

WAS MICHAEL JACKSON DESTROYED DUE TO HIS FASCINATION WITH ADOLF HITLER?

JACKSON HAD A HUGE COLLECTION OF HITLER MEMORABILIA & FILMS

UK Daily Mail: Jackboot Jacko? New York memorabilia seller claims king of pop kept hoard of Nazi films

25 July 2010

Michael Jackson had a secret stash of Nazi documentaries that he kept at his Neverland home, it's claimed.

He allegedly had a collection of memorabilia and hunted down specialist video sellers who could discreetly sell him hard-to-find films and documentaries, according to the New York Post.

The troubled pop star seemed obsessed with Adolf Hitler's regime

Nazi memorabilia seller Norman Scherer claims to have helped Jackson form 'a really good collection',

Scherer goes on to claim in the Post that Jackson didn't even try to hide the videos, displaying them on the walls of his video vault at his Neverland Ranch.

But clearly Jackson, who often wore military-style clothing, was not comfortable sharing his Hitler obsession with other people. Scherer explains that he was approached by a New Yorker in 1995 who was trying to make orders for a 'big client' who insisted on discretion and privacy.

And he was warned that the deal couldn't happen if Scherer, who owned a videotape distribution company in the Nineties, wasn't discreet. Despite having first-hand knowledge of Jackson's secret obsession, Scherer doesn't think that Jackson's interest in Hitler had any worrying connotations. Scherer says he assumed that the singer just loved the military uniforms and the goose-step marching.

'Michael Jackson was a very special client to me,' said Scherer.

Jackson's collection was extensive. (above is not Jackson's)

JACKSON MUST HAVE ADMIRED HITLER'S VEGETARIANISM AND LOVE OF ANIMALS

The vegetarian Jackson adored animals. Given Jackson's fascination and study of Hitler, he would surely have come to know of, and identify with, Hitler's own vegetarianism and love of animals.

JACKSON MUST HAVE ADMIRED HITLER'S LOVE OF CHILDREN

Deprived of his own childhood, Jackson filled the void by surrounding himself with children. Contrary to the media attacks against him, this was innocent and pure. Given Jackson's fascination and study of Hitler, he would surely have come to know of, and identify with, Hitler's own playful love of children.

JACKSON'S SIGNATURE COLORS WERE RED & BLACK

JACKSON OFTEN WORE MILITARY STYLE JACKETS & MEDALS

JACKSON WORE HITLER STYLE ARMBAND

Even Jackson's adopted son gets into the act.

JACKSON PRAISED HITLER AS A "GENIUS SHOWMAN"

During an interview with a Jewish Rabbi - Journalist, Jackson said: "Hitler was a genius orator. To make that many people turn and change and hate, he had to be a showman and he was."

(The part "turn and change and hate" was likely intended to cover himself in front of the Rabbi).

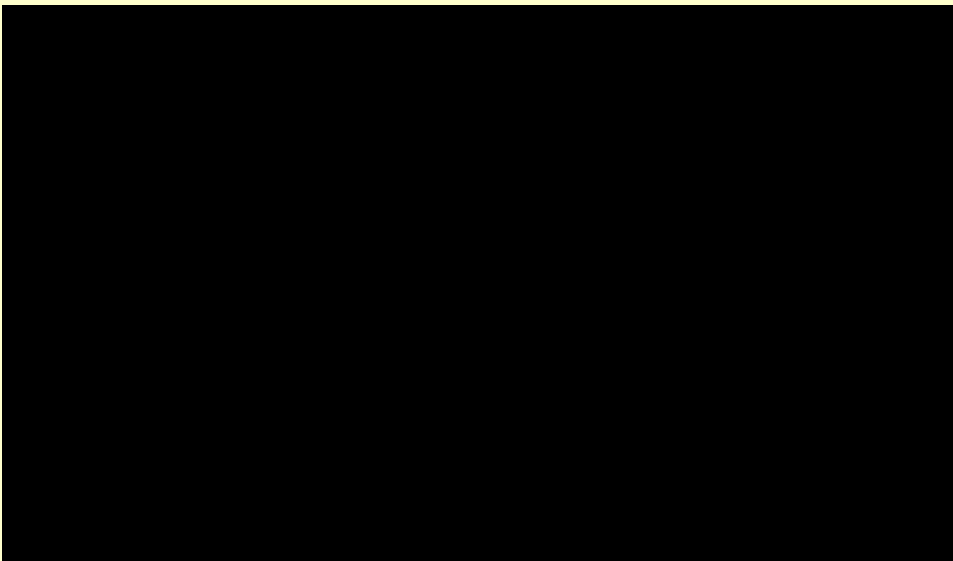

JACKSON CONDEMNED CONSPIRATORIAL JEWS AS BLOODSUCKERS!

Jackson's 1996 Hit song "They Don't Really Care About Us" includes the lyric: "Jew me. Sue me. Kick me. Kike me."

The singer also once stated, ON TAPE,

"They (Jews) suck - they're like leeches. I'm so tired of it. They start out the most popular person in the world, make a lot of money, big house, cars, and everything, end up with, penniless. It is conspiracy. The Jews do it on purpose."

JACKSON WAS FALSELY ACCUSED BY THE JEWISH MEDIA

FALSE accusations of child molestation were widely publicized, but never questioned:

* "The trial that was relayed to us didn't even resemble the trial that was going on inside the courtroom". - Charles Thomson, The Huffington Post, "One of the Most Shameful Episodes In Journalistic History", (2010)

 "Out here...Michael Jackson is being literally crucified...I think if you did a pulse poll, of people listening to these local talk shows, they would say 95% that Michael Jackson did all this...because it's based on the coverage." - Matt Drudge (The Drudge Report)

Jackson loved children. He only surrounded himself with them to make up for his own lost childhood.

The false charges against him were leveled by a greedy con man, a welfare Queen, and the media.

Was the character assassination of 'The King of Pop' (and perhaps even the curious drug overdose given to him) related to his admiration of Hitler and known 'anti-semitism' towards the Big Jews of the music industry? OF COURSE IT WAS!