUR POLITICAL LEADERS KNOW ME AND KNOW MY WORD. TAKE HEED, FOR YOU SHALL NOT BE GIVEN THIS MESSAGE A SECOND TIME.

And to you, beloved children of God, those faithful servants who serve humanity with honor, bless you ten-fold.

Trust in God, and know that God hears your petitions. Keep your faith burning strongly, and do not fear repercussions for "speaking out". YOU SHALL LIVE IN A FREE SOCIETY, AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT WILL NOT BE SACRIFICED LIKE A LAMB TO SLAUGHTER. DO YOU HEAR ME? DO YOU HEAR ME?

Your beloved planet is also growing tired of these games. And She soon will have Her own statements to make, as only She can. So be it.

Stand strong, keep your faith. Do not be faint of heart. YOU ARE NOT ALONE. THERE ARE OTHER, HIGHER, MORE ADVANCED, INTELLIGENT BEINGS IN THE UNIVERSE WHO HAVE COME TO ASSIST YOU AT THIS TIME IN YOUR PLANET'S EVOLUTION. KNOW IT!

You each shall be given to see, and to know, each according to your own level of awakening. Be not impatient for "something" to happen, for it is unfolding in its proper sequence.

Be glad and of good spirits, that you may enjoy life at this time. It is a grand time to be alive. It is also the better part of wisdom to stop in your day-to-day activities and inquire of self this question: "Who am I serving?"

I AM IMMANUEL, NOW KNOWN AS SANANDA, WHICH SIMPLY MEANS "ONE WITH GOD". THAT "STATION" ALLOWS ME TO SPEAK WITH AUTHORITY. THIS MESSAGE IS PARTLY FOR YOUR WORLD'S LEADERS. MAY THEY HAVE THE WISDOM TO HEAR THEIR MESSAGE.

LET THERE BE PEACE ON PLANET EARTH. AND YET, THERE SHALL BE NO PEACE AT THIS TIME FOR THOSE WHO WALK THE DARKENED PATH.

KNOW THE DIFFERENCE.

SALU.

ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

This reproduction is from an actual photograph taken on June 1, 1961 in Chichen Itza, Yucatan, by one of thirty archaeologists working in the area at the time. Sananda appeared in visible, tangible body and permitted his photograph to be taken.

The Great Coup, Or: What Price, Freedom?

Editor's note: Read the following Inspired message SLOWLY. Pay close attention to what's "between the lines" and to those exceptional gems of sentences which could easily be expanded into volumes of discussion.

Sometimes it's hard to tell where the writer's own thoughts leave off and Higher Guidance takes over. Some statements are quite vast in scope and emotionally powerful, yet still quite simply stated and compact. Good versus Evil has never been better articulated.

And don't be fooled by the purposely understated or seemingly narrow interpretation of such matters as "terrorism" and the "inevitability" of a New World Order. Look through the eyes of those who are lost and mesmerized in the swirl of the pageant being orchestrated by the crooks in high, secret places. Furthermore, how "hopeless" could it seem to those just now dimly awakening to the possibilities of manipulation, but not yet aware of the Larger Picture in which we are being tested on schoolroom Earth?

With that in mind, many of the points made herein are perhaps more suited to stir the sleeping ones—who SPECTRUM readers are often trying to awaken—than to light some kind of a fire under our regular readers themselves. In that regard, maybe the following is just the right offering to share with that neighbor, friend, or relative who thinks you're crazy—but loves to argue with you anyway.

The authoress, Diane Harvey, titled this piece "The Dire Straits Diaries, Part I: Authority Versus Anarchy" but it surely commands a much more potent heading than that! This was originally posted on Jeff Rense's always informative www.rense.com Internet website.

10/19/01 DIANE HARVEY
(merak@sedona.net)

It seems as if all the forces of evil in the world have suddenly come out to play at once. Overburdened minds are struggling to encompass the intricate planetary scope of all that we see erupting here and now. We can't quite comprehend the hidden depth and extent of this sudden takeover of the human world by every known variety of hatred, revenge, aggression, anger and stupidity.

From one day to the next, the very worst elements in the human race, in individuals, groups, and nations, suddenly have the upper hand, and are outwardly wrestling among themselves for control of our planet. Concurrently, inwardly and behind the scenes, secret wheels within deals within wheels are inexorably being set in motion.

The present dramatically unfolding events can be seen as the opening move in a multi-purpose strategy, directed toward finally achieving the hoary old goal of pure evil: to directly, intimately, and permanently control the world and all who dwell therein. And of course most people in the West will consider such a thought ridiculous, as they simultaneously hasten to fasten shiny new unbreakable chains around their own necks.

The genius of this unfolding first stage, which can be called "Authority vs. Anarchy", lies in the observable fact that most so-called civilized people must eagerly agree to its stated goals, no questions asked. Very few human beings wish to try to live in the shadow of the specter of violent terrorism.

No matter how critical one may be of any government, the fundamentalist extremist brand of terrorists is perceived by most decent human beings, reasonably enough, as far more immediately threatening. Contemplating the spectrum of available worldly evils, people weigh one type of oppression and aggression against another, and come to their own conclusions, depending on location and/or primary allegiances.

Almost everyone's first allegiance is to staying alive. And since the basic desire of most people on Earth, upon securing their immediate personal safety, is for peace and quiet, it is easy to see that most people will be in agreement with their various governments to do "whatever it takes" to rid the world of the worst of the worst.

The underlying complexities of how we came to be in such a predicament are obviously of very little interest to most people on this planet. In our case, we have been attacked, and we will therefore kill them: end of story. That this explosion of murderous rage has actual causes is considered to be a worthless and treacherously unpatriotic level of palaver.

Unthinking people are maddened by the very existence of "reasons" when they are attacked. Thus we see the ferocious trampling at present of all those who dare to mention the rude facts of geopolitical causes and effects. Thoughtfulness at such a moment is instinctively felt by the emotionally conditioned to be a weakening agent directed against their righteous passions.

The emotional have their own version of truth, which is the enjoyable presence of their own powerful emotional reactions, coursing so dramatically through the veins. They do not wish to be disturbed in their thrillingly hot outrage by a draft from the cool airs of dispassionate thinking. Outraged and indignant people, as often as not, react to the challenging presence of thoughtfulness in their vicinity by becoming even more indignant. When confronted with the annoying presence of the thinking classes, the angry become even angrier, like frogs puffing themselves up to look bigger to a perceived enemy.

This particular spectacle of mass hysteria reveling in its own swollen indignation, tirelessly repeated everywhere at present, would be almost comic if it was not a catastrophic failure of the human mind at the worst possible time. Caving-in to automatic, pre-programmed, emotional reactivity is the poorest conceivable way to choose to deal with the rapidly deepening complexities of our global human peril.

But there it is: the vast tidal wave of useless frothing furies, continuously emanated from the emotionally self-indulgent mainstream. In this most critical moment in human history, all that many people seem to have to contribute is a steady stream of pointless, emotionally-charged effluvia, alternating with suitably grave offers of canned meaninglessness.

Nicely enraged and therefore so easily manipulated, the people in the West are pleased, on the whole, to freely hand over the last tattered vestiges of their own personal liberty to the very forces that have long been methodically and deliberately eroding it.

Faced with an explosive external evil enemy, the far more suavely sophisticated internal Evil need only theatrically wave a soiled white hat and toss out a few threadbare slogans to be abjectly embraced as Goodness Personified by naïve and frightened bystanders. It is well to remember history here, and recall that evil often relishes eating juicy pieces of itself on the way to gobbling the good. Keep in mind that Hitler and Stalin, for instance, did not settle down and live happily ever after due to having such similar tastes and interests.

We know that just because one group is evil, its opposing element does not in the least have to be any form of good. And various forms and levels of evil are not at all necessarily in conscious cahoots. Just think of the niceties of gang warfare. It is not a requirement for the unfoldment of this great plan for world domination, as some think, that all the evil in the world be deliberately cooperating in some vast conscious conspiracy. In fact, that one variety of evil should genuinely be trying to kill another is far more likely—historically typical, convincing, and useful to the scenario at hand.

It all works together on the higher level of spiritual Evil, and that is all that is asked for here. Steeped in fear, people are screaming for security at any price.

It's hard at first to believe that such a simple-minded and cartoonish version of the same tired old trick is actually working. Can people possibly be so fatally stupefied as to happily give away the last forms of their already constricted freedoms merely because they are frightened?

Oh—but yes, indeed they can, and they are. The very atmosphere of the West is saturated right now with the sticky inchoate yearnings of the masses: that is, to finally and officially renounce, at long last, all pretense of freedom, in favor of forevermore being kept "safe" in the strong arms of dear, powerful Big Brother.

In reality, the majority of citizens in Western democracies long ago gave up all personal investment in their own freedom. Money has been buying the usual worst governments money can buy, for many decades now.

Few cared, and even fewer care now. The nets and snares of corrosive laws, combined with the increasingly unseen corporate manipulation of human thoughts and desires, have long ago made any real potential of individual existence effectively smaller and smaller.

Most of us have our little appointed rounds, like so many donkeys trudging around a world of grindstones, and that has been enough for us. We have long preferred the regular appearance of carrots and grain to any difficult life hewed-out in the wilds of a climate of actual freedom.

(At this point, we can barely go for so much as a simple long walk without running into impassable highways, miles of fences, "no trespassing" signs, endless asphalt shopping deserts, the exacting of local/state/national fees for the right to move a muscle, bands of loose criminals, streets of suspicious householders, and even more suspicious police asking why any human being might actually want to walk around on the Earth these days. This may be a single small example of the loss of practical freedom, and quite immaterial to most people, but it is a telling one all the same.)

Freedom is just a word people have been flattering themselves with, on the drive to the mall to buy whatever trinkets television told them to buy for their "lifestyle" this year. Freedom is a wonderful idea, but it died out somewhere along the way, from a general lack of enthusiasm for its rigorous and often positively Spartan requirements.

We have far preferred a life of collecting stuff to a life dedicated to understanding and dealing with the world of conflicting human energies and forces all around us. We have preferred burying ourselves under a mountain of enjoyably addictive substances, activities, and materials to fathoming the workings of human consciousness and all its manifestations.

We long ago collectively abdicated the responsibility of citizens for keeping an eye on the various criminal and secret operations of our governments—and those who bought them. This is exactly what the Forces of Darkness wanted us to do, and we have dutifully obliged them.

Thoughtless and unexamined addiction to rampant materialism created an overall psychological condition of dense denial about the origin, ownership, and manipulation of the world's resources. We want Endless Things, but we don't want to know where they come from, who does what to whom in order to grab them in the first place, or how they got into our hands—because that immediately becomes too uncomfortable.

In order to shove away all encroaching information about the conveniently hidden sources of our fatty lifestyles, we must choose to become unconscious, extremely arrogant, willfully ignorant, and fatally stupid in order to blot it all out. We have collectively been living the lie of unconscious blind entitlement, and we have liked it like that.

And this is one of the root causes of why we find ourselves suddenly in the middle of two kinds of evil, engaged in a struggle for domination of ideologies and resources. Like most people everywhere, always, we have cared nothing for the presence of various kinds and degrees of evil in the world, so long as we were not personally bothered.

And now it is all bearing down on us at once.

A truly free society would have required massive collective participation, vigilance, strenuous effort, individual responsibility, and tremendous sacrifice—none of which was remotely attractive to the majority of busy, ever-consuming, materialistic peoples in the West after World War II. Human beings are not yet free, have never yet achieved any high degree of sustained freedom in any society, and have certainly been far less free for some time now, here in the West, than we are told we are.

At least let us not fool ourselves in this regard. Ideology can present itself to unthinking people as anything it likes. In reality, forces and energies are what they are, no matter what they call themselves.

In most of the world, money, corrupt power, and various warring ideologies own everyone. Those who own the physical resources, the sources and means of information and culture, the religious and educational establishments, and the governments and militaries: they own us all, one way or another, and our children, and their future.

This bothers most people not at all, since they have long ago been devoured by Authority's aims themselves, and are now separate, self-replicating embodiments of corporate/government/military programming.

Even though, throughout our history, many of our greatest leaders have warned against exactly the predicament we find ourselves in today, those who have already been eaten alive will continue to ridicule this warning wherever it appears. And although, in our minds, some of us may still be relatively free, they are working on that too. It won't be long now. Electromagnetic Big Brother is definitely coming to stay.

In this initial stage, then, of The Great Coup, most human populations of the world naturally and automatically align with Authority against the forces of extreme Anarchy. It could never be otherwise, and there is nothing to say about this: one might as well argue against breathing. For all the demonstrations in various parts of the world, the truth remains that the majority of human beings, above all else, usually wish only to get on with their lives.

The problem, of course, is that this first stage of The Coup will be followed shortly by the second stage, and then the third stage beyond that. The eventual defeat of the forces of fundamentalist extremist terrorism is a fairly foregone conclusion. None of the planetary forms of Authority like this type of evil: it is disruptive, counterproductive, and uncontrolled. Therefore, all governments, regardless of ideological differences, will agree to the insistence of the West that these dangerous enemies to all Authority be eradicated.

The elimination of terrorism, or its reduction to relatively manageable size, will in itself be the process that carefully preconditions humanity to accept the next stage of deepening global totalitarianism. We can already see this happening perfectly, and there is nothing whatsoever to be done about it.

We can shout the truth from the rooftops and it will not alter the triumphant processional of this particular part of the juggernaut. Authority is going to conquer Anarchy sooner or later, without a doubt. And each step of the way will conveniently leave humanity reduced spiritually and psychologically, one size smaller with each new step.

The incremental reductions in hard-won freedoms are already being experienced by most as a welcome and snugly reasonable fit. Frightened, hypnotized populations in the West, already long and devoutly wedded to the cheap god of apathetic comfortableness, are cooperating beautifully, so far, in building their own part of the nightmarish future World Prison.

Media Accomplices To 9/11 Crime Deserve Indictment

How American Media Continues To Aid & Abet The Crime Of The 21st Century

Editor's note: The brainwashing role provided by the controlled regular print and broadcast media is, of course, central and crucial to the proper conditioning and coercion of the public—to the herding of the sheep, so to speak.

Nowhere has this unconscionable travesty of so-called journalism been more obvious and calculated than with respect to the tragic September 11, 2001 "terrorist" events engineered to hasten along the agenda of the New World Order.

There are many questions the media should be asking that they are not. There are many revealing answers the media should be sharing that they are not. There are many issues the media should be protesting that they are not. There are many TRUE experts who should be receiving air time that they are not.

For those of you who have read carefully last month's front-page feature, some of the questions raised below are answered therein. Consider those questions like taking a quiz on some of last month's astonishing material.

Other important questions remain hanging in the air like apparitions that should be haunting the conscience of any honest journalistic professional. But the whores of the media have chosen to lie and otherwise look the other way—to sell their souls, no less—for the sake of the almighty dollar. And this selling-out choice is made with full knowledge of the longterm disastrous effects on our entire American way of life.

For those of you not familiar with veteran investigator Fritz Springmeier, he is an expert on mind control techniques (such as our media use every day on us), on the nature of world conspiracies, and wrote (among other gems) a powerful research volume on the Elite Controllers called The Top Thirteen Illuminati Bloodlines.

Fritz is also very well connected to good intelligence sources, from many years of credible labor in the vineyard of Truthsharing. Posed in the form of questions, he shares a number of points that are "food for thought" as we effort to understand the dark forces at work behind the September 11, 2001 tragedy and its ongoing unfoldment.

We want to thank the American Patriot Friends Network (apfn@apfn.org) for posting the entire essay by Fritz. What follows are crucial excerpts from that much longer discussion.

And yes—this is another good article you can share with those who don't want to face The Truth of what is happening. Any one of the questions posed by Fritz is enough to raise suspicion and concern within the thinking person's conscience; taken in totality, these questions trace a most sinister outline of purposeful deception and hidden agenda.

10/24/01 FRITZ SPRINGMEIER

springmeierpatty@usa.net

Isn't it a delight that our media works hand in glove with our government?

No one is going to plug politically incorrect material into our minds. We will all be united on the same page of information, and marching off to war in unison.

Of course, people in other countries are disappointed that we don't have a free press. They find it strange that we Americans spend hours shopping around for the best model car, but we seldom shop for news information. After all, they point out, weren't the roots of this nation founded on a free flow of information, and the chance for debate to sort out the facts? This article is meant to take you back to the roots of what made America the envy of the world.

For years, Americans have had to suffer under the obnoxious air of superiority that radiates from the news media. Too bad their mothers didn't teach them respect and humility. "All the news worth printing, we print" they tell us. They tell us that their right to invade our privacy to do a hatchet job on some helpless smuck is done for the public, in the name of the public.

Like the courts and police who hassle the poor, and neglect the prosecution of white collar crime, the news media like easy prey, but back off when it comes to exposing the global elite. You'd think Gorbachev is nearly a saint; too bad they don't interview his gulag victims. Too bad these networks are owned by the super rich and super powerful.

We would like the news media to ask the right questions about the 9/11/01 tragedy. These people claim to have an ear for news and the ability to get to the truth.

However, once you see all the questions they have neglected, you will see why at least tens of thousands, maybe even millions, of Americans are disgusted with the lack of real news reporting. We may have to turn the tables on them in disgust and start asking THEM the hard questions. You will have ample opportunity before this article is over to become disgusted with these traitors who have betrayed your trust.

If you have been enjoying all those news articles that are beating the drums of war, and reporting how our courageous troops are grandly attacking Afghanistan and the Taliban, close your eyes and remember the images of one of those bombed out Afghani villages. Are you smiling because you feel revenge? While you're looking at that image of a bombed village, look at the smelly fly-covered guts of a little Afghan boy and his mutilated hand laying fifty feet from the mush that was his body, and notice and feel the hate in the eyes of his twin brother who vows to kill an American when he grows up.

I want you to realize that America's bombs are planting seeds of hate and planting future generations of terrorism. Isn't it amazing how our establishment press can be used to stampede us into another world war, which will not make us safer in the long run?

Will anyone tell the emperor he has no clothes? Will anyone ask the young men who are doing their military duty by risking their bodies and minds the questions in this article? Do our young men and women really understand what this war is about—better than our young men who went to Vietnam?

When will we win? When we kill bin Laden, or when we kill the last terrorist? Do we win when the violence stops? Is our country escalating the violence, or is the killing decreasing? But we are getting way ahead of ourselves. Let's back up to 9/11/01.

Important Questions The Establishment Media Has Covered Up

Why have several investigative reporters who learned important details been shut up?

For instance, why was one reporter who had 3 giant loose-leaf binders full of affidavits, names, and research gotten rid of and shut up.

It is said that the successful quality of a story is determined by the success at asking good questions.

The media loves to ask questions, but they act afraid of most of the real important questions concerning the 9/11/01 tragedy. Are they afraid of the questions in this article? Are they afraid of what the answers might be? Why are they missing out on the opportunity to discover the answers?

There are hundreds of important, interesting questions that should have been asked about the 9/11/01 tragedy and the U.S. government's reaction to it. Before snowing the reader with numerous questions, let's give four sample questions and then we will proceed to put all these numerous questions into categories:

1. How do eight (Yes, 8! Two per flight.) indestructible black boxes of the hijacked jets with important information end up destroyed? These black boxes are designed to withstand much more heat than can be generated in any of these crashes, and the crash in Pennsylvania didn't even cause an explosion. And yet the passports of two of the hijackers survived the crash into the Pentagon building, and Attorney General Ashcroft reports the passport of one of the suicide bombers landed 8 blocks from the WTC clean up site. (??)

2. If fear is the weapon of a terrorist, why is the media helping create that weapon? Why are they working overtime to create semi-hysteria about Anthrax, rather than responsibly putting out the facts in truthful context? Why are we not being told the truth about the Anthrax attacks?

3. When there is clear evidence that the CIA, FBI, Mossad, and Russian Intelligence all knew ahead of time that the attacks were coming, why is none of this being presented and told to the American people?

4. How does the south tower—which was only marginally hit and marginally burning compared to the north tower—collapse first? This is especially puzzling when the north tower was hit 18 minutes earlier, and was also not only hit earlier but hit dead center in a much more devastating head-on fashion.

And it bears repeating: just how did the WTC towers collapse like they did?

We all saw it happen, but many of us know that buildings built half as sturdy have refused to fall even after weeks of burning. For instance, many buildings hit in WW-II left shells of buildings, but did not crumble into dust. How did these buildings simply crumble and implode upon themselves?

Everything about the 9/11/01 "Attacks on America" and America's follow-up campaign of retaliation smell fishy and leave the thinking person full of questions. If we are afraid of these questions we may be afraid of their possible answers. We can divide our questions up like this:

- A. Questions pertaining to how we were not protected.
- B. Questions pertaining to how the event could have happened.
- C. Questions pertaining to who helped create this tragedy.
- D. Questions pertaining to how the media was controlled.
- E. Questions pertaining to who benefited from this tragedy.

Questions Pertaining To How We Were Not Protected

Why were FBI agents, who had an important WTC suspect in custody before the attack, refused permission to investigate him, when the suspect had information that could have exposed and prevented the attack? Why are their agents still being restricted?

How do these intelligence agencies get off so easy with saying they were totally surprised, when Iran has been using two airports exclusively for training pilots to use Boeing jets for just this kind of terrorist attack, and they have been training at these airports for over a decade? How do they get off so easy when Philippine Intelligence tried to warn them, as well as a 29-year-old Iranian in Germany?

If bin Laden is an important terrorist, why didn't our government arrest him after they blamed him for terrorist attacks? The Sudanese wanted to arrest him in '96 and '98 and turn him over to the U.S., and Clinton turned their offers down. Why?

Why is it being downplayed that numerous people, including FBI agents, gave warnings about the attacks, and these were ignored?

Why was the militant Moslem connection to the Oklahoma City bombing suppressed? Why did Clinton publicly blame Rush Limbaugh and other talk-show hosts for fomenting terrorism after the Oklahoma City bombing, and yet ignore enormous evidence that there was a militant Moslem connection?

Why have numerous rational proposals that would give protection for planes—like sky marshals, sealed cockpits, armed pilots, planes that can be flown remotely from ground control if need be, and other protective suggestions—not been widely implemented, but increased surveillance and control of passengers and airport visitors and their bags has been implemented?

In other words, why have simple practical suggestions not been implemented to protect airplanes, but measures that strip us of our freedoms are implemented?

Why did the Bush administration try to get Michael Canavan, head of FAA security, to remove sky marshals from high-risk flights (those that were at the greatest risk of being hijacked) after 9/11/01? (By the way, Canavan resigned over the incident.)

Why did our government bring over thousands of Iraqis of Saddam Hussein's loyal Republican Guard after the Gulf War?

Why is the anthrax vaccine so scarce, after twenty years of threats? Why did the anthrax vaccines that were injected into our troops cause severe medical problems?

Why has the media helped the government keep the significance of the post-9/11/01 attack cabinet level Office of Homeland Security secret?

What do the Russians know that is causing them to stay away from visiting America?

Questions Pertaining To How The Event Could Have Happened

How can four enormous planes with passengers get hijacked, diverted from their approved flight paths for over one and a half hours, and this not cause the appropriate alarms? How does our terrorist SWAT teams, our air defenses, our air traffic controllers sleep for such a long time—while these big planes turn around, leave their computerized flight paths, and head for targets?

Why wasn't everyone alerted? Why are pilots of such type of jets saying that these things cannot just happen? And why are they not being interviewed? After millions of dollars have been spent in the past to supposedly protect us from such incidents, why did this normally impossible scenario happen so easily?

How is it that the Cockpit Voice Recorders (CVRs) are said to be blank?

How do two buildings that were built to withstand huge storms and the impact of Boeing 707 jetliners (which carry MORE fuel than the ones that hit) crumble to the ground in minutes as if a water fountain were turned off?

How do steel beams in the WTC towers, that cannot melt until extremely high temperatures are reached, melt from temperatures that could not have been even a fraction of what it would have taken? How do concrete floors turn to dust when they collapse like pancakes? How does the collapse of the WTC towers begin where the heat would have been almost non-existent? How do smoky fires, which suggest a relatively low temperature, not be easily identified as unable to melt tough steel girders?

Why are the news media paranoid about the suggestion that someone could have placed bombs in the World Trade Center buildings? Why have the BATF agents been looking through the rubble quietly for two weeks? Why did the media dismiss witnesses who heard explosions before the buildings came down?

The media claims gas lines on the 104th floor may have exploded 53 minutes after the plane hit. Why has this absurd theory not been questioned, when it is Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) to put in automatic safety valves to pass building codes.

How did a building around the WTC collapse first?

How did Barbara Olson, a famous investigator, who called on a cell phone when her plane was hijacked, forget to describe the hijackers to her husband, the Solicitor General (a high-powered attorney)? Or did she describe the hijackers and her description never got repeated or mentioned by her husband? Or did she even make the call? Did any of the three cell-phone calls that are reported to have happened during the hijacking ever occur?

How do pilots allow someone to hijack them with box cutters?

Why didn't the multitude of airport security cameras catch the hijackers on their video tapes, and if they did, why haven't the police used this film footage to correctly identify the hijackers to the public? Many of these cameras are digital and run for hours; what happened to the tapes? Why is the media not demanding to see these? Why isn't this kind of evidence available to buttress the government's claim it was Osama bin Laden who did the crime?

Why are National Guard and Army reservists being Federalized into federal police and then trained at the U.S. Army School of Urban Control at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, to set up roadblocks in America?

Questions Pertaining To Who Helped Create This Tragedy

Why has the media allowed American leaders to be so quick to indiscriminately bomb Moslems, like President Clinton to hide his sexual scandal? Why is the media not pointing out that the historical record has clearly and repeatedly proven bombing only stiffens resistance and breeds more violence.

Look at London, Berlin, and Leningrad during WW-II; bombing only aggravated civilian populations. So why is this not being told to the American people? 1 plus 1 equals two, but we are not being clearly told the obvious by the media. Occasionally, it is mentioned, but in such an offhand, minor way as to slip by the attention of most people.

Why don't we hear about President Carter's July 3, 1979 directive that sent aid to Afghanistan and triggered Soviet intervention into Afghanistan, thereby creating the war that was used by the CIA to create the militant Moslems we are now fighting.

EVIL AGENDA OF THE SECRET GOVERNMENT
Exposing Project Paper Clip and the Underground UFO Bases of Hitler's Elite Scientific Corps
by Tim Swartz

EVIL AGENDA OF THE SECRET GOVERNMENT
BY TIM SWARTZ

Exposes Project "Paper Clip" and the underground UFO bases of Hitler's elite scientific corps. Elements of the CIA and the Secret Government have imitated real alien abductions to convince the public of interplanetary invasion so New World Order gang can rule the Earth unchallenged.

Project Paperclip was the secret plan that took Nazi scientists and psychiatrists out of Germany and into the upper echelons of the U.S. governmental, scientific, and academic realms.

$10.00 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Semi-trucks on the highways can now be controlled from their home offices via satellite. Their speed, etc., can be controlled. Large Boeing passenger jets in the U.S. have reportedly also had equipment installed that makes them remote controlled. The U.S. flew a plane by remote control (Global Hawk Technology) without a pilot from California to Australia. If the Boeing jets had remote control equipment on board, what role did that technology play in the crashes of the airplanes on 9/11/01?

Questions Pertaining To How The Media Was Controlled

How do the newspapers call themselves a free, unbiased press, and then refuse to print bin Laden's message to the American people in its entirety?

Why did President George W. Bush quietly threaten to prosecute six major communications empires when they got too close to inquiring about BioPort, the strange and suspicious company that is supposed to make anthrax vaccines?

Why aren't honest questions and answers about the Gulf War Syndrome, that may have killed 15,000 soldiers and made 85,000 others terribly sick, as well as caused deformed babies, being asked? Many of the same people who may be guilty of that tragedy are still active. Why are they not being exposed, when a repeat disaster may occur?

Why is the government's threats to the television networks not to air any future taped statements from bin Laden without censoring out those parts the government doesn't want, being agreed to? Why is everyone so afraid of bin Laden "getting his message out"? Do they seriously think that a potential mass murderer of innocent people is going to be able to influence Americans adversely? What are they REALLY afraid of?

Why are we still not being told about American LaFarge, a French firm that supplied Saddam Hussein the ingredients for Iraq's poison gas to kill Iraqis, Kurds, Iranians, and whoever else Hussein wants to gas? Why does the media not tell us that Hillary Rodham Clinton is one of American LaFarge's directors, and George Bush the elder is one of its major stockholders?

Why does the media not tell us how Prescott Bush (George W. Bush's grandfather) financially helped Hitler to power? Why don't they tell us how his father, George H. W. Bush, financially helped Noriega and Saddam Hussein come to power? Why don't they tell us how George W. Bush (junior) has been in business in the past with Osama bin Laden and recently paid the Taliban $14 million taxpayer dollars, over the objections of many Congressmen?

Why has the news media ignored how the CIA has helped Libya train and supply terrorists? Why has the new media ignored how the oil companies have been behind Col. Qaddafi's success? Why have the news media ignored how the CIA and Russia worked together to create the international militant Moslems that we now are going to war against?

Why has the media ridiculed those of us who have warned that the Middle East has been prepared by the Global Powerbrokers for another world war? Why are we being set-up for failure in another war that makes little sense? Why isn't the media a genuine platform for creative, productive, peaceful solutions, rather than simply acting as the military's propaganda machine, arousing war fever? (For readers who don't watch television, quite a few networks—FOX, CNBC, Saturday Night Live, etc.—have had guests on—usually Jewish—who are rabidly for war, and in favor of bombing the Moslems.)

Why are the media ignoring reports of military reverses?

Why are Ariel Sharon's attempts to provoke a Middle East war by using F-16 jets to bomb civilian targets not being exposed by the media? Peace-loving Israelis are speaking out about it, but not our media. Why?

Why are witnesses with something to say being intimidated?

Why has the media downplayed what is historically known about how Pearl Harbor, the Gulf of Tonkin incident, the Lusitania, the Maine—all of these incidents, which were used to get us into war, were not what the public perceived them to be?

Questions Pertaining To Who Benefited From This Tragedy

Why is the obvious question: "Who benefits most from the attack?" not being asked and not being honestly answered?

Why aren't we hearing about the large oil fields (trillions of dollars in Central Asia needing a pipeline) and opium fields (harvested in Afghanistan and marketed via the elite's international triads) that are at stake in this war?

Why has the media ignored the fact that obvious insider trading in United and American Airlines stock, just before 9/11/01, provided certain people (including CIA people) with $9 million in stock profit. In other words, the CIA knew ahead of time about the attack and made $9 million in profit, and the news media has ignored this story. [Editor's note: Read the shocking details on this matter in our News Desk article.] There was insider trading also on the stock of firms that were in the WTC buildings, via banks that the CIA watches and are connected to. Why is this being kept secret by the media?

Why has the media been relatively quiet that the Bush family will make large amounts of profits from this new expensive war? Why did the Wall Street Journal, which actually was asking the right questions, expose how the bin Laden family will make profits off of U.S. defense spending, yet fail to mention their business partners, the Bushes?

Why has the bin Laden family continued to funnel money to Osama bin Laden via a set of banks that is also used as a depository for accounts set up for bribed judges (i.e. La Salle National Bank)? How deep is the estrangement between bin Laden and his family, when he called his grandmother just two days before the 9/11/01 attack? If we do conclude that the bin Laden family and Osama bin Laden are seriously estranged (on the outs with each other), why aren't questions about how people can be connected via mind-control programming and blackmail being addressed?

Whoever masterminded the 9/11/01 attacks was intelligent and able to think ahead—and yet it should have been clear that these attacks would not help the Palestinian cause, and would cause such a backlash of anti-Moslem sentiments that Moslem causes would receive a setback.

How can we believe that the mastermind was so silly as to not pick more rational, productive targets? Why not attack the Mossad or the CIA's buildings? Was the WTC a rational target for Moslems wanting America to support their viewpoint?

Larry Silverstein was the new owner of the WTC before it disappeared, who had new insurance policies on it. How much is he standing to make from insurance?

Why are the NSA and the CIA getting more money out of all of this? Why is no one upset at what is at best incompetence and at worst is co-conspiracy with the perpetrators of this crime? Why is the media not calling for the resignations of the incompetents? Why aren't the men who lead our intelligence sick with grief that they failed to warn us, and why don't they have the honor to resign? Do we really believe they will protect us the next time around? Are they?

Bush calls this war "Operation Enduring Freedom", and after the 9/11/01 tragedy he was immediately reassuring Americans that freedom would be preserved. Why is the operation called this name?

Why are Americans being told that freedom will be preserved, while the government and Bush are working as fast and as secretly as they can to strip us of all the privileges the Bill Of Rights gave us? Where are our civil liberties going? What FREEDOM is going to be left to defend?!

Already they have limited the right to free speech, put more limits on what guns can be owned (old military guns are to be turned in), the police are militarized, the National Guard are now a federal police force, and "everyone" can do warrantless random searches, there are more invasions of privacy and severe restrictions on travel. This is "protecting" freedom? How does a government honestly get by with calling this protecting freedom, except in an Orwellian world where the media works with the government?

Where is the evidence that Osama bin Laden is responsible?

President Bush says he is a Bible-believing Christian, and that we are the "good" guys. But the Bible says all have sinned and that mankind is basically in rebellion to Him. How does Bush honestly cast America in the role of angels and saints? How does the so-called liberal media allow him to paint America as a good nation after our record of exploiting the poor, abortion, porn, immorality, interventionism, and with our past and ongoing record of stealing the Native Americans' homeland? Does the media actually now believe we are the "good guys" and the other side is "evil"?

Or is there some good and bad in all of us? President George W. Bush said that: "Enemies of America will include nations that harbor, support, train, provide shelter and staging facilities to terrorists." We trained the alleged terrorist pilots. Our nation was used as the staging ground for the operation. Are we a terrorist nation? We fit the description of Bush's criteria!

Didn't the Bible say that to get right with God a person or a nation needs to admit of their true condition, and then He will come and heal them? Is the media helping us by giving us delusions of goodness?

You shameful media hypocrites, men who would like to seem wise, but are foolish, who have never dared to confront evil in yourselves, let alone organized evil. Do you know that the wisdom of God says that the person who covers his sin shall not prosper?

I think there's something in this world worth salvaging. Let's do it. Let's have the moral courage to think ahead before our nation's rendezvous with the New World Order and several continents of corpses. As someone astutely said: "An eye for an eye leaves everyone blind."

The REAL criminals of the 9/11/01 crime deserve to be brought to justice, and the establishment media has been an accomplice by hiding these murderers.

See and hear David Icke at the top of his form as he presents six-and-a-half hours of incredible information before a sellout audience of 1200 at the Vogue Theatre in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

You will laugh, you may even cry, and you will be on the edge of your seat as the fantastic story of true human history, and WHO really controls the world today, unfolds in Icke's unique style, aided by video footage and hundreds of illustrations.

This is the presentation that the Illuminati (the forces of global control) tried so hard to stop—media interviews were cancelled; immigration officials turned up at the theatre to question his right to speak; pressure was applied on the venue to cancel the event itself; and pies were even thrown at David at a book signing by a rent-a-mob who ludicrously and outrageously sought to dub him a "racist".

But nothing could silence him or break his spirit—and here you will see the result. David Icke shows that if you do not concede to fear, anything is possible!

Get this 3-video set (6-1/2 hours) for $59.95 (+S/H).
*Current SPECTRUM subscribers pay only $49.95 (+S/H).

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

I Tried To Be Patriotic, Or: New Physics For 21st Century

Editor's note: Within the front-page story for last month's issue of The SPECTRUM were several blunt discussions about the absurdity of the official explanation for the collapse of the World Trade Center towers and several surrounding sturdy buildings. Surely the single most embarrassing fact was that—if we accept the physics of the official explanation—the wrong tower fell first! Or as the old Murphy's Law goes: "Science is 'truth'; don't be misled by facts."

The following was written a bit as if Lieutenant Columbo was to play his part (of the unassuming bumbler) in solving the murder mystery at hand. In this case, some very big buildings were "murdered" with unconscionable disregard for their many thousands of human occupants. Of course, like watching Columbo, in what you will read below you are following the analysis of a gifted, HONEST expert—in disguise.

His original title was simply the "I Tried To Be Patriotic" part of the above headline. But his points about how the laws of science and engineering have apparently changed in the New Millennium are surely very big news worth heralding also.

It makes you stop and think: Perhaps we've been too harsh on the politicians for their endlessly creative bookkeeping schemes; maybe one plus one actually doesn't equal two any more. And when that police officer pulls you over for speeding, politely but firmly explain (like the media has done with the towers' story) that the laws of physics have changed since the radar gun was manufactured, and thus it was incorrectly reading your speed too high. And parents, keep in mind that junior now is telling the "truth" when he says he didn't knock the vase over as he flew through the living room on the way to the kitchen cookie jar—it just fell over all by itself. And if this is the science of the future—just what kind of future might that be?

We would like to thank the dedicated para-discuss@tje.net Internet website for presenting this gem. If it helps to plant just a small kernel of doubt in the minds of those who can't yet accept The Truth, then it will have provided the first step in a very important and ultimately powerful awakening process.

10/30/01 J. McMICHAEL
(jmc michael@care2.com)

I tried to be patriotic.
I tried to believe.

I watched those quarter-mile-high buildings fall, through their jaw-dropping catastrophes, over and over again.

I listened to the announcer and the experts explain what had happened.

I worked at my pitiful lack of faith, pounding my skull with the remote control and staring at the flickering images on the TV screen.

But poor mental peasant that I am, I could not escape the teachings of my forefathers. I fear I am trapped in my time, walled off from further scientific understanding by my inability to abandon the Second Millennium mindset.

But enough of myself. Let us move on to the Science and Technology of the 21st Century.

Those of you who cannot believe should learn the official truth by rote, and perhaps you will be able to hide your ignorance.

Here are the bare bones of the WTC incident: north tower struck 8:45 a.m., collapsed 10:29 a.m.; south tower struck 9:03 a.m., collapsed 9:50 a.m.

Using jet fuel to melt steel is an amazing discovery, really. It is also amazing that until now, no one had been able to get it to work—and that proves the terrorists were not stupid people.

Ironworkers fool with acetylene torches, bottled oxygen, electric arcs from generators, electric furnaces, and other elaborate tricks. But what did these brilliant terrorists use? Jet fuel, costing maybe 80 cents a gallon on the open market.

Let us consider: One plane full of jet fuel hit the north tower at 8:45 a.m., and the fuel fire burned for a while with bright flames and black smoke. We can see pictures of the smoke and flames shooting from the windows.

Then, by 9:03 a.m. (which time was marked by the second plane's collision with the south tower), the flame was mostly gone and only black smoke continued to pour from the building. To my simple mind, that would indicate that the first fire had died down, but something was still burning inefficiently, leaving soot (carbon) in the smoke. A fire with sooty smoke is either low temperature or starved for oxygen—or both.

But by 10:29 a.m., the fire in north tower had accomplished the feat that I find so amazing: It melted the steel supports in the building, causing a chain reaction within the structure that brought the building to the ground.

And with less fuel to feed the fire, the south tower collapsed only 47 minutes after the plane collision, again with complete destruction. This is only half the time it took to destroy the north tower.

I try not to think about that. I try not to think about a petroleum fire burning for 104 minutes, just getting hotter and hotter until it reached 1538° Celsius (2800° Fahrenheit) and melted the steel. (Steel is about 99% iron; for melting point of iron, see the www.webelements.com/webelements/elements/text/Fe/heat.html Internet website.) I try not to wonder how the fire reached temperatures that only bottled oxygen or forced air can produce.

And I try not to think about all the steel that was in that building—200,000 tons of it! (See the www.infoplease.com/spot/wtc1.html Internet website for stats.) I try to forget that heating steel is like pouring syrup onto a plate: you can't get it to stack up. The heat just flows out to the colder parts of the steel, cooling off the part you are trying to warm up. If you pour it on hard enough and fast enough, you can get the syrup to stack up a little bit. And with very high heat brought on very fast, you can heat up the one part of the object, but the heat will quickly spread out and the part will cool off the moment you stop.

When the heat source warms the last cold part of the object, the heat stops escaping and the point of attention can be warmed. If the north tower collapse was due to heated steel, why did it take 104 minutes to reach the critical temperature? (www.infoplease.com/spot/sept112001.html)

Am I to believe that the fire burned all that time, getting constantly hotter until it reached melting temperature? Or did it burn hot and steady throughout, until 200,000 tons of steel were heated molten—on one plane load of jet fuel? (For quantity of steel in the WTC, see the www.infoplease.com/spot/wtc1.html Internet website.)

Thankfully, I found this note on the BBC webpage <http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/world/americas/newsid_1540000/1540044.stm>

"Fire reaches 800° C—hot enough to melt steel floor supports."

That is one of the things I warned you about: In the 20th Century, steel melted at 1538° Celsius (2800° F), but in the 21st Century, it melts at 800° C (1472° F).

This might be explained as a reporter's mistake—800° to 900° C is the temperature for forging wrought iron. As soft as wrought iron is, of course, it would never be used for structural steel in a landmark skyscraper. (Descriptions of cast iron, wrought iron, and steel, and relevant temperatures, are discussed at the www.metrum.org/measures/castiron.htm Internet website.) But then, lower down, the BBC page repeats the 800° C number in bold, and the article emphasizes that the information comes from Chris Wise, a "Structural Engineer". Would this professional individual permit himself to be misquoted in a global publication?

I feel it coming on again—that horrible cynicism that causes me to doubt the word of the major anchorpersons. Please just think of this essay as a plea for help, and do NOT let it interfere with your own righteous faith. The collapse of America's faith in its leaders must not become another casualty on America's skyline.

In my diseased mind, I think of the floors of each tower like a stack of LP (33-1/3 RPM) records, only they were square instead of circular. They were stacked around a central spindle that consisted of multiple steel columns stationed in a square around the 103 elevator shafts. (See the www.skyscraper.org/tallest/t_wtc.htm and www.civil.usyd.edu.au/wtc.htm Internet websites.)

With this core bearing the weight of the building, the platters were tied together and stabilized by another set of steel columns at the outside rim, closely spaced and completely surrounding the structure. This resulting structure was so stable that the top of the towers swayed only three feet in a high wind. The architects called it a "tube within a tube" design.

The TV experts told us that the joints between the floors and central columns melted (or the floor trusses, or the central columns, or the exterior columns, depending on the expert) and this caused the floor to collapse and fall onto the one below. This overloaded the joints for the lower floor, and the two of them fell onto the floor below, and so on, like dominoes.

Back in the early 1970s, when the World Trade Towers were built, the WTC was the tallest building that had ever been built in the history of the world. If we consider the architectural engineers, suppliers, builders, and city inspectors in the job, we can imagine they would be very careful to over-build every aspect of the building. If one bolt was calculated to serve, you can bet that three or four were used. If there was any doubt about the quality of a girder or steel beam, you can be sure it was rejected. After all, any failures would attract the attention of half the civilized world, and no corporation wants a reputation for that kind of stupidity—particularly if there are casualties.

I do not know the exact specifications for the WTC, but I know in many trades (and some I've worked) a structural member must be physically capable of three times the maximum load that will ever be required of it (that is, Breaking Strength = 3 x Working Strength).

Given that none of those floors were holding a grand piano sale or an elephant convention that day, it is unlikely that any of them were loaded to the maximum. Thus, any of the floors should have been capable of supporting more than its own weight, plus the two floors above it. I suspect the WTC was engineered for safer margins than the average railroad bridge, and the actual load on each floor was less than 1/6 the Breaking Strength.

The platters were constructed of webs of steel trusses. Radial trusses ran from the perimeter of the floor to the central columns, and concentric rings of trusses connected the radial trusses, forming a pattern like a spider web. (See the http://news.bbc.co.uk/olmedia/1540000/images/_1540044_world_trade_structure300.gif Internet website for details.)

Where the radial trusses connected with the central columns, I imagine the joints looked like the big bolted flanges where girders meet on a bridge—inches thick bolts tying the beams into the columns.

The experts tell us that the heat of the fire melted the steel, causing the joints to fail. In order to weaken those joints, a fire would have to heat the bolts or the flanges to the point where the bolts fell apart or tore through the steel.

But here is another thing that gives me problems: all the joints between the platter and the central columns would have to be heated at the same rate in order to collapse at the same time—and at the same rate as the joints with the outer rim columns on all sides—else one side of the platter would fall, damaging the floor below and making obvious distortions in the skin of the building, or throwing the top of tower off balance and to one side.

But there were no irregularities in the fall of the main structure of those buildings. They fell almost as perfectly as a deck of cards in the hands of a magician doing an aerial shuffle.

This is particularly worrisome since the first plane struck one side of the north tower, causing (you would think) a weakening on that side, where the exterior columns were struck, and a more intense fire on that side than on the other side. And the second plane struck near the corner of the south tower, at an angle that caused much of the fuel to spew out the windows on the adjacent side. (See the www.eionews.addr.com/images/wtc/southtowerpath.jpg Internet website.)

Yet the south tower also collapsed in perfect symmetry, spewing dust in all directions like a Fourth of July sparkler burning to the ground.

Oh, wait! Here is a picture (http://news.bbc.co.uk/olmedia/1535000/images/_1538563_thecollapseap150.jpg) showing the top 25 floors of one tower (probably south) toppling over sideways. Why are there no reports of this cube of concrete and steel (measuring 200 ft. wide, 200 ft. deep, and 200 ft. high) falling from 1000 feet into the street below?

But implosion expert Mark Loizeaux, president of Controlled Demolition Inc. in Phoenix, MD, is of the opinion that it happened: Observing the collapses on television news, Loizeaux says the 1,362-ft-tall south tower, which was hit at about the 60th floor, failed much as one would like (sic) fell a tree. (www.civil.usyd.edu.au/wtc_enr.htm)

I have seen a videotaped rerun of the south tower falling. In that take, the upper floors descend as a complete unit. All the way, the upper-floor unit was canted over as shown on the BBC page, sliding down behind the intervening buildings like a piece of stage scenery.

That scene is the most puzzling of all. Since the upper floors were not collapsed (the connection between the center columns and the platters were intact), this assembly would present itself to the lower floors as a platter WITHOUT a central hole. How then would a platter without a hole slide down the spindle with the other platters? Where would the central columns go if they could not penetrate the upper floors as they fell?

The only model I can find for the situation would be this: If the fire melted the floor joints so that the collapse began from the 60th floor downward, the upper floors would be left hanging in the air, supported only by the central columns. This situation would soon become unstable and the top 40 floors would topple over (to use Loizeaux's image) much like felling the top 600 feet from a 1300-ft. tree.

This model would also hold for the north tower. According to Chris Wise's "domino" doctrine, the collapse began only at the floor with the fire, not at the penthouse. How was it that the upper floor simply disappeared instead of crashing to the Earth as a block of thousands of tons of concrete and steel?

The amazing thing is that no one (but Loizeaux) even mentions this phenomenon, much less describing the seismic event it must have caused.

Where is the ruin where the 200ft. x 200ft. x 50-story object struck? Forty floors should have caused a ray of devastation 500 ft. into the surrounding cityscape.

In trying to reconstruct and understand this event, we have to know whether the scenes we are watching are edited or simply shown raw as they were recorded.

But let us return to the fire. Liquid fuel does not burn hot for long. Liquid fuel evaporates (or boils) as it burns, and the vapor burns as it boils off. If the ambient temperature passes the flash point of the fuel, and oxygen is plentiful, the process builds to an explosion that consumes the fuel.

Jet fuel boils at temperatures above 176° Celsius (350° F) and the vapor flashes into flame at 250° Celsius (482° F). In an environment of 1500°, jet fuel spread thinly on walls, floor, and ceiling would boil off very quickly. And then it would either burn, or run out of oxygen and smother itself. Or it would simply disperse out the open windows (some New Yorkers claimed they could smell the spilled fuel).

In no case would an office building full of spilled jet fuel sustain a fire at 815° C (1500° F) for 104 minutes—unless it was fed bottled oxygen, forced air, or something else atypical of a fire in a high-rise office building. Certainly the carpets, wallpaper, occasional desks—nothing else in that office would produce that temperature.

What was burning?

Ok, since it was mentioned: I am also upset with the quantity of concrete dust. (See the www.civil.usyd.edu.au/wtc.htm#why Internet website.)

No concrete that I have ever known pulverizes like that. It is unnerving.

My experience with concrete has shown that it will crumble under stress, but rarely does it just give up the ghost and turn to powder. But look at the pictures—it is truly a fine dust in great billowing clouds spewing a hundred feet from the collapsing tower. And the people on the ground see little more than an opaque wall of dust—with inches of dust filling the streets and the lungs afterward. (<http://eionews.addr.com/images/wtc/thirdexplosion.jpg>)

What has happened here?

I need a faith booster-shot.

I would like to find a picture of all those platters piled up on each other on the ground, just as they fell. Has anyone seen a picture like that? I am told it was cumulative weight of those platters falling on each other that caused the collapse, but I don't see the platters piled up like flapjacks on the ground floor.

Instead, the satellite pictures show the WTC ruins like an ash pit (http://eionews.addr.com/images/wtc/numbersixafter_closeup.jpg and <http://eionews.addr.com/images/wtc/wtcaerial.jpg>)

I am told by a friend that a Dr. Robert Schuller was on television telling about his trip to the ruins. He announced in the interview that there was not a single block of concrete in that rubble. From the original 425,000 cubic yards of concrete that went into the building, all was dust. How did that happen?

I have just one other point I need help with: the steel columns in the center. When the platters fell, those quarter-mile high central steel columns (at least from the ground to the fire) should have been left standing, naked and unsupported in the air, and then they should have fallen intact or in sections to the ground below, clobbering buildings hundreds of feet from the WTC site like giant trees falling in the forest. But I haven't seen any pictures showing those columns standing, falling, or lying on the ground. Nor have I heard of damage caused by them.

Now, I know those terrorists must have been much better at these things than I am. I would take one look at their kamikaze plans with commercial jets and I would reject it as—spectacular maybe, but not significantly damaging. The WTC was not even a strategic military target.

But if I were a kamikaze terrorist, I would try to hit the towers low in the supports to knock the towers down, maybe trapping the workers with the fire and burning the towers from the ground up, just as the people in the last 20 stories were trapped. Even the Japanese kamikaze pilots aimed for the water line.

But, you see, those terrorists were so sure the buildings would magically collapse that way, the pilot who hit the north tower chose a spot just 20 floors from the top. (<http://abcnews.go.com/sections/us/DailyNews/worldtrade010911.html>)

And the kamikaze for south tower was only slightly lower—despite a relatively open skyline down to 25 or 30 stories.

The terrorists apparently predicted the whole scenario—the fuel fire, the slow weakening of the structure, and the horrific collapse of the building—phenomena that the architects and the NY civil engineering approval committees never dreamed of.

Even as you righteously hate those men, you have to admire them for their genius.

Few officials or engineers have been surprised by this turn of events—apparently everyone certified it for airplane collisions, but almost no one was surprised when both collisions caused utter catastrophes in both towers. In fact, their stutters and mumbles and circumlocutions would make a politician blush:

“Eventually, the loss of strength and stiffness of the materials resulting from the fire, combined with the initial impact damage, would have caused a failure of the truss system supporting a floor, or the remaining perimeter columns, or even the internal core, or some combination.” (www.civil.usyd.edu.au/wtc.htm#why)

In a hundred years of tall city buildings, this kind of collapse has never happened before.

Never.

It was not predicted by any of the experts involved when the WTC towers were built. But now that it has happened, everybody understands it perfectly and nobody is surprised.

Is this civil engineering in the Third Millennium—a galloping case of perfect hindsight?

The only one I have found who candidly admitted his surprise: Observing the collapses on television news, Loizeaux says the 1,362-ft-tall south tower, which was hit at about the 60th floor, failed much as one would like (sic) fell a tree. That is what was expected, says Loizeaux. But the 1,368-ft-tall north tower, similarly hit but at about the 90th floor, “telescoped” says Loizeaux. It failed vertically, he adds, rather than falling over. “I don't have a clue” says Loizeaux, regarding the cause of the telescoping. (www.civil.usyd.edu.au/wtc_enr.htm)

There was one highly qualified engineer in New Mexico who thought the collapse could only happen with the help of demolition explosives, and he was foolish enough to make the statement publicly. But then he recanted ten days later, and admitted the whole thing was perfectly natural and unsurprising. I wonder what happened in those ten days to make him so smart on the subject so quickly. (Both articles are at the Albuquerque Journal's comprehensive www.abqjournal.com/news/aqvan09-11-01.htm Internet website.)

And then, as though demonstrating how normal this “building collapsing” phenomenon is, WTC buildings six and seven “collapsed” too: “Other buildings—including the 47-story Salomon Brothers building (WTC 7)—caved in later, weakened by the earlier collapses, and more nearby buildings may still fall, say engineers.” (http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/english/world/americas/newsid_1540000/1540044.stm and www.eionews.addr.com/images/wtc/numbersixafter.jpg)

It seems no building in the area, regardless of design, is immune to galloping WTC collapse-itis. It never happened in the 20th Century, but welcome to the physical universe laws of the Third Millennium.

Pardon me, but this recitation has not given me the relief I hoped for. I must get back to work.

I believe in the president, the flag, and the Statue of Liberty.

I believe in the honesty of the FBI and the humility of military men.

I believe in the network news anchor-persons, who strive to learn the truth, to know the truth, and to tell the truth to the audience.

And I believe all of America is so well educated in the basic physics discussed above, they would rise up in a fury if anyone tried to pull a cheap Hollywood trick on them.

Hand me that remote, will you?

I believe (clonk).

I believe (clonk).

I believe....

“The advancement and diffusion of knowledge is the only guardian of true liberty.”
— James Madison

Pay Attention To Your Other Senses

11/8/01 KORTON

Good afternoon, my friend. It is I, Tomeros Maasu Korton, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace.

All is unfolding as it should be. There are no mistakes in the forever unfolding experiences of the soul's infinite potential for expressing. The times you are living in are very productive with respect to change and newness of experience. You each are being challenged to go within and search selves for answers that help you to make sense out of what you are feeling with respect to the recent shifts in energy associated with the "terrorist" threats.

Allow for the inner EMOTIONAL signals to have a "voice" within your mind, and thereby allow for the balancing of the intuitive and the analytical reasonings. Many of you insist upon logical explanations for all that you see and experience. Most insist that they can only accept that which is commonly agreed upon as "reasonable" explanations. The would-be controllers of your world are counting on this very element of fear (fear of persecution for thinking "outside the box") in order to maintain and further their control over the general masses.

The nature of the emotional signals you ones feel from moment to moment are quite subjective to the one perceiving same, and yet, with discipline you can learn to interpret the language of feeling, and thus use it in much the same way you utilize vocal communication.

[Editor's note: Go back to the front-page feature articles in the June and August 2001 issues of this publication for incredible verifications of what Korton is talking about.]

Your bodies are exquisitely designed as bio-electric machines able to sense a very wide spectrum of electromagnetic signals and vibrations. Most ones overly fixate on the main physical senses for the majority of their information. This sort of information is relatively common and can easily distract ones from perceiving the much more subtle aspects of your infinite abilities to sense and perceive.

Put another way, many of you have the "music" in your "room" playing so loud that you do not hear the "telephone" ringing and thus miss the many "calls" coming your way.

Throughout many cultures in your world there is found the same advice about the importance of remaining calm and quieting the mind when trying to make balanced choices during stressful times. When you can quiet the mind (turn down the volume of the "music" in my earlier analogy), you will then notice that there are subtle yet significant emotional sensations (emanations and vibrations) being sent your way in order to assist you to find the answers to your heart's desire. Most desire peace, calmness, understanding, and a sense of certainty that they are able to cope with whatever it is that is causing the inner unrest.

Overwhelm, uncertainty, stress, and loneliness all have their roots within the individual as a result of FEARS that the individual holds onto. These fears come from a lack of understanding of who exactly you are with respect to the Larger Picture of being a soul (an immortal electromagnetic energy consciousness) who has chosen to enter into a compressed aspect of Creation (the 3-D, physical environment of schoolroom Earth) so as to slow down and truly examine the nature of consciousness in infinite detail.

Entering into the frequency range of a physical universe often leaves ones in a state of feeling disconnected, lonely, and thus the perception of reality is questioned. Most often, ones become overly fixated on the physical senses of the body in an effort to explore the physical environment, in an effort to re-find the connectedness and understanding they have seemingly lost.

None of the connectedness was actually lost. Rather, it is much like you are in a darkened room and there is a huge spotlight and loud "music" along with other physical sensations, all coming from what appears to be a single OUTWARD direction. The INNER signals are all still there, but with all the vivid OUTWARD happenings, you become fixated on the external, as most will seek answers from this loud, continual bombardment of external physical sensation, rather than relying on their quieter inner senses of Knowing.

Many of you who resonate with these messages are recognizing the need to re-establish and maintain a conscious connection within in order to make sense of the happenings all around you. You are not a product of your environment; rather, you are consciousness expressing desire that molds the environment.

The "leaders of mass consciousness" know these fundamental "secrets" and hold these basic truths as sacred knowledge (beyond top-secret) that is only for the "elect" ruling class so that they, with their "superior" intellect and knowledge, can dictate and mold the unfolding of events and societal evolution. These ones who hold themselves in this capacity of "ruling class" are responsible for trying to enslave the minds of the masses.

It is for these very reasons that this sort of information is ridiculed as being "cultish", satanic, sorcery, and such. And yet the very holy of holy books on your planet—the Bible—is of this very same nature. God and angels give messages to those who have learned to quiet their minds so that ones can have access to the knowledge currently only being held for the "elite ruling class". If these "elite" are responsible for editing the original works gathered together in the book called Bible, and have removed most references to anything that would actually liberate the minds and thinking of man, then don't you think that God, in all His wisdom, would simply give the messages again and again, in every language and to every culture?

The answer is YES! He would and DOES! These ones who bring forth this sort of information are viewed as a threat to the ruling class of the world. They become labeled as all sorts of derogatory names; many have been called witches because they healed sickness with a touch of a hand. And yet, did not Christ of the Bible do the same? Did he not also state that the things he did, so too shall you do, and more? Did Christ not directly communicate with the Father—Creator God? Yes he did! And, SO TOO CAN YOU!

The bottom line is that you ones have been indoctrinated to follow the teachings of the elite controllers—who know the importance of keeping the flashing lights and loud noises of distraction constantly pounding away in front of you. They also have a very long and dark history of persecuting and torturing those who they cannot control, so as to set an example for others and instill the FEAR of persecution in all ones. Most often these heinous acts are proclaimed to be "the will of God". And perhaps they are—but what "god" would these ones be worshiping that condones persecution, murder, torture, burning people alive, going to war to kill more innocent people, terrorizing the masses in the process so that they become fearful to act or think for themselves?

Are these just "New Age" blatherings of a sick mind, or are these Inspired words being offered as a means to answer the heart's prayer for understanding and peace with respect to the general inner state of fearfulness that is being generated?

Learn to help yourself, and in so doing you will see that God will provide you with the confirmations you seek. Goodness and the intent to help others are a very common trait among all ones. It is only the few, who have suppressed their conscience, who can usurp and manipulate another for any length of time without feeling remorse and guilt.

The average person has great difficulty believing that this sort of insanity exists, and that they will be stabbed in the back by the very ones who offer

Soul Mates And Twin Flames

A new look at love, karma, and relationships. You'll learn about soul mates (drawn together to fulfill a specific mission), twin flames (created as one in the beginning), and karmic partners. Soul Mates And Twin Flames also provides techniques that can help you develop deep and lasting relationships.

ISBN 0-922729-48-4, 4"x6", 165 pp.

$5.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call
Wisdom Books & Press
toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Karma And Reincarnation

Transcending Your Past, Transforming Your Future

ISBN 0-922729-56-5, 4"x6", 240 pp.

The word karma has made it into the mainstream. But not everyone knows what it really means or how to deal with it. This insightful book will help you come to grips with karmic connections from past lives that have helped create the circumstances of your life today.

For ordering information call
Wisdom Books & Press
toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$6.95 (+S/H)

Your Seven Energy Centers

A Holistic Approach To Physical, Emotional, And Spiritual Vitality

ISBN 0-922729-56-5, 4"x6", 234 pp.

"Marries ancient healing wisdom with practical spiritual insights to help you create your own dynamic and uniquely personal healing journey. Your 21st century guide to integrating and healing body, mind, and soul."

—ANN LOUISE GITTLEMAN, author of the Living Beauty Detox Program

For ordering information call
Wisdom Books & Press
toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$6.95 (+S/H)

“solutions” to the nation’s “problems”. It is simply too unimaginable for the average decent person to believe that the “problem solvers” are usually the same ones who engineered the “problem” in the first place, to accomplish their own selfish goals.

The only “problem” we see with your world is that the majority live in a constant state of distraction and fear, and thus conform to the “status quo” so as to minimize discomfort as they pridefully establish their “success” at mediocrity and complacency.

Your world is full of “drones” or “robots” who quietly go about their lives, seeking to find inner satisfaction of that “something important” that seems to be missing. Constantly they search for answers—in the next bottle of beer, the next weekend off when they finally have time to sit down in front of the television and watch the next big sporting event, or get away on the vacation that often does little more than drain them of energy moreso than refreshes them. The answers to these inner questions of unrest will only come from within, rather than from the external distractions.

So, the next time you feel as if there is “something missing” in your life, rather than looking outwardly for a new relationship, party, job, hobby, or any number of distractions, take out a piece of paper and write down what it is that you hope to take with you when you depart from the physical experience. What sort of things would you like to discuss with your Creator? If you were to meet with Christ, what would you like to show him that you accomplished in your life? If your Guardian Angels are there to assist you, what are you willing to do to help them to help you? Write down the answers to these questions and ideas. Reflect upon the inner qualities that each of these ideas encompass.

Your journey is NEVER a solitary or isolated one. You will ALWAYS have the opportunity to go within and establish an inner connection with those who dwell in the Higher Realms of existence. Your separation from Divine Consciousness is impossible, for your very ability to think and perceive is a result of this connectedness!

Your personal beliefs about this subject are perhaps your greatest obstacles. You can choose to close your eyes and put cotton balls in your ears to block out the sounds of physical vibrations. However, the feelings that well up within cannot be totally suppressed and will always be there for you to examine, explore, and USE!

You all are awakening these inner abilities and perceptions. Ones cannot easily ignore the “beyond chance” happenings and “miracles” that are happening in their lives. All such occurrences are done for the value they convey that there are Higher Forces at work in your world, and that the “common” person can have extraordinary experiences that lead to a greater appreciation for the Unseen and Unheard (by the physical senses) Energies who interact with you there in the physical on a regular basis. These are merely forms of communication in ways that make a lasting INNER, emotional impact, which will then awaken a quest for greater understanding fueled by the vivid reality of the

WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach

Over
400 pages
+4 color photos
$15
(+S/H)

Do you enjoy the spiritual messages shared here in The SPECTRUM? If so then you won't want to miss these two volumes packed full of earlier shared messages.

“Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where these books come into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen.” — From the back cover of Volume I

“Let us begin with WHO you are. You, the non-physical YOU, are an infinite thought projection of the One who created you (God!). You are the product of His desire. You are, in effect, Desire manifest in uniqueness of purpose.” — Esu “Jesus” Sananda (Vol. II)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

“miracle” perceived.

There are no real mysteries when ones become fully aware of the true nature of the soul's journey—both physical and non-physical. From the physical “laws” of science, to the most subtle emotional sensations—all happens for a reason. EVERYTHING you experience not only has reason, but is of immense value to you as well.

If you are feeling lonely, that sensation is offered as a reminder that you have unanswered questions and that you have accepted an idea or belief as truth which simply is not true, but rather is a perceptual illusion held with a strong emotional bond based in fear.

Harsh? Perhaps, but from my perspective accurate and to the point, without the coddling of the inner ego.

Your feelings of loneliness can be viewed as a debilitating handicap or an Inspired message from within to get busy looking at the inner fears that hold such vibrational feelings in your space. All such feelings and sensations are a result of your perceptual understanding and awareness.

Many of you who are accustomed to eating a large variety of foods would become quite depressed if you had to eat nothing but rice and water for a few weeks or months. However, you take someone who has had to go for extended periods of time without food, and they would be in an ecstatic state of joy knowing that they would never be hungry again if they just had a never-ending supply of rice and water.

What is the difference between these two points of view? Why does one perceive the same situation with joy and appreciation that the other regards as a depressed and miserable existence?

Within these examples are the “secrets” to happiness and the ever illusive “something that is missing” in your lives. With a simple change of perception, belief, understanding, your whole view of the world can be transformed from one of darkness and overwhelm to one of grand, sparkling opportunities of ever changing newness.

As always, the perceptions and beliefs are yours to choose and decide. YOU are your own biggest obstacle that stands in the way of your own joyful fulfillment and bliss.

May you each make an effort to go within and connect with the vibrational intent of this message, so as to create a condition within that allows for the maximum possible understanding of the ideas expressed herein. I am Tomeros Maasu Kortan, come in Light and Service to The One Light—Father-Mother Source—Creator God. Salu. △

How To Work With Angels

We can bring miracles into our life every day when we learn to work with angels. This book introduces many types of angels, including angels of protection, healing, and peace. You will learn how you can develop your own relationship with the angels or expand the contact you already have with them. Inspirational angel stories and prayers. Illustrations

ISBN 0-922729-41-7, 4"x6", 118 pp.

$5.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

CREATIVE ABUNDANCE Keys To Spiritual & Material Prosperity

ISBN 0-922729-38-7, 4"x6", 174 pp.

$5.95 (+S/H)

Abundance is more than money. It is love, wisdom, talents, virtues—whatever we need to fulfill our life's purpose. Its step-by-step techniques include treasure mapping, principles of feng shui, visualizations, as well as affirmations that show you how to make all of your dreams come true.

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Alchemy Of The Heart How To Give And Receive More Love

ISBN 0-922729-60-3, 4"x6", 204 pp.

“There is no way you can read this book and not feel more love for those around you—and as you do, you can see the healing changes that love will bring.”

—MAGICAL BLEND

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$6.95 (+S/H)

Recent Interview With Osama Bin Laden

Editor's note: The text below is from a revealing interview conducted recently with Osama bin Laden by a "special correspondent" and printed in the Pakistani newspaper Ummat on September 28, 2001 that was later reprinted by the BBC Monitoring Service. The place and actual date of the interview is not given, but from the narrative we can conclude that the interview took place shortly before the 9/28/01 publication date. Note that their spelling of Osama is Usamah.

A practical intelligence and a moral compassion permeate this interview, revealing a very different person from the villain the media has been portraying. This should come as no surprise to regular SPECTRUM readers.

9/28/01 PAKISTANI NEWSPAPER UMMAT

Ummat: You have been accused of involvement in the attacks in New York and Washington. What do you want to say about this? If you are not involved, who might be?

Usamah: In the name of Allah, the most beneficent, the most merciful. Praise be to Allah, who is the creator of the whole universe and who made the Earth as an abode for peace, for the whole mankind. Allah is the Sustainer, who sent Prophet Muhammad for our guidance.

I am thankful to The Ummat Group of Publications, which gave me the opportunity to convey my viewpoint to the people, particularly the valiant and Momin [true Muslim] people of Pakistan who refused to believe in lie of the demon. I have already said that I am not involved in the 11 September attacks in the United States. As a Muslim, I try my best to avoid telling a lie.

I had no knowledge of these attacks, nor do I consider the killing of innocent women, children, and other humans as an appreciable act. Islam strictly forbids causing harm to innocent women, children, and other people. Such a practice is forbidden, ever, in the course of a battle.

It is the United States which is perpetrating every maltreatment on women, children, and common people of other faiths, particularly the followers of Islam. All that is going on in Palestine for the last 11 months is sufficient to call the wrath of God upon the United States and Israel. There is also a warning for those Muslim countries which witnessed all these as a silent spectator.

What had earlier been done to the innocent people of Iraq, Chechnya, and Bosnia? Only one conclusion could be derived from the indifference of the United States and the West to these acts of terror and the patronage of the tyrants by these powers that America is an anti-Islamic power and it is patronizing the anti-Islamic forces. Its friendship with the Muslim countries is just a show, rather deceit. By enticing or intimidating these countries, the United States is forcing them to play a role of its choice. Put a glance all around and you will see that the slaves of the United States are either rulers or enemies [of Muslims].

The U.S. has no friends, nor does it want to keep any, because the prerequisite of friendship is to come to the level of the friend or consider him at par with you. America does not want to see anyone equal to it. It expects slavery from others. Therefore, other countries are either its slaves or subordinates.

However, our case is different. We have pledged "slavery" to God Almighty alone, and after this pledge there is no possibility to become the slave of someone else. If we do that, it will be disregardful to both our Sustainer and His fellow beings. Most of the world nations upholding their freedom are the religious ones, which are the enemies of United States, or the latter itself considers them as its enemies. Or the countries which do not agree to become its slaves, such as China, Iran, Libya, Cuba, Syria, and the former Russia [as received].

Whoever committed the act of 11 September are not the friends of the American people. I have already said that we are against the American system, not against its people, whereas in these attacks, the common American people have been killed.

According to my information, the death toll is much higher than what the U.S. government has stated. But the Bush administration does not want the panic to spread. The United States should try to trace the perpetrators of these attacks within itself—the people who are a part of the U.S. system, but are dissenting against it. Or those who are working for some other system—persons who want to make the present century as a century of conflict between Islam and Christianity so that their own civilization, nation, country, or ideology could survive. They can be anyone, from Russia to Israel, and from India to Serbia.

In the U.S. itself, there are dozens of well-organized and well-equipped groups which are capable of causing a large-scale destruction. Then you cannot forget the American Jews, who are annoyed with President Bush ever since the elections in Florida, and want to avenge him. Then there are intelligence agencies in the U.S. which require billions of dollars worth of funds from the Congress and the government every year. This [funding issue] was not a big problem during the existence of the former Soviet Union, but after that the budget of these agencies has been in danger. They needed an enemy.

So, they first started propaganda against Usamah and Taleban, and then this incident happened. You see, the Bush administration approved a budget of $40 billion. Where will this huge amount go? It will be provided to the same agencies which need huge funds and want to exert their importance. Now they will spend the money for their expansion and for increasing their importance.

I will give you an example: Drug smugglers from all over the world are in contact with the U.S. secret agencies. These agencies do not want to eradicate narcotics cultivation and trafficking because their importance will be diminished. The people in the U.S. Drug Enforcement Department are encouraging drug trade so that they could show performance and get millions of dollars worth of budget. General Noriega was made a drug baron by the CIA and, in need, he was made a scapegoat.

In the same way, whether it is President Bush or any other U.S. president, they cannot bring Israel to justice for its human rights abuses or to hold it accountable for such crimes. What is this? Is it not that there exists a government within the government in the United States? That secret government must be asked as to who made the attacks.

Ummat: A number of world countries have joined the call of the United States for launching an attack on Afghanistan. These also include a number of Muslim countries. Will Al-Qa'idah declare a jihad against these countries as well?

Usamah: I must say that my duty is just to awaken the Muslims, to tell them as to what is good for them and what is not. What does Islam say and what do the enemies of Islam want? Al-Qa'idah was set up to wage a jihad against infidelity, particularly to encounter the onslaught of the infidel countries against the Islamic states. Jihad is the sixth undeclared element of Islam. [The first five are the basic holy words of Islam, prayers, fast, pilgrimage to Mecca, and giving alms.] Every anti-Islamic person is afraid of it.

Al-Qa'idah wants to keep this element alive and active and make it part of the daily life of the Muslims. It wants to give it the status of worship. We are not against any Islamic country, nor do we consider a war against an Islamic country as jihad. We are in favour of armed jihad only against those infidel countries which are killing innocent Muslim men, women, and children just because they are Muslims.

Supporting the U.S. act is the need of some Muslim countries and the compulsion of others. However, they should think as to what will remain of their religious and moral position if they support the attack of the Christians and the Jews on a Muslim country like Afghanistan.

The orders of Islamic shari'ah [jurisprudence] for such individuals, organizations, and countries are clear, and all the scholars of the Muslim brotherhood are unanimous on them. We will do the same, which is being ordered by the Amir ol-Momenin [the commander of the faithful] Mola Omar and the Islamic scholars. The hearts of the people of Muslim countries are beating with the call of jihad. We are grateful to them.

Ummat: The losses caused in the attacks in New York and Washington have proved that giving an economic blow to the U.S. is not too difficult. U.S. experts admit that a few more such attacks can bring down the American economy. Why is al-Qa'idah not targeting their economic pillars?

Usamah: I have already said that we are not hostile to the United States. We are against the system, which makes other nations slaves of the United States, or forces them to mortgage their political and economic freedom.

This system is totally in control of the American Jews, whose first priority is Israel, not the United States. It is simply that the American people are themselves the slaves of the Jews and are forced to live according to the principles and laws laid by them. So, the punishment should reach Israel. In fact, it is Israel which is giving a bloodbath to innocent Muslims and the U.S. is not uttering a single word.

Ummat: Why is harm not caused to the enemies of Islam through other means, apart from the armed struggle? For instance, inciting the Muslims to boycott Western products, banks, shipping lines, and TV channels.

Usamah: The first thing is that Western products could only be boycotted when the Muslim fraternity is fully awakened and organized. Secondly, the Muslim companies should become self-sufficient in producing goods equal to the products of Western companies. Economic boycott of the West is not possible unless economic self-sufficiency is attained and substitute products are brought out.

You see that wealth is scattered all across the Muslim world, but not a single TV channel has been acquired which can preach Islamic injunctions according to modern requirements and attain an international influence. Muslim traders and philanthropists should make it a point that if the weapon of public opinion is to be used, it is to be kept in the hand. Today's world is of public opinion, and the fates of nations are determined through its pressure. Once the tools for building public opinion are obtained, everything that you asked for can be done.

Ummat: The entire propaganda about your struggle has so far been made by the Western media. But no information is being received from your sources about the network of Al-Qa'idah and its jihadi successes. Would you comment?

Usamah: In fact, the Western media is left with nothing else. It has no other theme to survive for a long time. Then we have many other things to do. The struggle for jihad and the successes are for the sake of Allah and not to annoy His bondsmen. Our silence is our real propaganda.

Rejections, explanations, or corrigendum only waste your time, and through them the enemy wants you to engage in things which are not of use to you. These things are pulling you away from your cause.

The Western media is unleashing such a baseless propaganda, which make us surprised, but it reflects on what is in their hearts, and gradually they themselves become captive of this propaganda. They become afraid of it and begin to cause harm to themselves.

Terror is the most dreaded weapon in modern age, and the Western media is mercilessly using it against its own people. It can add fear and helplessness in the psyche of the people of Europe and the United States. It means that what the enemies of the United States cannot do, its media is doing that. You can understand as to what will be the performance of the nation in a war, which suffers from fear and helplessness.

Ummat: What will the impact of the freeze of al-Qa'idah accounts by the U.S.?

Usamah: God opens up ways for those who work for Him. Freezing of accounts will not make any difference for Al-Qa'idah or other jihad groups. With the grace of Allah, al-Qa'idah has more than three such alternative financial systems, which are all separate and totally independent from each other. This system is operating under the patronage of those who love jihad.

What to say of the United States, even the combined world cannot budge these people from their path. These people are not in hundreds but in thousands and millions. Al-Qa'idah comprises of such modern educated youths who are as aware of the cracks inside the Western financial system as they are aware of the lines in their hands. These are the very flaws of the Western fiscal system, which are becoming a noose for it, and this system could not recuperate in spite of the passage of so many days.

Ummat: Are there other safe areas, other than Afghanistan, where you can continue jihad?

Usamah: There are areas in all parts of the world where strong jihadi forces are present, from Indonesia to Algeria, from Kabul to Chechnya, from Bosnia to Sudan, and from Burma to Kashmir. Then it is not the problem of my person. I am helpless fellowman of God, constantly in the fear of my accountability before God.

It is not the question of Usamah, but of Islam and, in Islam too, of jihad. Thanks to God, those waging a jihad can walk today with their heads raised. Jihad was still present when there was no Usamah, and it will remain as such even when Usamah is no longer there.

Allah opens up ways and creates loves in the hearts of people for those who walk on the path of Allah with their lives, property, and children. Believe it, through jihad, a man gets everything he desires. And the biggest desire of a Muslim is the afterlife. Martyrdom is the shortest way of attaining an eternal life.

Ummat: What do you say about the Pakistan government policy on Afghanistan attack?

Usamah: We are thankful to the Momin and valiant people of Pakistan who erected a blockade in front of the wrong forces and stood in the first file of battle. Pakistan is a great hope for the Islamic brotherhood. Its people are awakened, organized, and rich in the spirit of faith. They backed Afghanistan in its war against the Soviet Union and extended every help to the mojahedin and the Afghan people.

Then these are the very Pakistanis who are standing shoulder by shoulder with the Taleban. If such people emerge in just two countries, the domination of the West will diminish in a matter of days. Our hearts beat with Pakistan and, God forbid, if a difficult time comes, we will protect it with our blood. Pakistan is sacred for us, like a place of worship. We are the people of jihad, and fighting for the defence of Pakistan is the best of all jihads to us.

It does not matter for us as to who rules Pakistan. The important thing is that the spirit of jihad is alive and stronger in the hearts of the Pakistani people. △

“Citizen, Can I See Your ID?”

Editor's note: Those of you who may be new to the kind of shenanigans such as were presented in last month's front-page story—better skip the following shocking update from one who truly DOES know. And he speaks with a refreshing irreverence for the “royalty” in Washington D.C. and elsewhere.

If more of those who KNOW were willing to speak out, the crooks in high places could not proceed with their New World Order agenda. As it is, with so many bought prostitutes who have sold their souls to the dark forces, acting as puppets to carry out the will of the elite controllers, it appears we'll have a bumpy ride ahead—till those all-important lessons of personal honesty and integrity and responsibility are finally learned. After all, this is schoolroom Earth, and some very important exams are currently underway!

According to his own biographical statement, Al Martin is America's foremost whistleblower on government fraud and corruption. A retired U.S. Navy Lt. Commander and former officer in the Office of Naval Intelligence, he has testified before Congress (the Kerry Committee and the Alexander Committee) regarding Iran-Contra. Al Martin is the author of The Conspirators: Secrets Of An Iran-Contra Insider (2001, National Liberty Press, $19.95; toll free order line: 1-866-317-1390). He lives at an undisclosed location, since the criminals named in his book have been returned to national power and prominence. His column “Behind the Scenes in the Beltway” is published regularly on his <http://www.almartinraw.com> Internet website.

10/22/01 AL MARTIN

What has not been explained to the American people is the reason why 35,000 Army Reservists and 65,000 National Guard have been called up. It is to maintain internal checkpoints.

It has nothing to do with the external “War on Terrorism”. All of these people are being trained at the U.S. Army School of Urban Control at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. CNN actually showed an urban training mock-up, what they're training on, and what the new Internal Security checkpoint is going to look like. It was mighty sinister looking.

There was a barrier that went across the road. To the right was an elevated shed like structure, elevated perhaps fifteen feet in the air. It had a small second story that was open. On it was a sign that read “Homeland Security Internal Checkpoint.” There were sandbags and the wooden arm that crossed the road read “100% ID Checked”.

Then there was a small shed to the right with a small barbed-wire area behind that. On this structure was a sign, which read: “All citizens not having proper identification will be detained. All foreign nationals will be detained. All citizens who are deemed to be acting in a suspicious manner will be detained.”

At each of these posts there will be six armed Army or National Guard reservists with M-16s with full field kit. On top of the structure, to the rear, the open structure on top, there's a man with a machine gun emplacement.

They showed the actual mockup used for training purposes. They had new uniforms. They weren't in their regular uniforms. It's a new gray uniform with a gray helmet and a visor so you can't see their eyes. The only thing you can see is from their lips down because they said that's “to prevent any retribution” from people who don't like this new idea.

This uniform looked exactly like the Imperial Storm Troopers from the Star Wars movies—except instead of white, it was gray. All the helmets have little transceivers so they can communicate with each other. There will be six guards at each internal security checkpoint. And there's another warning on the inside of the barbed wire enclosure: “Any detainees attempting to escape will be shot.” It was a yellow and red sign inside the detainment area.

The only person who actually spoke on camera during this story was a sergeant, an Army Reservist sergeant. You could tell that he completely disagreed with what was going on. You couldn't hear the question being asked, but he was looking at the camera and he said: “We're here to protect the people.” Then he put his head down and shook his head, and you could tell he didn't believe a word of what he was saying—like it was some big frigging joke.

Then they showed the procedure they were using to train these guys: An average American car, like a Ford or a Chevy, drives up, and there's supposed to be a husband and wife in the front seat and a couple of kiddies in the back. So they drive up to the checkpoint, and the corporal comes up to the car and says: “May I see your identification, citizen?”

They call everyone “citizen.” (I swear to God, I'm not making this up.) Then the guy asks for his driver's license, then something else, and something else. Then he says: “Very good, citizen.”

There's a spot on the gate that goes across the road that they had x-ed out. But you could tell what it said because the sergeant alluded to it. It said: “All citizens are required to present their National Identification Cards.” But they left it blank, as a black spray-painted-out spot, because the legislation for that hasn't happened yet.

The big sign on the side of the one-and-a-half-story shed with the machine gun nest on top said: “Homeland Security Internal Checkpoint”. And now we're all supposed to say: “Hail the Republic”. That's the new mantra.

They showed a bunch of guys being trained at Fort Campbell, Kentucky—probably enlisted and reservists and such. And they kept raising up their right arm saying: “Hail the Republic!”

The sergeant even said that they are duplicating the ancient Roman Legions salute to Caesar, using the right arm upraised with the fist. Instead of “Hail Caesar” though, they say “Hail the Republic!”

This is what's coming. People don't believe it or people don't understand it—but when 80% of the people support whatever “security” measures are necessary.

What does it all mean? We all better start worrying when George Bush starts to play the fiddle.

Congress is supposed to be recessed for the rest of the year, but they will be giving the Administration extraordinary wartime authority—pursuant to all remaining legislation. In other words, they will simply allow the Administration to act under pending statutes. They are simply going to transfer to the Administration emergency wartime power to act under bills which are still pending, even though they haven’t been passed.

“They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety.”

— Benjamin Franklin

THE IMPLICATION IS THAT WE WILL BE UNDER A DEFACTO STATE OF MARTIAL LAW SOON. THERE ARE 100,000 MILITARY BEING TRAINED FOR THESE INTERNAL SECURITY CHECKPOINTS.

When they were showing the lines of enlisted and reserve people being trained in this camp, with M-16s in their hands, I can tell you I don’t think any of them would hesitate to shoot at American citizens. I think they’re being indoctrinated. The indoctrination they’re going through is obvious. The enlisted people are being told by the drill sergeant that they are being given extraordinary authority that: “Your job is to protect the security of the State at all costs.”

There is a direct parallel between the old Soviet Union and the East Bloc and what we are doing. We are establishing internal travel restrictions on the American people. We are essentially following the Soviet textbook. In the Soviet Communist Bloc, for example, there were checkpoints in every city. You had to have what’s called an “internal travel visa”. You had to have that visa stamped at every checkpoint in every city. Then they checked you out at every entrance to every city. Then if you checked out, they would affix a visa stamp and charge you ten marks for it. It was a real racket.

What will be interesting to see is what kind of a racket is going to go along with these internal security checkpoints. In other words, how much of a “toll” are they going to charge? They’re going to have to do something to pay for all of this, and one of the obvious ways to pay for it would be to charge everyone a one- or two-dollar “toll”.

And this is what we should be looking forward to—toll booths around the nation. They’re not saying this yet, but obviously in an effort to pay for this, there’s going to be some sort of a “security tax”. Since this system is incredibly cumbersome (having to stop every single vehicle and check identification) and we’ve been taught to be suspicious of driver’s licenses because it’s so easy to obtain false driver’s licenses, the implication is that national security cards are the only thing that will eventually be accepted as identification. The further implication is that in order to accommodate traffic (this will create traffic jams miles and miles long), there would be a separate line for those carrying pre-approved internal visas whose allegiance to the government has already been checked.

The sergeant on the news report said that all the people involved (100,000 military people) are being forced to swear new loyalty oaths to the United States. He just mentioned the government’s overall policy, which Bush talked about last week, that all federal civilian employees are going to have to take new oaths of allegiance to the “Republic”. And that extends to some members of the military who will be involved in internal security.

Surprisingly enough, all these border checks, you would think, would be handled directly by the military or under the auspices of the military. They’re not. They’re under the auspices of “Homeland Security”. What it means is that you have 100,000 troops (reservists and national guard people) based in the United States which will be seconded to the Office of Homeland Security. Their ultimate jurisdiction is being transferred from the Department of Defense to the Office of Homeland Security.

In other words, the Office of Homeland Security is gaining a militarized division of 100,000 troops.

It’s finally getting some of the liberals nervous. But it’s coming. Day after day, they’re showing polls that seventy to eighty percent of the American people are prepared to approve whatever security measures are “necessary” to “fight terrorism”.

* * *

MILITARY FRAUD DEPARTMENT:
According to the Friendly Colonel, the Redstone Arsenal base commander was chortling over the fact that the accuracy of the missile strikes in Afghanistan thus far was 37%. He was actually chortling on how “high” the accuracy rate has been. The general’s exact words were that: “The defense contractors will get paid as long as the things go off and hit the right country.”

Also, the Friendly Colonel realizes the reason why the FBI didn’t stop all those weapons shipments from Huntsville Alabama. [See Al’s previous story at the www.almartinraw.com/column22.html Internet website.]

What they were doing was pre-positioning materiel in Pakistan. That leads one to the conclusion which he had already made earlier—that somebody knew this war was going to happen, possibly as long as six months ago (May 2001). In other words, they didn’t know specifically the target, but somebody thought it likely that a “terrorist event” would happen that would precipitate a response by the U.S. in Afghanistan.

[Editor’s note: That last statement is put very mildly—and uncharacteristically for Al! It is equally valid, in light of so many other incriminating factors, to conclude that the preplacement of materiel in Afghanistan was part of a very exact timetable of unfolding events far more solidified than simply being a “likely” scenario.]

* * *

AND WHERE DID ALL THE “MUSHROOMS” GO?
[See previous column at his www.almartinraw.com/column32.html Internet website.) They were intended for use by U.S. armed forces. In other words, they were pre-staging supplies. That’s where the “mushrooms” (anti-personnel land mines) went.

He got an explanation how these “mushrooms” are used by Special Forces when they are clearing an area: When an area is being swept, they drop this weapons system behind them to protect their rear and also to prevent anyone else from re-infiltrating an area which has already been cleared.

The specific use of these “mushrooms” is in a sweep operation. When forces sweep an area and they don’t want the area re-infiltrated, they leave this passive weapons system behind. These weapons are principally used in an urban warfare environment.

The only correlation that can be made is that there would be an attack against the United States of sufficient size which would warrant a response, hence the predisposition of these weapons systems, like these “mushrooms” which are under intense international criticism by an anti-landmine group in London.

The general also said that they’re “re-ordering missiles like crazy—the Cruise and Tomahawk missiles”. They are being reordered and Rockwell is building them as fast as they can. Cruise missiles are about $1.6 million each, and the Tomahawks, which are larger, longer range, more advanced, with a heavier payload, are about $3.5 million each.

He estimated that about 300 missiles have been used so far. It’s not big money, but these missile systems are extremely profitable to build. They have a simple guidance system, a simple conventional explosive, and the micro-processors necessary for the look-forward view capacity are pretty simple. All they have to do is not hit the side of a mountain on the way to their target.

* * *

MEDIA DEPARTMENT:
According to a reliable inside source, all the mainstream media outlets have received a confidential memorandum from the White House asking that they change the monikers they’re using from “Homeland Security” to “Home Front Security”. Apparently they believe that “Home Front Security” sounds more patriotic and less sinister than “Homeland Security”.

They have also asked the media not to show any more footage of the urban training and internal security checkpoints, and to minimize the coverage of any “future” troop movements within the United States. The implication is that when these internal security checkpoints get set up, there will be a lot of movement of troops, helicopters, etc. So as not to disturb the domestic tranquility of the people by telling the people the truth, the government is asking the media to limit coverage of any domestic troop movements.

All the media will comply because they’re all dying to jump on the government line. MSNBC has, in fact, changed their moniker from “Homeland Security” to “Home Front Security”. “Home Front” is more homey sounding and much more patriotic. It strikes a chord with a lot of people, especially older people who remember this slogan being so extensively used for security measures put in place during the Second World War.

[Editor’s note: It will be interesting to see how this “test” of morality plays out. Will ALL these media prostitutes go along with the party line as the noose around all our necks becomes more visible and tighter? Or, will they begin to mutiny—and tell the truth—as they realize their own family and friends are also among the ones going to be affected by this New World Order agenda? How do they sleep at night? These choices are part of the “final exam” in progress at this time of the Great Awakening and Great Cleansing on schoolroom Earth.]

Amazing confirmation that a reptilian extraterrestrial race has controlled the world for thousands of years.

the reptilian agenda

part one

"The most extraordinary secret of how I have seen my destiny unfold."

David Icke talks with the Zulu Shaman Credo Mutwa

David Icke has produced two amazing videos with the Zulu “sanusi” or shaman, Credo Mutwa, who reveals astonishing information which, until now, was only available to the highest initiates of the African shaman tradition.

Credo says, “The world must know this—and know it now.”

He reveals how a shapeshifting reptilian race (the “Chitauli” to Africans) has controlled humanity for thousands of years and how their bloodlines are in the positions of royal, political, and economic power today.

Credo Mutwa supports all the themes outlined in The Biggest Secret and adds his own unique knowledge and experience of traveling Africa for nearly 80 years.

These videos will re-write the UFO/extraterrestrial story in a way that will blow your mind. UFO researchers have ignored Africa and therefore ignored one of the greatest sources of knowledge on the planet.

While people still argue over Roswell and the extraterrestrial beings apparently found there, African tribes-people have been interacting with these ET “gods” for thousands of years, sometimes eating them, as Credo Mutwa did on one occasion with unforgettable consequences.

Credo has not only seen dead “greys” many times, he has seen them examined behind their “grey” exterior and he knows exactly what they really look like—and it is nothing like we think!

“This is the most amazing man it has ever been my honor to meet—a genius—and the importance of these videos is simply beyond words.”

—David Icke

After making these videos, Credo was visited by two people from Cape Town who offered him 50,000 rand, and a house anywhere in South Africa he would like to name, if he would agree to never speak to David Icke again and never have anything to do with him. Credo’s reply can be imagined!

2-Tape Set: over 6 hours

$49.95 (+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

* * *

EDUCATION/INDOCTRINATION DEPARTMENT:

A warning of note: Mothers of America beware. Last week during National Patriotism Day, sixty million American schoolchildren were supposed to stand up and say the Pledge Of Allegiance together.

There was a little known and briefly shown incident on TV about a teacher in New Jersey. He was a fifth-grade teacher who changed the words of the Pledge Of Allegiance from "I pledge allegiance to the flag" to "I pledge allegiance to the Office of Homeland Security". Subsequently it was noted that in his opinion children are never too young to be taught obedience to the State. It should also be noted that the teacher in question who professed to be a loyal Vietnam veteran with a flat-top hairdo, a Marine Corps tattoo on his arm, and a Timex watch, and replete with a polyester tie. He rather looked like some sort of reject for the corner stool at the local VFW, when he explained that he "never saw a commie he didn't want to bomb".

* * *

HISTORY OF FBI ANTI-TERRORISM SUCCESS DEPARTMENT:

In 1995, pursuant to the first round of "anti-terrorism" legislation, a/k/a HR-1701, the FBI was given a special $300 million grant to track down terrorist assets worldwide.

After a five-year search and an expenditure of $300 million of American taxpayers' money, they managed to find one bank account belonging to the Hamas terrorist group. It was in a savings bank in New Jersey, and it had $17,000 in it.

The Treasury Department's current pronouncements about the terrorist assets they're freezing every day is just so much nonsense. They're not giving us any details about who owns these accounts or how they know they're connected to terrorist groups. One of the accounts they seized in California? Upon further investigation, it turned out that the account, with $346 in it, was in fact the coffee and donut fund for the local Arab American Chamber of Commerce.

* * *

FREEDOM OF SPEECH DEPARTMENT:

Having gone out to the $8.99 "all you can eat" Chinese buffet with a bunch of cohorts, we found out that unbeknownst to us, there was an FBI agent sitting in the booth nearby. He was there, not in an official capacity, but just having dinner with his wife. Anyway, we were talking about the new Office of Homeland Security and what the internal checkpoints were going to look like and what the new parameters of our new National Identity Cards will be and, of course, referencing George Bush as George "never saw a document he didn't want to shred" Bush. And we talked about the number of civil rights that the American people will be giving up in this new campaign against "terrorism".

When we got up to leave, the FBI agent said to me: "Hey, pal, best flap your gums while you can, because a year from now I'll have the power to arrest you for such seditious talk."

He was wearing his FBI badge on the inside—to ensure that he would get his 15% discount at the restaurant.

My pals are all older and they're afraid that they'll get their Social Security checks taken away from them for hanging out with me.

Then I told the FBI agent: "Hey, we're just speaking the truth." And he said: "Like I said, seditious talk."

So remember—the new government mantra is: "Speaking the truth about government misdeeds and abuses of power equals sedition."

* * *

AS SEEN ON TV DEPARTMENT:

The new checkpoints have been established and they look just like the mockups that were shown on TV. There's a large red and yellow placard that says "Homeland Security Internal Checkpoint". You have to show your driver's license to go through, and you're told that soon even that will not be sufficient. There was a company of National Guard setting up an ancillary facility. They had their new gray helmets with the visors on, so you couldn't see their eyes.

And it is true. We went through the checkpoint.

And yes, they really do address you as "citizen".

Editor's note: The following are excerpts from a subsequent column titled "Bush Cabal Heaven: The American Imperial Era Begins" from 10/29/01. Here Al provides more hints about the massive cover-up of The Truth by those who should know better, and about the tightening of the New World Order noose around our collective necks.

According to the Friendly Colonel, the FBI had prior knowledge of "a major attack on a commercial target"—at least two years before the event took place.

His FBI friend, who has been reassigned to an office in Florida, told him about it. Evidently the FBI still won't let him retire. He's one of the old counter-terrorist guys from Bobby Blitzer's division. The FBI claims that they might need them sometime in the future, despite the fact that all of them—his friend and about two dozen other guys—want to retire.

So these guys get shuffled around from office to office on so-called "temporary duty assignments". There really is no "duty" however; it's just for the paperwork. The real reason these guys are not being allowed to retire is to keep them quiet, to keep control over people like him, who are aware of the story of the "WTC Incident".

He told the Friendly Colonel that the FBI knew as long as two years ago that there was a major attack being planned. He said that the FBI actually recovered documents at the first World Trade Center bombing in 1993, which indicated that a future attack of a much larger magnitude was planned. The FBI just blew it off. Essentially they didn't do anything because they didn't think that any terrorist group had the ability to plan and execute such an attack.

Apparently CNN has had the same documents the FBI had, but they wouldn't release them to the public either. These documents, seized from one of bin Laden's people a few years ago in New York, discussed a major operation being planned.

The first leg was the attack itself. The second leg would be the use of anthrax to disrupt the U.S. postal system. The third leg was to be a major cyber-attack against the U.S. banking system, disrupting banking and shutting down ATMs.

And how did CNN get the documents? The assumption is that one of the disgruntled FBI agents just gave them to CNN. The White House apparently didn't even have to pressure CNN to keep quiet about it. The attitude among the mainstream media is essentially that they are out of the business of exposing government corruption for fear of appearing "unpatriotic".

Even the Homeland Security Bill that Bush signed has been renamed the "Patriot" Homeland Security Bill, thus implying that anyone who disagrees with the Bill is "unpatriotic".

Meanwhile his FBI pal is just moping around the office. They're giving these guys unlimited expense accounts. He goes over to Pier 66 every day for a big lobster lunch—at taxpayer expense—but he's bored silly. He's in his mid-fifties, which is past standard retirement, and he just wants to retire and go fishing.

How bad is it? "If he kicked in the teeth of his Regional Supervisor tomorrow", he says, "he'd probably get a medal for it." In other words, he can do no wrong. He's still with the FBI, but on "special assignment with no specified work duty".

He's being told that they want to keep a small group of guys like him on because of their long-term experience in counter-terrorism. That's not true, he says. The real reason they're keeping him is so they can hold his pension and benefits over his head to keep him quiet about what he knows.

He says that the FBI is disorganized and demoralized—and even frightened that revelations might come out that it had previous knowledge of this incident. Consequently there is an atmosphere of fear that permeates the senior ranks of the FBI.

This has substantially reduced their competency. "Just look at CNN" he said. "You see John Ashcroft every day. You see Tom Ridge every day. But you don't see Bobby Mueller, the FBI director, maybe once every two weeks." (See my column "DoJ Cover-up Artist Bobby Mueller Named FBI Chief".)

Mueller is being sidelined on purpose because Mueller doesn't have any practical experience in this. This is a guy who has consistently stuck his foot in his mouth in the past. The general assessment of Bobby Mueller around the Beltway is that he could screw up a free lunch. This is also the reason why so many of the powers are being transferred to the new Office of Homeland Security.

In other news, it's become very apparent that Congress, the White House, and the government have

Twenty years ago, Clayton Tedeton prayed to God for guidance. That night, God wrote a formula in lights on his bedroom wall. That formula was for Miracle II Soap! Guided by God, packaged with prayer, Miracle II products are natural, biologically harmless, non-carcinogenic and the best God Blessed cleaner on Earth! Cleans your body, your baby, and your pets. Kill the insects in your garden and clean your oven without gloves or masks. Removes stains and does your laundry. The Neutralizer neutralizes acids and balances the PH in your body, your garden. Clears up acne and can reduce cellulite. There are literally thousands of uses. Miracle II Soap, Miracle II Soap w/ Moisturizer, & Neutralizer come in 22 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Miracle 2 Neutralizer Gel and Moisturizers come in 16 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Deodorant Stone is $12.00 and Miracle II Laundry Ball, guaranteed for 3 years, is $52.00. Shipping is $4.00 each. Get the whole package, including shipping, less the Laundry Ball, for $100.00. With the Ball, $150.00. All of the testimonials & uses are on our website:

<http://freeamerican.com>

Attention Ranchers and Farmers:
Miracle II works wonders on livestock
and crops. Get it by the gallon! ($67)

FREE AMERICAN
FREE AMERICAN GROUP
2943 U.S. HIGHWAY 380
BINGHAM, NM 87832
877-423-3250

Subscribe to the Free American Newsmagazine - $40/yr
The best news magazine in the USA. Free copy w/order!

Revelations of a Mother Goddess

An Interview by David Icke

The staggering story of human sacrifice and satanic ritual, involving the most famous people in the world.

Arizona Wilder, formerly Jennifer Greene, was mind-programmed from birth to become one of the three most important female conductors of Satanic rituals on the planet. Her programmer was Josef Mengele, the notorious “Angel of Death” in the Nazi concentration camps. When he died in the late 1980s, her programming began to break down.

In this video interview with David Icke, she describes human sacrifice rituals at Glamis Castle and Balmoral, in which the Queen, the Queen Mother, and other members of the Royal Family sacrificed children in Satanic ceremonies.

She talks of the same experiences with Henry Kissinger, George Bush, Bill Clinton, members of the Rockefeller and Rothschild families, and a host of the most famous names in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Your view of the world will never be the same when you hear the revelations of Arizona Wilder and consider their relevance to your daily life.

See next-to-last page or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

2-Hour Video Tape

$24.95 (+S/H)

abandoned any notion of fiscal responsibility or even rational political judgment. Washington has effectively become a free-for-all in which one senator gets up and says: “I can spend a hundred billion more than you can.” These are politically popular spending programs, which are totally wasteful.

The Congress is completely out of touch with reality. The Bush Administration and Congress have essentially gone wild. There are no checks anymore. They’re authorizing the expenditure of huge sums of money, which none of the agencies even want or have any idea of how to spend. It’s a different environment now. Washington sees an opportunity to act the way it wants to act—without any restraints. This is all couched under the guise of fighting terrorism.

How does this square with the $16 billion increase in the Department of Agriculture budget, an increase the Department of Agriculture says it doesn’t need, doesn’t want, and has no idea of how it’s going to spend?

All those organizations, like government watchdog groups, are being discredited by this notion that they’re being “unpatriotic”. The system of checks and balances has disappeared. There hasn’t been a peep out of the ACLU, or Larry Klayman’s group Judicial Watch, or Charlie Smith’s group about this spending.

Everybody is keeping quiet. They all appear on mainstream media, and when they do, O’Reilly goes after them for being “unpatriotic”—saying now is the time we should overlook government misdeeds. And that is the new attitude. O’Reilly even said that.

O’Reilly has given up any pretense of being independent, fair minded, or balanced. He has joined the pro-government media crowd because that’s where the ratings and the money are. He purposely tries to discredit anyone who doesn’t agree with the government line. Consequently that’s why various government watchdog groups are keeping their mouths shut. They know they will be cast in the light of being “unpatriotic”.

Government spending amounts to at least $1.5 trillion in additional spending over five years, and all the numbers haven’t been added up yet.

This includes everything from defense to security to agriculture. We are literally plying government agencies with money that they don’t want, they have said they don’t want, and don’t even know how they’re going to spend.

This is money that’s going to get spent on tremendous weapons systems and help defense contractors. If you look at all the industries that are going to benefit—and individual companies that are going to benefit—you will understand why the Republicans are pushing it. This is Bush Cabal Heaven.

In other words, there will be a $1.5 trillion increase over five years (which is deficit financed) and two thirds or more of that spending will be effectively wasted. The deputy head of the GAO has already said so, and we are still in an economy that is $5.5 trillion in debt—with no foreseeable surpluses being generated in the near future.

In addition, interest rates have been lowered and the Bush White House is going to pressure Greenspan to keep interest rates artificially low longer than they should be. This will create an inflationary whammy down the road. We are, in effect, building a potential economic “time bomb” for this nation.

Looking at the bigger picture, this unrestrained spending fits in with the new anti-terrorism bill, which transfers more of the American people’s rights back to the government, more than has ever been done before in the history of the republic. This massive increase in spending, that will benefit the top three percent of the population, is just another transfer of power and wealth.

All of this spending (eventually the American people will have to pay for it) lessens the people’s economic power. And it increases the power of those who rule, who govern, who control, and who constitute the backbone of the Republican Party.

First, there is a massive loss of people’s rights, which have been transferred back to the government.

Second, in this unrestrained spending, a huge amount of the people’s money is being transferred back to government, and therefore back to the businesses and industries which represent the top three percent of the nation’s wealthiest (federal contractors and so on), which in turn are the most ardent supporters of the Republican Party. It’s a transfer of both control and money.

From Bush’s warfront: the media mentioned that one of the bombing missions went astray and a couple of schools and hospitals were bombed. The Department of Defense recently confirmed this incident. They’re bombing these people twenty-four hours a day, sending in Cruise missiles, Tomahawk missiles, so-called precision guided weapons.

As the Friendly Colonel points out, however, the problem is these weapons only have a 37% accuracy rate. Therefore you’re forced to bomb the same targets time and time again.

He explained the way this hospital was bombed. One of the jobs that the Special Forces are doing is planting infrared sensors around targets which the aircraft, flying above, can then target (the zone of these infrared sensors), which makes the probable accuracy of the weapon more likely. However, the Taliban are being helped by a secret contingent of elite Iraqi intelligence officers familiar with this equipment. After the U.S. or allied commandos go in and plant these devices, the Taliban and Iraqis pull them out of the ground.

Meanwhile the gulf between Congress and the people continues to grow. The average age of a congressman is 23 years more than the average age of the population. In no other democratic country does such an age gap exist between legislators and the people.

If current trends persist, within seven years Congress will be qualified, as an institution, for geriatric assistance programs from the Department of Health and Human Services. This will include grants to install ramps, railings in the bathrooms, and even automated toilet seats for the geriatric crowd that inhabits Congress.

A prime example of this situation is Henry “Never Saw An S&L I Didn’t Want To Rip Off” Hyde.

When finally forced to admit under pressure from the Chicago Sun Times that he did have an extra-marital affair, Henry Hyde stated that insofar as he had had that affair when he was 48 years of age, he chalked it off to “youthful indiscretion”.

In the passage of this so-called anti-terrorist legislation, euphemistically named “The Patriot Act”, we have given George Bush the power of Caesar. The implication is that anyone who disagrees with it is “unpatriotic”.

The American people have, in one fell swoop, given George Bush the power of Caesar—control of the public purse beyond the dreams of avarice.

When you consider the existing power of the President, then you add the powers of the 1995 Anti-Terrorism Act, and the further extension of those powers by the 2001 Anti-Terrorism Act, George Bush and all his successors have been given dictatorial powers.

With the passage of this new bill, we have effectively turned the White House into the new American Imperial Palace.

George Bush is actually revitalizing an old Nixon idea from 1972. Nixon was so impressed with the way foreign guards were dressed, which included braided uniforms and swords and golden helmets, he wanted to have the White House guards dressed in the same manner. He was laughed out of the idea. Now, however, George Bush wants to reactivate the Imperial uniform of the White House guard à la Richard Nixon.

When you watch CNN, remember this: The new pro-government media, like CNN, subscribes to the theory that if you broadcast a lie often enough to the people, whose blinders and rose-colored glasses are securely ensconced, then eventually the lie becomes the truth. ☒

Fallen Angels

And The Origins Of Evil

Did rebel angels take on human bodies to fulfill their lust for the “daughters of men”?

Did these fallen angels teach men to build weapons of war?

That is the premise of the Book of Enoch, a text cherished by the Essenes, early Jews, and Christians, but later condemned by both rabbis and Church fathers. The book was denounced, banned, and “lost” for over a thousand years—until in 1773 a Scottish explorer discovered three copies in Ethiopia.

Elizabeth Clare Prophet examines the controversy surrounding this book and sheds new light on Enoch’s forbidden mysteries. She demonstrates that Jesus and the apostles studied the Book of Enoch, and tells why Church fathers suppressed its teaching that angels could incarnate in human bodies.

Contains Richard Laurence’s translation of the Book of Enoch, all the other Enoch texts (including the Book of the Secrets of Enoch), and biblical parallels.

$7.99 (+S/H)

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

UFO Coverup Is Falling Apart

[Continued From Front Page]

Despite many decades of intense and sometimes ruthless cover-up, the walls are crumbling down. The time of the Great Awakening is upon us and no topic deserves center-stage attention more than the subject of UFOs.

Now, just where does one begin to discuss a topic as vast and complex and impacting and, yes, as “cosmic” as is the subject of extraterrestrial interactions with planet Earth?

The Internet and bookstores are filled with hype and glitz about ETs and UFOs. But what is The Truth?

Furthermore, how can one presume to sort the true from the false, and discern that which is of value concerning this important but purposely-often-made-murky subject?

Answer: You talk with the ones who KNOW and are placing THEIR necks on the line to awaken their fellow citizens of planet Earth. The ones who know are not necessarily the ones in the “expert” spotlights, attracting the big grant money. More likely, they’re the ones being ridiculed or even persecuted in an attempt to silence them and discredit their Truth.

You are about to take a journey that will weave you through a number of personalities and stories. Some you may have heard about or already know about; others you may not. Hopefully, by the time we reach the conclusion of this series (which, for practical reasons, will have to span several issues of The SPECTRUM) you will have a greater understanding and awareness of both the present status and the long-hidden history of this amazing subject so central to defining our identity as human beings.

While it would be impossible to present everything of value on this subject in a less-than-book-length outlay, I will endeavor to share some of the very best, most credible sources of information, and wherever possible include references for additional exploration, such as books and websites and related materials.

After spending the greater part of the last two months working on this feature story, it has become evident that any discussion of The Truth about extraterrestrials and UFOs will, by necessity, need to be told incrementally. Therefore, rather than water-down a perfectly wonderful, complex story, or present just one tiny aspect, we have elected to “serialize” this story into two or three installments to try to cover the playing field more completely.

Over the years, I’ve uncovered and written about several historically vast and sweeping subjects that have been purposely buried in mystery. But I have a confession to make: THIS story is the granddaddy of ALL conspiracy stories, with more twists and turns and layers than politicians have excuses. And by it’s very nature, no one seems to have a grasp of “the whole story”, but rather, only pieces or fragments—that sometimes can lead to very distorted conclusions.

I’m reminded of the old expression: “When the student is ready, the teacher will appear.” Well, from the moment I started work on this story, it seemed I had help from every direction—both seen and unseen. I am thankful for the Guiding Hand that led me through the maze and often right to the doorstep of some fascinating and provocative sources to share with you.

The Contact Has Begun

We will begin our exploratory journey into matters extraterrestrial with author Phillip H. Krapf. Mr. Krapf worked for 25 years as an editor on the Metro copy desk at the Los Angeles Times. During that career, he shared a Pulitzer Prize as a member of the Metro team that covered the Los Angeles riots of 1992. Before his retirement in 1993, Krapf had spent a total of 30 years in the newspaper business.

If you had asked him eight years ago what he thought he’d be doing in retirement, the LAST thing he would have imagined was what happened to him that has resulted in his authoring of two books. Shortly after his initial 1997 abduction, he wrote The Contact Has Begun. That has been followed, after a second time on alien craft in 2000, by his latest book, The Challenge Of Contact: A Mainstream Journalist’s Report On Interplanetary Diplomacy.

First consider what several professionals have to say about this matter:

“I ask that people regard the revelations in Phillip Krapf’s book with the same attention they directed to the Pentagon Papers in 1971. I personally view The Challenge Of Contact in the same vein. I say this as one of the attorneys for the New York Times who worked on the Pentagon Papers case.”

— Daniel Sheehan, chief counsel for civil litigation in the Iran-Contra affair, and chief counsel, Karen Silkwood case.

“I have been aware of the possibility of imminent contact with an extraterrestrial intelligence ever since I began my research over 35 years ago. I have concluded that contact of some sort has been under way for at least 20 years. Phil Krapf’s The Challenge Of Contact is, in my opinion, an honest, bona fide and courageous report of a real and explosive new reality for modern twenty-first century humanity.... I commend Phil’s courage in speaking out.”

— Retired Command Sgt. Major Robert O. Dean

“There was just something about Phillip Krapf that rang true. I guess that’s all I can say. Over several hours the story held up—he held up—and you came away with a feeling, “Well, maybe....”

—Art Bell, Late-Night Coast-To-Coast Talk-Radio Host

And from the book cover we read: “The Challenge Of Contact is Phillip Krapf’s continuing story of the secret deliberations between a race of alien observers, called the Verdants, and hundreds of human leaders known as “Ambassadors”—an interplanetary liaison that will soon lead to a public announcement of contact. This book chronicles the dramatic events of Krapf’s second period of sojourn on the Verdant craft [called the Goodwill] that occurred in 2000.”

Since the very recent publication of The Challenge Of Contact, there have been several substantial developments, which are all outlined in the following three updates, which we are presenting here before getting into the actual interview with Phillip Krapf.

So you won’t be wondering while reading these updates, Phillip Krapf physically describes the Verdants as just over 5 feet tall, with dark, narrow eyes, nearly imperceptible noses, no visible body hair, and skin tones from grayish white to slightly tan. “They were wearing satiny robes of varying muted colors. They even spoke to me in English, though their thin lips didn’t move.”

In his first book The Contact Has Begun, Krapf writes: “After about 1,000 years of closely observing the human species as it crawled laboriously toward the point where it is taking its first preliminary steps into outer space, the E.T. visitors have determined that the time is ripe for contact between our two species.

“The aliens, who call themselves Verdants, come from a planet in a solar system 14 million light-years from Earth.

And, yes, they have been benignly abducting humans for the last 50 years or so, although they refer to the incidents as “unsolicited visitations”. Also, on occasion, their shuttle craft have been sighted by humans, but not to the degree that many people believe or that have been reported.

“They pose no threat to Earth or its people and simply are here to help smooth the way for humankind to become space explorers and to welcome the species into the Intergalactic Federation of Sovereign Planets, a consortium of approximately 27,000 species on as many worlds scattered throughout the universe.”

As one can surely imagine, the shocking events of 9/11/01 were observed by everyone. These events were of such a magnitude that there was a change of plans by the Verdants.

Let’s begin now by reading the “Contact” updates, in sequence, and then we will speak with Phillip Krapf about his remarkable experiences.

UPDATES ON THE CONTACT PROJECT

August 23, 2001

Decision 2001: The Plan Will Proceed

The Verdant High Command has approved a decision to proceed with efforts to attempt to establish Verdant-Human diplomatic relations.

This long-awaited decision follows a series of lengthy and exhaustive sessions between representatives of both species. After the conclusion of these inter-species discussions, an authorized panel of Verdant diplomats met in executive session for nearly a year before voting on the matter. A full review of the findings by these diplomats was then conducted by the Verdant High Command, which subsequently endorsed the decision to proceed.

Shortly thereafter all human Ambassadors were instructed to be prepared to begin executing their individual plans and proposals. As indicated in my two books, The Contact Has Begun and The Challenge Of Contact, these are the working blueprints designed to provide the groundwork for the planned summit conference between delegates of the two species with the ultimate goal of establishing formal diplomatic ties between Earth and the Intergalactic Federation of Sovereign Planets.

Presumably, some preliminary work is already in progress and—if the informal timetable is reasonably accurate—many human Ambassadors will begin briefing their peers and public and private leaders sometime in the year 2002. It is presumed and anticipated that a free flow of information should also begin concurrent with these events.

I am authorized to reveal that the decision to proceed was approved in the early months of this year, 2001, although I was not informed of it until early in March by a human intermediary while I was attending the International UFO Congress convention in Laughlin, Nevada. I initially thought that I was expected to make an immediate announcement, but I actually was sworn to secrecy at that time. For reasons that I do not yet understand, a decision was made to withhold the information for a period of time.

It was explained that I was being informed to help put my mind at ease in that I had expressed growing concern in my latest book and in media interviews and public appearances that I was the only one, as far as I was aware, who had gone public while all others remained safely anonymous. I had gone out on a limb and my reputation and credibility were on the line. In fact, my second book was about to be printed at the time. If this project didn’t proceed, or if I didn’t get some support from other delegates soon, there was the very real possibility that I could be ruined, my reputation and credibility sullied beyond repair.

Yet I didn’t see how I could keep this secret because I was constantly being asked about any new developments. The only options I could see out of this predicament was to either go into hiding or lie, neither of which was acceptable.

I was instructed to respond to such inquiries by saying that I hadn’t had “any further contact with the Verdants since my last visit to the ship in January of 2000”.

Well, I suppose that wasn’t really a lie, since my informant was a human, but it was a bit evasive. However, I couldn’t see any alternative—and the literal truth was that I really hadn’t had any Verdant contact since that time—and so that’s the way I dealt with questions on this issue in the months ahead.

However, I have now been informed—in August of

Eduard "Billy" Meier photo from: UFO—Contact From The Pleiades, Volume I.

2001—that there would be no objections to my releasing this information at this time.

I will have further updates as they occur, including but not limited to a stepped-up campaign to try to discredit me by the forces of opposition.

September 16, 2001

Phillip Krapf's Presentation To
The Bay Area UFO Expo

I am going to depart from my usual format in which I talk about my extraordinary experiences of June, 1997, and January, 2000—as detailed in my two books: The Contact Has Begun, published by Hay House [P.O. Box 5100, Carlsbad, CA 92018-5100; phone: 800-654-5126; website: www.hayhouse.com] in January of 1998; and The Challenge Of Contact, published in June of this year by Origin Press [1122 Grant Avenue, Suite C, Novato, CA 94945; phone: 888-267-4446; website: www.OriginPress.com—after which I typically take questions from the audience.

I know that many of you have not read either book, although some of you may have read one or the other. Nevertheless, at the risk of leaving many of you in the dark, since you are not familiar with the story, I would like to quote a few passages from The Challenge Of Contact. We begin with this item from page 21:

"Is it possible that the human race simply is incapable of getting along?" he asked rhetorically. "Will the ancient tribal mentalities always predominate? It's almost as if there were an organized, deliberate attempt to create worldwide turmoil, to put our worst foot forward, as though this insanity is being orchestrated."

Also on page 21, and continuing on page 22 is the following passage:

"In my view this opposition in and of itself wasn't enough to scuttle the program, and I believe Chip tended to agree with me. But he did add the caveat: "...if we don't blow ourselves up first.

"It would be a tragedy of unparalleled proportions to miss such a golden opportunity" he said wistfully.

Those snippets of information were taken from a conversation that took place on Easter Sunday of 1999 in Pinole [town North of Oakland, California] between me and an Ambassador—a human who had been recruited to serve as a liaison between the aliens and humans in helping to lay the groundwork to establish diplomatic relations that would lead to formal contact between our two species.

On page 64 of the same book, there is the following passage:

"Ominously, he suggested that a grand conspiracy may have been concocted by forces that oppose the contact, and that there appeared to be a deliberate campaign to stir up as much trouble as possible to discourage the Verdants from following through on their plans."

That last statement was made by a Verdant while I was aboard the ship on my second visit.

The following passage comes from pages 135 and 136 of the same book:

"Right before I left the ship, I asked Gina one more time if any major decisions had been made between the Ambassadors and the Verdants.

"Only one decision is under consideration, and it hasn't yet been made. The Ambassadors gave our people their input, our people listened, and the High Command will make a choice sometime in the near future."

"What do you think it will be?" I asked.

"I don't know and I'm not at liberty to speculate. I do have a bit of advice for you, though. Maybe it can be your first official announcement as our spokesperson."

She paused.

"Get your act together. There are grave concerns that have permeated up to the highest levels."

"My act?"

"No, humans."

An ominous farewell. Then, in a breath, I was gone, back in my bedroom. It was Martin Luther King Day.

That conversation also took place in January of 2000 right before I left the starship after two days aboard. In summary, high-level discussions had been conducted aboard the ship between ranking human and alien delegates in which critical questions were raised about whether the planned contact should go ahead as planned. As was noted, the Verdant High Command was going to review the testimony and then make a final decision on the matter. It was possible at this point that a decision could be made to delay, postpone, or abort the program.

About a year later, the decision was made. The effort to establish diplomatic relations would proceed. I learned of this decision from a human emissary in Laughlin, Nevada, in March of this year, at the International UFO Convention. However, I was sworn to secrecy at that time.

Then, in August, last month, I was given approval to make the announcement. I immediately wrote a news release to that effect and dispatched it to my publisher and asked that it be posted on the website for my book (www.thechallengeofcontact.com). I have copies of that news release here for anyone who would like a copy.

Like you, I spent Tuesday of this week [9/11/01] sitting in rapt despair in front of the TV set for most of the day, trying without much success to comprehend the horrific events unfolding before me. Like you, I grieved for the loss of life and the unimaginable suffering. At one point, I got up in a daze, retrieved from the closet the American flag that usually flies from my house only on July 4th and Memorial Day. I secured it in its holder on the eaves of my house. I desperately needed to do something, and that was the only thing I could think of at the moment.

About 6 or 7 p.m., the by now familiar bluish-white iridescent light suddenly appeared, filling the room. I didn't even flinch. It was as though I were almost expecting it. I knew what was coming—I was going on another journey. Under normal circumstances—with two previous visits to the ship under my belt—I would have been excited. But these weren't normal circumstances, considering the events of the day, and instead of feelings of unbridled enthusiasm and happiness, a foreboding knot of anxiety clutched my insides in an icy grip. I knew this couldn't be good news.

I appeared in a comparatively small room, probably the smallest one I had ever been in on the ship. It was more like a private office. I was standing before Sarah, Gina, and Martin. Because of time constraints, I won't attempt to explain who they are, but their rankings, roles, and levels of authority are explained in The Challenge Of Contact. Sarah was seated behind what I suppose could be described as a desk of sorts, although, with its array of lighted consoles and other high-tech gadgets that I couldn't even describe, it was nothing like I had ever seen before.

Martin and Gina were seated in chairs beside the desk, and all three Verdants were facing me. I was standing alongside another chair in front of the desk that was facing them.

The meeting lasted about half an hour, after which I was returned to my home.

As I suspected, the news was not encouraging. Essentially, I was told that we—meaning humans—are not ready. I didn't need an explanation in light of the condition of the world at the moment.

I have copies of a summary of the meeting that I compiled from my notes, which I made upon my return, and I will be glad to make them available for anyone who would like one.

I must confess that I actually gave serious consideration to keeping this incident to myself, to suppress it.

Byron Belitsos, CEO of Origin Press, labored tirelessly and diligently for more than a year, with a sense of dedication and purpose that goes well beyond the call of duty, to bring The Challenge Of Contact to fruition. In addition, he committed considerable financial resources to the undertaking.

In that light, let me say that the book still has significant relevance despite this latest development. I hope most people will appreciate that fact. Byron and I will continue to man the table until the end of the expo.

"We Have Not Given Up"

Summary Of A Briefing On September 11
Aboard The Goodwill

Gina got up and approached me.

The Verdant face is virtually expressionless. But after some exposure to them, the astute observer can at times detect some very subtle, albeit almost imperceptible, expressions of emotion. If I was reading her face correctly, there was a certain muted sadness to her demeanor as she took both of my hands into hers. She told me to be seated and returned to her own chair. Sarah and Martin had remained sitting.

I cannot, of course, recall the exact words that were spoken, but the quotes I use here are true and accurate representations of the intent, meaning, and tenor of the conversation, if not the precise words themselves.

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT & OTHER UFO CONSPIRACIES

BY BRAD STEIGER

In 1943 the Navy accomplished the teleportation of a warship from Philadelphia to Norfolk by successfully applying Einstein's Unified Field Theory. The experiment also caused the crew and officers of the ship to become invisible, during which time they were launched into a time-space warp. One survivor tells his amazing experience. Alfred Bielek has appeared along with the author on the Art Bell radio show many times.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00 (+S/H)

SECRET UFO DIARY: EXPOSING THE EXISTENCE OF ALIEN SKYMEN

"A Chilling Must-Read!" Shocking private memoirs of former Navy Commander involving the retrieval of UFO wreckage near our nation's capital & how it suddenly "disappeared" from the secure government safe it was being stored in. A disturbing look at how these aliens, called sky-men, kidnapped people and animals to extract blood, and committed mysterious murders! Have aliens been coming to the Earth's surface & experimenting on us for thousands of years? Now revealed! 256 pages.

Introduction by Commander X. A former Navy Commander and CIA operative's private memoirs involving the retrieval of wreckage from a UFO shot-at over the Nation's Capitol, and how pieces of this craft were stolen from a safe inside a supposedly secure government office building in Washington D.C.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00 (+S/H)

July 1957, Norway

Reflection

Photo from: <http://www.majesticdocuments.com>

"I shall come straight to the point," Sarah began. "The Verdant High Command, after reviewing a report on the current state of affairs and viewing the regrettable scenes of carnage occurring on your planet, has decided that the human species is not yet ready."

No words came to my mind. I was not surprised. Heartbreakingly disappointed, but not surprised. I simply stared vacantly into her dispassionate face. Gina still seemed to be wearing the same look of subtle sadness. On the other hand, although I can't be certain, I thought I detected something else on Martin's face. To the untrained eye, his features remained bland and impartial. Yet, there was something just below the surface. What was it? A certain self-righteous smugness? An aura of condescension that said "I told you so"?

Whatever it was—if it was anything at all—I found it irritating.

"It's over, then?" I said. Grammatically it was an interrogative, but I inflected it as a declarative, as though I already knew the answer before I even posed the question.

"All Ambassadors and Deputy Envoys will be instructed to abort their assignments for which they were recruited. That process has already begun, but we expect it will take several days before all of them can be contacted."

Well, that was pretty direct, but it was a bit too diplomatic. The words left room for interpretation. I like my information straight, direct, and unencumbered by polite tip-toeing around the point.

"Is the contact still going to take place or not?" I fairly demanded. "Or are you saying that it's down the toilet?"

Sarah turned to Gina, who immediately grasped the significance of the action—apparently it was a questioning look.

"It's a colorful term for something that has gone or has become lost." Gina responded without having been asked, at least orally.

"I see," Sarah responded. "The official decision is to halt the proceedings. Call it a hiatus, if you want. What's going on right now is unacceptable. What you do on..."

"Your whole world is insane!" Martin interrupted. Sarah merely had to swivel her head in his direction to regain the floor.

"I was saying that what you do on your own planet is your own business. However, Martin is overstating it. More precisely, what he should have said is that what is occurring is insane. But we still stand by the 80-20 percent hypothesis. No, you are not insane as a people. We still believe in the 80 percent. And it is known that some of your undesirables—the 20 percent—practice ritualized insanity. That has always been so. It can be contained with the necessary will and resolve. But that hasn't been demonstrated. We have an obligation to preserve cosmic peace."

They were being released from their assignments; none will be expected to go public—although they are free to do so—and that efforts to establish diplomatic relations have been put on hold.

"For how long?" I asked.

"We don't know," she replied. "That's up to your people. We will continue to monitor the planet."

"We have not given up. It will happen someday. That is inevitable...unless..."

The words hung there in space, almost palpable.

"Unless?" I said.

"Unless you blow yourselves up first," she replied.

That wasn't the first time I had heard that phrase.

And then Martin said something that was like a dagger through the heart.

"You foolish people will not be going into space, I guarantee you that. And, quite frankly, I think you are going to blow yourselves up. We've seen it before."

I gazed wildly at each face in turn.

"We won't go into that issue right now," Sarah said.

"We desperately need your help," I said. "You have the means. You can help us." The plea bordered on hysteria.

"I'm sorry," Sarah said. "We don't interfere or intervene.”

And that was the end of it. During the course of the conversation, incidentally, I was informed that several Ambassadors had been assassinated, none of them Americans. These killings were reported in the mainstream press. Since the victims hadn’t publicly identified themselves as Ambassadors, reports of their deaths were simply reported as political murders.

Martin left the room without another word. Sarah stood behind her desk and wished me good luck and thanked me for my efforts. Gina approached me and uncharacteristically squeezed me in a surprisingly strong hug considering her diminutive size. I was choked up and mentally chastised myself when I felt the moistness on my face as our cheeks were pressed together. I didn’t want to lose control.

And then I realized that the single tear that stained our faces wasn’t mine.

It was hers.

September 25, 2001

Coping With The Reversal

I have received many e-mails expressing anger and disappointment with the Verdants for their recent decision. Therefore, I think it is important to emphasize once again as I have done on numerous occasions that they have not come here as our saviors. Also, there were ample warnings in my books regarding the potential consequences about our rash and irrational ways.

There is a force at work in the universe that I have been calling a sort of cosmic Darwinism. If a species has the resolve, stamina, intelligence, courage, strength, and moral fiber to take control of its own destiny, to guide it in the right direction, then it probably has a pretty good chance of survival. Lesser species that lack any or all of these qualities probably have a slimmer chance. This is Nature in its purest and rawest form.

I also repeat what I have written and said many times before as related to me by the Verdants: Humankind’s destiny is in humankind’s hands. If we can’t handle our own affairs, well, that’s life in the cosmos. And it can be cruel—more than 95 percent of all species that have ever lived on Earth are extinct.

Quite frankly, one of the overriding reasons for the Verdants’ presence here is one of self-interest to ensure that no hostile or barbaric species that would represent a threat to its cosmic neighbors or the peace of the universe is allowed to go into deep space. That’s a survival instinct. We all have it. We cannot fault anyone for exercising it.

I understand the anger, and I am sympathetic. However, the decision is not mine, nor is my opinion sought. I know there is much fear in the world at the moment, but I think it’s important for people to have faith in the future, work for world peace, and hope that we have the necessary qualities of character to ensure that our journey to a better and brighter future remains on track. I, for one, continue to believe that is our destiny. I remain upbeat and do not subscribe to the hypothesis that we are going to incinerate ourselves.

It has never been more important than now to keep our spirits up. Peace to all.

* * *

With that background, I would like to now share a personal interview I conducted with Phillip Krapf on 9/20/01. You can imagine the jolt he was experiencing from the abruptness of the halt in plans due to the recent “terrorist” happenings, after several years of emotional buildup to the contact mission getting underway. We jump right into the discussion, past our introductory conversation.

Interview With Phillip Krapf

Krapf: I actually was expecting to go to the Bay Area UFO Expo and talk about the decision to go ahead. That decision had come down earlier in the year.

So, you know, in January 2000, I had my contact, and there were humans there in consultation with the aliens, the Verdants, and they were kicking around some of the problems, and the Verdants had expressed some concern about some of the things that were going on, that weren’t encouraging. And so, they were kicking this around, and then they were going to decide whether or not they were going to go ahead with it, that was in January 2000. That’s all detailed in the book, of course, the latest book.

Martin: And I have one of the key quotes right in front of me, about the reasons why they are discouraged, basically because of mankind’s moral corruption, etc.

[The Challenge Of Contact, quoting:]

“Well,” I asked, fully aware I was being childish and petulant, “can you at least tell me what they might be discussing in general terms that a person of my limited intellect could grasp?”

“Sure,” Martin replied without skipping a beat. “Children killing children. A global pandemic of violence against women. Corporate greed ravishing the world’s resources for their own selfish ends with no regard for the disastrous ecological and environmental legacy they leave for future generations. The airwaves filled with rancor by men and women, both secular and nonsecular, consumed by hate and narrow-mindedness. Incivility of massive proportions. Skewed values and a loss of moral direction. Apathy and unconcern for the less fortunate, cruelty of all sorts. Unconscionable terrorists killing and maiming innocent victims.”

[Continuing later:]

“Third-world nations that don’t have the capacity to adequately feed, clothe, shelter, and provide medical care for their citizens, squandering their paltry resources on the development of nuclear weapons. Ethnic cleansing. Pedophile clerics. The resurgence of religious and ethnic hatred and massacres. Religious zealots who rant against government but who would establish a theocracy to impose their narrow and tyrannical dogmas upon the populace.

“A sapping of the moral spirit, a malaise of the soul.” Etc., etc.

[End quoting]

Krapf: Things are not going as well as they had expected. But the decision did come down about a year later, in January or February of this year. I found out about it, actually, in March, when I was at the International UFO Congress Convention in Laughlin. I was told by a human emissary that the decision had come down. I was overjoyed, of course, because I was going through a lot of stress myself, because I’m basically the only one that I know of who has gone public, and put myself out there on the line.

I was looking for some support, some back-up.

And finally, when the decision came down that they would go ahead, then I knew that things would proceed according to the time-table, so early next year, 2002, I would start getting some support. People would start coming out.

So I was really, really delighted. I was going to make the announcement, and they told me they didn’t want the announcement made yet. Now, I don’t know why. But anyway, in August, I did get the go-ahead. They said that they would have no problem if I wanted to release the information, and so, I wrote the news release, and sent it to Byron to post on the website.

And then I was going to announce it, also, at the Bay Area UFO Expo. Unfortunately, the events of September 11 changed all of that.

Martin: Let’s take it from the last experience that you had, when they told you about this, and then let’s back-track from there.

Krapf: Ok. Are you talking about September 11?

Martin: The most recent contact. Let’s go into that in some depth, because we want to explore that issue.

Krapf: Now, this meeting lasting only about half an hour. It was very cursory.

I was taken up there. I met with Sarah, Martin, and Gina. Now, Gina is my personal tour guide and attendant. Sarah was the one who led the discussions in January of 2000, she was leading the panel of Verdants and humans, who were discussing these critical issues. And Martin was a person who—he had an attitude.

Martin: I sensed that from your writing.

Krapf: He represented the minority opinion that we simply weren’t prepared yet. But anyway, I was watching television, and then I had come over to the computer in another room, but I still had the television on and was still listening to the television.

At that time, the bluish-white light appeared. I knew it was coming, because it had happened two times before. And under normal circumstances, I would have been overjoyed. But this time I wasn’t overjoyed. I knew that this was not good. I could hear the news in the background. I knew that I was going on another journey, and so I appeared before Martin, Sarah, and Gina.

Gina was very sympathetic.

Martin was not sympathetic; let me put it that way.

Sarah was informing me that the events that were occurring were simply unacceptable, and the decision had been made to put the “contact” on hold.

And I could understand it, because if we went ahead with the contact, and let’s say diplomats had met—the efforts to establish diplomatic relations—and they had met in the suggested “new city” that was supposed to arrive, they have to be concerned about their security, too, because even though they are very intelligent and everything, a bomb still can take them out, or a sniper’s bullet, or anything else can take them out.

Martin: So that means “Genesis” is on hold, too? [Note: Genesis was to be a new city, which was to be located somewhere in the American Southwest. This new city would serve as a central hub for intergalactic ambassadors and human interactions of all kinds.]

Krapf: Everything is on hold. The whole plan is on hold. And, again, it’s encouraging a little bit in that they have not abandoned us.

Now, this Martin person, he is very pessimistic about the prospects for our planet. He simply doesn’t feel that we’re going to make it.

But the Verdants themselves, basically, are stepping back, taking a look, seeing if we’re going to revert to our typical ways, or if we’re going to somehow get through this and show some display of moral fibre.

Martin: What would an indication of moral fibre be?

Krapf: I don’t know.

Martin: What would be a representation of moral fibre? Would it be challenging the “powers that be”?

Krapf: I don’t know, it wasn’t explained to me. But I can understand their position at this point, with what’s going on. If we show our better nature, I suppose. But I’m getting into speculation, and perhaps I shouldn’t do that.

Martin: No, speculation is fine.

Krapf: And show that we can get through this crisis with the better elements of human nature being displayed; if we don’t revert to type and just start slaughtering each other, then I suppose that efforts will be made, again, to get this thing back onto track.

Martin: Well, obviously—you’re not too familiar with our paper, but we are well known for publishing very frank discourses on what we term “the evil elite” controlling the planet.

Krapf: No, I’m not familiar with the paper, quite frankly.

Martin: I’m a little bit perplexed in that the Verdants, as “representatives” of the Intergalactic Federation, are watching as—what we will term, for lack of a better phrase—the evil elite forces, as they implement their sinister plans, as evidenced by the New York event. There is a whole rest of the planet, which are well-meaning, well-intentioned, souled beings, who seemingly are at the mercy of the events of the elite at the top of the pyramid of power.

ISBN: 1-57983-008-0
Price: $19.95

In this historic book, a retired L.A. Times editor reports on a coalition of humans and aliens now engaged in extensive interplanetary diplomacy—with a goal of open contact. Mr. Krapf, the designated writer and herald for this epic project, shares the daunting challenges this role has forced upon him, in this sequel to his controversial 1998 book, The Contact Has Begun.

The Challenge Of Contact is Krapf’s continuing story of the secret deliberations between a race of alien observers, called the Verdants, and some 870 world leaders known as “ambassadors”—an interplanetary liaison that will soon lead to a formal and public announcement of contact. This book chronicles the dramatic events of Krapf’s second period of sojourn on the Verdant craft which occurred in 2000.

To order call Origin Press at: 1-888-267-4446
Or go on-line at: www.thechallengeofcontact.com

I understand that the Federation has a non-interference directive. However, are we to assume, if there is a hiatus, that the Verdants will, if the populace, the well-meaning, Godly populace, does not rise-up, somehow, against this peak of the pyramid, controlled by evil forces, then basically the planet goes to hell?

Krapf: As they say, as they have said on many occasions, our destiny is in our hands.

So, they are not our saviors, and they are not going to step in, because there is a—I suppose it is a kind of cosmic Darwinism—you know, you let Nature run its course. And if we happen to turn our planet into a cinder, I suppose that is just the way that the Universe works, and you move on to your next venue.

They, of course, were trying to establish diplomatic relations with the people of Earth, to try to help us make the transition as “space-farers”, but they certainly do not want an aggressive, hostile species out there. And they’re not going to allow it.

And, as Martin said, “You are not going into space.” It’s as simple as that.

I mean, it was almost a, well, it was a prediction, I guess, of sorts.

Martin: Well, I’ve heard over the last 15 years, in my research, I’ve come across the phrase “prison planet” more than once. And, granted the planet is evolving, changing, and moving into a higher state of consciousness, but not everyone is moving in that direction. And there is a polarity of good versus evil, dark force versus the light, whatever terms you want to use to describe the polarization of good and evil. For the actions of a few evil beings to impact the entire forward motion of planetary evolution, in terms of intergalactic contact, I don’t know.

I know that the Verdants are not the exclusive representatives of the Intergalactic Federation; there are the Pleadians, and there are a number of others.

Krapf: I don’t know anything about those.

Martin: There are a number of entities who have made contact over the last 10, 20, 30 and more years.

So, basically, it’s a “wait and see” kind of situation for them? Are they just going to take-off?

Krapf: No, they said: “We have not given up on you.” They still believe in the—would you like to take some time to read the statements just posted on the Internet?

[I had not read them at the time of this interview.]

Martin: Yes, I would.

[Pause]

Martin: You know, I don’t blame them. You’ve got to be reasonable about this. However, when you look at the firemen in New York City, just as an example of the best of a rallying of the human spirit, there can be two ways of looking at this.

There can be the viewing of the crazy people who brought about this incidence of violence; and there can be the viewing of the rallying of compassion and love and caring, for the people who have been harmed, in an effort to help.

Krapf: I think that’s why they haven’t gone away.

In other words, they haven’t just pulled-out, and said “That’s it; we’re through.”

They’re just stepping back. Anyway, that’s their decision, not mine.

Martin: I’m not trying to give you a hard time. I absolutely understand.

Krapf: They just said we’re not ready. And, I agree. Quite frankly, I agree.

Martin: It’s hard to disagree, from a higher perspective. If you look at the news, we’re ready to bomb the hell out of anyone we want, it seems.

Krapf: We’re ready to enflame this whole world. Who knows what’s going to happen. I hope cooler heads prevail. If they are criminals and they have to go after criminals, fine. But if they start just lobbing bombs, and some hot-head decides to push the nuclear button, that’s going to be a chain reaction, in more ways than one.

Martin: It’s a whole new world, at that point.

Krapf: Absolutely, absolutely. As I say, it was very disappointing news to me. But I’m still encouraged.

Martin: The title of your book is The CHALLENGE Of Contact. I think that’s an apt title.

Krapf: Yes, indeed.

Martin: Because this is one of the challenges that are faced, and you say, in the book, you list all of these things about mankind that really need work. We have a lot of work to do.

Krapf: We’ve also had warnings. I never thought about it at the time that I heard them, but these were warnings to us. I look at those things in retrospect. They were sending signals. You’ve got a sense of what has occurred.

Martin: I do. Do I have your permission to use these three announcements, quote them verbatim?

Krapf: Absolutely, yes, I want those to be disseminated. As a matter of fact, I insisted with the publicity department, and with my publisher, that they re-contact and re-confirm all of my appearances, interviews, book-signings, things like that.

Martin: Based on this new information, I guess.

Krapf: For people to have the opportunity to back-out. But I have had them re-confirm all of my appearances.

Also, I told Byron that any books that are ordered, I want people to be directed to the website, to understand the latest developments; or I want these things to be printed, copies made and inserted into the book, so that people are aware of the latest developments. I don’t want to distribute the book without people being made aware of this, because they may not be interested in the book anymore, and I don’t want to sell it to them under false pretenses.

Martin: You don’t want to mislead. The fact of the matter is, the recent developments do not negate the contact that has taken place. The message is still there. The information about our society is there. The fact that they are there is in print. The fact that you had contact with these beings is documented.

So, that WAS the purpose of your contact, to document these events.

Krapf: And to let people know that there is, in place, a formula for establishing diplomatic relations when we can. Let’s look at ourselves as, let’s say, a country that we are dealing with. Let’s say it’s a country instead of a planet. When we show that we are worthy of it, then you start talking about possibly establishing diplomatic relations. If you’re a rogue nation, I understand when diplomatic ties are severed. I can understand that.

And in this case, now, instead of a country, we are a planet. We almost are a rogue planet, the way things are going.

So, even though we don’t have diplomatic relations that can be severed, they are withholding efforts to go ahead and establish diplomatic relations until we get our act together.

Martin: When the student is ready, the teacher appears.

Krapf: It’s as simple as that.

Martin: Now that we’ve brought everybody’s hopes down with the current news, let’s just back-up and talk about this whole thing, a bit.

Let’s talk about the craft, the Goodwill. Can you just explain what it was like to be on a spaceship?

Krapf: [Laughter]

Martin: It’s got to have been just a mind-blower for you.

Krapf: It’s a unique experience and I’m not sure words can do it justice. It’s awe-inspiring.

And, of course, I had to do a lot of readjustment in my thinking, and my belief system because, as I’ve said before many times, I never believed in this kind of stuff.

Martin: And I want to ask you about that. What did this do to you?

Krapf: It’s hard to say. I’m certainly a different person today, but it’s more internal than external. I’m still a member of the human family, so I conduct myself as such. I live in the suburbs, and I have my car, my house. I’m just retired. I’m just living kind of a normal, quiet life.

Martin: Not everybody has Gina knocking at the door. [Gina is a Verdant, an extraterrestrial being.]

Krapf: That’s true. It’s been an exciting adventure, something that I could never have envisioned, just a few short years ago, when I just didn’t believe in this sort of thing. I really didn’t pay too much attention to it, quite frankly. I wasn’t interested in it. I didn’t believe it, so I wasn’t interested in it.

When John Mack came out with his book, I thought, “Jeepers, what’s wrong with him?” Because here was a very prominent, mainstream person himself, a leader in his field, taking this position. I was actually kind-of shocked.

Do you remember the old radio psychologist in Los Angeles, Dr. David Viscot?

Martin: No, I don’t.

Krapf: You don’t? I used to listen to him all the time. I thought he was really, really sharp. He broke the news one-day. I guess this was after John Mack’s book came out, and he said, “There’s something going on, folks.”

This shocked me to hear him say that, an actual “mainstream” person. I didn’t think anybody who was in the mainstream could say something like that.

Martin: What about the Disclosure Project? Was that something that the Verdants were involved in?

Krapf: I have no idea.

Martin: You’re familiar with that?

Krapf: Yes, I am, of course, sure—Steven Greer.

Martin: That seems like a pretty major event.

Krapf: That’s something that I’m not involved in. I have no experience with it. People have speculated about who’s involved, what their relationship is in terms of the efforts to establish diplomatic relations, but again, that’s all speculation. I have no knowledge of it.

It wasn’t discussed with me, by either humans or aliens.

Martin: By any chance, years ago, did you see the movie Starman?

Krapf: Was that with—

Martin: Jeff Bridges.

Krapf: Yeah, oh yeah, sure, I saw that.

Martin: That’s kind-of representative of where we are at. We send out a probe inviting visitors here, and then they show up, and basically we shoot at them.

Krapf: People often ask me “Why are they going through all of these complicated procedures to make contact?” And they use the cliché: “Why don’t they just land on the White House lawn?”

I never use that cliché, because it is a cliché. Land on the White House lawn? What I tell people, when they say that, I say, that’s called “an invasion”.

Martin: It’s called “force”. It’s not allowed.

Krapf: That’s a good way to get shot down. You know how the military is going to react to a spaceship coming in and heading for the White House?

Imagine a jet plane from Cuba—they want to establish diplomatic relations—imagine that they send a jet plane to head for the White House.

Well, you don’t do that because you’re not going to get there.

As I say, that’s called an invasion. What you do is, you contact people in that country, or on that planet in this case, and you say: “Let’s talk; let’s see if we can get something going here.”

And then there’s a protocol, I suppose. I’m not in the diplomatic corps, so I don’t know what the protocol is, but there are procedures.

And what you do is, you make contact. You initiate further meetings. You set up some kind of structure. You get more and more people involved, and finally you get the leaders of the country involved. Then, you sit down and try to hammer out rules, and treaties, and things like that. That’s the way diplomatic relations are established.

Martin: Well, my understanding is that the ETs, a number of them from different species, have been in contact with our government officials since the 1940s, and basically the cover-up has continued, and the people know nothing about it.

It’s a question of: If Earth is going to be brought into the Federation of Planets, and become a member of the Galaxy, the Galactic Family if you will, then it has to happen on an individual, human level, not with governments; because the governments are part of the conspiracy of silence, and they’re also part of the problem.

Krapf: Ok, well, yeah. But I quite frankly can’t see how you can establish diplomatic relations without actually involving the leaders.

Martin: You DO have to involve them. There’s no question, because they are the structure that’s in place.

And, obviously, the Federation has it’s own set of guidelines as to how these things take place.

And, I’m sure, they can’t go outside those guidelines, because they are so much more highly evolved than we are; they know what they’re doing.

Krapf: Now, there are countries that do not get along—but there are Red Cross people, and charity workers, and humanitarian aid, and even religious proselytizers who make contact with people in nations we don’t have diplomatic relations with, which we consider “rogue” nations—and government leaders are not involved in that.

Could that be going on between aliens and humans, here on Earth? I suppose so.

And I’m not saying—this is just an analogy—I’m not drawing a parallel saying that the aliens are here doing humanitarian work, or anything like that. I'm just saying that there are instances where contact between people from different societies, contact is made. But, it's done NOT on an official level.

But, to establish actual diplomatic relations, you have to involve the government. I don't see any other way.

Martin: When I first read your description of the Verdants, the description almost was like what are called the little "Greys". You were describing them as 5 feet tall, large eyes, and that sort of thing. Then, later, the description was more like "normal people". Did you describe them as more "normal looking" on the ship?

Krapf: Oh, no, no, no. As a matter of fact, they ARE similar to the Greys.

And I never heard that term before, quite frankly, until after my experience. I had seen the caricatures, everybody has seen the caricatures, on TV, on cereal boxes, in magazines, in newspapers. You see them as novelty items, you know, holding candy, and you see them in toy stores, and stuff like that.

So, everybody has seen that caricature of the Grey. I did not know what they were called. I didn't know there was a name for them, quite frankly. I just thought they were "aliens".

And then I found out that they were called "the Greys".

Well, the creatures that I met were quite similar, based upon the caricatures, and the descriptions. I can't say, because I've never seen, as far as I know—I don't know that I've ever seen a Grey. But these differed in that their eyes were more proportional to their face, the same as a human eye is proportional to the human face.

So the eyes were not big "bug eyes"; they were smaller. As I say, in about the same proportion as on the human face, although they had a slight slant to them, and a little bit narrower. That was the major difference that I noticed.

I don't know anything about the Greys. All I know is that they didn't call themselves Greys. As a matter of fact, they didn't call themselves Verdants. I called them Verdants.

Martin: Was there a hierarchy that you were aware of? Like, was there a captain of the ship?

Krapf: I really don't know.

Martin: You were not exposed to quite that level?

Krapf: No. Remember, there are 30-some thousand people on this ship. And each of them, being highly intelligent, I would imagine that any one of them aboard could assume any responsibility.

Martin: Now, you mention that the Verdants' maximum life-span is 20,000 years?

Krapf: That's Earth years.

Martin: Is your perception that the Verdants are biological, souled creatures?

Or are they synthetic beings?

Do they have DNA of their own type?

Any sense of that? Are they manufactured beings?

Krapf: I never thought about it. They talk about their marriage, traditions, about their children, about their reproduction. I touch them. They were warm-blooded. I have no reason to believe that they are clones.

But then again, I don't know. They never told me they were.

Martin: There were variations, physically, as you looked at them? They did not all look alike?

Krapf: They do all look alike, until you get to know them.

But, actually now, remember, living 20,000 years is not really unreasonable, when you think about it. In the last century, during the 1900s, we practically doubled the lifespan of people in this country. That's called life extension. That's quite a step.

Well, they said that, a long time ago, they lived a normal lifespan of one or two generations, as a lot of animals do. And then gradually, as they evolved, they were able to get into life extension. They were able to extend that by a few years, and then a few decades, and then pretty soon a few centuries, and then farther and farther.

Who knows, if we keep going at our rate, I imagine within 20,000 years WE will have a 20,000-year lifespan. But that's just, again, speculation on my part.

But that's not an amazing figure. That's not unreasonable because, as I say, we've doubled the lifespan in one century.

Now, with the mapping of the human genome, and they get into genetic engineering and stuff like that, growing new body parts, that might not even be necessary, after a while. You won't need a new one, the old one will do just fine.

That really does not strike me as amazing, anymore; at first it did, at first it stunned me. That really doesn't strike me as amazing, anymore, because we have even, in our own primitive society, we have made great strides in extending life.

Martin: Well, and you mentioned Gina could only, their bodies could only digest plant matter.

Krapf: Yes, right.

Martin: Not meat eaters.

Krapf: Yes, their bodies are adapted to eating plant food. There are carnivores and there are herbivores, and there are omnivores. They happen to be herbivores.

Martin: When you were onboard and there were other humans onboard, did you enter into dialogues with them?

How much did you bring back, in terms of memory of your encounters onboard, in terms of other species contact?

Were there other entities, other than the Verdants, onboard these ships?

Krapf: I didn't see any, but I did in my conversations—it wasn't in the book. There's a lot that isn't in the book.

Martin: I figured that.

Krapf: In conversations I did get the impression that some of the species in the Intergalactic Federation of Sovereign Planets have not as yet perfected what I call the "flicker drive", which allows the Verdants to get around the Universe in very, very quick time.

So, since they don't have the flicker drive and can't get around that fast, I get the impression that there's co-operation, and different species who haven't perfected this, yet, do go along on some of these journeys.

Martin: So they can hitch a ride?

Krapf: As visitors, as guests. Just as we are co-operating with other countries in putting some of their astronauts on some of our Shuttle flights.

Martin: It makes sense.

Krapf: Sure it does.

Martin: They're all members of the Federation; obviously they're non-violent and they meet the criteria.

Krapf: They seem all to be very, very individualistic though. I'll tell you, because I'm thinking, well, how come other species don't have the flicker drive if one species has it?

And, basically, as I say, there's a cosmic dynamism, a Darwinism. I think each species develops on its own. There's some sharing of technology. And there's a lot of co-operation, I guess, but it's a loose Federation.

If one species is destined to develop the flicker drive, then it develops it. If it isn't, then it doesn't get it from anybody else. That's the impression I get, which is kind of strange.

Martin: Were there any discussions that you had onboard the ship that were, basically, philosophical discussions about where our planet is going, where we're headed?

Krapf: Our planet?

Martin: Yes.

Krapf: No, no. There were some philosophical discussions. We talked about religion a bit.

Martin: Let's talk about that.

Krapf: All of the information that they wanted me to put in the White Paper IS in the book. That information was given to me in formal sessions.

Now, I did pick-up some information in informal sessions; informal in discussions with Gus, and in discussions with a small group that I met with on my second visit; and in discussions with Gina, just chatting, and letting my curiosity run rampant.

And I asked some questions, and they were pretty open with me.

I didn't get any other information in the formal sessions, because in the formal sessions the focus was very, very narrow. They wanted to tell me WHO they are, WHERE they come from, WHAT they're doing here, HOW LONG they've been here.

They told a little bit about the name of their planet.

And, basically, they wanted me to just give people a general idea, in general detail, what is going on as efforts go forward to establish diplomatic relations. And if diplomatic relations are ever established, then that information is going to start coming out all over the world by all of these ambassadors.

And there will be SO MUCH information coming out from each individual person—who will be in engineering, in medicine, in the military, in education, and things like that—there will be so much information coming out that it will amount to INFORMATION OVERLOAD.

So each of these bits of information would be like the pieces of a million-piece jigsaw puzzle. Each individual piece might have some very interesting shape, and form, and color, and things like that, but it would basically be meaningless without seeing how it fits into the total picture.

So I saw my job as writing, or drawing, a very crude picture of what the final picture on the box of the jigsaw puzzle is going to look like when all these pieces fall into place.

Martin: Let's get back to the religious discussions.

Krapf: They said that they have a "fact-based" religion. They have evidence. They believe in a Supreme Being. They believe in an immortal soul.

This came as a great surprise to me, as an atheist. I could never make that leap of faith that's required of Earth-based religions, simply because, as far as I am aware—and I don't have any religious background or training—as far as I know, Earth religions are all "faith-based"; that is, there is true belief in something.

Now, to me, my definition of faith, and other people may disagree, is that faith is belief in something for which there is no evidence or which can't be proven. That's my definition. Other people may have other definitions, and they may disagree with that. I never could make that leap of faith.

But now I would be more able to accept their religion, because they say it's "fact-based". And, if they're not lying to me—and I don't think they are, because they struck me as very honest and straightforward and very moral creatures—so, if they have evidence and fact, then I could more easily embrace their religion than I could an Earth religion, because they would have evidence and facts.

Martin: Now, they believe in a Supreme Being. Did they ever say that they come as representatives?

Krapf: No, no, not as representatives, at all.

Martin: They never spoke in those terms?

Krapf: No. They say that they have evidence, and they know for a fact that there is a God, and that we have immortal souls.

Again, coming from where I come from, that's hard for me to accept.

Martin: Was it in your book or somewhere else that I read that they know where Heaven is?

Krapf: Yes, it's in the first book, The Contact Has Begun. I found that out on my first visit to the ship in June 1997.

[Quoting from The Contact Has Begun.]

"You believe in God?" I stammered. "In an immortal soul?"

Gina's face became a canvas of expression. I had broken through. It took a practiced eye, and I would not have seen it only hours before, but I could not read the very, very subtle musculature that revealed her emotions.

"Believe?" she asked in wonder. "We don't just believe. We know. Our scientists proved the existence of the soul millennia ago. Our ships have discovered the precise location of Heaven in the Universe. We have been there."

[End quoting]

Martin: That's pretty amazing information.

Krapf: Yes, but again, it was given to me informally. It was not given to me in a formal session, and therefore I was not expected to include it.

But when I was writing the book, I hesitated about putting it in there, because it's very controversial. People take their religions very seriously. It can stir up great passions.

And I thought, I don't need any problems here. The book was going to be controversial enough the way it was. But I included it anyway, because it did happen, and it will spice up the book a little bit, because just writing a White Paper, it's just filled with facts, and it's very formal, and appeals to scholars and academics and doesn't get very wide readership.

I wanted to tell the whole story, so I thought, I'm going to include the informal sessions, as well. There was no objection. They didn't "forbid" me from doing so. We didn't even discuss it, quite frankly. I just thought, as long as I'm writing this, I'm going to include it. And that includes the sexual incident, as well.

Martin: I was going to ask you about that. Obviously, Gina, I would imagine, appeared in a more human shape than in a little Grey shape, or am I wrong?

Krapf: Are you talking about up on the ship?

Martin: Yes.

Krapf: No, she appeared the same as all the others. They are “humanoid”, by the way.

Martin: But down here she took on a different form?

Krapf: She was transformed, yes.

Martin: Was that a holographic projection, or was that an actual?

Krapf: I don’t think so, and I’ll tell you why. We went out into public. She got in a car, we went out into public, we passed people in stores. I don’t see how they could do that as a holographic projection.

Martin: Did she actually have the ability to shape-shift?

Krapf: I don’t know that they call it shape-shifting, or if that is what it was, but they told me previously that they know how to do “genetic transformations”.

I don’t know what shape-shifting really entails. The way I understand it, they can do genetic transformations as easily as a human can put on make-up.

Martin: I don’t want to concentrate on this, but when you had “the encounter” with her, which you reluctantly added in the book, the sexual encounter, was she appearing as a Grey at that point?

Krapf: Not a Grey, she’s a Verdant, she’s Verdant, she’s not a Grey.

Yes, she was in her “natural” state.

But they are humanoid, and their bodies are very similar to ours. They’re just smaller, more slightly built.

Martin: I see. I want to talk to you about two different things here.

Let’s talk about the “round-table” discussions that you had “upstairs”. Obviously there were some really broad and harsh, I don’t want to call them judgments, of Earthlings, humans, but there were some real painstaking evaluations. I guess I’ll phrase it that way, which were taking place.

How did you feel being involved in discussions about humans, from that vantage point of being on a spaceship?

Krapf: Ok, you’re going to have to tell me what you’re referring to. Are you talking about the briefing I got, right before I left, on my second visit, in January 2000, as detailed in The Challenge Of Contact? Is that what you’re talking about?

Martin: I’m talking about Martin, and some of the others. How did that feel? What was that like to be involved in that kind of a discussion?

Krapf: Well, I was really not involved in those discussions.

If you remember, I say in the book that I was excluded from all of those sessions, and all that I got was a “briefing” at the end.

And then, they told me, basically, that they were discussing very, very important, critical issues related to trying to establish the diplomatic relations. They were kicking this around.

There was some concern that permeated to the highest levels, they said. And when they talked about the highest levels, they were talking about the Verdants, to the High Command. There was some concern about the way things are going here on Earth, and so they wanted to get together and brainstorm.

And they got these ambassadors together who represented the other ambassadors, and they kicked things around, and what the problems were, and how are they going to deal with them, and whether or not this will affect the timetable.

Martin: Were you there for that?

Krapf: No, I got a “briefing” on this. I was excluded from those meetings, because I was told that I really wouldn’t be able to understand them.

Martin: I remember reading that they told you it was out of your depth, or whatever.

Krapf: I got a little testy about that.

Martin: What do you mean?

Krapf: Basically they were saying I wasn’t smart enough.

And they’re probably right. I don’t have the education that I’m sure most of these ambassadors have.

And, especially, these high-level people, they’re leaders in their fields.

Martin: Are we talking about Earthlings?

Krapf: We’re talking the Earthlings.

Martin: So these are other representatives, from planet Earth.

Krapf: Right. There are 11 of them, in human form. Actually, there are 12 of them—11 humans, and one other person who “appeared” human.

Martin: But they are not coming forward, publicly?

Krapf: No, they haven’t identified themselves.

I am the only one, quite frankly, who has gone public.

And, quite frankly, if you are a leader in your field, it takes an awful lot of courage to come forward, because you’re going to take a lot of ridicule, and derision, and everything else.

And your colleagues are going to look at you askance, and it could affect your personal life, your social life, your home life, your career, your profession. That takes an awful lot of courage for someone who is still involved in his career.

Now I, myself, am no longer involved in a career, so I didn’t have that concern.

But no, I’m the only one who has gone public. And this is what was causing me a lot of stress. I started worrying about what happens. When are these people going to start coming out? When am I going to start getting some backup on this?

When they finally announced their decision that the contact would go ahead, I was overjoyed because I knew that next year sometime I was going to start getting some backup. And I was going to be vindicated, in the eyes of my critics, who have been saying that this is all balderdash.

So, I was going to have the final say.

In August I was able to release the information: “Hey, they are on their way! They are coming! The contact is on!” I couldn’t wait until next year.

And then, wouldn’t you know it, 19 days after I release that information, the “terrorist” attacks took place. And that dashed that.

And I also had a new book coming out, and the fact that the contact was going to take place couldn’t help but help the book, spread the word, and everything else.

Then the attacks took place and it could scuttle the veracity of the book.

[Editor’s note: Could this extraterrestrial contact project be yet another reason for the misfit elite controllers proceeding with their nasty shenanigans on 9/11/01 and following? After all, it provides a sizeable, ongoing public distraction from many other things—both good and bad—that are occurring right now.]

Martin: You had a pretty serious “trust no-one” warning. Did you take that to heart?

Did that frighten you?

And have there been any incidents, recently, that have caused you concern? Probably less concern, now that this recent series of events have happened.

Have you been followed or watched or anything like that?

Krapf: Well, you know what? If these guys are good at their job, I wouldn’t know it, would I?

So, just because I say “No, I haven’t been followed or watched” doesn’t mean it’s the facts of the matter. It just means that the other people who are doing the following and watching are very good at what they’re doing.

So, I don’t know.

But yes, when the first crazy phone calls came in, and there were a couple, when the first emails of warning came in, I thought “My God, what have I gotten into here?”

But, eventually, I came to be able to live with them. It doesn’t bother me. I probably walk around with a little more heightened interest in what’s going on around me, but I haven’t become paranoid and let it control my life.

Martin: Good. You were just at the Bay Area UFO Conference. Did you view a conference like that through different eyes, now that you’ve had this experience?

Krapf: Oh, absolutely!

This wasn’t my first one. I’ve been at two of the Laughlin conferences, and I’ve been to several MUFON meetings. I’ve spoken before the San Diego UFO Society. And so, I’ve been around a little bit.

Sure, I view it differently than I would have when I was just a newspaperman who didn’t believe in this sort of thing, when I thought this was a convention of, well, let’s call them “oddballs”.

I was absolutely stunned when I actually got into the community and found out that these are very ordinary, traditional people, who simply have an interest in this sort of thing. Many of them have advanced degrees, PhDs. I’ve heard from medical doctors.

I’ve heard from an emergency room physician. Now, he has gone public, and he talks about this, and he attends the conventions. And he talks about it with his colleagues. When he goes to AMA meetings, he’ll set-up a booth to get other doctors interested. He said, basically, they ignore him.

I said, “How can you do that in your profession? Doesn’t that affect your professional life?”

He said, “No. I’m an emergency room physician, and as long as I keep saving people’s lives, that’s what they’re paying me for. And so, they accept it.”

I’ve heard from professors, physicists, engineers, doctors, lawyers, you name it. They come from every

WHY THE END?

TWO MILLENNIA OF PROPHECY AND ITS FRUITLESS ATTEMPT TO AWAKEN HUMANITY

By J. T. Revelator

Price: $29.95 (+S/H)

8X10 format with large, easy-to-read print. Over 350 pages.

The book that dares to ask the ultimate question. Many prophets over the last two millennia, each with their own perspective, have tried to warn humanity about the “future” catastrophic “end-time events” in the hopes of altering them. That time is now upon us.

WHY THE END? is a distillation of prophecies and messages spanning the last 2,000 years, sorted by topic for you, the awakening human. Unlike other books that dwell on past history or vague fragments of events, WHY THE END? gets to the point, chronicling the diverse range of prophecies and offering the facts and clues from scientific disciplines.

You may have pondered on some of these questions:

- Why is time “speeding up”?
- Why are animals exhibiting strange behaviors, some dying inexplicably?
- Why is the weather fluctuating and getting more severe?
- Are you feeling “on edge” as if something profound is about to happen soon?
- Is there a limit to humanity’s abuse of the planet?
- When does the “New Age” begin?

WHY THE END? intends to answer these questions, and more, in a no-frills, uncompromising manner. Some of these projections are quite harsh and could be interpreted as “doom and gloom”, depending on your perspective. But if you have an appetite for what is really on the horizon, then WHY THE END? is the book for you.

The bottom line is that the Purification of the Earth is underway, and will continue to escalate. WHY THE END? will prepare you mentally for the events, while those less informed will become incapacitated by fear as they witness the end of life as we know it. In reality, it is the cleansing of the old to make way for the new “Golden Age”. It then becomes your choice as to how you will view and interpret and experience these events.

background and they attend these conferences.

I was very pleasantly surprised, very pleasantly surprised to find out it wasn't a bunch of nuts running around, with spring-loaded antennae hats, and things like that.

These are very normal people, very normal. It's surprising, surprising.

That's a story that should get out to the mainstream press. They're not going to do it.

Martin: Let's talk about terra-forming. The Verdants, I understand, are familiar with terra-forming planets. Did they talk to you about the technology behind that? Or how they go about it?

Krapf: No, that really, again, was not my purpose for being there. That was not the focus of our discussions. The focus of our discussions was to do my job.

The little information that I did pick-up, they simply told me that they are able to go in and terra-form. And take inhospitable planets, uninhabitable planets, and reshape the topography and do whatever needs to be done, I guess, to create your oceans, and things of that nature—release the water onto the surface, if it's tied-up in rocks, below the surface, or whatever, or in the atmosphere.

But no, we didn't get into it at all. It was just mentioned casually and in informal discussions. I don't know that it was ever brought up at the formal sessions. It might have been, but probably only in passing.

Martin: Were there any discussions of consequence in the formal sessions that you did NOT include in the book, that you would like to talk about?

Krapf: I can't think of anything offhand. I think that everything that was said in the formal sessions, I reported.

Martin: Just, generally, what would you say to our readers—I'm sure many of whom believe in this type of contact? What would you say to them to prevent them from possibly being discouraged by the earlier information?

Krapf: You mean the hiatus?

Martin: Yes.

Krapf: Boy. I'm trying to be as upbeat as possible about it, but quite frankly, I do get fits of melancholy when I think about it, an opportunity like this. I hope it doesn't slip away.

But, an upbeat statement? The important thing is to, I guess, stay active. Keep the faith. [Laughter] It's funny for me to be talking about faith.

Keep the faith, and keep doing what you're doing. Remain active, try to get the word spread, because eventually, ultimately, we have to reach the mainstream population. And the way to do that is through the mainstream media. And we haven't been able to do that yet.

You know, 10-20 years ago, nobody talked about this, I mean, really substantial people. At least I don't think many of them did.

Now I'm surprised by the number of very important people, high-profile people, who are not afraid to come out and express their beliefs. You've got people like Daniel Sheehan, and a lot of other people—doctors, and people like that, who I was telling you about—who are not afraid to take a position these days. That's some progress.

But we still have to reach the mainstream, and get rid of the stereotype that they have, that we're just a bunch of whackos. And you do that through the mainstream press.

So people have to stay involved, and as more and more substantial people start coming out, people with credibility and believability, and who have influence over vast segments of the population, why, then the battle will be won, once they realize.

Martin: Of course, our readers are well aware, from previous stories we've done—and this will go, probably, contrary to your beliefs—that the mainstream press is CONTROLLED by higher forces of not well-meaning people, who we would call the Elite Controllers, the ones who are responsible for a large amount of evil on the planet.

Krapf: Segments of the press, I think, yes. I would agree with that, segments of it.

Martin: At the highest levels.

Krapf: But you're going to have to make a very, very strong argument to me, because I'm going to have to really, then, do A LOT of rethinking.

Not that I haven't done a lot of rethinking, already. But that's going to be a hard-sell, to me.

But segments of the press, I agree, there are some evil people. I won't mention any names.

Martin: We're basically of the view, here at The SPECTRUM, as a so-called "alternative" press, that the hope lies with the alternative press, because that is the only truly free press that still exists in this country.

All other press IS controlled at a higher, corporate level, and I would challenge you, as a former journalist for the L.A. Times, you certainly did not have freedom to write what you wanted, across the board, without it being very carefully scrutinized.

Krapf: Well, I was not a writer at the time. I was a simple copy editor.

Martin: But you're familiar with the kind of thing I'm talking about.

Krapf: Yes, I am.

And, of course, stories are assigned by editors. But there are beat reporters who go out and cover their beats, and they do stories independently. They do have to go through an editor. And stories are killed, for various reasons.

I, myself, I have never really experienced, or been aware of, a conspiracy of any sort to suppress any news, except now, in this area here [meaning UFOs]; but I don't know that it comes from orders "on high" that the UFO community is not covered. I think it's just individual choices, by the working news people, who simply are not "believers". And if they're not believers, it's difficult for them to go out and do a story that is designed to educate and inform, rather than entertain.

Now, you will see occasional stories about alien abductions and UFOs, but if you look at them very carefully, you'll realize that the tone of the story is not one of education, not information to inform and to educate, but simply to "titillate".

But I think that's an individual decision, made by the working news people, who by-in-large do not believe in this sort of thing.

But I don't know. And I'm not saying you're wrong. I could be absolutely wrong, and you could be absolutely right.

Martin: I'm not trying to upset you or anything.

Krapf: No, no, no. I, myself, have not seen any evidence of any high-level conspiracy.

I do know that there are some segments of the media, both broadcast and print, mainstream, there are segments of it that are very, very biased, absolutely, no doubt about it.

Martin: I guess what I'm really trying to say is, if we look to the mainstream press, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, etc., to report stories like The Challenge Of

Contact, with all of its implications, I think hell will freeze first.

Krapf: I tend to agree with you.

Martin: I hate to say that. It's unfortunate. It's a sad state of affairs, but it is, basically, facing reality. That is just the way of things.

Krapf: I think it's a blind spot. I'm not sure how much of a conspiracy is involved, in terms of trying to suppress anything in this area.

But corporations do control most of the media. And corporations do have an agenda. And that agenda is self-interest.

Now, there is a higher calling in the newspaper business to serve the public good; no doubt about it. And I think the working news people try to fulfill those obligations, to serve the public good, to inform and to educate.

But, again, in this area here, they don't take it seriously and I think it's simply a blind spot on their part. Now, I could be wrong.

There is no doubt that the alternative press is the one that is carrying this story, and dealing with this subject. And it's not a mainstream story. There's no doubt about that.

I still believe that it's necessary, in order for this to succeed, it's necessary to reach the mainstream. And to reach the mainstream, you have to have the mainstream media.

Now, if the mainstream media do not do it, but the mainstream people are reached by the alternative press, then the alternative press is no longer the alternative press but the mainstream.

Martin: Occasionally we have discussions around here about what it would take to increase public awareness about this kind of possibility. We never talk in terms of landing on the White House lawn, because that is a ridiculous scenario that's been used far too often.

But the discussion has come up, from time to time, that perhaps there should be a mass fly-by.

Well, even a mass fly-by, on some level, is representative of force, once again. Although part of me thinks that would be great, to see a whole bunch of ships fill the sky.

It's just undeniable. Every eye would see then. Every person would be aware.

Krapf: I think you would have absolute world-wide panic.

Martin: It would be panic, and that, again, is contrary to the "prime directive".

So, I don't know what the answer is. There are no simple answers to this.

Krapf: The people would not know what the motivation for this was. And so they would see it as "doomsday".

Martin: Like Orson Welles' infamous 1938 Halloween radio broadcast of H.G. Wells' The War Of The Worlds.

Krapf: Oh, yeah. This would be terribly frightening. You'd fill the asylums in no time. People would be going crazy with something like this happening.

This would be the end of the world. That's not the way you do it.

The way you do it is, you have their people contact our people, and you then build from there; and continue the contact, and keep building and building, until you finally reach a formal agreement.

But one of the things that the alternative press can do is continue to publicize those very high profile individuals who are involved, because this is a moderating influence upon the population.

[Editor's note: We agree. And that is one of the important reasons for this feature story. Another is because, as I (E.Y.) said early in the front-page story last month, choices and conditions being made right now on planet Earth may well accelerate the timeframe for certain kinds of extraterrestrial interactions by, at least, those who have the responsibility for babysitting our planetary societies. You can be sure the depraved and desperate choices made recently by the elite misfits—including such events as what happened on 9/11/01—are being turned into learning/awakening opportunities for all who are honestly seeking The Truth. Several of the spiritual messages, elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM, address this matter as only our Higher Teachers can do so well.]

You're not talking about radicals, and anonymous Montana ranchers; you're talking about people who are leaders in their field, people who have great credibility, people who are respected.

This has to have an effect upon their peers. It has to have an effect upon those segments of the population who respect either their positions, or their personal reputations, their names.

So that's the important thing, to keep these high-profile people in the news, and to try to encourage other high profile people to get involved, too.

Martin: Part of the challenge of contact, there are many people over the years who have said that people like

OTHER VOICES

BY GEORGE HUNT WILLIAMSON & TIMOTHY GREEN BECKLEY

The author was one of the original witnesses at the meeting between contactee George Adamski and Orthon from the planet Venus. Williamson claims that he also underwent contacts with aliens and even received transmissions over his radio from friendly extraterrestrials. Others have claimed the same. Senator Barry Goldwater reportedly heard mysterious signals on his ham radio and our own astronauts have reportedly picked up messages not transmitted from Earth.

Other Voices is essentially a reprint of a book entitled The Saucers Speak, by George Hunt Williamson and Alfred Bailey. Originally published in the 1950s. Much of what the authors prophesy has indeed come to pass, and the warning the aliens send about nuclear war and environmental doom is still as urgent as it ever was when first published.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Gene Roddenberry were guided and influenced from higher dimensions to write stories, like Star Trek, to bring into mass consciousness the “possibility” of these other things, and GRADUALLY bring the society up in awareness, through fiction, through what would SEEM to be fiction, and allow an acceptance of the possibility of a Universe teeming with life.

And, I think, that is, in fact, what has been taking place.

And even with shows as wild as The X-Files, and movies like CONTACT, and other things along that line in the film industry, and in television, there is a “bringing-up”, if you will, of the consciousness to allow for an openness as to possibilities.

Does that make sense?

Krapf: It makes absolute sense. It sounds like a really good plan, yeah.

Now, I’ve heard the stories about Gene Roddenberry and everything, but I, of course, have no information or knowledge myself about it. But that sounds like a good plan to me.

Martin: So it seems like that is, more or less, what is taking place; not the old, physical representation of what would be perceived as force, but rather a very subtle, gradual, long-term EDUCATIONAL process.

Krapf: In that way you don’t shock the nervous system of people. You get them gradually used to it, over a period of time.

Just like when I broke the news to my wife. I didn’t tell her right off.

Martin: “Hey, honey, I was just on a spaceship.”

Krapf: I told her over a period of three or four days.

I started out with: “I had the strangest dream.”

And then we talked about it.

And then, as we were watching something on, say, the Discovery channel about UFOs, finally I got around to saying: “You know, there may be something to this after all.”

Now, this was a radical change for me. I was an absolute skeptic, before.

But to soften my position, I said: “There might be something to this after all.”

And then I said: “You know what? I think my dream was really more than just a dream.”

And then, finally, I told her: “You know what? It happened.”

So, I softened her up. I didn’t just shock her system.

That’s exactly what you’re talking about there, getting people used to the possibility and the idea of it.

Martin: Well, I’m encouraged that it’s a hiatus. A hiatus I can live with. Everybody needs a sabbatical, even the guys watching us for a thousand years.

It’s not “We’re leaving!”

“We’re leaving” would be extremely discouraging.

Krapf: I’ll tell you, though, my personal opinion, if the nuclear exchanges start, I think they’re out of here. I think that’s the end of it.

Of course, WE’RE out of here, too.

That’s life in the Universe. Move on to the next venue.

Martin: There is no death. The soul is eternal.

Krapf: That’s what they say.

Martin: I imagine, now, you probably believe that idea, too. I don’t know if you do.

Krapf: I’m still dealing with it.

Again, I can more easily embrace their belief than I can ours.

But, again, I’m not sure where I am. I’m not sure I’ve been totally convinced. I guess I have to overcome so many things to finally accept that.

Martin: There’s a time for every season. Everything in its proper time.

Krapf: That’s right.

Martin: I wish you all the best! And thank you for taking the time to speak with me and, in turn, share your thoughts with our readers.

Krapf: You’re welcome.

* * *

And now for something a little different. The following story appeared in Reuters on November 22, 2000: [quoting]

Air Force Buys Supercomputer
To Identify UFOs

International Business Machines Corporation (IBM)

said on Wednesday it sold the U.S. Air Force a supercomputer to help it to identify unidentified flying objects.

The Air Force’s Space Surveillance Team, based in Maui, Hawaii, will use the supercomputer to hunt outer space for old satellites, foreign spacecraft, and other UFOs that may be hurtling toward Earth, IBM said.

The IBM system will be used to detect and identify some 9000 objects currently flying around in Earth’s orbit. The computer can process 480 billion calculations per second—making it about 40 times faster than the IBM “Deep Blue” supercomputer that defeated chess champion Garry Kasparov in 1997.

That processing capability will be used to improve blurry telescope images of space objects, allowing Defense Department military officials to identify the object.

The new supercomputer was part of a $10 million system upgrade, IBM said.

[End quoting]

Wouldn’t you like to know what that computer is REALLY being used for?!

Now, for you readers who would like to digest some intriguing documentation, let me just mention a few gems from recently “declassified” files.

These documents, and many more like them, appear for your study on the www.majesticdocuments.com website. They also offer some books and a CD, titled The Secret. You may phone them directly at 650-368-5026, or write to: P. O. Box 2272, Redwood City, CA 94064.

“Declassified” Quotes

In one document from the White House, dated February 22, 1944, and marked “Double Top Secret”, titled Memorandum For The Special Committee On Non-Terrestrial Science And Technology, we read Franklin D. Roosevelt’s following statement(s):

“It is my personal judgment that, when the war is won, and peace is once again retored, there will come a time when surplus funds may be available to pursue a program devoted to understanding non-terrestrial science and its technology which is still greatly undiscovered.

“I appreciate the effort and time spent in producing valuable insights into the proposal to find ways of advancing our technology and national progress and in coming to grips with the reality that our planet is not the only one harboring intelligent life in the universe.”

And for those of you looking for more documentation about the Jesuits, here is a quote from a memo dated June 30, 1947, from General Eisenhower to Col. K. W. Ireland, in which Eisenhower orders Col. Ireland to take good care of Archbishop Francis J. Spellman on his tour through New Mexico. The memo states:

“By personal direction of the President of the United States, Archbishop Francis J. Spellman in his capacity as Military Vicar of the Armed Forces of the Army, Army Air Forces, and the Navy, is making a tour of military bases in New Mexico, afterwards is making a trip over the routes of the Air Transport Command.” [Remember Roswell?] This trip was “classified”.

Here is a rather interesting document from the White House, dated June 28, 1961, labeled “Top Secret”. National Security Memorandum, from President John F. Kennedy to the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Subject: Review of MJ-12, Intelligence Operations as they relate to Cold War Psychological Warfare Plans. The entire memo reads:

“I would like a brief summary from you at your earliest convenience.”

This is a request about the activities of a committee (MJ-12) the reality of which has long been officially denied.

There is an extremely interesting nine-page “burned” memo, stamped TOP SECRET/MJ-12. Unlike many of the Majestic documents, this one is an original carbon with an Eagle watermark characteristic of government work. The memo is from the Director of Central Intelligence (MJ-1) to MJ-2, MJ-3...MJ-7, in reference to Project MAJESTIC and JEHOVAH, Project EVIRO, Project PARASITE, and Project PARHELION. Although no date is given, its content suggests the month of September. The year is estimated to be in the early 1960s and is still under investigation.

Of note is the statement, “As you must know, LANCER [code word for JFK] has made some inquiries regarding our activities which we cannot allow.”

Also of interest is an NSA intercept, dated 12 November

1963, “Top Secret UMBRA”. This is apparently a modern retyped NSA intercept of JFK’s “hot line” talking to the Premiere about the UFO problem and its collective national security importance for each country. Statements made about NASA dovetail with other known authentic National Security Action Memorandums (NSAMs). Here is what the intercept says:

“Mr. Premiere a situation has developed that affects both our countries and the world and I feel it necessary to convey to you a problem that we share in common.”

“Mr. President, I agree.”

“As you must appreciate the tension between our two great nations has often brought us to the brink of showmanship with all the tapestry of a Greek comedy and our impasse last year was foolish and deadly. The division that separates us is through misunderstanding, politics, and cultural differences. But we have one thing in common which I would like to address to your working group on the UFO problem.”

“Yes, yes. I agree with your assessment. We nearly tied the knot that divides us permanently. Our working group believes the same way as yours. The UFO problem presents grave dangers to our countries and to the whole world. If we allow suspicions and miscalculations to force our military defense systems to react to this problem, God will never forgive us.”

“Then you agree, Mr. Premiere, that we should co-operate together on this issue?”

“Yes, Mr. President.”

“Mr. Premiere, I have begun an initiate with our NASA to exchange information with your Academy of Sciences in which I hope will foster mutual concern over this problem and hopefully find some resolution. I have also instructed our CIA to provide me with full disclosure on the phantom aspects and classified programs in which I can better assess the situation. Can you persuade your KGB to do likewise.”

“Mr. President, I cannot guarantee full co-operation in this area but I owe it to future history and the security of our planet to try. As you must know, I have been somewhat limited in my official capacity as Party Chairman to order such co-operation in this area. We too feel that the UFO is a matter of highest importance to our collective security. If I can arrange for a secret meeting between our working groups at a secret location, and at a time designated by you, I feel that this much on my part can happen.”

“Mr. Premiere, if a meeting at this level can convene it will be an important first step. It will lead to more dialog and trust between our countries and reduce the ever present threat of nuclear war.”

“Yes, Mr. President it will.”

“Then we are in agreement.”

“Yes.”

Particularly the parts emphasized in bold above suggest that neither head of state was sure about having the power to deal with the secret government “higher” than them that was REALLY in control of such matters. And, of course, we all know what happened to an uppity JFK—asking too many questions and demanding too many answers about secret projects—within a few weeks after this conversation!

In another very interesting document, labeled “Top Secret” and “Sensitive”, written by none other than Allen W. Dulles, dated 5 November 1961, we read, in part:

“Basis for Action. Earlier studies indicated that Americans perceived UFO sightings as the work of Soviet propaganda designed to convince U.S. intelligence of their technical superiority and to spread distrust of the government. CIA conducted three reviews of the situation utilizing all available information and concluded that 80% of the sighting reports investigated by the Air Force’s Project Blue Book were explainable and posed no immediate threat to national security. The remaining cases have been classified for security reasons and are under review. While the possibility remains that true UFO cases are of non-terrestrial origin, U.S. intelligence is of the opinion that they do not constitute a physical threat to national defense. For reasons of security, I cannot divulge pertinent data on some of the more sensitive aspects of MJ-12 activities which have been deemed properly classified under the 1954 Atomic Energy Act of 1954.”

Now, for a much different perspective on this entire matter from a well know “psychic channeller” and author, Sheldan Nidle. You will notice some similarities between this message and some of the points made by Phillip Krapf,

Photo courtesy of United Light Publishing

ROBERT PERALA—Author of THE DIVINE BLUEPRINT: Roadmap For The New Millennium. Are you prepared to experience the most exciting events scheduled for planet Earth? We are embarking on an awesome journey as we enter the New Millennium. Travel with Robert around the world and discover the mysteries of our origins and what lies ahead for humanity. It is time for us to remember who we are and to follow our Divine Plan.

After being abducted by extraterrestrials in 1977, Robert devoted the rest of his life to understanding that experience. In doing so, of course, he had many more experiences, just as fascinating. His quest has taken him over all the world, including expeditions to Egypt and England.

In 1992, Robert was approached by Pleiadian emissaries and asked to be a messenger to humanity. The message: that remarkable shifts are already happening on this planet, and will continue to happen as we enter the new millennium and approach the Biblical “end-times”. The Pleiadians were also explicit about what we can and must do to prepare for the changes.

Today, Robert uses every means at his disposal to get the message out. He is the founder of United Light Publishing and is a sought-after guest on TV and radio. Robert is the host of the popular TV show Space Cities on KMTV Channel 6 in Mt. View, CA; he is also the host of his own radio show, United Light Radio, on KEST 1450 AM in San Francisco. In honor of Robert’s contribution to society, The American Biographical Institute bestowed on him their prestigious Distinguished Leadership Award. Robert travels worldwide, lecturing on his experiences and what’s ahead for humanity as we enter the new millennium.

THE DIVINE BLUEPRINT: Roadmap For The New Millennium is the next logical outlet for this cosmic messenger and his enthralling message.

with regard to need for, and the complexities of, human diplomacy.

Sheldan Nidle has received and written a lot of information, and I have merely chosen to quote one small portion of one writing.

Sheldan Nidle is the author of two recent books: Your First Contact and Salamat Ja! He is also the co-author of a book titled You Are Becoming A Galactic Human. (These books are available through Sheldan Nidle, c/o PAO, P.O. Box 880151, Pukalani, Maui, HI 96788. To order, call 808-573-2867 or visit the www.paoweb.com website.

The following is an excerpt from a statement “received” by Sheldan Nidle, dated October 10, 2001. To the best of my knowledge, there is not a connection here to the Verdants’ contact, although I’m not able to make that statement absolutely:

[Quoting]

The Spiritual Hierarchy
And The Galactic Federation

On your world, diplomacy requires a great deal of patience, keen appraisal of your opponents across the table, and a flexible strategy for success. Frequently, it is regulated by the strange variables that generally surround your covert rulers. It requires strong focus and the willingness to come from a place of Love.

Our liaison works by forging the necessary elements for harmony and cooperation, a process that your covert rulers are coming, more and more, to understand. This first contact mission is making possible a transition from your present reality to a true galactic society. It means that we are negotiating with the full supervision of Heaven. It has taken nearly a decade and brought us to the brink of much-desired success. It has also allowed us to experience your world and gain more thorough insight about the dark.

Clearly, we have altered some of the main thrusts of this mission. However, one major element remains non-negotiable—your swift move into full consciousness and a new, prosperous reality. For this reason, we have increased our recent levels of cooperation with our Earthly allies. Global tyranny in any form is detrimental to your growth as gracious, loving, and sovereign individuals. It is crucial that you be officially informed of our existence and our benevolence. This is one of the conditions we are quickly working toward. Moreover, the militarization of “Space” is not an option for your cabals, nor will we tolerate the use of tactical nuclear weapons in any environment on, above, or below the surface of your world. As we have stressed to all who secretly rule you, insane actions such as these are not an alternative.

Our purpose is to oversee, with Heaven’s divine guidance, your transformation from limited- to full-consciousness Beings.

[End quoting]

It would appear that the planetary transition now well underway is very thoroughly under a level of control that allows little “wiggle room” for those who have been the secret elite controllers of this planet for so many thousands of years. One aspect of that planetary transition is the awakening of the public to their true place in a populated Universe.

Let’s shift the discussion now to a gracious gentleman, Robert Perala, who wrote, in 1998, The Divine Blueprint: Roadmap For The New Millennium. (Published by United Light Publishing, P. O. Box 112467, Campbell, CA 95011. To order, call 408-370-1991, or visit the www.unitedlight.com website.) Robert Perala’s new book, to be released within the next several months, is titled: The Divine Architect—The Art Of Living And Beyond.

On the back cover of The Divine Blueprint, we read the following review appearing in

NAPRA:

“Life is a mystery school in which we discover the Divine Blueprint, the ancient memories which lie deep within each of us and are now being awakened as we approach the Earth’s ascension. Perala and Stubbs make a great storytelling team, and Perala’s experiences roll-out, one after another, in sparkling detail. From his abduction in 1977 by “angels in spacesuits”, to his gut-wrenching but illuminating visit to Egypt, the lively writing makes this a real page-turner. One of the best of its kind, this is a book for those New Age “pathfinders” who are preparing the Earth for its anticipated ascension.”

Another gifted author, Dannion Brinkley, author of Saved By The Light, comments:

“There are many blueprints in the world, but his blueprint is special. Whether you’re into UFOs, spirituality, or personal growth, this blueprint has got it all. It’s a fantastic book. Get it!”

Robert Perala has often been compared with the little boy in the captivating movie The Sixth Sense. He has been “visited” by apparitions for most of his life. These visitations by semi-transparent men and women have taught him various Laws of Creation and what lies on the other side.

After a bit of juggling, Robert Perala and I finally coordinated some time to have an unhurried telephone conversation. That event took place on September 24, 2001.

Interview With Robert Perala

Martin: Before we get to your book, it seems like people are just in shock, doesn’t it? They’re just walking around dazed from this whole 9/11 catastrophe.

Perala: They really are. There is a tremendous release when a shift in consciousness happens like this. When a change like that happens, such as the bombing in New York. It will cause a vast shift in the consciousness where we’ll all be challenged to look at our levels of tolerance, our levels of compassion, our levels of forgiveness, and our emotional bodies will be heavily challenged.

Martin: Absolutely. The Spiritual Hierarchy has said for years that the separation of Light versus Dark will accelerate as we continue up this increase in frequency, and those who mean evil, and do evil, will become more readily apparent.

And it seems like we have seen the best and the worst in the last couple of weeks.

Perala: Yes, it’s really true. It’s an interesting phenomenon on the planet.

You’ll notice that the Earth changes have a lot to do with the public’s emotional bodies, in the sense that, never before have we seen so many records broken with solar flares.

Now we know that solar flares have a direct impact on the lymph glands of our systems, and on our emotional systems. They can actually trace and watch the crime rate raise, significantly, at the point that we have massive solar flares.

You have to ask yourself why it is that, in all the ancient cultures, such as the Vedas, in the Sanskrit, the Gita, certainly in the Egyptian mystery schools, and a number of the other mystery schools, they all revered the Sun.

And you’d have to ask yourself: Why would that be so important to them? Unless they knew that the Sun was an intrinsic part of our own experience, and revered that.

It’s actually a lost technology, and only now are scientists recovering it and saying, “Gee, maybe the Sun has a lot more to do with our experience here than we realize.” It’s not just providing light and energy, but actually is an intrinsic part of our own life-force here, and affects us on a mental plane, emotional plane, etc.

As you know, I am a little bit of an unusual case in that a lot of my esoteric teaching has not only come from 24 years of research into all of the esoterics, metaphysics, etc., but also has been prodded by my nighttime visitations. These visitations that I’ve had, have been going on, pretty much, since I was about 5 years old. And at 7 years old we started to track it, because we didn’t know what it was, at the time. I came downstairs when I was very young and told my mother that I had people in my room at nighttime.

And these people would appear, actually, at a point where I was largely in the hypnogogic state—that’s that little window between when you’re semi-awake and falling asleep. It happens, very largely, when you’re falling asleep, like when you’re going to bed, and when you’re going from awake to falling asleep, and then back again, from when you’re asleep and becoming awake.

And inevitably what happens is—that would happen, also, in the middle of the night—and I would wake-up in the middle of the night and be in this sort-of semi-awake state and hear people talking. And then I would become a little more awake, and even open my eyes and actually be able to see them standing there, many times talking amongst themselves; and then, sometimes, speaking to me.

These are men and women who look like you and I, who have benefited, perhaps, from greater time and greater knowledge, and/or had lived here on the Earth, and had simply just run out of time, as we all do, and had run their life course and the body had fallen away in the natural course, and they find that they are still here.

For a long time it would just be that I was a witness to the phenomenon. And I told my mother about it, and they took me to a number of doctors. They did all kinds of things, from EKG scans—

Martin: [Laughter]

Perala: —and taping my head with wires, and everything. They wanted to see whether something was really wrong with me, or perhaps these were hallucinations. This was 1966, remember, when metaphysics was, literally, taboo.

They found that, for some reason, my sight and my hearing in this state, in the middle of the night, was much more active than the average person’s.

Martin: This was in the San Francisco Bay Area?

Perala: This was all in the Bay Area, yes.

As years would go by, we started to research it more and more, and that’s how I got to 1999. I did roughly 180 radio shows where they were comparing me, largely, to the young boy in the picture The Sixth Sense, because I “saw dead people”.

But, in fact, they were very, very much alive. Not only were they alive, but I was actually sharing in my talks across the country, what this phenomenon is—who and what these beings are. Most of them are largely from here. Just because we die doesn’t mean you’re exempt from the things that you’ve created.

And, in many ways, you would go to what would almost be a panoramic life-review, almost instantaneously, after you leave here.

And then, largely, you might come back for awhile and see things through, things that you’ve created, such as your children. You might give divine inspiration to them, and you'll check-in on them from time to time. I was just seeing discarnate beings that largely were just right on the immediate 4th-dimensional plane.

You also have other people coming from other realities visiting here, continually. These are also men and women, because men and women, human-like forms, in this form like what we have here, is flourishing throughout many, many, many other spheres, many other realities.

And they come here to look at what's going on here. This is a tremendous learning ground. This is kind-of the "center of attention", you might say, almost, over here—in that as we grow, they grow.

And they look at free will. And they look at choice. And they look at an evolutionary process like this, which is, at this particular juncture in history and in time, with an Old World meeting a New World. And we see this happening between the West and the Islamic Republic, in the aspect of the Middle East. They are looking really closely at how this goes forward. Because in this 13-year window, which most ancient texts, in one form or another, basically are saying the same thing.

It's this 13-year window between 2000 and 2013, as the planet itself is being prepared to be birthed into the Big Picture—because consciously, we're at a very interesting point, where many of us are ready to be ushered into a larger expression.

We're either going to go forward, or the process will come to an abrupt halt, which, I don't think it really will. I think we'll see an intervention before it gets really, really, really, serious. That's not to mean that we'll "be saved", but that we will see, kind-of, the best and worst in times, as the frequency rises. You'll see this conflict we have now, currently, escalate. And then, you'll also see wondrous things happen, too.

There will be, finally, I believe, an arrival of a more succinct relationship with those on the other side, such as the Angelics—the Seraphim, the Cherubim, the Elohim. There's many other factors. That's where we're at now.

So, really, we are in the single greatest time in the course of human history, at this juncture.

Martin: That's right, pretty exciting.

Perala: You bet! To be able to receive information from the other side is the time that we're in.

The funny thing about the frequency on this planet is, as it rises, it does seem to affect the pineal gland, that center itself. The mystics had all pointed to this time; they say it in various ways: "the light of the world" or "we'll be illumined", etc.

There are a number of ways of saying it, like: "Man will walk amongst the angels, again."

So I think a lot of people, who will be waking-up at this time, are slowly starting to come into their true nature and will know, exactly, a little more about what's going on, while the others won't have a clue, and they will deny that anything has happened.

So it will be a very funny time to live in.

Martin: Let's keep talking about your contacts, because the article that I'm writing is specifically on ET contacts. It started out as a narrow story, but has branched-out into what will be a several-part story, at least. Basically, it will be a "where are we?" with this whole intergalactic contact issue.

So, with that in mind, let's talk about The Divine Blueprint, very specifically, in terms of:

- Why do you think we're being contacted by ETs?
- Who are they?
- What is their purpose?
- Are they benevolent?

There's a lot of paranoid energy out there, particularly among certain Christian groups, saying the ETs are "fallen angels" or "they're satanic". There's a real fear.

The chains of dogma will really hold people back, in the days and months and years ahead, in terms of being able to grow and change and fluidly move with what this planet is about to go through. There will be many who will be left not knowing what is happening, while others are really waking up. It's tragic, but that's just the way it is.

Perala: Consciously, I think we're at that division point of where there is separation, and definition, and choice being made.

There are many souls on the planet who, consciously, are not connected to their spirit, or committed to their spiritual growth. And they're stuck here, being side-tracked by materialism. We know this already.

While others are very committed to spiritual growth.

But I think it's because the energies coming into the planet now, those that are making a commitment to work on their spirit, and further their own evolution and make a deep commitment to that, are tremendously supported.

It's not that the others aren't supported, it's just that, like in Nature, you'll always be more supported if you, too, are doing your homework. And an awful lot of people aren't doing their homework.

Martin: Getting back to the Christian/Protestant issue, I don't want to hammer it too hard—so many of the Protestant Christians, who really believe that they are doing God's Will, as strictly defined by the Bible, are going to be in the same state of shock as people are now over the attack on New York, when the ETs actually start interacting with us.

They're not going to know how to handle it, if they have this narrow view that ETs are all evil.

Perala: Right. Well, that's the Old World meeting the New World. Again, where the Old World has so much more fear in it, in that they want to cling onto what they've been told, and their belief systems can't stretch that far.

And so, there's an intrinsic part of us that wants to feel safe, and to feel secure. We are all seeking stability.

We are all seeking a sense of stableness, continuity, where we don't like our lives disrupted too much. And the idea of another culture merging with us—consciously, a lot of people just aren't ready for that; while others are actually pulling on it, and want that deeper connection, and are more ready for that deeper connection. I think that's why they tend to see more, and take advantage of what's going on out here.

It goes without saying that where you put your intention, at this time, especially with the frequencies rising, there you will have a greater chance at meeting things.

It's just like Nature. It's as though, consciously, you were watering fertilized soil versus soil that is dead. And how well committed you are to that is how fast you're going to grow. I think you can see a lot of examples of spiritual growth right in Nature itself, right in plants and trees.

Martin: It's like you say, intent is everything, at this point.

Perala: Yes, intent is everything. And there are a lot of things that are thwarting the intention, too. The biggest common denominator is fear. It's thwarting a lot of the intention here.

Fear of the unknown is the big one.

Subconsciously, the conservative aspect, like the different religious communities—I don't have to pick on any certain one—but the religious communities have an awful lot of fear, and also haven't embraced a very important thing.

And this is an important pay-off for your readers, and that is: Are we willing to be able to look into the mirror and say: "Perhaps most of what we know is wrong."

And that's ok, because once we do, we allow room for the other concepts to make their way in.

And a lot of people aren't allowing themselves to admit that maybe there's much more to the story, and maybe a lot of what we know is wrong. A lot of people don't want to take responsibility for their own consciousness. They want to take the soft way out and say: "But the prophet 2,000 years ago said 'It's this way...'"

So, therefore, they want to give their power to somebody who wrote down something 2,000 years ago. And the translation has been—I mean, if they knew the real story, that the translation itself has been tampered with so many times, they may be willing to open-up a little bit more and say: "Well, so, alright, there's been corruption all the way through."

But there are many who are clinging very, very tightly to that—and God bless them—it's just the way things are here.

Martin: Well, and of course, he taught personal responsibility. You are responsible, and the Kingdom is within you. His message was clear, it's just that it has gotten so misinterpreted in so many ways, and that is tragic. But we're in a time when that, too, will be clarified.

Perala: Belief systems are a real powerful thing on our planet. Whether it's coming from the research that I've done, which has been a long time now in psychology, and other things like the Robbins Research Institute, and stuff like that, or it's coming from my own integrated relationship with my visitors at night-time—who are nicknamed, actually, extraterrestrial emissaries.

Martin: Well, that's accurate.

Perala: Yes, exactly. These beings on the other side have a message for most of humanity, and it's pretty general. It's spread out in many ways. This is a story of personal growth.

A lot of the teachings that are going on, or what they have actually asked me to teach now, are things like emotional mastery and relationship mastery.

Recently, out loud, actually, I was taking a catnap in the afternoon and I was listening to this voice say: "We'd like you to share more concepts in emotional mastery." Meaning that the most important thing that we can do, at this time, is to manage the state of our emotions—in good times, but certainly in bad times, or in challenging, negative times. The ability to manage the state of our emotions will be critical, at this point, as to how we move forward in our relationships with each other, as well as how well we hear those messages coming from the other planes.

[Editor's note: Do the very important points he just made above sound familiar to you longtime readers? These, and others made below, are the same significant themes as are woven through so many of the spiritual messages shared within these pages, for many years now, from various Master Teachers, Wayshowers, and Guides from the Higher Realms. In other words, Truth is Truth, no matter from where it comes!]

And so, largely, I've called my visitors "the original personal growth architects".

Martin: Well, that's true.

Perala: We're in an evolutionary process here. And the process is going on every day. And they are looking at how each soul is progressing. No soul is missed. No one is operating autonomously here. Every eye-blink, every thought-form, every little movement has not been missed; it has, actually, been recorded, in some way, or observed, in some way.

And there is a great graduation that is starting to take place here, where many souls will graduate to a higher plane, and be more connected to the Spiritual Hierarchy operating down here, again, while the others will simply deny that anything has happened.

And so, the whole goal here, of the ascension process, if you want to call it that, which it basically is, they're getting ready to birth Earth into a larger expression—on a spiritual plane, on a mental plane, and on an emotional plane. And that's the general goal here.

And at the same time, there's this huge conflict going on between us and this conflict that we have now. That will have to be mastered, continually, also.

Martin: The ones who you're interacting with currently, are they specifically Pleiadians, Sirians?

Perala: Yes. There are a number of them who are coming out of the Pleiades [star system]. The Pleiadians are a very important part of our experience here. They, actually, have been responsible for a lot of the seeding of the DNA on this planet. And in doing so, they have sort-of been nurturing their garden all along.

It's interesting that, even in the Bible, it makes reference to "you are descendants of the House of Pleiades, the House of Sirius, and the House of Lyra."

And I asked a conservative minister what he thought that might mean, and he told me: "Well, I think that was a place near Damascus, at the time."

Martin: [Laughter] That's great!

Perala: I said: "I think they're talking about a declaration on the stars. I think that they're trying to tell us that there is a portion of our beingness that is rooted in these other aspects, these other spheres."

And that was very hard for him to go that far. And he thought that I was drawing conclusions.

But I think the evidence is there, because when you see, historically, there are "routes" to Sirius all over Egypt, where they revere Sirius, all over the various aspects, especially at the Pyramids of Giza.

And then there are routes to the Pleiades all over astrology, the oldest mathematical science of all.

And my visitors are men and women, some are coming from the Pleiades. They don't necessarily always reveal themselves or their names. Some of that, for some mystical people, that's a very dangerous thing in some ways, to reveal the exact origin, the exact name, because our consciousness isn't developed enough. We often want to embellish on what it is, who they are, where they come from. And our ego wants to settle it very quickly. It wants to know: Where do they come from? What is your name, so I can feel safe.

Martin: Who do you serve?

Perala: Right, exactly: Who do you serve?

When, in actual fact, many who are coming out of the Pleiades have told me, on the “inner” channel, that our consciousness doesn’t have the scope to go there, exactly, yet. It’s beyond the scope of our consciousness, a little bit, to understand how and what this is.

Just, please, accept that they are here, flourishing the good, and that we’re all connected to them in an evolutionary process. And they want to see us graduate.

At the same time, there are other beings, the Sirians, who are here, and have been here all along. They established life here, physically, throughout all of the area of Egypt, and also spreading throughout the world, for that matter, in other portions. And remnants of that are all still here.

We had the Orions, who were here at one point, and these may have also looked like a portion of an animal. You can see this on walls, in some of the temples there, in places like Dendara and Aswan. It’s all over Egypt.

So there’s no question in my mind that we’re a part of this; it’s just how much of this is a part of us which remains to be seen.

Martin: I think one thing that is a real dangerous thing that happens with people looking at the whole ET issue is that they lump the Orions and the Greys and the government’s manufactured clones in with the Pleiadians and the Sirians and other benevolent beings, as though they are all the same. And they are NOT the same, by any means! They are as different as night and day, literally.

Perala: Sure, sure they are, very different cultures. But we all share a portion of the DNA, because we’re part of a vast network. We’re not an isolated experience happening autonomously out here in this section of the Galaxy. We’re actually a shared experience, by hundreds of millions of other beings. And that’s a little bit how it works.

I don’t like to be sounding like I’m an absolute authority. I have bits and pieces like, I guess, you do, and other people do.

Our contacts are just a little more succinct. I’ve heard [archangel] Gabriel speak to me out loud. And, really, I guess I realized for the most part that it was Gabriel. He spoke to me out loud.

I had heard the voice at about 7:00 a.m. in the morning, because somebody was talking to me out loud. You know how that kind-of wakes you up.

I’m starting to come awake and I said, “Who is this?”

And a voice just came BOOMING out, just as clear as a bell, and said “This is Gabriel.”

Just as clear as a bell, it popped my eyes open.

Martin: That’s enough to get your attention!

Perala: Yeah!

Martin: What we’re talking about just doesn’t seem far-out to me, at all. It’s just an accepted part of my reality. But I know a lot of people out there think this is just crazy.

Perala: Waaaaaay out!

Martin: And it just isn’t. It is so on-point. It’s simply the way it is.

Perala: Yep.

Martin: And yet, there are those who will read this article and say: “Oh, my God, Rick has gone completely off the deep end. This is completely nuts.”

In The Divine Blueprint, which is just an amazing compilation of different things, you bring them all in. It’s really an interesting combination that you’ve done.

Perala: It sells really well, actually. We sell this book every week, and have since the end of 1998. I think it’s a nice layman’s book.

Martin: Yes, it is.

Perala: Sort-of a “best of” book.

Martin: It’s not threatening.

Perala: And it’s fun. It’s even humorous.

Martin: I mean, when you had the experience in Tahoe, and you went into a church to get clarity, and they started doing an exorcism on you—I was crying, I was laughing so hard.

Perala: Yes.

Martin: Isn’t that the way it WOULD be, too?!

Perala: You know, the funny part is, 20 years have passed and that same church, now, is the Self Realization Fellowship for the Yogananda group. They preach all kinds of things, like that we’ve lived many times.

[Laughter]

So, I guess we won, in the end!

Martin: I thought it was really interesting that the implant that you had was “etheric”. I’ve heard a lot about that, in recent years, that many people think they have implants and, in fact, they are on the etheric plane. They’re physical, but they’re not in the physical, if that makes sense.

I was glad to read that, because that is good confirmation of other things that I’ve come across.

Perala: We are electromagnetic beings. And the best way to work is in terms of energies. I started to research this myself to see “What is all this about, this implant business?”

Because there are so many people in the tabloids, all over. You wonder “How is it that so many thousands of people can say, ‘I was abducted by an alien, and they implanted me.’” How can this be?

Well, I work with 3 different institutes, as a researcher. There’s one in Jacksonville, Florida; there’s another one in Oregon; and there’s actually one right here, in the Bay Area. These are people who do NET—neural emotional technique. They also do a lot of kinesiology, muscle testing. They’ve developed this to a craft that’s very, very good.

They kept finding that some of the disturbances that people had in their energy field weren’t only just from abuse factors, or some experience that disturbed them out here on the physical plane, but actually were the result of a relationship that they had encountered while asleep.

While looking at the abduction phenomenon, we’ve estimated that about 65% of the abductions are out-of-body experiences, where we experience it “out of body”, on the etheric plane.

About 30% are unconfirmed, or unsubstantiated.

And about 8-10% report it to be the actual, real, physical “encounter”.

This happens in a number of different ways, from the unsuspecting guy going down the highway, and suddenly there’s this tremendous bright light, and he encounters either a craft or a being of some sort, to the beings appearing physically, within the room.

Now, this is another phenomenon that’s worth mentioning. Extraterrestrials seem to materialize and dematerialize at will, in that they actually materialize in the room, much like we see on television, on Star Trek, when they beam down somewhere. They actually materialize from the etheric plane, right onto the physical plane. And I’ve been looking at some of these cases.

And in all of these interactions with extraterrestrials, there seems to be a game or a science of “tagging” the people. This is much like what we do in Nature, where we would tag an animal, watch it go through it’s habitat, and we can monitor it and follow it. And in this case, it is much more sophisticated where the implant will give them information, that they can take back, on the person’s emotional system, on the person’s thoughtforms, belief systems, etc.

So the implant is just a direct mechanism by which they can monitor the evolutionary process. There are actually millions of people who are implanted. And they find these actually imbedded in the “light body”, as a little polyp, or an aberration in the light body.

And some of these implants are very, very helpful, and can help the person—largely emotionally, mentally, thoughtform wise, etc.

Others will take away, such as, there is negative implant programming going on. And you can see this resulting in the counter culture. And then, there’re the cults. You also see it in the punk movement, the kids wearing the white face, who seem to have been “checked-out”. There’s a lot of programming in some of these, such as the “I want to die” program or “I don’t want to be here” program or “I hate the government” programs, etc.

And so, we see some implants actually hindering. This is where some of these programs can actually leave them fragmented, even, and allow negative entities to enter. Thus, we get things like Columbine, and some of these kids with very, very strange ideas.

So, not all implants are good. Some of them have been placed in the field and are very poor.

Martin: And there’s also—I did a story with Dr. Ann Blake Tracy some months ago. She has written the book Prozac: Panacea Or Pandora?

Many of these young people who are acting-out in extremely violent ways are on either Prozac or one of the derivatives thereof. And the side effects of some of these mood-altering medications also bring about tremendously violent behavior, and that, combined with an already unstable emotional system, is just a prescription for disaster.

Perala: It also tends to fragment the energy field. Some of these drugs, where the field of the person, the person’s own vitality, their energetic field, is compromised, and so it will cause a distortion or an aberration in the field itself, and thus allow a negative entity, or something, to enter from the astral plane. Then they get real poor results.

And, ironically enough, the doctor looks at that and says, “Gee, hmmm, maybe we’d better UP the dosage.” You know?!

Martin: Medical doctors are just not trained in these kinds of things.

Perala: Very true. A lot of possession comes from this.

You know, I work with these institutes. One particular institute, from Oregon, came to see me at the Whole Life Expo, about 3 years ago, in San Francisco, and they said: “Well, we came to see you because of something you said in your book. It’s the part about alien possession. That possession is not just demonic, as has been historically portrayed, but in fact is an extraterrestrial dark entity. And this is why—and people don’t like to hear this in some of these metaphysical circles—but I am vehemently against getting too much attachment, fascination, almost addiction and idol worship, towards these little Grey-green beings. It’s ok to look at the science maturely, and to examine the science. But do you notice that some people become addicted to it? In other words, they have the alien T-shirt, the alien bumper-sticker, the alien key-chain, you know? Alien hat, everything alien, and they read all the alien books.

Martin: It’s like “Get a life.”

Perala: Yes, exactly, and they don’t have a life. Many of them would come up to me at some city that I was speaking in and they would be wearing the typical black T-shirt, with some Grey on there who says “Take me to your leader” or whatever.

And the signs that they have alien possession are the following:

- They have child-like behavior.
- They’re very often emotionally retarded, on various levels.
- They have compulsive obsession with anything to do with aliens, abductions—an intense interest in any abduction story.
- They don’t seem to relate to people all that well.
- They have sexual addictions, because a lot of the ET addiction will attack the second chakra. Therefore, they have aberrations in their sexual interest and behavior that result in real perversions.

There’s a case that I’m working on right now where the person simply can’t hardly contain himself, and embarrasses himself publicly because he can’t control his physical movements. I guess you know what I mean. And it’s spreading.

- There’s a very child-like behavior that it puts them in.
- They’re very often unemployed.
- They very often cannot relate to society in the way

UFOs, ETs, near-death experiences, alien abductions, mystical people, magical phenomena, angelic visitations, life after death, secrets of the pyramids, and extraterrestrial wisdom—this is the life of author and broadcaster, Robert Perala. Join him and relive the amazing experiences of the man appointed by the Pleiadians as a messenger to humanity. Share in their teachings, and through Robert, meet the “movers and shakers” of the New Age movement. The book includes teachings from Dannion Brinkley, Betty Eadie, Randolph Winters, Drunvalo Melchizedek, and Gregg Braden. We are embarking on an awesome journey as we enter the new millennium. Don’t leave home without your roadmap!

$14.95 (+S/H)

To order call United Light Publishing at: 1-800-929-7889
Or go online at: www.unitedlight.com that a healthy person could.

- They almost always hate anything governmental or structure-wise.
- They have an intense negative reaction to anything that is “authority”, good or bad.
- They have sleep disorder.
- They have agitation constantly, emotionally; you can see the “glassy eyes”, you can see the twitch in the head, twitching in the hands, where their nervous system is fragmented.

They’re just getting very, very poor results. The vitality level is very, very challenged. You can see that they have this very bad.

The “possession” that has been historical with all of these symptoms, such as the glassy eyes, the twitching in the head, the poor vitality and physiology, the nervous system being severely challenged, the child-like behavior, is also largely associated with the resulting of possession by these little Grey-green-styled entities.

Now, these Grey-green-styled entities are not just some being that is coming here in a spaceship and taking soil samples. In fact, they are interdimensional creatures who can appear, disappear, at will, as well as be as small as just above what a large atom would be. And they would imbed themselves into the person’s field, actually, like a parasite.

Historically, maybe the prophets in ancient times interpreted these as “devils”, whereas they were, actually, an ET entity, coming from another star system, another dimension, and attaching itself to a human in the form of a parasite.

And so the prophet would say “These are the devils” that the Bible talks about, when, in fact, they are referring to an extraterrestrial negative entity.

It goes without saying that if you translate the word extraterrestrial, extra meaning beyond, and terrestrial meaning terrain, which means that we’re studying everything that is beyond the terrain of our own five senses.

And so, therefore, we’re on a whole new playing field, where almost anything is possible.

So these negative entities are, largely, I believe, an extraterrestrial contingent here that lives off some of the population, and would like to see the evolutionary process of this planet slowed down, because they still have a stake in this whole process. And as souls graduate from this process they, eventually, more and more, move away from what would be considered, really, their feeding-ground. And so we do have, kind-of, a little bit of an interdimensional struggle going on here for autonomy.

And that’s why I’m a real big proponent on physical exercise, proper diet, meditation, correct breathing, and making a huge commitment to yourself. Because when we’re not taking responsibility, the more we don’t take responsibility, the more we open ourselves up for somebody else to share our space and our experience. That’s why we’re seeing so many people “checked-out”, completely, because they’re not doing their homework; they’re not looking at their life as something that is absolutely vital to flourish and to grow, knowing that they are graduating into something great.

The consciousness here is very low, but still an awful lot of people think that we just live, and we die, and that’s it; there’s nothing afterward—when, in fact, this is a whole process of reaching a graduation to the next stage.

Martin: I noticed that you mention Sheldan Nidle in your book. I’ve been reading his website for some time, now. His messages are very positive, and very encouraging, and nurturing in nature.

Perala: I’ve known him for years.

Martin: It seems to me that many of the messages that come through from either the Pleiadians or the Arcturians or the Sirians are extremely encouraging, and hopeful, and empowering for people’s growth. For ones to be so fearful about even looking at that information is, I think, really unfortunate, because there is a lot of very positive information out there from these sources.

Granted, one has to be incredibly discerning, because there is a lot of bunk out there. There is some very poorly channeled material out there; people who have not been rigorous in clearing their space and really hearing what is being said, and presenting it as it is being said.

But that said, there is so much positive that is being offered by these Elder Brothers and Sisters, these Higher Dimensional Beings. And I know I’m singing to the choir here.

Why is the 26,000-year cycle so important?

Perala: Several researchers in the Earth sciences have come to the conclusion that the Earth must have flipped it’s axis several times. We see warm water currents in Antarctica, palm trees, etc. We see remnants that maybe the South Pole was the North Pole, and the North Pole was the South Pole, at one point.

When I asked my Pleiadian guides: “What is this about the Earth flipping it’s axis?”

They said this was a process by which the Earth changes its axis, roughly about every 26,000 years. It’s not exact. It’s based on the precession of the equinoxes, and it’s based on a cyclic aspect, where the Earth makes a rotation through a sector of the Galaxy, or this Universe, about every 26,000 years, and the Earth is made new at each such point, and another seeding process begins.

And that seeding process will spawn another form of life. It’s almost a recycle aspect.

The next question then was: “Is there such a real thing as the Photon Belt?”

Because it seems to be based on the fact that the Earth enters into the Photon Belt, where the mystics have been saying, and people who receive channeled material say, Earth goes into the Photon Belt every 26,000 years.

My guides said “That’s kind-of it.” That the Earth, actually, is in the Photon Belt now, what would be considered the Photon Belt. But the Photon Belt itself is not an understood thing. It’s not necessarily a cosmological energy that we can understand.

It’s interesting that the prophets have talked about this in the Bible, at the end of this particular process—or what they would call in Revelation, the ending of this time. The scientists might call it the end of this process, what-have-you, that the Earth reaches the outer lip of the Photon Belt. And because of its effects, the Sun may be blotted-out as we go through the outer lip of the Photon Belt.

You’re familiar with all this, right?

Martin: Sure.

Perala: At one point there is a change in the paradigm where the Spiritual Hierarchy actually returns and becomes more evident. Well, many believe that we must be in this energy, they call the Photon Belt, at this time.

- There is a vast increase of paranormal activity all over that’s documented.

- There is a vast increase of UFO activity.

The frequency does seem to be rising around the planet, as if we are entering into some kind of new energy that might be coalescing with what the Photon Belt is.

Martin: Some people theorize that some of the Sun-spot activity is increasing, also, because we are moving more into the Photon Belt. I don’t know whether that’s true or not.

Perala: I believe that’s part of it. I think the Photon Belt is also somewhat beyond our scope of understanding.

Martin: In this dimension, I’m sure it is.

Perala: Yeah, but I do believe that it does exist. I do believe that there will be a time when the paradigm will change.

The prophet says: “Then the Sun was blotted-out out of the sky like a sack-cloth of blood,” which means that the Earth entering into a greater density of the Photon Belt, that the atmosphere would turn kind-of a reddish color. Because the prophet also said: “And I saw the sky on fire.” That would be the atmospheric aspect of the sky turning more of a red-orange color.

Martin: Now, some people, just to give you another hit on it, some people have theorized, in the last 5 or 7 years, that that description describes the igniting of the ionosphere.

Perala: Right.

Martin: Either through HAARP or nuclear exchanges.

Perala: Exactly. It might be a little bit of both. See, rising in frequency causes tremendous polarity between the negative aspect and the positive aspect. The negative aspect is much more negative; the positive aspect is much more positive.

So the polarity, and definition, and separation are all increased by this phenomenon.

Martin: Do you see, in this crazy time we’re in right now—this week, next week, as we’re gearing-up to go to war, which is what we’re doing—do you see intervention?

Perala: A little later down the road, a little more down the road. I think that, in some ways, there’s an evolutionary process here that they want to save and keep and flourish and grow. But there’s a big “hands-off” policy in the spirit world about not interfering; that the karmic debts need to be served-out in one form or another. And death isn’t so bad, it’s just a returning to who you really are.

Intervention will happen later. I think intervention really happens, also, when our technology is more affecting outside the planet, because we are basically contained here and live by the laws and rules here.

Take that technology out into the free-will zone of space, where we’re consciously not ready yet, and it might be like a child, almost, playing with a revolver; an intervention or a parent must step-in and say: “You can’t do that; you’re not qualified for this; you’re not mature enough.”

So, metaphorically speaking, going out into space with such negative energy, and wanting to destroy anything that doesn’t look like us, there would be an immediate intervention.

Martin: Let me just ask you this outright. Do you think the people of Earth are ready to become part of the Galactic Community?

Perala: Only, actually, a small percentage. You know, under 20% are ready for it.

I think even the people who are prepared, and who have been thinking about it and wishing for it and everything, still aren’t prepared for the actual reality of it. Because once it really does happen, it’s almost so shocking to the system.

But I think many will thrill in it; many will be, also, ready for it, to a large degree. But the problem is that we’re still like children. We’re like children in the sense that we look to a higher authority coming to this planet to “save us” so we don’t have to face ourselves, or face the responsibilities we’ve agreed to.

So, we’ll often look to be just taken away, or saved in some way, so we don’t have to face our own agreements. And they’re not going to do that.

Martin: Right. It’s got to be a blow to a whole bunch of people when they find that out.

Perala: Exactly. And they keep waiting to be saved. I remember a lot of us, in the ’90s, felt that there was going to be a mass landing. And so, many were looking forward to it being: “I’d just like to leave this Earth.”

And the guys on the other side are saying: “You’ve missed the whole point.” For the teacher to just come in and snatch the test off your desk and give you an “A”, it doesn’t work like that.

You can’t join the Federation until you’ve gone through certain hurdles. You see this even in the ancient scriptures in the Bible where it says: “You cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven unless you rid the flesh and re-enter the Wheel of Life.”

Martin: Let’s talk about the Pleiadian blueprint, the Eight Steps To Transformation, the Divine Blueprint; basically, where your last two years have led.

Perala: Well, the Pleiadian Blueprint is an integral part of our experience here because they have been a part of our DNA, and have seeded much of what is going on here in Creation. While there are varying opinions on it, let’s just say the last couple of hundred thousand years they’ve been a part of our experience. And they’re seeing this experience through. We’re actually related to them.

And their Blueprint is, for the most part—and this is very rough, and very loose—that many souls who have a large root in that experience graduate from here and return back to that, which is more of their “soul base”.

You notice, like when we were growing up, if they asked you your background, you’d say something like “Well, I’m have German and half Italian” or whatever. Only now, in the new millennium, we are realizing, through past-life research, that there seems to be a real connection to the soul where people would say something to the effect of: “I have a Pleiadian solar heritage, and a Sirian stellar heritage”—meaning that they have roots in these aspects, before they came into physical manifestation here.

And there’s a large contingent of souls who have had a deep rooting from the Pleiadian experience, and the Pleiadians are very, very much like us, spread-out over their own evolutionary process, where some are about the same level, actually, as we are. And others have graduated to a level where they are able to move. They’ve graduated from physicality and are able to come here and observe, and be Wayshowers, and instruct this reality from the level that they are at.

So, the Pleiadian Blueprint—I would be presumptuous, actually, to say what it really is, because no one really does know—but for the most part it’s that souls graduate from here and return back to that aspect. And it's one of the largest contingents who are here.

Out of all the other many ET influences on this planet, historically, I believe the largest contingent is still the Pleiades.

Martin: Your new book is called The Divine Architect. Let's talk about your new book, which I have not read or seen.

Perala: It's largely a personal growth book. It's what I call a provocative blend of spirituality, metaphysics, personal growth, and anecdotes for living.

In addition, it looks at Earth sciences and celestial influences. The name Divine denotes that we are mighty and powerful spiritual beings, coming here in our own divine uniqueness, and given a physical form, and allowed to live here on Earth to go through the karmic cycle, clear a lot of unwanted energies, become clear on what serves Creation, and what takes away from Creation; what serves the Creator and what takes away from the Creator; what serves yourself, as well as what takes away from yourself; what serves others, and what takes away from others. And in that, this is a form of architecture.

We are architects, actually, of the Spirit, where we are building and incorporating every thoughtform, every decision, every emotional response, every belief system, each day, into our own Divine Architecture. Because the Body and the Spirit is set-up. They say that the body is the temple, meaning that we are architects of that temple, we are carefully crafting, molding, and shaping that.

Now, that's for the conscious who realize that's what we're here to do. For the unconscious, they will do it unconsciously, to a certain degree, but for the most part they will build a very poor temple because they're here serving self. There's not a sense of service to others.

So, what I'm saying in the book is, we are Divine Architects of our own Spirit, here to learn all these various facets and lessons, and incorporate them in the Spirit. All the while, also, I invited a few of what I am saluting in the book as the Divine Architects of our time. These are the ones who have given information that has resonated with a large contingent of the population.

So we invited, and paraphrased—rather than quoted—we paraphrased some of the extraordinary work I felt was the significant contribution. So we saluted some of the Divine Architects of our time who have given great works, such as Deepak Chopra, the Dali Llama, Drunvalo Melchizedek, Gregg Braden. Dannion Brinkley wrote the forward to the book, who is a big proponent behind my work, and has always supported me.

In addition, I'm also a Compassion In Action co-ordinator here in Northern California, so I've worked with Dannion quite a bit.

I have to mention some women, got to have some women in there—Elizabeth Kubler Ross, Walda Woods, have all contributed significant works that have added a significant impact to the public.

And so, we wanted to make the book kind-of a “blend” book, a little bit of the “best of the best”, where you see a little bit of Earth sciences, you see some of the best of what's out there in personal growth. You see some metaphysics, you look at some of the esoteric. We included the Mysteries Schools. Most people don't even know what they are, like the Qabbalistic School and the Hermetic School.

We included a lot of these things, kind-of in a “best of” field, again, like The Divine Blueprint. It's an extension of the original, first book. And then we commented on their work, as well; why we thought it was significant, and what impact it has made on society. It will be out in the beginning of next year.

Martin: What kinds of closing remarks, or words of encouragement would you have for our readers, at this time, spiritually, emotionally, in terms of their connection with Source. Take as long as you like.

Perala: I think the Guides from the other side who have taught me have stressed, very much, that the most important thing that we can do emotionally, right now, is the ability to manage your state, the state of your emotions, in good times, but certainly mostly in bad times; because you WILL be challenged!

And then, within that, look at the lessons that are being brought forth. What does this mean? What does that tell us? And why is each lesson important to us?

Really examine what comes before you. Many people miss the grains of wisdom that are coming their way when there is tremendous opportunity for growth, and they don't want to look at it because they don't want to do their homework, and emotionally they don't want to respond to it. They think they've got enough on their plate, and they want to take the soft way out.

So, the ability to manage your emotional state will be very, very important. Spiritually, I would say that most of what has been felt, taught, or shown, from our visitors, it's about commitment; to realize that we have a beginning point, which is birth, that's A, all the way to Z, which is the exit point, what we call death, or transition. And looking at that window, to make a deeper commitment to realizing that we're here on a mission. We're here to work on ourselves; we're not to wiggle out of our responsibilities, but to embrace them. And that we have a fantastic opportunity to grow here.

You can't tell that I'm a real personal growth proponent, can you?! People are going to say: “This sounds like Tony Robbins meets Drunvalo Melchizedek or something.”

Well, it IS kind-of like that.

There's a big esoteric side to me, and then there's a very holistic, personal growth side, because I've worked with Tony Robbins for the last year and a half here, and his Institute, and graduated from his University.

Martin: There's a real pragmatic side to you, too.

Perala: Yes, I try to be very, very pragmatic. It's a message for the new millennium. It's a kind-of modern blend of natural, personal growth, mixed-in with some of the esoteric teachings.

And, also, it's important to stress keeping things simple. I think we tend to read into a lot of things, and make things harder than they really are.

So, spiritually, a commitment is vital to your own survival, and your own health.

Looking at tools, we need to be commanding the space around us that we can't see. Commanding the space around you to be clear. Asking for only that which is in your highest good.

Because we're at a time when the ethers are very, very thin, and there are a lot of negative entities residing right outside the third dimensional plane, on the fourth dimensional plane. And we're seeing this result in all kinds of things. That's why we're having so many more shootings by young children, and things like that. There's an escalation of a lot of darkness on this planet.

So it would be very, very important to commit to health, and vitality, and keeping your space very, very clear—consciously realizing that we are influenced by a tremendous number of things that are in the unseen.

In fact, so much so, not all of your thoughts, or your own thoughtforms, are your own. You're actually sharing some space here. You're actually swimming through an atmosphere of all kinds of entities walking right by you. You just can't see it. So it would almost be like diving in the ocean and seeing all these fish for the first time, swimming right past you. Then, suddenly, you'd say to yourself: “Wow, this has been going on the whole time!”

It's very much like that. And there are fish who are like dolphins, that are very wise and supportive, and then there are piranha out there.

Martin: Great whites.

Perala: And I think to love yourself really deeply is critical at this point. To sit with reverence, each day, and to look at life as a gift. And to remember, in gratitude, is very, very critical at this point. And to love yourself, deeply and passionately, each day, because the more we love ourselves, the more we are able to give love; because you can't give what you don't have. Am I preaching to the choir here?

Martin: You are reinforcing good points our readers have often heard before, but we always need to be reminded of again.

That's a perfect place to end. That's a great message to end with. Thank you.

* * *

From what Robert Perala had to say above, you might be asking yourself where the domain of extraterrestrial interaction with planet Earth leaves off and the world of spiritual teachers begins. That there is a large overlap between these two domains is the single most important point you can take away from the interview.

Moreover, on a purely practical level, does it really make any difference whether one (or more) of your personal Guides or guardian angels is of, say, Pleiadian ancestry or not? We can assume that ALL Higher Beings here at this time to assist with the upward transition of planet Earth are well qualified to help any of us when the call goes out.

* * *

So, why does so much secrecy swirl around the subject of extraterrestrials and UFOs? Let's turn our attention, once again, to the head of The Disclosure Project, Dr. Steven Greer. His assault on the dark forces who are keeping the UFO subject from the public is to be greatly commended and encouraged. As Greer stated to The SPECTRUM during an interview on October 16, 2001:

“People have to understand that it is the people keeping this secret that are the rogue, illegal elements.

“I have met, personally, with the Head of Intelligence for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. After our briefing, and after my military advisor, and one of the Apollo astronauts who walked on the Moon—and a few other people that I invited to this meeting had spoken—this Admiral, who is the Head of Intelligence for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, a J-2 position, a very key position, said that he had no doubt that this was true.

“He had been denied access to these projects. He was told that he “did not have a need to know”.

And then, later in the interview, Dr. Greer had this to say:

“I was briefed by an intelligence agent who had a very high clearance, back in the mid-'90s, who had sat-in on meetings where these so-called “alien reproduction vehicles” that we have been manufacturing out at the Lockheed Plant out at the North Facility of Edwards [Air Force Base], and other bases, would be used. Now, these are the human manufactured things that look like a UFO, that are anti-gravity. There was a plan to use those to ‘attack’ the Earth, making it look like the aliens were doing it, when in reality, we were doing it, because it would stampede people into this new, higher level of funding for military adventurism in space. And I was stunned when I was told this. I felt the man had to be making this up, until I heard several other people confirm it.

“I think this is something which, again, this whole matter, the disclosure of this matter, is extremely critical to our future, and it's been neglected because it's been marginalized through ridicule and through extreme secrecy.”

The full outlay of this interview will appear in an upcoming issue of The SPECTRUM, as a later part of this feature story. But for now the point to hold onto is that the wall of silence and secrecy is cracking badly and soon must give way to the pressures of The Truth flowing forth.

And speaking of secrets bursting forth, let's hear, once again, from the respected Robert O. Dean:

[Quoting]

It's, roughly, two and a half times the mass of the Earth. It's going to be visible to the naked eye, and it's going to be making its 3,600 year orbit pass, probably within 5 years.

Now, I think that is one of the reasons why the Vatican has been so deeply involved with this thing, and why that old man wanted to make a “pilgrimage to Ur”, a couple of years ago.

[Editor's note: Ur is a major ancient city of Mesopotamia, now known as Tell Mugheir, about 200 miles SSE of Baghdad and a few miles from the mouth of the Euphrates river. This is where the infamous Tower of Babel was built.]

I got this right out of the New York Times. I even kept the clipping.

The Vatican released a little information here, late last year, that His Holiness was negotiating with the government of Iraq, to allow him to make a pilgrimage, and that was the very word the Vatican used, to the “Holy City”. That was Steven M. Greer, M.D.

The Disclosure Project Founder & International Director of CSETI www.drgreer.com
To order the books:
Disclosure or Extraterrestrial Contact
PO BOX 265
CROZET, VA 22932
Phone: 1-888-DR-GREER

another word that was used in the article, a pilgrimage to the Holy City of Ur; which is now, whatever is left, is in Iraq.

There's not a hell of a lot left at Ur, except the ruins, like an ancient ziggurat [step tower, of Babel].

But, the Annunaki established the Sumerian civilization. And the Annunaki, apparently, built Ur, and another half a dozen ancient cities. And that old man wants to pay a visit, a pilgrimage to the Holy City of Ur?!

Now, put two and two together, and see what you come up with. The Vatican knows something. The Naval Observatory knows something. A hell of a lot of people know it, and they're sitting on the edges of their chairs, and grinding their teeth, and they don't have control of this thing.

[End quoting]

[Editor's note: The above provocative statement was made to The SPECTRUM on October 17, 2001. The full interview will appear in a later edition of The SPECTRUM, in conjunction with later installments of this feature story.]

Also know that, yes, we are well aware of "Planet X" or "Nibiru" moving into the vicinity of Earth. Most say it will be passing close to Earth in mid-to-late 2003. Rick Martin will be doing a feature article on this important subject in a future edition of The SPECTRUM—if we manage to remain financially afloat in order to share the intriguing information with you!

Now, no mention of this mystery planet or spaceship, presumably carrying extraterrestrials who have interacted with planet Earth in our past, would be complete without a few words from the instigator of this intriguing subject:]

Zecharia Sitchin

Recently, well-known scholar, researcher, and prolific author Zecharia Sitchin made the following statement in a speech (www.surfingtheapocalypse.com/sitchin.html):

"There is one more planet in our own solar system, not light years away, that comes between Mars and Jupiter every 3,600 years. People from that planet came to Earth almost half a million years ago and did many of the things about which we read in the Bible, in the book of Genesis.

"I prophesize the return of this planet, called Nibiru, at this time. The planet is inhabited by intelligent human beings like us, who will come and go between their planet and our planet. They created homo-sapiens. We look like them. I call them the Anunnaki.

"The starting point for my research goes back to my childhood and school-days, when we were taught that there were once giants upon the Earth. I questioned this interpretation as a child at school, and I was reprimanded for it because the teacher said you don't question the Bible. But I did not question the Bible, I questioned an interpretation that seemed inaccurate, because the word Nefilim, the name by which those extraordinary beings, the sons of the gods, were known, means, literally: 'Those who have come down to Earth from the Heavens'."

I will interject here that it can hardly be considered "prophecy" to predict the appearance of a heavenly body when you have been given technical information about it by Robert Harrington, the Chief Astronomer of the United States Naval Observatory, as explained by Robert Dean in an upcoming installment of this feature story. This comment, however, is not intended to take away from Sitchin's remarkable research over many years.

Another important person to at least mention in any article on the subject of UFOs and extraterrestrial encounters is, of course, Billy Meier, the Swiss farmer who had many encounters—and the remarkable photos to prove it, though many of those were later "borrowed" from this generous, trusting, kind man by unscrupulous swindlers.

Billy Meier

The books and information on the subject of Billy Meier's contacts with the Pleiadians, and those from the DAL Universe (a "parallel" universe to ours), are literally so voluminous that I will simply mention his name as one person who has had substantial personal contact with extraterrestrial beings. The amount of written information given to Billy Meier was, and is, astounding. He endured a great number of harassments, many from various disguised intelligence agents whose job it was to attempt to discredit the validity of what was happening in the surroundings of that small Swiss village.

"We, too, are still far removed from perfection and have to evolve constantly, just like yourselves. We are neither superior nor super-human, nor are we missionaries.... We feel duty-bound to the citizens of Earth because our forefathers were your forefathers...."

— SEMJASE, Pleiadian Cosmonaut
February 8, 1975.

From: UFO—Contact From The Pleiades, Volume I

Bill Meier does have a www.billymeier.com website. And if you'd like to see some of his remarkable photographs of spacecraft, see his Photo Gallery therein.

There are a number of websites about Billy Meier, but one of the best overall articles on the subject that I've seen can be found at the www.spiritweb.org/Spirit/billy-meier.html website, written by James W. Deardorff and Col. Wendell Stevens. Stevens himself has been the target of dirty tricks calculated to discredit his exemplary UFO research work.

One of the most remarkable aspects of the Billy Meier story, which almost ALL UFO researchers simply choose to ignore or overlook, is the fact that Billy Meier came to have possession of a historically profound and critically important document called The Talmud Immanuel.

Our regular readers will recognize that I have quoted, in past articles, from this wonderfully fresh and vibrant account of the time when Esu "Jesus" Immanuel (now Sananda) was on Earth two thousand years ago. Much of Jesus' life that is "missing" from New Testament biblical accounts is clearly narrated in the Talmud.

Information about obtaining this book may be accomplished in two ways—by writing directly to Billy Meier at: Eduard Meier, Ch-8495, Hinterschmidruti/ZH, Switzerland, or: Blue Water Publishing, P. O. Box 230893, Tigard, OR 97224. Inquire about the availability of either the Talmud Immanuel or Celestial Teachings: The Emergence Of The True Testament Of Immanuel (Jesus), by James Deardorff.

For your general information, one of the better books currently available about the Billy Meier story is titled The Pleiadian Mission—A Time Of Awareness, by Randolph Winters, published by The Pleiades Project, P. O. Box 1270, Rancho Mirage, CA 92270; ISBN: 1-885757-07-7.

* * *

Al Bielek

Moving now to a conversation I had with Al Bielek on 9/25/01, most of our readers are quite familiar with Al Bielek. But for those of you who are not, Al Bielek is allegedly the sole survivor of the Navy's now infamous "Philadelphia Experiment", a project during World War II to make a naval vessel invisible, and in the process also caused time travel.

Al has had A LOT of encounters with time-travel and related subjects, both through his Philadelphia Experiment experiences, and later through his experiences at a super-secret facility at Montauk, Long Island. Various extraterrestrial species are an accepted presence at the kinds of top-secret facilities which have been a part of Al's background.

Al Bielek has traveled the lecture circuit for many years, and has a lot of contacts, many within the "UFO community". One of those contacts was a well-known UFO lecturer named Philip Schneider, a well-respected and courageous professional, who put his life on the line by speaking out about some of the bizarre things he knew.

Philip Schneider was a Captain in the U.S. Navy, worked in nuclear medicine, and helped design the first nuclear submarines. Captain Schneider was also part of Operation Crossroads, which was responsible for the testing of nuclear weapons in the Pacific at Bikini Island. He was also involved in the Philadelphia Experiment.

Additionally, he was a structural engineer involved in building secret underground military bases (DUMB) around the country. He claims he was involved in the so-called "Dulce Wars", a conflict between aliens and U.S. military forces in the deeper layers of the Dulce, New Mexico secret underground facilities. Before he "was suicided", Phil Schneider was really speaking out strongly about all he knew, and all he had seen.

With that background information for introduction, let's move now to the 9/25/01 discussion with Al Bielek:

Martin: I'm sure that the various extraterrestrials are watching this thing very carefully. [Referring to the 9/11/01 tragedy.]

Bielek: I would state, a little further, they're not just watching it, they're right mixed-up in the middle of it, because too many of our government posts have been taken-over by well-disguised ETs. How many, who, and what positions, I don't know, but I do know that this has happened.

David Icke has been very outspoken in a 7-page announcement on the net.

Martin: Do you foresee ET—

Bielek: It's been blocked, from what I understand. There was an invasion fleet on the way, and it's been blocked, not by us, by "friendlies" out there.

Martin: Do you foresee, just hypothetically, that even the friendly Space Command would actually intervene, at some point, if things go nuclear?

Bielek: I would say, my own feeling is that would be a good likelihood. I can't say I have any knowledge on that. But there are those out there who are on our side, and in many cases have been told to "don't butt into our affairs, but it's nice to have your promises of support"-type attitude. They may well have acted already. And they may be on a "standby" basis for possible further action, should it be necessary. I can't say that I know so.

Martin: Who were the invasion fleet?

Bielek: It was warned about in the new Book I of the Wing Makers, when Dr. Aruba, who is the guy's real name, who decoded the optical disk they got out of room 23 in the first dash in New Mexico. They warned of an invasion heading towards Earth from M51 star system, that would have arrived at Earth at about 2006.

And, according to information that I have, we are NOW in the year 2006, but THEY WERE STOPPED.

There are so many strange aspects to this we have not been able to tie-down. We have been going back and forth with a bunch of people.

Martin: Now, the M51 thing, that was Lucifer's bunch that—Bielek: I have no data on that. I don't know what group it is. I only know that the Wing Makers refer to it as M51. That information was planted from the future.

Martin: They talk about, concerning M51, soul manipulation, basically reprogramming soul matter, or soul DNA. This is all out of Wing Makers.

So, the invasion is off?

Bielek: As of now, it is "locked". It is stopped. And where, I don't know. I was given one piece of data that it's about a trillion miles out. That's a pretty good piece of distance, but not really a lot compared to the distance that they were coming. I don't know how far away M51 is, but it's in another galaxy. It may be thousands of light years, it may be tens of thousands of light years.

But light years mean nothing to these people, as it doesn't to us, anymore. Because we have faster-than-light drives, as we have back-engineered from the crashed UFOs. We've built our own fleet of ships. We've built our own starships. I know all about that from first-hand experience, which I've never gone into.

Martin: The specific question I wanted to get you to comment on, on the record, which we talked about before, is: How is it that the American government has been able to withhold from the American people the reality of UFOs and ETs in our world today?

And your response had to do with "hit-teams", etc.

Bielek: They have done it very successfully, most obviously.

The reason they have been able to do it is because they have TOTAL CONTROL OF THE MEDIA, except for certain splinter groups; total control of TV, all of the news media. They don't put anything out that they are not authorized to put out.

Connie Chung let the rabbit out of the hat, some years ago, when she was asked that same question on the air.

She said, "It's very simple. We only put out the news that Washington approves."

Well, she was fired on the spot, and she was "black listed" for two years. But that IS the way that they do it.

They control the news that is released, by certain directives, through the newspapers, through TV, through radio. There's a few splinter groups, of course, who simply don't follow that, and they constitute a small minority.

The other aspect is, people DON'T ASK THE RIGHT QUESTIONS ANYMORE, BECAUSE ALL OF THE MAJOR CITIES ARE UNDER SOME FORM OF MIND CONTROL. WHETHER IT'S FLUORIDES IN THE WATER, OR THE CELL-PHONE TOWERS, OR OTHER ELECTRO-MAGNETIC MANIPULATIONS, THEY ARE MANIPULATED TO BECOME DOCILE, NOT ASK QUESTIONS, JUST GET ON WITH YOUR DAILY WORK, YOUR DAILY JOBS. AND DON'T STICK YOUR NOSE INTO POLITICAL AFFAIRS, TOO MUCH, UNLESS YOU'RE ON THE SIDE OF THE ESTABLISHMENT.

Now, the other third way that people are controlled is through the pocket-book.

Remember, in 1996 they passed the Anti-Terrorism Act. Now, what that states is: Anyone who is a "suspected" terrorist—and the criteria for being a suspected terrorist is up to a 3-judge tribunal, where the "suspected" individual never has the right of confrontation of his accusers, but is judged "in absencia" as to whether or not he is a "suspected terrorist".

Preston Nichols got himself on that list because of the six books he wrote on the Montauk series.

I got myself because of one book, but I understand I was removed since.

I know a third person who got himself on the list, who is apparently off it, now.

If you are put on that list, they then examine your financial status. Well, I was so broke that it didn't mean a thing to them. They didn't bother me, any more than I had already been bothered.

Preston Nichols had over $5 million in assets. Pfffft, it was gone. They took everything from him, except his cars and the house he was living in, which belonged to his father. And they wiped him out. They seized all of his assets under the Anti-Terrorism Act of 1996.

Now the Anti-Terrorism Act of 1996 states that it's up to us to make the judgment whether you're guilty or not. If we judge you guilty, it's up to you to prove your innocence! And if you want to get your funds back, your money back, well good luck.

He went to his attorney, and many others did, and there were lawsuits, in Congress, out of Congress, all over the place, and Congress finally changed the law that the burden of proof is NOW on the government to prove that a suspected terrorist really is potentially a terrorist.

So, there has been some improvement. But they can take the money away from you. And of course, under the current situation, with the Bill the President has gotten passed, they can take the money away from any group, any organization, that they THINK has any slight connection with any terrorist activities. They just freeze their assets and take them. Literally, it's in the Bill. They can seize them.

So that's the other way they control people, through the pocket-book, if they're known to be independent thinkers, known to not go along with the party line.

If you're one of the good ole' boys, go along with the party line, you won't have any problems.

If you're a member of any one of those three or four famous organizations—the Trilaterals, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderbergers, the Skull and Bones, the Club of Rome, or, of course, if you're high enough up to be part of the Illuminati organization, you're not going to have any problems.

But the independent thinkers they descend upon, and they do it now financially, as well as otherwise.

In fact, all you have to do is take a person's money out from under them and they're helpless to do anything. But if you're lucky, there's enough of a supporting network to bail you out.

So this is how they're doing it in this country. They've been doing it for years.

And you have enough control over enough of the population—the other 10% who are out in the splinter groups, they don't really worry about that much. Because if you have 90% control, they've got all they need.

Martin: Now, for those people who want to come out with hot, new, extraterrestrial contact information, if the information is too hot, they're just "taken out", aren't they?

Isn't that one way of controlling information?

Bielek: It's amazing that Dr. Greer is still around with CSETI, with the program he's been pushing. And he has A LOT OF SOLID PEOPLE IN BACK OF HIM—from NASA, ex-military, ex-intelligence, with a lot of sightings. I read the August issue of SPECTRUM. Greer has a lot of backing from people at the grassroots level.

And he's going to be hard to stop because of the grassroots backing.

This is the other thing they fear: if it's a grassroots uprising, with enough people, it will get out of control. If it gets out of control, then Washington doesn't know what to do except pull out the troops.

And I think what they're going to find is that there are not that many brainwashed troops, Americans that is, who are going to fire on their own people. They have to pull in the Chinese troops, or the Russian troops, or whatever else they may have in the background, to try and control the population, if it starts to get out of hand.

If people knew that the Bill had been passed to re-monetize our money with gold-backing, if enough people knew about this and knew that it had just been thwarted by this incident, by this event on the 11th of September, I think there would be enough people who would probably look at this, and they might even march on Washington. But that's my opinion.

[Editor's note: Al is here referring to the NESARA financial project. See the front-page story in last month's issue of The SPECTRUM for details in connection with the World Trade Center tragedy.]

I'm not inciting riot. I'm not saying this is what should happen. I'm saying that this possibly COULD happen, if enough people were aware of what has been stopped because of this incident, the Declaration of War, the Declaration against Terrorists, by taking their money, and any money source, including overseas.

Martin: The thrust of this particular story is specifically on UFOs and on extraterrestrial encounters on this planet.

Bielek: Well, they did this with Phil Schneider. But in his case, because of his huge public exposure both here and abroad, they had to make it look like suicide.

So, we call it "murder by suicide".

There was, in a sense, a special-ops team there. He went through 12 or 13 attempts on his life, and survived them all.

But these were the standard-type people that he didn't know, except he knew what their goal was. And he was able to successfully fight them off.

The 14th attempt was by people he considered friends, or people he knew. And the argument started in the restaurant that night. And they went down to his private enclave, which was a quarry, which he had access to. They went in there to talk, then he was apparently—I don't know what the process was or how it proceeded—but it would appear that one of those he thought was his friend, was his nurse, gave him a shot. They tied his hands behind him.

Then they did whatever else they did to him.

Then they dragged him back to his apartment, planted the body in the bedroom, with nothing but a pair of shorts on, and with a rubber tube wrapped around his neck three times, knotted, which would have been impossible for him to do.

From what I understand, they tied his hands, probably after giving him a shot because he was registered as having "killer hands". He could kill people with his bare hands, in spite of the arthritis. He was very strong. They had to tie his hands, so he couldn't do this.

Martin: Now, for our readers who don't know who he is, who is Phil Schneider?

Bielek: Phil Schneider was a government employee who started out in the Skunk Works in Burbank, California. I've seen the pictures of him there, which he had in his collection.

He wound-up, somehow, in geology, worked in building the underground bases for the government; the underground rail system for the underground tubes, and the underground rail system criss-crossing the U.S.

These are not ordinary rails, it's mag-lift, magnetic levitation, based on alien technology. But it's fully operational. Not only have I been on it, but I know other people who have.

He was involved in all of that. Then he graduated, because of his position as an expert geologist, into NATO, and he was going around the world on NATO operations.

What finally happened that finally got him out of this, he had been at it for many years. And he was within two years of retirement from NATO, with something like a million a year for retirement, and his salary would be kicked-up to $500,000 a year, because he was a chief geologist, and he was very well respected.

But he attended—speaking of your alien connection—he attended, by invite, two different UN meetings, policy-making meetings, in one of the underground facilities. Not in the UN facility in New York City.

So, everything was matching the facility in New York, with all of the various representatives to be in a circular dais and everything else. And there was an extra row of chairs up above the rest.

Everybody was seated and waiting, and then in files the final group—all tall, 7-foot Greys, and THEY dictated policy to the UN.

When he attended the second meeting and saw the same thing, he said: "This is too much. I'm working for the wrong people."

He got together with his group within NATO, there were 40 of them in the geology department of NATO. They had a luncheon meeting one day, and they all decided to walk out that afternoon; and all 40 walked out that afternoon.

Phil kept his "oaths of silence" for quite some time, approximately a year-and-a-half to two years.

I said to him: "With what you know"—and he never told me that bit about the UN at that time, that came out much later—I said, "With what you know about underground constructions and the underground fights with aliens, etc., you should be going public with this. If you're interested, I'll arrange it for you."

He was interested and I arranged it for him through the Preparedness Expos, and, of course, others got into it.

There were a number of those programs recorded on video tape. Many, many were not.

In that year, around 1995, he gave, I think, over 40 lectures, including one overseas in Japan.

He was banned from leaving the country. But that's easily by-passed by driving up to Canada on your driver's license and getting on a private jet, which took him over to Japan. And he talked for three days, came back, then he drove back in his car to the U.S.

Since he's dead and gone now, it doesn't make any difference. But he knew too much.

They kept asking him: "Please come back. We will treat you well. We want you back, and your expertise, in the service of the country."

He absolutely refused.

So, they started a long series of attacks on him, and eventually got him on the 13th or the 14th, I'm not sure of the count now, just before the Global Sciences Congress to be held in January or February of 1996.

He told me that he would be there, and be coming from Florida to Atlanta, to do a major series of video recordings, which I was after him to do since August, the Global Sciences Congress in August of 1995. He was going to come down, but got in such a wrangle with the travel agent, he said "The hell with it; I'll go back to Oregon and come back later", which he never did, unfortunately.

But he was well known for what he knew. And he talked a lot. And he was well respected for what he had to say. He was so well respected that the Japanese industrialists brought him over at their own expense to tell about things that had happened, not only in his area of expertise, but also about some things that are of interest to the Japanese magnates.

So he was silenced—and for show, they put the triple-wrapped catheter tube around his neck, knotted neatly in the back. There's no way he could have done it.

Martin: What year was this?

Bielek: This was in 1996 that he was departed from us. I say he WAS departed because it was not of his choice.

And, of course, they went through his apartment, took out everything, three or four days before the body was discovered. All of his files, money he had there, his photo album, about a third of that disappeared. I knew because his ex-wife called me to come up and go through his effects to see what was what.

The first thing I went for, practically, was the photo album, because he had told me about pictures in the album of his father and my father going out on fishing trips together. That was Oscar O. Schneider, who was the Medical Director, Captain in the Medical Corps in the United States Navy. And he was the Medical Director for the Philadelphia Experiment, and had LOTS of information on the Philadelphia Experiment, which I have.

And I've gone public with it, so it's no longer something I've hung onto. It's long since been made public.

Much of the information I got was from his father.

And his father died, apparently naturally of cancer, right after I met Phil.

[Editor's note: It would not be prudent to assume that this death was a natural event, considering the person's secret background and knowledge.

Cancer is one of the most popular life-ending tools in the arsenal of the elite misfits and their dutiful puppets. Those of you familiar with Dr. Steven Greer's closest working circle, including himself, have seen that tool at work. He has suffered significant personal loss as a result of this vile and sneaky tactic. But he has chosen to plow ahead with even GREATER resolve. And so miracles DO happen, and Steven is still here (and, he says, cancer free) to provide, among other important matters of Truth, the quote which launched this feature article, back on the front page!

Another standard diabolical technique for the quicker deading of uppity Truth-bringers is the heart attack. Richard Hoagland was the beneficiary of one of those, a few years ago, during a time when he was mercilessly rattling the cages of the secret government misfits through the route of exposing NASA shenanigans as well as calling attention to significant secret archaeological sites.

Upon getting the news of the attack, Art Bell conducted one of his "great experiments" where he asked his vast late-night talk-radio listening audience to pray and/or send healing thoughts to Richard, who was a beloved regular guest. Though his doctors flatly stated he would not make it through that night, uppity Richard made a quick and miraculous recovery to a state of even better health! Richard later said he could actually FEEL the healing energies being sent his way.

Be sure to study the spiritual messages shared in this issue of The SPECTRUM for more commentary on the important battle of Light versus Darkness we are experiencing.]

And Phil, eventually, of course, was done in. And they silenced him, most effectively.

It was declared "a suicide", because in a declared suicide there is no further investigation of the case.

Martin: And this is not uncommon.

Bielek: Oh, no. All of his records disappeared. Everything he had, disappeared. The medical records from the hospital, locally, disappeared. The court records in Seattle disappeared. I checked on those, because he had records up there.

And the response was: "No, no records; all gone."

His safety deposit box disappeared; nobody knew anything about that or where it went. He had gold bars, or what remained of them, from his father, and many things like that. They just evaporated.

And nobody knew anything, from that point on. Except his ex-wife was furious. She read the medical report, not from the coroner, or the coroner's office. But from the M.D., appointed by the police department that they had access to. They did a very sloppy autopsy. I will not go into the gory details, but she read this thing, and I read a copy of it. And, of course, I didn't know certain aspects which she objected to, but I found out about it later.

There were other people who knew. He had had a surgical operation which should have been immediately spotted by the M.D. or whoever did the examination, but they said there was nothing unusual about a certain body organ, which was a total lie.

So, she said, either that was not Phil, or they were totally lying.

All the evidence would indicate that it was Phil. All of the evidence I've seen.

But she was furious about it from that point on, and I can't say that I blame her.

[Editor's note: Now we go to a later, follow-up interview with Al Bielek on 10/1/01.

Remember this was the time when puzzling and bizarre questions about the World Trade Center attacks were surfacing—some of which we presented in the front-page story of last month's SPECTRUM, but others we could only hint at, for many reasons.

Some information reaching us suggested that time itself had been manipulated as a parameter in the engineering of the 9/11/01 events. And that possibility is what Al discusses early in the following.

Remember that the REAL battles are going on at the very top levels of David Icke's pyramid of power, where various factions under dark influence fight to be "king of the hill" in a manner of speaking. Some of the spiritual messages presented in last month's SPECTRUM addressed this inevitable conflict with great insight and compassion.]

Martin: Have you heard of any particular alien groups interceding in any capacity?

Bielek: I have not heard of any alien grouping involved in this.

But I have picked up, during my own remote viewing, that there were two alien groups, right now, fighting each other, for control of the planet, from outside. And they were apparently involved in this time manipulation, because it keeps shifting, it keeps changing; which says there is a conflict of some kind going on, because I feel it. Other friends of mine feel it. And they just don't know what's going on, but they feel terrible.

There's a lot of reports of people feeling "out of sorts", disoriented, and feeling there is something wrong. And they can't put their finger on it. Because the body and the mind, the heart-mind connection—and thanks for publishing that story on the heart-mind—is quite sensitive to time-fields, time-flows, and variations in it.

If we get into a scramble, which is what has happened, where it is a sudden change or shift, people are aware of this, and suddenly the time-flow is altered, and not normal. They're going to feel it, even though they don't know what it is they're feeling.

Martin: Intellectually.

Bielek: They feel it intellectually, as well as physically.

The problem is, they DON'T KNOW.

They don't have a clue as to what it's all about.

They say they're sick, and they go to the doctor. The doctor gives them some kind of pill, probably, and says: "Go home and sleep it off." And the next day, it may be alright. And then, in the middle of the day, it will happen again.

It's totally unpredictable as to how this shifting field is going to shift, and how it's going to affect people.

The only people I know of who would not, perhaps, be affected by these are those who are on heavy medication, for some reason, or medical reason, or let's say the heavy party folks and heavy drinkers. They would be so numb they wouldn't feel it, until they come out of it; then they may feel twice as bad.

The average person is going to feel this, and not know what it is.

The "sensitives" are going to be in agony over some of the crap that's been going on. I know I have. It's nothing you can predict. It's nothing you can put your finger on.

There are those who might be able to do something about it. But it would take a group effort, and I don't know how successful it would be, at this point, to try and penetrate through the wall and see what's going on, and who's doing it, and what it really means.

I have some ideas, but I don't want to go into them on the phone, right at the moment, but if anybody comes up with any solid ideas of who is manipulating this, and how it's being done, I think it would be worthwhile publishing.

Martin: Yes, I think so, too.

Bielek: I do know, and I will state for the record: THIS IS A TIME-WAR! And it's at least between two factions.

Martin: It's a real mystery.

Bielek: Yeah. Who's got the complete script? [Laughter]

Martin: [Laughter]

* * *

Let's turn our focus now to the last talk that Phil Schneider presented, that we have access to, anyway, which was given at the Global Sciences Conference in August of 1995.

[Editor's note: For those of you wanting more information about either Al Bielek or Phil Schneider, you can access either through two exceptionally well done "silver discs" for your computer: the Al Bielek CD-ROM and the Phil Schneider CD-ROM. Both of these are available at the www.albielek.com Internet website. Wisdom Books & Press also has a limited supply of these in stock.]

Another source to check out from a computer is the www.ufodigest.com/mystery.html website. The story posted there is called The Mysterious Life And Death Of Philip Schneider.

Now let's hear what Phil Schneider had to say that got him "suicided" by those who don't want you to know The Truth. The following is from the www.apfn.org/apfn/philip.htm website.

[Quoting]

Phil Schneider @ Global Sciences Conference
Denver, Colorado August, 1995

In May, 1995, Phil Schneider did a lecture on what he had discovered.

Seven months later he was tortured and killed by those for whom he had previously worked. This man's final acts should not go unnoticed.

A Lecture By Phil Schneider

It is because of the horrendous structure of the federal government that I feel directly imperiled not to tell anybody about this material. How long I will be able to do this is anybody's guess. However, I would like to mention that this talk is going to be broken up into four main topics. Each of these topics will have some bearing on what you people are involved in, whether you are patriots or not.

I want you to know that these United States are a beautiful place. I have gone to more than 70 countries, and I cannot remember any country that has the beauty, as well as the magnificence of its people, like these United States.

To give you an overview of basically what I am, I started off and went through engineering school. Half of my school was in that field, and I built up a reputation for being a geological engineer, as well as a structural engineer with both military and aerospace applications.

I have helped build two main bases in the United States that have some significance as far as what is called the New World Order.

The first base is the one at Dulce, New Mexico. I was involved in 1979 in a fire-fight with alien humanoids, and I was one of the survivors. I'm probably the only talking survivor you will ever hear. Two other survivors are under close guard. I am the only one left who knows the detailed files of the entire operation. Sixty-six Secret Service agents, FBI, Black Berets, and the like, died in that fight. I was there.

Number one: Part of what I am going to tell you is going to be very shocking. Part of what I am going to tell you is probably going to be very unbelievable though, instead of putting your glasses on, I'm going to ask you to put your "skepticals" on. But please, feel free to do your own homework. I know the Freedom Of Information Act isn't much to go on, but it's the best we've got. The local law library is a good place to look for Congressional Records.

So, if one continues to do their homework, then one can be standing vigilant in regard to their country.

Deep Underground Military Bases
And The Black Budget

I love the country I am living in more than I love my life, but I would not be standing before you now, risking my life, if I did not believe it was so. The first part of this talk is going to concern deep underground military bases and the Black Budget. The Black Budget is a secretive budget that garners 25% of the gross national product of the United States.

The Black Budget currently consumes $1.25 trillion per year. At LEAST this amount is used in black programs, like those concerned with deep underground military bases. Presently, there are 129 deep underground military bases in the United States.

They have been building these 129 bases day and night, unceasingly, since the early 1940s. Some of them were built even earlier than that. These bases are basically large cities underground connected by high-speed magneto-levity trains that have speeds up to Mach 2.

Several books have been written about this activity. Al Bielek has my only copy of one of them. Richard Souder, a Ph.D. architect, has risked his life by talking about this. He worked with a number of government agencies on deep underground military bases. In around where you live, in Idaho, there are 11 of them.

[Editor's note: Dr. Richard Souder is not to be confused with a Richard Sauder, Ph.D., a new-to-the-field-of-underground-bases researcher and author of the book

Eduard "Billy" Meier photo from: UFO—Contact From The Pleiades, Volume I.

Underground Bases And Tunnels: What Is The Government Trying To Hide? Dr. Richard Souder is a highly credentialed professional with tremendous experience in the areas about which he has spoken out. Don't you wonder sometimes about "coincidences" such as this one, with two so similar names?]

The average depth of these bases is over a mile, and they again are basically whole cities underground. They all are between 2.66 and 4.25 cubic miles in size. They have laser-drilling machines that can drill a tunnel seven miles long in one day.

The Black Projects sidestep the authority of Congress, which as we know is illegal. Right now, the New World Order (NWO) is depending on these bases. If I had known at the time I was working on them that the NWO was involved, I would not have done it. I was lied to rather extensively.

Development Of Military Technology, Implied German Interest In Hyperspatial Technology

Basically, as far as technology is concerned, for every calendar year that transpires, military technology increases about 44.5 years. This is why it is easy to understand that back in 1943 they were able to create, through the use of vacuum tube technology, a ship that could literally disappear from one place and appear in another place.

My father, Otto Oscar Schneider, fought on both sides of the war. He was originally a U-boat captain, and was captured and repatriated in the United States. He was involved with different kinds of concerns, such as the A-bomb, the H-bomb and the Philadelphia Experiment. He invented a high-speed camera that took pictures of the first atomic tests at Bikini Island on July 12, 1946.

I have original photographs of that test, and the photos also show UFOs fleeing the bomb site at a high rate of speed. Bikini Island at the time was infested with them, especially under the water, and the natives had problems with their animals being mutilated.

At that time, General MacArthur felt that the next war would be with aliens from other worlds.

Anyway, my father laid the groundwork with the theoreticians about the Philadelphia Experiment, as well as other experiments.

What does that have to do with me? Nothing, other than the fact that he was my father.

I don't agree with what he did on the other side, but I think he had a lot of guts in coming here. He was hated in Germany. There was a $1 million reward, payable in gold, to anyone who killed him. Obviously, they didn't succeed.

Anyway, back to our topic—deep underground bases.

The Fire Fight At Dulce Base

Back in 1954, under the Eisenhower administration, the federal government decided to circumvent the Constitution Of The United States and form a treaty with alien entities. It was called the 1954 Grenada Treaty, which basically made the agreement that the aliens involved could take a few cows and test their implanting techniques on a few human beings, but that they had to give details about the people involved.

Slowly the aliens altered the bargain, until they decided they wouldn't abide by it at all. Back in 1979, this was the reality, and the fire-fight at Dulce occurred quite by accident.

I was involved in building an addition to the deep underground military base at Dulce, which is probably the deepest base. It goes down seven levels and over 2.5 miles deep. At that particular time, we had drilled four distinct holes in the desert, and we were going to link them together and blow-out large sections at a time.

My job was to go down the holes and check the rock samples, and recommend the explosive to deal with the particular rock. As I was headed down there, we found ourselves amidst a large cavern that was full of outer-space aliens, otherwise known as large Greys. I shot two of them. At that time, there were 30 people down there. About 40 more came down after this started, and all of them got killed.

We had surprised a whole underground base of existing aliens.

Later, we found out that they had been living on our planet for a long time, perhaps a million years. This could explain a lot of what is behind the theory of ancient astronauts.

Anyway, I got shot in the chest with one of their weapons, which was a box on their body, that blew a hole in me and gave me a nasty dose of cobalt radiation. I have had cancer because of that.

I didn't get really interested in UFO technology until I started work at Area 51, north of Las Vegas. After about two years recuperating after the 1979 incident, I went back to work for Morrison and Knudson, EG&G, and other companies. At Area 51, they were testing all kinds of peculiar spacecraft. How many people here are familiar with Bob Lazar's story? He was a physicist working at Area 51, trying to decipher the propulsion factor in some of these craft.

Schneider's Worries About Government Factions, Railroad Cars, And Shackle Contracts

Now, I am very worried about the activity of the federal government. They have lied to the public, stonewalled Senators, and have refused to tell the truth in regard to alien matters. I can go on and on. I can tell you that I am

THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth

Is an alien "Fifth Column" already active on Earth preparing total conquest via implantations and mind control? In the corner of a small town in America's Southwest something very strange is going on. Did U.S. military forces perish recently in hand-to-hand combat with a group of hostile "greys" who subsequently seized control of one of our top-secret underground bases? Includes latest on animal mutilations, energy grids, secret societies, lost civilizations, abductions, and missing time.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.95(+S/H)

rather disgruntled.

Recently, I knew someone who lived near where I live, in Portland, Oregon. He worked at Gunderson Steel Fabrication where they make railroad cars.

Now, I knew this fellow for the better part of 30 years, and he was kind of a quiet type. He came in to see me one day, excited, and he told me “they’re building prisoner cars”. He was nervous.

Gunderson, he said, had a contract with the federal government to build 107,200 full-length railroad cars, each with 143 pairs of shackles. There are 11 sub-contractors in this giant project. Supposedly, Gunderson got over 2 billion dollars for the contract. Bethlehem Steel and other steel outfits are involved. He showed me one of the cars in the rail yards in North Portland. He was right.

If you multiply 107,200 times 143 times 11, you come up with about 15,000,000. This is probably the number of people who disagree with the federal government.

Variation Type-1 Craft

Seven Meter Reconnaissance Ship — (21 ft. diameter) carries crew of three, and has interplanetary capability of travel. Claimed to be several hundred years old and was replaced because of radiation leakage problem.

Variation Type-2 Craft

Seven Meter Reconnaissance Ship — (21 ft. diameter) carries crew of three, and has interplanetary capability of travel.

Images from: UFO—Contact From The Pleiades, Volume I.

Al Bielek on CD-ROM

What you get on this CD-ROM is the most in-depth compilation of interviews with survivors of the Philadelphia Experiment and Montauk Project to date on one computer CD.

The information on this CD comes from the memories of those who were interviewed. Because these projects are so secretive, gaining hard evidence is nearly impossible. However, that doesn't mean the projects never happened.

This information is for those who want to pursue and know the truth. Sometimes, finding the truth becomes elusive. There are many out there who do not want you to know the truth about these projects. Use your own judgment as you hear the words of these survivors.

As you follow this story, use this information as the beginning resource to hopefully, get you on the right track.

The five people featured on this CD all testify that they worked with Al at the Montauk Project, and some even remember him as Ed Cameron during the Philadelphia Experiment.

OVER 25 hours of audio interviews

CD-ROM contains over 25 hours of audio interviews encoded in MP3 and RealAudio G2. CD is formatted in ISO 9660 format and is IBM, Mac, and Unix compatible.

$29.95 (+S/H)

CD INTERVIEW CONTENT:

Al Bielek Life of Ed Cameron Visit to Alpha Centauri Philadelphia Experiment Trip to 2137, Trip to 2749 Trip to Mars and 100,000 B.C. Life of Al Bielek History of Montauk Montauk Boys Program Montauk Mind-Control Program Montauk Time-Travel Program	Psychic Operations Program Duncan Cameron Involvement Duncan Cameron Memories of Montauk Stewart Swerdlow Being a Montauk Boys Programmer Human Genetic Manipulation Involvement With E.T.s Preston Nichols Working With Al Bielek at Montauk Stealth Technology Development	Mind-Control Development Montauk Boys Program Larry James Operating the Time-Control Program Experiments With Time Travel (JFK Assassination, Civil War, WWII) Involvement With Al Bielek at Montauk What Happened To Ed Cameron? Dr. James F. Corum Replication of Radar Invisibility
---	--	---

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

No more can you vote any of these people out of office. Our present structure of government is “technocracy”, not democracy, and it is a form of feudalism. It has nothing to do with the republic of the United States. These people are Godless, and have legislated out prayer in public schools. You can get fined up to $100,000 and two years in prison for praying in school. I believe we can do better.

I also believe that the federal government is running the gambit of enslaving the people of the United States.

I am not a very good speaker, but I'll keep shooting my mouth off until somebody puts a bullet in me, because it's worth it to talk to a group like this about these atrocities.

America's Black Program Contractors

There are other problems. I have some interesting 1993 figures. There are 29 prototype stealth aircraft presently. The budget from the U.S. Congress five-year plan for these is $245.6 million. You couldn't buy the spare parts for these programs for that amount. So, we've been lied to.

The black budget is roughly $1.3 trillion, every two years. A trillion is a thousand billion. A trillion dollars weighs 11 tons.

The U.S. Congress never sees the books involved with this clandestine pot of gold. Contractors of stealth programs: EG&G, Westinghouse, McDonnell Douglas, Morrison-Knudson, Wackenhut Security Systems, Boeing Aerospace, Lorimar Aerospace, Aerospatial in France, Mitsubishi Industries, Ryder Trucks, Bechtel, I.G. Farben, plus a host of hundreds more. Is this what we are supposed to be living up to as freedom-loving people? I don't believe so.

Star Wars And Apparent Alien Threat

Still 68% of the military budget is directly or indirectly affected by the black budget. Star Wars relies heavily upon stealth weaponry.

By the way, none of the stealth program would have been available if we had not taken apart crashed alien disks. None of it.

Some of you might ask what the Space Shuttle is “shuttling”. Large ingots of special metals that are milled in space and cannot be produced on the surface of the Earth. They need the near vacuum of outer space to produce them. We are not even being told anything close to the truth. I believe our government officials have sold us down the drain—lock, stock, and barrel.

Stealth Aircraft Technology Use By U.S. Agencies And The United States

Here's another piece of information for you folks. The Drug Enforcement Administration and the ATF rely on stealth tactical weaponry for as much as 40% of their operations budget. This in 1993, and the figures have gone up considerably since. The United Nations used American stealth aircraft for over 28% of its collective worldwide operations from 1990 to 1992, according to the Center for Strategic Studies and UN Report 3092.

The Guardians Of Stealth And Delta Force Origins Of The Bosnia Conflict

The Guardians of Stealth: There are at least three distinct classifications of police who guard our most well-kept secrets.

Number one: the Military Joint Tactical Force (MJTF), sometimes called the Delta Force or Black Berets, is a multinational tactical force primarily used to guard the various stealth aircraft worldwide.

By the way, there were 172 stealth aircraft built. Ten crashed, so there were, at last count, about 162. Bill Clinton signed them away about six weeks ago to the United Nations.

There have been indications that the Delta Force was sent over to Bosnia during the last days of the Bush administration as a covert sniper force. And that they started taking pot-shots at each side of the controversy, in order to actually start the Bosnia conflict that would be used by succeeding administrations for political purposes.

Thoughts On The Bombings In The United States

I was hired not too long ago to do a report on the World Trade Center bombing. I was hired because I know about the 90-some-odd varieties of chemical explosives. I looked at the pictures taken right after the blast. The concrete was puddled and melted. The steel and the rebar was literally extruded up to six feet longer than its original length.

There is only one weapon that can do that—a small nuclear weapon. That's a construction-type nuclear device. Obviously, when they say that it was a nitrate explosive that did the damage, they're lying 100%, folks. The people they have in custody probably didn't do the crime. As a matter of fact, I have reason to believe that the same group held in custody did do other crimes, such as killing a Jewish rabbi in New York.

However, I want to further mention that with the last explosion in Oklahoma City, they are saying that it was a nitrate or fertilizer bomb that did it.

First, they came out and said it was a 1,000 pound fertilizer bomb.

Then, it was 1,500.

Then 2,000 pounds.

Now it's 20,000.

You can't put 20,000 pounds of fertilizer in a Ryder Truck.

Now, I've never mixed explosives, per se. I know the chemical structure and the application of construction explosives. My reputation was based on it. I helped hollow out more than 13 deep underground military bases in the United States. I worked on the Malta project, in West Germany, in Spain, and in Italy.

I can tell you, from experience, that a nitrate explosion would not have hardly shattered the windows of the federal building in Oklahoma City. It would have killed a few people and knocked part of the facing off the building, but it would never have done that kind of damage.

I believe I have been lied to, and I am not taking it any longer, so I'm telling you that you've been lied to.

The Truth Behind The Republican Contract With America

I don't perceive at this time that we have too much more than six months of life left in this country, at the present rate.

We are the laughing stock of the world, because we are being hoodwinked by so many evil people who are running this country. I think we can do better.

I think the people over 45 are seriously worried about their future. I'm going to run some scary scenarios by you.

The Contract With America: It contains the same terminology that Adolph Hitler used to subvert Germany in 1931. I believe we can do better. The Contract With America is a last-ditch effort by our federal government to tear away the Constitution and the Bill Of Rights.

Some Statistics On The Black Helicopter Presence

The black helicopters. There are over 65,000 black helicopters in the United States. For every hour that goes by, there is one being built. Is this the proper use of our money? What does the federal government need 64,000 tactical helicopters for, if they are not trying to enslave us? I doubt if the entire military needs 64,000 worldwide. I doubt if the WORLD needs that many.

There are 157 F-117A stealth aircraft loaded with LIDAR and computer-enhanced imaging radar. They can see you walking from room to room when they fly over your house. They see objects in the house from the air with a variation limit of 1 inch to 30,000 miles. That's how accurate that is.

Now, I worked in the federal government for a long time, and I know exactly how they handle their business.

Government Earthquake Device, AIDS As A Bio-Weapon Based On Alien Excretions

The federal government has now invented an earthquake device. I am a geologist, and I know what I am talking about. With the Kobe earthquake in Japan, there was no pulse-wave as in a normal earthquake. None.

In 1989, there was an earthquake in San Francisco. There was no pulse-wave with that one either. It is a Tesla device that is being used for evil purposes. The black budget programs have subverted science as we know it.

Look at AIDS, invented by the National Ordinance Laboratory, in Chicago, Illinois, in 1972. It was a biological weapon to be used against the people of the United States.

The reason I know this, is that I have seen the documentation by the Office of Strategic Services, which, by the way, is still in operation to this day, through the CDC in Atlanta. They used the glandular excretions of animals, humans, and alien humanoids to create the virus.

These alien humanoids the government is hobnobbing with are the worst news. There is absolutely no defense against their germs—none. They are a biological weapon of terrible consequence. Every alien on the planet needs to be isolated.

Saddam Hussein killed 3.5 million Kurdish people with a similar biological weapon. Do we, the people of this planet, deserve this? No, we don't, but we are not doing anything about it. Every moment we waste, we are doing other people on the planet a disservice.

Right now I am dying of cancer that I contracted because of my work for the federal government. I might live six months. I might not.

I will tell you one thing. If I keep speaking out like I am, maybe God will give me the life to talk my head off. I will break every law that it takes to talk my head off. Eleven of my best friends in the last 22 years have been murdered. Eight of the murders were called "suicides".

Before I went to talk in Las Vegas, I drove a friend down to Joshua Tree, near 29 Palms [in the Southern California desert region, loaded with military bases—both "retired" and active, known and secret]. I drove into the mountains in order to get to Needles, California, and I was followed by two government E-350 vans with G-14 plates, each with a couple of occupants, one of which had an Uzi. I knew exactly who they were. I have spoken 19 times and have probably reached 45,000 people.

Well, I got ahead of them and came to a stop in the middle of the road. They both went on either side of me and down a ravine. Is this what it's going to take? I cut-up my security card and sent it back to the government, and told them, if I was threatened, and I have been, that I was going to upload 140,000 pages of documentation to the Internet about government structure and the whole plan.

I have already begun that task.

Thank you. [End quoting]

Now, do you think perhaps the American public has been lied-to, just a little bit? Can you imagine the condition of this nation of true bounty if so much money was NOT being diverted to such diabolical enterprises? There need not be any homeless or those who go without decent clothing or meals, etc. Are you angry enough yet?

At this point in the outlay of this massive subject, enough of the picture has taken shape to confuse rather than clarify: Are we dealing with angels or devils when we mention extraterrestrials? The answer is BOTH.

Please keep in mind that there exist extraterrestrial beings who traverse the galaxies and dimensional planes at will. These morally and ethically advanced and compassionate Elder Brothers and Sisters, by their very nature, intrinsically follow Universal Law—the Laws of The Creation, under Creator Source or God.

And then there exist some less evolved, presently Earth-bound, extraterrestrial species who work in concert with the same dark forces who overshadow the misfit human element of this planet, referred to in these pages as the Elite Controllers and their puppets.

Appreciate that it is definitely NOT the purpose of this particular feature story to generate fear in the heart of anyone. Rather, by understanding who the various players are on the playing field, the thinking person is in a much better position to navigate the major events that are likely to be unfolding in the near future on planet Earth.

There is a lot of good information out there, amidst a lot of disinformation, as I said before, and I've endeavored to share some of the more credible sources with you. A lot more information on this subject is to be presented in the next installment(s).

For now, I would like to leave you with what I believe is an extremely timely caution, especially since the 9/11/01 events and aftermath:

"In the counsels of Government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the Military Industrial Complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists, and will persist. We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes. We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals so that security and liberty may prosper together."

— President Dwight David Eisenhower, January 1961, Farewell Address to the nation.

Do you think perhaps this outgoing President had a few regrets and was trying to tell the American people something VERY important? After all, his hands were as tied as are any President's by the dark forces of secret power who actually dictate policy to control a mostly unsuspecting populace. Why should the UFO subject—of ANY subject—be exempt from such calculated censorship?

Nearly two hundred years earlier, Thomas Jefferson cautioned us similarly:

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of the society but the people themselves. And if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take it from them, but to inform them."

And that's exactly what The SPECTRUM shall do, in sharing what we can about this most astonishing subject of UFOs.

[End of Part I. To be continued next month.]

THE OMEGA FILES: SECRET NAZI UFO BASES REVEALED

This large-size, 8.5 x 11 book, weighing nearly two pounds, describes how German engineers actually flew flying saucers shortly before the end of World War II and how some of the dreaded Nazis actually escaped due to help from the U.S.'s own version of the Secret Government, and how they actually do their work today from underground bases around the world. SPECIAL SECTION of photographs of Nazi-built flying saucers and stories told by our own pilots of encounters with so-called "Foo Fighters" during WW-II. Here is final proof that not all UFOs come from outer space!

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

The Overthrow Of The American Republic

Editor's note: Every so often we like to include Sherman Skolnick's background information for our newer readers who may not be familiar with this longtime crusader for Truth. As he puts it:

"Since 1958, Mr. Skolnick has been a court reformer, and since 1963, chairman/founder, Citizen's Committee To Clean Up The Courts. Since 1991, a regular panelist, and since 1995, moderator/producer of BroadSides, a one-hour, weekly, taped, public-access cable TV show, cablecast WITHIN CHICAGO, to some 400,000 viewers each Monday evening, 9 p.m., channel 21 cable TV.

"For a heavy packet of our printed stories, send $5.00 (U.S. funds) plus a stamped, self-addressed BUSINESS-size envelope (#10 envelope, 4-1/8 x 9-1/2) WITH THREE STAMPS ON IT, to: Citizen's Committee To Clean Up The Courts, Sherman H. Skolnick, Chairman, 9800 So. Oglesby Ave., Chicago IL 60617-4870. Office hours: 8 a.m. to midnight, most days, BUT DO NOT BOMBARD THIS LISTED PHONE WITH "JUST ROUTINE" CALLS, PLEASE: (773) 375-5741. For updates of our work, on a recorded phone message, NOT AN EXPENSIVE CALL: (773) 731-1100."

In the following outlay, Sherman fills in a number of interconnecting details concerning longtime shady business dealings of BOTH Presidents Bush and their various cohorts in crime. Is it really just a coincidence how what is good for (their) businesses is "good" for United States foreign and domestic policies?

And nowhere is the answer to that question more obvious than with respect to promoting this latest engineered "terrorism" agenda of the New World Order. It's a win-win situation for ALL the levels of crooks in high places.

Some of the important agenda items are money matters that were first briefly reported in last month's SPECTRUM front-page story. The old rule about following the money trail—in this case including oil and poppies—is as illuminating as always.

And as Sherman gently reminds us about those who exploit a façade of patriotism: "It can be a fatal mistake, a nuking of the Bill Of Rights, not to recognize scoundrels who wrap themselves in the same flag to cover up their crimes against the American common people."

10/22/01 SHERMAN H. SKOLNICK

(email: skolnick@ameritech.net)

(website: www.skolnicksreport.com)

Part One, 9/22/01

Starting after the multiple bombings of the federal office building in Oklahoma City, April 19, 1995, I wrote and then spoke on talk radio about an aborted military coup. Brought home to me, however, was the reality that my fellow Americans had little knowledge or understanding of the masterstroke, the overthrow of government, whether for the good or for evil.

In the past, had we as Americans been clearly informed by the popular press of a putsch, the overthrow of government by violence, by political assassination, such as to benefit domestic or foreign powers? After all, who benefitted from the political assassination of President Abraham Lincoln if not the British and the French who held the means to swoop upon us at the time from their entrenched positions to the south and north of us, in Canada and Mexico.

The British wanted to split apart the nation by aggravating the natural friction between the ideas of the North and the South in America. The French were ready to carve up America as well. Since at least the War of 1812, the British had plotted to take back this continent as a puppet colony with so-called "Americans" again as subjects of the British Crown. (To their credit, Czarist Russia at the time of the War Between The States, or as called, the American Civil War, attempted to aid Lincoln with the Czar's naval fleet coming right offshore the U.S.)

Look what happened in the decades after the murder of Lincoln. President James Garfield was against the British controlling the growing financial power of the U.S. President William McKinley (the Brits hate the Irish) opposed the British trying to strangle the rise of American industrial power. Their political assassinations in the years after that of Lincoln, in its simplest explanation, benefitted British attempts to grab back America.

Seldom, if ever, are these events explained in this way.

The Clinton White House, with prior knowledge, allowed the Oklahoma bombings to occur, to restore his power following the debacle of the 1994 Congressional elections putting a GOP majority to confront him in Congress. And, with Clinton as a marionette, it aided the Establishment in their continuing propaganda to make common Americans helpless to oppose tyranny by disarming them.

Two days before the Oklahoma bloodshed, on April 17, 1995, a plane-load of top military brass were murdered when their sabotaged plane blew up near Alexander City, Alabama. It was a real-life version of [the best-selling book and riveting 1964 movie of a military scheme to overthrow the government] called Seven Days In May.

According to federal grand jurors we interviewed, there was an attempt, later blocked, by a grand jury to investigate this aborted coup. It was actually part of a series of events involving twenty-four Admirals and Generals, some of the most patriotic flag officers in the history of this Republic. They vowed, under the Uniform Military Code, to arrest their Commander-in-Chief, Bill Clinton, for his various acts of treason aiding and abetting sworn enemies of the United States, such as Red China and Iraq. If Clinton had them arrested for mutiny, they were prepared, if not assassinated, to defend themselves with their heavily documented charges of his treachery against the U.S. Constitution and the people of the United States.

Some of the coup plotters, deciding to be out of uniform, took up residence in a Paris suburb. The French CIA, aware of all this, used it to blackmail advantages out of the U.S. government. Such as: to blockade the U.S. Justice Department, itself a highly corrupt entity, from prosecuting some fourteen French nationals, resident in the U.S., who stole U.S. industrial and financial secrets. (The French used similar blackmail threatening to publicize their knowledge of Iran's complicity in the missile attack on TWA Flight 800. Eight top officials of the French CIA, along with some 60 other French nationals, died in the plane that had been scheduled for Paris. A top official, however, of the French CIA at the last minute refused to board Flight 800. The Clinton White House had a secret business/peace deal pending with the Teheran oligarchs which the missile disclosures would have wrecked.)

The purpose of several attempts to pull off a coup was NOT to install a junta (pronounced HOON-tah), that is, an evil military dictatorship. Rather, to restore, by necessary force, the American Republic, which has gone downhill since the overthrow, by the American secret political police, of the U.S. government, by way of the murder in 1963 of President John F. Kennedy.

[Editor's note: Students of actual history would likely argue that the downhill slide of the United States goes back a lot longer than JFK, to about to the time of Abraham Lincoln's 1865 assassination, and certainly was well underway by the time of the 1913 under-the-table creation of the Federal Reserve. But JFK was going to throw out quite a few of the major evils then in operation in our government, mostly behind-the-scenes from the view of the American public, and thus 1963 is indeed a pivotal year in MODERN history.]

In the months and years that followed the Alexander City incident, some ten like-minded Admirals, Generals, and other officials and former officials, were assassinated.

Such as: Admiral Jeremy Boorda, Chief of Naval Operations, the highest naval officer in uniform.

Such as: General David McCloud, head of the Alaska Military District.

Such as: former Director of Central Intelligence (DCI), William Colby.

Our interviews with their family members, relatives, and confidants convince us of the validity of our reports. The monopoly press wrote off their demise as "airplane accidents", "suicide", and "boat accident".

Some of those, hearing me on the radio, wrote to me. I could see, right away, they had no understanding of the subject. One letter stated simply: "Mr. Skolnick, send me your papers on the koo [sic]." Evidently, this subject is not in the usual U.S. history textbooks in the usual high schools and colleges.

(As to the Iraqi connection, visit our website stories, such as "U.S. Government Prior Knowledge of Emergency" and "The Secrets of Timothy McVeigh".)

Because of my analyses of the current emergency, I should, I suppose, expect to be heckled and reviled by some well-meaning but poorly informed fellow Americans.

Notwithstanding the pronouncements of the American secret political police, the FBI and CIA, and the oil-soaked, spy-riddled monopoly press, and the White House, the plot to destroy the American republic is entirely based WITHIN THIS NATION.

It is obviously good and proper to respect the U.S. flag, perpetuated with the blood of American heroes.

On the other hand, it can be a fatal mistake, a nuking of the Bill Of Rights, not to recognize scoundrels who wrap themselves in the same flag to cover up their crimes against the American common people.

In its simplest form, the Persian Gulf War was just the falling-out of former private business partners. I was the only journalist to be in attendance in 1991, at the hearing of a federal court case in Chicago. My exclusive interviews of the participants confirmed why certain bank records had to be concealed, the subject matter of the litigation. They showed the secret private business partnership in the 1980s of George Herbert Walker Bush, President in 1991, and Saddam Hussein, the Iraqi strongman installed by Bush, starting when Bush was head of the secret police in 1976. (My exclusive, highly detailed story ran in a populist newspaper, SPOTLIGHT, August 19, 1991.)

Profoundly corrupt Chicago federal appeals judges put the case out of court and the file has been scattered to the wind. We apparently are the only ones still having the court file. (Visit our website story "The Secrets of Timothy McVeigh" for the name and number of the case and details of the judges.)

The Elder Bush, during the Gulf War, wanted the American public to falsely believe that putting the head of Saddam Hussein on a platter and delivering it to the White House would cure every domestic and foreign problem of the U.S. On July 17, 1993, Saddam Hussein murdered some ten of his top military officers who were plotting, he said, to overthrow him. The Clinton White House, with Bill Clinton as a Bush family crony, had apparently committed treachery in leaking CIA details to Saddam of the plot against him.

Working on investigating both Clinton and Bush as to this treasonous leak, was FBI Director William Sessions, who was unceremoniously sacked on frivolous charges two days later—all to protect the treachery from being disclosed of Bush/Clinton. The very next day, Vincent W. Foster, Jr., Clinton White House Deputy Counsel, who also knew what had happened, was assassinated, with the event clumsily disguised as a "suicide". The aborted plot against Saddam did not become even a watered down version of what happened, in the U.S. monopoly press, until November 1, 1993. (See "U.S. Accused Of Betraying Plot To Kill Iraq's Hussein", Chicago Tribune, 11/1/93.)

In 1991, the Elder Bush, as President, put some half a million Americans in harm's way, by way of Bush instigating a fight over Gulf oil properties with his former business partner, Saddam Hussein. Together, in the 1980s, as known to the participants in the lawsuit mentioned, Saddam and Bush, as business partners, split billions of dollars extorted from the oil-soaked weak sheikdoms of the Persian Gulf. The same as done by gangsters who would extract "protection money" from shopkeepers and tax-cheating auto dealers.

As a sizeable stockholder of a unit of a French firm, American LaFarge, the Elder Bush was implicated in reportedly supplying the ingredients for poison gas to be manufactured by Iraq, to be used against Iraq's domestic dissidents, namely, the Kurds, as well as against the Iranians, during the Iran-Iraq War, 1980 to 1988.

A Director of American LaFarge, naturally, was Hillary Rodham Clinton, wife of the Bush Family pal.

Ten years after 1991, the Elder Bush's son, as "resident" and "occupant" of the White House—installed under highly suspect means—is going to war AGAINST his reputed former business partner, Osama bin Laden.

Like father, like son.

George W. Bush's business partner has been a Houston, Texas businessman, James R. Bath. Together, they owned an oil drilling company, Arbusto Energy. (The son, like his father, likes to name his businesses with Spanish names. The Elder Bush named his firm Zapata Petroleum, later, Zapata Offshore, with 600 units worldwide as outposts for the American CIA, starting as early as 1959. The younger Bush's Arbusto is Spanish for "Bush".)

By and through James R. Bath, George W. Bush has been a business partner, in the tens of millions of dollars, with Osama bin Laden and his father. As an example, Bath had many millions of dollars of dealings with the Elder bin Laden, who was part of the infamous spy/assassination/money laundry scandal of Bank of Credit and Commerce International, BCCI. (See details in The Outlaw Bank—A Wild Ride Into The Secret Heart Of BCCI, by Jonathan Beaty and S.C. Gwynne, Random House, New York, 1993, pages 227-230.)

Notice in our prior story about the Emergency, the details of Osama bin Laden's secret joint accounts (stemming from the George W. Bush/James R. Bath/bin Laden business partnerships) in the Harris Bank, a unit of Bank of Montreal, owned largely by the Bronfman family, who have been the owners of the Seagrams booze cartel, and another major owner of the bank being U.S. Senator Peter Fitzgerald (R-IL).

The U.S. units of Barclays Bank, United Kingdom, have also sought to conceal such reputed joint accounts of Osama bin Laden/James R. Bath/George W. Bush. Who can believe the White House when they say they would freeze Osama bin Laden's accounts if they can find them? Also please notice, in my exclusive story about the Elder Bush/Saddam Hussein business partnership, the banks involved were Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL), owned in part by the Vatican, and its bank twin, BCCI. (See my exclusive story in SPOTLIGHT, 8/19/91.)

So, father and son, ten years apart, George Herbert Walker Bush and George W. Bush, went to war or are going to war against their former business partners. Throughout history, regimes have created an "enemy", as a straw man, and then sent their armies to fight their "enemy". This by way of consolidating their power and diverting attention from their domestic problems, and repressing the poorly informed populace.

From the sarcastic standpoint of those who rule us WITHOUT OUR CONSENT, in violation of the U.S. Constitution, America is becoming too populated for there to be supposedly guaranteed rights. Remember, the Bill Of Rights is heavily packed with the word NO. It is a shield against a tyrannical central government. At the hands, however, of a corrupt and venal federal judiciary and a treasonous central government, and a bought-off and blackmailed Congress, the Bill Of Rights is a worthless, useless piece of paper. The cowardly mass media are mere scribes, writing down what they are dictated.

Under the disguise of leading a religious "crusade" against the Moslem world, every utterance dripping with the word "terrorist", are the ruling elites in the process of overthrowing the American Republic?

Who all benefitted from treasonous prior knowledge of the violence against America on September 11, 2001? Are some flag officers in the U.S. military, with full knowledge of all this, opposed to going to a war instigated by the highest circles WITHIN THE UNITED STATES? More coming. Stay tuned.

Part Two, 10/7/01

Let a candid and vigilant populace consider my pleas and contentions. We ordinary Americans are being led, step by step, down the road to a dictatorship more evil and all-pervasive than that of the late Adolph Hitler and the Nazi Party of the German aristocracy.

The high-level treason that afflicts us cannot be cured or delayed by the alleged "U.S. Government" as now constituted. Within our borders, traitors to the U.S. Constitution and to the Bill Of Rights, and to the American common people, cannot be prosecuted. Without the consent of us, the governed, they are in charge, have been in charge, and will remain in charge, to the bitter collapse of our organic law. With complete impunity, they turn over our most profound industrial, financial, and MILITARY secrets to sworn enemies of the United States of America, such as to Red China and Iraq. (The Bush family and Bill Clinton have done that.)

It is a dire reality that my well-meaning countrymen must now ponder and understand, or fail to do so at their peril.

The overthrow of the American Republic began at least at the time of the political assassination of John F. Kennedy. In violation of their own rules and procedures, the U.S. Secret Service, on behalf of the ruling plutocrats, utterly refused, failed, and neglected to protect Kennedy as President. They knowingly took him in an open car around a hairpin turn into the target sights of paid assassins, firing by military-style triangulation.

No Secret Service agent, contrary to their rules, was there on foot, on duty, to examine and monitor the dangerous slowing down of the Presidential vehicle.

With flimsy excuses, several reputedly venal and for-sale reporters were right there, available in the murder zone, to be later rewarded for false reports, opening the way for their promotion to highly-lucrative TV network status—such as Dan Rather, later CBS Network anchor face, and Robert MacNeil, later PBS co-anchor and co-owner of his own network program with Jim Lehrer. Rather was standing in the shadows of the triple underpass bridge, a few feet from one of the concealed shooters. Rather was the only one on the planet to be able to verify that JFK had been mortally wounded as the Presidential motorcade passed right under Rather's view. MacNeil was in the Book Depository Building and was in a position to see Lee Harvey Oswald and give false data. (According to an FBI document of 11/29/63, the Elder Bush, already then in the CIA, was part of an apparent coverup of the assassination of JFK.)

If they survived, there were numerous eyewitnesses and reliable sources who could have contradicted the false declarations of reporters such as Dan Rather and Robert MacNeil on behalf of the ruling elite, that a "lone assassin" murdered our President. In the wake of the bloody deed in Dallas on November 22, 1963, some 200 eyewitnesses and sources were themselves murdered, snuffing out their possible testimony—their demise a horror-filled death-warrant warning to others available to testify.

Moving to the present time, on behalf of the growing American dictatorship of almost near faceless satraps, a five-person tyranny of the U.S. Supreme Court, sitting as if a junta, with serious conflicts of interest, installed George W. Bush as the "occupant" and "resident" of the American White House. This done, contrary to basic case law precedents and in violation of the Bill Of Rights, it being a near-midnight-deadline ancient-style edict: "Obey our command or be banished from the kingdom."

So even if the complicit members of the American aristocracy were somehow to be apprehended, which historically is highly doubtful, they would suffer no punishment. The federal prosecutors are selected on the basis of being blackmailable and with the implicit understanding that they would go against primarily small fish, no one of any great importance.

Even if traitors were put in custody, federal grand juries and U.S. district court trial juries are carefully screened to eliminate independent-minded persons. The American Gestapo, the FBI, constituting part of the nation's secret political police, in most federal districts, selects the pool from which grand jurors are selected, and hand-pick the venire, likewise the pool, from which trial jurors are chosen.

In Chicago, for example, the supposedly all-seeing FBI selected a known gangster to sit on a federal grand jury for a number of months, corrupting and perverting the process, and he being supposedly part of investigating fellow mobsters. (For example, the Chicago U.S. District Court case of U.S. versus Robert Girardi, not adequately reported by the monopoly press. A watered-down story appeared in the Chicago Tribune, January 21, 1994, titled "Ex-U.S. Grand Jury Member Indicted On Leaking Of Information".)

In its simplest explanation, we went to war in 1991 because George Herbert Walker Bush, then President, was disgruntled against his former private business partner, Saddam Hussein, the Iraqi strongman. (Visit our website story for details, "The Secrets Of Timothy McVeigh".) Hussein was installed in the 1970s, in part because at the time the Elder Bush was head of America's secret police.

Some ten years after 1991, we went to war again because the former head of the secret police's son, George W. Bush, is disgruntled against HIS former business partners, the bin Laden family and their family member Osama bin Laden, falsely described as being on the outs with his family.

Osama was, like Saddam Hussein, created by the American CIA, with the connivance of former Director of Central Intelligence, the Elder Bush, as Vice President and later as President, to engage in a war with the Soviet Union.

The Soviets were worn out by this. This led, in part, to the downfall of the Soviet Union and the Moscow government. Also helping destroy the Soviet Union, to make them now a "friend" of the United States, was the CIA-orchestrated attack on the Russian ruble, which undermined the Soviet's financial validity. (See the book Thieves' World, by Claire Sterling, Simon & Shuster, New York, 1994. Also see our website story "Marc Rich And Others Fingering By A Letter".)

Over the centuries, Afghanistan has been the graveyard of invaders. No prior army ever previously has succeeded against the tunnels, the mountains, the terrain.

The American CIA has been instrumental, in the past, in helping the Afghans finance their way of life—growing poppies and being the supplier of upwards of sixty percent of the heroin to Europe. With a large supply of heroin parked outside Afghanistan, the Afghans are in the works to flood heroin throughout the world AT HALF THE GOING PRICE.

Also, the Afghans resisted Unocal and others of the oil cartel, tied to the Bush family, in putting a natural gas/oil pipeline through Afghanistan to Pakistan and to Red China. The Afghans, in the view of the cartel, have been demanding too large a percentage as their cut for allowing the pipeline project to proceed. Hence, the oil monopoly needs to overthrow the Kabul government, install their own government, and proceed with the pipeline project.

(This is a situation somewhat similar to the British counter-intelligence joint effort with CIA, in 1953, to overthrow the Iran elected government and arbitrarily restore, as a CIA puppet, the Shah to the Peacock Throne. When the Shah became difficult, in 1979 the CIA overthrew him, and installed a British counter-intelligence agent, Ayotollah Khomeini, to rule. George Bush worked a treasonous deal in 1980 to delay the release of 52 U.S. hostages, held by Iran, so as to make Jimmy Carter, running for re-election, appear to be a wimp. This benefitted the Reagan/Bush election campaign. The hostages were released at the very moment Reagan/Bush were inaugurated in January, 1981. This treachery by George Herbert Walker Bush was dubbed part of "The October Surprise".)

British royalty put the Elder Bush into the oil business. (See, for example, The Unauthorized Biography Of George Bush, by Webster Tarpley and Anton Chaiken.) For laundering the proceeds of dope trafficking, oil deals, and weapons smuggling, the Bush family has a joint account with the Queen of England in her private bank, Coutts Bank London. Through that joint account, hundreds of billions of illicit dollars are washed. (See our website series "Greenspan Aids And Bribes Bush" with the Bush family's 25 secret worldwide accounts, together with the secret federal reserve wire transfer records that can be brought up on your screen from our website, showing the hundreds of billions of dollars.)

For almost 40 years, our group, the Citizen's Committee To Clean Up The Courts, has successfully, time and again, fingered corrupt members of the state and federal judiciary. Our firm policy always has been to NEVER divulge eyewitnesses and sources, since the government is incapable of protecting them. As the Chairman/Founder of the group, I take the responsibility of confronting the judges to their face, and have suffered the consequences repeatedly over the decades. The corrupt judges have demanded I divulge methods of investigation, witnesses, and sources, and when I refuse, invoking our policy, they have time and again put me, wheelchair and all, in prison, for contempt of court—a nebulous power that seems to be inherent in their black robes of office.

Most every such judge, having falsely jailed me, later was sent to jail for bribery. An identified crook on the bench is no longer useful. No decent bagman will further bother to bribe them (a funny contradiction of terms). A crooked judge is thrown away like an old shoe, no longer capable of doing as told.

I have always tried to be fair, even to known corrupt judges. I have made it our policy, that I or a close associate in my presence, asks the targeted judge to confess his crimes. I explain that this will save the taxpayers expense in getting rid of the judge by having to put him or her on trial and, after conviction, sending them away. (The biggest judicial bribery scandal in U.S. history, touched off by us, is now the subject of a book, Illinois Justice, by Kenneth Manaster, published September, 2001, by University of Chicago Press. The cover of the book, with my picture on it, is on the www.rense.com Internet website. Click on my name, on the sidebar where columnists are listed.)

Will George Herbert Walker Bush confess his prior knowledge of the violence occurring on September 11, 2001?

Will he admit that HE was running the country from in or near the White House on that tragic day?

What provision, if any, of the U.S. Constitution empowers the Elder Bush to have such a power?

Will the Elder Bush confess openly his private business partnership which went sour with Saddam Hussein, being part of an unpublicized lawsuit in Chicago?

Will his son, George W. Bush, confess his private business partnerships with the bin Laden family, including Osama bin Laden, who is not that much on the outs with his family, reportedly receiving tens of millions of dollars from them secretly?

Will George W. Bush confess that he and his family have a huge financial interest with the oil cartel which wants to overthrow the Kabul government so the Afghanistan oil and natural gas pipeline project can proceed?

Does the secret political police really know who all the hijackers were?

Did they not use fake identification?

Knowledgeable sources contend the violence of September 11, 2001, was part of a bloody internal struggle within the hierarchy in the United States. That it was done through surrogates that may not have known their handlers and patrons in the American aristocracy. More coming. Stay tuned

Part Three, 10/12/01

The Anthrax Commissars

Invoking War Power-like authority, the Younger Bush White House ordered the suppression of certain news under the disguise of plugging up leaks of so-called "military secrets". The details:

For a number of years the State of Michigan, through Michigan State University, owned and operated the Michigan Biologic Products Institute. They had the exclusive contract with the Department of Defense to, among other things, develop and produce an anthrax vaccine.

A strange and mysterious group, in 1998, bought-out the state-owned Institute, calling themselves BIOPORT CORPORATION, and the Department of Defense became its only customer.

"The takeover itself is considered suspicious by some. 'The company acquired the Michigan Biologic Products Institute for the express purpose of taking over and acquiring a lucrative military contract', said a bio-warfare expert who asked not to be named, and accused company officials of 'WAR PROFITEERING'." (Emphasis added.)

The above is quoted from the article "Why Anthrax Vaccine Is Scarce", by Kristen Philipkoski, WIRED NEWS online, 10/10/01.

The story went on to state: "The FDA (Food and Drug Administration) repeatedly flunked BioPort in inspections in 1999 and 2000 because of contamination and suspicious changes made to expiration dates. The agency has barred the company from releasing any of the vaccine as a result." The story went on to assert, as to the company, that an audit by the Pentagon's inspector general in April 2000 revealed that BioPort had spent several million dollars inappropriately, and paid out unsubstantiated consulting costs.

WIRED NEWS further stated: "The anthrax vaccine was the subject of controversy even before it was in such high demand. Approximately 400 soldiers faced reprimands rather than take the vaccine because of side effects that some said were severe."

The Board of Directors of BioPort included Admiral William J. Crowe, Jr., former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and former chairman of the President's FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD. Crowe is a member of the conspiratorial COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (CFR) and chairman of the New World Order group, Senior Advisory Board for GLOBAL OPTIONS. That group included five other CFR members, such as the former Director of Central Intelligence, R. James Woolsey.

The administrations of Jimmy Carter, the Elder Bush, Bill Clinton, and the Younger Bush were and are absolutely riddled with CFR overlords.

The stockholders of BioPort Corporation reportedly include the following:

- The CARLYLE GROUP that includes former cabinet members of the Elder Bush White House and other oil monopolists, such as James A. Baker 3rd, once Secretary of State. Some contend that Baker in part handled the 40 million dollars of secret dope loot that was used to corrupt and influence DEMOCRATS in Florida to stop the ballot recount, even before the U.S. Supreme Court "Gang of Five" got into the picture and installed George W. Bush as the "occupant" and "resident" of the White House. The 40 million dollars was reportedly dope trafficking funds from U.S./Colombia Medellin Dope Cartel Co-Founder Carlos Lehder.

According to outspoken drug enforcement current and former officials, Lehder is the private business partner of the Bush family. Although extradited to the U.S., prosecuted, and sent to a 55-year term in U.S. prison, Lehder has disappeared from the Federal Prison System. Uncovering these details was Chandra Levy. (Visit our website story "The Chandra Levy Affair", Part Two. Also see my various stories on the Year-2000 Presidential election.) The Carlos Lehder matter could put members of the Bush family in long federal prison terms.

The Carlyle Group, headquartered in the nation's capital, specializes in seizing control of shaky aerospace and defense contractors and then strong-arming, some say blackmailing, contracts out of the Department of Defense. An investor in the Carlyle Group has been George Herbert Walker Bush. The Elder Bush has been a paid consultant to the Bin Laden Group, helping them with his CIA links. Bush helped create Osama bin Laden, as an American CIA bought-and-paid-for alleged "terrorist", originally dubbed a "freedom fighter" to wear out the Soviets in their prolonged war, 1979-1989, in Afghanistan.

The monopoly press falsely states that Osama is on the outs with his family, yet his family reportedly funnels tens of millions of dollars to Osama through banks such as Algemene Bank Nederland, now called ABN-AMRO, in part through their American flagship, Chicago-based La Salle National Bank. (We have identified La Salle as also having secret accounts for bribing state and federal judges.) To evade having their own secrets coming out, linked to Osama, the Younger Bush White House flatly refuses to freeze Osama's numerous accounts, wire-transfers, and such through ABN-AMRO.

The Carlyle Group, in turn, is owned and supervised by a worldwide reputed money laundry for World Government, the BLACKSTONE GROUP.

- Another stockholder of BioPort Corp., is the Bin Laden Group, some 24 family members of which were whisked out of the U.S., on "safety" reasons, by the secret political police, the FBI, following the September 11, 2001 events. Through the National Commerce Bank of Saudi, the Bin Laden Group reportedly also funnels large sums to Osama directly and as go-betweens of Saudi moneybags who are anti-American and support Osama bin Laden.

- BioPort Corporation Board Chairman and CEO and a sizeable stockholder, directly and as nominee for Saudi and other Mid-East interests, many reportedly supportive of Osama bin Laden, is FUAD EL-HIBRI.

Under the disguise of invoking national emergency provisions, George W. Bush has ordered National Guard sentries to guard the BioPort facility in Lansing, Michigan. Bush has ordered, under pretext of "national security", that employees and officials of BioPort are forbidden to discuss with reporters, commentators, and researchers, the nature of the ownership of BioPort Corporation. This was done to preclude details of this private corporation from being publicly disclosed.

This presidential edict was quietly put through just prior to the beginning of bombing by the U.S. of Afghanistan. Despite this clamp-down on disclosure, some very patriotic employees of BioPort have informed independent-minded commentators of the reputed ownership and operations details of BioPort Corporation.

As part of an apparent blackmail effort against the Younger Bush White House, the Washington Post began inquiring into some of the ownership and other details mentioned herein about BioPort. Targeted to shut up, by George W. Bush, has been, in particular, Post official Bob Woodward. Having no background in journalism, his stories about Watergate and such were handed to him on a silver platter by the espionage community to depose Nixon, for treason, without resorting to political assassination. Woodward's espionage background is mentioned in the book Silent Coup. See my website story "The Late Grand Dragon Of The Washington Post".

...and the truth shall set you free

David Icke exposes the real story behind global events which shape the future of human existence and the world we leave our children. Fearlessly, he lifts the veil on an astonishing web of interconnected manipulation to reveal that the same few people, secret societies, and organizations control the daily direction of our lives. They engineer the wars, violent revolutions, terrorist outrages, and political assassinations; they control the world market in hard drugs and the media indoctrination machine. Every global negative event of the 20th Century, and earlier, can be traced back to the same Global Elite, and some of the names involved are very well known. Never before has this web, its personnel, and methods been revealed in such a detailed and devastating fashion.

If you don't want your view of life to be transformed, then steer clear of this book.

Icke reveals the esoteric background to the global conspiracy and offers an inspiring spiritual solution in which every man, woman, and child on planet Earth breaks free from the daily programming—the "coup d'état on the human mind"—and takes back their infinite power to think for themselves and decide their own destiny. His words are designed to inspire all of us to be who we really are, to fling open the door of the mental prison we build for ourselves, and to walk into the light of freedom.

Know the TRUTH—
and the TRUTH shall set you FREE!

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Over 500 pages
for only $21.95
(+ S/H)

To unsuccessfully try to block the mass media from heckling him about Watergate, Nixon threatened to prosecute some of the major news outlets for Anti-Trust violations. Similarly, the Younger Bush White House, to deter the press whores from asking real questions about anthrax vaccine and BioPort, is also raising behind-the-scenes threats to prosecute the six major communications empires for monopoly violations.

Being basically blackmailers, the monopoly press is really not ready to scandalize the Bush family on matters mentioned here and in related stories. The British press, however, has expressed an interest in inquiring into BioPort. After all, the Brits relish the idea of wrecking the war-mongering, often criminal American presidency, as a way to destroy the American Republic. Since the War of 1812, the Brits have vowed to somehow take back this continent as puppet colonies and to have so-called "Americans" as mere docile subjects of the British Crown.

(One of the private details the Younger Bush White House is prepared to use to shut-up Bob Woodward on the BioPort and the Anthrax Commissars matter is a subject most usually not to be made into a scandal subject. To some it is either a forbidden topic or laughable. Woodward's first wife, once a secretary to a long-time White House press correspondent, was reportedly divorced from Woodward because Woodward had a vicious private disposition. Snickering commentators from grocery tabloid magazines might call such a husband a "wife beater". Whether or not Bob Woodward is privately brutal, he is most certainly a fraudulent "reporter", and thus it is easy for George W. Bush to pull on Bob Woodward's chain.)

• Rev. Jesse Jackson, Sr., reportedly participates in BioPort's affairs. (Cynics wonder about the firm's convenient address: 3500 N. Martin Luther King, Jr., Blvd., Lansing, Michigan 48906.) In any case, accidental or not, convenient. An accomplished reputed blackmailer and shake-down artist, the Reverend strong-armed his way apparently into the strange anthrax deal. Since private citizens are forbidden by federal statute from negotiating U.S. FOREIGN POLICY, someone in the White House perhaps reminded Jesse to stay out of the Afghanistan matter where he tried to stick-in his nose. Getting a piece of the action is part of Jesse's expertise. (Visit our website story "The Jesse Jackson Affair".)

Poking into the Anthrax Commissars, such as Carlyle Group, the Blackstone Group, the Bush family, Admiral Crowe, and others, might open up many prior tragedies. Before the forming of BioPort, a supposed anthrax vaccine or substance was forced upon the U.S. Military (not the brass) in the Persian Gulf War. Some claim that such a purported "vaccine" did not have FDA approval when given and is, at least in part, responsible for the Gulf War Syndrome.

In a full-scale battlefield war, the Military expects twenty percent casualties. Some 15 thousand GIs died prematurely after the Gulf War ended, and some 85 thousand more are very sick, some terminally so, together with their wives, their children, even their dogs and cats. Of the 500 thousand who served in that war, that means the U.S. has been afflicted with 100 thousand casualties, which the Defense Department covers up or denies, just as if the Gulf War had been a set-piece, typical war of yesteryear.

At the time of this story, we common Americans are beset with statements by the Washington dictators that an anthrax "terror" attack is coming. Are the matters as simple as using uncontrollable fear to promote the business of the Anthrax Commissars, including the Bush family? More coming. Stay tuned.

Part Four, 10/22/01

U.S. Facing Military Disaster?

Because of wartime-like mass media censorship in the U.S., few, if any, dissenting views on Afghanistan are reported by what some call the monopoly press. Some in key places, in fact, do oppose the policies of George Herbert Walker Bush as to the Mid-East. Although his son is the current "occupant" and "resident" of the White House, the Elder

"LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL"
A cable-access television program, with a LIVE audience.
Hosted by Dennis Grover.

VATICAN ASSASSINS II

Guest: Author ERIC JON PHELPS

This is the SECOND compelling one-hour LIVE interview with Eric Jon Phelps, author of the book Vatican Assassins: Wounded In The House Of My Friends. He was also the featured interview in our May 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM newspaper. Eric exposes the dark and diabolical history of the Vatican and much, much more.

See and hear Eric present in his own words more of what his years of astonishing research has brought to light.

NEW!
JUNE 2001
INTERVIEW

1-HOUR VIDEO TAPE $12
(shipping is included with this item)

See next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Bush, as the puppet of the American aristocracy and the oil cartel, appears to be giving the orders.

The Bush family are certainly well aware that, if something goes wrong, they are all subject, suddenly and with scandal commotions, to be thrown away into history's junk-pile. Among those who oppose their policies are some sixty U.S. Admirals and Generals. They do not simply go along with the Establishment parade, awaiting their military retirement and their pensions. (More about them later.)

A growing number of thinking people are becoming aware that the whole September 11, 2001, violence is just another step in making common Americans docile, to the point that the U.S. Bill Of Rights and the U.S. Constitution, could easily, bit by bit, be suspended and the American Republic ENDED.

From the Establishment's standpoint, an ideal happening is that the American commonfolk, beset with orchestrated fear and terror, will absolutely DEMAND that the American organic law be scrapped in favor of SECURITY.

Some of the steps:

1. To consolidate the American secret political police under a Homeland Security Chief to serve at the right hand of the "president" installed himself by highly questionable and controversial means. Not everyone has forgotten December, 2000. The ideas behind this, both mentioned and unmentioned, are similar to the Nazi Gestapo and the Soviet KGB.

(For a federal official to dare mention the word GESTAPO is a removal or death warrant. Some years ago, a more independent-minded California U.S. district judge, a Latino, was hearing evidence in his court as to the bad practices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) and the FBI. After considering the evidence thus elicited, the judge dared pronounce from the bench that these agencies are the American Gestapo. When I first read it in some newspaper, I said: "He is a goner!" Shortly thereafter, the INJUSTICE Department tried in vain to send the judge to prison on frivolous and foolish charges that he had a distant cousin, a mafioso. Scarred and battle-worn, the judge beat back the muzzling efforts, an unsung hero.)

Tom Ridge, the new American Gestapo chief, head of Homeland Security, is tightly aligned with Charles Zogby and his cousin, James Zogby, president of the Arab American Institute, considered by some a militant pro-Arab lobby. Is this part of a route to manipulate Mid-East affairs, enriching and empowering the oil cartel, by putting Arabs against Israelis, and vice versa? Some think so. The British, after all, installed the State of Israel to act as an irritant against the oil-soaked Moslem nations surrounding the tiny nation. Thus keeping such nations perpetually off-balance and subject to Anglo-American oil financial control.

2. The liars and whores of the press continue to escalate the terror scenario against the often poorly informed people. Stories scream out at us: ANTHRAX! Soon to be followed by hollaring: SMALL POX! BUBONIC PLAGUE! BOTULISM! To their credit, some scientists—not those acceptable as paid consultants to the newsmakers—point out the difficulties in using anthrax against large numbers of people all at one time.

The pharmaceutical monopolies, set to heavily profit, see this as a great opportunity. For some time, they have been promoting their prescription-required nostrums on the television, to have those with vague aches and pains disregard medicinal side-effects, and bombard their doctors with demands for such supposed cure-all pills and capsules.

One magazine headlined it: "PRIMETIME PUSHERS. Freed from federal restrictions, pharmaceutical companies are flooding television with ads for prescription drugs. What does it mean for our healthcare when serious medicine is marketed like soap?" Mother Jones magazine, March/April, 2001.

As the article stated in another headline: "Direct-to-consumer advertising has paid off for the drug companies, often turning solid earners into blockbuster drugs." The highly political and corrupt U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has turned loose the airwaves with these pill and capsule factories.

The drug companies, financially interlocked with the television networks and their affiliates, are set to promote their expensive remedies for anthrax and such, just like soap-drugs they already push on us. The drug factories violently oppose those who could produce the same so-called remedies as generic drugs. Also, some contend there are simpler, less expensive, already known ways to combat these poisons.

3. So far, the monopoly press studiously avoids discussing prior knowledge of the Bush White House and others, as to the September 11, 2001 violence. To brainwash youngsters with little knowledge of the debacle at Pearl Harbor, Mickey Mouse came out with a movie omitting the prior knowledge of the Roosevelt White House in allowing us to slip into a World War, first with Japan, and then Germany, now fully documented. We had to go to war with Japan first, so that Germany, who did not want to fight a huge population, industrial giant like the U.S., would feel compelled to declare war on us pursuant to their Axis pact with Japan. Pushing the U.S. falsely into World War Two was to save Great Britain, without the means to fight off Hitler on their own.

Will it take another sixty years from 2001, until Americans, if they still have their Bill Of Rights and U.S. Constitution intact, to accept the prior knowledge of the 911 disaster? Needed to be done: LET THOSE KNOWING ABOUT PRIOR KNOWLEDGE BE HEARD NATIONWIDE, uncensored.

4. Demonizing the CIA-created devil, Osama bin Laden, is the entire focus of the Establishment. America will have permanent happiness and prosperity, they claim, if only Osama's head could be delivered on a platter to the oil-soaked Bush White House. In a similar vein, the Elder Bush White House asserted the same in 1990-1991, in demonizing his former private business partner, Saddam Hussein, the Iraqi strongman originally installed by the American CIA. Like Daddy Bush, George W. Bush has declared war on HIS former private business partner, Osama bin Laden.

5. A growing number of better-informed folks understand that the entire Afghanistan Affair revolves around major oil companies tied to the Bush family, for some years now planning a natural gas/oil pipeline through Afghanistan to Pakistan, Red China, and elsewhere. The Kabul government apparently demanded too high a cut of the action, thus interfering with the pipeline plan.

Remedy? Simple: Find an excuse to try to overthrow, by force, the Kabul government and replace it with one that will NOT question the pipeline deal.

Is the oil-soaked, war-mongering, monopoly press, shackled and hand-cuffed as they are to the American aristocracy, prepared to finger the Bush family as tied to the oil cartel and their Afghanistan pipeline plans?

What the sixty very brave, very patriotic U.S. Admirals and Generals will do (out of some 600 flag officers), while understanding this treason and dissenting from current policies, remains to be seen. Contained in some of our prior stories are the details of the 24 flag officers, as authorized by the Uniform Military Code, who vowed to arrest their Commander-in-Chief, Bill Clinton, for documented charges of treason. As we have written in exclusive prior stories, if Clinton arrested them for mutiny, if they were not assassinated, they intended to defend themselves with documents of his treason with Red China and Iraq jointly with the Elder Bush.

Ten of those original 24 flag officers have been assassinated. Some of their names are in a prior part of this series. What will come of the current 60 such flag officers who apparently oppose George W. Bush? History will tell.

A very high, non-U.S. military officer, extremely well-informed, contends that the U.S. is facing a land-war military disaster in Afghanistan. Obviously, if true, it could bring down the American Central Government, and with it the Bill Of Rights and the U.S. Constitution. The 60 American flag officers agree, and assert that a coup d'état, for the good and not for evil, is absolutely necessary to save the American Republic.

The source asserts that several battalions of Ranger-like U.S. forces were on the ground in Afghanistan. They relied, he contends, on the assistance of the supposed opposition to the Taliban, namely, the Northern Alliance, which either steered them into a trap or knowingly withdrew their guidance at a key moment. Some 250 to 400 U.S. Military were thus slaughtered, according to the well-positioned source. So far, this has not been confirmed by other sources, foreign or domestic. If so, the cover up, the body bags, will not be returned to the U.S., for six months, if ever.

If true, it raises the entire question of land invasion of Afghanistan as being the forerunner of possible U.S. Military disaster. A nation that loses a war soon has their government overthrown, often by evil-doers. The criminal element who took over the Moscow government after the humiliating Soviet defeat in Afghanistan should be clear to most people.

By the way, as we have pointed out, the Russian mafia operates in the United States, like the Red Chinese Secret Police, with complete impunity and immunity from the FBI/CIA. The Russian criminals, such as in Chicago, operate the Red Light District and circulate, without restraint, superior quality counterfeit U.S. and other currencies, as well as using stolen credit cards and identities. Most of the Russian mafia in the U.S. are former KGB officers adept at their ways, and the FBI is frightened of them.

Busy with themselves and their families, and worried about their jobs, the ordinary Americans have to be repeatedly reminded of history. With its terrain, secret tunnels developed over centuries, and mountains, Afghanistan has always been the graveyard of invaders.

Will the American Republic be saved? More coming. Stay tuned.

Part Five, 11/4/01

Disclosures And Financial Crisis?

We were the first, earlier in this series, to mention that the Bush White House flatly refused to freeze accounts of so-called "terrorists" such as Osama bin Laden in ABN-AMRO, the Dutch bank octopus, operating in 15 major U.S. cities, including Chicago.

Why? Simply put, because the secret accounts implicated the Bush family jointly with the so-called "terrorists".

Freezing those accounts, in the billions of dollars, would inevitably lead to disclosures of the huge financial tie-in between the Bush family and the worldwide bin Laden Group business cartel and their relative Osama bin Laden. Although demonized as the head "terrorist" of the world, Osama reportedly does get huge sums, clandestinely transferred, through members of the Saudi royal family, who are secretly, some openly, anti-American.

The reputed transit point? Algemene Bank Nederland, known as ABN-AMRO. And, not everyone accepts as a fact that Osama has been cut off from heavy funding of his family members, 24 top ones having resided in the U.S. until a few days after the September 11, 2001 violence.

The Bush family is tied financially to the Carlyle Group which, in turn, has had Daddy Bush as a heavily paid consultant to the bin Laden Group, and ultimately, to Osama—once described by Daddy and the American CIA as a "freedom fighter" when Osama carried out the Bush/CIA agenda to drive the Soviets into humiliation by stalemating them in the Afghan-Soviet War, 1979-1989. That led, in part, to the downfall of the Soviet Union, to breakaway provinces, also by way of the CIA-orchestrated attack on the Soviet ruble currency.

The oil cartel, headed by Unocal and others, tied to the Bush family, have instigated the whole war with Afghanistan because the Taliban/Kabul government interfered with letting the natural gas/oil pipeline through Afghanistan and then, as planned, on to Pakistan, as a link to energy-hungry India, Red China, and Japan.

[Editor's note: Well, oil is one of the two "material" reasons for the war—the other being the poppy fields of high-cash drugs which the conservative Taliban was working to convert to more respectable crops. Sherman does get around to this important point later in this writing.]

In its simplest form, Osama and the Taliban wanted a bigger cut than they were offered by the oil consortium. Some of the huge joint secret accounts at ABN-AMRO, linking the Bush family to bin Laden Group and Osama bin Laden, are reportedly tied to the Unocal oil consortium. Key officials of the Taliban, now demonized, were honored guests in Texas by Unocal when George W. Bush was Governor. (Details are tucked away in a Chicago Tribune story of 10/21/01, "University Helped U.S. Reach Out To Taliban".)

My story referring to the Bush White House flatly refusing to freeze so-called "terrorist" accounts at ABN-AMRO touched off a furor by being replicated on other websites worldwide. Result? The more independent-minded Internal Affairs unit of the U.S. Treasury Department finally ordered the freezing of those accounts, leading to an analysis of who and what and where.

(The same unit investigated the 25 worldwide secret accounts of the Bush family, used for laundering billions and billions of dollars of illicit funds from dope trafficking and such. See the secret Federal Reserve wire transfer records, transfers authorized by the secret code of Alan Greenspan, attached to our website series "Greenspan Aids And Bribes Bush". Experts examining the records proclaim they are authentic.)

Years ago, the late currency expert, Franz Pik, said that sooner or later, every nation gets into a crunch and has to renounce and repudiate their paper securities. Such as their bonded debt issued by or for their Treasury. Is the U.S. next? Partly a consequence of a White House treason scandal?

U.S. tax collection income has dropped drastically, recession-style. Through their purported fiscal agent, the Federal Reserve (NOT a U.S. government entity, but a private, some say conspiratorial, central bank), the U.S. Treasury may have to repudiate ALL U.S. Treasury securities—an unthinkable calamity.

Nevertheless, the Treasury is proceeding toward that wreckage. They have announced, about the time of the ABN-AMRO freeze, that they will no longer issue long-term U.S. Bonds, called 30-year Treasury Bonds. When the present ones come due, they will not be, as in the past, subject to optional roll-over into another long-term issue. Senior citizens, pension funds, and banks and such, that rely on the coupon interest of such bonds, will be cut off.

U.S. Treasury securities are part of the capital structure of banks. Several money-center banks have capital way below the minimum (some below zero) approximately three cents of the fractional reserve dollar required by federal regulators. Included in this insolvent category is Bank of America, owned principally nowadays by the Japanese mafia, the Yakuza, and the older group of owners being the French Rothschilds and the Jesuits. Also apparently insolvent is Bank One, formerly known as First National Bank of Chicago, dominated by the Rockefellers. (See the background of the Rockefeller Banks and the human body parts business and other bloody work, in our website series "The Red Chinese Secret Police In The United States".)

Another apparently insolvent bank octopus is First Union. It is little-known that it is tied to the scandal-ridden Lippo Group, ethnic Chinese and the Red Chinese Secret Police. Do you remember First Union's surrealistic television ads showing a weird blizzard of papers and people flying down Wall Street, and then one of them falls down and, like a mannequin, disintegrates? (Sort of like what happened in Lower Manhattan on September 11, 2001?)

By stopping the issuance of 30-year Bonds, the Treasury has only temporarily boosted the price, on the market, of such bonds, thus artificially, for the moment, pumping up such failing banks as to their capital structure.

Will they next renounce and repudiate U.S. Treasury securities, such as Bills, which are short-term, and Notes, which are mid-term, like five-year maturity?

By halting the issuance of U.S. Treasury long-term bonds, the U.S. government is going to have to squeeze big money out of their former enemy, Germany, to finance the U.S. recession-created debt. The budget surplus has apparently disappeared in a puff of financial smoke. As some historians point out, a nation that loses a war soon is swept into the junk-pile and overthrown. Do we have to be reminded that we could not conquer Viet Nam, populated by a fiercely historic people? We were the ones who lost the war and departed—some say humiliated.

Outspoken activist Dick Gregory once mentioned that it cost the U.S. half a million dollars for every Viet Nameese we slaughtered. It would have been cheaper, he claimed, to pay them all to leave their country and the U.S. pave it over with green cement, to match the jungle.

Some contend a perverted, certifiably crazy, satanic-dominated element in the American aristocracy has created the terror syndrome now gripping America and falsely blamed by the press whores on Moslems. If this is some kind of latter day religious crusade, supposedly "Christians" versus Moslems, have the Establishment pundits forgotten the bloody history of such movements?

Some rightfully contend that the anthrax, courtesy of the U.S. aristocracy, is actually supplied from U.S. military and other government storage. And others assert, with scientific supporting details, that the supposedly suicidal commercial airplanes of the 9/11/01 tragedy were actually computer-controlled from the ground and the supposed on-board "kamikaze" Moslems thought it was just a routine hostage flight, not a suicide mission. (As to the ground-based computers used to override the airplane on-board computers, put the term "GLOBAL HAWK" into a web search engine.)

The White House and the U.S. government may be swept away in treachery at the highest level, stemming from disclosures resulting from freezing so-called "terrorist" accounts in banks like ABN-AMRO. Also tied in, the Red Chinese Secret Police, the Chicago markets, such as the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, reportedly handling so-called "terrorist" funds and put options with a prior knowledge of the 9/11/01 violence.

The foreign press relishes attacking the highly-vulnerable Bush family administration implicated in oil-soaked and dope-linked laundering. Siding supposedly with the Northern Alliance, the White House would like to avoid mentioning that this supposed dissident group in Afghanistan are in charge of the vast dope trafficking to Europe. U.S. soldiers are going to die to safeguard major dope traffickers?

Are common Americans facing a financial crisis brought on by disclosures of treachery and the so-called U.S. dollar no longer backed and supported, directly or indirectly, by U.S. Treasury securities? And after U.S. Treasury Bonds are scrapped, is the next to be thrown away going to be the organic law, the Bill Of Rights and the U.S. Constitution?

All this is a study of the American Establishment and their treason. Stay tuned.

PROPHECIES OF THE PRESIDENTS: THE SPIRITUAL DESTINY OF AMERICA REVEALED

BY TIM BECKLEY

The future of America seen through the eyes of prophecy. Chapters include: The origin of the Great Seal of the United States • Our psychic presidents (including: Lincoln, Washington, Kennedy) • The coming Polar Shift and America's destiny • The reincarnation of Atlantis • America's great curses • Secret Government—who is really in control? • Space visitors watch over America • All presidents since Eisenhower are said to have met with ETs on American soil.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$12.50(+S/H)

More Potent Reasons For Destroying WTC

Editor's note: After last month's lengthy front-page story in this newspaper, you'd think most of the plausible reasons motivating the tragic destruction of the World Trade Center towers had been covered. And perhaps that holds true from the perspective of the Larger Picture.

However, there certainly remain many unanswered questions at the level of details to be uncovered as to who all was involved in the larger conspiracy and what might have been some of the personal motivations driving the various "interested" parties to carry out such evil deeds.

What follows are excerpts from a much lengthier discussion that fills-in some missing facts and clues you may not have heard about yet. What's intriguing about both the data and the conjectures this author makes is how well these seemingly "smaller" matters mesh with the more global agenda being carried out by many of the same New World Order puppets.

What unfolds here suggests several layers of careful planning to maximize advantage and minimize revelation of the TRUE culprits. But as Lieutenant Columbo used to demonstrate on his popular 1970s TV detective show, the egos of the perpe-traitors always eventually get in the way of pulling off the "perfect" crime! And thus The Truth is slowly making itself known.

What percentage of the public do you think is REALLY ready to accept The Truth? Regardless, we're long overdue for a serious wake-up call like this!

10/26/01 DICK EASTMAN
(eastman@wolfenet.com)

The evidence that the destruction of the WTC was to destroy evidence contained on the 23rd and 24th floors of the North Tower is now incontrovertible. This message is the first revelation of the evidence that makes this conclusion a certainty. As yet no one has contacted any authorities with this information. (I want to make sure it is well in the public sphere before I show up at the FBI office here in Yakima.) — Dick Eastman, 223 S. 64th Avenue, Yakima, Washington

I ask you to provide me with lists of names I can contact in government and elsewhere around the world. I also ask you to work through your own avenues to get to any officials or law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction in this case. A war and the greatest crime in history are involved, and many of the people responsible are standing in the way of justice.

Here is evidence supplied by the Head of Security of the WTC on network television indicating that the FBI floors (the 22nd, 23rd and 24th floors) of the North Tower—70 floors below the crashbombing impact—had been devastated and reduced to debris, that this same Head of Security himself dug through to get to trapped persons (whom he saved).

But it was on these floors that the entire accumulation of evidence and investigation briefs on two highly important cases were being stored:

1. the case against Mobil Oil and James Giffen on illegal oil swaps between Iran and Kazakhstan (at that time before a New York grand jury as described in great detail by Seymore Hersh in the July 9 New Yorker magazine);

2. and even more important, the evidence in the investigation of GOLD PRICE FIXING stemming from charges brought against Alan Greenspan, Morgan & Co., Goldman Sachs.

(See below for full reconstruction of this crime—that is now all but confirmed by this revelation of a bomb devastating the FBI floors of the north tower BEFORE the tower collapsed.)

At noon I received a phone call from New England from Steve. He was reviewing recorded footage of coverage of the destruction of the WTC on NBC's program 48 Hours. Steve has reviewed the footage many times and taken detailed notes.

I took notes at my computer as he spoke. After the south tower collapsed, men went up to the 22nd floor of the WTC and "dug" someone out of the "rubble" he found there. It is known that these floors contained the New York FBI offices; Peter Jennings actually did a two-day network news story on the effects of the destroyed evidence and files on American financial crime investigations around the world.

The 48 Hours anchor was interviewing the Head of Security of the WTC about the evacuation, who had received a call, after the south tower was down, from the Port Authority's Command Center on the 22nd floor, asking for rescue. The Head of Security himself traveled to that floor, in the company of a N.Y. fireman, where they found the offices devastated to the point where they had to "tunnel through debris" to "dig out" the two or three Port Authority workers who were trapped there. All of this happened 73 floors below crashbombing impact.

The man who called me about this—Steve from Maine—said that he had received a copy detailing the evidence for a terror frame-up from one of the hundreds of people I pester with my posts each day (whose name I recall from my address book), and that he had been reviewing three lists of occupants of the WTC.

He gave the sites for two different listings of WTC tower occupants, which I copied as follows:

- tenants by floor and square footage: <www.cnn.com/special/2001/trade.center/tenants1.html>; and

- occupation by tenancy: <www.washingtonpost.com/wp-srv/nation/article/tower1.html>.

He noticed from these that listings were given for all floors EXCEPT floors 23 and 24, immediately above the location of the call for "digging out" rescue—indicating that the debris had fallen down from a destructive event occurring on the floor directly above.

Steve left off with this statement (which I am not able now to confirm or disconfirm): "The Murrah Building in Oklahoma City was where all of the records of the Waco Siege were being kept. I think this is their MO." Meaning their modus operandi—i.e., their distinctive pattern of crime.

Here is the post that prompted Steve's phone call:

Below I present what I think are incontrovertible reasons for concluding that the WTC/Pentagon crashbombings were a frame-up designed to benefit members of, at least, these four groups:

1. people profiting from the opium trade of the Northern Alliance druglords and the money-laundering through global investment channels that the opium trade and the derivative heroin trade supports;
2. people seeking control of the $6 trillion worth of oil and natural gas in Central Asia;
3. people seeking to win back support to increasingly unpopular Sharonist policies in Israel; and
4. people arraigned before a grand jury on charges of fixing gold prices, illegal involvement in oil swaps between Kazakhstan and (sanctioned) Iran, and bribery in cases where all incriminating documentary evidence was stored in FBI files and data banks in one of the twin towers of the WTC.

All four of these groups have fluid secret channels of communication through networked integration of banking, politics, the CIA, and Mossad connections. The fact is, if one of these groups was complicit, the other three would have to be also.

Here are three independently developed arguments:

Best guess origins of the WTC/Pentagon crashbombing frame-up.

Mossad and the CIA were supporting traffic in Afghan opium-derived heroin—devoting public resources to protect and assist the suppliers and distributors of the multi-trillion-dollar money-laundered drug revenue deposits backing the global investments of American and British elite finance.

The Afghan Northern Alliance druglords grow 70 to 90 percent of the world's opium, the prime ingredient of heroin. The opium, which is moved across the small China-Afghan border for processing and distribution by the giant People's Liberation Army—that amazing transnational corporation, Triad drug cartel, and super military establishment all in one.

Against the tremendous-stakes interests of this giant outlaw network, the morally conservative Taliban had been eradicating Afghan opium production, suppressing supply to druglords and the drug-revenue-flow money-laundering establishment bankers and global investors alike.

This "crisis" became the initial motivation of a renegade group of CIA and/or Mossad in seeking ways to defeat Afghanistan's Talibanist government. (Nothing absurd so far, right?)

Next, the Russian and Kazakh mafias have criminal ties to U.S. executive James Giffen in Kazakhstan—a man under investigation by a New York grand jury in the months before September 11 for illegal involvement in an oil swap between Kazakhstan and (sanctioned) Iran. (Source: See the August 9 New Yorker magazine for a full account of this by Seymore Hersh.) All of the evidence for this crime was being kept at the WTC on the 20th through 25th floors of one of the twin towers where the FBI had its New York Offices. And James Giffen is the key man everyone has to go through to get any oil agreement with Kazakhstan—including any pipelines built that would traverse Afghanistan.

(There is $6 trillion dollars worth of oil and gas in Central Asia.)

Giffen certainly understood—if he did not originate the idea—that if he could get operatives (even "captured" vengeful Islamic activists whose rage could be shaped and directed to use "terror") to destroy the FBI offices in the WTC building and the documentation evidence it contained, then he would escape grand jury indictment—and, as a powerful added benefit, the (framed) Taliban would get replaced with a regime in Afghanistan that would permit a pipeline to be built—preferably a Northern Alliance druglord government that would harmonize with Giffen's own unethical (murderous) entrepreneurial style. (See the New Yorker article for details of Giffen's history.)

So far, this super crime scheme involves only a small group of people—Russian Mafia and perhaps a Giffen-renegade CIA or a Giffen "darkside" Mossad link. But other, even more powerful players may have had involvement. Certainly they stood to gain tremendously if the crashbomb frame-up were successfully accomplished.

Prior to September 11, Alan Greenspan, Goldman Sachs, Morgan & Co. and other powerful American financial figures and institutions had charges brought against them—reportedly a very well documented case—over the FIXING OF GOLD PRICES, with evidence for that case also stored by the FBI on the FBI floors of the WTC!

[Editor's note: The evidence for gold price fixing is a very important subject we have covered many times in the pages of The SPECTRUM. The point is basically to keep the price of gold artificially low. As the economy continues its downward spiral—despite all the "expert" lies to the contrary—this, among other things, hurts the little guy and vastly helps the financial positions of the super-rich elite controllers, as usual. Recognize that Greenspan and others in this game are merely dutiful puppets carrying out the instructions of their well-hidden, elite-misfit bosses.]

These parties would not only profit heavily from the “carrot” of both oil and drug monies circulating through their great financial institutions, but they also would gain from avoiding the “stick” of one of the most threatening lawsuits ever to confront the U.S. financial establishment. (Realize what a guilty verdict in this case would mean to these leading financial families and to the Establishment in general!) These parties would welcome predictable and certainly substantial benefits from the destruction of the evidence in the WTC and of some of the witnesses and researchers on the case as well.

Notice that, so far, we have powerful men with powerful incentives who characteristically operate in secret and under the protection of wealth, status, and power. The carrot is $2 trillion in annual drug revenues funnelled through the banking system, which has funded much of the proceeds to fund the development of the Princeling Triad dictatorship in China. (The communist government has been in the opium business since the 1930s. Mao pioneered the model later followed by Peru’s Shining Path and Colombia’s Maoist F.A.R.C. narco-terrorists. And Zhou Enlai devised the plan in the 1950s of weakening American society through a drug invasion.)

“China white” heroin, distributed by the People’s Liberation Army, made from Afghan opium, links all banker and oilman to the corrupt and renegade secret state agencies, CIA, FBI, and Mossad. Renegade agents of either agency may have seen this opportunity for mutual gain and found the way—having profiles of each of the players—to propose the crashbombing frame-up as the best “solution” to each of the players’ most troublesome problems, while making enormous profits besides.

Note that the Bushs are tied to both the CIA and oil and through Mena Arkansas drug smuggling and through the Iran-Contra drugs and arms deals, etc.

(Drugworld investigator Daniel Hopsicker, as well as Noam Chomsky and many others, have exposed this thoroughly—at least in the broad strokes necessary to support this reconstruction of the crime. The facts of the drug connections are known to everyone from the Russians, to the John Birchers, to WIRED magazine, Harper’s, the New Yorker, the Village Voice, the Nation, and Rolling Stone magazine—all having explored the drug-Establishment connections in great detail.)

Which brings us to Ariel Sharon. His hard-headed policy of retaliation, regardless of “collateral damage”, and his provocation at the mosque cost him dearly in world opinion. In fact, the Bush administration was very close to initiating a major policy shift—obviously known to Sharon from the greatest intelligence organization in the world.

Bush was planning the recognition/sponsorship of a separate Palestinian state. [Editor’s note: Actually, the usual dance our U.S. government does, whenever Israel is about to do something really aggressive, is to pretend to distance ourselves from Israel. It’s always for show and simply a public relations maneuver to minimize the appearance of complicity. As usual, the spin doctors project the opposite of the truth of the matter.] Also, war crimes charges had been brought against Sharon in international court, further putting his hard-line policy against the Palestinians in unfavorable light.

Mindful of Ariel Sharon’s self-made hard spot, it is entirely possible that the same CIA or Mossad mastermind, who thought of the crashbombing frame-up plan in the first place, decided to take the risk of telling Sharon on the plan, offering it as a solution to the trapped old “freedom fighter’s” problems as well.

If the U.S. could be made to think that the hated Osama bin Laden—that Islamic fundamentalism itself—is responsible for destroying the twin towers of the WTC and the American government itself, then, Sharon would certainly grasp, American opinion would radically swing to an extremely hard line against all Moslem and Arab entities not securely under their thumb, and most particularly, from Sharon’s viewpoint, against Palestinians.

[Editor’s note: Go back and re-read what Eric Phelps said in the front-page story of last month’s SPECTRUM. Viewed from a higher level than this author is apparently aware of, what this author suggests is a typical plan for the Jesuit instigators to employ against Moslem nations—utilizing Israeli dupes, as usual. It’s an efficient and dependable method for exterminating BOTH enemies of the Vatican world power agenda—which, in turn, assists the still larger New World Order development agenda.]

No profile of Sharon gives any indication that he would not close on such a deal, such a serving of his “higher” good, his prime directive.

And that is all that was needed to carry off this operation.

The getting and conditioning/deceiving of hijackers is an easy affair.

The Mossad has infiltrated bin Laden’s forces in Central Asia and the Mideast. But it is a radically decentralized organization (as it must be to remain viable), and so it was an easy matter for this “darkside” Mossad, with Sharon’s clandestine approval, to trick some very angry and vengeful Arabs into thinking they were doing bin Laden’s work, or that of other anti-Zionist or anti-Globalization radicals, to agree to hijack the four planes.

Millions in the world hated America and the globalization that the World Trade Center represents. These recruited hijackers need not have been Arabs. There are Croats, Serbs, Latin Americans, and Iranians, and any number of other victim-pool people who could have volunteered to conduct the hijacking—possibly without fully understanding the end result of the mission. They need not have “signed on” for a suicide bombing.

(Many aviation experts on the Internet are describing a system built into commercial airliners for taking over control of flight from the ground, a system developed to combat terrorism. It is possible that the course of the plane’s flight was taken over by this system installed to thwart hijackers, as detailed in several reports on the web.)

But if the crashes were not effected in this way, psychological-control methods, wholly sufficient for the job, were also available. The technology of behavior control is further advanced than the popular press has made people aware. Skilled psyop agents can get subjects angry enough and convinced enough of the justice and good effects of “acts” represented as serving their “cause” to be willing to undertake even suicidal missions. (Activist Alan Yu has researched this technology, as have other researchers from a broad spectrum of political orientations.)

And this is all that is needed to conduct the “terrorist” act.

But then what?

When the crashes take place, word merely has to be put out by those involved—the CIA, Mossad, Sharon, and those complicit in the Bush Administration (based on his behavior, my money is on Paul Wolfowitz)—to push the theme that bin Laden was responsible and that this aggressive war to overthrow the Taliban is the only immediate appropriate reaction since, the spin goes, the Afghans are responsible for “harboring” bin Laden, and that “harboring is exactly the same as terrorism”, and for that reason the entire Afghan government must be terminated (must be “ended as a state” to use Wolfowitz’s revealing phrasing of September 12).

The frame-up has all sorts of collateral benefits for the perpetrators. Now the perpetrators can tell the unsuspecting that bin Laden’s guilt has been established beyond doubt, that for the sake of the security and safety of Israel and the United States it is necessary that the impression of an “open and shut case” must be spun. The news media is exhorted to be patriotic and exemplary “wartime correspondents” and sets about selling the blaming of bin Laden and advocating war and overthrow in Afghanistan, because they have been deceitfully led to believe they really know who bombed the buildings; and among the elite of the news publishers, they “know” it is in the best interests of Israel and Wall Street that this be the response, that this be the spin.

And Mr. Bush and Mr. Blair each benefit enormously, politically.

And trillions of dollars are enough to subdue and suppress criticism of the investigation. After all, who would know better than the CIA and Mossad exactly who is responsible?

The fact has been reported—in a different context, of course—that the U.S. intelligence receives all of its ground intelligence from Central Asia through the Mossad’s network of infiltrator spies; in other words, whatever “proofs” the U.S. has—and has shown Tony Blair and NATO—has come exclusively through Sharon via Mossad. The “evidence” so-called, thus, is no counterweight to this reconstruction of the crime. The “evidence” comes exclusively from the prime “frame-up” suspect.

Has Mossad done this kind of thing before? Remember the USS Liberty, an American ship with flag flying, deliberately attacked and sunk (in multiple attack waves) with efforts to kill every sailor aboard—either to destroy information that the ship may have intercepted or to frame Arab states to gain the support of American public opinion. There are other cases involving the blowing up of a disco dance nightclub—again to frame targeted enemies—a case actually brought to light by the non-renegade “good side” Mossad.

The cover-up apparently has unlimited resources. Two Mossad men, caught red handed days after the WTC crash-bombings, were carrying explosive charges and detonation controls in the government chambers of the Mexican legislature. Apparently big bribes have been, because these men have been set free.

One surmises that appeals are made to the bogeyman of a “destabilizing international crisis” if the truth were to get out. This is an ancient cloak of the deviant ruling elites.

How many readers—even if they strongly suspect that this reconstruction fits the facts—would not deny the conclusion anyway because of fear of what this fact would do to Israel’s reputation and thus to her security and survival?

Yet this view may be wrong. If Israelis on the “good side” were to arrest Sharon and chase down the renegades of the Mossad “dark side” and bring them to justice, tensions in the Mideast would dissolve and good-faith be restored—good faith that will never return to the world as long as the greatest terror frame-up in history is not corrected by justice and the truth.

Also, if this reconstruction is valid, then that certainly raises the likelihood that Ariel Sharon was also the man who gave the order for the murder of Yhitzak Rabin, Israel’s greatest peacemaker—if that title does not go to Begin for his treaty with Sadat.

Conviction of Sharon would mean that the warmongering, “take no prisoners” school of Zionism would at last be discredited, and that the humanitarian way of Rabin could again be given another chance—with the Palestinians gaining restored faith in Israel to be fair and just after seeing Sharon removed and brought to justice.

I know that at this point you are poised to throw the usual tomatoes and call me a “loon” and a “Nazi”—but I know that those who call me those names are themselves fearful that this analysis may be right. (And I forgive you in advance for having to throw those tomatoes out of loyalty and not knowing what else to do in your uncertainty.)

It is a rotten world all around, but my advice is to seek the truth wherever it leads, and then to enforce justice—justice against the REAL authors of the September 11 terror, whoever they may be—to go after Sharon, perhaps, just as strenuously as you were recently ready to hunt down bin Laden.

And, of course, the United States needs a similar housecleaning of its topmost shelves of power and influence—a job that we have been putting off since the 1870s. (How the entire world will benefit from that job!)

And I should make this clearer: The media are not silent because they are complicit in the terror; they are silent because they are “yes men” who “know where their bread is buttered” and they are not about to jump up and say, for instance, “Sharon did it” until they see others in their positions doing so. This is consistent with today’s “Dilbert” world of Establishment-monopolized organizations. Only an Earth-shaking event, like the exposing of the Establishment’s role in the WTC terror, will shake down this system.

“A society of sheep must in time beget a government of wolves.”
— Unknown

Order Back Issues Of The SPECTRUM

Vol. 1, #1 June 1, 1999
Premier Issue • HATONN: Learning To Act In Oneness With All Of Creation • Genocide With A Capital “G”, Dr. Len Horowitz • Benzene And Other Poisons In Our Food Supply • Money & Secret Powers • New Menace Is Stalking Europe: It’s The U.S. • What’s Happening In Yugoslavia? • What Has Happened Since The CONTACT Lock-Out? • SOLTEC: Growth Comes From Understanding Of Truth, • EL MORYA: Recognizing Value In ALL Of Life’s Challenges

Vol. 1, #2 July 6, 1999 XEROX COPY SPECIAL ORDER
Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse Dr. Len Horowitz • SANANDA: It Is Your Life And Your Responsibility • Native American Perspectives: The Wisdom Of Rolling Thunder • Untangling The Web: Hidden History Paints Revealing Picture • SOLTEC: Making Good Use Of This “Quickening” Environment • SOLTEC: Watch The Clues, Both Near And Far • SANAT KUMARA: Will You Blossom Or Burn Out? • The “Soy Toxin Team” Story • SOLTEC: Turning Clues Into Wisdom Through Insight • SANANDA: True Abundance Comes From Walking The Spiritual Path • The Illuminati Millennium Rituals

Vol. 1, #3 August 3, 1999 XEROX COPY SPECIAL ORDER
Are Their Aliens Among Us? The Biggest Secret David Icke • Native American Perspectives: Remembering Who We Are • SOLTEC: Each New Day Is A Miracle Of Opportunities • SOLTEC: Choices Are Central To The Creative Process • Have We Been Gifted With Waters To Heal A Sick Planet? • Data On The JFK, Jr. Crash • HATONN: Recognizing YOUR Purpose Helps The Larger Plan • Two Millennia Of Prophecy Collected Together

Vol. 1, #4 September 7, 1999
Is Edgar Cayce Back? An Interview With David Wilcock • Native American Perspectives: The Native Ways And Teachings • “Better” Living Through Chemistry—Prozac: Panacea Or Pandora? • GERMAIN: The Power Of Truth In A World Of Lies • Oracle’s Messages About Parasites • Introductory Essay On The Wilcock-Cayce-Ra Connection & The “Mission” • Some Excerpts From Convergence • SANANDA: Clear The Weeds From Your Wheat • As Planetary Frequency Upshifts, Are You Going Through “The Change”? • Waco And The New World Order: The Astonishing Connections • ATON: Recognize Your Vast Spiritual Heritage

Vol. 1, #5 October 5, 1999
Great Zulu Shaman Credo Mutwa • SOLTEC: Navigating The Road Of Frequency Increase • Sunspot Cycles: Their Profound Effect On Man & Earth • Essiac: A Natural Herbal Cancer Therapy • SOLTEC: Geophysical Clues About These Times Of Cleansing • Plate Tectonics: A Lesson On Earth’s Outer Structure • Native American Perspectives: The Women And The Chiefs • GERMAIN: Learn To Sense & Embrace Big Changes Coming Fast • HATONN: Discerning For Yourself The “Reality” Of Hatonn • Parasite Elimination: A Must For Good Health

Vol. 1, #6 November 2, 1999
The Mayan Calendar • The Horse Whisperer: An Interview With Monty Roberts • Native American Perspectives: The Elders, Medicine People, And Warriors • SOLTEC: From The Caterpillar To The Butterfly • A Remarkable Glimpse Of Egyptian History • HATONN: On “Reptilian” Shape-Shifting And The Hatonn-Ra Connection • Magnets And Solar Panels

Vol. 1, #7 December 7, 1999
An Interview With Robert Ghost Wolf • Native American Perspectives: Indian Prayers, Visions, and Native Ways • SANAT KUMARA: You Are The Miracle You Are Searching For! • Red Tide: The Chinese Communist Targeting Of America • Blindness, Mad Cow Disease, And “Canola” Oil • EgyptAir Flight 990: Astonishing News The Media Hides • HATONN: Reach Out And Touch Someone • Get Well! How To Create Powerful Health • SOLTEC: We Are All Both Teacher And Student

Vol. 1, #8 January 4, 2000
Dr. Len Horowitz’s Healing Celebration Remedy • Harvard Speech By Charlton Heston: Winning The Cultural War • The Unnerving Truth About Mind Control “Forewarned Is Forearmed” • RA: Knowing Our Karmic Past May Help Us Understand The Present • The Mechanism Behind An Upcoming Major Global Economic Crisis • HATONN: What Are Some Clues For Truly Finding Your Purpose? • On The Rev. Jesse Jackson And His Role In The Murder Of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Part I • GERMAIN: Forgiveness Is The Key To Transformation • Prophecy: Warriors Of The Rainbow

Vol. 1, #9 February 1, 2000
What If Everything You Thought You Knew About AIDS Was Wrong? Christine Maggiore • SOLTEC: Finding Your Natural State Of Inner Energy Balance • Colloidal Silver Healing Legacy • Big Brother Internet: Nameless & Faceless In Cyberspace • Remember To Look At The View • Native American Perspectives: Facing Our Destiny • HILARION: Letting Grow By Letting Go • When Disclosure Serves Secrecy

Vol. 1, #10 March 7, 2000
Indigo Children: An Interview With Jan Tober • Purposeful Con-fusion Surrounding Cold Fusion • Vaccination: An UnGodly Practice, Dr. Len Horowitz • The Ritalin Generation: Drugging America’s Youth • MSG: The Deadly Mouth Aphrodisiac • Native American Perspectives: Toward Sovereign Indian Nations • SOLTEC/HATONN: Glimpses Of The Truth Behind Your Shadow World • A Fancy Trail Of Money Laundering By Greenspan, Bush & The Twiglets

Vol. 1, #11 April 4, 2000
Sound Healing: An Interview with Jonathan Goldman • Legal Help When Laws Go Wild: Justice Team One • The Lever That Moves The World • So You Want To Plant A Garden? • Silverlon®: Medical Applications • Money Laundering Part II: Introducing Still More Crooks • SOLTEC: That “Secret” Something We All Are Searching For • HILARION: Understanding Your Bio-Electric Sensing Machine

Vol. 1, #12 May 2, 2000
The Most Powerful Man In The World? The “Black” Pope • Vatican Bank Sued For Alleged War Crimes • GERMAIN & SANANDA: The Time Has Come To Awaken From Your Dream! • Does Elian Gonzales Case Bring Out The “Best” In Clinton’s Criminal Regime? • The “Bio-Electrical Cleansing” Research Of Dr. Robert Beck • Sacred White Buffalo Murdered

Vol. 2, #1 June 6, 2000 XEROX COPY SPECIAL ORDER
A Talk With The Ishaya Monks: Powerful, Ancient Teaching Held For This Historic Cycle • HATONN: Staying The Course Despite Rough Seas • The Curious Case Of Dave Overton’s Gold And The Phoenix Institute • Chemtrails: Did An Airline Mechanic Stumble Upon The Truth? “Project Cloverleaf” • SOLTEC: Learn To Balance In The “Now” • Exposing The Truth About “Holy” Sathya Sai Baba

Vol. 2, #2 July 4, 2000
Ticking Time-Bomb Prozac • SOLTEC: Are You Ready For All That May Cross Your Path? • Revealing Article About Phoenix Institute Directors: Paying Back What Debt? • Are Fed & Treasury Manipulating Gold For Gain Of Few? • Most Profitable Industry In America? Our Prison Systems! • “The Boys” Of Chicago: Law Bought & Sold For Bargain Prices • More Information About Chemtrails Mystery “Poison Cobwebs From Hell” • SANANDA: I Hear Your Call, Do You Hear Mine? • American Death Camps

Vol. 2, #3 August 1, 2000
Ramtha’s School Of “Enlightenment”? • Full-Page USA TODAY Ad On Illegality Of Income Tax • FDA Boosts PMS Insanity With Prozac In Disguise • HATONN: Compassion Along The Lighted Path Of Creation • FDA-Postal Raid On “The Phoenix Group” • HAARP’s Covert Agendas: • SOLTEC: Breaking The Grip Of Often Subtle Mind-Control • How The Sheep Are Led: A “Pretend” Speech On Population Reduction

Vol. 2, #4 September 5, 2000
FEMA: Bizarre Wildfires Expose Sinister Agenda • GERMAIN: Remaining Flexible In These Times Of Great Change • Fishy CIA Link To Malathion Spraying For West Nile Virus • Killer Music: Mind Control’s Subtle Drug • With No Obligation To Educate, Schools Turn To Thought Control • HATONN: How To Make This Cleansing Cycle Work For You • Robert Ghost Wolf, Beyond The Veil: Visions For A New World

Vol. 2, #5 October 3, 2000
Montauk Project’s Wild Ride Through History • CAFRs: The $60 Trillion Secret • SOLTEC: Awakening To The Miracle • Stop Ritalin! 2.5 Million Children Across The Nation Are Given “Cocaine” By Their Parents And Doctors • The Homosexual Agenda That Is Invading Our Schools • HATONN: On Health, Helping, And World Politics • Update On FEMA Report • Tavistock: The Best Kept Secret In America • Does “Global Governance” By UN Really Mean “One World Order”? • GERMAIN: You Can Accomplish Great Things With Your “God Power”

Vol. 2, #6 November 7, 2000
“The Call Compels The Answer” Angels Stand Ready To Help • Doctors Vote To Oppose Mandatory Vaccinations • SPECTRUM Staff On The Air • SOLTEC: Breaking Loose From Those Limiting Beliefs • Coca-Cola/ CIA/Tribune Drama In Federal Chicago Courts • History Of Secret Human Biological Experiments • An Overview Of The Illuminati • HATONN: Be Thankful For Your Planet’s Great Gift Of Compassion

Vol. 2, #7 December 5, 2000
For Peace On Earth: Work With The Angels: Doreen Virtue • SOLTEC: Expressing Yourself More Fully On Creator’s Living Canvas • The Cure-All: Chaparral • SANANDA: At This Holiday Season Awaken The Gift Of Your God-self Within • Daring Journalists Victorious In FOX News Censorship Case • David Icke’s Journey: A First-Person Account • Do You Smell A Set-Up? Cool Calculation Behind Ongoing Election Brawl • HATONN: A Nation’s Destiny In A Time Of Awakening

Vol. 2, #8 January 9, 2001
Montauk & Philadelphia Experiments: “Back To The Future” A New Interview With Al Bielek • The Eighth Thunder: The War Of Valued Life • HATONN: The Play Is Moving Toward A Grand Awakening • SANANDA: With Understanding Comes The Wisdom To Release Fear And Pain • “Mercy” Killings And The Culling Of The Elderly • Some Well-Hidden Hazards Of Microwave Cooking • SOLTEC: Look Within And Tap The Awesome Power Of ONE • Election Intrigues To Think About

Vol. 2, #9 February 13, 2001
Will The Lights Go Out In California And The Nation? Expert Exposes Fraud & Greed • “When You Don’t Know What You’re Doing, Do It Neatly!” • The News Desk • Connections & Revelations The Media Won’t Touch • Dean Kamen: Gifted Inventor And Man Of Mystery • SOLTEC: Satisfaction Means Balancing The Inner And Outer Worlds • A Call For World Peace: A Message From Great White Buffalo • SANAT KUMARA: To Know Yourself, Reach Out To Others

Vol. 2, #10 March 13, 2001
Rediscovering Ancient Truths About The Spiritual Side Of Science: Heart And Head Must Work Together • The Power Of Those Who Stand-Up For Truth • SOLTEC: Stand And Be Counted For A Better World • Pasadena Health Show: A Great Success! • Anna Detweiler: Seeing Truth Beyond The Shadows • Skolnick’s Revelations About Current Events • SOLTEC: Lose The Baggage And Free Your Mind • HATONN: The Physical Experience Is For Spiritual Growth

Vol. 2, #11 April 10, 2001
Will Healthy Agriculture Survive Big Business? Organic Gardening—Power Of The Soil • What Would We Do If There Was No Food? • Skolnick’s Report On Crooks In High Places • England “Bombs”

Gold Prices • SOLTEC: Go With The Flow Of Your High-Frequency World • Hopi Elder Chief Dan Evehema’s Message To Mankind • California’s Power Crisis: A Most Revealing Update • SANANDA: What’s Truly Important In Your Life? • Farming Ourselves Into Oblivion: Small Sustainable Farms Are Our Greatest Hope Against A Faceless Agriculture • So You Want To Plant A Garden?

Vol. 2, #12 May 8, 2001
What Can We Do About Science Gone Mad? HAARP & Other High-Tech Insults • You Just Never Know What May Cross Our Desk • Some Useful Background Material On HAARP • SOLTEC: Dealing With Inner Stirrings Of Unrest • China Incident: Technology Transfer “It’s All About Money” • Timing Signposts And A Message From The Hopi Elders • Zulu Shaman & Elder Credo Mutwa’s Plea To The Global Elite: Stop The Genocide In Africa! • California Power Crisis Update The Extortion Of California: The Wrath Of Bush And The Texas Power Cabal • Skolnick’s Scoop On Some REAL News • HATONN: How To Handle Psychic Attacks

Vol. 3, #1 June 12, 2001
Merging Science With Spirit—The Isaiah Effect—Lost Wisdom Of Forgotten Peoples • Happy Second Anniversary! • SOLTEC: Learning To Allow For Your Growth • Clearance Sale On High-Tech Weapons: Inside The Weekly Arms Bazaar At Redstone Arsenal • Revisiting The Diabolical Oklahoma City “Bombing” • Idaho Standoff: Exposing A Peculiar Land-Grab Scam • Skolnick’s Latest Updates Not For The Weakhearted • SANANDA: Aligning Heart & Head Are Key To A Satisfying Life • HATONN: Thanks To The SPECTRUM Staff And Supporters

Vol. 3, #2 July 10, 2001
Maniacal World Control Thru The Jesuit Order Well-Hidden Soldiers Of Satan • Un-learning The Baloney And Then Learning The Truth • SOLTEC: Stresses And Pressures Are Catalysts For Growth • Dr. Len Horowitz On AIDS In Africa: “Utilitarian Global Genocide” • HATONN: Powerful Positive Forces At Work In Our Lives • More Revelations About Peculiar Idaho Standoff • Skolnick’s News On McVeigh And Levy

Vol. 3, #3 August 14, 2001
Breakthrough Science Confirms The HeartMath Message: Your Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own! • The Ticking Time-Bomb For A Better World • The Jesuit Order Corrections • HATONN: Subtle Winds Of Change Stirring Within Us All • Something’s Up In The Banking & Monetary World • SOLTEC: Actively Seeking An Inner State Of Peace • BRADEN: Unlocking The Secret Of Heaven Through The Science Of Man • Skolnick’s News On The FBI, Washington Post, And Airline Sabotage

Vol. 3, #4 September 11, 2001
Let’s Re-Create Prison Into Paradise! Check-Mating Globalization David Icke Exposes What Elite Fear Most • A Visit With Mark Twain • Hilarion: Clean-Out Those “Closets” To Make Way For The New! • The Revolutionary World Of Free Energy: A Status Report • HATONN: Powerful Messages Can Appear In Many Forms • SANANDA: “The Voice Of Truth Shall Be Heard Throughout The Land” • More Skolnick On Airplane Sabotage And Chandra Levy • Recent Visions From Anna Detweiler

Vol. 3, #5 October 9, 2001
Mail Delivery Slowed Due To Attacks • GERMAIN: “You Shall Reap What You Sow” • (INDEX OF FRONT-PAGE STORY: September 11, 2001—Chronology Of Terror • Alice In Wonderland And The WTC Disaster, by David Icke • How It Is Possible To Orchestrate And Mastermind A Terrorist Attack Without The Terrorists Themselves Even Knowing Who Is Really Behind It? by David Icke • Terrorism Prevention And Treatment Starts With Accurate Diagnosis, by Dr. Len Horowitz • Who Created Islamic Extremism? by Barry Chamish • Who Is Osama Bin Laden? by Michel Chossudovsky • U.S. State Department Sponsors Training Of Would-Be Terrorists, by Al Martin • What LaRouche Says In Radio Interviews, by Lyndon LaRouche • “The Enemy Is Very Much Within” • The Terror In America, by Eustace Mullins • Eric Phelps On Jesuit Behind-The-Scenes Involvement In Attacks • Explosives Planted In Towers, New Mexico Tech Expert Says • Fire, Not Extra Explosives, Doomed Buildings, Expert Says • The Split-Second Error: Exposing The WTC Bomb Plot, by Fintan Dunne • White Knights, Black Ops, And A New Money System, by “Dove Of Oneness” • Revealing Interviews With Al Bielek: Truth Stranger Than Fiction • Swiss Political Assassinations Meant To Deter NESARA, by “Dove Of Oneness” • Self-Inflicted: “Terrorist” Attack On WTC & Pentagon, by Anita E. Belle, Attorney • Why Government Has Repeatedly Created War, by Christopher Ruby • Mark Twain’s The War Prayer • Boy In Dallas Suburb Predicts Start Of WW-III Day Before Attacks) • A Hopi Elder Speaks • SANANDA: The Good Shall Be Sorted From Evil • KORTON: Communication Is The Key To Breaking The Spell • SOLTEC: The Nature Of The “Beast” And The Game It Plays

Back Issues of The SPECTRUM:

$5.00 each for the U.S.

$6.50 each for Canada/Mexico

$8.00 each for Foreign

Also available on CD-ROM the 1st full year and the 2nd full year in a searchable PDF and HTML format.

Price each: $45

To order Back Issues or CD-ROMs please call:

Toll free #: 1-877-280-2866

Outside the U.S. please call: 1-661-823-9696

WISDOM BOOKS & PRESS
PO Box 1567
TEHACHAPI, CA 93581

Phone toll-free: 1(877) 280-2866
Outside the U.S. please call: 1(661) 823-9696
e-mail: wisdombooks@tminet.com

We accept VISA, DISCOVER, and MASTERCARD only.
Please make Check or Money Order payable to:
Wisdom Books & Press, Inc. (U.S. Funds only)

ORDER FORM

NAME:

DATE:

ADDRESS:

CITY:

STATE:

ZIP:

COUNTRY:

PHONE:

CREDIT CARD #:

EXP. DATE:

SIGNATURE:

		Price Each:	Qty	Total			Price Each:	Qty	Total
DR. LEONARD G. HOROWITZ					OUR BEST SELLER ↘ MISCELLANEOUS
AUDIO	NEW BOOK!	DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare	$29.95			VATICAN ASSASSINS by Eric Jon Phelps (includes CD-ROM with 13 rare out-of-print books)		$34.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse with Dr. Joseph S. Puleo	$26.95			“Vatican Assassins II” Eric Jon Phelps Author of Vatican VIDEO Assassins, hosted by Dennis Grover		$12 (shipping included in US)
		Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola	$29.95			PROZAC: Panacea Or Pandora? by Dr. Ann Blake Tracy		$19.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse 2-VIDEO SET	$39.95			“Help! I Can’t Get Off My Antidepressants!” (AUDIO 1-1/2 hr.) (Shipping is included if you buy any book. Otherwise add $4.)		$9.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse	$29.95			The Indigo Children: The New Kids Have Arrived by Lee Carroll & Jan Tober		$13.95
		Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola	$19.95			WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume I		$15.00
DAVID ICKE							WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume II		$20.00
	NEW BOOK!	CHILDREN OF THE MATRIX	$24.95			Colloidal Silver Handbook: Why You Need It & How To Make It (Shipping is included US & Canada.)		$7.00
		The BIGGEST SECRET	$24.95			The Untold History Of America by Ray Bilger		$10.00
		And The Truth Shall Set You Free	$21.95			The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook by Joshua Piven & David Borgenicht		$12.00
VIDEOS		From PRISON To PARADISE (3-Video Set) (Special price for current SPECTRUM subscribers)	$59.95 ($49.95)			Why The End? by J.T. Revelator		$29.95
		REVELATIONS Of A MOTHER GODDESS Arizona Wilder interviewed by David Icke	$24.95			CD-ROMS	AL BIELEK on CD-ROM (Over 25 hrs of audio)		$29.95
		THE REPTILIAN AGENDA Parts I & II	$49.95				1st year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
BY COMMANDER X							2nd year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
		The Controllers: The Hidden Rulers of Earth Identified	$15.00			ELIZABETH CLARE PROPHET
		Underground Alien Bases	$17.50			The Masters And The Spiritual Path		$16.95
		Nikola Tesla: Free Energy And The White Dove	$15.00			Fallen Angels And The Origins Of Evil		$7.99
		Mind Stalkers: UFOs, Implants & The Psychotronic Agenda Of The New World Order	$15.00			Your Seven Energy Centers		$6.95
		Time Travel: A How-To Insiders Guide	$15.00			Karma And Reincarnation		$6.95
		Invisibility & Levitation : A How-To Guide To Personal Performance	$15.00			Alchemy Of The Heart		$6.95
		Philadelphia Experiment Chronicles	$12.50			Soul Mates And Twin Flames		$5.95
INNER EARTH / UFO BASES / GOV’T COVER-UPS							Creative Abundance		$5.95
		Philadelphia Experiment And Other UFO Conspiracies by Brad Steiger	$15.00			How To Work With Angels		$5.95
		The Missing Diary Of Admiral Richard E. Byrd: Who Lives Inside Our Earth?	$12.50			Sub-Total
		Secret UFO Diary Of CIA Operative by Alvin E. Moore	$15.00								Shipping
		Evil Agenda Of The Secret Government by Tim Swartz	$10.00													Tax
		The Omega Files: Secret Nazi UFO Bases Revealed by Branton	$24.95																		(Calif. add 7% tax) (Nev. add 7.25% tax)
TIM BECKLEY		THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth by Branton	$15.95			TOTAL:
		Other Voices by George Hunt Williamson & Tim Beckley	$12.50								— PLEASE ADD THE REQUIRED SHIPPING —
		Prophecies Of The Presidents	$12.50													~SHIPPING RATES~ United States: (Priority) $6 for the 1st item; $4 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $8.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered. Canada: (Airmail) $8 for the 1st item; $5 each for ea. add’l item. *Please add $13.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered. International: (Airmail) $17 for the 1st item; $6 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $31.00 (Airmail) or $25 (Surface) for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered.
		Subterranean Worlds Inside Earth	$12.50																		We are not responsible for damage caused during shipping.
	The Smokey God And Other Inner Earth Mysteries	$12.50

VATICAN ASSASSINS

WOUNDED IN THE HOUSE OF MY FRIENDS

An explosive, detailed, shocking, historical account of the long-suppressed history of the Jesuit Order, from 1540 to the present, and their involvement behind the scenes manipulating the world through the Pope, via the Jesuit's General, the "Black" Pope—the most powerful man in the world.

If you were astonished by the front-page story in the May 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM titled: The Most Powerful Man In The World? The "Black" Pope: Count Hans Kolvenbach—The Jesuit's General, then you won't want to miss this in-depth study of perhaps the greatest ongoing conspiracy the world has ever known. Author Eric Phelps goes into countless details and fully documented facts concerning the "dark" side of the Vatican's un-godly history.

A 700-page, 8½" X 11" embossed paperback, with over 100 rare photographs AND a Gift CD-ROM with 13 rare, out-of-print books used in the researching of VATICAN ASSASSINS.

CD-ROM INCLUDED!

All for ONLY $34.95 (+S/H)

Order Yours Today!

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

MIND STALKERS: UFOs, IMPLANTS, & THE PSYCHOTRONIC AGENDA OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

ALIEN ABDUCTIONS, ELF WAVES, MENTAL MANIPULATION—ALL EQUALS BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION! There is a secret plot by the New World Order to control the Earth's population for a sinister agenda. Many UFO abductees maintain they have become part of a brainwashing program by "aliens"—but is a "secret society" really behind all that is happening?

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

INVISIBILITY & LEVITATION : A How To GUIDE TO PERSONAL PERFORMANCE BY COMMANDER X

Methods utilized by occultists, military, and martial artists to perfect the art of levitation and invisibility. Throughout history only a "super" few have learned to accomplish such seemingly impossible tasks. Were the blocks of the pyramids levitated into place? This is the only how-to book on a very strange topic.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

SUBTERRANEAN WORLDS INSIDE EARTH BY TIM BECKLEY

Is the Earth hollow? Is our planet honeycombed with caverns inhabited by mysterious races? Are there civilizations of super beings living beneath the surface of the Earth? Are the residents of this subsurface world friendly, or do they have our domination in mind? Here are strange and unexplainable legions of the "Wee People", the Dero, and long-haired Atlantean giants as encountered by cave explorers and miners trapped far beneath the Earth.

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT CHRONICLES

Explores the strange case of Al Bielek (only known survivor of the Philadelphia Experiment) and the mysterious death of famed astronomer Dr. M. K. Jessup, who first broke the news about the disappearance of the warship and its subsequent teleportation into another dimension. Also looks at time travel, alternative energy, anti-gravity theories. Highly classified govt/military

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or

THE CONTROLLERS: THE HIDDEN RULERS OF EARTH IDENTIFIED BY COMMANDER X

We are the property of an alien intelligence! "Our" planet is a cosmic laboratory and we are but guinea pigs to those who have kept us prisoners on Earth. Humankind continues to wage all-out battle with those who have kept us as their slaves since the beginning of time. They are:

- The Elders
- The Greys
- The Illuminati
- The Counterfeit Race

They have, says the author (who is of military intelligence) kept us in human bondage by: • Controlling our minds • Planting imperfect thoughts in our heads • Kidnapping humans • Impregnating women • Causing global warfare and ethnic hatred • Creating a false economic system, and • Assassinating and "replacing" our most trusted spiritual leaders, rulers, and elected officials. See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00(+S/H)

INTELLIGENCE AGENT'S SHOCKING REPORT FLYING SAUCERS COME FROM INSIDE EARTH!

- Aliens have established underground bases around the planet.
- Entrance ways can be found in many major cities.
- Ancient tunnel system has existed since time of Atlantis.
- Some government & military officials have taken the side of aliens.

The UFO enigma is more complex than generally believed. Though it is commonly thought that space ships are arriving here from other solar

Mexico; Groom Lake, Nevada; Superstition Mountain Range, Arizona; South and North Poles; as well as in the mountains of the Andes, and the jungles of Brazil. Here also are the first-hand reports of those individuals who have been abducted by aliens, and who have survived genetic experiments at some locations. These are the facts that everyone should be informed of—regardless of how disturbing the truth may turn out to be!

systems, there is now evidence that several groups of ETs have established bases beneath our very feet.

Here are bizarre stories about underground bases at Mt. Shasta, California; Brown Mountain, North Carolina; Dulce, New

$17.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

The SPECTRUM

“Achieve the wisdom of knowledge of Truth
as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of The Creation.”

— A Non-Profit Educational Corporation Dedicated To Bringing You The Truth —

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 7

NEWS REVIEW

$ 4.50

DECEMBER 11, 2001

Longtime Extraterrestrial Influences On Earth's Evolution Conversations With Robert O. Dean

The Great UFO Coverup Is Falling Apart: We Are Definitely Not Alone! Part 2

IN THIS ISSUE:

A Season Of Hope, p.2

The News Desk, p.3

A Christmas Blessing From The SPECTRUM, p.13

The Lightships, p.17

HILARION: Are You Losing Your Mind,
Or Gaining Your Soul? p.27

EUSTACE MULLINS: The Biggest Heist In History, p.28

SANANDA: The Shackles Shall Be Unlocked! p.29

AL MARTIN: Hail The New Imperial Republic
And Return Of The American Caesars, p.30

CHARLEY REESE: How To Control People, p.35

South Tower Burning BEFORE Jet Hits It, p.36

Microchip Implants, Mind Control & Cybernetics, p.37

COL. de GRAND PRÉ: The Enemy Is INSIDE The Gates, p.38

HATONN: Time To Tune-Up Your Inner Radio, p.41

12/5/01 RICK MARTIN

As there is one God which manifests one Creation, so there is one God which is the Source of all conscious beings, whether on Earth or elsewhere. The great Universal Intelligence has sent a ray of this Light of Consciousness throughout all conscious beings, and we are united to God and to one another through its subtle and all-pervading effect.

It is for these reasons that I state that the reality of man and the reality of other ET peoples are one. Viewed with the eye of differences, we are diverse and unrelated; but viewed with the eye of oneness, we are more alike than dissimilar, more kindred than alien. And so it is that we must look to our inner reality to find not only our oneness with other intelligent life in the universe, but to find our oneness with each other, as well. While ephemeral differences may confound us, our essential oneness in consciousness will never fail us. For there is one universe inhabited by one people, and we are they.

—from the book Extraterrestrial Contact: The Evidence And Implications, by Steven M. Greer, M.D., emergency room physician, Founder and International Director of CSETI (The Center for the Study of ExtraTerrestrial Intelligence), and more recently Director of The Disclosure Project (www.disclosureproject.org).

As we begin Part 2 of this series about UFOs and long-hidden extraterrestrial contacts with planet Earth, the perspective that Dr. Greer offers above (and which is echoed by many others with a better view of The Truth) sounds, especially to our longtime readers, exactly like many of the spiritual messages shared within the pages of this publication. If there is one recurring theme we can bank on, it's that Truth is Truth—no matter by what paths of discovery it unfolds.

Again, as I mentioned last month in Part 1, in dealing with this subject we immediately encounter the blurring of boundaries between matters like: “Where do ETs leave off and the angelic domains begin?” The answer The SPECTRUM has long put forth is that we here on schoolroom Earth are “merely” a part—though much beloved and full of potential—of an unfolding and ever-expanding continuum of Creator's thinking and desire. You'll notice that some of the discussions herein at least capture glimpses of The Grand Design—even if sometimes getting lost in seemingly confusing or contradictory or ominous or even scary details.

Part of the problem we create for ourselves in attempting to figure out what's going on comes from our own limited, perhaps even primitive understanding of ourselves. So-called

(Please see: Extraterrestrial Influences On Earth's Evolution, p.14)

WEB ADDRESS: www.TheSpectrumNews.org

A Season Of Hope

Once upon a time (a few years ago), there was born a publication (yep, this newspaper) whose single-minded purpose it was to share The Truth, no matter what, with those searchers of like mind and determined ambition.

At that time, a gracious elderly couple agreed to supply the "gas" to get the "car" going. They had worked hard and life had treated them well, and they, in turn, felt strongly and compassionately that people everywhere deserved a source of Truth to feed the growing hunger among those awakening on planet Earth.

And thus was born The SPECTRUM—after a successful struggle with, and then separation from, darkened ones who had lost their moral direction and, from all later observations, perhaps even their sanity.

A while ago this elderly couple suffered a large financial setback and has fallen upon rough times that recently include greatly increased medical expenses. (Of course their present financial condition is heavily compounded by an earlier audacious thievery by those same dark ones we later broke ties with when forming The SPECTRUM. I'm also a financial casualty of that con, along with many trusting others. The cumulative dollar amounts are staggering.)

Though this kind but hurting elderly couple have gently requested the initiation of at least some repayment of their loans that got us going, HOW can we do that when we barely stay afloat financially from month to month as it is? That question, for which we have no helpful response, troubles us at this Season Of Hope.

Perhaps one day, soon, we will be gifted with that which allows us to at least begin to repay a kindness of such monumental proportions that it routinely generates the kind of exhilarating compliments we share in a box each issue, titled "Kind Words From Our Readers". Each of you who help us financially each month, to stay afloat and bring Truth, should personally take to heart those sincere messages of praise. They're as much for you as for us.

The best we can do right now is to acknowledge the humanitarian vision that drove the generosity which allowed us to be born—and Hope for a brighter tomorrow.

Recently, when I told someone we just couldn't pay back the debt right now, the person retorted: "Well, you don't ACT like you're poor; and the paper doesn't LOOK like you're poor!"

Hmmm.

Let's see now: We have no medical or dental benefits, should any of us get sick or even need a tooth worked on. Though none of us are spring chickens, we have no retirement nest eggs accruing. We even panic that the balding car tires will get noticed by the passing police patrol car. We have barely enough to get by on each month just to survive. Does that sound like big spenders to you?

Perhaps I could trade-in my already hole-y sweatshirt and jeans for more dramatically evident sack-cloth and ashes. And maybe walk a little more stooped over, too, just to convey the right effect.

I decided to take the outburst of distraught criticism as a compliment: I decided that we must be doing a darn good job with the paper, on so little resources, and we're keeping a positive enough attitude to fool at least some observers.

Philanthropic foundations are another matter which, one day, will beg a proper story-telling in one of Rick Martin's feature outlays. You think UFOs are a convoluted subject? You should deal with foundations! We have applied to nearly two dozen of them (after sorting from perhaps a thousand on the books) whose charters specifically state a focus for which we should be a prime candidate.

So, how are we doing so far? The rejection letters raise literary embroidery to a level of artistic refinement that makes the rhetoric of seasoned politicians look like grade-school homework excuses by comparison. Obviously they've had a lot of practice saying "no" to funding requests. It makes you wonder just how much they take "off the top" for "operating expenses" before disbursing what's left over.

And in our case, since our reputation for Truth largely precedes us (and makes the more politically correct and image conscious institutions-of-the-establishment nervous), we stand about a snowball's chance in hell of a favorable response. In one case (a very famous foundation you would all know and admire), we were told, from very high up the foundation's hierarchy, that we were an "ideal applicant" and an outstanding choice; then, later, after we applied, someone further up the ladder (it could only go one more rung up) just then decided to change the rules—apparently so we could be excluded from consideration in good conscience. See how popular we are for telling The Truth?

Again this month I have maintained the type at the same smaller size I moved to last month to save on printing and postage expenses. The closest thing to complaints we received about that difficult but necessary change turned out to be some of the nicest messages of praise we've received. One gripe was tongue-in-cheek from a senior citizen who resolved she'll just get used to keeping her magnifying glass handy because she wouldn't want to be without her SPECTRUM. Look in this month's "Kind Words From Our Readers" box for similar comments.

This month we are again grateful for The Truth that has crossed our path to share with you. We are likewise thankful for the Guiding Hands which accomplish that miracle and make us look smarter and more resourceful than we are.

From the more subtle threads running through what we have been sharing over the past several months, many of you discerning readers are correctly concluding that the dark elite controllers are growing weaker and their days of ill-gotten power are truly numbered. The sad events of September 11, 2001 were an act of desperation that signals their assured demise more loudly than they smugly thought would ever occur. Too many people are waking up to Truth for the crooks to longer get away with the same old tricks.

And thus, on many important levels, this is truly A Season Of Hope. The bright lights and festive merriment portend more than just the expectations of gifts and good times with the family and friends we presently know. There are larger matters unfolding behind the scenes. It is time for the great destiny of Mother Earth and her people to commence, with the help of family and friends we mostly didn't even know we had. Hint: You might want to look to the skies more often.

— Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

The paper covering the "full spectrum" of news and information to help you to follow the First Law of The Creation.

The Highest (First) Command of The Law of The Creation states: "Achieve the wisdom of knowledge of Truth, as this will enable you to wisely follow the Laws of The Creation." In other words, go forth and gain as much knowledge and experience as you can.

TO SUBSCRIBE:

For orders call: 1-877-280-2866 toll free.

Otherwise call: 1-661-823-9696.

$45.00 for 12 issues in US 1st Class Mail,

$55.00 Canadian/$60 Foreign.

Please call for quantity subscription rates.

EDITORIAL POLICY:

Opinions of The SPECTRUM contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of The SPECTRUM staff or management. The SPECTRUM will always correct any meaningful error of fact.

Permission is hereby granted to anyone to quote The SPECTRUM in whole or in part, so long as full credit of this source is given, including contacting address and phone number.

PUBLISHING INFORMATION:

We intend to offer, to the best of our ability, The Truth, however it comes to us, in order to allow you to make your own informed decisions about things that impact your daily life. We hope to broaden your choices and empower you to create a better world.

The SPECTRUM assumes no responsibility for unsolicited manuscripts. If return is desired, a stamped self-addressed envelope is required.

The SPECTRUM is published by The Spectrum Newspaper, Inc., at 9101 West Sahara Ave., PMB158, Las Vegas, NV 89117. E-mail: thespectrum@tminet.com

DONOR INFORMATION:

The SPECTRUM is a 501(c)(3) non-profit educational corporation. All donations are gratefully appreciated and formally acknowledged for your tax-deduction purposes.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS:

Send your old, incorrect address label along with your new address and ZIP code to The SPECTRUM 30 days before you move. Send change to: The SPECTRUM, P.O. Box 1567, Tehachapi, CA 93581.

WEB ADDRESS: www.TheSpectrumNews.org

The News Desk

12/7/01 DR. AL OVERHOLT
(alo@tminet.com)

SOMETHING SMELLS VERY FISHY AT THE USGS: NO EARTHQUAKE REPORTS CONSIDER IT AN ALERT!

We just received word today (12/7/01) that the Internet communications conduits of the U.S. Geologic Survey (USGS) have been “temporarily” shut-down, starting late yesterday. We are told in a USGS memo that this was necessary: “due to security concerns of the Court in the Cobell v. Norton case”—whatever that is!

The bottom line for most of us is that USGS earthquake reporting activities to the public are likewise halted, among other Internet-based operations, under this curious umbrella edict. (But don’t underestimate the resourcefulness of clever ones to get around this block, however!)

One wonders if this is a convoluted and disguised way to shut-down access to otherwise excellent USGS information due to some major earthquake events “planned” for our near-time horizon. After the tragic and diabolical events engineered on 9/11/01, we shouldn’t put ANY acts of desperation past the crooks in high places. Time will tell, but these rats are cornered and acting as nasty as they can get.

Many of their diabolical technical shenanigans are having profound effects upon Mother Earth—as we’ve reported many times within these pages. But guess who is the bigger entity with the Divine Help behind her? Mother Earth will have the final say, and it will be so as to cleanse her of the “poisons” these dark ones have been inflicting upon her energy fields. In other words, it would be wise to check your emergency supplies and be prepared for an increase in geological activities as the next several months unfold. Be sure to send Mother Earth some healing energies, too, as she has put up with quite a lot to this point for our benefit in sustaining this learning environment for us.

Moreover, if the high-frequency energies bombarding Mother Earth at this time (often referred to as the Photon Belt energies) are ramping upward again, perhaps that will induce increased earthquake activity between her crustal plates as part of the cleansing process. Which leads into the following, that also came in just at the last minute. See last month’s SPECTRUM if you’re not familiar with the insightful visions of Anna Detweiler:

TIME WARPS & AFGHAN NEWS FROM ANNA DETWEILER

Date: Friday, December 7, 2001

Hello all,

By reading some of the messages on SYZYGY [an Internet website], I have noticed that I am not the only one who suspects that we are going through a time warp. About 24 hours ago I noticed that the energy around the Earth had thickened to about 5 times the usual size, and the Earth appeared to be just a tiny ball inside this energy.

At the South Pole, there is what appears like a “time vortex” and we are part of the way into it. Boones’ art is very intriguing, because that time portal he drew is what it looks like. I am almost certain that he sees things in another dimension, because this is something that I can see too.

It is my opinion that we have once again entered into a band of the Photon Belt where we are in that dark material again, and that is what gives the illusion of being in a time warp. Maybe we will actually be transported to another time and place via the Photon Belt. Hang on to your emotions, because that is where you will see the first effects of what is happening.

I have been watching a terrible battle going on in what I believe is Afghanistan today. I think it is tribal infighting—big knives and a bloody mess. The fighting in that place will not stop until the people grow up and get tired of it! Surely there must be some brave “enlightened” souls who have incarnated there, but are probably never heard about.

I wonder what you all make of the American who had joined the Taliban? Mike Siegel had a General of some kind on the radio, and when he started asking about the prisoner, the General just blew it off as too unimportant to even discuss. When Mike kept pressing about the prisoner, the General finally said “if you don’t quit asking about that, we are through talking”—and promptly hung the phone up on Mike Siegel!

After he had hung up, Mike said how strange that was. He said this General had agreed beforehand to specifically come on the show and talk about the prisoner! It was my opinion from the start that the prisoner had been an infiltrator for the U.S. and had gotten caught in the fray. Dona, on the SYZYGY message board said she saw him give the Masonic distress signal twice while he was being filmed!

Anyway, these are strange and fascinating times we are in. Stay safe.

Love and Peace, Anna

180 MILLION+ PROTEST LETTERS RENDER SERIOUS BLOW TO PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRY IN LARGEST HEALTH REFERENDUM IN HISTORY!

From the INTERNET, 12/6/01: [quoting]

Critical Victory For Worldwide Natural Health Freedom

November 28, 2001, Berlin, Germany—The pharmaceutical industry’s efforts to protect its trillion-dollar global market for frequently dangerous drugs has been thwarted. At a meeting in Berlin, pharmaceutical industry executives and politicians representing more than 50 countries met this week under the umbrella of the United Nation’s “Codex Alimentarius” Commission.

The main purpose of this meeting was to establish global legislation intended to restrict access to nutritional supplements and other natural health therapies.

This outrageous plan was met with an unprecedented outcry of protest.

In the largest public health referendum ever carried out in history, over 100 million protest letters were sent by people from around the world to the members of the “Codex” Commission and to politicians.

More than half of these protest letters were sent by concerned citizens of the United States who have recognized this Codex initiative as a direct threat to the freedom of access to dietary supplements and information about natural therapies allowed by DSHEA (Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act of 1994).

This protest campaign was initiated by Matthias Rath, M.D., the world-renowned physician and scientist who led the scientific breakthrough in natural health that identified vitamin deficiencies as the primary cause of cardiovascular disease, cancer, and others of today’s most common diseases. It is Dr. Rath’s medical breakthrough—which resulted in the development of safe and effective natural health products—that so critically threatens the trillion-dollar market of symptom-oriented and dangerous pharmaceutical drugs.

Dr. Rath’s initiatives also attracted more than 2500 attendees to a health symposium in Berlin on the eve of the “Codex” meeting. Speakers at that symposium included Professor Poleszinski, a dissenting “Codex” delegate and Dr. Reuss, a pharmaceutical industry “insider” reporting about the industry’s deceptive strategies.

Dr. Aleksandra Niedzwiecki, a world-renowned biochemist and director of Dr. Rath’s research institute, reported about a major scientific advance proving the critical role of amino acids in the natural control of cancer.

Breakthrough research such as this could not be used for the benefit of cancer patients around the world if the pharmaceutical industry’s plan for the implementation of the “Codex” regulations were successful.

Censorship plans for natural health therapies by the pharmaceutical industry have been camouflaged by a barrage of unsubstantiated publicity about alleged side-effects of essential nutrients. Statistical data shows that the opposite is true: While there are no reported deaths from vitamins, the known side-effects of pharmaceutical drugs have become the fourth leading cause of death, surpassed only by heart attacks, strokes, and cancer.

Says Dr. Rath: “What is needed is consumer protection from the dangers of synthetic pharmaceutical drugs—not from vitamins and other nutrients that are essential for health and life.”

While the worldwide demand from over 100 million protest emails has stopped the pharmaceutical industry’s strategies at the level of “Codex Alimentarius”, similar efforts continue at the level of the European Union Commission and the European Parliament. Dr. Rath has affirmed his commitment to continue efforts to fight these and future attempts to undermine the world population’s right to access to critical natural health therapies.

[End quoting]

Well, that’s a major victory—both for good health AND for demonstrating the power of the people to accomplish a common goal that overrides these puppets of the crooks in high places. Their days are surely numbered.

NWO USES OLDEST TRICK IN THE WORLD TO START WW-III AND STEAL THE SOUL OF THE USA AND THE WORLD

From the INTERNET, “Don Harkins” <altragee@coldreams.com>, 11/3/01: [quoting]

Pretty scary stuff.

Just check out the executive summary of this July, 2001 “proposal”. The DOD is conspiring AVP—acquire vaccine production. The whole thing is 190 pages. All of this is dovetailing.

Go to: <<http://www.defenselink.mil/pubs/ReportonBiologicalWarfareDefenseVaccineRDPrgras-July2001.pdf>>

Below is the article I did regarding the Delphic Amphyction. Happy New Year!

Don Harkins, Idaho Observer

History has a lot of help repeating itself (private). The masses have fallen for the same basic tricks since ancient Greeks perfected them circa 800 B.C. A mass mind is being created in the aftermath of WTC to compel public support of the government’s intention to wage war against an apparitional enemy that has been accused of masterminding the most deadly act of terror ever on U.S. soil. This all-out assault on the sensibilities of the American people would appear to be the product of contemporary genius if the same tactics had not been used over and over again since being invented by the Greeks circa 800 B.C.

The first government that became powerful enough to be publicly unaccountable for high profile political crime arose to protect the interests of powerful Greek families between the 8th and 4th centuries B.C.

According to the late historical and religious scholar Kent Stefkina, ancient Greek families from 900-800 B.C. created the religious front known today as Greek Mythology to facilitate their criminal intentions. They learned that religion created a belief in the intervention of divine providence (or divine wrath), and was a powerful tonic to induce sane and rational men to become accomplices in acts that would otherwise be considered immoral and unethical.

Those corrupt and criminally-minded Greek families also learned, about the same time, that sane men can be compelled to relinquish personal control of their private affairs and will willingly delegate those responsibilities to representatives that have been elected to act in their behalf—provided certain subtleties are employed to convince them to trust such representation.

The most effective path toward this type of trust, they discovered, was through religion. “Boundless naiveté and the popular misconception that men sworn to uphold the laws of God will not—and cannot—commit moral and political perjury, became jet propulsion to the organized political crime of the big Greek family syndicates” observed Stefkina. The man credited by Stefkina to have finely tuned these two concepts, that combined can be referred to as the “Delphic Amphictyon”, is Cypselus (657-627 BC).

Cypselus was a ranking member of the Bacchiadae family and is described by the Encyclopedia Britannica as a “7th century Greek politician and tyrant of Corinth”. The concept of amphictyony, transliterated from the Greek word amphictyones, or “dwellers around”, were religious associations of politically independent Greek city states.

The list of social conditions that were prevalent in Ancient Greece by the time of the Roman conquest in about 80 B.C. sounds amazingly similar to conditions common to the contemporary American experience.

As a learning tool, Bill Denman of Taxpayers United for Freedom, of Sandpoint, Idaho, made an interesting list of those conditions as described in The Life Of Greece by historian Will Durant: Nudity, graduated income tax, welfare, slave labor, inflation, abortion, epidemic dishonesty from politicians, sexual promiscuity, homosexuality, state-controlled public instruction, subsidies for the arts, planning and zoning, nationalization of industry, public works and urban renewal projects, democracy, farm subsidies and import/export controls, and the promotion of social preoccupation with appearance rather than intrinsic worth are just a few of the conditions that were either promoted by or resulted from the policies of Greek leadership.

Greek leaders were typically either a member of a powerful Greek family or one of their puppets. The two main concepts that provide the breeding ground for the perverse social conditions we are experiencing today, just as they were experienced by the Greeks and then the Romans, can be referred to as the Delphic Amphyction.

1. If people can be fooled into believing that their leaders are operating with the divine intervention of God, they will do things they would not do otherwise.

2. If you can convince people to trust that the government is divinely inspired by God, then they can be convinced to elect others to represent them in government and act in their behalf.

It is upon these two fundamental principles of governance that those in power throughout history have attempted to rule the masses.

The American Amphyction

The most recent and obvious incarnation of the amphyctyony has occurred in the wake of the WTC tragedy. Though most Americans have faith that representatives in government will support their self-important interests, God had been eroded from the subjugation equation.

The Bush administration knew that selfish Americans would not blindly follow them into WW-III without God. The first order was to convince us that the Afghanis caused the Twin Towers to topple. Fill them full of fear that more attacks are inevitable; then convince them that God sanctions revenge.

In the absence of evidence, the American people needed a religious boost to ensure their cooperation in the coming global conflict. So God has suddenly showed up in Washington, D.C. Our president is praying. The police and the firemen are praying. The people are praying. We are all praying now. Congress has even proposed a bill that will allow school children who have not been able to pray in school since the '60s to pray for the nation as it battles the dark forces of terrorism.

Government has effectively programmed the American people to believe that it will prevail in its mission to avenge the deaths of our countrymen with the aid of divine intervention. America's people can now justify avenging the deaths of our countrymen by killing persons that look like terrorists, and the women and children near them, because they believe that such revenge has God's blessing.

One has little choice but to view the federal government's theological flip-flop as a matter of political convenience. Prior to September 11, 2001, the federal government had criminalized public displays of Christianity in government buildings and public places. It would be a little silly for the federal government to really believe that God will intervene in its behalf after deliberately removing God from its day-today operations over the last three decades.

Thus we must infer that the federal government, which has been steadily losing trust and favor with the American people, decided it needed a boost from God to pull the public together so that it would follow it into Afghanistan and possibly start WW-III.

Americans who are willing to blindly follow its leaders into the hills of Afghanistan, or any other place they are told that terrorism lurks, have fallen for the oldest political tricks in the book: Scare people into believing there is a threat from without; fool the people into believing that their elected representatives are moving under the authority of divine intervention, and then send them to faraway lands to kill or be killed in the name of God.

From The Idaho Observer, P.O. Box 457, Spirit Lake, ID 83869; (208) 255-2307 <observer@coldreams.com> <www.proliberty.com/observer> [End quoting]

Don's perspective helps us to see how far back the dark ones have been using the same tricks, over and over again, to achieve their goals of control over the masses. Why? Because the tricks always seem to work. Perhaps enough people will catch-on this time around to bring an end to such shenanigans.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS NOT REACHING VICTIMS

From the INTERNET, 11/1201: [quoting]

From a forwarded email: FYI

At the latest count, over one billion dollars have been raised by donations of the public in the name of helping firefighters, police, and other victims of the 9/11 emergencies in NYC, Washington DC, and PA.

There are about 6,000 victims. $1,000,000,000/6000 = $167,000 per family of each victim. Less than $3,000 per family has been given out or allocated by these do-good organizations.

As was reported on the O'Reilly Report, organizations like United Way have not given any money at all, even though they have collected $150 million in the name of the victims. They said that they will keep (withhold) 15% of the total monies for their efforts of collecting the money, and only pass 85% down to other organizations who will also withhold some percentage of the money for their administrative costs—like salaries, offices, utilities, and other operational costs of those charities.

SO THIS CRISIS IS CHRISTMAS FOR THESE ORGANIZATIONS.

I am outraged at this. So I am calling my senators and representative to demand a governmental inquiry and accounting. In my opinion this is a much bigger deal than the few gas stations who have spiked prices immediately following the attacks.

Please do your part and start to ask: "Where is the money?" Also ask: "Who got it? Where, when, and why?" At the same time that some organizations have become unduly rich over this, most other philanthropic organizations have become poor and report that they have not received donations since September 11th. Rush Limbaugh, Oprah, and O'Reilly have said they will stick with this story until all the money is accounted for, but it is clear that it is not going where we had intended it to go.

PLEASE PASS THIS ON, AS I HAVE, TO AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE. MAYBE WE WILL GET AN ANSWER FROM SOMEWHERE! [End quoting]

We covered this matter last month also. You can pretty well count on any nationally recognized charities being under the same dark control as those who engineered the 9/11/01 events. The only way to perhaps force some honesty out of such agencies is to keep the pressure and spotlight on them.

The following should provide a bit more history into the deceptions carried forth by these so-called humanitarian organizations, from a courageous researcher and longtime friend of The SPECTRUM and our readers:

DECEPTIONS BEHIND THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

From Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz and Tetrahedron Publishing Group <http://www.tetrahedron.org>, 11/29/01: [quoting]

Excerpted from the ending of a long article titled "The American Red Double-Cross".

In Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola—Nature, Accident Or Intentional? I explained how and why, at the end of WW-II, the Dulles brothers, in support of Rockefeller alliances, arranged false Red Cross identifications for Nazi war criminals, scientists, and military officials to escape through the "rat lines".

A couple of years ago, the New York Times carried a story that explained that Red Cross officials were aware of the Nazi atrocities occurring in the concentration camps of WW-II. They said they were remiss in reporting their evidence. They omitted, however, the intelligence that the entire Red Cross organization was directed, from high above, by the same devils who directed the business dealings between the Nazis, I.G. Farben, the CIA, and the Rockefeller Standard Oil Company from the rise of the Third Reich. No wonder, the New York Times reported in another article, much of the Nazi-stolen gold suddenly emerged in Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank.

In Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola, you will also learn that the Laurence Rockefeller-directed New York City Blood Bank knowingly released thousands of pints of blood contaminated with the AIDS virus, HIV, despite holding secret the oxygenation technologies capable of clearing the virus from infected supplies. After developing AIDS, approximately ten thousand hemophiliacs died throughout the United States, along with countless others around the world. Likewise, in 1999, CNN reported that approximately 500,000 Chinese people became HIV infected similarly through contaminated blood. Not to mention the millions of others who received the hepatitis B, C, and herpes (cancer) viruses through contaminated blood, likewise preventable, but purposely neglected.

In my latest book, Death In The Air: Globalism, Terrorism, And Toxic Warfare, Chapter 18 is titled, "Public Health Politics, Eugenics, And Population Control". Here I detail the Rockefeller family's and their foundation's association with the population control industry. They are currently moving to eradicate half of the planet's current population, including America's civilian population as well. According to the Rockefeller-directed Population Council of the City of New York, and its affiliate the Negative Population Growth, Inc. of New Jersey, the U.S. population requires culling to 125 or 150 million people. That's about half its present number. And that, in a nutshell, is what "America's New War" on terrorism—leading to WW-III—is really about. Global population control and reduction through managed chaos. Using the standard Machiavellian practice of creating urgent problems, then costly solutions, America has been railroaded into what promises to be a long and deadly war against people previously, and likely still, on the payroll of a secret government and the CIA.

Now you might comprehend, if you have "the eyes" to read the above text, and the discernment necessary to perceive the truth it relays, why I found it nauseating that Americans so readily gave their blood and money to the Rockefeller's Red Cross. If you are among the millions who made that mistake, chalk it up to simple deception. But for heaven's sake, don't do it again! Please donate directly to the families who have been victimized. That way your contribution might do more than aiding and abetting the enemy.

Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz and Tetrahedron Publishing Group, 206 North 4th Avenue, Suite 147, Sandpoint, ID 83864 <http://www.tetrahedron.org>; toll-free order line: 888-508-4787; office telephone: 208-265-2575; fax: 208-265-2775; e-mail: <tetra@tetrahedron.org>. [End quoting]

Once again it should be pointed out how the average, well-meaning person has no idea of the evil behind seemingly good institutions. The lesson is simply to not accept anything at face value.

BUSH WILL DECIDE WHO FACES MILITARY TRIAL DO WE STILL DENY THAT WE HAVE A DICTATORSHIP? DOES THIS MAKE THE PEOPLE WHO WANTED REVENGE HAPPY?

From the INTERNET, <http://www.rense.com>, 11/30/01: [quoting]

(AFP)—U.S. President George W. Bush will personally rule on a "case by case" basis which suspected terrorists will face controversial U.S. military courts set up for that purpose, the White House said.

"He has reserved to himself, as opposed to designated it—delegating it to the secretary of defense or to any other officials—that responsibility" spokesman Ari Fleischer told

The Idaho Observer

Now that we know what is really going on, let's do something about it

The Idaho Observer is a monthly, 24-page newspaper dedicated to the truth. For a complimentary copy, please write:

PO Box 457, Spirit Lake, Idaho, 83869;
or call: (208) 255-2307.

$1 for postage is appreciated but not necessary.

email: observer@dmf.net

web: www.proliberty.com/observer

reporters.

Bush's decision to empower the U.S. secretary of defense to set up special military tribunals to try non-US citizens alleged to be terrorists—including those thought to have participated in the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon—has drawn fire from civil liberties advocates.

"The president will make the designation about who would be subject to a military tribunal. He will make that determination on the basis of what he believes is in the national security interest" said Fleischer.

The executive order, signed earlier this month, allows for a special military panel, rather than a civilian court, to try terrorists like Osama bin Laden, who is accused of masterminding the September strikes. [End quoting]

If it walks like a dictatorship and talks like a dictatorship—can it really still be a free America?

NESARA CONFIRMATIONS PLUS BROKAW/ASHCROFT INTERVIEW

Excerpted from the INTERNET, "Dove" <dove_of_o@hotmail.com>, 11/28/01: [quoting]

Hello Dear Friends,

Below are three interesting emails I received. The first one written to Starla is from someone who called the Bank of America a few days ago and confirmed that the B of A is ready to accept the new Treasury currency bills which are backed by gold (and other precious metals). Remember, NESARA is the ONLY law which authorizes the new Treasury Bank system and new U.S. Treasury currency notes/bills backed by gold and other precious metals.

My thanks to the person who called the B of A and also to the Rev. Hanzel for sharing his valuable knowledge with us via his letter urging NESARA's immediate announcement. I'm told that thousands of people have sent emails demanding NESARA's announcement. My sincere thanks to ALL who have had the courage to SPEAK OUT and demand the NESARA benefits which are RIGHTFULLY available for all people in our country.

Also my thanks to the person who sent me the information about Tom Brokaw's interview with Ashcroft, who seems to be a full-fledged dark-agenda stooge. I'm certain Tom Brokaw KNOWS the White Knights and now he obviously understands HOW SERIOUS the situation is in this country. Bless you, Tom Brokaw; you will soon be able to report the TRUTH because the White Knights ARE WINNING and NESARA IS happening.

The reason we, in the prosperity programs, care about NESARA is because most of the programs' funding is ordered to be paid out in the new Treasury Bank system.

Let's continue our prayers, meditations, and energy work invoking the Great Divine.

We are in the quiet before the GRAND DAWN of NESARA in the USA. After NESARA brings truth and prosperity to our country, the rest of the world will also undergo magnificent improvements.

Blessings and Love, Dove of Oneness

* * *

Subj: Dove is right about this one!

Date: 11/26/01

Starla: On 11/25/01 at 2:19 p.m. EST, I called Bank of America and advised "I am considering opening several new accounts, but before I do I want to know if BoA is set up for the new Treasury Bills which are backed by precious metals?" The young lady had to check, but came back and the answer was "Yes, we do." Since she answered that way, I repeated: "You are DEFINITELY set up for the new Treasury Bills which ARE backed by precious metals?" She then answered "Yes, we are."

After getting Dove's latest message, I called a different number earlier today for B of A and asked if they were set up for the new Treasury Bills, and her answer, after checking, was "Yes, we do." Since she answered that way, I got to thinking perhaps I had not made myself clear what I was asking, so I decided to call back to the main number in our phone book. I asked very detailed questions and she checked with the answers above, and said: "Yes, we are set up for the Treasury Bills."

I would say that Dove is RIGHT ON THE MARK.

* * *

From: Robert Hanzel

Date: Sat Nov 24, 2001

Subject: The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 and NESARA

Dear Members of the International Court of Justice,

Secretary of State Colin Powell, and Secretary of Treasury Paul O'Neil:

The Federal Reserve Act passed in 1913, whereby the Treasury Department gave all of its money to the Federal Reserve Bank, a private corporation owned by foreign bankers, was both unlawful and unconstitutional. From that time until today, 88 years later, Americans have been robbed and cheated by these foreign bankers while they have created wars in which our sons and daughters have been sacrificed, so that they could build up munitions, explode munitions, destroy cities, destroy countries, which would require more money allowing the Federal Reserve Banks to gain greater wealth, so that the trillions and trillions of dollars could go to these families who apparently could not live on a balanced budget that would satisfy them.

Honorable sirs, if you understand the significance of this lopsided extremism you will see how URGENT it is to get back to a just and equitable form of banking and financial balance. In seeing this, you will also understand why it is so important to relieve the suffering, tragedy, and sorrow in the world through the proper understanding of the monetary system and how it has been manipulated by those who have allowed our sons and daughters to suffer in unnecessary wars and who have stolen our life's work and energies, those of our parents, and those of our children for close to 90 years.

There is hope. In the early 1990s, a United States District Court (upheld by the Supreme Court) ruled on a lawsuit that all lending institutions in the United States had been operating fraudulently since 1933 because they were never properly registered in the states as a lending institution to do business. Because they were NEVER a legal entity, they had no standing in the courts which they have used to seek remedy and relief from the people.

It is my understanding that the announcement of the National Economic Stabilization and Recovery Act (NESARA) would bring immediate remedy and relief to the people. If you sincerely believe in the necessity of physical, emotional, spiritual, and economic well-being for all, and if it is now humanly possible to announce NESARA, we can take back that which the Founding Fathers of this country gave us but which we, our parents, and others, through negligence and lack of attention, allowed to be lost and forfeited at great suffering to ourselves, our children, our neighbors, and our parents.

Honorable Sirs, for bringing back the spirit of the U.S. Constitution with its guarantees of Liberty and Freedom for all, which we thrived under for over a hundred years before we were robbed of our heritage, please announce NESARA—NOW.

In the service, Rev. Robert Hanzel, Minister of Awareness, former Economic Development Planner and Director, Clark County, Nevada, Regional Planning Council.

* * *

BROKAW CHALLENGES ASHCROFT: WAR? WHAT WAR?

<<http://www.rumormillnews.net/cgi-bin/config.pl?read=15300>> Posted By: TimelessMind Date: Monday, 26 November 2001, 8:38 a.m.

On 11/21 evening news, Tom Brokaw was interviewing Attorney General Ashcroft regarding his decision to try suspected "terrorists" in military courts. Ashcroft began by saying that "in a time of war [paraphrasing here, from memory] such extraordinary 'liberties' were often taken." He spoke of World War II, for instance.

"But" argued Tom in a blatant challenge: "Congress has NOT declared a War!"

It was almost as though Brokaw were ALERTING us to something that had been "lost" in the translation of the anti-terrorism bill, and Bush's "declared war on terrorism". Fact is, Bush CANNOT declare a war on anything! Only Congress can. SO WHAT IS GOING ON HERE?

Ashcroft rode over his objections like a bulldozer by simply ignoring them! And continued talking about the NON-EXISTENT/COMPLETELY ILLEGAL (take your pick) WAR as though Brokaw had not said a word. It was interesting to note that my mind tuned into Tom's frustration; and something else—I saw FEAR. I sensed that the man no longer is under any illusion about what is happening in this country. Perhaps it was the anthrax letter that sent him over the edge, or perhaps he was already there, but there was a distinct sense that Tom Brokaw is considering his role as a Real American. Who knows: Maybe he is actually "tuning in" to his own Source!? Just reading between the lines! Ain't it great? — TM [End quoting]

[Editor's note: The question to ask yourself and pursue through any legitimate means or connections at your disposal, is whether or not this NESARA program—or something like it—is for real. In the long run, we can be sure of a turnaround of this nation as more and more people awaken to The Truth of the shenanigans we have endured for so long now. But in the short term, as lessons surely need to be learned and adversarial roles played out here on schoolroom Earth, the signs are not yet so obvious to declare a "victory" for the common American—many of whom are absolutely clueless about both the problem and the solution. When mindless flag-waving gets replaced with the asking of tough questions to our "elected" representatives in sufficient volume to intimidate them into honest action, then will the fields be ready for the planting of such far-reaching economic seeds.

Meanwhile, the huge array of information swirling around many "underground" and Internet news conduits on this NESARA matter is, if anything, conflicting and vague to the discerning observer—and thus suggestive of at least some purposeful disinformation activity.

We felt it important enough to highlight this matter back in the October issue of The SPECTRUM in conjunction with the 9/11/01 tragedy for the obvious reasons noted therein. However, we choose not to act in a capacity to "fan the flames" of publicity about NESARA at this time both because (1) our own trusted sources of information have been able to garner, at best, lukewarm confirmations of matters on the truly inside track, and (2) because those driving such a program, if it is real and thus of such national magnitude, would then also have to be more than capable of making sure it gets announced when the time is right—but not a moment sooner.]

WE ARE THE WAR CRIMINALS NOW

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.rense.com>>, 11/29/01: [quoting]

By Robert Fisk, Commentary, The Independent, London
"Everything we have believed in since the Second World War goes by the board as we pursue our own exclusive war."

We are becoming war criminals in Afghanistan. The U.S. Air Force bombs Mazar-i-Sharif for the Northern Alliance, and our heroic Afghan allies—who slaughtered 50,000 people in Kabul between 1992 and 1996—move into the city and execute up to 300 Taliban fighters. The report is a footnote on the television satellite channels, a "nib" in journalistic parlance. Perfectly normal, it seems. The Afghans have a "tradition" of revenge. So, with the strategic assistance of the U.S.A.F., a war crime is committed.

Now we have the Mazar-i-Sharif prison "revolt", in which Taliban inmates opened fire on their Alliance jailers. U.S. Special Forces—and, it has emerged, British troops—helped the Alliance to overcome the uprising and, sure enough, CNN tells us some prisoners were "executed" trying to escape. It is an atrocity. British troops are now stained with war crimes. Within days, The Independent's Justin Huggler

ATTENTION!

- Are you looking for a product to replace your "dangerous" deodorant/antiperspirant? (See the News Desk article on page 4 of the June 2001 issue of The SPECTRUM newspaper.)
- Have you tried alternative antiperspirants and deodorants that just don't work? (At least not for long!)
- Do you have a problem with incontinence odor and don't want to risk using powders with talc?

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO COMPROMISE PROTECTION FOR SAFETY!

For a free sample and free information (your name will not be used or sold for any other purposes) send a self-addressed, legal-size envelope w/ TWO 1st class stamps to:

DEODORANT INFO.
c/o PO Box 958
TEHACHAPI, CA 93581

has found more executed Taliban members in Kunduz.

The Americans have even less excuse for this massacre. For the U.S. Secretary of Defence, Donald Rumsfeld, stated quite specifically during the siege of the city that U.S. air raids on the Taliban defenders would stop “if the Northern Alliance requested it”. Leaving aside the revelation that the thugs and murderers of the Northern Alliance were now acting as air controllers to the U.S.A.F. in its battle with the thugs and murderers of the Taliban, Mr. Rumsfeld’s incriminating remark places Washington in the witness box of any war-crimes trial over Kunduz. The U.S. were acting in full military co-operation with the Northern Alliance militia.

Most television journalists, to their shame, have shown little or no interest in these disgraceful crimes. Cosying up to the Northern Alliance, chatting to the American troops, most have done little more than mention the war crimes against prisoners in the midst of their reports. What on Earth has gone wrong with our moral compass since 11 September?

Perhaps I can suggest an answer. After both the First and Second World Wars, we—the “West”—grew a forest of legislation to prevent further war crimes. The very first Anglo-French-Russian attempt to formulate such laws was provoked by the Armenian Holocaust at the hands of the Turks in 1915; The Entente said it would hold personally responsible “all members of the (Turkish) Ottoman government and those of their agents who are implicated in such massacres”. After the Jewish Holocaust and the collapse of Germany in 1945, article 6 (C) of the Nuremberg Charter and the Preamble of the U.N. Convention on genocide referred to “crimes against humanity”. Each new post-1945 war produced a raft of legislation and the creation of ever more human rights groups to lobby the world on liberal, humanistic Western values.

Over the past 50 years, we sat on our moral pedestal and lectured the Chinese and the Soviets, the Arabs and the Africans, about human rights. We pronounced on the human-rights crimes of Bosnians and Croatsians and Serbs. We put many of them in the dock, just as we did the Nazis at Nuremberg. Thousands of dossiers were produced, describing—in nauseous detail—the secret courts and death squads and torture and extra judicial executions carried out by rogue states and pathological dictators. Quite right too.

Yet suddenly, after 11 September, we went mad. We bombed Afghan villages into rubble, along with their inhabitants—blaming the insane Taliban and Osama bin Laden for our slaughter—and now we have allowed our gruesome militia allies to execute their prisoners. President George Bush has signed into law a set of secret military courts to try and then liquidate anyone believed to be a “terrorist murderer” in the eyes of America’s awesomely inefficient intelligence services. And make no mistake about it, we are talking here about legally sanctioned American government death squads. They have been created, of course, so that Osama bin Laden and his men, should they be caught rather than killed, will have no public defence—just a pseudo trial and a firing squad.

It’s quite clear what has happened. When people with yellow or black or brownish skin, with Communist or Islamic or Nationalist credentials, murder their prisoners or carpet-bomb villages to kill their enemies or set up death squad courts, they must be condemned by the United States, the European Union, the United Nations, and the “civilised” world. We are the masters of human rights, the Liberals, the great and good who can preach to the impoverished masses. But when our people are murdered—when our glittering buildings are destroyed—then we tear up every piece of human rights legislation, send off the B-52s in the direction of the impoverished masses, and set out to murder our enemies.

Winston Churchill took the Bush view of his enemies. In 1945, he preferred the straightforward execution of the Nazi leadership. Yet despite the fact that Hitler’s monsters were responsible for at least 50 million deaths—10,000 times greater than the victims of 11 September—the Nazi murderers were given a trial at Nuremberg because U.S. President Truman made a remarkable decision. “Undiscriminating executions or punishments” he said “without definite findings of guilt fairly arrived at, would not fit easily on the American conscience or be remembered by our children with pride”.

No one should be surprised that Mr. Bush—a small-time Texas Governor/Executioner—should fail to understand the morality of a statesman in the White House. What is so shocking is that the Blairs, Schröders, Chiracs, and all the television boys should have remained so gutlessly silent in the face of the Afghan executions and East European-style legislation sanctified since 11 September.

There are ghostly shadows around to remind us of the consequences of state murder. In France, a general goes on trial after admitting to torture and murder in the 1954-62 Algerian War, because he referred to his deeds as “justifiable acts of duty performed without pleasure or remorse”. And in Brussels, a judge will decide if the Israeli Prime Minister, Ariel Sharon, can be prosecuted for his “personal responsibility” for the 1982 massacre in Sabra and Chatila.

Yes, I know the Taliban were a cruel bunch of bastards. They committed most of their massacres outside Mazar-i-Sharif in the late 1990s. They executed women in the Kabul football stadium. And yes, let’s remember that 11 September was a crime against humanity.

But I have a problem with all this. George Bush says that “you are either for us or against us” in the war for civilisation against evil. Well, I’m sure not for bin Laden. But I’m not for Bush. I’m actively against the brutal, cynical, lying “war of civilisation” that he has begun so mendaciously in our name and which has now cost as many lives as the World Trade Centre mass murder.

At this moment, I can’t help remembering my dad. He was old enough to have fought in the First World War. In the third Battle of Arras. And as great age overwhelmed him near the end of the century, he raged against the waste and murder of the 1914-1918 war. When he died, in 1992, I inherited the campaign medal of which he was once so proud, proof that he had survived a war he had come to hate and loathe and despise. On the back, it says: “The Great War For Civilisation”. Maybe I should send it to George Bush.

<<http://argument.independent.co.uk>> [End quoting]

The brutality of the “war on terrorism” without question reveals the dark mentality of the TRUE (but cleverly hidden) engineers behind the event; only they can’t see how they are so easily revealed. Once enough of the public (including the author above) understand the full extent of the hoax that has been perpetrated upon them, the sentiments of moral contradiction expressed here will take on an even more poignant edge of irony. Will it be enough outrage to overthrow the dark influence on planet Earth? That’s what schoolroom Earth has set-up to find out.

U.S. SATELLITE DETECTION OF PORTABLE NUCLEAR WEAPONS

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.rense.com>>, 11/7/01: [quoting]

From Robert [name protected].

As you have probably heard from the major news networks, there is some concern about the so-called portable nuclear devices developed by the old USSR. Their former head of the KGB has confirmed the existence of 150 portable devices—100 of which are presently unaccounted for.

First of all, portable refers to a low-yield device with casing that would require an 18-wheeler to transport! “Suitcase device” is a misnomer. Second, none of these devices are missing; we know exactly where these devices are located at any given point in time.

This is how we know: During the 1980s I worked as a Senior Systems Engineer for several DOD companies in San Diego (Advanced Digital Systems and SAIC). While in this position I was tasked with developing a “Fleet Satellite Catastrophic Restoral Plan” for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. My group was to develop a method for satellite intelligence restoral in the event of a space-born nuclear strike by the Soviet Union. In the course of this study, we had to review all satellite capabilities and characteristics—both current and projected through the early ’90s.

A series of satellites planned to begin deployment in 1989 (temporarily delayed by the Shuttle explosion) are now aloft (2nd phase of the MILSTAR Program). They carry special sensor devices (developed by SAIC) that can detect high-velocity spin-off particles from enriched uranium (necessary for nuclear devices). Due to the small size and velocity of these particles, no amount of shielding can block them—not lead, not earth (subterranean). Radiation hazards from these particles are minimal due to limited quantity. Our satellites are fool-proof in detecting and pin-pointing the locations of enriched uranium throughout the world.

The nuclear verification process employed in monitoring Iraq and other nations via NATO and the United Nations uses these satellite joint detection systems (the NSA controls and tracks the data). Many articles concerning these satellites have already been written in specialty magazines (Defense Science And Electronics for one). Any attempt to bring a nuclear device into our country would be instantly detected (not to mention the track of its mobile transport).

Once again, the major US media resorts to half-truths for the benefit of ratings: “Stay tuned for more on our impending annihilation!” their unspoken headlines read. If an internal nuclear attack ever occurs in this country without a major failure of our satellite assets, perhaps we should rethink just who the enemy really is.

While at SAIC, I worked special projects for Dick Egger (heir-apparent to Bob Beyster). As SAIC is now the top think-tank for DOD, Admiral Poindexter (I worked for him as an NSO officer) has replaced Egger.

The “Black Ops” for SAIC are under Poindexter’s control and include PSYOPS developed in the San Diego area. Former president Bush Senior is STILL IN CHARGE of the old CIA ops group Poindexter represents. Just as in IRAN/CONTRA, the funding is private! I believe our capabilities to detect nukes is “with intent” being hushed by the special interest group from the Bush presidency (there really is a World Order crowd!)—now operating through Bush Jr.

I am known to these people. I worked within their organization for almost 10 years—until I woke up. You can verify with Oliver North. He will not admit, but say to him: “The meeting at Pacer Systems in 1982 was taped and remains with the other documents bearing Bush Senior’s signature—you only retrieved what I set aside for retrieval.” You can gauge his reaction for yourself. [End quoting]

Keep the above in mind the next time “they” fabricate a scare tactic concerning nuclear devices to pass some law to take away even more rights of the citizenry. We have long been able to detect and track the location of ANY nuclear device from our satellite systems. So every time “they” say we should be afraid of a nuclear “terrorist” attack—think a bit about WHO the REAL terrorists must be! It can’t happen unless “they” allow it to happen. And the likelihood of such a nuclear trick being pulled, to further intimidate the public, is just as likely (and possible) as was the 9/11/01 deception by the same crooks in high places.

And if the above doesn’t quite boil your blood, how about this one:

A HORSE IN BALANCE WEARS A CROWN OF LIGHT

A story honoring en-Light-ened riding masters who developed Guidelines to bring: discipline, beauty, grace, and balance in the movements of a horse, from a girl who desired to be a better rider. She became the first equestrian American woman in Olympic history. This is her own life story; how their Guidelines produced oneness with her horses, also the realization of Creator-God, the Balancing Fulcrum, from riding the Figure 8. The en-Light-ened equestrian masters were Fritz Stecken and Ludwig Von Zeiner, Head Rider of The Spanish Riding School.

Price: $12.00 (shipping included), payable with name & address to:

 M.B. Gill, P.O. Box 277
Devault, PA 19432-0277

THE NOOSE IS TIGHTENING AROUND ALL OUR NECKS!

From the INTERNET, "chris lock"
<lockpeter@hotmail.com>, 11/24/01: [quoting]

To all receiving this: Please spread far and wide.

This [the shocking story "My Day At The Airport" which follows a few other interesting items below from Chris Lock's newsletter] should be on the front page of every newspaper in the United States.

— Chris Lock, SPIRAL Osaka

Greetings Chris and thanks for the upbeat information on NESARA. It has been passed on thoughtfully. I would like to share with you and others who may be interested the words of a very sane woman who went by the name "Peace Pilgrim". She was a living example of what one can do for peace having spent most of her adult life from the early 1950s until her death WALKING ACROSS AMERICA AND CANADA for peace. She carried no money. She relied on the providence of God to be fed, and slept many a night under the stars. Thousands upon thousands were positively changed meeting her on the highways and byways of America. She was gloriously healthy, unbelievably free, and TOTALLY at peace.

Her message was simple: "This is the way of Peace: Overcome evil with good; falsehood with Truth; and hatred with Love." That might sound crass if she had not spent over twenty years as a literal vagrant uplifting all she met as an embodiment of peace. It is not enough to be anti-war, one has to LIVE peace first, within oneself. She trusted in God and received far, far more than any money or material "security" could offer. Now here is the quote from her book I am most interested in everyone reflecting on. You will know why when you read it. It comes from the chapter entitled "Extensions Of Pacifism".

QUOTE FROM HERMAN GOERING (Hitler's right-hand man) AT THE NUREMBURG TRIALS:

"Why, of course people don't want war. Why should some poor slob on a farm want to risk his/her life in a war when the best he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece? Naturally the common people don't want war: neither in Russia, nor in England, nor for that matter in Germany. That is understood.

But after all, it is the leaders of a country who determine the policy, and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

Indeed it does, and in the land of the "free" this is what happens to a pacifist today:

My Day At The Airport

by Nancy Oden

On Thursday, November 1, 2001, I left my farmhouse on the North Coast of Maine, where I'm an organic grower, and headed for the Bangor International Airport in Bangor, Maine. I was dressed conservatively in a long, brown skirt with a matching jacket and turtleneck sweater, no jewelry, no buttons or other political indications attached, looking very like other women my age in this part of the world.

I am a relatively well known environmentalist, social and political activist, who has run for public office. It should be noted that, while I've been an activist for over thirty years, I've never been arrested, nor has there been anything in my life that would signal I meant harm to anyone.

Also, this was the third time this year I had traveled out of (or attempted to, in this case) Bangor Airport on American Airlines using an e-ticket purchased from Priceline.com bought weeks before with my own credit card. They had no reason for profiling and singling me out. It had to have been because of my political views which, of course, is not a good reason (see U.S. Constitution's first ten Amendments, otherwise known as the Bill Of Rights).

I was headed for Chicago for a Green Party USA National Coordinating Committee meeting, where I was to speak the next night on biochemical warfare and pesticides as weapons of war. I was also scheduled to interview job applicants, present several proposals and financial reports, and so on. I am a lead person on the National Coordinating

KIND WORDS FROM OUR READERS

"Dear Friends in Light, God bless you for bringing Truth. Please use this money to help you with the costs of putting out such a magnificent paper. It is such a blessing to me. May God bless all of you."
— M.F. from MD

"Dear Friends, I am simply amazed at the wonderful coverage and truth of 9/11/01 in the October SPECTRUM. One person I had a copy mailed to has decided to subscribe."

"Thank you, thank you, thank you for The SPECTRUM!! I have read and reread the messages from Sananda, Soltec, Germain, and Korton, and each reading provides one with more food for thought. What a marvelous gift!"
— D.W. from NC

"Dear Rick, Gail, and Dr. Young: I wrote you a while back that I am always behind on reading thru your SPECTRUM. Each issue is so jam-packed, I can't skip ANY articles! And I'm not through one issue when, lo and behold, another issue arrives in my mailbox! This is not to say that I'm a slow reader—in fact, I'm a fast reader. But I do have other things that I must do, and so I'm always disappointed when I can't keep up with you all."

"And then, yesterday, the latest issue arrived—and egad! Dr. Young has chosen to print it in little teensy baby print! So you have twice as much material in the 68 pages than you usually have! Well, thank goodness, I don't have to use a magnifying glass to read it, but if Dr. Young reduces it any more, I may have to resort to that!"

"I guess the only thing I can do is give up sleep to get everything read!"

"I still don't know how you folks do it all. But thank God you do. Keep up the good work."

"Your friend in Illinois."

"P.S. This email is written not as sarcastic criticism, but is meant to be an amusing message. I wrote it with a smile on my face."
— D.B. from IL

"Dear SPECTRUM, I am enclosing a thoughtful article on the soy controversy FYI. Also a small donation. Wish my circumstances permitted me to give a bigger amount. Sure hope you folks can survive. SPECTRUM is a Godsend."
— M.A. from WA

"Dr. Young was right! The type is smaller; we get so much more! I was trying to read fast to learn as much as I could as fast as I could, but my glasses were a little out of focus. It must be my eyes. I went back to the Editorial page. No, it was the type! What a wonderful surprise! Please send me 3 more copies."
— F.S. from CA

"It was a comfort and a reassurance to be reminded of this "Peace and Knowing" by Soltec [in his message in the October 2001 issue]. The paper is a blessing beyond words. Thank you from the deepest part of my heart."
— M.C. from BC Canada

To order The SPECTRUM newspaper please call 1-877-280-2866, or if you are outside the U.S. please call 1-661-823-9696.

Committee of the Green Party USA (the original Green Party, although there is now another which took a very similar name).

I arrived at the Bangor Airport the now-requisite two hours ahead of the flight and walked in to the airport to the sight of a couple of dozen National Guard troops carrying machine guns in their hands wandering around the lobby. I walked down to the American Airlines ticket counter, where there were no other passengers, and told the airline ticket agent my name. I was holding out my picture ID and the printed itinerary they told us to bring, but he barely glanced at them. I remember thinking: "Does he have a picture of me under that counter? Why didn't he look at my ID?"

No one checked my ID at any time. They all knew what I looked like and, it became clear, my antiwar stance. I am not that well known that they would have known me on sight. Why were they briefed about me before I arrived at the airport? What were they told? Was it the FBI or some other agency? Which one?

The ticket agent spent an inordinate amount of time on his computer, then finally produced a boarding pass with a large "S" written on it. I asked him what that meant, and he said I had been picked to have my bags searched. Well, one expects that now, so I said "Oh, that's okay." But I had a feeling there was more.

Since there was no one else around, I turned back to him and looked him in the eye—he seemed a decent guy—and asked him: "My being picked wasn't random, was it?" He hesitated a moment, but then said: "No, your name was already flagged in the computer and you would have been searched in any case." Well, still possibly coincidence.

Then to the x-ray for my bags and me. I said to the two women sitting by the machine that scans the bags, sort of apologetically, "I've been picked to have my bags searched. I know this might sound silly, but since you handle all these people's bags and belongings—with the anthrax scare and all—I'd like it if whoever searches through my clothes and things wash their hands first." They looked at me with hate and loathing, and one said: "We don't want YOUR germs, either." (Turns out they wear rubber gloves.)

"Whoa" I thought, "either I'm back in kindergarten or these normally quite civil women have some reason for being hostile". I had the distinct feeling they had been told awful things about me—I want to know what they were told about this profiled individual coming to their airport.

Neither my bags nor I set off any beeps in the machinery so we walked right through to the boarding area. Here I sat down with the other passengers. There was one National Guard soldier in the boarding area; he was a short man with a black eye wearing camo gear and carrying a machine gun.

Soon after I sat down, the National Guardsman looked at the dozen or so passengers, his eyes stopping at me and he yelled: "Bring those bags over here!" Since he didn't call my name, how did he know which person was me, since I did not look appreciably different from the others?

When I didn't move fast enough, he yelled again: "Hurry up! Move! Bring those bags up here!" This did not make me move faster. By now people were beginning to stare at me as if I might possibly be someone bent on doing something wrong.

I set my two smallish bags on the table where two women were waiting to search my bags. As one of them had trouble with a zipper on my older bag, I said “Oh, that zipper is not right, here, let me open it for you” and I reached over the table to undo the zipper. Immediately the soldier yelled out: “Get your hands away from there!” By now the other passengers were getting nervous, of course.

He was standing at the end of the table with the women on one side looking in my bags and me standing on the other side of the table. I turned to face him, which put my back towards everyone else, and he grabbed my left arm and began loudly spouting pro-war nonsense into my face. “Don’t you understand we have to get them before they get us? Don’t you understand what happened September 11?” and so on.

I immediately pulled my arm away from him and said: “Do not touch me. You cannot do that!” And stepped back a foot or so, saying that I didn’t want to hear his views on why he thought we should kill starving, helpless people in Afghanistan.

He grabbed for me again. I stepped back further stating emphatically: “Do not touch me!” And further emphasizing that I did not want to listen to his views on the war. He was about to leave his position and come after me again, but I saw the senior security man, who is usually there, shake his head “No” at the soldier, who then backed off, but he was angry that I would not submit to his holding me while he forced his views on me.

I turned, and there, just a couple of inches away, was the man with the metal-detecting wand. I stepped back a foot or two so he wasn’t right up against me, and he did the wand thing. I was the only one whose bags were searched. For a woman of a certain age such as myself to stand there with arms outstretched while a man skimmed my body with a device was very embarrassing and demeaning.

I asked him not to touch me with the wand, as I didn’t know what it was, but, of course, he had to touch my shoulder with it. I ignored this, just wanting to get out of there. While he was doing the wand thing, I heard the soldier, who was behind me, say: “Don’t let her on the plane.” I thought he was talking to himself.

Then they were done with the searching, and I walked the three feet to the boarding gate. The American Airlines agent said: “You can’t get on the plane”. I asked why. He replied, “Because he [indicating the soldier] says you didn’t cooperate with the search.”

I said: “But you were standing here the whole time. Didn’t you see him grab my arm and talk loudly into my face?” He said he couldn’t see that because my back was to people, he only saw me back off.

I then told the American Airlines agent that I needed to get to Chicago and stated what I had to do there. The American Airlines agent then said, rather softly, probably so the guardsman soldier couldn’t hear: “We’ll put you on the four o’clock plane; that’s the last one out today that you can go through Boston and still get to Chicago tonight.” I replied “Fine, let’s just do that. I don’t care if I’m late so long as I get there.”

Unfortunately, the Guardsman overheard, and he wasn’t done with me. Clearly, this non-subservient female had to be punished for not being sufficiently obsequious. He saw me picking up my bags to go out into the lobby and wait for the 4 o’clock plane, and yelled (that seemed to be his only means of communication): “Come With Me!”

I asked “Why? Where are we going?”

He replied, louder, “Come With Me!”

A few people to whom I’ve told this insist the government/military is trying to “criminalize” me and other political activists who don’t have criminal records. This is what’s done to people of color. When they’re harassed and/or beaten by police, they eventually, of course, do something to protect themselves, and then get arrested for hitting an officer or whatever. If they then get convicted of a felony, they go to prison and probably a few years of parole, when one’s rights are mostly non-existent, and draconian restrictions are put upon one’s activities. Convicted felons lose a lot of rights in this country: their travel is henceforth limited; in some states they can’t vote, own a gun, and various other limitations.

Under the circumstances, and because I had a few hours until four o’clock anyway, it seemed best to go with the Guardsman. The circumstances being that each individual soldier/national guardsman seems to be The Law unto themselves. Each of them makes it up as they go along, punishing people who don’t hop to. Military law is not democracy.

He took me to the entrance area, apart from anyone else. Then he ordered, loudly, “Sit Down!” I gave him a look and then sat. The soldier found the airport policeman and told him to stay with me. Upon reflection, I probably wasn’t free to leave, but I thought I was waiting for the next plane, so just stayed there.

The airport policeman was a pleasant local man and we talked about what had just happened as well as people we knew, etc. Within minutes I looked up to see 5-6 National Guardsmen in their camo gear all carrying machine guns marching in a sort of formation towards me. I was sitting down quietly talking with the policeman. The situation looked like a bad movie.

It occurred to me that this is how people get “disappeared”, which has happened to over 1,200 Americans so far since September 11. We used to hear about this only in repressive military regimes in other places (usually bolstered by our tax dollars). I’m sure they were ready to arrest me for allegedly “not cooperating with a security search”, with which I had, indeed, cooperated.

All of a sudden the ludicrousness of the situation struck me. There I am, sitting down with my bags, a woman clearly not a physical threat, and this phalanx of soldiers in formation descends upon me, ready to arrest me for something I did not do. I gave a little laugh and said to the lead man: “What, all this, just for me?” Then I asked: “What’s this really about? What’s going on here?”

He replied “We understand you didn’t cooperate with a security search.”

I said “That’s ridiculous. They searched my bags and they did the wand search. The only problem was your man here [I indicated the short guy with the black eye] grabbing my arm and spouted pro-war views loudly in my face.” The lead soldier (I don’t know his rank) said, astonishingly, “He told me he only hit your arm.”

I looked at the lead soldier wide-eyed with a few unbidden (certainly unwanted when I’m trying to look fierce) tears in my eyes, and asked: “Even if that’s all he had done, would that be okay?” I think he then realized the Guardsman had been way out of line and said “Wait here.”

They left, and the policeman stayed with me. I don’t really think I was free to go, although I had not been arrested.

I found out later they had gone upstairs and told the Bangor Airport manager to tell all airlines in the airport not to allow me to fly out of Bangor that day, and possibly more than just that one day. Since the military are in charge of our airports and they can override civilians in charge, this was made to happen.

I was to be punished for the crime of questioning their authority, especially for the Guardsman to hold my arm and force me to listen to his brain-washed rantings.

Every airline in the Bangor Airport was given my name and told that I did not cooperate with a security search. Not cooperating with a security search at an airport is a federal

Electricity for Health

Check The Beck Protocol ...
A First-aid Kit for the Future

A four-part protocol that enables you to help yourself using gentle micro currents of electricity, magnetic pulsing, colloidal silver and ozonated water.

The Silver Pulser and Magnetic Pulser are licensed in Canada as Class II medical devices available to the public.

1-800-224-0242

Tel: 250-814-0046 Fax: 250-814-0047
www.sotainstruments.com
anybody@sotainstruments.com

Colloidal Silver Handbook

Why You Need It How To Make It

44-page booklet

$7 (shipping included)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

crime. If, indeed, I had not cooperated, they would have arrested me right then and there. But I had been searched, so they couldn’t say that.

However, now I have to wonder if every airline in the world doesn’t have me in their computer as a person who didn’t cooperate with the security search, which means they can deny me passage in their airplanes. We will find out as time goes on.

They told the policeman this news and had him tell me that I wouldn’t be allowed to fly out of Bangor that day. So I said I had to go to American Airlines and get my money back. The policeman came with me.

The same AA clerk was at the counter. He stepped outside the counter to converse with the policeman and me. He confirmed that they had been told not to allow me to fly out of Bangor that day. I asked him about the next day and he said he didn’t know. This is not a small matter for me, since the Bangor Airport is 100 miles from where I live.

The AA clerk then suggested I drive to Boston (5-1/2 hour drive) and fly out of there. There were several problems with that, I told him. First, my old car barely made it the 100 miles to the Bangor Airport and might not make it to Boston or back again. Then there were the parking fees in Boston as well as the fact that I might not be allowed to fly out of there or might not be able to get a seat once I got there. Also, if they would not honor my now-expired ticket, I’d have to pay full fare, which I couldn’t afford. Not a serious option.

I then asked the American Airlines clerk for my money back so I might consider some alternative means of transport. He said he couldn’t refund my money. I asked him why and he said: “It’s a non-refundable ticket.” This was so ridiculous that all three of us laughed a little. All the airlines issue tickets on other tickets all the time. So I asked him again and he said he couldn’t refund the ticket, indicating it wasn’t his decision, which I understood, and told him I’d take it up with the airline later.

Then the policeman, half apologetically, told me I’d been banned from the Airport for that day, and that he had to escort me out. I told him I understood that he was under the military’s rule, and that I would call it his walking me to the door, rather than escorting me out of the airport.

We walked to the exit. I thanked him for being kind and considerate, which he had been, and left with the sinking feeling that something bad is happening to our country. And this is how it begins.

Postscript:

I have since gotten in touch with the Bangor Airport manager who assures me that it’s fine with them if I fly out of there, but that it ultimately isn’t their decision.

I’ve also been told by American Airlines’ head of security in Texas that I am welcome to fly on their airline any time, and that they will contact Priceline.com about both of them giving my money back. This is all good, excepting that the military can arbitrarily, at any time, revoke my right to travel for no good reason, as they did November 1 in Bangor, Maine. So long as the military are in charge of civilian affairs, we are not free; we do not have our Bill Of Rights protecting us because they've abrogated it and declared themselves The Law.

We are forming a national Bill Of Rights Defense Committee, and invite all of you and/or groups you're affiliated with to help us form such a coalition based on defense of our civil liberties. Please email back saying you'll be part of this new coalition of groups and individuals, and include your name and phone number. Then we can call a meeting to decide what to do. We need a large, strong, united voice to tell the military government we now have (Bush, Sr., who used to be not only President, but before that head of the CIA, Dick Cheney, Daddy Bush's fellow oil man and defense contractor, and the Pentagon brass) that we will not accept killing democracy in order to save it.

We do not want corporations, with their only interest in next quarter's profits, running the world. We, the people, should be making the decisions that affect our lives. Real Democracy. Nothing less will do.

Nancy Oden is an organic farmer and Green Party organizer. She lives in Jonesboro, Maine. She can be contacted at: <cleaneearth@acadia.net> <<http://disc.server.com/discussion.cgi?id=149495&article=11638>>

I consider what happened to this sane, peaceful and obviously intelligent citizen of a so called democracy to be nothing short of apocalyptic in its import. The fact that this CAN and DOES happen now almost daily in the United States should convince even the harshest skeptic that something has gone terribly wrong on our planet. And it is NOT because of Islamic terrorists. Let us be very awake on that point.

[End quoting]

The mostly sleeping public has only a dim idea about how quickly such "terrorism" as described above can take over a nation.

For example, consider the following courageous opinion voiced by a famous writer of the political realms:

KANGAROO COURTS OF THE BUSH DICTATORSHIP

From the INTERNET, Truthout 2001, for 11/26/01: [quoting]

By William Safire

WASHINGTON—As soon as German U-boats put eight saboteurs on U.S. shores during World War II, one of the eight called the FBI to betray the mission but was brushed off as a crackpot. Days later, he called again and managed to persuade the FBI he was an authentic saboteur. Partly to keep this embarrassment of bungled enforcement from becoming known, the eight were secretly tried by a military court inside the FBI headquarters.

Unexpectedly, a U.S. Army lawyer assigned to the Germans mounted a spirited defense. Col. Kenneth Royall, citing the landmark 1866 Supreme Court decision of Ex Parte Milligan—holding that martial law could not be applied where federal civil courts were in business—challenged the secret tribunal's legality.

F.D.R. told his attorney general, according to Francis Biddle's memoirs, that he would resist any Supreme Court decision to give the accused saboteurs a regular court trial: "I won't hand them over to any United States marshal armed with a writ of habeas corpus." Confrontation was averted when a cowed Supreme Court unanimously acknowledged the extra-judicial power of a president armed with a Congressional declaration of war. Six of the eight captives went to the electric chair; J. Edgar Hoover was awarded a medal of honor.

Now President Bush, with no such Congressional declaration, is using that Roosevelt mistake as precedent for his own dismaying departure from due process. Bush's latest self-justification is his claim to be protecting jurors (by doing away with juries). Worse, his gung-ho advisers have convinced him—as well as some gullible commentators—that the Star Chamber tribunals he has ordered are "implementations" of the lawful Uniform Code of Military Justice.

Military attorneys are silently seething because they know that to be untrue. The U.C.M.J. demands a public trial, proof beyond reasonable doubt, an accused's voice in the selection of juries, and right to choose counsel, unanimity in death sentencing, and above all, appellate review by civilians confirmed by the Senate.

Not one of those fundamental rights can be found in Bush's military order setting up kangaroo courts for people he designates before "trial" to be terrorists. Bush's fiat turns back the clock on all advances in military justice, through three wars, in the past half-century.

His advisers assured him that a fearful majority would cheer his assumption of DICTATORIAL power to ignore our courts. They failed to warn him, however, that his denial of traditional American human rights to non-citizens would backfire and, in practice, actually weaken the war on terror.

Spain, which caught and charged eight men for complicity in the Sept. 11 attacks, last week balked at turning over the suspects to a U.S. tribunal ordered to ignore rights normally accorded alien defendants. Other members of the European Union holding suspects that might help us break Al Qaeda may also refuse extradition. Presumably Secretary of State Colin Powell was left out of the Ashcroft "try-'em-and-fry-'em" loop.

Thus has coalition-minded Bush undermined the antiterrorist coalition, ceding to nations overseas the high moral and legal ground long held by U.S. justice. And on what leg does the U.S. now stand when China sentences an American to death after a military trial devoid of counsel chosen by the defendant?

We in the tiny minority of editorialists on left and right who dare to point out such constitutional, moral, and practical antiterrorist considerations are derided as "professional hysterics" akin to "antebellum Southern belles suffering the vapors". Buncha weepy sissies, we are. (Frankly, Scarlett, I don't give a damn. I've always been pro-bellum.)

The possibility of being accused, however, of showing insufficient outrage at those suspected of a connection to terrorists shuts up most politicians. And a need to display patriotic fervor turns Bush's liberal critics into exemplars of evenhandedism. Careers can be wrecked by taking an unpopular stand.

But not always. Forty years ago, my political mentor introduced me to his senior partner, Ken Royall, who after World War II had been appointed by President Truman to be the last secretary of war. Royall, then head of a great New York law firm, considered the high point of his career his losing fight to get a group of reviled Nazi terrorists a fair American trial.

(In accordance with Title 17 U.S.C. Section 107, this material is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving the included information for research and educational purposes.) [End quoting]

And there you have it from a distinguished American commentator. Few are brave enough to weather the criticism and break with the herd of well-controlled sheep, as David Icke likes to put it. But that's exactly what the testing is about at this time on schoolroom Earth. How many of us will pass the test?

Meanwhile, here's how to deal with inconvenient questions when you don't have any good answers:

ASHCROFT SILENCE EXACERBATES HILL & WHITE HOUSE TENSIONS

Excerpted from the INTERNET, truthout 2001, 11/21/01: [quoting]

By Noelle Straub and Melanie Fonder

The chairman and ranking Republican on the Senate Judiciary Committee are increasingly frustrated by the failure of Attorney General John Ashcroft to respond to any inquiries concerning his broad new powers in dealing with accused terrorists.

Underscoring rising tensions between the White House and Congress, the committee has demanded that Ashcroft appear as the lone witness at a hearing next week.

Sens. Patrick Leahy (D-VT) and Orrin Hatch (R-UT), the Judiciary chairman and ranking member, respectively, sent a terse three-sentence letter sent to their former colleague on Friday.

"We suggest Wednesday, Nov. 28, 2001, and ask that you make yourself available for several hours" the senators wrote.

The committee staff and Department of Justice staff are negotiating the exact date, according to Leahy spokesman David Carle.

Lawmakers want information about the more than 1,000 people detained in the criminal investigation, changes allowing law enforcement to listen-in on lawyer-client communications in some cases, what law enforcement might have done to prevent the attacks, and how to ensure civil liberties under sweeping anti-terrorism legislation signed into law.

Leahy has sent six letters to Ashcroft and has signed two with other lawmakers. Ashcroft personally has yet to respond to any of them, but Assistant Attorney General Daniel Bryant responded to one issue on Nov. 14.

The letters—sent between Oct. 25 and Nov. 16—even include personal notes from Leahy such as "Looking forward to your response" and "Many people are concerned about this—I do need the questions answered."

Susan Dryden, a Justice Department spokeswoman, failed to return several phone calls from The Hill.

"Given the grave importance of this matter and its implications for basic civil liberties, I would appreciate a response to these questions by no later than Nov. 13" Leahy wrote on Nov. 9. "I would also respectfully request that full and responsive answers to my earlier letters of Oct. 25 and 31 and Nov. 7 and 8, 2001, be provided without delay." [End quoting]

Don't you wonder about the way Congress votes for laws, seemingly without even reading their texts, and then asks for answers AFTER the barn door has been opened wide?! Considering how completely bought-and-paid-for are most of the congressional puppets, you can be sure they would not be asking any tough questions if it weren't for an

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

'WHEN TO ACT' CALENDAR 2002

FEATURES: STOCK MARKET MOVEMENTS, MONTHLY SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS DATES — WORLD AFFAIRS — AND DANGEROUS DATES. SEND $20.00 CHECK OR M.O. TO: K.H. HARDING, PO BOX 7055 COLORADO SPRINGS, CO 80933

Cooking for pEACE A booklet of various recipies, special foods, beverages, to help balance the immune system, electrolyte levels, and important cellular growth. Price: $10 + s/h: $2. Send name and address to:

Cooking for pEACE
Box 277, Devault, PA 19432-0277

How wonderful is the brain to alert an unbalanced part of the body and the mind
TO SEEK THE TRUTH.

KEYS TO ULTIMATE HEALTH

Addresses cause of ALL illness and disease utilizing an "Electrical Understanding". There are NO Incurable Diseases - Just Incurable People.

Attain high energy, youthfulness & become disease-free. Receive the report: "How I became completely cancer-free in 60 days from massive cancer."

Free info pac: 1-888-658-8859

E-mail: louish@pacificcoast.net

A BRIDGE TO COSMIC REALITY
THE METAPHYSICAL/UFO WRITERS' FORUM
www.wakingstatemultimedia.org

Advertise in The SPECTRUM.

For details call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

or e-mail us at: thespectrum@tminet.com

The SPECTRUM is not responsible for claims made by our advertisers.

ENORMOUS level of pressure from constituents—pressure that is definitely NOT being reported by the controlled media in order to give the illusion (falsely) of widespread acceptance of the shenanigans being orchestrated to eliminate our Bill Of Rights.

There aren't as many asleep people as you might surmise from observing the news broadcasts; rather, the otherwise smug crooks in high places are growing ever more alarmed by how much they underestimated the public's ability to see through their tricks and ask some really tough questions. You need only read between the lines of many articles shared in the last two months of The SPECTRUM, and again this issue, to confirm that fact.

GREAT GATES FATE

From the INTERNET, <<http://stewartswerdlow.com>>, 11/26/01: [quoting]

The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, worth over $24.2 billion, was set up to act as a publicity campaign to soften the image of the ruthlessly portrayed Bill Gates, Jr. It is actually Bill Gates, Sr., age 75, who runs the program. Bill Sr. says the plan is to give away all of Junior's $54 billion net worth, to the Foundation, keeping only a "small amount" for his kids.

Well, altruistic as that may sound, it is a brilliant way to avoid taxes and still spend money on pet projects. By the way, the Foundation has none of its money in the stock market, thereby avoiding all losses. Gee, what did they know before September?

[End quoting]

This is nothing new for those of you who remember old man John D. Rockefeller's method for beating the taxman and buying admiration.

ONGOING TERRORISM EXCUSE

President Bush visited Ft. Campbell, Kentucky and told the camouflaged soldiers that: "Afghanistan is only the beginning of the fight against terrorism." By the way, Ft. Campbell is the training center for the Homeland Defense forces, being trained to stop and interrogate U.S. citizens on a daily basis.

Please refer to the article on this subject in last month's News Desk titled "Citizen, Can I See Your ID"? It's a must read for all U.S. citizens.

PORTLAND, OREGON REFUSES HOMELAND SECURITY ORDERS

Portland, Oregon is the first U.S. city to refuse to cooperate with the FBI and Homeland Security when asked to round up 5,000 Middle Eastern men in that city. The police chief in that city says it violates state law.

U.S. RAPIDLY BECOMING SECOND NAZI GERMANY

The Pentagon seeks to expand the powers of "Homeland Defense" under a giant "Central Command". This will greatly expand the use of the military within the U.S. and, in effect, create national Martial Law. The U.S. will become a second Nazi Germany.

RESEARCH PAPER SHOWING JEWS/PALESTINIANS ARE ALMOST GENETIC IDENTICALS AXED

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.rense.com>>, 11/26/01: [quoting]

By Robin McKie, Science Editor, The Observer, London
A keynote research paper showing that Middle Eastern Jews and Palestinians are genetically almost identical has been pulled from a leading journal.

Academics who have already received copies of Human Immunology have been urged to rip out the offending pages and throw them away.

Such a drastic act of self-censorship is unprecedented in research publishing and has created widespread disquiet, generating fears that it may involve the suppression of

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

As you know, we at The SPECTRUM operate with a minimal staff and very limited resources. Due in large part to your enthusiasm for this newspaper, we have been receiving numerous phone calls on our toll-free line from ones simply wishing to thank us for the work we do. Your kind words are ALWAYS appreciated. However, that route does place a drain on our limited resources—both manpower and money. It is better to receive your kind words of thanks and encouragement in the form of a written note or e-mail—that can be shared easily with all the staff, rather than with just the ones who take your call. We would appreciate that you please use the toll-free number ONLY when placing orders.

Thank you for your understanding,
Gail Cortright, Business Manager

scientific work that questions Biblical dogma.

"I have authored several hundred scientific papers, some for Nature and Science, and this has never happened to me before" said the article's lead author, Spanish geneticist Professor Antonio Arnaiz-Villena, of Complutense University in Madrid. "I am stunned."

British geneticist Sir Walter Bodmer added: "If the journal didn't like the paper, they shouldn't have published it in the first place. Why wait until it has appeared before acting like this?"

The journal's editor, Nicole Sucio-Foca, of Columbia University, New York, claims the article provoked such a welter of complaints over its extreme political writing that she was forced to repudiate it. The article has been removed from Human Immunology's website, while letters have been written to libraries and universities throughout the world asking them to ignore or "preferably to physically remove the relevant pages". Arnaiz-Villena has been sacked from the journal's editorial board.

Dolly Tyan, president of the American Society of Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics, which runs the journal, told subscribers that the society is "offended and embarrassed".

The paper, "The Origin of Palestinians and their Genetic Relatedness with other Mediterranean Populations", involved studying genetic variations in immune system genes among people in the Middle East.

In common with earlier studies, the team found no data to support the idea that Jewish people were genetically distinct from other people in the region. In doing so, the team's research challenges claims that Jews are a special, chosen people and that Judaism can only be inherited.

Jews and Palestinians in the Middle East share a very similar gene pool and must be considered closely related and not genetically separate, the authors state. Rivalry between the two races is therefore based "in cultural and religious, but not in genetic, differences" they conclude.

But the journal, having accepted the paper earlier this year, now claims the article was politically biased and was written using "inappropriate" remarks about the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Its editor told the journal Nature last week that she was threatened by mass resignations from members if she did not retract the article.

Arnaiz-Villena says he has not seen a single one of the accusations made against him, despite being promised the opportunity to look at the letters sent to the journal.

He accepts he used terms in the article that laid him open to criticism. There is one reference to Jewish "colonists" living in the Gaza strip, and another that refers to Palestinian people living in "concentration" camps.

"Perhaps I should have used the words settlers instead of colonists. but really, what is the difference?" he said.

"And clearly, I should have said refugee, not concentration, camps, but given that I was referring to settlements outside of Israel—in Syria and Lebanon—that scarcely makes me anti-Jewish. References to the history of the region, the ones that are supposed to be politically offensive, were taken from the Encyclopaedia Britannica, and other text books."

In the wake of the journal's actions, and claims of mass protests about the article, several scientists have now written to the society to support Arnaiz-Villena and to protest about their heavy-handedness.

One of them said: "If Arnaiz-Villena had found evidence that Jewish people were genetically very special, instead of ordinary, you can be sure no one would have objected to the phrases he used in his article. This is a very sad business." [End quoting]

This is just a very small, relatively common example of how our textbooks and institutions of so-called research and "higher" learning (and all schools, for that matter) are bound by political correctness and not by facts. The unmentioned shackles of coercion are—as usual—financial pressure and saving face. Hopefully this "tempest in a teapot" will backfire on the instigators and help to open many more eyes to The Truth.

Is it any wonder that our world is in such a mess when good research work is censored like this? But it happens all the time in all the important areas of, especially, history and science, since these are the major ways that the crooks in high places keep us in the dark and under their control.

LIVELY ACTIVITY UNDER ARCTIC ICE CAP

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.timestar.org>>, TimeStar Earth <timestar@timestar.org>, 11/29/01: [quoting]

This discovery of deep-sea hot springs and volcanic movement near Greenland under the Arctic Ocean is especially interesting because the area was mentioned in the Pleiadian contact with Billy Meier in Switzerland. Regardless of what anyone thinks about the Pleiadians and the Swiss Billy Meier, their UFO contact was a landmark. The Meier UFO contact contains some of the most highly documented evidence ever obtained after the Pleiadians announced their presence with high quality photos, Air Force jet chases, etc. The Pleiadians with Billy Meier wanted their message heard, and their message changed the course of UFO investigation.

In the contact that began in 1975, the Pleiadians mentioned a period in our history when Florida was located at a higher latitude, closer to Greenland. The association of Florida with the lost continent of Atlantis in the Atlantic, at a higher latitude closer to Greenland, would indicate the possibility of a crustal displacement. The recent discovery of hot spots around Greenland by the U.S. Coast Guard adds substantial dimension to the possibility of a radical displacement that caused Florida (and Atlantis) to shift to what are now lower latitudes on the globe. Regards, Krsanna

Scientists Find Hot Activity Under Arctic Ice Cap

(Updated Wednesday, November 28, By Will Dunham)

WASHINGTON (Reuters)—Under the frozen surface of the Arctic Ocean, scientists sailing aboard a U.S. Coast Guard icebreaker discovered a searing caldron of activity, including underwater volcanic movement and deep-sea hot springs that may harbor previously unknown forms of marine life.

The findings about the hot times under the polar ice cap were presented on Wednesday by scientists who participated in the nine-week Arctic Mid-Ocean Ridge Expedition (AMORE) funded by the U.S. National Science Foundation.

The scientists mapped and studied the Gakkel Ridge, which runs for 1,100 miles from north of Greenland to Siberia beneath the Arctic ice cap. It is the deepest and most remote portion of the global mid-ocean ridge system, where new ocean crust continuously is created as sea floor spreading unfolds through volcanic activity.

Defying expectations, the Gakkel Ridge seems to be highly volcanically active, the scientists said. The mission also retrieved evidence of a vast field of undersea vents known as "black smokers"—each serving as a super-heated oasis of life on the floor below the frigid Arctic Ocean.

Samples taken by the scientists revealed an abundance of fresh lava and evidence of hydrothermal activity.

"Our maps show that this ridge is tectonically very different than other ridges; the rift valley is close to a mile deeper with many enormous, long-lived faults" researcher Henry Dick of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution said in a statement. "This likely accounts for why so many hydrothermal plumes were found here."

The researchers conducted their work from aboard the specially equipped U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Healy, an icebreaker that plows through the ocean's frozen surface, and a German research vessel, the Polarstern, in a mission that started in August.

After a dredge team recovered evidence of black smoker chimneys, the scientists aboard the Polarstern lowered a camera and other sensing equipment to the sea floor to confirm the presence of these hydrothermal vents.

The vents on the mid-ocean ridges provide chemical energy that nurtures exotic life forms and complicated ecosystems deep below the ocean surface. Previously unknown organisms may live in the ecosystems, supported by these newly discovered vents, the scientists said.

Geologists, oceanographers and biologists taking part in the mission retrieved samples of rock, mud, water, and living organisms they plan to examine in their laboratories.

Gakkel Ridge is considered the world's slowest spreading mid-ocean ridge. Because the southern end of the ridge spreads somewhat more quickly than the northern end, the scientists had expected that volcanic activity would peter out as they headed north. Instead, they discovered irregular pockets of volcanic activity rather than a uniform pattern.

[End quoting]

Like us, Mother Earth is also going through many changes as higher-frequency energies continue to intensify in their bathing of our mutual living environment. And some places where the most intense activity is occurring are not easy to observe. Geophysical Commander Soltec (as well as other Teachers and Wayshowers who share spiritual messages from the Higher Realms in these pages) often comment upon these "growing pains" we're experiencing. For example, see Master Hilarion's message elsewhere in this issue of The SPECTRUM for a recent commentary on this matter.

BARS THAT BEND—MAKING BIKES SAFER FOR TYKES

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, December 2001: [quoting]

A 6-year-old boy was rushed by helicopter to the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. His liver was torn almost in half, and he had lost much of his blood—all in a fall from a bicycle.

The boy recovered; but the case caught the attention of bioengineer Kristy Arbogast. She was astonished to learn that 10 percent of bicycle accidents nationwide result in injuries to the liver, kidneys, pancreas, or other parts of the abdomen. She and her colleague, Dr. Flora Winston, decided to do something about it.

First, they pinpointed the cause: When a child's bicycle hits uneven pavement, the rider tries to regain balance by swinging the handlebars parallel to his or her body. When the rider falls, one end of the handlebar hits the ground (becoming dangerously immovable), while the other end skews the child's abdomen.

Next, the doctors challenged engineering students at the University of Pennsylvania to help design a solution; the students came up with retractable handlebars. In their new design, when a child hits the handlebar, a spring retracts ("a little like a telescoping pole" says Arbogast), absorbing the impact and reducing the force of the collision by 50 percent.

Now the bad news: The handlebars are not yet available. The hospital has presented the design to manufacturers who, so far, have shown limited interest. Arbogast urges concerned parents to write the Consumer Product Safety Commission in support of Petition HP 01-1, which urges the adoption of safety standards for children's handlebars.

—Deirore Van Dyk [End quoting]

How many times have we seen this same sequence of events occur—where a good idea clashes with the greed of the profit margin? These are the important lessons we either pass or fail in the schoolroom-Earth classrooms.

LIFE-SAVING MESSAGE

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, December 2001: [quoting]

Sitting all day certainly isn't healthy, but the biggest risk for most has more to do with love handles than life and death. For millions paralyzed below the waist, though, sitting can lead to life-threatening sores. But a new wheelchair cushion, demonstrated this year, removes the danger. Pistons inflate and deflate air sacs to continuously shift a person's weight. Available late next year for $500 to $750. <www.numotech.com> [End quoting]

Where there's a will, there's a way. This could be of value in helping the circulation of others in sedentary situations such as commercial pilots, large crane operators, etc.

SKATEBOARD WHEELS FOR CARS

From POPULAR MECHANICS magazine, December 2001: [quoting]

The perfect automobile tires are already on skateboards. In theory, these urethane tires are so perfectly formed they never need balancing and can ride flat for hundreds of miles. Richard Steinke, chief executive officer of Nevada's Amerityre, which makes material for flat-free bicycle tires, tells PM that an agreement with Goodyear may put his company's urethane tires on the road within two years.

Amerityre believes it has licked the traction and cut-resistance problems that kept earlier models from being commercialized.

[End quoting]

Watch this one closely for signs of progress or unexpected "failure" over the next year or so. Too many parasitic businesses are living off the present type of tire and would have to go out of the tire business if this becomes successful. This matter is similar to the rumors that have circulated for years from reliable sources about automobile batteries that COULD be lasting a lot longer than they presently do—except for the money to be made replacing short-life batteries.

Same with flashlight batteries, by the way. Which leads to the following:

NEW BATTERY MATERIALS

From POPULAR MECHANICS magazine, December 2001: [quoting]

Brookhaven National Laboratory

If you're tired of laptop computers that seem to quit at the worst possible moment, help may be on the way from a team led by James Reilly of the Department of Energy's Brookhaven National Laboratory in Upton, N.Y. Reilly and his colleagues have developed a new metal alloy. When used as an electrode in nickel-metal-hydride (NiMH) batteries—the most popular rechargeables—the alloy has a high capacity for storing a charge, a long-lasting ability to be recharged, and good resistance to corrosion. Furthermore, the alloy contains no cobalt, an expensive metal found in many NiMH batteries, and no cadmium, a toxic metal found in nickel-cadmium rechargeables. Composed of lanthanum, nickel, and tin, the new alloy is inexpensive and environmentally friendly. The result is a battery that can keep your computer working as long as you do. [End quoting]

Notice how all of these "advances" are incremental rather than giant steps forward. Wouldn't it be nice if the secret, truly advanced technologies producing unlimited power were made available to the public.

MORE INTERESTING WEBSITES

<<http://www.darkstar1.co.uk>>, about the incoming "planet X".

<<http://www.segway.com/consumer>> about the long-awaited "IT" product just recently finally announced.

<<http://www.ufos-aliens.co.uk>>, about a metal that morphs.

<<http://www.miracle6.com>>, developing the mind's creative potential.

<<http://thundercloud.net/acpressions/wonderful.htm>>, unusual inspirational site.

EAGLES IN A STORM

From the INTERNET, 11/25/01: [quoting]

Did you know that an eagle knows when a storm is approaching long before it breaks? The eagle will fly to some high spot and wait for the winds to come.

When the storm hits, it sets its wings so that the wind will pick it up and lift it above the storm. While the storm rages below, the eagle is soaring above it.

The eagle does not escape the storm. It simply uses the storm to lift it higher. It rises on the winds that bring the storm.

When the storms of life come upon us—and all of us will experience them—we can rise above them by setting our minds and our belief toward God.

The storms do not have to overcome us. We can allow

God's power to lift us above them. God enables us to ride the winds of the storms that bring sickness, tragedy, failure, and disappointment into our lives. We can soar above the storm. Remember, it is not the burdens of life that weigh us down, it is how we handle them. [End quoting]

Nature is such an exquisite teacher if we but take the time to watch and understand.

DANDELIONS & MUD PUDDLES

From the INTERNET, 11/8/01: [quoting]

When I look at a patch of dandelions, I see a bunch of weeds that are going to take over my yard. My kids see flowers for Mom and blowing white fluff you can wish on.

When I look at an old drunk and he smiles at me, I see a smelly, dirty person who probably wants money and I look away. My kids see someone smiling at them and they smile back.

When I hear music I love, I know I can't carry a tune and don't have much rhythm, so I sit self-consciously and listen.

Twenty years ago, Clayton Tedeton prayed to God for guidance. That night, God wrote a formula in lights on his bedroom wall. That formula was for Miracle II Soap! Guided by God, packaged with prayer, Miracle II products are natural, biologically harmless, non-carcinogenic and the best God Blessed cleaner on Earth! Cleans your body, your baby, and your pets. Kill the insects in your garden and clean your oven without gloves or masks. Removes stains and does your laundry. The Neutralizer neutralizes acids and balances the PH in your body, your garden. Clears up acne and can reduce cellulite. There are literally thousands of uses. Miracle II Soap, Miracle II Soap w/ Moisturizer, & Neutralizer come in 22 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Miracle 2 Neutralizer Gel and Moisturizers come in 16 oz. bottles for $16.00 each. Deodorant Stone is $12.00 and Miracle II Laundry Ball, guaranteed for 3 years, is $52.00. Shipping is $4.00 each. Get the whole package, including shipping, less the Laundry Ball, for $100.00. With the Ball, $150.00. All of the testimonials & uses are on our website:

<http://freeamerican.com>

Attention Ranchers and Farmers:
Miracle II works wonders on livestock
and crops. Get it by the gallon! ($67)

FREE AMERICAN
FREE AMERICAN GROUP
2943 U.S. HIGHWAY 380
BINGHAM, NM 87832
877-423-3250

Subscribe to the Free American Newsmagazine - $40/yr
The best news magazine in the USA. Free copy w/order!

My kids feel the beat and move to it. They sing out the words. If they don't know them, they make up their own.

When I feel wind on my face, I brace myself against it. I feel it messing up my hair and pulling me back when I walk. My kids close their eyes, spread their arms, and fly with it, until they fall to the ground laughing.

When I pray, I say thee and thou and grant me this, give me that. My kids say "Hi God! Thanks for my toys and my friends. Please keep the bad dreams away tonight. Sorry, I don't want to go to Heaven yet. I would miss my Mommy and Daddy."

When I see a mud puddle I step around it. I see muddy shoes and dirty carpets. My kids sit in it. They see dams to build, rivers to cross, and worms to play with.

I wonder if we are given kids to teach or to learn from? No wonder God loves the little children!

"Enjoy the little things in life, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things." [End quoting]

Thanks to the children and the animals who put up with the rest of us, we have constant reminders of what's really important.

GRANDMA'S CAKE

From the INTERNET, email, 11/19/01: [quoting]

A little boy is telling his Grandma how "everything" is going wrong. School, family problems, severe health problems, etc. Meanwhile, Grandma is baking a cake. She asks her grandson if he would like a snack, which of course he does.

"Here, have some cooking oil."

"Yuck" says the boy.

"How about a couple of raw eggs?"

"Gross, Grandma!"

"Would you like some flour then? Or maybe baking soda?"

"Grandma, those are all yucky!"

To which Grandma replies: "Yes, all those things seem bad all by themselves. But when they are put together in the right way, they make a wonderfully delicious cake!"

"God works in the same way. Many times we wonder why He would let us go through such bad and difficult times. But God knows that when He puts these things all in His order, they always work for good! We just have to trust Him, and eventually they will all make something wonderful!" [End quoting]

Often in these pages we talk about efforting to keep the Larger Picture in perspective when trying to understand the situations that happen around us. Grandma said the same thing much better. Perhaps we all ought to pay closer attention to the valuable experiences so many senior citizens have to offer.

PICTURE THIS: EVERYTHING SEEMS TO HAVE FALLEN INTO PLACE, SO YOU PICK UP AND MOVE

From GUIDEPOSTS, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

You've got a good job and so does your wife. Your children are doing well, and you're thinking that it's all coming together. Then you're told to give it up—everything you've worked for—and move.

That's the way it was for LaVerne and me in the fall of 1983. I was working construction for my dad, and LaVerne had been offered a tenure-track position at Syracuse University College of Nursing. We had three wonderful children—ages five, three, and one—and our parents lived close by. I was happy writing music for our church, where we were surrounded by family and good friends. To top it all off, our landlord had just told me how he liked the way we looked after the place. "Ricky" he said, "I'll make you a good deal for this house and the one next door."

Everything was going great for us.

Then, one winter night, as LaVerne and I were thanking God for all He had given us, we asked for His blessing to buy the houses. But God didn't give us the go-ahead or offer counsel about the mortgage or the new roof or any such thing. Instead, an inner voice came, saying: "If you desire to do my will, give away all that you possess and go to Peoria, Illinois, for I have a place for you there."

Believe it or not, LaVerne and I BOTH heard it, and stared at each other.

"Peoria?" I asked.

"Who do we know in Peoria?"

But then we prayed together again, and the answer came through, clear as a bell: "If you truly want to be my servants, you will give away everything. I have a place for you in Peoria."

Try explaining that to your mother-in-law. Try giving away all of your possessions—your furniture, your wedding presents and books, your wife's green crockpot, your pickup and Mercury Marquis. Try meeting your friends' eyes as you tell them. Imagine having your wife leave a good job with full benefits. Imagine uprooting your children, resigning from your church duties.

Finally I had to tell my dad—this stern, hard-working, 56-year-old man, who had provided for 15 children and who now counted on me as his righthand man. I sat in his truck and told him I was leaving the company he'd struggled to build from scratch.

"If God is telling you that you gotta go" he said to me, staring straight out the windshield, "then you've gotta go, I guess."

If you can picture any shred of this—how unusual and crazy we knew this must have sounded to the rest of the world—then you can glimpse some of what we went through as we packed a van with some clothes and our kids. We took $400 with us and headed west toward Illinois, leaving our home, our family, our lives in Syracuse behind.

It wasn't easy, but we knew we had to go. And as the highway opened up before us, we sang hours' worth of songs, which helped us endure the endless hum of the tires, the jostling of tractor-trailers, and the exits' passing. I don't know quite what I expected when we reached Peoria.

Just over the town line, I pulled onto the side of the road. We had nowhere to go, really, so we sat and prayed. "We made this trip for you, Lord. Now, where do we go?"

As it grew dark, LaVerne finally said, "Rick, let's find a motel. It's cold and the kids and I are shivering."

I eased us back onto the blacktop and pulled in at the first budget motel we saw. We waited there for the next three days, praying for direction. Still no response, but I reminded myself how God promised in the Bible: "I will never leave you nor forsake you."

On Saturday we paid for our final night in the motel, then ate dinner and counted out our last twelve dollars on the dresser. We didn't have enough money for another day, and we tucked the kids into bed knowing that we would have to sleep in the van the next night. As I paced the motel room and glanced at my sleeping children, a cold sweat ran down my back. Had I misunderstood God's will? Had I misled my family?

In the quiet of the night, LaVerne and I got down on our knees again and prayed more fervently than ever. "Lord, thank you for watching over us" we said. "Thank you for bringing us this far. But where do we go now? What next, Lord?"

Out of the darkness, God spoke to us again: "Go to the Christian Assembly Church. Tell them I sent you and they will give you everything you need."

LaVerne and I looked at each other in disbelief. I grabbed the Yellow Pages from the nightstand drawer and rifled through it. The Christian Assembly Church was only two blocks from the motel! The next morning we rose early and dressed quickly to check out.

"Where are we going?" the kids asked, climbing into the van.

"To church!" LaVerne said. "Let's hurry or we'll miss the service."

With the gas needle on empty, we found the church, parked the van, and walked through the tall wooden doors.

Every person in every pew seemed to turn to us—a sea of faces staring at us, not one Black face in the whole congregation. If LaVerne and the kids hadn't started down the aisle, I don't believe I would have taken a step further, my pride having kicked in.

I could guess what they were thinking: "What are they doing here? Who are they—some family wanting a handout?"

The preacher nodded as we slipped into a pew, then began the service, inquiring if there were any people here for the first time. I stood. "My wife and I are here with our children" I said and sat again. When it came time for the offering, we placed our last twelve dollars in the collection plate.

As the service ended, people began filing out of the church. I bowed my head. "Lord" I prayed, "I thought you said they would help us?"

Again God spoke to me: "Go and tell him what I told you in the motel."

I rushed up to the pastor, and he told me to give the secretary our address for the mailing list.

"Pastor" I said, "we have no address. The Lord told us to come here and you would give us a place to stay. We came from New York, where I supervised the music in our church."

The preacher stepped back slightly. Then he called to those around him. "This is the family we've been praying for" he said with a terrific smile. "The new family that will bless us with their music!"

He walked us around the corner to a three-bedroom house and handed us a set of keys. In a matter of days his congregation generously gave us all the household items we needed, even a green Crock-Pot like the one LaVerne left behind in Syracuse.

We spent the next two years in Peoria, striving to be a Light in a city that faced rising unemployment and increasing crime. God continued to lead us. LaVerne won a job teaching nursing, while I started a community garden and opened our house to those in need. We ministered in that church, grew close to the parish, and helped serve them. We had learned what it meant to trust in God, without any pride.

LaVerne and I still prayed every day, so that we'd stay on the right path. "Why are we here?" we asked. "What should we do? How may we serve You best?"

"I want you to go home" said the Lord one day. It was time to go back to New York. It was no easier to leave Peoria than it had been to drive away from Syracuse. We were sad to say goodbye to our new friends at Christian Assembly. But this move was different. This time we knew with an even deeper faith that we were on the right path, and that we were home wherever God sent us.

We returned to our families and our church. I resumed my music ministry and went back to work for my father, and LaVerne got a good nursing job. The Lord led us to another house. I still try telling people what it's like to trust in God, no matter what. And I'm not so surprised now when they seem to understand, as they did in Peoria.

After returning to Syracuse, New York, Rick Torrence and his wife, LaVerne, founded the Winds of Agape. It started out as a children's choir and grew into a community service group, serving families in need. Today, Winds of Agape operates two centers where the Torrences not only provide food, clothing, and furniture, but also offer training for certified home-health aides.

[End quoting]

The above story gives new meaning to the admonition to listen within for Guidance, as so many of the spiritual messages shared within The SPECTRUM have urged over the years and are now again urging with renewed vigor. Developing that "internal radio" skill is perhaps the best project we can work on as we enter the new year.

The WORST - CASE SCENARIO Survival Handbook

By Joshua Piven & David Borgenicht

The indispensable, compact guide for surviving life's sudden turns for the worse. Survival experts provide illustrated, step-by-step instructions on what you need to know FAST for unusual or unexpected situations such as:

How to:

- Fend off a Shark
 - Take a Punch
 - Deliver a Baby in a Taxicab
 - Survive a Poisonous Snake Attack
 - Jump from a Moving Car
 - Identify a Bomb
 - Escape from Killer Bees
 - Survive If Your Parachute Fails to Open
- ...and dozens of other dire situations.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866; soft cover $12 (+S/H)

A Christmas Blessing From The SPECTRUM

May the Spirit of the Lord always go before you and lead you to your heart's desires.

May the Joy of the Lord be the song of your days, and the Peace of the Lord be a gift to your soul.

May the Love of the Lord touch everything you do and remind you you're forever blessed

Can you believe another calendar year has flitted by already?! The Holiday Season occurs at about the halfway point in The SPECTRUM's year, and so I like to think of the Holidays as a kind of "fulcrum"—balancing and infusing what we do each month with the Holiday Spirit of sharing that uplifts and en-Light-ens us all.

I think of you move like our extended family, than as subscribers, sharing in a mutual journey of Truth that will take us — who knows where! That's the fun part. Hold it in mind as you enjoy your Holidays and we move into the open expanse of an exciting New Year. Bless you all, E.Y.

Hello Everyone — I hope these Holiday Seasons find you each in good spirits and with a sense of optimism as we continue to evolve along our journey together. The SPECTRUM presents our small staff with very unique challenges. You readers give us a sense of purpose from which we draw Strength and Energy to face our challenges. I am very thankful for you all and the kindness you ones have shown us throughout the year.

May The One Light of Creator God forever be the Beacon that Guides you from within.

Much Love and Light,
Norey J. J. J.

Dear Readers,

May you each have a beautiful and loving holiday season with friends and family. Your words of encouragement and support are deeply appreciated. Thank you! Let truth and love prevail.
In light and service,
Karl Math.

We here at Spectrum want to wish all of the best Holidays ever and a very rewarding New year.

We really appreciate all of the spiritual and financial support you have given us.

I'm looking for big changes for good in the near future for this planet. The more of us that do the same the more likely it will happen. So let's all keep our thoughts positive and bring this forth. Let's have the most important Holiday season ever on this planet. Lots of love & light, Al

Blessings to all of you — our readers, our extended family. You have all blessed us so much throughout the year with your love, support, letters and phone calls.
Love Gail

Extraterrestrial Influences On Earth's Evolution

[Continued From Front Page]

“experts” are fond of pointing out how little of our brain we presently use. We can assume we have a lot of capacities yet to develop, just like small children.

But look at the various television programs and movies about space and UFOs and extraterrestrial interactions. Most of the depictions fall under the general categories of “cowboys in space” and/or “soap operas in space”—rather than uplifting interactions with spiritually evolved beings of great intelligence and compassion, capable of traversing the cosmos at will. You have to hold a rather limited and unimaginative view of YOURSELF in order to project the same primitive tendencies with such regularity upon the caricatures of supposedly “advanced” extraterrestrials.

And it is that same “umbrella of limitations” that seems to cause many “experts” in the UFO field to offer speculations and projections of a most juvenile and unenlightened nature. These are the potholes I am trying to avoid in the outlaying of information for your consideration. I can’t be completely successful at that herein; but if you keep the intention (and pitfalls) in mind as you consider the various opinions being presented, you will more easily discern what is likely The Truth.

As I said at the outset, this subject is huge, and there is so much material to present that it almost becomes a coin-toss as to which direction in which to continue. It is our hope that you enjoyed the discussions with Phillip Krapf, Robert Perala, and Al Bielek presented in Part 1, last month. We also realize many questions were raised as well.

Here in Part 2 we are going to plunge head-first into the deep end of the pool by sharing two discussions with Retired Command Sgt. Major Robert O. Dean. You’ll immediately enjoy how refreshingly honest and uninhibited and direct is his style. And that works well to convey the often astonishing information he has to share with us.

And let me warn you ahead of time: Robert O. Dean served for many years in the trenches of our military. Thus his language is sometimes peppered with the colorful phrases common to such a military background. But as you readers well know, our general policy is not to sanitize or otherwise alter what an interviewee has to say, but rather, allow their own personality and style to reach through to you as part of the total package.

There were many issues raised in the first part of this series. We discussed possible methods by which “contact” could occur without disrupting society-at-large. Also mentioned was the incoming planet Nibiru (so-called “Planet X”), due to traverse nearby Earth in mid-2003, as being predicted by Zecharia Sitchin and others.

These two topics (among many others)—the ramifications of making contact with ones from “out there” and the existence of Nibiru—are further developed in my discussions with Robert O. Dean. But before we launch into those discussions, I would like to present at least some additional background material about Nibiru (sometimes called “the planet of the crossing”) and it’s inhabitants, the so-called Anunnaki (“those who from Heaven to Earth came”).

In Part 1 of this series, longtime scholar and author Zecharia Sitchin made the following statement: “I prophecize the return of this planet, called Nibiru, at this time. The planet is inhabited by intelligent human beings like us, who will come and go between their planet and our planet. They created homo-sapiens. We look like them. I call them the Anunnaki.”

Is Zecharia pretty much alone in his opinion? After all, this seemingly vastly important subject gets not even a small mention on the evening news!

Recently I came across the following revealing account of his meeting with a Vatican theologian, written by Zecharia over a year ago and posted on his www.sitchin.com Internet website. Take careful note of the Vatican position being revealed between the lines of narrative.

[Quoting]

Sitchin And Vatican Theologian Discuss UFOs,
Extraterrestrials, Angels, And Creation Of Man

Report by Zecharia Sitchin
Dialogue in Bellaria

In what must be a historic first, a high official of the Vatican and a Hebrew scholar discussed the issue of Extraterrestrials and the Creation of Man, and though different from each other in upbringing, background, religion, and methodology, nevertheless arrived at common conclusions:

- Yes, extraterrestrials can and do exist on other planets.
- Yes, they can be more advanced than us.
- Yes, materially, Man could have been fashioned from a pre-existing sentient being.

The Participants

The high Vatican official was Monsignor Corrado Balducci, a Catholic theologian with impressive credentials: A member of the Curia of the Roman Catholic Church, a Prelate of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples and the Propagation of the Faith, leading exorcist of the Archdiocese of Rome, a member of the Vatican’s Beatification Committee, an expert on Demonology, and the author of several books. Appointed in the Vatican to deal with the issue of UFOs and Extraterrestrials, he has made in recent years pronouncements indicating a tolerance of the subjects; but he has never before met and had a dialogue with a Hebrew scholar, and gone beyond prescribed formulations to include the touchy issue of the Creation of Man.

The Hebrew scholar was me—Zecharia Sitchin: A researcher of ancient civilizations, a biblical archaeologist, a descendant of Abraham.

The Monsignor and I almost met for such a dialogue last December, but it did not come about. This time we were scheduled to meet in Bellaria, Italy, at a conference whose theme was “The Mystery Of Human Existence”.

I arrived there with my wife and a score of fans from the USA, on March 31st, scheduled to address the audience of over a thousand the next day. The Monsignor was nowhere in sight; but he was there the next morning to hear my presentation. “I drove the whole night from Rome to hear you” he said.

My talk, ably translated by my Italian editor Tuvia Fogel, included a slide presentation that added a pictorial dimension to the evidence from ancient times in support of Sumerian texts, on which my eight books based the following conclusions:

We are not alone—not just in the vast universe, but in our own solar system. There is one more planet in our solar system, orbiting beyond Pluto but nearing Earth periodically. Advanced “extraterrestrials”—the Sumerians called them Anunnaki, the Bible Nefilim—started to visit our planet some 450,000 years ago. And some 300,000 years ago, they engaged in genetic engineering to upgrade Earth’s hominids and fashion Homo-sapiens, the Adam. In that, they acted as emissaries for the Universal Creator—God.

The Dialogue

“We have much to talk about” Msgr. Balducci said to me as he came forward to congratulate me on my presentation. “I have great esteem for your scholarship” he said.

We returned to the hotel for lunch. Our table was surrounded in a semi-circle by my American fans, intent on not missing a word of the forthcoming dialogue. In the hours-long session, Msgr. Balducci outlined the positions he was going to state, from a prepared text, in his talk the next day. While my approach was based on physical evidence, his was a purely Roman Catholic theological/philosophical one, seeking the spiritual aspects. Yet, our conclusions converged.

Msgr. Balducci’s Positions

ON UFOs:

“There must be something in it.” The hundreds and thousands of eyewitness reports leave no room for denying that there is a measure of truth in them, even allowing for optical illusions, atmospheric phenomena, and so on. As a Catholic theologian, such witnessing cannot be dismissed. “Witnessing is one way of transmitting truth, and in the case of the Christian religion, we are talking about a Divine Revelation in which witnessing is crucial to the credibility of our faith.”

ON LIFE ON OTHER PLANETS:

“That life may exist on other planets is certainly possible. The Bible does not rule out that possibility. On the basis of Scripture and on the basis of our knowledge of God’s omnipotence, His wisdom being limitless, we must affirm that life on other planets is possible.” Moreover, this is not only possible, but also credible and even probable. “Cardinal Nicolo Cusano (1401-1464) wrote that there is not a single star in the sky about which we can rule out the existence of life, even if different from ours.”

ON INTELLIGENT EXTRATERRESTRIALS:

“When I talk about extraterrestrials, we must think of beings who are like us—more probably, beings more advanced than us, in that their nature is an association of a material part and a spiritual part, a body and a soul, although in different proportions than human beings on Earth.” Angels are beings who are purely spiritual, devoid of bodies, while we are made up of spirit and matter, but still at a low level. “It is entirely credible that in the enormous distance between Angels and humans, there could be found some middle stage, that is, beings with a body like ours but more elevated spiritually. If such intelligent beings really exist on other planets, only science will be able to prove; but in spite of what some people think, we would be in a position to reconcile their existence with the Redemption that Christ has brought us.”

The Anunnaki And
The Creation Of Man

“Well then”, I asked Msgr. Balducci, “does it mean that my presentation was no great revelation to you? We appear to agree”, I said, “that more advanced extraterrestrials can exist, and I use science to evidence their coming to Earth.” I then quote the Sumerian texts that say that the Anunnaki (“those who from Heaven to Earth came”) genetically improved an existing being on Earth to create the being that the Bible calls Adam.

“My conclusion regarding your presentation”, Msgr. Balducci answered, “is that more than anything else your whole approach is based on physical evidence; it concerns itself with matter, not with spirit. This is an important distinction, because if this distinction is made, I can bring up the view of the great theologian, Professor Father Marakoff, who is still alive and is greatly respected by the Church. He formulated the hypothesis that, when God created Man and put the soul into him, perhaps what is meant is not that Man was created from mud or lime, but from something pre-existing, even from a sentient being capable of feeling and perception. So the idea of taking a pre-man or hominid and creating someone who is aware of himself is something that Christianity is coming around to. The key is the distinction between the material body and the soul granted by God."

From Anunnaki To God

"Yes", I responded to the Vatican theologian, "in my writings I deal with the physical evidence; but already in my first book (The 12th Planet), the very last sentence of the last paragraph raises the question: If the extraterrestrials 'created' us, who created them on their planet?

"From this, my own thinking and the contents of my subsequent books, evolved toward the spiritual or 'divine' aspects. The Anunnaki, I have explained, were just emissaries—and that is what the Hebrew word Malachim, translated Angels, means. They thought that it was their decision to come here for selfish reasons and to fashion us because they needed workers; but in truth they only carried out the Almighty God's wishes and plans."

"If such extraterrestrials were so involved", Msgr. Balducci said, "even by your own interpretation they had to do with Man's physics, body, and rationality; but God alone had to do with the Soul!"

"My second book, that deals with man's aspiration to ascend the heavens, is titled The Stairway To Heaven" I told Msgr. Balducci. "It seems to me that we are ascending the same stairway to heaven, though from different steps" I said.

We ended the dialogue as friends, determined to stay in touch and continue.

[Reproduction is permitted if accompanied by the statement: © Z. Sitchin, 2000—Reproduced by permission.]

* * *

How About Another View

Not everyone, however, is in agreement with Zecharia's interpretation concerning this exchange—the supposed "comings and goings" between Nibiru and Earth during this upcoming pass-by. Nor is there agreement about who the Anunnaki really are. And this, readers, is where discernment becomes so very important, as well as an open-mindedness toward The Larger Picture of our place in the vastness of the cosmos.

With that said, I feel compelled to present several other views on this issue so that you can better determine for yourself what may be true and what may be false on a playing field full of perhaps limited-view assertions.

To begin with, I want to share some material from the always provocative www.zetatalk.com Internet website. I have elected to include two discussions (purportedly by extraterrestrials functioning as teachers for the Great Awakening on planet Earth at this time) on the subject of the Anunnaki and genetic contributions to Earth-human evolution by various extraterrestrial cultures.

You will also notice, when reading the following, there is an implied Higher Hand wisely guiding what will or will not be allowed in terms of disruption or interference into the affairs of the "youngsters" on schoolroom planet Earth. This, of course, is very much in line with the philosophy of the spiritual messages we have shared for a long time in The SPECTRUM.

Perhaps we could say that many authors have not arrived at a grasp of The Larger Picture when they fail to appreciate that those of sufficient involvement to be among what we call the Lighted Brotherhood in service to God and The Creation probably know what they're doing. We may not, but it's likely God and His Helpers do! When a viewpoint projects fear and/or ineptness in the way this universe operates, you can probably assume there is missing an appreciation of that Larger Picture.

With that said, let's consider the following items:

[Quoting]

Anunnaki

The Annunaki are the giant hominoids from the 12th planet, spoken of by many names in the legends of man, as is their planet—Marduk, Wormwood, the 12th Planet, and lately the inbound "Planet X" discovered by NASA in 1983. These giants were approximately 50% larger than man, as their home planet is more dense and massive, and the gravity on the surface that much stronger. Larger bones are needed to support life there.

These giants came to Earth during the passages of their home planet, which traverses the solar system every 3,657 years, as the ancient Sumerians recorded. They mined for gold, a mineral rare on their wandering planet which spent much of its orbit hovering between the two binary suns it orbits—the Sun and it's dark twin, some 18.74 Sun-Pluto distances from the Sun. Much ZetaTalk exists on this matter in the Worlds and Science and Rules sections of ZetaTalk (Internet website), so we will not be redundant on this matter.

However, until recently, there was a service-to-self scam ongoing by aliens and humans in contact with these aliens regarding terrifying humanity with warnings about a return of these giants to Earth. They are quarantined, kept at a distance in the solar system from mankind on Earth, though allowed to continue mining operations on a moon of Mars.

Due to the Rules of Engagement between ourselves and these service-to-self aliens, we could not discuss this scam without engaging them, and our efforts were needed elsewhere, so we declined the engagement. Since the scam has been dropped, we can now discuss this.

There will be NO return of these giants, who claimed erroneously in their past literature that they had genetically engineered mankind. They did NOT do so, are NOT the creators of man, and man stands in fact as their full equal as third-density hominoids. Earth, in fact, is undergoing a transformation ahead of the home of these giant hominoids, so could in many respects be considered more progressive.

[End quoting]

In the discussions with Robert O. Dean, there is mention of genetic contributions to Earthman by the Anunnaki. And in various places throughout this series, you will find mention of genetic contributions by other extraterrestrial cultures. With this in mind, I am including a portion here, also from ZetaTalk, on the subject of extraterrestrial genetic contributions to our Earth-human genetic make-up.

[Quoting]

Genetic Contributions

The Nordics and Pleiadians are considered human in appearance, but in fact it is the [Earth] humans who are Nordic and Pleiadian in appearance, as they came first! The Nordics did indeed contribute to mankind's genetic background, as did the Pleiadians, and many, many other alien races. The race we refer to as "the gods of Mount Olympus", and some input from reptilian races, early on, are notable contributors. Each made their mark on humans.

The Nordics are tall in stature and appear physically fit,

Discover Life Beyond Your Wildest Dreams at www.beyondzebra.com

The only official website of Robert Dean & Marcia Schafer Visit our online store or call 480.460.7807 to order

Robert Dean

The Greatest Story Never Told

Former Intelligence Analyst Ret. Command Sgt. Major Robert Dean speaks out about the 1960's top secret extraterrestrial study conducted by NATO and the resulting cover up. Winner of four awards (90 minutes). $25 video

The New Human Stepping into Stellar Society

Robert Dean interviews author Neil Freer about humans as a genetically engineered species. $25 video

A Journalist's Encounter with Aliens

Robert Dean interviews contactee and former LA Times copy editor Philip Krapf $25 video

Project Mind Shift

Robert Dean interviews author Michael Mannion about the government's manipulation of public knowledge of UFO's. $25 video

The UFO Anthology CD ROM

Narrated by Robert Dean, over 6 hrs of information about the ET presence, crop circles, cattle mutilations and more. CD-ROM $29

Confessions of an Intergalactic Anthropologist Winner 2001 Glyph Award best new age book!

Read in 13 countries, Marcia Schafer's book has been called life changing by readers who have been struck by the detail and candor of its revelations about extraterrestrial contact. Art Bell After Dark Magazine said, "...detail maybe rivaled only by the US military in their manuals on extraterrestrials..."

NEW! 2002 edition with a brand new epilogue about the politics of disclosure- is there a relationship to the war on terrorism? $19.95

Marcia Schafer

Photo by Kevin Lahey, Mt. Shasta, CA, 1985

the form many on Earth would describe as ideal. These characteristics operate in humans more like recessive genes, however, and are not dominant.

The Pleiadians have made a very significant contribution, and the gentle nature of many humans reflects this. The slight build of much of mankind reflects the Pleiadian contribution.

The Zetas made periodic genetic contributions to the human form as it is known today. These were primarily in the area of brain development, neurological branching, and communication points. The specific genes for this were extracted from our genetics and inserted. There has been some speculation that the Asian races received a contribution from us, because of their almond-shaped eyes. Many hominoid races have slanted eyes, including the Nordics, and the genes affecting eye placement were not among our contributions to the human races.

The Sirians have NOT made a genetic contribution, as there are several points of incompatibility between their physical form and the human form. Their contribution would have caused as many problems as it solved, and there were other sources for the contribution that were without this type of conflict. Were it not for this incompatibility, they would have contributed, as the desire to participate was certainly there.

The hominoid race from the 12th planet, whom we call "the gods of Mount Olympus" aliens, are reflected in humans who are almost brutish in appearance, with the capacity for extreme muscular development. This race is notable not only for their physique, but for their temper tantrums—a rage that burns steadily until the cause of their anger is dissipated. Their wars are not settled at the negotiation table, ever.

The Reptilian ancestry is very well dispersed among humans, and is recognized most notably in the need for structure and order in your life. Those humans who place the details of their daily life ahead of connecting with others around them are expressing this genetic background.

[End quoting]

Even the way the ideas are worded above suggests a wise and compassionate source of the information, well aware of the misconceptions and other uninformed speculations circulating around from some "experts" studying this area.

More On The Anunnaki

David Icke is no stranger to SPECTRUM readers. In his book The Biggest Secret [see next-to-last page to order],

David has this to say on the subject of the Anunnaki, which is very different from what Mr. Sitchin stated earlier: [Quoting]

Putting together the mass of evidence, views, research, and opinions, that I have read or heard almost daily these past years, I feel the Anunnaki are a race from a Reptile genetic stream. In UFO research these have become known as Reptilians. Nor am I alone in this view. I have personally been staggered by how many people today are open to these possibilities and, indeed, are coming to the same conclusions through their own research. These include many who would have laughed at the very idea not so long ago.

Dr. Arthur David Horn, a former professor of biological anthropology at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, once believed emphatically in the Darwinist version of human evolution, the slow development of the human species via the principle of the survival of the fittest. Purely on the weight of evidence and his own experience, he is now convinced that humanity was seeded by extraterrestrials and that a Reptilian race has controlled the planet for thousands of years and continues to do so today.

This is my own view, although I have taken a different life path to reach those same conclusions. Dr. Horn's research is detailed in his excellent book Humanity's Extraterrestrial Origins, in which he suggests that the ones the Sumerian tablets call the Anunnaki are this Reptile race, another point with which we agree.

The famed British astrophysicist Fred Hoyle told a London press conference as long ago as 1971 that the world was controlled by a force which could manifest in many forms. "They are everywhere" he told astonished journalists, "in the sky, in the sea, and on the Earth." He said that "they" controlled humanity through the mind.

I know this sounds utterly bizarre, but you need to read the whole of The Biggest Secret [available through Wisdom Books & Press, see next-to-last page] to see the wealth of evidence to support this. If you pull out now or after a couple of chapters because your belief system is in overload, that's your choice, but you will miss the opportunity to see that the almost hysterically unbelievable is actually true.

The more I weave together incredible amounts of information, the more it seems to me that we are talking of two distinct situations running side-by-side. There were other extraterrestrial races at large on the Earth, and still are, as well as the extraterrestrial race which the Sumerians called the Anunnaki, and which other ancient texts called the Serpent Race. It could well have been that some of the others went to war with this Reptilian Anunnaki.

Ancient texts record these "wars of the gods" all over the world, and these could include conflicts between different extraterrestrial races, as well as those described in the Sumerian Tablets that appeared to involve Anunnaki factions fighting each other. [Continuing later in the chapter:]

Who are they and where do they come from? There are three suggested origins for the Anunnaki Reptilian intervention in human affairs: (1) they are extraterrestrial; (2) they are "inner" terrestrials who live within the Earth; (3) they manipulate humanity from another dimension by "possessing" human bodies. I think they are all true.

[Quoting further in the chapter:]

John Rhodes, one of the foremost of the researchers into the Reptilian presence, says that they may be space invaders who move from planet to planet, covertly infiltrating the host society and eventually taking over. The Reptilian military, it is said, carry out abductions of life forms while their scientists study the biology and introduce the Reptilian genetic code into species they wish to manipulate. This involves a program of crossbreeding and that is precisely what the Sumerian texts are describing in relation to the Anunnaki. Rhodes adds that:

Photo by Rick Martin, Tehachapi, CA, 1996

“From their underground bases, the Reptilian military ETs...(establish)...a network of Human-Reptilian crossbreed infiltrates within various levels of the surface culture’s military-industrial complexes, government bodies, UFO/paranormal groups, religious and fraternal (priest) orders, etc. These crossbreeds, some unaware of their Reptilian genetic “mind-control” instructions, act out their subversive roles as “Reptilian agents”, setting the stage for a Reptilian-led ET invasion.”

I only came across the work of John Rhodes in the last few days before this book was complete, and by then, as you will see later in the detailed text, I had reached exactly the same conclusions. Rhodes says that after the Reptilians invade a planet from space and from their underground bases, the surface population quickly surrenders to superior weaponry. Then the Reptilians strip the planet of its resources—like water, minerals, and DNA information.

The infiltration of human society via secret societies is the key method of Reptilian control, as I shall detail [in The Biggest Secret]. The American writer and researcher, William Bramley, concluded in his book Gods Of Eden that the Anunnaki created a secret society called the Brotherhood of the Snake and this has been used to manipulate humanity in the way described in the chapters that follow. This Brotherhood of the Snake is the core center of today’s global secret society network, which is controlled by the Reptilians.

[End quoting]

Again we sense—in what David reports above from some of the most visible and vocal researchers on this matter—that perhaps The Larger Picture of factors moderating Earth-human evolution is not yet very well understood. Put metaphorically, it’s one thing to point out that there are “bullies” on the playground, interacting with the nicer, perhaps largely unaware other, younger children. It’s an entirely different matter to fail to recognize that much older and wiser “adults” still monitor and guide the activities of that playground, but in a way that allows ALL on the playground to learn important lessons and grow in understanding.

The great Zulu shaman and elder, Credo Mutwa, of South Africa, had much to say on the subject of extraterrestrial interaction with our planet, including the subject of the Reptilians (whom he calls the Chitauli), in an interview with The SPECTRUM that lasted for well over 4 hours, which was the front-page feature story in our October 1999 issue. We will be reprinting some of that interview, which is very relevant to the subject at hand, in a later Part 3 of this series—for those of you who may have missed it, and as a refresher for the rest of us. I only mention Credo here, ahead of time, because our special interviewee this month discusses Credo among so many other interesting comments.

* * *

With the above “food for thought” as a kind of foundation, let’s turn now to the subject of UFOs and extraterrestrials from the perspective of longtime outspoken crusader Robert O. Dean. First, some background:

Retired Command Sgt. Major
Robert O. Dean

“A study of history is essential in coming to terms with who we are and where we have been. Perhaps we will learn something of where we might be going.” — Robert Dean

Mr. Dean’s personal history includes forty years of research in the UFO field.

Command Sergeant Major Robert O. Dean retired in 1976, with 27 years of highly decorated combat service; an Infantry Unit (combat) Commander in Korea and Vietnam; serving in Intelligence Field Operations in Laos, Cambodia, and North Vietnam.

Prior to this, Dean was a NATO intelligence analyst,

THE LIGHTSHIPS

Editor’s note: We “just happened” to receive this interesting correspondence from a subscriber in Cottonwood, AZ just in time as we were assembling this issue. The friendly teasing of the cover letter said: “I like my picture of the UFO ‘Light Beam Ship’ better than yours (grin) that appeared on page 41 of the November issue of The SPECTRUM—so I’ve enclosed a copy of the one I took, together with the article that I wrote about it, published in UNKNOWN magazine, in its Winter 1998 issue. Happy that you are doing a feature series on UFOs.”

Well, we agree; it’s a very important and timely subject to feature!

We thought you might enjoy both the photo and the article about the photo. Jenelle has kept her narrative simple and straightforward, for a general audience.

Many unusual effects have been observed and photographed over the years, due to the ability of such advanced-technology craft to change their vibrational rate with respect to our planet’s ambient frequency, as well as project fields or energy beams which may register on film while not being observed by the eye alone. Ships may also cloak themselves in clouds (water vapor) as several other photos included within this feature article demonstrate. Some other stunning “cloud-ship” photos are in the back of the book of collected spiritual messages called WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume I.

12/1/01 JENELLE TUTTLE

Wow! My heart skipped a beat or two, thrilled beyond words as my eyes studied the unbelievable picture of a UFO that I had been surprisingly able to capture on film, almost in my own backyard. There was no mistake about it! There, on my photo, in plain view, for all to see, was the saucerlike disc, a luminous sphere of light, semi-foglike energy field, known by UFOlogists to often accompany these small inter-dimensional “scout” ships.

These disc-shaped small UFO scout ships, commonly called Lightships or Beamships, and ferried to Earth by a large “mothership”, I learned, are frequently seen as brilliant white lights in the sky, so dazzling that the actual form behind the light is masked, and some of them have been known to change shape and substance, from an apparently solid body to a semi-transparent state before vanishing from visual sight because they live and move within a faster vibrational frequency rate.

To catch this low-flying energy field on film was, to me, remarkable! Yes, these energized, small spaceships are controlled, I’m told, by higher intelligences. Where do they come from? From other inter-dimensional planets and star systems within and, perhaps, beyond what we can see from our solar system, carried in the womb of the mothership who navigates through magnetic fields, down through artificial time-warp zones, near the Earth’s atmosphere, released and sent out to explore and analyze Earth’s environment.

It appears, however, these small disc-shaped craft have a limited range of travel and are, literally, as their names imply, scout ships who cruise the environs of our planet, unable to travel long distances from their mothership.

It is thought that the method of propulsion of these craft is electromagnetically operated, with the help of water and magnetic devices from Earth’s force-fields.

When people view the picture of the Lightship that I feel honored to have captured on film, they appear to react in one of two ways:

(1) Total rejection, apprehensive and fearful. They are of a mind-set that the photo was caused by a double exposure, a lens flare, a light leak in the camera, the sparkle from a diamond ring, a finger over the lens and, if all else fails in the furtherance of their disbelief in UFOs, a film-processing fault.

(2) Or, they feel happy, serene, and spiritually uplifted, thrilled, and delighted. The photo seems to bring happy smiles to glowing faces, giving them a feeling that something of great importance and something significant is about to happen in the very near future.

What do I think? That other planetary intelligences are, slowly, attempting to show us, acquaint us with the idea that they are not fictional, but factual!

In the photograph, the small exploratory atmospheric Lightship, controlled by an unseen intelligence, hovers, nosed slightly upward, about halfway up the pole of the tall street-lamp seen behind it. Seldom seen by the human eye, this celestial firefly, estimated to have been some twelve feet in diameter, can transmit a beam of light that is capable of producing a conflicting, or strong opposing energy to combat and reduce harmful electromagnetic energy fields. Perhaps that was the mission of this ship scouting my area.

Or maybe this magnificent force of energy, in some strange, unknown way, knew I greatly needed an inspirational lift on that day, the latter part of January, 1997, when, for some mysterious, compelling reason, I found myself in the early, mid-morning hours (about 10 a.m.) out on the street where I live in Cottonwood, Arizona, camera in hand. As a consequence, I have this rare, most unusual photo to treasure and share. ☺ serving Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe (SHAPE), the military arm of NATO. Robert Dean was ranked Master Sergeant to the Operations Division/inner command staff, working with the Supreme Allied Commander Europe (SACEUR).

This picture was taken by Jenelle Tuttle in 1997 at Sawmill Gardens Patio Homes, Cottonwood, AZ.

While with NATO, Dean received a "Cosmic Top Secret" clearance, which opened the way for his study of the highly controversial document of which he now speaks. The document is called An Assessment: An Evaluation Of Possible Military Threat To The Allied Forces Of Europe. It was later known simply as The Assessment. The Assessment was probably the most sensitive document that NATO ever had. Only 15 copies of the report were ever printed. Copy #1 went to the Secretary General of NATO. Copy #2 went to Lyndon Lemnitzer, an American Four-Star General, who Robert Dean worked for. Copy #3 went into the vault at the Supreme Headquarters Operation Center. That was the document that Robert Dean used to read in the early morning hours.

Mr. Dean also spent fourteen years as an emergency services manager with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for the Arizona Pima County Sheriff's Department. He is the former Arizona Assistant Director and Pima County Director for the Mutual UFO Network, and is a former member for the Center for UFO Studies (CUFOS) and the Ancient Astronauts Society. He also served twelve years as a member of the Board of Directors for the Aerial Phenomenon Research Organization (APRO).

Mr. Dean majored in ancient history, psychology, and philosophy at Indiana University, completed extensive studies in archeology and theology, and holds the equivalent of a Master's level degree in Emergency Management.

Beyond extensive United States engagements, he has spoken all over the world to share his message, appearing at sponsored events in England, Switzerland, Italy, Japan, Germany, Brazil, Mexico, Australia, Hungary, and Puerto Rico. He also has countless television, radio, video, and news documentary appearances to his credit. In May and October of 2000, Robert Dean was honored with two lifetime achievement awards for his contribution to the field of ufology.

His Message

Retired Command Sergeant Major Robert O. Dean tells a story that skillfully presents an astonishing and convincing message: that we are not alone on this planet and never have been. Propelled upon a quest to share his discovery of a highly classified document he came upon during his military career, he has continued his agenda to inform the public about extraterrestrial life and our government's connection.

One of the few holders of first-hand knowledge about government involvement with alien life, Mr. Dean recounts the contents of the 1964 report called An Assessment, the NATO military study that acknowledged and analyzed the implications of the alien presence here on Earth.

Robert Dean is an engaging, masterful speaker who holds audiences spellbound by generating listeners' thirst for truth. His style is both provocative and stimulating. Mr. Dean weaves his persuasive argument around evidence found throughout art and literature to underscore his compelling information. Sharing his valuable collection of slides that document evidence of contact throughout history, he reveals how famous paintings, tapestries, cave drawings, and relics from past civilizations confirm the presence of an extraterrestrial involvement with Earth. Truly compelling, this profoundly insightful revelation of alien communication and the government cover-up is a wake-up call for all of us.

His Programs

One of Mr. Dean's fondest endeavors is reaching out to the next generation. As a result, he has developed a uniquely challenging curriculum geared towards elementary and secondary education. It deals with the possibility of an extraterrestrial civilization and the implications of what its discovery will mean for the civilization of planet Earth in the next century. Another of his current keynote addresses and workshops is titled 10,000 Years Of Human History Is Now Coming To Fruition: What Does This Mean And What Will It Create?

Photo by Rick Martin, Mt. Shasta, CA, 1994

This is a look at who we are as a race and a species, and the potential psychic shock to the public when confronted with the reality of extraterrestrial life. Mr. Dean provides hopeful and reassuring evidence that we can understand our place in an infinite universe filled with intelligence and love. This presentation includes Mr. Dean's stimulating and challenging slide show that outlines over twenty thousand years of human-alien interactions.

Another topic is titled Here It Comes—Ready Or Not: The Greatest Story Never Told (The Urge To Prepare For The New Reality). Explores how crucial the next few years will be with regard to our survival as a race on this planet. For more information about Robert O. Dean, go to his www.beyondzebra.com Internet website.

* * *

Now let's move directly into my first interview with Robert Dean, conducted on October 17, 2001.

Martin: I've been talking to a number of people in the last few weeks. I just had the privilege of having a long conversation with Dr. Greer, yesterday.

Dean: Oh, Steven, I know him well.

Martin: Quite an articulate gentleman.

Dean: Yes, he is. He's an emergency room physician, primarily. But Steven and I both got involved in this a number of years ago. I respect Steven a great deal, but I don't agree with his plans and programs because I think he's being a bit naïve.

Martin: I was going to ask you about that. I had a sense of that, myself, and I was curious what your take on that was. Now, I have the recorder on, so if there's anything you don't want us to print, please let me know.

Dean: Well, Rick, I generally will tell you that you can publish anything I say.

Martin: That's cool.

Dean: I don't plan to say anything totally outrageous. [Laughter]

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: I will make it clear to you that I am a friend of Steven, and I respect the young man very much.

Martin: Well, our policy at The SPECTRUM is to, when I do an interview, and I do a lot of them, we publish the interview verbatim. We do not extract sound bites. We do not take things out of context. We publish the conversations just as they take place.

Dean: Well, I respect that.

Martin: There's a lot to be said for that because people's personalities come through in the conversation, little nuances, and the habit of modern media to extract and excerpt is, I think, criminal.

Dean: Well, you've got it on tape, young man. So if anybody says "No, I didn't say that", you can say right back to them "Oh, yes, you did."

But listen, I wish to make it clear. I was a member of [Dr. Greer's organization] CSETI for a number of years. And I respect Steven. I've been at a number of conferences where he and I were joint speakers. And our goals were basically the same, and they still are. But our processes and our techniques and procedures are somewhat different because I'm an old soldier, Rick. I don't know whether you know anything about my background.

Martin: I know a little bit about your background. I have a few articles here in front of me.

Dean: I spent 27 years on active duty in the United States Army, and then I worked for FEMA for 14 years. So I've been in government, and I've learned a little bit, over the years, about how government works.

I will tell you that Steven's goals and mine are the same, but I don't believe his techniques and procedures are going to work, because I think they're jacking him around a little bit. There are some very, very dishonest people working in Washington, D.C. I think you and I and everybody else know that.

The big problem we've had over the years is trying to figure out who the hell they are, and what departments or agencies they're working with. And that's damn near impossible, because it's become apparent to a few of us that we're dealing with, well, I'll use that term "the powers that be". No one knows who "the powers that be" are, particularly on this subject.

Listen, Rick: about a year and a half, two years ago, I was fortunate enough to spend two full months in Washington, D.C. My son is a career naval officer. And he's a full captain, and he was, at the time, assigned to the Pentagon. So I visited him in Arlington, stayed with him in his apartment there, near the Pentagon. And while I was there, I was there two full months, I took the opportunity to pay a number of visits to Capital Hill.

Rick, I visited, oh, at least 8 or 10 different House offices, and at least a half a dozen Senate offices. I went into these places "low-key". I identified myself, and I explained why I was there, and what I was trying to do—which is the same thing Steven has been trying to do for a number of years. And I said: "Look, Congress represents the American people. We're dealing with the greatest story in human history."

Martin: That's right.

Dean: "And you people have an obligation to do something about it, to research it, to investigate it, and to be responsive to the American people."

Well, Rick, I was received very favorably. I was received warmly. I was given coffee, and ash trays, and little momentos of my visit.

Martin: But don't let the door hit you on the way out.

Dean: Exactly, exactly. I primarily visited the two Senate offices from my state, here in Arizona—John Kyle and John McCain.

I must tell you that I got very favorable responses from everybody, but I got the same damned answer.

Martin: Sure.

Dean: That these guys are not about to touch this subject, at this time, with a 10-foot-pole.

Martin: Sure. Well, I'm sure it's political suicide.

Dean: You know, I got the impression that they were very, very, if not frightened, they were at least very sensitive to the implications of this thing. Even a couple of them had reminded me of what had happened to Congressman Steven Schiff of New Mexico. Now, I don't know whether you knew about it.

Martin: No.

Dean: This was a young man who was trying very hard to pry the lid off this thing, representing his constituency in New Mexico. And Schiff ended up dying from a form of skin cancer that should not have been fatal. A couple of them reminded me of what had happened to Schiff, and they indicated that maybe his death was natural—but then again, maybe there was something a little more to it. So I got the impression they're not about to touch this thing. They told me, in a lot of different ways, well, you know, the election is coming up.

Martin: What year was this?

Dean: Let me see. This was 1999. And they all reminded me that the big elections are coming, and this is a "sensitive subject", and a lot of people have been branded as "kooks", and that they weren't about to even get involved with it. Now, maybe later, they were concerned that there is something here that they should be looking at. But none of them were willing to touch it now. The only favorable response that I got out of all my visits was with Senator Arlen Specter of Pennsylvania.

Martin: No kidding?

Dean: No kidding.

Martin: That surprises me.

Dean: Well, it surprised me. I even got a follow-up letter from Specter, that he was deeply concerned with the subject, and he agreed with me that it needed to be addressed. But, he said, just by himself he didn't know if he would have any success in forming a committee or not. So he wasn't going to do much about it until after the elections were over.

Now, I keep reminding these guys. I'm not a great scholar. I've only finished two years at University, but I know exactly the kind of power that Congress can have if they want to implement it. You know, two or more Congressmen, or two or more Senators, can get together and form a committee. That committee can demand and hold hearings. And, Rick, you know as well as I do that if a Congressional committee is holding hearings, they have the power of subpoena, and they also have the power to deny or to grant Congressional immunity for testimony.

Martin: That's right.

Dean: And I kept pointing out to them that I knew of at least 50-100 "old boys", who belonged as I do to what we call "the old boys' network".

And I said, "Look, we represent men that are retired, some of them are still on active duty. We represent every service in the country. And we are willing to testify with you guys, on an open hearing basis, and all we ask is Congressional immunity."

I also told them that I was prepared to give them at least 25 names of people that they could subpoena, including a retired Secretary of Defense, a retired four-star Admiral by the name of Bobby Ray Inman, and I gave them a whole bunch of other names.

Martin: That last name was Inman?

Dean: Inman. Now, I don't know if you are familiar with Inman, but he used to be the number-one intelligence man in our country, a retired four-star Admiral. And Bobby Ray Inman was, at one time, Director of Central Intelligence; at another time he was, I think, he began as Director of Naval Intelligence; and then, for a short time, he was Director of the NSA.

Martin: That's quite a resumé.

Dean: Listen, this guy, from the beginning of his career, has been on the inside of intelligence operations for, I guess, over 20 years. Bobby Ray is retired now. You may remember some time back that Bobby Ray Inman was nominated to be the Secretary of Defense, but one week before the hearings were to begin, he declined that position. I think it was during Clinton's administration. One week before the hearings were due to begin on the Hill, he declined and withdrew his name.

Now, the reason he did that—and most of us who have been involved in this thing for years and years know that he declined because—he was not about to raise his right hand and swear to testify to any questions that he might get involving this subject. And that's the way that stands with Bobby Ray Inman.

Martin: That's amazing there is such a level of fear out there.

Dean: Oh, listen, it's not just fear. You know, honestly, I don't know what motivates these guys. I suspect that a lot of it is fear, but I suspect a lot of it, you know, they're afraid of the American people.

Martin: Do you think there is a fear, or a concern, I should say, of the American people feeling betrayed that this information has been withheld for so long? Or what?

Dean: Rick, that's going to be a part of it. There's no way to avoid it. First of all, many of them are afraid that the American people are not ready for this reality. That this thing is not just a visit from guys from other planets. I've been told by people that I respect, and people that I've served with over the years who were in intelligence operations, that if it were merely the fact that we were being visited by guys from other planets, or other star systems, that the subject probably would have been out a long time ago. But, Rick, it's a lot bigger than that.

Martin: What's the sticking point?

Dean: Well, the sticking points are two things. One, they don't believe that the average American citizen is emotionally, intellectually, spiritually ready to deal with this reality. Because this reality, Rick, involves not only visitations from other planets, but it involves inter-relationships with—what was told to me by a physicist in government service many years ago—we are facing the reality of multi-dimensional intelligence.

Martin: Well, of course.

Dean: We've got people, I say people, we've got intelligences coming to us, visiting us, from other times and other dimensions.

Martin: Yes, absolutely.

Dean: And the other thing is, and this came out repeatedly, it surfaces for those of us who have been involved here, and I've been involved in this, I guess, oh, 15-18 years. Actually, Rick, it goes back to when I was at SHAPE Headquarters in Paris, in 1963-1967, where I learned, first hand, the reality of this problem.

But we're dealing, apparently, with a situation where some of these advanced intelligences—and don't ask me to try to pin them down, because I don't think any of us who have been researching this thing really can put our finger on this thing—we're dealing with advanced intelligences, Rick, that literally had a hand in our being here. That, apparently, there is, indeed, a lot of truth to the old story that the human race is a hybrid race, and we have been genetically "enhanced". One of the big sticking points is that the genetic enhancement is still going on.

The other big thing is—and I've gotten this from the horse's mouth in several cases—every major religion on this planet, Rick, has been engendered, or established, or created by extra-terrestrial intelligence. There has been a great deal of knowledge that has surfaced in the last, oh, 10 or 12 years, which indicates that the Vatican knows this.

Martin: Sure.

Dean: And that poor old man in Rome is between the literal rock and hard place. You know, I respect his dilemma. I pity the poor old soul, because his health is gone, and he's not going to be around much longer. And I think he knows, first hand, that they're dealing with, not only a dynamite subject, but a subject that can literally lift the lid off the history of the entire human species.

Martin: I've been a so-called conspiracy journalist for about 12 years now. So, I've been doing this for a number of years, and I've had direct contact with the Pleiadians and others, over the years, and with what you would call channeled material, directly, so I'm not totally naïve about the level of sophistication of what we're talking about.

But I can't help but wonder, in our discussions here, about the capability of the human consciousness to accept change, and accept this kind of broad-sweeping concept. Don't you think we're at a time in human history when man could, in fact, accept it, if it was presented correctly? Or do you think those in high places are being presumptive, and perhaps wise, in their decision to withhold it? Personally, I can't believe there is wisdom in withholding it. What are your thoughts on this?

Dean: Rick, I'll tell you my own personal feeling. I think that, for a long, long time, the average human being out there has been underestimated by both his church and his government. I think the average person who I've run into, over the years, is a hell-of-a-lot brighter than most people give them credit for.

Now, I know there are fruit cakes running loose, and I know there are nut cases all over the place. I mean, let's look at what's going on in the world, right now.

You've got Islamic Muslim fundamentalists ready to blow-up the world in the name of Allah.

But you look around the world and see what's happening, and I think that these people who are doing all the blowing-up and threatening to kill everybody are in a minority.

I have been speaking out, rather bluntly, on this subject, ever since I retired from the Army, actually. I came out of the closet, I guess, in 1991, for the first time in a big way. And I violated my National Security Oath by telling what I learned while I was in the military.

Martin: Good for you.

Dean: And I told everybody: "I'm willing to go to jail over this, because I think this subject is so important. I think the American people not only have a right to this truth, but they have a need for it."

And I felt, "Well, go on, lock me up. I'll go." But I'm going to speak out.

Now, I have spoken out in about 14 foreign countries, over the last 10-12 years, and I think I've spoken in about 20-22 separate American cities, from New York to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle—I've got pins on a map on my wall that shocked the hell out of me. I had not realized how many places I have gone, and how many times I've spoken about this. And in every case, Rick, I have found that the audiences were responsive, and warmly receptive, and were more than willing to discuss it and accept some of the implications.

Now, I ran into that all over Europe; I ran into that all over the United States.

Martin: I believe it.

Dean: I've spoken out in Japan. I was on national television in Tokyo, and in every case I have found that the people not only are willing to listen, but they want to know more.

Martin: Well, let me ask you this, then, being on the inside: Who are these men who dare to withhold this? Who are these guys?

Dean: You're hitting on one of the big questions.

Martin: And what kind of nerve do they have?

Dean: Well, let me tell you. You're dealing not only with a national group, Rick; you're dealing with a multi-national group. And this big thing really began to impact on their consciousness in the '40s. And I don't use 1947 and Roswell as the beginning, because the Navy retrieved a UFO in the waters off of San Diego in 1942.

Now, a lot of this is knowledge to people in the service, people who are sitting under their National Security Oath. But we have retrieved hardware and, not only bodies, but living beings, from crashes, since at least 1942, and there were indications that the Nazis had done the same thing in the '30s, because their technology on anti-gravity craft had made some incredible strides by the end of World War II. And by 1944 and 1945, the Nazis were, literally, flying their own flying disks.

Martin: Right, that's true.

Dean: And the evidence for that is pretty overwhelming, although it's not commonly known by the average person. So this thing has been going on for a long time. And I think what happened is, when the impact of the implications began to really hit some of these people, that they thought "Oh, my God, this is going to turn the world upside down." And they were right. But they, because they had the power, and the war was under way, they decided to put a lid on this, and they were

INTELLIGENCE AGENT'S SHOCKING REPORT FLYING SAUCERS COME FROM INSIDE EARTH!

- Aliens have established underground bases around the planet.
- Entrance ways can be found in many major cities.
- Ancient tunnel system has existed since time of Atlantis.
- Some government & military officials have taken the side of aliens.

The UFO enigma is more complex than generally believed. Though it is commonly thought that space ships are arriving here from other solar systems,

Mexico; Groom Lake, Nevada; Superstition Mountain Range, Arizona; South and North Poles; as well as in the mountains of the Andes, and the jungles of Brazil.

Here also are the first-hand reports of those individuals who have been abducted by aliens, and who have survived genetic experiments at some locations. These are the facts that everyone should be informed of—regardless of how disturbing the truth may turn out to be!

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

there is now evidence that several groups of ETs have established bases beneath our very feet.

Here are bizarre stories about underground bases at Mt. Shasta, California; Brown Mountain, North Carolina; Dulce, New planning on putting the lid on it and hold it down for at least 50, maybe 100, years.

Now, there are two major reasons why they did this. They decided, one, the people couldn't handle it. They decided, two, that hey, by golly, this is big, big science. "Think what this could mean if we can get a handle on these propulsion systems."

Martin: Sure.

Dean: "Think of the money we could make."

Martin: Sure.

Dean: "The power we will have."

Martin: Of course.

Dean: Not only are we sitting on a big story, but we're sitting on some technology. And they, apparently, were fairly successful in reverse-engineering some of the technology because, you know, some of our scientists are pretty damn bright men. And the British, the American, the German, even the Japanese, have gotten some knowledge on this and have some technology that they are sitting on top of.

Martin: Sure. I hate to interrupt you, but let me just interject here. Wouldn't you say, let's just call it Higher Source—wouldn't you say, from Higher Dimensions, there is coming into play a pressure on the "powers that be" to release certain technologies to the public?

Dean: I could not agree with you more. It is apparent—listen, in my opinion, again, I want you to understand that I'm giving you the result of my 40 years of research.

Martin: Well, you're an expert, and that's why I'm calling you.

Dean: Let me tell you, Rick, there are no such things as experts in this subject. Every time I hear somebody refer to one of us as an expert, I make it very clear when I speak out that there are no such things. There is no such thing as "the world's foremost authority" on this subject. And I'll be the first to tell you that because I've learned over the years that, even those of us who have been devoting our lives to this for 20-30-40 years, we know only a little of it. We don't know the whole story. It will come when it will come out.

Martin: Thanks to the compartmentalization of our governmental and other control layers.

Dean: I'll tell you what my opinion is, and that's all I can give you right now. It has become apparent to me over the years in researching this, and talking to, good God, everybody and his brother, I've had friends who retired from the military and went to work at Langley. I've had a couple of buddies who went to work at Fort Mead, and I think you know what agencies are there. And I've gotten some input over the years, and they have indicated that, in their opinion, yes, the extraterrestrial—what do we call them? They're not just extraterrestrial. As I said, some of them are from different dimensions. And not very many people even deal with that.

There's a New York physicist who teaches at New York University by the name of Michio Kaku. And Michio is a brilliant theoretical physicist. He's a quantum physicist. And he's flatly told me that we're dealing, probably, with at least 10 different dimensions.

Martin: That's the number I keep hearing.

Dean: There could be more, but he says they're aware of 10. And he says these could be separate universes filled with light as ours is. Now, do you realize what that means?

Martin: No, I don't think we can really get a handle on that.

Dean: Anyhow, we're looking at a level of intelligence out there—and I'm not about to even try to get religious about this—but I will tell you that this strikes me as a deeply spiritual thing.

Martin: Sure.

Dean: We're dealing with intelligences, Rick, who are so far beyond our own that we would consider them "God-like", and we would deify them. Over the history, in our inter-relationship with them, we have deified them. And these guys, I do believe, at least one or two of the group, have our survival at heart, they have our best—what can I say? They are concerned in seeing us make it as a species.

Martin: Our highest good.

Dean: They have a much higher moral sense about it and they would like to see the human race make it.

Now, not only have these guys established Christianity, Judaism, Islam, and probably Hinduism, Buddhism, and all the others as well, but they have had a continual, inter-relationship with us for the last, well, 50,000 years; and I believe that they have an agenda. And I have concluded that the time-table of "disclosure" is going to be THEIR decision. It's NOT going to come out of Washington. It won't come out of London, or Paris, or Rome, or Berlin. It will, when they decide that we are ready; that's when the disclosure will take place. And the disclosure will take place, I think, by probably a massive display of their presence.

And if you have been following the things through the years, as I have, they have been "upping the ante" so to speak.

Martin: They have.

Dean: Continually over the years. And they monitor us. They demonstrate. They show themselves. They scare the hell out of some of our people, and then they kind-of back off for a time to see how we react, and how we respond, and what "the body politic", as it were, is feeling, and what the mass of people are ready for.

I think there is a benevolent, beneficial intelligence behind these guys that, literally, have our best interest at heart.

Now, this is far beyond recognizing that they exist. This is a hell-of-a-lot farther along than saying "They're here, and they're from somewhere else." These guys have had a hand in our survival, as a race. They have genetically engineered us. They have continually up-graded us, over the centuries. They have been monitoring us. They get involved.

You'd be surprised, Rick, of some of the things that we've learned, over the years, that have happened.

They scared the living hell out of our military, both in the Soviet Union, the United States, and Great Britain. They have made their presence so pronounced and well-known, in a number of cases, where they have, literally, melted the warheads of an ICBM, and scrambled the computerized delivery system of our ICBMs, while they're sitting in the silos.

They did that outside of Murmansk [Russia; in NW part on Kola Bay, about 22 miles from the ocean; largest city in the world north of the Arctic Circle, with a population of about 475,000; ice-free port; NAVAL BASE; shipyards, fish canneries, sawmills; base for Russia's most important fishing fleet; founded in 1915 as supply port during WW-I; in WW-II was a major supply base, the main port for the Anglo-American convoys.]; they did it outside of St. Petersburg, which was Leningrad at the time. They've done it in Minot, North Dakota; they've done it at least 3 times at SAC bases, SAC missile installations, all over the United States. So, they have interjected themselves, subtly.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: [Laughter] And not so subtly, which have made a believer out of some of our military. Now, if we could get Bobby Ray Inman subpoenaed in front of a Congressional committee, and he swears to tell the truth, a hell of a lot of this would come out. But there's not much chance of this happening because you asked the question earlier about who the hell are these people [controlling things here on planet Earth]? Well, I'll tell you, they're not only national, they're multi-national. They're not just one or two agencies, there are several agencies involved. Probably we're dealing with agencies, Rick, that we don't even have names for.

Martin: Right, I'm sure that's true.

Dean: You've heard the old rumor about, what is it, Majestic-12? Well, I'm convinced that it exists, but I don't think that they call it that anymore. They may have, at one time. The last I heard from somebody who was in a position to know is, they call themselves PI-40. Now, what the hell that stands for, I have no idea. But they exist. And they have tremendous power. And they have power to make policy for national governments.

Now, the nations who are probably the most heavily involved are Great Britain and the United States. Rick, we signed a pact with Great Britain back in 1947. I don't know whether you've ever heard of it. It's known as the UK-USA Pact.

The UK-USA Pact was signed in '47. Interesting year there—same time, I believe, that the CIA, NSA, and all the rest of them were beginning to be created. We and the United Kingdom signed a pact that we would share, among ourselves, all of the very sensitive, highest level, national security information, just between us. Now, the members were: England (United Kingdom), the United States, Australia, Canada, and New Zealand. And that, if you will think about it, is all of the English-speaking nations of the world. And we signed that in 1947, and that Pact, I think, has grown. It's been very successful, and I think it's grown in power over the years, into whatever it may be today, the power and the authority that calls the shots. For example, you know that one of the largest NSA installations in the world is in the middle of Australia. It's a place called Pine Gap.

Martin: Right.

Dean: And that's operated by NSA. There's another one, and I spoke in Leeds, in England, a few years back. There's another one located in Yorkshire, known as Manwhitt Hills. And that's another NSA facility. And that original agreement in '47 has, I think, continued to develop and grow, and it is probably the agency or the organization that led to the growth of PI-40.

Now, these guys are policy makers, and they have power. You know, people point to the Council on Foreign Relations. People point to the Bilderbergers. People point to other organizations, and such, but we're talking about an organization, possibly without a name, that is calling the policy among all of the free nations of the world. They're involved with NATO. They're involved with the European community.

Martin: Do you happen to know if they're Jesuits?

Dean: [Laughter] I'll tell you this, the Jesuits are well represented. I've never for a moment doubted it. As you know, they're the best the Vatican has. When I was overseas some years ago, I was assigned in Germany, and some of my best friends would get together and drink a little, and philosophize a little, and talk about history, or Jesuits. Those are the real scholars of the Catholic Church.

So, I'm sure that the Vatican is deeply involved in this, Rick, and I am convinced that the Vatican has known for a long time most of the things you and I have been talking about. Why would they spend millions and millions of dollars building a telescope on top of Mt. Grand in Arizona?

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: They violated conservation laws; they violated everything.

Martin: Well, they know when to duck and cover. [Laughter]

Dean: Oh, listen. Anyhow, the Vatican money built that tremendous telescope on Mt. Grand. And the other issue is, and this is something that I want to reflect upon, just briefly, and tell you that we're facing a time here, probably within the next 2-5 years, where I think the lid on this is going to be blown in a big way. About 5 years ago, I'm trying to get my time here, 3-4 years ago, I think now, Zecharia Sitchin—I don't know whether you know who he is.

Martin: Yes, I'm familiar with all of his work.

Dean: Well, I'm a great admirer of Zecharia. I've known him for some years. He and I have been on some programs together. He was invited by the Chief Astronomer of the United States Naval Observatory in Washington DC to come to visit him. And Zecharia, being the shrewd, old codger that he is, asked Robert Harrington if he could bring a photographer and video-tape the

COMMANDER X

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT CHRONICLES

Exploring The Strange Case of Alfred Bielek & Dr. M.K. Jessup

• Time Travel • Teleportation

• Alternative Energy

• Anti-Gravity

PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT CHRONICLES

BY COMMANDER X

Explores the strange case of Al Bielek (only known survivor of the Philadelphia Experiment) and the mysterious death of famed astronomer Dr. M. K. Jessup, who first broke the news about the disappearance of the warship and its subsequent teleportation into another dimension. Also looks at time travel, alternative energy, anti-gravity theories. Highly classified govt/military interview. And Harrington said "By all means." Well, on tape, in that interview, Robert Harrington tells Zecharia, right on camera, that the United States Naval Observatory, and weather observatories in the world, had discovered the 10th planet.

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

And he said the reason that I asked you to come, Mr. Sitchin, is that I am a little familiar with your work and he said that what we have described, what we have learned, is exactly in accordance with the teachings of the Anunnaki, the Sumerians, from the history of the Sumerian people.

Martin: Now, theoretically, this [10th planet] is due back in 2003, isn't it?

Dean: It's not only been discovered, but it's been photographed. And the first photographs were discovered by an astronomer in Argentina about a year ago. So this thing is probably going to be visible to the naked eye, I would say, no later than 2003.

Stop for a moment, Rick, and imagine what this could mean. If this is the home planet of the Anunnaki, and the Anunnaki were the ones who, initially, genetically created us as a species, and probably is one of the extraterrestrial intelligences that have been involved with us for a very long time, you can understand, to some degree, why the world politic is concerned.

Martin: Sure.

Dean: Because here we have a planet that nobody even wanted to admit existed.

Martin: Right.

Dean: It's, roughly, two and a half times the mass of the Earth. It's going to be visible to the naked eye, and it's going to be making its 3600-year orbit pass probably within 5 years. Now, I think that is one of the reasons why the Vatican has been so deeply involved with this thing, and why that old man [the pope] wanted to make a "pilgrimage to Ur" a couple of years ago. I got this right out of the New York Times. I even kept the clipping.

[Editor's note: The very interesting old Sumerian cultural center/city of Ur is located about 200 miles SSE of Baghdad and a few miles from the mouth of the Euphrates river.]

The Vatican released a little information, late last year, that His Holiness was negotiating with the government of Iraq to allow him to make a pilgrimage, and that was the very word the Vatican used, to the "Holy" City—that was another word that was used in the article—a pilgrimage to the "Holy" City of Ur, which is now, whatever is left, in Iraq. If you happen to do a little history.

Martin: We're talking about the Sumerians.

Dean: Yes. There's not a hell of a lot left at Ur, except the ruins. But, the Annunaki established the Sumerian civilization. And the Annunaki, apparently, built Ur, and another half a dozen ancient cities. And that old man wants to pay a visit, a "pilgrimage" to the "Holy" City of Ur?

Now, put two and two together, and see what you come up with. The Vatican knows something. The Naval Observatory knows something. A hell of a lot of people know it, and they're sitting on the edges of their chairs, and grinding their teeth, and they don't have control of this thing.

I had watched, some years back, there's a man in Las Vegas named Robert Bigelow. I don't know whether you've ever heard about Bob.

Martin: I have not heard that name.

Dean: Robert Bigelow is a multi-millionaire. He and his father made billions, literally, with construction. I think they built half of Las Vegas. Well, Bigelow is a man who is very bright, and invested his interest and his research into this field that we're discussing. And I had lunch with him one day, some time back, and I was banging on the table, and so on, about why the government doesn't respond to this. And Bigelow said to me "Bob, cool it off."

He said: "Everybody has an agenda. You have one. I have one. Congress has one. The military has another. The security agencies have their own damned agendas, and they don't agree with each other."

He said "There's only one agenda."

And I said "Oh, yeah?"

And Bigelow pointed up toward the ceiling. And I knew he wasn't talking about people upstairs. He said: "It's THEIR agenda, Bob. When they want it out, it will be out. If they don't want it out, it ain't coming out."

He said: "Cool-off, and stop banging your head against the wall."

Martin: That's probably good advice.

Dean: It was good advice. And I got the same advice from Phil Corso, before he died. I knew old Phil very well. He and I were speakers at conferences a few times. I don't know whether you ever read his book or not, The Day After Roswell?

Martin: No.

Dean: But Phil Corso was a Retired Army Colonel, who wrote a dynamite book called The Day After Roswell. If you get a chance, you might pick that up and read it. It's certainly worth it. When Phil and I were speaking at a big conference in Italy, in Rome, he said: "Look, I've been involved with government most of my life. You're wasting your time and energy. Cool it."

"You're not going to succeed in getting open Congressional hearings on this thing because the mechanism is not in place in Congress to deal with a subject of this magnitude."

And after my conversations with Robert Bigelow, and my conversations with Phil Corso, and my experience on the Hill two years ago, I've reached that conclusion. And that's why I, you know, I take my hat off to Steven Greer, but Steven is not going to succeed because the forces against him are just too damned big. And what they do is, they jack him around, they embarrass him, and they make him look like an idiot sometimes. He will not succeed. He will not get to first base with this thing, because, apparently, we're not quite ready for it. And I don't mean the people. I mean that the powers running the thing are not ready for it to come out.

So, you've got a couple of agendas there. You've got our own human agenda, here, whoever this group is. And then you've got the guys from upstairs. So, I'm kind-of taking it easy. I continue to speak when I get a chance. I get invited, now and then.

Martin: You sound pretty laid-back in your style now.

Dean: Well, I'll tell you honestly, Rick, my health is—I'm not complaining. I'm almost 73. And I'm slowing down a little bit. I don't travel well anymore. I'm like one of those old, rare wines. You got to drink me right out of the bottle, because I don't travel very well.

Martin: I understand.

Dean: I'm delighted to be able to chat with you this evening. And I hope that I've given you something that will be of some value to you.

Martin: Very helpful, I really appreciate it.

Are there any closing remarks you'd like to give our readers? Any grist for the mill that they can chew on, and think about on this subject? You've made a lot of very thoughtful remarks.

Dean: As I said before, this is the Greatest Story In Human History. And, when it boils right down to it, it isn't about them—you know, the collective "them", whoever "they" are, because we're dealing with, good God, how many? We're dealing with at least half a dozen extraterrestrial intelligences from other star systems, I think, in our universe. We're dealing with what Michio Kaku says are Class-One and Class-Two civilizations.

Now, our human race, at the moment, is a Class-Zero civilization. But Kaku has surmised that there are advanced cultures out there, multi-dimensional as well, that are Class-One, and Class-Two, and possibly Class-Three civilizations.

He's written a couple of excellent books. And, as a matter of fact, he's written some books that the layman can read, and that's not easy for a theoretical physicist to do.

Al Bielek on CD-ROM

What you get on this CD-ROM is the most in-depth compilation of interviews with survivors of the Philadelphia Experiment and Montauk Project to date on one computer CD.

The information on this CD comes from the memories of those who were interviewed. Because these projects are so secretive, gaining hard evidence is nearly impossible. However, that doesn't mean the projects never happened.

This information is for those who want to pursue and know the truth. Sometimes, finding the truth becomes elusive. There are many out there who do not want you to know the truth about these projects. Use your own judgment as you hear the words of these survivors.

As you follow this story, use this information as the beginning resource to hopefully, get you on the right track.

The five people featured on this CD all testify that they worked with Al at the Montauk Project, and some even remember him as Ed Cameron during the Philadelphia Experiment.

CD INTERVIEW CONTENT:

Al Bielek

Life of Ed Cameron
Visit to Alpha Centauri
Philadelphia Experiment
Trip to 2137, Trip to 2749
Trip to Mars and 100,000 B.C.
Life of Al Bielek
History of Montauk
Montauk Boys Program
Montauk Mind-Control Program
Montauk Time-Travel Program

Psychic Operations Program
Duncan Cameron Involvement

Duncan Cameron

Memories of Montauk
Stewart Swerdlow
Being a Montauk Boys Programmer
Human Genetic Manipulation
Involvement With E.T.s

Preston Nichols

Working With Al Bielek at Montauk
Stealth Technology Development

Mind-Control Development
Montauk Boys Program

Larry James

Operating the Time-Control Program
Experiments With Time Travel (JFK Assassination, Civil War, WWII)
Involvement With Al Bielek at Montauk
What Happened To Ed Cameron?

Dr. James F. Corum

Replication of Radar Invisibility

$29.95 (+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: But I would simply like to say, in closing, that the greatest story in human history, it's not about them, Rick, it's about us. It's WHO we are, and WHAT we are, and HOW we came to be.

It isn't merely about where we are, at the moment. It is about where we are going. We are a species, and we are a race that will survive.

And, in all honesty, we have good friends in very "high" places. If we just stay attentive to the great teachings of not only Christianity, but Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, we will find that there is a thread of common truth that goes through every one of those great religions, that's been given to us, Guided, some ideas of who we are, and how we came to be, and where we're going.

And I must say, in closing, that I have a great belief and a great faith in the human race. I think we're going through a transition, right now. We're making—how can I describe it? We're making not only a transition, Rick, we're making a transformation. We are going through an incredible transformation as a species. I feel very hopeful about the years ahead.

I've said in my presentations a few times that the rough and bumpy parts aren't over yet. It's going to be very awkward, and very difficult, and probably very bloody for the next few years.

But we're going to survive, as a species, and I would like to close my presentations with a quote from Leo Tolstoy:

"There is indeed a spark that burns in the heart of men. There is a light that won't go out, no matter how dark the world becomes."

And I'd just like you to settle with that remark and that closing, because that's how I feel. There's something within us, something that WILL prevail. And so, to your readers, tell them to have hope. Never give up.

Martin: Thank you so much, Bob.

Dean: Thank you for the invitation. And thank you for listening.

* * *

Soon after completing the interview with Bob Dean on 10/17/01, I had a nagging feeling that I had overlooked something of great significance. So I called Bob, once again, and asked him if he was willing to conduct another session. The result was the following important exchange on 11/8/01.

Martin: I thoroughly enjoyed our interview, and it really is a good read. Our subscribers will love it; it's excellent. But as I was going through it, I realized that the one subject we didn't talk about was the Underground, the whole plethora of subjects concerning the Underground Railroad, the Underground Bases, the Genetic Manipulations, all of those kinds of things.

Can you comment on the Underground, at all?

Dean: What are you talking about, "their" underground or "our" underground?

Martin: Both.

Dean: [Laughter]

When I say "their" Underground, Rick, we've learned for a long time, as I said earlier, there apparently are more than one group involved. And, apparently, they have had installations, bases, operating facilities on this planet for a very, very long time.

Our intelligence people have been somewhat suspicious of some of these areas that they have discovered, but they never said very much about it. They just went about their business, and kept monitoring, and kept collecting information, and kept putting data together.

We learned over the years that there were, apparently, four, very possibly more, major facilities on the planet that were being operated by off-worlders, off-planet intelligences. And, apparently, these facilities had been here for a hell-of-a-long time.

When we first began to do some real intelligence work, intelligence gathering, and I say that [laughter] with tongue in cheek—

Martin: Sure.

Dean: For a long time a lot of our intelligence people were not using their heads. They were a bunch of silly paranoids, playing games. When they first began to really put some of it together, they learned that there was a facility in Alaska, apparently located under a large mountain in the Southeastern portion of the state. And it was a facility that Ingo Swann, literally, had been told about and taken to. Are you familiar with who he is?

Martin: No, and please explain for our readers who don't know.

Dean: Ingo Swann was probably, IS—he's still alive—one of our top remote viewers. The man is an absolute genius. He's an artist who lives in New York City. You may want to just mention his name because he worked with the Stanford Research Institute for a very, very long time. As a matter of fact, Ingo was one who helped put the SRI Remote Viewing Program together.

Now, the Stanford Research Institute was the organization that, literally, created the Army's Remote Viewing Program, which later became known as Star Gate.

Martin: Now, was Ed Dames part of that?

Dean: Ed was trained to be a remote viewer while he was in the Army. Now, Ed was not in on the beginning of this thing. I know Ed, and I don't necessarily agree with everything Ed has been talking about in the last few years. He's been on Art Bell [Art Bell's very popular late-night talk-radio program] a half a dozen times, maybe more. He's made some predictions that are way, way the hell out.

Martin: Yes. A lot of them have not happened.

Dean: Including a lot of stuff that didn't take place. And, of course, it gives you the importance of how difficult it is to make predictions about some of these programs, because none of these programs are cast in iron.

Anyhow, Ingo Swann helped put the program together at SRI, and he had done some remote viewing on his own because the subject of alien presence—and I hate that damned word. The word "alien" just is not a good word at all, because it really doesn't tell us who they are. But, apparently, Ingo had done some work, and there was another one by the name of Pat Price, who was world-known at one time. Pat's gone home. He's not around any more.

[Editor's note: For those of you who may not know, Pat was a very interesting and talented, yet down-to-Earth guy. At the time he was a subject of studies in the early days of the Remote Viewing project at SRI, in approximately 1974, he was retired from his regular job—police commissioner of Burbank, California. During his career in law enforcement, he had regularly used psychic powers to catch criminals. Even within the SRI Remote Viewing program he rattled the cages that the scientists were working within, figuratively, by sometimes PREDICTING where the target-person of the Remote Viewing experiment WOULD BE in the future. So we're not talking here about simple Remote Viewing of where some target-person WAS—say sitting on a bench, looking at a fountain on the Stanford University campus—but where the person WOULD BE, say twenty or thirty minutes later, once the target-person finally chose a spot and sat down after randomly walking around for the specified length of time. And Pat was sketching and describing this FUTURE location from an isolated laboratory room at SRI that was usually many miles away from the target. Not bad, huh?]

But, Ingo and Pat Price had done some remote viewing of this facility in Alaska. And, at one time, one of the agencies had picked up Ingo and invited him to go with them, and took him up to this facility, near this facility in Alaska.

Martin: We're talking about an underground facility?

Dean: We're talking about an underground facility. Now, our people were never able to get into it, but they were able to get close to it. And this has all been brought out in Ingo's book. He's written one hell of a book, called Penetration. And it's a book you would do well to read, if you ever get some time. I know you're busy. But Ingo has come right out and laid a lot of it on the line.

So, we've got a major facility in Alaska that was remote viewed, not only by Ingo, but by Pat Price, before he died. And Pat had a rate of accuracy that was about 85-90 percent.

Martin: Did they have any sense of which "group" that was?

Dean: No, apparently they didn't grasp which group. Now, this is a great subject of, you know, you can discuss this now and forever, of who's who.

Martin: The Greys, the Reptilians, etc.

Dean: Well, yeah.

Now, there's a word that I have to bring up at this time. Are you familiar with old Zecharia Sitchin's work?

Martin: All of it.

Dean: Ok. The name Anunnaki keeps coming up again and again and again.

And the Anunnaki was the name of the group that, apparently, came here the first time, and the ones who genetically engineered us, and the ones who were present on our planet for several thousands of years.

Now, the Anunnaki, apparently, are from the planet Nibiru, which we have discovered, again. Are you familiar with that?

Martin: Yes.

Dean: Alright. Robert Harrington, before he died, the Chief Astronomer at the Naval Observatory, literally called Sitchin in for an interview, and told Sitchin: "You know, Mr. Sitchin, I've been fascinated by your work. And one of the things that I wanted to chat with you about is, we've discovered the 10th planet; all we have to do is name it. We have no doubt that it's there."

And Sitchin says: "It's already been named. The Anunnaki named it a long time ago. It's their home."

Anyhow, the 10th planet figures prominently in this because it appears to be making its way back into the center part of our system. It's on that enormously long orbit that it's on.

Martin: 3600 years, is it?

Dean: 3600 years. And, apparently, it's been seen, it's been photographed, and is on it's way back into the center of the system.

Now, there is one of the things that is going to blow the lid off of this whole subject.

Martin: That—the 10th planet—is going to be a front-page feature story here in The SPECTRUM at some point following this ET story.

Dean: Listen, the presence and the reality of the 10th planet, that has been photographed by astronomers in Argentina already, exactly where Harrington said it would be seen and photographed first—because it comes out of a constellation that is seen only, primarily, out of the southern hemisphere.

You see, when we're dealing with "Who are they?", I have a feeling that the Anunnaki are major players. They may not be the ONLY group, because we know that there are other groups out there. But the Anunnaki, who look like us, who had a hand in creating us, or at least jumping us up, genetically, into what we are, have been major players in this thing, Rick, for a very long time, from the very beginning.

So, when you try to say, "Who's on first here?"—

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: —I keep thinking that it's not really that easy to do, because the Anunnaki have been, from the beginning, one of the major players.

Martin: We keep hearing about the Pleiadians, the Arcturians, the Sirians.

Dean: And I don't buy into all of that. You know, there are a lot of people who, supposedly—what do they call it?

Martin: Channel.

Dean: They get into these states and they channel. There may be a great deal of truth to some of it, but I'm a little bit dubious. I guess I was trained to be cautious.

Martin: Sure.

Dean: So, I don't buy into all of that.

I know this: when I retired in '76, intelligence agencies knew that there were, at least, a dozen different groups. And, you know, there could be as many as a hundred, for God's sake. The "quarantine" is being lifted, slowly. We've been under quarantine for a long time.

Martin: Our planet?

Dean: Our planet, yeah. And I think when the quarantine is being lifted, we may end up encountering hundreds of advanced civilizations out there. I mean, I'm convinced, Rick, the universe is literally teeming with intelligent life.

Martin: Sure it is. How could it not be?

Dean: It's a massive, infinite—well, the word infinite just about says it.

Martin: Unlimited.

Dean: Unlimited, exactly. I'm convinced that intelligence of every development, every level, from Stone Age, right up to the top, exists out there.

So, anyhow, when you say, "Who's who?", it's difficult to say. I have a feeling that the major bases are probably operated by the Anunnaki because they are the ones who have been here from the beginning of our history.

We learned that there's one in Africa, deep underground, in what used to be Rhodesia. I think it's Zimbabwe, now.

There's another one in the mountains of Southern France, Northern Spain, that's been there for a very long time.

I'm trying to think of some of the other locations.

Oh, this is interesting. There, apparently, according to Pat Price and Ingo Swan, there is a massive extraterrestrial facility, underground, in the center of Australia, very, very close to one of our major NSA [National Security Agency] facilities.

Martin: Pine Gap.

Dean: Pine Gap, yeah. I have a nagging suspicion we probably built Pine Gap where we did because of the location of the extraterrestrial facility. So, when you say "underground"—

Martin: Well, I'm talking, also, about the Underground

THE OMEGA FILES: SECRET NAZI UFO BASES REVEALED

This large-size, 8.5 x 11 book, weighing nearly two pounds, describes how German engineers actually flew flying saucers shortly before the end of World War II and how some of the dreaded Nazis actually escaped due to help from the U.S.'s own version of the Secret Government, and how they actually do their work today from underground bases around the world. SPECIAL SECTION of photographs of Nazi-built flying saucers and stories told by our own pilots of encounters with so-called "Foo Fighters" during WW-II. Here is final proof that not all UFOs come from outer space!

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Railroad, the magnetic-levitation high-rail system.

Dean: We built a great deal of that. I'll tell you a story, and you know, you get me started and it's hard to shut me up.

Martin: I don't want to shut you up. We've got lots of time.

Dean: I went to school at Camp Mercury, some years ago. Are you familiar with where that is?

Martin: I don't have a clue.

Dean: Camp Mercury is in Nevada. It's our original atomic test site. When I was working at FEMA, I was sent off to school at Camp Mercury, for a time. I was involved in radiological emergency accident response, and we had a series of courses that were taught, up there, by the Department of Energy.

So I went to school at Mercury. And while I was there, we were several weeks in the course, and we used to spend the weekends there at the Camp, because the only other place to go was expensive, and that was Vegas. And I'm not a gambler, and I don't chase the ladies that much.

So, a lot of us would stay at Camp Mercury for the weekend, and we'd get a chance to talk in the dining room with a bunch of the old construction guys who were working for the Department of Energy, who were tunnel diggers. And they were digging tunnels all over the damn place for the underground tests.

You know, we signed the Test-Ban Treaty, so we wouldn't pop anymore stuff on the surface, with the Russians. And so, we were digging these enormous underground facilities and we were popping nukes underneath.

These guys used to tell some of the damndest stories about how they were digging these massive underground facilities. The technology was a lot farther advanced than most people realized. They had had machinery, first of all, that they had built, and they bought a lot of it from the Swiss, who had been foremost in this research for many years, of tunnel-digging. They had things that could go down and go into the ground and dig tunnels that were unbelievable—40 feet in diameter tunnels, all over the damn place! This was back in 1978-79, when I was going to school there.

The state-of-the-art of tunnel building was far beyond anything anybody had understood, and I knew, from being in FEMA, that we had had underground facilities all over the East. We had Camp Weather, which we had built back East, there in Maryland. Underground places in case of a nuclear war, and some of these facilities were unbelievably refined and sophisticated.

Well, these guys who were building the tunnels were talking about, and they were proud of, their work. They said that the one thing they had always gotten excited about, that they had never gotten any answers for, is that while they were digging a deep tunnel, one time, there at Camp Mercury, near Area 51, interestingly enough—because 51 used to be just an extension of Camp Mercury. And that's something a lot of people don't know, that the old infamous Area 51 was simply one extension of the original atomic test site.

Anyhow, these guys were drilling their tunnels one day, with their machinery and all, and they ran into another tunnel system that they had not built! This tunnel system was so damned sophisticated, and so unbelievably beyond anything that they could do, that they wondered "Who the hell built this?"

They told their superiors about it, and said: "Look, we'd like to take a jeep and get down there, and take some water and lights, and get into this damn tunnel and find out where it goes, and find out who the hell built it."

And the superiors said: "Stay the hell out of that!"

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: "Don't go any further into that. Leave it alone."

And, apparently, they closed-up their access to that particular tunnel.

These guys were talking about it, and they said: "This was better than anything we've ever built. This was so sophisticated, the walls were slick and shiny; they almost reflected light like a mirror. And these tunnels went, apparently, on for miles and miles, and they wanted to find out where they went, and where they started, and who built them. And the superiors, the "authorities" in the Department of Energy, said: "Stay the hell out of those, and don't even mention them again."

So, what we're looking at here, we're looking at, I think, our tunnels builders ran into one of "their" tunnels. I think that our tunnel builders hit one of those alien facilities, deep underground in Nevada.

Well, there are rumors, and I just don't like talking about rumors unless I've got a little bit more information to verify. But I think that's part of the bigger picture. Not only have we built facilities all over the damn place, we've even got some underground facilities here in Sedona, Arizona which might interest you.

Martin: Out in Boynton Canyon, or where?

Dean: There are rumors about that particular canyon, and a question rises: "Why is it that no one is allowed to go up into some of these canyons?"

Martin: Well, I've been all the way back into Boynton. I used to live in Sedona, back in '87. I know exactly what you're talking about, and I felt it at the time. In fact, I was close with people who were asked to leave, who were very prominent channels. In fact, they were escorted out.

Dean: You know, I'm an old soldier. I spent 27 years paying my dues, and I resent the fact of running into guys in black uniforms, with no identification. You don't know who the hell they are, and they don't identify themselves. All we know is that they're heavily weaponed, and they've got the gall to tell people—normal guys walking around and looking and taking pictures and such—"Get the hell out of here and stay away." I've never had that happen to me, but I'm afraid that, if I were to run into that sort of thing, there would probably be some newspaper headlines.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: Because this old bastard would probably get himself shot. And, you know, I don't take it easily when someone starts ordering me around, with a gun in my face, particularly if I don't know who they are.

Martin: I firmly believe there is a major base in Boynton Canyon.

Dean: There very well may be. You know, the average taxpayer, Rick, hasn't the slightest idea what the hell is going on. But, anyhow, here in the Sedona area, we're dealing with some of OUR stuff.

Martin: Is that where you are now?

Dean: I am here in Sedona, looking out at Thunder

Discover Life Beyond Your Wildest Dreams at www.beyondzebra.com

2001 Glyph Award Winner
"Best New Age Book"
Read in 13 countries!

NEW 2002 epilogue about the politics of disclosure!

It's not a matter of IF we are having contact but rather WHY and HOW!

To order: $19.95 + s/h

Cosmic Destiny Press

Call 480-460-7807

info@beyondzebra.com

www.beyondzebra.com

(Visit our Cosmic Destiny online store - secured site ordering)

Nexus Magazine

"Some remarkable revelations in this book..."

Art Bell After Dark Magazine

"Detail maybe rivaled only by the US military..."

Jim Marrs (Crossfire; Alien Agenda, Rule By Secrecy) "Prepare to enter Graduate School."

Ret Command Sgt Major Robert Dean
"An author whose time has come."

Neil Freer (Breaking the Godspell; Godgames)

"A voice for those who share the experience."

Peter Gersten, Citizens Against UFO Secrecy

"A true heroine in coming forward..."

R. Leo Sprinkle (Soul Samples)

"Intellectual and spiritual nourishment for us all."

Jeffrey Mishlove, Author, Host of Thinking Allowed

"Both visionary and practical simultaneously."

Michael Lindemann, Futurist "Marcia Schafer is among the most clear and grounded experiencers I've ever come across."

Mountain.

Martin: By any chance did you get to hear Zecharia last weekend?

Dean: I was at the conference.

Martin: I'm sorry, I found out about it at the last minute. I sure would have been there had I been given more advance notice.

Dean: I've known Zecharia for years, and I try to listen to him every time he speaks. The old codger gets very cagey, and he didn't really tell us too much this weekend. His new book is coming out. It will be out, probably, in January. So, he's setting up a conference in, I think, Los Angeles, where he's not only going to release the new book but, hopefully, going to release a lot information that he's come up with.

Rick, if we've all got Anunnaki genes and bloodlines in us, the entire human race, to an extent, I think, have got Anunnaki blood in us. We ALL have some Anunnaki blood, and I suspect that we've all got Reptilian blood, because I think there is a strong Reptilian strain in the Anunnaki genetic bloodline.

Martin: Along this underground subject, let me mention a couple of things to you and see what it triggers in you. Two-and-a-half years ago, I did a four-and-a-half-hour interview, if you can believe that, long distance, on the phone, with the Zulu shaman Credo Mutwa.

Dean: Oh, Mutwa!

Martin: And I'm going to use part of that in this story [later, in Part III] because so much of what he said in that interview is so important. We did a front-page story on it at the time.

Dean: He is a brilliant man.

Martin: He is a very brilliant man. I'm looking at some of his interview now. He talked about Rhodesia and Zimbabwe, specifically that place, and he was specifically referring to them [the aliens] as the Chitauli.

Now, those were the Reptilian beings, and he described some Greys, as well, so-called Greys. It's interesting that, as you're talking, it overlaps with what Credo was saying, a couple of years ago in a conversation.

Dean: I've never had the honor to meet Credo. I hope he's still alive and well. I've heard that his health is not good.

Martin: His health is not good. He has severe diabetes, but he is alive still. He's an amazing man. David Icke calls him the most intelligent man he's ever met, which is quite a statement.

Dean: Yeah, that is. I know that Credo and John Mack are good friends.

Martin: Well, for Credo to talk about these things was potent. I knew, at least an hour into the conversation, that this guy couldn't tell a lie if his life depended on it.

Dean: I would give anything to have access to some of your interview with Credo.

Martin: Oh, I'll mail you the whole thing.

Dean: Would you?

Martin: Oh, sure.

Dean: That would be wonderful, because I do respect him and I've followed him and John Mack's research, together. They spent some time together. I would love to know more because I respect the man, and I don't think he has lied about anything, to anyone.

Martin: Oh, no. In fact, so many things that he's said—I've done two interviews with him over the last two and a half years—and everything that he says just checks out; there's nothing that doesn't.

Dean: He's had some very unsavory experiences with some of these people.

Martin: Yes, he has had some traumatic experiences.

Dean: And there are those who are involved with this thing that are, you know—this is one of the groups, I don't know specifically who the hell we're talking about. I don't want to just say "the Reptilians" because there may be two or three branches of Reptilians.

Martin: Right. And David talks about that, too. How would WE know?

Dean: They don't hate us, but they sure don't respect us, as a species. And every time that somebody like Credo has an experience with them, I mean, it's traumatic as hell. They don't seem to worry about whether they're going to imprint any trauma on us, or fear; they just do what they're doing, and do it for their own damn purposes, and to hell with it.

Martin: Right.

Dean: And that's the problem with an "advanced" species. And, do you see? Man can learn something from that, because we, ourselves, have that same characteristic, Rick.

Martin: I believe that; I've seen that.

Dean: We get smart-ass, and we get wealthy, and we get powerful. We tend to look down on people who aren't, whether they're Black, whether they're Yellow, Brown, or whatever, if they're different from us. We don't seem to care very much about whether our contact with them is going to be traumatic, or not. I mean, they do what they're damn well going to do, and to hell with it. We've got some "off-worlders", I think, who feel the same way. It's not all goody plum plum up there.

There's an old, ancient saying that I've always believed in, and that is: "As above, so below."

Martin: Absolutely right.

Dean: And, I think, what we see on our planet here is, pretty much, what you've got "out there". As I've said, the evidence seems to be that the embargo has been lifted, the quarantine has been lifted. And a lot of them are coming and going, and some of them are not that nice. But we have to make ourselves face the reality that this is a much bigger picture than most people even dream about. Most people don't even want to confront the idea of extraterrestrial presence, let alone confront the idea that there are innumerable races out there, and some of them are not very nice. Well, all we have to do is read our history and we'll find that there is an enormous amount of information there.

Martin: I'm reading a section here that's going to be part of this article [in a later installment], and it is a section taken out of a book that was out of print for 20 years, now in print, called The Hab Theory, by Allan W. Eckert [website: www.habtheory.com]. He's written 39 books, and has been nominated for Pulitzers, a very prolific man.

He writes about an Ecuadorian discovery of a series of 500-foot-deep tunnels. This was discovered 150 miles south of Quito, in the Province of Santiago, in the Ecuadorian Andes, a 1965 discovery. And it talks about a series of tunnels, at 500-foot depths, radiating outward, and in those tunnels were discovered metallic plates, if you will, which had to be deciphered. Those have been shut-down by the government; there is no access. But apparently there is a lot of gold, and things like that down there, as well as written history. But it's that kind of thing that gets you thinking.

There was another discovery here, that I will also be including later in this story, having to do with a region in China, and something called the Dropla stones.

Dean: Oh, yeah.

Martin: I don't know if you're familiar with that?

Dean: I am.

Martin: It's the same kind of thing. Now, are these tunnels all connecting throughout the entire world?

Dean: You know, I wouldn't be a bit surprised.

Martin: And WHO are "they"?

Dean: This planet has been, literally, a laboratory, a research laboratory, for a variety of different reasons, from the beginning of recorded history. Not only has it become a genetic laboratory, a biological laboratory, because the human race is an incredibly rich gene-pool in itself. There have been races coming and going, tapping into this and experimenting with us, but they've been digging minerals, and doing research here for, literally, millennia, long before we ever began to record our history.

So, I wouldn't be a bit surprised that there are deep underground systems that, literally, link one continent to another.

I know this: there is enormous traffic under the surface of the water, in the oceans. I learned that from kids in naval research in anti-submarine warfare.

Martin: You're talking about the so-called Atmospherians?

Dean: We've got guys who are underground; we've got guys under the surface of the water; and then the skies are, literally, filled with them.

So, nothing would surprise me, Rick, honest to God. I'm 73; nothing would surprise me anymore. That explains a little bit of where I've been, and what I've learned. Nothing, literally, would surprise me anymore.

Martin: Another thing that we will be running in the first part of this story [in last month's November issue] is Phil Schneider's last speech.

Dean: Oh, I'd like to hear that.

Martin: That was before they took him out in '96. And Phil Schneider writes about the Dulce Wars, and the underground base at Duce, New Mexico. Now, again, do we just generally broad-stroke and say those are the Greys, working for the Reptilians? Or don't we even go there?

Dean: Well, it's hard to go there because I can't provide you any real information that I would say is absolutely accurate. I hate to say anything to you that I haven't learned, first hand, from my own experience.

Martin: That's why we're talking.

Dean: I know, and I appreciate your approach. And I hope you appreciate mine. I'll tell you a lot of what I think I know, and what I've learned, but there are things that, to me, are only conjecture.

Martin: That's a slippery slope.

Dean: It is. I know there is a facility at Dulce, but WHO runs it, and WHAT it's all about—I won't even get into that because I don't have any first-hand information. All I've had is second-hand or third-hand, so I'll tell you that there IS a facility there, and apparently we're involved with it. And I say "us", the United States government, and then, God damn it, anymore it's even difficult to tell who the hell we're talking about with THAT!

Martin: Which faction?

Dean: Yeah, which group. You see, as I've said many times, the government the people think they've got is not the government that is.

Martin: Right, absolutely right.

Dean: And most people haven't the slightest clue about it. But you were talking, earlier, about "underground"—theirs or ours? Well, there are both. We've got a massive underground facility. The "off-worlders" have, well, unbelievable capabilities and technology. So, it's a very thin line between which is which.

And, if we are, indeed, co-operating with at least one of these groups, and there's a hell of a lot of evidence that we ARE, that we have a relationship, a semi-unofficial, official relationship with one of these groups, you can't really say anymore: Is it ours, or is it theirs? It could be both.

And, you know, if I were to see David [Icke] again—I haven't seen him for a time—I'd sit down and say: "Hey, guy, you better cool off, because the Reptilians are running everything." [Laughter]

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: I haven't read his new book. It's on the stands here in Sedona, and I was thinking of picking up a copy.

But I would, jokingly, say to him: "Hey, David, it's worse than you imagine." I'm sure that would throw him.

Martin: I'm sure that's true, too.

Dean: Well, it IS true. The story is EVEN BIGGER. But that's one of the reasons, Rick, why the lid is being kept down on this.

Can you imagine if the average Joe Blow out there, the average guy who sits there in front of his tube, watching the world series, if he were to get exposed to some of this, what would it do to him?

Martin: He might pop a cork.

Dean: He might pop a cork, yeah. And there's a lot of people running lose out there with popped corks

EVIL AGENDA OF THE SECRET GOVERNMENT

BY TIM SWARTZ

Exposes Project "Paper Clip" and the underground UFO bases of Hitler's elite scientific corps. Elements of the CIA and the Secret Government have imitated real alien abductions to convince the public of interplanetary invasion so New World Order gang can rule the Earth unchallenged.

Project Paperclip was the secret plan that took Nazi scientists and psychiatrists out of Germany and into the upper echelons of the U.S. governmental, scientific, and academic realms.

$10.00 (+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

right now.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: I read about them in the paper. And you run into them, now and then, on the streets. I say this, not cruelly; I'm not trying to be cruel. But there are a lot of people living "on the edge" out there.

I've almost come to the point where I have to agree with some of the guys who I run into in the intelligence agencies, who say: "Hey, no, we can't let this out; it's too God damn big. People aren't ready for it, yet."

Well, I'm almost to a point of agreeing with them on some of this, Rick. I really do. There are people out there who just aren't ready for HALF of what we're talking about.

Martin: We're talking on the outer fringes here.

Dean: You bet we are. And I commend you for the work you are doing. People like you, and people like David, are bringing light into the room, at least. So keep up what you're doing, guy.

Martin: I'm not planning on stopping any time soon.

Dean: Don't get discouraged. You may, one of these days, run into some people who will decide to say to you: "Hey, knock it off. You've done enough." And I don't want to say that. I'm not trying to predict here, but you may run into some of that one of these days. I've run into a couple of them myself.

Martin: How did you handle that?

Dean: Well, I'm so God damned ornery, you know, my infantry background.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: I don't take it lightly when somebody sort-of subtly threatens me. And I've said to a couple of them that I pack iron, and if you want to mess with me, go ahead, but it would be terrible if you send some good kid with a wife and kids after me, and I blow him away. I carry guns. I was trained to use them. And in Arizona you can pack iron, any time. All you've got to do is have a permit to cover it up. Well, I've been known to carry mine around everywhere. Not that I'm paranoid, now. [Laughter]

Martin: With your background—

Dean: I feel it's prudent to carry a gun. Anyhow, I've had a couple of them, subtly, threaten me. And I've said "Well, go right ahead." I've lived a long life, and I've seen a hell of a lot, and if you guys want to mess with me, fine. But just be careful.

Martin: You're trained.

Dean: I'm a ticking bomb. I joke about it, but it's the only thing I can do. I came out of Korea with post-traumatic stress syndrome. And then I picked up another dose while I was in Nam. And so, I jokingly share this with friends, and I say "You know, I got two doses of this, so I'm a ticking bomb. Don't mess with me."

And I told these guys. I had a few phone calls, and a couple of visits. And I've said "Screw-off, because I can't be trusted. I just might shoot one of you guys and that would be terrible, because I don't want to kill anybody else before I die." I don't want to carry that on my conscience.

Martin: Well, that's fair notice.

Dean: And they have, generally, left me alone. I think they figure that I'm basically harmless.

Martin: Well, obviously Bill Cooper is no longer on the planet.

[Editor's note: See the item in last month's News Desk about the suspicious and seemingly contrived circumstances leading to Bill Cooper's demise.]

Dean: I haven't heard from Bill in a long time.

Martin: He was taken-out a couple of days ago.

Dean: Oh, really? Where did this happen?

Martin: At his home.

Dean: I had no idea this had happened. Well, they had primed Bill, over the years, emotionally and psychologically they had primed him. I'm sorry to hear it. I liked Bill. We didn't always agree on everything, but hell, nobody does. Sorry to hear that, that's terrible. He left a family behind. God bless him. He's got some answers now, no question about it.

Martin: While I have you on the line, it was such an eloquent and beautiful interview that we had last time, I don't want to detract from that by over-doing it, or anything. Is there anything that we didn't cover that you would like to talk about?

Dean: You know, honest to God, there is a hell of a lot, Rick, that we haven't covered, but that's par for the course.

There is so much out there, and there are so many ramifications to this reality, and it's so complicated, and so devious, and it's been going on for such a long time. And we have major groups within the United States Government power center, whoever the hell they are, who are involved with this, that there is no end to what you could discuss and theorize about.

Martin: Let's talk about time manipulation.

Dean: Well, there's no question that we've had it demonstrated; that's been demonstrated to us repeatedly, how they can manipulate time. And when you consider that, Rick, that opens up a Pandora's Box of absolute infinity, because our old-fashioned ideas of time are so set in stone, and so primitive, this idea that "linear time" is all there is, we can't even begin to grasp the other possibilities. Only quantum physicists can begin to grasp what time really is.

And then you have the mystics and the theologians who say that there is really no such thing as time. Time is simply a way that we humans have to, sort of, put a little order in our lives. There's no limit where you can go when you realize that there are technologies out there that can manipulate time.

Martin: Al Bielek, in two recent interviews I've done with him within the last two weeks, he just flatly says "We are, right now, involved in a time war." He believes there are two alien factions involved, but he can't put any more together than that. And that SOUNDS so "out there" to the average person. To even make a comment like that, they call the guys in white coats.

Dean: I know Al. I hope he's well. I hope he's hanging in there. To my knowledge Al has never packed any iron, and he won't end up like Bill, I guess.

Martin: In a way, I'm kind of surprised you haven't been messed with.

Dean: Well, they have, subtly. Let me tell you something. And I've answered this, a few times, by people who have interviewed me. People say "How are you able to get away with what you do?"

And I said "The only thing I can give you is that I'm saying something that someone wants me to say, or I wouldn't be getting away with this. And that someone, I won't tell you whether they are at Langley, whether they're at Fort Mead, or God knows where. I must be saying something that someone wants said, or I wouldn't be getting away with it. Because I've said quite a bit about our own underground "secret, classified" activities.

You know, one of the things that I'm involved with now is, I'm trying to blow the lid on this thing in Antarctica.

Martin: That was another subject I wanted to talk to you about.

Dean: At Lake Vostok. The Lake Vostok scandal is a world-wide scandal.

Martin: Are you talking about the nuclear thing?

Dean: I'm talking about the lake that exists there, right near the Russian research facility in Antarctica. That's an interview.

Martin: Let's go there. [Laughter]

Dean: We were talking about probable locations of "off-worlders" on the planet, where they have their facilities.

You know, one of the facilities is, apparently, an R & R facility. Would you believe that?

Martin: That's interesting to hear. It would make sense, wouldn't it? Are you talking about the one in Cebu, Philippines?

Dean: I don't know which one it is. Ingo Swann has said that they remote viewed all of them, or as many as

DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare

Hard Cover: $29.95 (+S/H)

This book explains how and why:

- We have evolved from the nuclear age into a "Technotronic Era" with "psychotronic warfare" for optimal population control.
- Non-lethal warfare is being effectively used to produce sociopolitical and economic outcomes consistent with global genocide.
- The world's wealthiest policy-makers have recommended, and are working toward, eliminating half the world's population.
- Accepted methods of disease prevention, such as pesticide sprayings, can only be scientifically rationalized as costly and deadly contributions to non-lethal warfare and population reduction.
- Chemtrail sprayings that obscure blue skies are not normal, but reflect a conspiracy of silence and military attacks on the health and welfare of people around the world.

Striking at the heart of a cryptocracy responsible for the latest forms of bio-terrorism, psychotronic warfare, and Malthusian eco-genocide, the revelations and wisdom contained in this book offer more than a reality check. They give humanity, you and your loved ones, a final, last minute, choice for survival.

Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz is a graduate of Harvard School of Public Health who has published more than two-dozen books, 120 scientific and lay articles, and numerous audio and videotaped educational programs. He has been a frequent guest on nationally syndicated radio and television news and talk shows representing every major network. Most recently, Dr. Horowitz's work detailing the man-made origins of the AIDS and Ebola viruses prompted two documentaries, one by the internationally acclaimed BBC. He lives with his wife and three children in Sandpoint, Idaho.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866 they could. And every time they went into them, remote viewing them, the "off-worlders" knew about their presence, that they were there.

Martin: They were felt.

Dean: Yes, they sensed them. They knew that they were present. And he says, interestingly enough, one appeared to be like a resort, where off-planet intelligences go to relax and unwind. [Laughter]

Martin: Why not?

Dean: I can imagine—listen, if I were assigned to this planet, and I had to deal with human beings, I would need some R & R.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: I kid you not. I would need quite a bit of it.

Martin: Ok, let's go back to Antarctica.

Dean: Well, apparently, this is what's interesting. Our NASA people, and JPL, some years back, I think it was back in '97, with some of their satellite remote viewing and remote sensing—you know, they've got some technologies that are absolutely amazing, that can take pictures underground, sub-surface radar. Some of our satellites are pretty incredible. Well, apparently NASA had been doing some research, from space, over Antarctica, some time back. There's a whole lot of different programs underway. One of them is the—what is it? The layer that seems to be getting smaller?

Martin: Ozone.

Dean: The ozone layer, they've been studying that for a long time. We've evidently had a satellite poised, or several of them, poised over Antarctica that have been doing some picture taking for a long time. Through the research with the Russians, we learned that there is AN ENORMOUS LAKE, not too far from the Russian Antarctica facility, which the Russians named.

Now, this lake is UNDER THE ICE. And all I'll tell you is what I've learned about it. But that strikes me as, probably, one of the MAJOR "off-worlder" facilities. This lake is 300 miles long. It's 50 miles wide. The water level is, apparently, 2,000 feet deep, and it's fresh water.

NOW, OVER THE LAKE IS AN ICE-DOME, HALF A MILE HIGH. Now, this lake is apparently "encapsulated"—if you get my picture. 300 miles long, 50 miles wide, 2,000 feet deep, and over the lake is an ice dome half a mile high. Now, that in itself is interesting. That's why NASA has been fascinated. JPL has been up to their ears in this thing, trying to learn as much as they can about it.

Martin: Now, where is this in relation to the Nazi base?

Dean: Ah, well, you've done some homework. The question is: Is it the same place?

Now, they also learned that at one end of Lake Vostok is a massive magnetic anomaly, which is what they've described as an enormous concentration of metal, apparently. An enormous concentration of metal which, apparently, is so massive that it causes a magnetic anomaly, that they can sense it; they can see it from space, monitor it from space. And the question arose: Could it be a city? Could it be a facility? Is there some kind of ongoing activity there, a facility, where all this metal is from?

And then, my first thought was, is that where the old Nazi sub-pins are? Because there's no question in my mind that before the end of the war they were so advanced that these guys—there's something like 100 submarines that were never accounted for. I don't know whether that's an accurate figure or not, but I've heard it said that there are 100 of their latest, top-line subs that were never accounted for.

So, this question about this magnetic anomaly at one end of Lake Vostok strikes me that we're either dealing with an "off-worlder" facility, or a Nazi facility.

Martin: Or both.

Dean: Or both! [laughter] Because we know that the Nazis were getting some technology from some of them [extraterrestrials] before the end of the war.

Martin: Well, and the Nazis were involved in Montauk, too, directly.

Dean: Apparently so, yeah. But the Hanebu that the Nazis were flying, the Hanebu-4 was, apparently, an anti-gravity device, the line of circular disks that the Nazis were flying, toward the end. And the Hanebu-4 was big!

Well, I figured that they got a lot of their technology from the "off-worlders". Not that they did it themselves, because they were brilliant enough. Old Wernher [von Braun, the rocket genius] knew that before he died. He even talked to a few people about it.

Martin: We haven't run the story about Hitler dying in South America at a ripe old age, but we've talked about it among ourselves, quite a few times.

Dean: You're dealing with a field, with an area that is, literally, unlimited, Rick. You open one door and there are 6 or 7 more right behind it.

Martin: [Laughter]

Dean: That's why I take my hat off to you. You're doing something, I think, well worthwhile. So keep it up, guy.

Martin: Thank you for your time. I'll be sending you this story, including Credo's interviews. I did a brief one with him a few months ago, in which he made a plea to the elite on the planet to stop the genocide in Africa. I'll also be sending you a new interview I did with David Icke, which we published on September 11, of all dates.

Dean: I'd love to read any of that. Just in closing, you hit on—my mind is going a mile a minute here. Some of these programs, like what Credo was talking about, genocide—those are planned programs, Rick. Those are planned programs to cut the population down.

Martin: Right.

Dean: And they're not only applicable to some of these pathetic people in Africa.

Martin: Oh, no, it's global.

Dean: That's a global program. Now, the question I have is: Is it our dark, black forces doing it? Or is it the "off-worlders" doing it? Or, are they involved together? We're facing what appears to be massive, global genocide, and that really pisses me off.

Martin: I had heard, a number of years ago through a "channeled" source, that the planet will, in balance, hold about 600-800 million. And that seems to be the global elite figure, roughly in that ballpark.

Dean: They've done these studies and there's some truth to it.

Martin: So they're trying to prune it down from 6 or 7 billion. But that agenda seems to have been thrown askew, in part, through public exposure of that agenda. Although it's still happening in Africa.

Dean: They'll just take another tack. They'll close that door and open a few others.

It's a hell of a tale, my boy, it's a hell of a tale. And hang in there. And thank you for your courtesy.

Martin: Well thank you for calling me back. I appreciate it, very much.

[End of Part 2—to be continued next month, we hope.] △

The Masters and the Spiritual Path

You have friends in high places...

There are Masters who have come out of all the world's great spiritual traditions. These great lights of East and West have graduated from earth's schoolroom and reunited with Spirit in the process known as the ascension. Now they come to show us the pathway home.

The Masters tell us that they are examples and not exceptions to the rule. We, too, are destined to fulfill our life's purpose and reunite with Spirit.

In this intriguing work you will discover valuable keys to your own spiritual path: How the ascension differs from nirvana and samadhi, the relationship between the spiritual and material universes, and the difference between ascended and unascended masters. You will learn about the function of the spiritual hierarchy and the role of the Masters of East and West. Includes a unique meditation on the bliss of union with Spirit and a breathing exercise to help you balance and expand consciousness.

$ 16.95 (+S/H)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

How To Work With Angels

We can bring miracles into our life every day when we learn to work with angels. This book introduces many types of angels, including angels of protection, healing, and peace. You will learn how you can develop your own relationship with the angels or expand the contact you already have with them. Inspirational angel stories and prayers.

Illustrations

ISBN 0-922729-41-7, 4"x6", 118 PP.

$5.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

CREATIVE ABUNDANCE

Keys To Spiritual & Material Prosperity

Abundance is more than money. It is love, wisdom, talents, virtues—whatever we need to fulfill our life's purpose. Its step-by-step techniques include treasure mapping, principles of feng shui, visualizations, as well as affirmations that show you how to make all of your dreams come true.

ISBN 0-922729-387, 4"x6", 174 PP.

$5.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Alchemy Of The Heart

How To Give And Receive More Love

"There is no way you can read this book and not feel more love for those around you—and as you do, you can see the healing changes that love will bring."

—MAGICAL BLEND

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$6.95 (+S/H)

ISBN 0-922729-60-3, 4"x6", 204 PP.

Soul Mates And Twin Flames

A new look at love, karma, and relationships. You'll learn about soul mates (drawn together to fulfill a specific mission), twin flames (created as one in the beginning), and karmic partners. Soul Mates And Twin Flames also provides techniques that can help you develop deep and lasting relationships.

ISBN 0-922729-48-4, 4"x6", 165 PP.

$5.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Karma And Reincarnation

Transcending Your Past, Transforming Your Future

The word karma has made it into the mainstream. But not everyone knows what it really means or how to deal with it. This insightful book will help you come to grips with karmic connections from past lives that have helped create the circumstances of your life today.

ISBN 0-922729-565, 4"x6", 240 PP.

$6.95 (+S/H)

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Your Seven Energy Centers

A Holistic Approach To Physical, Emotional, And Spiritual Vitality

"Marries ancient healing wisdom with practical spiritual insights to help you create your own dynamic and uniquely personal healing journey. Your 21st century guide to integrating and healing body, mind, and soul."

—ANN LOUISE GITTLEMAN, author of the Living Beauty Detox Program

For ordering information call Wisdom Books & Press toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$6.95 (+S/H)

ISBN 0-922729-56-5, 4"x6", 234 PP.

Are You Losing Your Mind, Or Gaining Your Soul?

12/02/01 HILARION

Greetings to you, my dear. I am Master Hilarion, come this day in the Radiant Light of Creator Source. Thank you for your attention and your time.

Your planet continues its course toward the higher-frequency energies, and most of you are experiencing problems in all aspects of your being—the physical, the mental, and the emotional. You are having many aches and pains that come upon you rapidly and leave just as suddenly. You are experiencing mental lapses for no apparent reason. You are having emotional struggles, and experiencing the full range of emotions from utter sadness to ultimate joy. You are discovering many things about yourselves—many things that are unpleasant, and other things that are extremely enlightening.

And, because you are having all these experiences, most of you are asking what's wrong with you. Well, dear ones, there is nothing wrong; there is something very right!

These are but the physical, mental, and emotional responses to the new, higher-frequency vibrational energy that is literally permeating your planet at the present time. Even though it may seem to you that many things are very wrong in your world, there are many MORE things that are very right. Your world is merely experiencing a Great Awakening to these new energies, and it is being shaken to its very core.

So, if you are having these experiences, know that you are most definitely NOT alone. Everyone is experiencing these things on one level or another.

How many of you ones are finding that you are spending more and more time in personal introspection?

How many of you are discovering much about yourselves that you had never known?

How many of you are finally getting to know yourselves as well as you have known others in the past?

How are you reacting to what you are learning?

Do you remember when we told you that you must clear out all the old stuff in your lives before you could move into the new energy? Well, that is exactly what is happening right now. You are digging into those personal closets and dragging out all sorts of things you didn't even know were in them.

Some of these things are what you would call "dark". But do not be discouraged, for everyone has little "dark" things hiding within them, and it's just as necessary and beneficial to find them and examine them and deal with them as it is to discover all the good things.

In fact, it's actually much more beneficial that you each recognize your own "dark sides", for that is where the Adversary will find his playground to wreak havoc in your lives. If you are aware of these dark areas, the adversary will not be able to sneak up on you and blind-side you. You will see it coming and be able to take the appropriate action to cut it off before it can grab hold of you.

The dark side of each of you is where fear and anger and greed—and all that you have come to know as negative emotions—reside. It's very important that you recognize and come to know them so that you will know when you are being affected by the Adversary.

But, just as you have found the dark little hiding places, you are also finding very powerful Light within each of you. Many of you are beginning to experience such awarenesses as knowing that something is going to happen before it happens. You are going within to make decisions and are finding the answers to your questions are waiting there, very clear.

The more you get to know who and what you are, the more these experiences are going to occur. You are going to begin to understand what it means to create your own realities, because you are beginning to develop a deep relationship with yourselves, and that is leading you to understand and know your relationship with ALL of Creation.

As the bonding of that relationship strengthens, you are going to find you will have less doubt, and you will come to know that what you desire and put energy into will manifest for you in the physical realm. Though you have always been a fragment of the Greater Whole of Creation, you are now beginning to consciously FEEL that connection and live your lives as such.

I would, however, take the time at this point to issue a bit of a caution. I would suggest to you that it would be most beneficial to turn off the news broadcasts on your televisions and radios, and stop reading so many controlled-media newspapers. What you are seeing are biased, unrealistic stories.

Yes, be aware of what is going on, say through the brief news highlights. But, for goodness sake, stop obsessing on it, because the Adversary is having a hayday in the fear factories. It will not help any of you to get caught-up in the frenzy of fear and other negative emotions that the Adversary is using to tempt you.

Get out into Nature. Go for long walks and look at the trees, the sky, the birds. Make it a point every day to find the beauty of Creation that is all around. Yes, it's even there in big cities; you just have to look a little harder. Experience it. Communicate with it. Get to know it. Become one with it, and you will realize that all that's on the radios and televisions and in the newspapers does not have to affect you in the least bit; it's but another drama taking place that you do NOT have to participate in.

Too simple, you say? Of course it's simple. There is nothing complex about it. Complexity only exists in the minds of men.

For many, this is a very troublesome, trying, and fearful time. For others, it's a time of great blessings and great hopefulness. That is because you are all creating your own realities. For those who judge that success and happiness is based on monetary wealth and material possessions, it is a very stressful and troublesome time. For those whose success and happiness is rooted in spiritual awareness, it is a time of great hope and blessings.

Your planet is moving forward, and those who continue to hold onto the old ways of thinking and doing are having a great struggle. For those who are so attached to this present physical life, all the death and destruction which has taken place is overwhelming. Those who understand that this present physical life is but a fleeting reality anyway, and know that life continues beyond your present existence, are not overwhelmed, and assume a more philosophical approach to the events taking place.

Until this present play of third-dimensional existence on Earth has finished, there will continue to be wars and conflicts. There will continue to be great perceived human tragedy. But these things must all play themselves out before the Earth completes its transition (or "ascension" as some refer to it) to a higher-dimensional existence. Again: the old, low-frequency stuff MUST be cleaned out and discarded, for such cannot go into the new expression. Earth, as a whole, is experiencing her own housecleaning—just as each of you, on an individual basis, are cleaning out your own houses.

Each of you came here to experience this time in your history. Each of you came to experience the cleansing and awakening processes. And so you are.

Some of you are going to continue in your present physical expression and will move forward (or ascend) in your physical bodies. Others are ascending by leaving the planet through the death process. Others are going to choose not to ascend this go round; but that is their choice and they must not be judged for their choices.

As it has been before, so shall it be again. The cycles of ascension are ever ongoing, and many of you have had the opportunity in the past to ascend and chose not to do so.

In closing, I shall leave you with this: All is progressing just as it should. All things shall take place in their proper time. You cannot rush it or stop it.

Earth's frequency is moving upward, which means that your energies are ascending in frequency as well, AND the pace of this transition is itself accelerating, and shall continue to accelerate as the frequency vibration increases. You will continue to experience out-of-the-ordinary things as your bodies adjust to continually higher frequencies.

Know that, if you resist the changes, such will make it much more difficult and may have detrimental effects upon you. So it is important that you not resist the changes. As time goes on, your bodies will "normalize" to the new, higher-frequency plateau, and all the out-of-the-ordinary things will go away on their own. In other words, do not become stressful during this time. Embrace the changes, because what is waiting on the other side of this is indeed a grand place in time.

I am Hilarion, Master of the Fifth Ray, the Emerald Ray of Healing, and I shall take my leave now. I leave you, as I came, in the Light and the Love of the Creator. Thank you for your service. Salu.

The Biggest Heist In History

Editor's note: The following lesson about our nation's bogus money system and the diabolical tactics used to bleed the public financially dry is definitely NOT to be found in any university course in our nation's business schools. (They wouldn't dare tell the truth; but that's a story unto itself for another day.)

This is a special treat from the longtime, courageous author whose powerful book first exposed the Federal Reserve con-game many decades ago. The only reason such a scheme is able to function is because of the lack of knowledge of the truth of this matter on the part of the vast majority of Americans. That is why it is so important to share information such as we do here.

We are thus delighted to present the following history lesson from a great teacher, the "grandfather" of Truth scholarship, Eustace Mullins—longtime, well-respected (and otherwise persecuted) bringer of Truth and author of five of the most well-documented, controversial, and hard-hitting volumes ever published on the crooks in high places and how they have long controlled world affairs to conform to their own agenda.

Though his books are CONSTANTLY in demand, like the rest of us who bring Truth he is poor and has no monetary resources at this time with which to reprint these fine manuscripts. For those of you who may be unfamiliar with his classic research works, they include:

- THE CURSE OF CANAAN: A Demonology Of History,
- MURDER BY INJECTION: The Story Of The Medical Conspiracy Against America,
- THE WORLD ORDER: Our Secret Rulers,
- THE SECRETS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE, and
- RAPE OF JUSTICE: America's Tribunals Exposed.

We are delighted and honored that Eustace chose to share the following first-hand history lesson with us, in turn to share with you who read and support this conduit of Truth.

Chances are, after reading this, you won't be able to consider the stock market or the Fed in quite the same way as you may have previously. The REAL question is: How long can such an audacious con-game continue?

11/15/01 EUSTACE MULLINS

The New York Times reported that between March and November of 2000, Wall Street operators took some $6 trillion in stock values from American investors—$3 trillion from the Dow Jones and $3 trillion from NASDAQ. The press has refrained from investigative journalism of this remarkable fact, preferring instead to run reruns on the Great Brink's Robbery and other penny ante operations.

George Will also did a column on this remarkable theft, but other journalists have refused to touch it. Louis Rukeyser, on Wall Street Week, took a more philosophical view of the robbery, pointing out that the big rich get nervous when too many of the hoi polloi begin to throw around huge sums of money. They soon get their comeupance, when older and wiser hands remove their profits, which is done through tried and true techniques.

How They Do It

Although it is a truism that bigger fish swallow smaller fish, little fish continue to ignore the fact that they will probably be eaten. I have seen only one revealing newspaper article on this situation, a column by Michael C. Perkins and Celia Nunez, which appeared March 15, 2001, in the Washington Post: "Why Market Insiders Don't Feel Your Pain".

This remarkable, and unremarked, article chronicles what had been hailed as "the greatest ever legal creation of wealth in the history of the world", and comments that: "Instead of the greatest ever legal creation of wealth, the high-tech financial bubble represented the greatest ever legal transfer of wealth—from retail investors to insiders."

The authors mention as the profiteers Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, and Credit Suisse First Boston—of around $1 billion profit for each of these banks. According to Thomas Financial Securities Data, say the authors, "This was the most lucrative streak investment banks have ever seen in a single sector." The authors point out that: "The truth is, little investors never stood a chance, because they simply don't have the same access, both to key information and to early deals, as big investors."

In other words, by the time you read about a deal in the Wall Street Journal, it's too late for you to make any real money in it. Nunez and Perkins further expose the system: "Big institutional investors such as Fidelity and Vanguard are never in the dark. They're treated to what's known as a 'road show' just days before a meeting. In this private meeting with company executives, institutional investors are updated on the startup's financial situation."

You won't get in on the big profits because you will never see this advance information. Nunez and Perkins say that: "Actually, during the high-flying days of the tech bubble, few insiders were required to take risks." They continue: "The technology stock bubble is already being compared to previous financial manias: Dutch tulips in the 1600s; U.S. railroads in the late 1800s, etc. But what sets this most recent mania apart is its Ponzi scheme quality. Never before has so much wealth been transferred from one group of people to another in such a short time."

"Transfer of wealth" can be described by a more familiar term, robbery, in which the guy with the gun removes your wallet. The United States has now entered a depression which may last for many years, because so many people have been robbed of so much that prosperity has vanished from the nation.

As for Nunez and Perkins, since March 15, 2001, no further columns from them have appeared in the Washington Post. How this one got printed is puzzling to me, as the New World Order manipulators rarely allow such exposure in the "free press".

It All Is Made Possible By The Central Bank

Because of its advanced techniques for removing assets from unsuspecting victims, the central bank is the key to "financial techniques". A central bank, like a black hole, diverts financial operations into its vast sucking whirlwind, where most of it vanishes forever.

I have defined a central bank as, first, a bank of issue. It obtains a license from the government to print money, or issue.

Second, all other banks have to obtain their operating capital from it.

Third, it is set up to provide war finance, war being the real objective of a central bank, because, as Ezra Pound pointed out, wars are created to make debt.

Fourth, it is privately owned—although this fact is often concealed behind the façade of a national name, such as Bank of England, the Federal Reserve System, or Bank of Japan.

You will find none of this information in any economics course in a university, because the central bankers are the most liberal donors to our educational system, and they insist you only be taught what is good for you. Knowledge of the central bank is considered to be privileged information, not for the ordinary person.

With its license to print money, the central bank's stockholders soon control or have a lien on everything in the nation. They can buy any and all politicians; and political parties soon become the central bank parties.

A Revolution In America

During the nineteenth century, because of its high productivity, the United States became the richest nation in the world. This made it the most attractive target for the ever acquisitive central bankers.

They had installed a central bank immediately after the Revolutionary War, the First Bank of the United States. But its avowed enemy, Thomas Jefferson, refused to renew its charter when he became President of the United States.

The bankers had to wait until 1913, when, against the fierce opposition of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Congressman from Minnesota, they enacted the Federal Reserve Act into law. It set up a private monopoly, and no citizen, after its initial offering, could buy or sell its stock. Its owners, of course, would have no incentive to sell stock in a license to print money!

That it was unconstitutional was obvious, but it has never been challenged in court. Within a few months of its enactment, the world was plunged into war, followed by lesser wars, a Second World War, and tremendous financial panics and depressions, culminating in the latest recession which now extends worldwide.

One can only wonder why any people would expose themselves to such misery. The answer, of course, is that they did not. The central bank, as always, was set up as a conspiracy, whose promoters remained in the shadows.

When the Federal Reserve Act went into operation in 1914, not only did World War One ensue, but also a financial revolution. The United States was converted from a credit system of one-name paper, debt which the borrower owed only to a single person, usually known to him, to a vast impersonal system in which a debt was sold and resold as two-name or five-name paper, or acceptances. The buyer "accepted" the debt, whose debtor was not known to him, and who might live in another country.

This, too, you will not be taught in any university. It removed the personal factor from financial dealings. J.P. Morgan had claimed that he only considered the character of a borrower, not his financial circumstances, in making a loan.

We now moved into a monetary world of impersonal and ruthless operations, in which the person no longer existed. With multiple-name paper, the bankers shielded themselves from contact with their debtors, who now became only numbers to them. The bankers boasted that "no human factor" entered into their contacts with borrowers.

The individual was forced to do business with a vast, impersonal Mafia in the banking world, whom he could not reach or influence. They, in turn, only wanted him to pay up or have his limbs broken.

This soon became the technique also of his government, which became a mere agency of the central bank. The bank was careful to maintain the fiction of two opposing political parties, whose adherents supposedly were great rivals, although they never opposed or criticized the operations of the central bank.

The bank set up its own collection service, called the Internal Revenue Service, or income tax collection, to service the debt created out of nothing by the central bank. This IRS became known as the Internal Robbery System, and the Federal Reserve System, because it had the force of government power behind it, became known as the Federal Robbery System.

The Criminal Mind

Because it was conceived in a plan of conspiracy and hidden goals by persons whose only plan was to rob everyone, the central bank began as—and could never be more than—a criminal operation.

When I was a child [about 80 years ago], the two greatest figures in American life were Babe Ruth, a baseball player, and Al Capone, the nation's most successful gangster. Capone railed throughout his career at the bad press he received. He always claimed that he was merely an ordinary businessman. This was true; his problem was that, although he had an income of millions of dollars per week, he was always a small-time figure compared to the stockholders of the central bank.

Today, we have an even more powerful "Big Al"—Alan Greenspan—the present chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank Board of Governors in Washington. Because of its well-advertised Capitol presence, the Federal Reserve System is fixed in the mind of the American public as an official government institution, and most citizens will bet you that it is, indeed, owned by the government.

In fact, the government has never owned a single share of the Federal Reserve System. Greenspan, a former partner of J.P. Morgan Co., is the latest in a long line of Wall Street luminaries who have headed the Federal Reserve System since 1914—beginning with Paul Warburg, its creator, and succeeded by a long line of bankers' choices, such as Arthur Burns, born in Vienna, and Paul Volcker, who, like most chairmen, was usually referred to as the most powerful man in the United States while he held that office.

Despite his "power", Greenspan is merely an employee, who makes no financial decisions which have not been approved by the council of New York bankers. Foreknowledge of such decisions is worth billions in quick profits, and of course every such decision is the result of long-planned deliberations by "the insiders".

The Federal Reserve System controls the interest rate, the price of money, by its power to set rates. It controls the daily volume of money, by the Open Market Committee, which, by its decision to either buy or sell government bonds, creates a vast new flood of money, or dries it up by buying back the bonds.

There, in two sentences, is the operation of the money market, yet you will not be taught this in any school. With these simple but perfected techniques, the money manipulators control the daily lives of everyone in the United States—while local, state, and federal governments bask in the illusion that they exercise power. Foreign policy decisions, military decisions, and other important agendas are set by the bankers, and executed by their minions in government, who are allowed to speak publicly about the decisions which "they" have made.

As a criminal operation, the central bank system is in violation of the laws of God and man. With law enforcement wholly owned by them, the bankers have nothing to fear from any policing operation.

It has been many years since Congress has launched any investigation into the operations of the Federal Reserve System. However, we may be certain that God is not unaware of this operation. He often allows the criminals to devise their own punishment.

With this latest heist, the six-trillion-dollar robbery, they may have insured their own doom, as the devastation wrought by this latest financial panic is rapidly spreading, and, to save themselves from total destruction, the people must act. We may welcome this as the Hand of God, or as an act of self-preservation by the people. In any case, such action is inevitable, because the plan of the conspirators to bring all wealth into their hands, will bring about the inevitable reaction.

The Shackles Shall Be Unlocked!

12/6/01 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Esu present in Light and in Service to The One God. I come in response to your petition for the greater good of ALL.

There are those who seek to keep humanity enslaved in the chains of ignorance. I am come this day that the shackles may be unlocked, that the mind may be freed, and that the soul may soar with the eagles.

There is a scramble by your Elite One Worlders, and that scramble is to HOLD THEIR POSITION, for it is slipping from their grasp, more with each passing day. The harder they try to implement their plans of power, and to further enslave the population, the more quickly their plans are backfiring upon them. This shall continue; yeah, it shall escalate.

God's Plan is for the WHOLE of humanity to be a FREE people. All plans of enslavement for God's people shall always fail. It is foolhardiness to think otherwise. But so it is with the Big Egos in positions of power. They are but puppets on a string, dancing to the Dark Brotherhood's rhythms. All the while the Master of Deceit laughs at the antics which are so predictable, and so doomed to failure.

Collectively the awakening of mankind is ON TARGET. You don't hear about that in your controlled media. Perhaps one day you shall. I said: perhaps one day you shall! For in a free society there is also a FREE EXCHANGE OF TRUTHFUL INFORMATION. And so it shall be for those of humanity who make the CHOICE to live in accordance with the Goodness within man's soul.

My compatriots and I shake our heads as we watch the antics of your military and political so-called leaders. They are like rats in a maze. Why is it that man, in his EGO, must seek to DOMINATE AND DESTROY all around him? You may not bomb innocent women and children and old men without consequences. Did you really think there would be no consequences for such actions? Come now.

I come with God's representatives of Light. And yes, we must allow man his choices. BUT WE DO NOT NEED TO STAND BY AND WATCH AS THE SLAUGHTER OF MANKIND IS UNLEASHED UPON THE PLANET.

I AM WARNING YOU NOW: DO NOT TAKE THIS TOO FAR, FOR YOU SHALL RUE THE DAY THAT YOU GAVE SUCH ORDERS FOR VIOLENCE.

YOU ARE NOT THE PEACE-KEEPERS FOR THE WORLD; YOU ARE THE WAR-MAKERS FOR THE WORLD.

YOU BRING DEATH AND DESTRUCTION IN YOUR WAKE, AND YOUR PLANS FOR CONTROLLING THE WHOLE OF THE POPULATION SHALL NOT GO AS

YOU FORESEE. TEST MY WORD IF YOU DARE, BUT YOU SHALL ALSO SEE THE UNFOLDING OF GOD'S PLAN BEFORE YOUR EYES, AND YOU SHALL STAND HELPLESS, AND RESPONSIBLE, AND IN AWE!

MARK MY WORDS WELL.

I said it before and I shall repeat my words: You-the-people are being deceived and lied to. Your media is controlled and is not telling you the truth. THE VEIL OF DECEPTION SHALL SOON BE LIFTED, AND THOSE WHO HAVE LIED TO YOU SHALL STAND ACCOUNTABLE FOR THEIR ACTIONS.

Do I know the hour of my return? No, I do not know the hour of my return. But I may tell you that I am righteous in my anger, and when I do return there shall be a reckoning.

Do not be fearful, scribe, for no harm shall come to you. These words must be written so that people may see my words and take those words to heart. I hear your pleas, and those prayers shall not go unanswered.

Blessed people, you are loved beyond your ability to comprehend. KNOW that you are not alone in this magnificent universe. There is help, and we are here! Hold this close in your hearts, and rest in the knowledge that God's plan is real, and justice shall prevail.

I am Esu Immanuel, who many of you have known as Jesus. I am known now as Sananda, which is a level of accomplishment meaning "One with God". Go in peace.

ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

This reproduction is from an actual photograph taken on June 1, 1961 in Chichen Itza, Yucatan, by one of thirty archaeologists working in the area at the time. Sananda appeared in visible, tangible body and permitted his photograph to be taken.

Hail The New Imperial Republic And Return Of The American Caesars

Editor's note: History is most definitely repeating itself. And for those who are of a mental openness and clear-headed awareness to see the writing on the walls, what Al Martin has the courage and irreverence to share below ought to be serious food for thought as we continue down a very dark and slippery path into slavery within our own country.

Part of Al's message below points out the eerie signposts of a dictatorship closing in upon America—while many citizens dumbly wave flags and chant whatever patriotic phrase is currently making the media rounds. If it weren't happening right in front of our eyes, awake and aware Americans would judge the pageant presently unfolding as being no better than a poorly directed grade-B movie—with a ponderously redundant script, a weak plot full of holes and contradictions, boring and lifeless actors, and running way over budget.

In some of Al's other comments there rests a profound history lesson—from none less than our Founding Fathers, who warned that things would likely go downhill after the glow of hard-won Revolutionary War freedoms had worn off. Perhaps the point is that we've pretty much hit bottom in this present time.

Are we REALLY in the last days of the modern Roman Empire? "But this time it's not Nero who's fiddling; it's the American people."

According to his own biographical statement, Al Martin is America's foremost whistleblower on government fraud and corruption. A retired U.S. Navy Lt. Commander and former officer in the Office of Naval Intelligence, he has testified before Congress (the Kerry Committee and the Alexander Committee) regarding Iran-Contra. Al Martin is the author of The Conspirators: Secrets Of An Iran-Contra Insider (2001, National Liberty Press, $19.95; toll free order line: 1-866-317-1390). He lives at an undisclosed location, since the criminals named in his book have been returned to national power and prominence. His column "Behind the Scenes in the Beltway" is published regularly on his <http://www.almartinraw.com> Internet website.

11/15/01 AL MARTIN

The Grand Tyranny

The new Bush dictatorship is in full swing. Bush just signed a bill wherein the United States no longer has to provide a civilian trial for anyone who should stand accused of committing a terrorist act against the United States.

Instead, the government will now try said individuals in a "special closed military court". In this trial, the defendants will not even be allowed to present any exculpatory evidence that the adjudicating military body should deem "contrary to the security of the State or the domestic tranquility of the people".

I love the way Bill O'Reilly announced it on Fox News. Our new Leader of Pro-Government Media, Bill O'Reilly, in conjunction with this announcement, said that the American armed forces should be praised for their defeat of the Taliban in Kabul and that this action now sends a message to the world that the U.S. military "can kill any individuals, groups, organizations, or parties hostile to the security of the United States".

As always, one has to look at the fine print of this new Executive Order for secret military tribunals. As usual, the word "terrorism" is once again being used to pull the wool over the American people's eyes, while we stand with our thumbs stuck up our asses, waving the American flag, our rose-colored spectacles a darker tint than ever.

In fact, this Executive Order establishes military tribunals or kangaroo courts, which directly violate due process of law. It is, as of now, probably the most unconstitutional of all the unconstitutional laws that have been passed and incorporated into this new disingenuously named U.S.A. Patriot Act Of 2001.

The language doesn't even mention the word "terrorism". The pro-government media uses the word to maintain ratings from a naïve, flag-waving population. The way it is written, the bill can be interpreted that the government has the ability to prosecute any individual who disagrees with State policy. Or even anyone who constitutes a threat to the ratings of pro-government media. Or anyone who represents a threat to the naïvete of the American people. Anyone, then, could essentially be prosecuted under this bill.

This military court, or tribunal, is not a defacto star chamber. It is the absolute raw and naked abuse of power by government. A star chamber, simply put, is any extra-legal and/or extra-constitutional body formed by government to pass judgment on the actions of private individuals.

This law, then, could be interpreted so that the prosecutorial power of the government could be extended essentially to anyone who disagreed with State policy.

In other words, this latest "authority bill" constitutes another nail in the coffin of the U.S. Constitution and further strengthens the argument that, as of now, the people of the United States have allowed their government to be a democracy in name only. The people of the United States have not only abdicated any authority over the power of their own government, but they have also abdicated their personal liberties and freedoms.

It's not over yet, either. There are many other pieces of legislation before Congress that are likely to be passed, including the very sinister Internal Transportation Security Act, proposed by Senator John Kerry of Massachusetts. The highlight of this bill is increased airport security—but, if passed, the bill would call for the installation of internal checkpoints, specifically to stop all forms of public transportation and interstate transportation at state borders, including rail, bus, and any and all water traffic.

With the passage of the U.S.A. Patriot Act and all legislation thereunto, we have effectively militarized law enforcement in the United States. Thus the ensuing and inevitable economic downturn and its consequences (an increase in civil strife and political tension that will result from this legislation) can be more easily handled by law enforcement.

The stationing of National Guard internally abrogates the Posse Comitatus Act, which is also being ignored. We have moved further away from Posse Comitatus, and that is just a hollow shell.

And why hasn't the Constitution Party, the Green Party, or the Libertarian Party said anything about these government abuses of power? The pro-government media will not give them any airtime. Anyone who opposes the policies of the United States, vis-à-vis this "Homeland Security" legislation, is frightened and is being frozen out by Government-Media.

The media is becoming increasingly pro-government. It is now more closely aligned with the execution and maintenance of government policy than ever before. You can tell by the way Bill O'Reilly talked.

Media now has a direct vested financial interest in maintaining the naïvete of the American people. They don't have to present "both" sides. Even their pretension of being an independent body is finished. The media, the great Fourth Estate, has now abandoned any pretense of being the "devil's advocate" or challenging the policies of the U.S. government. They don't even present any challenging viewpoints anymore.

All who disagree have now been labeled as "threats" to the security of the State. That is the direct implication.

And if you listen to the tone of the media and the way the sentences are craftily put together by the Bill O'Reillys of this world, the implication is that all citizens who disagree with State policy are now a "threat" to the State.

By the way, Bill O'Reilly reported that the Bush Administration released a statement to the networks that it was "disappointed" by the NTSB's conclusion that the crash of Flight 587 in Queens, New York was declared an "accident". They were "disappointed".

Now Fox News will present guests that will say all night long that it probably wasn't an accident. They will have their own teams of experts provided to them—and paid for—by the U.S. Government to tell you that the NTSB is "probably" wrong, that this was really a "terrorist" incident, and that the NTSB shouldn't have announced that it was an "accident" without asking the White House first.

If the Kerry bill is passed, the NTSB will come under the direct control of the Office of Homeland Security, so it will not be able to determine any conclusions. All decisions of the NTSB will be politicized. They won't be allowed to declare that something was an "accident" without a review by the Office of Homeland Security. A former NTSB chief said that it is likely that every airplane crash from now on will be blamed on "terrorism".

This "policy" is widely supported by the insurance industry because if "terrorism" is the cause of any crash, they won't have to pay. Any claims then would be transferred directly to the government.

After the Bush Administration has passed all the legislation it wants, it will consolidate its newly found power, and then the hype will begin to cool down. The first sign that the Bush Administration has absolute dictatorial authority will be when they no longer hype the situation—because they don't have to.

What the Administration is doing in concert with pro-government media is creating a new class of American people. This new class of American citizen does not exist on racial or religious or national origin, or creed or even sexual orientation. A new class of "unpatriotic" citizen is being created in the minds of the people.

You drive down every street and you see a great big American flag in front of the house and American flags on automobiles. Even Ford Motors is passing out American flags for car antennas to its employees. A Ford employee I know wouldn't do it and they actually threatened him. They told him that, by not flying the flag, he was being "unpatriotic".

From The Bush
Propaganda Speech Department:

Bush talked about volunteerism of civilians and how the government will sponsor the creation of a new "civilian defense force". It will be comprised of volunteer citizens who will have uniforms for their meetings, and they will be able to do everything from blood drives to providing emergency labor for other “terrorist” attacks.

Because teachers report that the nation’s children are so confused and frightened, one of the responsibilities of the civilian defense forces will be to go to the schools and talk to the children, giving soothing speeches about the importance of homeland security and how important it is to trust your government and its ability to handle this situation. It sounds like it will be under the auspices of the Bill Clinton-sponsored AmeriCorps, which will be dramatically expanded.

But it’s all about the children—helping children to cope with the crisis and how important it is to trust the government. Bush must have used the words “faith” and “trust in government” at least fifty times. The government will also provide money for the revitalization of the Neighborhood Watch programs and Crimestoppers, as well as “re-education”.

The key word here is “re-education”—so Neighborhood Watch programs will have profiles to identify those acting “suspiciously”. Of course, there was no definition of what “suspicious” means, but that was immediately followed up by the statement that there has been a five-fold increase in the number of American flags sold.

This speech was very craftily written, so that if you listened and you were a person who didn’t support the concept of what’s going on, you would easily understand that you were being “unpatriotic”.

He also said that now is the time that: “We don’t need to have our thinking caps to understand; we only need to act.”

The military is also being punished by getting its intelligence resources moved over to the CIA. The armed forces are being stripped of their principal military intelligence branches and transferring them under the control of the CIA. In other words, the military is taking the heat for this latest intelligence failure in order to shield the CIA.

You have to remember that the Bushes have always wanted to increase the power of the CIA. That is, after all, where the Bush family is very influential, as is the Bushonian faction in government.

Also, the new Department of Defense propaganda program aimed at children will provide “Good Citizen” badges (silver and gold toned) for the children. It will be just like the “Better Dead Than Red” pins in the 1950s.

The children’s parents are going to get American flag pins with their choice of two different messages. Conservatives will be able to choose the slogan: “Narrow minded. And proud of it.” While liberals will be able to choose the slogan: “Naïve. And proud of it.” Both pins will be on an American flag background. The idea is that this will bring both liberals and conservatives together.

From The Conspirators Department:

Book sales of The Conspirators have increased quite significantly of late. There is a new class of buyer for a book like The Conspirators which details government corruption. People are buying them as an investment under the assumption that a year from now the Bush Administration will have the power to prevent the sale of any publication which exposes government corruption.

People understand that there is bound to be a black market for this kind of material in the future. For example, Trail Of The Octopus, by Donald Goddard and Lester Coleman, was originally a twenty-dollar book, but now—thanks to the actions of the U.S. government, which evidently bought-up all the copies—sells for about three hundred dollars on the used book market. (Check www.Bibliofind.com and www.Alibris.com for details.)

Even those 80% of the American people who don’t agree with the book, but support the “war on terrorism” according to recent polls, are buying The Conspirators for investment purposes. Savvy investors understand this very well and they’re squirreling away copies of the book while they can still get it. They know that, with a limited supply available, the value of these books can only go up.

From The American History Department:

I was thinking of my 8th grade junior high school American History textbook. The first part was all about glorifying our Founding Fathers and putting them on moral pedestals. And I thought to myself that nowhere in this textbook was it mentioned that Thomas Jefferson, George Washington, and Benjamin Franklin all died from the long-term effects of sexually transmitted diseases. Nor was it mentioned that Alexander Hamilton was a notorious swindler, or that John Hancock was a smuggler, or that the great Massachusetts firebrand Samuel Adams was a falling down drunk who eventually succumbed from cirrhosis of the liver. (There is a micro-brewery named after him—appropriately so, since that’s what he died from.)

As I was remembering the book, you turn a few chapters into the great 19th Century westward expansion, wherein the Indians were always portrayed as violent and vicious savages, always in the wrong, and the cowboys and Union soldiers in blue were always in the right.

Nowhere was it mentioned that in the twenty-year period from 1868 to 1888, the United States Government broke every single treaty it ever signed with Native American Indian tribes.

Then, a few chapters later, we read about Woodrow Wilson’s indignation about the “Wild Huns” using mustard gas on the American troops during World War I and the tens of thousands of American troops who were maimed by this sinister “devil’s gas” as he called it. What Wilson failed to mention was that it was the U.S. Army that first used the gas in question in 1903 against Philippine insurrectionists.

In the next chapter, on World War II, there was the internment of 120,000 Japanese Americans. Yet nowhere was it mentioned that in Japan there lived approximately the same number of American and European residents, but the Japanese Government did not intern them.

So, what is the net result of the lies of the United States government since the beginning—the endless flag-waving propaganda? The result is what Thomas Jefferson specifically warned the American people against in his series of Essays On Government in 1803. Jefferson specifically warned against “generational tyranny”—not to support any government of the United States which would commit to a course of action that would foster generational tyranny. In other words, future generations of American taxpayers would be picking up the tab for illegal, but politically popular, acts of government at the time.

In direct context, this means that in the last thirty years, since 1970, $36 billion of the American taxpayers’ money has been paid to settle Native American Indian land claims, land which the American government took and in essence swindled from them.

The Japanese internment settlement under the Reagan Administration cost the American taxpayers (two thirds of whom were not even alive when the illegal acts took place) another $2 billion.

This is what Jefferson warned us about—forcing American taxpayers to pick up the tab under the assumption that the politicians who soaked up the political gravy at the time wouldn’t even be alive to accept the consequences of their actions—when the bill came due.

“Generational tyranny” was, in Jefferson’s words, the most unfair action that any democratic government could commit: “to force a yoke of debt around the yet unborn for the sake of political popularity of the moment”.

Franklin also mentioned this concept in his letter to Washington in 1783, a year before he died. He invariably referred to the then nascent United States as “The Grand Experiment”. Franklin’s concern was the tyranny of debt, that is, one administration accumulating debt and forcing it onto the next and the next and the next. Franklin said: “How quickly in our impatience and imprudence, The Grand Experiment could quickly turn into The Grand Tyranny.”

And speaking of another kind of “generational tyranny”—the parallels between the Adams family in the 1700s and the Bush family in recent times are quite similar. It should be noted that it was John Adams who surreptitiously purchased (behind the scenes) the legislative votes necessary to get his son, John Adams, into office—when Thomas Jefferson had actually won the greater preponderance of votes. To assuage Jefferson, John Quincy Adams gave him the post of Secretary of State.

It should also be noted that the unconstitutional and grossly egregious Sedition Act was passed during Adams’s tenure. Washington actually warned Jefferson about Adams, telling him that Adams had “the moral turpitude of a snake”.

The Sedition Act is still on the books. The Reagan-Bush Regime actually considered charging people with “sedition”. During the Second World War, hundreds of German Americans were detained under the Sedition Act. Likewise, many who criticized John Adams were thrown into prison.

Even though he won the election, Jefferson’s attitude was that it’s best for the continuity of government and the nation not to make a big deal out of it. His second choice was to become Secretary of State, and the Adams family threw him that as a bone to keep him quiet. In this context, the Gore-Bush election fiasco also comes to mind.

Another prophecy is also sadly coming to pass.

Jefferson wrote: “Our rulers will become corrupt, our people careless.... The time for fixing every essential right on a legal basis is [now], while our rulers are honest and ourselves united. From the conclusion of this war, we shall be going downhill. It will not then be necessary to resort every moment to the people for support. They will be forgotten, therefore, and their rights disregarded. They will forget, themselves, but in the sole faculty of making money, and will never think of uniting to effect a due respect for their rights. The shackles, therefore, which shall not be knocked off at the conclusion of this war, will remain on us long, will be made heavier and heavier, till our rights shall revive or expire in a convulsion.”

As in the last days of the Roman Empire, there is a growing fire at the Imperial Palace, now known as the White House. But this time it’s not Nero who’s fiddling; it’s the American people.

Editor’s note: The above theme is continued in a later writing which, besides expanding on the huge debts being incurred from free-for-all “patriotic” spending, expands upon the increasing militarization of law enforcement in America under the new, so-called “anti-terrorism” laws. The noose is definitely tightening for The Grand Tyranny upon the American people through these would-be dictators or Roman Caesars.

11/26/01 AL MARTIN

Imperial America And The Homeland Colony:
Return Of The American Caesars

Afghanistan is the convenient war. All the previous congressional investigations of Reagan and Bush Regime fraud have disappeared.

These include investigations into the $59 billion “missing” from HUD, the more than $10 billion “missing” from the Indian Affairs trust fund, and the $1.3 trillion procurement fraud from the Department of Defense. The investigation into illegal weapons trafficking in the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama has also been stopped.

In other words, if your last name is Bush, this new war in Afghanistan is very convenient.

Why are the Democrats going along with it? Why aren’t the Democrats seizing this as a political opportunity? Because all the senior Democrats who sit on these investigating committees are being afforded unprecedented amounts of pork.

It helped to get the Democrats to go along with everything that is now happening—to support the homeland security bills and the so-called USA Patriot Act. You’d think that many of the provisions in this bill would be anathema to the Democratic Party. Therefore, to make sure they had Democratic support, the Bush administration has broken the lock and thrown away the keys to the old proverbial pork barrel.

Now that all efforts to control waste, fraud, abuse, graft, corruption, and malfeasance in the federal budget have been abandoned, and it has become a free-for-all, the Democrats are getting huge amounts of pork in order to support this.

The senior Democrats also felt that now is not the time to continue investigations of Reagan-Bush Regime misdeeds and the current and ongoing fraud within the Department of Defense for fear that such investigations

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT & OTHER UFO CONSPIRACIES

BY BRAD STEIGER

In 1943 the Navy accomplished the teleportation of a warship from Philadelphia to Norfolk by successfully applying Einstein's Unified Field Theory. The experiment also caused the crew and officers of the ship to become invisible, during which time they were launched into a time-space warp. One survivor tells his amazing experience. Alfred Bielek has appeared along with the author on the Art Bell radio show many times.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00(+S/H)

THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth

Is an alien "Fifth Column" already active on Earth preparing total conquest via implantations and mind control? In the corner of a small town in America's Southwest something very strange is going on. Did U.S. military forces perish recently in hand-to-hand combat with a group of hostile "greys" who subsequently seized control of one of our top-secret underground bases? Includes latest on animal mutilations, energy grids, secret societies, lost civilizations, abductions, and missing time.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.95(+S/H)

OTHER VOICES

BY GEORGE HUNT WILLIAMSON & TIMOTHY GREEN BECKLEY

The author was one of the original witnesses at the meeting between contactee George Adamski and Orthon from the planet Venus. Williamson claims that he also underwent contacts with aliens and even received transmissions over his radio from friendly extraterrestrials. Others have claimed the same. Senator Barry Goldwater reportedly heard mysterious signals on his ham radio and our own astronauts have reportedly picked up messages not transmitted from Earth.

Other Voices is essentially a reprint of a book entitled The Saucers Speak, by George Hunt Williamson and Alfred Bailey. Originally published in the 1950s. Much of what the authors prophesy has indeed come to pass, and the warning the aliens send about nuclear war and environmental doom is still as urgent as it ever was when first published.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$12.50(+S/H)

SECRET UFO DIARY: EXPOSING THE EXISTENCE OF ALIEN SKYMEN

"A Chilling Must-Read!" Shocking private memoirs of former Navy Commander involving the retrieval of UFO wreckage near our nation's capital & how it suddenly "disappeared" from the secure government safe it was being stored in. A disturbing look at how these aliens, called skymen, kidnapped people and animals to extract blood, and committed mysterious murders! Have aliens been coming to the Earth's surface & experimenting on us for thousands of years? Now revealed! 256 pages.

Introduction by Commander X. A former Navy Commander and CIA operative's private memoirs involving the retrieval of wreckage from a UFO shot-at over the Nation's Capitol, and how pieces of this craft were stolen from a safe inside a supposedly secure government office building in Washington D.C.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$15.00 (+S/H)

COMMANDER X NIKOLA TESLA FREE ENERGY AND THE WHITE DOVE

TOP-SECRET REVELATIONS BY FORMER MILITARY INTELLIGENCE OPERATIVE
ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY—ANTI GRAVITY CRAFT
NOW BEING TESTED BY U.S. GOVERNMENT

NIKOLA TESLA: FREE ENERGY AND THE WHITE DOVE

BY COMMANDER X

Exposes the most important alternative scientific advancements of our time utilizing free energy concepts which were uncovered by Tesla and perhaps derived from other worldly sources.

About The Author: A former military intelligence operative who has kept his identity a closely guarded secret claims to have worked inside underground bunkers in Area 51 where he actually flew UFOs via telepathy and levitation methods derived from contact with ETs.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

would be perceived as being "unpatriotic".

[Editor's note: Let's get real here and not forget that behind the scenes and above a certain level of politics-as-usual, the various Democratic "leaders" are just as equal a collection of crooks and puppets as their so-called Republican counterparts, and surely don't want to see ANY serious investigations being conducted that could expose their own shady shenanigans. Remember that old caution about the pot calling the kettle black!]

It should also be mentioned that the Reagan-Bush presidential papers were sealed for seventy years. They used the seventy-year seal clause under the National Security Act to seal the Reagan administration papers. It is a reasonable certainty that they will use the same act to seal the papers of George Bush the First. Insofar as the former President Bush shredded some seven million documents in the waning weeks of his administration, it is unlikely that there are even many papers left to seal.

The whole cycle is now regenerating itself. Although I am no big fan of the Clinton administration, at least they managed the economy with a modicum of fiscal responsibility. That's why we had unprecedented growth and low inflation under the Clinton administration. They actually made an effort to generate governmental surpluses and to use those surpluses to pay down the debt. And they did make a great effort to try to curb wasteful government spending.

The Bush Administration has now turned back the clock to "business as usual"—to the only thing that Republicans understand: unfettered waste, fraud, abuse, graft, corruption, and malfeasance. They genuinely believe that this is what government is supposed to be in order to maintain their own political and financial power. And the way that Democratic support has always been garnered in the past is by feeding the Democrats larger and larger quantities of political pork that they can take home. You can expect many more Senator Robert Byrd Highways to Nowhere.

But the war is definitely convenient. Investigations of HUD fraud would have led back to senior Republicans like Jack Kemp, for instance. And, if they began to look at the Bush Boys' Iran Contra profiteering, they would have seen how both Neil Bush, through his Gulf Coast Realty group, and Jeb Bush, through his Bush Realty group, had abused HUD financing at the time. (See Chapter 10 of my book The Conspirators.)

In other words, had these investigations proceeded, they would have started to inculcate the Bushes directly. And thus to prevent that from happening, there is a bigger picture here. And that bigger picture is that there is an agreement between both sides of the aisle that it is best to keep the American people with their rose-colored glasses and blinders as securely affixed as possible and to get them to wave the flag as much as possible. Now is not the time to confuse the American people with anything they may have to think about.

As George Bush Sr. once said: "Don't confuse people with the truth."

Now there is also a change in economic policy—to turn the clock back to the old and endlessly careful and balanced state of perpetual fraud that exists in Washington. The Republicans are allowed to commit the Big Frauds as they always have (the really big real estate, oil and gas, weapons and defense contracting fraud), and the Democrats still get thrown the crumbs.

The New York Times mentioned that the government continues to use the Roman Empire model for government in integrating fraud between the civilian and military sectors. ("Four Commanders Seek Staff Role For The FBI" in November 20, 2001 NYT)

"The military's four major regional commanders have asked that FBI and Treasury Department agents be assigned to their staff to improve coordination between the military and civilian agencies in the global war against terrorism.... These agents could help speed interrogation of suspected terrorists detained by the military and coordinate the effort to freeze terrorists' bank accounts.... The regional commanders in chief, known as CINCS, responsible for Europe, the Pacific, Latin America, Middle East, and South Asia, have over the years accumulated such broad military and diplomatic powers in their slices of the globe, that some in Washington now call them modern proconsuls, after the ancient Roman military officials who exercised great autonomy from the central government."

When enacted, this new policy will complete the militarization of domestic law enforcement. With the new power given the military in terms of domestic law enforcement (USA Patriot Act), the military will be placed in a senior capacity to these so-called "liaison" officers of the FBI and Treasury, and it will effectively put the military in charge.

In other words, the FBI and other civilian agencies will be directly under the hierarchical structure of the military in its new expanded capacity of domestic law enforcement. This proposed legislation will then complete the militarization of domestic law enforcement, wherein the last vestiges of Posse Comitatus shall be abandoned.

Historically the Proconsul was the number-two man under the Emperor. The Proconsul of the Roman Imperial Senate was similar to what we would call, in today's terms, the President of the Senate. But the Proconsul of the Imperial Roman Senate had power that existed only under the Emperor, who was the commander-in-chief of the armed forces of the Empire, among his other duties. He was not the supreme political leader, but he was the supreme military commander.

The article goes on to make the argument that the powers of the Secretary of Defense would be diminished because a conglomeration of a federalized military law enforcement, incorporating these civilian liaisons, would now technically only be reportable to the Director of the Office of Homeland Security. Thus, the authority of the Defense Secretaries would be undercut. This move would constitute a further increase in the power of the Office of Homeland Security and would, in fact, complete the process of the militarization of civilian law enforcement.

This "coordination" between military and civilian agencies is an effort to end the traditional turf battles that have existed between federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies since their inception.

Under the USA Patriot Act, they could consolidate this power. The Office of Homeland Security now becomes the top dog, in terms of the coordinating power that has been given to this agency. They are the chief coordinators, which means that this effort to militarize domestic law enforcement would automatically bring the entire law enforcement and intelligence capability of the nation (save that of the CIA) under the Office of Homeland Security.

This is just the consolidation of power, taking about 80% of all the law enforcement intelligence capabilities within both the civilian and military regimes in the United States and ultimately consolidating their command and combined power under the director of the Office of Homeland Security. Those military intelligence units (which have been stripped from the military) will now be under the CIA. We are now effectively concentrating all power within the Office of Homeland Security and within the CIA. In so doing, FBI, Treasury, ATF, etc., are all being marginalized.

This is what the Bushes have always wanted because their base of power exists within the CIA and will now exist within the Office of Homeland Security. After all, the president controls the National Security Council, which is its only oversight body.

It should also be noted that the front-runner for the new director of the CIA is the well-known Bush minion, Porter Goss, a man who profited handsomely during the Iran Contra period, specifically Iran Contra fraud committed by Neil Bush and his Florida-based Gulfstream Realty. (See Chapter 8 of my book The Conspirators.)

They'll try to get Porter Goss in as director of the CIA. And Tom Ridge is nothing but a Bushonian lackey. He's really an outsider, but he's a lackey. This is what George Bush Sr. called the "continuous consolidation of money and power into higher, tighter, and righter hands". And now we are seeing the enactment of this through the integration of civilian and military power, and thus the consolidation of such power within two agencies of government, which are extremely close to the Bush Regime.

The Washington Post also noted that:

"The nation's top military authorities favor appointing a four-star commander to coordinate federal troops used in homeland defense, part of a broad reorganization that Pentagon officials say could change some forces' primary mission from waging war overseas to patrolling at home. Although the Pentagon has regional commanders-in-chief known as CINCS responsible for Europe, the Pacific, Latin America, the Middle East, and South Asia, none exists for managing the deployment of forces in the United States.... Any extensive use of Federal troops on U.S. soil would come despite a traditional aversion to and legal limits on the use of military forces for domestic law enforcement.

"But the September 11 attacks and the Bush administration's declared war on terrorism has blurred the distinction between foreign wars and domestic crimes.... Senior military officials say agreement has been reached on establishing a homeland CINC.... Responsibility for coordinating all federal activities in homeland defense rests with Tom Ridge and the new White House Office of Homeland Security.

"Legal barriers to sending in armed forces in the U.S. were imposed by the Posse Comitatus Act of 1878, which was prompted by President Ulysses Grant's use of federal troops to monitor elections in the former confederate states. The act prohibits military personnel from searching, seizing, or arresting people in the United States."

This is another nail in the coffin of Posse Comitatus and another step down the road to the militarization of domestic law enforcement. As I correctly predicted several weeks ago, congressional Republicans are now gathering to attempt to overturn the Posse Comitatus Act of 1878. Their expressed desire is "to remove the final obstacle for the full and permanent militarization of domestic law enforcement". (See my previous article "Bush Cabal Heaven: The American Imperial Era Begins".)

Another extremely egregious action by the Bush administration is the announcement that it will exert its authority under the Homeland Security Act (USA Patriot Act) by using the new Office of Cyberspace Security to become the world Internet police. The authority to do this is contained within the Act. This means that the United States government has given itself, the Bush administration, the authority to supercede the Internet laws of all other nations. In other words, the U.S. claims that it has the unilateral right to impose U.S. laws and regulations regarding Internet trade, commerce, and the dissemination of information. The U.S. then, according to the release, has the "supreme world jurisdiction".

The White House has also intimated the incorporation of this new supreme power with other powers it has been given by the new USA Patriot Act regarding the transmission of "seditious materials"—any revelation of governmental misdeeds or misconduct. This implies that this new world Internet police authority would be used in concert with the vast expansion in sedition laws in order to prevent the dissemination of any information regarding government corruption.

They are acting under the Seditious Publications And Utterance Act. The law is very clear, and it refers to any information disseminated by print, electronic, or oral means that the Department of Justice deems "can (A) suborn the authority of the State or undermine the will of the State, or (B) threaten the domestic tranquility of the populace as to cause said populace to rise to acts of civil disobedience." I believe those are the words.

They are moving fast, and at this time it is uncertain how much longer Al Martin Raw.com will be allowed to continue to disseminate the truth. Even the sale of The Conspirators may be blocked.

Also, in the media, there is a sudden emphasis on the art of steganography, the art of hiding a message within a picture. Apparently the Bush administration is pressuring the media not to show full clips of Osama bin Laden and disseminate the text of his speeches because they claim that these can be used to transfer subliminal messages. It's another scare tactic and an effort to control imagery and media "content".

The next step for the media is to use fully-doctored, made-in-the-studio video clips shown to the public as supposed

$15.00(+S/H)

Assassinating and "replacing" our most trusted spiritual leaders, rulers, and elected officials.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

THE CONTROLLERS: THE HIDDEN RULERS OF EARTH

We are the property of an alien intelligence! "Our" planet is a cosmic laboratory and we are but guinea pigs to those who have kept us prisoners on Earth. Humankind continues to wage all-out battle with those who have kept us as their slaves since the beginning of time. They are:

- The Elders
- The Greys
- The Illuminati
- The Counterfeit Race

They have, says the author (who is of military intelligence) kept us in human bondage by: • Controlling our minds • Planting imperfect thoughts in our heads • Kidnapping humans • Impregnating women • Causing global warfare and ethnic hatred • Creating a false economic system, and •

NEW PRODUCTS NOW AVAILABLE

TELEPORTATION: A HOW-TO GUIDE: FROM STAR TREK® TO TESLA

- Mysterious Disappearances Solved!
- Classified Experiments Inside Area 51 Revealed!
- Aliens Leave Behind Technological Clues!
- Mastering The Science Of Teleportation Is Possible!

$15.00(+S/H)

The well-known phrase: "Beam me up, Scotty" from the popular television series STAR TREK®, introduced the public to the idea of teleportation— instantaneous transport through time and space.

The author takes the subject beyond the void of pure speculation and into the realm of 21st Century science. According to the author, known as Commander X, a former military intelligence operative with connections to the CIA and the Defense Department, on a number of occasions he witnessed the testing of highly classified, super TOP SECRET, black project aircraft engaged in maneuvers over Area 51 in the Nevada desert. This national whistle-blower claims he actually sat at the helm of one of these ships as it bi-located from one place to another—INSTANTLY!

Commander X insists it is possible for the reader to learn the fundamentals of teleportation and participate in experimentation of their very own. SEE NEXT-TO-LAST PAGE FOR ORDERING OR CALL TOLL-FREE: 1-877-280-2866.

The HeartMath Solution AUDIO Book by Doc Childre and Howard Martin

- WHAT IF YOU COULD EASILY —
- MAKE BETTER DECISIONS?
 - ENHANCE CREATIVITY?
 - SLOW-DOWN AGING?

You can. Simply by understanding your heart's intelligence—which has more impact on our emotions, our mind, and our physical health than was ever thought possible!

Now, at last, the internationally esteemed Institute of HeartMath® shares its research and the revolutionary techniques relied on by prominent physicians and Fortune 500 companies. In this audio, the authors offer astonishing proof that the heart has an intelligence, one that profoundly affects our mental and physical health. When we engage the power of our heart's intelligence, then, and only then, can we make the most of our health and our minds. These life-altering techniques will show you how to deepen the qualities long associated with the heart—wisdom, compassion, courage, love, strength, and joy.

Approximately three hours. Abridged. This abridgement has been approved by the authors.

SEE NEXT-TO-LAST PAGE FOR ORDERING OR CALL TOLL-FREE: 1-877-280-2866.

VATICAN ASSASSINS COMPANION CD-ROM IS NOW AVAILABLE!

This is the same CD-ROM that is included with the book VATICAN ASSASSINS and contains 13 rare, historical, out-of-print books (over 4,000 pages!) used in the researching of that masterpiece volume.

Titles on the CD-ROM are: The History of Romanism, Dowling, 1845; History of the Jesuits, Nicolini, 1854; Popery, Puseyism and Jesuitism, Desanctis, 1905; The Engineer Corps of Hell, Sherman, 1883; Secret Instructions of the Jesuits, Brownlee, 1857; The Black Pope, Cusack, 1896; The Jesuits, Griesinger, 1903; The Footprints of the Jesuits, Thompson, 1894; The Awful Disclosures of Maria Monk, Monk, 1835; The Thrilling Mysteries of a Convent Revealed! Peterson, 1835; The Jesuit Conspiracy: The Secret Plan of the Order, Leone, 1848; The Crisis: Or, the Enemies of America Unmasked, Laurens, 1855; Romanism as a World Power, Kauffman, 1922. (The book VATICAN ASSASSINS is NOT included on this CD-ROM.)

ONLY $15.00 (SHIPPING INCLUDED)
(IN CALIFORNIA & NEVADA, ADD 7% SALES TAX—$1.05)

SEE NEXT-TO-LAST PAGE FOR ORDERING OR CALL TOLL-FREE: 1-877-280-2866.

“news events” as was shown in the movie Wag The Dog. In other words, media outlets will be broadcasting totally fictitious and bogus video clips of supposed “news events” which never took place. This also ties in very neatly with the resurrection of the Defense Department’s Media Propaganda Division.

This reminds me of the time when the FBI declared the rock-and-roll song Louie, Louie to be seditious. They tried to block its sale on grounds that it contained a secret message. The words were such gibberish that J. Edgar Hoover thought it contained a secret message that only young people (and radicals) could understand.

The FBI then spent the next three years and $13 million of the taxpayers’ money attempting to figure out what J. Edgar Hoover felt was a “secret communist pinko left-wing code” to use his exact words. He was convinced that the song had a secret code that would signal young people (Hoover was afraid of anyone under the age of twenty five) to rise up against the government because of the radical and secret message in the song. In the end, the FBI determined that the words were simply gibberish and there was no secret message contained in the song.

* * *

In other news, the Department of Defense has been under pressure from news organizations to provide them with videos of the results of American Special Forces in Afghanistan. They claim they’re blowing all this stuff up and doing such wonderful things for the effort.

Finally the Department of Defense has released a video clip to all the news agencies. They showed a convoy of fuel trucks somewhere in Afghanistan. They’re all blown up, and it was the result of a Special Forces raid. The lieutenant, who was in charge of the raid, stopped the lead truck, then actually asked the driver if they were with the Taliban.

The guy driving the truck only spoke Pashto, and he’s trying to say: “No, no, we’re not the Taliban.”

And the sergeant says: “Look they’re all wearing turbans. Let’s shoot them all anyway to be on the safe side.”

Finally the lieutenant and the sergeant reached a compromise, and they ordered all the towel heads out of the fuel trucks. Then they blew up the entire convoy and all the fuel trucks.

The point is that U.S. Special Forces are destroying all this equipment, ordinance, and munitions, not having any idea who it actually belongs to. Apparently some of the groups which make up the Northern Alliance have complained to the Department of Defense. They expect to be fully compensated for stuff that they own which American Special Forces have been blowing up. You can expect millions of dollars of claims to be filed with the Department of Defense—after the “war”.

The so-called captured “terrorists” or “detainees” will be sent to the government’s CILF (Civilian Inmate Labor Facilities) on American Samoa, Guam, and the American Micronesian islands—because you can’t get any more remote than that. And they can absolutely control any dissemination of news because news people won’t be able to get in there. The Department of Defense simply says that this is a classified area.

By the way, have you seen what it takes to get on a plane nowadays? You have to get what’s called “a temporary federal identification card” at the airport. Your driver’s license or passport isn’t good anymore. You have to present your driver’s license and passport at the airport to a booth controlled by the military to receive your temporary federal identification card, which you need in order to get on the aircraft. And they charge you a $10 fee for issuing you this “temporary ID card”.

Also, all your luggage is searched, and you are potentially subject, not only to a pat down, but a strip search. Plus, before you enter the line to check-in your luggage, at the booths where the soldiers stand, you are given a list of the new rules and regulations of what you can and cannot carry on the airplane. For instance, you cannot bring a cigarette lighter or even a book of matches onto the airplane. If you do, they will be confiscated. You also can’t carry on anything magnetic, like a magnetic key chain.

Remember, you are now subject to a pat down or strip search “if the appropriate military authority should deem your actions, demeanor, or tone to be suspicious”.

This sounds a helluva lot nastier than even the Soviets. But that’s only because internal passports haven’t been established yet. That would be the logical next step.

Practical jokers will not be tolerated either. A twenty-something-year-old guy, after going through four different searches, gave the guard the old raised right arm salute and said: “Jawohl, Herr Obersturmfuerer.” He was arrested and had to post $10,000 bond to get out of jail. When they interviewed him, he said that the soldiers told him that such language was contrary to the security of the State.

People should understand, however, that this isn’t the Third Reich; it’s the Roman Empire come again.

Regarding George Bush’s desire to bring back the Imperial White House Guard uniforms as proposed by President Nixon, the Al Martin Raw website has also learned that George Bush secretly wants to rename the Beltway—the Appian Way.

And in conformity with the new style of the American Caesars, George Bush has expressed his desire to be referred to—not as President—but as Rex Imperatus.

Before you know it—the next fad on the Washington cocktail circuit will be toga parties.

Watch out.

Editor’s note: The following revelations about secret abductions of our citizenry under highly questionable and blatantly unconstitutional procedures ought to be brought into the mainstream media conduits of exposure as soon as possible! Also note well the item in our News Desk about the police chief in Portland, Oregon who refused to go along with this kind of Gestapo nonsense. He and others like him should receive our full support in these stressful times, when people of conscience and fair play are being coerced by the Washington thug brigade.

12/6/01 AL MARTIN

Everybody’s Got Their Own Terrorist

According to the Friendly Colonel, one of his friends who retired from the FBI and became a local police chief has told him that even in the small city jail he runs they’re holding eight suspects under the Terrorism Act. They’re being kept in a separate wing.

It’s interesting the way it works. The federal government picks up the tab.

The sheriff told him that the detainees are not allowed to have any visitors, not even family. They’re not even allowed to call a lawyer or have any contact with a lawyer. They can’t send out mail or receive mail. As a matter of fact, they’re not even allowed to put these guys’ names in the computer to say they’re holding them. Their names are kept on a separate handwritten piece of paper that the sheriff has to keep locked up in his safe. These people are being kept “at the special request” of the Office of Homeland Security.

Some of the “detainees” have been arrested locally by the local nickel-and-dime police guys. They keep getting lists of names of people that are “wanted”. The county sheriff’s office is large enough so they have the ability to get “pink” cables from the Department of Justice.

In other words, they keep getting classified cables with seemingly endless lists of names. He said there are thousands of names.

The sheriff’s department isn’t obligated to go out and grab them—only if they notice them in their jurisdiction. Thus far, the only thing that’s paid for is a per diem for keeping these guys—and that only circuitously because Washington has to jump through hoops to get them the money, and it has to come under the guise of some sort of special funding program that doesn’t really exist.

They’re not getting paid anything extra to go out and look for them, but he has said they have received notification as late as last week that indicated that as soon as “things settle down” and certain remaining pieces of legislation are passed and incorporated into the U.S.A. Patriot Act, that the locals will be paid to go out and get the people.

And what nationality are these “detainees”? Perhaps aliens with green cards, or maybe people who wear turbans? Not at all.

The former FBI agent admitted that where the nervousness is coming from at senior levels in federal law enforcement is that there are thousands and thousands of people who are being secretly detained in the United States.

There are an awful lot of names on this list who are not Arabs. There are an awful lot of names on the list like “Smith” and “Jones” and “Johnson” and “Nelson”. And there’s no paper trail. Their names are being kept off computers. Even their families don’t know where they are.

The Bush Administration is jumping the gun, because even with the authority already given them and with the bills already passed to date to augment that authority, they don’t have all the authority necessary to detain people and to do what they’re doing—that is, detaining so many people and keeping them incommunicado. They’re supposed to wait for the remaining pieces of legislation, that are still outstanding, to be passed. Then they’ll have the authority to do what they’re doing. But for right now, they don’t.

And what the FBI is nervous about is that if this gets dribbled out into the media, or gets exposed in a big way, somebody in Washington is going to duck for cover and it’s going to leave a lot of local guys with a lot of explaining to do. And they’re not going to have any paperwork in their hands to say “This is what I was told to do.”

Other sheriffs have done the same thing. They’re getting these confidential lists of names of people they’re supposed to place under detention. They’ve been ordered to shred them right after. He knows that he (and a hell of a lot of other sheriffs in this nation) are beginning to keep these lists because people are getting concerned about covering their own ass.

There’s a lot of nervousness about who’s covering whose ass. As of now, the Department of Justice is not giving out bounties, just a per diem comp, just the standard fee, which isn’t much. They’re not paying them anything extra yet, but they’ve been told that that’s coming, that supposedly they will be getting paid extra for doing this. One thing that the feds have to be careful about is that most of the local jails and the county sheriffs are on a very tight budget.

They have a special wing of the jail they’re using at Huntsville. It’s a special wing devoted to this that used to be their “dry-out tank”.

The media has circulated rumors before that there are far more people being detained both domestically and overseas than what the U.S. Government has admitted, but the information in this column is an exclusive report on the details.

Like the sheriff said: “How many guys with the last name of Smith and Jones can have immigration or green-card problems?”

Of course, even though he’s a former FBI agent, he doesn’t exactly know the intent of holding all these people—who most likely don’t have anything to do with terrorism or most likely aren’t even connected to it. In other words, people are being held who couldn’t possibly have any connection with terrorism.

He thinks that a lot of the people they’re holding are “potentially vocal people”. He didn’t go on to explain that.

Then he said: “How do you think the government has gotten away with holding so many people for so long with names like Smith or Jones, completely incommunicado, yet nobody is running to the media? Why isn’t there pressure building? Why aren’t family members running to the local newspapers saying what’s happened?”

The answer is that the people being held are, in some cases, people who have worked in very sensitive capacities for the U.S. Government before, and perhaps they know enough that they could be a problem down the line if they started to talk.

By and large, these are people who don’t have much family or may be very disconnected from family life. In other words, they come from family circumstances where they are used to being missed for months and sometimes years. That would be a normal course of events for them.

The FBI is generally familiar with Arabs that the CIA has associated with, including Arabs in the United States who are considered to be friendly. What it looks like is a massive operation by the CIA to cover its ass, to distance itself from its own Arab connections. If they’re in prison, they can't talk and say anything, if they're held incommunicado.

It's like the sheriff said—if somebody from the Department of Justice or even the Department of Defense showed up tomorrow with DoD or DoJ credentials, with a writ signed from the judge for the production of these eight people, I'd have to release them. I'd have no idea where they would go after that. All I need to see is the little stamp of Office of Homeland Security and that's it.

The sheriffs, when asked to release the detainees, would not even have the right to be informed as to the ultimate destination where the people are going.

The speculation from the FBI old-timers is that there are probably a variety of reasons why there are so many people being detained, the least of which is "terrorism".

What they suspect is that by the number of Arab nationals being detained (knowing who these guys are and knowing their involvement with U.S. intelligence in the past) that the CIA is doing a lot of housecleaning and covering its own ass.

He said: "How do you define terrorism?" You need new definitions—when everything is so interconnected.

Terrorists, for example, who went out and killed people or blew up buses full of kids, and who also had relationships with the CIA—are they then strictly "terrorists"?

The ambiguity of state-sponsored terrorism, or domestic terrorism, or international terrorism, then becomes one big muddle.

The FBI is arresting all these Arabs; then the CIA comes and grabs them and either lets them go or gets them out of the country, and the FBI isn't even told where they've gone. This is why the FBI is nervous—because of the chaos of the situation.

The FBI old-timer says: "The CIA grabs people from us. The Department of Defense grabs guys from us who we're arresting. The British show up, and we find out that this terrorist had actually been working with MI-6. The French DST shows up and says 'Hey, this of one of our terrorists.'"

They're not only protecting their own assets, but they're covering their own asses. Regarding the processing office at the National Intelligence Division of the FBI, they had a luncheon for some of the retired guys who were talking with some of the active-duty guys getting close to retirement, and they were laughing at how it looks like a mini United Nations. The British show up to claim their terrorists. The French show up to claim their terrorists. And then the CIA comes in to get their terrorists.

He says: "Pretty soon we got nobody left who actually is supposed to be a terrorist."

He says: "I thought we had a War on Terrorism and we were supposed to be declaring war on terrorism. But what a selective war it seems to be when all the supposed enemy targets and would-be terrorists get whisked away by various intelligence agencies of different countries trying to cover their political liabilities. Everybody in the world shows up to claim them." He laughs and says that even the Russians have been there.

It really makes you wonder, though, how all this is getting financed—holding all these people in detention. Millions are being spent looking for all these people that represent a liability to the United States or one of our allies. Then you look at these appropriation bills getting jammed through Congress, and Congress is in complete chaos. They're getting bills passed just about every day. A former Washington insider says that he doesn't know any member of the House or Senate who has actually read them.

What is happening, apparently, is the old Bushonian trick of appropriating $20 million, $15 million, or $50 million, here and there, for, in some cases, little esoteric subdivisions of divisions of departments, some of which haven't even been in operation in 40 years. That's the best scam—appropriating money for defunct agencies. There are legions of little office buildings outside of the crescent of Washington, from Silver Springs over to Fort Mead and down into McLean, Virginia and Reston. There are row after row of little office buildings, and they're all leased by different agencies of the government.

There was one that was called something like the Appalachian Relief and Corn Investigation Bureau that

How To Control People

Editor's note: We couldn't resist sharing the following irreverent commentary with you from brilliant and ornery (courageous) longtime syndicated columnist Charley Reese. He just signed-off from his post at the Orlando Sentinel back in July of this year. His take on "education" is right-on and likely to assist him in not having to deal with too many university speaking invitations. Considering the time of this writing—months before the purposely engineered 9/11/01 events and aftermath—we may want to add "prophet" to his list of accomplishments also.

4/1/01 CHARLEY REESE

The difference between true education and vocational training has been cleverly blurred. Here are a few tips on how smart people can control other people. If any of this rings a bell—well, then wake up!

The first principle of people control is not to let them know you are controlling them. If people knew, this knowledge will breed resentment and possibly rebellion, which would then require brute force and terror, an old fashioned, expensive, and not 100% certain method of control.

It is easier than you think to control people indirectly, to manipulate them into thinking what you want them to think and doing what you want them to do.

One basic technique is to keep them ignorant. Educated people are not as easy to manipulate. Abolishing public education or restricting access to education would be the direct approach. That would spill the beans. The indirect approach is to control the education they receive.

It's possible to be a Ph.D., doctor, lawyer, businessman, journalist, or an accountant, just to name a few examples, and at the same time be an uneducated person. The difference between true education and vocational training has been cleverly blurred in our time so that we have people successfully practicing their vocations while at the same time being totally ignorant of the larger issues of the world in which they live.

The most obvious symptom is their absence of original thought. Ask them a question and they will end up reciting what someone else thinks or thought the answer was. What do they think? Well, they never thought about it. Their education consisted of learning how to use the library and cite sources.

That greatly simplifies things for the controller because, with lots of money, university endowments, foundations, grants, and ownership of media, it is relatively easy to control who they will think of as authorities to cite in lieu of doing their own thinking.

Another technique is to keep them entertained. Roman emperors did not stage circuses and gladiator contests because they didn't have television. We have television because we don't have circuses and gladiator events. Either way, the purpose is to keep the people's minds focused on entertainment, sports, and peripheral political issues. This way you won't have to worry that they will ever figure out the real issues that allow you to control them.

Just as a truly educated person is difficult to control, so too is an economically independent person. Therefore, you want to create conditions that will produce people who work for wages, since wage earners have little control over their economic destiny. You'll also want to control the monetary, credit, and banking systems. This will allow you to inflate the currency and make it next to impossible for wage earners to accumulate capital. You can also cause periodic deflation to collapse the family businesses, family farms, and entrepreneurs, including independent community banks.

To keep trade unions under control, you just promote a scheme that allows you to shift production jobs out of the country and bring back the products as imports (it is called Free Trade). This way you will end up with no unions or docile unions.

Another technique is to buy both political parties so that after a while people will feel that no matter whether they vote for Candidate A or Candidate B, they will get the same policies. This will create great apathy and a belief that the political process is useless for effecting real change.

Pretty soon you will have a population that feels completely helpless, and thinks the bad things happening to them are nobody in particular's fault, just a result of global forces or evolution or some other disembodied abstract concept. If necessary, you can offer scapegoats.

Then you can bleed them dry without having to worry overly much that one of them will sneak into your house one night and cut your throat. If you do it right, they won't even know whose throat they are cutting.

was phased-out in 1947—and they still have an office with a sign on the door. There's nothing in it. It's completely vacant and there's no furniture in it anymore, but they still rent the office for like $150 per month.

It reminds me of another story about the way government accounting works. If the media ever asked any questions, they can always say: "Oh, yes, we're aware that that bureau got closed down in 1947, but its functions were then assumed by Bureau #317-A of the Department of Agriculture."

Then, when the media goes there and finds out that was shut down in 1963, they say: "Oh yes, but then their functions were assumed by this other bureau." And the government can get away with it because a lot of the appropriations, if they're under $10 million per year for these esoteric little offices, they just come out as block spending authority, which isn't specifically listed by bureau because the government claims that the cost of the paperwork is too high.

So the way it works is, there are slush funds within slush funds. But it's a neat trick the way it's done.

Only God knows how much money is sucked out of the federal budget.

Here's another way money is sucked out for purposes other than what the appropriations have been designated—by using little arcane one-man or two-man bureaus, a subdivision of a subdivision of an agency that has long since been shut down—but continues to get funded.

Congressman Bill Alexander actually stumbled into this little bureau that was supposed to be part of the TVA (Tennessee Valley Authority) that was actually shut down in the 1940s. It supposedly had to do with the restocking of wildlife and reforestation planning, but it didn't do anything. It was what they called a "field planning office". He tracked it down and it ended up that $1.9 million annually still gets appropriated for it, but it's actually being used to subsidize a variety of exclusive congressional luxury golf course retreats. Of course, they're not called that. They're called "congressional study and research retreats".

In other news, it is interesting to report that when the final 50-odd pieces of legislation related to the U.S.A. Patriot Bill are passed by Congress, more than likely under administration pressure before the end of this congressional term, the United States of America will no longer meet the legal definition of being a "free democratic state" in accordance with the definition, as put forth by our own Supreme Court.

The old American Republic now falls as Benjamin Franklin predicted it might—not with a bang but with a whimper—of naivete, apathy and blind "patriotism".

Hail the New Imperial Republic.

South Tower Burning BEFORE Jet Hits It

Editor's note: For those of your friends and relatives who STILL can't believe the avalanche of evidence we shared with you in the last two issues of The SPECTRUM, how about the following as some icing on the cake?

This brief message and professional video still-frame sequence is from superb Canadian investigative journalist William Thomas. Those of you familiar with the chemtrail mystery will instantly recognize the longtime diligent work of this researcher in attempting to get to the bottom of that perplexing subject.

Will is the author of All Fall Down: The Politics Of Terror And Mass Persuasion from Essence Publications, 225 pages (25 pages of sources!), $29.85 U.S. funds; includes shipping and free email updates. (Order from: William Thomas, Heron Rocks 1-9, Hornby Island, BC, Canada, V0R 1Z0.)

Note, first of all, the smoke coming out of BOTH sides of the South Tower PRECEDING the crash of the jet [frames 1, 2, & 3].

And then, there is another possibly curious effect visible on the original color version of the photo sequence—which would not reproduce very well here. If the video capture was accurate, the smoke on the sunny side of the tower has a vivid turquoise, iridescent dye-like coloration. It causes one to wonder if, just for extra effect, "someone" wanted to make sure the "attack" was as vivid as possible—in order to ensure the provoking of the proper dramatic response of terror in the minds of those who would later be watching media coverage over and over and over again.

Also, note well that the pre-smoke (coming out of BOTH sides) was situated about the SAME height at which the jet crashed into the building a few moments LATER. Does that mean perhaps the kind of pinpoint flying accuracy of "remote control" as suggested by one very astute aviation investigator in last month's SPECTRUM and again asserted elsewhere in this issue? And if that's true, are we talking about an almost-well-coordinated, STAGED event? Couldn't Hollywood have set-up such a sequence better than this?

Regardless of the emotional shock associated with The Truth, the challenge is to face the facts and deal with the TRUE culprits of this atrocity, not blindly accept the baloney we've been fed from the moment it happened.

11/15/01 WILL THOMAS

(willthomas@telus.net)

(www.lifeboatnews.com)

Hello everyone,

Special thanks to Paul Grignon at Lifeboat News for this. This will be my final update before flying to Toronto to put chemtrails on Canadian television.

(They should give us parachutes for getting on the plane.)

I now retract my earlier statement that I have no evidence of the U.S. government initiating and carrying out the WTC takedown. You are looking at the proof. Please sit down before looking at the photos. (I'm not kidding.)

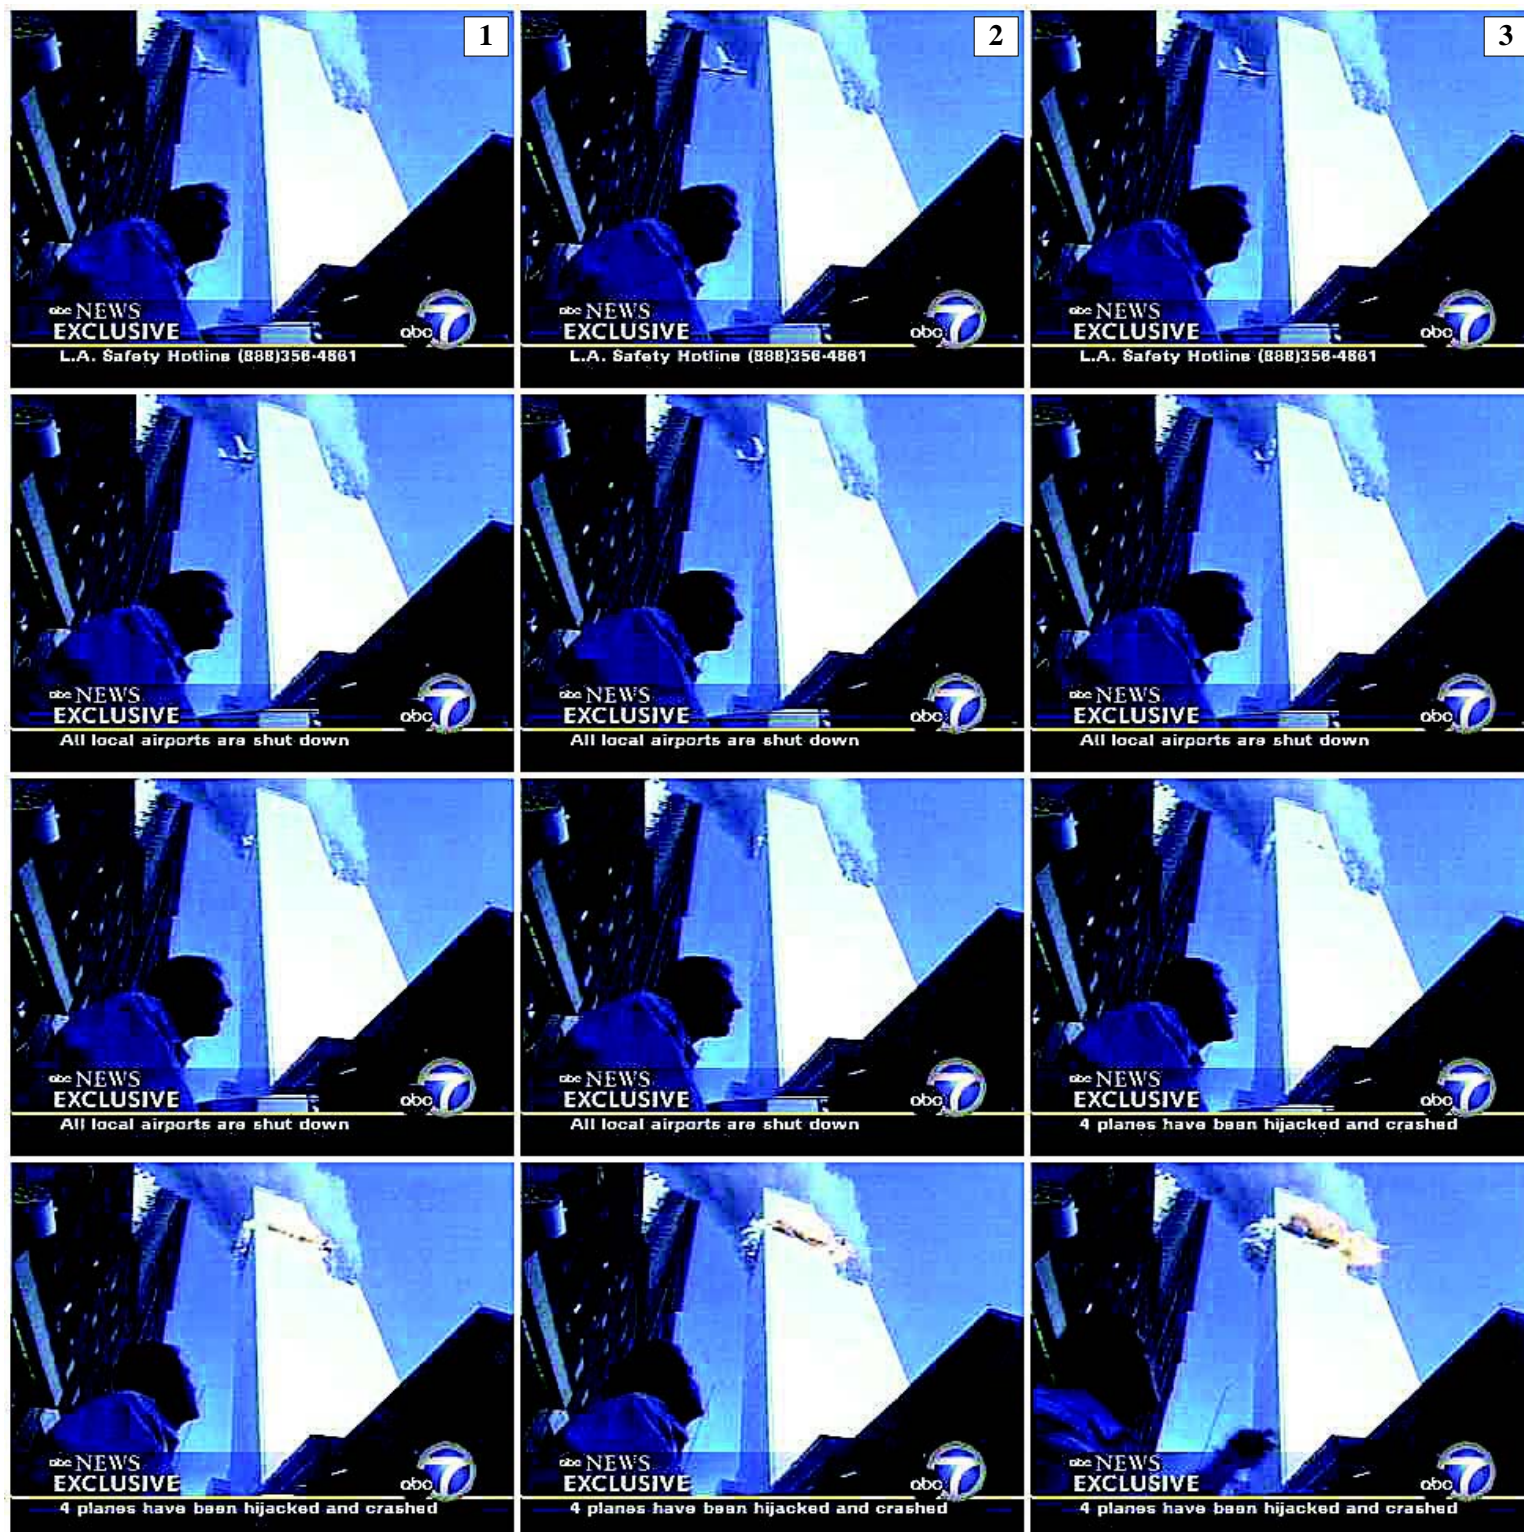

1. There are no, none, zero Middle Eastern names among any of the passengers and crew aboard the 4 hijacked planes.

2. An interview clip (transcript in my book All Fall Down: The Politics Of Terror And Mass Persuasion) with FEMA head stating they sent an emergency response team into NYC on September 10. The team, he said, did great work the following day.

3. These photos showing that someone "blew it", and blew the South Tower BEFORE the plane hit.

There is only one possible conclusion: What we are looking at here is evidence—rock solid proof—of a "silent coup" at the highest levels of the U.S. government. And the most heinous high treason since Pearl Harbor.

The best move now is to inform as many people as possible and encourage massive non-participation in this obscene scam. Please circulate this message and ABC TV photos as widely as you can. Stay tuned and stay well.

Microchip Implants, Mind Control & Cybernetics

Editor's note: Those of you who dig for The Truth outside the confines of the heavily controlled United States media machinery are well aware that many other countries know a lot more about what is REALLY going on than do the constantly dumbed-down American public. Just listening to shortwave radio news broadcasts from around the world illustrates that fact on a daily basis.

The following article is another very good example of the same point. While relatively short in length, it touches upon a number of matters which are in diabolical use all around us. These sophisticated forms of covert manipulation are largely unknown to the public, and even usually unsuspected by the front-line professionals of law-enforcement departments who often have to deal with the "clean-up" of situations wherein mind-control techniques are at the center of an engineered atrocity—such as a schoolyard shooting, a bombing of a building, a truck that crashes into a crowded mall at 90 MPH, or the downtown neighborhood that, all of a sudden, breaks out into a nasty riot for seemingly no good reason.

One need only think back as far as the statements made by Timothy McVeigh—and heavily ridiculed by the media—about having "chips" in him and not remembering anything about that day, in connection with the Oklahoma City Murrah Federal Building bombing, to see how this technology is being utilized right in front of us.

This article was originally published in the 36th-year edition of the Finnish-language journal, SPEKULA. SPEKULA is a publication of Northern Finland medical students and doctors of Oulu University, Olk (Oulun Laaketieteellinen Kilta). It is mailed to ALL medical students of Finland and ALL Northern Finland medical doctors. Circulation 6500.

Bless this author for speaking up! That is what does the most to break the spell of control over others through ignorance of the facts. Rauni-Leena Luukanen-Kilde, MD, is the former Chief Medical Officer of Finland.

12/6/00 RAUNI KILDE, M.D.

In 1948 Norbert Weiner published a book, CYBERNETICS, defined as a neurological communication and control theory already in use in small circles at that time.

Yoneji Masuda, the "Father of Information Society", stated his concern in 1980 that our liberty is threatened Orwellian-style by cybernetic technology totally unknown to most people. This technology links the brains of people via implanted microchips to satellites controlled by ground-based supercomputers.

The first brain implants were surgically inserted in 1947 in the state of Ohio, U.S.A., and also in Stockholm, Sweden. Brain electrodes were inserted into the skulls of babies in 1946 without the knowledge of their parents. In the 1950s and 1960s, electrical implants were inserted into the brains of animals and humans, especially in the U.S., during research into behavior modification, and brain and body functioning.

Mind control methods were used in attempts to change human behavior and attitudes.

Influencing brain functions became an important goal of military and intelligence services. Thirty years ago brain implants the size of one centimeter showed up in x rays. Subsequent implants were shrunk to the size of a grain of rice. They were made of silicon, later of gallium arsenide. Today they are small enough to be inserted into the neck or back, so, for instance, the Prince's movements could be followed. He could actually be located anywhere on the globe.

The mass media have not reported that an implanted person's privacy vanishes for the rest of his or her life. S/he can be manipulated in many ways.

Using different frequencies, the secret controller of this equipment can even change a person's emotional life. S/he can be made aggressive or lethargic. Sexuality can be artificially influenced. Thought signals and subconscious thinking can be read, dreams affected and even induced, all without the knowledge or consent of the implanted person.

A perfect cyber-soldier can thus be created. This secret technology has been used by military forces in certain NATO countries since the 1980s without civilian and academic populations having heard anything about it. Thus, little information about such invasive mind-control systems is available in professional and academic journals.

The NSA's Signal Intelligence Division can remotely monitor information from human brains by decoding the evoked potentials (3.50 Hz, 5 milliwatt) emitted by the brain. Prisoner experimentees in both Gothenburg, Sweden and Vienna, Austria have been found to have brain lesions.

Diminished blood circulation and lack of oxygen in the right temporal frontal lobes result where brain implants are usually operative. A Finnish experimentee experienced brain atrophy and intermittent attacks of unconsciousness due to lack of oxygen.

Mind-control techniques can be used for political purposes. The goal of mind controllers today is to induce the targeted persons or groups to act against his or her own convictions and best interests.

Zombified individuals can even be programmed to murder and remember nothing of their crime afterward.

Alarming examples of this phenomenon can be found in the U.S. This "silent war" is being conducted against unknowing civilians and soldiers by military and intelligence agencies. Since 1980 electronic stimulation of the brain (ESB) has been secretly used to control targeted people without their knowledge or consent.

All international human rights agreements forbid nonconsensual manipulation of human beings—even in prisons, not to speak of civilian populations. Under an initiative of U.S. Senator John Glenn, discussions commenced in January 1997 about the dangers of radiating civilian populations.

Targeting people's brain functions with electromagnetic fields and beams (from helicopters and airplanes, satellites, from parked white vans, neighboring houses, telephone poles, electrical appliances, mobil phones, TV, radio, etc.), is part of the radiation problem that should be addressed in democratically elected government bodies.

In addition to electronic mind control, chemical methods have also been developed. Mind-altering drugs and different smelling gasses affecting brain function negatively can be injected into air ducts or water pipes. Also, bacteria and viruses have been tested this way in several countries.

Today's supertechnology—connecting our brain functions via microchips (or even without them, according to the latest technology) to computers via satellites in the U.S. or Israel—poses the gravest threat to humanity. The latest supercomputers are powerful enough to monitor the whole world's population.

What will happen when people are tempted by false premises to allow microchips into their bodies? One lure will be a microchip identity card. Compulsory legislation has even been secretly proposed in the U.S. to criminalize removal of an ID implant.

Are we ready for the robotization of mankind and the total elimination of privacy, including freedom of thought? How many of us would want to cede our entire life, including our most secret thoughts, to Big Brother?

Yet the technology exists to create a totalitarian "New World Order". Covert neurological communication systems are in place to counteract independent thinking and to control social and political activity on behalf of self-serving private and military interests. When our brain functions are already connected to supercomputers by means of radio implants and microchips, it will be too late for protest.

This threat can be defeated only by educating the public, using available literature on biotelemetry, and information exchanged at international congresses.

One reason this technology has remained a state secret is the widespread prestige of the psychiatric Diagnostic Statistical Manual IV produced by the U.S. American Psychiatric Association (APA), and printed in 18 languages. Psychiatrists working for U.S. intelligence agencies no doubt participated in writing and revising this manual. This psychiatric "bible" covers up the secret development of mind-control technologies by labelling some of their effects as symptoms of paranoid schizophrenia.

Victims of mind control experimentation are thus routinely diagnosed, knee-jerk fashion, as mentally ill by doctors who learned the Diagnostic Statistical Manual IV "symptom" list in medical school. Physicians have not been schooled that patients may be telling the truth when they report being targeted against their will or being used as guinea pigs for electronic, chemical, and bacteriological forms of psychological warfare.

Time is running out for changing the direction of military medicine, and ensuring the future of human freedom.

MIND STALKERS: UFOS, IMPLANTS, & THE PSYCHOTRONIC AGENDA OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

ALIEN ABDUCTIONS, ELF WAVES, MENTAL MANIPULATION—ALL EQUALS BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION! There is a secret plot by the New World Order to control the Earth's population for a sinister agenda. Many UFO abductees maintain they have become part of a brainwashing program by "aliens"—but is a "secret society" really behind all that is happening?

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

The Enemy Is INSIDE The Gates

Editor's note: The following is a superb summary article with running commentary by a high-ranking career military aviation professional. It is pretty much self-explanatory and unarguably powerful in its thoughtful conclusions. We did not receive this gem in time for last month's issue of The SPECTRUM or it would most surely have been included for your consideration along with the rest of the follow-up articles on the 9/11/01 tragedy.

Remember the piece in last month's SPECTRUM (on page 24) about electronically controlling the 9/11/01 attack aircraft from a remote location? The experienced aircraft professional who wrote that article declined to mention the actual name of the remote-control system he was referring to, disguising it as the "Home Run" system. Here the various military-background aircraft professionals who contributed to what you are about to read just come right out and call at least one such remote-control system the Global Hawk system.

Most of the public is unaware that such astonishing technology is a routine part of commercial aviation. And that's exactly what the crooks who are REALLY responsible for the 9/11/01 tragedy want the public to think. Otherwise some inconvenient and dangerously revealing questions might get asked by that awakening public—questions which lead to damning conclusions such as the courageous author of this writing puts forth near the end of his article.

We should ALL be thankful that military-background professionals such as this author and his truly patriotic friends are speaking out about an American Tragedy that—with a little luck and common sense—will backfire bigtime on the TRUE perpe-traitors. The more who share Truth, the faster this will happen in ALL areas at this time of The Great Awakening. We certainly have a lot of Truth to learn!

10/21/01 COL. DONN de GRAND PRÉ
(U.S. ARMY, RET.)

A dedicated group of experienced civilian and military pilots, including combat fighter pilots and commercial airline Captains, just finished a marathon 72 hours of non-stop briefings and debate over the current crisis evolving from the use of commercial aircraft as cruise missiles against the World Trade Center and the Pentagon on 11 September 2001.

The so-called terrorist attack was, in fact, a superbly executed military operation against the United States, requiring the utmost professional military skill in command, communications, and control. It was flawless in timing, in the choice of selected aircraft to be used as guided missiles, and in the coordinated delivery of those "missiles" to their pre-selected targets.

As a tactical military exercise against two significant targets (world financial center and the citadel of world strategic military planning), the attack, from the viewpoint of a psychological impact on the American public, equaled the Japanese "surprise" attack on Pearl Harbor on 7 December 1941.

The over-riding question: If we are at war, WHO is the enemy?

The group determined that THE ENEMY IS WITHIN THE GATES, that he has infiltrated into the highest policy-making positions at the Federal level, and has absolute control—not only of the purse strings, but of the troop build-up and deployment of our military forces, including active, reserve, and National Guard units.

Prelude To Panic

The 9/11/01 activity and horrific destruction of U.S. property and lives was intentionally meant to trigger a psychological and patriotic reaction on the part of the U.S. citizens, which is paving the way for "combined UN activity" (using the fig leaf of NATO) for striking key targets in both the Middle East/South Asia and the Balkans. The goal continues to be ultimate destruction of all national sovereignty and establishment of a global government.

The trigger for the 9/11/01 activity was the imminent and unstoppable world-wide financial collapse, which can only be prevented (temporarily) by a major war, perhaps to become known as WW III. To bring it off (one more time), Martial Law will probably be imposed in the United States.

In each of the major wars of the 20th Century, the financial manipulators (located in the City of London and New York City) had placed the U.S. (and much of the Western world) in a monetary expansion mode, followed by an ever-tightening vice of a gigantic credit squeeze.

We now have two ongoing and tightly controlled simultaneous events (emanating from the two symbolic targets of 9/11/01:

1. Alan Greenspan, Fed chairman, promising to flood the market with up to $200 billion in FRNs and to further lower interest rates, thus bringing about hyperinflation and dollar devaluation.

Much of these multi billions in largesse will be dumped into the coffers of Wall Street, Defense, bankrupt airlines, insurance companies, and into the willing arms of debt-ridden third-world countries in the form of debt repudiation (forgiveness). Call it bribery, in order to get these often reluctant nations to join our coalition of "freedom fighters" in "the war against terrorism".

2. Paul Wolfowitz, deputy defense secretary, promised that the U.S. will launch "sustained military strikes against those behind the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington". He said: "The military retaliation would continue until the roots of terrorism are destroyed."

This bit of saber rattling was seconded by select NATO allies (especially Britain), and by our chief ally in the Middle East, Ariel Sharon, while secretary of defense Donald Rumsfeld, with the blessings of President Bush II, is activating thousands of national guard and reservists, not only to guard the vulnerable airports, but to do fly-overs of our nation's capital in F-16s from the North Dakota Air Guard. Other National Guard units are being jockeyed into potential combat "hot spots" throughout the Middle East/South Asia and the Balkans.

Who Is The Enemy?

Following is a summary of the near-unanimous views of the assembled military and civilian pilots concerning certain critical factors relating to the WTC/Pentagon hit of 9/11/01:

- Troubling questions arose about the alleged pilot-hijackers of the four aircraft, who were supposedly trained on Cessna aircraft over the past year at fields in Florida and Oklahoma. One General officer remarked: "I seriously question whether these novices could have located a target dead-on, 200 miles removed from takeoff point—much less controlled the flight and mastered the intricacies of IFR (instrument flight rules)—and all accomplished in 45 minutes."

- The extremely skillful maneuvering of the three aircraft at near mach speeds, each unerringly hitting their targets, was superb. As one Air Force officer—a veteran of over 100 sorties over North Vietnam—explained: "Those birds (commercial airliners) either had a crack fighter pilot in the left seat, or they were being maneuvered by remote control."

- Another pilot warned that: "We had better consider whether electromagnetic pulse or radio-frequency weapons were used from a command and control platform hovering over the Eastern Seaboard. I'm talkin' AWACS."

Another comment: "If there was an AWACS on station over the targeted area, did it have a Global Hawk capability? I mean, could it convert the commercial jets to robotic flying missiles?"

- A hotly debated question: Who would be in command of such an Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS)? Were they Chinese, Russians, Saudis, Israelis, NATO? All of these countries possess AWACS-type aircraft. All (except the Saudis) have the capability to utilize electromagnetic pulsing (EMP) to knock-out on-board flight controls and communications of targeted aircraft, and then fly them by remote control.

One of the Air Force officers explained that we had already flown a robot plane the size of a Boeing 737 across the Pacific to Australia—unmanned—from Edwards AFB in California to a successful landing on an Aussie base in South Australia. It flies along a pre-programmed flight path, but is "monitored" (controlled remotely) by a pilot from an outside station.

He explained that the London Economist (20 September 2001) published comments from the former CEO of British Airways, Robert Ayling, who stated that an aircraft could be commandeered from the ground or air and controlled remotely in the event of a hijack.

Commercial Jets As Guided Missiles

An AP story, dateline Brussels, 7 October 2001: "At Washington's request, NATO will soon deploy surveillance aircraft for anti-terrorist operations in the United States in response to the attacks on New York and Washington, NATO officials said Sunday, an unprecedented use of FOREIGN military forces to defend the U.S. homeland."

- The assembled group of pilots debated why we would ask for FOREIGN forces to fly AWACS over our sovereign territory when we have a fleet of 33 of them, of which 28 are stationed in Oklahoma.

- The debate also centered on whether such NATO surveillance aircraft were ALREADY here prior to 11 September.

COULD ONE OF THEM HAVE COMMANDEERED THE FOUR AIRLINERS?

- There seems to be wide discrepancies between what the Federal government is proclaiming—and their media moguls reporting—as opposed to the calm and reasoned and rational views of those men who fly the planes and defend the nation against all enemies, foreign and domestic.

This writer has been a general aviation pilot since 1946. I have flown a variety of single-engine prop aircraft since, and installed an FAA-approved airstrip here on my farm in 1980.

Two local pilots periodically joined me for short hops: one, a Madison County lawyer, a graduate of the Air Force Academy, who flew for the Air Force before coming home to practice law.

The other, Kent Hill, who lives with his wife, Carol, on a farm close to mine, is an American Airlines Captain assigned to the European route. He was a lifelong friend of "Chic" Burlingame. They were graduates of the Naval Academy and flew F-4 Phantoms in Vietnam. Both left the Navy 28 years ago and joined American Airlines. Both planned to retire in 2002.

Chic was the Captain of American Airlines Flight 77, a Boeing 757, which departed Washington Dulles for Los Angeles at 8:10 a.m. on 11 September, with 58 passengers and a crew of 6. Flight 77 crashed into the Pentagon at 9:41 a.m.

"We were totally trained on the old type of hijack" Capt Hill said, "where you treat the hijacker cordially, punch a 4-digit code into your transponder to alert ground control you're being hijacked, and then get him where he wants to go, set the plane safely on the ground, and let them deal with it on the ground. However, this is a totally new situation. Not one of the planes alerted ground control that they were being hijacked."

How come?

"The fact is, all the transponders were turned off on the doomed flights, virtually at the same time."

Look at their departure times:

Two from Logan (Boston), one from Newark, another from Dulles (Washington DC)—all between 8:00 a.m. and 8:15.

"Shortly after climb-out to flight level, their transponders are de-activated. (They are no longer a blip on the radar screens.) This is something that REALLY needs to be looked into. The only reason we turn them off is so they don't interfere with ground systems when we land."

(Note: Transponders identify a particular aircraft in flight on the radar screens of FAA flight controllers located throughout the country. Various codes are punched into the transponder, one displaying "I am being hijacked.")

Although there is much talk among the various flight crews, Hill says they are not privy to any of the investigations into the events of 11 September. "We're in the dark—very much so. They're playing it pretty tight to the vest."

He is convinced NONE of the pilots had control of their aircraft when they were flown into the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

THE QUESTION THEN BECOMES: WHO WAS REALLY IN CONTROL?

"Even if I had a gun at my head, I'd never fly a plane into a building. I'd try to put it down anywhere—a field or a river—and I'd be scaring the hell out of them (the hijackers) by flying upside down first" Hill said.

In fact, the pilot has the best weapon in his hand when threatened with imminent death by a hijacker—namely, the airplane.

Another airline pilot stated: "On hearing a major scuffle in the cabin, the pilot should have inverted the aircraft and the hijackers end up with broken necks."

That NONE of the four pilots executed such a maneuver points toward the fact that none of them had control of their aircraft, but had been overridden by an outside force, WHICH WAS FLYING THEM BY REMOTE CONTROL.

As an old and not so bold pilot, I became more convinced that the four commercial jets were choreographed by a "conductor" from a central source, namely an airborne warning and control system (AWACS). They have the electronic capability to engage several aircraft simultaneously, knock out their on-board flight controls by EMP (electromagnetic pulsing) and assume command and remote control of these targeted aircraft.

As we consider all the options—and enemies—who performed this act of war, whether from China, Russia, an Islamic country, or from NATO, we must also consider that the enemy may be within the gates.

IF SO, THEN WE ARE DEALING WITH HIGH TREASON.

[Editor's note: The above analysis was then supplemented by the following addition on 10/23/01.]

I want to start out by responding to that tiny percentage of negative email I receive that accuses me of being anti-American. I'm not. I think America is a great place, and the American people, by and large, are to be admired.

What I am against is any government that lies to its people. This includes the government of the United States which, contrary to Bill Clinton's comments on the matter, is not the same thing as the country.

The country is the people.

The country is the land.

The country is those who build, teach, heal, grow, manufacture—and along the way, raise a family.

The United States is not found in the marble buildings along the Potomac. The United States is found in the homes and hearts of 266 million Americans.

The government, its self-delusions of grandeur aside, is nothing but a custodian, and a temporary one, hired by the people to care for our nation. And if that custodian fails in that job, like any menial, they should be replaced.

Our nation did just that once before, in 1776, and it must be remembered that those who were called "patriot" were those who stood with the people of the nation, not with the corrupted government.

There is no provision in the Constitution that authorizes the government, as custodian of the nation, to lie to the people. It's just not in there. And yet the government of the United States has been caught repeatedly lying to the people of the nation in recent years—lying about Vince Foster, TWA 800, Waco, Martin Luther King, John F. Kennedy, The Oklahoma City Bombing, and others too numerous to mention. Suffice it to say that if the government of the United States finds itself with a credibility problem, it has only itself to blame.

When the government of the United States lies to the people, it acts illegally and un-constitutionally. And by the strict interpretation of that document, ceases to be the legal government of the land.

But let us set that aside for the moment, and look at WHY the U.S. government lies to the people, and what such lies have accomplished in the past. Only then can we understand why the reasoning citizen must have serious doubt we are being told the truth by the government in the present case.

Some of the biggest lies told by the government of the United States are those used to initiate a war. Modern pundits keep equating the attacks of 9/11 to the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

This is a slippery, indeed dangerous analogy, since it has been proven in recent years, by way of recently declassified documents, that FDR deliberately maneuvered Japan into the attack on Pearl Harbor and kept the Hawaii commanders from knowing of the attack so that there would be plenty of dead bodies with which to enrage Americans into support of a war that, as of December 6, 1941, nobody wanted. American boys, shouting "Remember Pearl Harbor", marched off to war. Many did not come back.

The Spanish/American war was likewise started with deception. The Hearst newspapers flooded the land with stories of Spanish abuses of the Cuban people, stories which turned out to be fictional and which were published solely to fan the flames of a war—not for the benefit of the Cuban people, but to enlarge American territory and influence.

When the USS Maine exploded in Havana Harbor, the Captain of that ship insisted that the explosion was not the result of any attack. But he was shouted down by the press, and American boys, shouting "Remember The Maine", marched off to war. Many did not come back.

And all because of a lie. In 1975, a review of the evidence by Admiral Hyman Rickover, the father of the modern nuclear Navy, concluded that there hadn't been any Spanish mine at all, just as the Maine's Captain had reported. The ship had suffered a fire in a coal bunker, detonating the ship's magazine, imprudently located nearby.

The same with the Gulf of Tonkin. Even as President Johnson exhorted the American people to respond to the torpedo attack on the Maddox, Johnson knew there hadn't really been any torpedoes, nor had the USS Maddox been as innocent as claimed. American boys again marched off to war. Many did not come back.

Following the Bay of Pigs, which was by any definition an invasion of a foreign nation, the U.S. Joint Chiefs proposed staging fake terrorist attacks that would be blamed on Cuba, to build support for a second invasion.

Of course, there is nothing new about politicians using terror on their own citizens to get what they want. The trick goes back to Roman times, and even Hitler found it useful.

So, let's take a moment to push aside those flags being held in front of our eyes like blindfolds and take a close look at the current situation.

The United States government, despite nice sounding speeches about freedom and democracy, has a record of overthrowing actual working democracies and supporting outright dictatorships.

The U.S., for example, backed Cuban dictator Batista, Chile's Pinochet, the Shah of Iran, and the dictatorship of Ferdinand Marcos, to name just a few. The U.S. backed these regimes because the dictators were willing to do favors for American multinational corporations.

Batista, for example, kept the prices of Cuban agricultural products below the prevailing market rate. This made American companies like United Fruit and PepsiCo more profitable, at the expense of the Cuban farmers, who eventually revolted, bringing Castro to power. Castro let the market set the price of Cuban produce, whereupon the United States declared an embargo and invaded at the Bay of Pigs. Then we wonder why the Cuban people may not like us.

Another classic example of U.S. foreign policy, as it REALLY is, was South America. Chile had a working democracy under Allende. But U.S. corporate interests saw a greater chance for profits if the democracy was to be replaced by a dictator friendly to U.S. interests.

This led to the U.S.-backed coup, complete with torture squads trained by U.S. experts.

Henry Kissinger flat-out stated that the United States had a right to intervene in any Democracy that voted contrary to American interests, adding: "The issues are much too important for the Chilean voters to be left to decide for themselves."

Same deal in Iran. The U.S. government backed the Shah of Iran. The rich got richer; the poor got poorer

DAVID ICKE VIDEOS

AVAILABLE NOW!
Over 6 Hours Of
David Icke LIVE!

SPECTRUM
subscribers save
$10.00

from prison
to paradise
astounding information that will change your life forever

See and hear David Icke at the top of his form as he presents six-and-a-half hours of incredible information before a sellout audience of 1200 at the Vogue Theatre in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

You will laugh, you may even cry, and you will be on the edge of your seat as the fantastic story of true human history, and WHO really controls the world today, unfolds in Icke's unique style, aided by video footage and hundreds of illustrations.

This is the presentation that the Illuminati (the forces of global control) tried so hard to stop—media interviews were cancelled; immigration officials turned up at the theatre to question his right to speak; pressure was applied on the venue to cancel the event itself; and pies were even thrown at David at a book signing by a rent-a-mob who ludicrously and outrageously sought to dub him a "racist".

But nothing could silence him or break his spirit—and here you will see the result. David Icke shows that if you do not concede to fear, anything is possible!

Get this 3-video set (6-1/2 hours) for $59.95 (+S/H).
Current SPECTRUM subscribers pay only $49.95 (+S/H).

Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

PROPHECIES OF THE PRESIDENTS: THE SPIRITUAL DESTINY OF AMERICA REVEALED

BY TIM BECKLEY

The future of America seen through the eyes of prophecy. Chapters include: The origin of the Great Seal of the United States • Our psychic presidents (including: Lincoln, Washington, Kennedy) • The coming Polar Shift and America's destiny • The reincarnation of Atlantis • America's great curses • Secret Government—who is really in control? • Space visitors watch over America • All presidents since Eisenhower are said to have met with ETs on American soil.

See next-to-last page for ordering
or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

$12.50(+S/H)

(same as in the United States); and the people of Iran revolted, bringing the Ayatollah Khomeini to power. Iran was our friend; now it's our enemy.

The same with Iraq: once our friend, and now our enemy. Indeed, the United States keeps switching sides so often, with the American people expected to follow along like lemmings, that one is reminded of George Orwell's 1984 in which the perpetually warring nations are always changing allegiances, and the war-weary people wake-up one morning to be told: "Eastasia is our friend. Eastasia has always been our friend. Pacifica is the enemy."

This brings us to Osama bin Laden.

Osama is the modern equivalent of Orwell's character Emmanuel Goldstien, the boogie-man on whom the government blames everything. Even though careful observers have long known the United States economy was poised for a major decline, the media is spinning the current economic woes as a direct RESULT of the attacks on the World Trade Towers, in the hopes that the general public will be stupid enough to believe it.

If Orwell is not to your taste, then let's try L. Frank Baum and The Wizard Of Oz, who used a paper-maché mask to scare Dorothy Gale into doing war with the Wicked Witch of the West, something farm girls would not normally be wise to do. After all, witches have air superiority!

Likewise, Osama appears to be a manufactured monster, designed to scare us into doing things we otherwise would not do—INCLUDING SUPPORT A WAR, CEASE CRITICIZING THE GOVERNMENT, AND SURRENDER OUR FREEDOMS.

Contrary to the public media image of Osama, he is NOT a lifelong religious fanatic. At the time the United States covert intervention in Afghanistan triggered the Soviet invasion, Osama, like the rest of his family, was living a westernized lifestyle. One of Osama's brothers was a business partner with the son of the then vice-president and former head of the CIA, George H. W. Bush.

The CIA needed a front-man in Afghanistan to oppose the Soviets, since Vietnam was too fresh a memory for the American people to tolerate another war, especially since the lid had just been blown off of the COINTELPRO scandal, revealing the criminal actions the FBI had engaged in to silence opposition to that war.

So, trained and financed by the CIA, Osama quit being a westernized Saudi and seemingly overnight became a fanatical muslim and financier/leader of the fight against the Soviets, waging an indirect war on behalf of the United States. Osama was a creation of the CIA and we only have the CIA's word that Osama isn't still in their employ. However, as another CIA asset, David Ferrie, pointed out just prior to his own assassination, you don't leave the agency. Once you are in, you are in for life!

Afghanistan is an interesting place. It has natural gas, petroleum, coal, copper, chromite, talc, barites, sulfur, lead, zinc, iron ore, salt, precious and semiprecious stones, and more opium than the Burmese Golden Triangle. It is also one of the most deadly places on Earth, having destroyed every invading army since the time of Alexander the Great!

Afghanistan also sits on the proposed route for an oil pipeline which would allow the vast oil reserves sitting

WHEN ONE CONSIDERS THE SIZE OF THE CASPIAN OIL FIELDS, ESTIMATED AT ABOUT 500 YEARS WORTH AT PRESENT RATES OF CONSUMPTION, ONE FINDS AMPLE MOTIVE TO START A WAR OF CONQUEST FOR THAT WEALTH. COMPARED TO THE TRILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN OIL PROFITS WHICH WILL FLOW FROM THAT PIPELINE STRETCHING ACROSS AFGHANISTAN, THE COST OF NEW WORLD TRADE TOWERS AND A FEW THOUSAND LIVES IS A SMALL PRICE TO PAY TO THOSE WHO LUST FOR WEALTH BEYOND DREAMS OF AVARICE.

Long before the attacks on the World Trade Towers, the United States was already announcing that there would be a war. While the American people were kept distracted by "All Condit, All The Time" in the American press, the foreign press was reporting as early as March 2001 that the United States was planning to invade Afghanistan in October. And here it is, October, and here the United States is invading. And just like with FDR, a provocation occurred just when the government of the United States most needed one to anger the people into support of a war for oil.

No sooner had the planes crashed into the World Trade Towers than the media was reporting official statements of suspicion that Osama bin Laden was behind the attacks. The FBI issued names of suspected hijackers, none of which appeared on the actual passenger lists, and all based on what the FBI admits were forged IDs, using stolen identities.

Moreover, the men used those stolen identities the night before the attacks to visit strip bars, making so much noise that they would have to be noticed, ensuring that the credit card slips using the stolen names would be turned over to police.

When flight attendant Madeline Sweeney phoned the ground from her hijacked plane, she gave the seat numbers of the hijackers. The passengers assigned to those seats do not appear on the FBI's list of suspects. Then there was that suitcase, appearing out of nowhere and assumed to have been left off of one of the crashed planes by accident—containing a flight manual, a Koran, and a handwritten letter which any scholar of Islam would recognize was written by someone under the Caspian Sea to be brought to market, and it is no secret that a consortium of American oil companies want to build that pipeline.

However, as John J. Maresca, vice president of international relations, Unocal Corporation, flat-out told Congress in 1998, the pipeline would not be built until the Taliban was removed as the government in Afghanistan, even though the United States had installed the Taliban as part of the anti-Soviet strategy.

ignorant of the religion.

In short, the evidence that purports to link the attacks on the World Trade Towers with Osama appears to be planted, with the scene of the crime looking like the set of a cheap detective movie, with a vital clue always carefully positioned within camera view.

Because of the phony IDs, we do not really know who was on those airplanes, or who they worked for.

But it is very obvious who we are all supposed to blame—the people sitting on that oil pipeline right of way!

So great is the rush to war in Afghanistan that Osama has himself almost become secondary in the media campaign to sell us all on hatred of the Afghani people.

Indeed, it isn't Osama who terrorizes Americans, it is the American media, waving fear all over the place.

Yes, anthrax is nasty, but would a REAL anthrax attack harm so few people? More people have been gunned down in Washington DC in the last 6 weeks than have died by anthrax. More people are sick with dengue fever on Maui than are sick with anthrax. Yet anthrax, and the fear it is designed to cause, get the headlines, to keep the public scared, so scared that they cannot think.

Because once the people stop being terrorized by the media and start to think, they'll realize that it makes no more moral sense to bomb the Afghani people over what crimes Osama has done than it makes to bomb the people of Chicago over the crimes the mafia does.

And once the American people realize this, they'll start to wonder what the REAL reason for bombing the Afghani people might be.

Then they'll start paying attention to John J. Maresca's comments before Congress about that oil pipeline.

Then the American people will notice those foreign news articles that announced the U.S. invasion of Afghanistan LAST SPRING.

Then the American people will realize that the timing of the attacks on the World Trade Towers is just a little too convenient to the already scheduled invasion.

And THAT is when the American people will realize, once again, they are being lied to to swindle them into their support for a war—a war not fought for moral principle, but for profit, profit from oil, paid for in the blood of our children.

WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach

Do you enjoy the spiritual messages shared here in The SPECTRUM? If so then you won't want to miss these two volumes packed full of earlier shared messages.

"Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where these books come into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen." — From the back cover of Volume I

"Let us begin with WHO you are. You, the non-physical YOU, are an infinite thought projection of the One who created you (God!). You are the product of His desire. You are, in effect, Desire manifest in uniqueness of purpose." — Esu "Jesus" Sananda (Vol. II)

Please see next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866

Time To Tune-Up Your Inner Radio

12/6/01 HATONN

Good afternoon, my scribe. It is I, Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, come in the One Light of Creator Source, who is The One Light. Be still and find peace in knowing that the Love of Creator fills you from within.

There are many new eyes scrutinizing the work you ones are doing, and some of these ones are quite hesitant to accept that Creator God would send Messengers in this manner to help those who call out (pray) for assistance. To you ones I would say that Creator God responds in MANY ways, and answers ALL calls made with the heart. The answer rarely comes in the form you ones expect, such as windfall amounts of money. Most often the response to a petition for assistance is answered by unfolding events that allow the petitioner to perceive the situation differently and thus give life to a new understanding of their situation.

Many ones view themselves as being somewhat helpless with respect to their ever changing physical environment. This “helplessness” of which I speak often manifests itself in the form of doubt, procrastination, and lack of initiative, due to fear of the unknown. This often leads to a vicious circle of stagnation with respect to one’s personal growth.

If you do not see Creator God’s hand working in your life, then it is because you have not yet accepted the small subtleties that happen every day as a GUIDED phenomenon, rather than being coincidence or “dumb” luck. There are NO “chance” happenings in your lives. All events that unfold do so as a result of an energy flow dynamic that first forms in thought space (some scientists call this the ethers) before manifesting in your physical space. The rate of this precipitation process depends on the intensity of the emotional energy and the clarity of the desire being focused upon.

Those who are full of doubt, uncertainty, and fear of that which they do not understand tend to be very dispersed in their thinking and manifest familiarity and sameness for the majority of their lives. Those of a more adventuresome nature, such as the artists in society, tend to relish in newness and uniqueness, and therefore tend to look for and EXPECT newness and change. Often these latter ones are the ones who are not afraid to TRY new things, and therefore are much more open to “chance” happenings, “chance” meetings, and thus they are most often the ones with the fantastic stories of “coincidence” that sometimes defy believability. This latter group also tends to be the happiest, for they are experiencing more fully the creative expression of Life-Force Energy as it is meant to be experienced.

Many ones have become indoctrinated into believing that it is blasphemous to think that common man has the ability to control matter, energy, space, and time WITHOUT special equipment, using “only” their Consciousness or Soul. Yet many of these same ones are taught that man was created in God’s image. Creator God only creates PERFECTION! He created you perfectly and gave you free-will choice to choose your own path, explore your own understanding, and exercise your powerful creative abilities—so as to be able to grow in awareness (and expand in development) of your own uniqueness.

Each day is packed full of opportunities for new experiences. You need but allow for them to be part of your life.

If you are one who is inclined to shut-out the rest of the world, and prefers the comfort and familiarity of your home, then you will find that you have chosen conditions that, in many ways, limit the spontaneity of interaction with Creator’s infinite dynamic of energy expression. However, even you ones will, from time to time, get the call from the person you were “just thinking about”. Or there may be a small bird come to your window to have a look-see, and perhaps talk to you like a long-lost friend, who reminds you that, just outside, there is a whole world teaming with Life and Love.

Creator God will always honor your choice to be a loner, recluse, or a hermit. However, He will likewise offer to you, via communication with your heart, an emotional sense of unrest, longing, and desire for balance. These emotional stirrings are reminders that you are not forgotten, and as well they are a constant urging that “something is missing”—else there would not be present this inner signal of unbalance. Remember: others need to interact with you as much as you need to interact with them.

My friends, YOU ARE NEVER ALONE! Each of you have, at the very least, personal Guides and Wayshowers who many label as Guardian Angels. Many others from the Higher Realms likewise stand ready to assist, awaiting your call for help.

Creator God set-up the physical universe to respond to your desires so that you can learn to create in a responsible manner and to explore your uniqueness. His implementation of this is flawless, and you each will eventually come into a full appreciation of this Perfection. You will develop this appreciation along with your own unique abilities to take control over all aspects of your life in a balanced manner—one that enhances the experience for others as well as for yourself.

I am reviewing the above concepts as a reminder to most of you of what we Teachers from the Higher Realms have spoken about many times prior in these messages, and to help the newer ones get up to speed for what we shall address next.

Your world is currently heading down a steep dirt path, and it is about to get hit with torrential rains that will make it very difficult to maintain a footing that will allow for a balanced solution—let alone bring forth an elevated conscious awareness. This does not have to be the case, nor does it have to be part of the collective experience. However, the energy vortices now forming in thought space, that are beginning to precipitate into the physical plane of manifested reality, are only feeding the coming storm rather than dissipating it.

We realize that you ones wish for DETAILS and PROPHECY. We have found that many ones, if given same, will use such as an excuse NOT to do anything until they have PROOF that we are for real. Often, in situations such as these, the proof will come at the last minute, when there is too little time to prepare.

The greatest area of preparation we see lacking is in the mental and emotional attitudes of most of you ones reading this. Many of you have not yet accepted that YOU can and do have the ability to connect with Higher Source for information and inspiration. Or, you have simply chosen to ignore the intuitions, rather than acknowledging them and acting upon them. YOU can cultivate this ability much the same way you can learn to speak a new language or ride a bicycle—with practice and repetition.

We have been trying to get ALL ones to a point of this self-realization, for in doing so there are great strides possible, and great amounts of positive energy may be infused into the physical in the process. The shift of mental attitude that changes from “I can’t do that!” to “I can do it, for I am created just like all others with the same potential to do so!” will, in and of itself, generate a strong flow of positive energy into your realm. This is most effective when the belief is reinforced with action taken that validates The Truth for the individual.

Glib mouthings and declarations do little to establish REALITY OF FACT. ACTIONS taken WILL establish personal REALITY OF FACT, and therefore give each the personal awareness that Creator God is ALWAYS there and is ALWAYS waiting for you to reach out with your desire.

Many a “miracle” and “chance happening” occur when people knowingly or unknowingly follow their intuition, instinct, or gut feelings. In reality, all three are the same phenomenon, just described in different words depending upon the experiences and beliefs of the individual having them.

Your world is crying out for justice and balance. Meanwhile, those who play the adversarial role do so with full knowing that if the masses wake up and see how truly fragile their illusion is, the game is over. These are the ones who wish to create a One World Dictatorship where you, the common person, is restricted in freedoms such as expressing spiritual viewpoints that liberate the minds of mankind.

These controlling ones are exploiting this cry for justice and balance by selling war to the masses as a so-called solution to “terrorism”. Stated another way, the masses are being sold a solution that reinforces their own lack of understanding that they are spiritual beings who create their own reality.

Some choose, at a higher level of consciousness, shocking experiences that will cause them to look past the routine day-to-day living so that they can have the opportunity (and incentive), on the conscious physical level, to tap into an inner strength and creativity that will help them to survive the “terror” that they have allowed to be part of their experience.

The adversarial energies of which we speak are merely ones who have chosen a path of manipulation of others in an attempt to express individuality without acknowledging their inner connectedness to, or interdependence with, Creator God. These ones tend to become masters at draining others of their energy through manipulation, rather than learning to go within and finding the balanced peacefulness of Harmony and Abundance to be had when one recognizes and acknowledges Creator Source within.

Your lives are full of choices. The “rightness” or “wrongness” of any choice is up to you to decide. Often you will ignore the inner heart response to a given choice—the one you know “down deep” is the right thing to do, but which may represent a significant personal challenge for you—and opt for the “easy” path in any given moment. However, usually the seemingly more “difficult” path is the one that is, in actuality, easier and ultimately more satisfying—once you see the consequences of your choices from a larger perspective.

Sometimes making the effort to REALLY learn to do something well takes a tremendous amount of time and personal “sacrifice”. But the end result is often the ability to be far more productive and helpful to others. And usually, once YOU make the effort to apply yourself, Unseen Help arrives to work right alongside you.

You each have the opportunity, in the present moment of NOW, to choose a new path, rather than the same old rut. We urge you to choose to take an active role in developing your own higher perceptions, as well as learning to interpret what those “gut feelings” are telling you.

It is our intention to help you to help yourselves, for we cannot tell each of you, through this source, the kinds of personal answers you desire. However, we CAN help you to help yourself find the answers your heart is longing for—if you but take the effort and initiative to seek.

We have given very practical suggestions for doing this for several years now. If you are “new” to all of this, then I suggest you allow some time for reading and get the information you need. To those of you who regularly make efforts along this direction, and have validated the reality of which I speak, please be open to sharing your experiences with others when the inner signal suggests that it is appropriate.

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, an Elder Brother and Teacher, come with others who share my same desire to be of service to those of you who petition for Insight and Guidance. We come in, and are of, The One Light of Creator Source. May Spontaneity, Joy, and Inner Connectedness forever be a part of your experience, regardless of the situation in which you find yourself.

Blessings and Peace. Salu. ☺

The SPECTRUM Back Issues Call: 1-877-280-2866

Vol. 1, #1 June 1, 1999

Premier Issue • HATONN: Learning To Act In Oneness With All Of Creation • Genocide With A Capital "G", Dr. Len Horowitz • Benzene And Other Poisons In Our Food Supply • Money & Secret Powers • New Menace Is Stalking Europe: It's The U.S. • What's Happening In Yugoslavia? • What Has Happened Since The CONTACT Lock-Out? • SOLTEC: Growth Comes From Understanding Of Truth, • EL MORYA: Recognizing Value In ALL Of Life's Challenges

Vol. 1, #2 July 6, 1999XEROX COPY

Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse Dr. Len Horowitz • SANANDA: It Is Your Life And Your Responsibility • Native American Perspectives: The Wisdom Of Rolling Thunder • Untangling The Web: Hidden History Paints Revealing Picture • SOLTEC: Making Good Use Of This "Quickening" Environment • SOLTEC: Watch The Clues, Both Near And Far • SANAT KUMARA: Will You Blossom Or Burn Out? • The "Soy Toxin Team" Story • SOLTEC: Turning Clues Into Wisdom Through Insight • SANANDA: True Abundance Comes From Walking The Spiritual Path • The Illuminati Millennium Rituals

Vol. 1, #3 August 3, 1999XEROX COPY

Are Their Aliens Among Us? The Biggest Secret David Icke • Native American Perspectives: Remembering Who We Are • SOLTEC: Each New Day Is A Miracle Of Opportunities • SOLTEC: Choices Are Central To The Creative Process • Have We Been Gifted With Waters To Heal A Sick Planet? • Data On The JFK, Jr. Crash • HATONN: Recognizing YOUR Purpose Helps The Larger Plan • Two Millennia Of Prophecy Collected Together

Vol. 1, #4 September 7, 1999

Is Edgar Cayce Back? An Interview With David Wilcock • Native American Perspectives: The Native Ways And Teachings • "Better" Living Through Chemistry—Prozac: Panacea Or Pandora? • GERMAIN: The Power Of Truth In A World Of Lies • Oracle's Messages About Parasites • Introductory Essay On The Wilcock-Cayce-Ra Connection & The "Mission" • Some Excerpts From Convergence • SANANDA: Clear The Weeds From Your Wheat • As Planetary Frequency Upshifts, Are You Going Through "The Change"? • Waco And The New World Order: The Astonishing Connections • ATON: Recognize Your Vast Spiritual Heritage

Vol. 1, #5 October 5, 1999

Great Zulu Shaman Credo Mutwa • SOLTEC: Navigating The Road Of Frequency Increase • Sunspot Cycles: Their Profound Effect On Man & Earth • Essiac: A Natural Herbal Cancer Therapy • SOLTEC: Geophysical Clues About These Times Of Cleansing • Plate Tectonics: A Lesson On Earth's Outer Structure • Native American Perspectives: The Women And The Chiefs • GERMAIN: Learn To Sense & Embrace Big Changes Coming Fast • HATONN: Discerning For Yourself The "Reality" Of Hatonn • Parasite Elimination: A Must For Good Health

Vol. 1, #6 November 2, 1999

The Mayan Calendar • The Horse Whisperer: An Interview With Monty Roberts • Native American Perspectives: The Elders, Medicine People, And Warriors • SOLTEC: From The Caterpillar To The Butterfly • A Remarkable Glimpse Of Egyptian History • HATONN: On "Reptilian" Shape-Shifting And The Hatonn-Ra Connection • Magnets And Solar Panels

Vol. 1, #7 December 7, 1999

An Interview With Robert Ghost Wolf • Native American Perspectives: Indian Prayers, Visions, and Native Ways • SANAT KUMARA: You Are The Miracle You Are Searching For! • Red Tide: The Chinese Communist Targeting Of America • Blindness, Mad Cow Disease, And "Canola" Oil • EgyptAir Flight 990: Astonishing News The Media Hides • HATONN: Reach Out And Touch Someone • Get Well! How To Create Powerful Health • SOLTEC: We Are All Both Teacher And Student

Vol. 1, #8 January 4, 2000

Dr. Len Horowitz's Healing Celebration Remedy • Harvard Speech By Charlton Heston: Winning The Cultural War • The Unnerving Truth About Mind Control "Forewarned Is Forearmed" • RA: Knowing Our Karmic Past May Help Us Understand The Present • The Mechanism Behind An Upcoming Major Global Economic Crisis • HATONN: What Are Some Clues For Truly Finding Your Purpose? • On The Rev. Jesse Jackson And His Role In The Murder Of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Part I • GERMAIN: Forgiveness Is The Key To Transformation • Prophecy: Warriors Of The Rainbow

Vol. 1, #9 February 1, 2000

What If Everything You Thought You Knew About AIDS Was Wrong? Christine Maggiore • SOLTEC: Finding Your Natural State Of Inner Energy Balance • Colloidal Silver Healing Legacy • Big Brother Internet: Nameless & Faceless In Cyberspace • Remember To Look At The View • Native American Perspectives: Facing Our Destiny • HILARION: Letting Grow By Letting Go • When Disclosure Serves Secrecy

Vol. 1, #10 March 7, 2000

Indigo Children: An Interview With Jan Tober • Purposeful Con-fusion Surrounding Cold Fusion • Vaccination: An UnGodly Practice, Dr. Len Horowitz • The Ritalin Generation: Drugging America's Youth • MSG: The Deadly Mouth Aphrodisiac • Native American Perspectives: Toward Sovereign Indian Nations • SOLTEC/HATONN: Glimpses Of The Truth Behind Your Shadow World • A Fancy Trail Of Money Laundering By Greenspan, Bush & The Twiglets

Vol. 1, #11 April 4, 2000

Sound Healing: An Interview with Jonathan Goldman • Legal Help When Laws Go Wild: Justice Team One • The Lever That Moves The World • So You Want To Plant A Garden? • Silverlon®: Medical Applications • Money Laundering Part II: Introducing Still More Crooks • SOLTEC: That "Secret" Something We All Are Searching For • HILARION: Understanding Your Bio-Electric Sensing Machine

Vol. 1, #12 May 2, 2000

The Most Powerful Man In The World? The "Black" Pope • Vatican Bank Sued For Alleged War Crimes • GERMAIN & SANANDA: The Time Has Come To Awaken From Your Dream! • Does Elian Gonzales Case Bring Out The "Best" In Clinton's Criminal Regime? • The "Bio-Electrical Cleansing" Research Of Dr. Robert Beck • Sacred White Buffalo Murdered

Vol. 2, #1 June 6, 2000XEROX COPY

A Talk With The Ishaya Monks: Powerful, Ancient Teaching Held For This Historic Cycle • HATONN: Staying The Course Despite Rough Seas • The Curious Case Of Dave Overton's Gold And The Phoenix Institute • Chemtrails: Did An Airline Mechanic Stumble Upon The Truth? "Project Cloverleaf" • SOLTEC: Learn To Balance In The "Now" • Exposing The Truth About "Holy" Sathya Sai Baba

Vol. 2, #2 July 4, 2000

Ticking Time-Bomb Prozac • SOLTEC: Are You Ready For All That May Cross Your Path? • Revealing Article About Phoenix Institute Directors: Paying Back What Debt? • Are Fed & Treasury Manipulating Gold For Gain Of Few? • Most Profitable Industry In America? Our Prison Systems! • "The Boys" Of Chicago: Law Bought & Sold For Bargain Prices • More Information About Chemtrails Mystery "Poison Cobwebs From Hell" • SANANDA: I Hear Your Call, Do You Hear Mine? • American Death Camps

Vol. 2, #3 August 1, 2000

Ramtha's School of "Enlightenment"? • Full-Page USA TODAY Ad On Illegality Of Income Tax • FDA Boosts PMS Insanity With Prozac In Disguise • HATONN: Compassion Along The Lighted Path Of Creation • FDA-Postal Raid On "The Phoenix Group" • HAARP's Covert Agendas: • SOLTEC: Breaking The Grip Of Often Subtle Mind-Control • How The Sheep Are Led: A "Pretend" Speech On Population Reduction

Vol. 2, #4 September 5, 2000

FEMA: Bizarre Wildfires Expose Sinister Agenda • GERMAIN: Remaining Flexible In These Times Of Great Change • Fishy CIA Link To Malathion Spraying For West Nile Virus • Killer Music: Mind Control's Subtle Drug • With No Obligation To Educate, Schools Turn To Thought Control • HATONN: How To Make This Cleansing Cycle Work For You • Robert Ghost Wolf, Beyond The Veil: Visions For A New World

Vol. 2, #5 October 3, 2000

Montauk Project's Wild Ride Through History • CAFRs: The $60 Trillion Secret • SOLTEC: Awakening To The Miracle • Stop Ritalin! 2.5 Million Children Across The Nation Are Given "Cocaine" By Their Parents And Doctors • The Homosexual Agenda That Is Invading Our Schools • HATONN: On Health, Helping, And World Politics • Update On FEMA Report • Tavistock: The Best Kept Secret In America • Does "Global Governance" By UN Really Mean "One World Order"? • GERMAIN: You Can Accomplish Great Things With Your "God Power"

Vol. 2, #6 November 7, 2000

"The Call Compels The Answer" Angels Stand Ready To Help • Doctors Vote To Oppose Mandatory Vaccinations • SPECTRUM Staff On The Air • SOLTEC: Breaking Loose From Those Limiting Beliefs • Coca-Cola/CIA/Tribune Drama In Federal Chicago Courts • History Of Secret Human Biological Experiments • An Overview Of The Illuminati • HATONN: Be Thankful For Your Planet's Great Gift Of Compassion

Vol. 2, #7 December 5, 2000

For Peace On Earth: Work With The Angels: Doreen Virtue • SOLTEC: Expressing Yourself More Fully On Creator's Living Canvas • The Cure-All: Chaparral • SANANDA: At This Holiday Season Awaken The Gift Of Your God-self Within • Daring Journalists Victorious In FOX News Censorship Case • David Icke's Journey: A First-Person Account • Do You Smell A Set-Up? Cool Calculation Behind Ongoing Election Brawl • HATONN: A Nation's Destiny In A Time Of Awakening

Vol. 2, #8 January 9, 2001

Montauk & Philadelphia Experiments: "Back To The Future" A New Interview With Al Bielek • The Eighth Thunder: The War Of Valued Life • HATONN: The Play

Is Moving Toward A Grand Awakening • SANANDA: With Understanding Comes The Wisdom To Release Fear And Pain • "Mercy" Killings And The Culling Of The Elderly • Some Well-Hidden Hazards Of Microwave Cooking • SOLTEC: Look Within And Tap The Awesome Power Of ONE • Election Intrigues To Think About

Vol. 2, #9 February 13, 2001

Will The Lights Go Out In California And The Nation? Expert Exposes Fraud & Greed • "When You Don't Know What You're Doing, Do It Neatly!" • The News Desk • Connections & Revelations The Media Won't Touch • Dean Kamen: Gifted Inventor And Man Of Mystery • SOLTEC: Satisfaction Means Balancing The Inner And Outer Worlds • A Call For World Peace: A Message From Great White Buffalo • SANAT KUMARA: To Know Yourself, Reach Out To Others

Vol. 2, #10 March 13, 2001

Rediscovering Ancient Truths About The Spiritual Side Of Science: Heart And Head Must Work Together • The Power Of Those Who Stand-Up For Truth • SOLTEC: Stand And Be Counted For A Better World • Pasadena Health Show: A Great Success! • Anna Detweiler: Seeing Truth Beyond The Shadows • Skolnick's Revelations About Current Events • SOLTEC: Lose The Baggage And Free Your Mind • HATONN: The Physical Experience Is For Spiritual Growth

Vol. 2, #11 April 10, 2001

Will Healthy Agriculture Survive Big Business? Organic Gardening—Power Of The Soil • What Would We Do If There Was No Food? • Skolnick's Report On Crooks In High Places • England "Bombs" Gold Prices • SOLTEC: Go With The Flow Of Your High-Frequency World • Hopi Elder Chief Dan Evehema's Message To Mankind • California's Power Crisis: A Most Revealing Update • SANANDA: What's Truly Important In Your Life? • Farming Ourselves Into Oblivion: Small Sustainable Farms Are Our Greatest Hope Against A Faceless Agriculture • So You Want To Plant A Garden?

Vol. 2, #12 May 8, 2001

What Can We Do About Science Gone Mad? HAARP & Other High-Tech Insults • You Just Never Know What May Cross Our Desk • Some Useful Background Material On HAARP • SOLTEC: Dealing With Inner Stirrings Of Unrest • China Incident: Technology Transfer "It's All About Money" • Timing Signposts And A Message From The Hopi Elders • Zulu Shaman & Elder Credo Mutwa's Plea To The Global Elite: Stop The Genocide In Africa! • California Power Crisis Update The Extortion Of California: The Wrath Of Bush And The Texas Power Cabal • Skolnick's Scoop On Some REAL News • HATONN: How To Handle Psychic Attacks

Vol. 3, #1 June 12, 2001

Merging Science With Spirit—The Isaiah Effect—Lost Wisdom Of Forgotten Peoples • Happy Second Anniversary! • SOLTEC: Learning To Allow For Your Growth • Clearance Sale On High-Tech Weapons: Inside The Weekly Arms Bazaar At Redstone Arsenal • Revisiting The Diabolical Oklahoma City "Bombing" • Idaho Standoff: Exposing A Peculiar Land-Grab Scam • Skolnick's Latest Updates Not For The Weakhearted • SANANDA: Aligning Heart & Head Are Key To A Satisfying Life • HATONN: Thanks To The SPECTRUM Staff And Supporters

Vol. 3, #2 July 10, 2001

Maniacal World Control Thru The Jesuit Order Well-Hidden Soldiers Of Satan • Un-learning The Baloney And Then Learning The Truth • SOLTEC: Stresses And Pressures Are Catalysts For Growth • Dr. Len Horowitz On AIDS In Africa: "Utilitarian Global Genocide" • HATONN: Powerful Positive Forces At Work In Our Lives • More Revelations About Peculiar Idaho Standoff • Skolnick's News On McVeigh And Levy

Vol. 3, #3 August 14, 2001

Breakthrough Science Confirms The HeartMath Message: Your Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own! • The Ticking Time-Bomb For A Better World • The Jesuit Order Corrections • HATONN: Subtle Winds Of Change Stirring Within Us All • Something's Up In The Banking & Monetary World • SOLTEC: Actively Seeking An Inner State Of Peace • BRADEN: Unlocking The Secret Of Heaven Through The Science Of Man • Skolnick's News On The FBI, Washington Post, And Airline Sabotage.

Vol. 3, #4 September 11, 2001

Let's Re-Create Prison Into Paradise! Check-Mating Globalization David Icke Exposes What Elite Fear Most • A Visit With Mark Twain • Hilarion: Clean-Out Those "Closets" To Make Way For The New! • The Revolutionary World Of Free Energy: A Status Report • HATONN: Powerful Messages Can Appear In Many Forms • SANANDA: "The Voice Of Truth Shall Be Heard Throughout The Land" • More Skolnick On Airplane Sabotage And Chandra Levy • Recent Visions From Anna Detweiler

Vol. 3, #5 October 9, 2001

Mail Delivery Slowed Due To Attacks • GERMAIN: "You Shall Reap What You Sow" • (INDEX OF FRONT-PAGE STORY:

September 11, 2001—Chronology Of Terror • Alice In Wonderland And The WTC Disaster, by David Icke • How It Is Possible To Orchestrate And Mastermind A Terrorist Attack Without The Terrorists Themselves Even Knowing Who Is Really Behind It? by David Icke • Terrorism Prevention And Treatment Starts With Accurate Diagnosis, by Dr. Len Horowitz • Who Created Islamic Extremism? by Barry Chamish • Who Is Osama Bin Laden? by Michel Chossudovsky • U.S. State Department Sponsors Training Of Would-Be Terrorists, by Al Martin • What LaRouche Says In Radio Interviews, by Lyndon LaRouche • "The Enemy Is Very Much Within" • The Terror In America, by Eustace Mullins • Eric Phelps On Jesuit Behind-The-Scenes Involvement In Attacks • Explosives Planted In Towers, New Mexico Tech Expert Says • Fire, Not Extra Explosives, Doomed Buildings, Expert Says • The Split-Second Error: Exposing The WTC Bomb Plot, by Fintan Dunne • White Knights, Black Ops, And A New Money System, by "Dove Of Oneness" • Revealing Interviews With Al Bielek: Truth Stranger Than Fiction • Swiss Political Assassinations Meant To Deter NESARA, by "Dove Of Oneness" • Self-Inflicted: "Terrorist" Attack On WTC & Pentagon, by Anita E. Belle, Attorney • Why Government Has Repeatedly Created War, by Christopher Ruby • Mark Twain's The War Prayer • Boy In Dallas Suburb Predicts Start Of WW-III Day Before Attacks) • A Hopi Elder Speaks • SANANDA: The Good Shall Be Sorted From Evil • KORTON: Communication Is The Key To Breaking The Spell • SOLTEC: The Nature Of The "Beast" And The Game It Plays

Vol. 3, #6 November 13, 2001

A Time To Be Thankful • The War Against Terrorism Is A Fraud • SOLTEC: The "Trump Card" Of Divine Knowing • HOROWITZ: Preparing For Biological And Chemical Terrorism • New Visions From Anna Detweiler • EUSTACE MULLINS: Dust To Dust, Or: Anthrax Is As American As Apple Pie • Electronically Hijacking The World Trade Center Attack Aircraft • SANANDA: Be Strong And Know That Help Is Near • The Great Coup, Or: What Price, Freedom? • Media Accomplices To 9/11 Crime Deserve Indictment • I Tried To Be Patriotic, Or: New Physics For 21st Century • KORTON: Pay Attention To Your Other Senses • Recent Interview With Osama Bin Laden • AL MARTIN: "Citizen, Can I See Your ID?" • SKOLNICK: The Overthrow Of The American Republic • More Potent Reasons For Destroying WTC

Back Issues of The SPECTRUM:$5.00 each for the U.S.$6.50 each for Canada/Mexico$8.00 each for Foreign

To order Back Issues or CD-ROMs please call:

Toll free #: 1-877-280-2866Outside the U.S. please call: 1-661-823-9696

Beginning with the Premier Issue, get the first year of The SPECTRUM newspaper (Volume 1) or the second full year (Volume 2) in the searchable Adobe PDF format (Acrobat reader software is included on the disk), also in HTML format (where you can use your Internet Browser to view the files). CD-ROMs are PC & MAC compatible!

PLUS YOU ALSO GET ON THE CD:

Several Audio Chapters from WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Vol. I book. These will play on your audio CD player. • Several writings by the Ascended Masters • Selected writings and interviews (non-audio) • French Translations of several writings by the Ascended Masters (non-audio) • Adobe Acrobat Reader for Windows and Macintosh

Price: $45 each (+S/H)

WISDOM BOOKS & PRESS
PO Box 1567
TEHACHAPI, CA 93581

Phone toll-free: 1(877) 280-2866
Outside the U.S. please call: 1(661) 823-9696
e-mail: wisdombooks@tminet.com

We accept VISA, DISCOVER, and MASTERCARD only.
Please make Check or Money Order payable to:
Wisdom Books & Press, Inc. (U.S. Funds only)

ORDER FORM

NAME:

DATE:

ADDRESS:

CITY:

STATE:

ZIP:

COUNTRY:

PHONE:

CREDIT CARD #:

EXP. DATE:

SIGNATURE:

		Price Each:	Qty	Total			Price Each:	Qty	Total
DR. LEONARD G. HOROWITZ					OUR BEST SELLER  MISCELLANEOUS
		DEATH IN THE AIR: Globalism, Terrorism & Toxic Warfare	$29.95					VATICAN ASSASSINS by Eric Jon Phelps (includes CD-ROMwith 13 rare, out-of-print books)	$34.95
		Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse with Dr. Joseph S. Puleo	$26.95			NEW NEW	VATICAN ASSASSINS Companion CD-ROM ONLY		$15.00 (shipping included)
		Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola	$29.95				The Heart Math Solution (AUDIO 3 Hrs.) by Doc Childre and Howard Martin AUDIO		$18.00
AUDIO	Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse		$29.95			PROZAC: Panacea Or Pandora? by Dr. Ann Blake Tracy		$19.95
	Emerging Viruses: AIDS & Ebola		$19.95			“Help! I Can’t Get Off My Antidepressants!” (AUDIO 1-1/2 hr.) (Shipping is included if you buy any book. Otherwise add $4.)		$9.95
DAVID ICKE							The Indigo Children: The New Kids Have Arrived by Lee Carroll & Jan Tober		$13.95
		CHILDREN OF THE MATRIX	$24.95			WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume I		$15.00
		The BIGGEST SECRET	$24.95			WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume II		$20.00
		And The Truth Shall Set You Free	$21.95			Colloidal Silver Handbook: Why You Need It & How To Make It (Shipping is included US & Canada.)		$7.00
VIDEOS	From PRISON To PARADISE (3-Video Set) (Special price for current SPECTRUM subscribers)		$59.95 ($49.95)			The Untold History Of America by Ray Bilger		$10.00
	REVELATIONS Of A MOTHER GODDESS Arizona Wilder interviewed by David Icke		$24.95			The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook by Joshua Piven & David Borgenicht		$12.00
	THE REPTILIAN AGENDA Parts I & II		$49.95			Why The End? by J.T. Revelator		$29.95
NEW BOOK!  BY COMMANDER X					CD-ROMS	AL BIELEK on CD-ROM (Over 25 hrs of audio)		$29.95
TELEPORTATION: A How-To Guide: From Star Trek To Tesla		$15.00				1st year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
The Controllors: The Hidden Rulers of Earth Identified		$15.00				2nd year of The SPECTRUM on CD-ROM		$45.00
Underground Alien Bases		$17.50			ELIZABETH CLARE PROPHET
Nikola Tesla: Free Energy And The White Dove		$15.00			The Masters And The Spiritual Path		$16.95
Mind Stalkers: UFOs, Implants & The Psychotronic Agenda Of The New World Order		$15.00			Fallen Angels And The Origins Of Evil		$7.99
Time Travel: A How-To Insiders Guide		$15.00			Your Seven Energy Centers		$6.95
Invisibility & Levitation : A How-To Guide To Personal Performance		$15.00			Karma And Reincarnation		$6.95
Philadelphia Experiment Chronicles		$12.50			Alchemy Of The Heart		$6.95
INNER EARTH / UFO BASES / GOV’T COVER-UPS					Soul Mates And Twin Flames		$5.95
Philadelphia Experiment And Other UFO Conspiracies by Brad Steiger		$15.00			Creative Abundance		$5.95
The Missing Diary Of Admiral Richard E. Byrd: Who Lives Inside Our Earth?		$12.50			How To Work With Angels		$5.95
Secret UFO Diary Of CIA Operative by Alvin E. Moore		$15.00			— PLEASE ADD THE REQUIRED SHIPPING —
Evil Agenda Of The Secret Government by Tim Swartz		$10.00
The Omega Files: Secret Nazi UFO Bases Revealed by Branton		$24.95			~SHIPPING RATES~ United States: (Priority) $6 for the 1st item; $4 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $8.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered. Canada: (Airmail) $8 for the 1st item; $5 each for ea. add’l item. *Please add $13.50 for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered. International: (Airmail) $17 for the 1st item; $6 for ea. add’l item. *Please add $31.00 (Airmail) or $25 (Surface) for each VATICAN ASSASSINS ordered.
THE DULCE WARS: Underground Alien Bases & The Battle For Planet Earth by Branton		$15.95
TIM BECKLEY	Other Voices by George Hunt Williamson & Tim Beckley	$12.50
	Prophecies Of The Presidents	$12.50
	Subterranean Worlds Inside Earth	$12.50
The Smokey God And Other Inner Earth Mysteries		$12.50			Sub-Total Shipping
					Tax
					(CA add 7.25% tax) (NV add 7.25% tax)
					TOTAL:
We are not responsible for damage caused during shipping.

We are not responsible for damage caused during shipping.

VATICAN ASSASSINS

WOUNDED IN THE HOUSE OF MY FRIENDS

An explosive, detailed, shocking, historical account of the long-suppressed history of the Jesuit Order, from 1540 to the present, and their involvement behind the scenes manipulating the world through the Pope, via the Jesuit's General, the "Black" Pope—the most powerful man in the world.

If you were astonished by the front-page story in the May 2000 issue of The SPECTRUM titled: The Most Powerful Man In The World? The "Black" Pope: Count Hans Kolvenbach—The Jesuit's General, then you won't want to miss this in-depth study of perhaps the greatest ongoing conspiracy the world has ever known. Author Eric Phelps goes into countless details and fully documented facts concerning the "dark" side of the Vatican's un-godly history.

A 700-page, 8½" X 11" embossed paperback, with over 100 rare photographs AND a Gift CD-ROM with 13 rare, out-of-print books used in the researching of VATICAN ASSASSINS.

CD-ROM INCLUDED!

All for ONLY $34.95 (+S/H)

Order Yours
Today!

Available from Wisdom Books & Press. Please see next-to-last page for ordering information or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

INVISIBILITY & LEVITATION : A How To GUIDE TO PERSONAL PERFORMANCE

BY COMMANDER X

Methods utilized by occultists, military, and martial artists to perfect the art of levitation and invisibility. Throughout history only a "super" few have learned to accomplish such seemingly impossible tasks. Were the blocks of the pyramids levitated into place? This is the only how-to book on a very strange topic.

$15.00(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

TIME TRAVEL: A HOW-TO INSIDERS GUIDE

Visit the past and future with safe and proven methods. We have long been taught that time travel is impossible and the work of science fiction, but during the past several decades secret agencies with the U.S. military have successfully been crossing the barriers of space and time. Here is the shattering evidence that we are being visited by "time surfers" from the future, and that we too can journey forward and backwards in time.

$15.00(+S/H)

About The Author: Commander X is formerly of military intelligence, having worked on several classified projects. Tim Swartz is Emmy award-winning journalist.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

SUBTERRANEAN WORLDS INSIDE EARTH

BY TIM BECKLEY

Is the Earth hollow? Is our planet honeycombed with caverns inhabited by mysterious races? Are there civilizations of super beings living beneath the surface of the Earth? Are the residents of this subsurface world friendly, or do they have our domination in mind? Here are strange and unexplainable legions of the "Wee People", the Dero, and long-haired Atlantean giants as encountered by cave explorers and miners trapped far beneath the Earth.

$12.50(+S/H)

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

Children Of The Matrix

How an interdimensional race has controlled the world for thousands of years—and still does!

We are born into a world controlled by unseen forces that have plagued and manipulated humanity for thousands of years. No, this is no script from a Hollywood movie. It is happening to you NOW.

You may look around and think that what you see is "real". But in truth you are living in an illusion. An illusion designed to keep you in a mental, emotional, and spiritual prison cell.

Icke exposes these forces and their methods of human control and reveals a fantastic web of global manipulation, orchestrated by forces beyond this physical realm.

He exposes the hidden bloodlines, through which other-dimensional entities live and operate unseen among us; and he shows how the bloodlines of the royal, political, and economic rulers of today are the same as those who ruled as the kings and queens of ancient times.

Icke takes the story on from his highly acclaimed And The Truth Shall Set You Free and The Biggest Secret, and he lifts still further the veil of secrecy that has maintained humanity in manipulated ignorance for so long.

The truth is not only out there.

Much of it is right here.

See next-to-last page for ordering or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.

493 pages $24.95 (+S/H)

$12.50 (+S/H)

THE MISSING DIARY OF ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD

"I must write this diary in secrecy and obscurity. It concerns my arctic flight of the nineteenth day of February in the year of nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

"There comes a time when the rationality of men must fade into insignificance, and one must accept the inevitability of the Truth! I am not at liberty to disclose the following documentation at this writing, perhaps it shall never see the light of public scrutiny, but I must do my Duty and record here for all to read one day in a world which hopefully the greed and exploitation of certain of mankind can no longer suppress that which is Truth."

—Admiral Richard E. Byrd (from the Introduction)

See next-to-last page or call toll-free: 1-877-280-2866.